Est 8:4 Then the king held out the golden scepter to Esther, so Esther arose and stood before the king.
Est 8:5 She entreated, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found grace in your sight, if the thing seems right before the king, and I am pleasing in your eyes, let a decree be written to revoke the letters written by Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the letters that he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces.
Est 8:6 For how could I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How could I endure watching the destruction of my relatives?"
Est 8:7 King Ahasuerus spoke to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Look, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows, because he was going to attack the Jews.
Est 8:8 Write another decree for the Jews in the name of the king and seal it with the king's ring. For the decree that has already been written in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring cannot be revoked."
Est 8:9 Then the king's scribes were called at that time, on the twenty-third of the third month, which is the month of Sivan. A decree was written containing all that Mordecai was commanding concerning the Jews. It was written to the provincial governors, the governors and officials of the provinces that were located from India to Cush, 127 provinces, to every province written in their own writing, and to every ethnicity in their language, and to the Jews in their writing and language.
Est 8:10 Mordecai wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed it with the king's signet ring. He sent the documents by couriers riding on fast horses, mules, camels, and young female dromedaries.
Est 8:11 The king gave to the Jews who were in every city permission to gather together and to make a stand to protect their lives: To annihilate, to kill, and to destroy any armed force from any people or province that might attack them, children and women included, or to plunder their possessions.

Est 8:12 This was to be in effect in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.
Est 8:13 A copy of the decree was to be issued as a law and publicly displayed to all the people. The Jews were to be ready on that day to take vengeance on their enemies.
Est 8:14 So the couriers rode on the royal horses, mules, and camels that were used in the king's service. They went without delay. The king's decree was also issued from the palace in Susa.
Est 8:15 Then Mordecai left the king's presence wearing royal clothes of blue and white linen, with a great crown of gold and a purple robe of fine linen, and the city of Susa shouted and rejoiced!
Est 8:16 The Jews had light and gladness, and joy and honor.
Est 8:17 In every province and in every city, wherever the king's decree reached, there was gladness and joy among the Jews, a feast and a holiday. Many from among the variety of people of the land became Jews, because the fear of the Jews had fallen on them.

Esther Chapter 9

Est 9:1 Now on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, when the king's law and decree were about to be carried out, on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to gain power over them, it was reversed. The Jews gained power over those who hated them.
Est 9:2 The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, to lay hands on those who tried to bring disaster on them. No one could stand against them, for the fear of them had fallen on all the people.
Est 9:3 All the officials of the provinces, the provincial governors, the governors, and the king's administrators, helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them.
Est 9:4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces, for the man Mordecai was becoming great.
Est 9:5 The Jews attacked their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them, and did as they pleased to those who hated them.
Est 9:6 In Susa, the fortress itself, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.
Est 9:7 They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,
Est 9:8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,
Est 9:9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, Vaizatha,
Est 9:10 and the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not take any plunder.
Est 9:11 That day the number of those killed in Susa, the fortified city, was reported to the king.
Est 9:12 The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed five hundred men in the city of Susa, including the ten sons of Haman. What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be granted you. What is your request? It will be granted to you."
Est 9:13 Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the Jews who are in Susa be permitted to carry out this day's decree tomorrow also, and let the bodies of Haman's ten sons be hanged on gallows."
Est 9:14 So the king commanded that this be done. A decree was issued in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman.
Est 9:15 The Jews who were in Susa came together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and killed three hundred more men in Susa, but laid no hands on the plunder.
Est 9:16 The rest of the Jews who were in the king's provinces came together to defend their lives, and they got relief from their enemies and killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them, but they did not lay their hands on the valuables of those they killed.

Est 9:17 This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. On the fourteenth day they rested and made that a day of feasting and gladness.
Est 9:18 But the Jews who were in Susa assembled together on the thirteenth and the fourteenth days. On the fifteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
Est 9:19 That is why the Jews of the villages, who make their homes in the rural towns, observe the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of gladness and feasting, and as a day on which they send gifts of food to one another.
Est 9:20 Mordecai recorded these things and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,
Est 9:21 obligating them to keep the fourteenth and the fifteenth day of Adar every year (Feast of Purim).
Est 9:22 These were the days when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and the month when their sorrow turned to joy and mourning into a day of celebration! They were to make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending gifts of food to one another, and gifts to the poor.
Est 9:23 So the Jews continued the celebration they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them.
Est 9:24 At that time, Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and he threw Pur, that is, he threw lots, to crush and destroy them.
Est 9:25 But when the matter came before the king, he gave orders by letters that the wicked plan Haman developed against the Jews should come back on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.
Est 9:26 Therefore, they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Because of everything that was written in this letter, and everything that they had seen and that had happened to them,
Est 9:27 the Jews accepted a new custom and duty. This custom would be for themselves, their descendants, and everyone who joined them. It would be that they would celebrate these two days every year. They would celebrate them in a certain way and at the same time each year.
Est 9:28 These days were to be celebrated and observed in every generation, every family, every province, and every city. These Jews and their descendants would never cease to faithfully observe these days of Purim, so that they should never forget them.
Est 9:29 Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority and confirmed this second letter about Purim.
Est 9:30 Letters were sent to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, wishing the Jews safety and truth.

Est 9:31 These letters confirmed the days of Purim at their appointed times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther obligated the Jews. The Jews accepted this obligation for themselves and their descendants, just as also they accepted times of fasting and lamenting.
Est 9:32 The command of Esther confirmed these regulations regarding Purim, and it was written in the Book.

Esther Chapter 10

Est 10:1 Then King Ahasuerus imposed a tax on the land and on the coastlands along the sea.
Est 10:2 All the achievements of his power and might, together with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king had raised him, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia.
Est 10:3 Mordecai the Jew was second in rank to King Ahasuerus (Xerxes I). He was great among the Jews and popular with his many Jewish brothers, for he sought the welfare of his people, and he spoke for the peace of all his posterity.

Book of Job

Job Chapter 1

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job (Gen. 46:13); and Job was blameless and upright, one who feared the Almighty and turned from evil.
Job 1:2 There were born to him seven sons and three daughters.
Job 1:3 He possessed seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred pairs of oxen, and five hundred jenny donkeys, and a great many servants. He was the man who was the greatest of all the people of the East.
Job 1:4 On each son's assigned day, he would give a feast in his house. They would send and call for their three sisters to eat and drink with them.
Job 1:5 When the days of the feast were over, Job would send for them, and he would consecrate them. He would rise at dawn and offer burnt offerings for each of his children, for he would say, "It may be that my children have sinned and cursed the Almighty in their hearts." Job always did this.
Job 1:6 Then it was the day when the sons of the Almighty came to present themselves before Yehowah. Satan also came with them.
Job 1:7 Yehowah asked Satan, "From where have you come?" Then Satan answered Yehowah, "From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it."
Job 1:8 Yehowah said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears the Almighty and turns from evil."
Job 1:9 Then Satan answered Yehowah, "Does Job fear the Almighty without reason?
Job 1:10 Have you not put a barrier around him, around his house, and around all that is his from every side? You have blessed the deeds of his hands, and his livestock have burst forth in the land.
Job 1:11 But now stretch out your hand and touch all that he has, and see if he does not curse you to your face."
Job 1:12 Yehowah said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your hand. Only against him himself do not stretch out your hand." Then Satan went away from the presence of Yehowah.
Job 1:13 It came about that on a certain day, his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house.

Job 1:14 A messenger came to Job and announced, “The oxen were plowing, and the jenny donkeys were feeding beside them.
Job 1:15 Sheba fell on them and took them away. As for the servants, they have struck them with the mouth of the sword. I alone have escaped to tell you.”
Job 1:16 While he was still speaking, another also came and announced, “The fire of deities fell from the heavens and burned up the sheep and the servants. I alone have escaped to tell you.”
Job 1:17 While he was still speaking, another also came and announced, “The Chaldeans formed three groups, attacked the camels and have taken them away. As for the servants, they have struck them with the mouth of the sword. I alone have escaped to tell you.”
Job 1:18 While he was yet speaking, another also came and announced, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house.
Job 1:19 A strong wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house. It fell on the young people, and they died. I alone have escaped to tell you.”
Job 1:20 Then Job rose, tore his robe, shaved his head, lay facedown on the ground, and worshiped Yehowah.
Job 1:21 He said, “It was naked that I came out of my mother’s womb, and it is naked that I will depart. It is Yehowah who gave, and it is Yehowah who has taken away. May the name of Yehowah be blessed.”
Job 1:22 In all this matter, Job did not sin, nor did he accuse the Almighty of wrongdoing.

Job Chapter 2

Job 2:1 Then it was the day when the sons of the Almighty came to present themselves before Yehowah. Satan also came with them to present himself before Yehowah.
Job 2:2 Yehowah asked Satan, “From where have you come?” Then Satan answered Yehowah, “From wandering on the earth, from going back and forth on it.”
Job 2:3 Yehowah said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears the Almighty and turns away from evil. He still holds fast to his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him without cause.”
Job 2:4 Satan answered Yehowah, “Skin for skin, indeed; a man will give all he has for his life.
Job 2:5 But stretch out your hand now and touch his bones and his flesh, and see if he does not curse you to your face.”
Job 2:6 Yehowah said to Satan, “See, he is in your hand; it is only his life that you must spare.”
Job 2:7 Then Satan went away from the presence of Yehowah. He struck Job with severe boils from the sole of his feet to his head.
Job 2:8 Job took a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat down in the middle of ashes.
Job 2:9 Then his wife said to him, “Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse the Almighty and die!”
Job 2:10 But he responded to her, “You talk as a foolish woman talks. Should we receive the good from the Almighty and not receive the bad?” In all this matter, Job did not sin with his lips.
Job 2:11 Now when Job’s three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, each of them came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They set a time to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.
Job 2:12 When they lifted up their eyes at a distance, they did not recognize him. They raised their voices and wept; each tore his robe and threw dust into the air and upon his own head.
Job 2:13 Then they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was extremely severe.

Job Chapter 3

Job 3:1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born.
Job 3:2 Job said,
Job 3:3 “May the day on which I was born perish, the night that said, ‘A boy has been conceived.’
Job 3:4 May that day be dark; may not the Almighty from above call it to mind, neither may the sun shine on it.
Job 3:5 May darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. May a cloud live over it; may everything that makes the day black truly terrify it.
Job 3:6 As for that night, may thick darkness seize it. May it not rejoice among the days of the year; may it not come into the number of the months.
Job 3:7 See, may that night be barren; may no joyful voice come into it.
Job 3:8 May they curse that day, those who know how to wake up Leviathan.
Job 3:9 May the stars of that day’s dawn be dark. May that day look for light, but find none; neither may it see the eyelashes of the dawn,
Job 3:10 because it did not shut up the doors of my mother’s womb, and because it did not hide trouble from my eyes.
Job 3:11 Why did I not die when I came out from the womb? Why did I not give up my spirit when my mother bore me?
Job 3:12 Why did her knees welcome me? Why did her breasts receive me, so that I should nurse?
Job 3:13 For now I would have been lying down quietly. I would have slept and been at rest
Job 3:14 with kings and counselors of the earth, who built up tombs for themselves that are now in ruins.
Job 3:15 Or I would have been lying with princes who once had gold, who had filled their houses with silver.
Job 3:16 Or perhaps I would have been stillborn, like infants that never see the light.
Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from trouble; there the weary are at rest.
Job 3:19 Both small and great people are there; the servant is free from his master there.
Job 3:20 Why is light given to him who is in misery? Why is life given to the one who is bitter in soul,
Job 3:21 to one who longs for death without it coming; to one who digs for death more than for hidden treasure?

Job 3:22 Why is light given to one who rejoices heartily and is glad, when he finds the grave?
Job 3:23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, a man whom the Almighty has hedged in?
Job 3:24 For my sighing happens instead of eating; my groaning is poured out like water.
Job 3:25 For the thing that I feared has come on me; what I was afraid of has come to me.
Job 3:26 I am not at ease, I am not quiet, and I have no rest; trouble comes instead.”

Job Chapter 4

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
Job 4:2 “If anyone tries to speak with you, will you be impatient? But who can stop himself from speaking?
Job 4:3 See, you have instructed many; you have strengthened weak hands.
Job 4:4 Your words have supported him who was falling; you have made feeble knees firm.
Job 4:5 But now trouble has come to you, and you are weary; it touches you, and you are troubled.
Job 4:6 Is not your fear your confidence, and the integrity of your Ways your hope?
Job 4:7 Think about this, please: Who has ever perished when innocent? Or when were the upright people ever cut off?
Job 4:8 According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble reap it.
Job 4:9 By the breath of the Almighty they perish; by the blast of his anger they are consumed.
Job 4:10 The roaring of the lion, the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions, they are broken.
Job 4:11 The old lion perishes for lack of victims; the cubs of the lioness are scattered everywhere.
Job 4:12 Now a certain matter was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a whisper about it.
Job 4:13 Then came thoughts from visions in the night, when deep sleep falls on people.
Job 4:14 It was at night when fear and trembling came upon me, and all my bones shook.
Job 4:15 Then a spirit passed before my face, and the hair of my flesh stood up.
Job 4:16 The spirit stood still, but I could not discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes; there was silence, and I heard a voice that asked,
Job 4:17 ‘Can a mortal man be more righteous than the Almighty? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?
Job 4:18 See, if Yehowah puts no trust in his servants; if he accuses his angels of folly,
Job 4:19 how much more is this true of those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed sooner than a moth?
Job 4:20 Between dawn and dusk they are destroyed; they perish forever without anyone noticing them.

Job 4:21 Are not their tent cords plucked up among them? They die; they die without wisdom.

Job Chapter 5

Job 5:1 Call out now; is there anyone who will answer you? To which of the set-apart ones will you turn?
Job 5:2 For anger kills the foolish man; jealousy kills the silly one.
Job 5:3 I have seen a foolish person taking root, but suddenly I cursed his home.
Job 5:4 His children are far from safety; they are crushed in the city gate. There is no one to rescue them.
Job 5:5 The hungry eat up their harvest; they even take it from among the thorns. The thirsty pant for their wealth.
Job 5:6 For difficulties do not come out from the soil; neither does trouble sprout from the ground.
Job 5:7 Instead, mankind is born for trouble, just as sparks fly upward.
Job 5:8 But as for me, I would turn to the Almighty himself, and to the Almighty I would commit my cause,
Job 5:9 he who does great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number.
Job 5:10 He gives rain on the earth and sends water on the fields.
Job 5:11 He does this in order to set up on high those who are low; to raise to safety those who mourn.
Job 5:12 He breaks the plans of the crafty people, so that their hands cannot achieve success.
Job 5:13 He traps wise people in their own crafty actions; the plans of twisted people are hurried to their end.
Job 5:14 They encounter darkness in the daytime, and grope at noonday as if it were night.
Job 5:15 But he saves the poor person from the sword in their mouths and the needy person from the hand of mighty people.
Job 5:16 So the poor person has hope, and injustice shuts her own mouth.
Job 5:17 See, blessed is the man whom the Almighty corrects; therefore, do not despise the chastening of the Most Powerful.
Job 5:18 For he wounds and then binds up; he wounds, and then his hands heal.
Job 5:19 He will rescue you out of six troubles; indeed, in seven troubles, no evil will touch you.
Job 5:20 In famine he will rescue you from death, and in war from the hands of those who use the sword.
Job 5:21 You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue; and you will not be afraid of destruction when it comes.
Job 5:22 You will laugh at destruction and famine, and you will not be afraid of wild beasts.

Job 5:23 For you will have a covenant with the stones in your field; you will be at peace with the wild beasts.
Job 5:24 You will know that your tent is in safety; you will visit your sheepfold and find nothing missing.
Job 5:25 You will also know that your posterity will be great, that your offspring will be like the grass on the ground.
Job 5:26 You will come to your grave at a full age, like a stack of grain sheaves that is carried up to the threshing floor.
Job 5:27 See, we have examined this matter; it is like this; listen to it and know it for yourself.'"

Job Chapter 6

Job 6:1 Then Job answered,
Job 6:2 “Oh, if only my anguish were weighed; if only all my calamity were laid in the balance!
Job 6:3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas. That is why my words were reckless.
Job 6:4 For the arrows of the Most Powerful are in me, my spirit drinks up the poison; the terrors of the Almighty have arranged themselves in array against me.
Job 6:5 Does the wild donkey bray in despair when he has grass? Or does the ox low in hunger when it has fodder?
Job 6:6 Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt? Or is there any flavor in mallow juice?
Job 6:7 I refuse to touch them; they are like disgusting food to me.
Job 6:8 Oh, that I might have my request; oh, that the Almighty would grant me the thing I long for:
Job 6:9 That it would please the Almighty to crush me once, that he would let loose his hand and cut me off from this life!
Job 6:10 May this still be my consolation, even if I exult in pain that does not lessen: That I have not denied the words of the Set-apart One.
Job 6:11 What is my strength, that I should try to wait? What is my end, that I should prolong my life?
Job 6:12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh made of bronze?
Job 6:13 Is it not true that I have no help in myself, and that wisdom has been driven out of me?
Job 6:14 To the person who is about to faint, faithfulness should be shown by his friend; even to him who forsakes the fear of the Most Powerful.
Job 6:15 But my brothers have been as faithful to me as a desert streambed, as channels of water that pass away to nothing,
Job 6:16 which are darkened because of ice over them, and because of the snow that hides itself in them.
Job 6:17 When they thaw out, they vanish; when it is hot, they melt out of their place.
Job 6:18 The caravans that travel by their way turn aside for water; they wander into barren land and then perish.
Job 6:19 Caravans from Tema looked there, while companies of Sheba hoped in them.
Job 6:20 They were disappointed because they had been confident of finding water. They went there, but they were deceived.

Job 6:21 For now you friends are nothing to me; you see my dreadful situation and are afraid.
Job 6:22 Did I beg you, ‘Give something to me?’ Or, ‘Offer me a gift from your wealth?’
Job 6:23 Or, ‘Save me from my adversary’s hand?’ Or, ‘Ransom me from the hand of my oppressors?’
Job 6:24 Teach me, and I will hold my peace; make me understand where I have been wrong.
Job 6:25 How painful are truthful words! But your arguments, how do they actually rebuke me?
Job 6:26 Do you plan to ignore my words, treating the words of a desperate man like the wind?
Job 6:27 Indeed, you cast lots for a fatherless child and haggle over your friend like merchandise.
Job 6:28 Now therefore, please look at me, for surely I would not lie to your face.
Job 6:29 Relent, I beg you; let there be no injustice with you; indeed, relent, for my cause is just.
Job 6:30 Is there evil on my tongue? Cannot my mouth detect malicious things?

Job Chapter 7

Job 7:1 Is there not hard labor for every person on earth? Are not his days like the days of a hired man?
Job 7:2 Like a slave earnestly desires the shadows of evening, like a hired man looks for his wages,
Job 7:3 so I have been made to endure months of misery; I have been given trouble-filled nights.
Job 7:4 When I lie down, I ask myself, 'When will I get up, and when will the night be gone?' I am full of tossing to and fro until the day's dawning.
Job 7:5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; the sores in my skin harden up and then dissolve and run afresh.
Job 7:6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they pass without hope.
Job 7:7 Almighty, call to mind that my life is only a breath; my eye will no more see good.
Job 7:8 The eye of the Almighty, who sees me, will see me no more; Your eyes will be on me, but I will not exist.
Job 7:9 As a cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to the place of the dead will come up no more.
Job 7:10 He will return no more to his house; neither will his place know him again.
Job 7:11 Therefore, I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
Job 7:12 Am I the sea or a sea monster that you place a guard over me?
Job 7:13 When I say, 'My bed will comfort me, and my couch will ease my complaint,'
Job 7:14 then you scare me with dreams and terrify me through visions,
Job 7:15 so that I would choose strangling and death rather than preserving these bones of mine.
Job 7:16 I loathe my life; I would not wish to always be alive; let me alone for my days are useless.
Job 7:17 What is man that you should pay attention to him, that you should set your mind on him,
Job 7:18 that you should observe him each dawn and test him every moment?
Job 7:19 How long will it be before you look away from me, before you let me alone long enough for me to swallow down my own saliva?
Job 7:20 Even if I have sinned, what would that do to you, you who watch men? Why have you made a target of me, so that I am a burden for you?

Job 7:21 Why do you not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity? For now will I lie down in the dust; you will seek me carefully, but I will not exist.”

Job Chapter 8

Job 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
Job 8:2 “How long will you say these things? How long will the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?
Job 8:3 Does the Almighty pervert justice? Does the Most Powerful pervert righteousness?
Job 8:4 Your children have sinned against him; we know this, for he gave them into the hand of their sins.
Job 8:5 But suppose you diligently sought Him at dawn and presented your request to the Most Powerful.
Job 8:6 Suppose that you were pure and upright; then he surely would act for you and reward you with a home that truly belonged to you.
Job 8:7 Even though your beginning was small, still your final condition would be much greater.
Job 8:8 Please ask the former generations, and give your attention to what our ancestors learned.
Job 8:9 We were only born yesterday and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow.
Job 8:10 Will they not teach you and tell you? Will they not speak words from their hearts?
Job 8:11 Can papyrus grow without a marsh? Can reeds grow without water?
Job 8:12 While they are still green and not cut down, they wither before any other plant.
Job 8:13 So also are the paths of all who forget the Almighty, the hope of the hypocrite will perish.
Job 8:14 His confidence will break apart, and his trust is as weak as a spider’s web.
Job 8:15 He leans on his house, but it will not support him; he takes hold of it, but it does not stand.
Job 8:17 His roots are wrapped about the heaps of stone; they look for good places among the rocks.
Job 8:18 But if this person is destroyed out of his place, then that place will deny him and say, ‘I never saw you.’
Job 8:19 See, this is the “joy” of such a person’s behavior; other plants will sprout out of the same soil in his place.
Job 8:20 See, the Almighty will not cast away an innocent man; neither will he take the hand of evildoers.
Job 8:21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting!

Job 8:22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame; the tent of the wicked will be no more.”

Job Chapter 9

Job 9:1 Then Job answered,
Job 9:2 “I truly know that this is so. But how can a person be in the right with the Almighty?
Job 9:3 If he wants to argue with Yehowah, he cannot answer him once in a thousand times.
Job 9:4 Yehowah is wise in heart and mighty in strength; who has ever hardened himself against him and succeeded?
Job 9:5 He who removes the mountains without warning anyone, when he overturns them in his anger,
Job 9:6 he who shakes the earth out of its place and sets its supports trembling.
Job 9:7 It is the same Almighty who tells the sun not to rise, and it does not, and who covers up the stars,
Job 9:8 who by himself stretches out the heavens and tramples down the waves of the sea,
Job 9:9 who makes the Bear, Orion, the Pleiades, and the constellations of the south.
Job 9:10 It is the same Almighty who does great things, incomprehensible things, indeed, marvelous things without number.
Job 9:11 See, he goes by me, and I do not see him; he passes on also, but I do not perceive him.
Job 9:12 If he takes something away, who can stop him? Who can ask him, ‘What are you doing?’
Job 9:13 The Almighty will not withdraw his anger; the helpers of Rahab bow beneath him.
Job 9:14 How much less could I answer him, could I choose words to reason with him?
Job 9:15 Even if I were righteous, I could not answer him; I could only plead for mercy with my judge.
Job 9:16 Even if I called, and he answered me, I would not believe that he was listening to my voice.
Job 9:17 For he breaks me with a tempest and multiplies my wounds without cause.
Job 9:18 He does not even allow me to catch my breath; instead, he fills me with bitterness.
Job 9:19 If it is a matter of strength, behold! He is mighty! If it is a matter of justice who can summon him?
Job 9:20 Though I am in the right, my own mouth would condemn me; and though I am blameless, my words would prove me to be guilty.

Job 9:21 I am blameless, but I do not care any more about myself; I despise my own life.
Job 9:22 It makes no difference, which is why I say that he destroys blameless people and wicked people together.
Job 9:23 If a plague should suddenly kill, he would laugh at the afflictions of innocent people.
Job 9:24 The earth is given into the hand of wicked people; Yehowah covers the faces of its judges. If it is not he who does it, then who is it?
Job 9:25 My days are swifter than a running messenger; my days flee away; they see no good anywhere.
Job 9:26 They are as fast as papyrus reed boats, and as fast as the eagle that swoops down on its victim.
Job 9:27 If I said that I would forget about my complaints, that I would take off my sad face and be happy,
Job 9:28 I would be afraid of all my sorrows, because I know that you will not consider me innocent.
Job 9:29 I will be condemned; why, then, should I try in vain?
Job 9:30 If I washed myself with snow water and made my hands ever so clean,
Job 9:31 Yehowah would plunge me in a ditch, and my own clothes would be disgusted with me.
Job 9:32 For Yehowah is not a man, as I am, that I could answer him, that we could come together in court.
Job 9:33 There is no judge between us who might lay his hand upon us both.
Job 9:34 There is no other judge who could take the rod of the Almighty off me, who could keep his terror from frightening me.
Job 9:35 Then would I speak up and not fear him. But as things are now, I cannot do that.

Job Chapter 10

Job 10:1 I am weary of my life; I will give free expression to my complaint; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
Job 10:2 I will say to the Almighty, ‘Do not merely condemn me; show me why you accuse me.
Job 10:3 Is it good to you that you should oppress me, to despise the work of your hands, while you smile on the plans of the wicked?
Job 10:4 Do you have eyes of flesh? Do you see like a man sees?
Job 10:5 Are your days like the days of mankind or your years like the years of people,
Job 10:6 that you inquire after my iniquity and search after my sin,
Job 10:7 although you know I am not guilty, and there is no one who can rescue me from your hand?
Job 10:8 Your hands have framed and fashioned me together round about, yet you are destroying me.
Job 10:9 Call to mind, I beg you, that you have fashioned me like clay; will you bring me into dust again?
Job 10:10 Have you not poured me out like milk and curdled me like cheese?
Job 10:11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews.
Job 10:12 You have granted me life and covenant faithfulness; your help has guarded my spirit.
Job 10:13 Yet these things you hid in your heart, I know that this is what you were thinking:
Job 10:14 That if I sinned, you would notice it; you would not acquit me of my iniquity.
Job 10:15 If I am wicked, woe to me; even if I were righteous, I could not lift up my head, since I am filled with disgrace and am looking at my own suffering.
Job 10:16 If my head lifts itself, you hunt me down like a lion; once again you show yourself powerful to me.
Job 10:17 You bring new witnesses against me and increase your anger against me; you attack me with fresh armed forces.
Job 10:18 Why, then, have you brought me out of the womb? I wish I had given up my spirit, and that no eye had ever seen me.
Job 10:19 I would have been as though I had never existed; I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.
Job 10:20 Are not my days only a few? Stop, then let me alone, so that I may have a little rest, Job 10:21 before I go from where I will not return, to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death,

Job 10:22 the land that is as dark as midnight, the land of the shadow of death, without any order, where the light is like midnight.’”

Job Chapter 11

Job 11:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and asked,
Job 11:2 “Should not such a multitude of words be answered? Should this man, so full of talk, be believed?
Job 11:3 Should your boasting make others remain silent? When you mock our teaching, will no one make you feel ashamed?
Job 11:4 For you say to Yehowah, ‘My beliefs are pure, I am blameless in your eyes.’
Job 11:5 But, oh, that the Almighty would speak and open his lips against you;
Job 11:6 that he would show you the secrets of wisdom! For he is great in understanding. Know then that the Almighty demands from you less than your iniquity deserves.
Job 11:7 Can you understand the Almighty by searching for him? Can you comprehend the Most Powerful perfectly?
Job 11:8 The matter is as high as Heaven; what can you do? It is deeper than the place of the dead; what can you know?
Job 11:9 Its measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
Job 11:10 If he passes through and shuts anyone up, if he calls anyone to judgment, then who can stop him?
Job 11:11 For he knows false people; when he sees iniquity, does he not notice it?
Job 11:12 But foolish people have no understanding; they will get it when a wild donkey gives birth to a man.
Job 11:13 But suppose that you had set your heart right and had reached out with your hands toward Yehowah;
Job 11:14 suppose that iniquity were in your hand, but that then you put it far away from you, and did not let unrighteousness live in your tents.
Job 11:15 Then you would certainly lift up your face without a sign of shame; indeed, you would be steadfast and would not fear.
Job 11:16 You would forget your misery; you would remember it only like waters that have flowed away.
Job 11:17 Your life would be brighter than the noonday; though there were darkness, it would become like the dawn.
Job 11:18 You would be secure because there is hope; indeed, you would find safety about you and would take your rest in safety.
Job 11:19 Also, you would lie down in rest, and none would make you afraid; indeed, many would seek your grace.
Job 11:20 But the eyes of wicked people will fail; they will have no way to flee; their only hope will be a last gasp of life.”

Job Chapter 12

Job 12:1 Then Job answered,
Job 12:2 “No doubt you are the people; wisdom will die with you.
Job 12:3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Indeed, who does not know such things as these?
Job 12:4 I am something for my neighbor to laugh at, I, one who called on the Almighty, and who was answered by him! I, a just and blameless man, I am now something to laugh at.
Job 12:5 In the thought of someone who is at ease, there is contempt for misfortune; he thinks in a way that brings more misfortune to those whose foot is slipping.
Job 12:6 The tents of robbers prosper, and those who provoke the Almighty feel secure; their own hands are their deities.
Job 12:7 But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you; ask the birds of the sky, and they will tell you.
Job 12:8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you; the fish of the sea will declare to you.
Job 12:9 Which animal among all these does not know that the hand of Yehowah has done this?
Job 12:10 In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all mankind.
Job 12:11 Does not the ear test words just as the palate tastes its food?
Job 12:12 With aged men is wisdom; in length of days is understanding.
Job 12:13 With Yehowah are wisdom and might; he has counsel and understanding.
Job 12:14 See, he breaks down, and it cannot be built again; if he imprisons someone, there can be no release.
Job 12:15 See, if he withholds the waters, they dry up; and if he sends them out, they overwhelm the land.
Job 12:16 With him are strength and wisdom; people who are deceived and the deceiver are both in his power.
Job 12:17 He leads counselors away barefoot in sorrow; he turns judges into fools.
Job 12:18 He takes off the chain of authority from kings; he wraps a cloth about their waists.
Job 12:19 He leads priests away barefoot in sorrow and overthrows mighty people.
Job 12:20 He removes the speech of those who had been trusted and takes away the understanding of the elders.

Job 12:21 He pours contempt upon princes and unfastens the belt of strong people.
Job 12:22 He reveals deep things from darkness and brings out to light the shadows where dead people are.
Job 12:23 He makes ethnicities strong, and he also destroys them; He enlarges ethnicities, and he also leads them along as prisoners.
Job 12:24 He takes away understanding from the leaders of the people of the earth; he causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path.
Job 12:25 They grope in the dark without light; he makes them stagger like a drunk man.

Job Chapter 13

Job 13:1 See, my eye has seen all this; my ear has heard and understood it.
Job 13:2 What you know, the same I also know; I am not inferior to you.
Job 13:3 However, I would rather speak with the Most Powerful; I wish to reason with the Almighty.
Job 13:4 But you whitewash the truth with lies; you are all physicians of no value.
Job 13:5 Oh, that you would altogether hold your peace! That would be your wisdom.
Job 13:6 Hear now my own reasoning; listen to the pleading of my own lips.
Job 13:7 Will you speak unrighteously for the Almighty, and will you talk deceitfully for him?
Job 13:8 Would you really show kindness to him? Would you really argue in court as attorneys for the Almighty?
Job 13:9 Would it really be good for you when he searches you out? Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?
Job 13:10 He would surely reprove you, if in secret you showed partiality.
Job 13:11 Would not his majesty make you afraid? Would not his dread fall upon you?
Job 13:12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs made of ashes; your defenses are defenses made of clay.
Job 13:13 Hold your peace, let me alone, so that I may speak, let come what may on me.
Job 13:14 I will take my own flesh in my teeth; I will take my life in my hands.
Job 13:15 See, if he kills me, I will have no hope left; nevertheless, I will defend my Ways before him.
Job 13:16 This will be the reason for my acquittal, that I do not come before him like a hypocrite.
Job 13:17 Almighty, listen carefully to my speech; let my declaration come to your ears.
Job 13:18 See now, I have set my defense in order; I know that I am innocent.
Job 13:19 Who is the one who would argue against me in court? If you came to do so, and if I were proved wrong, then I would be silent and give up my life.
Job 13:20 Almighty, do only two things for me, and then I will not hide myself from your face:
Job 13:21 Withdraw your oppressive hand from me, and do not let your terrors make me afraid.
Job 13:22 Then call me, and I will answer; or let me speak to you, and you answer me.

Job 13:23 How many are my iniquities and sins? Let me know my transgression and my sin.
Job 13:24 Why do you hide your face from me and treat me like your enemy?
Job 13:25 Will you persecute a driven leaf? Will you pursue dry stubble?
Job 13:26 For you write down bitter things against me; you make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
Job 13:27 You also put my feet in the stocks; you closely watch all my paths; you examine the ground where the soles of my feet have walked,
Job 13:28 although I am like a rotten thing that wastes away, like a garment that moths have eaten.

Job Chapter 14

Job 14:1 Man, who is born of woman, lives only a few days and is full of trouble.
Job 14:2 He sprouts from the ground like a flower and is cut down; he flees like a shadow and does not last.
Job 14:3 Do you look at any of these? Do you bring me into judgment with you?
Job 14:4 Who can bring something clean out of something unclean? No one.
Job 14:5 Man's days are determined. The number of his months is with you; you have appointed his limits that he cannot pass.
Job 14:6 Look away from him that he may rest, so that he may enjoy his day like a hired man, if he can do so.
Job 14:7 There can be hope for a tree; if it is cut down, it might sprout again, so that its tender stalk does not disappear.
Job 14:8 Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stump dies in the ground,
Job 14:9 yet even if it only smells water, it will bud and send out branches like a plant.
Job 14:10 But man dies; he becomes weak; indeed, man stops breathing, and then where is he?
Job 14:11 As water disappears from a lake, and as a river loses water and dries up,
Job 14:12 so people lie down and do not rise again. Until the heavens are no more, they will not awake nor be roused out of their sleep.
Job 14:13 Oh, that you would hide me away in the place of the dead away from troubles, and that you would keep me in private, until your wrath is over, that you would set me a fixed time to stay there and then call me to mind!
Job 14:14 If a man dies, will he live again? If so, I would wish to wait all my weary time there, until my release should come.
Job 14:15 You would call, and I would answer you. You would have a desire for the work of your hands.
Job 14:16 You would number and care for my footsteps; you would not keep track of my sin.
Job 14:17 My transgression would be sealed up in a bag; you would cover up my iniquity.
Job 14:18 But even mountains fall and come to nothing; even rocks are moved out of their place;
Job 14:19 the waters wear down the stones; their flooding washes away the dust of the earth. Like this, you destroy the hopes of man.
Job 14:20 You always defeat him, and he passes away; you change his face and send him away to die.

Job 14:21 If his sons are honored, he does not know it; and if they are brought low, he does not see it.
Job 14:22 He feels only the pain of his own body, and he mourns for himself.”

Job Chapter 15

Job 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
Job 15:2 “Should a wise man answer with useless knowledge and fill himself with the east wind?
Job 15:3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk or with speeches with which he can do no good?
Job 15:4 Indeed, you diminish respect for the Almighty; you obstruct devotion to him,
Job 15:5 for your iniquity teaches your mouth; you choose to have the tongue of a crafty man.
Job 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, not mine; indeed, your own lips testify against you.
Job 15:7 Are you the first man that was born? Were you brought into existence before the hills?
Job 15:8 Have you heard the secret knowledge of the Almighty? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
Job 15:9 What do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that is not also in us?
Job 15:10 With us are both the gray-headed and the extremely aged men who are much older than your father.
Job 15:11 Are the consolations of the Almighty too small for you, the words that are gentle toward you?
Job 15:12 Why does your heart carry you away? Why do your eyes flash,
Job 15:13 so that you turn your spirit against the Almighty and bring out such words from your mouth?
Job 15:14 What is man that he should be clean? What is he who is born of a woman that he should be righteous?
Job 15:15 See, Yehowah puts no trust even in his set-apart ones; indeed, Heaven is not clean in his sight;
Job 15:16 how much less clean is one who is abominable and corrupt, a man who drinks iniquity like water!
Job 15:17 I will show you; listen to me; I will announce to you the things I have seen,
Job 15:18 the things that wise men have passed down from their fathers, the things that their ancestors did not hide.
Job 15:19 These were their ancestors, to whom alone the land was given, and among whom no foreigner ever passed.
Job 15:20 The wicked man twists in pain all his days, the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor to suffer.

Job 15:21 A sound of terrors is in his ears; while he is in prosperity, the destroyer will come upon him.
Job 15:22 He does not think that he will return out of darkness; the sword waits for him.
Job 15:23 He goes to various places for bread, asking, ‘Where is it?’ He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.
Job 15:24 Distress and anguish make him afraid; they prevail against him, as a king ready for battle.
Job 15:25 Because he has reached out with his hand against the Almighty and has behaved proudly against the Most Powerful,
Job 15:27 This is true, even though he has covered his face with his fat and gathered fat on his loins,
Job 15:28 and has lived in desolate cities; in houses which no man inhabits now, and which were ready to become heaps.
Job 15:29 He will not be rich; his wealth will not last; not even his shadow will last on the earth.
Job 15:30 He will not depart out of darkness; a flame will dry up his stalks; at the breath of the mouth of the Almighty he will go away.
Job 15:31 Let him not trust in useless things, deceiving himself; for uselessness will be his reward.
Job 15:32 It will happen before his time should come to die; his branch will not be green.
Job 15:33 He will drop his unripe grapes like a grapevine; he will cast off his flowers like the olive tree.
Job 15:34 For the company of hypocrites will be barren; fire will consume their tents of bribery.
Job 15:35 They conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity; their womb conceives deceit.”

Job Chapter 16

Job 16:1 Then Job answered,
Job 16:2 “I have heard many such things; you are all miserable comforters.
Job 16:3 Will useless words ever have an end? What is wrong with you that you answer like this?
Job 16:4 I also could speak as you do, if you were in my place; I could collect and join words together against you and shake my head at you in mockery.
Job 16:5 Oh, how I would encourage you with my mouth! How the comfort from my lips would lighten your grief!
Job 16:6 If I speak, my grief is not lessened; if I keep from speaking, how am I helped?
Job 16:7 But now, Almighty, you have made me weary; you have made all my family desolate.
Job 16:8 You have made me dry up, which itself is a witness against me; the leanness of my body rises up against me, and it testifies against my face.
Job 16:9 Yehowah has torn me in his wrath and persecuted me; He has gnashed me with his teeth; my enemy fastens his eyes on me as he tears me apart.
Job 16:10 People have gaped with open mouth at me; they have hit me reproachfully on the cheek; they have gathered together against me.
Job 16:11 The Almighty hands me over to wicked people, and throws me into the hands of wicked people.
Job 16:12 I was at ease, and he broke me apart. Indeed, he has taken me by the neck and dashed me to pieces; he has also set me up as his target.
Job 16:13 His archers surround me all around; Yehowah pierces my kidneys and does not spare me; he pours out my bile on the ground.
Job 16:14 He smashes through my wall again and again; he runs upon me like a Warrior.
Job 16:15 I have sewn sackcloth on my skin; I have thrust my horn into the ground.
Job 16:16 My face is red with weeping; on my eyelids is the shadow of death,
Job 16:17 although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.
Job 16:18 Earth, do not cover up my blood; let my cry have no resting place.
Job 16:19 Even now, see, my witness is in Heaven; he who vouches for me is on high.
Job 16:20 My friends scoff at me, but my eye pours out tears to the Almighty.
Job 16:21 I ask for that witness in Heaven to argue for this man with the Almighty as a man does with his neighbor!
Job 16:22 For when a few years have passed, I will go to a place from where I will not return.

Job Chapter 17

Job 17:1 My spirit is consumed, and my days are over; the grave is ready for me.
Job 17:2 Surely, there are mockers with me; my eye must always see their provocation.
Job 17:3 Give now a pledge, be a guarantee for me with yourself; who else is there who will help me?
Job 17:4 For you, Yehowah, have kept their hearts from understanding; therefore, you will not exalt them over me.
Job 17:5 He who denounces his friends for a reward, the eyes of his children will fail.
Job 17:6 But he has made me a byword of the people; they spit in my face.
Job 17:7 My eye is also dim because of sorrow; all my body parts are as thin as shadows.
Job 17:8 Upright men will be stunned by this; the innocent man will stir himself up against hypocrites.
Job 17:9 The righteous man will keep to his Way; he who has clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.
Job 17:10 But as for you all, come on now; I will not find a wise man among you.
Job 17:11 My days are past; my plans are over, as are the wishes of my heart.
Job 17:12 These people, these mockers, change the night into day; light is near to darkness.
Job 17:13 Since I look at the place of the dead as my home; since I have spread my couch in the darkness;
Job 17:14 since I have said to the pit, ‘You are my father,’ and to the worm, ‘You are my mother or my sister.’
Job 17:15 Where then is my hope? As for my hope, who can see any?
Job 17:16 Will hope go down with me to the gates of the place of the dead, when we descend to the dust?”

Job Chapter 18

Job 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
Job 18:2 “When will you stop your talk? Consider, and afterwards we will speak.
Job 18:3 Why are we regarded as beasts; why have we become stupid in your sight?
Job 18:4 You who tear at yourself in your anger, should the earth be forsaken for you, or should the rocks be removed out of their places?
Job 18:5 Indeed, the light of the wicked person will be put out; the spark of his fire will not shine.
Job 18:6 The light will be dark in his tent; his lamp above him will be put out.
Job 18:7 The steps of his strength will be made short; his own plans will cast him down.
Job 18:8 For he will be thrown into a net by his own feet; he will walk into a pitfall.
Job 18:9 A trap will take him by the heel; a snare will lay hold on him.
Job 18:10 A noose is hidden for him on the ground; and a trap for him in the way.
Job 18:11 Terrors will make him afraid on every side; they will chase him at his heels.
Job 18:12 His wealth will turn into hunger, and calamity will be ready at his side.
Job 18:13 The parts of his body will be devoured; indeed, the firstborn of death will devour his parts.
Job 18:14 He is torn from the safety of his tent and marched off to the king of terrors.
Job 18:15 People not his own will live in his tent, after they see that sulfur is scattered within his home.
Job 18:16 His roots will be dried up beneath; above will his branch be cut off.
Job 18:17 His memory will perish from the earth; he will have no name in the street.
Job 18:18 He will be driven from light into darkness and be chased from this globe.
Job 18:19 He will have no son or grandson among his people, nor any remaining kinfolk where he had stayed.
Job 18:20 Those who live in the West will be horrified at what happens to him one day; those who live in the East will be frightened by it.
Job 18:21 Surely, such are the homes of unrighteous people, the places of those who do not know the Almighty.”

Job Chapter 19

Job 19:1 Then Job answered,
Job 19:2 “How long will you make me suffer and break me into pieces with words?
Job 19:3 These ten times you have reproached me; you are not ashamed that you have treated me harshly.
Job 19:4 If it is indeed true that I have erred, my error remains my own concern.
Job 19:5 If indeed you will exalt yourselves above me and use my humiliation against me,
Job 19:6 then you should know that the Almighty has done wrong to me and has caught me in his net.
Job 19:7 See, I cry out, “Violence!” but I get no answer. I call out for help, but there is no justice.
Job 19:8 He has walled up my Way, so that I cannot pass, and he has set darkness in my Path.
Job 19:9 He has stripped me of my glory, and he has taken the crown from my head.
Job 19:10 He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone; he has plucked up my hopes like a tree.
Job 19:11 He has also kindled his wrath against me; he regards me as one of his adversaries.
Job 19:12 His troops come on together; they cast up siege mounds against me and encamp around my tent.
Job 19:13 He has put my brothers far from me; my acquaintances are wholly alienated from me.
Job 19:14 My kinsfolk have failed me; my close friends have forgotten me.
Job 19:15 Those who once stayed as guests in my house and my female servants regard me as a foreigner; I am an alien in their sight.
Job 19:16 I call to my servant, but he gives me no answer, although I entreat him with my mouth.
Job 19:17 My breath is offensive to my wife; I am even disgusting to those who were born from my mother’s womb.
Job 19:18 Even young children despise me; if I rise to speak, they speak against me.
Job 19:19 All my familiar friends abhor me; those whom I love have turned against me.
Job 19:20 My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh; I survive only by the skin of my teeth.

Job 19:21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, my friends, for the hand of the Almighty has touched me.
Job 19:22 Why do you persecute me as if you were the Almighty? Why are you not satisfied with consuming my flesh?
Job 19:23 Oh, that my words were now written down! Oh, that they were inscribed in a Book!
Job 19:24 Oh, that with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever!
Job 19:25 But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at last he will stand on the earth;
Job 19:26 after my skin, that is, this body, is destroyed, then in my flesh I will see the Almighty.
Job 19:27 I will see him myself; my eyes, and not someone else, will see him. My heart fails within me.
Job 19:28 If you say, 'How we will persecute him! The root of his troubles lies in him,'
Job 19:29 then be afraid of the sword, because wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is a Judgment."

Job Chapter 20

Job 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered,
Job 20:2 “My thoughts make me answer quickly because of the worry that is in me.
Job 20:3 I hear a rebuke that dishonors me, but a spirit from my understanding answers me.
Job 20:4 Do you not know this fact from ancient times, when Yehowah placed man on earth:
Job 20:5 The triumph of a wicked man is short, and the joy of a hypocrite lasts only for a moment?
Job 20:6 Though his height reaches up to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds,
Job 20:7 yet such a person will perish permanently like his own feces; those who have seen him will ask, ‘Where is he?’
Job 20:8 He will fly away like a dream and will not be found; indeed, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.
Job 20:9 The eye that saw him will see him no more; his place will see him no longer.
Job 20:10 His children will apologize to poor people; his hands will have to give back his wealth.
Job 20:11 His bones are full of youthful strength, but it will lie down with him in the dust.
Job 20:12 Although wickedness is sweet in his mouth, although he hides it under his tongue,
Job 20:13 although he holds it there and does not let it go but keeps it still in his mouth,
Job 20:14 the food in his intestines turns bitter; it becomes the poison of asps inside him.
Job 20:15 He swallows down riches, but he will vomit them up again; the Almighty will cast them out of his stomach.
Job 20:16 He will suck the poison of asps; the viper’s tongue will kill him.
Job 20:17 He will not enjoy the streams, the rivers of honey and butter.
Job 20:18 He will give back the fruit of his labor and will not be able to eat it; he will not enjoy the wealth earned by his commerce.
Job 20:19 For he has oppressed and neglected poor people; he has violently taken away houses that he did not build.
Job 20:20 Because he has known no satisfaction himself, he will not be able to save anything in which he takes pleasure.

Job 20:21 There is nothing left that he did not devour; therefore his prosperity will not be permanent.
Job 20:22 In the abundance of his wealth he will fall into trouble; the hand of everyone who is in poverty will come against him.
Job 20:23 When he is about to fill his stomach, Yehowah will throw the fierceness of his wrath on him; Yehowah will rain it down on him while he is eating.
Job 20:24 Although that man will flee from the iron weapon, a bow of bronze will shoot him.
Job 20:25 The arrow will pierce through his back and will emerge; indeed, the glittering point will come out through his liver; terrors come on him.
Job 20:26 Complete darkness is reserved for his treasures; a fire not fanned will devour him; it will consume what is left in his tent.
Job 20:27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him as a witness.
Job 20:28 The wealth of his household will vanish; his goods will flow away on the Day of the wrath of the Almighty.
Job 20:29 This is the wicked man's portion from the Almighty, the heritage reserved for him by the Almighty."

Job Chapter 21

Job 21:1 Then Job answered,
Job 21:2 “Listen carefully to my words, and let this be the comfort you offer to me.
Job 21:3 Put up with me, and I also will speak; after I have spoken, mock on.
Job 21:4 As for me, is my complaint to a person? Why should I not be impatient?
Job 21:5 Look at me and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.
Job 21:6 When I think about my sufferings, I am terrified, and trembling seizes my body.
Job 21:7 Why do wicked people continue to live, become old, and grow mighty in power?
Job 21:8 Their descendants are established with them in their sight, and their offspring are established before their eyes.
Job 21:9 Their households are safe from fear; neither is the rod of the Almighty on them.
Job 21:10 Their bull breeds; it does not fail to do so; their cow gives birth and does not lose her calf prematurely.
Job 21:11 They send out their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
Job 21:12 They sing to the tambourine and harp and rejoice with the music of the flute.
Job 21:13 They spend their days in prosperity, and they go down quietly to the place of the dead.
Job 21:14 They say to the Almighty, ‘Depart from us, for we do not wish any knowledge of your Ways.
Job 21:15 What is the Most Powerful, that we should worship him? What advantage would we get if we prayed to him?’
Job 21:16 See, is not their prosperity in their own hands? I have nothing to do with the advice of wicked people.
Job 21:17 How often is it that the lamp of wicked people is put out, or that their calamity comes upon them? How often does it happen that Yehowah distributes sorrows to them in his anger?
Job 21:18 How often is it that they become like stubble before the wind or like chaff that the storm carries away?
Job 21:19 You say, ‘The Almighty lays up one’s guilt for his children to pay.’ Let him pay it himself, so that he might know his guilt.
Job 21:20 Let his eyes see his own destruction, and let him drink of the wrath of the Most Powerful.
Job 21:21 For what does he care about his family after him, when the number of his months is cut off?

Job 21:22 Can anyone teach the Almighty knowledge, since he judges even those who are high?
Job 21:23 One man dies in his full strength, being completely quiet and at ease.
Job 21:24 His body is full of milk, and the marrow of his bones is moistened and in good health.
Job 21:25 Another man dies in bitterness of soul, one who has never experienced anything good.
Job 21:26 They lie down alike in the dust; the worms cover them both.
Job 21:27 See, I know your thoughts, and the ways in which you wish to wrong me.
Job 21:28 For you ask, 'Where now is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked man once lived?'
Job 21:29 Have you never asked traveling people? Do you not know the evidence they can tell,
Job 21:30 that the wicked man is kept from the Day of calamity, and that he is led away from the Day of wrath?
Job 21:31 Who will condemn the wicked man's way to his face? Who will repay him for what he has done?
Job 21:32 Yet he will be borne to the grave; men will keep watch over his tomb.
Job 21:33 The clods of the valley will be sweet to him; all people will follow after him, as there were innumerable people before him.
Job 21:34 How then do you comfort me with nonsense, since in your answers there is nothing but falsehood?"

Job Chapter 22

Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
Job 22:2 “Can a man be useful to the Almighty? Can a wise man be useful to him?
Job 22:3 Is it any pleasure to the Most Powerful if you are righteous? Is it gain to him if you make your Ways blameless?
Job 22:4 Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?
Job 22:5 Is not your wickedness great? Is there no end to your iniquities?
Job 22:6 For you have demanded guarantee of a loan from your brother for no reason, and you have stripped away clothing from the naked.
Job 22:7 You have not given water to weary people to drink; you have withheld bread from hungry people,
Job 22:8 although you, a mighty man, possessed the earth, although you, an honored man, lived in it.
Job 22:9 You have sent widows away empty; the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
Job 22:10 Therefore, snares are all around you, and sudden fear troubles you.
Job 22:11 There is darkness, so that you cannot see; an abundance of waters covers you.
Job 22:12 Is not the Almighty in the heights of Heaven? Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!
Job 22:13 You say, ‘What does the Almighty know? Can he judge through the thick darkness?
Job 22:14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he does not see us; he walks on the circular vault of the heavens.’
Job 22:15 Will you keep the old way that wicked men have walked,
Job 22:16 those who were snatched away before their time, those whose foundations have washed away like a river,
Job 22:17 those who said to the Almighty, ‘Depart from us;’ those who asked, ‘What can the Most Powerful do to us?’
Job 22:18 Yet he filled their houses with good things; the plans of wicked people are far from me.
Job 22:19 Righteous people see their fate and are glad; innocent people laugh them to scorn.
Job 22:20 They say, ‘Surely those who rose up against us are cut off; fire has consumed their possessions.’
Job 22:21 Now agree with Yehowah and be at peace with him; in that Way, good will come to you.

Job 22:22 Receive, I beg you, law from his mouth; store up his words in your heart.
Job 22:23 If you return to the Most Powerful, you will be built up, if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents.
Job 22:24 Lay your treasure down in the dust, the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks,
Job 22:25 and the Most Powerful will be your treasure, precious silver to you.
Job 22:26 For then you will take pleasure in the Most Powerful; you will lift up your face to the Almighty.
Job 22:27 You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you; you will pay your vows to him.
Job 22:28 You will also decree anything, and it will be confirmed for you; light will shine on your paths.
Job 22:29 Yehowah humbles a proud man, and he saves the one with lowered eyes.
Job 22:30 He will rescue a man who is innocent; you will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands.”

Job Chapter 23

Job 23:1 Then Job answered,
Job 23:2 “Even today my complaint is bitter; my hand is heavy because of my groaning.
Job 23:3 Oh, that I knew where I might find him! Oh, that I might come to his place!
Job 23:4 I would lay my case in order before him and fill my mouth with arguments.
Job 23:5 I would learn the words with which he would answer me and would understand what he would say to me.
Job 23:6 Would he argue against me in the greatness of his power? No, he would pay attention to me.
Job 23:7 There, the upright person might argue with him. In this way, I would be acquitted forever by my judge.
Job 23:8 See, I go eastward, but he is not there, and westward, but I cannot perceive him.
Job 23:9 To the north, where he is at work, but I cannot see him, and to the south, where he hides himself, so that I cannot see him.
Job 23:10 But he knows the Way that I take; when he has tested me, I will come out like gold.
Job 23:11 My foot has held fast to his steps; I have kept to his Way and turned not aside.
Job 23:12 I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured up in my heart the words of his mouth.
Job 23:13 But he is one of a kind, who can turn him back? What he desires, he does.
Job 23:14 For he carries out his decree against me; there are many like them.
Job 23:15 Therefore, I am terrified in his presence; when I think about him, I am afraid of him.
Job 23:16 For the Almighty has made my heart weak; the Most Powerful has terrified me.
Job 23:17 I have not been brought to an end by darkness, because of the thick darkness that covers the gloom of my face.

Job Chapter 24

Job 24:1 Why are times for judging wicked people not set by the Most Powerful? Why do not those who are faithful to Him see his days of judgment come?
Job 24:2 There are wicked people who remove boundary markers; there are wicked people who take away flocks by force and put them in their own pastures.
Job 24:3 They drive away the jack donkey of those without fathers; they take the widow's ox as security.
Job 24:4 They force needy people out of their path; poor people of the earth all hide themselves from them.
Job 24:5 See, these poor people go out to their work like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food; perhaps the Arabah will provide them food for their children.
Job 24:6 Poor people reap in the night in other people's fields; they glean grapes from the harvest of those wicked people.
Job 24:7 They lie naked all night without clothing; they have no covering in the cold.
Job 24:8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains; they lie next to large rocks, because they have no shelter.
Job 24:9 There are wicked people who pluck orphans from their mothers' breast, and wicked people who take children as security from poor people.
Job 24:10 But the poor people go about naked without clothing; although they go hungry, they carry others' sheaves of grain.
Job 24:11 The poor people make oil within the walls of those wicked men; they tread the wicked men's winepresses, but they themselves suffer thirst.
Job 24:12 In the city people groan; the wounded people cry out, but the Almighty pays no attention to their prayers.
Job 24:13 Some of these wicked people rebel against the light; they know not its Ways, nor do they stay in its Paths.
Job 24:14 Before daylight the murderer rises, and he kills poor and needy people; in the night he is like a thief.
Job 24:15 Also, the eye of the adulterer waits for dusk; he says, 'No eye will see me.' He disguises his face.
Job 24:16 In the darkness, wicked people dig into houses; but they shut themselves up in the daytime; they do not care for the light.
Job 24:17 For all of them, thick darkness is like dawn; for they are friends with the terrors of thick darkness.

Job 24:18 Swiftly they pass away, however, like foam on the surface of the waters; their portion of the land is cursed; no one goes to work in their vineyards.
Job 24:19 As drought and heat melt away the snow into waters, so the place of the dead takes away those who have sinned.
Job 24:20 The womb that bore him will forget him; the worm will feed sweetly on him; he will be remembered no more; in this way, wickedness will be broken like a tree.
Job 24:21 The wicked one devours the barren women who have not borne children; he does no good to the widow.
Job 24:22 Yet Yehowah drags away the stalwart people by his power; he rises up and does not strengthen them in life.
Job 24:23 Yehowah allows them to think they are secure, and they are happy about that, but his eyes are on their ways.
Job 24:24 These people are exalted; still, in only a little while, they will be gone; indeed, they will be brought low; they will be gathered up like all the others; they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain.
Job 24:25 If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar; who can make my speech worth nothing?”

