Genesis Chapter 1

Gen 1:1 (Son Of Man Bible is released under a CC BY-SA 4.0 License. Original work is at door43.org) In the beginning (c. 5654 BC), the Almighty created (Aleph Tav) the heavens and the earth.
Gen 1:2 The earth became without form and empty. Darkness was upon the surface of the deep. The Ruach of the Almighty was moving above the surface of the waters.
Gen 1:3 The Almighty said, “Let there be light,” and there was light.
Gen 1:4 The Almighty saw the light, that it was good. The Almighty divided the light from the darkness.
Gen 1:5 The Almighty called the light “day,” and the darkness he called “night.” Dusk came and dawn came, day one.
Gen 1:6 The Almighty said, “Let there be an expanse between the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.”
Gen 1:7 The Almighty made the expanse and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse. It was so.
Gen 1:8 The Almighty called the expanse “sky.” Dusk came and dawn came, day two.
Gen 1:9 The Almighty said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear.” It was so.
Gen 1:10 The Almighty called the dry land “earth,” and the gathered waters he called “seas.” The Almighty saw that it was good.
Gen 1:11 The Almighty said, “Let the earth sprout tender vegetation: Plants yielding seed and fruit trees bearing fruit whose seed is in the fruit on the earth, each according to its own kind.” It was so.
Gen 1:12 The earth produced vegetation, plants producing seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit whose seed was in it, after their kind. The Almighty saw that it was good.
Gen 1:13 Dusk came and dawn came, day three.
Gen 1:14 The Almighty said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to divide the day from the night, and let them be for signs of the appointment calendar festivals, for days and years (Psa. 19:6).
Gen 1:15 Let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light upon the earth.” It was so.

Gen 1:16 The Almighty made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser lights, the stars, to rule the night (Psa. 136:8-9; Jer. 31:35; Acts 27:20).
Gen 1:17 The Almighty set them in the expanse of the sky to give light upon the earth,
Gen 1:18 to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. The Almighty saw that it was good.
Gen 1:19 Dusk came and dawn came, day four.
Gen 1:20 The Almighty said, “Let the waters be filled with great numbers of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth in the expanse of the sky.”
Gen 1:21 The Almighty created the great sea creatures, as well as every living creature after its kind, creatures that move and which fill the waters everywhere, and every winged bird after its kind. The Almighty saw that it was good.
Gen 1:22 The Almighty blessed them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas. Let birds multiply on the earth.”
Gen 1:23 Dusk came and dawn came, day five.
Gen 1:24 The Almighty said, “Let the earth produce living creatures, each according to its own kind, livestock, creeping things, and beasts of the earth, each according to its own kind.” It was so.
Gen 1:25 The Almighty made the beasts of the earth after their kind, the livestock after their kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground after its kind. The Almighty saw that it was good.
Gen 1:26 The Almighty said, “Let us make mankind in our image, after our likeness. Let them reign over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.”
Gen 1:27 The Almighty created mankind in his own image. In the image of the Almighty he created them. Male and female he created them.
Gen 1:28 The Almighty blessed them, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and subdue it. Reign over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”
Gen 1:29 The Almighty said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed which is upon the surface of all the earth, and every tree with fruit which has seed in it. They will be food for you.
Gen 1:30 To every beast of the earth, to every bird of the heavens, and to everything that creeps upon the earth, and to every living soul, I have given every green plant for food.” It was so.
Gen 1:31 The Almighty saw everything that he had made. Behold, it was exceedingly good. Dusk came and dawn came, day six.

Genesis Chapter 2

Gen 2:1 Then the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the living things that filled them.
Gen 2:2 By the seventh day, the Almighty finished his work which he had done, so he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had done (Exo. 16:23; 20:11; 31:17; Heb. 4:4).
Gen 2:3 The Almighty blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it he rested from all his work which the Almighty had done while creating.
Gen 2:4 These were the events concerning the heavens and the earth, when they were created, on the day that Yehowah Almighty made the earth and the heavens.
Gen 2:5 No bush of the field was yet in the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for Yehowah Almighty had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no human to cultivate the ground.
Gen 2:6 But a spring gushed up from the earth and irrigated the whole surface of the ground.
Gen 2:7 Yehowah Almighty formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being (1 Cor. 15:45).
Gen 2:8 Yehowah Almighty planted a garden eastward, in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had formed.
Gen 2:9 Out of the ground Yehowah Almighty made every tree to grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. This included the Tree of Life that was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.
Gen 2:10 A river flowed out of Eden to irrigate the garden. From there, it divided and became four headwaters.
Gen 2:11 The name of the first is Pishon. It is the one which flows throughout the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.
Gen 2:12 The gold of that land is good. There are also bdellium and the onyx stone.
Gen 2:13 The name of the second river is Gihon (Nile). This one flows throughout the whole land of Cush (in modern Sudan).
Gen 2:14 The name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Asshur. The fourth river is the Euphrates.
Gen 2:15 Yehowah Almighty took the man and put him into the Garden of Eden to work it and to maintain it.
Gen 2:16 Yehowah Almighty commanded the man, “From every tree in the garden you may freely eat.

Gen 2:17 But from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you may not eat, for on the day that you eat from it, you will surely die.”
Gen 2:18 Then Yehowah Almighty said, “It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helper suitable for him.”
Gen 2:19 Out of the ground Yehowah Almighty formed every animal of the field and every bird of the sky. Then he brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. Whatever Adam called each living creature, that was its name.
Gen 2:20 Adam gave names to all the livestock, to all the birds of the sky, and to every beast of the field. But for Adam himself there was found no helper suitable for him.
Gen 2:21 Yehowah Almighty caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, so the man slept. He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh where he took the rib.
Gen 2:22 With the rib that Yehowah Almighty had taken from the man, he made a woman and brought her to the man.
Gen 2:23 Adam said, “This time, this one is bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She will be called ‘woman,’ because she was taken out of man.”
Gen 2:24 Therefore, a man will leave his father and his mother; he will be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.
Gen 2:25 They were both naked, the man and his wife, but were not ashamed.

Genesis Chapter 3

Gen 3:1 Now the serpent was more shrewd than any other beast of the field which Yehowah Almighty had made. He asked the woman, “Has the Almighty really said, ‘You must not eat from any tree of the garden?’”
Gen 3:2 The woman answered the serpent, “We may eat the fruit from the trees of the garden,
Gen 3:3 but concerning the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, the Almighty said, ‘You may not eat it, nor may you touch it, or you will die.’”
Gen 3:4 The serpent spoke to the woman, “You will surely not die.
Gen 3:5 For the Almighty knows that the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like deities, knowing good and evil.”
Gen 3:6 When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took some of its fruit and ate it. Then she also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate it.
Gen 3:7 The eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.
Gen 3:8 They heard the sound of Yehowah Almighty walking in the garden in the cool of the day, so Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Yehowah Almighty among the trees of the garden.
Gen 3:9 Yehowah Almighty called to Adam and asked him, “How are you?”
Gen 3:10 The man answered, “I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked. So I hid myself.”
Gen 3:11 He asked, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?”
Gen 3:12 The man answered, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”
Gen 3:13 Yehowah Almighty asked the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman answered, “The serpent lied to me, and I ate.”
Gen 3:14 Yehowah Almighty said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, cursed are you alone among all the animals and all the beasts of the field. It is on your stomach that you will go, and it is dust that you will eat all the days of your life.
Gen 3:15 I will put hostility between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will crush your head, and you will bruise his heel.”
Gen 3:16 To the woman he said, “I will greatly multiply your painful contractions while birthing children and increase the pain of your pregnancy; it is in pain that you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, but he will rule over you.”

Gen 3:17 To Adam he said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree, concerning which I commanded you, ‘You may not eat from it,’ cursed is the ground because of you; through painful work you will eat from it all the days of your life.
Gen 3:18 It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.
Gen 3:19 By the sweat of your face you will eat bread, until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. For dust you are, and to dust you will return.”
Gen 3:20 Adam called his wife’s name Eve, because she was the mother of all the living.
Gen 3:21 Yehowah Almighty made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins and clothed them.
Gen 3:22 Yehowah Almighty said, “Now the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. So now, he must not be allowed to reach out with his hand, take from the Tree of Life, eat it, and live forever.”
Gen 3:23 Therefore, Yehowah Almighty sent him out from the Garden of Eden, to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken.
Gen 3:24 So he drove the man out of the garden, and he placed cherubim at the east of the Garden of Eden, and a flaming sword that turned every direction, in order to guard the way to the Tree of Life.

Genesis Chapter 4

Gen 4:1 Adam made love to Eve his wife. She conceived and gave birth to Cain. She said, “I have produced a man with the help of Yehowah.”
Gen 4:2 Then she gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel became a shepherd, but Cain cultivated the soil.
Gen 4:3 It came about that in the course of time, Cain brought some of the fruit of the ground as an offering to Yehowah.
Gen 4:4 As for Abel, he brought some of the firstborn of his flock and some of the fat. Yehowah accepted Abel and his offering,
Gen 4:5 but Cain and his offering he did not accept. So Cain was extremely angry, and he scowled.
Gen 4:6 Yehowah said to Cain, “Why are you angry, and why are you scowling?
Gen 4:7 If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin crouches at the door and desires to control you, but you must rule over it” (Rom. 6:14).
Gen 4:8 Cain spoke to Abel his brother, “Let us go out into the field.” It came about that while they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel his brother and murdered him (c. 5427 BC).
Gen 4:9 Then Yehowah asked Cain, “Where is Abel your brother?” He answered, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”
Gen 4:10 He said, “What have you done? Your brother’s blood is calling out to me from the ground.
Gen 4:11 Now cursed are you from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.
Gen 4:12 When you cultivate the ground, from now on it will not yield to you its strength. A fugitive and a wanderer you will be in the earth.”
Gen 4:13 Cain said to Yehowah, “My punishment is greater than I can bear.
Gen 4:14 Indeed, you have driven me out this day from this ground, and I will be hidden from your face. I will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth, and whoever finds me will murder me.”
Gen 4:15 Yehowah said to him, “If anyone murders Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold.” Then Yehowah put a mark on Cain, so that if anyone found him, that person would not attack him.
Gen 4:16 So Cain went out from the presence of Yehowah and lived in the land of Nod on the east of Eden.
Gen 4:17 Cain made love to his wife, and she conceived. She gave birth to Enoch. He built a city and named it after his son Enoch.
Gen 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad. Irad became the father of Mehujael. Mehujael became the father of Methushael. Methushael became the father of Lamech.

Gen 4:19 Lamech took for himself two wives: The name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other was Zillah.
Gen 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal. He was the father of those who lived in tents, who have livestock.
Gen 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal. He was the father of those who play the harp and flute.
Gen 4:22 As for Zillah, she bore Tubal Cain, the forger of tools of bronze and iron. The sister of Tubal Cain was Naamah.
Gen 4:23 Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, listen to my voice; you wives of Lamech, listen to what I say. For I have murdered a man for wounding me, a young man for bruising me.
Gen 4:24 If Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech will be avenged seventy-seven times."
Gen 4:25 Adam made love to his wife again, and she bore another son. She called his name Seth and said, "The Almighty has given me another son in the place of Abel, for Cain murdered him."
Gen 4:26 A son was born to Seth, and he called his name Enosh. At that time people began to disregard and profane the name of Yehowah.

Genesis Chapter 5

Gen 5:1 This is the record of the descendants of Adam (per LXX). On the day that the Almighty created mankind, he made them in the likeness of the Almighty.
Gen 5:2 Male and female he created them. He blessed them and named them Adam when they were created.
Gen 5:3 When Adam had lived 230 years (c. 5424 BC), he became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and he called his name Seth.
Gen 5:4 After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived seven hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:5 Adam lived 930 years, and then he died (c. 4724 BC).
Gen 5:6 When Seth had lived 205 years, he became the father of Enosh.
Gen 5:7 After he became the father of Enosh, he lived 707 years and became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:8 Seth lived 912 years, and then he died (c. 4512 BC).
Gen 5:9 When Enosh had lived one hundred ninety years, he became the father of Kenan.
Gen 5:10 After he became the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 715 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:11 Enosh lived 905 years, and then he died (c. 4314 BC).
Gen 5:12 When Kenan had lived one hundred seventy years, he became the father of Mahalalel.
Gen 5:13 After he became the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 740 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:14 Kenan lived 910 years, and then he died (c. 4119 BC).
Gen 5:15 When Mahalalel had lived one hundred sixty-five years, he became the father of Jared.
Gen 5:16 After he became the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 730 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:17 Mahalalel lived 895 years, and then he died (c. 3964 BC).
Gen 5:18 When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch.
Gen 5:19 After he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived eight hundred years. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:20 Jared lived 962 years, and then he died (c. 3732 BC).
Gen 5:21 When Enoch had lived one hundred sixty-five years, he became the father of Methuselah.
Gen 5:22 Enoch walked with the Almighty two hundred years after he became the father of Methuselah. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:23 Enoch lived 365 years.

Gen 5:24 Enoch walked with the Almighty, and then he was gone, for the Almighty took him (c. 4167 BC).
Gen 5:25 When Methuselah had lived 187 years, he became the father of Lamech.
Gen 5:26 After he became the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:27 Methuselah lived 969 years. Then he died (c. 3398 BC, year of the Flood).
Gen 5:28 When Lamech had lived 182 years, he became the father of a son.
Gen 5:29 He called his name Noah, “This one will give us rest from our work and from the painful labor of our hands, which we must do, because of the ground that Yehowah has cursed.”
Gen 5:30 Lamech lived 595 years after he became the father of Noah. He became the father of more sons and daughters.
Gen 5:31 Lamech lived 777 years. Then he died (c. 3403 BC).
Gen 5:32 After Noah had lived five hundred years (c. 3498 BC), he became the father of Shem (second born; c. 3495 BC), Ham (third born, Gen. 9:24b), and Japheth (first born, Gen. 10:21).

Genesis Chapter 6

Gen 6:1 It came about when mankind began to multiply on the earth and daughters were born to them,
Gen 6:2 that the Neanderthals saw that the daughters of mankind were attractive. They took for themselves wives, any of them that they chose.
Gen 6:3 (Verse 3 moved to end of verse 6)
Gen 6:4 The resulting hybrid offspring were on the earth in those days and also afterward. This happened when the Neanderthals married daughters of mankind, and they had hybrid offspring with them. These were the mighty men of old, men of renown (Num. 13:33).
Gen 6:5 Yehowah saw that the wickedness of mankind was great in the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts (minds) was only evil continually.
Gen 6:6 Yehowah regretted that he had made mankind on the earth, and it grieved him in his heart. (Verse 3) Yehowah said, “My Ruach will not strive with mankind forever, for they are flesh. Their days will be 120 years.”
Gen 6:7 So Yehowah declared, “I will wipe away mankind whom I have created from the surface of the earth; both mankind and the larger animals, and creeping things and birds of the sky, for I am sorry that I have made them.”
Gen 6:8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of Yehowah.
Gen 6:9 These were the events concerning Noah. Noah was a righteous man and blameless among the people of his time. Noah walked with the Almighty.
Gen 6:10 Noah became the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth (Gen. 5:32).
Gen 6:11 The earth was corrupt before the Almighty, and it was filled with violence.
Gen 6:12 The Almighty saw the earth; behold, it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth.
Gen 6:13 The Almighty said to Noah, “I can see that it is time to put an end to all flesh, for the earth is filled with violence through them. Indeed, I will destroy them with the earth.
Gen 6:14 Make for yourself an ark of laminated cypress wood. Make rooms in the ark, and cover it with tar within and without.
Gen 6:15 This is how you will make it: the length of the ark 515.075 feet (157 meters), the breadth of it 85.85 feet (26.17 meters), and the height of it 51.508 feet (15.7 meters).
Gen 6:16 Make a skylight for the ark, and finish it at 1.72 feet (.524 meter) from the top of the side. Place a door in the side of the ark and make a lower, a second, and a third deck.

Gen 6:17 Listen, I am about to bring the flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh that has in it the breath of life from under the heavens. Everything that is on the earth will die.
Gen 6:18 But I will establish my covenant with you. You will come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.
Gen 6:19 Of every living creature of all flesh, two of every kind you must bring into the ark, to keep them alive with you, both male and female.
Gen 6:20 Of the birds after their kind, and of the larger animals after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every sort will come to you, to keep them alive.
Gen 6:21 Gather for yourself every kind of food that is eaten and store it, so that it will be food for you and for them."
Gen 6:22 So Noah did this. According to all that the Almighty commanded him, so he did.

Genesis Chapter 7

Gen 7:1 Yehowah said to Noah, “Come, you and all your household, into the ark, for I have seen that you are righteous before me in this generation.
Gen 7:2 Of every clean animal you will bring with you seven males and seven females. From the animals that are not clean, of them bring two, the male and his mate.
Gen 7:3 Also, of the birds of the sky, bring seven males and seven females, to preserve their offspring upon the surface of all the earth.
Gen 7:4 For in seven days, I will cause it to rain upon the earth for forty days and forty nights. I will destroy from off the surface of the ground every living thing that I have made.”
Gen 7:5 Noah did all that Yehowah commanded him.
Gen 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came upon the earth (c. 3398 BC).
Gen 7:8 Clean animals and unclean animals, birds, and everything that creeps upon the ground,
Gen 7:9 two by two, male and female, came to Noah and went into the ark, just as the Almighty had commanded Noah.
Gen 7:10 It came about that after the seven days, the waters of the flood came upon the earth.
Gen 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, on the twenty-seventh day of the second month (LXX), on the same day (Day 1), all the fountains of the great deep burst open, and the floodgates of the heavens were opened (c. 3398 BC; Isa. 24:18).
Gen 7:12 The rain began (Day 1) and fell on the earth for forty days and forty nights (through Day 40).
Gen 7:13 On that same day, Noah and his sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and Noah’s wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ark.
Gen 7:14 They entered along with each wild animal according to its kind, and each sort of livestock according to its kind, and each creeping thing that creeps upon the earth according to its kind, and every sort of bird according to its kind, each kind of creature with wings.
Gen 7:15 Two of all flesh in which was the breath of life came to Noah and entered into the ark.
Gen 7:16 The animals that went in were male and female of all flesh; they entered in just as the Almighty had commanded him. Then Yehowah shut the door after them (Mat. 25:10).

Gen 7:17 Then the flood came upon the earth for forty days (through Day 40); the water deepened, lifted the ark, and raised it above the earth.
Gen 7:18 The waters prevailed and deepened rapidly on the earth, and the ark floated upon the surface of the water.
Gen 7:19 The waters rose quite rapidly on the earth, so that all the high mountains that were under the entire sky were covered.
Gen 7:21 All living beings that moved upon the earth died: the birds, the livestock, the wild animals, all the living creatures that lived in great numbers upon the earth, and all mankind.
Gen 7:22 All living creatures who lived on the land, who breathed the breath of the spirit of life through their noses, died.
Gen 7:23 So every living thing that was on the surface of the earth was wiped out, from mankind to the larger animals, to creeping things, and to birds of the sky. They were all destroyed from the earth. Only Noah and those with him in the ark were left.
Gen 7:24 The water did not go down to the earth for a hundred and fifty days (Day 150).

Genesis Chapter 8

Gen 8:1 The Almighty considered Noah, all the wild animals, and all the livestock that were with him in the ark. The Almighty made a wind blow over the earth, and the waters started going down.
Gen 8:2 The fountains of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens were closed, and it stopped raining.
Gen 8:3 The flood waters went down slowly from the earth, and after the end of a hundred and fifty days the waters had gone down (Day 150).
Gen 8:4 The ark came to rest on the twenty-seventh day of the seventh month (LXX), upon the mountains of Ararat (Day 151).
Gen 8:5 The waters continued to go down until the tenth month. On the first of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared (Day 215).
Gen 8:6 It came about after forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made (Day 255).
Gen 8:7 He sent out a raven and it flew back and forth, until the waters were dried up from the earth.
Gen 8:8 Then he sent out a dove (Day 255) to see if the waters had gone down from the surface of the earth,
Gen 8:9 but the dove found no place to rest her foot, and she returned to him in the ark, for the waters were still covering the whole earth. He reached out with his hand, took, and brought her into the ark with him.
Gen 8:10 He waited another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark (Day 262).
Gen 8:11 The dove returned to him at dusk. Look! In her mouth was a freshly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters had gone down from the earth.
Gen 8:12 He waited another seven days, and sent out the dove again (Day 269). She did not return again to him.
Gen 8:13 It came about in the six hundred and first year (c. 3397 BC), on the first of the first month (Day 305; Spring Equinox), that the waters were dried up from off the earth. Noah removed the covering of the ark, looked out and saw that, behold, the surface of the ground was dry.
Gen 8:14 On the twenty-seventh day of the second month (Day 361), the earth was dry.
Gen 8:15 The Almighty commanded Noah,
Gen 8:16 “Go out of the ark, you, your wife, your sons, and your sons’ wives with you.
Gen 8:17 Take out with you every living creature of all flesh that is with you, the birds, the livestock, and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth, so that they may reproduce unto extremely large numbers of living creatures throughout the earth, be fruitful and multiply upon the earth."

Gen 8:18 So Noah went out with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives with him (after exactly 360 days and nights inside the Ark).
Gen 8:19 Every living creature, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, according to their families, left the ark.
Gen 8:20 Noah built an altar to Yehowah. He took some of the clean animals and some of the clean birds, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.
Gen 8:21 Yehowah smelled the pleasing aroma, and Yehowah said in his heart, "I will not again curse the ground because of mankind, even though the intentions of their hearts (minds) are evil from childhood. Nor will I again destroy everything living, as I have done.
Gen 8:22 While the earth remains, seed time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night will not cease."

Genesis Chapter 9

Gen 9:1 Then the Almighty blessed Noah and his sons, “Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth.
Gen 9:2 The fear of you and the dread of you will be upon every living animal on the earth, upon every bird of the sky, upon everything that goes low on the ground, and upon all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand.
Gen 9:3 Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. Just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything.
Gen 9:4 But you must not eat fresh meat with its lifeblood in it.
Gen 9:5 But for your blood, the life that is in your blood, I will require payment. From the hand of every animal I will require it. From the hand of any human, that is, from the hand of one who has murdered his brother, I will require an accounting for the life of that human.
Gen 9:6 Whoever sheds mankind’s blood (murder), by man will that person be executed, for it was in the image of the Almighty that he made mankind.
Gen 9:7 As for you, be fruitful and multiply, spread throughout the earth and multiply on it.”
Gen 9:8 Then the Almighty spoke to Noah and to his sons with him,
Gen 9:9 “As for me, listen! I am going to confirm my covenant with you and with your descendants after you,
Gen 9:10 and with every living creature that is with you, with the birds, the livestock, and every creature of the earth with you, from all that came out of the ark, to every living creature on the earth.
Gen 9:11 I hereby confirm my covenant with you, that never again will all flesh be destroyed by the waters of a flood. Never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.”
Gen 9:12 The Almighty said, “This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between me, you, and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations:
Gen 9:13 I have set my rainbow in the cloud, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth.
Gen 9:14 It will come about when I bring a cloud over the earth, and the rainbow is seen in the cloud,
Gen 9:15 then I will call to mind my covenant, which is between me, you, and every living creature of all flesh. The waters will never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.
Gen 9:16 The rainbow will be in the clouds, and I will see it, in order to remember the everlasting covenant between the Almighty and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

Gen 9:17 Then the Almighty said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have confirmed between me and all flesh that is on the earth.”
Gen 9:18 The sons of Noah that came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan.
Gen 9:19 These three were the sons of Noah, and from these the whole earth was populated.
Gen 9:20 Noah began to be a farmer, and he planted a vineyard.
Gen 9:21 He drank some of the wine and became drunk. He was lying uncovered in his tent.
Gen 9:22 Then Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father and told his two brothers outside.
Gen 9:23 So Shem and Japheth took a robe, laid it upon both their shoulders, walked backwards, and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were turned the other way, so they did not see their father’s nakedness.
Gen 9:24 When Noah awoke from his drunkenness, he learned what his youngest son had done to him.
Gen 9:25 So he said, “Cursed be Canaan. May he be a servant to his brothers’ servants.”
Gen 9:26 He also said, “May Yehowah, Mighty One of Shem, be blessed, and may Canaan be his servant.
Gen 9:27 May the Almighty extend the territory of Japheth, and let him make his home in the land of Shem. May Canaan be his servant.”
Gen 9:29 All the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years, and then he died (c. 3048 BC).

Genesis Chapter 10

Gen 10:1 These were the descendants of the sons of Noah, that is, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood.
Gen 10:2 The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.
Gen 10:3 The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.
Gen 10:4 The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.
Gen 10:5 From these the coastland people separated and went into their lands, according to their clans, by their ethnicities.
Gen 10:6 The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim (Egypt), Put (Libya), and Canaan.
Gen 10:7 The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.
Gen 10:8 Cush became the father of Nimrod, who was the first conqueror on the earth.
Gen 10:9 He was a tyrannical hunter in the face of Yehowah. That is why it is said, “Like Nimrod, a tyrannical hunter in the face of Yehowah.”
Gen 10:10 The first centers of his kingdom were Babel, Erech, Akkad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.
Gen 10:11 Out of that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh (modern Kuyunjik, Iraq; near Mosul), Rehoboth Ir, Calah, Gen 10:12 and Resen, which was between Nineveh and Calah. It was a large city.
Gen 10:13 Mizraim became the father of the Ludites, the Anamites, the Lehabites, the Naphtuhites,
Gen 10:14 the Pathrusites, the Casluhites, from whom the Philistines came (Deut. 2:23; 1 Chron. 1:12; Amos 9:7; Jer. 47:4), and the Caphtorites.
Gen 10:15 Canaan became the father of Sidon, his firstborn, and of Heth (1 Chron. 1:13),
Gen 10:16 also of the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites,
Gen 10:17 the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,
Gen 10:18 the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. Afterward, the clans of the Canaanites spread out.
Gen 10:19 The border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, in the direction of Gerar, as far as Gaza, and as one goes toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.
Gen 10:20 These were the sons of Ham, by their clans, in their lands, and in their ethnicities.
Gen 10:21 Sons also were born to Shem, brother of Japheth the elder (Gen. 5:32; 9:24). Shem was also the ancestor of all the people of Eber.

Gen 10:22 The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, Aram, and Cainan.
Gen 10:23 The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech.
Gen 10:24 Arpachshad became the father of Kainan, and Kainan became the father of Shelah (LXX; Luke 3:36; 1 Chron. 1:18, 24), and Shelah became the father of Eber.
Gen 10:25 Eber had two sons. The name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided. His brother's name was Joktan.
Gen 10:26 Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,
Gen 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,
Gen 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,
Gen 10:29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.
Gen 10:30 Their territory was from Mesha, all the way to Sephar, the mountain of the East.
Gen 10:31 These were the sons of Shem, according to their clans, in their lands, according to their ethnicities.
Gen 10:32 These were the clans of the sons of Noah, according to their genealogies, by their ethnicities. From these the ethnicities separated and went over the earth after the flood.

Genesis Chapter 11

Gen 11:1 Now the whole earth used one language and had the same words.
Gen 11:2 As they journeyed in the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar, and they settled there.
Gen 11:3 They said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” They had brick instead of stone and tar as mortar.
Gen 11:4 They said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower whose top will reach to the sky, and let us make a name for ourselves. If we do not, we will be scattered across the surface of the whole earth.”
Gen 11:5 So Yehowah came down to see the city and the tower, which the descendants of Adam had built.
Gen 11:6 Yehowah said, “Look, they are one people with the same language, and they are beginning to do this! Soon, nothing that they intend to do will be impossible for them.
Gen 11:7 Come, let us go down and confuse their language there, so that they may not understand each other.”
Gen 11:8 So Yehowah scattered them from there across the surface of all the earth, and they stopped building the city.
Gen 11:9 Therefore, its name was called Babel, because there Yehowah confused the language of the whole earth, and from there Yehowah scattered them abroad over the surface of all the earth.
Gen 11:10 These were the descendants of Shem (LXX). Shem was a hundred years old, and he became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood (c. 3395 BC).
Gen 11:11 Shem lived five hundred years after he became the father of Arpachshad. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2895 BC).
Gen 11:12 When Arpachshad had lived one hundred thirty-five years, he became the father of Kainan.
Gen 11:13 Arpachshad lived 400 years after he became the father of Kainan. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2860 BC). And Kainan lived one hundred thirty years and became the father of Shelah; and Kainan lived after he became the father of Shelah, three hundred thirty years. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2800 BC; Luke 3:36).
Gen 11:14 When Shelah had lived one hundred thirty years, he became the father of Eber.
Gen 11:15 Shelah lived 403 years after he became the father of Eber. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2597 BC).

Gen 11:16 When Eber had lived one hundred thirty-four years, he became the father of Peleg.
Gen 11:17 Eber lived 270 years after he became the father of Peleg. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2596 BC).
Gen 11:18 When Peleg had lived one hundred thirty years, he became the father of Reu.
Gen 11:19 Peleg lived 209 years after he became the father of Reu. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2527 BC).
Gen 11:20 When Reu had lived one hundred thirty-two years, he became the father of Serug.
Gen 11:21 Reu lived 207 years after he became the father of Serug. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2397 BC).
Gen 11:22 When Serug had lived one hundred thirty years, he became the father of Nahor.
Gen 11:23 Serug lived 200 years after he became the father of Nahor. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2274 BC).
Gen 11:24 When Nahor had lived one hundred seventy-nine years, he became the father of Terah.
Gen 11:25 Nahor lived 125 years after he became the father of Terah. He also became the father of other sons and daughters, and died (c. 2170 BC).
Gen 11:26 After Terah had lived seventy years, he became the father of Abram (born c. 2165 BC), Nahor, and Haran.
Gen 11:27 Now these were the descendants of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran, and Haran became the father of Lot.
Gen 11:28 Haran died in the presence of his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.
Gen 11:29 Abram and Nahor took wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah, a daughter of Haran, who was the father of Milcah and Iscah.
Gen 11:30 Now Sarai was barren; she had no child.
Gen 11:31 Terah took Abram his son, Lot the son of his son Haran, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife, and together they left Ur of the Chaldeans, to go into the land of Canaan (modern Israel). But they came to Haran and stayed there.
Gen 11:32 Terah lived 205 years and then died in Haran (c. 2090 BC; Abram was 75; Gen. 12:4).

Genesis Chapter 12

Gen 12:1 Now Yehowah had said to Abram, “Go from your country, from your relatives, and from your father’s household, to the land that I will show you.
Gen 12:2 I will make of you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great, and you will be a blessing.
Gen 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, but whoever dishonors you, I will curse. Through you will all the families of the earth be blessed.”
Gen 12:4 So Abram went, as Yehowah had told him to do, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran (c. 2090 BC).
Gen 12:5 Abram took Sarai his wife, Lot, his brother’s son, all their possessions that they had accumulated, and the people that they had acquired in Haran. They left to go into the land of Canaan and came to the land of Canaan.
Gen 12:6 Abram passed through the land as far as Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time, the Canaanites lived in the land.
Gen 12:7 Yehowah appeared to Abram and promised, “To your descendants I will give this land.” So there Abram built an altar to Yehowah, who had appeared to him.
Gen 12:8 From there, he moved to the hill country to the east of Bethel (Beitin), where he pitched his tent, with Bethel to the west and Ai to the east. There he built an altar to Yehowah and called on the name of Yehowah.
Gen 12:10 There was a famine in the land, so Abram went down into Egypt to stay, for the famine was severe in the land.
Gen 12:11 When he was about to enter into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, “See here, I know that you are a beautiful woman.
Gen 12:12 When the Egyptians see you they will say, ‘This is his wife,’ and they will murder me, but they will keep you alive.
Gen 12:13 Say that you are my sister, so that it may be well with me because of you, and so that my life will be spared because of you.”
Gen 12:14 It came about, that when Abram entered into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that Sarai was exquisitely beautiful.
Gen 12:15 The princes of Pharaoh saw her, and praised her to Pharaoh, and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s household.
Gen 12:16 Pharaoh treated Abram well for her sake, and gave him sheep, oxen, jack donkeys, male servants, female servants, jenny donkeys, and camels.
Gen 12:17 Then Yehowah afflicted Pharaoh and his household with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife.
Gen 12:18 Pharaoh summoned Abram and asked, “What is this that you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

Gen 12:19 Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I took her to be my wife? Now therefore, here is your wife. Take her and go your way.”
Gen 12:20 Then Pharaoh gave orders to his men concerning him, and they sent him away, along with his wife and all that he had.

Genesis Chapter 13

Gen 13:1 So Abram went up from Egypt and went into the Negev, he, his wife, and all that he had. Lot also went with them.
Gen 13:2 Now Abram was superabundantly rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold.
Gen 13:3 He continued on his journey from the Negev to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been before, between Bethel and Ai.
Gen 13:4 He went to the place where the altar was that he had built previously. Here, Abram called on the name of Yehowah.
Gen 13:5 Now Lot, who was traveling with Abram, also had flocks, herds, and tents.
Gen 13:6 The land was not able to support them both living close together, because their possessions were superabundant, so that they could not stay together.
Gen 13:7 Also, there was a dispute between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land at that time.
Gen 13:8 So Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herdsmen and my herdsmen; after all, we are family.
Gen 13:9 Is not the whole land before you? Go ahead and separate yourself from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right. Or, if you go to the right, then I will go to the left."
Gen 13:10 So Lot looked around and saw that the whole disk-shaped Valley of the Jordan was well watered everywhere, all the way to Zoar, like the garden of Yehowah, like the land of Egypt. This was before Yehowah destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.
Gen 13:11 So Lot chose for himself all the disk-shaped Valley of the Jordan and traveled east, and the relatives separated from each other.
Gen 13:12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived among the cities of the Plain. He set up his tents as far away as Sodom.
Gen 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were extremely wicked sinners against Yehowah.
Gen 13:14 Yehowah promised Abram after Lot had departed from him, "Look from the place where you are standing to the north, south, east, and west.
Gen 13:15 All this land which you see, I will give to you and to your descendants forever.
Gen 13:16 I will make your descendants as abundant as the dust of the earth, so that if a man could count the dust of the earth, then your descendants could also be counted.

Gen 13:17 Arise, walk through the length and breadth of the land, for I will give it to you.”
Gen 13:18 So Abram picked up his tent, came and lived by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and there built an altar to Yehowah.

Genesis Chapter 14

Gen 14:1 It came about in the days of Amraphel, king of Shinar, Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer (Kudar-la`omar), king of Elam, and Tidal, king of ethnicities,
Gen 14:2 that they made war against Bera, king of Sodom, Birsha, king of Gomorrah, Shinab, king of Admah, Shemeber, king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, also called Zoar.
Gen 14:3 These latter five kings joined together in the Valley of Siddim, also called the Dead Sea.
Gen 14:4 Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled (c. 2081 BC).
Gen 14:5 Then in the fourteenth year (c. 2080 BC), Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and attacked the giants in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh Kiriathaim,
Gen 14:6 and the Horites in their hill country of Seir, as far as El Paran, which is near the desert.
Gen 14:7 Then they turned and came to En Mishpat, also called Kadesh (Tell el-Qudeirat), and defeated all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon Tamar (Engedi).
Gen 14:8 Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, also called Zoar, went out and prepared for battle against them in the Valley of Siddim,
Gen 14:9 against Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, Tidal, king of ethnicities, Amraphel, king of Shinar, Arioch, king of Ellasar; four kings against the five.
Gen 14:10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, they fell in there. Those who were left fled to the mountains.
Gen 14:11 So the enemy took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their provisions, and went their way.
Gen 14:12 When they went, they also took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who was living in Sodom, along with all his possessions.
Gen 14:13 One who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew. He was living by the oaks that belonged to Mamre, the Amorite, who was the brother of Eshcol and Aner, who were all allies of Abram.
Gen 14:14 Now when Abram heard that enemies had captured his relative, he led out his 318 trained men who had been born in his house, and he pursued them as far as Dan (Laish; Judges 18:19, 29).
Gen 14:15 He divided his men against them at night and attacked them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

Gen 14:16 Then he brought back all the possessions, and also brought back his relative Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the other people.
Gen 14:17 After Abram returned from defeating Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh, also called the King's Valley.
Gen 14:18 Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine (c. 2080 BC, Abram was 85). He was priest of Most High Almighty.
Gen 14:19 He blessed him, "Blessed be Abram by Most High Almighty, Creator of the heavens and earth.
Gen 14:20 Blessed be Most High Almighty, who has given your enemies into your hand." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.
Gen 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people and take the goods for yourself."
Gen 14:22 Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to Yehowah, Most High Almighty, Creator of the heavens and earth,
Gen 14:23 that I will not take a thread, a sandal strap, or anything that is yours, so that you can never say, 'I have made Abram rich.'
Gen 14:24 I will take nothing except what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men that went with me. Let Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre take their portion."

Genesis Chapter 15

Gen 15:1 After these things, the Word of Yehowah came to Abram in a vision, “Fear not, Abram! I am your Shield and your super great Reward.”
Gen 15:2 Abram asked, “Lord Yehowah, what will you give me, since I continue childless, and the heir of my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?”
Gen 15:3 Abram said, “Since you have given me no descendant, see, the steward of my household is my heir.”
Gen 15:4 Then behold, the Word of Yehowah came to him, “This man will not be your heir; but rather the one who will come from your own body will be your heir.”
Gen 15:5 Then he brought him outside and said, “Look toward the heavens and enumerate the stars, if you are able to count them.” Then he said to him, “So will your descendants be.”
Gen 15:6 He believed Yehowah, and he counted it to him as righteousness.
Gen 15:7 He said to him, “I am Yehowah, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit it.”
Gen 15:8 He asked, “Lord Yehowah, how will I know that I will inherit it?”
Gen 15:9 Then he ordered him, “Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a dove, and a young pigeon.”
Gen 15:10 He brought him all these, and cut them in two, and placed each half opposite the other, but he did not divide the birds.
Gen 15:11 When the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.
Gen 15:12 Then when the sun was going down, Abram fell into a half-conscious state and behold, a deep and terrifying darkness overwhelmed him.
Gen 15:13 Then he prophesied to Abram, “Know for certain that your descendants will be foreigners in a land that is not theirs, and will be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years (Acts 7:6).
Gen 15:14 I will judge that ethnicity that they will serve, and afterward they will come out with abundant possessions.
Gen 15:15 But you will go to your fathers in peace, and you will be buried in a good old age.
Gen 15:16 In the fourth generation, they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorites has not yet reached its limit.”
Gen 15:17 When the sun had gone down and it was dark, behold, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between the pieces.
Gen 15:18 On that day (Abib 15, c. 2066 BC; Exo. 12:41), Yehowah made a covenant with Abram, “To your descendants I hereby give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates,

Gen 15:19 the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,
Gen 15:20 the Hethites, the Perizzites, the Rephaites (giants),
Gen 15:21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

Genesis Chapter 16

Gen 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had not borne any children for him, but she had a female servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.
Gen 16:2 So Sarai said to Abram, "See, Yehowah has kept me from having children. Go have sex with my servant. It may be that I will have children by her." Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.
Gen 16:3 It was after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan that Sarai, Abram's wife, gave Hagar, her Egyptian servant, to her husband as a wife (c. 2080 BC).
Gen 16:4 So he had sexual relations with Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress.
Gen 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "This wrong on me is because of you. I gave my servant woman into your embrace, and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. Let Yehowah judge between me and you."
Gen 16:6 But Abram responded to Sarai, "See here, your servant woman is in your power, do to her what you think best." So Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her.
Gen 16:7 The angel of Yehowah found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, the spring that is on the way to Shur.
Gen 16:8 He asked, "Hagar, Sarai's servant, where did you come from and where are you going?" Then she answered, "I am fleeing from my mistress Sarai."
Gen 16:9 The angel of Yehowah ordered her, "Return to your mistress and submit yourself to her authority."
Gen 16:10 Then the angel of Yehowah promised her, "I will greatly multiply your descendants, so that they will be too numerous to count."
Gen 16:11 The angel of Yehowah also said to her, "Behold, you are pregnant and will bear a son, and you will call his name Ishmael, because Yehowah has heard your affliction.
Gen 16:12 He will be a wild donkey of a man. He will be hostile against every man, and every man will be hostile to him, and he will live apart from all his brothers."
Gen 16:13 Then she gave this name to Yehowah who spoke to her, "You are the Almighty who sees me (El-Roiy)," for she asked, "Do I really continue to see, even after he has seen me?"
Gen 16:14 Therefore, the well was called Beerlahairoi; behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.
Gen 16:15 Hagar gave birth to Abram's son, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

Gen 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old (c. 2079 BC) when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

Genesis Chapter 17

Gen 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old (c. 2066 BC), Yehowah appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am the Most Powerful Sovereign. Walk before me and be blameless.
Gen 17:2 Then I will confirm my covenant between me and you and will multiply you exceedingly.”
Gen 17:3 Abram bowed low with his face to the ground, and the Almighty talked with him,
Gen 17:4 “As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the father of a multitude of ethnicities.
Gen 17:5 No longer will your name be Abram, but your name will be Abraham, for I appoint you to be the father of a multitude of ethnicities.
Gen 17:6 I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make ethnicities of you, and kings will descend from you.
Gen 17:7 I will establish my covenant between me and you and your descendants after you, throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be an Almighty to you and to your descendants after you.
Gen 17:8 I will give to you, and to your descendants after you, the land where you have been living, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession, and I will be their Divine One.”
Gen 17:9 Then the Almighty commanded Abraham, “As for you, you must keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.
Gen 17:10 This is my covenant, which you must keep, between me, you, and your descendants after you: Every male among you must be circumcised.
Gen 17:11 You must be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and this will be the sign of the covenant between me and you.
Gen 17:12 Every male among you that is eight days old must be circumcised, throughout your people’s generations. This includes him who is born into your household, and him who is bought with money from any foreigner, who is not one of your descendants.
Gen 17:13 He who is born into your household, and he who is bought with your money, must be circumcised. Thus my covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.
Gen 17:14 Any uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin (LXX; on the eighth day) will be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant.”
Gen 17:15 The Almighty said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, do not call her Sarai any more. Instead, her name will be Sarah.

Gen 17:16 I will bless her, and I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she will become the mother of ethnicities. Kings of peoples will come from her."
Gen 17:17 Then Abraham bowed low with his face to the ground and laughed, and asked in his heart, "Will a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Will Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a son?"
Gen 17:18 Abraham said to the Almighty, "Oh that Ishmael might live before you!"
Gen 17:19 The Almighty said, "No, but Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you must name him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant with his descendants after him.
Gen 17:20 As for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I hereby bless him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him abundantly. He will be the father of twelve leaders of tribes, and I will make him into a great ethnicity.
Gen 17:21 But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this appointment calendar time next year."
Gen 17:22 When he had finished talking with him, the Almighty went up from Abraham.
Gen 17:23 Then Abraham took Ishmael his son, all those who were born into his household, and all those who were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in that same day, as the Almighty had said to him.
Gen 17:24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old (c. 2066 BC) when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
Gen 17:25 Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.
Gen 17:26 On the exact same day Abraham and Ishmael his son were both circumcised.
Gen 17:27 All the men of his household were circumcised with him, including those born into the household and those bought with money from a foreigner.

Genesis Chapter 18

Gen 18:1 Yehowah appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre (Hebron; Gen 13:18), as he sat in the tent doorway in the heat of the day.
Gen 18:2 He looked up and behold, he saw three men standing across from him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed low to the ground.
Gen 18:3 He said, “My Lord, if I have found grace in your sight, do not pass by and leave your servant.
Gen 18:4 Let a little water be brought, wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.
Gen 18:5 Let me bring a little food, so that you may refresh yourselves. Afterwards, you can go your way, since you have come to your servant.” They replied, “Do as you have said.”
Gen 18:6 Then Abraham quickly went into the tent to Sarah and ordered, “Hurry, get three measures of fine flour, knead it, and make unleavened cakes.”
Gen 18:7 Then Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf that was tender and good, and gave it to the servant, and he hurried to prepare it.
Gen 18:8 He took curds and milk, and the calf that had been prepared, and placed the food before them, and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.
Gen 18:9 They asked him, “Where is Sarah your wife?” He answered, “There, in the tent.”
Gen 18:10 He prophesied, “I will certainly return to you in the springtime, and see, Sarah your wife will have a son.” Sarah was listening in the tent doorway, which was behind him.
Gen 18:11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, quite advanced in age, and Sarah had passed the age when women could bear children.
Gen 18:12 So Sarah laughed to herself, asking herself, “After I am worn out and my master is old, will I now have this pleasure?”
Gen 18:13 Yehowah asked Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh and ask, ‘Will I really bear a child when I am old?’
Gen 18:14 Is anything too difficult for Yehowah (Luke 1:37)? At my appointment calendar festival in the spring (Passover/ULB), I will return to you. About this time next year, Sarah will have a son.”
Gen 18:15 Then Sarah denied it, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid. He replied, “No, you did laugh.”
Gen 18:16 Then the men arose to leave and looked down toward Sodom. Abraham went with them to see them on their way.

Gen 18:17 But Yehowah said, “Should I hide from Abraham what I am about to do,
Gen 18:18 since Abraham will indeed become a great and mighty nation, and all the ethnicities of the earth will be blessed in him?
Gen 18:19 For I have chosen him, so that he may instruct his children and his household after him to keep the Way of Yehowah, to do righteousness and justice, so that Yehowah may bring upon Abraham what he has said to him.”
Gen 18:20 Then Yehowah said, “Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great, and because their sin is so serious,
Gen 18:21 I will now go down there and see the outcry against her that has come to me, whether they have really done it. If not, I will know.”
Gen 18:22 So the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before Yehowah.
Gen 18:23 Then Abraham approached and asked, “Will you sweep away the righteous with the wicked?
Gen 18:24 Perhaps there are fifty righteous within the city. Will you sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous that are there?
Gen 18:25 Far be it from you to do such a thing, killing the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be treated the same as the wicked. Far be it from you! Will not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?”
Gen 18:26 Yehowah said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the whole place for their sake.”
Gen 18:27 Abraham answered, “Look, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord, even though I am only dust and ashes!
Gen 18:28 What if there are five less than fifty righteous? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?” Then he said, “I will not destroy it, if I find there forty-five.”
Gen 18:29 He asked him yet again, “What if there are forty found there?” He replied, “I will not do it for the forty’s sake.”
Gen 18:30 He said, “Please do not be angry, Lord, so I may speak. Perhaps thirty will be found there.” He replied, “I will not do it, if I find thirty there.”
Gen 18:31 He said, “Look, I have undertaken to speak to my Lord! Perhaps twenty will be found there.” He replied, “I will not destroy it for the twenty’s sake.”
Gen 18:32 He said, “Please do not be angry, Lord, and I will speak this one last time. Perhaps ten will be found there.” Then he said, “I will not destroy it for the ten’s sake.”
Gen 18:33 Yehowah went on his way as soon as he had finished talking with Abraham, and Abraham returned home.

Genesis Chapter 19

Gen 19:1 The two angels came to Sodom at dusk, while Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. Lot saw them, arose to meet them, and bowed down with his face to the ground.
Gen 19:2 He said, “Please my masters, I urge you to turn aside into your servant’s house, stay for the night, and wash your feet. Then you can rise up early and go on your way.” They replied, “No, we will spend the night in the town square.”
Gen 19:3 But he urged them strongly, so they went with him and entered into his house. He prepared a meal and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.
Gen 19:4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the men from every part of the city.
Gen 19:5 They called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men that came in to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may have homosexual sex with them.”
Gen 19:6 So Lot went out the door to them and shut the door after himself.
Gen 19:7 He said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly.
Gen 19:8 Look, I have two daughters who have not had sex with any man. Let me, I beg you, bring them out to you, and you do to them whatever is good in your eyes. Only do nothing to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof.”
Gen 19:9 They shouted, “Stand back!” They also said, “This one came here to live as a foreigner, and now he has become our judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them.” They pressed hard against the man, against Lot, and came near to break down the door.
Gen 19:10 But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them and shut the door.
Gen 19:11 Then Lot’s visitors struck with blindness the men who were outside the door of the house, both young and old, so that they became exhausted when they were trying to find the door.
Gen 19:12 Then the men said to Lot, “Do you have anyone else here? Any sons-in-law, your sons and your daughters, and whoever you have in the city, get them out of here.
Gen 19:13 For we are about to destroy this place, because the accusations against it before Yehowah have become so loud, that Yehowah has sent us to destroy it.”

Gen 19:14 Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, the men who had promised to marry his daughters, “Quick, get out of this place, for Yehowah is about to destroy the city.” But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.
Gen 19:15 When dawn broke, the angels urged Lot, “Get going, take your wife and your two daughters that are here, so you are not swept away in the punishment of the city.”
Gen 19:16 But he lingered. So the men grabbed his hand, and the hand of his wife, and the hands of his two daughters, because Yehowah was merciful to him. They brought them out and set them outside the city.
Gen 19:17 When they had brought them out, one of the men said, “Run for your lives! Do not look back, or stay anywhere in the disk-shaped Valley. Escape to the mountains, so you are not swept away.”
Gen 19:18 Lot said to them, “No, please, Lord!
Gen 19:19 Your servant has found grace in your sight, and you have shown me great kindness in saving my life, but I cannot escape to the mountains, because the disaster will overtake me, and I will die.
Gen 19:20 Look, that city over there is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Please, let me escape there; is it not a little one? And my life will be saved.”
Gen 19:21 He responded to him, “Alright, I am granting this request also, that I will not destroy the city which you have mentioned.
Gen 19:22 Hurry! Escape there, for I cannot do anything, until you arrive there.” Therefore, the city was called Zoar (Bela; Zora; modern es-Safi).
Gen 19:23 The sun was setting upon the earth when Lot reached Zoar.
Gen 19:24 Then Yehowah rained down upon Sodom (c. 2066 BC) and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from Yehowah out of Heaven.
Gen 19:25 He destroyed those cities, and all the disk-shaped Valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and the plants that grew on the ground (Judah 1:7; Eze. 16:49-50; Mat. 10:14-15; First Clement 11:1).
Gen 19:26 But Lot’s wife, who was behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.
Gen 19:27 Abraham rose up at the crack of dawn and went to the place where he had stood before Yehowah.
Gen 19:28 He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the disk-shaped Valley. He looked and behold, smoke was rising from the land like the smoke of a furnace.
Gen 19:29 So when the Almighty destroyed the cities of the disk-shaped Valley, the Almighty called Abraham to mind. He sent Lot out of the midst of the destruction when he destroyed the cities in which Lot had lived.
Gen 19:30 But Lot went up from Zoar to live in the mountains with his two daughters, because he was afraid to live in Zoar. So he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters.

Gen 19:31 The firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man anywhere to have sex with us according to the way of all the world.
Gen 19:32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will have sex with him, so that we may extend our father’s line.”
Gen 19:33 So they made their father drink wine that night. Then the firstborn went in and had sex with her father; he did not know when she lay down, nor when she arose.
Gen 19:34 The next day, the firstborn said to the younger, “Listen, last night I had sex with my father. Let us make him drink wine tonight also, and you should go in and have sex with him, so that we may extend our father’s line.”
Gen 19:35 So they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger went and had sex with him. He did not know when she lay down, nor when she arose.
Gen 19:36 So both the daughters of Lot were pregnant by their father.
Gen 19:37 The firstborn gave birth to a son and named him Moab. He became the ancestor of the Moabites of today.
Gen 19:38 As for the younger daughter, she also gave birth to a son and named him Ben Ammi. He became the ancestor of the people of Ammon of today.

Genesis Chapter 20

Gen 20:1 Abraham journeyed from there toward the land of the Negev, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He was a foreigner living in Gerar.
Gen 20:2 Abraham said concerning Sarah his wife, “She is my sister.” So Abimelech king of Gerar sent his men, and they took Sarah.
Gen 20:3 But the Almighty came to Abimelech in a dream in the night, and said to him, “Behold, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man’s wife.”
Gen 20:4 Now Abimelech had not come near her, and he asked, “Lord, would you kill even a righteous ethnicity?
Gen 20:5 Did he not himself say to me, ‘She is my sister?’ Even she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ I have done this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands.”
Gen 20:6 Then the Almighty said to him in the dream, “Yes, I also know that in the integrity of your heart you did this, and I also kept you from sinning against me. Therefore, I did not allow you to touch her.
Gen 20:7 Therefore, return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet. He will pray for you, and you will live. But if you do not restore her, know that you and all who are yours will surely be executed.”
Gen 20:8 Abimelech rose early at daybreak and called all of his servants to himself. He told all these things to them, and the men were deathly afraid.
Gen 20:9 Then Abimelech called for Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me that which ought not to be done.”
Gen 20:10 Abimelech asked Abraham, “What prompted you to do this thing?”
Gen 20:11 Abraham answered, “Because I thought, ‘Surely there is no fear of the Almighty in this place, and they will murder me because of my wife.’
Gen 20:12 Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.
Gen 20:13 When the Almighty caused me to leave my father’s house and travel from place to place, I said to her, ‘You must show me this faithfulness as my wife: At every place where we go, say about me, “He is my brother.”’”
Gen 20:14 Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen, male and female slaves, and gave them to Abraham. Then he returned Sarah, Abraham’s wife, to him.
Gen 20:15 Abimelech said, “Look, my land is before you. Settle wherever it pleases you.”
Gen 20:16 To Sarah he said, “Look, I have given your brother 1,000-weight silver-currency. It is to cover any offense against you in the eyes of all that are with you, and before everyone, you are completely made right.”

Gen 20:17 Then Abraham prayed to the Almighty, and the Almighty healed Abimelech, his wife, and his female slaves, so that they were able to have children.
Gen 20:18 For Yehowah had caused all the women of the household of Abimelech to be completely infertile, because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

Genesis Chapter 21

Gen 21:1 Yehowah paid attention to Sarah as he had said he would, and Yehowah did for Sarah just as he had promised.
Gen 21:2 Sarah conceived and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the appointment calendar time (Passover/ULB) of which the Almighty had spoken to him.
Gen 21:3 Abraham named his son, the one who had been born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.
Gen 21:4 Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, just as the Almighty had commanded him.
Gen 21:5 Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him (c. 2065 BC).
Gen 21:6 Sarah said, “The Almighty has made me laugh; every one who hears will laugh with me.”
Gen 21:7 She also exclaimed, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children, and yet I have borne him a son in his old age!”
Gen 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.
Gen 21:9 Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.
Gen 21:10 So she said to Abraham, “Drive out this slave woman and her son: For the son of this slave woman will not be heir with my son, with Isaac” (Gal. 4:30).
Gen 21:11 This thing was extremely grievous to Abraham because of his son.
Gen 21:12 But the Almighty said to Abraham, “Do not be grieved because of the lad and because of your servant woman. Listen to Sarah’s words in all she says to you about this matter, because it is through Isaac that your descendants will be named.
Gen 21:13 I will also make the son of the servant woman into an ethnicity, because he is your descendant.”
Gen 21:14 Abraham rose up at the crack of dawn, took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder. He gave her the boy and sent her away. She departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.
Gen 21:15 When the water in the waterskin was gone, she abandoned the child under one of the bushes.
Gen 21:16 Then she went and sat down a short distance from him, about the distance of a bowshot away, for she said, “Let me not look upon the death of the child.” As she sat there across from him, she lifted up her voice and wept.
Gen 21:17 The Almighty heard the voice of the lad, and the angel of the Almighty called to Hagar out of Heaven, “What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for the Almighty has heard the voice of the lad where he is.

Gen 21:18 Get up, raise up the lad, and encourage him; for I will make him into a great ethnicity."
Gen 21:19 Then the Almighty opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went and filled the skin with water, and gave the lad a drink.
Gen 21:20 The Almighty was with the lad, and he grew. He lived in the wilderness and became an archer.
Gen 21:21 He lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.
Gen 21:22 It came about at that time that Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his military force spoke to Abraham, "The Almighty is with you in all that you do.
Gen 21:23 Now therefore, swear to me here by the Almighty that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my children, nor with my descendants. Show to me and to the land in which you have been staying the same covenant faithfulness that I have shown to you."
Gen 21:24 Abraham said, "I swear."
Gen 21:25 Abraham also complained to Abimelech concerning a well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized from him.
Gen 21:26 Abimelech said, "I do not know who has done this thing. You did not tell me before now; I have not heard of it until today."
Gen 21:27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a covenant.
Gen 21:28 Then Abraham set seven female lambs of the flock by themselves.
Gen 21:29 Abimelech asked Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven female lambs that you have set by themselves?"
Gen 21:30 He answered, "These seven female lambs you will receive from my hand, so that they may be a witness for me, that I dug this well."
Gen 21:31 So he called that place Beersheba, because there they both swore an oath.
Gen 21:32 They made a covenant at Beersheba, and then Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his military force, returned to the land of the Philistines.
Gen 21:33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba. There he worshiped Yehowah, the Eternal Almighty (El-Olam).
Gen 21:34 Abraham remained as a sojourning foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

Genesis Chapter 22

Gen 22:1 It came about after these things that the Almighty tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!” He responded, “Here I am.”
Gen 22:2 Then he ordered, “Take your son, your only son, whom you love, Isaac, and go to the land of Moriah (Moriyah). Offer him there as a burnt offering upon one of the mountains there, which I will tell you about.”
Gen 22:3 So Abraham rose early at daybreak, saddled his jack donkey (Exo. 4:20; Mat. 21:5; Zech 9:9), and took two of his young men with him, along with Isaac his son. He cut the wood for the burnt offering, then set out on his journey to the place that the Almighty had told him about.
Gen 22:4 On the third day, Abraham looked up and saw the place at a distance.
Gen 22:5 Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the jack donkey, and I and the lad will go over there. We will worship and come again to you.”
Gen 22:6 Then Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put it on Isaac his son. He took in his own hand the fire and the knife; and they went both of them together.
Gen 22:7 Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, “My father,” and he responded, “Here I am, my son.” He asked, “See, here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”
Gen 22:8 Abraham answered, “The Almighty himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” So they went on, both of them together.
Gen 22:9 When they came to the place that the Almighty had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood on it. Then he bound (the Akedah) Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.
Gen 22:11 Then the angel of Yehowah called to him from Heaven, “Abraham, Abraham!” and he responded, “Here I am.”
Gen 22:12 He said, “Do not lay your hand upon the lad, nor do anything to harm him, for now I know that you fear the Almighty, seeing that you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me” (c. 2050 BC, Isaac, now 15 years old).
Gen 22:13 Abraham looked up and behold, behind him was a ram caught in the bushes by his horns. Abraham went, took the ram, and offered him up as a burnt offering instead of his son.
Gen 22:14 So Abraham called that place, “Yehowah will Provide”, and it is said to this day, “On the Mountain of Yehowah it will be provided.”
Gen 22:15 The angel of Yehowah called to Abraham a second time from Heaven,
Gen 22:16 this is an oracle of Yehowah, “By myself I have sworn that because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son,

Gen 22:17 I will surely bless you, and I will greatly multiply your descendants as the stars of heaven, and as the sand which is upon the seashore; and your descendants will possess the gate of their enemies.
Gen 22:18 Through your offspring all the ethnicities of the earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice."
Gen 22:19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they departed and went together to Beersheba, and Abraham lived at Beersheba.
Gen 22:20 It came about after these things that Abraham was told, "Milcah has borne children, as well, to your brother Nahor."
Gen 22:21 They were Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,
Gen 22:22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel.
Gen 22:23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. These were the eight children that Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother.
Gen 22:24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

Genesis Chapter 23

Gen 23:1 Sarah lived a hundred and twenty-seven years. These were the years of the life of Sarah.
Gen 23:2 Sarah died (c. 2028 BC) in Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan. Abraham mourned and wept for Sarah.
Gen 23:3 Then Abraham rose up and went from his dead wife, and spoke to the sons of Heth,
Gen 23:4 “I am a sojourning foreigner residing among you. Please grant me a property for a burial place among you, so that I may bury my dead.”
Gen 23:5 The sons of Heth answered Abraham,
Gen 23:6 “Listen to us, my master. You are a prince of the Almighty among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our tombs. None of us will refuse you his tomb, so that you may bury your dead.”
Gen 23:7 Abraham arose and bowed down to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth.
Gen 23:8 He spoke to them, “If you agree that I should bury my dead, then hear me and plead with Ephron son of Zohar, for me.
Gen 23:9 Ask him to sell me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns, which is at the end of his field. For the full price let him sell it to me publicly as a property for a burial place.”
Gen 23:10 Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth, and Ephron the Hethite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth, of all those who had come into the gate of his city,
Gen 23:11 “No, my master, hear me. I give you the field, and the cave that is in it. I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I give it to you to bury your dead.”
Gen 23:12 Then Abraham bowed himself down before the people of the land.
Gen 23:13 He spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, “But if you are willing, please hear me. I will pay for the field. Take the money from me, and I will bury my dead there.”
Gen 23:14 Ephron answered Abraham,
Gen 23:15 “Please, my master, listen to me. A piece of land worth 400-weight silver-currency, what is that between me and you? Bury your dead.”
Gen 23:16 Abraham listened to Ephron and Abraham weighed out to Ephron the amount of silver-currency that he had spoken in the hearing of the sons of Heth, 400-weight silver-currency, according to the standard measurement of the merchants.

Gen 23:17 So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah (Double Cave), which was next to Mamre, that is, the field, the cave that was in it, and all the trees that were in the field and all around its border, passed
Gen 23:18 to Abraham by purchase in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all those who had come into the gate of his city.
Gen 23:19 After this, Abraham buried Sarah, his wife, in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which is next to Mamre, that is, Hebron, in the land of Canaan.
Gen 23:20 So the field and the cave in it passed to Abraham as a property for a burial place from the sons of Heth.

Genesis Chapter 24

Gen 24:1 Now Abraham was quite old and Yehowah had blessed Abraham in all things.
Gen 24:2 Abraham said to his servant, the one who was the oldest of his household, and who was in charge of all that he had, “Put your hand under my thigh,
Gen 24:3 and I will make you swear by Yehowah, Mighty One of Heaven and Mighty One of the earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I make my home.
Gen 24:4 But you will go to my country, and to my relatives, and get a wife for my son Isaac.”
Gen 24:5 The servant asked him, “What if the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land? Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?”
Gen 24:6 Abraham ordered him, “Make sure that you do not take my son back there!
Gen 24:7 Yehowah, Mighty One of Heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my relatives, and who promised me with a solemn oath, ‘To your offspring I will give this land,’ he will send his angel before you, and you will get a wife for my son from there.
Gen 24:8 But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this oath of mine. Only you are not to take my son back there.”
Gen 24:9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.
Gen 24:10 The servant took ten of his master’s camels and departed. He also took with him all kinds of good gifts from his master. He departed and went to the region of Aram Naharaim, to the city of Nahor.
Gen 24:11 He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water. It was dusk, the time that women go out to draw water.
Gen 24:12 Then he prayed (silently; v. 45), “Yehowah, Mighty One of my master Abraham, grant me success today and show covenant faithfulness to my master Abraham.
Gen 24:13 Look, here I am standing by the spring of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
Gen 24:14 Let it happen like this: When I say to a young woman, ‘Please lower your pitcher, so that I may drink,’ and she says to me, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels too,’ then let her be the one that you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown covenant faithfulness to my master.”

Gen 24:15 It came about that even before he had finished praying (silently; v. 45), behold, Rebekah came out with her water pitcher on her shoulder. Rebekah was born to Bethuel son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother.
Gen 24:16 The young woman was exquisitely beautiful and a virgin. No man had had sex with her. She went down to the spring, filled her pitcher, and came up.
Gen 24:17 Then the servant ran to meet her and requested, "Please give me a little drink of water from your pitcher."
Gen 24:18 She said, "Drink, my master," and she quickly let down her pitcher on her hand and gave him a drink.
Gen 24:19 When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking."
Gen 24:20 So she hurried and emptied her pitcher into the trough, then ran again to the well to draw water, and drew water for all his camels.
Gen 24:21 The man watched her in silence to see whether Yehowah had prospered his journey or not.
Gen 24:22 As the camels finished drinking, the man brought out a gold nose ring weighing six grams, and two gold bracelets for her arms weighing 110 grams each,
Gen 24:23 and asked, "Whose daughter are you? Tell me please, is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?"
Gen 24:24 She answered him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor."
Gen 24:25 She also told him, "We have plenty of both straw and feed, and also room for you to spend the night."
Gen 24:26 Then the man bowed down and worshiped Yehowah.
Gen 24:27 He said, "Blessed be Yehowah, Mighty One of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his covenant faithfulness and his trustworthiness toward my master. As for me, Yehowah has led me directly to the house of my master's relatives."
Gen 24:28 Then the young woman ran and told her mother's household about all of these things.
Gen 24:29 Now Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban. Laban ran to the man who was out at the road by the spring.
Gen 24:30 When he had seen the nose ring and the bracelets on his sister's arms, and when he had heard the words of Rebekah his sister, "This is what the man said to me," he went to the man, and behold, he was standing by the camels at the spring.
Gen 24:31 Then Laban said, "Come, you blessed of Yehowah. Why are you standing outside? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels."

Gen 24:32 So the man came to the house, and he unloaded the camels. The camels were given straw and feed, and water was provided to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.
Gen 24:33 They set food before him to eat, but he said, “I will not eat until I have said what I have to say.” So Laban replied, “Speak on.”
Gen 24:34 He said, “I am Abraham’s servant.
Gen 24:35 Yehowah has significantly blessed my master, and he has become great. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male servants and female servants, and camels and donkeys.
Gen 24:36 Sarah, my master’s wife, bore a son to my master when she was old, and he has given everything that he owns to him.
Gen 24:37 My master made me swear, ‘You must not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I make my home.
Gen 24:38 Instead, you must go to my father’s family, and to my relatives, and get a wife for my son.’
Gen 24:39 I responded to my master, ‘Perhaps the woman will not follow me.’
Gen 24:40 But he said to me, ‘Yehowah, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you and he will prosper your way, so that you will get a wife for my son from among my relatives and from my father’s family line.
Gen 24:41 But you will be free from my oath, if you come to my relatives, and they will not give her to you. Then you will be free from my oath.’
Gen 24:42 So I arrived today at the spring and prayed (silently; v. 45), ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of my master Abraham, please, if you do indeed intend to make my journey successful,
Gen 24:43 here I am, standing by the spring of water, let the virgin woman who comes out to draw water, the woman to whom I say, “Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink,”
Gen 24:44 the woman who says to me, “Drink, and I will also draw water for your camels,” let her be the woman whom you, Yehowah, have chosen for my master’s son.’
Gen 24:45 Even before I had finished praying in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her pitcher on her shoulder, and she went down to the spring and drew water. So I entreated her, ‘Please give me a drink.’
Gen 24:46 She quickly lowered her pitcher from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I will give your camels water also.’ So I drank, and she watered the camels also.
Gen 24:47 I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ She answered, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor’s son, whom Milcah bore to him.’ Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her arms.

Gen 24:48 Then I bowed down and worshiped Yehowah, and blessed Yehowah, Mighty One of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right Way to find the daughter of my master's relative for his son.
Gen 24:49 Now therefore, if you are prepared to treat my master with family faithfulness and trustworthiness, tell me. But if not, tell me, so that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."
Gen 24:50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, "The thing has come from Yehowah; we cannot speak to you either bad or good.
Gen 24:51 Look, Rebekah is before you. Take her and go, so she may be the wife of your master's son, as Yehowah has spoken."
Gen 24:52 When Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed himself down to the ground to Yehowah.
Gen 24:53 The servant brought out articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious gifts to her brother and to her mother.
Gen 24:54 Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank. They stayed there overnight, and when they arose at daybreak, he said, "Send me away to my master."
Gen 24:55 Her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us for a few more days, at least ten. After that she may go."
Gen 24:56 But he said to them, "Do not hinder me, since Yehowah has prospered my Way. Send me on my way, so that I may go to my master."
Gen 24:57 They replied, "We will call the young woman and ask her."
Gen 24:58 So they called Rebekah and asked her, "Will you go with this man?" She answered, "I will go."
Gen 24:60 They blessed Rebekah, "Our sister, may you be the mother of a myriad of thousands, and may your descendants possess the gate of those who hate them."
Gen 24:61 Then Rebekah arose, and she and her servant girls mounted the camels, and followed the man. Thus, the servant took Rebekah and went his way.
Gen 24:62 Now Isaac was living in the Negev and had just returned from Beerlahairoi.
Gen 24:63 Isaac went out to meditate in the field when dusk approached. When he looked up and saw, behold, there were camels coming!
Gen 24:64 Rebekah looked, and when she saw Isaac, she jumped down from the camel.
Gen 24:65 She asked the servant, "Who is that man who is walking in the field to meet us?" The servant answered, "It is my master." So she took her veil and covered herself.

Gen 24:66 The servant recounted to Isaac all the things that he had done.
Gen 24:67 Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent and took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he made love to her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

Genesis Chapter 25

Gen 25:2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.
Gen 25:3 Jokshan became the father of Sheba and Dedan. The descendants of Dedan were the Assyrian people, the Letush people, and the Leum people.
Gen 25:4 Midian's sons were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were Keturah's descendants.
Gen 25:5 Abraham gave all that he owned to Isaac.
Gen 25:6 However, while he was still living, Abraham gave gifts to the sons of his concubines and sent them to the land of the East, away from Isaac, his son.
Gen 25:7 These were the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, 175 years.
Gen 25:8 Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age, an old man with a full life, and he was gathered to his people (c. 1990 BC).
Gen 25:9 Isaac and Ishmael, his sons, buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hethite, which is near Mamre.
Gen 25:10 This field Abraham had bought from the sons of Heth. Abraham was buried there with Sarah, his wife.
Gen 25:11 After the death of Abraham, the Almighty blessed Isaac, his son, and Isaac lived near Beerlahairoi.
Gen 25:12 Now these were the descendants of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's servant, bore to Abraham.
Gen 25:13 These were the names of Ishmael's sons, according to their birth order: Nebaioth, the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,
Gen 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,
Gen 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.
Gen 25:16 These were Ishmael's sons, and these were their names, by their villages, and by their encampments; twelve princes according to their tribes.
Gen 25:17 These were the years of the life of Ishmael, 137 years: He breathed his last and died (c. 1942 BC), and was gathered to his people.
Gen 25:18 They lived from Havilah to Shur (modern Tell el-Her), which is near Egypt, as one goes toward Assyria. They died in hostilities with each other.
Gen 25:19 These were the events concerning Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham became the father of Isaac.
Gen 25:20 Isaac was forty years old when he took as his wife, Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddan Aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean (c. 2025 BC).
Gen 25:21 Isaac prayed to Yehowah for his wife, because she was childless, and Yehowah answered his prayer, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

Gen 25:22 The children struggled together within her, and she asked, “Why is this happening to me?” She went to ask Yehowah about this.
Gen 25:23 Yehowah answered her, “Two ethnicities are in your womb, and two people will be separated from within you. One people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger.”
Gen 25:24 When it was time for her to give birth, behold, there were twins in her womb.
Gen 25:25 The first child came out red all over like a hairy garment. They called his name Esau.
Gen 25:26 After that, his brother came out. His hand was grasping Esau’s heel. He was called Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when his wife bore them (c. 2005 BC).
Gen 25:27 The boys grew up, and Esau became a skillful hunter, a man of the field; but Jacob was a quiet man, who spent his time in the tents.
Gen 25:28 Now Isaac loved Esau, because he ate the animals that he had hunted, but Rebekah loved Jacob.
Gen 25:29 Jacob cooked some stew. Esau came in from the field, and he was weak from hunger.
Gen 25:30 Esau begged Jacob, “Feed me with that red stew. Please, I am exhausted!” That is why his name was called Edom.
Gen 25:31 Jacob said, “First, sell me from this day onward your birthright.”
Gen 25:32 Esau said, “Look, I am about to die. What good is the birthright to me?”
Gen 25:33 Jacob said, “First, swear to me today,” so Esau swore an oath, and in that way, he sold his birthright to Jacob.
Gen 25:34 Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils. He ate and drank, then rose up and went on his way. In this manner, Esau despised his birthright (Heb. 12:16).

Genesis Chapter 26

Gen 26:1 Now a famine happened in the land, besides the first famine that had been in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines at Gerar.
Gen 26:2 Now Yehowah appeared to him and promised, “Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land that I tell you to live in.
Gen 26:3 Stay in this land, and I will be with you and will bless you; for to you and to your descendants, I will give all these lands, and I will fulfill the oath that I swore to Abraham your father.
Gen 26:4 I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and will give to your descendants all these lands. Through your descendants all the ethnicities of the earth will be blessed.
Gen 26:5 I will do this, because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my ordinances, my commandments, my statutes, and my law.”
Gen 26:6 So Isaac settled in Gerar.
Gen 26:7 When the men of the place asked him about his wife, he said, “She is my sister.” He feared to say, “She is my wife,” because he thought, “The men of this place will murder me to get Rebekah, because she is so beautiful.”
Gen 26:8 After Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines happened to look out of a window. He saw, behold, Isaac was caressing Rebekah, his wife.
Gen 26:9 Abimelech called Isaac to him and said, “Look, certainly she is your wife. Why did you say, ‘She is my sister?’” Isaac answered him, “Because I thought someone might kill me to get her.”
Gen 26:10 Abimelech replied, “What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have had sex with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”
Gen 26:11 So Abimelech warned all the people, “Whoever touches this man or his wife will surely be executed!”
Gen 26:12 Isaac planted crops in that land and reaped in the same year a hundredfold, because Yehowah blessed him.
Gen 26:13 The man became rich, and grew more and more, until he became extremely great.
Gen 26:14 He had many sheep and cattle, and a large household. The Philistines envied him.
Gen 26:15 Now all the wells that his father’s servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines stopped them up by filling them with dirt.
Gen 26:16 Abimelech ordered Isaac, “Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we.”

Gen 26:17 So Isaac departed from there and settled in the Valley of Gerar, and lived there.
Gen 26:18 Once again, Isaac dug out the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father. The Philistines had stopped them up after Abraham's death. Isaac called the wells by the same names that his father had called them.
Gen 26:19 When Isaac's servants dug in the valley, they found there a well of flowing water.
Gen 26:20 The herdsmen of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's herdsmen, "This water is ours." So Isaac called that well, "Esek," because they had quarreled with him.
Gen 26:21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that, too, so he gave it the name of "Sitnah."
Gen 26:22 He left there and dug yet another well, but they did not quarrel over that one. So he called it, "Rehoboth", and he said, "Now Yehowah has made room for us, and we will prosper in the land."
Gen 26:23 Then Isaac went up from there to Beersheba.
Gen 26:24 Yehowah appeared to him that same night and declared, "I am the Mighty One of Abraham your father. Do not fear, for I am with you and will bless you and multiply your descendants, for my servant Abraham's sake."
Gen 26:25 Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of Yehowah. There he pitched his tent, and his servants dug a well.
Gen 26:26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath, his friend, and Phicol, the commander of his military force.
Gen 26:27 Isaac asked them, "Why are you coming to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?"
Gen 26:28 Then they answered, "We have clearly seen that Yehowah has been with you. So we decided that there should be an oath between us, yes, between us and you. So let us make a covenant with you,
Gen 26:29 that you will do us no harm, just as we have not harmed you, and as we have treated you well and have sent you away in peace. Indeed, you are blessed by Yehowah."
Gen 26:30 So Isaac made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.
Gen 26:31 They rose at daybreak and swore an oath with each other. Then Isaac sent them away, and they left him in peace.
Gen 26:32 That same day, Isaac's servants came and told him about the well that they had dug. They said, "We have found water."
Gen 26:33 He called the well, "Shibah," so the name of that city is Beersheba to this day.
Gen 26:34 When Esau was forty years old (c. 1965 BC), he took a wife, Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hethite, and also Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hethite.

Gen 26:35 They brought sorrow to Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis Chapter 27

Gen 27:1 When Isaac was old and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau, his older son, and said to him, “My son.” He replied to him, “Here I am.”
Gen 27:2 He said, “See here, I am old. I do not know the day of my death.
Gen 27:3 Therefore, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me.
Gen 27:4 Make delicious food for me, the sort that I love, and bring it to me, so I can eat it and bless you before I die.”
Gen 27:5 Now Rebekah heard it when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. Esau went to the field to hunt for game and bring it back.
Gen 27:6 Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, “See here, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother. He said,
Gen 27:7 ‘Bring me game and make me delicious food, that I may eat it and bless you in the presence of Yehowah before my death.’
Gen 27:8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice as I command you.
Gen 27:9 Go to the flock, and bring me two good young goats; and I will make delicious food from them for your father, just like he loves.
Gen 27:10 You will take it to your father, so that he may eat it, so that he may bless you before his death.”
Gen 27:11 Jacob replied to Rebekah his mother, “See, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.
Gen 27:12 Perhaps my father will touch me, and I will seem to him as a deceiver. I will bring a curse upon me and not a blessing.”
Gen 27:13 His mother responded to him, “My son, let any curse fall on me. Just obey my voice, and go, bring them to me.”
Gen 27:14 So Jacob went, took the young goats, and brought them to his mother, and his mother made delicious food, just like his father loved.
Gen 27:15 Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau, her older son, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob, her younger son.
Gen 27:16 She put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.
Gen 27:17 She put the delicious food and the bread that she had prepared into the hand of her son Jacob.
Gen 27:18 Jacob went to his father and said, “My father.” He replied, “Here I am; who are you, my son?”
Gen 27:19 Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn; I have done as you said to me. Now sit up and eat some of my game, that you may bless me.”

Gen 27:20 Isaac asked his son, “How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?” He answered, “Because Yehowah your Divine One brought it to me.”
Gen 27:21 Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near me, so I may touch you, my son, and learn whether you are my true son Esau or not.”
Gen 27:22 Jacob went over to Isaac his father; and Isaac touched him and said, “The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”
Gen 27:23 Isaac did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy, like his brother Esau’s hands, so Isaac blessed him.
Gen 27:24 He asked, “Are you really my son Esau?” He answered, “I am.”
Gen 27:25 Isaac ordered, “Bring the food to me, and I will eat of your game, so that I may bless you.” Jacob brought the food to him. Isaac ate, and Jacob brought him wine, and he drank.
Gen 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come near now and kiss me, my son.”
Gen 27:27 Jacob came near and kissed him, and he smelled the smell of his clothes and blessed him. He said, “See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that Yehowah has blessed.
Gen 27:28 May the Almighty give you a portion of the dew of the heavens, a portion of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.
Gen 27:29 May people serve you and ethnicities bow down to you. Be master over your brothers, and may your mother’s sons bow down to you. May every one who curses you be cursed; may every one who blesses you be blessed.”
Gen 27:30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
Gen 27:31 He also made delicious food and brought it to his father. He said to his father, “Father, get up and eat some of your son’s game, so that you may bless me.”
Gen 27:32 Isaac his father asked him, “Who are you?” He answered, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”
Gen 27:33 Isaac greatly trembled anxiously, and said, “Who was it that hunted this game and brought it to me? I ate it all before you came, and I have blessed him. Indeed, he will be blessed.”
Gen 27:34 When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an extremely great and bitter cry to his father, “Bless me, me also, my father!”
Gen 27:35 Isaac said, “Your brother came here deceitfully and has taken away your blessing.”
Gen 27:36 Esau responded, “Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has cheated me these two times. He took away my birthright, and see, now he has taken away my blessing.” Then he asked, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”

Gen 27:37 Isaac answered and said to Esau, “Look, I have made him your master, and I have given to him all his brothers as servants, and I have given him grain and new wine. What more can I do for you, my son?”
Gen 27:38 Esau said to his father, “Have you not even one blessing for me, my father? Bless me, even me too, my father!” Esau wept loudly.
Gen 27:39 Isaac his father answered him, “Look, the place where you live will be far from the richness of the earth, away from the dew of the sky above.
Gen 27:40 By your sword you will live, and you will serve your brother. But when you rebel, you will shake his yoke from off your neck.”
Gen 27:41 Esau hated Jacob, because of the blessing that his father had given him. Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are near; after that I will murder my brother Jacob.”
Gen 27:42 The words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah. So she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, “See, your brother Esau is consoling himself about you by planning to murder you.
Gen 27:43 Now therefore, my son, obey me and flee to Laban, my brother, in Haran.
Gen 27:44 Stay with him for a few days, until your brother’s fury subsides,
Gen 27:45 until your brother’s anger turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and bring you back from there. Why should I lose you both in one day?”
Gen 27:46 Rebekah complained to Isaac, “I am weary of life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes one of the daughters of Heth as a wife, like these women, some of the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?”

Genesis Chapter 28

Gen 28:1 Isaac called Jacob, blessed him, and commanded him, “You must not take a wife from the Canaanite women.
Gen 28:2 Arise, go to Paddan Aram, to the house of Bethuel your mother’s father, and take a wife from there, one of the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.
Gen 28:3 May the Most Powerful Sovereign bless you, make you fruitful and multiply you, so that you may become a congregation of people.
Gen 28:4 May he give you the blessing of Abraham, to you, and to your descendants after you, that you may inherit the land where you have been living, which the Almighty gave to Abraham.”
Gen 28:5 So Isaac sent Jacob away. Jacob went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob’s and Esau’s mother.
Gen 28:6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan Aram, to take a wife from there. He also saw that Isaac had blessed him and given him a command, “You must not take a wife from the women of Canaan.”
Gen 28:7 Esau also saw that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother, and had gone to Paddan Aram.
Gen 28:8 Esau saw that the women of Canaan did not please Isaac his father.
Gen 28:9 So he went to Ishmael, and took, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham’s son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.
Gen 28:11 He came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones in that place, put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep.
Gen 28:12 He dreamed and saw a stairway set up on the earth. Its top reached to Heaven, and the angels of the Almighty were ascending and descending on it (John 1:51).
Gen 28:13 Behold, Yehowah stood above it and said, “I am Yehowah, Mighty One of Abraham your father, and the Mighty One of Isaac. The land on which you are lying, I will give to you and to your descendants.
Gen 28:14 Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread far out to the west, to the east, to the north, and to the south. Through you and through your descendants will all the families of the earth be blessed.
Gen 28:15 Behold, I am with you, and I will keep you wherever you go. I will bring you into this land again; for I will not leave you. I will do all that I have promised to you.”

Gen 28:16 Jacob awoke out of his sleep, and he said, “Surely, Yehowah is in this place, and I did not know it.”
Gen 28:17 He was afraid and exclaimed, “How terrifying is this place! This is none other than the temple of the Almighty. This is the gate of Heaven.”
Gen 28:18 Jacob arose at daybreak and took the stone that he had put under his head. He set it up as a pillar and poured oil upon the top of it.
Gen 28:19 He called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city originally was Luz.
Gen 28:20 Jacob vowed a vow, “If the Almighty will be with me and will protect me on this road on which I am walking, and will give me bread to eat and clothes to wear,
Gen 28:21 so that I return safely to my father’s house, then Yehowah will be my Divine One.
Gen 28:22 Then this stone that I have set up as a memorial pillar will be the temple of the Almighty. From everything that you give me, I will surely give a tenth back to you.”

Genesis Chapter 29

Gen 29:1 Then Jacob went on his journey and came to the land of the people of the East.
Gen 29:2 As he looked, he saw a well in the field, and behold, three flocks of sheep were lying there by it. For out of that well they would water the flocks, and the stone over the well's mouth was large.
Gen 29:3 When all the flocks had gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the well's mouth and water the sheep, and then put the stone again over the well's mouth, back in its place.
Gen 29:4 Jacob asked them, "My brothers, where are you from?" They answered, "We are from Haran."
Gen 29:5 He asked them, "Do you know Laban, son of Nahor?" They answered, "We know him."
Gen 29:6 He asked them, "Is he well?" They replied, "He is well, and look there, Rachel his daughter is coming with the sheep."
Gen 29:7 Jacob replied, "See, it is the middle of the day. It is not the time for the flocks to be gathered together. You should water the sheep and then go and let them graze."
Gen 29:8 They responded, "We cannot water them until all the flocks are gathered together. The men will then roll the stone from the well's mouth, and we will water the sheep."
Gen 29:9 While Jacob was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was tending them.
Gen 29:10 When Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother's brother, Jacob came over, rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban, his mother's brother.
Gen 29:11 Jacob kissed Rachel and wept loudly.
Gen 29:12 Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's relative, and that he was Rebekah's son. Then she ran and told her father.
Gen 29:13 When Laban heard the news about Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him, embraced him, kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things.
Gen 29:14 Laban said to him, "You are indeed my bone and my flesh." Then Jacob stayed with him for one month.
Gen 29:15 Then Laban asked Jacob, "Should you serve me for nothing, because you are my relative? Tell me, what will your wages be?"
Gen 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters. The name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.
Gen 29:17 Leah's eyes were tender, but Rachel was beautiful in form and appearance.

Gen 29:18 Jacob loved Rachel, so he answered, “I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter.”
Gen 29:19 Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me.”
Gen 29:20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed to him only a few days, for the love he had for her.
Gen 29:21 Jacob entreated Laban, “Give me my wife, for my days have been completed, so that I may marry her!”
Gen 29:22 So Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.
Gen 29:23 At dusk, Laban took Leah his daughter and brought her to Jacob, who made love to her.
Gen 29:24 Laban gave his female servant Zilpah to his daughter Leah, to be her servant.
Gen 29:25 When daybreak came, behold, it was Leah! Jacob asked Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve you for Rachel? Why then have you tricked me?”
Gen 29:26 Laban explained, “It is not our custom to give the younger daughter before the firstborn.
Gen 29:27 Complete the bridal week of this daughter, and we will give you the other also, in return for serving me another seven years.”
Gen 29:28 Jacob did so and completed Leah’s week. Then Laban gave him Rachel his daughter as his wife also.
Gen 29:29 Laban also gave Bilhah to his daughter Rachel, to be her servant.
Gen 29:30 So Jacob made love to Rachel, too, but he loved Rachel more than Leah. So Jacob served Laban for seven more years.
Gen 29:31 Yehowah saw that Leah was not loved, so he opened her womb, but Rachel was childless.
Gen 29:32 Leah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Reuben. For she said, “Because Yehowah has looked upon my affliction; surely now my husband will love me.”
Gen 29:33 Then she conceived again and bore a son. She said, “Because Yehowah has heard that I am unloved, he has therefore given me this son also,” and she called his name Simeon.
Gen 29:34 Then she conceived again and bore a son. She said, “Now this time will my husband be attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore, his name was called Levi.
Gen 29:35 She conceived again and bore a son. She said, “This time I will praise Yehowah!” Therefore, she called his name Judah (Yehudah); then she stopped having children.

Genesis Chapter 30

Gen 30:1 When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister. She begged Jacob, “Give me children, or I will die.”
Gen 30:2 Jacob’s anger burned against Rachel. He asked, “Am I in the place of the Almighty, who has kept you from having children?”
Gen 30:3 She answered, “See, there is my servant Bilhah. Have sex with her, so she might give birth to children on my knees, and I will have children by her.”
Gen 30:4 So she gave him her servant Bilhah as a wife, and Jacob made love with her.
Gen 30:5 Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.
Gen 30:6 Then Rachel said, “The Almighty has judged in my favor. He has listened to my prayer and given me a son.” For this reason she called his name Dan.
Gen 30:7 Bilhah, Rachel’s servant, conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.
Gen 30:8 Rachel said, “With mighty wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister and have prevailed.” She called his name Naphtali.
Gen 30:9 When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took Zilpah, her servant, and gave her to Jacob as a wife.
Gen 30:10 Zilpah, Leah’s servant, bore Jacob a son.
Gen 30:11 Leah said, “This is fortunate!” so she called his name Gad.
Gen 30:12 Then Zilpah, Leah’s servant, bore Jacob a second son.
Gen 30:13 Leah said, “I am happy! For the daughters will call me happy.” So she called his name Asher.
Gen 30:14 Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field. He brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel requested of Leah, “Give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”
Gen 30:15 Leah asked her, “Is it a small matter to you, that you have taken away my husband? Do you now want to take away my son’s mandrakes, too?” Rachel answered, “Then he will make love to you tonight, in exchange for your son’s mandrakes.”
Gen 30:16 Jacob came from the field at dusk. Leah went out to meet him and said, “You must make love to me tonight, for I have hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” So Jacob made love to Leah that night.
Gen 30:17 The Almighty listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.
Gen 30:18 Leah said, “The Almighty has given me my wages, because I gave my servant woman to my husband.” She called his name Issachar.
Gen 30:19 Leah conceived again and bore a sixth son to Jacob.

Gen 30:20 Leah said, “The Almighty has given me a good gift. Now my husband will honor me, because I have borne him six sons.” She called his name Zebulun.
Gen 30:21 Afterwards she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.
Gen 30:22 The Almighty called Rachel to mind and listened to her. He caused her to become pregnant.
Gen 30:23 She conceived and bore a son. She said, “The Almighty has taken away my shame.”
Gen 30:24 She called his name Joseph, saying, “Yehowah has added to me another son” (c. 1914 BC).
Gen 30:25 After Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, so that I may go to my own home and to my country.
Gen 30:26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go, for you know the service I have given you.”
Gen 30:27 Laban said to him, “If now I have found grace in your eyes, wait, because I have learned by using divination that Yehowah has blessed me for your sake.”
Gen 30:28 Then he said, “Name your wages, and I will pay them.”
Gen 30:29 Jacob replied to him, “You know how I have served you, and how your livestock have fared with me.
Gen 30:30 For you had little before I came, and it has increased abundantly. Yehowah has blessed you wherever I worked. Now, when will I provide for my own household also?”
Gen 30:31 So Laban asked, “What will I pay you?” Jacob answered, “You will not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it.
Gen 30:32 Let me walk through all your flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep, and every black one among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. These will be my wages.
Gen 30:33 My integrity will testify for me later on, when you come to check on my wages. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, if any are found with me, will be considered to be stolen.”
Gen 30:34 Laban said, “Agreed. Let it be according to your word.”
Gen 30:35 That day, Laban removed the male goats that were striped and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.
Gen 30:36 Laban also put three days journey between himself and Jacob. So Jacob kept tending the rest of Laban’s flocks.

Gen 30:37 Jacob took fresh cut branches of fresh poplar, and of the almond and of the plane tree, and peeled white streaks in them, and made the white inner wood appear that was in the sticks.
Gen 30:38 Then he set the sticks that he had peeled in front of the flocks, in front of the watering troughs where they came to drink. They conceived when they came to drink.
Gen 30:39 The flocks bred in front of the sticks; and the flocks produced striped, speckled, and spotted young.
Gen 30:40 Jacob separated out these lambs, but made the rest of them face toward the striped animals and all the black sheep in the flock of Laban. Then he separated out his flocks for himself alone and did not put them together with Laban's flocks.
Gen 30:41 Whenever the stronger sheep in the flock were breeding, then Jacob would lay the sticks in the watering troughs before the eyes of the flock, so that they might conceive among the sticks.
Gen 30:42 But when the feebler animals in the flock came, he did not put the sticks in front of them. So the feebler animals were Laban's, and the stronger were Jacob's.
Gen 30:43 The man became superabundantly prosperous. He had large flocks, female servants and male servants, and camels and jack donkeys.

Genesis Chapter 31

Gen 31:1 Now Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and it is from our father's possessions that he has gotten all this wealth."
Gen 31:2 Jacob saw the look on Laban's face. He saw that his attitude toward him had changed.
Gen 31:3 Then Yehowah ordered Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."
Gen 31:4 Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock,
Gen 31:5 and said to them, "I see your father's attitude toward me has changed, but the Mighty One of my father has been with me.
Gen 31:6 You know that it is with all my strength that I have served your father.
Gen 31:7 Your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but the Almighty has not permitted him to hurt me.
Gen 31:8 If he said, 'The speckled animals will be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled young. If he said, 'The striped will be your wages,' then the whole flock bore striped young.
Gen 31:9 In this way, the Almighty has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.
Gen 31:10 Once, at the time of breeding season, I saw in a dream the male goats that were mating with the flock. The male goats were striped, speckled, and spotted.
Gen 31:11 The angel of the Almighty said to me in the dream, 'Jacob.' I answered, 'Here I am.'
Gen 31:12 He said, 'Lift up your eyes and see all the male goats that are breeding with the flock. They are striped, speckled, and spotted, for I have seen everything that Laban is doing to you.
Gen 31:13 I am the Mighty One of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you made a vow to me. Now rise up, leave this land, and return to the land of your birth.'"
Gen 31:14 Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there any portion or inheritance for us in our father's household?
Gen 31:15 Are we not treated by him as foreigners? For he has sold us and has also completely devoured our money.
Gen 31:16 For all the riches that the Almighty has taken away from our father are now ours and our children's. Now then, whatever the Almighty has said to you, do it."
Gen 31:17 Then Jacob arose and placed his sons and his wives upon the camels.

Gen 31:18 He drove all his livestock ahead of him, along with all his property, including the livestock he had acquired in Paddan Aram. Then he set out to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.
Gen 31:20 Jacob also deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him that he was leaving.
Gen 31:21 So he fled with all that he had and quickly passed over the River, and headed toward the hill country of Gilead.
Gen 31:22 On the third day, Laban was told that Jacob had fled.
Gen 31:23 So he took his relatives with him and pursued him for a seven days' journey. He overtook him in the hill country of Gilead.
Gen 31:24 Now the Almighty came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night, and said to him, "Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad."
Gen 31:25 Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country. Laban also camped with his relatives in the hill country of Gilead.
Gen 31:26 Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done, that you deceived me and carried away my daughters like prisoners of war?
Gen 31:27 Why did you flee secretly, trick me, and did not tell me? I would have sent you away with celebration and with songs, with tambourine and with harps.
Gen 31:28 You did not allow me to kiss my grandsons and my daughters good bye. Now you have done foolishly.
Gen 31:29 It is in my power to do you harm, but the Mighty One of your father spoke to me last night, 'Be careful that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.'
Gen 31:30 Now you have gone away, because you longed to return to your father's house. But why did you steal my deities?"
Gen 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, and thought that you would take your daughters from me by force; I left secretly.
Gen 31:32 Whoever has stolen your deities will be executed. In the presence of our relatives, identify whatever with me is yours and take it." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.
Gen 31:33 Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two female servants, but he did not find them. He went out of Leah's tent and entered into Rachel's tent.
Gen 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household deities, put them in a camel's saddle, and sat upon them. Laban searched the whole tent but did not find them.
Gen 31:35 She said to her father, "Do not be angry, my master, that I cannot stand up before you, for I am having my period." So he searched but did not find his household deities.

Gen 31:36 Jacob was angry and argued with Laban. He said to him, “What is my offense? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me?
Gen 31:37 For you have searched all my possessions. What have you found of all your household goods? Set them here before our relatives, so that they may judge between us two.
Gen 31:38 For twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten any rams from your flocks.
Gen 31:39 What was torn by beasts I did not bring to you. Instead, I bore the loss of it. You always made me pay for every missing animal, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.
Gen 31:40 There I was; in the day, the heat consumed me and the frost by night; and I went without sleep.
Gen 31:41 These twenty years I have been in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock (c. 1908 BC). You have changed my wages ten times.
Gen 31:42 Unless the Mighty One of my father, the Mighty One of Abraham, and the One Isaac fears, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. The Almighty has seen my oppression and how hard I worked, and he rebuked you last night.”
Gen 31:43 Laban answered Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, the grandchildren are my grandchildren, and the flocks are my flocks. All that you see is mine. But what can I do today to these my daughters, or to their children whom they have borne?
Gen 31:44 So now, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be for a witness between you and me.”
Gen 31:45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.
Gen 31:46 Jacob ordered his relatives, “Gather stones.” So they took stones and made a pile. Then they ate there by the pile.
Gen 31:47 Laban called it Jegar Saha Dutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.
Gen 31:48 Laban said, “This pile is a witness between me and you today.” Therefore, its name was called Galeed.
Gen 31:49 It is also called Mizpah (modern Tell en-Nasbeh), because Laban said, “May Yehowah watch between you and me, when we are out of sight one from another.
Gen 31:50 If you mistreat my daughters, or if you take any wives besides my daughters, although no one else is with us, see, the Almighty is witness between you and me.”
Gen 31:51 Laban said to Jacob, “Look at this pile, and look at the pillar, which I have set between you and me.

Gen 31:52 This pile is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this pile to you, and that you will not pass beyond this pile and this pillar to me, to do harm.
Gen 31:53 May the Mighty One of Abraham, and the Mighty One of Nahor, the Mighty One of their father (Terah), judge between us." Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.
Gen 31:54 Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and called his relatives to eat a meal. They ate and spent the entire night on the mountain.
Gen 31:55 At daybreak, Laban rose up, kissed his grandsons and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban left and returned home.

Genesis Chapter 32

Gen 32:1 Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of the Almighty met him.
Gen 32:2 When Jacob saw them, he said, “This is the camp of the Almighty,” so he called the name of that place Two Camps.
Gen 32:3 Jacob sent messengers on ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, in the region of Edom (modern Jordan).
Gen 32:4 He commanded them, “This is what you will say to my master Esau: This is what your servant Jacob says: ‘I have been staying with Laban, and have delayed my return until now.
Gen 32:5 I have oxen, donkeys, and flocks, male servants, and female servants. I have sent this message to my master, so that I may find grace in your sight.’”
Gen 32:6 The messengers returned to Jacob and reported, “We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”
Gen 32:7 Then Jacob was deathly afraid and upset. So he divided the people who were with him into two camps, and also the flocks, the herds, and the camels.
Gen 32:8 He said, “If Esau comes to one camp and attacks it, then the camp that is left will escape.”
Gen 32:9 Jacob prayed, “The Mighty One of my father Abraham, and the Mighty One of my father Isaac, Yehowah, who ordered me, ‘Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will prosper you,’
Gen 32:10 I am not worthy of all your acts of covenant faithfulness and of all the trustworthiness that you have done for your servant. For with only my trekking pole I passed over this Jordan River, and now I have become two camps.
Gen 32:11 Please rescue me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I am afraid of him, that he will come and attack me and the mothers with the children.
Gen 32:12 But you promised, ‘I will certainly make you prosper. I will make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted for their large number.’”
Gen 32:13 Jacob stayed there that night. He took some of what he had with him as a gift for Esau, his brother:
Gen 32:14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,
Gen 32:15 thirty milking camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty jenny donkeys and ten jack donkeys.
Gen 32:16 These he gave into the hand of his servants, every herd by itself. He ordered his servants, “Go on ahead of me and put a space between each of the herds.”

Gen 32:17 He instructed the first servant, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, ‘To whom do you belong? Where are you going? Whose animals are these that are in front of you?’
Gen 32:18 Then you will answer, ‘They are your servant Jacob’s. They are a gift sent to my master Esau. See, he is also coming after us.’”
Gen 32:19 Jacob also gave instructions to the second group, the third, and all the men who followed the herds. He said, “You will say the same thing to Esau when you meet him.
Gen 32:20 You must also say, ‘Your servant Jacob is coming after us.’” For he thought, “I will appease him with the gifts that I am sending ahead of me. Then later, when I will see him, perhaps he will receive me.”
Gen 32:21 So the gifts went on ahead of him. He himself stayed that night in the camp.
Gen 32:22 Jacob rose up during the night, and took his two wives, his two women servants, and his eleven sons. He sent them across the ford of the Jabbok River (modern Yarmuk River).
Gen 32:23 In this way, he sent them across the stream along with all his possessions.
Gen 32:24 Jacob was left alone, and a Man wrestled with him until daybreak.
Gen 32:25 When the Man saw that he could not defeat him, he struck Jacob’s hip. Jacob’s hip was dislocated as he wrestled with him.
Gen 32:26 The Man said, “Let me go, for dawn is breaking.” Jacob replied, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”
Gen 32:27 The Man asked him, “What is your name?” Jacob answered, “Jacob.”
Gen 32:28 The Man said, “Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel. For you have struggled with the Almighty and with men and have prevailed.”
Gen 32:29 Jacob entreated him, “Please tell me your name.” He asked, “Why is it that you ask my name?” Then he blessed him there.
Gen 32:30 Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, for he said, “I have seen the Almighty face to face, and my life is delivered.”
Gen 32:31 The sun rose on Jacob as he passed Peniel. He was limping because of his hip.
Gen 32:32 That is why to this day the people of Israel do not eat the ligaments of the hip, which are at the hip joint, because the Man injured those ligaments while dislocating Jacob’s hip.

Genesis Chapter 33

Gen 33:1 Jacob looked up and behold, Esau was coming, and with him were four hundred men. Jacob divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two female servants.
Gen 33:2 Then he put the female servants and their children in front, followed by Leah and her children, and followed by Rachel and Joseph last of all.
Gen 33:3 He himself went on ahead of them. He bowed toward the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.
Gen 33:4 Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, hugged his neck, and kissed him. Then they wept.
Gen 33:5 When Esau looked up, he saw the women and the children. He asked, "Who are these people with you?" Jacob answered, "The children whom the Almighty has graciously given your servant."
Gen 33:6 Then the female servants came forward with their children, and they bowed down.
Gen 33:7 Next, Leah also and her children came forward and bowed down. Finally, Joseph and Rachel came forward and bowed down.
Gen 33:8 Esau asked, "What do you mean by all these groups that I met?" Jacob answered, "To find grace in the sight of my master."
Gen 33:9 Esau said, "I have enough, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself."
Gen 33:10 Jacob replied, "No, please, if I have found grace in your sight, then accept my gift from my hand, for indeed, I have seen your face, and it is like seeing the face of the Almighty, and you have accepted me.
Gen 33:11 Please accept my gift that was brought to you, because the Almighty has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough." Thus Jacob urged him, and Esau accepted it.
Gen 33:12 Then Esau said, "Let us be on our way. I will go before you."
Gen 33:13 Jacob responded to him, "My master knows that the children are young, and that the sheep and the cattle are nursing their young. If they are driven hard even one day, all the animals will die.
Gen 33:14 Please let my master go on ahead of his servant. I will travel more slowly, at the pace of the livestock that are before me, and at the pace of the children, until I come to my master in Seir."
Gen 33:15 Esau suggested, "Let me leave with you some of my men who are with me." But Jacob replied, "Why do that? My master has already been kind enough to me."
Gen 33:16 So Esau that day started on his way back to Seir.

Gen 33:17 Jacob traveled to Succoth, built himself a house, and made shelters for his livestock. Therefore, the name of the place is called Succoth.
Gen 33:18 When Jacob came from Paddan Aram, he arrived safely at the friendly city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan. He camped near the city.
Gen 33:19 Then he bought the piece of ground where he had pitched his tent from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for 100-weight silver-currency.
Gen 33:20 There he set up an altar and called out, "Almighty Mighty One of Israel!"

Genesis Chapter 34

Gen 34:1 Now Dinah, Leah's daughter whom she bore to Jacob, went out to meet the young women of the land.
Gen 34:2 Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land saw her, and he grabbed her, assaulted her, and raped her.
Gen 34:3 He was drawn to Dinah, the daughter of Jacob. He loved the young woman and spoke tenderly to her.
Gen 34:4 Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, "Get this young woman for me as a wife."
Gen 34:5 Now Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. His sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob held his peace until they came.
Gen 34:6 Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him.
Gen 34:7 The sons of Jacob came in from the field when they heard of the matter. The men were offended. They were extremely angry, because he had disgraced Israel by forcing himself on Jacob's daughter, for such a thing should not have been done.
Gen 34:8 Hamor spoke with them, "My son Shechem loves your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife.
Gen 34:9 Intermarry with us, give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.
Gen 34:10 You will live with us, and the land will be open to you to live and trade in, and to acquire property."
Gen 34:11 Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find grace in your eyes, and whatever you tell me I will give.
Gen 34:12 Ask me for as great a bride price and gift as you will, and I will give whatever you say to me, but give me the young woman as a wife."
Gen 34:14 They responded to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to anyone who is uncircumcised; for that would be a disgrace to us.
Gen 34:15 Only on this condition will we agree with you: If you will become circumcised as we are, if every male among you is circumcised.
Gen 34:16 Then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to ourselves, and we will live with you and become one people.
Gen 34:17 But if you do not listen to us and become circumcised, then we will take our sister, and we will leave."
Gen 34:18 Their words pleased Hamor and his son Shechem.

Gen 34:19 The young man did not delay to do what they said, because he delighted in Jacob's daughter, and because he was the most honored person in all his father's household.
Gen 34:20 Hamor and Shechem his son went to the gate of their city and spoke with the men of their city,
Gen 34:21 "These men are at peace with us, so let them live in the land and trade in it, for really, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters as wives, and let us give them our daughters.
Gen 34:22 Only on this condition will the men agree to live with us and become one people: If every male among us is circumcised, as they are circumcised.
Gen 34:23 Will not their livestock and their property, all their animals, be ours? So let us agree with them, and they will live among us."
Gen 34:24 All the men of the city listened to Hamor and Shechem, his son. Every male was circumcised.
Gen 34:25 On the third day, when they were still in pain, two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, and they attacked the city that was certain of its security, and they murdered all the males.
Gen 34:26 They murdered Hamor and his son Shechem with the edge of the sword. They took Dinah from Shechem's house and went away.
Gen 34:27 The other sons of Jacob came to the homicide victims and looted the city, because the people had defiled their sister.
Gen 34:28 They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, and everything in the city and in the surrounding fields,
Gen 34:29 with all their wealth. All their children and their wives, they captured. They even took everything that was in the houses.
Gen 34:30 Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me, to make me stink to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. If they gather themselves together against me and attack me, then I will be destroyed, I and my household."
Gen 34:31 But Simeon and Levi asked, "Should Shechem have dealt with our sister as with a prostitute?"

Genesis Chapter 35

Gen 35:1 The Almighty ordered Jacob, “Arise, go up to Bethel and stay there. Build an altar there to the Almighty, who appeared to you when you fled from Esau your brother.”
Gen 35:2 Then Jacob ordered his household and all who were with him, “Put away the foreign deities that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your clothes.
Gen 35:3 Then let us depart and go up to Bethel. I will build an altar there to the Almighty, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone.”
Gen 35:4 So they gave to Jacob all the foreign deities that were in their hand, and the rings that were in their ears. Jacob buried them under the oak that was near Shechem.
Gen 35:5 As they traveled, the Almighty made panic to fall on the cities that were around them, so those people did not pursue the sons of Jacob.
Gen 35:6 So Jacob arrived at Luz, that is, Bethel, which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him.
Gen 35:7 He built an altar there and called the place Bethel (LXX), because there the Almighty had revealed himself to him, when he was fleeing from his brother.
Gen 35:8 Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died. She was buried down from Bethel under the oak tree, so it was called Allon Bacuth.
Gen 35:9 When Jacob came from Paddan Aram, the Almighty appeared to him again and blessed him.
Gen 35:10 The Almighty said to him, “Your name is Jacob, but your name will no longer be called Jacob. Your name will be Israel.” So he called his name Israel.
Gen 35:11 The Almighty promised him, “I am the Most Powerful Sovereign. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a coalition of ethnicities will come from you, and kings will be among your descendants.
Gen 35:12 The land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you. To your descendants after you, I also give the land.”
Gen 35:13 The Almighty went up from him in the place where he spoke with him.
Gen 35:14 Jacob set up a pillar in the place where Yehowah had spoken to him, a stone pillar. He poured out a drink offering over it and poured oil on it.
Gen 35:15 Jacob called the name of the place where the Almighty spoke with him, Bethel.
Gen 35:16 They journeyed on from Bethel. While they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labor. She had hard labor.
Gen 35:17 While she was in hardest labor, the midwife said to her, “Do not be afraid, for now you will have another son.”

Gen 35:18 As she was dying, with her dying breath she named him Benoni, but his father called him Benjamin.
Gen 35:19 Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, that is, Bethlehem.
Gen 35:20 Jacob set up a pillar upon her grave. It is the marker of Rachel's grave to this day.
Gen 35:21 Israel traveled on and pitched his tent beyond the tower of the flock.
Gen 35:22 While Israel was living in that land, Reuben had sex with Bilhah his father's concubine, and Israel heard of it. Now Jacob had twelve sons.
Gen 35:23 His sons by Leah were Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.
Gen 35:24 His sons by Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.
Gen 35:25 His sons by Bilhah, Rachel's female servant, were Dan and Naphtali.
Gen 35:26 The sons of Zilpah, Leah's female servant, were Gad and Asher. All these were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan Aram.
Gen 35:27 Jacob came to Isaac, his father, in Mamre in Kiriath Arba, the same as Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had lived.
Gen 35:29 Isaac breathed his last and died (c. 1885 BC), and was gathered to his ancestors, an old man full of days. Esau and Jacob, his sons, buried him.

Genesis Chapter 36

Gen 36:1 These were the descendants of Esau, also called Edom.
Gen 36:2 Esau took his wives from the Canaanites. These were his wives: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hethite; Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite;
Gen 36:3 and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebaioth.
Gen 36:5 Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.
Gen 36:6 Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the members of his household, his livestock, all his animals, and all his possessions, which he had gathered in the land of Canaan, and went into a land away from his brother Jacob.
Gen 36:7 He did this, because their possessions were too many for them to stay together. The land where they had settled could not support them because of their livestock.
Gen 36:8 So Esau, also known as Edom, settled in the hill country of Seir.
Gen 36:9 These were the descendants of Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.
Gen 36:10 These were the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz son of Adah, the wife of Esau; Reuel son of Basemath, the wife of Esau.
Gen 36:12 Timna, a concubine of Eliphaz, Esau's son, bore Amalek. These were the grandsons of Adah, Esau's wife.
Gen 36:13 These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the grandsons of Basemath, Esau's wife.
Gen 36:14 These were the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife, who was the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon. She bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.
Gen 36:15 These were the clans among Esau's descendants: the descendants of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau: Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz,
Gen 36:16 Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, and Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in the land of Edom. They were the grandsons of Adah.
Gen 36:17 These were the chiefs from Reuel, Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs descended from Reuel in the land of Edom. They were the grandsons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

Gen 36:18 These were the chiefs of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jalam, Chief Korah. These are the chiefs that descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah, daughter of Anah.
Gen 36:19 These were the sons of Esau, and these are their chiefs.
Gen 36:20 These were the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,
Gen 36:21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the inhabitants of Seir in the land of Edom.
Gen 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Heman, and Timna was Lotan's sister.
Gen 36:23 These were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.
Gen 36:24 These were the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness, as he was pasturing jack donkeys of Zibeon his father.
Gen 36:25 These were the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.
Gen 36:26 These were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.
Gen 36:27 These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.
Gen 36:28 These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.
Gen 36:30 Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, Chief Dishan: These were chiefs of the Horites, according to their clan lists in the land of Seir.
Gen 36:31 These were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelis:
Gen 36:32 Bela son of Beor, reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
Gen 36:33 When Bela died, then Jobab son of Zerah of Bozrah, reigned in his place.
Gen 36:34 When Jobab died, Husham who was of the land of the Temanites, reigned in his place.
Gen 36:35 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated the Midianites in the land of Moab (modern Jordan), reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith.
Gen 36:36 When Hadad died, then Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.
Gen 36:37 When Samlah died, then Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his place.
Gen 36:38 When Shaul died, then Baal Hanan son of Achbor reigned in his place.
Gen 36:39 When Baal Hanan son of Achbor died, then Hadar reigned in his place. The name of his city was Pau. His wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the granddaughter of Me Zahab.

Gen 36:40 These were the names of the chiefs from Esau's descendants, according to their clans and their regions, by their names: Chief Timna, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth,
Gen 36:41 Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon,
Gen 36:42 Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar,
Gen 36:43 Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the clan heads of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they possessed. This was Esau, the father of the Edomites.

Genesis Chapter 37

Gen 37:1 Jacob lived in the land where his father was staying, in the land of Canaan.
Gen 37:2 These were the events concerning Jacob. Joseph, who was a young man seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers. He was with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought an unfavorable report about them to their father (c. 1897 BC).
Gen 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was the son of his old age. He made him an ankle-length long-sleeved garment.
Gen 37:4 His brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers. They hated him and would not speak cordially to him.
Gen 37:5 Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told his brothers about it. They hated him even more.
Gen 37:6 He explained to them, "Please listen to this dream which I dreamed:
Gen 37:7 Behold, we were tying bundles of grain in the field and behold, my bundle rose and stood upright, and behold, your bundles came around and bowed down to my bundle."
Gen 37:8 His brothers asked him, "Will you really reign over us? Will you actually rule over us?" They hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.
Gen 37:9 He dreamed another dream and told it to his brothers. He explained, "Look, I have dreamed another dream: The sun, the moon, and eleven stars bowed down to me."
Gen 37:10 He told it to his father just as to his brothers, and his father rebuked him. He asked him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come to bow down to the ground to you?"
Gen 37:11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.
Gen 37:12 His brothers went to tend their father's flock in Shechem.
Gen 37:13 Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers tending the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." Joseph responded to him, "I am ready."
Gen 37:14 He ordered him, "Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers and well with the flock, and bring me word." So Jacob sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and Joseph went to Shechem.
Gen 37:15 A certain man found Joseph. Behold, Joseph was wandering in a field. The man asked him, "What do you seek?"
Gen 37:16 Joseph answered, "I am seeking my brothers. Tell me, please, where they are tending the flock."

Gen 37:17 The man replied, “They left this place, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’” Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.
Gen 37:18 They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they plotted against him to kill him.
Gen 37:19 His brothers said to one another, “Look, this master dreamer is approaching.
Gen 37:20 Come now, therefore, let us murder him and cast him into one of the pits. We will say, ‘A wild animal has devoured him.’ We will see what will become of his dreams.”
Gen 37:21 Reuben heard it and rescued him from their hand. He said, “Let us not take his life.”
Gen 37:22 Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness but lay no hand upon him,” that he might rescue him out of their hand to bring him back to his father.
Gen 37:23 It came about that when Joseph reached his brothers, they stripped him of his beautiful garment.
Gen 37:24 They took him and threw him into the pit. The pit was empty with no water in it.
Gen 37:25 They sat down to eat bread. They lifted up their eyes and looked, and behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices, balm, and myrrh. They were traveling to carry them down to Egypt.
Gen 37:26 Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it if we murder our brother and cover up his blood?
Gen 37:27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands upon him. For he is our brother, our flesh.” His brothers listened to him.
Gen 37:28 The Midianite merchants passed by. They drew Joseph up and lifted him up out of the pit. They sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty silver pieces. The Ishmaelites carried Joseph into Egypt.
Gen 37:29 Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit. He tore his clothes.
Gen 37:30 He returned to his brothers and exclaimed, “The boy is not there! And I, where can I go?”
Gen 37:31 They slaughtered a goat and then took Joseph’s garment and dipped it into the blood.
Gen 37:32 Then they brought it to their father and said, “We found this. Please see whether it is your son’s clothing or not.”
Gen 37:33 Jacob recognized it and said, “It is my son’s clothing. A wild animal has devoured him. Joseph has certainly been torn to pieces!”
Gen 37:34 Jacob tore his garments and put sackcloth upon his loins. He mourned for his son many days.

Gen 37:35 All his sons and daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. He said, “Indeed, I will go down to the place of the dead mourning for my son.” His father wept for him.
Gen 37:36 The Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the bodyguard.

Genesis Chapter 38

Gen 38:1 It came about in those days that Judah left his brothers and stayed with a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.
Gen 38:2 He met there a daughter of a Canaanite man whose name was Shua. He married her and made love to her.
Gen 38:3 She became pregnant and had a son. He was named Er.
Gen 38:4 She became pregnant again and had a son. She called his name Onan.
Gen 38:5 She again had a son and called his name Shelah. It was at Chezib where she gave birth to him.
Gen 38:6 Judah found a wife for Er, his firstborn. Her name was Tamar.
Gen 38:7 Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Yehowah. Yehowah killed him.
Gen 38:8 Judah said to Onan, "Marry and make love to your brother's wife. Do the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up a child for your brother" (Levirate marriage).
Gen 38:9 Onan knew that the child would not be his. Whenever he had sex with his brother's wife, he spilled the semen on the ground, so he would not have a child for his brother.
Gen 38:10 What he did was evil in the sight of Yehowah. Yehowah killed him also.
Gen 38:11 Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house until Shelah, my son, grows up." For he feared, "He might also die, just like his brothers." Tamar left and lived in her father's house.
Gen 38:12 After a long time, Shua's daughter, the wife of Judah, died. Judah was comforted and went up to his sheepshearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.
Gen 38:13 Tamar was told, "Look, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep."
Gen 38:14 She took off the clothing of her widowhood and covered herself with her veil and wrapped herself. She sat in the gate of Enaim, which is by the road to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah had grown up, but she had not been given to him as a wife.
Gen 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought that she was a prostitute, because she had covered her face.
Gen 38:16 He went to her by the road and requested, "Come, please let me have sex with you," for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law, and she asked, "What will you give me, so you may have sex with me?"
Gen 38:17 He offered, "I will send you a young goat from the flock." She asked, "Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?"

Gen 38:18 He asked, “What pledge can I give you?” She answered, “Your seal and cord, and the trekking pole that is in your hand.” He gave them to her and had sex with her, and she became pregnant by him.
Gen 38:19 She rose up and went away. She took off her veil and put on the clothing of her widowhood.
Gen 38:20 Judah sent the young goat from the flock with his friend the Adullamite to receive the pledge from the woman’s hand, but he did not find her.
Gen 38:21 Then the Adullamite asked the men of the place, “Where is the cultic prostitute who was at Enaim by the road?” They answered, “There has not been a cultic prostitute here.”
Gen 38:22 He returned to Judah and reported, “I did not find her. Also, the men of the place said, ‘There has not been a cultic prostitute here.’”
Gen 38:23 Judah replied, “Let her keep the things, that we not be put to shame. Indeed, I sent this young goat, but you did not find her.”
Gen 38:24 It came about after about three months that it was told to Judah, “Tamar your daughter-in-law has committed prostitution, and indeed, she is pregnant by it.” Judah ordered, “Bring her here, and let her be executed by burning.”
Gen 38:25 When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law a message, “By the man who owns these I am pregnant.” She said, “Determine please whose these are, the seal, cords, and trekking pole.”
Gen 38:26 Judah recognized them and responded, “She is more righteous than I am, since I did not give her as a wife to Shelah, my son.” He did not have sex with her again.
Gen 38:27 It came about at the time for her to give birth, that behold, twins were in her womb.
Gen 38:28 It came about as she was giving birth, one put out a hand, and the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on his hand and announced, “This one came out first.”
Gen 38:29 But then he drew back his hand, and behold, his brother came out first. The midwife exclaimed, “How you have broken out!” So he was named Perez.
Gen 38:30 Then his brother came out, who had the scarlet thread upon his hand, and he was named Zerah.

Genesis Chapter 39

Gen 39:1 Joseph was brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh, who was captain of the bodyguard and an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites, who had brought him down there.
Gen 39:2 Yehowah was with Joseph, so he became a successful man. He lived in the house of his Egyptian master.
Gen 39:3 His master saw that Yehowah was with him, and that Yehowah prospered everything that he did.
Gen 39:4 Joseph found grace in his sight. He served Potiphar. Potiphar made Joseph manager over his household, and everything that he possessed, he put under his care.
Gen 39:5 It came about from the time that he made him manager over his household and over everything he possessed, that Yehowah blessed the Egyptian's household because of Joseph. The blessing of Yehowah was on everything that Potiphar had in the house and in the field.
Gen 39:6 Potiphar put everything that he had under Joseph's care. He did not have to think about anything except the food that he ate. Now Joseph was a handsome bodybuilder.
Gen 39:7 It came about after this, that his master's wife lusted for Joseph. She said, "Have sex with me."
Gen 39:8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not pay attention to what I do in the house, and he has put everything that he owns under my care.
Gen 39:9 No one is greater in this household than I am. He has not kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against the Almighty?"
Gen 39:10 She spoke to Joseph day after day, but he refused to have sex with her or to be with her.
Gen 39:11 It came about one day, that Joseph went into the house to do his work. None of the men of the household were there in the house.
Gen 39:12 She caught him by his clothes and demanded, "Have sex with me." He left his clothing in her hand, fled, and went outside.
Gen 39:13 It came about, when she saw that he had left his clothing in her hand and had fled outside,
Gen 39:14 that she called to the men of her household and told them, "See, Potiphar has brought in a male Hebrew to mock us. He came in to me to have sex with me, and I screamed.
Gen 39:15 It came about when he heard me scream, that he left his clothing with me, fled, and went outside."

Gen 39:16 She set his clothing next to her, until his master came home.
Gen 39:17 She told him this explanation, “The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us, came in to mock me.
Gen 39:18 It came about that when I screamed, he left his clothing with me and fled outside.”
Gen 39:19 It came about that, when his master heard the explanation his wife told him, “This is what your servant did to me,” he became extremely angry.
Gen 39:20 Joseph’s master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king’s prisoners were confined. He was there in the prison.
Gen 39:21 But Yehowah was with Joseph and showed covenant faithfulness to him. He gave him grace in the sight of the prison warden.
Gen 39:22 The prison warden gave into Joseph’s hand all the prisoners who were in the prison. Whatever they did there, Joseph was in charge of it.
Gen 39:23 The prison warden did not worry about anything that was in his hand, because Yehowah was with him. Whatever he did, Yehowah prospered.

Genesis Chapter 40

Gen 40:1 It came about that after these things, the cupbearer of the king of Egypt and the king's baker offended their master, the king of Egypt.
Gen 40:2 Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief of the cupbearers and the chief of the bakers.
Gen 40:3 He put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined.
Gen 40:4 The captain of the guard assigned Joseph to be their servant. They remained in custody for some time.
Gen 40:5 Both of them dreamed a dream, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt who were confined in the prison, each man had his own dream in the same night, and each dream had its own interpretation.
Gen 40:6 Joseph came to them at dawn and saw them. Behold, they were sad.
Gen 40:7 He asked Pharaoh's officials who were with him in custody in his master's house, "Why do you look so sad today?"
Gen 40:8 They answered him, "We have both dreamed a dream, and no one can interpret it." Joseph asked them, "Do not interpretations belong to the Almighty? Tell me, please."
Gen 40:9 The chief of the cupbearers told his dream to Joseph, "In my dream, behold, a vine was in front of me.
Gen 40:10 In the vine were three branches. As it budded, its blossoms came out and the clusters of grapes ripened.
Gen 40:11 Pharaoh's cup was in my hand. I took the grapes and squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I placed the cup into Pharaoh's hand."
Gen 40:12 Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it. The three branches are three days.
Gen 40:13 Within three days, Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office. You will put Pharaoh's cup into his hand, just as when you were his cupbearer.
Gen 40:14 But think of me when it goes well with you, and please show kindness to me. Mention me to Pharaoh and bring me out of this prison.
Gen 40:15 In fact I was abducted out of the land of the Hebrews. Here also have I done nothing that they should put me in this dungeon."
Gen 40:16 When the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Joseph, "I also had a dream, and behold, three baskets of bread were on my head.
Gen 40:17 In the top basket there were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."
Gen 40:18 Joseph answered, "This is the interpretation. The three baskets are

Gen 40:19 Within three days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and will hang you on a tree. The birds will eat your flesh off you."
Gen 40:20 It came about on the third day that it was Pharaoh's birthday. He made a feast for all his servants. He "lifted up" the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers, among his servants.
Gen 40:21 He restored the chief of the cupbearers to his responsibility, and he put the cup into Pharaoh's hand again.
Gen 40:22 But he hanged the chief of the bakers, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.
Gen 40:23 Yet the chief of the cupbearers did not remember to help Joseph. Instead, he forgot about him.

Genesis Chapter 41

Gen 41:1 It came about at the end of two full years that Pharaoh had a dream. Behold, he stood by the Nile River.
Gen 41:2 Behold, seven cows came up out of the Nile, desirable and fat, and they grazed in the reeds.
Gen 41:3 Behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the Nile, undesirable and thin. They stood by the other cows on the bank of the River.
Gen 41:4 Then the undesirable and thin cows ate the seven desirable and fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.
Gen 41:5 Then he slept and dreamed a second time. Behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, wholesome and good.
Gen 41:6 Behold, seven heads, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouted up after them.
Gen 41:7 The thin heads swallowed up the seven wholesome and full heads. Pharaoh woke up, and behold, it was a dream.
Gen 41:8 It came about at dawn that his spirit was troubled. He sent and called for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.
Gen 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer confessed to Pharaoh, “Today, I am thinking about my offenses.
Gen 41:10 Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, the chief baker and me.
Gen 41:11 We dreamed a dream the same night, he and I. We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.
Gen 41:12 There was with us there a young Hebrew man, a servant of the captain of the bodyguard. We told him, and he interpreted for us our dreams. He interpreted for each of us according to his dream.
Gen 41:13 It came about as he interpreted for us, so it happened. Pharaoh restored me to my post, but the other one he hanged.”
Gen 41:14 Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph. They quickly took him out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothes, and came in to Pharaoh.
Gen 41:15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream, but there is no interpreter for it. But I have heard about you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”
Gen 41:16 Joseph answered Pharaoh, “It is not in me. The Almighty will answer Pharaoh with favor.”
Gen 41:17 Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, “In my dream, behold, I stood on the bank of the Nile River.

Gen 41:18 Behold, seven cows came up out of the Nile, fat and desirable, and they grazed among the reeds.
Gen 41:19 Behold, seven other cows came up after them, weak, extremely undesirable, and thin. I never saw in all the land of Egypt such undesirableness like them.
Gen 41:21 When they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them, for they were still as undesirable as before. Then I awoke.
Gen 41:22 I looked in my dream, and behold, seven heads came up upon one stalk, full and good.
Gen 41:24 The thin heads swallowed up the seven good heads. I told these dreams to the magicians, but there was none that could explain it to me."
Gen 41:25 Joseph interpreted to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are the same. What the Almighty is about to do, he has declared to Pharaoh.
Gen 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years. The dreams are the same.
Gen 41:27 The seven thin and undesirable cows that came up after them are seven years, and also the seven thin heads scorched by the east wind will be seven years of famine.
Gen 41:28 That is the thing which I spoke to Pharaoh. What the Almighty is about to do, he has revealed to Pharaoh.
Gen 41:29 Look, seven years of great abundance will come throughout all the land of Egypt.
Gen 41:30 Seven years of famine will come after them, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will devastate the land.
Gen 41:31 The abundance will not be remembered in the land, because of the famine that will follow, for it will be extremely severe.
Gen 41:32 That the dream was repeated to Pharaoh is because the matter has been established by the Almighty, and the Almighty will soon do it.
Gen 41:33 Now let Pharaoh look for a man discerning and wise, and put him over the land of Egypt.
Gen 41:34 Let Pharaoh do this: Let him appoint overseers over the land. Let them take a fifth of the crops of Egypt in the seven abundant years.
Gen 41:35 Let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming and store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh, for food to be used in the cities. They should preserve it.
Gen 41:36 The food will be a supply for the land for the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt. In this way, the land will not be devastated by the famine."

Gen 41:37 This advice was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants.
Gen 41:38 Pharaoh asked his servants, “Can we find such a man as this, in whom is the Ruach of the Almighty?”
Gen 41:39 So Pharaoh told Joseph, “Since the Almighty has shown you all this, there is none so discerning and wise as you.
Gen 41:40 You will be over my household, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne will I be greater than you.”
Gen 41:41 Pharaoh promoted Joseph, “See, I have put you over all the land of Egypt.”
Gen 41:42 Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand and put it upon Joseph’s hand. He clothed him with clothes of fine linen and put a gold chain on his neck.
Gen 41:43 He had him ride in the second chariot which he possessed. Men shouted before him, “Bend the knee!” Pharaoh put him over all the land of Egypt (Phil. 2:10).
Gen 41:44 Pharaoh declared to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, and apart from you, no man will lift his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.”
Gen 41:45 Pharaoh called Joseph’s name “Zaphenath Paneah.” He gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On (Heliopolis), as a wife. Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.
Gen 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt (c. 1884 BC). Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.
Gen 41:47 In the seven bountiful years the land produced abundantly.
Gen 41:48 He gathered up all the food of the seven years that was in the land of Egypt and put the food in the cities. He put into each city the food from the fields that surrounded it.
Gen 41:49 Joseph stored up grain like the sand of the sea, so much that he stopped counting, because it was beyond counting.
Gen 41:50 Joseph had two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him.
Gen 41:51 Joseph called the name of his firstborn, Manasseh, for he said, “The Almighty has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s household.”
Gen 41:52 He called the name of his second son, Ephraim, for he said, “The Almighty has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction.”
Gen 41:53 The seven years of abundance that was in the land of Egypt came to an end.
Gen 41:54 The seven years of famine began, as Joseph had prophesied. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was food.

Gen 41:55 When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people loudly called on Pharaoh for food. Pharaoh commanded all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph and do what he says.”
Gen 41:56 The famine was over all the face of the whole land. Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians. The famine was severe in the land of Egypt.
Gen 41:57 All the earth was coming to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

Genesis Chapter 42

Gen 42:1 Now Jacob became aware that there was grain in Egypt. He asked his sons, “Why do you look at one another?”
Gen 42:2 He ordered, “See here, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy for us from there, so we may live and not die.”
Gen 42:3 Joseph’s ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.
Gen 42:4 But Benjamin, Joseph’s brother, Jacob did not send with his brothers, for he feared that harm might come to him.
Gen 42:5 The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.
Gen 42:6 Now Joseph was the governor over the land. He was the one who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph’s brothers came and bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.
Gen 42:7 Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he disguised himself to them and spoke harshly with them. He asked them, “Where have you come from?” They answered, “From the land of Canaan to buy food.”
Gen 42:8 Joseph recognized his brothers, but they did not recognize him.
Gen 42:9 Joseph remembered the dreams that he had had about them. He accused them, “You are spies. You came to see the undefended parts of the land.”
Gen 42:10 They responded to him, “No, my master. Your servants have come to buy food.
Gen 42:11 We are all one man’s sons. We are honest men. Your servants are not spies.”
Gen 42:12 He accused them, “No, you have come to see the undefended parts of the land.”
Gen 42:13 They explained, “We your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. See, the youngest is this day with our father, and one brother is no longer alive.”
Gen 42:14 Joseph accused them, “It is what I said to you; you are spies.
Gen 42:15 By this you will be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you will not leave here, unless your youngest brother comes here.
Gen 42:16 Send one of yourselves and let him get your brother. You will remain in prison, that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, truly, you are spies!”
Gen 42:17 He put them all in custody for three days.
Gen 42:18 Joseph commanded them on the third day, “Do this and live, for I fear the Almighty.

Gen 42:19 If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined in this prison, but you go, carry grain for the famine of your households.
Gen 42:20 Bring your youngest brother to me, so your words will be verified, and you will not be executed." So they did so.
Gen 42:21 They confessed to one another, "We are truly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we would not listen. Therefore, this distress has come upon us."
Gen 42:22 Reuben answered them, "Did I not tell you, 'Do not sin against the boy,' but you would not listen? Now see, his blood is required of us."
Gen 42:23 They did not know that Joseph understood them, for there was an interpreter between them.
Gen 42:24 He turned from them and wept. He returned to them and spoke to them. He took Simeon from among them and bound him before their eyes.
Gen 42:25 Then Joseph commanded his servants to fill his brothers' bags with grain, and to put every man's money back into his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. It was done for them.
Gen 42:26 The brothers loaded their donkeys with their grain and departed from there.
Gen 42:27 As one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed in the lodging place, he saw his silver-currency. Behold, it was in the opening of his sack.
Gen 42:28 He said to his brothers, "My money has been put back. Look at it; it is in my sack." Their hearts sank, and they turned trembling to one another, asking, "What is this that the Almighty has done to us?"
Gen 42:29 They went to Jacob, their father, in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them. They reported,
Gen 42:30 "The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly with us and thought that we were spies in the land.
Gen 42:31 We explained to him, 'We are honest men. We are not spies.
Gen 42:32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is no longer alive, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.'
Gen 42:33 The man, the lord of the land, commanded us, 'By this I will know that you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers with me, take grain for the famine in your households, and go your way.
Gen 42:34 Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. Then I will release your brother to you, and you will trade in the land.'"
Gen 42:35 It came about as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every man's bag of silver-currency was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bags of silver-currency, they were afraid.

Gen 42:36 Jacob their father complained to them, “You have bereaved me of my children. Joseph is no longer alive, Simeon is gone, and you will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me.”
Gen 42:37 Reuben spoke to his father, “You may kill my two sons, if I do not bring Benjamin back to you. Put him in my hands, and I will bring him to you again.”
Gen 42:38 Jacob responded, “My son will not go down with you. For his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm comes to him on the road in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the place of the dead.”

Genesis Chapter 43

Gen 43:1 The famine was severe in the land.
Gen 43:2 It came about when they had eaten the grain that they had brought out of Egypt, their father ordered them, “Go again; buy us some food.”
Gen 43:3 Judah told him, “The man solemnly warned us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’
Gen 43:4 If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.
Gen 43:5 But if you do not send him, we will not go down. For the man warned us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’”
Gen 43:6 Israel asked, “Why did you treat me so badly by telling the man that you had another brother?”
Gen 43:7 They answered, “The man asked details about us and our family. He asked, ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?’ We answered him according to these questions. How could we have known that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”
Gen 43:8 Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the boy with me. We will rise and go, that we may live and not die, both we, you, and also our children.
Gen 43:9 I will be a guarantee for him. You will hold me responsible. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.
Gen 43:10 For if we had not delayed, surely by now we would have come back here a second time.”
Gen 43:11 Their father Israel responded to them, “If it be so, now do this: Take some of the best products of the land in your bags. Carry down to the man a gift: some balm and honey, spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.
Gen 43:12 Take double money in your hand. The silver-currency that was returned in the opening of your sacks, carry again in your hand. Perhaps it was a mistake.
Gen 43:13 Take also your brother. Rise and go again to the man.
Gen 43:14 May the Most Powerful Sovereign give you mercy before the man, so that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.”
Gen 43:15 The men took this gift, and in their hand they took double the amount of silver-currency, along with Benjamin. They rose up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.
Gen 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he ordered the steward of his house, “Bring the men into the house, slaughter an animal and prepare it, for the men will eat with me at noon.”

Gen 43:17 The steward did as Joseph said. He brought the men to Joseph's house.
Gen 43:18 The men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph's house. They said, "It is because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time we were brought in, that he may seek an opportunity against us. He might arrest us and take us as slaves, and take our donkeys."
Gen 43:19 They approached the steward of Joseph's house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house,
Gen 43:20 "My master, we came down the first time to buy food.
Gen 43:21 It came about, when we reached the lodging place, that we opened our sacks, and behold, every man's money was in the opening of his sack, our silver-currency in full weight. We have brought it back in our hands.
Gen 43:22 Other money we have also brought down in our hand to buy food. We do not know who put our silver-currency in our sacks."
Gen 43:23 The steward said, "Peace be to you, do not fear. Your Divine One and the Mighty One of your father must have put your money in your sacks. I received your silver-currency." The steward then brought Simeon out to them.
Gen 43:24 The steward took the men into Joseph's house. He gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave feed to their donkeys.
Gen 43:25 They prepared the gifts for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they would eat there.
Gen 43:26 When Joseph came home, they brought the gifts which were in their hand into the house, and bowed down before him to the ground.
Gen 43:27 He asked them about their welfare, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"
Gen 43:28 They answered, "Your servant our father is well. He is still alive." They prostrated and bowed down.
Gen 43:29 When he lifted up his eyes he saw Benjamin his brother, his mother's son, and he asked, "Is this your youngest brother of whom you spoke to me?" Then he said, "May the Almighty be gracious to you, my son."
Gen 43:30 Joseph hurried to go out of the room, for he was deeply moved about his brother. He sought somewhere to weep. He went to his room and wept there.
Gen 43:31 He washed his face and came out. He controlled himself, ordering, "Serve the food."
Gen 43:32 The servants served Joseph by himself and the brothers by themselves. The Egyptians there ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is detestable to the Egyptians.
Gen 43:33 The brothers sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth. The men were astonished together.

Gen 43:34 Joseph sent portions to them from the food in front of him. But Benjamin’s portion was five times as much as any of his brothers. They drank and were merry with him.

Genesis Chapter 44

Gen 44:1 Joseph commanded the steward of his household, “Fill the men’s sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man’s money in his sack’s opening.
Gen 44:2 Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack’s opening of the youngest, and also his money for the grain.” The steward did as Joseph had said.
Gen 44:3 The morning dawned, and the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.
Gen 44:4 When they were out of the city but were not yet far off, Joseph ordered his steward, “Get up, follow after the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you returned evil for good?
Gen 44:5 Is this not the cup from which my master drinks, and the cup that he uses for divination? You have done evil, this thing that you have done.’”
Gen 44:6 The steward overtook them and spoke these words to them.
Gen 44:7 They replied to him, “Why does my master speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that we would do such a thing.
Gen 44:8 Look, the silver-currency that we found in our sacks’ openings, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then could we steal out of your master’s house silver or gold?
Gen 44:9 With whomever of your servants it is found, let him be executed, and we also will be my master’s slaves.”
Gen 44:10 The steward responded, “Now also let it be according to your words. He with whom the cup is found will be my slave, and you others will be innocent.”
Gen 44:11 Then each man hurried and brought his sack down to the ground, and each man opened his sack.
Gen 44:12 The steward searched. He began with the oldest and finished with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack.
Gen 44:13 Then they tore their clothes. Each man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.
Gen 44:14 Judah and his brothers came to Joseph’s house. He was still there, and they bowed before him to the ground.
Gen 44:15 Joseph asked them, “What is this that you have done? Do you not know that a man like me practices divination?”
Gen 44:16 Judah answered, “What can we say to my master? What can we speak? Or how can we justify ourselves? The Almighty has found out the iniquity of your servants. Look, we are my master’s slaves, both we, and he also in whose hand the cup was found.”

Gen 44:17 Joseph replied, “Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup was found, that person will be my slave, but as for you others, go up in peace to your father.”
Gen 44:18 Then Judah came near to him and said, “My master, please let your servant speak a word in my master’s ears, and do not let your anger burn against your servant, for you are just like Pharaoh.
Gen 44:19 My master asked his servants, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’
Gen 44:20 We answered my master, ‘We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one. But his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.’
Gen 44:21 Then you commanded your servants, ‘Bring him down to me that I may see him.’
Gen 44:22 After that, we explained to my master, ‘The boy cannot leave his father. For if he should leave his father, his father would die.’
Gen 44:23 Then you informed your servants, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.’
Gen 44:24 Then it came about when we went up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my master.
Gen 44:25 Our father ordered, ‘Go again, buy us some food.’
Gen 44:26 Then we explained, ‘We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then will we go down, for we will not be able to see the man’s face, unless our youngest brother is with us.’
Gen 44:27 Your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons.
Gen 44:28 One of them went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn in pieces, and I have not seen him since.”
Gen 44:29 Now if you also take this one from me, and harm comes to him, you will bring down my gray hair with sorrow to the place of the dead.’
Gen 44:30 Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up in the boy’s life,
Gen 44:31 it will come about, when he sees the boy is not with us, he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father with sorrow to the place of the dead.
Gen 44:32 For your servant became a guarantee for the boy to my father by swearing, ‘If I do not bring him to you, then I will bear the guilt before my father forever.’
Gen 44:33 Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the boy as slave to my master, and let the boy go up with his brothers.
Gen 44:34 For how can I go up to my father if the boy is not with me? I am afraid to see the evil that would come on my father.”

Genesis Chapter 45

Gen 45:1 Then Joseph could not control himself before all the servants who stood by him. He ordered loudly, “Everyone must leave me!” So no servant stood by him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.
Gen 45:2 He wept loudly, the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard of it.
Gen 45:3 Joseph announced to his brothers, “I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?” His brothers could not answer him, for they were shocked in his presence.
Gen 45:4 Then Joseph requested of his brothers, “Come near to me, please.” They came near. He stated, “I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.
Gen 45:5 Do not be grieved or angry with yourselves that you sold me here, for the Almighty sent me ahead of you to preserve life.
Gen 45:6 For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.
Gen 45:7 The Almighty sent me ahead of you to preserve you as a remnant in the earth, and to keep you alive by a great deliverance (Rom. 11:5).
Gen 45:8 So now it was not you who sent me here but the Almighty, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, master of all his household, and ruler of all the land of Egypt.
Gen 45:9 Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, ‘This is what your son Joseph commands, “The Almighty has made me master of all Egypt. Come down to me, do not delay.
Gen 45:10 You will live in the land of Goshen, and you will be near me, you, your children, and your children’s children, and your flocks and your herds, and all that you have.
Gen 45:11 I will provide for you there, for there are still five years of famine, so that you do not come to poverty, you, your household, and all that you have.’”
Gen 45:12 “Look, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you.
Gen 45:13 You will tell my father about all my honor in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. You will hurry and bring my father down here.”
Gen 45:14 He hugged his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck.
Gen 45:15 He kissed all his brothers and wept over them. After that his brothers talked with him.
Gen 45:16 The news of the matter was told in Pharaoh’s house: “Joseph’s brothers have come.” It especially pleased Pharaoh and his servants.

Gen 45:17 Pharaoh commanded Joseph, “Order your brothers, ‘Do this: Load your animals and go to the land of Canaan.
Gen 45:18 Get your father and your households, and come to me. I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.’
Gen 45:19 Now you are commanded, ‘Do this, take carts out of the land of Egypt for your children and for your wives. Get your father and come.
Gen 45:20 Do not be concerned about your possessions, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.’”
Gen 45:21 The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them carts, according to the command of Pharaoh, and gave them provisions for the journey.
Gen 45:22 To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred gold pieces and five changes of clothing.
Gen 45:23 For his father he sent this: ten jack donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt; and ten jenny donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and other supplies for his father for the journey.
Gen 45:24 So he sent his brothers away, and they left. He warned them, “See that you do not quarrel on the journey.”
Gen 45:25 They went up out of Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father.
Gen 45:26 They told him, “Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt!” His heart was astonished, for he could not believe what they told him.
Gen 45:27 They told him all the words of Joseph that he had said to them. When Jacob saw the carts that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.
Gen 45:28 Israel exclaimed, “It is enough! Joseph my son is still alive! I will go and see him before I die.”

Genesis Chapter 46

Gen 46:1 Israel made his journey with all that he had and went to Beersheba. There he offered sacrifices to the Mighty One of his father Isaac.
Gen 46:2 The Almighty spoke to Israel in a vision at night, “Jacob, Jacob.” He said, “Here I am.”
Gen 46:3 He promised, “I am the Almighty, Mighty One of your father. Do not fear to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you a great nation.
Gen 46:4 I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will surely bring you up again, and Joseph will close your eyes with his own hand.”
Gen 46:5 Jacob rose up from Beersheba. The sons of Israel transported Jacob their father, their children, and their wives, in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to carry him.
Gen 46:6 They took their livestock and their possessions that they had accumulated in the land of Canaan. They came into Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him.
Gen 46:7 He brought with him to Egypt his sons and his grandsons, his daughters and his granddaughters, and all his descendants.
Gen 46:8 These were the names of the children of Israel who came to Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn;
Gen 46:9 the sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi;
Gen 46:10 the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman;
Gen 46:11 the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
Gen 46:12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah, but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan. The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.
Gen 46:13 The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puvah, Job, and Shimron;
Gen 46:14 The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel
Gen 46:15 These were the sons of Leah whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, along with his daughter Dinah. His sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three.
Gen 46:16 The sons of Gad were Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Er, Arodi, and Areli.
Gen 46:17 The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, and Beriah; and Serah was their sister. The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel.
Gen 46:18 These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban had given to Leah his daughter. These sons she bore to Jacob, sixteen in all.
Gen 46:19 The sons of Jacob’s wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.
Gen 46:20 In Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph by Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On.

Gen 46:21 The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.
Gen 46:22 These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob, eighteen in all.
Gen 46:23 The son of Dan was Hushim (Shuham; Num. 26:42).
Gen 46:24 The sons of Naphtali were Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.
Gen 46:25 These were the sons born to Jacob by Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, seven in all.
Gen 46:26 All those who went to Egypt with Jacob, who were his descendants, not counting Jacob's sons' wives, were sixty-seven in all.
Gen 46:27 With the two sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt, the members of his family who went to Egypt were seventy in all (Acts 7:14; Exo. 1:5; Deut. 10:22).
Gen 46:28 Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came to the land of Goshen.
Gen 46:29 Joseph prepared his chariot and went up to meet Israel his father in Goshen. He saw him, hugged his neck, and wept on his neck a long time.
Gen 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."
Gen 46:31 Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, 'My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.
Gen 46:32 The men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock. They have brought their flocks, their herds, and all that they have.'
Gen 46:33 It will come about, when Pharaoh calls you and asks, 'What is your occupation?'
Gen 46:34 that you should answer, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth until now, both we, and our forefathers.' Do this, so that you may live in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

Genesis Chapter 47

Gen 47:1 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, “My father and my brothers, their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have arrived from the land of Canaan. See, they are in the land of Goshen.”
Gen 47:2 He took five of his brothers and introduced them to Pharaoh.
Gen 47:3 Pharaoh asked his brothers, “What is your occupation?” They answered Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, as our ancestors.”
Gen 47:4 Then they entreated Pharaoh, “We come as sojourning foreigners in the land. There is no pasture for your servants’ flocks, because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. So now, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen.”
Gen 47:5 Then Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, “Your father and your brothers have come to you.
Gen 47:6 The land of Egypt is before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best region, the land of Goshen. If you know any capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock.”
Gen 47:7 Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father and presented him to Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh.
Gen 47:8 Pharaoh asked Jacob, “How long have you lived?”
Gen 47:9 Jacob answered Pharaoh, “The years of my travels are a hundred and thirty (c. 1875 BC). The years of my life have been few and painful. They have not been as long as those of my ancestors.”
Gen 47:10 Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from his presence.
Gen 47:11 Then Joseph settled his father and his brothers. He gave them a territory in the land of Egypt, the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.
Gen 47:12 Joseph provided food for his father, his brothers, and all his father’s household, according to the number of their dependents.
Gen 47:13 Now there was no food in all the land; for the famine was severe. The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan wasted away because of the famine.
Gen 47:14 Joseph gathered all the money that was in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, by selling grain to the inhabitants. Then Joseph brought the money to Pharaoh’s palace.
Gen 47:15 When all the money of the lands of Egypt and Canaan was spent, all the Egyptians came to Joseph asking, “Give us food! Why should we die in your presence because our money is gone?”
Gen 47:16 Joseph answered, “If your money is gone, bring your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock.”

Gen 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph. Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, for the flocks, for the herds, and for the donkeys. He fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.
Gen 47:18 When that year was ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, “We will not hide from my master that our money is all gone, and the herds of livestock are my master’s. There is nothing left in the sight of my master, except our bodies and our land.
Gen 47:19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate.”
Gen 47:20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh. For every Egyptian sold his field, because the famine was extremely severe. In this way, the land became Pharaoh’s.
Gen 47:21 As for the people, he made them slaves from one end of Egypt’s border to the other end.
Gen 47:22 It was only the land of the priests that Joseph did not buy, because the priests were given an allowance. They ate from the allotment which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore, they did not sell their land.
Gen 47:23 Then Joseph commanded the people, “See, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Now here is seed for you, and you will plant the land.
Gen 47:24 At the harvest, you must give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own, for seed of the field and for food for your households and your children.”
Gen 47:25 They responded, “You have saved our lives! May we find grace in your eyes, my master. We will be Pharaoh’s servants.”
Gen 47:26 So Joseph made it a statute which is in effect in the land of Egypt to this day, that one-fifth belongs to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh’s.
Gen 47:27 So Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen. His people gained possessions there. They were fruitful and multiplied greatly.
Gen 47:28 Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the years of Jacob’s life were one hundred forty-seven years (c. 1858 BC).
Gen 47:29 When the time approached for Israel to die, he called his son Joseph and requested of him, “If now I have found grace in your sight, put your hand under my thigh, and show me faithfulness and trustworthiness. Please do not bury me in Egypt.
Gen 47:30 When I sleep with my fathers, you will carry me out of Egypt and bury me in my forefathers’ burial place.” Joseph promised, “I will do as you have said.”

Gen 47:31 Israel said, “Swear to me,” and Joseph swore to him. Then Israel bowed down at the head of his bed.

Genesis Chapter 48

Gen 48:1 It came about after these things, that one said to Joseph, “Look, your father is sick.” So he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.
Gen 48:2 When Jacob was told, “Look, your son Joseph has arrived to see you,” Israel gathered strength and sat up in bed.
Gen 48:3 Jacob said to Joseph, “The Most Powerful Sovereign appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan. He blessed me
Gen 48:4 and promised me, ‘Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you. I will make of you a congregation of ethnicities. I will give this land to your descendants as an everlasting possession.’
Gen 48:5 Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine.
Gen 48:6 The children you have after them will be yours; they will be listed under the names of their brothers in their inheritance.
Gen 48:7 But as for me, when I came from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan on the way, while there was still some distance to go to Ephrath. I buried her there on the way to Ephrath,” that is, Bethlehem.
Gen 48:8 When Israel saw Joseph’s sons, he asked, “Whose are these?”
Gen 48:9 Joseph answered his father, “They are my sons, whom the Almighty has given me here.” Israel replied, “Please bring them to me, that I may bless them.”
Gen 48:10 Now Israel’s eyes were failing because of his age, so he could not see. So Joseph brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.
Gen 48:11 Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face again, but the Almighty has even allowed me to see your children.”
Gen 48:12 Joseph brought them out from between Israel’s knees, and then he bowed with his face to the earth.
Gen 48:13 Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand toward Israel’s left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel’s right hand, and brought them close to him.
Gen 48:14 Israel reached out with his right hand and laid it upon Ephraim’s head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh’s head. He crossed his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn.
Gen 48:15 Israel blessed Joseph, “The Almighty, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the Almighty, who has cared for me to this day, Gen 48:16 the angel who has protected me from all harm, may he bless these boys. May my name be named in them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac. May they grow into a multitude on the earth.”

Gen 48:17 When Joseph saw his father place his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him. He took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.
Gen 48:18 Joseph corrected his father, "Not so, my father, for this is the firstborn. Put your right hand upon his head."
Gen 48:19 His father refused, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. Yet his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a multitude of ethnicities" (Rom. 11:25).
Gen 48:20 Israel blessed them that day with these words, "The people of Israel will pronounce blessings by your names, 'May the Almighty make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.'" In this way, Israel put Ephraim before Manasseh.
Gen 48:21 Israel encouraged Joseph, "See, I am about to die, but the Almighty will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your fathers.
Gen 48:22 To you, as one who is above your brothers, I give to you the mountain slope that I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

Genesis Chapter 49

Gen 49:1 Then Jacob called for his sons and said: “Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what will happen to you in the last days.
Gen 49:2 Assemble yourselves and listen, you sons of Jacob. Listen to Israel, your father.
Gen 49:3 Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, outstanding in dignity, and outstanding in power.
Gen 49:4 Uncontrollable as rushing water, you will not have the preeminence, because you went up to your father’s bed. Then you defiled it; you went up to my couch.
Gen 49:5 Simeon and Levi are brothers. Weapons of violence are their swords.
Gen 49:6 O my soul, do not come into their council; do not join in their meetings, for my heart has too much honor for that. For in their anger they murdered men. It was for pleasure that they hamstrung oxen.
Gen 49:7 May their anger be cursed, for it was fierce, and their fury, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.
Gen 49:8 Judah, your brothers will praise you. Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies. Your father’s sons will bow down before you.
Gen 49:9 Judah is a lion’s cub. My son, you have gone up from your victims. He stooped down, he crouched like a lion, like a lioness. Who would dare to awaken him?
Gen 49:10 The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler’s staff from between his feet, until Shiloh comes. The ethnicities will obey him.
Gen 49:11 Binding his young donkey to the vine and his jenny’s colt to the choice vine (Israel), he has washed his garments in wine and his robe in the blood of grapes (Zech. 9:9; Mat. 21:5).
Gen 49:12 His eyes will be as dark as wine and his teeth as white as milk.
Gen 49:13 Zebulun will live by the shore of the sea. He will be a harbor for ships, and his border will extend to Sidon.
Gen 49:15 He sees a good resting place and the pleasant land. He will bend his shoulder to the burden and become a servant for the task.
Gen 49:16 Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.
Gen 49:17 Dan will be a snake beside the road, a poisonous snake in the path that bites the horse’s heels, so that his rider falls backward.
Gen 49:18 I wait for your salvation, Yehowah.
Gen 49:19 Gad, raiders will attack him, but he will attack them at their heels.
Gen 49:20 Asher’s food will be rich, and he will provide royal delicacies.
Gen 49:21 Naphtali is a fallow deer let loose; he will deliver eloquent speeches.

Gen 49:23 The archers will attack him and shoot at him and harass him.
Gen 49:24 But his bow will remain steady, and his hands will be skillful because of the hands of the Strong One of Jacob, because of the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel.
Gen 49:25 The Mighty One of your father will help you, and the Most Powerful will bless you with blessings of the sky above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, and blessings of the breasts and womb.
Gen 49:26 The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of the ancient mountains or the desirable things of the ancient hills. May they be on the head of Joseph, even upon the crown of the head of the prince of his brothers.
Gen 49:27 Benjamin is a hungry cheetah. At dawn he will devour the prey, and at dusk he will divide the plunder."
Gen 49:28 These are the twelve tribes of Israel. This is what their father said to them when he blessed them. Each one he blessed with an appropriate blessing.
Gen 49:29 Then he instructed them, "I am about to go to my people. Bury me with my forefathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hethite,
Gen 49:30 in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is near Mamre in the land of Canaan, the field that Abraham bought for a burial place from Ephron the Hethite.
Gen 49:31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife; and there I buried Leah.
Gen 49:32 The field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the people of Heth."
Gen 49:33 When Jacob finished these instructions to his sons, he pulled his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and went to his people (c. 1858 BC).

Genesis Chapter 50

Gen 50:1 Then Joseph was so distressed that he collapsed on the face of his father, and he wept over him, and he kissed him.
Gen 50:2 Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel.
Gen 50:3 They took forty days, for that was the full time for embalming. The Egyptians wept for him seventy days.
Gen 50:4 When the days of weeping were over, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh's royal court, "If now I have found grace in your eyes, please speak to Pharaoh,
Gen 50:5 'My father made me swear, "See, I am about to die. Bury me in my tomb that I dug for myself in the land of Canaan. There you will bury me." Now let me go up and bury my father, and then I will return.'"
Gen 50:6 Pharaoh answered, "Go and bury your father, as he made you swear."
Gen 50:7 Joseph went up to bury his father. All the officials of Pharaoh went with him, the courtiers of his household, all the senior officials of the land of Egypt,
Gen 50:8 with all Joseph's household and his brothers, and his father's household. But their children, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen.
Gen 50:9 Chariots and cavalry also went with him. It was a substantially large group of people.
Gen 50:10 When they came to the threshing floor of Atad on the other side of the Jordan River, they mourned with extremely great and grievous sorrow. There Joseph made a seven day mourning for his father.
Gen 50:11 When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, "This is an extremely sad occasion for the Egyptians." That is why the place was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan River.
Gen 50:12 So his sons did for Jacob just as he had instructed them.
Gen 50:13 His sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre. Abraham had bought the cave with the field for a burial place. He had bought it from Ephron the Hethite.
Gen 50:14 After he had buried his father, Joseph returned into Egypt, he, along with his brothers, and all who had accompanied him to bury his father.
Gen 50:15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they asked, "What if Joseph holds on to anger against us and wants to repay us in full for all the evil we did to him?"
Gen 50:16 So they commanded the presence of Joseph, "Your father gave instructions before he died, Gen 50:17 ‘Tell Joseph this, “Please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, when they did evil to you.”’ Now please forgive the servants of the Mighty One of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

Gen 50:18 His brothers also went and lay facedown before him. They said, “See, we are your servants.”
Gen 50:19 But Joseph answered them, “Do not be afraid. Am I in the place of the Almighty?
Gen 50:20 As for you, you meant to harm me, but the Almighty meant it for good, to preserve the lives of many people, as you see today.
Gen 50:21 So now do not be afraid. I will provide for you and your little children.” He comforted them in this way and spoke kindly to their hearts.
Gen 50:23 Joseph saw Ephraim’s children to the third generation. He also saw the children of Machir son of Manasseh, who were placed on the knees of Joseph.
Gen 50:24 Joseph announced to his brothers, “I am about to die; but the Almighty will surely come to you and lead you up out of this land to the land which he swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.”
Gen 50:25 Then Joseph made the people of Israel swear an oath, “The Almighty will surely come to you. At that time, you must carry up my bones from here.”
Gen 50:26 So Joseph died, 110 years old (c. 1804 BC). They embalmed him, and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Book of Exodus

Exodus Chapter 1

Exo 1:1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt with Jacob, each with his household:
Exo 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,
Exo 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,
Exo 1:4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
Exo 1:5 All the people who were descendants of Jacob were seventy in number (Acts 7:14; Gen. 46:27; Deut. 10:22). Joseph was already in Egypt.
Exo 1:6 Then Joseph, all his brothers, and all that generation died.
Exo 1:7 The Israelis were fruitful, increased greatly in numbers, and became incredibly strong; the land was filled with them.
Exo 1:8 Now then, a new king arose over Egypt, one who did not know about Joseph.
Exo 1:9 He said to his people, “Look, the Israelis are more numerous and stronger than we are.
Exo 1:10 Come, let us deal with them wisely, otherwise they will continue to grow in numbers, and if war breaks out, they will join our enemies, fight against us, and leave the land.”
Exo 1:11 So they put taskmasters over them to oppress them with hard labor. The Israelis built (temple) warehouses within cities for Pharaoh: Pithom, Rameses (Avaris), and On, which is Heliopolis.
Exo 1:12 But the more the Egyptians oppressed them, the more the Israelis increased in numbers and spread. So the Egyptians began to dread the Israelis.
Exo 1:13 The Egyptians made the Israelis work rigorously.
Exo 1:14 They made their lives bitter with hard service with mortar and brick, and with all kinds of work in the fields. All their required work was hard.
Exo 1:15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives; the name of the one was Shiphrah and the other Puah.
Exo 1:16 He ordered, “When you assist the Hebrew women on the birthstool, observe when they give birth. If it is a son, then you must kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she may live.”
Exo 1:17 But the midwives feared the Almighty and did not do as the king of Egypt ordered them; instead, they let the baby boys live.
Exo 1:18 The king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, “Why have you done this and let the baby boys live?”

Exo 1:19 The midwives answered Pharaoh, “The Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women. They are vigorous and have finished giving birth before a midwife comes to them.”
Exo 1:20 The Almighty protected these midwives. The people increased in numbers and became amazingly strong.
Exo 1:21 Because the midwives feared the Almighty, he gave them families.
Exo 1:22 Pharaoh ordered all his people, “You must throw every son that is born into the river, but every daughter you will let live.”

Exodus Chapter 2

Exo 2:2 The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a healthy boy, she hid him for three months (Heb. 11:23; Acts 7:20; c. 1730 BC).
Exo 2:3 But when she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket and sealed it with bitumen and pitch. Then she put the child in it and placed it in the pool along the side of the river.
Exo 2:4 His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.
Exo 2:5 Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the river while her attendants walked along by the riverside. She saw the basket in the pool and sent her attendant to get it.
Exo 2:6 When she opened it, she saw the child. Behold, the baby was crying. She had compassion on him and said, "This is certainly one of the Hebrews' children."
Exo 2:7 Then the baby's sister asked Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and find you a Hebrew woman to nurse the child for you?"
Exo 2:8 Pharaoh's daughter ordered her, "Go." So the virgin girl went and got the child's mother.
Exo 2:9 Pharaoh's daughter said to the baby's mother, "Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay you wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him.
Exo 2:10 When the child grew older, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses and said, "Because I drew him from the water."
Exo 2:11 When Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and observed their hard work. He saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his own people.
Exo 2:12 He looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no one there, he murdered the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.
Exo 2:13 He went out the next day, and behold, two Hebrew men were fighting. He asked the one who was in the wrong, "Why are you hitting your companion?"
Exo 2:14 But the man asked, "Who made you a leader and judge over us? Are you planning to murder me as you murdered that Egyptian?" Then Moses became afraid and said, "What I did has certainly become known to others."
Exo 2:15 Now when Pharaoh heard about it, he tried to execute Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh and stayed in the land of Midian. There he sat down by a well.
Exo 2:16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came, drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

Exo 2:17 The shepherds came and tried to drive them away, but Moses went and helped them. Then he watered their flock.
Exo 2:18 When the girls went to Reuel (Jethro) their father, he asked, “Why are you home so early today?”
Exo 2:19 They answered, “An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds. He even drew water for us and watered the flock.”
Exo 2:20 He asked his daughters, “So where is he? Why did you leave the man? Call him, so he can eat a meal with us.”
Exo 2:21 Moses agreed to stay with the man, who also gave him his daughter Zipporah in marriage.
Exo 2:22 She bore a son, and Moses called his name Gershom; he said, “I have been a sojourning foreigner in an alien land.”
Exo 2:23 A long time later, the king of Egypt died. The Israelis groaned because of the slave labor. They cried out for help, and their pleas went up to the Almighty because of their bondage.
Exo 2:24 When the Almighty heard their groaning, the Almighty called to mind his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.
Exo 2:25 The Almighty saw the Israelis, and the Almighty understood their situation.

Exodus Chapter 3

Exo 3:1 Now Moses was still shepherding the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. Moses led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and arrived at Horeb, the mountain of the Almighty.
Exo 3:2 There the angel of Yehowah appeared to him in a flame of fire in a thorn bush. Moses looked, and behold, the thorn bush was burning, but the thorn bush was not burned up.
Exo 3:3 Moses said, "I will turn aside and see this amazing thing, why the thorn bush is not burned up."
Exo 3:4 When Yehowah saw that he had turned aside to look, the Almighty called to him out of the thorn bush, "Moses, Moses!" Moses answered, "Here I am."
Exo 3:5 Yehowah ordered, "Do not come any closer! Take off your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is ground that is set apart to me."
Exo 3:6 He added, "I am the Mighty One of your father, the Mighty One of Abraham, the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Jacob" (Luke 20:37). Then Moses covered his face, for he was afraid to look at the Almighty.
Exo 3:7 Yehowah said, "I have certainly seen the suffering of my people who are in Egypt. I have heard their shouts because of their taskmasters, for I know about their suffering.
Exo 3:8 I have come down to free them from the Egyptians' power and to bring them up from that land to a good, large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the region of the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.
Exo 3:9 Now the shouts of the people of Israel have come to me. Moreover, I have seen the oppression caused by the Egyptians.
Exo 3:10 Now then, I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."
Exo 3:11 But Moses asked the Almighty, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelis from Egypt?"
Exo 3:12 He answered, "I will certainly be with you. This will be a sign to you that I have sent you. When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship the Almighty on this mountain."
Exo 3:13 Moses asked the Almighty, "When I go to the Israelis and tell them, 'The Mighty One of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and when they ask me, 'What is his name?' What should I say to them?"
Exo 3:14 The Almighty answered Moses, "I WILL BE WHO I WILL BE." He ordered, "You must say to the Israelis, 'I WILL BE THERE has sent me to you'" (John 4:26; Rev. 1:8).

Exo 3:15 The Almighty also spoke to Moses, “You must say to the Israelis, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, the Mighty One of Abraham, the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and this is how I will be mentioned for all generations’ (Isa. 42:8).
Exo 3:16 Go and gather the elders of Israel together. Say to them, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, the Mighty One of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me and said, “I have indeed observed you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.
Exo 3:17 I have promised to bring you up from the oppression in Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.”’
Exo 3:18 They will listen to you. You and the elders of Israel must go to the king of Egypt, and you must tell him, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of the Hebrews, has met with us. So now let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, in order that we may sacrifice to Yehowah our Divine One.’
Exo 3:19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go, unless his hand is forced.
Exo 3:20 I will reach out with my hand and attack the Egyptians with all the miracles that I will do among them. After that, he will let you go.
Exo 3:21 I will grant this people grace from the Egyptians, so when you leave, you will not go empty-handed.
Exo 3:22 Every woman will ask for silver and gold jewels and for clothing from her Egyptian neighbors, and from any women staying in her neighbors’ houses. You will put them on your sons and daughters. In this way, you will plunder the Egyptians.”

Exodus Chapter 4

Exo 4:1 Moses answered, “But what if they do not believe me or listen to me, but say instead, ‘Yehowah has not appeared to you?’”
Exo 4:2 Yehowah asked him, “What is that in your hand?” Moses answered, “A trekking pole.”
Exo 4:3 Yehowah ordered, “Throw it on the ground.” Moses threw it on the ground, and it became a snake. Moses ran back from it.
Exo 4:4 Yehowah said to Moses, “Reach out and take it by the tail.” So he reached out and took hold of the snake. It became a trekking pole in his hand again.
Exo 4:5 “This is so they may believe that Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, the Mighty One of Abraham, the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Jacob, has appeared to you.”
Exo 4:6 Yehowah also said to him, “Now put your hand inside your robe.” So Moses put his hand inside his robe. When he brought it out, behold, his hand was leprous, as white as snow.
Exo 4:7 Yehowah ordered, “Put your hand inside your robe again.” So Moses put his hand inside his robe, and when he brought it out, he saw that it was made healthy again, like the rest of his flesh.
Exo 4:8 Yehowah said, “If they do not believe you, if they do not pay attention to the first sign of my power or believe in it, then they will believe the second sign.
Exo 4:9 If they do not believe even these two signs of my power, or listen to you, then take some water from the River and pour it on the dry land. The water that you take will become blood on the dry land.”
Exo 4:10 Then Moses responded to Yehowah, “Oh Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you spoke to your servant. I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.”
Exo 4:11 Yehowah asked him, “Who is it who made man’s mouth? Who makes a man mute or deaf or seeing or blind? Is it not I, Yehowah?
Exo 4:12 So now go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what to say.”
Exo 4:13 But Moses said, “Lord, please send anyone else, anyone whom you wish to send.”
Exo 4:14 Then Yehowah became angry with Moses. He said, “What about Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Moreover, he is coming to meet you, and when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.
Exo 4:15 You will speak to him and put the words to say into his mouth. I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will show you both what to do.
Exo 4:16 He will speak to the people for you. He will be your mouth, and you will be to him like me, the Almighty.

Exo 4:17 You will take in your hand this trekking pole. With it you will do the signs."
Exo 4:18 So Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and entreated him, "Let me go, so I may return to my relatives who are in Egypt, and see if they are still alive." Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."
Exo 4:19 Yehowah spoke to Moses in Midian, "Go, return to Egypt, for all the men who were trying to take your life are dead."
Exo 4:20 Moses took his wife and his sons and put them on a jack donkey (Mat. 21:5; Zech 9:9). He returned to the land of Egypt, and he took the trekking pole of the Almighty in his hand.
Exo 4:21 Yehowah said to Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders that I have put in your power. But I will harden his heart, and he will not let the people go.
Exo 4:22 You must speak to Pharaoh, 'This is what Yehowah says: Israel is my son, my firstborn,
Exo 4:23 and I declare to you, "Let my son go, so he may worship me." But since you have refused to let him go, I will certainly kill your son, your firstborn.'"
Exo 4:24 Now on the way, when they stopped for the night, Yehowah met Moses and tried to kill him.
Exo 4:25 Then Zipporah took a flint knife and cut off the foreskin of her son, and touched it to his feet. Then she said, "Surely you are a bridegroom to me by blood."
Exo 4:26 So Yehowah let him alone. She repeated, "You are a bridegroom of blood," because of the circumcision.
Exo 4:27 Yehowah ordered Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." Aaron went, met him at the mountain of the Almighty, and kissed him.
Exo 4:28 Moses told Aaron all the words of Yehowah that he had sent him to say, and about all the signs of his power that he had commanded him to do.
Exo 4:29 Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the Israelis.
Exo 4:30 Aaron spoke all the words that Yehowah had spoken to Moses. He also displayed the signs in the sight of the people.
Exo 4:31 The people believed. When they heard that Yehowah had observed the Israelis, and that he had seen their oppression, then they bowed their heads and worshiped Him.

Exodus Chapter 5

Exo 5:1 After these things happened, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel commands: ‘Let my people go, so they may observe a feast with me in the wilderness.’”
Exo 5:2 Pharaoh responded, “Who is Yehowah? Why should I listen to his voice and let Israel go? I do not know Yehowah; moreover, I will not let Israel go.”
Exo 5:3 They said, “The Mighty One of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go on a three-day journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to Yehowah our Divine One, so that he does not attack us with plague or with the sword.”
Exo 5:4 But the king of Egypt ordered them, “Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people from their work? Go back to your work.”
Exo 5:5 Pharaoh also said, “There are now many Hebrew people in our land, and you are making them stop their work.”
Exo 5:6 On that same day, Pharaoh gave a command to the people’s taskmasters and foremen,
Exo 5:7 “Unlike before, you must no longer give the people straw to make bricks. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.
Exo 5:8 However, you must still demand from them the same number of bricks as they made before. Do not accept any fewer, because they are lazy. That is why they are calling out, ‘Allow us to go and sacrifice to our Divine One!’
Exo 5:9 Increase the workload for the men, so that they keep at it and pay no more attention to deceptive words.”
Exo 5:10 So the people’s taskmasters and foremen went out and informed the people, “This is what Pharaoh commands: ‘I will no longer give you any straw.
Exo 5:11 You yourselves must go and get straw wherever you can find it, but your workload will not be reduced.’”
Exo 5:12 So the people scattered throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.
Exo 5:13 The taskmasters kept urging them, “Finish your daily work, just as when straw was given to you.”
Exo 5:14 Pharaoh’s taskmasters beat the Israeli foremen, those same men whom they had put in charge of the workers. The taskmasters kept asking them, “Why have you not produced all the bricks required of you, either yesterday or today, as you used to do in the past?”
Exo 5:15 So the Israeli foremen came to Pharaoh and cried out to him, “Why are you treating your servants this way?
Exo 5:16 No straw is being given to your servants anymore, but they are still telling us, ‘Make bricks!’ We, your servants, are even beaten now, but it is the fault of your own people.”

Exo 5:17 But Pharaoh responded, “You are lazy! You are lazy! You say, ‘Allow us to go sacrifice to Yehowah.’
Exo 5:18 So now go back to work. No more straw will be given to you, but you must still make the same number of bricks.”
Exo 5:19 The Israeli foremen saw that they were in trouble when they were told, “You must not reduce the daily number of bricks.”
Exo 5:20 They met Moses and Aaron, who were standing outside the palace, as they went away from Pharaoh.
Exo 5:21 They said to Moses and Aaron, “May Yehowah look at you and punish you, because you have made us offensive in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants. You have put a sword in their hand to kill us.”
Exo 5:22 Moses went back to Yehowah and complained, “Lord, why have you caused trouble for this people? Why did you send me in the first place?
Exo 5:23 Ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak to him in your name, he has caused trouble for this people, and you have not set your people free at all.”

Exodus Chapter 6

Exo 6:1 Then Yehowah said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh. You will see this, for he will let them go because of my strong hand. Because of my strong hand, he will drive them out of his land.”
Exo 6:2 The Almighty spoke to Moses, “I am Yehowah.
Exo 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as the Most Powerful Sovereign; but by my name, Yehowah, did I not make myself known to them?
Exo 6:4 I also established my covenant with them, in order to give them the land of Canaan, the land where they lived as resident aliens, the land in which they wandered about.
Exo 6:5 Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the Israelis whom the Egyptians have enslaved, and I have called to mind my covenant.
Exo 6:6 Therefore, say to the Israelis, ‘I am Yehowah. I will bring you out from slavery under the Egyptians, and I will free you from their power. I will rescue you with a display of my power, and with mighty acts of judgment.
Exo 6:7 I will take you to myself as my people, and I will be your Divine One. You will know that I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out from slavery under the Egyptians.
Exo 6:8 I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am Yehowah.’”
Exo 6:9 When Moses told this to the Israelis, they would not listen to him because of their discouragement about their harsh slavery.
Exo 6:10 So Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 6:11 “Go tell Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to let the people of Israel go from his land.”
Exo 6:12 Moses asked Yehowah, “If the Israelis have not listened to me, why will Pharaoh listen to me, since I am not good at speaking?”
Exo 6:13 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron. He gave them a command for the Israelis and for Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to bring the Israelis out of the land of Egypt.
Exo 6:14 These were the heads of their fathers’ houses: the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel, were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. These were the clan ancestors of Reuben.
Exo 6:15 The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clan ancestors of Simeon.
Exo 6:16 Here are listed the names of the sons of Levi, together with their descendants. They were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. Levi lived until he was 137 years old (died, c. 1786 BC).
Exo 6:17 The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei, according to their clans.

Exo 6:18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. Kohath lived until he was 133 years old (died, c. 1734 BC).
Exo 6:19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These became the clan ancestors of the Levites, together with their descendants.
Exo 6:20 Amram married Jochebed, his father's sister. She bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 132 years and then died (c. 1716 BC).
Exo 6:21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg, and Zichri.
Exo 6:22 The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.
Exo 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon. She bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
Exo 6:24 The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These were the clan ancestors of the Korahites.
Exo 6:25 Eleazar, Aaron's son, married one of the daughters of Putiel (Jethro). She bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the fathers' houses among the Levites, together with their descendants.
Exo 6:26 These two men were the Aaron and Moses whom Yehowah ordered, "Bring out the Israelis from the land of Egypt, by their armed forces."
Exo 6:27 Aaron and Moses spoke to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to allow them to bring out the Israelis from Egypt. These were the same Moses and Aaron.
Exo 6:28 When Yehowah spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,
Exo 6:29 he said to him, "I am Yehowah. Say to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything that I will tell you."
Exo 6:30 But Moses asked Yehowah, "I am not good at speaking, so why will Pharaoh listen to me?"

Exodus Chapter 7

Exo 7:1 Yehowah answered Moses, “See, I have made you like a deity to Pharaoh. Aaron your brother will be your prophet.
Exo 7:2 You will say everything that I command you to say. Aaron your brother will speak to Pharaoh, so that he will let the people of Israel go from his land.
Exo 7:3 But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and I will display many signs of my power, many wonders, in the land of Egypt.
Exo 7:4 But Pharaoh will not listen to you, so I will put my hand on Egypt and bring out my armed forces, my people, the descendants of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great acts of punishment.
Exo 7:5 The Egyptians will know that I am Yehowah, when I reach out with my hand against Egypt and bring out the Israelis from among them.”
Exo 7:6 Moses and Aaron did so; they did just as Yehowah commanded them.
Exo 7:7 Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh (c. 1651 BC).
Exo 7:8 Yehowah said to Moses and Aaron,
Exo 7:9 “When Pharaoh orders you, ‘Do a miracle,’ then you will say to Aaron, ‘Take your trekking pole and throw it down before Pharaoh, so that it may become a snake.’”
Exo 7:10 Then Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh, and they did just as Yehowah had commanded. Aaron threw down his trekking pole before Pharaoh and his servants, and it became a snake.
Exo 7:11 Then Pharaoh also called for his wise men and sorcerers. They did the same thing by their magic.
Exo 7:12 Each man threw down his trekking pole, and the trekking poles became snakes. But Aaron’s trekking pole swallowed up their snakes.
Exo 7:13 Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen, just as Yehowah had foretold.
Exo 7:14 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is hard, and he refuses to let the people go.
Exo 7:15 Go to Pharaoh at dawn when he goes out to the water. Stand on the riverbank to meet him, and take in your hand the trekking pole that had turned into a snake.
Exo 7:16 Speak to him, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of the Hebrews, has sent me to you to say, “Let my people go, so that they may worship me in the wilderness. Until now you have not listened.”
Exo 7:17 Yehowah declares this: “By this you will know that I am Yehowah. I am going to strike the water of the Nile River with the trekking pole that is in my hand, and the River will be turned to blood.

Exo 7:18 The fish that are in the River will die, and the River will stink. The Egyptians will not be able to drink water from the River.”””
Exo 7:19 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your trekking pole and reach out with your hand over the waters of Egypt, and over their rivers, streams, ponds, and all their pools, so that their water may become blood. Do this, so that there will be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, even in containers of wood and stone.’”
Exo 7:20 Moses and Aaron did as Yehowah commanded. Aaron raised the trekking pole and struck the water in the River, in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants. All the water in the River turned to blood.
Exo 7:21 The fish in the River died, and the River began to stink. The Egyptians could not drink water from the River, and the blood was everywhere in the land of Egypt.
Exo 7:22 But the magicians of Egypt did the same thing with their magic. So Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he refused to listen to Moses and Aaron, just as Yehowah had said would happen.
Exo 7:23 Then Pharaoh turned and went into his house. He did not even pay attention to this.
Exo 7:24 All the Egyptians dug around the River for water to drink, but they could not drink the water of the River itself.
Exo 7:25 Seven days passed after Yehowah had attacked the River.

Exodus Chapter 8

Exo 8:1 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Yehowah declares this: “Let my people go, so that they may worship me.
Exo 8:2 If you refuse to let them go, I will afflict all your country with frogs.
Exo 8:3 The River will swarm with frogs. They will come up and go into your house, your bedroom, and your bed. They will go into your servants’ houses. They will go onto your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading bowls.
Exo 8:4 The frogs will attack you, your people, and all your servants.”””
Exo 8:5 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Reach out with your hand and your trekking pole over the rivers, the streams, and the ponds, and bring the frogs up over the land of Egypt.’”
Exo 8:6 Aaron reached out with his hand over Egypt’s waters, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.
Exo 8:7 But the magicians did the same with their magic: They brought up frogs over the land of Egypt.
Exo 8:8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Pray to Yehowah for him to take away the frogs from me and my people. Then I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to Yehowah.”
Exo 8:9 Moses replied to Pharaoh, “You can have the privilege of telling me when I should pray for you, your servants, and your people, so that the frogs may be removed from you and your houses and stay only in the River.”
Exo 8:10 Pharaoh said, “Tomorrow.” Moses replied, “Let it be as you say, so that you may know that there is no one like Yehowah our Divine One.
Exo 8:11 The frogs will go from you, your houses, your servants, and your people. They will stay only in the River.”
Exo 8:12 Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. Then Moses cried out to Yehowah concerning the frogs that he had brought on Pharaoh.
Exo 8:13 Yehowah did as Moses asked: The frogs died in the houses, courts, and fields.
Exo 8:14 The people gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.
Exo 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as Yehowah had said that he would do.
Exo 8:16 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Reach out with your trekking pole and strike the dust on the ground, that it may become gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.’”
Exo 8:17 They did so: Aaron reached out with his hand and his trekking pole. He struck the dust on the ground. Gnats came onto man and beast. All the dust on the ground became gnats throughout the whole land of Egypt.

Exo 8:18 The magicians tried with their magic to produce gnats, but they could not. There were gnats on man and beast.
Exo 8:19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of the Almighty.” But Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, so he refused to listen to them. It was just as Yehowah had said Pharaoh would do.
Exo 8:20 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Get up at the crack of dawn and stand in front of Pharaoh as he goes out to the River. Say to him, ‘Yehowah declares this: “Let my people go, so that they may worship me.
Exo 8:21 But if you do not let my people go, I will send swarms of dung beetles on you, your servants, and your people, and into your houses. The Egyptians’ houses will be full of swarms of dung beetles, and even the ground on which they stand will be full of dung beetles.
Exo 8:22 But on that day, I will treat the land of Goshen differently, the land in which my people are living, so that no swarms of dung beetles will be there. This will happen, so that you may know that I am Yehowah in the midst of this land.
Exo 8:23 I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This sign of my power will take place tomorrow.”’”
Exo 8:24 Yehowah did so, and thick swarms of dung beetles came into Pharaoh’s house and into his servants’ houses. Throughout the whole land of Egypt, the land was ruined because of the swarms of dung beetles.
Exo 8:25 Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Go, sacrifice to your Divine One in our own land.”
Exo 8:26 Moses responded, “It is not right for us to do so, for the sacrifices we make to Yehowah our Divine One are something disgusting to the Egyptians. If we make sacrifices right before their eyes that are disgusting to the Egyptians, will they not stone us?
Exo 8:27 No, it is a three days’ journey into the wilderness that we must make, in order to sacrifice to Yehowah our Divine One, as he commands us.”
Exo 8:28 Pharaoh said, “I will allow you to go and sacrifice to Yehowah your Divine One in the wilderness. Only you must not go too far away. Pray for me.”
Exo 8:29 Moses replied, “As soon as I go out from you, I will pray to Yehowah that the swarms of dung beetles may leave you, Pharaoh, and your servants and people tomorrow. But you must not deal deceitfully anymore by not letting our people go to sacrifice to Yehowah.”
Exo 8:30 Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to Yehowah.
Exo 8:31 Yehowah did as Moses asked: He removed the swarms of dung beetles from Pharaoh, his servants, and his people. Not one remained.
Exo 8:32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he did not let the people go.

Exodus Chapter 9

Exo 9:1 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of the Hebrews, declares this: “Let my people go, so that they may worship me.”
Exo 9:2 But if you refuse to let them go, if you still keep them back,
Exo 9:3 then the hand of Yehowah will be on your cattle in the fields and on the horses, donkeys, camels, herds, and flocks, and it will cause a terrible disease.
Exo 9:4 Yehowah will treat Israel’s livestock and Egypt’s livestock differently: No animal that belongs to the Israelis will die.
Exo 9:5 Yehowah has fixed an appointment calendar time; he has said, “It is tomorrow that I will do this thing in the land.”’”
Exo 9:6 Yehowah did this the next day: All the livestock of Egypt died. But none of the Israelis’ animals died, not one animal.
Exo 9:7 Pharaoh investigated, and behold, not even one animal of the Israelis died. But his heart was stubborn, so he did not let the people go.
Exo 9:8 Then Yehowah said to Moses and Aaron, “Take some handfuls of ashes from a kiln. You, Moses, must throw the ashes up into the air, while Pharaoh is watching.
Exo 9:9 They will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt. They will cause boils and pustules to break out on people and animals throughout all the land of Egypt.”
Exo 9:10 So Moses and Aaron took ashes from a kiln and stood in front of Pharaoh. Then Moses threw the ashes up into the air. The ashes caused boils and pustules to break out on people and animals.
Exo 9:11 The magicians could not resist Moses because of the boils, because the boils were on them and on all the other Egyptians.
Exo 9:12 Yehowah hardened Pharaoh’s heart, so Pharaoh did not listen to Moses and Aaron. This was just as Yehowah had said to Moses that Pharaoh would do.
Exo 9:13 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Get up at the crack of dawn, stand in front of Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of the Hebrews, declares this: “Let my people go, so that they may worship me.
Exo 9:14 For this time, I will send all my plagues on you yourself, on your servants and your people. I will do this, so that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth.
Exo 9:15 By now, I could have reached out with my hand and attacked you and your people with disease, and you would have been eradicated from the land.
Exo 9:16 But it was for this reason I allowed you to survive: In order to show you my power, so that my name may be proclaimed throughout all the earth.

Exo 9:17 You are still lifting yourself up against my people by not letting them go.
Exo 9:18 Listen! Tomorrow about this time, I will bring a thunderously strong hail storm, such as has not been seen in Egypt since the day it was begun until now.
Exo 9:19 Now then, send men and gather your livestock and everything you have in the fields to a safe place. Every man and animal that is in the field and is not brought home, the hail will come down on them, and they will die.”””
Exo 9:20 Then those of Pharaoh’s servants who believed in the message of Yehowah hurried to bring their slaves and livestock into the houses.
Exo 9:22 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Reach out with your hand toward the sky, so that there will be hail in all the land of Egypt, on people, on animals, and on all the plants in the fields throughout the land of Egypt.”
Exo 9:23 Moses reached out with his trekking pole toward the sky, and Yehowah sent thunder, hail, and lightning to the ground. He also rained hail on the land of Egypt.
Exo 9:24 So there were hail and lightning mixed with hail, extremely severe, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.
Exo 9:25 Throughout all the land of Egypt, the hail struck everything in the fields, both people and animals. It struck every plant in the fields and broke every tree.
Exo 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the Israelis lived, was there no hail.
Exo 9:27 Then Pharaoh sent men to summon Moses and Aaron. He confessed to them, “I have sinned this time. Yehowah is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.
Exo 9:28 Pray to Yehowah, because the mighty thunderbolts and hail are too much. I will let you go, and you will stay here no longer.”
Exo 9:29 Moses replied to him, “As soon as I leave the city, I will spread my hands out to Yehowah. The thunder will stop, and there will not be any more hail. In this way, you will know that the earth belongs to Yehowah.
Exo 9:30 But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet really honor Yehowah Almighty.”
Exo 9:31 Now the flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was maturing in the ear (abib), and the flax was in bloom.
Exo 9:32 But the wheat and the spelt were not harmed, because they were later crops.
Exo 9:33 When Moses had left Pharaoh and the city, he spread out his hands to Yehowah; the thunder and hail stopped, and the rain came down no more.
Exo 9:34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain, hail, and thunder had ceased, he sinned again and hardened his heart, together with his servants.

Exo 9:35 Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, so he did not let the people of Israel go. This was the way that Yehowah had said to Moses that Pharaoh would act.

Exodus Chapter 10

Exo 10:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants. I have done this to show these signs of my power among them.
Exo 10:2 I have also done this, so that you may tell your children and grandchildren the things I have done, how I have harshly treated Egypt, and how I have given various signs of my power among them. In this way, you will know that I am Yehowah.”
Exo 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, “Yehowah, Mighty One of the Hebrews, declares this: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may worship me.
Exo 10:4 But if you refuse to let my people go, listen, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your land.
Exo 10:5 They will cover the surface of the ground, so that no one will be able to see the earth. They will eat the remains of whatever escaped from the hail. They will also eat every tree that grows for you in the fields.
Exo 10:6 They will fill your houses, those of all your servants, and those of all the Egyptians, something neither your father nor your grandfather ever saw, nothing ever seen since the day that they were on the earth to this present day.’” Then Moses left and went out from Pharaoh.
Exo 10:7 Pharaoh’s servants asked him, “How long will this man be a menace to us? Let the Israelis go, so that they may worship Yehowah their Divine One. Do you not yet realize that Egypt is destroyed?”
Exo 10:8 Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, who said to them, “Go worship Yehowah your Divine One. But what people will go?”
Exo 10:9 Moses answered, “We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and our daughters. We will go with our flocks and herds, for we must hold a feast for Yehowah.”
Exo 10:10 Pharaoh said to them, “May Yehowah indeed be with you, if I ever let you go and your little ones go. Look, you have some evil in mind.
Exo 10:11 No! Go, just the men among you, and worship Yehowah, for that is what you want.” Then Moses and Aaron were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.
Exo 10:12 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Reach out with your hand over the land of Egypt to the locusts, that they may attack the land of Egypt and eat every plant in it, everything that the hail has left.”
Exo 10:13 Moses reached out with his trekking pole over the land of Egypt, and Yehowah brought an east wind over the land all that day and night. When it was daybreak, the east wind had brought the locusts.

