÷Genesis 1:5

Right here in the 5th verse of the Set-apart Scriptures, we see the definition of a 24-hour day. When it says, "Dusk came and dawn came, day one" we understand that the dawn stated here ends THE FIRST DAY of creation. If dawn ends the first day, then the previous dawn BEGAN THE FIRST DAY of creation. You see, dusk and dawn are a point in time made up of a mixture, dusk is a mixture of daylight and darkness. Dawn is a mixture of darkness and daylight. Whenever you see the word dusk, you know there was approximately a 12-hour period of daylight preceeding the dusk. The same with the word dawn, you know there was approximately a 12-hour period of darkness that preceeded the dawn. These two 12-hour periods of time make up the 24-hour day as we know it. The Hebrew is quite clear here in verse 5; by stating dusk first, we know the first 12 hours of creation happened during the daylight hours of the first day of creation. Then, we see that dawn ended the first day of creation, meaning that if there was any creativity happening in the second 12-hour period of day one, it happened during the darkness of night, ending day one at dawn (which began day two), just as the Scriptures state. Here are a couple links to track dawn and dusk, if you wish:

The Vernal Equinox is a sign in the heavens and it defines the ending and beginning of our biblical calendar year. Day 1 of our year is the day after the Vernal Equinox. We count 364 biblical days from dawn to dawn, then begin again the day after the next Vernal Equinox. The equinoxes and the solstices close the quarters and add 1 day to the 3rd, 6th, 9th, and 12th months.

Dr. Gerald E. Aardsma's Genesis 6:1-8 translation:

1Now it came about, when Homo sapiens began to multiply on the face of the land, and female offspring were born to them, 2that male Homo neanderthalensis offspring saw that female Homo sapiens offspring were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves, whomever they chose. 4The resulting hybrid offspring were on the earth both in those ancient days, and also into more recent times—whenever male Homo neanderthalensis bred with female Homo sapiens and they bore to them. The resulting hybrid offspring were the source of mighty men who were of old, men of renown. 5Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. 6And the Lord was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. 3Then the Lord said, "My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; nevertheless his days shall be one hundred and twenty years." 7And the Lord said, "I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, from man to animals to creeping things and to birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them." 8But Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord.

Phillip Du Preez's short teaching on this verse:
Phillip Du Preez

"I AM"… OR "I WILL BE"?
The Hidden Meaning of Yehowah's Name That Most Bibles Never Explain
For generations, millions have read Exodus 3:14 like this:

"I AM THAT I AM."
But what if that translation only scratches the surface?
What if Yehowah wasn't simply declaring that He exists…
What if He was revealing how He works?
The Hebrew says:
אֶהְיֶה אֲשֶׁר אֶהְיֶה
Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh
Most English Bibles render it:
"I AM THAT I AM."
But the Hebrew verb Ehyeh comes from hayah, meaning:
To be
To become
To exist
To happen
To come to pass
Here's where it gets fascinating.
The word Ehyeh is not a simple present-tense verb. It is in the imperfect form—a Hebrew verb form that often describes ongoing or future action.
So it can also mean:
"I WILL BE."
That changes everything.
Instead of saying:
"I AM THAT I AM."
Yehowah could just as accurately be saying:
"I WILL BE WHO I WILL BE."
Or even:
"I WILL PROVE TO BE WHATEVER I CHOOSE TO BE."
Think about the context.
Moses asks:
"What is Your Name?"
Yehowah doesn't hand Moses a dictionary definition.
He reveals His character.
Almost immediately before this, He tells Moses:
"Certainly I WILL BE with you." (Exodus 3:12)
The exact same Hebrew word appears:
Ehyeh.
Then two verses later He says:

"Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh."
This isn't a coincidence.
The message is not merely:
"I exist."
The message is:
"I WILL BE WITH YOU."
"I will be everything My people need Me to be."
When Israel needs a Deliverer...
He will be there.
When they need a Shepherd...
He will be there.
When they need a Judge...
He will be there.
When they need Healing...
He will be there.
When they need Mercy...
He will be there.
When they need Justice...
He will be there.
Yehowah is not limited to one title or one function.
Unlike the pagan deities of the nations—each assigned a narrow role—Yehowah declares that no human title can contain Him.
He is the Eternal One who faithfully reveals Himself throughout history according to His covenant purposes.
Then comes another amazing detail.
Immediately after saying Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh, He tells Moses:
"Say to the children of Israel, 'Ehyeh has sent me to you.'"
And in the very next verse He declares:
"YHWH... this is My Name forever."
Many Hebrew scholars understand Ehyeh ("I will be") and YHWH to be closely connected through the Hebrew root hayah ("to be"). While the exact derivation is debated, the relationship points to the same truth:
The One speaking says, "I will be."
His people speak of Him as:
"He is."
His Name is not just about existence.
It is about faithfulness.

It is about presence.
It is about keeping covenant.
Every generation discovers another aspect of who He is, yet He never changes.
Perhaps the greatest revelation hidden in Exodus 3 is this:
Yehowah did not simply tell Moses His Name.
He gave Israel a promise.
"I WILL BE."
Not just yesterday.
Not just today.
But tomorrow.
Forever.
Maybe the greatest meaning of "Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh" isn't "I AM"...
It's "I WILL BE THERE."
And if He could be there for Moses...
He can still be there for you.
End Phillip's teaching

The transliteration: haYAH asher haYAH. Alternative for I AM Who I AM: He who was Yah is still Yah. Or, I AM What I AM. Or, Ahayah, He Who exists. Or, I exist because I exist. Or, I breathe and I have breath.