Job Chapter 25

Job 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
Job 25:2 “Dominion and fear are with him; he makes peace in his high places of Heaven.
Job 25:3 Is there any end to the number of his armed forces? Upon whom does his light not shine?
Job 25:4 How then can man be righteous with the Almighty? How can he who is born of a woman be clean, acceptable to him?
Job 25:5 See, even the moon has no brightness to him; the stars are not pure in his sight.
Job 25:6 How much less man, who is a worm, a son of man, who is a crimson grub!”

Job Chapter 26

Job 26:1 Then Job answered,
Job 26:2 “How you have helped one who has no power! How you have saved the arm that has no strength!
Job 26:3 How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound knowledge!
Job 26:4 With whose help have you spoken these words? Whose spirit was it that came out from you?
Job 26:5 The dead are made to tremble, those who are beneath the waters and all who dwell in them.
Job 26:6 The place of the dead is naked before Yehowah; destruction itself has no covering against him.
Job 26:7 He stretches out the north over emptiness, and he hangs the earth over nothing.
Job 26:8 He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, but the thunderclouds are not torn under them.
Job 26:9 He covers the surface of his throne and spreads his thundercloud on it.
Job 26:10 He has engraved a circular horizon on the surface of the waters as the line between light and darkness.
Job 26:11 The pillars of Heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke.
Job 26:12 He calmed the sea with his power (Mark 4:39); by his understanding he shattered the proud.
Job 26:13 By his breath he made the skies clear; his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
Job 26:14 See, these are but the fringes of his Ways; how small a whisper do we hear of him! Who can understand the thunder of his power?”

Job Chapter 27

Job 27:1 Job resumed speaking,
Job 27:2 “As surely as the Almighty lives, who has taken away my justice, the Most Powerful, who made my life bitter,
Job 27:3 while my life is yet in me, and the Ruach of the Almighty is in my nostrils, this is what I will do:
Job 27:4 My lips will not speak wickedness, neither will my tongue speak deceit;
Job 27:5 I will never admit that you three are right; until I die, I will never deny my integrity.
Job 27:6 I hold fast to my righteousness and will not let it go; my thoughts will not reproach me so long as I live.
Job 27:7 Let my enemy be like a wicked man; let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man.
Job 27:8 For what is the hope of a hypocrite when the Almighty cuts him off and takes away his life?
Job 27:9 Will the Almighty hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?
Job 27:10 Will he delight himself in the Most Powerful and call upon the Almighty at all times?
Job 27:11 I will teach you concerning the hand of the Almighty; I will not conceal the thoughts of the Most Powerful.
Job 27:12 See, all of you have seen this yourselves; why then have you spoken all this nonsense?
Job 27:13 This is the destiny of a wicked man with the Almighty, the heritage of the oppressor that he receives from the Most Powerful:
Job 27:14 If his children multiply, it is for the sword; his offspring will never have enough food.
Job 27:15 Those who survive him will be buried by plague, and their widows will make no lament for them.
Job 27:16 Though the wicked man heaps up silver like the dust and heaps up clothing like clay,
Job 27:17 he may heap up clothing, but righteous people will put it on, and innocent people will divide up the silver-currency among themselves.
Job 27:18 He builds his house like a spider, like a hut that a guard makes.
Job 27:19 He lies down in bed rich, but he will not keep doing so; he opens his eyes, and everything is gone.
Job 27:20 Terrors overtake him like waters; a storm takes him away in the night.
Job 27:21 The east wind carries him away, and he leaves; it sweeps him out of his place.

Job 27:22 It throws itself at him and does not stop; he tries to flee out of its hand.
Job 27:23 It claps its hands at him in mockery; it whistles him out of his place.

Job Chapter 28

Job 28:1 Surely there is a mine for silver, a place where they refine gold.
Job 28:2 Iron is taken out of the earth; copper is smelted out of the stone.
Job 28:3 A man sets an end to darkness and searches out, to the farthest limit, the stones in obscurity and thick darkness.
Job 28:4 He breaks open a shaft away from where people live, places that are forgotten by anyone's foot. He hangs far away from people; he swings to and fro.
Job 28:5 As for the earth, out of which comes bread, it is turned up below as if by fire.
Job 28:6 Its stones are the place where sapphires are found, and its dust contains gold.
Job 28:7 No bird of prey knows the path to it, nor has the falcon's eye seen it.
Job 28:8 The proud animals have not walked such a path, nor has the fierce lion passed there.
Job 28:9 A man lays his hand on the flinty rock; he overturns mountains by their roots.
Job 28:10 He cuts out channels among the rocks; his eye sees every valuable thing there.
Job 28:11 He ties up the streams, so they do not run; what is hidden there he brings out to the light.
Job 28:12 Where will wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?
Job 28:13 Man does not know its price; neither is it found in the land of the living.
Job 28:14 The deep waters under the earth say, 'It is not in me;' the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
Job 28:15 It cannot be gotten for gold; neither can silver-currency be weighed as its price.
Job 28:16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphire.
Job 28:17 Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth; neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
Job 28:18 No mention is worth making of coral or jasper; indeed, the price of wisdom is more than rubies.
Job 28:19 The topaz of Cush does not equal it; neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold.
Job 28:20 From where, then, comes wisdom? Where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:21 Wisdom is hidden from the eyes of all living things and is kept hidden from the birds of the sky.
Job 28:22 Destruction and Death say, ‘We have heard just a rumor about it with our ears.’
Job 28:23 The Almighty understands the Way to it; he knows its place.
Job 28:24 For he looks to the extremities of the earth and sees under all the heavens.
Job 28:25 He made the force of the wind and parceled out the waters by measure.
Job 28:26 He made a decree for the rain and a way for the lightning of the thunder.
Job 28:27 Then he saw wisdom and announced it; he established it, indeed, and he examined it.
Job 28:28 To people he said, ‘See, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; to depart from evil is understanding.’”

Job Chapter 29

Job 29:1 Job resumed speaking,
Job 29:2 “Oh, that I were as I was in the past months when the Almighty cared for me,
Job 29:3 when his lamp shined on my head, and when I walked through darkness by his light.
Job 29:4 Oh, that I were as I was in the ripeness of my days when the friendship of the Almighty was on my tent,
Job 29:5 when the Most Powerful was yet with me, and my children were around me,
Job 29:6 when my way was covered with cream, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!
Job 29:7 When I went out to the city gate, when I sat in my place in the city square,
Job 29:8 the young men saw me and kept their distance from me in respect, and the aged people rose and stood for me.
Job 29:9 The princes used to refrain from talking when I came; they would lay their hand on their mouths.
Job 29:10 The voices of the noblemen were hushed, and their tongue clung to the roof of their mouths.
Job 29:11 For after their ears heard me, they would then bless me; after their eyes saw me, they would then give witness to me and approve of me,
Job 29:12 because I rescued the one who was poor when he cried out, and the one who had no father when he had no one to help him.
Job 29:13 The blessing of him who was about to perish came on me; I caused the widow’s heart to sing for joy.
Job 29:14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice was like a robe and a turban.
Job 29:15 I was eyes to blind people; I was feet to lame people.
Job 29:16 I was a father to needy people; I would examine the case even of one whom I did not know.
Job 29:17 I broke the jaws of the unrighteous man; I plucked the victim out from between his teeth.
Job 29:18 Then I said, ‘I will die in my nest; I will multiply my days like the grains of sand.
Job 29:19 My roots are spread out to the waters, and dew lies all night on my branches.
Job 29:20 The honor in me is always fresh, and the bow of my strength is always new in my hand.’

Job 29:21 To me men listened; they waited for me; they stayed silent to hear my advice.
Job 29:22 After my words were done, they did not speak again; my speech dropped like water on them.
Job 29:23 They always waited for me as they waited for rain; they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words, as they would do for the spring rain.
Job 29:24 I smiled on them when they did not expect it; they did not reject the light of my face.
Job 29:25 I selected their way and sat as their chief; I lived like a king in his military force, like one who comforts mourners.

Job Chapter 30

Job 30:1 Now those who are younger than I have nothing but mockery for me, these young men whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock.
Job 30:2 Indeed, the strength of their fathers' hands, how could it have helped me, men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished?
Job 30:3 They were thin from poverty and hunger; they gnawed at the dry ground in the darkness of wilderness and desolation.
Job 30:4 They plucked saltwort and bushes' leaves; the roots of the broom tree were their food.
Job 30:5 They were driven out from among people who shouted after them, as one would shout after a thief.
Job 30:6 So they had to live in river valleys, in holes of the earth and of the rocks.
Job 30:7 Among the bushes they brayed like donkeys; under the bushes they gathered together.
Job 30:8 They were the sons of fools, indeed, sons of nameless people! They were driven out of the land with whips.
Job 30:9 But now, for their sons I have become their subject for a song of mockery; indeed, I am now a joke to them.
Job 30:10 They abhor me and stand far off from me; they do not refrain from spitting in my face.
Job 30:11 For Yehowah has unstrung the string to my bow and has afflicted me, and so these people lose all self-control in front of me.
Job 30:12 Upon my right hand rise the rabble; they drive me away and pile up against me their siege mounds.
Job 30:13 They destroy my Path; they push forward disaster for me, men who have no one to hold them back.
Job 30:14 They come against me like a military force through a wide hole in a city wall; in the midst of the destruction they roll themselves in on me.
Job 30:15 Terrors are turned upon me; my honor is driven away as if by the wind; my prosperity passes away as a cloud.
Job 30:16 Now my life is pouring out from within me; many days of suffering have laid hold on me.
Job 30:17 In the night, my bones in me are pierced; the pains that gnaw at me take no rest.
Job 30:18 The great force of the Almighty has seized my clothing; it wraps around me like the collar of my tunic.
Job 30:19 He has thrown me into the mud; I have become like dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 I cry to you, but you do not answer me; I stand up, and you merely look at me.
Job 30:21 You have changed and become cruel to me; with the strength of your hand you persecute me.
Job 30:22 You lift me up to the wind and cause it to drive me along; you throw me back and forth in a storm.
Job 30:23 For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house destined for all living things.
Job 30:24 However, does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls? Does no one in trouble call out for help?
Job 30:25 Did not I weep for him who was in trouble? Did I not grieve for the needy man?
Job 30:26 When I looked for good, then evil came; when I waited for light, darkness came instead.
Job 30:27 My heart is troubled and does not rest; days of affliction have come on me.
Job 30:28 I go about with darkened skin but not because of the sun; I stand up in the congregation and cry for help.
Job 30:29 I am a brother to jackals, a companion of ostriches.
Job 30:30 My skin is black and falls away from me; my bones are burned with heat.
Job 30:31 Therefore, my harp is tuned for songs of mourning, my flute for the singing of those who wail.

Job Chapter 31

Job 31:1 I have made a covenant with my eyes; how then should I look with desire on a virgin?
Job 31:2 For what is the portion from the Almighty above, the inheritance from the Most Powerful on high?
Job 31:3 I used to think that calamity is for unrighteous people, and that disaster is for doers of wickedness.
Job 31:4 Does not Yehowah see my Ways and count all my steps?
Job 31:5 If I have walked with falsehood, if my foot has hurried to deceit,
Job 31:6 let me be weighed in an even balance, so that the Almighty will know my integrity.
Job 31:7 If my step has turned out of the right Way, if my heart has walked after my eyes, if any spot of impurity has clung to my hands,
Job 31:8 then let me sow and let another eat; indeed, let the harvest be uprooted out of my field.
Job 31:9 If my heart has been attracted to another woman, if I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door for his wife,
Job 31:10 then let my wife grind grain for another man, and let other men have sex with her.
Job 31:11 For that would be a terrible crime; indeed, it would be a capital crime to be punished by judges.
Job 31:12 For that is a fire that consumes everything for the place of the dead, and that would burn up all my harvest.
Job 31:13 If I ignored the plea for justice from my male or female servant when they argued with me,
Job 31:14 what then would I do when the Almighty rises up to accuse me? When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?
Job 31:15 Did the One who made me in the womb not make them also? Did not the same One mold us all in the womb?
Job 31:16 If I have withheld poor people from their desire, or if I have caused the eyes of the widow to grow dim from crying,
Job 31:17 or if I have eaten my morsel alone and not allowed those without fathers to eat it also,
Job 31:18 because from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father, and I have guided his mother, a widow, from my own mother's womb.
Job 31:19 If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or if I have seen that a needy man had no clothing;
Job 31:20 if his heart has not blessed me, because he has not been warmed with the wool of my sheep,

Job 31:21 if I have lifted up my hand against fatherless people, because I saw my support in the city gate, then bring charges against me!
Job 31:22 If I have done these things, then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint.
Job 31:23 For I dreaded destruction from the Almighty; because of the thought of his majesty, I could not have done those things.
Job 31:24 If I have made gold my hope, and if I have said to fine gold, 'You are what I am confident in;'
Job 31:25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, because my hand had gotten many possessions, then bring charges against me!
Job 31:26 If I have seen the sun when it shone, or the moon walking in its brightness,
Job 31:27 and if my heart has been secretly attracted, so that my mouth has kissed my hand in worship of them,
Job 31:28 this also would be a capital crime to be punished by judges, for I would have denied the Almighty who is above.
Job 31:29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of anyone who hated me or congratulated myself when disaster overtook him, then bring charges against me!
Job 31:30 Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin by asking for his life with a curse.
Job 31:31 If the men of my tent have never asked, 'Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?'
Job 31:32 Even the sojourning foreigner has never had to stay in the city square, because I have always opened my doors to the traveler, and if that is not so, then bring charges against me!
Job 31:33 If, like mankind, I have hidden my sins by hiding my guilt inside my chest,
Job 31:34 because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silent and would not go outside, then bring charges against me!
Job 31:35 Oh, if only I had Someone to hear me! See, here is my signature (a Tav; Eze. 9:4; Rev. 7:3-4); let the Most Powerful answer me! If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!
Job 31:36 Surely, I would carry it openly on my shoulder; I would put it on like a crown.
Job 31:37 I would declare to him an accounting for my steps; as a confident prince I would go up to him.
Job 31:38 If my land ever cries out against me, and its furrows weep together,
Job 31:39 if I have eaten its harvest without paying for it or have caused its owners to lose their lives,

Job 31:40 then let thorns grow instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley.”
The words of Job are finished.

Job Chapter 32

Job 32:1 So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.
Job 32:2 Then was kindled the anger of Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram; it was kindled against Job, because he justified himself rather than the Almighty.
Job 32:3 Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer to Job, and yet they had condemned Job.
Job 32:4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because the other men were older than he.
Job 32:5 However, when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, his anger was kindled.
Job 32:6 Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite spoke up, "I am young, and you are ancient. That is why I held back and did not dare to tell you my own opinion."
Job 32:7 I said, "Length of days should speak; a multitude of years should teach wisdom.
Job 32:8 But there is a spirit in a man; the breath of the Most Powerful gives him understanding.
Job 32:9 It is not only the great people who are wise, nor the aged people alone who understand justice.
Job 32:10 Therefore, I say to you, 'Listen to me; I will also tell you my knowledge.'
Job 32:11 See, I waited for your words; I listened to your arguments while you were thinking about what to say.
Job 32:12 Indeed, I paid attention to you, but see, there was not one of you who could convince Job or who could respond to his words.
Job 32:13 Be careful not to say, 'We have found wisdom!' The Almighty will have to defeat Job; mere man cannot do it.
Job 32:14 For Job has not directed his words against me, so I will not answer him with your words.
Job 32:15 These three men are dumbfounded; they can answer Job no longer; they have not a word more to say.
Job 32:16 Should I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand there silent and answer no more?
Job 32:17 No, I also will answer on my part; I will also tell them my knowledge.
Job 32:18 For I am full of words; the spirit in me compels me.
Job 32:19 See, my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent; like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

Job 32:20 I will speak, so that I may be refreshed; I will open my lips and answer.
Job 32:21 I will not show favoritism; neither will I give honorific titles to any man.
Job 32:22 For I do not know how to give such titles; if I did so, my Maker would soon take me away.

Job Chapter 33

Job 33:1 So now, Job, I beg you, hear my speech; listen to all my words.
Job 33:2 See now, I have opened my mouth; my tongue has spoken in my mouth.
Job 33:3 My words will speak the uprightness of my heart; what my lips know, they will speak sincerely.
Job 33:4 The Ruach of the Almighty has made me; the breath of the Most Powerful has given me life.
Job 33:5 If you can, answer me; set your words in order before me and stand up.
Job 33:6 See, I am just as you are in the sight of the Almighty; I also have been formed out of the clay.
Job 33:7 See, terror of me will not make you afraid; neither will my pressure be heavy upon you.
Job 33:8 You have certainly spoken in my hearing; I have heard the sound of your words saying,
Job 33:9 'I am clean and without transgression; I am innocent, and there is no sin in me.
Job 33:10 See, Yehowah finds opportunities to attack me; he regards me as his enemy.
Job 33:11 He puts my feet in stocks; he watches all my paths.'
Job 33:12 See, in this you are not right, I will answer you, for the Almighty is greater than man.
Job 33:13 Why do you struggle against him? He does not account for any of his doings.
Job 33:14 For the Almighty speaks once, yes, twice, though man does not notice it.
Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumber on the bed,
Job 33:16 then Yehowah opens the ears of men and frightens them with threats,
Job 33:17 in order to pull man back from his sinful purposes and keep pride from him.
Job 33:18 Yehowah keeps man's life back from the pit, his life from crossing over to death.
Job 33:20 so that his life abhors food, and his soul abhors delicacies.
Job 33:22 Indeed, his soul draws close to the pit, his life to those who wish to destroy it.

Job 33:23 But if there is an angel who can be a mediator for him, a mediator, one from among the thousands of angels, to show him what is right to do,
Job 33:24 and if the angel is kind to him and says to Yehowah, ‘Save this person from going down to the pit; I have found a ransom for him,’
Job 33:25 then his flesh will become fresher than a child’s; he will return to the days of his youthful strength.
Job 33:26 He will pray to the Almighty, and the Almighty will be kind to him, so that he sees the face of the Almighty with joy. The Almighty will give the person his righteousness.
Job 33:27 Then that person will sing in front of other people, ‘I sinned and perverted that which was right, but my sin was not punished.
Job 33:28 Yehowah has rescued my soul from going down into the pit; my life will continue to see light.’
Job 33:29 See, the Almighty does all these things with a person, twice, yes, even three times,
Job 33:30 to bring his soul back from the pit, so that he may be enlightened with the light of life.
Job 33:31 Pay attention, Job, and listen to me; be silent, and I will speak.
Job 33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me; speak, for I wish to prove that you are in the right.
Job 33:33 If not, then listen to me; remain silent, and I will teach you wisdom.”

Job Chapter 34

Job 34:1 Moreover, Elihu continued to speak:
Job 34:2 “Listen to my words, you wise men; hear me, you who have knowledge.
Job 34:3 For the ear tries words as the palate tastes food.
Job 34:4 Let us choose for ourselves what is just: Let us discover among ourselves what is good.
Job 34:5 For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, but the Almighty has taken away my rights.
Job 34:6 Regardless of my rights, I am considered to be a liar. My wound is incurable, although I am without sin.’
Job 34:8 who goes around in the company of those who do evil, and who walks with wicked men?
Job 34:9 For he has said, ‘It is no use to a person to take pleasure in doing what the Almighty wants.’
Job 34:10 So listen to me, you men of understanding: Far be it from the Almighty that he should do wickedness; far be it from the Most Powerful that he should commit sin.
Job 34:11 For he pays back a person’s work; he makes every man come upon the reward of his own ways.
Job 34:12 Indeed, the Almighty does nothing wicked, nor does the Most Powerful ever pervert justice.
Job 34:13 Who put him in charge over the earth? Who put the whole globe under him?
Job 34:14 If he ever set his intentions only on himself, and if he ever gathered back to himself his Ruach and his breath,
Job 34:15 then all flesh would perish together; mankind would return to dust again.
Job 34:16 If now you have understanding, listen to this; listen to the sound of my words.
Job 34:17 Can one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn Yehowah, who is righteous and mighty?
Job 34:18 Yehowah, who says to a king, ‘You are vile,’ or says to nobles, ‘You are wicked.’
Job 34:19 Yehowah, who does not show favoritism to leaders and does not acknowledge rich people more than poor, for they all are the work of his hands.
Job 34:20 In a moment they will die; at midnight, people will be shaken and will pass away; mighty people will be taken away but not by human hands.

Job 34:21 For the eyes of the Almighty are upon a person's ways; he sees all his steps.
Job 34:22 There is no darkness, no thick gloom where the doers of iniquity may hide themselves.
Job 34:23 For the Almighty does not need to examine a person further; there is no need for any person to go before Him in judgment.
Job 34:24 He breaks mighty men into pieces for their ways that need no further investigation; he puts others in their places.
Job 34:25 In this way, he has knowledge of their deeds; he overthrows these people in the night; they are destroyed.
Job 34:26 In the open sight of others, he executes them for their wicked deeds like criminals,
Job 34:27 because they turned away from following him and refused to acknowledge any of his Ways.
Job 34:28 In this way, they made the cry of poor people come to him; he heard the cry of afflicted people.
Job 34:29 When he stays silent, who can condemn him? If he hides his face, who can perceive him? He rules over ethnicities and individual alike,
Job 34:30 so that a hypocrite may not rule, so that there may be no one to entrap people.
Job 34:31 Suppose someone says to the Almighty, 'I am certainly guilty, but I will not sin any longer;
Job 34:32 teach me what I cannot see; I have committed sin, but I will do it no longer.'
Job 34:33 Do you think that Yehowah will punish that person's sin, since you dislike what Yehowah does? You must choose, not I. So say what it is that you know.
Job 34:34 Men of understanding will say to me, indeed, every wise man who hears me will say,
Job 34:35 'Job speaks without knowledge; his words are without wisdom.'
Job 34:36 If only Job were put on trial in the smallest details of his case because of his talking like wicked men.
Job 34:37 For he adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands in mockery in our midst; he piles up words against the Almighty."

Job Chapter 35

Job 35:1 Moreover, Elihu continued,
Job 35:2 “Do you think this is just when you say, ‘My right before the Almighty?’
Job 35:3 For you ask, ‘What use is it to me?’ and, ‘Would I be better off if I had sinned?’
Job 35:4 I will answer you, both you and your friends.
Job 35:5 Look up at the sky and see it; see the sky, which is higher than you.
Job 35:6 If you have sinned, what harm do you do to Yehowah? If your transgressions pile up high, what do you do to him?
Job 35:7 If you are righteous, what can you give to him? What will he receive from your hand?
Job 35:8 Your wickedness may hurt a man, as you are a man, and your righteousness might benefit another son of man.
Job 35:9 Because of many acts of oppression, people cry out; they call for help from the arms of mighty men.
Job 35:10 But no one asks, ‘Where is the Almighty my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
Job 35:11 who teaches us more than he teaches the beasts of the earth, and who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?’
Job 35:12 There they cry out, but Yehowah gives no answer because of the pride of evil men.
Job 35:13 The Almighty will certainly not hear a foolish cry; the Most Powerful will pay no attention to it.
Job 35:14 How much less will he answer you if you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him, and that you are waiting for him!
Job 35:15 How much less will he answer you, if you say that he never punishes anyone in anger, and that he is not overly concerned about people’s pride.
Job 35:16 So Job opens his mouth only to speak foolishness; he piles up words without knowledge.”

Job Chapter 36

Job 36:1 Elihu continued on,
Job 36:2 “Permit me to speak a little longer, and I will show you some things, because I have a little more to say in defense of the Almighty.
Job 36:3 I will obtain my knowledge from far off; I will acknowledge that righteousness belongs to my Maker.
Job 36:4 For indeed, my words will not be false; someone who is mature in knowledge is with you.
Job 36:5 See, the Almighty is powerful, and despises no one; he is mighty in strength of understanding.
Job 36:6 He does not preserve the life of wicked people but instead does what is right for those who suffer.
Job 36:7 He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people but instead sets them on thrones like kings forever, and they are lifted up.
Job 36:8 If they are bound in chains and trapped in cords of suffering,
Job 36:9 then he reveals to them what they have done and their transgressions and their pride.
Job 36:10 He also opens their ears to his instruction and commands them to turn back from iniquity.
Job 36:11 If they listen to him and worship him, they will spend their days in prosperity, their years in contentment.
Job 36:12 However, if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword; they will die because they have no knowledge.
Job 36:13 Those who are hypocrites in heart store up their anger; they do not cry out for help even when Yehowah ties them up.
Job 36:15 Yehowah rescues afflicted people by means of their afflictions; he opens their ears by means of their oppression.
Job 36:16 Indeed, he would like to draw you out of distress into a broad place where there is no hardship, and where your table would be set with food full of fatness.
Job 36:17 But you are full of judgment on wicked people; judgment and justice have laid hold of you.
Job 36:18 Do not let your anger entice you to mockery, or the greatness of a ransom to turn you aside.
Job 36:19 Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?

Job 36:20 Do not desire the night, to commit sin against others, when people are cut off in their place.
Job 36:21 Be careful that you do not turn to sin, because you are being tested by suffering, so that you will stay away from sinning.
Job 36:22 See, the Almighty is exalted in his power; who is a teacher like him?
Job 36:23 Who has ever instructed him about his Way? Who can ever say to him, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'
Job 36:24 Remember to praise his deeds, of which people have sung.
Job 36:25 All people have looked on those deeds, but they see those deeds only from far away.
Job 36:26 See, the Almighty is great, but we do not understand him well; the number of his years is incalculable.
Job 36:27 For he draws up the drops of water that he distills as rain from his vapor,
Job 36:28 which the clouds pour down and drop in abundance on mankind.
Job 36:29 Indeed, can anyone understand the extensive spread of the clouds and the thunder from his shelter?
Job 36:30 See, he spreads his lightning around him and covers the roots of the sea.
Job 36:31 In this Way, he judges the people and gives food in abundance.
Job 36:32 He fills his hands with the lightning, until he commands it to strike its mark.
Job 36:33 Its thunder warns of the storm, the livestock can also hear it is coming.

Job Chapter 37

Job 37:1 Indeed, my heart trembles at this; it is moved out of its place.
Job 37:3 He sends it out under the whole sky, and he sends out his lightning to the borders of the earth.
Job 37:4 A voice roars after it; he thunders with the voice of his majesty; he does not restrain the lightning bolts when his voice is heard.
Job 37:5 The Almighty thunders marvelously with his voice; he does great things that we cannot comprehend.
Job 37:6 For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth;' likewise to the rain shower, 'Become a downpour of rain.'
Job 37:7 He stops the hand of every man from working, so that all people whom he has made may see his deeds.
Job 37:8 Then the beasts go into hiding and stay in their dens.
Job 37:9 The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north.
Job 37:11 Indeed, he weighs down the thick cloud with moisture; he scatters his lightning through the clouds.
Job 37:12 He swirls the clouds around by his guidance, so that they may do whatever he commands them above the surface of the whole globe.
Job 37:13 He makes all of this happen; sometimes it happens for correction, sometimes for his land, and sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness.
Job 37:14 Listen to this, Job; stop and think about the marvelous deeds of the Almighty.
Job 37:15 Do you know how the Almighty forces his will on the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?
Job 37:16 Do you understand the floating of the clouds, the marvelous deeds of Him who is perfect in knowledge?
Job 37:17 Do you understand how your garments become hot when the land is still, because the wind comes from the south?
Job 37:18 Can you spread out the sky as he can, the sky, which is as strong as a mirror of cast bronze?
Job 37:19 Teach us what we should say to him, for we cannot lay out our arguments in order because of the darkness of our minds.
Job 37:20 Should he be told that I wish to speak with him? Would a person wish to be swallowed up?

Job 37:21 Now people cannot look at the sun when it is bright in the sky, after the wind has passed through and has cleared it of its clouds.
Job 37:22 Out of the north comes golden splendor, over the Almighty is fearsome majesty.
Job 37:23 As for the Most Powerful, we cannot find him! He is great in power; he does not oppress justice and abundant righteousness.
Job 37:24 Therefore, people fear him. He does not pay any attention to those who are wise in their own minds.”

Job Chapter 38

Job 38:1 Then Yehowah called to Job out of a fierce storm and inquired, Job 38:2 “Who is this who brings darkness to plans by means of words without knowledge?
Job 38:3 Now gird up your loins like a man, for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.
Job 38:4 Where were you when I laid the earth’s foundations? Tell me, if you have so much understanding.
Job 38:5 Who determined its dimensions? Tell me, if you know. Who stretched the measuring line over it?
Job 38:6 On what were its foundations laid? Who laid its cornerstone,
Job 38:7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of the Almighty shouted for joy?
Job 38:8 Who shut up the sea with doors when it burst out, as if it had come out of the womb,
Job 38:9 when I made clouds its clothing, and thick darkness its swaddling bands?
Job 38:10 That was when I marked out for the sea my boundary, and when I placed its bars and doors,
Job 38:11 and when I commanded it, ‘You may come this far, but no farther; here is where I will put a boundary to the pride of your waves.’
Job 38:12 Have you ever, since your own days began, given orders to the dawn to begin, and caused daybreak to know its place in the scheme of things,
Job 38:13 so that it might take hold of the pinnacles of the earth, so that wicked people might be shaken out of it?
Job 38:14 The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal; all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing.
Job 38:16 Have you gone to the sources of the waters of the sea? Have you walked in the lowest parts of the deep?
Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
Job 38:18 Have you understood the earth in its expanse? Tell me, if you know it all.
Job 38:19 Where is the way to the resting place of light, as for darkness, where is its place?
Job 38:20 Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

Job 38:21 Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then; the number of your days is so large!
Job 38:22 Have you entered the storehouses for the snow, or have you seen the storehouses for the hail,
Job 38:23 these things that I have kept for times of trouble, for days of battle and war?
Job 38:24 What is the path to where the lightning bolts are distributed, or to where the winds are scattered from the east over the earth?
Job 38:25 Who has created the channels for the floods of rain, or who has made the routes for the outbursts of thunder,
Job 38:26 to cause it to rain on lands where no person exists, and on the wilderness, in which there is no one,
Job 38:27 in order to meet the needs of barren and lonely regions, and to make the tender grass sprout up?
Job 38:28 Is there a father of the rain? Who has engendered the dewdrops?
Job 38:29 Out of whose womb did the ice come? Who bore the white frost out of the sky?
Job 38:30 The waters hide themselves and become like stone; the surface of the deep becomes frozen.
Job 38:31 Can you fasten chains on the Pleiades, or undo the cords of Orion?
Job 38:32 Can you lead the 12 signs of the Zodiac and their 36 associated constellations to appear at their proper times? Can you guide the Bear with its children?
Job 38:33 Do you know the regulations of the sky? Could you set in place the sky's rule over the earth?
Job 38:34 Can you raise your voice up to the clouds, so that an abundance of rainwater may cover you?
Job 38:35 Can you send out bolts of lightning that they may go out, that they shout to you, 'Here we are!?!'
Job 38:36 Who has put wisdom in the clouds or has given understanding to the mind?
Job 38:37 Who can number the clouds by his skill? Who can pour out the water skins of the sky,
Job 38:38 when the dust runs into a hard mass, and the clods of earth clump tightly together?
Job 38:39 Can you hunt down a victim for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of her young lion cubs,
Job 38:40 when they are crouching in their dens and sheltering in hiding to lie in wait?
Job 38:41 Who provides victims for the ravens when their young ones cry out to the Almighty and stagger about for lack of food?

Job Chapter 39

Job 39:1 Do you know at what time the wild goats in the rocks bear their young? Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?
Job 39:2 Can you count the months that they gestate? Do you know the time when they bear their young?
Job 39:3 They crouch down and birth their young, and then they finish their labor pains.
Job 39:4 Their young ones become strong and grow up in the open fields; they go out and do not come back again.
Job 39:5 Who let the wild donkey go free? Who has untied the bonds of the swift donkey,
Job 39:6 whose home I have made in the Arabah, his house in the salt land?
Job 39:7 He laughs in scorn at the noises in the city; he does not hear the driver's shouts.
Job 39:8 He roams over the mountains as his pastures; there he looks for every green plant to eat.
Job 39:9 Will the wild ox be happy to serve you? Will he consent to stay by your feed trough?
Job 39:10 With a rope, can you control the wild ox to plow the furrows? Will he harrow the valleys for you?
Job 39:11 Will you trust him, because his strength is great? Will you leave your work to him to do?
Job 39:12 Will you depend on him to bring your grain home, to gather the grain for your threshing floor?
Job 39:13 The wings of the ostrich wave proudly, but are they the pinions and plumage of love?
Job 39:14 For she leaves her eggs on the earth, and she lets them keep warm in the dust;
Job 39:15 she forgets that a foot might crush them, or that a wild beast might trample them.
Job 39:16 She deals roughly with her young ones as if they were not hers; she does not fear that her labor might have been in vain,
Job 39:17 because the Almighty has deprived her of wisdom and has not given her any understanding.
Job 39:18 When she runs swiftly, she laughs in scorn at the horse and its rider.
Job 39:19 Have you given the horse his strength? Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?
Job 39:20 Have you ever made him jump like a locust? The majesty of his snorting is fearsome.

Job 39:21 He paws in might and rejoices in his strength; he rushes out to meet the weapons.
Job 39:22 He mocks fear and is not dismayed; he does not turn back from the sword.
Job 39:23 The quiver rattles against his flank, along with the flashing spear and the lance.
Job 39:24 He swallows up ground with fierceness and rage; at the trumpet's sound, he cannot stand in one place.
Job 39:25 Whenever the trumpet sounds, he says, 'Aha!' He smells the battle from far away, the thunderous shouts of the commanders and the outcries.
Job 39:26 Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, that he stretches out his wings for the south?
Job 39:27 Is it at your orders that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest in high places?
Job 39:28 He lives on cliffs and makes his home on the peaks of cliffs, a stronghold.
Job 39:29 From there he searches for victims; his eyes see them from far away.
Job 39:30 His young also drink up blood; where the killed are, there he is."

Job Chapter 40

Job 40:1 Yehowah continued to speak to Job,
Job 40:2 “Should anyone who wishes to criticize try to correct the Most Powerful? He who argues with the Almighty, let him answer.”
Job 40:3 Then Job answered Yehowah,
Job 40:4 “See, I am insignificant; how can I answer you? I put my hand over my mouth.
Job 40:5 I spoke once, and I will not answer; indeed, twice, but I will proceed no further.”
Job 40:6 Then Yehowah answered Job out of a fierce storm,
Job 40:7 “Now gird up your loins like a man, for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.
Job 40:8 Will you actually say that I am unjust? Will you condemn me, so you may claim you are right?
Job 40:9 Do you have an arm like the Almighty? Can you thunder with a voice like him?
Job 40:10 Now clothe yourself in glory and dignity; array yourself in honor and majesty.
Job 40:11 Scatter around the excess of your anger; look at everyone who is proud and bring him down.
Job 40:12 Look at everyone who is proud and bring him low; trample down wicked people where they stand.
Job 40:13 Bury them in the earth together; imprison their faces in the hidden place.
Job 40:14 Then will I also acknowledge about you, that your own right hand can save you.
Job 40:15 Look now at the hippopotamus, which I made as well as I made you; he eats grass like an ox.
Job 40:19 He is the chief of the creatures of the Almighty. Only He who made him can defeat him.
Job 40:20 For the hills provide him with food; the beasts of the field play nearby.
Job 40:21 He lies under the lotus plants in the shelter of the reeds, in the marshes.
Job 40:22 The lotus plants cover him with their shade; the willows of the brook are all around him.

Job 40:23 See, if a river floods its banks, he does not tremble; he is confident, though the Jordan River should surge up to his mouth.
Job 40:24 Can anyone capture him with a hook or pierce his nose through with a snare?

Job Chapter 41

Job 41:1 Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook? Or tie up his jaws with a cord?
Job 41:2 Can you put a rope into his nose or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
Job 41:3 Will he make many pleas to you? Will he speak soft words to you?
Job 41:4 Will he make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever?
Job 41:5 Will you play with him as you would with a bird? Will you tie him up for your servant girls?
Job 41:6 Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him? Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?
Job 41:7 Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
Job 41:8 Put your hand on him just once, and you will remember the battle and do it no more.
Job 41:9 See, the hope of anyone who does that is a lie; will not anyone be thrown down to the ground, just by the sight of him?
Job 41:10 None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up; who, then, is he who can stand before me?
Job 41:11 Who has first given anything to me, in order that I should repay him? Whatever is under the whole sky is mine.
Job 41:12 I will not keep silent concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form.
Job 41:15 His proud back is made up of rows of scales, tight together as with a close seal.
Job 41:16 One is so near to another that no air can come between them.
Job 41:17 They are joined to each other; they stick together, so that they cannot be pulled apart.
Job 41:18 Light flashes out from his snorting; his eyes are like the eyelashes of dawn.
Job 41:20 Out of his nostrils goes smoke like a boiling pot on a red hot fire that has been fanned.

Job 41:23 The folds of his flesh are joined together; they are firm on him; they cannot be moved.
Job 41:24 His heart is as hard as a stone, indeed, as hard as a lower millstone.
Job 41:25 When he raises himself up, even the mighty become afraid; because of fear, they draw back.
Job 41:26 If a sword strikes him, it does nothing, and neither does a spear, an arrow, or any other pointed weapon.
Job 41:27 He thinks of iron as if it were straw, and of bronze as if it were rotten wood.
Job 41:28 An arrow cannot make him flee; to him sling stones become chaff.
Job 41:30 His lower parts are like sharp potsherds; he leaves a spreading trail in the mud, as if he were a threshing sledge.
Job 41:31 He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
Job 41:32 He makes a shining wake behind him; one would think the deep had gray hair.
Job 41:33 On earth, there is no equal to him who has been made to live without fear.
Job 41:34 He sees everything that is proud; he is king over all the sons of pride.”

Job Chapter 42

Job 42:1 Then Job answered Yehowah,
Job 42:2 “I know that you can do all things, that no purpose of yours can be stopped.
Job 42:3 ‘Who is this who without knowledge conceals plans?’ Indeed, I have spoken things that I did not understand, things too difficult for me to understand, which I did not know about.
Job 42:4 You said to me, ‘Listen now, and I will speak; I will ask you things, and you will answer me.’
Job 42:5 I had heard about you by my ear’s hearing, but now my eye sees you.
Job 42:6 So I despise myself; I repent in dust and ashes.”
Job 42:7 It came about that after he had said these words to Job, Yehowah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done.
Job 42:8 Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer, so that I may not deal with you after your folly. You have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has done.”
Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Yehowah had commanded them, and Yehowah accepted Job.
Job 42:10 When Job prayed for his friends, Yehowah restored his fortunes. Yehowah gave him twice as much as he had possessed before.
Job 42:11 Then all Job’s brothers, and all his sisters, and all they who had been of his acquaintance before, they came there to him and ate food with him in his house. They sorrowed with him and comforted him about all the disasters that Yehowah had brought on him. Every person gave him 1-weight silver-currency and a ring of gold.
Job 42:12 Yehowah blessed the final end of Job’s life more than the first; he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand jenny donkeys.
Job 42:13 He also had seven sons and three daughters.
Job 42:14 He named the first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Kerenhappuch.
Job 42:15 In all the land no women were found as beautiful as Job’s daughters. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.

Job 42:16 After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his sons and his grandchildren, up to four generations.
Job 42:17 Then Job died, being old and full of days.

Book of Psalms

Psalms Chapter 1

Psa 1:1 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners, or sit in the assembly of mockers.
Psa 1:2 But his delight is in the Law of Yehowah, and on his law he meditates day and night.
Psa 1:3 He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water that produces its fruit in its season, whose leaves do not wither; whatever he does will prosper.
Psa 1:4 The wicked are not so, but are instead like the chaff that the wind drives away.
Psa 1:5 So the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
Psa 1:6 For Yehowah approves of the Way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Psalms Chapter 2

Psa 2:1 Why are the ethnicities in turmoil, and why do the people make plots that will fail?
Psa 2:2 The kings of the earth take their stand together, and the rulers conspire together against Yehowah and against his anointed (Acts 4:25-26), saying,
Psa 2:4 He who sits in Heaven will sneer at them; the Lord mocks them.
Psa 2:5 Then he will speak to them in his anger and terrify them in his rage,
Psa 2:6 “I myself have anointed my king on Zion, my set-apart mountain.”
Psa 2:7 I will announce a decree of Yehowah. He said to me, “You are my Son! This day I have become your Father.
Psa 2:8 Ask me, and I will give you the ethnicities for your inheritance and the farthermost regions of the earth for your possession.
Psa 2:9 You will rule them with an iron rod; like a jar of a potter, you will smash them to pieces” (Rev. 2:27; 12:5; 19:15).
Psa 2:10 So now, you kings be warned; be corrected, you rulers of the earth.
Psa 2:11 Worship Yehowah in fear and rejoice with trembling.
Psa 2:12 Kiss the Son, or he will be angry with you, and you will die in the way, when his anger burns for just a moment. How blessed are all those who seek refuge in him.

Psalms Chapter 3

Psa 3:1 (A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.) Yehowah, how many are my enemies! Many have risen against me.
Psa 3:2 Many say about me, “There is no help for him from the Almighty.” Selah.
Psa 3:3 But you, Yehowah, are a shield around me, my Glory, and the One who lifts up my head.
Psa 3:4 I lift up my voice to Yehowah, and he answers me from his set-apart hill. Selah.
Psa 3:5 I lay down and slept; I awoke, for Yehowah protected me.
Psa 3:6 I will not be afraid of the multitudes of people who have set themselves against me on every side.
Psa 3:7 Rise up, Yehowah! Save me, my Divine One! For you will hit all my enemies on the jaw; you will break the teeth of the wicked.
Psa 3:8 Salvation comes from Yehowah. May your blessings be on your people. Selah.

Psalms Chapter 4

Psa 4:1 (For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm of David.) Answer me when I call, Mighty One of my righteousness; give me room when I am hemmed in. Have mercy on me and listen to my prayer.
Psa 4:2 You people, how long will you turn my honor into shame? How long will you love that which is worthless and seek after lies? Selah.
Psa 4:3 But know that Yehowah sets apart the reverent for himself. Yehowah will hear when I call to him.
Psa 4:4 Tremble in fear but do not sin! Meditate in your heart on your bed and be silent. Selah.
Psa 4:5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in Yehowah.
Psa 4:6 Many ask, “Who will show us anything good?” Yehowah, lift up the light of your face on us.
Psa 4:7 You have given my heart more gladness than others have when their grain and new wine abound.
Psa 4:8 It is in peace that I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, Yehowah, make me safe and secure.

Psalms Chapter 5

Psa 5:1 (For the chief musician; with wind instruments. A psalm of David.) Listen to my call to you, Yehowah; think about my groanings.
Psa 5:2 Listen to the sound of my call, my King and my Divine One, for it is to you that I pray.
Psa 5:3 Yehowah, at dawn you hear my cry; at daybreak I will bring my petition to you and wait expectantly.
Psa 5:4 Certainly, you are not an Almighty who approves of evil; evil people will not be your guests.
Psa 5:5 The arrogant will not stand in your presence; you hate all who behave wickedly.
Psa 5:6 You will destroy liars; Yehowah despises violent and deceitful men.
Psa 5:7 But as for me, because of your great covenant faithfulness, I will come into your house; in reverence I will bow down toward your set-apart temple.
Psa 5:8 Oh Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies; make your Path straight before me.
Psa 5:9 For there is no truth in their mouth; their inward being is wicked; their throat is an open tomb; they flatter with their tongue.
Psa 5:10 Declare them guilty, Almighty One; may their schemes be their downfall! Drive them out for their many transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.
Psa 5:11 But may all those who take refuge in you rejoice; let them always shout for joy, because you defend them; let them be joyful in you, those who love your name.
Psa 5:12 For you will bless the righteous, Yehowah; you will surround them with grace as with a shield.

Psalms Chapter 6

Psa 6:1 (For the chief musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith style. A psalm of David.) Yehowah, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.
Psa 6:2 Have mercy on me, Yehowah, for I am frail; heal me, Yehowah, for my bones are shaking.
Psa 6:3 My soul also is extremely troubled. But you, Yehowah, how long will this continue?
Psa 6:4 Return, Yehowah! Rescue me. Save me because of your covenant faithfulness!
Psa 6:5 For in death there is no remembrance of you. In the place of the dead who will give you thanks?
Psa 6:6 I am weary with my groaning. All night I drench my bed with tears; I wash my couch away with my tears.
Psa 6:7 My eyes grow dim from grief; they grow weak because of all my adversaries.
Psa 6:8 Get away from me, all you who practice iniquity; for Yehowah has heard the sound of my weeping.
Psa 6:9 Yehowah has heard my appeal for mercy; Yehowah has accepted my prayer.
Psa 6:10 All my enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled. They will turn back and be suddenly humiliated.

Psalms Chapter 7

Psa 7:1 (A musical composition of David, which he sang to Yehowah concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.) Yehowah my Divine One, I take refuge in you! Save me from all who chase me, and rescue me.
Psa 7:2 Otherwise, they will rip me apart like a lion, tearing me in pieces with no one else able to bring me to safety.
Psa 7:3 Yehowah my Divine One, I never did what my enemies say I did; there is no injustice on my hands.
Psa 7:4 I have never done wrong to anyone at peace with me, or senselessly harmed any who are against me.
Psa 7:5 If I am not telling the truth, then let my enemy pursue my life and overtake it; let him trample my living body on the ground and leave me lying dishonored in the dust. Selah.
Psa 7:6 Arise, Yehowah, in your anger; stand up against the rage of my enemies; wake up for my sake and carry out the righteous decrees that you have commanded for them.
Psa 7:7 The countries are assembled all around you; take once more your rightful place over them.
Psa 7:8 Yehowah, judge the ethnicities; vindicate me, Yehowah, because I am righteous and innocent, Most High.
Psa 7:9 May the evil deeds of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous people, righteous Almighty, you who examine hearts and minds.
Psa 7:10 My shield comes from the Almighty, the One who saves the upright in heart.
Psa 7:11 The Almighty is a righteous judge, an Almighty who is indignant each day.
Psa 7:12 If a person does not repent, Yehowah will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.
Psa 7:13 He prepares to use weapons against him; he makes his arrows flaming shafts.
Psa 7:14 Think about the one who is pregnant with wickedness, who conceives destructive plans, who gives birth to harmful lies.
Psa 7:15 He digs a pit and hollows it out and then falls into the hole he has made.
Psa 7:17 I will give thanks to Yehowah for his justice; I will sing praise to Yehowah Most High!

Psalms Chapter 8

Psa 8:1 (For the chief musician; set to the gittith style. A psalm of David.) Yehowah our Lord, how magnificent is your name in all the earth, you who reveal your glory in the heavens above!
Psa 8:2 Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have created praise because of your adversaries, in order to silence both the enemy and the avenger.
Psa 8:3 When I look up at your heavens, which your fingers have made, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
Psa 8:4 of what importance is the human race that you notice them, or mankind that you pay attention to them?
Psa 8:5 Yet you have made them only a little lower than the heavenly beings and have crowned them with glory and honor.
Psa 8:6 You make him to rule over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet (1 Cor. 15:27; Heb. 2:8):
Psa 8:7 All sheep and oxen, and even the animals of the field,
Psa 8:8 the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea, everything that passes through the currents of the seas.
Psa 8:9 Yehowah our Lord, how magnificent is your name in all the earth!

Psalms Chapter 9

Psa 9:1 (For the chief musician; set to Muth Labben style. A psalm of David.) I will give thanks to Yehowah with my whole heart; I will tell about all your marvelous deeds.
Psa 9:2 I will be glad and rejoice in you; I will sing praise to your name, Most High!
Psa 9:3 When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish before you.
Psa 9:4 For you have defended my just cause; you sit on your throne, a righteous judge!
Psa 9:5 You rebuked the ethnicities; you have destroyed the wicked; you have blotted out their name forever and ever.
Psa 9:6 The enemy crumbled like ruins when you overthrew their cities. All remembrance of them has perished.
Psa 9:7 But Yehowah remains forever; he has established his throne for justice.
Psa 9:8 He will judge the world with righteousness, and he will execute judgment for the ethnicities with fairness.
Psa 9:9 Yehowah also will be a stronghold for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.
Psa 9:10 Those who know your name trust in you, for you, Yehowah, do not abandon those who seek you.
Psa 9:11 Sing praises to Yehowah, who rules in Zion; tell the ethnicities what he has done!
Psa 9:12 For Yehowah who avenges bloodshed remembers; he does not forget the cry of the oppressed.
Psa 9:13 Have mercy on me, Yehowah; see how I am oppressed by those who hate me, you who can snatch me from the gates of death.
Psa 9:14 Oh, that I might proclaim all your praise. In the gates of the daughter of Zion, I will rejoice in your salvation!
Psa 9:15 The ethnicities have sunk down into the pit that they made; their feet are caught in the net that they hid.
Psa 9:16 Yehowah has made himself known; he has executed judgment; the wicked is ensnared by his own actions. A meditation, Selah.
Psa 9:17 The wicked are turned back and sent to the place of the dead, the destiny of all the ethnicities that forget the Almighty.
Psa 9:18 For the needy will not always be forgotten, nor will the hopes of the oppressed be forever dashed.
Psa 9:19 Arise, Yehowah; do not let man win against you; may the ethnicities be judged in your sight.

Psa 9:20 Terrify them, Yehowah; may the ethnicities know that they are mere men. Selah.

Psalms Chapter 10

Psa 10:1 Why, Yehowah, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
Psa 10:2 Because of their arrogance, wicked people chase the oppressed; but please let the wicked be trapped by their own schemes that they have devised.
Psa 10:3 For the wicked person boasts of his deepest desires; he blesses the greedy and insults Yehowah.
Psa 10:4 The wicked man has a raised face; he does not seek nor ever think about the Almighty, because he does not care at all about him.
Psa 10:5 He is secure at all times, but your righteous decrees are too high for him; he snorts at all his enemies.
Psa 10:6 He says in his heart, “I will never fail; throughout all generations I will not meet adversity.”
Psa 10:7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceptive, harmful words; his tongue injures and destroys.
Psa 10:8 He waits in ambush near the villages; in the secret places he murders the innocent; his eyes look for some helpless victim.
Psa 10:9 He lurks in secret like a lion in the thicket; he lies in wait to catch the oppressed. He catches the oppressed when he pulls in his net.
Psa 10:10 His victims are crushed and beaten down; they fall into his strong nets.
Psa 10:11 He says in his heart, “The Almighty has forgotten; he covers his face; he will not bother to look.”
Psa 10:12 Arise, O Yehowah! Lift up your hand, Almighty One! Do not forget the oppressed.
Psa 10:13 Why does the wicked person reject the Almighty? He says in his heart, “You will not hold me accountable.”
Psa 10:14 You have taken notice, for you always see the one who inflicts the misery and sorrow. The helpless entrusts himself to you; you rescue the fatherless.
Psa 10:15 Break the arm of the wicked and evil person. Make him account for his evil deeds, which he thought you would not discover.
Psa 10:16 Yehowah is King forever and ever; the ethnicities are driven out of his land.
Psa 10:17 Yehowah, you have heard the needs of the oppressed; you strengthen their heart, you listen to their prayer.
Psa 10:18 You defend the fatherless and the oppressed, so that no man on the earth will cause terror again.

Psalms Chapter 11

Psa 11:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) I take refuge in Yehowah; how will you say to me, “Flee like a bird to the mountain?”
Psa 11:2 For see! The wicked prepare their bows. They make ready their arrows on the strings to shoot in the darkness at the upright in heart.
Psa 11:3 For if the foundations are ruined, what can the righteous do?
Psa 11:4 Yehowah is in his set-apart temple; the throne of Yehowah is in Heaven; his eyes watch, his eyes examine the children of mankind.
Psa 11:5 Yehowah examines both the righteous and the wicked, but he hates those who love to do violence.
Psa 11:6 He rains burning coals and brimstone upon the wicked; a scorching wind will be their portion from his cup!
Psa 11:7 For Yehowah is righteous, and he loves righteousness; the upright will see his face.

Psalms Chapter 12

Psa 12:1 (For the chief musician; set to the Sheminith. A psalm of David.) Help, Yehowah, for the reverent have disappeared; the faithful have vanished.
Psa 12:2 Everyone says empty words to his neighbor; everyone speaks with flattering lips and a deceitful heart.
Psa 12:4 These are those who have said, “With our tongues will we prevail. When our lips speak, who can be master over us?”
Psa 12:5 “Because of violence against the poor, because of the groans of the needy, I will arise,” declares Yehowah. “I will provide the safety for which they long.”
Psa 12:6 The words of Yehowah are pure words, like silver purified in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times.
Psa 12:7 You are Yehowah! You keep them. You preserve the reverent people from this wicked generation and forever.
Psa 12:8 The wicked walk on every side, when evil is exalted among the children of mankind.

Psalms Chapter 13

Psa 13:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) How long, Yehowah, will you keep forgetting about me? Forever? How long will you hide your face from me?
Psa 13:2 How long must I worry and have grief in my heart all day? How long will my enemy triumph over me?
Psa 13:3 Look at me and answer me, Yehowah my Divine One! Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death.
Psa 13:4 Do not let my enemy boast, “I have defeated him,” so that my enemy may not say, “I have prevailed over my adversary;” otherwise, my enemies will rejoice when I am brought down.
Psa 13:5 But I have trusted in your covenant faithfulness; my heart rejoices in your salvation!
Psa 13:6 I will sing to Yehowah, because he has treated me generously!

Psalms Chapter 14

Psa 14:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) A fool says in his heart, “The Almighty does not exist.” They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity; there is no one who does good.
Psa 14:2 Yehowah looks down from Heaven on the children of mankind to see if there are any who understand, who seek after the Almighty.
Psa 14:3 They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt. There is no one who does good, no, not one.
Psa 14:4 Do they not know anything, those who commit iniquity, those who eat up my people as they eat bread, but who do not call on Yehowah?
Psa 14:6 You want to humiliate the poor person, even though Yehowah is his refuge.
Psa 14:7 Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion! When Yehowah brings back his people from the captivity, then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Psalms Chapter 15

Psa 15:1 (A psalm of David.) Yehowah, who may stay in your tabernacle? Who may live on your set-apart hill?
Psa 15:3 He does not slander with his tongue, he does not harm others, and he does not insult his neighbor.
Psa 15:4 The worthless person is despised in his eyes, but he honors those who fear Yehowah. He swears to his own disadvantage and does not take back his promises.
Psa 15:5 He does not charge interest when he lends money. He does not take bribes to testify against the innocent. He who does these things will never be shaken.

Psalms Chapter 16

Psa 16:1 (A michtam of David.) Protect me, Almighty One, for I take refuge in you.
Psa 16:2 I say to Yehowah, “You are my Lord; my goodness is nothing apart from you.
Psa 16:3 As for the set-apart people who are on the earth, they are noble people; all my delight is in them.
Psa 16:4 Their troubles will be increased, those who seek out false deities. I will not pour out drink offerings of blood to their deities or lift up their names with my lips.
Psa 16:5 Yehowah, you are my chosen portion and my cup. You hold onto my destiny.
Psa 16:6 Measuring lines have been laid for me in pleasant places; surely a pleasing inheritance is mine.
Psa 16:7 I will bless Yehowah, who counsels me; even at night my mind instructs me.
Psa 16:8 I set Yehowah before me at all times, so I will not be shaken from his right hand!
Psa 16:9 Therefore, my heart is glad; my glory is rejoicing! Surely I will live in security.
Psa 16:10 For you will not abandon my soul to the place of the dead. You will not let your faithful One see decomposition.
Psa 16:11 You teach me the Path of life; abundant joy resides in your presence; delights abide in your right hand forever!”

Psalms Chapter 17

Psa 17:1 (A prayer of David.) Listen to my plea for justice, Yehowah; pay attention to my call for help! Give ear to my prayer from lips without deceit.
Psa 17:2 Let my vindication come from your presence; let your eyes see what is right!
Psa 17:3 If you test my heart, if you come to me in the night, you will purify me and will not find any evil plans; my mouth will not transgress.
Psa 17:4 As for the deeds of mankind, it is at the word of your lips that I have kept myself from the ways of the lawless.
Psa 17:5 My steps have held firmly to your tracks; my feet have not slipped.
Psa 17:6 I call to you, for you answer me, Almighty One; turn your ear to me and listen when I speak.
Psa 17:7 Show your covenant faithfulness in a wonderful way, you who save by your right hand those who take refuge in you from their enemies!
Psa 17:8 Protect me like the apple of your eye; hide me under the shadow of your wings,
Psa 17:9 from the presence of the wicked ones who assault me, my enemies who surround me.
Psa 17:10 They have no mercy on anyone; their mouths speak with pride.
Psa 17:11 They have surrounded my steps. They set their eyes to strike me to the ground.
Psa 17:12 They are like a lion eager for a victim, like a young lion crouching in hidden places.
Psa 17:13 Arise, Yehowah! Attack them! Throw them down on their faces! Rescue my life from the wicked by your sword!
Psa 17:14 Rescue me from men by your hand, Yehowah, from men of this world whose prosperity is in this life alone! You will fill the bellies of your treasured ones with riches; they will have many children and will leave their wealth to their children.
Psa 17:15 As for me, I will see your face in righteousness; I will be satisfied, when I awake with a sight of you (Mat. 5:48; 22:30).