Exo 10:14 The locusts went through all the land of Egypt and infested all parts of it. Never before had there been such a swarm of locusts in the land, and nothing like this will come after it.
Exo 10:15 They covered the surface of the whole land, so that it was darkened. They ate every plant in the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Throughout all the land of Egypt, no living green plant remained, nor any tree or plant in the fields.
Exo 10:16 Then Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron, and confessed, “I have sinned against Yehowah your Divine One and against you.
Exo 10:17 Now then, forgive my sin this time, and pray to Yehowah your Divine One, that he will take this death away from me.”
Exo 10:18 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to Yehowah.
Exo 10:19 Yehowah brought an extremely strong west wind that picked up the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not a single locust remained in all the territory of Egypt.
Exo 10:20 But Yehowah hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and Pharaoh did not let the Israelis go.
Exo 10:21 Then Yehowah commanded Moses, “Reach out with your hand toward the sky, so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness that may be felt.”
Exo 10:22 Moses reached out with his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.
Exo 10:23 No one could see anyone else; no one left his home for three days. However, all the Israelis had light in the place where they lived.
Exo 10:24 Pharaoh summoned Moses and ordered, “Go, worship Yehowah. Even your families may go with you, but your flocks and herds must remain behind.”
Exo 10:25 But Moses replied, “You must also give us animals for sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we may sacrifice them to Yehowah our Divine One.
Exo 10:26 Our livestock must also go with us; not a hoof of them may be left behind, for we must take them to worship Yehowah our Divine One. For we do not know with what we must worship Yehowah, until we arrive there.”
Exo 10:27 But Yehowah hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let them go.
Exo 10:28 Pharaoh ordered Moses, “Go from me! Be careful about one thing, that you do not see me again, for on the day you see my face, you will die.”
Exo 10:29 Moses responded, “You yourself have spoken rightly. I will not see your face again.”

Exodus Chapter 11

Exo 11:1 Then Yehowah said to Moses, “There is still one more plague that I will bring on Pharaoh and Egypt. After that, he will let you go from here. When he finally lets you go, he will drive you away completely.
Exo 11:2 Instruct the people that every man and woman is to ask of his or her neighbor for articles of silver and articles of gold.”
Exo 11:3 Now Yehowah had made the Egyptians eager to please the Israelis. Moreover, the man Moses was remarkably impressive in the sight of Pharaoh’s servants and the people of Egypt.
Exo 11:4 Moses said, “Yehowah prophesies this: ‘About midnight I will go throughout Egypt.
Exo 11:5 All the firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sits on his throne, to the firstborn of the slave girl who is behind the handmill grinding it, and to all the firstborn of the livestock.
Exo 11:6 Then there will be a great wailing throughout all the land of Egypt, such as has never been nor ever will be again.
Exo 11:7 But not even a dog will bark against any of the people of Israel, against either man or beast. In this way, you will know that I am treating the Egyptians and the Israelis differently.’
Exo 11:8 All these servants of yours, Pharaoh, will come down to me and bow down to me. They will shout, ‘Go, you and all the people who follow you!’ After that I will go out.” Then he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.
Exo 11:9 Yehowah said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you. This is so that I will do many amazing things in the land of Egypt.”
Exo 11:10 Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh. But Yehowah hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and Pharaoh did not let the people of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus Chapter 12

Exo 12:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt,
Exo 12:2 “For you, this month will be the start of months, the first month (Abib, Exo. 13:4) of the year (Gen. 8:13; begins at Spring Equinox).
Exo 12:3 Tell the congregation of Israel, ‘On the tenth of this month they must each take a lamb or young goat for themselves, each family doing this, a lamb for each household.
Exo 12:4 If the household is too small for a lamb, the man and his next door neighbor are to take lamb or young goat meat that will be enough for the number of the people. It should be enough for everyone to eat, so they must take enough meat to feed them all.
Exo 12:5 Your lamb or young goat must be without blemish, a one-year-old male. You may take one of the sheep or goats.
Exo 12:6 You must keep it until the fourteenth day of that month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel must kill these animals between the two evenings (Deut. 16:6).
Exo 12:7 You must take some of the blood and put it on the two side doorposts and on the tops of the door frames of the houses in which you will eat the meat.
Exo 12:8 You must eat the meat that night, after first roasting it over a fire. Eat it with unleavened bread, along with bitter herbs.
Exo 12:9 Do not eat it raw or boiled in water. Instead, roast it over fire with its head, legs, and inner parts.
Exo 12:10 You must not let any of it be left over until dawn (Abib 15). You must burn whatever is left over at dawn.
Exo 12:11 This is how you must eat it: with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet, and your trekking pole in your hand. You must eat it hurriedly. It is the Passover of Yehowah.
Exo 12:12 Yehowah declares this: I will go through the land of Egypt in that night and attack all the firstborn of man and animal in the land of Egypt. I will bring punishment on all the deities of Egypt. I am Yehowah.
Exo 12:13 The blood will be a sign on your houses for my coming to you. When I see the blood, I will pass over you, when I attack the land of Egypt. This plague will not come on you and destroy you.
Exo 12:14 This day will become a memorial day for you, which you must observe as a feast for Yehowah. It will always be a law for you, throughout your people’s generations, that you must observe this feast by an ordinance forever.
Exo 12:15 You will eat unleavened bread during seven days. On the headmost day (Passover, the 14th), you will remove the yeast from your houses. Whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person must be cut off from Israel.

Exo 12:16 On the first day (15th), there will be an assembly that is set apart to me, and on the seventh day there will be another set-apart gathering. No work will be done on these days, except the cooking for everyone to eat. That must be the only work that may be done by you.
Exo 12:17 You must observe this Festival of Unleavened Bread, because it is on this day that I will have brought your people, armed force by armed force, out of the land of Egypt. So you must observe this day throughout your people's generations. This will always be a law for you.
Exo 12:18 You must eat unleavened bread from dusk of the fourteenth day in the first month of the year, through dusk of the twenty-first day of the month.
Exo 12:19 During these seven days, no yeast must be found in your houses. Whoever eats bread made with yeast must be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether that person is a sojourning foreigner or someone born in your land.
Exo 12:20 You must eat nothing made with yeast. Wherever you live, you must eat unleavened bread.'"
Exo 12:21 Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go and select lambs or kids that will be enough to feed your families and kill the Passover.
Exo 12:22 Then take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the blood that will be in a basin. Apply the blood in the basin to the top of the doorframe and the two doorposts. None of you is to go out of the door of his house until dawn.
Exo 12:23 For Yehowah will pass through to attack the Egyptians. When he sees the blood on the top of the doorframe and on the two doorposts, Yehowah will pass over your door and not permit the destroyer to come into your houses to attack you.
Exo 12:24 You must observe this event. This will always be a law for you and your descendants.
Exo 12:25 When you enter the land that Yehowah will give you, just as he has promised to do, you must observe this act of worship.
Exo 12:26 When your children ask you, 'What does this act of worship mean?'
Exo 12:27 Then you must answer, 'It is the sacrifice of the Passover of Yehowah, because he passed over the Israelis' houses in Egypt when he attacked the Egyptians. He set our households free.'" Then the people bowed down and worshiped.
Exo 12:28 The Israelis went and did exactly as Yehowah had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exo 12:29 It happened at midnight, that Yehowah attacked all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on his throne, to the firstborn of the person in prison and all the firstborn of livestock.
Exo 12:30 Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, all his servants, and all the Egyptians. There was loud lamenting in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not someone dead.
Exo 12:31 Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron in the night and said, “Get up, get out from among my people, you and the Israelis. Go, worship Yehowah, as you have said you wanted to do.
Exo 12:32 Take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go, and also bless me.”
Exo 12:33 The Egyptians were in a great hurry to send them out of the land, for they said, “We are all dead people.”
Exo 12:34 So the people took their dough without adding any yeast. Their kneading bowls were already tied up in their clothes and on their shoulders.
Exo 12:35 Now the people of Israel did as Moses told them. They asked the Egyptians for articles of silver, articles of gold, and clothing.
Exo 12:36 Yehowah made the Egyptians eager to please the Israelis. So the Egyptians gave them whatever they asked for. In this way, the Israelis plundered the Egyptians.
Exo 12:37 The Israelis journeyed from Rameses to Succoth (Num 33:5). They numbered about 600,000 men on foot, in addition to the women and children.
Exo 12:38 A multitude of ethnicities also went with them, together with flocks and herds, a substantially large number of livestock.
Exo 12:39 They baked unleavened bread from the dough that they brought from Egypt. It was without yeast, because they had been driven out of Egypt and could not delay to prepare food.
Exo 12:40 Now the Israelis and their father (Abraham) had lived in (Haran), Canaan, and Egypt for 430 years.
Exo 12:41 At the end of 430 years (c. 1650 BC), on that same day (Abib 15, Gen. 15:18; Num. 33:3; Gal. 3:16-18), all of the armed forces of Yehowah went out from the land of Egypt.
Exo 12:42 This was a night to stay awake, for Yehowah to bring them out from the land of Egypt. This was the night of Yehowah to be observed by all the Israelis throughout their people’s generations.
Exo 12:43 Yehowah said to Moses and Aaron, “Here is the rule for the Passover: No foreigner may share in eating it.
Exo 12:44 However, every Israeli’s slave, bought with money, may eat it after you have circumcised him.
Exo 12:45 Resident foreigners and hired servants must not eat any of the food.

Exo 12:46 The food must be eaten in one house. You must not carry any of the meat out of the house, and you must not break any bone of it.
Exo 12:47 All the congregation of Israel must observe the festival.
Exo 12:48 If a sojourning foreigner lives with you and wants to observe the Passover to Yehowah, all his male relatives must be circumcised. Then he may come and observe it. He will become like the people who were born in the land. However, no uncircumcised person may eat any of the food.
Exo 12:49 This same law will apply to both the native born and to the sojourning foreigner who lives among you.”
Exo 12:50 So all the Israelis did exactly as Yehowah had commanded Moses and Aaron.
Exo 12:51 It came about on that same day (Abib 15), that Yehowah brought Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armed forces.

Exodus Chapter 13

Exo 13:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 13:2 “Set apart to me all the firstborn, every firstborn male among the Israelis, both of people and animals. The firstborn belongs to me.”
Exo 13:3 Moses said to the people, “Call this day to mind, the day on which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of slavery, for by the strong hand of Yehowah, he brought you out from this place. No bread with yeast may be eaten.
Exo 13:4 You are going out of Egypt on this (15th) day, in the month of Abib.
Exo 13:5 When Yehowah brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Hivites, and the Jebusites, the land that he swore to your ancestors to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, then you must observe this act of worship in this month.
Exo 13:6 For seven days you must eat unleavened bread; on the seventh day there will be a feast to honor Yehowah.
Exo 13:7 Unleavened bread must be eaten throughout the seven days; no bread with yeast may be seen among you. No yeast may be seen with you within any of your borders.
Exo 13:8 On that day, you are to say to your children, ‘This is because of what Yehowah did for me when I came out of Egypt.’
Exo 13:9 This will be a reminder for you on your hand and a reminder on your forehead (tefillin). This is so the Law of Yehowah may be in your mouth, for with a strong hand Yehowah brought you out of Egypt.
Exo 13:10 Therefore, you must keep this statute at its appointment calendar time from year to year.
Exo 13:11 When Yehowah brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and to your ancestors to do, and when he gives the land to you,
Exo 13:12 you must set apart for him every firstborn child and the first offspring of your animals. The males belong to Yehowah.
Exo 13:13 Every firstborn of a donkey you must buy back with a lamb. If you do not buy it back, then you must break its neck. But each of your firstborn males among all your sons, you must buy them back.
Exo 13:14 When your son asks you later, ‘What does this mean?’ Then you are to tell him, ‘It was by a strong hand that Yehowah brought us out from Egypt, from the house of slavery.
Exo 13:15 When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, Yehowah killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of people and the firstborn of animals. That is why I sacrifice to Yehowah the firstborn male of every animal, and why I buy back the firstborn of my sons.’

Exo 13:16 This will become a reminder on your hands and a reminder on your forehead (tefillin), for it was by a strong hand Yehowah brought us out of Egypt.”
Exo 13:17 When Pharaoh let the people go, the Almighty did not lead them by the road (Way of Horus) to the land of the Philistines, although that land was nearby. For the Almighty said, “Perhaps the people will change their minds when they experience war and will then return to Egypt.”
Exo 13:18 So the Almighty led the people around through the wilderness to the SEA (Sea of the End or Annihilation). The Israelis went up out of the land of Egypt armed for battle.
Exo 13:19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for Joseph had made the Israelis solemnly swear, “The Almighty will surely rescue you, and you must carry away my bones with you.”
Exo 13:20 The Israelis journeyed from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the wilderness (of Shur, or Etham; Num. 33:6, 8; Exo. 15:22).
Exo 13:21 Yehowah went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them on the way. By night he went in a pillar of fire to give them light. In this way, they could travel by day and by night.
Exo 13:22 He did not take away from before the people the daytime pillar of cloud or the nighttime pillar of fire.

Exodus Chapter 14

Exo 14:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 14:2 “Say to the Israelis that they should turn back and camp before Pi Hahiroth (house of Hathor), between Migdol (modern Slaves Hill) and the SEA, before Baal Zephon (deity of the north). You are to camp by the SEA opposite Pi Hahiroth (Num. 33:7).
Exo 14:3 Pharaoh will say about the Israelis, ‘They are wandering in the land. The wilderness has closed in on them.’
Exo 14:4 I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will pursue them. I will get honor because of Pharaoh and all his military force. The Egyptians will know that I am Yehowah.” So the Israelis camped as they were instructed.
Exo 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the Israelis had fled, the minds of Pharaoh and his servants turned against the people. They asked, “What have we done in letting Israel go free from working for us?”
Exo 14:6 Then Pharaoh harnessed his chariots and took his military force with him.
Exo 14:7 He took six hundred chosen chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers on all of them.
Exo 14:8 Yehowah hardened the heart of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and the king pursued the Israelis. Now the Israelis had gone away in triumph.
Exo 14:9 But the Egyptians pursued them, together with all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots, his cavalry, and his army. They overtook the Israelis camping by the SEA, beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.
Exo 14:10 When Pharaoh came close, the Israelis looked up and were surprised. The Egyptians were marching after them, and they were terrified. The Israelis cried out to Yehowah!
Exo 14:11 They asked Moses, “Is it because there were no graves in Egypt, that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you treated us like this, bringing us out of Egypt?
Exo 14:12 Is this not what we told you in Egypt? We said to you, ‘Leave us alone, so we can work for the Egyptians.’ It would have been better for us to work for them than to die in the wilderness.”
Exo 14:13 Moses ordered the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand still and see the rescue (Aleph Tav Y’shua) that Yehowah will provide for you today. For you will never see again the Egyptians whom you see today.
Exo 14:14 Yehowah will fight for you, and you will only have to stand still.”
Exo 14:15 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Why are you, Moses, continuing to call out to me? Tell the Israelis to go forward.

Exo 14:16 Lift up your trekking pole, reach out with your hand over the SEA and divide it, so that the people of Israel may go through the SEA on dry ground.
Exo 14:17 Be aware that I will harden the Egyptians' hearts, so they will go after them. I will get honor because of Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots, and his cavalry.
Exo 14:18 Then the Egyptians will know that I am Yehowah, when I have gained honor because of Pharaoh, his chariots, and his cavalry."
Exo 14:19 The angel of the Almighty, who went before the Israeli host, moved and went behind them. The pillar of cloud moved from before them and went to stand behind them.
Exo 14:20 The cloud came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel. It was a dark cloud to the Egyptians, but it lit the night for the Israelis, so one side did not come near the other all night.
Exo 14:21 Moses reached out with his hand over the SEA. Yehowah drove the SEA back by a strong east wind all that night and made the SEA into dry land. In this way, the waters were divided.
Exo 14:22 The Israelis went into the middle of the SEA on dry ground. The waters formed a wall for them on their right hand and on their left.
Exo 14:23 The Egyptians pursued them. They went after them into the middle of the SEA, all Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and cavalry.
Exo 14:24 But in the morning watch, Yehowah looked down on the Egyptian military force through the pillar of fire and cloud. He caused panic among the Egyptian military.
Exo 14:25 Their chariot wheels spun off, so the charioteers drove with difficulty. So the Egyptians shouted, "Let us flee from Israel, for Yehowah is fighting for them against us!"
Exo 14:26 Yehowah spoke to Moses, "Reach out with your hand over the SEA, so that the waters may come back onto the Egyptians, their chariots, and their cavalry."
Exo 14:27 So Moses reached out with his hand over the SEA, and it returned to its normal course when dawn appeared. The Egyptians fled straight into the SEA, and Yehowah drove the Egyptians into the middle of it.
Exo 14:28 The waters came back and covered Pharaoh's chariots, cavalry, and his entire army that had followed the chariots into the SEA. No one survived.
Exo 14:29 However, the Israelis walked on dry land in the middle of the SEA. The waters were a wall for them on their right hand and on their left.
Exo 14:30 So Yehowah saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw dead Egyptians on the seashore.
Exo 14:31 When Israel saw the great power that Yehowah used against the Egyptians, the people revered Yehowah, and they trusted in Yehowah and in his servant Moses.

Exodus Chapter 15

Exo 15:1 Then Moses and the people of Israel sang this song to Yehowah: “I will sing to Yehowah, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and its rider he has thrown into the SEA.
Exo 15:2 Yah is my strength and song, and he has become my salvation (Psa. 118:14; Isa. 12:2). This is my Almighty, and I will praise him, my father’s Divine One, and I will exalt him.
Exo 15:3 Yehowah is a warrior; Yehowah is his name.
Exo 15:4 He has thrown Pharaoh’s chariots and military force into the SEA. Pharaoh’s chosen officers were drowned in the SEA.
Exo 15:5 The depths covered them; they went down into the depths like a stone.
Exo 15:6 Your right hand, Yehowah, is glorious in power; your right hand, Yehowah, has shattered the enemy.
Exo 15:7 In great majesty you overthrew those who rose up against you. You sent out your wrath; it consumed them like stubble.
Exo 15:8 By the blast of your nostrils the waters were piled up; the flowing waters stood upright in a heap; the deep water was congealed in the heart of the SEA.
Exo 15:9 The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will share out the plunder; my desire will be satisfied on them; I will draw my sword; my hand will destroy them.’
Exo 15:10 But you blew with your wind, and the SEA covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters.
Exo 15:11 Who is like you, Yehowah, among the deities? Who is like you, majestic in set-apartness, honored in praises, doing miracles?
Exo 15:12 You reached out with your right hand, and the earth swallowed them.
Exo 15:13 In your covenant loyalty you have led the people you have redeemed. In your strength you have led them to the Set-apart Place where you live.
Exo 15:14 The people will hear, and they will tremble; terror will seize the inhabitants of Philistia.
Exo 15:15 Then the chiefs of Edom will fear; the soldiers of Moab will shake; all the inhabitants of Canaan will melt away.
Exo 15:16 Terror and dread will fall on them. Because of your arm’s power, they will become as still as a stone, until your people pass by, Yehowah, until the people you have redeemed pass by.
Exo 15:17 You will bring them and plant them on the mountain of your inheritance, the place, Yehowah, that you have made to live in, the sanctuary, Lord, that your hands have built.
Exo 15:18 Yehowah will reign forever and ever!”

Exo 15:19 For Pharaoh's horse went with his chariots and cavalry into the SEA. Yehowah brought back the waters of the SEA on them. But the Israelis walked on dry land in the middle of the SEA.
Exo 15:21 Miriam sang to them: "Sing to Yehowah, for he has triumphed gloriously. The horse and his rider he has thrown into the SEA!"
Exo 15:22 Then Moses led Israel onward from the SEA. They went out into the wilderness of Shur. They traveled for three days into the wilderness and found no water.
Exo 15:23 Then they came to Marah (modern Ein Ma'arif), but they could not drink the water there, because it was bitter. So they called that place Marah.
Exo 15:24 So the people complained to Moses and asked, "What can we drink?"
Exo 15:25 Moses cried out to Yehowah, and Yehowah showed him a tree. Moses threw it into the water, and the water became sweet to drink. It was there that Yehowah gave them a strict law, and it was there that he tested them.
Exo 15:26 He said, "If you carefully listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, and do what is right in his eyes, and if you give ear to his commands and obey all his laws, I will put on you none of the diseases that I put on the Egyptians, for I am Yehowah Who Heals you."
Exo 15:27 Then the people came to Elim (modern Ein Zik), where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees (Num. 33:9). They camped there by the water.

Exodus Chapter 16

Exo 16:1 The people journeyed on from Elim (modern Ein Zik), and all the congregation of Israelis came to the wilderness of Sin (just east of Mt. Sin), which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month (c. 1650 BC), after their departure from the land of Egypt.
Exo 16:2 The whole congregation of Israelis complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.
Exo 16:3 The Israelis said to them, "If only we had died by the of hand of Yehowah in the land of Egypt, when we were sitting by the pots of meat and were eating bread to the full. For you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill our whole congregation with hunger."
Exo 16:4 Then Yehowah said to Moses, "I will rain down bread from Heaven for you. The people will go out and gather a day's portion every day, so that I may test them, to see whether or not they will walk in my law.
Exo 16:5 It will come about on the sixth day, that they will gather twice as much as what they gathered every day before, and they will prepare what they bring in."
Exo 16:6 Then Moses and Aaron said to all the people of Israel, "At dusk you will know that it is Yehowah who has brought you out from the land of Egypt.
Exo 16:7 At dawn you will see the glory of Yehowah, for he hears your complaining against Yehowah. Who are we for you to complain against us?"
Exo 16:8 Moses also said, "You will know this when Yehowah gives you meat at dusk and bread at dawn to the full, for Yehowah has heard the complaints that you speak against him. Who are Aaron and I? Your complaints are not against us; they are against Yehowah."
Exo 16:9 Moses said to Aaron, "Order all the congregation of the people of Israel, 'Come near before Yehowah, for he has heard your complaints.'"
Exo 16:10 It came about, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of Yehowah appeared in the cloud.
Exo 16:11 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 16:12 "I have heard the complaints of the people of Israel. Speak to them, 'At dusk you will eat meat, and at dawn you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am Yehowah your Divine One.'"
Exo 16:13 Before sunset, quails came up and covered the camp. At dawn the dew lay round about the camp.
Exo 16:14 When the dew was gone, there on the surface of the wilderness were thin flakes like frost on the ground.

Exo 16:15 When the people of Israel saw it, they asked one another, “What is it?” They did not know what manna was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that Yehowah has given you to eat.
Exo 16:16 This is the command that Yehowah has given: ‘You must gather, each one of you, the amount you need to eat, 2.2 liters for each person of the number of your people. This is how you will gather it: Gather enough to eat for every person who lives in your tent.’”
Exo 16:17 The people of Israel did so. Some gathered more, some gathered less.
Exo 16:18 When they measured it with a 2.2 liter measure, those who had gathered much had nothing left over, and those who had gathered little had no lack. Each person gathered enough to meet their need.
Exo 16:19 Then Moses commanded them, “No one must leave any of it until dawn.”
Exo 16:20 However, they did not listen to Moses. Some of them left some of it until dawn, but it bred worms and became foul. Then Moses became angry with them.
Exo 16:21 They gathered it dawn by dawn. Each person gathered enough to eat for that day. When the sun became hot, it melted.
Exo 16:22 It came about that on the sixth day, they gathered twice as much bread, 4.4 liters for each person. All the leaders of the congregation came and told this to Moses.
Exo 16:23 He said to them, “This is what Yehowah has declared: ‘Tomorrow is a special sabbatism (holiday), a set-apart Sabbath (c. 1650 BC) to honor Yehowah. Bake what you want to bake, and boil what you want to boil. All that remains over, set it aside for yourselves until dawn.’”
Exo 16:24 So they set it aside until dawn, as Moses had instructed. It did not become foul, nor was there any worm in it.
Exo 16:25 Moses said, “Eat that food today, for today is a day reserved as a Sabbath to honor Yehowah. Today you will not find it in the fields.
Exo 16:26 You will gather it during six days, but on the seventh day Sabbath, there will be none.”
Exo 16:27 It came about on the seventh day, that some of the people went out to gather manna, but they found none.
Exo 16:28 Then Yehowah said to Moses, “How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and my law?
Exo 16:29 See, Yehowah has given you the Sabbath. So on the sixth day, he is giving you bread for two days. Each of you must stay in his own place; no one must go out from his place on the seventh day.”
Exo 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.
Exo 16:31 The people of Israel called that food “manna.” It was white like coriander seed, and its taste was like wafers made with honey.

Exo 16:32 Moses said, “This is what Yehowah has commanded: ‘Let 2.2 liters of manna be kept throughout your people’s generations, so that your descendants might see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, after I brought you out from the land of Egypt.’”
Exo 16:33 Moses ordered Aaron, “Take a pot and put 2.2 liters of manna into it. Preserve it before Yehowah to be kept throughout the people’s generations.”
Exo 16:35 The people of Israel ate manna forty years (c. 1650 – 1611 BC), until they came to inhabited land. They ate it, until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.
Exo 16:36 Now 2.2 liters (an omer) is a tenth of an ephah (22 liters, Eze. 45:11).

Exodus Chapter 17

Exo 17:1 The whole congregation of the Israelis journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, following the instructions of Yehowah. They camped at Rephidim (modern Be'er Resisim), but there was no water for the people to drink.
Exo 17:2 So the people blamed Moses for their situation and demanded, "Give us water to drink!" Moses asked, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test Yehowah?"
Exo 17:3 The people were thirsty, and they complained against Moses. They asked, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt? To kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"
Exo 17:4 Then Moses cried out to Yehowah, "What should I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me!"
Exo 17:5 Yehowah answered Moses, "Go on ahead of the people and take with you some elders of Israel. Take with you the trekking pole with which you struck the river, and go.
Exo 17:6 I will stand before you there on the rock in the dried up wadi bed, and you will strike the rock. Water will come out of it for the people to drink." Then Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel (Num. 20:11; Psa. 105:41).
Exo 17:7 He called that place Massah and Meribah because of the Israelis' complaining, and because they had tested Yehowah by asking, "Is Yehowah among us or not?"
Exo 17:8 Then a military force of the Amalekite people came and attacked Israel at Rephidim (modern Be'er Resisim).
Exo 17:9 So Moses ordered Joshua (Yehoshua; Neh. 8:17), "Choose some men and go out. Fight with Amalek. Tomorrow, I will stand on top of the hill with the trekking pole of the Almighty in my hand."
Exo 17:10 So Joshua fought Amalek as Moses had instructed, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.
Exo 17:11 While Moses was holding his hands up, Israel was winning; when he let his hands rest, Amalek would begin to win.
Exo 17:12 When Moses' hands became heavy, Aaron and Hur took a stone and put it under him for him to sit on. At the same time, Aaron and Hur held his hands up, one person on one side of him, and the other person on the other side. So Moses' hands were held steady, until the sun went down.
Exo 17:13 So Joshua defeated the people of Amalek with the sword.
Exo 17:14 Yehowah spoke to Moses, "Write this memorandum in a Book and read it in Joshua's hearing, because I will completely blot out the memory of Amalek from under the skies."
Exo 17:15 Then Moses built an altar, and he called it, "Yehowah is my Banner".

Exo 17:16 He said, “For a hand was lifted up to the throne of Yah, that Yehowah will wage war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

Exodus Chapter 18

Exo 18:1 Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that the Almighty had done for Moses and for Israel his people. He heard that Yehowah had brought Israel out of Egypt.
Exo 18:2 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her home,
Exo 18:3 and her two sons; the name of the one son was Gershom, for Moses had said, "I have been a sojourning foreigner in an alien land."
Exo 18:4 The name of the other was Eliezer, for Moses had said, "My ancestor's Divine One was my help. He rescued me from Pharaoh's sword."
Exo 18:5 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with Moses' sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he was camped at the mountain of the Almighty.
Exo 18:6 He said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law, Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons."
Exo 18:7 Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down, and kissed him. They asked about each other's welfare and then went into the tent.
Exo 18:8 Moses told his father-in-law all that Yehowah had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, about all the hardships that had come to them along the way, and how Yehowah had rescued them.
Exo 18:9 Jethro rejoiced over all the good that Yehowah had done for Israel, in that he had rescued them from the hand of the Egyptians.
Exo 18:10 Jethro said, "Bless Yehowah, for he has rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of Pharaoh, and delivered the people from the hand of the Egyptians!
Exo 18:11 Now I know that Yehowah is greater than all the deities, because when the Egyptians treated the Israelis arrogantly, the Almighty rescued his people!"
Exo 18:12 Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices for the Almighty. Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat a meal before the Almighty with Moses' father-in-law.
Exo 18:13 On the next day, Moses sat down to judge the people. The people stood around him from dawn until dusk.
Exo 18:14 When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he asked, "What is this that you are doing with the people? Why is it that you sit alone, and all the people stand about you from dawn until dusk?"
Exo 18:15 Moses answered his father-in-law, "The people come to me to ask for direction from Almighty.
Exo 18:16 When they have a dispute, they come to me. I decide between one person and another, and I teach them the statutes and law of the Almighty."
Exo 18:17 Moses' father-in-law replied to him, "What you are doing is not good.

Exo 18:18 You will surely wear yourselves out, you and the people who are with you. This burden is too heavy for you. You are not able to do it by yourself.
Exo 18:19 Listen to me. I will give you advice, and the Almighty will be with you, because you are the people's representative to the Almighty, and you bring their disputes to him.
Exo 18:20 You must teach them his statutes and law. You must show them the Way to walk and the work to do.
Exo 18:21 Furthermore, you must choose capable men from all the people, men who honor the Almighty, men of truth who hate unjust gain. You must put them over the people, to be leaders in charge of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and of tens.
Exo 18:22 They will judge the people in all routine cases, but the difficult cases they will bring to you. As for all the lesser cases, they can judge those themselves. In that way, it will be easier for you, and they will carry the burden with you.
Exo 18:23 If you do this, and if the Almighty commands you to do so, then you will be able to endure, and the entire people will be able to go home satisfied."
Exo 18:24 So Moses listened to his father-in-law's words and did everything that he had said.
Exo 18:25 Moses chose capable men from all Israel and made them heads over the people, leaders in charge of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.
Exo 18:26 They judged the people in normal circumstances. The difficult cases they brought to Moses, but they themselves judged all the lesser cases (first Beit Din).
Exo 18:27 Then Moses let his father-in-law leave, and Jethro went back into his own land.

Exodus Chapter 19

Exo 19:1 In the third month after the people of Israel had gone out from the land of Egypt, on the same day (15th of the month, Num. 33:3), they came to the wilderness of Sinai.
Exo 19:2 After they left Rephidim (modern Be'er Resisim) and came to the wilderness of Sinai, they camped in the wilderness in front of the mountain.
Exo 19:3 Moses went up to the Almighty. Yehowah called to him from the mountain, "You must tell the house of Jacob, the people of Israel:
Exo 19:4 You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself (Rev. 12:14; Isa. 40:31)!
Exo 19:5 Now then, if you obediently listen to my voice and keep my covenant, then you will be my special possession from among all people, for all the earth is mine.
Exo 19:6 You will be a kingdom of priests and a set-apart nation for me. These are the words that you must speak to the people of Israel."
Exo 19:7 So Moses came and summoned the elders of the people. He set before them all these words that Yehowah had commanded him.
Exo 19:8 All the people answered together, "We will do everything that Yehowah has said." Then Moses came to report the people's words to Yehowah.
Exo 19:9 Yehowah said to Moses, "I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and may also believe you forever." Then Moses told the people's words to Yehowah.
Exo 19:10 Yehowah spoke to Moses, "Go to the people. Today and tomorrow you must set them apart to me, and make them wash their garments.
Exo 19:11 Be ready for the third day, for the third day Yehowah will come down visibly before all the people onto Mount Sinai.
Exo 19:12 You must set boundaries all around the mountain for the people. Command them, 'Be careful that you do not go up the mountain or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain will surely be executed.'
Exo 19:13 No one's hand must touch such a person. Instead, he must certainly be executed by stoning or shot. Whether it is a person or an animal, he must be put to death. When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they may come up to the foot of the mountain."
Exo 19:14 Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people. He set apart the people to Yehowah, and they washed their garments.
Exo 19:15 He ordered the people, "Be ready on the third day; do not make love to your wives."

Exo 19:16 On the third day at dawn, there were thunderings, lightning bolts, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an extremely loud trumpet. All the people in the camp trembled.
Exo 19:17 Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet the Almighty, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.
Exo 19:18 Mount Sinai was completely covered with smoke, because Yehowah descended on it in fire and smoke. The smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently.
Exo 19:19 When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and the Almighty answered him in a voice.
Exo 19:20 Yehowah came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, and he summoned Moses to the top. So Moses went up.
Exo 19:21 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Go down and warn the people not to break through to me to look, or many of them will perish.
Exo 19:22 Let the priests also, who come near to me, set themselves apart, prepare themselves for my coming, so that I do not attack them.”
Exo 19:23 Moses replied to Yehowah, “The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for you commanded us: ‘Set boundaries around the mountain and set it apart to Yehowah.’”
Exo 19:24 Yehowah ordered him, “Go, get down the mountain, and bring up Aaron with you, but do not let the priests and the people break through the barrier to come up to Yehowah, or I will attack them.”
Exo 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Exodus Chapter 20

Exo 20:1 The Almighty spoke all these words:
Exo 20:2 "I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery (1st Commandment: Believe in Yehowah; Heb. 11:6).
Exo 20:3 You must have no other deities before me (2nd Commandment: No idolatry).
Exo 20:4 You must not make for yourself a carved figure nor the likeness of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water below;
Exo 20:5 you must not bow down to them or worship them, for I, Yehowah your Divine One, am a jealous Almighty (El Qanna). I punish the ancestors' wickedness by bringing punishment on the descendants, to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me.
Exo 20:6 But I show covenant faithfulness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.
Exo 20:7 You must not swear an oath in the name of Yehowah your Divine One without keeping it, for Yehowah will not hold guiltless anyone who swears an oath in my name and then does not keep it (3rd Commandment: No false oaths; Mat. 5:33; Eccl. 5:1-7).
Exo 20:8 Remember the Sabbath day, to set it apart to me (4th).
Exo 20:9 You must labor and do all your work for six days.
Exo 20:10 But the seventh day is a Sabbath for me, Yehowah your Divine One. On it you must not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your livestock, nor your sojourning alien who is within your gates.
Exo 20:11 For in six days Yehowah made the heavens, earth, and sea, and everything that is in them, and then rested on the seventh day (Gen. 2:2-3). Therefore, Yehowah blessed the Sabbath day and set it apart to myself.
Exo 20:12 Honor your father and mother, so that you may live a long time in the land which Yehowah, your Divine One, is giving you (5th).
Exo 20:13 You must not murder anyone (6th).
Exo 20:14 You must not commit adultery (7th Commandment: No sexual immorality).
Exo 20:15 You must not steal from anyone (8th).
Exo 20:16 You must not give false testimony against your neighbor (9th).
Exo 20:17 You must not covet your neighbor's house; you must not covet your neighbor's wife, his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor" (10th).

Exo 20:18 All the people saw the thundering and the lightning, and heard the sound of the trumpet, and saw the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled and stood far off.
Exo 20:19 They said to Moses, “Speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let the Almighty speak to us, or we will die.”
Exo 20:20 Moses responded to the people, “Do not be afraid, for the Almighty has come to test you, so that reverence for him may be in you, and so that you do not sin.”
Exo 20:21 So the people stood far off, and Moses approached the thick darkness where the Almighty was.
Exo 20:22 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “This is what you must tell the Israelis: ‘You yourselves have seen that I have talked with you from Heaven.
Exo 20:23 You will not make for yourselves false deities alongside me, deities of silver or deities of gold.
Exo 20:24 You must make an earthen altar for me, and you must sacrifice on it your burnt offerings, peace offerings, sheep, and oxen. In every place where I cause my name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.
Exo 20:25 If you make me an altar of stone, you must not build it of cut stones, for if you use your tools on it, you will have defiled it.
Exo 20:26 You must not go up by steps to my altar; this is to keep you from exposing your private parts.’”

Exodus Chapter 21

Exo 21:1 “Now these are the decrees that you must set before them:
Exo 21:2 ‘If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve for six years, and in the seventh year he will go free without paying anything.
Exo 21:3 If he came by himself, he must go free by himself; if he is married, then his wife must go free with him.
Exo 21:4 If his master gave him a wife, and she bore him sons or daughters, the wife and her children will belong to her master, and he must go free by himself.
Exo 21:5 But if the servant plainly says, “I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,”
Exo 21:6 then his master must bring him to the Almighty. The master must bring him to a door or doorpost, and his master must bore his ear through with an awl. Then the servant will serve him for the rest of his life.
Exo 21:7 If a man sells his daughter as a female servant, she must not go free as the male servants do.
Exo 21:8 If she does not please her master, who has designated her for himself, then he must let her be bought back. He has no right to sell her to a foreign people. He has no such right, since he has treated her deceitfully.
Exo 21:9 If her master designates her as a wife for his son, he must treat her the same as if she were his daughter.
Exo 21:10 If he takes another wife for himself, he must not diminish her food, clothing, or her marital rights.
Exo 21:11 But if he does not provide these three things for her, then she can go free without paying any money.
Exo 21:12 Whoever strikes a man so that he dies, that person must surely be executed.
Exo 21:13 If the man did not do it with premeditation, but instead the Almighty delivered him into his hand, then I will fix a place to where he can flee.
Exo 21:14 If a man willfully attacks his neighbor and murders him according to a cunning plan, then you must take him, even if he is at my altar, so that he may be executed.
Exo 21:15 Whoever hits his father or mother must surely be executed.
Exo 21:16 Whoever kidnaps a person and sells him, or the person is found in his possession, that kidnapper must surely be executed.
Exo 21:17 Whoever curses his father or his mother must surely be executed.
Exo 21:18 If men fight and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist, and that person does not die, but is confined to his bed;
Exo 21:19 then if he recovers and is able to walk about using his trekking pole, the man who struck him must pay for the loss of his time; he must also pay for his complete recovery. But that man is not guilty of murder.

Exo 21:20 If a man hits his male servant or his female servant with a trekking pole, and if the servant dies as a result of the blow, then that man must surely be punished.
Exo 21:21 However, if the servant lives for a day or two, the master must not be punished, for he will have suffered the loss of the servant.
Exo 21:22 If men fight together and hurt a pregnant woman, so that she gives birth prematurely, but there is no other injury, then the guilty man must surely be fined as the woman's husband demands it from him, and he must pay as the judges determine.
Exo 21:23 But if there is serious injury (i.e., that causes a miscarriage), then you must give a life for a life,
Exo 21:24 an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot,
Exo 21:25 a burn for a burn, a wound for a wound, or a bruise for a bruise.
Exo 21:26 If a man hits the eye of his male servant or of his female servant and destroys it, then he must let the servant go free in compensation for his eye.
Exo 21:27 If he knocks out a tooth of his male servant or female servant, he must let the servant go free as compensation for the tooth.
Exo 21:28 If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox must surely be stoned, and its flesh must not be eaten; but the ox's owner must be acquitted of guilt.
Exo 21:29 But if the ox had a habit of goring in the past, and its owner was warned but did not keep it in, and the ox has killed a man or a woman, that ox must be stoned, and its owner also must be executed.
Exo 21:30 If a payment is required for his life, he must pay whatever he is required to pay.
Exo 21:31 If the ox has gored a man's son or daughter, the ox's owner must do what this decree requires him to do.
Exo 21:32 If the ox gores a male servant or a female servant, the ox's owner must pay 30-weight silver-currency to the servant's master, and the ox must be stoned.
Exo 21:33 If a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,
Exo 21:34 the owner of the pit must repay the loss. He must give money to the dead animal's owner, and the dead animal will become his.
Exo 21:35 If one man's ox hurts another man's ox so that it dies, then they must sell the live ox and divide its price, and they must also divide the dead ox.
Exo 21:36 But if it was known that the ox had a habit of goring in time past, and its owner has not kept it in, he must surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal will become his own.

Exodus Chapter 22

Exo 22:1 If a man steals an ox or a sheep and kills it or sells it, then he must pay five oxen for one ox, and four sheep for one sheep.
Exo 22:2 If a thief is found breaking in, and if he is struck so that he dies, in that case no guilt for murder will attach to anyone on his account.
Exo 22:3 But if the sun has risen before he breaks in, guilt for murder will attach to the person who kills him. A thief must make restitution. If he has nothing, then he must be sold for his theft.
Exo 22:4 If the stolen animal is found alive in his possession, whether it is an ox, a donkey, or a sheep, he must pay back double.
Exo 22:5 If a man grazes his livestock in a field or vineyard and lets his animal loose, and it grazes in another man's field, he must make restitution from the best of his own field and from the best of his own vineyard.
Exo 22:6 If a fire breaks out and spreads in thorns so that stacked grain, or standing grain, or a field is consumed, the one who started the fire must surely make restitution.
Exo 22:7 If a man gives money or goods to his neighbor for safe keeping, and if it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is found, that thief must pay double.
Exo 22:8 But if the thief is not found, then the owner of the house must come before the judges to see whether he has put his own hand on his neighbor's property.
Exo 22:9 For every dispute about something, whether it is an ox, a donkey, a sheep, clothing, or any other missing thing about which one says, "This belongs to me," the claim of both parties must come before the judges. The man whom the judges find guilty must pay double to his neighbor.
Exo 22:10 If a man gives his neighbor a donkey, an ox, a sheep, or any animal to keep, and if it dies or is hurt or is carried away without anyone seeing it,
Exo 22:11 an oath to Yehowah must be taken by them both, as to whether or not one person has put his hand on his neighbor's property. The owner must accept this, and the other will make no restitution.
Exo 22:12 But if it was stolen from him, the other must make restitution to the owner for it.
Exo 22:13 If an animal was torn in pieces, let the other man bring the animal as evidence. He will not have to pay for what was torn.
Exo 22:14 If a man borrows any animal from his neighbor, and the animal is injured or dies without the owner being with it, the other man must surely make restitution.

Exo 22:15 But if the owner was with it, the other man will not have to pay; if the animal was hired, it will be paid for by its hiring fee.
Exo 22:16 If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged, and if he rapes her, he must surely make her his wife by paying the bride price required for this.
Exo 22:17 If her father completely refuses to give her to him, he must pay money equal to the bride price of virgins.
Exo 22:18 You must not allow a sorceress to live.
Exo 22:19 Whoever has sex with a beast must surely be executed.
Exo 22:20 Whoever sacrifices to any deity except to Yehowah must be completely destroyed.
Exo 22:21 You must not wrong a sojourning foreigner or oppress him, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.
Exo 22:22 You must not mistreat any widow or fatherless child.
Exo 22:23 If you afflict them at all, and if they call out to me, Yehowah, I will surely hear their call.
Exo 22:24 My anger will burn, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives will become widows, and your children will become fatherless.
Exo 22:25 If you lend money to any of my people among you who are poor, you must not be like a moneylender to him or charge him interest.
Exo 22:26 If you take your neighbor’s garment in pledge, you must return it to him before the sun goes down,
Exo 22:27 for that is his only covering; it is his garment for his body. What else can he sleep in? When he calls out to me, I will hear him, for I am compassionate.
Exo 22:28 You must not blaspheme me, the Almighty, nor curse a ruler of your people.
Exo 22:29 You must not hold back offerings from your harvest or your winepresses. You must give to me the firstborn of your sons.
Exo 22:30 You must also do the same with your oxen and your sheep. For seven days they may remain with their mothers, but on the eighth day you must give them to me.
Exo 22:31 You will be people that are set apart for me. So you must not eat any meat that was torn by animals in the field. Instead, you must throw it to the dogs.

Exodus Chapter 23

Exo 23:1 You must not give a false report about anyone. Do not join with a wicked man to be a dishonest witness.
Exo 23:2 You must not follow a crowd to do evil, nor may you bear witness while siding with the crowd, in order to pervert justice.
Exo 23:3 You must not favor a poor man in his lawsuit.
Exo 23:4 If you meet your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you must bring it back to him.
Exo 23:5 If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen to the ground under its load, you must not leave that person. You must surely help him with his donkey.
Exo 23:6 You must not pervert justice when it should go to your poor people in a poor man's lawsuit.
Exo 23:7 Do not join others in making false accusations, and do not murder the innocent or righteous, for I will not acquit the wicked.
Exo 23:8 Never take a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and perverts honest people's words.
Exo 23:9 You must not oppress a sojourning foreigner, since you know the life of a sojourner, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.
Exo 23:10 For six years, you will sow seed on your land and gather in its produce.
Exo 23:11 But in the seventh year, you will leave it unplowed and fallow, so that the poor among your people may eat. What they leave, the wild animals will eat. You will do the same with your vineyards and olive orchards.
Exo 23:12 During six days, you will do your work, but on the seventh day you must rest (Shabbat). Do this, so that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and so that your female slave's son and any sojourning alien may rest and be refreshed.
Exo 23:13 Pay attention to everything that I have said to you. Do not mention the names of false deities, nor let their names be heard from your mouth.
Exo 23:14 You must travel to hold a feast for me three times every year.
Exo 23:15 You are to observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you will eat unleavened bread for seven days. At that appointment calendar festival, you will appear before me in the month of Abib. It was in this month that you came out from Egypt. But you must not appear before me empty-handed.
Exo 23:16 You must observe the Festival of Harvest (Shavuot, Omer day 50), the firstfruits of your labors when you sowed seed in the fields. Also, you must

Exo 23:17 All your males must appear before Lord Yehowah three times every year.
Exo 23:18 You must not offer the blood from sacrifices made to me with bread containing yeast (unleavened bread only). The fat from the sacrifices at my feasts must not remain all night until dawn.
Exo 23:19 You must bring the first of the firstfruits from your land into my house, the tabernacle of Yehowah your Divine One. You must not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.
Exo 23:20 I am going to send an angel before you to guard you on the way, and to bring you to the place that I have prepared.
Exo 23:21 Be attentive to him and obey him. Do not provoke him, for he will not pardon your transgressions. My Name is in him.
Exo 23:22 If you indeed obey his voice and do everything that I tell you, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.
Exo 23:23 My angel will go before you and bring you to the Amorites, Hethites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites, and the Jebusites. I will destroy them.
Exo 23:24 You must not bow down to their deities, worship them, or do as they do. Instead, you must completely overthrow them and smash their stone pillars in pieces.
Exo 23:25 You must worship me, Yehowah your Divine One. If you do, I will bless your bread and water. I will remove sickness from among you.
Exo 23:26 No woman will be barren or will miscarry her young in your land. I will give you long lives.
Exo 23:27 I will send fear of myself on those into whose land you advance. I will kill all the people whom you meet. I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you in fright.
Exo 23:28 I will send hornets before you that will drive out the Hivites, Canaanites, and the Hethites from before you.
Exo 23:29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, or the land would become abandoned, and the wild animals would become too many for you.
Exo 23:30 Instead, I will drive them out little by little from before you, until you become fruitful and inherit the land.
Exo 23:31 I will fix your borders from the End Salt Sea (Gulf of Aqaba) to the Sea of the Philistines (Mediterranean Sea), and from the wilderness to the Euphrates River. I will give you victory over the land's inhabitants. You will drive them out before yourselves.
Exo 23:32 You must not make a covenant with them or with their deities.

Exo 23:33 They must not live in your land, or they would make you sin against me. If you worship their deities, this will surely become a trap for you.’”

Exodus Chapter 24

Exo 24:1 Then Yehowah commanded Moses, “Come up to me, you, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of Israel’s elders, and worship me at a distance.
Exo 24:2 Moses alone may come near to Yehowah. The others must not come near, nor may the people come up with him.”
Exo 24:3 Moses went and told the people all of the words and decrees of Yehowah. All the people answered with one voice, “We will do all the words that Yehowah has spoken.”
Exo 24:4 Then Moses wrote down all of the words of Yehowah. At daybreak, Moses built an altar at the foot of the mountain and arranged twelve stone pillars, so that the stones would represent the twelve tribes of Israel.
Exo 24:5 He sent some Israeli young men to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice peace offerings of oxen to Yehowah.
Exo 24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put it into basins; he sprinkled the other half onto the altar.
Exo 24:7 He took the Book of the Covenant and read it aloud to the people. They promised, “We will do all that Yehowah has spoken. We will be obedient.”
Exo 24:8 Then Moses took the blood and sprinkled it onto the people. He said, “This is the blood of the covenant that Yehowah has made with you by giving you this promise with all these words.”
Exo 24:9 Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of Israel’s elders went up the mountain.
Exo 24:10 They saw the Mighty One of Israel. Under his feet there was a pavement made of sapphire stone, as clear as the sky itself.
Exo 24:11 He did not lay a hand in anger on the Israeli leaders. They saw the Almighty, and they ate and drank.
Exo 24:12 Yehowah said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and stay there. I will give you the tablets of stone and the law and commandments that I have written, so that you may teach them.”
Exo 24:13 So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua and went up the mountain of the Almighty.
Exo 24:14 Moses had said to the elders, “Stay here and wait for us, until we come to you. Aaron and Hur are with you. If anyone has a dispute, let him go to them.”
Exo 24:15 So Moses went up the mountain, and the cloud covered it.
Exo 24:16 The glory of Yehowah settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day, he called to Moses from within the cloud.
Exo 24:17 The glory of Yehowah looked like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the Israelis.

Exo 24:18 Moses entered the cloud and went up the mountain. He was up the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Exodus Chapter 25

Exo 25:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 25:2 “Tell the Israelis to collect an offering for me from every person who is motivated by a willing heart. You must receive these offerings for me.
Exo 25:3 These are the offerings that you must receive from them: gold, silver, and bronze;
Exo 25:4 blue, purple, and scarlet material; fine linen; goats’ hair;
Exo 25:5 ram skins dyed red and antelope hides; acacia wood;
Exo 25:6 oil for the sanctuary lamps; spices for the anointing oil and the fragrant incense;
Exo 25:7 onyx stones and other precious stones to be set for the ephod and breastpiece.
Exo 25:8 Let them make me a sanctuary, so that I may live in their midst.
Exo 25:9 You must make it exactly as I will show you in the plans for the tabernacle and for all its equipment.
Exo 25:10 They are to make an ark of acacia wood. Its length must be one meter; its width will be three-quarters of a meter; and its height will be three-quarters of a meter.
Exo 25:11 You must cover it inside and out with pure gold, and you must make on it a border of gold around its top.
Exo 25:12 You must cast four rings of gold for it, and put them on the ark’s four feet, with two rings on one side of it, and two rings on the other side.
Exo 25:13 You must make poles of acacia wood and cover them with gold.
Exo 25:14 You must put the poles into the rings on the ark’s sides, in order to carry the ark.
Exo 25:15 The poles must remain in the rings of the ark; they must not be taken from it.
Exo 25:16 You must put into the ark the covenant decrees that I will give you.
Exo 25:17 You must make an atonement lid of pure gold. Its length must be one meter, and its width must be three-quarters of a meter.
Exo 25:18 You must make two cherubim of hammered gold for the two ends of the atonement lid.
Exo 25:19 Make one cherub for one end of the atonement lid and the other cherub for the other end. They must be made as one piece with the atonement lid.
Exo 25:20 The cherubim must spread out their wings upward and overshadow the atonement lid with them. The cherubim must face one another and look toward the center of the atonement lid.
Exo 25:21 You must put the atonement lid on top of the ark, and you must put into the ark the covenant decrees that I am giving you.

Exo 25:22 It is at the ark that I will meet with you. I will speak with you from my position above the atonement lid. It will be from between the two cherubim over the Ark of the Testimony, that I will speak to you about all the commands I will give you for the Israelis.
Exo 25:23 You must make a table of acacia wood. Its length must be one meter; its width must be one-half meter, and its height must be three-quarters of a meter.
Exo 25:25 You must make a surrounding frame for it one-fifth of a meter wide, with a surrounding border of gold for the frame.
Exo 25:26 You must make for it four rings of gold and attach the rings to the four corners, where the four feet are.
Exo 25:27 The rings must be attached to the frame to provide places for the poles, in order to carry the table.
Exo 25:28 You must make the poles out of acacia wood and cover them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them.
Exo 25:29 You must make the dishes, spoons, pitchers, and bowls to be used to pour out drink offerings. You must make them of pure gold.
Exo 25:30 You must regularly set the bread of the presence on the table before me.
Exo 25:31 You must make a menorah of pure hammered gold. The menorah is to be made with its base and shaft. Its cups, its leafy bases, and its flowers are to be all made of one piece with it.
Exo 25:32 Six branches must extend out from its sides, three branches must extend from one side of the menorah, and three branches of the menorah must extend from the other side.
Exo 25:33 The first branch must have three cups made like almond blossoms, with a leafy base and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, with a leafy base and a flower. It must be the same for all six branches extending out from the menorah.
Exo 25:34 On the menorah itself, the central shaft, there must be four cups made like almond blossoms, with their leafy bases and the flowers.
Exo 25:35 There must be a leafy base under the first pair of branches, made as one piece with it, and a leafy base under the second pair of branches, also made as one piece with it. In the same way, there must be a leafy base under the third pair of branches, made as one piece with it. It must be the same for all six branches extending out from the menorah.
Exo 25:36 Their leafy bases and branches must all be one piece with it, one beaten piece of work of pure gold.

Exo 25:37 You must make the menorah and its seven lamps, and set up its lamps for them to give light from it.
Exo 25:38 The tongs and their trays must be made of pure gold.
Exo 25:39 Use thirty-three kilograms of pure gold to make the menorah and its accessories.
Exo 25:40 Be sure to make them after the pattern that you are being shown on the mountain (Heb. 8:5).

Exodus Chapter 26

Exo 26:1 You must make the tabernacle with ten curtains made from fine linen and blue, purple, and scarlet wool with the designs of cherubim. This will be the work of an inventive skilled craftsman.
Exo 26:2 The length of each curtain must be twelve and one-half meters, the width one and one-fifth meters. All the curtains must be of the same size.
Exo 26:3 Five curtains must be joined to each other, and the other five curtains must also be joined to each other.
Exo 26:4 You must make loops of blue along the outer edge of the end curtain of one set. In the same way, you must do the same along the outer edge of the end curtain in the second set.
Exo 26:5 You must make fifty loops on the first curtain, and you must make fifty loops on the end curtain in the second set. Do this, so that the loops will be opposite to each other.
Exo 26:6 You must make fifty clasps of gold and join the curtains together with them, so that the tabernacle becomes united.
Exo 26:7 You must make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle. You must make eleven of these curtains.
Exo 26:8 The length of each curtain must be thirteen and one-half meters, and the width of each curtain must be one and one-fifth meters. Each of the eleven curtains must be of the same size.
Exo 26:9 You must join five curtains to each other and the other six curtains to each other. You must double over the sixth curtain in the front of the tent.
Exo 26:10 You must make fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain of the first set, and fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain that joins the second set.
Exo 26:11 You must make fifty bronze clasps and put them into the loops. Then you join the tent together, so that it may be one piece.
Exo 26:12 The leftover half curtain, that is, the overhanging part remaining from the tent's curtains, must hang at the back of the tabernacle.
Exo 26:13 There must be a half-meter of curtain on one side, and a half-meter of curtain on the other side, that which is left over of the length of the tent's curtains must hang over the sides of the tabernacle on one side and on the other side, to cover it.
Exo 26:14 You must make for the tabernacle a covering of ram skins dyed red and another covering of fine antelope leather to go above that.
Exo 26:15 You must make upright frames out of acacia wood for the tabernacle.
Exo 26:16 The length of each frame must be four and one-half meters, and its width must be three-quarters of a meter.

Exo 26:17 There must be two wooden pegs in each frame for joining the frames to each other. You are to make all the tabernacle's frames in this way.
Exo 26:18 When you make the frames for the tabernacle, you must make twenty frames for the south side.
Exo 26:19 You must make forty silver bases to go under the twenty frames. There must be two bases under the first frame to be its two pedestals, and also two bases under each of the other frames for their two pedestals.
Exo 26:20 For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, you must make twenty frames
Exo 26:21 and their forty silver bases. There must be two bases under the first frame, two bases under the next frame, and so on.
Exo 26:22 For the back side of the tabernacle on the west side, you must make six frames.
Exo 26:23 You must make two frames for the back corners of the tabernacle.
Exo 26:24 These frames must be separate at the bottom but joined at the top to the same ring. It must be this way for both of the back corners.
Exo 26:25 There must be eight frames, together with their silver bases. There must be sixteen bases in all, two bases under the first frame, two bases under the next frame, and so on.
Exo 26:26 You must make crossbars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,
Exo 26:27 five crossbars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five crossbars for the frames for the back side of the tabernacle to the west.
Exo 26:28 The crossbar in the center of the frames, that is, halfway up, must reach from end to end.
Exo 26:29 You must cover the frames with gold. You must make their rings of gold, for them to serve as holders for the crossbars, and you must cover the bars with gold.
Exo 26:30 You must set up the tabernacle by following the plan you were shown on the mountain.
Exo 26:31 You must make a curtain of blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and of fine linen, with designs of cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.
Exo 26:32 You must hang it on four pillars of acacia wood covered with gold. These pillars must have hooks of gold set on four silver bases.
Exo 26:33 You must hang up the curtain under the clasps, and you must bring in the Ark of the Testimony. The curtain is to separate the Set-apart Place from the Most Set-apart Place.
Exo 26:34 You must put the atonement lid on the Ark of the Testimony, which is in the Most Set-apart Place.

Exo 26:35 You must place the table outside the curtain. You must place the menorah opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle. The table must be on the north side.
Exo 26:36 You must make a hanging for the tent entrance. You must make it out of blue, purple, and scarlet material and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer.
Exo 26:37 For the hanging, you must make five pillars of acacia and cover them with gold. Their hooks must be of gold, and you must cast five bronze bases for them.

Exodus Chapter 27

Exo 27:1 You must make the altar of acacia wood, two and one-tenth meters long and two and one-tenth meters wide. The altar must be square and one and one-third meters high.
Exo 27:2 You must make extensions of its four corners shaped like ox horns. The horns will be made as one piece with the altar, and you must cover them with bronze.
Exo 27:3 You must make equipment for the altar: pots for ashes, and also shovels, basins, meat forks, and firepans. You must make all these utensils with bronze.
Exo 27:4 You must make a grate for the altar, a network of bronze. Make a bronze ring for each of the grate's four corners.
Exo 27:5 You must put the grate under the ledge of the altar, halfway down to the bottom.
Exo 27:6 You must make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and you must cover them with bronze.
Exo 27:7 The poles must be put into the rings, and the poles must be on the two sides of the altar, to carry it.
Exo 27:8 You must make the altar hollow, out of planks. You must make it in the way you were shown on the mountain.
Exo 27:9 You must make a courtyard for the tabernacle. There must be hangings on the south side of the courtyard, hangings of fine twined linen forty-four meters long.
Exo 27:10 The hangings must have twenty posts, with twenty bronze bases. There must also be hooks attached to the posts, as well as silver rods.
Exo 27:11 Likewise, along the north side, there must be hangings forty-four meters long with twenty posts, twenty bronze bases, hooks attached to the posts, and silver rods.
Exo 27:12 Along the courtyard on the west side there must be a curtain twenty-two meters long. There must be ten posts and ten bases.
Exo 27:13 The courtyard must also be twenty-two meters long on the east side.
Exo 27:14 The hangings for one side of the entrance must be seven meters long. They must have three posts with three bases.
Exo 27:15 The other side must also have hangings seven meters long. They must have their three posts and three bases.
Exo 27:16 The courtyard gate must be a curtain nine meters long. The curtain must be made of blue, purple, and scarlet material and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer. It must have four posts with four bases.

Exo 27:17 All the courtyard posts must have silver rods, silver hooks, and bronze bases.
Exo 27:18 The length of the courtyard must be forty-six meters, the width twenty-three meters, and the height two and one-third meters with fine twined linen hangings all along, and bases of bronze.
Exo 27:19 All the equipment to be used in the tabernacle, and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and courtyard must be made of bronze.
Exo 27:20 You must command the people of Israel to bring olive oil, pure and pressed, for the lamps, so they may burn continually.
Exo 27:21 In the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain that is in front of the tabernacle that contains the Ark of the Testimony, Aaron and his sons must keep the lamps burning before Yehowah, from dusk to dawn. This requirement will be a lasting ordinance throughout the generations of the people of Israel.

Exodus Chapter 28

Exo 28:1 Call to yourself Aaron your brother and his sons, Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, from among the Israelis, so that they may serve me as priests.
Exo 28:2 You must make for Aaron, your brother, garments that are set apart to me. These garments will be for his honor and splendor.
Exo 28:3 You must speak to all the people who are wise in heart, those whom I have filled with the Ruach of wisdom, so that they may make Aaron's garments to set him apart to serve me as my priest.
Exo 28:4 The garments that they must make are a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a coat of woven work, a turban, and a sash. They must make these garments that are set apart to me. They will be for your brother Aaron and his sons, so that they may serve me as priests.
Exo 28:5 Craftsmen must use fine linen that is gold, blue, purple, and scarlet.
Exo 28:6 They must make the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and of fine twined linen. It must be the work of a skillful craftsman.
Exo 28:7 It must have two shoulder pieces attached to its two upper corners.
Exo 28:8 Its finely woven waistband must be like the ephod; it must be made of one piece with the ephod, made of fine twined linen that is gold, blue, purple, and scarlet.
Exo 28:9 You must take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of Israel's twelve sons.
Exo 28:10 Six of their names must be on one stone, and six names must be on the other stone, in order of their birth.
Exo 28:11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engraving on a signet, you must engrave the two stones with the names of Israel's twelve sons. You must mount the stones in settings of gold.
Exo 28:12 You must put the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, to be stones to remind Yehowah of Israel's sons. Aaron will carry their names before Yehowah on his two shoulders as a reminder to him.
Exo 28:13 You must make settings of gold
Exo 28:14 and two braided chains of pure gold like cords, and you must attach the chains to the settings.
Exo 28:15 You must make a breastpiece for decision making, the work of a skillful workman, fashioned like the ephod. Make it of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and of fine linen.
Exo 28:16 It is to be square. You must fold the breastpiece double. It must be 23 centimeters long and 23 centimeters wide.
Exo 28:17 You must place in it four rows of precious stones. The first row must have a ruby, a topaz, and a garnet.

Exo 28:18 The second row must have an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.
Exo 28:19 The third row must have a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst.
Exo 28:20 The fourth row must have a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper. They must be mounted in gold settings.
Exo 28:21 The stones must be arranged by the names of Israel's twelve sons, each in order by name. They must be like the engraving on a signet ring, each name standing for one of the twelve tribes.
Exo 28:22 You must make on the breastpiece chains like cords, braided work of pure gold.
Exo 28:23 You must make two rings of gold for the breastpiece and must attach them to the two ends of the breastpiece.
Exo 28:24 You must attach the two golden chains to the two corners of the breastpiece.
Exo 28:25 You must attach the other ends of the two braided chains to the two settings. Then you must attach those to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at its front.
Exo 28:26 You must make two rings of gold, and you must put them on the other two corners of the breastpiece, on the edge next to the inner border.
Exo 28:27 You must make two more gold rings, and you must attach them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the front of the ephod, close to its seam above the finely woven waistband of the ephod.
Exo 28:28 They must tie the breastpiece by its rings to the ephod's rings with a blue cord, so that it might be attached just above the ephod's woven waistband. This is so that the breastpiece might not become unattached from the ephod.
Exo 28:29 When Aaron goes into the Set-apart Place, he must carry the names of the people of Israel over his heart in the breastpiece for decision making, as a continuing memorial before Yehowah.
Exo 28:30 You are to put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastpiece for decision making, so they may be over Aaron's heart when he goes in before Yehowah. Thus Aaron will always carry the means for making decisions for the people of Israel over his heart before Yehowah.
Exo 28:31 You must make the robe of the ephod completely of purple fabric.
Exo 28:32 It must have an opening for the head in the middle. The opening must have a woven edge round about, so that it does not tear. This must be the work of a weaver.
Exo 28:33 On the bottom hem, you must make pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn all around. Gold bells must be between them all around.
Exo 28:34 There must be a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, and so on, all around the hem of the robe.

Exo 28:35 The robe is to be on Aaron when he serves, so that its sound can be heard when he goes into the Set-apart Place before Yehowah, and when he leaves. This is so that he does not die.
Exo 28:36 You must make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engraving on a signet, “Set Apart To Yehowah.”
Exo 28:37 You must attach this plate by a blue cord to the front of the turban.
Exo 28:38 It must be on Aaron’s forehead; he must always bear any guilt that might attach to the offering of the set-apart gifts that the Israelis set apart to Yehowah. The turban must be always on his forehead, so that Yehowah may accept their gifts.
Exo 28:39 You must make the coat with fine linen, and you must make a turban of fine linen. You must also make a sash, the work of an embroiderer.
Exo 28:40 For Aaron’s sons you must make coats, sashes, and headbands for their honor and splendor.
Exo 28:41 You must clothe Aaron your brother and his sons with him. You must anoint them, ordain them, and set them apart to me, so that they may serve me as priests.
Exo 28:42 You must make for them linen underwear to cover their naked flesh, that will cover them from the waist to the thighs.
Exo 28:43 Aaron and his sons must wear these garments when they enter the Tent of Meeting, or when they approach the altar to serve in the Set-apart Place. They must do this, so they would not be guilty, or else they would die. This is a permanent statute for Aaron and his descendants after him.

Exodus Chapter 29

Exo 29:1 Now this is what you must do to set them apart to me, so that they may serve me as priests. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish,
Exo 29:2 unleavened bread, cakes without yeast mixed with oil. Also take wafers without yeast rubbed with oil. Make the wafers using fine wheat flour.
Exo 29:3 You must put them into a single basket, bring them in the basket, and present them with the bull and the two rams.
Exo 29:4 You must present Aaron and his sons at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. You must wash Aaron and his sons in water.
Exo 29:5 You must take the garments and clothe Aaron with the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastpiece, fastening the finely woven waistband of the ephod around him.
Exo 29:6 You must set the turban on his head and put the set-apart crown on the turban.
Exo 29:7 Then take the anointing oil and pour it on his head, and in this way, anoint him.
Exo 29:8 You must bring his sons and put coats on them.
Exo 29:9 You must clothe Aaron and his sons with sashes and put headbands on them. The work of the priesthood will belong to them by permanent law. In this way, you must consecrate Aaron and his sons for them to serve me.
Exo 29:10 You must all bring the bull before the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons must lay their hands on its head.
Exo 29:11 You must kill the bull before me, Yehowah, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Exo 29:12 You must take some of the bull's blood and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and you must pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.
Exo 29:13 You must take all the fat that covers the inner parts, and also take the covering of the liver and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them; burn it all on the altar.
Exo 29:14 But as for the bull's flesh, as well as its skin and dung, you must burn it up outside the camp. It will be a sin offering.
Exo 29:15 You must also take the one ram, and Aaron and his sons must lay their hands on its head.
Exo 29:16 You must kill the ram, then take its blood and sprinkle it on all sides of the altar.
Exo 29:17 You must cut the ram into pieces and wash its inner parts and its legs, and you must put the inner parts, together with its pieces and with its head,

Exo 29:18 on the altar. Then burn the whole ram. It will be a burnt offering to me, Yehowah. It will produce a sweet aroma for me; it will be an offering made to me by fire.
Exo 29:19 You must then take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons must lay their hands on its head.
Exo 29:20 Then you must kill the ram and take some of its blood. Put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear and on the tip of his sons' right ears, on the thumb of their right hands, and on the great toe of their right feet. Then you must sprinkle the blood against the altar on every side.
Exo 29:21 You must take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it all on Aaron and on his garments, and also on his sons and on their garments. Aaron will then be set apart for me, as well as his garments, his sons and his sons' garments with him.
Exo 29:22 You must take the ram's fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the inner parts, the covering of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them, and the right thigh, for this ram is for the priests' consecration to me.
Exo 29:23 Take one loaf of bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that will be before me, Yehowah.
Exo 29:24 You must put these in Aaron's hands and in the hands of his sons and wave them before me for a wave offering before Yehowah.
Exo 29:25 You must then take the food from their hands and burn it on the altar with the burnt offering. It will produce a sweet aroma for me; it will be an offering made to me by fire.
Exo 29:26 You must take the breast of Aaron's ram of dedication and wave it for a wave offering before Yehowah, and it will be your share.
Exo 29:27 You must set apart to me the breast of the wave offering that is waved and the thigh that is the contribution for the priests, both the breast that was waved and the thigh that was contributed for Aaron and his sons.
Exo 29:28 These portions of meat given by the Israelis must forever belong to Aaron and his descendants. By the regulations for the peace offerings, these will be offerings for the priests taken from the Israelis' offerings presented to me, Yehowah.
Exo 29:29 The set-apart garments of Aaron must also be reserved for his sons after him. They are to be anointed in them and ordained to me in them.
Exo 29:30 The priest who succeeds him from among his sons, who comes into the Tent of Meeting to serve me in the Set-apart Place, is to wear those garments for seven days.
Exo 29:31 You must take the ram for the installation of the priests to me and boil its meat in a Set-apart Place.
Exo 29:32 Aaron and his sons must eat the ram's meat and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exo 29:33 They must eat the meat and bread that were given to atone for them and to ordain them, to be set apart to me. No one else may eat that food, because they must treat it as consecrated to me, reserved for me.
Exo 29:34 If any of the meat of the ordination offering, or any of the bread, remains to the next morning, then you must burn it. It must not be eaten, because it has been set apart to me.
Exo 29:35 In this way, by following all that I have commanded you to do, you must treat Aaron and his sons. For seven days you must prepare them.
Exo 29:36 Every day you must offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement. You must purify the altar by making atonement for it, and you must anoint it in order to set it apart to me.
Exo 29:37 For seven days you must make atonement for the altar and set it apart. Then the altar will be completely set apart to me. Whatever touches the altar will be set apart.
Exo 29:38 You must regularly offer on the altar every day two lambs a year old.
Exo 29:39 One lamb you must offer at dawn, and the other lamb you must offer at dusk (Dan. 8:13-14; the twice-daily dawn and dusk burnt offering).
Exo 29:40 With the first lamb, offer two liters of fine flour mixed with 1.5 liters of oil from pressed olives, and 1.5 liters of wine as a drink offering.
Exo 29:41 You must offer the second lamb at dusk. You must offer the same grain offering as at dawn, and the same drink offering. These will produce a sweet aroma for me; it will be an offering made to Yehowah by fire.
Exo 29:42 These must be regular burnt offerings throughout your people's generations. You must do them at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before me, Yehowah, where I will meet with you to speak to you.
Exo 29:43 That is where I will meet with the Israelis; the tent will be set apart for me by my glory.
Exo 29:44 I will set apart the Tent of Meeting and the altar for these to belong to me alone. I will also set apart Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests.
Exo 29:45 I will live among the Israelis and will be their Divine One.
Exo 29:46 They will know that I am Yehowah, their Divine One, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, so that I might live among them. I am Yehowah their Divine One.

Exodus Chapter 30

Exo 30:1 You must make an altar to burn incense. You must make it with acacia wood.
Exo 30:2 Its length must be one-half meter, and its width one-half meter. It must be square, and its height must be one meter. Its horns must be made as one piece with it.
Exo 30:3 You must cover the incense altar with pure gold, its top, its sides, and its horns. You must make a surrounding border of gold for it.
Exo 30:4 You must make two golden rings to be attached to it under its border on its two opposite sides. The rings must be holders for poles to carry the altar.
Exo 30:5 You must make the poles of acacia wood, and you must cover them with gold.
Exo 30:6 You must put the incense altar before the curtain that is by the Ark of the Testimony. It will be before the atonement lid that is over the Ark of the Testimony, where I will meet with you.
Exo 30:7 Aaron must burn fragrant incense every morning. He must burn it when he tends the lamps.
Exo 30:8 When Aaron lights the lamps at dusk, he must burn incense on the incense altar. This must be a regular burning of incense before me, Yehowah, throughout your people's generations.
Exo 30:9 But you must offer no other incense on the incense altar, nor any burnt offering or grain offering. You must pour no drink offering on it.
Exo 30:10 Aaron must make atonement on the horns of the incense altar once a year. He must do this using the blood of the sin offering of atonements. The high priest must do this throughout your people's generations. This offering will be completely set apart to me, Yehowah."
Exo 30:11 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 30:12 "When you take a census of the Israelis, then each man must give a ransom for his life to Yehowah. You must do this after you count them, so that there will be no plague among them when you count them.
Exo 30:13 Everyone who is counted in the census is to pay one half-weight, according to the weight of the sanctuary scales, one weight (11.5 grams) is the same as twenty small weights. This one half-weight will be an offering to Yehowah (Mat. 17:24-27; 2 Kings 12:4-16).
Exo 30:14 Everyone who is counted, from twenty years old and up, must give this offering to Yehowah.
Exo 30:15 When the people give this offering to Yehowah to make atonement for their lives, the rich must not give more than one half-weight, and the poor must not give less.

Exo 30:16 You must receive the atonement money from the Israelis and you must allocate it to the work of the Tent of Meeting. It must be a reminder to the Israelis before Yehowah, to make atonement for your lives."
Exo 30:17 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 30:18 "You must also make a large bronze basin with a bronze stand, a basin for washing. You must put it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and you must put water in it.
Exo 30:19 Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and their feet with the water in it.
Exo 30:20 When they go into the Tent of Meeting, or when they go near to the altar to serve Yehowah by burning an offering, they must wash with water, so that they do not die.
Exo 30:21 They must wash their hands and feet, so that they do not die. This must be a permanent law for Aaron and his descendants throughout their people's generations."
Exo 30:22 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 30:23 "Take these fine spices: six kilograms of flowing myrrh, three kilograms of sweet-smelling cinnamon, three kilograms of sweet-smelling cane,
Exo 30:24 six kilograms of cassia, measured by the weight of the sanctuary scales, and six liters of olive oil.
Exo 30:25 You must make set-apart anointing oil with these ingredients, the work of a perfumer. It will be a set-apart anointing oil, reserved for me.
Exo 30:26 You must anoint the Tent of Meeting with this oil, as well as the Ark of the Testimony,
Exo 30:27 the table and all its utensils, the menorah and its equipment, the incense altar,
Exo 30:28 the altar for burnt offerings with all its equipment, and the basin with its stand.
Exo 30:29 You must set them apart to me, so that they may be consecrated to me. Anything that touches them will also be set apart.
Exo 30:30 You must anoint Aaron and his sons and set them aside to me, so that they may serve me as priests.
Exo 30:31 You must say to the Israelis, 'This must be an anointing oil that is set apart to Yehowah throughout your people's generations.
Exo 30:32 It must not be applied to people's skin, nor must you make any oil like it with the same formula, because it is set apart to Yehowah. You must regard it in this manner.
Exo 30:33 Whoever makes perfume like it, or whoever puts any of it on a profane person, that person must be cut off from his people.'"

Exo 30:34 Yehowah instructed Moses, “Take spices, stacte (balsam), onycha (labdanum), and galbanum, sweet spices along with pure frankincense, each in equal amounts.
Exo 30:35 Make it into the form of incense, blended by a perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and set apart.
Exo 30:36 You will grind it into a powdery fine mixture. Put part of it in front of the Ark of the Testimony, which is in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. You will regard it as utterly set apart to me.
Exo 30:37 As for this incense that you will make, you must not make any with the same formula for yourselves. It must be set apart to Yehowah.
Exo 30:38 Whoever makes anything like it to use as a perfume must be cut off from his people.”

Exodus Chapter 31

Exo 31:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 31:2 “See, I have called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, from the tribe of Judah.
Exo 31:3 I have filled Bezalel with the Ruach of the Almighty, to give him wisdom, understanding, and knowledge, for all kinds of craftsmanship,
Exo 31:4 to make artistic designs and to work in gold, silver, and bronze;
Exo 31:5 also to cut and set stones and to carve wood, to do all kinds of craftsmanship.
Exo 31:6 In addition to him, I have appointed Oholiab son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan. I have put skill into the hearts of all who are wise, so that they may make all that I have commanded you.
Exo 31:7 This includes the Tent of Meeting, the Ark of the Testimony, the atonement lid on the ark, and all the furniture of the tent,
Exo 31:8 the table and its utensils, the pure menorah with all its equipment, the incense altar,
Exo 31:9 the altar for burnt offerings with all its equipment, and the large basin with its base.
Exo 31:10 This also includes the finely-woven garments, the set-apart garments for Aaron the priest and those of his sons, reserved for me, so that they may serve as priests.
Exo 31:11 This also includes the anointing oil and the sweet incense for the Set-apart Place. These craftsmen must make all these things just as I have commanded you.”
Exo 31:12 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 31:13 “Tell the Israelis: ‘You must certainly guard my Sabbaths, for these will be a sign between me and you throughout your people’s generations, so that you may know that I’m Yehowah who consecrates you.
Exo 31:14 So you must guard the Sabbath, for it must be treated by you as set apart, reserved for him. Everyone who defiles it must surely be executed. Whoever works on the Sabbath, that person must surely be cut off from his people.
Exo 31:15 Work will be done for six days, but the seventh day is to be a Sabbath of complete rest, set apart, reserved to honor Yehowah. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must surely be executed.
Exo 31:16 Therefore, the Israelis must keep the Sabbaths. They must observe them throughout their people’s generations as a permanent covenant.

Exo 31:17 The Sabbath will always be a sign between Yehowah and the Israelis, for in six days Yehowah made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed’” (Gen. 2:2).
Exo 31:18 When he had finished talking with Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him two tablets of covenant decrees, made of stone, written on by the finger of the Almighty.

Exodus Chapter 32

Exo 32:1 When the people saw that Moses delayed in coming down the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and requested of him, “Come, make us an idol that will go before us. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.”
Exo 32:2 So Aaron commanded them, “Take off the golden rings that are on your wives’ ears, and the ears of your sons and daughters, and bring them to me.”
Exo 32:3 All the people took off the golden rings that were on their ears and brought them to Aaron.
Exo 32:4 He received the gold from them, fashioned it in a mold, and made it into a molded calf. Then the people declared, “Israel, this is your deity who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!”
Exo 32:5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before the calf and made a proclamation, “Tomorrow will be a feast to honor Yehowah!”
Exo 32:6 The people arose early the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought peace offerings. Then they sat down to eat and to drink, and then rose up to carouse in wild celebration.
Exo 32:7 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Go quickly, for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.
Exo 32:8 They have quickly left the Way that I commanded them. They have molded for themselves a calf and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it. They have said, ‘Israel, this is your deity who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.’” Exo 32:9 Then Yehowah said to Moses, “I have seen this people. Look, they are a stiff-necked people.
Exo 32:10 Now then, do not try to stop me. My anger will burn hot against them, so I will destroy them. Then I will make a great nation from you.”
Exo 32:11 But Moses tried to calm down Yehowah his Divine One. He asked, “Yehowah, why does your anger burn against your people, whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?
Exo 32:12 Why should the Egyptians say, ‘He led them out with evil intent, to kill them in the mountains and to destroy them from the face of the earth?’ Turn from your burning anger and relent from this punishment on your people.
Exo 32:13 Call to mind Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, ‘I will make your descendants as many as the stars in the heavens, and I will give to your descendants all this land of which I have spoken. They will inherit it forever.’”
Exo 32:14 Then Yehowah relented from the punishment that he had said he would inflict on his people.

Exo 32:15 Then Moses turned around and went down the mountain, carrying the two tablets of the covenant decrees in his hand. The tablets were written on both their sides, on both the front and the back.
Exo 32:16 The tablets were the work of the Almighty, and the writing was the writing of the Almighty, engraved on the tablets.
Exo 32:17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is the noise of combat in the camp.”
Exo 32:18 But Moses answered, “It is not the sound of a victor, and not the sound of defeated people, but the sound of singing that I hear.”
Exo 32:19 When Moses approached the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. His anger flamed hot. He threw the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the bottom of the mountain.
Exo 32:20 He took the calf that the people had made, burned it, ground it to powder, and poured it into the water. Then he made the people of Israel drink it.
Exo 32:21 Then Moses asked Aaron, “What did this people do to you, that you have brought such a great sin on them?”
Exo 32:22 Aaron answered, “Do not let your anger burn hot, my master. You know these people, how they are set on doing evil.
Exo 32:23 They requested of me, ‘Make us a deity who will go before us. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.’
Exo 32:24 So I told them, ‘Whoever has any gold, let him take it off.’ They gave me the gold, I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf.”
Exo 32:25 Moses saw that the people were running wild, for Aaron had let them get out of control, causing their enemies to mock them.
Exo 32:26 Then Moses stood at the entrance to the camp and ordered, “Whoever is for Yehowah, come to me.” All the Levites gathered around him.
Exo 32:27 He ordered them, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, commands this: ‘Let each man fasten his sword on his side and go back and forth from entrance to entrance throughout the camp, and kill his brother, his companion, and his neighbor.’”
Exo 32:28 The Levites did what Moses ordered. That day about three thousand of the people died.
Exo 32:29 Moses said to the Levites, “You have been placed into the service of Yehowah today, for each of you has taken action against his son and his brother, so he might give you a blessing today.”
Exo 32:30 The next day, Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. Now I will go up to Yehowah. Perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”
Exo 32:31 Moses returned to Yehowah and said, “Oh, these people have committed a great sin and made themselves an idol of gold.

Exo 32:32 But now, please forgive their sin; but if you do not, blot me out of the Book that you have written.”
Exo 32:33 Yehowah replied to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me, that person I will blot out of my Book.
Exo 32:34 So now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. See, my angel will go before you. But on the day that I punish them, I will punish them for their sin.”
Exo 32:35 Then Yehowah sent a plague on the people, because they had made the calf, the one that Aaron made.

Exodus Chapter 33

Exo 33:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Go from here, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt. Go to the land about which I made an oath to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, when I promised, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’
Exo 33:2 I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hethites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.
Exo 33:3 Go to that land, which is flowing with milk and honey, but I will not go up with you, because you are a stubborn people. I might destroy you on the way.”
Exo 33:4 When the people heard these troubling words, they mourned, and no one put on any jewelry.
Exo 33:5 Yehowah had said to Moses, “Speak to the Israelis, ‘You are a stubborn people. If I went among you for even one moment, I would destroy you. So now, take off your jewelry, so that I may decide what to do with you.’”
Exo 33:7 Moses took a tent and pitched it outside the camp, some distance from the camp. He called it the Tent of Meeting. Everyone who asked Yehowah for anything went out to the Tent of Meeting, outside the camp.
Exo 33:8 When Moses would go out to the tent, all the people would stand up at their tent entrances and look at Moses, until he had gone inside.
Exo 33:9 Whenever Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stand at the tent entrance, and Yehowah would speak with Moses.
Exo 33:10 Whenever all the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the entrance to the tent, they would get up and worship, every man at his own tent entrance.
Exo 33:11 Yehowah would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his servant Joshua son of Nun, a young man, would stay in the tent.
Exo 33:12 Moses said to Yehowah, “See, you have been saying to me, ‘Take this people on their journey,’ but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found grace in my sight.’
Exo 33:13 Now if I have found grace in your sight, show me your Ways, so that I may know you and continue to find grace in your sight. Remember that this nation is your congregation.”
Exo 33:14 Yehowah answered, “My own presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”
Exo 33:15 Moses replied to him, “If your presence does not go with us, do not take us up from here.

Exo 33:16 For otherwise, how will it be known that I have found grace in your sight, I and your people? Will it not only be if you go with us, so that I and your people are different from all the ethnicities that are on the surface of the earth?”
Exo 33:17 Yehowah said to Moses, “I will also do this thing that you have requested, for you have found grace in my sight, and I know you by name.”
Exo 33:18 Moses requested, “Please show me your glory.”
Exo 33:19 Yehowah said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim my name ‘Yehowah’ before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will show mercy on whom I will show mercy” (Exo. 34:6-7).
Exo 33:20 But Yehowah said, “You may not see my face, for no one can see me and live.”
Exo 33:21 Yehowah said, “See, here is a place by me; you will stand on this rock.
Exo 33:22 While my glory passes by, I will put you in a crevice of the rock and cover you with my hand, until I have passed by.
Exo 33:23 Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back, but my face will not be seen.”

Exodus Chapter 34

Exo 34:1 Yehowah said to Moses, “Cut two tablets of stone like the first tablets. I will write on these tablets the words that were on the first tablets, the tablets that you broke.
Exo 34:2 Be ready at dawn and come up Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the mountain top.
Exo 34:3 No one is to come up with you. Do not let anyone else be seen anywhere on the mountain. No flocks or herds are even to graze in front of the mountain.”
Exo 34:4 So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and he rose up at dawn and went up Mount Sinai, as Yehowah had instructed him. Moses carried the tablets of stone in his hand.
Exo 34:5 Yehowah came down in the cloud and stood with Moses there, and he proclaimed the name “Yehowah.”
Exo 34:6 Yehowah passed by before him and proclaimed, “Yehowah, Yehowah Almighty is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in covenant faithfulness and truth,
Exo 34:7 keeping covenant faithfulness for thousands of generations, forgiving iniquities, transgressions, and sins. But he will by no means clear the guilty. He will bring the punishment for the fathers’ sin on their children and on their children’s children, as far as the third and fourth generations” (Exo. 33:19).
Exo 34:8 Moses quickly bowed his head to the ground and worshiped.
Exo 34:9 Then he said, “If now I have found grace in your sight, Lord, please go among us, for this people is stubborn. Pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us as your inheritance.”
Exo 34:10 Yehowah said, “See, I am about to make a covenant. Before all your congregation, I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth nor in any ethnicity. All the people among you will see the deeds of Yehowah, for it is a fearful thing that I am doing with you.
Exo 34:11 Guard what I command you today. I am about to drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hethites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.
Exo 34:12 Be careful not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, or they will become a trap among you.
Exo 34:13 Instead, you must break down their altars, smash their stone pillars, and cut down their Asherah poles.
Exo 34:14 For you must worship no other deity, for I, Yehowah, whose name is ‘Jealous,’ am a jealous Almighty.

Exo 34:15 So be careful not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, for they prostitute themselves to their deities, and they sacrifice to their deities. Then one of them will invite you, and you will eat some of his sacrifice,
Exo 34:16 and then you will even take some of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters will prostitute themselves to their deities, and they will make your sons prostitute themselves to their deities.
Exo 34:18 You must keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread. As I commanded you, you must eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointment calendar festival in the month of Abib, for it was in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.
Exo 34:19 All the firstborn are mine, even every male firstborn of your livestock, both of oxen and sheep.
Exo 34:20 You must buy back the firstborn of a donkey with a lamb, but if you do not buy it back, then you must break its neck. You must buy back all the firstborn of your sons. No one may appear before me empty-handed.
Exo 34:21 You may work for six days, but on the seventh day you must rest. Even at plowing time and in harvest, you must rest.
Exo 34:22 You must observe the Festival of Shavuot with the first yield of the wheat harvest (Omer day 50; Lev. 23:17), and you must observe the Festival of Ingathering (Sukkot/Tabernacles) at the year's end (Exo. 23:16).
Exo 34:23 All your men must appear before me, Lord Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, three times every year.
Exo 34:24 For I will drive out ethnicities before you and expand your borders. No one will desire to invade your land and take it, when you go up to appear before me, Yehowah your Divine One, three times every year.
Exo 34:25 You must not offer the blood of my sacrifice with any yeast, nor may any meat from the sacrifice at the Festival of the Passover be left over until dawn.
Exo 34:26 You must bring the best of the firstfruits from your fields to the tabernacle of Yehowah your Divine One. You must not boil a young goat in its mother's milk."
Exo 34:27 Yehowah spoke to Moses, "Write down these words, for I pledge myself to these words I have spoken, and have made a covenant with you and Israel."
Exo 34:28 Moses was there with Yehowah for forty days and nights; he did not eat any food nor drink any water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Words.
Exo 34:29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the covenant decrees in his hand, he did not know that the skin of his face had become radiant while speaking with Yehowah.

Exo 34:30 When Aaron and the Israelis saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him.
Exo 34:31 But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation came up to him. Then Moses spoke with them.
Exo 34:32 After this, all the people of Israel came up to Moses, and he told them all the commands that Yehowah had given him on Mount Sinai.
Exo 34:33 When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face.
Exo 34:34 Whenever Moses went before Yehowah to speak with him, he would remove the veil, until he came out. When he came out, he would tell the Israelis what he was commanded to say.
Exo 34:35 When the Israelis saw Moses' face shining, he would put the veil over his face again, until he went back in to speak with Yehowah.

Exodus Chapter 35

Exo 35:1 Moses assembled all the congregation of the Israelis and said to them, “These are the words that Yehowah has commanded you to do.
Exo 35:2 On six days work may be done, but for you, the seventh day must be a set-apart Sabbath observance to Yehowah. Whoever does any work on that day must be executed.
Exo 35:3 You must not light a fire in any of your homes on the Sabbath day.”
Exo 35:4 Moses spoke to all the congregation of the Israelis, “This is the thing that Yehowah commanded.
Exo 35:5 Collect an offering for Yehowah, all of you who have a willing heart. Bring an offering to Yehowah, gold, silver-currency, bronze,
Exo 35:6 blue, purple, and scarlet wool and fine linen; goats’ hair;
Exo 35:7 ram skins dyed red and antelope hides; acacia wood;
Exo 35:8 oil for the sanctuary lamps, spices for the anointing oil and the fragrant incense,
Exo 35:9 onyx stones and other precious stones to be set for the ephod and breastpiece.
Exo 35:10 Every skilled man among you is to come and make everything that Yehowah has commanded,
Exo 35:11 the tabernacle with its tent, its covering, its clasps, frames, bars, posts, and bases;
Exo 35:12 also, the ark with its poles, the atonement lid, and the curtain to conceal it.”
Exo 35:13 They brought the table with its poles, all its utensils, and the bread of the presence;
Exo 35:14 the menorah for the lights, with its accessories, its lamps, and the oil for the lamps;
Exo 35:15 the incense altar with its poles, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense; the hanging for the tabernacle entrance;
Exo 35:16 the altar for burnt offerings with its bronze grate, its poles, and utensils; and the large basin with its base.
Exo 35:17 They brought the hangings for the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the courtyard entrance;
Exo 35:18 and the tent pegs for the tabernacle and courtyard, together with their ropes.
Exo 35:19 They brought the finely-woven garments for serving in the Set-apart Place, the set-apart garments for Aaron the priest and his sons, for them to serve as priests.

Exo 35:21 Everyone whose heart stirred him up and whom his spirit made willing came and brought an offering to Yehowah for the construction of the tabernacle of meeting, for all the items of service in it, and for the set-apart garments.
Exo 35:22 They came, both men and women, all who had a willing heart. They brought brooches, earrings, rings, and ornaments, all kinds of gold jewelry. They all presented offerings of gold as a wave offering to Yehowah.
Exo 35:23 Everyone who had blue, purple, or scarlet wool, fine linen, goat hair, ram skins dyed red, or antelope skins brought them.
Exo 35:24 Everyone making an offering of silver-currency or bronze brought it as an offering to Yehowah, and everyone who had acacia wood for any use in the work brought it.
Exo 35:25 Every skilled woman spun wool with her hands and brought what she had spun, blue, purple, or scarlet wool, or fine linen.
Exo 35:26 All the women whose hearts stirred them up and who had skill spun goats' hair.
Exo 35:27 The leaders brought onyx stones and other gems to be set into the ephod and the breastpiece;
Exo 35:28 they brought spices and oil for the lamps, for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.
Exo 35:29 The Israelis brought a freewill offering to Yehowah; every man and woman whose heart was willing brought materials for all the work that Yehowah had commanded through Moses to be made.
Exo 35:30 Moses said to the Israelis, "See, Yehowah has called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, from the tribe of Judah.
Exo 35:31 He has filled Bezalel with the Ruach of the Almighty, to give him wisdom, understanding, and knowledge, for all kinds of craftsmanship,
Exo 35:32 to make artistic designs and to work in gold, silver, and bronze;
Exo 35:33 also, to cut and set stones and to carve wood, to do all kinds of design and craftsmanship.
Exo 35:34 He has put it in his heart to teach, both he and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan.
Exo 35:35 He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work, to work as craftsmen, as engravers, as embroiderers in blue, purple, scarlet wool, and fine linen, and as weavers. They are craftsmen in all sorts of work, and they are artistic designers.

Exodus Chapter 36

Exo 36:1 So Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person to whom Yehowah has given skill and ability to know how to do any work in the construction of the Set-apart Place are to do the work according to all that Yehowah has commanded."
Exo 36:2 Moses summoned Bezalel, Oholiab, and every skillful person in whose mind Yehowah had given skill, and whose heart stirred within him to come and do the work.
Exo 36:3 They received from Moses all the offerings that the Israelis had brought for constructing the Set-apart Place. The people were still bringing freewill offerings every morning to Moses.
Exo 36:4 So all the skilled people working on the Set-apart Place came from the work that they had been doing.
Exo 36:5 The craftsmen told Moses, "The people are bringing much more than enough for doing the work that Yehowah has commanded us to do."
Exo 36:6 So Moses instructed that no one in the camp should bring any more offerings for the construction of the Set-apart Place. Then the people stopped bringing these gifts.
Exo 36:7 They had more than enough materials for all the work.
Exo 36:8 So all the craftsmen among them constructed the tabernacle with ten curtains made from fine linen and blue, purple, and scarlet wool with the designs of cherubim. This was the work of Bezalel, the highly skilled craftsman.
Exo 36:9 The length of each curtain was twelve and four-fifths meters, the width one and four-fifths meters. All the curtains were of the same size.
Exo 36:10 Bezalel joined five curtains to each other, and the other five curtains he also joined to each other.
Exo 36:11 He made loops of blue along the outer edge of the end curtain of one set, and he did the same along the outer edge of the end curtain in the second set.
Exo 36:12 He made fifty loops on the first curtain and fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain in the second set. So the loops were opposite to each other.
Exo 36:13 He made fifty gold clasps and joined the curtains together with them, so that the tabernacle became united.
Exo 36:14 Bezalel made curtains of goat hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven of these curtains.
Exo 36:15 The length of each curtain was eighteen and one-third meters, and the width of each curtain was one and four-fifths meters. Each of the eleven curtains was the same size.
Exo 36:16 He joined five curtains to each other and the other six curtains to each other.

Exo 36:17 He made fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain of the first set, and fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain that joined the second set.
Exo 36:18 Bezalel made fifty bronze clasps to join the tent together, so that it might be one piece.
Exo 36:21 The length of each frame was four and three-fifths meters, and the width of each frame was three-quarters of a meter.
Exo 36:22 Each frame had two wooden pegs for joining the frames together. He did this for all the frames of the tabernacle.
Exo 36:23 He made the frames for the tabernacle in this way: twenty frames for the south side.
Exo 36:24 Bezalel made forty silver bases to go under the twenty frames. There were two bases under one frame to join the frames together, and also two bases under each of the other frames to join frames together.
Exo 36:25 For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty frames
Exo 36:26 and their forty silver bases. There were two bases under the first frame, two bases under the next frame, and so on.
Exo 36:27 For the back of the tabernacle on the west, Bezalel made six frames.
Exo 36:28 He made two frames for the back corners of the tabernacle.
Exo 36:29 These frames were separate at the bottom, but joined at the top in one ring. He made two of them in this way for the two corners.
Exo 36:30 There were eight frames, together with their silver bases. There were sixteen bases in all, two bases under the first frame, two bases under the next frame, and so on.
Exo 36:31 Bezalel made crossbars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,
Exo 36:32 five crossbars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five crossbars for the frames for the back side of the tabernacle to the west.
Exo 36:33 He made the crossbar in the center of the frames, that is, halfway up, to reach from end to end.
Exo 36:34 He covered the frames with gold. He made their rings of gold, for them to serve as holders for the crossbars, and he covered the bars with gold.
Exo 36:35 Bezalel made the curtain of blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and of fine linen, with designs of cherubim, the work of a skillful workman.
Exo 36:36 He made for the curtain four pillars of acacia wood, and he covered them with gold. He also made gold hooks for the pillars, and he cast for them four silver bases.

Exo 36:37 He made a hanging for the tent entrance. It was made of blue, purple, and scarlet wool, using fine linen, the work of an embroiderer.
Exo 36:38 He also made the hanging's five pillars with hooks. He covered their tops and their rods with gold. Their five bases were made of bronze.

Exodus Chapter 37

Exo 37:1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was one meter; its width was three-quarters of a meter; and its height was three-quarters of a meter.
Exo 37:2 He covered it inside and out with pure gold and made for it a border of gold around its top.
Exo 37:3 He cast four rings of gold for its four feet, with two rings on one side of it and two rings on the other side.
Exo 37:4 He made poles of acacia wood and covered them with gold.
Exo 37:5 He put the poles into the rings on the ark's sides, in order to carry the ark.
Exo 37:6 He made an atonement lid of pure gold. Its length was one meter, and its width was three-quarters of a meter.
Exo 37:7 Bezalel made two cherubim of hammered gold for the two ends of the atonement lid.
Exo 37:8 One cherub was for one end of the atonement lid, and the other cherub was for the other end. They were made as one piece with the atonement lid.
Exo 37:9 The cherubim spread out their wings upward and overshadowed the atonement lid with them. The cherubim faced one another and looked toward the center of the atonement lid.
Exo 37:10 Bezalel made the table of acacia wood. Its length was one meter, its width was one-half meter, and its height was three-quarters of a meter.
Exo 37:11 He covered it with pure gold and put a border of pure gold around the top.
Exo 37:12 He made a surrounding frame for it one-fifth of a meter wide, with a surrounding border of gold for the frame.
Exo 37:13 He cast for it four rings of gold and attached the rings to the four corners, where the four feet were.
Exo 37:14 The rings were attached to the frame to provide places for the poles, in order to carry the table.
Exo 37:15 He made the poles out of acacia wood and covered them with gold, in order to carry the table.
Exo 37:16 He made the objects that would be on the table, the dishes, spoons, the bowls, and pitchers to be used to pour out the offerings. He made them out of pure gold.
Exo 37:17 He made the menorah of pure hammered gold. He made the menorah with its base and shaft. Its cups, its leafy bases, and its flowers were all made of one piece with it.

Exo 37:18 Six branches extended out from its sides, three branches extended from one side of the menorah, and three branches of the menorah extended from the other side.
Exo 37:19 The first branch had three cups made like almond blossoms, with a leafy base and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, with a leafy base and a flower. It was the same for all six branches extending out from the menorah.
Exo 37:20 On the menorah itself, the central shaft, there were four cups made like almond blossoms, with their leafy bases and the flowers.
Exo 37:21 There was a leafy base under the first pair of branches, made as one piece with it, and a leafy base under the second pair of branches, also made as one piece with it. In the same way there was a leafy base under the third pair of branches, made as one piece with it. It was the same for all six branches extending out from the menorah.
Exo 37:22 Their leafy bases and branches were all one piece with it, one beaten piece of work of pure gold.
Exo 37:23 Bezalel made the menorah and its seven lamps, its tongs and their trays of pure gold.
Exo 37:24 He made the menorah and its accessories with thirty-three kilograms of pure gold.
Exo 37:25 Bezalel made the incense altar. He made it with acacia wood. Its length was one-half meter, and its width one-half meter. It was square, and its height was one meter. Its horns were made as one piece with it.
Exo 37:26 He covered the incense altar with pure gold, its top, its sides, and its horns. He also made a surrounding border of gold for it.
Exo 37:27 He made two golden rings to be attached to it under its border on its two opposite sides. The rings were holders for poles to carry the altar.
Exo 37:28 He made the poles of acacia wood, and he covered them with gold.
Exo 37:29 He made the set-apart anointing oil and the pure fragrant incense, the work of a perfumer.

Exodus Chapter 38

Exo 38:1 Bezalel made the altar for burnt offerings of acacia wood. It was two and one-third meters long and two and one-third meters wide, a square, and one and two-fifths meters high.
Exo 38:2 He made extensions of its four corners shaped like ox horns. The horns were made of one piece with the altar, and he covered it with bronze.
Exo 38:3 He made all the equipment for the altar, pots for ashes, shovels, basins, meat forks, and firepans. He made all this equipment with bronze.
Exo 38:4 He made a grate for the altar, a network of bronze to be placed under the ledge, halfway down to the bottom.
Exo 38:5 He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grate, as holders for the poles.
Exo 38:6 Bezalel made poles of acacia wood and covered them with bronze.
Exo 38:7 He put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it. He made the altar hollow, out of planks.
Exo 38:8 Bezalel made the large bronze basin with a bronze stand. He made the basin out of (bronze) mirrors belonging to the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Exo 38:9 He also made the courtyard. The hangings on the south side of the courtyard were of fine linen, forty-five and three-quarters meters long.
Exo 38:10 The hangings had twenty posts, with twenty bronze bases. There were hooks attached to the posts, as well as silver rods.
Exo 38:11 Likewise along the north side, there were hangings forty-five and three-quarters meters long with twenty posts, twenty bronze bases, hooks attached to the posts, and silver rods.
Exo 38:12 The hangings of the west side were twenty-three meters long, with ten posts and bases. The hooks and rods of the posts were silver.
Exo 38:13 The courtyard was also twenty-three meters long on the east side.
Exo 38:14 The hangings for one side of the entrance were seven meters long. They had three posts with three bases.
Exo 38:15 On the other side of the entrance of the court were also hangings seven meters long, with three posts and three bases.
Exo 38:16 All the hangings around the courtyard were made of fine linen.
Exo 38:17 The bases for the posts were made of bronze. The hooks and rods for the posts were made of silver, and the covering for the tops of the posts was also made of silver. All the courtyard posts were covered with silver.
Exo 38:18 The curtain at the courtyard gate was nine meters long. The curtain was made of blue, purple, and scarlet linen, fine twined linen, and was nine meters long. It was nine meters in length and two and one-third meters in height, like the courtyard curtains.

Exo 38:19 It had four bronze bases and silver hooks. The covering for their tops and its rods were made of silver.
Exo 38:20 All the tent pegs for the tabernacle and courtyard were made of bronze.
Exo 38:21 This is the inventory of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the covenant decrees, as it was taken following Moses' instructions. It was the work of the Levites under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.
Exo 38:22 Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, from the tribe of Judah, made everything that Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 38:23 Oholiab son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan, worked with Bezalel as an engraver, as a skillful workman, and as an embroiderer in blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and in fine linen.
Exo 38:24 All the gold that was used for the project, in all the work connected with the Set-apart Place, the gold from the wave offering, was 965 kilograms, measured by the standard of the sanctuary scales.
Exo 38:25 The counted congregation gave 301,775-weight silver-currency, according to the sanctuary scales,
Exo 38:26 or one half-weight per man, measured by the sanctuary weight (Exo. 30:13; Mat. 17:24). This figure was reached on the basis of every person who was counted in the census, those twenty years old and older, 603,550 men in all.
Exo 38:27 297,000-weight silver-currency was cast for the bases of the Set-apart Place and the curtain's bases: one hundred bases, 3,000-weight for each base.
Exo 38:28 With the remaining 1,775-weight silver-currency, Bezalel made the hooks for the posts, covered the tops of the posts, and made the rods for them.
Exo 38:29 The bronze from the wave offering weighed 2,300 kilograms.
Exo 38:30 With this he made the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar, its bronze grate, all the equipment for the altar,
Exo 38:31 the bases for the courtyard, the bases for the courtyard entrance, all the tent pegs for the tabernacle, and all the tent pegs for the courtyard.

Exodus Chapter 39

Exo 39:1 With the blue, purple, and scarlet wool, they made finely-woven garments for service in the Set-apart Place. They made Aaron's garments for the Set-apart Place, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:2 Bezalel made the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and of fine twined linen.
Exo 39:3 They hammered gold sheets and cut them into wires, to work them into the blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and into the fine linen, the work of a skillful workman.
Exo 39:4 They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, attached at its two upper corners.
Exo 39:5 Its finely-woven waistband was like the ephod; it was made of one piece with the ephod, made of fine twined linen that was gold, blue, purple, and scarlet, just as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:6 They crafted the onyx stones, enclosed in settings of gold, set with engravings as on a signet, and engraved with the names of Israel's twelve sons.
Exo 39:7 Bezalel put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, as stones to remind Yehowah of Israel's twelve sons, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:8 He made the breastpiece, the work of a skillful workman, fashioned like the ephod. He made it of gold, of blue, purple, and scarlet wool, and of fine linen.
Exo 39:9 It was square. They folded the breastpiece double. It was twenty-three centimeters long and twenty-three centimeters wide.
Exo 39:10 They set in it four rows of precious stones. The first row had a ruby, a topaz, and a garnet.
Exo 39:11 The second row had an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.
Exo 39:12 The third row had a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst.
Exo 39:13 The fourth row had a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. The stones were mounted in gold settings.
Exo 39:14 The stones were arranged by the names of Israel's twelve sons, each in order by name. They were like the engraving on a signet ring, each name standing for one of the twelve tribes.
Exo 39:15 On the breastpiece they made chains like cords, braided work of pure gold.
Exo 39:16 They made two settings of gold and two gold rings, and they attached the two rings to the two corners of the breastpiece.
Exo 39:17 They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the corners of the breastpiece.
Exo 39:18 They attached the other two ends of the braided chains to the two settings. They attached them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at its front.

Exo 39:19 They made two rings of gold and put them on the two other corners of the breastpiece, on the edge next to the inner border.
Exo 39:20 They made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces of the front of the ephod, close to its seam above the finely-woven waistband of the ephod.
Exo 39:21 They tied the breastpiece by its rings to the ephod's rings with a blue cord, so that it might be attached just above the ephod's finely-woven waistband. This was so that the breastpiece might not become unattached from the ephod. This was done as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:22 Bezalel made the robe of the ephod completely of purple fabric, the work of a weaver.
Exo 39:23 It had an opening for the head in the middle. The opening had a woven edge round about, so that it did not tear.
Exo 39:24 On the bottom hem, they made pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and of fine linen.
Exo 39:25 They made bells of pure gold, and they put the bells between the pomegranates all around on the bottom edge of the robe, between the pomegranates,
Exo 39:26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, on the edge of the robe for Aaron to serve in. This was as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:27 They made the coats of fine linen for Aaron and for his sons.
Exo 39:28 They made the turban of fine linen, the ornate head bands of fine linen, the linen underwear of fine linen,
Exo 39:29 and the sash of fine linen and of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, the work of an embroiderer. This was as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:30 They made the plate of the set-apart crown of pure gold; they engraved on it, like the engraving on a signet, "Set Apart To Yehowah."
Exo 39:31 They attached to the turban a blue cord to the top of the turban. This was as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:32 So the work on the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was finished. The people of Israel did everything. They followed all the instructions that Yehowah had given to Moses.
Exo 39:33 They brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its equipment, its clasps, frames, bars, posts, and bases;
Exo 39:34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of antelope leather, and the curtain to conceal
Exo 39:35 the Ark of the Testimony, as well as the poles and the atonement lid.
Exo 39:36 They brought the table, all its utensils, and the bread of the presence;
Exo 39:37 the menorah of pure gold and its lamps in a row, with its accessories and the oil for the lamps;

Exo 39:38 the golden altar, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense; the hanging for the tabernacle entrance;
Exo 39:39 the bronze altar with its bronze grate, its poles and utensils, and the large basin with its base.
Exo 39:40 They brought the hangings for the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the courtyard entrance; its ropes and tent pegs; and all the equipment for the service of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting.
Exo 39:41 They brought the fine woven garments for serving in the Set-apart Place, the set-apart garments for Aaron the priest and his sons, for them to serve as priests.
Exo 39:42 Thus the people of Israel did all the work as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 39:43 Moses examined all the work, and behold, they had done it. As Yehowah had commanded, in that Way, they did it. Then Moses blessed them.

Exodus Chapter 40

Exo 40:1 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Exo 40:2 “On the first day of the first month you must set up the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting.
Exo 40:3 You must place the Ark of the Testimony in it, and you must shield the ark with the curtain.
Exo 40:4 You must bring in the table and set in order the things that belong on it. Then you must bring in the menorah and set up the lamps.
Exo 40:5 You must put the golden incense altar before the Ark of the Testimony, and you must put the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.
Exo 40:6 You must put the altar for burnt offerings in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting.
Exo 40:7 You must put the large basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and you must put water in it.
Exo 40:8 You must set up the courtyard around it, and you must hang up the curtain at the courtyard entrance.
Exo 40:9 You must take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything that is in it. You must set it apart and all its furnishings to me; then it will be set apart.
Exo 40:10 You must anoint the altar for burnt offerings and all its utensils. You must set apart the altar to me, and it will become utterly set apart to me.
Exo 40:11 You must anoint the bronze basin and its base, and set it apart to me.
Exo 40:12 You are to bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and you must wash them with water.
Exo 40:13 You are to clothe Aaron with the garments that are set apart to me, anoint him and set him apart, so that he may serve as my priest.
Exo 40:14 You are to bring his sons and clothe them with coats.
Exo 40:15 You must anoint them as you anointed their father, so that they may serve me as priests. Their anointing will make for them a permanent priesthood throughout their people’s generations.”
Exo 40:16 This is what Moses did; he followed all that Yehowah had commanded him. He did all these things.
Exo 40:17 So in the first month in the second year (c. 1649 BC), the tabernacle was set up on the first of the month.
Exo 40:18 Moses set up the tabernacle, put its bases in place, set up its frames, attached its bars, and set up its pillars and posts.
Exo 40:19 He spread the covering over the tabernacle and put the tent over it, as Yehowah had commanded him.

Exo 40:20 He took the covenant decrees and put them into the ark. He also placed the poles on the ark and put the atonement lid on it.
Exo 40:21 He brought the ark into the tabernacle. He set up the curtain for it to shield the Ark of the Testimony, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 40:22 He put the table into the Tent of Meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the curtain.
Exo 40:23 He placed the bread in order on the table before Yehowah, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 40:24 He put the menorah into the Tent of Meeting, across from the table, on the south side of the tabernacle.
Exo 40:25 He lit the lamps before Yehowah, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 40:26 He put the golden incense altar into the Tent of Meeting in front of the curtain.
Exo 40:27 He burned fragrant incense on it, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 40:28 He hung the curtain at the tabernacle entrance.
Exo 40:29 He put the altar for the burnt offering at the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting. He offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 40:30 He placed the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and he put water in it for washing.
Exo 40:31 Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet from the basin,
Exo 40:32 whenever they would go into the Tent of Meeting, and whenever they would go up to the altar. They washed themselves, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Exo 40:33 Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and the altar. He set up the curtain at the courtyard entrance. In this way, Moses finished the work.
Exo 40:34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Yehowah filled the tabernacle.
Exo 40:35 Moses was not able to enter the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud had settled on it, and because the glory of Yehowah filled the tabernacle.
Exo 40:36 Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the people of Israel would set out on their journey.
Exo 40:37 But if the cloud did not rise up from the tabernacle, then the people would not travel. They would stay, until the day that it was lifted up.
Exo 40:38 For the cloud of Yehowah was over the tabernacle by day, and his fire was over it by night, in plain view of all the people of Israel throughout their journey.

Book of Leviticus

Leviticus Chapter 1

Lev 1:1 Yehowah called to Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting,
Lev 1:2 “Speak to the people of Israel and tell them, ‘When any person from among you brings an offering to Yehowah, bring as your offering one of your animals, either from the herd or from the flock.
Lev 1:3 If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he must offer a male without blemish. He is to offer it willingly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, so that it may be accepted before Yehowah.
Lev 1:4 He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and then it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for himself.
Lev 1:5 Then he must kill the bull before Yehowah. Aaron’s sons, the priests, will present the blood and sprinkle it on the altar that is at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 1:6 Then he must skin the burnt offering and cut it to pieces.
Lev 1:7 Then the sons of Aaron the priest will put fire on the altar and place wood to feed the fire.
Lev 1:8 Aaron’s sons, the priests, are to place the pieces, the head and the fat, in order on the wood that is on the fire, which is on the altar.
Lev 1:9 But its inner parts and its legs he must wash with water. Then the priest will burn everything on the altar as a burnt offering. It will produce a sweet aroma for me; it will be an offering made to Yehowah by fire.
Lev 1:10 If his offering for the burnt offering is from the flock, one of the sheep or one of the goats, he must offer a male without blemish.
Lev 1:11 He must kill it on the north side of the altar before Yehowah. Aaron’s sons, the priests, will sprinkle its blood on every side of the altar.
Lev 1:12 Then he must cut it into pieces, with its head and its fat, and the priest will lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire, which is on the altar,
Lev 1:13 but the inner parts and the legs he must wash with water. Then the priest will offer the whole, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, and it will produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah; it will be an offering made to him by fire.
Lev 1:14 If his offering to Yehowah is to be a burnt offering of birds, then he must bring as his offering either a dove or a young pigeon.
Lev 1:15 The priest must bring it to the altar, wring off its head, and burn it on the altar. Then its blood must be drained out on the side of the altar.

Lev 1:16 He must remove its feathers and crop with its contents, and throw it beside the altar on the east side, in the place for the ashes.
Lev 1:17 He must tear it open by its wings, but he must not divide it into two parts. Then the priest will burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It will be a burnt offering, and it will produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah; it will be an offering made to him by fire.

Leviticus Chapter 2

Lev 2:1 When anyone brings a grain offering to Yehowah, his offering must be fine flour, and he will pour oil on it and put incense on it.
Lev 2:2 He is to take the offering to Aaron's sons the priests, and there the priest will take out a handful of the fine flour with the oil and the incense on it. Then the priest will burn the offering on the altar as a memorial offering. It will produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah; it will be an offering made to him by fire.
Lev 2:3 Whatever is left of the grain offering will belong to Aaron and his sons. It is very set apart from the offerings to Yehowah made by fire.
Lev 2:4 When you offer a grain offering that is baked in an oven, it must be soft unleavened bread of fine flour mixed with oil, or hard unleavened bread, which is spread with oil.
Lev 2:5 If your grain offering is baked with a flat iron pan, it must be of unleavened fine flour that is mixed with oil.
Lev 2:6 You are to divide it into pieces and pour oil on it. This is a grain offering.
Lev 2:7 If your grain offering is cooked in a pan, it must be made with fine flour and oil.
Lev 2:8 You must bring the grain offering made from these things to Yehowah, and it will be presented to the priest, who will bring it to the altar.
Lev 2:9 Then the priest will take some from the grain offering as a memorial offering, and he will burn it on the altar. It will be an offering made by fire, and it will produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah.
Lev 2:10 What is left of the grain offering will belong to Aaron and his sons. It is very set apart from the offerings to Yehowah made by fire.
Lev 2:11 No grain offering that you offer to Yehowah is to be made with leaven, for you must burn no yeast nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to Yehowah.
Lev 2:12 You will offer them to Yehowah as an offering of firstfruits, but they will not be used to produce a sweet aroma on the altar.
Lev 2:13 You must season each of your grain offerings with salt. You must never allow the salt of the covenant of your Divine One to be missing from your grain offering. With all your offerings you must offer salt.
Lev 2:14 When (Omer day 1) you present a grain offering of firstfruits to Yehowah, offer pollinated green ears (abib) of barley, threshed new heads of grain, parched by fire, gifting the firstfruits of your field.
Lev 2:15 Then you must put oil and incense on it. This is a grain offering.
Lev 2:16 Then the priest will burn part of the threshed grain, oil, and incense as a memorial offering. This is an offering made by fire to Yehowah.

Leviticus Chapter 3

Lev 3:1 If someone offers a sacrifice, which is a peace offering of an animal from the herd, whether male or female, he must offer an animal without blemish before Yehowah.
Lev 3:2 He will lay his hand on the head of his offering and kill it at the door of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons, the priests, will sprinkle its blood on the sides of the altar.
Lev 3:3 The man will offer the sacrifice of a peace offering by fire to Yehowah. The fat that covers or is connected to the inner parts,
Lev 3:4 the two kidneys, the fat that is on them by the loins, and the lobe of the liver, with the kidneys, he will remove all of this.
Lev 3:5 Aaron's sons will burn that on the altar with the burnt offering, which is on the wood that is on the fire. This will produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah; it will be an offering made to him by fire.
Lev 3:6 If the person's sacrifice of a peace offering to Yehowah is from the flock; male or female, he must offer a sacrifice without blemish.
Lev 3:7 If he offers a lamb for his sacrifice, then he must offer it before Yehowah.
Lev 3:8 He will lay his hand on the head of his sacrifice and kill it before the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron's sons will sprinkle its blood on the sides of the altar.
Lev 3:9 The person will offer the sacrifice of peace offerings as an offering made by fire to Yehowah. The fat, the entire fat tail cut away close to the backbone, the fat that covers the inner parts, all the fat that is near the inner parts,
Lev 3:10 the two kidneys, and the fat that is with them, which is by the loins, and the lobe of the liver, with the kidneys, he will remove all of this.
Lev 3:11 Then the priest will burn it all on the altar as a burnt offering of food to Yehowah.
Lev 3:12 If the person's offering is a goat, then he will offer it before Yehowah.
Lev 3:13 He must lay his hand on the head of the goat and kill it before the Tent of Meeting. Then the sons of Aaron will sprinkle its blood on the sides of the altar.
Lev 3:14 The man will offer his sacrifice made by fire to Yehowah. He will remove the fat that covers the inner parts, and all the fat near the inner parts.
Lev 3:15 He will also remove the two kidneys and the fat that is with them, which is by the loins, and the lobe of the liver with the kidneys, he will remove all of this.
Lev 3:16 The priest will burn all that on the altar as a burnt offering of food, to produce a sweet aroma. All the fat belongs to Yehowah.
Lev 3:17 It will be a permanent statute throughout your people's generations in every place you make your home, that you must not eat fat or blood.'"

Leviticus Chapter 4

Lev 4:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 4:2 “Tell the people of Israel, ‘When anyone sins without wanting to sin, doing any of the things that Yehowah has commanded not to be done, and if he does something that is prohibited, the following must be done:
Lev 4:3 If it is the high priest who sins, so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him offer for his sin which he has committed, a young bull without blemish to Yehowah as a sin offering.
Lev 4:4 He must bring the bull to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting before Yehowah, lay his hand on its head, and kill the bull before Yehowah.
Lev 4:5 The anointed priest will take some of the blood of the bull and take it to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 4:6 The priest will dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before Yehowah, before the curtain of the Most Set-apart Place.
Lev 4:7 Then the priest will put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before Yehowah, which is in the Tent of Meeting, and he will pour out all the rest of the blood of the bull at the base of the altar for burnt offerings, which is at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 4:8 He will cut away all the fat of the bull of the sin offering; the fat that covers the inner parts, all the fat that is attached to the inner parts,
Lev 4:9 the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the lobe of the liver, with the kidneys, he will cut away all this.
Lev 4:10 He will cut it all away, just as he cuts it off from the bull of the sacrifice of peace offerings. Then the priest will burn these parts on the altar for burnt offerings.
Lev 4:11 The skin of the bull and any remaining meat, with its head and with its legs and its inner parts and its dung,
Lev 4:12 all the rest of the parts of the bull, he will carry all these parts outside the camp to a place that they have cleansed for me, where they pour out the ashes; they will burn those parts there on wood. They must burn those parts where they pour out the ashes.
Lev 4:13 If the whole congregation of Israel sins without wanting to sin, and the congregation is unaware that they have sinned and done any of the things which Yehowah has commanded not to be done, and if they are guilty,
Lev 4:14 then when the sin they have committed becomes known, the congregation must offer a young bull for a sin offering and bring it before the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 4:15 The elders of the congregation will lay their hands on the head of the bull before Yehowah, and the bull will be killed before Yehowah.

Lev 4:16 The anointed priest will bring some of the blood of the bull to the Tent of Meeting,
Lev 4:17 and the priest will dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before Yehowah, before the curtain.
Lev 4:18 He will put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before Yehowah, which is in the Tent of Meeting, and he will pour out all the blood at the base of the altar for burnt offerings, which is at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 4:19 He will cut off all the fat from it and burn it on the altar.
Lev 4:20 That is what he must do with the bull. Just as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so will he also do with this bull, and the priest will make atonement for the people, and they will be forgiven.
Lev 4:21 He will carry the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull. This is the sin offering for the congregation.
Lev 4:22 When a ruler sins without intending to sin, doing any one of all the things that Yehowah his Divine One has commanded not to be done, and he is guilty,
Lev 4:23 when his sin which he has committed is made known to him, he must bring for his sacrifice a goat, a male without blemish.
Lev 4:24 He will lay his hand on the head of the goat and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before Yehowah. This is a sin offering.
Lev 4:25 The priest will take the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings, and he will pour out its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.
Lev 4:26 He will burn all the fat on the altar, just like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. The priest will make atonement for the ruler concerning his sin, and the ruler will be forgiven.
Lev 4:27 If anyone of the common people sins without intending to sin, doing any of the things which Yehowah has commanded not to be done, and when he realizes his guilt,
Lev 4:28 when his sin which he has committed is made known to him, he will bring a goat for his sacrifice, a female without blemish, for the sin that he has committed.
Lev 4:29 He will lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and kill the sin offering at the place of burnt offering.
Lev 4:30 The priest will take some of the blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings. He will pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.
Lev 4:31 He will cut away all the fat, just as the fat is cut away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings. The priest will burn it on the altar to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. The priest will make atonement for the person, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 4:32 If the person brings a lamb as his sacrifice for a sin offering, he will bring a female without blemish.
Lev 4:33 He will lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and kill it for a sin offering at the place where they kill the burnt offering.
Lev 4:34 The priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offerings, and he will pour out all its blood at the base of the altar.
Lev 4:35 He will cut away all the fat, just as the fat of the lamb is cut away from the sacrifice of peace offerings, and the priest will burn it on the altar on top of the offerings of Yehowah made by fire. The priest will make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and the person will be forgiven.

Leviticus Chapter 5

Lev 5:1 If anyone sins because he does not testify when he has witnessed something about which he is required to testify, whether he has seen it or heard about it, he will be responsible.
Lev 5:2 Or if anyone touches anything Yehowah has designated as unclean, whether it be the carrion of an unclean wild animal or the carrion of any livestock that has died, or creeping animal, even if the person did not intend to touch it, he is unclean and guilty.
Lev 5:3 Or if he touches the uncleanness of someone, whatever that uncleanness is, and if he is unaware of it, then he will be guilty when he learns about it.
Lev 5:4 Or if anyone swears rashly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it is that a person swears rashly with an oath, even if he is unaware of it, when he learns about it, then he will be guilty, in any of these things.
Lev 5:5 When someone is guilty in any of these things, he must confess whatever sin he has committed.
Lev 5:6 Then he must bring his guilt offering to Yehowah for the sin that he has committed, a female animal from the flock, either a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering, and the priest will make atonement for him concerning his sin.
Lev 5:7 If he cannot afford to buy a lamb, then he can bring as his guilt offering for his sin two doves or two young pigeons to Yehowah, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.
Lev 5:8 He must bring them to the priest, who will offer one for the sin offering first, he will wring off its head from its neck but will not remove it completely from the body.
Lev 5:9 Then he will sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and he will drain the rest of the blood out at the base of the altar. This is a sin offering.
Lev 5:10 Then he must offer the second bird as a burnt offering, as described in the instructions, and the priest will make atonement for him for the sin that he has committed, and the person will be forgiven.
Lev 5:11 But if he cannot afford to buy two doves or two young pigeons, then he must bring as his sacrifice for his sin two liters of fine flour for a sin offering. He must not put oil or any incense on it, for it is a sin offering.
Lev 5:12 He must bring it to the priest, and the priest will take a handful of it as a memorial offering and then burn it on the altar, on top of the offerings made by fire for Yehowah. This is a sin offering.
Lev 5:13 The priest will make atonement for any sin that the person has committed, and that person will be forgiven. The leftovers from the offering will belong to the priest, as with the grain offering.'"

Lev 5:14 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 5:15 “If anyone violates a command and sins against the things that belong to Yehowah, but did so unintentionally, then he must bring his guilt offering to Yehowah. This offering must be a ram without blemish from the flock; its value must be appraised weighed silver-currency, the weight of the sanctuary, as a guilt offering.
Lev 5:16 He must satisfy Yehowah for what he had done wrong in connection with what is set apart, and he must add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and that person will be forgiven.
Lev 5:17 If anyone sins and does anything that Yehowah has commanded not to be done, even if he was unaware of it, he is still guilty and must carry his own guilt.
Lev 5:18 He must bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, worth the current value, as a guilt offering to the priest. Then the priest will make atonement for him concerning the sin he has committed, of which he was unaware, and he will be forgiven.
Lev 5:19 It is a guilt offering, and he is certainly guilty before Yehowah.”

Leviticus Chapter 6

Lev 6:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 6:2 “If anyone sins and breaks a command against Yehowah, such as dealing falsely with his neighbor regarding something entrusted to him, or if he cheats or robs him, or has oppressed his neighbor,
Lev 6:3 or has found something that his neighbor lost and lies about it, and swears to the lie, or in matters like these in which people sin,
Lev 6:4 then it will come about, if he has sinned and is guilty, that he must restore whatever he took by robbery or oppression or taking what was entrusted to him, or the lost thing that he found.
Lev 6:5 Or if he lied about any matter, he must restore it in full and must add one-fifth more to pay him to whom it is owed, on the day that he is found guilty.
Lev 6:6 Then he must bring his guilt offering to Yehowah: a ram without blemish from the flock that is worth the current value, as a guilt offering to the priest.
Lev 6:7 The priest will make atonement for him before Yehowah, and he will be forgiven concerning whatever he has become guilty of doing.”
Lev 6:8 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 6:9 “Command Aaron and his sons, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering must be on the grate of the altar all night until dawn, and the fire of the altar will be kept burning.
Lev 6:10 The priest will put on his linen clothes, and he will also put on his linen underwear. He will pick up the ashes that are left after the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he will put the ashes beside the altar.
Lev 6:11 He will take off his garments and put on other garments to carry the ashes outside the camp to a place that is clean.
Lev 6:12 The fire on the altar will be kept burning. It must not go out, and the priest will burn wood on it every morning. He will arrange the burnt offering as required on it, and he will burn on it the fat of the peace offerings.
Lev 6:13 Fire must be kept burning on the altar continually. It must not go out.
Lev 6:14 This is the law of the grain offering. The sons of Aaron will offer it before Yehowah before the altar.
Lev 6:15 The priest will take up a handful of fine flour of the grain offering, of the oil, and the incense which is on the grain offering, and he will burn it on the altar to produce a sweet aroma as a memorial offering to Yehowah.
Lev 6:16 Aaron and his sons will eat whatever is left of the offering. It must be eaten with unleavened bread in a Set-apart Place. They will eat it in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

Lev 6:17 It must not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their part of my offerings made by fire. It is most set apart, as the sin offering and the guilt offering.
Lev 6:18 For all time to come throughout your people's generations, any male descended from Aaron may eat it as his share, taken from the offerings of Yehowah made by fire. Whoever touches them will become set apart.'"
Lev 6:19 So Yehowah spoke to Moses again,
Lev 6:20 "This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they will offer to Yehowah on the day when each son is anointed: two liters of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it at dawn and half of it at dusk.
Lev 6:21 It will be made with oil in a baking pan. When it is soaked, you will bring it in. In baked pieces you will offer the grain offering to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah.
Lev 6:22 The son of the high priest who is becoming the new high priest from among his sons will offer it. As commanded forever, all of it will be burned to Yehowah.
Lev 6:23 Every grain offering of the priest will be completely burned up. It must not be eaten."
Lev 6:24 Yehowah spoke to Moses again,
Lev 6:25 "Speak to Aaron and to his sons, 'This is the law of the sin offering: The sin offering must be killed at the place where the burnt offering is killed before Yehowah. It is most set apart.
Lev 6:26 The priest who offers it for sin will eat it. It must be eaten in a Set-apart Place in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 6:27 Whatever touches its meat will become set apart, and if the blood is sprinkled on any garment, you must wash it, the part that was sprinkled on, in a Set-apart Place.
Lev 6:28 But the clay pot in which it is boiled must be broken. If it is boiled in a bronze pot, it must be scrubbed and rinsed clean in water.
Lev 6:29 Any male among the priests may eat some of it, because it is most set apart.
Lev 6:30 But any sin offering whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Set-apart Place must not be eaten. It must be burned.

Leviticus Chapter 7

Lev 7:1 This is the law of the guilt offering. It is most set apart.
Lev 7:2 They must kill the guilt offering in the place for killing it, and they must sprinkle its blood against every side of the altar.
Lev 7:3 All the fat in it will be offered: The fat tail, the fat that is over the inner parts,
Lev 7:4 the two kidneys and the fat on them, which is next to the loins, and what covers the liver, with the kidneys, all this must be removed.
Lev 7:5 The priest must burn these parts on the altar as an offering made with fire to Yehowah. This is the guilt offering.
Lev 7:6 Every male among the priests may eat part of this offering. It must be eaten in a Set-apart Place, because it is most set apart.
Lev 7:7 The sin offering is like the guilt offering. The same law applies to both of them. They belong to the priest who makes atonement with them.
Lev 7:8 The priest who offers anyone's burnt offering may have for himself the hide of that offering.
Lev 7:9 Every grain offering that is baked in an oven, and every such offering that is cooked in a frying pan or in a baking pan will belong to the priest who offers it.
Lev 7:10 Every grain offering, either dry or mixed with oil, will belong equally to all the descendants of Aaron.
Lev 7:11 This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which people will offer to Yehowah.
Lev 7:12 If anyone offers it in order to give thanks, then he must offer it with a sacrifice made of unleavened cakes, but mixed with oil, made of unleavened wafers, but spread with oil, and of cakes made with fine flour that is mixed with oil.
Lev 7:13 Also, for the purpose of giving thanks, he must offer with his peace offering cakes of bread made with yeast.
Lev 7:14 He is to offer one of each kind of these sacrifices as an offering presented to Yehowah. It will belong to the priests who sprinkle the blood of the peace offerings onto the altar.
Lev 7:15 The person presenting a peace offering for the purpose of giving thanks must eat the meat of his offering on the day of the sacrifice. He must not leave any of it until dawn.
Lev 7:16 But if the sacrifice of his offering is for the purpose of a vow, or for the purpose of a freewill offering, the meat must be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice, but whatever remains of it may be eaten on the next day.
Lev 7:17 However, whatever meat of the sacrifice remains on the third day must be burned.

Lev 7:18 If any of the meat of the sacrifice of one's peace offering is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted, neither will it be credited to the one who offered it. It will be a disgusting thing, and the person who eats it will carry the guilt of his sin.
Lev 7:19 Any meat that touches an unclean thing must not be eaten. It must be burned. As for the rest of the meat, anyone who is clean may eat it.
Lev 7:20 However, an unclean person who eats any meat from the sacrifice of a peace offering that belongs to Yehowah, that person must be cut off from his people.
Lev 7:21 If anyone touches any unclean thing, whether uncleanness of man, or of an unclean beast, or of some unclean and disgusting thing, and if he then eats some of the meat of a sacrifice of a peace offering that belongs to Yehowah, that person must be cut off from his people.'"
Lev 7:22 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 7:23 "Speak to the people of Israel, 'You must eat no fat of an ox or a sheep or a goat.
Lev 7:24 The fat of an animal that died without being a sacrifice, or the fat of an animal torn by wild animals, may be used for other purposes, but you must certainly not eat it.
Lev 7:25 Whoever eats the fat of an animal that men can offer as a sacrifice by fire to Yehowah, that person must be cut off from his people.
Lev 7:26 You must eat no blood whatsoever in any of your houses, whether it is from a bird or an animal.
Lev 7:27 Whoever eats any blood, that person must be cut off from his people.'"
Lev 7:28 So Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 7:29 "Speak to the people of Israel, 'He who offers the sacrifice of a peace offering to Yehowah must bring part of his sacrifice to Yehowah.
Lev 7:30 The offering for Yehowah to be made by fire, his own hands must bring it. He must bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be waved as a wave offering before Yehowah.
Lev 7:31 The priest must burn the fat on the altar, but the breast will belong to Aaron and his descendants.
Lev 7:32 You must give the right thigh to the priest as an offering presented out of the sacrifice of your peace offerings.
Lev 7:33 The priest, one of Aaron's descendants, who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat, he will have the right thigh as his share of the offering.
Lev 7:34 For I have taken from the people of Israel, the breast of the wave offering, and the thigh that is the contribution, and they have been given to Aaron the priest and his sons as their regular share.

Lev 7:35 This is the share for Aaron and his descendants from the offerings for Yehowah made by fire, on the day when Moses presented them to serve Yehowah in the work of priest.
Lev 7:36 This is the share that Yehowah commanded to be given them from the people of Israel, on the day that he anointed the priests. It will always be their share throughout all generations.
Lev 7:37 This is the law of the burnt offering, of the grain offering, of the sin offering, of the guilt offering, of the consecration offerings, and of the sacrifice of peace offerings,
Lev 7:38 about which Yehowah gave commands to Moses on Mount Sinai, on the day that he commanded the people of Israel to offer their sacrifices to Yehowah in the wilderness of Sinai.'"

Leviticus Chapter 8

Lev 8:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 8:2 “Take Aaron and his sons with him, the garments and the anointing oil, the bull for the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread.
Lev 8:3 Assemble all the congregation at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.”
Lev 8:4 So Moses did as Yehowah commanded him, and the congregation came together at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 8:5 Then Moses said to the congregation, “This is what Yehowah has commanded to be done.”
Lev 8:6 Moses brought Aaron and his sons and washed them with water.
Lev 8:7 He put on Aaron the tunic and tied the sash around his waist, clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him, and then he tied the ephod around him with the finely-woven waistband and bound it to him.
Lev 8:8 He placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.
Lev 8:9 He set the turban on his head, and on the turban, in front, he set the golden plate, the set-apart crown, as Yehowah had commanded him.
Lev 8:10 Moses took the anointing oil, anointed the tabernacle and everything in it and set them apart to Yehowah.
Lev 8:11 He sprinkled the oil on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the washbasin and its base, to set them apart to Yehowah.
Lev 8:12 He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him to set him apart.
Lev 8:13 Moses brought Aaron’s sons and clothed them with tunics. He tied sashes around their waists and wrapped linen cloth around their heads, as Yehowah had commanded him.
Lev 8:14 Moses brought the bull for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull that they had brought for the sin offering.
Lev 8:15 He killed it, and he took the blood and put it on the horns of the altar with his finger, purified the altar, poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and set it apart for Yehowah in order to make atonement for it.
Lev 8:16 He took all the fat that was on the inner parts, the covering of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and Moses burned it all on the altar.
Lev 8:17 But the bull, its hide, its meat, and its dung he burned outside the camp, as Yehowah had commanded him.
Lev 8:18 Moses presented the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
Lev 8:19 He killed it and sprinkled its blood against every side of the altar.
Lev 8:20 He cut the ram into pieces, burned the head, the pieces, and the fat.

Lev 8:21 He washed the inner parts and the legs with water, and he burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering and produced a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to Yehowah, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Lev 8:22 Then Moses presented the other ram, the ram of consecration, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.
Lev 8:24 He brought Aaron's sons, and he put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot. Then Moses sprinkled its blood against every side of the altar.
Lev 8:25 He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat that was on the inner parts, the covering of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh.
Lev 8:26 Out of the basket of unleavened bread that was before Yehowah, he took one unleavened loaf, one loaf of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh.
Lev 8:27 He put it all in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons and waved them before Yehowah as a wave offering.
Lev 8:28 Then Moses took them from off their hands and burned them on the altar for the burnt offering. They were a consecration offering and produced a sweet aroma. It was an offering made by fire to Yehowah.
Lev 8:29 Moses took the breast and waved it as a wave offering to Yehowah. It was Moses' share of the ram for the priests' ordination, as Yehowah had commanded him.
Lev 8:30 Moses took some of the anointing oil and the blood that was on the altar; he sprinkled these on Aaron, on his clothes, on his sons, and on his sons' clothes with him. In this way, he set apart Aaron and his clothes, and his sons and their clothes to Yehowah.
Lev 8:31 So Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the meat at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, 'Aaron and his sons will eat it.'
Lev 8:32 Whatever remains of the meat and of the bread you must burn.
Lev 8:33 You must not go out from the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are fulfilled. For he will consecrate you for seven days.
Lev 8:34 What has been done this day, Yehowah has commanded to be done to make atonement for you.
Lev 8:35 You will stay day and night for seven days at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and keep the command of Yehowah, so you will not die, because this is what I have been commanded."

Lev 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did all the things which Yehowah had commanded them through Moses.

Leviticus Chapter 9

Lev 9:1 On the eighth day, Moses called Aaron, his sons, and the elders of Israel.
Lev 9:2 He said to Aaron, “Take a calf from the herd for a sin offering, and a ram without blemish for a burnt offering, and offer them before Yehowah.
Lev 9:3 You must speak to the people of Israel, ‘Take a male goat for a sin offering, a calf, and a lamb, both a year old and without blemish, for a burnt offering;
Lev 9:4 also, take an ox and a ram for peace offerings to sacrifice before Yehowah, and a grain offering mixed with oil, because today, Yehowah will appear to you.’”
Lev 9:5 So they brought all that Moses commanded to the Tent of Meeting, and all the congregation of Israel approached and stood before Yehowah.
Lev 9:6 Then Moses said, “This is what Yehowah commanded you to do, so that the glory of Yehowah may appear to you.”
Lev 9:7 Moses ordered Aaron, “Come near the altar and offer your sin offering and burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people, and offer the sacrifice for the people to make atonement for them, as Yehowah has commanded.”
Lev 9:8 So Aaron went near the altar and killed the calf for the sin offering, which was for himself.
Lev 9:9 The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger into it and put it on the horns of the altar; then he poured out the blood at the base of the altar.
Lev 9:10 However, he burned the fat, the kidneys, and the covering of the liver on the altar as a sin offering, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Lev 9:11 The meat and the hide he burned outside the camp.
Lev 9:12 Aaron killed the burnt offering, and his sons gave him the blood, which he splashed against every side of the altar.
Lev 9:13 Then they gave him the burnt offering, piece by piece, together with the head, and he burned them on the altar.
Lev 9:14 He washed the inner parts and the legs and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.
Lev 9:15 Aaron presented the people’s sacrifice, a goat, then took it as the sacrifice for their sin and killed it; he sacrificed it for sin, as he had done with the first goat.
Lev 9:16 He presented the burnt offering and offered it as Yehowah had commanded.
Lev 9:17 He presented the grain offering; he filled his hand with it and burned it on the altar, along with the dawn burnt offering.

Lev 9:18 He also killed the ox and the ram, the sacrifice for the peace offering, which was for the people. Aaron's sons gave him the blood, which he sprinkled against every side of the altar.
Lev 9:19 However, they cut out the fat of the bull and the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the inner parts, the kidneys, and the covering of the liver.
Lev 9:20 They took the parts that were cut out and put these on the breasts, and then Aaron burned the fat on the altar.
Lev 9:21 Aaron waved the breasts and the right thigh as a wave offering before Yehowah, as Moses had commanded.
Lev 9:22 Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them; then he came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offering.
Lev 9:23 Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, then came out again and blessed the people, and the glory of Yehowah appeared to all the people!
Lev 9:24 Fire came out from Yehowah and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw this, they shouted and lay facedown!

Leviticus Chapter 10

Lev 10:1 Nadab and Abihu, sons of Aaron, each took his censer, put fire in it, and then incense. Then they offered unapproved fire before Yehowah, which he had not commanded them to offer.
Lev 10:2 So fire came out from before Yehowah and devoured them, and they died before Yehowah.
Lev 10:3 Then Moses said to Aaron, “This is what Yehowah was talking about when he said, ‘I will reveal my consecration to those who come near me. I will be glorified before all the people.’” Aaron did not say anything.
Lev 10:4 Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and ordered them, “Come here and carry your brothers out of the camp from before the tabernacle.”
Lev 10:5 So they came near and carried them, still wearing their priestly tunics, out of the camp, as Moses had instructed.
Lev 10:6 Then Moses said to Aaron, to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his sons, “Do not let your hair on your heads hang loosely, and do not tear your clothes, so that you may not die, and so that Yehowah may not be angry with all the congregation. But allow your relatives, the entire house of Israel, to mourn for those whom the fire of Yehowah has set ablaze.
Lev 10:7 You must not go out from the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, or you will die, for the anointing oil of Yehowah is on you.” So they acted according to Moses’ instructions.
Lev 10:8 Yehowah spoke to Aaron,
Lev 10:9 “Do not drink wine or beer (false doctrine), you, or your sons who remain with you, when you go into the Tent of Meeting, so you will not die. This will be a permanent statute throughout your people’s generations,
Lev 10:10 to distinguish between the set apart and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean, Lev 10:11 so that you may teach the people of Israel all the statutes that Yehowah has commanded through Moses.”
Lev 10:12 Moses spoke to Aaron, to Eleazar, and to Ithamar, his remaining sons, “Take the grain offering that remains from the offerings to Yehowah made by fire, and eat it without yeast beside the altar, for it is most set apart.
Lev 10:13 You must eat it in a set-apart place, because it is your share and your sons’ share of the offerings to Yehowah made by fire, for this is what I have been commanded to tell you.
Lev 10:14 The breast that is waved and the thigh that is presented to Yehowah, you must eat in a clean place acceptable to Yehowah. You and your sons and daughters with you should eat those portions, for they are given as your share and your sons' share out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the people of Israel.

Lev 10:15 The thigh that is presented and the breast that is waved, they must bring with the offerings of fat made by fire, to wave before Yehowah. They will be yours and your sons' with you as a share forever, as Yehowah has commanded."
Lev 10:16 Then Moses diligently searched for the goat of the sin offering, and found that it was burned up. So he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the remaining sons of Aaron; he asked,
Lev 10:17 "Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the area of the tabernacle, since it is most set apart, and since Yehowah has given it to you to take away the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before Yehowah?
Lev 10:18 Look, its blood was not brought inside the tabernacle, so you should certainly have eaten it in the tabernacle area, as I commanded."
Lev 10:19 Then Aaron answered Moses, "See, today they made their sin offering and burnt offering before Yehowah, and this thing has happened to me today. If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in the sight of Yehowah?"
Lev 10:20 When Moses heard that, he was satisfied.

Leviticus Chapter 11

Lev 11:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Lev 11:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘These are the living things which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth.
Lev 11:3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof and that also chews the cud.
Lev 11:4 However, some animals either chew the cud or have a split hoof, and you must not eat them, animals such as the camel, because it chews the cud but does not have a split hoof. So the camel is unclean for you.
Lev 11:5 Also the rock badger, because it chews the cud but does not have a split hoof, it is also unclean for you.
Lev 11:6 The hare, because it chews the cud but does not have a split hoof, is unclean for you.
Lev 11:7 The pig, although it has a split hoof, does not chew the cud, is unclean for you.
Lev 11:8 You must not eat any of their meat nor touch their carrion. They are unclean for you.
Lev 11:9 The animals living in the water that you may eat are all those that have fins and scales, whether in the ocean or in the rivers.
Lev 11:10 But all living creatures that do not have fins and scales in the ocean or rivers, including all that move in the water and all the living creatures that are in the water, they must be detested by you.
Lev 11:11 Since they must be detested, you must not eat of their meat; also, their carrion must be detested.
Lev 11:12 Whatever has no fins or scales in the water must be detested by you.
Lev 11:13 The birds you must detest, and that you must not eat are these: the Tawny Eagle, the Griffon Vulture, the Short-toed Eagle,
Lev 11:14 the Black Kite, the Peregrine Falcon,
Lev 11:15 the Fan-tailed Raven,
Lev 11:16 the Desert Owl and the Short-eared Owl, the Black-headed Gull, and the Eurasian Hobby.
Lev 11:17 You must also detest the Tawny Owl and the Great Cormorant, the Spotted Eagle Owl,
Lev 11:18 the Greater Flamingo and the Great White Pelican, the Common Crane,
Lev 11:19 the Egyptian Ibis, the Grey Heron, the Eurasian Hoopoe, and also the bat.
Lev 11:20 All winged insects that walk on four legs are detestable to you.
Lev 11:21 Yet, you may eat any of the flying insects that also walk on four legs, if they have jointed legs for hopping on the ground.

Lev 11:22 You may also eat any kind of locust, katydid, cricket, or grasshopper.
Lev 11:23 But all the flying insects that have four feet must be detested by you.
Lev 11:24 You will become unclean until dusk by these animals, if you touch a carcass of one of them.
Lev 11:25 Whoever picks up one of their carrion must wash his clothes and remain unclean until dusk.
Lev 11:26 Every animal which has a split hoof that is not completely divided or which does not chew the cud is unclean for you. Everyone who touches them will be unclean.
Lev 11:27 Whatever walks on its paws among all the animals that walk on all four legs, they are unclean for you. Whoever touches such a carrion will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 11:28 Whoever picks up such a carrion must wash his clothes and be unclean until dusk. These animals will be unclean for you.
Lev 11:29 Of the animals that creep on the ground, these are the animals that will be unclean for you: the weasel, the rat, every kind of large lizard,
Lev 11:30 the gecko, the Monitor Lizard, the lizard, the skink, and the chameleon.
Lev 11:31 Of all the animals that creep, these are the animals which will be unclean for you. Whoever touches them, when they are dead, will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 11:32 If any of them dies and falls on anything, that thing will be unclean, whether it is made of wood, cloth, leather, or sackcloth. Whatever it is and whatever it is used for, it must be put into water; it will be unclean until dusk. Then it will be clean.
Lev 11:33 For every clay pot into or onto which any unclean animal falls, whatever is in the pot will become unclean, and you must destroy that pot.
Lev 11:34 All food which is clean and permitted to be eaten, but on which water from an unclean pot has fallen, will then be unclean. Anything that may be drunk from every such a pot will become unclean.
Lev 11:35 Everything on which any part of the carrion of an unclean animal falls will then be unclean, whether it is an oven or cooking pots. It must be broken to pieces. It is unclean and must be unclean for you.
Lev 11:36 A spring or cistern where drinking water is collected will stay clean if such a creature falls into it. But if anyone touches the carrion of an unclean animal in the water, he will be unclean.
Lev 11:37 If any part of an unclean carrion falls upon any seeds for planting, those seeds will still be clean.
Lev 11:38 But if water is put on the seeds, and if any part of an unclean carrion falls on them, then they will be unclean for you.
Lev 11:39 If any animal that you may eat dies, then he who touches the carcass will be unclean until dusk.

Lev 11:40 Whoever eats any of that carcass must wash his clothes and be unclean until dusk. Anyone who picks up such a carcass will wash his clothes and be unclean until dusk.
Lev 11:41 Every animal that creeps on the ground is to be detested; it must not be eaten.
Lev 11:42 Whatever crawls on its belly, and whatever walks on all four legs, or whatever has many feet, all the animals that creep on the ground, these you must not eat, for they are to be detested.
Lev 11:43 You must not make yourselves unclean with any living creatures that creep; you must not make yourselves unclean with them, that you should be made impure by them.
Lev 11:44 For I am Yehowah your Divine One. You are to keep yourselves consecrated, therefore, and be set apart, because I am set apart. You must not defile yourselves with any kind of animal that moves about on the ground (1 Pet. 1:16).
Lev 11:45 For I am Yehowah, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your Divine One. You must therefore be set apart, for I am set apart.
Lev 11:46 This is the law regarding the animals, the birds, every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the ground,
Lev 11:47 for which a distinction is to be made between the unclean and the clean, and between the living things that may be eaten, and the living things that may not be eaten.'"

Leviticus Chapter 12

Lev 12:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 12:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘If a woman conceives and gives birth to a male child, then she will be unclean for seven days, just as she is unclean during the days of her monthly period.
Lev 12:3 On the eighth day, the flesh of a baby boy’s foreskin must be circumcised.
Lev 12:4 Then the mother’s purification from her bleeding will continue for thirty-three days. She must not touch any set-apart thing or come into the tabernacle area, until the days of her purification are finished.
Lev 12:5 But if she gives birth to a female child, then she will be unclean for two weeks, as she is during her period. Then the mother’s purification will continue for sixty-six days.
Lev 12:6 When the days of her purification are finished, for a son or for a daughter, she must bring a one year old lamb as a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or dove as a sin offering, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, to the priest.
Lev 12:7 Then he will offer it before Yehowah and make atonement for her, and she will be cleansed from the flow of her blood. This is the law regarding a woman who gives birth to either a male or a female child.
Lev 12:8 If she is not able to afford a lamb, then she must take two doves or two young pigeons, one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering, and the priest will make atonement for her; then she will be clean.’”

Leviticus Chapter 13

Lev 13:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Lev 13:2 “When anyone has on the skin of his body a swelling, scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes infected, there is a skin disease in his body, then he must be brought to Aaron the high priest or to one of his sons the priests.
Lev 13:3 Then the priest will examine the disease in the skin of his body. If the hair in the diseased area has turned white, and if the disease appears to be deeper than just on the skin, then it is an infectious disease. After the priest examines him, he must pronounce him unclean.
Lev 13:4 If the bright spot in his skin is white, and the appearance of it is no deeper than the skin, and if the hair in the diseased area has not turned white, then the priest must quarantine the one with the disease for seven days.
Lev 13:5 On the seventh day, the priest must examine him to see if in his opinion the disease is not any worse, and if it has not spread in the skin. If it has not, then the priest must quarantine him seven days more.
Lev 13:6 The priest will examine him again on the seventh day to see if the disease is better and has not spread farther in the skin. If it has not, then the priest will pronounce him clean. It is a rash. He must wash his clothes, and then he is clean.
Lev 13:7 But if the rash has spread in the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he must then show himself to the priest again.
Lev 13:8 The priest will examine him to see if the rash has spread farther in the skin. If it has spread, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious disease.
Lev 13:9 When an infectious skin disease is in someone, then he must be brought to the priest.
Lev 13:10 The priest will examine him to see if there is a white swelling in the skin, if the hair has turned white, or if there is raw flesh in the swelling.
Lev 13:11 If there is, then it is a chronic skin disease, and the priest must pronounce him unclean. He will not quarantine him, because he is already unclean.
Lev 13:12 If the disease breaks out widely in the skin and covers all the skin of the person with the disease from his head to his feet, as far as it appears to the priest,
Lev 13:13 then the priest must examine him to see if the disease has covered all his body. If it has, then the priest must pronounce the person who has the disease as clean. If it has all turned white, then he is clean.
Lev 13:14 But if raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean.

Lev 13:15 The priest must look at the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean, because the raw flesh is unclean. It is an infectious disease.
Lev 13:16 But if the raw flesh turns white again, then the person must go to the priest.
Lev 13:17 The priest will examine him to see if the flesh has turned white. If it has, then the priest will pronounce that person to be clean.
Lev 13:18 When a person has a boil on the skin, and it has healed,
Lev 13:19 and in place of the boil there is white swelling or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it must be shown to the priest.
Lev 13:20 The priest will examine it to see if it appears deeper under the skin, and if the hair there has turned white. If so, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious disease, if it has developed in the place where the boil was.
Lev 13:21 But if the priest examines it and sees that there is no white hair in it, and that it is not under the skin but has faded, then the priest must quarantine him for seven days.
Lev 13:22 If it spreads widely in the skin, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious disease.
Lev 13:23 But if the bright spot stays in its place and has not spread, then it is the scar of the boil, and the priest must pronounce him clean.
Lev 13:24 When the skin has a burn, and the raw flesh of the burn has become a reddish-white or white spot,
Lev 13:25 then the priest will examine it to see if the hair in that spot has turned white, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin. If it has, then it is an infectious disease. It has broken out in the burn, and the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious disease.
Lev 13:26 But if the priest examines it and finds that there is no white hair in the spot, and it is not under the skin but has faded, then the priest must quarantine him for seven days.
Lev 13:27 Then the priest must examine him on the seventh day. If it has spread widely in the skin, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious disease.
Lev 13:28 If the spot stays in its place and has not spread in the skin but has faded, then it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest must pronounce him clean, for it is nothing more than the scar of the burn.
Lev 13:29 If a man or woman has an infectious disease on the head or chin,
Lev 13:30 then the priest must examine the person for an infectious disease to see if it appears to be deeper than the skin, and if there is yellow, thin hair in it. If there is, then the priest must pronounce him unclean. It is an itch, an infectious disease on the head or the chin.

Lev 13:31 If the priest examines the itching disease and sees that it is not under the skin, and if there is no black hair in it, then the priest will quarantine the person with the itching disease for seven days.
Lev 13:32 On the seventh day, the priest will examine the disease to see if it has spread. If there is no yellow hair, and if the disease appears to be only skin deep,
Lev 13:33 then he must be shaved, but the diseased area must not be shaved, and the priest must quarantine the person with the itching disease for seven more days.
Lev 13:34 On the seventh day, the priest will examine the disease to see if it has stopped spreading in the skin. If it appears to be no deeper than the skin, then the priest must pronounce him clean. The person must wash his clothes, and then he will be clean.
Lev 13:35 But if the itching disease has spread widely in the skin after the priest said he was clean, Lev 13:36 then the priest must examine him again. If the disease has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to seek for yellow hair. The person is unclean.
Lev 13:37 But if in the priest's view the itching disease has stopped spreading, and black hair has grown in the area, then the disease has healed. He is clean, and the priest must pronounce him clean.
Lev 13:38 If a man or a woman has white spots on the skin,
Lev 13:39 then the priest must examine the person to see if the spots are a dull white, which is only a rash that has broken out in the skin. He is clean.
Lev 13:40 If a man's hair has fallen out of his head, he is bald, but he is clean.
Lev 13:41 If his hair has fallen out of the front part of his head, and if his forehead is bald, he is clean.
Lev 13:42 But if there is a reddish-white sore on his bald head or forehead, it is an infectious disease that has broken out.
Lev 13:43 Then the priest must examine him to see if the swelling of the diseased area on his bald head or forehead is reddish-white, like the appearance of an infectious disease in the skin.
Lev 13:44 If it is, then he a leprous man, and he is unclean. The priest must surely pronounce him unclean because of his disease on his head.
Lev 13:45 The person who has leprosy must wear torn clothes, his hair must hang loosely, and he must cover his face up to his nose and call out, 'Unclean, unclean!'
Lev 13:46 All the days that he has the infectious disease, he will be unclean. Because he is unclean with a disease that can spread, he must live alone. He must live outside the camp.
Lev 13:47 A garment that is contaminated with mildew, whether it is a wool or linen garment,

Lev 13:48 or anything woven or knitted from wool or linen, or leather or anything made with leather,
Lev 13:49 if there is a greenish or reddish contamination in the garment, the leather, the woven or knitted material, or anything made of leather, then it is a mildew that spreads; it must be shown to the priest.
Lev 13:50 The priest must examine the item for mildew; he must isolate anything that has mildew for seven days.
Lev 13:51 He must examine the mildew again on the seventh day. If it has spread in the garment or anything woven or knitted from wool or linen material, or leather or anything in which leather is used, then it is harmful mildew, and the item is unclean.
Lev 13:52 He must burn the garment, or anything woven or knitted from wool or linen material, or leather or anything made with leather, anything in which the harmful mildew is found, for it can lead to disease. The item must be completely burned up.
Lev 13:53 If the priest examines the item and sees that the mildew has not spread in the garment or material woven or knitted from wool or linen, or leather goods,
Lev 13:54 then he will command them to wash the item in which the mildew was found, and he must isolate it for seven more days.
Lev 13:55 Then the priest will examine the item after the mildewed item was washed. If the mildew has not changed its color, even though it has not spread, it is unclean. You must burn the item, no matter where the mildew has contaminated it.
Lev 13:56 If the priest examines the item, and if the mildew has faded after it was washed, then he must tear out the contaminated part from the garment or from the leather, or from the woven or knitted material.
Lev 13:57 If the mildew still appears in the garment, either in the woven or knitted material, or in anything made of leather, it is spreading. You must burn any item that has the mildew.
Lev 13:58 The garment or anything woven or knitted from wool or linen material, or leather or anything made with leather, if you wash the item and the mildew is gone, then the item must be washed a second time, and it will be clean.
Lev 13:59 This is the law about mildew in a garment of wool or linen, or anything woven or knitted from wool or linen material, or leather or anything made with leather, so that you may pronounce it clean or unclean.”

Leviticus Chapter 14

Lev 14:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 14:2 “This will be the law for the leper on the day of his cleansing. He must be brought to the priest.
Lev 14:3 The priest will go out of the camp to examine the person, to see if the leprosy is healed in the leper.
Lev 14:4 Then the priest will command that the one to be cleansed must take two live, clean birds, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop.
Lev 14:5 The priest will command him to kill one of the birds over fresh water that is in a clay pot.
Lev 14:6 The priest will then take the live bird, the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn, and the hyssop, and he will dip all these things, including the live bird, in the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.
Lev 14:7 Then the priest will sprinkle this water seven times onto the person who is to be cleansed from the disease, and then the priest will pronounce him to be clean. Then the priest will release the living bird into the open fields.
Lev 14:8 The person who is being cleansed will wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water, and then he will be clean. After that, he must come into the camp, but he will live outside his tent for seven days.
Lev 14:9 On the seventh day, he must shave all his hair off his head, and he must also shave off his beard and eyebrows. He must shave off all his hair, and he must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; then he will be clean.
Lev 14:10 On the eighth day, he must take two male lambs without blemish, one female lamb a year old without blemish, and 6.5 liters of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one-third liter of oil.
Lev 14:11 The priest who cleanses him will stand the person who is to be cleansed, along with those things, before Yehowah at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 14:12 The priest will take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering, together with one-third liter of oil; he will wave them for a wave offering before Yehowah.
Lev 14:13 He must kill the male lamb in the place where they kill the sin offerings and the burnt offerings, in the area of the tabernacle, for the sin offering belongs to the priest, as does the guilt offering, because it is most set apart.
Lev 14:14 The priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of the person who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.
Lev 14:15 Then the priest will take the one-third liter of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand,

Lev 14:16 and dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before Yehowah.
Lev 14:17 The priest will put the rest of the oil in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the person to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. He must put this oil on top of the blood from the guilt offering.
Lev 14:18 As for the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand, he will put it on the head of the person who is to be cleansed, and the priest will make atonement for him before Yehowah.
Lev 14:19 Then the priest will offer the sin offering and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed because of his uncleanness, and afterward he will kill the burnt offering.
Lev 14:20 Then the priest will offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. The priest will make atonement for the person, and then he will be clean.
Lev 14:21 However, if the person is poor and cannot afford these sacrifices, then he may take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved, to make atonement for himself, and two liters of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one-third liter of oil,
Lev 14:22 together with two doves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; one bird will be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.
Lev 14:23 On the eighth day, he must bring them for his cleansing to the priest, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, before Yehowah.
Lev 14:24 The priest will take the lamb for an offering, and he will take with it one-third liter of olive oil, and he will lift them high as he presents them to Yehowah.
Lev 14:25 He will kill the lamb for the guilt offering, and he will take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of the one who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.
Lev 14:26 Then the priest will pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand,
Lev 14:28 The priest will then put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the one who is to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, the same places where he put the blood of the guilt offering.
Lev 14:29 He will put the rest of the oil that is in his hand on the head of the one who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before Yehowah.

Lev 14:30 He must offer one of the doves or young pigeons, such as the person has been able to get,
Lev 14:31 one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, along with the grain offering. Then the priest will make atonement for the one who is to be cleansed before Yehowah.
Lev 14:32 This is the law for a person in whom there is an infectious skin disease, who is not able to afford the standard offerings for his cleansing."
Lev 14:33 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Lev 14:34 "When you have come into the land of Canaan which I gave to you as a possession, and if I put mildew that spreads in a house in the land of your possession,
Lev 14:35 then he who owns the house must come and tell the priest. He must say, 'There seems to me to be something like mildew in my house.'
Lev 14:36 Then the priest will command that they empty the house before he goes in to see the evidence of mildew, so that nothing in the house will be made unclean. Afterward, the priest must go in to see the house.
Lev 14:37 He must examine the mildew to see if it is in the house walls, and to see whether it appears greenish or reddish in the depressions in the wall's surface.
Lev 14:38 If the house does have mildew, then the priest will go out of the house and shut the door to the house for seven days.
Lev 14:39 Then the priest will return again on the seventh day and examine it to see if the mildew has spread in the walls of the house.
Lev 14:40 If it has, then the priest will command that they take out the stones in which the mildew has been found and throw them into an unclean place outside the city.
Lev 14:41 He will require all the inside walls of the house to be scraped, and they must take the contaminated material that is scraped off outside the city and dump it into the unclean place.
Lev 14:42 They must take other stones and put them in the place of the stones that were removed, and they must use new clay to plaster the house.
Lev 14:43 If mildew comes again and breaks out in the house in which the stones have been taken away, and the walls have been scraped and then replastered,
Lev 14:44 then the priest must come in and examine the house to see if mildew has spread in the house. If it has, then it is harmful mildew, and the house is unclean.
Lev 14:45 The house must be torn down. The stones, timber, and all the plaster in the house must be carried away out of the city to the unclean place.
Lev 14:46 In addition, whoever goes into the house during the time it is closed up will be unclean until dusk.

Lev 14:47 Anyone who slept in the house must wash his clothes, and anyone who ate in the house must wash his clothes.
Lev 14:48 If the priest enters the house to examine it, to see whether the mildew has spread in the house after the house was plastered, then if the mildew is gone, he will pronounce the house clean.
Lev 14:49 Then the priest must take two birds to cleanse the house, cedar wood, scarlet yarn, and hyssop.
Lev 14:50 He will kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay jar.
Lev 14:51 He will take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn, and the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the killed bird, into the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.
Lev 14:52 He will cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and with the fresh water, with the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the scarlet yarn.
Lev 14:53 But he will let the live bird go out of the city into the open fields. In this way, he must make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.
Lev 14:54 This is the law for all types of infectious skin disease and things that cause such disease, and for an itch,
Lev 14:55 and for mildew in clothing and in a house,
Lev 14:56 for swelling, for a rash, and for a bright spot,
Lev 14:57 to determine when any of these cases is unclean or when it is clean. This is the law for infectious skin diseases and mildew.”

Leviticus Chapter 15

Lev 15:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Lev 15:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When any man has an infected fluid that comes out of his body, he becomes unclean.
Lev 15:3 His uncleanness is due to this infected fluid. Whether his body flows with fluid or is stopped up, it is unclean.
Lev 15:4 Every bed on which he lies will be unclean, and everything on which he sits will be unclean.
Lev 15:5 Whoever touches his bed must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:6 Anyone who sits on anything on which the man with the flow of infected fluid sat, that person must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and he will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:7 Anyone who touches the body of the one who has a flow of infected fluid must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:8 If the person who has such a flow of fluid spits on someone who is clean, then that person must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and he will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:9 Any saddle which he who has a flow rides upon will be unclean.
Lev 15:10 Whoever touches anything that was under that person will be unclean until dusk, and anyone who carries those things must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; he will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:11 Whomever he who has such a flow touches without first having rinsed his hands in water, the person who was touched must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and he will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:12 Any clay pot that the one with such a flow of fluid touches must be broken, and every container of wood must be rinsed in water.
Lev 15:13 When he who has a flow is cleansed from his flow, then he must count for himself seven days for his cleansing; then he must wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water. Then he will be clean.
Lev 15:14 On the eighth day, he must take two doves or two young pigeons and come before Yehowah at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting; there he must give the birds to the priest.
Lev 15:15 The priest must offer them, one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and the priest must make atonement for him before Yehowah for his flow.
Lev 15:16 If any man ejaculates during the sex act, then he must bathe his whole body in water; he will be unclean until dusk.

Lev 15:17 Every garment or leather on which there is semen from copulation must be washed with water; it will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:18 If a woman and a man have sex and there is a transfer of semen to her, they must both bathe themselves in water; they will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:19 When a woman menstruates, her impurity will continue for seven days, and whoever touches her will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:20 Everything she lies on during her period will be unclean; everything that she sits on will also be unclean.
Lev 15:21 Whoever touches her bed must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; that person will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:22 Whoever touches anything that she sits on must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water; that person will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:23 Whether it is on the bed or on anything on which she sits, if he touches it, that person will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:24 If any man has sex with her, and if her impure flow touches him, he will be unclean for seven days. Every bed on which he lies will be unclean.
Lev 15:25 If a woman has a flow of blood for many days that is not in the time of her menstruation, or if she has a flow beyond the time of her menstruation, during all the days of the flow of her uncleanness, she will be as if she were in the days of her period. She is unclean.
Lev 15:26 Every bed on which she lies all during her flow of blood will be to her just like the bed on which she lies during her menstruation, and everything on which she sits will be unclean, just like the uncleanness of her menstruation.
Lev 15:27 Whoever touches any of those things will be unclean; he must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and he will be unclean until dusk.
Lev 15:28 But if she is cleansed from her flow of blood, then she will count for herself seven days, and after that she will be clean.
Lev 15:29 On the eighth day, she will take to her two doves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 15:30 The priest will offer one bird as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and he will make atonement for her before Yehowah for her unclean flow of blood.
Lev 15:31 This is how you must separate the people of Israel from their uncleanness, so they will not die due to their uncleanness, by defiling my tabernacle, where I live among them.
Lev 15:32 This is the law for anyone who has a flow of fluid, for any man who ejaculates and becomes unclean,
Lev 15:33 for any woman who has a menstrual period, for anyone with a flow of fluid, whether male or female, and for any man who has sex with an unclean woman.'"

Leviticus Chapter 16

Lev 16:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses, this was after the death of Aaron's two sons, when they had gone near to Yehowah and then died.
Lev 16:2 Yehowah said to Moses, "Speak to Aaron your brother and tell him not to come at just any time into the Most Set-apart Place inside the curtain before the atonement lid that is on the ark. If he does, he will die, because I appear in the cloud over the atonement lid.
Lev 16:3 So here is how Aaron must come into the Most Set-apart Place. He must enter with a young bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering.
Lev 16:4 He must put on the set-apart linen tunic, and he must put the linen underwear on himself, and he must wear the linen sash and linen turban. These are the set-apart garments. He must bathe his body in water and then dress himself with these clothes.
Lev 16:5 He must take from the congregation of the people of Israel two male goats as a sin offering and one ram as a burnt offering.
Lev 16:6 Then Aaron must present the bull as the sin offering, which will be for himself, to make atonement for himself and his family.
Lev 16:7 Then he must take the two goats and set them before Yehowah at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Lev 16:8 Then Aaron must cast lots for the two goats, one lot for Yehowah, and the other lot for the departing goat.
Lev 16:9 Aaron must then present the goat on which the lot fell for Yehowah, and offer that goat as a sin offering.
Lev 16:10 But the goat on which the lot fell for the departing goat must be brought alive before Yehowah, to make atonement by sending him away as a departing goat into the wilderness.
Lev 16:11 Then Aaron must present the bull for the sin offering, which will be for himself. He must make atonement for himself and for his family, so he must kill the bull as a sin offering for himself.
Lev 16:12 Aaron must take a censer full of coals of fire from off the altar before Yehowah, with his hands full of finely ground sweet incense, and bring these things inside the curtain.
Lev 16:13 There he must put the incense on the fire before Yehowah, so that the cloud from the incense may cover the atonement lid over the covenant decrees. He must do this, so he will not die.
Lev 16:14 Then he must take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the east side of the atonement lid. He must sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times before the atonement lid.

Lev 16:15 Then he must kill the goat for the sin offering that is for the people and bring its blood inside the curtain. There he must do with the blood as he did with the blood of the bull: He must sprinkle it on the atonement lid and then before the atonement lid.
Lev 16:16 He must make atonement for the Set-apart Place because of the unclean actions of the people of Israel, and because of their rebellion and all their sins. He must also do this for the Tent of Meeting, where Yehowah lives among them, in the presence of their unclean actions.
Lev 16:17 No one must be in the Tent of Meeting when Aaron enters it to make atonement in the Most Set-apart Place, and until he comes out and has finished making atonement for himself and for his family, and for all the congregation of Israel.
Lev 16:18 He must go out to the altar that is before Yehowah and make atonement for it, and he must take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on the horns of the altar all around.
Lev 16:19 He must sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse it and set it apart to Yehowah, away from the unclean actions of the people of Israel.
Lev 16:20 When he has finished atoning for the Most Set-apart Place, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, he must present the live goat.
Lev 16:21 Aaron must lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over him all the wickedness of the people of Israel, all their rebellion, and all their sins. Then he must put that sinfulness on the head of the goat and send the goat away in the care of a man who is ready to lead the goat into the wilderness.
Lev 16:22 The goat must carry on himself all the people's wickedness to a solitary place. There in the wilderness, the man must let the goat go free.
Lev 16:23 Then Aaron must go back into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments that he had put on before going into the Most Set-apart Place, and he must leave those garments there.
Lev 16:24 He must bathe his body in water in a Set-apart Place, and put on his normal garments; then he must go out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering for the people, and in this way, make atonement for himself and for the people.
Lev 16:25 He must burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.
Lev 16:26 The man who let the departing goat go free must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; after that, he may come back into the camp.
Lev 16:27 The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Set-apart Place, must be carried outside the camp. There they must burn their hides, flesh, and dung.

Lev 16:28 The man who burns those parts must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water; after that, he may come back into the camp.
Lev 16:29 It will always be a statute for you that on the tenth of the seventh month (Day of Atonements), you must deny yourselves and do no work, whether the native born or a sojourning foreigner who is living among you.
Lev 16:30 This is because on this day, atonement will be made for you to cleanse you from all your sins, so you will be clean before Yehowah.
Lev 16:31 It is a Sabbath holiday for you, and you must deny yourselves and do no work. This will always be a statute among you.
Lev 16:32 The high priest, the one who will be anointed and ordained to be high priest in his father's place, he must make this atonement and put on the linen garments, that is, the set-apart garments.
Lev 16:33 He must make atonement for the Most Set-apart Place; he must make atonement for the Tent of Meeting and for the altar, and he must make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the congregation.
Lev 16:34 This will always be a statute for you, to make atonement for the people of Israel because of all their sins, once in every year." This was done as Yehowah commanded Moses.

Leviticus Chapter 17

Lev 17:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 17:2 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the people of Israel. Tell them what Yehowah has commanded:
Lev 17:3 ‘Any man from Israel who kills an ox, lamb, or goat in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp, in order to sacrifice it,
Lev 17:4 if he does not bring it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to offer it as a sacrifice to Yehowah before his tabernacle, that man is guilty of bloodshed. He has shed blood, and that man must be cut off from among his people.
Lev 17:5 The purpose of this command is so that the people of Israel will bring their sacrifices to Yehowah at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, to the priest, to be sacrificed as peace offerings to Yehowah, instead of offering sacrifices in an open field.
Lev 17:6 The priest will sprinkle the blood on the altar of Yehowah at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting; he will burn the fat for it to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah.
Lev 17:7 The people must no longer offer their sacrifices to goat idols, for which they act as prostitutes. This will be a permanent statute for them throughout their people’s generations.’
Lev 17:8 You must say to them, ‘Any man of Israel, or any sojourning alien who lives among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice
Lev 17:9 and does not bring it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, in order to sacrifice it to Yehowah, that man must be cut off from his people.
Lev 17:10 If any person of the house of Israel, or any sojourning alien who lives among them consumes any blood, I will set my face against that person who consumes blood, and I will cut him off from among his people.
Lev 17:11 For the life of an animal is in its blood. I have given its blood to you to make atonement on the altar for your lives, because it is the blood that makes atonement, for it is the blood that atones for the life.
Lev 17:12 Therefore, I said to the people of Israel that no one among you must eat blood, neither may any sojourning alien who lives among you eat blood.
Lev 17:13 Any one of the people of Israel, or any of the sojourning aliens who live among them, who hunts and kills an animal or bird that may be eaten, that person must pour out its blood and cover the blood with earth.
Lev 17:14 For the life of each creature is its blood. That is why I said to the people of Israel, “You must not eat the blood of any creature, for the life of every living creature is its blood. Whoever eats it must be cut off.”
Lev 17:15 Every person who eats an animal that has died or that has been torn by wild animals, whether that person is native born or a sojourning foreigner living among you, he must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and he will be unclean until dusk. Then he will be clean.

Lev 17:16 But if he does not wash his clothes or bathe his body, then he must carry his guilt.’”

Leviticus Chapter 18

Lev 18:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 18:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 18:3 You must not do the things that the people do in Egypt, where you lived previously. You must not do the things that the people do in Canaan, the land to which I am taking you. Do not follow their customs.
Lev 18:4 My laws are what you must do, and my commandments are what you must keep, so that you walk in them, because I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 18:5 Therefore, you must keep my decrees and my laws. If a person obeys them, he will live because of them. I am Yehowah.
Lev 18:6 No one may have sex with anyone to whom he is closely related. I am Yehowah.
Lev 18:7 Do not dishonor your father by having sex with your mother. She is your mother! You must not dishonor her.
Lev 18:8 Do not have sex with any of your father’s wives; you must not dishonor your father like that.
Lev 18:9 Do not have sex with any sister of yours, whether she is the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether she was raised at your home or distant from you. You must not have sex with your sisters.
Lev 18:10 Do not have sex with your son’s daughter or with your daughter’s daughter. That would be your own shame.
Lev 18:11 Do not have sex with your father’s wife’s daughter, who was born of your father. She is your sister, and you must not have sex with her.
Lev 18:12 Do not have sex with your father’s sister. She is a close relative to your father.
Lev 18:13 Do not have sex with your mother’s sister. She is a close relative to your mother.
Lev 18:14 Do not dishonor the brother of your father by having sex with his wife. Do not go near her for that purpose; she is your aunt.
Lev 18:15 Do not have sex with your daughter-in-law. She is your son’s wife; do not have sex with her.
Lev 18:16 Do not have sex with your brother’s wife; do not dishonor him in this way.
Lev 18:17 Do not have sex with a woman and her daughter, or with her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter. They are close relatives to her, and having sex with them would be wicked.
Lev 18:18 You must not marry your wife’s sister as a second wife and have sex with her while your first wife is alive.

Lev 18:19 Do not have sex with a woman during her menstruation. She is unclean during that time.
Lev 18:20 Do not have sex with your neighbor’s wife and defile yourself with her in this way.
Lev 18:21 You must not give any of your children to put them into the fire, so that you sacrifice them to Molech, because you must not profane the name of your Divine One. I am Yehowah.
Lev 18:22 Do not have sex with other men as with a woman. This would be wicked.
Lev 18:23 Do not have sex with any animal and defile yourself with it. No woman must consider having sex with any animal. This would be perversion.
Lev 18:24 Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for in all these ways the ethnicities are defiled, the ethnicities that I will drive out from before you.
Lev 18:25 The land became defiled, so I punished their sin, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.
Lev 18:26 You, therefore, must keep my commandments and decrees, and you must not do any of these detestable things, neither the native-born Israeli nor the sojourning foreigner who lives among you.
Lev 18:27 For this is the wickedness that the people in the land have committed, those who lived here before you, and now the land is defiled.
Lev 18:28 Therefore, be careful, so that the land does not vomit you up also, after you have defiled it, as it vomited out the people who were before you.
Lev 18:29 Whoever does any of these detestable things, the persons who do such things, will be cut off from among their people.
Lev 18:30 Therefore, you must keep my command not to practice any of these detestable customs which were practiced here before you, so that you do not defile yourselves by them. I am Yehowah your Divine One.’”

Leviticus Chapter 19

Lev 19:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 19:2 “Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel, ‘You must be set apart, for I, Yehowah your Divine One, am set apart.
Lev 19:3 Everyone must respect his mother and his father, and you must keep my Sabbaths. I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 19:4 Do not turn to worthless idols, nor make for yourselves deities out of metal. I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 19:5 When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to Yehowah, you must offer it that you may be accepted.
Lev 19:6 It must be eaten the same day you offer it, or on the next day. If anything remains until the third day, it must be burned.
Lev 19:7 If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is defiled. It will not be accepted,
Lev 19:8 but everyone who eats it must carry his own guilt, because he has dishonored what was set apart to Yehowah. That person must be cut off from his people.
Lev 19:9 When you reap the harvest of your land, you must not completely reap the corners of your field, neither will you gather all the produce of your harvest.
Lev 19:10 You must not gather every grape from your vineyard, nor gather the grapes that have fallen on the ground in your vineyard. You must leave them for the poor and for the sojourning foreigner. I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 19:11 Do not steal. Do not lie. Do not deceive each other.
Lev 19:12 Do not swear an oath by my name falsely and profane the name of your Divine One (Exo. 20:7). I am Yehowah.
Lev 19:13 Do not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired servant must not stay with you all night until dawn.
Lev 19:14 Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind. Instead, you must fear your Divine One. I am Yehowah.
Lev 19:15 Do not cause judgment to be false. You must not show favoritism to someone because he is poor, and you must not show favoritism to someone because he is important. Instead, judge your neighbor righteously.
Lev 19:16 Do not walk around slandering among your people, but seek to protect your neighbor’s life. I am Yehowah.
Lev 19:17 Do not hate your brother in your heart. You must honestly rebuke your neighbor so as not to share in sin because of him (Luke 17:3; 1 Cor. 5:10-12; Prov. 9:8).
Lev 19:18 Do not take vengeance or hold any grudge against any of your people, but instead love your neighbor as yourself (Mat. 22:39; Luke 10:27; John 13:34-35). I am Yehowah.

Lev 19:19 You must keep my commands. Do not try to breed your animals with different kinds of animals. Do not mix two different kinds of seeds when planting your field. Do not wear clothing made of two kinds of material mixed together.
Lev 19:20 Whoever has sex with a slave girl who is promised to a husband, but who has not been ransomed or given her freedom, they must be punished. They must not be executed, because she was not free.
Lev 19:21 A man must bring his guilt offering to Yehowah at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, a ram as a guilt offering.
Lev 19:22 Then the priest will make atonement for him with the ram for the guilt offering before Yehowah, for the sin that he has committed. Then the sin which he has committed will be forgiven.
Lev 19:23 When you come into the land and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you must regard the fruit they produce as forbidden to be eaten. The fruit must be forbidden to you for three years. It must not be eaten.
Lev 19:24 But in the fourth year, all the fruit will be set apart, an offering of praise to Yehowah!
Lev 19:25 In the fifth year, you may eat the fruit, having waited, so that the trees might produce more. I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 19:26 Do not eat any meat with blood still in it. Do not consult spirits about the future, and do not seek to control others by supernatural powers.
Lev 19:27 Do not follow pagan habits such as shaving the sides of your head or cutting off edges from your beard.
Lev 19:28 Do not cut your body for the dead or put tattoo markings on your body (Rev. 13:16-17). I am Yehowah.
Lev 19:29 Do not disgrace your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will fall to prostitution, and the land will become full of wickedness.
Lev 19:30 You must keep my Sabbaths and honor the sanctuary of my tabernacle. I am Yehowah.
Lev 19:31 Do not turn to necromancers or wizards who conjure up dead spirits, or they will defile you. I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 19:32 You must rise before the gray-headed person and honor the presence of an old man. You must fear your Divine One. I am Yehowah.
Lev 19:33 If a sojourning foreigner lives among you in your land, you must not do him any wrong.
Lev 19:34 The sojourning foreigner who lives with you must be to you like the native-born Israeli who lives among you, and you must love him as yourself, because you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 19:35 Do not use false measures when measuring length, weight, or quantity.

Lev 19:36 You must use just scales, just weights, a just dry measure, and a just liquid measure. I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Lev 19:37 You must obey all my decrees and all my laws, and do them. I am Yehowah.’”

Leviticus Chapter 20

Lev 20:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 20:2 “Say to the people of Israel, ‘Anyone among the people of Israel, or any sojourning alien who lives in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech, must certainly be executed. The people in the land must stone him with stones.
Lev 20:3 I also will set my face against that man and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given his child to Molech, so as to defile my Set-apart Place and profane my set-apart name.
Lev 20:4 If the people of the land close their eyes to that man when he gives any of his children to Molech, if they do not execute him,
Lev 20:5 then I myself will set my face against that man and his clan, and I will cut him off from among his people, and everyone else who prostitutes himself in order to play the harlot with Molech.
Lev 20:6 The person who turns to necromancers and wizards who conjure up dead spirits, so as to prostitute themselves with them, I will set my face against that person; I will cut him off from among his people.
Lev 20:7 Therefore, consecrate yourselves and be set apart, because I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 20:8 You must keep my commands and carry them out. I am Yehowah who sets you apart as pure.
Lev 20:9 Everyone who curses his father or his mother must surely be executed. He has cursed his father or his mother, so he is guilty and deserves to die.
Lev 20:10 The man who commits adultery with another man’s wife, that is, anyone who commits adultery with his neighbor’s wife, the adulterer and the adulteress must both certainly be executed.
Lev 20:11 The man who lies down with his father’s wife to have sex with her has disgraced his own father. Both the son and his father’s wife must certainly be executed. They are guilty and deserve to die.
Lev 20:12 If a man has sex with his daughter-in-law, both of them must certainly be executed. They have committed perversion. They are guilty and deserve to die.
Lev 20:13 If a man has sex with another man, as with a woman, both of them have done something detestable. They must surely be executed. They are guilty and deserve to die.
Lev 20:14 If a man marries a woman and also marries her mother, this is wickedness. They must be executed by burning, both he and the women, so that there will be no wickedness among you.
Lev 20:15 If a man has sex with an animal, he must surely be executed, and you must kill the animal.

Lev 20:16 If a woman approaches any animal to have sex with it, you must kill the woman and the animal. They must certainly be executed. They are guilty and deserve to die.
Lev 20:17 If a man has sex with his sister, either his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, if he has sex with her and she with him, it is a shameful thing. They must be cut off from the presence of their people, because he has had sex with his sister. He must carry his guilt.
Lev 20:18 If a man has sex with a woman during her menstrual period, he has uncovered the flow of her blood, the source of her blood. Both the man and woman must be cut off from among their people.
Lev 20:19 You must not have sex with your mother's sister, or with your father's sister, because you would disgrace your close relative. You must carry your own guilt.
Lev 20:20 If a man has sex with his aunt, he has dishonored his uncle. When they die, I will punish both of them, and when they die, I will take away any inheritance their children might receive from their parents.
Lev 20:21 If a man marries his brother's wife while his brother is still living, that is disgraceful. He has dishonored his brother, and I will take away from their children any property they may have inherited from their parents.
Lev 20:22 You must therefore keep all my statutes and all my decrees; you must obey them, so that the land into which I am bringing you to live will not vomit you up.
Lev 20:23 You must not walk in the customs of the ethnicities that I will drive out before you, for they have done all these things, and I detest them.
Lev 20:24 I promised you, "You will inherit their land; I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am Yehowah your Divine One, who has separated you from the people.
Lev 20:25 You must therefore distinguish between the clean animals and the unclean, and between the unclean birds and the clean. You must not defile yourselves with unclean animals or birds or with any creature that crawls along the ground, which I have separated as unclean from you.
Lev 20:26 You must be set apart, for I, Yehowah, am set apart, and I have separated you from the people, for you belong to me.
Lev 20:27 A man or a woman who is a necromancer or wizard conjuring up dead spirits must certainly be executed. The people must stone them with stones. They are guilty and deserve to die."""

Leviticus Chapter 21

Lev 21:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, ‘No one among you will make himself unclean for those who die among his people,
Lev 21:2 except for his closest relatives, his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother,
Lev 21:3 or his virgin sister who is dependent on him, since she has no husband, for her he may make himself unclean.
Lev 21:4 But he must not make himself unclean for other relatives and so defile himself, since he is a leader among his people.
Lev 21:5 Priests must not shave their heads or shave off the corners of their beards, nor cut their bodies.
Lev 21:6 They must be set apart to their Divine One and not disgrace the name of their Divine One, because the priests offer the food offerings of Yehowah made by fire, the bread of their Divine One. Therefore, the priests must be set apart.
Lev 21:7 They must not marry any woman who is a prostitute, and who is defiled, and they must not marry a woman divorced from her husband, for they are set apart for their Divine One.
Lev 21:8 You will set him apart, for he is the one who offers bread to your Divine One. He must be set apart to you, because I, Yehowah, who makes you set apart, I also am set apart.
Lev 21:9 Any daughter of any priest who defiles herself by becoming a prostitute disgraces her father. She must be executed by burning.
Lev 21:10 The one who is the high priest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured, and who has been consecrated to wear the special garments of the high priest, must not wear his hair loose or tear his clothes.
Lev 21:11 He must not go anywhere that a dead body is present and defile himself, even for his father or his mother.
Lev 21:12 The high priest must not leave the sanctuary area of the tabernacle or profane the sanctuary of his Divine One, because he has been consecrated as high priest by the anointing oil of his Divine One. I am Yehowah.
Lev 21:13 The high priest must marry a virgin as his wife.
Lev 21:14 He must not marry a widow, a divorced woman, or a woman who is a prostitute. He will not marry these kinds of women. He may only marry a virgin from his own people,
Lev 21:15 so he will not defile his children among his people, for I am Yehowah, who makes him clean.’”
Lev 21:16 Yehowah spoke to Moses,

Lev 21:17 “Speak to Aaron and tell him, ‘Whoever of your descendants throughout their generations has a bodily defect, he must not approach to offer the food to his Divine One.
Lev 21:18 Any man who has a bodily defect must not approach Yehowah, such as a blind man or a man who is unable to walk, one who is disfigured or deformed,
Lev 21:19 a man with a crippled hand or foot,
Lev 21:20 a man who has a hump in his back or is abnormally thin or short, or a man with a defect in his eyes, or with a disease, sore, scabs, or whose testicles have been crushed.
Lev 21:21 No man among the descendants of Aaron the priest with a bodily defect may come near to perform the offerings made by fire for Yehowah. Such a man has a bodily defect; he must not come near to offer the bread of his Divine One.
Lev 21:22 He may eat the food of his Divine One, whether some of the most set apart or some of the set apart.
Lev 21:23 However, he must not enter inside the curtain or come near the altar, because he has a bodily defect, so that he does not defile my sanctuary, for I am Yehowah, who makes them clean.’” Lev 21:24 So Moses spoke these words to Aaron, to his sons, and to all the people of Israel.