Dr. Aardsma believes 1,000 years of Bible chronology was lost through copyist error. Meaning, we should change the 480 years to 1,480 years in 1 Kings 6:1, leaving a gap of 1,480 years from the

Exodus to Solomon's 4th year. Story of a 2,700-Year-Old Massebah in Judah
Archaeologists have unearthed a large massebah in the remains of a house from the site of Tel 'Eton in Israel. They believe it gives important new evidence for King Hezekiah of Judah's war on idols spoken of in the Bible.
Standing stones, also known as masseboth (singular: massebah) in Hebrew, were enigmatic stones from the Bronze and Iron Ages that were set up to commemorate significant events (often related to covenants) and had religious significance. They were often put in highly visible locations and could have different functions such as boundary markers or victory stela. Researchers think they may have represented the presence of God or pagan gods (or sometimes even revered ancestors) to the people who erected them.

http://thescripturalcalendar.com/364-day-360-day-and-365-day-calendars/

In a full day we have 24 hours with each hour having 60 minutes. But in the hours of daylight, we have half this amount ~ 12 hours.
360 degree circle (on a sundial) divided by 12 hours of sunlight (average day) = 30 degrees per hour.
1/3rd of an hour equals 20 minutes.
1/3rd of 30 degrees is 10 degrees.
10 degrees would therefore equal 20 minutes.
So, when the shadow moved backwards 10 degrees, this added an extra 20 minutes per day. So how long does that add to a year?
20 minutes per day x 360 days = 7200 extra minutes per year.
7200 extra minutes per year / 60 minutes in an hour = 120 hours per year.
120 extra hours per year / 24 hours in a day = 5 days per year.
So over a year, around 5 extra days had been added to the original 360 day year which now results in a year with 365.2422 days. This is what I [website blogger] believe to have caused all these nations to change their calendar as they were following a solar year according to what was grown in the fields. This quickly caused all the calendars to be out so much so that cultures had no choice but to revise them.

Without writing an entire Bible chronology essay here, just let me say that Ezekiel was the one prophet/priest in the entire Bible who tracked the Jubilee cycle. Compare Ezekiel 1:1-2 with Ezekiel 40:1. The 30th year that Ezekiel was talking about in verse one is the 30th year of the 50-year Jubilee Cycle. You can easily count down the 20 years between Eze. 1:1 in 594 BC to the Jubilee year announced in Eze. 40:1 in 574 BC. This is what Bible chronologists call a synchronism. Ezekiel's Jubilee Cycle can be followed all the way down to modern times. See my Bible Chronology spreadsheet on my website at https://www.fmcmi.org/downloads

See my note for Ezekiel 1:1. In Eze. 40:1 Ezekiel announces the Jubilee year by using the phrase Rosh HaShanah as our clue. This is the ONLY place in the entire Bible that I can find this phrase used in the Hebrew. Again we see a Bible chronology synchronism in that 14 years after the City of Jerusalem was captured in 587 BC is this year of 574 BC in Eze. 40:1, which is 20 years after Ezekiel's statement in Eze. 1:1, the 30th year of the Jubilee Cycle, in 594 BC. Ezekiel's proven synchronized Jubilee Cycle can be tracked all the way to modern times. See my Bible Chronology spreadsheet on my website at: https://www.fmcmi.org/downloads

Therefore, what Yehowah has joined together, let no one tear apart (put or send away without the Writ of Divorce)." Yeshua was simply confirming the Law of Deuteronomy 24. Reconciliation/restoration is lawful (Jubilee Law). Divorce is lawful (Mosaic Law). Separation is unlawful (Yeshua Law); therefore a separated couple needs to move from an unlawful to a lawful status to bring order back to the Kingdom in their lives. A simple principle, really, once the Light comes on. A separated couple either needs to get back together as man and wife, or they need to get a lawful divorce done in writing.

WHY NO ONE WILL KNOW THE DAY OR THE HOUR

https://www.fmcmi.org/post/why-no-one-will-know-the-day-or-the-hour

Matthew 24:36, "But concerning that Day and hour, no one knows, not even the angels of Heaven, nor the Son, but only the heavenly Father" (Mar. 13:32; SOMB).

Yeshua really turned the prophetic world upside down when he stated that no one will know the Day or the Hour of his return to earth thousands of years after he walked the earth. But why won't anyone know the Day or the Hour? That is our topic today.

The quick answer is Proverbs 12:1, "Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but the one who hates correction is stupid." And similarly in Jeremiah 10:21, "For the shepherds have become stupid. They do not seek Yehowah. So they have no success; all their flocks are scattered." (SOMB) That hurts and is offensive, Lord. It's a good thing he forgives us and keeps teaching us his wisdom.

A few days ago, Yehowah woke me up and inspired me to count up the Biblical Solar Calendar days and write them on my 2026 appointment calendar. But Lord, I have done this many times before. Nobody really cares about your Biblical Solar Calendar, so I really don't want to do this again. Nobody listens. But I did it anyway.