Psalms Chapter 18

Psa 18:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David, the servant of Yehowah, when he sang to Yehowah the words of this song on the day that Yehowah rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He sang:) I love you, Yehowah, my strength.
Psa 18:2 Yehowah is my Rock, my fortress, the One who brings me to safety; he is my Divine One, my Rock; I take refuge in him. He is my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold.
Psa 18:3 I will call on Yehowah who is worthy to be praised, and I will be saved from my enemies.
Psa 18:4 The cords of death surrounded me, and the rushing waters of worthlessness overwhelmed me.
Psa 18:5 The cords of the place of the dead surrounded me; the snares of death trapped me.
Psa 18:6 In my distress I called to Yehowah; I called for help to my Divine One. He heard my voice from his temple; my call for help went into his presence; it went into his ears.
Psa 18:7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of the mountains also trembled and were shaken, because He was angry.
Psa 18:8 Smoke went up from out of his nostrils, and blazing fire came out of his mouth. Coals were ignited by it.
Psa 18:9 He opened Heaven and came down, and thick darkness was under his feet.
Psa 18:10 He rode on an angel and flew; he glided on the wings of the wind.
Psa 18:11 He made darkness a secret tabernacle around him, heavy rain clouds in the skies.
Psa 18:12 Hailstones and coals of fire fell from the lightning before him.
Psa 18:13 Yehowah thundered in the heavens! The voice of the Most High shouted, hailstones and coals of fire.
Psa 18:15 Then the water channels appeared; the foundations of the globe were exposed at your battle cry, Yehowah, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
Psa 18:16 He reached down from above; he took hold of me! He pulled me out of the surging water.
Psa 18:17 He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.
Psa 18:18 They came against me on the day of my distress, but Yehowah was my support!

Psa 18:19 He set me free in a wide open place; he saved me, because he was pleased with me.
Psa 18:20 Yehowah has rewarded me because of my righteousness; he has restored me, because my hands were clean.
Psa 18:21 For I have kept the Ways of Yehowah and have not wickedly turned away from my Divine One.
Psa 18:22 For all his righteous decrees have been before me; as for his statutes, I have not turned away from them.
Psa 18:23 I have also been innocent before him, and I have kept myself from sin.
Psa 18:24 Therefore, Yehowah has restored me because of my righteousness, because my hands were clean before his eyes.
Psa 18:25 To anyone who is faithful, you show yourself to be faithful; to a man who is blameless, you show yourself to be blameless.
Psa 18:26 To anyone who is pure, you show yourself pure; but you are clever toward anyone who is twisted.
Psa 18:27 For you save afflicted people, but you bring down those with proud, uplifted eyes!
Psa 18:28 For you give light to my lamp; Yehowah my Divine One lights up my darkness.
Psa 18:29 For by you I can run through a barricade of soldiers; by my Divine One I can leap over a wall.
Psa 18:30 As for the Almighty: His Way is perfect. The Word of Yehowah is pure! He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him.
Psa 18:31 For who is Almighty besides Yehowah? Who is a Rock except our Divine One?
Psa 18:32 It is the Almighty who puts strength on me like a belt, who places the blameless person on his Path.
Psa 18:33 He makes my feet swift like a deer and places me on the heights!
Psa 18:34 He trains my hands for war and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.
Psa 18:35 You have given me the shield of your salvation. Your right hand has supported me, and your grace has made me great.
Psa 18:36 You have made a wide place for my feet beneath me, so that my feet have not slipped.
Psa 18:37 I pursued my enemies and caught them; I did not turn back, until they were destroyed.
Psa 18:38 I smashed them, so that they were unable to rise; they have fallen under my feet.
Psa 18:39 For you put strength on me like a belt for battle; you put under me those who rise up against me.
Psa 18:40 You gave me the back of my enemies' necks; I annihilated those who hated me.

Psa 18:41 They called for help, but no one saved them; they called out to Yehowah, but he did not answer them.
Psa 18:42 I beat them into fine pieces like dust before the wind; I threw them out like mud in the streets.
Psa 18:43 You rescued me from the disputes of people. You have made me the head over ethnicities. People that I have not known serve me.
Psa 18:44 As soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me; the sons of foreigners were forced to bow to me.
Psa 18:45 The foreigners came trembling out of their strongholds.
Psa 18:46 Yehowah lives; may my Rock be praised! May the Mighty One of my salvation be exalted!
Psa 18:47 He is the Almighty who executes vengeance for me, who subdues the ethnicities under me.
Psa 18:48 I am set free from my enemies! Indeed, you lifted me above the ones who rose against me! You rescued me from violent men.
Psa 18:49 Therefore, I will give thanks to you, Yehowah, among the ethnicities; I will sing praises to your name!
Psa 18:50 He gives great victory to his king, and he shows his covenant loyalty to his anointed one, to David and to his descendants forever (2 Samuel 22).

Psalms Chapter 19

Psa 19:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) The heavens declare the glory of the Almighty, and the apparently visible arch of the skies make his handiwork known!
Psa 19:2 Day after day speech pours out; night after night it reveals knowledge.
Psa 19:3 There is no speech or spoken words; their voice is not heard.
Psa 19:4 Yet their words go out over all the earth, and their speech to the end of the globe (Rom. 10:18). He has pitched a tent for the sun among them (Mazzaroth).
Psa 19:5 The sun is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and like a strong man who rejoices when he runs his race (Joel 2:16).
Psa 19:6 Its egress is from a beginning point in the heavens, at the Spring Equinox, also its point of termination; nothing escapes its heat (Gen. 1:14; 8:13).
Psa 19:7 The Law of Yehowah is perfect, restoring the soul; the testimony of Yehowah is reliable, making the simple wise.
Psa 19:8 The instructions of Yehowah are right, making the heart glad; the commandment of Yehowah is pure, bringing light to the eyes.
Psa 19:9 The fear of Yehowah is pure, enduring forever; the righteous decrees of Yehowah are true and altogether right!
Psa 19:10 They are of greater value than gold, even more than much fine gold; they are sweeter than honey and the dripping honey from the honeycomb.
Psa 19:11 Yes, by them your servant is warned; in obeying them there is great reward.
Psa 19:12 Who can discern all his own errors? Cleanse me from hidden faults.
Psa 19:13 Keep your servant also from arrogant sins; let them not rule over me. Then I will be perfect, and I will be innocent from many transgressions.
Psa 19:14 May the words of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart be acceptable in your sight, Yehowah, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Psalms Chapter 20

Psa 20:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) May Yehowah help you in the day of trouble; may the name of the Mighty One of Jacob protect you
Psa 20:2 and send help from the Set-apart Place to support you from Zion.
Psa 20:3 May he call to mind all your offerings and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah.
Psa 20:4 May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.
Psa 20:5 Then we will rejoice in your victory, and in the name of our Divine One, we will raise banners. May Yehowah grant all your petitions.
Psa 20:6 Now I know that Yehowah will rescue his anointed one; he will answer him from his set-apart Heaven with the strength of his right hand that can rescue him.
Psa 20:7 Some trust in chariots and others in horses, but we call on the name of Yehowah our Divine One.
Psa 20:8 They will be brought down and fall, but we will rise and stand upright!
Psa 20:9 Yehowah, rescue the king; help us when we call.

Psalms Chapter 21

Psa 21:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) The king rejoices in your strength, Yehowah! How greatly he rejoices in the salvation you provide!
Psa 21:2 You have given him his heart's desire and have not held back the request of his lips. Selah.
Psa 21:3 For you bring him rich blessings; you placed on his head a crown of purest gold.
Psa 21:4 He asked you for life; you gave it to him; you gave him long days forever and ever.
Psa 21:5 His glory is great because of your victory; you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.
Psa 21:6 For you grant him lasting blessings; you make him glad with the joy of your presence.
Psa 21:7 For the king trusts in Yehowah; through the covenant faithfulness of the Most High he will not be moved.
Psa 21:8 Your hand will seize all your enemies; your right hand will seize those who hate you.
Psa 21:9 At the time of your anger, you will burn them up as in a fiery furnace. Yehowah will consume them in his wrath, and the fire will devour them.
Psa 21:10 You will destroy their offspring from the earth and their descendants from among the human race.
Psa 21:11 For they intended evil against you; they conceived a plot with which they will not succeed!
Psa 21:12 For you will turn them back; you will draw your bow before them.
Psa 21:13 Be exalted, Yehowah, in your strength; we will sing and praise your power!

Psalms Chapter 22

Psa 22:1 (For the chief musician; set to “The Rhythm of the Deer.” A psalm of David.) My Divine One, my Divine One, why have you abandoned me (Mark 15:34; Matt. 27:46)? Why are you so far from saving me and far from the words of my anguish?
Psa 22:2 My Divine One, I cry out in the daytime, but you do not answer, and at night I am not silent!
Psa 22:3 Yet you are set apart; you sit as King with the praises of Israel.
Psa 22:4 Our ancestors trusted in you; they trusted in you, and you rescued them.
Psa 22:5 They cried to you, and they were rescued. They trusted in you and were not disappointed.
Psa 22:6 But I am a worm and not a man, a disgrace to humanity and despised by the people.
Psa 22:7 All those who see me taunt me; they mock me; they shake their heads at me.
Psa 22:8 They say, “He trusts in Yehowah; let Yehowah rescue him. Let him rescue him, for he delights in him.”
Psa 22:9 For you brought me from the womb; you made me trust you when I was on my mother’s breasts.
Psa 22:10 I have been thrown on you from the womb; you are my Divine One since I was in my mother’s womb!
Psa 22:11 Do not be far away from me, for trouble is near; there is no one to help.
Psa 22:12 Many bulls surround me; stalwart men of Bashan surround me.
Psa 22:14 I am being poured out like water, and all my bones are dislocated. My heart is like wax; it melts away within my inner parts.
Psa 22:15 My strength has dried up like a potsherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have laid me in the dust of death.
Psa 22:16 For dogs have surrounded me; a company of evildoers has encircled me; they have pierced my hands and my feet (Zech. 12:10; John 19:37; Isa. 53:7; Rev. 1:7).
Psa 22:17 I can count all my bones. They look and stare at me.
Psa 22:18 They divide my garments among themselves, they cast lots for my clothes.
Psa 22:19 Do not be far away, Yehowah; please hurry to help me, my Strength!
Psa 22:20 Rescue my soul from the sword, my only life from the claws of wild dogs.

Psa 22:21 Save me from the lion’s mouth; rescue me from the horns of the wild oxen.
Psa 22:22 I will declare your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.
Psa 22:23 You who fear Yehowah, praise him! All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him! Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!
Psa 22:24 For he has not despised or abhorred the suffering of the afflicted one; Yehowah has not hidden his face from him; when the afflicted one cried to him, he heard.
Psa 22:25 My praise will be because of you in the great congregation; I will fulfill my vows before those who fear him.
Psa 22:26 The oppressed will eat and be satisfied; those who seek Yehowah will praise him. May your hearts live forever.
Psa 22:27 All the people of the earth will remember and turn to Yehowah; all the families of the ethnicities will bow down before you.
Psa 22:28 For the Kingdom belongs to Yehowah; he is the ruler over the ethnicities.
Psa 22:29 All the prosperous people of the earth will feast and will worship; all those who are descending into the dust will bow before him, those who cannot preserve their own lives.
Psa 22:30 A generation to come will serve him; they will tell the next generation about the Lord.
Psa 22:31 They will come and tell of his righteousness; they will tell to a people not yet born, what he has done!

Psalms Chapter 23

Psa 23:1 (A psalm of David.) Yehowah is my Shepherd; I will lack nothing.
Psa 23:2 He makes me to lie down in grassy pastures; he leads me beside tranquil water.
Psa 23:3 He brings back my life; he guides me along right Paths for his name's sake.
Psa 23:4 Even though I walk through a valley of the darkest shadow of death, I will not fear harm since you are with me; your scepter and your trekking pole comfort me.
Psa 23:5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you have anointed my head with oil; my cup runs over.
Psa 23:6 Surely goodness and covenant faithfulness will pursue me all the days of my life; and I will live in the temple of Yehowah for never-ending days!

Psalms Chapter 24

Psa 24:1 (A psalm of David.) The earth belongs to Yehowah, and its fullness, the globe, and all who live on it.
Psa 24:2 For he has founded it upon the seas and established it on the rivers.
Psa 24:3 Who will ascend the Mountain of Yehowah? Who will stand in his Set-apart Place?
Psa 24:4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up a falsehood and has not sworn an oath in order to deceive.
Psa 24:6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, those who seek the face of the Mighty One of Jacob. Selah.
Psa 24:7 Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, everlasting doors, so that the King of Glory may come in!
Psa 24:8 Who is this King of Glory? Yehowah, strong and mighty; Yehowah, mighty in battle!
Psa 24:9 Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, everlasting doors, so that the King of Glory may come in!
Psa 24:10 Who is this King of Glory? Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, he is the King of Glory. Selah.

Psalms Chapter 25

Psa 25:1 (A psalm of David.) To you, Yehowah, I lift up my life!
Psa 25:2 My Divine One, I trust in you. Do not let me be humiliated; do not let my enemies rejoice triumphantly over me.
Psa 25:3 May no one who hopes in you be disgraced; may those who act treacherously without cause be ashamed!
Psa 25:4 Make known to me your Ways, Yehowah; teach me your Paths.
Psa 25:5 Guide me into your truth and teach me, for you are the Mighty One of my salvation; I hope in you all day long.
Psa 25:6 Call to mind, Yehowah, your acts of compassion and of covenant faithfulness; for they have always existed.
Psa 25:7 Do not think about the sins of my youth or my rebelliousness: Call me to mind with covenant faithfulness because of your goodness, Yehowah!
Psa 25:8 Yehowah is good and upright; therefore he teaches sinners the Way.
Psa 25:9 He guides the humble in what is right, and he teaches them his Way.
Psa 25:10 All the Paths of Yehowah are steadfast love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his commands.
Psa 25:11 For your name's sake, Yehowah, pardon my sin, for it is great.
Psa 25:12 Who is the man who fears Yehowah? The Lord will instruct him in the Way that he should choose.
Psa 25:13 His life will go along in goodness; and his descendants will inherit the land.
Psa 25:14 The friendship of Yehowah is for those who honor him, and he makes his covenant known to them.
Psa 25:15 My eyes are always on Yehowah, for he will free my feet from the net.
Psa 25:16 Turn toward me and have mercy on me; for I am alone and afflicted.
Psa 25:17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged; draw me out from my distress!
Psa 25:18 See my affliction and my toils; forgive all my sins.
Psa 25:19 See my enemies, for they are many; they hate me with cruel hatred.
Psa 25:20 Protect my life and rescue me; do not let me be humiliated, for I take refuge in you!
Psa 25:21 May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I hope in you.

Psalms Chapter 26

Psa 26:1 (A psalm of David.) Judge me, Yehowah, for I have walked with integrity; I have trusted in Yehowah without wavering.
Psa 26:2 Examine me, Yehowah, and test me; test the purity of my mind and my heart!
Psa 26:3 For your covenant faithfulness is before my eyes, and I walk about in your faithfulness.
Psa 26:4 I do not associate with deceitful people, nor do I mingle with dishonest people.
Psa 26:5 I hate the assembly of evildoers, and I do not live with the wicked.
Psa 26:6 I wash my hands in innocence, and I go around your altar, Yehowah,
Psa 26:7 to sing a loud song of praise and report all your wonderful deeds.
Psa 26:8 Yehowah, I love the temple where you live, the place where your glory lives!
Psa 26:9 Do not sweep me away with sinners, or my life with people who are bloodthirsty,
Psa 26:10 in whose hands there is a plot, and whose right hand is full of bribes.
Psa 26:11 But as for me, I will walk in integrity; redeem me and have mercy on me.
Psa 26:12 My foot stands on level ground; in the assemblies will I bless Yehowah!

Psalms Chapter 27

Psa 27:1 (A psalm of David.) Yehowah is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear? Yehowah is my life's refuge; whom should I dread?
Psa 27:2 When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh, my adversaries and my enemies stumbled and fell.
Psa 27:3 Though a military force encamps against me, my heart will not fear; though war rises up against me, even then I will remain confident.
Psa 27:4 One thing have I asked of Yehowah, and I will seek it: That I may live in the temple of Yehowah all the days of my life, to see the beauty of Yehowah and to meditate in his temple.
Psa 27:5 For in the Day of trouble he will hide me in his shelter; in the cover of his tent he will conceal me. He will lift me high on a rock!
Psa 27:6 Then my head will be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent! I will sing and make songs to Yehowah!
Psa 27:7 Hear, Yehowah, my voice when I cry out! Have mercy on me and answer me!
Psa 27:8 My heart says about you, "Seek his face!" I seek your face, Yehowah.
Psa 27:9 Do not hide your face from me; do not turn your servant away in anger! You have been my helper; do not forsake me or abandon me, Mighty One of my salvation!
Psa 27:10 Even if my father and my mother forsake me, Yehowah will take me in.
Psa 27:11 Teach me your Way, Yehowah. Lead me on a level Path because of my enemies.
Psa 27:12 Do not give me up to the desires of my enemies, for false witnesses have risen up against me, and they breathe out violence!
Psa 27:13 What would have happened to me if I had not believed that I would see the goodness of Yehowah in the land of the living?
Psa 27:14 Wait for Yehowah; be strong and let your heart be courageous! Wait for Yehowah!

Psalms Chapter 28

Psa 28:1 (A psalm of David.) To you, Yehowah, I cry out; my Rock, do not ignore me. If you do not respond to me, I will join those who go down to the grave.
Psa 28:2 Hear the sound of my pleading when I call for help from you, when I lift up my hands toward your Most Set-apart Place!
Psa 28:3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, those who do iniquity, who speak peace with their neighbors but have evil in their hearts.
Psa 28:4 Give them what their deeds deserve and repay them what their wickedness demands, repay them for the work of their hands and render to them their due.
Psa 28:5 Because they do not understand the deeds of Yehowah or the work of his hands, he will tear them down and never rebuild them.
Psa 28:6 Blessed be Yehowah, because he has heard the sound of my pleading!
Psa 28:7 Yehowah is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and I am helped. Therefore, my heart greatly rejoices, and I will praise him with singing!
Psa 28:8 Yehowah is the strength of his people, and he is the saving refuge of his anointed.
Psa 28:9 Save your people and bless your inheritance. Be their Shepherd and carry them forever.

Psalms Chapter 29

Psa 29:1 (A psalm of David.) Give praise to Yehowah, you sons of the mighty! Give praise to Yehowah for his glory and strength.
Psa 29:2 Give to Yehowah the glory that his name deserves. Bow down to Yehowah in the splendor of consecration.
Psa 29:6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox.
Psa 29:7 The voice of Yehowah sends out flames of fire.
Psa 29:9 The voice of Yehowah causes the oaks to twist and strips the forests bare. Everyone in his temple shouts, “Glory!”
Psa 29:10 Yehowah sits as king over the flood; Yehowah sits as king forever.
Psa 29:11 Yehowah gives strength to his people; Yehowah blesses his people with peace.

Psalms Chapter 30

Psa 30:1 (A psalm; a song at the dedication of the temple. A psalm of David.) I will exalt you, Yehowah, for you have raised me up and have not allowed my enemies to rejoice over me.
Psa 30:2 Yehowah my Divine One, I cried to you for help, and you healed me.
Psa 30:3 Yehowah, you have brought up my soul from the place of the dead; you have kept me alive from going down to the grave.
Psa 30:4 Sing praises to Yehowah, you his faithful people! Give thanks when you remember his consecration.
Psa 30:5 For his anger is only for a moment; but his grace is for a lifetime. Weeping comes for a night, but joy comes at dawn.
Psa 30:6 In confidence I said, “I will never be shaken.”
Psa 30:7 Yehowah, by your grace you established me as a strong mountain; but when you hid your face, I was troubled.
Psa 30:8 I cried to you, Yehowah, and sought grace from the Lord!
Psa 30:9 What advantage is there in my death, if I go down to the grave? Will the dust praise you? Will it declare your truth?
Psa 30:10 Hear, Yehowah, and have mercy on me! Yehowah, be my helper.
Psa 30:11 You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have removed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness.
Psa 30:12 So now my glory will sing praise to you and not be silent; Yehowah my Divine One, I will give thanks to you forever!

Psalms Chapter 31

Psa 31:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) In you, Yehowah, I take refuge; never let me be humiliated. Rescue me in your righteousness.
Psa 31:2 Listen to me; rescue me quickly; be my rock of refuge, a stronghold to save me.
Psa 31:3 For you are my Rock and my Fortress; therefore, for your name's sake, lead and guide me.
Psa 31:4 Pluck me out of the net that they have hidden for me, for you are my refuge.
Psa 31:5 Into your hands I entrust my spirit; you will redeem me, Yehowah, Mighty One of truth.
Psa 31:6 I hate those who serve worthless idols, but I trust in Yehowah.
Psa 31:7 I will be glad and rejoice in your covenant faithfulness, for you saw my affliction; you knew the distress of my soul.
Psa 31:8 You have not given me into the hand of my enemy. You have set my feet in a wide open place.
Psa 31:9 Have mercy upon me, Yehowah, for I am in distress; my eyes grow weary with grief with my soul and my body.
Psa 31:10 For my life is weary with sorrow and my years with groaning. My strength fails because of my sin, and my bones are wasting away.
Psa 31:11 Because of all my enemies, people disdain me; my neighbors are appalled at my situation, and those who know me are horrified. Those who see me in the street run from me.
Psa 31:12 I am forgotten as a dead man whom no one thinks about. I am like a broken pot.
Psa 31:13 For I have heard the whispering of many, terrifying news from every side as they plot together against me. They plot to take away my life.
Psa 31:14 But I trust in you, Yehowah; I proclaim, "You are my Divine One!"
Psa 31:15 My destiny is in your hand. Rescue me from the hands of my enemies and from those who pursue me.
Psa 31:16 Make your face shine on your servant; save me in your covenant faithfulness.
Psa 31:17 Do not let me be humiliated, Yehowah; for I call out to you! May the wicked be humiliated! May they be silent in the place of the dead.
Psa 31:18 May lying lips be silenced that speak against the righteous defiantly with arrogance and contempt.
Psa 31:19 How great is your goodness that you have stored up for those who revere you, that you perform for those who take refuge in you before all the children of mankind!

Psa 31:20 In the shelter of your presence, you hide them from the plots of men. You hide them in a shelter from the violence of tongues.
Psa 31:21 Blessed be Yehowah, for he showed me his marvelous covenant faithfulness when I was in a besieged city.
Psa 31:22 Though I said in my haste, “I am cut off from your eyes,” yet you heard my plea for help when I cried to you.
Psa 31:23 Oh, love Yehowah, all you faithful followers. Yehowah protects the faithful, but he pays back the arrogant in full.
Psa 31:24 Be strong and confident, all you who trust in Yehowah for help.

Psalms Chapter 32

Psa 32:1 (A psalm of David. A maschil.) Blessed is the person whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
Psa 32:2 Blessed is the man to whom Yehowah reckons no guilt and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
Psa 32:3 When I remained silent, my bones were wasting away, while I groaned all day long.
Psa 32:4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me. My strength withered as in summer drought. Selah.
Psa 32:5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I no longer hid my iniquity. I said, “I will confess my transgressions to Yehowah,” and you forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah.
Psa 32:6 Because of this, all who are reverent should pray to you at a time of great distress. Then when the surging waters overflow, they will not reach those people.
Psa 32:7 You are my hiding place; you will guard me from trouble. You will surround me with the songs of victory. Selah.
Psa 32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the Way which you should go. I will instruct you with my eye upon you.
Psa 32:9 Do not be like a horse or like a mule, which have no understanding; it is only with bridle and bit to control them that they will go where you want them to.
Psa 32:10 The wicked have many sorrows, but the covenant faithfulness of Yehowah will surround the one who trusts in him.
Psa 32:11 Be glad in Yehowah, and rejoice, you righteous; shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

Psalms Chapter 33

Psa 33:1 Rejoice in Yehowah, you righteous; praise is appropriate for the upright.
Psa 33:2 Give thanks to Yehowah with the harp; sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.
Psa 33:3 Sing to him a new song; play skillfully and sing with joy.
Psa 33:4 For the Word of Yehowah is upright, and everything he does is fair.
Psa 33:5 He loves righteousness and justice. The earth is full of the covenant faithfulness of Yehowah.
Psa 33:6 By the Word of Yehowah the heavens were made, and all the stars were made by the breath of his mouth.
Psa 33:7 He gathers the waters of the sea together like a heap; he puts the oceans in storehouses.
Psa 33:8 Let the whole earth fear Yehowah; let all the inhabitants of the globe stand in awe of him.
Psa 33:9 For he spoke, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood in place.
Psa 33:10 Yehowah frustrates the alliances of ethnicities; he overrules the plans of the people.
Psa 33:11 The plans of Yehowah stand forever, the plans of his heart for all generations.
Psa 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose Divine One is Yehowah, the people whom he has chosen as his own inheritance.
Psa 33:14 From the place where he lives, he looks down on all who live on the earth.
Psa 33:15 He who shapes the hearts of them all observes all their deeds.
Psa 33:17 A horse is false security for victory; in spite of his great strength, he cannot rescue.
Psa 33:18 See, the eye of Yehowah is on those who fear him, on those who count on his covenant faithfulness
Psa 33:19 to deliver their lives from death and to keep them alive in times of famine.
Psa 33:20 We wait for Yehowah; he is our help and our shield.
Psa 33:21 Our hearts rejoice in him, for we trust in his set-apart name.
Psa 33:22 Let your covenant faithfulness, Yehowah, be with us, as we put our hope in you.

Psalms Chapter 34

Psa 34:1 (A psalm of David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him out.) I will praise Yehowah at all times, his praise will always be in my mouth.
Psa 34:2 I will praise Yehowah! May the oppressed hear and rejoice!
Psa 34:3 Praise Yehowah with me, let us lift up his name together.
Psa 34:4 I sought Yehowah, and he answered me, and he gave me victory over all my fears.
Psa 34:5 Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces are not ashamed.
Psa 34:6 This oppressed man cried, Yehowah heard him and saved him from all his troubles.
Psa 34:7 The angel of Yehowah camps around those who fear him and rescues them.
Psa 34:8 Taste and see that Yehowah is good. Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.
Psa 34:9 Fear Yehowah, you his set-apart people. There is no lack for those who fear him.
Psa 34:10 The young lions sometimes lack food and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yehowah will not lack anything good.
Psa 34:11 Come, sons, listen to me. I will teach you the fear of Yehowah.
Psa 34:12 What man is there who desires life and loves many days, that he may see good?
Psa 34:13 Then keep your tongue from evil and keep your lips from speaking lies.
Psa 34:14 Turn away from evil and do good. Seek peace and go after it.
Psa 34:15 The eyes of Yehowah are on the righteous, and his ears are directed toward their cry.
Psa 34:16 The face of Yehowah is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.
Psa 34:17 The righteous cry out, and Yehowah hears, and he rescues them from all their troubles.
Psa 34:18 Yehowah is close to the brokenhearted, and he saves those who are crushed in spirit.
Psa 34:19 Many are the troubles of the righteous, but Yehowah delivers them out of them all.
Psa 34:21 Evil will kill the wicked. Those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

Psa 34:22 Yehowah rescues the lives of his servants. None of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalms Chapter 35

Psa 35:1 (A psalm of David.) Yehowah, work against those who work against me; fight against those who fight against me.
Psa 35:2 Grab your small shield and large shield; rise up and help me.
Psa 35:3 Use your spear and battle ax against those who chase me; say to my soul, “I am your salvation.”
Psa 35:4 May those who seek my life be shamed and dishonored. May those who plan to harm me be turned back and confounded.
Psa 35:5 May they be as chaff before the wind, as the angel of Yehowah drives them away.
Psa 35:6 May their way be dark and slippery, as the angel of Yehowah chases them.
Psa 35:7 Without cause they set their net for me; without cause they dug a pit for my life.
Psa 35:8 Let destruction overtake them by surprise. Let the net that they have set catch them. Let them fall into it, to their destruction.
Psa 35:9 But I will be joyful in Yehowah and rejoice in his salvation.
Psa 35:10 All my bones will ask, “Yehowah, who is like you, who rescues the oppressed from those who are too strong for them, and the poor and needy from those who try to rob them?”
Psa 35:11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up; they accuse me falsely.
Psa 35:12 They repay me evil for good. I am sorrowful.
Psa 35:13 But, when they were sick, I wore sackcloth; I fasted for them with my head bowed on my chest.
Psa 35:14 I went about in grief as for my brother; I bent down in mourning as for my mother.
Psa 35:15 But when I stumbled, they rejoiced and gathered together; they gathered together against me, and I was surprised by them. They tore at me without stopping.
Psa 35:16 With no respect at all they mocked me; they gnashed at me with their teeth.
Psa 35:17 Lord, how long will you look on? Rescue my soul from their destructive attacks, my life from the lions.
Psa 35:18 Then I will thank you in the great congregation; I will praise you among many people.
Psa 35:19 Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice over me; do not let them carry out their wicked schemes.
Psa 35:20 For they do not speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those in our land who live in peace.

Psa 35:21 They open their mouths wide against me; they exclaimed, “Aha, Aha, our eyes have seen it!”
Psa 35:22 You have seen it, Yehowah, do not be silent; Lord, do not be far from me.
Psa 35:23 Arouse yourself and awake to my defense; my Divine One and my Lord, defend my cause.
Psa 35:24 Defend me, Yehowah my Divine One, because of your righteousness; do not let them rejoice over me.
Psa 35:25 Do not let them say in their heart, “Aha, we have what we wanted!” Do not let them boast, “We have devoured him!”
Psa 35:26 Put them to shame and confound those who want to harm me. May those who taunt me be covered with shame and dishonor.
Psa 35:27 Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad; may they proclaim continually, “Yehowah be praised, he who delights in the welfare of his servant!”
Psa 35:28 Then I will tell of your justice and praise you all day long.

Psalms Chapter 36

Psa 36:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David the servant of Yehowah.) Sin speaks like an oracle in the heart of the wicked man; there is no fear of the Almighty in his eyes.
Psa 36:2 For he comforts himself, thinking that his sin will not be discovered and be hated.
Psa 36:3 His words are sinful and deceitful; he does not want to be wise and do good.
Psa 36:4 While he lies in bed, he plans ways to sin; he sets out on an evil way; he does not reject evil.
Psa 36:5 Your covenant faithfulness, Yehowah, reaches to the heavens; your loyalty reaches to the clouds.
Psa 36:6 Your righteousness is like the mountains of the Almighty; your judgments are like the great deep. Yehowah, you preserve both mankind and the animals.
Psa 36:8 They will be abundantly satisfied with the richness of the food of your household; you will let them drink from the river of your precious blessings.
Psa 36:9 For with you is the fountain of life; in your light we will see light.
Psa 36:10 Extend your covenant faithfulness fully to those who know you, your defense to the upright of heart.
Psa 36:11 Do not let the foot of the arrogant man come near to me. Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.
Psa 36:12 Over there the evildoers have fallen; they are knocked down and are not able to get up.

Psalms Chapter 37

Psa 37:1 (A psalm of David.) Do not be irritated because of evildoers; do not be envious of those who act unrighteously.
Psa 37:2 For they will soon dry up as the grass and wither as the green plants.
Psa 37:3 Trust in Yehowah and do what is good; settle in the land and graze in faithfulness.
Psa 37:4 Then delight yourself in Yehowah, and he will give you the requests of your heart.
Psa 37:5 Give your ways to Yehowah; trust in him, and he will act on your behalf.
Psa 37:6 He will display your justice like the daylight and your innocence like the day at noon.
Psa 37:7 Be still before Yehowah and wait patiently for him. Do not be angry if someone succeeds in what he does, or when he makes evil plots.
Psa 37:8 Do not be angry and frustrated. Do not worry. This only makes trouble.
Psa 37:9 Evildoers will be cut off, but those who wait for Yehowah will inherit the land.
Psa 37:10 In a little while, the evil man will disappear; you will look at his place, but he will be gone.
Psa 37:11 But the meek will inherit the land and will delight in great peace.
Psa 37:12 The wicked man plots against the righteous and gnashes his teeth against him.
Psa 37:13 The Lord laughs at the wicked, for he sees that his day is coming.
Psa 37:14 The wicked have drawn out their swords and have bent their bows to cast down the oppressed and needy, to kill those who are upright.
Psa 37:15 Their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.
Psa 37:16 Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked people.
Psa 37:17 For the arms of the wicked people will be broken, but Yehowah supports the righteous people.
Psa 37:18 Yehowah watches over the blameless day by day, and their heritage will be forever.
Psa 37:19 They will not be ashamed when times are bad. When famine comes, they will have enough to eat.
Psa 37:20 But evil men will perish. The enemies of Yehowah will be like the glory of the pastures; they will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.
Psa 37:21 The wicked person borrows but does not repay, but the righteous person is generous and gives.

Psa 37:22 Those who are blessed by Yehowah will inherit the land; those who are cursed by him will be cut off.
Psa 37:23 It is by Yehowah that a man's steps are established, the man whose Way is commendable in the sight of Yehowah.
Psa 37:24 Though he stumbles, he will not fall down, for Yehowah is holding him with his hand.
Psa 37:25 I was young and now am old; I have never seen the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.
Psa 37:26 All the day long he is gracious and lends, and his children become a blessing.
Psa 37:27 Turn away from evil and do what is right; then you will be safe forever.
Psa 37:28 For Yehowah loves justice and does not abandon his faithful followers. They are preserved forever, but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.
Psa 37:29 The righteous will inherit the land and live there forever.
Psa 37:30 The mouth of the righteous person speaks wisdom and increases justice.
Psa 37:31 The law of his Divine One is in his heart; his feet will not slip.
Psa 37:32 The wicked person watches the righteous person and seeks to kill him.
Psa 37:33 Yehowah will not abandon him into the evil person's hand or condemn him when he is judged.
Psa 37:34 Wait for Yehowah and keep his Way, and he will raise you up to possess the land. You will see when the wicked are cut off.
Psa 37:35 I have seen the wicked and terrifying person spread out like a green tree in its native soil.
Psa 37:36 But when I passed by again, he was not there. I looked for him, but he could not be found.
Psa 37:37 Observe the man of integrity and mark the upright; there is a good future for a man of peace.
Psa 37:38 Sinners will be totally destroyed; the future for the wicked man is cut off.
Psa 37:39 Salvation of the righteous comes from Yehowah; he protects them in the times of trouble.
Psa 37:40 Yehowah helps them and rescues them. He rescues them from evil men and saves them, because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalms Chapter 38

Psa 38:1 (A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.) Yehowah, do not rebuke me in your anger; do not punish me in your wrath.
Psa 38:2 For your arrows pierce me, and your hand presses me down.
Psa 38:3 My whole body is sick because of your anger; there is no health in my bones because of my sin.
Psa 38:4 For my iniquities overwhelm me; they are a burden too heavy for me.
Psa 38:5 My wounds are infected and smell because of my foolish sins.
Psa 38:6 I am stooped over and humiliated every day; I go about mourning all day long.
Psa 38:7 For within me, I am filled with burning; there is no health in my flesh.
Psa 38:8 I am numb and utterly crushed; I groan because of the anguish of my heart.
Psa 38:9 Lord, you understand my heart's deepest yearnings, and my groanings are not hidden from you.
Psa 38:10 My heart pounds, my strength fades, and my eyesight dims.
Psa 38:11 My friends and companions shun me because of my condition; my neighbors stand far off.
Psa 38:12 Those who seek my life lay snares for me. They who seek my harm speak destructive words and say deceitful words all day long.
Psa 38:13 But I, I am like a deaf man and hear nothing; I am like a mute man who says nothing.
Psa 38:14 I am like a man who does not hear and who has no reply.
Psa 38:15 Surely I wait for you, Yehowah; you will answer, Lord my Divine One.
Psa 38:16 I say this, so that my enemies will not gloat over me. If my foot slips, they will do terrible things to me.
Psa 38:17 For I am about to stumble, and I am in constant pain.
Psa 38:18 I confess my guilt; I am concerned about my sin.
Psa 38:19 But my enemies are numerous and strong; those who hate me wrongfully are many.
Psa 38:20 They repay me evil for good; they hurl accusations at me, although I have pursued what is good.
Psa 38:21 Do not abandon me, Yehowah; my Divine One, do not stay far away from me.
Psa 38:22 Come quickly to help me, O Lord, my salvation.

Psalms Chapter 39

Psa 39:1 (For the chief musician, for Jeduthun. A psalm of David.) I decided, “I will watch what I say, so that I do not sin with my tongue. I will muzzle my mouth while in the presence of an evil man.”
Psa 39:2 I kept silent; I kept back my words even from saying anything good, and my pain grew worse.
Psa 39:3 My heart became hot; when I thought about these things, it burned like a fire. Then finally I spoke,
Psa 39:4 “Yehowah, make me know when will be the end of my life and the extent of my days. Show me how transient I am.
Psa 39:5 See, you have made my days only the width of my hand, and my lifetime is like nothing before you. Surely every man is a single breath. Selah.
Psa 39:6 Surely, every man walks about like a shadow. Surely, everyone hurries about to accumulate riches, although they do not know who will receive them.
Psa 39:7 Now Lord, for what am I waiting? You are my only hope.
Psa 39:8 Rescue me from my sins; do not make me the reproach of fools.
Psa 39:9 I am silent and cannot open my mouth, because it is you who has done it.
Psa 39:10 Stop wounding me; I am overwhelmed by the blow of your hand.
Psa 39:11 When you discipline people for sin, you consume the things they desire like a moth; surely all people are nothing but vapor. Selah.
Psa 39:12 Hear my prayer, Yehowah, and listen to me; listen to my weeping! Do not be deaf to me, for I am like a sojourning foreigner with you, a resident alien like all my ancestors were.
Psa 39:13 Turn your gaze from me, so that I may smile again before I die.”

Psalms Chapter 40

Psa 40:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) I waited patiently for Yehowah; he listened to me and heard my cry.
Psa 40:2 He brought me up out of a noisy pit, out of the miry clay, and he set my feet on a rock and made my steps secure.
Psa 40:3 He has put a new song in my mouth, praise to our Divine One! Many will see it, honor him, and will trust in Yehowah.
Psa 40:4 Blessed is the man who makes Yehowah his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from him to lies.
Psa 40:5 Many, Yehowah my Divine One, are the wonderful deeds that you have done, and your thoughts which are about us cannot be numbered; if I declared and spoke of them, they would be more than could be counted.
Psa 40:6 You have no delight in sacrifice or offering, but it is a body you have prepared for me (LXX; Heb. 10:5); you have not required burnt offerings or sin offerings.
Psa 40:7 Then said I, “See, I have come; it is written about me in the Scroll of the Book.
Psa 40:8 I delight to do your will, my Divine One; your law is in my heart (mind).”
Psa 40:9 I have proclaimed the good news of your righteousness in the great congregation; Yehowah, you know that my lips have not kept back from doing this.
Psa 40:10 I have not concealed your righteousness in my heart; I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your covenant faithfulness or your truth from the great congregation.
Psa 40:11 Do not keep back your merciful acts from me, Yehowah; let your covenant faithfulness and your truth always preserve me.
Psa 40:12 Troubles that cannot be numbered surround me; my iniquities have caught up with me, so that I am no longer able to see anything; they are more than the hairs on my head, and my heart has failed me.
Psa 40:13 Be pleased, Yehowah, to rescue me; hurry to help me, Yehowah.
Psa 40:14 Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed who pursue my life to take it away. Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor, those who delight in hurting me.
Psa 40:15 Let them be shocked because of their shame, those who say to me, “Aha, aha!”
Psa 40:16 But may all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; let everyone who loves your salvation shout continually, “May Yehowah be praised!”

Psa 40:17 I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinks about me. You are my help, and you come to my rescue; do not delay, my Divine One.

Psalms Chapter 41

Psa 41:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) Blessed is he who is concerned for the weak; in the day of trouble, Yehowah will rescue him.
Psa 41:2 Yehowah will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed on the earth; Yehowah will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.
Psa 41:3 Yehowah will support him on the bed of suffering; you will make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.
Psa 41:4 I prayed, “Yehowah, have mercy on me! Heal me, for I have sinned against you.”
Psa 41:5 My enemies speak evil against me, asking, ‘When will he die and his name perish?’
Psa 41:6 If my enemy comes to see me, he says worthless things; his heart gathers up my disaster for itself; when he goes away from me, he tells others about it.
Psa 41:7 All who hate me whisper together against me; against me they hope for my hurt.
Psa 41:8 They say, “An evil disease holds on tightly to him; now that he is lying down, he will rise up no more.”
Psa 41:9 Indeed, even my own close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my food, has lifted up his heel against me (John 13:18).
Psa 41:10 But you, Yehowah, have mercy on me and raise me up, so that I may pay them back.
Psa 41:11 By this I know that you delight in me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.
Psa 41:12 As for me, you support me in my integrity and will keep me before your face forever.
Psa 41:13 May Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, be praised from everlasting to everlasting. Amein and Amein.

Psalms Chapter 42

Psa 42:1 (For the chief musician. A maschil of the sons of Korah.) As the deer pants after streams of water, so I thirst for you, Almighty One.
Psa 42:2 I thirst for the Almighty, for the living Almighty, when will I come and appear before the Almighty?
Psa 42:3 My tears have been my food day and night, while my enemies are always asking me, “Where is your Divine One?”
Psa 42:4 These things I call to mind as I pour out my soul: How I went with the throng and led them to the temple of the Almighty with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude celebrating a feast.
Psa 42:5 Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me? Hope in the Almighty, for again I will praise him face to face, who is my salvation.
Psa 42:6 My Divine One, my soul is bowed down within me, therefore I call you to mind from the land of the Jordan River, from the three peaks of Mount Hermon, and from the hill of Mizar.
Psa 42:7 Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls; all your waves and your billows have gone over me.
Psa 42:8 Yet Yehowah will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime; in the night his song will be with me, a prayer to the Mighty One of my life.
Psa 42:9 I will ask the Almighty, my Rock, “Why have you forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”
Psa 42:10 As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries rebuke me, while they always ask me, “Where is your Divine One?”
Psa 42:11 Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me? Hope in the Almighty, for again I will praise him face to face, who is my salvation and my Divine One.

Psalms Chapter 43

Psa 43:1 Bring me justice, Almighty One, and plead my cause against a wicked ethnicity. Deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.
Psa 43:2 For you are the Mighty One of my strength. Why have you rejected me? Why do I go about in mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
Psa 43:3 Oh, send out your light and your truth, let them lead me. Let them bring me to your set-apart hill and to your dwelling.
Psa 43:4 Then I will go to the altar of the Almighty, to the Almighty my exceeding joy. I will praise you with the harp, Almighty, my Divine One.
Psa 43:5 Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me? Hope in the Almighty, for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my Divine One.

Psalms Chapter 44

Psa 44:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil.) We have heard with our ears, Almighty One, our fathers have told us what work you did in their days, in the days of old.
Psa 44:2 You drove out the ethnicities with your hand, but you planted our people; you afflicted the ethnicities, but you spread our people out in the land.
Psa 44:3 For they did not obtain the land for their possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, because you were favorable to them.
Psa 44:4 Almighty One, you are my King; command victory for Jacob.
Psa 44:5 Through you we will push down our adversaries; through your name we will tread them under, those who rise up against us.
Psa 44:6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither will my sword save me.
Psa 44:7 But you have saved us from our adversaries and have put to shame those who hate us.
Psa 44:8 In the Almighty, we have made our boast all the day long, and we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah.
Psa 44:9 But now you have thrown us off and brought us dishonor, and you do not go out with our armed forces.
Psa 44:10 You make us turn back from the adversary; and those who hate us take spoil for themselves.
Psa 44:11 You have made us like sheep destined for food and have scattered us among the ethnicities.
Psa 44:12 You sell your people for nothing; you have not increased your wealth by doing so.
Psa 44:13 You make us a rebuke to our neighbors, scoffed and mocked by those around us.
Psa 44:14 You make us an insult among the ethnicities, a shaking of the head among the people.
Psa 44:15 All the day long, my dishonor is before me, and the shame of my face has covered me,
Psa 44:16 because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.
Psa 44:17 All this has come on us; yet we have not forgotten you or dealt falsely with your covenant.
Psa 44:18 Our heart has not turned back; our steps have not gone from your Way.
Psa 44:19 Yet you have severely broken us in the place of jackals and covered us with the shadow of death.

Psa 44:20 If we have forgotten the name of our Divine One or spread out our hands to a foreign deity, Psa 44:21 would not the Almighty search this out? For he knows the secrets of the heart.
Psa 44:22 Indeed, for your sake we are being killed all day long; we are considered to be sheep for the slaughter.
Psa 44:23 Awake, why do you sleep, O Lord? Arise, do not throw us off permanently.
Psa 44:24 Why do you hide your face and forget our affliction and our oppression?
Psa 44:25 For we have melted away into the dust; our bodies cling to the earth.
Psa 44:26 Rise up for our help and redeem us for the sake of your covenant faithfulness.

Psalms Chapter 45

Psa 45:1 (For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil. A song of loves.) My heart overflows on a good subject; I will read aloud the words I have composed about the king; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
Psa 45:2 You are fairer than the children of mankind; grace is poured onto your lips; therefore, we know that the Almighty has blessed you forever.
Psa 45:3 Put your sword on your side, Chief, in your glory and your majesty (Rev. 19:15-16).
Psa 45:4 In your majesty ride on triumphantly because of truth, meekness, and righteousness; your right hand will teach you fearful things.
Psa 45:5 Your arrows are sharp; the people fall under you; your arrows are in the hearts of the king's enemies.
Psa 45:6 Your throne, Almighty One, is forever and ever; a scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom.
Psa 45:7 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore the Almighty, your Divine One, has anointed you with the oil of gladness more than your companions.
Psa 45:8 All your garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia; out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.
Psa 45:10 Listen, daughter, consider and incline your ear; forget your own people and your father's household.
Psa 45:11 In this way, the king will desire your beauty; he is your master; revere him.
Psa 45:12 The daughter of Tyre will be there with a gift; the rich among the people will beg for your grace.
Psa 45:13 The royal daughter in the palace is all glorious; her clothing is worked with gold.
Psa 45:14 She will be led to the king in embroidered dress; the virgins, her companions who follow her, will be brought to you.
Psa 45:15 They will be led by gladness and rejoicing; they will enter into the king's palace (Joel 2:16).
Psa 45:16 In the place of your fathers will be your children, whom you will make princes in all the earth.
Psa 45:17 I will proclaim your name in all generations; therefore, the people will give you thanks forever and ever.

Psalms Chapter 46

Psa 46:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A song.) The Almighty is our refuge and strength, a readily present help in trouble.
Psa 46:2 Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains should be shaken into the heart of the seas,
Psa 46:4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of the Almighty happy, the Set-apart Place of the tabernacles of the Most High.
Psa 46:5 The Almighty is in the middle of her; she will not be moved; the Almighty will help her, and he will do so at dawn.
Psa 46:6 The ethnicities raged and the kingdoms were shaken; he lifted up his voice, and the earth melted.
Psa 46:8 Come, behold the deeds of Yehowah, the destruction he has caused on earth.
Psa 46:9 He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth; he breaks the bow and cuts the spear into pieces; he burns up the chariots with fire.
Psa 46:10 Be quiet and know that I am the Almighty; I will be exalted among the ethnicities; I will be exalted on the earth.

Psalms Chapter 47

Psa 47:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.) Clap your hands, all you people; shout to the Almighty with the sound of triumph!
Psa 47:2 For Yehowah Most High is terrifying; he is a great King over all the earth.
Psa 47:3 He subdues people under us and ethnicities under our feet.
Psa 47:4 He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.
Psa 47:5 The Almighty has gone up with a shout, Yehowah with the sound of a trumpet.
Psa 47:6 Sing praises to the Almighty, sing praises; sing praises to our King, sing praises.
Psa 47:7 For the Almighty is King over all the earth; sing praises with understanding.
Psa 47:9 The princes of the people have gathered together to the people of the Mighty One of Abraham; for the shields of the earth belong to the Almighty; he is greatly exalted.

Psalms Chapter 48

Psa 48:1 (A song; a psalm of the sons of Korah.) Great is Yehowah and greatly to be praised, in the city of our Divine One on his set-apart mountain!
Psa 48:2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King!
Psa 48:3 The Almighty has made himself known in her palaces as a refuge.
Psa 48:4 For see, the kings assembled themselves; they passed by together.
Psa 48:5 They saw it, then they were amazed; they were dismayed, and they hurried away.
Psa 48:6 Trembling took hold of them there, pain as when a woman is in labor.
Psa 48:8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, in the city of our Divine One; the Almighty will establish it forever. Selah.
Psa 48:9 We have thought about your covenant faithfulness, Almighty One, in the middle of your temple.
Psa 48:10 As your name is, Almighty One, so is your praise to the ends of the earth; your right hand is full of righteousness.
Psa 48:11 Let Mount Zion be glad, let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your righteous decrees.
Psa 48:13 notice well her walls, and look at her palaces, so that you may tell it to the next generation.
Psa 48:14 For this Almighty is our Divine One forever and ever; he will be our guide to death.

Psalms Chapter 49

Psa 49:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.) Hear this, all you people; give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,
Psa 49:2 both low and high, rich and poor together.
Psa 49:3 My mouth will speak wisdom, and the meditation of my heart will be of understanding.
Psa 49:4 I will incline my ear to a parable; I will begin my parable with the harp.
Psa 49:5 Why should I fear the days of evil, when iniquity surrounds me at my heels?
Psa 49:6 Why should I fear those who trust in their wealth and boast about the amount of their riches?
Psa 49:7 It is certain that no one can redeem his brother or give the Almighty a ransom for him.
Psa 49:8 For the redemption of one's life is costly, and no one can pay what we owe.
Psa 49:9 No one can live forever, so that his body should not decompose.
Psa 49:10 For he will see decay. Wise men die; the fool and the brute alike perish and leave their wealth to others.
Psa 49:11 Their inner thought is that their families will continue forever, and the places where they live, to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.
Psa 49:12 But man, having wealth, does not remain alive; he is like the beasts that perish.
Psa 49:14 Like sheep they are appointed for the place of the dead, and death will be their shepherd. The upright will rule over them at dawn, and their bodies will be consumed in the place of the dead, with no place for them to live.
Psa 49:15 But the Almighty will redeem my life from the power of the place of the dead; he will receive me. Selah.
Psa 49:16 Do not be afraid when one becomes rich, and the glory of his house increases.
Psa 49:17 For when he dies he will take nothing away; his glory will not go down after him.
Psa 49:18 He blessed his soul while he lived, and men praise you when you live for yourself,
Psa 49:19 he will go to the generation of his fathers, and they will never see the light again.

Psa 49:20 One who has wealth but no understanding is like the beasts which perish.

Psalms Chapter 50

Psa 50:1 (A psalm of Asaph.) Mighty Almighty Yehowah has spoken and called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
Psa 50:2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, the Almighty has shone.
Psa 50:3 Our Divine One comes and does not stay silent; a fire devours before him, and it is extremely stormy around him.
Psa 50:4 He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, so that he may judge his people:
Psa 50:5 “Gather my faithful ones together to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice!”
Psa 50:6 The heavens will declare his righteousness, for the Almighty himself is judge. Selah.
Psa 50:7 “Hear, my people, and I will speak; Oh Israel, I will witness against you: I am the Almighty, your Divine One.
Psa 50:8 I will not reprove you for your sacrifices; your burnt offerings are always before me.
Psa 50:9 I will take no bull out of your house or male goats out of your folds.
Psa 50:10 For every beast of the forest is mine and the livestock on a thousand hills.
Psa 50:11 I know all the birds of the mountains, and the wild beasts of the field are mine.
Psa 50:12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you; for the globe is mine and everything on it.
Psa 50:13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
Psa 50:14 Offer to the Almighty the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.
Psa 50:15 Call on me in the day of trouble; I will rescue you, and you will glorify me.”
Psa 50:16 But to the wicked the Almighty says, “What have you to do with declaring my statutes, that you have taken my covenant in your mouth,
Psa 50:17 since you hate instruction and throw my words away?
Psa 50:18 When you see a thief, you agree with him; you participate with those who commit adultery.
Psa 50:19 You give your mouth to evil, and your tongue expresses deceit.
Psa 50:20 You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother’s son.
Psa 50:21 You have done these things, but I have kept silent, so you thought that I was someone just like yourself. But I will reprove you and bring up, right before your eyes, all the things you have done.

Psa 50:22 Give this careful consideration, you who forget the Almighty, otherwise, I will tear you to pieces, and there will be no one to come to help you!
Psa 50:23 The one who offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving praises me, and to anyone who plans his Path in the right Way, I will show the salvation of the Almighty."

Psalms Chapter 51

Psa 51:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had committed adultery with Bathsheba.) Have mercy on me, Almighty One, because of your covenant faithfulness; for the sake of the multitude of your mercies, blot out my transgressions.
Psa 51:2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.
Psa 51:3 For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
Psa 51:4 Against you, you only, I have sinned and done what is evil in your sight; you are right when you speak; you are correct when you judge.
Psa 51:5 See, I was born in iniquity; as soon as my mother conceived me, I was in sin.
Psa 51:6 See, you desire truth in my heart; in my heart you will make me know wisdom.
Psa 51:7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
Psa 51:8 Make me hear joy and gladness, so that the bones that you have broken may rejoice.
Psa 51:9 Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.
Psa 51:10 Create in me a pure heart (mind), Almighty One, and renew a right spirit within me.
Psa 51:11 Do not drive me away from your presence and do not take your Ruach Kodesh from me.
Psa 51:12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation and sustain me with your noble Ruach.
Psa 51:13 Then will I teach transgressors your Ways, and sinners will be converted to you.
Psa 51:14 Forgive me for shedding blood, Almighty One, Mighty One of my salvation, and I will shout for the joy of your righteousness.
Psa 51:15 O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will express your praise.
Psa 51:16 For you do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it; you have no pleasure in burnt offerings.
Psa 51:17 The sacrifices of the Almighty are a broken spirit. You, Almighty One, will not despise a broken and a contrite heart.
Psa 51:19 Then will you delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then our people will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalms Chapter 52

Psa 52:1 (For the chief musician. A maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, “David has come to the house of Ahimelech.”) Why are you proud of making trouble, you mighty man? The covenant faithfulness of the Almighty comes every day.
Psa 52:2 Your tongue plans destruction like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
Psa 52:3 You love evil more than good and lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah.
Psa 52:4 You love all words that devour others, you deceitful tongue.
Psa 52:5 The Almighty will likewise destroy you forever; he will take you up and pluck you out of your tent and root you out of the land of the living. Selah.
Psa 52:6 The righteous will also see it and fear; they will laugh at him and say,
Psa 52:7 “See, this is a man who did not make the Almighty his refuge, but he trusted in the abundance of his wealth, and he was strong when he destroyed others.”
Psa 52:8 But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the temple of the Almighty; I will trust in the covenant faithfulness of the Almighty forever and ever.
Psa 52:9 I will give you thanks forever for what you have done. I will wait for your name, because it is good, in the presence of your reverent people.

Psalms Chapter 53

Psa 53:1 (For the chief musician; set to Mahalath. A maschil of David.) A fool says in his heart, “The Almighty does not exist.” They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity; there is no one who does good.
Psa 53:2 The Almighty looks down from Heaven on the children of mankind to see if there are any who understand, who seek after the Almighty.
Psa 53:3 They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt. There is not one who does good, not even one.
Psa 53:4 Do those who commit iniquity have no understanding, those who devour my people as if they were eating bread, and they do not call on the Almighty?
Psa 53:5 They were in great fear, although no reason to fear was there; for the Almighty will scatter the bones of whoever will camp against you; such people will be put to shame, because the Almighty has rejected them.
Psa 53:6 Oh that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion! When the Almighty brings back his people from the captivity, then Jacob will rejoice, and Israel will be glad!