Leviticus Chapter 22

Lev 22:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 22:2 “Speak to Aaron and to his sons, tell them to keep away from the set-apart things of the people of Israel, which they set apart to me. They must not profane my set-apart name. I am Yehowah.
Lev 22:3 Say to them, ‘If any of your descendants throughout your generations approaches the set-apart things that the people of Israel have set apart to Yehowah, while he is unclean, that person must be cut off from before me: I am Yehowah.
Lev 22:4 None of the descendants of Aaron who is a leper, or has an infection flowing from his body, may eat any of the sacrifices made to Yehowah, until he is clean. Whoever touches anything unclean through contact with the dead, or by contact with a man who has a flow of semen,
Lev 22:5 or whoever touches any creeping animal that makes him unclean, or any person who makes him unclean, whatever kind of uncleanness it may be,
Lev 22:6 then the priest who touches anything unclean will be unclean until dusk. He must not eat any of the set-apart things, unless he has bathed his body in water.
Lev 22:7 When the sun has set, he will then be clean. After sunset, he may eat from the set-apart things, because they are his food.
Lev 22:8 He must not eat anything found dead or killed by wild animals, by which he would defile himself. I am Yehowah.
Lev 22:9 The priests must follow my instructions, or they will be guilty of sin and could die for profaning me. I am Yehowah who makes them clean.
Lev 22:10 No one outside the priest’s family, including resident alien guests of a priest or his hired servants, may eat anything that is set apart.
Lev 22:11 But if a priest buys any slave with his own money, that slave may eat from the things set apart to Yehowah. The priest’s family members and slaves born in his household, they also may eat with him from those things.
Lev 22:12 If a priest’s daughter married a foreign man, she may not eat any of the set apart contribution offerings.
Lev 22:13 But if a priest’s daughter is a widow, or divorced, and if she has no child, and if she returns to live in her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat from her father’s food. But no one who is a foreigner may eat from the priest’s food.
Lev 22:14 If a man eats a set-apart food without knowing it, then he must repay the priest for it; he must add one-fifth to it and give it back to the priest.
Lev 22:15 The people of Israel must not dishonor the set-apart things that they have raised high and presented to Yehowah,

Lev 22:16 and cause themselves to carry the sin that would make them guilty of eating the set-apart food, for I am Yehowah who makes them set apart.'"
Lev 22:17 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 22:18 "Speak to Aaron and his sons, and to all the people of Israel, 'Any Israeli, or a sojourning alien living in Israel, when they present a sacrifice, whether it is to fulfill a vow, or whether it is a freewill offering, or they present to Yehowah a burnt offering,
Lev 22:19 if it is to be accepted, they must offer a male animal without blemish from the cattle, sheep, or goats.
Lev 22:20 But you must not offer whatever has a blemish. I will not accept it on your behalf.
Lev 22:21 Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings from the herd or the flock to Yehowah to fulfill a vow, or as a freewill offering, it must be unblemished to be accepted. There must be no defect in the animal.
Lev 22:22 You must not offer animals that are blind, disabled, or maimed, or that have warts, sores, or scabs. You must not offer these to Yehowah as a sacrifice by fire on the altar.
Lev 22:23 You may present as a freewill offering an ox or a lamb that is deformed or maimed, but an offering like that will not be accepted for a vow.
Lev 22:24 Do not offer any animal to Yehowah that has bruised, crushed, torn, or cut testicles. Do not do this within your land.
Lev 22:25 You must not present the food of your Divine One from the hand of a foreigner. Those animals are deformed and have defects in them, they will not be accepted for you.'"
Lev 22:26 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 22:27 "When a calf or a sheep or a goat is born, it must remain seven days with its mother. Then from the eighth day on, it may be accepted as a sacrifice for an offering made by fire to Yehowah.
Lev 22:28 Do not kill a cow or ewe along with its young, both on the same day.
Lev 22:29 When you sacrifice a thank offering to Yehowah, you must sacrifice it in an acceptable way.
Lev 22:30 It must be eaten on the same day that it is sacrificed. You must leave none of it until dawn. I am Yehowah.
Lev 22:31 So you must keep my commandments and carry them out. I am Yehowah.
Lev 22:32 You must not dishonor my set-apart name. I must be acknowledged as set apart by the people of Israel. I am Yehowah who makes you set apart,
Lev 22:33 who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your Divine One: I am Yehowah."

Leviticus Chapter 23

Lev 23:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 23:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘These are the appointment calendar festivals of Yehowah, which you must proclaim as set-apart assemblies; they are my appointment calendar festivals.
Lev 23:3 You may work for six days, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, a set-apart assembly. You must do no work, because it is a Sabbath for Yehowah in all the places where you live.
Lev 23:4 These are the appointment calendar festivals of Yehowah, the set-apart assemblies that you must announce at their appointed times:
Lev 23:5 At dusk on the fourteenth of the first month, is the Passover of Yehowah.
Lev 23:6 On the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread for Yehowah. For seven days you must eat unleavened bread.
Lev 23:7 The first day (Abib 15) you must set apart to gather together; you will not do any of your regular work.
Lev 23:8 You will present a food offering to Yehowah for seven days. The seventh day (Abib 21) is an assembly set apart to Yehowah, and on that day you must not do any regular work.’”
Lev 23:9 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 23:10 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When you have come into the land that I will give you, and when you reap its (barley) harvest, then you must bring a sheaf (omer; approx. 2.2 liters) of its firstfruits to the priest.
Lev 23:11 He will raise the sheaf before Yehowah and present it to him, for it to be accepted on your behalf. It is on the day after the Sabbath (Omer day 1, Day of Firstfruits) that the priest will raise it and present it to me.
Lev 23:12 On the day (Omer day 1) when you raise the sheaf and present it to me, you must offer a male lamb one year old and without blemish as a burnt offering to Yehowah.
Lev 23:13 The grain offering must be 4.5 liters of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to Yehowah, to produce a sweet aroma, and with it a drink offering of 1.5 liters of wine.
Lev 23:14 You must eat no bread, nor roasted or fresh grain, until the same day (Omer day 1) you have brought this offering to your Divine One. This will be a permanent statute throughout your people’s generations, in every place that you live.
Lev 23:15 Beginning from the day after the Sabbath, that was the day (Omer day 1; Mat. 28:1) you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, count seven entire Sabbaths.

Lev 23:16 You must count fifty days, which would be the day after the seventh Sabbath (Omer day 50, Shavuot, Pentecost). Then you must present an offering of new grain (wheat) to Yehowah (Deut. 26).
Lev 23:17 You must bring out of your houses two loaves of wheat bread made from 4.5 liters of fine flour and baked with yeast; they will be a wave offering of the firstfruits to Yehowah (Exo. 34:22).
Lev 23:18 You must present with the bread seven lambs one year old and without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They must be a burnt offering to Yehowah, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire and producing a sweet aroma for Yehowah.
Lev 23:19 You must offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old for a sacrifice, as peace offerings.
Lev 23:20 The priest must wave them together with the bread of the firstfruits before Yehowah, and present them to him as an offering with the two lambs. They will be set-apart offerings to Yehowah for the priest.
Lev 23:21 You must make a proclamation on that same day (Omer day 50, Shavuot): There will be a set-apart assembly, and you must do no ordinary work. This will be a permanent statute throughout your people's generations in all the places where you live.
Lev 23:22 When you reap the harvest of your land, you must not completely reap the corners of your fields, and you must not gather the gleanings of your harvest. You must leave them for the poor and for the sojourning foreigner. I am Yehowah your Divine One.'"
Lev 23:23 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 23:24 "Speak to the people of Israel, 'The first of the seventh month will be a Sabbath observance for you, a memorial blowing (of trumpets; Feast of Trumpets; Exo. 19:18-19; Mat. 24:31; Mal. 3:16), and a set-apart assembly.
Lev 23:25 You must do no ordinary work, and you must offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yehowah.'"
Lev 23:26 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 23:27 "Now the tenth of this seventh month is the Day of Atonements. It is to be a set-apart assembly, and you must deny yourselves and present to Yehowah an offering by fire (Luke 18:10-14; 22:41-42).
Lev 23:28 You must do no work on that day, because it is the Day of Atonements, to make atonement for yourselves before Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 23:29 Whoever does not humble himself on that day must be cut off from his people.
Lev 23:30 Whoever does any work on that day, I, Yehowah, will destroy him from among his people.
Lev 23:31 You must do no work of any kind. This will be a permanent statute throughout your people's generations in all the places where you live.

Lev 23:32 This must be to you a Sabbath, a Sabbath observance, and you must deny yourselves the ninth of the month at dusk (Luke 18:10-14; 22:41-42). From dusk to dusk you are to completely rest on your Sabbath" (Isa. 58).
Lev 23:33 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 23:34 "Speak to the people of Israel, 'On the fifteenth day of the seventh month will be the Feast of Tabernacles for Yehowah. It will last seven days.
Lev 23:35 On the first day there must be a set-apart assembly. You must do no ordinary work.
Lev 23:36 For seven days you must offer a sacrifice made by fire to Yehowah. On the eighth day there must be a set-apart assembly (8th day assembly; Shemini Atzeret), and you must make a sacrifice offered with fire to Yehowah. This is a festive assembly, and you must not do any ordinary work.
Lev 23:37 These are the appointment calendar festivals of Yehowah, which you must proclaim as set-apart assemblies to offer sacrifice by fire to Yehowah, a burnt offering and a grain offering, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its own day.
Lev 23:38 These festivals will be in addition to the Sabbaths of Yehowah and your gifts, all your vows, and all your freewill offerings that you give to Yehowah.
Lev 23:39 Regarding the Festival of Tabernacles, on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you must keep this Feast of Yehowah for seven days. The first day will be a Sabbath observance, and the eighth day will also be a Sabbath observance.
Lev 23:40 On the first day, you must take the best fruit from the trees, branches of palm trees, and leafy branches of thick trees, and willows from streams, and you will rejoice before Yehowah your Divine One for seven days.
Lev 23:41 For seven days each year, you must celebrate this feast with Yehowah. This will be a permanent statute throughout your people's generations in all the places where you live. You must celebrate this feast in the seventh month.
Lev 23:42 You must live in temporary shelters for seven days. All native-born Israelis must live in temporary shelters,
Lev 23:43 so that your descendants, generation after generation, may learn how I made the people of Israel live in temporary shelters when I led them out of the land of Egypt. I am Yehowah your Divine One.'"
Lev 23:44 In this way, Moses announced to the people of Israel the appointment calendar festivals of Yehowah.

Leviticus Chapter 24

Lev 24:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 24:2 “Command the people of Israel to bring you pure oil pressed from olives to be used in the lamp, that the light may burn continually.
Lev 24:3 Outside the curtain before the covenant decrees in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron must continually, from dusk to dawn, keep the lamp lit before Yehowah. This will be a permanent statute throughout your people’s generations.
Lev 24:4 The high priest must always keep the lamps lit before Yehowah, the lamps on the menorah of pure gold.
Lev 24:5 You must take fine flour and bake twelve loaves with it. There must be 4.5 liters in each loaf.
Lev 24:6 Then you must set them in two rows, six in a row, on the table of pure gold before Yehowah.
Lev 24:7 You must put pure incense along each row of loaves as a memorial offering. This incense will be burnt for Yehowah.
Lev 24:8 Every Sabbath the high priest must regularly set out the bread before Yehowah on behalf of the people of Israel, as a sign of an everlasting covenant.
Lev 24:9 This offering will be for Aaron and his sons, and they are to eat it in a place that is set apart, for it is a portion from the offerings to Yehowah made by fire, an everlasting commandment.”
Lev 24:10 Now it happened that the son of an Israeli woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went among the people of Israel. This son of the Israeli woman fought against an Israeli man in the camp.
Lev 24:11 The son of the Israeli woman blasphemed the name of Yehowah with a curse, so the people brought him to Moses. His mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, from the tribe of Dan.
Lev 24:12 They held him in custody, until Yehowah himself should declare his will to them.
Lev 24:13 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 24:14 “Take the man who has cursed Yehowah outside the camp. All who heard him must lay their hands on his head, and then the entire congregation must execute him by stoning.
Lev 24:15 You must explain to the people of Israel, ‘Whoever curses his Divine One must carry his own guilt.
Lev 24:16 He who blasphemes the name of Yehowah must surely be executed. All the congregation must certainly stone him, whether he is a sojourning foreigner or a native-born Israeli. If anyone blasphemes the Name, he must be executed.
Lev 24:17 If anyone murders another human, he must certainly be executed.

Lev 24:18 If anyone strikes down someone's animal, he must pay it back, life for life.
Lev 24:19 If anyone injures his neighbor, it must be done to him as he did to his neighbor:
Lev 24:20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has caused an injury to a person, so must it also be done to him.
Lev 24:21 Anyone who kills an animal must pay it back, and anyone who murders a human must be executed.
Lev 24:22 You must have the same law for both the sojourning foreigner and the native-born Israeli, for I am Yehowah your Divine One.'"
Lev 24:23 So Moses spoke to the people of Israel, and the people brought the man outside the camp, the one who had cursed Yehowah. They stoned him with stones. The people of Israel carried out the command of Yehowah to Moses.

Leviticus Chapter 25

Lev 25:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai,
Lev 25:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When you come into the land that I give you, then the land must be made to keep a Sabbath for Yehowah.
Lev 25:3 You must plant your field for six years, and for six years you must prune your vineyard and gather the produce.
Lev 25:4 But in the seventh year a Sabbath, a sabbatical for the land, must be observed, a Sabbath for Yehowah. You must not plant your field or prune your vineyard.
Lev 25:5 You must not conduct an organized harvest of whatever grows by itself, and you must not conduct an organized harvest of whatever grapes grow on your unpruned vines. This will be a year of a sabbatical for the land.
Lev 25:6 Whatever the unworked land grows during the Sabbath year will be food for you. You, your male and female servants, your hired servants, and the sojourning foreigners residing with you may gather food,
Lev 25:7 and your livestock and also wild animals may eat whatever the land produces.
Lev 25:8 You must count off seven Sabbaths of years, that is, seven times seven years, so that there will be seven Sabbaths of years, totaling forty-nine years (Gen. 6:3; Dan. 9:24; Mat. 24:34).
Lev 25:9 Then you must blow a loud trumpet everywhere on the tenth of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonements, you must blow a trumpet throughout all your land.
Lev 25:10 You must set apart the fiftieth year to Yehowah and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It will be a Jubilee for you, in which property and slaves must be returned to their families.
Lev 25:11 The fiftieth year will be a Jubilee for you. You must not plant or conduct an organized harvest. Eat whatever grows by itself, and gather the grapes that grow on the unpruned vines.
Lev 25:12 For it is a Jubilee, which will be set apart for you. You must eat the produce that grows by itself out of the field.
Lev 25:13 You must return everyone to his own property in this year of Jubilee.
Lev 25:14 If you sell any land to your neighbor or buy any land from your neighbor, you must not cheat or wrong each other.
Lev 25:15 If you buy land from your neighbor, consider the number of years and crops that can be harvested until the next Jubilee. Your neighbor selling the land must consider that also.
Lev 25:16 A larger number of years until the next Jubilee will increase the value of land, and a smaller number of years until the next Jubilee will decrease the value, because the number of harvests the land will produce for the new owner is related to the number of years before the next Jubilee.

Lev 25:17 You must not cheat or wrong one another; instead, you must honor your Divine One, for I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 25:18 Therefore, you must obey my decrees, keep my laws, and carry them out. Then you will live in the land in safety.
Lev 25:19 The land will yield its produce, and you will eat your fill and live there in safety.
Lev 25:20 You might ask, “What will we eat during the seventh year? Look, we cannot plant or gather our produce.”
Lev 25:21 I will command my blessing to come upon you in the sixth year, and it will produce harvest enough for three years.
Lev 25:22 You will plant in the eighth year and continue to eat from the previous years’ produce and the stored food. Until the harvest of the ninth year comes in, you will be able to eat from the provisions stored in the previous years.
Lev 25:23 The land must not be sold to a new permanent owner, because the land is mine. You are all sojourning foreigners and resident aliens on my land.
Lev 25:24 You must observe the right of redemption for all the land that you acquire; you must allow the land to be bought back by the family from whom you bought it.
Lev 25:25 If your fellow Israeli became poor and for that reason sold some of his property, then his nearest relative may come and buy back the property that he sold to you.
Lev 25:26 If a man has no relative to redeem his property, but if he has prospered and has the ability to redeem it,
Lev 25:27 then he may calculate the years since the land was sold and repay the balance to the man to whom he sold it. Then he may return to his own property.
Lev 25:28 But if he is not able to get the land back for himself, then the land he has sold will remain in the ownership of the one who bought it, until the year of Jubilee. At the year of Jubilee, the land will be returned to the man who sold it, and the original owner will return to his property.
Lev 25:29 If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may buy it back within a whole year after it was sold. For a full year he will have the right of redemption.
Lev 25:30 If the house is not redeemed within a full year, then the house in the walled city will become the permanent property of the man who bought it, throughout his descendants’ generations. That house is not to be returned in the year of Jubilee.
Lev 25:31 But the houses of the villages that have no wall around them will be considered as the field of the land. They may be redeemed, and they must be returned during the year of Jubilee.

Lev 25:32 However, the houses owned by the Levites in their cities may be redeemed at any time.
Lev 25:33 If one of the Levites does not redeem a house he sold, then the house that was sold in the city where it is located must be returned in the year of Jubilee, for the houses in the cities of the Levites are their property among the people of Israel.
Lev 25:34 But the fields around their cities may not be sold, because they are the permanent property of the Levites.
Lev 25:35 If your fellow countryman becomes poor, so that he can no longer provide for himself, then you must help him as you would help a sojourning foreigner or resident alien living among you.
Lev 25:36 Do not charge him interest or try to profit from him in any way, but honor your Divine One, so that your brother may keep living with you.
Lev 25:37 You must not give him a loan of money and charge interest nor sell him your food to earn a profit.
Lev 25:38 I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, in order that I might give you the land of Canaan, and that I might be your Divine One.
Lev 25:39 If your fellow countryman has become poor and sells himself to you, you must not make him work like a slave.
Lev 25:40 Treat him as a hired servant or a resident alien. He will serve with you until the year of Jubilee.
Lev 25:41 Then he will go away from you, he and his children with him, and he will return to his own family and to his fathers' property.
Lev 25:42 For they are my servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. They will not be sold as slaves.
Lev 25:43 You must not rule over them harshly, but you must honor your Divine One.
Lev 25:44 As for your male and female slaves, whom you can obtain from the ethnicities who live around you, you may buy slaves from them.
Lev 25:45 You may also buy slaves from the sojourning foreigners resident among you, that is, from their families who are with you, children who have been born in your land. They may become your property.
Lev 25:46 You may provide such slaves as an inheritance for your children after you, to hold as property. From them you may always buy your slaves, but you must not rule over your brothers among the people of Israel with harshness.
Lev 25:47 If a handy sojourning foreigner or resident alien has become wealthy, and if one of your fellow Israelis has become poor and sells himself to that foreigner, or to someone in a foreigner's family,
Lev 25:48 after your fellow Israeli has been bought, he may be bought back. Someone in his family may redeem him.

Lev 25:49 It might be the person's uncle, or his uncle's son, who redeems him, or anyone who is his close relative from his family. Or, if he has become prosperous, he may redeem himself.
Lev 25:50 He must bargain with the man who bought him; they must count the years from the year he sold himself to his purchaser until the year of Jubilee. The price of his redemption must be figured in keeping with the rate paid to a hired servant, for the number of years he might continue to work for the one who bought him.
Lev 25:51 If there are still many years until the year of Jubilee, he must pay back as the price for his redemption an amount of money that is in proportion to the number of those years.
Lev 25:52 If there are only a few years to the year of Jubilee, then he must bargain with his purchaser to reflect the number of years left before the year of Jubilee, and he must pay for his redemption in keeping with the number of years.
Lev 25:53 He is to be treated like a man hired year by year. You must make sure he is not treated with harshness.
Lev 25:54 If he is not redeemed by these means, then he must serve until the year of Jubilee, he and his children with him.
Lev 25:55 To me the people of Israel are servants. They are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am Yehowah your Divine One.'"

Leviticus Chapter 26

Lev 26:1 “You must make no idols, neither are you to raise up a carved figure or a memorial stone pillar, and you must not place any carved stone image in your land to which you bow down, for I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Lev 26:2 You must keep my Sabbaths and honor my sanctuary. I am Yehowah.
Lev 26:3 If you walk in my laws and guard my commandments so as to do them,
Lev 26:4 then I will give you rain in its season; the land will yield its produce, and the trees of the field will yield their fruit.
Lev 26:5 Your threshing will continue to the time of the grape harvest, and the grape harvest will extend to the planting season. You will eat your bread to the full and live safely where you make your home in the land.
Lev 26:6 I will give peace in the land; you will lie down with nothing to make you afraid. I will take the dangerous animals away from the land, and the sword will not pass through your land.
Lev 26:7 You will chase your enemies, and they will fall before you by the sword.
Lev 26:8 Five of you will chase away a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand; your enemies will fall before you by the sword.
Lev 26:9 I will look at you with grace, make you fruitful, and multiply you; I will establish my covenant with you.
Lev 26:10 You will eat food stored a long time. You will have to bring out the stored food, because you will need the room for the new harvest.
Lev 26:11 I will place my tabernacle among you, and I will not detest you.
Lev 26:12 I will walk among you and be your Divine One, and you will be my people.
Lev 26:13 I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you would not be their slaves. I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you to walk standing up straight.
Lev 26:14 But if you will not listen to me and will not obey all these commandments,
Lev 26:15 and if you reject my decrees and detest my laws, so that you will not obey all my commandments but break my covenant,
Lev 26:16 if you do these things, then I will do this to you: I will inflict terror on you, diseases and fever that will destroy the eyes and will drain away your life. You will plant your seeds for nothing, because your enemies will eat their produce.
Lev 26:17 I will set my face against you, and you will be overpowered by your enemies. Men who hate you will rule over you, and you will run away, even when no one is chasing you.

Lev 26:18 If you do not listen to my commands, then I will punish you seven times as severely for your sins.
Lev 26:19 I will break your pride in your power. I will make the sky over you like iron and your land like bronze.
Lev 26:20 Your strength will be used up for nothing, because your land will not produce its harvest, and your trees in the land will not produce their fruit.
Lev 26:21 If you walk against me and will not listen to me, I will bring seven times more blows on you, in proportion to your sins.
Lev 26:22 I will send dangerous animals against you, which will steal your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number. So your roads will become deserted.
Lev 26:23 If in spite of these things you still do not accept my correction, and you continue to walk in opposition to me,
Lev 26:24 then I will also walk in opposition to you, and I myself will punish you seven times because of your sins.
Lev 26:25 I will bring a sword on you that will execute vengeance for breaking the covenant. You will be gathered together inside your cities, and I will send a disease among you there, and then you will be delivered into the hand of your enemy.
Lev 26:26 When I cut off your food supply, ten women will be able to bake your bread in one oven, and they will distribute your bread by weight. You will eat but not be satisfied.
Lev 26:27 If you do not listen to me despite these things but continue to walk against me,
Lev 26:28 then I will walk against you in anger, and I will punish you even seven more times as much for your sins.
Lev 26:29 You will eat the flesh of your sons; you will eat the flesh of your daughters.
Lev 26:30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your sun-pillars, and throw your corpses on the corpses of your idols, and I myself will abhor you.
Lev 26:31 I will turn your cities into ruins and destroy your sanctuaries. I will not be pleased with the aroma of your offerings.
Lev 26:32 I will devastate the land. Your enemies who will live there will be shocked at the devastation.
Lev 26:33 I will scatter you among the ethnicities, and I will draw out my sword and follow you. Your land will be abandoned, and your cities will be ruined.
Lev 26:34 Then the land will enjoy its Sabbaths for as long as it lies abandoned, and you are in your enemies' lands. During that time, the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.
Lev 26:35 As long as it lies abandoned, it will have rest, which will be the rest that it did not have with your Sabbaths, when you lived in it.

Lev 26:36 As for those of you who are left in your enemies' lands, I will send fear into your hearts, so that even the sound of a leaf blowing in the wind will startle you, and you will flee as though you were fleeing from the sword. You will fall, even when no one is chasing you.
Lev 26:37 You will stumble over each other as though you were running from the sword, even though no one is chasing you. You will have no power to stand before your enemies.
Lev 26:38 You will perish among the ethnicities, and your enemies' land will itself devour you.
Lev 26:39 Those who are left among you will waste away in their sins, there in your enemies' lands, and because of their fathers' sins, they will waste away as well.
Lev 26:40 Yet, if they confess their sins and their fathers' sin, and their treason by which they were unfaithful to me, and also their walking against me,
Lev 26:41 which caused me to turn against them, and I brought them into the land of their enemies, if their uncircumcised hearts become humbled, and if they accept the punishment for their sins,
Lev 26:42 then will I call to mind my covenant with Jacob, my covenant with Isaac, and my covenant with Abraham; also, I will call the land to mind.
Lev 26:43 The land will be abandoned by them, so it will be pleased with its Sabbaths, while it lies abandoned without them. They will have to pay the penalty for their sins, because they themselves rejected my decrees and detested my laws.
Lev 26:44 Yet despite all this, when they are in their enemies' land, I will not reject them, neither will I detest them, so as to completely destroy them and do away with my covenant with them, for I am Yehowah their Divine One.
Lev 26:45 But for their sakes, I will call to mind the covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the ethnicities, so that I might be their Divine One. I am Yehowah."
Lev 26:46 These are the commandments, decrees, and laws that Yehowah made between himself and the people of Israel at Mount Sinai through Moses.

Leviticus Chapter 27

Lev 27:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Lev 27:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘If anyone makes a special vow to Yehowah, use the following valuations.
Lev 27:3 Your standard value for a male from twenty to sixty years old must be 50-weight silver-currency, after the weight of the sanctuary (11.5 grams per weight).
Lev 27:4 For a female of the same ages your standard value must be 30-weight.
Lev 27:5 From five years to twenty years old your standard value for a male must be 20-weight and for the female 10-weight.
Lev 27:6 From one month old to five years your standard value for a male must be 5-weight silver-currency and for a female 3-weight silver-currency.
Lev 27:7 From sixty years old and up for a male your standard value must be 15-weight and for a female 10-weight.
Lev 27:8 But if the person making the vow cannot pay the standard value, then the person being given must be presented to the priest, and the priest will value that person by the amount the one making the vow is able to afford.
Lev 27:9 If someone wants to sacrifice an animal to Yehowah, and if Yehowah accepts it, then that animal will be set apart to him.
Lev 27:10 The person must not alter or change such an animal, a good one for a bad one or a bad for a good. If he does at all change one animal for another, then both it and the one for which it is exchanged become set apart.
Lev 27:11 However, if what the person has vowed to give Yehowah is in fact unclean, so that Yehowah will not accept it, then the person must bring the animal to a priest.
Lev 27:12 The priest will value it by the market value of the animal. Whatever value the priest places on the animal, that will be its value.
Lev 27:13 If the owner wishes to redeem it, then a fifth of its value is to be added to its redemption price.
Lev 27:14 When a man sets apart his house as a set-apart gift to Yehowah, then the priest will set its value as either good or bad. Whatever the priest values it, so it will be.
Lev 27:15 But if the owner who set apart his home wishes to redeem it, he must add a fifth of its value to its redemption price, and it will belong to him.
Lev 27:16 If a man sets apart some of his own land, then the valuation of it will be in proportion to the amount of seed required to plant it, 50-weight silver-currency for each 220 liters of barley seed.
Lev 27:17 If he sets apart his field during the year of Jubilee, the valuation of it will stand.

Lev 27:18 But if he sets apart his field after the year of Jubilee, then the priest must calculate the value of the field by the number of years that remain until the next year of Jubilee, and the valuation of it must be reduced.
Lev 27:19 If the man who set apart the field wishes to redeem it, then he must add a fifth to the valuation, and it will belong to him.
Lev 27:20 If he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it cannot be redeemed any more.
Lev 27:21 Instead, the field, when it is released in the year of Jubilee, will be a set-apart gift to Yehowah, like the field that has been completely given to Yehowah. It will belong to the priest.
Lev 27:22 If a man sets apart a field that he has bought, but that field is not part of his family's land,
Lev 27:23 then the priest will figure the valuation of it up to the year of Jubilee, and the man must pay its value on that day as a set-apart gift to Yehowah.
Lev 27:24 In the year of Jubilee, the field will return to the man from whom it was bought, to the land's owner.
Lev 27:25 All the valuations must be set by the weight of the sanctuary scales (1 weight = 11.5 grams; Prov. 11:1). Twenty small weights must be the equivalent of one weight.
Lev 27:26 No one may set apart the firstborn among animals, since the firstborn is already for Yehowah; whether ox or sheep, it belongs to Yehowah.
Lev 27:27 If it is an unclean animal, then the owner may buy it back at the valuation of it, and a fifth must be added to that value. If the animal is not redeemed, then it is to be sold at the set value.
Lev 27:28 But nothing that a man devotes to Yehowah, from all that he has, whether human or animal, or his family land, may be sold or redeemed. Everything that is devoted is very set apart to Yehowah.
Lev 27:29 No ransom may be paid for the person who is devoted for destruction. That person must be executed.
Lev 27:30 All the tithe of the land, whether grain grown on the land or fruit from the trees, belongs to Yehowah. It is set apart to Yehowah.
Lev 27:31 If a man redeems any of his tithe, he must add a fifth to its value.
Lev 27:32 As for every tenth of the herd or the flock, whatever passes under the shepherd's trekking pole, one-tenth must be set apart to Yehowah.
Lev 27:33 The shepherd must not search for the better or the worse animals, and he must not substitute one for another. If he changes it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed will be set apart. It cannot be redeemed.'"
Lev 27:34 These are the commandments that Yehowah gave at Mount Sinai to Moses for the people of Israel.

Book of Numbers

Numbers Chapter 1

Num 1:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting in the Sinai wilderness. This happened on the first of the second month during the second year (c. 1649 BC), after the people of Israel had come out from the land of Egypt. He ordered,
Num 1:2 “Conduct a census of all the men of Israel in each clan, in their fathers’ families. Count them by name. Count every male, each man
Num 1:3 who is twenty years old or older. Count all who can fight as soldiers for Israel. You and Aaron must record the number of men in their armed forces.
Num 1:4 A man from each tribe, a clan head, must serve with you as his tribe’s leader. Each leader must lead the men who will fight for his tribe.
Num 1:5 These are the names of the leaders who must fight with you: from the tribe of Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur;
Num 1:6 from the tribe of Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;
Num 1:7 from the tribe of Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab;
Num 1:8 from the tribe of Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar;
Num 1:9 from the tribe of Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon;
Num 1:10 from the tribe of Ephraim son of Joseph, Elishama son of Ammihud; from the tribe of Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;
Num 1:11 from the tribe of Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni;
Num 1:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;
Num 1:13 from the tribe of Asher, Pagiel son of Ochran;
Num 1:14 from the tribe of Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel;
Num 1:15 and from the tribe of Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan.”
Num 1:16 These were the men appointed from the people. They led their ancestors’ tribes. They were the leaders of the clans in Israel.
Num 1:17 Moses and Aaron took these men, who were recorded by name,
Num 1:18 and along with these men they assembled all the men of Israel on the first of the second month. Then each man twenty years old and older identified his ancestry. He had to name the clans and families descended from his ancestors.
Num 1:19 Then Moses recorded their numbers in the wilderness of Sinai, as Yehowah had commanded him to do.
Num 1:20 From the descendants of Reuben, Israel’s firstborn, were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the genealogical records of their ancestor’s clans and families.
Num 1:21 They counted 46,500 men from the tribe of Reuben.

Num 1:22 From the descendants of Simeon were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:23 They counted 59,300 men from the tribe of Simeon.
Num 1:24 From the descendants of Gad were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:25 They counted 45,650 men from the tribe of Gad.
Num 1:26 From the descendants of Judah were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:27 They counted 74,600 men from the tribe of Judah.
Num 1:28 From the descendants of Issachar were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:29 They counted 54,400 men from the tribe of Issachar.
Num 1:30 From the descendants of Zebulun were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:31 They counted 57,400 men from the tribe of Zebulun.
Num 1:32 From the descendants of Ephraim son of Joseph were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:33 They counted 40,500 men from the tribe of Ephraim.
Num 1:34 From the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:35 They counted 32,200 men from the tribe of Manasseh.
Num 1:36 From the descendants of Benjamin were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:37 They counted 35,400 men from the tribe of Benjamin.
Num 1:38 From the descendants of Dan were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:39 They counted 62,700 from the tribe of Dan.
Num 1:40 From the descendants of Asher were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:41 They counted 41,500 men from the tribe of Asher.

Num 1:42 From the descendants of Naphtali were counted all the names of each and every man twenty years old or older able to go to war, from the records of their ancestor's clans and families.
Num 1:43 They counted 53,400 from the tribe of Naphtali.
Num 1:44 Moses and Aaron counted all these men, together with the twelve men who were leading the twelve tribes of Israel.
Num 1:45 So all the men of Israel from twenty years old and older, all who could fight in war, were counted in each of their families.
Num 1:46 They counted 603,550 men.
Num 1:47 But the men who were descended from Levi were not counted,
Num 1:48 because Yehowah had ordered Moses,
Num 1:49 "You must not count the tribe of Levi or include them in the total of the people of Israel.
Num 1:50 Instead, assign the Levites to care for the tabernacle of the covenant decrees, and to care for all the furnishings in the tabernacle and for everything in it. The Levites must carry the tabernacle, and they must carry the tabernacle's furnishings. They must care for the tabernacle and make their camp around it.
Num 1:51 When the tabernacle is to move to another place, the Levites must take it down. When the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites must set it up. Any foreigner who comes near the tabernacle must be executed.
Num 1:52 When the people of Israel set up their tents, each man must do so near the banner that belongs to his armed force.
Num 1:53 However, the Levites must set up their tents around the tabernacle of the covenant decrees, so that my anger does not come upon the people of Israel. The Levites must care for the tabernacle of the covenant decrees."
Num 1:54 The people of Israel did all these things. They did everything that Yehowah commanded through Moses.

Numbers Chapter 2

Num 2:1 Yehowah spoke again to Moses and Aaron,
Num 2:2 “Each one of the Israelis must camp around his standard, with the banners of their fathers’ households. They will camp around the Tent of Meeting on every side.
Num 2:3 Those will be camping on the east of the Tent of Meeting, where the sun rises, they are the camp of Judah, and they are camping under their standard, by their armed forces. Nahshon son of Amminadab is the leader of the people of Judah.
Num 2:4 His armed force, the number of the people of Judah totaled 74,600.
Num 2:5 The tribe of Issachar must camp next to Judah. Nethanel son of Zuar must lead the military force of Issachar.
Num 2:6 The number in his military division totaled 54,400 men.
Num 2:7 The tribe of Zebulun must camp next to Issachar. Eliab son of Helon must lead the military force of Zebulun.
Num 2:8 The number in his military division totaled 57,400.
Num 2:9 All the number of the camp of Judah totaled 186,400, by their armed forces. They will set out first.
Num 2:10 On the south side will be the camp of Reuben under their standard, by their armed forces. The leader of the camp of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur.
Num 2:11 The number in his military division totaled 46,500.
Num 2:12 Simeon is camping next to Reuben. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.
Num 2:13 Those numbered in his military division totaled 59,300.
Num 2:14 The tribe of Gad is next. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Reuel.
Num 2:15 The number in his military division totaled 45,650.
Num 2:16 All those numbered in the camp of Reuben, according to their military divisions, totaled 151,450. They will set out second.
Num 2:17 Next, the Tent of Meeting must go out from the camp with the Levites in the middle of all the camps. They must go out from the camp in the same order as they come into the camp. Every man must be in his place, by his banner.
Num 2:18 The military divisions of the camp of Ephraim under their standard. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud.
Num 2:19 The number in his military division totaled 40,500.
Num 2:20 Next to them is the tribe of Manasseh. The leader of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.
Num 2:21 The number in his military division totaled 32,200.

Num 2:22 Next will be the tribe of Benjamin. The leader of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni.
Num 2:23 The number in his military division totaled 35,400.
Num 2:24 All those numbered in the camp of Ephraim totaled 108,100, by their armed forces. They will set out third.
Num 2:25 On the north will be the military divisions of the camp of Dan. The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.
Num 2:26 The number in his military division totaled 62,700.
Num 2:27 The people of the tribe of Asher camp next to Dan. The leader of Asher is Pagiel son of Ochran.
Num 2:28 The number in his military division totaled 41,500.
Num 2:29 The tribe of Naphtali is next. The leader of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.
Num 2:30 The number in his military division totaled 53,400.
Num 2:31 All those numbered in the camp with Dan totaled 157,600. They will go out from the camp last, under their banner.”
Num 2:32 These are the Israelis, numbered according to their families. All those counted in their camps, by their military divisions, are 603,550.
Num 2:33 But Moses and Aaron did not count the Levites among the people of Israel. This was as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Num 2:34 The people of Israel did everything that Yehowah commanded Moses. They camped by their banners. They went out from the camp by their clans, in the order of their ancestor’s families.

Numbers Chapter 3

Num 3:1 Now this is the history of the descendants of Aaron and Moses, when Yehowah spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.
Num 3:2 The names of Aaron's sons were Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
Num 3:3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, and who were ordained to serve as priests.
Num 3:4 But Nadab and Abihu fell dead before Yehowah, when they offered to him unacceptable fire in the wilderness of Sinai. Nadab and Abihu had no children, so just Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests with Aaron their father.
Num 3:5 Yehowah commanded Moses,
Num 3:6 "Bring the tribe of Levi and present them to Aaron the priest for them to help him.
Num 3:7 They must perform the duties on behalf of Aaron and the whole congregation before the Tent of Meeting. They must serve in the tabernacle.
Num 3:8 They must care for all the furnishings in the Tent of Meeting, and they must help the tribes of Israel to carry out the tabernacle service.
Num 3:9 You must give the Levites to Aaron and his sons. They are wholly given to help him serve the people of Israel.
Num 3:10 You must appoint Aaron and his sons as priests, but any foreigner who comes near must be executed."
Num 3:11 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 3:12 "Look, I have taken the Levites from among the people of Israel. I have done this instead of taking each firstborn male who is born among the people of Israel. The Levites belong to me.
Num 3:13 All the firstborn belong to me. On the day that I attacked all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I set apart for myself all the firstborn in Israel, both people and animals. They belong to me. I am Yehowah."
Num 3:14 Yehowah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai,
Num 3:15 "Count the descendants of Levi in each family, in their ancestor's houses. Count every male who is one month old and older."
Num 3:16 Moses counted them, following the Word of Yehowah, just as he was commanded to do.
Num 3:17 The names of Levi's sons were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
Num 3:18 The clans coming from Gershon's sons were Libni and Shimei.
Num 3:19 The clans coming from Kohath's sons were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
Num 3:20 The clans coming from Merari's sons were Mahli and Mushi. These are the clans of the Levites, listed clan by clan.

Num 3:21 The clans of the Libnites and the Shimeites come from Gershon. These are the clans of the Gershonites.
Num 3:22 All the males from a month old and older were counted, totaling 7,500.
Num 3:23 The clans of the Gershonites must camp on the west side of the tabernacle.
Num 3:24 Eliasaph son of Lael must lead the clans of the descendants of the Gershonites.
Num 3:25 The family of Gershon must care for the Tent of Meeting including the tabernacle. They must care for the tent, its covering, and the curtain used as the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Num 3:26 They must care for the courtyard hangings, the curtain at the courtyard entrance, the courtyard that surrounds the sanctuary and the altar. They must care for the ropes of the Tent of Meeting and for everything in it.
Num 3:27 These clans come from Kohath: the clan of the Amramites, the clan of the Izharites, the clan of the Hebronites, and the clan of the Uzzielites. These clans belong to the Kohathites.
Num 3:28 8,600 males have been counted aged one month old and older to take care of the things that belong to Yehowah.
Num 3:29 The families of the descendants of Kohath must camp on the south side of the tabernacle.
Num 3:30 Elizaphan son of Uzziel must lead the clans of the Kohathites.
Num 3:31 They must care for the ark, the table, the menorah, the altars, the set-apart things that are used in their service, the curtain, and all the work around it.
Num 3:32 Eleazar son of Aaron the priest must lead the men who lead the Levites. He must supervise the men who care for the Set-apart Place.
Num 3:33 Two clans have come from Merari: the clan of the Mahlites and the clan of the Mushites. These clans have come from Merari.
Num 3:34 6,200 males have been counted aged one month old and older.
Num 3:35 Zuriel son of Abihail must lead the clans of Merari. They must camp on the north side of the tabernacle.
Num 3:36 The descendants of Merari must care for the framing of the tabernacle, the crossbars, posts, bases, all the hardware, and everything related to them, including Num 3:37 the pillars and posts of the courtyard that surround the tabernacle, with their sockets, pegs, and ropes.
Num 3:38 Moses and Aaron and his sons must camp on the east side of the tabernacle, in front of the Tent of Meeting, toward the sunrise. They are responsible for the fulfillment of the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the people of Israel. Any foreigner who approaches the sanctuary must be executed.

Num 3:39 Moses and Aaron counted all the males in the clans of Levi who were aged one month old and older, just as Yehowah commanded. They counted twenty-two thousand men.
Num 3:40 Yehowah said to Moses, “Count all the firstborn males of the people of Israel who are aged one month old and older. List their names.
Num 3:41 You must take the Levites for me, I am Yehowah, instead of all the firstborn of the people of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of the firstborn of the livestock of the descendants of Israel.”
Num 3:42 Moses counted all the firstborn people of Israel as Yehowah had commanded him to do.
Num 3:43 He counted all the firstborn males by name, aged one month old and older. He counted 22,273 men.
Num 3:44 Again, Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 3:45 “Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the people of Israel, and take the Levites’ livestock instead of the people’s livestock. The Levites belong to me; I am Yehowah.
Num 3:46 You must collect 5-weight for the redemption of each of the 273 firstborn people of Israel who exceed the number of the Levites.
Num 3:47 You must use the weight of the sanctuary as your standard weight. One weight equals twenty small weights.
Num 3:48 You must give the price of redemption that you paid to Aaron and his sons.”
Num 3:49 So Moses collected the payment of redemption from those who exceeded the number of those redeemed by the Levites.
Num 3:50 Moses collected the money from the firstborn of the people of Israel. He collected 1,365-weight (approx. 15 kg), by the weight of the sanctuary scales (11.5 grams).
Num 3:51 Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and to his sons. Moses did everything he was told to do by the Word of Yehowah, as Yehowah had commanded him.

Numbers Chapter 4

Num 4:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Num 4:2 “Conduct a census of the male descendants of Kohath from among the Levites, by their clans and ancestor’s families.
Num 4:3 Count all the men who are thirty to fifty years old. These men must join the company to serve in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:4 The descendants of Kohath must take care of the most set-apart things reserved for me in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:5 When the camp prepares to move forward, Aaron and his sons must go into the tent, take down the curtain that separates the Most Set-apart Place from the Set-apart Place and cover the Ark of the Testimony with it.
Num 4:6 They must cover the ark with antelope skins. They must spread a blue cloth over it. They must insert the poles to carry it.
Num 4:7 They are to spread a blue cloth on the table of the bread of the presence. On it they must put the dishes, spoons, bowls, and jars for pouring. Bread must always continue to be on the table.
Num 4:8 They must cover them with a scarlet cloth and again with antelope skins. They must insert poles to carry the table.
Num 4:9 They must take a blue cloth and cover the menorah, along with its lamps, tongs, trays, and all the jars of oil for the lamps, with which they ministered to it.
Num 4:10 They must put the menorah and all its accessories into a covering of antelope skins, and they must put it on a carrying frame.
Num 4:11 They must spread a cloth of blue on the gold altar. They must cover it with a covering of antelope skins and then insert the carrying poles.
Num 4:12 They must take all the equipment for the work in the Set-apart Place and wrap it in a blue cloth. They must cover it with antelope skins and put the equipment on the carrying frame.
Num 4:13 They must remove the ashes from the altar and spread a purple cloth on the altar.
Num 4:14 They must put on the carrying frame all the equipment that they use in the work of the altar. These objects are the firepans, forks, shovels, bowls, and all the other equipment for the altar. They must cover the altar with antelope skins and then insert the carrying poles.
Num 4:15 When Aaron and his sons have completely covered the Set-apart Place and all its equipment, and when the camp moves forward, then the descendants of Kohath must come to carry the Set-apart Place. If they touch the set-apart instruments, they must die. This is the work of the descendants of Kohath, to carry the furnishings in the Tent of Meeting.

Num 4:16 Eleazar son of Aaron the priest oversees the care of the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil. He oversees the care of the entire tabernacle and all that is in it, the Set-apart Place and its equipment."
Num 4:17 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Num 4:18 "Do not allow the Kohathite tribal clans to be removed from among the Levites.
Num 4:19 Protect them, that they may live and not die by doing this. When they approach the most set-apart things,
Num 4:20 they must not go in to see the Set-apart Place even for a moment, or they must die. Aaron and his sons must go in, and then Aaron and his sons must assign each of the Kohathites to his work, to his special tasks."
Num 4:21 Yehowah spoke again to Moses,
Num 4:22 "Conduct a census of the descendants of Gershon also, by their ancestor's families, by their clans.
Num 4:23 Count those who are thirty years old to fifty years old. Count all of them who will join the company to serve in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:24 This is the work of the clans of the Gershonites, when they serve and what they carry:
Num 4:25 They must carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, its covering, the covering of antelope skin that is on it, and the curtains for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:26 They must carry the curtains of the court, the curtain for the doorway of the court's gate, which is near the tabernacle and near the altar, their ropes, and all the instruments for their service. Whatever should be done with these things, they must do it.
Num 4:27 Aaron and his sons must direct all the service of the descendants of the Gershonites, in everything that they transport and in all their service. You must assign them to all their responsibilities.
Num 4:28 This is the service of the clans of the descendants of the Gershonites for the Tent of Meeting. Ithamar son of Aaron the priest must lead them in their service.
Num 4:29 You must count the descendants of Merari by their clans and list them by their ancestor's families,
Num 4:30 from thirty years old and older up to fifty years old. Count everyone who is going to join the company and serve in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:31 This is their responsibility and their work in all their service for the Tent of Meeting: They must care for the framing of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts, and sockets,

Num 4:32 along with the posts of the court around the tabernacle, their sockets, pegs, and their ropes, with all their hardware. List by name the articles they must carry.
Num 4:33 This is the service of the clans of the descendants of Merari, what they are to do for the Tent of Meeting, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest."
Num 4:34 Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation counted the descendants of the Kohathites by the clans of their ancestor's families.
Num 4:35 They counted them from thirty years old and older up to fifty years old. They counted everyone who would join the company to serve in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:36 They counted 2,750 men by their clans.
Num 4:37 Moses and Aaron counted all the men in the clans and families of the Kohathites who serve in the Tent of Meeting. In doing this, they obeyed what Yehowah had commanded them to do through Moses.
Num 4:38 The descendants of Gershon were counted in their clans, by their ancestor's families,
Num 4:39 from thirty to fifty years old, everyone who would join the company to serve in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:40 All the men, counted by their clans and their ancestor's families, numbered 2,630.
Num 4:41 Moses and Aaron counted the clans of the descendants of Gershon who would serve in the Tent of Meeting. In doing this, they obeyed what Yehowah had commanded them to do through Moses.
Num 4:42 The descendants of Merari were counted in their clans by their ancestor's families,
Num 4:43 from thirty to fifty years old, everyone who would join the company to serve in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:44 All the men, counted by their clans and their ancestor's families, numbered 3,200.
Num 4:45 Moses and Aaron counted all these men, the descendants of Merari. In doing this, they obeyed what Yehowah had commanded them to do through Moses.
Num 4:46 So Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel counted all the Levites by their clans in their ancestral families,
Num 4:47 from thirty to fifty years old. They counted everyone who would do work in the tabernacle, and who would carry and care for the items in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 4:48 They counted 8,580 men.
Num 4:49 At the command of Yehowah, Moses counted each man, keeping count of each by the type of work he was assigned to do. He counted each man by the kind of responsibility he would bear. In doing this, they obeyed what Yehowah had commanded them to do through Moses.

Numbers Chapter 5

Num 5:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 5:2 “Command the people of Israel to send away from the camp every leper, everyone who has an oozing sore, and whoever is unclean through touching a dead body.
Num 5:3 Whether male or female, you must send them out of the camp. They must not defile the camp, because I live in it.”
Num 5:4 The people of Israel did so. They sent them out of the camp, as Yehowah commanded Moses. The people of Israel obeyed Yehowah.
Num 5:5 Again, Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 5:6 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When a man or woman commits any sin, such as people do to one another, and is unfaithful to Yehowah, that person is guilty.
Num 5:7 Then he must confess the sin that he has done. He must completely pay back the price of his guilt and add to the price one-fifth more. He must give this to the one he has wronged.
Num 5:8 But if the wronged person has no close relative to receive the payment, he must pay the price for his guilt to Yehowah through a priest, along with a ram of atonement for himself, by which he makes atonement for him.
Num 5:9 Every offering of the people of Israel, the things that are set aside and brought to the priest by the people of Israel, will belong to him.
Num 5:10 The offerings of every person will be for the priest; if anyone gives anything to the priest, it will belong to him.’”
Num 5:11 Again, Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 5:12 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘Suppose that a man’s wife turns away and sins against her husband.
Num 5:13 Then suppose that another man has sex with her. In that case, she is defiled. Even if her husband does not see it or know about it, and even if no one catches her in the act, and there is no one to testify against her,
Num 5:14 nevertheless, a spirit of jealousy might still inform the husband that his wife is defiled. However, a spirit of jealousy might falsely come on a man when his wife is not defiled.
Num 5:15 In such cases, the man should bring his wife to the priest. The husband must bring a drink offering for her. He must bring two liters of barley flour. He must pour no oil or frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, a memorial offering as a possible indicator of sin.
Num 5:16 The priest must bring her near and place her before Yehowah.
Num 5:17 The priest must take a jar of set-apart water and take dust from the floor of the tabernacle. He must put the dust into the water.

Num 5:18 The priest will set the woman before Yehowah, and he will untie the hair on the woman's head. He will put into her hands the grain offering of remembrance, which is the grain offering of suspicion. The priest will hold in his hand the bitter water that can bring a curse.
Num 5:19 The priest will put the woman under an oath and say to her, 'If no other man had sexual relations with you, and if you have not gone astray and committed impurity, then you will be free from this bitter water that can bring a curse.
Num 5:20 But if you, a woman under her husband, have gone astray, if you are defiled, and if some other man has had sex with you,
Num 5:21 then the priest must cause the woman to swear an oath that can bring down a curse on her, and then he must continue speaking to the woman, 'Yehowah will make you into a curse that will be shown to your people to be such. This will happen if Yehowah causes your thigh to waste away and your abdomen to swell.
Num 5:22 This water that brings the curse will go into your stomach and make your abdomen swell and your thigh waste away.' The woman is to reply, 'Yes, let that happen if I am guilty.'
Num 5:23 The priest must write these curses on a scroll, and then he must wash away the written curses into the bitter water.
Num 5:24 The priest must make the woman drink the bitter water that brings the curse. The water that brings the curse will enter her and become bitter.
Num 5:25 The priest must take the grain offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand. He must hold up the grain offering before Yehowah and bring it to the altar.
Num 5:26 The priest must take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial offering and burn it on the altar. Then he must give the woman the bitter water to drink.
Num 5:27 When he gives her the water to drink, if she is defiled, because she has committed a sin against her husband, then the water that brings the curse will enter her and become bitter. Her abdomen will swell and her thigh will waste away. The woman will be cursed among her people.
Num 5:28 But if the woman is not defiled, and if she is clean, then she must be free. She will be able to conceive children.
Num 5:29 This is the law of jealousy. It is the instruction for a woman who strays away from her husband and is defiled.
Num 5:30 It is the instruction for a man with a spirit of jealousy, when he is jealous of his wife. He must bring the woman before Yehowah, and the priest must do to her everything that this law of jealousy describes.
Num 5:31 The man will be free from guilt for bringing his wife to the priest. The woman must bear any guilt she might have.'"

Numbers Chapter 6

Num 6:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 6:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When a man or a woman separates himself to Yehowah with a special vow of a Nazirite,
Num 6:3 he must keep himself from wine and beer. He must not drink vinegar made from wine or from beer. He must not drink any grape juice or eat fresh grapes or raisins.
Num 6:4 In all the days that he is separate to me, he must eat nothing that is made from grapes, including everything made from the seeds to their skins.
Num 6:5 During all the time of his vow of separation, no razor is to be used on his head, until the days of his separation to Yehowah are fulfilled. He must be set apart to Yehowah. He must let the hair grow long on his head.
Num 6:6 During all the time that he separates himself to Yehowah, he must not come near a dead body.
Num 6:7 He must not make himself unclean even for his father, mother, brother, or sister, if they die. This is because he is separated to his Divine One, as everyone can see by his long hair.
Num 6:8 During all the time of his separation he is set apart, reserved for Yehowah.
Num 6:9 If someone quite suddenly dies beside him and defiles his consecrated head, then he must shave his head on the day of his purification, on the seventh day he must shave it.
Num 6:10 On the eighth day, he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Num 6:11 The priest must offer one bird as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. These will atone for him, because he sinned by being near the dead body. He must consecrate his head again on that day.
Num 6:12 He must set himself apart to Yehowah for the days of his consecration. He must bring a male lamb one year old as a guilt offering. The days before he defiled himself must not be counted, because his consecration was defiled.
Num 6:13 This is the law about the Nazirite for when the time of his separation is complete. He must be brought to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.
Num 6:14 He must present his offering to Yehowah. He must offer as a burnt offering a male lamb one year old and without blemish. He must bring as a sin offering a female lamb one year old and without blemish. He must bring a ram as a peace offering that is without blemish.
Num 6:15 He must also bring a basket of unleavened bread, loaves of fine flour mixed with oil, wafers without yeast rubbed with oil, together with their grain offering and drink offerings.

Num 6:16 The priest must present them before Yehowah. He must offer his sin offering and burnt offering.
Num 6:17 With the basket of unleavened bread, he must present the ram as a sacrifice, the peace offering to Yehowah. The priest must present also the grain offering and the drink offering.
Num 6:18 The Nazirite must shave his head indicating his separation to Yehowah at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. He must take the hair from his head and put it on the fire that is under the sacrifice of peace offerings.
Num 6:19 The priest must take the boiled shoulder of the ram, one loaf of unleavened bread out of the basket, and one wafer without yeast. He must place them into the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his head indicating separation.
Num 6:20 The priest must wave them as an offering before Yehowah, a set-apart portion for the priest, together with the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented for the priest. After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.
Num 6:21 This is the law for the Nazirite who vows his offering to Yehowah for his separation. Whatever else he may give, he must keep the obligations of the vow he has taken, to keep the promise indicated by the law for the Nazirite.'"
Num 6:22 Again, Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 6:23 "Speak to Aaron and to his sons, 'You must bless the people of Israel in this way. You must say to them, Num 6:24 "May Yehowah bless you and keep you.
Num 6:25 May Yehowah make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
Num 6:26 May Yehowah look on you with grace and give you peace.'"
Num 6:27 It is in this Way that they must give my name to the people of Israel. Then I will bless them."

Numbers Chapter 7

Num 7:1 On the day that Moses completed the tabernacle, he anointed it and set it apart to Yehowah, together with all of its furnishings. He did the same for the altar and all its utensils. He anointed them and set them apart to Yehowah.
Num 7:2 On that day, the leaders of Israel, the heads of their ancestor's families, offered sacrifices. These men were leading the tribes. They had overseen the counting of the men in the census.
Num 7:3 They brought their offerings before Yehowah. They brought six covered carts and twelve oxen. They brought one cart for every two leaders, and each leader brought one ox. They presented these things in front of the tabernacle.
Num 7:4 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 7:5 "Accept the offerings from them and use the offerings for the work in the Tent of Meeting. Give the offerings to the Levites, to each one as his work needs them."
Num 7:6 Moses took the carts and the oxen, and he gave them to the Levites.
Num 7:7 He gave two carts and four oxen to the descendants of Gershon, because of what their work needed.
Num 7:8 He gave four carts and eight oxen to the descendants of Merari, in the care of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest. He did this because of what their work required.
Num 7:9 But he gave none of those things to the descendants of Kohath, because theirs would be the work related to the things that belong to Yehowah, that they would carry on their own shoulders.
Num 7:10 The leaders offered their goods for the dedication of the altar on the day that Moses anointed the altar. The leaders offered their sacrifices in front of the altar.
Num 7:11 Yehowah said to Moses, "Each leader must offer on his own day his sacrifice for the dedication of the altar."
Num 7:12 On the first day, Nahshon son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah, offered his sacrifice.
Num 7:13 His sacrifice was one silver platter weighing 130-weight silver-currency and one silver bowl weighing 70-weight silver-currency, by the standard weight of the sanctuary scales. Both of these objects were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering.
Num 7:14 He gave one gold dish that weighed 114 grams and was full of incense.
Num 7:15 He gave as a burnt offering one young bull, one ram, and a one-year-old male lamb.
Num 7:16 He gave one male goat as a sin offering.

Num 7:82 He gave one male goat as a sin offering.
Num 7:83 He gave two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs that were a year old, as the sacrifice for a peace offering. This was the sacrifice of Ahira son of Enan.
Num 7:84 The leaders of Israel set all these apart on the day that Moses anointed the altar. They set apart the twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, and twelve gold dishes.
Num 7:85 Each silver platter weighed 130-weight silver-currency and each bowl weighed 70-weight silver-currency. All the silver vessels weighed 2,400-weight silver-currency, by the standard weight of the sanctuary scales.
Num 7:86 Each of the twelve gold dishes, full of incense, weighed one hundred fourteen grams by the standard weight of the sanctuary scales. All the gold dishes weighed 1.4 kilograms.
Num 7:87 They set apart all the animals for the burnt offerings, twelve bulls, twelve rams, and twelve year-old male lambs. They gave their grain offering. They gave twelve male goats as a sin offering.

Num 7:88 From all their livestock, they gave twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats, and sixty male lambs a year old, as the sacrifice for the peace offering. This was for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.
Num 7:89 When Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with Yehowah, he heard his voice speaking to him. Yehowah spoke to him from above the atonement lid on the Ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim. He spoke to him.

Numbers Chapter 8

Num 8:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 8:2 “Speak to Aaron, ‘The seven lamps must give light in front of the menorah when you light them.’”
Num 8:3 Aaron did this. He lit the lamps on the menorah to give light toward the front of it, as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Num 8:4 The menorah was made in this way, and Yehowah showed Moses the pattern for it. The menorah was to be hammered gold from its base to its top, with hammered cups like blossoms.
Num 8:5 Again, Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 8:6 “Take the Levites from among the people of Israel and purify them.
Num 8:7 Do this to them to purify them: Sprinkle the water of atonement on them. Make them shave their entire body, wash their clothes, and in this way purify themselves.
Num 8:8 Then have them take a young bull and its grain offering of fine flour mingled with oil. Let them take another young bull as a sin offering.
Num 8:9 Present the Levites in front of the Tent of Meeting, and assemble the whole congregation of the people of Israel.
Num 8:10 Present the Levites before me, Yehowah. The people of Israel must lay their hands on the Levites.
Num 8:11 Aaron must offer the Levites before Yehowah, as a wave offering from the people of Israel. He must do this, so that the Levites may serve Yehowah.
Num 8:12 The Levites must place their hands on the heads of the bulls. You must offer one bull for a sin offering and the other bull for a burnt offering to Yehowah, to atone for the Levites.
Num 8:13 Present the Levites before Aaron and before his sons, and lift them up as a wave offering to Yehowah.
Num 8:14 In this way, you must separate the Levites from among the people of Israel. The Levites will belong to me.
Num 8:15 After that, the Levites must go in to serve in the Tent of Meeting. You must purify them. You must offer them as a wave offering.
Num 8:16 Do this, because they are entirely mine from among the people of Israel. They will take the place of each male child who opens the womb, the firstborn of all the descendants of Israel. I have taken the Levites for myself.
Num 8:17 All the firstborn from among the people of Israel are mine, both of people and of animals. On the day that I took the lives of all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I set them apart for myself.
Num 8:18 I have taken the Levites from among the people of Israel instead of all the firstborn.

Num 8:19 I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons. I have taken them from among the people of Israel to do the work of the people of Israel in the Tent of Meeting. I have given them to atone for the people of Israel, so that no plague will harm the people when they come near to the Set-apart Place."
Num 8:20 Moses, Aaron, and the whole congregation of the people of Israel did this with the Levites. They did everything that Yehowah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites. The people of Israel did this with them.
Num 8:21 The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothing, and Aaron presented them as a wave offering to Yehowah, and he made atonement for them to cleanse them.
Num 8:22 After that, the Levites went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron and before Aaron's sons. This was as Yehowah had commanded Moses about the Levites. They treated all the Levites in this way.
Num 8:23 Yehowah spoke again to Moses,
Num 8:24 "All of this is for the Levites who are twenty-five years old and more. They must join the company to serve in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 8:25 They must stop serving in this way at the age of fifty years. At that age they must not serve any longer.
Num 8:26 They may help their brothers who continue to work at the Tent of Meeting, but they must serve no more. You must direct the Levites in all these matters."

Numbers Chapter 9

Num 9:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year (c. 1649 BC), after they came out from the land of Egypt,
Num 9:2 “Let the people of Israel keep the Passover at its appointment calendar time of year.
Num 9:3 On the fourteenth day of this month, at dusk, you must keep the Passover at its appointment calendar time of year. You must keep it, follow all the regulations, and obey all the decrees that are related to it.”
Num 9:4 So Moses told the people of Israel that they should keep the Festival of the Passover.
Num 9:5 So they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at dusk, in the wilderness of Sinai. The people of Israel obeyed everything that Yehowah commanded Moses to do.
Num 9:6 There were certain men who became unclean by the body of a dead man. They could not keep the Passover on that day. They went before Moses and Aaron on that same day.
Num 9:7 Those men asked Moses, “We are unclean because of the dead body of a man. Why do you keep us from offering the sacrifice to Yehowah at the appointment calendar festival among the people of Israel?”
Num 9:8 Moses answered them, “Wait for me to hear what Yehowah will instruct about you.”
Num 9:9 Yehowah commanded Moses,
Num 9:10 “Speak to the people of Israel. Say, ‘If any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body, or are on a long journey, he may still keep the Passover to Yehowah.’
Num 9:11 They must keep the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month, at dusk. They must eat it with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs.
Num 9:12 They must not leave it until dawn, or break any of its bones. They must follow all the regulations for the Passover.
Num 9:13 But any person who is clean and is not on a journey, but who fails to keep the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people, because he did not offer the sacrifice that Yehowah requires at the appointment calendar festival. That man must carry his sin.
Num 9:14 If a foreigner sojourns among you and keeps the Passover to honor Yehowah, he must keep it and do all he commands, keeping the rules of the Passover, and obeying the laws for it. You must have the same law for the sojourning foreigner and for all who have been born in the land.”

Num 9:15 On the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the covenant decrees. At dusk, the cloud was over the tabernacle. It appeared like fire until dawn.
Num 9:16 It continued that way. The cloud covered the tabernacle and appeared like fire at night.
Num 9:17 Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the tent, the people of Israel would set out on their journey. Wherever the cloud stopped, the people would camp.
Num 9:18 At the command of Yehowah, the people of Israel would travel, and at the command of Yehowah, they would camp. While the cloud stopped over the tabernacle, they would stay in their camp.
Num 9:19 When the cloud remained on the tabernacle for many days, then the people of Israel would obey the instructions of Yehowah and not travel.
Num 9:20 Sometimes the cloud remained a few days on the tabernacle. In that case, they would obey the command of Yehowah, they would make camp and then travel on again at the command of Yehowah.
Num 9:21 Sometimes the cloud was present in camp from dusk until dawn. When the cloud lifted at dawn, they journeyed. If it continued for a day and for a night, only when the cloud lifted would they journey on.
Num 9:22 Whether the cloud stayed on the tabernacle for two days, a month, or a year, for as long as it stayed there, the people of Israel would stay in their camp and not travel. But whenever the cloud was taken up, they would set out on their journey.
Num 9:23 They would camp at the command of Yehowah, and they would travel at the command of Yehowah. They kept the watch of Yehowah and obeyed the command of Yehowah given through Moses.

Numbers Chapter 10

Num 10:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 10:2 “Make two silver trumpets. Hammer the silver to make them. You must use the trumpets to call the congregation together and to call the congregation to move their camps.
Num 10:3 The priests must blow the trumpets to call all the congregation together in front of you at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Num 10:4 If the priests blow only one trumpet, then the leaders, the heads of the clans of Israel, must gather to you.
Num 10:5 When you blow a loud signal, the camps on the east side must begin their journey.
Num 10:6 When you blow a loud signal the second time, the camps on the south side must begin their journey. They must blow a loud signal for their journeys.
Num 10:7 When the congregation gathers together, blow the trumpets but not loudly.
Num 10:8 The sons of Aaron, the priests, must blow the trumpets. This will always be a regulation for you throughout your people’s generations.
Num 10:9 When you go to war in your land against an adversary who oppresses you, then you must sound an alarm with the trumpets. I, Yehowah your Divine One, will call you to mind and save you from your enemies.
Num 10:10 Also, at the times of celebration, both your appointment calendar festivals and at the beginning of the months, you must blow the trumpets in honor of your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices for your peace offerings. These will act as a reminder of you to me, your Divine One. I am Yehowah your Divine One.”
Num 10:11 In the second year (c. 1649 BC), on the twentieth of the second month, the cloud was lifted from the tabernacle of the covenant decrees.
Num 10:12 The people of Israel then went on their journey from the wilderness of Sinai and traveled and rested at many encampments, until the cloud stopped in the wilderness of Paran (Num. 33:15ff; Deut. 2:14; Num 13:25-26a).
Num 10:13 They made their first journey, following the command of Yehowah given through Moses.
Num 10:14 The camp under the banner of Judah’s descendants went out first, moving out their individual armed forces. Nahshon son of Amminadab led Judah’s military force.
Num 10:15 Nethanel son of Zuar led the military force of the tribe of Issachar’s descendants.
Num 10:16 Eliab son of Helon led the military force of the tribe of Zebulun’s descendants.

Num 10:17 The descendants of Gershon and of Merari, who cared for the tabernacle, took down the tabernacle and then set out on their journey.
Num 10:18 Next, the armed forces under the banner of Reuben's camp set out on their journey. Elizur son of Shedeur led Reuben's military force.
Num 10:19 Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai led the military force of the tribe of Simeon's descendants.
Num 10:20 Eliasaph son of Deuel led the military force of the tribe of Gad's descendants.
Num 10:21 The Kohathites set out. They carried the sanctuary's consecrated equipment. Others would set up the tabernacle before the Kohathites arrived at the next camp.
Num 10:22 The armed forces under the banner of Ephraim's descendants set out next. Elishama son of Ammihud led Ephraim's military force.
Num 10:23 Gamaliel son of Pedahzur led the military force of the tribe of Manasseh's descendants.
Num 10:24 Abidan son of Gideoni led the military force of the tribe of Benjamin's descendants.
Num 10:25 The armed forces that camped under the banner of Dan's descendants set out last. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai led Dan's military force.
Num 10:26 Pagiel son of Ochran led the military force of the tribe of Asher's descendants.
Num 10:27 Ahira son of Enan led the military force of the tribe of Naphtali's descendants.
Num 10:28 This is the way that the armed forces of the people of Israel set out on their journey.
Num 10:29 Moses spoke to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite. Reuel (Jethro) was the father of Moses' wife. Moses spoke to Hobab, "We are traveling to a place that Yehowah described. Yehowah said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will do you good. Yehowah has promised to do good for Israel."
Num 10:30 But Hobab answered Moses, "I will not go with you. I will go to my own land and my own people."
Num 10:31 Then Moses replied, "Please do not leave us. You know how to camp in the wilderness. You must watch out for us.
Num 10:32 If you go with us, we will do for you the same good that Yehowah does to us."
Num 10:33 They journeyed from the Mountain of Yehowah (Mount Sinai) for three days. The Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah went before them for three days to find a place for them to rest.
Num 10:34 The cloud of Yehowah was over them by daylight as they journeyed.
Num 10:35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses would say, "Rise up, Yehowah. Scatter your enemies. Make those who hate you run from you."

Num 10:36 Whenever the ark stopped, Moses would say, “Return, Yehowah, to Israel’s many tens of thousands.”

Numbers Chapter 11

Num 11:1 Now the people complained about their troubles as Yehowah listened. Yehowah heard the people and became angry. Fire from Yehowah burned among them and consumed some of the camp on its edges.
Num 11:2 Then people called out to Moses, so Moses prayed to Yehowah, and the fire stopped.
Num 11:3 That place was named Taberah, because the fire of Yehowah burned among them.
Num 11:4 Some foreign people began to camp with Israel's descendants. They wanted better food to eat. Then the people of Israel began to weep and whine, "Who will give us meat to eat?
Num 11:5 We remember the fish that we ate freely in Egypt, the melons, the watermelons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic.
Num 11:6 Now our appetite is gone, because all we can see is this manna."
Num 11:7 Manna was like coriander seed. It looked like resin.
Num 11:8 The people walked around and gathered it. They ground it in mills, beat it in mortars, boiled it in pots, and made it into cakes. It tasted like fresh olive oil.
Num 11:9 When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna also fell.
Num 11:10 Moses heard the people weeping in their families, and every man was at the entrance to his tent. The anger of Yehowah blazed up, and in Moses' eyes their complaining was wrong.
Num 11:11 Moses asked Yehowah, "Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why are you not pleased with me? You make me carry the load of all these people.
Num 11:12 Did I conceive all these people? Have I given them birth, so that you should say to me, 'Carry them closely to your chest as a father carries a baby?' Should I carry them to the land that you swore to their ancestors to give them?
Num 11:13 Where can I find meat to give to all this people? They are weeping in front of me and are demanding, 'Give us meat to eat!'
Num 11:14 I cannot bear all these people alone. They are too much for me.
Num 11:15 Since you are treating me this way, kill me now, if you are kind to me, and take away my misery."
Num 11:16 Yehowah ordered Moses, "Bring to me seventy of Israel's elders. Be sure that they are elders and officers of the people. Bring them to the Tent of Meeting to stand there with you.
Num 11:17 I will come down and talk with you there. I will take some of the Ruach that is on you and put him on them. They will bear the burden of the people with you. You will not have to bear it alone.

Num 11:18 Say to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow you will indeed eat meat, for you have wept, and Yehowah has heard. You complained, “Who will give us meat to eat? It was good for us in Egypt.” Therefore, Yehowah will give you meat, and you will eat it.
Num 11:19 You will not eat meat for only one day, two days, five days, ten days, or twenty days,
Num 11:20 but you will eat meat for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils. It will disgust you, because you have rejected Yehowah, who is among you. You have wept before him. You whined, “Why did we leave Egypt?”’”
Num 11:21 Then Moses said, “I am with 600,000 soldiers, and you have said, ‘I will give them meat to eat for a whole month.’
Num 11:22 Should we kill flocks and herds to satisfy them? Should we catch all the fish in the sea to satisfy them?”
Num 11:23 Yehowah said to Moses, “Is the powerful hand of Yehowah inadequate? Now you will see whether or not my word is true.”
Num 11:24 Moses went out and told the people the words of Yehowah. He gathered seventy of the people’s elders and positioned them around the tent.
Num 11:25 Yehowah came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. Yehowah took some of the Ruach that was on Moses and put him on the seventy elders. When the Ruach rested on them, they prophesied, but only on that occasion and not again.
Num 11:26 Two men remained in the camp, named Eldad and Medad. The Ruach also rested on them. Their names were written on the list, but they had not gone out to the tent. Nevertheless, they prophesied in the camp.
Num 11:27 A young man in the camp ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!”
Num 11:28 Joshua son of Nun, Moses’ assistant, one of his chosen men, entreated Moses, “My master Moses, stop them!”
Num 11:29 Moses answered him, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all of the people of Yehowah were prophets, and that Yehowah would put his Ruach on them all!”
Num 11:30 Then Moses and the elders of Israel went back to the camp.
Num 11:31 Then a wind came from Yehowah and brought quail from the sea. They fell near the camp, about a day’s journey on one side and a day’s journey on the other side. The quail surrounded the camp about a meter above the ground.
Num 11:32 The people were busy gathering quail all that day, all the night, and all the next day. No one gathered less than two cubic meters of quail. They shared the quail all through the camp.

Num 11:33 While the meat was still between their teeth, while they were chewing it, Yehowah became angry at them. Yehowah attacked the people with a terribly great disease.
Num 11:34 That place was named Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had craved meat.
Num 11:35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people traveled to Hazeroth, where they stayed.

Numbers Chapter 12

Num 12:1 Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses, because of the Cushite woman whom he had married.
Num 12:2 They asked, “Has Yehowah spoken only with Moses? Has he not spoken also with us?” Now Yehowah heard what they asked.
Num 12:3 Now the man Moses was exceedingly humble, meeker than anyone else on earth.
Num 12:4 Right away Yehowah spoke to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam: “Come out, you three, to the Tent of Meeting.” So the three of them went out.
Num 12:5 Then Yehowah came down in a pillar of cloud. He stood at the entrance to the tent and called Aaron and Miriam. They both came forward.
Num 12:6 Yehowah said, “Now listen to my words. When a prophet of mine is with you, I will reveal myself to him in visions and speak to him in dreams.
Num 12:7 My servant Moses is not like that. He is faithful in all my household.
Num 12:8 I speak to Moses directly, not with visions or riddles. He sees the form of Yehowah. So why are you unafraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?”
Num 12:9 The anger of Yehowah burned against them, and then he left them.
Num 12:10 The cloud rose from over the tent, and Miriam was suddenly leprous, she was as white as snow. When Aaron turned toward Miriam, he saw that she had leprosy.
Num 12:11 Aaron entreated Moses, “Oh, my master, please do not hold this sin against us! We have spoken foolishly, and we have sinned.
Num 12:12 Please do not let her be like a dead newborn whose flesh is half consumed when it emerges from its mother’s womb.”
Num 12:13 So Moses called out to Yehowah, “Please heal her, Almighty One, please!”
Num 12:14 Yehowah replied to Moses, “If her father had spit in her face, she would be disgraced for seven days. Shut her outside the camp for seven days. After that bring her in again.”
Num 12:15 So Miriam was shut outside the camp for seven days. The people did not journey, until she had returned to the camp.
Num 12:16 After that, the people journeyed from Hazeroth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers Chapter 13

Num 13:1 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 13:2 “Send some men to examine the land of Canaan, which I have given to the people of Israel. Send a man from every tribe of their ancestors. Each man must be a leader among them.”
Num 13:3 Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran, so that they might obey the command of Yehowah. All of them were leaders among the people of Israel.
Num 13:4 These were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur;
Num 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;
Num 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb (40 yrs old, c. 1649 BC; Josh. 14:7) son of Jephunneh;
Num 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;
Num 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea (Joshua, approx. 47 yrs old, c. 1649 BC; Josh. 24:29; Judg. 2:8) son of Nun;
Num 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;
Num 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;
Num 13:11 from the tribe of Joseph, that is to say, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi son of Susi;
Num 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;
Num 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;
Num 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi;
Num 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Machi.
Num 13:16 These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to examine the land. Moses called Hoshea son of Nun by the name of Joshua (Yehoshua; Neh. 8:17).
Num 13:17 Moses sent them to examine the land of Canaan. He commanded them, “Approach from the Negev and go up into the hill country.
Num 13:18 Examine the land to see what it is like. Observe the people who live there, whether they are strong or weak, and whether they are few or many.
Num 13:19 See what the land is like where they live. Is it good or bad? What cities are there? Are they like camps, or are they fortified cities?
Num 13:20 See what the land is like, whether it is good for growing crops or not, and whether there are trees there or not. Be brave and bring back samples of the land’s produce.” Now the time was the season for the first ripe grapes.
Num 13:21 So the men went up and examined the land from the wilderness of Sin to Rehob, near Lebo Hamath.

Num 13:22 They went up from the Negev and arrived at Hebron. Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, clans descended from Anak (giant), were there. Now Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan (Tanis) in Egypt.
Num 13:23 When they reached the Valley of Eshcol, they cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes. They carried it on a trekking pole between two of their group. They also brought pomegranates and figs.
Num 13:24 That place was named the Valley of Eshcol, because of the grape cluster that the people of Israel cut down there.
Num 13:25 After forty days, they returned from examining the land.
Num 13:26 They came back to Moses, Aaron, and all the congregation of the people of Israel in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia). They brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the produce from the land.
Num 13:27 They reported to Moses, “We reached the land to which you sent us. It certainly flows with milk and honey. Here is some produce from it.
Num 13:28 However, the people who make their homes there are strong. The cities are fortified and extremely large. We also saw descendants of Anak there.
Num 13:29 The Amalekites live in the Negev. The Hethites, Jebusites, and Amorites have their homes in the hill country. The Canaanites live by the Sea and along the Jordan River.”
Num 13:30 Then Caleb silenced the people who were before Moses and exclaimed, “Let us go up immediately and take possession of the land, for we are certainly able to conquer it!”
Num 13:31 But the other men who had gone with him reported, “We are not able to attack the people, because they are stronger than we are.”
Num 13:32 So they spread around a discouraging intelligence report to the people of Israel about the land that they had examined. They reported, “The land that we looked at is a land that eats up its inhabitants. All the people whom we saw there are people of great height.
Num 13:33 There we saw hybrid human offspring, descendants of Anak, people who came from hybrid human offspring. In our own sight we were like grasshoppers in comparison with them, and this is also what we were in their sight” (Gen. 6:4).

Numbers Chapter 14

Num 14:1 That night all the congregation wept loudly.
Num 14:2 All the people of Israel criticized Moses and Aaron. The whole congregation complained to them, “We wish we had died in the land of Egypt, or here in this wilderness!
Num 14:3 Why did Yehowah bring us to this land to die by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become victims. Is it not better for us to return to Egypt?”
Num 14:4 They said to each other, “Let us choose another leader, and let us return to Egypt.”
Num 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron lay facedown before all the assembly of the congregation of the people of Israel.
Num 14:6 Joshua, son of Nun, and Caleb, son of Jephunneh, who were some of those sent to examine the land, tore their clothes.
Num 14:7 They spoke to all the congregation of the people of Israel. They testified, “The land that we passed through and examined is an extremely good land.
Num 14:8 If Yehowah is pleased with us, then he will take us into this land and give it to us. The land flows with milk and honey.
Num 14:9 But do not rebel against Yehowah and do not fear the people in the land. We will consume them as easily as food. Their protection will be removed from them, because Yehowah is with us. Do not fear them!”
Num 14:10 But all the congregation threatened to execute them by stoning. Then the glory of Yehowah appeared at the Tent of Meeting to all the people of Israel.
Num 14:11 Yehowah declared to Moses, “How long must this people despise me? How long must they fail to trust me, despite all the signs of my power that I have done among them?
Num 14:12 I will attack them with plague, disinherit them, and make from your own clan a nation that will be greater and mightier than they are.”
Num 14:13 Moses responded to Yehowah, “If you do this, then the Egyptians will hear about it, because you rescued this people from them by your power.
Num 14:14 They will tell it to this land’s inhabitants. They have heard that you, Yehowah, are present with this people, because you are seen face to face. Your cloud stands over our people. You go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.
Num 14:15 Now if you kill this people as one man, then the ethnicities that have heard of your fame will say,
Num 14:16 ‘Because Yehowah could not take this people into the land that he swore to give them, he has killed them in the wilderness.’
Num 14:17 Now I beg you, Lord, use your great power. For you have said,

Num 14:18 ‘Yehowah is slow to anger and abundant in covenant faithfulness. He forgives iniquity and transgression. He will by no means clear the guilty, when he brings the punishment of the ancestors’ sin on their descendants, to the third and fourth generation.’
Num 14:19 Pardon this people’s sin because of the greatness of your covenant faithfulness, just as you have always forgiven this people from the time they were in Egypt until now.”
Num 14:20 Yehowah responded, “I have pardoned them in keeping with your request,
Num 14:21 but truly, as I live, and as all the earth will be filled with the glory of Yehowah,
Num 14:22 all those people who saw my glory and the signs of power that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, they have still tempted me these ten times and have not listened to my voice.
Num 14:23 So I say that they will certainly not see the land about which I made an oath to their ancestors. Not one of them who despised me will see it,
Num 14:24 except for my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit. He has followed me fully; I will bring him into the land which he went to examine. His descendants will possess it.
Num 14:25 Now the Amalekites and Canaanites live in the valley. Tomorrow, turn and go to the wilderness by the way of the End Salt Sea.”
Num 14:26 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Num 14:27 “How long must I tolerate this evil congregation that criticizes me? I have heard the complaining of the people of Israel against me.
Num 14:28 Say to them, ‘As I live,’ declares Yehowah, ‘as you have spoken in my hearing, I will do this to you:
Num 14:29 Your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness, all you who complained against me, you who were counted in the census, the whole number of the people from twenty years old and upward.
Num 14:30 You will certainly not go into the land that I promised to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.
Num 14:31 But your little ones, who you said would be victims, I will take them into the land. They will experience the land that you have rejected!
Num 14:32 As for you, your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness.
Num 14:33 Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years. They must bear the consequences of your acts of rebellion, until the end of your corpses in the wilderness.
Num 14:34 Just as the number of the days during which you examined the land, forty days, you must likewise bear the consequences of your sins for forty years, one year for every day, and you must know what it is like to be my enemy.

Num 14:35 I, Yehowah, have spoken. I will certainly do this to all this evil congregation that is gathered together against me. They will be completely cut off, and here they will die.'"
Num 14:36 So the men whom Moses had sent to look at the land all died by the plague before Yehowah.
Num 14:37 These were the men who had returned and brought a bad intelligence report about the land. This made all the congregation complain against Moses.
Num 14:38 Of those men who had gone to look at the land, only Joshua, son of Nun, and Caleb, son of Jephunneh, remained alive.
Num 14:39 When Moses reported these words to all the people of Israel, they mourned deeply.
Num 14:40 They rose up at the crack of dawn and went to the top of the mountain and confessed, "Look, we are here, and we will go to the place that Yehowah has promised, for we have sinned."
Num 14:41 But Moses responded, "Why are you now violating the command of Yehowah? You will not succeed.
Num 14:42 Do not go, because Yehowah is not with you to prevent you from being defeated by your enemies.
Num 14:43 The Amalekites and Canaanites are there, and you will die by the sword, because you turned back from following Yehowah. So Yehowah will not be with you."
Num 14:44 But they presumed to go up into the hill country; however, neither Moses nor the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah left the camp.
Num 14:45 Then the Amalekites came down, and also the Canaanites who lived on those hills. They attacked the Israelis and defeated them all the way to Hormah.

Numbers Chapter 15

Num 15:1 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 15:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When you go into the land where you will live, which Yehowah will give to you,
Num 15:3 you are to prepare an offering by fire to Yehowah, either a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfill a vow or a freewill offering, or an offering at your appointment calendar festivals, to produce a pleasing aroma for Yehowah from the herd or the flock.
Num 15:4 You must offer to Yehowah a burnt offering as well as a grain offering of two liters of fine flour mixed with 1.5 liters of oil.
Num 15:5 You must also offer with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, 1.5 liters of wine for the drink offering for each lamb.
Num 15:6 If you are offering a ram, you must prepare as a grain offering 4 liters of fine flour mixed with two liters of oil.
Num 15:7 For the drink offering, you must offer two liters of wine. It will produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah.
Num 15:8 When you prepare a bull as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice to fulfill a vow, or as a peace offering to Yehowah,
Num 15:9 then you must offer with the bull a grain offering of 6 liters of fine flour mixed with three liters of oil.
Num 15:10 You must offer as the drink offering three liters of wine, as an offering made by fire, to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah.
Num 15:11 It must be done this way for each bull, for each ram, and for each of the male lambs or young goats.
Num 15:12 Every sacrifice that you prepare and offer must be done as described here.
Num 15:13 All who are native-born Israelis must do these things in this way, when anyone brings an offering made by fire, to produce an aroma that is pleasing to Yehowah.
Num 15:14 If a sojourning foreigner is staying with you, or whoever may live among you throughout your people’s generations, he must make an offering made by fire, to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. He must act as you act.
Num 15:15 There must be the same law for the congregation and for your proselyte who stays with you, a permanent law throughout your people’s generations. As you are, so also must be the proselyte staying with you. He must act as you act before Yehowah.
Num 15:16 The same law and decree must apply to you and to your proselyte who is staying with you.’”
Num 15:17 Again, Yehowah spoke to Moses,

Num 15:18 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When you come into the land where I will take you,
Num 15:19 when you eat the food produced in the land, you must offer an offering and present it to me.
Num 15:20 From the first of your dough, you must offer a loaf to raise it up as a raised offering from the threshing floor. You must raise it up in this way.
Num 15:21 You must give to me a raised offering throughout your people’s generations from the first of your dough.
Num 15:22 You will sometimes sin without intending to do so, when you do not obey all these commands that Yehowah has spoken to Moses,
Num 15:23 everything that Yehowah has commanded you through Moses from the day that Yehowah began to give you commands and onward throughout your people’s generations.
Num 15:24 In the case of unintentional sin without the congregation’s knowledge, then all the congregation must offer one young bull as a burnt offering to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. Along with this must be made a grain offering and drink offering, as commanded by the decree, and one male goat as a sin offering.
Num 15:25 The priest must make atonement for all the congregation of the people of Israel. They will be forgiven, because the sin was an error. They have brought their sacrifice, an offering made by fire to Yehowah. They have brought their sin offering before Yehowah for their error.
Num 15:26 Then all the congregation of the people of Israel will be forgiven, and also the sojourning foreigners who are staying with them, because all the people committed the sin unintentionally.
Num 15:27 If a person sins unintentionally, then he must offer a female goat a year old as a sin offering.
Num 15:28 The priest must make atonement before Yehowah for the person who sins unintentionally. That person will be forgiven when atonement has been made.
Num 15:29 You must have the same law for the one who does anything unintentionally, the same law for the one who is native born among the people of Israel and for the sojourning foreigners who are staying among them.
Num 15:30 But the person who does anything in defiance, whether he is native born or a sojourning alien, blasphemes Yehowah. That person must be cut off from among his people.
Num 15:31 Because he has despised the Word of Yehowah and has broken his commandment, that person must be cut off completely. His sin will be on him.’”
Num 15:32 While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

Num 15:33 Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses, Aaron, and all the congregation.
Num 15:34 They kept him in custody, because it had not been declared what should be done with him.
Num 15:35 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “The man must surely be executed. All the congregation must stone him with stones outside the camp.”
Num 15:36 So all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Num 15:37 Again Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 15:38 “Speak to the descendants of Israel and command them to make for themselves tassels to hang from the corner of their garments, to put a blue string in the tassels on each corner (Mat. 23:5). They must do this throughout their people’s generations.
Num 15:39 It will be a tassel as a special reminder to you, when you look at it, of all the commandments of Yehowah, to carry them out, so that you do not look to your own heart and your own eyes, and prostitute yourselves to them.
Num 15:40 Do this, so that you may call to mind and obey all my commandments, and so that you may be set apart, reserved for me, your Divine One.
Num 15:41 I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to become your Divine One. I am Yehowah your Divine One.”

Numbers Chapter 16

Num 16:1 Now Korah son of Izhar son of Kohath son of Levi, along with Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth, descendants of Reuben, gathered some men.
Num 16:2 They rose up against Moses, along with other men from the people of Israel, two hundred fifty leaders of the congregation, who were well known members in the community.
Num 16:3 They assembled themselves together to confront Moses and Aaron. They said to them, “You have gone too far! All the congregation is set apart, every one of them, and Yehowah is among them. Why do you lift up yourselves above the rest of the congregation of Yehowah?”
Num 16:4 When Moses heard that, he lay facedown.
Num 16:5 He spoke to Korah and to all those with him, “Tomorrow at dawn, Yehowah will make known who belongs to him, and who is set apart to him. He will bring that person near to him. The one he chooses, he will bring near to himself.
Num 16:6 Do this, Korah and all your group.
Num 16:7 Take censers tomorrow and put fire and incense in them before Yehowah. The one whom Yehowah chooses, that man will be set apart to Yehowah. You have gone too far, you descendants of Levi!”
Num 16:8 Again, Moses said to Korah, “Now listen, you descendants of Levi:
Num 16:9 Is it a small thing for you that the Mighty One of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do work in the tabernacle of Yehowah, and to stand before the congregation to serve them?
Num 16:10 He has brought you near, and all your kinfolk, the descendants of Levi, with you, yet you are seeking the priesthood also!
Num 16:11 That is why you and all your group have gathered together against Yehowah. So why are you complaining about Aaron?”
Num 16:12 Then Moses called for Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they said, “We will not come up.
Num 16:13 Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness? Now you want to make yourself ruler over us!
Num 16:14 In addition, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or given us the fields and vineyards as an inheritance. Now do you want to blind us with empty promises? We will not come to you.”
Num 16:15 Moses was extremely angry and entreated Yehowah, “Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, and I have not harmed any of them.”

Num 16:16 Then Moses said to Korah, “Tomorrow, you and all your company must go before Yehowah, you and they, and Aaron.
Num 16:17 Each of you must take his censer and put incense in it. Then each man must bring before Yehowah his censer, two hundred and fifty censers. You and Aaron, also, must each bring your censer.”
Num 16:18 So every man took his censer, put fire in it, laid incense in it, and stood at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting with Moses and Aaron.
Num 16:19 Korah assembled all the congregation against Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of Yehowah appeared to all the congregation.
Num 16:20 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Num 16:21 “Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them immediately.”
Num 16:22 Moses and Aaron lay facedown and prayed, “O Almighty, Mighty One of the spirits of all humanity, if one man sins, must you be angry with all the congregation?”
Num 16:23 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 16:24 “Command the congregation. Say, ‘Get away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.’”
Num 16:25 Then Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram; the elders of Israel followed him.
Num 16:26 He spoke to the congregation, “Now leave the tents of these wicked men and touch nothing of theirs, or you will be consumed by all their sins!”
Num 16:27 So the congregation on every side of the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram left them. Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrance to their tents, with their wives, sons, and their little ones.
Num 16:28 Then Moses prophesied, “By this you will know that Yehowah has sent me to do all these works, for I have not done them of my own accord.
Num 16:29 If these men die a natural death such as normally happens, then Yehowah has not sent me.
Num 16:30 But if Yehowah creates an opening in the ground that swallows them up like a large mouth, along with all their families, and if they go down alive into the place of the dead, then you must understand that these men have despised Yehowah.”
Num 16:31 As soon as Moses finished speaking all these words, the ground opened under those men.
Num 16:32 The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their families, and all the people who belonged to Korah, as well as all their possessions.
Num 16:33 They and everyone in their families went down alive into the place of the dead. The earth closed over them, and in this way, they perished from the midst of the congregation.

Num 16:34 All Israel around them fled from their cries. They exclaimed, “The earth may swallow us up also!”
Num 16:35 Then fire flashed out from Yehowah and devoured the 250 men who had offered incense.
Num 16:36 Again, Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 16:37 “Speak to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest and let him take up the censers out of the flames, for the censers are set apart to me. Then let him scatter the burning coals at a distance.
Num 16:38 Take the censers of those who lost their lives because of their sin. Let them be made into hammered plates as a covering over the altar. Those men did offer them before Yehowah, so they are set apart to me. They will be a sign of my presence to the people of Israel.”
Num 16:39 Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers that had been used by the men who were burned up, and they were hammered out into a covering for the altar,
Num 16:40 to be a reminder to the people of Israel, so that no outsider who was not descended from Aaron should come up to burn incense before Yehowah, so they might not become like Korah and his group, just as Yehowah had commanded through Moses.
Num 16:41 But the next morning, all the congregation of the people of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron. They accused, “You have killed the people of Yehowah.”
Num 16:42 Then it happened, when the congregation had assembled against Moses and Aaron, that they looked toward the Tent of Meeting and behold, the cloud was covering it. The glory of Yehowah appeared,
Num 16:43 and Moses and Aaron came to the front of the Tent of Meeting.
Num 16:44 Then Yehowah ordered Moses,
Num 16:45 “Go away from in front of this congregation, so that I may consume them immediately.” Then Moses and Aaron lay down with their faces to the ground.
Num 16:46 Moses ordered Aaron, “Take the censer, put fire in it from off the altar, put incense in it, carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them, because anger is coming from Yehowah. The plague has begun.”
Num 16:47 So Aaron did as Moses directed. He ran into the middle of the congregation. The plague had quickly started to spread among the people, so he put in the incense and made atonement for the people.
Num 16:48 Aaron stood between the dead and the living; in this way, the plague was stopped.
Num 16:49 Those who died by the plague were 14,700 in number, besides those who had died in the matter of Korah.

Num 16:50 Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, and the plague ended.

Numbers Chapter 17

Num 17:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 17:2 “Speak to the people of Israel and get trekking poles from them, one for each ancestral tribe, twelve trekking poles. Write each man’s name on his trekking pole.
Num 17:3 You must write Aaron’s name on Levi’s trekking pole. There must be one trekking pole for each leader from his ancestors’ tribe.
Num 17:4 You must place the trekking poles in the Tent of Meeting in front of the covenant decrees, where I meet with you.
Num 17:5 It will happen that the trekking pole of the man whom I choose will bud. I will cause the complaints from the people of Israel to stop, which they are speaking against you.”
Num 17:6 So Moses commanded the people of Israel. All the tribal leaders gave him trekking poles, one trekking pole from each leader, selected from each of the ancestral tribes, twelve trekking poles in all. Aaron’s trekking pole was among them.
Num 17:7 Then Moses deposited the trekking poles before Yehowah in the Tent of the Covenant Decrees.
Num 17:8 The next day, Moses went into the Tent of the Covenant Decrees and behold, Aaron’s trekking pole for the tribe of Levi had budded. It grew buds and produced blossoms and ripe almonds!
Num 17:9 Moses brought out all the trekking poles from before Yehowah to all the people of Israel, and each man took his trekking pole.
Num 17:10 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Put Aaron’s trekking pole in front of the covenant decrees. Keep it as a sign of guilt against the people who rebelled, so that you may end complaints against me, or they will die.”
Num 17:11 Moses did just as Yehowah had commanded him.
Num 17:12 The people of Israel shouted at Moses, “We will die here! We will all perish!
Num 17:13 Everyone who comes up, who approaches the tabernacle of Yehowah, will die! Must we all perish?”

Numbers Chapter 18

Num 18:1 Yehowah said to Aaron, “You, your sons, and your ancestor’s clan will be responsible for all sins committed against the sanctuary. But only you and your sons with you will be responsible for all sins committed by anyone in the priesthood.
Num 18:2 As for your fellow members of the tribe of Levi, your ancestors’ tribe, you must bring them with you, so they may join you and help you when you and your sons serve in front of the Tent of the Covenant Decrees.
Num 18:3 They must serve you and the whole tent. However, they must not come near to anything in the Set-apart Place or connected with the altar, or they and also you will die.
Num 18:4 They must join you and take care of the Tent of Meeting, for all the work connected with the tent. A foreigner must not come near you.
Num 18:5 You must take responsibility for the Set-apart Place and for the altar, so that my anger does not come on the people of Israel again.
Num 18:6 Look, I myself have chosen your fellow members of the Levites from among the descendants of Israel. They are a gift to you, given to Yehowah to do the work connected to the Tent of Meeting.
Num 18:7 But only you and your sons may exercise the priesthood regarding everything connected with the altar and everything inside the curtain. You yourselves must fulfill those responsibilities. I am giving you the priesthood as a gift. Any foreigner who approaches must be executed.”
Num 18:8 Then Yehowah said to Aaron, “Look, I have given you the duty of handling the offerings raised up to me, and all the set-apart offerings that the people of Israel give to me. I have given these offerings to you and your sons as your ongoing share.
Num 18:9 These are the utterly set-apart things kept from the fire: From every offering of theirs, every grain offering, every sin offering, and every guilt offering, they are very set apart to you and to your sons.
Num 18:10 These offerings are very set apart; every male must eat it, for they are set apart to you.
Num 18:11 These are the offerings that will belong to you: their gifts, all the wave offerings of the people of Israel. I have given them to you, your sons, and your daughters, as your ongoing share. Everyone who is ritually clean in your family may eat any of these offerings.
Num 18:12 All the best of the oil, all the best of the new wine and grain, the firstfruits that the people give to Yehowah, all these things I have given to you.

Num 18:13 The first ripe produce of all that is in their land, which they bring to Yehowah, will be yours. Everyone who is clean in your family may eat these things.
Num 18:14 Every devoted thing in Israel will be yours.
Num 18:15 Everything that opens the womb, all the firstborn which the people offer to Yehowah, both of man and animal, will be yours. Nevertheless, the people must certainly buy back every firstborn son, and they must buy back the firstborn male of unclean animals.
Num 18:16 Those that are to be bought back by the people must be bought back after becoming one month old. Then the people may buy them back, for five-weight silver-currency, by the standard weight (11.5 grams) of the sanctuary scales, which equals 20 small weights.
Num 18:17 But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, you must not buy back these animals; they are set apart to me. You must sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to Yehowah.
Num 18:18 Their meat will be yours. Like the raised breast and the right thigh, their meat will be yours.
Num 18:19 All the set-apart offerings that the people of Israel present to Yehowah, I have given to you, to your sons, and to your daughters with you, as a continual share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt, a binding covenant forever, before Yehowah for both you and your descendants with you."
Num 18:20 Yehowah said to Aaron, "You will have no inheritance in the people's land, nor will you have any share of property among the people. I am your share and inheritance among the people of Israel.
Num 18:21 To the descendants of Levi, look, I have given all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance in return for the service that they provide in working at the Tent of Meeting.
Num 18:22 From now on, the people of Israel must not come near the Tent of Meeting, or they will be responsible for this sin and die.
Num 18:23 The Levites must do the work connected to the Tent of Meeting. They will be responsible for any sin regarding it. This will be a permanent law throughout your people's generations. Among the people of Israel they must have no inheritance.
Num 18:24 For the tithes of the people of Israel, which they offer as a contribution to Yehowah, it is these that I have given to the Levites as their inheritance. That is why I commanded them, 'They must have no inheritance among the people of Israel.'"
Num 18:25 Yehowah spoke to Moses,

Num 18:26 “You must speak to the Levites, ‘When you receive from the people of Israel the tenth that I have given to you from them for your inheritance, you will present a contribution from it to Yehowah, a tenth of the tithe.
Num 18:27 Your contribution must be considered by you as if it were a tenth of the grain from the threshing floor or of the production from the winepress.
Num 18:28 So you also must make a contribution to Yehowah from all the tithes that you receive from the people of Israel. From them you must give his contribution to Aaron the priest.
Num 18:29 Out of all the gifts you receive, you must make every contribution to Yehowah. You must do this from all the best and the most set-apart things that have been given to you.’
Num 18:30 Therefore, you must say to them, ‘When you present the best of it, then it must be credited to the Levites as the product from the threshing floor and the winepress.
Num 18:31 You may eat the rest of your gifts in any place, you and your families, because it is your pay in return for your work in the Tent of Meeting.
Num 18:32 You will not incur any guilt by eating and drinking it, if you have presented to Yehowah the best of what you have received. But you must not profane the set-apart offerings of the people of Israel, or you will be executed.’”

Numbers Chapter 19

Num 19:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron,
Num 19:2 “This is a statute, a law which Yehowah is commanding you: Say to the people of Israel that they must bring to you a red heifer without flaw or blemish, and which has never carried a yoke (Heb. 9:13).
Num 19:3 Give the heifer to Eleazar the priest. He must bring it outside the camp, and someone must kill it in front of him.
Num 19:4 Eleazar the priest must take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the Tent of Meeting.
Num 19:5 Another priest must burn the heifer in his sight. He must burn its hide, flesh, and its blood with its dung.
Num 19:6 The priest must take cedarwood, hyssop, and scarlet wool, and throw it all into the middle of the burning heifer.
Num 19:7 Then he must wash his clothes and bathe in water. Then he may come into the camp, where he will remain unclean until dusk.
Num 19:8 The one who has burned the heifer must wash his clothes in water and bathe in water. He will remain unclean until dusk.
Num 19:9 Someone who is clean must gather up the heifer’s ashes and put them outside the camp in a clean place. These ashes must be kept for the congregation of the people of Israel. They will mix the ashes with water for purification from sin, since the ashes were from a sin offering.
Num 19:10 The one who gathered the heifer’s ashes must wash his clothes. He will remain unclean until dusk. This will be a permanent law for the people of Israel and the sojourning aliens who stay with them.
Num 19:11 Whoever touches the corpse of any person will be unclean for seven days.
Num 19:12 Such a person must purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day. Then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself the third day, then he will not be clean on the seventh day.
Num 19:13 Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a person who has died, and does not purify himself, this person defiles the tabernacle of Yehowah. That person must be cut off from Israel, because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him. He will remain unclean; his uncleanness will remain on him.
Num 19:14 This is the law for when someone dies in a tent. Everyone who goes into the tent and everyone who is already in the tent will be unclean for seven days.
Num 19:15 Every open container with no cover becomes unclean.

Num 19:16 Similarly, anyone outside a tent who touches someone who has been killed with a sword, any other dead body, a human bone, or a grave, that person will be unclean for seven days.
Num 19:17 Do this for the unclean person: Take some ashes from the burnt sin offering and mix them in a jar with fresh water.
Num 19:18 Someone who is clean must then take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the containers inside the tent, on the persons who were there, and on anyone who touched the bone, the homicide victim, the one who died, or the grave.
Num 19:19 On the third day and on the seventh day, the clean person must sprinkle the unclean person. On the seventh day the unclean person must purify himself. He must wash his clothes and bathe in water. At dusk he will become clean.
Num 19:20 But anyone who remains unclean, who refuses to purify himself, that person will be cut off from the community, because he has defiled the sanctuary of Yehowah. The water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he remains unclean.
Num 19:21 This will be an ongoing law concerning these situations. The one who sprinkles the water for impurity must wash his clothes. The one who touches the water for impurity will become unclean until dusk.
Num 19:22 Whatever the unclean person touches will become unclean. The person who touches it will become unclean until dusk.”

Numbers Chapter 20

Num 20:1 So the people of Israel, the whole congregation, went into the wilderness of Sin in the first month; they stayed at Kadesh (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia). There Miriam died and was buried (c. 1612 BC).
Num 20:2 There was no water for the congregation, so they assembled together against Moses and Aaron.
Num 20:3 The people complained against Moses, “It would have been better if we had died when our fellow Israelis died in front of Yehowah!
Num 20:4 Why have you brought the congregation of Yehowah into this wilderness to die here, we and our animals?
Num 20:5 Why did you make us come up out of Egypt to bring us to this horrible place? Here there is no seed, figs, vines, or pomegranates, and there is no water to drink.”
Num 20:6 So Moses and Aaron went away from in front of the congregation. They went to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and lay facedown. There the brilliant glory of Yehowah appeared to them.
Num 20:7 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 20:8 “Take the trekking pole and assemble the congregation, you, and Aaron your brother. Speak to the rock before their eyes and command it to flow with water. You will produce water for them out of that rock, and you must give it to the congregation and their livestock to drink.”
Num 20:9 Moses took the trekking pole from before Yehowah, as Yehowah had commanded him to do.
Num 20:10 Then Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock. Moses said to them, “Listen now, you rebels! Must we bring water out of this rock for you?”
Num 20:11 Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his trekking pole, and much water came out. The congregation drank, and their livestock drank (Exo. 17:6; Psa. 105:41).
Num 20:12 Then Yehowah said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust me or honor me as consecrated in the eyes of the people of Israel, you will not bring this congregation into the land I have given them.”
Num 20:13 This place was called the waters of Meribah, because the people of Israel had quarreled with Yehowah there, and he showed himself to them as consecrated.
Num 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia) to the king of Edom: Your brother Israel says this: “You know all the difficulties that have happened to us.

Num 20:15 You know that our ancestors went down to Egypt and lived in Egypt a long time (225 years). The Egyptians treated us harshly and also our ancestors.
Num 20:16 When we called out to Yehowah, he heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. Look, we are in Kadesh, a city on the border of your land.
Num 20:17 I am asking you to let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, nor will we drink the water in your wells. We will go along the king's highway. We will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left, until we have passed your border."
Num 20:18 But the king of Edom replied to him, "You may not pass through here. If you do, I will come with the sword to attack you."
Num 20:19 Then the people of Israel said to him, "We will go along the highway. If we or our livestock drink your water, we will pay for it. Just let us walk through on foot, without doing anything else."
Num 20:20 But the king of Edom replied, "You may not pass through." So the king of Edom came against Israel with a strong hand with many soldiers.
Num 20:21 The king of Edom refused to allow Israel to cross over their border. Because of this, Israel turned away from the land of Edom.
Num 20:22 So the people journeyed from Kadesh (eastward). The people of Israel, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor (the only mountain east of Kadesh).
Num 20:23 Yehowah spoke to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, on Edom's border,
Num 20:24 "Aaron must be gathered to his people, for he will not enter the land that I have given to the people of Israel. This is because you both rebelled against my word at the waters of Meribah.
Num 20:25 Take Aaron and Eleazar, his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor.
Num 20:26 Take Aaron's priestly garments off him and put them on Eleazar his son. Aaron must die and be gathered to his people there."
Num 20:27 Moses did as Yehowah commanded. They went up Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.
Num 20:28 Moses took Aaron's priestly garments off him and put them on Eleazar his son. Aaron died there (c. 1611 BC) on the top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down.
Num 20:29 When all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, all the Israelis wept for Aaron for thirty days.

Numbers Chapter 21

Num 21:1 When the Canaanite king of Arad (possibly modern Aradah, Saudi Arabia), who lived in the South, heard that Israel was traveling by the road of the pass (cresting Mount Hor), he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.
Num 21:2 Israel vowed to Yehowah, "If you give us victory over these people, then we will completely destroy their cities."
Num 21:3 Yehowah listened to Israel's voice, and he gave them victory over the Canaanites. They completely destroyed them and their cities. That place was called Hormah (the destroyed Arad).
Num 21:4 They traveled from Mount Hor by the road of the End Salt Sea to go around the land of Edom. The people became discouraged on the way.
Num 21:5 The people spoke against the Almighty and Moses: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? There is no bread, no water, and we hate this miserable manna."
Num 21:6 Then Yehowah sent poisonous snakes among the people. The snakes bit the people; many people died.
Num 21:7 The people came to Moses and pleaded, "We have sinned, because we have spoken against Yehowah and you. Pray to Yehowah for him to take the snakes away from us!" So Moses prayed for the people.
Num 21:8 Yehowah ordered Moses, "Make an ophidian and attach it to a flagpole (See G3789). It will happen that everyone who is bitten will survive, if he looks at it."
Num 21:9 So Moses made a bronze ophidian and attached it to a flagpole. When a snake bit any person, if he looked at the bronze ophidian, he survived.
Num 21:10 Then the people of Israel traveled on and camped at Oboth (Num. 33:43).
Num 21:11 They traveled from there and camped at Iye Abarim (modern Azraq, Jordan) in the wilderness that faces Moab toward the east.
Num 21:12 From there they traveled on and camped in the Valley of Zered.
Num 21:13 From there they traveled on and camped on the other side of the Arnon River (aka Zarqa River; north and east of Jericho), which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Amorites. The Arnon River forms the (northern) border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.
Num 21:14 That is why it says in the Scroll of the Wars of Yehowah, "He sent the fierce wind upon the Arnon River (aka Zarqa River), Num 21:15 at the slope of the valleys that lead toward the town of Ar and go down toward the border of Moab."

Num 21:16 From there they traveled to Beer, which is where the well is, where Yehowah said to Moses, “Gather the people together for me to give them water.”
Num 21:17 Then Israel sang this song: “Spring up, O well! Sing about it.
Num 21:18 The well that our leaders dug, the well the people’s nobles dug by decree, with their trekking poles.” Then from the wilderness they traveled to Mattanah.
Num 21:19 From Mattanah they traveled to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth,
Num 21:20 and from Bamoth to a valley in the land of Moab. That is where the top of Mount Pisgah looks down on the wasteland (disk-shaped Valley where Sodom and Gomorrah were devastated).
Num 21:21 Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites saying,
Num 21:22 “Let us pass through your land. We will not turn into any field or vineyard. We will not drink the water from your wells. We will travel by the king’s highway, until we have crossed your border.”
Num 21:23 But King Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through their border. Instead, Sihon gathered all his military force together and attacked Israel in the wilderness. He came to Jahaz, where he fought against Israel.
Num 21:24 Israel attacked the military force of Sihon with the edge of the sword and took their land from the Arnon (Zarqa) to the Jabbok River (modern Yarmuk River), as far as the land of the people of Ammon. Now the border of the people of Ammon was fortified.
Num 21:25 Israel took all the Amorite cities and lived in all of them, including Heshbon and all of its villages.
Num 21:26 Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab. Sihon had taken all his land from his territory to the Arnon River (aka Zarqa River).
Num 21:27 That is why those who speak in proverbs say, “Come to Heshbon. Let the city of Sihon be rebuilt and established again.
Num 21:28 A fire blazed from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon that devoured Ar of Moab and the owners of the high places of Arnon.
Num 21:29 Woe to you, Moab! You have perished, people of Chemosh. He has made his sons to be fugitives and his daughters to be prisoners of Sihon king of the Amorites.
Num 21:30 But we have conquered Sihon. Heshbon is devastated all the way to Dibon. We have defeated them all the way to Nophah, which reaches to Medeba.”
Num 21:31 So Israel began to live in the Amorites’ land.
Num 21:32 Then Moses sent men to look at Jazer. They took its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Num 21:33 Then they turned and went up by the road of Bashan. Og king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his military force, to fight them at Edrei.
Num 21:34 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Do not fear him, because I have given you victory over him, all his military force, and his land. Do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.”
Num 21:35 So they killed him, his sons, and all his military force, until none of his people were left alive. Then they took over his land.

Numbers Chapter 22

Num 22:1 The people of Israel traveled on, until they camped in the plains of Moab near Jericho (modern Tell es-Sultan), on the other side of the Jordan River from the city.
Num 22:2 Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.
Num 22:3 Moab was deathly afraid of the people, because they were many, and Moab was in terror of the people of Israel.
Num 22:4 The king of Moab said to the elders of Midian, “This multitude will eat up all that is around us as an ox eats up the grass in a field.” Now Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.
Num 22:5 He sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the Jabbok River (modern Yarmuk River), in the land of the sons of his people. He called him and entreated, “Look, a nation has come here from Egypt. They cover the face of the earth, and they are right now next to me.
Num 22:6 So please come now and curse this nation for me, because they are too strong for me. Perhaps then I can manage to attack them and drive them out of the land. I know that whomever you bless will be blessed, and whomever you curse will be cursed.”
Num 22:7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian left, taking payment for divination. They came to Balaam and spoke to him Balak’s words.
Num 22:8 Balaam replied to them, “Stay here tonight. I will bring you what Yehowah says to me.” So the leaders of Moab stayed with Balaam that night.
Num 22:9 The Almighty came to Balaam and asked, “Who are these men who came to you?”
Num 22:10 Balaam answered the Almighty, “Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent them to me. He entreated, Num 22:11 ‘Look, the people who have come from Egypt cover the surface of my land. Now come and curse them for me. Perhaps I will manage to fight them and drive them out.’”
Num 22:12 The Almighty replied to Balaam, “You must not go with those men. You must not curse the people of Israel, because they have been blessed.”
Num 22:13 Balaam rose up at dawn and said to Balak’s leaders, “Go back to your land, because Yehowah refuses to allow me to go with you.”
Num 22:14 So the leaders of Moab left and went back to Balak. They reported, “Balaam refused to come with us.”
Num 22:15 Balak sent again more leaders who were even more honored than the first group.
Num 22:16 They came to Balaam and entreated him, “Balak son of Zippor implores this, ‘Please let nothing stop you from coming to me, Num 22:17 because I will pay you extremely well and give you great honor, and I will do whatever you tell me to do. So please come and curse this people for me.'"

Num 22:18 Balaam answered Balak's men, "Even if Balak would give me his palace full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the Word of Yehowah, my Divine One, and do less or more than what he tells me.
Num 22:19 Now then, please wait here tonight too, so that I may learn anything further that Yehowah says to me."
Num 22:20 The Almighty came to Balaam at night and ordered him, "Since these men have come to summon you, get up and go with them. But only do what I tell you to do."
Num 22:21 Balaam rose up at dawn, saddled his donkey, and went with the leaders of Moab.
Num 22:22 But because he went, the anger of the Almighty was kindled. The angel of Yehowah placed himself in the road as someone hostile to Balaam, who was riding on his donkey. Balaam's two servants were also with him.
Num 22:23 The donkey saw the angel of Yehowah standing in the road with his drawn sword in his hand. The donkey turned off the road and went into a field. Balaam struck the donkey to turn her back to the road.
Num 22:24 Then the angel of Yehowah stood in a narrow part of the road between some vineyards, with a wall on his right side and another wall on his left side.
Num 22:25 The donkey saw the angel of Yehowah again. She went against the wall and pinned Balaam's foot against it. Balaam struck her again.
Num 22:26 The angel of Yehowah went further and stood in another narrow place where there was no way to turn to either side.
Num 22:27 The donkey saw the angel of Yehowah, and she lay down under Balaam. Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his trekking pole.
Num 22:28 Then Yehowah opened the jenny donkey's mouth so she could talk. She asked Balaam, "What have I done to you that induced you to strike me these three times?"
Num 22:29 Balaam answered the donkey, "It was because you acted so stupidly with me. I wish there were a sword in my hand. If there were, by now I would have killed you."
Num 22:30 The donkey asked Balaam, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden all your life long to this present day? Have I ever been in the habit of doing such things to you before?" Balaam answered, "No."
Num 22:31 Then Yehowah opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the angel of Yehowah standing in the road with his drawn sword in his hand. Balaam lowered his head and lay facedown.

Num 22:32 The angel of Yehowah said to him, “Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Look, I have come as someone hostile to you, because your actions before me have been wicked.
Num 22:33 The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away from me, I would certainly have killed you and spared her life.”
Num 22:34 Balaam responded to the angel of Yehowah, “I have sinned. I did not know that you stood against me in the road. So now, if it is displeasing to you, I will turn back.”
Num 22:35 But the angel of Yehowah ordered Balaam, “Go on ahead with the men. But you must only speak the words that I tell you.” So Balaam went with the leaders of Balak.
Num 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at a city in Moab at the Arnon (aka Zarqa River), which is on the border.
Num 22:37 Balak asked Balaam, “Did I not send men to you to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?”
Num 22:38 Then Balaam answered Balak, “See, I have come to you. Do I now have any power to say anything? I can only say the words that the Almighty puts into my mouth.”
Num 22:39 Balaam went with Balak, and they arrived at Kiriath Huzoth.
Num 22:40 Then Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep and gave some meat to Balaam and the leaders who were with him.
Num 22:41 At dawn, Balak took Balaam up to the high place of Baal. From there Balaam could see only a part of the Israelis in their camp.

Numbers Chapter 23

Num 23:1 Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars here for me and prepare seven bulls and seven rams.”
Num 23:2 So Balak did as Balaam requested. Then Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on every altar.
Num 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand at your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps Yehowah will come to meet me. Whatever he shows me, I will tell you.” So he went away to a hilltop with no trees.
Num 23:4 While he was on the hilltop, the Almighty met him, and Balaam said to him, “I have built seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on each one.”
Num 23:5 Yehowah put a message in Balaam’s mouth and ordered, “Return to Balak and speak to him.”
Num 23:6 So Balaam returned to Balak, who was standing by his burnt offering, and all the leaders of Moab were with him.
Num 23:7 Then Balaam began to speak his prophecy, “Balak has brought me from Aram (modern Syria), the king of Moab from the eastern mountains. ‘Come, curse Jacob for me,’ he said. ‘Come, defy Israel.’
Num 23:8 How can I curse those whom the Almighty has not cursed? How can I oppose those whom Yehowah does not oppose?
Num 23:9 For from the top of the rocks I see him; from the hills I look at him. See, there is a people who live alone and do not consider themselves as just an ordinary nation.
Num 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob or number even only one fourth of Israel? Let me die the death of a righteous person, and let my life’s end be like his!”
Num 23:11 Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but look, you have blessed them.”
Num 23:12 Balaam answered, “Should I not be careful to say only what Yehowah puts in my mouth?”
Num 23:13 So Balak responded to him, “Please come with me to another place where you can see them. You will only see the nearest of them, not all of them. There you will curse them for me.”
Num 23:14 So he took Balaam into the field of Zophim, to the top of Mount Pisgah, and built seven more altars. He offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.
Num 23:15 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand here by your burnt offering, while I meet with Yehowah over there.”

Num 23:16 So Yehowah met Balaam and put a message in his mouth. He ordered, “Return to Balak and give him my message.”
Num 23:17 Balaam returned to him, and look, he was standing by his burnt offering, and the leaders of Moab were with him. Then Balak asked him, “What has Yehowah said?”
Num 23:18 Balaam began his prophecy, “Rise up, Balak, and hear. Listen to me, you son of Zippor.
Num 23:19 The Almighty is not a man, that he should lie, or the son of a human, that he should change his mind. Has he promised anything without doing it? Has he said he would do something without carrying it out?
Num 23:20 Look, I have been commanded to bless. Yehowah has given a blessing, and I cannot reverse it.
Num 23:21 He has seen no hardship in Jacob or trouble in Israel. Yehowah their Divine One is with them, and shouts for their king are among them!
Num 23:22 The Almighty brought them out of Egypt with strength like that of a wild ox.
Num 23:23 There is no sorcery that works against Jacob, and no fortune-telling harms Israel. Instead, it must be proclaimed about Jacob and Israel, ‘Look what the Almighty has done!’
Num 23:24 Look, the people rise like a lioness, as a lion emerges and attacks. He does not lie down, until he eats his victim and drinks the blood of what he has killed.”
Num 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Do not curse them or bless them at all.”
Num 23:26 But Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not tell you that I must say all that Yehowah tells me to say?”
Num 23:27 So Balak replied to Balaam, “Come now, I will take you to another place. Perhaps it will please the Almighty for you to curse them there for me.”
Num 23:28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Mount Peor, which looks down on the wilderness.
Num 23:29 Balaam said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams.”
Num 23:30 So Balak did as Balaam had said; he offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers Chapter 24

Num 24:1 When Balaam saw that it pleased Yehowah to bless Israel, he did not go, as at the other times, to use sorcery. Instead, he looked toward the wilderness.
Num 24:2 He raised his eyes and saw that Israel was camped, each in their own tribe, and the Ruach of the Almighty came on him.
Num 24:3 He received this prophecy, “Balaam son of Beor is about to speak, the man whose eyes are wide open.
Num 24:4 He speaks and hears the words of the Almighty. He sees a vision from the Most Powerful, before whom he bows down with his eyes open.
Num 24:5 How beautiful are your tents, Jacob, the place where you live, Israel!
Num 24:6 Like valleys they spread out, like gardens by the riverside, like aloes planted by Yehowah, like cedars beside the waters.
Num 24:7 Water flows from their buckets, and their seed is well-watered. Their king is to be higher than Gog (Antimessiah), and their kingdom will be honored.
Num 24:8 The Almighty brings him out of Egypt, with strength like a wild ox. He will eat up the ethnicities who fight against him. He will break their bones to pieces. He will shoot them with his arrows.
Num 24:9 He crouches down like a lion, like a lioness. Who dares disturb him? May everyone who blesses him be blessed; may everyone who curses him be cursed.”
Num 24:10 Balak’s anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together in anger. Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, but look, you have blessed them three times.
Num 24:11 So leave me right now and go home. I said I would greatly reward you, but Yehowah has kept you from getting any reward.”
Num 24:12 Then Balaam replied to Balak, “I said to the messengers that you sent to me,
Num 24:13 ‘Even if Balak gave me his palace full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the Word of Yehowah to do anything bad or good, or anything at all that I might want to do. I can say only what Yehowah tells me to say.’ Did I not say this to them?
Num 24:14 So now, look, I will go back to my people. But first let me warn you what this people will do to your people in the days ahead.”
Num 24:15 Balaam began this prophecy, “Balaam son of Beor speaks, the man whose eyes are wide open.
Num 24:16 This is a prophecy of someone who hears words from the Almighty, who has knowledge from the Most High, who has visions from the Most Powerful, before whom he bows down with open eyes.

Num 24:17 I see him, but he is not here now. I look at him, but he is not near. A Star will come out of Jacob, and a Scepter will rise out of Israel. He will shatter Moab's leaders and destroy all the descendants of Seth.
Num 24:18 Then Edom will become a possession of Israel, and Seir will also become their possession, enemies of Israel, whom Israel will conquer with force.
Num 24:19 Out of Jacob a king will come who will have dominion, and he will destroy the survivors of their city."
Num 24:20 Then Balaam looked at Amalek and began his prophecy, "Amalek was once the greatest of ethnicities, but his final end will be eternal destruction."
Num 24:21 Then Balaam looked toward the Kenites and began his prophecy, "The place where you live is strong, and your nest is in the rocks.
Num 24:22 Nevertheless, Kain will be ruined when Assyria carries you away captive."
Num 24:23 Then Balaam began his final prophecy, "Woe! Who will survive when the Almighty does this?
Num 24:24 Ships will come from the coast of Kittim; they will attack Assyria and will conquer Eber, but they, too, will end in eternal destruction."
Num 24:25 Then Balaam rose up and left. He returned to his home, and Balak also went away.

Numbers Chapter 25

Num 25:1 Israel stayed in Shittim (Tall al-Hammam), and the men began to prostitute themselves with women of Moab,
Num 25:2 for the Moabites had invited the people to the sacrifices to their deities. So the people ate and bowed down to Moabite deities.
Num 25:3 The men of Israel joined in worshiping Baal of Peor, and the anger of Yehowah was kindled against Israel.
Num 25:4 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Execute all the leaders of the people and hang them up before me to expose them in the daylight, so that my fierce anger may turn away from Israel.”
Num 25:5 So Moses ordered Israel’s leaders, “Each of you must execute his people who have joined in worshiping Baal of Peor.”
Num 25:6 Then one of the men of Israel came and brought among his family members a Midianite woman. This happened in the sight of Moses and all the congregation of the people of Israel, while they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
Num 25:7 When Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw that, he rose up from among the congregation and took a spear in his hand.
Num 25:8 He followed the Israeli man into the tent and thrust the spear through both of their bodies, both the Israeli man and the woman. So a plague that Yehowah had sent on the people of Israel stopped.
Num 25:9 Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand in number (1 Cor. 10:8).
Num 25:10 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 25:11 “Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned my rage away from the people of Israel, because he was passionate with my zeal among them. So I have not consumed the people of Israel in my fierceness.
Num 25:12 Therefore say, ‘Yehowah declares, “Look, I am giving to Phinehas my covenant of peace.
Num 25:13 For him and his descendants after him, it will be a covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for me, his Divine One. He has atoned for the people of Israel.”’”
Num 25:14 Now the name of the Israeli man who was executed with the Midianite woman was Zimri, son of Salu, a leader of an ancestor’s family among the Simeonites.
Num 25:15 The name of the Midianite woman who was executed was Cozbi, daughter of Zur, who was head of a tribe and family in Midian.
Num 25:16 So Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 25:17 “Treat the Midianites as enemies and attack them,

Num 25:18 for they treated you like enemies with their deceitfulness. They led you into evil in the case of Peor and in the case of their sister Cozbi, the daughter of a leader in Midian, who was executed on the day of the plague in the matter of Peor.”

Numbers Chapter 26

Num 26:1 It came about after the plague, that Yehowah spoke to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the priest,
Num 26:2 “Count all the congregation of the people of Israel, from twenty years old and up, by their ancestor’s families, all who are able to go to war for Israel.”
Num 26:3 So Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke to them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan River at Jericho,
Num 26:4 “Count the people, from twenty years old and up, as Yehowah commanded Moses and the people of Israel, who came out of the land of Egypt.”
Num 26:5 Reuben was the firstborn of Israel. From his son Hanoch came the clan of the Hanochites. From Pallu came the clan of the Palluites.
Num 26:6 From Hezron came the clan of the Hezronites. From Carmi came the clan of the Carmites.
Num 26:7 These were the clans of Reuben’s descendants, who numbered 43,730 men.
Num 26:8 Eliab was a son of Pallu.
Num 26:9 Eliab’s sons were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These were the same Dathan and Abiram who followed Korah, when they challenged Moses and Aaron and rebelled against Yehowah.
Num 26:10 The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Korah when all his followers died. At that time, fire devoured 250 men, who became a warning sign.
Num 26:11 But Korah’s line did not die out.
Num 26:12 The clans of Simeon’s descendants were these: by Nemuel, the clan of the Nemuelites, by Jamin, the clan of the Jaminites, by Jachin, the clan of the Jachinites,
Num 26:13 by Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites, by Shaul, the clan of the Shaulites.
Num 26:14 These were the clans of Simeon’s descendants, who numbered 22,200 men.
Num 26:15 The clans of Gad’s descendants were these: by Zephon, the clan of the Zephonites, by Haggi, the clan of the Haggites, by Shuni, the clan of the Shunites,
Num 26:16 by Ozni, the clan of the Oznites, by Eri, the clan of the Erites,
Num 26:17 by Arod, the clan of the Arodites, by Areli, the clan of the Arelites.
Num 26:18 These were the clans of Gad’s descendants, who numbered 40,500 men.
Num 26:19 Judah’s sons were Er and Onan, but these men died in the land of Canaan.
Num 26:20 The clans of Judah’s other descendants were these: by Shelah, the clan of the Shelanites, by Perez, the clan of the Perezites, and by Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites.

Num 26:21 The descendants of Perez were these: by Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites, by Hamul, the clan of the Hamulites.
Num 26:22 These were the clans of Judah's descendants, who numbered 76,500 men.
Num 26:23 The clans of Issachar's descendants were these: by Tola, the clan of the Tolaites, by Puvah, the clan of the Puvites,
Num 26:24 by Jashub, the clan of the Jashubites, by Shimron, the clan of the Shimronites.
Num 26:25 These were the clans of Issachar, who numbered 64,300 men.
Num 26:26 The clans of Zebulun's descendants were these: By Sered, the clan of the Seredites, by Elon, the clan of the Elonites, by Jahleel, the clan of the Jahleelites.
Num 26:27 These were the clans of the Zebulunites, who numbered 60,500 men.
Num 26:28 The clans of Joseph's descendants were Manasseh and Ephraim.
Num 26:29 The descendants of Manasseh were these: by Machir, the clan of the Machirites, Machir was Gilead's father, by Gilead, the clan of the Gileadites.
Num 26:30 Gilead's descendants were these: by Iezer, the clan of the Iezerites, by Helek, the clan of the Helekites,
Num 26:31 by Asriel, the clan of the Asrielites, by Shechem, the clan of the Shechemites,
Num 26:32 by Shemida, the clan of the Shemidaites, by Hepher, the clan of the Hepherites.
Num 26:33 Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons but only daughters. The names of his daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
Num 26:34 These were the clans of Manasseh, who numbered 52,700 men.
Num 26:35 The clans of Ephraim's descendants were these: by Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthelahites, by Becher, the clan of the Becherites, by Tahan, the clan of the Tahanites.
Num 26:36 The descendants of Shuthelah were, by Eran, the clan of the Eranites.
Num 26:37 These were the clans of Ephraim's descendants, who numbered 32,500 men. These were Joseph's descendants, counted in each of their clans.
Num 26:38 The clans of Benjamin's descendants were these: by Bela, the clan of the Belaites, by Ashbel, the clan of the Ashbelites, by Ahiram, the clan of the Ahiramites,
Num 26:39 by Shephupham, the clan of the Shuphamites, by Hupham, the clan of the Huphamites.
Num 26:40 Bela's sons were Ard and Naaman. From Ard came the clan of the Ardites, and from Naaman came the clan of the Naamites.
Num 26:41 These were the clans of Benjamin's descendants. They numbered 45,600 men.

Num 26:42 The clans of Dan's descendants were, by Shuham (Hushim; Gen. 46:23), the clans of the Shuhamites. These were the clans of Dan's descendants.
Num 26:43 All the clans of the Shuhamites numbered 64,400 men.
Num 26:44 The clans of Asher's descendants were these: by Imnah, the clan of the Imnites, by Ishvi, the clan of the Ishvites, by Beriah, the clan of the Berites.
Num 26:45 The descendants of Beriah were these: by Heber, the clan of the Heberites, by Malchiel, the clan of the Malchielites.
Num 26:46 The name of Asher's daughter was Serah.
Num 26:47 These were the clans of Asher's descendants, who numbered 53,400 men.
Num 26:48 The clans of Naphtali's descendants were these: by Jahzeel, the clan of the Jahzeelites, by Guni, the clan of the Gunites,
Num 26:49 by Jezer, the clan of the Jezerites, by Shillem, the clan of the Shillemites.
Num 26:50 These were the clans of Naphtali's descendants, who numbered 45,400 men.
Num 26:51 This was the complete count of men among the people of Israel: 601,730.
Num 26:52 Yehowah instructed Moses,
Num 26:53 "The land must be divided among these men as an inheritance according to the number of their names.
Num 26:54 To the larger clans you must give more inheritance, and to the smaller clans you must give less inheritance. To every family you must give an inheritance, according to the number of men who were counted.
Num 26:55 However, the land must be divided by random lots. They must inherit the land as it will be divided among their ancestors' tribes.
Num 26:56 Their inheritance must be divided among the larger and the smaller clans, distributed to them by random lot."
Num 26:57 The Levite clans, counted clan by clan, were these: by Gershon, the clan of the Gershonites, by Kohath, the clan of the Kohathites, by Merari, the clan of the Merarites.
Num 26:58 The clans of Levi were these: the clan of the Libnites, the clan of the Hebronites, the clan of the Mahlites, the clan of the Mushites, and the clan of the Korahites. Kohath was Amram's ancestor.
Num 26:59 The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, a descendant of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. She bore to Amram their children, who were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam their sister.
Num 26:60 To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
Num 26:61 Nadab and Abihu died when they offered before Yehowah unacceptable fire.

Num 26:62 The males who were counted among them numbered twenty-three thousand, all males one month old and up. But they were not counted among Israel’s descendants, because no inheritance was given to them among the people of Israel.
Num 26:63 These are the ones who were counted by Moses and Eleazar the priest. They counted the people of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan River at Jericho.
Num 26:64 But among these there was no man who had been counted by Moses and Aaron the priest when the descendants of Israel were counted in the wilderness of Sinai.
Num 26:65 For Yehowah had prophesied that all of those people would certainly die in the wilderness. There was not a man left among them, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers Chapter 27

Num 27:1 Then to Moses came the daughters of Zelophehad son of Hepher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, of the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph. These were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.
Num 27:2 They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and before all the congregation at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. They said,
Num 27:3 “Our father died in the wilderness. He was not among those who conspired against Yehowah in the company of Korah. He died for his own sin, and he had no sons.
Num 27:4 Why should our father’s name be taken away from among his clan members because he had no son? Give us land among our father’s relatives.”
Num 27:5 So Moses brought their case before Yehowah.
Num 27:6 Yehowah commanded Moses,
Num 27:7 “Zelophehad’s daughters are speaking correctly. You must certainly give them land as an inheritance among their father’s relatives, and you must ensure that their father’s inheritance passes on to them.
Num 27:8 You must speak to the people of Israel, ‘If a man dies and has no son, then you must cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.
Num 27:9 If he has no daughter, then you must give his inheritance to his brothers.
Num 27:10 If he has no brothers, then you must give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.
Num 27:11 If his father has no brothers, then you must give his inheritance to his nearest relative in his clan, and he must take it for his own. This will be a law established by decree for the people of Israel, as Yehowah has commanded me.’”
Num 27:12 Yehowah ordered Moses, “Go up the mountains of Abarim and look at the land that I have given to the people of Israel (from Mt. Nebo; Deut. 32:48-49).
Num 27:13 After you have seen it, you too must be gathered to your people, like Aaron your brother.
Num 27:14 This will happen because you two rebelled against my command in the wilderness of Sin. There, when the water flowed from the rock, in your anger you failed to honor me as consecrated before the eyes of the whole congregation.” These are the waters of Meribah of Kadesh in the wilderness of Sin.
Num 27:15 Then Moses entreated Yehowah,

Num 27:16 “May you, Yehowah, Mighty One of the spirits of all humanity, appoint a man over the congregation,
Num 27:17 a man who may go out and come in before them and lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of Yehowah is not like sheep that have no shepherd.”
Num 27:18 Yehowah spoke to Moses, “Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom my Ruach lives, and lay your hand on him.
Num 27:19 Place him before Eleazar the priest and before all the congregation, and command him before their eyes to lead them.
Num 27:20 You must put some of your authority on him, so that all the congregation of the people of Israel may obey him.
Num 27:21 He will go before Eleazar the priest to seek the will of Yehowah for him by the decisions of the Urim. It will be at his command that the people will go out and come in, both he and all the people of Israel with him, the whole congregation.”
Num 27:22 So Moses did as Yehowah had commanded him. He took Joshua and placed him before Eleazar the priest and all the congregation.
Num 27:23 He laid his hands on him and commanded him to lead, as Yehowah had commanded him to do.

Numbers Chapter 28

Num 28:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 28:2 “Command the people of Israel, ‘You must offer sacrifices to me at the appointment calendar times, the food of my offerings made by fire to produce a sweet aroma for me.’
Num 28:3 You must also say to them, ‘This is the offering made by fire that you must offer to Yehowah, male lambs a year old without blemish, two each day, as a regular burnt offering.
Num 28:4 One lamb you must offer at dawn, and the other lamb you must offer at dusk.
Num 28:5 You must offer two liters of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with 1.5 liters of pure oil.
Num 28:6 This is the regular burnt offering that was commanded at Mount Sinai to produce a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to Yehowah.
Num 28:7 The (unleavened) drink offering with it must be 1.5 liters for one of the lambs. You must pour out in the Set-apart Place an (unleavened) drink offering of new wine to Yehowah (Lev. 2:11).
Num 28:8 The other lamb you must offer at dusk along with another grain offering like the one offered at dawn. You must also offer another (unleavened) drink offering with it, an offering made by fire, to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah.
Num 28:9 On the Sabbath day, you must offer two male lambs, each a year old without blemish, and 4.5 liters of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, and the 4.5 liters of an (unleavened) drink offering with it.
Num 28:10 This is to be the burnt offering for every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and the (unleavened) drink offering with it.
Num 28:11 At the beginning of each month, you must offer a burnt offering to Yehowah. You must offer two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old without blemish.
Num 28:12 You must also offer six liters of fine flour as a grain offering mixed with oil for each bull, and four liters of fine flour as a grain offering mixed with oil for the one ram.
Num 28:13 You must also offer two liters of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering for each lamb. This is to be the burnt offering, to produce a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to Yehowah.
Num 28:14 The people’s (unleavened) drink offerings must be three liters of wine for a bull, two liters for a ram, and 1.5 liters for a lamb. This is to be the burnt offering at the beginning of each month, throughout the months of the year.

Num 28:15 One male goat as a sin offering to Yehowah must be offered. This will be in addition to the regular burnt offering and the (unleavened) drink offering with it.
Num 28:16 On the fourteenth day of the first month, comes the Passover of Yehowah.
Num 28:17 On the fifteenth day of this month, a feast is to be held. For seven days, unleavened bread must be eaten.
Num 28:18 On the first day, there must be a set-apart assembly to honor Yehowah. You must not do regular work on that day.
Num 28:19 However, you must offer a sacrifice made by fire, a burnt offering to Yehowah. You must offer two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, without blemish.
Num 28:20 Along with the bull, you must offer a grain offering of six liters of fine flour mixed with oil, and along with the ram, four liters.
Num 28:21 With each of the seven lambs, you must offer two liters of fine flour mixed with oil,
Num 28:22 and one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for yourselves.
Num 28:23 You must offer these in addition to the regular burnt offering required each dawn.
Num 28:24 As described here, you must offer these sacrifices daily, for the seven days of Unleavened Bread, the food of the offering made by fire, a sweet aroma for Yehowah. It must be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and the (unleavened) drink offering with it.
Num 28:25 On the seventh day (Abib 21), you must have a set-apart assembly to honor Yehowah, and you must not do regular work on that day.
Num 28:26 Also on the Day of the Firstfruits (Omer day 50), when you offer a new (wheat) grain offering to Yehowah at your Festival of Shavuot, you must have a set-apart assembly, and you must not do regular work on that day.
Num 28:27 You must offer a burnt offering to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. You must offer two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old.
Num 28:28 Offer also their grain offering to go with them: Fine flour mixed with oil, six liters of fine flour mixed with oil for each bull and four liters for the one ram.
Num 28:29 Offer two liters of fine flour mixed with oil for each of the seven lambs,
Num 28:30 and one male goat to make atonement for yourselves.
Num 28:31 When you offer those animals without blemish, along with their (unleavened) drink offerings, this must be in addition to the regular burnt offering and the grain offering with it.'"

Numbers Chapter 29

Num 29:1 “On the first of the seventh month, you must have a set-apart assembly to honor Yehowah. You must not do regular work on that day. It will be a day when you blow trumpets (Yom Teruah).
Num 29:2 You must offer a burnt offering to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. You must offer one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, each without blemish.
Num 29:3 You must offer with them their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil, six liters for the bull, four liters for the ram,
Num 29:4 and two liters for each lamb of the seven lambs.
Num 29:5 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for yourselves.
Num 29:6 Make these offerings in the seventh month in addition to all of the offerings you will make on the first of each month: the special burnt offering and the grain offering to go with it. These must be in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offerings. As you make these offerings, you will obey what has been decreed to produce a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to Yehowah.
Num 29:7 On the tenth of the seventh month (Yom Kippur) you must have a set-apart assembly to honor Yehowah. You must deny yourselves and do no work.
Num 29:8 You must offer a burnt offering to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. You must offer one young bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old. They must each be without blemish.
Num 29:9 You must offer with them a grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil, six liters for the bull, four liters for the one ram,
Num 29:10 and two liters for each of the seven lambs.
Num 29:11 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering. This will be in addition to the sin offering of atonements, the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:12 On the fifteenth day of the seventh month (Sukkot) you must have a set-apart assembly to honor Yehowah. You must not do regular work on that day, and you must keep the Feast for him seven days.
Num 29:13 You must offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. You must offer thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old. Each must be without blemish.
Num 29:14 You must offer with them a grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil, six liters for every bull of the thirteen bulls, four liters for each ram of the two rams,
Num 29:15 and four liters for each lamb of the fourteen lambs.

Num 29:16 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and the drink offering with it.
Num 29:17 On the second day of the Feast, you must offer twelve young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, each without blemish.
Num 29:18 You must make with them a grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, making as many offerings as were commanded.
Num 29:19 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:20 On the third day of the Feast, you must offer eleven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, each without blemish.
Num 29:21 You must make with them a grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, making as many offerings as were commanded.
Num 29:22 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:23 On the fourth day of the Feast, you must offer ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, each without blemish.
Num 29:24 You must make with them a grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, making as many offerings as were commanded.
Num 29:25 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:26 On the fifth day of the Feast, you must offer nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, each without blemish.
Num 29:27 You must make with them a grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, making as many offerings as were commanded.
Num 29:28 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:29 On the sixth day of the Feast, you must offer eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, each without blemish.
Num 29:30 You must make with them a grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, making as many offerings as were commanded.
Num 29:31 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:32 On the seventh day of the Feast, you must offer seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen male lambs a year old, each without blemish.

Num 29:33 You must make with them a grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, making as many offerings as were commanded.
Num 29:34 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:35 On the eighth day you must have another festive assembly (8th day assembly; Shemini Atzeret). You must not do regular work on that day.
Num 29:36 You must make a burnt offering, an offering made by fire to produce a sweet aroma for Yehowah. You must offer one bull, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, each without blemish.
Num 29:37 You must offer their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, making as many offerings as were commanded.
Num 29:38 You must offer one male goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
Num 29:39 These are what you must offer to Yehowah at your appointment calendar festivals. These must be in addition to your vows and freewill offerings. You must offer these as your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings, and peace offerings.”
Num 29:40 Moses told the people of Israel everything that Yehowah had commanded him to say.

Numbers Chapter 30

Num 30:1 Moses spoke to the leaders of the tribes of the people of Israel, “This is what Yehowah has commanded.
Num 30:2 When anyone makes a vow to Yehowah, or swears an oath to bind himself with a promise, he must not break his word. He must keep his promise to do everything that comes out of his mouth.
Num 30:3 When a young woman living in her father’s house makes a vow to Yehowah and binds herself with a promise,
Num 30:4 if her father hears the vow and the promise by which she has bound herself, and if he says nothing to reverse her, then all her vows will remain in force. Every promise by which she has bound herself will remain in force.
Num 30:5 But if her father hears about her vow and her promise, and if he says nothing to her, then all the vows and promises that she took on herself will remain in force.
Num 30:6 However, if her father hears all the vows she made and her solemn promises with which she has bound herself, and if he overrules her on that same day, then they will not remain in force. Yehowah will forgive her, because her father had overruled her.
Num 30:7 If she marries a man while she is under those vows, or if she makes rash promises with which she obligates herself, those obligations will remain in force.
Num 30:8 But if her husband stops her on the day that he hears about it, then he cancels the vow that she has made, the rash talk of her lips with which she has bound herself. Yehowah will release her.
Num 30:9 But as for a widow or a divorced woman, everything by which she has bound herself will remain in force against her.
Num 30:10 If a woman made a vow in her husband’s house or obligates herself by taking an oath,
Num 30:11 and her husband hears of it, but he says nothing to her, and he does not oppose her, then all her vows must stand, and the obligations she made must remain in force.
Num 30:12 But if her husband cancels them on the day that he heard about them, then whatever came out of her lips about her vows or promises will not remain in force. Her husband has canceled them. Yehowah will release her.
Num 30:13 Every vow or oath a woman takes that binds her to deny herself something may be confirmed or canceled by her husband.
Num 30:14 But if he says nothing at all to her day after day, then he confirms all her vows and binding promises that she has made. He has confirmed them, because he has said nothing to her at the time that he heard about them.

Num 30:15 If her husband tries to cancel his wife’s vow a long time after he has heard about it, then he will be responsible for her sin.”
Num 30:16 These are the statutes that Yehowah commanded Moses to announce, statutes for what is between a man and his wife and between a father and his daughter, when she is in her youth in her father’s family.

Numbers Chapter 31

Num 31:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 31:2 “Take vengeance on the Midianites for what they did to the Israelis. After doing that, you will die and be gathered to your people.”
Num 31:3 So Moses ordered the people, “Arm some of your men for war, so they may go against Midian and carry out the vengeance of Yehowah on it.
Num 31:4 Every tribe throughout Israel must send a thousand soldiers to war.”
Num 31:5 So out of Israel’s thousands and thousands of men, one thousand were provided from every tribe for war, twelve thousand men in all.
Num 31:6 Then Moses sent them to battle, a thousand from every tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, and with some articles from the Set-apart Place and the trumpets in his possession for sounding signals.
Num 31:7 They fought against Midian, as Yehowah had commanded Moses. They killed every man.
Num 31:8 They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of their dead: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor, with the sword (Josh. 13:22).
Num 31:9 The military force of Israel took captive the women of Midian, their children, all their livestock, including their flocks, and all their goods. They took these as plunder.
Num 31:10 They burned all their cities where they lived and all their camps.
Num 31:11 They took all the plunder and prisoners, both people and animals.
Num 31:12 They brought the prisoners, the plunder, and the captured things to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the people of Israel. They brought these to the camp in the plains of Moab, by the Jordan River near Jericho.
Num 31:13 Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went to meet them outside the camp.
Num 31:14 But Moses was angry with the officers of the military force, the commanders of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from battle.
Num 31:15 Moses said to them, “Have you let all the women live?
Num 31:16 Look, these women caused the people of Israel, through Balaam’s advice, to commit sin against Yehowah in the matter of Peor, when the plague spread among the congregation of Yehowah.
Num 31:17 Now then kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has ever had sex with a man.
Num 31:18 But take for yourselves all the young girls who have never had sex with a man.

Num 31:19 You must camp outside the camp of Israel for seven days. All of you who have killed anyone or have touched any dead person, you must purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your prisoners.
Num 31:20 You must purify every garment and everything made of animal hide and goats' hair, and everything made of wood."
Num 31:21 Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone to war, "This is a decreed law that Yehowah has given to Moses:
Num 31:22 The gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead,
Num 31:23 and everything that resists fire, you must put it through the fire, and it will become clean. You must then purify those things with the water of cleansing. Whatever cannot go through the fire you must cleanse with that water.
Num 31:24 You must wash your clothes on the seventh day, and then you will become clean. Afterward, you may come into Israel's camp."
Num 31:25 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 31:26 "Count all the plundered things that were taken, both people and animals. You, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the congregation's ancestor's clans
Num 31:27 must divide the plunder into two parts. Divide it between the soldiers who went out to battle and all the rest of the congregation.
Num 31:28 Then levy a tax to be given to Yehowah from the soldiers who went out to battle. This tax must be one out of every five hundred, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, or goats.
Num 31:29 Take this tax from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest for an offering to be presented to Yehowah.
Num 31:30 Also from the people of Israel's half, you must take one out of every fifty, from the persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats. Give these to the Levites who take care of the tabernacle of Yehowah."
Num 31:31 So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Num 31:32 Now the plunder that remained of what the soldiers had taken was 675,000 sheep,
Num 31:33 seventy-two thousand oxen,
Num 31:34 sixty-one thousand donkeys,
Num 31:35 and thirty-two thousand women who had never had sex with any man.
Num 31:36 The half that was kept for the soldiers numbered 337,500 sheep.
Num 31:37 The part of the sheep for Yehowah was 675.
Num 31:38 The oxen were thirty-six thousand which the tax to Yehowah was seventy-two.

Num 31:39 The donkeys were 30,500 from which the part for Yehowah was sixty-one.
Num 31:40 The persons were sixteen thousand women of whom the tax to Yehowah was thirty-two.
Num 31:41 Moses took the tax that was to be an offering presented to Yehowah. He gave it to Eleazar the priest, as Yehowah commanded Moses.
Num 31:42 As for the people of Israel's half that Moses had taken from the soldiers who had gone to war,
Num 31:43 the congregation's half was 337,500 sheep,
Num 31:44 thirty-six thousand oxen,
Num 31:45 30,500 donkeys,
Num 31:46 and sixteen thousand women.
Num 31:47 From the people of Israel's half, Moses took one out of every fifty, both of people and animals. He gave them to the Levites who kept care of the tabernacle of Yehowah, as Yehowah had commanded him to do.
Num 31:48 Then the officers of the military force, the commanders over thousands and the captains over hundreds, came to Moses.
Num 31:49 They reported to him, "Your servants have counted the soldiers who are under our command, and not one man is missing.
Num 31:50 We have brought the offering of Yehowah, what each man found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before Yehowah."
Num 31:51 Moses and Eleazar the priest received from them the gold and all the articles of craftsmanship.
Num 31:52 All the gold of the offering that they gave to Yehowah, the offerings from the commanders of thousands and from the captains of hundreds, weighed 191 kilograms.
Num 31:53 Each soldier had taken plunder, each man for himself.
Num 31:54 Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from the commanders of thousands and captains of hundreds. They took it into the Tent of Meeting as a reminder of the people of Israel for Yehowah.

Numbers Chapter 32

Num 32:1 Now the descendants of Reuben and of Gad had large numbers of livestock. When they saw the land of Jazer and Gilead, the land was a wonderful place for livestock.
Num 32:2 So the descendants of Gad and Reuben came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation,
Num 32:3 “This is a list of places we have surveyed: Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon.
Num 32:4 These are the lands that Yehowah attacked before the congregation of Israel, and they are good places for livestock. We, your servants, have a lot of livestock.”
Num 32:5 They entreated, “If we have found grace in your sight, let this land be given to us, your servants, as a possession. Do not make us cross over the Jordan River.”
Num 32:6 Moses replied to the descendants of Gad and Reuben, “Should your brothers go to war while you settle down here?
Num 32:7 Why discourage the hearts of the people of Israel from going over into the land that Yehowah has given them?
Num 32:8 Your fathers did the same thing when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia) to examine the land.
Num 32:9 They went up to the Valley of Eshcol. They saw the land and then discouraged the hearts of the people of Israel, so that they refused to enter the land that Yehowah had given them.
Num 32:10 The anger of Yehowah was kindled on that day. He took an oath,
Num 32:11 ‘Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and up, will see the land about which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not completely followed me, except for Num 32:12 Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua son of Nun. Only Caleb and Joshua have completely followed Yehowah.’
Num 32:13 So the anger of Yehowah was kindled against Israel. He made them wander around in the wilderness for forty years (c. 1650 – 1611 BC), until all the generation who had done evil in the sight of Yehowah was destroyed.
Num 32:14 Look, you have risen up in your fathers’ place, just like more sinful men, to add to the burning anger of Yehowah toward Israel.
Num 32:15 If you turn away from following him, he will again leave Israel in the wilderness, and you will have destroyed all this people.”
Num 32:16 So they came near Moses and said, “Allow us to build fences here for our livestock and cities for our families.
Num 32:17 However, we ourselves will be ready and armed to go with Israel’s military force, until we have led them into their place. But our families will live in the fortified cities, because of the other people who still live in this land.

Num 32:18 We will not return to our houses, until every one of the people of Israel has obtained his inheritance.
Num 32:19 We will not inherit the land with them on the other side of the Jordan River, and beyond, because our inheritance is here on the east side of the Jordan River."
Num 32:20 So Moses replied to them, "If you do what you say, if you arm yourselves to go before Yehowah to war,
Num 32:21 then every one of your armed men must cross over the Jordan River before Yehowah, until he has driven out his enemies from before him,
Num 32:22 and the land is subdued before Yehowah. Then afterward you may return. You will be guiltless toward Yehowah and toward Israel. This land will be your possession before Yehowah.
Num 32:23 But if you do not do so, look, you will have sinned against Yehowah. Be sure that your sin will find you out.
Num 32:24 Build cities for your families and pens for your sheep; then do what you have said."
Num 32:25 The descendants of Gad and Reuben spoke to Moses, "Your servants will do as our master commands.
Num 32:26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will stay there in the cities of Gilead.
Num 32:27 However we, your servants, will cross over before Yehowah to battle, every man who is armed for war, as you, our master, say."
Num 32:28 So Moses gave instructions concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and to the leaders of the ancestor's clans in the tribes of the people of Israel.
Num 32:29 Moses said to them, "If the descendants of Gad and Reuben cross over the Jordan River with you, every man who is armed to battle before Yehowah, and if the land is subdued before you, then you will give them the land of Gilead as a possession.
Num 32:30 But if they do not cross over with you armed, then they will acquire their possessions among you in the land of Canaan."
Num 32:31 So the descendants of Gad and Reuben answered, "As Yehowah has said to us, your servants, this is what we will do.
Num 32:32 We will cross over armed before Yehowah into the land of Canaan, but our possessed inheritance will remain with us on this side of the Jordan River."
Num 32:33 So to the descendants of Gad and Reuben, and also to the half tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph, Moses gave the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and of Og, king of Bashan. He gave to them the land, and distributed to them all its cities with their borders, the cities of the land around them.

Num 32:34 The descendants of Gad rebuilt Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,
Num 32:35 Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,
Num 32:36 Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran as fortified cities with pens for sheep.
Num 32:37 The descendants of Reuben rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim,
Num 32:38 Nebo, Baal Meon, their names were later changed, and Sibmah. They gave other names to the cities that they rebuilt.
Num 32:39 The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead and took it away from the Amorites who were in it.
Num 32:40 Then Moses gave Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and his people settled there.
Num 32:41 Jair son of Manasseh went and captured its towns and called them Havvoth Jair.
Num 32:42 Nobah went and captured Kenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

Numbers Chapter 33

Num 33:1 These were the movements of the people of Israel after they left the land of Egypt by their armed forces under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.
Num 33:2 Moses wrote down the places from where they left to where they went, as commanded by Yehowah. These were their movements, departure after departure.
Num 33:3 They traveled from Rameses during the first month, leaving on the fifteenth day of the first month (Abib 15, c. 1650 BC). On the next day following the Passover, the people of Israel left openly, in the sight of all the Egyptians.
Num 33:4 This happened while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, those whom Yehowah had killed among them, for Yehowah also inflicted punishment on their deities.
Num 33:5 The people of Israel set out from Rameses and camped at Succoth (Exo. 12:37).
Num 33:6 They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness (of Shur, or Etham; Exo. 13:20; 15:22).
Num 33:7 They set out from Etham and turned back to Pi Hahiroth (house of Hathor, Exo. 14:2), which is opposite Baal Zephon (deity of the north), where they camped opposite Migdol.
Num 33:8 Then they set out from opposite Pi Hahiroth and passed through the middle of the SEA into the wilderness. They traveled three days' journey into the wilderness of Etham (or Shur; Exo. 15:22) and camped at Marah.
Num 33:9 They set out from Marah and arrived at Elim (modern Ein Zik). At Elim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees (Exo. 15:27). That is where they camped.
Num 33:10 They set out from Elim and camped by the End Salt Sea.
Num 33:11 They set out from the End Salt Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin (just east of Mt. Sin).
Num 33:12 They set out from the wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah.
Num 33:13 They set out from Dophkah and camped at Alush.
Num 33:14 They set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where no water was found for the people to drink.
Num 33:15 They set out from Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Sinai.
Num 33:16 They set out from the wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.
Num 33:17 They set out from Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.
Num 33:18 They set out from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.
Num 33:19 They set out from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.
Num 33:20 They set out from Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.

Num 33:21 They set out from Libnah and camped at Rissah.
Num 33:22 They set out from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah.
Num 33:23 They set out from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.
Num 33:24 They set out from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah.
Num 33:25 They set out from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.
Num 33:26 They set out from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.
Num 33:27 They set out from Tahath and camped at Terah.
Num 33:28 They set out from Terah and camped at Mithkah.
Num 33:29 They set out from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah.
Num 33:30 They set out from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.
Num 33:31 They set out from Moseroth and camped at Bene Jaakan.
Num 33:32 They set out from Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad.
Num 33:33 They set out from Hor Haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah.
Num 33:34 They set out from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.
Num 33:35 They set out from Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber.
Num 33:36 They set out from Ezion Geber and camped in the wilderness of Sin at Kadesh (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia).
Num 33:37 They set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom.
Num 33:38 Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor at the command of Yehowah and died there in the fortieth year, after the people of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first of the fifth month.
Num 33:39 Aaron was 123 years old when he died on Mount Hor (c. 1611 BC).
Num 33:40 The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the southern wilderness in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the people of Israel.
Num 33:41 They set out from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah.
Num 33:42 They set out from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.
Num 33:43 They set out from Punon and camped at Oboth (Num. 21:10).
Num 33:44 They set out from Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim (modern Azraq, Jordan), on the border of Moab.
Num 33:45 They set out from Iye Abarim and camped at Dibon Gad (modern Dhībān, Jordan).
Num 33:46 They set out from Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathaim.
Num 33:47 They set out from Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, opposite Nebo.
Num 33:48 They set out from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan River at Jericho.
Num 33:49 They camped by the Jordan River, from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim in the plains of Moab.
Num 33:50 Yehowah commanded Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan River at Jericho,

Num 33:51 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When you cross over the Jordan River into the land of Canaan,
Num 33:52 then you must drive out all the land’s inhabitants before you. You must destroy all their carved figures. You must destroy all their cast figures and demolish all their high places.
Num 33:53 You must take possession of the land and settle in it, because I have given you the land to possess.
Num 33:54 You must inherit the land by lot, according to each clan. To the larger clans you must give a larger share of land, and to the smaller clans you must give a smaller share of land. Wherever the lot falls to each clan, that land will belong to it. You will inherit the land according to your ancestors’ tribes.
Num 33:55 But if you do not drive out the land’s inhabitants before you, then the people you allow to stay will become like objects in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will make your lives difficult in the land where you settle.
Num 33:56 Then it will happen that what I now intend to do to those people, I will do also to you.’”

Numbers Chapter 34

Num 34:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 34:2 “Command the people of Israel, ‘When you enter the land of Canaan, the land that will belong to you, the land of Canaan and its borders,
Num 34:3 your southern border will extend from the wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom. The southern border will be on a line that ends at the southern end of the End Salt Sea (Gulf of Aqaba) eastward.
Num 34:4 Your border will turn from the south to the Ascent of Scorpions (Ascent of Akrabbim on Route 8784 highway to Tabuk) and pass along through the wilderness of Zin. From there, it will run south of Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia) and continue to Hazar Addar and further to Azmon.
Num 34:5 From there, the border will turn from Azmon toward the brook of Egypt and follow it to the Mediterranean Sea.
Num 34:6 The western border will be the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea. This will be your western border.
Num 34:7 Your northern border will extend along a line that you must mark out from the Mediterranean Sea to Mount Hor,
Num 34:8 then from Mount Hor to Lebo Hamath, then on to Zedad.
Num 34:9 Then the border will continue to Ziphron and end at Hazar Enan. This will be your northern border.
Num 34:10 Then you must mark out your eastern border from Hazar Enan south to Shepham.
Num 34:11 Then the eastern border will go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain. The border will continue along the east side of the Sea of Galilee (Lake Kinneret).
Num 34:12 Then the border will continue south along the Jordan River to the Dead Sea and continue down the eastern border of the Dead Sea. This will be your land, following its borders all around.’”
Num 34:13 Then Moses commanded the people of Israel, “This is the land that you will receive by lot, which Yehowah has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half tribe.
Num 34:14 The tribe of the descendants of Reuben, following the assignment of property to their ancestor’s tribe, and the tribe of the descendants of Gad, following the assignment of property to their ancestor’s tribe, and the half tribe of Manasseh have all received their land.
Num 34:15 The two tribes and the half tribe have received their share of land beyond the Jordan River at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.”
Num 34:16 Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 34:17 “These are the names of the men who will divide the land for your inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun.

Num 34:18 You must choose one leader from every tribe to divide the land for their clans.
Num 34:19 These are the names of the men: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh.
Num 34:20 From the tribe of the descendants of Simeon, Shemuel son of Ammihud.
Num 34:21 From the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad son of Chislon.
Num 34:22 From the tribe of the descendants of Dan a leader, Bukki son of Jogli.
Num 34:23 From the descendants of Joseph, of the tribe of the descendants of Manasseh a leader, Hanniel son of Ephod.
Num 34:24 From the tribe of the descendants of Ephraim a leader, Kemuel son of Shiphtan.
Num 34:25 From the tribe of the descendants of Zebulun a leader, Elizaphan son of Parnach.
Num 34:26 From the tribe of the descendants of Issachar a leader, Paltiel son of Azzan.
Num 34:27 From the tribe of the descendants of Asher a leader, Ahihud son of Shelomi.
Num 34:28 From the tribe of the descendants of Naphtali a leader, Pedahel son of Ammihud.”
Num 34:29 Yehowah commanded these men to divide the land of Canaan and to give each of the tribes of Israel their share.

Numbers Chapter 35

Num 35:1 Yehowah spoke to Moses on the plains of Moab by the Jordan River at Jericho,
Num 35:2 “Command the people of Israel to give some of their own shares of land to the Levites. They must give them cities to live in and pastureland surrounding those cities.
Num 35:3 The Levites will have these cities to live in. The pastureland will be for their livestock, their flocks, and all their animals.
Num 35:4 The pasturelands around the cities that you will give to the Levites must extend from the city walls for 914 meters in every direction.
Num 35:5 You must measure 914 meters from outside the city on the east side, and 914 meters to the south side, 914 meters to the west side, and 914 meters to the north side. This will be the pasture lands for their cities. The cities will be in the center.
Num 35:6 Six of the cities that you will give to Levites must serve as cities of refuge. You must provide these as places to which a person who has killed someone can flee. Also provide forty-two other cities.
Num 35:7 The cities that you give to the Levites will total forty-eight. You must give their pasturelands with them.
Num 35:8 The larger tribes of the people of Israel, the tribes that have more land, must provide more cities. The smaller tribes will provide fewer cities. Each tribe must provide for the Levites according to the share that it has received.”
Num 35:9 Then Yehowah spoke to Moses,
Num 35:10 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘When you cross over the Jordan River into the land of Canaan,
Num 35:11 then you must choose cities to serve as cities of refuge for you, a place to which a person who has killed someone unintentionally may flee.
Num 35:12 These cities must be your refuge from the avenger, so that the accused man will not be executed without first standing trial before the community.
Num 35:13 You must choose six cities as cities of refuge.
Num 35:14 You must provide three cities beyond the Jordan River and three in the land of Canaan. They will be cities of refuge.
Num 35:15 For the people of Israel, for the sojourning foreigners, and for resident aliens among you, these six cities will serve as a refuge to which anyone who kills someone unintentionally can flee.
Num 35:16 But if an accused man has struck his victim with an instrument of iron, and if his victim dies, then the accused is indeed a murderer. He must certainly be executed.

Num 35:17 If an accused man has struck his victim with a stone in his hand that might kill the victim, and if his victim dies, then the accused is indeed a murderer. He must certainly be executed.
Num 35:18 If an accused man has struck his victim with a wooden weapon that might kill the victim, and if the victim dies, then the accused is indeed a murderer. He must certainly be executed.
Num 35:19 The avenger of blood may put the murderer to death. When he meets him, the avenger of blood must execute him.
Num 35:20 If he strikes another in hatred or throws something at him, while hiding to ambush him, so that the victim dies,
Num 35:21 or if he strikes him down in hatred with his hand, so that the victim dies, then the accused who struck him must surely be executed. He is a murderer. The avenger of blood may execute the murderer when he meets him.
Num 35:22 But if an accused man suddenly hits a victim without premeditated hate or throws something that hits the victim without lying in wait,
Num 35:23 or if he throws a stone that could kill a victim without seeing the victim, then the accused was not the victim's enemy; he was not trying to hurt the victim. But this is what to do if the victim dies anyway.
Num 35:24 In that case, the congregation must judge between the accused and the avenger of blood on the basis of these rules.
Num 35:25 The congregation must rescue the accused from the power of the avenger of blood. The congregation must return the accused to the city of refuge to which he had originally fled. He must live there until the death of the current high priest, the one who was anointed with the set-apart oil.
Num 35:26 But if the accused man at any time goes beyond the border of the city of refuge to which he fled,
Num 35:27 and if the avenger of blood finds him outside the border of his city of refuge, and if he kills the accused man, the avenger of blood will not be guilty of murder.
Num 35:28 This is because the accused man should have remained in his city of refuge, until the death of the high priest. After the death of the high priest, the accused may return to the land where he has his own property.
Num 35:29 These laws must be statutes for you through all your people's generations in all the places where you live.
Num 35:30 Whoever kills any person, the murderer must be executed, as testified to by the words of witnesses. But one witness's word alone may not cause any person to be executed.
Num 35:31 Also, you must not accept ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of murder. He must certainly be executed.

Num 35:32 You must not accept ransom for the one who has fled to a city of refuge. You must not in this way allow him to reside on his own property, until the high priest dies.
Num 35:33 Do not pollute in this way the land where you live, because blood from murder pollutes the land. No atonement can be made for the land when blood has been shed on it, except by the blood of the (executed) one who shed it.
Num 35:34 So you must not defile the land in which you live, because I am living in it. I, Yehowah, live among the people of Israel.'"

Numbers Chapter 36

Num 36:1 Then the leaders of the ancestors' families of the clan of Gilead son of Machir, who was Manasseh's son, who were from the clans of the descendants of Joseph, came and spoke before Moses and before the leaders who were the heads of the ancestor's families of the people of Israel.
Num 36:2 They said, "Yehowah commanded you, our master, to give a share of land by lot to the people of Israel. You, our master, were commanded by Yehowah to give the share of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters.
Num 36:3 But if his daughters marry men in another tribe of the people of Israel, then their share of land will be removed from our ancestor's share. It will be added to the share of the tribes that they join. In that case, it will be removed from the assigned share of our inheritance.
Num 36:4 In that case, when the year of Jubilee of the people of Israel comes, then their share will be joined to the share of the tribe that they have joined. In this way, their share will be taken away from the share of our ancestor's tribe."
Num 36:5 So Moses gave a command to the people of Israel, at the Word of Yehowah. He said, "What the tribe of Joseph's descendants says is right.
Num 36:6 This is what Yehowah commands concerning Zelophehad's daughters, 'Let them be married to whom they think best, but they must be married only within their father's tribe.'
Num 36:7 No share of the people of Israel must change from one tribe to another. Each one of the people of Israel must continue with the share of his ancestor's tribe.
Num 36:8 Every woman of the people of Israel who owns a share in her tribe must marry someone from the clans belonging to her father's tribe. This is so that everyone of the people of Israel may own an inheritance from his ancestors.
Num 36:9 No share may change hands from one tribe to another. Everyone of the tribes of the people of Israel must keep his own inheritance."
Num 36:10 So Zelophehad's daughters did as Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Num 36:11 Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, married descendants of Manasseh.
Num 36:12 They married into the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph. In this way, their inheritances remained in the tribe to which their father's clan belonged.
Num 36:13 These are the commands and the decrees that Yehowah gave by Moses to the people of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan River at Jericho.

Book of Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy Chapter 1

Deu 1:1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan River in the wilderness, in the plain of the Jordan Valley over against Suph, between Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Di Zahab.
Deu 1:2 It is eleven days journey from Horeb (Mount Sinai) by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia).
Deu 1:3 It happened in the fortieth year (winter, c. 1612-1611 BC), on the first of the eleventh month, that Moses spoke to the people of Israel, telling them all that Yehowah commanded him concerning them.
Deu 1:4 This was after Yehowah had attacked Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth at Edrei.
Deu 1:5 Beyond the Jordan River, in the land of Moab, Moses began to announce these instructions,
Deu 1:6 "Yehowah our Divine One spoke to us at Horeb, 'You have lived long enough in this hill country.
Deu 1:7 Turn and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all the places near there in the plain of the Jordan River valley, in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Negev, and by the seashore, the land of the Canaanites, and in Lebanon as far as the great river, the Euphrates.
Deu 1:8 Look, I have set the land before you; go in and possess the land that Yehowah swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them.'
Deu 1:9 I spoke to you at that time, 'I am not able to carry you myself alone.
Deu 1:10 Yehowah your Divine One has multiplied you, and look, you are today as the multitude of the stars of heaven.
Deu 1:11 May Yehowah, Mighty One of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as he has promised you!
Deu 1:12 But how can I myself alone carry your loads, your burdens, and your disputes?
Deu 1:13 Take wise men, understanding men, and men of good repute from each tribe, and I will make them heads over you.'
Deu 1:14 You answered me, 'The thing that you have spoken is good for us to do.'

Deu 1:15 So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and men of good repute, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, captains of hundreds, captains of fifties, captains of tens, and officers, tribe by tribe.
Deu 1:16 I commanded your judges at that time, 'Hear the disputes between your brothers and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the sojourning foreigner who is with him.
Deu 1:17 You will not show partiality to anyone in a dispute; you will hear the small and the great alike. You will not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment belongs to the Almighty. The dispute that is too hard for you, you will bring to me, and I will hear it.'
Deu 1:18 I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do.
Deu 1:19 We journeyed away from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness that you saw, on our way to the hill country of the Amorites, as Yehowah our Divine One had commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia).
Deu 1:20 I said to you, 'You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which Yehowah our Divine One is giving to us.
Deu 1:21 Look, Yehowah your Divine One has set the land before you; go up, take possession, as Yehowah, Mighty One of your fathers, has spoken to you; do not be afraid, neither be discouraged.'
Deu 1:22 Every one of you came to me and said, 'Let us send men ahead of us, so that they may search out the land for us, and bring us word about the way by which we should attack, and about the cities to which we will come.'
Deu 1:23 The advice pleased me well; I took twelve men of you, one man for every tribe.
Deu 1:24 They turned and went up into the hill country, came to the Valley of Eshcol, and scouted it.
Deu 1:25 They took some of the produce of the land in their hands and brought it down to us. They also brought us word, 'It is a good land that Yehowah our Divine One is giving to us.'
Deu 1:26 Yet, you refused to attack but rebelled against the commandment of Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 1:27 You complained in your tents, "It is because Yehowah hated us, that he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to give us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us.
Deu 1:28 Where can we go now? Our brothers have made our heart to melt, reporting, 'Those people are bigger and taller than we are; their cities are large and fortified up to the heavens; moreover, we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.'"
Deu 1:29 Then I encouraged you, 'Do not be terrified, neither be afraid of them.

Deu 1:30 Yehowah your Divine One, who goes before you, he will fight for you, like everything that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes,
Deu 1:31 and also in the wilderness, where you have seen how Yehowah your Divine One carried you, as a man carries his son, everywhere you went, until you came to this place.'
Deu 1:32 Yet in spite of this word, you did not believe Yehowah your Divine One,
Deu 1:33 who went before you on the way to find a place for you to make camp, to show you the way you should go, in fire by night and in a cloud by day.
Deu 1:34 Yehowah heard the sound of your words and was angry; he swore,
Deu 1:35 'Surely not one of these men of this evil generation will see the good land that I swore to give to your ancestors,
Deu 1:36 save Caleb son of Jephunneh; he will see it. To him I will give the land that he has stepped on, and to his children, because he has wholly followed Yehowah.'
Deu 1:37 Also, Yehowah was angry with me because of you, saying, 'You also will not go in there;
Deu 1:38 Joshua son of Nun, who stands before you, he will go in there; encourage him, for he will lead Israel to inherit it.
Deu 1:39 Moreover, your little children, the ones you said would be victims, who today have no knowledge of good or evil, they will go in there. To them I will give it, and they will possess it.
Deu 1:40 But as for you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness along the way to the End Salt Sea.'
Deu 1:41 Then you answered me, 'We have sinned against Yehowah; we will go up and fight, and we will follow all that Yehowah our Divine One has commanded us to do.' Every man among you put on his weapons of war, and you were ready to attack the hill country.
Deu 1:42 Yehowah ordered me, 'Command them, "Do not attack and do not fight, for I will not be with you, and you will be defeated by your enemies."'
Deu 1:43 I spoke to you in this way, but you did not listen. You rebelled against the commandment of Yehowah; you were presumptuous and attacked the hill country.
Deu 1:44 But the Amorites, who lived in that hill country, came out against you and chased you like bees, and struck you down in Seir, as far as Hormah (the destroyed Arad; Num. 21:1).
Deu 1:45 You returned and wept before Yehowah; but Yehowah did not listen to your voice, nor did he pay attention to you.
Deu 1:46 So you stayed in Kadesh many days, all the days that you stayed there.

Deuteronomy Chapter 2

Deu 2:1 Then we turned and took our journey into the wilderness by the way to the End Salt Sea, as Yehowah had spoken to me; we went around Mount Seir for many days.
Deu 2:2 Yehowah ordered me,
Deu 2:3 ‘You have gone around this mountain long enough; turn northward.
Deu 2:4 Command the people, “You are to pass through the border of your brothers, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir; they will be afraid of you. Therefore, be careful
Deu 2:5 not to fight with them, for I will not give you any of their land, no, not even enough for the sole of a foot to step on; for I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.
Deu 2:6 You will purchase food from them with money, so that you may eat; you will also buy water from them with money, so that you may drink.
Deu 2:7 For Yehowah your Divine One has blessed you in all the work of your hand; he has known your walking through this great wilderness. For these forty years Yehowah your Divine One has been with you, and you have lacked nothing.”’
Deu 2:8 So we passed by our brothers, the descendants of Esau who live in Seir, away from the Arabah road, from Elath and from Ezion Geber. Then we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.
Deu 2:9 Yehowah ordered me, ‘Do not trouble Moab and do not fight with them in battle. For I will not give you his land for your own possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot, for their possession.’
Deu 2:10 The Emim lived there previously, a people as great, as many, and as tall as the Anakim;
Deu 2:11 these also are considered to be the giants, like the Anakim; but the Moabites call them the Emim.
Deu 2:12 The Horites also lived in Seir previously, but the descendants of Esau succeeded them. They destroyed them from before them and lived in their place, like Israel did to the land of his possession that Yehowah gave to them.
Deu 2:13 ‘Now rise up and go over the brook Zered.’ So we went over the brook Zered (aka Wadi al-Hasa).
Deu 2:14 Now the days from when we came from Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia), until we crossed the brook Zered, were thirty-eight years (c. 1649-1611 BC). It was by that time that all that generation of the military force were gone from the people, as Yehowah had sworn to them.
Deu 2:15 Moreover, the hand of Yehowah was against that generation in order to destroy them from the camp, until they were gone.

Deu 2:16 So it happened, when all the men fit for fighting were dead and gone from among the people,
Deu 2:17 that Yehowah spoke to me,
Deu 2:18 “You are today to pass over Ar, the border of Moab.
Deu 2:19 When you come near opposite the people of Ammon, do not trouble them or fight them; for I will not give you any of the land of the people of Ammon as a possession; because I have given it to the descendants of Lot as a possession.”
Deu 2:20 That also is considered to be a land of the giants. The giants lived there previously, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,
Deu 2:21 a people as great, as many, and as tall as the Anakim. But Yehowah destroyed them before the Ammonites, and they succeeded them and lived in their place.
Deu 2:22 This Yehowah also did for the people of Esau, who live in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them, and the descendants of Esau succeeded them and have lived in their place even until today.
Deu 2:23 As for the Avvites who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor (Crete, Aegean Sea people, Philistines; Gen. 10:14; 1 Chron. 1:12; Amos 9:7; Jer. 47:4), destroyed them and settled in their place.
Deu 2:24 “Now rise up, go on your journey, and pass over the Valley of the Arnon (aka Zarqa); look, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to possess it and fight with him in battle.
Deu 2:25 Today, I will begin to put the fear and terror of you on the people that are under the whole sky; they will hear news about you, will tremble, and be in anguish because of you.”
Deu 2:26 I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon, king of Heshbon, with words of peace,
Deu 2:27 ‘Let me pass through your land; I will go along the highway; I will turn neither to the right hand nor to the left.
Deu 2:28 You will sell me food for money, so that I may eat; give me water for money, so that I may drink; only let me pass through on my feet;
Deu 2:29 as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir, and as the Moabites who live in Ar did for me; until I pass over the Jordan River into the land that Yehowah our Divine One is giving us.’
Deu 2:30 But Sihon, king of Heshbon, would not let us pass by him; for Yehowah your Divine One had hardened his mind and made his heart obstinate, that he might defeat him by your might, which he has now done today.
Deu 2:31 Yehowah said to me, “Look, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you; begin to possess it, in order that you may inherit his land.”
Deu 2:32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

Deu 2:33 Yehowah our Divine One gave him over to us, and we defeated him; we struck him dead, his sons, and all his people.
Deu 2:34 We took all his cities at that time and completely destroyed every city, men, the women, and the little ones; we left no survivor.
Deu 2:35 Only the livestock we took as spoils for ourselves, along with the spoil of the cities that we had taken.
Deu 2:36 From Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon, and from the city that is in the valley, all the way to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us. Yehowah our Divine One gave us victory over all our enemies before us.
Deu 2:37 It was only to the land of the descendants of Ammon that you did not go, as well as all the side of the Jabbok (modern Yarmuk) River, and the cities of the hill country, wherever Yehowah our Divine One had forbidden us to go.

Deuteronomy Chapter 3

Deu 3:1 Then we turned and went up the way to Bashan. Og, the king of Bashan, came and attacked us, he and all his people, to fight at Edrei.
Deu 3:2 Yehowah said to me, 'Do not fear him; for I have given you victory over him and have put all his people and his land under your control. You will do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.'
Deu 3:3 So Yehowah our Divine One also gave us victory over Og the king of Bashan, and all his people were put under our control. We struck them down, until not one of his people remained.
Deu 3:4 We took all his cities at that time; there was not one city that we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
Deu 3:5 These were all cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; this was besides a multitude of unwalled villages.
Deu 3:6 We completely destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, completely destroying every city, men, the women, and the little ones.
Deu 3:7 But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities, we took as spoils for ourselves.
Deu 3:8 At that time, we took the land out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan River, from the Valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon.
Deu 3:9 Mount Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir,
Deu 3:10 and all the cities of the plain, all Gilead, and all Bashan, all the way to Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan."
Deu 3:11 For of the remnant of the giants, only Og king of Bashan had remained. Look! His bed was a bed of iron. Was it not in Rabbah (modern Amman), where the descendants of Ammon live? It was four and one half meters long and two meters wide, the way people measure.
Deu 3:12 "This land that we took in possession at that time, from Aroer, that is by the Valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead, and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites.
Deu 3:13 The rest of Gilead and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh: all the region of Argob and all Bashan. The same territory is called the land of giants.
Deu 3:14 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took all the region of Argob to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites. He called the region, even Bashan, by his own name, Havvoth Jair, to this day.
Deu 3:15 I gave Gilead to Machir.
Deu 3:16 To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave territory from Gilead to the Valley of the Arnon (aka Zarqa), the middle of the valley is the territory's border, and to the Jabbok River (modern Yarmuk River), which is the border with the descendants of Ammon.

Deu 3:17 Another of its borders is also the plain of the Jordan River valley, from the Sea of Galilee to the Sea of the Arabah, that is, the Dead Sea, to the slopes of Mount Pisgah eastward.
Deu 3:18 I commanded you at that time, 'Yehowah your Divine One has given you this land to possess it; you, all the warriors, will pass over armed before your brothers, the people of Israel.
Deu 3:19 But your wives, your little ones, and your livestock, I know that you have much livestock, will stay in your cities that I have given you,
Deu 3:20 until Yehowah gives rest to your brothers, as he has to you, until they also possess the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving them beyond the Jordan River; then will you return, every man of you, to your own property that I have given you.'
Deu 3:21 I commanded Joshua at that time, 'Your eyes have seen all that Yehowah your Divine One has done to these two kings; Yehowah will do the same to all the kingdoms where you go over.
Deu 3:22 You will not fear them, for Yehowah your Divine One is the One who will fight for you.'
Deu 3:23 I entreated Yehowah at that time,
Deu 3:24 'O Lord Yehowah, you have begun to show your servant your greatness and your strong hand; for what deity is there in Heaven or in earth that can do the same works as you have done, and the same mighty acts?
Deu 3:25 Let me go over, I beg you, and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan River, that good hill country, and also Lebanon.'
Deu 3:26 But Yehowah was angry with me because of you; he did not listen to me. Yehowah said to me, 'Let this be enough for you, speak no more to me about this matter:
Deu 3:27 Go up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes westward, northward, southward, and eastward; look with your eyes, for you will not go over the Jordan River.
Deu 3:28 Instead, instruct Joshua and encourage and strengthen him, for he will go over before this people, and he will cause them to inherit the land that you will see.'
Deu 3:29 So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth Peor.

Deuteronomy Chapter 4

Deu 4:1 Now Israel, listen to the laws and the decrees that I am about to teach you, to do them; so that you may live, go in, and possess the land that Yehowah, Mighty One of your fathers, is giving you.
Deu 4:2 You will not add to the word that I command you, neither will you take away from it, so that you may keep the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One that I am about to command you.
Deu 4:3 Your eyes have seen what Yehowah did because of Baal Peor; for all the men who followed Baal of Peor, Yehowah your Divine One has destroyed them from among you.
Deu 4:4 But you who clung to Yehowah your Divine One are alive today, every one of you.
Deu 4:5 Look, I have taught you laws and decrees, as Yehowah my Divine One had commanded me, that you should do so in the midst of the land which you are going into, in order to possess it.
Deu 4:6 Therefore, keep them and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the people who will hear about all these statutes, and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.'
Deu 4:7 For what great ethnicity is there that has a deity so near to them, as Yehowah our Divine One is whenever we call upon him?
Deu 4:8 What great ethnicity is there that has laws and decrees so righteous as all this law that I am setting before you today?
Deu 4:9 Only pay attention and carefully guard yourself, so that you do not forget the things that your eyes have seen, so that they do not leave your heart for all the days of your life. Instead, make them known to your children and your children's children.
Deu 4:10 On the day that you stood before Yehowah your Divine One at Horeb, when Yehowah ordered me, 'Assemble to me the people, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they live on the earth, and that they may teach their children.'
Deu 4:11 You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain. The mountain burned with fire to the heart of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.
Deu 4:12 Yehowah spoke to you out of the middle of the fire; you heard the voice with its words, but you saw no form; you only heard a voice.
Deu 4:13 He declared to you his covenant that he commanded you to perform, the Ten Words. He wrote them on two tablets of stone.

Deu 4:14 Yehowah commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, so that you might do them in the land that you are crossing over to take possession of.
Deu 4:15 So take great heed to yourselves, for you saw no kind of form on the day that Yehowah spoke to you at Horeb out of the middle of the fire,
Deu 4:16 that you do not corrupt yourselves and make a carved figure in the likeness of any creature, the form of a male or a female person,
Deu 4:17 or the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, or the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky,
Deu 4:18 or the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, or the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth.
Deu 4:19 You will not lift your eyes up to the heavens and look at the sun, the moon, or the stars, all the host of the heavens, and be drawn away to worship them and adore them, those things of which Yehowah your Divine One has given a share to all the ethnicities under the whole sky.
Deu 4:20 But Yehowah has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to him a people of his own inheritance, as you are today.
Deu 4:21 Yehowah was angry with me because of you; he swore that I should not go over the Jordan River, and that I should not go into that good land, the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving to you as an inheritance.
Deu 4:22 Instead, I must die in this land; I must not go over the Jordan River; but you will go over and possess that good land.
Deu 4:23 Pay attention to yourselves, so that you do not forget the covenant of Yehowah your Divine One, which he made with you, and make for yourselves a carved image in the form of anything that Yehowah your Divine One has forbidden you to make.
Deu 4:24 For Yehowah your Divine One is a consuming fire, a jealous Almighty.
Deu 4:25 When you beget children and grandchildren, and when you will have been in the land for a long time, and if you corrupt yourselves and make a carved figure in the form of anything, and do what is evil in the sight of Yehowah your Divine One, to provoke him to anger,
Deu 4:26 I call Heaven and earth to witness against you today, that you will soon utterly perish from off the land that you are going over the Jordan River to possess; you will not prolong your days in it, but you will be completely destroyed.
Deu 4:27 Yehowah will scatter you among the people, and you will be left few in number among the ethnicities, where Yehowah will lead you away.
Deu 4:28 There you will serve false deities, the work of men’s hands, wood and stone, which neither see, hear, eat, nor smell.
Deu 4:29 But from there you will seek Yehowah your Divine One, and you will find him, when you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deu 4:30 When you are in distress, and when all these things will have come on you, in those later days, you will return to Yehowah your Divine One and listen to his voice.
Deu 4:31 For Yehowah your Divine One is a merciful Almighty; he will not fail you nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers that he swore to them.
Deu 4:32 For ask now about the days that are past, which were before you: Since the day that the Almighty created man on the earth, and from one end of the heavens to the other, ask whether there has been anything like this great thing, or has anything like it ever been heard?
Deu 4:33 Did ever a people hear the voice of the Almighty speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?
Deu 4:34 Or has the Almighty ever attempted to go and take for himself a nation from the midst of another ethnicity, by trials, by signs, by wonders, by war, by a mighty hand, by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, as everything that Yehowah your Divine One did for you in Egypt before your eyes?
Deu 4:35 To you these things were shown, so that you might know that Yehowah is the Almighty, and that there is no one else besides him.
Deu 4:36 Out of Heaven he made you to hear his voice, so that he might instruct you; on earth he made you see his great fire; you heard his words out of the midst of the fire.
Deu 4:37 Because he loved your fathers, he chose their descendants after them, and brought you out of Egypt with his presence, with his great power;
Deu 4:38 in order to drive out from before you ethnicities greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land as an inheritance, as today.
Deu 4:39 Know therefore today, and lay it on your heart, that Yehowah is the Almighty in Heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no one else.
Deu 4:40 You will keep his statutes and his commandments that I command you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you forever."
Deu 4:41 Then Moses selected three cities on the east side of the Jordan River,
Deu 4:42 so that anyone might flee to one of them if he killed another person accidentally, without being his enemy previously. By fleeing to one of these cities, he might survive.
Deu 4:43 They were: Bezer in the wilderness, the plain country, for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.
Deu 4:44 This is the law that Moses placed before the people of Israel;
Deu 4:45 these are the covenant testimonies, laws, and other decrees that he spoke to the people of Israel when they came out of Egypt,

Deu 4:46 when they were east of the Jordan River, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who had lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the people of Israel had defeated when they came out of Egypt.
Deu 4:47 They took his land as a possession, and the land of Og king of Bashan, these, the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan River toward the east.
Deu 4:48 This territory went from Aroer, on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon (aka Zarqa), to Mount Sion, the summit of Mount Hermon,
Deu 4:49 and included all of the plain of the Jordan River valley, eastward beyond the Jordan River, to the Dead Sea, to the slopes of Mount Pisgah.

Deuteronomy Chapter 5

Deu 5:1 Moses called to all Israel, “Listen, Israel, to the statutes and the decrees that I will speak in your ears today, that you may learn them, keep them, and do them.
Deu 5:2 Yehowah our Divine One made a covenant with us at Horeb.
Deu 5:3 Yehowah did not make this covenant with our ancestors, but with us, all of us alive here today.
Deu 5:4 Yehowah spoke with you face to face on the mount out of the middle of the fire.
Deu 5:5 I stood between Yehowah and you at that time, to reveal to you the Word of Yehowah; for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain. He said,
Deu 5:6 ‘I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery (1st Commandment: Believe in Yehowah).
Deu 5:7 You will have no other deities before me (2nd Commandment: No idolatry).
Deu 5:8 You will not make for yourself a carved figure nor any likeness of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water below.
Deu 5:9 You will not bow down to them or serve them, for I, Yehowah your Divine One, am a jealous Almighty. I punish the ancestors’ wickedness by bringing punishment on the children, to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,
Deu 5:10 and showing covenant faithfulness to thousands, to those who love me and keep my commandments.
Deu 5:11 You will not swear an oath in the name of Yehowah your Divine One and then not keep it, for Yehowah will not hold him guiltless that swears an oath in his name and does not keep it (3rd Commandment: No false oaths).
Deu 5:12 Guard the consecrated Sabbath day, as Yehowah your Divine One commanded you (4th).
Deu 5:13 For six days you will labor and do all your work;
Deu 5:14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to Yehowah your Divine One. On it you will not do any work, not you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor any sojourning alien who is within your gates. This is so that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you.
Deu 5:15 You will call to mind that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and Yehowah your Divine One brought you out from there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm. Therefore, Yehowah your Divine One has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

Deu 5:16 Honor your father and mother, as Yehowah your Divine One has commanded you to do, that you may live a long time in the land that Yehowah your Divine One gives you, and so that it may go well with you (5th).
Deu 5:17 You will not murder (6th).
Deu 5:18 You will not commit adultery (7th Commandment: No sexual immorality).
Deu 5:19 You will not steal (8th).
Deu 5:20 You will not give false witness against your neighbor (9th).
Deu 5:21 You will not covet your neighbor's wife, you will not covet your neighbor's house, his field, or his male servant, or his female servant, his ox, or his jack donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor' (10th).
Deu 5:22 These words Yehowah spoke in a loud voice to all your congregation on the mountain out of the middle of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness; and he added no more words. He wrote them down on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.
Deu 5:23 It came about, when you heard the voice out of the middle of the darkness, while the mountain was burning, that you came near to me, all your elders and the heads of your tribes.
Deu 5:24 You said, 'Look, Yehowah our Divine One has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the middle of the fire; we have seen today that when the Almighty speaks with people, they can live.
Deu 5:25 But why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of Yehowah our Divine One any longer, we will die!
Deu 5:26 For who besides us is there among all flesh who has heard the voice of the living Almighty speak out of the middle of the fire and lived, as we have done?
Deu 5:27 As for you, you should go and listen to everything that Yehowah our Divine One says; repeat to us everything that Yehowah our Divine One says to you; we will listen to it and obey it.'
Deu 5:28 Yehowah heard your words when you spoke to me. Yehowah said to me, 'I have heard the words of this people, what they said to you. What they said was good.
Deu 5:29 Oh, that there were such a heart in them, that they would honor me and always keep all my commandments, that it might go well with them and with their children forever!
Deu 5:30 Go order them, "Return to your tents."
Deu 5:31 But as for you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandments, the statutes, and the decrees that you will teach them, so that they may keep them in the land that I will give them to possess.'

Deu 5:32 You will keep, therefore, what Yehowah your Divine One has commanded you; you will not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.
Deu 5:33 You will walk in all the Ways that Yehowah your Divine One has commanded you, so that you may live, and so that it may go well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land that you will possess.