The quick lesson, Yehowah begins his Biblical Solar Calendar year at the Vernal Equinox, the first day of Spring. I've confirmed this before with the teaching from Noah's Flood, titled, "How Did Noah Know?". It's posted on our blog in 2020, or you can write to me for that Bible Study. Or click these links: Watch the video on youtube: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HOqzIyl10t4

Posted on Our Daily Drink Blog here: https://www.fmcmi.org/post/how-did-noah-know-1 The key verse is Genesis 8:13, where Yehowah shows us that Noah knew when the first day of the new year was, while still living inside the Ark! How Did Noah Know? Well, the short answer is that Noah had been observing the Vernal Equinox for at least 580 years before the Flood!

Ok, back to 2026. I felt the Lord tell me that day 181 is the 1st day of the 7th month, the Day of Trumpets. Ok, that's simple enough; six 30-day months, then comes day 181, the 1st day of the 7th month. As I recall, I had never thought of it from that day of the year count before. So, I wrote down the Solar Calendar days of the year from March 20, 2026, the day of the Vernal, or Spring, Equinox; the first day of Spring and the 1st day of the new Biblical Solar Calendar year. Day 1, month 1, just like Noah taught me in Genesis 8:13. I wrote down each day's number through the Fall Feasts, the Last Great Day to be exact, onto my large paper 2026 calendar. You won't believe what jumped off the page at me and slapped me back and forth for a few seconds. We'll answer that in a minute.

You know, most of the Jews of the world, and most of the Messianic Jews of the world, and most of the Hebrew Roots folks of the world, follow the Babylonish Lunar or a Luni-Solar calendar to celebrate Yehowah's annual Feasts. Of course they all call it the Biblical Calendar, but it is not the Biblical calendar. The Jewish calendar and all of the Messianic renditions and knock-offs of the Jewish calendar are heresy and false doctrine. The Jews picked up the Lunar calendar while in exile in Babylon! It's a pagan Babylonish calendar that has nothing to do with Yehowah's Set-apart Scriptures or his Biblical Solar Calendar. Sometime, about 2,600 years ago, the Torah believers, the people of faith, Yehowah's people, went stupid. I didn't say that first, Yehowah did. Anyway, the Messianics and Hebrew Roots folks followed the pagan Jews into heresy in regards to Yah's Biblical Solar Calendar.

Ok, back to writing on my 2026 appointment calendar. Looking at the 2026 date for what the Jews call the first day of their civil new year, Rosh HaShana, is marked on September 12, 2026. My Google Calendar shows that the Jews may be celebrating the Day of Trumpets, the Biblical Feast of Trumpets, the 1st day of the seventh month, from Friday night September 11, through Sunday, Sept. 13, 2026. 2-3 days for a one day Feast. That's error right there, but that's another teaching for another time.

So prophetic-minded Christians who are even interested in the Rapture, or Pre-Trib Rapture, if they think it might happen this year, would expect to be raptured on Sabbath, Sept. 12, 2026. They will be disappointed this year on that day, and every year in the future, as long as they keep using the heretical Lunar calendar of the Jews and Messianic Jews.

Guess when the First Day of the Seventh Month, the Day of Trumpets, the Feast of Trumpets, actually occurs on Yehowah's Biblical Solar Calendar? Which day in September is the 181st day of Yah's Calendar year? It actually occurs four days LATER, on Wednesday, Sept. 16, 2026! Gotcha! Remember, lunar calendar months are shorter than regular months, that's why there is a time difference between Day of Trumpets on the Lunar calendar and the Day of Trumpets on the Biblical Solar Calendar. I had not really noticed that before.

This is why no one will know the day or the hour of Messiah Yeshua's return to earth to set up his Millennial Reign in Jerusalem. Even the so-called faith world is following the beastly system, at a minimum, the beast system's calendars. We've all gone stupid over the world's foolishness. I mean, really, how many people do you know who count out Yehowah's Biblical Solar Calendar each year, like Noah, and live by it, according to the Scriptures, like Noah did? How many ignore and refuse to celebrate the Pope's holidays on his Gregorian calendar? How many people do you know who count out Yehowah's Biblical Solar calendar and write or print it out on paper and use it to celebrate Yehowah's Feasts on his calendar? I don't know many.

We will probably celebrate Day of Trumpets with friends on Sabbath, Sept. 12, 2026. Why? Because I'm too tired to argue for Yehowah, for his Biblical Solar Calendar, for his Biblical Feasts. We're going to celebrate on year day 177, instead of on year day 181, because I'm tired. We may miss an incredible Rapture day revelation, because I'm tired. It's not an excuse. We could celebrate on year day 181, Wed. Sept. 16, 2026, but will it truly honor Yehowah, if I don't warn my friends and family about why they will not know the Day or the Hour of Messiah's return, according to Matthew 24:36? The Father knows, Yeshua now knows, we know now, but will we teach the truth of Scripture or kow tow to the beastly calendar system?

If I live long enough, I'll see you in the Rapture. If not, I'll see you in the Resurrection, upon Messiah's Return, R^3.

9 Concerning the Last Supper Commemoration

9:1 Concerning the Last Supper commemoration, give thanks this way.

9:2 First, concerning the cup: We thank you, our Father, for the set-apart vine of David your servant, which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

9:3 Next, concerning the broken bread: We thank you, our Father, for the life and knowledge which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

9:4 Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills, and was gathered together and became oneness, so let your congregation be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom. To you is the glory and the power through Yeshua Messiah forever.

9:5 Allow no one to eat or drink of your Last Supper commemoration, unless they have been immersed in the name of the Lord. For concerning this, the Lord has said, "Do not give what is set apart to dogs."