Psalms Chapter 54

Psa 54:1 (For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and asked Saul, “Does David not hide himself with us?”) Save me, Almighty One, by your name, and judge me in your might.
Psa 54:2 Hear my prayer, Almighty One; give ear to the words of my mouth.
Psa 54:3 For foreigners have risen up against me, and pitiless men have sought after my life; they have not set the Almighty before them. Selah.
Psa 54:4 See, the Almighty is my helper; the Lord is the One who upholds me.
Psa 54:5 He will repay my enemies with evil; in your faithfulness, destroy them!
Psa 54:6 I will sacrifice to you with a freewill offering; I will give thanks to your name, Yehowah, for it is good.
Psa 54:7 For he has rescued me from every trouble; my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Psalms Chapter 55

Psa 55:1 (For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David.) Give ear to my prayer, Almighty One; and do not hide yourself from my plea.
Psa 55:2 Pay attention to me and answer me; I have no rest in my troubles, and groan,
Psa 55:3 because of the voice of my enemies, because of the oppression of the wicked; for they bring trouble on me and persecute me in anger.
Psa 55:4 My heart trembles within me, and the terrors of death have fallen on me.
Psa 55:5 Fearfulness and trembling have come on me, and horror has overwhelmed me.
Psa 55:6 I said, “Oh, if only I had wings like a dove! Then would I fly away and be at rest.
Psa 55:7 See, then I would wander far away; I would stay in the wilderness. Selah.
Psa 55:8 I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and tempest.”
Psa 55:9 Devour them, Lord, confuse their language! For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
Psa 55:10 Day and night they go about on its walls; iniquity and mischief are in the middle of it.
Psa 55:11 Wickedness is in the middle of it; oppression and deceit do not leave its streets.
Psa 55:12 For it was not an enemy who rebuked me, then I could have borne it; neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him.
Psa 55:13 But it was you, a man equal to myself, my companion and my close friend.
Psa 55:14 We had sweet fellowship together; we walked in the temple of the Almighty with the throng.
Psa 55:15 Let death come suddenly on them; let them go down alive to the place of the dead, for wickedness is where they live, right among them.
Psa 55:16 As for me, I will call on the Almighty, and Yehowah will save me.
Psa 55:17 At dusk, dawn, and at noonday I complain and moan; he will hear my voice.
Psa 55:18 He will safely rescue my life from the battle that was against me, for those who fought against me were many.
Psa 55:19 The Almighty, the One who rules from eternity, will hear them and humiliate them. Selah. They never change, and they do not fear the Almighty.

Psa 55:20 My friend has raised his hands against those who were at peace with him; he has not respected the covenant that he had.
Psa 55:21 His mouth was smooth as butter, but his heart was hostile; his words were softer than oil, yet they were actually drawn swords.
Psa 55:22 Place your burdens on Yehowah, and he will sustain you; he will never allow a righteous person to waver.
Psa 55:23 But you, Almighty One, will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction; bloodthirsty and deceitful men will not live even half as long as others, but I will trust in you.

Psalms Chapter 56

Psa 56:1 (For the chief musician; set to Jonath elem rehokim. A psalm of David. A michtam; when the Philistines took him in Gath. 1 Sam. 21:10-15) Be merciful to me, Almighty One, for men are attacking me! All the day long those who fight me press their assault.
Psa 56:2 My enemies trample me all day long; for there are many who arrogantly fight against me on elevated places.
Psa 56:3 When I am afraid, I will put my trust in you.
Psa 56:4 In the Almighty, whose Word I praise, in the Almighty I have put my trust; I will not be afraid; what can mere man do to me?
Psa 56:5 All the day long they twist my words; all their thoughts are against me for evil.
Psa 56:6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, and they mark my steps, just as they have waited for my life.
Psa 56:7 Do not let them escape doing iniquity. Bring down the people in your anger, Almighty One.
Psa 56:8 You number my wanderings and put my tears into your bottle; are they not in your Book?
Psa 56:9 Then my enemies will turn back on the day that I call to you; this I know, that the Almighty is for me.
Psa 56:10 In the Almighty, whose Word I praise, in Yehowah, whose Word I praise.
Psa 56:11 In the Almighty I trust, I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?
Psa 56:12 The duty to fulfill my vows to you is on me, Almighty One; I will give thank offerings to you.
Psa 56:13 For you have rescued my life from death; you have kept my feet from falling, so that I may walk before the Almighty in the light of the living.

Psalms Chapter 57

Psa 57:1 (For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave.) Be merciful to me, Almighty One, be merciful to me, for I take refuge in you, until these troubles are over. I stay under your wings for protection, until this destruction is over.
Psa 57:2 I will cry to Most High Almighty, to the Almighty, who does all things for me.
Psa 57:3 He will send help from Heaven and save me, he is angry with those who crush me. Selah. The Almighty will send me his loving-kindness and his faithfulness.
Psa 57:4 My life is among lions; I am among those who are ready to devour me. I am among people whose teeth are spears and arrows, and whose tongues are sharp swords.
Psa 57:6 They spread out a net for my feet; I was distressed. They dug a pit in front of me. They themselves have fallen into the middle of it! Selah.
Psa 57:7 My heart is fixed, Almighty One, my heart is fixed; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises!
Psa 57:8 Wake up, my honored heart; wake up, lute and harp; I will wake up the dawn.
Psa 57:9 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the people; I will sing praises to you among the ethnicities!
Psa 57:10 For great is your unfailing love, reaching to the heavens; and your faithfulness to the clouds.
Psa 57:11 Be exalted, Almighty One, above the heavens; may your glory be exalted over all the earth!

Psalms Chapter 58

Psa 58:1 (For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam.) Do you rulers speak righteousness? Do you judge uprightly, you people?
Psa 58:2 No, you commit wickedness in your heart; you distribute violence throughout the land with your hands.
Psa 58:3 The wicked go astray even when they were in the womb; they go astray from birth, speaking lies.
Psa 58:4 Their poison is like a snake's poison; they are like a deaf viper that stops up its ears,
Psa 58:5 that pays no attention to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful they are.
Psa 58:7 Let them melt away as water that runs off; when they shoot their arrows, let them be as though they had blunt points.
Psa 58:8 Let them be like a snail that melts and passes away, like a woman's stillborn child that never sees the sunlight.
Psa 58:9 Before your pots can feel the thorn's burning heat, he will take them away with a whirlwind, the green thorns and the burning thorns alike.
Psa 58:10 The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance of the Almighty; he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,
Psa 58:11 so that people will say, "Truly, there is a reward for the righteous person; truly, there is an Almighty who judges the earth."

Psalms Chapter 59

Psa 59:1 (For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.) Rescue me from my enemies, my Divine One; set me on high away from those who rise up against me.
Psa 59:2 Keep me safe from the workers of iniquity and save me from the bloodthirsty men.
Psa 59:3 For see, they wait in ambush to take my life. The mighty evildoers gather themselves together against me, but not because of my transgression or my sin, Yehowah.
Psa 59:4 They prepare to run at me although I am without fault; awake, help me, and see.
Psa 59:5 You, Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, arise and punish all the ethnicities; do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.
Psa 59:6 They return at dusk, they howl like dogs and go around the city.
Psa 59:7 See, they belch out with their mouths; swords are in their lips, for they ask, “Who hears us?”
Psa 59:8 But you, Yehowah, laugh at them; you hold all the ethnicities in derision.
Psa 59:9 Almighty, my strength, I will pay attention to you; you are my high tower.
Psa 59:10 My Divine One will meet me with his covenant faithfulness; the Almighty will let me see my desire on my enemies.
Psa 59:11 Do not kill them, or my people will forget. Scatter them by your power and make them fall, O Lord our shield.
Psa 59:12 For the sins of their mouths and the words of their lips, let them be captured in their pride, and for the curses and lies that they express.
Psa 59:13 Consume them in wrath, consume them so that they will be no more; let them know that the Almighty rules in Jacob and to the ends of the earth. Selah.
Psa 59:15 They wander about looking for food, and they growl like a dog, if they are not satisfied.
Psa 59:16 But I will sing about your strength, and at dawn I will sing about your steadfast love! For you have been my high tower and a refuge in the day of my distress.
Psa 59:17 To you, my strength, I will sing praises; for the Almighty is my high tower, the Mighty One of covenant faithfulness.

Psalms Chapter 60

Psa 60:1 (For the chief musician; set to Shushan Eduth. A michtam of David, for teaching. When he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.) Almighty One, you have cast us off; you have broken through our defenses; you have been angry; restore us again.
Psa 60:2 You have made the land tremble; you have torn it apart; heal its fissures, for it is shaking.
Psa 60:3 You have made your people see difficult things; you have made us drink the wine of staggering.
Psa 60:4 For those who honor you, you have set up a banner to be displayed against those who carry the bow. Selah.
Psa 60:5 So that those you love may be rescued, rescue us with your right hand and answer me.
Psa 60:6 The Almighty has spoken in his consecration, “I will rejoice; I will divide Shechem and apportion out the Valley of Succoth.
Psa 60:7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is my helmet; Judah is my scepter.
Psa 60:8 Moab is my washbasin; over Edom I will throw my sandal; I will shout in triumph over Philistia!”
Psa 60:9 Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me to Edom?
Psa 60:10 But you, Almighty One, have you not rejected us? You, Almighty, do not go into battle with our military force.
Psa 60:12 We will triumph with the help of the Almighty; he will trample down our enemies.

Psalms Chapter 61

Psa 61:1 (For the chief musician; on a stringed instrument. A psalm of David.) Hear my cry, Almighty One; attend to my prayer.
Psa 61:2 From the ends of the earth will I call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed; lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.
Psa 61:3 For you have been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy.
Psa 61:4 Let me live in your tabernacle forever! Let me take refuge under the shelter of your wings. Selah.
Psa 61:5 For you, Almighty One, have heard my vows, you have given me the inheritance of those who honor your name.
Psa 61:6 You will prolong the king's life; his years will be like many generations.
Psa 61:7 He will remain before the Almighty forever. Prepare your loving-kindness and truth, that they may preserve him.
Psa 61:8 I will sing praise to your name forever, so that I may perform my vows every day.

Psalms Chapter 62

Psa 62:1 (For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of David.) I wait in silence for the Almighty alone; my salvation comes from him.
Psa 62:2 He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my high tower; I will not be greatly moved.
Psa 62:3 How long will all of you murderously attack a man, that you may tip him over like a leaning wall or a shaky fence?
Psa 62:4 They consult with him only to bring him down from his honorable position; they love to tell lies; they bless him with their mouths, but in their hearts they curse him. Selah.
Psa 62:5 I wait in silence for the Almighty alone; for my hopes are set on him.
Psa 62:6 He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my high tower; I will not be moved.
Psa 62:7 With the Almighty is my salvation and my glory; the rock of my strength and my refuge are in the Almighty.
Psa 62:8 Trust in him at all times, you people; pour out your heart before him; the Almighty is a refuge for us. Selah.
Psa 62:9 Surely men of low standing are vanity, and men of high standing are a lie; they will weigh lightly in the scales; weighed together, they are lighter than nothing.
Psa 62:10 Do not trust in oppression or robbery; and do not hope uselessly in riches, for they will bear no fruit; do not fix your heart on them.
Psa 62:11 The Almighty has spoken once, twice have I heard this: Power belongs to the Almighty.
Psa 62:12 Also to you, Lord, belongs covenant faithfulness, for you pay back every person for what he has done.

Psalms Chapter 63

Psa 63:1 (A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.) Almighty One, you are my Divine One! I earnestly search for you, my soul thirsts for you, and my flesh longs for you, in a dry and weary land where there is no water.
Psa 63:2 So I have looked on you in the Set-apart Place to see your power and your glory.
Psa 63:3 Because your covenant faithfulness is better than life, my lips will praise you.
Psa 63:4 So I will bless you while I live; I will lift up my hands in your name.
Psa 63:5 It will be as if I ate a meal of marrow and fatness; with joyful lips my mouth will praise you,
Psa 63:6 when I think about you on my bed and meditate on you in the night hours.
Psa 63:7 For you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I rejoice!
Psa 63:8 I cling to you; your right hand supports me.
Psa 63:9 But those who seek to destroy my life will go down into the lowest parts of the earth;
Psa 63:10 they will be given over to those whose hands use the sword, and they will become food for the jackals.
Psa 63:11 But the king will rejoice in the Almighty; everyone who swears by him will be proud of him, but the mouth of those who speak lies will be stopped up.

Psalms Chapter 64

Psa 64:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) Hear my voice, Almighty One, listen to my prayer; preserve my life from fear of my enemies.
Psa 64:3 They have sharpened their tongues like swords; they have aimed their arrows, bitter words,
Psa 64:4 so that they may shoot from secret places at someone who is innocent; suddenly they shoot at him and fear nothing.
Psa 64:5 They encourage themselves in an evil plan; they consult privately together in order to set traps; they ask, “Who will see us?”
Psa 64:6 They invent sinful plans; “We have finished,” they say, “a careful plan.” The inner thoughts and hearts of man are deep.
Psa 64:7 But the Almighty will shoot them; suddenly they will be wounded with his arrows.
Psa 64:8 They will be made to stumble, since their own tongues are against them; all who see them will wag their heads.
Psa 64:9 All people will fear and will declare the deeds of the Almighty. They will wisely think about what he has done.
Psa 64:10 The righteous will be glad about Yehowah and will take refuge in him; all the upright in heart will take pride in him.

Psalms Chapter 65

Psa 65:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm. A song of David.) For you, Almighty One in Zion, our praise waits; our vows will be carried out to you.
Psa 65:2 You who hear prayer, to you all flesh will come.
Psa 65:3 Iniquities prevail against us; as for our transgressions, you will forgive them.
Psa 65:4 Blessed is the man whom you choose to bring near to you, so that he may live in your courts. We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house, your set-apart temple.
Psa 65:5 In righteousness, you will answer us by doing amazing things, Mighty One of our salvation; you who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth and of those who are far across the sea.
Psa 65:6 For it is you who made the mountains firm, you who are belted with strength.
Psa 65:7 It is you who quiet the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the commotion of the people.
Psa 65:8 Those who live in the uttermost parts of the earth are afraid of the evidence of your deeds; you make the outgoings of dawn and dusk rejoice!
Psa 65:9 You come to help the earth; you water it; you greatly enrich it; the river of the Almighty is full of water; you provide mankind grain, when you have prepared the earth.
Psa 65:10 You water its furrows abundantly; you settle down the furrows' ridges; you make them soft with rain showers; you bless the sprouts between them.
Psa 65:11 You crown the year with your goodness; the tracks behind your chariot drop fatness down to the earth.
Psa 65:12 The pastures in the wilderness drip with dew, and the hills are clothed with joy.
Psa 65:13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with grain; they shout for joy, and they sing.

Psalms Chapter 66

Psa 66:1 (For the chief musician. A song, a psalm.) Make a joyful noise to the Almighty, all the earth!
Psa 66:2 Sing out the glory of his name; make his praise glorious!
Psa 66:3 Say to the Almighty, “How terrifying are your deeds! By the greatness of your power your enemies will submit to you.
Psa 66:4 All the earth will worship you and will sing to you; they will sing to your name.” Selah.
Psa 66:5 Come and see the works of the Almighty; he is fearsome in his deeds toward the sons of mankind.
Psa 66:6 He turned the SEA into dry land; they went through the river on foot; there we rejoiced in him.
Psa 66:7 He rules forever by his might; his eyes observe the ethnicities; let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.
Psa 66:8 Give blessing to the Almighty, you people, let the sound of his praise be heard.
Psa 66:9 He keeps us among the living, and he does not permit our feet to slip.
Psa 66:10 For you, Almighty One, have tested us; you have tested us as silver is tested.
Psa 66:11 You brought us into a net; you laid a severe burden on our waists.
Psa 66:12 You made people ride over our heads; we went through fire and water, but you brought us out into a spacious place.
Psa 66:13 I will come into your temple with burnt offerings; I will pay you my vows,
Psa 66:14 which my lips promised, and my mouth spoke when I was in distress.
Psa 66:15 I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals with the sweet aroma of rams; I will offer bulls and goats. Selah.
Psa 66:16 Come and listen, all you who fear the Almighty, and I will declare what he has done for my soul.
Psa 66:17 I cried to him with my mouth, and he was praised with my tongue.
Psa 66:18 If I had considered sin within my heart, the Lord would not have listened to me.
Psa 66:19 But the Almighty has truly heard; he has paid attention to the voice of my prayer.
Psa 66:20 Blessed be the Almighty, who has not turned away my prayer or his covenant faithfulness from me.

Psalms Chapter 67

Psa 67:1 (For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm, a song.) May the Almighty be merciful to us, bless us, and cause his face to shine on us, Selah,
Psa 67:2 so that your Ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all ethnicities.
Psa 67:3 Let the people praise you, Almighty One; let all the people praise you!
Psa 67:4 Oh, let the ethnicities be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the people with justice and govern the ethnicities on earth. Selah.
Psa 67:5 Let the people praise you, Almighty One; let all the people praise you!
Psa 67:6 The earth has yielded its harvest and the Almighty, our Divine One, has blessed us.
Psa 67:7 The Almighty has blessed us, and all the ends of the earth honor him.

Psalms Chapter 68

Psa 68:1 (For the chief musician; A psalm of David, a song.) Let the Almighty arise; let his enemies be scattered; let those also who hate him flee before him.
Psa 68:2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away; as wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish in the presence of the Almighty.
Psa 68:3 But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before the Almighty; may they rejoice and be happy.
Psa 68:4 Sing to the Almighty! Sing praises to his name! Praise the One who rides through the plains of the Jordan River valley! Yah is his name! Rejoice before him!
Psa 68:5 A father of the fatherless, a judge of the widows, is the Almighty in the Set-apart Place where he lives.
Psa 68:6 The Almighty puts the lonely into families; he brings out the prisoners with singing; but the rebellious live in a parched land.
Psa 68:7 Almighty One, when you went out before your people, when you marched through the wilderness, Selah,
Psa 68:8 the earth trembled; the heavens also dropped rain in the presence of the Almighty at Sinai, in the presence of the Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel.
Psa 68:9 You, Almighty One, sent a plentiful rain; you strengthened your inheritance when it was weary.
Psa 68:10 Your people lived in it; You, Almighty One, gave from your goodness to the poor.
Psa 68:11 The Lord gave the orders, and those who announced them were a great military force.
Psa 68:12 Kings of armed forces flee, they flee, and the women waiting at home divide the plunder:
Psa 68:13 Doves covered with silver with wings of yellow gold. When some of you people stayed among the sheepfolds, why did you do this?
Psa 68:14 The Most Powerful scattered kings there, it was as when it snowed on Mount Zalmon.
Psa 68:15 A mountain of the Almighty is the hill country of Bashan; a high mountain is the hill country of Bashan.
Psa 68:16 Why do you look in envy, you high hill country, at the mountain which the Almighty desires for the place he will live? Indeed, Yehowah will live in it forever.
Psa 68:17 The chariots of the Almighty are twenty thousand, thousands upon thousands; the Lord is among them in the Set-apart Place, as at Sinai.

Psa 68:18 You have ascended on high; you have led our vanquished enemies into captivity; you have received gifts from humans (Eph. 4:8), even from those who fought against you, so that you, Yah Almighty, might live there.
Psa 68:19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, the Almighty who is our salvation. Selah.
Psa 68:20 Our Divine One is an Almighty who delivers; Yehowah the Lord is the One who is able to rescue us from death.
Psa 68:21 But the Almighty will strike through the heads of his enemies, through the hairy scalps of those who walk in offenses against him.
Psa 68:22 The Lord declared, “I will bring my enemies back from Bashan; I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, Psa 68:23 so that you may crush your enemies, dipping your foot in blood, and so that the tongues of your dogs may have their share from your enemies.”
Psa 68:24 They have seen your processions, Almighty One, the processions of my Divine One, my King, into the Set-apart Place.
Psa 68:25 The singers went first, the minstrels followed after, and in the middle were the virgin girls playing tambourines.
Psa 68:26 Bless the Almighty in the congregation; praise Yehowah, you true descendants of Israel!
Psa 68:27 There is first Benjamin, the smallest tribe, then the leaders of Judah and their multitudes, the leaders of Zebulun and the leaders of Naphtali.
Psa 68:28 Your Divine One, Israel, has decreed your strength; reveal to us your power, Almighty One, as you have revealed it in times past.
Psa 68:29 Reveal your power to us from your temple at Jerusalem, where kings bring gifts to you.
Psa 68:30 Shout in battle against the wild beasts in the reeds, against the people, that multitude of bulls and calves. Humiliate them and make them bring you silver; scatter the people who love to wage war.
Psa 68:31 Princes will come out of Egypt; Cush will hurry to reach out with her hands to the Almighty.
Psa 68:32 Sing to the Almighty, you kingdoms of the earth; Selah. Sing praises to the Lord.
Psa 68:33 To him who rides on the Heaven of heavens, which exist from ancient times; see, he lifts up his voice with power.
Psa 68:34 Ascribe strength to the Almighty; his majesty is over Israel, and his strength is in the skies.
Psa 68:35 Almighty One, you are fearsome in your Set-apart Place; the Mighty One of Israel, he gives strength and power to his people. Blessed be the Almighty.

Psalms Chapter 69

Psa 69:1 (For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of David.) Save me, Almighty One; for the waters have put my life in danger.
Psa 69:2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no place to stand; I have come into deep waters, where the floods flow over me.
Psa 69:3 I am weary with my crying; my throat is dry; my eyes fail while I wait for my Divine One.
Psa 69:4 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs on my head (John 15:25); those who would cut me off, being my enemies for wrong reasons, are mighty; what I did not steal, I have to give back.
Psa 69:5 Almighty One, you know my foolishness, and my sins are not hidden from you.
Psa 69:6 Let not those who wait for you be put to shame because of me, Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces; let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor because of me, Mighty One of Israel.
Psa 69:7 For your sake I have borne rebuke; shame has covered my face.
Psa 69:8 I have become a foreigner to my brothers, an alien to my mother's children.
Psa 69:9 For the zeal of your temple has eaten me up, and the rebukes of those who rebuke you have fallen on me.
Psa 69:10 When I wept and did not eat food, they insulted me.
Psa 69:11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became the object of a proverb to them.
Psa 69:12 Those who sit in the city gate talk about me; I am a song of drunkards.
Psa 69:13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yehowah, at a time that you will accept; Almighty One answer me in the truth of your salvation.
Psa 69:14 Pull me out of the mire, and do not let me sink; let me be taken away from those who hate me and rescued out of the deep waters.
Psa 69:15 Do not let the floods of water overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up. Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.
Psa 69:16 Answer me, Yehowah, for your covenant faithfulness is good; because your mercies for me are many, turn to me.
Psa 69:17 Do not hide your face from your servant, for I am in distress; answer me quickly.
Psa 69:18 Come to me and redeem me. Because of my enemies, ransom me.
Psa 69:19 You know my rebuke, my shame, and my dishonor; my adversaries are all before you.

Psa 69:20 Rebuke has broken my heart; I am full of heaviness; I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none; I looked for comforters, but I found none.
Psa 69:21 They gave me poison for my food; in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
Psa 69:22 Let their table before them become a snare; when they think they are in safety, let it become a trap.
Psa 69:23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see; and always make their loins shake.
Psa 69:24 Pour out your indignation on them, and let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.
Psa 69:26 For they persecuted the one you struck down. They repeated the account of the pain of those you have wounded.
Psa 69:27 Accuse them of having committed iniquity after iniquity; do not let them come into your righteous victory.
Psa 69:28 Let them be deleted out of the Book of Life and not be written down along with the righteous.
Psa 69:29 But I am poor and sorrowful; let your salvation, Almighty One, set me up on high.
Psa 69:30 I will praise the name of the Almighty with a song and will exalt him with thanksgiving.
Psa 69:31 That will please Yehowah better than an ox or a bull that has horns and hooves.
Psa 69:32 The meek have seen it and are glad; you who seek after the Almighty, let your hearts live.
Psa 69:34 Let Heaven and earth praise him, the seas and everything that moves in them.
Psa 69:35 For the Almighty will save Zion and will rebuild the cities of Judah; the people will live there and have it as a possession.
Psa 69:36 His servants' descendants will inherit it; and those who love his name will live there.

Psalms Chapter 70

Psa 70:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.) Save me, Almighty One! Yehowah, come quickly and help me.
Psa 70:2 Let those who try to take my life be ashamed and humiliated; let them be turned back and brought to dishonor, those who take pleasure in my pain.
Psa 70:3 Let them be turned back because of their shame, those who say, “Aha, aha!”
Psa 70:4 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; let those who love your salvation always shout, “May the Almighty be praised!”
Psa 70:5 But I am poor and needy; hurry to me, Almighty One; you are my help, and you rescue me. Yehowah, do not delay.

Psalms Chapter 71

Psa 71:1 In you, Yehowah, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame.
Psa 71:2 Rescue me and make me safe in your righteousness; turn your ear to me and save me.
Psa 71:3 Be to me a rock for refuge where I may always go; you have given a command to save me, for you are my Rock and my Fortress.
Psa 71:4 Rescue me, my Divine One, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel.
Psa 71:5 For you are my hope, Lord Yehowah. I have trusted in you ever since I was a child.
Psa 71:6 By you I have been supported from the womb; you are he who took me out of my mother's womb; my praise will always be about you.
Psa 71:7 I am a wondrous sign to many people; you are my strong refuge (Luke 2:34; 11:30).
Psa 71:8 My mouth will be filled with your praise, all the day with your honor.
Psa 71:9 Do not throw me away in my time of old age; do not abandon me when my strength fails.
Psa 71:10 For my enemies are talking about me; those who watch for my life are plotting together.
Psa 71:11 They say, "The Almighty has forsaken him; pursue and take him, for there is no one to save him."
Psa 71:12 Almighty One, do not be far from me; my Divine One, hurry to help me.
Psa 71:13 Let them be put to shame and destroyed, those who are hostile to my life; let them be covered with rebuke and dishonor, those who seek my hurt.
Psa 71:14 But I will always hope in you and will praise you more and more.
Psa 71:15 My mouth will tell about your righteousness and your salvation all the day, although I cannot understand it.
Psa 71:16 I will come with the mighty acts of Lord Yehowah; I will make mention of your righteousness, yours alone.
Psa 71:17 Almighty One, you have taught me from my youth; even now I declare your wonderful deeds.
Psa 71:18 Indeed, even when I am old and grayheaded, Almighty One, do not forsake me, as I have been declaring your strength to the next generation, your power to everyone who is to come.
Psa 71:19 Your righteousness also, Almighty One, is exalted on high; you who have done great things, Almighty One, who is like you?
Psa 71:20 You who have shown us many severe troubles will revive us again and will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.
Psa 71:21 May you increase my honor; turn again and comfort me.

Psa 71:22 I will also give thanks to you with the harp for your truth, my Divine One; to you I will sing praises with the harp, Set-apart One of Israel.
Psa 71:23 My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you, even my soul, which you have redeemed.
Psa 71:24 My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long; for they have been put to shame and are confused, those who sought my hurt.

Psalms Chapter 72

Psa 72:1 (A psalm for Solomon.) Give the king your righteous decrees, Almighty One, your righteousness to the king's son.
Psa 72:2 May he judge your people with righteousness and your poor with justice.
Psa 72:3 May the mountains produce peace for the people; may the hills produce righteousness.
Psa 72:4 May he judge the poor of the people; may he save the children of the needy and break in pieces the oppressor.
Psa 72:5 May they honor you while the sun endures, and as long as the moon lasts throughout all generations.
Psa 72:6 May he come down like rain on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.
Psa 72:7 May the righteous flourish in his days, and may there be an abundance of peace till the moon is no more.
Psa 72:8 May he have dominion from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.
Psa 72:9 May those who live in the wilderness bow down before him; may his enemies lick the dust.
Psa 72:10 May the kings of Tarshish and of the islands render tribute; may the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
Psa 72:11 Indeed, may all kings fall down before him; may all ethnicities serve him.
Psa 72:12 For he helps the needy person who cries out and the poor person who has no other helper.
Psa 72:13 He has pity on the poor and needy, and he saves the lives of needy people.
Psa 72:14 He redeems their lives from oppression and violence, and their blood is precious in his sight.
Psa 72:15 May he live! May the gold of Sheba be given to him. May people always pray for him; may Yehowah bless him all day long.
Psa 72:16 May there be abundance of grain in the land; on the hilltops may their crops wave. May the fruit of it be like Lebanon; may the people flourish in the cities like the grass of the field.
Psa 72:17 May his name endure forever; his name continues from long before the sun; may people be blessed in him; may all ethnicities call him blessed.
Psa 72:18 May Yehowah Almighty, Mighty One of Israel, be blessed, who alone does wonderful things.

Psa 72:19 May his glorious name be blessed forever, and may the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amein and Amein.
Psa 72:20 The prayers of David son of Jesse are finished.

Psalms Chapter 73

Psa 73:1 (A psalm of Asaph.) Surely the Almighty is good to Israel, to those with a pure heart.
Psa 73:2 But as for me, my feet almost slipped; my feet almost slipped out from under me,
Psa 73:3 because I was envious of the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
Psa 73:4 For they have no pain until their death, but they are strong and well fed.
Psa 73:5 They are free from the burdens of other men; they are not afflicted like other men.
Psa 73:7 Out of such blindness comes sin; evil thoughts pass through their hearts.
Psa 73:8 They mock and speak wickedly; in their arrogance they threaten oppression.
Psa 73:9 They set their mouth against Heaven, and their tongues march through the earth.
Psa 73:10 Therefore, his people turn to them and abundant waters are drained out.
Psa 73:11 They ask, “How does the Almighty know? Is there knowledge with the Most High?”
Psa 73:12 Take notice: These people are wicked; they are always carefree, becoming richer and richer.
Psa 73:13 Surely it is in vain that I have guarded my heart and washed my hands in innocence.
Psa 73:14 For all the day long I have been afflicted and disciplined every morning.
Psa 73:15 If I had said, “I will say these things,” then I would have betrayed this generation of your children.
Psa 73:16 Though I tried to understand these things, it was too difficult for me.
Psa 73:17 Then I went into the sanctuary of the Almighty and came to understand their fate.
Psa 73:18 Surely you put them in slippery places; you bring them down to ruin.
Psa 73:19 How they become a wilderness in a moment! They come to an end and are finished in awful terrors.
Psa 73:20 They are like a dream after one wakes up; Lord, when you arise, you will think nothing of those dreams.
Psa 73:21 For my heart was grieved, and I was deeply wounded.

Psa 73:22 I was ignorant and lacked insight; I was like a senseless animal before you.
Psa 73:23 Yet I am always with you; you hold my right hand.
Psa 73:24 You will guide me with your advice and afterward receive me to glory.
Psa 73:25 Whom have I in Heaven but you? There is no one on earth that I desire but you.
Psa 73:26 My flesh and my heart grow weak, but the Almighty is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
Psa 73:27 Those who are far from you will perish; you will destroy all those who are unfaithful to you.
Psa 73:28 But as for me, all I need to do is to approach the Almighty. I have made Lord Yehowah my refuge. I will declare all your deeds.

Psalms Chapter 74

Psa 74:1 (A maschil of Asaph.) Almighty One, why have you rejected us forever? Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?
Psa 74:2 Call to mind your people, whom you purchased in ancient times, the tribe whom you have redeemed to be your own heritage, and Mount Zion, where you live.
Psa 74:3 Come, look at the complete ruins, all the damage that the enemy has done in the Set-apart Place.
Psa 74:4 Your adversaries roared in the middle of your appointed place; they set up their battle flags.
Psa 74:5 They hacked away with axes as in a thick forest.
Psa 74:6 They smashed and broke down all the engravings; they broke them with axes and hammers.
Psa 74:7 They set your sanctuary on fire; they desecrated where you live, knocking it to the ground.
Psa 74:8 They said in their hearts, “We will destroy them all.” They burned up all of the meeting places of the Almighty in the land.
Psa 74:9 We do not see any more signs; there is no prophet any more, and no one among us knows how long this will last.
Psa 74:10 How long, Almighty One, will the enemy throw insults at you? Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
Psa 74:11 Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand? Take your right hand from your garment and destroy them.
Psa 74:12 Yet the Almighty has been my King from ancient times, bringing salvation on the earth.
Psa 74:13 You divided the SEA by your strength; you smashed the heads of the crocodiles in the waters.
Psa 74:14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan; you fed him to those living in the wilderness.
Psa 74:15 You broke open springs and streams; you dried up flowing rivers.
Psa 74:16 The day is yours, and the night is yours also; you established the light and the sun.
Psa 74:17 You have set all the borders of the earth; you have made summer and winter.
Psa 74:18 Call to mind how the enemy hurled insults at you, Yehowah, and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.
Psa 74:19 Do not hand over the life of your dove to a wild animal. Do not forget the life of your oppressed people forever.

Psa 74:21 Do not let the oppressed be turned back in shame; let the poor and oppressed praise your name.
Psa 74:22 Arise, Almighty One; defend your own honor; call to mind how fools insult you all day long.
Psa 74:23 Do not forget the voice of your adversaries or the uproar of those who continually defy you.

Psalms Chapter 75

Psa 75:1 (For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of Asaph, a song.) We give thanks to you, Almighty One; we give thanks, for you reveal your presence; people tell of your wondrous works.
Psa 75:2 At the appointed time I choose, I will judge fairly.
Psa 75:3 Though the earth and all the inhabitants shake in fear, I make steady the earth's pillars. Selah.
Psa 75:4 I said to the arrogant, "Do not be arrogant," and to the wicked, "Do not lift up the horn.
Psa 75:5 Do not lift up your horn to the heights; do not speak with an insolent neck."
Psa 75:6 It is not from the east or from the west, and it is not from the wilderness that lifting up comes.
Psa 75:7 But the Almighty is the judge; he brings down, and he lifts up.
Psa 75:8 For Yehowah holds in his hand a cup of foaming wine, which is mixed with spices, and pours it out. Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink it to the last drop.
Psa 75:9 But I will continually tell what you have done; I will sing praises to the Mighty One of Jacob!
Psa 75:10 He says, "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be raised up."

Psalms Chapter 76

Psa 76:1 (For the chief musician, on stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph, a song.) The Almighty has made himself known in Judah; his name is great in Israel.
Psa 76:3 There he broke the arrows of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the other weapons of war. Selah.
Psa 76:4 You shine brightly and reveal your glory, as you descend from the mountains, where you killed your victims.
Psa 76:5 The brave-hearted were plundered; they died. All the warriors were helpless.
Psa 76:6 At your rebuke, Mighty One of Jacob, both rider and horse died.
Psa 76:7 You, yes you, are to be feared; who can stand in your sight when you are angry?
Psa 76:8 From Heaven you made your judgment heard; the earth was afraid and silent,
Psa 76:9 when you, Almighty, arose to execute judgment and to save all the oppressed of the earth. Selah.
Psa 76:10 Surely your angry judgment against humanity will bring you praise; you gird yourself with what is left of your anger.
Psa 76:11 Make vows to Yehowah your Divine One and keep them. May all who surround him bring gifts to him who is to be feared.
Psa 76:12 He cuts off the spirit of the princes; he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalms Chapter 77

Psa 77:1 (For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph.) I will call out with my voice to the Almighty; I will call with my voice to the Almighty, and he will hear me.
Psa 77:2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord; at night I stretched my hands out, and they would not become tired. My soul refused to be comforted.
Psa 77:3 I thought of the Almighty as I groaned; I thought about him as I grew faint. Selah.
Psa 77:4 You held my eyes open; I was too troubled to speak.
Psa 77:5 I thought about the days of old, about times long past.
Psa 77:6 During the night I called to mind the song I once sang. I thought carefully and tried to understand what had happened.
Psa 77:7 Will the Lord reject me forever? Will he never again show me grace?
Psa 77:8 Was his covenant faithfulness gone forever? Had his promise failed forever?
Psa 77:9 Had the Almighty forgotten to be gracious? Had his anger shut off his compassion? Selah.
Psa 77:10 I said, “This is my sorrow: the changing of the right hand of the Most High toward us.”
Psa 77:11 But I will call to mind your deeds, Yah; I will think about your wonderful deeds of old.
Psa 77:12 I will ponder all your deeds and will reflect on them.
Psa 77:13 Your Way, Almighty One, is set-apart; who is as great an Almighty as our Divine One?
Psa 77:14 You are the Almighty who does wonders; you have revealed your strength among the people.
Psa 77:15 You gave your people victory by your great power, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.
Psa 77:16 The waters saw you, Almighty One; the waters saw you, and they were afraid; the depths trembled.
Psa 77:17 The clouds poured down water; the cloudy skies gave voice; your arrows flew about.
Psa 77:18 Your thunderous voice was heard in the whirlwind; the lightning lit up the globe; the earth trembled and shook.
Psa 77:19 Your path went through the SEA and your way through the surging waters, but your footprints were not seen.
Psa 77:20 You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalms Chapter 78

Psa 78:1 (A maschil of Asaph.) Hear my law, my people, listen to the words of my mouth.
Psa 78:2 I will open my mouth in parables; I will sing about hidden things of the past.
Psa 78:3 These are things that we have heard and learned, things that our ancestors have told us.
Psa 78:4 We will not keep them from their descendants. We will tell the next generation about the praiseworthy deeds of Yehowah, his strength, and the wonders that he has done.
Psa 78:5 For he established covenant decrees in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel. He commanded our ancestors that they were to teach them to their children.
Psa 78:6 He commanded this, so that the generation to come might know his decrees, the children not yet born, who should tell them in turn to their own children.
Psa 78:7 Then they would place their hope in the Almighty and not forget the deeds of the Almighty but keep his commandments.
Psa 78:8 Then they would not be like their ancestors, who were a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose hearts were not right, and whose spirits were not committed and faithful to the Almighty.
Psa 78:9 The Ephraimites were armed with bows, but they turned back on the day of battle.
Psa 78:10 They did not keep the covenant with the Almighty, and they refused to obey his law.
Psa 78:11 They forgot his deeds, the wonderful things that he had shown them.
Psa 78:12 They forgot the marvelous things he did in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the land of Zoan.
Psa 78:13 He divided the sea and led them across it; he made the waters to stand like walls.
Psa 78:14 In the daytime, he led them with a cloud and all the night with the light of fire.
Psa 78:15 He split the rocks in the wilderness, and he gave them water abundantly, enough to fill the depths of the sea.
Psa 78:16 He made streams flow out of the rock and made the water flow like rivers.
Psa 78:17 Yet they continued to sin against him, rebelling against the Most High in the wilderness.

Psa 78:18 They challenged the Almighty in their hearts by asking for food to satisfy their appetites.
Psa 78:19 They spoke against the Almighty; they asked, “Can the Almighty really lay out a table for us in the wilderness?
Psa 78:20 See, when he struck the rock, waters gushed out and streams overflowed. But can he give bread also? Will he provide meat for his people?”
Psa 78:21 When Yehowah heard this, he was angry; so his fire burned against Jacob, and his anger attacked Israel,
Psa 78:22 because they did not believe in the Almighty and did not trust in his salvation.
Psa 78:23 Yet he commanded the clouds above and opened the doors of the sky.
Psa 78:24 He rained down manna for them to eat and gave them the grain from Heaven.
Psa 78:25 People ate the bread of angels. He sent them food in abundance.
Psa 78:26 He caused the east wind to blow in the sky, and by his power he guided the south wind.
Psa 78:27 He rained down meat on them like dust, birds as numerous as the sands of the sea.
Psa 78:29 So they ate and were full. He gave them what they craved.
Psa 78:30 But they had not yet filled up; their food was still in their mouths.
Psa 78:31 Then the anger of the Almighty attacked them and killed the strongest of them. He brought down the young men of Israel.
Psa 78:32 Despite this, they continued to sin and did not believe his wonderful deeds.
Psa 78:33 Therefore, he cut short their days; their years were filled with terror.
Psa 78:34 Whenever he afflicted them, they would start to seek him, and they would return and look earnestly for the Almighty.
Psa 78:35 They would call to mind that the Almighty was their Rock, and that Most High Almighty was their Rescuer.
Psa 78:36 But they would flatter him with their mouth and lie to him with their words.
Psa 78:37 For their hearts were not firmly fixed on him, and they were not faithful to his covenant.
Psa 78:38 Yet he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity and did not destroy them. Yes, many times he held back his anger and did not stir up all his wrath.
Psa 78:39 He called to mind that they were made of flesh, a wind that passes away and does not return.

Psa 78:41 Again and again, they challenged the Almighty and offended the Set-apart One of Israel.
Psa 78:42 They did not think about his power in that day, how he had rescued them from the enemy,
Psa 78:43 when he performed his terrifying signs in Egypt and his wonders in the region of Zoan.
Psa 78:44 He turned the Egyptians' rivers to blood, so that they could not drink from their streams.
Psa 78:45 He sent swarms of dung beetles that devoured them, and frogs that overran their land.
Psa 78:46 He gave their crops to the grasshopper and their labor to the locust.
Psa 78:47 He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore trees with aphids.
Psa 78:49 The fierceness of his anger lashed out against them. He sent wrath, fury, and trouble like agents who bring disaster.
Psa 78:50 He leveled a path for his anger; he did not spare them from death but gave them over to the plague.
Psa 78:51 He killed all the firstborn in Egypt, the firstborn of their strength in the tents of Ham.
Psa 78:52 He led his own people out like sheep and guided them through the wilderness like a flock.
Psa 78:53 He led them securely and unafraid, but the SEA overwhelmed their enemies.
Psa 78:54 Then he brought them to the border of his set-apart land, to this mountain that his right hand acquired.
Psa 78:55 He drove out the ethnicities from before them and assigned them their inheritance. He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.
Psa 78:56 Yet they challenged and defied Most High Almighty and did not keep his commands.
Psa 78:57 They were unfaithful and acted treacherously like their fathers; they were as undependable as a faulty bow.
Psa 78:58 For they made him angry with their high places and provoked him to jealous anger with their idols.
Psa 78:59 When the Almighty heard this, he was angry and completely rejected Israel.
Psa 78:60 He abandoned the sanctuary of Shiloh, the tent where he had lived near the city of Adam.
Psa 78:61 He allowed his strength to be captured and gave his glory into the enemy's hand.

Psa 78:62 He handed his people over to the sword, and he was angry with his heritage.
Psa 78:63 Fire devoured their young men, and their young women had no wedding songs.
Psa 78:65 Then the Lord awakened as one from sleep, like a warrior who shouts because of wine.
Psa 78:66 He drove his adversaries back; he put them to everlasting shame.
Psa 78:67 He rejected the tent of Joseph, and he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.
Psa 78:68 He chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion that he loved.
Psa 78:69 He built his sanctuary like Heaven, like the earth that he has established forever.
Psa 78:71 He took him from following the ewes with their young, and he brought him to be shepherd of Jacob, his people, and of Israel, his heritage.
Psa 78:72 David shepherded them with the integrity of his heart, and he guided them with the skill of his hands.

Psalms Chapter 79

Psa 79:1 (A psalm of Asaph.) Almighty One, ethnicities have come into your inheritance; they have defiled your set-apart temple; they have turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.
Psa 79:2 They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the sky, the bodies of your faithful people to the beasts of the earth.
Psa 79:3 They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.
Psa 79:4 We have become a reproach for our neighbors, mocking and derision to those who are around us.
Psa 79:5 How long, Yehowah? Will you stay angry forever? How long will your jealous anger burn like fire?
Psa 79:6 Pour out your wrath on the ethnicities that do not know you and on the kingdoms that do not call upon your name.
Psa 79:7 For they have devoured Jacob and destroyed his villages.
Psa 79:8 Do not hold the sins of our forefathers against us; may your mercies come to us, for we are extremely miserable.
Psa 79:9 Help us, Mighty One of our salvation, for the sake of the glory of your name; save us and forgive our sins for your name's sake.
Psa 79:10 Why should the ethnicities ask, "Where is their Divine One?" May the blood of your servants that was shed be avenged on the ethnicities before our eyes.
Psa 79:11 May the groans of the prisoners come before you; with the greatness of your power keep alive the children sentenced to execution.
Psa 79:12 Pay back into the laps of our neighboring countries seven times as much as the insults with which they have insulted you, O Lord.
Psa 79:13 So we your people and sheep of your pasture will give you thanks forever. We will tell your praises to all generations.

Psalms Chapter 80

Psa 80:1 (For the chief musician, set to the Shoshannim Eduth style. A psalm of Asaph.) Pay attention, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock; you who sit among the cherubim, shine on us!
Psa 80:2 In the sight of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up your power; come and save us.
Psa 80:3 Almighty One, restore us; make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.
Psa 80:4 Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, how long will you be angry with your people's prayer?
Psa 80:5 You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in great quantities.
Psa 80:6 You make us something for our neighbors to argue over, and our enemies laugh about us among themselves.
Psa 80:7 Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, restore us; make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.
Psa 80:8 You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out ethnicities and transplanted it.
Psa 80:9 You cleared the land for it; it took root and filled the land.
Psa 80:10 The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars by its branches.
Psa 80:11 It sent out its branches as far as the Sea and its shoots to the Euphrates River.
Psa 80:12 Why have you broken down its walls, so that all they who pass by pluck its fruit?
Psa 80:13 The boars out of the forest ruin it, and the beasts of the field feed on it.
Psa 80:14 Turn back, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces; look down from Heaven and take notice and take care of this vine.
Psa 80:15 This is the root that your right hand planted, the shoot that you made to grow.
Psa 80:16 It has been burned and cut down; they perish because of the rebuke of your face.
Psa 80:17 May your hand be on the man of your right hand, on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
Psa 80:18 Then we will not turn away from you; revive us, and we will call on your name.
Psa 80:19 Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, restore us; make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

Psalms Chapter 81

Psa 81:1 (For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of Asaph.) Sing aloud to the Almighty our strength; shout out for joy to the Mighty One of Jacob!
Psa 81:2 Sing a song and play the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.
Psa 81:3 Blow the trumpet monthly, on our appointed feast day (Num. 10:10).
Psa 81:4 For it is a statute for Israel, a decree given by the Mighty One of Jacob.
Psa 81:5 He issued it as a regulation in Joseph when he went against the land of Egypt, where I heard a language that I did not recognize:
Psa 81:6 “I removed the burden from his shoulder; his hands were freed from holding the basket.
Psa 81:7 In your distress you called out, and I helped you; I answered you from a dark thundercloud. I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah.
Psa 81:8 Listen, my people, for I will warn you, Israel, if you would only listen to me!
Psa 81:9 There must be no foreign deity among you; you must not worship any foreign deity.
Psa 81:10 I am Yehowah your Divine One, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
Psa 81:11 But my people did not listen to my words; Israel did not obey me.
Psa 81:12 So I gave them over to their own stubborn way, so that they might do what seemed right to them.
Psa 81:13 Oh, that my people would listen to me; oh, that my people would walk in my Paths.
Psa 81:14 Then I would quickly subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their oppressors.
Psa 81:15 May those who hate Yehowah cringe in fear before him! May they be humiliated forever.
Psa 81:16 I would feed Israel with the finest wheat; I would satisfy you with honey out of the rock.”

Psalms Chapter 82

Psa 82:1 (A psalm of Asaph.) The Almighty stands in the assembly of the mighty; in the midst of the deities he renders judgment.
Psa 82:2 How long will you judge unjustly and show favoritism to the wicked? Selah.
Psa 82:3 Defend the poor and fatherless; maintain the rights of the afflicted and destitute.
Psa 82:4 Rescue the poor and needy; take them out of the hand of the wicked.
Psa 82:5 They neither know nor understand; they wander around in the darkness; all the foundations of the earth crumble.
Psa 82:6 I said, “You are deities, and all of you, sons of the Most High.
Psa 82:8 Arise, Almighty One, judge the earth, for you have an inheritance in all the ethnicities.

Psalms Chapter 83

Psa 83:1 (A song. A psalm of Asaph.) Eternal One, do not be silent! Do not ignore us and remain unmoved, Almighty One.
Psa 83:2 Look, your enemies are making a commotion, and those who hate you have raised their heads.
Psa 83:3 They conspire against your people and plan together against your protected ones.
Psa 83:4 They have said, “Come, let us destroy them as a nation. Then the name of Israel will no longer be remembered.”
Psa 83:5 They have schemed together with one strategy; against you they have made an alliance.
Psa 83:6 This includes the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, and the people of Moab and the Hagrites, who plot together with Psa 83:7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; it also includes Philistia and the inhabitants of Tyre.
Psa 83:8 Assyria also is allied with them; they are helping the descendants of Lot. Selah.
Psa 83:9 Do to them as you did to Midian, as you did to Sisera and to Jabin at the Kishon River.
Psa 83:10 They perished at Endor and became like manure for the earth.
Psa 83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna.
Psa 83:12 They said, “Let us take for ourselves the pastures of the Almighty.”
Psa 83:13 My Divine One, make them like the whirling dust, like chaff before the wind,
Psa 83:14 like the fire that burns the forest, and like the flame that sets the mountains on fire.
Psa 83:15 Chase them with your hurricane-force wind, and terrify them with your windstorm.
Psa 83:16 Fill their faces with shame, so that they might seek your name, Yehowah.
Psa 83:17 May they be put to shame and be terrified forever; may they perish in disgrace.
Psa 83:18 Then they will know that you alone, whose name is Yehowah, are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalms Chapter 84

Psa 84:1 (For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of the sons of Korah.) How lovely is the place where you live, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces!
Psa 84:2 I long for the courts of Yehowah, my desire for it has made me exhausted. My heart and all of my being call out to the living Almighty.
Psa 84:3 Even the sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young near your altars, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, my King, and my Divine One.
Psa 84:4 Blessed are they who live in your house; they praise you continually. Selah.
Psa 84:5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways up to Zion.
Psa 84:6 Passing through the Valley of Tears, they find springs of water to drink. The autumn rains cover it with blessings.
Psa 84:8 Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, hear my prayer; Mighty One of Jacob, listen to what I am saying! Selah.
Psa 84:10 For one day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the temple of my Divine One, than to live within the tents of the wicked.
Psa 84:11 For Yehowah Almighty is our sun and shield; Yehowah will give grace and glory; he does not withhold any good thing from those who walk in integrity.
Psa 84:12 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalms Chapter 85

Psa 85:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.) Yehowah, you have showed grace to your land; you have restored the well-being of Jacob.
Psa 85:2 You have forgiven the sin of your people; you have covered all their sin. Selah.
Psa 85:3 You have withdrawn all your wrath; you have turned back from your hot anger.
Psa 85:4 Restore us, Mighty One of our salvation, and let go of your displeasure with us.
Psa 85:5 Will you be angry with us forever? Will you remain angry throughout future generations?
Psa 85:6 Will you not revive us again? Then your people will rejoice in you.
Psa 85:7 Show us your covenant faithfulness, Yehowah, grant us your salvation.
Psa 85:8 I will listen to what Almighty Yehowah says, for he will make peace with his people, his faithful followers. Yet they must not turn again to foolish ways.
Psa 85:9 Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him; then glory will remain in our land.
Psa 85:10 Covenant faithfulness and truth have met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
Psa 85:11 Truth springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky.
Psa 85:12 Yes, Yehowah will give his good blessings, and our land will yield its crops.
Psa 85:13 Righteousness will go before him and make a way for his footsteps.

Psalms Chapter 86

Psa 86:1 (A prayer of David.) Listen, Yehowah, and answer me, for I am poor and oppressed.
Psa 86:2 Protect me, for I am loyal; my Divine One, save your servant who trusts in you.
Psa 86:3 Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I cry out to you all day long.
Psa 86:4 Make your servant glad, for to you, O Lord, I pray.
Psa 86:5 You, Lord, are good and ready to forgive, and you show great mercy to all those who cry out to you.
Psa 86:6 Yehowah, listen to my prayer; hear the sound of my pleas.
Psa 86:7 In the day of my trouble, I call on you, for you will answer me.
Psa 86:8 There is no one who compares to you among the deities, O Lord. There are no deeds like your deeds.
Psa 86:9 All the ethnicities that you have made will come and bow before you, O Lord. They will honor your name.
Psa 86:10 For you are great and do wonderful things; you only are the Almighty.
Psa 86:11 Teach me your Ways, Yehowah. Then I will walk in your truth. Unite my heart to reverence you.
Psa 86:12 Lord my Divine One, I will praise you with my whole heart; I will glorify your name forever.
Psa 86:13 For great is your covenant faithfulness toward me; you have rescued my life from the depths of the place of the dead.
Psa 86:14 Almighty One, the arrogant have risen up against me. A gang of violent men seek my life. They have no regard for you.
Psa 86:15 But you, O Lord, are a merciful and gracious Almighty, slow to anger, and abundant in covenant faithfulness and truth.
Psa 86:16 Turn toward me and have mercy on me; give your strength to your servant; save the son of your servant woman.
Psa 86:17 Show me a sign of your grace. Then those who hate me will see it and be put to shame because you, Yehowah, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalms Chapter 87

Psa 87:1 (A psalm of the sons of Korah; a song.) On the set-apart mount stands the city he founded;
Psa 87:2 Yehowah loves the gates of Zion more than all the tents of Jacob.
Psa 87:3 Glorious things are said of you, city of the Almighty. Selah.
Psa 87:4 “I mention Rahab and Babylon to my followers. See, there are Philistia, and Tyre, along with Cush, will say, ‘This one was born there.’”
Psa 87:5 Of Zion it will be said, “Each of these was born in her; and the Most High himself will establish her.”
Psa 87:6 Yehowah writes in the Census Book of the ethnicities, “This one was born there.” Selah.
Psa 87:7 So also the singers and the dancers sing together, “All my fountains are in you!”

Psalms Chapter 88

Psa 88:1 (A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah; for the chief musician; set to the Mahalath Leannoth style. A maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.) Yehowah, Mighty One of my salvation, I cry out day and night before you.
Psa 88:2 Listen to my prayer; pay attention to my cry.
Psa 88:3 For I am filled with troubles, and my life has reached the place of the dead.
Psa 88:4 People treat me like those who go down into the pit; I am a man with no strength.
Psa 88:5 I am abandoned among the dead; I am like the dead who lie in the grave, about whom you care no more, because they are cut off from your power.
Psa 88:6 You place me in the lowest part of the pit, in the dark and deep places.
Psa 88:7 Your wrath lies heavy on me, and all your waves crash over me. Selah.
Psa 88:8 Because of you, my acquaintances avoid me. You have made me a shocking sight to them. I am hemmed in, and I cannot escape.
Psa 88:9 My eyes grow weary from trouble; all day long I call out to you, Yehowah; I spread out my hands to you.
Psa 88:10 Will you do wonders for the dead? Will those who have died rise and praise you? Selah.
Psa 88:11 Will your covenant faithfulness be proclaimed in the grave, your loyalty in the place of the dead?
Psa 88:12 Will your wonderful deeds be known in the darkness or your righteousness in the place of forgetfulness?
Psa 88:13 But I cry to you, Yehowah; at dawn my prayer comes before you.
Psa 88:14 Yehowah, why do you reject me? Why do you hide your face from me?
Psa 88:15 I have always been afflicted and on the verge of death since my youth. I have suffered from your terrors; I am in despair.
Psa 88:16 Your angry actions have passed over me, and your terrifying deeds have annihilated me.
Psa 88:17 They surround me like water all the day long; they have all encircled me.
Psa 88:18 You have removed every lover and friend from me. My only acquaintance is the darkness.

Psalms Chapter 89

Psa 89:1 (A maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.) I will sing of the acts of covenant faithfulness of Yehowah forever. I will proclaim your truthfulness to future generations.
Psa 89:2 For I have said, “Covenant faithfulness has been established forever; your truthfulness you have established in the heavens.”
Psa 89:3 “I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have made an oath to David my servant.
Psa 89:4 I will establish your descendants forever, and I will establish your throne through all generations.” Selah.
Psa 89:5 The heavens praise your wonders, Yehowah; your truthfulness is praised in the congregation of the set-apart ones.
Psa 89:6 For who in the skies can be compared to Yehowah? Who among the sons of the mighty is like Yehowah?
Psa 89:7 He is an Almighty who is greatly honored in the council of the set-apart ones and is awesome among all who surround him.
Psa 89:8 Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, who is strong like you, Yah? Your truthfulness surrounds you.
Psa 89:9 You rule the raging sea; when the waves surge, you calm them.
Psa 89:10 You crushed Rahab as one who is killed. You scattered your enemies with your strong arm.
Psa 89:11 The heavens belong to you and the earth also. You made the globe and all it contains; you set their foundation.
Psa 89:12 You created the north and the south. Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
Psa 89:13 You have a mighty arm and a strong hand, and your right hand is high.
Psa 89:14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne. Covenant faithfulness and truth come before you.
Psa 89:15 Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound, Yehowah! They walk in the light of your face.
Psa 89:16 They rejoice in your name all day long, and in your righteousness they exalt you.
Psa 89:17 You are their majestic strength, and by your grace we are victorious.
Psa 89:18 For our shield belongs to Yehowah; our king is the Set-apart One of Israel.
Psa 89:19 Long ago you spoke in a vision to your faithful ones, “I have set a crown on a chief; I have raised up one chosen from among the people.