Deuteronomy Chapter 6

Deu 6:1 Now these are the commandments, statutes, and decrees that Yehowah your Divine One has commanded me to teach you, so that you might keep them in the land that you are going over the Jordan River to possess;
Deu 6:2 so that you might honor Yehowah your Divine One, so as to keep all his statutes and commandments that I am commanding you; you, your sons, and your grandchildren, all the days of your lives, so that your days may be prolonged.
Deu 6:3 Therefore, listen to them, Israel, and keep them, so that it may go well with you, so that you may greatly multiply in a land flowing with milk and honey, as Yehowah, Mighty One of your fathers, has promised you would do.
Deu 6:4 Hear, Israel: Yehowah our Divine One, Yehowah is Oneness.
Deu 6:5 You will love Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might (Mat. 22:37; Mark 12:29-30; Luke 10:27; 11:28).
Deu 6:6 The words that I am commanding you today will be in your heart;
Deu 6:7 and you will diligently teach them to your children; you will talk about them when you sit in your house, when you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up (John 5:39).
Deu 6:8 You will tie them as a sign upon your hand, and they will serve as frontlets between your eyes (tefillin).
Deu 6:9 You will write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.
Deu 6:10 When Yehowah your Divine One brings you into the land that he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, that he would give you, with large and good cities that you did not build,
Deu 6:11 and houses full of all kinds of good things that you did not make, cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant, you will eat and be satisfied,
Deu 6:12 then be careful, so that you do not forget Yehowah, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
Deu 6:13 You will honor Yehowah your Divine One; him you will worship, and you will swear by his name (Luke 4:8).
Deu 6:14 You will not go after false deities, the deities of the people who are all around you,
Deu 6:15 for Yehowah your Divine One in the midst of you is a jealous Almighty. If you do, the anger of Yehowah your Divine One will be kindled against you, and he will destroy you from the surface of the earth.
Deu 6:16 You will not test Yehowah your Divine One as you tested him at Massah (Luke 4:12).

Deu 6:17 You will diligently keep the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One, his commands and his statutes, that he has commanded you.
Deu 6:18 You will do what is right and good in the sight of Yehowah, that it may go well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land that Yehowah swore to your fathers,
Deu 6:19 to drive out all your enemies from before you, as Yehowah has said.
Deu 6:20 When your son asks you in time to come, 'What are the covenant decrees, the statutes, and the other decrees that Yehowah our Divine One commanded you?'
Deu 6:21 Then you will answer your son, 'We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt; Yehowah brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand,
Deu 6:22 and he displayed signs and wonders, great and severe, on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his household, before our eyes;
Deu 6:23 and he brought us out from there, so that he might bring us in, to give us the land that he swore to our fathers.
Deu 6:24 Yehowah commanded us to always keep all these statutes, to fear Yehowah our Divine One for our good, so that he might keep us alive, as we are today.
Deu 6:25 If we keep all these commands before Yehowah our Divine One, as he has commanded us, this will be our righteousness.'

Deuteronomy Chapter 7

Deu 7:1 When Yehowah your Divine One brings you into the land that you go to possess, he will drive out many ethnicities before you, the Hethites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven ethnicities greater and mightier than you.
Deu 7:2 It is Yehowah your Divine One who gives them over to you when you defeat them, and then you must completely destroy them. You will make no covenant with them, and show them no mercy.
Deu 7:3 Neither will you arrange any marriages with them. You will not give your daughters to their sons, and you will not take their daughters for your sons.
Deu 7:4 For they will turn away your sons from following me, so that they may worship false deities. So the anger of Yehowah will be kindled against you, and he will destroy you quickly.
Deu 7:5 This is how you will deal with them: You will break down their altars, dash their stone pillars in pieces, cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their carved idols.
Deu 7:6 For you are a nation that is set apart to Yehowah your Divine One. Yehowah your Divine One has chosen you to be a people for him to possess, more than all the other people that are on the face of the earth.
Deu 7:7 Yehowah did not set his love upon you or choose you because you were more in number than any people, for you were the fewest of all people,
Deu 7:8 but because Yehowah loves you, and he wished to keep the oath that he had sworn to your fathers. This is why Yehowah has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt.
Deu 7:9 Therefore, know that Yehowah your Divine One, he is Almighty, the faithful Almighty, who keeps covenant and faithfulness for a thousand generations with those who love him and keep his commandments,
Deu 7:10 but repays to their face those who hate him, to destroy them; he will not be lenient on whoever hates him; he will repay him to his face.
Deu 7:11 You will therefore keep the commandments, the statutes, and the decrees that I command you today, so that you will do them.
Deu 7:12 If you listen to these decrees, and keep and do them, it will happen that Yehowah your Divine One will keep with you the covenant and the faithfulness that he swore to your fathers.
Deu 7:13 He will love you, bless you, and multiply you; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain, your new wine, and your oil, the multiplication of your cattle and the young of your flocks, in the land that he swore to your fathers to give you.

Deu 7:14 You will be blessed more than all other people; there will not be a childless male or a barren female among you or among your livestock.
Deu 7:15 Yehowah will take away from you all sickness; none of the evil diseases of Egypt that you have known will he put on you, but he will put them on all those who hate you.
Deu 7:16 You will consume all the ethnicities over which Yehowah your Divine One gives you victory, and your eye will not pity them. You will not worship their deities, for that will be a trap for you.
Deu 7:17 If you say in your heart, 'These ethnicities are more numerous than I. How can I dispossess them?'
Deu 7:18 Do not be afraid of them; you will call to mind what Yehowah your Divine One did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt;
Deu 7:19 the great sufferings that your eyes saw, the signs, the wonders, the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm by which Yehowah your Divine One brought you out. Yehowah your Divine One will do the same to all the people whom you fear.
Deu 7:20 Moreover, Yehowah your Divine One will send the hornet among them, until those who are left, and who hide themselves from you, perish from your presence.
Deu 7:21 You will not be frightened at them, for Yehowah your Divine One is among you, the great and fearsome Almighty.
Deu 7:22 Yehowah your Divine One will drive out those ethnicities before you little by little. You will not defeat them all at once, or the wild animals would multiply around you.
Deu 7:23 But Yehowah your Divine One will give you victory over them when you meet them in battle; he will greatly confuse them, until they are destroyed.
Deu 7:24 He will put their kings under your power, and you will make their name perish from under the heavens. No one will be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them.
Deu 7:25 You will burn the carved figures of their deities, do not covet the silver or the gold that covers them and take it for yourself, because if you do, you will become trapped by it, for it is an abomination to Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 7:26 You will not bring any abomination into your house and start to worship it. You will utterly detest and abhor it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Deuteronomy Chapter 8

Deu 8:1 You must keep all the commands that I am giving you today, so that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that Yehowah swore to your fathers.
Deu 8:2 You will call to mind all the Ways that Yehowah your Divine One has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order that he might humble you, that he might test you to know what was in your heart, as to whether you would keep his commandments or not.
Deu 8:3 He humbled you and made you hunger, and fed you with manna, which you had not known, and which your fathers had not known. He did that to make you know that it is not by bread alone that people live; rather, it is by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of Yehowah that people live (Mat. 4:4; Luke 4:4).
Deu 8:4 Your clothing did not wear out and fall off you, and your feet did not swell up during those forty years.
Deu 8:5 You will think about in your heart, how, as a man disciplines his son, so Yehowah your Divine One disciplines you.
Deu 8:6 You will keep the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One, so that you might walk in his Ways and honor him.
Deu 8:7 For Yehowah your Divine One is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing out into valleys and among hills;
Deu 8:8 a land of wheat and barley, of vines, fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey.
Deu 8:9 It is a land in which you will eat bread without lack, and where you will not go without anything; a land whose stones are made of iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper.
Deu 8:10 You will eat and be full, and you will bless Yehowah your Divine One for the good land that he has given you.
Deu 8:11 Be careful that you do not forget Yehowah your Divine One, and that you do not neglect his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes that I am commanding you today,
Deu 8:12 otherwise, when you eat and are full, and when you build good houses and live in them, your heart will be lifted up.
Deu 8:13 Be careful when your herds and flocks multiply, and when your silver and gold increase, and all that you have is multiplied,
Deu 8:14 then your heart becomes lifted up, and you forget Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

Deu 8:15 Do not forget him who led you through the great and terrifying wilderness, with its poisonous snakes, scorpions, and thirsty ground, where there was no water, who brought you water out of the rock of flint.
Deu 8:16 He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors had never known, so that he might humble you and test you, to do you good in the end,
Deu 8:17 but you may say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand acquired all this wealth.'
Deu 8:18 But you will call to mind Yehowah your Divine One, for it is he who gives you the power to get wealth; that he may establish his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is today.
Deu 8:19 It will happen that if you will forget Yehowah your Divine One and walk after false deities, worship them, and reverence them, I testify against you today that you will surely perish.
Deu 8:20 Like the ethnicities that Yehowah is making to perish before you, so will you perish, because you would not listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One.

Deuteronomy Chapter 9

Deu 9:1 Hear Israel; you are about to cross over the Jordan River today, to go in to dispossess ethnicities greater and mightier than yourself, and cities that are great and fortified up to the heavens,
Deu 9:2 a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom you know, and of whom you have heard people ask, 'Who can stand before the sons of Anak?'
Deu 9:3 Know therefore today that Yehowah your Divine One is he who goes over before you like a consuming fire; he will destroy them, and he will subdue them before you; so will you drive them out and make them to perish quickly, as Yehowah has said to you.
Deu 9:4 Do not say in your heart, after Yehowah your Divine One has thrust them out from before you, 'It was because of my righteousness that Yehowah has brought me in to possess this land,' for it was because of the wickedness of these ethnicities that Yehowah is driving them out from before you.
Deu 9:5 It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to possess their land, but it is because of the wickedness of these ethnicities that Yehowah your Divine One is driving them out from before you, and so that he may make come true the word that Yehowah swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
Deu 9:6 Know therefore, that Yehowah your Divine One is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stubborn people.
Deu 9:7 Remember and do not forget how you provoked Yehowah your Divine One to anger in the wilderness; from the day that you left the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against Yehowah.
Deu 9:8 Also, at Horeb you provoked Yehowah to anger, and Yehowah was angry enough with you to destroy you.
Deu 9:9 When I went up the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant that Yehowah made with you, I stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water.
Deu 9:10 Yehowah gave to me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of the Almighty; on them was written everything just like all the words that Yehowah announced to you on the mountain out of the middle of the fire on the day of the assembly.
Deu 9:11 It happened at the end of those forty days and forty nights that Yehowah gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant.
Deu 9:12 Yehowah said to me, 'Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people, whom you brought out of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. They have quickly turned aside out of the Path that I commanded them. They have made for themselves a cast figure.'

Deu 9:13 Furthermore, Yehowah spoke to me, 'I have seen this people; they are a stubborn people.
Deu 9:14 Let me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under Heaven, and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.'
Deu 9:15 So I turned around and came down the mountain, and the mountain was burning. The two tablets of the covenant were in my hands.
Deu 9:16 I looked, and behold, you had sinned against Yehowah your Divine One. You had molded for yourselves a calf. You had quickly turned aside out of the Path that Yehowah had commanded you.
Deu 9:17 I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands. I broke them before your eyes.
Deu 9:18 Again, I lay facedown before Yehowah for forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all your sin that you had committed, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yehowah, so as to provoke him to anger.
Deu 9:19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which Yehowah was angry enough against you to destroy you. But Yehowah listened to me that time also.
Deu 9:20 Yehowah was extremely angry with Aaron so as to destroy him; I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.
Deu 9:21 I took your sin, the calf that you had made, and burned it, beat it, and ground it to powder, until it was as fine as dust. I threw its dust into the stream that came down from the mountain.
Deu 9:22 At Taberah, at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you provoked Yehowah to wrath.
Deu 9:23 When Yehowah sent you from Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia) and ordered, 'Go up and take possession of the land that I have given you,' then you rebelled against the commandment of Yehowah your Divine One, and you did not believe or listen to his voice.
Deu 9:24 You have been rebellious against Yehowah from the day that I knew you.
Deu 9:25 So I lay facedown before Yehowah those forty days and forty nights, because he had said that he would destroy you.
Deu 9:26 I prayed to Yehowah, 'O Lord Yehowah, do not destroy your people or your inheritance whom you have redeemed through your greatness, which you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.
Deu 9:27 Call to mind your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; do not look at the stubbornness of this people, nor at their wickedness, nor at their sin,

Deu 9:28 so that the land from where you brought us should say, “Because Yehowah was not able to bring them into the land that he promised to them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.”
Deu 9:29 Yet they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out by your great strength and by the display of your power.’

Deuteronomy Chapter 10

Deu 10:1 At that time, Yehowah said to me, ‘Carve two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood.
Deu 10:2 I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets that you broke, and you will put them in the ark.’
Deu 10:3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, and I carved two tablets of stone like the first, and I went up the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand.
Deu 10:4 He wrote on the tablets, like the first writing, the Ten Words which Yehowah had spoken to you on the mountain out of the middle of the fire on the day of the assembly; then Yehowah gave them to me.
Deu 10:5 I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark that I had made; there they are, as Yehowah commanded me.”
Deu 10:6 The people of Israel journeyed from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died (c. 1611 BC), and there he was buried; Eleazar, his son, served in the priest’s office in his place.
Deu 10:7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of streams of water.
Deu 10:8 At that time, Yehowah chose the tribe of Levi to carry the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah, to stand before Yehowah to serve him, and to bless people in his name, as today.
Deu 10:9 Therefore, Levi has no portion nor inheritance of land with his brothers; Yehowah is his inheritance, as Yehowah your Divine One spoke to him.
Deu 10:10 “I stayed on the mountain as at the first time, forty days and forty nights. Yehowah listened to me that time also; Yehowah did not wish to destroy you.
Deu 10:11 Yehowah ordered me, ‘Arise, go before the people to lead them on their journey; they will go in and possess the land that I swore to their ancestors to give to them.’
Deu 10:12 Now Israel, what does Yehowah your Divine One require of you? This only: To fear Yehowah your Divine One, to walk in all his Ways, to love him, and to worship Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart and with all your soul (Mat. 22:37; Mic. 6:8),
Deu 10:13 to keep the commandments of Yehowah and his statutes, which I am commanding you today for your own good.
Deu 10:14 Behold, to Yehowah your Divine One belong the heavens and the Heaven of heavens, the earth, with all that is in them.
Deu 10:15 Only Yehowah took pleasure in your fathers so as to love them, and he chose you, their descendants after them, more than any of the other ethnicities, as he does today.

Deu 10:16 Therefore, circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be stubborn no longer.
Deu 10:17 For Yehowah your Divine One, he is the Mighty One of deities and Lord of masters, the great Almighty, the powerful One and the fearsome One, who favors no one and takes no bribe.
Deu 10:18 He executes justice for the fatherless and widow, and he shows love for the sojourning foreigner by giving him food and clothing.
Deu 10:19 Therefore, love the sojourning foreigner (Mat. 22:39), for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.
Deu 10:20 You will fear Yehowah your Divine One; him will you worship. To him you must cling, and by his name will you swear (Luke 4:8).
Deu 10:21 He is your praise, and he is your Divine One, who has done for you these great and fearsome things, which your eyes have seen.
Deu 10:22 Your fathers went down into Egypt as seventy persons (Gen. 46:27; Exo. 1:5; Acts 7:14); now Yehowah your Divine One has made you as many as the stars of heaven.

Deuteronomy Chapter 11

Deu 11:1 Therefore, you will love Yehowah your Divine One and always keep his instructions, his statutes, his decrees, and his commandments.
Deu 11:2 Notice that I am not speaking to your children, who have not known nor have they seen the punishment of Yehowah your Divine One, his greatness, his mighty hand, or his outstretched arm,
Deu 11:3 the signs and deeds that he did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to all his land.
Deu 11:4 Neither did they see what he did to the military force of Egypt, to their horses, or to their chariots, how he made the water of the SEA overwhelm them as they pursued after you, and how Yehowah has destroyed them until today,
Deu 11:5 or what he did for you in the wilderness, until you came to this place.
Deu 11:6 They had not seen what Yehowah had done to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab son of Reuben, how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, their households, their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the middle of all Israel.
Deu 11:7 But your eyes have seen all the great works of Yehowah that he did.
Deu 11:8 Therefore, keep all the commandments that I am commanding you today, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land where you are going over to possess it,
Deu 11:9 and that you may prolong your days in the land that Yehowah swore to your fathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.
Deu 11:10 For the land, where you go in to possess it, is not like the land of Egypt, from where you came, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot (-operated irrigation system), like a garden of herbs;
Deu 11:11 but the land where you go over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinks water of the rain of the heavens,
Deu 11:12 a land that Yehowah your Divine One cares for; the eyes of Yehowah your Divine One are always upon it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.
Deu 11:13 It will happen, if you will listen diligently to my commandments that I command you today, to love Yehowah your Divine One and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,
Deu 11:14 that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the autumn rain and the spring rain, that you may gather in your grain, your new wine, and your oil.
Deu 11:15 I will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you will eat and be full.

Deu 11:16 Pay attention to yourselves, so that your heart is not deceived, and you turn aside, worship false deities, and bow down to them;
Deu 11:17 so that the anger of Yehowah is not kindled against you; and so that he does not shut up the heavens, so that there will be no rain, and the land will not yield its fruit, and so that you perish quickly from off the good land that Yehowah is giving you.
Deu 11:18 Therefore, lay up these words of mine in your heart and soul, bind them as a sign on your hand, and let them be as frontlets between your eyes (tefillin).
Deu 11:19 You will teach them to your children and talk about them when you sit in your house, when you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up.
Deu 11:20 You will write them on the doorposts of your house and on your city gates,
Deu 11:21 that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land that Yehowah swore to your ancestors to give them, for as long as the heavens are above the earth.
Deu 11:22 For if you diligently keep all these commandments that I am commanding you, so as to do them, to love Yehowah your Divine One, to walk in all his Ways, and to cling to him,
Deu 11:23 then Yehowah will drive out all these ethnicities from before you, and you will dispossess ethnicities larger and mightier than yourselves.
Deu 11:24 Every place where the sole of your foot will tread will be yours (Josh. 1:3); from the wilderness to Lebanon, from the river, the Euphrates River, to the Mediterranean Sea will be your border.
Deu 11:25 No man will be able to stand before you. Yehowah your Divine One will lay the fear of you and the terror of you upon all the land that you tread on, as he has said to you.
Deu 11:26 Look, I set before you today a blessing and a curse:
Deu 11:27 The blessing, if you obey the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One that I command you today,
Deu 11:28 and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One, but turn aside from the Way that I command you today, to go after false deities that you have not known.
Deu 11:29 It will happen, when Yehowah your Divine One brings you into the land which you go to possess, that you will set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.
Deu 11:30 Are they not beyond the Jordan River, west of the western road, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?

Deu 11:31 For you are to cross over the Jordan River to go in to possess the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, and you will possess it and live in it.
Deu 11:32 You will keep all the statutes and the decrees that I set before you today.

Deuteronomy Chapter 12

Deu 12:1 These are the statutes and the decrees that you will keep in the land that Yehowah, Mighty One of your fathers, has given you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth.
Deu 12:2 You will surely destroy all the places where the ethnicities that you will dispossess worshiped their deities, on the high mountains, on the hills, and under every green tree.
Deu 12:3 You must break down their altars, dash in pieces their stone pillars, and burn their Asherah poles. You must cut down the carved figures of their deities and destroy their name out of that place.
Deu 12:4 You will not worship Yehowah your Divine One like that.
Deu 12:5 But to the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose out of all your tribes to put his name, that will be the place where he lives, and it is there that you will go.
Deu 12:6 It is there that you will bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, and the offerings presented by your hand, your offerings for vows, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.
Deu 12:7 It is there that you will eat before Yehowah your Divine One and rejoice about everything that you have put your hand to, you and your households, where Yehowah your Divine One has blessed you.
Deu 12:8 You will not do all the things that we are doing here today; now everyone is doing whatever is right in his own eyes;
Deu 12:9 for you have not yet come to the rest, to the inheritance that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you.
Deu 12:10 But when you go over the Jordan River and live in the land that Yehowah your Divine One is causing you to inherit, and when he gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you live in safety,
Deu 12:11 then it will happen that to the place where Yehowah your Divine One will choose to cause his name to live, there will you bring all that I command you: Your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, and the offerings presented by your hand, and all your choice offerings for vows that you will vow to Yehowah.
Deu 12:12 You will rejoice before Yehowah your Divine One, you, your sons, your daughters, your male servants, your female servants, and the Levites who are within your gate, because he has no portion or inheritance among you.
Deu 12:13 Pay attention to yourself that you do not offer your burnt offerings at every place that you see;

Deu 12:14 but it is at the place that Yehowah will choose among one of your tribes that you will offer your burnt offerings, and there you will do everything that I command you.
Deu 12:15 However, you may kill and eat animals within all your gates, as you wish, receiving the blessing of Yehowah your Divine One for all that he has given you; the unclean and the clean persons both may eat of it, animals such as the gazelle and the deer.
Deu 12:16 But you will not eat the blood; you will pour it out on the earth like water.
Deu 12:17 You may not eat within your gates from the tithe of your grain, your new wine, your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or flock; and you may not eat any of the meat you sacrifice along with any of your vows that you make, nor that of your freewill offerings, nor that of the offering you present with your hand.
Deu 12:18 Instead, you will eat them before Yehowah your Divine One in the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose, you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates; you will rejoice before Yehowah your Divine One about everything to which you put your hand!
Deu 12:19 Pay attention to yourself, so that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live on your land.
Deu 12:20 When Yehowah your Divine One enlarges your borders, as he has promised you, and you say, 'I will eat flesh,' because of your desire to eat meat, you may eat meat, as your soul desires.
Deu 12:21 If the place that Yehowah your Divine One chooses to put his name is too far from you, then you will kill some of your herd and your flock that Yehowah has given you, as I have commanded you; you may eat within your gates, as your soul desires.
Deu 12:22 Like the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you will eat of it; the unclean and the clean persons may eat of it alike.
Deu 12:23 Only be sure that you do not consume the blood, for the blood is the life; you will not eat the life with the meat.
Deu 12:24 You will not eat it; you will pour it out on the earth like water.
Deu 12:25 You will not eat it, so that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you will do what is right in the eyes of Yehowah.
Deu 12:26 But the things that belong to Yehowah that you have and the offerings for your vows, you will take these and go to the place that Yehowah chooses.
Deu 12:27 There you will offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of Yehowah your Divine One; the blood of your sacrifices will be poured out on the altar of Yehowah your Divine One, and you will eat the flesh.

Deu 12:28 Observe and listen to all these words that I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the eyes of Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 12:29 When Yehowah your Divine One cuts off the ethnicities from before you, when you go in to dispossess them, and you dispossess them and live in their land,
Deu 12:30 pay attention to yourself that you are not trapped into following them, after they are destroyed from before you, trapped into investigating their deities, into asking, 'How do these ethnicities worship their deities? I will do the same.'
Deu 12:31 You will not do that in respect to Yehowah your Divine One, for everything that is an abomination to Yehowah, things that he hates, they have done these with their deities; they even burn their sons and their daughters in fire for their deities.
Deu 12:32 Whatever I command you, observe it. Do not add to it or take away from it.

Deuteronomy Chapter 13

Deu 13:1 If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and if he gives you a sign or a wonder,
Deu 13:2 and if the sign or the wonder comes about, of which he spoke to you, ‘Let us go after false deities that you have not known, and let us worship them,’
Deu 13:3 do not listen to the words of that prophet, or to that dreamer of dreams; for Yehowah your Divine One is testing you to know whether you love Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart and with all your soul.
Deu 13:4 You will walk after Yehowah your Divine One, honor him, keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you will worship him and cling to him.
Deu 13:5 That prophet or that dreamer of dreams will be executed, because he has spoken rebellion against Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and who redeemed you out of the house of bondage. That prophet wants to draw you out of the Way in which Yehowah your Divine One commanded you to walk. So put away the evil from among you.
Deu 13:6 Suppose that your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is to you like your own soul, secretly entices you and says, ‘Let us go and worship false deities that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors,
Deu 13:7 any of the deities of the people that are round about you, near to you, or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth.’
Deu 13:8 Do not consent to him or listen to him. Neither must your eye pity him, neither will you spare him or conceal him.
Deu 13:9 Instead, you will surely execute him; your hand will be the first on him to execute him, and afterwards the hand of all the people.
Deu 13:10 You will execute him by stoning, because he has tried to draw you away from Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.
Deu 13:11 All Israel will hear of his execution and fear, and will not continue to do this kind of wickedness among you.
Deu 13:12 If you hear anyone say about one of your cities, that Yehowah your Divine One gives you to live in:
Deu 13:13 Some wicked fellows have gone out from among you and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city and said, ‘Let us go and worship false deities that you have not known.’
Deu 13:14 Then you will examine the evidence, research, and investigate it thoroughly. When you discover that it is true and certain that such an abominable thing has been done among you, then you will take action.

Deu 13:15 You will surely attack the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, completely destroy it and all the people who are in it, along with its livestock, with the edge of the sword.
Deu 13:16 You will gather all the spoil from it into the middle of its street and will burn the city, as well as all its spoil, for Yehowah your Divine One. The city will be a heap of ruins forever; it must never be built again.
Deu 13:17 None of those things set apart for destruction must stick in your hand. This must be the case, so that Yehowah will turn from the fierceness of his anger, show you mercy, have compassion on you, and make you increase in numbers, as he has sworn to your fathers.
Deu 13:18 He will do this, because you are listening to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, to keep all his commandments that I am commanding you today, to do that which is right in the eyes of Yehowah your Divine One.

Deuteronomy Chapter 14

Deu 14:1 You are the people of Yehowah your Divine One. Do not cut yourselves nor shave any part of your face for the dead.
Deu 14:2 For you are a nation that is set apart to Yehowah your Divine One, and Yehowah has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, more than all people that are on the surface of the earth.
Deu 14:3 You must not eat any abominable thing.
Deu 14:4 These are the animals that you may eat: the ox (possibly hartebeest), the sheep, and the goat,
Deu 14:5 the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck (possibly giraffe), the wild goat, and ibex, and the oryx antelope, and the mountain sheep.
Deu 14:6 You may eat any animal that parts the hoof, that is, that has the hoof divided in two and that chews the cud.
Deu 14:7 Nevertheless, you must not eat some animals that chew the cud or that have the hoof divided in two: The camel, the rabbit, and the rock badger; because they chew the cud but do not part the hoof, they are unclean for you.
Deu 14:8 The pig is unclean for you as well, because he parts the hoof but does not chew the cud; he is unclean to you. Do not eat pig meat and do not touch their carrion.
Deu 14:9 Of these things that are in water you may eat: Whatever has fins and scales;
Deu 14:10 but whatever has no fins and scales you must not eat; they are unclean for you.
Deu 14:11 All clean birds you may eat.
Deu 14:12 But these are the birds that you must not eat: the Tawny Eagle, the Griffon Vulture, the Short-toed Eagle,
Deu 14:13 the Red Kite and Black Kite, and the Peregrine Falcon.
Deu 14:14 You must not eat the Fan-tailed Raven,
Deu 14:15 and the Desert Owl, and the Short-eared Owl, the Black-headed Gull, or the Eurasian Hobby,
Deu 14:16 the Tawny Owl, the Spotted Eagle Owl, the Greater Flamingo,
Deu 14:17 the Great White Pelican, the Common Crane, the Great Cormorant.
Deu 14:18 You must not eat the Egyptian Ibis, the Grey Heron, the Eurasian Hoopoe, and the bat.
Deu 14:19 All winged, swarming things are unclean for you; they must not be eaten.
Deu 14:20 You may eat all clean flying things.
Deu 14:21 You must not eat of anything that dies of itself; you may give it to the sojourning foreigner who is within your towns, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a nation that is set apart to Yehowah your Divine One. You must not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

Deu 14:22 You must surely tithe all the yield of your seed, that which comes out from the field year after year.
Deu 14:23 You must eat before Yehowah your Divine One, in the place that he will choose as his sanctuary, the tithe of your grain, of your (unleavened) new wine (Lev. 2:11), and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and your flock; that you may learn to always honor Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 14:24 If the journey is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, because the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose as his sanctuary is too far from you, then when Yehowah your Divine One blesses you,
Deu 14:25 you will convert the offering into money, tie up the money in your hand, and go to the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose.
Deu 14:26 There you will spend the money for whatever you desire: For oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for beer, or for whatever you desire; you will eat there before Yehowah your Divine One, and you will rejoice, you and your household.
Deu 14:27 The Levite who is within your gates, do not forsake him, for he has no portion nor inheritance with you.
Deu 14:28 At the end of every three years, you will present all the tithe of your produce in the same year, and you will store it up within your gates;
Deu 14:29 and the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the sojourning alien, the fatherless, and the widow who are within your gates, will come, eat, and be satisfied. Do this, so that Yehowah your Divine One may bless you in all the work of your hand that you do.

Deuteronomy Chapter 15

Deu 15:1 At the end of every seven years, you must cancel (shemitah) debts.
Deu 15:2 This is the manner of the release: Every creditor will cancel that which he has lent to his neighbor; he will not demand it from his neighbor or his brother, because the cancellation of debts for Yehowah has been proclaimed.
Deu 15:3 From a foreigner you may demand it; but whatever of yours is with your brother your hand must release.
Deu 15:4 However, there should be no poor among you, for Yehowah will surely bless you in the land that Yehowah your Divine One gives you as an inheritance to possess,
Deu 15:5 if only you diligently listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, to keep all these commandments that I am commanding you today.
Deu 15:6 For Yehowah your Divine One will bless you, as he promised you; you will lend to many ethnicities, but you will not borrow; you will rule over many ethnicities, but they will not rule over you.
Deu 15:7 If there is a poor man among you, one of your brothers, within any of your gates in your land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, you must not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother;
Deu 15:8 but you must freely open your hand to him and surely lend him sufficient for his need.
Deu 15:9 Be careful not to have a wicked thought in your heart, saying, 'The seventh year, the year of release, is near,' so that you will not be stingy in regard to your poor brother and give him nothing; he might cry out to Yehowah about you, and it would be sin for you.
Deu 15:10 You must surely give to him, and your heart must not be sorry when you give to him, because in return for this, Yehowah your Divine One will bless you in all your work and in all that you put your hand to.
Deu 15:11 For the poor will never cease to exist in the land (Mat. 26:11; John 12:8); therefore, I command you, 'You must freely open your hand to your brother, to your poor and needy in your land.'
Deu 15:12 If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you for six years, then in the seventh year you must let him go free from you.
Deu 15:13 When you let him go free from you, you must not let him go empty-handed.
Deu 15:14 You must liberally provide for him out of your flock, out of your threshing floor, and out of your winepress. As Yehowah your Divine One has blessed you, you must give to him.

Deu 15:15 You must remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and that Yehowah your Divine One redeemed you; therefore, I am commanding you today to do this.
Deu 15:16 It will happen that if he says to you, ‘I will not go away from you,’ because he loves you and your household, and because he is well off with you,
Deu 15:17 then you must take an awl and thrust it through his ear to a door, and he will be your servant forever. You must do the same with your female servant.
Deu 15:18 It must not seem difficult for you to let him go free from you, because he has served you for six years and given twice the value of a hired person. Yehowah your Divine One will bless you in all that you do.
Deu 15:19 All the firstborn males in your herd and your flock you must set apart to Yehowah your Divine One. You will do no work with the firstborn of your herd nor shear the firstborn of your flock.
Deu 15:20 You must eat the firstborn before Yehowah your Divine One year by year in the place that Yehowah will choose, you and your household.
Deu 15:21 If it has any blemish, for example, if it is lame or blind, or has any blemish whatever, you must not sacrifice it to Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 15:22 You will eat it within your gates; the unclean and the clean persons alike must eat it, as you would eat a gazelle or a deer.
Deu 15:23 Only you must not eat its blood; you must pour its blood out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy Chapter 16

Deu 16:1 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to Yehowah your Divine One, for in the month of Abib, Yehowah your Divine One brought you out of Egypt by night (of the 15th).
Deu 16:2 You will sacrifice the Passover to Yehowah your Divine One with some of the flock and the herd in the place that Yehowah will choose as his sanctuary.
Deu 16:3 You will eat no leavened bread with it; seven days will you eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction; for you came out of the land of Egypt in haste. Do this all the days of your life, so that you may call to mind the day (Abib 15) when you came out of the land of Egypt.
Deu 16:4 No yeast must be seen among you within all your borders during seven days; nor must any of the meat that you sacrifice at dusk on the first day (Abib 14) remain until dawn (Abib 15).
Deu 16:5 You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your city gates that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you.
Deu 16:6 Instead, sacrifice at the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose as his sanctuary. There you will perform the sacrifice of the Passover at dusk, at the going down of the sun (Exo. 12:6), at the appointment calendar time of year that you came out of Egypt.
Deu 16:7 You must roast it and eat it at the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose; at dawn you will turn and go to your tents.
Deu 16:8 For six days you will eat unleavened bread; on the seventh day (Abib 21), there will be a festive assembly for Yehowah your Divine One; on that day (Abib 21), you must do no work.
Deu 16:9 You will count seven weeks for yourselves; from the time you begin (day after the Sabbath, Omer day 1, Lev. 23:10-11) to put the sickle to the standing (barley) grain you must start counting seven weeks (Lev. 23:15-16).
Deu 16:10 You must keep the Festival of Shavuot (Weeks, Pentecost) for Yehowah your Divine One with the contribution of a freewill offering from your hand that you will give, according as Yehowah your Divine One has blessed you.
Deu 16:11 You will rejoice before Yehowah your Divine One, you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite who is within your city gates, and the sojourning alien, the fatherless, and the widow who are among you, at the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose for his sanctuary.
Deu 16:12 You will call to mind that you were a slave in Egypt; you must observe and do these statutes.
Deu 16:13 You must keep the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days after you have gathered in the harvest from your threshing floor and from your winepress.

Deu 16:14 You will rejoice during your feast, you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite, the sojourning alien, the fatherless, and the widow who are within your gates!
Deu 16:15 For seven days you must celebrate the feast for Yehowah your Divine One at the place that Yehowah will choose, because Yehowah your Divine One will bless you in all your harvest and all the work of your hands, and you will be completely joyful!
Deu 16:16 Three times in a year all your males must appear before Yehowah your Divine One at the place that he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Shavuot (Weeks, Pentecost), and at the Feast of Tabernacles; and they will not appear before Yehowah empty-handed:
Deu 16:17 Instead, every man will give as he is able, that you might know the blessing that Yehowah your Divine One has given to you.
Deu 16:18 You must make judges and officers within all your city gates that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you; they will be taken from each of your tribes, and they must judge the people with righteous judgment.
Deu 16:19 You must not take justice away by force; you must not show partiality nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous.
Deu 16:20 You must follow after justice, after justice alone, so that you may live and inherit the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you.
Deu 16:21 You must not set up for yourselves an Asherah, any sort of pole, beside the altar of Yehowah your Divine One that you will make for yourself.
Deu 16:22 Neither must you set up for yourself any memorial stone pillar, which Yehowah your Divine One hates.

Deuteronomy Chapter 17

Deu 17:1 You must not sacrifice to Yehowah your Divine One an ox or a sheep in which is any blemish or malignancy, for that would be an abomination to Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 17:2 If there is found among you, within any of your city gates that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, any man or woman who does what is evil in the sight of Yehowah your Divine One and transgresses his covenant,
Deu 17:3 anyone who has gone and worshiped false deities and bowed down to them, either the sun, the moon, or any of the host of heaven, nothing that I have commanded,
Deu 17:4 and if you are told about this, or if you have heard of it, then you must make a careful investigation. If it is true and certain that such an abomination has been done in Israel, this is what you should do:
Deu 17:5 You must bring that man or woman, who has done this evil thing, to your city gates, that man or woman, and you must stone that person to death.
Deu 17:6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, will he who must die be executed; but at the mouth of only one witness, he must not be executed.
Deu 17:7 The hand of the witnesses must be the first to execute him, and afterward the hand of all the people; and you will remove the evil from among you.
Deu 17:8 If a matter arises that is too hard for you to judge, perhaps a question of murder or accidental death, of one person's right and another person's right, or a question of one kind of harm done, or another kind of matter, matters of controversy within your city gates, then you must go up to the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose as his sanctuary.
Deu 17:9 You must go to the priests, the descendants of Levi, and to the judge who will be serving at that time; you will seek their advice, and they will give you the verdict.
Deu 17:10 You must follow the word given to you at the place Yehowah will choose as his sanctuary. You will be careful to do everything that they direct you to do.
Deu 17:11 Follow the law they teach you, and do according to the decisions they give you. Do not turn aside from what they tell you, to the right hand or to the left.
Deu 17:12 Anyone who acts arrogantly, in not listening to the priest who is standing to serve before Yehowah your Divine One, or in not listening to the judge, that man will be executed; you will put away the evil from Israel.
Deu 17:13 All the people must hear about the execution and fear, and act presumptuously no more.

Deu 17:14 When you have come to the land that Yehowah your Divine One gives you, and when you take possession of it and begin to live in it, and then you say, ‘I will set a king over myself, like all the ethnicities that are round about me,’
Deu 17:15 then you must surely set as king over yourself someone whom Yehowah your Divine One will choose. You must set as king over yourself someone from among your brothers. You may not put a foreigner, who is not your brother, over yourself.
Deu 17:16 But he must not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, so that he may multiply horses, for Yehowah had said to you, ‘You will never return that way again.’
Deu 17:17 He must not take many wives for himself, so that his heart does not turn away. He must not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold.
Deu 17:18 When he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he must write for himself in a Scroll a copy of this law, from the law that is before the priests, who are Levites (Deut. 31:9; Josh. 8:32; Rev. 5:10; Hos. 8:12).
Deu 17:19 The Scroll must be with him, and he must read in it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to honor Yehowah his Divine One, so as to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to observe them.
Deu 17:20 He must do this, so that his heart is not lifted up above his brothers, and so that he does not turn away from the commandments, to the right hand or to the left; for the purpose that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, among Israel.

Deuteronomy Chapter 18

Deu 18:1 The priests, who are Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, will have no portion nor inheritance with Israel; they must eat the offerings of Yehowah made by fire as their inheritance.
Deu 18:2 They must have no inheritance among their brothers; Yehowah is their inheritance, as he said to them.
Deu 18:3 This will be the priests' due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be oxen or sheep: They must give to the priest the shoulder, the two cheeks, and the inner parts.
Deu 18:4 The firstfruits of your grain, of your new wine, of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you must give him.
Deu 18:5 For Yehowah your Divine One has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to serve in the name of Yehowah, him and his sons forever.
Deu 18:6 If a Levite comes from any of your towns out of all Israel from where he is living, and desires with all his soul to come to the place Yehowah will choose,
Deu 18:7 then he must serve in the name of Yehowah his Divine One as all his brothers the Levites do, who stand there before Yehowah.
Deu 18:8 They must have similar portions to eat, besides what comes of the sale of his family's inheritance.
Deu 18:9 When you have come into the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, you must not learn to observe the abominations of those ethnicities.
Deu 18:10 There must not be found among you anyone who puts his son or his daughter into the fire, anyone who uses divination, anyone who practices magic, or any enchanter, or any sorcerer,
Deu 18:11 any witch, or medium, or necromancer, or wizard who conjures up dead spirits.
Deu 18:12 For whoever does these things is an abomination to Yehowah; it is because of these abominations that Yehowah your Divine One is driving them out from before you.
Deu 18:13 You must be blameless before Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 18:14 For these ethnicities that you will dispossess listen to those who practice sorcery and divination; but as for you, Yehowah your Divine One has not allowed you to do so.
Deu 18:15 Yehowah your Divine One will raise up for you a Prophet from among you, one of your brothers like me. You must listen to and obey him (Acts 3:22-23, 7:37; John 1:21, 25; 6:14; 9:17).

Deu 18:16 This is what you asked from Yehowah your Divine One at Horeb on the day of the assembly, ‘Let us not hear again the voice of Yehowah our Divine One, nor see this great fire anymore, or we will die.’
Deu 18:17 Yehowah said to me, ‘What they have said is good.
Deu 18:18 I will raise up a Prophet for them from among their brothers, just like you. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will speak to them all that I command him.
Deu 18:19 It will happen that if anyone does not listen to my words that he speaks in my name, I will require it of him.
Deu 18:20 But the prophet who speaks a word presumptuously in my name, a word that I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of false deities, that prophet must be executed.’
Deu 18:21 This is what you must ask in your heart: ‘How will we recognize a message that Yehowah has not spoken?’
Deu 18:22 You will recognize a message that Yehowah has spoken when a prophet speaks in the name of Yehowah: If that thing does not occur nor happen, then that is something that Yehowah has not spoken, and the prophet has spoken it arrogantly, and you must not be afraid of him.

Deuteronomy Chapter 19

Deu 19:1 When Yehowah your Divine One cuts off the ethnicities, those whose land Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, and when you come after them and live in their cities and houses,
Deu 19:2 you must select three cities for yourself in the middle of your land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you to possess.
Deu 19:3 You must build a road and divide the borders of your land into three parts, the land that Yehowah your Divine One is causing you to inherit, so that everyone who kills another person may flee there.
Deu 19:4 This is the law for the one who kills another, and who flees there to live: Whoever kills his neighbor unawares and did not previously hate him,
Deu 19:5 as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand strikes with the ax to cut down a tree, and the head slips from the shaft and strikes his neighbor, so that he dies, then that man must flee to one of these cities and live.
Deu 19:6 Otherwise, the avenger of blood might go after the one who took a life, and in the heat of his anger overtake him, if the distance is too great, strike him and kill him, even though that man did not deserve to die, since he had not hated his neighbor in the past.
Deu 19:7 Therefore, I command you to select three cities for yourself.
Deu 19:8 If Yehowah your Divine One enlarges your borders, as he has sworn to your ancestors to do, and gives you all the land that he promised to give to your ancestors;
Deu 19:9 if you keep all these commandments to do them, which I am commanding you today, commandments to love Yehowah your Divine One and to always walk in his Ways, then you must add three more cities for yourself, besides these three.
Deu 19:10 Do this, so that innocent blood is not shed in the midst of the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you as an inheritance, so that no bloodguilt may be on you.
Deu 19:11 But if anyone hates his neighbor, lies in wait for him, rises up against him, and mortally wounds him, so that he dies, and if he then flees into one of these cities,
Deu 19:12 then the elders of his city must send and bring him back from there, and turn him over into the hand of the responsible relative, so that he may be executed.
Deu 19:13 Your eye must not pity him; instead, you must eradicate the bloodguilt from Israel, that it may go well with you.

Deu 19:14 You must not remove your neighbor's boundary stone that they set in place a long time ago, in your inheritance that you will inherit, in the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you to possess (Hos. 5:10; Deut. 27:17; Prov. 22:28; 23:10-11; 15:25; Job 24:2; Isa 5:8).
Deu 19:15 One sole witness must not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any matter that he sins; at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, must any matter be confirmed.
Deu 19:16 Suppose that an unrighteous witness rises up against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing.
Deu 19:17 Then both men, the ones between whom the controversy exists, must stand before Yehowah, before the priests and the judges who serve in those days.
Deu 19:18 The judges must make diligent inquiries; see if the witness is a false witness and has testified falsely against his brother,
Deu 19:19 then must you do to him, as he had wished to do to his brother; and you will remove the evil from among you.
Deu 19:20 Then those who remain will hear and fear, and will from then on commit no longer any such evil among you.
Deu 19:21 Your eyes must not pity; life will pay for life by execution, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy Chapter 20

Deu 20:1 When you march out to battle against your enemies, and see horses, chariots, and a people more numerous than you, you must not be afraid of them; for Yehowah your Divine One is with you, he who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Deu 20:2 When you are about to enter into battle, the priest must approach and speak to the people.
Deu 20:3 He must say to them, 'Listen, Israel, you are going to battle against your enemies. Do not let your hearts faint. Do not fear or tremble. Do not be afraid of them.
Deu 20:4 For Yehowah your Divine One is the One who is going with you to fight for you against your enemies and to save you.'
Deu 20:5 The officers must speak to the people, 'What man is there who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, so that he does not die in battle and another man dedicates it.
Deu 20:6 Is there anyone who has planted a vineyard and has not enjoyed its fruit? Let him go home, so he will not die in battle and another man enjoy its fruit.
Deu 20:7 What man is there who is engaged to marry a woman but has not yet married her? Let him go home, so that he does not die in battle and another man marries her.'
Deu 20:8 The officers must speak further to the people, 'What man is there who is fearful or fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, so that his brother's heart does not melt like his own heart.'
Deu 20:9 When the officers have finished speaking to the people, they must appoint commanders over them.
Deu 20:10 When you march up to attack a city, make those people an offer of peace.
Deu 20:11 If they accept your offer and open their gates to you, all the people who are found in it must become forced labor for you and must serve you.
Deu 20:12 But if it makes no offer of peace to you, but instead makes war against you, then you must besiege it,
Deu 20:13 and when Yehowah your Divine One gives you victory and puts them under your control, you must kill every man in the town with the sword.
Deu 20:14 But the women, the little ones, the livestock, everything that is in the city, and all its spoil, you will take as booty for yourself. You will consume the booty of your enemies, whom Yehowah your Divine One has given to you.
Deu 20:15 You must act in this way toward all the cities that are a great distance from you, cities that are not of the cities of these following ethnicities.

Deu 20:16 In the cities of these people that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you as an inheritance, you must save alive nothing that breathes.
Deu 20:17 Instead, you must completely destroy them: The Hethite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, as Yehowah your Divine One has commanded you.
Deu 20:18 Do this, so that they do not teach you to act in any of their abominable ways, as they have done with their deities. If you do, you will sin against Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 20:19 When you will besiege a city for a long time, as you wage war against it to capture it, you must not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them. For you may eat from them, so you must not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man whom you should besiege?
Deu 20:20 Only the trees that you know are not trees for food, you may destroy and cut down; you will build siege works against the city that makes war with you, until it falls.

Deuteronomy Chapter 21

Deu 21:1 If a homicide victim is found in the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you to possess, lying in the field, and it is not known who has attacked him;
Deu 21:2 then your elders and your judges must go out, and they must measure to the cities that are around the homicide victim.
Deu 21:3 Then the elders of the town nearest to the homicide victim must take a heifer from the herd, one that has never been put to work and that has not borne the yoke.
Deu 21:4 Then they must lead the heifer down to a valley with running water, a valley that has been neither plowed nor sown, and there in the valley they must break the heifer's neck.
Deu 21:5 The priests, descendants of Levi, must come near; for them, Yehowah your Divine One has chosen to serve him and to bless the people in the name of Yehowah; listen to their advice, for their word will be the verdict in every dispute and case of assault.
Deu 21:6 All the elders of the city that is the nearest to the homicide victim must wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley;
Deu 21:7 and they must answer to the case, 'Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.
Deu 21:8 Forgive, Yehowah, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and do not put guilt for innocent bloodshed in the midst of your people Israel.' Then the bloodshed will be forgiven them.
Deu 21:9 In this way, you will put away the innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is right in the eyes of Yehowah.
Deu 21:10 When you go out to battle against your enemies, and Yehowah your Divine One gives you victory and puts them under your control, and you take them away as captives,
Deu 21:11 if you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and you have a desire for her and wish to take her for yourself as a wife,
Deu 21:12 then you will bring her home to your house; she will shave her head and cut her nails.
Deu 21:13 Then she will take off the clothes she was wearing when she was taken captive, and she will remain in your house and mourn for her father and her mother a full month. After that, you may make love to her and be her husband, and she will be your wife.
Deu 21:14 But if you take no delight in her, then you may let her go where she wishes. But you must not sell her at all for money, and you must not treat her like a slave, because you have humiliated her.

Deu 21:15 If a man has two wives and one is loved and the other is hated, and they have both borne him children, both the beloved wife and the hated wife, if the firstborn son is of her that is hated,
Deu 21:16 then on the day that the man causes his sons to inherit what he possesses, he may not make the son of the beloved wife the firstborn before the son of the hated wife, the son who is actually the firstborn.
Deu 21:17 Instead, he must acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the hated wife, by giving him a double portion of all that he possesses; for that son is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn belongs to him.
Deu 21:18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and who, even though they correct him, will not listen to them;
Deu 21:19 then his father and his mother must lay hold on him and bring him out to the elders of his city and to the gate of his city.
Deu 21:20 They must say to the elders of his city, 'This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard' (Luke 7:34).
Deu 21:21 Then all the men of his city must execute him by stoning; and you will remove the evil from among you. All Israel will hear of the execution and fear.
Deu 21:22 If a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and he is executed, and you hang him on a tree,
Deu 21:23 then his body must not remain all night on the tree. Instead, you must surely bury him the same day; for whoever is hanged is cursed by the Almighty. Obey this commandment, so that you do not defile the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you as an inheritance (1 Cor. 12:3; Gal. 3:13-14).

Deuteronomy Chapter 22

Deu 22:1 You must not watch your fellow Israeli's ox or his sheep go astray and hide yourself from them; you must surely bring them back to him.
Deu 22:2 If your fellow Israeli is not near to you, or if you do not know him, then you must bring the animal home to your house, and it must be with you until he looks for it, and then you must restore it to him.
Deu 22:3 You must do the same with his donkey; you must do the same with his garment; you must do the same with every lost thing of your fellow Israeli's, anything that he has lost, and you have found; you must not hide yourself.
Deu 22:4 You must not see your fellow Israeli's donkey or his ox fallen down in the road and hide yourself from them; you must surely help him to lift it up again.
Deu 22:5 A woman must not wear what pertains to a man, and neither must a man put on women's clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to Yehowah your Divine One (Zeph. 1:8).
Deu 22:6 If a bird's nest happens to be in front of you on the road, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs in it, and the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, you must not take the mother along with the young.
Deu 22:7 You must surely let the mother go, but the young you may take for yourself. Obey this command, so that it may go well with you, and that you may prolong your days.
Deu 22:8 When you build a new house, then you must make a railing for your roof, so that you do not bring blood on your household, if anyone falls from there.
Deu 22:9 You must not plant your vineyard with two kinds of seed, so that the whole harvest is not confiscated by the consecrated place, the seed that you have sown and the yield of the vineyard.
Deu 22:10 You must not plow with an ox and a donkey together.
Deu 22:11 You must not wear fabric made of wool and linen together.
Deu 22:12 You must make yourself tassels on the four corners of the cloak with which you clothe yourself.
Deu 22:13 Suppose a man takes a wife, makes love to her, and then hates her,
Deu 22:14 and then accuses her of shameful things, puts a bad reputation on her, and says, 'I took this woman, but when I came near to her, I found no proof of virginity in her.'
Deu 22:15 Then the father and mother of the girl must take proof of her virginity to the elders at the city gate.
Deu 22:16 The girl's father must say to the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man as a wife, and he hates her.

Deu 22:17 See, he has accused her of shameful things by saying, “I did not find in your daughter the proof of virginity.” But here is the proof of my daughter’s virginity.’ Then they will spread the garment out before the elders of the city.
Deu 22:18 The elders of that city must take that man and punish him;
Deu 22:19 and they must fine him 100-weight silver-currency, and give it to the father of the girl, because the man has caused a bad reputation for a virgin of Israel. She must be his wife; he may not divorce her during all his days.
Deu 22:20 But if this thing is true, that the proof of virginity was not found in the girl,
Deu 22:21 then they must bring out the girl to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city must execute her by stoning, because she has committed a disgraceful action in Israel, to act as a harlot in her father’s household; and you will remove the evil from among you.
Deu 22:22 If a man is found having sex with a woman who is married to another man, then they must both be executed, the man who was having sex with the woman and the woman herself; and you will remove the evil from among you.
Deu 22:23 If there is a girl who is a virgin, engaged to a man, and another man finds her in the city and has sex with her,
Deu 22:24 take both of them to the city gate and execute them by stoning. You must stone the girl, because she did not cry out, even though she was in the city. You must execute the man, because he violated his neighbor’s wife; and you will remove the evil from among you.
Deu 22:25 But if the man finds the engaged girl in the field, and if he seizes her and rapes her, then only the man who raped her must be executed.
Deu 22:26 But to the girl you must do nothing; there is no sin in the girl worthy of execution. For this case is like when a man attacks his neighbor and murders him.
Deu 22:27 For he found her in the field; the engaged girl cried out, but there was no one to save her.
Deu 22:28 If a man finds a girl who is a virgin, but who is not engaged, and if he seizes her and rapes her, and if they are discovered,
Deu 22:29 then the man who raped her must give 50-weight silver-currency to the girl’s father, and she must become his wife, because he has humiliated her. He may not divorce her during all his days.
Deu 22:30 A man must not take his father’s wife as his own; he must not take away his father’s marriage rights.

Deuteronomy Chapter 23

Deu 23:1 No man emasculated by having his testicles crushed or by having his penis cut off, may enter the congregation of Yehowah.
Deu 23:2 No illegitimate child may belong to the congregation of Yehowah; as far as to the tenth generation of his descendants, none of them may belong to the congregation of Yehowah.
Deu 23:3 An Ammonite or a Moabite may not belong to the congregation of Yehowah; as far as to the tenth generation of his descendants, none of them may belong to the congregation of Yehowah.
Deu 23:4 This is because they did not meet you with bread and with water on the road when you had come out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Adam Naharaim (two rivers: Jabbok and Jordan), to curse you.
Deu 23:5 But Yehowah your Divine One would not listen to Balaam; instead, Yehowah your Divine One turned the curse into a blessing for you, because Yehowah your Divine One loved you.
Deu 23:6 You must never seek their peace or prosperity, during all your days.
Deu 23:7 You must not detest an Edomite, for he is your brother; you must not abhor an Egyptian, because you were a foreigner in his land.
Deu 23:8 The descendants of the third generation that are born to them may belong to the congregation of Yehowah.
Deu 23:9 When you march out as a military force against your enemies, then you must keep yourselves from every evil thing.
Deu 23:10 If there is among you any man who is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, then he must go out of the camp; he must not come back into the camp.
Deu 23:11 When dusk approaches, he must bathe himself in water; when the sun goes down, he will come back inside the camp.
Deu 23:12 You must have a place also outside the camp to which you will go;
Deu 23:13 and you will have something among your tools to dig with; when you squat down to relieve yourself, you must dig with it, then put back the earth to cover up your excrement.
Deu 23:14 For Yehowah your Divine One walks in the midst of your camp to give you victory and to hand over your enemies to you. Therefore, your camp must be set apart, so that he may not see any unclean thing among you and turn away from you.
Deu 23:15 You must not give back to his master a slave who has escaped from his master to you.

Deu 23:16 Let him live with you, in whatever town he chooses. Do not oppress him.
Deu 23:17 There must be no cultic prostitute among any of the daughters of Israel, neither must there be a male cultic prostitute among the sons of Israel.
Deu 23:18 You must not bring the wages of a prostitute or the wages of a male prostitute into the temple of Yehowah your Divine One for any vow; for both of these are abominations to Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 23:19 You must not lend on interest to your fellow Israeli, interest of money, interest of food, or the interest of anything that is lent on interest.
Deu 23:20 To a foreigner you may lend on interest; but to your fellow Israeli you must not lend on interest, so that Yehowah your Divine One may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land which you are going in to possess.
Deu 23:21 When you make a vow to Yehowah your Divine One, you must not be slow in fulfilling it, for Yehowah your Divine One will surely require it of you; it would be sin for you not to fulfill it.
Deu 23:22 But if you will refrain from making a vow, it will be no sin for you.
Deu 23:23 That which has gone out from your lips, you must observe and do; according as you have vowed to Yehowah your Divine One, anything that you have freely promised with your mouth.
Deu 23:24 When you go into your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you desire, but do not put any in your basket.
Deu 23:25 When you go into your neighbor’s ripe grain, you may pluck the heads of grain with your hand (Mat. 12:1; Mark 2:23; Luke 6:1), but do not put a sickle to your neighbor’s ripe grain.

Deuteronomy Chapter 24

Deu 24:1 When a man takes a wife and marries her, if she finds no grace in his eyes, because he has found some unsuitable thing in her, then he must write her a certificate of divorce, put it into her hand, and send her out of his house.
Deu 24:2 When she has gone out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.
Deu 24:3 If the second husband hates her and writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it into her hand, and sends her out of his house; or if the second husband dies, the man who took her to be his wife,
Deu 24:4 then her former husband, the one who had first sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after she has become impure; for that would be an abomination to Yehowah. You must not cause the land to become guilty, the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you as an inheritance.
Deu 24:5 When a man takes a new wife, he will not go to war with the military force, neither may he be commanded to go on any forced duty; he will be free to be at home for one year and will cheer his wife whom he has taken.
Deu 24:6 No man may take a mill or an upper millstone as a pledge, for that would be taking a person's life as a pledge.
Deu 24:7 If a man is found kidnapping any of his brothers from among the people of Israel, treats him as a slave and sells him, that thief must be executed; and you will remove the evil from among you.
Deu 24:8 Take heed regarding any plague of leprosy, so that you carefully observe and follow every instruction given to you which the priests, the Levites, teach you; as I commanded them, so you will act.
Deu 24:9 Call to mind what Yehowah your Divine One did to Miriam as you were coming out of Egypt.
Deu 24:10 When you make your neighbor any kind of loan, you must not go into his house to get his pledge.
Deu 24:11 You will stand outside, and the man to whom you have lent will bring the pledge outside to you.
Deu 24:12 If he is a poor man, you must not sleep with his pledge in your possession.
Deu 24:13 You must surely restore to him the pledge by the time the sun goes down, so that he may sleep in his garment and bless you; it will be righteousness for you before Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 24:14 You must not defraud a hired day laborer who is poor and needy, whether he is of your fellow Israelis, or of the sojourning foreigners who are in your land within your city gates.

Deu 24:15 Each day, you must give him his wage; the sun must not go down on this unsettled matter, for he is poor and is counting on it. Do this, so that he does not cry out against you to Yehowah, and so that it not be a sin that you have committed.
Deu 24:16 The parents must not be executed for their children, neither must the children be executed for their parents. Instead, everyone must be executed for his own sin.
Deu 24:17 You must not use force to take away the justice that is due the sojourning foreigner or the fatherless, nor take the widow's shawl as a pledge.
Deu 24:18 Instead, you must call to mind that you were a slave in Egypt, and that Yehowah your Divine One rescued you from there. Therefore, I instruct you to obey this command.
Deu 24:19 When you reap your harvest in your field, and if you have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you must not go back to get it; it must be for the sojourning foreigner, for the fatherless, or for the widow, so that Yehowah your Divine One may bless you in all the work of your hands.
Deu 24:20 When you shake your olive tree, you must not go over the branches again; it will be for the sojourning foreigner, for the fatherless, or for the widow.
Deu 24:21 When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you must not glean it again. What is left over will be for the sojourning foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow.
Deu 24:22 You must call to mind that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore, I instruct you to obey this command.

Deuteronomy Chapter 25

Deu 25:1 If there is a dispute between men, and they go to court, and the judges judge them, then they will acquit the righteous and condemn the wicked.
Deu 25:2 If the guilty man deserves to be beaten, then the judge will make him lie down and be beaten in his presence with the ordered number of blows, as was his crime.
Deu 25:3 The judge may give him forty blows, but he may not exceed that number; for if he should exceed that number and beat him with many more blows, then your fellow Israeli would be humiliated before your eyes.
Deu 25:4 You must not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain.
Deu 25:5 If brothers live together and one of them dies, not having any son, then the wife of the dead man must not be married off to someone else outside the family. Instead, her husband's brother must make love to her and take her to himself as a wife, and do the duty of a husband's brother to her (Levirate marriage; Mark 12:19-22).
Deu 25:6 This is so that the firstborn that she bears will succeed in the name of that man's dead brother, so that his name will not perish from Israel.
Deu 25:7 But if the man does not wish to take his brother's wife for himself, then his brother's wife must go up to the gate to the elders and say, 'My husband's brother refuses to raise up for his brother a name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me.'
Deu 25:8 Then the elders of his city must call him and speak to him. But suppose that he insists, 'I do not wish to take her.'
Deu 25:9 Then his brother's wife must come up to him in the presence of the elders, take off his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face. She must answer him, 'This is what is done to the man who does not build up his brother's household.'
Deu 25:10 His name will be called in Israel, 'The house of him whose sandal has been taken off.'
Deu 25:11 If men fight with each other, and the wife of one comes to rescue her husband out of the hand of him who struck him, and if she stretches out her hand and takes him by the genitals,
Deu 25:12 then you must cut off her hand; your eye must have no pity.
Deu 25:13 You must not have in your bag different weights, a large and a small.
Deu 25:14 You must not have in your house different measures, a large and a small.
Deu 25:15 A perfect and just weight you must have (1 weight = 11.5 grams; Lev. 27:25); a perfect and just measure you must have, so that your days may be long in the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you.

Deu 25:16 For all who do such things, all that act unrighteously, are an abomination to Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 25:17 Call to mind what Amalek did to you on the road as you came out of Egypt,
Deu 25:18 how he met you on the road and attacked those of you at the rear, all who were feeble in your rearguard, when you were faint and weary; he did not honor the Almighty.
Deu 25:19 Therefore, when Yehowah your Divine One has given you rest from all your enemies round about, in the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you to possess as an inheritance, you must not forget that you must blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under Heaven.

Deuteronomy Chapter 26

Deu 26:1 (Shavuot Ceremonial Liturgy) When you have come into the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you as an inheritance, and when you possess it and live in it,
Deu 26:2 then you must take some of the first of all the harvest of the land that you have brought in from the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you. You must put it in a basket and go to the place that Yehowah your Divine One will choose as his sanctuary.
Deu 26:3 You must go to the priest who will be serving in those days, and say to him, 'I acknowledge today to Yehowah your Divine One that I have come to the land that Yehowah swore to our ancestors to give us.'
Deu 26:4 The priest must take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 26:5 You must say before Yehowah your Divine One, 'My ancestor was a wandering Aramean. He went down into Egypt and stayed there, and his people were few in number. There he became a great, mighty, and populous nation.
Deu 26:6 The Egyptians treated us badly and afflicted us. They made us work as slaves.
Deu 26:7 We cried out to Yehowah, Mighty One of our fathers, and Yehowah heard our voice, saw our affliction, our labor, and our oppression.
Deu 26:8 Yehowah brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, with great fearsomeness, with signs, and with wonders;
Deu 26:9 and he has brought us to this place and has given us this land, a land that flows with milk and honey.
Deu 26:10 Now look, I have brought the first of the harvest of the land that you, Yehowah, have given me.' You must set it down before Yehowah your Divine One and worship before Yehowah your Divine One;
Deu 26:11 and you must rejoice in all the good that Yehowah your Divine One has done for you, for your household, you, the Levite, and the sojourning alien who is among you!
Deu 26:12 When you have finished giving all the tithe of your harvest in the third year, that is, the year of tithing, then you must give it to the Levite, to the sojourning alien, to the fatherless, and to the widow, so that they may eat within your city gates and be filled.
Deu 26:13 You must say before Yehowah your Divine One, 'I have brought out of my house the things that belong to Yehowah, and have given them to the Levite, to the sojourning alien, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all your commandments that you have given me. I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them.

Deu 26:14 I have not eaten any of it in my mourning, nor have I put it somewhere else when I was impure, nor have I given any of it in honor of the dead. I have listened to the voice of Yehowah my Divine One; I have obeyed everything you have commanded me to do.
Deu 26:15 Look down from the Set-apart Place where you live, from Heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the land that you have given us, as you had sworn to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.'
Deu 26:16 Today, Yehowah your Divine One is commanding you to obey these statutes and decrees; you will therefore keep them and do them with all your heart and with all your soul.
Deu 26:17 You have declared today that Yehowah is your Divine One, and that you will walk in his Ways and keep his statutes, his commandments, and his decrees, and that you will listen to his voice.
Deu 26:18 Today, Yehowah has declared that you are a people who are his own possession, as he had promised to make you, and that you should keep all his commandments.
Deu 26:19 Yehowah has today declared that he will set you high above all the ethnicities that he has made, in respect to praise, to reputation, and to honor. You will be a people that is set apart to Yehowah your Divine One, just as he said."

Deuteronomy Chapter 27

Deu 27:1 Moses and the elders of Israel ordered the people, “Keep all the commandments that I command you today.
Deu 27:2 On the day when you will pass over the Jordan River to the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, you must set up some large stones and plaster them with plaster.
Deu 27:3 You must write on them all the words of this law when you have passed over (Deut. 17:18-19); that you may go into the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, has promised you.
Deu 27:4 When you have passed over the Jordan River, set up these stones that I am commanding you about today, on Mount Ebal, and plaster them with plaster.
Deu 27:5 There you must build an altar to Yehowah your Divine One, an altar of stones; but you must raise no iron tool to work the stones (Josh. 8:30).
Deu 27:6 You must build the altar of Yehowah your Divine One of unworked stones; you must offer burnt offerings on it to Yehowah your Divine One,
Deu 27:7 and you will sacrifice peace offerings and will eat there; you will rejoice before Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 27:8 You will calligraphically write legibly on the stones all the words of this law.”
Deu 27:9 Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, “Be silent and listen, Israel: Today you have become the people of Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 27:10 You must therefore obey the voice of Yehowah your Divine One and obey his commandments and statutes that I am commanding you today.”
Deu 27:11 Moses commanded the people the same day,
Deu 27:12 “These tribes must stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people after you have passed over the Jordan River: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.
Deu 27:13 These are the tribes that must stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.
Deu 27:14 The Levites will answer and say to all the men of Israel in a loud voice:
Deu 27:15 ‘May the man be cursed who makes a carved or cast figure, an abomination to Yehowah, the work of the hands of a craftsman, and who sets it up in secret!’ Then all the people must answer, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:16 ‘May the man be cursed who dishonors his father or his mother!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:17 ‘May the man be cursed who removes his neighbor’s boundary stone!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’

Deu 27:18 ‘May the man be cursed who makes the blind to wander away from the road!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:19 ‘May the man be cursed who uses force to take away the justice due to a sojourning foreigner, fatherless, or widow!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:20 ‘May the man be cursed who has sex with his father’s wife, because he has taken away his father’s rights!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:21 ‘May the man be cursed who has sex with any kind of beast!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:22 ‘May the man be cursed who has sex with his sister, the daughter of his father, or with the daughter of his mother!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:23 ‘May the man be cursed who has sex with his mother-in-law!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:24 ‘May the man be cursed who murders his neighbor secretly!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:25 ‘May the man be cursed who takes a bribe to murder an innocent person!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’
Deu 27:26 ‘May the man be cursed who does not confirm the words of this law, that he will obey them!’ Then all the people must say, ‘Amein!’

Deuteronomy Chapter 28

Deu 28:1 If you listen carefully to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, so as to keep all his commandments that I am commanding you today, Yehowah your Divine One will set you high above all the ethnicities of the earth.
Deu 28:2 All these blessings will come on you and overtake you, if you listen to and obey the voice of Yehowah your Divine One:
Deu 28:3 Blessed will you be in the city, and blessed will you be in the field.
Deu 28:4 Blessed will be the fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the fruit of your livestock, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock.
Deu 28:5 Blessed will be your basket and your kneading bowl.
Deu 28:6 Blessed will you be when you come in, and blessed will you be when you go out.
Deu 28:7 Yehowah will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck down before you; they will come out against you one way but will flee before you seven ways.
Deu 28:8 Yehowah will command the blessing to come on you in your barns, and in all that you put your hand to; he will bless you in the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you.
Deu 28:9 Yehowah will establish you as a people that is set apart for himself, as he has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One and walk in his Ways.
Deu 28:10 All the people of the earth will see that you are called by the name of Yehowah, and they will be afraid of you.
Deu 28:11 Yehowah will make you superabundantly prosperous in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, in the fruit of your ground, and in the land that Yehowah swore to your fathers to give you.
Deu 28:12 Yehowah will open to you his storehouse of the heavens to give the rain for your land at the right time, and to bless all the work of your hand; you will lend to many ethnicities, but you will not borrow.
Deu 28:13 Yehowah will make you the head and not the tail; you will be only above, and you will never be beneath, if you listen to the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One that I am commanding you today, so as to observe and to do them,
Deu 28:14 and if you do not turn away from any of the words that I am commanding you today, to the right hand or to the left, so as to go after false deities to serve them.
Deu 28:15 But if you do not listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, so as to keep all his commandments and his statutes that I am commanding you today, then all these curses will come on you and overtake you:

Deu 28:16 Cursed will you be in the city, and cursed will you be in the field.
Deu 28:17 Cursed will be your basket and your kneading bowl.
Deu 28:18 Cursed will be the fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your cattle, and the young of your flock.
Deu 28:19 Cursed will you be when you come in, and cursed will you be when you go out.
Deu 28:20 Yehowah will send on you curses, confusion, and rebukes in all that you put your hand to, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly, because of your wicked actions by which you will have forsaken me.
Deu 28:21 Yehowah will make the plague cling to you, until he destroys you from off the land that you are going in to possess.
Deu 28:22 Yehowah will attack you with infectious diseases, with fever, with inflammation, with drought and blistering heat, and with scorching winds and mildew. These will pursue you until you perish.
Deu 28:23 Your skies that are over your head will be bronze, and the earth that is under you will be iron.
Deu 28:24 Yehowah will make the rain of your land into powder and dust; from the heavens will it come down on you, until you are destroyed.
Deu 28:25 Yehowah will cause you to be struck down before your enemies; you will go out one way against them but will flee before them seven ways. You will be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth.
Deu 28:26 Your dead body will be food for all the birds of the sky and for the beasts of the earth; there will be no one to frighten them away.
Deu 28:27 Yehowah will attack you with the boils of Egypt, and with ulcers, scurvy, and itch, from which you cannot be healed.
Deu 28:28 Yehowah will attack you with madness, with blindness, and with mental confusion.
Deu 28:29 You will grope about at noonday like the blind grope in the darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways; you will be always oppressed and robbed, and there will be no one to save you.
Deu 28:30 You will become engaged to a woman, but another man will seize her and rape her. You will build a house but not live in it; you will plant a vineyard but not enjoy its fruit.
Deu 28:31 Your ox will be slain before your eyes, but you will not eat its meat; your jack donkey will be forcibly taken away from before you and will not be restored to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and you will have no one to aid you.
Deu 28:32 Your sons and your daughters will be given to other people; your eyes will look for them the entire day but will fail with longing for them. There will be no strength in your hand.

Deu 28:33 The harvest of your land and of all your labors, an ethnicity that you do not know will eat it up; you will always be oppressed and crushed,
Deu 28:34 so that you will become insane by what you have to see happen.
Deu 28:35 Yehowah will attack you in the knees and legs with severe boils from which you cannot be cured, from the bottom of your feet to the top of your head.
Deu 28:36 Yehowah will take you and the king whom you will place over yourself to an ethnicity that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors; there you will worship false deities of wood and stone.
Deu 28:37 You will become a source of horror, a proverb, and a byword, among all the people where Yehowah will lead you away.
Deu 28:38 You will take much seed out into the field but will gather little seed in, for the locusts will consume it.
Deu 28:39 You will plant vineyards and cultivate them, but you will neither drink any of the wine, nor even gather in the grapes, for worms will eat them.
Deu 28:40 You will have olive trees within all your territory, but you will not rub any of the oil on yourself, for your olive trees will drop their fruit.
Deu 28:41 You will have sons and daughters, but they will not remain yours, for they will go into captivity.
Deu 28:42 All your trees and the fruit of your ground, the locusts will take them over.
Deu 28:43 The sojourning foreigner who is among you will rise up above you higher and higher; you yourself will come down lower and lower.
Deu 28:44 He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he will be the head, and you will be the tail.
Deu 28:45 All these curses will come on you and will pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed. This will happen, because you did not listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, so as to keep his commandments and his regulations that he commanded you.
Deu 28:46 These curses will be on you as signs and wonders, and on your descendants forever.
Deu 28:47 Because you did not worship Yehowah your Divine One with joyfulness and gladness of heart when you were in prosperity,
Deu 28:48 therefore will you serve the enemies that Yehowah will send against you; you will serve them in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in poverty. He will put a yoke of iron on your neck, until he destroys you.
Deu 28:49 Yehowah will bring an ethnicity against you from far away, from the ends of the earth, like an eagle flies to its victim, an ethnicity whose language you do not understand;
Deu 28:50 an ethnicity with a fierce face that does not respect the aged and does not show grace to the young.

Deu 28:51 They will eat the young of your livestock and the fruit of your land, until you are destroyed. They will leave for you no grain, new wine, or oil, no young of your cattle or of your flock, until they have caused you to perish.
Deu 28:52 They will besiege you in all your city gates, until your high and fortified walls come down everywhere in your land, walls in which you had trusted. They will besiege you within all your city gates, throughout all the land that Yehowah your Divine One had given you.
Deu 28:53 You will eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, whom Yehowah your Divine One gave you, in the siege, and in the distress which your enemies will put upon you.
Deu 28:54 The man who is tender and extremely delicate among you, he will be envious of his brother and his own dear wife, and of whatever children he has left.
Deu 28:55 So he will not give to any of them the flesh of his own children that he is going to eat, because he will have nothing left for himself in the siege, and in the distress which your enemy will put upon you within all your city gates.
Deu 28:56 The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to put the bottom of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, she will be envious of her own dear husband, of her son, and of her daughter,
Deu 28:57 and of her own newborn that comes out from between her legs, and of the children whom she will bear. She will eat them in private for lack of anything else, during the siege, and in the distress which your enemy will put upon you within your city gates.
Deu 28:58 If you do not keep all the words of this law that are written in this Book, so as to honor this glorious and fearful name, Yehowah your Divine One,
Deu 28:59 then Yehowah will make your plagues terrible and those of your descendants; they will be great plagues of long duration, and severe diseases of long duration.
Deu 28:60 He will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt that you were afraid of; they will cling to you.
Deu 28:61 Also, every sickness and plague that is not written in this Book of the Law, those also Yehowah will bring on you, until you are destroyed.
Deu 28:62 You will be left few in number, although you were like the stars of heaven in number, because you did not listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 28:63 As Yehowah once rejoiced over you in doing you good, and in multiplying you, so he will rejoice over you in making you perish and in destroying you. You will be plucked off the land that you are going into to possess.

Deu 28:64 Yehowah will scatter you among all people from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth; there you will worship false deities that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors, deities of wood and stone.
Deu 28:65 Among these ethnicities will you find no ease, and there will be no rest for the bottoms of your feet. Instead, Yehowah will give you there a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a soul that mourns.
Deu 28:66 Your life will hang in doubt before you; you will fear every night and day and will have no certainty at all in your life.
Deu 28:67 At dawn you will say, ‘I wish it were dusk!’ and at dusk you will say, ‘I wish it were dawn!’ because of the fear in your hearts, and the things your eyes will have to see.
Deu 28:68 Yehowah will bring you into Egypt again by ships, by the route about which I had said to you, ‘You will not see Egypt again.’ There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will purchase you.”

Deuteronomy Chapter 29

Deu 29:1 These are the words that Yehowah commanded Moses to tell the people of Israel in the land of Moab, words that were added to the covenant that he had made with them at Horeb.
Deu 29:2 Moses called to all Israel, “You have seen everything that Yehowah did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his servants, and to all his land,
Deu 29:3 the great sufferings that your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders.
Deu 29:4 But until today, Yehowah has not given you a heart to know, eyes to see, or ears to hear.
Deu 29:5 I have led you for forty years in the wilderness (c. 1650 – 1611 BC); your clothes did not wear out on you, and your sandals did not wear out on your feet.
Deu 29:6 You did not eat any bread, and you did not drink any wine or beer, so that you might know that I am Yehowah your Divine One.
Deu 29:7 When you came to this place, Sihon, the king of Heshbon, and Og, the king of Bashan, came out against us to fight, and we struck them down.
Deu 29:8 We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.
Deu 29:9 Therefore, keep the words of this covenant and do them, so that you may prosper in everything that you do.
Deu 29:10 You stand today, all of you, before Yehowah your Divine One; your chiefs, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, all the men of Israel,
Deu 29:11 your little ones, your wives, and the sojourning alien who is among you in your camp, from him who cuts your wood to him who draws your water.
Deu 29:12 You are here in order to enter into the covenant of Yehowah your Divine One and into the oath that Yehowah your Divine One is making with you today,
Deu 29:13 so that he may make you today into a people for himself, and that he may be an Almighty for you, as he spoke to you, and as he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.
Deu 29:14 For it is not only with you that I am making this covenant and this oath,
Deu 29:15 with everyone standing here with us today before Yehowah our Divine One, but also with those who are not here with us today.
Deu 29:16 You know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the ethnicities through which you passed.
Deu 29:17 You have seen their disgusting things: Their idols of wood and stone, silver and gold, that were among them.

Deu 29:18 Make sure there is not among you any man, woman, family, or tribe whose heart is turning away today from Yehowah our Divine One, so as to go worship the deities of those ethnicities. Make sure there is not among you any root that produces gall and wormwood.
Deu 29:19 When that person hears the words of this curse, he will bless himself in his heart and say, 'I will have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart.' This would destroy the wet together with the dry.
Deu 29:20 Yehowah will not pardon him, but instead, the anger of Yehowah and his jealousy will smolder against that man, and all the curses that are written in this Book will come on him, and Yehowah will blot out his name from under Heaven.
Deu 29:21 Yehowah will set him apart for disaster out of all the tribes of Israel, in keeping with all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the Law.
Deu 29:22 The generation to come, your children who will rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, will speak when they see the plagues on this land and the diseases with which Yehowah has made it sick,
Deu 29:23 and when they see that the whole land has become sulfur and burning salt, where nothing is sown or bears fruit, where no vegetation grows, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, that Yehowah destroyed in his anger and wrath,
Deu 29:24 they will ask together with all the ethnicities, 'Why has Yehowah done this to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?'
Deu 29:25 Then people will answer, 'It is because they abandoned the covenant of Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, that he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt,
Deu 29:26 and because they went and served false deities, and bowed down to them, deities that they had not known, and that he had not given to them.
Deu 29:27 Therefore, the anger of Yehowah has been kindled against this land, so as to bring on it all the curses that are written in this Book.
Deu 29:28 Yehowah has uprooted them from their land in anger, in wrath, and in great fury, and has thrown them into another land, as today.'
Deu 29:29 The secret matters belong alone to Yehowah our Divine One; but the things that are revealed belong forever to us and to our descendants, so that we may do all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy Chapter 30

Deu 30:1 When all these things have come on you, the blessings and the curses that I have set before you, and when you call them to mind among all the ethnicities where Yehowah your Divine One has driven you,
Deu 30:2 and when you return to Yehowah your Divine One and obey his voice, following all that I am commanding you today, you and your children, with all your heart and with all your soul,
Deu 30:3 then Yehowah your Divine One will reverse your captivity and have compassion on you; he will return and gather you from all the ethnicities where Yehowah your Divine One has scattered you.
Deu 30:4 If any of your exiled people are in the farthest places under the heavens, from there Yehowah your Divine One will gather you, and from there he will bring you.
Deu 30:5 Yehowah your Divine One will bring you into the land that your forefathers possessed, and you will possess it again; he will do you good and will multiply you more than he did your forefathers.
Deu 30:6 Yehowah your Divine One will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, so you will love Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live (Mat. 22:37).
Deu 30:7 Yehowah your Divine One will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, those who persecuted you.
Deu 30:8 You will return and obey the voice of Yehowah, and you will do all his commandments that I am commanding you today.
Deu 30:9 Yehowah your Divine One will make you abundant in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, for prosperity; for Yehowah will again rejoice over you for prosperity, as he rejoiced over your fathers.
Deu 30:10 He will do this if you will obey the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, so as to keep his commandments and regulations that are written in this Book of the Law, if you turn to Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart and all your soul.
Deu 30:11 For this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, neither is it too far for you to reach.
Deu 30:12 It is not in Heaven, so that you should have to ask, 'Who will go up for us to Heaven and bring it down to us and make us able to hear it, so that we may do it?'
Deu 30:13 Neither is it beyond the sea, so that you should have to ask, 'Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us and make us to hear it, so that we may do it?'

Deu 30:14 But the word is quite near to you, in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may do it.
Deu 30:15 See, today I have placed before you life and good, death and evil.
Deu 30:16 If you obey the decrees of Yehowah your Divine One, in which I am commanding you today to love Yehowah your Divine One, to walk in his Ways, and to keep his commandments, his regulations, and his statutes, you will live and multiply, and Yehowah your Divine One will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess.
Deu 30:17 But if your heart turns away, and you do not listen but instead are drawn away and bow down to false deities and worship them,
Deu 30:18 then I announce to you today that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land that you are passing over the Jordan River to go into and possess.
Deu 30:19 I call Heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses; therefore, choose life, so that you may live, you and your descendants.
Deu 30:20 Do this, so as to love Yehowah your Divine One, to obey his voice, and to cling to him. For he is your life and the length of your days; do this, so that you may live in the land that Yehowah swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.”

Deuteronomy Chapter 31

Deu 31:1 Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel,
Deu 31:2 “I am one hundred twenty years old today (c. 1611 BC); I can no more go out and come in; Yehowah has said to me, ‘You will not go over this Jordan River.’
Deu 31:3 Yehowah your Divine One, he will go over before you; he will destroy these ethnicities from before you, and you will dispossess them. Joshua, he will go over before you, as Yehowah has spoken.
Deu 31:4 Yehowah will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, which he destroyed.
Deu 31:5 Yehowah will give you victory over them when you meet them in battle, and you will do to them all that I commanded you.
Deu 31:6 Be strong and of good courage, fear not, and do not be afraid of them; for Yehowah your Divine One, he it is who goes with you; he will not fail you nor forsake you” (Heb. 13:5).
Deu 31:7 Moses called to Joshua and commanded him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong and of good courage, for you will go with this people into the land that Yehowah has sworn to their ancestors to give them; you will cause them to inherit it.
Deu 31:8 Yehowah, he it is who goes before you; he will be with you; he will not fail you nor abandon you; do not be afraid, do not be discouraged.”
Deu 31:9 Moses wrote this law and gave it out to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah; he also gave copies of it to all the elders of Israel (Deut. 17:18; 27:1-8; Josh. 8:32; Hos. 8:12).
Deu 31:10 Moses commanded them, “At the beginning of every seventh year, at the time appointed for the cancellation of debts, during the Feast of Tabernacles (Exo. 21:2; Deut. 15:9, 12, 18; Neh. 10:31),
Deu 31:11 when all Israel has come to appear before Yehowah your Divine One in the place that he will choose for his sanctuary, you will read this law before all Israel in their hearing.
Deu 31:12 Assemble the people, the men, the women, and the little ones, and your sojourning alien who is within your city gates, so that they may hear and learn, and so that they may honor Yehowah your Divine One and keep all the words of this law.
Deu 31:13 Do this, so that their children, who have not known, may hear and learn to honor Yehowah your Divine One, as long as you live in the land that you are going over the Jordan River to possess.”
Deu 31:14 Yehowah said to Moses, “Look, the day is coming when you must die; call Joshua and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, so that I may give him a command." Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting.

Deu 31:15 Yehowah appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud; the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the tent.
Deu 31:16 Yehowah declared to Moses, "Look, you will sleep with your fathers; this people will rise up and act like a prostitute going after the foreign deities that are among them in the land where they are going. They will forsake me and break my covenant that I have made with them.
Deu 31:17 Then on that day, my anger will be kindled against them, and I will abandon them. I will hide my face from them, and they will be devoured. Many disasters and troubles will find them, so that they will say on that day, 'Have these disasters not come upon us because our Divine One is not in our midst?'
Deu 31:18 I will surely hide my face from them on that day, because of all the evil that they will have done, because they had turned to false deities.
Deu 31:19 Now therefore, write this song for yourselves and teach it to the people of Israel. Put it in their mouths, so that this song may be a witness for me inside the people of Israel.
Deu 31:20 For when I will have brought them into the land that I swore to give to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey, and when they have eaten and become satisfied and fat, then they will turn to false deities, and they will serve them, they will despise me, and they will break my covenant.
Deu 31:21 When many evils and troubles come upon this people, this song will testify before them as a witness, for it will not be forgotten from the mouths of their descendants. For I know the plans that they are forming today, even before I have brought them into the land that I promised them."
Deu 31:22 So Moses wrote this song the same day and taught it to the people of Israel.
Deu 31:23 Yehowah gave Joshua son of Nun a command, "Be strong and of good courage; for you will bring the people of Israel into the land that I swore to them, and I will be with you."
Deu 31:24 It happened that when Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a Book,
Deu 31:25 that he commanded the Levites who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah,
Deu 31:26 "Take this Book of the Law and put it by the side of the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah your Divine One, so that it may be there as a witness against you.
Deu 31:27 For I know your rebellion and your stiff neck; look, while I am still alive with you even today, you have been rebellious against Yehowah; how much more after my death?

Deu 31:28 Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, so that I may speak these words in their ears and call Heaven and earth to witness against them.
Deu 31:29 For I know that after my death, you will utterly corrupt yourselves and turn aside out of the Way that I have commanded you; disaster will come on you in the last days. This will happen, because you will do what is evil in the sight of Yehowah, so as to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands."
Deu 31:30 Moses recited in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were finished.

Deuteronomy Chapter 32

Deu 32:1 Give ear, you heavens, and let me speak. Let the earth listen to the words of my mouth.
Deu 32:2 Let my teaching drop down like the rain, let my speech flow forth like the dew, like the gentle rain on the tender grass and like the showers on the plants.
Deu 32:3 For I will proclaim the name of Yehowah, and ascribe greatness to our Divine One.
Deu 32:4 The Rock, his work is perfect; for all his Paths are just. He is the faithful Almighty, without iniquity. He is just and upright.
Deu 32:5 They have acted corruptly against him. They are not his children. It is their disgrace. They are a perverted and crooked generation.
Deu 32:6 Do you reward Yehowah in this way, you foolish and senseless people? Is he not your Father, the One who has created you? He made you and established you.
Deu 32:7 Call to mind the days of ancient times, think about the years of many ages past. Ask your father, and he will show you, your elders, and they will tell you:
Deu 32:8 When the Most High gave the ethnicities their inheritance, when he divided all of mankind, he set the boundaries of the people according to the number of the children of Yehowah.
Deu 32:9 For the portion of Yehowah is his people; Jacob is his apportioned inheritance.
Deu 32:10 He found him in a desert land, and in the barren and howling wilderness; he shielded him and cared for him, he guarded him as the apple of his eye.
Deu 32:11 As an eagle that guards her nest and flutters over her young, Yehowah spread out his wings and took them, and carried them on his pinions.
Deu 32:12 Yehowah alone led him; no foreign deity was with him.
Deu 32:13 He made him ride on high places of the land, and he fed him the increase of the field; he nourished him with honey from the rock and oil from the flinty crag.
Deu 32:14 He ate butter from the herd and drank milk from the flock, with fat of lambs, rams of Bashan and goats, with the finest of the wheat, and you drank foaming wine made from the juice of grapes.
Deu 32:15 But Yeshurun grew fat and kicked, you grew fat, you were too fat, and you had eaten your fill, he abandoned the Almighty who made him, and he rejected the Rock of his salvation.

Deu 32:16 They made Yehowah jealous by their foreign deities; with their abominations they angered him.
Deu 32:17 They sacrificed to demons, which are not Divine, deities they had not known, deities that recently appeared, deities your fathers did not fear.
Deu 32:18 You have deserted the Rock, who became your Father, and you forgot the Almighty who gave you birth.
Deu 32:19 Yehowah saw this, and he rejected them, because his sons and his daughters provoked him so.
Deu 32:20 “I will hide my face from them,” he said, “and I will see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children who are unfaithful.
Deu 32:21 They have made me jealous by what is not the Almighty and angered me by their worthless things. I will make them envious by those who are not a people; by a foolish ethnicity I will make them angry.
Deu 32:22 For a fire is kindled by my anger and is burning to the lowest place of the dead; it is devouring the earth and its harvest; it is setting on fire the foundations of the mountains.
Deu 32:23 I will heap disasters on them; I will shoot all my arrows at them.
Deu 32:24 They will be wasted by hunger and devoured by burning heat and bitter destruction; I will send on them the teeth of wild animals, with the poison of things that crawl in the dust.
Deu 32:25 Outside, the sword will bereave, and in the bedrooms terror will do so. It will destroy both young man and virgin, the nursing baby, and the man of gray hairs.
Deu 32:26 I said that I would scatter them far away, that I would make the memory of them to cease from among mankind.
Deu 32:27 Were it not that I feared the provocation of the enemy, and that their enemies would judge mistakenly, and that they would say, ‘Our hand is exalted,’ Yehowah would not have done all this.
Deu 32:28 For Israel is a nation devoid of wisdom, and there is no understanding in them.
Deu 32:29 Oh, that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their coming fate!
Deu 32:30 How could one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and Yehowah had given them up?
Deu 32:31 For our enemies’ rock is not like our Rock, just as even our enemies admit.
Deu 32:32 For their vine comes from the vine of Sodom, and from the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of poison; their clusters are bitter.
Deu 32:33 Their wine is the poison of serpents and the cruel venom of asps.
Deu 32:34 Is not this plan secretly kept by me, sealed up among my treasures?

Deu 32:35 Vengeance is mine to give, and recompense, at the time when their foot slips; for the day of disaster for them is near, and the things that are to come on them will hurry to happen."
Deu 32:36 For Yehowah will give justice to his people, and he will pity his servants. He will see that their power is gone, and no one remains, either slaves or free people.
Deu 32:37 Then he will say, "Where are their deities, the rock in whom they took refuge?
Deu 32:38 The deities who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up and help you; let them be your protection.
Deu 32:39 See now that I, even I, am He, and that there is no deity besides me; I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal, and there is no one who can save you from my might.
Deu 32:40 For I lift up my hand to Heaven and declare, 'As I live forever, I will act.
Deu 32:41 When I sharpen my glittering sword, and when my hand begins to bring justice, I will render vengeance on my enemies, and I will pay back those who hate me.
Deu 32:42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will devour flesh with the blood of the killed and the captives, and from the heads of the leaders of the enemy.'"
Deu 32:43 Rejoice, O Heaven, with him, and let all the angels of Yehowah worship him (LXX; Heb. 1:6); rejoice, you ethnicities, with his people, and let all the children of Yehowah strengthen themselves in him, for he will avenge the blood of his servants; he will render vengeance on his enemies, and he will make atonement for his land, for his people.
Deu 32:44 Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua son of Nun.
Deu 32:45 Then Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel.
Deu 32:46 He ordered them, "Fix your mind on all the words that I have witnessed to you today, so that you may command your children to keep them, all the words of this law.
Deu 32:47 For this is no trivial matter for you, because it is your life, and through this thing you will prolong your days in the land that you are going over the Jordan River to possess."
Deu 32:48 Yehowah spoke to Moses on that same day,
Deu 32:49 "Go up into this range of the mountains of Abarim, up Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, opposite Jericho. You will look at the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the people of Israel as their possession (Num. 27:12).

Deu 32:50 You will die on the mountain that you go up, and you will be gathered to your people, as Aaron your fellow Israeli died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.
Deu 32:51 This will happen, because you were unfaithful to me among the people of Israel at the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, in the wilderness of Sin; because you did not treat me with honor and respect among the people of Israel.
Deu 32:52 For you will see the land before you, but you will not go there, into the land that I am giving to the people of Israel."

Deuteronomy Chapter 33

Deu 33:1 This is the blessing with which Moses the man of the Almighty blessed the people of Israel before his death.
Deu 33:2 He spoke: Yehowah will come from Sinai and rise from Seir upon them. He will shine out from Mount Paran, and he will come with ten thousands of set-apart ones. In his right hand is a fiery decree for them.
Deu 33:3 Indeed, he loves the people; all his set-apart ones are in your hand, and they bowed down at your feet; they received your words.
Deu 33:4 Moses commanded us a law, an inheritance for the congregation of Jacob.
Deu 33:5 Then there was a king in Yeshurun, when the heads of the people had gathered all the tribes of Israel together.
Deu 33:6 Let Reuben live and not die, but may his men be few.
Deu 33:7 This is the blessing for Judah. Moses said: Listen, Yehowah, to the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people again. Fight for him; be a help against his enemies.
Deu 33:8 About Levi, Moses said: Your Thummim and your Urim belong to your loyal one, the one whom you tested at Massah, with whom you struggled at the waters of Meribah.
Deu 33:9 The man who said about his father and mother, “I have not seen them.” Neither did he acknowledge his brothers, nor did he take account of his own children. For he guarded your word and kept your covenant.
Deu 33:10 He teaches Jacob your decrees and Israel your law. He will put incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.
Deu 33:11 Bless, Yehowah, his possessions, and accept the work of his hands. Shatter the loins of those who rise up against him, and those of the people who hate him, so that they do not rise up again.
Deu 33:12 About Benjamin, Moses said: The one loved by Yehowah lives in security beside him; Yehowah shields him all the day long, and he lives between the arms of Yehowah.
Deu 33:13 About Joseph, Moses said: May his land be blessed by Yehowah with the precious things of the heavens, with the dew, and with the deep that lies beneath.
Deu 33:14 May his land be blessed with the precious things of the harvest of the sun, with the precious things of the produce of the months,
Deu 33:15 with the finest things of the ancient mountains, and with the precious things of the everlasting hills.
Deu 33:16 May his land be blessed with the precious things of the earth and its abundance, and with the good will of him who was in the bush. Let the blessing come on the head of Joseph, and on the top of the head of him who was prince over his brothers.

Deu 33:17 The firstborn of an ox, majestic is he, and his horns are the horns of a wild ox. With them he will push the people, all of them, to the ends of the earth. These are the ten thousands of Ephraim; these are the thousands of Manasseh.
Deu 33:18 About Zebulun, Moses said: Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and you, Issachar, in your tents.
Deu 33:19 They will call the people to the mountains. There will they offer sacrifices of righteousness. For they will suck the abundance of the seas and from the sand on the seashore.
Deu 33:20 About Gad, Moses said: Blessed be he who enlarges Gad. He will live there like a lioness, and he will tear off an arm or a head.
Deu 33:21 He provided the best part for himself, for there was the leader's portion of land reserved. He came with the heads of the people. He carried out the justice of Yehowah and his decrees with Israel.
Deu 33:22 About Dan, Moses said: Dan is a lion cub that leaps out from Bashan.
Deu 33:23 About Naphtali, Moses said: Naphtali, satisfied with grace, and full of the blessing of Yehowah, take possession of the land to the west and south.
Deu 33:24 About Asher, Moses said: Blessed be Asher more than the other sons; let him be acceptable to his brothers, and let him dip his foot in olive oil.
Deu 33:25 May your city bars be iron and bronze; as long as will be your days, so long will your security be.
Deu 33:26 There is no one like the Mighty One of Yeshurun, the upright One, who rides through the heavens to your help, and in his majesty on the clouds.
Deu 33:27 The eternal Almighty is a refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. He thrust out the enemy from before you, and he shouted, "Destroy!"
Deu 33:28 Israel dwelt in safety. Jacob's spring was secure in a land of grain and new wine; indeed, let his heavens drop dew on him.
Deu 33:29 Your blessings are many, Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by Yehowah, the Shield of your help, and the Sword of your majesty? Your enemies will come trembling to you; you will trample down their high places.

Deuteronomy Chapter 34

Deu 34:1 Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. There Yehowah showed him all the land of Gilead as far as Dan,
Deu 34:2 and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the Mediterranean Sea,
Deu 34:3 and the Negev, and the disk-shaped Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar.
Deu 34:4 Yehowah said to him, "This is the land that I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have allowed you to look at it with your eyes, but you will not go over there."
Deu 34:5 So Moses the servant of Yehowah, died there in the land of Moab, as the Word of Yehowah promised.
Deu 34:6 Yehowah buried him in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth Peor, but no one knows where his grave is to this day.
Deu 34:7 Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died (c. 1611 BC); his eye was not dim, nor his vitality abated (Col. 1:29).
Deu 34:8 The people of Israel mourned for Moses in the plains of Moab for thirty days, and then the days of mourning for Moses were finished.
Deu 34:9 Joshua son of Nun was full of the Ruach of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. The people of Israel listened to him and did what Yehowah had commanded Moses.
Deu 34:10 There has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom Yehowah knew face to face.
Deu 34:11 There has never been any prophet like him in all the signs and wonders that Yehowah sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land.
Deu 34:12 There has never been any prophet like him in all the great, fearsome deeds that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

Book of Joshua

Joshua Chapter 1

Jos 1:1 Now it came about after the death of Moses the servant of Yehowah, that Yehowah spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' chief assistant,
Jos 1:2 "Moses, my servant, is dead. Now therefore, arise, cross over this Jordan River, you and all this people, into the land that I am giving to them, to the people of Israel.
Jos 1:3 I have given you every place where the sole of your foot will walk (Deut. 11:23-24). I have given it to you, just as I promised to Moses.
Jos 1:4 From the wilderness and Lebanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates, all the land of the (Old Empire) Hittites, and to the Mediterranean Sea, where the sun goes down, will be your land.
Jos 1:5 No one will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. I will be with you as I was with Moses. I will not abandon you or leave you.
Jos 1:6 Be strong and courageous. You will cause this people to inherit the land that I promised their ancestors I would give to them.
Jos 1:7 Be strong and extremely courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may be successful wherever you go.
Jos 1:8 You will always proclaim this Book of the Law. You will meditate on it day and night, so that you can obey all that is written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.
Jos 1:9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid. Do not be discouraged. Yehowah your Divine One is with you wherever you go."
Jos 1:10 Then Joshua commanded the leaders of the people,
Jos 1:11 "Go through the camp and command the people, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves. In three days you will cross over this Jordan River and go in and possess the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you to possess.'"
Jos 1:12 To the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,
Jos 1:13 "Call to mind the word that Moses the servant of Yehowah, commanded you when he said, 'Yehowah your Divine One is giving you rest, and he is giving you this land.'

Jos 1:14 Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock will stay in the land that Moses gave you beyond the Jordan River. But your fighting men will go over with your brothers and help them,
Jos 1:15 until Yehowah has given your brothers rest just as he has given it to you. Then they also will take possession of the land Yehowah your Divine One gives them. Then you will return to your own land and possess it, the land that Moses the servant of Yehowah gave you beyond the Jordan River, where the sun rises."
Jos 1:16 Then they answered Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.
Jos 1:17 We will obey you just as we obeyed Moses. Only may Yehowah your Divine One be with you, as he was with Moses.
Jos 1:18 Whoever rebels against your commands and disobeys your words will be executed. Only be strong and courageous."

Joshua Chapter 2

Jos 2:1 Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two men out from Shittim as spies. He ordered, “Go, look over the land, especially Jericho.” They went away and came to the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and they lodged there.
Jos 2:2 It was told to the king of Jericho, “Look, men of Israel have come here to spy on the land.”
Jos 2:3 The king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who entered your house, for they have come to spy on the whole land.”
Jos 2:4 But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She replied, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.
Jos 2:5 They left when it was dusk, when it was time for the city gate to shut. I do not know where they went. You will probably catch them, if you hurry after them.”
Jos 2:6 But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax that she had laid out on the roof.
Jos 2:7 So the men pursued them on the road that leads to the fords of the Jordan River. The gate was shut as soon as the pursuers went out.
Jos 2:8 The men had not yet lain down for the night, when she came up to them on the roof.
Jos 2:9 She said, “I know that Yehowah has given you the land, and that the fear of you has come upon us. All those who live in the land will melt away before you.
Jos 2:10 We have heard how Yehowah dried up the water of the SEA for you when you came out of Egypt. We also heard what you did to the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Jordan River, Sihon and Og, whom you completely destroyed.
Jos 2:11 As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no courage left in anyone, for Yehowah your Divine One, he is the Almighty in Heaven above and on the earth below.
Jos 2:12 Now then, please swear to me by Yehowah, that just as I have been kind to you, you will also deal kindly with my father’s household. Give me a sure sign
Jos 2:13 that you will spare the lives of my father, mother, brothers, sisters, and all their families, and that you will save us from death.”
Jos 2:14 The men said to her, “Our life for yours, even to death! If you do not speak about our business, then when Yehowah gives us this land, we will be merciful and faithful to you.”

Jos 2:15 So she let them down out through the window using a rope. The house in which she lived was built up against the vertical surface of the city's fortification wall.
Jos 2:16 She said to them, "Go in the hills and hide or the pursuers will find you. Hide there for three days, until the pursuers have returned. Then go on your way."
Jos 2:17 The men replied to her, "We will not be bound to the promises of the oath you made us swear to, if you do not do this:
Jos 2:18 When we come into the land, you must tie this scarlet rope in the window through which you let us down, and you will gather into the house your father and mother, your brothers and all your father's household.
Jos 2:19 Whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, their blood will be upon their own heads, and we will be guiltless. But if a hand is laid upon any who is with you in the house, his blood will be on our head.
Jos 2:20 But if you speak about our business, we will be free from the oath you made us swear."
Jos 2:21 Rahab replied, "May what you say be done." She sent them away and they left. Then she tied the scarlet rope in the window.
Jos 2:22 They left and went up into the hills, and they stayed there three days, until their pursuers returned. The pursuers searched all along the road and found nothing.
Jos 2:23 The two men returned and came down from the hills and crossed over and came back to Joshua son of Nun, and they told him everything that had happened to them.
Jos 2:24 They reported to Joshua, "Truly, Yehowah has given this land to us. All the inhabitants of the land are melting away because of us."

Joshua Chapter 3

Jos 3:1 Joshua rose up at daybreak, and they set out from Shittim. They came to the Jordan River, he and all the people of Israel, and they camped there before they crossed over.
Jos 3:2 After three days, the officers went through the middle of the camp;
Jos 3:3 they commanded the people, “When you see the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah your Divine One, and the priests from the Levites carrying it, you must leave this place and follow it.
Jos 3:4 There must be a distance between you and it of about nine hundred meters. Do not come close to it, so that you can see which way to go, since you have not gone this way before.”
Jos 3:5 Joshua said to the people, “Consecrate yourselves tomorrow, for Yehowah will do wonders among you.”
Jos 3:6 Then Joshua ordered the priests, “Take up the Ark of the Covenant and pass in front of the people.” So they picked up the Ark of the Covenant and went in front of the people.
Jos 3:7 Yehowah said to Joshua, “This day I will make you a great man in the eyes of all Israel. They will know that as I was with Moses, I will be with you.
Jos 3:8 You will command the priests who carry the Ark of the Covenant, ‘When you have come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan River, you must stand still in the Jordan.’”
Jos 3:9 Then Joshua ordered the people of Israel, “Come here, and listen to the words of Yehowah your Divine One.
Jos 3:10 By this you will know that the living Almighty is among you and will drive out from before you the Canaanites, the Hethites, the Hivites, the Perizzites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, and the Jebusites.
Jos 3:11 Look! The Ark of the Covenant of the Lord of all the earth crosses over ahead of you into the Jordan River.
Jos 3:12 Now choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each.
Jos 3:13 When the soles of the feet of the priests that carry the Ark of Yehowah, the Lord of all the earth, touch the waters of the Jordan River, the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, and even the waters that flow down from upstream will stop flowing, and they will stand in one heap.”
Jos 3:14 So when the people set out to cross over the Jordan River, the priests that carried the Ark of the Covenant went ahead of the people.
Jos 3:15 As soon as those who were carrying the ark had come to the Jordan River, and the feet of those who carried the chest were dipped in the edge of the water, now the Jordan River overflows all its banks throughout the time of the harvest,

Jos 3:16 the waters that flowed down from upstream stood up in one heap. The water stopped flowing from a great distance. The waters stopped flowing from Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan, all the way down to the sea of the Negev, the Dead Sea. The people crossed over near Jericho.
Jos 3:17 The priests that carried the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah stood on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan River, until all the people of Israel crossed over on dry ground.

Joshua Chapter 4

Jos 4:1 When all the people crossed over the Jordan River, Yehowah said to Joshua,
Jos 4:2 “Choose twelve men for yourselves from among the people, one man from each tribe.
Jos 4:3 Give them this command: ‘Take up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan River where the priests are standing on the dry ground, and bring them over with you and lay them down in the place where you will spend the night tonight.’”
Jos 4:4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had chosen from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe.
Jos 4:5 Joshua ordered them, “Go over before the Ark of Yehowah your Divine One into the middle of the Jordan River. Each of you is to take up a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel.
Jos 4:6 This will be a sign in your midst for you when your children ask in days to come, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’
Jos 4:7 Then you will answer them, ‘The waters of the Jordan River were cut off before the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones will be a memorial to the people of Israel forever.’”
Jos 4:8 The people of Israel did just as Joshua commanded, and they picked up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan River, as Yehowah commanded Joshua. They set the stones up according to the number of the tribes of the people of Israel. They carried the stones with them, over to the place where they camped, and they set them down there.
Jos 4:9 Then Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan River, in the place where the feet of the priests that carried the Ark of the Covenant stood. The memorial is there to this day.
Jos 4:10 The priests that carried the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan River, until everything that Yehowah commanded Joshua to tell the people was completed, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people hurried, and they crossed over.
Jos 4:11 When all the people had finished crossing over, the Ark of Yehowah and the priests crossed over before the people.
Jos 4:12 The tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh passed before the people of Israel formed up as a military force, just as Moses commanded them.
Jos 4:13 About forty thousand men equipped for war passed before Yehowah, for battle on the plains of Jericho.

Jos 4:14 On that day, Yehowah made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel. They honored him, just as they honored Moses all his days.
Jos 4:15 Then Yehowah spoke to Joshua,
Jos 4:16 “Command the priests who carry the Ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan River.”
Jos 4:17 So Joshua ordered the priests, “Come up out of the Jordan River.”
Jos 4:18 When the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah came up out of the middle of the Jordan River, and the soles of their feet were lifted up out on dry ground, then the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed its banks, just as they were for days before.
Jos 4:19 The people came up out of the Jordan River on the tenth of the first month (c. 1610 BC). They stayed in Gilgal, east of Jericho.
Jos 4:20 The twelve stones that they took out of the Jordan River, Joshua set up in Gilgal.
Jos 4:21 He said to the people of Israel, “When your descendants ask their fathers in times to come, ‘What are these stones?’
Jos 4:22 Tell your children, ‘This is where Israel crossed over the Jordan River on dry ground.’
Jos 4:23 Yehowah your Divine One dried up the waters of the Jordan River for you, until you had crossed over, just as Yehowah your Divine One did to the SEA, which he dried up for us, until we passed over,
Jos 4:24 so that all the people of the earth may know that the hand of Yehowah is mighty, and that you will honor Yehowah your Divine One forever.”

Joshua Chapter 5

Jos 5:1 As soon as all the kings of the Amorites on the west side of the Jordan River, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were along the Mediterranean seacoast, heard that Yehowah had dried up the waters of the Jordan River, until the people of Israel had crossed over, their hearts melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them because of the people of Israel.
Jos 5:2 At that time, Yehowah commanded Joshua, “Make flint knives and once more circumcise all the males of Israel.”
Jos 5:3 Then Joshua made himself flint knives, and he circumcised all the males of Israel at Gibeath Haaraloth.
Jos 5:4 This is the reason Joshua circumcised them: All the males who had come out of Egypt, including all the warriors, had died in the wilderness along the way, after they came out from Egypt.
Jos 5:5 Though all the males who came out of Egypt were circumcised, still, none of the boys born in the wilderness on the way out of Egypt had been circumcised.
Jos 5:6 For the people of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the people, that is, all the warriors who had come out of Egypt, died, because they did not obey the voice of Yehowah. Yehowah swore to them that he would not let them see the land that Yehowah had sworn to their ancestors that he would give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey.
Jos 5:7 It was their children that Yehowah raised up in their place that Joshua circumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.
Jos 5:8 When they were all circumcised, they remained where they were in the camp, until they healed.
Jos 5:9 Then Yehowah said to Joshua, “This day I have rolled away the disgrace of Egypt from you.” So the name of that place has been called Gilgal until this present day.
Jos 5:10 The people of Israel camped at Gilgal. They kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month, at dusk, on the plains of Jericho.
Jos 5:11 They ate some of the stored grain of the land on the day after the Passover: unleavened bread, and roasted grain on the same day (Abib 15).
Jos 5:12 The manna stopped on the day after they ate the stored grain of the land. There was no longer manna for the people of Israel, but they ate the produce of the land of Canaan that year (c. 1610 BC).
Jos 5:13 When Joshua was near Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man was standing in front of him; he had drawn his sword, and it was in his hand. Joshua went to him and asked, “Are you for us or for our enemies?”

Jos 5:14 He answered, “Neither. For I am the commander of the armed forces of Yehowah. Now I have come.” Then Joshua lay facedown on the ground to worship and asked him, “What does my master say to his servant?”
Jos 5:15 The commander of the military force of Yehowah ordered Joshua, “Take off your sandals from your feet, because the place where you are standing is set apart.” That is what Joshua did.

Joshua Chapter 6

Jos 6:1 Now all the entrances to Jericho were closed because of the military force of Israel. No one went out, and no one came in.
Jos 6:2 Yehowah said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho into your hand, its king, and its trained soldiers.
Jos 6:3 You must march around the city, all the warriors going around the city one time. You must do this for six days.
Jos 6:4 Seven priests must carry seven signaling trumpets before the ark. On the seventh day, you must march around the city seven times, and the priests must sound blasts on the trumpets.
Jos 6:5 Then they must sound a long blast with the trumpet, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people must shout with a great shout, and the wall of the city will collapse downslope. The soldiers must attack, each man going up straight ahead.”
Jos 6:6 Then Joshua son of Nun called the priests and commanded them, “Take up the Ark of the Covenant, and let seven priests carry seven signaling trumpets in front of the Ark of Yehowah.”
Jos 6:7 He ordered the people, “Go over and march around the city, and the armed men will go ahead of the Ark of Yehowah.”
Jos 6:8 Just as Joshua had said to the people, the seven priests carried the seven signaling trumpets before Yehowah. As they advanced, they gave a blast on the trumpets. The Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah followed after them.
Jos 6:9 Armed men walked before the priests, and they made a blast on their trumpets, but then the rearguard walked up behind the ark, and the priests blew their trumpets continually.
Jos 6:10 But Joshua commanded the people, “Do not shout. No sound must leave your mouths, until the day I tell you to shout. Only then you must shout.”
Jos 6:11 So he caused the Ark of Yehowah to go around the city one time that day. Then they entered their camp, and they stayed the night in the camp.
Jos 6:12 Then Joshua rose up at dawn, and the priests picked up the Ark of Yehowah.
Jos 6:13 The seven priests, who were carrying the seven signaling trumpets in front of the Ark of Yehowah, walked steadily and gave blasts on the trumpets. Armed soldiers were walking in front of them. But when the rearguard walked after the Ark of Yehowah, then the trumpets gave out continual blasts.
Jos 6:14 They marched around the city one time the second day and returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

Jos 6:15 It was on the seventh day that they rose up early at daybreak, and they marched around the city in the same way that was their pattern, this time for seven laps. It was on this day that they marched around the city seven laps.
Jos 6:16 It was on the seventh lap, when the priests gave a blast with the trumpets, that Joshua commanded the people, “Shout! For Yehowah has given you the city!
Jos 6:17 The city and all that is in it will be set apart to Yehowah for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute will live, she and all the ones with her in her house, because she hid the men we sent.
Jos 6:18 But as for you, be on guard about taking the things set apart for destruction, so that after you mark them for destruction, you do not then take any of them. If you do this, you will make the camp of Israel something that must be destroyed, and you will bring trouble on it.
Jos 6:19 All the silver, gold, and the things made of bronze and iron are set apart to Yehowah. They must go into the treasury of Yehowah.”
Jos 6:20 When they gave blasts with the trumpets, the people gave a great shout, and the wall collapsed downslope, so every man ascended up, straight in and captured the city (Jos. 6:5; Heb. 11:30).
Jos 6:21 They completely destroyed all that was in the city by the edge of the sword, man and woman, young and old, oxen, sheep, and donkeys.
Jos 6:22 Then Joshua ordered the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the prostitute’s house. Bring out the woman and all who are with her, as you swore to her.”
Jos 6:23 So the young men who had been spies went in and brought Rahab out. They brought out her father, mother, brothers, and all the relatives that were with her. They brought them to a place outside the camp of Israel.
Jos 6:24 They burned the city and everything in it (c. 1610 BC). Only the silver, gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron were put into the treasury of the tabernacle of Yehowah.
Jos 6:25 But Joshua allowed Rahab the prostitute, her father’s household, and all that were with her to live. She lives in Israel to this day, because she hid the men whom Joshua sent to spy on Jericho.
Jos 6:26 Then Joshua commanded them at that time with an oath, “Cursed is the man in the sight of Yehowah who rebuilds this city, Jericho. At the cost of his firstborn son, he will lay the foundation, and at the cost of his youngest son, he will set up its gates.”
Jos 6:27 So Yehowah was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

Joshua Chapter 7

Jos 7:1 But the people of Israel acted unfaithfully regarding the things that were set apart for destruction. Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, took some things that were set apart for destruction, and the anger of Yehowah burned against the people of Israel.
Jos 7:2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai (modern Khirbet el-Maqatir), which was near Beth Aven, east of Bethel (Beitin). He commanded them, "Go up and spy out the land." So the men went up and spied out Ai.
Jos 7:3 When they returned to Joshua, they reported to him, "Do not send all the people up to Ai. Send only two or three thousand men to go up and attack Ai. Do not make all the people labor in battle, for they are few in number."
Jos 7:4 So only about three thousand men went up from the military force, but these ran away from the men of Ai.
Jos 7:5 The men of Ai killed about thirty-six men as they pursued them from the city gate as far as to the stone quarries, and they killed them as they were going down a hill. The hearts of the people were afraid, and their courage left them.
Jos 7:6 Then Joshua tore his garments. He and the elders of Israel put dust on their heads and lay facedown on the ground in front of the Ark of Yehowah, remaining there until dusk.
Jos 7:7 Then Joshua asked, "Ah, Lord Yehowah, why have you brought this people across the Jordan River at all? To give us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? If only we made a different decision, and we had stayed on the other side of the Jordan River!
Jos 7:8 O Lord, what can I say, after Israel has turned their backs before their enemies?
Jos 7:9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it. They will surround us and make the people of the earth forget our name. What will you do for your great name?"
Jos 7:10 Yehowah ordered Joshua, "Get up! Why are you lying there on your face?
Jos 7:11 Israel has sinned. They have broken my covenant which I commanded them. They have stolen some of the things that were set apart. They have stolen, and then also hidden their sin by putting what they have taken among their own belongings.
Jos 7:12 As a result, the people of Israel cannot stand before their enemies. They turned their backs from their enemies, because they themselves have been set apart for destruction. I will not be with you any more, unless you destroy the things that should have been destroyed but are still among you.

Jos 7:13 Get up! Consecrate the people to me and order them, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow. For Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel declares, “There are things set apart to be destroyed that are still among you, Israel. You cannot stand against your enemies, until you remove from among you all the things that were set apart to be destroyed.”
Jos 7:14 At dawn, you must present yourselves by your tribes. The tribe that Yehowah selects will come near by their clans. The clan that Yehowah selects must come near by each household. The household that Yehowah selects must come near one by one.
Jos 7:15 It will happen that the one who is selected and who has those things that were set apart for destruction, he will be executed by burning, he and all he has, because he has broken the covenant of Yehowah, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.’”
Jos 7:16 So Joshua rose up at dawn and brought Israel near, tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was selected.
Jos 7:17 Joshua brought the clans of Judah near, and the clan of the Zerahites was selected. He brought near the clan of the Zerahites person by person, and Zabdi was selected.
Jos 7:18 He brought Zabdi’s household near, person by person, and Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was selected.
Jos 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, tell the truth before Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, and give your confession to him. Please tell me what you have done. Do not hide it from me.”
Jos 7:20 Achan answered Joshua, “Truly, I have sinned against Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel. This is what I did:
Jos 7:21 When I saw among the plunder a beautiful coat from Babylon, 200-weight silver-currency, and a bar of gold weighing six hundred grams, I desired them and took them. They are hidden in the ground in the middle of my tent, and the silver is under it.”
Jos 7:22 Joshua sent messengers, who ran to the tent, and there were the things. When they looked, they found them hidden in his own tent, and the silver under them.
Jos 7:23 They took the items from the middle of the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the people of Israel. They poured them out before Yehowah.
Jos 7:24 Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan son of Zerah, and the silver, the coat, the bar of gold, his sons and daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had, and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.
Jos 7:25 Then Joshua said, “Why have you troubled us? Yehowah will trouble you today.” All Israel executed him by stoning. Then they executed the rest by stoning and burned them with fire.

Jos 7:26 They set up over him a great heap of stones that is there until this day. Yehowah turned away his burning anger. Therefore, the name of the place is the Valley of Achor until this present day.

Joshua Chapter 8

Jos 8:1 Yehowah commanded Joshua, “Do not fear; do not be discouraged. Take with you all the people of war. Go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land.
Jos 8:2 You will do to Ai and her king as you have done to Jericho and her king, except that you will take the plunder and the livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.”
Jos 8:3 So Joshua rose up and took all the warriors up to Ai. Then Joshua chose thirty thousand men, strong, courageous men, and he sent them out at night.
Jos 8:4 He commanded them, “Look, you will lie in ambush against the city, behind it. Do not go too far from the city, but all of you be ready.
Jos 8:5 I and all the men with me will approach the city, and when they come out to attack us, we will run away from them just as before.
Jos 8:6 They will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city. They will say, ‘They are running away from us as they did the last time.’ So we will run away from them.
Jos 8:7 Then you come up out of your place of hiding, and you will capture the city. Yehowah your Divine One will give it into your hand.
Jos 8:8 When you capture the city, you will set it on fire. You will do this when you obey the command given by the Word of Yehowah. See, I have commanded you.”
Jos 8:9 Joshua sent them out, and they went to the place of ambush, and they hid between Bethel and Ai to the west of Ai. But Joshua slept that night among the people.
Jos 8:10 Joshua rose up at dawn and mustered his soldiers, Joshua and the elders of Israel, and they attacked the people of Ai.
Jos 8:11 All the fighting men who were with him went up and approached the city. They came near the city and camped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between them and Ai.
Jos 8:12 He took about five thousand men and set them in ambush on the west side of the city between Bethel and Ai.
Jos 8:13 They positioned all the soldiers, the main military force on the north side of the city, and the rearguard on the west side of the city. Joshua spent that night in the valley.
Jos 8:14 It came about when the king of Ai saw it, he and his military force rose up early and rushed out to attack Israel at an appointed time, at the place facing toward the Jordan River Valley. He did not know that an ambush was waiting to attack from behind the city.

Jos 8:15 Joshua and all Israel let themselves be defeated before them, and they fled toward the wilderness.
Jos 8:16 All the people who were in the city were called together to go after them, and they went after Joshua, and they were drawn away from the city.
Jos 8:17 There was not a man left in Ai and Bethel who had not gone out to pursue Israel. They abandoned the city and left it open as they pursued Israel.
Jos 8:18 Yehowah ordered Joshua, “Point that spear in your hand toward Ai, for I will give Ai into your hand.” Joshua held out the spear that was in his hand toward the city.
Jos 8:19 The soldiers hiding in ambush quickly rushed out of their place as he reached out with his hand. They ran and entered the city and captured it. They quickly set the city on fire.
Jos 8:20 The men of Ai turned and looked back. They saw the smoke from the city rising into the sky, and they could not escape this way or that. For the Israeli soldiers who had fled into the wilderness now turned back to face those who were pursuing them.
Jos 8:21 When Joshua and all Israel saw the ambush had captured the city with the smoke rising, they turned around and killed the men of Ai.
Jos 8:22 The other soldiers of Israel, those who had gone into the city, came out to attack them. So the men of Ai were caught between the armed forces of Israel, some on this side and some on that side. Israel attacked the men of Ai; none of them survived or escaped.
Jos 8:23 They kept the king of Ai, whom they captured alive, and they brought him to Joshua.
Jos 8:24 It came about when Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field near the wilderness where they pursued them, and when all of them had fallen by the edge of the sword, and were consumed to the last one, all Israel returned to Ai. They attacked it with the edge of the sword.
Jos 8:25 All those who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.
Jos 8:26 Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he had reached out while holding his spear, until he had completely destroyed all the people of Ai.
Jos 8:27 Israel took only the livestock and the plunder from the city for themselves, just as Yehowah had commanded Joshua.
Jos 8:28 Joshua burned Ai (c. 1610 BC) and turned it into a heap of ruins forever. It is an abandoned place to this day.
Jos 8:29 He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until dusk. When the sun was going down, Joshua gave the command, and they took the king’s body down from the tree and threw it in front of the city gates. There they set up a great heap of stones on top of it. That heap remains there to this day.

Jos 8:30 Then Joshua built an altar to Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, on Mount Ebal (Deut. 27:5),
Jos 8:31 just as Moses the servant of Yehowah had commanded the people of Israel, as it was written in the Book of the Law of Moses: “An altar from uncut stones, on which no one has wielded an iron tool.” He offered on the altar burnt offerings to Yehowah, and they sacrificed peace offerings.
Jos 8:32 There, in the presence of the people of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses (Deut. 17:18-19; 31:9; 27:1-8; Hos. 8:12).
Jos 8:33 All Israel, their elders, officers, and their judges stood on both sides of the ark before the priests and Levites who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah, the sojourning foreigner as well as the native born, half of them stood in front of Mount Gerizim and the other half stood in front of Mount Ebal. They blessed the people of Israel, just as Moses the servant of Yehowah had commanded them at first.
Jos 8:34 Afterward, Joshua read all the words of the law, the blessings and the curses, just as they had been written in the Book of the Law.
Jos 8:35 There was not one word from all that Moses commanded that Joshua did not read in front of the congregation of Israel, including the women, the little children, and the sojourning foreigners who lived among them.

Joshua Chapter 9

Jos 9:1 Then all the kings who lived beyond the Jordan River in the hill country, and in the lowlands along the shore of the Mediterranean Sea toward Lebanon, the Hethites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and the Jebusites,
Jos 9:2 these joined together under one command, to wage war against Joshua and Israel.
Jos 9:3 When the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,
Jos 9:4 they acted with a cunning plan. They went as messengers. They took worn out sacks and put them on their donkeys. They also took old wineskins that were worn, torn, and had been repaired.
Jos 9:5 They put old and patched sandals on their feet, and dressed in old, worn-out clothing. All the bread in their food supply was dry and moldy.
Jos 9:6 Then they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and lied to him and to the men of Israel, “We have traveled from a far distant country, so now make a covenant with us.”
Jos 9:7 The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you live near us. How can we make a covenant with you?”
Jos 9:8 They answered Joshua, “We are your servants.” Joshua asked them, “Who are you? Where did you come from?”
Jos 9:9 They answered him, “Your servants have come here from a land extremely far away because of the name of Yehowah your Divine One. We have heard an intelligence report about him and about everything that he did in Egypt,
Jos 9:10 and everything that he did to the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Jordan River, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan who was at Ashtaroth.
Jos 9:11 Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, ‘Take provisions in your hand for the journey. Go to meet them and say to them, “We are your servants. Make a treaty with us.”
Jos 9:12 This is our bread, it was still warm when we took it from our houses on the day we set out to come to you. But now, see, it is dry and moldy.
Jos 9:13 These wineskins were new when we filled them, and look, now they are leaking. Our garments and our sandals are worn-out from an extremely long journey.’”
Jos 9:14 So the Israelis took some of their provisions, but they did not consult with Yehowah for guidance.
Jos 9:15 Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them, to let them live. The leaders of the people also made a vow to them.

Jos 9:16 Three days after the Israelis made this covenant with them, they learned that they were their neighbors, and that they lived nearby.
Jos 9:17 Then the people of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day. Their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim.
Jos 9:18 The people of Israel did not attack them, because their leaders had taken an oath about them before Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel. All the Israelis were grumbling against their leaders.
Jos 9:19 But all the leaders said to all the people, “We have taken an oath concerning them by Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, and now we cannot harm them.
Jos 9:20 This is what we will do to them: To avoid any wrath that may come on us because of the oath we swore to them, we will let them live.”
Jos 9:21 The leaders said to their people, “Let them live.” So the Gibeonites became cutters of wood and drawers of water for all the Israelis, just as the leaders said about them.
Jos 9:22 Joshua called for them and asked, “Why did you deceive us when you lied, ‘We are extremely far from you,’ when you live right here among us?
Jos 9:23 Now because of this, you are cursed, and some of you will always be slaves, those who cut wood and draw water for the tabernacle of my Divine One.”
Jos 9:24 They answered Joshua, “Because it was told to your servants that Yehowah your Divine One commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you, so we were deathly afraid for our lives because of you. That is why we did this thing.
Jos 9:25 Now look, you hold us in your power. Whatever seems good and right for you to do to us, do it.”
Jos 9:26 So Joshua did this for them: He removed them out of the control of the people of Israel, and the Israelis did not kill them.
Jos 9:27 That day Joshua made the Gibeonites cutters of wood and drawers of water for the community, and for the altar of Yehowah, to this day, in the place that Yehowah chooses.

Joshua Chapter 10

Jos 10:1 Now when Adonizedek, king of Jerusalem, heard that Joshua had captured Ai and had completely destroyed it, just as he had done to Jericho and its king, he also heard how the people of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were living among them.
Jos 10:2 The people of Jerusalem were deathly afraid because Gibeon was a large city, like one of the royal cities. It was larger than Ai, and all its men were mighty warriors.
Jos 10:3 So Adonizedek, king of Jerusalem, sent a message to Hoham, king of Hebron, to Piram, king of Jarmuth (now Tel Yarmuth), to Japhia, king of Lachish, and to Debir, king of Eglon:
Jos 10:4 “Come up to me and help me. Let us attack Gibeon, because they have made peace with Joshua and with the people of Israel.”
Jos 10:5 The five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon came up, they and all their armed forces. They set up their positions against Gibeon, and they attacked it.
Jos 10:6 The people of Gibeon sent a message to Joshua and to the military force at Gilgal. They entreated, “Hurry! Do not withdraw your hands from your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who live in the hill country have gathered together to attack us.”
Jos 10:7 Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the warriors with him, and all the fighting men.
Jos 10:8 Yehowah said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them. I have given them into your hand. Not one of them will be able to stop your attack.”
Jos 10:9 Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched all night from Gilgal.
Jos 10:10 Yehowah confused the enemy before Israel, and Israel killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon and pursued them on the road going up to Beth Horon, and they killed them on the road to Azekah and Makkedah.
Jos 10:11 As they ran away from Israel, down the hill from Beth Horon, Yehowah threw large hailstones down from the heavens upon them all the way to Azekah, and they died. There were more who died because of the hailstones than who were killed with the sword by the men of Israel.
Jos 10:12 Then Joshua spoke to Yehowah on the day Yehowah gave the men of Israel victory over the Amorites. This is what Joshua said to Yehowah before Israel, “Sun, be still at Gibeon, and moon, in the Valley of Ayalon.”
Jos 10:13 The sun stood still, and the moon stopped moving, until the Israeli nation took vengeance on their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Jasher? The sun stayed in the middle of the sky; it did not go down for about a whole day.

Jos 10:14 There has been no other day like it before or after it, when Yehowah obeyed the voice of a human (c. 1605 BC). For Yehowah was waging war on behalf of Israel.
Jos 10:15 Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.
Jos 10:16 Now the five kings had escaped and hidden themselves in the cave at Makkedah.
Jos 10:17 It was told to Joshua, “They have been found, the five kings hidden in the cave at Makkedah!”
Jos 10:18 Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave and place soldiers there to guard them.
Jos 10:19 Do not stay yourselves. Pursue your enemies and attack them from the rear. Do not permit them to enter into their cities, because Yehowah your Divine One has given them into your hand.”
Jos 10:20 Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished slaughtering them with an extremely great slaughter, until they were almost completely destroyed; only a few survivors who escaped reached the fortified cities.
Jos 10:21 Then the whole military force returned in peace to Joshua at the camp at Makkedah. No one dared to say one word against any of the people of Israel.
Jos 10:22 Then Joshua ordered, “Open the mouth of the cave, and out of the cave bring to me these five kings.”
Jos 10:23 They did as he said. They brought to him these five kings from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
Jos 10:24 When they brought the kings to Joshua, he summoned every man of Israel. He said to the commanders of the soldiers who had gone into battle with him, “Put your feet on their necks.” So they came up and put their feet on their necks.
Jos 10:25 Then he said to them, “Do not be afraid and do not be dismayed. Be strong and courageous. This is what Yehowah will do to all your enemies you are going to fight.”
Jos 10:26 Then Joshua attacked and executed the kings. He hung them on five trees. They hung on the trees until dusk.
Jos 10:27 When it was sunset, Joshua gave orders, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves. They put large stones over the mouth of the cave. Those stones remain there to this very day.
Jos 10:28 In this way, Joshua captured Makkedah on that day and killed everyone there with the sword, including its king. He completely destroyed them and every living creature there. He left no survivors. He did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:29 Joshua and all Israel passed on from Makkedah to Libnah. He went into battle against Libnah.
Jos 10:30 Yehowah also gave it into the hand of Israel, along with their king. Joshua attacked every living creature in it with the sword. He did not leave a survivor alive in it. He did to the king just as he had done to the king of Jericho.
Jos 10:31 Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish (modern Tel Lachish). He camped by it and waged war against it.
Jos 10:32 Yehowah gave Lachish into the hand of Israel. Joshua captured it on the second day. He attacked with the sword every living creature that was in it, just as he had done to Libnah.
Jos 10:33 Then Horam, king of Gezer, came up to help Lachish. Joshua attacked him and his military force, until there was not even one survivor left.
Jos 10:34 Then Joshua and all Israel passed on from Lachish to Eglon. They camped by it, waged war against it,
Jos 10:35 and captured it that same day. They struck it with the sword, and they completely destroyed everyone in it, as Joshua had done to Lachish.
Jos 10:36 Then Joshua and all Israel passed on from Eglon to Hebron. They waged war against it.
Jos 10:37 They captured it and struck with the sword everyone in it, including the king and all its surrounding villages. They completely destroyed every living creature in it, leaving no survivors, just as Joshua had done to Eglon. He completely destroyed it and every living creature in it.
Jos 10:38 Then Joshua turned, and all the military force of Israel with him, and they passed on to Debir and waged war against it.
Jos 10:39 He captured it and its king, and all its nearby villages. They struck them with the sword and completely destroyed every living creature that was in it. Joshua left no survivors, just as he had done to Hebron and its king, and just as he had done to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and its king.
Jos 10:40 Joshua conquered all the land, the hill country, the Negev, the lowlands, and the foothills. Of all their kings he left not one survivor. He completely destroyed every living thing, just as Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, had commanded.
Jos 10:41 Joshua struck them with the sword from Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia) to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen to Gibeon.
Jos 10:42 Joshua captured all these kings and their land at one time, because Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, fought for Israel.
Jos 10:43 Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua Chapter 11

Jos 11:1 When Jabin, king of Hazor, heard this, he sent a message to Jobab, king of Madon, to the king of Shimron (modern Tel Shimron), and to the king of Acshaph.
Jos 11:2 He also sent the message to the kings who were in the northern hill country, in the Jordan River Valley south of the Sea of Galilee, in the lowlands, and in the hill country of Dor to the west.
Jos 11:3 He also sent a message to the Canaanites to the east and west, the Amorites, the Hethites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites by Mount Hermon in the land of Mizpah.
Jos 11:4 All their armed forces came out with them, a great number of soldiers, in number like the sand on the seashore. They had a large force of cavalry and chariots.
Jos 11:5 All these kings met at the appointed time, and they camped at the waters of Merom to wage war with Israel.
Jos 11:6 Yehowah declared to Joshua, “Do not be afraid in their presence, because tomorrow at this time, I am giving them all to Israel as dead men. You will hamstring their horses, and you will burn their chariots.”
Jos 11:7 Joshua and all the warriors came. They arrived suddenly at the waters of Merom and attacked the enemy.
Jos 11:8 Yehowah gave the enemy into the hand of Israel, and they struck them with the sword and pursued them to Sidon, Misrephoth Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpah to the east. They struck them, until not even one survivor of them was left.
Jos 11:9 Joshua did to them just as Yehowah told him. He hamstrung the horses and burned the chariots.
Jos 11:10 Joshua turned back at that time and captured Hazor. He struck its king with the sword. Hazor had been head of all these kingdoms.
Jos 11:11 They struck with the sword every living creature that was there, and he set them apart to be destroyed, so there was not any living creature left alive. Then he burned Hazor.
Jos 11:12 Joshua captured all the cities of these kings. He also captured all their kings and executed them with the sword. He completely destroyed them with the sword, just as Moses the servant of Yehowah had commanded.
Jos 11:13 Israel did not burn any of the cities built on mounds, except Hazor. It alone Joshua burned.
Jos 11:14 The military force of Israel took all the plunder from these cities along with the livestock for themselves. They killed every human with the sword, until all were dead. They left no living creature alive.

Jos 11:15 Just as Yehowah had commanded his servant Moses, in the same way, Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did it. He left nothing undone of all that Yehowah commanded Moses to do.
Jos 11:16 Joshua took all that land, the hill country, all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the foothills, the Jordan River Valley, the hill country of Israel, and the lowlands.
Jos 11:17 From Mount Halak near Edom, and going north as far as Baal Gad (Baalbek) in the (Baqaa) valley near Lebanon below Mount Hermon, he captured all their kings and executed them.
Jos 11:18 Joshua waged war for a long time with all the kings.
Jos 11:19 Not one city made peace with the military force of Israel except the Hivites who lived in Gibeon. Israel captured all the rest of the cities in battle.
Jos 11:20 For it was Yehowah who hardened their hearts, so they would wage war against Israel, so that he might completely destroy them without mercy, just as he had instructed Moses.
Jos 11:21 Then Joshua came at that time, and he destroyed the Anakim (giants). He did this in the hill country, at Hebron, Debir, Anab, and in all the hill country of Judah, and in all the hill country of Israel. Joshua completely destroyed them and their cities.
Jos 11:22 None of the Anakim were left in the land of Israel except at Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.
Jos 11:23 So Joshua captured the whole land, just as Yehowah said to Moses. Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel, assigned to each of their tribes. Then the land had rest from the wars (c. 1604 BC).

Joshua Chapter 12

Jos 12:1 Now these are the kings of the land, whom the men of Israel conquered. The Israelis took possession of the land on the east side of the Jordan River where the sun rises, from the Valley of the Arnon River (aka Zarqa River) to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah to the east.
Jos 12:2 Sihon, king of the Amorites, lived in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer, which is on the rim of the Arnon Gorge (aka Zarqa Gorge) from the middle of the valley, and half of Gilead down to the Jabbok River (modern Yarmuk River) on the border of the Ammonites.
Jos 12:3 Sihon also ruled over the Arabah to the Sea of Galilee, to the east, to the Sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, eastward, all the way to Beth Jeshimoth and southward, toward the foot of the slopes of Mount Pisgah.
Jos 12:5 He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, and all Bashan, to the border of the people of Geshur and the Maacathites, and half of Gilead, to the border of Sihon, king of Heshbon.
Jos 12:6 Moses the servant of Yehowah, and the people of Israel had defeated them, and Moses the servant of Yehowah, gave the land as a possession to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.
Jos 12:7 These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the people of Israel defeated on the west side of the Jordan River, from Baal Gad (Baalbek) in the (Baqaa) valley near Lebanon to Mount Halak near Edom. Joshua gave land to the tribes of Israel for them to possess.
Jos 12:8 He gave them the hill country, the lowlands, the Arabah, the sides of the mountains, the wilderness, and the Negev, the land of the Hethites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.
Jos 12:9 The kings included the king of Jericho, the king of Ai which is beside Bethel,
Jos 12:10 the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron,
Jos 12:11 the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish,
Jos 12:12 the king of Eglon, the king of Gezer,
Jos 12:13 the king of Debir, the king of Geder,
Jos 12:14 the king of Hormah, the king of Arad,
Jos 12:15 the king of Libnah, the king of Adullam,
Jos 12:16 the king of Makkedah, the king of Bethel,
Jos 12:17 the king of Tappuah, the king of Hepher,
Jos 12:18 the king of Aphek, the king of Lasharon,
Jos 12:19 the king of Madon, the king of Hazor,

Jos 12:20 the king of Shimron Meron, the king of Akshaph,
Jos 12:21 the king of Taanach, the king of Megiddo,
Jos 12:22 the king of Kedesh, the king of Jokneam in Carmel,
Jos 12:23 the king of Dor in Naphath Dor, the king of the ethnicities in Gilgal,
Jos 12:24 and the king of Tirzah. The number of kings was thirty-one in all.

Joshua Chapter 13

Jos 13:1 Now Joshua was quite old when Yehowah said to him, “You are extremely old, but there is still an extensive area of land to capture.
Jos 13:2 This is the land that still remains: All the regions of the Philistines, and all those of the Geshurites,
Jos 13:3 from Shihor, which is east of Egypt, and northward to the border of Ekron, which is considered property of the Canaanites; the five rulers of the Philistines, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath (modern Tell es-Safi), and Ekron, the territory of the Avvites.
Jos 13:4 In the south, there are still all the lands of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belong to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites;
Jos 13:5 the land of the Gebalites, all of Lebanon toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath.
Jos 13:6 Also, all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon as far as Misrephoth Maim, including all the people of Sidon. I will drive them out before the military force of Israel. Be sure to assign the land to Israel as an inheritance, as I commanded you.
Jos 13:7 Divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and to the half tribe of Manasseh.”
Jos 13:8 With the other half of the tribe of Manasseh, the Reubenites and the Gadites had received their inheritance that Moses, the servant of Yehowah, gave them on the east side of the Jordan River,
Jos 13:9 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Arnon River (aka Zarqa River) gorge, including the city that is in the middle of the gorge, to all the plateau of Medeba as far as Dibon;
Jos 13:10 all the cities of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, to the border of the Ammonites;
Jos 13:11 Gilead, and the region of the Geshurites and Maacathites, all of Mount Hermon, all Bashan to Salecah;
Jos 13:12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei, these are what was left of the remnant of the giants, Moses struck them and drove them out.
Jos 13:13 But the people of Israel did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites. Instead, Geshur and Maacath live among Israel to this day.
Jos 13:14 To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance. The offerings of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, made by fire, are their inheritance, as Yehowah commanded Moses.
Jos 13:15 Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of Reuben, clan by clan.

Jos 13:16 Their territory was from Aroer, on the edge of the Arnon River gorge, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plateau by Medeba.
Jos 13:17 Reuben also received Heshbon and all its cities that are in the plateau, Dibon, and Bamoth Baal, and Beth Baalmeon,
Jos 13:18 and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,
Jos 13:19 and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zerethshahar on the hill of the valley.
Jos 13:20 Reuben also received Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth Jeshimoth,
Jos 13:21 all the cities of the plateau, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses had defeated together with the leaders of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who had lived in the land.
Jos 13:22 The people of Israel also executed with the sword Balaam son of Beor, who practiced divination, among the rest of those they had killed (Num. 31:8).
Jos 13:23 The border of the tribe of Reuben is the Jordan River; this is their boundary. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Reuben, given to each of their clans, with their cities and villages.
Jos 13:24 This is what Moses gave to the tribe of Gad, clan by clan:
Jos 13:25 Their territory was Jazer, all the cities of Gilead and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is east of Rabbah,
Jos 13:26 from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir.
Jos 13:27 In the valley, Moses gave them Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, with the Jordan River as a border, to the lower end of the Sea of Galilee, eastward beyond the Jordan River.
Jos 13:28 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Gad, clan by clan, with their cities and villages.
Jos 13:29 Moses gave an inheritance to the half tribe of Manasseh. It was assigned to the half tribe of the people of Manasseh, according to their clans.
Jos 13:30 Their territory was from Mahanaim (Tall adh-Dhahab al-Gharbi), all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities;
Jos 13:31 half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei, the royal cities of Og in Bashan. These were assigned to the clan of Machir son of Manasseh, half of the people of Machir, given to each of their families.
Jos 13:32 This is the inheritance that Moses assigned to them on the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan River east of Jericho.
Jos 13:33 Moses did not give an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, is their inheritance, just as he commanded them.

Joshua Chapter 14

Jos 14:1 These are the areas of land that the people of Israel received as their inheritance in the land of Canaan, assigned to them by Eleazar the priest, by Joshua son of Nun, and by the tribal leaders of their ancestors' families within the people of Israel.
Jos 14:2 Their inheritance was selected by lot for the nine and one-half tribes, just as Yehowah had commanded by the hand of Moses.
Jos 14:3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two and one-half tribes beyond the Jordan River, but to the Levites he gave no inheritance.
Jos 14:4 The tribe of Joseph was actually two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. The Levites were given no portion of the inheritance in the land, but only certain cities to live in, with their pasturelands for livestock and for their own material resources.
Jos 14:5 The people of Israel did as Yehowah commanded Moses, so they assigned the land.
Jos 14:6 Then the tribe of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal. Caleb, son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, said to him, "You know what Yehowah said to Moses the man of the Almighty concerning you and me at Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia).
Jos 14:7 I was forty years old (c. 1649 BC) when Moses the servant of Yehowah sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy on the land. I brought him an intelligence report again as it was in my heart to make.
Jos 14:8 But my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt with fear. But I completely followed Yehowah my Divine One.
Jos 14:9 Moses swore on that day, 'Surely the land on which your foot has walked will be an inheritance for you and for your children forever, because you have completely followed Yehowah my Divine One.'
Jos 14:10 Now look! Yehowah has kept me alive these forty-five years, just as he said, from the time when Yehowah spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. Now look! I am this day eighty-five years old (c. 1604 BC).
Jos 14:11 I am still as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me out. My strength is now as my strength was then for war and for going and coming.
Jos 14:12 Now therefore, give me this hill country, which Yehowah promised me on that day. For you heard on that day that the Anakim (fallen ones) were there with great fortified cities. It may be that Yehowah will be with me, and that I will drive them out, just as Yehowah said."
Jos 14:13 Then Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron as an inheritance to Caleb son of Jephunneh.

Jos 14:14 Therefore, Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he completely followed Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
Jos 14:15 Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath Arba. Arba had been the greatest man among the Anakim. Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua Chapter 15

Jos 15:1 The assignment of land for the tribe of the people of Judah, given to their clans, extended south to the border of Edom, with the wilderness of Zin being the farthest point to the south.
Jos 15:2 Their border on the south ran from the end of the End Salt Sea (Gulf of Aqaba), from the bay (at the north end of the Red Sea) that faces to the south.
Jos 15:3 Their boundary next went out to the south of the Ascent of Scorpions (on Route 8784 highway to Tabuk) and passed along to Zin, and went up south of Kadesh Barnea (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia), along by Hezron, and up to Addar, where it turned about to Karka.
Jos 15:4 It passed along to Azmon, went by the brook of Egypt, and came to its end at the sea. This was their south boundary.
Jos 15:5 The eastern boundary was the Dead Sea, at the mouth of the Jordan River. The border on the north ran from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan River.
Jos 15:6 It went up to Beth Hoglah and passed along north of Beth Arabah. Then it went up to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.
Jos 15:7 Then the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, turning toward Gilgal (aka Geliloth), which is opposite the hill of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley. Then the border passed along to the springs of En Shemesh and went to En Rogel.
Jos 15:8 Then the border went up the Valley of Ben Hinnom to the south side of the Jebusite city, that is, Jerusalem. Then it went up to the top of the hill that lies over the Valley of Hinnom, on the west, which is at the northern end of the Valley of Giants.
Jos 15:9 Then the border extended from the top of the hills to the spring of Nephtoah, and went out from there to the cities of Mount Ephron. Then the border bends around to Baalah, the same as Kiriath Jearim.
Jos 15:10 Then the border circled around west of Baalah to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north, the same as Kesalon, went down to Beth Shemesh, and crossed over to Timnah.
Jos 15:11 The border went out beside the northern hill of Ekron, and then it bends around to Shikkeron and passed along to Mount Baalah, from there it went to Jabneel. The border ended at the sea.
Jos 15:12 The western boundary was the Mediterranean Sea and its coastline. This is the border around the tribe of Judah, clan by clan.
Jos 15:13 In keeping with the commandment of Yehowah to Joshua, Joshua gave Caleb son of Jephunneh an assignment of land among the tribe of Judah, Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron, Arba was the father of Anak.

Jos 15:14 Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai, descendants of Anak (giant).
Jos 15:15 He went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir, Debir used to be called Kiriath Sepher.
Jos 15:16 Caleb said, “The man who attacks Kiriath Sepher and captures it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter as a wife.”
Jos 15:17 When Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s brother, captured it, Caleb gave him Achsah his daughter as a wife.
Jos 15:18 Soon after that, Achsah came to Othniel, and she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What do you want?”
Jos 15:19 Achsah replied, “Do me a special favor, since you have given me the land of the Negev: Also give me some springs of water.” Then Caleb gave her the upper springs and lower springs.
Jos 15:20 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Judah, given to their clans.
Jos 15:21 The cities belonging to the tribe of Judah in the extreme south, toward the border of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,
Jos 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,
Jos 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,
Jos 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth.
Jos 15:25 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron, this was also known as Hazor,
Jos 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,
Jos 15:27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,
Jos 15:28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah.
Jos 15:29 Baalah, Iyim, Ezem,
Jos 15:30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,
Jos 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,
Jos 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon. These were twenty-nine cities in all, including their villages.
Jos 15:33 In the lower hill country to the west, there were Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,
Jos 15:34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,
Jos 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,
Jos 15:36 Shaaraim (Khirbet Qeiyafa), Adithaim, and Gederah, that is, Gederothaim. These were fourteen cities in number, including their villages.
Jos 15:37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdalgad,
Jos 15:38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,
Jos 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon.
Jos 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish,
Jos 15:41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, Makkedah. These were sixteen cities in number, including their villages.

Jos 15:42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,
Jos 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,
Jos 15:44 Keilah, Achzib, Mareshah. These were nine cities, including their villages.
Jos 15:45 Ekron, with its surrounding towns and villages;
Jos 15:46 from Ekron to the sea, all the settlements that were near Ashdod, including their villages.
Jos 15:47 Ashdod, its surrounding towns and villages; Gaza, its surrounding towns and villages; to the brook of Egypt, and to the Mediterranean Sea with its coastline.
Jos 15:48 In the hill country, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,
Jos 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath Sannah, that is, Debir,
Jos 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,
Jos 15:51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh. These were eleven cities, including their villages.
Jos 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan,
Jos 15:53 Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,
Jos 15:54 Humtah, Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron, and Zior. These were nine cities, including their villages.
Jos 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,
Jos 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,
Jos 15:57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah. These were ten cities, including their villages.
Jos 15:58 Halhul, Bethzur, Gedor,
Jos 15:59 Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon. These were six cities, including their villages.
Jos 15:60 Kiriath Baal, that is, Kiriath Jearim, and Rabbah. These were two cities, including their villages.
Jos 15:61 In the wilderness, there were Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,
Jos 15:62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and Engedi (Hazazon Tamar; modern Tall al-Gurn). These were six cities, including their villages.
Jos 15:63 But as for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the tribe of Judah could not drive them out, so the Jebusites live there with the tribe of Judah to this day.

Joshua Chapter 16

Jos 16:1 The assignment of land for the tribe of Joseph extended from the Jordan River at Jericho, east of the springs of Jericho, into the wilderness, going up from Jericho through the hill country of Bethel.
Jos 16:2 Then it went from Bethel to Luz and passed along to Ataroth, the territory of the Archites.
Jos 16:3 Then it went down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, as far as the territory of Lower Beth Horon, and then on to Gezer; it ended at the sea.
Jos 16:4 It was in this way that the tribes of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance.
Jos 16:5 The territory of the tribe of Ephraim that was assigned to their clans was as follows: The border of their inheritance on the east went from Ataroth Addar (modern Khirbet ‘Auja el-Foqa) as far as Upper Beth Horon,
Jos 16:6 and from there it continued to the sea. From Michmethath on the north it turned eastward toward Taanath Shiloh and passed beyond it on the east to Janoah.
Jos 16:7 Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, and then reached Jericho, ending at the Jordan River.
Jos 16:8 From Tappuah, the border went westward to the brook of Kanah and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Ephraim, assigned to their clans,
Jos 16:9 together with the cities that were chosen for the tribe of Ephraim within the inheritance of the tribe of Manasseh, all the cities, as well as their villages.
Jos 16:10 They did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so that the Canaanites live within Ephraim to this day, but these people were made to do forced labor.

Joshua Chapter 17

Jos 17:1 This was the assignment of land for the tribe of Manasseh, who was the firstborn of Joseph, that is, for Makir, who was Manasseh's firstborn, and who himself was the father of Gilead. Makir's descendants were assigned the land of Gilead and Bashan, because Makir had been a man of war.
Jos 17:2 Land was assigned to the rest of the tribe of Manasseh, given to their clans, Abi Ezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These were the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, presented by their clans.
Jos 17:3 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher son of Gilead son of Makir son of Manasseh had no sons, but only daughters. The names of his daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah.
Jos 17:4 They approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders, and they said, "Yehowah commanded Moses to give to us an inheritance along with our brothers." So following the commandment of Yehowah, he gave those women an inheritance among the brothers of their father.
Jos 17:5 Ten parcels of land were assigned to Manasseh in Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan River,
Jos 17:6 because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead was assigned to the rest of the tribe of Manasseh.
Jos 17:7 The territory of Manasseh reached from Asher to Michmethath, which is east of Shechem. Then the border went southward to those living near the spring of Tappuah.
Jos 17:8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the tribe of Ephraim.
Jos 17:9 The border went down to the brook of Kanah. These cities south of the brook among the towns of Manasseh belonged to Ephraim. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and it ended at the sea.
Jos 17:10 The land to the south belonged to Ephraim, and the land to the north was Manasseh's; the sea was the border. On the north side Asher can be reached, and to the east, Issachar.
Jos 17:11 Also in Issachar and in Asher, Manasseh possessed Beth Shan (became Roman Nysa-Scythopolis) and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Endor and its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages, the inhabitants of Megiddo (Tell el-Mutesellim) and its villages, and the third part of Napheth and its villages.
Jos 17:12 Yet the tribe of Manasseh could not take possession of those cities, for the Canaanites continued to live in this land.
Jos 17:13 When the people of Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not completely drive them out.

Jos 17:14 Then the descendants of Joseph asked Joshua, “Why have you given us only one assignment of land and one portion for an inheritance, since we are a people great in number, and all along Yehowah has blessed us?”
Jos 17:15 Joshua said to them, “If you are a people great in number, go up by yourselves to the forest and there clear the ground for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants. Do this, since the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you.”
Jos 17:16 The descendants of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us. But all the Canaanites who live in the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth Shan and its villages, and those who are in the Valley of Jezreel.”
Jos 17:17 Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, “You are a people great in number, and you have great power. You must not have only one piece of land assigned to you.
Jos 17:18 The hill country will also be yours. Though it is a forest, you will clear it and take possession of it to its farthest borders. You will drive out the Canaanites, even though they have chariots of iron, and even though they are strong.”

Joshua Chapter 18

Jos 18:1 Then the whole congregation of the people of Israel met together at Shiloh (modern Khirbet Seilun). They set up the Tent of Meeting there, and they conquered the land before them.
Jos 18:2 There were still seven tribes among the people of Israel whose inheritance had not been assigned.
Jos 18:3 Joshua said to the people of Israel, “How long will you put off going into the land that Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, has given you?
Jos 18:4 Appoint for yourselves three men from each tribe, and I will send them out. They will set out and survey the land up and down. They will write out a description of it with a view to their inheritances, and then they will come back to me.
Jos 18:5 They will divide it into seven sections. Judah will remain in their territory on the south, and the house of Joseph will continue in their territory in the north.
Jos 18:6 You will describe the land in seven sections and bring the description here to me. I will cast lots for you here before Yehowah our Divine One.
Jos 18:7 The Levites have no portion among you, for the priesthood of Yehowah is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan River. This is the inheritance that Moses the servant of Yehowah gave them.”
Jos 18:8 So the men rose up and went. Joshua commanded those who went to write the description of the land, “Go up and down in the land, write a description of it, and return to me. I will cast lots for you here before Yehowah at Shiloh.”
Jos 18:9 The men left and walked up and down in the land and wrote a description of it in a scroll by its cities in seven sections, listing the cities in each section. Then they returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.
Jos 18:10 Then Joshua cast lots for them at Shiloh before Yehowah. It was there that Joshua assigned the land to the people of Israel, and to each was given his portion of the land.
Jos 18:11 The assignment of land for the tribe of Benjamin was given to each of their clans. The territory of their assigned land was located between the descendants of Judah and the descendants of Joseph.
Jos 18:12 Their northern border began at the Jordan River. The border went up to the ridge north of Jericho, and then up through the hill country westward. There it reached the wilderness of Beth Aven.

Jos 18:13 From there the border passed along south in the direction of Luz, the same place as Bethel. Then the border went down to Ataroth Addar, by the mountain that lies south of lower Beth Horon.
Jos 18:14 The boundary then went in another direction: On the western seaside it turned toward the south, heading toward the mountain across from Beth Horon. This boundary ended at Kiriath Baal, that is, Kiriath Jearim, a city that belonged to the tribe of Judah. This formed the border on the western side.
Jos 18:15 The south side began just outside of Kiriath Jearim. The border went from there to Ephron, to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.
Jos 18:16 The boundary then went down to the border of the mountain which was opposite the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which was at the northern end of the Valley of Giants. It then went down to the Valley of Hinnom, south of the slope of the Jebusites, and continued down to En Rogel.
Jos 18:17 It turned northward, going in the direction of En Shemesh, and from there it went out to Geliloth (aka Gilgal), which was opposite the ascent of Adummim. Then it went down to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben.
Jos 18:18 It passed on to the north of the shoulder of Beth Arabah and down to the Arabah.
Jos 18:19 The border passed on to the north shoulder of Beth Hoglah. The border ended at the north bay of the Dead Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan River. This was the boundary on the south.
Jos 18:20 The Jordan River formed its border on the eastern side. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, and it was given to each of their clans, border after border, all around.
Jos 18:21 Now the cities of the tribe of Benjamin according to their clans were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,
Jos 18:22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,
Jos 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,
Jos 18:24 Kephar Ammoni, Ophni, and Geba. There were twelve cities, including their villages.
Jos 18:25 There were also the cities of Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,
Jos 18:26 Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah (modern Tel Moza),
Jos 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,
Jos 18:28 Zelah, Haeleph, Jebus, the same as Jerusalem, Gibeah, and Kiriath. There were fourteen cities, including their villages. This was the inheritance of Benjamin for their clans.

Joshua Chapter 19

Jos 19:1 The second casting of lots fell to Simeon, and it was assigned to each of their clans. Their inheritance was in the middle of the inheritance that belonged to the tribe of Judah.
Jos 19:2 They had for their inheritance Beersheba, Sheba, Moladah,
Jos 19:3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,
Jos 19:4 Eltolad, Bethul, and Hormah.
Jos 19:5 Simeon also had Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,
Jos 19:6 Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhen. These were thirteen cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:7 Simeon also had Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan. These were four cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:8 These were together with the villages around these cities as far as Baalath Beer, the same as Ramah in the Negev. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon, given to their clans.
Jos 19:9 The inheritance of the tribe of Simeon formed part of the territory of the tribe of Judah. Because the portion of land assigned to the tribe of Judah was too large for them, the tribe of Simeon received their inheritance out of the middle of their portion.
Jos 19:10 The third casting of lots fell to the tribe of Zebulun, and it was given to their clans. The border of their inheritance began at Sarid.
Jos 19:11 Their border went up from the Mediterranean Sea in the west toward Maralah and touched Dabbesheth; then it extended to the brook that was opposite Jokneam.
Jos 19:12 From Sarid the border turned eastward toward the east and went to the border of Kisloth Tabor. From there it went to Daberath and then up to Japhia.
Jos 19:13 From there it passed on eastward to Gath Hepher, and then to Ethkazin; next it went to Rimmon and turned toward Neah.
Jos 19:14 The border made a turn to the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah El.
Jos 19:15 This region included the cities of Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem. There were twelve cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:16 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Zebulun, that was given to their clans, the cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:17 The fourth casting of lots fell to Issachar, and it was given to their clans.
Jos 19:18 Their territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem,
Jos 19:19 Hapharaim, Shion, and Anaharath (modern Tel Rekhesh).

Jos 19:20 It also included Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,
Jos 19:21 Remeth, Engannim, Enhaddah, and Bethpazzez.
Jos 19:22 Their border also touched Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth Shemesh, and ended at the Jordan River. There were sixteen cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, and it was given to their clans, the cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:24 The fifth casting of lots fell to the tribe of Asher, and it was given to their clans.
Jos 19:25 Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph,
Jos 19:26 Allammelech, Amad, and Mishall. On the west the boundary extended to Carmel and Shihor Libnath.
Jos 19:27 Then it turned eastward to Beth Dagon and went as far as Zebulun, and then to the Valley of Iphtahel, northward to Bethemek and Neiel. Then it continued on to Cabul toward the north.
Jos 19:28 It then went on to Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.
Jos 19:29 The border turned back to Ramah, and then to the fortified city of Tyre. Then the border turned to Hosah and ended at the sea, in the region of Achzib,
Jos 19:30 Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob. There were twenty-two cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Asher, and it was given to their clans, the cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:32 The sixth casting of lots fell to the tribe of Naphtali, and it was given to their clans.
Jos 19:33 Their border ran from Heleph, from the oak at Zaanannim, on to Adaminekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; it ended at the Jordan River.
Jos 19:34 The border turned westward to Aznoth Tabor and went on to Hukok (Huqoq); it touched Zebulun on the south, and reached to Asher on the west and Judah on the east at the Jordan River.
Jos 19:35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer (Bethsaida), Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,
Jos 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,
Jos 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, and En Hazor.
Jos 19:38 There were also Yiron, Migdalel, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh. There were nineteen cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:39 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali, and it was given to their clans, the cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:40 The seventh casting of lots fell to the tribe of Dan, and it was given to their clans.
Jos 19:41 The territory of its inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh, Jos 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, and Ithlah.

Jos 19:43 It also included Elon, Timnah, Ekron,
Jos 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,
Jos 19:45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,
Jos 19:46 Me Jarkon, and Rakkon along with the territory across from Joppa.
Jos 19:47 When the territory of the tribe of Dan was lost to them, Dan attacked Leshem, fought against it, and captured it. They killed everyone with the sword, took possession of it, and settled in it. They renamed Leshem, calling it Dan after their ancestor.
Jos 19:48 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, and it was given to their clans, the cities, including their villages.
Jos 19:49 When they finished the allocation of the land as an inheritance, the people of Israel gave an inheritance among themselves to Joshua son of Nun.
Jos 19:50 By the command of Yehowah they gave him the city for which he asked, Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. He rebuilt the city and lived there.
Jos 19:51 These are the inheritances that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the tribal leaders of their ancestors' families within the people of Israel, assigned by lot at Shiloh, before Yehowah, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. So they finished assigning the land.

Joshua Chapter 20

Jos 20:1 Then Yehowah ordered Joshua,
Jos 20:2 “Speak to the people of Israel, ‘Appoint the cities of refuge of which I spoke to you by the hand of Moses (Heb. 6:18).
Jos 20:3 Do this, so that one who unintentionally kills a person can go there. These cities will be a place of refuge from anyone who seeks to avenge the blood of a person who was killed.
Jos 20:4 He will run to one of those cities and will stand at the entrance of the city gate, and explain his case to the elders of that city. Then they will take him into the city and give him a place for him to live among them.
Jos 20:5 If one of them comes to try to avenge the blood of the person who was killed, then the people of the city must not hand the one who killed him over to the authorities. They must not do this, because he killed his neighbor unintentionally, and he had no hatred toward him in the past.
Jos 20:6 He must stay in that city, until he has stood before the elders of the congregation for judgment (Beit Din), until the death of the one who was serving as high priest in those days. Then the one who had accidentally killed the person may return to his own town and his own home, to the town from which he fled.’”
Jos 20:7 So the Israelis selected Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba, the same as Hebron, in the hill country of Judah.
Jos 20:8 Beyond the Jordan River east of Jericho, they selected Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau from the tribe of Reuben; Ramoth Gilead, from the tribe of Gad; and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.
Jos 20:9 These were the cities selected for all the people of Israel and for the sojourning foreigners residing among them, so that anyone who killed a person unintentionally could run to them for safety. This person would not die by the hand of the one who wanted to avenge the blood that was shed, until the accused person would first stand before the elders of the congregation (Beit Din).

Joshua Chapter 21

Jos 21:1 Then the heads of the clans of the Levites came to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and to the leaders of the families of their ancestors within the people of Israel.
Jos 21:2 They said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, “Yehowah commanded you by the hand of Moses to give to us cities to live in, with the pasturelands for our livestock.”
Jos 21:3 So by the command of Yehowah, the people of Israel gave out of their inheritance the following cities, including their pasturelands, to the Levites.
Jos 21:4 The casting of lots for the clans of the Kohathites gave this result: The priests, the descendants of Aaron who were from the Levites, received thirteen cities given from the tribe of Judah, from the tribe of Simeon, and from the tribe of Benjamin.
Jos 21:5 The rest of the clans of the Kohathites received by casting lots ten cities out of the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and from the half tribe of Manasseh.
Jos 21:6 Then the people descended from Gershon were given, by the casting of lots, thirteen cities from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.
Jos 21:7 The people who were descendants of Merari received twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.
Jos 21:8 So the people of Israel gave, by casting lots, these cities, including their pasturelands, to the Levites, just as Yehowah had commanded by the hand of Moses.
Jos 21:9 From the tribes of Judah and Simeon, they assigned land to the following cities, here listed by name.
Jos 21:10 These cities were given to the descendants of Aaron, who were among the clans of the Kohathites, who in turn were from the tribe of Levi. For the first casting of lots had fallen to them.
Jos 21:11 The Israelis gave them Kiriath Arba, Arba had been the father of Anak, the same place as Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, with the pasturelands around it.
Jos 21:12 But the fields of the city and its villages were already given to Caleb son of Jephunneh, as his possession.
Jos 21:13 To the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its pasturelands, which was a city of refuge for any who killed another unintentionally, and Libnah with its pasturelands,
Jos 21:14 Jattir with its pasturelands, and Eshtemoa with its pasturelands.

Jos 21:15 They also gave Holon with its pasturelands, Debir with its pasturelands,
Jos 21:16 Ain with its pasturelands, Juttah with its pasturelands, and Beth Shemesh with its pasturelands. There were nine cities that were given from these two tribes.
Jos 21:17 From the tribe of Benjamin were given Gibeon with its pasturelands, Geba with its pasturelands, Jos 21:18 Anathoth with its pasturelands, and Almon with its suburbs, four cities.
Jos 21:19 The cities given to the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were thirteen cities in all, including their pasturelands.
Jos 21:20 As for the rest of the family of Kohath, those Levites who belong to the family of Kohath, they had cities given to them from the tribe of Ephraim by the casting of lots.
Jos 21:21 To them were given Shechem with its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim, a city of refuge for any who killed a person unintentionally, Gezer with its pasturelands,
Jos 21:22 Kibzaim with its pasturelands, and Beth Horon with its pasturelands, four cities in all.
Jos 21:23 From the tribe of Dan, the clan of Kohath was given Elteke with its pasturelands, Gibbethon with its pasturelands, Jos 21:24 Aijalon with its pasturelands, and Gathrimmon with its pasturelands, four cities in all.
Jos 21:25 From the half tribe of Manasseh, the clan of Kohath was given Taanach with its pasturelands and Gathrimmon with its pasturelands, two cities.
Jos 21:26 There were ten cities in all for the rest of the clans of the Kohathites, including their pasturelands.
Jos 21:27 From the half tribe of Manasseh, to clans of Gershon, these were other Levite clans, and they gave Golan in Bashan with its pasturelands, a city of refuge for anyone who killed another unintentionally, along with Beeshterah with its pasturelands, two cities in all.
Jos 21:28 To the clans of Gershon they also gave Kishion from the tribe of Issachar, along with its pasturelands, Daberath with its pasturelands, Jos 21:29 Jarmuth with its pasturelands, and Engannim with its pasturelands, four cities.
Jos 21:30 From the tribe of Asher, they gave Mishal with its pasturelands, Abdon with its pasturelands, Jos 21:31 Helkath with its pasturelands, and Rehob with its pasturelands, four cities in all.
Jos 21:32 From the tribe of Naphtali, they gave the clans of Gershon Kedesh in Galilee with its pasturelands, a city of refuge for anyone who killed another unintentionally; Hammothdor with its pasturelands, and Kartan with its pasturelands, three cities in all.

Jos 21:33 There were thirteen cities in all, out of the clans of Gershon, including their pasturelands.
Jos 21:34 To the rest of the Levites, the clans of Merari, were given out of the tribe of Zebulun: Jokneam with its pasturelands, Kartah with its pasturelands,
Jos 21:35 Dimnah with its pasturelands, and Nahalal with its pasturelands, four cities in all.
Jos 21:36 To the clans of Merari were given from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer with its pasturelands, Jahaz with its pasturelands,
Jos 21:37 Kedemoth with its pasturelands, and Mephaath with its pasturelands, four cities.
Jos 21:38 Out of the tribe of Gad they were given Ramoth in Gilead with its pasturelands, a city of refuge for any who killed another unintentionally, and Mahanaim with its pasturelands.
Jos 21:39 The clans of Merari were also given Heshbon with its pasturelands, and Jazer with its pasturelands. These were four cities in all.
Jos 21:40 All these were the cities of the several clans of Merari, who were from the tribe of Levi, twelve cities in all were given to them by the casting of lots.
Jos 21:41 The cities of the Levites taken from the middle of the land possessed by the people of Israel were forty-eight cities, including their pasturelands.
Jos 21:42 These cities each had its surrounding pasturelands. It was this way with all these cities.
Jos 21:43 So Yehowah gave to Israel all the land that he swore to give to their ancestors. The Israelis took possession of it and settled there.
Jos 21:44 Then Yehowah gave them rest on every side, just as he had sworn to their ancestors. Not one of their enemies could defeat them. Yehowah gave all their enemies into their hand.
Jos 21:45 Not one thing among all the good promises that Yehowah had spoken to the house of Israel failed to come true. All of them came to be.

Joshua Chapter 22

Jos 22:1 At that time Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.
Jos 22:2 He said to them, “You have done everything that Moses the servant of Yehowah commanded you. You have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.
Jos 22:3 You have not deserted your brothers these many days, down to this present day, and you have fulfilled the duties required by the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One.
Jos 22:4 Now Yehowah your Divine One has given rest to your brothers, just as he promised them. Therefore, turn and go to your tents in the land you own, which Moses the servant of Yehowah gave you on the other side of the Jordan River.
Jos 22:5 Just be extremely careful to observe the commandments and the law that Moses the servant of Yehowah commanded you, to love Yehowah your Divine One, to walk in all his Ways, to keep his commandments, and to cling to him and worship him with all your heart and with all your soul.”
Jos 22:6 So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went back to their tents.
Jos 22:7 Now to one-half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given an inheritance in Bashan, but to the other half, Joshua gave an inheritance beside their brothers in the land west of the Jordan River. Joshua sent them away to their tents; he blessed them,
Jos 22:8 “Return to your tents with much money, and with a large number of livestock, and with silver and gold, and with bronze and iron, and with a great number of garments. Divide the plunder from your enemies with your brothers.”
Jos 22:9 So the descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh returned home, leaving the people of Israel at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. They left to go to the region of Gilead, to their own land, which they themselves possessed, in obedience to the commandment of Yehowah, by the hand of Moses.
Jos 22:10 When they came to Geliloth (aka Gilgal) of the Jordan that is in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half tribe of Manasseh built an altar beside the Jordan River, a large and prominent altar.
Jos 22:11 The people of Israel heard about this and exclaimed, “Look! The people of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the front of the land of Canaan, at Geliloth, in the region near the Jordan River, on the side that belongs to the people of Israel!”

Jos 22:12 When the people of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the people of Israel gathered together at Shiloh to go up to make war against them.
Jos 22:13 Then the people of Israel sent messengers to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead. They also sent Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest,
Jos 22:14 and with him ten leaders, one from each of the ancestral families of Israel, and every one of them was the head of a clan within the people of Israel.
Jos 22:15 They came to the people of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they spoke to them:
Jos 22:16 "The whole congregation of Yehowah says this, 'What is this unfaithfulness that you have committed against the Mighty One of Israel, by turning this day from following Yehowah by building yourself an altar this day in rebellion against Yehowah?
Jos 22:17 Was our sin at Peor not enough for us? Yet we have not even now cleansed ourselves from it. For that sin, there came a plague on the congregation of Yehowah.
Jos 22:18 Must you also turn away from following Yehowah at this present day? If you also rebel against Yehowah today, tomorrow he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.
Jos 22:19 If the land that you possess is defiled, then you should pass over into the land where the tabernacle of Yehowah stands and take for yourselves a possession among us. Only do not rebel against Yehowah, nor rebel against us by building an altar for yourselves other than the altar of Yehowah our Divine One.
Jos 22:20 Did not Achan son of Zerah break faith in the matter of those things that had been reserved for Yehowah? Did not wrath fall on all the people of Israel? That man did not perish alone for his iniquity.'"
Jos 22:21 Then the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh replied in answer to the heads of the clans of Israel:
Jos 22:22 "Almighty Mighty One Yehowah! Almighty Mighty One Yehowah! He knows, and let Israel itself know! If it was in rebellion or in breach of faith against Yehowah, do not spare us on this day
Jos 22:23 for having built an altar to turn ourselves away from following Yehowah. If we built that altar in order to offer on it burnt offerings, grain offerings, or peace offerings, then let Yehowah make us pay for it.
Jos 22:24 No! We did it for fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, 'What have you to do with Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel?
Jos 22:25 For Yehowah has made the Jordan River a border between us and you. You people of Reuben and people of Gad, you have nothing to do with Yehowah.' So your children might make our children cease to worship Yehowah.

Jos 22:26 So we said, ‘Let us now build an altar, not for burnt offerings nor for any sacrifices,
Jos 22:27 but to be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we will perform the service of Yehowah before him, with our burnt offerings and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings, so that your children will never say to our children in time to come, “You have no share in Yehowah.”’
Jos 22:28 So we said, ‘If this should be said to us or to our descendants in time to come, we would say, “Look! This is a copy of the altar of Yehowah, which our ancestors made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you.”
Jos 22:29 May it be far from us that we should rebel against Yehowah, and today turn away from following him by building an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering, or for sacrifice, other than the altar of Yehowah our Divine One that is before his tabernacle.’”
Jos 22:30 When Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the people, that is, the heads of the clans of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh said, that it was good in their eyes.
Jos 22:31 Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest said to the people of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh, “Today we know that Yehowah is among us, because you have not committed this breach of faith against Yehowah. Now you have rescued the people of Israel out of the hand of Yehowah.”
Jos 22:32 Then Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, and the leaders returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites, out of the land of Gilead, back to the land of Canaan, to the people of Israel, and brought back word to them.
Jos 22:33 Their intelligence report was good in the eyes of the people of Israel. The people of Israel blessed the Almighty and spoke no more about making war against the Reubenites and the Gadites, in order to destroy the land where they had settled.
Jos 22:34 The Reubenites and the Gadites named the altar “Witness,” for they said, “It is a witness between us, that Yehowah is the Almighty.”

Joshua Chapter 23

Jos 23:1 After many days, when Yehowah had given rest to Israel from all their enemies around them, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years,
Jos 23:2 Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, for their leaders, for their judges, and for their officers, and he said to them, “I am extremely old.
Jos 23:3 You have seen everything that Yehowah your Divine One has done to all these ethnicities for your sake, for it is Yehowah your Divine One who has fought for you.
Jos 23:4 Look! I have assigned to you the ethnicities that remain to be conquered as an inheritance for your tribes, along with all the ethnicities I have already destroyed, from the Jordan River to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.
Jos 23:5 Yehowah your Divine One will drive them out. He will push them out from you. He will seize their land, and you will take possession of their land, just as Yehowah your Divine One promised to you.
Jos 23:6 So be extremely strong, so that you keep and do all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, turning aside from it neither to the right hand nor to the left,
Jos 23:7 so you may not mix with these ethnicities that remain among you or mention the names of their deities, swear by them, worship them, or bow down to them.
Jos 23:8 Instead, you must cling to Yehowah your Divine One just as you have done to this day.
Jos 23:9 For Yehowah has driven out before you large, strong ethnicities. As for you, no one has been able to stand before you to this present day.
Jos 23:10 Any single man of your number will make a thousand run away, for Yehowah your Divine One is the One who fights for you, just as he promised you.
Jos 23:11 Pay particular attention, so that you love Yehowah your Divine One.
Jos 23:12 But if you turn back and cling to the survivors of these ethnicities who remain among you, or if you intermarry with them, or if you come together with them and they with you,
Jos 23:13 then know for certain that Yehowah your Divine One will no longer drive these ethnicities out from among you. Instead, they will become a snare and a trap for you, whips on your backs and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land that Yehowah your Divine One has given you.
Jos 23:14 Now I am going the way of all the earth, and you know with all your hearts and souls that not one word has failed to come true of all the good things that Yehowah your Divine One promised about you. All these things have come about for you. Not one of them has failed.

Jos 23:15 But just as every word Yehowah your Divine One promised you has been fulfilled, so Yehowah will bring on you all the evil things, until he has destroyed you from this good land that Yehowah your Divine One has given you.
Jos 23:16 He will do this if you break the covenant of Yehowah your Divine One, which he commanded you to keep. If you go and worship false deities and bow down to them, then the anger of Yehowah will be kindled against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land that he has given you.”

Joshua Chapter 24

Jos 24:1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem and called for the elders of Israel, for their leaders, for their judges, and for their officers, and they presented themselves before the Almighty.
Jos 24:2 Joshua said to all the people, “This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says, ‘Your ancestors long ago lived beyond the Euphrates River, Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, and they worshiped false deities.
Jos 24:3 But I took your father from beyond the Euphrates and led him into the land of Canaan and gave him many descendants through his son Isaac.
Jos 24:4 Then to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau the hill country of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.
Jos 24:5 I sent Moses and Aaron, and I afflicted the Egyptians with plagues. After that, I brought you out.
Jos 24:6 I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, and you came to the SEA. The Egyptians pursued them with chariots and cavalry as far as the SEA.
Jos 24:7 When your ancestors called out to Yehowah, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians. He brought the SEA to come over them and cover them. You saw what I did in Egypt. Then you lived in the wilderness for a long time.
Jos 24:8 I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the other side of the Jordan River. They fought with you, and I gave them into your hand. You took possession of their land, and I destroyed them before you.
Jos 24:9 Then Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, rose up and attacked Israel. He sent and called for Balaam son of Beor, to curse you.
Jos 24:10 But I did not listen to Balaam. Indeed, he blessed you. So I rescued you out of his hand.
Jos 24:11 You went over the Jordan River and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho fought against you, along with the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hethites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. I gave you victory over them and put them under your control.
Jos 24:12 I sent the hornet before you, which drove them and the two kings of the Amorites out before you. It did not happen by your sword or by your bow.
Jos 24:13 I gave you land on which you had not worked and cities that you had not built, and now you live in them. You eat the fruit of vineyards and olive orchards that you did not plant.’
Jos 24:14 Now fear Yehowah and worship him with all integrity and faithfulness; get rid of the deities that your ancestors worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt, and worship Yehowah.
Jos 24:15 If it seems wrong in your eyes for you to worship Yehowah, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the deities your ancestors worshiped beyond the Euphrates, or the deities of the Amorites, in whose land you live. But as for me and my household, we will worship Yehowah.”

Jos 24:16 The people answered, “We would never forsake Yehowah to serve false deities,
Jos 24:17 for it is Yehowah our Divine One who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight, and who preserved us in all the way that we went, and among all the ethnicities through whom we passed.
Jos 24:18 Then Yehowah drove out before us all the people, including the Amorites who lived in the land. So we too will worship Yehowah, for he is our Divine One.”
Jos 24:19 But Joshua proclaimed to the people, “You cannot serve Yehowah, for he is a set-apart Divine One; he is a jealous Almighty; he will not forgive your transgressions and sins.
Jos 24:20 If you forsake Yehowah and worship foreign deities, then he will turn and do you harm. He will consume you, after he has done good to you.”
Jos 24:21 But the people replied to Joshua, “No, we will worship Yehowah.”
Jos 24:22 Then Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves Yehowah, to worship him.” They said, “We are witnesses.”
Jos 24:23 “Now put away the foreign deities that are with you, and turn your heart to Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.”
Jos 24:24 The people responded to Joshua, “We will worship Yehowah our Divine One. We will listen to his voice.”
Jos 24:25 Joshua made a covenant with the people that day. He put in place decrees and laws at Shechem.
Jos 24:26 Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of the Almighty. He took a large stone and set it up there beneath the oak tree that was beside the sanctuary of Yehowah.
Jos 24:27 Joshua said to all the people, “Look, this stone will be a testimony against us. It has heard all the words Yehowah said to us. So it will be a witness against you, should you ever deny your Divine One.”
Jos 24:28 So Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.
Jos 24:29 After these things, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of Yehowah, died, being 110 years old (c. 1586 BC).
Jos 24:30 They buried him within the border of his own inheritance, at Timnath Serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.
Jos 24:31 Israel worshiped Yehowah all of Joshua’s days, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, those who had experienced everything that Yehowah had done for Israel.

Jos 24:32 The bones of Joseph, which the people of Israel brought up out of Egypt, they buried them at Shechem, in the piece of land that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. He bought it for 100-weight of silver-currency, and it became an inheritance for the descendants of Joseph.
Jos 24:33 Eleazar son of Aaron also died. They buried him at Gibeah, the city of Phinehas his son, which had been given to him. It was in the hill country of Ephraim.

Book of Judges

Judges Chapter 1

Jdg 1:1 After the death of Joshua, the people of Israel asked Yehowah, “Who first will attack the Canaanites for us, to fight against them?”
Jdg 1:2 Yehowah answered, “Judah will attack. See, I have given them control of this land.”
Jdg 1:3 The men of Judah said to the men of Simeon, their brothers, “Come up with us into our territory that was assigned to us, that together we may fight against the Canaanites. We will likewise go with you to the territory that was assigned to you.” So the tribe of Simeon went with them.
Jdg 1:4 The men of Judah attacked, and Yehowah gave them victory over the Canaanites and the Perizzites. They killed ten thousand of them at Bezek.
Jdg 1:5 They found Adoni Bezek at Bezek, and they fought against him and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.
Jdg 1:6 But Adoni Bezek fled, and they pursued him and caught him, and they cut off his thumbs and his big toes.
Jdg 1:7 Adoni Bezek said, “Seventy kings, who had their thumbs and their big toes cut off, gathered their food from under my table. As I have done, even so the Almighty has done to me.” They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.
Jdg 1:8 The men of Judah fought against the city of Jerusalem and took it. They attacked it with the edge of the sword, and they set the city on fire.
Jdg 1:9 After that, the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, in the Negev, and the western foothills.
Jdg 1:10 Judah advanced against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron, the name of Hebron was previously Kiriath Arba, and they defeated Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.
Jdg 1:11 From there the men of Judah advanced against the inhabitants of Debir, the name of Debir was previously Kiriath Sepher.
Jdg 1:12 Caleb announced, “Whoever attacks Kiriath Sepher and takes it, I will give him Achsah, my daughter, to be his wife.”
Jdg 1:13 Othniel, son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, captured Debir, so Caleb gave him Achsah, his daughter, to be his wife.
Jdg 1:14 Soon Achsah came to Othniel, and she urged him to ask her father to give her a field. As she was getting off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What can I do for you?”

Jdg 1:15 She answered him, “Give me a blessing. Since you have given me the land of the Negev, also give me springs of water.” So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.
Jdg 1:16 The descendants of Moses’ father-in-law (Jethro) the Kenite went up from the City of Palms (Jericho) with the people of Judah, into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the Negev, to live with the people of Judah near Arad.
Jdg 1:17 The men of Judah went with the men of Simeon their brothers and they attacked the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath and they completely destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah.
Jdg 1:18 The people of Judah also captured Gaza and the land around it, Ashkelon and the land around it, and Ekron and the land around it.
Jdg 1:19 Yehowah was with the people of Judah and they took possession of the hill country, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the plains, because they had iron chariots.
Jdg 1:20 Hebron was given to Caleb, like Moses had said, and he drove out from there the three sons of Anak (giant).
Jdg 1:21 But the people of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem. So the Jebusites have lived with the people of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.
Jdg 1:22 The house of Joseph prepared to attack Bethel, and Yehowah was with them.
Jdg 1:23 They sent out men to spy on Bethel, the city that was formerly called Luz.
Jdg 1:24 The spies saw a man coming out of the city, and they entreated him, “Show us, please, how to get into the city, and we will be kind to you.”
Jdg 1:25 He showed them a way into the city, and so they attacked the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and all his family get away.
Jdg 1:26 Then the man went to the land of the (Old Empire) Hittites and built a city and called it Luz, which is its name to this day.
Jdg 1:27 The people of Manasseh did not drive out the people living in the cities of Beth Shan and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or those who lived in Dor and its villages, or those who lived in Ibleam and its villages, or those who lived in Megiddo and its villages, because the Canaanites were determined to live in that land.
Jdg 1:28 When Israel became strong, they forced the Canaanites to serve them with hard labor, but they never drove them out completely.
Jdg 1:29 Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so the Canaanites continued to live in Gezer among them.
Jdg 1:30 Zebulun did not drive out the people living in Kitron, or the people living in Nahalol, and so the Canaanites continued to live among them, but Zebulun forced the Canaanites to serve them with hard labor.

Jdg 1:31 Asher did not drive out the people living in Acco, or the people living in Sidon, or those living in Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob.
Jdg 1:32 So the tribe of Asher lived among the Canaanites, those who lived in the land, because they did not drive them out.
Jdg 1:33 The tribe of Naphtali did not drive out those who were living in Beth Shemesh, or those living in Beth Anath. So the tribe of Naphtali lived among the Canaanites, the people who were living in that land. However, the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were forced into hard labor for Naphtali.
Jdg 1:34 The Amorites forced the tribe of Dan to live in the hill country, not allowing them to come down to the plain.
Jdg 1:35 So the Amorites lived at Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, but the military might of the house of Joseph conquered them, and they were forced to serve them with hard labor.
Jdg 1:36 The border of the Amorites ran from the Ascent of Scorpions at the rock up into the hill country.

Judges Chapter 2

Jdg 2:1 The angel of Yehowah went up from Gilgal to Bochim and said, “I brought you up from Egypt and have brought you to the land I swore to give to your fathers. I declared, ‘I will never break my covenant with you.
Jdg 2:2 You must make no covenant with those who live in this land. You must tear down their altars.’ But you have not listened to my voice. What is this that you have done?
Jdg 2:3 So now I declare, ‘I will not drive the Canaanites out before you, but they will become thorns in your sides, and their deities will become a trap for you.’”
Jdg 2:4 When the angel of Yehowah spoke these words to all the people of Israel, the people shouted and wept.
Jdg 2:5 They called that place Bochim. There they offered sacrifices to Yehowah.
Jdg 2:6 Now when Joshua had sent the people on their way, the people of Israel each went to the place assigned, to take ownership of their land.
Jdg 2:7 The people served Yehowah during the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him, those who had seen all of the great deeds of Yehowah he had done for Israel.
Jdg 2:8 Joshua son of Nun the servant of Yehowah, died at the age of 110 years old (c. 1586 BC).
Jdg 2:9 They buried him within the border of the land he was assigned in Timnath Serah, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.
Jdg 2:10 All that generation was also gathered to their fathers. Another generation grew up after them who did not know Yehowah, or what he had done for Israel.
Jdg 2:11 The people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, and they served the Baals.
Jdg 2:12 They broke away from Yehowah, Mighty One of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt. They went after false deities, the deities of the people who were around them, and they bowed down to them. They provoked Yehowah to anger,
Jdg 2:13 because they broke away from Yehowah and worshiped Baal and the Ashtoreths.
Jdg 2:14 The anger of Yehowah burned against Israel, and he gave them to the raiders who stole their possessions from them. He sold them as slaves who were held by the strength of their enemies around them, so they could no longer defend themselves against their enemies.

Jdg 2:15 Wherever Israel went out to fight, the hand Yehowah was against them to defeat them, just as Yehowah had sworn to them, and they were in terrible distress.
Jdg 2:16 Then Yehowah raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who were stealing their possessions.
Jdg 2:17 Yet they would not listen to their judges. They gave themselves like prostitutes to false deities and worshiped them. They soon turned aside from the Way their fathers had lived, those who had obeyed the commandments of Yehowah, but they themselves did not do so.
Jdg 2:18 When Yehowah raised up judges for them, Yehowah helped the judges and rescued them from the hand of their enemies all the days the judge lived. Yehowah had pity on them as they groaned, because of those who oppressed them and afflicted them.
Jdg 2:19 But when the judge died, they would turn away and do things that were even more corrupt than their fathers had done. They would go after false deities to serve them and worship them. They refused to give up any of their evil practices or their stubborn ways.
Jdg 2:20 The anger of Yehowah burned against Israel; he declared, “Because this Israeli nation has broken the terms of my covenant that I had set in place for their fathers, because they have not listened to my voice, Jdg 2:21 I will not, from now on, drive out from before them any of the ethnicities that Joshua left when he died.
Jdg 2:22 I will do this, so that I may test Israel, whether or not they will keep the Way of Yehowah and walk in it, as their fathers kept it.”
Jdg 2:23 That is why Yehowah left those ethnicities and did not drive them out quickly and give them into the hand of Joshua.

Judges Chapter 3

Jdg 3:1 Now Yehowah left these ethnicities to test Israel, namely everyone in Israel who had not experienced any of the wars fought in Canaan.
Jdg 3:2 He did this to teach warfare to the new generation of the Israelis who had not known it before.
Jdg 3:3 These are the ethnicities: The five kings from the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived in the Lebanon mountains, from Mount Baal Hermon to Hamath Pass.
Jdg 3:4 These ethnicities were left as a means by which Yehowah would test Israel, to confirm whether they would obey the commands he gave their ancestors through Moses.
Jdg 3:5 So the people of Israel lived among the Canaanites, the Hethites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
Jdg 3:6 Their daughters they took to be their wives, and their own daughters they gave to their sons, and they served their deities.
Jdg 3:7 The people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah and forgot Yehowah their Divine One. They worshiped the Baals and the Asherahs.
Jdg 3:8 Therefore, the anger of Yehowah was set on fire against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cushan Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim. The people of Israel served Cushan Rishathaim for eight years (c. 1552 BC).
Jdg 3:9 When the people of Israel called out to Yehowah, Yehowah raised up someone who would come to help the people of Israel, and who would rescue them: Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.
Jdg 3:10 The Ruach of Yehowah empowered him, and he judged Israel, and he went out to war. Yehowah gave him victory over Cushan Rishathaim king of Aram. The hand of Othniel defeated Cushan Rishathaim (c. 1544 BC).
Jdg 3:11 The land had peace for forty years. Then Othniel son of Kenaz died (c. 1505 BC).
Jdg 3:12 After that, the Israelis again did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, and Yehowah gave strength to Eglon king of Moab to overpower the Israelis.
Jdg 3:13 Eglon joined with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, and they went and defeated Israel, and they took possession of the City of Palms (Jericho).
Jdg 3:14 The people of Israel served Eglon the king of Moab for eighteen years (c. 1504 BC).
Jdg 3:15 When the people of Israel called out to Yehowah, Yehowah raised up someone who would help them, Ehud son of Gera, a Benjamite, a left-handed man. The people of Israel sent him, with their tribute payment, to Eglon king of Moab (c. 1486 BC).