((Judaism preserves an ancient after-meals prayer of thanksgiving that is still recited today. The four blessings of the traditional Grace after Meals can be found in any Jewish prayer book. The oldest version of Grace after Meals is preserved in the Didache. This early, Apostolic-age Grace after Meals was composed by early believers. They recited it together after ceremonial community meals conducted in remembrance of Yeshua to fulfill the commandment of Deuteronomy 8:10. Like the traditional Jewish version of Grace after Meals, it consists of four blessings thanking Yehowah for provision and looking forward to the Messianic Era:
We thank You, our holy Father, for Your holy name that You have caused to dwell in our hearts, and for the knowledge, faithfulness, and eternal life that You have made known to us through Your servant Yeshua. Yours is the glory forever. (Amen)
You, O Mighty One of Legions, created all things for the sake of Your name; You gave nourishment and drink for human beings to enjoy, in order that they would give thanks to You. You also bestowed upon us spiritual nourishment and drink and eternal life through Your Servant. And for all things, we thank You, because You are powerful. Yours is the glory forever. (Amen)
Remember, O Yehowah, Your congregation to rescue her from all evil, and to make her complete in Your love. Gather the betrothed from the four winds to Your kingdom that You have prepared for her. For Yours is the power and the glory forever. (Amen)
May grace come and may this world pass away. Hoshana to the Mighty One of David! Everyone who is set apart, let him come. Everyone who is not, let him repent. Maran Etha! ["Our Master is coming!"] Amen.1

"Around this time there lived Yeshua, a wise man, if indeed one ought to call him a man. For he was one who did surprising deeds, and a teacher of such people as accept the truth gladly. He won over many Jews and many of the non-Jews. He was Messiah. When Pilate, upon hearing him accused by men of the highest standing among us, had condemned him to be crucified, those who in the first place came to love him did not give up their affection for him, for on the third day, he appeared to them restored to life. The prophets of Yehowah had prophesied this and countless other marvelous things about him. And the tribe of Messianics, so called after him, have still to this day not died out." In biblical times, the concept of one hanging himself was commonly understood to mean someone threw themselves onto their sword, thus Judas Iscariot hanged himself on his sword, bursting open his body, causing his intestines to pour out. Thus Acts 1:18 and Matthew 27:5 are in harmony with each other. See also 1 Samuel 31:4-5 for the example of King Saul.

This is a Hebrew idiom meaning, "Let the responsibility and punishment for his murder be upon us!" It was the Sadducees who shouted out this curse upon themselves, not the entire Hebrew nation. The Zealots and the Sadducees were wiped out in the war against the Romans in 68-70 AD.

INTRODUCTION FROM FFOZ: "Early Jewish believers in Yeshua created a catechism for new disciples from among the nations. Lost for hundreds of years, this document, the Didache, reveals the expectations and standards the early Yeshua-believing community put in place for Gentile disciples of Yeshua. Our guest today, Dr. Daniel Nessim, has spent his academic career demonstrating that the first disciples of Yeshua considered the Torah to be the moral compass of all those who joined the community of disciples, whether Jewish or Gentile." https://ffoz.org/messiah/podcast/didache-torah-for-gentiles

The Didache

The Complete Text

1 There Are Two Ways

1:1 There are two ways, one of life and one of death! And there is a great difference between the two ways.

1:2 The Way of life is this: First, you shall love Yehowah who made you. And second, love your neighbor as yourself, and do not do to another what you would not want done to you.

1:3 The meaning of these sayings is this: Bless those who curse you, and pray for your enemies, and fast for those who persecute you. For what reward is there for loving those who love you? Do not the heathens do the same? But you should love those who hate you, and then you shall have no enemies.

1:4 Abstain from fleshly and bodily lusts: If someone strikes your right cheek, turn the other also, and be perfect. If someone forces you to go one kilometer, go two. If someone takes your cloak, give also your coat. If someone takes from you what is yours, don't ask for it back. You really cannot.

1:5 Give to every one who asks you, and don't ask for it back. The Father wants his blessings shared. Happy is the giver who lives according to this rule, for that one is guiltless. But the receiver must beware; for if one receives who has need, he is guiltless, but if one receives not having need, he shall stand trial, answering why he received and for what use. If he is found guilty he shall not escape until he pays back the last penny.

1:6 However, concerning this, there is a saying: "Let your alms sweat in your hands until you know to whom to give them."

2 The Second Commandment

2:1 The second commandment of the teaching is this:

2:2 Do not commit murder; do not commit adultery; do not corrupt boys; do not have illicit sex; do not steal; do not practice magic; do not practice witchcraft; you shall not murder a child, whether it be born or unborn (abortion). Do not covet the things of your neighbor.

2:3 Do not swear or bear false witness. Do not speak evil of others; do not bear grudges.

2:4 You should not be double-minded or double-tongued, for a double-tongue is a deadly snare.

2:5 Your speech should not be false nor empty, but fulfilled by action.

2:6 Do not be covetous, or greedy, or hypocritical, or malicious, or arrogant. Do not have designs against your neighbor.

2:7 Hate no one; correct some, pray for others, and some you should love more than your own life.

3 My Child, Flee Evil

3:1 My child, flee evil of all kinds, and everything like it.

3:2 Don't be prone to anger, for anger leads to murder. Don't be jealous or quarrelsome or hot-tempered, for all these things lead to murder.