Psa 89:20 I have chosen David my servant; with my set-apart oil have I anointed him.
Psa 89:21 My hand will support him; my arm will strengthen him.
Psa 89:22 No enemy will deceive him; no son of wickedness will oppress him.
Psa 89:23 I will crush his enemies before him; I will kill those who hate him.
Psa 89:24 My truth and my covenant faithfulness will be with him; by my name he will be victorious.
Psa 89:25 I will place his hand over the sea and his right hand over the rivers.
Psa 89:26 He will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my Divine One, and the Rock of my salvation.'
Psa 89:27 I also will place him as my firstborn son, the most exalted of the kings of the earth.
Psa 89:28 I will extend my covenant faithfulness to him forever; and my covenant with him will be secure.
Psa 89:29 I will make his descendants endure forever and his throne as enduring as the skies above.
Psa 89:30 If his children forsake my law and disobey my decrees,
Psa 89:31 if they break my rules and do not keep my commands,
Psa 89:32 then will I punish their rebellion with a rod and their iniquity with blows.
Psa 89:33 But I will not remove my steadfast love from him or be unfaithful to my promise.
Psa 89:34 I will not break my covenant or change the words of my lips.
Psa 89:35 Once and for all I have sworn by my consecration, I will not lie to David:
Psa 89:36 His descendants will continue forever and his throne as long as the sun before me.
Psa 89:37 It will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky." Selah.
Psa 89:38 But you have refused and rejected; you have been angry with your anointed king.
Psa 89:39 You have renounced the covenant of your servant. You have desecrated his crown on the ground.
Psa 89:40 You have broken down all his walls. You have ruined his strongholds.
Psa 89:41 All who pass by have robbed him. He has become an object of disgust to his neighbors.
Psa 89:42 You have raised the right hand of his enemies; you have made all his enemies rejoice.
Psa 89:43 You turn back the edge of his sword and have not made him stand when in battle.

Psa 89:44 You have brought his splendor to an end; you have brought down his throne to the ground.
Psa 89:45 You have shortened the days of his youth. You have covered him with shame. Selah.
Psa 89:46 How long, Yehowah? Will you hide yourself forever? How long will your anger burn like fire?
Psa 89:47 Oh, think about how short my time is, and for what uselessness you have created all the children of mankind!
Psa 89:48 Who can live and not die, or rescue his own life from the hand of the place of the dead? Selah.
Psa 89:49 Lord, where are your former acts of covenant faithfulness that you swore to David in your truthfulness?
Psa 89:50 Call to mind, Lord, the mocking directed against your servants, and how I bear in my heart so many insults from the ethnicities.
Psa 89:51 Your enemies hurl insults, Yehowah; they mock the footsteps of your anointed.

Psalms Chapter 90

Psa 90:1 (A prayer of Moses the man of the Almighty.) Lord, you have been our refuge throughout all generations.
Psa 90:2 Before the mountains were formed, or you formed the land and the globe, from everlasting to everlasting, you are the Almighty.
Psa 90:3 You return man to dust, and you say, “Return, you descendants of mankind.”
Psa 90:4 For a thousand years in your sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night (2 Pet. 3:8).
Psa 90:5 You sweep them away as with a flood and they sleep; at dawn they are like the grass that sprouts up.
Psa 90:6 At dawn it blooms and grows up; at dusk it withers and dries up.
Psa 90:7 Truly, we are consumed in your anger, and in your wrath we are terrified.
Psa 90:8 You have set our iniquities before you, our hidden sins in the light of your presence.
Psa 90:9 Our lifespan declines under your wrath; our years quickly pass like a sigh.
Psa 90:10 Our years are seventy, or even eighty if we are healthy; but even our best years are marked by trouble and sorrow. Yes, they pass quickly, and we fly away.
Psa 90:11 Who knows the intensity of your anger, and your wrath that is equal to the fear of you?
Psa 90:12 So teach us to enumerate our days, so that we might live wisely.
Psa 90:13 Turn back, Yehowah! How long will it be? Have pity on your servants.
Psa 90:14 Satisfy us at dawn with your covenant faithfulness, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
Psa 90:15 Make us glad in proportion to the days you afflicted us and to the years we have experienced trouble.
Psa 90:16 Let your servants see your work, and let our children see your majesty.
Psa 90:17 May the grace of Yehowah our Divine One be upon us; prosper the work of our hands; indeed, prosper the work of our hands.

Psalms Chapter 91

Psa 91:1 He who lives in the shelter of the Most High will stay in the shadow of the Most Powerful.
Psa 91:2 I will say of Yehowah, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my Divine One, in whom I trust.”
Psa 91:3 For he will rescue you from the snare of the hunter and from the deadly plague.
Psa 91:4 He will cover you with his wings, and under his wings you will find refuge. His truth is a shield and protection.
Psa 91:5 You will not be afraid of terror in the night, or of the arrow that flies by day,
Psa 91:6 or of the plague that roams around in the darkness, or of the disease that comes at noontime.
Psa 91:7 A thousand may fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not reach you.
Psa 91:8 You will only observe and see the punishment of the wicked.
Psa 91:9 For Yehowah is my refuge! Make the Most High your dwelling also.
Psa 91:10 No evil will overtake you; no affliction will come near your home.
Psa 91:11 For he will direct his angels to protect you, to guard you in all your ways.
Psa 91:12 They will lift you up with their hand, so that you will not hit your foot on a stone.
Psa 91:13 You will crush lions and vipers under your feet; you will trample on young lions and serpents.
Psa 91:14 Because his soul delights in me, I will rescue him. I will protect him on high, because he has known my name.
Psa 91:15 When he calls to me, I will answer him. I will be with him in trouble; I will give him victory and will honor him.
Psa 91:16 I will satisfy him with long life and show him my salvation.

Psalms Chapter 92

Psa 92:1 (A psalm, a song for the Sabbath day.) It is a good thing to give thanks to Yehowah and to sing praises to your name, Most High,
Psa 92:2 to proclaim your covenant faithfulness at dawn and your truthfulness every night,
Psa 92:3 with an instrument of ten strings and with the melody of the lyre, to the musical chords of the harp.
Psa 92:4 For you, Yehowah, have made me glad through your deeds. I will sing for joy because of the deeds of your hands.
Psa 92:5 How great are your deeds, Yehowah! Your thoughts are extremely deep.
Psa 92:6 A brutish person does not know, nor does a fool understand this:
Psa 92:7 When the wicked sprout like the grass, and even when all the evildoers thrive, still they are doomed to eternal destruction.
Psa 92:8 But you, Yehowah, will reign forever.
Psa 92:9 Indeed, look at your enemies, Yehowah! Indeed, look at your enemies. They will perish! All those who do evil will be scattered.
Psa 92:10 You have lifted up my horn like the horn of the wild ox; I am anointed with fresh oil.
Psa 92:11 My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies; my ears have heard of the doom of my evil foes.
Psa 92:12 The righteous will flourish like the palm tree; they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
Psa 92:13 They are planted in the temple of Yehowah; they flourish in the courts of our Divine One.
Psa 92:14 They bear fruit even when they are old; they stay fresh and green,
Psa 92:15 to proclaim that Yehowah is just. He is my Rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalms Chapter 93

Psa 93:1 Yehowah reigns; he is robed in majesty; Yehowah has clothed and girded himself with strength. The globe is firmly established; it cannot be moved.
Psa 93:2 Your throne is established from ancient times; you are from eternity.

Psalms Chapter 94

Psa 94:1 (A psalm of David for the fourth day of the week.) Yehowah, the Almighty who avenges, the Almighty who avenges, shine over us.
Psa 94:2 Rise up, Judge of the earth, give to the proud what they deserve.
Psa 94:3 How long will the wicked, Yehowah, how long will the wicked rejoice?
Psa 94:4 They pour out their arrogant words; all those who do evil boast.
Psa 94:5 They crush your people, Yehowah; they afflict the nation that belongs to you.
Psa 94:6 They kill the widow and sojourning foreigner who lives in their country, and they murder the fatherless.
Psa 94:7 They say, “Yah will not see, the Mighty One of Jacob does not take notice of it.”
Psa 94:8 Understand, you stupid people! You fools, when will you ever learn?
Psa 94:9 He who made the ear, does he not hear? He who formed the eye, does he not see?
Psa 94:10 He who disciplines the ethnicities, does he not correct? He is the One who gives knowledge to mankind.
Psa 94:11 Yehowah knows the thoughts of mankind, that they are vapor.
Psa 94:12 Blessed is the one whom you instruct, Yah, the one whom you teach from your law.
Psa 94:13 You give him rest in times of trouble, until a pit is dug for the wicked.
Psa 94:14 For Yehowah will not forsake his people or abandon his inheritance.
Psa 94:15 For judgment will again be righteous; and all the upright in heart will follow it.
Psa 94:16 Who will rise up to defend me against the evildoers? Who will stand up for me against the wicked?
Psa 94:17 Unless Yehowah had been my help, I would soon be lying down in the place of silence.
Psa 94:18 When I cried, “My foot is slipping!” Your covenant faithfulness, Yehowah, held me up.
Psa 94:19 When cares within me are many, your consolations make me happy.
Psa 94:20 Can a throne of destruction be allied with you, one who creates injustice by statute?
Psa 94:21 They conspire together to take the life of the righteous, and they condemn the innocent to execution.
Psa 94:22 But Yehowah has been my high tower, and my Divine One has been the Rock of my refuge.
Psa 94:23 He will bring on them their own iniquity and will cut them off in their own wickedness. Yehowah our Divine One will cut them off.

Psalms Chapter 95

Psa 95:1 Oh come, let us sing to Yehowah; let us sing joyfully to the Rock of our salvation!
Psa 95:2 Let us enter his presence with thanksgiving; let us sing to him with psalms of praise!
Psa 95:3 For Yehowah is a great Almighty and a great King superior to all deities.
Psa 95:4 In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his.
Psa 95:5 The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.
Psa 95:6 Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before Yehowah, our Creator:
Psa 95:7 For he is our Divine One, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. Today, oh that you would hear his voice!
Psa 95:8 “Do not harden your heart, as at Meribah, or as on the day of testing in the wilderness,
Psa 95:9 where your forefathers tested me and tried me, though they had seen my deeds.
Psa 95:10 For forty years I was angry with that generation and said, ‘This is a people whose hearts wander astray; they have not known my Ways.’
Psa 95:11 Therefore, I vowed in my anger that they would never enter into my resting place” (Heb. 3:7-4:11).

Psalms Chapter 96

Psa 96:1 Oh, sing to Yehowah a new song; sing to Yehowah, all the earth.
Psa 96:2 Sing to Yehowah, bless his name; announce his salvation day after day.
Psa 96:4 For Yehowah is great and is to be exceedingly praised! He is to be feared above all false deities.
Psa 96:5 For all the deities of the ethnicities are idols, but it is Yehowah who made the heavens.
Psa 96:6 Splendor and majesty are in his presence. Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
Psa 96:7 Give to Yehowah, you clans of people, give praise to Yehowah for his glory and strength.
Psa 96:8 Give to Yehowah the glory that his name deserves. Bring an offering and come into his courts.
Psa 96:9 Bow down to Yehowah wearing clothing that honors his consecration. Tremble before him, all the earth.
Psa 96:10 Proclaim among the ethnicities, “Yehowah reigns!” The globe also is established; it cannot be shaken. He judges the people fairly.
Psa 96:11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and that which fills it shout with joy.
Psa 96:12 Let the fields rejoice and all that is in them. Then let all the trees in the forest shout for joy
Psa 96:13 before Yehowah, for he is coming! He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness and the ethnicities with his faithfulness.

Psalms Chapter 97

Psa 97:1 Yehowah reigns; let the earth rejoice; let the many coastlands be glad.
Psa 97:2 Clouds and darkness surround him. Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
Psa 97:3 Fire goes before him and consumes his adversaries on every side.
Psa 97:4 His lightning lights up the globe; the earth sees and trembles.
Psa 97:5 The mountains melt like wax before Yehowah, the Lord of the whole earth.
Psa 97:6 The skies declare his justice, and all the ethnicities see his glory.
Psa 97:7 All those who worship carved figures will be shamed, those who boast in worthless idols, bow down to him, all you deities!
Psa 97:8 Zion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of your righteous decrees, Yehowah.
Psa 97:9 For you, Yehowah, are Most High above all the earth. You are exalted far above all deities.
Psa 97:10 You who love Yehowah, hate evil! He protects the lives of his saints, and he takes them out of the hand of the wicked.
Psa 97:11 Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for those with honest hearts.
Psa 97:12 Be glad in Yehowah, you righteous; and give thanks when you remember his consecration.

Psalms Chapter 98

Psa 98:1 (A psalm.) Oh, sing to Yehowah a new song, for he has done marvelous things; his right hand and his set-apart arm have given him victory.
Psa 98:2 Yehowah has made known his salvation; he has openly showed his justice to all the ethnicities.
Psa 98:3 He calls to mind his covenant loyalty and faithfulness for the house of Israel; all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our Divine One.
Psa 98:4 Shout for joy to Yehowah, all the earth; burst into song, sing for joy, and sing praises!
Psa 98:5 Sing praises to Yehowah with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.
Psa 98:6 With trumpets and the sound of the cornet, make a joyful noise before the King, Yehowah!
Psa 98:7 Let the sea shout and everything in it, the globe and those who live on it!
Psa 98:8 Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the mountains shout for joy!
Psa 98:9 Yehowah is coming to judge the earth; he will judge the world with righteousness and the ethnicities with fairness.

Psalms Chapter 99

Psa 99:1 Yehowah reigns; let the ethnicities tremble. He sits enthroned above the cherubim; the earth quakes.
Psa 99:2 Yehowah is great in Zion; he is exalted above all the ethnicities.
Psa 99:3 Let them praise your great and awesome name; he is set apart.
Psa 99:4 The King is strong, and he loves justice. You have established fairness; you have done righteousness and justice in Jacob.
Psa 99:5 Praise Yehowah our Divine One and worship at his footstool. He is set apart.
Psa 99:6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests, and Samuel was among those who prayed to him. They prayed to Yehowah, and he answered them.
Psa 99:7 He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud. They kept his commands and the statutes that he gave them.
Psa 99:8 You answered them, Yehowah our Divine One. A forgiving Almighty you were to them, but One who punished their sinful deeds.
Psa 99:9 Praise Yehowah our Divine One, and worship at his set-apart hill, for Yehowah our Divine One is set apart.

Psalms Chapter 100

Psa 100:1 (A psalm of thanksgiving.) Shout joyfully to Yehowah, all the earth.
Psa 100:2 Serve Yehowah with gladness; come before his presence with joyful singing.
Psa 100:3 Know that Yehowah is the Almighty; he made us, we did not make ourselves. We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
Psa 100:4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise! Give thanks to him and bless his name.

Psalms Chapter 101

Psa 101:1 (A psalm of David.) I will sing of covenant faithfulness and justice; to you, Yehowah, I will sing praises.
Psa 101:2 I will walk in the Way of integrity. Oh, when will you come to me? I will walk with integrity within my house.
Psa 101:3 I will not put wrongdoing before my eyes; I hate worthless evil; it will not cling to me.
Psa 101:4 Perverse people will leave me; I am not loyal to evil.
Psa 101:5 I will destroy whoever secretly slanders his neighbor. I will not tolerate anyone who has a proud demeanor and an arrogant attitude.
Psa 101:6 I will look to the faithful of the land to sit at my side. Those who walk in the Way of integrity may serve me.
Psa 101:7 Deceitful people will not remain within my house; liars will not be welcome before my eyes.
Psa 101:8 At my earliest convenience, I will destroy all the wicked from the land; I will remove all evildoers from the City of Yehowah.

Psalms Chapter 102

Psa 102:1 (A prayer of the afflicted when he is overwhelmed and pours out his lament before Yehowah.) Hear my prayer, Yehowah; hear my cry to you.
Psa 102:2 Do not hide your face from me in my time of trouble. Listen to me. When I call out to you, answer me quickly.
Psa 102:3 For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn like fire.
Psa 102:4 My heart is crushed, and I am like grass that has withered. I forget to eat any food.
Psa 102:5 With my continual groaning, I have become extremely thin.
Psa 102:6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I have become like an owl in the ruins.
Psa 102:7 I lie awake like a solitary bird, alone on the housetop.
Psa 102:8 My enemies taunt me all day long; those who mock me use my name in curses.
Psa 102:9 I eat ashes like bread and mix my drink with tears.
Psa 102:10 Because of your raging anger, you have lifted me up to throw me down.
Psa 102:11 My days are like a shadow that fades, and I have withered like grass.
Psa 102:12 But you, Yehowah, live forever, and your fame is for all generations.
Psa 102:13 You will rise up and have mercy on Zion. Now is the time to have mercy upon her; the appointed time has come.
Psa 102:14 For your servants hold her stones dear and feel compassion for the dust of her ruins.
Psa 102:15 The ethnicities will respect your name, Yehowah, and all the kings of the earth will honor your glory.
Psa 102:16 Yehowah will rebuild Zion and will appear in his glory.
Psa 102:17 At that time, he will respond to the prayer of the destitute; he will not reject their prayer.
Psa 102:18 This will be written for the last generation, and a people not yet born will praise Yah.
Psa 102:19 For he has looked down from the set-apart heights; from Heaven Yehowah has viewed the earth,
Psa 102:20 to hear the groaning of the prisoners, to release those who were condemned to execution.
Psa 102:21 Then men will proclaim the name of Yehowah in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem,
Psa 102:23 He has taken away my strength in the middle of life. He has shortened my days.

Psa 102:24 I prayed, “My Divine One, do not take me away in the middle of life; you are here throughout all generations.
Psa 102:25 In ancient times you set the earth in place; the heavens are the work of your hands.
Psa 102:26 They will perish, but you will remain; they will all grow old like a garment; like clothing, you will remove them, and they will disappear.
Psa 102:27 But you are the same, and your years will have no end.
Psa 102:28 The children of your servants will live on, and their descendants will live in your presence.”

Psalms Chapter 103

Psa 103:1 (A psalm of David.) I give praise to Yehowah with all my life, and with all that is within me, I give praise to his set-apart name!
Psa 103:2 I give praise to Yehowah with all my life, and I remember all of his good deeds.
Psa 103:3 He forgives all your sins; he heals all your diseases.
Psa 103:4 He redeems your life from destruction; he crowns you with covenant faithfulness and acts of tender mercy.
Psa 103:5 He satisfies your life with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle.
Psa 103:6 Yehowah does what is fair and does acts of justice for all who are oppressed.
Psa 103:7 He made known his Ways to Moses, his deeds to the descendants of Israel.
Psa 103:8 Yehowah is merciful and gracious; he is patient; he has great covenant loyalty.
Psa 103:9 He will not always discipline; he is not always angry.
Psa 103:10 He does not deal with us as our sins deserve or repay us for what our sins demand.
Psa 103:11 For as the skies are high above the earth, so great is his covenant faithfulness toward those who honor him.
Psa 103:12 As far as the east is from the west, this is how far he has removed the guilt of our sins from us.
Psa 103:13 As a father has compassion on his children, so Yehowah has compassion on those who honor him.
Psa 103:14 For he knows how we are formed; he knows that we are dust.
Psa 103:15 As for man, his days are like grass; he flourishes like a flower in a field.
Psa 103:16 The wind blows over it, and it disappears, and no one can even tell where it once grew.
Psa 103:17 But the covenant faithfulness of Yehowah is from everlasting to everlasting on those who honor him. His righteousness extends to their descendants.
Psa 103:19 Yehowah has established his throne in Heaven, and his kingdom rules over everyone.
Psa 103:20 Give praise to Yehowah, you his angels, you mighty ones who are strong and do his word, and obey the sound of his word.

Psa 103:21 Give praise to Yehowah, all his angel armed forces, you are his servants who carry out his will.
Psa 103:22 Give praise to Yehowah, all his creatures, in all the places where he reigns. I will give praise to Yehowah with all my life.

Psalms Chapter 104

Psa 104:1 I give praise to Yehowah with all my life, Yehowah my Divine One, you are extremely magnificent; you are clothed with splendor and majesty.
Psa 104:2 You cover yourself with light as with a garment; you spread out the heavens like a tent curtain.
Psa 104:3 You lay the beams of your chambers on the clouds; you make the clouds your chariot; you walk on the wings of the wind.
Psa 104:4 He makes his angels spirits, flames of fire his servants.
Psa 104:5 He laid the foundations of the earth, and it will never be moved.
Psa 104:6 You covered the earth with water like a garment; the water covered the mountains.
Psa 104:8 The mountains rose, and the valleys spread out into the places that you had appointed for them.
Psa 104:9 You have set a boundary for them that they will not cross; they will not cover the earth again.
Psa 104:10 He made springs flow into the valleys; the streams flow between the mountains.
Psa 104:11 They supply water for all the animals of the field; the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
Psa 104:13 He waters the mountains from his water chambers in the sky. The earth is filled with the fruit of his labor.
Psa 104:14 He makes the grass grow for the livestock and plants for man to cultivate, so that man may produce food from the earth.
Psa 104:15 He makes wine to make man happy, oil to make his face shine, and food to sustain his life.
Psa 104:16 The trees of Yehowah get plenty of rain; the cedars of Lebanon which he planted.
Psa 104:17 There the birds make their nests. The stork makes the cypress tree her home.
Psa 104:18 The wild goats live on the high mountains; the mountain heights are a refuge for the hyraxes.
Psa 104:19 He made the moon for animals' nocturnal hunting season; the sun knows its time for setting.
Psa 104:20 You make the darkness of the night when all the beasts of the forest come out.

Psa 104:24 Yehowah, how many and varied are your works! With wisdom you made them all; the earth overflows with your works.
Psa 104:25 Over there is the sea, deep and wide, teeming with innumerable creatures, both small and great.
Psa 104:26 The ships travel there, and Leviathan is also there, which you formed to play in the sea.
Psa 104:27 All these look to you to give them their food on time.
Psa 104:28 When you give to them, they gather; when you open your hand, they are satisfied.
Psa 104:29 When you hide your face, they are troubled; if you take away their breath, they die and return to dust.
Psa 104:30 When you send out your Ruach, they are created, and you renew the countryside.
Psa 104:31 May the glory of Yehowah last forever; may Yehowah enjoy his creation.
Psa 104:32 He looks down on the earth, and it shakes; he touches the mountains, and they smoke.
Psa 104:33 I will sing to Yehowah all my life; I will sing praise to my Divine One as long as I live.
Psa 104:34 May my thoughts be sweet to him; I will rejoice in Yehowah.
Psa 104:35 May sinners vanish from the earth, and let the wicked be no more. I give praise to Yehowah with all my life. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 105

Psa 105:1 Give thanks to Yehowah, call on his name; make known his deeds among the ethnicities.
Psa 105:2 Sing to him, sing praises to him; speak of all his marvelous deeds.
Psa 105:3 Boast in his set-apart name; let the heart of those who seek Yehowah rejoice.
Psa 105:4 Seek Yehowah and his strength; seek his presence continually.
Psa 105:5 Recall the marvelous things he has done, his miracles and the decrees from his mouth,
Psa 105:6 you descendants of Abraham his servant, you people of Jacob, his chosen ones.
Psa 105:7 He is Yehowah our Divine One. His decrees are on all the earth.
Psa 105:8 He keeps in mind his covenant forever, the word that he commanded for a thousand generations.
Psa 105:9 He calls to mind the covenant that he made with Abraham and his oath to Isaac.
Psa 105:10 This is what he confirmed to Jacob as a statute and to Israel as an everlasting covenant.
Psa 105:11 He promised, “I will give you the land of Canaan as your share of your inheritance.”
Psa 105:12 He said this when they were only few in number, so few, and were sojourners in the land.
Psa 105:13 They went from ethnicity to ethnicity and from one kingdom to another.
Psa 105:14 He did not allow anyone to oppress them; he rebuked kings for their sakes.
Psa 105:15 He commanded, “Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not harm my prophets.”
Psa 105:16 He called for a famine on the land; he cut off the whole supply of bread.
Psa 105:17 He sent a man ahead of them; Joseph was sold as a servant.
Psa 105:18 His feet were bound by shackles; on his neck was put an iron collar,
Psa 105:19 until the time his words came true, and the Word of Yehowah tested him.
Psa 105:20 The king sent servants to release him; the ruler of the people set him free.
Psa 105:21 He put him in charge of his household as ruler of all his possessions,
Psa 105:22 to instruct his princes as he wished and to teach his elders wisdom.

Psa 105:23 Then Israel came into Egypt (c. 1875 BC), and Jacob lived for a time in the land of Ham.
Psa 105:24 Yehowah made his people fruitful and made them stronger than their enemies.
Psa 105:25 He caused their enemies to hate his people, to mistreat his servants.
Psa 105:26 He sent Moses, his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
Psa 105:27 They performed his signs among the Egyptians, his wonders in the land of Ham.
Psa 105:28 He sent darkness and made that land dark, but its people did not obey his commands.
Psa 105:29 He turned their water into blood and killed their fish.
Psa 105:30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the rooms of their rulers.
Psa 105:31 He spoke, and swarms of dung beetles and gnats came throughout their country.
Psa 105:32 He turned their rain into hail, with fire flaming on their land.
Psa 105:34 He spoke, and the locusts came, so many locusts.
Psa 105:35 The locusts ate up all of the vegetation in their land. They ate up all the crops of the ground.
Psa 105:36 He killed every firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their strength.
Psa 105:37 He brought the Israelis out with silver and gold; none of his tribes stumbled on the way.
Psa 105:38 Egypt was glad when they went away, for the Egyptians were afraid of them.
Psa 105:39 He spread a cloud for a covering and made a fire to light up the night.
Psa 105:40 The Israelis asked for food, and he brought quail and satisfied them with bread from Heaven.
Psa 105:41 He split the rock, and waters gushed from it; they flowed in the wilderness like a river (Exo. 17:6; Num. 20:11).
Psa 105:42 For he called to mind his set-apart promise that he made to Abraham his servant.
Psa 105:44 He gave them the lands of the ethnicities; they took possession of the wealth of the people,
Psa 105:45 so that they might keep his statutes and obey his law. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 106

Psa 106:1 Praise Yah! Give thanks to Yehowah, for he is good, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 106:2 Who can recount the mighty acts of Yehowah or proclaim in full all his praiseworthy deeds?
Psa 106:4 Call me to mind, Yehowah, when you show grace to your people; help me when you save them.
Psa 106:5 Then I will see the prosperity of your chosen, rejoice in the gladness of your nation, and glory with your inheritance.
Psa 106:6 We have sinned like our ancestors; we have done wrong, and we have done evil.
Psa 106:7 Our fathers did not appreciate your marvelous deeds in Egypt; they ignored your many acts of covenant faithfulness; they were rebellious at the SEA.
Psa 106:8 Nevertheless, he saved them for his name's sake, so that he might reveal his power.
Psa 106:9 He rebuked the SEA, and it dried up. Then he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.
Psa 106:10 He saved them from the hand of those who hated them, and he rescued them from the hand of the enemy.
Psa 106:11 But the waters covered their adversaries; not one of them survived.
Psa 106:12 Then they believed his words, and they sang his praise.
Psa 106:13 But they quickly forgot what he had done; they did not wait for his instructions.
Psa 106:14 They had insatiable cravings in the wilderness, and they challenged the Almighty in the desert.
Psa 106:15 He gave them their request but sent a disease that consumed their bodies.
Psa 106:16 In the camp they became jealous of Moses and Aaron, the set-apart priest of Yehowah.
Psa 106:17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and covered the followers of Abiram.
Psa 106:18 Fire broke out among them; the fire consumed the wicked.
Psa 106:19 They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast metal figure.
Psa 106:20 They traded the glory of Yehowah for the image of a bull that eats grass.

Psa 106:21 They forgot the Almighty their Savior, who had done great deeds in Egypt.
Psa 106:22 He had done wonderful things in the land of Ham and mighty acts at the SEA.
Psa 106:23 He would have decreed their destruction, had not Moses, his chosen one, intervened with him in the breach to turn away his anger from destroying them.
Psa 106:24 Then they despised the fruitful land; they did not believe his promise
Psa 106:25 but grumbled in their tents, and did not obey Yehowah.
Psa 106:26 Therefore, he raised his hand and swore to them that he would let them die in the desert,
Psa 106:27 scatter their descendants among the ethnicities, and scatter them in foreign lands.
Psa 106:28 They worshiped Baal of Peor and ate the sacrifices offered to the dead.
Psa 106:29 They provoked him to anger with their actions, and a plague broke out among them.
Psa 106:30 Then Phinehas rose to intervene, and the plague subsided.
Psa 106:31 It was counted to him as a righteous deed to all generations forever.
Psa 106:32 They also angered Yehowah at the waters of Meribah, and Moses suffered because of them.
Psa 106:33 They made Moses bitter, and he spoke rashly.
Psa 106:34 They did not destroy the ethnicities as Yehowah had commanded them,
Psa 106:35 but they mingled with the ethnicities and learned their ways,
Psa 106:36 and worshiped their idols, which became a snare to them.
Psa 106:37 They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
Psa 106:38 They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, desecrating the land with blood.
Psa 106:39 They were defiled by their deeds; in their actions they were like prostitutes.
Psa 106:40 So Yehowah was angry with his people, and he despised his own people.
Psa 106:41 He gave them into the hand of the ethnicities, and those who hated them ruled over them.
Psa 106:42 Their enemies oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection to their authority.
Psa 106:43 Many times he came to help them, but they kept rebelling and were brought low by their own sin.

Psa 106:44 Nevertheless, he paid attention to their distress when he heard their cry for help.
Psa 106:45 He called to mind his covenant with them and relented because of his steadfast love.
Psa 106:47 Save us, Yehowah, our Divine One. Gather us from among the ethnicities, so that we may give thanks to your set-apart name and glory in your praises.
Psa 106:48 May Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, be praised from everlasting to everlasting. All the people said, “Amein.” Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 107

Psa 107:2 Let the redeemed of Yehowah speak out, those he has rescued from the hand of the enemy.
Psa 107:3 He has gathered them out of foreign lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
Psa 107:4 They wandered in the wilderness on a desert road and found no city in which to live.
Psa 107:5 Because they were hungry and thirsty, they fainted from exhaustion.
Psa 107:6 Then they called out to Yehowah in their trouble, and he rescued them out of their distress.
Psa 107:7 He led them by a direct path, so that they would go to a city to live in.
Psa 107:8 Oh that people would praise Yehowah for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
Psa 107:9 For he satisfies the longings of those who are thirsty, and the desires of those who are hungry, he fills up with good things.
Psa 107:10 Some sat in darkness and in gloom, prisoners in affliction and chains.
Psa 107:11 This was because they had rebelled against the word of the Almighty and rejected the instruction of the Most High.
Psa 107:12 He humbled their hearts through hardship; they stumbled, and there was no one to help them up.
Psa 107:13 Then they called out to Yehowah in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.
Psa 107:14 He brought them out of darkness and gloom and broke their bonds.
Psa 107:15 Oh that people would praise Yehowah for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
Psa 107:16 For he has broken the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.
Psa 107:17 They were foolish in their rebellious ways and afflicted because of their sins.
Psa 107:18 They lost their desire to eat any food, and they came close to the gates of death.
Psa 107:19 Then they called out to Yehowah in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.
Psa 107:20 He sent his word and healed them, and he rescued them from their destruction.
Psa 107:21 Oh that people would praise Yehowah for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!

Psa 107:22 Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving and proclaim his deeds in singing.
Psa 107:23 Some travel on the sea in ships and do business overseas.
Psa 107:25 For he commanded and aroused the windstorm that stirs up the seas.
Psa 107:26 They reached up to the sky; they went down to the depths. Their lives melted away in distress.
Psa 107:27 They swayed and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.
Psa 107:28 Then they called out to Yehowah in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.
Psa 107:29 He calmed the storm, and the waves were stilled.
Psa 107:30 Then they rejoiced because the sea was calm, and he brought them to their desired harbor.
Psa 107:31 Oh that people would praise Yehowah for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
Psa 107:32 Let them exalt him in the congregation of the people and praise him in the Sanhedrin of the elders.
Psa 107:33 He turns rivers into a wilderness, springs of water into dry land,
Psa 107:34 and a fruitful land into a barren place because of the wickedness of its people.
Psa 107:35 He turns the wilderness into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water.
Psa 107:36 He settles the hungry there, and they build a city to live in.
Psa 107:37 They build a city to plant fields in, to plant vineyards, and to bring in an abundant harvest.
Psa 107:38 He blesses them, so they are extremely numerous. He does not let their livestock decrease in number.
Psa 107:39 They were diminished and brought low by painful distress and suffering.
Psa 107:40 He pours contempt on the leaders and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there are no roads.
Psa 107:41 But he protects the needy from affliction and cares for his families like a flock.
Psa 107:42 The upright will see this and rejoice, and all wickedness shuts its mouth.
Psa 107:43 Whoever is wise should take note of these things and meditate on the acts of covenant faithfulness of Yehowah.

Psalms Chapter 108

Psa 108:1 (A song, a psalm of David.) My heart is fixed, Almighty One; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises also with my honored heart!
Psa 108:2 Wake up, lute and harp; I will wake up the dawn.
Psa 108:3 I will give thanks to you, Yehowah, among the people; I will sing praises to you among the ethnicities!
Psa 108:4 For your covenant faithfulness is great above the heavens; and your truth reaches to the skies.
Psa 108:5 Be exalted, Almighty One, above the heavens, and may your glory be exalted over all the earth.
Psa 108:6 So that those you love may be rescued, rescue us with your right hand and answer me.
Psa 108:7 The Almighty has spoken in his consecration; "I will rejoice; I will divide Shechem and apportion out the Valley of Succoth.
Psa 108:8 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is my helmet; Judah is my scepter.
Psa 108:9 Moab is my washbasin; over Edom I will throw my sandal; I will shout in triumph because of Philistia.
Psa 108:10 Who will bring me into the strong city? Who will lead me to Edom?"
Psa 108:11 Almighty One, have you not rejected us? You do not go into battle with our military force, Almighty One.
Psa 108:12 Give us help against the enemy, for man's help is futile.
Psa 108:13 We will triumph with the help of the Almighty; he will trample down our enemies.

Psalms Chapter 109

Psa 109:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) Almighty One whom I praise, do not be silent,
Psa 109:2 for the wicked and deceitful attack me; they speak lies against me.
Psa 109:3 They surround me and say hateful things, and they attack me without cause.
Psa 109:4 In return for my love, they slander me, but I pray for them.
Psa 109:5 They repay me evil for good, and they hate my love.
Psa 109:6 Appoint a wicked man over such an enemy as these people; appoint an accuser to stand at his right hand.
Psa 109:7 When he is judged, may he be found guilty; may his prayer be considered sinful.
Psa 109:8 May his days be few; may another take his office.
Psa 109:9 May his children be fatherless, and may his wife be a widow.
Psa 109:10 May his children wander about and beg, asking for handouts as they leave their ruined home.
Psa 109:11 May the creditor take all he owns; may foreigners plunder what he earns.
Psa 109:12 May no one extend any kindness to him; may no one have pity on his fatherless children.
Psa 109:13 May his children be cut off; may their name be blotted out in the next generation.
Psa 109:14 May his ancestors' sins be mentioned to Yehowah; and may the sin of his mother not be forgotten.
Psa 109:15 May their guilt always be before Yehowah; may he cut off their memory from the earth.
Psa 109:16 May Yehowah do this, because this man never bothered to show any covenant faithfulness but instead harassed the oppressed, the needy, and the disheartened to death.
Psa 109:17 He loved cursing; may it come back upon him. He hated blessing; may no blessing come to him.
Psa 109:18 He clothed himself with cursing as his garment, and his curse came into his inner being like water, like oil into his bones.
Psa 109:19 May his curses be to him like the clothes he wears to cover himself, like the belt he always wears.
Psa 109:20 May this be the reward of my accusers from Yehowah, of those who say evil things about me.
Psa 109:21 Yehowah my Lord, deal kindly with me for your name's sake. Because your covenant faithfulness is good, save me.

Psa 109:22 For I am oppressed and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
Psa 109:23 I am fading away like the shadow of the evening; I am shaken off like a locust.
Psa 109:24 My knees are weak from fasting; I am turning to skin and bones.
Psa 109:25 I am disdained by my accusers; when they see me, they shake their heads.
Psa 109:26 Help me, Yehowah my Divine One; save me by your covenant faithfulness.
Psa 109:27 May they know that this is your doing, that you, Yehowah, have done this.
Psa 109:28 Though they curse me, please bless me; when they attack, may they be put to shame, but may your servant rejoice.
Psa 109:29 May my adversaries be clothed with shame; may they wear their shame like a robe.
Psa 109:30 With my mouth I give great thanks to Yehowah; I will praise him in the midst of a crowd!
Psa 109:31 For he will stand at the right hand of the one who is needy, to save him from those who judge him.

Psalms Chapter 110

Psa 110:1 (A psalm of David.) Yehowah invites my Lord, “Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool” (Mat. 22:44; 26:64; Mark 12:36; Luke 20:42-43; Acts 2:34-35).
Psa 110:2 Yehowah will hold out the scepter of your strength from Zion; commanding, “Rule among your enemies!”
Psa 110:3 Your people will follow you in set-apart garments of their own free will on the Day of your power; from the womb of dawn your youth will be to you like the dew.
Psa 110:4 Yehowah has sworn and will not change: “You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek” (Heb. 5, 6, 7).
Psa 110:5 The Lord is at your right hand. He will kill kings on the Day of his anger.
Psa 110:6 He will judge the ethnicities; he will fill the battlegrounds with dead bodies; he will kill the leaders in many countries.
Psa 110:7 He will drink of the brook along the road, and then he will lift his head up high after victory.

Psalms Chapter 111

Psa 111:1 Praise Yah! I will give thanks to Yehowah with my whole heart in the congregation of the upright, in their gathering.
Psa 111:2 The works of Yehowah are great, eagerly awaited by all those who desire them.
Psa 111:4 He does wonderful things that will be remembered; Yehowah is gracious and merciful.
Psa 111:5 He gives food to his faithful followers. He will always call to mind his covenant.
Psa 111:6 He showed his powerful works to his people in giving them the inheritance of the ethnicities.
Psa 111:8 They are established forever, to be observed faithfully and properly.
Psa 111:9 He gave victory to his people; he ordained his covenant forever; set apart and awesome is his name.
Psa 111:10 To fear Yehowah is the beginning of wisdom; those who carry out his instructions have good understanding. His praise endures forever.

Psalms Chapter 112

Psa 112:1 Praise Yah! Blessed is the man who obeys Yehowah, who greatly delights in his commandments.
Psa 112:2 His descendants will be powerful on earth; the descendants of the reverent man will be blessed.
Psa 112:3 Wealth and riches are in his house; his righteousness will endure forever.
Psa 112:4 Light shines in the darkness for the reverent person; he is gracious, merciful, and just.
Psa 112:6 For he will never be moved; the righteous person will be remembered forever.
Psa 112:7 He does not fear bad news; he is confident, trusting in Yehowah.
Psa 112:8 His heart is tranquil, without fear, until he looks in triumph over his adversaries.
Psa 112:9 He generously gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever; he will be exalted with honor.
Psa 112:10 The wicked person will see this and be angry; he will gnash with his teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked people will perish.

Psalms Chapter 113

Psa 113:1 Praise Yah! Praise him, you servants of Yehowah; praise the name of Yehowah!
Psa 113:2 Blessed be the name of Yehowah, both now and forevermore.
Psa 113:3 From the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of Yehowah should be praised!
Psa 113:4 Yehowah is exalted above all ethnicities, and his glory reaches above the skies.
Psa 113:5 Who is like Yehowah our Divine One, who has his seat on high,
Psa 113:6 who looks down at the sky and at the earth?
Psa 113:7 He raises up the poor out of the dirt and lifts up the needy from the ash heap,
Psa 113:8 so that he may seat him with princes, with the princes of his people.
Psa 113:9 He gives a home to the barren woman of the house, he makes her a joyful mother of children. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 114

Psa 114:1 When Israel left Egypt, the house of Jacob from that foreign people,
Psa 114:2 Judah became his Set-apart Place, Israel his kingdom.
Psa 114:3 The SEA looked and fled; the Jordan River turned back.
Psa 114:5 Why did you flee, SEA? Jordan River, why did you turn back?
Psa 114:6 Mountains, why did you skip like rams? You little hills, why did you skip like lambs?
Psa 114:7 Tremble, earth, before the Lord, at the presence of the Mighty One of Jacob.
Psa 114:8 He turned the rock into a pool of water, the hard rock into a spring of water.

Psalms Chapter 115

Psa 115:1 Not to us, Yehowah, not to us, but to your name bring glory, for your covenant faithfulness and for your truth.
Psa 115:2 Why should the ethnicities ask, “Where is their Divine One?”
Psa 115:3 Our Divine One is in Heaven; he does whatever he pleases.
Psa 115:4 The ethnicities’ idols are silver and gold, the work of men’s hands.
Psa 115:5 Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see;
Psa 115:6 they have ears, but they do not hear; they have noses, but they do not smell.
Psa 115:7 Those idols have hands but do not feel; they have feet, but they cannot walk; nor do they speak from their mouths.
Psa 115:8 Those who make them are like them, as is everyone who trusts in them.
Psa 115:9 Israel, trust in Yehowah; he is your help and shield.
Psa 115:10 House of Aaron, trust in Yehowah; he is your help and shield.
Psa 115:11 You who honor Yehowah, trust in Yehowah; he is your help and shield.
Psa 115:12 Yehowah takes notice of us and will bless us; he will bless the family of Israel; he will bless the family of Aaron.
Psa 115:13 He will bless those who honor Yehowah, both young and old.
Psa 115:14 May Yehowah greatly increase you and your descendants.
Psa 115:15 May you be blessed by Yehowah, who made the heavens and the earth.
Psa 115:16 Heaven, even the heavens belong to Yehowah; but the earth he has given to mankind.
Psa 115:17 The dead do not praise Yah, nor do any who go down into silence.
Psa 115:18 But we will bless Yah now and forevermore. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 116

Psa 116:1 I love Yehowah, because he hears my voice and my pleas for mercy.
Psa 116:2 Because he listened to me, I will call on him as long as I live.
Psa 116:3 The cords of death surrounded me, and the snares of the place of the dead confronted me; I felt anguish and sorrow.
Psa 116:4 Then I called on the name of Yehowah: “Please Yehowah, rescue my life!”
Psa 116:5 Yehowah is merciful and fair; our Divine One is compassionate.
Psa 116:6 Yehowah protects the naive; I was brought low, and he saved me.
Psa 116:7 My soul can return to its resting place, for Yehowah has been good to me.
Psa 116:8 For you rescued my life from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
Psa 116:9 I will serve Yehowah in the land of the living.
Psa 116:10 I believed in him, even when I said, “I am greatly afflicted.”
Psa 116:11 I rashly said, “All men are liars.”
Psa 116:12 How can I repay Yehowah for all his kindnesses to me?
Psa 116:13 I will raise the cup of salvation, and call on the name of Yehowah.
Psa 116:14 I will fulfill my vows to Yehowah in the presence of all his people.
Psa 116:15 Precious in the sight of Yehowah is the death of his saints.
Psa 116:16 Yehowah, indeed, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your servant woman; you have taken away my bonds.
Psa 116:17 I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call on the name of Yehowah.
Psa 116:18 I will fulfill my vows to Yehowah in the presence of all his people,
Psa 116:19 in the courts of the temple of Yehowah, in your midst, Jerusalem. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 117

Psa 117:1 Praise Yehowah, all you ethnicities; exalt him, all you people!
Psa 117:2 For his covenant faithfulness is great toward us, and the truth of Yehowah endures forever. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 118

Psa 118:1 Give thanks to Yehowah, for he is good, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 118:2 Let Israel say, “His covenant faithfulness endures forever.”
Psa 118:3 Let the house of Aaron say, “His covenant faithfulness endures forever.”
Psa 118:5 In my distress I called out to Yah; Yah answered me and set me free.
Psa 118:6 Yehowah is with me; I will not be afraid (Heb. 13:6); what can man do to me?
Psa 118:7 Yehowah is on my side as my helper; I will look in triumph on those who hate me.
Psa 118:8 It is better to take shelter in Yehowah than to put confidence in mankind.
Psa 118:9 It is better to take refuge in Yehowah than to put one’s trust in princes.
Psa 118:10 All the ethnicities surrounded me; in the name of Yehowah I cut them off.
Psa 118:11 They surrounded me; yes, they surrounded me; in the name of Yehowah I cut them off.
Psa 118:12 They surrounded me like bees; they disappeared as quickly as fire among thorns; in the name of Yehowah I cut them off.
Psa 118:13 They attacked me to knock me down, but Yehowah helped me.
Psa 118:14 Yah is my strength and song, and has become my salvation (Exo. 15:2; Isa. 12:2).
Psa 118:15 The joyful shout of victory is heard in the tents of the righteous; the right hand of Yehowah conquers!
Psa 118:16 The right hand of Yehowah is exalted; the right hand of Yehowah conquers.
Psa 118:17 I will not die but live and declare the deeds of Yah.
Psa 118:18 Yah has punished me harshly; but he has not handed me over to death.
Psa 118:19 Open to me the gates of righteousness; I will enter them, and I will give thanks to Yah.
Psa 118:20 This is the gate of Yehowah; the righteous enter through it.
Psa 118:21 I will give thanks to you, for you answered me, and you have become my salvation.
Psa 118:22 The Stone that the builders rejected has become the chief Cornerstone (Acts 4:11).

Psa 118:23 This is the doing of Yehowah; it is marvelous in our eyes (Mat. 21:42).
Psa 118:24 This is the day on which Yehowah has acted; we will rejoice and be glad in it!
Psa 118:25 Please, Yehowah, save us! Please, Yehowah, give us success!
Psa 118:26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yehowah; we bless you from the temple of Yehowah (Mat. 23:39; 21:9; Luke 13:35; 19:38-40).
Psa 118:27 Almighty Yehowah has given us light; bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.
Psa 118:28 You are my Divine One, and I will give thanks to you; you are my Divine One; I will exalt you.
Psa 118:29 Oh, give thanks to Yehowah; for he is good; for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

Psalms Chapter 119

Psa 119:1 ALEPH. Blessed are those whose Ways are blameless, who walk in the Law of Yehowah.
Psa 119:2 Blessed are they who keep his commandments, who seek him with all their heart.
Psa 119:4 You have commanded us to keep your instructions, so that we should carefully observe them.
Psa 119:5 Oh, that I would be firmly established in the observance of your statutes!
Psa 119:6 Then I would not be put to shame when I think of all your commandments.
Psa 119:7 I will give thanks to you with an upright heart when I learn your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:8 I will observe your statutes; do not leave me alone.
Psa 119:9 BETH. How can a young person keep his Path pure? By obeying your word.
Psa 119:10 With my whole heart I seek you; Do not let me stray from your commandments.
Psa 119:11 I have stored up your word in my heart, so that I might not sin against you.
Psa 119:12 Blessed you are, Yehowah; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:13 With my mouth I have declared all the righteous decrees that you have revealed.
Psa 119:14 I rejoice in the Way of your covenant decrees more than in all riches.
Psa 119:15 I will meditate on your instructions and pay attention to your Ways.
Psa 119:16 I delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word.
Psa 119:17 GIMEL. Be kind to your servant, so that I may live and keep your word.
Psa 119:18 Open my eyes, so that I may see marvelous things in your law.
Psa 119:19 I am a sojourning foreigner in the land; do not hide your commandments from me.
Psa 119:20 My desires are crushed by the longing to know your righteous decrees at all times.
Psa 119:21 You rebuke the proud, who are cursed, who wander from your commandments.
Psa 119:22 Spare me from disgrace and humiliation, for I have obeyed your covenant decrees.

Psa 119:23 Though rulers plot and slander me, your servant meditates on your statutes.
Psa 119:24 Your covenant decrees are my delight, and they are my counselors.
Psa 119:25 DALETH. My life clings to the dust! Give me life by your word.
Psa 119:26 I told you my ways, and you answered me; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:27 Make me understand the Ways of your instructions, so that I can meditate on your wondrous teachings.
Psa 119:28 I am overwhelmed with grief! Strengthen me by your word.
Psa 119:29 Turn from me the path of deceit; graciously teach me your law.
Psa 119:30 I have chosen the Way of faithfulness; I have always kept your righteous decrees before me.
Psa 119:31 I cling to your covenant decrees; Yehowah, do not let me be shamed.
Psa 119:32 I will run in the Path of your commandments, for you enlarge my heart to do so.
Psa 119:33 HE. Teach me, Yehowah, the Way of your statutes, and I will keep them to the end.
Psa 119:34 Give me understanding, and I will keep your law; I will observe it with all my heart.
Psa 119:35 Guide me in the Path of your commandments, for I delight to walk in it.
Psa 119:36 Direct my heart toward your covenant decrees and away from unrighteous gain.
Psa 119:37 Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things; revive me in your Ways.
Psa 119:38 Carry out for your servant your promise that you made to those who honor you.
Psa 119:39 Take away the insults I dread, for your righteous judgments are good.
Psa 119:40 See, I have longed for your instructions; revive me in your righteousness.
Psa 119:41 WAW. Yehowah, give me your unfailing love, your salvation, according to your promise;
Psa 119:42 then I will have a reply for the one who mocks me, for I trust in your word.
Psa 119:43 Do not take the Word of Truth from my mouth, for I have waited for your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:44 I will observe your law continually, forever and ever.
Psa 119:45 I will walk in liberty, for I seek your instructions.
Psa 119:46 I will speak of your commandments before kings and will not be ashamed.
Psa 119:47 I delight in your commandments, which I love dearly.

Psa 119:48 I will lift up my hands to your commandments, which I love; I will meditate on your statutes.
Psa 119:49 ZAYIN. Call to mind your promise to your servant, because you have given me hope.
Psa 119:50 This is my comfort in my affliction: That your promise has kept me alive.
Psa 119:51 The proud have scoffed at me, yet I have not turned away from your law.
Psa 119:52 I have thought about your righteous decrees from ancient times, Yehowah, and I comfort myself.
Psa 119:53 Hot anger has taken hold of me, because of the wicked who reject your law.
Psa 119:54 Your statutes have been my songs in the house where I temporarily live.
Psa 119:55 I think about your name during the night, Yehowah, and I keep your law.
Psa 119:56 This has been my practice, because I have observed your instructions.
Psa 119:57 HETH. Yehowah is my portion; I have determined to observe your words.
Psa 119:58 I earnestly request your grace with my whole heart; be merciful to me, as your word promised.
Psa 119:59 I examined my ways and turned my feet to your covenant decrees.
Psa 119:60 I hurry and do not delay to keep your commandments.
Psa 119:61 The cords of the wicked have ensnared me; I have not forgotten your law.
Psa 119:62 At midnight, I rise to give thanks to you because of your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:63 I am a companion of all who honor you, to all who observe your instructions.
Psa 119:64 The earth, Yehowah, is full of your covenant faithfulness; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:65 TETH. You have done good to your servant, Yehowah, by means of your word.
Psa 119:66 Teach me proper discernment and understanding, for I have believed in your commandments.
Psa 119:67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I observe your word.
Psa 119:68 You are good, and you are One who does good; teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:69 The arrogant have smeared me with lies, but I keep your instructions with my whole heart.

Psa 119:70 Their hearts are hardened, but I delight in your law.
Psa 119:71 It is good for me that I have suffered, so that I would learn your statutes.
Psa 119:72 Instruction from your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver-currency.
Psa 119:73 YOD. Your hands have made and fashioned me; give me understanding, so that I may learn your commandments.
Psa 119:74 Those who honor you will be glad when they see me, because I find hope in your word.
Psa 119:75 I know, Yehowah, that your decrees are just, and that in faithfulness you afflicted me.
Psa 119:76 Let your covenant faithfulness comfort me, as you promised your servant.
Psa 119:77 Show me compassion, so that I may live, for your law is my delight.
Psa 119:78 Let the proud be put to shame, for they have slandered me; but I will meditate on your instructions.
Psa 119:79 May those who honor you turn to me, those who know your covenant decrees.
Psa 119:80 May my heart be blameless with respect to your statutes, so that I may not be put to shame.
Psa 119:81 KAPH. I faint with longing that you might rescue me! I have hope in your word.
Psa 119:82 My eyes long to see your promise; when will you comfort me?
Psa 119:83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke; I do not forget your statutes.
Psa 119:84 How long must your servant endure this; when will you judge those who persecute me?
Psa 119:85 The proud have dug pits for me, defying your law.
Psa 119:86 All your commandments are reliable; those people persecute me wrongfully; help me.
Psa 119:87 They have almost made an end of me on earth, but I do not reject your instructions.
Psa 119:88 By your steadfast love, keep me alive, so that I may obey your commands.
Psa 119:89 LAMEDH. Yehowah, your word stands forever; your word is established firmly in Heaven.
Psa 119:90 Your faithfulness lasts for all generations; you have established the earth, and it remains.
Psa 119:91 All things continue to this day, just as you said in your righteous decrees, for all things are your servants.

Psa 119:92 If your law had not been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.
Psa 119:93 I will never forget your instructions, for through them you have kept me alive.
Psa 119:94 I am yours; save me, for I seek your instructions.
Psa 119:95 The wicked prepare to destroy me, but I will seek to understand your covenant decrees.
Psa 119:96 I have seen that everything has its limits, but your commandments are broad, beyond limits.
Psa 119:97 MEM. Oh how I love your law! It is my meditation all day long.
Psa 119:98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for your commandments are always with me.
Psa 119:99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, for I meditate on your covenant decrees.
Psa 119:100 I understand more than those older than I am; this is because I have kept your instructions.
Psa 119:101 I have kept my feet back from every evil path, so that I might observe your word.
Psa 119:102 I have not turned aside from your righteous decrees, for you have instructed me.
Psa 119:103 How sweet are your words to my taste, yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
Psa 119:104 Through your instructions I gain discernment; therefore, I hate every false way.
Psa 119:105 NUN. Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my Path.
Psa 119:106 I have sworn and have confirmed it, that I will observe your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:107 I am extremely afflicted; keep me alive, Yehowah, as you have promised in your word.
Psa 119:108 Yehowah, please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth and teach me your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:109 My life is always in my hand, yet I do not forget your law.
Psa 119:110 The wicked have set a snare for me, but I have not strayed from your instructions.
Psa 119:111 I claim your covenant decrees as my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.
Psa 119:112 My heart is set on obeying your statutes forever to the last end.
Psa 119:113 SAMEKH. I hate those who have a double mind, but I love your law.
Psa 119:114 You are my hiding place and my shield; I wait for your word.
Psa 119:115 Get away from me, you evildoers, so that I may observe the commandments of my Divine One.

Psa 119:116 Sustain me by your word, so that I may live and not be ashamed of my hope.
Psa 119:117 Support me, and I will be safe; I will always meditate on your statutes.
Psa 119:118 You reject all those who stray from your statutes, for those people are deceptive and unreliable.
Psa 119:119 You remove all the wicked of the earth like slag; therefore I love your commands.
Psa 119:120 My body trembles in fear of you, and I am afraid of your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:121 AYIN. I do what is just and right; do not abandon me to my oppressors.
Psa 119:122 Guarantee the welfare of your servant; do not let the proud oppress me.
Psa 119:123 My eyes grow tired as I wait for your salvation and for your righteous word.
Psa 119:124 Show your servant your covenant faithfulness and teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:125 I am your servant; give me understanding, so that I may know your covenant decrees.
Psa 119:126 It is time for Yehowah to act, for people have broken your law.
Psa 119:127 Truly, I love your commandments more than gold, more than fine gold.
Psa 119:128 Therefore, I carefully follow all your instructions, they keep me on the straight Path, and I hate every path of falsehood.
Psa 119:129 PE. Your rules are wonderful, that is why I obey them.
Psa 119:130 The unfolding of your words gives light; it gives understanding to the untrained.
Psa 119:131 I open my mouth and pant, for I long for your commandments.
Psa 119:132 Turn to me and have mercy on me, as you always do for those who love your name.
Psa 119:133 Direct my footsteps by your word; do not let any sin rule me.
Psa 119:134 Redeem me from human oppression, so that I may observe your instructions.
Psa 119:135 Let your face shine on your servant and teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:136 Streams of tears run down from my eyes, because people do not observe your law.
Psa 119:137 TSADHE. You are righteous, Yehowah, and your decrees are fair.
Psa 119:138 You have given your covenant decrees righteously and faithfully.
Psa 119:139 Anger has destroyed me, because my adversaries forget your words.
Psa 119:140 Your word has been thoroughly tested, and your servant loves it.