Jdg 3:16 Ehud made himself a sword that had two edges, one-half meter in length; he strapped it on under his clothing on his right thigh.
Jdg 3:17 He gave the tribute payment to King Eglon of Moab. Now Eglon was an excessively fat man.
Jdg 3:18 After Ehud had presented the tribute payment, he left with those who had carried it in.
Jdg 3:19 As for Ehud himself, however, when he reached the place where the carved images were made near Gilgal, he turned and went back, and he announced, “I have a secret message for you, my king.” Eglon shouted, “Silence!” So all those serving him left the royal toilet.
Jdg 3:20 Ehud came to him. The king was sitting by himself, alone in the coolness of the royal toilet. Ehud said, “I have a message from the Almighty for you.” The king rose up off of his toilet seat.
Jdg 3:22 The hilt of the sword also went into him following the blade. The tip of the sword came out of his back and the fat closed over it, for Ehud did not pull the sword out of his belly, and his feces came out.
Jdg 3:23 Then Ehud went toward the porch, closed the doors of the royal toilet, and locked himself inside.
Jdg 3:24 After Ehud had gone down the stairway and out through the cesspit, the king’s servants came; they saw that the doors of the royal toilet were locked, so they thought, “Surely he is relieving himself in the coolness of the royal toilet.”
Jdg 3:25 They were growing more concerned, until they felt they were neglecting their duty, when the king still did not open the doors to the royal toilet. So they took the key and opened them, and there lay their master, fallen to the floor, dead.
Jdg 3:26 While the servants were waiting, wondering what they should do, Ehud escaped and passed beyond the place where there were carved images of idols, and so he escaped to Seirah.
Jdg 3:27 When he arrived, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim. Then the people of Israel went down with him from the hills, and he was leading them.
Jdg 3:28 He called to them, “Follow me, for Yehowah is about to defeat your enemies, the Moabites!” They followed him, and they captured the fords of the Jordan River across from the Moabites, and they did not allow anyone to cross the river.
Jdg 3:29 At that time, they killed about ten thousand men of Moab, and all were strong and capable men. Not one escaped.
Jdg 3:30 So that day Moab was subdued by the strength of Israel, and the land had rest for eighty years (c. 1407 BC).

Jdg 3:31 After Ehud, the next judge was Shamgar son of Anath, who killed 600 men of the Philistines with a stick used to goad the cattle. He also delivered Israel from danger.

Judges Chapter 4

Jdg 4:1 After Ehud died (c. 1407 BC), the people of Israel once again did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah.
Jdg 4:2 Yehowah sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his military force was named Sisera, and he lived in Harosheth of the ethnicities.
Jdg 4:3 The people of Israel called out to Yehowah for help, because Jabin had nine hundred iron chariots, and he oppressed the people of Israel with force for twenty years (c. 1406 BC).
Jdg 4:4 Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was a leading judge in Israel at that time.
Jdg 4:5 She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the people of Israel came to her to settle their disputes.
Jdg 4:6 She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali. She said to him, "Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, commands you, 'Go to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men from Naphtali and Zebulun.
Jdg 4:7 I will draw out Sisera, the commander of Jabin's military force, to meet you by the river Kishon, with his chariots and his military force, and I will give you victory over him.'"
Jdg 4:8 Barak replied to her, "If you go with me, I will go, but if you do not go with me, I will not go."
Jdg 4:9 She responded, "I will certainly go with you. However, the road on which you are going will not lead to your honor, for Yehowah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Then Deborah rose up and went with Barak to Kedesh.
Jdg 4:10 Barak called for the men of Zebulun and Naphtali to come together at Kedesh. Ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah went along with him.
Jdg 4:11 Now Heber, the Kenite, had separated himself from the Kenites, they were the descendants of Hobab, son of Reuel (Jethro), Moses' father-in-law, and he pitched his tent by the oak in Zaanannim near Kedesh.
Jdg 4:12 When they told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor,
Jdg 4:13 Sisera called out all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots, and all the soldiers who were with him, from Harosheth of the ethnicities to the Kishon River.
Jdg 4:14 Deborah ordered Barak, "Go! For this is the day in which Yehowah has given you victory over Sisera. Is not Yehowah leading you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

Jdg 4:15 Yehowah made Sisera's military force confused, including all his chariots. Barak's men attacked them, and Sisera got down from his chariot and ran away on foot.
Jdg 4:16 But Barak pursued the chariots and the military force to Harosheth of the ethnicities, and the whole military force of Sisera was killed by the edge of the sword, and not a man survived.
Jdg 4:17 But Sisera ran away on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between Jabin, the king of Hazor, and the house of Heber the Kenite.
Jdg 4:18 Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Turn aside, my master; turn aside to me and do not be afraid." So he turned aside to her and came into her tent, and she covered him with a blanket.
Jdg 4:19 He requested her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." She opened a leather bag of milk and gave him a drink, and then she covered him up again.
Jdg 4:20 He ordered her, "Stand at the opening of the tent. If someone comes and asks you, 'Is anyone here?' say, 'No.'"
Jdg 4:21 Then Jael, the wife of Heber, took a tent peg and a hammer in her hand and went in secretly to him, for he was in a deep sleep, and she hammered the tent peg into the side of his head and it pierced through him and went down into the ground, and he died.
Jdg 4:22 As Barak was pursuing Sisera, Jael went out to meet him and said to him, "Come, I will show you the man you are looking for." So he went in with her, and there lay Sisera dead, with the tent peg in the side of his head.
Jdg 4:23 So on that day, the Almighty defeated Jabin, the king of Canaan, before the people of Israel (c. 1387 BC).
Jdg 4:24 The might of the people of Israel grew stronger and stronger against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they destroyed him.

Judges Chapter 5

Jdg 5:1 On that day, Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:
Jdg 5:2 “When the leaders take the lead in Israel, when the people gladly volunteer for war, we praise Yehowah!
Jdg 5:3 Listen, you kings! Pay attention, you leaders! I, I will sing to Yehowah; I will sing praises to Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel!
Jdg 5:4 Yehowah, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from Edom, the earth shook, and the skies also trembled; also the clouds poured down water.
Jdg 5:5 The mountains quaked before the face of Yehowah; even Mount Sinai quaked before the face of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
Jdg 5:6 In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the main roads were abandoned, and those who walked only used the winding paths.
Jdg 5:7 There were few warriors in Israel, until I, Deborah, took command, a mother took command in Israel!
Jdg 5:8 When they chose new deities, there was fighting at the city gates, and yet there were no shields or spears seen among forty thousand in Israel.
Jdg 5:9 My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel, along with the people who gladly volunteered, we bless Yehowah for them!
Jdg 5:10 Think about this, you who ride on white donkeys sitting on rugs for saddles, and you who walk along the road.
Jdg 5:11 Hear the voices of those who sing at the watering places. There they tell again of the righteous deeds of Yehowah, and the righteous actions of his warriors in Israel. Then the people of Yehowah went down to the city gates.
Jdg 5:12 Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, sing a song! Get up, Barak, and capture your prisoners, you son of Abinoam.
Jdg 5:13 Then the survivors came down to the nobles; the people of Yehowah came down to me with the warriors.
Jdg 5:14 They came from Ephraim, whose root is in Amalek; the people of Benjamin followed you. From Machir commanders came down, and from Zebulun those who carry an officer’s staff.
Jdg 5:15 My princes in Issachar were with Deborah; and Issachar was with Barak rushing after him into the valley under his command. Among the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.
Jdg 5:16 Why did you sit between the sheepfolds, listening to the shepherds playing their pipes for their flocks? As for the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.
Jdg 5:17 Gilead stayed on the other side of the Jordan River; and Dan, why did he wander about on ships? Asher remained on the coast and lived close to his harbors.

Jdg 5:18 Zebulun was a tribe who would risk their lives to the point of death, and Naphtali, also, on the field of battle.
Jdg 5:19 The kings came, they fought; the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo. But they took away no silver as plunder.
Jdg 5:21 The Kishon River swept them away, that old river, the Kishon River. March on my soul, be strong!
Jdg 5:22 Then the sound of horses' hooves, galloping, the galloping of his powerful horses.
Jdg 5:23 'Curse Meroz!' declares the angel of Yehowah. 'Surely curse its inhabitants, because they did not come to help Yehowah, to help Yehowah in the battle against the mighty warriors.'
Jdg 5:24 Jael is blessed more than all other women, Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; she is more blessed than all the women who live in tents.
Jdg 5:25 The man asked for water, and she gave him milk; she brought him butter in a dish fit for princes.
Jdg 5:26 She put her hand to the tent peg, and her right hand to the workman's hammer; with the hammer she struck Sisera, she crushed his head. She smashed his skull into pieces, when she pierced him through the side of his head.
Jdg 5:27 He collapsed between her feet, he fell, and he lay there. Between her feet he fell limp. The place he collapsed is where he was violently killed.
Jdg 5:28 Out of a window she looked, the mother of Sisera looked through the lattice, and she called out in sadness, 'Why has it taken his chariot so long to come? Why have the hoofbeats of the horses that pull his chariots been delayed?'
Jdg 5:29 Her wisest princesses replied, and she gave herself the same answer:
Jdg 5:30 'Have they not found and divided up the plunder? A maiden, two maidens for every man; the plunder of dyed fabric for Sisera, the plunder of dyed fabric embroidered, two pieces of dyed fabric embroidered for the necks of those who plunder?'
Jdg 5:31 So may all your enemies perish, Yehowah! But your friends will be like the sun when it rises in its might." Then the land had peace for forty years (c. 1386 BC).

Judges Chapter 6

Jdg 6:1 The people of Israel did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, and he gave them into the hand of Midian for seven years (c. 1346 BC).
Jdg 6:2 The power of Midian oppressed Israel. Because of Midian, the people of Israel made shelters for themselves from the dens in the hills, the caves, and the strongholds.
Jdg 6:3 It happened that any time the Israelis planted their crops, the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the people from the East would attack the Israelis.
Jdg 6:4 They would set up their military force on the land and destroy the crops, all the way to Gaza. They would leave no food in Israel, and no sheep, nor cattle, or donkeys.
Jdg 6:5 Whenever they, their livestock, and tents came up, they would come as a swarm of locusts, and it was impossible to count either the people or their camels. They invaded the land in order to destroy it.
Jdg 6:6 Midian weakened the Israelis so severely, that the people of Israel called out to Yehowah.
Jdg 6:7 When the people of Israel called out to Yehowah because of Midian, Jdg 6:8 Yehowah sent a prophet to the people of Israel. The prophet said to them, “This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says: ‘I brought you up from Egypt; I brought you out of the house of slavery.
Jdg 6:9 I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all who were oppressing you. I drove them out before you, and I gave you their land.
Jdg 6:10 I declared to you, “I am Yehowah your Divine One; I commanded you not to worship the deities of the Amorites, in whose land you are living.” But you have not obeyed my voice.’”
Jdg 6:11 Now the angel of Yehowah came and sat under the oak in Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while Gideon, Joash’s son, was threshing wheat at the farmstead to hide it from the Midianites.
Jdg 6:12 The angel of Yehowah appeared to him and said to him, “Yehowah is with you, you strong warrior!”
Jdg 6:13 Gideon responded to him, “Oh, my master, if Yehowah is with us, why then has all this happened to us? Where are all his wonderful deeds that our fathers told us about, when they asked, ‘Did not Yehowah bring us up from Egypt?’ But now, Yehowah has abandoned us and has given us into the hand of Midian.”
Jdg 6:14 Yehowah looked at him and commanded, “Go in the strength you already have. Deliver Israel from the hand of Midian. Have I not sent you?”

Jdg 6:15 Gideon replied to him, “Please, Lord, how can I deliver Israel? See, my family is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least important in my father’s household.”
Jdg 6:16 Yehowah answered him, “I will be with you, and you will defeat the entire Midianite military force as one man.”
Jdg 6:17 Gideon responded to him, “If now I have found grace in your eyes, then give me a sign that it is you who is speaking to me.
Jdg 6:18 Please, do not leave here, until I come to you, bring out my gift, and set it before you.” Yehowah replied, “I will wait until you return.”
Jdg 6:19 Gideon went and prepared a young goat, and from 22 liters of flour he made unleavened bread. He put the meat in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot and brought them to him under the oak tree, and presented them.
Jdg 6:20 The angel of the Almighty ordered him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread and put them on this rock, and pour out the broth over them.” That is what Gideon did.
Jdg 6:21 Then the angel of Yehowah reached out with the end of the trekking pole in his hand. With it he touched the flesh and the unleavened bread; a fire went up out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. Then the angel of Yehowah went away, and Gideon could no longer see him.
Jdg 6:22 Gideon understood that this was the angel of Yehowah. Gideon exclaimed, “Ah, Lord Yehowah! For I have seen the angel of Yehowah face to face!”
Jdg 6:23 Yehowah comforted him, “Peace to you! Do not be afraid, you will not die.”
Jdg 6:24 So Gideon built an altar there to Yehowah. He called it, “Yehowah-Shalom.” To this day it still stands at Ophrah of the clan of Abiezer.
Jdg 6:25 That night Yehowah ordered him, “Take your father’s bull, and a second bull that is seven years old, and pull apart the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it.
Jdg 6:26 Build an altar to Yehowah your Divine One on the top of this place of refuge, and construct it the correct way. Offer the second bull as a burnt offering, using the wood from the Asherah that you cut down.”
Jdg 6:27 So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as Yehowah had told him. But because he was too afraid of his father’s household and the men of the town to do it during the day, he did it at night.
Jdg 6:28 At dawn, when the men of the town arose, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah that was beside it was cut down, and the second bull had been offered on the altar that had been built.
Jdg 6:29 The men of the city asked one another, “Who has done this?” When they talked with others and searched for answers, they concluded, “Gideon son of Joash has done this thing.”

Jdg 6:30 Then the men of the town said to Joash, “Bring out your son, so that he may be executed, because he pulled apart the altar of Baal, and because he cut down the Asherah beside it.”
Jdg 6:31 Joash replied to all who opposed him, “Will you plead the case for Baal? Will you save him? Whoever pleads the case for him, let him be executed while it is still morning. If Baal is a deity, let him defend himself when someone pulls his altar apart.”
Jdg 6:32 Therefore, on that day they called Gideon “Jerub Baal” (may the Lord be great), as he said, “Let Baal defend himself against him,” because Gideon broke down Baal’s altar.
Jdg 6:33 Now all the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the people of the East gathered together. They crossed over the Jordan River and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.
Jdg 6:34 But the Ruach of Yehowah came over Gideon. Gideon blew a trumpet, calling out the clan of Abiezer, so they might follow him.
Jdg 6:35 He sent messengers all throughout Manasseh, and they too, were called out to follow him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet him.
Jdg 6:36 Gideon said to the Almighty, “If you intend to use me to save Israel, as you have said,
Jdg 6:37 look, I am putting a woolen fleece on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece, and it is dry on all the ground, then I will know that you will use me to save Israel, as you said.”
Jdg 6:38 This is what happened, Gideon rose early the next morning, he pressed the fleece together, and wrung out the dew from the fleece, enough to fill a bowl with water.
Jdg 6:39 Then Gideon said to the Almighty, “Do not be angry with me, I will speak one more time. Please allow me one more test using the fleece. This time make the fleece dry and let there be dew on all the ground around it.”
Jdg 6:40 The Almighty did what he asked for that night. The fleece was dry, and there was dew on all the ground around it.

Judges Chapter 7

Jdg 7:1 Then Jerub Baal, that is, Gideon, rose up early, and all the people who were with him, and they encamped beside the spring of Harod. The military force of Midian was to their north in the valley near the hill of Moreh.
Jdg 7:2 Yehowah said to Gideon, “There are too many soldiers for me to give you victory over the Midianites, so that Israel may not boast over me, saying, ‘Our own power has saved us.’
Jdg 7:3 Now therefore, proclaim in the ears of the people, ‘Whoever is afraid, whoever trembles, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.’” So twenty-two thousand people went away, and ten thousand remained.
Jdg 7:4 Yehowah said to Gideon, “The people are still too many. Take them down to the water, and I will make their number smaller for you there. If I say to you, ‘This one will go with you,’ he will go with you; but if I say, ‘This one will not go with you,’ he will not go.”
Jdg 7:5 So Gideon brought the people down to the water, and Yehowah said to him, “Separate everyone who laps up the water, as a dog laps, from those who kneel down to drink.”
Jdg 7:6 Three hundred men lapped. The rest of the men kneeled down to drink water.
Jdg 7:7 Yehowah said to Gideon, “With the three hundred men who lapped, I will rescue you and give you victory over the Midianites. Let every other man go back to his own place.”
Jdg 7:8 So those who were chosen took their supplies and their trumpets. Gideon sent away all the men of Israel, every man to his tent, but he kept the three hundred men. Now the Midian military camp was down below him in the valley.
Jdg 7:9 That same night Yehowah ordered him, “Get up! Attack the military camp, for I am going to give you victory over it.
Jdg 7:10 But if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp with Purah your servant,
Jdg 7:11 and listen to what they are saying, and your courage will be strengthened to attack the camp.” So Gideon went with Purah his servant down to the guard posts of the military camp.
Jdg 7:12 The Midianites, the Amalekites, and all the people of the East settled along in the valley, as thick as a cloud of locusts. Their camels were more than could be counted; they were more in number than the grains of sand on the seashore.
Jdg 7:13 When Gideon arrived there, a man was telling a dream to his companion. The man said, “Look! I had a dream, and I saw a round loaf of barley bread tumbling into the military camp of Midian. It came to the tent, and hit it so hard that it fell down and turned it upside down, so that it lay flat.”

Jdg 7:14 The other man interpreted, “This is nothing other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, the Israeli. The Almighty has given him victory over Midian and all their military force.”
Jdg 7:15 When Gideon heard the retelling of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed down in worship. He went back to the camp of Israel and shouted, “Get up! Yehowah has given you victory over the Midian military force!”
Jdg 7:16 He divided the three hundred men into three groups, and he gave them all trumpets and empty jars, with torches inside each jar.
Jdg 7:17 He ordered them, “Look at me and do what I do. Watch! When I come to the edge of the camp, you must do what I do.
Jdg 7:18 When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then blow your trumpets also on every side of the entire camp and shout, ‘For Yehowah and for Gideon!’”
Jdg 7:19 So Gideon and the hundred men who were with him came to the edge of the camp, right at the beginning of the middle watch. Just as the Midianites were changing guard, they blew the trumpets and broke the jars that were in their hands.
Jdg 7:20 The three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars. They held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands to blow them. They shouted out, “The sword of Yehowah and of Gideon!”
Jdg 7:21 Every man stood in his place around the camp and all the Midianite military force ran. They shouted and ran away.
Jdg 7:22 When they blew the three hundred trumpets, Yehowah set every Midianite man’s sword against his comrades and against all their military force. The military force fled as far as Beth Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, near Tabbath.
Jdg 7:23 The men of Israel from Naphtali, Asher, and all Manasseh were called out, and they went after Midian.
Jdg 7:24 Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, commanding, “Go down against Midian and take control of the Jordan River, as far as Beth Barah, to stop them.” So all the men of Ephraim gathered together and took control of the waters, as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan River.
Jdg 7:25 They captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and they killed Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They went after the Midianites, and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was on the other side of the Jordan River.

Judges Chapter 8

Jdg 8:1 The men of Ephraim said to Gideon, “What is this you have done to us? You did not call us when you went to fight against Midian.” Then they had a violent argument with him.
Jdg 8:2 He asked them, “What have I done now compared to you? Are not the gleanings of Ephraim’s grapes better than the full grape harvest of Abiezer?
Jdg 8:3 The Almighty has given you victory over the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb! What have I accomplished compared to you?” Their anger toward him died down when he said this.
Jdg 8:4 Gideon came to the Jordan River and crossed over it, he and the three hundred men who were with him. They were exhausted, yet they still kept up the pursuit.
Jdg 8:5 He said to the men of Succoth, “Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”
Jdg 8:6 Then the officials asked, “Are the palms (as proof-of-death) of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand? Why should we give bread to your military force?”
Jdg 8:7 Gideon answered, “When Yehowah has given us victory over Zebah and Zalmunna, I will tear your skin with the desert thorns and briers.”
Jdg 8:8 He went up from there to Penuel and spoke to the people there in the same way, but the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered.
Jdg 8:9 He spoke also to the men of Penuel, “When I come again in peace, I will pull down this tower.”
Jdg 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their military force, about fifteen thousand men, all who remained out of the entire military force of the people of the East, for there had fallen 120,000 men who were trained to fight with the sword.
Jdg 8:11 Gideon went up the road taken by nomadic tent dwellers, past Nobah and Jogbehah. He defeated the enemy military force, because they were not expecting an attack.
Jdg 8:12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and as Gideon pursued them, he captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and set their whole military force into a panic.
Jdg 8:13 Gideon, son of Joash, returned from the battle going through the pass of Heres.

Jdg 8:14 He ran into a young man of the people of Succoth and sought advice from him. The young man wrote down for him the leaders of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.
Jdg 8:15 Gideon came to the men of Succoth and said, “Look at Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you mocked me and said, ‘Have you already conquered Zebah and Zalmunna? We do not know that we should give bread to your military force.’”
Jdg 8:16 Gideon took the elders of the city, and he punished the men of Succoth with the desert thorns and briers.
Jdg 8:17 Then he pulled down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of that city.
Jdg 8:18 Then Gideon asked Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?” They answered, “As you are, so were they. Every one of them looked like the son of a king.”
Jdg 8:19 Gideon responded, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As Yehowah lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you.”
Jdg 8:20 He ordered Jether his firstborn, “Get up and kill them!” But the young man did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a young boy.
Jdg 8:21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Get up yourself and kill us! For as the man is, so is his strength.” Gideon rose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna. He also took off the crescent-shaped ornaments that were on their camels’ necks.
Jdg 8:22 Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, you, your son, and your grandson, because you have saved us out of the hand of Midian.”
Jdg 8:23 Gideon responded to them, “I will not rule over you, neither will my son rule over you. Yehowah will rule over you.”
Jdg 8:24 Gideon said to them, “Let me make a request of you: That every one of you would give me the earrings from his plunder.” The Midianites had golden earrings because they were Ishmaelites.
Jdg 8:25 They answered, “We are glad to give them to you.” They spread out a cloak and every man threw on it the earrings from his plunder.
Jdg 8:26 The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was twenty kilograms of gold. This plunder was in addition to the crescent ornaments, the pendants, the purple clothing that was worn by the kings of Midian, and in addition to the chains that had been around their camels’ necks.
Jdg 8:27 Gideon made an ephod out of the earrings and put it in his city, in Ophrah, and all Israel prostituted themselves by worshiping it there. It became a trap for Gideon and for those in his household.
Jdg 8:28 So Midian was subdued before the people of Israel, and they did not raise their heads up again. So the land had peace for forty years in the days of Gideon (c. 1339 BC).
Jdg 8:29 Jerub Baal, son of Joash, went and lived in his own house.

Jdg 8:30 Gideon had seventy sons who were his descendants, for he had many wives.
Jdg 8:31 His concubine, who was in Shechem, also bore him a son, and Gideon gave him the name Abimelech.
Jdg 8:32 Gideon, son of Joash, died at a good old age and was buried in Ophrah in the tomb of Joash his father, of the clan of Abiezer.
Jdg 8:33 It came about, as soon as Gideon was dead (c. 1300 BC), the people of Israel turned again and prostituted themselves by worshiping the Baals. They made Baal Berith their deity.
Jdg 8:34 The people of Israel did not remember to honor Yehowah their Divine One, who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies on every side.
Jdg 8:35 They did not keep their promises to the house of Jerub Baal, that is, Gideon, in return for all the good he had done in Israel.

Judges Chapter 9

Jdg 9:1 Abimelech son of Jerub Baal (Gideon) went to his mother's relatives at Shechem, and he said to them and to the whole clan of his mother's family (c. 1299 BC),
Jdg 9:2 "Please say this, so that all the leaders in Shechem may hear, 'Which is better for you: To have all seventy sons of Jerub Baal rule over you, or that just one rule over you?' Remember that I am your bone and your flesh."
Jdg 9:3 His mother's relatives spoke for him to the leaders of Shechem, and they agreed to follow Abimelech, for they affirmed, "He is our brother."
Jdg 9:4 They gave him 70-weight silver-currency out of the house of Baal Berith, and Abimelech used it to hire men of lawless and reckless character, who followed him.
Jdg 9:5 Abimelech went to his father's house at Ophrah, and upon one stone he murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerub Baal. Only Jotham was left, the youngest son of Jerub Baal, for he hid himself.
Jdg 9:6 All the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo came together, and they went and made Abimelech king, beside the oak near the pillar which is in Shechem.
Jdg 9:7 When Jotham was told about this, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim. He shouted to them, "Listen to me, you leaders of Shechem, so that the Almighty may listen to you!
Jdg 9:8 The trees once went out to anoint a king over them. For they entreated the olive tree, 'Reign over us.'
Jdg 9:9 But the olive tree asked them, 'Should I give up my oil, which is used to honor deities and mankind, so I may return, just to sway over the other trees?'
Jdg 9:10 The trees entreated the fig tree, 'Come and reign over us.'
Jdg 9:11 But the fig tree asked them, 'Should I give up my sweetness and my good fruit, just so I could return and sway over the other trees?'
Jdg 9:12 The trees entreated the vine, 'Come and reign over us.'
Jdg 9:13 The vine asked them, 'Should I give up my new wine, which cheers deities and mankind, and return and sway over the other trees?'
Jdg 9:14 Then said all the trees to the thorn bush, 'Come and reign over us.'
Jdg 9:15 The thorn bush replied to the trees, 'If you truly want to anoint me as king over you, then come and find safety under my shade. If not, then let fire come out of the thorn bush and let it burn up the cedars of Lebanon.'
Jdg 9:16 Now therefore, if you have acted in truth and honesty, when you made Abimelech king, and if you have done well concerning Jerub Baal and his household, and if you have punished him as he deserves,
Jdg 9:17 and to think that my father fought for you, risked his life, and rescued you out of the hand of Midian,

Jdg 9:18 but today you have risen up against my father's household and have murdered his sons, seventy persons, upon one stone. Then you have made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the leaders of Shechem, because he is your relative.
Jdg 9:19 If you acted with honesty and integrity with Jerub Baal and his household, then you should rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you.
Jdg 9:20 But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and burn up the men of Shechem and Beth Millo. Let fire come out from the men of Shechem and Beth Millo, to burn up Abimelech."
Jdg 9:21 Jotham fled and ran away, and he went to Beer. He lived there, because it was far away from Abimelech, his brother.
Jdg 9:22 Abimelech ruled over Israel for three years (c. 1299 BC).
Jdg 9:23 The Almighty sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem. The leaders of Shechem betrayed the trust they had with Abimelech.
Jdg 9:24 Yehowah did this, so the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerub Baal might be avenged, and Abimelech their brother would be held responsible for murdering them, and the men of Shechem would be held responsible, because they helped him murder his brothers.
Jdg 9:25 So the leaders of Shechem positioned men to lie in wait on the hilltops that they might ambush him, and they robbed all who passed by them along that road. This was reported to Abimelech.
Jdg 9:26 Gaal son of Ebed came with his relatives, and they went over to Shechem. The leaders of Shechem had confidence in him.
Jdg 9:27 They went out into the field and gathered grapes from the vineyards, and they trampled on them. They held a festival in the house of their deity, where they ate and drank, and they cursed Abimelech.
Jdg 9:28 Gaal son of Ebed, asked, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerub Baal? Is Zebul not his officer? Serve the men of Hamor, Shechem's father! Why should we serve Abimelech?
Jdg 9:29 I wish that this people were under my command! Then would I remove Abimelech. I would say to Abimelech, 'Call out all your military force.'"
Jdg 9:30 When Zebul, the official of the city, heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed his anger was kindled.
Jdg 9:31 He sent messengers to Abimelech in order to deceive, saying, "See, Gaal son of Ebed and his relatives are coming to Shechem, and they are stirring up the city against you.
Jdg 9:32 Now get up during the night, you and the soldiers with you, and prepare an ambush in the fields.
Jdg 9:33 Then at dawn, as soon as the sun is up, rise early and make a raid on the city. When he and the people with him come out against you, do whatever you can to them."

Jdg 9:34 So Abimelech rose up during the night, he and all the men who were with him, and they set an ambush against Shechem, dividing into four units.
Jdg 9:35 Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the city gate. Abimelech and the men who were with him came out of their hiding place.
Jdg 9:36 When Gaal saw the men, he exclaimed to Zebul, “See, men are coming down from the hilltops!” Zebul said to him, “You are seeing the shadows on the hills like they are men.”
Jdg 9:37 Gaal spoke again, “Look, men are coming down in the middle of the land, and one unit is coming by way of the oak of the diviners!”
Jdg 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, “Where are your proud words now, you who asked, ‘Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?’ Are these not the men you despised? Go out now and fight against them.”
Jdg 9:39 Gaal went out, and he was leading the men of Shechem, and he fought Abimelech.
Jdg 9:40 Abimelech chased him, and Gaal fled before him. Many fell with deadly wounds before the entrance to the city gate.
Jdg 9:41 Abimelech stayed in Arumah. Zebul forced Gaal and his relatives out of Shechem.
Jdg 9:42 On the next day, the people of Shechem went out into the field, and this was reported to Abimelech.
Jdg 9:43 He took his people, divided them into three units, and they set an ambush in the fields. He looked and saw the people coming out from the city, and he attacked and killed them.
Jdg 9:44 Abimelech and the units that were with him attacked and blocked the entrance to the city gate. The other two units attacked all who were in the field and killed them.
Jdg 9:45 Abimelech fought against the city all that day. He captured the city and killed the people who were in it. He tore down the city walls and spread salt over it.
Jdg 9:46 When all the leaders of the tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered the stronghold of the house of El Berith.
Jdg 9:47 Abimelech was told that all the leaders had gathered together at the tower of Shechem.
Jdg 9:48 Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the men who were with him. Abimelech took an ax and cut off branches. He put it on his shoulder and ordered the men with him, “What you have seen me do, hurry and do as I have done!”
Jdg 9:49 So every one cut off branches and followed Abimelech. They piled them against the wall of the tower, and they set it on fire, so that all the people of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

Jdg 9:50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and he encamped against Thebez and captured it.
Jdg 9:51 But there was a strong tower in the city, all the men and women and all the leaders of the city fled to it and shut themselves in. Then they went up to the roof of the tower.
Jdg 9:52 Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and he came up near to the door of the tower to burn it.
Jdg 9:53 But a woman dropped an upper millstone on Abimelech's head, and it cracked his skull.
Jdg 9:54 Then he called urgently to the young man who was his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and kill me, so no one will say about me, 'A woman killed him!'" So his young man pierced him through, and he died.
Jdg 9:55 When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home.
Jdg 9:56 So the Almighty avenged the evil of Abimelech that he did to his father by murdering his seventy brothers.
Jdg 9:57 The Almighty made all the evil of the men of Shechem turn back on their own heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham son of Jerub Baal (Gideon).

Judges Chapter 10

Jdg 10:1 After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah son of Dodo, a man from Issachar who lived in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim, arose to deliver Israel.
Jdg 10:2 He judged Israel twenty-three years. He died and was buried in Shamir (c. 1274 BC).
Jdg 10:3 He was followed by Jair the Gileadite. He judged Israel twenty-two years.
Jdg 10:4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havvoth Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead.
Jdg 10:5 Jair died and was buried in Kamon (c. 1252 BC).
Jdg 10:6 The people of Israel added to the evil they had done in the sight of Yehowah and worshiped the Baals, the Ashtoreths, the deities of Aram, the deities of Sidon, the deities of Moab, the deities of the people of Ammon, and the deities of the Philistines. They abandoned Yehowah and no longer worshiped him.
Jdg 10:7 Yehowah burned with anger toward Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites.
Jdg 10:8 They crushed and oppressed the people of Israel that year (c. 1251 BC), and for eighteen years they oppressed all the people of Israel who were beyond the Jordan River in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.
Jdg 10:9 Then the Ammonites crossed over the Jordan River to fight against Judah, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed.
Jdg 10:10 Then the people of Israel called out to Yehowah, “We have sinned against you, because we abandoned our Divine One and worshiped the Baals.”
Jdg 10:11 Yehowah said to the people of Israel, “Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines,
Jdg 10:12 and also from the Sidonians? The Amalekites and the Maonites oppressed you; you called out to me, and I delivered you from their power.
Jdg 10:13 Yet you abandoned me again and worshiped false deities. Therefore, I will not keep adding to the times I deliver you.
Jdg 10:14 Go and call out to the deities that you have worshiped. Let them rescue you when you have trouble.”
Jdg 10:15 The people of Israel pleaded with Yehowah, “We have sinned. Do to us whatever seems good to you. Only please, rescue us this day.”
Jdg 10:16 They got rid of the foreign deities among them, and they worshiped Yehowah. Then he could bear Israel’s misery no longer.
Jdg 10:17 Then Ammonites gathered together and set up camp in Gilead. The Israelis came together and set up their camp at Mizpah.

Jdg 10:18 The leaders of the people of Gilead said one to another, “Who is the man who will begin to fight the Ammonites? He will become the leader over all those who are living in Gilead.”

Judges Chapter 11

Jdg 11:1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior, but he was the son of a prostitute. Gilead was his father.
Jdg 11:2 Gilead's wife also gave birth to his other sons. When his wife's sons grew up, they forced Jephthah to leave the house and informed him, "You are not going to inherit anything from our family. You are the son of another woman."
Jdg 11:3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Lawless men joined Jephthah, and they came and went with him.
Jdg 11:4 Some days later, the people of Ammon made war against Israel.
Jdg 11:5 When the people of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah back from the land of Tob.
Jdg 11:6 They entreated Jephthah, "Come and be our leader that we may fight with the people of Ammon."
Jdg 11:7 Jephthah replied to the leaders of Gilead, "You hated me and forced me to leave my father's house. Why do you come to me now when you are in trouble?"
Jdg 11:8 The elders of Gilead pleaded with Jephthah, "That is why we are turning to you now; come with us and fight with the people of Ammon, and you will become the leader over all who live in Gilead."
Jdg 11:9 Jephthah responded to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight against the people of Ammon, and if Yehowah gives us victory over them, I will be your leader."
Jdg 11:10 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "May Yehowah be witness between us, if we do not do as we say!"
Jdg 11:11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him leader and commander over them. When he was before Yehowah in Mizpah, Jephthah repeated all the promises he made.
Jdg 11:12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon, asking, "What is this conflict between us? Why have you come with force to take our land?"
Jdg 11:13 The king of the people of Ammon answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Because when Israel came up out of Egypt, they seized my land from the Arnon (aka Zarqa River) to the Jabbok (modern Yarmuk River), over to the Jordan River. Now give back those lands in peace."
Jdg 11:14 Again, Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the people of Ammon,
Jdg 11:15 and they said, "This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of Moab and the land of the people of Ammon,
Jdg 11:16 but they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the SEA and on to Kadesh (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia; Num. 21:4).

Jdg 11:17 When Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, ‘Please let us pass through your land,’ the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent messengers to the king of Moab, but he refused. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.
Jdg 11:18 Then they went through the wilderness and turned away from the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and they went along the east side of the land of Moab, and they camped on the other side of the Arnon (aka Zarqa River). But they did not go into the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was Moab’s border.
Jdg 11:19 Israel sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon; Israel entreated him, ‘Please, let us pass through your land to the place that is ours.’
Jdg 11:20 But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his military force together and moved it to Jahaz, and there he fought against Israel.
Jdg 11:21 Then Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them. So Israel took all the land of the Amorites who lived in that country.
Jdg 11:22 They took over everything within the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon (aka Zarqa) to the Jabbok (modern Yarmuk River), and from the wilderness to the Jordan River.
Jdg 11:23 So then Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, has driven out the Amorites before his people Israel, and should you now take possession of their land?
Jdg 11:24 Will you not take over the land that Chemosh, your deity, gives you? So whatever land Yehowah our Divine One has given us, we will take over.
Jdg 11:25 Now are you really better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he dare to have an argument with Israel? Did he ever wage war against them?
Jdg 11:26 While Israel lived for three hundred years in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities that are along the banks of the Arnon (aka Zarqa River), why then did you not take them back during that time?
Jdg 11:27 I have not done you wrong, but you are doing me wrong by attacking me. Yehowah, the Judge, will decide today between the people of Israel and the people of Ammon.”
Jdg 11:28 But the king of the people of Ammon rejected the warning Jephthah sent him.
Jdg 11:29 Then the Ruach of Yehowah came on Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed through to the people of Ammon.
Jdg 11:30 Jephthah made a vow to Yehowah, “If you give me victory over the people of Ammon, Jdg 11:31 then whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the people of Ammon will belong to Yehowah, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering.”

Jdg 11:32 So Jephthah passed through to the people of Ammon to fight against them, and Yehowah gave him victory.
Jdg 11:33 He attacked them and caused a great slaughter from Aroer as far as Minnith, twenty cities, and to Abel Keramim. So the people of Ammon were put under the control of the people of Israel.
Jdg 11:34 Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah, and there his daughter came out to meet him with tambourines and with dancing. She was his only child, and besides her, he had neither son nor daughter.
Jdg 11:35 As soon as he saw her, he tore his clothes and exclaimed, “Oh! My daughter! You have crushed me with sorrow, and you have become one who causes me pain! For I have made an oath to Yehowah, and I cannot turn back on my promise.”
Jdg 11:36 She responded to him, “My father, you have made a vow to Yehowah, do to me everything you promised, because Yehowah has taken vengeance for you against your enemies, the Ammonites.”
Jdg 11:37 She said to her father, “Let this promise be kept for me. Leave me alone for two months, that I may leave and go up and down on the hills and grieve over my virginity, I and my companions.”
Jdg 11:38 He ordered, “Go.” He sent her away for two months. She left him, she and her companions, and they grieved her virginity in the hills.
Jdg 11:39 At the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to the promise of the vow he had made. She never had sex with a man, and it became a custom in Israel,
Jdg 11:40 that the daughters of Israel every year, for four days, would retell the story of the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Judges Chapter 12

Jdg 12:1 A call went out to the men of Ephraim; they passed through Zaphon and said to Jephthah, “Why did you pass through to fight against the people of Ammon and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down over you.”
Jdg 12:2 Jephthah replied to them, “I and my people were in a great conflict with the people of Ammon. When I called you, you did not rescue me from them.
Jdg 12:3 When I saw that you did not rescue me, I put my life in my own strength and passed through against the people of Ammon, and Yehowah gave me victory. Why have you come to fight against me today?”
Jdg 12:4 Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and he fought against Ephraim. The men of Gilead attacked the men of Ephraim because they said, “You Gileadites are fugitives in Ephraim, in Ephraim and Manasseh.”
Jdg 12:5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan River leading to Ephraim. When any of the survivors of Ephraim requested, “Let me go over the river,” the men of Gilead would ask him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” If he said, “No,” Jdg 12:6 then they would order him, “Say: Shibboleth,” and if he said, “Sibboleth,” for he could not pronounce the word correctly, the Gileadites would seize him and kill him at the fords of the Jordan River. Forty-two thousand Ephraimites were killed at that time.
Jdg 12:7 Jephthah served as a judge over Israel for six years (c. 1233 BC). Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead (c. 1228 BC).
Jdg 12:8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem served as a judge over Israel.
Jdg 12:9 He had thirty sons. He gave away thirty daughters in marriage, and he brought in thirty daughters of other men for his sons, from the outside. He judged Israel for seven years (c. 1227 BC).
Jdg 12:10 Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem (c. 1221 BC).
Jdg 12:11 After him Elon the Zebulunite served as judge over Israel. He judged Israel for ten years (c. 1220 BC).
Jdg 12:12 Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun (c. 1211 BC).
Jdg 12:13 After him, Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite served as a judge over Israel.
Jdg 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons. They rode on seventy donkeys, and he judged Israel for eight years (c. 1210 BC).
Jdg 12:15 Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim in the hill country of the Amalekites (c. 1203 BC).

Judges Chapter 13

Jdg 13:1 The people of Israel again did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, and Yehowah gave them into the hand of the Philistines for forty years (c. 1202 BC).
Jdg 13:2 There was a man from Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah. His wife was not able to become pregnant, and so she had not given birth (1 Chron. 4:3).
Jdg 13:3 The angel of Yehowah appeared to the woman and said to her, “See now, you have been unable to become pregnant, and you have not given birth, but you will become pregnant, and you will give birth to a son.
Jdg 13:4 Now be careful not to drink wine or beer, and do not eat anything unclean.
Jdg 13:5 Look, you will become pregnant and give birth to a son. No razor will be used upon his head, for the child will be a Nazirite to the Almighty from the womb (Num. 6), and he will begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines.”
Jdg 13:6 Then the woman came and told her husband, “A man of the Almighty came to me, and his appearance was like that of an angel of the Almighty, extremely terrible. I did not ask him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name.
Jdg 13:7 He said to me, ‘Look! You will become pregnant, and you will give birth to a son. So then drink no wine or beer, and do not eat any food that the law declares to be unclean, because the child will be a Nazirite to the Almighty from the time he is in your womb until the day of his death.’”
Jdg 13:8 Then Manoah prayed to Yehowah, “Oh Lord, please let the man of the Almighty you sent come again to us, so that he may teach us what we are to do for the child who soon will be born.”
Jdg 13:9 The Almighty answered Manoah’s prayer, and the angel of the Almighty came to the woman again when she was sitting in the field. But Manoah her husband was not with her.
Jdg 13:10 So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, “Look! The man has appeared to me, the one who came to me the other day!”
Jdg 13:11 Manoah rose up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he asked, “Are you the man who spoke with my wife?” The man answered, “I am.”
Jdg 13:12 So Manoah said, “Now may your words come true. What will be the rules for the child, and what will be his work?”
Jdg 13:13 The angel of Yehowah answered Manoah, “She must carefully do everything that I said to her.

Jdg 13:14 She may not eat anything that comes from the vines, and do not let her drink wine or beer; do not let her eat any food that the law declares to be unclean. She should obey everything I commanded her to do.”
Jdg 13:15 Manoah said to the angel of Yehowah, “Please stay for awhile, to give us time to prepare a young goat for you.”
Jdg 13:16 The angel of Yehowah said to Manoah, “Even if I stay, I will not eat your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to Yehowah.” Manoah did not know that he was the angel of Yehowah.
Jdg 13:17 Manoah asked the angel of Yehowah, “What is your name, so we may honor you when your words come true?”
Jdg 13:18 The angel of Yehowah answered him, “Why do you ask my name? It is Wonderful!”
Jdg 13:19 So Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering and offered them on the rock to Yehowah. He did something marvelous while Manoah and his wife were watching.
Jdg 13:20 When the flame went up from the altar toward the sky, the angel of Yehowah went up in the flame of the altar. Manoah and his wife saw this and lay facedown on the ground.
Jdg 13:21 The angel of Yehowah did not appear again to Manoah or his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of Yehowah.
Jdg 13:22 Manoah exclaimed to his wife, “We are sure to die, because we have seen the Almighty!”
Jdg 13:23 But his wife responded to him, “If Yehowah wanted to kill us, he would not have received the burnt offering and the grain offering we gave him. He would not have shown us all these things, nor at this time would he have let us hear such things.”
Jdg 13:24 Later, the woman gave birth to a son and called his name Samson. The child grew up, and Yehowah blessed him.
Jdg 13:25 The Ruach of Yehowah began to stir him in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges Chapter 14

Jdg 14:1 Samson went down to Timnah, and there he saw a woman, one of the daughters of the Philistines.
Jdg 14:2 When he returned, he told his father and mother, “I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines. Now get her for me to be my wife.”
Jdg 14:3 His father and mother asked him, “Is there not a woman among the daughters of your relatives or among all our people? Are you going to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?” Samson entreated his father, “Get her for me, for when I look at her, she pleases me.”
Jdg 14:4 But his father and his mother did not know that this matter came from Yehowah, for he desired to create a conflict with the Philistines, for at that time the Philistines were ruling Israel.
Jdg 14:5 Then Samson went down to Timnah with his father and his mother, and they came to the vineyards of Timnah. And look there, one of the young lions came up and was roaring at him.
Jdg 14:6 The Ruach of Yehowah suddenly came on him, and he tore the lion apart as easily as he would have torn apart a small goat, and he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.
Jdg 14:7 He went and spoke with the woman, and when he looked at her, she pleased Samson.
Jdg 14:8 A few days later when he returned to marry her, he turned aside to look for the carrion of the lion. And look, there was a swarm of bees and honey in what was left of the lion’s body.
Jdg 14:9 He scraped up the honey in his hands and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and his mother, he gave some to them, and they ate. But he did not tell them he had taken the honey out of what was left of the lion’s body.
Jdg 14:10 Samson’s father went down to where the woman was, and Samson gave a feast there, for this was the custom of the young men.
Jdg 14:11 As soon as her relatives saw him, they brought him thirty of their friends to be with him.
Jdg 14:12 Samson said to them, “Let me now tell you a riddle. If one of you can find it out and tell me the answer during the seven days of the feast, I will give out thirty linen robes and thirty sets of clothes.
Jdg 14:13 But if you cannot tell me the answer, then you will give me thirty linen robes and thirty sets of clothes.” They replied to him, “Tell us your riddle, so we may hear it.”

Jdg 14:14 He told them, “Out of the eater came edibles; out of the powerful came sweets.” But his guests could not find the answer in three days.
Jdg 14:15 On the fourth day, they said to Samson’s wife, “Trick your husband, so that he may tell us the answer to the riddle, or we will burn up you and your father’s house. Did you invite us here in order to make us poor?”
Jdg 14:16 Samson’s wife started to weep in front of him; she said, “All you do is hate me! You do not love me. You have told a riddle to some of my people, but you have not told me the answer.” Samson asked her, “Look here, if I have not told my father or my mother, should I tell you?”
Jdg 14:17 She cried during the seven days that their feast lasted. On the seventh day he told her the answer, because she pressured him so much. She told the answer to the relatives of her people.
Jdg 14:18 Before the sun went down on the seventh day, the men of the city answered him, “What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?” Samson said to them, “If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found the answer to my riddle.”
Jdg 14:19 Then the Ruach of Yehowah suddenly came on Samson with power. Samson went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty of their men. He took their plunder, and he gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. Burning with anger, he went up to his father’s house.
Jdg 14:20 Samson’s wife was given to his best friend.

Judges Chapter 15

Jdg 15:1 After some days, during the time of wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat and went to visit his wife. He said to himself, “I will go to my wife’s room.” But her father would not allow him to go in.
Jdg 15:2 Her father said, “I really thought you hated her, so I gave her to your friend. Her younger sister is more beautiful than she is, is she not? Take her instead.”
Jdg 15:3 Samson said to them, “This time I will be innocent in regard to the Philistines when I hurt them.”
Jdg 15:4 Samson went and caught three hundred jackals, and he tied together each pair, tail to tail. Then he took torches and tied them in the middle of each pair of tails.
Jdg 15:5 When he had set the torches on fire, he let the jackals go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and they set fire to both the stacked grain and the grain standing in the field, along with the vineyards and the olive orchards.
Jdg 15:6 The Philistines asked, “Who did this?” They were told, “Samson, the Timnite’s son-in-law, did this because the Timnite took Samson’s wife and gave her to his friend.” Then the Philistines went and burned up her and her father.
Jdg 15:7 Samson said to them, “If this is what you do, I will get my revenge against you, and after that is done, I will stop.”
Jdg 15:8 Then he cut them to pieces, hip and thigh, with a great slaughter. Then he went down and lived in a cave in the cliff of Etam.
Jdg 15:9 Then the Philistines came up and they prepared for battle in Judah and set up their military force in Lehi.
Jdg 15:10 The men of Judah asked, “Why have you come up to attack us?” They answered, “We are attacking, so we may capture Samson, and do to him as he has done to us.”
Jdg 15:11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cave in the cliff of Etam, and they asked Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What is this you have done to us?” Samson answered them, “They did to me, and so I have done to them.”
Jdg 15:12 They replied to Samson, “We have come down to tie you up and give you into the hands of the Philistines.” Samson entreated them, “Swear to me that you will not kill me yourselves.”
Jdg 15:13 They answered him, “No, we will only tie you with ropes and hand you over to them. We promise we will not kill you.” Then they tied him up with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

Jdg 15:14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting as they met him. Then the Ruach of Yehowah came on him with power. The ropes on his arms became like burnt flax, and they fell off his hands.
Jdg 15:15 Samson found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and he picked it up and killed a thousand men with it.
Jdg 15:16 Samson exclaimed, “With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps upon heaps, with the jawbone of a donkey, I have killed a thousand men!”
Jdg 15:17 When Samson finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone, and he called the place Ramath Lehi.
Jdg 15:18 Samson was extremely thirsty and called on Yehowah, “You have given this great victory to your servant. But now, will I die of thirst and fall into the hands of those who are uncircumcised?”
Jdg 15:19 The Almighty split open the hollow place that is at Lehi, and water came out. When he drank, his spirit returned, and he revived. So he called the name of that place En Hakkore, and it is at Lehi to this day.
Jdg 15:20 Samson judged Israel in the days of the Philistines for twenty years (c. 1182 BC).

Judges Chapter 16

Jdg 16:1 Samson went to Gaza and saw a prostitute there, and he went to fornicate with her.
Jdg 16:2 The Gazites were told, “Samson has come here.” The Gazites surrounded the place, and in secret they waited for him all night at the city gate. They kept silent all night. They had said, “Let us wait until daybreak, and then let us murder him.”
Jdg 16:3 Samson lay in bed until midnight. At midnight he rose up, and he took hold of the city gate and its two posts. He pulled them up out of the ground, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the hill, in front of Hebron.
Jdg 16:4 After this, Samson came to love a woman who lived in the Valley of Sorek. Her name was Delilah.
Jdg 16:5 The rulers of the Philistines came up to her and said to her, “Trick Samson to see where his great strength lies, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may bind him in order to humiliate him. Do this, and each one of us will give you 1,100-weight silver-currency.”
Jdg 16:6 Then Delilah said to Samson, “Please, tell me how is it that you are so strong, and how could anyone bind you, so you might be controlled?”
Jdg 16:7 Samson replied to her, “If they tie me with seven fresh bowstrings that have not been dried, then I will become weak and be like any other man.”
Jdg 16:8 Then the rulers of the Philistines brought up to Delilah seven fresh bowstrings that had not been dried, and she tied Samson up with them.
Jdg 16:9 Now she had men hiding in secret, staying in her inner room. She warned him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he broke the bowstrings like a thread of yarn when it touches the fire. So the secret of his strength was not discovered.
Jdg 16:10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “This is how you have deceived me and told me lies. Please, tell me how you can be overpowered.”
Jdg 16:11 He replied to her, “If they tie me up with new ropes which have never been used for work, I will become weak and like any other man.”
Jdg 16:12 So Delilah took new ropes and tied him up with them and warned him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” The men lying in wait were in the inner room. But Samson tore off the ropes from his arms like they were a piece of thread.
Jdg 16:13 Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have deceived me and told me lies. Tell me how you may be overpowered.” Samson replied to her, “If you weave seven locks of my hair into a fabric on a loom, and then nail that to the loom, I will be like any other man.”

Jdg 16:14 While he slept, Delilah wove seven locks of his hair into the fabric on the loom and nailed it to the loom, and she warned him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” He woke from his sleep, and he pulled out the fabric and the pin from the loom.
Jdg 16:15 She complained to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when you do not share your secrets with me? You have mocked me these three times and have not told me how you have such great strength.”
Jdg 16:16 Every day she pressed him hard with her words, and she pressured him so much that he wished he would die.
Jdg 16:17 So Samson told her everything, “I have never had a razor cut the hair on my head, for I have been a Nazirite for the Almighty from my mother’s womb (Num. 6). If my head is shaved, then my strength will leave me, and I will become weak and be like every other man.”
Jdg 16:18 When Delilah saw that he had told her the truth about everything, she sent and called for the rulers of the Philistines, requesting, “Come up again, for he has told me everything.” Then the rulers of the Philistines went up to her, bringing the silver in their hands.
Jdg 16:19 She had him fall asleep in her lap. She called for a man to shave off the seven locks of his head, and she began to subdue him, for his strength had left him.
Jdg 16:20 She warned, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” He woke up out of his sleep and said, “I will get out like the other times and shake myself free.” But he did not know that Yehowah had left him.
Jdg 16:21 The Philistines captured him and put out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles. He turned the millstone at the prison house.
Jdg 16:22 But the hair on his head began to grow again, after it had been shaved.
Jdg 16:23 The rulers of the Philistines gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their deity, and to rejoice. They boasted, “Our deity has conquered Samson, our enemy, and put him in our grasp!”
Jdg 16:24 When the people saw him, they praised their deity, “Our deity has conquered our enemy and given him to us, the destroyer of our country, who killed many of us!”
Jdg 16:25 When they were celebrating, they ordered, “Call for Samson, that he may make us laugh.” They called for Samson out of the prison, and he made them laugh. They made him stand between the pillars.
Jdg 16:26 Samson requested of the boy who held his hand, “Permit me to touch the pillars on which the building rests, so that I can lean against them.”

Jdg 16:27 Now the house was full of men and women. All the rulers of the Philistines were there. There were on the roof about three thousand men and women, who were looking on while Samson was entertaining them.
Jdg 16:28 Samson called to Yehowah, “Lord Yehowah, call me to mind! Please strengthen me only this once, O Almighty, so that I may have revenge in one blow on the Philistines for taking my two eyes!”
Jdg 16:29 Samson held on to the two middle pillars on which the building rested, and he leaned against them, one pillar with his right hand and the other with his left.
Jdg 16:30 Samson shouted, “Let me die with the Philistines!” He stretched out with his strength and the building fell on the rulers and on all the people who were in it. So the dead that he killed when he died (c. 1163 BC) were more than those he killed during his life.
Jdg 16:31 Then his brothers and all the household of his father came down. They took him, brought him back and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burial place of Manoah, his father. Samson had judged Israel for twenty years.

Judges Chapter 17

Jdg 17:1 There was a man in the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Micah.
Jdg 17:2 He confessed to his mother, “The 1,100-weight silver-currency that was taken from you, about which you spoke a curse, and which I heard, look here! I have the silver with me. I stole it.” His mother responded, “May Yehowah bless you, my son!”
Jdg 17:3 He restored the 1,100-weight silver-currency to his mother, and his mother said, “I set apart this silver to Yehowah, for my son to make carved and cast metal figures. So now, I restore it to you.”
Jdg 17:4 When he restored the money to his mother, his mother took 200-weight silver-currency and gave it to a metal worker who made it into carved and cast metal figures, and they were placed in the house of Micah.
Jdg 17:5 The man Micah had a house of idols, and he made an ephod and household deities, and he hired one of his sons to become his priest.
Jdg 17:6 In those days, there was no king in Israel, and everyone did what was right in his own eyes.
Jdg 17:7 Now there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite. He stayed there to fulfill his duties.
Jdg 17:8 The man left Bethlehem in Judah to go and find a place to live. As he journeyed, he came to Micah’s house in the hill country of Ephraim.
Jdg 17:9 Micah asked him, “Where do you come from?” The man answered him, “I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah, and I am traveling to find a place where I might live.”
Jdg 17:10 Micah said to him, “Stay with me, and be to me a father and a priest. I will give you 10-weight silver-currency a year, a suit of clothes, and your food.” So the Levite went into his house.
Jdg 17:11 The Levite was content to live with the man, and the young man became to Micah like one of his sons.
Jdg 17:12 Micah set apart the Levite for consecrated duties, and the young man became his priest, and was in Micah’s house.
Jdg 17:13 Then Micah said, “Now I know that Yehowah will do good for me, because this Levite has become my priest.”

Judges Chapter 18

Jdg 18:1 In those days, there was no king in Israel. The tribe of the descendants of Dan was looking for a territory to live in, for up to that day, they had not received any inheritance from among the tribes of Israel.
Jdg 18:2 The people of Dan sent five men from the whole number of their tribe, men who were experienced warriors from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to scout the land on foot and to look it over. They ordered them, “Go and look over the land.” They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and they spent the night there.
Jdg 18:3 When they were near Micah’s house, they recognized the speech of the young Levite. So they stopped and asked him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? Why are you here?”
Jdg 18:4 He answered them, “This is what Micah has done for me: He has hired me to become his priest.”
Jdg 18:5 They entreated him, “Please seek the advice of the Almighty, so we may know whether the journey we are going on will be successful.”
Jdg 18:6 The priest replied to them, “Go in peace. Yehowah will lead you in the Way you should go.”
Jdg 18:7 Then the five men left and came to Laish, and they saw that the people were living in safety, in the same way the Sidonians lived, undisturbed and secure. There was no one who conquered them or who oppressed them in any way in the land. They lived far away from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone.
Jdg 18:8 They returned to their tribe in Zorah and Eshtaol. Their relatives asked them, “What is your intelligence report?”
Jdg 18:9 They reported, “Come! Let us attack them! We have seen the land, and it is extremely good. Are you doing nothing? Do not be slow to attack and conquer the land.
Jdg 18:10 When you go, you will come to a people who think they are secure, and the land is wide! The Almighty has given it to you, a place that does not lack anything in the land.”
Jdg 18:11 Six hundred men of the tribe of Dan, armed with weapons of war, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol.
Jdg 18:12 They went up and camped at Kiriath Jearim, in Judah. This is why people called that place Camp of Dan to this day; it is west of Kiriath Jearim.
Jdg 18:13 They went away from there to the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.

Jdg 18:14 Then the five men who had gone to scout the country of Laish asked their relatives, “Do you know that in these houses there are an ephod, household deities, a carved figure, and a cast metal figure? Decide now what you will do.”
Jdg 18:15 So they turned in there and came to the house of the young Levite, at the house of Micah, and they greeted him.
Jdg 18:16 Now the six hundred Danites, armed with weapons of war, stood at the entrance of the gate.
Jdg 18:17 The five men who had gone to scout out the land went there, and they took the carved figure, the ephod, the household deities, and the cast metal figure, while the priest stood by the opening of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.
Jdg 18:18 When these went into Micah’s house and took the carved figure, the ephod, the household deities, and the cast metal figure, the priest asked them, “What are you doing?”
Jdg 18:19 They ordered him, “Be quiet! Put your hand on your mouth and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest for the household of one man, or to be priest for a tribe and a clan in Israel” (Gen. 14:14)?
Jdg 18:20 The priest’s heart was glad. He took the ephod, the household deities, and the carved figure, and went along with the people.
Jdg 18:21 So they turned and went away. They put the small children in front of themselves, as well as the livestock and their possessions.
Jdg 18:22 When they were a good distance from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah’s house were called together, and they caught up with the Danites.
Jdg 18:23 They shouted to the Danites, and they turned and asked Micah, “Why have you been called together?”
Jdg 18:24 He complained, “You stole the deities that I made, you have taken my priest, and you are leaving. What else do I have left? How can you ask me, ‘What is bothering you?’”
Jdg 18:25 The people of Dan responded to him, “You should not let us hear you say anything, or some extremely angry men will attack you, and you and your family will be killed.”
Jdg 18:26 Then the people of Dan went their way. When Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.
Jdg 18:27 The people of Dan took what Micah had made, as well as his priest, and they came to Laish, to a people who were undisturbed and secure, and they killed them with the sword and burned the city.
Jdg 18:28 There was no one to rescue them, because it was a long way from Sidon, and they had no dealings with anyone. It was in the valley that is near Beth Rehob. The Danites rebuilt the city and lived there.

Jdg 18:29 They named the city Dan, the name of Dan their ancestor, who was one of Israel's sons. But the name of the city used to be Laish (Gen. 14:14).
Jdg 18:30 The people of Dan set up the carved figure for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom, son of Moses, he and his sons were priests for the tribe of the Danites until the day of the land's captivity.
Jdg 18:31 So they worshiped Micah's carved figure that he made, as long as the tabernacle of the Almighty was at Shiloh.

Judges Chapter 19

Jdg 19:1 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, there was a man, a Levite, living for awhile in the most remote area of the hill country of Ephraim. He took for himself a woman, a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.
Jdg 19:2 But his concubine was unfaithful to him; she left him and went back to her father's house in Bethlehem of Judah. She stayed there for four months.
Jdg 19:3 Then her husband rose up and went after her in order to persuade her to come back. His servant was with him, and a pair of donkeys. She brought him into her father's house. When the girl's father saw him, he was glad.
Jdg 19:4 His father-in-law, the girl's father, persuaded him to stay for three days. They ate and drank, and they spent the night there.
Jdg 19:5 On the fourth day, they rose up early at daybreak, and he prepared to go, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen yourself with a bit of bread, then you may go."
Jdg 19:6 So the two of them sat down to eat and drink together. Then the girl's father entreated, "Please be willing to spend the night and have a good time."
Jdg 19:7 When the Levite rose up to leave, the father of the young woman urged him to stay, so he changed his plan and spent the night there again.
Jdg 19:8 On the fifth day, he woke up early at daybreak to leave, but the girl's father said, "Strengthen yourself and wait until the afternoon." So the two of them had a meal.
Jdg 19:9 When the Levite and his concubine and his servant rose up to depart, his father-in-law, the girl's father said to him, "See, now the day is advancing toward evening. Please stay another night and have a good time. You can get up early tomorrow and go back home."
Jdg 19:10 But the Levite was not willing to spend the night. He rose up and left. He went toward Jebus, that is Jerusalem. He had a pair of saddled donkeys, and his concubine was with him.
Jdg 19:11 When they were near Jebus, the day was nearly over, and the servant said to his master, "Come, let us turn aside to the city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it."
Jdg 19:12 His master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners who do not belong to the people of Israel. We will go on to Gibeah."
Jdg 19:13 The Levite said to his young man, "Come, let us go to one of those other places and spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah."
Jdg 19:14 So they went on, and the sun set as they came near to Gibeah, in the territory of Benjamin.
Jdg 19:15 They turned aside there to spend the night in Gibeah. They went and sat down in the city square, but no one took them into his house for the night.

Jdg 19:16 But then an old man was coming at dusk from his work in the field. He was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was staying for awhile in Gibeah. But the men living in that place were Benjamites.
Jdg 19:17 He raised his eyes and saw the traveler in the city square. The old man asked, “Where are you going? Where are you coming from?”
Jdg 19:18 The Levite answered him, “We are on our way from Bethlehem in Judah to the most remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, which is where I come from. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to the tabernacle of Yehowah, but there is no one who will take me into his house.
Jdg 19:19 We have straw and feed for our donkeys, and there is bread and wine for me and your female servant here, and for this young man with your servants. We lack nothing.”
Jdg 19:20 The old man greeted them, “Peace be with you! I will take care of all your needs. Only do not spend the night in the square.”
Jdg 19:21 So the man brought the Levite into his house and gave feed to the donkeys. They washed their feet, ate, and drank.
Jdg 19:22 While they were making their hearts glad, some men of the city, worthless men, surrounded the house, beating on the door. They spoke to the old man, the master of the house, “Bring out the man who came into your house, so we can have sex with him.”
Jdg 19:23 The man, the master of the house, went out to them and shouted at them, “No, my brothers, please do not do this evil thing! Since this man is a guest in my house, do not do this wicked thing!
Jdg 19:24 See, my virgin daughter and his concubine are here. Let me bring them out now. Violate them and do with them whatever you like. But do not do such a wicked thing to this man!”
Jdg 19:25 But the men would not listen to him, so the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them. They seized her, raped her, and abused her throughout the night, and at dawn they let her go.
Jdg 19:26 At the crack of dawn the woman came, and she fell down at the door of the man’s house where her master was, and she lay there until it was light.
Jdg 19:27 Her master rose up at daybreak and opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way. He could see his concubine lying there at the door, with her hands on the threshold.
Jdg 19:28 The Levite ordered her, “Get up. Let us go.” But there was no answer. He put her on the donkey, and the man set out for home.
Jdg 19:29 When the Levite came to his house, he took a knife, and he took hold of his concubine, and cut her up, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent the pieces everywhere throughout Israel.

Jdg 19:30 All who saw this said, “Such a thing has never been done or seen from the day the people of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt to this present day. Think about it! Give us advice! Tell us what to do!”

Judges Chapter 20

Jdg 20:1 Then all the people of Israel came out as one man, from Dan to Beersheba, including the land of Gilead also, and they assembled together before Yehowah at Mizpah.
Jdg 20:2 The leaders of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, took their places in the congregation of the people of Yehowah, 400,000 men on foot, who were ready to fight with the sword.
Jdg 20:3 Now the people of Benjamin heard that the people of Israel had gone up to Mizpah. The people of Israel inquired, “Tell us how this wicked thing happened.”
Jdg 20:4 The Levite, the husband of the woman who had been murdered, answered, “I came to Gibeah in the territory that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night.
Jdg 20:5 During the night, the leaders of Gibeah attacked me, surrounding the house and intending to murder me. They seized and raped my concubine, and she died.
Jdg 20:6 I took my concubine and cut her body into pieces, and sent them into each region of Israel’s inheritance, because they have committed such wickedness and outrage in Israel.
Jdg 20:7 Now, all you Israelis give your advice and counsel here.”
Jdg 20:8 All the people arose together as one man, and they said, “None of us will go to his tent, and none of us will return to his house!
Jdg 20:9 But now this is what we must do to Gibeah: We will attack it as the lot directs us.
Jdg 20:10 We will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred of a thousand, and one thousand of ten thousand, to get provisions for these people, so that when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may punish them for the wickedness they committed in Israel.”
Jdg 20:11 So all the soldiers of Israel assembled against the city, as one man.
Jdg 20:12 The tribes of Israel sent men throughout all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What is this wickedness that was done among you?
Jdg 20:13 Therefore, give us those wicked men of Gibeah, so we may execute them, and so we will completely remove this evil from Israel.” But the Benjamites would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the people of Israel.
Jdg 20:14 Then the people of Benjamin came together out of the cities to Gibeah to get ready to fight against the people of Israel.
Jdg 20:15 The people of Benjamin brought together from their cities to fight on that day twenty-six thousand soldiers who were trained to fight with the sword.

In addition, there were seven hundred of their chosen men from the inhabitants of Gibeah.
Jdg 20:16 Among all these soldiers were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed. Each of them could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.
Jdg 20:17 The people of Israel, not counting the number from Benjamin, numbered 400,000 men, who were trained to fight with the sword. All of these were warriors.
Jdg 20:18 The people of Israel arose, went up to Bethel, and asked for advice from the Almighty, "Who first will attack the people of Benjamin for us?" Yehowah answered, "Judah will attack first."
Jdg 20:19 The people of Israel rose up at dawn, and they moved their camp near Gibeah.
Jdg 20:20 The people of Israel went out to fight against Benjamin. They set up their battle positions against them at Gibeah.
Jdg 20:21 The people of Benjamin came out of Gibeah, and they killed twenty-two thousand men of the military force of Israel on that day.
Jdg 20:22 But the people of Israel strengthened themselves, and they formed the battle line in the same place where they had taken positions on the first day.
Jdg 20:23 Then the people of Israel went up, and they wept before Yehowah until dusk, and they sought direction from Yehowah. They asked, "Should we go again to fight against our brothers, the people of Benjamin?" Yehowah ordered, "Attack them!"
Jdg 20:24 So the people of Israel went against the soldiers of Benjamin the second day.
Jdg 20:25 On the second day, Benjamin went out against them from Gibeah, and they killed eighteen thousand men from the people of Israel. All were men who trained to fight with the sword.
Jdg 20:26 Then all the soldiers of Israel and all the people went up to Bethel and wept, and there they sat before Yehowah, and they fasted that day until dusk and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yehowah.
Jdg 20:27 The people of Israel asked Yehowah, for the Ark of the Covenant of the Almighty was there in those days,
Jdg 20:28 and Phinehas, son of Eleazar son of Aaron, was serving before the ark in those days, "Should we go out to battle once more against the people of Benjamin, our brothers, or stop?" Yehowah answered, "Attack, for tomorrow I will help you defeat them."
Jdg 20:29 So Israel set men in secret places around Gibeah.
Jdg 20:30 The people of Israel fought against the people of Benjamin for the third day, and they formed their battle lines against Gibeah as they had done before.

Jdg 20:31 The people of Benjamin went and fought against the people, and they were drawn away from the city. They began to kill some of the people. There were about thirty men of Israel who died in the fields and on the roads. One of the roads went up to Bethel, and the other went to Gibeah.
Jdg 20:32 Then the people of Benjamin said, “They are defeated, and they are running away from us, just as at first.” But the soldiers of Israel said, “Let us run back and draw them away from the city to the roads.”
Jdg 20:33 All the people of Israel rose up out of their places and formed themselves into lines for battle at Baal Tamar. Then the soldiers of Israel who had been hiding in secret places ran out from their places from Maareh Gibeah.
Jdg 20:34 There came out against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the fighting was fierce, but the Benjamites did not know that disaster was close to them.
Jdg 20:35 Yehowah defeated Benjamin before Israel. On that day, the soldiers of Israel killed 25,100 men of Benjamin. All these who died were those who had been trained to fight with the sword.
Jdg 20:36 So the soldiers of Benjamin saw they were defeated. The men of Israel had given ground to Benjamin, because they were counting on the men they had placed in hidden positions outside Gibeah.
Jdg 20:37 Then the men who were hiding rose up, hurried, and rushed into Gibeah, and with their swords they killed everyone who lived in the city.
Jdg 20:38 The arranged signal between the soldiers of Israel and the men hiding in secret would be that a great cloud of smoke would rise up out of the city.
Jdg 20:39 When the signal was sent, the soldiers of Israel would turn from the battle. Now Benjamin began to attack, and they killed about thirty men of Israel, and they said, “It is sure that they are defeated before us, as in the first battle.”
Jdg 20:40 But when a pillar of smoke began to rise up out of the city, the Benjamites turned and saw the smoke rising to the sky from the whole city.
Jdg 20:41 Then the people of Israel turned against them. The men of Benjamin were terrified, for they saw that disaster had come on them.
Jdg 20:42 So they ran away from the people of Israel, escaping on the way to the wilderness. But the fighting overtook them. The soldiers of Israel came out of the cities and killed them where they stood.
Jdg 20:43 They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them and trampled them down at Nohah, all the way to the east side of Gibeah.
Jdg 20:44 From the tribe of Benjamin, eighteen thousand people died, all of them men who were distinguished in battle.
Jdg 20:45 They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon. The Israelis killed five thousand more of them along the roads. They kept going after them, following them closely all the way to Gidom, and there they killed two thousand more.

Jdg 20:46 All the soldiers of Benjamin who fell that day were twenty-five thousand, men who were trained to fight with the sword; all of them were distinguished in battle.
Jdg 20:47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness, toward the rock of Rimmon. For four months they stayed at the rock of Rimmon.
Jdg 20:48 The soldiers of Israel turned back against the people of Benjamin and attacked and killed them, the entire city, the livestock, and everything that they found. They also burned down every town in their path.

Judges Chapter 21

Jdg 21:1 Now the men of Israel had made a promise at Mizpah, “None of us will give his daughter to marry a Benjamite.”
Jdg 21:2 Then the people went to Bethel and sat there before the Almighty until dusk, and with loud voices they wept bitterly!
Jdg 21:3 They called out, “Why, Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, has this happened to Israel, that one of our tribes should be missing today?”
Jdg 21:4 The next day, the people rose up early, built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.
Jdg 21:5 The people of Israel asked, “Which of all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to Yehowah?” For they had made an important promise concerning anyone who did not come up to Yehowah at Mizpah. They said, “He would certainly be executed.”
Jdg 21:6 The people of Israel had compassion for their brother Benjamin. They said, “Today, one tribe has been cut off from Israel.
Jdg 21:7 Who will provide wives for those who are left, since we have made a promise to Yehowah, that we will not let any of them marry our daughters?”
Jdg 21:8 They asked, “Which of the tribes of Israel did not come up to Yehowah at Mizpah?” It was found that no one had come to the assembly from Jabesh Gilead.
Jdg 21:9 For when the people were set out in an orderly manner, behold, none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead were there.
Jdg 21:10 The congregation sent twelve thousand of their bravest men with instructions to go to Jabesh Gilead and attack them, and kill them, even the women and children.
Jdg 21:11 “Do this: You must kill every male and every woman who has had sex with a man.”
Jdg 21:12 The men found among those living in Jabesh Gilead four hundred young women who had never had sex with a man, and they took them to the camp at Shiloh, in Canaan.
Jdg 21:13 The entire congregation sent a message and told the people of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon that they were offering them peace.
Jdg 21:14 The Benjamites returned at that time, and they were given the women of Jabesh Gilead, but there were not enough women for all of them.
Jdg 21:15 The people were sorry for what happened to Benjamin, because Yehowah made a division between the tribes of Israel.
Jdg 21:16 Then the leaders of the congregation asked, “How will we arrange wives for the Benjamites who are left, since the women of Benjamin have been killed?”

Jdg 21:17 They answered, “There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe is not destroyed from Israel.
Jdg 21:18 We cannot give them wives from our daughters, for the people of Israel had made a promise, ‘Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to Benjamin.’”
Jdg 21:19 So they announced, “You know there is a feast for Yehowah every year at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, east of the road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem and south of Lebonah.”
Jdg 21:20 They instructed the men of Benjamin, “Go and hide in secret and wait in the vineyards.
Jdg 21:21 Watch for the time when the girls from Shiloh come out to dance, then rush out of the vineyards and each one of you should grab a wife from the girls of Shiloh, then go back to the land of Benjamin.
Jdg 21:22 When their fathers or their brothers come to protest to us, we will say to them, ‘Show us favor! Let them remain, because we did not get wives for each man during the war. You are innocent, since you did not give your daughters to them.’”
Jdg 21:23 The people of Benjamin did so. They took the number of wives that they needed from the girls who were dancing, and they carried them off to be their wives. They went and returned to the place of their inheritance. They rebuilt the towns and lived in them.
Jdg 21:24 Then the people of Israel left that place and went home, each one to his own tribe and clan, and each one to his own inheritance.
Jdg 21:25 In those days, there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Book of Ruth

Ruth Chapter 1

Rth 1:1 It happened in the days when the judges ruled that there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem of Judah went to the country of Moab with his wife and his two sons.
Rth 1:2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife was Naomi. The names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion, who were Ephrathites of Bethlehem of Judah. They arrived at the country of Moab and lived there.
Rth 1:4 These sons took wives from the women of Moab; the name of one was Orpah, and the name of the other was Ruth. They lived there for about ten years (c. 1345 BC).
Rth 1:5 Then both Mahlon and Chilion died, leaving Naomi without her husband and without her two children.
Rth 1:6 Then Naomi decided to leave Moab with her daughters-in-law and return to Judah, because she had heard in the region of Moab that Yehowah had helped his people in need and had given them food.
Rth 1:7 So she left the place where she had been with her two daughters-in-law, and they walked down the road to return to the land of Judah.
Rth 1:8 Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return, each of you to your mother's house. May Yehowah show kindness toward you, as you have shown kindness toward the dead and toward me.
Rth 1:9 May Yehowah grant you that you find rest, each of you in the house of another husband." Then she kissed them, and they raised their voices and cried!
Rth 1:10 They replied to her, "No! We will return with you to your people."
Rth 1:11 But Naomi responded, "Turn back, my daughters! Why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb for you, so that they may become your husbands?
Rth 1:12 Turn back, my daughters, go your own way, for I am too old to have a husband. If I said, 'I hope I get a husband tonight,' and then give birth to sons,
Rth 1:13 would you therefore wait until they were grown? Would you wait and not marry men now? No, my daughters! It greatly grieves me, much more than it grieves you, because the hand of Yehowah has turned against me."

Rth 1:14 Then her daughters-in-law lifted up their voices and cried again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law farewell, but Ruth held on to her.
Rth 1:15 Naomi said, “Listen, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her deities. Go back with your sister-in-law.”
Rth 1:16 But Ruth responded, “Do not make me go away from you, for where you go, I will go; where you stay, I will stay; your people will be my people, and your Divine One will be my Divine One.
Rth 1:17 Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May Yehowah punish me, and more also, if anything but death ever separates us.”
Rth 1:19 So the two traveled, until they came to the town of Bethlehem. It happened that when they arrived in Bethlehem, the entire town was excited about them. The women asked, “Is this Naomi?”
Rth 1:20 But she responded to them, “Do not call me Naomi. Call me Mara (Bitterness), for the Most Powerful has dealt quite bitterly with me.
Rth 1:21 I went out full, but Yehowah has brought me home again empty. So why do you call me Naomi, seeing Yehowah has condemned me, that the Most Powerful has afflicted me?”
Rth 1:22 So Naomi and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, returned from the country of Moab. They came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Ruth Chapter 2

Rth 2:1 Now Naomi's husband, Elimelech, had a kinsman, Boaz, who was a wealthy, influential man.
Rth 2:2 Ruth, the Moabitess, entreated Naomi, "Now let me go and glean what remains among the ears of grain in the fields. I will follow anyone in whose eyes I will find grace." So Naomi answered her, "Go, my daughter."
Rth 2:3 Ruth went and gleaned what remained in the fields after they had harvested it. She happened to come to the portion of the fields belonging to Boaz, who was related to Elimelech.
Rth 2:4 Behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and greeted the reapers, "May Yehowah be with you!" They answered him, "May Yehowah bless you!"
Rth 2:5 Then Boaz asked his servant who was supervising the reapers, "What man does this young woman belong to?"
Rth 2:6 The servant supervising the reapers answered, "It is the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the land of Moab.
Rth 2:7 She entreated me, 'Please let me glean what remains in the field after the workers harvest the crop.' So she came here and has continued from dawn until now, except that she rested a little in the house."
Rth 2:8 Then Boaz ordered Ruth, "Are you listening to me, my daughter? Do not go and glean in another field; do not leave my field. Instead, stay here and work with my young female workers.
Rth 2:9 Keep your eyes only on the field where the men are reaping and follow behind the other women. Have I not instructed the men not to touch you? Whenever you are thirsty, you may go to the waterpots and drink the water that the men have drawn."
Rth 2:10 Then she bowed down before Boaz, touching her head to the ground. She asked him, "Why have I found grace in your sight, that you should be concerned about me, a foreigner?"
Rth 2:11 Boaz answered her, "It has been reported to me, all that you have done since the death of your husband. You have left your father, mother, and the land of your birth to follow your mother-in-law and to come to a people you do not know.
Rth 2:12 May Yehowah reward you for your deed. May you receive full payment from Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, under whose wings you have found refuge."
Rth 2:13 Then she responded, "Let me find grace in your sight, my master, for you have comforted me, and you have spoken kindly to me, though I am not one of your female servants."
Rth 2:14 At mealtime Boaz said to Ruth, "Come here, and eat some of the bread, and dip your morsel in the wine vinegar." She sat beside the reapers, and he offered her some roasted grain. She ate until she was satisfied and left the rest of it.

Rth 2:15 As she rose up to gather up grain, Boaz commanded his young men, “Let her gather up the grain even among the bundles and do not tell her not to.
Rth 2:16 Also pull out for her some ears of grain from the bundles, and leave them for her to gather up, and do not rebuke her.”
Rth 2:17 So she gleaned in the field until dusk. Then she beat out the ears of grain that she had gathered, and the grain was about 22 liters of barley.
Rth 2:18 She lifted it up and went into the city. Then her mother-in-law saw what she had gathered. Ruth also brought out the roasted grain left from her meal and gave it to her.
Rth 2:19 Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where have you gleaned today? Where did you go to work? May the man who helped you be blessed.” Then Ruth told her mother-in-law about the man who owned the field where she had worked. She answered, “The name of the man who owns the field where I worked today is Boaz.”
Rth 2:20 Naomi replied to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed by Yehowah, who has not left off his loyalty to the living and to the dead.” Naomi informed her, “That man is near of kin to us, one of our kinsman-redeemers.”
Rth 2:21 Ruth the Moabitess replied, “Indeed, he said to me, ‘You should keep close to my young workers, until they have finished all my harvest.’”
Rth 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young female workers, so that you do not come to harm in any other field.”
Rth 2:23 So she stayed close to Boaz’s female workers in order to glean to the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest. She lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth Chapter 3

Rth 3:1 Naomi, her mother-in-law, instructed her, “My daughter, should I not seek a place for you to rest, so that things may go well for you?
Rth 3:2 Now Boaz, the man whose young female workers you have been with, is he not our kinsman? Look, he will be winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.
Rth 3:3 Therefore, wash yourself, anoint yourself, put on your best clothes, and go down to the threshing floor. But do not make yourself known to the man, until he finishes eating and drinking.
Rth 3:4 But when he lies down, take notice of the place where he lies down, so that later you can go to him, uncover his feet, and lie down there. Then he will tell you what to do.”
Rth 3:5 Ruth replied to Naomi, “I will do everything you say.”
Rth 3:6 So she went down to the threshing floor, and she followed the instructions her mother-in-law had given her.
Rth 3:7 When Boaz had eaten and drunk and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the pile of grain. Then she came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down.
Rth 3:8 It came about at midnight that the man was startled. He turned over, and right there a woman was lying at his feet!
Rth 3:9 He asked, “Who are you?” She answered, “I am Ruth, your female servant. Spread your cloak over your female servant, for you are a near kinsman.”
Rth 3:10 Boaz replied, “My daughter, may you be blessed by Yehowah. You have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, because you have not gone after any of the young men, whether poor or rich.
Rth 3:11 Now my daughter, do not be afraid! I will do for you all that you say, because all the city of my people knows that you are a worthy woman.
Rth 3:12 It is true that I am a kinsman, but there is a kinsman nearer than I.
Rth 3:13 Stay here tonight, and in the morning, if he will perform for you the duty of a kinsman, good, let him do the kinsman’s duty. But if he will not do the duty of a kinsman for you, then I will do it, by the life of Yehowah. Lie down until dawn.”
Rth 3:14 So she lay at his feet until dawn. But she rose up before anyone could recognize another person. For Boaz had instructed, “Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.”
Rth 3:15 Then Boaz said, “Bring your shawl and hold it out.” When she did so, he measured six large measures of barley into it and put the load on her. Then she went into the city.

Rth 3:16 When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, she asked, “How did you do, my daughter?” Then Ruth told her all that the man had done for her.
Rth 3:17 She explained, “These six measures of barley are what he gave me, for he said, ‘Do not go empty to your mother-in-law.’”
Rth 3:18 Then Naomi responded, “Stay here, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out, for the man will not rest, until he has finished this thing today.”

Ruth Chapter 4

Rth 4:1 Now Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there. Soon, the near kinsman of whom Boaz had spoken came by. Boaz entreated him, “My friend, come over and sit down here.” The man came over and sat down.
Rth 4:2 Then Boaz took ten men of the elders of the city and requested, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.
Rth 4:3 Boaz said to the near kinsman, “Naomi, who has returned from the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that was our brother Elimelech’s.
Rth 4:4 I thought to inform you and say to you, ‘Buy it in the presence of those who are sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people.’ If you wish to redeem it, redeem it. But if you do not wish to redeem it, then tell me, so that I may know, for there is no one to redeem it besides you, and I am after you.” Then the other man replied, “I will redeem it.”
Rth 4:5 Then Boaz continued, “On the day that you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must also take Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead man, in order to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance” (Levirate marriage).
Rth 4:6 Then the near kinsman responded, “I cannot redeem it for myself without damaging my own inheritance. You take my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”
Rth 4:7 Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning the redemption and exchange of goods. To confirm all things, a man took off his sandal and gave it to his neighbor; this was the manner of making legal agreements in Israel.
Rth 4:8 So the near kinsman told Boaz, “Buy it for yourself,” and he took off his sandal.
Rth 4:9 Then Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, “You are witnesses today that I have bought all that was Elimelech’s and all that was Chilion’s and Mahlon’s from the hand of Naomi.
Rth 4:10 Moreover, about Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon: I have also acquired her to be my wife, in order that I might raise up the name of the dead man on his inheritance, so that his name will not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today.”
Rth 4:11 All the people who were in the gate and the elders replied, “We are witnesses. May Yehowah make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and Leah, the two who built up the house of Israel; and may you prosper in Ephrathah and be renowned in Bethlehem.
Rth 4:12 May your household be like the household of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the offspring that Yehowah will give you with this young woman.”

Rth 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. He made love to her, and Yehowah allowed her to become pregnant, and she bore a son.
Rth 4:14 The women said to Naomi, “May Yehowah be blessed, who has not left you today without a near kinsman, this baby. May his name be famous in Israel.
Rth 4:15 May he be for you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.”
Rth 4:16 Naomi took the child, laid him in her bosom, and took care of him.
Rth 4:17 The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed. He became the father of Jesse, who became the father of David.
Rth 4:18 Now these were the descendants of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron,
Rth 4:19 Hezron became the father of Ram, Ram became the father of Amminadab,
Rth 4:20 Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, Nahshon became the father of Salmon,
Rth 4:21 Salmon became the father of Boaz, Boaz became the father of Obed,
Rth 4:22 Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of David.

Book of 1st Samuel

1 Samuel Chapter 1

1Sa 1:1 There was a certain man of Ramathaim of the Zuphites, of the hill country of Ephraim; his name was Elkanah son of Jeroham son of Elihu son of Tohu son of Zuph, an Ephraimite (1 Chron. 6:22-28).
1Sa 1:2 He had two wives; the name of the first was Hannah, and the name of the second was Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.
1Sa 1:3 This man went from his city year after year to worship and to sacrifice to Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces in Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests to Yehowah, were there.
1Sa 1:4 When the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice each year, he always gave portions of the meat to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters.
1Sa 1:5 But to Hannah he always gave a double portion, for he loved Hannah, although Yehowah had closed her womb.
1Sa 1:7 So year after year, when she went up to the tabernacle of Yehowah with her family, her rival always provoked her. Therefore, she used to weep and eat nothing.
1Sa 1:8 Elkanah her husband always asked her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”
1Sa 1:9 On one of these occasions, Hannah rose up after they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh. Now Eli the priest was sitting upon his seat by the doorway to the tabernacle of Yehowah.
1Sa 1:10 She was deeply distressed; she prayed to Yehowah and wept bitterly.
1Sa 1:11 She made a vow, “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, if you will look on the affliction of your servant and call me to mind, and do not forget your servant, but give your servant a son, then I will give him to Yehowah all the days of his life, and no razor will ever touch his head” (Num. 6).
1Sa 1:12 As she continued praying before Yehowah, Eli watched her mouth.
1Sa 1:13 Hannah spoke in her heart. Her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. Therefore, Eli thought she was drunk.
1Sa 1:14 Eli spoke to her, “How long will you be drunk? Get rid of your wine.”

1Sa 1:15 Hannah answered, “No, my master, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor beer, but I have been pouring out my soul before Yehowah.
1Sa 1:16 Do not consider your servant to be a shameless woman; I have been speaking out of the abundance of my great concern and provocation.”
1Sa 1:17 Then Eli answered, “Go in peace; may the Mighty One of Israel grant the request that you have asked him for.”
1Sa 1:18 She replied, “Let your servant find grace in your sight.” Then the woman went her way and ate; her face was no longer sad.
1Sa 1:19 They rose at the crack of dawn and worshiped before Yehowah, and then they returned again to their house in Ramah. Elkanah made love to Hannah his wife, and Yehowah called her to mind.
1Sa 1:20 Hannah conceived, and when the Spring Equinox had come, she gave birth to a son. She called his name Samuel, saying, “Because I have asked for him from Yehowah.”
1Sa 1:21 Once again, Elkanah and all his household went up to offer to Yehowah the sacrifice of days (Passover and ULB) and pay his vow.
1Sa 1:22 But Hannah did not go; she had said to her husband, “I will not go until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, so that he may appear before Yehowah and live there forever.”
1Sa 1:23 Elkanah her husband replied to her, “Do what seems good to you. Wait until you have weaned him; only, may Yehowah confirm his word.” So the woman stayed and nursed her son, until she weaned him.
1Sa 1:24 When she had weaned him, she took him with her, along with a three-year-old bull, 22 liters of meal, and a bottle of wine, and brought him to the tabernacle of Yehowah in Shiloh. Now the child was still young.
1Sa 1:25 They killed the bull, and they brought the child to Eli.
1Sa 1:26 She said, “Oh, my master! As you live, my master, I am the woman who stood here next to you praying to Yehowah.
1Sa 1:27 For this child I prayed, and Yehowah has given me my petition which I asked of him.
1Sa 1:28 I have given him to Yehowah, as long as he lives he is lent to Yehowah.” Then he worshiped Yehowah there.

1 Samuel Chapter 2

1Sa 2:1 Hannah prayed and declared, “My heart exults in Yehowah! My horn is exalted in Yehowah! My mouth boasts over my enemies, because I rejoice in your salvation!
1Sa 2:2 There is no one set apart like Yehowah, for there is none besides you; there is no Rock like our Divine One.
1Sa 2:3 Boast no more so overproudly; let no arrogance come out of your mouth. For Yehowah, the Mighty One of knowledge, makes things happen.
1Sa 2:4 The bows of the mighty men are broken, but those who stumble put on strength like a belt.
1Sa 2:5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread; those who were hungry have stopped being hungry. Even the barren one gives birth to seven, but the woman who has many children languishes.
1Sa 2:6 Yehowah kills and brings to life. He brings down to the place of the dead and raises up.
1Sa 2:7 Yehowah makes some people poor and some rich. He humbles, but he also lifts up.
1Sa 2:8 He raises up the poor out of the dust. He lifts the needy from the ash heap to make them sit with princes and inherit the seat of honor. For the pillars of the earth belong to Yehowah, and he has set the globe upon them.
1Sa 2:9 He will guard the feet of his faithful people, but the wicked will be put to silence in darkness, for no one will prevail by strength.
1Sa 2:10 Those who oppose Yehowah will be broken to pieces; he will thunder against them from Heaven! Yehowah will judge the ends of the earth; he will give strength to his king and exalt the horn of his anointed!”
1Sa 2:11 Then Elkanah went to Ramah, to his house. The child served Yehowah in the presence of Eli the priest.
1Sa 2:12 Now the sons of Eli were worthless men. They did not know Yehowah.
1Sa 2:13 The custom of the priests with the people was that when any man offered a sacrifice, the priest’s servant would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand, while the meat was boiling.
1Sa 2:14 He would stick it into the pan, or kettle, or cauldron, or pot. All that the fork brought up, the priest would take for himself. They did this in Shiloh with all the Israelis that came there.
1Sa 2:15 Worse, before they burned the fat, the priest’s servant came and demanded of the man who was sacrificing, “Give meat to roast for the priest; for he will not accept boiled meat from you but only raw.”

1Sa 2:16 If the man corrected him, “They must burn the fat first and then take as much as you want.” Then he would respond, “No, you will give it to me now; if not, I will take it by force.”
1Sa 2:17 The sin of these young men was extremely great before Yehowah, for they despised the offering of Yehowah.
1Sa 2:18 But Samuel served Yehowah as a child clothed with a linen ephod.
1Sa 2:19 His mother would make him a little robe and bring it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.
1Sa 2:20 Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, “May Yehowah give you more children by this woman, because of the request she made of Yehowah.” Then they would return to their own home.
1Sa 2:21 Yehowah again helped Hannah, and again she became pregnant. She bore three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the child Samuel grew before Yehowah.
1Sa 2:22 Now Eli was extremely old; he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they had sex with the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.
1Sa 2:23 He rebuked them, “Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil actions from all these people.
1Sa 2:24 No my sons; for it is not a good report that I hear. You make the people of Yehowah disobey.
1Sa 2:25 If one man sins against another, the Almighty will judge him; but if a man sins against Yehowah, who will speak for him?” But they would not listen to the voice of their father, because Yehowah intended to execute them.
1Sa 2:26 The child Samuel grew up and increased in grace with Yehowah and also with men.
1Sa 2:27 Now a man of the Almighty came to Eli and rebuked him, “Yehowah says, ‘Did I not reveal myself to the house of your ancestor, when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh’s house?
1Sa 2:28 I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, and to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me. I gave to the house of your ancestor all the offerings of the people of Israel made with fire.
1Sa 2:29 Why then do you scorn my sacrifices and offerings that I required in the place where I live? Why do you honor your sons above me by making yourselves fat with the best of every offering of my people Israel?’
1Sa 2:30 For Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says, ‘I promised that your household, and the household of your ancestor, should walk before me forever.’ But now Yehowah declares, ‘Far be it from me to do this, for I will honor those who honor me, but those who despise me will be lightly esteemed.

1Sa 2:31 See, the days are coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your father's household, so that there will no longer be any old man in your house.
1Sa 2:32 You will see distress in the place where I live. Although good will be given to Israel, there will no longer be any old man in your house.
1Sa 2:33 Any one of you that I do not cut off from my altar, I will cause your eyes to fail, and I will cause grief for your life. All the men born in your family will die.
1Sa 2:34 This will be the sign for you that will come on your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: They will both die on the same day.
1Sa 2:35 I will raise up for myself a faithful priest who will do what is in my heart and in my soul. I will build him a sure household; and he will walk before my anointed king forever.
1Sa 2:36 Everyone who is left in your household will come and bow down to him, asking for some silver-currency and a loaf of bread, and will plead, "Please assign me to one of the priests' positions, so I can eat a piece of bread."""

1 Samuel Chapter 3

1Sa 3:1 The child Samuel served Yehowah under Eli. The Word of Yehowah was rare in those days; there was no frequent prophetic vision.
1Sa 3:2 At that time, when Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see well, was lying down in his own bed.
1Sa 3:3 The lamp of the Almighty had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down to sleep in the tabernacle of Yehowah, where the Ark of the Almighty was.
1Sa 3:4 Yehowah called to Samuel, who answered, “Here I am.”
1Sa 3:5 Samuel ran to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Eli said, “I did not call you; lie down again.” So Samuel went and lay down.
1Sa 3:6 Yehowah called again, “Samuel.” Again Samuel rose and went to Eli and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Eli answered, “I did not call you, my son; lie down again.”
1Sa 3:7 Now Samuel did not yet have any experience of Yehowah, nor had any message from Yehowah ever been revealed to him.
1Sa 3:8 Yehowah called Samuel again the third time. Again Samuel rose up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli realized that Yehowah had called the boy.
1Sa 3:9 Then Eli said to Samuel, “Go and lie down again; if he calls you again, you must answer, ‘Speak, Yehowah, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his own place once more.
1Sa 3:10 Yehowah came and stood; he called as at the other times, “Samuel, Samuel!” Then Samuel answered, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”
1Sa 3:11 Yehowah said to Samuel, “See, I am about to do something in Israel at which the ears of everyone who hears it will tingle.
1Sa 3:12 On that day, I will carry out against Eli everything I have said about his household, from beginning to end.
1Sa 3:13 I have told him that I am about to judge his household once for all eternity for the sin that he knew about, because his sons brought a curse upon themselves, and he did not stop them.
1Sa 3:14 Because of this, I have sworn to the household of Eli that the sins of his household will never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.”
1Sa 3:15 Samuel lay down until dawn; then he opened the doors of the tabernacle of Yehowah. But Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision.
1Sa 3:16 Then Eli called Samuel, “Samuel, my son.” Samuel answered, “Here I am.”
1Sa 3:17 He entreated, “What was the word he spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. May the Almighty do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the words that he spoke to you.”

1Sa 3:18 Samuel told him everything; he hid nothing from him. Eli responded, “It is Yehowah. Let him do what seems good to him.”
1Sa 3:19 Samuel grew, and Yehowah was with him and let none of his prophetic words fail to come true.
1Sa 3:20 All Israel from Dan to Beersheba knew that Samuel was appointed to be a prophet of Yehowah.
1Sa 3:21 Yehowah appeared again in Shiloh, for he revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the Word of Yehowah.

1 Samuel Chapter 4

1Sa 4:1 The word of Samuel came to all of Israel. Now Israel went out to battle against the Philistines. They set up camp at Ebenezer, and the Philistines set up camp at Aphek.
1Sa 4:2 The Philistines lined up for battle against Israel. When the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men on the field of battle.
1Sa 4:3 When the people came into the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has Yehowah defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah here from Shiloh, that it may be here with us, that it might keep us safe from the hands of our enemies.”
1Sa 4:4 So the people sent men to Shiloh; from there they carried the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, who sits above the cherubim. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Ark of the Covenant of the Almighty.
1Sa 4:5 When the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah came into the camp, all of the people of Israel gave a great shout, and the earth resounded.
1Sa 4:6 When the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, they asked, “What does this loud shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” Then they realized that the Ark of Yehowah had come into the camp.
1Sa 4:7 The Philistines were afraid; they said, “The Almighty has come into the camp.” They exclaimed, “Woe to us! Nothing like this has happened before!
1Sa 4:8 Woe to us! Who will protect us from the strength of these powerful Divine Ones? These are the Divine Ones who attacked the Egyptians with many different kinds of plagues in the wilderness.
1Sa 4:9 Take courage and be men, you Philistines, or you will become slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been slaves to you. Be men and fight!”
1Sa 4:10 The Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated. Every man fled to his house, and the slaughter was extremely great; for thirty thousand infantrymen from Israel fell.
1Sa 4:11 The Ark of the Almighty was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.
1Sa 4:12 A man of Benjamin ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh the same day, arriving with his clothes torn and earth on his head.
1Sa 4:13 When he arrived, Eli was sitting on his seat by the road watching, because his heart trembled with concern for the Ark of the Almighty. When the man entered the city and told the news, the whole city cried out.
1Sa 4:14 When Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he asked, “What is the meaning of this uproar?” The man quickly came and told Eli.

1Sa 4:15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; his eyes did not focus, and he could not see.
1Sa 4:16 The man reported to Eli, “I am the one who came from the battle line. I fled from the battle today.” Eli asked, “How did it go, my son?”
1Sa 4:17 The man who brought the news answered, “Israel fled from the Philistines. Also, there has been a great defeat among the people. Also, your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the Ark of the Almighty has been taken.”
1Sa 4:18 When he mentioned the Ark of the Almighty, Eli fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate. His neck was broken, and he died (c. 1123 BC), because he was old and heavy. He had judged Israel for forty years.
1Sa 4:19 Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas’ wife, was pregnant and about to give birth. When she heard the news that the Ark of the Almighty was captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she knelt down and gave birth, but her labor pains overwhelmed her.
1Sa 4:20 About the time of her death, the women attending to her announced, “Do not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son.” But she did not answer or take what they said to heart.
1Sa 4:21 She named the child Ichabod, stating, “The glory has gone away from Israel!” For the Ark of the Almighty had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband.
1Sa 4:22 She declared, “The glory has gone away from Israel, because the Ark of the Almighty has been captured!”

1 Samuel Chapter 5

1Sa 5:1 Now the Philistines had captured the Ark of the Almighty, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.
1Sa 5:2 The Philistines took the Ark of the Almighty, brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it up beside Dagon.
1Sa 5:3 When the people of Ashdod rose up early the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen facedown on the ground before the Ark of Yehowah. So they took Dagon and set him up in his place again.
1Sa 5:4 But when they rose up early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen facedown on the ground before the Ark of Yehowah. The head of Dagon and both of his hands were lying cut off in the doorway. Only the trunk of Dagon remained.
1Sa 5:5 This is why, even today, the priests of Dagon and anyone who comes into Dagon's house does not step on the doorway of Dagon in Ashdod.
1Sa 5:6 The hand of Yehowah was heavy upon the people of Ashdod. He destroyed them and afflicted them with tumors, both Ashdod and its territories.
1Sa 5:7 When the men of Ashdod realized what was happening, they said, "The Ark of the Mighty One of Israel must not stay with us, because his hand is hard against us and against Dagon our deity."
1Sa 5:8 So they sent for and gathered together all of the rulers of the Philistines; they asked them, "What should we do with the Ark of the Mighty One of Israel?" They answered, "Let the Ark of the Mighty One of Israel be brought around to Gath." So they carried the Ark of the Mighty One of Israel there.
1Sa 5:9 But after they brought it around, the hand of Yehowah was against the city, causing an extremely great confusion. He afflicted the men of the city, both small and great; and tumors broke out on them.
1Sa 5:10 So they sent the Ark of the Almighty to Ekron. But as soon as the Ark of the Almighty came into Ekron, the Ekronites cried out, "They have brought to us the Ark of the Mighty One of Israel to kill us and our people!"
1Sa 5:11 So they sent for and gathered together all of the rulers of the Philistines; they said to them, "Send away the Ark of the Mighty One of Israel, and let it return to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people." For there was a deadly panic throughout the city; the hand of the Almighty was extremely heavy there.
1Sa 5:12 The men who did not die were afflicted with the tumors, and the cry of the city went up to the heavens!

1 Samuel Chapter 6

1Sa 6:1 Now the Ark of Yehowah was in the country of the Philistines for seven months (c. 1123 BC).
1Sa 6:2 Then the Philistine people called for the priests and the diviners; they asked them, “What should we do with the Ark of Yehowah? Tell us how we should send it back to its own country.”
1Sa 6:3 The priests and diviners answered, “If you send back the Ark of the Mighty One of Israel, do not send it without a gift; by all means send him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and you will know why his hand has not been lifted off of you until now.”
1Sa 6:4 Then they asked, “What should the guilt offering be that we are returning to him?” They answered, “Five golden tumors and five golden mice, five being the number that is the same as the number of the rulers of the Philistines. For the same plague afflicted you and your rulers.
1Sa 6:5 So you must make models of your tumors, and models of your mice that ravage the land, and give glory to the Mighty One of Israel. Perhaps he will lift his hand from you, from your deities, and from your land.
1Sa 6:6 Why should you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? That was when the Mighty One of Israel dealt severely with them; did not the Egyptians send away the people, and they left?
1Sa 6:7 Now then prepare a new cart with two nursing cows that have never been yoked. Tie the cows to the cart, but take their calves home, away from them.
1Sa 6:8 Then take the Ark of Yehowah and place it in the cart. Put the golden figures that you are returning to him as a guilt offering into a box to one side of it. Then send it off and let it go its own way.
1Sa 6:9 Then watch; if it goes up on the way to its own land to Beth Shemesh, then it is Yehowah who has executed this great disaster. But if not, then we will know that it is not his hand that afflicted us; instead, we will know that it happened to us by chance.”
1Sa 6:10 The men did as they were told; they took two nursing cows, tied them to the cart, and confined their calves at home.
1Sa 6:11 They put the Ark of Yehowah on the cart, together with a box containing the golden mice and the castings of their tumors.
1Sa 6:12 The cows went straight in the direction of Beth Shemesh. They went along one highway, lowing as they went, and they did not turn aside either to the right or to the left. The rulers of the Philistines followed after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.

1Sa 6:13 Now the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley. When they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, they rejoiced!
1Sa 6:14 The cart came into the field of Yehoshua from the town of Beth Shemesh and stopped there. A great stone was there, and they split the wood from the cart, and offered the cows as a burnt offering to Yehowah.
1Sa 6:15 The Levites took down the Ark of Yehowah and the box that was with it, where the golden figures were, and put them on the great stone. The men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices the same day to Yehowah.
1Sa 6:16 When the five rulers of the Philistines saw this, they returned that day to Ekron.
1Sa 6:17 These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering to Yehowah: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, and one for Ekron.
1Sa 6:18 The golden mice were the same in number as the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five rulers, both fortified cities and country villages. The great stone, beside which they set down the Ark of Yehowah, remains a witness to this day in the field of Yehoshua the Bethshemite.
1Sa 6:19 Yehowah attacked some of the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the Ark of Yehowah. He killed seventy from the tribe of 50,000 men. The people mourned, because Yehowah had given the people a great blow.
1Sa 6:20 The men of Beth Shemesh asked, “Who is able to stand before Yehowah, this set-apart Almighty? To whom will He go up from us?”
1Sa 6:21 They sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath Jearim, announcing, “The Philistines have brought back the Ark of Yehowah; come down and take it back with you.”

1 Samuel Chapter 7

1Sa 7:1 The men of Kiriath Jearim came, took the Ark of Yehowah, and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill. They set apart his son Eleazar to keep the Ark of Yehowah.
1Sa 7:2 From the day the ark remained in Kiriath Jearim, a long time passed, twenty years (c. 1122-1103 BC). All the house of Israel lamented and wished to turn to Yehowah.
1Sa 7:3 Samuel proclaimed to the entire house of Israel, "If you return to Yehowah with your whole heart, remove the foreign deities and the Ashtaroth from among you, turn your hearts to Yehowah, and worship him only, then he will rescue you from the hand of the Philistines."
1Sa 7:4 Then the people of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and worshiped Yehowah only (c. 1103 BC).
1Sa 7:5 Then Samuel ordered, "Bring together all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to Yehowah for you."
1Sa 7:6 They gathered at Mizpah, drew water and poured it out before Yehowah. They fasted that day and confessed, "We have sinned against Yehowah." It was there that Samuel decided disputes for the people of Israel and led the people.
1Sa 7:7 Now when the Philistines heard the people of Israel had gathered at Mizpah, the rulers of the Philistines attacked Israel. When the people of Israel heard of it, they were afraid of the Philistines.
1Sa 7:8 Then the people of Israel entreated Samuel, "Do not stop calling out to Yehowah our Divine One for us, so he will save us from the hand of the Philistines."
1Sa 7:9 Samuel took a nursing lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to Yehowah. Then Samuel cried out to Yehowah for Israel, and Yehowah answered him.
1Sa 7:10 As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines approached to attack Israel. But Yehowah thundered with a loud sound that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion, and they were routed before Israel.
1Sa 7:11 The men of Israel went from Mizpah, and they pursued the Philistines and killed them as far as below Bethcar.
1Sa 7:12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, declaring, "Thus far Yehowah has helped us."
1Sa 7:13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they did not enter the border of Israel. The hand of Yehowah was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel (c. 1102 BC).

1Sa 7:14 The towns that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; Israel brought back their territory from the Philistines. Then there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.
1Sa 7:15 Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.
1Sa 7:16 Each year he went on a circuit to Bethel, to Gilgal, and to Mizpah. He decided disputes for Israel in all these places.
1Sa 7:17 Then he would return to Ramah, because his house was there; and there also he decided disputes for Israel. He also built an altar there to Yehowah.

1 Samuel Chapter 8

1Sa 8:1 When Samuel was old, he made his sons judges over Israel.
1Sa 8:2 The name of his firstborn was Joel, and the name of his second son was Abijah (Abiyah). They were judges in Beersheba.
1Sa 8:3 His sons did not walk in his Ways, but chased after dishonest gain. They took bribes and perverted justice.
1Sa 8:4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.
1Sa 8:5 They entreated him, “Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your Ways. Appoint for us a king to judge us like all the ethnicities.”
1Sa 8:6 But it displeased Samuel when they requested, “Give us a king to judge us.” So Samuel prayed to Yehowah.
1Sa 8:7 Yehowah answered Samuel, “Obey the voice of the people in everything they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them.
1Sa 8:8 They are acting now the same as they did since the day I brought them out of Egypt, forsaking me, and serving false deities, and so they are also doing to you.
1Sa 8:9 Now listen to them but warn them solemnly, and let them know the way the king will rule over them.”
1Sa 8:10 So Samuel told all the words of Yehowah to the people who were asking for a king.
1Sa 8:11 He said, “This will be the practice of the king who will reign over you. He will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots, to be his cavalry, and to run before his chariots.
1Sa 8:12 He will appoint for himself captains of thousands of soldiers, and captains of fifty soldiers. He will make some plow his ground, some reap his harvest, and some make his weapons of war and the equipment for his chariots.
1Sa 8:13 He will also take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks, and bakers.
1Sa 8:14 He will take the best of your fields, your vineyards, and your olive orchards, and give them to his servants.
1Sa 8:15 He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give to his officers and his servants.
1Sa 8:16 He will take your male servants, your female servants, the best of your young men, and your donkeys; he will put them all to work for him.
1Sa 8:17 He will take the tenth of your flocks, and you will be his slaves.
1Sa 8:18 Then on that day you will cry out, because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves; but Yehowah will not answer you on that day.”

1Sa 8:19 But the people refused to listen to Samuel; they responded, “No! There must be a king over us,
1Sa 8:20 so that we might be like all the ethnicities, and so that our king may judge us, go out before us, and fight our battles.”
1Sa 8:21 When Samuel heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the ears of Yehowah.
1Sa 8:22 Yehowah ordered Samuel, “Obey their voice and cause someone to be king for them.” So Samuel replied to the men of Israel, “Every man must go to his hometown.”

1 Samuel Chapter 9

1Sa 9:1 There was a man from Benjamin, a man of influence. His name was Kish son of Abiel son of Zeror son of Becorath son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite.
1Sa 9:2 He had a son named Saul, a handsome young man. There was no man among the people of Israel who was a more handsome person than he. From his shoulders upward he was taller than any of the people.
1Sa 9:3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. So Kish ordered Saul his son, "Take one of the servants with you; arise and go look for the donkeys."
1Sa 9:4 So Saul passed through the hill country of Ephraim and went through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.
1Sa 9:5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us go back, or my father may stop caring for the donkeys and begin to worry about us."
1Sa 9:6 But the servant replied to him, "Listen, there is a man of the Almighty in this city. He is a man who is held in honor; everything that he says comes true. Let us go there; maybe he can tell us which way we should go on our journey."
1Sa 9:7 Then Saul asked his servant, "But if we go, what can we bring the man? For the bread in our sack is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of the Almighty. What do we have?"
1Sa 9:8 The servant answered Saul, "Here, I have with me one fourth-weight silver-currency that I will give to the man of the Almighty, to tell us which way we should go."
1Sa 9:9 Formerly in Israel, when a man went to seek the knowledge of the will of the Almighty, he said, "Come, let us go to the seer." For today's prophet was formerly called a seer.
1Sa 9:10 Then Saul complimented his servant, "Well said. Come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of the Almighty was.
1Sa 9:11 As they went up the hill to the city, they found young women coming out to draw water; Saul and his servant asked them, "Is the seer here?"
1Sa 9:12 They answered, "He is; see, he is just ahead of you. Hurry up, for he is coming to the city today, because the people are sacrificing today at the high place.
1Sa 9:13 As soon as you enter the city you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not eat until he comes, because he will bless the sacrifice; afterwards those who are invited will eat. Now go up, for you will find him immediately."

1Sa 9:14 So they went up to the city. As they were entering the city, they saw Samuel coming out toward them, to go up to the high place.
1Sa 9:15 Now the day before Saul came, Yehowah had revealed to Samuel:
1Sa 9:16 “Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you will anoint him to be prince over my people Israel. He will save my people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked on my people with pity, because their call for help has come to me.”
1Sa 9:17 When Samuel saw Saul, Yehowah told him, “Here is the man I told you about! He is the one who will rule over my people.”
1Sa 9:18 Then Saul came close to Samuel in the gate and asked, “Tell me, where is the house of the seer?”
1Sa 9:19 Samuel answered Saul, “I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for today you will eat with me. At dawn, I will let you go, and I will tell you everything that is on your mind.
1Sa 9:20 As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not worry about them, for they have been found. Then on whom are all the desires of Israel set? Is it not on you and all your father’s household?”
1Sa 9:21 Saul answered, “Am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel? Is not my clan the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then have you spoken to me in this manner?”
1Sa 9:22 So Samuel took Saul and his servant, brought them into the hall, and seated them at the head place of those who had been invited, who were about thirty people.
1Sa 9:23 Samuel ordered the cook, “Bring the portion which I gave to you, of which I said to you, ‘Put it aside.’”
1Sa 9:24 So the cook took up the thigh and what was on it and set it before Saul. Then Samuel said, “See what has been kept is set before you. Eat it, because it has been kept for you until the appointment calendar festival, from the time when I said, ‘I have invited the people.’” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.
1Sa 9:25 When they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul on the rooftop.
1Sa 9:26 Then at the break of dawn, Samuel called to Saul on the rooftop, “Get up, so I can send you on your way!” So Saul rose up, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.
1Sa 9:27 As they were going to the outskirts of the city, Samuel ordered Saul, “Tell the servant to go ahead of us,” and he went ahead, “but you must stay here awhile, that I may announce the message of the Almighty to you.”

1 Samuel Chapter 10

1Sa 10:1 Then Samuel took a flask of oil, poured it on Saul's head, and kissed him (c. 1103 BC). He said, "Has not Yehowah anointed you to be a ruler over his inheritance?
1Sa 10:2 When you leave me today, you will find two men near Rachel's tomb, in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah. They will say to you, 'The donkeys that you were looking for have been found. Now your father has stopped caring about the donkeys and is worried about you, asking, "What should I do about my son?"'
1Sa 10:3 Then you will go on further from there, and you will come to the oak of Tabor. Three men going to the Almighty at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.
1Sa 10:4 They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will take from their hands.
1Sa 10:5 After that, you will come to the hill of Yehowah, where the garrison of the Philistines is. When you arrive at the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with a harp, a tambourine, a flute, and a lyre before them; they will be prophesying.
1Sa 10:6 The Ruach of Yehowah will rush upon you, and you will prophesy with them, and you will be changed into a different man.
1Sa 10:7 Now when these signs come to you, do whatever your hand finds to do, for the Almighty is with you.
1Sa 10:8 Go down before me to Gilgal. Then I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings. Wait seven days, until I come to you and show you what you must do."
1Sa 10:9 When Saul turned his back to leave Samuel, the Almighty gave him another heart. Then all these signs came to pass that day.
1Sa 10:10 When they came to the hill, a group of prophets met him, and the Ruach of the Almighty rushed upon him, so that he prophesied with them.
1Sa 10:11 When everyone who knew him before saw him prophesying with the prophets, the people asked each other, "What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul one of the prophets now?"
1Sa 10:12 A man who was from that same place answered, "Then who is their father?" Because of this, it became a saying, "Is Saul also one of the prophets?"
1Sa 10:13 When he finished prophesying, he came to the high place.
1Sa 10:14 Then Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where did you go?" He answered, "To look for the donkeys. When we saw that we could not find them, we went to Samuel."

1Sa 10:15 Saul's uncle said, "Please tell me what Samuel said to you."
1Sa 10:16 Saul replied to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found." But he did not tell him about the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel had spoken.
1Sa 10:17 Now Samuel called the people together before Yehowah at Mizpah.
1Sa 10:18 He said to the people of Israel, "This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says: 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.'
1Sa 10:19 But today you have rejected your Divine One, who saves you from all of your calamities and your distresses; and you have said to him, 'Set a king over us.' Now present yourselves before Yehowah by your tribes and by your clans."
1Sa 10:20 So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was chosen.
1Sa 10:21 Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their clans; and the clan of the Matrites was chosen; and Saul son of Kish was chosen. But when they went looking for him, he could not be found.
1Sa 10:22 Then the people wanted to ask Yehowah more questions, "Is there still another man to come?" Yehowah answered, "He has hidden himself among the baggage."
1Sa 10:23 Then they ran and retrieved Saul from there. When he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders upward.
1Sa 10:24 Then Samuel said to the people, "Do you see the man whom Yehowah has chosen? There is no one like him among all the people!" All the people shouted, "Long live the king!"
1Sa 10:25 Then Samuel told the people the customs and rules of kingship, wrote them down in a Book, and placed it before Yehowah. Samuel then sent all the people away, each man to his own house.
1Sa 10:26 Saul also went to his home at Gibeah, and with him went some strong men, whose hearts the Almighty had touched.
1Sa 10:27 But some worthless men asked, "How can this man save us?" These people despised Saul and did not bring him any gifts. But Saul kept silent.

1 Samuel Chapter 11

1Sa 11:1 King Nahash of Ammon was severely oppressing the tribes of Gad and Reuben. He would gouge out everyone's right eye and allow no one to rescue Israel. There was no one among the Israelis east of the Jordan River whose right eye King Nahash of Ammon had not gouged out. However, seven thousand men had escaped from the Ammonites and gone to Jabesh Gilead. Then Nahash the Ammonite went and laid seige to Jabesh Gilead. All the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you."
1Sa 11:2 Nahash the Ammonite replied, "On this condition will I make a treaty with you, that I gouge out all of your right eyes, and in this way bring disgrace on all Israel."
1Sa 11:3 Then the elders of Jabesh replied to him, "Leave us alone for seven days, so that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. Then if there is no one to save us, we will surrender to you."
1Sa 11:4 The messengers came to Gibeah, where Saul lived, and told the people what had happened. All the people wept loudly.
1Sa 11:5 Now Saul was following the oxen out of the field. Saul asked, "What is wrong with the people that they are weeping?" They told Saul what the men of Jabesh had said.
1Sa 11:6 When Saul heard what they said, the Ruach of the Almighty rushed upon him, and he was extremely angry.
1Sa 11:7 He took a yoke of oxen, cut them into pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel with the messengers. He said, "Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, this is what will be done to his oxen." Then the terror of Yehowah fell on the people, and they came out together as one man.
1Sa 11:8 When he mustered them at Bezek, the people of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
1Sa 11:9 They said to the messengers that came, "You will tell the men of Jabesh Gilead, 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will be rescued.'" So the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh, and they were glad.
1Sa 11:10 Then the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Tomorrow, we will surrender to you, and you can do to us whatever seems good to you."
1Sa 11:11 The next day, Saul put the people in three groups. They came into the middle of the camp during the morning watch, and they attacked and defeated the Ammonites until the heat of the day. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.
1Sa 11:12 Then the people said to Samuel, "Who was it who asked, 'Will Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, so we can execute them."

1Sa 11:13 But Saul said, “No one must be executed this day, because today Yehowah has rescued Israel.”
1Sa 11:14 Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and renew the monarchy there.”
1Sa 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal and made Saul king before Yehowah in Gilgal. There they sacrificed peace offerings before Yehowah, and Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly!

1 Samuel Chapter 12

1Sa 12:1 Samuel said to all Israel, “I have listened to everything you said to me, and I have set a king over you.
1Sa 12:2 Now here is the king walking before you; and I am old and gray; and my sons are with you. I have walked before you from my youth until today.
1Sa 12:3 Here I am; testify against me before Yehowah and before his anointed one. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with? Testify against me, and I will restore it to you.”
1Sa 12:4 They answered, “You have not cheated us, oppressed us, or have stolen anything from any man’s hand.”
1Sa 12:5 He said to them, “Yehowah is witness against you, and his anointed one is witness today, that you have found nothing in my hand.” They replied, “Yehowah is witness.”
1Sa 12:6 Samuel said to the people, “It is Yehowah who appointed Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt.
1Sa 12:7 Now then present yourselves, so that I may plead with you before Yehowah about all of the righteous deeds of Yehowah, which he did for you and your fathers.
1Sa 12:8 When Jacob came to Egypt, and your ancestors cried out to Yehowah, then Yehowah sent Moses and Aaron, who led your ancestors out of Egypt and they settled in this place.
1Sa 12:9 But they forgot Yehowah their Divine One; he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the armed forces of Hazor, into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; these all fought against your ancestors.
1Sa 12:10 They cried out to Yehowah, ‘We have sinned, because we have forsaken Yehowah and have served the Baals and the Ashtoreths! But now rescue us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.’
1Sa 12:11 So Yehowah sent Jerub Baal (Gideon), Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and gave you victory over your enemies all around you, so that you lived in security.
1Sa 12:12 When you saw that Nahash the king of the people of Ammon came against you, you said to me, ‘No! Instead, a king must reign over us,’ although Yehowah your Divine One was your king.
1Sa 12:13 Now here is the king whom you have chosen, whom you have asked for, and whom Yehowah has now appointed as king over you.
1Sa 12:14 If you fear Yehowah, serve him, obey his voice, and do not rebel against the command of Yehowah, then both you and the king who reigns over you will be followers of Yehowah your Divine One.

1Sa 12:15 If you do not obey the voice of Yehowah but rebel against the commands of Yehowah, then the hand of Yehowah will be against you, as it was against your ancestors.
1Sa 12:16 Even now present yourselves and see this great thing which Yehowah will do before your eyes.
1Sa 12:17 Is it not the wheat harvest today (Shavuot)? I will call upon Yehowah, that he may send thunder and rain. Then you will know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of Yehowah, in asking for yourselves a king."
1Sa 12:18 So Samuel called to Yehowah; and that same day Yehowah sent thunder and rain. Then all the people greatly feared Yehowah and Samuel.
1Sa 12:19 Then all the people entreated Samuel, "Pray for your servants to Yehowah your Divine One, so that we do not die. For we have added to all our sins this evil in asking for a king for ourselves."
1Sa 12:20 Samuel replied, "Do not be afraid. You have done all this evil, but do not turn away from Yehowah, but serve Yehowah with all your heart.
1Sa 12:21 Do not turn away after empty things that cannot profit or rescue you, because they are useless.
1Sa 12:22 For the sake of his great name, Yehowah will not reject his people, because it has pleased Yehowah to make you a people for himself.
1Sa 12:23 As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against Yehowah by ceasing to pray for you. Instead, I will teach you the Way that is good and right.
1Sa 12:24 Only fear Yehowah and serve him in truth with all your heart. Consider the great things he has done for you.
1Sa 12:25 But if you persist in doing evil, both you and your king will be destroyed."

1 Samuel Chapter 13

1Sa 13:1 Saul now had been king one year, and when he had reigned two years over Israel,
1Sa 13:2 Saul chose three thousand men of Israel: Two thousand were with him in Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, while a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the soldiers he sent home, each man to his tent.
1Sa 13:3 Jonathan defeated the garrison of the Philistines that was at Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. Then Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, shouting, “Let the Hebrews hear!”
1Sa 13:4 All Israel heard that Saul had defeated the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel had become a rotten smell to the Philistines. Then the soldiers were summoned together to join Saul at Gilgal.
1Sa 13:5 The Philistines gathered together to fight against Israel: three thousand chariots, six thousand men to drive the chariots, and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They came up and encamped at Michmash, east of Bethaven.
1Sa 13:6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in trouble, for the people were distressed, the people hid in caves, in the underbrush, in rocks, in wells, and in pits.
1Sa 13:7 Some of the Hebrews went over the Jordan River to the land of Gad and Gilead. But Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.
1Sa 13:8 He waited seven days, the appointment calendar time Samuel had set. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people were scattering from Saul.
1Sa 13:9 Saul ordered, “Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings.” Then he offered the burnt offering.
1Sa 13:10 As soon as he finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet him and to greet him.
1Sa 13:11 Then Samuel asked, “What have you done?” Saul answered, “When I saw that the people were leaving me, and that you did not come within the set time, and that the Philistines had assembled at Michmash, 1Sa 13:12 I concluded, ‘Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not sought the grace of Yehowah.’ So I forced myself to offer the burnt offering.”
1Sa 13:13 Then Samuel said to Saul, “You have acted foolishly. You have not kept the command of Yehowah your Divine One that he gave you. For then Yehowah would have established your rule over Israel forever.

1Sa 13:14 But now your rule will not continue. Yehowah has sought out a man after his own heart, and Yehowah has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you have not obeyed what he commanded you.”
1Sa 13:15 Then Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. Then Saul numbered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.
1Sa 13:16 Saul, his son Jonathan, and the people who were present with them, stayed in Geba of Benjamin. But the Philistines camped at Michmash.
1Sa 13:17 Raiders came from the camp of the Philistines in three groups. One group turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual.
1Sa 13:18 Another group turned toward Bethhoron, and another group turned toward the border that overlooks the Valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.
1Sa 13:19 No blacksmith could be found throughout all of Israel, because the Philistines said, “Otherwise the Hebrews would make swords or spears for themselves.”
1Sa 13:20 But all the men of Israel used to go down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his plow points, his pickaxe, his ax, and his sickle.
1Sa 13:21 The charge was three-weight for the plow points and the pickaxes, and three-weight for sharpening axes, and for straightening the goads.
1Sa 13:22 So on the day of battle, there were no swords or spears found in the hands of any of the soldiers who were with Saul and Jonathan; only Saul and his son Jonathan had them.
1Sa 13:23 The garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Samuel Chapter 14

1Sa 14:1 One day, Jonathan son of Saul said to his young armor bearer, “Come, let us go over to the Philistines’ garrison on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.
1Sa 14:2 Saul was staying on the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that is in Migron. About six hundred men were with him,
1Sa 14:3 including Ahijah (Achiyah) son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, son of Phinehas son of Eli, the priest of Yehowah at Shiloh, who wore an ephod. The people did not know that Jonathan was gone.
1Sa 14:4 On each side of the pass through which Jonathan wanted to go in order to get to the Philistines’ garrison, there was a rocky cliff on one side and another rocky cliff on the other side. One rocky cliff was called Bozez and the other rocky cliff was called Seneh.
1Sa 14:5 One rocky cliff stood on the north in front of Michmash and the other on the south in front of Geba.
1Sa 14:6 Jonathan said to his young armor bearer, “Come, let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that Yehowah will work on our behalf, for nothing can stop Yehowah from saving by many or by few.”
1Sa 14:7 His armor bearer replied, “Do everything that is in your heart. Go ahead, see, I am with you, to obey all your commands.”
1Sa 14:8 Then Jonathan said, “We will cross over to the men, and we will show ourselves to them.
1Sa 14:9 If they say to us, ‘Wait there until we come over to you’, then we will stay in our place and will not cross over to them.
1Sa 14:10 But if they reply, ‘Come over to us,’ then we will cross over, because Yehowah has given them into our hand. This will be the sign to us.”
1Sa 14:11 So both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. The Philistines remarked, “Look, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves.”
1Sa 14:12 Then the men of the garrison called to Jonathan and his armor bearer, “Come up to us, and we will show you something!” Jonathan said to his armor bearer, “Follow after me, because Yehowah has given them into the hand of Israel.”
1Sa 14:13 Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armor bearer followed behind him. The Philistines were put to death before Jonathan, and his armor bearer put some to death behind him.
1Sa 14:14 That first attack that Jonathan and his armor bearer made, killed about twenty men within an area of a half-hectare.

1Sa 14:15 There was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among the people. Even the garrison and the raiders panicked. The earth quaked, and there was panic from the Almighty.
1Sa 14:16 Then Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; the crowd of Philistine soldiers was dispersing, and they were going here and there.
1Sa 14:17 Then Saul ordered the people that were with him, "Count and see who is missing from us." When they had counted, Jonathan and his armor bearer were missing.
1Sa 14:18 Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the Ark of the Almighty here," for at that time the Ark of the Almighty was with the people of Israel.
1Sa 14:19 While Saul was talking to the priest, the commotion in the camp of the Philistines was continuing and increasing. Then Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."
1Sa 14:20 Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and went into battle. Every Philistine's sword was against his fellow countrymen, and there was extremely great confusion.
1Sa 14:21 Now those Hebrews who previously had been with the Philistines, and who had gone with them into the camp, even they joined with the Israelis that were with Saul and Jonathan.
1Sa 14:22 When all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hills near Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, even they chased after them in battle.
1Sa 14:23 So Yehowah saved Israel that day, and the battle passed beyond Beth Aven.
1Sa 14:24 That day, the men of Israel were distressed, because Saul had put the people under an oath, "Cursed be the man that eats any food before dusk, and I am avenged on my enemies." So none of the troops tasted food.
1Sa 14:25 Then all the people entered the forest, and there was honey upon the ground.
1Sa 14:26 When the people entered into the forest, the honey flowed, but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath.
1Sa 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard that his father had bound the people with an oath. He reached out the tip of the trekking pole that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb. He raised his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.
1Sa 14:28 Then one of the people answered, "Your father strictly charged the people with an oath by saying, 'Cursed be the man that eats food on this day,' even though the people are weak from hunger."
1Sa 14:29 Then Jonathan responded, "My father has made trouble for the land. See how my eyes have become brightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

1Sa 14:30 How much better if the people had eaten freely today of the plunder from their enemies that they found? Because now the slaughter has not been great among the Philistines."
1Sa 14:31 They attacked the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. The people were extremely weary.
1Sa 14:32 The people rushed greedily on the plunder and took sheep, oxen and calves, and killed them on the ground. The people ate them with the blood.
1Sa 14:33 Then they told Saul, "Look, the people are sinning against Yehowah by eating with the blood." Saul said, "You have acted unfaithfully. Now roll a big stone here to me."
1Sa 14:34 Saul ordered, "Go out among the people, and tell them, 'Let every man bring his ox and his sheep, kill them here and eat. Do not sin against Yehowah by eating with the blood.'" So each of the people brought his own ox with him that night and killed it there.
1Sa 14:35 Saul built an altar to Yehowah, which was the first altar that he built to Yehowah.
1Sa 14:36 Then Saul said, "Let us pursue the Philistines by night and plunder them until morning; let us not leave one of them alive." They replied, "Do whatever seems good to you." But the priest said, "Let us approach the Almighty here."
1Sa 14:37 Saul asked the Almighty, "Should I pursue the Philistines? Will you give them into the hand of Israel?" But He did not answer him that day.
1Sa 14:38 Then Saul said, "Come here, all you leaders of the people; learn and see how this sin has happened today.
1Sa 14:39 For as Yehowah lives, who saves Israel, even if it is in Jonathan my son, he will surely be executed." But none of the men among all the people answered him.
1Sa 14:40 Then he said to all Israel, "You must stand on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other." The people replied to Saul, "Do what seems good to you."
1Sa 14:41 Therefore, Saul asked Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, "Why have you not answered your servant today? Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, if this guilt lies in me or in my son Jonathan, let the lot be Urim; if it lies in your people Israel, let it be Thummim." Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, but the people escaped being chosen.
1Sa 14:42 Then Saul ordered, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son." Then Jonathan was taken by lot.
1Sa 14:43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." Jonathan told him, "I tasted a little honey with the end of the trekking pole that was in my hand. Here I am; I will accept execution."

1Sa 14:44 Saul replied, “The Almighty do so to me, and more also, if you are not executed, Jonathan.”
1Sa 14:45 Then the people responded to Saul, “Should Jonathan be executed, who has accomplished this great victory for Israel? Far from it! As Yehowah lives, not one hair of his head will fall to the ground, for he has worked with the Almighty today.” So the people rescued Jonathan, so that he did not die.
1Sa 14:46 Then Saul stopped pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.
1Sa 14:47 When Saul began to rule over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side. He fought against Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment on them.
1Sa 14:48 He acted with great courage and defeated the Amalekites. He rescued Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them.
1Sa 14:49 The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua. The names of his two daughters were Merab, the firstborn, and Michal, the younger.
1Sa 14:50 The name of Saul’s wife was Ahinoam; she was the daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the captain of his military force was Abner son of Ner, Saul’s uncle.
1Sa 14:51 Kish was Saul’s father; and Ner, the father of Abner, was the son of Abiel.
1Sa 14:52 There was hard fighting against the Philistines all the days of Saul. When Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he attached him to himself.

1 Samuel Chapter 15

1Sa 15:1 Samuel said to Saul, “Yehowah sent me to anoint you king over his people Israel. Now listen to the words of Yehowah.
1Sa 15:2 This is what Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces commands, ‘I have noted what Amalek did to Israel in opposing them on the way, when they came up from Egypt.
1Sa 15:3 Now go and attack Amalek and completely destroy all that they have. Do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’”
1Sa 15:4 Saul summoned the people and numbered them at the city of Telem: two hundred thousand infantrymen, and ten thousand men of Judah.
1Sa 15:5 Then Saul came to the city of Amalek and waited in the valley.
1Sa 15:6 Then Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, come out from among the Amalekites, so I do not destroy you along with them. For you showed kindness to all the people of Israel, when they came from Egypt.” So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.
1Sa 15:7 Then Saul attacked the Amalekites, from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt.
1Sa 15:8 Then he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive; he completely destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.
1Sa 15:9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, as well as the best of the sheep, oxen, fattened calves, and the lambs. Everything that was good, they did not destroy. But they completely destroyed anything that was despised and worthless.
1Sa 15:10 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Samuel,
1Sa 15:11 “It grieves me that I have made Saul king, for he has turned back from following me and has not performed my commandments.” Samuel was angry; he cried out to Yehowah all night.
1Sa 15:12 Samuel rose up early to meet Saul at dawn. Samuel was told, “Saul came to Carmel, and he set up a monument to himself, then turned and proceeded on down to Gilgal.”
1Sa 15:13 Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, “Blessed are you by Yehowah! I have fulfilled the command of Yehowah.”
1Sa 15:14 Samuel asked, “What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen that I hear?”
1Sa 15:15 Saul answered, “They have brought them from the Amalekites. For the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen, to sacrifice to Yehowah your Divine One. The rest we have completely destroyed.”

1Sa 15:16 Then Samuel replied to Saul, “Wait, and I will tell you what Yehowah has said to me tonight.” Saul responded to him, “Speak!”
1Sa 15:17 Samuel said, “Though you were little in your own sight, were you not made the head of the tribes of Israel? Then Yehowah anointed you king over Israel,
1Sa 15:18 and Yehowah sent you on your way and commanded, ‘Go and completely destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them, until they are destroyed.’
1Sa 15:19 Why did you not obey the voice of Yehowah, but instead you seized the booty and did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah?”
1Sa 15:20 Then Saul answered Samuel, “I have indeed obeyed the voice of Yehowah and have gone on the way that Yehowah sent me. I have captured Agag, the king of Amalek, and have completely destroyed the Amalekites.
1Sa 15:21 But the people took some of the booty, sheep and oxen, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to Yehowah your Divine One in Gilgal.”
1Sa 15:22 Samuel replied, “Has Yehowah as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of Yehowah? Obedience is better than sacrifice, and to listen is better than the fat of rams (Hos. 6:6; Heb. 13:16).
1Sa 15:23 For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and stubbornness is like wickedness and iniquity. Because you have rejected the Word of Yehowah, he has also rejected you from being king.”
1Sa 15:24 Then Saul confessed to Samuel, “I have sinned; for I have broken the commandment of Yehowah and your words, because I was afraid of the people and obeyed their voice.
1Sa 15:25 Now please pardon my sin, and return with me, so that I may worship Yehowah.”
1Sa 15:26 Samuel said to Saul, “I will not go back with you; for you have rejected the Word of Yehowah, and Yehowah has rejected you from being king over Israel.”
1Sa 15:27 As Samuel turned to leave, Saul took hold of the tassel of his robe, and it tore.
1Sa 15:28 Samuel said to him, “Yehowah has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to a neighbor of yours, one who is better than you.
1Sa 15:29 Also, the Strength of Israel will not lie nor change his mind; for he is not a man, that he should change his mind.”
1Sa 15:30 Then Saul entreated, “I have sinned. But please honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel. Turn again with me, that I may worship Yehowah your Divine One.”
1Sa 15:31 So Samuel turned again after Saul, and Saul worshiped Yehowah.

1Sa 15:32 Then Samuel ordered, “Bring Agag the king of the Amalekites here to me.” Agag came to him confined with chains and said, “Surely the bitterness of death has passed.”
1Sa 15:33 Samuel replied, “As your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women.” Then Samuel chopped Agag to pieces before Yehowah at Gilgal.
1Sa 15:34 Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house at Gibeah of Saul.
1Sa 15:35 Samuel did not see Saul until the day of his death, for he mourned for Saul. Yehowah was grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel Chapter 16

1Sa 16:1 Yehowah ordered Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I will send you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have selected for myself a king among his sons.”
1Sa 16:2 Samuel responded, “How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me.” Yehowah said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to Yehowah.’
1Sa 16:3 Call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you will do. You will anoint for me the one whom I tell you.”
1Sa 16:4 Samuel did as Yehowah said and went to Bethlehem. The elders of the city were trembling as they came to meet him and asked, “Are you coming in peace?”
1Sa 16:5 He answered, “In peace; I have come to sacrifice to Yehowah. Prepare to set yourselves apart and come with me to the sacrifice.” Then he set apart Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.
1Sa 16:6 When they came, he looked at Eliab and said to himself that the anointed of Yehowah was certainly standing before him.
1Sa 16:7 But Yehowah said to Samuel, “Do not look at his outward appearance, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him. For Yehowah does not see as man sees; man looks on the outward appearance, but Yehowah looks on the heart” (John 7:24).
1Sa 16:8 Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. Then Samuel said, “Neither has Yehowah chosen this one.”
1Sa 16:9 Jesse then made Shammah pass by, but Samuel said, “Neither has Yehowah chosen this one.”
1Sa 16:10 Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Yehowah has not chosen any of these.”
1Sa 16:11 Then Samuel asked Jesse, “Are all of your sons here?” He answered, “There remains yet the youngest, but he is tending the sheep.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and get him; for we will not sit down, until he comes here.”
1Sa 16:12 Jesse sent and brought him in. Now this son was ruddy and had beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance. Yehowah said, “Arise, anoint him; for he is the one.”
1Sa 16:13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the middle of his brothers. The Ruach of Yehowah rushed on David from that day forward. Then Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

1Sa 16:15 Saul's servants said to him, "Look, a harmful spirit from the Almighty troubles you.
1Sa 16:16 Let our master now command your servants who are before you to look for a man who is a skillful player on the harp. Then when the harmful spirit from the Almighty is on you, he will play it, and you will be well."
1Sa 16:17 Saul said to his servants, "Find me a man that can play well and bring him to me."
1Sa 16:18 Then one of the young men answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a strong, courageous man, a man of war, one prudent in speech, a handsome man; and Yehowah is with him."
1Sa 16:19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep."
1Sa 16:20 Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a container of wine, and a young goat, and sent them with his son David to Saul.
1Sa 16:21 Then David came to Saul and entered his service. Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor bearer.
1Sa 16:22 Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Let David stand before me, for he has found grace in my sight."
1Sa 16:23 Whenever the harmful spirit from the Almighty was upon Saul, David took the harp and played it. So Saul would be refreshed and well, and the harmful spirit would depart from him.

1 Samuel Chapter 17

1Sa 17:1 Now the Philistines gathered their armed forces for battle. They were gathered at Socoh, which belongs to Judah. They had encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim.
1Sa 17:2 Saul and the men of Israel gathered and encamped in the Valley of Elah, and drew up their battle line to meet the Philistines.
1Sa 17:3 The Philistines stood on a mountain on one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side with a valley between them.
1Sa 17:4 A strong man came out of the Philistines' camp, a man named Goliath of Gath, whose height was two meters.
1Sa 17:5 He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with scaled body armor. The armor weighed fifty-five kilograms of bronze.
1Sa 17:6 He had bronze armor on his legs and a lance of bronze between his shoulders.
1Sa 17:7 The staff of his spear was large, with a loop of cord for throwing it like the cord on a weaver's beam. His spear's head weighed seven kilograms of iron. His shield bearer went before him.
1Sa 17:8 He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves and let him come down to me!
1Sa 17:9 If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants! But if I defeat him and kill him, then you will be our servants and serve us!"
1Sa 17:10 Again the Philistine shouted, "I challenge the ranks of Israel today! Give me a man, so we may fight together!"
1Sa 17:11 When Saul and all Israel heard what the Philistine said, they were discouraged and deathly afraid.
1Sa 17:12 Now David was the son of the Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse. He had eight sons. Jesse was an old man in the days of Saul, old among men.
1Sa 17:13 The three oldest sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle. The names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, second to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.
1Sa 17:14 David was the youngest. The three oldest followed Saul.
1Sa 17:16 For forty days the Philistine strong man came near, morning and evening to present himself for battle.

1Sa 17:17 Then Jesse said to his son David, “Take to your brothers 22 liters of this roasted grain and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp for your brothers.
1Sa 17:18 Also, bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand. See how your brothers are doing and bring back some proof that they are doing well.
1Sa 17:19 Your brothers are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah, fighting the Philistines.”
1Sa 17:21 Then Israel and the Philistines lined up for battle, military force against military force.
1Sa 17:22 David left his belongings with the keeper of supplies, ran to the military force, and greeted his brothers.
1Sa 17:23 As he talked with them, the strong man, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came out of the ranks of the Philistines and said the same words as before, and David heard them.
1Sa 17:24 When all the men of Israel saw the man, they fled from him and were deathly afraid.
1Sa 17:25 The men of Israel said, “Have you seen this man who has come up? He has come to challenge Israel. The king will give great riches to the man who kills him, and he will give his daughter to him in marriage, and will make his father’s household free from taxation in Israel.”
1Sa 17:26 David asked the men who stood by him, “What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the disgrace from Israel? Who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armed forces of the living Almighty?”
1Sa 17:27 Then the people repeated what they had been saying, “So it will be done for the man who kills him.”
1Sa 17:28 Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men. Eliab’s anger was kindled against David, and he said, “Why did you come down here? With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the mischief in your heart; for you have come down here, so that you might see the battle.”
1Sa 17:29 David asked, “What have I done now? Was it not just a question?”
1Sa 17:30 He turned away from him toward another and spoke in the same way. The people answered the same thing as before.
1Sa 17:31 When the words that David said were heard, soldiers repeated them to Saul, and he sent for David.

1Sa 17:32 Then David said to Saul, “Let no man’s heart fail because of that Philistine; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.”
1Sa 17:33 Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are only a youth and he a man of war from his youth.”
1Sa 17:34 But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep his father’s sheep. When a lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock,
1Sa 17:35 I chased after him and attacked him, and rescued it out of his mouth. When he rose up against me, I caught him by his beard, struck him, and killed him.
1Sa 17:36 Your servant has killed both a lion and a bear. This uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, since he has challenged the armed forces of the living Almighty.”
1Sa 17:37 David said, “Yehowah rescued me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear. He will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine.” Then Saul ordered David, “Go, and may Yehowah be with you.”
1Sa 17:38 Saul clothed David with his armor. He put a helmet of bronze upon his head, and he clothed him with body armor.
1Sa 17:39 David strapped his sword on his armor. But he was not able to walk, because he had not trained with them. Then David said to Saul, “I cannot go out to fight with these, for I have not trained with them.” So David took them off.
1Sa 17:40 He took his trekking pole in his hand and chose five smooth stones out of the brook; he put them in his shepherd’s pouch. His sling was in his hand as he approached the Philistine.
1Sa 17:42 When the Philistine looked around and saw David, he despised him, for he was only a boy, and ruddy, with a handsome appearance.
1Sa 17:43 Then the Philistine asked David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with trekking poles?” And the Philistine cursed David by his deities.
1Sa 17:44 The Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky and to the beasts of the field.”
1Sa 17:45 David replied to the Philistine, “You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a lance. But I come to you in the name of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of the armed forces of Israel, whom you have defied!
1Sa 17:46 Today, Yehowah will give me victory over you, and I will kill you and remove your head from your body. Today, I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine military force to the birds of the sky and to the wild beasts of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is an Almighty One in Israel,
1Sa 17:47 and that all this gathering may know that Yehowah does not give victory with sword or spear. For the battle belongs to Yehowah, and he will give you into our hand!”

1Sa 17:48 When the Philistine rose and approached David, then David ran quickly toward the enemy military force to meet him.
1Sa 17:49 David put his hand in his bag, took a stone from it, slung it, and hit the Philistine in the forehead. The stone sank into the Philistine's forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground.
1Sa 17:50 David defeated the Philistine with a sling and a stone. He hit the Philistine and killed him. There was no sword in David's hand.
1Sa 17:51 Then David ran and stood over the Philistine and took his sword, drew it out of the scabbard, killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their strong man was dead, they fled.
1Sa 17:52 Then the men of Israel and of Judah rose with a shout, and chased after the Philistines as far as the valley and the gates of Ekron! The dead Philistines lay along the way to Shaaraim, all the way to Gath and Ekron.
1Sa 17:53 The people of Israel returned from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.
1Sa 17:54 David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.
1Sa 17:55 When Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he asked Abner, the captain of the military force, "Abner, whose son is this youth?" Abner answered, "As you live, king, I do not know."
1Sa 17:56 The king ordered, "Ask those who might know, whose son the boy is."
1Sa 17:57 When David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.
1Sa 17:58 Saul asked him, "Whose son are you, young man?" David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse, the Bethlehemite."

1 Samuel Chapter 18

1Sa 18:1 When he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.
1Sa 18:2 Saul took David into his service that day; he did not let him return to his father's house.
1Sa 18:3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant of friendship, because Jonathan loved him as his own soul.
1Sa 18:4 Jonathan took off the robe that he was wearing and gave it to David with his armor, as well as his sword, bow, and belt.
1Sa 18:5 David went out wherever Saul sent him, and he succeeded. Saul set him over the warriors. This was pleasing in the eyes of all the people and also in the sight of Saul's servants.
1Sa 18:6 As they came home, when David returned from defeating the Philistine, the women came from all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments.
1Sa 18:7 The women sang one to another as they played: "Saul has killed his thousands and David his ten thousands."
1Sa 18:8 Saul was extremely angry, and this song displeased him. He said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, but they have ascribed only thousands to me. What more can he have but the monarchy?"
1Sa 18:9 Saul looked at David with suspicion from that day on.
1Sa 18:10 The next day, a harmful spirit from the Almighty rushed upon Saul, and he raved within the house. So David played his instrument, as he did each day. Saul had a spear in his hand.
1Sa 18:11 Saul threw the spear, for he thought, "I will pin David to the wall." But David escaped from Saul's presence twice in this way.
1Sa 18:12 Saul was afraid of David, because Yehowah was with him but was no longer with Saul.
1Sa 18:13 So Saul removed him from his presence and appointed him a commander of a thousand. In this way, David went out and came in before the people.
1Sa 18:14 David was prospering in all his Ways, for Yehowah was with him.
1Sa 18:15 When Saul saw that he prospered, he stood in awe of him.
1Sa 18:16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, for he went out and came in before them.
1Sa 18:17 Then Saul said to David, "Here is my oldest daughter Merab. I will give her to you as a wife. Only be courageous for me and fight the battles of Yehowah." For Saul thought, "Let not my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him."

1Sa 18:18 David asked Saul, “Who am I, and who are my relatives, or my father’s family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?”
1Sa 18:19 But at the time when Merab, Saul’s daughter, should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.
1Sa 18:20 But Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved David. They told Saul, and this pleased him.
1Sa 18:21 Then Saul thought, “I will give her to him, so that she can be a trap for him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” So Saul said to David a second time, “You will be my son-in-law.”
1Sa 18:22 Saul commanded his servants, “Speak with David in private and say, ‘See, the king takes pleasure in you, and all his servants love you. Now then, become the king’s son-in-law.’”
1Sa 18:23 So Saul’s servants spoke these words to David. Then David asked, “Is it a small matter to you to be the king’s son-in-law, since I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?”
1Sa 18:24 The servants of Saul reported to him the words which David spoke.
1Sa 18:25 Then Saul ordered, “Say this to David, ‘The king does not desire any dowry, only one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged from the king’s enemies.’” Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.
1Sa 18:26 When his servants told David these words, it pleased David to be the king’s son-in-law.
1Sa 18:27 Before those days had expired, David went with his men and killed two hundred Philistines. David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, so that he might be the king’s son-in-law. So Saul gave him Michal his daughter as his wife.
1Sa 18:28 When Saul saw, and he knew that Yehowah was with David, and that Michal, Saul’s daughter, loved him, 1Sa 18:29 Saul was even more afraid of David. Saul was continually David’s enemy.
1Sa 18:30 Then the princes of the Philistines came out for battle, and as often as they came out, David succeeded more than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was highly regarded.

1 Samuel Chapter 19

1Sa 19:1 Saul said to Jonathan his son and to all his servants that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, took great pleasure in David.
1Sa 19:2 So Jonathan told David, "Saul my father seeks to kill you. Therefore, be on your guard until dawn and hide yourself in a secret place.
1Sa 19:3 I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak with my father about you. If I learn anything, I will tell you."
1Sa 19:4 Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father, "Do not let the king sin against his servant David. For he has not sinned against you, and his deeds have brought you good.
1Sa 19:5 For he took his life in his hand and killed the Philistine. Yehowah brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. Why would you sin against innocent blood by killing David for no reason?"
1Sa 19:6 Saul listened to Jonathan. Saul swore, "As Yehowah lives, he will not be executed."
1Sa 19:7 Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.
1Sa 19:8 There was war again, and David went out and fought with the Philistines and defeated them with a great slaughter. They fled before him.
1Sa 19:9 A harmful spirit from Yehowah came on Saul as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand, and as David was playing his instrument.
1Sa 19:10 Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he slipped away from Saul's presence, so that Saul drove the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped that night.
1Sa 19:11 Saul sent messengers to David's house to watch him, that he might kill him at dawn. Michal, David's wife, told him, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be executed."
1Sa 19:12 So Michal let David down through the window. He went and fled, and escaped.
1Sa 19:13 Michal took a household idol and laid it in the bed. Then she put a pillow of goats' hair at its head and covered it with the clothes.
1Sa 19:14 When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."
1Sa 19:15 Then Saul sent the messengers to see David; he ordered, "Bring him up to me in the bed, so that I may execute him."
1Sa 19:16 When the messengers came in, behold, the household idol was in the bed along with the pillow of goats' hair at its head.
1Sa 19:17 Saul asked Michal, "Why have you deceived me and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go. Why should I kill you?'"

1Sa 19:18 Now David fled and escaped, and went to Samuel in Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth.
1Sa 19:20 Then Saul sent messengers to capture David. When they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Ruach of the Almighty came on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.
1Sa 19:21 When Saul was told this, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.
1Sa 19:22 Then he also went to Ramah and came to the deep well that is in Secu. He asked, “Where are Samuel and David?” Someone answered, “See, they are at Naioth in Ramah.”
1Sa 19:23 Saul went to Naioth in Ramah. Then the Ruach of the Almighty came upon him, and as he went he prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.
1Sa 19:24 He stripped off his clothes and also prophesied before Samuel. He lay naked all that day and all that night. This is why they ask, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel Chapter 20

1Sa 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah and came and asked Jonathan, “What have I done? What is my iniquity? What is my sin before your father, that he seeks to take my life?”
1Sa 20:2 Jonathan answered David, “Far from it; you will not die. My father does nothing either great or small without telling it to me. Why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so.”
1Sa 20:3 Yet David vowed again, “Your father knows well that I have found grace in your eyes. He has said, ‘Do not let Jonathan know this, or he will be grieved.’ But as truly as Yehowah lives, and as you live, there is but a step between me and death.”
1Sa 20:4 Then Jonathan replied to David, “Whatever you say, I will do for you.”
1Sa 20:5 David responded to Jonathan, “Tomorrow is the beginning of the month, and I ought to sit down to eat with the king. But let me go, so that I may hide myself in the field until the third day at dusk.
1Sa 20:6 If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Bethlehem his city; because it is the yearly sacrifice there for the whole family.’
1Sa 20:7 If he says, ‘It is well,’ your servant will have peace. But if he is extremely angry, then know that he has decided on evil.
1Sa 20:8 Therefore, deal kindly with your servant. For you have brought your servant into a covenant of Yehowah with you. But if there is sin in me, kill me yourself; for why then should you bring me to your father?”
1Sa 20:9 Jonathan responded, “Far be it from you! If I learned my father decided harm to come upon you, would I not tell you?”
1Sa 20:10 Then David asked Jonathan, “Who will tell me if by chance your father should answer you roughly?”
1Sa 20:11 Jonathan answered David, “Come, let us go out into the field.” So they both went out into the field.
1Sa 20:12 Jonathan said to David, “May Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, be witness. When I have questioned my father around this time tomorrow, or the third day, see, if there is good will toward David, will I not then send to you and make it known to you?
1Sa 20:13 If it pleases my father to do you harm, may Yehowah do to Jonathan and more also, if I do not make it known to you and send you away, so that you may go in peace. May Yehowah be with you, as he has been with my father.
1Sa 20:14 If I am still alive, will you not show me the covenant faithfulness of Yehowah, that I may not die?

1Sa 20:15 Do not cut off your covenant faithfulness from my household forever, not even when Yehowah cuts off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth."
1Sa 20:16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the House of David, "May Yehowah require an accounting from the hand of the enemies of David."
1Sa 20:17 Jonathan made David vow again, because of the love that he had for him, because he loved him as he loved his own soul.
1Sa 20:18 Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the beginning of the month. You will be missed, because your seat will be empty.
1Sa 20:19 When you have stayed three days, go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself when the business was in hand, and stay by the stone Ezel.
1Sa 20:20 I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target.
1Sa 20:21 Then I will send my young man and order him, 'Go find the arrows.' If I say to the young boy, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them,' then come; for there will be safety for you and not harm, as Yehowah lives.
1Sa 20:22 "But if I say to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then go your way, for Yehowah has sent you away.
1Sa 20:23 As for the agreement of which you and I have spoken, see, Yehowah is between you and me forever."
1Sa 20:24 So David hid himself in the field. When the beginning of the month came, the king sat down to eat food.
1Sa 20:25 The king sat on his seat, as usual, on the seat by the wall. Jonathan stood up, and Abner sat by Saul's side. But David's place was empty.
1Sa 20:26 Yet Saul did not say anything that day, because he thought, "Something has happened to him. He is not clean; surely he is not clean."
1Sa 20:27 But on the second day of the month, David's place was empty. Saul asked Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal either yesterday or today?"
1Sa 20:28 Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked permission from me to go to Bethlehem.
1Sa 20:29 He requested, 'Please let me go. For our family has a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has ordered me to be there. Now if I have found grace in your eyes, please let me go and see my brothers.' For this reason he has not come to the king's table."
1Sa 20:30 Then Saul's anger burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?

1Sa 20:31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now then send and bring him to me, for he must surely be executed!”
1Sa 20:32 Jonathan asked Saul his father, “For what reason should he be executed? What has he done?”
1Sa 20:33 Then Saul threw his spear at him to kill him. So Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death.
1Sa 20:34 Jonathan rose up from the table in fierce anger and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved over David, because his father had dishonored him.
1Sa 20:35 At daybreak, Jonathan went out into the field to the appointment with David, and a young man was with him.
1Sa 20:36 He ordered his young man, “Run and find the arrows that I shoot.” As the young man ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.
1Sa 20:37 When the young man came to the place where the arrow that Jonathan shot had landed, Jonathan called after the young man and asked, “Is not the arrow beyond you?”
1Sa 20:38 Then Jonathan called after the young man, “Hurry, be quick, do not stay!” So Jonathan’s young man gathered up the arrows and came to his master.
1Sa 20:39 But the young man did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter.
1Sa 20:40 Jonathan gave his weapons to his young man and ordered him, “Go, take them to the city.”
1Sa 20:41 As soon as the young man was gone, David stood up from behind the mound, lay facedown on the ground, and bowed himself three times. They kissed one another and wept together, with David weeping the more.
1Sa 20:42 Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, because we have both sworn in the name of Yehowah, ‘May Yehowah be between you and me, and between my descendants and your descendants, forever.’” Then David stood up and left, and Jonathan returned to the city.

1 Samuel Chapter 21

1Sa 21:1 Then David came to Nob to see Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech came to meet David trembling and asked him, “Why are you alone and have no one with you?”
1Sa 21:2 David answered Ahimelech the priest, “The king has sent me on a mission and has said to me, ‘Let no one know anything about the business I am sending you on, and what I have commanded you.’ I have directed the young men to a certain place.
1Sa 21:3 Now then what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever is here.”
1Sa 21:4 The priest answered David, “There is no ordinary bread on hand, but there is set apart bread, if the young men have kept themselves from women.”
1Sa 21:5 David answered the priest, “Surely women have been kept from us for the past three days, as usual, when I set out. The things belonging to the men have been set apart even on ordinary missions. How much more today will what they have be set apart!”
1Sa 21:6 So the priest gave him the bread that was set apart. For there was no bread there except the bread of the presence, which was removed from before Yehowah, in order to put hot bread in its place on the day it was taken away.
1Sa 21:7 Now one of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before Yehowah. His name was Doeg, the Edomite, the chief of Saul’s herdsmen.
1Sa 21:8 David said to Ahimelech, “Now is there not here on hand any spear or sword? For I brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king’s business was urgent.”
1Sa 21:9 The priest answered, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want to take that, take it, for there is no other weapon here.” David replied, “There is no other sword like that one; give it to me.”
1Sa 21:10 David arose and fled that day from Saul and went to Achish, the king of Gath.
1Sa 21:11 Achish’s servants asked him, “Is not this David, the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another about him in dances, ‘Saul has killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands?’”
1Sa 21:12 David took these words to heart and was deathly afraid of Achish, the king of Gath.
1Sa 21:13 He changed his behavior before them and pretended to be insane in their hands; he made marks on the doors of the gate and let his saliva run down his beard.

1Sa 21:14 Then Achish asked his servants, “Look, you see the man is mad. Why have you brought him to me?
1Sa 21:15 Do I lack madmen, so that you have brought this fellow to behave like one in my presence? Will this fellow really come into my house?”

1 Samuel Chapter 22

1Sa 22:1 So David left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and all his father's household heard it, they went down there to him.
1Sa 22:2 Everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented, they all gathered to him. David became captain over them. There were about four hundred men with him.
1Sa 22:3 Then David went from there to Mizpah in Moab. He entreated the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother stay with you, until I know what the Almighty will do for me."
1Sa 22:4 He left them with the king of Moab. His father and mother stayed with him the whole time that David was in his stronghold.
1Sa 22:5 Then the prophet Gad ordered David, "Do not stay in your stronghold. Leave and go into the land of Judah." So David left there and went into the forest of Hereth.
1Sa 22:6 Saul heard that David had been discovered, along with the men who were with him. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.
1Sa 22:7 Saul said to his servants who stood around him, "Listen now, people of Benjamin! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds,
1Sa 22:8 in exchange for all of you plotting against me? None of you informs me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is sorry for me. None of you informs me that my son has incited my servant David against me. Today he hides and waits for me, so he may attack me."
1Sa 22:9 Then Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, answered, "I saw the son of Jesse come to Nob, to Ahimelech son of Ahitub.
1Sa 22:10 He prayed to Yehowah that he might help him, and he gave him provisions and the sword of Goliath the Philistine."
1Sa 22:11 Then the king sent someone to summon the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and all his father's household, the priests who were in Nob. All of them came to the king.
1Sa 22:12 Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." He answered, "Here I am, my master."
1Sa 22:13 Saul asked him, "Why have you plotted against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have prayed to the Almighty that he might help him, so that he might rise up against me, to hide in secret, as he does today?"

1Sa 22:14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, “Who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king’s son-in-law and is over your bodyguard, and is honored in your house?
1Sa 22:15 Is today the first time I have prayed to the Almighty to help him? Far be it from me! Do not let the king impute anything to his servant or to all the household of my father. For your servant knows nothing of this whole matter.”
1Sa 22:16 The king replied, “You will surely be executed, Ahimelech, you and all your father’s household!”
1Sa 22:17 The king ordered the guard that stood around him, “Turn and kill the priests of Yehowah. Because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled but did not reveal it to me.” But the servants of the king would not put out their hand to kill the priests of Yehowah.
1Sa 22:18 Then the king ordered Doeg, “Turn and kill the priests.” So Doeg the Edomite turned and attacked the priests; he killed eighty-five persons who wore a linen ephod that day.
1Sa 22:19 With the edge of the sword, he attacked Nob, the city of the priests, both men and women, children and infants, and oxen and donkeys and sheep. He murdered them all with the edge of the sword.
1Sa 22:20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David.
1Sa 22:21 Abiathar told David that Saul had murdered the priests of Yehowah.
1Sa 22:22 David said to Abiathar, “I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible for every death in your father’s family!
1Sa 22:23 Stay with me and do not be afraid. For the one who seeks your life seeks mine as well. You will be safe with me.”

1 Samuel Chapter 23

1Sa 23:2 So David prayed to Yehowah for help and asked him, “Should I go and attack these Philistines?” Yehowah commanded David, “Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah.”
1Sa 23:3 David’s men said to him, “See, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we go to Keilah against the armed forces of the Philistines?”
1Sa 23:4 Then David prayed to Yehowah for help yet again. Yehowah answered him, “Arise, go down to Keilah. For I will give you victory over the Philistines.”
1Sa 23:5 David and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Philistines. He led away their livestock and struck them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.
1Sa 23:6 When Abiathar son of Ahimelech had fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.
1Sa 23:7 Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah. Saul said, “The Almighty has given him into my hand. For he is shut in, because he has entered a city that has gates and bars.”
1Sa 23:8 Saul summoned all his forces for battle, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.
1Sa 23:9 David knew that Saul was plotting harm against him. He said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod here.”
1Sa 23:10 Then David prayed, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, your servant has indeed heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.
1Sa 23:11 Will the men of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, I beg you, please tell your servant.” Yehowah answered, “He will come down.”
1Sa 23:12 Then David asked, “Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?” Yehowah answered, “They will surrender you.”
1Sa 23:13 Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, rose up and went away from Keilah, and they went from place to place. It was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, and he stopped the pursuit.
1Sa 23:14 David stayed in the strongholds in the wilderness, in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. Saul looked for him every day, but the Almighty did not give him into his hand.
1Sa 23:15 David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life; now David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.
1Sa 23:16 Then Jonathan, Saul’s son, rose up and went to David at Horesh, and strengthened his hand in the Almighty.

1Sa 23:17 He said to him, “Do not be afraid. For the hand of Saul my father will not find you. You will be king over Israel, and I will be next to you. Saul my father also knows this.”
1Sa 23:18 They made a covenant before Yehowah. David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.
1Sa 23:19 Then Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah and said, “Is not David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon?
1Sa 23:20 Now come down, king! According to your desire, come down! Our part will be to surrender him into the king’s hand.”
1Sa 23:21 Saul responded, “May you be blessed by Yehowah. For you have had compassion on me.
1Sa 23:22 Go, make even more sure. Learn and find out where his hiding place is, and who has seen him there. It is told to me that he is extremely crafty.
1Sa 23:23 So look and learn all of the places where he hides himself. Come back to me with sure information, and then I will return with you. If he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.”
1Sa 23:24 Then they rose up and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.
1Sa 23:25 Saul and his men went to seek him. But David was told of it, so he went down to a rocky hill and lived in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard it, he chased David in the wilderness of Maon.
1Sa 23:26 Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men were going on the other side of the mountain. David hurried to get away from Saul. As Saul and his men were surrounding David and his men to take them,
1Sa 23:27 a messenger came to Saul and reported, “Hurry and come, for the Philistines have made a raid against the land.”
1Sa 23:28 So Saul returned from pursuing David and went against the Philistines. Therefore, that place was called the Rock of Escape (Petra).
1Sa 23:29 David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of Engedi (Hazazon Tamar; modern Tall al-Gurn).

1 Samuel Chapter 24

1Sa 24:1 When Saul returned from chasing the Philistines, he was told, “David is in the wilderness of Engedi.”
1Sa 24:2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to seek David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats.
1Sa 24:3 He came to sheep pens on the way, where there was a cave. Saul went inside to defecate. Now David and his men were sitting far back in the cave.
1Sa 24:4 David’s men said to him, “This is the day of which Yehowah spoke when he said to you, ‘I will give your enemy into your hand, for you to do with him as you wish.’” Then David arose and quietly crept forward and cut off the tassel of Saul’s robe.
1Sa 24:5 Afterward, David’s heart afflicted him, because he had cut a tassel off Saul’s robe.
1Sa 24:6 He said to his men, “May Yehowah forbid that I should do this thing to my master, the anointed of Yehowah, to put out my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of Yehowah.”
1Sa 24:7 So David rebuked his men with these words and did not permit them to attack Saul. Saul stood up, left the cave, and went on his way.
1Sa 24:8 Afterward, David also stood up, left the cave, and called out after Saul, “My master the king!” When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground and showed him respect.
1Sa 24:9 David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the men who say, ‘See, David is seeking your harm?’
1Sa 24:10 Today your eyes have seen how Yehowah put you into my hand when we were in the cave. Some told me to murder you, but I spared you. I said, ‘I will not put out my hand against my master; for he is the anointed of Yehowah.’
1Sa 24:11 See, my father, see the tassel of your robe in my hand. For the fact that I cut off the tassel of your robe and did not murder you, you may know and see that there is no evil or treason in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, even though you hunt my life to take it.
1Sa 24:12 May Yehowah judge between you and me, and may Yehowah avenge me against you, but my hand will not be against you.
1Sa 24:13 As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Out of the wicked comes wickedness.’ But my hand will not be against you.
1Sa 24:14 After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog! After a flea!
1Sa 24:15 May Yehowah be judge and give judgment between you and me, and see to it, and plead my cause and permit me to escape from your hand.”

1Sa 24:16 When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul asked, “Is this your voice, my son David?” Saul lifted up his voice and wept.
1Sa 24:17 He said to David, “You are more righteous than I am. For you have repaid me good, where I have repaid you evil.
1Sa 24:18 You have declared today how you have done good to me, for you did not murder me when Yehowah had put me at your mercy.
1Sa 24:19 For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go safely? May Yehowah reward you with good for what you have done to me today.
1Sa 24:20 Now I know that you will surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand.
1Sa 24:21 Swear to me by Yehowah that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father’s household.”
1Sa 24:22 So David made an oath to Saul. Then Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel Chapter 25

1Sa 25:1 Now Samuel died (c. 1069 BC). All Israel gathered together and mourned for him, and they buried him in his house at Ramah. Then David rose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.
1Sa 25:2 There was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel. The man was superabundantly wealthy. He had three thousand sheep and one thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
1Sa 25:3 The man's name was Nabal, and the name of his wife was Abigail. The woman was intelligent and beautiful in appearance. But the man was harsh and evil in his dealings. He was a descendant of the house of Caleb.
1Sa 25:4 David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.
1Sa 25:5 So David sent ten young men. David ordered the young men, "Go up to Carmel, go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.
1Sa 25:6 You will say to him, 'Live in prosperity. Peace to you and peace to your household, and peace be to all that you have.
1Sa 25:7 I hear that you have shearers. Your shepherds have been with us, and we did them no harm, and they missed nothing the whole time they were in Carmel.
1Sa 25:8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Now let my young men find grace in your eyes, for we have come on a festive day. Please give whatever you have on hand to your servants and to your son David.'"
1Sa 25:9 When David's young men arrived, they said all of this to Nabal on David's behalf and then waited.
1Sa 25:10 Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants these days who are breaking away from their masters.
1Sa 25:11 Should I take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who come from I do not know where?"
1Sa 25:12 So David's young men turned away and came back, and told him everything that was said.
1Sa 25:14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "David sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master, and he insulted them.
1Sa 25:15 Yet the men were extremely good to us. We were not harmed and did not miss anything, as long as we went with them when we were in the fields.
1Sa 25:16 They were a wall to us both night and day, all the while we were with them tending the sheep.

1Sa 25:17 Therefore, know this and consider what you will do, for evil is plotted against our master, and against his whole household. He is such a worthless fellow, that one cannot reason with him."
1Sa 25:18 Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves, two bottles of wine, five sheep already prepared, 37 liters of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys.
1Sa 25:19 She ordered her young men, "Go on before me, and I will come after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.
1Sa 25:20 As she rode on her donkey and came down by the cover of the mountain, David and his men came down toward her, and she met them.
1Sa 25:21 Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I guarded all that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him, and he has returned me evil for good.
1Sa 25:22 May the Almighty do so to me, David, and more also, if by dawn I leave so much as one urinating male of all who belong to him."
1Sa 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she hurried and got down from her donkey, lay before David facedown, and bowed herself to the ground.
1Sa 25:24 She lay at his feet and said, "On me alone, my master, be the guilt. Please let your servant speak to you, and listen to the words of your servant.
1Sa 25:25 Let not my master regard this worthless fellow, Nabal, for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and folly is with him. But I your servant did not see the young men of my master, whom you sent.
1Sa 25:26 Now then my master, as Yehowah lives, and as you live, since Yehowah has restrained you from bloodshed, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now let your enemies, and those who seek to do evil to my master, be like Nabal.
1Sa 25:27 Now let this present that your servant has brought to my master be given to the young men who follow my master.
1Sa 25:28 Please forgive the trespass of your servant, for Yehowah will certainly make my master a sure household, because my master is fighting the battles of Yehowah; and evil will not be found in you so long as you live.
1Sa 25:29 Though men rise up to pursue you to take your life, yet the life of my master will be bound in the bundle of the living by Yehowah your Divine One; and he will sling away the lives of your enemies, as from the pocket of a sling.
1Sa 25:30 Yehowah will have done for my master everything he promised you, and has appointed you leader over Israel.
1Sa 25:31 This will not be a staggering burden for you, my master, that you have poured out innocent blood, or because my master attempted to rescue himself. For when Yehowah will do good for my master, remember your servant."
1Sa 25:32 David responded to Abigail, "May Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, be blessed, he who sent you to meet me today.

1Sa 25:33 Your wisdom is blessed, and you are blessed, because you have kept me today from bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand!
1Sa 25:34 For in truth, as Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel lives, he who has kept me from hurting you, unless you had hurried to come meet me, there would certainly have not been left to Nabal by daybreak so much as one male who urinates against a wall."
1Sa 25:35 So David received from her hand what she had brought him; he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house; see, I have listened to your voice and have accepted you."
1Sa 25:36 Abigail went back to Nabal; behold, he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was exceedingly drunk. So she told him nothing at all until daybreak.
1Sa 25:37 It came about at dawn, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things; his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.
1Sa 25:38 It came about ten days later that Yehowah attacked Nabal, so that he died.
1Sa 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "May Yehowah be blessed, who has taken up the cause of my insult from the hand of Nabal and has kept back his servant from evil. Yehowah has turned Nabal's evil action back on his own head." Then David sent and spoke to Abigail, to take her to himself as wife.
1Sa 25:40 When David's servants had come to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her, "David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife."
1Sa 25:41 She arose, bowed herself with her face to the ground and replied, "See, your female servant is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my master."
1Sa 25:42 Abigail hurried and arose, and rode on a donkey with five servant girls of hers who followed her; and she followed David's messengers and became his wife.
1Sa 25:43 Now David had also taken Ahinoam of Jezreel as a wife; both of them became his wives.
1Sa 25:44 Also, Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

1 Samuel Chapter 26

1Sa 26:1 The Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah and reported, “Is not David hiding in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?”
1Sa 26:2 Then Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.
1Sa 26:3 Saul camped on the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the road. But David was staying in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul was coming after him into the wilderness.
1Sa 26:4 So David sent out spies and learned that Saul had indeed come.
1Sa 26:5 David arose and went to the place where Saul had camped; he saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner son of Ner, the general of his military force; Saul lay in the camp, and the people were camped around him, all asleep.
1Sa 26:6 Then David asked Ahimelech the Hethite and Abishai son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?” Abishai answered, “I will go down with you.”
1Sa 26:7 So David and Abishai went to the military force by night. Saul was there sleeping inside the camp with his spear stuck in the ground beside his head. Abner and his soldiers lay around him.
1Sa 26:8 Then Abishai said to David, “Today the Almighty has put your enemy into your hand. Now please let me pin him to the ground with the spear with just one blow. I will not strike him a second time.”
1Sa 26:9 David replied to Abishai, “Do not destroy him; for who can extend his hand against the anointed of Yehowah and be guiltless?”
1Sa 26:10 David said, “As Yehowah lives, Yehowah will kill him, or his day will come to die, or he will go into battle and perish.
1Sa 26:11 May Yehowah forbid that I should extend my hand against his anointed one; but now, I beg you, take the spear that is at his head and the jar of water, and let us go.”
1Sa 26:12 So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul’s head, and they got away. No one saw them or knew about it, nor did anyone wake up, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from Yehowah had fallen on them.
1Sa 26:13 Then David went over to the other side and stood on the top of the mountain far off; a great distance was between them.
1Sa 26:14 David shouted out to the people and to Abner son of Ner; he asked, “Do you not answer, Abner?” Then Abner answered and asked, “Who are you who is shouting to the king?”
1Sa 26:15 David answered Abner, “Are you not a courageous man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your master the king? For someone came in to kill the king your master!

1Sa 26:16 This thing you have done is not good! As Yehowah lives, you deserve to be executed, because you have not kept watch over your master, the anointed of Yehowah! Now see where the king's spear is and the jar of water that was near his head!"
1Sa 26:17 Saul recognized David's voice and asked, "Is that your voice, my son David?" David answered, "It is my voice, my master, king!"
1Sa 26:18 He asked, "Why does my master pursue his servant? What have I done? What evil is in my hand?
1Sa 26:19 Now therefore, I beg you, let my master the king listen to the words of his servant! If it is Yehowah who has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering; but if it is humans, may they be cursed in the sight of Yehowah, for they have today driven me out, that I should not cling to the inheritance of Yehowah; they have said to me, 'Go worship false deities!'
1Sa 26:20 Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of Yehowah; for the king of Israel has come out to look for the one flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains!"
1Sa 26:21 Then Saul responded, "I have sinned. Return, David, my son; for I will harm you no more, because my life was precious in your eyes today. See, I have played the fool and have made an extremely bad mistake."
1Sa 26:22 David answered, "See, your spear is here, king! Let one of the young men come over and get it and bring it to you!
1Sa 26:23 May Yehowah pay each man for his righteousness and his faithfulness; because Yehowah put you into my hand today, but I would not strike the anointed of Yehowah!
1Sa 26:24 See, as your life was precious in my eyes today, so may my life be much valued in the eyes of Yehowah, and may he rescue me out of all trouble!"
1Sa 26:25 Then Saul encouraged David, "May you be blessed, David my son! You will certainly do great things, and you will succeed in them." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1 Samuel Chapter 27

1Sa 27:1 David said in his heart, “I will now perish one day by Saul’s hand; there is nothing better for me than to escape into the land of the Philistines; Saul will give up looking for me any more within all the borders of Israel; in this way, I will escape out of his hand.”
1Sa 27:2 David arose and passed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish son of Maoch, the king of Gath.
1Sa 27:3 David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his own household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal’s widow.
1Sa 27:4 Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, so he looked for him no longer.
1Sa 27:5 David entreated Achish, “If I have found grace in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may live there: For why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”
1Sa 27:6 So Achish gave him Ziklag (possibly Khirbet al-Raʻi) that day; that is why Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day.
1Sa 27:7 The number of days that David lived in the land of the Philistines was a full year and four months.
1Sa 27:8 David and his men attacked various places, making raids on the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those ethnicities were the inhabitants of the land, as you go to Shur, as far as the land of Egypt. They had been living there in the land from ancient times.
1Sa 27:9 David attacked the land and saved neither man nor woman alive; he took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing; he would return and come again to Achish.
1Sa 27:10 Achish would ask, “Against whom have you made a raid today?” David would answer, “Against the south of Judah,” or “Against the south of the Jerahmeelites,” or “Against the south of the Kenites.”
1Sa 27:11 David would keep neither man nor woman alive to bring them to Gath, saying, “So that they cannot say about us, ‘David did such and such.’” This was what he did all the while he was living in the country of the Philistines.
1Sa 27:12 Achish believed David, saying, “He has made his people Israel utterly abhor him; he will therefore be my servant forever.”

1 Samuel Chapter 28

1Sa 28:1 It came about in those days that the Philistines gathered their armed forces together for battle to fight with Israel. Achish said to David, “Know for certain that you will go out with me in the armed forces, you and your men.”
1Sa 28:2 David replied to Achish, “So you will know what your servant can do.” Achish said to David, “So I will permanently make you my bodyguard.”
1Sa 28:3 Now Samuel had died (c. 1069 BC), and all Israel had lamented him and buried him in Ramah, in his hometown. Also, Saul had banned from the land necromancers and wizards who conjured up dead spirits.
1Sa 28:4 Then the Philistines gathered themselves together, came, and camped at Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they camped at Gilboa.
1Sa 28:5 When Saul saw the military force of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart fibrillated.
1Sa 28:6 Saul prayed to Yehowah for help, but Yehowah did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.
1Sa 28:7 Then Saul ordered his servants, “Find me a woman who conjures up dead spirits, so that I may go to her and seek her advice by necromancy.” His servants replied to him, “See, there is a woman in Endor who conjures up dead spirits.”
1Sa 28:8 Saul disguised himself, put on other clothing, and went, he and two men with him; they went to the woman by night. He said, “Divine for me, I beg you, with a dead spirit, and bring me up whomever I name to you.”
1Sa 28:9 The woman replied to him, “See, you know what Saul has done, how he has banned from the land necromancers and wizards who conjure up dead spirits. So why are you setting a trap for my life, to cause my execution?”
1Sa 28:10 Saul swore to her by Yehowah, “As Yehowah lives, no punishment will happen to you for this thing.”
1Sa 28:11 Then the woman asked, “Whom should I bring up to you?” Saul answered, “Bring up Samuel for me.”
1Sa 28:12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice and spoke to Saul, “Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!”
1Sa 28:13 The king answered her, “Do not be afraid. What do you see?” The woman answered Saul, “I see a spirit coming up out of the earth.”
1Sa 28:14 He asked her, “What does he look like?” She answered, “An old man is coming up; he is clothed with a robe.” Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground and showed respect.
1Sa 28:15 Samuel asked Saul, “Why have you disturbed me and brought me up?” Saul answered, “I am extremely distressed, for the Philistines are waging war against me, and the Almighty has left me and does not answer me any more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams. Therefore, I have called you, that you may make known to me what I will do."

1Sa 28:16 Samuel responded, "What then do you ask me, since Yehowah has left you, and he has become your enemy?
1Sa 28:17 Yehowah has done to you what he said he would. Yehowah has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and he has given it to someone else, to David.
1Sa 28:18 Because you did not obey the voice of Yehowah and did not carry out his fierce wrath on Amalek, Yehowah has therefore done this today to you.
1Sa 28:19 Moreover, Yehowah will hand over Israel and you into the hand of the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. Yehowah will also hand over the military force of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."
1Sa 28:20 Then Saul immediately fell his full length on the ground and was deathly afraid because of the words of Samuel. There was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all that day, neither that whole night.
1Sa 28:21 The woman came to Saul and saw that he was extremely troubled. She said to him, "See, your female servant has listened to your voice; I have put my life in my hand and have listened to the words that you said to me.
1Sa 28:22 Now therefore, I beg you, listen also to the voice of your female servant, and let me set a little food in front of you. Eat, so that you may gain strength for when you go on your way."
1Sa 28:23 But Saul refused and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him, and he listened to their voice. So he rose from the ground and sat on the bed.
1Sa 28:24 The woman had a fatted calf in the house; she hurried and killed it; she took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread with it.
1Sa 28:25 She brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose up and left that night.

1 Samuel Chapter 29

1Sa 29:2 The princes of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands; David and his men passed on in the rearguard with Achish.
1Sa 29:3 Then the princes of the Philistines asked, “What are these Hebrews doing here?” Achish asked the other princes of the Philistines, “Is not this David, the servant of Saul, the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found no fault with him since he came away to me to this day?”
1Sa 29:4 But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; they said to him, “Make that man go away, that he may go back to his place that you have given him; do not let him go with us into battle, so that he does not become an enemy to us in the battle. For how else could this fellow make peace with his master? Would it not be with the heads of our men?
1Sa 29:5 Is this not David of whom they sang one to another in dances, ‘Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?’”
1Sa 29:6 Then Achish called David and said to him, “As Yehowah lives, you have been good, and your going out and your coming in with me in the military force is good in my view; for I have found nothing wrong with you since the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, the princes are not favorable to you.
1Sa 29:7 So now return and go in peace, so that you do not displease the princes of the Philistines.”
1Sa 29:8 David asked Achish, “But what have I done? What have you found in your servant as long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my master the king?”
1Sa 29:9 Achish answered and said to David, “I know that you are as blameless in my sight as an angel of the Almighty; nevertheless, the princes of the Philistines have insisted, ‘He must not go up with us to the battle.’
1Sa 29:10 So now rise up at the crack of dawn with the servants of your master who have come with you; as soon as you are up at the crack of dawn and have light, go away.”
1Sa 29:11 So David rose up early, he and his men, to leave at dawn, to return into the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel Chapter 30

1Sa 30:1 It came about, when David and his men had come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid upon the Negev and on Ziklag. They attacked Ziklag, burned it,
1Sa 30:2 and captured the women and everyone who was in it, both small and great. They killed no one, but carried them off as they went on their way.
1Sa 30:3 When David and his men came to the city, it was burned, and their wives, their sons, and their daughters were taken captive.
1Sa 30:4 Then David and the people that were with him raised their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep.
1Sa 30:5 David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.
1Sa 30:6 David was greatly distressed, for the troops were talking about stoning him, for all the people were bitter in spirit, each man for his sons and daughters; but David strengthened himself in Yehowah his Divine One.
1Sa 30:7 David entreated Abiathar son of Ahimelech, the priest, "I beg you, bring the ephod here for me." Abiathar brought the ephod to David.
1Sa 30:8 David prayed to Yehowah for direction, asking, "If I pursue after this troop, will I overtake them?" Yehowah answered him, "Pursue, for you will certainly overtake them, and you will surely recover everything."
1Sa 30:9 So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him; they came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed.
1Sa 30:10 But David kept pursuing, he and four hundred men; for two hundred had stayed behind, who were so weak that they could not go over the brook Besor.
1Sa 30:11 They found an Egyptian in a field and brought him to David; they gave him bread, and he ate; they gave him water to drink;
1Sa 30:12 and they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, he gained strength again, for he had eaten no bread nor drunk any water for three days and three nights.
1Sa 30:13 David interrogated him, "To whom do you belong? Where do you come from?" He answered, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick.
1Sa 30:14 We made a raid on the Negev of the Cherethites, what belongs to Judah, and the Negev of Caleb, and we burned Ziklag."
1Sa 30:15 David asked him, "Will you bring me down to this raiding party?" The Egyptian answered, "Swear to me by the Almighty that you will not kill me or betray me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this raiding party."

1Sa 30:16 When the Egyptian had brought David down, the raiders were spread out over all the ground, eating, drinking, and dancing, because of all the booty they had taken out of the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.
1Sa 30:17 David attacked them from twilight until dusk of the next day. Not a man escaped except for four hundred young men, who rode on camels and fled.
1Sa 30:18 David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives.
1Sa 30:19 Nothing was missing, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither booty, nor anything that the raiders had taken for themselves. David brought back everything.
1Sa 30:20 David took all the flocks and the herds, which the men drove ahead of the other livestock. They said, “This is David’s booty.”
1Sa 30:21 David came to the two hundred men who had been too weak to follow him, the ones the others had made to stay at the brook Besor. These men went ahead to meet David and the people who were with him. When David came to these people, he greeted them.
1Sa 30:22 Then all the wicked men and worthless fellows among those who had gone with David said, “Because these men did not go with us, we will not give them any of the booty that we have recovered. Except that each man may take his wife and children, lead them away, and go.”
1Sa 30:23 Then David responded, “You must not act like this, my brothers, with what Yehowah has given to us. He has preserved us and given into our hand the raiders who came against us.
1Sa 30:24 Who will listen to you in this matter? For as the share is for anyone who goes into battle, so also will the share be for anyone who waits by the baggage; they will share and share alike.”
1Sa 30:25 It has been so from that day to this day, for David made it a statute and a decree for Israel.
1Sa 30:26 When David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the booty to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, “See, here is a present for you from the booty from the enemies of Yehowah.”
1Sa 30:27 He also sent some to the elders who were in Bethel, and to those who were in Ramoth of the South, and to those who were in Jattir,
1Sa 30:28 and to those who were in Aroer, and to those who were in Siphmoth, and to those who were in Eshtemoa.
1Sa 30:29 He also sent some to the elders who were in Racal, and to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who were in the cities of the Kenites,
1Sa 30:30 and to those who were in Hormah, and to those who were in Chorashan, and to those who were in Athach, 1Sa 30:31 and to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men habitually went.

1 Samuel Chapter 31

1Sa 31:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel. The men of Israel fled from before the Philistines and fell down dead on Mount Gilboa.
1Sa 31:2 The Philistines closely pursued Saul and his sons. The Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, his sons.
1Sa 31:3 The battle went heavily against Saul, and the archers overtook him. He was in severe pain because of them.
1Sa 31:4 Then Saul ordered his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it. Otherwise, these uncircumcised will come and abuse me." But his armor bearer would not, for he was deathly afraid. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.
1Sa 31:5 When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died with him (Mat. 27:5; Acts 1:18; 2 Sam. 17:23).
1Sa 31:6 So Saul died (c. 1063 BC), his three sons, and his armor bearer, these men all died together that same day.
1Sa 31:7 When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those beyond the Jordan River, saw that the men of Israel had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled, and the Philistines came and lived in them.
1Sa 31:8 It came about on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
1Sa 31:9 They cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent messengers into the land of the Philistines throughout, to carry the news to their idols' temples and to the people.
1Sa 31:10 They put his armor in the temple of the Ashtoreth, and they fastened his body to the city wall of Beth Shan.
1Sa 31:11 When the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard of what the Philistines had done to Saul,
1Sa 31:12 all the fighting men arose and went all night and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan. They went to Jabesh and burned them there.
1Sa 31:13 Then they took their bones and buried them under a tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted for seven days (1 Chron. 10:8-12).

Book of 2nd Samuel

2 Samuel Chapter 1

2Sa 1:1 After the death of Saul (c. 1063 BC), David returned from attacking the Amalekites and remained in Ziklag for two days.
2Sa 1:2 On the third day, a man came from Saul's camp with his clothes torn and with dirt on his head. When he came to David he lay facedown on the ground and made obeisance to him.
2Sa 1:3 David asked him, "Where did you come from?" He answered, "I escaped from the camp of Israel."
2Sa 1:4 David entreated him, "Please tell me how things went." He answered, "The people fled from the battle. Many have fallen and many are dead. Saul and Jonathan his son are also dead."
2Sa 1:5 David asked the young man, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?"
2Sa 1:6 The young man replied, "By chance I happened to be on Mount Gilboa, and there Saul was leaning on his spear, and chariots and cavalry were about to catch up with him.
2Sa 1:7 Saul turned around and saw me and called out to me. I answered, 'Here I am.'
2Sa 1:8 He asked me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.'
2Sa 1:9 He entreated me, 'Please stand over me and kill me, for great suffering has taken hold of me, but life is still in me.'
2Sa 1:10 So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that he would not live after he had fallen. Then I took the crown that was on his head and the band that was on his arm, and brought them here to you, my master."
2Sa 1:11 Then David tore his clothes, and all the men with him did the same.
2Sa 1:12 They mourned, wept, and fasted until dusk for Saul, for Jonathan his son, for the people of Yehowah, and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.
2Sa 1:13 David asked the young man, "Where are you from?" He answered, "I am the son of a sojourning foreigner in the land, an Amalekite."
2Sa 1:14 David asked him, "Why were you not afraid to kill the anointed king of Yehowah with your own hand?"
2Sa 1:15 David called one of the young men and ordered, "Go and kill him." So that man went and struck him down, and the Amalekite died.

2Sa 1:16 Then David spoke over him, “Your blood is on your head, because your own mouth has testified against you, ‘I have killed the anointed king of Yehowah.’” 2Sa 1:17 Then David sung this funeral song about Saul and Jonathan his son.
2Sa 1:18 He commanded the people to teach this Song of the Bow to the sons of Judah, which has been written in the Book of Jasher.
2Sa 1:19 “Your glory, Israel, is dead, killed on your high places! How the mighty have fallen!
2Sa 1:20 Do not tell it in Gath, do not proclaim it in the streets of Ashkelon, so that the daughters of the Philistines may not rejoice, so that the daughters of the uncircumcised may not celebrate.
2Sa 1:21 Mountains of Gilboa, let there not be dew or rain on you, nor fields giving grain for offerings, for there the shield of the mighty was defiled. The shield of Saul is no longer anointed with oil.
2Sa 1:22 From the blood of those who have been killed, from the bodies of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, and the sword of Saul did not return empty.
2Sa 1:23 Saul and Jonathan were loved and gracious in life, and in their death they were not separated. They were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.
2Sa 1:24 You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet as well as jewels, and who put ornaments of gold on your clothing.
2Sa 1:25 How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is killed on your high places.
2Sa 1:26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan. You were exceptionally dear to me. Your love to me was wonderful, exceeding the love of women.
2Sa 1:27 How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war perished!”