3:3 My child, don't be lustful, for lust leads to illicit sex. Don't be a filthy talker or allow your eyes a free reign, for these lead to adultery.

3:4 My child, don't observe omens, since it leads to idolatry. Don't be an enchanter, or an astrologer, or a purifier, or be willing to see or hear about these things, for these all lead to idolatry.

3:5 My child, don't be a liar, since a lie leads to theft. Don't love money or seek glory, for these things lead to thievery.

3:6 My child, don't grumble, since it leads to blasphemy, and don't be self-willed or evil-minded, for all these things lead to blasphemy.

3:7 On the contrary, be gentle, since the gentle will inherit the earth.

3:8 Be long-suffering and pitiful and guileless and gentle and good, and with trembling, treasure the words you have received.

3:9 Don't exalt yourself or open your heart to overconfidence. Don't be on intimate terms with mighty people, but with just and lowly ones.

3:10 Accept whatever happens to you as a blessing, knowing that nothing comes to pass apart from Yehowah.

4 My Child, Remember

[4:1 My child, remember day and night him who speaks the word of Yehowah to you, and honor him as the Lord. For wherever his lordship is spoken of, there he is.]

4:2 Seek each day the faces of the saints, in order that you may be refreshed by their words.

4:3 Do not initiate divisions, but rather bring shalom to those who contend against one another. Judge righteously, and do not take social status into account when reproving for transgressions.

4:4 Do not waver in your decisions.

4:5 Do not be one who opens his hands to receive, or closes them when it is time to give.

4:6 If you have anything, by your hands you should give ransom for your sins.

4:7 Do not hesitate to give, and do not complain about it. You will know in time who is the good Rewarder.

4:8 Do not turn away from one who is in want; rather, share all things with your brother, and do not say that they are your own. For if you are sharers in what is imperishable, how much more in things which perish!

4:9 Do not remove your hand from your son or daughter; teach them the fear of Yehowah from their youth.

4:10 Do not give orders to your servants when you are angry, for they hope in the same Almighty, and they may lose the fear of Yehowah, who is over both of you. Yehowah is surely not coming to call on us according to our outward appearance or station in life, but to them whom the Ruach has prepared.

4:11 And you, servants, be subject to your masters as to Yehowah's image, in modesty and fear.

4:12 You should hate all hypocrisy and everything which is not pleasing to the Lord.

4:13 Do not in any way neglect the commandments of the Lord, but keep what you have received, neither adding nor taking away anything.

4:14 In your gatherings, confess your transgressions, and do not come for prayer with a guilty conscience.

This is the Way of life!

5 The Way of Death

5:1 The way of death, on the other hand, is this: It is evil and accursed —murders, adulteries, lust, illicit sex, thefts, idolatries, magical arts, sorceries, robberies, false testimonies, hypocrisy, double-heartedness, deceit, haughtiness, depravity, self-will, greediness, filthy talking, jealousy, over-confidence, loftiness, boastfulness—those who do not fear Yehowah.

5:2 The way of death is the way of those who persecute the good, hate the truth, love lies, and do not understand the reward for righteousness. They do not cleave to good or righteous judgment; they do not watch for what is good, but for what is evil. They are strangers to meekness and patience, loving vanities, pursuing revenge, without pity for the needy and oppressed. They do not know their Creator; they are murderers of children (includes abortion), destroyers of Yehowah's image. They turn away from those who are in need, making matters worse for those who are distressed. They are advocates for the rich, unjust judges of the poor. In a word, the way of death is full of those who are steeped in sin. Be delivered, children, from all of this!

6 See That No One Leads You Astray

6:1 See that no one leads you astray from the Way of this teaching, since all other teachings train you without Yehowah.

6:2 For if you are able to bear the entire yoke of the Lord, you will be perfect; but if you are not able, then at least do what you can.

6:3 Concerning food, do what you are able to do and be on guard against meat offered to idols, for that is to worship dead deities.

7 Concerning Immersion

7:1 Concerning immersion, you should immerse this way: After first explaining all things, immerse in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of Ruach Ha'Kodesh, in flowing water.

7:2 But if you have no running water, immerse in other water; and if you cannot do so in cold water, then in warm.

7:3 If you have very little, pour water three times on the head in the name of the Father and the Son and Ruach Kodesh.

7:4 Before the immersion, both the immerser and the candidate for immersion, plus any others who can, should fast. The candidate should fast for one or two days beforehand.

8 Your Fasts and Prayers

8:1 Your fasts should not be with the hypocrites, for they fast on Mondays and Thursdays. You should fast on Wednesdays and Fridays.

8:2 And do not pray like the hypocrites, but rather as the Lord commanded in the gospel: Our Father in heaven, set apart be your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us enough bread day-by-day. And forgive us our sin debts, as we also have forgiven those who sin against us. And do not bring us to the time of trial, but rescue us from the evil one.

8:3 Pray this three times each day.

9 Concerning the Last Supper Commemoration

9:1 Concerning the Last Supper commemoration, give thanks this way.

9:2 First, concerning the cup: We thank you, our Father, for the set-apart vine of David your servant, which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

9:3 Next, concerning the broken bread: We thank you, our Father, for the life and knowledge which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

9:4 Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills, and was gathered together and became oneness, so let your congregation be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom. To you is the glory and the power through Yeshua Messiah forever.