Psa 119:141 I am insignificant and despised, yet I do not forget your instructions.
Psa 119:143 Though distress and anguish have found me, your commandments are still my delight.
Psa 119:144 Your covenant decrees are righteous forever; give me understanding that I may live.
Psa 119:145 QOPH. I cried out with my whole heart, “Answer me, Yehowah, I will keep your statutes!
Psa 119:146 I call to you; save me, and I will observe your covenant decrees!”
Psa 119:147 I rise before dawn and cry for help. I hope in your words.
Psa 119:148 My eyes are open before the night watches change, so that I might meditate on your word.
Psa 119:149 Hear my voice in your covenant faithfulness; keep me alive, Yehowah, as you have promised in your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:150 Those who are persecuting me are coming closer to me, but they are far from your law.
Psa 119:151 You are near, Yehowah, and all your commandments are truth.
Psa 119:152 Long ago I learned from your covenant decrees that you had set them in place forever.
Psa 119:153 RESH. Look on my affliction and help me, for I do not forget your law.
Psa 119:154 Plead my cause and redeem me; keep me, as you have promised in your word.
Psa 119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not love your statutes.
Psa 119:156 Great are your mercies, Yehowah; keep me alive, as you always do.
Psa 119:157 My persecutors and my foes are many, yet I have not turned from your covenant decrees.
Psa 119:158 I view the treacherous with disgust, because they do not keep your word.
Psa 119:159 See how I love your instructions; keep me alive, Yehowah, as you have promised by your covenant faithfulness.
Psa 119:160 Your word is true from the beginning; every one of your righteous decrees lasts forever.
Psa 119:161 SHIN. Princes persecute me without cause; my heart trembles, afraid of disobeying your word.
Psa 119:162 I rejoice at your word, like one who finds great plunder.
Psa 119:163 I hate and despise falsehood, but I love your law.
Psa 119:164 Seven times a day I praise you because of your righteous decrees.
Psa 119:165 Great peace they have, those who love your law; nothing makes them stumble.

Psa 119:166 I wait for your salvation, Yehowah, and I obey your commandments.
Psa 119:167 I observe your commands, and I love them greatly.
Psa 119:168 I keep your instructions and your commands, for you are aware of everything I do.
Psa 119:169 TAV. Listen to my cry for help, Yehowah; give me understanding into your word.
Psa 119:170 May my plea come before you; help me, as you have promised in your word.
Psa 119:171 May my lips pour out praise, for you teach me your statutes.
Psa 119:172 Let my tongue sing about your word, for all your commandments are right.
Psa 119:173 May your hand help me, for I have chosen your instructions.
Psa 119:174 I long for your rescue, Yehowah, and your law is my delight.
Psa 119:175 May I live and praise you, and may your righteous decrees help me.
Psa 119:176 I have wandered off like a lost sheep; seek your servant, for I have not forgotten your commandments.

Psalms Chapter 120

Psa 120:1 (A song of ascents.) In my distress I called out to Yehowah, and he answered me.
Psa 120:2 Rescue my life, Yehowah, from those who lie with their lips and deceive with their tongues.
Psa 120:3 How will he punish you, and what more will he do to you, you who have a lying tongue?
Psa 120:4 He will punish you with the arrows of a warrior sharpened over burning coals of the broom tree.
Psa 120:5 Woe is me, because I temporarily live in Meshech; I lived previously among the tents of Kedar.
Psa 120:6 For too long I have lived with those who hate peace.
Psa 120:7 I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalms Chapter 121

Psa 121:1 (A song of ascents.) I will lift up my eyes to the mountains. From where will my help come?
Psa 121:2 My help comes from Yehowah, who made the heavens and the earth.
Psa 121:3 He will not allow your foot to slip; he who protects you will not slumber.
Psa 121:4 See, the guardian of Israel never slumbers nor sleeps.
Psa 121:5 Yehowah is your guardian; Yehowah is the shade at your right hand.
Psa 121:6 The sun will not harm you by day nor the moon by night.
Psa 121:7 Yehowah will protect you from all harm, and he will protect your life.
Psa 121:8 Yehowah will protect you in all you do now and forevermore.

Psalms Chapter 122

Psa 122:1 (A song of ascents, of David.) I was glad when they said to me, “Let us go to the temple of Yehowah.”
Psa 122:2 Jerusalem, our feet are standing within your gates!
Psa 122:3 Jerusalem, built as a city carefully planned!
Psa 122:4 The tribes go up to Jerusalem, the tribes of Yah, as a testimony for Israel, to give thanks to the name of Yehowah.
Psa 122:5 There, thrones of judgment were set, thrones of the House of David.
Psa 122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem! “May those who love you have success.
Psa 122:7 May there be peace within the walls that defend you, and may they have peace within your fortresses.”
Psa 122:8 For the sake of my brothers and my friends, I will bless, “May there be peace within you.”
Psa 122:9 For the sake of the temple of Yehowah our Divine One, I will seek good for you.

Psalms Chapter 123

Psa 123:1 (A song of ascents.) To you I lift up my eyes, you who are enthroned in Heaven.
Psa 123:2 See, as the eyes of servants look to their master's hand, as the eyes of a maid look to her mistress's hand, so our eyes look to Yehowah our Divine One, until he has mercy on us.
Psa 123:3 Have mercy on us, Yehowah, have mercy on us, for we are filled with humiliation.
Psa 123:4 We are more than full of the scoffing of the insolent and with the contempt of the proud.

Psalms Chapter 124

Psa 124:1 (A song of ascents; of David.) “If Yehowah had not been on our side,” let Israel say now,
Psa 124:2 “If it had not been Yehowah who was on our side, when men rose up against us,
Psa 124:3 then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their anger raged against us.
Psa 124:4 The water would have swept us away; the river would have overwhelmed us.
Psa 124:5 Then the raging waters would have drowned us.”
Psa 124:6 Blessed be Yehowah, who has not allowed us to be torn by their teeth.
Psa 124:7 We have escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers; the snare has been broken, and we have escaped.
Psa 124:8 Our help is in the name of Yehowah, who made the heavens and the earth.

Psalms Chapter 125

Psa 125:1 (A song of ascents.) Those who trust in Yehowah are like Mount Zion, unshakable, forever enduring.
Psa 125:2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yehowah surrounds his people now and forever.
Psa 125:3 The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the land of the righteous. Otherwise the righteous might do what is wrong.
Psa 125:4 Do good, Yehowah, to those who are good and to those who are upright in their hearts.
Psa 125:5 But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Yehowah will lead them away with the evildoers. May peace be on Israel.

Psalms Chapter 126

Psa 126:1 (A song of ascents.) When Yehowah restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.
Psa 126:2 Then our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with singing. Then they proclaimed among the ethnicities, “Yehowah has done great things for them!”
Psa 126:3 Yehowah did great things for us; how glad we were!
Psa 126:4 Restore our fortunes, Yehowah, like the streams in the Negev.
Psa 126:5 Those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy!
Psa 126:6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will return again with shouts of joy, bringing his sheaves with him!

Psalms Chapter 127

Psa 127:1 (A song of ascents, of Solomon.) Unless Yehowah builds the house, they work uselessly, those who build it. Unless Yehowah guards the city, the watchman stands guard uselessly.
Psa 127:2 It is useless for you to rise up early, to come home late, or to eat the bread of hard work, for he provides sleep for his beloved.
Psa 127:3 See, children are a heritage from Yehowah, and the fruit of the womb is a reward from him.
Psa 127:4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth.
Psa 127:5 How blessed is the man that has his quiver full of them. He will not be put to shame when he confronts his enemies in the gate.

Psalms Chapter 128

Psa 128:1 (A song of ascents.) Blessed is everyone who honors Yehowah, who walks in his Ways.
Psa 128:2 What your hands provide, you will enjoy; you will be blessed and prosper.
Psa 128:3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in your house; your children will be like olive plants as they sit around your table.
Psa 128:4 Yes, indeed, the man will be blessed who honors Yehowah.
Psa 128:5 May Yehowah bless you from Zion; may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
Psa 128:6 May you live to see your children's children. May peace be on Israel.

Psalms Chapter 129

Psa 129:1 (A song of ascents.) “Often since my youth they have attacked me,” let Israel say.
Psa 129:2 “Often since my youth they have attacked me, yet they have not defeated me.
Psa 129:3 The plowers plowed on my back; they made their furrows long.
Psa 129:4 Yehowah is righteous; he has cut the ropes of the wicked.”
Psa 129:5 May they all be put to shame and turned back, those who hate Zion.
Psa 129:6 May they be like the grass on the housetops that withers before it grows up,
Psa 129:7 that cannot fill the reaper’s hand or the chest of the one who binds sheaves.
Psa 129:8 May those who pass by not say, “May the blessing of Yehowah be on you; we bless you in the name of Yehowah.”

Psalms Chapter 130

Psa 130:1 (A song of ascents.) Out of the depths I cry to you, Yehowah.
Psa 130:2 Lord, hear my voice; let your ears be attentive to my pleas for mercy.
Psa 130:3 If you, Yah, would mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?
Psa 130:4 But there is forgiveness with you, that you may be revered.
Psa 130:5 I wait for Yehowah, my soul waits, and in his word I hope.
Psa 130:6 My soul has hoped in the Lord, from the morning watch until night.
Psa 130:7 Israel, hope in Yehowah. Yehowah is merciful, and with him is abundant redemption.
Psa 130:8 It is he who will redeem Israel from all his sins.

Psalms Chapter 131

Psa 131:1 (A song of ascents; of David.) Yehowah, my heart is not proud or my eyes haughty. I do not have great hopes for myself or concern myself with things that are beyond me.
Psa 131:2 Indeed, I have stilled and quieted my soul; like a weaned child with his mother, my soul within me is like a weaned child.
Psa 131:3 Israel, hope in Yehowah now and forever.

Psalms Chapter 132

Psa 132:1 (A song of ascents.) Yehowah, for David's sake call to mind all his afflictions.
Psa 132:2 Call to mind how he swore to Yehowah, how he vowed to the Strong One of Jacob.
Psa 132:3 He said, "I will not enter my house or get into my bed,
Psa 132:4 I will not give sleep to my eyes or rest to my eyelids,
Psa 132:5 until I find a place for Yehowah, a tabernacle for the Strong One of Jacob."
Psa 132:6 See, we heard about it in Ephrathah; we found it in the fields of Jaar.
Psa 132:7 We will go into the tabernacle of the Almighty; we will worship at his footstool.
Psa 132:8 Arise, Yehowah, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength!
Psa 132:9 May your priests be clothed with integrity; may your faithful ones shout for joy!
Psa 132:10 For your servant David's sake, do not turn away from your anointed king.
Psa 132:11 Yehowah swore a sure oath to David, a sure oath that he will not revoke: "I will place one of your descendants on your throne.
Psa 132:12 If your sons keep my covenant and the laws that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forevermore."
Psa 132:13 Certainly Yehowah has chosen Zion, he has desired her for his seat.
Psa 132:14 "This is my resting place forever. I will live here, for I desire her.
Psa 132:15 I will abundantly bless her with provisions. I will satisfy her poor with bread.
Psa 132:16 I will clothe her priests with salvation, her faithful ones will shout aloud for joy!
Psa 132:17 There I will make a horn to sprout for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.
Psa 132:18 I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on him his crown will shine."

Psalms Chapter 133

Psa 133:1 (A song of ascents, of David.) Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live in unity together!
Psa 133:2 It is like fine oil on the head pouring down on the beard, Aaron's beard, and then it pours down on the collar of his robes.
Psa 133:3 It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the mountains of Zion. For there Yehowah commanded the blessing, life forevermore.

Psalms Chapter 134

Psa 134:1 (A song of ascents.) Come, bless Yehowah, all you servants of Yehowah, you who serve during the night in the temple of Yehowah.
Psa 134:2 Lift up your hands in the Set-apart Place and bless Yehowah.
Psa 134:3 May Yehowah bless you from Zion, he who made the heavens and the earth.

Psalms Chapter 135

Psa 135:1 Praise Yah! Praise the name of Yehowah! Praise him, you servants of Yehowah,
Psa 135:2 you who stand in the temple of Yehowah, in the courtyards of the temple of our Divine One.
Psa 135:3 Praise Yah, for Yehowah is good; sing praises to his name, for it is pleasant!
Psa 135:4 For Yah has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel as his treasured possession.
Psa 135:5 I know that Yehowah is great, that our Lord is above all deities.
Psa 135:6 Whatever Yehowah desires, he does in Heaven, on earth, in the seas, and all the ocean depths.
Psa 135:7 He brings the clouds from far away, making lightning bolts accompany the rain and bringing the wind out of his storehouse.
Psa 135:8 He killed the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and animals.
Psa 135:9 He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.
Psa 135:10 He attacked many ethnicities and killed mighty kings,
Psa 135:11 Sihon king of the Amorites and Og king of Bashan and all the kingdoms of Canaan.
Psa 135:12 He gave us their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to Israel his people.
Psa 135:13 Your name, Yehowah, endures forever; your renown, Yehowah, endures throughout all generations.
Psa 135:14 For Yehowah defends his people and has compassion on his servants.
Psa 135:15 The ethnicities' idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.
Psa 135:16 Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak; they have eyes, but they do not see;
Psa 135:17 they have ears, but they do not hear, nor is there breath in their mouths.
Psa 135:18 Those who make them are like them, as is everyone who trusts in them.
Psa 135:19 Descendants of Israel, bless Yehowah; descendants of Aaron, bless Yehowah.
Psa 135:20 Descendants of Levi, bless Yehowah; you who honor Yehowah, bless Yehowah.
Psa 135:21 Blessed be Yehowah in Zion, he who lives in Jerusalem. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 136

Psa 136:1 Oh, give thanks to Yehowah; for he is good, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:2 Oh, give thanks to the Mighty One of deities, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:3 Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:4 Give thanks to him who alone does great wonders, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:5 to him who by wisdom made the heavens, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:7 to him who made great lights, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:8 Give thanks to him who gave the sun to rule by day, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:9 the moon, and the stars to rule by night, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever (Gen. 1:16; Jer. 31:35; Acts 27:20).
Psa 136:10 Give thanks to him who killed the firstborn of Egypt, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:11 and brought out Israel from among them, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:12 with a strong hand and a raised arm, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:13 Give thanks to him who divided the SEA, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:14 and made Israel to pass through the middle of it, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:15 but overthrew Pharaoh and his military force in the SEA, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:16 Give thanks to him who led his people through the wilderness, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:17 to him who killed great kings, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:18 Give thanks to him who killed famous kings, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,

Psa 136:21 Give thanks to him who gave their land as an inheritance, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:22 an inheritance to Israel his servant, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:23 to him who called us to mind and helped us in our humiliation, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
Psa 136:24 Give thanks to him who has given us victory over our enemies, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever,
Psa 136:25 who gives food to all living beings, for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

Psalms Chapter 137

Psa 137:1 By the rivers of Babylon we sat down and wept, when we thought about Zion.
Psa 137:2 On the poplars there we hung our harps.
Psa 137:3 There our captors required songs from us, and those who mocked us required us to be happy, requesting, “Sing us one of the songs of Zion.”
Psa 137:4 How could we sing a song about Yehowah in a foreign land?
Psa 137:5 If I ignore the memory of you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her skill.
Psa 137:6 Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth, if I think about you no more, if I do not prefer Jerusalem more than my greatest delights.
Psa 137:7 Call to mind, Yehowah, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell. They shouted, “Tear it down, tear it down to its foundations!”
Psa 137:8 Daughter of Babylon, soon to be destroyed, may the person be blessed, whoever pays you back for what you have done to us.
Psa 137:9 May the person be blessed, whoever takes and dashes your little ones against a rock.

Psalms Chapter 138

Psa 138:1 (A psalm of David.) I will give you thanks with my whole heart; in the presence of Divinity I will sing your praise!
Psa 138:2 I will bow down toward your set-apart temple and give thanks to your name for your covenant faithfulness and for your truth. You have magnified your name and your word above everything else.
Psa 138:3 On the day that I called you, you answered me; you encouraged and strengthened my soul.
Psa 138:4 All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yehowah, for they will hear the words from your mouth.
Psa 138:5 Indeed, they will sing of the deeds of Yehowah, for great is the glory of Yehowah.
Psa 138:6 For though Yehowah is high, yet he cares for the lowly, but the proud he knows from far off.
Psa 138:7 Though I walk in the middle of danger, you will preserve my life; you will reach out with your hand against the anger of my enemies, and your right hand will save me.
Psa 138:8 Yehowah is with me to the end; your covenant faithfulness, Yehowah, endures forever. Do not forsake the ones whom your hands have made.

Psalms Chapter 139

Psa 139:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) Yehowah, you have examined me, and you know me.
Psa 139:2 You know when I sit down, and when I get up; you understand my thoughts from far away.
Psa 139:3 You observe my path and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.
Psa 139:4 For before there is a word on my tongue, you know it completely, Yehowah.
Psa 139:5 Behind me and before me you surround me and place your hand upon me.
Psa 139:6 Such knowledge is too much for me; it is too high, and I cannot reach it.
Psa 139:7 Where can I go from your Ruach? Where can I flee from your presence?
Psa 139:8 If I ascend up to Heaven, you are there; if I make my bed in the place of the dead, behold, you are there.
Psa 139:9 If I fly away on the wings of dawn and go to live in the uttermost parts across the sea,
Psa 139:10 even there your hand will lead me, your right hand will hold on to me.
Psa 139:11 If I said, “Surely the darkness will cover me, and the light will become night around me,”
Psa 139:12 even the darkness would not be dark to you. The night would shine like the day, for the darkness and the light are both alike to you.
Psa 139:13 You formed my inner parts; you formed me in my mother’s womb.
Psa 139:14 I will praise you, for I am reverently and wonderfully made! Your actions are great. My soul knows this extremely well.
Psa 139:15 My bones were not hidden from you when I was made in private, when I was intricately made in the depths of the earth.
Psa 139:16 You saw me inside the womb; all the days assigned to me were recorded in your Book, even before the first one happened.
Psa 139:17 How precious are your thoughts to me, Almighty One! How vast is their sum!
Psa 139:18 If I tried to count them, they would be more in number than the sand. When I awake, I am still with you.
Psa 139:19 If only you would execute the wicked, Almighty One; get away from me, you violent men!
Psa 139:20 They rebel against you and act deceitfully; your enemies tell lies.

Psa 139:21 Do I not hate those, Yehowah, who hate you? Do I not despise those who rise up against you?
Psa 139:22 I hate them completely; they have become my enemies.
Psa 139:23 Examine me, Almighty One, and know my heart; test me and know my thoughts.
Psa 139:24 See if there is any wicked way in me and lead me in the everlasting Way.

Psalms Chapter 140

Psa 140:1 (For the chief musician. A psalm of David.) Yehowah, rescue me from the wicked; preserve me from violent men.
Psa 140:2 They plan evil in their hearts; they cause battles every day.
Psa 140:4 Keep me from the hands of the wicked, Yehowah; preserve me from violent men who plan to knock me over.
Psa 140:5 The proud have set a trap for me; they have spread a net; they have set a snare for me. Selah.
Psa 140:6 I said to Yehowah, "You are my Divine One; listen to my cries for mercy, Yehowah."
Psa 140:7 Yehowah, my Lord, you are powerfully able to save me; you shield my head in the day of battle.
Psa 140:8 Yehowah, do not grant the desires of the wicked; do not let their plots succeed, or they will exalt themselves. Selah.
Psa 140:9 Those who surround me raise their heads; let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
Psa 140:10 Let burning coals fall on them; throw them into the fire, into bottomless pits, never more to rise.
Psa 140:11 May men of evil tongues not be made secure on the earth; may evil hunt down the violent man to strike him dead.
Psa 140:12 I know that Yehowah will judge in favor of the afflicted, and that he will give justice to the needy.
Psa 140:13 Surely, the righteous people will give thanks to your name; the upright people will live in your presence.

Psalms Chapter 141

Psa 141:1 (A psalm of David.) Yehowah, I am crying out to you; come quickly to me. Listen to me when I call to you.
Psa 141:2 May my prayer be like incense before you; may my lifted hands be like the evening sacrifice.
Psa 141:3 Yehowah, place a guard over my mouth; guard the door of my lips.
Psa 141:4 Do not let my heart desire any evil thing or participate in sinful activities with men who behave wickedly. May I not eat any of their delicacies.
Psa 141:5 Let a righteous man hit me; it will be a kindness to me. Let him correct me; it will be like oil on my head; may my head not refuse to accept it. But my prayer is always against their wicked deeds.
Psa 141:6 Their leaders will be thrown down from the top of cliffs; they will hear that my own words are pleasant.
Psa 141:7 They will have to say, “As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of the place of the dead.”
Psa 141:8 Surely my eyes are on you, O Lord Yehowah; in you I take refuge; do not leave my soul defenseless.
Psa 141:9 Protect me from the snares that they have laid for me, from the traps of evildoers.
Psa 141:10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I escape.

Psalms Chapter 142

Psa 142:1 (A maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a prayer.) With my voice I cry out for help to Yehowah; with my voice I plead for the grace of Yehowah.
Psa 142:2 I pour out my lament before him; I tell him my troubles.
Psa 142:3 When my spirit is weak within me, you know my path. In the Way that I walk, they have hidden a trap for me.
Psa 142:4 I look to my right and see that there is no one who cares about me. There is no escape for me; no one cares about my life.
Psa 142:5 I called out to you, Yehowah; I said, “You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living.
Psa 142:6 Listen to my call, for I have been brought extremely low; rescue me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.
Psa 142:7 Bring my soul out of prison, so that I may give thanks to your name. The righteous will gather around me, because you have been good to me.”

Psalms Chapter 143

Psa 143:1 (A psalm of David.) Hear my prayer, Yehowah; listen to my pleas. Because of your faithfulness and righteousness, answer me!
Psa 143:2 Do not enter into judgment with your servant, for in your sight no one is righteous.
Psa 143:3 The enemy has pursued my soul; he has pushed me down to the ground; he has made me to live in darkness like those who have been dead for ages.
Psa 143:4 My spirit is overwhelmed within me; my heart despairs.
Psa 143:5 I call to mind the old days; I meditate on all your deeds; I reflect on your accomplishments.
Psa 143:6 I spread my hands out to you in prayer; my soul thirsts for you in a parched land. Selah.
Psa 143:7 Answer me quickly, Yehowah, because my spirit faints. Do not hide your face from me, or I will become like those who go down into the pit.
Psa 143:8 Let me hear your covenant faithfulness at dawn, for I trust in you. Show me the Way where I should walk, for I lift up my soul to you.
Psa 143:9 Rescue me from my enemies, Yehowah; I flee to you to hide.
Psa 143:10 Teach me to do your will, for you are my Divine One. May your good Ruach lead me in the land of uprightness.
Psa 143:11 Yehowah, for your name's sake, keep me alive; in your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.
Psa 143:12 In your covenant faithfulness cut off my enemies and destroy all the enemies of my life, for I am your servant.

Psalms Chapter 144

Psa 144:1 (A psalm of David.) Blessed be Yehowah, my Rock, who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle.
Psa 144:2 You are my covenant faithfulness and my fortress, my high tower and the One who rescues me, my shield and the One in whom I take refuge, the One who subdues ethnicities under me.
Psa 144:3 Yehowah, what is man that you take notice of him or the son of man that you think about him?
Psa 144:4 Man is like a breath; his days are like a passing shadow.
Psa 144:5 Cause the sky to sink and come down, Yehowah; touch the mountains and make them smoke.
Psa 144:6 Send flashes of lightning and scatter my enemies; shoot your arrows and drive them back in confusion.
Psa 144:7 Reach out your hand from above; rescue me and deliver me out of many waters, from the hand of foreigners.
Psa 144:9 I will sing a new song to you, Almighty One; on a lute of ten strings I will sing praises to you,
Psa 144:10 who gives salvation to kings, who rescued David your servant from an evil sword.
Psa 144:11 Rescue me and free me from the hand of foreigners. Their mouths speak lies, and their right hand is falsehood.
Psa 144:12 May our sons be like plants who grow to full size in their youth and our daughters like carved corner pillars, shapely like those of a palace.
Psa 144:13 May our storehouses be full with every kind of produce, and may our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
Psa 144:14 Then our oxen will have many young. No one will break through our walls; there will be no exile and no outcry in our streets.
Psa 144:15 Blessed is the people with such blessings; happy is the people whose Divine One is Yehowah.

Psalms Chapter 145

Psa 145:1 (A psalm of praise. Of David.) I will extol you, my Divine One, my King; I will bless your name forever and ever.
Psa 145:2 Every day will I bless you; I will praise your name forever and ever!
Psa 145:3 Great is Yehowah and greatly to be praised; his greatness is unsearchable!
Psa 145:4 One generation will praise your deeds to the next and will proclaim your mighty actions.
Psa 145:5 I will meditate on the majesty of your glory and on your marvelous deeds.
Psa 145:6 They will speak of the power of your awesome works, and I will declare your greatness.
Psa 145:7 They will declare your abounding goodness, and they will sing about your righteousness.
Psa 145:8 Yehowah is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in covenant faithfulness.
Psa 145:9 Yehowah is good to all; his tender mercies are over all his works.
Psa 145:10 All you have made will give thanks to you, Yehowah; your faithful ones will bless you.
Psa 145:11 Your faithful ones will speak of the glory of your kingdom, and they will tell of your power.
Psa 145:12 They will make known to mankind his mighty deeds and the glorious splendor of his kingdom.
Psa 145:13 Your kingdom is an eternal kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations. Yehowah is faithful in his words and gracious in all his works.
Psa 145:14 Yehowah supports all who are falling and raises up all those who are bent over.
Psa 145:15 The eyes of all wait for you; you give them their food at the right time.
Psa 145:16 You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
Psa 145:17 Yehowah is righteous in all his Ways and gracious in all he does.
Psa 145:18 Yehowah is near to all those who call to him, to all who call to him in truth.
Psa 145:19 He fulfills the desire of those who honor him; he hears their cry and saves them.
Psa 145:20 Yehowah watches over all those who love him, but he will destroy all the wicked.

Psa 145:21 My mouth will speak out the praise of Yehowah; let all mankind bless his set-apart name forever and ever!

Psalms Chapter 146

Psa 146:1 Praise Yah! Praise Yehowah, O my soul!
Psa 146:2 I give praise to Yehowah with all my life; I will sing praises to my Divine One as long as I exist!
Psa 146:3 Do not put your trust in princes or in mankind, in whom there is no salvation.
Psa 146:4 When a person's life's breath stops, he returns to the ground; on that day his plans end.
Psa 146:5 Blessed is he who has the Mighty One of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yehowah his Divine One.
Psa 146:6 Yehowah made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; he observes truth forever.
Psa 146:7 He executes justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry. Yehowah frees the prisoners;
Psa 146:8 Yehowah opens the eyes of the blind; Yehowah raises up those who are bowed down; Yehowah loves the righteous people.
Psa 146:9 Yehowah protects the sojourning foreigners in the land; he lifts up the fatherless and widow, but he opposes the wicked.
Psa 146:10 Yehowah will reign forever, your Divine One, Zion, for all generations. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 147

Psa 147:1 Praise Yah, for it is good to sing praises to our Divine One, it is pleasant, and praise is suitable!
Psa 147:2 Yehowah rebuilds Jerusalem, he gathers together the scattered people of Israel.
Psa 147:3 He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
Psa 147:4 He counts the stars, he gives names to all of them.
Psa 147:5 Great is our Lord and awesome in power, his understanding cannot be measured.
Psa 147:6 Yehowah lifts up the oppressed, he brings the wicked down to the ground.
Psa 147:7 Sing to Yehowah with thanksgiving, sing praises to our Divine One with a harp!
Psa 147:8 He covers the heavens with clouds and prepares rain for the earth, making the grass to grow on the mountains.
Psa 147:9 He gives food to the animals and to the young ravens when they cry.
Psa 147:10 He finds no delight in the strength of a horse, he takes no pleasure in the strong legs of a man.
Psa 147:11 Yehowah takes pleasure in those who honor him, who hope in his covenant faithfulness.
Psa 147:12 Praise Yehowah, Jerusalem, praise your Divine One, Zion!
Psa 147:13 For he strengthens the bars of your gates, he blesses your children among you.
Psa 147:14 He brings prosperity inside your borders, he satisfies you with the finest of wheat.
Psa 147:15 He sends out his commandment to earth, his command runs quite swiftly.
Psa 147:16 He makes the snow like wool, he scatters the frost like ashes.
Psa 147:17 He dispenses the hail like crumbs, who can withstand the cold he sends?
Psa 147:18 He sends out his command and melts them, he makes the wind to blow and the water to flow.
Psa 147:19 He proclaimed his word to Jacob, his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel.
Psa 147:20 He has not done so with any other ethnicity, and as for his decrees, they do not know them. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 148

Psa 148:1 Praise Yah! Praise Yehowah, you in the heavens; praise him, you in the heights!
Psa 148:2 Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his heavenly armed forces!
Psa 148:3 Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all you shining stars!
Psa 148:4 Praise him, highest Heaven and you waters that are above the sky!
Psa 148:5 Let them praise the name of Yehowah, for he gave the command, and they were created!
Psa 148:6 He has also established them forever and ever; he issued a decree that will never change.
Psa 148:7 Praise Yehowah from the earth, you sea creatures and all ocean depths,
Psa 148:8 fire and hail, snow and clouds, stormy wind fulfilling his word!
Psa 148:9 Praise him, mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars,
Psa 148:10 animals wild and tame, creatures that crawl and birds!
Psa 148:11 Praise Yehowah, kings of the earth and all ethnicities, princes and all who govern on the earth,
Psa 148:12 both young men and young women, elderly and children!
Psa 148:13 Let them all praise the name of Yehowah, for his name alone is exalted, and his glory extends over the earth and Heaven!
Psa 148:14 He has lifted up the horn of his people for praise from all his faithful ones, the Israelis, the people near to him. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 149

Psa 149:1 Praise Yah! Sing to Yehowah a new song; sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful ones.
Psa 149:2 Let Israel rejoice in the One who made them; let the people of Zion rejoice in their king!
Psa 149:3 Let them praise his name with dancing; let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp!
Psa 149:4 For Yehowah takes pleasure in his people; he glorifies the humble with salvation.
Psa 149:5 Let the reverent rejoice in victory; let them sing for joy on their beds!
Psa 149:6 May the praises of the Almighty be in their mouths and a two-edged sword in their hand,
Psa 149:7 to execute vengeance on the ethnicities and acts of punishment on the people!
Psa 149:8 They will bind their kings with chains and their nobles with iron shackles.
Psa 149:9 They will execute the judgment that is written. This will be an honor for all his faithful ones. Praise Yah!

Psalms Chapter 150

Psa 150:1 Praise Yah! Praise the Almighty in his Set-apart Place; praise him in the expanse of his might!
Psa 150:2 Praise him for his mighty acts; praise him for his surpassing greatness!
Psa 150:3 Praise him with the blast of the trumpet; praise him with lute and harp!
Psa 150:4 Praise him with tambourines and dancing; praise him with stringed instruments and wind instruments!
Psa 150:5 Praise him with loud cymbals; praise him with high sounding cymbals!
Psa 150:6 Let everything that has breath praise Yah! Praise Yah!

Book of Proverbs

Proverbs Chapter 1

Pro 1:1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, the king of Israel.
Pro 1:2 These proverbs are to teach wisdom and instruction, to teach words of insight,
Pro 1:3 that you may receive instruction in order to live by doing what is right, just, and fair.
Pro 1:4 These proverbs are also to give wisdom to the naive, and to give knowledge and discretion to young people.
Pro 1:5 Let wise people listen and increase their learning, and let discerning people get guidance,
Pro 1:6 to understand proverbs, sayings, and words of wise people and their riddles.
Pro 1:7 The fear of Yehowah is the beginning of knowledge, fools despise wisdom and instruction.
Pro 1:8 My son, hear the instruction of your father and do not lay aside the law of your mother;
Pro 1:9 they will be a graceful wreath for your head and pendants hanging from your neck.
Pro 1:10 My son, if sinners try to entice you into their sin, refuse to follow them.
Pro 1:11 If they say, “Come with us, let us lie in wait to commit murder, let us hide and attack innocent people for no reason.
Pro 1:12 Let us swallow them up alive, like the place of the dead takes away those who are healthy, and make them like those who fall into the pit.
Pro 1:13 We will find all kinds of valuable things; we will fill our houses with what we steal from others.
Pro 1:14 Throw in your lot with us; we will all have one purse together.”
Pro 1:15 My son, do not walk down that road with them; do not let your foot touch where they walk;
Pro 1:16 their feet run to evil, and they hurry to shed blood.
Pro 1:17 For it is useless to spread the net to trap a bird, while the bird is watching.
Pro 1:18 These men lie in wait to kill themselves, they set a trap for themselves.
Pro 1:19 So are the ways of everyone who gains riches by injustice; unjust gain takes away the lives of those who hold on to it.
Pro 1:20 Wisdom cries aloud in the street, she raises her voice in the open places;

Pro 1:22 “How long, you naive people, will you love being naive? How long, you mockers, will you delight in mockery, and how long, you fools, will you hate knowledge?
Pro 1:23 Pay attention to my correction; I will pour out my thoughts to you; I will make my words known to you.
Pro 1:24 I have called, and you have refused to listen; I reached out with my hand, but there was no one who paid attention.
Pro 1:25 But you have ignored all my instruction and paid no attention to my correction.
Pro 1:26 I will laugh at your calamity, I will mock you when the terror comes,
Pro 1:27 when your fearful dread comes like a storm, and disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.
Pro 1:28 Then they will call upon me, and I will not answer; they will desperately call for me, but they will not find me.
Pro 1:29 Because they hate knowledge and did not choose the fear of Yehowah,
Pro 1:30 they would not follow my instruction, and they despised all my correction.
Pro 1:31 They will eat the fruit of their ways, and with the fruit of their schemes, they will be filled.
Pro 1:32 For the naive are killed when they turn away, and the indifference of fools will destroy them.
Pro 1:33 But whoever listens to me will live in safety and will rest secure with no fear of disaster.”

Proverbs Chapter 2

Pro 2:1 My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you,
Pro 2:2 make your ears pay attention to wisdom and incline your heart to understanding.
Pro 2:3 If you cry out for understanding and raise your voice for wisdom,
Pro 2:4 if you seek it like you would seek silver and search for understanding as you would seek hidden treasures,
Pro 2:5 then you will understand the fear of Yehowah, and you will find the knowledge of the Almighty.
Pro 2:6 For Yehowah gives wisdom, from his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
Pro 2:7 He stores up sound wisdom for those who please him, he is a shield for those who walk in integrity,
Pro 2:8 he guards the Paths of justice, and he will preserve the Way of those who are faithful to him.
Pro 2:9 Then you will understand righteousness, justice, equity, and every good Path.
Pro 2:10 For wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
Pro 2:11 Discretion will watch over you, understanding will guard you.
Pro 2:12 They will rescue you from the way of evil, from those who speak perverse things,
Pro 2:13 who abandon the right Paths and walk in the ways of darkness.
Pro 2:14 They rejoice when they do evil and delight in the perversities of evil.
Pro 2:15 They follow crooked paths, and using deception, they hide their tracks.
Pro 2:16 Wisdom and discretion will save you from an adulterous woman, from an immoral woman and her flattering words.
Pro 2:17 She forsakes the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her Divine One.
Pro 2:18 For her house leads down to death, and her tracks will lead you to those in the grave.
Pro 2:19 All who go in to her will not return again, and they will not find the Paths of life.
Pro 2:20 So you will walk in the Way of good people and follow the Paths of the righteous.
Pro 2:21 For those doing right will make a home in the land, and those with integrity will remain in it.

Pro 2:22 But the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the faithless will be cut off from it.

Proverbs Chapter 3

Pro 3:1 My son, do not forget my law, keep my commandments in your heart,
Pro 3:2 for length of days, years of life, and peace they will add to you.
Pro 3:3 Do not let covenant faithfulness and truth ever leave you, tie them together about your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.
Pro 3:4 Then you will find grace and a good reputation in the sight of the Almighty and mankind.
Pro 3:5 Trust in Yehowah with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding;
Pro 3:6 in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your Paths straight.
Pro 3:7 Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear Yehowah and turn away from evil.
Pro 3:8 It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment for your body.
Pro 3:9 Honor Yehowah with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce,
Pro 3:10 and your storehouses will be filled up, and your vats will be bursting, full of new wine.
Pro 3:11 My son, do not despise the instruction of Yehowah and do not hate his rebuke,
Pro 3:12 for Yehowah disciplines those he loves, as a father deals with a son who pleases him.
Pro 3:13 The one who finds wisdom is blessed; he also gets understanding.
Pro 3:14 What you gain from wisdom is better than what silver will give in return, and its profit is better than gold.
Pro 3:15 Wisdom is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare to her.
Pro 3:17 Her Ways are ways of kindness, and all her Paths are peace.
Pro 3:18 She is a tree of life to those who take hold of it, those who hold on to it are happy.
Pro 3:19 By wisdom Yehowah founded the earth, by understanding he established the heavens.
Pro 3:20 By his knowledge the depths broke open, and the clouds dropped their dew.
Pro 3:21 My son, keep sound judgment and discernment, and do not lose sight of them.
Pro 3:22 They will be life to your soul and an adornment of grace to wear around your neck.
Pro 3:23 Then you will walk on your way in safety and your foot will not stumble;

Pro 3:24 when you lie down, you will not be afraid; when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
Pro 3:25 Do not be afraid of sudden terror or devastation caused by the wicked, when it comes,
Pro 3:26 for Yehowah will be on your side and will keep your foot from being caught in a trap.
Pro 3:27 Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is in your power to act.
Pro 3:28 Do not say to your neighbor, “Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give it,” when you have the money with you.
Pro 3:29 Do not make a plan to harm your neighbor, the one who lives close and trusts you.
Pro 3:30 Do not argue with a person without a reason, when he has done nothing to harm you.
Pro 3:31 Do not envy a violent person or choose any of his ways.
Pro 3:32 For the devious person is detestable to Yehowah, but he brings the upright person into his confidence.
Pro 3:33 The curse of Yehowah is on the house of the wicked person, but he blesses the home of righteous people.
Pro 3:34 He mocks mockers, but he gives his grace to humble people.
Pro 3:35 Wise people inherit honor, but fools will be lifted up in their shame.

Proverbs Chapter 4

Pro 4:1 Listen, sons, to a father's instruction, and pay attention, so you will know what understanding is.
Pro 4:2 I am giving you good instructions; do not forsake my law.
Pro 4:3 When I was a son of my father, the tender and only child of my mother,
Pro 4:4 he taught me, "Let your heart hold fast to my words; keep my commands and live.
Pro 4:5 Acquire wisdom and understanding; do not forget and do not reject the words of my mouth;
Pro 4:6 do not abandon wisdom, and she will watch over you; love her, and she will keep you safe.
Pro 4:7 Wisdom is the most important thing, so acquire wisdom and invest all your wealth into purchasing understanding.
Pro 4:8 Cherish wisdom, and she will exalt you; she will honor you when you embrace her.
Pro 4:9 She will put a wreath of honor on your head; she will give you a beautiful crown."
Pro 4:10 Listen, my son, and pay attention to my words, and you will have many years in your life.
Pro 4:11 I direct you in the Way of wisdom; I lead you down straight Paths.
Pro 4:12 When you walk, no one will stand in your way, and if you run, you will not stumble.
Pro 4:13 Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it, for it is your life.
Pro 4:14 Do not follow the path of the wicked and do not go along the way of those who do evil.
Pro 4:15 Avoid it, do not go on it; turn away from it and go another way.
Pro 4:16 For they cannot sleep, until they do evil, and they are robbed of sleep, until they cause someone to stumble.
Pro 4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
Pro 4:18 But the Path of righteous people is like the first light that grows brighter; it shines more and more, until the fullness of the day comes.
Pro 4:19 The way of the wicked is like darkness, they do not know what it is they stumble over.
Pro 4:20 My son, pay attention to my words; incline your ear to my sayings.
Pro 4:21 Do not let them turn away from your eyes; keep them in your heart.
Pro 4:22 For my words are life to those who find them and health to their whole body.
Pro 4:23 Keep your heart safe and guard it with all diligence, for from it flow the springs of life.

Pro 4:24 Put crooked speech away from you and put corrupt talk far from you.
Pro 4:25 Let your eyes look straight ahead and fix your gaze straight before you.
Pro 4:26 Make a level path for your foot; then all your ways will be secure.
Pro 4:27 Do not turn aside to the right or to the left; turn your foot away from evil.

Proverbs Chapter 5

Pro 5:1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom; incline your ears to my understanding,
Pro 5:2 so you may learn about discretion, and your lips may protect knowledge.
Pro 5:3 For the lips of an adulteress drip with honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil,
Pro 5:4 but in the end, she is as bitter as wormwood, cutting like a sharp two-edged sword.
Pro 5:5 Her feet go down to death; her steps go all the way to the place of the dead.
Pro 5:6 She gives no thought to the Path of life. Her footsteps wander; she does not know where she is going.
Pro 5:7 Now my sons, listen to me; do not turn away from listening to the words of my mouth.
Pro 5:8 Keep your path far away from her and do not come near the door of her house.
Pro 5:9 In that way, you will not give away your honor to others or years of your life to a cruel person;
Pro 5:10 foreigners will not feast on your wealth; what you have worked for will not go into the house of strangers.
Pro 5:11 At the end of your life, you will groan when your flesh and your body waste away.
Pro 5:12 You will say, “How I hated instruction, and my heart despised correction!
Pro 5:13 I would not obey my teachers or incline my ear to my instructors.
Pro 5:14 I was almost completely ruined in the midst of the congregation, among the gathering of the people.”
Pro 5:16 Should your springs overflow everywhere, and your streams of water flow in the public squares?
Pro 5:17 Let them be for yourself alone and not for foreigners with you.
Pro 5:18 May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth,
Pro 5:19 for she is a loving deer and a graceful doe. Let her breasts satisfy you at all times; may you be continually intoxicated by her love.
Pro 5:20 For why should you, my son, be captivated by an adulteress; why should you embrace the breasts of an immoral woman?

Pro 5:21 Yehowah sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes.
Pro 5:22 A wicked person will be seized by his own iniquities; the cords of his sin will hold him tight.
Pro 5:23 He will die, because he lacks instruction; he is led astray by his great foolishness.

Proverbs Chapter 6

Pro 6:1 My son, if you set aside your money as a guarantee for your neighbor's loan, if you gave your promise for a loan to someone you do not know,
Pro 6:2 then you have laid a trap for yourself by your promise, and you have been caught by the words of your mouth.
Pro 6:3 When you are caught by your words, my son, do this and save yourself, since you have fallen into the hand of your neighbor; go and humble yourself and make your case before your neighbor.
Pro 6:4 Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no slumber.
Pro 6:5 Save yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the hand of the fowler.
Pro 6:6 Look at the ant, you lazy person, consider her ways and be wise.
Pro 6:7 It has no commander, officer, or ruler,
Pro 6:8 yet it prepares its food in the summer, and during the harvest it stores up what it will eat.
Pro 6:9 How long will you sleep, you lazy person? When will you rise from your sleep?
Pro 6:10 "A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest,"
Pro 6:11 and your poverty will come like a robber and your needs like an armed man.
Pro 6:12 A worthless person, a wicked man, lives by the crookedness of his speech,
Pro 6:14 He plots evil with deceit in his heart; he always stirs up discord.
Pro 6:15 Therefore, his disaster will overtake him in an instant; in a moment he will be broken beyond healing.
Pro 6:16 There are six things that Yehowah hates, seven that are disgusting to him:
Pro 6:17 the eyes of a proud person, a tongue that lies, hands that shed the blood of innocent people,
Pro 6:18 a heart that invents wicked schemes, feet that quickly run to do evil,
Pro 6:19 a witness who breathes out lies, and one who sows discord among brothers.
Pro 6:20 My son, obey the command of your father and do not forsake the law of your mother.
Pro 6:21 Always bind them on your heart; tie them about your neck.
Pro 6:22 When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you; and when you wake up, they will teach you.

Pro 6:23 For the commands are a lamp, and the law is a light; the corrections that come by instruction are the Way of life.
Pro 6:24 It keeps you from the immoral woman, from the smooth words of an immoral woman.
Pro 6:26 Having sex with a prostitute can cost the price of a loaf of bread, but the wife of another may cost you your life's reputation.
Pro 6:27 Can a man carry a fire against his chest without burning his clothes?
Pro 6:28 Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?
Pro 6:29 So is the man who has sex with his neighbor's wife; the one who has sex with her will not go unpunished.
Pro 6:30 People do not despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy his need when he is hungry.
Pro 6:31 Yet if he is caught, he will pay back seven times what he stole; he must give up everything of value in his house.
Pro 6:32 The one who commits adultery has no sense; the one who does it destroys himself.
Pro 6:33 Wounds and shame are what he deserves, and his disgrace will not be wiped away.
Pro 6:34 For jealousy makes a man furious; he will show no mercy when he takes his revenge.
Pro 6:35 He will accept no compensation, and he cannot be bought off, though you offer him many gifts.

Proverbs Chapter 7

Pro 7:1 My son, keep my words and store up my commands within yourself.
Pro 7:2 Keep my commands and live and keep my law as the apple of your eye.
Pro 7:3 Tie them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart.
Pro 7:4 Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,” and call understanding your relative,
Pro 7:5 in order to keep yourself from the adulterous woman, from the immoral woman with her smooth words.
Pro 7:6 At the window of my house I was looking out through the lattice.
Pro 7:7 I looked at the naive people, and I noticed among the young men a youth who had no sense.
Pro 7:8 That young man passed down the street near her corner, and he went toward her house.
Pro 7:9 It was dusk, in the evening of the day, at the time of night and darkness.
Pro 7:10 There a woman met him, dressed like a prostitute, with a false heart.
Pro 7:11 She was loud and wayward; her feet did not stay at home.
Pro 7:12 Now in the streets, then in the market place, and at every corner she waited in ambush.
Pro 7:13 So she grabbed him and kissed him, with a strong face she said to him,
Pro 7:14 “I made my peace offering today, I paid my vows,
Pro 7:15 so I came out to meet you, to eagerly seek your face, and I have found you.
Pro 7:16 I have spread coverings on my bed, tapestries and colored linens from Egypt.
Pro 7:17 I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
Pro 7:18 Come, let us drink our fill of love until morning; let us take great pleasure in sex acts of love.
Pro 7:19 For my husband is not at his house; he has gone on a long journey.
Pro 7:20 He took a bag of silver-currency with him; he will return on the appointed day.”
Pro 7:21 With much talk she turned him; with her smooth lips she misled him.
Pro 7:22 He went after her suddenly like an ox going to slaughter, like a fool caught in a trap,
Pro 7:23 until an arrow pierces through his liver. He was like a bird rushing into a snare. He did not know that it would cost his life.
Pro 7:24 Now my sons, listen to me; pay attention to the words of my mouth.
Pro 7:25 May your heart not turn aside onto her paths; do not be led astray onto her paths.
Pro 7:26 She has caused many people to fall down pierced; her dead victims are many.

Pro 7:27 Her house is on the paths to the place of the dead; they go down to the dark bedrooms of death.

Proverbs Chapter 8

Pro 8:1 Does not Wisdom call out? Does not Understanding raise her voice?
Pro 8:2 On the hilltops beside the road, at the crossroads, Wisdom has taken her stand.
Pro 8:3 Before the gates at the entrance into the city, at the entrances into the city, she calls out.
Pro 8:4 “It is to you, people, that I call; my voice is for the sons of mankind.
Pro 8:5 You who are naive, learn wisdom; and you who are foolish, you must get an understanding mind.
Pro 8:6 Listen, because I will speak of noble things, and when my lips open, I will say upright things.
Pro 8:7 For my mouth speaks what is truth, and wickedness is disgusting to my lips.
Pro 8:8 All the words of my mouth are just; in them is nothing twisted or misleading.
Pro 8:9 All of them are straight for the person who understands; my words are upright for those who find knowledge.
Pro 8:10 Acquire my instruction rather than silver; acquire knowledge rather than pure gold.
Pro 8:11 For Wisdom is better than jewels; no treasure is equal to her.
Pro 8:12 I, Wisdom, live with Prudence, and I possess knowledge and discretion.
Pro 8:13 The fear of Yehowah is to hate evil. I hate pride and arrogance, the evil way, and perverted speech. I hate them.
Pro 8:14 I have good advice and sound wisdom; I am insight; strength belongs to me.
Pro 8:15 By me kings reign, also noblemen, and all who govern justly.
Pro 8:16 By me princes rule, nobles, and all who govern with justice.
Pro 8:17 I love those who love me, and those who diligently seek me, find me.
Pro 8:18 With me are riches and honor, lasting wealth and righteousness.
Pro 8:19 My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold; my produce is better than pure silver.
Pro 8:20 I walk in the Path of righteousness, in the midst of the Paths of justice.
Pro 8:21 As a result, I make those who love me inherit wealth; I fill up their treasuries.
Pro 8:22 Yehowah possessed me at the beginning of his Way, the first of his deeds then.
Pro 8:23 In ages long ago I was made, from the first, from the beginnings of the earth.

Pro 8:24 Before there were oceans, I was given birth, before there were springs abounding with water.
Pro 8:25 Before the mountains were settled and before the hills, I was born.
Pro 8:26 I was born before Yehowah had made the earth or the fields, or even the first dust on the globe.
Pro 8:27 I was there when he established the heavens, when he drew a circular horizon on the surface of the deep.
Pro 8:28 I was there when he established the clouds above, and when the springs in the deep became fixed.
Pro 8:29 I was there when he made his limit for the sea, so the waters should not spread beyond his command, and when there was set the limit for the foundations of the dry land.
Pro 8:30 I was beside him, as a skilled craftsman; I was his delight day after day, always rejoicing before him.
Pro 8:31 I was rejoicing in his whole world, and my delight was in the sons of mankind.
Pro 8:32 Now my sons, listen to me, for those who keep my Ways will be blessed.
Pro 8:33 Listen to my instruction and be wise; do not neglect it.
Pro 8:34 The one who listens to me will be blessed. He will be watching every day at my doors, waiting beside the posts of my doors.
Pro 8:35 For whoever finds me, finds life, and he will find the grace of Yehowah.
Pro 8:36 But he who sins harms his own life; all who hate me love death.”

Proverbs Chapter 9

Pro 9:1 Wisdom has built her own house; she has carved seven pillars out of rocks.
Pro 9:2 She has slaughtered her animals; she has mixed her wine; and she has set her table.
Pro 9:3 She has sent out her maids; she calls out from the highest points of the city,
Pro 9:4 “Who is naive? Let him turn aside here!” To the one lacking good sense she speaks,
Pro 9:5 “Come, eat my food and drink the wine I have mixed.
Pro 9:6 Leave your naive actions and live; walk in the Path of understanding.
Pro 9:7 Whoever disciplines a mocker receives abuse, and whoever rebukes a wicked person receives insults.
Pro 9:8 Do not reprove a mocker, or he will hate you; reprove a wise man, and he will love you (Lev. 19:17; Luke 17:3).
Pro 9:9 Give to a wise person, and he will become even wiser; teach a righteous person, and he will add to his learning.
Pro 9:10 The fear of Yehowah is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Set-apart One is understanding.
Pro 9:11 For through me your days will be multiplied, and years of life will be added to you.
Pro 9:12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, and if you mock, you will carry it by yourself.”
Pro 9:13 The woman of foolishness is ignorant; she is untaught and knows nothing.
Pro 9:14 She sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the highest places of the town.
Pro 9:15 She is calling out to those who pass by in the streets, to people walking straight on their way.
Pro 9:16 “Let anyone who is naive turn aside here,” she says to those who have no sense.
Pro 9:17 “Stolen waters are sweet, and bread of secrecy is delicious.”
Pro 9:18 But he does not know that the dead are there, that her invited guests are in the depths of the place of the dead.

Proverbs Chapter 10

Pro 10:1 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son makes his father rejoice, but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.
Pro 10:2 Treasures accumulated by wickedness have no value, but doing what is right keeps you from death.
Pro 10:3 Yehowah does not let the soul of the righteous person go hungry, but he frustrates the cravings of the wicked.
Pro 10:4 A lazy hand causes a person to be poor, but the hand of the diligent person gains riches.
Pro 10:5 A wise son gathers a crop in the summer, but it is disgraceful for him to sleep during harvest.
Pro 10:6 Gifts from Yehowah are upon the head of the righteous person, but the mouth of the wicked covers up violence.
Pro 10:7 The righteous person makes those who remember him happy, but the name of the wicked will rot away.
Pro 10:8 Those who are sensible accept commands, but a talkative fool will come to ruin.
Pro 10:9 He who walks in integrity walks in safety, but the one who makes his ways crooked, he will be found out.
Pro 10:10 He who winks the eye causes grief, but a talkative fool will be thrown down.
Pro 10:11 The mouth of the righteous person is a water spring of life, but the mouth of the wicked covers up violence.
Pro 10:12 Hatred stirs up conflicts, but love covers over all offenses.
Pro 10:13 Wisdom is found on the lips of a discerning person, but a rod is for the back of the one who has no sense.
Pro 10:14 Wise men store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool brings destruction near.
Pro 10:16 The wage of the righteous person leads to life; the profit of the wicked leads them to sin.
Pro 10:17 There is a Path to life for the one who follows discipline, but the one who rejects correction is led astray.
Pro 10:18 Whoever conceals hatred has lying lips, and whoever spreads slander is a fool.
Pro 10:19 When there are many words, transgression is not lacking, but he who is careful in what he says is wise.

Pro 10:20 The tongue of the righteous person is pure silver; there is little value in the heart of the wicked.
Pro 10:21 The lips of the righteous person nourish many, but fools die because of their lack of sense.
Pro 10:22 The good gifts of Yehowah bring wealth, and he adds no pain to it.
Pro 10:23 Wickedness is a game a fool plays, but wisdom is a pleasure to a man of understanding.
Pro 10:24 The fear of the wicked person will overtake him, but the desire of righteous people will be granted.
Pro 10:25 The wicked are like the storm that passes by, and they are no more, but the righteous person is a foundation that lasts forever.
Pro 10:26 Like vinegar on the teeth and smoke in the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him.
Pro 10:27 The fear of Yehowah prolongs life, but the years of the wicked will be short.
Pro 10:28 The hope of righteous people is their joy, but the expectation of wicked people will disappear.
Pro 10:29 the Way of Yehowah protects those who have integrity, but it is destruction for the wicked.
Pro 10:30 The righteous person will never be overthrown, but the wicked will not remain in the land.
Pro 10:31 Out of the mouth of the righteous person comes the fruit of wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut out.
Pro 10:32 The lips of the righteous person know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked, they know what is perverse.

Proverbs Chapter 11

Pro 11:1 Yehowah hates scales that are not accurate, but he delights in a precise weight (1 weight = 11.5 grams; Lev. 27:25; Deut. 25:15; Lev. 19:36; Prov. 20:23).
Pro 11:2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom.
Pro 11:3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crooked ways of the treacherous destroy them.
Pro 11:4 Wealth is worthless on the day of wrath, but doing right keeps you from death.
Pro 11:5 The right conduct of a blameless person makes his Way straight, but the wicked will fall because of their own wickedness.
Pro 11:6 The right conduct of those who please Yehowah keeps them safe, but the treacherous are trapped by their cravings.
Pro 11:7 When a wicked man dies, his hope perishes, and the hope that was in his strength comes to nothing.
Pro 11:8 The righteous person is kept away from trouble, and it comes upon the wicked instead.
Pro 11:9 With his mouth the irreverent person destroys his neighbor, but through knowledge righteous people are kept safe.
Pro 11:10 When righteous people prosper, a city rejoices; when the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.
Pro 11:11 Through the good gifts of those who please Yehowah, the city becomes great; by the mouth of the wicked, the city is torn down.
Pro 11:12 The man who has contempt for his friend has no sense, but a man of understanding keeps quiet.
Pro 11:13 Whoever goes around slandering reveals secrets, but a faithful person keeps a matter covered.
Pro 11:14 Where there is no wise direction, a nation falls, but victory comes by consulting many advisors.
Pro 11:15 Whoever guarantees a loan for a profane person will surely suffer harm, but the one who hates giving a pledge in that kind of promise is safe.
Pro 11:16 A gracious woman gets honor, but ruthless people grasp for wealth.
Pro 11:17 A kind person benefits himself, but one who is cruel hurts himself.
Pro 11:18 The wicked person lies to get his wages, but one who sows what is right reaps the wages of truth.
Pro 11:19 An honest person who does what is right will live, but the one who pursues evil will die.
Pro 11:20 Yehowah hates those whose hearts are perverse, but he delights in those whose Ways are blameless.