2 Samuel Chapter 2

2Sa 2:1 After this David asked Yehowah, “Should I go up to one of the cities of Judah?” Yehowah answered him, “Go up.” David asked, “To which city should I go?” Yehowah answered, “To Hebron.”
2Sa 2:2 So David went up with his two wives, Ahinoam from Jezreel, and Abigail from Carmel, the widow of Nabal.
2Sa 2:3 David brought the men who were with him, who each brought his family, to the cities of Hebron, where they began to live.
2Sa 2:4 Then men from Judah came and anointed David king over the house of Judah. They told David, “The men of Jabesh Gilead have buried Saul.”
2Sa 2:5 So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead and said to them, “You are blessed by Yehowah, since you have showed this loyalty to your master Saul and have buried him.
2Sa 2:6 Now may Yehowah show you covenantal loyalty and faithfulness. I also will show you this goodness, because you have done this thing.
2Sa 2:7 Now then, let your hands be strong; be courageous for Saul your master is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”
2Sa 2:8 But Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul’s military force, took Ishbosheth son of Saul and brought him to Mahanaim.
2Sa 2:9 He made Ishbosheth king over Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and over all Israel.
2Sa 2:10 Ishbosheth (Ishbaal; 1 Chron. 8:33), son of Saul, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.
2Sa 2:11 The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.
2Sa 2:12 Abner son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.
2Sa 2:13 Joab son of Zeruiah and the servants of David went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. There they sat down, one group on one side of the pool and the other on the other side.
2Sa 2:14 Abner said to Joab, “Let the young men arise and compete before us.” Then Joab agreed, “Let them arise.”
2Sa 2:15 Then the young men rose up and gathered together, twelve for Benjamin and Ishbosheth son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.
2Sa 2:16 Each man seized his opponent by the head and thrust his sword into the side of his opponent, and they fell down together. Therefore, that place was called in Hebrew, “Helkath Hazzurim,” or “Field of Swords,” which is in Gibeon.

2Sa 2:17 The battle was extremely severe that day and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated before the servants of David.
2Sa 2:18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel was swift in his feet like a wild gazelle.
2Sa 2:19 Asahel closely pursued Abner and followed him without turning away in any direction.
2Sa 2:20 Abner looked behind him and asked, “Is that you Asahel?” He answered, “It is I.”
2Sa 2:21 Abner said to him, “Turn aside to your right or to your left, and seize one of the young men and take his armor.” But Asahel would not turn aside.
2Sa 2:22 So Abner said again to Asahel, “Stop pursuing me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I hold up my face to Joab, your brother?”
2Sa 2:23 But Asahel refused to turn aside, and so Abner stabbed him in the body with the blunt end of his spear, so that the spear came out the other side. Asahel fell down and died there. So it came about that anyone who arrived at the place where Asahel fell down and died, he stopped and stood still.
2Sa 2:24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. When the sun was going down, they came to the hill of Ammah, which is near Giah by the road to the wilderness of Gibeon.
2Sa 2:26 Then Abner called to Joab and asked, “Must the sword devour forever? Do you not know it will be bitter in the end? How long will it be before you tell your men to stop pursuing their brothers?”
2Sa 2:27 Joab answered, “Just as the Almighty lives, if you had not said that, my soldiers would have pursued their brothers until tomorrow morning!”
2Sa 2:28 So Joab blew the trumpet, and all his men stopped and did not pursue Israel anymore, nor did they fight anymore.
2Sa 2:29 Abner and his men traveled all that night through the Arabah. They crossed the Jordan River, marched all the next morning, and then reached Mahanaim.
2Sa 2:30 Joab returned from pursuing Abner. He assembled all his men, from whom were missing Asahel and nineteen of David’s soldiers.
2Sa 2:31 But the men of David had killed 360 men of Benjamin with Abner.
2Sa 2:32 Then they took up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. Joab and his men traveled all night, and the day dawned on them at Hebron.

2 Samuel Chapter 3

2Sa 3:1 Now there was a long war between the house of Saul and the House of David. David grew stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.
2Sa 3:2 Sons were born to David in Hebron. His firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam from Jezreel.
2Sa 3:3 His second son, Chileab, was born to Abigail, the widow of Nabal from Carmel. The third, Absalom, was son of Maacah, daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur.
2Sa 3:4 David's fourth son, Adonijah (Adoniyah), was the son of Haggith. His fifth son was Shephatiah (Shephatyah) son of Abital, 2Sa 3:5 and the sixth, Ithream, was the son of David's wife Eglah. These sons were born to David in Hebron.
2Sa 3:6 It came about during the war between the house of Saul and the House of David that Abner made himself strong in the house of Saul.
2Sa 3:7 Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. Ishbosheth asked Abner, "Why have you had sex with my father's concubine?"
2Sa 3:8 Then Abner was extremely angry at the words of Ishbosheth and answered, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today, I am showing faithfulness to the house of Saul, your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, by not delivering you into the hand of David. But now you accuse me of an offense concerning this woman?
2Sa 3:9 May the Almighty do so to me, Abner, and more also, if I do not do for David as Yehowah has sworn to him,
2Sa 3:10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beersheba."
2Sa 3:11 Ishbosheth could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.
2Sa 3:12 Then Abner sent messengers to David to speak for him, "Whose land is this? Make a covenant with me, and you will see that my hand is with you, to bring all Israel to you."
2Sa 3:13 David answered, "Good, I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require from you is that you cannot see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see me."
2Sa 3:14 Then David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, ordering, "Give me my wife Michal, for whom I paid a price of one hundred Philistine foreskins."
2Sa 3:15 So Ishbosheth sent for Michal and took her from her husband, Paltiel son of Laish.

2Sa 3:16 Her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her to Bahurim. Then Abner ordered him, “Return home now.” So he returned.
2Sa 3:17 Abner spoke with the elders of Israel, “In the past, you were trying to have David be king over you.
2Sa 3:18 Now do it. For Yehowah has spoken of David, ‘By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.’”
2Sa 3:19 Abner also spoke personally to the people of Benjamin. Then Abner went also to speak with David in Hebron to explain everything that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin desired to accomplish.
2Sa 3:20 When Abner and twenty of his men arrived in Hebron to see David, David had a feast prepared for them.
2Sa 3:21 Abner explained to David, “I will arise and gather all Israel to you, my master the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, so that you may reign over all that you desire.” So David sent Abner away, and Abner left in peace.
2Sa 3:22 Then the soldiers of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much plunder with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron. David had sent him away, and Abner had left in peace.
2Sa 3:23 When Joab and all the military force with him arrived, they told Joab, “Abner son of Ner came to the king, the king has sent him away, and Abner left in peace.”
2Sa 3:24 Then Joab came to the king and asked, “What have you done? Look, Abner came to you! Why have you sent him away, and he is gone?
2Sa 3:25 Do you not know that Abner son of Ner came to deceive you, to discover your plans, and learn everything you are doing?”
2Sa 3:26 When Joab left David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah, but David did not know this.
2Sa 3:27 When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the middle of the gate to speak with him quietly. There Joab stabbed him in the stomach and murdered him. In this way, Joab avenged the blood of Asahel his brother.
2Sa 3:28 When David heard about this he said, “I and my kingdom are innocent before Yehowah forever regarding the blood of Abner son of Ner.
2Sa 3:29 Let the guilt of Abner’s death fall on the head of Joab and on all his father’s household. May there never fail to be in the family of Joab someone who has a flowing sore or is a leper, or who is lame and must walk with a crutch, or who is killed by the sword, or who goes without food.”
2Sa 3:30 So Joab and Abishai his brother murdered Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battle.

2Sa 3:31 David ordered Joab and all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes, put on sackcloth, and mourn before Abner’s body.” Now King David walked behind the body in the funeral procession.
2Sa 3:32 They buried Abner in Hebron. The king wept and cried loudly at the tomb of Abner, and all the people also wept.
2Sa 3:33 The king lamented for Abner and sang, “Should Abner die as a fool dies?
2Sa 3:34 Your hands were not bound. Your feet were not shackled. As a man falls before the sons of injustice, so you have fallen.” Once more all the people wept over him.
2Sa 3:35 All the people came to make David eat while it was still day, but David swore, “May the Almighty do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down.”
2Sa 3:36 All the people took notice of David’s grief, and it pleased them, as whatever the king did pleased them.
2Sa 3:37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not the king’s desire to kill Abner son of Ner.
2Sa 3:38 The king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?
2Sa 3:39 Now I am weak today, though I am an anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too brutal for me. May Yehowah repay the evildoer by punishing him for his wickedness, as he deserves.”

2 Samuel Chapter 4

2Sa 4:1 When Ishbosheth, Saul's son, heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became weak, and all Israel was troubled.
2Sa 4:2 Now Saul's son had two men who were captains of groups of soldiers. The name of one was Baanah and the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite of the people of Benjamin, for Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin,
2Sa 4:3 and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been living there until this time.
2Sa 4:4 Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up to flee. But as she was running, Jonathan's son fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.
2Sa 4:5 So the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, traveled during the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, as he was resting at noon.
2Sa 4:6 The woman guarding the door had fallen asleep while sifting wheat, and Rechab and Baanah walked in quietly and passed her.
2Sa 4:7 So after they entered the house, they attacked and murdered him as he was lying on his bed in his room (c. 1062 BC). Then they cut off his head and carried it away, traveling on the road all night to the Arabah.
2Sa 4:8 They brought the head of Ishbosheth to David at Hebron, and they reported to the king, "Look, this is the head of Ishbosheth son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life. Today, Yehowah has avenged our master the king against Saul and his descendants."
2Sa 4:9 David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite; he said to them, "As Yehowah lives, who delivered my life from every trouble,
2Sa 4:10 when someone told me, 'Look, Saul is dead,' thinking he was bringing good news, I seized him and executed him at Ziklag. That was the reward I gave him for his news.
2Sa 4:11 How much more, when wicked men have murdered an innocent person in his own house on his bed, should I not now require his blood from your hand, and remove you from the earth?"
2Sa 4:12 Then David gave orders to the young men, and they executed them and cut off their hands and feet and hung them up beside the pool at Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

2 Samuel Chapter 5

2Sa 5:1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.
2Sa 5:2 In the recent past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led the Israeli military force. Yehowah prophesied to you, ‘You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become ruler over Israel.’”
2Sa 5:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them before Yehowah. They anointed David king over Israel.
2Sa 5:4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign (c. 1062 BC), and he reigned forty years.
2Sa 5:5 In Hebron, he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem, he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.
2Sa 5:6 The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land. They boasted to David, “You will not come in here, except to be turned away by the blind and the lame. David cannot come in here!”
2Sa 5:7 Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion, which now is the City of David (1 Chron. 11:4-9; 1 Kings 9:15).
2Sa 5:8 At that time David said, “Those who attack the Jebusites will have to go through the water shaft to reach the ‘lame and the blind’ who are David’s enemies.” That is why people say, “The ‘blind and the lame’ must not enter the palace.”
2Sa 5:9 So David lived in the stronghold and called it the City of David. He fortified around it, from the (Gihon) Spring Tower toward the inside.
2Sa 5:10 David became powerful, because Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, was with him.
2Sa 5:11 Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, carpenters, and masons. They built a house for David.
2Sa 5:12 David knew that Yehowah had established him as king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.
2Sa 5:13 After David left Hebron and came to Jerusalem, he took more concubines and wives in Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him.
2Sa 5:14 These were the names of the children who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,
2Sa 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,
2Sa 5:16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

2Sa 5:17 Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king over Israel, they all went out looking for him. But David heard about it and went down to the stronghold.
2Sa 5:18 Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Giants.
2Sa 5:19 Then David sought help from Yehowah. He asked, “Should I attack the Philistines? Will you give me victory over them?” Yehowah answered David, “Attack, for I will certainly give you victory over the Philistines.”
2Sa 5:20 So David attacked at Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He testified, “Yehowah has burst through my enemies before me like a bursting flood of water!” So the name of that place became Baal Perazim (1 Chron. 14:11; Mat. 11:12; Mic. 2:12-13; Gen. 38:29).
2Sa 5:21 The Philistines left their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.
2Sa 5:22 Then the Philistines came up again and spread out once more in the Valley of Giants.
2Sa 5:23 So David sought help from Yehowah again, and Yehowah ordered him, “You must not attack their front, but rather circle around behind them and come on them through the balsam woods.
2Sa 5:24 When you hear the sound of marching in the wind blowing through the balsam treetops, then attack with force. Do this, because Yehowah will have gone out before you to attack the military force of the Philistines.”
2Sa 5:25 So David did as Yehowah had commanded him. He killed Philistines from Geba all the way to Gezer.

2 Samuel Chapter 6

2Sa 6:1 Now David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.
2Sa 6:2 David arose and went with all his men who were with him from Baalah in Judah to bring up from there the Ark of the Almighty, which is called by the name of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, who sits enthroned over the cherubim.
2Sa 6:3 They set the Ark of the Almighty on a new cart. They brought it out of Abinadab's house, which was on a hill. Uzzah and Ahio, his sons, were guiding the new cart.
2Sa 6:4 They brought the cart out of Abinadab's house on the hill with the Ark of the Almighty on it. Ahio was walking in front of the ark.
2Sa 6:5 Then David and all the house of Israel began to play before Yehowah, celebrating with wooden instruments, harps, lyres, tambourines, rattles, and cymbals.
2Sa 6:6 When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out with his hand to grab the Ark of the Almighty, and he took hold of it.
2Sa 6:7 Then the anger of Yehowah burned against Uzzah. The Almighty attacked him there for his sin. Uzzah died there by the Ark of the Almighty.
2Sa 6:8 David was angry, because Yehowah had attacked Uzzah, and he called the name of that place Perez Uzzah. That place is called Perez Uzzah to this day.
2Sa 6:9 David was afraid of Yehowah that day. He asked, "How can the Ark of Yehowah come to me?"
2Sa 6:10 So David was not willing to take the Ark of Yehowah with him into the City of David. Instead, he put it aside in the house of Obed Edom the Gittite.
2Sa 6:11 The Ark of Yehowah remained in the house of Obed Edom the Gittite for three months. So Yehowah blessed him and all his household.
2Sa 6:12 Now King David was told, "Yehowah has blessed Obed Edom's household and everything that belongs to him because of the Ark of the Almighty." So David went and brought up the Ark of the Almighty from Obed Edom's house to the City of David with joy.
2Sa 6:13 When those who were carrying the Ark of Yehowah had gone six steps, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf.
2Sa 6:14 David danced before Yehowah with all his might; he was wearing only a linen ephod.
2Sa 6:15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the Ark of Yehowah with shouting and the sound of trumpets.

2Sa 6:16 Now as the Ark of Yehowah came into the City of David, Michal, daughter of Saul, looked out the window. She saw King David leaping and dancing before Yehowah. Then she despised him in her heart.
2Sa 6:17 They brought in the Ark of Yehowah and put it in its place, in the middle of the tent that David had set up for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before Yehowah.
2Sa 6:18 When David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
2Sa 6:19 Then he distributed among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, a loaf of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people left; each one returned to his own house.
2Sa 6:20 Then David returned to bless his family. Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David and said, “How honored the king of Israel was today, who undressed himself today before the eyes of the slave girls among his servants, like one of the crude fellows who shamelessly undresses himself!”
2Sa 6:21 David responded to Michal, “I did that before Yehowah, who chose me above your father and above all his family, who appointed me leader over the people of Yehowah, over Israel. Before Yehowah I will be joyful!
2Sa 6:22 I will be even more undignified than this, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes. But by these slave girls you have spoken about, I will be honored.”
2Sa 6:23 So Michal, the daughter of Saul, had no children to the day of her death.

2 Samuel Chapter 7

2Sa 7:1 It happened, that after the king had settled in his house, and after Yehowah had given him rest from all his surrounding enemies,
2Sa 7:2 the king said to Nathan the prophet, “Look, I am living in a house of cedar, but the Ark of the Almighty is staying in the middle of a tent.”
2Sa 7:3 Then Nathan said to the king, “Go, do what is in your heart, for Yehowah is with you.”
2Sa 7:4 But that same night the Word of Yehowah came to Nathan,
2Sa 7:5 “Go and tell David my servant, ‘This is what Yehowah says: Will you build me a temple in which to live?
2Sa 7:6 For I have not lived in a temple from the day that I brought up the people of Israel out of Egypt until this present day; instead, I have been moving about in a tent, a tabernacle.
2Sa 7:7 In all places where I have moved among all the people of Israel, did I ever say anything to any of Israel’s leaders whom I appointed to shepherd my people Israel, asking, “Why have you not built me a temple of cedar?”’”
2Sa 7:8 Now then, tell my servant David, “This is what Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says: ‘I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, so that you would be ruler over my people Israel.
2Sa 7:9 I have been with you wherever you went. I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the great ones of the earth.
2Sa 7:10 I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them there, so that they may live in their own place and be troubled no more. No longer will wicked people oppress them, as they did before,
2Sa 7:11 as they were doing from the days that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Now I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, I, Yehowah, declare to you that I will make you a household.
2Sa 7:12 When your days are fulfilled, and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up a descendant after you, one who will come out from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.
2Sa 7:13 He will build a temple for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.
2Sa 7:14 I will be a father to him, and he will be my son. When he sins, I will discipline him with the rod of men and with the whipping of the sons of men.
2Sa 7:15 But my covenant faithfulness will not leave him, as I took it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.
2Sa 7:16 Your household and kingdom will be confirmed forever before you. Your throne will be established forever.’”

2Sa 7:17 Nathan spoke to David and reported to him all these words, and he told him about the entire vision.
2Sa 7:18 Then King David went in and sat before Yehowah; he prayed, “Who am I, Lord Yehowah, and what is my family that you have brought me to this point?
2Sa 7:19 Now this was a small thing in your sight, Lord Yehowah. You have even spoken about your servant’s family for a great while to come and have shown me future generations, Lord Yehowah.
2Sa 7:20 What more can I, David, say to you? You have honored your servant, Lord Yehowah.
2Sa 7:21 For your word’s sake, and to fulfill your own purpose, you have done this great thing and revealed it to your servant.
2Sa 7:22 Therefore, you are great, Lord Yehowah, for there is no one like you, and there is no Almighty besides you, as we have heard with our own ears.
2Sa 7:23 What ethnicity is like your people Israel, the one nation on earth whom you, Almighty One, went and rescued for yourself? You did this, so that they would become a people for yourself, to make a name for yourself, and to do great and fearful deeds for your land. You drove out ethnicities and their deities from before your people, whom you rescued from Egypt.
2Sa 7:24 You established Israel as your own people forever, and you, Yehowah, became their Divine One.
2Sa 7:25 So now, Almighty Yehowah, may the promise that you made concerning your servant and his family be established forever. Do as you have spoken.
2Sa 7:26 May your name be forever great, so the people will say, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is the Mighty One of Israel,’ while the household of me, David, your servant, is established before you.
2Sa 7:27 For you, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a household. That is why I, your servant, have found courage to pray to you.
2Sa 7:28 Now Lord Yehowah, you are the Almighty, and your words are true, and you have made this good promise to your servant.
2Sa 7:29 Now then, let it please you to bless the household of your servant, so that it may continue forever before you. For you, Lord Yehowah, have said these things, and with your blessing your servant’s household will be blessed forever.”

2 Samuel Chapter 8

2Sa 8:1 After this, it came about that David attacked the Philistines and defeated them. So David took Gath and its villages out of the Philistines' control.
2Sa 8:2 Then he defeated Moab and measured their men with a line by making them lie down on the ground. He measured off two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. So the Moabites became servants to David and began to pay him tribute.
2Sa 8:3 David then defeated Hadadezer son of Rehob, the king of Zobah, as Hadadezer was traveling to recover his rule by the Euphrates River.
2Sa 8:4 David captured from him 1,700 chariots and twenty thousand infantrymen. David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for a hundred chariots.
2Sa 8:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand Aramean men.
2Sa 8:6 Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became servants to him and brought him tribute. Yehowah gave victory to David wherever he went.
2Sa 8:7 David took the golden shields that were on Hadadezer's servants and brought them to Jerusalem.
2Sa 8:8 From Betah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took a large amount of bronze.
2Sa 8:9 When Tou, king of (the Neo-Hittite City of) Hamath (modern Hama, Syria), heard that David had defeated all the military force of Hadadezer,
2Sa 8:10 Tou sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless him, because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, and because Hadadezer had waged war against Tou. Hadoram brought with himself objects of silver, gold, and bronze (1 Chron. 18:9-10).
2Sa 8:11 King David set aside these objects to Yehowah, together with the silver and gold from all the ethnicities that he conquered,
2Sa 8:12 from Aram, Moab, the people of Ammon, the Philistines, and Amalek, along with all of the plundered goods of Hadadezer son of Rehob, the king of Zobah.
2Sa 8:13 David's name was well known when he returned from conquering the Arameans in the Valley of Salt, with their eighteen thousand men.
2Sa 8:14 He placed garrisons throughout all of Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to him. Yehowah gave victory to David wherever he went.
2Sa 8:15 David reigned over all Israel, and he administered justice and righteousness to all his people.

2Sa 8:16 Joab son of Zeruiah was the commander of the military force, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder.
2Sa 8:17 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests, and Seraiah (Serayah) was scribe.
2Sa 8:18 Benaiah (Benayah) son of Jehoiada was in charge of the Cherethites and Pelethites, and David's sons were the king's leading advisors.

2 Samuel Chapter 9

2Sa 9:1 David asked, “Is there anyone left in Saul’s family to whom I may show kindness for Jonathan’s sake?”
2Sa 9:2 There was in Saul’s family a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David. The king asked him, “Are you Ziba?” He answered, “Yes. I am your servant.”
2Sa 9:3 So the king asked, “Is there not anyone left of Saul’s family to whom I may show the kindness of the Almighty?” Ziba answered the king, “Jonathan still has a son who is lame in his feet.”
2Sa 9:4 The king asked him, “Where is he?” Ziba answered the king, “Look, he is in the house of Machir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar.”
2Sa 9:5 Then King David sent and had him brought out of the house of Machir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar.
2Sa 9:6 So Mephibosheth (Merib Baal; 1 Chron. 8:34), son of Jonathan son of Saul, came to David and bowed down his face to the floor in honor of David. David said, “Mephibosheth.” He replied, “See, I am your servant.”
2Sa 9:7 David said to him, “Do not be afraid, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father’s sake, and I will restore to you all the land of Saul your grandfather, and you will always eat at my table.”
2Sa 9:8 Mephibosheth bowed and asked, “What is your servant, that you should look with grace on such a dead dog as I am?”
2Sa 9:9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul’s servant and said to him, “All that belonged to Saul and his family I have given to your master’s grandson.
2Sa 9:10 You, your sons, and your servants must till the land for him, and you must harvest the crops, so that your master’s grandson will have food to eat. For Mephibosheth, your master’s grandson, must always eat at my table.” Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.
2Sa 9:11 Then Ziba said to the king, “Your servant will do all that my master the king commands his servant.” The king added, “As for Mephibosheth, he will eat at my table as one of the king’s sons.”
2Sa 9:12 Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. All who lived in the house of Ziba were servants of Mephibosheth.
2Sa 9:13 So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, and he always ate at the king’s table, though he was lame in both his feet.

2 Samuel Chapter 10

2Sa 10:1 It came about later that the king of the people of Ammon died, and that Hanun his son became king in his place.
2Sa 10:2 David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent his servants to comfort Hanun concerning his father. His servants entered the land of the people of Ammon.
2Sa 10:3 But the leaders of the people of Ammon asked Hanun their master, “Do you really think that David is honoring your father, because he has sent men to comfort you? Has not David sent his servants to you to look at the city, to spy it out, in order to overthrow it?”
2Sa 10:4 So Hanun took David’s servants, shaved off half their beards, cut off their garments up to their buttocks, and sent them away.
2Sa 10:5 When they explained this to David, he sent to meet with them, for the men were deeply ashamed. The king ordered, “Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown back and then return.”
2Sa 10:6 When the people of Ammon saw that they had become a stench to David, the people of Ammon sent messengers and hired the Arameans of Beth Rehob and Zobah, twenty thousand infantrymen, and the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and the men of Tob with twelve thousand men.
2Sa 10:7 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the soldiers of the military force.
2Sa 10:8 The Ammonites came out and formed a line of battle at the entrance to their city gate, while the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, stood by themselves in the open fields.
2Sa 10:9 When Joab saw the battle lines facing him both in front and behind, he chose some of Israel’s best fighters and arranged them against the Arameans.
2Sa 10:10 As for the rest of the military force, he gave it into the command of Abishai his brother, and he put them into battle lines against the military force of Ammon.
2Sa 10:11 Joab said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you, Abishai, must rescue me. But if the military force of Ammon is too strong for you, then I will come and rescue you.
2Sa 10:12 Be strong, and let us show ourselves to be strong for our people and for the cities of our Divine One, for Yehowah will do what is good for his purpose.”
2Sa 10:13 So Joab and the soldiers of his military force advanced to the battle against the Arameans, who were forced to flee before the military force of Israel.

2Sa 10:14 When the military force of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from Abishai and went back into the city. Then Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went back to Jerusalem.
2Sa 10:15 When the Arameans saw that they were being defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together again.
2Sa 10:16 Then Hadadezer sent for Aramean troops from beyond the Euphrates River. They came to Helam with Shobach, the commander of Hadadezer's military force at their head.
2Sa 10:17 When David was told this, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan River, and arrived at Helam. The Arameans arranged themselves in battle lines against David and fought him.
2Sa 10:18 The Arameans fled from Israel. David killed seven hundred Aramean charioteers and forty thousand cavalry. Shobach the commander of their military force was wounded and died there.
2Sa 10:19 When all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became their subjects. So the Arameans were afraid to help the people of Ammon anymore.

2 Samuel Chapter 11

2Sa 11:1 It came about in the springtime, at the time when kings normally go to war, that David sent out Joab, his servants, and all the military force of Israel. They destroyed the military force of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed in Jerusalem.
2Sa 11:2 So it came about one evening that David rose up from his bed and walked on the roof of his palace. From there he happened to see a woman who was bathing, and the woman was exquisitely beautiful to look at.
2Sa 11:3 So David sent, and he asked people who would know about the woman. Someone said, “Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, and is she not the wife of Uriah (Uriyah) the Hethite?”
2Sa 11:4 David sent messengers and took her; she came in to him, and he had sex with her, for she had just purified herself from menstruation. Then she returned to her house.
2Sa 11:5 The woman conceived, and she sent and told David, “I am pregnant.”
2Sa 11:6 Then David sent to Joab ordering, “Send me Uriah the Hethite.” So Joab sent Uriah, his armor-bearer, to David.
2Sa 11:7 When Uriah arrived, David asked him how Joab was, how the military force was doing, and how the war was going.
2Sa 11:8 David said to Uriah, “Go down to your house and wash your feet.” So Uriah left the king’s palace, and the king sent a gift for Uriah after he left.
2Sa 11:9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king’s palace with all the servants of his master, and he did not go down to his house.
2Sa 11:10 When they told David, “Uriah did not go down to his house,” David asked Uriah, “Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?”
2Sa 11:11 Uriah answered David, “The ark, Israel, and Judah are staying in tents, and my master Joab and my master’s servants are camped in an open field. How then can I go into my house to eat, to drink, and make love with my wife? As sure as you are alive, I will not do this.”
2Sa 11:12 So David said to Uriah, “Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you leave.” So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next day.
2Sa 11:13 When David called him, he ate and drank before him, and David made him drunk. At dusk, Uriah went out to sleep on his bed with the servants of his master; he did not go down to his house.
2Sa 11:14 So at dawn, David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah.
2Sa 11:15 David wrote in the letter, “Set Uriah at point in front of the most intense battle and then withdraw from him, that he may be hit and killed.”

2Sa 11:16 So as Joab watched the siege upon the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew the strongest enemy soldiers would be fighting.
2Sa 11:17 When the men of the city went out and fought against Joab's military force, some of the soldiers of David fell, and Uriah the Hethite was also killed there.
2Sa 11:18 When Joab sent word to David about everything concerning the war,
2Sa 11:19 he commanded the messenger, "When you have finished telling all the things concerning the war to the king,
2Sa 11:20 it may happen that the king will become angry, and he will ask you, 'Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?
2Sa 11:21 Who killed Abimelech son of Jerubbesheth (Gideon)? Did not a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' Then you must answer, 'Your servant Uriah the Hethite is dead also.'"
2Sa 11:22 So the messenger left, went to David, and told him everything that Joab had sent him to say.
2Sa 11:23 Then the messenger said to David, "The enemy were stronger than we were at first; they came out to us into the field, but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate.
2Sa 11:24 Then their archers shot at your soldiers from off the wall, and some of the king's servants were killed, and your servant Uriah the Hethite was killed too."
2Sa 11:25 Then David ordered the messenger, "Say this to Joab, 'Do not let this displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle even stronger against the city and overthrow it,' and encourage him."
2Sa 11:26 So when the widow of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she lamented deeply for her husband.
2Sa 11:27 When her sorrow passed, David sent and took her home to his palace, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But what David had done displeased Yehowah.

2 Samuel Chapter 12

2Sa 12:1 Then Yehowah sent Nathan to David. He came to him and said, “There were once two men in a city. One man was rich and the other poor.
2Sa 12:2 The rich man had huge numbers of flocks and herds,
2Sa 12:3 but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought, fed, and raised. It grew up together with him and with his children. The lamb even ate with him and drank from his own cup, and it slept in his arms and was like a daughter to him.
2Sa 12:4 One day a visitor came to the rich man, but the rich man was unwilling to take an animal from his own flocks and herds to provide food for him. Instead, he took the poor man’s ewe lamb and cooked it for his visitor.”
2Sa 12:5 David was hot with anger against the rich man, and he raged to Nathan, “As Yehowah lives, the man who has done this deserves to be executed!
2Sa 12:6 He must pay back the lamb four times over, because he did such a thing, and because he had no pity on the poor man.”
2Sa 12:7 Then Nathan said to David, “You are that man! Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says, ‘I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you out of the hand of Saul.
2Sa 12:8 I gave you your master’s house, and your master’s wives into your arms. I also gave you the house of Israel and Judah. But if that had been too little, I would have given you many other things in addition.
2Sa 12:9 So why have you despised the commands of Yehowah, so as to do what is evil in his sight? You have killed Uriah the Hethite with the sword and have taken his widow to be your own wife. You murdered him with the sword of the military force of Ammon.
2Sa 12:10 So now the sword will never leave your household, because you have despised me and have taken the widow of Uriah the Hethite as your wife.’
2Sa 12:11 Yehowah declares, ‘Look, I will raise up disaster against you out of your own household. Before your own eyes, I will take your wives and give them to your neighbor, and he will have sex with your wives in broad daylight.
2Sa 12:12 For you committed your sin secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, in the sunlight.’”
2Sa 12:13 Then David confessed to Nathan, “I have sinned against Yehowah.” Nathan replied to David, “Yehowah also has passed over your sin. You will not be executed.
2Sa 12:14 However, because by this act you have despised Yehowah, the child who is born to you will surely die.”
2Sa 12:15 Then Nathan left and went home. Yehowah attacked the child that Uriah’s widow bore to David, and he was incurably sick.

2Sa 12:16 David then entreated the Almighty for the boy. David fasted and went inside and lay all night on the floor.
2Sa 12:17 The elders of his household arose and stood beside him, to raise him up from the floor, but he would not get up, and he would not eat with them.
2Sa 12:18 It came about on the seventh day that the child died. David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they said, "Look, while the child was still alive we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our voice. What might he do to himself if we tell him that the boy is dead?"
2Sa 12:19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead. He said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" They answered, "He is dead."
2Sa 12:20 Then David arose from the floor and washed himself, anointed himself, and changed his clothes. He went to the tabernacle of Yehowah and worshiped there, and then he came back to his own palace. When he asked for it, they set food before him, and he ate.
2Sa 12:21 Then his servants said to him, "Why have you done this? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but when the child died, you rose up and ate."
2Sa 12:22 David answered, "While the child was still alive I fasted and wept. I asked, 'Who knows whether or not Yehowah will be gracious to me, that the child may live?'
2Sa 12:23 But now he is dead, so why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me."
2Sa 12:24 David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her, and made love to her. Later, she gave birth to a son, and the child was named Solomon. Yehowah loved him,
2Sa 12:25 and he sent word through Nathan the prophet to name him Jedidiah (Yedideyah), because Yehowah loved him.
2Sa 12:26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah, the royal city of the people of Ammon, and he captured its fortress.
2Sa 12:27 So Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have taken the city's water supply.
2Sa 12:28 Now therefore, gather the rest of the military force together and camp against the city and take it, because if I take the city, it will be named after me."
2Sa 12:29 So David gathered all the military force together and went to Rabbah; he fought against the city and captured it.
2Sa 12:30 David took the crown from their king's head, it weighed thirty-three kilograms of gold, and there was a precious stone in it. The crown was placed on David's own head. Then he brought out the plunder of the city in large quantities.

2Sa 12:31 He brought out the people who were in the city and forced them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes; he also made them work at brick kilns. David required all the cities of the people of Ammon to do this labor. Then David and all the military force returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel Chapter 13

2Sa 13:1 It came about after this, that Amnon son of David was sexually attracted to his beautiful half-sister Tamar, who was a full sister of Absalom, another of David's sons.
2Sa 13:2 Amnon was so frustrated that he became sick because of his sister Tamar. She was a virgin, and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her.
2Sa 13:3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jehonadab son of Shammah, David's brother. Jehonadab was an extremely shrewd man.
2Sa 13:4 Jehonadab asked Amnon, "Why, son of the king, are you depressed every morning? Will you not tell me?" So Amnon answered him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."
2Sa 13:5 Then Jehonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, ask him, 'Would you please send my sister Tamar to give me something to eat and cook it before me, so that I may see it and eat it from her hand?'"
2Sa 13:6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon entreated the king, "Please send my sister Tamar to make some food for my sickness in front of me, so that I may eat from her hand."
2Sa 13:7 Then David sent word to Tamar at his palace, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house and prepare food for him."
2Sa 13:8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. She took dough and kneaded it and formed bread in his sight, and then she baked it.
2Sa 13:9 She took the pan and gave the bread to him, but he refused to eat. Then Amnon ordered the others present, "Send everyone out, away from me." So everyone went out from him.
2Sa 13:10 So Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into my room that I may eat from your hand." So Tamar took the bread that she had made and brought it into the room of Amnon her brother.
2Sa 13:11 When she had brought the food to him, he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, have sex with me, my sister."
2Sa 13:12 She answered him, "No, my brother, do not rape me, for nothing like this should be done in Israel. Do not do this appalling thing!
2Sa 13:13 How could I be rid of my shame? What about you? You would be like one of the fools in Israel! Now please speak to the king, for he would not keep me from you."
2Sa 13:14 However, Amnon would not listen to her. Since he was stronger than Tamar, he seized her and raped her.

2Sa 13:15 Then Amnon hated Tamar with extreme hatred. He hated her even more than he had desired her. Amnon ordered her, “Get up and go.”
2Sa 13:16 But she responded to him, “No! Because this great evil of making me leave is even worse than what you did to me!” But Amnon did not listen to her.
2Sa 13:17 Instead, he called his personal servant and ordered, “Take this woman away from me and bolt the door after her.”
2Sa 13:18 Then his servant brought her out and bolted the door after her. Tamar was wearing an ankle-length long-sleeved robe, because the king’s daughters who were virgins dressed that way.
2Sa 13:19 Tamar put ashes on her head and tore her robe. She put her hands on her head and walked away, crying aloud as she went.
2Sa 13:20 Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now keep quiet, my sister. He is your brother. Do not take this thing to heart.” So Tamar remained alone in her brother Absalom’s house.
2Sa 13:21 But when King David heard of all these things, he was extremely angry.
2Sa 13:22 Absalom said nothing to Amnon, for Absalom hated him for what he had done to her, and how he had disgraced his sister Tamar.
2Sa 13:23 It came about after two full years that Absalom had sheep shearers working at Baal Hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king’s sons to visit there.
2Sa 13:24 Absalom went to the king and entreated, “Look now, your servant has sheep shearers. Please, may the king and his servants go with me, your servant.”
2Sa 13:25 The king answered Absalom, “No, my son, all of us should not go, because we would be a burden to you.” Absalom encouraged the king, but he would not go, yet he did bless Absalom.
2Sa 13:26 Then Absalom entreated, “If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us.” So the king asked him, “Why should Amnon go with you?”
2Sa 13:27 Absalom pressed David, and so he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him.
2Sa 13:28 Absalom commanded his servants, “Listen closely. When Amnon begins to be drunk with wine, and when I say to you, ‘Attack Amnon,’ then execute him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and brave.”
2Sa 13:29 So Absalom’s servants did to Amnon as he had commanded them. Then all the king’s sons arose, and every man mounted his mule and fled.
2Sa 13:30 So it came about, while they were on the road, that the intelligence report was announced to David, “Absalom has murdered all the king’s sons, and there is not one of them left.”
2Sa 13:31 Then the king arose and tore his clothes, and lay on the floor; all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

2Sa 13:32 Jehonadab son of Shammah, David's brother, answered, "Let not my master believe that they have killed all the young men who are the king's sons, for Amnon only is dead. Absalom has planned this from the day that Amnon violated his sister Tamar.
2Sa 13:33 So therefore, let not my master the king take this intelligence report to heart, so as to believe that all the king's sons are dead, for Amnon only is dead."
2Sa 13:34 Absalom fled away. A servant keeping watch raised his eyes and saw many people coming on the road on the hillside west of him.
2Sa 13:35 Then Jehonadab said to the king, "Look, the king's sons are coming. It is just as your servant said."
2Sa 13:36 So it came about when he finished speaking, the king's sons arrived, raised their voices, and wept. The king and all his servants also wept bitterly.
2Sa 13:37 But Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. David mourned for his son every day.
2Sa 13:38 So Absalom fled and went to Geshur, where he was for three years.
2Sa 13:39 The mind of King David longed to go out to see Absalom, for he was comforted concerning Amnon and his death.

2 Samuel Chapter 14

2Sa 14:1 Now Joab son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart desired to see Absalom.
2Sa 14:2 So Joab sent word to Tekoa and had a wise woman brought to him. He instructed her, "Please pretend you are a mourner and put on mourning clothes. Please do not anoint yourself with oil, but be like a woman who has mourned a long time for the dead.
2Sa 14:3 Then go to the king and speak to him about what I will describe." So Joab told her the words she was to say to the king.
2Sa 14:4 When the woman from Tekoa spoke to the king, she lay facedown on the ground, "Help me, king."
2Sa 14:5 The king asked her, "What is wrong?" She answered, "The truth is that I am a widow, and my husband is dead.
2Sa 14:6 I, your servant, had two sons, and they fought together in the field, and there was no one to separate them. One struck the other and killed him.
2Sa 14:7 Now the whole clan has risen against your servant, and they say, 'Hand over the man who struck his brother, so that we may execute him, to pay for the life of his brother whom he killed.' So they would also destroy the heir. Thus they will put out the burning coal that I have left, and they will leave for my husband neither name nor descendant on the surface of the earth."
2Sa 14:8 So the king responded to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will command something to be done for you."
2Sa 14:9 The woman of Tekoa replied to the king, "My master, king, may the guilt be on me and on my father's family. The king and his throne are guiltless."
2Sa 14:10 The king replied, "Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not touch you anymore."
2Sa 14:11 Then she entreated, "Please, may the king call to mind Yehowah your Divine One, so that the avenger of blood will not destroy anyone further, so that they will not destroy my son." The king replied, "As Yehowah lives, not one hair of your son will fall to the ground."
2Sa 14:12 Then the woman said, "Please let your servant speak a further word to my master the king." He replied, "Speak on."
2Sa 14:13 So the woman said, "Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of the Almighty? For in saying this thing, the king is like someone who is guilty, because the king has not brought back home again his banished son.
2Sa 14:14 For we all must die, and we are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. But the Almighty will not take away life; instead, he finds a way for those who were driven away to be restored.

2Sa 14:15 Now then seeing that I have come to speak this thing to my master the king, it is because the people have made me afraid. So your servant said to herself, ‘I will now speak to the king. It may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.
2Sa 14:16 For the king will listen to me, in order to hand over his servant out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together, out of the inheritance of the Almighty.’
2Sa 14:17 Then your servant prayed, ‘Yehowah, please let the word of my master the king give me relief, for as an angel of the Almighty, so is my master the king in telling good from evil.’ May Yehowah your Divine One be with you.”
2Sa 14:18 Then the king answered the woman, “Please do not hide from me anything that I will ask you.” The woman replied, “Let my master the king now speak.”
2Sa 14:19 The king asked, “Is not the hand of Joab with you in all this?” The woman answered, “As you live, my master the king, no one can escape to the right hand or to the left from anything that my master the king has spoken. It was your servant Joab who commanded me and told me to say these things that your servant has spoken.
2Sa 14:20 Your servant Joab has done this to change the course of what is happening. My master is wise, like the wisdom of an angel of the Almighty, and he knows everything that is happening in the land.”
2Sa 14:21 So the king ordered Joab, “Look now, I will do this thing. Go then and bring the young man Absalom back.”
2Sa 14:22 So Joab lay facedown on the ground in honor and gratitude to the king. Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found grace in your sight, my master, king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant.”
2Sa 14:23 So Joab arose, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.
2Sa 14:24 The king ordered, “He may return to his own house, but he may not see my face.” So Absalom returned to his own house but did not see the king’s face.
2Sa 14:25 Now in all Israel there was no one praised for his handsomeness more than Absalom. From the sole of his foot to the top of his head there was no blemish in him.
2Sa 14:26 When he cut the hair of his head at the end of every year, because it was heavy on him, he weighed his hair; it would weigh about 2.2 kilograms, which is measured by the weight of the king’s standard.
2Sa 14:27 To Absalom were born three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar. She was a beautiful woman.

2Sa 14:28 Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, without seeing the king's face.
2Sa 14:29 Then Absalom sent word for Joab to send him to the king, but Joab would not come to him. So Absalom sent word a second time, but Joab still did not come.
2Sa 14:30 So Absalom ordered his servants, "See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire. So Joab's servants came to him with their clothes torn and reported, "Absalom's servants have set the field on fire."
2Sa 14:31 Then Joab arose and came to Absalom at his house and asked him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"
2Sa 14:32 Absalom answered Joab, "Look, I sent word to you ordering, 'Come here so I may send you to the king to say, "Why did I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to still be there. Now therefore, let me see the king's face, and if I am guilty, let him execute me."'"
2Sa 14:33 So Joab went to the king and told him. When the king called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed low to the ground before the king, and the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel Chapter 15

2Sa 15:1 It came about after this, that Absalom prepared a chariot and horses for himself, with fifty men to run before him.
2Sa 15:2 Absalom would get up early and stand beside the road leading to the city gate. When any man had a dispute to come to the king for judgment, Absalom called to him and asked, “From what city have you come?” Then the man would answer, “Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel.”
2Sa 15:3 So Absalom would say to him, “Look, your case is good and right, but there is no one empowered by the king to hear your case.”
2Sa 15:4 Absalom added, “I wish that I were made judge in the land, so that every man who had any dispute or cause might come to me, and I would bring him justice!”
2Sa 15:5 So it came about that when any man came to Absalom to honor him, Absalom would put out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him.
2Sa 15:6 Absalom acted in this way to all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
2Sa 15:7 It came about at the end of four years that Absalom entreated the king, “Please let me go and pay a vow that I have made to Yehowah in Hebron.
2Sa 15:8 For your servant spoke a vow while I was living at Geshur in Aram, ‘If Yehowah will indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will worship Yehowah.’”
2Sa 15:9 So the king replied to him, “Go in peace.” So Absalom arose and went to Hebron.
2Sa 15:10 But then Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, ordering, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you must shout, ‘Absalom is king in Hebron!’”
2Sa 15:11 With Absalom went two hundred men from Jerusalem, who were invited. They went in their innocence, not knowing anything that Absalom had planned.
2Sa 15:12 While Absalom offered sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel from his hometown of Giloh. He was David’s counselor. Absalom’s conspiracy was strong, for the people following Absalom were constantly increasing.
2Sa 15:13 A messenger came to David reporting, “The hearts of the men of Israel are following after Absalom.”
2Sa 15:14 So David ordered all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, “Arise and let us flee, or none of us will escape from Absalom. Prepare to leave immediately, or he will quickly overtake us, and he will bring down disaster on us and attack the city with the edge of the sword.”

2Sa 15:15 The king's servants said to the king, "Look, your servants are ready to do whatever our master the king decides."
2Sa 15:16 The king left and all his family after him, but the king left ten women, who were concubines, to keep the palace.
2Sa 15:17 After the king went out and all the people after him, they stopped at the last house.
2Sa 15:18 All his military force marched with him, and before him went all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had followed him from Gath.
2Sa 15:19 Then the king ordered Ittai the Gittite, "Why did you go with us, too? Return and stay with King Absalom, for you are a foreigner and an exile. Return to your own place.
2Sa 15:20 Since you just left yesterday, why should I make you wander all over with us? I do not even know where I am going. So return and take your fellow countrymen back. May loyalty and faithfulness go with you."
2Sa 15:21 But Ittai answered the king, "As Yehowah lives, and as my master the king lives, surely in whatever place where my master the king goes, there also will your servant go, whether that means living or dying."
2Sa 15:22 So David responded to Ittai, "Go ahead and continue with us." So Ittai the Gittite marched with the king, along with all his men and all the families who were with him.
2Sa 15:23 All the country wept with a loud voice as all the people passed by over the Kidron Valley, and as the king also himself crossed over. All the people traveled on the road toward the wilderness.
2Sa 15:24 Even Zadok with all the Levites, carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the Almighty, were present. They set the Ark of the Almighty down, and then Abiathar joined them. They waited until all the people had passed by out of the city.
2Sa 15:25 The king ordered Zadok, "Carry the Ark of the Almighty back into the city. If I find grace in the eyes of Yehowah, he will bring me back here and show me again the ark and the place where he lives.
2Sa 15:26 But if he says, 'I am not pleased with you,' look, here am I, let him do to me whatever seems good to him."
2Sa 15:27 The king also ordered Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan son of Abiathar.
2Sa 15:28 See, I will wait at the fords of the Arabah, until word comes from you to inform me."
2Sa 15:29 So Zadok and Abiathar carried the Ark of the Almighty back into Jerusalem, and they stayed there.

2Sa 15:30 But David ascended barefoot and weeping up the Mount of Olives, and he had his head covered. Every man of the people who were with him covered his head, and they went up weeping as they walked.
2Sa 15:31 Someone told David, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” So David prayed, “O Yehowah, please turn Ahithophel’s advice into foolishness.”
2Sa 15:32 It came about that when David arrived at the top of the road, where the Almighty used to be worshiped, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn and earth on his head.
2Sa 15:33 David ordered him, “If you travel with me, then you will be a burden to me.
2Sa 15:34 But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, king, as I have been your father’s servant in time past, so will I now be your servant,’ then you will confuse Ahithophel’s advice for me.
2Sa 15:35 Will you not have the priests Zadok and Abiathar with you? So whatever you hear in the king’s palace, you must tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.
2Sa 15:36 See that they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok’s son, and Jonathan, Abiathar’s son. You must send to me by their hand everything that you hear.”
2Sa 15:37 So Hushai, David’s friend, came into the city as Absalom arrived and entered into Jerusalem.

2 Samuel Chapter 16

2Sa 16:1 When David had gone a short distance over the summit of the hill, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him with a couple of saddled donkeys; on them were two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, and one hundred bunches of figs, and a skin of wine.
2Sa 16:2 The king asked Ziba, “Why did you bring these things?” Ziba answered, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride on, the bread and fig cakes are for your men to eat, and the wine is for anyone who is faint in the wilderness to drink.”
2Sa 16:3 The king asked, “Then where is your master’s grandson?” Ziba answered the king, “Look, he has stayed behind in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will restore my father’s kingdom to me.’”
2Sa 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, “Look, all that belonged to Mephibosheth now belongs to you.” Ziba replied, “I bow in humility to you, my master, king. Let me find grace in your sight.”
2Sa 16:5 When King David approached Bahurim, there came out from there a man from the clan of Saul, whose name was Shimei son of Gera. He came out cursing as he walked.
2Sa 16:6 He threw stones at David and at all of the king’s officials, in spite of the military force and bodyguards who were on the king’s right and left.
2Sa 16:7 Shimei called out in cursing, “Go away, get out of here, you villain, you man of blood!
2Sa 16:8 Yehowah has repaid all of you for the blood you shed within the family of Saul, in whose place you have reigned! Yehowah has given the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son! You have come to ruin, because you are a man of blood!”
2Sa 16:9 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah entreated the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my master the king? Please let me go over and take off his head.”
2Sa 16:10 But the king replied, “What have I to do with you, sons of Zeruiah? Perhaps he is cursing me, because Yehowah has said to him, ‘Curse David.’ Who then could ask him, ‘Why are you cursing the king?’”
2Sa 16:11 So David said to Abishai and to all his servants, “Look, my son, who was born from my body, wants to take my life. How much more may this Benjamite now desire my ruin? Leave him alone and let him curse, for Yehowah has commanded him to do it.
2Sa 16:12 Perhaps Yehowah will look at the misery unleashed on me, and Yehowah will repay me with good for his cursing me today.”
2Sa 16:13 So David and his men traveled on the road, while Shimei went beside him up on the hillside, cursing and throwing dust and stones at him as he went.

2Sa 16:14 Then the king and all the people who were with him became weary, and he rested when they stopped for the night.
2Sa 16:15 As for Absalom and all the men of Israel who were with him, they came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.
2Sa 16:16 It came about when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"
2Sa 16:17 Absalom asked Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with him?"
2Sa 16:18 Hushai answered Absalom, "No! Instead, the one whom Yehowah, this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, that is the man to whom I will belong, and I will stay with him.
2Sa 16:19 Also, what man should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, I will serve in your presence."
2Sa 16:20 Then Absalom ordered Ahithophel, "Give us your advice about what we should do."
2Sa 16:21 Ahithophel answered Absalom, "Go have sex with your father's slave wives whom he has left to keep the palace, and all Israel will hear that you have become a stench to your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong."
2Sa 16:22 So they spread for Absalom a tent on the top of the palace, and Absalom had sex with his father's slave wives in the sight of all Israel.
2Sa 16:23 Now the advice of Ahithophel that he gave in those days was as if a man heard from the mouth of the Almighty himself. That was how all of Ahithophel's advice was viewed by both David and Absalom.

2 Samuel Chapter 17

2Sa 17:1 Then Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Now let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight.
2Sa 17:2 I will come on him while he is weary and weak and will surprise him with fear. The people who are with him will flee, and I will attack only the king.
2Sa 17:3 I will bring back all the people to you, like a bride coming to her husband, and all the people will be at peace under you.”
2Sa 17:4 What Ahithophel said pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.
2Sa 17:5 Then Absalom said, “Now call Hushai the Archite, too, and let us hear what he says.”
2Sa 17:6 When Hushai had come to Absalom, Absalom explained to him what Ahithophel had said and then asked Hushai, “Should we do what Ahithophel has said? If not, tell us what you advise.”
2Sa 17:7 So Hushai responded to Absalom, “The advice that Ahithophel has given this time is not good.”
2Sa 17:8 Hushai added, “You know your father and his men are strong warriors, and that they are bitter, and they are like a bear robbed of her cubs in a field. Your father is a man of war; he will not sleep with the military force tonight.
2Sa 17:9 Look, right now he is probably hidden in some pit or in some other place. It will happen that when some of your men have been killed at the beginning of an attack, that whoever hears it will shout, ‘A slaughter has taken place among the soldiers who follow Absalom!’
2Sa 17:10 Then even the bravest soldiers, whose hearts are like the heart of a lion, will be afraid, because all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and that the men who are with him are sons of valor.
2Sa 17:11 So I advise you that all Israel should be gathered together to you, from Dan to Beersheba, as numerous as the sands that are by the sea, and that you go to battle in person.
2Sa 17:12 Then we will come on him wherever he may be found, and we will cover him as the dew falls on the ground. We will not leave even one of his men, or him himself, alive.
2Sa 17:13 If he retreats into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city and we will drag it into the river, until there is no longer even a small stone found there.”
2Sa 17:14 Then Absalom and the men of Israel said, “Hushai the Archite’s advice is better than Ahithophel’s.” Yehowah had ordained the rejection of Ahithophel’s good advice in order to bring destruction on Absalom.

2Sa 17:15 Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, “Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel in such and such a way, but I have advised something else.
2Sa 17:16 Now then go quickly and report to David, ‘Do not camp tonight at the fords of the Arabah, but by all means cross over, or the king will be swallowed up along with all the people who are with him.’”
2Sa 17:17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at the spring of En Rogel. A female servant used to go and inform them what they needed to know, for they could not risk being seen going into the city. When the message came, then they were to go and tell King David.
2Sa 17:18 But a young man saw them this time and told Absalom. So Jonathan and Ahimaaz went away quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard, into which they descended.
2Sa 17:19 The man’s wife took the covering for the well and spread it over the well’s opening, and tossed milled grain over it, so no one knew Jonathan and Ahimaaz were in the well.
2Sa 17:20 Absalom’s men came to the woman of the house and asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” The woman answered them, “They have crossed over the river.” So after they had looked around and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.
2Sa 17:21 It came about after they had left that Jonathan and Ahimaaz came up out of the well. They went to report to King David; they said to him, “Get up and cross quickly over the water, because Ahithophel has given such and such advice about you.”
2Sa 17:22 Then David arose and all the people who were with him, and they crossed over the Jordan River. By daybreak, not one of them had failed to cross over the Jordan River.
2Sa 17:23 When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and left. He went home to his hometown, set his affairs in order, and hanged himself (on his sword, Mat. 27:5; Acts 1:18; 1 Sam. 31:4-5). In this way, he died and was buried in the tomb of his father.
2Sa 17:24 Then David came to Mahanaim. As for Absalom, he crossed over the Jordan River, he and all the men of Israel with him.
2Sa 17:25 Absalom had set Amasa over the military force instead of Joab. Amasa was the son of Jether the Israeli, who had had sex with Abigail, who was the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah, the mother of Joab.
2Sa 17:26 Then Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.
2Sa 17:27 It came about when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Machir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

2Sa 17:28 brought sleeping mats and blankets, bowls and pots, wheat, barley flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils,
2Sa 17:29 honey, butter, sheep, and milk curds, so that David and the people with him could eat. These men had said, “The people are hungry, weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.”

2 Samuel Chapter 18

2Sa 18:1 David counted the soldiers who were with him and appointed captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.
2Sa 18:2 Then David sent out the military force, one third under the command of Joab, another third under the command of Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and still another third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the military force, "I myself will certainly go out with you, too."
2Sa 18:3 But the men responded, "You must not go to battle, for if we flee away they will not care about us, or if half of us die they will not care. But you are worth ten thousand of us! Therefore, it is better that you be ready to help us from the city."
2Sa 18:4 So the king answered them, "I will do whatever seems best to you." The king stood by the city gate while all the military force went out by hundreds and by thousands.
2Sa 18:5 The king commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai ordering, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, with Absalom." All the people heard that the king had given the captains this command about Absalom.
2Sa 18:6 So the military force went out into the countryside against Israel; the battle spread into the forest of Ephraim.
2Sa 18:7 The military force of Israel was defeated there before the soldiers of David; there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men.
2Sa 18:8 The battle spread throughout the whole countryside, and more men were consumed by the forest than by the sword.
2Sa 18:9 Absalom happened to meet some of David's soldiers. Absalom was riding his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak tree, and his head was caught up in the tree branches. He was left dangling between the ground and the sky, while the mule he was riding kept going.
2Sa 18:10 Someone saw this and told Joab, "Look, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree!"
2Sa 18:11 Joab responded to the man who told him about Absalom, "Look! You saw him! Why did you not strike him down to the ground? I would have given you 10-weight silver-currency and a belt."
2Sa 18:12 The man replied to Joab, "Even if I received 1,000-weight silver-currency, still I would not have reached out my hand against the king's son, because we all heard the king command you, Abishai, and Ittai, 'No one must touch the young man Absalom.'
2Sa 18:13 If I had risked my life by a falsehood, and there is nothing hidden from the king, you would have abandoned me."

2Sa 18:14 Then Joab said, “I will not wait for you.” So Joab took three javelins in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was still alive and hanging from the oak.
2Sa 18:15 Then ten young men who carried Joab’s armor surrounded Absalom, attacked him, and killed him.
2Sa 18:16 Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the military force returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab held back the military force.
2Sa 18:17 They took Absalom and threw him into a large pit in the forest; they buried his body under a huge pile of stones, while all Israel fled, every man to his own home.
2Sa 18:18 Now Absalom, while still alive, had built for himself a large stone pillar in the King’s Valley, for he said, “I have no son to carry along the memory of my name.” He named the pillar after his own name, so it is called Absalom’s Monument to this day.
2Sa 18:19 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok entreated, “Let me now run to the king with the good news, how Yehowah has rescued him from the hand of his enemies.”
2Sa 18:20 Joab answered him, “You will not be the bearer of news today; you must do it another day. Today, you will bear no news, because the king’s son is dead.”
2Sa 18:21 Then Joab ordered a Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” The Cushite bowed down to Joab and ran.
2Sa 18:22 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said again to Joab, “Regardless of what may happen, please let me also run and follow the Cushite.” Joab asked, “Why do you want to run, my son, seeing that you will have no reward for the news?”
2Sa 18:23 “Whatever happens,” answered Ahimaaz, “I will run.” So Joab ordered him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the disk-shaped Valley, and outran the Cushite.
2Sa 18:24 Now David was sitting between the inner and outer gates. The watchman had gone up to the roof of the gate to the wall and raised his eyes. As he looked, he saw a man approaching, running alone.
2Sa 18:25 The watchman shouted out and told the king. Then the king responded, “If he is alone, there is news in his mouth.” The runner came closer and neared the city.
2Sa 18:26 Then the watchman noticed another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper; he said, “Look, there is another man running alone!” The king replied, “He is also bringing news.”
2Sa 18:27 So the watchman said, “I think the running of the man in front is like the running of Ahimaaz son of Zadok.” The king replied, “He is a good man and is coming with good news.”

2Sa 18:28 Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, “All is well!” He bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground and said, “Blessed be Yehowah your Divine One! He has delivered the men who lifted up their hand against my master the king.”
2Sa 18:29 So the king asked, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent me, the king’s servant, to you, king, I saw a great disturbance, but I did not know what it was.”
2Sa 18:30 Then the king ordered, “Turn aside and stand here.” So Ahimaaz turned aside and stood still.
2Sa 18:31 Immediately then, the Cushite arrived and said, “There is good news for my master the king, for Yehowah has avenged you today from all who rose up against you.”
2Sa 18:32 Then the king asked the Cushite, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” The Cushite answered, “The enemies of my master the king, and all who rise up against you to do harm to you, should be as that young man is.”
2Sa 18:33 Then the king was deeply unnerved, and he went up to the room over the gate and wept. As he went he grieved, “My son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! I wish I had died instead of you, Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel Chapter 19

2Sa 19:1 Joab was told, “Look, the king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”
2Sa 19:2 So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the military force, for the armed forces heard it said that day, “The king is mourning for his son.”
2Sa 19:3 The troops had to sneak quietly into the city that day, like people who are ashamed sneak away when they run from battle.
2Sa 19:4 The king covered his face and cried in a loud voice, “My son Absalom, Absalom, my son, my son!”
2Sa 19:5 Then Joab entered into the house to the king and rebuked him, “You have shamed the faces of all your troops today, who have saved your life today, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your slave wives,
2Sa 19:6 because you love those who hate you, and you hate those who love you. For today you have shown that commanders and soldiers are nothing to you. Today, I believe that if Absalom had lived, and we all had died, then that would have pleased you.
2Sa 19:7 Now therefore, get up, go out, and speak kindly to your troops, for I swear by Yehowah, if you do not go, not one man will remain with you tonight. That would be worse for you than all the disasters that have ever happened to you from your youth until now.”
2Sa 19:8 So the king rose up and sat in the city gate, and all the people were told, “Look, the king is sitting in the gate,” and all the people came before the king. For Israel had fled, every man to his home.
2Sa 19:9 All the people were arguing with each other throughout all the tribes of Israel, “The king rescued us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines, but now he has run out of the land because of Absalom.
2Sa 19:10 Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?”
2Sa 19:11 King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests ordering, “Ask the elders of Judah, ‘Why are you the last to bring the king back to his palace, since the talk of all Israel favors the king, to bring him back to his palace?
2Sa 19:12 You are my brothers, my flesh and bone. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?’
2Sa 19:13 Then say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my flesh and my bone? The Almighty do so to me, and more also, if you are not captain of my military force from now on in the place of Joab.’”

2Sa 19:14 So he won the hearts of all the men of Judah as one man. They sent to the king entreating, “Return, you and all your troops.”
2Sa 19:15 So the king returned and came to the Jordan River. Now the men of Judah came to Gilgal to go to meet the king and then to bring the king across the Jordan River.
2Sa 19:16 Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite, who was from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David.
2Sa 19:17 There were one thousand men from Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of Saul, and his fifteen sons and twenty servants with him. They crossed through the Jordan River in the presence of the king.
2Sa 19:18 They crossed to bring over the king’s family and to do whatever he thought good. Shimei son of Gera bowed down before the king, just before he began to cross the Jordan River.
2Sa 19:19 Shimei entreated the king, “Do not, my master, find me guilty or call to mind what your servant stubbornly did the day that my master the king left Jerusalem. Please, may the king not take it to heart.
2Sa 19:20 For your servant knows that I have sinned. See, that is why I have come today as the first from all the family of Joseph to come down to meet my master the king.”
2Sa 19:21 But Abishai son of Zeruiah answered and asked, “Should not Shimei be executed for this, because he cursed the anointed of Yehowah?”
2Sa 19:22 Then David asked, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should today be adversaries to me? Will any man be executed today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?”
2Sa 19:23 So the king assured Shimei, “You will not be executed.” So the king promised him with an oath.
2Sa 19:24 Then Mephibosheth son of Saul came down to meet the king. He had not dressed his feet, or trimmed his beard, or washed his clothes from the day the king left, until the day he came home in peace.
2Sa 19:25 So when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?”
2Sa 19:26 He answered, “My master the king, my servant deceived me, for I said, ‘I will saddle a donkey, so I may ride on it and go with the king, because your servant is lame.’
2Sa 19:27 My servant Ziba has slandered me, your servant, to my master the king. But my master the king is like an angel of the Almighty. Therefore, do what is good in your eyes.
2Sa 19:28 For all my father’s household were dead men before my master the king, but you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right, therefore, have I that I should still cry any more to the king?”

2Sa 19:29 Then the king said to him, “Why explain anything further? I have decided that you and Ziba will divide the fields.”
2Sa 19:30 So Mephibosheth replied to the king, “Yes, let him take it all, since my master the king has come safely to his own home.”
2Sa 19:31 Then Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim to cross over the Jordan River with the king, and he accompanied the king over the Jordan River.
2Sa 19:32 Now Barzillai was quite elderly, eighty years old. He had furnished the king with provisions while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a superabundantly wealthy man.
2Sa 19:33 The king said to Barzillai, “Come over with me, and I will provide for you to stay with me in Jerusalem.”
2Sa 19:34 Barzillai replied to the king, “How many days are left in the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?
2Sa 19:35 I am eighty years old. Can I distinguish between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a burden to my master the king?
2Sa 19:36 Your servant would like to just go over the Jordan River with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward?
2Sa 19:37 Please let your servant return back home, so I may die in my hometown by the grave of my father and my mother. But see, here is your servant Kimham. Let him cross over with my master the king, and do for him what seems good to you.”
2Sa 19:38 The king answered, “Kimham will go over with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you, and whatever you desire from me, I will do that for you.”
2Sa 19:39 Then all the people crossed the Jordan River, and the king crossed over, and the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him. Then Barzillai returned to his own home.
2Sa 19:40 So the king crossed over to Gilgal, and Kimham crossed over with him. All the military force of Judah brought the king over and also half the military force of Israel.
2Sa 19:41 Soon all the men of Israel began to come to the king and ask the king, “Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king and his family over the Jordan River, and all David’s men with him?”
2Sa 19:42 So the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “It is because the king is more closely related to us. Why then are you angry about this? Have we eaten anything that the king had to pay for? Has he given us any gifts?”
2Sa 19:43 The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, “We have ten tribes related to the king, so we have even more right to David than you. Why then did you despise us? Was not our proposal to bring back our king the first to be heard?” But the words of the men of Judah were even more harsh than the words of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel Chapter 20

2Sa 20:1 There also happened to be at the same place a troublemaker whose name was Sheba son of Bichri, a Benjamite. He blew the trumpet and shouted, “We have no part in David, neither have we any inheritance in the son of Jesse! Let every man go back to his home, Israel!”
2Sa 20:2 So all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bichri. But the men of Judah followed closely their king, from the Jordan River all the way to Jerusalem.
2Sa 20:3 When David came to his palace at Jerusalem, he took the ten slave wives whom he had left to keep the palace, and he put them in a house under guard. He provided for their needs, but he did not have sex with them any longer. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living as if they were widows.
2Sa 20:4 Then the king ordered Amasa, “Call the men of Judah together within three days; you must be here, too.”
2Sa 20:5 So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together, but he stayed longer than the set time which the king had commanded him.
2Sa 20:6 So David ordered Abishai, “Now Sheba son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your master’s servants, my soldiers, and pursue after him, or he will find fortified cities and escape out of our sight.”
2Sa 20:7 Then Joab’s men went out after him, along with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty warriors. They left Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.
2Sa 20:8 When they were at the great stone which is at Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was wearing the battle armor that he had put on, which included a belt around his waist with a sheathed sword fastened to it. As he walked forward, the sword fell out.
2Sa 20:9 So Joab asked Amasa, “Is it well with you, my cousin?” Joab affectionately took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.
2Sa 20:10 Amasa did not notice the dagger that was in Joab’s left hand. Joab stabbed Amasa in the stomach and his bowels spilled out to the ground. Joab did not strike him again, and Amasa died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba son of Bichri.
2Sa 20:11 Then one of Joab’s men stood by Amasa, and the man shouted, “He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab!”
2Sa 20:12 Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road. When the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa off of the road and into a field. He threw a garment over him, because he saw that everyone who came by him stood still.

2Sa 20:14 Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah, and through all the land of the Berites, who gathered together and also pursued Sheba.
2Sa 20:15 They caught up with him and besieged him in Abel Beth Maacah. They built up a siege ramp against the wall of the city. All the military force who were with Joab battered the wall to knock it down.
2Sa 20:16 Then a wise woman cried out of the city, “Listen, please listen, Joab! Come near me so I may speak with you!”
2Sa 20:17 So Joab came near to her, and the woman asked, “Are you Joab?” He answered, “I am.” Then she said to him, “Listen to the words of your servant.” He answered, “I am listening.”
2Sa 20:18 Then she spoke, “They used to say in old times, ‘Surely seek advice at Abel,’ and that advice would end the matter.
2Sa 20:19 We are a city that is one of the most peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why do you want to swallow up the inheritance of Yehowah?”
2Sa 20:20 So Joab answered, “Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.
2Sa 20:21 That is not true. But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, named Sheba son of Bichri, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Give up him alone, and I will withdraw from the city.” The woman said to Joab, “His head will be thrown to you over the wall.”
2Sa 20:22 Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it out to Joab. Then he blew the trumpet, and Joab’s troops left the city, every man to his home. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.
2Sa 20:23 Now Joab was over all the military force of Israel, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites.
2Sa 20:24 Adoram was over the men who did forced labor, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder.
2Sa 20:25 Sheva was scribe and Zadok and Abiathar were priests.
2Sa 20:26 Ira the Jairite was chief minister to David.

2 Samuel Chapter 21

2Sa 21:1 There was a famine in David's time for three years in a row, and David sought the face of Yehowah. So Yehowah said, "This famine is on you because of Saul and his murderous family, because he put the Gibeonites to death."
2Sa 21:2 Now the Gibeonites were not from the people of Israel; they were from what remained of the Amorites. The people of Israel had sworn not to kill them, but Saul tried to murder them all anyway in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.
2Sa 21:3 So King David called together the Gibeonites and asked them, "What should I do for you? How can I make atonement, so that you may bless the people of Yehowah, who inherit his goodness and promises?"
2Sa 21:4 The Gibeonites answered him, "It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his family. In the same way, it is not for us to put to death any man in Israel." David asked, "What are you saying that I should do for you?"
2Sa 21:5 They answered the king, "The man who tried to kill us all, who schemed against us, so that we are now destroyed and have no place within the borders of Israel,
2Sa 21:6 let seven men from his descendants be handed over to us, and we will hang them before Yehowah in Gibeah of Saul, the one chosen by Yehowah." So the king replied, "I will give them to you."
2Sa 21:7 But the king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan son of Saul, because of the oath of Yehowah between them, between David and Jonathan son of Saul.
2Sa 21:8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah daughter of Aiah, sons whom she bore to Saul, the two sons were named Armoni and the other Mephibosheth; and David also took the five sons of Merab daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite.
2Sa 21:9 He handed them over into the hands of the Gibeonites. They hanged them on the mountain before Yehowah, and they died all seven together. They were executed during the time of harvest, during the first days at the beginning of barley harvest (Passover).
2Sa 21:10 Then Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the mountain beside the dead bodies, from the beginning of harvest, until the rain poured down on them from the sky. She did not allow the birds of the sky to disturb the bodies by day or the wild animals by night.
2Sa 21:11 It was told to David what Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, the slave wife of Saul, had done.
2Sa 21:12 So David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, after the Philistines had killed Saul at Gilboa.

2Sa 21:13 David took away from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son, and they gathered the bones of the seven men who had been hanged, as well.
2Sa 21:14 They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father. They performed all that the king commanded. After that, the Almighty answered their prayers for the land.
2Sa 21:15 Then the Philistines went to war again with Israel. So David went down with his military force and fought against the Philistines. David was overcome with battle fatigue.
2Sa 21:16 Ishbibenob, a descendant of the giants, whose bronze spear weighed three and one-half kilograms, and who was armed with a new sword, intended to kill David.
2Sa 21:17 But Abishai son of Zeruiah rescued David, attacked the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, “You must not go to battle anymore with us, so that you do not put out the lamp of Israel.”
2Sa 21:18 It came about after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob, when Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the descendants of the giants.
2Sa 21:19 It came about again in a battle with the Philistines at Gob, that Elhanan son of Jari the Bethlehemite killed Lahmi brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam (1 Chron. 20:5).
2Sa 21:20 It came about in another battle at Gath that there was a man of great height who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number. He also was descended from the giants.
2Sa 21:21 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shammah, David’s brother, killed him.
2Sa 21:22 These were descendants of the giants of Gath, and they were killed by the hand of David and by the hand of his soldiers.

2 Samuel Chapter 22

2Sa 22:1 David sang to Yehowah the words of this song on the day that Yehowah rescued him out of the hand of all his enemies and out of the hand of Saul.
2Sa 22:2 He sang, “Yehowah is my Rock, my fortress, the One who rescues me.
2Sa 22:3 The Almighty is my Rock. I take refuge in him. He is my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold, and my refuge, the One who saves me from violence.
2Sa 22:4 I will call on Yehowah, who is worthy to be praised, and I will be saved from my enemies.
2Sa 22:5 For the waves of death surrounded me, the rushing waters of destruction overwhelmed me.
2Sa 22:6 The cords of the place of the dead surrounded me; the snares of death trapped me.
2Sa 22:7 In my distress I called to Yehowah; I called to my Divine One; he heard my voice from his temple, and my call for help went into his ears.
2Sa 22:8 Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations of Heaven trembled and were shaken, because he was angry.
2Sa 22:9 Smoke went up from out of his nostrils, and blazing fire came out of his mouth. Coals were ignited by it.
2Sa 22:10 He opened Heaven and came down, and thick darkness was under his feet.
2Sa 22:11 He rode on an angel and flew. He was seen on the wings of the wind.
2Sa 22:12 He made darkness a tent around him, gathering heavy rain clouds in the skies.
2Sa 22:13 From the lightning before him coals of fire fell.
2Sa 22:14 Yehowah thundered from Heaven. The Most High shouted!
2Sa 22:15 He shot arrows and scattered his enemies, lightning bolts and dispersed them.
2Sa 22:16 Then the water channels (SEA) appeared; the foundations of the globe were exposed at the battle cry of Yehowah, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
2Sa 22:17 He reached down from above; he took hold of me! He pulled me out of the surging water.
2Sa 22:18 He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.
2Sa 22:19 They came against me on the day of my distress, but Yehowah was my support.
2Sa 22:20 He also brought me out to a wide open place. He saved me, because he was pleased with me.

2Sa 22:21 Yehowah has rewarded me to the measure of my righteousness; he has restored me to the measure of the cleanness of my hands.
2Sa 22:22 For I have kept the Ways of Yehowah and have not acted wickedly by turning from my Divine One.
2Sa 22:23 For all his righteous decrees have been before me; as for his statutes, I have not turned away from them.
2Sa 22:24 I have also been innocent before him, and I have kept myself from sin.
2Sa 22:25 Therefore, Yehowah has restored me to the measure of my righteousness, to the degree of my cleanness in his sight.
2Sa 22:26 To one who is faithful, you show yourself to be faithful; to a man who is blameless, you show yourself to be blameless.
2Sa 22:27 With the pure you show yourself pure, but you are perverse to the twisted.
2Sa 22:28 You save afflicted people, but your eyes are against the proud, and you bring them down.
2Sa 22:29 For you are my lamp, Yehowah. Yehowah lights up my darkness.
2Sa 22:30 For by you I can run over a barricade; by my Divine One I can leap over a wall.
2Sa 22:31 As for the Almighty, his Way is perfect. The Word of Yehowah is pure. He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him.
2Sa 22:32 For who is the Almighty besides Yehowah, and who is a Rock besides our Divine One?
2Sa 22:33 The Almighty is my powerful refuge, and he leads the blameless person on his Path.
2Sa 22:34 He makes my feet swift like a deer and places me on the high hills.
2Sa 22:35 He trains my hands for war, and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.
2Sa 22:36 You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your grace has made me great.
2Sa 22:37 You have made a wide place for my feet beneath me, so my feet have not slipped.
2Sa 22:38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them. I did not turn back, until they were destroyed.
2Sa 22:39 I devoured them and smashed them; they cannot rise. They have fallen under my feet.
2Sa 22:40 You put strength on me like a belt for battle; you put under me those who rise up against me.
2Sa 22:41 You gave me the back of my enemies' necks; I annihilated those who hated me.
2Sa 22:42 They cried for help, but no one saved them; they cried out to Yehowah, but he did not answer them.

2Sa 22:43 I beat them into fine pieces like dust on the ground, I pulverized them like mud in the streets, I spread them out.
2Sa 22:44 You also have rescued me from the disputes of my own people. You have kept me as the head of ethnicities. A people that I have not known serves me.
2Sa 22:45 Foreigners were forced to bow to me. As soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me.
2Sa 22:46 The foreigners came trembling out of their strongholds.
2Sa 22:47 Yehowah lives! May my Rock be praised. May the Almighty be exalted, the Rock of my salvation.
2Sa 22:48 This is the Almighty who executes vengeance for me, the One who brings down people under me.
2Sa 22:49 He sets me free from my enemies. Indeed, you lifted me up above those who rose up against me. You rescue me from violent men.
2Sa 22:50 Therefore, I will give thanks to you, Yehowah, among the ethnicities; I will sing praises to your name.
2Sa 22:51 He gives great victory to his king, and he shows his covenant loyalty to his anointed one, to David and to his descendants forever" (Psalm 18).

2 Samuel Chapter 23

2Sa 23:1 Now these are the last words of David, David son of Jesse, the man who was highly honored, the one anointed by the Mighty One of Jacob, the sweet psalmist of Israel.
2Sa 23:2 “The Ruach of Yehowah spoke by me, and his word was on my tongue.
2Sa 23:3 The Mighty One of Israel spoke, the Rock of Israel said to me, ‘The one who rules righteously over men, who rules in the fear of the Almighty,
2Sa 23:4 he will be like the morning light when the sun rises, a dawn without clouds, when the tender grass springs up from the earth through bright sunshine after rain.
2Sa 23:5 Indeed, is my family not like this before the Almighty? Has he not made an everlasting covenant with me, ordered and sure in every way? Does he not increase my salvation and fulfill my every desire?
2Sa 23:6 But the worthless will all be like thorns to be thrown away, because they cannot be gathered by one’s hands.
2Sa 23:7 The man who touches them must use an iron tool or the shaft of a spear. They must be burned up where they lie.’”
2Sa 23:8 These are the names of David’s elite soldiers: Jeshbaal the Hachmonite was the leader of the elite soldiers. He killed eight hundred men on one occasion.
2Sa 23:9 After him was Eleazar son of Dodo, son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men of David. He was present when they defied the Philistines who had gathered together to do battle, and when the men of Israel had retreated.
2Sa 23:10 Eleazar stood and fought the Philistines, until his hand became weary and his hand stiffened to the grip of his sword. Yehowah brought about a great victory that day. The military force returned after Eleazar, only to strip the bodies.
2Sa 23:11 After him was Shammah son of Agee, a Hararite. The Philistines gathered together where there was a field of lentils, and the military force fled from them.
2Sa 23:12 But Shammah stood in the middle of the field and defended it. He killed the Philistines, and Yehowah brought about a great victory.
2Sa 23:13 Three of the thirty soldiers went down to David at harvest time, to the cave of Adullam. The military force of the Philistines was camped in the Valley of Giants.
2Sa 23:14 At that time David was in his stronghold, a cave, while the Philistines had garrisoned at Bethlehem.
2Sa 23:15 David was longing for water and said, “If only someone would give me water to drink from the well at Bethlehem, the well that is by the gate!”

2Sa 23:16 So these three mighty men broke through the military force of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, the well at the gate. They took the water and brought it to David, but he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to Yehowah.
2Sa 23:17 Then he said, “Far be it from me, Yehowah, that I should drink this. Should I drink the blood of men who have risked their lives?” So he refused to drink it. These are things the three mighty men did.
2Sa 23:18 Abishai, brother of Joab and son of Zeruiah, was captain over the three. He once fought with his spear against three hundred men and killed them. He was often mentioned along with the three soldiers.
2Sa 23:19 Was he not even more famous than the three? He was made their captain. However, his fame did not equal the fame of the three most famous soldiers.
2Sa 23:20 Benaiah from Kabzeel was the son of Jehoiada; he was a strong man who did mighty feats. He killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down into a pit and killed a lion while it was snowing.
2Sa 23:21 Then he killed a spectacle of an Egyptian man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benaiah fought against him with only a trekking pole. He seized the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand and then killed him with his own spear.
2Sa 23:22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada did these feats, and he was named alongside the three mighty men.
2Sa 23:23 He was more highly regarded than the thirty soldiers in general, but he was not regarded quite as highly as the three most elite soldiers. Yet David put him in charge of his bodyguard.
2Sa 23:24 The thirty included the following men: Asahel brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,
2Sa 23:25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,
2Sa 23:26 Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,
2Sa 23:27 Abi Ezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,
2Sa 23:28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite;
2Sa 23:29 Heleb son of Baanah, the Netophathite, Ittai son of Ribai from Gibeah of the Benjamites, 2Sa 23:30 Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the valleys of Gaash.
2Sa 23:31 Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,
2Sa 23:32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan son of Shammah the Hararite;
2Sa 23:33 Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite,
2Sa 23:34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,
2Sa 23:35 Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

2Sa 23:36 Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, Bani from the tribe of Gad,
2Sa 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor bearer to Joab son of Zeruiah,
2Sa 23:38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
2Sa 23:39 Uriah the Hethite, thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel Chapter 24

2Sa 24:1 Again, the anger of Yehowah was ignited against Israel, and he moved David against them, ordering, “Go, count Israel and Judah.”
2Sa 24:2 The king ordered Joab, the commander of the military force, who was with him, “Go throughout all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and count all the people, so that I may know the total number of men fit for battle.”
2Sa 24:3 Joab responded to the king, “May Yehowah your Divine One multiply the number of people a hundred times, and may the eyes of my master the king see it take place. But why does my master the king want this?”
2Sa 24:4 Nevertheless, the king’s word was final against Joab and against the commanders of the military force. So Joab and the commanders went out from the king’s presence to count the people of Israel.
2Sa 24:5 They crossed over the Jordan River and encamped near Aroer, south of the city in the valley. Then they traveled on through Gad to Jazer.
2Sa 24:6 They came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi, then on to Dan Jaan and around toward Sidon.
2Sa 24:7 They reached the stronghold of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went out to the Negev in Judah at Beersheba.
2Sa 24:8 When they had gone throughout all the land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.
2Sa 24:9 Then Joab reported the total of the count of the fighting men to the king. There were in Israel 800,000 brave men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were 500,000 men.
2Sa 24:10 Then David’s heart afflicted him after he had counted the men. So he confessed to Yehowah, “I have greatly sinned by doing this. Now Yehowah, take away your servant’s guilt, for I have acted extremely foolishly.”
2Sa 24:11 When David rose up at dawn, the Word of Yehowah came to the prophet Gad, David’s seer,
2Sa 24:12 “Go say to David: ‘This is what Yehowah says: “I am giving you three choices. Choose one of them.”’”
2Sa 24:13 So Gad went to David and asked him, “Will three years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months from your enemies while they pursue you? Or will there be three days of plague in your land? Now decide what answer I should return to him who sent me.”
2Sa 24:14 Then David answered Gad, “I am in deep trouble. Let us fall into the hands of Yehowah rather than into the hand of man, for his mercies are great.”
2Sa 24:15 So Yehowah sent a plague on Israel from dawn to a fixed time, and seventy thousand people died from Dan to Beersheba.

2Sa 24:16 When the angel reached out with his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Yehowah changed his mind because of the harm it would cause, and he commanded the angel who was destroying people, “Enough! Now draw back your hand.” At that time, the angel of Yehowah was standing at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
2Sa 24:17 Then David spoke to Yehowah when he saw the angel who had attacked the people, “I have sinned, and I have acted perversely. But these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand punish me and my father’s family!”
2Sa 24:18 Then Gad came that day to David and ordered him, “Go up and build an altar for Yehowah at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.”
2Sa 24:19 So David went up as Gad instructed him to do, as Yehowah had commanded.
2Sa 24:20 Ornan looked out and saw the king and his servants approaching. So Ornan went out and bowed to the king with his face to the ground.
2Sa 24:21 Then Ornan asked, “Why has my master the king come to me, his servant?” David answered, “To buy your threshing floor, so I can build an altar for Yehowah, so that the plague may be removed from the people.”
2Sa 24:22 Ornan replied to David, “Take it as your own, my master the king. Do with it what is good in your sight. Look, here are oxen for the burnt offering, threshing sledges, and ox yokes for the wood.
2Sa 24:23 All this, my king, I, Ornan, will give to you.” Then he said to the king, “May Yehowah your Divine One accept you.”
2Sa 24:24 The king replied to Ornan, “No, I insist on buying it at a price. I will not offer as a burnt offering to Yehowah my Divine One anything that costs me nothing.” So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for 50-weight silver-currency.
2Sa 24:25 David built an altar for Yehowah there and offered on it burnt offerings and peace offerings. So they pleaded with Yehowah on behalf of the land, and he caused the plague to be contained throughout Israel.

Book of 1st Kings

1 Kings Chapter 1

1Ki 1:1 When King David was quite elderly, they covered him with blankets, but he could not keep warm.
1Ki 1:2 So his servants said to him, “Let us look for a young virgin for our master the king. Let her serve the king as an administrator. Let her lie in his arms, so that our master the king may keep warm.”
1Ki 1:3 So they searched for a beautiful girl within all the borders of Israel. They found Abishag the Shunammite and brought her to the king.
1Ki 1:4 The girl was exquisitely beautiful. She served the king and took care of him, but the king did not have sexual relations with her.
1Ki 1:5 At that time, Adonijah son of Haggith exalted himself, proclaiming, “I will be king.” So he prepared for himself chariots and cavalry with fifty men to run ahead of him.
1Ki 1:6 His father had never troubled him, asking, “Why have you done this or that?” Adonijah was also an extraordinarily handsome man, born next after Absalom.
1Ki 1:7 He conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest. They followed Adonijah and helped him.
1Ki 1:8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David did not follow Adonijah.
1Ki 1:9 Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened calves by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En Rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the men of Judah, the king’s servants.
1Ki 1:10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or his brother Solomon.
1Ki 1:11 Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, “Have you not heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has become king, and David our master does not know it?
1Ki 1:12 Now therefore, let me give you advice, so that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.
1Ki 1:13 Go to King David; ask him, ‘My master the king, did you not swear to your servant, “Surely Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne?” Why then is Adonijah reigning?’
1Ki 1:14 While you are there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words.”

1Ki 1:15 So Bathsheba went into the king's room. The king was quite elderly, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.
1Ki 1:16 Bathsheba bowed and prostrated herself before the king. Then the king asked, "What do you desire?"
1Ki 1:17 She answered him, "My master, you swore to your servant by Yehowah your Divine One, 'Surely Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne.'
1Ki 1:18 Now see, Adonijah is king, and you, my master the king, do not know it.
1Ki 1:19 He has sacrificed oxen, fatted calves, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the military force, but he has not invited Solomon your servant.
1Ki 1:20 As for you, my master the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, waiting for you to tell them who will sit on the throne after you, my master.
1Ki 1:21 Otherwise, it will happen when my master the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be regarded as criminals worthy of execution."
1Ki 1:22 While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in.
1Ki 1:23 The servants told the king, "Nathan the prophet is here." When he came in before the king, he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.
1Ki 1:24 Nathan asked, "My master the king, have you said, 'Adonijah will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne?'
1Ki 1:25 For he has gone down today and sacrificed oxen, fatted calves, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, the captains of the military force, and Abiathar the priest. They are eating and drinking before him and shouting, 'Long live King Adonijah!'
1Ki 1:26 But as for me, your servant, Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon, he has not invited us.
1Ki 1:27 Has my master the king done this without telling us, your servants, who should sit on the throne of my master the king after him?"
1Ki 1:28 Then King David answered, "Call Bathsheba back to me." She came into the king's presence and stood before the king.
1Ki 1:29 The king swore an oath, "As Yehowah lives, who has redeemed me out of all trouble,
1Ki 1:30 as I vowed to you by Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, 'Solomon your son will reign after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place,' I will do this today."
1Ki 1:31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground and prostrated herself before the king, and said, "May my master King David live forever!"
1Ki 1:32 King David ordered, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." So they came before the king.

1Ki 1:33 The king commanded them, “Take with you the servants of your master, and have Solomon my son ride on my own mule and take him down to Gihon Spring.
1Ki 1:34 Let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel, blow the trumpet, and shout, ‘Long live King Solomon!’
1Ki 1:35 Then you will come up after him, and he will come and sit on my throne; for he will be king in my place. I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah.”
1Ki 1:36 Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “Amein! May Yehowah, Mighty One of my master the king, confirm it.
1Ki 1:37 As Yehowah has been with my master the king, so may he be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my master King David.”
1Ki 1:38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride upon King David’s mule; they brought him to Gihon.
1Ki 1:39 Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people shouted, “Long live King Solomon!”
1Ki 1:40 Then all the people went up after him, and the people played the flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth shook with their sound.
1Ki 1:41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he asked, “Why is there an uproar in the city?”
1Ki 1:42 While he was still speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest came. Adonijah said, “Come in, for you are a worthy man and bring good news.”
1Ki 1:43 Jonathan answered Adonijah, “Our master King David has made Solomon the king,
1Ki 1:44 and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites. They have had Solomon ride on the king’s mule.
1Ki 1:45 Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon Spring, and have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard.
1Ki 1:47 Moreover, the king’s servants came to bless our master King David, ‘May the Almighty make the name of Solomon better than your name and make his throne greater than your throne.’ Then the king bowed down on the bed.
1Ki 1:48 The king also said, ‘Blessed be Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, who has given a person to sit on my throne this day, and that my own eyes should see it.’”

1Ki 1:49 Then all the guests of Adonijah were terrified. They stood up and each man went his way.
1Ki 1:50 Adonijah was afraid of Solomon and rose up, went, and took hold of the horns of the altar.
1Ki 1:51 Then it was told Solomon, “See, Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon, for he has laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me first that he will not execute his servant with the sword.’”
1Ki 1:52 Solomon responded, “If he will show himself a worthy man, not a hair of his will fall to the earth, but if wickedness is found in him, he will be executed.”
1Ki 1:53 So King Solomon sent men, who brought Adonijah down from the altar. He came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon ordered him, “Go to your house.”

1 Kings Chapter 2

1Ki 2:1 As the day of David's death approached, he commanded Solomon his son,
1Ki 2:2 "I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong, therefore, and show yourself a man.
1Ki 2:3 Keep the commands of Yehowah your Divine One to walk in his Ways, to obey his statutes, his commandments, his decisions, and his covenant decrees, being careful to do what is written in the Law of Moses, so you may prosper in all you do, wherever you go,
1Ki 2:4 so that Yehowah may fulfill his word which he spoke concerning me, 'If your sons carefully watch their conduct, to walk before me faithfully with all their heart and with all their soul, you will never cease to have a man on the throne of Israel.'
1Ki 2:5 You know also what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armed forces of Israel, to Abner son of Ner, and to Amasa son of Jether, whom he murdered. He shed the blood of war in peace and put the blood of war on the belt around his waist and on the sandals on his feet.
1Ki 2:6 Deal with Joab by the wisdom you have learned, but do not let his gray head go down to the grave in peace.
1Ki 2:7 However, show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.
1Ki 2:8 Look, there is with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a violent curse on the day I went to Mahanaim. Shimei came down to meet me at the Jordan River, and I swore to him by Yehowah, 'I will not execute you with the sword.'
1Ki 2:9 Now therefore, do not let him go free from punishment. You are a wise man, and you will know what you ought to do to him. You will bring his gray head down to the grave with blood."
1Ki 2:10 Then David slept with his ancestors (c. 1023 BC) and was buried in the City of David.
1Ki 2:11 The days that David reigned over Israel were forty years. He had reigned for seven years in Hebron and for thirty-three years in Jerusalem.
1Ki 2:12 Then Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his rule was firmly established.
1Ki 2:13 Then Adonijah son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. She asked, "Do you come peacefully?" He replied, "Peacefully."
1Ki 2:14 Then he said, "I have something to say to you." So she replied, "Speak."

1Ki 2:15 Adonijah said, “You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel expected me to be king. But things changed, and the kingdom was given to my brother, for it was his from Yehowah.
1Ki 2:16 Now I have one request of you, and do not turn away from my face.” Bathsheba said to him, “Speak.”
1Ki 2:17 He entreated, “Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not turn away from your face, so that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.”
1Ki 2:18 Bathsheba answered, “Well, I will speak to the king.”
1Ki 2:19 Bathsheba, therefore, went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose to meet her and bowed down to her. Then he sat down on his throne and had a throne brought for the king’s mother. She sat at his right hand.
1Ki 2:20 Then she said, “I wish to ask one small request of you, for you will not turn away from my face.” The king answered her, “Ask, my mother, for I will not turn away from your face.”
1Ki 2:21 She entreated, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as his wife.”
1Ki 2:22 King Solomon answered and asked his mother, “Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Why do you not ask the kingdom for him also, for he is my elder brother, for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab son of Zeruiah?”
1Ki 2:23 Then King Solomon swore by Yehowah, “May the Almighty do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life.
1Ki 2:24 Now therefore, as Yehowah lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a household as he promised, surely Adonijah will be executed today!”
1Ki 2:25 So King Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and Benaiah found Adonijah and executed him.
1Ki 2:26 Then to Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go to Anathoth, to your own fields. You are worthy of death, but I will not at this time execute you, because you carried the Ark of Lord Yehowah before David my father and suffered in every way my father suffered.”
1Ki 2:27 So Solomon dismissed Abiathar from being priest to Yehowah, that he might fulfill the Word of Yehowah, which he had spoken concerning the household of Eli at Shiloh.
1Ki 2:28 The news was announced to Joab, for Joab had supported Adonijah, though he had not supported Absalom. So Joab fled to the Tent of Yehowah and took hold of the horns of the altar.
1Ki 2:29 It was told King Solomon that Joab had fled to the Tent of Yehowah and was now beside the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada, ordering, “Go, execute him.”

1Ki 2:30 So Benaiah came to the Tent of Yehowah and said to him, “The king commands, ‘Come out!’” Joab replied, “No, I will die here.” So Benaiah returned to the king, reporting, “Joab said he wanted to die at the altar.”
1Ki 2:31 The king ordered him, “Do as he has said. Execute him and bury him, so that you may take away from me and from my father’s household the blood that Joab shed without cause.
1Ki 2:32 May Yehowah return his blood on his own head, because he attacked two men more righteous and better than himself and murdered them with the sword, Abner son of Ner, captain of the military force of Israel, and Amasa son of Jether, captain of the military force of Judah, without my father David knowing it.
1Ki 2:33 So may their blood return on the head of Joab and on the head of his descendants forever. But to David and his descendants, to his household, and to his throne, may there be peace forever from Yehowah.”
1Ki 2:34 Then Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up, attacked Joab, and killed him. He was buried in his own house in the wilderness.
1Ki 2:35 The king put Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the military force in his place, and he put Zadok the priest in Abiathar’s place.
1Ki 2:36 Then the king sent and called for Shimei and ordered him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and do not go out from there to any other place.
1Ki 2:37 For on the day you go out and pass over the Kidron Valley, know for certain that you will surely be executed. Your blood will be on your own head.”
1Ki 2:38 So Shimei replied to the king, “What you say is good. As my master the king has said, so your servant will do.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for many days.
1Ki 2:39 But at the end of three years, two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish son of Maacah, the king of Gath. So they told Shimei, “See, your servants are in Gath.”
1Ki 2:40 Then Shimei arose, saddled his donkey and went to Achish in Gath to seek his servants. He went and brought his servants back from Gath.
1Ki 2:41 When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned,
1Ki 2:42 the king sent and called for Shimei, and asked him, “Did I not make you swear by Yehowah and testify to you, ‘Know for certain that on the day you go out and go to any other place, you will surely be executed?’ Then you said to me, ‘What you say is good.’
1Ki 2:43 Why then have you not kept your oath to Yehowah and the command that I gave you?”

1Ki 2:44 The king also said to Shimei, “You know in your heart all the wickedness that you did to my father David. Therefore, Yehowah will return your wickedness on your own head.
1Ki 2:45 But King Solomon will be blessed and the throne of David will be established before Yehowah forever.”
1Ki 2:46 Then the king gave a command to Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He went out and executed Shimei. So the rule was well established in Solomon’s hand.

1 Kings Chapter 3

1Ki 3:1 Solomon allied himself by marriage with Pharaoh king of Egypt. He took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the City of David, until he had finished building his own house, the temple of Yehowah, and the wall around Jerusalem.
1Ki 3:2 The people were sacrificing at the high places, because no temple had yet been built for the name of Yehowah.
1Ki 3:3 Solomon showed his love for Yehowah by walking in the statutes of David his father, except that he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.
1Ki 3:4 The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place there. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.
1Ki 3:5 Yehowah appeared at Gibeon to Solomon in a dream by night; the Almighty spoke, "Ask! What should I give you?"
1Ki 3:6 So Solomon answered, "You have shown great covenant faithfulness to your servant, David my father, because he walked before you in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart. You have kept for him this great covenant faithfulness and have given him a son to sit on his throne today.
1Ki 3:7 Now Yehowah my Divine One, you have made your servant king in the place of David my father, though I am only a little child. I do not know how to go out or come in.
1Ki 3:8 Your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted.
1Ki 3:9 So give your servant an understanding heart to judge your people, so that I may discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of yours?"
1Ki 3:10 This request of Solomon pleased the Lord.
1Ki 3:11 So the Almighty said to him, "Because you have asked this thing and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice,
1Ki 3:12 see, now I will do all you asked of me when you gave me your request. I give you a wise and an understanding heart, so that there has been no one like you before you, and no one like you will rise up after you.
1Ki 3:13 I have also given you what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there will not be any among the kings like you all your days.
1Ki 3:14 If you will walk in my Ways to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."
1Ki 3:15 Then Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. He came to Jerusalem and stood before the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord. He offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

1Ki 3:16 Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.
1Ki 3:17 One woman said, “Oh my master, this woman and I live in the same house, and I gave birth to a child with her in the house.
1Ki 3:18 It happened on the third day after I gave birth that this woman also gave birth. We were together. There was no one else with us in the house but only the two of us in the house.
1Ki 3:19 Then this woman’s son died in the night, because she lay on him.
1Ki 3:20 So she arose at midnight and took my son from beside me, while your servant slept, and laid him at her breast, and laid her dead son at my breast.
1Ki 3:21 When I rose at dawn to nurse my child, he was dead. But when I had looked at him carefully in the morning, he was not my son, whom I had borne.”
1Ki 3:22 Then the other woman said, “No, the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son.” The first woman said, “No, the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.” This is how they spoke before the king.
1Ki 3:23 Then the king said, “One of you says, ‘This is my son who is alive, and your son is dead,’ and the other says, ‘No, your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’”
1Ki 3:24 The king ordered, “Bring me a sword!” So they brought a sword before the king.
1Ki 3:25 Then the king ordered, “Divide the living child in two and give half to this woman and half to the other.”
1Ki 3:26 Then the woman whose son was alive spoke to the king, for her heart was full of compassion for her son, “Oh my master, give her the living child and by no means kill him.” But the other woman said, “He will be neither mine nor yours. Divide him.”
1Ki 3:27 Then the king answered, “Give the first woman the living child and by no means kill him. She is his mother.”
1Ki 3:28 When all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered, they feared the king, because they saw that the wisdom of the Almighty was in him for giving judgments.

1 Kings Chapter 4

1Ki 4:1 King Solomon was king over all Israel.
1Ki 4:2 These were his officials: Azariah (Azaryah) son of Zadok was the priest.
1Ki 4:3 Elihoreph and Ahijah sons of Shisha, were secretaries. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder.
1Ki 4:4 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the military force. Zadok and Abiathar were priests.
1Ki 4:5 Azariah son of Nathan was over the officers. Zabud son of Nathan was a priest and the king's friend.
1Ki 4:6 Ahishar was over the household. Adoniram son of Abda was over the men who were subjected to forced labor.
1Ki 4:7 Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household. Each man had to make provision for one month in the year.
1Ki 4:8 These were their names: Ben Hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;
1Ki 4:9 Ben Deker in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elonbeth Hanan;
1Ki 4:10 Ben Hesed, in Arubboth, to him belonged Socoh and all the land of Hepher;
1Ki 4:11 Ben Abinadab, in all the district of Dor, he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as his wife;
1Ki 4:12 Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth Shan that is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah as far as the other side of Jokmeam;
1Ki 4:13 Ben Geber, in Ramoth Gilead, to him belonged the towns of Jair son of Manasseh, that are in Gilead, and the region of Argob belonged to him, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze gate bars;
1Ki 4:14 Ahinadab son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;
1Ki 4:15 Ahimaaz, in Naphtali, he also married Basemath the daughter of Solomon as his wife;
1Ki 4:16 Baana son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;
1Ki 4:17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah, in Issachar;
1Ki 4:18 Shimei son of Ela, in Benjamin;
1Ki 4:19 and Geber son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan, and he was the only official who was in the land.
1Ki 4:20 Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea. They were eating and drinking and were happy.

1Ki 4:21 Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.
1Ki 4:22 Solomon's provision for one day was 6.6 kiloliters of fine flour and 13.2 kiloliters of meal,
1Ki 4:23 ten fat oxen, twenty oxen out of the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened fowl.
1Ki 4:24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side of the Euphrates River, from Tiphsah as far as to Gaza, over all the kings on this side of the Euphrates River, and he had peace on all sides around him.
1Ki 4:25 Judah and Israel lived in safety, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.
1Ki 4:26 Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand cavalry.
1Ki 4:27 Those officials provided food for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table, every man in his month. They let nothing be lacking.
1Ki 4:28 They also brought to the proper place barley and straw for the chariot horses and cavalry horses, each one bringing in what he was able.
1Ki 4:29 The Almighty gave Solomon great wisdom and understanding, and wideness of understanding like the sand on the seashore.
1Ki 4:30 Solomon's wisdom exceeded the wisdom of all the people of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt.
1Ki 4:31 He was wiser than all men, than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol, and his fame reached all the surrounding ethnicities.
1Ki 4:32 He spoke three thousand proverbs and his songs were one thousand and five in number.
1Ki 4:33 He described the plants, from the cedar that is in Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of the wall. He explained also about beasts, birds, creeping things, and fish.
1Ki 4:34 People came from all the ethnicities to hear the wisdom of Solomon. They came from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

1 Kings Chapter 5

1Ki 5:1 Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, for he had heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father; for Hiram had always loved David.
1Ki 5:2 Solomon sent word to Hiram,
1Ki 5:3 “You know that David my father could not build a temple for the name of Yehowah his Divine One because of the wars that surrounded him, for during his lifetime Yehowah was putting his enemies under the soles of his feet.
1Ki 5:4 But now, Yehowah my Divine One has given me rest on every side. There is neither adversary nor disaster.
1Ki 5:5 So I intend to build a temple for the name of Yehowah my Divine One, as Yehowah spoke to David my father, ‘Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, will build the temple for my name.’
1Ki 5:6 Now therefore, command that they cut cedars from Lebanon for me. My servants will join your servants, and I will pay you for your servants, so that you are paid fairly for everything you agreed to do. For you know there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.”
1Ki 5:7 When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, “May Yehowah be blessed today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people.”
1Ki 5:8 Hiram sent word to Solomon, “I have heard the message that you have sent to me. I will provide all the wood of cedar and cypress that you desire.
1Ki 5:9 My servants will bring the trees down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you direct me. I will have them broken up there, and you will take them away. You will do what I desire by giving food for my household.”
1Ki 5:10 So Hiram gave Solomon all the timber of cedar and fir that he desired.
1Ki 5:11 Solomon gave Hiram 3,520 cubic meters of wheat for food to his household and 416 kiloliters of pure oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year.
1Ki 5:12 Yehowah gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant.
1Ki 5:13 King Solomon conscripted labor out of all Israel. The forced laborers numbered thirty thousand men.
1Ki 5:14 He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts. One month they were in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was over the men who were subjected to forced labor.
1Ki 5:15 Solomon had seventy thousand who carried burdens and eighty thousand who were stonecutters in the mountains,

1Ki 5:16 besides Solomon’s 3,300 chief officers who were over the work and who supervised the workers.
1Ki 5:17 At the king’s command they quarried large stones of high quality with which to lay the foundation of the temple.
1Ki 5:18 So Solomon’s builders, Hiram’s builders, and the Gebalites did the cutting and prepared the timber and stones to build the temple.

1 Kings Chapter 6

1Ki 6:1 So Solomon began to build the temple of Yehowah. This happened in the 480th year after the people of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year (c. 1019 BC) of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month (2 Chron. 3:2).
1Ki 6:2 The temple that King Solomon built for Yehowah was twenty-seven meters long, nine meters wide, and thirteen and one-half meters high.
1Ki 6:3 The portico in front of the temple's main hall was nine meters in length, equal to the width of the temple, and four and one-half meters deep in front of the temple.
1Ki 6:4 For the temple, he made windows with frames that made them more narrow at the outside than on the inside.
1Ki 6:5 Against the walls of the main chamber he built rooms around it, around both the outer room and the inner room. He built rooms all around the sides.
1Ki 6:6 The lowest story was two and one-third meters wide, the middle was two and four-fifths meters wide, and the third was three and one-tenth meters wide. For on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the temple all around, so that the beams would not be inserted in the walls of the temple.
1Ki 6:7 The temple was built of stones prepared at the quarry. No hammer, ax, or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built.
1Ki 6:8 On the south side of the temple there was an entrance at the ground level, then one went up by stairs to the middle level, and from the middle to the third level.
1Ki 6:9 So Solomon built the temple and finished it; he covered the temple with beams and planks of cedar.
1Ki 6:10 He built the side rooms against the inner chambers of the temple, each side two and one-third meters high; they were joined to the temple with timbers of cedar.
1Ki 6:11 The Word of Yehowah came to Solomon,
1Ki 6:12 "Concerning this temple which you are building, if you walk in my statutes and do justice, keep all my commandments and walk in them, then I will confirm my promise with you that I had made to David your father.
1Ki 6:13 I will live among the people of Israel and will not forsake them."
1Ki 6:14 So Solomon built the temple and finished it.
1Ki 6:15 Then he built the interior walls of the temple with boards of cedar. From the floor of the temple to the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood, and he covered the floor of the temple with cypress boards.
1Ki 6:16 He built nine meters onto the rear of the temple with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling. He built this room to be the inner room, the Most Set-apart Place.

1Ki 6:17 The main hall, that is, the consecrated place that was in front of the Most Set-apart Place, was eighteen meters long.
1Ki 6:18 There was cedar inside the temple, carved in the shape of gourds and open flowers. All was cedar inside. No stonework was visible on the inside.
1Ki 6:19 Solomon prepared the inner room inside the temple in order to place the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah there.
1Ki 6:20 The inner room was nine meters in length, nine meters in width, and nine meters in height. Solomon overlaid the walls with pure gold and covered the altar with cedar wood.
1Ki 6:21 Solomon overlaid the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he placed chains of gold across the front of the inner room, and overlaid the front with gold.
1Ki 6:22 He overlaid the entire interior with gold, until all the temple was finished. He also overlaid with gold the whole altar that belonged to the inner room.
1Ki 6:23 Solomon made two cherubim of olivewood, each four and one-half meters high, for the inner room.
1Ki 6:24 One wing of the first cherub was 2.25 meters long and its other wing was also 2.25 meters long. So from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other there was a distance of four and one-half meters.
1Ki 6:25 The other cherub also had a wingspan of four and one-half meters. Both the cherubim were of the same dimensions and shape.
1Ki 6:26 The height of one cherub was four and one-half meters and the other cherub was the same.
1Ki 6:27 Solomon placed the cherubim in the innermost room. The wings of the cherubim were stretched out, so that the wing of one touched one wall and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. Their wings touched one another in the middle of the Most Set-apart Place.
1Ki 6:28 Solomon overlaid the cherubim with gold.
1Ki 6:29 He carved all the walls of the temple around about with figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, in the outer and inner rooms.
1Ki 6:30 Solomon overlaid the floor of the temple with gold, in both the outer and inner rooms.
1Ki 6:31 Solomon crafted doors of olivewood for the entrance to the inner room, with five recessed doorframes.
1Ki 6:32 So he made two doors of olivewood, and he made on them carvings of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers. He overlaid them with gold, and he spread the gold on the cherubim and palm trees.
1Ki 6:33 In this way, Solomon also made for the temple entrance doorposts of olivewood having four indented sections

1Ki 6:34 and two doors of cypress wood. The two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.
1Ki 6:35 He carved on them cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and he evenly overlaid gold on the carved work.
1Ki 6:36 He built the inner court with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams.
1Ki 6:37 The foundation of the temple of Yehowah was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv.
1Ki 6:38 In the eleventh year (c. 1012 BC), in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the temple was finished in all its parts and conforming to all its specifications. Solomon took seven years to build the temple.

1 Kings Chapter 7

1Ki 7:1 Solomon took thirteen years to build his own palace.
1Ki 7:2 He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. Its length was forty-six meters, its width was twenty-three meters, and its height was fourteen meters. The palace was built with four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars.
1Ki 7:3 The house was roofed with cedar that rested on beams. Those beams were supported by pillars. There were forty-five beams, fifteen in a row.
1Ki 7:4 There were beams in three rows, and each window was opposite another window in three sets.
1Ki 7:5 All the doors and posts were made square with beams, and window was opposite window in three sets.
1Ki 7:6 There was a colonnade twenty-three meters long and fourteen meters wide, with a portico in front and pillars and a roof.
1Ki 7:7 Solomon built the hall of the throne where he was to judge, the Hall of Justice. It was covered with cedar from floor to the rafters.
1Ki 7:8 Solomon's house in which he was to live, in another courtyard within the palace grounds, was similarly designed. He also built a house like this for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken as a wife.
1Ki 7:9 These buildings were adorned with costly hewn stones, precisely measured and cut with a saw and smoothed on all sides. These stones were used from the foundation to the stones on top, and also on the outside to the great court.
1Ki 7:10 The foundation was constructed with exceedingly large, valuable stones of three and three-quarters and four and four-fifths meters in length.
1Ki 7:11 Above were costly hewn stones precisely cut to size, and cedar beams.
1Ki 7:12 The great courtyard surrounding the palace had three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams like the inner court of the temple of Yehowah and the temple portico.
1Ki 7:13 King Solomon sent for Huram and brought him from Tyre.
1Ki 7:14 Huram was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali; his father was a man of Tyre, a craftsman in bronze. Huram was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill to do great work with bronze. He came to King Solomon to work with bronze for the king.
1Ki 7:15 Huram fashioned the two pillars of bronze, each nine and one-half meters high (2 Chron. 3:15) and six meters in circumference.
1Ki 7:16 He made two capitals of polished bronze to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of each capital was two and one-half meters.

1Ki 7:17 Checker latticework and wreaths of chain work for the capitals decorated the top of the pillars, seven for each capital.
1Ki 7:18 So Huram made two rows of pomegranates around the top of each pillar to decorate their capitals.
1Ki 7:19 The capitals on the tops of the portico pillars were decorated with lilies, two meters high.
1Ki 7:20 The capitals on these two pillars also included, close to their top, two hundred pomegranates in rows all around.
1Ki 7:21 He raised up the pillars at the temple portico. The pillar on the right was named Jakin, and the pillar on the left was named Boaz.
1Ki 7:22 On the top of the pillars were decorations like lilies. The fashioning of the pillars was done in this way.
1Ki 7:23 Huram made the round sea of cast metal, five meters from rim to rim. Its height was two and one-half meters, and the sea was 15 meters in circumference.
1Ki 7:24 Under the brim encircling the sea were gourds, ten in each half-meter, cast in one piece with the sea when the sea itself was cast.
1Ki 7:25 The sea stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east. The sea was set on top of them, and all their hindquarters were toward the inside.
1Ki 7:26 The sea was eight centimeters thick as the width of a hand, and its brim was forged like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. The sea held forty-nine cubic meters of water (2 Chron. 4:5).
1Ki 7:27 Huram made the ten stands of bronze. Each stand was two meters long and two meters wide, and the height was one and one-half meters.
1Ki 7:28 The work of the stands was like this. They had panels that stood between frames, 1Ki 7:29 and on the panels and on the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. Above and below the lions and oxen were wreaths of hammered work.
1Ki 7:30 Every stand had four bronze wheels and axles, and its four corners had supports beneath for the basin. The supports were cast with wreaths on the side of each one.
1Ki 7:31 The opening was round like a pedestal, forty-six centimeters, and was within a crown that rose up twenty-three centimeters. On the opening were engravings, and their panels were square, not round.
1Ki 7:32 The four wheels were underneath the panels, and the axles of the wheels and their housings were in the stand. The height of a wheel was sixty-nine centimeters.
1Ki 7:33 The wheels were forged like chariot wheels. Their housings, rims, spokes, and hubs were all cast metal.

1Ki 7:34 There were four handles at the four corners of each stand, forged into the stand itself.
1Ki 7:35 In the top of the stands there was a round band twenty-three centimeters deep, and on the top of the stand its supports and panels were attached.
1Ki 7:36 On the surfaces of the supports and on the panels Huram engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees that covered the space available, and they were surrounded by wreaths.
1Ki 7:37 He made the ten stands in this manner. All of them were cast in the same molds, and they had one size, and the same shape.
1Ki 7:38 Huram made ten basins of bronze. One basin could hold 880 liters of water. Each basin was two meters across and there was one basin on each of ten stands.
1Ki 7:39 He made five stands on the south-facing side of the temple and five on the north-facing side of the temple. He set the sea on the east corner, facing toward the south of the temple.
1Ki 7:40 Huram made the basins and the shovels and the sprinkling bowls. Then he finished all the work that he did for King Solomon in the temple of Yehowah:
1Ki 7:41 the two pillars, and the bowl-like capitals that were on top of the two pillars, and the two sets of decorative latticework to cover the two bowl-like capitals that were on top of the pillars.
1Ki 7:42 He made the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of decorative latticework: two rows of pomegranates for each set of latticework to cover the two bowl-like capitals that were on the pillars,
1Ki 7:43 the ten stands, and the ten basins on the stands.
1Ki 7:44 He made the sea and the twelve oxen under it,
1Ki 7:45 also the pots, shovels, basins, and all the other implements. Huram made them out of polished bronze, for King Solomon, for the temple of Yehowah.
1Ki 7:46 The king had cast them in the plain of the Jordan River, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.
1Ki 7:47 Solomon did not weigh all the utensils, because there were too many to weigh, because the weight of the bronze could not be measured.
1Ki 7:48 Solomon made all the furnishings that were in the temple of Yehowah out of gold: the golden altar and the table on which the bread of the presence was to be placed.
1Ki 7:49 The menorot, five on the right side and five on the left, in front of the inner room, were of pure gold, and the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs were of gold.
1Ki 7:50 The cups, lamp trimmers, basins, spoons, and incense burners were all made of pure gold. Also the sockets of the doors of the inner room, which was the Most Set-apart Place, and of the doors of the main hall of the temple, were all made of gold.

1Ki 7:51 In this way, all the work that King Solomon did for the temple of Yehowah was finished. So Solomon brought in the things that were set apart by David, his father, and the silver, the gold, and the furnishings, and put them into the storerooms of the temple of Yehowah.

1 Kings Chapter 8

1Ki 8:1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, and the leaders of the families of the people of Israel, before himself in Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah from the City of David, that is, Zion.
1Ki 8:2 All the men of Israel assembled before King Solomon at the Feast (Sukkot), in the month of Ethanim (Tishrei), which is the seventh month.
1Ki 8:3 All the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.
1Ki 8:4 They brought up the Ark of Yehowah, the Tent of Meeting, and all the set-apart furnishings that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites brought these things up.
1Ki 8:5 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel came together before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted.
1Ki 8:6 The priests brought in the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah to its place, into the inner room of the temple, to the Most Set-apart Place, under the wings of the cherubim.
1Ki 8:7 For the cherubim spread out their wings to the place of the ark, and they covered the ark and the poles by which it was carried.
1Ki 8:8 The poles were so long that their ends were seen from the Set-apart Place in front of the inner room, but they could not be seen from outside. They are there to this day.
1Ki 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of stone that Moses had put there at Horeb, when Yehowah made a covenant with the people of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.
1Ki 8:10 It came about that when the priests came out of the Set-apart Place, the cloud filled the temple of Yehowah.
1Ki 8:11 The priests could not stand to serve because of the cloud, for the glory of Yehowah filled the temple of Yehowah.
1Ki 8:12 Then Solomon said, “Yehowah has said that he would live in thick darkness,
1Ki 8:13 but I have built you a lofty residence, a place for you to live in forever.”
1Ki 8:14 Then the king turned around and blessed all the congregation of Israel, while all the congregation of Israel was standing.
1Ki 8:15 He said, “May Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, be praised, who spoke to David my father, and has fulfilled it with his own hands, saying,
1Ki 8:16 ‘Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a temple, in order for my name to be there. However, I chose David to rule over my people Israel.’

1Ki 8:17 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a temple for the name of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
1Ki 8:18 But Yehowah said to David my father, 'In that it was in your heart to build a temple for my name, you did well for it to be in your heart.
1Ki 8:19 Nevertheless, you will not build the temple; instead, your son, one who will be born from your loins, will build the temple for my name.'
1Ki 8:20 Yehowah has carried out the word that he had said, for I have arisen in the place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Yehowah promised. I have built the temple for the name of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
1Ki 8:21 I have made a place for the ark there, in which is the covenant of Yehowah, which he made with our fathers when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."
1Ki 8:22 Solomon stood before the altar of Yehowah, before all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands toward Heaven.
1Ki 8:23 He prayed, "Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, there is no Almighty like you in Heaven above or on the earth below, who keeps his covenant faithfulness with your servants who walk before you with all their heart;
1Ki 8:24 you who have kept with your servant David my father, what you promised him. Yes, you spoke with your mouth and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is today.
1Ki 8:25 Now then, Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, carry out what you have promised to your servant David my father, when you said, 'You will not fail to have a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your descendants are careful to walk before me, as you have walked before me.'
1Ki 8:26 Now then, Mighty One of Israel, I pray that the promise you made to your servant David my father, will come true.
1Ki 8:27 But will the Almighty actually live on the earth? Look, the entire universe and Heaven itself cannot contain you, how much less can this temple that I have built!
1Ki 8:28 Yet please respect this prayer of your servant and his request, Yehowah my Divine One; listen to the cry and prayer that your servant prays before you today.
1Ki 8:29 May your eyes be open toward this temple night and day, to the place about which you have said, 'My name and my presence will be there,' in order to listen to the prayers that your servant will pray toward this place.
1Ki 8:30 So listen to the request of your servant and of your people Israel when we pray toward this place. Yes, listen from the place where you live, from Heaven; and when you listen, forgive.
1Ki 8:31 If a man sins against his neighbor and is required to swear an oath, and if he comes and swears an oath before your altar in this temple,

1Ki 8:32 listen from Heaven and act; judge your servants, condemning the guilty and bring what he has done upon his own head, and to declare the righteous one to be innocent, and to reward him for his righteousness.
1Ki 8:33 When your people Israel are defeated by an enemy, because they have sinned against you, if they turn back to you, confess your name, pray, and request forgiveness from you in this temple,
1Ki 8:34 then please listen in Heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel; bring them back to the land that you gave to their ancestors.
1Ki 8:35 When the skies are shut up and there is no rain, because the people have sinned against you, if they pray toward this place, confess your name, and turn from their sin when you have afflicted them,
1Ki 8:36 then listen in Heaven and forgive the sin of your servants and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good Way in which they should walk. Send rain on your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance.
1Ki 8:37 Suppose there is famine in the land, or suppose that there is disease, blight or mildew, locusts or caterpillars; or suppose that an enemy attacks the city gates in their land, or that there is any plague or sickness,
1Ki 8:38 and suppose then that prayers and requests are made by a person or by all your people Israel, each knowing the plague in his own heart as he spreads out his hands toward this temple.
1Ki 8:39 Then listen from Heaven, the place where you live, forgive and act, and reward every person for all he does; you know his heart, because you, and you only, know the hearts of all humans.
1Ki 8:40 Do this, so that they may fear you all the days that they live on the land that you gave to our ancestors.
1Ki 8:41 In addition, concerning the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel: When he comes from a distant country because of your name,
1Ki 8:42 for they will hear of your great name, your mighty hand, and your raised arm, when he comes and prays toward this temple,
1Ki 8:43 then please listen from Heaven, the place where you live, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you. Do this, so that all the ethnicities on earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel. Do this, so they might know that this temple I have built is called by your name.
1Ki 8:44 Suppose that your people go out to battle against an enemy, by whatever way you may send them, and suppose that they pray to you, Yehowah, toward the city that you have chosen, and toward the temple that I have built for your name.
1Ki 8:45 Then listen in Heaven to their prayer and their request, and help their cause.
1Ki 8:46 Suppose that they sin against you, since there is no one who does not sin, and suppose that you are angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, so that the enemy takes them away captive to their land, whether distant or near.

1Ki 8:47 Then suppose that they realize they are in the land where they have been exiled, and suppose that they repent and seek grace from you from the land of their captors. Suppose that they say, 'We have acted perversely and sinned. We have behaved wickedly.'
1Ki 8:48 Suppose that they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who captured them, and suppose that they pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their ancestors, and toward the city that you chose, and toward the temple that I have built for your name.
1Ki 8:49 Then from Heaven, the place where you live, listen to their prayer and their request for help, and you will make matters right for them.
1Ki 8:50 Forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their sins with which they have transgressed against your commands. Have compassion on them before their enemies who carried them captive, so that their enemies may also have compassion on your people.
1Ki 8:51 They are your people whom you have chosen, whom you rescued out of Egypt as if from the middle of a furnace where iron is forged.
1Ki 8:52 I pray that your eyes may be open to the request of your servant and to the requests of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to you.
1Ki 8:53 For you separated them from among all the people of the earth to belong to you and receive your promises, just as you explained by Moses your servant, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord Yehowah. Then spoke Solomon concerning the temple, when he had finished building it. He pointed out the sun in the sky. The Lord said he would live in darkness. You build my house, a beautiful house for yourself to live in anew. Look, is not this written in the Book of the Song (Book of Jasher)?"
1Ki 8:54 So it was that when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and request to Yehowah, he arose from before the altar of Yehowah, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread out toward Heaven.
1Ki 8:55 He stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel in a loud voice,
1Ki 8:56 "May Yehowah be praised, who has given rest to his people Israel, keeping all his promises! Not one word has failed out of all his good promises that he made with Moses his servant!
1Ki 8:57 May Yehowah our Divine One be with us, as he was with our ancestors! May he never leave us or forsake us,
1Ki 8:58 that he may incline our hearts to him, to live in all his Ways and keep his commandments and his regulations and his statutes, which he commanded our fathers!
1Ki 8:59 Let these words I have spoken, by which I have made request before Yehowah, be near Yehowah our Divine One day and night, so that he may help the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel, as every day will require;

1Ki 8:60 that all the people of the earth may know that Lord Yehowah, he is the Almighty, and there is no other!
1Ki 8:61 Therefore, let your heart be true to Yehowah our Divine One, to walk in his statutes and keep his commandments, as on this day!”
1Ki 8:62 So the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices to Yehowah.
1Ki 8:63 Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he made to Yehowah: twenty-two thousand oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people of Israel dedicated the temple of Yehowah.
1Ki 8:64 The same day, the king set apart the middle of the courtyard in front of the temple of Yehowah, for there he offered the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before Yehowah was too small to receive the burnt offering, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.
1Ki 8:65 So Solomon held the Feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from Lebo Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before Yehowah our Divine One for seven days (beginning on 7-8) and also for another seven days (Sukkot), a total of fourteen days (to dedicate the temple).
1Ki 8:66 On the eighth day (8th day assembly; Shemini Atzeret, 7-22) he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their homes with joyful and glad hearts for all the goodness that Yehowah had shown to David, his servant, and to Israel, his people.

1 Kings Chapter 9

1Ki 9:1 After Solomon had finished building the temple of Yehowah and the king's palace, and after he had accomplished all that he wanted to do,
1Ki 9:2 Yehowah appeared to Solomon a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.
1Ki 9:3 Then Yehowah said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your request that you have made before me. I have set apart this temple, which you have built, to myself, to put my name there forever. My eyes and my heart will be there for all time.
1Ki 9:4 As for you, if you walk before me as David your father walked in integrity of heart and in uprightness, obeying all that I have commanded you and keeping my statutes and my decrees,
1Ki 9:5 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised David your father, 'A descendant of yours will never fail to be on the throne of Israel.'
1Ki 9:6 But if you turn away, you or your children, and do not keep my commandments and my statutes that I have placed before you, and if you go and worship false deities and bow down to them,
1Ki 9:7 then will I cut off Israel from off the ground that I have given them; and this temple that I have set apart to my name, I will cast it out of my sight, and Israel will become an example to be mocked and an object of ridicule among all people.
1Ki 9:8 This temple will become a heap of ruins, and everyone who passes by it will be shocked and will whistle. They will ask, 'Why has Yehowah done this to this land and to this temple?'
1Ki 9:9 Others will answer, 'Because they forsook Yehowah, their Divine One, who had brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt, and they laid hold of false deities, bowed down to them, and worshiped them. That is why Yehowah has brought all this disaster on them.'"
1Ki 9:10 It came about at the end of twenty years (c. 999 BC) that Solomon had finished building the two buildings, the temple of Yehowah and the king's palace.
1Ki 9:11 Now Hiram, the king of Tyre, had furnished Solomon with cedar and cypress trees, and with gold, all that Solomon desired, so King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.
1Ki 9:12 Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given him, but they did not please him.
1Ki 9:13 So Hiram asked, "What cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" Hiram called them the Land of Cabul, which they are still called today.
1Ki 9:14 Hiram had sent to the king 4 metric tons of gold.

1Ki 9:15 The following is the reason for the requirement to work, which King Solomon imposed: to build the temple of Yehowah and his own palace, to build the (Gihon) Spring Tower and the wall of Jerusalem, and to build the defenses of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer (2 Sam. 5:6-10; 1 Chron. 11:4-9).
1Ki 9:16 Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up (by the Way of Horus) and taken Gezer. He burned it and killed the Canaanites in the city. Then Pharaoh gave the city to his daughter, Solomon's wife, as a wedding gift.
1Ki 9:17 So Solomon rebuilt Gezer (modern Tel Gezer) and Beth Horon the Lower,
1Ki 9:18 Baalath and Tamor in the wilderness in the land of Judah,
1Ki 9:19 and all the store cities that he possessed, and the cities for his chariots and the cities for his cavalry, and whatever he wished to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the lands under his rule.
1Ki 9:20 As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hethites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the people of Israel,
1Ki 9:21 their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the people of Israel were not able to totally destroy, Solomon made them into forced laborers, which they are to this day.
1Ki 9:22 However, Solomon made no forced laborers of the people of Israel. Instead, they became his soldiers and his servants, his officials, his officers, and commanders of his chariot forces and his cavalry.
1Ki 9:23 These were also the chief officers managing the supervisors who were over Solomon's works, 550 of them, who supervised the people who did the work.
1Ki 9:24 Pharaoh's daughter moved from the City of David to the house that Solomon had built for her. Later, Solomon built the (Gihon) Spring Tower.
1Ki 9:25 Three times each year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar that he built for Yehowah, burning incense with them on the altar that was before Yehowah. So he completed the temple and was now using it.
1Ki 9:26 King Solomon built a fleet of ships in Ezion Geber, which is near Elath (modern Eilat) on the shore of the Red Sea (Gulf of Aqaba), in the land of Edom (2 Chronicles 8:17).
1Ki 9:27 Hiram sent servants to Solomon's fleet, sailors who understood the sea, with Solomon's own servants.
1Ki 9:28 They went to Ophir with servants of Solomon. From there they brought back 14 metric tons of gold for King Solomon (1 Kings 22:48).

1 Kings Chapter 10

1Ki 10:1 When the Queen of Sheba (modern Yemen) heard of Solomon's fame concerning the name of Yehowah, she came to test him with hard questions (Luke 11:31).
1Ki 10:2 She came to Jerusalem with a large caravan, with camels loaded with spices, much gold, and many precious gemstones. When she arrived, she told Solomon all that was in her heart.
1Ki 10:3 Solomon answered all her questions. There was nothing she asked that the king did not answer.
1Ki 10:4 When the Queen of Sheba saw all Solomon's wisdom, the palace that he had built,
1Ki 10:5 the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the work of his servants and their clothing, also his cupbearers, and the manner in which he offered burnt offerings in the temple of Yehowah, there was no more breath in her.
1Ki 10:6 She said to the king, "It is true, the report that I heard in my own land of your words and your wisdom.
1Ki 10:7 I did not believe what I heard, until I came here, and now my eyes have seen it. Not half was told me about your wisdom and wealth! You have exceeded the fame that I heard about.
1Ki 10:8 How blessed are your people, and how blessed are your servants who constantly stand before you, because they hear your wisdom.
1Ki 10:9 May Yehowah your Divine One be praised, who has taken pleasure in you, who placed you on the throne of Israel. Because Yehowah loved Israel forever, he has made you king, for you to do justice and righteousness!"
1Ki 10:10 She gave the king 4 metric tons of gold, a large amount of spices, and precious stones. No greater amount of spices as these that the Queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon was ever given to him again.
1Ki 10:11 The fleet of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, also brought from Ophir a large amount of almug wood and precious stones.
1Ki 10:12 The king made almug wood pillars for the temple of Yehowah and for the king's palace, and harps and lyres for the singers. No such quantity of almug wood has ever come or been seen again to this day.
1Ki 10:13 King Solomon gave to the Queen of Sheba everything she wished for, whatever she asked, in addition to what Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she returned to her own land with her servants.
1Ki 10:14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 22 metric tons of gold,

1Ki 10:15 besides the gold that the traders and merchants brought. All the kings of Arabia and the governors in the country also brought gold and silver to Solomon.
1Ki 10:16 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold. 600-weight of gold went into each one.
1Ki 10:17 He also made three hundred shields of beaten gold. 150-weight of gold went into each shield; the king put them into the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.
1Ki 10:18 Then the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with the finest gold.
1Ki 10:19 There were six steps to the throne, and the back of it had a rounded top. There were armrests on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests.
1Ki 10:20 Twelve lions stood on the steps, one on each side of each of the six steps. There was no throne like it in any other kingdom.
1Ki 10:21 All King Solomon's drinking cups were gold, and all the drinking cups in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were silver, because silver was not considered valuable in Solomon's days.
1Ki 10:22 The king had at sea a fleet of oceangoing ships, along with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the fleet brought gold, silver, and ivory, as well as apes and peacocks.
1Ki 10:23 So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the world in riches and in wisdom.
1Ki 10:24 All the earth sought the presence of Solomon in order to hear his wisdom, which the Almighty had put in his heart.
1Ki 10:25 Those who visited brought tribute, vessels of silver and of gold, and clothes, armor, and spices, as well as horses and mules, year after year.
1Ki 10:26 Solomon gathered together chariots and cavalry. He had 1,400 chariots and twelve thousand cavalry that he stationed in the chariot cities and with himself in Jerusalem.
1Ki 10:27 The king had silver in Jerusalem, as much as the stones on the ground. He made cedar wood to be as abundant as the sycamore fig trees that are in the lowlands.
1Ki 10:28 Solomon owned horses and linen yarn that had been brought from Egypt and (the Neo-Hittite City of) Kue (in Cilicia). The king's merchants purchased the horses and linen yarn at a price.
1Ki 10:29 Chariots were purchased out of Egypt for 600-weight of silver-currency each, and horses for 150 each. Many of these were then sold to all the kings of the Neo-Hittites and Aram (2 Chron. 1:17).

1 Kings Chapter 11

1Ki 11:1 Now King Solomon loved many foreign women: The daughter of Pharaoh and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Neo-Hittites,
1Ki 11:2 ethnicities concerning which Yehowah had said to the people of Israel, "You will not go among them to marry, neither will they come among you, for they will certainly turn your heart to their deities." But Solomon loved these women.
1Ki 11:3 Solomon had seven hundred royal wives and three hundred concubines. His wives turned his heart away.
1Ki 11:4 For when Solomon grew old, his wives turned away his heart after false deities; his heart was not fully surrendered to Yehowah his Divine One, as was the heart of David his father.
1Ki 11:5 For Solomon followed Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and he followed Milcom, the disgusting idol of the Ammonites.
1Ki 11:6 Solomon did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah; he did not fully follow Yehowah, as David his father had done.
1Ki 11:7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the disgusting idol of Moab, on a hill east of Jerusalem, and also for Molech, the disgusting idol of the people of Ammon.
1Ki 11:8 He also built high places for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their deities at them.
1Ki 11:9 Yehowah was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, even though he had appeared to him twice
1Ki 11:10 and commanded him about this thing, that he should not go after false deities. But Solomon did not obey what Yehowah commanded.
1Ki 11:11 Therefore, Yehowah said to Solomon, "Because you have done this and have not kept the covenant and my statutes that I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and give it to your servant.
1Ki 11:12 However, for David your father's sake, I will not do it in your lifetime, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.
1Ki 11:13 Yet, I will not tear away all the kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for David my servant's sake, and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."
1Ki 11:14 Then Yehowah raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite. He was from the royal family of Edom.
1Ki 11:15 When David was in Edom, Joab the captain of the military force had gone up to bury the dead, every man who had been killed in Edom.
1Ki 11:16 Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had killed every male in Edom.

1Ki 11:17 But Hadad was taken with other Edomites by his father's servants into Egypt, since Hadad was still a little child.
1Ki 11:18 They left Midian and came to Paran, from where they took men with them to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, land, and food.
1Ki 11:19 Hadad found great grace in the sight of Pharaoh (1 Kings 11:40), so that Pharaoh gave him a wife, his own wife's sister, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.
1Ki 11:20 The sister of Tahpenes gave birth to Hadad's son. They named him Genubath. Tahpenes raised him in Pharaoh's palace. So Genubath lived in Pharaoh's palace among the children of Pharaoh.
1Ki 11:21 While he was in Egypt, Hadad heard that David laid down with his ancestors (c. 1023 BC), and that Joab, the captain of the armed forces, was dead. Hadad entreated Pharaoh, "Let me depart, so I may go to my own country."
1Ki 11:22 Then Pharaoh asked him, "But what have you lacked with me, that you now seek to go to your own country?" Hadad answered, "Nothing. Please let me go."
1Ki 11:23 The Almighty also raised up another adversary to Solomon, Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master Hadadezer king of Zobah.
1Ki 11:24 Rezon gathered men to himself and became captain over a small force, when David defeated the men of Zobah. Rezon's men went to Damascus and lived there, and Rezon controlled Damascus.
1Ki 11:25 He was an enemy of Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the trouble that Hadad caused. Rezon abhorred Israel and reigned over Aram.
1Ki 11:26 Then Jeroboam son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, an official of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, also lifted up his hand against the king.
1Ki 11:27 The reason he lifted up his hand against the king was because Solomon built up the place at the (Gihon) Spring Tower and repaired the opening in the city wall of David his father.
1Ki 11:28 Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor. Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, so he gave him command over all the labor of the house of Joseph.
1Ki 11:29 At that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah (Achiyah) the Shilonite found him on the road. Now Ahijah had dressed in a new garment, and the two men were alone in the field.
1Ki 11:30 Then Ahijah grabbed hold of the new garment that was on him and tore it into twelve pieces.
1Ki 11:31 He said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces, for Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares, 'Look, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and I will give ten tribes to you,

1Ki 11:32 but Solomon will have one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel,
1Ki 11:33 because they have forsaken me and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the deity of Moab, and Milcom the deity of the people of Ammon. They have not walked in my Ways, to do what is right in my eyes, and to keep my statutes and my decrees, as did David his father.
1Ki 11:34 However, I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon's hand. Instead, I have made him ruler all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake whom I chose, the one who kept my commandments and my statutes.
1Ki 11:35 But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and I will give it to you, ten tribes.
1Ki 11:36 I will give one tribe to Solomon's son, so that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city in which I have chosen to put my name.
1Ki 11:37 I will take you, and you will rule to fulfill all that you desire, and you will be king over Israel.
1Ki 11:38 If you listen to all that I command you, and if you walk in my Ways and do what is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, then I will be with you and will build you a sure household, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you.
1Ki 11:39 I will punish the descendants of David but not forever.'"
1Ki 11:40 So Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam rose up and fled into Egypt, to Shishak (Shoshenq I), king of Egypt, and he remained in Egypt until the death of Solomon.
1Ki 11:41 As for the other matters concerning Solomon, all that he did and his wisdom, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of Solomon?
1Ki 11:42 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.
1Ki 11:43 He slept with his ancestors (c. 983 BC), and he was buried in the City of David his father. Rehoboam his son became king in his place.

1 Kings Chapter 12

1Ki 12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel was coming to Shechem to make him king.
1Ki 12:2 It happened that Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of this, for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon, for Jeroboam had settled down in Egypt.
1Ki 12:3 So they sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came and said to Rehoboam,
1Ki 12:4 “Your father made our yoke heavy. Now make lighter the hard work of your father and make lighter the heavy yoke that he put on us, and we will serve you.”
1Ki 12:5 Rehoboam ordered them, “Go away for three days, then come back to me.” So the people went away.
1Ki 12:6 King Rehoboam consulted with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he was alive, and he asked, “How do you advise me to answer this people?”
1Ki 12:7 They spoke to him, “If you will be a servant today to these people and serve them, and answer them by saying good words to them, then they will always be your servants.”
1Ki 12:8 But Rehoboam ignored the advice that the old men had given him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and stood before him.
1Ki 12:9 He asked them, “What advice do you give me, that we may answer the people who spoke to me, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father put on us?’”
1Ki 12:10 The young men who had grown up with Rehoboam spoke to him, “Speak to these people who told you that your father Solomon made their yoke heavy, but that you must make it lighter. You should say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist.
1Ki 12:11 So now, although my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scorpions.’”
1Ki 12:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had instructed, when he commanded, “Come back to me on the third day.”
1Ki 12:13 The king answered the people roughly and ignored the advice of the old men that they had given him.
1Ki 12:14 He spoke to them following the advice of the young men, “My father burdened you with a heavy yoke, but I will add to your yoke. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scorpions!”

1Ki 12:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of events brought about by Yehowah (c. 983 BC), that he might carry out his word that he had spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.
1Ki 12:16 When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered him and shouted, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse! Go to your tents, Israel! Now see to your own house, David!” So Israel went back to their tents.
1Ki 12:17 But as for the people of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam became king over them.
1Ki 12:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced laborers, but all Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam fled quickly in his chariot to Jerusalem.
1Ki 12:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the House of David to this day.
1Ki 12:20 It happened that when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent, called him to their assembly, and made him king over all Israel. There was no one who followed the family of David, except only the tribe of Judah.
1Ki 12:21 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin; there were 180,000 chosen men who were soldiers, to fight against the house of Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon.
1Ki 12:22 But the word of the Almighty came to Shemaiah (Shemayah), the man of the Almighty,
1Ki 12:23 “Speak to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,
1Ki 12:24 ‘Yehowah commands this: You must not attack or fight against your brothers, the people of Israel. Each man must return to his home, for this thing has been made to happen by me.’” So they listened to the Word of Yehowah, turned back, and went their way, and they obeyed his word.
1Ki 12:25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. He went out from there and built Penuel.
1Ki 12:26 Jeroboam thought in his heart, “Now the kingdom will return to the House of David.
1Ki 12:27 If these people go up to offer sacrifices in the temple of Yehowah at Jerusalem, then the heart of these people will turn again to their master, to Rehoboam king of Judah. They will murder me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.”
1Ki 12:28 So King Jeroboam sought advice and made two calves of gold; he said to the people, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look, these are your deities, Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!”
1Ki 12:29 He set up one in Bethel and the other in Dan.

1Ki 12:30 So this act became a sin. The people went to one or the other, all the way to Dan.
1Ki 12:31 Jeroboam made houses on high places, and he also made priests from among all the people, who were not among the sons of Levi.
1Ki 12:32 Jeroboam ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar. He did so at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made, and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places he had made.
1Ki 12:33 Jeroboam went up to the altar that he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month he had planned in his own mind; he ordained a feast for the people of Israel and went up to the altar to burn incense.

1 Kings Chapter 13

1Ki 13:1 A man of the Almighty came out of Judah by the Word of Yehowah to Bethel. Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense.
1Ki 13:2 He cried against the altar by the Word of Yehowah: “Altar, altar! This is what Yehowah declares, ‘See, a son named Josiah (Yoshiyahu) will be born to the family of David, and on you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who now burn incense on you. On you they will burn human bones.’”
1Ki 13:3 Then the man of the Almighty gave a sign the same day, “This is the sign that Yehowah has spoken: ‘Look, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes on it will be poured out.’”
1Ki 13:4 When the king heard what the man of the Almighty said, that he had cried out against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam reached out with his hand from the altar, yelling, “Seize him!” Then the hand with which he had reached out against the man dried up, so that he could not draw it back to himself.
1Ki 13:5 The altar was also split apart and the ashes poured out from the altar, as described by the sign that the man of the Almighty had given by the Word of Yehowah.
1Ki 13:6 King Jeroboam answered and entreated the man of the Almighty, “Plead for the grace of Yehowah your Divine One and pray for me, so that my hand may be restored to me again.” So the man of the Almighty prayed to Yehowah, and the king’s hand was restored to him again, and it became as it was before.
1Ki 13:7 The king entreated the man of the Almighty, “Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.”
1Ki 13:8 The man of the Almighty replied to the king, “Even if you give me half of your possessions, I will not go with you, nor will I eat food or drink water in this place,
1Ki 13:9 because Yehowah commanded me by his word, ‘You will eat no bread nor drink water, nor return by the way that you came.’”
1Ki 13:10 So the man of the Almighty left another way and did not return to his home by the way that he had come to Bethel.
1Ki 13:11 Now there was an old prophet living in Bethel, and one of his sons came and told him all the things that the man of the Almighty had done that day in Bethel. His sons also told him the words that the man of the Almighty had spoken to the king.
1Ki 13:12 Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” Now his sons had seen the way the man of the Almighty from Judah had gone.
1Ki 13:13 So he ordered his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey and he rode off on it.

1Ki 13:14 The old prophet went after the man of the Almighty and found him sitting under an oak tree; and he asked him, “Are you the man of the Almighty who came from Judah?” He answered, “I am.”
1Ki 13:15 Then the old prophet invited him, “Come home with me and eat food.”
1Ki 13:16 The man of the Almighty answered, “I may not return with you nor go in with you, neither will I eat food nor drink water with you in this place,
1Ki 13:17 because it was commanded to me by the Word of Yehowah, ‘You will eat no food nor drink water there, nor return by the way that you came.’”
1Ki 13:18 So the old prophet said to him, “I also am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the Word of Yehowah, ‘Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat food and drink water.’” But he was lying to the man of the Almighty.
1Ki 13:19 So the man of the Almighty went back with the old prophet and ate food in his house and drank water.
1Ki 13:20 As they sat at the table, the Word of Yehowah came to the prophet who had brought him back,
1Ki 13:21 and he cried to the man of the Almighty who came from Judah, “Yehowah declares, ‘Because you have been disobedient to the Word of Yehowah and have not kept the command that Yehowah your Divine One gave you,
1Ki 13:22 but came back, have eaten food, and drunk water in the place about which Yehowah told you to eat no food and drink no water, your body will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers!’”
1Ki 13:23 After he had eaten food, and after he had drunk, the prophet saddled the donkey of the man of the Almighty, the man who had come back with him.
1Ki 13:24 When the man of the Almighty was gone, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his body was left on the road. Then the donkey stood by it, and the lion also stood by the body.
1Ki 13:25 When men passed by and saw the body left on the road, and the lion standing by the body, they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived.
1Ki 13:26 When the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard it, he said, “It is the man of the Almighty who disobeyed the Word of Yehowah. Therefore, Yehowah gave him to the lion, which tore him to pieces and killed him, just as the Word of Yehowah warned him.”
1Ki 13:27 So the old prophet ordered his sons, “Saddle my donkey,” and they saddled it.
1Ki 13:28 He went and found the body left in the road, the donkey, and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body nor attacked the donkey.
1Ki 13:29 The prophet took up the body of the man of the Almighty, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. He came to his hometown to mourn and to bury him.

1Ki 13:30 He laid the body in his own grave, and they mourned over him, “Woe, my brother!”
1Ki 13:31 Then after he had buried him, the old prophet spoke to his sons, “When I am dead, bury me in the tomb in which the man of the Almighty is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones.
1Ki 13:32 For the message he declared by the Word of Yehowah, against the altar in Bethel and against all the houses on the high places in the cities of Samaria, will certainly happen.”
1Ki 13:33 After this, Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but continued to appoint profane priests for the high places from among all sorts of people. Any who would serve he consecrated as a priest.
1Ki 13:34 This matter became sin to the family of Jeroboam and caused his family to be destroyed and to be exterminated from the face of the earth.

1 Kings Chapter 14

1Ki 14:1 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became incurably sick.
1Ki 14:2 Jeroboam said to his wife, “Please arise and disguise yourself, so you will not be recognized as my wife, and go to Shiloh, because Ahijah the prophet is there; he is the one who spoke about me, saying that I would become king over these people.
1Ki 14:3 Take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to Ahijah. He will tell you what will happen to the child.”
1Ki 14:4 Jeroboam’s wife did so; she left and went to Shiloh and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; he lost his sight because of old age.
1Ki 14:5 Yehowah said to Ahijah, “Look, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to seek advice from you regarding her son, for he is sick. Say such and such to her, because when she comes, she will act as if she were some other woman.”
1Ki 14:6 When Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be someone you are not? I have been sent to you with bad news.
1Ki 14:7 Go, tell Jeroboam that Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says, ‘I raised you from among the people to make you the leader over my people Israel.
1Ki 14:8 I tore the kingdom away from the family of David and gave it to you, yet you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commandments and followed me with all his heart, to do only what was right in my eyes.
1Ki 14:9 Instead, you have done evil, more than all who were before you. You have made false deities, and you have cast metal images to provoke me to anger, and have thrust me behind your back.
1Ki 14:10 Therefore, look, I will bring disaster on your family; I will cut off from you every male child in Israel, whether slave or free, and will completely remove your family, like someone who burns up dung, until it is gone.
1Ki 14:11 Anyone who belongs to your family who dies in the city will be eaten by dogs, and anyone who dies in the field will be eaten by the birds of the sky, for I, Yehowah, have declared it.’
1Ki 14:12 So arise, wife of Jeroboam, and go back to your home; when your feet enter the city, the child Abijah will die.
1Ki 14:13 All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only one from Jeroboam’s family who will go into a grave, because only in him, out of Jeroboam’s household, was anything good found in the sight of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
1Ki 14:14 Also, Yehowah will raise up a king of Israel who will cut off the family of Jeroboam on that day. Today is that day, right now.

1Ki 14:15 For Yehowah will attack Israel as a reed is shaken in the water, and he will root up Israel out of this good land that he gave to their ancestors. He will scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they have made their Asherah poles and provoked Yehowah to anger.
1Ki 14:16 He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, the sins that he has committed, and through which he has led Israel to sin."
1Ki 14:17 So Jeroboam's wife arose and left, and came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of her house, the child died.
1Ki 14:18 All Israel buried him and mourned for him, just as it was told to them by the Word of Yehowah, which he had spoken by his servant Ahijah the prophet.
1Ki 14:19 As for the other matters concerning Jeroboam, how he waged war, and how he reigned, see, they are written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel.
1Ki 14:20 Jeroboam reigned twenty-two years and then slept with his ancestors (c. 962 BC), and Nadab his son became king in his place.
1Ki 14:21 Now Rehoboam son of Solomon was reigning in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that Yehowah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his name. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.
1Ki 14:22 Judah did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah; they provoked him to jealousy with the sins that they committed, more than everything that their fathers had done.
1Ki 14:23 For they also built for themselves high places, stone pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree.
1Ki 14:24 There were also male cultic prostitutes in the land. They did the same despicable practices as the ethnicities that Yehowah had driven out before the people of Israel.
1Ki 14:25 It happened in the fifth year (c. 978 BC) of King Rehoboam that Shishak (Shoshenq I), king of Egypt, came up against Jerusalem.
1Ki 14:26 He took away the treasures in the temple of Yehowah and the treasures in the king's house. He took everything away; he also took all the shields of gold that Solomon had made.
1Ki 14:27 King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and entrusted them into the hands of the commanders of the guard, who guarded the doors to the king's house.
1Ki 14:28 It happened that, whenever the king entered the temple of Yehowah, the guards would carry them; then they would bring them back into the guardhouse.
1Ki 14:29 As for the other matters concerning Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
1Ki 14:30 There was constant warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

1Ki 14:31 So Rehoboam slept with his ancestors (c. 966 BC) and was buried with them in the City of David. His mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijah his son became king in his place.

1 Kings Chapter 15

1Ki 15:1 In the eighteenth year (c. 966 BC) of King Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijah began to reign over Judah.
1Ki 15:2 He ruled for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah. She was the daughter of Abishalom.
1Ki 15:3 He walked in all the sins that his father had committed before his time; his heart was not devoted to Yehowah his Divine One as the heart of David, his ancestor, had been.
1Ki 15:4 Nevertheless, for David's sake, Yehowah his Divine One gave him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up his son after him in order to strengthen Jerusalem.
1Ki 15:5 Yehowah did this, because David had done what was right in his eyes; for all the days of his life, he had not turned away from anything that he commanded him, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hethite (2 Sam. 12:9).
1Ki 15:6 Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of Abijah's life.
1Ki 15:7 As for the other matters of Abijah, all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah? There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
1Ki 15:8 Abijah slept with his ancestors (c. 964 BC), and they buried him in the City of David. Asa his son became king in his place.
1Ki 15:9 In the twentieth year (c. 964 BC) of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah.
1Ki 15:10 He ruled forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom.
1Ki 15:11 Asa did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, as David, his ancestor, had done.
1Ki 15:12 He expelled the male cultic prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols that his ancestors had made.
1Ki 15:13 He also removed Maacah, his grandmother, from being queen, because she had made a disgusting figure out of an Asherah pole. Asa cut down the disgusting figure and burned it at the Kidron Valley.
1Ki 15:14 But the high places were not taken away. Nevertheless, Asa's heart was completely devoted to Yehowah all his days.
1Ki 15:15 He brought into the temple of Yehowah the things that were set apart by his father, and his own things that had been set apart that were made of silver and gold, and vessels.
1Ki 15:16 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel, all their days.

1Ki 15:17 Baasha king of Israel, acted aggressively against Judah and built up Ramah, so that he might not allow anyone to leave or enter into the land of Asa king of Judah.
1Ki 15:18 Then Asa took all the silver and gold left in the storerooms in the temple of Yehowah and the storerooms of the king's palace. He put it into the hands of his servants and sent it to Ben Hadad son of Tabrimmon son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who lived in Damascus. He said,
1Ki 15:19 "Let there be a covenant between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent to you a gift of silver and gold. Break your covenant with Baasha king of Israel, so that he may leave me alone."
1Ki 15:20 Ben Hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armed forces, and they attacked the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah, and all Chinnereth, together with all the land of Naphtali.
1Ki 15:21 It came about that when Baasha heard this, he stopped building up Ramah and went back to Tirzah.
1Ki 15:22 Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah. No one was exempted. They carried away the stones and timbers of Ramah with which Baasha had been building up the city. Then King Asa used that building material to build up Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah.
1Ki 15:23 As for the other matters of Asa, all his might, all that he did, and the cities he built, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah? But during his old age he was diseased in his feet.
1Ki 15:24 Then Asa slept with his ancestors (c. 923 BC) and was buried with them in the City of David his father. Jehoshaphat (Yehoshaphat) his son became king in his place.
1Ki 15:25 Nadab son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year (c. 962 BC) of Asa king of Judah; he reigned over Israel two years.
1Ki 15:26 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah and walked in the way of his father, and in his own sin, by which he led Israel to sin.
1Ki 15:27 Baasha son of Ahijah, of the family of Issachar, conspired against Nadab; Baasha killed him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.
1Ki 15:28 In the third year (c. 961 BC) of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed Nadab and became king in his place.
1Ki 15:29 As soon as he was king, Baasha killed all the family of Jeroboam. He left none of Jeroboam's descendants breathing; in this way, he destroyed his royal line, just as Yehowah had spoken by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite, 1Ki 15:30 for the sins of Jeroboam which he committed, and by which he led Israel to sin, because he provoked Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, to anger.

1Ki 15:31 As for the other matters concerning Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 15:32 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
1Ki 15:33 In the third year (c. 961 BC) of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah and he reigned twenty-four years.
1Ki 15:34 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin by which he led Israel to sin.

1 Kings Chapter 16

1Ki 16:1 The Word of Yehowah came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha,
1Ki 16:2 “Although I exalted you out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel, you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have made my people Israel to sin, so as to provoke me to anger with their sins.
1Ki 16:3 See, I will completely sweep away Baasha and his family, and I will make your family like the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat.
1Ki 16:4 The dogs will eat anyone belonging to Baasha who dies in the city, and the birds of the sky will eat anyone who dies in the fields.”
1Ki 16:5 As for the other matters concerning Baasha, what he did, and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:6 Baasha slept with his ancestors (c. 938 BC) and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his son became king in his place.
1Ki 16:7 So by the prophet Jehu son of Hanani, the Word of Yehowah came against Baasha and his family, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of Yehowah, so as to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, like the family of Jeroboam, and also because he had killed all of Jeroboam’s family.
1Ki 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year (c. 938 BC) of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah; he reigned two years.
1Ki 16:9 His servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now Elah was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah.
1Ki 16:10 Zimri went in, attacked him and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year (c. 937 BC) of Asa king of Judah, and became king in his place.
1Ki 16:11 When Zimri began to reign and was seated on his throne, he killed all the family of Baasha. He did not leave alive a single male belonging to Baasha’s relatives or friends.
1Ki 16:12 So Zimri destroyed all the family of Baasha, according to the Word of Yehowah, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,
1Ki 16:13 for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son that they committed, and by which they had led Israel to sin, so that they provoked Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, to anger with their idols.
1Ki 16:14 As for the other matters concerning Elah, all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year (c. 937 BC) of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned only for seven days in Tirzah. Now the military force was camped by Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.
1Ki 16:16 The military force camped there heard it said, “Zimri has plotted and has killed the king.” So that day in the camp, all Israel declared Omri, the commander of the military force, king over Israel.

1Ki 16:17 Omri went up from Gibbethon and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.
1Ki 16:18 So when Zimri saw that the city had been taken, he went into the fortress attached to the king's palace and set fire to the building over him; in this way, he died in the flames.
1Ki 16:19 This was for the sins that he had committed in doing what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, by walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in the sin that he had committed, so as to lead Israel to sin.
1Ki 16:20 As for the other matters concerning Zimri, and the treason that he carried out, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts. Half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri.
1Ki 16:22 But the people who followed Omri were stronger than the people who followed Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri became king.
1Ki 16:23 Omri began to reign over Israel in the thirty-first year (c. 933 BC) of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned twelve years. He reigned from Tirzah for six years.
1Ki 16:24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for 6,000-weight silver-currency. He built a city on the hill and called the name of the city Samaria (modern Sabasṭiyah), after the name of Shemer, the past owner of the hill.
1Ki 16:25 Omri did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah and acted more wickedly than all who had been before him.
1Ki 16:26 For he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in his sins by which he led Israel to sin, to provoke Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, to be angry with their worthless idols.
1Ki 16:27 As for the other matters concerning Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 16:28 So Omri slept with his ancestors (c. 927 BC) and was buried in Samaria, and Ahab his son became king in his place.
1Ki 16:29 In the thirty-eighth year (c. 926 BC) of Asa king of Judah, Ahab son of Omri began to reign over Israel. Ahab son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.
1Ki 16:30 Ahab son of Omri did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, more than all those who were before him.
1Ki 16:31 It was to Ahab a trivial thing to walk in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, so he took as his wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians; he went and worshiped Baal and bowed down to him.
1Ki 16:32 He built an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

1Ki 16:33 Ahab made an Asherah pole. Ahab did even more to provoke Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who had been before him.
1Ki 16:34 During Ahab's rule, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. Hiel laid the foundation of the city at the cost of the life of Abiram, his firstborn son; and Segub, his youngest son, lost his life while he was building the gates of the city, in keeping with the Word of Yehowah which he spoke by Joshua son of Nun.

1 Kings Chapter 17

1Ki 17:1 Elijah (Eliyah) the Tishbite, a resident of Gilead, said to Ahab, “As Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there will not be dew or rain these years unless I say so” (c. 918 BC).
1Ki 17:2 The Word of Yehowah came to Elijah,
1Ki 17:3 “Leave from here and go eastward; hide yourself by the brook Cherith, east of the Jordan River.
1Ki 17:4 It will happen that you will drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.”
1Ki 17:5 So Elijah went and did as the Word of Yehowah commanded. He went to live by the brook Cherith, east of the Jordan River.
1Ki 17:6 The ravens brought him bread and meat at dawn and bread and meat at dusk, and he drank from the brook.
1Ki 17:7 But after awhile the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.
1Ki 17:8 The Word of Yehowah came to him,
1Ki 17:9 “Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there. Look, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you.”
1Ki 17:10 So he arose and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the gate of the city, a widow was there gathering sticks. So he called to her, “Please bring me a little water in a jar, so that I may drink!”
1Ki 17:11 As she was going to get water he called to her, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand!”
1Ki 17:12 She replied, “As Yehowah your Divine One lives, I do not have any bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug. See, I am gathering two sticks, so I may go in and cook it for me and my son, that we may eat it and die.”
1Ki 17:13 Elijah commanded her, “Do not fear. Go and do as you have said, but make me a little bread first and bring it out to me. Then afterward make some for you and for your son.
1Ki 17:14 For Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares, ‘The jar of meal will not empty, neither will the jug of oil stop flowing, until the day that Yehowah sends rain on the earth.”
1Ki 17:15 So she did as Elijah had told her. She and Elijah, along with her household, ate for many days.
1Ki 17:16 The jar of meal did not empty, neither did the jug of oil stop flowing, just as the Word of Yehowah had said, as he had spoken by Elijah.
1Ki 17:17 After these things the woman’s son, the woman who owned the house, fell sick. His sickness was so severe that there was no more breath left in him.

1Ki 17:18 So his mother asked Elijah, “What do you have against me, man of the Almighty? Have you come to me to remind me of my sin and to kill my son?”
1Ki 17:19 Then Elijah answered her, “Give me your son.” He took the boy from her arms and carried him up into the room where he was staying, and he laid the boy on his own bed.
1Ki 17:20 He cried to Yehowah and asked, “Yehowah my Divine One, have you also brought disaster on the widow with whom I am staying, by killing her son?”
1Ki 17:21 Then Elijah stretched himself on the child three times; he cried out to Yehowah, “Yehowah my Divine One, I beg you, please let this child’s life return to him!”
1Ki 17:22 Yehowah listened to the voice of Elijah; the life of the child returned to him, and he revived.
1Ki 17:23 Elijah took the child and brought him out of his room down into the house; he handed the boy to his mother and announced, “See, your son is alive!”
1Ki 17:24 The woman responded to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of the Almighty, and that the Word of Yehowah in your mouth is true.”

1 Kings Chapter 18

1Ki 18:1 So after many days, the Word of Yehowah came to Elijah, in the third year of the drought, “Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land.”
1Ki 18:2 Elijah went to show himself to Ahab; now the famine was severe in Samaria.
1Ki 18:3 Ahab called Obadiah (Obadyah), who was in charge of the palace. Now Obadiah heartily honored Yehowah, 1Ki 18:4 for when Jezebel was killing the prophets of Yehowah, Obadiah took one hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave and fed them with bread and water.
1Ki 18:5 Ahab ordered Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the water springs and brooks. Perhaps we will find grass and save the horses and mules alive, so that we will not lose all the animals.”
1Ki 18:6 So they divided the land between them to pass through it and look for water. Ahab went one way by himself and Obadiah went another way.
1Ki 18:7 As Obadiah was on the road, Elijah unexpectedly met him. Obadiah recognized him and lay facedown on the ground. He asked, “Is it you, my master Elijah?”
1Ki 18:8 Elijah answered him, “It is I. Go tell your master, ‘Look, Elijah is here.’”
1Ki 18:9 Obadiah replied, “How have I sinned, that you would give your servant into the hand of Ahab, for him to kill me?
1Ki 18:10 As Yehowah your Divine One lives, there is no ethnicity or kingdom where my master has not sent men to find you. Whenever an ethnicity or kingdom says, ‘Elijah is not here,’ Ahab makes them take an oath swearing that they could not find you.
1Ki 18:11 Yet now you say, ‘Go, tell your master that Elijah is here.’
1Ki 18:12 As soon as I am gone from you, the Ruach of Yehowah will carry you some place I do not know. Then when I go and tell Ahab, and when he cannot find you, he will murder me. Yet I, your servant, have worshiped Yehowah from my youth.
1Ki 18:13 Has it not been told to you, my master, what I did when Jezebel murdered the prophets of Yehowah, how I hid one hundred of the prophets of Yehowah by fifties in a cave and fed them with bread and water?
1Ki 18:14 Now you say to me, ‘Go and tell your master that Elijah is here,’ so that he will murder me.”
1Ki 18:15 Then Elijah responded, “As Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to Ahab today.”

1Ki 18:16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him what Elijah said. Then the king went to meet Elijah.
1Ki 18:17 When Ahab saw Elijah, he accused him, “Is it you? You are the one who brings trouble to Israel!”
1Ki 18:18 Elijah answered, “I have not brought trouble to Israel, but you and your father’s family are the ones who have caused trouble by abandoning the commandments of Yehowah and by following the Baals.
1Ki 18:19 Now then, send word and gather to me all Israel at Mount Carmel, along with the 450 prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel’s table.”
1Ki 18:20 So Ahab sent word to all the people of Israel and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel.
1Ki 18:21 Elijah came near to all the people and said, “How long will you keep changing your mind? If Yehowah is the Almighty, follow him. But if Baal, then follow him.” Yet the people did not answer him a word.
1Ki 18:22 Then Elijah said to the people, “I, I alone, am left as a prophet of Yehowah, but Baal’s prophets are 450 men.
1Ki 18:23 So let them give us two bulls. Let them choose one bull for themselves and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood but put no fire under it. Then I will prepare the other bull, lay it on the wood, and put no fire under it.
1Ki 18:24 Then you will call on the name of your deity, and I will call on the name of Yehowah, and the Mighty One who answers by fire, then let him be the Almighty.” So all the people answered, “This is good!”
1Ki 18:25 So Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many people. Then call on the name of your deity but put no fire under the bull.”
1Ki 18:26 They took the bull that was given to them and prepared it, and they called on the name of Baal from dawn until noon, shouting, “Baal, hear us!” But there was no voice, nor anyone who answered. They danced around the altar they had made.
1Ki 18:27 At noon Elijah mocked them, “Shout out loudly! He is a deity! Perhaps he is thinking, or is relieving himself, or he is traveling on a journey, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened.”
1Ki 18:28 So they shouted more loudly, and they cut themselves, as they usually did, with swords and spears, until their blood flowed out over themselves.
1Ki 18:29 Midday passed, and they were still raving until the time of offering of the evening sacrifice, but there was no voice or anyone to answer; there was no one who paid any attention to their pleadings.
1Ki 18:30 Then Elijah ordered all the people, “Come near to me,” and all the people came near to him. Then he repaired the altar of Yehowah that was lying in ruin.

1Ki 18:31 Elijah took twelve stones, each stone representing one of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, it was to Jacob that the Word of Yehowah had come, “Your name will be Israel.”
1Ki 18:32 With the stones he built an altar in the name of Yehowah, and he dug a trench around the altar large enough to contain 1.54 kiloliters of seeds.
1Ki 18:33 He arranged the wood for a fire, cut the bull in pieces, and laid the pieces of the bull on the wood. He ordered, “Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.”
1Ki 18:34 Then he ordered, “Do it a second time,” and they did it a second time. Once more he ordered, “Do it a third time,” and they did it a third time.
1Ki 18:35 The water ran around the altar and filled the trench.
1Ki 18:36 It happened at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are the Almighty in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word.
1Ki 18:37 Hear me, Yehowah, hear me, that these people may know that you are Yehowah Almighty, and that you have turned their heart back again to yourself.”
1Ki 18:38 Then the fire of Yehowah fell and consumed the burnt offering, as well as the wood, the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.
1Ki 18:39 When all the people saw this, they lay facedown on the ground and shouted, “Yehowah, he is the Almighty! Yehowah, he is the Almighty!”
1Ki 18:40 So Elijah ordered them, “Take the prophets of Baal. Do not let one of them escape.” So they took them, and Elijah brought the prophets of Baal down to the brook Kishon and executed them there (Jezreel Plain).
1Ki 18:41 Elijah ordered Ahab, “Get up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of much rain.”
1Ki 18:42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Then Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, bowed himself down on the earth and put his face between his knees.
1Ki 18:43 He said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.” His servant went up and looked, and reported, “There is nothing.” So Elijah ordered, “Go again, seven times.”
1Ki 18:44 At the seventh time, the servant reported, “Look, there is a cloud going up from the sea, as small as a man’s hand.” Elijah replied, “Go up and say to Ahab, ‘Make ready your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.’”
1Ki 18:45 It happened that in a little while the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. Ahab rode and went to Jezreel,
1Ki 18:46 but the hand of Yehowah was on Elijah. He tucked his robe in his belt and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

1 Kings Chapter 19

1Ki 19:1 Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.
1Ki 19:2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, “So may the deities do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of those dead prophets by tomorrow about this time.”
1Ki 19:3 When Elijah heard that, he arose and fled for his life and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.
1Ki 19:4 But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree. He requested for himself that he might die, “It is enough, now, Yehowah; take away my life, for I am no better than my dead ancestors.”
1Ki 19:5 So he lay down and slept under a broom tree. Suddenly an angel touched him and ordered him, “Get up and eat.”
1Ki 19:6 Elijah looked, and near his head was bread that had been baked on coals and a jug of water. So he ate, drank, and then lay down again.
1Ki 19:7 The angel of Yehowah came again a second time and touched him and said, “Get up and eat, because the journey will be too much for you.”
1Ki 19:8 So he arose, ate, and drank, and he traveled in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of the Almighty.
1Ki 19:9 He went to a cave there and stayed in it. Then the Word of Yehowah came to him and asked him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”
1Ki 19:10 Elijah answered, “I have been extremely zealous for Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, for the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant, destroyed your altars, and murdered your prophets with the sword. Now I, only I, am left, and they are also trying to take my life.”
1Ki 19:11 Yehowah ordered, “Go out and stand on the mountain before Yehowah.” Then Yehowah passed by, and an intensely violent wind struck the mountains and broke rocks into pieces before Yehowah, but Yehowah was not in the wind. Then after the wind, an earthquake came, but Yehowah was not in the earthquake.
1Ki 19:12 Then after the earthquake, a fire came, but Yehowah was not in the fire. Then after the fire, a still small voice came.
1Ki 19:13 When Elijah heard the voice, he wrapped his face in his cloak, went out, and stood at the entrance to the cave. Then a voice came to him that asked, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”
1Ki 19:14 Elijah answered, “I have been extremely zealous for Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, because the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant, destroyed your altars, and murdered your prophets with the sword. Now I, only I, am left, and they are also trying to take my life."

1Ki 19:15 Then Yehowah commanded him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and when you arrive you will anoint Hazael to be king over Aram,
1Ki 19:16 and you will anoint Jehu son of Nimshi to be king over Israel, and you will anoint Elisha (Eli'Shuah) son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah to be prophet in your place.
1Ki 19:17 It will happen that Jehu will kill whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, and that Elisha will kill whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu.
1Ki 19:18 But I will leave for myself seven thousand people in Israel, whose knees have not bent down to Baal, and whose mouths have not kissed him."
1Ki 19:19 So Elijah left from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he himself was plowing with the twelfth yoke. Elijah walked over to Elisha and draped his cloak on him.
1Ki 19:20 Then Elisha left the oxen and ran after Elijah; he entreated, "Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." Then Elijah replied to him, "Go back, but think about what I have done to you."
1Ki 19:21 So Elisha returned from Elijah and took the yoke of oxen, killed the animals, and cooked the meat with the wood from the ox yoke. Then he gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, went after Elijah, and served him.

1 Kings Chapter 20

1Ki 20:1 Ben Hadad king of Aram gathered all his military force together. There were thirty-two lesser kings with him, and cavalry and chariots. He went up, besieged Samaria and fought against it.
1Ki 20:2 He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel and said to him, "Ben Hadad says this:
1Ki 20:3 'Your silver and your gold are mine. Also your wives and children, the best ones, are now mine.'"
1Ki 20:4 The king of Israel answered, "It is as you say, my master, king. I and all that I have are yours."
1Ki 20:5 The messengers came again and said, "Ben Hadad says this, 'I sent word to you saying that you must hand over to me your silver, your gold, your wives, and your children.
1Ki 20:6 But I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they will search your house and your servants' houses. They will seize with their own hands and take away whatever pleases their eyes.'"
1Ki 20:7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land together and said, "Please take note and see how this man seeks trouble. He has sent word to me in order to take my wives, children, and silver and gold, and I have not refused him."
1Ki 20:8 All the elders and all the people said to Ahab, "Do not listen to him or consent to his demands."
1Ki 20:9 So Ahab said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, "Tell my master the king, 'I agree to everything that you sent your servant to do the first time, but I cannot accept this second demand.'" So the messengers left and took this response to Ben Hadad.
1Ki 20:10 Then Ben Hadad sent his reply to Ahab, "May the deities do so to me, and more also, if even the ashes of Samaria will be enough for all the people who follow me to have a handful each."
1Ki 20:11 The king of Israel answered, "Tell Ben Hadad, 'No one who is just putting on his armor, should boast as if he were taking it off.'"
1Ki 20:12 Ben Hadad heard this message as he was drinking, he and the kings under him who were in their tents. Ben Hadad commanded his men, "Line yourselves up in position for battle." So they prepared themselves in position of battle to attack the city.
1Ki 20:13 Then behold, a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and said, "Yehowah declares, 'Have you seen this great military force? Look, I will place it into your hand today, and you will know that I am Yehowah.'"

1Ki 20:14 Ahab asked, “By whom?” Yehowah answered, “By the young officers who serve the governors of the districts.” Then Ahab asked, “Who will begin the battle?” Yehowah answered, “You.”
1Ki 20:15 Then Ahab mustered the young officers who served the governors of the districts. They numbered 232. After them, he mustered all the soldiers, all the military force of Israel; seven thousand in number.
1Ki 20:16 They went out at noon. Ben Hadad had been drinking himself drunk in his tent, he and the thirty-two lesser kings who were supporting him.
1Ki 20:17 The young officers who served the governors of the districts went forward first. Then Ben Hadad was informed by scouts that he had sent out, “Men are coming out from Samaria.”
1Ki 20:18 Ben Hadad ordered, “Whether they have come out for peace or war, take them alive.”
1Ki 20:19 So the young officers who served the governors of the districts went out of the city, and the military force followed them.
1Ki 20:20 They each killed his enemy, and the Arameans fled. Israel pursued them. Ben Hadad, the king of Aram, escaped on a horse along with some cavalry.
1Ki 20:21 Then the king of Israel went out and attacked the cavalry and chariots, and killed the Arameans in a great slaughter.
1Ki 20:22 So the prophet came to the king of Israel and prophesied to him, “Go, strengthen yourself, and understand and plan what you are doing, because at the beginning of the new year, the king of Aram will come up against you again.”
1Ki 20:23 The servants of the king of Aram said to him, “Their Deity is a Deity of the hills. That is why they were stronger than we were. But now let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than they are.
1Ki 20:24 So you must do this: Remove all the kings from their positions of authority and replace them with military commanders.
1Ki 20:25 Raise up a military force like the military force you lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot, so we can fight them in the plain. Then surely we will be stronger than they are.” So Ben Hadad listened to their advice and did what they advised.
1Ki 20:26 After the beginning of the new year, Ben Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.
1Ki 20:27 The people of Israel were mustered and supplied to fight against them. The people of Israel camped before them like two little flocks of goats, but the Arameans filled the countryside.
1Ki 20:28 Then a man of the Almighty came near and prophesied to the king of Israel, “Yehowah declares: ‘Because the Arameans have said that Yehowah is a Deity of the hills, but he is not a Deity of the valleys, I will place this great military force into your hand, and you will know that I am Yehowah.’”

1Ki 20:29 So the armed forces camped opposite each other for seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle started. The people of Israel killed 100,000 Aramean soldiers in one day.
1Ki 20:30 The rest fled to Aphek, into the city, and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben Hadad fled and went into the city, into an inner room.
1Ki 20:31 Ben Hadad’s servants advised him, “Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life.”
1Ki 20:32 So they put sackcloth on their waists and ropes around their heads, and then went to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben Hadad begged, ‘Please let me live!’” Ahab replied, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”
1Ki 20:33 Now the men were listening for any sign from Ahab, so they quickly answered him, “Yes, your brother Ben Hadad is alive.” Then Ahab ordered, “Go and bring him.” Then Ben Hadad came to him, and Ahab had him come up into his chariot.
1Ki 20:34 Ben Hadad said to Ahab, “I will restore to you the cities that my father took from your father, and you may make markets for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.” Ahab replied, “I will let you go with this covenant.” So Ahab made a covenant with him and then let him go.
1Ki 20:35 A certain man, one of the sons of the prophets, said to one of his fellow prophets by the Word of Yehowah, “Please hit me.” But the man refused to hit him.
1Ki 20:36 Then the prophet said to his fellow prophet, “Because you have not obeyed the voice of Yehowah, as soon as you leave me, a lion will kill you.” As soon as that man had left him, a lion came upon him and killed him.
1Ki 20:37 Then the prophet found another man and requested, “Please hit me.” So the man hit him and wounded him.
1Ki 20:38 Then the prophet left and waited for the king by the road; he had disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.
1Ki 20:39 As the king passed by, the prophet cried out to the king, “Your servant went out into the heat of the battle, and a soldier stopped and brought an enemy to me and ordered, ‘Watch this man! If by any means he goes missing, then you will be executed, or else you will pay 3,000-weight silver-currency!’
1Ki 20:40 But because your servant was busy going here and there, the enemy soldier escaped.” Then the king of Israel said to him, “This is what your punishment will be, you yourself have decided it.”

1Ki 20:41 Then the prophet quickly removed the bandage from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized that he was one of the prophets.
1Ki 20:42 The prophet said to the king, “Yehowah declares, ‘Because you have let go from your hand the man whom I had sentenced to death, your life will take the place of his life and your people for his people.’”
1Ki 20:43 So the king of Israel went to his house resentful and angry, and arrived in Samaria.

1 Kings Chapter 21

1Ki 21:1 Now some time later, Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, near the palace of Ahab, king of Samaria.
1Ki 21:2 Ahab spoke to Naboth, “Give me your vineyard, so I can have it as a vegetable garden, because it is near my house. In exchange, I will give you a better vineyard, or if you prefer, I will pay you its value in money.”
1Ki 21:3 Naboth replied to Ahab, “May Yehowah forbid that I should give the inheritance of my ancestors to you.”
1Ki 21:4 So Ahab went into his palace resentful and angry, because of the answer Naboth the Jezreelite gave him, when he said, “I will not give you the inheritance of my ancestors.” He lay down on his bed, turned away his face, and refused to eat any food.
1Ki 21:5 Jezebel his wife came to him and asked him, “Why is your heart so sad, so that you eat no food?”
1Ki 21:6 He answered her, “I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, ‘Give me your vineyard for money, or if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard to be yours.’ Then he answered me, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’”
1Ki 21:7 So Jezebel his wife replied to him, “Do you not still rule the kingdom of Israel? Get up and eat; let your heart be happy. I will obtain for you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”
1Ki 21:8 So Jezebel wrote letters in Ahab’s name, sealed them with his seal, and sent them to the elders and to the wealthy who sat with him in meetings, and who lived near Naboth.
1Ki 21:9 She wrote in the letters, “Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth above the people.
1Ki 21:10 Also place two dishonest men with him and let them testify against him, ‘You cursed the Almighty and the king.’ Then take him out and execute him by stoning.”
1Ki 21:11 So the men of his city, the elders and the wealthy who lived in Naboth’s city, did as Jezebel had described to them, as was written in the letters that she had sent to them.
1Ki 21:13 The two dishonest men came in and sat before Naboth; they testified against Naboth in the presence of the people, “Naboth cursed both the Almighty and the king.” Then they carried him out of the city and stoned him to death.
1Ki 21:14 Then the elders sent word to Jezebel, “Naboth has been executed by stoning.”
1Ki 21:15 So when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, she said to Ahab, “Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money, because Naboth is not alive but dead."

1Ki 21:16 When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite and take possession of it.
1Ki 21:17 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Elijah the Tishbite,
1Ki 21:18 "Get up and go meet Ahab king of Israel, who lives in Samaria. He is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to take possession of it.
1Ki 21:19 You must speak to him and say that Yehowah asks, 'Have you murdered and also taken possession?' Then you will tell him that Yehowah declares, 'In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick your blood, yes, your blood.'"
1Ki 21:20 Ahab asked Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?" Elijah answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do what is evil in the sight of Yehowah.
1Ki 21:21 Yehowah declares this to you: 'See, I will bring disaster on you and will completely consume and cut off from you every male child, slave, and free man in Israel.
1Ki 21:22 I will make your family like the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the family of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked me to anger and have led Israel to sin.'
1Ki 21:23 Yehowah has also spoken concerning Jezebel, 'The dogs will eat Jezebel beside the wall of Jezreel.'
1Ki 21:24 Anyone who belongs to Ahab and dies in the city, the dogs will eat; and the birds of the sky will eat anyone who dies in the field."
1Ki 21:25 There was no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, whom Jezebel his wife incited to sin.
1Ki 21:26 Ahab did disgusting deeds for the idols he followed, just as all that the Amorites had done, those whom Yehowah had removed before the people of Israel.
1Ki 21:27 When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put sackcloth on his body, fasted, lay in sackcloth, and walked lightly.
1Ki 21:28 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Elijah the Tishbite,
1Ki 21:29 "Do you see how Ahab humbles himself before me? Because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the coming disaster in his days; it is in his son's day that I will bring disaster on his family."

1 Kings Chapter 22

1Ki 22:1 Three years passed without war between Aram and Israel.
1Ki 22:2 Then it came about that in the third year, Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to the king of Israel.
1Ki 22:3 Now the king of Israel had asked his servants, “Do you know that Ramoth Gilead is ours, but that we are doing nothing to take it from the hand of the king of Aram?”
1Ki 22:4 So he asked Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to war at Ramoth Gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, “I am like you, my people are like your people, and my horses are like your horses.”
1Ki 22:5 Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please seek direction from the Word of Yehowah for what you should do first.”
1Ki 22:6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men and asked them, “Should I go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or should I not?” They answered, “Attack, for the Lord will give it into the hand of the king.”
1Ki 22:7 But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there not here yet another prophet of Yehowah from whom we might seek advice?”
1Ki 22:8 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, “There is still one man by whom we may seek advice from Yehowah to help, Micaiah (Mikayah) son of Imlah, but I hate him, because he does not prophesy anything good about me, but only hardships.” But Jehoshaphat replied, “May the king not say that.”
1Ki 22:9 Then the king of Israel called an officer and ordered, “Bring Micaiah son of Imlah right away.”
1Ki 22:10 Now Ahab the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on a throne, clothed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them.
1Ki 22:11 Zedekiah (Tsidqiyah) son of Kenaanah made himself horns of iron and prophesied, “Yehowah says this: ‘With these you will push the Arameans, until they are consumed.’”
1Ki 22:12 Then all the prophets prophesied the same, “Attack Ramoth Gilead and win, for Yehowah has given it into the hand of the king.”
1Ki 22:13 The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, “Now look, the words of the prophets declare good things to the king with one mouth. Please let your word be like one of them and say good things.”
1Ki 22:14 Micaiah replied, “As Yehowah lives, it is what Yehowah says to me that I will speak.”
1Ki 22:15 When he came to the king, the king asked him, “Micaiah, should we go to Ramoth Gilead for battle, or not?” Micaiah answered him, “Attack and win. Yehowah will give it into the hand of the king.”

1Ki 22:16 Then the king demanded of him, “How many times must I require you to swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Yehowah?”
1Ki 22:17 So Micaiah prophesied, “I saw all Israel scattered to the mountains, like sheep who have no shepherd, and Yehowah ordered, ‘These have no master. Let every man return to his house in peace.’”
1Ki 22:18 So the king of Israel complained to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but only disaster?”
1Ki 22:19 Then Micaiah said, “Therefore, hear the Word of Yehowah: I saw Yehowah sitting on his throne, and all the armed forces of Heaven were standing by him on his right hand and on his left.
1Ki 22:20 Yehowah asked, ‘Who will entice Ahab, so that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ One of them said this, and another one said that.
1Ki 22:21 Then a spirit came forward, stood before Yehowah and answered, ‘I will entice him.’ Yehowah asked him, ‘How?’
1Ki 22:22 The spirit answered, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Yehowah replied, ‘You will entice him, and you will also be successful. Go now and do so.’
1Ki 22:23 Now see, Yehowah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and Yehowah has decreed disaster for you.”
1Ki 22:24 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah came up, slapped Micaiah on the cheek, and asked, “Which way did the Ruach of Yehowah take to go from me to speak to you?”
1Ki 22:25 Micaiah answered, “Look, you will know that on that day, when you run into some inner room to hide.”
1Ki 22:26 The king of Israel ordered his servant, “Seize Micaiah and take him to Amon, the commander of the fortress, and to Joash, my son.
1Ki 22:27 Speak to him, ‘The king commands, “Put this man in prison and feed him with only a little bread and only a little water, until I come safely.”’”
1Ki 22:28 Then Micaiah said, “If you return safely, then Yehowah has not spoken by me.” Then he added, “Listen to this all you people!”
1Ki 22:29 So Ahab, the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth Gilead.
1Ki 22:30 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.
1Ki 22:31 Now the king of Aram had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, “Do not attack low-ranking or high-ranking soldiers. Instead, attack only the king of Israel.”
1Ki 22:32 It came about that when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they exclaimed, “Surely that is the king of Israel!” They turned to attack him, so Jehoshaphat cried out!

1Ki 22:33 It came about that when the commanders of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.
1Ki 22:34 But an archer drew his bow at random and shot the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. Then Ahab ordered the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and carry me out of the battle, for I am badly wounded.”
1Ki 22:35 The battle grew worse that day, and the king was held up in his chariot facing the Arameans. He died at dusk (Battle of Qarqar, c. 905 BC). The blood ran out from his wound into the bottom of the chariot.
1Ki 22:36 Then about the time the sun was going down, a cry went up throughout the military force, shouting, “Every man should go back to his city; and every man should go back to his region!”
1Ki 22:37 So King Ahab died (c. 905 BC) and was brought to Samaria, and they buried him in Samaria.
1Ki 22:38 They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, this was where the prostitutes bathed, just as the Word of Yehowah had declared.
1Ki 22:39 As for the other matters concerning Ahab, all that he did, the ivory house that he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
1Ki 22:40 So Ahab slept with his ancestors, and Ahaziah (Achazyah) his son became king in his place.
1Ki 22:41 Then Jehoshaphat son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year (c. 923 BC) of Ahab king of Israel.
1Ki 22:42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years. His mother’s name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.
1Ki 22:43 He walked in the ways of Asa, his father; he did not turn away from them; he did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah. Yet the high places were not taken away. The people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.
1Ki 22:44 Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.
1Ki 22:45 As for the other matters concerning Jehoshaphat, and the might that he showed, and how he waged war, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
1Ki 22:46 He removed from the land the rest of the cultic prostitutes who had remained in the days of his father Asa.
1Ki 22:47 There was no king in Edom, but a deputy ruled there.
1Ki 22:48 Jehoshaphat built oceangoing ships; they were to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go, because the ships were wrecked at Ezion Geber (1 Kings 9:26–28).

1Ki 22:49 Then Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Let my servants sail with your servants in the ships.” But Jehoshaphat would not allow it.
1Ki 22:50 Jehoshaphat slept with his ancestors (c. 898 BC) and was buried with them in the City of David, his ancestor; Jehoram (Yehoram) his son became king in his place.
1Ki 22:51 Ahaziah son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year (c. 906 BC) of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel.
1Ki 22:52 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah and walked in the way of his father, in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, by which he led Israel to sin.
1Ki 22:53 He served Baal and worshiped him, and so he provoked Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, to anger, just as his father had done.

Book of 2nd Kings

2 Kings Chapter 1

2Ki 1:1 Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.
2Ki 1:2 Then Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper chamber in Samaria and was injured. So he sent for messengers and ordered them, “Go, ask Baal Zebub, the deity of Ekron, whether I will recover from this injury.”
2Ki 1:3 But the angel of Yehowah said to Elijah the Tishbite, “Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and ask them, ‘Is it because there is no Almighty in Israel that you are going to consult with Baal Zebub, the deity of Ekron?
2Ki 1:4 Therefore, Yehowah declares, “You will not come down from the bed to where you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.”’” Then Elijah left.
2Ki 1:5 When the messengers returned to Ahaziah, he asked them, “Why have you returned?”
2Ki 1:6 They answered him, “A man came to meet us who said to us, ‘Go back to the king who sent you and say to him, “Yehowah declares this: ‘Is it because there is no Almighty in Israel that you sent men to consult with Baal Zebub, the deity of Ekron? Therefore, you will not come down from the bed to which you have gone up; instead, you will certainly die.’”’”’
2Ki 1:7 Ahaziah asked his messengers, “What sort of man was he, the one who came up to meet you and said these words to you?”
2Ki 1:8 They answered him, “He wore a garment made of hair and had a leather belt wrapped around his waist.” So the king replied, “That is Elijah the Tishbite.”
2Ki 1:9 Then the king sent a captain with fifty soldiers to Elijah. The captain went up to Elijah where he was sitting on the top of a hill. The captain spoke to him, “You, man of the Almighty, the king has ordered, ‘Come down.’”
2Ki 1:10 Elijah answered the captain, “Since I am a man of the Almighty, let fire come down from Heaven and consume you and your fifty men.” Then fire came down from Heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.
2Ki 1:11 Again King Ahaziah sent to Elijah another captain with fifty soldiers. This captain also said to Elijah, “You, man of the Almighty, the king commands, ‘Come down quickly.’”
2Ki 1:12 Elijah answered them, “Since I am a man of the Almighty, let fire come down from Heaven and consume you and your fifty men.” Again, the fire of the Almighty came down from Heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

2Ki 1:13 Yet again, the king sent a third group of fifty warriors. This captain went up, fell on his knees before Elijah, and entreated him, “You, man of the Almighty, I ask you, let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight.
2Ki 1:14 Indeed, fire came down from Heaven and consumed the first two captains with their men, but now let my life be precious in your sight.”
2Ki 1:15 The angel of Yehowah ordered Elijah, “Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him.” So Elijah arose and went down with him to the king.
2Ki 1:16 Later Elijah said to Ahaziah, “This is what Yehowah declares, ‘You have sent messengers to consult with Baal Zebub, the deity of Ekron. Is it because there is no Almighty in Israel from whom you can ask for information? So now, you will not come down from the bed where you have gone up; you will certainly die.’”
2Ki 1:17 So King Ahaziah died according to the Word of Yehowah that Elijah had spoken. Joram began to reign in his place, in the second year (c. 899 BC) of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, because Ahaziah had no son.
2Ki 1:18 As for the other matters concerning Ahaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?

2 Kings Chapter 2

2Ki 2:1 So it came about, when Yehowah was going to take up Elijah by a whirlwind into Heaven, that Elijah left with Elisha from Gilgal.
2Ki 2:2 Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here, please, because Yehowah has sent me to Bethel.” Elisha replied, “As Yehowah lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel.
2Ki 2:3 The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came to Elisha and asked him, “Do you know that Yehowah will take away your master from you today?” Elisha replied, “Yes, I know it, but do not talk about it.”
2Ki 2:4 Elijah said to him, “Elisha, wait here, please, for Yehowah has sent me to Jericho.” Then Elisha replied, “As Yehowah lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went to Jericho.
2Ki 2:5 Then the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and asked him, “Do you know that Yehowah will take away your master from you today?” Elisha answered, “Yes, I know it, but do not talk about it.”
2Ki 2:6 Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here, please, for Yehowah has sent me to the Jordan River.” Elisha replied, “As Yehowah lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So the two went on.
2Ki 2:7 Later, fifty of the sons of the prophets stood opposite them at a distance, while the two stood by the Jordan River.
2Ki 2:8 Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up, and struck the water with it. The river divided on both sides, so that the two of them walked over on dry ground.
2Ki 2:9 It came about, after they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask me what I should do for you before I am taken from you.” Elisha entreated, “Please let a double portion of your spirit come on me.”
2Ki 2:10 Elijah answered, “You have asked for a difficult thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, this will happen for you, but if not, it will not happen.”
2Ki 2:11 As they still went on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared, which separated the two men from each other, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into Heaven.
2Ki 2:12 Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and their cavalry!” He saw Elijah no more, and he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces.
2Ki 2:13 He picked up Elijah’s cloak that had fallen off him and went back to stand by the bank of the Jordan River.
2Ki 2:14 He struck the water with Elijah’s cloak that had fallen and asked, “Where is Yehowah, Mighty One of Elijah?” When he had struck the waters, they divided on both sides and Elisha crossed over.