9:5 Allow no one to eat or drink of your Last Supper commemoration, unless they have been immersed in the name of the Lord. For concerning this, the Lord has said, "Do not give what is set apart to dogs."

10 After the Last Supper commemoration

10:1 After the Last Supper commemoration when you are filled, give thanks this way:

10:2 We thank you, set-apart Father, for your set-apart name which you enshrined in our hearts, and for the knowledge and faith and immortality that you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

10:3 You, Master Yehowah, have created all things for your name's sake. You gave food and drink to all people for enjoyment, that they might give thanks to you; but to us you freely give spiritual food and drink and life eternal through Yeshua, your servant.

10:4 Before all things we thank you because you are mighty. To you be the glory forever.

10:5 Remember, Lord, your congregation. Deliver it from all evil and make it perfect in your love, and gather it from the four winds sanctified for your kingdom which you have prepared for it. For Yours is the power and the glory forever.

10:6 Let grace come, and let this world pass away!

Hosanna to the Son of David! If anyone is set apart, let him come; if anyone is not set apart, let him repent. Maranatha! Amen.

[10:7 But permit the prophets to make thanksgiving as much as they desire.]

11 Welcome the Teacher

11:1 Welcome the teacher when he comes to instruct you in all that has been said.

11:2 But if he turns and trains you in another tradition to the destruction of this teaching, do not listen. If he teaches so as to increase righteousness and the knowledge of the Lord, receive him as the Lord.

11:3 Act according to the precepts of the gospel concerning all apostles and prophets:

11:4 Let every apostle who comes to you be received as the Lord.

11:5 But he must not remain more than one day, or two, if there's a need. If he stays three days, he is a false prophet.

11:6 And when the apostle goes away, let him take nothing but bread to last him until his next night of lodging. If he asks for money, he is a false prophet.

11:7 In addition, if any prophet speaks in the Ruach, you shall not try or judge him; for every sin will be forgiven, but this sin cannot be forgiven.

11:8 But not everyone who speaks in the Ruach is a prophet; only he is a prophet who has the Ways of the Lord about him. By their ways will the false prophet and the prophet be known.

11:9 Any prophet who orders a meal in the Ruach does not eat it; if he does, he is indeed a false prophet.

11:10 And any prophet who teaches the truth, but does not do what he teaches, is a false prophet.

11:11 When a prophet, proved true, works for the mystery of the congregation in the world but does not teach others to do what he himself does, he will not be judged among you, for his judgment is already before Yehowah. The ancient prophets acted in this Way, also.

11:12 But whoever says in the Ruach, "Give me money,"or something else like this, you must not listen to him. But if he tells you to give for the sake of others who are in need, let no one judge him.

12 Welcome Anyone Coming in the Name of the Lord

12:1 Welcome anyone coming in the name of the Lord. Receive everyone who comes in the name of the Lord, but then, test them and use your discretion.

12:2 If he who comes is a transient, assist him as far as you are able; but he should not remain with you more than two or three days, if need be.

12:3 If he wants to stay with you, and is a craftsman, let him work for his living.

12:4 But if he has no trade, use your judgment in providing for him; for a Messianic should not live idle in your midst.

12:5 If he is dissatisfied with this sort of an arrangement, he is a Messiah peddler. Watch that you keep away from such people.

13 Every Genuine prophet

13:1 Every genuine prophet who wants to live among you is worthy of support.

13:2 So also, every true teacher is, like a workman, entitled to his support.

13:3 Every first fruit, therefore, of the products of vintage and harvest, of cattle and of sheep, should be given as first fruits to the prophets, for they are your high priests.

13:4 But if you have no prophet, give it all to the poor.

13:5 If you bake bread, take the first loaf and give it according to the commandment.

13:6 If you open a new jar of wine or of oil, take the first fruit and give it to the prophets.

13:7 If you acquire money or cloth or any other possession, set aside a portion first, as it may seem good to you, and give according to the commandment.

14 On the Sabbath Day

14:1 On the Sabbath day, gather yourselves together and break bread, give thanks, but first confess your sins so that your sacrifice may be pure.

14:2 However, let no one who is at odds with his brother come together with you, until he has reconciled, so that your sacrifice may not be profaned.

14:3 For this is what the Lord has said: "For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name is great among the ethnicities, and in every place incense is offered to my name, and a pure offering; for my name is great among the ethnicities, says the Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces. . . . For I am a great King, says the Lord of the heavenly armed forces, and my name is reverenced among the ethnicities."

15 Appoint Elders for Yourselves

15:1 Appoint elders for yourselves, as well as deacons, worthy of the Lord, of meek disposition, unattached to money, truthful and proven; for they also render to you the service of prophets and teachers.

15:2 Do not despise them, after all, for they are your honored ones, together with the prophets and teachers.

15:3 And reprove one another, not in anger, but in shalom, as you have it in the gospel. But to anyone who acts amiss against another, let no one speak to him, nor let him hear anything from you until he repents. But your prayers and alms and all your deeds so do, as you have it in the gospel of our Lord.

16 Watch Over Your Life

16:1 Watch over your life, that your lamps are never quenched, and that your loins are never unloosed. Be ready, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming.

16:2 Come together often, seeking the things that are good for your souls. A life of faith will not profit you if you are not made perfect at the end of time.

16:3 For in the last days false prophets and corrupters will be plenty, and the sheep will be turned into wolves, and love will be turned into hate.