Pro 11:21 Be sure of this, the wicked person will not go unpunished, but the descendants of righteous people will be kept safe.
Pro 11:22 Like a gold ring in a pig's nose is a beautiful woman without discretion.
Pro 11:23 The desires of righteous people result in good, but wicked people can only hope for wrath.
Pro 11:24 There is one who sows seed, he will accumulate even more; another does not sow, he comes to poverty.
Pro 11:25 The generous person will prosper, and the one who gives water to others will have water for himself.
Pro 11:26 People curse the man who refuses to sell grain, but good gifts crown the head of him who sells it.
Pro 11:27 The one who diligently seeks good is also seeking grace, but the one who searches for evil will find it.
Pro 11:28 Those who trust in their riches will fall, but like the leaf, righteous people will flourish.
Pro 11:29 The one who brings trouble on his own household will inherit the wind, and the fool will become a servant to the wise of heart.
Pro 11:30 The righteous person will be like a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise.
Pro 11:31 Behold! The righteous person receives what he deserves on earth; how much more the wicked and the sinner!

Proverbs Chapter 12

Pro 15:26 Yehowah hates the thoughts of wicked people, but the words of kindness are pure.
Pro 15:27 The robber brings trouble to his family, but the one who hates bribes will live.
Pro 15:28 The heart of the righteous person ponders before it answers, but the mouth of wicked people pours out all its evil.
Pro 15:29 Yehowah is far away from wicked people, but he hears the prayer of righteous people.
Pro 15:30 The light of the eyes brings joy to the heart, and good news is health to the body.
Pro 15:31 If you pay attention when someone corrects how you live, you will remain among wise people.
Pro 15:32 The one who rejects discipline despises himself, but he who listens to correction gains understanding.
Pro 15:33 The fear of Yehowah teaches wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

Proverbs Chapter 16

Pro 16:1 The plans of the heart belong to a person, but from Yehowah comes the answer from his tongue.
Pro 16:2 All of a person's ways are pure in his own eyes, but Yehowah weighs the spirits.
Pro 16:3 Commit your works to Yehowah, and your plans will succeed.
Pro 16:4 Yehowah has made everything for its purpose, even the wicked for the day of trouble.
Pro 16:5 Yehowah hates everyone who has an arrogant heart, but be sure of this, they will not go unpunished.
Pro 16:6 By covenant faithfulness and truth iniquity is atoned for, and by the fear of Yehowah people turn away from evil.
Pro 16:7 When a person's Ways are pleasing to Yehowah, he makes even that person's enemies to be at peace with him.
Pro 16:8 Better is a little with what is right, than a large income with injustice.
Pro 16:9 In his heart a person plans out his way, but Yehowah directs his steps.
Pro 16:10 An oracle is on the lips of a king, in judgment his mouth does not speak deceitfully.
Pro 16:11 Honest scales come from Yehowah; all the weights in the bag are his work (Deut. 25:15).
Pro 16:12 When kings do wicked things, that is something to be despised, for a throne is established by doing what is right.
Pro 16:13 A king delights in lips that say what is right, and he loves the one who speaks straight.
Pro 16:14 A king's wrath is a messenger of death, but a wise man will try to calm his anger.
Pro 16:15 In the light of a king's face is life, and his grace is like a cloud that brings a spring rain.
Pro 16:16 How much better it is to get wisdom than gold. To get understanding should be chosen more than silver-currency.
Pro 16:17 The highway of upright people turns away from evil; the one who protects his life guards his Way.
Pro 16:18 Pride comes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a downfall.
Pro 16:19 It is better to be humble among poor people than to divide the spoil with proud people.
Pro 16:20 Whoever contemplates what they are taught will find what is good, and those who trust in Yehowah will be blessed.
Pro 16:21 The one who is wise in heart is called discerning, and sweetness of speech improves the ability to teach.

Pro 16:22 Understanding is a fountain of life to the one who has it, but the instruction of fools is their foolishness.
Pro 16:23 The heart of a wise person gives insight to his mouth and adds persuasiveness to his lips.
Pro 16:24 Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.
Pro 16:25 There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.
Pro 16:26 The laborer's appetite works for him; his hunger urges him on.
Pro 16:27 A worthless person digs up mischief, and his speech is like a scorching fire.
Pro 16:28 A perverse person stirs up conflict, and a gossip separates close friends.
Pro 16:29 A man of violence lies to his neighbor and leads him down a path that is not good.
Pro 16:30 The one who winks the eye is plotting perverse things; those who purse the lips will bring evil to pass.
Pro 16:31 Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained by living the right Way.
Pro 16:32 It is better to be slow to anger than to be a warrior, and one who rules his spirit is stronger than one who conquers a city.
Pro 16:33 The lot is thrown into the lap, but the decision is from Yehowah (Isa. 34:17; Acts 1:26; Prov. 18:18).

Proverbs Chapter 17

Pro 17:1 It is better to have quiet with a dry morsel of bread than a house full of feasting with strife.
Pro 17:2 A wise servant will rule over a son who acts shamefully and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers.
Pro 17:3 The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold, but Yehowah refines hearts.
Pro 17:4 The evildoer pays attention to wicked lips; a liar gives ear to a destructive tongue.
Pro 17:5 Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker, and the one who rejoices at misfortune will not go unpunished.
Pro 17:6 Grandchildren are the crown of the aged, and parents bring honor to their children.
Pro 17:7 Eloquent speech is not suitable for a fool; much less are lying lips suitable for royalty.
Pro 17:8 A bribe is like a magic stone to the one who gives it; wherever he turns, he succeeds.
Pro 17:9 Whoever overlooks an offense seeks love, but the one who repeats a matter alienates close friends.
Pro 17:10 A rebuke goes deeper into a person who has understanding than a hundred blows go into a fool.
Pro 17:11 An evil person only seeks rebellion, so a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
Pro 17:12 It is better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than to meet a fool in his foolishness.
Pro 17:13 When someone returns evil for good, evil will never leave his house.
Pro 17:14 The beginning of conflict is like one who releases water everywhere, so walk away from the dispute before it has broken out.
Pro 17:15 The person who acquits the wicked person, and the person who condemns the righteous person, both are an abomination to Yehowah.
Pro 17:16 Why should a fool pay money to learn about wisdom, when he has no ability to learn it?
Pro 17:17 A friend is loving at all times, and a brother is born for times of trouble.
Pro 17:18 A person having no sense makes binding promises and becomes responsible for his neighbor’s debts.
Pro 17:19 Whoever loves conflict loves sin; the one who makes the threshold of his door too high causes bones to be broken.
Pro 17:20 A person who has a crooked heart finds nothing that is good; the one who has a perverse tongue falls into calamity.

Pro 17:21 Whoever is the parent of a fool brings grief to himself; and the father of a fool has no joy.
Pro 17:22 A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit dries up the bones.
Pro 17:23 A wicked man accepts a secret bribe to pervert the Ways of justice.
Pro 17:24 The one who has understanding sets his face toward wisdom, but the eyes of a fool are set on the ends of the earth.
Pro 17:25 A foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to the woman who bore him.
Pro 17:26 Also, it is never good to punish the righteous person; neither is it good to flog noble men who have integrity.
Pro 17:27 One who has knowledge uses few words, and one with understanding is even-tempered.
Pro 17:28 Even a fool is thought to be wise if he keeps silent; when he keeps his mouth shut, he is considered to be intelligent.

Proverbs Chapter 18

Pro 18:1 One who isolates himself seeks his own desire, and he quarrels with all sound judgment.
Pro 18:2 A fool finds no pleasure in understanding, but only in revealing what is in his own heart.
Pro 18:3 When a wicked person comes, contempt comes with him, along with shame and reproach.
Pro 18:4 The words of a man's mouth are deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream.
Pro 18:5 It is not good to be partial to the wicked person, nor to deny justice to the righteous person.
Pro 18:6 A fool's lips bring him conflict, and his mouth invites a beating.
Pro 18:7 A fool's mouth is his ruin, and he ensnares himself with his lips.
Pro 18:8 The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels, and they go down into the inner parts of the body.
Pro 18:9 Also, one who is slack in his work is a brother to the one who destroys the most.
Pro 18:10 The name of Yehowah is a strong tower; the righteous person runs into it and is safe.
Pro 18:11 The wealth of the rich is his fortified city, and in his imagination it is like a high wall.
Pro 18:12 Before his downfall a person's heart is proud, but humility comes before honor.
Pro 18:13 One who answers before listening, it is his folly and shame.
Pro 18:14 A person's spirit will survive sickness, but a broken spirit who can bear it?
Pro 18:15 The heart of the intelligent acquires knowledge, and the hearing of the wise seeks it out.
Pro 18:16 A man's gift opens the way and brings him before an important person.
Pro 18:17 The first to plead his case seems right, until his opponent comes and questions him.
Pro 18:18 Casting the lot settles disputes and separates strong opponents (Isa. 34:17; Acts 1:26; Prov. 16:33).
Pro 18:19 An offended brother is harder to be won than a strong city, and quarreling is like the bars of a fortress.
Pro 18:20 From the fruit of his mouth one's stomach is filled; with the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.

Pro 18:21 Death and life are controlled by the tongue, and those who love the tongue will eat its fruit.
Pro 18:22 He who finds a wife finds a good thing and receives grace from Yehowah.
Pro 18:23 A poor person pleads for mercy, but a rich person answers harshly.
Pro 18:24 The one who claims many friends is brought to ruin by them, but there is a Friend who comes closer than a brother.

Proverbs Chapter 19

Pro 19:1 Better is a poor person who walks in his integrity than one who is perverse in speech and is a fool.
Pro 19:2 Also, it is not good to have desire without knowledge, and the one who runs too fast misses the Path.
Pro 19:3 A person's folly ruins his life, and his heart rages against Yehowah.
Pro 19:4 Wealth adds many friends, but a poor person is separated from his friends.
Pro 19:5 A false witness will not go unpunished, and he who breathes out lies will not escape.
Pro 19:6 Many will ask for a favor from a generous person, and everyone is a friend of the one who gives gifts.
Pro 19:7 All the brothers of a poor man hate him; how much more do his friends who go far away from him! He calls out to them, but they are gone.
Pro 19:8 He who gets wisdom loves his own life; he who keeps understanding will find what is good.
Pro 19:9 A false witness will not go unpunished, but the one who breathes out lies will perish.
Pro 19:10 It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury, much less for a slave to rule over princes.
Pro 19:11 Discretion makes a person slow to anger, and it is his glory to overlook an offense.
Pro 19:12 The wrath of the king is like the roaring of a young lion, but his grace is like dew on the grass.
Pro 19:13 A foolish son is ruin to his father, and a quarreling wife is a constant dripping of water.
Pro 19:14 A house and wealth are inherited from parents, but a prudent wife is from Yehowah.
Pro 19:15 Laziness throws a person into a deep sleep, but the one not willing to work will go hungry.
Pro 19:16 The one who obeys the command guards his life, but the person who does not think about his ways will die.
Pro 19:17 Whoever is kind to the poor lends to Yehowah, and he will repay him for what he has done.
Pro 19:18 Discipline your son while there is hope and do not set your desire on putting him to death.
Pro 19:19 A hot-tempered person must pay the penalty; if you rescue him, you will have to do it a second time.

Pro 19:20 Listen to advice and accept instruction, so you may become wise by the end of your life.
Pro 19:21 Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the purpose of Yehowah that will stand.
Pro 19:22 Loyalty is what a person desires, and a poor person is better than a liar.
Pro 19:23 Honor for Yehowah leads people to life; anyone who has it will be satisfied and not afflicted by harm.
Pro 19:24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he will not even bring it back up to his mouth.
Pro 19:25 Strike a mocker, and the naive person will become prudent; discipline one who is discerning, and he will gain knowledge.
Pro 19:26 The one who robs his father and chases his mother away is a son who brings shame and reproach.
Pro 19:27 If you cease to hear instruction, my son, you will stray from the words of knowledge.
Pro 19:28 A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity.
Pro 19:29 Condemnation is ready for mockers and flogging for the backs of fools.

Proverbs Chapter 20

Pro 20:1 Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler; whoever is led astray by drink (false doctrine) is not wise.
Pro 20:2 The fear of a king is like the fear of a young lion that is roaring; the one who makes him angry forfeits his life.
Pro 20:3 It is an honor for anyone to avoid conflict, but every fool jumps into an argument.
Pro 20:4 The lazy person does not plow in autumn; he seeks a crop at harvest time but will have nothing.
Pro 20:5 The purpose in a human heart is like deep water, but someone with understanding will draw it out.
Pro 20:6 Many a person proclaims he is loyal, but who can find one who is faithful?
Pro 20:7 The righteous person walks in his integrity, and his sons who follow after him will be blessed.
Pro 20:8 A king who sits on the throne performing the duties of a judge is winnowing with his eyes all the evil that is before him.
Pro 20:9 Who can say, “I have kept my heart (mind) clean; I am free from my sin?”
Pro 20:10 Differing weights and unequal measures, Yehowah hates them both.
Pro 20:11 Even a youth is known by his actions, by whether his conduct is pure and upright.
Pro 20:12 Ears that hear and eyes that see, Yehowah made them both.
Pro 20:13 Do not love sleep, or you will come to poverty; open your eyes, and you will have plenty to eat.
Pro 20:14 “Bad! Bad!” says the buyer, but when he goes away he boasts.
Pro 20:15 There is gold and an abundance of costly stones, but lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
Pro 20:16 Take a garment of one who has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an immoral woman.
Pro 20:17 Bread gained by deceit tastes sweet, but afterward his mouth will be full of gravel.
Pro 20:18 Plans are established by advice, and only with wise guidance should you wage war.
Pro 20:19 A gossip reveals secrets, and so you should not associate with people who talk too much.
Pro 20:20 If a person curses his father or his mother, his lamp will be snuffed out in the middle of darkness.

Pro 20:22 Do not say, “I will pay you back for this wrong!” Wait for Yehowah, and he will rescue you.
Pro 20:24 A person’s steps are directed by Yehowah; how then can he understand his Way?
Pro 20:25 It is a snare for a person to say rashly, “This thing is set apart,” and begin to think about what it means only after making his vow.
Pro 20:26 A wise king winnows the wicked, and he turns a threshing wheel over them.
Pro 20:27 The spirit of a person is the lamp of Yehowah, searching all his inmost parts.
Pro 20:28 Covenant faithfulness and truth preserve the king; his throne is made secure by love.
Pro 20:29 The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendor of old people is their gray hair.
Pro 20:30 Blows that make a wound cleanse away evil, and beatings make the innermost parts clean.

Proverbs Chapter 21

Pro 21:1 The king’s heart is a stream of water in the hand of Yehowah; he turns it wherever he pleases.
Pro 21:2 Every person’s way is right in his own eyes, but it is Yehowah who weighs the hearts.
Pro 21:3 To do what is right and just is more acceptable to Yehowah than sacrifice.
Pro 21:4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, are sin.
Pro 21:5 The plans of the diligent lead only to prosperity, but everyone who acts too quickly comes only to poverty.
Pro 21:6 Acquiring riches by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a snare that kills.
Pro 21:7 The violence of the wicked will drag them away, for they refuse to do what is just.
Pro 21:8 The way of a guilty person is crooked, but the one who is pure does what is right.
Pro 21:9 It is better to live on a corner of the roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.
Pro 21:10 The appetite of the wicked craves evil; his neighbor sees no kindness in his eyes.
Pro 21:11 When the mocker is punished, the naive become wise, and when the wise person is instructed, he lays hold of knowledge.
Pro 21:12 The righteous person watches the house of the wicked person; he brings wicked people to disaster.
Pro 21:13 The one who shuts his ears to the cry of the poor, he also will cry out, but he will not be answered.
Pro 21:14 A gift in secret appeases anger, and a concealed gift appeases strong wrath.
Pro 21:15 When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous person, but it brings terror to evildoers.
Pro 21:16 The one who wanders from the Way of understanding, he will rest in the assembly of the dead.
Pro 21:17 Whoever loves pleasure will become poor; the one who loves wine and oil will not be rich.
Pro 21:18 A wicked person is ransom for the righteous person, and the treacherous person is ransom for upright people.
Pro 21:19 It is better to live in the desert than with a quarreling and angry wife.
Pro 21:20 Precious treasure and oil are in the home of the wise, but a foolish man wastes them.

Pro 21:22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and he brings down the stronghold in which they trusted.
Pro 21:23 Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps himself out of trouble.
Pro 21:24 The proud and haughty person, “Mocker” is his name, acts with arrogant passion.
Pro 21:25 The desire of the lazy kills him, for his hands refuse to work.
Pro 21:26 All day long he craves and craves more, but the righteous person gives and does not hold back.
Pro 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable; it is even more detestable when he brings it with evil motives.
Pro 21:28 A false witness will perish, but the one who listens will speak for all time.
Pro 21:29 A wicked man makes his face hard, but an upright person is certain about his Ways.
Pro 21:30 There is no wisdom, there is no understanding, and there is no advice that can stand against Yehowah.
Pro 21:31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to Yehowah.

Proverbs Chapter 22

Pro 22:1 A good name is to be chosen over great riches, and grace is better than silver and gold.
Pro 22:2 Rich and poor people have this in common, Yehowah is the maker of all of them.
Pro 22:3 A prudent man sees trouble and hides himself, but the naive go on and suffer because of it.
Pro 22:4 The reward for humility and fear of Yehowah is riches, honor, and life.
Pro 22:5 Thorns and snares lie in the path of the perverse; whoever guards his life will keep far from them.
Pro 22:6 Teach a child the Way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction.
Pro 22:7 Rich people rule over poor people, and one who borrows is a servant to the one who lends.
Pro 22:8 He who sows injustice will reap trouble, and the rod of his fury will fade away.
Pro 22:9 The one who has a generous eye will be blessed, for he shares his bread with the poor.
Pro 22:10 Drive away the mocker, and out goes strife; disputes and insults will cease.
Pro 22:11 The one who loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious, he will have the king for his friend.
Pro 22:12 The eyes of Yehowah keep watch over knowledge, but he overthrows the words of the treacherous.
Pro 22:13 The lazy person cries, “There is a lion in the street! I will be killed in the open places.”
Pro 22:14 The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit; the anger of Yehowah is stirred up against anyone who falls into it.
Pro 22:15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but the paddle of discipline drives it far away.
Pro 22:16 The one who oppresses poor people to increase his wealth, or gives to rich people, will come to poverty.
Pro 22:17 Incline your ear and listen to the words of the wise and apply your heart to my knowledge,
Pro 22:18 for it will be pleasant for you if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips.
Pro 22:19 So your trust may be in Yehowah, I teach them to you today, even to you.
Pro 22:20 Have I not written for you thirty sayings of instruction and knowledge,

Pro 22:21 to teach you truth in these trustworthy words, so you may give trustworthy answers to those who sent you?
Pro 22:22 Do not rob the poor because he is poor, or crush the needy at the gate,
Pro 22:23 for Yehowah will plead their case, and he will rob of life those who robbed them.
Pro 22:24 Do not make a friend of someone who is ruled by anger, and you must not go with one who rages,
Pro 22:25 or you will learn his ways, and you will take bait for your soul.
Pro 22:26 Do not be one who strikes hands in making a pledge, or who puts up security for debts.
Pro 22:27 If you lack the means to pay, what could stop someone from taking away your bed from under you?
Pro 22:28 Do not remove the ancient boundary stone that your fathers have set.
Pro 22:29 Do you see a man skilled at his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before common people.

Proverbs Chapter 23

Pro 23:1 When you sit to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you,
Pro 23:2 and put a knife to your throat, if you are a person who likes to eat a lot of food.
Pro 23:3 Do not crave his delicacies, for it is the food of lies.
Pro 23:4 Do not work too hard to gain wealth; be wise enough to know when to stop.
Pro 23:5 Will you let your eyes light upon it? It will be gone, for it will surely take up wings like an eagle and fly off to the sky.
Pro 23:6 Do not eat the food of one with an evil eye, and do not crave his delicacies,
Pro 23:7 for he is the kind of man who counts the price of the food. “Eat and drink!” he says to you, but his heart is not with you.
Pro 23:8 You will vomit up the little you have eaten, and you will have wasted your compliments.
Pro 23:9 Do not speak in the hearing of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
Pro 23:10 Do not move an ancient boundary stone or encroach on the fields of orphans,
Pro 23:11 for their Redeemer is strong, and he will plead their case against you.
Pro 23:12 Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge.
Pro 23:13 Do not withhold instruction from a child, for if you spank him with a paddle, he will not die.
Pro 23:14 It is you who must whip him with your trekking pole and save his soul from the place of the dead.
Pro 23:15 My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart also will be glad;
Pro 23:16 my inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.
Pro 23:17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of Yehowah all the day.
Pro 23:18 Surely there is a future, and your hope will not be cut off.
Pro 23:19 Hear, you my son, and be wise and direct your heart in the Way.
Pro 23:20 Do not associate with drunkards, or with gluttonous eaters of meat,
Pro 23:21 for the drunkard and the glutton become poor and slumber will clothe them with rags.
Pro 23:22 Listen to your father who begot you and do not despise your mother when she is old.
Pro 23:23 Buy the truth but do not sell it; buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.

Pro 23:24 The father of the righteous person will greatly rejoice, and he who begets a wise child will be glad in him.
Pro 23:25 Let your father and your mother be glad, and let her who bore you rejoice.
Pro 23:26 My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my Ways.
Pro 23:27 For a prostitute is a deep pit, and an immoral woman is a narrow well.
Pro 23:28 She lies in wait like a robber, and she increases the number of the treacherous among humanity.
Pro 23:29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has fights? Who has complaining? Who has wounds for no reason? Who has bloodshot eyes?
Pro 23:30 Those who linger over wine, those who try the mixed wine.
Pro 23:31 Do not look at the wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup and goes down smoothly.
Pro 23:32 In the last, it bites like a serpent, and it stings like a viper.
Pro 23:33 Your eyes will see strange things, and your heart will utter perverse things.
Pro 23:34 You will be as one who sleeps on the high seas or lies on the top of a mast.
Pro 23:35 “They hit me,” you will say, “but I was not hurt. They beat me, but I did not feel it. When will I wake up? I will seek another drink.”

Proverbs Chapter 24

Pro 24:1 Do not be envious of those who are evil nor desire to associate with them,
Pro 24:2 because their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about trouble.
Pro 24:3 Through wisdom a house is built, and by understanding it is established.
Pro 24:4 By knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
Pro 24:5 A warrior of wisdom is strong, and a man of knowledge increases his strength;
Pro 24:6 for by wise direction you can wage your war, and with many advisors there is victory.
Pro 24:7 Wisdom is too high for a fool; in the gate he does not open his mouth.
Pro 24:8 There is one who plans to do evil, people call him a master of schemes.
Pro 24:9 A foolish plan is sin, and men despise a mocker.
Pro 24:10 If you become weak with fear in the day of trouble, then your strength is small.
Pro 24:11 Rescue those who are being taken away to death and hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.
Pro 24:12 If you say, “Behold, we knew nothing about this,” does not the One who weighs the heart understand what you are saying? The One who guards your life, does he not know it? Will Yehowah not give to each one what he deserves?
Pro 24:13 My son, eat honey because it is good, because the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.
Pro 24:14 Such is wisdom for your soul, if you find it, there will be a future, and your hope will not be cut off.
Pro 24:15 Do not lie in wait like the wicked person who attacks the house of the righteous person. Do not destroy his home!
Pro 24:16 For the righteous person falls down seven times and rises again, but wicked people are brought down by calamity.
Pro 24:17 Do not celebrate when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles,
Pro 24:18 or Yehowah will see and disapprove and turn away his wrath from him.
Pro 24:19 Do not worry because of evildoers and do not envy wicked people,
Pro 24:20 for the evil person has no future, and the lamp of wicked people will go out.
Pro 24:21 Fear Yehowah and fear the king, my son; do not associate with those who rebel against them,
Pro 24:22 for suddenly their disaster will come, and who knows the extent of the destruction that will come from both of them?

Pro 24:23 These also are sayings of the wise. Partiality in judging a case at law is not good.
Pro 24:24 Whoever says to the wicked person, “You are a righteous person,” will be cursed by people and hated by ethnicities.
Pro 24:25 But those who discipline the wicked will have delight, and gifts of goodness will come to them.
Pro 24:26 The one who gives an honest answer gives a kiss on the lips.
Pro 24:27 Prepare your outdoor work and make everything ready for yourself in the field; after that, build your house.
Pro 24:28 Do not bear witness against your neighbor without cause and do not deceive with your lips.
Pro 24:29 Do not say, “I will do to him what he has done to me; I will pay him back for what he has done.”
Pro 24:30 I went by the field of a lazy man, past the vineyard of the man having no sense.
Pro 24:31 Thorns had grown up everywhere, the ground was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down.
Pro 24:32 Then I saw and considered it; I looked and received instruction.
Pro 24:33 A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest,
Pro 24:34 and poverty comes marching upon you and your needs like an armed man.

Proverbs Chapter 25

Pro 25:1 These are more proverbs of Solomon, copied by the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah.
Pro 25:2 It is the glory of the Almighty to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings to search it out.
Pro 25:3 Like the heavens are for height, and the earth is for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable.
Pro 25:4 Remove the dross from the silver, and a metal worker can use the silver in his craft.
Pro 25:5 Even so, remove wicked people from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established by doing what is right.
Pro 25:6 Do not honor yourself in the king's presence and do not stand in the place designated for great people.
Pro 25:7 It is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for him to humiliate you before a nobleman. What you have witnessed,
Pro 25:8 do not bring quickly to trial. For what will you do in the end when your neighbor puts you to shame?
Pro 25:9 Argue your case between you and your neighbor himself and do not disclose another's secret,
Pro 25:10 or else the one who hears you will bring shame upon you and an evil report about you that cannot be silenced.
Pro 25:11 Apples of gold in settings of silver is a word spoken in the right situation.
Pro 25:12 A gold ring or jewelry made of fine gold is a wise rebuke to a listening ear.
Pro 25:13 Like the cold of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger for those who sent him; he brings back the life of his masters.
Pro 25:14 Clouds and wind without rain is the one who boasts about a gift he does not give.
Pro 25:15 With patience a ruler can be persuaded, and a soft tongue can break a bone.
Pro 25:16 If you find honey, eat just enough, otherwise, having too much of it, you vomit it up.
Pro 25:17 Do not set your foot in your neighbor's house too often, he may become tired of you and hate you.
Pro 25:18 A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a club used in war, or a sword, or a sharp arrow.
Pro 25:19 An unfaithful man in whom you trust in a time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.

Pro 25:20 Like a person who takes off a garment in cold weather, or like vinegar poured upon carbonate of soda, is the one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
Pro 25:21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink,
Pro 25:22 for you will shovel coals of fire on his head, and Yehowah will reward you.
Pro 25:23 As surely as the north wind brings rain, someone who tells secrets makes faces angry.
Pro 25:24 It is better to live on a corner of the roof than in a house shared with a quarreling wife.
Pro 25:25 Like cold waters to one who is thirsty, so is good news from a far country.
Pro 25:26 Like a fouled spring or a ruined fountain is a righteous person wavering before wicked people.
Pro 25:27 It is not good to eat too much honey; that is like searching for honor after honor.
Pro 25:28 A person without self-control is like a city breached and without walls.

Proverbs Chapter 26

Pro 26:1 Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so a fool does not deserve honor.
Pro 26:2 As the sparrow flitters and the swallow darts when they fly, so an undeserved curse does not alight.
Pro 26:3 A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the jack donkey, and a rod is for the back of fools.
Pro 26:4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you will become like him.
Pro 26:5 Answer a fool and join in on his folly, so he will not become wise in his own eyes.
Pro 26:6 Whoever sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.
Pro 26:7 Like the legs of a paralytic which hang down is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
Pro 26:8 Like tying a stone in a sling is giving honor to a fool.
Pro 26:9 Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
Pro 26:10 Like an archer who wounds all those around him is one who hires a fool or hires anyone who passes by.
Pro 26:11 As a dog returns to his own vomit, so is a fool who repeats his folly.
Pro 26:12 Do you see someone who is wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.
Pro 26:13 The lazy person cries, “There is a roaring lion on the road! There is a lion between the open places!”
Pro 26:14 As the door turns on its hinges, so is the lazy person upon his bed.
Pro 26:15 The lazy person puts his hand into the dish, and yet he has no strength to lift it up to his mouth.
Pro 26:16 The lazy person is wiser in his own eyes than seven men with discernment.
Pro 26:17 Like one who takes hold of the ears of a dog, is a passerby who becomes angry at a dispute that is not his own.
Pro 26:18 Like a madman who shoots burning arrows and death,
Pro 26:19 is the one who deceives his neighbor and asks, “Was I not telling a joke?”
Pro 26:20 For lack of wood, the fire goes out; and where there is no gossiper quarreling ceases.
Pro 26:21 As charcoal is to burning coals and wood is to fire, so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.

Pro 26:22 The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels; they go down into the inner parts of the body.
Pro 26:23 Like the glaze overlaying an earthen vessel, so are burning lips and an evil heart.
Pro 26:24 One who hates others disguises his feelings with his lips, and he lays up deceit within himself.
Pro 26:25 He will speak graciously, but do not believe him, for there are seven abominations in his heart.
Pro 26:26 Though his hatred is covered with deception, his wickedness will be exposed in the congregation.
Pro 26:27 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it, and the stone will roll back on the one who pushed it.
Pro 26:28 A lying tongue hates the people it crushes, and a flattering mouth brings about ruin.

Proverbs Chapter 27

Pro 27:1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.
Pro 27:2 Let someone else praise you and not your own mouth; a stranger and not your own lips.
Pro 27:3 Consider the heaviness of a stone and the weight of sand, the provocation of a fool is heavier than both.
Pro 27:4 There is the cruelty of rage and the flood of anger, but who is able to stand before jealousy?
Pro 27:5 Better is an open rebuke than hidden love.
Pro 27:6 Faithful are the wounds caused by a friend, but an enemy may kiss you profusely.
Pro 27:7 A person who has eaten to the full rejects even a honeycomb, but to the hungry person, every bitter thing is sweet.
Pro 27:8 Like a bird that wanders from its nest, is a man who strays from where he lives.
Pro 27:9 Perfume and incense make the heart rejoice, but the sweetness of a friend comes from his sincere counsel.
Pro 27:10 Do not forsake your friend and your friend's father, and do not go to your brother's house on the day of your calamity. Better is a neighbor who is nearby than a brother who is far away.
Pro 27:11 Be wise, my son, and make my heart rejoice; then I will give back an answer to the one who mocks me.
Pro 27:12 A prudent man sees trouble and hides himself, but the naive people go on and suffer because of it.
Pro 27:13 Take a garment of one who has put up security for a foreigner, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an immoral woman.
Pro 27:14 Whoever gives his neighbor a blessing with a loud voice at the crack of dawn, that blessing will be considered to be a curse!
Pro 27:15 A quarreling wife is like the constant dripping on a rainy day;
Pro 27:16 restraining her is like restraining the wind, or trying to catch oil in your right hand.
Pro 27:17 Iron sharpens iron; in the same way, a man sharpens his friend.
Pro 27:18 The one who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and the one who protects his master will be honored.
Pro 27:19 Just as water reflects a person's face, so a person's heart reflects the person.
Pro 27:20 Just as the place of the dead and Hades are never satisfied, so a man's eyes are never satisfied.

Pro 27:21 A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold; and a person is tested when he is praised.
Pro 27:22 Even if you crush a fool with the pestle along with the grain, yet his foolishness will not leave him.
Pro 27:23 Be sure you know the condition of your flocks and be concerned about your herds,
Pro 27:24 for wealth is not forever. Does a crown endure for all generations?
Pro 27:25 When the hay is gone and the new growth appears, then the grass from the hills is gathered in for the flocks.
Pro 27:26 Those lambs will provide your clothing, and the goats will provide the price of the field.
Pro 27:27 There will be goats' milk for your food, the food for your household, and nourishment for your servant girls.

Proverbs Chapter 28

Pro 28:1 The wicked people run away when no one chases them, but righteous people are as bold as a young lion.
Pro 28:2 Because of the transgression of a land, it has many rulers, but with a man of understanding and knowledge, it will last a long time.
Pro 28:3 A poor person who oppresses other poor people is like a beating rain that leaves no food.
Pro 28:4 Those who forsake the law praise wicked people, but those who keep the law fight against them.
Pro 28:5 Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek Yehowah understand everything.
Pro 28:6 It is better for a poor person who walks in his integrity, than for a rich person who is crooked in his ways.
Pro 28:7 He who keeps the law is a son who has understanding, but one who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
Pro 28:8 The one who makes his fortune by charging too much interest gathers his wealth for another, who will have pity on poor people.
Pro 28:9 If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is detestable.
Pro 28:10 Whoever misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit, but the blameless will have a good inheritance.
Pro 28:11 The rich person may be wise in his own eyes, but a poor person who has understanding will find him out.
Pro 28:12 When there is victory for righteous people, there is great glory, but when the wicked arise, people hide themselves.
Pro 28:13 The one who hides his sins will not prosper, but the one who confesses them and forsakes them will be shown mercy.
Pro 28:14 The one who always lives with reverence is blessed, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into trouble.
Pro 28:15 Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people.
Pro 28:16 The ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but the one who hates dishonesty will prolong his days.
Pro 28:17 If a man is guilty because he has shed someone’s blood, he will be a fugitive until death, and no one will help him.
Pro 28:18 Whoever walks with integrity will be kept safe, but the one whose way is crooked will suddenly fall.
Pro 28:19 The one who works his land will have plenty of food, but whoever follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

Pro 28:20 A faithful man will have great blessings, but the one who gets rich quickly will not go unpunished.
Pro 28:21 It is not good to show partiality, but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.
Pro 28:22 A stingy man hurries after riches, but he does not know that poverty will come upon him.
Pro 28:23 Whoever disciplines someone, afterward will find more grace from him than from the one who flatters him with his tongue.
Pro 28:24 Whoever robs his father and his mother, and says, “That is no sin,” he is the companion of the one who destroys.
Pro 28:25 A greedy man stirs up conflict, but the one who trusts in Yehowah will prosper.
Pro 28:26 One who trusts in his own heart is a fool, but whoever walks in wisdom will keep away from danger.
Pro 28:27 The one who gives to the poor will lack nothing, but whoever closes his eyes to them will receive many curses.
Pro 28:28 When wicked people rise, men hide themselves, but when wicked people perish, righteous people will increase.

Proverbs Chapter 29

Pro 29:1 A person who has received many rebukes, but who stiffens his neck, will be broken in a moment beyond healing.
Pro 29:2 When righteous people increase, the people rejoice, but when a wicked person is the ruler, the people sigh.
Pro 29:3 Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice, but he who keeps company with prostitutes destroys his wealth.
Pro 29:4 The king establishes the land by justice, but the one who demands bribes tears it down.
Pro 29:5 A man who flatters his neighbor is spreading a net for his feet.
Pro 29:6 In the sin of an evil person is a trap, but the righteous person sings and rejoices.
Pro 29:7 The righteous person pleads the cause of poor people; the wicked person does not understand such knowledge.
Pro 29:8 Mockers set a city on fire, but those who are wise turn away wrath.
Pro 29:9 When a wise person has an argument with a fool, he rages and laughs, and there will be no rest.
Pro 29:10 The bloodthirsty hate the one who is blameless and seek the life of the upright.
Pro 29:11 A fool reveals all his anger, but a wise man holds it back and calms himself down.
Pro 29:12 If a ruler pays attention to lies, all his officials will be wicked.
Pro 29:13 The poor person and the oppressor are similar, for Yehowah gives light to the eyes of them both.
Pro 29:14 If a king judges the poor by the truth, his throne will be established forever.
Pro 29:15 The paddle and reproof give wisdom, but a child freed from discipline puts his mother to shame.
Pro 29:16 When wicked people are in power, transgression increases, but righteous people will see the downfall of those wicked people.
Pro 29:17 Discipline your son, and he will give you rest; he will bring delights into your life.
Pro 29:18 Where there is no prophetic vision the people run wild, but the one who keeps the law is blessed.
Pro 29:19 A slave will not be corrected by words, for though he understands, there will be no response.
Pro 29:20 See a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Pro 29:21 One who pampers his slave from youth, at the end of it, he will have an heir.
Pro 29:22 An angry person stirs up strife, and a master of rage commits many sins.
Pro 29:23 A person's pride brings him low, but one who has a humble spirit will be given honor.
Pro 29:24 One who shares with a thief hates his own life; he hears the curse and says nothing.
Pro 29:25 The fear of man makes a snare, but the one who trusts in Yehowah will be protected.
Pro 29:26 Many are those who seek the face of the ruler, but from Yehowah is justice for a person.
Pro 29:27 An unjust man is an abomination to righteous people, but the one whose Way is upright is detestable to the wicked person.

Proverbs Chapter 30

Pro 30:1 The sayings of Agur son of Jakeh, an oracle: This man declared to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
Pro 30:2 Surely, I am more like an animal than any human, and I do not have the understanding of a human being.
Pro 30:3 Yehowah has taught me wisdom, and I have knowledge of the set apart.
Pro 30:4 Who has gone up to Heaven and come down? Who has gathered up the wind in the hollow of his hands? Who has gathered up the waters in his cloak? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is the name of his Son? Surely you know!
Pro 30:5 Every word of the Almighty is tested; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
Pro 30:6 Do not add to his words, or he will discipline you, and you will be proved to be a liar.
Pro 30:7 Two things I ask of you, do not withhold them from me before I die:
Pro 30:8 Put vanity and lies far away from me. Give me neither poverty nor riches, just give me the food I need.
Pro 30:9 For if I have too much, I might deny you and ask, “Who is Yehowah?” Or if I become poor, I might steal and profane the name of my Divine One.
Pro 30:10 Do not slander a slave before his master, or he will curse you, and you will be held guilty.
Pro 30:11 There is a generation that curses their father and does not bless their mother.
Pro 30:12 There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, and yet they are not washed of their filth.
Pro 30:13 There is a generation whose eyes are raised up, and how high are their eyelids lifted up!
Pro 30:14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords, and their jawbones are like knives, so they may devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.
Pro 30:15 The leech has two daughters: “Give and give,” they cry! There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, “Enough:”
Pro 30:16 The place of the dead; the barren womb; land that is never satisfied with water; and the fire that never says, “Enough!”
Pro 30:17 The eye that mocks a father and scorns obedience to a mother, his eyes will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley, and he will be eaten by the vultures.
Pro 30:18 There are three things that are too wonderful for me, four that I do not understand:

Pro 30:19 The way of an eagle in the sky; the way of a snake on a rock; the way of a ship in the heart of the sea; and the way of a man with a virgin woman.
Pro 30:20 This is the way of an adulteress: She eats, and she wipes her mouth and says, “I have done nothing wrong.”
Pro 30:21 Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it cannot bear up:
Pro 30:22 A slave when he becomes king; a fool when he is filled with food;
Pro 30:23 a hated woman when she marries; and a maid when she takes the place of her mistress.
Pro 30:24 Four things on earth are small, and yet they teach wisdom to the wise:
Pro 30:25 The ants are creatures that are not strong, but they prepare their food in the summer;
Pro 30:26 the rock badgers are not mighty creatures, but they make their homes in the rocks.
Pro 30:27 Locusts have no king, but all of them march in rank.
Pro 30:28 As for the lizard, you can hold it in your two hands, yet they are found in kings’ palaces.
Pro 30:29 There are three things that are stately in their stride, and four that are stately in how they walk:
Pro 30:30 A lion, strongest among wild animals, it does not turn away from anything;
Pro 30:31 a greyhound; a goat; and a king whose armed forces are beside him.
Pro 30:32 If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil, put your hand over your mouth.
Pro 30:33 As churning milk makes butter, and as one’s nose will produce blood if it is twisted, so deeds done in anger produce conflict.

Proverbs Chapter 31

Pro 31:1 The words of King Lemuel, an oracle his mother taught him.
Pro 31:2 What, my son? What is it, son of my womb? What do you want, son of my vows?
Pro 31:3 Do not give your strength to women, or your ways to those who destroy kings.
Pro 31:4 It is not for kings, Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine, nor for rulers to ask, “Where is the beer?”
Pro 31:5 Lest they forget what has been decreed and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.
Pro 31:6 Give beer to a person who is perishing and wine to those in bitter distress.
Pro 31:7 He will drink and forget his poverty, and he will not remember his trouble.
Pro 31:8 Speak for those who cannot speak, for the causes of all who are perishing.
Pro 31:9 Speak out and judge by the measure of what is right and plead the cause of poor and needy people.
Pro 31:10 Who can find a capable wife? Her value is far more than jewels.
Pro 31:11 The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will never be poor.
Pro 31:12 She does good things for him, and not evil, all the days of her life.
Pro 31:13 She selects wool and flax and works with the delight of her hands.
Pro 31:14 She is like the merchant ships; she brings her food from far away.
Pro 31:15 She rises while it is night and gives food to her household, and she distributes the work for her female servants.
Pro 31:16 She considers a field and buys it, with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
Pro 31:17 She dresses herself with strength and makes her arms strong.
Pro 31:18 She perceives what will make a good profit for her; all night long her lamp is not extinguished.
Pro 31:19 She puts her hands on the spindle, and she holds the twisting thread.
Pro 31:20 She reaches out with her hand to poor people; she reaches out with her hands to needy people.
Pro 31:21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household, for all her household are clothed in scarlet.
Pro 31:22 She makes coverings for her bed, and she wears clothes of fine purple linen.
Pro 31:23 Her husband is known at the gates, when he sits with the elders of the land.

Pro 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them, and she supplies sashes to the merchants.
Pro 31:25 She is clothed with strength and honor, and she laughs at the time to come.
Pro 31:26 She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the law of kindness is on her tongue.
Pro 31:27 She watches over the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
Pro 31:28 Her children rise up and call her blessed, and her husband praises her,
Pro 31:29 “Many women have done well, but you surpassed them all.”
Pro 31:30 Elegance is deceptive, beauty is vain, but a woman who fears Yehowah, she will be praised.
Pro 31:31 Give her the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates!

Book of Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes Chapter 1

Ecc 1:1 These are the words of the Teacher, the descendant of David and king in Jerusalem.
Ecc 1:2 The Teacher says this: “Like a vapor of mist, like a breeze in the wind, everything vanishes, leaving many questions.
Ecc 1:3 What profit does mankind gain from all the work that they labor at under the sun?
Ecc 1:4 One generation goes, and another generation comes, but the earth remains forever.
Ecc 1:5 The sun rises, and it goes down and hurries back to the place where it rises again.
Ecc 1:6 The wind blows south and circles around to the north, always going around along its pathway and coming back again.
Ecc 1:7 All the rivers flow into the sea, but the sea is never full. To the place where the rivers go, there they go again.
Ecc 1:8 Everything becomes wearisome, and no one can explain it. The eye is not satisfied by what it sees, nor is the ear fulfilled by what it hears.
Ecc 1:9 Whatever has been is what will be, and whatever has been done is what will be done. There is nothing new under the sun.
Ecc 1:10 Is there anything about which it may be said, ‘Look, this is new?’ Whatever exists has already existed for a long time, during ages which came long before us.
Ecc 1:11 No one seems to remember the things that happened in ancient times, and the things that happened much later, and that will happen in the future will not likely be remembered either.”
Ecc 1:12 I am the Teacher, and I have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.
Ecc 1:13 I applied my mind to study and to search out by wisdom everything that is done under Heaven. That search is a burdensome task that the Almighty has given to the children of mankind to be busy with.
Ecc 1:14 I have seen all the deeds that are done under the sun, and look, they all amount to vapor and an attempt to shepherd the wind.
Ecc 1:15 The twisted cannot be straightened! The missing cannot be counted!
Ecc 1:16 I have spoken to my heart saying, “Look, I have acquired greater honor and wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My mind has seen great wisdom and knowledge.”

Ecc 1:17 So I applied my heart to know wisdom and also madness and folly. I came to understand that this also was an attempt to shepherd the wind.
Ecc 1:18 For in the abundance of wisdom there is much frustration, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 2

Ecc 2:1 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with happiness. So enjoy pleasure.” But look, this also was just a temporary breeze.
Ecc 2:2 I said about laughter, “It is crazy,” and about pleasure, “What use is it?”
Ecc 2:3 I explored in my heart how to gratify my desires with wine. I let my mind guide me with wisdom, although I was still holding on to folly. I wanted to find out what is good for people to do under Heaven during the days of their lives.
Ecc 2:4 I accomplished great things. I built houses for myself and planted vineyards.
Ecc 2:5 I built for myself gardens and parks; I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.
Ecc 2:6 I created pools of water to water a forest where trees were grown.
Ecc 2:7 I purchased male slaves and female slaves; I had slaves born in my palace. I also had large herds and flocks of livestock, much more than any king who ruled before me in Jerusalem.
Ecc 2:8 I also accumulated for myself silver and gold, the treasures of kings and provinces. I got male and female singers for myself, and delights from the children of mankind, concubines and wives.
Ecc 2:9 So I became greater and wealthier than all who were before me in Jerusalem, and my wisdom remained with me.
Ecc 2:10 Whatever my eyes desired, I did not withhold from them. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, because my heart rejoiced in all my labor, and pleasure was my reward for all my work.
Ecc 2:11 Then I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished, and on the work that I had done, but again, everything was vapor and an attempt to shepherd the wind. There was no profit in it under the sun.
Ecc 2:12 Then I turned to consider wisdom and also madness and folly. For what can the next man do who comes after the king, which has not already been done?
Ecc 2:13 Then I began to understand that wisdom has advantages over folly, just as light is better than darkness.
Ecc 2:14 The wise man uses his eyes in his head to see where he is going, but the fool walks in darkness, although I know the same destiny is in store for everyone.
Ecc 2:15 Then I said in my heart, “What happens to the fool, will also happen to me. So what difference does it make if I am extremely wise?” I concluded in my heart, “This too is only vapor.”

Ecc 2:16 For the wise man, like the fool, is not remembered for eternity. In the days to come everything will have been long forgotten. The wise man dies just like the fool dies.
Ecc 2:17 So I detested life, because all the work done under the sun was evil to me. This was because everything is vapor and an attempt to shepherd the wind.
Ecc 2:18 I hated all my accomplishments for which I had worked under the sun, because I must leave them behind to the man who comes after me.
Ecc 2:19 For who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will be master over everything under the sun that my work and wisdom have built. This also is vapor.
Ecc 2:20 Therefore, my heart began to despair over all the work that I did under the sun.
Ecc 2:21 For there might be someone who works with wisdom, with knowledge, and skill, but he will leave everything he has to a man who has not made any of it. This also is vapor and a great tragedy.
Ecc 2:22 For what profit does the person gain who works so hard and tries in his heart to complete his labors under the sun?
Ecc 2:23 Every day his work is painful and stressful, so at night his soul does not find rest. This also is vapor.
Ecc 2:24 There is nothing better for anyone than to simply eat, drink, and be satisfied with what is good in his work. I saw that this truth comes from the hand of the Almighty.
Ecc 2:25 For who can eat, or who can have any kind of pleasure apart from Yehowah?
Ecc 2:26 For to anyone who pleases him, Yehowah gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy. However, to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and storing up, so that he may give it away to someone who pleases the Almighty. This also amounts to vapor and an attempt to shepherd the wind.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 3

Ecc 3:1 For everything there is an appointed time, and a season for every purpose under Heaven.
Ecc 3:2 There is a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to pull up plants,
Ecc 3:3 a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build up.
Ecc 3:4 There is a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,
Ecc 3:5 a time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones, a time to embrace other people and a time to refrain from embracing.
Ecc 3:6 There is a time to look for things and a time to stop looking, a time to keep things and a time to throw away things,
Ecc 3:7 a time to tear clothing and a time to repair clothing, a time to keep silent and a time to speak.
Ecc 3:8 There is a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.
Ecc 3:9 What profit does the worker gain in his labor?
Ecc 3:10 I have seen the work that the Almighty has given to humans to complete.
Ecc 3:11 He has made everything suitable for its own time. He has also placed eternity in their hearts. But mankind cannot understand the deeds that the Almighty has done, from their beginning all the way to their end.
Ecc 3:12 I know that there is nothing better for anyone than to rejoice and to do good so long as he lives,
Ecc 3:13 and that everyone should eat and drink, and should understand how to enjoy the good that comes from all his work. This is a gift from the Almighty.
Ecc 3:14 I know that whatever the Almighty does lasts forever. Nothing can be added to it or taken away, because it is the Almighty who has done it, so that people will approach him with honor.
Ecc 3:15 Whatever exists has already existed; whatever will exist has already existed. The Almighty makes humans seek hidden things.
Ecc 3:16 I have seen the wickedness that is under the sun, where there should be justice, and in place of righteousness, wickedness was there.
Ecc 3:17 I said in my heart, “The Almighty will judge the righteous and the wicked at the right time for every matter and every deed.”
Ecc 3:18 I said in my heart, “The Almighty tests humans to show them that they are like animals.”

Ecc 3:19 For the fate of the children of mankind and the fate of animals is the same fate for them. The death of one is like the death of the other. The breath is the same for all of them. There is no advantage for mankind over the animals. For is not everything just a breath?
Ecc 3:20 Everything is going to the same place. Everything comes from the dust, and everything returns to the dust.
Ecc 3:21 Who knows whether the spirit of mankind goes upward and the spirit of animals goes downward into the earth?
Ecc 3:22 So again, I realized that there is nothing better for anyone than to take pleasure in his work, for that is his assignment. Who can bring him back to see what happens after him?

Ecclesiastes Chapter 4

Ecc 4:1 Once again, I thought about all the oppression that is done under the sun. Look at the tears of oppressed people. There is no comforter for them. Power is in the hand of their oppressors, but oppressed people have no comforter.
Ecc 4:2 So I congratulate dead people, those who have already died, not the living, those who are still alive.
Ecc 4:3 However, more fortunate than both of them is the one who has not yet lived, the one who has not seen any of the evil acts that are done under the sun.
Ecc 4:4 Then I saw that every act of labor and every skillful work became the envy of one's neighbor. This also is vapor and an attempt to shepherd the wind.
Ecc 4:5 The fool folds his hands and does not work, so his food is his own flesh.
Ecc 4:6 But better is a handful of restfulness with quiet work than two handfuls with the work that tries to shepherd the wind.
Ecc 4:7 Then I thought again about more futility, more vanishing vapor under the sun.
Ecc 4:8 There is the kind of man who is alone. He does not have anyone, no son or brother. There is no end to all his work, and his eyes are not satisfied with gaining wealth. He wonders, "For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?" This also is vapor, a bad situation.
Ecc 4:9 Two people work better than one; together they can earn a good pay for their labor.
Ecc 4:10 For if one falls, the other can lift up his friend. However, sorrow follows the one who is alone when he falls, if there is no one to lift him up.
Ecc 4:11 If two lie down together, they can be warm, but how can one be warm alone?
Ecc 4:12 One man alone can be overpowered, but two can withstand an attack, and a three-strand rope is not quickly broken.
Ecc 4:13 It is better to be a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king, who no longer knows how to listen to warnings.
Ecc 4:14 This is true even if the young man becomes king from prison, or even if he was born poor in his kingdom.
Ecc 4:15 However, I saw everyone who was alive and walking around under the sun submitting themselves to another young man who rose up as king.
Ecc 4:16 There is no end to all the people who want to obey the new king, but later many of them will no longer praise him. Surely this situation is vapor and an attempt to shepherd the wind.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 5

Ecc 5:1 Guard your conduct when you go to the temple of the Almighty. Go there to listen. Listening is better than when fools offer sacrifices, while not knowing that what they do in life is wicked.
Ecc 5:2 Do not be too quick to speak with your mouth, and do not let your heart be too quick to bring any matter up before the Almighty. The Almighty is in Heaven, but you are on earth, so let your words be few.
Ecc 5:3 If you have too many things to do and worry about, you will probably have bad dreams. The more words you speak, the more foolish things you will probably say.
Ecc 5:4 When you make a vow to the Almighty, do not delay to do it, for He has no pleasure in fools. Do what you vow you will do.
Ecc 5:5 It is better not to make a vow than to make one that you do not carry out.
Ecc 5:6 Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin. Do not say to the priest's messenger, "That vow was a mistake." Why make the Almighty angry by vowing falsely, provoking him to destroy the work of your hands?
Ecc 5:7 For in many dreams, as in many words, there is meaningless vapor (Exo. 20:7). So fear the Almighty.
Ecc 5:8 When you see the poor being oppressed and robbed of just and right treatment in your province, do not be astonished as if no one knows, because there are people in power who watch those under them, and there are even higher ones over them.
Ecc 5:9 In addition, the produce of the land is for everyone, and the king himself takes produce from the fields.
Ecc 5:10 Anyone who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver, and anyone who loves wealth always wants more (1 Tim. 6:10; Heb. 13:5). This, too, is vapor.
Ecc 5:11 As prosperity increases, so also do the people who consume it. What advantage in wealth is there to the owner except to watch it with his eyes?
Ecc 5:12 The sleep of a working man is sweet, whether he eats little or a lot, but the wealth of a rich person does not allow him to sleep well.
Ecc 5:13 There is a severe evil that I have seen under the sun: Riches hoarded by the owner, resulting in his own misery.
Ecc 5:14 When the rich man loses his wealth through bad luck, his own son, one whom he has fathered, is left with nothing in his hands.
Ecc 5:15 As a man is born naked from his mother's womb, so also he will leave this life naked. He can take in his hand nothing from his work.
Ecc 5:16 Another severe evil is that exactly as a person came, so also he must go away. So what profit does anyone get in working for the wind?

Ecc 5:18 Look, what I have seen to be good and suitable is to eat, drink, and to enjoy the gain from all our work, as we labor under the sun during the days of this life that the Almighty has given us. For this is man's assignment.
Ecc 5:19 Anyone to whom the Almighty has given riches and wealth, the ability to receive his share, and rejoice in his work, this is a gift from the Almighty.
Ecc 5:20 For he does not often call to mind the days of his life, because the Almighty makes him keep busy with the things that he enjoys doing.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 6

Ecc 6:1 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it is severe for humans.
Ecc 6:2 The Almighty might give riches, wealth, and honor to a man, so that he lacks nothing that he desires for himself, but then the Almighty gives him no ability to enjoy it. Instead, someone else uses his things. This is vapor, an evil affliction.
Ecc 6:3 If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but if his heart is not satisfied with good, and he is not buried with honor, then I say that the stillborn baby is better off than he is.
Ecc 6:4 Even such a baby comes in futility and passes away in darkness, and its name remains hidden.
Ecc 6:5 Although this child does not see the sun or know anything, it has rest even though that man did not.
Ecc 6:6 Even if a man should live for two thousand years but does not learn to enjoy good things, he goes to the same place as everyone else.
Ecc 6:7 Though all a man's work is to fill his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied.
Ecc 6:8 Indeed, what advantage has the wise person over the fool? What advantage does the poor man have, even if he knows how to act in front of other people?
Ecc 6:9 It is better to be satisfied with what the eyes see, than to desire what a wandering appetite craves, which is also vapor and an attempt to shepherd the wind.
Ecc 6:10 Whatever has existed has already been given its name, and what mankind is like has already been known. So it has become useless to dispute with the One who is the Mighty Judge of all.
Ecc 6:11 The more words that are spoken, the more futility increases, so what advantage is that to a human?
Ecc 6:12 For who knows what is good for man in his life during his futile, numbered days, through which he passes like a shadow? Who can tell a man what will come under the sun after he passes?

Ecclesiastes Chapter 7

Ecc 7:1 A good name is better than costly perfume, and the day of death is better than the day of birth.
Ecc 7:2 It is better to go to a house of mourning than to a house of feasting, for mourning comes to all people at the end of life, so living people must take this to heart.
Ecc 7:3 Grief is better than laughter, for after sadness of face comes gladness of heart.
Ecc 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of feasting.
Ecc 7:5 It is better to listen to the rebuke of the wise, than to listen to the song of fools.
Ecc 7:6 For like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot, so also is the laughter of fools. This, too, is vapor.
Ecc 7:7 Extortion certainly makes a wise man foolish, and a bribe corrupts the heart.
Ecc 7:8 Better is the end of a matter than the beginning; and the people patient in spirit are better than the proud in spirit.
Ecc 7:9 Do not be quick to anger in your spirit, for anger resides in the hearts of fools.
Ecc 7:10 Do not ask, “Why were the days of old better than these?” For it is not because of wisdom that you ask this question.
Ecc 7:11 Wisdom is as good as valuable things we inherit from our ancestors. It provides benefits for those who see the sun.
Ecc 7:12 For wisdom provides protection as money can provide protection, but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to whoever has it.
Ecc 7:13 Consider the deeds of the Almighty: Who can straighten out anything he has made crooked?
Ecc 7:14 When times are good, live happily in that good, but when times are bad, consider this: The Almighty has allowed both to exist side by side. For this reason, no one will find out anything that is coming after him.
Ecc 7:15 I have seen many things in my meaningless days. There are righteous people who perish in spite of their righteousness, and there are wicked people who live a long life in spite of their evil.
Ecc 7:16 Do not be self-righteous, wise in your own eyes. Why should you destroy yourself?
Ecc 7:17 Do not be too wicked or foolish. Why should you die before your time?