2Ki 2:15 When the sons of the prophets who were from Jericho saw him across from them, they said, “The spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha!” So they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him.
2Ki 2:16 They said to him, “See now, among your servants there are fifty strong men. Let them go, we ask, and look for your master, in case the Ruach of Yehowah has taken him up and thrown him onto some mountain or into some valley.” Elisha answered, “No, do not send them.”
2Ki 2:17 But when they urged Elisha until he was ashamed, he ordered, “Send them.” Then they sent fifty men, and they looked for three days but did not find him.
2Ki 2:18 They came back to Elisha, while he stayed at Jericho, and he asked them, “Did I not say to you, ‘Do not go?’”
2Ki 2:19 The men of the city said to Elisha, “See, we beg of you, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my master can see, but the water is bad, and the land is not fruitful.”
2Ki 2:20 Elisha replied, “Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it,” so they brought it to him.
2Ki 2:21 Elisha went out to the spring of water and threw salt in it; then he said, “Yehowah declares this, ‘I have healed these waters. From this time on, there will be no more death or unfruitful land.’”
2Ki 2:22 So the waters were healed to this day, by the word which Elisha spoke.
2Ki 2:23 Then Elisha went up from there to Bethel. As he was going up the road, a gang of young boys came out of the city and ridiculed him by shouting, “Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!”
2Ki 2:24 Elisha looked behind him and saw them; he execrated them in the name of Yehowah. Then two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the boys.
2Ki 2:25 Then Elisha went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings Chapter 3

2Ki 3:1 Now in the eighteenth year (c. 905 BC) of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Joram son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twelve years.
2Ki 3:2 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, but not like his father and his mother; for he removed the memorial stone pillar of Baal, that his father had made.
2Ki 3:3 Nevertheless, he held on to the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; he did not turn away from them.
2Ki 3:4 Now Mesha king of Moab bred sheep. He had to give to the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams.
2Ki 3:5 But after Ahab died (c. 905 BC), the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.
2Ki 3:6 So King Joram left Samaria at that time to mobilize all Israel for war.
2Ki 3:7 He sent a message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle?" Jehoshaphat replied, "I will go. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."
2Ki 3:8 Then he asked, "By which way should we attack?" Jehoshaphat answered, "By way of the wilderness of Edom."
2Ki 3:9 So the kings of Israel, Judah, and Edom marched in a semicircle for seven days. There was no water found for their military force, nor for their horses or other animals.
2Ki 3:10 So the king of Israel asked, "What is this? Has Yehowah called three kings to give them into the hand of Moab?"
2Ki 3:11 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not here a prophet of Yehowah, that we may consult Yehowah by him?" One of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."
2Ki 3:12 Jehoshaphat said, "The Word of Yehowah is with him." So the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.
2Ki 3:13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and mother." So the king of Israel replied to him, "No, because Yehowah has called these three kings together to give them into the hand of Moab."
2Ki 3:14 Elisha responded, "As Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not for the fact that I honor the presence of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, I would not pay any attention to you or even look at you.

2Ki 3:15 But now bring me a musician." Then it came to pass when the harpist played, the hand of Yehowah came upon Elisha.
2Ki 3:16 He said, "Yehowah commands this, 'Make this dry river valley full of trenches.'
2Ki 3:17 For Yehowah declares this, 'You will not see wind, neither will you see rain, but this river valley will be filled with water, and you will drink, you and your livestock and all your animals.'
2Ki 3:18 This is an easy thing in the sight of Yehowah. He will also give you victory over the Moabites.
2Ki 3:19 You will attack every fortified city and every good city, cut down every good tree, stop up all springs of water, and ruin every good piece of land with rocks."
2Ki 3:20 So at dawn, about the time of offering the sacrifice, there came water from the direction of Edom; the country was filled with water.
2Ki 3:21 Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and they stood at the border.
2Ki 3:22 They awakened at the crack of dawn, and the sun reflected on the water. When the Moabites saw the water opposite them, it looked as red as blood.
2Ki 3:23 They exclaimed, "This is blood! The kings have certainly been destroyed, and they have killed each other! So now, Moab, let us go plunder them!"
2Ki 3:24 When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelis surprised them and attacked the Moabites, who fled before them. The military force of Israel drove the Moabites across the land, killing them.
2Ki 3:25 They destroyed the cities, and on every good piece of land every man threw a rock, until it was covered up. They stopped up every spring of water and chopped down all the good trees. Only Kir Hareseth was left with its rocks in place. But the soldiers armed with slings surrounded and attacked it.
2Ki 3:26 When King Mesha of Moab saw that the battle was lost, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed.
2Ki 3:27 Then he took his oldest son, who should have reigned after him, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall. So there was great anger against Israel, and the Israeli military force left King Mesha and returned to their own land.

2 Kings Chapter 4

2Ki 4:1 Now the wife of one of the sons of the prophets came crying to Elisha, “Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared Yehowah. Now the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves.”
2Ki 4:2 So Elisha asked her, “What can I do for you? Tell me what do you have in the house?” She answered, “Your servant has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil.”
2Ki 4:3 Then Elisha ordered, “Go out to ask for jars from your neighbors, empty jars. Ask for as many as possible.
2Ki 4:4 Then you must go inside and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour oil into all those jars; set aside the jars that are full.”
2Ki 4:5 So she left Elisha and shut the door behind her and her sons. They brought the jars to her, and she filled them with oil.
2Ki 4:6 When the vessels were full, she ordered her son, “Bring me another jar.” But he replied to her, “There are no more jars.” Then the oil stopped flowing.
2Ki 4:7 Then she came and told the man of the Almighty. He ordered, “Go, sell the oil; pay your debt, and live with your sons on the rest.”
2Ki 4:8 One day, Elisha walked to Shunem where an important woman lived; she urged him to eat food with her. So as often as Elisha passed by, he would stop there to eat.
2Ki 4:9 The woman said to her husband, “See, now I realize that this is a set-apart man of the Almighty who is always passing by.
2Ki 4:10 Let us make a little room on the roof for Elisha, and let us put in it a bed, a table, a chair, and a menorah. Then when he comes to us, he will stay there.”
2Ki 4:11 So when the day came again that Elisha stopped there, he stayed in the room and rested there.
2Ki 4:12 Elisha said to Gehazi his servant, “Call this Shunammite.” When he had called her, she stood before him.
2Ki 4:13 Elisha said to him, “Inquire of her, ‘You have gone to all this trouble to care for us. What can be done for you? Can we speak for you to the king or to the military commander?’” She answered, “I live among my own people.”
2Ki 4:14 So Elisha asked, “What can we do for her, then?” Gehazi answered, “Indeed, she has no son, and her husband is old.”
2Ki 4:15 So Elisha answered, “Call her.” When he had called her, she stood in the door.
2Ki 4:16 Elisha said, “At this season of the year, in one year’s time, you will be holding a son.” She replied, “No, my master and man of the Almighty, do not lie to your servant.”

2Ki 4:17 But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son at the appointed time in the following year, as Elisha had said to her.
2Ki 4:18 When the child had grown, he went out one day to his father, who was with harvesters.
2Ki 4:19 He cried to his father, “My head, my head!” His father ordered his servant, “Carry him to his mother.”
2Ki 4:20 When the servant had picked him up and brought the boy to his mother, the child sat on her knees until noon and then died.
2Ki 4:21 So the woman rose up and laid the boy on the bed of the man of the Almighty, shut the door, and went out.
2Ki 4:22 She called to her husband, “Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so that I may hurry to the man of the Almighty and then come back.”
2Ki 4:23 Her husband questioned, “Why do you want to go to him today? It is not the beginning of the month nor a Sabbath.” She replied, “It will be all right.”
2Ki 4:24 Then she saddled a donkey and ordered her servant, “Drive on quickly; do not slow down for me, unless I say so.”
2Ki 4:25 So she went and came to the man of the Almighty at Mount Carmel. So when the man of the Almighty saw her in the distance, he said to Gehazi his servant, “Look, here comes the Shunammite woman.
2Ki 4:26 Please run to meet her and ask her, ‘Is everything alright with you and with your husband and child?’” She answered, “It is alright.”
2Ki 4:27 When she came to the man of the Almighty at the mountain, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away, but the man of the Almighty said, “Leave her alone, for she is upset, and Yehowah has hidden the problem from me, and has told me nothing.”
2Ki 4:28 Then she asked, “Did I ask you for a son, my master? Did I not say, ‘Do not deceive me?’”
2Ki 4:29 Then Elisha ordered Gehazi, “Dress for travel and take my trekking pole in your hand. Go to her home. If you meet any man, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer him. Lay my trekking pole on the child’s face.”
2Ki 4:30 But the mother of the child said, “As Yehowah lives, and as you live, I will not leave you.” So Elisha arose and followed her.
2Ki 4:31 Gehazi hurried on ahead of them and laid the trekking pole on the child’s face, but the child did not speak or hear. So then Gehazi returned to meet Elisha and told him, “The child has not awakened.”
2Ki 4:32 When Elisha arrived at the house, the child was dead and was still on the bed.
2Ki 4:33 So Elisha went in and shut the door on the child and himself and prayed to Yehowah.

2Ki 4:34 He went up and lay on the child; he put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. He stretched himself out on the boy, and the boy's body grew warm.
2Ki 4:35 Then Elisha rose up and walked around the room and again went up and stretched himself out on the boy. The child sneezed seven times and then opened his eyes!
2Ki 4:36 So Elisha called Gehazi, "Call the Shunammite!" So he called her, and when she came into the room, Elisha said, "Pick up your son."
2Ki 4:37 Then she lay facedown at his feet and bowed to the ground, and then picked up her son and went out.
2Ki 4:38 Then Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was famine in the land, and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. He said to his servant, "Put the large pot on the fire and cook stew for the sons of the prophets."
2Ki 4:39 One of them went out into a field to gather garden rocket. He found a wild vine and gathered enough wild gourds to fill the fold of his robe. They cut them up and put them into the stew, but did not know what kind they were.
2Ki 4:40 So they poured out the stew for the men to eat. Later, as they were eating, they cried out, "Man of the Almighty, there is death in the pot!" So they could not eat it anymore.
2Ki 4:41 But Elisha ordered, "Bring some flour." He threw it into the pot and said, "Pour it out for the people, so that they may eat." Then there was no longer anything hurtful in the pot.
2Ki 4:42 A man came from Baal Shalishah to the man of the Almighty and brought twenty loaves of barley bread in his sack from the new harvest, and fresh ears of grain. He said, "Give this to the people so they can eat."
2Ki 4:43 His servant asked, "What, should I set this before a hundred men?" But Elisha said, "Give this to the people, so they can eat, because Yehowah says, 'They will eat and will have some left.'"
2Ki 4:44 So his servant set it before them; they ate and left some remaining, just as the Word of Yehowah promised.

2 Kings Chapter 5

2Ki 5:1 Now Naaman, commander of the military force of the king of Aram, was a great and honorable man in his master's view, because by him Yehowah had given victory to Aram. He was also a strong, courageous man, but he was a leper.
2Ki 5:2 The Arameans had gone out raiding in bands and had taken a little girl from the land of Israel. She served Naaman's wife.
2Ki 5:3 The girl said to her mistress, "I wish that my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would heal my master of his leprosy."
2Ki 5:4 So Naaman went in and told his master what the little girl from the land of Israel had said.
2Ki 5:5 So the king of Aram ordered, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." Naaman left and took with him 30,000-weight silver-currency, 66 kilograms of gold, and ten changes of clothes.
2Ki 5:6 He also took the letter to the king of Israel that said, "Now when this letter is brought to you, you will see that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, so that you may cure him of his leprosy."
2Ki 5:7 When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I the Almighty, to kill and to make alive, that this man wants me to cure a man of his leprosy? It seems he is seeking to start an argument with me."
2Ki 5:8 So when Elisha the man of the Almighty heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent word to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel."
2Ki 5:9 So Naaman came with his cavalry and with his chariots and stood at the door of Elisha's house.
2Ki 5:10 Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and dip yourself into the Jordan River seven times, and your flesh will be restored; you will be clean."
2Ki 5:11 But Naaman was angry, went away, and said, "Look, I thought he would surely come out to me, stand, and call on the name of Yehowah his Divine One, and wave his hand over the place and heal my leprosy.
2Ki 5:12 Are not Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Can I not bathe in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.
2Ki 5:13 Then Naaman's servants came near and spoke to him, "My father, if the prophet had commanded you do some difficult thing, would you not have done it? How much rather then when he says to you to simply, 'Dip yourself and be clean?'"

2Ki 5:14 Then he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan River (see LXX; Acts 2:38), obeying the instructions of the man of the Almighty. His flesh was restored again like the flesh of a little child, and he was healed.
2Ki 5:15 Naaman returned to the man of the Almighty, he and all his company, and came and stood before him. He said, “Look, now I know that there is no Almighty in all the earth except in Israel. So therefore, please accept a gift from your servant.”
2Ki 5:16 But Elisha replied, “As Yehowah lives, before whom I stand, I will receive nothing.” Naaman urged Elisha to take a gift, but he refused.
2Ki 5:17 So Naaman said, “If not, then I ask you to let there be given to your servant two mule loads of earth, for from now on, your servant will offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to any deity but Yehowah.
2Ki 5:18 In this one thing may Yehowah pardon your servant, that is, when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when he bows himself in the house of Rimmon, may Yehowah pardon your servant in this matter.”
2Ki 5:19 Elisha said to him, “Go in peace.” So Naaman left.
2Ki 5:20 He had traveled only a short distance, when Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of the Almighty said to himself, “Look, my master has spared this Naaman the Aramean by not receiving from his hands gifts that he brought. As Yehowah lives, I will run after him and receive something from him.”
2Ki 5:21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he jumped down from his chariot to meet him, and asked, “Is everything alright?”
2Ki 5:22 Gehazi answered, “Everything is alright. My master has sent me, saying, ‘See, now there have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets. Please give them 3,000-weight silver-currency and two changes of clothes.’”
2Ki 5:23 Naaman replied, “I am pleased to give you 6,000-weight.” Naaman urged Gehazi and tied 6,000-weight silver-currency in two bags, with two changes of clothes, and laid them on two of his servants, who carried the bags of silver-currency before Gehazi.
2Ki 5:24 When Gehazi came to the hill, he took the bags of silver-currency from their hands and hid them in the house; he sent the men away, and they left.
2Ki 5:25 When Gehazi went in and stood before his master, Elisha asked him, “Where have you come from, Gehazi?” He answered, “Your servant went nowhere.”
2Ki 5:26 Elisha rebuked Gehazi, “Was not my spirit with you when the man turned his chariot to meet you? Is this a time to accept money and clothes, olive orchards and vineyards, sheep and oxen, and male servants and female servants?

2Ki 5:27 So the leprosy of Naaman will be on you and your descendants forever.” So Gehazi went out from his presence, a leper as white as snow.

2 Kings Chapter 6

2Ki 6:1 The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, “The place where we live with you is too small for us all.
2Ki 6:2 Please let us go to the Jordan River, and let every man cut down a tree there, and let us build us a place there where we may live.” Elisha answered, “You may go ahead.”
2Ki 6:3 One of them requested, “Please go with your servants.” Elisha replied, “I will go.”
2Ki 6:4 So he went with them, and when they came to the Jordan River, they began to cut down trees.
2Ki 6:5 But as one was chopping, the ax head fell into the water; he cried out, “Oh no, my master, it was borrowed!”
2Ki 6:6 So the man of the Almighty asked, “Where did it fall?” The man showed Elisha the place. He then cut off a stick, threw it in the water, and made the iron float.
2Ki 6:7 Elisha ordered, “Pick it up.” So the man reached out his hand and grabbed it.
2Ki 6:8 Now the king of Aram was waging war against Israel. He consulted with his servants, “My camp will be in such and such a place.”
2Ki 6:9 So the man of the Almighty sent to the king of Israel, saying, “Be careful not to pass that place, for the Arameans are coming down there.”
2Ki 6:10 The king of Israel sent a message to the place about which the man of the Almighty had spoken and warned him. More than once or twice, when the king went there, he was on his guard.
2Ki 6:11 The king of Aram was enraged about these warnings, and he called his servants and asked them, “Will you not tell me who among us is for the king of Israel?”
2Ki 6:12 So one of his servants answered, “No, my master, king, for Elisha the prophet in Israel tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your own bedroom!”
2Ki 6:13 The king replied, “Go and see where Elisha is, so I may send men and capture him.” It was told him, “See, he is in Dothan.”
2Ki 6:14 So the king sent to Dothan cavalry, chariots, and a large military force. They came by night and surrounded the city.
2Ki 6:15 When the servant of the man of the Almighty had risen early and gone outside, behold, a large military force with cavalry and chariots surrounded the city. His servant asked him, “Oh, my master! What will we do?”
2Ki 6:16 Elisha answered, “Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.”

2Ki 6:17 Elisha prayed, “Yehowah, I beg that you will open his eyes that he may see.” Then Yehowah opened the servant’s eyes, and he saw. Behold, the mountain was full of cavalry and chariots of fire around Elisha!
2Ki 6:18 When the Arameans came down to him, Elisha prayed to Yehowah, “Strike these people blind, I ask you.” So Yehowah made them blind, just as Elisha had asked.
2Ki 6:19 Then Elisha told the Arameans, “This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you are looking for.” Then he led them to Samaria.
2Ki 6:20 It came about that when they had come into Samaria, Elisha prayed, “Yehowah, open the eyes of these men that they may see.” Yehowah opened their eyes and they saw, and behold, they were in the middle of the city of Samaria.
2Ki 6:21 When he saw them, the king of Israel asked Elisha, “My father, should I kill them? Should I kill them?”
2Ki 6:22 Elisha answered, “You must not kill them. Would you kill those whom you had taken captive with your sword and bow? Put bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.”
2Ki 6:23 So the king prepared much food for them, and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went back to their master. Those bands of Aramean soldiers did not return for a long time into the land of Israel.
2Ki 6:24 Later, after this, Ben Hadad, king of Aram, gathered all his military force and attacked Samaria and besieged it.
2Ki 6:25 So there was a great famine in Samaria. Behold, they besieged it, until a donkey’s head was sold for 80-weight silver-currency, and the fourth part of a kab of dove’s dung for 5-weight silver-currency.
2Ki 6:26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, “Help, my master, king!”
2Ki 6:27 He asked, “If Yehowah does not help you, how can I help you? Is there anything coming from the threshing floor or winepress?”
2Ki 6:28 The king continued, “What is troubling you?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Give your son so that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.’”
2Ki 6:29 So we boiled my son and ate him, and I said to her on the next day, “Give your son that we may eat him, but she has hidden her son.”
2Ki 6:30 So when the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes; now he was passing by on the wall, and the people looked and saw that he had sackcloth underneath, against his skin.
2Ki 6:31 Then he said, “May the Almighty do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on him today.”

2Ki 6:32 But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a man from before him, but when the messenger came to Elisha, he asked the elders, “See how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door shut against him. Is not the sound of his master’s feet behind him?”
2Ki 6:33 While he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. The king had said, “Behold, this trouble comes from Yehowah. Why should I wait for Yehowah any longer?”

2 Kings Chapter 7

2Ki 7:1 Elisha said, “Hear the Word of Yehowah. This is what Yehowah declares: ‘Tomorrow about this time 7 liters of fine flour will be sold for one-weight, and 14 liters of barley for one-weight, in the gate of Samaria.’”
2Ki 7:2 Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of the Almighty, “See, even if Yehowah should make windows in Heaven, can this thing happen?” Elisha answered, “See, you will watch it happen with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it.”
2Ki 7:3 Now there were four men with leprosy right outside the city gate. They asked one another, “Why should we sit here until we die?
2Ki 7:4 If we say that we should go into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we will die there. But if we still sit here, we will still die. Now then come, let us go to the military force of the Arameans. If they keep us alive, we will live, and if they kill us, we will only die.”
2Ki 7:5 So they rose up at dusk to go into the Aramean camp; when they arrived at the outermost part of the camp, there was no one there.
2Ki 7:6 For the Lord had made the Aramean military force hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of cavalry, the noise of another large military force, and they said to each other, “The king of Israel has hired the kings of the Neo-Hittites and Egyptians to come against us!”
2Ki 7:7 So the soldiers arose and fled at dusk; they left their tents, their horses, their donkeys, and the camp as it was, and fled for their lives.
2Ki 7:8 When the men with leprosy came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, ate and drank, and carried away silver, gold, and clothes, and went and hid them. They came back and entered into another tent and carried plunder away from there also, and went and hid it.
2Ki 7:9 Then they said to each other, “We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, but we are keeping quiet about it. If we wait until daybreak, punishment will overtake us. Now then come, let us go and tell the king’s household.”
2Ki 7:10 So they went and called the gatekeepers of the city. They told them, “We went to the camp of the Arameans, but there was no one there, not the sound of anyone, but there were the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.”
2Ki 7:11 Then the gatekeepers shouted out the news, and then it was told inside the king’s household.
2Ki 7:12 Then the king arose at night and said to his servants, “I will tell you now what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are hungry, so they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the fields. They are saying, 'When they come out of the city, we will take them alive, and get into the city.'" 2Ki 7:13 One of the king's servants answered, "I beg you, let some men take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. They are like all the rest of the population of Israel who are left, most are now dead; let us send them and see."

2Ki 7:14 So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the military force of the Arameans, ordering, "Go and see."
2Ki 7:15 They went after them to the Jordan River, and all the road was full of clothes and equipment that the Arameans had cast away in their hurry. So the messengers returned and told the king.
2Ki 7:16 The people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So 7 liters of fine flour was sold for one-weight, and 14 liters of barley for one-weight, just as the Word of Yehowah had said.
2Ki 7:17 The king had ordered the captain on whose hand he had leaned to be in charge of the gate, and the people trampled him down in the gateway. He died as the man of the Almighty had said, who spoke when the king had come down to him.
2Ki 7:18 So it happened as the man of the Almighty had prophesied to the king, "About this time in the gate of Samaria, 14 liters of barley will be available for one-weight, and 7 liters of fine flour for one-weight."
2Ki 7:19 That captain had asked the man of the Almighty, "See, even if Yehowah should make windows in Heaven, can this thing happen?" Elisha had answered, "See, you will watch it happen with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of it."
2Ki 7:20 That is exactly what happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

2 Kings Chapter 8

2Ki 8:1 Now Elisha had spoken to the woman whose son he had restored to life. He ordered her, “Arise, and go with your household, and stay wherever you can in another land, because Yehowah has called for a famine, which will come on this land for seven years.”
2Ki 8:2 So the woman arose, and she obeyed the word of the man of the Almighty. She went with her household and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years.
2Ki 8:3 It came about at the end of seven years that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, and she went to the king to beg him for her house and for her land.
2Ki 8:4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of the Almighty, “Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done.”
2Ki 8:5 Then as he was telling the king how Elisha had restored to life the child who was dead, see, the woman whose son he had restored to life came to beg the king for her house and land. Gehazi exclaimed, “My master, king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life!”
2Ki 8:6 When the king asked the woman about her son, she explained it to him. So the king ordered a certain eunuch for her, “Give back to her all that was hers and all the harvests of her fields, since the day that she left the land until now.”
2Ki 8:7 Elisha came to Damascus where Ben Hadad the king of Aram was sick. The king was told, “The man of the Almighty has come here.”
2Ki 8:8 The king ordered Hazael, “Take a gift in your hand and go meet the man of the Almighty, and consult with Yehowah through him, asking, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’”
2Ki 8:9 So Hazael went to meet him and took a gift with him of every kind of good thing of Damascus, carried by forty camels. So Hazael came and stood before Elisha, and said, “Your son Ben Hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, asking, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’”
2Ki 8:10 Elisha answered him, “Go, say to Ben Hadad, ‘You will surely recover,’ but Yehowah has shown me that he will surely die.”
2Ki 8:11 Then Elisha stared at Hazael, until he was ashamed, and the man of the Almighty wept.
2Ki 8:12 Hazael asked, “Why do you weep, my master?” He answered, “Because I know the evil that you will do to the people of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, dash in pieces their little ones, and rip open their pregnant women.”

2Ki 8:13 Hazael replied, “Who is your servant, that he should do this great thing? He is only a dog.” Elisha answered, “Yehowah has shown me that you will be king over Aram.”
2Ki 8:14 Then Hazael left Elisha and came to his master, who asked him, “What did Elisha say to you?” He answered, “He told me that you would certainly recover.”
2Ki 8:15 Then the next day, Hazael took the blanket and dipped it in water, and spread it on Ben Hadad’s face, so that he died. Then Hazael became king in his place.
2Ki 8:16 In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoram began to reign. He was the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah. He began to reign when Jehoshaphat was king of Judah (c. 900 BC).
2Ki 8:17 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.
2Ki 8:18 Jehoram walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab was doing; for he had Ahab’s daughter as his wife, and he did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah.
2Ki 8:19 However, because of his servant David, Yehowah did not want to destroy Judah, since he had told him that he would always give a lamp to him and his descendants.
2Ki 8:20 In Jehoram’s days, Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they set a king over themselves.
2Ki 8:21 Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots. It happened that he rose up at night, attacked, and overwhelmed the Edomites, who had surrounded him and the commanders of the chariots. Then Jehoram’s military force escaped to their homes.
2Ki 8:22 So Edom has been in rebellion against the rule of Judah to this present day. Libnah also revolted at the same time.
2Ki 8:23 As for the other matters concerning Jehoram, all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 8:24 Jehoram died (c. 893 BC) and rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Ahaziah his son became king in his place.
2Ki 8:25 In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign.
2Ki 8:26 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Athaliah; she was the daughter of Omri, king of Israel.
2Ki 8:27 Ahaziah walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; he did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, as the house of Ahab was doing, for Ahaziah was a son-in-law to the house of Ahab.

2Ki 8:28 Ahaziah went with Joram son of Ahab, to fight against Hazael, king of Aram, at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram.
2Ki 8:29 King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds that the Arameans had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Aram. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because Joram had been wounded.

2 Kings Chapter 9

2Ki 9:1 Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and ordered him, “Dress for travel, then take this little bottle of oil in your hand and go to Ramoth Gilead.
2Ki 9:2 When you arrive, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi, and go in and make him arise up from among his companions, and conduct him to an inner chamber.
2Ki 9:3 Then take the bottle of oil and pour it on his head, and say, ‘Yehowah declares this: “I have anointed you king over Israel.”’ Then open the door and run off; do not delay.”
2Ki 9:4 So the young man, the young prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead.
2Ki 9:5 When he arrived, behold, the captains of the military force were sitting. So the young prophet said, “I have come on an errand to you, captain.” Jehu replied, “To which of us?” The young prophet answered, “To you, captain.”
2Ki 9:6 So Jehu arose and went into the house, and the prophet poured the oil on his head and said to Jehu, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: ‘I have anointed you king over the people of Yehowah, over Israel.
2Ki 9:7 You must kill the family of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yehowah, who were murdered by the hand of Jezebel.
2Ki 9:8 For the whole family of Ahab will perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male child, whether he is a slave or a free person.
2Ki 9:9 I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.
2Ki 9:10 The dogs will eat Jezebel in Jezreel, and there will be no one to bury her.’” Then the prophet opened the door and ran off.
2Ki 9:11 Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one asked him, “Is everything alright? Why did this mad fellow come to you?” Jehu answered them, “You know the man and the kinds of things he says.”
2Ki 9:12 They replied, “That is a lie. Tell us.” Jehu answered, “He said this and that to me, and he also said, ‘This is what Yehowah declares: I have anointed you as king over Israel.’”
2Ki 9:13 Then each of them quickly took off his coat and put it under Jehu at the top of the steps. They blew the trumpet and shouted, “Jehu is king!”
2Ki 9:14 In this way, Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Aram,
2Ki 9:15 but King Joram had gone back to Jezreel to be healed of the wounds that the Arameans had given him, when he had fought against Hazael king of

Aram. Jehu said to the servants of Joram, “If this is your opinion, then let no one escape and go out of the city, in order to go tell this news in Jezreel.”
2Ki 9:16 So Jehu rode in a chariot to Jezreel; for Joram was resting there. Now Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.
2Ki 9:17 The watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came at a distance; he said, “I see a group of men coming.” Joram ordered, “Take a horseman and send him out to meet them; tell him to ask, ‘Are you coming in peace?’”
2Ki 9:18 So a man was sent on horseback to meet him; he said, “The king asks this: ‘Are you coming in peace?’” So Jehu responded, “What have you to do with peace? Turn and ride behind me.” Then the watchman told the king, “The messenger has met them, but he is not coming back.”
2Ki 9:19 Then he sent out a second man on horseback, who came to them and said, “The king asks this: ‘Are you coming in peace?’” Jehu answered, “What have you to do with peace? Turn and ride behind me.”
2Ki 9:20 Again the watchman reported, “He has met them, but he is not coming back. For the way that the chariot is being driven is the way that Jehu son of Nimshi drives; he is driving wildly.”
2Ki 9:21 So Joram ordered, “Get my chariot ready!” They prepared his chariot, and Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah rode out, each in his chariot, to meet Jehu. They found him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite.
2Ki 9:22 When Joram saw Jehu, he asked, “Are you coming in peace, Jehu?” He answered, “What peace is there, when the idolatrous acts of prostitution and witchcraft of your mother Jezebel are so many?”
2Ki 9:23 So Joram turned his chariot, fled, and shouted to Ahaziah, “There is treachery, Ahaziah!”
2Ki 9:24 Then Jehu drew his bow with his full strength and shot Joram between his shoulders; the arrow went through his heart, and he sank down in his chariot (c. 893 BC).
2Ki 9:25 Then Jehu ordered Bidkar his captain, “Pick him up and throw him in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. Think about how when you and I rode together after Ahab his father, Yehowah placed this prophecy against him:
2Ki 9:26 ‘Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,’ declares Yehowah, ‘and I will repay you in this field,’ declares Yehowah. Now then take him and throw him into that place, that field, to bring to pass what we were told would happen by the Word of Yehowah.”
2Ki 9:27 When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled up the road to Beth Haggan. But Jehu followed him and ordered, “Kill him also in the chariot,” and they shot him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. Ahaziah fled to Megiddo and died there (c. 893 BC).

2Ki 9:28 His servants carried his body in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David.
2Ki 9:29 Now it was in the eleventh year of Joram son of Ahab that Ahaziah had begun to reign over Judah.
2Ki 9:30 When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it, and she painted her eyes, arranged her hair, and looked out the window.
2Ki 9:31 As Jehu was entering the gate, she asked him, “Are you coming in peace, you Zimri, your master’s murderer?”
2Ki 9:32 Jehu looked up at the window and asked, “Who is on my side? Who?” Then two or three eunuchs looked out.
2Ki 9:33 So Jehu shouted, “Throw her down!” So they threw Jezebel down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and the horses, and Jehu trampled her under foot.
2Ki 9:34 When Jehu entered the palace, he ate and drank. Then he ordered, “See now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king’s daughter.”
2Ki 9:35 They went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull, the feet, and the palms of her hands.
2Ki 9:36 So they came back and told Jehu. He said, “This is the Word of Yehowah which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, ‘In the land at Jezreel the dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel,
2Ki 9:37 and the body of Jezebel will be like dung on the surface of the fields in the land at Jezreel, so that no one will be able to say, “This is Jezebel.”’”

2 Kings Chapter 10

2Ki 10:1 Now Ahab had seventy descendants in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, including the elders and the guardians of Ahab's descendants, stating,
2Ki 10:2 "Your master's descendants are with you, and you also have chariots, cavalry, a fortified city, and armor. So then as soon as this letter comes to you,
2Ki 10:3 select the best and most deserving of your master's descendants and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's royal line."
2Ki 10:4 But they were terrified and said among themselves, "See, the two kings could not stand before Jehu. So how can we stand?"
2Ki 10:5 Then the man who was in charge of the palace, and the man who was over the city, and the elders also, and they who raised the children, sent word back to Jehu, "We are your servants. We will do everything that you command us. We will not make any man king. Do what is good in your eyes."
2Ki 10:6 Then Jehu wrote a letter the second time to them, stating, "If you are on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, you must behead the men of your master's descendants, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time." Now the king's descendants, seventy in number, were with the important men of the city, who were bringing them up.
2Ki 10:7 So when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and beheaded seventy souls, dropped their heads in baskets, and sent them to Jehu in Jezreel.
2Ki 10:8 A messenger came to Jehu, announcing, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." So he ordered, "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until dawn."
2Ki 10:9 At dawn, Jehu went out, stood, and said to all the people, "You are innocent. See, I plotted against my master and murdered him, but who killed all these?
2Ki 10:10 Now you should certainly realize that no part of the Word of Yehowah, the word that Yehowah spoke concerning the family of Ahab, will fall to the ground, for Yehowah has done what he spoke about through his servant Elijah."
2Ki 10:11 So Jehu executed all who remained in the family of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his important men, his close friends, and his priests, until none of them remained.
2Ki 10:12 Then Jehu arose and left; he went to Samaria. As he was arriving at the sheep-shearing house by the road,
2Ki 10:13 he met brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah. Jehu asked them, "Who are you?" They answered, "We are brothers of Ahaziah, and we are going down to greet the children of the king and the children of Queen Jezebel."

2Ki 10:14 Jehu ordered his own men, “Take them alive.” So they took them alive and killed 42 men at the well of the sheep-shearing house. He did not leave any of them alive.
2Ki 10:15 When Jehu had left there, he met Jonadab (Yehonadab) son of Rechab coming to meet him. Jehu greeted him and asked him, “Is your heart with me, as my heart is with yours?” Jonadab answered, “It is.” Jehu said, “If it is, give me your hand.” So Jonadab gave him his hand, and Jehu took Jonadab up into the chariot with him.
2Ki 10:16 Jehu said, “Come with me and see my zeal for Yehowah.” So he had Jonadab ride along with him in his chariot.
2Ki 10:17 When he came to Samaria, Jehu executed all who remained from Ahab’s descendants in Samaria, until he had destroyed Ahab’s royal line, just as was told them before by the Word of Yehowah, which he had spoken to Elijah.
2Ki 10:18 Then Jehu gathered all the people together and said to them, “Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him much.
2Ki 10:19 Now therefore, call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers, and all his priests. Let no one be left out, for I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal. Whoever does not come will be executed.” But Jehu did this deceitfully, with the intent to kill the worshipers of Baal.
2Ki 10:20 Jehu ordered, “Set a time to have an assembly for Baal.” So they announced it.
2Ki 10:21 Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. They came into the temple of Baal, and it was filled from one end to the other.
2Ki 10:22 Jehu said to the man who kept the priest’s wardrobe, “Bring out robes for all the worshipers of Baal.” So the man brought out robes to them.
2Ki 10:23 So Jehu went with Jonadab son of Rechab into the house of Baal, and he ordered the worshipers of Baal, “Search and make sure that there is no one here with you from the servants of Yehowah but the worshipers of Baal alone.”
2Ki 10:24 Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had chosen eighty men who were standing outside, and he told them, “If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escapes, whoever lets that man escape will be executed.”
2Ki 10:25 So then as soon as Jehu finished offering the burnt offering, he ordered the guard and the captains, “Go in and kill them. Let no one come out.” So they killed them with the edge of the sword, and the guard and the captains threw them out and went into the inner room of the house of Baal.
2Ki 10:26 They dragged out the stone pillars that were in the house of Baal, and they burned them.
2Ki 10:27 Then they broke down the pillar of Baal, destroyed the house of Baal, and made it a toilet, which it is to this day.

2Ki 10:28 That is how Jehu destroyed Baal worship from Israel.
2Ki 10:29 But Jehu did not leave the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, by which he made Israel sin, that is, the worship of the golden calves in Bethel and Dan.
2Ki 10:30 So Yehowah said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in executing what was right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.”
2Ki 10:31 But Jehu took no care to walk in the Law of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam, by which he made Israel sin.
2Ki 10:32 In those days, Yehowah began to cut off regions from Israel, and Hazael defeated the Israelis at the borders of Israel,
2Ki 10:33 from the Jordan River eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the Valley of the Arnon (Zarqa), through Gilead to Bashan.
2Ki 10:34 As for the other matters concerning Jehu, and all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
2Ki 10:35 Jehu slept with his ancestors (c. 866 BC), and they buried him in Samaria. Then Jehoahaz his son became king in his place.
2Ki 10:36 The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

2 Kings Chapter 11

2Ki 11:1 Now when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose and murdered all the royal children.
2Ki 11:2 But Jehosheba, a daughter of King Jehoram and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash son of Ahaziah, and hid him away from among the king's sons who were killed, along with his nurse; she put them into a bedroom. They hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not killed.
2Ki 11:3 He was with Jehosheba, hidden in the temple of Yehowah, for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.
2Ki 11:4 In the seventh year (c. 887 BC), Jehoiada sent messages and brought the commanders of hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to himself, into the temple of Yehowah. He made a covenant with them, and he made them swear an oath in the temple of Yehowah. Then he showed them the king's son.
2Ki 11:5 He commanded them, "This is what you must do. A third of you who come on the Sabbath will keep watch over the king's house,
2Ki 11:6 and a third will be at the Sur Gate, and a third at the gate behind the guardhouse, so you will keep watch at the temple, as a military barrier."
2Ki 11:7 The two other groups who are not serving on the Sabbath, you must keep the watch over the temple of Yehowah for the king.
2Ki 11:8 You must surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever enters within your ranks, let him be killed. You must stay with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in.
2Ki 11:9 So the commanders of hundreds obeyed everything Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each one took his men, those who were to come in to serve on the Sabbath, and those who were to stop serving on that Sabbath; and they came to Jehoiada the priest.
2Ki 11:10 Then Jehoiada the priest gave the commanders of hundreds the spears and shields that belonged to King David and that were in the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 11:11 So the guards stood, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side, near the altar and the temple, surrounding the king.
2Ki 11:12 Then Jehoiada brought out the king's son Joash, put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant decrees. Then they made him king and anointed him. They clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"
2Ki 11:13 When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people in the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 11:14 She looked, and behold, the king was standing by the pillar, as the custom was, and the captains and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and shouted, “Treason! Treason!”

2Ki 11:15 Then Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders of hundreds who were over the military force, “Bring her out between the ranks. Anyone who follows her, kill him with the sword.” For the priest had said, “Do not let her be killed in the temple of Yehowah.”
2Ki 11:16 So they seized her as she reached the place where the cavalry enter the palace grounds, and there she was executed (c. 887 BC).
2Ki 11:17 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between Yehowah, the king, and the people, that they should be the people of Yehowah, and also between the king and the people.
2Ki 11:18 So all the people of the land went to the house of Baal and tore it down. They smashed Baal’s altars and his idol figures to pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of those altars. Then Jehoida the priest appointed guards over the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 11:19 Jehoida took with him the commanders of hundreds, the Carites, the guard, and all the people of the land, and together they brought down the king from the temple of Yehowah, and they went into the king’s house, entering by way of the gate of the guards. Joash took his place on the royal throne.
2Ki 11:20 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet, after Athaliah had been killed with the sword at the king’s house.
2Ki 11:21 Joash (Yehoash) was seven years old when he began to reign.

2 Kings Chapter 12

2Ki 12:1 In the seventh year of Jehu (c. 887 BC), the reign of Joash began; he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba.
2Ki 12:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah all the time, because Jehoiada the priest was instructing him.
2Ki 12:3 But the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.
2Ki 12:4 Joash said to the priests, "All the money that is brought in as set-apart offerings into the temple of Yehowah, that money for which each person is assessed, whether it is the money collected in the census (Exo. 30:13; Mat. 17:24), or the money received from personal vows, or the money brought in by people motivated by Yehowah in their hearts to give,
2Ki 12:5 the priests should receive the money from one of their treasurers and repair whatever damage is found in the temple."
2Ki 12:6 But by the twenty-third year of King Joash (c. 865 BC), the priests had not repaired anything in the temple.
2Ki 12:7 Then King Joash called for Jehoiada the priest and for the other priests; he ordered them, "Why have you not repaired anything in the temple? Now take no more money from your benefactors, but take what has been collected for repairs of the temple and give it to those who can make the repairs."
2Ki 12:8 So the priests consented to take no more money from the people and not repair the temple themselves.
2Ki 12:9 Instead, Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the temple of Yehowah. The priests who were guarding the temple entrance put into it all the money that was brought to the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 12:10 Whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest would come, put the money in bags, and then count it, the money found in the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 12:11 They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of men who took care of the temple of Yehowah. They paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the temple of Yehowah, 2Ki 12:12 and to the masons and the stonecutters, for buying timber and cutting stone to repair the temple of Yehowah, and for all that was needed to be paid to repair it.
2Ki 12:13 But the money that was brought into the temple of Yehowah did not pay to make for it any silver cups, lamp trimmers, basins, trumpets, or any gold or silver furnishing.

2Ki 12:14 They gave this money to those who did the work of repairing the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 12:15 In addition, they did not require the money paid for repairs to be accounted for by the men who received it and paid it to the workmen, because these men were honest.
2Ki 12:16 But the money for the guilt offerings and the money for the sin offerings was not brought into the temple of Yehowah, because it belonged to the priests.
2Ki 12:17 Then Hazael king of Aram attacked and fought against Gath (modern Tell es-Safi), and took it (c. 865 BC). Hazael then turned to attack Jerusalem.
2Ki 12:18 Joash king of Judah took all the things that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had set apart, and what he had set apart, and all the gold that was found in the storerooms of the houses of Yehowah and of the king, and he sent them to Hazael king of Aram. Then Hazael went away from Jerusalem.
2Ki 12:19 As for the other matters concerning Joash, all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 12:20 His servants arose and plotted together; they attacked Joash in Beth Millo, on the way that goes down to Sela (Petra).
2Ki 12:21 Jozacar son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad son of Shomer, his servants, attacked him, and he died (c. 848 BC). They buried Joash with his ancestors in the City of David, and Amaziah (Amatsyah), his son, became king in his place.

2 Kings Chapter 13

2Ki 13:1 In the twenty-third year (c. 865 BC) of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned seventeen years.
2Ki 13:2 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah and followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin; and Jehoahaz did not turn away from them.
2Ki 13:3 The anger of Yehowah burned against Israel, and he gave them continually into the hand of Hazael king of Aram and into the hand of Ben Hadad son of Hazael.
2Ki 13:4 So Jehoahaz entreated Yehowah, and Yehowah listened to him, because he saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram was oppressing them.
2Ki 13:5 So Yehowah gave Israel a rescuer, and they escaped from the hand of the Arameans, and the people of Israel began to live in their homes as they had before.
2Ki 13:6 Nevertheless, they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin, and they continued in them; and the Asherah pole remained in Samaria.
2Ki 13:7 The Arameans left Jehoahaz with only fifty cavalry, ten chariots, and ten thousand infantrymen, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the chaff at threshing time.
2Ki 13:8 As for the other matters concerning Jehoahaz, and all that he did and his power, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
2Ki 13:9 So Jehoahaz slept with his ancestors (c. 850 BC), and they buried him in Samaria. Joash his son became king in his place.
2Ki 13:10 In the thirty-seventh year (c. 851 BC) of Joash king of Judah, the reign of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz began over Israel in Samaria; he reigned sixteen years.
2Ki 13:11 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah. He did not leave behind any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, by which he had made Israel to sin, but he walked in them.
2Ki 13:12 As for the other matters concerning Jehoash, and all that he did, and his might by which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
2Ki 13:13 Jehoash slept with his ancestors (c. 834 BC), and Jeroboam II sat on his throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

2Ki 13:14 Now Elisha became sick with an illness by which he later died, so Joash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him. He cried, “My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and the cavalry are taking you away!”
2Ki 13:15 Elisha said to him, “Pick up a bow and some arrows,” so Joash picked up a bow and some arrows.
2Ki 13:16 Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Put your hand on the bow,” so he put his hand on it. Then Elisha laid his hands on the king’s hands.
2Ki 13:17 Elisha said, “Open the window eastward,” so he opened it. Then Elisha ordered, “Shoot!” And he shot. Elisha said, “This is the victorious arrow of Yehowah, the arrow of victory over Aram, for you will attack the Arameans in Aphek, until you have consumed them.”
2Ki 13:18 Then Elisha said, “Take the arrows,” so Joash took them. He ordered the king of Israel, “Strike the ground with them,” and he struck the ground three times, then stopped.
2Ki 13:19 But the man of the Almighty was angry with him and said, “You should have hit the ground five or six times. Then you would have attacked Aram, until you had annihilated it, but now you will attack Aram only three times.”
2Ki 13:20 Then Elisha died (c. 850 BC), and they buried him. Now groups of Moabites invaded the land at the beginning of the year.
2Ki 13:21 As they were burying a certain man, they saw a group of Moabites, so they threw the body into Elisha’s grave. As soon as the man touched Elisha’s bones, he revived and stood up on his feet.
2Ki 13:22 Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.
2Ki 13:23 But Yehowah was gracious to Israel, and had compassion on them and concern for them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. So Yehowah did not destroy them, and he still has not driven them away from his presence.
2Ki 13:24 Hazael king of Aram died, and Ben Hadad his son became king in his place.
2Ki 13:25 Jehoash son of Jehoahaz took back from Ben Hadad son of Hazael the cities that had been taken from Jehoahaz his father by war. Jehoash attacked him three times, and he recovered those cities of Israel.

2 Kings Chapter 14

2Ki 14:1 In the second year (c. 848 BC) of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, began to reign.
2Ki 14:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem.
2Ki 14:3 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, yet not like David his father. He did everything that Joash, his father, had done.
2Ki 14:4 But the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.
2Ki 14:5 It came about that as soon as his rule was well established, he executed the servants who had murdered his father, the king.
2Ki 14:6 Yet he did not execute the sons of the murderers; instead, he acted according to what was written in the law, in the Book of Moses, as Yehowah had commanded, "The fathers must not be executed for their children, neither must the children be executed for their parents. Instead, every person must be executed for his own sin."
2Ki 14:7 He killed ten thousand soldiers of Edom in the Valley of Salt; he also took Sela (Petra) in war and called it Joktheel, which is what it is called to this day.
2Ki 14:8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us meet each other face to face in battle."
2Ki 14:9 But Jehoash the king of Israel sent messengers back to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "A thistle that was in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife,' but a wild beast in Lebanon walked by and trampled down the thistle.
2Ki 14:10 You have indeed attacked Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Take pride in your victory, but stay at home, for why should you cause yourself trouble and fall, both you and Judah with you?"
2Ki 14:11 But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel attacked, and he and Amaziah king of Judah met each other face to face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
2Ki 14:12 Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled home.
2Ki 14:13 Jehoash king of Israel, captured Amaziah, king of Judah son of Jehoash son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. He came to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, two hundred meters in distance.

2Ki 14:14 He took all the gold and silver, all the objects that were found in the temple of Yehowah, and the valuable things in the king's palace, with hostages also, and returned to Samaria.
2Ki 14:15 As for the other matters concerning Jehoash, all that he did, his power, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
2Ki 14:16 Then Joash slept with his ancestors (c. 834 BC) and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and Jeroboam II, his son, became king in his place.
2Ki 14:17 Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.
2Ki 14:18 As for the other matters concerning Amaziah, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 14:19 They made a conspiracy against Amaziah in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there (c. 819 BC).
2Ki 14:20 They brought him back on horses, and he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David.
2Ki 14:21 All the people of Judah took Uzziah (Uzziyah), who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.
2Ki 14:22 It was Uzziah who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah, after King Amaziah slept with his ancestors.
2Ki 14:23 In the fifteenth year (c. 833 BC) of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam II son of Jehoash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria; he reigned forty-one years.
2Ki 14:24 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah. He did not depart from any of the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin.
2Ki 14:25 He restored the border of Israel from Lebo Hamath to the Dead Sea, following the commands of the Word of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, which he had spoken through his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath Hepher.
2Ki 14:26 For Yehowah saw the suffering of Israel, that it was extremely bitter for everyone, both slave and free, and that there was no rescuer for Israel.
2Ki 14:27 So Yehowah said that he would not blot out the name of Israel under Heaven; instead, he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam II son of Jehoash.
2Ki 14:28 As for the other matters concerning Jeroboam II, all that he did, his power, how he waged war and recovered Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
2Ki 14:29 Jeroboam II slept with his ancestors (c. 793 BC), with the kings of Israel, and Zechariah (Zekaryah) his son became king in his place.

2 Kings Chapter 15

2Ki 15:1 In the twenty-seventh year (c. 807 BC) of Jeroboam II king of Israel, Uzziah son of Amaziah king of Judah began to reign.
2Ki 15:2 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechiliah (Yekolyah), and she was from Jerusalem.
2Ki 15:3 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, just as his father Amaziah had done.
2Ki 15:4 However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.
2Ki 15:5 Yehowah afflicted the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death and lived in a separate house. Jotham, the king's son, was over the household and ruled the people of the land.
2Ki 15:6 As for the other matters concerning Uzziah, all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 15:7 So Uzziah slept with his ancestors (c. 755 BC); they buried him with his ancestors in the City of David. Jotham, his son, became king in his place.
2Ki 15:8 In the thirty-eighth year (c. 769 BC) of Uzziah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam II reigned over Israel in Samaria for six months.
2Ki 15:9 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, as his fathers had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin.
2Ki 15:10 Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against Zechariah, attacked him in Ibleam, and murdered him. Then he became king in his place.
2Ki 15:11 As for the other matters concerning Zechariah, they are written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel.
2Ki 15:12 This was the Word of Yehowah that he spoke to Jehu, "Your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." That is what happened.
2Ki 15:13 Shallum son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year (c. 768 BC) of Uzziah king of Judah, and he reigned only one month in Samaria.
2Ki 15:14 Menahem son of Gadi went up from Tirzah to Samaria. There he attacked Shallum son of Jabesh, in Samaria. He murdered him and became king in his place.
2Ki 15:15 As for the other matters concerning Shallum and the conspiracy that he formed, they are written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel.

2Ki 15:16 Then Menahem attacked Tiphsah and all who were there, and the borders around Tirzah, because they did not open up the city to him. So he attacked it, and he ripped open all the pregnant women in that village.
2Ki 15:17 In the thirty-ninth year (c. 768 BC) of Uzziah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi began to reign over Israel; he reigned ten years in Samaria.
2Ki 15:18 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah. For his whole life, he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin.
2Ki 15:19 Then Pul (aka Tiglath-Pileser III), the king of Assyria came against the land (c. 767 BC), and Menahem gave Pul 3,000,000-weight silver-currency, so that Pul's support might be with him to strengthen the kingdom of Israel in his hand.
2Ki 15:20 Menahem exacted this money from Israel by requiring each of the wealthy men to pay 50-weight silver-currency to him to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back and did not stay there in the land.
2Ki 15:21 As for the other matters concerning Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel?
2Ki 15:22 So Menahem slept with his ancestors (c. 758 BC), and Pekahiah (Peqachyah) his son became king in his place.
2Ki 15:23 In the fiftieth year (c. 757 BC) of Uzziah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned two years.
2Ki 15:24 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah. He did not leave behind the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, by which he had caused Israel to sin.
2Ki 15:25 Pekahiah had an officer named Pekah son of Remaliah, who conspired against him. Along with fifty men of Gilead, Pekah murdered Pekahiah as well as Argob and Arieh in Samaria, in the citadel of the king's palace. Pekah killed Pekahiah and became king in his place.
2Ki 15:26 As for the other matters concerning Pekahiah, all that he did, they are written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel.
2Ki 15:27 In the fifty-second year (c. 755 BC) of Uzziah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria; he reigned twenty years.
2Ki 15:28 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin.
2Ki 15:29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser III king of Assyria came (c. 737 BC) and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee, and all the land of Naphtali. He carried away the people to Assyria.
2Ki 15:30 So Hoshea son of Elah formed a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked him and murdered him. Then he became king in his place, in the twentieth year (c. 736 BC) of Jotham son of Uzziah.

2Ki 15:31 As for the other matters concerning Pekah, all that he did, they are written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Israel.
2Ki 15:32 In the second year (c. 754 BC) of Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah began to reign.
2Ki 15:33 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah; she was the daughter of Zadok.
2Ki 15:34 Jotham did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah. He followed the example of all his father Uzziah had done.
2Ki 15:35 However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense at the high places. Jotham built the upper gate of the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 15:36 As for the other matters concerning Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 15:37 In those days, Yehowah began to send against Judah, Rezin, the king of Aram, and Pekah, son of Remaliah.
2Ki 15:38 Jotham slept with his ancestors (c. 735 BC) and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David, his ancestor. Then Ahaz, his son, became king in his place.

2 Kings Chapter 16

2Ki 16:1 In the seventeenth year (c. 739 BC) of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham king of Judah, began to reign.
2Ki 16:2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the eyes of Yehowah his Divine One, as David his ancestor had done.
2Ki 16:3 Instead, he walked in the way of the kings of Israel; indeed, he put his son in the fire as a burnt offering, following the detestable practices of the ethnicities, which Yehowah had driven out before the people of Israel.
2Ki 16:4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops, and under every green tree.
2Ki 16:5 Then Rezin, king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to attack. They besieged Ahaz, but they could not conquer him.
2Ki 16:6 At that time, Rezin, king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram and drove the men of Judah out of Elath. Then the Arameans came to Elath where they have lived to this day.
2Ki 16:7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser III, king of Assyria, entreating, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who have attacked me."
2Ki 16:8 So Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the temple of Yehowah and among the treasures of the king's palace, and he sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.
2Ki 16:9 Then the king of Assyria listened to him, and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus (c. 733 BC; Isa. 17:1), conquered it and carried off its people as prisoners to Kir. He also killed Rezin the king of Aram.
2Ki 16:10 King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser III, king of Assyria. At Damascus he saw an altar. He sent to Uriah (Uriyah) the priest a model of the altar, its pattern, and the design for all the workmanship needed.
2Ki 16:11 So Uriah the priest built an altar to be just like the plans that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. He finished it before King Ahaz arrived back from Damascus.
2Ki 16:12 When the king came from Damascus he saw the altar; the king approached the altar and made offerings on it.
2Ki 16:13 He made his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured out his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

2Ki 16:14 The bronze altar that was before Yehowah, he brought it from the front of the temple, from between his altar and the temple of Yehowah and put it on the north side of his altar.
2Ki 16:15 Then King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, “On the large altar burn the dawn burnt offering and the dusk grain offering, and the king’s burnt offering and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering and their drink offerings. Sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice. But the bronze altar will be for me to consult for guidance.”
2Ki 16:16 Uriah the priest did just what King Ahaz commanded.
2Ki 16:17 Then King Ahaz removed the panels and the basins from the portable stands; he also took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it and put it on a stone pavement.
2Ki 16:18 He removed the covered walkway for the Sabbath that they had built at the temple, along with the king’s entry outside the temple of Yehowah, because of the king of Assyria.
2Ki 16:19 As for the other matters concerning Ahaz and what he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 16:20 Ahaz slept with his ancestors (c. 724 BC) and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. Hezekiah (Chizqiyah) his son became king in his place.

2 Kings Chapter 17

2Ki 17:1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, the reign of Hoshea son of Elah began (c. 728 BC). He ruled in Samaria over Israel for nine years.
2Ki 17:2 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him.
2Ki 17:3 Shalmaneser V, king of Assyria, attacked him, and Hoshea became his servant and brought him tribute.
2Ki 17:4 Then the king of Assyria realized that Hoshea had been plotting against him, for Hoshea had sent messengers to So (Osorkon IV), king of Egypt; also, he offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. So the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in prison.
2Ki 17:5 Then the king of Assyria attacked throughout all the land, and attacked Samaria and besieged it for three years.
2Ki 17:6 In the ninth year (c. 720 BC) of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and carried Israel away to Assyria. He put them in Halah, at the Habor River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.
2Ki 17:7 This captivity happened because the people of Israel had sinned against Yehowah their Divine One, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. The people had been worshiping false deities 2Ki 17:8 and walking in the practices of the ethnicities, whom Yehowah had driven out before the people of Israel, and in the practices of the kings of Israel that they had done.
2Ki 17:9 The people of Israel did secretly, against Yehowah their Divine One, things that were not right. They built for themselves high places in all their cities, from the watchtower to the fortress.
2Ki 17:10 They also set up stone pillars and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree.
2Ki 17:11 There they burned incense in all the high places, as the ethnicities had done, those whom Yehowah had carried away before them. The Israelis performed wicked things to provoke Yehowah to anger;
2Ki 17:12 they worshiped idols, about which Yehowah had commanded them, “You will not do this thing.”
2Ki 17:13 Yet Yehowah had testified to Israel and to Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, and be careful to keep all the law I commanded your fathers, and that I sent to you by my servants the prophets.”
2Ki 17:14 But they would not listen; instead they were stubborn like their fathers who did not trust in Yehowah their Divine One.

2Ki 17:15 They rejected his statutes and the covenant that he had made with their ancestors, and the covenant decrees that he had given to them. They followed useless practices, and they themselves became useless. They followed the pagan ethnicities who were around them, those that Yehowah had commanded them not to imitate.
2Ki 17:16 They ignored all the commandments of Yehowah their Divine One. They made cast metal figures of two calves to worship. They made an Asherah pole, and they worshiped all the stars of heaven and Baal.
2Ki 17:17 They put their sons and daughters in the fire, used divination and enchantments, sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Yehowah, and provoked him to anger.
2Ki 17:18 Therefore, Yehowah was extremely angry with Israel and removed them out of his sight. There was no one left but the tribe of Judah alone.
2Ki 17:19 Even Judah did not keep the commandments of Yehowah their Divine One, but instead followed in the same pagan practices that Israel was following.
2Ki 17:20 So Yehowah rejected all the descendants of Israel; he afflicted them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until he had cast them out of his sight.
2Ki 17:21 He tore Israel from the royal line of David, and they made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Jeroboam drove Israel away from following Yehowah and made them commit a great sin.
2Ki 17:22 The people of Israel followed all the sins of Jeroboam, and they did not depart from them,
2Ki 17:23 so Yehowah removed Israel from his sight, as he had said through all his servants the prophets that he would. So Israel was exiled out of their own land to Assyria, and it is this way to this present day (Jam. 1:1).
2Ki 17:24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria in place of the people of Israel. They took over Samaria and lived in its cities.
2Ki 17:25 It happened at the beginning of their residence there, that they did not honor Yehowah. So Yehowah sent lions among them, which killed some of them.
2Ki 17:26 So they spoke to the king of Assyria, “The ethnicities that you have carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the practices required by the Mighty One of the land. So he has sent lions among them, and see, the lions are killing people there, because they do not know the practices required by the Mighty One of the land.”
2Ki 17:27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, “Take one of the priests there whom you brought from there, and let him go and live there, and let him teach them the practices required by the Mighty One of the land.”

2Ki 17:28 So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel; he taught them how they should honor Yehowah.
2Ki 17:29 Every ethnicity made deities of their own, and put them in the high places that the Samaritans had made, every ethnicity in the cities where they lived.
2Ki 17:30 The people of Babylon made Succoth Benoth; the people of Cuthah made Nergal; the people of Hamath made Ashima;
2Ki 17:31 the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak. The Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the deities of the Sepharvites.
2Ki 17:32 They also honored Yehowah, and appointed from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the temples at the high places.
2Ki 17:33 They honored Yehowah and also worshiped their own deities, in the customs of the ethnicities from among whom they had been taken away.
2Ki 17:34 To this day, they persist in their old customs. They neither honor Yehowah, nor do they follow the statutes, decrees, the law, or the commandments that Yehowah gave to the people of Jacob, whom he named Israel,
2Ki 17:35 and with whom Yehowah had made a covenant and commanded them, "You will not fear false deities, nor bow yourselves to them, nor worship them, nor sacrifice to them.
2Ki 17:36 But Yehowah, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and a raised arm, is the One you must honor; it is to him that you will prostrate yourselves, and it is to him that you will sacrifice.
2Ki 17:37 The statutes and the decrees, the law and the commandments that he wrote for you, you will keep them forever. So you must not fear false deities,
2Ki 17:38 and the covenant that I have made with you, you will not forget; neither will you honor false deities.
2Ki 17:39 But Yehowah your Divine One is who you will honor. He will rescue you from the might of your enemies."
2Ki 17:40 They would not listen, because they continued to do what they had done in the past.
2Ki 17:41 So these ethnicities feared Yehowah, and they also worshiped their carved figures, and their children did the same, as did their children's children. They continue to do what their ancestors did, up to this day.

2 Kings Chapter 18

2Ki 18:1 Now in the third year (c. 725 BC) of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz, king of Judah began to reign.
2Ki 18:2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah; she was the daughter of Zechariah.
2Ki 18:3 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, following the example of all that David, his ancestor, had done.
2Ki 18:4 He removed the high places, destroyed the stone pillars, and cut down the Asherah poles. He broke to pieces the bronze ophidian that Moses had made, because in those days the people of Israel were burning incense to it; it was called, "Nehushtan" (See G3789).
2Ki 18:5 Hezekiah trusted in Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, so that after him there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among the kings who were before him.
2Ki 18:6 For he held on to Yehowah. He did not stop following him but kept his commandments, which Yehowah commanded Moses.
2Ki 18:7 So Yehowah was with Hezekiah, and wherever he went he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.
2Ki 18:8 He attacked the Philistines to Gaza and the borders around, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.
2Ki 18:9 In the fourth year (c. 722 BC) of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, Shalmaneser V, king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it.
2Ki 18:10 At the end of three years they took it, in the sixth year (c. 720 BC) of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year (c. 720 BC) of Hoshea king of Israel; in this way Samaria was captured.
2Ki 18:11 So the king of Assyria exiled Israel to Assyria and put them in Halah, and at the Habor River in Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes (Jam 1:1).
2Ki 18:12 He did this, because they did not obey the voice of Yehowah their Divine One, but they violated the terms of his covenant, all that Moses the servant of Yehowah commanded. They refused to listen to it or do it.
2Ki 18:13 Then in the fourteenth year (c. 712 BC) of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.
2Ki 18:14 So Hezekiah king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria, who was at Lachish, "I have offended you. Withdraw from me. Whatever you impose on me I will bear." The king of Assyria required Hezekiah king of Judah to pay 900,000-weight silver-currency and 1 tonne of gold.

2Ki 18:15 So Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the temple of Yehowah and in the treasuries of the king's palace.
2Ki 18:16 Then Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of Yehowah and from the pillars that he had overlaid; he gave the gold to the king of Assyria.
2Ki 18:17 But the king of Assyria mobilized his great military force, sending Tartan and Rabsaris and the chief commander from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They traveled up the roads and arrived outside Jerusalem. They approached the conduit of the upper pool (John 5:2), on the highway of the Launderers' Field, and stood by it.
2Ki 18:18 When they had called to King Hezekiah, Eliakim son of Hilkiah (Chilqiyah), who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, went out to meet them.
2Ki 18:19 So the chief commander said to them to tell Hezekiah what the great king, the king of Assyria, said: "What is the source of your confidence?
2Ki 18:20 You speak only useless words, saying there are allies and strength for war. Now in whom are you trusting? Who has given you courage to rebel against me?
2Ki 18:21 Look, you trust in the trekking pole of this bruised reed of Egypt, but if a man leans on it, it will stick into his hand and pierce it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is to anyone who trusts in him.
2Ki 18:22 But if you say to me, 'We are trusting in Yehowah our Divine One,' is not he the One whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem?'
2Ki 18:23 Now therefore, I want to make you a good offer from my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find cavalrymen for them.
2Ki 18:24 How could you resist even one captain of the least of my master's servants? You have put your trust in Egypt for chariots and cavalry!
2Ki 18:25 Have I traveled up here without Yehowah to fight against this place and destroy it? Yehowah said to me, 'Attack this land and destroy it.'"
2Ki 18:26 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebnah, and Joah said to the chief commander, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramaic language, for we understand it. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in the ears of the people who are on the wall."
2Ki 18:27 But the chief commander asked them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, who will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

2Ki 18:28 Then the chief commander stood and shouted in a loud voice in the Jews' language, "Listen to the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!
2Ki 18:29 The king says, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you from my power.
2Ki 18:30 Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Yehowah, saying, "Yehowah will surely rescue us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."'
2Ki 18:31 Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: 'Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree, and drink from the water in his own cistern.
2Ki 18:32 You will do this, until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey, so that you may live and not die.' Do not listen to Hezekiah when he tries to persuade you, saying, 'Yehowah will rescue us.'
2Ki 18:33 Has any of the deities of the people rescued them out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
2Ki 18:34 Where are the deities of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the deities of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they rescued Samaria out of my hand?
2Ki 18:35 Among all the deities of the lands, is there any deity who has rescued his land from my power? How could Yehowah save Jerusalem from my might?"
2Ki 18:36 But the people remained silent and did not respond, for the king had commanded, "Do not answer him."
2Ki 18:37 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the household; Shebna the scribe; and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief commander.

2 Kings Chapter 19

2Ki 19:1 It came about that when King Hezekiah heard their intelligence report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 19:2 He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah (Yeshayahu) son of Amoz, the prophet.
2Ki 19:3 They reported to him, "Hezekiah says, 'This Day is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, for the children have come to the time of birth, but there is no strength for them to be born.
2Ki 19:4 It may be that Yehowah your Divine One will hear all the words of the chief commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living Almighty, and will rebuke the words which Yehowah your Divine One has heard. Now lift up your prayer for the remnant that is still here.'"
2Ki 19:5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,
2Ki 19:6 and Isaiah spoke to them, "Say to your master: 'Yehowah declares, "Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have insulted me.
2Ki 19:7 Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear an intelligence report and go back to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'"
2Ki 19:8 Then the chief commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had gone away from Lachish.
2Ki 19:9 Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah, king of Cush and Egypt, had mobilized to fight against him, so he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a message (Isa. 30:2):
2Ki 19:10 "Speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, 'Do not let your Divine One in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem will not be given over into the hand of the king of Assyria."
2Ki 19:11 See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them completely. So will you be rescued?
2Ki 19:12 Have the deities of the ethnicities rescued them, the ethnicities that my fathers destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Telassar?
2Ki 19:13 Where's the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?'"
2Ki 19:14 Hezekiah received this letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of Yehowah and spread it before Yehowah.

2Ki 19:15 Then Hezekiah prayed before Yehowah, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, you who sit above the cherubim, you are the Almighty alone over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth.
2Ki 19:16 Turn your ear, Yehowah, and listen. Open your eyes, Yehowah, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living Almighty.
2Ki 19:17 Truly, Yehowah, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the ethnicities and their lands.
2Ki 19:18 They have put their deities into the fire, for they were not divine but the work of men’s hands, just wood and stone. So the Assyrians have destroyed them.
2Ki 19:19 Now then, Yehowah our Divine One, save us, I implore you, from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone, Yehowah, are the Almighty.”
2Ki 19:20 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel declares, ‘Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib, king of Assyria, I have heard you.
2Ki 19:21 This is the word that Yehowah has spoken about him: “The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs you to scorn. The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.
2Ki 19:22 Whom have you defied and insulted? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes in pride? Against the Set-apart One of Israel!
2Ki 19:23 By your messengers, you have defied the Lord and have said, ‘With the multitude of my chariots, I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the highest elevations of Lebanon. I will cut down the tall cedars and the choice cypress trees there. I will enter into its farthest parts, its most fruitful forest of Carmel.
2Ki 19:24 I have dug wells and have drunk foreign waters. I dried up all the rivers of Egypt under the soles of my feet.’
2Ki 19:25 Have you not heard how I determined it long ago and worked it out in ancient times? Now I am bringing it to pass. You are here to reduce impregnable cities into heaps of ruins.
2Ki 19:26 Their inhabitants, of little strength, are shattered and ashamed. They are plants in the field, green grass, the grass on the roof or in the field, burned before it has grown up.
2Ki 19:27 But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me.
2Ki 19:28 Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose, and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back the way you came.”

2Ki 19:29 This will be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows wild, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year you must plant and harvest, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
2Ki 19:30 The remnant of the house of Judah that survives will again take root and bear fruit.
2Ki 19:31 For from Jerusalem a remnant will come out, from Mount Zion survivors will come. The zeal of Yehowah will do this.
2Ki 19:32 Therefore, Yehowah says this about the king of Assyria: “He will not come into this city nor shoot an arrow here. Neither will he come before it with shield or pour over a siege ramp against it.
2Ki 19:33 The way by which he came will be the same way he will leave; he will not enter this city,” declares Yehowah.
2Ki 19:34 “For I will defend this city and rescue it, for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.””“
2Ki 19:35 It came about that night (c. 712 BC), that the angel of Yehowah went out and attacked the camp of the Assyrians, putting to death 185,000 soldiers. When the men arose at the crack of dawn, dead bodies lay everywhere (2 Chron. 32:21; Isa. 37:36-38; 10:32).
2Ki 19:36 So Sennacherib, king of Assyria, left Israel, went home, and stayed in Nineveh.
2Ki 19:37 Later, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his deity, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer murdered him with the sword (c. 678 BC). Then they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son became king in his place.

2 Kings Chapter 20

2Ki 20:1 In those days, Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying. So Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him and prophesied to him, “Yehowah declares, ‘Set your house in order; for you will die and not live.’”
2Ki 20:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yehowah,
2Ki 20:3 “Please, Yehowah, call to mind how I have faithfully walked before you with my whole heart, and how I have done what was good in your sight.” Then Hezekiah wept loudly.
2Ki 20:4 Before Isaiah had gone out into the middle courtyard, the Word of Yehowah came to him,
2Ki 20:5 “Turn back and say to Hezekiah, the leader of my people, ‘This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of David your ancestor, answers: “I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears. I am about to heal you on the third day, and you will go up to the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 20:6 I will add fifteen years to your life, and I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for my own sake and for my servant David’s sake.”’”
2Ki 20:7 So Isaiah ordered, “Take a lump of figs.” They did so and put it on his boil, and he recovered.
2Ki 20:8 Hezekiah asked Isaiah, “What will be the sign that Yehowah will heal me, and that I should go up to the temple of Yehowah on the third day?”
2Ki 20:9 Isaiah answered, “This will be the sign for you from Yehowah, that Yehowah will do the thing that he has spoken. Do you want the shadow to go forward ten steps or go back ten steps?”
2Ki 20:10 Hezekiah answered, “It is an easy thing for the shadow to go forward ten steps. No, let the shadow go backward ten steps.”
2Ki 20:11 So Isaiah the prophet cried out to Yehowah, and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, from where it had moved on the sundial stairway of Ahaz (c. 712 BC; 2 Chron. 32:31; Isa. 38:8).
2Ki 20:12 At that time Merodach Baladan, son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.
2Ki 20:13 Hezekiah listened to those letters, and then showed the messengers all the palace and his valuable things, the silver, the gold, the spices, precious oil, the storehouse of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them.
2Ki 20:14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say to you? Where did they come from?” Hezekiah answered, “They came from the distant country of Babylon.”

2Ki 20:15 Isaiah asked, “What have they seen in your house?” Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my valuable things that I have not shown them.”
2Ki 20:16 So Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to the Word of Yehowah:
2Ki 20:17 ‘Look, the days are about to come when everything in your palace, the things that your ancestors stored away until this present day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,’ declares Yehowah.
2Ki 20:18 ‘The sons born from you, whom you yourself have fathered, they will take them away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’”
2Ki 20:19 Then Hezekiah responded to Isaiah, “The Word of Yehowah that you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “Will there not be peace and stability in my days?”
2Ki 20:20 As for the other matters concerning Hezekiah, and all his power, and how he constructed the Pool (of Siloam; aka Silwan) and the conduit (Siloam Tunnel; 2 Chron. 32:30; John 9:7; Isa. 22:9-11; Sir. 48:17-18), and how he brought water into the city, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 20:21 Hezekiah slept with his ancestors (c. 697 BC), and Manasseh his son became king in his place.

2 Kings Chapter 21

2Ki 21:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah.
2Ki 21:2 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, like the disgusting things of the ethnicities whom Yehowah had driven out before the people of Israel.
2Ki 21:3 For he rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had destroyed, and he built altars for Baal, made an Asherah pole, as Ahab king of Israel had done, and he bowed down to all the stars of heaven and worshiped them.
2Ki 21:4 Manasseh built pagan altars in the temple of Yehowah, although Yehowah had commanded, "It is in Jerusalem that my name will be forever."
2Ki 21:5 He built altars for all the stars of heaven in the two courtyards of the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 21:6 He put his son into the fire; he performed soothsaying, sorcery, and consulted with necromancers and wizards who conjured up dead spirits. He practiced much evil in the sight of Yehowah, and he provoked Yehowah to anger.
2Ki 21:7 The carved figure of Asherah that he had made, he placed it in the temple of Yehowah. It was about this temple that Yehowah had spoken to David and Solomon his son, "It is in this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, that I will put my name forever.
2Ki 21:8 I will not cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land that I gave to their ancestors, if they will only be careful to obey all that I have commanded them, and to follow all the law that my servant Moses commanded them."
2Ki 21:9 But the people did not listen, and Manasseh led them to do evil, even more than the ethnicities that Yehowah had destroyed before the people of Israel.
2Ki 21:10 So Yehowah spoke by his servants the prophets,
2Ki 21:11 "Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these disgusting things, and has acted wickedly more than all that the Amorites who were before him did, and has also made Judah sin with his idols,
2Ki 21:12 therefore, Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: Look, I am about to bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle.
2Ki 21:13 I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line used against Samaria, and the plumb line used against the house of Ahab; I will wipe Jerusalem clean, as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.
2Ki 21:14 I will throw off the remnant of my inheritance and give them into the hand of their enemies. They will become victims and plunder for all their enemies,

2Ki 21:15 because they have done what is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their ancestors came out of Egypt, to this day.”
2Ki 21:16 Moreover, Manasseh shed much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another with death. This was in addition to the sin by which he made Judah to sin, when they did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah.
2Ki 21:17 As for the other matters concerning Manasseh, all that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 21:18 Manasseh slept with his ancestors (c. 642 BC) and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Amon his son became king in his place.
2Ki 21:19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Meshullemeth; she was the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.
2Ki 21:20 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, as Manasseh his father had done.
2Ki 21:21 Amon followed in all the way that his father had walked in and worshiped the idols that his father worshiped, and bowed down to them.
2Ki 21:22 He abandoned Yehowah, Mighty One of his fathers, and did not walk in the Way of Yehowah.
2Ki 21:23 The servants of Amon conspired against him and put the king to death in his own house (c. 640 BC).
2Ki 21:24 But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.
2Ki 21:25 As for the other matters concerning Amon that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 21:26 The people buried him in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son became king in his place.

2 Kings Chapter 22

2Ki 22:1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah, she was the daughter of Adaiah (Adayah) of Bozkath.
2Ki 22:2 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah. He walked in all the Way of David his ancestor, and he did not turn away either to the right or to the left.
2Ki 22:3 It came about that in the eighteenth year (c. 622 BC) of King Josiah, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah (Atsalyahu) son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the temple of Yehowah, commanding,
2Ki 22:4 "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest and tell him to count the money that has been brought into the temple of Yehowah, which the temple guards have gathered from the people.
2Ki 22:5 Let it be given into the hand of the workmen who are in charge of the temple of Yehowah, and let them give it to the workmen who are in the temple of Yehowah, for them to make repairs to the damage in the temple.
2Ki 22:6 Let them give money to the carpenters, the builders, and the masons, and also to buy timber and cut stone to repair the temple."
2Ki 22:7 But no accounting was required for the money that was given to them, because they handled it faithfully.
2Ki 22:8 Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of Yehowah." So Hilkiah gave the Book to Shaphan, and he read it.
2Ki 22:9 Shaphan went and took the Book to the king, and also reported to him, "Your servants have spent the money that was found in the temple, and they have given it into the hand of the workmen who supervise the care for the temple of Yehowah."
2Ki 22:10 Then Shaphan the scribe reported to the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a Book." Then Shaphan read it to the king.
2Ki 22:11 It came about that when the king had heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes.
2Ki 22:12 The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah (Asayahu), his own servant,
2Ki 22:13 "Go and consult with Yehowah for me, for the people, and for all Judah, because of the words of this Book that has been found. For great is the anger of Yehowah that has been kindled against us, because our ancestors have not listened to the words of this Book so as to obey all that was written concerning us."

2Ki 22:14 So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe; she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter, and they spoke with her.
2Ki 22:15 She said to them, “This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says: ‘Tell the man who sent you to me, 2Ki 22:16 “This is what Yehowah declares: ‘See, I will bring disaster to this place and to its inhabitants, according to everything written in the Book that the king of Judah has read.
2Ki 22:17 Because they have forsaken me and have burned incense to false deities, so that they might provoke me to anger with all the deeds they have committed, therefore my anger has been kindled against this place, and it will not be extinguished.’”
2Ki 22:18 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to ask the will of Yehowah, this is what you will say to him: “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel declares this: ‘About the words that you heard,
2Ki 22:19 because your heart was tender, and because you have humbled yourself before Yehowah, when you heard what I said against this place and its inhabitants, that they would become a desolation and a curse, and because you have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have listened to you,’ declares Yehowah.
2Ki 22:20 ‘See, I will gather you to your ancestors, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster that I will bring upon this place.’”” So the men took this message back to the king.

2 Kings Chapter 23

2Ki 23:1 So the king sent messengers, who gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.
2Ki 23:2 Then the king went up to the temple of Yehowah, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, prophets, and all the people, from small to great. He then read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that had been found in the temple of Yehowah.
2Ki 23:3 The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before Yehowah, to walk after Yehowah and to keep his commandments, his regulations, and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this Book. So all the people agreed to stand by the covenant.
2Ki 23:4 The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the priests under him, and the gatekeepers to bring out of the temple of Yehowah all the vessels that were made for Baal and Asherah, and for all the stars of heaven. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley and carried their ashes to Bethel.
2Ki 23:5 He got rid of the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had chosen to burn incense at the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places around Jerusalem, those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun and the moon, to the constellations, and to all the stars of heaven.
2Ki 23:6 He brought out the Asherah pole from the temple of Yehowah, outside Jerusalem to the Kidron Valley and burned it there. He beat it to dust and threw that dust onto the graves of the common people.
2Ki 23:7 He cleared out the rooms of the male cultic prostitutes who were in the temple of Yehowah, where the women wove garments for Asherah.
2Ki 23:8 Josiah brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba. He destroyed the high places at the gates that were at the entrance to the gate of Joshua, the fortress commander, on the left side of the city gate.
2Ki 23:9 Although the priests of those high places were not allowed to serve at the altar of Yehowah in Jerusalem, they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.
2Ki 23:10 Josiah defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, so that no one might put his son or his daughter into the fire as a sacrifice to Molech.
2Ki 23:11 He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun. They had been in an area at the entrance to the temple of Yehowah, near the room of Nathan Melech, the eunuch. Josiah burned the chariots of the sun.

2Ki 23:12 King Josiah destroyed the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courts of the temple of Yehowah. Josiah smashed them into pieces and threw them into the Kidron Valley.
2Ki 23:13 The king ruined the high places east of Jerusalem, south of the mount of corruption that King Solomon of Israel had built for Ashtoreth, the detestable idol of the Sidonians; for Chemosh, the detestable idol of Moab; and for Milcom, the detestable idol of the people of Ammon.
2Ki 23:14 He broke the stone pillars into pieces and cut down the Asherah poles and he filled those places with the bones of humans.
2Ki 23:15 Josiah also completely destroyed the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place that Jeroboam son of Nebat, the one who made Israel to sin, had constructed. He also burned that altar and the high place and beat it to dust. He also burned the Asherah pole.
2Ki 23:16 As Josiah looked over the area, he noticed the graves that were on the hillside. He sent men to take the bones from the graves; then he burned them on the altar, which defiled it. This was according to the Word of Yehowah, which the man of the Almighty had spoken, the man who spoke of these things beforehand.
2Ki 23:17 Then he asked, “What monument is that I see?” The men of the city answered him, “That is the grave of the man of the Almighty who came from Judah and spoke about these things that you have just done against the altar of Bethel.”
2Ki 23:18 So Josiah said, “Let it alone. No one should move his bones.” So they let his bones alone, along with the bones of the prophet who had come from Samaria.
2Ki 23:19 Then Josiah removed all the houses on the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made, and that provoked Yehowah to anger. He did to them exactly what had been done at Bethel.
2Ki 23:20 He slaughtered all the priests of the high places on the altars, and he burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.
2Ki 23:21 Then the king commanded all the people, “Keep the Passover to Yehowah your Divine One, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant.”
2Ki 23:22 Such a Passover celebration had never been held from the days of the judges who ruled Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel or Judah.
2Ki 23:23 But in the eighteenth year (c. 622 BC) of King Josiah this Passover of Yehowah was celebrated in Jerusalem.
2Ki 23:24 Josiah also banished the necromancers and wizards who conjured up dead spirits. He also banished the fetishes, the idols, and all the disgusting things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so as to confirm the words of the law which were written in the Book that Hilkiah the priest had found in the temple of Yehowah.

2Ki 23:25 Before Josiah, there had been no king like him, who turned to Yehowah with all his heart, all his soul, and all his might, who followed all the Law of Moses. Nor did any king like Josiah arise after him.
2Ki 23:26 However, Yehowah did not turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, which had been kindled against Judah for all the pagan worship with which Manasseh had provoked him.
2Ki 23:27 So Yehowah declared, “I will also remove Judah out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will throw away this city that I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the temple of which I said, ‘My name will be there.’”
2Ki 23:28 As for the other matters concerning Josiah, everything that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 23:29 In his days, Pharaoh Neco II, king of Egypt, went towards the king of Assyria at the Euphrates River. King Josiah went to meet Neco in battle, and Neco killed him as soon as he saw him at Megiddo (c. 609 BC; 2 Chron. 35:20-25; Jer. 46).
2Ki 23:30 Josiah’s servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own grave. Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in his father’s place.
2Ki 23:31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) of Libnah.
2Ki 23:32 Jehoahaz did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, like everything that his ancestors had done.
2Ki 23:33 Pharaoh Neco II put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem (c. 609 BC). Then Neco II fined Judah 3.3 metric tons of silver and thirty-three kilograms of gold.
2Ki 23:34 Pharaoh Neco II made Eliakim son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away to Egypt, and Jehoahaz died there.
2Ki 23:35 Jehoiakim paid the silver and gold to Pharaoh. In order to meet the demand of Pharaoh, Jehoiakim taxed the land, and he forced each man among the people of the land to pay him the silver and gold according to their assessments.
2Ki 23:36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zebidah; she was the daughter of Pedaiah (Pedayah) of Rumah.
2Ki 23:37 Jehoiakim did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, just as his ancestors had done.

2 Kings Chapter 24

2Ki 24:1 In Jehoiakim's days (c. 608 BC), Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, attacked Judah; Jehoiakim became his servant for three years. Then Jehoiakim turned back and rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar.
2Ki 24:2 Yehowah sent against Jehoiakim bands of Chaldeans, Arameans, Moabites, and Ammonites; he sent them against Judah to destroy it. This was in conformity with the Word of Yehowah that had been spoken through his servants the prophets.
2Ki 24:3 It was certainly because of the wrath of Yehowah that this came on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, because of the sins of Manasseh, all that he did, 2Ki 24:4 and also because of the innocent blood that he shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood. Yehowah was not willing to pardon that.
2Ki 24:5 As for the other matters concerning Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Daily Records of the Kings of Judah?
2Ki 24:6 Jehoiakim slept with his ancestors (c. 598 BC), and Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.
2Ki 24:7 The king of Egypt did not attack any more out of his land, because the king of Babylon had conquered all the lands that had been controlled by the king of Egypt, from the brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.
2Ki 24:8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta; she was the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.
2Ki 24:9 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah; he did all that his father had done.
2Ki 24:10 At that time, the military force of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, attacked Jerusalem and besieged the city.
2Ki 24:11 Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came to the city while his soldiers were besieging it,
2Ki 24:12 and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, his mother, his servants, his princes, and his officers. The king of Babylon captured him in the eighth year of his own reign (c. 598 BC).
2Ki 24:13 Nebuchadnezzar took out from there all the valuable things in the temple of Yehowah, and those in the king's palace. He cut into pieces all the golden objects that Solomon, king of Israel, had made in the temple of Yehowah, as Yehowah had said would happen.
2Ki 24:14 He took into exile all Jerusalem, all the leaders, and all the fighting men, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen, and the smiths. No one was left except the poorest people in the land.

2Ki 24:15 Nebuchadnezzar took Jehoiachin into exile at Babylon, as well as the king's mother, wives, officers, and the chief men of the land. He took them into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.
2Ki 24:16 All the fighting men, seven thousand in number, and one thousand craftsmen and blacksmiths, all of them fit for fighting, the king of Babylon brought these men into exile at Babylon.
2Ki 24:17 The king of Babylon made Mattaniah (Mattanyah), Jehoiachin's father's brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah (c. 598 BC).
2Ki 24:18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.
2Ki 24:19 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah; he did all that Jehoiakim had done.
2Ki 24:20 Through the anger of Yehowah, all these events happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he drove them out of his presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 Kings Chapter 25

2Ki 25:1 It happened, that in the ninth year (c. 589 BC) of the reign of King Zedekiah, on the tenth of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came with all his military force against Jerusalem. He camped opposite it, and they built a siege wall around it.
2Ki 25:2 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year (c. 587 BC) of King Zedekiah's reign.
2Ki 25:3 On the ninth day of the month of that year, the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.
2Ki 25:4 Then the city was broken into, and all the fighting men fled at night by the way of the gate between the two walls, by the king's garden, although the Chaldeans were all around the city. The king went in the direction of the Arabah.
2Ki 25:5 But the military force of Chaldeans pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. All his military force was scattered away from him.
2Ki 25:6 They captured the king (c. 587 BC) and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where they passed sentence on him.
2Ki 25:7 As for Zedekiah's sons, they slaughtered them before his eyes. Then he put out his eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon.
2Ki 25:8 Now on the seventh of the fifth month (Jer. 52:12), which was the nineteenth year (c. 587 BC) of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, a servant of the king of Babylon and commander of his bodyguards, came to Jerusalem.
2Ki 25:9 He burned the temple of Yehowah, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem; also every important building in the city he burned.
2Ki 25:10 As for all the walls around Jerusalem, all the soldiers of the Babylonians who were under the commander of the bodyguard, destroyed them.
2Ki 25:11 As for the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the remainder of the population, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguard, took them away into exile.
2Ki 25:12 But the commander of the bodyguard did leave some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
2Ki 25:13 As for the bronze pillars that were in the temple of Yehowah, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the temple of Yehowah, the Chaldeans broke them into pieces and carried the bronze back to Babylon.
2Ki 25:14 The pots, shovels, lamp trimmers, spoons, and all the utensils of bronze with which the priests had served in the temple, the Chaldeans took them all away.

2Ki 25:15 The pots for removing ashes and the bowls that were made of gold, and those made of silver, the captain of the king's guard took them away as well.
2Ki 25:16 The two pillars, the sea, and the stands that Solomon had made for the temple of Yehowah contained more bronze than could be weighed.
2Ki 25:17 The height of the first pillar was nine and one-half meters, and a capital of bronze was on top of it. The capital was one and one-half meters high, with latticework and pomegranates all around on the capital, all made of bronze. The other pillar and its latticework were the same as the first.
2Ki 25:18 The commander of the bodyguard took Seraiah the chief priest, together with Zephaniah (Tsephanyah), the second priest, and the three gatekeepers.
2Ki 25:19 From the city, he took prisoner an officer who was in charge of soldiers, and five men of those who advised the king, who were still in the city. He also took prisoner the king's military officer responsible for drafting men into the military force, along with sixty important men from the land who were in the city.
2Ki 25:20 Then Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
2Ki 25:21 The king of Babylon executed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. In this way, Judah went out of its land into exile.
2Ki 25:22 As for the people who remained in the land of Judah, those whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he put Gedaliah (Gedalyahu) son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, in charge of them.
2Ki 25:23 Now when all the commanders of the soldiers, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These men were Ishmael son of Nethaniah (Nethanyah), Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah (Yaazanyah) son of a Maacathite, they and their men.
2Ki 25:24 Gedaliah made an oath to them and to their men, "Do not be afraid of the Chaldean officials. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you."
2Ki 25:25 But it happened that in the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, from the royal family, came with ten men and attacked Gedaliah. Gedaliah died, along with the men of Judah and the Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah.
2Ki 25:26 Then all the people, from the least to the greatest, and the commanders of the soldiers, arose and went to Egypt, because they were afraid of the Babylonians.
2Ki 25:27 It happened later, in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin (c. 561 BC), king of Judah, on the twenty-seventh of the twelfth month, that Evil-

Merodach, king of Babylon, released Jehoiachin, king of Judah, from prison. This happened in the year that Evil-Merodach began to reign.
2Ki 25:28 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat more honorable than that of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.
2Ki 25:29 Evil-Merodach removed Jehoiachin's prison clothes, and Jehoiachin ate regularly at the king's table for the rest of his life.
2Ki 25:30 A regular food allowance was given to him every day for the rest of his life.

1Ch 1:38 The sons of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.
1Ch 1:39 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam, and Timna was Lotan's sister.
1Ch 1:40 The sons of Shobal were Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam. The sons of Zibeon were Aiah and Anah.
1Ch 1:41 The son of Anah was Dishon. The sons of Dishon were Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.
1Ch 1:42 The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan. The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.
1Ch 1:43 These were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelis: Bela son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
1Ch 1:44 When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place.
1Ch 1:45 When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.
1Ch 1:46 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated the Midianites in the land of Moab, reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith.
1Ch 1:47 When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.
1Ch 1:48 When Samlah died, Shaul of Rehoboth Hannahar reigned in his place.
1Ch 1:49 When Shaul died, Baal Hanan son of Achbor reigned in his place.
1Ch 1:50 When Baal Hanan son of Achbor died, Hadar reigned in his place. The name of his city was Pai. His wife's name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred daughter of Me Zahab.

1Ch 1:51 Hadad died. The heads of clans in Edom were chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth, 1Ch 1:52 chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon,
1Ch 1:53 chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar,
1Ch 1:54 chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These were the heads of clans in Edom.

1 Chronicles Chapter 2

1Ch 2:1 These were Israel's sons: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, 1Ch 2:2 Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
1Ch 2:3 Judah's sons were Er, Onan, and Shelah, who were born to him by Shua's daughter, the Canaanitess. Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Yehowah, and Yehowah killed him.
1Ch 2:4 Tamar, his daughter-in-law, bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons.
1Ch 2:5 Perez's sons were Hezron and Hamul.
1Ch 2:6 Zerah's sons were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara, five in all.
1Ch 2:7 Carmi's son was Achan, who brought trouble on Israel when he stole what was reserved for Yehowah.
1Ch 2:8 Ethan's son was Azariah.
1Ch 2:9 Hezron's sons were Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.
1Ch 2:10 Ram became the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, a leader among Judah's descendants.
1Ch 2:11 Nahshon became the father of Salma, and Salma became the father of Boaz.
1Ch 2:12 Boaz became the father of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse.
1Ch 2:13 Jesse became the father of his firstborn Eliab, Abinadab the second, Shimea the third,
1Ch 2:14 Nethanel the fourth, Raddai the fifth,
1Ch 2:15 Ozem the sixth, and David the seventh.
1Ch 2:16 Their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. The sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel, three of them.
1Ch 2:17 Abigail bore Amasa, whose father was Jether the Ishmaelite.
1Ch 2:18 Caleb son of Hezron became the father of children by Azubah, his wife, and by Jerioth. His sons were Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon.
1Ch 2:19 Azubah died, and then Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur.
1Ch 2:20 Hur became the father of Uri, and Uri became the father of Bezalel.
1Ch 2:21 Later, Hezron, when he was sixty years old, married the daughter of Machir, the father of Gilead. She bore him Segub.
1Ch 2:22 Segub became the father of Jair, who controlled twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.
1Ch 2:23 Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair and Kenath, as well as sixty surrounding towns. All these inhabitants were descendants of Machir, the father of Gilead.

1Ch 2:24 After Hezron's death in Caleb Ephrathah, his wife Abijah bore him a son, Ashhur, the father of Tekoa.
1Ch 2:25 The sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron, were Ram the firstborn, Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.
1Ch 2:26 Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam.
1Ch 2:27 The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.
1Ch 2:28 The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.
1Ch 2:29 The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.
1Ch 2:30 The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim, but Seled died without children.
1Ch 2:31 The son of Appaim was Ishi. The son of Ishi was Sheshan. The son of Sheshan was Ahlai.
1Ch 2:32 The sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai, were Jether and Jonathan. Jether died without children.
1Ch 2:33 The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the descendants of Jerahmeel.
1Ch 2:34 Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha.
1Ch 2:35 Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as his wife. She bore him Attai.
1Ch 2:36 Attai became the father of Nathan, and Nathan became the father of Zabad.
1Ch 2:37 Zabad became the father of Ephlal, and Ephlal became the father of Obed.
1Ch 2:38 Obed became the father of Jehu, and Jehu became the father of Azariah.
1Ch 2:39 Azariah became the father of Helez, and Helez became the father of Eleasah.
1Ch 2:40 Eleasah became the father of Sismai, and Sismai became the father of Shallum.
1Ch 2:41 Shallum became the father of Jekamiah (Yeqamyah), and Jekamiah became the father of Elishama.
1Ch 2:42 The sons of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph. His second son, Mareshah, was the father of Hebron.
1Ch 2:43 The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.
1Ch 2:44 Shema became the father of Raham, the father of Jorkeam. Rekem became the father of Shammai.

1Ch 2:45 The son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Bethzur.
1Ch 2:46 Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez. Haran became the father of Gazez.
1Ch 2:47 The sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.
1Ch 2:48 Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.
1Ch 2:49 She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena and the father of Gibea. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah. These were the descendants of Caleb.
1Ch 2:50 These were the sons of Hur, his firstborn by Ephrathah: Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim, 1Ch 2:51 Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Bethgader.
1Ch 2:52 Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim had descendants: Haroeh, half of the Menuthite people, 1Ch 2:53 and the clans of Kiriath Jearim: the Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites, and Mishraites. The Zorathites and Eshtaolites descended from these.
1Ch 2:54 The clans of Salma were the following: Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites,
1Ch 2:55 the clans of the scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, Shimeathites, and Sucathites. These were the Kenites who descended from Hammath, the ancestor of the Rechabites.

1 Chronicles Chapter 3

1Ch 3:1 Now these are the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: The firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam from Jezreel; the second was Daniel, by Abigail from Carmel;
1Ch 3:2 the third was Absalom, whose mother was Maacah, daughter of Talmai king of Geshur. The fourth was Adonijah son of Haggith;
1Ch 3:3 the fifth was Shephatiah by Abital; the sixth was Ithream by Eglah his wife.
1Ch 3:4 These six were born to David in Hebron, where he reigned seven years and six months. He then ruled thirty-three years in Jerusalem.
1Ch 3:5 These four sons, by Bathsheba daughter of Ammiel, were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon.
1Ch 3:6 David's other nine sons were: Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet,
1Ch 3:7 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,
1Ch 3:8 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.
1Ch 3:9 These were David's sons, not including the sons by his concubines. Tamar was their sister.
1Ch 3:10 Solomon's son was Rehoboam. Rehoboam's son was Abijah. Abijah's son was Asa. Asa's son was Jehoshaphat.
1Ch 3:11 Jehoshaphat's son was Joram. Joram's son was Ahaziah. Ahaziah's son was Joash.
1Ch 3:12 Joash's son was Amaziah. Amaziah's son was Uzziah. Uzziah's son was Jotham.
1Ch 3:13 Jotham's son was Ahaz. Ahaz's son was Hezekiah. Hezekiah's son was Manasseh.
1Ch 3:14 Manasseh's son was Amon. Amon's son was Josiah.
1Ch 3:15 Josiah's sons were his firstborn Johanan, his second son Jehoiakim, his third son Zedekiah, and his fourth son Shallum.
1Ch 3:16 Jehoiakim's sons were Jehoiachin and Zedekiah.
1Ch 3:17 The sons of Jehoiachin, the captive, were Shealtiel, 1Ch 3:18 Malkiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah (Nedabyah).
1Ch 3:19 Pedaiah's sons were Zerubbabel and Shimei. Zerubbabel's sons were Meshullam and Hananiah (Chananyah); Shelomith was their sister.
1Ch 3:20 His other five sons were Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah (Baraqyah), Hasadiah (Chasadyah), and Jushab Hesed.
1Ch 3:21 Hananiah's sons were Pelatiah (Pelatyah) and Jeshaiah (Yeshayah). His son was Rephaiah (Rephayah), and further descendants were Arnan, Obadiah, and Shecaniah (Shekanyah).

1Ch 3:22 Shecaniah's son was Shemaiah. Shemaiah's sons were Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat.
1Ch 3:23 Neariah's three sons were Elioenai, Hizkiah (Chizqiyah), and Azrikam.
1Ch 3:24 Elioenai's seven sons were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah (Delayah), and Anani.

1 Chronicles Chapter 4

1Ch 4:1 Judah's descendants were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.
1Ch 4:2 Shobal was the father of Reaiah (Reayah). Reaiah was the father of Jahath. Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the ancestors of the clans of the Zorathites.
1Ch 4:3 These were the ancestors of the clans in the city of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash. Their sister's name was Hazzelelponi.
1Ch 4:4 Penuel was the ancestor of the clans in the city of Gedor. Ezer was the father of the clans in Hushah. These were descendants of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem.
1Ch 4:5 Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.
1Ch 4:6 Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were Naarah's sons.
1Ch 4:7 Helah's sons were Zereth, Izhar, Ethnan,
1Ch 4:8 and Koz, who became the father of Anub and Zobebah, and of the clans descended from Aharhel son of Harum.
1Ch 4:9 Jabez was more respected than his brothers. His mother called him Jabez. She said, "Because I bore him in pain."
1Ch 4:10 Jabez called out to the Mighty One of Israel, "If only you would truly bless me, expand my territory, and your hand will be with me. When you do this you will keep me from harm, so that I may be free from pain!" So the Almighty granted him his prayer.
1Ch 4:11 Kelub, brother of Shuhah, became the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.
1Ch 4:12 Eshton became the father of Beth Rapha (giant), Paseah, and Tehinnah, who began the city of Nahash. These were men who lived in Recah.
1Ch 4:13 Kenaz's sons were Othniel and Seraiah. Othniel's sons were Hathath and Meonothai.
1Ch 4:14 Meonothai became the father of Ophrah, and Seraiah became the father of Joab, the originator of Ge Harashim, whose people were craftsmen.
1Ch 4:15 The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah and Naam. Elah's son was Kenaz.
1Ch 4:16 Jehallelel's sons were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.
1Ch 4:17 Ezrah's sons were Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon. Mered's Egyptian wife bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah, who became the father of Eshtemoa. These were the sons of Batyah, daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered married.
1Ch 4:18 Mered's wife Yehudiyah bore Jered, who became the father of Gedor; Heber, who became the father of Soco; and Jekuthiel, who became the father of Zanoah.

1Ch 4:19 Of the two sons of Hodiah's (Hodiyah) wife, sister of Naham, one became the father of Keilah the Garmite. The other was Eshtemoa the Maacathite.
1Ch 4:20 The sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben Hanan, and Tilon. The sons of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben Zoheth.
1Ch 4:21 The descendants of Shelah son of Judah, were Er father of Lecah, Laadah father of Mareshah and the clans of the linen workers at Beth Ashbea, 1Ch 4:22 Jokim, the men of Cozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who had property in Moab, but who returned to Bethlehem. This information is from ancient records.
1Ch 4:23 Some of these people were the potters who lived in Netaim and Gederah and worked for the king.
1Ch 4:24 Simeon's descendants were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, and Shaul.
1Ch 4:25 Shallum was Shaul's son, Mibsam was Shallum's son, and Mishma was Mibsam's son.
1Ch 4:26 Mishma's descendants were Hammuel his son, Zaccur his grandson, and Shimei his great-grandson.
1Ch 4:27 Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. His brothers did not have many children, so their clans did not increase greatly in numbers as the people of Judah did.
1Ch 4:28 They lived at Beersheba, Moladah, and at Hazar Shual.
1Ch 4:29 They also live at Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad,
1Ch 4:30 Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag,
1Ch 4:31 Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David.
1Ch 4:32 Their five villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan, 1Ch 4:33 together with the outlying villages as far as Baal. These were their settlements, and they kept the genealogical records.
1Ch 4:34 Clan leaders were Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah, 1Ch 4:35 Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah (Yoshibyah) son of Seraiah son of Asiel,
1Ch 4:36 Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, 1Ch 4:37 and Ziza son of Shiphi son of Allon son of Jedaiah (Yedayah) son of Shimri son of Shemaiah.
1Ch 4:38 These mentioned by name were leaders in their clans, and their clans increased greatly.
1Ch 4:39 They went near Gedor, on the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.
1Ch 4:40 They found abundant and good pasture. The land was broad, quiet, and peaceable. The Hamites had formerly lived there.
1Ch 4:41 These just listed by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and attacked the Hamite settlements and the Meunites, who were there also.

They destroyed them completely and lived there, because they found pasture for their flocks.
1Ch 4:42 Five hundred men from the tribe of Simeon went to Mount Seir, with their leaders Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi.
1Ch 4:43 They defeated the rest of the Amalekite refugees, and have lived there to this day.

1 Chronicles Chapter 5

1Ch 5:1 The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Now Reuben was Israel's firstborn, but his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, son of Israel, because Reuben had defiled his father's couch. So he is not recorded as being the oldest son.
1Ch 5:2 Judah was the strongest of his brothers, and the leader would come from him. But the birthright was Joseph's, 1Ch 5:3 the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.
1Ch 5:4 The descendants of Joel were these: Joel's son was Shemaiah. Shemaiah's son was Gog. Gog's son was Shimei.
1Ch 5:5 Shimei's son was Micah. Micah's son was Reaiah. Reaiah's son was Baal.
1Ch 5:6 Baal's son was Beerah, whom Tiglath-Pileser III, king of Assyria, took into exile. Beerah was a leader in the tribe of Reuben.
1Ch 5:7 Beerah's relatives by their clans are the following, listed in their genealogical records: Jeiel the oldest, Zechariah, and 1Ch 5:8 Bela son of Azaz son of Shema son of Joel. They lived in Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal Meon, 1Ch 5:9 and eastward to the start of the wilderness that extends to the Euphrates River. This was because they had much livestock in the land of Gilead.
1Ch 5:10 In the days of Saul, the tribe of Reuben attacked the Hagrites and defeated them. They lived in the Hagrites' tents throughout all the land east of Gilead.
1Ch 5:11 The members of the tribe of Gad lived near them, in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah.
1Ch 5:12 Their leaders were Joel, who was a clan head, and Shapham was head of another clan, and Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.
1Ch 5:13 Their relatives, by their fathers' families, were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber, seven in all.
1Ch 5:14 These persons named above were the descendants of Abihail, and Abihail was the son of Huri. Huri was the son of Jaroah. Jaroah was the son of Gilead. Gilead was the son of Michael. Michael was the son of Jeshishai. Jeshishai was the son of Jahdo. Jahdo was the son of Buz.
1Ch 5:15 Ahi son of Abdiel son of Guni, was head of their fathers' family.
1Ch 5:16 They lived in Gilead, in Bashan, in its towns, and in all the pasturelands of Sharon as far as its borders.
1Ch 5:17 All these were listed by genealogical records in the days of Jotham king of Judah and of Jeroboam II king of Israel.

1Ch 5:18 The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 soldiers trained for war, who carried shield and sword, and who drew the bow.
1Ch 5:19 They attacked the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.
1Ch 5:20 They received divine help against them. In this way, the Hagrites and all who were with them were defeated. This was because the Israelis cried out to the Almighty in the battle, and he responded to them, because they put their trust in him.
1Ch 5:21 They captured their animals, including fifty thousand camels, 250,000 sheep, two thousand donkeys, and 100,000 people.
1Ch 5:22 Because the Almighty fought for them, they killed many of the enemy. They lived in their land until the captivity.
1Ch 5:23 The half tribe of Manasseh lived in the land of Bashan as far as Baal Hermon and Senir, that is, Mount Hermon.
1Ch 5:24 These were the leaders of their families: Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were strong and courageous men, famous men, leaders of their families.
1Ch 5:25 But they were unfaithful to their ancestors' Divine One. Instead, they worshiped the deities of the people of the land, whom the Almighty had destroyed before them.
1Ch 5:26 The Mighty One of Israel incited the spirit of Pul (aka Tiglath-Pileser III), king of Assyria. He took into exile the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh (c. 737 BC). He brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and to the river of Gozan, where they remain to this day.

1Ch 6:53 Ahitub's son was Zadok. Zadok's son was Ahimaaz.
1Ch 6:54 These are the locations where Aaron's descendents were assigned to live, that is, for the descendants of Aaron who were from the clans of the Kohathites, the first lot was theirs.
1Ch 6:55 To them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah and its pasturelands,
1Ch 6:56 but the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh.
1Ch 6:57 To the descendants of Aaron they gave: Hebron, a city of refuge, and Libnah with its pasturelands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its pasturelands, 1Ch 6:58 Hilen with its pasturelands, and Debir with its pasturelands.
1Ch 6:59 They gave the descendants of Aaron: Ashan with its pasturelands and Beth Shemesh with its pasturelands;
1Ch 6:60 and from the tribe of Benjamin they were given Geba with its pasturelands, Alemeth with its pasturelands, and Anathoth with its pasturelands. All their cities numbered thirteen.
1Ch 6:61 To the rest of Kohath's descendants they gave by lot ten cities from the half tribe of Manasseh.

1Ch 6:62 To Gershom's descendants in their various clans were given thirteen cities from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.
1Ch 6:63 To Merari's descendants they gave twelve cities, according to their clans, from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.
1Ch 6:64 So the people of Israel gave these cities with their pasturelands to the Levites.
1Ch 6:65 They assigned by lot the towns mentioned earlier from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.
1Ch 6:66 To some of the Kohathite clans they gave cities from the tribe of Ephraim.
1Ch 6:67 They gave them: Shechem, a city of refuge, with its pasturelands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasturelands,
1Ch 6:68 Jokmeam with its pasturelands, Beth Horon with its pasturelands, 1Ch 6:69 Aijalon with its pasturelands, and Gath Rimmon with its pasturelands.
1Ch 6:70 The half tribe of Manasseh gave the Kohathites: Aner with its pasturelands and Bileam with its pasturelands. These became the possessions of the rest of the Kohathite clans.
1Ch 6:71 To Gershom's descendants out of the clans of the half tribe of Manasseh, they gave: Golan in Bashan with its pasturelands and Ashtaroth with its pasturelands.

1Ch 8:40 Ulam's sons were fighting men and archers. They had many sons and grandsons, a total of 150. All these belonged to the descendants of Benjamin.

1 Chronicles Chapter 9

1Ch 9:1 So all Israel was recorded in genealogies. They were recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel. As for Judah, they were carried away in exile to Babylon because of their sin.
1Ch 9:2 The first to resettle in their cities were some Israelis, priests, Levites, and temple servants.
1Ch 9:3 Some descendants of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh lived in Jerusalem.
1Ch 9:4 The settlers included Uthai son of Ammihud son of Omri son of Imri son of Bani, one of the descendants of Perez son of Judah.
1Ch 9:5 Among the Shilonites were Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.
1Ch 9:6 Among the descendants of Zerah was Jeuel. Their descendants numbered 690.
1Ch 9:7 Among the descendants of Benjamin were Sallu son of Meshullam son of Hodaviah son of Hassenuah.
1Ch 9:8 There were also Ibneiah (Yibneyah) son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi son of Michri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah son of Reuel son of Ibnijah (Yibniyah).
1Ch 9:9 Their relatives written in the genealogical lists numbered 956. All these men were leaders in their ancestors' clans.
1Ch 9:10 The priests were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin.
1Ch 9:11 There was also Azariah son of Hilkiah son of Meshullam son of Zadok son of Meraioth son of Ahitub, the one in charge of the temple of the Almighty.
1Ch 9:12 There was Adaiah son of Jeroham son of Pashhur son of Malchijah. There was also Maasai son of Adiel son of Jahzerah son of Meshullam son of Meshillemith son of Immer.
1Ch 9:13 Their relatives, who were leaders in their ancestors' clans, numbered 1,760. They were highly capable men in the work in the temple of the Almighty.
1Ch 9:14 Among the Levites, there was Shemaiah son of Hasshub son of Azrikam son of Hashabiah, among the descendants of Merari.
1Ch 9:15 There were also Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah son of Mica son of Zichri son of Asaph.
1Ch 9:16 There were also Obadiah son of Shemaiah son of Galal son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah son of Asa son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.
1Ch 9:17 The doorkeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their descendants. Shallum was their leader.
1Ch 9:18 Previously, they stood guard at the king's gate on the east side for the camp of Levi's descendants.

1Ch 9:19 Shallum son of Kore son of Ebiasaph, who as son of Korah, and his relatives from the house of his father, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, they guarded the door of the tent, as their ancestors had guarded the camp of Yehowah, and they also had guarded the entrance.
1Ch 9:20 Phinehas son of Eleazar had been in charge of them in the past, and Yehowah had been with him.
1Ch 9:21 Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was guard of the entrance to the tabernacle, the "Tent of Meeting."
1Ch 9:22 All those who were chosen as gatekeepers at the entrances numbered 212. Their names were recorded in the people's records in their villages. David and Samuel the seer had placed them into their positions of trust.
1Ch 9:23 So they and their children guarded the gates of the house of Yehowah, the tabernacle, by watch.
1Ch 9:24 The gatekeepers were posted on all four sides, toward the east, west, north, and south.
1Ch 9:25 Their brothers, who lived in their villages, came in for seven-day rotations, in turn.
1Ch 9:26 But the four leaders of the gatekeepers, who were Levites, were assigned to guard the rooms and storerooms in the temple of the Almighty.
1Ch 9:27 They would spend the night in their posts all around the temple of the Almighty, for they were responsible for guarding it. They would open it each morning at daybreak.
1Ch 9:28 Some of them were in charge of the temple's equipment; they counted the articles when they were brought in, and when they were taken out.
1Ch 9:29 Some of them also were assigned to take care of the set-apart things, the equipment, and the supplies, including the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices.
1Ch 9:30 Some of the priests' sons mixed the spices.
1Ch 9:31 Mattithiah (Mattithyah), one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was in charge of preparing bread for the offerings.
1Ch 9:32 Some of their brothers, descendants of the Kohathites, were in charge of the bread of the presence, to prepare it every Sabbath.
1Ch 9:33 The singers and Levite family leaders lived in rooms at the sanctuary when they were free from work, because they had to carry out their assigned tasks day and night.
1Ch 9:34 These were family leaders among the Levites, as listed in their genealogical records. They lived in Jerusalem.
1Ch 9:35 The father of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose wife's name was Maacah, lived in Gibeon.
1Ch 9:36 His firstborn son was Abdon, then his sons Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 1Ch 9:37 Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth.

1Ch 9:38 Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. They also lived near their brothers in Jerusalem.
1Ch 9:39 Ner was the father of Kish. Kish was the father of Saul. Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Ishbaal.
1Ch 9:40 The son of Jonathan was Merib Baal. Merib Baal was the father of Micah.
1Ch 9:41 The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz.
1Ch 9:42 Ahaz was the father of Jarah. Jarah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri was the father of Moza.
1Ch 9:43 Moza was the father of Binea. Binea was the father of Rephaiah. Rephaiah was the father of Eleasah. Eleasah was the father of Azel.
1Ch 9:44 Azel's six sons were Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were Azel's sons.

1 Chronicles Chapter 10

1Ch 10:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel. Every man of Israel fled from before the Philistines and fell down dead on Mount Gilboa.
1Ch 10:2 The Philistines closely pursued Saul and his sons. The Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, his sons.
1Ch 10:3 The battle went heavily against Saul, and the archers overtook him. He was in severe pain because of the archers.
1Ch 10:4 Then Saul ordered his armor bearer, “Draw your sword and thrust me through with it. Otherwise, these uncircumcised will come and abuse me.” But his armor bearer would not, for he was deathly afraid. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it (“hung” himself).
1Ch 10:5 When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died (Mat. 27:5).
1Ch 10:6 So Saul died (c. 1063 BC), and his three sons, so all his household members died together.
1Ch 10:7 When every man of Israel in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled. Then the Philistines came and lived in them.
1Ch 10:8 It came about on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.
1Ch 10:9 They stripped him and took his head and his armor. They sent messengers throughout Philistia to carry the news to their idols and to the people.
1Ch 10:10 They put his armor in the temple of their deities, and fastened his head to the temple of Dagon.
1Ch 10:11 When all Jabesh Gilead heard of all that the Philistines had done to Saul,
1Ch 10:12 all the fighting men went and took away the body of Saul and those of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh. They buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh and fasted seven days (1 Samuel 31:13).
1Ch 10:13 So Saul died, because he was unfaithful to Yehowah. He did not obey the instructions of Yehowah, but asked for advice from a necromancer who conjured up dead spirits.
1Ch 10:14 He did not seek guidance from Yehowah, so Yehowah killed him and turned over the kingdom to David son of Jesse.

1 Chronicles Chapter 11

1Ch 11:1 Then all Israel came to David at Hebron and said, “Look, we are your flesh and bone.
1Ch 11:2 In the recent past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led the Israeli military force. Yehowah your Divine One said to you, ‘You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become a ruler over my people Israel.’”
1Ch 11:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them before Yehowah. They anointed David king over Israel. In this way, the Word of Yehowah that had been declared by Samuel came true.
1Ch 11:4 David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, that is, Jebus. Now the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there.
1Ch 11:5 The inhabitants of Jebus taunted David, “You will not come in here!” But David took the stronghold of Zion, that is, the City of David (2 Sam. 5:6-10; 1 Kings 9:15).
1Ch 11:6 David had said, “Whoever attacks the Jebusites first will become a commander.” So Joab son of Zeruiah attacked first, so he was made a commander.
1Ch 11:7 Then David began to live in the stronghold. So they called it the City of David.
1Ch 11:8 He fortified the city around from the (Gihon) Spring Tower and back to the surrounding wall. Joab fortified the rest of the city.
1Ch 11:9 David became greater and greater, because Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces was with him.
1Ch 11:10 These were the leaders David had, who showed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, obeying the Word of Yehowah concerning Israel.
1Ch 11:11 This is a list of David’s elite soldiers: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, was commander of the thirty. He killed three hundred men with his spear on one occasion.
1Ch 11:12 After him was Eleazar son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.
1Ch 11:13 He was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines assembled together for battle, where there was a barley field, and the military force fled from the Philistines.
1Ch 11:14 They stood in the middle of the field. They defended it and cut down the Philistines, and Yehowah rescued them with a great victory.
1Ch 11:15 Then three of the thirty leaders went down to the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam. The military force of the Philistines was camped in the Valley of Giants.

1Ch 11:16 At that time, David was in his stronghold, a cave, while the Philistines had established their camp at Bethlehem.
1Ch 11:17 David was longing for water and said, “If only someone would give me water to drink from the well at Bethlehem, the well that is by the gate!”
1Ch 11:18 So these three mighty men broke through the military force of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, the well at the gate. They took the water and brought it to David, but he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to Yehowah.
1Ch 11:19 Then he said, “Far be it from me, Almighty One, that I should drink this. Should I drink the blood of men who have risked their lives?” Because they had put their lives at risk, he refused to drink it. These are things the three mighty men did.
1Ch 11:20 Abishai, brother of Joab, was captain over the Three. He once used his spear against three hundred and killed them. He is mentioned along with the Three.
1Ch 11:21 Of the Three, he was given double honor and became their captain. Even though he was not one of them.
1Ch 11:22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a strong man who did mighty feats. He killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down into a pit and killed a lion while it was snowing.
1Ch 11:23 He even killed an Egyptian, a man two and one-half meters tall. The Egyptian had a spear like a weaver’s beam, but he went down to him with only a trekking pole. He seized the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.
1Ch 11:24 Benaiah son of Jehoiada did these feats, and he was named alongside the three mighty men.
1Ch 11:25 He was more highly regarded than the thirty soldiers in general, but he was not regarded quite as highly as the three most elite soldiers. Yet, David put him in charge of his bodyguard.
1Ch 11:26 The mighty men were Asahel brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem,
1Ch 11:27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,
1Ch 11:28 Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abi Ezer the Anathothite,
1Ch 11:29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,
1Ch 11:30 Maharai the Netophathite, Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,
1Ch 11:31 Ittai son of Ribai of Gibeah of Benjamin’s descendants, Benaiah the Pirathonite,
1Ch 11:32 Hurai of the streams of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,
1Ch 11:33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite,
1Ch 11:34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite,
1Ch 11:35 Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,

1Ch 11:36 Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite,
1Ch 11:37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai,
1Ch 11:38 Joel brother of Nathan, Mibhar son of Hagri,
1Ch 11:39 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,
1Ch 11:40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
1Ch 11:41 Uriah the Hethite, Zabad son of Ahlai,
1Ch 11:42 Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,
1Ch 11:43 Hanan son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,
1Ch 11:44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham the Aroerite,
1Ch 11:45 Jediael son of Shimri, Joha, his brother the Tizite,
1Ch 11:46 Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite,
1Ch 11:47 Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

1 Chronicles Chapter 12

1Ch 12:1 These were the men who came to David to Ziklag, while he was still banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish. They were among the soldiers, his warriors in battle.
1Ch 12:2 They were armed with bows and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow. They were Benjamites, Saul's fellow tribesmen.
1Ch 12:3 The chief was Ahi Ezer, then Joash, both sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite. There were Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth. There were also Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite,
1Ch 12:4 Ishmaiah (Yishmayah) the Gibeonite, a soldier among the thirty, and in command of the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite,
1Ch 12:5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah (Baalyah), Shemariah (Shemaryah), Shephatiah the Haruphite, 1Ch 12:6 the Korahites Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, Jashobeam, and 1Ch 12:7 Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham of Gedor.
1Ch 12:8 Some Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness. They were fighting men, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear; whose faces were as fierce as the faces of lions. They were as swift as gazelles on the mountains.
1Ch 12:9 There were Ezer the leader, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,
1Ch 12:10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,
1Ch 12:11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,
1Ch 12:12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,
1Ch 12:13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh.
1Ch 12:14 These sons of Gad were leaders of the military force. The least led a hundred, and the greatest led a thousand.
1Ch 12:15 They crossed the Jordan River in the first month, when it overflowed its banks, and chased away all those living in the valleys, both toward the east and toward the west.
1Ch 12:16 Some of the men of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold to David.
1Ch 12:17 David went out to meet them and addressed them: "If you have come in peace to me to help me, you may join me. But if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, may the Mighty One of our ancestors see and rebuke you, since I have done no wrong."
1Ch 12:18 Then the Ruach came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty. Amasai said, "We are yours, David. We are on your side, son of Jesse. Peace, may peace be to whoever helps you. May peace be to your helpers, for your Divine One is helping you." Then David received them and made them commanders over his men.

1Ch 12:19 Some from Manasseh also deserted to David when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle. Yet, they did not help the Philistines, because the Philistine lords consulted with each other and sent David away. They said, "He will desert to his master Saul at the risk of our lives."
1Ch 12:20 When he went to Ziklag, the men of Manasseh who joined him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains over thousands of Manasseh.
1Ch 12:21 They helped David fight against the roving bands, for they were fighting men. Later they became commanders of the military force.
1Ch 12:22 Day after day, men came to David to help him, until there was a great military force, like the armed forces of the Almighty.
1Ch 12:23 This is the record of the armed soldiers for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul over to him, which carried out the Word of Yehowah.
1Ch 12:24 From Judah those who carried shield and spear were 6,800, armed for war.
1Ch 12:25 From the Simeonites there were 7,100 fighting men.
1Ch 12:26 From the Levites there were 4,600 fighting men.
1Ch 12:27 Jehoiada was the leader of Aaron's descendants, and with him were 3,700.
1Ch 12:28 With Zadok, a young, strong, and courageous man, were twenty-two leaders from his father's family.
1Ch 12:29 From Benjamin, Saul's tribe, were three thousand. Most of them had remained loyal to Saul, until this time.
1Ch 12:30 From the Ephraimites there were 20,800 fighting men, men famous in their fathers' families.
1Ch 12:31 From the half tribe of Manasseh, there were eighteen thousand famous men who came to make David king.
1Ch 12:32 From Issachar, there were two hundred leaders who had understanding of the times and knew what Israel ought to do. All their relatives were under their command.
1Ch 12:33 From Zebulun there were fifty thousand fighting men, prepared for battle, with all the weapons of war, and ready to give undivided loyalty.
1Ch 12:34 From Naphtali there were one thousand officers, and with them thirty-seven thousand men with shields and spears.
1Ch 12:35 From the Danites there were 28,600 men prepared for battle.
1Ch 12:36 From Asher there were forty thousand men prepared for battle.

1Ch 12:37 From the other side of the Jordan River, from the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, there were 120,000 men armed with all kinds of weapons for battle.
1Ch 12:38 All these soldiers, equipped for battle, came to Hebron with firm intentions to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of Israel were in agreement to make David king also.
1Ch 12:39 They were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their relatives had sent them with provisions.
1Ch 12:40 In addition, those who were near to them, as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen, and cakes of figs, clusters of raisins, wine, oil, oxen, and sheep, for Israel was celebrating!

1 Chronicles Chapter 13

1Ch 13:1 David consulted with the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with every leader.
1Ch 13:2 David said to all the congregation of Israel, “If it seems good to you, and if this comes from Yehowah our Divine One, let us send messengers everywhere to our brothers who remain in all the regions of Israel, and to the priests and Levites who are in their cities. Let them be told to join us.
1Ch 13:3 Let us bring the Ark of our Divine One back to ourselves, for we did not seek his will in the days of Saul’s reign.”
1Ch 13:4 The whole congregation agreed to do these things, because they seemed right in the eyes of all the people.
1Ch 13:5 So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor River (aka Stream of Horus) in Egypt to the entrance of Hamath (modern Hamāh), to bring the Ark of the Almighty from Kiriath Jearim.
1Ch 13:6 David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, Kiriath Jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the Ark of Almighty Yehowah, who sits enthroned over the cherubim.
1Ch 13:7 So they set the Ark of the Almighty on a new cart. They brought it out of Abinadab’s house. Uzzah and Ahio were guiding the cart.
1Ch 13:8 David and all Israel were celebrating before the Almighty with all their might. They were singing with stringed instruments, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets.
1Ch 13:9 When they came to the threshing floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out with his hand to grab the ark, because the oxen stumbled.
1Ch 13:10 Then the anger of Yehowah burned against Uzzah, and He killed him, because Uzzah had reached out with his hand to the ark. He died there before the Almighty.
1Ch 13:11 David was angry, because Yehowah had attacked Uzzah. That place is called Perez Uzzah to this day.
1Ch 13:12 David was afraid of the Almighty that day. He asked, “How can I bring the Ark of the Almighty home to me?”
1Ch 13:13 So David did not move the ark to the City of David, but put it aside in the house of Obed Edom the Gittite.
1Ch 13:14 The Ark of the Almighty remained in Obed Edom’s household in his house for three months. So Yehowah blessed his household and all that he possessed.

1 Chronicles Chapter 14

1Ch 14:1 Then Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, carpenters, and masons. They built a house for him.
1Ch 14:2 David knew that Yehowah had established him as king over Israel, and that his kingdom was exalted on high for the sake of his people Israel.
1Ch 14:3 In Jerusalem, David took more wives, and he became the father of more sons and daughters.
1Ch 14:4 These were the names of the children who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,
1Ch 14:5 Ibhar, Elishama, Elpelet,
1Ch 14:6 Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,
1Ch 14:7 Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.
1Ch 14:8 Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king over all Israel, they all went out looking for him. But David heard about it and went out against them.
1Ch 14:9 Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the Valley of Giants.
1Ch 14:10 Then David asked for help from the Almighty, “Should I attack the Philistines? Will you give victory over them?” Yehowah answered him, “Attack, for I will certainly give them to you.”
1Ch 14:11 So they came up to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. David exclaimed, “The Almighty has burst through my enemies by my hand like a bursting flood of water!” So the name of that place became Baal Perazim (2 Sam. 5:20; Mat. 11:12; Mic. 2:12-13; Gen. 38:29).
1Ch 14:12 The Philistines abandoned their deities there, and David gave an order that they should be burned.
1Ch 14:13 Then the Philistines raided the valley yet again.
1Ch 14:14 So David asked for help from the Almighty again. The Almighty answered him, “You must not attack their front, but rather circle around behind them and come on them through the balsam woods.
1Ch 14:15 When you hear the sound of marching in the wind, blowing through the balsam treetops, then attack with force. Do this, because the Almighty will have gone out before you to attack the military force of the Philistines.”
1Ch 14:16 So David did as the Almighty had commanded him. He defeated the military force of the Philistines from Gibeon all the way to Gezer.
1Ch 14:17 Then David’s fame went out into all lands, and Yehowah caused all ethnicities to fear him.

1 Chronicles Chapter 15

1Ch 15:1 David built houses for himself in the City of David. He prepared a place for the Ark of the Almighty and set up a tent for it.
1Ch 15:2 Then David said, “Only the Levites may carry the Ark of the Almighty, for they had been chosen by Yehowah to carry the Ark of the Almighty, and to serve him forever.”
1Ch 15:3 Then David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of Yehowah to the place he had prepared for it.
1Ch 15:4 David gathered together Aaron’s descendants and the Levites.
1Ch 15:5 From the descendants of Kohath, there was Uriel the leader and his relatives, 120 men.
1Ch 15:6 From the descendants of Merari, there was Asaiah the leader and his relatives, 220 men.
1Ch 15:7 From the descendants of Gershom, there was Joel the leader and his relatives, 130 men.
1Ch 15:8 From the descendants of Elizaphan, there was Shemaiah the leader and his relatives, 200 men.
1Ch 15:9 From the descendants of Hebron, there was Eliel the leader and his relatives, eighty men.
1Ch 15:10 From the descendants of Uzziel, there was Amminadab the leader and his relatives, 112 men.
1Ch 15:11 David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.
1Ch 15:12 He commanded them, “You are the leaders of the Levite families. Consecrate yourselves, both you and your brothers, so that you may bring up the Ark of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it.
1Ch 15:13 You did not carry it the first time. That is why Yehowah our Divine One broke out against us, for we did not seek him or obey his decree.”
1Ch 15:14 So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves, so they could bring up the Ark of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
1Ch 15:15 So the Levites carried the Ark of the Almighty on their shoulders with the poles, as Moses had commanded, following the rules given by the Word of Yehowah.
1Ch 15:16 David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to assign their brothers to be musicians with musical instruments, stringed instruments, harps and cymbals, playing loudly and joyfully lifting up their voices.

1Ch 15:17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel and one of his brothers, Asaph son of Berechiah. They also appointed kinsmen from Merari's descendants and Ethan son of Kushaiah.
1Ch 15:18 With them were their kinsmen of second rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah (Mattithyah, aka Matthew), Eliphelehu, Mikneiah (Miqneyahu), Obed Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers.
1Ch 15:19 The musicians Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were appointed to play loud bronze cymbals.
1Ch 15:20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah played the stringed instruments, set to Alamoth.
1Ch 15:21 Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah (Azazyahu) led the way with harps set to the Sheminith, with excellence.
1Ch 15:22 Kenaniah, leader of the Levites, was the director of the singing, because he was a teacher of music.
1Ch 15:23 Berechiah and Elkanah were guards for the ark.
1Ch 15:24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the Ark of the Almighty. Obed Edom and Jehiah (Yechiyah) were guards for the ark.
1Ch 15:25 So David, the elders of Israel, and the commanders over thousands went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah out of Obed Edom's house with rejoicing.
1Ch 15:26 While the Almighty helped the Levites who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.
1Ch 15:27 David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were the Levites who carried the ark, the singers, and Kenaniah, the leader of the song with the singers. David was wearing a linen ephod.
1Ch 15:28 So all Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah with joyful shouting, and with the sound of the cornet and trumpets, with cymbals, and with stringed instruments and harps.
1Ch 15:29 But as the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah came to the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul, looked out the window. She saw King David dancing and celebrating. Then she despised him in her heart.

1 Chronicles Chapter 16

1Ch 16:1 They brought in the Ark of the Almighty and put it in the middle of the tent that David had set up for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the Almighty.
1Ch 16:2 When David had finished sacrificing the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yehowah.
1Ch 16:3 He distributed to every Israeli, both to men and women, a loaf of bread, and a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.
1Ch 16:4 David appointed certain Levites to serve before the Ark of Yehowah, and to celebrate, thank and praise Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
1Ch 16:5 These Levites were Asaph the leader, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed Edom, and Jeiel. These were to play with stringed instruments and with harps. Asaph was to sound the cymbals, sounding loudly.
1Ch 16:6 Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests were to blow the trumpets regularly, before the Ark of the Covenant of the Almighty.
1Ch 16:7 Then on that day, David first appointed Asaph and his brothers to sing this song of thanksgiving to Yehowah:
1Ch 16:8 Give thanks to Yehowah, call on his name; make known his deeds among the ethnicities.
1Ch 16:9 Sing to him, sing praises to him; speak of all his marvelous deeds!
1Ch 16:10 Boast in his set-apart name; let the heart of those who seek Yehowah rejoice!
1Ch 16:11 Seek Yehowah and his strength; seek his presence continually.
1Ch 16:12 Recall the marvelous things he has done, his miracles and the decrees from his mouth,
1Ch 16:13 you descendants of Israel his servant, you people of Jacob, his chosen ones.
1Ch 16:14 He is Yehowah our Divine One. His decrees are on all the earth.
1Ch 16:15 Keep his covenant in mind forever, the word that he commanded for a thousand generations.
1Ch 16:16 He calls to mind the covenant that he made with Abraham, and his oath to Isaac.
1Ch 16:17 This is what he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, and to Israel as an everlasting covenant.
1Ch 16:18 He promised, “I will give you the land of Canaan as your share of your inheritance.”
1Ch 16:19 I said this when you were only few in number, so few indeed, and were sojourners in the land.

1Ch 16:20 They went from ethnicity to ethnicity, from one kingdom to another.
1Ch 16:21 He did not allow anyone to oppress them; he punished kings for their sakes.
1Ch 16:22 He commanded, “Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not harm my prophets.”
1Ch 16:23 Sing to Yehowah, all the earth; announce his salvation day after day!
1Ch 16:24 Declare his glory among the ethnicities, his marvelous deeds among all the ethnicities.
1Ch 16:25 For Yehowah is great and is to be praised greatly, and he is to be feared above all deities!
1Ch 16:26 For all the deities of the ethnicities are idols, but it is Yehowah who made Heaven.
1Ch 16:27 Splendor and majesty are in his presence. Strength and joy are in his place.
1Ch 16:28 Ascribe to Yehowah, you clans of people, ascribe to Yehowah glory and strength;
1Ch 16:29 Ascribe to Yehowah the glory due to his name. Bring an offering and come before him. Bow down to Yehowah in his set-apart splendor.
1Ch 16:30 Tremble before him, all the earth. The globe also is established; it cannot be shaken.
1Ch 16:31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let them shout among the ethnicities, “Yehowah reigns!”
1Ch 16:32 Let the sea roar, and that which fills it shout with joy. Let the fields be joyful, and all that is in them.
1Ch 16:33 Then let the trees in the forest shout for joy before Yehowah, for he is coming to judge the earth!
1Ch 16:34 Give thanks to Yehowah, for he is good, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
1Ch 16:35 Then say, “Save us, Mighty One of our salvation. Gather us together and rescue us from the ethnicities, so that we may give thanks to your set-apart name and glory in your praises!”
1Ch 16:36 May Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, be praised from everlasting to everlasting! All the people said, “Amein” and praised Yehowah!
1Ch 16:37 So David left Asaph and his brothers there before the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah, to serve continually before the ark, as every day’s work required.
1Ch 16:38 Obed Edom with those sixty-eight relatives were included. Obed Edom son of Jeduthun, along with Hosah, were to be gatekeepers.
1Ch 16:39 Zadok the priest and his fellow priests were to serve before the tabernacle of Yehowah at the high place in Gibeon.

1Ch 16:40 They were to offer burnt offerings to Yehowah on the altar for burnt offerings continually at dawn and dusk, according to all that is written in the Law of Yehowah, which he gave as a command to Israel.
1Ch 16:41 Heman and Jeduthun were with them, together with the rest who were chosen by name, to give thanks to Yehowah, because his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
1Ch 16:42 Heman and Jeduthun were in charge of those who played trumpets, cymbals, and the other instruments for the consecrated music of the Almighty. The sons of Jeduthun guarded the gate.
1Ch 16:43 Then all the people returned to their homes, and David returned to bless his own household.

1 Chronicles Chapter 17

1Ch 17:1 It happened, that after the king had settled in his house, he said to Nathan the prophet, “Look, I am living in a house of cedar, but the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah is staying under a tent.”
1Ch 17:2 Then Nathan said to David, “Go, do what is in your heart, for the Almighty is with you.”
1Ch 17:3 But that same night, the word of the Almighty came to Nathan,
1Ch 17:4 “Go and tell David my servant, ‘This is what Yehowah says: You will not build me a house in which to live.
1Ch 17:5 For I have not lived in a house from the day that I brought up Israel to this present day. Instead, I have been living in a tent, a tabernacle, in various places.
1Ch 17:6 In all places I have moved among all Israel, did I ever say anything to any of Israel’s leaders whom I appointed to shepherd my people, asking, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?”’”
1Ch 17:7 “Now then tell my servant David, ‘This is what Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, so that you would be ruler over my people Israel.
1Ch 17:8 I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are on the earth.
1Ch 17:9 I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them there, so that they may live in their own place and be troubled no more. No longer will wicked people oppress them, as they did before,
1Ch 17:10 as they were doing from the days that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Then I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover, I tell you that I, Yehowah, will build you a household.
1Ch 17:11 It will come about, that when your days are fulfilled for you to go to your fathers, I will raise up your descendant after you, and for one of your own descendants, I will establish his kingdom.
1Ch 17:12 He will build me a temple, and I will establish his throne forever.
1Ch 17:13 I will be a father to him, and he will be my son. I will not take my covenant faithfulness away from him, as I took it from Saul, who ruled before you.
1Ch 17:14 I will set him over my household and in my kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.’”
1Ch 17:15 Nathan spoke to David and reported to him all these words, and he told him about the entire vision.

1Ch 17:16 Then King David went in and sat before Yehowah; he prayed, “Who am I, Yehowah Almighty, and what is my family, that you have brought me to this point?
1Ch 17:17 For this was a small thing in your sight, Almighty One. You have spoken of your servant’s family for a great while to come, and have shown me future generations, Yehowah Almighty.
1Ch 17:18 What more can I, David, say to you? You have honored your servant. You have given your servant special recognition.
1Ch 17:19 Yehowah, for your servant’s sake, and to fulfill your own purpose, you have done this great thing to reveal all your great deeds.
1Ch 17:20 Yehowah, there is none like you, and there is no Almighty besides you, just as we have always heard.
1Ch 17:21 For what nation on earth is like your people Israel, whom you, Almighty One, rescued from Egypt as a people for yourself, to make a name for yourself by great and awesome deeds? You drove out ethnicities from before your people, whom you rescued from Egypt.
1Ch 17:22 You made Israel your own people forever, and you, Yehowah, became their Divine One.
1Ch 17:23 So now, Yehowah, may the promise that you made concerning your servant and his family be established forever. Do as you have spoken.
1Ch 17:24 May your name be established forever and be great, so the people will say, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is the Mighty One of Israel, even an Almighty for Israel,’ while the House of David your servant is established before you.
1Ch 17:25 For you, my Divine One, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a household. That is why I, your servant, have found courage to pray to you.
1Ch 17:26 Now Yehowah, you are Almighty, and have made this good promise to your servant:
1Ch 17:27 Now it has pleased you to bless your servant’s household, that it may continue forever before you. You, Yehowah, have blessed it, and it will be blessed forever.”

1 Chronicles Chapter 18

1Ch 18:1 After this, it came about that David attacked the Philistines and defeated them. He took Gath and its villages out of the Philistines' control.
1Ch 18:2 Then he defeated Moab, and the Moabites became servants to David and paid him tribute.
1Ch 18:3 David then defeated Hadadezer, king of Zobah at Hamath, as Hadadezer was traveling to establish his rule by the Euphrates River.
1Ch 18:4 David captured from him a thousand chariots, seven thousand cavalry, and twenty thousand infantrymen. David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved enough of them for a hundred chariots.
1Ch 18:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand Aramean men.
1Ch 18:6 Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became servants to him and brought him tribute. Yehowah gave victory to David wherever he went.
1Ch 18:7 David took the golden shields that were on Hadadezer's servants and brought them to Jerusalem.
1Ch 18:8 From Tibhath and Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a large amount of bronze. It was with this bronze that Solomon later made the bronze sea, the pillars, and the bronze equipment.
1Ch 18:9 When Toi, king of Hamath, heard that David had defeated all the military force of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 1Ch 18:10 Toi sent Hadoram his son to King David to greet him and to bless him, because David had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him, and because Hadadezer had waged war against Toi. Hadoram brought with himself objects of silver, gold, and bronze (2 Sam. 8:9-10).
1Ch 18:11 King David set these objects apart to Yehowah, together with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the ethnicities: Edom, Moab, the people of Ammon, the Philistines, and Amalek.
1Ch 18:12 Abishai son of Zeruiah killed eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.
1Ch 18:13 He placed garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. Yehowah gave victory to David wherever he went.
1Ch 18:14 David reigned over all Israel, and he administered justice and righteousness to all his people.
1Ch 18:15 Joab son of Zeruiah was the commander of the military force, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder.
1Ch 18:16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests, and Shavsha was scribe.

1Ch 18:17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites, and David’s sons were the king’s leading advisors.

1 Chronicles Chapter 19

1Ch 19:1 It came about later that Nahash, king of the people of Ammon, died, and that his son became king in his place.
1Ch 19:2 David said, “I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. David’s servants entered the land of the Ammonites and went to Hanun, in order to console him.
1Ch 19:3 But the Ammonite princes asked Hanun, “Do you think that David is honoring your father, because he has sent men to comfort you? Do not his servants come to you to explore and examine the land in order to overthrow it?”
1Ch 19:4 So Hanun seized David’s servants, shaved them, cut off their garments to the waist, up to their buttocks, and sent them away.
1Ch 19:5 When they explained this to David, he sent to meet with them, for the men were deeply ashamed. The king ordered, “Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown back, and then return.”
1Ch 19:6 When the Ammonites saw that they had become a stench to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 3,000,000-weight silver-currency to hire Aramean chariots and cavalry from Naharaim, Maacah, and Zobah.
1Ch 19:7 They hired thirty-two thousand chariots with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. The Ammonites gathered themselves together from their cities, and came out for war.
1Ch 19:8 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and his entire military force to meet them.
1Ch 19:9 The people of Ammon came out and lined up for battle at the city gate, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.
1Ch 19:10 When Joab saw the battle lines facing him both in front and behind, he chose some of Israel’s best fighters and arranged them against the Arameans.
1Ch 19:11 As for the rest of the military force, he gave it into the command of Abishai his brother, and he put them into battle lines against the military force of Ammon.
1Ch 19:12 Joab said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you, Abishai, must rescue me. But if the military force of Ammon is too strong for you, then I will come and rescue you.
1Ch 19:13 Be strong, and let us show ourselves to be strong for our people and for the cities of our Divine One, for Yehowah will do what is good for his purpose.”

1Ch 19:14 So Joab and the soldiers of his military force advanced to the battle against the Arameans, who were forced to flee before the military force of Israel.
1Ch 19:15 When the military force of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from Joab's brother Abishai and went back into the city. Then Joab returned from the people of Ammon and went back to Jerusalem.
1Ch 19:16 When the Arameans saw that they were being defeated by Israel, they sent for reinforcements from beyond the Euphrates River, with Shophach the commander of Hadadezer's military force.
1Ch 19:17 When David was told this, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan River, and came upon them. He arranged the military force for battle against the Arameans, and they fought him.
1Ch 19:18 The Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed seven thousand Aramean charioteers and forty thousand infantrymen. He also killed Shophach, the commander of the military force.
1Ch 19:19 When all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. So the people of Aram were no longer willing to help the Ammonites.

1 Chronicles Chapter 20

1Ch 20:1 It came about in the springtime, at the time when kings normally go to war, that Joab led the military force into battle and devastated the land of the Ammonites. He went and besieged Rabbah. David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and defeated it.
1Ch 20:2 David took the crown of their king from off his head, and he found that it weighed thirty-three kilograms of gold, and in it were precious stones. The crown was set on David's head, and he brought out the plunder of the city in large quantities.
1Ch 20:3 He brought out the people who were in the city and forced them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes. David required all the cities of the people of Ammon to do this labor. Then David and all the military force returned to Jerusalem.
1Ch 20:4 It came about after this, that there was a battle at Gezer with the Philistines. Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the giants, and the Philistines were subdued.
1Ch 20:5 It came about again in a battle with the Philistines at Gob, that Elhanan son of Jari the Bethlehemite killed Lahmi brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.
1Ch 20:6 It came about in another battle at Gath, that there was a man of great height who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot. He also was descended from the giants.
1Ch 20:7 When he mocked the military force of Israel, Jehonadab son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.
1Ch 20:8 These were descendants of the giants of Gath, and they were killed by the hand of David and by the hand of his soldiers.

1 Chronicles Chapter 21

1Ch 21:1 Satan arose against Israel and incited David to count Israel.
1Ch 21:2 David ordered Joab and the commanders of the military force, “Go, count the people of Israel from Beersheba to Dan and report back to me, that I may know their number.”
1Ch 21:3 Joab responded, “May Yehowah make his military force a hundred times greater than it is. But my master the king, do they not all serve my master? Why does my master want this? Why bring guilt on Israel?”
1Ch 21:4 But the king’s word was final against Joab. So Joab left and went throughout all Israel. Then he came back to Jerusalem.
1Ch 21:5 Then Joab reported the total of the count of the fighting men to David. There were in Israel 1,100,000 men who drew the sword. Judah alone had 470,000 soldiers.
1Ch 21:6 But Levi and Benjamin were not counted among them, for the king’s command had disgusted Joab.
1Ch 21:7 The Almighty was offended by this action, so he attacked Israel.
1Ch 21:8 David confessed to the Almighty, “I have greatly sinned by doing this. Now take away your servant’s guilt, for I have acted extremely foolishly.”
1Ch 21:9 Yehowah ordered Gad, David’s prophet,
1Ch 21:10 “Go say to David, ‘This is what Yehowah says: I am giving you three choices. Choose one of them.’”
1Ch 21:11 So Gad went to David and said to him, “Yehowah says this, ‘Choose one of these:
1Ch 21:12 Either three years of famine, three months being pursued by your enemies and being caught by their swords, or else three days of the sword of Yehowah, that is, a plague in the land, with the angel of Yehowah destroying throughout all the land of Israel.’ Now then decide what answer I should take to the One who sent me.”
1Ch 21:13 Then David answered Gad, “I am in deep trouble. Let me fall into the hand of Yehowah rather than into the hand of man, for his mercies are exceedingly numerous.”
1Ch 21:14 So Yehowah sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand people died.
1Ch 21:15 The Almighty sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was about to destroy it, Yehowah watched and changed his mind about the harm. He commanded the destroying angel, “Enough! Now draw back your hand.” At that time, the angel of Yehowah was standing at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

1Ch 21:16 David looked up and saw the angel of Yehowah standing between earth and Heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand raised over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, lay facedown on the ground.
1Ch 21:17 David prayed to the Almighty, “Is it not I that commanded that the military force be numbered? I did this wicked thing. But these sheep, what have they done? Yehowah my Divine One, let your hand strike me and my family, but do not let the plague remain on your people.”
1Ch 21:18 So the angel of Yehowah commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and build an altar for Yehowah at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
1Ch 21:19 So David went up as Gad instructed him to do in the name of Yehowah.
1Ch 21:20 While Ornan was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel. He and his four sons with him hid themselves.
1Ch 21:21 When David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David. He left the threshing floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground.
1Ch 21:22 Then David entreated Ornan, “Sell me this threshing floor, so I can build an altar for Yehowah. I will pay the full price, so that the plague may be removed from the people.”
1Ch 21:23 Ornan responded to David, “Take it as your own, my master the king. Do with it what is good in your sight. Look, I will give you oxen for burnt offerings, threshing sledges for wood, and wheat for the grain offering; I will give it all to you.”
1Ch 21:24 King David replied to Ornan, “No, I insist on buying it for the full price. I will not take what is yours and offer it as a burnt offering to Yehowah, if it costs me nothing.”
1Ch 21:25 So David paid to Ornan six and one-half kilograms of gold for the place.
1Ch 21:26 David built an altar for Yehowah there and offered on it burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on Yehowah, who answered him with fire from Heaven on the altar for burnt offerings.
1Ch 21:27 Then Yehowah gave an order to the angel, and the angel put his sword back into its scabbard.
1Ch 21:28 When David saw that Yehowah had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he performed the sacrifice there at the same time.
1Ch 21:29 Now at that time, the tabernacle of Yehowah, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar for burnt offerings, were at the high place at Gibeon.
1Ch 21:30 However, David could not go there to ask for direction from the Almighty, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of Yehowah.

1 Chronicles Chapter 22

1Ch 22:1 Then David commanded, “This is where the temple of Yehowah Almighty will be, with the altar for the burnt offerings of Israel.”
1Ch 22:2 So David ordered his servants to gather together the sojourning foreigners living in the land of Israel. He assigned them to be stonecutters, to cut stone blocks, in order to build the temple of the Almighty.
1Ch 22:3 David supplied a large amount of iron for the nails for the doors to go in the gateways, and for braces. He also supplied more bronze than could be weighed,
1Ch 22:4 and more cedar trees than could be counted. The Sidonians and the Tyrians brought too many cedar logs to David to count.
1Ch 22:5 David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the temple that is to be built for Yehowah must be especially magnificent, so that it will be famous and glorious in all other lands. So I will prepare for its building.” So David made extensive preparations before his death.
1Ch 22:6 Then he called for Solomon his son and commanded him to build a temple for Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
1Ch 22:7 David said to Solomon, “My son, it was my intention to build a temple myself, for the name of Yehowah my Divine One.
1Ch 22:8 But Yehowah came to me and said, ‘You have shed much blood and have fought many battles. You will not build a temple for my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.
1Ch 22:9 However, you will have a son who will be a peaceful man. I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. For his name will be Solomon, and I will give peace and quiet to Israel in his days.
1Ch 22:10 He will build a temple for my name. He will be my son, and I will be his Father. I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’
1Ch 22:11 Now my son, may Yehowah be with you and enable you to succeed. May you build the temple of Yehowah your Divine One, as he said you would.
1Ch 22:12 Only, may Yehowah give you insight and understanding, so that you may obey the Law of Yehowah your Divine One, when he places you in charge over Israel.
1Ch 22:13 Then you will succeed, if you carefully obey the statutes and the decrees that Yehowah gave to Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous. Do not fear or be discouraged.
1Ch 22:14 Now see, at great effort I have prepared for the temple of Yehowah 3,300 metric tons of gold, 3,000,000,000-weight silver-currency, and bronze and iron in large quantities. I have also provided timber and stone. You must add more to all this.

1Ch 22:15 You have many workmen with you: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and skillful craftsmen without number of every kind,
1Ch 22:16 who can work with gold, silver, bronze, and iron. So begin to work, and may Yehowah be with you.”
1Ch 22:17 David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son,
1Ch 22:18 “Yehowah your Divine One is with you and has given you peace on every side. He has given the region’s inhabitants into my hand. The region is subdued before Yehowah and his people.
1Ch 22:19 Now seek Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart and your soul. Get up and build the Set-apart Place of Yehowah Almighty. Then you can bring the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah and the things that belong to the Almighty into the temple built for the name of Yehowah.”

1 Chronicles Chapter 23

1Ch 23:1 When David was old and near the end of his life, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.
1Ch 23:2 He gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and Levites.
1Ch 23:3 The Levites who were thirty years old and older were counted. They numbered thirty-eight thousand.
1Ch 23:4 “Of these, twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the temple of Yehowah, and six thousand were officers and judges.
1Ch 23:5 Four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand were to praise Yehowah with the instruments that I made to give praise,” David said.
1Ch 23:6 He divided them into groups that corresponded to Levi’s sons: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
1Ch 23:7 From the clans descended from Gershon, there were Ladan and Shimei.
1Ch 23:8 There were three of Ladan’s sons: Jehiel the leader, Zetham, and Joel.
1Ch 23:9 There were three of Shimei’s sons: Shelomoth, Haziel, and Haran. These were the leaders of the clans of Ladan.
1Ch 23:10 There were four of Shimei’s sons: Jahath, Ziza, Jeush, and Beriah.
1Ch 23:11 Jahath was the oldest, and Ziza the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were considered as one clan with the same duties.
1Ch 23:12 There were four of Kohath’s sons: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
1Ch 23:13 These were Amram’s sons: Aaron and Moses. Aaron was chosen to set apart the most set-apart things, that he and his descendants would offer incense before Yehowah, to serve him and to give blessings in his name forever.
1Ch 23:14 But as for Moses the man of the Almighty, his sons were considered to be Levites.
1Ch 23:15 Moses’ sons were Gershom and Eliezer.
1Ch 23:16 Gershom’s descendant was Shebuel the oldest.
1Ch 23:17 Eliezer’s descendant was Rehabiah (Rechabyah). Eliezer had no other sons, but Rehabiah had many descendants.
1Ch 23:18 Izhar’s son was Shelomith the leader.
1Ch 23:19 Hebron’s descendants were Jeriah (Yeriyah), the oldest, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
1Ch 23:20 Uzziel’s sons were Micah the oldest, and Isshiah the second.
1Ch 23:21 Merari’s sons were Mahli and Mushi. Mahli’s sons were Eleazar and Kish.
1Ch 23:22 Eleazar died without having any sons. He had only daughters. The sons of Kish married them.
1Ch 23:23 Mushi’s three sons were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth.

1Ch 23:24 These were Levi's descendants corresponding to their clans. They were the leaders, counted and listed by name, of the clans that did the work in the service of the temple of Yehowah, from twenty years old and upward.
1Ch 23:25 For David said, "Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, has given rest to his people. He makes his home in Jerusalem forever.
1Ch 23:26 The Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all the equipment used in its service."
1Ch 23:27 For by David's last words the Levites were counted, from twenty years old and upward.
1Ch 23:28 Their duty was to assist Aaron's descendants in the service of the temple of Yehowah. They were to care for the courtyards, the rooms, the ceremonial purification of all the set-apart things, and other work in the service of the temple of the Almighty.
1Ch 23:29 They also took care of the bread of the presence, the fine flour for grain offerings, the unleavened wafers, the baked offerings, the offerings mixed with oil, and all the measuring of the amounts and sizes of things.
1Ch 23:30 They also stood each dawn to thank and praise Yehowah! They also did this at dusk,
1Ch 23:31 and whenever burnt offerings were offered to Yehowah, on the Sabbath and at the beginning of the months and appointment calendar festivals. A fixed number, assigned by decree, always had to be present before Yehowah.
1Ch 23:32 They were in charge of the Tent of Meeting, the Set-apart Place, and helped their fellow descendants of Aaron in the service of the temple of Yehowah.

1 Chronicles Chapter 24

1Ch 24:1 The work groups based on Aaron's descendants were these: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
1Ch 24:2 Nadab and Abihu died before their father died. They had no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.
1Ch 24:3 David, together with Zadok, a descendant of Eleazar, and Ahimelech, a descendant of Ithamar, divided them into groups for their work as priests.
1Ch 24:4 There were more leading men among Eleazar's descendants than among Ithamar's descendants, so they divided Eleazar's descendants into sixteen groups. They did this by heads of clans and by Ithamar's descendants. These divisions were eight in number, corresponding to their clans.
1Ch 24:5 They divided them impartially by lot, for there were officials of the Set-apart Place and officials of the Almighty, from both Eleazar's descendants and Ithamar's descendants.
1Ch 24:6 Shemaiah son of Nethanel the scribe, a Levite, wrote down their names in the presence of the king, the officials, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the priestly and Levite families. One clan was drawn by lot from Eleazar's descendants, and then the next would be drawn from Ithamar's descendants.
1Ch 24:7 The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,
1Ch 24:8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,
1Ch 24:9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,
1Ch 24:10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to Abijah,
1Ch 24:11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah,
1Ch 24:12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,
1Ch 24:13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,
1Ch 24:14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,
1Ch 24:15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,
1Ch 24:16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,
1Ch 24:17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,
1Ch 24:18 the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.
1Ch 24:19 This was the order of their service, when they came into the temple of Yehowah, following the procedure given to them by Aaron their ancestor, as Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, had instructed him.
1Ch 24:20 These were the rest of the Levites: of the sons of Amram, Shebuel; of the sons of Shebael, Jehdeiah (Yechdeyahu).
1Ch 24:21 The sons of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the leader.
1Ch 24:22 Of the Izarites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.

1Ch 24:23 The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the leader, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
1Ch 24:24 The sons of Uzziel's descendants included Micah. Micah's descendants included Shamir.
1Ch 24:25 Micah's brother was Isshiah. Isshiah's sons included Zechariah.
1Ch 24:26 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The son of Jaaziah, Beno.
1Ch 24:27 The sons of Merari: Jaaziah, Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.
1Ch 24:28 The sons of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.
1Ch 24:29 The sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.
1Ch 24:30 The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the Levites, listed by their families.
1Ch 24:31 These men who were the head of each father's house and each of their younger brothers, cast lots in the presence of King David, and Zadok and Ahimelech, along with the leaders of the families of the priests and Levites. They threw lots just as Aaron's descendants had done.

1 Chronicles Chapter 25

1Ch 25:1 David and the leaders of the tabernacle work selected for the work some of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun. These men prophesied with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. Here is a list of the men who did this work:
1Ch 25:2 From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah, the sons of Asaph, under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied under the king's supervision.
1Ch 25:3 From the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six in all, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who played the harp for giving thanks and praising Yehowah.
1Ch 25:4 From the sons of Heman: Bukkiah (Buqqiyahu), Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.
1Ch 25:5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's prophet in the words of the Almighty. The Almighty gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters in order to honor him.
1Ch 25:6 All these were under the direction of their fathers. They were musicians in the temple of Yehowah, with cymbals and stringed instruments as they served in the temple of the Almighty. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the king's supervision.
1Ch 25:7 They and their brothers who were skilled and trained to make music to Yehowah numbered 288.
1Ch 25:8 They threw lots for their duties, all alike, the same for the young as well as the old, the teacher as well as the student.
1Ch 25:9 Now regarding Asaph's sons: The first lot fell to Joseph's family; the second fell to Gedaliah's family, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:10 the third fell to Zaccur, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:11 the fourth fell to Izri, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:12 the fifth fell to Nethaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:13 the sixth fell to Bukkiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:14 the seventh fell to Jesharelah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:15 the eighth fell to Jeshaiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;

1Ch 25:16 the ninth fell to Mattaniah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:17 the tenth fell to Shimei, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:18 the eleventh fell to Azarel, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:19 the twelfth fell to Hashabiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:20 the thirteenth fell to Shubael, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:21 the fourteenth fell to Mattithiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:22 the fifteenth fell to Jeremoth, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:23 the sixteenth fell to Hananiah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:24 the seventeenth fell to Joshbekashah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:25 the eighteenth fell to Hanani, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:26 the nineteenth fell to Mallothi, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:27 the twentieth fell to Eliathah, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:28 the twenty-first fell to Hothir, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:29 the twenty-second fell to Giddalti, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:30 the twenty-third fell to Mahazioth, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number;
1Ch 25:31 the twenty-fourth fell to Romamti Ezer, his sons and his relatives, twelve persons in number.

1 Chronicles Chapter 26

1Ch 26:1 Here were the divisions of the gatekeepers: From the Korahites, Meshelemiah son of Kore, a descendant of Asaph.
1Ch 26:2 Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, 1Ch 26:3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.
1Ch 26:4 Obed Edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethanel the fifth,
1Ch 26:5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peullethai the eighth, for the Almighty had blessed Obed Edom.
1Ch 26:6 To Shemaiah his son were born sons who ruled over their families; they were men with many abilities.
1Ch 26:7 The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad. His relatives Elihu and Semachiah (Semakyahu) were also men with many abilities.
1Ch 26:8 All these were descendants of Obed Edom. They and their sons and relatives were men capable of doing their duties in the tabernacle service. There were sixty-two of them related to Obed Edom.
1Ch 26:9 Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, capable men, eighteen in all.
1Ch 26:10 Hosah, a descendant of Merari, had sons: Shimri the leader, although he was not the firstborn, his father made him leader, 1Ch 26:11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah (Tebalyahu) the third, Zechariah the fourth. All of Hosah's sons and kinsmen were thirteen in number.
1Ch 26:12 These divisions of the gatekeepers, corresponding to their leaders, had responsibilities, like their relatives, to serve in the temple of Yehowah.
1Ch 26:13 They threw lots, both young and old, corresponding to their families, for every gate.
1Ch 26:14 When the lot was thrown for the east gate, it fell to Shelemiah (Shelemyah). They then threw lots for Zechariah his son, a prudent advisor, and his lot came out for the north gate.
1Ch 26:15 To Obed Edom was assigned the south gate, and his sons were assigned the storehouses.
1Ch 26:16 Shuppim and Hosah were assigned the west gate along with the gate of Shallecheth, on the upper road. Watches were established for each family.
1Ch 26:17 On the east were six Levites, on the north four a day, on the south four a day, and at the storehouses two pairs.
1Ch 26:18 At the court to the west there were four posted, four at the road, and two at the court.
1Ch 26:19 These were the gatekeepers' divisions. They were filled with descendants of Korah and Merari.

1Ch 26:20 Among the Levites, Ahijah was in charge of the treasures of the temple of the Almighty, and of the treasures of the set-apart things.
1Ch 26:21 The descendants of Ladan, descended from Gershon through him, and who were leaders of the families of Ladan the Gershonite, were Jehieli and his sons, 1Ch 26:22 Zetham, and Joel his brother, who oversaw the storehouses of the temple of Yehowah.
1Ch 26:23 There were also guards drawn from the clans of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
1Ch 26:24 Shebuel son of Gershom son of Moses, was supervisor over the storehouses.
1Ch 26:25 His relatives from the clan of Eliezer were his son Rehabiah, Rehabiah's son Jeshaiah, Jeshaiah's son Joram, Joram's son Zichri, and Zichri's son Shelomoth.
1Ch 26:26 Shelomoth and his relatives were over all the storehouses holding the set-apart things that King David, the family leaders, commanders over thousands and hundreds, and the military commanders, had set apart.
1Ch 26:27 They set apart the plunder won in battles for the upkeep of the temple of Yehowah.
1Ch 26:28 They were also in charge of everything that was set apart to Yehowah by Samuel the prophet, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner, and Joab son of Zeruiah. Everything that was set apart to Yehowah was under the guard of Shelomoth and his relatives.
1Ch 26:29 Of Izhar's descendants, Kenaniah and his sons were in charge of the civil affairs of Israel. They were officers and judges.
1Ch 26:30 Of Hebron's descendants, Hashabiah and his brothers, 1,700 capable men, were in charge of the work of Yehowah and the king's work. They were on the west side of the Jordan River.
1Ch 26:31 From Hebron's descendants, Jerijah (Yeriyahu) was the leader of his descendants, counted from the lists of their families. In the fortieth year of the reign of David (c. 1023 BC) they examined the records and found among them men of ability in Jazer of Gilead.
1Ch 26:32 Jerijah had 2,700 relatives, who were capable family leaders. David made them overseers over the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to the Almighty, and for the king's affairs.

1 Chronicles Chapter 27

1Ch 27:1 This is the list of the Israeli family leaders, commanders of thousands and hundreds, as well as military officers who served the king in various ways. Each military division served month by month throughout the year. Each division had twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:2 Over the division for the first month was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:3 He was among the descendants of Perez and in charge of all the military officers for the first month.
1Ch 27:4 Over the division for the second month was Dodai, from the clan descended from Ahoah. Mikloth was second in rank. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:5 The commander of the military force for the third month was Benaiah son of Jehoiada, a priest and leader. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:6 This is the Benaiah who was the leader of the thirty, and over the thirty. Ammizabad his son was in his division.
1Ch 27:7 The commander for the fourth month was Asahel brother of Joab. Zebadiah his son became commander after him. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:8 The commander for the fifth month was Shamhuth, a descendant of Izrah. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:9 The commander for the sixth month was Ira son of Ikkesh, from Tekoa. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:10 The commander for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, from the people of Ephraim. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:11 The commander for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, from the clan descended from Zerah. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:12 The commander for the ninth month was Abi Ezer the Anathothite, from the tribe of Benjamin. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:13 The commander for the tenth month was Maharai from the city of Netophah, from the clan descended from Zerah. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:14 The commander for the eleventh month was Benaiah from the city of Pirathon, from the tribe of Ephraim. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.

1Ch 27:15 The commander for the twelfth month was Heldai from the city of Netophah, from the clan descended from Othniel. In his division were twenty-four thousand men.
1Ch 27:16 These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel: For the tribe of Reuben, Eliezer son of Zichri was the leader. For the tribe of Simeon, Shephatiah son of Maacah was the leader.
1Ch 27:17 For the tribe of Levi, Hashabiah son of Kemuel was the leader, and Zadok led Aaron's descendants.
1Ch 27:18 For the tribe of Judah, Elihu, one of David's brothers, was the leader. For the tribe of Issachar, Omri son of Michael was the leader.
1Ch 27:19 For the tribe of Zebulun, Ishmaiah son of Obadiah was the leader. For the tribe of Naphtali, Jeremoth son of Azriel was the leader.
1Ch 27:20 For the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Azaziah was the leader. For the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel son of Pedaiah was the leader.
1Ch 27:21 For the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo son of Zechariah was the leader. For the tribe of Benjamin, Jaasiel son of Abner was the leader.
1Ch 27:22 For the tribe of Dan, Azarel son of Jeroham was the leader. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.
1Ch 27:23 David did not count those twenty years old or younger, because Yehowah had promised to increase Israel like the stars of heaven.
1Ch 27:24 Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the men but did not finish. Wrath fell on Israel for this. This number was not written down in the Chronicles of King David.
1Ch 27:25 Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the king's treasuries. Jonathan son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the fortified towers.
1Ch 27:26 Ezri son of Chelub was over the farmers, those who plowed the land.
1Ch 27:27 Shimei from Ramah was over the vineyards, and Zabdi from Shepham was over the grapes and the wine cellars.
1Ch 27:28 Over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands was Baal Hanan from Geder, and over the storehouses of oil was Joash.
1Ch 27:29 Over the herds that were pastured in Sharon was Shitrai from Sharon, and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat son of Adlai.
1Ch 27:30 Over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite, and over the jenny donkeys was Jehdeiah from Meronoth.
1Ch 27:31 Over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. All these were overseers of the property of King David.
1Ch 27:32 Jonathan, David's uncle, was an advisor, since he was a wise man and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hachmoni cared for the king's sons.
1Ch 27:33 Ahithophel was the king's advisor, and Hushai from the Archite people was the king's private advisor.

1Ch 27:34 Ahithophel’s position was taken by Jehoiada son of Benaiah, and by Abiathar. Joab was commander of the king’s military force.

1 Chronicles Chapter 28

1Ch 28:1 David assembled all the officials of Israel at Jerusalem: The officials of the tribes, the officers of the divisions that served the king in their scheduled work, the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, the managers over all the property and possessions of the king and of his sons, and the military officers and fighting men, including the most skilled of them.
1Ch 28:2 Then King David rose to his feet and said, “Listen to me, my brothers and my people. It was my intention to build a temple for the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah; a footstool for our Divine One, and I have made preparations to build it.
1Ch 28:3 But the Almighty said to me, ‘You will not build a temple for my name, because you are a man of war and have shed blood.’
1Ch 28:4 Yet Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, chose me from all my father’s family to be king over Israel forever. He has chosen the tribe of Judah as leader. In the tribe of Judah, and in my father’s household, out of all my father’s sons, he chose me to be king over all Israel.
1Ch 28:5 From the many sons whom Yehowah has given me, he chose Solomon, my son, to sit on the throne of the Kingdom of Yehowah, over Israel.
1Ch 28:6 He said to me, ‘Solomon your son will build my temple and my courtyards, for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his Father.
1Ch 28:7 I will establish his kingdom forever, if he remains committed to obey my commandments and decrees, as you are this day.’
1Ch 28:8 Now then, in the sight of all Israel, this congregation of Yehowah, and in the presence of our Divine One, all of you must keep and carry out all the commandments of Yehowah your Divine One. Do this so that you may possess this good land and leave it as an inheritance to your children after you forever.
1Ch 28:9 As for you, Solomon my son, obey the Mighty One of your father, and serve him with your whole heart and a willing spirit. Do this because Yehowah searches all hearts and understands every motivation of everyone’s thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you abandon him, he will reject you permanently.
1Ch 28:10 Realize that Yehowah has chosen you to build this temple as his sanctuary. Be strong and do it.”
1Ch 28:11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the plans for the temple portico, the temple buildings, the storerooms, the upper rooms, the inner rooms, and the room with the atonement lid.
1Ch 28:12 He gave him the plans he had drawn for the courtyards of the temple of Yehowah, all the surrounding rooms, the storerooms in the temple of the Almighty, and the treasuries for the set-apart things.

1Ch 28:13 He gave him regulations for the divisions of the priests and Levites, for the assigned responsibilities for the service of the temple of Yehowah, and for all the objects for the service in the temple of Yehowah.
1Ch 28:14 He gave him the weight of all the gold vessels for every kind of service and of all the silver vessels, for all the objects for every kind of service.
1Ch 28:15 These details were given by weight, including the details for the gold menorot and gold lamps, the details by weight for every menorah, for the lamps, for the silver menorot, and details for the proper use of every menorah.
1Ch 28:16 He gave the weight of the gold for the tables of the bread of the presence, for every table, and the weight of the silver-currency for the silver tables.
1Ch 28:17 He gave the weight of pure gold for the meat forks, basins, and cups. He gave the weight for each of the gold bowls, and the weight of each of the silver bowls.
1Ch 28:18 He gave the weight of refined gold for the incense altar, and of the gold for the design of the chariot of the cherubim that spread out their wings and covered the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah.
1Ch 28:19 David said, “I have put all this in writing as Yehowah directed me and gave me to understand regarding the design.”
1Ch 28:20 David ordered Solomon his son, “Be strong and brave. Do the work. Do not be afraid or anxious, for Yehowah Almighty, my Divine One, is with you. He will not leave you nor abandon you, until all the work for the service of the temple of Yehowah is finished.
1Ch 28:21 See, here are the divisions of the priests and Levites for all the service in the temple of the Almighty. They will be with you, together with all willing and skillful men, to assist you in the work and to perform the service. The officials and all the people are ready to follow your commands.”

1 Chronicles Chapter 29

1Ch 29:1 King David said to the whole congregation, “Solomon my son, whom alone the Almighty has chosen, is still young and inexperienced, and the task is great. For the temple is not for people but for Yehowah Almighty.
1Ch 29:2 So I have done my best to provide for the temple of my Divine One. I am giving gold for the things to be made of gold, silver for the things to be made of silver, bronze for the things to be made of bronze, iron for the things to be made of iron, and wood for the things to be made of wood. I am also giving onyx stones, stones to be set, stones for inlaid work of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble stone in abundance.
1Ch 29:3 Now because of my delight in the temple of my Divine One, I am giving my personal treasure of gold and silver for it. I am doing this in addition to all that I have prepared for this set-apart temple of my Divine One:
1Ch 29:4 100 metric tons of gold from Ophir, and 21,000,000-weight refined silver, in order to overlay the walls of the buildings.
1Ch 29:5 I am donating gold for the things to be made of gold, and silver for the things to be made of silver, and things for all kinds of work to be done by craftsmen. Who else wants to make a contribution to Yehowah today and give himself to him?”
1Ch 29:6 Then freewill offerings were made by the leaders of their ancestors’ families, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and by the officials over the king’s work.
1Ch 29:7 They gave for the service of the temple of the Almighty 165 metric tons of gold, 330 metric tons of silver, 600 metric tons of bronze, and 3,300 metric tons of iron.
1Ch 29:8 Those who had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the temple of Yehowah, under the supervision of Jehiel, a descendant of Gershon.
1Ch 29:9 The people rejoiced because of these freewill offerings, because they had contributed wholeheartedly to Yehowah. King David also rejoiced greatly!
1Ch 29:10 David blessed Yehowah in front of all the congregation, “May you be praised, Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel our ancestor, forever and ever!
1Ch 29:11 Yours, Yehowah, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty. For all that is in the heavens and on the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, Yehowah, and you are exalted as ruler over all.
1Ch 29:12 Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all people. In your hand is power and might. You possess the strength and might to make people great and to give strength to anyone.
1Ch 29:13 Now then our Divine One, we thank you and praise your glorious name!

1Ch 29:14 But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly these things? Indeed, all things come from you, and we have simply given back to you what is yours.
1Ch 29:15 For we are sojourning foreigners and resident aliens before you, as all our ancestors were (Heb. 11:13). Our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope of remaining on earth.
1Ch 29:16 Yehowah our Divine One, all this wealth that we have collected in order to build a temple to honor your set-apart name, it comes from you and belongs to you.
1Ch 29:17 I know also, my Divine One, that you examine the heart and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things, and now I look with joy as your people who are present here willingly offer gifts to you.
1Ch 29:18 Yehowah, Mighty One of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our ancestors, keep this forever in the thoughts of the minds of your people. Direct their hearts toward you.
1Ch 29:19 Give to Solomon my son a wholehearted desire to keep your commandments, your covenant decrees, and your statutes, and to carry out all these plans to build the palace for which I have made provision."
1Ch 29:20 David commanded all the congregation, "Now bless Yehowah your Divine One." All the congregation blessed Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, bowed their heads and worshiped King Yehowah.
1Ch 29:21 On the next day, they made sacrifices to Yehowah and offered burnt offerings to Yehowah. They offered a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.
1Ch 29:22 On that day, they ate and drank before Yehowah with great celebration. They made Solomon, David's son, king a second time, and anointed him with the authority of Yehowah to be ruler. They also anointed Zadok to be priest.
1Ch 29:23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of Yehowah as king instead of David his father. He prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.
1Ch 29:24 All the leaders, soldiers, and King David's sons gave allegiance to King Solomon.
1Ch 29:25 Yehowah greatly honored Solomon before all Israel and bestowed on him greater power than he had ever given to any king before him in Israel.
1Ch 29:26 David, son of Jesse, reigned over all Israel.
1Ch 29:27 David had been king of Israel for forty years. He ruled for seven years in Hebron and for thirty-three years in Jerusalem.
1Ch 29:28 He died at a good old age (c. 1023 BC), after enjoying a long life, wealth, and honor. Solomon his son succeeded him.

1Ch 29:29 King David’s accomplishments are written in the history of Samuel the prophet, in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the prophet.
1Ch 29:30 Recorded there are the deeds of his rule, his accomplishments and the events that affected him, Israel, and all the kingdoms of the other lands.

Book of 2nd Chronicles

2 Chronicles Chapter 1

2Ch 1:1 Solomon son of David, was strengthened in his rule, and Yehowah his Divine One was with him and made him extremely powerful.
2Ch 1:2 Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses.
2Ch 1:3 So Solomon and all the congregation with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon, for there was the Tent of Meeting of the Almighty, which Moses the servant of Yehowah, had made in the wilderness.
2Ch 1:4 But David had brought up the Ark of the Almighty from Kiriath Jearim to the place that he had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.
2Ch 1:5 In addition, the bronze altar made by Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur was there before the tabernacle of Yehowah; Solomon and the congregation went to it.
2Ch 1:6 Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before Yehowah, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it.
2Ch 1:7 The Almighty appeared to Solomon that night and said to him, "Ask! What should I give you?"
2Ch 1:8 Solomon answered the Almighty, "You have shown great covenant faithfulness to David my father, and have made me king in his place.
2Ch 1:9 Now Yehowah Almighty, let your promise to David my father be carried out, for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.
2Ch 1:10 Now give me wisdom and knowledge, so that I may lead this people, for who can judge your people, who are so many in number?"
2Ch 1:11 The Almighty said to Solomon, "Because this was in your heart, and because you have not asked for riches, wealth, or honor, nor for the life of those who hate you, nor for long life for yourself, but you have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself, so that you might rule my people, over whom I have made you king, and this is what I will do.
2Ch 1:12 I will now give you wisdom and knowledge. I will also give you riches, wealth, and honor, as none of the kings had before you, and none after you will have."

2Ch 1:14 Solomon gathered chariots and cavalry, and he had 1,400 chariots and twelve thousand cavalry that he placed in the chariot cities, and with himself, the king in Jerusalem.
2Ch 1:15 The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as the stones, and he made cedar wood as common as the sycamore trees that are in the lowlands.
2Ch 1:16 As for the importation of horses from Egypt and (the Neo-Hittite City of) Kue for Solomon, his merchants bought them from Kue at a price.
2Ch 1:17 They imported a chariot from Egypt for 600-weight silver-currency, and a horse for 150. They also exported them to the kings of the Neo-Hittites and the Arameans (1 Kings 10:29).

2 Chronicles Chapter 2

2Ch 2:1 Now Solomon commanded the building of a temple for the name of Yehowah and the building of a palace for his kingdom.
2Ch 2:2 Solomon assigned seventy thousand men to carry loads, and eighty thousand men as woodcutters in the mountains, and 3,600 men to supervise them.
2Ch 2:3 Solomon sent a message to Hiram, the king of Tyre: “As you did with David my father, sending him cedar logs to build a house to live in, do the same with me.
2Ch 2:4 See, I am about to build a temple for the name of Yehowah my Divine One, to set it apart to him, to burn incense of sweet spices before him, to set out the bread of the presence, and for the burnt offerings at dawn and dusk, on the Sabbaths, at the beginning of the months, and on the appointment calendar festivals for Yehowah our Divine One. This is forever, for Israel.
2Ch 2:5 The temple that I will build will be extensive, for our Divine One is greater than all deities.
2Ch 2:6 But who is able to build Yehowah a temple, since the entire universe and even Heaven itself cannot contain him? Who am I to build him a temple, except to burn sacrifices before him?
2Ch 2:7 So send me a man who is skilled at work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue wool, a man who knows how to make all kinds of engraved wood. He will be with the skilled men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.
2Ch 2:8 Send me also cedar, cypress, and algum trees from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon. See, my servants will be with your servants,
2Ch 2:9 in order to prepare for me timber in abundance, for the temple which I am about to build will be great and marvelous.
2Ch 2:10 See, I will give to your servants, the men who will cut the timber, 4,400 kiloliters of ground wheat, 4,400 kiloliters of barley, 440 kiloliters of wine, and 440 kiloliters of oil.”
2Ch 2:11 Then Hiram, the king of Tyre, answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon: “Because Yehowah loves his people, he has made you king over them.”
2Ch 2:12 In addition, Hiram said, “Blessed be Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth, who has given to King David a wise son, gifted with prudence and understanding, who will build a temple for Yehowah, and a house for his kingdom.
2Ch 2:13 Now I have sent a skillful man, gifted with understanding, Huram, my expert.

2Ch 2:14 He is the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan. His father was a man from Tyre. He is skilled at work in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and in timber, and in purple, blue, and crimson wool, and fine linen. He is also skilled in making any kind of engraving and in making any kind of design. Let a place be made for him among your skilled workers, and with those of my master, David, your father.
2Ch 2:15 Now then, the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, of which my master has spoken, let him send these things to his servants.
2Ch 2:16 We will cut wood from Lebanon, as much wood as you need. We will take it to you as rafts by sea to Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem."
2Ch 2:17 Solomon counted all the sojourning foreigners who were in the land of Israel, following the method that David, his father, had counted them. They were found to be 153,600.
2Ch 2:18 He assigned seventy thousand of them to carry loads, eighty thousand to be woodcutters in the mountains, and 3,600 to be supervisors to put the people to work.

2 Chronicles Chapter 3

2Ch 3:1 Then Solomon began to build the temple of Yehowah at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where Yehowah had appeared to David his father. He prepared the place that David had planned for it, at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
2Ch 3:2 He began to build on the second of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign (c. 1019 BC; 1 Kings 6:1).
2Ch 3:3 Now these are the dimensions of the foundation that Solomon laid for the temple of the Almighty. Using the old style measurement, the length was thirty meters, and the width was ten meters.
2Ch 3:4 The length of the portico at the front of the temple was ten meters, matching the building's width. Its height was also ten meters, and Solomon overlaid its interior with pure gold.
2Ch 3:5 He fashioned the ceiling of the main hall with cypress, which he overlaid with fine gold, and which he carved with palm trees and chains.
2Ch 3:6 He decorated the temple with precious stones; the gold was gold from Parvaim.
2Ch 3:7 He also overlaid its beams, thresholds, walls, and doors with gold; he carved cherubs on its walls.
2Ch 3:8 He built the Most Set-apart Place. Its length matched the temple's width, ten meters, and its width was also ten meters. He overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to 20 metric tons.
2Ch 3:9 The weight of the nails was one-half a kilogram of gold. He overlaid its high surfaces with gold.
2Ch 3:10 He made two images of cherubs for the Most Set-apart Place; craftsmen overlaid them with gold.
2Ch 3:11 The wings of the cherubs were ten meters long all together; the wing of one cherub was two and one-half meters long, reaching to the wall of the room; the other wing was likewise two and one-half meters, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.
2Ch 3:12 The wing of the other cherub was also two and one-half meters, reaching to the wall of the room; its other wing was also two and one-half meters, touching the wing of the first cherub.
2Ch 3:13 The wings of these cherubs spread a total of ten meters. The cherubs stood on their feet, with their faces toward the main hall.
2Ch 3:14 He made the curtain of blue, purple, and crimson wool and fine linen, and he fashioned cherubs on it.

2Ch 3:15 Solomon also made two pillars, each eighteen and one-half meters high (1 Kings 7:15), for in front of the temple; the capitals that were on top of them were two and one-half meters high.
2Ch 3:16 He made chains for the pillars and put them on top of them; he also made one hundred pomegranates and joined them to the chains.

2 Chronicles Chapter 4

2Ch 4:1 Moreover, he made an altar of bronze; its length was nine meters, and its width was nine meters. Its height was four and three-fifths meters.
2Ch 4:2 He also made the round sea of cast metal, five meters from rim to rim. Its height was two and one-half meters, and the sea was fifteen meters in circumference.
2Ch 4:3 Under the brim encircling the sea were bulls, ten to each one-half meter, cast in one piece with the sea when the sea itself was cast.
2Ch 4:4 The sea stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east. The sea was set on top of them, and all their hindquarters were toward the inside.
2Ch 4:5 The sea was eight centimeters thick, and its brim was forged like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. The sea held forty-nine cubic meters of water (1 Kings 7:26).
2Ch 4:6 He made also ten basins for washing things; he put five on the right hand, and five on the left; items used in performing the burnt offering were to be washed in them. The sea, however, was for the priests to wash in.
2Ch 4:7 He made the ten menorot of gold that were made from the instructions for their design; he placed them in the temple, five on the right hand and five on the left.
2Ch 4:8 He made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. He made one hundred basins of gold.
2Ch 4:9 Furthermore, he made the court of the priests and the great court, and doors for the court; he overlaid their doors with bronze.
2Ch 4:10 He placed the sea on the right side of the temple, on the east, facing toward the south.
2Ch 4:11 Huram made the pots, the shovels, and the sprinkling bowls. So Huram finished the work that he did for King Solomon in the temple of the Almighty:
2Ch 4:12 The two pillars, the bowl-like capitals that were on top of the two pillars, and the two sets of decorative latticework to cover the two bowl-like capitals that were on top of the pillars.
2Ch 4:13 He had made the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of decorative latticework: Two rows of pomegranates for each set of latticework to cover the two bowl-like capitals that were on the pillars.
2Ch 4:14 He also made the stands and the basins to go on the stand;
2Ch 4:15 one sea and the twelve bulls under it,

2Ch 4:16 also the pots, shovels, meat forks, and all the other implements. Huram the expert made them for King Solomon, for the temple of Yehowah, of polished bronze.
2Ch 4:17 The king had cast them in the plain of the Jordan River, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan.
2Ch 4:18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance; indeed, the weight of the bronze could not be known.
2Ch 4:19 Solomon made all the furnishings that were in the temple of the Almighty, the golden altar also, and the tables on which the bread of the presence was to be placed;
2Ch 4:20 the menorot with their lamps, that were designed to burn before the inner room, these were made of pure gold;
2Ch 4:21 and the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs of pure gold.
2Ch 4:22 Also the lamp trimmers, basins, spoons, and incense burners were all made of pure gold. As for the entrance into the temple, its inner doors into the Most Set-apart Place and the doors of the house, that is, of the temple, were made of gold.

2 Chronicles Chapter 5

2Ch 5:1 When all the work that Solomon did for the temple of Yehowah was completed, Solomon brought in the things that David, his father, had set apart for this purpose, including the silver, the gold, and all the furnishings, he placed them into the treasuries of the temple of the Almighty.
2Ch 5:2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, and the leaders of the families of the people of Israel, in Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah from the City of David, that is, Zion.
2Ch 5:3 All the men of Israel assembled before the king at the Feast, which was in the seventh month.
2Ch 5:4 All the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.
2Ch 5:5 They brought up the ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the set-apart furnishings that were in the tent. The priests who were of the tribe of Levi brought these things up.
2Ch 5:6 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel came together before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted.
2Ch 5:7 The priests brought in the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah to its place, into the inner room of the temple, to the Most Set-apart Place, under the wings of the cherubim.
2Ch 5:8 For the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, and they covered the ark and the poles by which it was carried.
2Ch 5:9 The poles were so long that their ends were seen from the Set-apart Place in front of the inner room, but they could not be seen from outside. They are there to this day.
2Ch 5:10 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets that Moses had put there at Horeb, when Yehowah made a covenant with the people of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.
2Ch 5:11 It came about that the priests came out of the Set-apart Place. All the priests who were present had consecrated themselves to Yehowah, not ordering themselves according to their divisions.
2Ch 5:12 Also, the Levites who were the singers, all of them, including Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and brothers, clothed in fine linen and playing cymbals, harps, and lyres, stood at the east end of the altar. With them were 120 priests blowing trumpets.
2Ch 5:13 It came about that the trumpeters and singers made music together, making one sound to be heard for praising and thanking Yehowah. They raised their voices with the trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments, and they praised Yehowah. They sang, “For he is good, for his covenant loyalty endures forever.” Then the house, the temple of Yehowah, was filled with a cloud.

2Ch 5:14 The priests could not stand in order to serve because of the cloud, for the glory of Yehowah filled the temple of the Almighty (c. 1009 BC).

2 Chronicles Chapter 6

2Ch 6:1 Then Solomon spoke, “Yehowah has said that he would live in thick darkness,
2Ch 6:2 but I have built you a lofty residence, a place for you to live in forever.”
2Ch 6:3 Then the king turned around and blessed all the congregation of Israel, while all the congregation of Israel was standing,
2Ch 6:4 “May Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, be praised, who spoke to David my father, and has fulfilled it with his own hands, saying,
2Ch 6:5 ‘Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a temple, in order for my name to be there. Neither did I choose any man to be prince over my people Israel.
2Ch 6:6 However, I have chosen Jerusalem, so that my name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.’
2Ch 6:7 Now, it was in the heart of David my father to build a temple for the name of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
2Ch 6:8 But Yehowah said to David my father, ‘In that it was in your heart to build a temple for my name, you did well for it to be in your heart.
2Ch 6:9 Nevertheless, you must not build the temple; instead, your son, one who will come from your loins, will build the temple for my name.’
2Ch 6:10 Yehowah has carried out the word that he had said, for I have arisen in the place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Yehowah promised. I have built the temple for the name of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
2Ch 6:11 I have placed the ark there, in which is the covenant of Yehowah, which he made with the people of Israel.”
2Ch 6:12 Solomon stood before the altar of Yehowah in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread out his hands.
2Ch 6:13 For he had made a bronze platform, two and one-half meters long, two and one-half meters wide, and one and one-half meters high. He had placed it in the middle of the courtyard. He stood on it and knelt down before all the congregation of Israel, and then he spread out his hands toward Heaven.
2Ch 6:14 He prayed, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, there is no Almighty like you in Heaven or on the earth, who keeps covenant and steadfast love with your servants who walk before you with all their heart;
2Ch 6:15 you who have kept with your servant David my father what you promised him. Yes, you spoke with your mouth and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is today.

2Ch 6:16 Now then Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, carry out what you have promised to your servant David my father, when you said, ‘You will not fail to have a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your descendants are careful to walk in the Way of my law, as you have walked before me.’
2Ch 6:17 Now then Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, I pray that the promise you made to your servant David will come true.
2Ch 6:18 But will the Almighty actually live with mankind on the earth? Look, the entire universe and Heaven itself cannot contain you, how much less can this temple that I have built!
2Ch 6:19 Yet please respect this prayer of your servant and his request, Yehowah my Divine One; listen to the cry and prayer that your servant prays before you.
2Ch 6:20 May your eyes be open toward this temple day and night, the place where you promised to put your name. May you listen to the prayer your servant prays toward this place.
2Ch 6:21 So listen to the requests of your servant and of your people Israel, when we pray toward this place. Yes, listen from the place where you live, from Heaven; and when you listen, forgive.
2Ch 6:22 If a man sins against his neighbor and is required to swear an oath, and if he comes and swears an oath before your altar in this temple,
2Ch 6:23 then hear from Heaven, act, and judge your servants, repaying the wicked, to bring his conduct on his own head. Declare the righteous innocent, to give him the reward for his righteousness.
2Ch 6:24 When your people Israel are defeated by an enemy, because they have sinned against you, if they turn back to you, confess your name, pray, and request forgiveness before you in this temple,
2Ch 6:25 then please listen from Heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel; bring them back to the land that you gave to them and to their ancestors.
2Ch 6:26 When the skies are shut up and there is no rain because the people have sinned against you, if they pray toward this place, confess your name, and turn from their sin when you have afflicted them,
2Ch 6:27 then listen in Heaven and forgive the sin of your servants and of your people Israel, when you direct them to the good Way in which they should walk. Send rain on your land, which you have given to your people as an inheritance.
2Ch 6:28 Suppose there is famine in the land, or suppose that there is disease, blight or mildew, locusts or caterpillars; or suppose that its enemies attack the city gates in their land, or that there is any plague or sickness,
2Ch 6:29 and suppose then that prayers and requests are made by a person or by all your people Israel, each knowing the plague and sorrow in his own heart as he spreads out his hands toward this temple.