16:4 When lawlessness increases, they will hate and persecute and betray one another, and then the world-deceiver will appear claiming to be the Son of Yehowah, and he will do signs and wonders, and the earth will be delivered into his hands, and he will do iniquitous things that have not been seen since the beginning of the world.

16:5 Then humankind will enter into the fire of trial, and many will be made to stumble and many will perish; but those who endure in their faith will be saved from under the curse itself.

16:6 And then the signs of the truth will appear: the first sign, an opening of the heavens; the second sign, the sounding of the trumpet; and the third sign, the resurrection of the dead—

16:7 not of every one, but as it is said: "Then the Lord my Divine One will come, and all the set-apart ones with him."

16:8 Finally, "Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the heavens, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of the virgin coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory."

They recited it together after ceremonial community meals conducted in remembrance of Yeshua to fulfill the commandment of Deuteronomy 8:10. Like the traditional Jewish version of Grace after Meals, it consists of four blessings thanking Yehowah for provision and looking forward to the Messianic Era:

We thank You, our holy Father, for Your holy name that You have caused to dwell in our hearts, and for the knowledge, faithfulness, and eternal life that You have made known to us through Your servant Yeshua. Yours is the glory forever. (Amen)

You, O Mighty One of Legions, created all things for the sake of Your name; You gave nourishment and drink for human beings to enjoy, in order that they would give thanks to You. You also bestowed upon us spiritual nourishment and drink and eternal life through Your Servant. And for all things, we thank You, because You are powerful. Yours is the glory forever. (Amen)

Remember, O Yehowah, Your congregation to rescue her from all evil, and to make her complete in Your love. Gather the betrothed from the four winds to Your kingdom that You have prepared for her. For Yours is the power and the glory forever. (Amen)

May grace come and may this world pass away. Hoshana to the Mighty One of David! Everyone who is set apart, let him come. Everyone who is not, let him repent. Maran Etha! ["Our Master is coming!"] Amen.1

9:1 Concerning the Last Supper commemoration, give thanks this way.

9:2 First, concerning the cup: We thank you, our Father, for the set-apart vine of David your servant, which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

9:3 Next, concerning the broken bread: We thank you, our Father, for the life and knowledge which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

gathered together and became oneness, so let your congregation be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom. To you is the glory and the power through Yeshua Messiah forever.

say, “Blessed”: “Blessed is the glory of Yehowah from His place.” And in Your holy Writings the following is written: “Yehowah shall reign forever – your Divine One, O Zion – from generation to generation: Praise Yehowah! You are holy and Your Name is holy, and holy ones praise You, every day, forever. Blessed are You, Yehowah, the holy Almighty.”

And may it be good in Your eyes to bless Your people Israel at every time and at every hour, with Your shalom. Blessed are You, Yehowah, Who blessed His people Israel with shalom."

He drew over to him both many of the Jews and many of the non-Jews. He was Messiah. And when Pilate, at the suggestion of the principal men amongst us, had condemned him to the cross, those that loved him at the first did not forsake him; for he appeared to them alive again the third day; as the divine prophets had foretold these and ten thousand other wonderful things concerning him. 9 Concerning the Last Supper Commemoration

9:1 Concerning the Last Supper commemoration, give thanks this way.

9:2 First, concerning the cup: We thank you, our Father, for the set-apart vine of David your servant, which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

9:3 Next, concerning the broken bread: We thank you, our Father, for the life and knowledge which you made known to us through Yeshua your servant. To you be the glory forever.

9:4 Even as this broken bread was scattered over the hills, and was gathered together and became oneness, so let your congregation be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom. To you is the glory and the power through Yeshua Messiah forever.

9:5 Allow no one to eat or drink of your Last Supper commemoration, unless they have been immersed in the name of the Lord. For concerning this, the Lord has said, "Do not give what is set apart to dogs."

WORKS OF THE LAW

By Scott Wieringa

This phrase appears nine times in the writings of Shaul/Paul in the New Testament, especially in Galatians.
It does not refer to obedience to the Law of Moses.
The ancient Dead Sea Scrolls found in the Qumran caves between 1946-1956 confirm that this phrase was used for centuries before Shaul. It refers to strict precepts based on twenty-four extra-biblical purity regulations prepared by a religious sect called the Essenes.
Galatians is not telling us that Yehowah’s law is done away with.
It is telling us that man’s law is done away with. Salvation is by faith alone.

÷2 Timothy 3:16

The Scripture Paul is referring to when writing this letter to Timothy is the Tanach; the Tanach, or First Covenant, was the only written word of Yehowah that 1st century Messianics had for Bible study and reading. It was a few centuries before the New Covenant was pulled together and added to the Canon of Scripture. The 27 books of the New Covenant were canonized in the council of Hippo in 393 AD. This canonization was later affirmed in the council of Carthage in 397 and 419 AD. So, in Paul's eyes, the Tanach was good for discipling new Messianic believers. Meditate on that for awhile.

FAITH - THE LAW OF THE CATALYST

As revealed to Gene W. Benjamin II

Hebrews 11:1, "Now faith is the foundational catalyst of things that are confidently expected. It is the evidence of events that are still not seen."

While meditating this Scripture on Resurrection S-nday evening, April 12, 1998, I wanted to know what faith really is. I was thinking of faith in relation to when I turn on a light switch, expecting and knowing the light will come on the instant (NOW faith is, this I understood) I flip the light switch. Faith is not the light bulb, or the light itself (the EVIDENCE of things not seen, this I understood), or the power that produces the light that is flowing in the wires all the time. It's not the light switch or the power plant downtown. It's not the wires either. Faith is not me, or me walking over to the light switch, or even the action of flipping the switch. The expecting is hope (of things HOPED for, this I understood), the knowing is belief. It's the SUBSTANCE part that I DO NOT UNDERSTAND!! Oh Yehowah, WHAT is FAITH? Words started coming up out of my spirit, words like action, will, and then my knower that I know, that I know that I know spirit settled on the word CATALYST. That's it! I knew that I knew that was it! I grabbed my Webster's Dictionary to see what a catalyst was:

> catalyst 1: a SUBSTANCE [emphasis mine!] (as an enzyme) that initiates a chemical reaction and enables it to proceed under different conditions (as at a lower temperature) than otherwise possible 2: an agent that induces catalysis; broadly: one that provokes significant change

Faith is a catalyst! It's an initiator, a provoker, an inducing agent that allows us to act under different conditions than plain old natural carnal humans. It's what motivates us to step into the realm of the divine, out of the natural and into the supernatural! Yehowah is the power that saves and the power that heals. Faith is the catalyst that causes us to choose with our own free will to believe Yehowah's Word enough to take Him at His Word and therefore to act on His Word. Faith sparks us to choose to lay hands on the sick and see them recover. Faith induces us to choose to receive financial blessing from Yehowah through humans. Faith initiates our willpower to choose to trust Yehowah for salvation in the first place. Faith kindles that fire in our bones to preach Yehowah's Word expecting results like what Yeshua produced!

Faith works with my will, never overriding it, to cause me to act in line, in union, in harmony with Yehowah, His Word, and His will for my life. I have tried for years to figure out with my mind what faith is. Hebrews 4:12 states, "For the word of Yehowah is living, active, and sharper than any two-edged sword. It pierces even to the division of soul from spirit, and joints from marrow. It is able to know the heart's thoughts and intentions." Understanding of Yehowah's Word comes only by revelation through his Ruach Kodesh. You can read, study, and teach the Word of Yehowah out of your soul and never have a spirit understanding of what it is saying or what it really means in the Kingdom of Yehowah. Thank you Yeshua for your precious Word of life, my living thirst-quenching water!

Faith is what stimulates that boldness of spirit in healing evangelists to do whatever Yehowah tells them to do to an infirm individual to see them made whole; like when Yeshua spat in the dirt to make muddy eye patches for the blind man. Faith is what releases Ruach Ha'Kodesh in us to boldly rebuke Satan off of and out of people. Faith incites us to choose to speak the Words Yehowah gives us for people.

Faith is what energizes us to choose to connect our spirit with Ruach Ha'Kodesh of Yehowah to see His power flow through us to others. Like electricity, the power of Yehowah is always flowing and is always available. But you will never see the light until faith stimulates you to choose to flip the light switch ON! You could pray and ask Yehowah to turn on the light, but He won't do it. He's given that authority to you as a human. You could try commanding the light to come on, but it won't work. You could call the electric power company and beg and plead with them to send you more power so your light will come on. They won't and it won't. You already have more than enough power flowing to power up the light bulb! You could ask someone else to turn on the light for you. That might work if they believe in light switches, and that there really is power flowing through the wires. Or you could just stir yourself up in your most set-apart faith (Jude 20) and reach out and touch Yehowah Almighty and let His power flow through you to light up your life!

Now you know what Paul meant when he said in Romans 10:17, "So faith comes from hearing and hearing by the spoken word of Yehowah." You make faith more powerful, stimulating if you will, and stronger by hearing Yehowah's Word spoken and preached. You want a more potent instigator faith! You want a provoking faith, a stirring up faith. The apostles desired growth in their faith when they asked Yeshua in Luke 17:5b to, "Increase our faith." The word they used for increase is Strong's number 4369, which means to place additionally, lay beside, annex, repeat. They thought they could add on more faith to the faith they already had; like faith + faith = double faith. They apparently did not understand the principle that Paul taught later in Romans 12:3, that every man had been dealt the measure of faith. Again, the problem with their faith was not volume or quantity but quality, as Yeshua instructed them in Luke 17:6 with the correct teaching that faith is like a grain of mustard seed. The size of the seed is not the issue, it's the fact that it's a pure seed, a pure CATALYST, that will stimulate the birth of a mustard plant. Yeshua states that a pure faith, unmixed with doubt or unbelief, might incite you to, "…say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." It will obey the command spoken with a pure doubtless faith. Man has been given a finite amount of perfectly pure faith as determined by Yehowah, but it is enough to do all that He commands us in His Word to do on this earth. Yeshua, of course, has an infinite amount of faith, because He is Yehowah and has the Ruach of Yehowah without measure as stated in John 3:34. He also has absolutely pure faith. When Yeshua speaks His faith, even nonexistent things listen and become existent things, lumps of clay become sentient beings. Faith is substance that causes significant changes to occur.

Divine faith will stimulate you to make wise choices that will lead to divine actions that fulfill Yehowah's perfect will in your life. Now you can understand how fear is the opposite of faith. Fear is a negative catalyst. Fear will cause you to make unwise choices that will lead to devilish actions whereby you will never fulfill Yehowah's will for your life.