2Ch 6:30 Then listen from Heaven, the place where you live; forgive, and reward every person for all his ways; you know his heart, because you, and you only, know the hearts of humans.
2Ch 6:31 Do this so that they may fear you, so that they may walk in your Ways all the days that they live on the land that you gave to our ancestors.
2Ch 6:32 As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel, but who, because of your great name, your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm, comes and prays toward this temple,
2Ch 6:33 then please listen from Heaven, the place where you live, and do all that the foreigner asks of you, so that all the people of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and that they might know that this temple I have built is called by your name.
2Ch 6:34 Suppose that your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you may send them, and suppose that they pray to you toward this city that you have chosen, and toward the temple that I have built for your name.
2Ch 6:35 Then listen from Heaven to their prayer, their request, and help their cause.
2Ch 6:36 Suppose they sin against you, since there is no one who does not sin, and suppose that you are angry with them and hand them over to the enemy, so that the enemy carries them away and takes them as captives to their land, whether distant or near.
2Ch 6:37 Then suppose they realize they are in the land where they have been exiled, and suppose that they repent and seek grace from you in the land of their captivity. Suppose that they confess, 'We have acted perversely and sinned. We have behaved wickedly.'
2Ch 6:38 Suppose that they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they took them as captives, and suppose that they pray toward their land, which you gave to their ancestors, and toward the city that you chose, and toward the temple that I have built for your name.
2Ch 6:39 Then listen from Heaven, the place where you live, to their prayer and to their requests, and help their cause. Forgive your people who have sinned against you.
2Ch 6:40 Now my Divine One, I beg you, let your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.
2Ch 6:41 Now then arise, Yehowah Almighty, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength. Let your priests, Yehowah Almighty, be clothed with salvation, and let your saints rejoice in your goodness.
2Ch 6:42 Yehowah Almighty, do not turn the face of your anointed away from you. Keep in mind your acts of covenant loyalty for David, your servant."

2 Chronicles Chapter 7

2Ch 7:1 Now when Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from Heaven and consumed the burnt offerings and sacrifices, and the glory of Yehowah filled the temple.
2Ch 7:2 The priests could not enter the temple of Yehowah, because the glory of Yehowah filled the house of Yehowah.
2Ch 7:3 All the people of Israel looked on when the fire came down and the glory of Yehowah was on the temple. They bowed with their faces to the ground on the stone pavement, worshiped, and gave thanks to Yehowah, "For he is good, for his covenant loyalty endures forever."
2Ch 7:4 So the king and all the people offered sacrifices to Yehowah.
2Ch 7:5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen and 120,000 sheep and goats. So the king and all the people dedicated the temple of the Almighty.
2Ch 7:6 The priests stood, each standing where they serve; the Levites also with instruments of music of Yehowah, which King David had made to give thanks to Yehowah in the song, "For his covenant faithfulness endures for ever." All the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.
2Ch 7:7 Solomon set apart the middle of the courtyard in front of the temple of Yehowah. There he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that he had made was not able to hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.
2Ch 7:8 So Solomon held the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, an extremely large congregation, from Lebo Hamath to the brook of Egypt.
2Ch 7:9 On the eighth day, they held a festive assembly (8th day assembly; Shemini Atzeret), for they kept the dedication of the altar for seven days, and the feast for seven days (c. 1009 BC).
2Ch 7:10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month, Solomon sent the people away to their homes with glad and joyful hearts because of the goodness that Yehowah had shown to David, Solomon, and Israel, his people.
2Ch 7:11 Thus Solomon finished the temple of Yehowah and his own house. Everything that came into Solomon's heart to make in the temple of Yehowah and in his own house, he successfully carried out.
2Ch 7:12 Yehowah appeared to Solomon by night and said to him, "I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself as a temple of sacrifice.
2Ch 7:13 Suppose that I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send disease among my people,

2Ch 7:14 then if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves, pray, seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear from Heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land.
2Ch 7:15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers that are made in this place.
2Ch 7:16 For I have now chosen and set apart this temple that my name may be there forever. My eyes and my heart will be there every day.
2Ch 7:17 As for you, if you walk before me as David your father walked, obeying all that I have commanded you and keeping my statutes and my decrees,
2Ch 7:18 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I said in a covenant with David your father, when I declared, 'A descendant of yours will never fail to be ruler in Israel.'
2Ch 7:19 But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments that I have placed before you, and if you go worship false deities and bow down to them,
2Ch 7:20 then I will uproot them from out of my ground that I have given them. This temple that I have set apart for my name, I will cast away from before me, and I will make it a proverb and a joke among all the people.
2Ch 7:21 Even though this temple is so lofty now, everyone who passes by it will be shocked and will whistle. They will ask, 'Why has Yehowah done this to this land and to this temple?'
2Ch 7:22 Others will answer, 'Because they forsook Yehowah, their Divine One, who had brought their ancestors out of the land of Egypt, and they laid hold of false deities and bowed down to them and worshiped them. That is why Yehowah has brought all this disaster on them.'"

2 Chronicles Chapter 8

2Ch 8:1 It came about at the end of twenty years, during which Solomon had built the temple of Yehowah and his own house,
2Ch 8:2 that Solomon rebuilt the towns that Hiram had given to him, and he settled the people of Israel in them.
2Ch 8:3 Solomon attacked Hamath-Zobah and defeated it.
2Ch 8:4 He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in (the Neo-Hittite City of) Hamath.
2Ch 8:5 Also, he built Bethhoron the Upper, and Bethhoron the Lower, cities fortified with walls, gates, and bars.
2Ch 8:6 He built Baalath and all the store cities that he possessed, and all the cities for his chariots and the cities for his cavalry, and whatever he wished to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the lands under his rule.
2Ch 8:7 As for all the people who were left of the Hethites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who did not belong to Israel,
2Ch 8:8 their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the people of Israel had not destroyed, Solomon made them into forced laborers, which they are to this day.
2Ch 8:9 However, Solomon made no forced laborers of the people of Israel. Instead, they became his soldiers, his commanders, his officers, and commanders of his chariot forces and his cavalry.
2Ch 8:10 These were also the chief officers managing the supervisors who belonged to King Solomon, 250 of them, who supervised the people who did the work.
2Ch 8:11 Solomon brought the daughter of Pharaoh out of the City of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said, “My wife must not live in the House of David king of Israel, because wherever the Ark of Yehowah has come is set apart.”
2Ch 8:12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to Yehowah on his altar that he had built in front of the portico.
2Ch 8:13 He offered sacrifices just as the daily schedule required; he offered them, following the directions found in the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, the beginning of the months, and on the appointment calendar festivals three times every year: the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Shavuot, and the Feast of Tabernacles.
2Ch 8:14 In keeping with the decrees of his father David, Solomon appointed the divisions of the priests to their work, and the Levites to their positions, in order to praise Yehowah and to serve before the priests, as the daily schedule required. He also appointed the gatekeepers by their divisions to every gate, for David, the man of the Almighty, had also commanded this.

2Ch 8:15 These people did not deviate from the commands of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the storerooms.
2Ch 8:16 All the work ordered by Solomon was completed, from the day the foundation of the temple of Yehowah was laid until it was finished. The temple of Yehowah was completed.
2Ch 8:17 Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath (modern Eilat), on the coast (of the Gulf of Aqaba) in the land of Edom (1 Kings 9:26).
2Ch 8:18 Hiram sent him ships commanded by officers who were experienced sailors. They sailed with Solomon's servants to Ophir. They took from there 15 metric tons of gold which they brought to King Solomon.

2 Chronicles Chapter 9

2Ch 9:1 When the Queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. She came with a large caravan, with camels loaded with spices, much gold, and many precious gemstones. When she had come to Solomon, she told him all that was in her heart.
2Ch 9:2 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too difficult for Solomon; there was no question that he did not answer.
2Ch 9:3 When the Queen of Sheba saw Solomon's wisdom and the palace that he had built,
2Ch 9:4 the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the work of his servants and their clothing, also his cupbearers and their clothing, and the manner in which he offered burnt offering in the temple of Yehowah, there was no more spirit in her.
2Ch 9:5 She said to the king, "It is true, the intelligence report that I heard in my own land of your words and your wisdom.
2Ch 9:6 I did not believe what I heard, until I came here, and now my eyes have seen it. Not half was told me about your wisdom and wealth! You have exceeded the fame that I heard about.
2Ch 9:7 How blessed are your people, and how blessed are your servants who constantly stand before you, because they hear your wisdom.
2Ch 9:8 Blessed be Yehowah your Divine One, who has taken pleasure in you, who placed you on his throne, to be king for Yehowah your Divine One. Because your Divine One loved Israel, in order to establish them forever, he had made you king over them, for you to do justice and righteousness!"
2Ch 9:9 She gave the king four metric tons of gold and a large amount of spices and precious stones. No greater amount of spices as these that the Queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon was ever given to him again.
2Ch 9:10 The servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum wood and precious stones.
2Ch 9:11 With the algum wood, the king made steps for the temple of Yehowah and for his house, as well as harps and lyres for the musicians. No wood like this had been seen before in the land of Judah.
2Ch 9:12 King Solomon gave to the Queen of Sheba everything she wished for, whatever she asked, in addition to that which she had brought to the king. So she left and went back to her own land, she and her servants.
2Ch 9:13 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 22 metric tons of gold,

2Ch 9:14 besides the gold that the traders and merchants brought. All the kings of Arabia and the governors in the country also brought gold and silver to Solomon.
2Ch 9:15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold. Six and one-half kilograms of gold went into each one.
2Ch 9:16 He also made three hundred shields of beaten gold. One and three-quarters kilograms of gold went into each shield; the king put them into the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.
2Ch 9:17 Then the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with the finest gold.
2Ch 9:18 There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind. There were armrests on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the armrests.
2Ch 9:19 Twelve lions stood on the steps, one on each side of each of the six steps. There was no throne like it in any other kingdom.
2Ch 9:20 All King Solomon's drinking cups were gold, and all the drinking cups in the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were silver, because silver was not considered valuable in Solomon's days.
2Ch 9:21 The king had at sea a fleet of oceangoing ships, along with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the fleet brought gold, silver, and ivory, as well as apes and peacocks.
2Ch 9:22 So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the world in riches and in wisdom.
2Ch 9:23 All the earth sought the presence of Solomon in order to hear his wisdom, which the Almighty had put in his heart.
2Ch 9:24 Those who visited brought tribute, vessels of silver and of gold, clothes, armor, and spices, as well as horses and mules, year after year.
2Ch 9:25 Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand cavalry, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with himself in Jerusalem.
2Ch 9:26 He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.
2Ch 9:27 The king had silver in Jerusalem, as much as the stones on the ground. He made cedar wood to be as abundant as the sycamore fig trees that are in the lowlands.
2Ch 9:28 They brought horses for Solomon from Egypt and from all the lands.
2Ch 9:29 As for the other matters concerning Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the History of Nathan the Prophet, in the Prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the Visions of Iddo the Seer concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat?
2Ch 9:30 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

2Ch 9:31 He slept with his ancestors (c. 983 BC), and the people buried him in the City of David his father. Rehoboam, his son, became king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 10

2Ch 10:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel was coming to Shechem to make him king.
2Ch 10:2 It happened that Jeroboam son of Nebat heard of this, for he was in Egypt, to where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon, but Jeroboam returned from Egypt.
2Ch 10:3 So they sent and called him, and Jeroboam and all Israel came; they spoke to Rehoboam,
2Ch 10:4 “Your father made our yoke difficult. Now therefore, make your father’s hard work easier, and lighten the heavy yoke that he put on us, and we will serve you.”
2Ch 10:5 Rehoboam replied to them, “Come again to me after three days.” So the people left.
2Ch 10:6 King Rehoboam consulted with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he was alive; he asked, “How would you advise me to bring an answer to these people?”
2Ch 10:7 They spoke to him, “If you are good to this people, please them, and say good words to them, then they will always be your servants.”
2Ch 10:8 But Rehoboam ignored the advice of the old men that they had given him, and consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.
2Ch 10:9 He asked them, “What advice do you give me, so that we may answer the people who spoke to me, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father put on us?’”
2Ch 10:10 The young men who had grown up with Rehoboam spoke to him, “This is how you should speak to the people who told you that your father Solomon made their yoke heavy, but that you must make it lighter. This is what you should say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist.
2Ch 10:11 So now, although my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scorpions.’”
2Ch 10:12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king ordered, “Come back to me on the third day.”
2Ch 10:13 Rehoboam spoke to them harshly, ignoring the advice of the old men.
2Ch 10:14 He spoke to them following the advice of the young men, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scorpions.”
2Ch 10:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn in events brought about by the Almighty (c. 983 BC), that Yehowah might carry out his word that Ahijah the Shilonite had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

2Ch 10:16 When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered him, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse! Each of you should go back to his tent, Israel. Now see to your own house, David!” So all Israel returned to their tents.
2Ch 10:17 But as for the people of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.
2Ch 10:18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, who was over the forced laborers, but the people of Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam fled quickly in his chariot to Jerusalem.
2Ch 10:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the House of David to this day.

2 Chronicles Chapter 11

2Ch 11:1 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem (c. 982 BC), he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were soldiers, to fight against Israel, to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.
2Ch 11:2 But the Word of Yehowah came to Shemaiah, the man of the Almighty, 2Ch 11:3 “Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin,
2Ch 11:4 ‘Yehowah commands this, “You must not attack or make war against your brothers. Everyone must return to his own house, for I have caused this to happen.”’” So they obeyed the words of Yehowah and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.
2Ch 11:5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built cities in Judah for defense.
2Ch 11:6 He built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,
2Ch 11:7 Bethzur, Soco, Adullam,
2Ch 11:8 Gath, Mareshah, Ziph,
2Ch 11:9 Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah,
2Ch 11:10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron. These are fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.
2Ch 11:11 He fortified the fortresses and put commanders in them, with stores of food, oil, and wine.
2Ch 11:12 He put shields and spears in all the cities and made them extremely strong. So Judah and Benjamin belonged to him.
2Ch 11:13 The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel went over to him from within their borders.
2Ch 11:14 For the Levites left their pasturelands and property in order to come to Judah and Jerusalem, for Jeroboam and his sons had driven them away, so that they could no longer perform priestly duties for Yehowah.
2Ch 11:15 Jeroboam appointed for himself priests for the high places and the goat and calf idols he had made.
2Ch 11:16 People from all the tribes of Israel came after them, those who set their hearts to seek Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel; they came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Yehowah, Mighty One of their fathers.
2Ch 11:17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and made Rehoboam son of Solomon strong during three years, and they walked for three years in the Way of David and Solomon.
2Ch 11:18 Rehoboam took a wife for himself: Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth, David’s son, and of Abihail, the daughter of Eliab, Jesse’s son.
2Ch 11:19 She bore him sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.

2Ch 11:20 After Mahalath, Rehoboam took Maacah, Absalom's daughter; she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.
2Ch 11:21 Rehoboam loved Maacah, Absalom's daughter, more than all his other wives and his concubines, he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.
2Ch 11:22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah to be chief, a leader among his brothers; he had the thought of making him king.
2Ch 11:23 Rehoboam ruled wisely; he scattered all his sons throughout all the land of Judah and Benjamin to every fortified city. He also gave them food in abundance and looked for many wives for them.

2 Chronicles Chapter 12

2Ch 12:1 It came about, when Rehoboam's reign was established, and he was strong, that he abandoned the Law of Yehowah, and all Israel with him.
2Ch 12:2 It happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam (c. 978 BC), that Shishak (Shoshenq I), king of Egypt, came up (by the Way of Horus) against Jerusalem, because the people had been unfaithful to Yehowah.
2Ch 12:3 He came with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand cavalry. Soldiers without number came with him from Egypt: Libyans, Sukkites, and Cushites.
2Ch 12:4 He captured the fortified cities that belonged to Judah and came to Jerusalem.
2Ch 12:5 Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and to the leaders of Judah who had gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak. Shemaiah said to them, "This is what Yehowah declares: You have forsaken me, so I have also given you over into Shishak's hand."
2Ch 12:6 Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and declared, "Yehowah is righteous."
2Ch 12:7 When Yehowah saw that they had humbled themselves, the Word of Yehowah came to Shemaiah, "They have humbled themselves. I will not ruin them; I will rescue them to some extent, and my anger will not pour out on Jerusalem by means of Shishak's hand.
2Ch 12:8 Nevertheless, they will be his servants, so that they may understand what it is to serve me and to serve the rulers of other countries."
2Ch 12:9 So Shishak, king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took away the treasures in the temple of Yehowah and the treasures in the king's house. He took everything away; he also took the shields of gold that Solomon had made (c. 978 BC).
2Ch 12:10 King Rehoboam made shields of bronze in their place and entrusted them into the hands of the commanders of the guard, who guarded the doors to the king's house.
2Ch 12:11 It happened, that whenever the king entered the temple of Yehowah, the guards would carry them; then they would bring them back into the guardhouse.
2Ch 12:12 When Rehoboam humbled himself, the anger of Yehowah turned away from him, so as not to destroy him completely; besides, there was still some good to be found in Judah.
2Ch 12:13 So King Rehoboam made his kingship strong in Jerusalem, and thus he reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that Yehowah had chosen from all the tribes of Israel, so that he might put his name there. His mother’s name was Naamah, the Ammonitess.

2Ch 12:14 He did what was evil, because he did not fix his heart to seek Yehowah.
2Ch 12:15 As for the other matters concerning Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the writings of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, which also have records of genealogies and the constant wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam?
2Ch 12:16 Rehoboam slept with his ancestors (c. 966 BC) and was buried in the City of David; Abijah his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 13

2Ch 13:1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam (c. 966 BC), Abijah began to reign over Judah.
2Ch 13:2 He ruled for three years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
2Ch 13:3 Abijah went into battle with a military force of strong, courageous soldiers, 400,000 chosen men. Jeroboam placed battle lines against him with 800,000 chosen men, strong, courageous soldiers.
2Ch 13:4 Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim and shouted, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel!
2Ch 13:5 Do you not know that Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, gave the rule over Israel to David forever, to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?
2Ch 13:6 Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master.
2Ch 13:7 Worthless men, base fellows, gathered to him. They came against Rehoboam son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced and could not withstand them.
2Ch 13:8 Now you say that you can resist the ruling might of Yehowah in the hand of the descendants of David. You are a large military force, and with you are the golden calves that Jeroboam made as deities for you.
2Ch 13:9 Have you not driven out the priests of Yehowah, the descendants of Aaron, and the Levites? Have you not made for yourselves priests in the manner of the people of other lands? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams may become a priest of what are no deities.
2Ch 13:10 But as for us, Yehowah is our Divine One, and we have not forsaken him. We have priests, descendants of Aaron, serving Yehowah, and the Levites, who are at their work.
2Ch 13:11 Each dawn and dusk they burn for Yehowah burnt offerings and sweet incense. They also arrange the bread of the presence on the pure table; they also tend the menorah of gold with its lamps, for them to burn each evening. We keep the commandments of Yehowah, our Divine One, but you have forsaken him.
2Ch 13:12 See, the Almighty is with us at our head, and his priests are here with the trumpets to sound an alarm against you. People of Israel, do not fight against Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, for you will not succeed."
2Ch 13:13 But Jeroboam prepared an ambush behind them; his military force was in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them.
2Ch 13:14 When Judah looked back, behold, the fighting was both in front of them and behind them. They cried out to Yehowah, and the priests blew the trumpets.

2Ch 13:15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout; as they shouted, it came about that the Almighty struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.
2Ch 13:16 The people of Israel fled before Judah, and the Almighty gave them into the hand of Judah.
2Ch 13:17 Abijah and his military force killed them with great slaughter; 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell dead.
2Ch 13:18 In this way, the people of Israel were subdued at that time; the people of Judah won, because they relied on Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors.
2Ch 13:19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam; he took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages.
2Ch 13:20 Jeroboam never recovered power again during the days of Abijah; Yehowah struck him, and he died (c. 962 BC).
2Ch 13:21 But Abijah became powerful; he took fourteen wives for himself and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.
2Ch 13:22 The rest of the acts of Abijah's deeds, his behavior and words are written in the Commentary of the Prophet Iddo.

2 Chronicles Chapter 14

2Ch 14:1 Abijah slept with his ancestors (c. 964 BC), and they buried him in the City of David. Asa, his son, became king in his place. In his days, the land was quiet ten years.
2Ch 14:2 Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of Yehowah his Divine One,
2Ch 14:3 for he took away the foreign altars and the high places. He broke down the stone pillars and cut down the Asherah poles.
2Ch 14:4 He commanded Judah to seek Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, and to carry out the law and the commandments.
2Ch 14:5 Also, he took away the high places and the sun-pillars from all the cities of Judah. The kingdom had rest under him.
2Ch 14:6 He built fortified cities in Judah, for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because Yehowah had given him peace.
2Ch 14:7 For Asa commanded Judah, “Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars; the land is still ours, because we have sought Yehowah our Divine One. We have sought him, and he has given us peace on every side.” So they built and succeeded.
2Ch 14:8 Asa had a military force that carried shields and spears; from Judah he had 300,000 men, and from Benjamin, 280,000 men who carried shields and drew bows. All of these were strong, courageous men.
2Ch 14:9 Zerah the Cushite (Nubian General of Osorkon I) came against them with a military force of one million soldiers and three hundred chariots; he came to Mareshah.
2Ch 14:10 Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle lines in order in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.
2Ch 14:11 Asa cried to Yehowah, his Divine One, “Yehowah, there is no one but you to help one who has no strength, when he is facing many. Help us, Yehowah our Divine One, for we rely on you, and in your name we have come against this vast number. Yehowah, you are our Divine One; do not let man defeat you.”
2Ch 14:12 So Yehowah struck the Cushites before Asa and Judah; the Cushites fled.
2Ch 14:13 Asa and the soldiers with him pursued them to Gerar. So many Cushites fell that they could not recover, for they were completely destroyed before Yehowah and his military force. The army carried away a huge amount of plunder.
2Ch 14:14 The military force destroyed all the villages around Gerar, for terror of Yehowah had come on the inhabitants. The army plundered all the villages, and there was much booty in them.

2Ch 14:15 The military force also destroyed the tent settlements of the shepherding nomads; they carried away sheep in abundance, as well as camels, and then they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Chronicles Chapter 15

2Ch 15:1 The Ruach of the Almighty came on Azariah son of Oded.
2Ch 15:2 He went out to meet Asa and prophesied to him, “Listen to me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: Yehowah is with you, while you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you.
2Ch 15:3 Now for a long period, Israel was without the true Almighty, without a teaching priest, and without the law.
2Ch 15:4 But when in their distress they turned to Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.
2Ch 15:5 In those times, there was no peace for him who traveled away, nor for him who traveled to here; instead, great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands.
2Ch 15:6 They were broken in pieces, ethnicity against ethnicity, and city against city, for the Almighty troubled them with all kinds of suffering.
2Ch 15:7 But be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work will be rewarded.”
2Ch 15:8 When Asa heard these words, the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage and drove away the disgusting things from all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and from the cities that he had captured from the hill country of Ephraim, and he rebuilt the altar of Yehowah, which was in front of the portico of the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 15:9 He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who stayed with them, people from Ephraim and Manasseh, and from Simeon. For they came from Israel to him in great numbers, when they saw that Yehowah his Divine One was with him.
2Ch 15:10 So they gathered together at Jerusalem in the third month (on Shavuot), in the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign (c. 949 BC).
2Ch 15:11 They sacrificed to Yehowah in that day, some of the plunder that they had brought: seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep and goats.
2Ch 15:12 They entered into a covenant to seek Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, with all their heart and with all their soul.
2Ch 15:13 They agreed that whoever refused to seek Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, should be executed, whether the person was small or great, whether man or woman.
2Ch 15:14 They swore to Yehowah with a loud voice, with shouting, and with trumpets and cornets!
2Ch 15:15 All Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart, and they sought Yehowah with their whole desire, and he was found by them. Yehowah gave them peace all around them.

2Ch 15:16 He also removed Maacah, his grandmother, from being queen, because she had made a disgusting figure out of an Asherah pole. Asa cut down the disgusting figure, ground it to dust and burned it at the brook Kidron.
2Ch 15:17 But the high places were not taken out of Israel. Nevertheless, Asa's heart was completely devoted all his days.
2Ch 15:18 He brought into the temple of the Almighty the things of his father and his own set-apart things: silver and gold objects.
2Ch 15:19 There was no more war, until thirty five years after Solomon's death (the Great Schism), in the fifteenth year of Asa's reign (c. 949 BC).

2 Chronicles Chapter 16

2Ch 16:1 Thirty six years after Solomon's death (the Great Schism), in the sixteenth year of Asa's reign (c. 948 BC), Baasha, king of Israel, acted aggressively against Judah and built up Ramah, so that he might not allow anyone to leave or enter into the land of Asa, king of Judah.
2Ch 16:2 Then Asa brought the silver and gold out of the storerooms in the temple of Yehowah and of the king's house, and sent it to Ben Hadad king of Aram, who lived in Damascus. He said,
2Ch 16:3 "Let there be a covenant between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent to you silver and gold. Break your covenant with Baasha, king of Israel, so that he may leave me alone."
2Ch 16:4 Ben Hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armed forces against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abelmaim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.
2Ch 16:5 It came about that when Baasha heard this, he stopped building up Ramah, and let his work cease.
2Ch 16:6 Then King Asa took all Judah with him. They carried away the stones and timbers of Ramah with which Baasha had been building up the city. Then King Asa used that building material to build up Geba and Mizpah.
2Ch 16:7 At that time Hanani the seer went to Asa, king of Judah, and said to him, "Because you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on Yehowah your Divine One, the military force of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand.
2Ch 16:8 Were not the Cushites and the Libyans a huge military force, with a large number of chariots and cavalry? Yet, because you relied on Yehowah, he gave you victory over them.
2Ch 16:9 For the eyes of Yehowah run everywhere throughout the whole earth, so that he might show himself strong on behalf of those whose hearts are perfect toward him. But you have acted foolishly in this matter. From now on, you will have war."
2Ch 16:10 Then Asa was angry with the seer; he put him into prison, for he was angry with him over this matter. At the same time, Asa oppressed some of the people.
2Ch 16:11 Behold, the deeds of Asa, from first to last, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.
2Ch 16:12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign (c. 925 BC), Asa was diseased in his feet; his disease was extremely severe. Even so, he did not seek help from Yehowah but only from physicians.

2Ch 16:13 Asa slept with his ancestors; he died in the forty-first year of his reign (c. 923 BC).
2Ch 16:14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had dug out for himself in the City of David. They laid him on a bier that was filled with sweet fragrances and various kinds of spices prepared by skilled perfumers. Then they made an extremely great fire in his honor.

2 Chronicles Chapter 17

2Ch 17:1 Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king in his place. Jehoshaphat strengthened himself against Israel.
2Ch 17:2 He placed military forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had captured.
2Ch 17:3 Yehowah was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first Ways of his father David, and did not seek the Baals.
2Ch 17:4 Instead, he relied on the Mighty One of his father, and walked in his commandments, not after the behavior of Israel.
2Ch 17:5 So Yehowah established the rule in his hand; all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat. He had riches and honor in abundance.
2Ch 17:6 His heart was committed to the Ways of Yehowah. He also removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.
2Ch 17:7 In the third year of his reign (c. 920 BC), he sent his officials Benhail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.
2Ch 17:8 With them were Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah (Tobiyah), and Tobadonijah; and with them were the priests Elishama and Jehoram.
2Ch 17:9 They taught in Judah, having the Book of the Law of Yehowah with them. They went about throughout all the cities of Judah and taught among the people.
2Ch 17:10 Terror of Yehowah fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.
2Ch 17:11 Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver-currency as tribute. Arabians also brought him flocks, 7,700 rams and 7,700 goats.
2Ch 17:12 Jehoshaphat became quite powerful. He built fortresses and store cities in Judah.
2Ch 17:13 He had many supplies in the cities of Judah, and soldiers, strong, courageous men, in Jerusalem.
2Ch 17:14 Here is a list of them, in order by the name of their fathers' houses: From Judah, the commanders of thousands; Adnah the commander, and with him 300,000 fighting men;
2Ch 17:15 next to him Jehohanan the commander, and with him 280,000 men;
2Ch 17:16 next to him Amasiah (Amasyah) son of Zichri, who willingly offered to serve Yehowah; and with him 200,000 fighting men.
2Ch 17:17 From Benjamin: Eliada a powerful man of courage, and with him 200,000 armed with bows and shields;

2Ch 17:18 next to him Jehozabad, and with him 180,000 ready and prepared for war.
2Ch 17:19 These were those who served the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

2 Chronicles Chapter 18

2Ch 18:2 After some years, he went down to Ahab in Samaria. Ahab killed many sheep and oxen for him and the people who were with him. Ahab also persuaded him to attack Ramoth Gilead with him.
2Ch 18:3 Ahab, king of Israel, asked Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat answered him, "I am like you, and my people are like your people; we will be with you in the war."
2Ch 18:4 Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please first seek the Word of Yehowah for your answer."
2Ch 18:5 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men and asked them, "Should we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or should I not?" They answered, "Attack, for the Almighty will give it into the hand of the king."
2Ch 18:6 But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not here still another prophet of Yehowah with whom we might seek advice?"
2Ch 18:7 The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may seek the advice of Yehowah, Micaiah son of Imlah, but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me but always evil." But Jehoshaphat replied, "The king should not say that."
2Ch 18:8 Then the king of Israel called an officer and ordered, "Quickly bring Micaiah son of Imlah."
2Ch 18:9 Now Ahab the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on a throne, clothed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them.
2Ch 18:10 Zedekiah son of Kenaanah made himself horns of iron and said, "Yehowah says this: With these you will push the Arameans until they are consumed."
2Ch 18:11 All the prophets prophesied the same, "Attack Ramoth Gilead and win, for Yehowah has given it into the hand of the king."
2Ch 18:12 The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, "Now look, the words of the prophets declare good things to the king with one mouth. Please let your word be like the word of one of them and say good things."
2Ch 18:13 Micaiah replied, "As Yehowah lives, it is what my Divine One says that I will say."
2Ch 18:14 When he came to the king, the king asked him, "Micaiah, should we go to Ramoth Gilead for battle, or not?" Micaiah answered him, "Attack and be victorious! For it will be a great victory."

2Ch 18:15 Then the king asked him, “How many times must I require you to swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of Yehowah?”
2Ch 18:16 So Micaiah prophesied, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep who have no shepherd, and Yehowah commanded, ‘These have no master. Let every man return to his house in peace.’”
2Ch 18:17 So the king of Israel grumbled at Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me but only disaster?”
2Ch 18:18 Then Micaiah said, “Therefore, all of you should hear the Word of Yehowah: I saw Yehowah sitting on his throne, and all the armed forces of Heaven were standing on his right hand and on his left.
2Ch 18:19 Yehowah asked, ‘Who will entice Ahab, king of Israel, so that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?’ One said this and another that.
2Ch 18:20 Then a spirit came forward, and it stood before Yehowah and said, ‘I will entice him.’ Yehowah asked him, ‘How?’
2Ch 18:21 The spirit replied, ‘I will go out, and I will become a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.’ Yehowah replied, ‘You will entice him, and you will also be successful. Go now and do so.’
2Ch 18:22 Now see, Yehowah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and Yehowah has decreed disaster for you.”
2Ch 18:23 Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah, came up, slapped Micaiah on the cheek and asked, “Which way did the Ruach of Yehowah take to go from me to speak to you?”
2Ch 18:24 Micaiah answered, “Look, you will know that on that day, when you run into some inner room to hide.”
2Ch 18:25 The king of Israel ordered some servants, “You people seize Micaiah and take him to Amon, the commander of the fortress, and to Joash, my son.
2Ch 18:26 You people will say to him, ‘The king commands: Put this man in prison and feed him with only a little bread and only a little water, until I return safely.’”
2Ch 18:27 Then Micaiah said, “If you return safely, then Yehowah has not spoken by me.” Then he added, “Listen to this, all you people!”
2Ch 18:28 So Ahab, the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went up against Ramoth Gilead.
2Ch 18:29 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into the battle.
2Ch 18:30 Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, “Do not attack the unimportant or the important soldiers. Instead, attack only the king of Israel.”
2Ch 18:31 It came about that when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they shouted, “That is the king of Israel!” They turned around to attack him, but Jehoshaphat cried out, and Yehowah helped him. The Almighty turned them away from him.

2Ch 18:32 It came about that when the commanders of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.
2Ch 18:33 But a certain man drew his bow at random and shot the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. Then Ahab ordered the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and carry me out of the battle, for I am badly wounded!”
2Ch 18:34 The battle grew worse that day, and the king of Israel was held up in his chariot facing the Arameans until dusk. About the time that the sun was going down, he died (Battle of Karkar, or Qarqar, c. 905 BC).

2 Chronicles Chapter 19

2Ch 19:1 King Jehoshaphat of Judah safely returned to his house in Jerusalem.
2Ch 19:2 Then Jehu son of Hanani, the seer, went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, “Should you be helping the wicked? Should you be loving those who hate Yehowah? For this deed, anger from Yehowah is on you.
2Ch 19:3 However, there is some good to be found in you, in that you have taken the Asherah poles out of the land, and you have fixed your heart to seek the Almighty.”
2Ch 19:4 Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to Yehowah, Mighty One of their fathers.
2Ch 19:5 He placed judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.
2Ch 19:6 He said to the judges, “Consider what you should do, because you are not judging for man, but for Yehowah; he is with you in the act of judging.
2Ch 19:7 Now then let the fear of Yehowah be upon you. Be careful when you judge, for there is no iniquity with Yehowah our Divine One, nor is there any favoritism or bribe taking.”
2Ch 19:8 Moreover, in Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites and the priests, and some of the heads of the ancestral houses of Israel, for carrying out judgment for Yehowah, and for the sake of disputes. They lived in Jerusalem.
2Ch 19:9 He instructed them, “You must serve in reverence for Yehowah, faithfully, and with your whole heart.
2Ch 19:10 Whenever any dispute comes to you from your brothers who live in their cities, whether concerning bloodshed, whether about law and commands, statutes or decrees, you must warn them, so they do not become guilty before Yehowah, or anger will come toward you and toward your brothers. You will do this, and you will not be guilty.
2Ch 19:11 See, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all the matters of Yehowah. Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the house of Judah, is in charge of all the matters of the king. Also, the Levites will be officers serving you. Be strong and obey your instructions, and may Yehowah be with those who are good.”

2 Chronicles Chapter 20

2Ch 20:1 It came about after this, that the people of Moab and Ammon, and with them some Meunites, came against Jehoshaphat to do battle.
2Ch 20:2 Then messengers came who told Jehoshaphat, “A large multitude is coming against you from beyond the Dead Sea, from Edom. See, they are in Hazazon Tamar,” that is, Engedi (modern Tall al-Gurn).
2Ch 20:3 Jehoshaphat became afraid and set himself to seek Yehowah. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.
2Ch 20:4 Judah gathered together to seek Yehowah; they came to seek Yehowah from all the cities of Judah.
2Ch 20:5 Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, at the temple of Yehowah, in front of the new courtyard.
2Ch 20:6 He prayed, “Yehowah, Mighty One of our ancestors, are you not the Almighty in Heaven? Are you not the ruler over all the kingdoms of the ethnicities? Power and might are in your hand, so no one is able to resist you.
2Ch 20:7 Our Divine One, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel, and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend?
2Ch 20:8 They lived in it and built you a Set-apart Place in it for your name, declaring,
2Ch 20:9 ‘If disaster comes on us, the sword, judgment, or disease, or famine, we will stand before this temple, and before you, for your name is in this temple, and we will cry to you in our affliction, and you will hear us and save us.’
2Ch 20:10 See now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, whom you would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt; instead, Israel turned away from them and did not destroy them.
2Ch 20:11 See how they are rewarding us; they are coming to drive us out of your land that you have given us to inherit.
2Ch 20:12 Our Divine One, will you not judge them? For we have no power against this great military force that is coming against us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are on you.”
2Ch 20:13 All Judah stood before Yehowah, with their little ones, wives, and children.
2Ch 20:14 Then in the middle of the congregation, the Ruach of Yehowah came on Jahaziel, son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, the Levite, one of the sons of Asaph.
2Ch 20:15 Jahaziel prophesied, “Listen, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat. This is what Yehowah declares to you, ‘Do not fear; do not be discouraged because of this great military force, for the battle does not belong to you but to the Almighty.

2Ch 20:16 You must go down against them tomorrow. See, they are coming up by way of the pass of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel.
2Ch 20:17 You will not need to fight in this battle. Stand in your positions, stand still, and see the rescue of Yehowah with you, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear nor be discouraged. Go out against them tomorrow, for Yehowah is with you.'"
2Ch 20:18 Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Yehowah, worshiping Yehowah.
2Ch 20:19 The Levites, those of the descendants of the Kohathites and Korahites, stood up to praise Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, with an extremely loud voice!
2Ch 20:20 At the crack of dawn they arose and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. As they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and proclaimed, "Listen to me, Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Trust in Yehowah your Divine One, and you will be supported. Trust in his prophets, and you will succeed."
2Ch 20:21 When he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to Yehowah and give him praise for his set-apart glory, as they went out preceding the military force and shouting, "Give thanks to Yehowah, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever!"
2Ch 20:22 When they began to sing and to praise, Yehowah set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who were coming against Judah. They were defeated.
2Ch 20:23 For the people of Ammon and Moab rose to fight the inhabitants of Mount Seir, in order to completely kill them and destroy them. When they had finished with the inhabitants of Mount Seir, they all helped to destroy each other.
2Ch 20:24 When Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked out on the military force. Behold, they were dead, fallen to the ground; none had escaped (Isa. 37:36).
2Ch 20:25 When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take plunder from them, they found among them abundant goods, clothing, and valuable articles, which they took for themselves, more than they could carry away. It took them three days to carry off the plunder, there was so much of it.
2Ch 20:26 On the fourth day, they assembled in the Valley of Beracah. There they praised Yehowah, so the name of that place is the "Valley of Blessing" to this day.
2Ch 20:27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in their lead, to go again to Jerusalem with joy, for Yehowah had made them rejoice over their enemies.

2Ch 20:28 They came to Jerusalem and to the temple of Yehowah with lyres, harps, and trumpets.
2Ch 20:29 The terror of the Almighty was on all the kingdoms of the ethnicities when they heard that Yehowah had fought against Israel's enemies.
2Ch 20:30 So Jehoshaphat's kingdom was quiet, for his Divine One gave him peace all around him.
2Ch 20:31 Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.
2Ch 20:32 He walked in the ways of Asa, his father; he did not turn away from them; he did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah.
2Ch 20:33 However, the high places were not taken away. The people still had not directed their hearts to the Mighty One of their ancestors.
2Ch 20:34 As for the other matters concerning Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Jehu son of Hanani, which is recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.
2Ch 20:35 After this, Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, allied himself with Ahaziah, king of Israel, who committed much wickedness.
2Ch 20:36 He allied himself with him to build ships to go to Tarshish. They built the ships at Ezion Geber (may be modern Haql, Saudia Arabia).
2Ch 20:37 Then Eliezer son of Dodawahu of Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, Yehowah has destroyed your projects." The ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to sail.

2 Chronicles Chapter 21

2Ch 21:1 Jehoshaphat slept with his ancestors (c. 898 BC) and was buried with them in the City of David; Jehoram, his son, became king in his place.
2Ch 21:2 Jehoram had brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah. All these were sons of Jehoshaphat, king of Israel.
2Ch 21:3 Their father had given them large gifts of silver-currency, gold, and other precious things, and also fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the throne to Jehoram, because he was his firstborn.
2Ch 21:4 Now when Jehoram had risen up over his father's kingdom and had firmly established himself as king, he murdered all his brothers with the sword, and also various other leaders of Israel.
2Ch 21:5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.
2Ch 21:6 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab was doing, for he had Ahab's daughter as his wife, and he did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah.
2Ch 21:7 However, Yehowah did not wish to destroy the House of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David; he had promised that he would always give life to him and his descendants.
2Ch 21:8 In Jehoram's days, Edom revolted from the control of Judah, and they set a king over themselves.
2Ch 21:9 Then Jehoram crossed over with his commanders and all his chariots. It was night when he rose up and fought against the Edomites who had surrounded him and his chariot commanders.
2Ch 21:10 So Edom has been in rebellion from the control of Judah to this present day. Libnah also revolted at the same time from his control, because Jehoram had forsaken Yehowah, Mighty One of his ancestors.
2Ch 21:11 In addition, Jehoram had also built high places in the mountains of Judah, and he made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to live like prostitutes, and he led Judah astray.
2Ch 21:12 A letter from the prophet Elijah came to Jehoram. It stated, "This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of David, your ancestor, declares: Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat, your father, nor in the ways of Asa, king of Judah,
2Ch 21:13 but have walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to act like a prostitute, as the house of Ahab did, and because you have also murdered your brothers in your father's family with the sword, men who were better than yourself,

2Ch 21:14 see, Yehowah will strike with a great plague your people, your children, your wives, and all your wealth.
2Ch 21:15 You yourself will have much sickness because of a disease in your intestines, until your intestines fall out because of the sickness, day after day."
2Ch 21:16 Yehowah stirred up against Jehoram the spirits of the Philistines and of the Arabians who were near the Cushites.
2Ch 21:17 They attacked Judah, invaded it, and carried away all the wealth that was found in the king's house. They also carried away his sons and his wives. No son was left to him except Jehoahaz (Ahaziah), his youngest son.
2Ch 21:18 After all this, Yehowah struck him in his intestines with an incurable disease.
2Ch 21:19 It came about in due time, at the end of two years, that his intestines fell out because of his sickness, and that he died of severe disease. His people made no fire in his honor as they had done for his ancestors.
2Ch 21:20 He had begun to reign when he was thirty-two years old; he reigned in Jerusalem for eight years, and he died unlamented (c. 893 BC; 2 Kings 8:16-17). They buried him in the City of David, but not in the royal tombs.

2 Chronicles Chapter 22

2Ch 22:1 The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, Jehoram's youngest son, king in his place, for the band of men that came with the Arabians into the camp had murdered all his older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, became king.
2Ch 22:2 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah; she was the daughter of Omri.
2Ch 22:3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother was his advisor in doing wicked things.
2Ch 22:4 Ahaziah did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, as the house of Ahab was doing, for they were his advisors after the death of his father, to his destruction.
2Ch 22:5 He also followed their advice; he went with Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel, to fight against Hazael, king of Aram, at Ramoth Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram.
2Ch 22:6 Joram returned to Jezreel to be healed of the wounds that they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael, king of Aram. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab, because Joram had been wounded.
2Ch 22:7 Now the destruction of Ahaziah was brought about by the Almighty through Ahaziah's visit to Joram. When he had arrived, he went with Jehoram to attack Jehu son of Nimshi, whom Yehowah had chosen to destroy the house of Ahab.
2Ch 22:8 It came about, when Jehu was carrying out judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the leaders of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers serving Ahaziah. Jehu killed them.
2Ch 22:9 Jehu looked for Ahaziah; they caught him hiding in Samaria, brought him to Jehu, and executed him (c. 893 BC). Then they buried him, for they said, "He is a son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Yehowah with all his heart." So the house of Ahaziah had no more power to rule the kingdom.
2Ch 22:10 Now when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose and murdered all the royal children in the house of Judah.
2Ch 22:11 But Jehoshaba, a daughter of the king, took Joash, a son of Ahaziah, and spirited him away from among the king's sons who were killed. She put him and his nurse into a bedroom. So Jehoshaba, a daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, for she was the sister of Ahaziah, hid him from Athaliah, so that Athaliah did not kill him.

2Ch 22:12 He was with them, hidden in the temple of the Almighty for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

2 Chronicles Chapter 23

2Ch 23:1 In the seventh year (c. 887 BC), Jehoiada showed his strength and entered into a covenant with the commanders of hundreds, Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri.
2Ch 23:2 They went about in Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, as well as the heads of the ancestral houses of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.
2Ch 23:3 All the congregation made a covenant with the king in the temple of the Almighty. Jehoiada said to them, “See, the king’s son will reign, as Yehowah has said concerning the descendants of David.
2Ch 23:4 This is what you must do: A third of you priests and of the Levites who come to serve on the Sabbath, will be guards at the doors.
2Ch 23:5 Another third will be at the king’s house, and the other third will be at the Foundation Gate. All the people will be in the courtyard of the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 23:6 Allow no one to come into the temple of Yehowah, except for the priests and the Levites who are serving. They may enter, because they are consecrated. But all the other people must obey the commands of Yehowah.
2Ch 23:7 The Levites must surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever comes into the temple, let him be executed. Stay with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.”
2Ch 23:8 So the Levites and all Judah served in every way in the manner in which Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each one took his men, those who were to come in to serve on the Sabbath, and those who were to leave off serving on the Sabbath, for Jehoiada, the priest, had not dismissed any of their divisions.
2Ch 23:9 Then Jehoiada, the priest, brought to the commanders spears and small and large shields that had been King David’s that were in the temple of the Almighty.
2Ch 23:10 Jehoiada placed all the soldiers, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, surrounding the king.
2Ch 23:11 Then they brought out the king’s son, put the crown on him, and gave him the covenant decrees. Then they made him king, and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him. Then they shouted, “Long live the king!”
2Ch 23:12 When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 23:13 And she looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance, and the commanders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and the singers were playing musical instruments and leading the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and shouted, “Treason! Treason!”

2Ch 23:14 Then Jehoiada, the priest, brought out the commanders of hundreds who were over the military force and ordered them, “Bring her out between the ranks; anyone who follows her, let him be killed with the sword.” For the priest had ordered, “Do not execute her in the temple of Yehowah.”
2Ch 23:15 So they made way for her, and she went by way of the Horse Gate to the king’s house, and there they executed her (c. 887 BC).
2Ch 23:16 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people, and the king, that they should be the people of Yehowah.
2Ch 23:17 So all the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed Baal’s altars and his images to pieces, and they killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of those altars.
2Ch 23:18 Jehoiada appointed officers for the temple of Yehowah under the hand of the priests, who were Levites, whom David had assigned to the temple of Yehowah, to offer the burnt offerings to Yehowah, as it was written in the Law of Moses, together with rejoicing and singing, as David had given direction.
2Ch 23:19 Jehoiada set guards at the gates of the temple of Yehowah, so that no one that was unclean in any way should enter.
2Ch 23:20 Jehoiada took with him the commanders of hundreds, the noblemen, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land. He brought down the king from the temple of Yehowah; the people came through the Upper Gate to the king’s house and sat the king on the throne of the kingdom.
2Ch 23:21 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. As for Athaliah, they had executed her with the sword.

2 Chronicles Chapter 24

2Ch 24:1 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba.
2Ch 24:2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah all the days of Jehoiada, the priest.
2Ch 24:3 Jehoiada took for him two wives, and he became the father of sons and daughters.
2Ch 24:4 It came about after this, that Joash decided to restore the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 24:5 He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and he ordered them, "Go out every year to the cities of Judah and gather from all Israel money to repair the temple of the Almighty. Make sure that you start right away." The Levites did nothing at first.
2Ch 24:6 So the king called for Jehoiada, the high priest, and asked him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the offering levied by Moses the servant of Yehowah and by the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the covenant decrees?"
2Ch 24:7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the temple of the Almighty and had given all the set-apart things of the temple of Yehowah to the Baals.
2Ch 24:8 So the king commanded, and they made a chest and placed it outside at the entrance to the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 24:9 Then they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem, for the people to bring in for Yehowah the offering that Moses the servant of the Almighty levied on Israel in the wilderness.
2Ch 24:10 All the leaders and all the people rejoiced and brought money in and put it into the chest, until they finished filling it.
2Ch 24:11 It happened that whenever the chest was brought to the king's officials by the hand of the Levites, and whenever they saw that there was much money in it, the king's scribe and the high priest's official would come, empty the chest, and take it and carry it back to its place. They did this day after day, gathering large amounts of money.
2Ch 24:12 The king and Jehoiada gave the money to those who did the work of serving in the temple of Yehowah. These men hired stonemasons and carpenters to restore the temple of Yehowah, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to repair the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 24:13 So the workmen labored, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands; they set up the temple of the Almighty in its original design and strengthened it.

2Ch 24:14 When they finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada. This money was used to make furnishings for the temple of Yehowah, utensils with which to serve and make offerings, spoons and utensils of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the temple of Yehowah continually for all the days of Jehoiada.
2Ch 24:15 Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and then he died; he was 130 years old when he died.
2Ch 24:16 They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, toward the Almighty and his temple.
2Ch 24:17 Now after the death of Jehoiada, the leaders of Judah came and did honor to the king. Then the king listened to them.
2Ch 24:18 They forsook the temple of Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, and worshiped the Asherah deities and the idols. Then wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this wrongdoing of theirs.
2Ch 24:19 Yet he sent prophets to them to bring them again to himself, Yehowah; the prophets testified against the people, but they refused to listen.
2Ch 24:20 The Ruach of the Almighty came on Zechariah son of Jehoiada, the priest; Zechariah stood above the people and said to them, “The Almighty declares this: Why do you transgress the commandments of Yehowah, so that you cannot prosper? Since you have forsaken Yehowah, he has also forsaken you.”
2Ch 24:21 But they plotted against him; at the king’s command, they stoned him with stones in the courtyard of the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 24:22 In this manner, King Joash ignored the kindness that Jehoiada, Zechariah’s father, had done to him. Instead, he murdered Jehoiada’s son. When Zechariah was dying, he said, “May Yehowah see this and call you to account.”
2Ch 24:23 It came about at the Spring Equinox, that the armed forces of Aram came up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem; they killed all the leaders of the people and sent all the plunder from them to the king of Damascus.
2Ch 24:24 The armed forces of the Arameans had come with a small military force, but Yehowah gave them victory over an extremely great military force, because Judah had forsaken Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors. In this way, the Arameans brought judgment on Joash.
2Ch 24:25 By the time that the Arameans had gone, Joash had been severely wounded. His own servants plotted against him because of the murder of the son of Jehoiada, the priest. They murdered him in his bed, and he died (c. 848 BC); they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.
2Ch 24:26 These were the persons who plotted against him: Zabad son of Shimeath, the Ammonitess; and Jehozabad son of Shimrith, the Moabitess.

2Ch 24:27 Now the accounts about his sons, the important prophecies that were spoken about him, and the rebuilding of the temple of the Almighty, see, they are written in the Commentary on the Book of the Kings. Amaziah his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 25

2Ch 25:1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem.
2Ch 25:2 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah but not with a perfectly devoted heart.
2Ch 25:3 It came about that as soon as his rule was well established, he executed the servants who had murdered his father, the king.
2Ch 25:4 But he did not execute the children of the murderers but acted according to what was written in the law, in the Book of Moses, as Yehowah had commanded, "The fathers must not be executed for the children, nor must the children be executed for the fathers. Instead, every person must be executed for his own sin."
2Ch 25:5 Moreover, Amaziah gathered Judah together, and registered them by their ancestors' houses, under commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, all of Judah and Benjamin. He numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them to be 300,000 chosen men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield.
2Ch 25:6 He also hired 100,000 fighting men from Israel for 300,000-weight silver-currency.
2Ch 25:7 But a man of the Almighty came to him and prophesied, "King, do not let the military force of Israel go with you, for Yehowah is not with Israel, none of the people of Ephraim.
2Ch 25:8 But even if you do go and are courageous and strong in battle, the Almighty will throw you down before the enemy, for the Almighty has power to help and power to throw down."
2Ch 25:9 Amaziah asked the man of the Almighty, "But what will we do about the 300,000-weight silver-currency that I have given to the military force of Israel?" The man of the Almighty answered, "Yehowah is able to give you much more than that."
2Ch 25:10 So Amaziah separated the military force that had come to him from Ephraim; he sent them home again. So their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger.
2Ch 25:11 Amaziah took courage and led his people to go out to the Valley of Salt; there he defeated ten thousand men of Seir.
2Ch 25:12 The military force of Judah carried away alive another ten thousand. They took them to the top of the cliff and threw them down from there, so that they were all broken in pieces.

2Ch 25:13 But the men of the military force which Amaziah sent back, so that they should not go with him to battle, attacked the cities of Judah from Samaria to Bethhoron. They struck down three thousand of the people and took much plunder.
2Ch 25:14 Now it came about, after Amaziah had returned from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the deities of the people of Seir, and set them up to be his own deities. He bowed down before them and burned incense to them.
2Ch 25:15 So the anger of Yehowah was kindled against Amaziah. He sent a prophet to him, who asked, “Why have you sought after the deities of a people who did not even save their own people from your hand?”
2Ch 25:16 It came about, that as the prophet was speaking with him, the king asked him, “Have we made you an advisor to the king? Stop! Why should you be killed?” Then the prophet stopped and said, “I know that the Almighty has decided to destroy you, because you have done this deed and have not listened to my advice.”
2Ch 25:17 Then King Amaziah of Judah consulted with advisors and sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, “Come, let us meet each other face to face in battle.”
2Ch 25:18 But Jehoash the king of Israel sent messengers back to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, “A thistle that was in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon, ‘Give your daughter to my son for a wife,’ but a wild beast in Lebanon walked by and trampled down the thistle.
2Ch 25:19 You have said, ‘See, I have struck down Edom,’ and your heart has lifted you up. Take pride in your victory, but stay at home, for why should you cause yourself trouble and fall, both you and Judah with you?”
2Ch 25:20 But Amaziah would not listen, because this event was from the Almighty, so he might hand over the people of Judah into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought advice from the deities of Edom.
2Ch 25:21 So Jehoash, king of Israel, attacked; he and King Amaziah of Judah met each other face to face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
2Ch 25:22 Judah was struck down before Israel, and every man fled home.
2Ch 25:23 Jehoash, king of Israel, captured Amaziah son of Jehoash son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, at Beth Shemesh. He brought him to Jerusalem and tore down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, two hundred meters in distance.
2Ch 25:24 He took all the gold and silver, all the objects that were found in the temple of the Almighty with Obed Edom, and the valuable things in the king’s house, with hostages also, and returned to Samaria.
2Ch 25:25 Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.

2Ch 25:26 As for the other matters concerning Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?
2Ch 25:27 Now, from the time that Amaziah turned away from following Yehowah, they began to make a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. He fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there (c. 819 BC).
2Ch 25:28 They brought him back on horses and buried him with his ancestors in the City of David.

2 Chronicles Chapter 26

2Ch 26:1 All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.
2Ch 26:2 It was he (Uzziah) who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his ancestors (c. 819 BC; 2 Kings 14:22).
2Ch 26:3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign. He reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechiliah; she was from Jerusalem.
2Ch 26:4 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, following the example of his father, Amaziah, in everything.
2Ch 26:5 He set himself to seek the Almighty in the days of Zechariah, who gave him instructions for obeying the Almighty. As long as he sought Yehowah, the Almighty made him prosper.
2Ch 26:6 Uzziah went out and fought against the Philistines. He broke down the city walls of Gath, Jabneh (modern Yavne), and Ashdod; he built cities in the country of Ashdod and among the Philistines.
2Ch 26:7 Yehowah helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gurbaal, and against the Meunites.
2Ch 26:8 The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread, even to the entrance of Egypt, because he was becoming more powerful.
2Ch 26:9 In addition, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.
2Ch 26:10 He built watchtowers in the wilderness and dug many cisterns, for he had much livestock, in the lowlands as well as in the plains. He had farmers and vine growers in the hill country and in the fruitful fields, for he loved farming.
2Ch 26:11 In addition, Uzziah had a military force of fighting men who went out to war in groups which were organized by their number that were counted by Jeiel, the scribe, and Maaseiah, the officer, under the authority of Hananiah, one of the king's commanders.
2Ch 26:12 The whole number of the heads of ancestral houses, fighting men, was 2,600.
2Ch 26:13 Under their hand was a military force of 307,500 men that made war with mighty power to help the king against the enemy.
2Ch 26:14 Uzziah prepared for them, for all the military force, shields, spears, helmets, coats of mail, bows, and stones for slinging.
2Ch 26:15 In Jerusalem, he built engines invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and large stones. His fame spread to distant lands, for he was greatly helped, until he became powerful.

2Ch 26:16 But when Uzziah had become powerful, his heart was lifted up, so that he acted corruptly; he trespassed against Yehowah, his Divine One, for he went into the temple of Yehowah to burn incense on the altar of incense.
2Ch 26:17 Azariah, the priest, went in after him, and with him eighty priests of Yehowah, who were courageous men.
2Ch 26:18 They resisted King Uzziah, and said to him, “It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Yehowah, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the Set-apart Place, for you have been unfaithful, and you will not be honored by Yehowah Almighty.”
2Ch 26:19 Then Uzziah became angry. He was holding a censer in his hand to burn incense. While he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead before the priests in the temple of Yehowah, beside the altar of incense.
2Ch 26:20 Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and behold, he had become leprous on his forehead! They quickly drove him out of there. Indeed, he hurried to go out, because Yehowah had struck him.
2Ch 26:21 King Uzziah was a leper to the day of his death and lived in a separate house, since he was a leper, for he was cut off from the temple of Yehowah. Jotham, his son, was over the king’s household and ruled the people of the land.
2Ch 26:22 As for the other matters concerning Uzziah, first and last, are in what Isaiah, son of Amoz the prophet, wrote.
2Ch 26:23 So Uzziah slept with his ancestors (c. 755 BC); they buried him with his ancestors in a burial ground that belonged to the Kings, for they said, “He is a leper.” Jotham, his son, became king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 27

2Ch 27:1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah; she was the daughter of Zadok.
2Ch 27:2 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, following the example of his father, Uzziah, in everything. He also refrained from going into the temple of Yehowah. But the people were still behaving in evil ways.
2Ch 27:3 He built the upper gate of the temple of Yehowah, and on the hill of Ophel he built much.
2Ch 27:4 Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built fortresses and towers.
2Ch 27:5 He fought also with the king of the people of Ammon and defeated them. In that same year, the people of Ammon gave him 300,000-weight silver-currency, 2,200 kiloliters of wheat, and 2,200 kiloliters of barley. The people of Ammon gave him the same in the second and third years.
2Ch 27:6 So Jotham became powerful, because he walked firmly before Yehowah his Divine One.
2Ch 27:7 As for the other matters concerning Jotham, all his wars, and his Ways, see, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.
2Ch 27:8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem.
2Ch 27:9 Jotham slept with his ancestors (c. 735 BC), and they buried him in the City of David. Ahaz, his son, became king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 28

2Ch 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, as David his ancestor had done.
2Ch 28:2 Instead, he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel; he also made cast metal figures for the Baals.
2Ch 28:3 In addition, he burned incense in the Valley of Ben Hinnom and put his children into fire, according to the idolatrous practices of the people that Yehowah forced out of their land before the people of Israel.
2Ch 28:4 He sacrificed and burned incense at the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.
2Ch 28:5 Therefore, Yehowah, Mighty One of Ahaz, gave him into the hand of the king of Aram. The Arameans defeated him and carried away from him a great crowd of prisoners, bringing them to Damascus. Ahaz was also given into the hand of the king of Israel who defeated him in a great slaughter.
2Ch 28:6 For Pekah son of Remaliah, killed in Judah 120,000 soldiers in one day, all of them courageous men, because they had forsaken Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors.
2Ch 28:7 Zicri, a powerful man from Ephraim, murdered Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam, the official over the palace, and Elkanah, who was next to the king.
2Ch 28:8 The armed forces of Israel took captive from their relatives 200,000 wives, sons, and daughters. They also took much plunder, which they carried back to Samaria.
2Ch 28:9 But a prophet of Yehowah was there, his name was Oded. He went out to meet the military force coming into Samaria. He said to them, "Because Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, was angry with Judah, he gave them into your hand. But you have slaughtered them in a rage that reached up to Heaven.
2Ch 28:10 Now you intend to keep the men and women of Judah and Jerusalem as your slaves. But are you not guilty of sins of your own against Yehowah your Divine One?
2Ch 28:11 Now then listen to me: Send the prisoners back, those whom you have taken of your own brothers, for the fierce wrath of Yehowah is on you."
2Ch 28:12 Then certain leaders of the people of Ephraim, Azariah son of Johanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came back from the war.
2Ch 28:13 They said to them, "You must not bring the prisoners here, for you intend something that will bring on us sin against Yehowah, to add to our sins and trespasses, for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.”

2Ch 28:14 So the armed men left the prisoners and the plunder before the leaders and all the congregation.
2Ch 28:15 The men who were assigned by name rose up and took the prisoners, and clothed all who were naked among them with the plunder. They clothed them and gave them sandals. They gave them food to eat and drink. They treated their wounds and put the weak ones on jack donkeys. They took them back to their families in Jericho, called the City of Palms. Then they returned to Samaria.
2Ch 28:16 At that time, King Ahaz sent messengers to the kings of Assyria to ask them to help him.
2Ch 28:17 For once again, the Edomites had come and attacked Judah, carrying prisoners away.
2Ch 28:18 The Philistines also invaded the cities of the lowlands and of the Negev of Judah. They took Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and also Gimzo with its villages. They went to live in those places.
2Ch 28:19 For Yehowah brought Judah low because of Ahaz, king of Israel; for he had acted wickedly in Judah and had sinned treacherously against Yehowah.
2Ch 28:20 Tiglath-Pileser III, king of Assyria, came to him and troubled him instead of strengthening him.
2Ch 28:21 For Ahaz plundered the temple of Yehowah and the houses of the king and the leaders, to give the valuable things to the kings of Assyria. But doing this did not benefit him.
2Ch 28:22 This same King Ahaz sinned even more against Yehowah in his time of suffering.
2Ch 28:23 For he sacrificed to the deities of Damascus, deities that had defeated him. He said, “Because the deities of the kings of Aram helped them, will I sacrifice to them, so that they might help me.” But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel.
2Ch 28:24 Ahaz gathered together the furnishings of the temple of the Almighty and cut them to pieces. He shut the doors of the temple of Yehowah, and he made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem.
2Ch 28:25 In every city of Judah, he made high places to burn sacrifices to false deities. He provoked Yehowah, Mighty One of his ancestors, to anger.
2Ch 28:26 Now the rest of his deeds, and all his ways, first and last, see, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.
2Ch 28:27 Ahaz slept with his ancestors (c. 724 BC), and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, but they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Hezekiah, his son, became king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 29

2Ch 29:1 Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah; she was the daughter of Zechariah.
2Ch 29:2 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, just as David his father had done.
2Ch 29:3 In the first year of his reign (c. 725 BC), in the first month, Hezekiah opened the doors of the temple of Yehowah and repaired them.
2Ch 29:4 He brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the courtyard on the east side.
2Ch 29:5 He ordered them, "Listen to me, you Levites! Consecrate yourselves, and consecrate the temple of Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, and carry away the filthiness from the Set-apart Place.
2Ch 29:6 For our ancestors trespassed and did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah our Divine One; they forsook him, turned away their faces from the place where Yehowah lives, and turned their backs on it.
2Ch 29:7 Also, they shut up the doors of the porch and put out the lamps; they did not burn incense or offer burnt offerings in the Set-apart Place to the Mighty One of Israel.
2Ch 29:8 Therefore, the wrath of Yehowah had fallen on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has made them to be an object of terror, of horror, and of scorn, as you can see with your own eyes.
2Ch 29:9 This is why our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity for this.
2Ch 29:10 Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, so that his fierce anger may turn away from us.
2Ch 29:11 My sons, do not be lazy now, for Yehowah has chosen you to stand before him, to worship him, and that you should be his servants and burn incense."
2Ch 29:12 Then the Levites arose: Mahath son of Amasai, and Joel son of Azariah, of the people of the Kohathites; and of the people of Merari, Kish son of Abdi, and Azariah son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah son of Zimmah, and Eden son of Joah;
2Ch 29:13 of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah;
2Ch 29:14 of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

2Ch 29:15 They gathered their brothers, they consecrated themselves, and they went in, as the king commanded, following the words of Yehowah, to cleanse the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 29:16 The priests went in to the inner part of the temple of Yehowah to cleanse it; they brought out all the filth that they found in the temple of Yehowah into the courtyard of the temple. The Levites took it to carry it out to the brook Kidron.
2Ch 29:17 Now they began the consecration on the first of the first month. By the eighth day of the month they reached the porch of Yehowah. Then for eight more days they consecrated the temple of Yehowah. On the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.
2Ch 29:18 Then they went to King Hezekiah inside the palace and reported, “We have cleansed all the temple of Yehowah, the altar for burnt offerings with all its implements, and the table of the bread of the presence, with all its implements.
2Ch 29:19 So we have prepared, and we have consecrated all the items that King Ahaz removed when he acted unfaithfully during his reign. See, they are in front of the altar of Yehowah.”
2Ch 29:20 Then King Hezekiah rose early in the morning and gathered the leaders of the city; he went up to the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 29:21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. He commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of Yehowah.
2Ch 29:22 So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. They killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar; they also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.
2Ch 29:23 They brought the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; they laid their hands on them.
2Ch 29:24 The priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar to make atonement for all Israel, for the king had commanded that a burnt offering and a sin offering should be made for all Israel.
2Ch 29:25 Hezekiah placed the Levites in the temple of Yehowah with cymbals, harps, and lyres, arranging them by the command of David, Gad, the king’s seer, and Nathan, the prophet, for the command was from Yehowah by means of his prophets.
2Ch 29:26 The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.
2Ch 29:27 Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of Yehowah began also, with the trumpets, together with the instruments of David, king of Israel.

2Ch 29:28 All the congregation worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters played; all this continued, until the burnt offering was finished.
2Ch 29:29 When they had finished the offerings, the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshiped.
2Ch 29:30 Moreover, King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praises to Yehowah with the words of David and of Asaph, the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed down and worshiped!
2Ch 29:31 Then Hezekiah commanded, “Now you have consecrated yourselves to Yehowah. Come here and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the temple of Yehowah.” The congregation brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all who had a willing heart brought burnt offerings.
2Ch 29:32 The number of the burnt offerings that the congregation brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred male lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to Yehowah.
2Ch 29:33 The consecrated offerings were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.
2Ch 29:34 But the priests were too few to skin all the burnt offerings, so their brothers, the Levites, helped them until the work was done, and until the priests could consecrate themselves, for the Levites had been more careful to consecrate themselves than the priests.
2Ch 29:35 In addition, there were a large amount of burnt offerings; they were performed with the fat of the peace offerings, and there were drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the temple of Yehowah was set in order.
2Ch 29:36 Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people also, because of what the Almighty had prepared for the people, for the work had been done quickly!

2 Chronicles Chapter 30

2Ch 30:1 Hezekiah sent messengers to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the temple of Yehowah in Jerusalem, to celebrate the Passover to Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
2Ch 30:2 For the king, his leaders, and all the congregation in Jerusalem had consulted together, deciding to celebrate the Passover in the second month.
2Ch 30:3 They could not celebrate it right away, because there were not enough priests who had consecrated themselves, nor had the people gathered together in Jerusalem.
2Ch 30:4 This proposal seemed right in the eyes of the king and of all the congregation.
2Ch 30:5 So they agreed to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that the people should come to celebrate the Passover to Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, at Jerusalem. For they had not observed it with large numbers of people, according to what was written.
2Ch 30:6 So couriers went with the letters from the king and his leaders throughout all Israel and Judah, by the command of the king. They said, “You people of Israel, turn back to Yehowah, Mighty One of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that he may turn back to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.
2Ch 30:7 Do not be like your ancestors or your brothers, who trespassed against Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, so that he gave them up to destruction, as you see.
2Ch 30:8 Now do not be stubborn, as your ancestors were; instead, give yourselves to Yehowah and come into his Set-apart Place, which he has consecrated forever, and worship Yehowah your Divine One, so that his fierce anger may turn away from you.
2Ch 30:9 For if you turn back to Yehowah, your brothers and children will find compassion before those who led them away as prisoners, and they will come back into this land. For Yehowah your Divine One is gracious and merciful, and will not turn his face away from you, if you return to him.”
2Ch 30:10 So the couriers passed from city to city throughout the regions of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the way to Zebulun, but the people laughed at them and mocked them.
2Ch 30:11 However, certain men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.
2Ch 30:12 The hand of the Almighty also came on Judah, to give them one heart, to carry out the command of the king and leaders by the Word of Yehowah.

2Ch 30:13 Many people, an extremely large congregation, gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.
2Ch 30:14 They rose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense; they threw them into the brook Kidron.
2Ch 30:15 Then they killed the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and Levites were ashamed, so they consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings into the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 30:16 They stood in their place by their divisions, following the directions given in the Law of Moses, the man of the Almighty. The priests sprinkled the blood that they received from the hand of the Levites.
2Ch 30:17 For there were many in the congregation who had not consecrated themselves. Therefore, the Levites slaughtered the Passover lambs for everyone who was not purified and could not consecrate their sacrifice to Yehowah.
2Ch 30:18 For a great many of the people, many of them from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not purified themselves, yet they ate the Passover, against the written instructions. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, "May good Yehowah pardon everyone
2Ch 30:19 who sets his heart to seek Almighty Yehowah, Mighty One of his ancestors, even though he is not purified by the purification standards of the Set-apart Place."
2Ch 30:20 So Yehowah listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.
2Ch 30:21 The people of Israel who were present in Jerusalem kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy. The Levites and the priests praised Yehowah day after day, singing with loud instruments to Yehowah.
2Ch 30:22 Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who understood the service of Yehowah. So they ate throughout the appointment calendar festival for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors.
2Ch 30:23 The whole congregation then decided to celebrate for another seven days, and they did so with joy.
2Ch 30:24 For Hezekiah king of Judah gave the congregation one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep as an offering; and the leaders gave to the congregation one thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep and goats. A large number of priests consecrated themselves.
2Ch 30:25 All the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the people who came together from Israel, as well as the sojourning foreigners who came from the land of Israel and those who lived in Judah, they all rejoiced!
2Ch 30:26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon son of David, king of Israel, there had not been anything like it in Jerusalem.

2Ch 30:27 Then the priests, the Levites, rose and blessed the people. Their voice was heard, and their prayer went up to Heaven, the Set-apart Place where Yehowah lives.

2 Chronicles Chapter 31

2Ch 31:1 Now when all this was finished, all the people of Israel who were there went out to the cities of Judah and broke to pieces the stone pillars, and they cut down the Asherah poles, and they broke down the high places and the altars in all of Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the people of Israel returned, every one to his own possession and his hometown.
2Ch 31:2 Hezekiah assigned the divisions of the priests and the Levites organized by their divisions, each man assigned to his work, both the priests and the Levites. He assigned them to make the burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise at the gates of the temple of Yehowah!
2Ch 31:3 He also assigned the king's portion for the burnt offerings from his own possessions, that is, for the dawn and dusk burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, the beginning of the months, and the appointment calendar festivals, as it was written in the Law of Yehowah.
2Ch 31:4 Moreover, he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion for the priests and the Levites, so that they might concentrate on obeying the Law of Yehowah.
2Ch 31:5 As soon as the command was sent out, the people of Israel generously gave the firstfruits of grain, new wine, oil, honey, and from all their harvest of the field. They brought in a tithe of everything; which was a great quantity.
2Ch 31:6 The people of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of the set-apart things that were set apart to Yehowah their Divine One, and they piled them up in heaps.
2Ch 31:7 It was in the third month when they began piling up their contribution in heaps, and they finished in the seventh month.
2Ch 31:8 When Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed Yehowah and his people Israel.
2Ch 31:9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps.
2Ch 31:10 Azariah, the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him, "Since the people began to bring the offerings into the temple of Yehowah, we have eaten and had enough, and have plenty left over, for Yehowah has blessed his people. What was left over is this large amount here."
2Ch 31:11 Then Hezekiah commanded storerooms to be prepared in the temple of Yehowah, and they prepared them.
2Ch 31:12 Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, tithes, and the set-apart things. Conaniah (Konanyahu), the Levite, was the manager in charge of them, and Shimei, his brother, was second to him.

2Ch 31:13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah (Yismakyahu), Mahath, and Benaiah were managers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by appointment of King Hezekiah and Azariah, the official over the temple of the Almighty.
2Ch 31:14 Kore son of Imnah the Levite, the doorkeeper at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of the Almighty, in charge of distributing the offerings of Yehowah and the most set-apart offerings.
2Ch 31:15 Under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests. They filled offices of trust, in order to give these offerings to their brothers division by division, to both the important and the unimportant.
2Ch 31:16 They also gave to those males thirty years old and up, who were listed in the records of their ancestors who entered the temple of Yehowah, as required by the daily schedule, to do the work in their offices and their divisions.
2Ch 31:17 They distributed to the priests according to the records of their ancestors, and the same to the Levites twenty years old and more, according to their offices and their divisions.
2Ch 31:18 They included all their little ones, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, through the whole congregation, for they were faithful in keeping themselves set apart.
2Ch 31:19 For the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who were in the fields of the villages belonging to their cities, or in every city, there were men assigned by name to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were listed in the records of their ancestors as being among the Levites.
2Ch 31:20 Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah. He accomplished what was good, right, and faithful before Yehowah, his Divine One.
2Ch 31:21 In every project that he began in the service of the temple of the Almighty, the law, and the commandments, to seek his Divine One, he performed it with all his heart, and he succeeded.

2 Chronicles Chapter 32

2Ch 32:1 After these things and these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came and entered Judah (c. 712 BC). He camped to attack the fortified cities, which he intended to capture for himself.
2Ch 32:2 When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he intended to fight against Jerusalem, 2Ch 32:3 he consulted with his leaders and his powerful men to stop up the waters of the (Gihon) springs that were outside the city; they helped him do so.
2Ch 32:4 So many people gathered together and stopped up all the springs and the stream that was flowing through the middle of the land. They asked, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find a lot of water?”
2Ch 32:5 Hezekiah took courage and built up all the wall that was broken down. He built the towers on the wall, and also the other wall outside. He also strengthened the (Gihon) Spring Tower in the City of David, and he made large amounts of weapons and shields.
2Ch 32:6 He placed military commanders over the people. He gathered them together to him in the broad place at the city gate and spoke encouragingly to them. He said,
2Ch 32:7 “Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria and all the military force that is with him, for Someone is with us who is greater than those with him.
2Ch 32:8 With him is only an arm of flesh, but with us is Yehowah, our Divine One, to help us, and to fight our battles.” Then the people comforted themselves with the words of Hezekiah, king of Judah.
2Ch 32:9 After this, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, sent his servants to Jerusalem. Now he was in front of Lachish, and all his military force was with him. To Hezekiah, king of Judah, and to all of Judah who were in Jerusalem, he said, 2Ch 32:10 “This is what Sennacherib, king of Assyria, asks: What are you relying on in order to endure a siege in Jerusalem?
2Ch 32:11 Is not Hezekiah misleading you, that he may give you over to die by famine and by thirst, when he tells you, ‘Yehowah our Divine One will rescue us from the hand of the king of Assyria?’
2Ch 32:12 Has not this same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, ‘On one altar you must worship, and on it you must burn your sacrifices?’
2Ch 32:13 Do you not know what I and my ancestors have done to all the ethnicities of other lands? Were the deities of the ethnicities of the lands able in any way to rescue their land from my power?

2Ch 32:14 Among all the deities of those ethnicities that my ancestors completely destroyed, was there any deity who could rescue his people out of my hand? Why should your Divine One be able to rescue you from my power?
2Ch 32:15 Now do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you in this way. Do not believe him, for no deity of any ethnicity or kingdom has been able to rescue his people out of my hand, or out of the hand of my ancestors. How much less will your Divine One rescue you from my hand?"
2Ch 32:16 Sennacherib's servants spoke even more against Yehowah Almighty and against his servant Hezekiah.
2Ch 32:17 Sennacherib also wrote letters in order to mock Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, and to speak against him. He boasted, "As the deities of the ethnicities of the lands have not rescued their people out of my hand, so the Mighty One of Hezekiah will not rescue his people out of my hand."
2Ch 32:18 They cried out in the language of the Jews to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, in order that they might capture the city.
2Ch 32:19 They spoke of the Mighty One of Jerusalem as they had spoken of the deities of the other people of the earth, which are merely the work of men's hands.
2Ch 32:20 King Hezekiah and Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, prayed because of this matter, and he cried out to Heaven.
2Ch 32:21 Yehowah sent an angel, who killed the fighting men, the commanders, and the officers of the king of Assyria in the camp (2 Kings 19:35; Isa. 37:36-38; 10:32). So Sennacherib returned shame-faced to his own land. When he had gone into the house of his deity, some of his own children killed him there with the sword.
2Ch 32:22 In this way, Yehowah saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and gave them rest on every side.
2Ch 32:23 Many were bringing offerings to Yehowah in Jerusalem, and precious gifts to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was lifted up in the eyes of all ethnicities from that time forward.
2Ch 32:24 In those days, Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying (c. 712 BC). He prayed to Yehowah, who spoke to him and gave him a sign that he would be healed.
2Ch 32:25 But Hezekiah did not pay back Yehowah for the help given to him, for his heart was lifted up. So anger came on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem.
2Ch 32:26 Nevertheless, Hezekiah later humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the anger of Yehowah did not come on them during Hezekiah's days.

2Ch 32:27 Hezekiah had superabundant riches and much honor. He provided himself with storerooms for silver, gold, precious stones, and for spices, as well as for shields and for all kinds of valuable objects.
2Ch 32:28 He also had storehouses for the harvest of grain, new wine, and oil, and stalls for all kinds of animals. He also had flocks in their pens.
2Ch 32:29 In addition, he provided himself with cities, possessions of flocks, and herds in abundance, for the Almighty had given him superabundant wealth.
2Ch 32:30 It was this same Hezekiah who also stopped up the waters of the upper Gihon Spring (John 9:7; 2 Chron. 32:2-8; 2 Kings 20:20; Isa. 22:9-11; Sir. 48:17-18), and who brought them straight down (via Siloam Tunnel) on the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah succeeded in all his projects.
2Ch 32:31 However, in the matter of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to ask questions of those who knew about the miraculous sign that had been done in the land, the Almighty left him to himself, in order to test him, and to know all that was in his heart (2 Kings 20:9-11; Isa. 38:8).
2Ch 32:32 As for the other matters concerning Hezekiah, including his actions of covenant loyalty, you can see that they are written in the Vision of the Prophet Isaiah son of Amoz, and in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.
2Ch 32:33 Hezekiah slept with his ancestors (c. 697 BC), and they buried him on the hill of the tombs of the descendants of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. Manasseh his son became king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 33

2Ch 33:1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.
2Ch 33:2 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, like the disgusting things of the ethnicities whom Yehowah had driven out before the people of Israel.
2Ch 33:3 For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had torn down, and he built altars for the Baals, he made Asherah poles, and he bowed down to all the stars of heaven and worshiped them.
2Ch 33:4 Manasseh built pagan altars in the temple of Yehowah, although Yehowah had commanded, “It is in Jerusalem that my name will be placed forever.”
2Ch 33:5 He built altars for all the stars of heaven in the two courtyards of the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 33:6 In the Valley of Ben Hinnom, he put his sons into the fire. He performed soothsaying and sorcery; he read omens; and he consulted with wizards and necromancers who conjured up dead spirits. He practiced much evil in the sight of Yehowah, and he provoked Yehowah to anger.
2Ch 33:7 The carved figure of Asherah that he had made, he placed it in the temple of the Almighty. It was about this temple that the Almighty had spoken to David and Solomon his son; he had said, “It is in this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, that I will put my name forever.
2Ch 33:8 I will not move the people of Israel any more out of the land that I assigned to their ancestors, if they will only be careful to keep all that I have commanded them, following all the law, statutes, and decrees which I gave them through Moses.”
2Ch 33:9 Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do evil even more than the ethnicities that Yehowah had destroyed before the people of Israel.
2Ch 33:10 Yehowah spoke to Manasseh, and to his people, but they paid no attention.
2Ch 33:11 So Yehowah brought on them the commanders of the military force of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, bound him with fetters, and took him off to Babylon (c. 655 BC).
2Ch 33:12 When Manasseh was in distress, he entreated Yehowah his Divine One, and humbled himself greatly before the Mighty One of his ancestors.
2Ch 33:13 He prayed to him; and Yehowah was begged by him, and Yehowah heard his begging and brought him back to Jerusalem, into his kingship. Then Manasseh knew that Yehowah was the Almighty.

2Ch 33:14 After this, Manasseh built an outer wall to the City of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, to the entrance at the Fish Gate. He surrounded the hill of Ophel with it and raised the wall up to an extremely great height. He put courageous commanders in all the fortified cities of Judah.
2Ch 33:15 He took away the foreign deities, the idol out of the temple of Yehowah, and all the altars that he had built on the mount of the temple of Yehowah and in Jerusalem, and threw them out of the city.
2Ch 33:16 He rebuilt the altar of Yehowah and offered on it sacrifices of peace offerings and thank offerings; he commanded Judah to serve Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
2Ch 33:17 However, the people still sacrificed at the high places, but only to Yehowah their Divine One.
2Ch 33:18 As to the other matters concerning Manasseh, his prayer to his Divine One, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, behold, they are written among the deeds of the kings of Israel.
2Ch 33:19 In that account, there is history of his prayer, and how Yehowah was moved by it. There is also an account of all his sin and his trespasses, and the places where he had built high places and set up the Asherah poles and the carved figures, before he humbled himself, they are written about in the Chronicles of the Seers.
2Ch 33:20 So Manasseh slept with his ancestors (c. 642 BC), and they buried him in his own house. Amon, his son, became king in his place.
2Ch 33:21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; he reigned two years in Jerusalem.
2Ch 33:22 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah, as Manasseh, his father, had done. Amon sacrificed to all the carved figures that Manasseh his father had made, and he worshiped them.
2Ch 33:23 He did not humble himself before Yehowah, as Manasseh his father had done. Instead, this same Amon trespassed more and more.
2Ch 33:24 His servants conspired against him and put him to death in his own house (c. 640 BC).
2Ch 33:25 But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made Josiah, his son, king in his place.

2 Chronicles Chapter 34

2Ch 34:1 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.
2Ch 34:2 He did what was right in the eyes of Yehowah, and walked in the Ways of David his ancestor, and did not turn away either to the right or to the left.
2Ch 34:3 For in the eighth year of his reign (c. 632 BC), while he was still young, he began to seek after the Mighty One of David, his ancestor. In the twelfth year (c. 628 BC), he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, the Asherah poles, and the carved figures and the cast metal figures.
2Ch 34:4 The people broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence; he cut apart the sun-pillars that were above them. He broke the Asherah poles and the carved figures, and the cast metal figures in pieces, until they were dust. He scattered the dust on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.
2Ch 34:5 He burned the bones of their priests on their altars. In this way, he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.
2Ch 34:6 He did the same in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, all the way to Naphtali, and in the ruins that surrounded them.
2Ch 34:7 He broke down the altars, beat the Asherah poles and the carved images into powder, and cut apart all the sun-pillars throughout all the land of Israel; then he returned to Jerusalem.
2Ch 34:8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign (c. 622 BC), after Josiah had cleansed the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah, the commander of the fortress, and Joah son of Joahaz the secretary, to repair the temple of Yehowah his Divine One.
2Ch 34:9 They went to Hilkiah, the high priest, and entrusted to him the money that had been brought into the temple of the Almighty, that the Levites, the guards of the doors, had gathered from Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
2Ch 34:10 They entrusted the money to the men who supervised the work on the temple of Yehowah. These men paid the workers who repaired and restored the temple.
2Ch 34:11 They paid it to the carpenters and builders to buy cut stone and timber for braces, and to make beams for the structures that some kings of Judah had let fall apart.
2Ch 34:12 The men did the work faithfully. Their supervisors Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, from the sons of the Kohathites. Other Levites, all of whom were good musicians, closely directed the workmen.

2Ch 34:13 These Levites were in charge of those who carried building material and all other men who worked in any way. There were also Levites who were secretaries, administrators, and gate guards.
2Ch 34:14 When they brought out the money that was brought into the temple of Yehowah, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of Yehowah that had been given through Moses.
2Ch 34:15 Hilkiah said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of Yehowah.” Hilkiah brought the Book to Shaphan.
2Ch 34:16 Shaphan took the Book to the king, and also reported to him, “Your servants are doing everything that has been entrusted to them.
2Ch 34:17 They have emptied out the money that was found in the temple of Yehowah, and they gave it into the hand of the supervisors and to the workmen.”
2Ch 34:18 Shaphan the scribe told the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a Book.” Then Shaphan read in it to the king.
2Ch 34:19 It came about that when the king had heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes.
2Ch 34:20 The king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah, his own servant,
2Ch 34:21 “Go and ask the will of Yehowah for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, because of the words of the Book that has been found. For it is great, the anger of Yehowah that has been poured out on us. It is great, because our ancestors have not listened to the words of this Book so as to obey all that was written in it.”
2Ch 34:22 So Hilkiah, and those whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe, she lived in Jerusalem in the Second District, and they spoke with her in this way.
2Ch 34:23 She prophesied to them, “This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me,
2Ch 34:24 ‘This is what Yehowah declares: See, I am about to bring disaster on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that have been written in the Book that they have read before the king of Judah.
2Ch 34:25 Because they have forsaken me and have burned incense to false deities, so that they might provoke me to anger with all the deeds they have committed, therefore my anger will be poured out on this place, and it will not be extinguished.’
2Ch 34:26 But to the king of Judah, who sent you to ask Yehowah what he should do, this is what you will say to him, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel says this: About the words that you heard,

2Ch 34:27 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the Almighty when you heard his words against this place and its inhabitants, and because you have humbled yourself before me and have torn your clothes and wept before me, I also have listened to you,' declares Yehowah.
2Ch 34:28 'See, I will gather you to your ancestors. You will be gathered to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see any of the disaster I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.'" The men took this message back to the king.
2Ch 34:29 Then the king sent messengers and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.
2Ch 34:30 Then the king went up to the temple of Yehowah, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, Levites, and all the people, from great to small. He then read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that had been found in the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 34:31 The king stood in his place and made a covenant before Yehowah, to walk after Yehowah, and to keep his commandments, his regulations, and his statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to obey the words of the covenant that were written in this Book.
2Ch 34:32 He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand by the covenant. The inhabitants of Jerusalem acted in obedience to the covenant of the Almighty, the Mighty One of their ancestors.
2Ch 34:33 Josiah took away all the disgusting things from the lands that belonged to the people of Israel. He made everyone in Israel worship Yehowah their Divine One. For all of his days, they did not turn away from following Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors.

2 Chronicles Chapter 35

2Ch 35:1 Josiah kept a Passover to Yehowah in Jerusalem, and they killed the Passover lambs on the fourteenth of the first month.
2Ch 35:2 He placed the priests in their positions and encouraged them in the service of the temple of Yehowah.
2Ch 35:3 He said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were set apart to Yehowah, “Put the set-apart ark in the temple built by Solomon son of David, king of Israel. Do not carry it around on your shoulders any longer. Now worship Yehowah your Divine One and serve his people Israel.
2Ch 35:4 Organize yourselves by the name of your ancestral houses and your divisions, following the written instructions of David, king of Israel, and those of Solomon, his son.
2Ch 35:5 Stand in the Set-apart Place, taking your position with your divisions within the ancestral houses of your brothers, the descendants of the people, and taking your places with your divisions within the ancestral houses of the Levites.
2Ch 35:6 Kill the Passover lambs, consecrate yourselves, prepare the lambs for your brothers, to do according to the Word of Yehowah that was given by the hand of Moses.”
2Ch 35:7 Josiah gave to all the people thirty thousand lambs and kids from flocks for the Passover offerings to all who were present. He also gave three thousand bulls; these were from the king’s possessions.
2Ch 35:8 His leaders gave a freewill offering to the people, priests, and Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the officials in charge of the temple of the Almighty, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings 2,900 oxen.
2Ch 35:9 Also Conaniah, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings 5,500 oxen.
2Ch 35:10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, with the Levites by their divisions, in response to the king’s command.
2Ch 35:11 They killed the Passover lambs, and the priests sprinkled the blood that they received from the Levites’ hand, and the Levites skinned the lambs.
2Ch 35:12 They removed the burnt offerings, in order to distribute them to the divisions of the ancestral houses of the people, to offer them to Yehowah, as it is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the bulls.
2Ch 35:13 They roasted the Passover lambs with fire following the instructions. As for the consecrated offerings, they boiled them in pots, cauldrons, and pans, and they quickly carried them to all the sons of the people.
2Ch 35:14 They later prepared offerings for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were occupied in offering the burnt offerings and the fat until nightfall, so the Levites prepared the offerings for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

2Ch 35:15 The singers, the descendants of Asaph, were in their place, as directed by David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer, and the guards were at every gate. They did not have to leave their post, because their brothers the Levites made preparations for them.
2Ch 35:16 So at that time the entire service of Yehowah was carried out for the celebration of the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of Yehowah, as King Josiah commanded.
2Ch 35:17 The people of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and then the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.
2Ch 35:18 Such a Passover celebration had never been held in Israel from the days of the prophet Samuel, nor had any of the other kings of Israel ever celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did, along with the priests, Levites, and all the people of Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
2Ch 35:19 This Passover was kept in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah (c. 622 BC).
2Ch 35:20 After all this, after Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco II, king of Egypt, went up to fight against Carchemish at the Euphrates River, and Josiah went to fight against him.
2Ch 35:21 But Neco II sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but against the house with which I am making war. The Almighty has commanded me to hurry, so refrain from interfering with the Almighty, who is with me, or he might destroy you."
2Ch 35:22 However, Josiah refused to turn away from him. He disguised himself in order to fight with him. He did not listen to the words of Neco II that had come from the mouth of the Almighty; so he went to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.
2Ch 35:23 Archers shot King Josiah, and the king ordered his servants, "Take me away, for I am badly wounded!"
2Ch 35:24 So his servants took him out of the chariot and put him in his extra chariot. They took him to Jerusalem, where he died (c. 609 BC). He was buried in the tombs of his ancestors. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.
2Ch 35:25 Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; all the male and female singers lament about Josiah to this day. These songs became customary in Israel; behold, they are written in the Songs of Lament.
2Ch 35:26 As for the other matters concerning Josiah, and his good deeds done in obedience to what is written in the Law of Yehowah, 2Ch 35:27 and his deeds, from beginning to end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

2 Chronicles Chapter 36

2Ch 36:1 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.
2Ch 36:2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem (c. 609 BC).
2Ch 36:3 The king of Egypt removed him at Jerusalem, and fined the land 300,000-weight silver-currency and 33 kilograms of gold.
2Ch 36:4 The king of Egypt made Eliakim, his brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Then Necho II took Eliakim's brother Jehoahaz and brought him to Egypt.
2Ch 36:5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah his Divine One.
2Ch 36:6 Then Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, attacked him and bound him in chains to lead him away to Babylon (c. 598 BC).
2Ch 36:7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried some of the objects in the temple of Yehowah to Babylon, and put them in his palace at Babylon.
2Ch 36:8 As for the other matters concerning Jehoiakim, the disgusting things that he did, and what was found against him, behold, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. Then Jehoiachin, his son, became king in his place.
2Ch 36:9 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah (c. 598 BC).
2Ch 36:10 After the beginning of the new year, King Nebuchadnezzar sent men and brought him to Babylon, with the valuable things from the temple of Yehowah, and made Zedekiah, his relative, king over Judah and Jerusalem.
2Ch 36:11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.
2Ch 36:12 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah his Divine One. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of Yehowah.
2Ch 36:13 Zedekiah also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear loyalty to him by the Almighty. But Zedekiah stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
2Ch 36:14 Moreover, all the leaders of the priests and the people were horribly unfaithful, and they followed the disgusting practices of the ethnicities. They polluted the temple of Yehowah which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

2Ch 36:15 Yehowah, Mighty One of their ancestors, sent word to them by his messengers again and again, because he had compassion on his people and on the place where he lives.
2Ch 36:16 But they mocked the messengers of the Almighty, despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of Yehowah arose against his people, until there was no more help.
2Ch 36:17 So Yehowah brought on them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the sanctuary, and had no compassion on young men or virgins, old men or the gray-haired. Yehowah gave them all into his hand.
2Ch 36:18 All the furnishings of the temple of the Almighty, great and small, the treasures of the temple of Yehowah, and the treasures of the king and his officials, all these he took to Babylon.
2Ch 36:19 They burned down the temple of the Almighty, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces, and destroyed all the beautiful things in it (c. 587 BC).
2Ch 36:20 The king carried away to Babylon those who had escaped the sword. They became servants for him and his sons until the rule of the kingdom of Persia.
2Ch 36:21 This happened to fulfill the Word of Yehowah by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land should have enjoyed its Sabbaths. It observed its Shabbat for as long as it lay abandoned, in order to pass seventy years in this way.
2Ch 36:22 Now in the first year (c. 536 BC) of Cyrus II, king of Persia, so that the Word of Yehowah by the mouth of Jeremiah might be carried out, Yehowah motivated the spirit of Cyrus II, king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing,
2Ch 36:23 “This is what Cyrus II, king of Persia, says: ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of Heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has commanded me to build a temple for him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you from all his people, may Yehowah your Divine One be with you. Let him go up to the land.’”

Book of Ezra

Ezra Chapter 1

Ezr 1:1 In the first year (c. 536 BC) of Cyrus II, king of Persia, Yehowah fulfilled his word that came from the mouth of Jeremiah, and Yehowah stirred Cyrus' spirit. Cyrus' voice went out over his entire kingdom. This is what was written and spoken:
Ezr 1:2 "Cyrus II, king of Persia, says: Yehowah, Mighty One of Heaven, gave me all the kingdoms of the earth, and he appointed me to build for him a temple in Jerusalem in Judea.
Ezr 1:3 Whoever is from his people, may his Divine One be with him, may go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build a temple for Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, the Almighty who is in Jerusalem.
Ezr 1:4 People of any part of the kingdom where survivors of that land are living should provide them with silver and gold, possessions and animals, as well as a freewill offering for the temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem."
Ezr 1:5 Then the heads of the ancestors' clans of Judah and Benjamin, the priests and Levites, and everyone whose spirit the Almighty stirred to go and build the temple of Yehowah in Jerusalem arose.
Ezr 1:6 Those around them supported their work with silver and gold objects, possessions, animals, valuables, and freewill offerings.
Ezr 1:7 King Cyrus II also released the objects belonging to the temple of Yehowah that Nebuchadnezzar had brought from Jerusalem and put in his own deities' houses.
Ezr 1:8 Cyrus II put them into the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out for Sheshbazzar, Judea's leader.
Ezr 1:9 This was their number: thirty gold basins, one thousand silver basins, twenty-nine knives,
Ezr 1:10 thirty gold bowls, 410 small silver bowls, and one thousand additional objects.
Ezr 1:11 There were 5,400 gold and silver items in all. Sheshbazzar brought all of them when the exiles went from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Ezra Chapter 2

Ezr 2:1 These are the people in the province who went up from the captivity of King Nebuchadnezzar, who had exiled them in Babylon, the people who returned to each of their cities of Jerusalem and in Judea.
Ezr 2:2 They came with Zerubbabel (c. 536 BC), Jeshua, Nehemiah (Nechemyah), Seraiah, Reeliaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah. This is the record of the men of the people of Israel.
Ezr 2:3 The descendants of Parosh: 2,172.
Ezr 2:4 The descendants of Shephatiah: 372.
Ezr 2:5 The descendants of Arach: 775.
Ezr 2:6 The descendants of Pahath Moab, through Jeshua and Joab: 2,812.
Ezr 2:7 The descendants of Elam: 1,254.
Ezr 2:8 The descendants of Zattu: 945.
Ezr 2:9 The descendants of Zaccai: 760.
Ezr 2:10 The descendants of Bani: 642.
Ezr 2:11 The descendants of Bebai: 623.
Ezr 2:12 The descendants of Azgad: 1,222.
Ezr 2:13 The descendants of Adonikam: 666.
Ezr 2:14 The descendants of Bigvai: 2,056.
Ezr 2:15 The descendants of Adin: 454.
Ezr 2:16 The men of Ater, through Hezekiah: ninety-eight.
Ezr 2:17 The descendants of Bezai: 323.
Ezr 2:18 The descendants of Jorah: 112.
Ezr 2:19 The men of Hashum: 223.
Ezr 2:20 The men of Gibbar: ninety-five.
Ezr 2:21 The men of Bethlehem: 123.
Ezr 2:22 The men of Netophah: fifty-six.
Ezr 2:23 The men of Anathoth: 128.
Ezr 2:24 The men of Azmaveth: forty-two.
Ezr 2:25 The men of Kiriath Arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth: 743.
Ezr 2:26 The men of Ramah and Geba: 621.
Ezr 2:27 The men of Michmas: 122.
Ezr 2:28 The men of Bethel and Ai: 223.
Ezr 2:29 The men of Nebo: fifty-two.
Ezr 2:30 The men of Magbish: 156.
Ezr 2:31 The men of the other Elam: 1,254.
Ezr 2:32 The men of Harim: 320.
Ezr 2:33 The men of Lod, Hadid, and Ono: 725.
Ezr 2:34 The men of Jericho: 345.

Ezr 2:35 The men of Senaah: 3,630
Ezr 2:36 The priests: descendants of Jedaiah of the house of Jeshua: 973.
Ezr 2:37 Immer's descendants: 1,052.
Ezr 2:38 Pashhur's descendants: 1,247.
Ezr 2:39 Harim's descendants: 1,017.
Ezr 2:40 The Levites: descendants of Jeshua and Kadmiel, descendants of Hodaviah: seventy-four.
Ezr 2:41 The temple singers, descendants of Asaph: 128.
Ezr 2:42 The descendants of the gatekeepers: descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai: 139 total.
Ezr 2:43 Those who were assigned to serve in the temple: descendants of Ziha, Hasupha, Tabbaoth,
Ezr 2:44 Keros, Siaha, Padon,
Ezr 2:45 Lebanah, Hagabah, Akkub,
Ezr 2:46 Hagab, Shalmai, and Hanan.
Ezr 2:47 The descendants of Giddel: Gahar, Reaiah,
Ezr 2:48 Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam,
Ezr 2:49 Uzza, Paseah, Besai,
Ezr 2:50 Asnah, Meunim, and Nephisim.
Ezr 2:51 The descendants of Bakbuk: Hakupha, Harhur,
Ezr 2:52 Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha,
Ezr 2:53 Barkos, Sisera, Temah,
Ezr 2:54 Neziah, and Hatipha.
Ezr 2:55 The descendants of Solomon's servants: descendants of Sotai, Hassophereth, Peruda,
Ezr 2:56 Jaalah, Darkon, Giddel,
Ezr 2:57 Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth Hazzebaim, and Ami.
Ezr 2:58 There were 392 total descendants of those assigned to serve in the temple and descendants of Solomon's servants.
Ezr 2:59 Those who left Tel Melah, Tel Charsha, Kerub, Addan, and Immer, but were not able to prove their ancestry from Israel,
Ezr 2:60 included 652 descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda.
Ezr 2:61 Also, from the priest's descendants: The descendants of Habaiah (Chabayah), Hakkoz, and Barzillai, who took his wife from the daughters of Barzillai of Gilead and was called by their name.
Ezr 2:62 They searched for their genealogical records, but could not find them, so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.
Ezr 2:63 So the governor told them they must not eat any of the set-apart sacrifices, until a priest with Urim and Thummim approved.
Ezr 2:64 The whole group totaled 42,360,

Ezr 2:65 not including their servants and their maidservants, these were 7,337, and their male and female temple singers, two hundred.
Ezr 2:66 Their horses: 736. Their mules: 245.
Ezr 2:68 When they went to the temple of Yehowah in Jerusalem, the chief patriarchs offered freewill gifts to build the temple of the Almighty.
Ezr 2:69 They gave according to their ability to the work fund: five hundred kilograms of gold, 250,000-weight of silver coins, and one hundred priestly tunics.
Ezr 2:70 So the priests and Levites, the people, the temple singers and gatekeepers, and those assigned to serve in the temple inhabited their cities. All the people in Israel were in their cities.

Ezra Chapter 3

Ezr 3:1 When the seventh month had come, after the people of Israel came back to their cities, they gathered together as one man in Jerusalem.
Ezr 3:2 Jeshua son of Jozadak (aka Jehozadak; Zech. 6:11) and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and his brothers rose up and built the altar of the Mighty One of Israel to offer burnt offerings as commanded in the Law of Moses, the man of the Almighty.
Ezr 3:3 Then they established the altar on its stand, for dread was on them because of the people of the land. They offered burnt offerings to Yehowah at dawn and dusk.
Ezr 3:4 They also observed the Feast of Tabernacles as it is written and offered burnt offerings day by day according to the decree, each day's duty on its day.
Ezr 3:5 Accordingly, there were daily burnt offerings, and at the beginning of the months, and offerings for all the appointment calendar festivals of Yehowah, along with all the freewill offerings unto Yehowah.
Ezr 3:6 They began to offer up burnt offerings to Yehowah on the first day of the seventh month (Yom Teruah, Day of Trumpets), although the foundation of the temple of Yehowah had not been built.
Ezr 3:7 So they gave silver coins to the stonemasons and craftsmen, and they gave food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so they would bring cedar trees by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorized for them by Cyrus II, king of Persia.
Ezr 3:8 Then in the second month of the second year (c. 535 BC), after they came to the temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel, Jeshua son of Jozadak, the rest of the priests, the Levites, and those who came from captivity back to Jerusalem, began the work. They assigned the Levites twenty years old and older to oversee the work of the temple of Yehowah.
Ezr 3:9 Jeshua set his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, and the descendants of Judah to oversee the people doing the work on the temple of the Almighty. Along with them were the descendants of Henadad, their descendants, and also their fellow Levites.
Ezr 3:10 The builders laid a foundation for the temple of Yehowah. This enabled the priests to stand in their garments with trumpets, and the Levites, sons of Asaph, to praise Yehowah with cymbals, just as the hand of David, king of Israel had commanded.
Ezr 3:11 They sang with praise and thankfulness to Yehowah, "He is good! His covenant faithfulness to Israel endures forever!" All the people cried out with a great shout of joy in praise of Yehowah, because the temple's foundations had been laid!

Ezr 3:12 But many of the priests, Levites, chief patriarchs, and old people who had seen the first temple, when this temple's foundations were laid before their eyes, wept loudly. But many had shouts of joy with gladness and an excited sound!
Ezr 3:13 As a result, people were not able to distinguish the joyful and glad sounds from the sound of the people's weeping, for the people were crying out with great joy, and the sound was heard from far away.

Ezra Chapter 4

Ezr 4:1 Now some enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the people who had been exiled were now building a temple for Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
Ezr 4:2 So they approached Zerubbabel and the heads of their ancestors' clans. They said to them, "Let us build with you, for like you, we seek your Divine One and have sacrificed to him, since the days when Esarhaddon, king of Assyria, brought us to this place."
Ezr 4:3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the heads of their ancestors' clans responded, "It is not you, but we who must build the temple of our Divine One, for it is we who will build for Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, just as King Cyrus II of Persia commanded."
Ezr 4:4 So the people of the land made the Judeans' hands weak; they made the Judeans afraid to build.
Ezr 4:5 They also bribed counselors to frustrate their plans. They did this during all of Cyrus' days and into the reign of Darius I, Hystaspes, king of Persia.
Ezr 4:6 Then at the beginning of Ahasuerus' reign (Pseudo-Smerdis, aka Guamate; c. 522 BC) they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.
Ezr 4:7 It was during the days of Artaxerxes that Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia. The letter was written in Aramaic and translated.
Ezr 4:8 Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote this way to King Artaxerxes about Jerusalem.
Ezr 4:9 Then Rehum, Shimshai, and their companions, who were judges and other officers in the government, from Erech, Babylon, and Susa in Elam, they wrote a letter,
Ezr 4:10 and they were joined by the people whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal forced to settle in Samaria, along with the rest who were in the Province Beyond the Euphrates River.
Ezr 4:11 This is a copy of the letter that they sent to King Artaxerxes: "Your servants, men of the Province Beyond the Euphrates River, write this:
Ezr 4:12 Let the king know that the Jews who went from Cyrus II have come against us in Jerusalem to build a rebellious city. They have completed the walls and repaired the foundations.
Ezr 4:13 Now let the king know that if this city is built, and the wall is completed, they will not pay any tribute, tax, or customs duty, but they will harm the kings.
Ezr 4:14 Surely, because we have eaten the palace salt, it is not fitting for us to see any dishonor happen to the king. It is because of this, that we are informing the king,

Ezr 4:15 to search your father's record and to verify that this is a rebellious city that will harm kings and provinces. It has caused many problems to the kings and provinces. It has been a center for rebellion from long ago. It was for this reason that the city was destroyed.
Ezr 4:16 We are informing the king that if this city and wall are built, then there will be nothing remaining for you in the Province Beyond the River."
Ezr 4:17 So the king sent out a reply to Rehum and Shimshai and their companions in Samaria and the rest who were in the Province Beyond the River: "May peace be yours.
Ezr 4:18 The letter that you sent me has been translated and read to me.
Ezr 4:19 So I ordered an investigation and discovered that in previous days, they had rebelled and revolted against kings.
Ezr 4:20 Mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem and had power over everything in the Province Beyond the River. Toll, tribute, and taxes were paid to them.
Ezr 4:21 Now make a decree for these men to stop and not build this city, until I make a decree (Ezra 7:21).
Ezr 4:22 Be careful not to neglect this. Why allow this threat to grow and cause more loss for the royal interests?
Ezr 4:23 When King Artaxerxes' decree was read before Rehum, Shimshai, and their companions, they went out quickly to Jerusalem and forced the Jews to stop building.
Ezr 4:24 So the work on the temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius I, Hystaspes (c. 520 BC), king of Persia.

Ezra Chapter 5

Ezr 5:1 Then Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, grandson of Iddo the prophet, prophesied in the name of the Mighty One of Israel to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem.
Ezr 5:2 Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem with the prophets of the Almighty who encouraged them.
Ezr 5:3 Then Tattenai the governor of the Province Beyond the River, Shethar Bozenai, and his associates came and asked them, “Who gave you a decree to build this temple and complete these walls?”
Ezr 5:4 They also asked, “What are the names of the men building this structure?”
Ezr 5:5 But the eye of the Almighty was on the Jewish elders, and their enemies did not stop them. They were waiting for a letter to be sent to King Darius and for a decree to be returned to them concerning this.
Ezr 5:6 This is a copy of the letter of Tattenai, governor of the Province Beyond the River, and Shethar Bozenai and his associates in the Province Beyond the River, which they sent to King Darius.
Ezr 5:7 They sent a report, writing this to King Darius, “May all peace be yours.
Ezr 5:8 Let the king know that we went to Judah to the temple of the great Almighty. It is being built with large stones and timbers set in the walls. This work is being done thoroughly and is going forward well in their hands.
Ezr 5:9 We asked the elders, ‘Who gave you a decree to build this temple and these walls?’
Ezr 5:10 We also asked them their names, so you might know the name of each man who led them.
Ezr 5:11 They replied, ‘We are servants of the One who is the Mighty One of Heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding this temple that had been built many years ago when the great king of Israel built it and completed it.
Ezr 5:12 However, when our ancestors enraged the Mighty One of Heaven, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and took the people into exile in Babylon.
Ezr 5:13 Nevertheless, in the first year (c. 536 BC), when Cyrus II was king of Babylon, Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild the temple of the Almighty.
Ezr 5:14 King Cyrus II also returned the gold and silver objects belonging to the temple of the Almighty that Nebuchadnezzar had brought from the temple in Jerusalem to the temple in Babylon. He restored them to Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.

Ezr 5:15 He commanded him, “Take these objects. Go and put them in the temple in Jerusalem. Let the temple of the Almighty be rebuilt there.”
Ezr 5:16 Then this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation for the temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem; and it is being constructed, but is not yet complete.’
Ezr 5:17 Now if it pleases the king, may it be investigated in the house of archives in Babylon if a judgment from King Cyrus II exists there to build this temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem. Then let the king send his decision to us.

Ezra Chapter 6

Ezr 6:1 So King Darius I, Hystaspes, ordered an investigation in the house of archives and treasures in Babylon (c. 520 BC).
Ezr 6:2 In the fortified city of Ecbatana in Media a scroll was found; this was its record:
Ezr 6:3 “In the first year of King Cyrus II (c. 536 BC), Cyrus issued a decree about the temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem: ‘Let the temple be rebuilt as a place for sacrifice, let its foundations be laid, let its height be thirty meters, and its width thirty meters,
Ezr 6:4 with three rows of large stones and a row of new timber, and let the cost be paid by the king’s house.
Ezr 6:5 Now bring back the gold and silver objects belonging to the temple of the Almighty, which Nebuchadnezzar brought to Babylon from the temple in Jerusalem and send them back to the temple in Jerusalem. You are to put them in the temple of the Almighty.’” Ezr 6:6 “Now Tattenai, the governor of the Province Beyond the River, Shethar Bozenai, and associates who are in the Province Beyond the River, keep away!
Ezr 6:7 Leave the work of this temple of the Almighty alone. The governor and Jewish elders will build this temple of the Almighty at that place.
Ezr 6:8 I am ordering that you must do this for these Jewish elders who build this temple of the Almighty: Funds from the king’s tribute beyond the River will be used to pay these men, so they do not have to stop their work.
Ezr 6:9 Whatever is needed, young bulls, rams, or lambs for the burnt offerings to the Mighty One of Heaven, grain, salt, wine, or oil according to the command of the priests in Jerusalem, give these things to them every day without fail.
Ezr 6:10 Do this, so they will bring the offering in to the Mighty One of Heaven and pray for me, the king, and my sons.
Ezr 6:11 I am ordering that if anyone violates this decree, a beam must be pulled from his house, and he must be impaled on it. His house must then be turned into a rubbish heap because of this.
Ezr 6:12 May the Almighty who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who lifts a hand to change this decree, or to destroy this temple of the Almighty in Jerusalem. I, Darius, am ordering this. Let it be done with diligence!”
Ezr 6:13 Then because of the decree sent by Darius I, Hystaspes, the king, Tattenai, the governor of the Province Beyond the River, and Shethar Bozenai and his associates, did everything that King Darius had ordered.
Ezr 6:14 So the Jewish elders built in the way that Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, grandson of Iddo, had instructed by prophesying. They built and completed it, according to the decree of the Mighty One of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus II, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia.

Ezr 6:15 The temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of King Darius' reign (c. 515 BC).
Ezr 6:16 The Israeli people, priests, Levites, and the rest of the captives celebrated the dedication of this temple of the Almighty with joy.
Ezr 6:17 They offered one hundred bulls, one hundred rams, and four hundred lambs for the dedication of the temple of the Almighty. Twelve male goats were also offered as a sin offering for all Israel, one for each tribe in Israel.
Ezr 6:18 They also assigned the priests and Levites to work divisions for the service of the Almighty in Jerusalem, as it was written in the Book of Moses.
Ezr 6:19 So those who had been in exile celebrated the Passover on the fourteenth of the first month (c. 515 BC).
Ezr 6:20 The priests and Levites all purified themselves and slaughtered the Passover sacrifices for all those who had been in exile, including themselves.
Ezr 6:21 The Israeli people who ate some of the Passover meat were those who had returned from exile and had separated themselves from the uncleanness of the people of the land and sought Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
Ezr 6:22 They joyfully celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days, for Yehowah had brought them joy and turned the heart of Assyria's king to strengthen their hands in the work of the temple of the Almighty, the temple of the Mighty One of Israel.

Ezra Chapter 7

Ezr 7:1 Now (about 58 years) after this, during the reign of Artaxerxes I Longimanus, king of Persia, Ezra came up from Babylon. Ezra's ancestors were Seraiah, Azariah, Hilkiah,
Ezr 7:2 Shallum, Zadok, Ahitub,
Ezr 7:3 Amariah, Azariah, Meraioth,
Ezr 7:4 Zerahiah, Uzzi, Bukki,
Ezr 7:5 Abishua, Phinehas, Eleazar, who was son of Aaron the high priest.
Ezr 7:6 Ezra came up from Babylon, and he was a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses that Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, had given. The king gave him anything he asked since the hand of Yehowah his Divine One was with him.
Ezr 7:7 Some of the descendants of Israel and the priests, Levites, temple singers, gatekeepers, and those assigned to serve in the temple also went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes (c. 457 BC).
Ezr 7:8 He arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the same year.
Ezr 7:9 He left Babylon on the first of the first month. It was on the first of the fifth month that he arrived in Jerusalem, since the good hand of the Almighty was with him.
Ezr 7:10 Ezra had established his heart to study, carry out, and teach the statutes and decrees of the Law of Yehowah.
Ezr 7:11 This was the decree that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest and scribe of the words of the commandments and statutes of Yehowah for Israel:
Ezr 7:12 "King of kings Artaxerxes, to the priest Ezra, a scribe of the law of the Mighty One of Heaven:
Ezr 7:13 I am ordering that anyone from Israel in my kingdom along with their priests and Levites who desires to go to Jerusalem, may go with you.
Ezr 7:14 I, the king, and my seven counselors, send you all out to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem according to the law of the Almighty, which is in your hand.
Ezr 7:15 You are to bring the silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely offered to the Mighty One of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem.
Ezr 7:16 Freely give all the silver and gold that all of Babylon has given along with what is freely offered by the people and the priests for the temple of their Divine One in Jerusalem.
Ezr 7:17 So buy in full the oxen, rams and lambs, and grain and drink offerings. Offer them on the altar that is in the temple of your Divine One in Jerusalem.
Ezr 7:18 Do with the rest of the silver and gold whatever seems good to you and your brothers, to please your Divine One.

Ezr 7:19 Place the objects that were freely given to you before the Almighty for the service of the temple of your Divine One in Jerusalem.
Ezr 7:20 Anything else that is needed for the temple of your Divine One that you require, take its cost from my treasury.
Ezr 7:21 I, King Artaxerxes, make a decree to all the treasurers in the Province Beyond the River (Ezra 4:21), that anything that Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the Mighty One of Heaven, asks from you should be given in full,
Ezr 7:22 up to 300,000-weight of silver coins, 17.6 kiloliters of wheat, 2.20 kiloliters of wine, and 2.20 kiloliters of oil, also salt without limit.
Ezr 7:23 Anything that comes from the decree of the Mighty One of Heaven, do it with devotion for the temple of the Almighty. For why should his wrath come upon the kingdom of me and my sons?
Ezr 7:24 We are informing them about you not to impose any tribute or taxes on any of the priests, Levites, musicians, gatekeepers, or on the people assigned to the service of the temple and servants of this temple of the Almighty.
Ezr 7:25 Ezra, with the wisdom that the Almighty has given you, you must appoint judges and discerning men to serve all the people in the Province Beyond the River, and to serve anyone who knows the law of your Divine One. You must also teach those who do not know the law.
Ezr 7:26 Punish anyone who does not fully obey the law of the Almighty or the king's law, whether by execution, banishment, confiscation of their goods, or imprisonment."
Ezr 7:27 Praise Yehowah, our ancestors' Divine One, who placed all this into the king's heart to glorify the temple of Yehowah in Jerusalem,
Ezr 7:28 and who extended covenant faithfulness to me before the king, his counselors, and all his powerful officials. I have been strengthened by the hand of Yehowah my Divine One, and I gathered leaders from Israel to go with me.

Ezra Chapter 8

Ezr 8:1 These are the leaders of their ancestors' families who left Babylon with me during the reign of King Artaxerxes.
Ezr 8:2 Of the descendants of Phinehas, Gershom. Of the descendants of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the descendants of David, Hattush, Ezr 8:3 who was of the descendants of Shecaniah, who was from the descendants of Parosh; and Zechariah, and with him there were 150 males listed in the record of his genealogy.
Ezr 8:4 Of the descendants of Pahath Moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah and with him were two hundred males.
Ezr 8:5 Of the descendants of Shecaniah, Ben Jahaziel and with him were three hundred males.
Ezr 8:6 Of the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan and with him were listed fifty males.
Ezr 8:7 Of the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiah son of Athaliah and with him were listed seventy males.
Ezr 8:8 Of the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael and with him were listed eighty males.
Ezr 8:9 Of the descendants of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel and with him were listed 218 males.
Ezr 8:10 Of the descendants of Shelomith son of Josiphiah (Yosiphyah) and with him were listed 160 males.
Ezr 8:11 Of the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai and with him were listed twenty-eight males.
Ezr 8:12 Of the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan and with him were listed 110 males.
Ezr 8:13 Those of the descendants of Adonikam came later. These were their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah and with them came sixty males.
Ezr 8:14 Of the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai and Zaccur and with them were listed seventy males.
Ezr 8:15 I gathered the travelers at the canal that goes to Ahava, and we camped there three days. I examined the people and priests, but could not find any descendants of Levi there.
Ezr 8:16 So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, and Elnathan and Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leaders, and for Joarib and Elnathan, who were teachers.
Ezr 8:17 Next, I sent them to Iddo, the leader in Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives, the temple servants living in Casiphia, that is, to send to us servants for the temple of the Almighty.

Ezr 8:18 So they sent us by the good hand of our Divine One a man named Sherebiah (Sherebeyah), a prudent man. He was a descendant of Mahli son of Levi son of Israel. He came with eighteen sons and brothers.
Ezr 8:19 With him came Hashabiah. There also were Jeshaiah, one of the sons of Merari, with his brothers and their sons, twenty men in all.
Ezr 8:20 Of those assigned to serve in the temple, whom David and his officials gave to serve the Levites: 220, each of them assigned by name.
Ezr 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast at the Ahava River to humble ourselves before our Divine One, to seek a straight path from him for us, our little ones, and all our possessions.
Ezr 8:22 I was ashamed to ask the king for a military force or cavalry to protect us against enemies along the way, since we had said to the king, 'The hand of our Divine One is on all who seek him for good, but his might and wrath are on all who forget him.'
Ezr 8:23 So we fasted and sought our Divine One about this, and we entreated him.
Ezr 8:24 Next, I selected twelve men from the priestly officials: Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers.
Ezr 8:25 I weighed out for them silver, gold, and the objects and offerings for the temple of the Almighty that the king, his counselors and officials, and all Israel had freely offered.
Ezr 8:26 So I weighed into their hand 1,950,000-weight of silver coins, 3.333 metric tons of silver objects, 3.333 metric tons of gold,
Ezr 8:27 twenty gold bowls that were together valued at eight and one-half kilograms of gold, and two well-polished bronze vessels as precious as gold.
Ezr 8:28 Then I said to them, "You are consecrated to Yehowah, and these objects also, and the silver and gold are a freewill offering to Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors.
Ezr 8:29 Watch over them and keep them, until you weigh them out before the priestly officials, Levites, and leaders of the ancestors' clans of Israel in Jerusalem in the rooms of the temple of Yehowah."
Ezr 8:30 The priests and the Levites accepted the weighed silver, gold, and the objects in order to take them to Jerusalem, to the temple of our Divine One.
Ezr 8:31 We went out from the Ahava River on the twelfth of the first month to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our Divine One was on us; he protected us from the hand of the enemy and the ones who wished to ambush us along the road.
Ezr 8:32 So we entered Jerusalem and stayed there for three days.
Ezr 8:33 Then on the fourth day the silver, gold, and objects were weighed out in the temple of our Divine One into the hand of Meremoth son of Uriah the priest, and with him were Eleazar son of Phinehas, Jozabad son of Jeshua, and Noadiah (Noadyah) son of Binnui the Levite.

Ezr 8:34 The number and weight of everything was determined. All the weight was written down at that time.
Ezr 8:35 The ones who came back from the captivity, the people of exile, offered burnt offerings to the Mighty One of Israel: twelve bulls for all of Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All were a burnt offering for Yehowah.
Ezr 8:36 Then they gave the king's decrees to the king's high officials and the governors in the Province Beyond the River, and they helped the people and the temple of the Almighty.

Ezra Chapter 9

Ezr 9:1 When these things were done, the officials approached me and said, “The people of Israel, the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the people of the other lands and their abominations: Canaanites, Hethites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.
Ezr 9:2 For they have taken some of their daughters and sons, and have mixed the set-apart people with the people of other lands, and the officials and leaders have been first in this faithlessness.”
Ezr 9:3 When I heard this, I tore apart my clothing and robe and pulled out hair from my head and beard, and I sat down, devastated.
Ezr 9:4 All those who trembled at the words of the Mighty One of Israel about this faithlessness gathered to me, while I was sitting ashamed, until the offering at dusk.
Ezr 9:5 But at the dusk offering, I arose from my position of humiliation in my torn clothes and robe, and knelt down and spread my hands to Yehowah my Divine One.
Ezr 9:6 I prayed, “My Divine One, I am ashamed and disgraced to raise my face to you, my Divine One, for our iniquities increase over our head, and our guilt grows to Heaven.
Ezr 9:7 From the days of our ancestors until now, we have been in great guilt. In our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests were given into the hand of kings of this world, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder and ashamed faces, as we are today.
Ezr 9:8 Yet now for a short time, grace from Yehowah our Divine One has come to leave us a few survivors and to give us a foothold in his Set-apart Place. This was for our Divine One to enlighten our eyes and to give us a little relief in our slavery.
Ezr 9:9 For we are slaves, but our Divine One has not forgotten us but has extended covenant faithfulness to us. He has done this in the sight of the kings of Persia in order to give us new strength, so we could rebuild the temple of our Divine One and raise its ruins. He did this, so that he could give us a wall of safety in Judah and Jerusalem.
Ezr 9:10 But now, our Divine One, what can we say after this? We have forgotten your commands,
Ezr 9:11 the commands that you gave to your servants the prophets, when you said, “This land that you are entering to possess is an unclean land. It is contaminated by the people of the lands with their abominations. They have filled it from one end to the other with their uncleanness.

Ezr 9:12 So now, do not give your daughters to their sons; do not take their daughters for your sons, and do not seek their ongoing peace and welfare, so that you will be strong and eat the good of the land, so you will cause your children to possess it for all time."
Ezr 9:13 Yet after everything that came on us for our evil practices and our great guilt, since you, our Divine One, have held back what our iniquities deserve and left us survivors,
Ezr 9:14 should we again break your commandments and intermarry with these abominable people? Will you not be angry and annihilate us, so there will be no one left, no one to escape?
Ezr 9:15 Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, you are righteous, for we have remained as a few survivors at this day. Look! We are here before you in our guilt, for there is no one who can stand before you because of this.

Ezra Chapter 10

Ezr 10:1 As Ezra prayed and confessed, he wept and threw himself down before the temple of the Almighty. An extremely great congregation of Israeli men, women, and children gathered to him, for the people loudly wept bitterly.
Ezr 10:2 Shekaniah son of Jehiel of the descendants of Elam said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our Divine One and have married foreign women from the people of the other lands. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel.
Ezr 10:3 So now let us make a covenant with our Divine One to send out all the women and their children according to my master’s instructions and the instructions of those who tremble at the commandments of our Divine One, and let it be done according to the law.
Ezr 10:4 Arise, for this thing is for you to carry out, and we are with you. Be strong and do this.”
Ezr 10:5 So Ezra rose and made the priestly officials, the Levites, and all of Israel promise to act in this Way. So they all took a solemn oath.
Ezr 10:6 Then Ezra rose from before the temple of the Almighty and went to the rooms of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. He did not eat any bread or drink any water, since he was mourning concerning the faithlessness of those who had been in captivity.
Ezr 10:7 So they sent word in Judah and Jerusalem to all the people back from exile to assemble in Jerusalem.
Ezr 10:8 Anyone who did not come in three days according to the instructions from the officials and elders forfeited all of his possessions and would be excluded from the great congregation of the people who had come back from exile.
Ezr 10:9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled in Jerusalem in three days. It was the twentieth of the ninth month. All the people stood in the square before the temple of the Almighty and trembled because of the word and the rain.
Ezr 10:10 Ezra the priest arose and said, “You yourselves have committed treason. You lived with foreign women so as to increase Israel’s guilt.
Ezr 10:11 But now give praise to Yehowah, your ancestors’ Divine One, and do his will. Separate from the people of the land and from the foreign women.”
Ezr 10:12 All the congregation answered in a loud voice, “We will do as you have said!
Ezr 10:13 However, there are many people, and it is the rainy season. We have no strength to stand outside, and this is not only one or two days of work, since we have greatly transgressed in this matter.

Ezr 10:14 So let our officials represent all the congregation. Let all who have allowed foreign women to live in our cities come at the time that will be fixed with the city elders and the city judges, until the raging wrath of our Divine One goes away from us."
Ezr 10:15 Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah (Yachzeyah) son of Tikvah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supported them.
Ezr 10:16 So the people who returned from exile did this. Ezra the priest selected men, the leaders in their ancestors' clans and households, all of them by name, and they looked into the matter on the first day of the tenth month.
Ezr 10:17 By the first day of the first month, they had finished discovering which men had lived with foreign women.
Ezr 10:18 Among the descendants of the priests there were those who had lived with foreign women. Among the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers there were Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.
Ezr 10:19 So they determined to send their wives away. Since they were guilty, they offered a ram from the flock for their guilt.
Ezr 10:20 Among the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.
Ezr 10:21 Among the descendants of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziah.
Ezr 10:22 Among the descendants of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.
Ezr 10:23 Among the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah, that is, Kelita, Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.
Ezr 10:24 Among the singers: Eliashib. Among the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.
Ezr 10:25 Among the rest of the Israelis, among the descendants of Parosh: Ramiah (Ramyah), Izziah (Yizziyah), Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah.
Ezr 10:26 Among the descendants of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.
Ezr 10:27 Among the descendants of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.
Ezr 10:28 Among the descendants of Bebai: Jehochanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.
Ezr 10:29 Among the descendants of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal Jeremoth.
Ezr 10:30 Among the descendants of Pahath Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.
Ezr 10:31 Among the descendants of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Ezr 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

Ezr 10:33 Among the descendants of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.
Ezr 10:34 Among the descendants of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,
Ezr 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah (Bedeyah), Cheluhi,
Ezr 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,
Ezr 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu.
Ezr 10:38 Among the descendants of Bani, Binnui, Shimei,
Ezr 10:39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,
Ezr 10:40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,
Ezr 10:41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,
Ezr 10:42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.
Ezr 10:43 Among the descendants of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Iddo, Joel, and Benaiah.
Ezr 10:44 All of these had taken foreign wives and had children with some of them.

Book of Nehemiah

Nehemiah Chapter 1

Neh 1:1 The words of Nehemiah (Nechemyah) son of Hacaliah (Chakalyah): Now it happened in the month of Kislev, in the twentieth year (c. 445 BC), as I was in the fortress city of Susa (modern Shush),
Neh 1:2 that one of my brothers, Hanani, came with some people from Judah, and I asked them about the Jews who had escaped, the remnant of the Jews who were there, and about Jerusalem.
Neh 1:3 They said to me, “Those in the province who survived the captivity are in great trouble and disgrace, because the wall of Jerusalem has been broken open, and its gates have been set on fire.”
Neh 1:4 As soon as I heard these words, I sat down and wept, and for days I continued grieving, fasting, and praying before the Mighty One of Heaven.
Neh 1:5 Then I professed, “You are Yehowah, Mighty One of Heaven, the Almighty who is great and awesome, who keeps the covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments.
Neh 1:6 Listen to my prayer and open your eyes, so you may hear the prayer of your servant that I now pray before you day and night for the people of Israel your servants. I am confessing the sins of the people of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Both I and my father’s household have sinned.
Neh 1:7 We have acted wickedly against you, and we have not kept the commandments, the statutes, and the rules you commanded your servant Moses.
Neh 1:8 Please call to mind the word you commanded your servant Moses, ‘If you act unfaithfully, I will scatter you among the ethnicities,
Neh 1:9 but if you return to me and follow my commandments and do them, though your people were scattered under the farthest skies, I will gather them from there and bring them to that place where I have chosen to make my name remain.’
Neh 1:10 Now they are your servants and your people, whom you have rescued by your great power and by your strong hand.
Neh 1:11 O Lord, I beg you, listen now to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight to honor your name. Now give success to your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man.” I served as cupbearer to the king.

Nehemiah Chapter 2

Neh 2:1 In the month of Nisan (Abib), in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes I Longimanus (c. 444 BC), he selected wine, and I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never before been sad in his presence.
Neh 2:2 But the king said to me, “Why is your face so sad? You do not appear to be ill. This must be sadness of heart.” Then I became deathly afraid.
Neh 2:3 I replied to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should not my face be sad? The city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire.”
Neh 2:4 Then the king asked me, “What do you want me to do?” So I prayed to the Mighty One of Heaven.
Neh 2:5 I replied to the king, “If it seems good to the king, and if your servant has done well in your sight, you could send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers’ tombs, that I may rebuild it.”
Neh 2:6 The king asked me, and the queen was also sitting beside him, “How long will you be away, and when will you return?” The king was glad to send me when I gave him the dates.
Neh 2:7 Then I entreated the king, “If it pleases the king, may letters be given to me for the governors in the Province Beyond the River, so that they may permit me to pass through their territories on my way to Judah.
Neh 2:8 May there also be a letter for Asaph the keeper of the king’s forest, so that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the fortress next to the temple, and for the wall of the city, and for the house in which I will live.” So because the good hand of my Divine One was on me, the king granted me my requests.
Neh 2:9 I came to the governors in the Province Beyond the River and gave them the king’s letters. Now the king had sent with me officers of the army and cavalry.
Neh 2:10 When Sanballat I, the Horonite, and Tobiah the Ammonite servant heard this, they were greatly displeased that someone had come who was seeking to help the people of Israel.
Neh 2:11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.
Neh 2:12 I arose in the night, I and a few men with me. I did not tell anyone what my Divine One had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There was no animal with me, other than the one I was riding.
Neh 2:13 I went out by night by the Valley Gate, toward the Jackal’s Well and to the Dung Gate, and inspected the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken open, and the wooden gates were destroyed by fire.

Neh 2:14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool. The place was too narrow for the animal I was riding to pass through.
Neh 2:15 So I went up that night by the valley and inspected the wall, and I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned.
Neh 2:16 The rulers did not know where I went or what I did, and I had not yet informed the Jews, nor the priests, nor the nobles, nor the rulers, nor the rest who did the work.
Neh 2:17 I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in, how Jerusalem lies in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, so we will no longer be in disgrace."
Neh 2:18 I told them that the good hand of my Divine One was on me, and also about the king's words that he had spoken to me. They said, "Let us rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.
Neh 2:19 But when Sanballat I, the Horonite, and Tobiah the Ammonite servant, and Geshem the Arabian heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us, and they asked, "What are you doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"
Neh 2:20 Then I answered them, "The Mighty One of Heaven will give us success. We are his servants, and we will arise and build. But you have no share, no right, and no historic claim in Jerusalem."

Nehemiah Chapter 3

Neh 3:1 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brother priests, and they built the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set its doors in place. They consecrated it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and as far as the Tower of Hananel.
Neh 3:2 Next to him the men of Jericho worked, and next to them Zaccur son of Imri worked.
Neh 3:3 The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They put its beams in place and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
Neh 3:4 Meremoth repaired the next section. He is the son of Uriah son of Hakkoz. Next to them Meshullam repaired. He is the son of Berechiah son of Meshezabel. Next to them Zadok repaired. He is the son of Baana.
Neh 3:5 Next to them the Tekoites repaired, but their leaders refused to do the work ordered by their supervisors.
Neh 3:6 Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They set the beams, and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
Neh 3:7 Next to them Melatiah (Melatyah) the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, who were men from Gibeon and Mizpah, made repairs on the portion where the governor of the Province Beyond the River lived.
Neh 3:8 Next to him Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired, and next to him was Hananiah, a maker of perfumes. They rebuilt Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.
Neh 3:9 Next to them Rephaiah son of Hur repaired. He was the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem.
Neh 3:10 Next to them Jedaiah son of Harumaph repaired next to his house. Next to him Hattush son of Hashabneiah (Chashabneyah) repaired.
Neh 3:11 Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath Moab repaired another section along with the Tower of the Ovens.
Neh 3:12 Next to them Shallum son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired, along with his daughters.
Neh 3:13 Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They rebuilt it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars. They repaired five hundred meters as far as the Dung Gate.
Neh 3:14 Malchijah son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem, repaired the Dung Gate. He built it and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars.
Neh 3:15 Shallun son of Col Hozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah, rebuilt the Fountain Gate. He built it, and put a cover on it, and set its doors, its bolts, and its bars. He also rebuilt the wall of the Pool of Siloam (aka Silwan) by the king's garden, as far as the stairs leading down from the City of David.

Neh 3:16 Nehemiah son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Bethzur, repaired to the place across from the tombs of David, to the man-made pool, and to the house of the mighty men.
Neh 3:17 After him the Levites repaired, including Rehum son of Bani and next to him, Hashabiah, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, for his district.
Neh 3:18 After him their countrymen repaired, including Bavvai son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah.
Neh 3:19 Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section that faced the ascent to the armory at the corner of the wall.
Neh 3:20 After him Baruch son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the corner of the wall to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.
Neh 3:21 After him Meremoth son of Uriah son of Hakkoz repaired another section, from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of the house of Eliashib.
Neh 3:22 Next to him the priests, the men from the disk-shaped Valley, repaired.
Neh 3:23 After them Benjamin and Hasshub repaired opposite their own house. After them Azariah son of Maaseiah son of Ananiah repaired next to his own house.
Neh 3:24 After him Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from the house of Azariah to the corner of the wall.
Neh 3:25 Palal son of Uzai repaired over against the corner of the wall and the tower that extends upward from the upper house of the king at the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah son of Parosh repaired.
Neh 3:26 Now the temple servants living in Ophel repaired to the point opposite the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower.
Neh 3:27 After him the Tekoites repaired another section that was opposite the great projecting tower as far as the wall of Ophel.
Neh 3:28 The priests repaired above the Horse Gate, each opposite his own house.
Neh 3:29 After them Zadok son of Immer repaired the section opposite his own house. Then after him Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, repaired.
Neh 3:30 After him Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam son of Berechiah repaired opposite his living chambers.
Neh 3:31 After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired to the house of the temple servants and the merchants that was opposite the Appointment Gate and the upper living chambers on the corner.
Neh 3:32 The goldsmiths and the merchants repaired between the upper chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate.

Nehemiah Chapter 4

Neh 4:1 Now when Sanballat heard we were building the wall, it burned within him, and he was furiously angry, and he mocked the Jews.
Neh 4:2 In the presence of his brothers and the military force of Samaria, he asked, “What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore the city for themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish the work in a day? Will they bring to life the stones from the piles of rubble after they were burned?
Neh 4:3 Tobiah the Ammonite was with him, and he said, “If only a jackal went up on what they are building, it would break down their stone wall!”
Neh 4:4 Hear, our Divine One, for we are despised. Turn back their taunts on their own heads and give them up to be plundered in a land where they are prisoners.
Neh 4:5 Do not cover over their iniquity and do not erase their sin from before you, for they have provoked the builders to anger.
Neh 4:6 So we built the wall, and all the wall was joined together to half its height, for the people had a desire to work.
Neh 4:7 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the work of repairing the walls of Jerusalem was going forward, and that the broken places in the wall were being closed up, a great anger burned within them.
Neh 4:8 They all conspired together, and they came to fight against Jerusalem and to cause confusion in it.
Neh 4:9 But we prayed to our Divine One and set a guard as protection against them day and night because of their threat.
Neh 4:10 Then the people of Judah said, “The strength of those who carry the burdens is failing. There is too much rubble, and we are not able to rebuild the wall.”
Neh 4:11 Our enemies said, “They will not know or see, until we come among them and murder them, and stop the work.”
Neh 4:12 At that time, the Jews who lived near them came from all directions and spoke to us ten times, warning us about the schemes they were making against us.
Neh 4:13 So I positioned people in the lowest parts of the wall in the exposed areas. I positioned each family with their swords, spears, and bows.
Neh 4:14 Then I looked, and stood up, and I said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Call to mind the Lord, who is great and awesome. Fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives, and your homes.”
Neh 4:15 It came about when our enemies heard that their plans were known to us, and the Almighty had frustrated their plans, all of us returned to the wall, each one to his work.

Neh 4:16 So from that time, half of my servants worked only on rebuilding the wall, and half of them held spears, shields, bows, and wore armor, while the leaders stood behind all the people of Judah.
Neh 4:17 The same workers who were building the wall and carrying loads were also guarding their positions. Everyone worked with one hand, and with the other hand he held his weapon.
Neh 4:18 Every builder wore his sword on his side, and that is how he worked. The one who sounded the trumpet stayed beside me.
Neh 4:19 I said to the nobles, to the officials, and to the rest of the people, “The work is great and extensive, and we are separated on the wall, far from one another.
Neh 4:20 You must rush to the place where you hear the trumpet sound and assemble there. Our Divine One will fight for us.”
Neh 4:21 So we were doing the work. Half of them were holding spears from the break of dawn until the coming out of the stars.
Neh 4:22 Moreover, I also said to the people at that time, “Let every man and his servant spend the night in the middle of Jerusalem, so they may be for us a guard during the night and a worker in the day.”
Neh 4:23 So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us changed our clothes, and each of us carried his weapon, even if he went for water.

Nehemiah Chapter 5

Neh 5:1 Then the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their fellow Jews.
Neh 5:2 For there were some who said, “With our sons and daughters we are many. So let us get grain that we may eat and stay alive.”
Neh 5:3 There were also some who said, “We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses to get grain during the famine.”
Neh 5:4 Some also said, “We have borrowed money to pay the king’s tax on our fields and our vineyards.
Neh 5:5 Yet now our flesh and blood is the same as our brothers, and our children are the same as their children. We are forced to sell our sons and our daughters to become slaves. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved. But it is not in our power to help it, because other men now own our fields and our vineyards.”
Neh 5:6 I was extremely angry when I heard their outcry and these words.
Neh 5:7 Then I thought about this and brought charges against the nobles and officials. I accused them, “You are exacting interest, each from his own brother.” I held a great assembly against them,
Neh 5:8 and said to them, “We, as much as we are able, have bought back from slavery our Jewish brothers who had been sold to the ethnicities, but you even sell your brethren and sistren that they may be sold back to us!” They were silent and never found a word to say.
Neh 5:9 Also I said, “What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our Divine One to prevent the taunts of the ethnicities that are our enemies?
Neh 5:10 I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. But we must stop charging interest on these loans.
Neh 5:11 Return to them this day their fields, their vineyards, their olive orchards, and their houses and the percentage of the money, the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you exacted from them.”
Neh 5:12 Then they said, “We will return what we took from them and will require nothing from them. We will do as you say.” Then I called the priests and made them swear to do as they had promised.
Neh 5:13 I shook out the fold of my robe and said, “So may the Almighty shake out of his household and possessions every man who does not keep his promise. So may he be shaken out and emptied.” All the congregation said, “Amein,” and they praised Yehowah, and the people did as they had promised.
Neh 5:14 So from the time I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year (c. 444 BC) until the thirty-second year (c. 432 BC) of King Artaxerxes I Longimanus, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the food provided for the governor.

Neh 5:15 But the former governors who were before me laid heavy burdens on the people and took from them 40-weight of silver coins for their daily food and wine. Even their servants oppressed the people. But I did not do so because of the fear of the Almighty.
Neh 5:16 I also continued to work on the wall, and we bought no land, and all my servants were gathered there for the work.
Neh 5:17 At my table were the Jews and the officials, 150 men, besides those who came to us from among the ethnicities who were around us.
Neh 5:18 Now what was prepared each day was one ox, six choice sheep, and also birds, and every ten days all kinds of wine in abundance, yet for all this, I did not demand the food allowance of the governor, because the demands were too heavy on the people.
Neh 5:19 Call me to mind, my Divine One, for good, because of all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah Chapter 6

Neh 6:1 Now when Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no longer any sections left broken open, although I had not yet set up the doors in the gates,
Neh 6:2 Sanballat and Geshem sent to me saying, “Come, let us meet together somewhere in the plain of Ono.” But they intended to do harm to me.
Neh 6:3 I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work, and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop, while I leave it and come down to you?”
Neh 6:4 They sent me the same message four times, and I answered them the same way each time.
Neh 6:5 Sanballat sent his servant to me in the same way the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand.
Neh 6:6 In it was written, “It is reported among the ethnicities, and Geshem also says it, that you and the Jews are planning to rebel, for that is why you are rebuilding the wall. From what these intelligence reports say, you are about to become their king.
Neh 6:7 You have also appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ You can be sure the king will hear these intelligence reports. Therefore, come, let us speak with one another.”
Neh 6:8 Then I sent word to him, “No such things have occurred as you say, for within your heart you invented them.”
Neh 6:9 For they all wanted to make us afraid, thinking, “They will drop their hands from doing the work, and it will not be done.” But now, Almighty, please strengthen my hands.
Neh 6:10 I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah son of Mehetabel, who was confined in his home. He said, “Let us meet together in the temple of the Almighty, inside the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. At night they are coming to kill you.”
Neh 6:11 I replied, “Would a man like me run away? Would a man like me go into the temple, just so he could save his own life? I will not go in!”
Neh 6:12 I realized that it was not the Almighty who sent him, but that he had prophesied against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.
Neh 6:13 They hired him to make me afraid, so that I might do what he said and sin, so they could give me a bad name in order to humiliate me.
Neh 6:14 Call to mind Tobiah and Sanballat, my Divine One, and all that they did. Also, call to mind the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets who tried to make me be afraid.

Neh 6:15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month of Elul, after fifty-two days.
Neh 6:16 When all our enemies heard of it, all the ethnicities around us, they became afraid, and they fell greatly in their own esteem. For they knew the work was done with the help of our Divine One.
Neh 6:17 At this time, the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them.
Neh 6:18 For there were many in Judah who were bound by an oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah. His son Jehohanan had taken as his wife the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.
Neh 6:19 They also spoke to me about his good deeds and reported my words back to him. Letters were sent to me from Tobiah to frighten me.

Nehemiah Chapter 7

Neh 7:1 When the wall was finished, and I had set up the doors in place, and the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites had been appointed,
Neh 7:2 I gave my brother Hanani charge over Jerusalem, along with Hananiah who had oversight of the citadel, for he was a faithful man and feared the Almighty more than many.
Neh 7:3 I ordered them, “Do not open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are on guard, you may shut the doors and bar them. Appoint guards from those who live in Jerusalem, some at the place of their guard station and some in front of their own homes.”
Neh 7:4 Now the city was wide and large, but there were few people within it, and no houses had yet been rebuilt.
Neh 7:5 My Divine One put into my heart to gather together the nobles, the officials, and the people to enroll them by their families. I found the Book of the Genealogy of those who returned at the first and found the following written in it:
Neh 7:6 “These are the people of the province who went up out of the captivity of those exiles whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon took into exile. They returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his city.
Neh 7:7 They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah (Raamyah), Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel included the following:
Neh 7:8 The descendants of Parosh, 2,172.
Neh 7:9 The descendants of Shephatiah, 372.
Neh 7:10 The descendants of Arah, 652.
Neh 7:11 The descendants of Pahath Moab, through the descendants of Jeshua and Joab, 2,818.
Neh 7:12 The descendants of Elam, 1,254.
Neh 7:13 The descendants of Zattu, 845.
Neh 7:14 The descendants of Zaccai, 760.
Neh 7:15 The descendants of Binnui, 648.
Neh 7:16 The descendants of Bebai, 628.
Neh 7:17 The descendants of Azgad, 2,322.
Neh 7:18 The descendants of Adonikam, 667.
Neh 7:19 The descendants of Bigvai, 2,067.
Neh 7:20 The descendants of Adin, 655.
Neh 7:21 The descendants of Ater, of Hezekiah, 98.
Neh 7:22 The descendants of Hashum, 328.
Neh 7:23 The descendants of Bezai, 324.

Neh 7:24 The descendants of Hariph, 112.
Neh 7:25 The descendants of Gibeon, 95.
Neh 7:26 The men from Bethlehem and Netophah, 188.
Neh 7:27 The men from Anathoth, 128.
Neh 7:28 The men of Beth Azmaveth, 42.
Neh 7:29 The men of Kiriath Jearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, 743.
Neh 7:30 The men of Ramah and Geba, 621.
Neh 7:31 The men of Michmas, 122.
Neh 7:32 The men of Bethel and Ai, 123.
Neh 7:33 The men of the other Nebo, 52.
Neh 7:34 The people of the other Elam, 1,254.
Neh 7:35 The men of Harim, 320.
Neh 7:36 The men of Jericho, 345.
Neh 7:37 The men of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 721.
Neh 7:38 The men of Senaah, 3,930.
Neh 7:39 The priests: the descendants of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, 973.
Neh 7:40 The descendants of Immer, 1,052.
Neh 7:41 The descendants of Pashhur, 1,247.
Neh 7:42 The descendants of Harim, 1,017.
Neh 7:43 The Levites: the descendants of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, of Binnui, and of Hodewah, 74.
Neh 7:44 The singers: the descendants of Asaph, 148.
Neh 7:45 The gatekeepers of the descendants of Shallum, the descendants of Ater, the descendants of Talmon, the descendants of Akkub, the descendants of Hatita, the descendants of Shobai, 138.
Neh 7:46 The temple servants: the descendants of Ziha, the descendants of Hasupha, the descendants of Tabbaoth,
Neh 7:47 the descendants of Keros, the descendants of Sia, the descendants of Padon,
Neh 7:48 the descendants of Lebana, the descendants of Hagaba, the descendants of Shalmai,
Neh 7:49 the descendants of Hanan, the descendants of Giddel, the descendants of Gahar.
Neh 7:50 The descendants of Reaiah, the descendants of Rezin, the descendants of Nekoda,
Neh 7:51 the descendants of Gazzam, the descendants of Uzza, the descendants of Paseah,
Neh 7:52 the descendants of Besai, the descendants of Meunim, the descendants of Nephushesim.
Neh 7:53 The descendants of Bakbuk, the descendants of Hakupha, the descendants of Harhur,

Neh 7:54 the descendants of Bazlith, the descendants of Mehida, the descendants of Harsha,
Neh 7:55 the descendants of Barkos, the descendants of Sisera, the descendants of Temah,
Neh 7:56 the descendants of Neziah, the descendants of Hatipha.
Neh 7:57 The descendants of Solomon's servants: the descendants of Sotai, the descendants of Sophereth, the descendants of Perida,
Neh 7:58 the descendants of Jaala, the descendants of Darkon, the descendants of Giddel,
Neh 7:59 the descendants of Shephatiah, the descendants of Hattil, the descendants of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the descendants of Amon.
Neh 7:60 All the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon's servants, were 392.
Neh 7:61 These were the people who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Charsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer. But they could not prove that they or their ancestors' families were descendants from Israel:
Neh 7:62 the descendants of Delaiah, the descendants of Tobiah, and the descendants of Nekoda, 642.
Neh 7:63 Those who were from the priests: The descendants of Habaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai, who took his wife from the daughters of Barzillai of Gilead and was called by their name.
Neh 7:64 These sought their records among those enrolled by their genealogy, but they could not be found, so they were excluded from the priesthood as unclean.
Neh 7:65 Then the governor said to them that they should not be allowed to eat the priests' set-apart food from the sacrifices, until there rose up a priest with Urim and Thummim.
Neh 7:66 The whole congregation together was 42,360,
Neh 7:67 besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were 7,337. They had 245 singing men and women.
Neh 7:68 Their horses were 736 in number, their mules, 245,
Neh 7:69 their camels, 435, and their jack donkeys, 6,720.
Neh 7:70 Some from among the heads of ancestors' families gave gifts for the work. The governor gave to the treasury eight and one-half kilograms of gold, 50 basins, and 530 priestly garments.
Neh 7:71 Some of the heads of ancestors' families gave into the treasury for the work 170 kilograms of gold and 110,000-weight of silver coins.
Neh 7:72 The rest of the people gave 170 kilograms of gold, and 100,000-weight of silver coins, and sixty-seven robes for the priests.

Neh 7:73 So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel lived in their cities. By the seventh month, the people of Israel were settled in their cities.”

Nehemiah Chapter 8

Neh 8:1 All the people gathered as one man in the open area in front of the Water Gate. They asked Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which Yehowah had commanded Israel.
Neh 8:2 On the first day of the seventh month (Festival of Trumpets), Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both men and women, and all who could hear and understand.
Neh 8:3 He faced the open area in front of the Water Gate, and he read from it from sunrise until midday, before men and women, and any who could understand, and all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.
Neh 8:4 Then Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform which the people had made for the purpose. Standing beside him were Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right side; and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam were standing on his left side.
Neh 8:5 Ezra opened the Book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above the people, and when he opened it, all the people stood up.
Neh 8:6 Ezra gave thanks to Yehowah, the great Almighty, and all the people lifted up their hands and answered, “Amein! Amein!” Then they bowed their heads and worshiped Yehowah with their faces to the ground.
Neh 8:7 Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, the Levites, helped the people understand the law, while the people remained in their place.
Neh 8:8 They read in the Book, the Law of the Almighty, making it clear with interpretation and explaining the meaning, so the people understood the reading.
Neh 8:9 Nehemiah the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were interpreting to the people, said to all the people, “This day is set apart to Yehowah your Divine One. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.
Neh 8:10 Then Nehemiah said to them, “Go your way, eat the fat and have something sweet to drink, and send some of it to one who has nothing prepared, for this day is set apart to our Lord. Do not be grieved, for the joy of Yehowah is your strength!”
Neh 8:11 So the Levites made the people be quiet, ordering, “Hush! For this day is set apart. Do not be grieved.”
Neh 8:12 Then all the people went their way to eat, to drink, to share food, and to celebrate with great joy, because they had understood the words that were made known to them.

Neh 8:13 On the second day, the leaders of the ancestors' families from all the people, the priests and the Levites, came together to Ezra the scribe to gain insight from the words of the law.
Neh 8:14 They found written in the law how Yehowah had commanded through Moses that the people of Israel should live in shelters during the feast of the seventh month (Festival of Tabernacles).
Neh 8:15 They should make a proclamation in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, "Go out into the hill country, and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, and from myrtle, palms and shade trees, to make temporary shelters, as it is written."
Neh 8:16 So the people went out and brought the branches back and made themselves shelters, each on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the temple of the Almighty, in the open place by the Water Gate, and in the square at the Gate of Ephraim.
Neh 8:17 All the congregation of those who had returned from captivity made shelters and lived in them. For since the days of Joshua (Y'shua, # H3442; H3091; Num. 13:16), son of Nun, to that day, the people of Israel had not celebrated this festival, and so their joy was extremely great!
Neh 8:18 Also, day by day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of the Almighty. They kept the feast for seven days, and on the eighth day was a festive assembly in obedience to the decree (8th day assembly; Shemini Atzeret; Lev. 23:39).

Nehemiah Chapter 9

Neh 9:1 Now on the twenty-fourth day of the same month the people of Israel were assembled, and they were fasting, and they were wearing sackcloth, and they put dust on their heads.
Neh 9:2 The descendants of Israel separated themselves from all the foreigners. They stood and confessed their own sins and the evil actions of their ancestors.
Neh 9:3 They stood up in their places, and for one-fourth of the day, they read from the Book of the Law of Yehowah their Divine One. For another fourth of the day, they were confessing and bowing down before Yehowah their Divine One.
Neh 9:4 The Levites, Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, stood on the stairs, and they called out with a loud voice to Yehowah their Divine One.
Neh 9:5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah said, “Stand up and give praise to Yehowah your Divine One forever and ever!” “May they bless your glorious name, and may it be exalted above every blessing and praise!
Neh 9:6 You are Yehowah. You alone. You have made the heavens, the highest Heaven, with all their armed forces, and the earth and everything on it, and the seas and all that is in them. You give life to them all, and the armed forces of Heaven worship You.
Neh 9:7 You are Yehowah, the Almighty who chose Abram, and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name Abraham.
Neh 9:8 You found his heart was faithful before you, and you made with him the covenant to give to his descendants the land of the Canaanites, the Hethites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, and the Girgashites. You have kept your promise, because you are righteous.
Neh 9:9 You saw the affliction of our forefathers in Egypt, and you heard their cry by the SEA.
Neh 9:10 You gave signs and wonders against Pharaoh, and all his servants, and on all the people of his land, for you knew that the Egyptians acted with arrogance against them. But you made a name for yourself which stands to this day.
Neh 9:11 Then you divided the SEA before them, so that they went through the middle of the SEA on the dry land; and threw those who pursued them into the depths, as a stone into deep waters.
Neh 9:12 You led them by a pillar of cloud during the day, and by a pillar of fire during the night to light the way for them to go.

Neh 9:13 On Mount Sinai you came down, and you spoke with them from the sky and gave to them righteous decrees and the law of truth, good statutes and commandments.
Neh 9:14 You made your set-apart Sabbath known to them, and you gave them commandments, statutes, and a law through Moses your servant.
Neh 9:15 You gave them bread from Heaven for their hunger, and water from a rock for their thirst, and you said to them to go in to possess the land you swore on oath to give them.
Neh 9:16 But they and our ancestors acted disrespectfully, and they were stubborn and did not listen to your commandments.
Neh 9:17 They refused to listen, and they did not think about the wonders that you had done among them, but became stubborn, and in their rebellion they appointed a leader to return to their slavery. But you are an Almighty who is full of forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love. You did not abandon them.
Neh 9:18 Even when they had cast a calf out of molten metal, and said, 'This is your Divine One who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed great blasphemies,
Neh 9:19 you, in your compassion, did not abandon them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud to lead them on the way did not leave them during the day, neither did the pillar of fire by night to light the way for them to go.
Neh 9:20 Your good Ruach you gave them to instruct them, and your manna you did not withhold from their mouths, and water you gave them for their thirst.
Neh 9:21 For forty years you provided for them in the wilderness (c. 1650 – 1611 BC), and they lacked nothing. Their clothes did not wear out, and their feet did not swell.
Neh 9:22 You gave them kingdoms and people, assigning to them every corner of the land. Then they took possession of the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the land of Og king of Bashan.
Neh 9:23 You made their children as numerous as the stars of heaven, and you brought them into the land that you told their ancestors to go in and possess.
Neh 9:24 So the people went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites. You gave them into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, that Israel might do with them as they pleased.
Neh 9:25 They captured the fortified cities and a productive land, and they captured houses full of all good things, cisterns already cut out, vineyards and olive orchards, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate and were satisfied, grew fat, and enjoyed themselves in your great goodness.

Neh 9:26 Then they became disobedient, and they rebelled against you. They threw your law behind their backs. They murdered your prophets who had warned them to turn back to you, and they committed great blasphemies.
Neh 9:27 So you gave them into the hand of their enemies, who made them suffer. In the time of their suffering, they cried out to you, and you heard them from Heaven, and because of your great mercies, you sent them rescuers who rescued them out of the hand of their enemies.
Neh 9:28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before you, and you abandoned them to the hand of their enemies, so their enemies ruled over them. Yet when they returned and cried out to you, you heard from Heaven, and many times because of your compassion you rescued them.
Neh 9:29 You warned them, so they might turn back to your law. Yet they acted arrogantly and did not listen to your commands. They sinned against your decrees which give life to anyone who obeys them. They gave the stubborn shoulder blade, stiffened their neck, and refused to listen.
Neh 9:30 For many years you put up with them and warned them by your Ruach through your prophets. Yet they did not listen. So you gave them into the hand of the neighboring people.
Neh 9:31 But in your great mercies you did not make a complete end of them, or forsake them, for you are a gracious and merciful Almighty.
Neh 9:32 Now therefore, our Divine One, you great, powerful, and awesome Almighty who keeps your covenant and steadfast love, do not let all this hardship seem little to you that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, on our priests, on our prophets, on our ancestors, and on all your people from the days of the kings of Assyria until today.
Neh 9:33 You are just in everything that has come on us, for you have dealt faithfully, but we have acted wickedly.
Neh 9:34 Our kings, our princes, our priests, and our ancestors have not kept your law, nor paid attention to your commandments or your covenant decrees by which you warned them.
Neh 9:35 Even in their own kingdom, while they enjoyed your great goodness to them, in the large and productive land you set before them, they did not serve you or turn away from their evil ways.
Neh 9:36 Now we are slaves in the land you gave our ancestors to enjoy its fruit and its good gifts, and behold, we are slaves in it!
Neh 9:37 The rich yield from our land goes to the kings you have set over us because of our sins. They rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they please. We are in great distress.
Neh 9:38 Because of all this, we make a firm covenant in writing. On the sealed document are the names of our princes, Levites, and priests."

Nehemiah Chapter 10

Neh 10:1 On the sealed documents were Nehemiah, the governor, son of Hacaliah and Zedekiah,
Neh 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
Neh 10:3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
Neh 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
Neh 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
Neh 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
Neh 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
Neh 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests.
Neh 10:9 The Levites were: Jeshua son of Azaniah (Azanyah), Binnui of the family of Henadad, Kadmiel,
Neh 10:10 and their fellow Levites, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
Neh 10:11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,
Neh 10:12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
Neh 10:13 Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.
Neh 10:14 The leaders of the people were: Parosh, Pahath Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
Neh 10:15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
Neh 10:16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
Neh 10:17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
Neh 10:18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,
Neh 10:19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
Neh 10:20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
Neh 10:21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
Neh 10:22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
Neh 10:23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,
Neh 10:24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
Neh 10:25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
Neh 10:26 Ahiah (Achiyah), Hanan, Anan,
Neh 10:27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.
Neh 10:28 As for the rest of the people, who were priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the people of the neighboring lands and pledged themselves to the law of the Almighty, including their wives, their sons and their daughters, all who have knowledge and understanding:
Neh 10:29 They joined together with their brothers, their nobles, and bound themselves with both a curse and an oath to walk in the law of the Almighty, which was given by Moses the servant of the Almighty, and to observe and obey all the commandments of Yehowah our Lord, his decrees, and his statutes.

Neh 10:30 We promised that we would not give our daughters to the people of the land or take their daughters for our sons.
Neh 10:31 We also promised that if the people of the land bring goods or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy from them on the Sabbath or on any set-apart day. Every seventh year we will let our fields rest, and we will cancel all debts.
Neh 10:32 We accepted the commands to give one third-weight silver coin each year for the service of the temple of our Divine One,
Neh 10:33 to provide for the bread of the presence, and for the regular grain offering, the burnt offerings on the Sabbaths, the beginning of the months and appointment calendar festivals, and for the set-apart offerings, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, as well as for all the work of the temple of our Divine One.
Neh 10:34 The priests, the Levites, and the people cast lots for the wood offering. The lots would select which of our families would bring wood into the temple of our Divine One at the appointed times each year, to be burned on the altar of Yehowah our Divine One, as it is written in the law.
Neh 10:35 We promised to bring to the temple of Yehowah the firstfruits grown from our soil, and the firstfruits of every tree each year.
Neh 10:36 As it is written in the law, we promised to bring to the temple of the Almighty and to the priests who serve in the temple of the Almighty, the firstborn of our sons and of our herds and flocks.
Neh 10:37 We will bring the first of our dough and our grain offerings, and the fruit of every tree, and the new wine and the oil we will bring to the priests, to the storerooms of the temple of our Divine One. We will bring to the Levites the tithes from our soil, because the Levites collect the tithes in all the towns where we work.
Neh 10:38 A priest, a descendant of Aaron, must be with the Levites when they receive the tithes. The Levites must bring a tenth of the tithes to the temple of our Divine One to the storerooms of the treasury.
Neh 10:39 For the people of Israel and the descendants of Levi are to bring the contributions of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are kept, and where the priests who are serving, and the gatekeepers and the singers stay. We will not neglect the temple of our Divine One.

Nehemiah Chapter 11

Neh 11:1 The leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one of ten to live in Jerusalem, the set-apart city, and the other nine remained in other towns.
Neh 11:2 Then the people blessed all those who willingly offered to live in Jerusalem.
Neh 11:3 These are the provincial officials who lived in Jerusalem. However, in the towns of Judah everyone lived on his own land, including some Israelis, priests, Levites, temple servants, and descendants of Solomon's servants.
Neh 11:4 In Jerusalem lived some of the descendants of Judah and some of the descendants of Benjamin. The people from Judah included: Athaiah son of Uzziah son of Zechariah son of Amariah son of Shephatiah son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez.
Neh 11:5 There was Maaseiah son of Baruch son of Col Hozeh son of Hazaiah (Chazayah) son of Adaiah son of Joiarib son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.
Neh 11:6 All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were 468. They were outstanding men.
Neh 11:7 These are the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam son of Joed son of Pedaiah son of Kolaiah (Qolayah) son of Maaseiah son of Ithiel son of Jeshaiah,
Neh 11:8 and those following him, Gabbai and Sallai, 928 men.
Neh 11:9 Joel son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in command over the city.
Neh 11:10 From the priests: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin,
Neh 11:11 Seraiah son of Hilkiah son of Meshullam son of Zadok son of Meraioth son of Ahitub, the chief official of the temple of the Almighty,
Neh 11:12 and their associates who did the work for the temple, 822 men, along with Adaiah son of Jeroham son of Pelaliah (Pelalyah) son of Amzi son of Zechariah son of Pashhur son of Malchijah.
Neh 11:13 His brothers were heads of clans, 242 men; and Amashsai son of Azarel son of Ahzai son of Meshillemoth son of Immer,
Neh 11:14 and their brothers, 128 courageous fighting men; their overseer was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.
Neh 11:15 From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub son of Azrikam son of Hashabiah son of Bunni,
Neh 11:16 and Shabbethai and Jozabad, who were from the leaders of the Levites and were in charge of the outside work of the temple of the Almighty.

Neh 11:17 There was Mattaniah son of Mica son of Zabdi, a descendant of Asaph, who was the director who began the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah (Baqbuqyah), the second among his brothers, and Abda son of Shammua son of Galal son of Jeduthun.
Neh 11:18 All the Levites in the set-apart city numbered 284.
Neh 11:19 The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon, and their associates, who kept watch at the gates, 172 men.
Neh 11:20 The remainder of Israel and of the priests and the Levites were in all the towns of Judah. Everyone lived on his own inherited property.
Neh 11:21 The temple workers lived in Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.
Neh 11:22 The chief officer over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani son of Hashabiah son of Mattaniah son of Mica, of the descendants of Asaph, singers over the work in the temple of the Almighty.
Neh 11:23 They were under orders from the king, and firm orders were given for the singers as every day required.
Neh 11:24 Then Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, a descendant of Zerah son of Judah, was at the king's side in all matters concerning the people.
Neh 11:25 As for the villages and their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba (Hebron) and its villages, and in Dibon and its villages, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,
Neh 11:26 and in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet,
Neh 11:27 Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages.
Neh 11:28 Some of the people of Judah lived in Ziklag, Meconah and its villages,
Neh 11:29 Enrimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth,
Neh 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, and in Lachish its fields and Azekah (aka Moresheth Gath) and its villages. So they lived from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.
Neh 11:31 The people of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash and Aija, at Bethel and its villages,
Neh 11:32 at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,
Neh 11:33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,
Neh 11:34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,
Neh 11:35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.
Neh 11:36 Some of the Levites who lived in Judah were assigned to the people of Benjamin.

Nehemiah Chapter 12

Neh 12:1 These were the priests and Levites who came up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
Neh 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
Neh 12:3 Shecaniah, Rehum, and Meremoth.
Neh 12:4 There were Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah,
Neh 12:5 Mijamin, Moadiah, Bilgah,
Neh 12:6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,
Neh 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Jeshua.
Neh 12:8 The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was in charge of the thanksgiving songs, along with his associates.
Neh 12:9 Bakbukiah and Unni, their associates, stood opposite them during the service.
Neh 12:10 Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim was the father of Eliashib, Eliashib was the father of Joiada,
Neh 12:11 Joiada was the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.
Neh 12:12 In the days of Joiakim these were the priests, the leaders of the families: Meraiah was the leader of Seraiah, Hananiah was the leader of Jeremiah,
Neh 12:13 Meshullam was the leader of Ezra, Jehohanan was the leader of Amariah,
Neh 12:14 Jonathan was the leader of Malluch, and Joseph was the leader of Shebaniah.
Neh 12:15 Adna was the leader of Harim, Helkai was the leader of Meraioth, Neh 12:16 Zechariah was the leader of Iddo, Meshullam was the leader of Ginnethon, and Neh 12:17 Zichri was the leader of Abijah, of Miniamin. Piltai was the leader of Moadiah.
Neh 12:18 Shammua was the leader of Bilgah, Yehonathan was the leader of Shemaiah,
Neh 12:19 Mattenai was the leader of Joiarib, Uzzi was the leader of Jedaiah,
Neh 12:20 Kallai was the leader of Sallai, Eber was the leader of Amok,
Neh 12:21 Hashabiah was the leader of Hilkiah, and Nethanel was the leader of Jedaiah.

Neh 12:22 In the days of Eliashib, the Levites Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were recorded as the heads of families, and the priests were recorded during the reign of Darius the Persian.
Neh 12:23 The descendants of Levi, their leaders of families, were recorded in the Book of the Annals up to the days of Johanan son of Eliashib.
Neh 12:24 The leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel, with their associates, who stood opposite them to give praise and to give thanks, responding section by section, in obedience to the command of David, the man of the Almighty.
Neh 12:25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers standing guard at the storerooms by the gates.
Neh 12:26 They served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priest and scribe.
Neh 12:27 At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, the people sought out the Levites wherever they lived, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with joy, with thanksgivings and singing with cymbals, harps, and with lyres!
Neh 12:28 The fellowship of singers gathered together from the district around Jerusalem and from the villages of the Netophathites.
Neh 12:29 They also came from Beth Gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built for themselves villages around Jerusalem.
Neh 12:30 The priests and the Levites purified themselves, and then they purified the people, the gates, and the wall.
Neh 12:31 Then I had the leaders of Judah go up to the top of the wall, and I appointed two large choirs who gave thanks. One went to the right on the wall toward the Dung Gate.
Neh 12:32 Hoshaiah (Hoshayah) and half the leaders of Judah followed them,
Neh 12:33 and after them went Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,
Neh 12:34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah,
Neh 12:35 and some of the priests' sons with trumpets, and Zechariah son of Jonathan son of Shemaiah son of Mattaniah son of Micaiah son of Zaccur son of Asaph.
Neh 12:36 There also were Zechariah's relatives, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of the Almighty. Ezra the scribe was in front of them.
Neh 12:37 By the Fountain Gate they went straight up on the stairs of the City of David, by the stairway to the wall above David's palace, to the Water Gate on the east.
Neh 12:38 The other choir of those who gave thanks went in the other direction. I followed them on the wall with half the people, above the Tower of Ovens, to the Broad Wall,

Neh 12:39 above the Gate of Ephraim, by the Old Gate, by the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate, and they stopped at the Gate of the Guard.
Neh 12:40 So both choirs of those who gave thanks took their place in the temple of the Almighty, and I also took my place with half of the officials with me.
Neh 12:41 Then the priests took their place: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with the trumpets,
Neh 12:42 Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers made themselves heard with Jezrahiah (Yizrachyah) as director.
Neh 12:43 They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced, for the Almighty had made them rejoice with great joy! Also the women and the children rejoiced! So the joy of Jerusalem could be heard far away.
Neh 12:44 On that day, men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms for the contributions, the firstfruits, and the tithes, to gather into them the portions required by the law for the priests and for the Levites. Each was assigned to work the fields near the towns. For Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who were standing before them.
Neh 12:45 They performed the service of their Divine One, and the service of purification, and so did the singers and the gatekeepers, in keeping with the command of David and of Solomon his son.
Neh 12:46 For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there were directors of singers, and there were songs of praise and thanksgiving to the Almighty.
Neh 12:47 In the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They set aside the portion that was for the Levites, and the Levites set aside a portion for the descendants of Aaron.

Nehemiah Chapter 13

Neh 13:1 On that day, they read the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people. It was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should come into the congregation of the Almighty, forever.
Neh 13:2 This was because they had not come to the people of Israel with bread and water, but they had hired Balaam to curse Israel. However, our Divine One turned the curse into a blessing.
Neh 13:3 As soon as they heard the law, they separated out from Israel every person of foreign pagan lineage.
Neh 13:4 Now before this, Eliashib the priest was appointed over the storerooms of the temple of our Divine One. He was related to Tobiah.
Neh 13:5 Eliashib prepared for Tobiah a large storeroom, where previously they kept the grain offering, the incense, the articles, and the tithes of the grain, new wine, and the oil, which were designated for the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.
Neh 13:6 But in all this time, I was not in Jerusalem. For in the thirty-second year (c. 432 BC) of Artaxerxes I Longimanus, king of Babylon, I went to the king. After some time, I asked the king for permission to leave,
Neh 13:7 and I returned to Jerusalem. I understood the evil that Eliashib had done by giving Tobiah a storeroom in the courts of the temple of the Almighty.
Neh 13:8 I was extremely angry, and I threw all Tobiah's household articles out of the storeroom.
Neh 13:9 I ordered that they purify the storerooms, and I put back in them the articles of the temple of the Almighty, the grain offerings, and the incense.
Neh 13:10 I learned that the Levites' portions had not been given to them, and they had run away, each to his own field, the Levites and the singers who did the work.
Neh 13:11 So I confronted the officials and asked, "Why is the temple of the Almighty neglected?" I gathered them together and stationed them at their posts.
Neh 13:12 Then all Judah brought in the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the storerooms.
Neh 13:13 I appointed as treasurers over the storehouses Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and from the Levites, Pedaiah. Next to them was Hanan son of Zaccur son of Mattaniah, for they were counted as trustworthy. Their duties were to distribute the supplies to their associates.
Neh 13:14 Call me to mind, my Divine One, concerning this, and do not wipe out the good deeds that I have done for the temple of my Divine One and its services.

Neh 13:15 In those days, I saw in Judah people treading about their farmsteads on the Sabbath, bringing in heaps of grain, and loading them on jack donkeys, and also wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of heavy loads, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. I protested that they were selling food on that day.
Neh 13:16 Men from Tyre living in Jerusalem brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and they sold them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah and in Jerusalem!
Neh 13:17 Then I confronted the leaders of Judah, “What is this evil thing you are doing, profaning the Sabbath day?
Neh 13:18 Did not your fathers do this? Did not our Divine One bring all this evil on us and on this city? Now you are bringing more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath!”
Neh 13:19 As soon as it became dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors be shut, and that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I stationed some of my servants at the gates, so no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.
Neh 13:20 The merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares camped outside Jerusalem once or twice.
Neh 13:21 But I warned them, “Why do you camp outside the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!” From that time on, they did not come on the Sabbath.
Neh 13:22 Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves, and come and guard the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Call me to mind for this also, my Divine One, and have mercy on me, because of the covenant loyalty you have toward me.
Neh 13:23 In those days, I also saw Jews that had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.
Neh 13:24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod. None of them could speak the language of Judah, but only the language of one of the other people.
Neh 13:25 I confronted them, and I cursed them, and I hit some of them and pulled out their hair. I made them swear by the Almighty, “You will not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves.
Neh 13:26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin on account of these women? Among many ethnicities there was no king like him, and he was loved by his Divine One, and the Almighty made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless, his foreign wives caused him to sin.
Neh 13:27 Should we then listen to you and do all this great evil, and act treacherously against our Divine One by marrying women of foreign pagan lineage?”

Neh 13:28 One of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib the high priest was son-in-law to Sanballat I, the Horonite. Therefore, I caused him to flee from my presence.
Neh 13:29 Call them to mind, my Divine One, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood and Levites.
Neh 13:30 Thus I cleansed them from everything foreign, and established the duties of the priests and the Levites, each to his own task.
Neh 13:31 I provided for the wood offering at the appointed times and for the firstfruits. Call me to mind, my Divine One, for good.

Book of Esther

Esther Chapter 1

Est 1:1 In the days of Ahasuerus (Xerxes I), this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India as far as Cush, over 127 provinces:
Est 1:2 In those days, King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne in the fortress of Susa.
Est 1:3 In the third year of his reign (c. 483 BC), he gave a feast to all his officials and his servants. The military force of Persia and Media, the noblemen, and governors of the provinces were in his presence.
Est 1:4 He displayed the wealth of the splendor of his kingdom and the honor of the glory of his greatness for many days, for 180 days.
Est 1:5 When these days were completed, the king gave a feast lasting seven days. It was for all the people in the palace of Susa, from the greatest to the least significant. It was held in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace.
Est 1:6 The courtyard of the garden was decorated with curtains of white linen and violet, with cords of white cotton and purple, hung on silver rings from pillars of marble. There were couches of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and colored paving stones.
Est 1:7 Drinks were served in golden cups. Each cup was unique, and there was much royal wine that came because of the king's generosity.
Est 1:8 The drinking was carried out in keeping with the decree, "There must be no compulsion." The king had given orders to all the staff of his palace to do for them whatever each guest desired.
Est 1:9 Also, Queen Vashti gave a feast for the women in the royal palace of King Ahasuerus.
Est 1:10 On the seventh day, when the king's heart was feeling happy because of the wine, he told Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven eunuchs who served before him,
Est 1:11 to bring Queen Vashti before him with her royal crown. He wanted to show the people and the officials her beauty, for her features were exquisite.
Est 1:12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the word of the king that had been brought to her by the eunuchs. Then the king became extremely angry; his rage burned within him.

Est 1:13 So the king conferred with the men who were known to be wise, who understood the times, for this was the king's procedure toward all who were expert in law and judgment.
Est 1:14 Now the ones close to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, seven princes of Persia and Media. They had access to the king, and they held the highest offices within the kingdom.
Est 1:15 "In compliance with the law, what is to be done to Queen Vashti, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus, which was brought to her by the eunuchs?"
Est 1:16 Memucan said in the presence of the king and the officials, "Not only against the king has Vashti the queen done wrong, but also against all the officials and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.
Est 1:17 For the matter of the queen will become known to all women. It will cause them to treat their husbands with contempt. They will say, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought before him, but she refused.'
Est 1:18 Before the end of this day, the noble women of Persia and Media who have heard of the matter of the queen will say the same thing to all the king's officials. There will be much contempt and anger.
Est 1:19 If it pleases the king, let a royal decree be sent out from him, and let it be written in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti may no longer come before him. Let the king give her position as queen to another who is better than she.
Est 1:20 When the king's decree is proclaimed throughout all his vast kingdom, all the wives will honor their husbands, from the greatest to the least significant."
Est 1:21 The king and his noblemen were pleased with this advice, and the king did as Memucan proposed.
Est 1:22 He sent out letters to all the royal provinces, to each province in its own writing, and to every ethnicity in their own language. He ordered that every man should be master of his own household. This decree was published in the language of every ethnicity in the empire.

Esther Chapter 2

Est 2:1 After these things, when the anger of King Ahasuerus subsided, he thought about Vashti and what she had done. He also thought about the decree that he had made against her.
Est 2:2 Then the king's young men who served him advised, "Let a search be made on the king's behalf for beautiful young virgins.
Est 2:3 Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, to gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the harem in the palace in Susa. Let them be put under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women, and let him give them their cosmetics.
Est 2:4 Let the young girl who pleases the king become queen in the place of Vashti." This advice pleased the king, and he did so.
Est 2:5 There was a certain Jew (Yehudi) in the city of Susa whose name was Mordecai, son of Jair son of Shimei son of Kish, who was a Benjamite.
Est 2:6 He (Kish) had been taken away from Jerusalem with the exiles along with those taken with Jehoiachin, king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylonia carried away (c. 598 BC).
Est 2:7 He (Mordecai) was caring for Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter, because she had neither father nor mother. The young woman had a beautiful figure and was lovely in appearance. Mordecai took her as his own daughter.
Est 2:8 When the king's order and decree were proclaimed, many young women were brought to the palace in Susa. They were put under Hegai's care. Esther also was taken into the king's palace and put under the care of Hegai, the overseer of the women.
Est 2:9 The young girl pleased him, and she found grace with him. Immediately, he provided her with cosmetics and her portion of food. He assigned to her seven servant girls from the king's palace, and he moved her and the servant girls to the best place in the house of the women.
Est 2:10 Esther had not told anyone who her people or relatives were, for Mordecai had instructed her not to tell.
Est 2:11 Every day, Mordecai walked back and forth in front of the courtyard outside the house of the women, to learn about Esther's welfare and what would be done with her.
Est 2:12 When the turn came for each girl to go to King Ahasuerus, complying with the regulations for the women, each girl had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments, six months with oil of myrrh, and six with perfumes and cosmetics.

Est 2:13 When a young woman went to the king, whatever she desired was given to her from the house of the women, for her to take to the palace.
Est 2:14 At dusk she would go in, and at dawn she would return to the second house of the women, and to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who was in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king again, unless he had taken great pleasure in her and called for her again.
Est 2:15 Now when the time came for Esther, daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his own daughter, to go in to the king, she did not ask for anything but what Hegai the king's eunuch, who was in charge of the women, suggested. Now Esther received the grace of all who saw her.
Est 2:16 Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus (Xerxes I) into the royal residence in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign (c. 479 BC).
Est 2:17 The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she received acceptance and grace before him, more than all the other virgins. So he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti.
Est 2:18 The king gave a great feast for all his officials and his servants (for seven days, per LXX), "Esther's feast," and he granted relief from taxation to the provinces. He also gave gifts with royal generosity.
Est 2:19 Now when the virgins had been gathered together a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.
Est 2:20 Esther had not yet told anyone about her relatives or her people, as Mordecai had instructed her. Esther continued to follow Mordecai's advice, as she had done when she was raised by him.
Est 2:21 In those days, while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, two of the king's officials, Bigthan and Teresh, who guarded the doorway, became angry and sought to do harm to King Ahasuerus.
Est 2:22 When the matter was revealed to Mordecai, he told Queen Esther, and Esther spoke to the king in the name of Mordecai.
Est 2:23 The intelligence report was investigated and confirmed, and both the men were executed by hanging from a gallows. This account was written in the Book of The Chronicles in the presence of the king.

Esther Chapter 3

Est 3:1 After these things, King Ahasuerus promoted Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and placed his seat of authority above all the officials who were with him.
Est 3:2 All the king's servants who were at the king's gate always knelt and prostrated themselves to Haman, as the king had ordered them to do. But Mordecai neither knelt nor prostrated himself.
Est 3:3 Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"
Est 3:4 They spoke with him day after day, but he refused to comply with their demands. So they spoke with Haman to see if the matter about Mordecai would remain like that, for he had told them that he was a Jew.
Est 3:5 When Haman saw that Mordecai did not kneel and bow down to him, Haman was filled with rage.
Est 3:6 He had contempt for the idea of killing only Mordecai, for the king's servants had told him who Mordecai's people were. Haman wanted to exterminate all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were in the entire kingdom of Ahasuerus.
Est 3:7 In the first month, which is the month of Nisan (Abib), in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus (c. 474 BC), the Pur, that is the lot, was thrown before Haman, to select a day and month. They cast the lot over and over, until the lot fell on the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.
Est 3:8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and distributed among all the provinces of your kingdom. Their laws are different from those of other people, and they do not keep the king's laws, so it is not suitable for the king to let them stay.
Est 3:9 If it please the king, give a command to kill them, and I will weigh out 30,000,000-weight of silver coins into the hands of those who are in charge of the king's business, for them to put it into the king's treasury."
Est 3:10 Then the king took the signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.
Est 3:11 The king said to Haman, "I will see that the money is given back to you and your people. You will do with it whatever you wish."
Est 3:12 Then the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree containing all that Haman had commanded was written to the king's provincial governors, those who were over all the provinces, to the governors of all the various ethnicities, and to the officials of all the people, to every province in their own writing, and to every ethnicity in their own language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and was sealed with his ring.

Est 3:13 Documents were hand-delivered by couriers to all the king's provinces, to annihilate, kill, and destroy all Jews, from young to old, children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and to plunder their possessions.
Est 3:14 A copy of the letter was made law in every province. In every province it was made known to all the people that they should prepare for this day.
Est 3:15 The couriers went out and hurried to distribute the king's order. The decree was also distributed within the palace of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in turmoil.

Esther Chapter 4

Est 4:1 When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, Mordecai tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes. He went out into the middle of the city and cried out with a loud and a bitter cry.
Est 4:2 He went up only as far as the king's gate, because no one was allowed to go through it clothed in sackcloth.
Est 4:3 In every province, wherever the king's command and decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and lamenting. Many of them lay in sackcloth and ashes.
Est 4:4 When Esther's young women and her eunuchs came and told her, the queen was in great distress. She sent garments to clothe Mordecai, so he could take off his sackcloth, but he would not accept them.
Est 4:5 Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs who had been assigned to serve her. She ordered him to go to Mordecai to learn what had happened and what it meant.
Est 4:6 So Hathach went to Mordecai in the city square in front of the king's gate.
Est 4:7 Mordecai reported to him all that had happened to him, and the total amount of silver coins that Haman had promised to weigh out and put into the king's treasuries in order to exterminate the Jews.
Est 4:8 He also gave him a copy of the decree that was issued in Susa for the Jews' destruction. He did this, so that Hathach could show it to Esther, and that he should give her the responsibility of going to the king to beg for his grace, and to plead with him on behalf of her people.
Est 4:9 So Hathach went and told Esther what Mordecai had said.
Est 4:10 Then Esther spoke to Hathach and told him to go back to Mordecai.
Est 4:11 She said, "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that if any man or woman goes to the king inside the inner courtyard without being summoned, there is only one law: That he must be executed, except for anyone to whom the king holds out the golden scepter, so that he may live. I have not been called to come to the king these thirty days."
Est 4:12 So Hathach reported Esther's words to Mordecai.
Est 4:13 Mordecai sent back this message to Esther: "You must not think that in the king's palace, you will escape any more than all the other Jews.
Est 4:14 If you remain silent at this time, relief and rescue will rise up for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows whether you have come to this royal position for such a time as this?"
Est 4:15 Then Esther sent this message to Mordecai,

Est 4:16 “Go, gather together all the Jews who live in Susa and fast for me. Do not eat nor drink for three days, night or day. My young girls and I will fast in the same way. Then I will go to the king, even though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish.”
Est 4:17 Mordecai went and did all that Esther told him to do.

Esther Chapter 5

Est 5:1 On the third day, Esther put on royal robes and went to stand in the inner courtyard of the king's palace, in front of the king's house. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance to the house.
Est 5:2 When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she received approval in his eyes. He held out to Esther the golden scepter in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.
Est 5:3 Then the king asked her, "What do you want, Queen Esther? What is your request? Up to half of my kingdom, it will be given to you."
Est 5:4 Esther replied, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to a feast that I have prepared for him."
Est 5:5 Then the king ordered, "Bring Haman quickly, to do what Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the feast that Esther had prepared.
Est 5:6 When the wine was being served at the feast, the king asked Esther, "What is your petition? It will be granted you. What is your request? Up to half of the kingdom, it will be granted."
Est 5:7 Esther responded, "My petition and my request is this:
Est 5:8 If I have found grace in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to honor my request, let the king and Haman come to the feast that I will prepare for you tomorrow, and I will answer the king's question."
Est 5:9 Haman went out that day joyful and glad at heart. But when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate, that Mordecai neither rose up nor trembled before him with any fear, Haman was filled with rage against Mordecai.
Est 5:10 Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went to his own house. He sent for his friends and gathered them together, with Zeresh his wife.
Est 5:11 Haman recounted to them the splendor of his riches, the number of his many sons, all the promotions by which the king honored him, and how he had advanced above all the officials and the servants of the king.
Est 5:12 Haman said, "Queen Esther invited no one else but me to come with the king to the feast she prepared. Even tomorrow, I am again invited by her along with the king.
Est 5:13 But all this is worth nothing to me, as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."
Est 5:14 Then Zeresh his wife said to him and all his friends, "Let them make a gallows twenty-five meters high. At dawn, speak to the king for them to hang Mordecai on it. Then go joyfully with the king to the feast." This pleased Haman, and he had the gallows constructed.

Esther Chapter 6

Est 6:1 That night the king could not sleep. He commanded servants to bring the written records of the events of his reign, and they were being read aloud to the king.
Est 6:2 It was found recorded there that Mordecai had told about Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officials who guarded the entrance, who had tried to harm King Ahasuerus.
Est 6:3 The king asked, "What was done to give honor or recognition to Mordecai for doing this?" Then the king's young men, his servants, answered, "Nothing was done for him."
Est 6:4 The king asked, "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Haman had entered the outer courtyard of the king's house to speak to him about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he set up for him.
Est 6:5 The king's servants answered him, "Haman is standing in the courtyard." The king ordered, "Let him come in."
Est 6:6 When Haman entered, the king asked him, "What should be done for the man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring?" Now Haman thought in his heart, "Whom would the king take pleasure in honoring more than me?"
Est 6:7 Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring,
Est 6:8 let royal robes be brought, robes that the king has worn, and a horse that the king has ridden, and on whose head is the royal crest.
Est 6:9 Then let the robes and the horse be given to one of the king's most noble officials. Let them dress the man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring, and let them lead him on the horse through the city streets. Let them proclaim before him, 'This is what is done to the one whom the king takes pleasure in honoring!'"
Est 6:10 Then the king ordered Haman, "Hurry, take the robes and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew who sits at the king's gate. Do not fail in a single matter of what you have said."
Est 6:11 Then Haman took the robe and the horse. He dressed Mordecai and led him on the horse through the city streets. He proclaimed before him, "This is what is done for a man whom the king takes pleasure in honoring!"
Est 6:12 Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning, with his head covered.
Est 6:13 Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that happened to him. Then his men who were known for their wisdom, and Zeresh his wife, said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is Jewish, you will not overcome him, but you will certainly fall before him."

Est 6:14 While they were talking with him, the king’s eunuchs arrived. They hurried to bring Haman to the feast that Esther had prepared.

Esther Chapter 7

Est 7:1 So the king and Haman went to feast with Queen Esther.
Est 7:2 On this second day, while they were serving wine, the king asked Esther, “What is your petition, Queen Esther? It will be granted to you. What is your request? Up to half of the kingdom, and it will be granted.”
Est 7:3 Then Queen Esther answered, “If I have found grace in your eyes, king, and if it pleases you, let my life be given to me, this is my petition, and I request this also for my people.
Est 7:4 For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, murdered, and annihilated. If we had only been sold into slavery, as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, for no such distress as this would justify disturbing the king.”
Est 7:5 Then King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, “Who is he? Where is the one who has filled his heart to do such a thing?”
Est 7:6 Esther answered, “The hostile man, that enemy, is this evil Haman!” Then Haman was terrified before the king and the queen.
Est 7:7 The king rose up in a rage from the wine-drinking at the feast and went into the palace garden, but Haman stayed to beg for his life from Queen Esther. He saw that disaster was being decided against him by the king.
Est 7:8 Then the king returned from the palace garden into the room where the wine had been served. Haman had just fallen on the couch where Esther was. The king asked, “Will he assault the queen in my presence in my own house?” As soon as this sentence came out of the king’s mouth, the servants covered Haman’s face.
Est 7:9 Then Harbona, one of the officials who served the king, said, “A gallows twenty-five meters tall stands beside Haman’s house. Haman set it up for Mordecai, the one who spoke up to protect the king.” The king ordered, “Hang him on it!”
Est 7:10 So they executed Haman by hanging him on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king’s rage died down.

Esther Chapter 8

Est 8:1 On that day, King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the property of Haman, the enemy of the Jews, and Mordecai began to serve before the king, for Esther told the king how Mordecai was related to her.
Est 8:2 The king took off his signet ring, which he had taken back from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther designated Mordecai to be in charge of Haman's estate.