Ecc 7:18 It is good that you should take hold of this wisdom, and that you should not let go of righteousness. For the person who fears the Almighty will meet all his obligations.
Ecc 7:19 Wisdom is powerful in the wise man, more than ten rulers in a city.
Ecc 7:20 There is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.
Ecc 7:21 Do not listen to every word that is spoken, because you might hear your servant curse you.
Ecc 7:22 Similarly, you know yourself that in your own heart you have often cursed others.
Ecc 7:23 All this have I proven by wisdom. I said, “I will be wise,” but it was more than I could be.
Ecc 7:24 Wisdom is far off and extremely deep. Who can find it?
Ecc 7:25 I turned my heart to learn, examine, seek wisdom, and the explanations of reality, and to understand that evil is stupid, and that folly is madness.
Ecc 7:26 I found that more bitter than death is any woman whose heart is full of snares and nets, and whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases the Almighty will escape from her, but the sinner will be taken by her.
Ecc 7:27 “Consider what I have discovered,” says the Teacher. “I have been adding one discovery to another in order to find an explanation of reality.
Ecc 7:28 This is what I am still looking for, but I have not found it. I did find one righteous man among a thousand, but a woman among all those I did not find.
Ecc 7:29 I have discovered only this: That the Almighty created humanity upright, but they have gone away looking for many devices.”

Ecclesiastes Chapter 8

Ecc 8:1 Who is a wise man? Who knows what the events in life mean? Wisdom in a man causes his face to shine, and the hardness of his face is changed.
Ecc 8:2 I advise you to obey the king's command, because of the oath of the Almighty to protect him.
Ecc 8:3 Do not hurry out of his presence, and do not stand in support of something wrong, for the king does whatever he desires.
Ecc 8:4 The king's word rules, so who will say to him, "What are you doing?"
Ecc 8:5 Whoever keeps the king's commands avoids harm. A wise man's heart recognizes the proper course and time of action.
Ecc 8:6 For every matter there is a correct response and a time to respond, because the troubles of man are great.
Ecc 8:7 No one knows what is coming next. Who can tell him what is coming?
Ecc 8:8 No one is ruler over his breath so as to stop the breath, and no one has power over the day of his death. No one is discharged from the military force during a battle, and wickedness will not rescue those who are its slaves.
Ecc 8:9 I have realized all this; I have applied my heart to every kind of work that is done under the sun. There is a time when a person oppresses another person to that person's hurt.
Ecc 8:10 So I saw the wicked buried publicly. They were taken from the set-apart area, buried, and were praised by people in the city where they had done their wicked deeds. This also is uselessness.
Ecc 8:11 When a sentence against an evil crime is not executed quickly, it entices the hearts of humans to do evil.
Ecc 8:12 Even if a sinner does evil a hundred times and still lives for a long time, yet I know that it will be well with those who respect the Almighty, who honor his presence with them.
Ecc 8:13 But it will not go well for a wicked man; his life will not be prolonged. His days are like a fleeting shadow, because he does not honor the Almighty.
Ecc 8:14 There is another useless vapor, something else that is done on the earth. Things happen to righteous people as they happen to wicked people, and things happen to wicked people as they happen to righteous people. I say that this also is useless vapor.
Ecc 8:15 So I recommend happiness, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat, drink, and to be happy. It is happiness that will accompany him in his labor for all the days of his life that the Almighty has given him under the sun.

Ecc 8:16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to understand the work that is done on the earth, work often done without sleep for the eyes at night or in the day,
Ecc 8:17 then I considered all of the deeds of the Almighty, and that man cannot understand the work that is done under the sun. No matter how much a man labors to find the answers, he will not find them. Even though a wise man might believe he knows, he really does not.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 9

Ecc 9:1 For I thought about all this in my mind to understand about the righteous and wise people and their deeds. They are all in the hands of the Almighty. No one knows whether love or hate will come to someone.
Ecc 9:2 Everyone has the same fate. The same fate awaits righteous people and wicked, the good and the bad, the clean and the unclean, and the one who sacrifices, and the one who does not sacrifice. As good people will die, so also will the sinner. As the one who swears will die, so also will the man who fears to make an oath.
Ecc 9:3 There is an evil fate for everything that is done under the sun, one destiny for everyone. The hearts of humans are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live. So after that, they go to the dead.
Ecc 9:4 For anyone who is united to all the living, there is hope, just as a living dog is better than a dead lion.
Ecc 9:5 For living people know they will die, but the dead do not know anything. They no longer have any reward, because their memory is forgotten.
Ecc 9:6 Their love, hatred, and envy have vanished long ago. They will never have a place again in anything done under the sun.
Ecc 9:7 Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for the Almighty approves of celebrating good works.
Ecc 9:8 Let your clothes be always white and your head anointed with oil.
Ecc 9:9 Live happily with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of uselessness, the days that Yehowah has given you under the sun during your days of uselessness. That is your reward in life for your work under the sun.
Ecc 9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, work at it with your strength, because there is no work or explanation or knowledge or wisdom in the place of the dead, where you are going.
Ecc 9:11 I have seen some interesting things under the sun: The race does not belong to swift people. The battle does not belong to strong people. Bread does not belong to wise people. Riches do not belong to people of understanding. Grace does not belong to people of knowledge. Instead, time and chance affect them all.
Ecc 9:12 For no one knows his time to die, just like fish trapped in a net of death, or just like birds caught in a snare. Like animals, humans are imprisoned in evil times that suddenly fall on them.
Ecc 9:13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun in a way that seemed great to me.
Ecc 9:14 There was a small city with only a few men in it, and a great king came against it, and besieged it, and built great siege ramps against it.

Ecc 9:15 Now in the city was found a poor, wise man, who by his wisdom saved the city. Yet later, no one remembered that same poor man.
Ecc 9:16 So I concluded, “Wisdom is better than strength, but the poor man’s wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.”
Ecc 9:17 The words of wise people spoken quietly are heard better than the shouts of any ruler among fools.
Ecc 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can ruin much good.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 10

Ecc 10:1 As dead flies cause perfume to stink, so a little folly can overpower wisdom and honor.
Ecc 10:2 The heart of a wise person tends to the right, but the heart of a fool tends to the left.
Ecc 10:3 When a fool walks down a road, his thinking is deficient, proving to everyone he is a fool.
Ecc 10:4 If the emotions of a ruler rise up against you, do not leave your work. Calm can quiet down great outrage.
Ecc 10:5 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, a kind of error that comes from a ruler:
Ecc 10:6 Fools are given leadership positions, while successful men are given low positions.
Ecc 10:7 I have seen slaves riding horses, and successful men walking like slaves on the ground.
Ecc 10:8 Anyone who digs a pit can fall into it, and whenever someone breaks down a wall, a snake can bite him.
Ecc 10:9 Whoever cuts out stones can be hurt by them, and the man who chops wood is endangered by it.
Ecc 10:10 If an iron blade is dull, and a man does not sharpen it, then he must use more strength, but wisdom provides an advantage for success.
Ecc 10:11 If a snake bites before it is charmed, then there is no advantage for the charmer.
Ecc 10:12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious, but the lips of a fool swallow himself.
Ecc 10:13 As words begin to flow from a fool's mouth, foolishness comes out, and at the end, his mouth flows with wicked madness.
Ecc 10:14 A fool multiplies words, but no one knows what is coming. Who knows what is coming after him?
Ecc 10:15 The toil of fools wearies them, so that they do not even know the road to town.
Ecc 10:16 Woe to you, land, if your king is a young boy, and if your leaders begin feasting at dawn!
Ecc 10:17 But blessed are you, land, if your king is the son of nobles, and if your leaders eat at the right time, for strength and not for drunkenness!
Ecc 10:18 Because of laziness the roof sinks in, and because of idle hands the house leaks.
Ecc 10:19 People prepare food for laughter, wine brings enjoyment to life, and money fills the need for everything.

Ecc 10:20 Do not curse the king, not even in your mind, and do not curse rich people in your bedroom. For a bird of the sky might carry your words; whatever has wings can spread the matter.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 11

Ecc 11:1 Send out your bread on the waters, for you will find it again after many days.
Ecc 11:2 Share it with seven, even eight people, for you do not know what disasters are coming on the earth.
Ecc 11:3 If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth, and if a tree falls toward the south or toward the north, wherever the tree falls, there it will remain.
Ecc 11:4 Anyone who watches the wind might not plant, and anyone who watches the clouds might not harvest.
Ecc 11:5 As you do not know the Path of the Ruach, nor how a baby's bones grow in the pregnant womb, so also you cannot comprehend the work of the Almighty, who created everything.
Ecc 11:6 At dawn plant your seed; until dusk, work with your hands as needed, for you know not which will prosper, whether dawn or dusk, or this or that, or whether they will both alike be good.
Ecc 11:7 Truly, the light is sweet, and it is a pleasant thing for the eyes to see the sun.
Ecc 11:8 If someone lives many years, let him be happy in all of them, but let him think about the coming days of darkness, for they will be many. Everything to come is vanishing vapor.
Ecc 11:9 Take joy, young man, in your youth, and let your heart be joyful in the days of your youth. Pursue the good desires of your heart, and whatever is within the sight of your eyes. However, know that the Almighty will bring you into judgment for all these things.
Ecc 11:10 Drive anger away from your heart and ignore any pain in your body, because youth and its strength are vapor.

Ecclesiastes Chapter 12

Ecc 12:1 Also, call to mind your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of difficulty come, and before the years arrive when you say, “I have no pleasure in them,”
Ecc 12:2 do this before the light of the sun, the moon, and the stars grows dark, and dark clouds return after the rain.
Ecc 12:3 That will be the time when the palace guard tremble, and strong men are bent over, and the women who grind cease, because they are few, and those who look out of windows no longer see clearly.
Ecc 12:4 That will be the time when the doors are shut in the street, and the sound of grinding stops, when men are startled at the voice of a bird, and the singing of girls’ voices fades away.
Ecc 12:5 That will be the time when men become afraid of heights and of dangers along the road, and when the almond tree blossoms, and when grasshoppers drag themselves along, and when natural desires fail. Then man goes to his eternal home, and the mourners go down the streets.
Ecc 12:6 Call to mind your Creator before the silver cord is cut, or the golden bowl is crushed, or the pitcher is shattered at the spring, or the water wheel is broken at the well,
Ecc 12:7 before the dust returns to the earth where it came from, and the spirit returns to the Almighty who gave it.
Ecc 12:8 “A mist of vapor,” says the Teacher, “everything is vanishing vapor.”
Ecc 12:9 The Teacher was wise, and he taught the people knowledge. He studied, contemplated, and set in order many proverbs.
Ecc 12:10 The Teacher sought to write using vivid, upright words of truth.
Ecc 12:11 The words of wise people are like goads. Like nails driven deeply are the words of the masters in collections of their proverbs, which are taught by one shepherd.
Ecc 12:12 My son, be aware of something more: The endless publishing of many books and much study brings weariness to the body.
Ecc 12:13 The end of the matter after everything has been heard, is that you must fear the Almighty and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of mankind.
Ecc 12:14 For the Almighty will bring every deed into judgment, along with every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil.

Book of Song of Solomon

Song of Solomon Chapter 1

Son 1:1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon’s.
Son 1:2 The young woman speaking to her lover: Oh, that you would kiss me with the kisses of your mouth, for your love is better than wine.
Son 1:3 Your anointing oils have a delightful fragrance; your name is like flowing perfume, so the virgin women love you.
Son 1:4 Take me with you, and we will run. The woman speaking to herself: The king has brought me into his rooms. The woman speaking to her lover: I am glad; I rejoice about you; let me celebrate your love; it is better than wine. It is natural for the other women to adore you.
Son 1:5 The woman speaking to the other women: I am Black but lovely, you daughters of Jerusalem’s men, dark like the tents of Kedar, lovely like the curtains of Solomon.
Son 1:6 Do not stare at me because I am Black, because the sun has scorched me. My mother’s sons were angry with me; they made me keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard I have not kept.
Son 1:7 The woman asking her lover: Tell me, you whom I love, where do you feed your flock? Where do you rest your flock at noontime? Why should I be like someone who wanders beside the flocks of your companions?
Son 1:8 Her lover answering her: If you do not know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of my flock, and pasture your young goats near the shepherds’ tents.
Son 1:9 I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh’s chariot horses.
Son 1:10 Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.
Son 1:11 I will make for you gold ornaments with silver studs.
Son 1:12 The woman speaking to herself: While the king lay on his couch, my nard emitted its fragrance.
Son 1:13 My beloved is to me like a sachet of myrrh that spends the night lying between my breasts.
Son 1:14 My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna flowers in the vineyards of Engedi.
Son 1:15 Her lover speaking to her: See, you are beautiful, my love; see, you are beautiful; your eyes are like doves.

Son 1:16 The woman speaking to her lover: See, you are handsome, my beloved, how handsome. The lush plants serve as our bed.
Son 1:17 The beams of our house are cedar tree branches, and our rafters are fir branches.

Song of Solomon Chapter 2

Son 2:1 The woman speaking to her lover: I am just a flower in a plain, just a lily in a valley.
Son 2:2 The man speaking to her: As a lily is among thorns, so are you, my love, among the daughters of my countrymen.
Son 2:3 The woman speaking to herself: As an apricot tree is among the trees of the forest, so is my beloved among the young men. I sit down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit is sweet to my taste.
Son 2:4 He brought me to the banqueting hall, and his banner over me was love.
Son 2:5 The woman speaking to her lover: Revive me with raisin cakes and refresh me with apricots, for I am weak with love.
Son 2:6 The woman speaking to herself: His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me.
Son 2:7 The woman speaking to the other women: I want you to promise, daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles and the does of the fields, that you will not interrupt our lovemaking until it is over.
Son 2:8 The woman speaking to herself: There is the sound of my beloved! Oh, here he comes, leaping over the mountains, jumping over the hills.
Son 2:9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag; look, he is standing behind our wall, gazing through the window, peering through the lattice.
Son 2:10 My beloved spoke to me, “Arise, my love; my beautiful one, come away with me.
Son 2:11 Look, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone.
Son 2:12 The flowers have appeared in the land; the time for pruning and the singing of birds has come, and the sound of the doves is heard in our land.
Son 2:13 The fig tree ripens her green figs, and the vines are in blossom; they give off their fragrance. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
Son 2:14 My dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the secret clefts of the mountain crags, let me see your face. Let me hear your voice, for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.”
Son 2:15 The woman speaking to herself: Catch the jackals for us, the little jackals that spoil vineyards, for our vineyard is in blossom.
Son 2:16 My beloved is mine, and I am his; he grazes among the lilies with pleasure.
Son 2:17 The woman speaking to her lover: Go away, my beloved, before the soft winds of dawn blow, and the shadows flee away. Go away; be like a gazelle or a young stag on the rugged mountains.

Song of Solomon Chapter 3

Son 3:1 The woman speaking to herself: At night on my bed I was longing for the one I love; I looked for him, but I could not find him.
Son 3:2 I said to myself, “I will get up and go through the city, through the streets and squares; I will search for my beloved.” I searched for him, but I did not find him.
Son 3:3 The watchmen found me as they were making their rounds in the city. I asked them, “Have you seen my beloved?”
Son 3:4 It was only a little while after I had passed them that I found the one whom my soul loves. I held him and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother’s house, into the bedroom of the one who had conceived me.
Son 3:5 The woman speaking to the other women: I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem’s men, by the gazelles and the does of the fields, that you will not interrupt our lovemaking, until it is over.
Son 3:6 The young woman speaking to herself: What is that coming up from the wilderness like a column of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the powders sold by merchants?
Son 3:7 Look, it is the bed of Solomon; sixty warriors surround it, sixty soldiers of Israel.
Son 3:8 They are expert with the sword and are skilled in warfare. Every man has his sword at his side, armed against the terrors of the night.
Son 3:9 King Solomon made himself a sedan chair of the wood from Lebanon.
Son 3:10 Its posts were made of silver; the back was made of gold, and the seat of purple cloth. Its interior was decorated with love by the daughters of Jerusalem’s men.
Son 3:11 The young woman speaking to the women of Jerusalem: Go out, daughters of Zion’s men, and gaze on King Solomon, bearing the crown with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day, on that happy day of his life.

Song of Solomon Chapter 4

Son 4:1 The woman's lover speaking to her: Oh, you are beautiful, my love; you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats going down from Mount Gilead.
Son 4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn ewes, coming up from the washing place. Each one has a twin, and none among them is bereaved.
Son 4:3 Your lips are like a thread of scarlet; your mouth is lovely. Your cheeks are like pomegranate halves behind your veil.
Son 4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David built in rows of stone, with a thousand shields hanging on it, all the shields of soldiers.
Son 4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle, grazing among the lilies.
Son 4:6 Until the dawn arrives, and the shadows flee away, I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.
Son 4:7 You are beautiful in every way, my love, and there is no blemish in you.
Son 4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride. Come with me from Lebanon; come from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from lions' dens, from mountain dens of leopards.
Son 4:9 You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride; you have stolen my heart, with just one look at me, with just one jewel of your necklace.
Son 4:10 How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice.
Son 4:11 Your lips, my bride, drip honey; honey and milk are under your tongue; the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.
Son 4:12 My sister, my bride is a garden locked up, a garden locked up, a spring that is sealed.
Son 4:13 Your branches are a grove of pomegranate trees with choice fruits, and of henna and nard plants,
Son 4:14 spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon with all kinds of spices, myrrh and aloes with all the finest spices.
Son 4:15 You are a garden spring, a well of fresh water, streams flowing down from Lebanon.
Son 4:16 The young woman speaking to her lover: Awake, north wind; come, south wind; blow on my garden, so that its spices may give off their fragrance. May my beloved come into his garden and eat some of its choice fruit.

Song of Solomon Chapter 5

Son 5:1 The woman's lover speaking to her: I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice (balsam). I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. The friends speaking to the lovers: Eat, friends; drink and be drunk with love.
Son 5:2 The young woman speaking to herself: I was asleep, but my heart was awake in a dream. There is the sound of my beloved knocking and saying, "Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled one, for my head is wet with dew, my hair with the night's dampness."
Son 5:3 "I have taken off my robe; must I put it on again? I have washed my feet; must I get them dirty?"
Son 5:4 My beloved put in his hand through the opening of the door latch, and my heart was stirred up for him.
Son 5:5 I rose up to open the door for my beloved; my hands were dripping with myrrh, my fingers with moist myrrh, on the door handle.
Son 5:6 I opened the door for my beloved, but my beloved had turned and gone. My heart sank; I became despondent. I looked for him, but I did not find him; I called him, but he did not answer me.
Son 5:7 The watchmen who went about the city found me; they struck me and wounded me; the guards on the walls took away my cloak from me.
Son 5:8 The young woman speaking to the women of the city: I want you to promise, daughters of Jerusalem, that if you find my beloved, tell him I am sick because of my love for him.
Son 5:9 The women of the city speaking to the young woman: How is your beloved better than another beloved man, you who are beautiful among women? Why is your beloved better than another beloved, that you ask us to take an oath like this?
Son 5:10 The young woman speaking to the women of the city: My beloved is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.
Son 5:11 His head is the purest gold; his hair is curly and as black as a raven.
Son 5:12 His eyes are like doves beside streams of water, washed in milk, mounted like jewels.
Son 5:13 His cheeks are like beds of spices, yielding aromatic scents. His lips are lilies, dripping myrrh.
Son 5:14 His hands are rounded gold set with jewels; his abdomen is ivory covered with sapphires.
Son 5:15 His legs are pillars of marble, set on bases of pure gold; his appearance is like Lebanon, choice as the cedars.

Son 5:16 His mouth is most sweet; he is completely lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

Song of Solomon Chapter 6

Son 6:1 The women of Jerusalem speaking to the young woman: Where has your beloved gone, most beautiful among women? In what direction has your beloved gone, so that we may seek him with you?
Son 6:2 The young woman speaking to herself: My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to graze in the garden and to gather lilies.
Son 6:3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine; he grazes among the lilies with pleasure.
Son 6:4 The woman's lover speaking to her: You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my love, as lovely as Jerusalem, as awe-inspiring as a military force with its banners.
Son 6:5 Turn your eyes away from me, for they overwhelm me. Your hair is like a flock of goats going down from the slopes of Mount Gilead.
Son 6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes coming up from the washing place. Each one has a twin, and none among them is bereaved.
Son 6:7 Your cheeks are like pomegranate halves behind your veil.
Son 6:8 The woman's lover speaking to himself: There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and virgin women without number.
Son 6:9 My dove, my undefiled, is the only one; she is the special daughter of her mother; she is the favorite one of the woman who bore her. The daughters of my countrymen saw her and called her blessed; the queens and the concubines saw her also, and they praised her!
Son 6:10 What the queens and the concubines asked, "Who is this who appears like the dawn, as beautiful as the full moon, as bright as the sun, as awe-inspiring as a military force with its banners?"
Son 6:11 The woman's lover speaking to himself: I went down into the grove of nut trees to see the young growth in the valley, to see whether the vines had budded, and whether the pomegranates were in bloom.
Son 6:12 I was so happy, that I felt I was riding in the chariot of a prince.
Son 6:13 The woman's lover speaking to her: Turn back, turn back, you perfect woman; turn back, turn back, so that I may gaze on you. The young woman asking her lover: Why do you gaze on me, the perfect woman, as if I were dancing between two rows of dancers?

Song of Solomon Chapter 7

Son 7:1 The woman’s lover speaking to her: How beautiful your feet appear in your sandals, prince’s daughter! The curves of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a master craftsman.
Son 7:2 Your navel is like a round bowl; may it never lack mixed wine. Your belly is like a mound of wheat encircled with lilies.
Son 7:3 Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.
Son 7:4 Your neck is like a tower of ivory; your eyes like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like the tower in Lebanon that looks toward Damascus.
Son 7:5 Your head on you is like Carmel; the hair on your head is dark purple. The king is held captive by its tresses.
Son 7:6 How beautiful and lovely you are, beloved one, with your delights!
Son 7:7 Your height is like that of a date palm tree and your breasts like clusters of fruit.
Son 7:8 I thought, “I want to climb that palm tree; I will take hold of its branches.” May your breasts be like clusters of grapes, and may the fragrance of your nose be like apricots.
Son 7:9 May your mouth be like the best wine, flowing smoothly to my beloved, gliding over our lips and teeth.
Son 7:10 The young woman speaking to her lover: I am my beloved’s, and he desires me.
Son 7:11 Come, my beloved, let us go out into the countryside; let us spend the night in the villages.
Son 7:12 Let us rise early to go to the vineyards; let us see whether the vines have budded, whether their blossoms have opened, and whether the pomegranates are in flower. There I will give you my love.
Son 7:13 The mandrakes give off their fragrance; at the door where we are staying are all sorts of choice fruits, new and old, that I have stored up for you, my beloved.

Song of Solomon Chapter 8

Son 8:1 The young woman speaking to her lover: I wish that you were like my brother, who nursed at my mother's breasts. Then whenever I met you outside, I could kiss you, and no one would despise me.
Son 8:2 I would lead you and bring you into my mother's house, and you would teach me. I would give you spiced wine to drink and some of the juice of my pomegranates (Isa. 5:22).
Son 8:3 The young woman speaking to herself: His left hand is under my head and his right hand embraces me.
Son 8:4 The woman speaking to the other women: I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem's men, that you will not interrupt our lovemaking until it is over.
Son 8:5 The women of Jerusalem asking: Who is this who is coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved? The young woman speaking to her lover: I awakened you under the apricot tree; there your mother conceived you; there she gave birth to you, she delivered you.
Son 8:6 Set me as a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm, for love is as strong as death. Passionate devotion is as unrelenting as the place of the dead; its flames burst out; it is a blazing flame, a flame hotter than any other flame.
Son 8:7 Surging waters cannot quench love, nor can floods sweep it away. If a man gave all the possessions in his house for love, the offer would utterly be despised.
Son 8:8 The young woman's brothers speaking among themselves: We have a little sister, and her breasts have not yet grown. What can we do for our sister on the day when she will be promised in marriage?
Son 8:9 If she is a wall, we will build on her a tower of silver. If she is a door, we will adorn her with boards of cedar.
Son 8:10 The young woman speaking to herself: I was a wall, but my breasts are now like fortress towers; so I am completely mature in his eyes.
Son 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon. He leased the vineyard to those who would maintain it. Each one was to bring 1,000-weight silver-currency for its fruit.
Son 8:12 My vineyard is my own; 1,000-weight silver-currency belongs to you, my dear Solomon, and 200-weight silver-currency is for those who maintain it for its fruit.
Son 8:13 The woman's lover speaking to her: You who live in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice; let me be the one to hear it as well.
Son 8:14 The young woman speaking to her lover: Hurry, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Book of Isaiah

Isaiah Chapter 1

Isa 1:1 The vision of Isaiah (Yeshayahu) son of Amoz, that he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.
Isa 1:2 Hear, heavens, and give ear, earth; for Yehowah has spoken: “I have nourished and brought up children, but they have rebelled against me.
Isa 1:3 The ox knows his owner, and the jack donkey his master’s feeding trough, but Israel does not know, Israel does not understand.”
Isa 1:4 Woe! Israeli nation, sinners, a people weighed down with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, sons who act corruptly! They have abandoned Yehowah, they have despised the Set-apart One of Israel, they have estranged themselves from him.
Isa 1:5 Why are you still being beaten? Why do you rebel more and more? The whole head is sick, the whole heart is weak.
Isa 1:6 From the sole of the foot to the head there is no part unharmed; only wounds, bruises, and fresh open wounds; they have not been closed, cleansed, bandaged, nor treated with oil.
Isa 1:7 Your country is ruined; your cities are burned; your fields in your presence, foreigners are destroying them, abandoned devastation, overthrown by foreigners.
Isa 1:8 The daughter of Zion is left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shed in a garden of cucumbers, like a besieged city.
Isa 1:9 If Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces had not left for us a small remnant, we would have been like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.
Isa 1:10 Hear the Word of Yehowah, you rulers of Sodom; listen to the law of our Divine One, you people of Gomorrah:
Isa 1:11 “What is the multitude of your sacrifices to me?” asks Yehowah. “I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fatted cattle; and in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats, I do not delight.
Isa 1:12 When you come to appear before me, who has required this of you, to trample my courts?
Isa 1:13 Bring no more meaningless offerings; incense is an abomination to me; your beginning of the month and Sabbath assemblies, I cannot tolerate these wicked assemblies.

Isa 1:14 I hate your beginning of the month celebrations and your appointment calendar festivals; they are a burden to me; I am tired of enduring them.
Isa 1:15 So when you spread out your hands in prayer, I hide my eyes from you; even though you offer many prayers, I will not listen; your hands are full of blood.
Isa 1:16 Wash, cleanse yourselves; remove the evil of your deeds from my sight; stop being evil;
Isa 1:17 learn to do good; seek justice, help the oppressed, give justice to the fatherless, defend the widow."
Isa 1:18 "Come now, and let us reason together," declares Yehowah. "Though your sins are like scarlet, they will be white like snow; though they are red like crimson, they will be like wool.
Isa 1:19 If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land,
Isa 1:20 but if you refuse and rebel, the sword will devour you," for the mouth of Yehowah has spoken it.
Isa 1:21 How the faithful city has become a prostitute! She who was full of justice, she was full of righteousness, but now she is full of murderers.
Isa 1:22 Your silver has become impure, your wine mixed with water.
Isa 1:23 Your princes are rebels and companions of thieves; everyone loves bribes and runs after payoffs. They do not defend the fatherless, nor does the widow's legal plea come before them.
Isa 1:24 "Therefore," declares Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Strong One of Israel: "Woe to them! I will take vengeance against my adversaries, and avenge myself against my enemies;
Isa 1:25 I will turn my hand against you, refine away your dross as with lye, and take away all your dross.
Isa 1:26 I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning; after that, you will be called the city of righteousness, a faithful town."
Isa 1:27 Zion will be redeemed by justice, and her repentant ones by righteousness.
Isa 1:28 Rebels and sinners will be crushed together, and those who abandon Yehowah will be done away with.
Isa 1:29 "For you will be ashamed of the consecrated oak trees that you desired, and you will be embarrassed by the gardens that you have chosen.
Isa 1:30 For you will be like an oak whose leaf fades, and like a garden that has no water.
Isa 1:31 The strong man will be like tinder and his work like a spark; they will both burn together, and no one will extinguish them."

Isaiah Chapter 2

Isa 2:1 The things that Isaiah son of Amoz perceived in a vision, concerning Judah and Jerusalem.
Isa 2:2 It will be in the last days, that the Mountain of Yehowah, his temple, will be established as the highest of the mountains, and it will be raised up above the hills, and all the ethnicities will flow to it.
Isa 2:3 Many people will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the Mountain of Yehowah, to the temple of the Mighty One of Jacob, so he may teach us his Ways, and we may walk in his Paths.” For out of Zion will go the law, and the Word of Yehowah from Jerusalem.
Isa 2:4 He will judge between the ethnicities and will render decisions for many people; they will hammer their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning knives; ethnicity will not lift up sword against ethnicity, nor will they train for war any longer (Micah 4:3).
Isa 2:5 House of Jacob, come and let us walk in the light of Yehowah.
Isa 2:6 For you have abandoned your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with customs from the East and are omen readers like the Philistines, and they shake hands with sons of foreigners.
Isa 2:7 Their land is full of silver and gold, and there is no limit to their wealth; their land also is full of horses, nor is there limit to their chariots.
Isa 2:8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the craftsmanship of their own hands, things that their own fingers have made.
Isa 2:9 The people will be bowed down, and individuals will fall down; therefore do not raise them up.
Isa 2:10 Go into the rocky places and hide in the ground from the terror of Yehowah and from the glory of his majesty.
Isa 2:11 The lofty gaze of man will be brought low, and the pride of men will be brought down, and Yehowah alone will be exalted on that Day.
Isa 2:12 For there will be a Day of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces against everyone who is proud and raised up, and against everyone who is arrogant, and he will be brought down,
Isa 2:13 and against all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up, and against all the oaks of Bashan.
Isa 2:14 That Day of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will be against all the high mountains, and against all the hills that are lifted up,
Isa 2:15 against every high tower, against every impregnable wall,
Isa 2:16 against all the ships of Tarshish, and against all beautiful sailing vessels.

Isa 2:17 The pride of mankind will be brought low, and the haughtiness of men will fall; Yehowah alone will be exalted on that Day.
Isa 2:18 The idols will completely pass away.
Isa 2:19 Men will go into the caves of the rocks and holes of the ground, from the terror of Yehowah, and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth (Heb. 11:38).
Isa 2:20 On that Day, people will throw away their idols of silver and of gold that they have made for themselves to worship, they will throw them away to the moles and bats.
Isa 2:21 The people will go into the crevices in the rocks and into the clefts of the ragged rocks, from the terror of Yehowah and from the glory of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth (Rev. 6:15-17).
Isa 2:22 Stop trusting in mankind, whose life-breath is in his nostrils, for what does he amount to?

Isaiah Chapter 3

Isa 3:1 See, Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is about to take away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and trekking pole: the whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water;
Isa 3:2 the mighty man, the warrior, the judge, the prophet, the omen reader, the elder;
Isa 3:3 the captain of fifty, the respected citizen, the counselor, the expert craftsman, and the skillful enchanter.
Isa 3:4 “I will place mere youths as their leaders, and the young will rule over them.
Isa 3:5 The people will be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor; the child will insult the elderly, and the degraded will challenge the honorable.
Isa 3:6 A man will even take hold of his brother in his father’s house and say, ‘You have a coat; be our ruler, and let this ruin be in your hands.’
Isa 3:7 On that day, he will shout, ‘I will not be a healer; I have no bread or clothing! You will not make me ruler of the people!’”
Isa 3:8 For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen, because their speech and their actions are against Yehowah, defying the eyes of his glory.
Isa 3:9 The look on their faces witnesses against them; and they tell of their sin like Sodom; they do not hide it. Woe to them! For they have completed a catastrophe for themselves.
Isa 3:10 Tell the righteous person that it will be well, for they will eat the fruit of their deeds.
Isa 3:11 Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for him, for the recompense of his hands will be done to him.
Isa 3:12 My people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. My people, those who guide you lead you astray and confuse the direction of your Path.
Isa 3:13 Yehowah stands up for an accusation; he is standing to accuse the people.
Isa 3:14 Yehowah will come with judgment against the elders of his people and their leaders: “You have ruined the vineyard; the plunder from the poor is in your houses.
Isa 3:15 Why do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?” declares Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Isa 3:16 Yehowah declares that because the daughters of Zion are proud, walk along with their heads high, and flirt with their eyes, mincing along as they go and making a tinkling with their feet,

Isa 3:17 therefore, the Lord will form diseased scabs on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and Yehowah will uncover their private parts.
Isa 3:18 On that Day, the Lord will remove their beautiful ankle jewelry, woven head bands, the crescent ornaments,
Isa 3:19 the ear pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;
Isa 3:20 the headscarves, the ankle chains, the sashes, the perfume boxes, and the lucky charms.
Isa 3:21 He will remove the rings and the nose jewels;
Isa 3:22 the festive robes, the mantles, the veils, and the handbags;
Isa 3:23 the (bronze) hand mirrors, the fine linen, the head pieces, and the wraps.
Isa 3:24 Instead of sweet perfume, there will be stench; and instead of a sash, a rope; instead of well-arranged hair, baldness; and instead of a robe, a covering of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.
Isa 3:25 Your men will fall by the sword, and your strong men will fall in war.
Isa 3:26 Jerusalem's gates will lament and mourn; and she will be alone and sit upon the ground.

Isaiah Chapter 4

Isa 4:1 On that Day, seven women will take hold of one man and plead, “Our own food we will eat, our own clothing we will wear, but let us take your name to remove our shame.”
Isa 4:2 On that Day, the Branch of Yehowah will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be tasty and delightful for those survivors in Israel.
Isa 4:3 It will happen that the one who is left in Zion and the one who remains in Jerusalem will be called set apart, everyone who is written down as living in Jerusalem.
Isa 4:4 This will happen when the Lord will have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and will have cleansed the blood stains from Jerusalem’s midst, by means of the Ruach of judgment and the Ruach of flaming fire.
Isa 4:5 Then over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her place of assembly, Yehowah will create cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; it will be a canopy over all the glory.
Isa 4:6 It will be a shelter for shade in the daytime from the heat, and a refuge and a cover from the storm and rain (Lev. 23:33-43).

Isaiah Chapter 5

Isa 5:1 Let me sing for my well beloved, a song of my beloved about his vineyard. My well beloved had a vineyard on a highly fertile hill.
Isa 5:2 He spaded it, removed the stones, and planted it with an excellent kind of vine. He built a tower in the middle of it and also built a winepress. He waited for it to produce grapes, but it only produced wild grapes.
Isa 5:3 So now, inhabitant of Jerusalem and man of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.
Isa 5:4 What more could have been done for my vineyard, that I have not done for it? When I looked for it to produce grapes, why did it produce wild grapes?
Isa 5:5 Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will remove the hedge, I will turn it into a pasture, I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down.
Isa 5:6 I will lay it waste, and it will not be pruned nor hoed. Instead, briers and thorns will spring up. I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.
Isa 5:7 For the vineyard of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is the house of Israel, and the person of Judah his pleasant planting; he waited for justice, but instead, there was killing; for righteousness, but instead, a shout for help (John 15:1; Psa. 80:8, 14-17; Jer. 5:10).
Isa 5:8 Woe to those who join house to house, who join field to field, until no room remains, and you alone remain in the land!
Isa 5:9 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces told me, many houses will be empty, even great and impressive ones, without any inhabitant.
Isa 5:10 For a ten-yoke vineyard will yield only 20 liters of wine, and 220 liters of seed will yield only 22 liters of grain.
Isa 5:11 Woe to those who rise up at the crack of dawn to obtain beer, those who linger late into the night, until wine inflames them.
Isa 5:12 They banquet with harp, lute, tambourine, flute, and wine, but they do not recognize the work of Yehowah, nor have they considered the doings of his hands.
Isa 5:13 Therefore, my people have gone into captivity for lack of understanding; their honored leaders go hungry, and their common people have nothing to drink.
Isa 5:14 Therefore, the place of the dead has made its appetite greater and has opened its mouth extremely wide; their elite, the people, their leaders, and the revelers, and those who are happy among them, descend into the place of the dead.
Isa 5:15 Man will be forced to bend down, and mankind will be humbled; the eyes of the lofty will be cast down.

Isa 5:16 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will be exalted in his justice, and Set-apart Almighty will show himself set apart by his righteousness.
Isa 5:17 Then the sheep will feed as in their own pasture, and in the ruins, lambs will graze as sojourners.
Isa 5:18 Woe to those who pull along iniquity with useless cords, and who pull along sin as if it were with a cart rope.
Isa 5:19 Woe to those who say, “Let Yehowah hurry, let him act quickly, so we can see it happen; and let the plans of the Set-apart One of Israel come, so that we may know them.”
Isa 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who represent darkness as light, and light as darkness; who represent bitter as sweet, and sweet as bitter!
Isa 5:21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own understanding!
Isa 5:22 Woe to those who are champions at drinking wine, and masters at mixing spices with fermented wine (Son. 8:2);
Isa 5:23 who acquit the wicked for payment, and deprive the innocent of his rights!
Isa 5:24 Therefore, as the tongue of fire devours stubble, and as the dry grass goes down in flame, so their root will rot, and their blossom will blow away like dust. This will happen, because they have rejected the Law of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, and because they have despised the word of the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 5:25 Therefore, the anger of Yehowah is kindled against his people. He has reached out with his hand against them and has punished them. The mountains tremble, and their corpses are like garbage in the streets. In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.
Isa 5:26 He will lift up a signal flag for far away ethnicities and will whistle for those at the end of the earth. Look, they will come speedily and promptly.
Isa 5:27 None tire or stumble among them; none slumbers or sleeps. Nor are their belts loose, or the thongs of their sandals broken.
Isa 5:28 Their arrows are sharp, and all their bows are bent; their horses’ hooves are like flint, and their chariot wheels like storms.
Isa 5:29 Their roaring will be like a lion; they will roar like young lions. They will growl, seize the prey, and drag it away, with none to rescue.
Isa 5:30 On that Day, they will roar against the prey as the sea roars. If anyone looks over the land, he will see darkness and suffering; even the light will be made dark by the clouds.

Isaiah Chapter 6

Isa 6:1 In the year that king Uzziah died (c. 739 BC), I saw the Lord sitting on a throne; he was high and elevated, and the tassels of his robe filled the temple.
Isa 6:2 Above him were the seraphim; each one had six wings; with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.
Isa 6:3 Each one called to another, “Set apart, set apart, set apart, is Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces! The whole earth is full of his glory!”
Isa 6:4 The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voices of those who were crying out, and the temple was filled with smoke.
Isa 6:5 Then I exclaimed, “Woe is me! For I am doomed, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, because my eyes have seen King Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces!”
Isa 6:6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me; he had a glowing coal in his hand that he had taken with the tongs from off the altar.
Isa 6:7 He touched my mouth with it, and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt has been taken away, and your sin atoned for.”
Isa 6:8 I heard the voice of the Lord ask, “Whom should I send; who will go for us?” Then I answered, “Here I am; send me.”
Isa 6:9 He ordered, “Go and tell this people, ‘Listen, but do not understand; see, but do not perceive.’
Isa 6:10 Make the heart of this people insensitive, and their ears deaf, and blind their eyes. Otherwise, they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and then turn and be healed” (Mat. 13:15; Mark 4:12; John 12:39-41).
Isa 6:11 Then I asked, “Lord, how long?” He answered, “Until cities crash into ruins and are without inhabitants, and the houses are without people, and the land falls into a desolate waste,
Isa 6:12 and until Yehowah has sent the people far away, and the solitude of the land is great.
Isa 6:13 Even if a tenth of the people remain in it, it will again be destroyed; as a terebinth or an oak is cut down, and whose trunk remains, the set-apart seed is in its stump.”

Isaiah Chapter 7

Isa 7:1 During the days of Ahaz son of Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but they could not prevail against it.
Isa 7:2 It was reported to the House of David that Aram was allied with Ephraim. His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest shake in the wind.
Isa 7:3 Then Yehowah ordered Isaiah, "Go out with your son Shear Jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool (John 5:2), on the road to Launderer's Field.
Isa 7:4 Tell him, 'Be careful, remain calm, do not be afraid or intimidated by these two smoldering firebrands, by the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, and of Pekah son of Remaliah.
Isa 7:5 Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have planned evil against you; they have said,
Isa 7:6 "Let us attack Judah and terrify her, and let us break into her and set up our king there, the son of Tabeel."
Isa 7:7 Lord Yehowah declares, "It will not take place; it will not happen,
Isa 7:8 because the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. Within sixty-five years, Ephraim will be shattered and will no longer be a people.
Isa 7:9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you do not remain firm in faith, surely you will not remain secure."""
Isa 7:10 Yehowah spoke again to Ahaz,
Isa 7:11 "Ask a sign of Yehowah your Divine One; ask for it in the depths or in the height above."
Isa 7:12 But Ahaz responded, "I will not ask, nor will I test Yehowah."
Isa 7:13 So Isaiah replied, "Listen, House of David. Is it not enough for you people to test the patience of people? Must you also test the patience of my Divine One?
Isa 7:14 Therefore, the Lord himself will give you people a sign: See, the virgin will conceive, bear a Son, and will call his name Immanuel (Mat. 1:23; Isa. 9:6).
Isa 7:15 He will eat curds and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good.
Isa 7:16 For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be desolate.
Isa 7:17 Yehowah will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house, days unlike any since Ephraim seceded from Judah; he will bring on you the king of Assyria."

Isa 7:18 At that time, Yehowah will whistle for a fly from the distant streams of Egypt, and for a bee from the land of Assyria.
Isa 7:19 They will all come and settle down into all the gorges, into the clefts of the rocks, on all the thorn bushes, and onto all the pastures.
Isa 7:20 At that time, the Lord will shave with a razor that was hired beyond the Euphrates River, the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the legs; it will also sweep away the beard.
Isa 7:21 On that day, a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep,
Isa 7:22 and because of the abundance of milk which they will give, he will eat curds, for everyone left in the land will eat curds and honey.
Isa 7:23 At that time, where there were a thousand vines worth 1,000-weight silver-currency, there will be nothing but briers and thorns.
Isa 7:24 Men will go there to hunt with bows, because all the land will be briers and thorns.
Isa 7:25 They will stay away from all the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, for fear of the briers and thorns; but it will be a place where cattle and sheep graze.

Isaiah Chapter 8

Isa 8:1 Yehowah ordered me, “Take a large tablet and write on it with a human pen, ‘Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’
Isa 8:2 I will summon faithful witnesses to attest for me, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah (Yeberekyahu).”
Isa 8:3 I went and made love to the prophetess, she conceived, and bore a son. Then Yehowah ordered me, “Call his name ‘Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’
Isa 8:4 For before the child knows to cry, ‘My father,’ and, ‘My mother,’ the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria.”
Isa 8:5 Yehowah spoke to me again,
Isa 8:6 “Because these people have refused the gentle waters of Shiloah (Siloam Tunnel), and are happy over Rezin and Remaliah’s son,
Isa 8:7 therefore, the Lord is about to bring up on them the waters of the (Euphrates) River, mighty and many, the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels and overflow its banks.
Isa 8:8 The River will sweep onward into Judah, flooding and passing on, until it reaches to your neck. Its outstretched wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel.”
Isa 8:9 You people will be broken to pieces. Listen, all you distant countries: Arm yourselves for war and be broken in pieces; arm yourselves and be broken in pieces.
Isa 8:10 Form a plan, but it will not be carried out; issue the command, but it will not be carried out, for the Almighty is with us.
Isa 8:11 Yehowah spoke to me, with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people.
Isa 8:12 Do not call conspiracy anything that this people calls conspiracy, you will not fear what they fear and do not be terrified.
Isa 8:13 It is Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces whom you will honor as consecrated; he is the One you must fear, and he is the One you must dread.
Isa 8:14 He will become a sanctuary; but he will be a Stone of striking, and a Rock of stumbling, for both the houses of Israel, and he will be a trap and a snare to the people of Jerusalem (Rom. 9:33; Isa. 28:16).
Isa 8:15 Many will stumble over it, fall, and be broken, and they will draw close, be ensnared, and captured.
Isa 8:16 Bind up my testimony, seal the law, and give it to my disciples.
Isa 8:17 I will wait for Yehowah, who hides his face from the house of Jacob; I will wait for him.

Isa 8:18 See, I and the sons whom Yehowah has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, who lives on Mount Zion.
Isa 8:19 They will say to you, “Consult with the necromancers and wizards,” those who chirp and mutter to conjure up dead spirits. But should a people not consult their Divine One? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living?
Isa 8:20 To the law and to the testimony! If they do not say such things, it is because they have no dawning light of truth in them.
Isa 8:21 They will pass through the land greatly distressed and hungry. When they are hungry, they will become angry and curse their king and their Divine One, as they turn their faces upward.
Isa 8:22 They will look at the earth and see distress, darkness, and oppressive gloom. They will be driven into a land of darkness.

Isaiah Chapter 9

Isa 9:1 The gloom will be dispelled from her who was in anguish. In an earlier time, he humiliated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the later time, he will make it glorious, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan River, Galilee of the ethnicities.
Isa 9:2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great Light; those who have lived in the land of the shadow of death, the Light has shone on them (Mat. 4:15-16).
Isa 9:3 You have multiplied the joy; you have increased the rejoicing. They rejoice before you like the joy at harvest time, as men rejoice when they divide the plunder.
Isa 9:4 For the yoke of his burden, the beam across his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have shattered as on the day of Midian.
Isa 9:5 For every boot treading in the tumult, and the garments rolled in blood, will be burned as fuel for the fire.
Isa 9:6 For to us a Child has been born, to us a Son has been given (John 3:16; Isa. 7:14); and the rule will be on his shoulder; and his name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Powerful Almighty, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.
Isa 9:7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, as he rules on the throne of David, and over his kingdom, to establish it and sustain it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will do this.
Isa 9:8 The Lord sent a word against Jacob, and it fell on Israel.
Isa 9:9 All the people will know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and with an arrogant heart,
Isa 9:10 “The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with chiseled stone; the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place.”
Isa 9:11 Therefore, Yehowah will raise up against him Rezin, his adversary, and will stir up his enemies,
Isa 9:12 the Arameans on the east, and the Philistines on the west. They will devour Israel with open mouth. In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.
Isa 9:13 Yet the people will not turn to him who struck them, nor will they seek Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Isa 9:14 Therefore, Yehowah will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.
Isa 9:15 The leader and the noble man are the head; and the prophet that teaches lies is the tail.

Isa 9:16 Those who lead this people lead them astray, and those who are led by them are swallowed up.
Isa 9:17 Therefore, the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, nor will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows, since every one is a hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks foolish things. In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.
Isa 9:18 Wickedness burns like a fire; it devours the briers and thorns; it even burns the thickets of the forest, which rise in a column of smoke.
Isa 9:19 Through the fury of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces the land is scorched, and the people are like fuel for the fire. No man spares his brother.
Isa 9:20 They will grab food on the right hand but still be hungry; they will eat food on the left hand but will not be satisfied. Each will even eat the flesh of his own arm.
Isa 9:21 Manasseh will devour Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together will attack Judah. In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah Chapter 10

Isa 10:1 Woe to those who enact unjust laws and write unfair decrees.
Isa 10:2 They deprive the needy of justice, rob the poor of my people of their rights, plunder widows, and make the fatherless their prey!
Isa 10:3 What will you do on Judgment Day, when the destruction comes from far away? To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth?
Isa 10:4 Nothing remains, and you crouch among the prisoners or fall among the killed. In all these things, his anger does not subside; instead, his hand is still stretched out.
Isa 10:5 Woe to the Assyrian, the club of my anger, the rod by whom I wield my fury!
Isa 10:6 I send him against an arrogant nation and against the people who bear my overflowing wrath. I order him to take the spoil, to take the prey, and to trample them like mud in the streets.
Isa 10:7 But this is not what he intends, nor does he think this way. It is in his heart to destroy and eliminate many ethnicities.
Isa 10:8 For he asks, “Are not all my princes kings?
Isa 10:9 Is not (the Neo-Hittite City of) Calno (Calneh; Amos 6:2) like (Neo-Hittite City of) Carchemish? Is not (the Neo-Hittite City of) Hamath like Arpad (2 Sam. 8:9)? Is not Samaria like Damascus?
Isa 10:10 As my hand has overcome idolatrous kingdoms, whose carved figures were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,
Isa 10:11 just as I did to Samaria and her worthless idols, will I not also do the same to Jerusalem and to her idols?”
Isa 10:12 When the Lord has finished his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the speech of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and his prideful looks.
Isa 10:13 For he boasts, “By my strength and by my wisdom I acted. I have understanding, and I have removed the boundaries of the people. I have stolen their treasures, and like a bull, I have brought down the inhabitants.
Isa 10:14 My hand has seized, as from a nest, the wealth of ethnicities, and as one gathers abandoned eggs, I gathered all the earth. None fluttered their wings or opened their mouth or chirped.”
Isa 10:15 Will the ax boast about itself against the one who wields it? Will the saw praise itself more than the one who cuts with it? It is as if a trekking pole could lift up those who raise it, or as if a wooden club could lift up a person.
Isa 10:16 Therefore, Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will send emaciation among his elite warriors; and under his glory there will be kindled a burning like fire.

Isa 10:17 The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Set-apart One a flame; it will burn and devour his thorns and briers in one day.
Isa 10:18 Yehowah will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful land, both soul and body; it will be like when a sick man's life wastes away.
Isa 10:19 The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few, that a child could count them.
Isa 10:20 On that Day, the remnant of Israel, the family of Jacob that has escaped, will no longer rely on the one who defeated them but will indeed depend on Yehowah, the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 10:21 A remnant of Jacob will return to Powerful Almighty.
Isa 10:22 For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the seashore, only a remnant of them will return (Acts 15:19). Destruction is decreed, as overflowing righteousness demands.
Isa 10:23 For Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is about to carry out the destruction determined throughout the land.
Isa 10:24 Therefore, Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares, "My people who live in Zion, do not fear the Assyrian. He will strike you with the rod and raise his club against you, as the Egyptians did.
Isa 10:25 Do not fear him, for in a moment of time my anger against you will end, and my anger will lead to his destruction."
Isa 10:26 Then Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will wield a whip against them, as when he defeated Midian at the rock of Oreb. He will raise his rod over the sea and lift it up as he did in Egypt.
Isa 10:27 On that Day, his burden is lifted from your shoulder and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing.
Isa 10:28 The enemy has come to Aiath and has passed through Migron; at Michmash he has stored his provisions.
Isa 10:29 They have crossed over the pass, and they lodge at Geba. Ramah trembles, and Gibeah of Saul has fled.
Isa 10:30 Cry aloud, daughter of Gallim! Give attention, Laishah! You poor Anathoth!
Isa 10:31 Madmenah is fleeing, and the inhabitants of Gebim run for safety.
Isa 10:32 This day, he will halt at Nob and shake his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem (2 Kings 19:35; Isa. 37:36-38; 2 Chron. 32:21).
Isa 10:33 Behold, Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will lop off the boughs with a terrifying crash; the tallest trees will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low.
Isa 10:34 He will chop down the thickets of the forest with an ax, and Lebanon in his majesty will fall.

Isaiah Chapter 11

Isa 11:1 A Shoot will sprout from the stump of Jesse, and a Branch out of his roots will bear fruit.
Isa 11:2 The Ruach of Yehowah will rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of instruction and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yehowah.
Isa 11:3 His delight will be the fear of Yehowah; he will not judge by what his eyes see, nor decide by what his ears hear.
Isa 11:4 Instead, he will judge the poor with righteousness and decide fairly for the humble of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.
Isa 11:5 Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his hips.
Isa 11:6 The cheetah will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat, the calf, the young lion, and stall-fed livestock will feed together. A little child will lead them.
Isa 11:7 The cow and the bear will graze together, and their young will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the ox.
Isa 11:8 A baby will play over the hole of the snake, and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den (Isa. 65:25; Hos. 2:18).
Isa 11:9 They will not hurt nor destroy on all my set-apart mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of Yehowah, as the waters cover the sea.
Isa 11:10 On that Day, the Root of Jesse will rise to rule over the people. The ethnicities will trust in him, and his resting place will be glorious.
Isa 11:11 On that Day, the Lord will again extend his hand to recover the remnant of his people who remain in Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the islands of the sea.
Isa 11:12 He will set up a banner for the ethnicities and will gather the outcasts of Israel and the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
Isa 11:13 He will turn aside the envy of Ephraim, and those hostile to Judah will be cut off. Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will no longer be hostile to Ephraim.
Isa 11:14 Instead, they will swoop down on the Philistine hills on the west, and together they will plunder the people of the east. They will attack Edom and Moab, and the people of Ammon will obey them.
Isa 11:15 Yehowah will completely destroy the gulf of the Sea of Egypt. With his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River and will divide it into seven streams, so it can be crossed over in sandals.

Isa 11:16 There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that return from Assyria, as there was for Israel in their coming up from the land of Egypt.

Isaiah Chapter 12

Isa 12:1 On that Day, you will say, “I will give thanks to you, Yehowah. For though you were angry with me, your wrath has turned away, and you have comforted me.
Isa 12:2 See, the Almighty is my salvation; I will trust and will not fear, for Yah, Yehowah is my strength and song. He has become my salvation” (Exo. 15:2; Psa. 118:14).
Isa 12:3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation (John 4:14; 7:38).
Isa 12:4 On that Day, you will say, “Worship Yehowah and call his name out loud; declare his deeds among the people, proclaim his name sublime.
Isa 12:5 Sing to Yehowah, for he has done glorious things; let this be known throughout the earth.
Isa 12:6 Cry aloud and shout for joy, you inhabitants of Zion, for great in your midst is the Set-apart One of Israel!”

Isaiah Chapter 13

Isa 13:1 A declaration about Babylon, that Isaiah son of Amoz received:
Isa 13:2 On the bare mountain set up a signal flag, cry aloud to them, wave your hand for them to go into the gates of the nobles.
Isa 13:3 I have commanded my consecrated ones, yes, I have called my mighty men to execute my anger, even my proudly exulting ones.
Isa 13:4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of many people! The noise of a tumult of the kingdoms like many ethnicities gathered together! Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is mustering the military force for the battle.
Isa 13:5 They come from a far country, from way over the horizon. It is Yehowah with his instruments of judgment, to destroy the whole land.
Isa 13:6 Howl, for the Day of Yehowah is near; it comes with destruction from the Most Powerful.
Isa 13:7 Therefore, all hands hang limp, and every heart melts.
Isa 13:8 They will be terrified; pain and agony will seize them, like a woman in labor. They will look in astonishment at one another; their faces will be aflame.
Isa 13:9 See, the Day of Yehowah comes with cruel wrath and overflowing anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy the sinners from it.
Isa 13:10 The stars of heaven and the constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened even from dawn, and the moon will not shine.
Isa 13:11 I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their iniquity. I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and will bring down the arrogance of the ruthless.
Isa 13:12 I will make men more rare than fine gold and mankind harder to find than the pure gold of Ophir.
Isa 13:13 Therefore, I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its orbit, by the fury of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, on the Day of his fierce anger.
Isa 13:14 Like a hunted gazelle or like a sheep with no shepherd, every man will turn toward his own people and will flee to his own land.
Isa 13:15 Every one who is found will be killed, and every one who is captured will die by the sword.
Isa 13:16 Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be plundered and their wives raped.
Isa 13:17 Look, I am about to stir up the Medes to attack them, who will not be concerned about silver, nor do they delight in gold.
Isa 13:18 Their arrows will pierce the young men. They will have no pity on babies and will not spare children.

Isa 13:19 Then Babylon, the most admired of kingdoms, the splendor of Chaldean pride, will be overthrown by the Almighty like Sodom and Gomorrah.
Isa 13:20 It will not be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation. The Arab will not pitch his tent there, nor will shepherds have their flocks rest there.
Isa 13:21 But wild animals of the desert will lie there. Their houses will be full of owls; ostriches and wild goats will skip about there.
Isa 13:22 Hyenas will cry in their fortresses and jackals in the beautiful palaces. Her time is near, and her days will not be delayed.

Isaiah Chapter 14

Isa 14:1 Yehowah will have compassion on Jacob; he will again choose Israel and restore them into their own land. Sojourning foreigners will join with them and attach themselves to the house of Jacob.
Isa 14:2 The ethnicities will bring them to their own place. Then the house of Israel will take them in the land of Yehowah as male and female servants. They will take captive those who had captured them, and they will rule over their oppressors.
Isa 14:3 On the day that Yehowah gives you rest from your suffering and anguish, and from the hard labor which you were required to perform,
Isa 14:4 you will sing this taunting song against the king of Babylon, “How the oppressor has come to an end, the proud fury ended!
Isa 14:5 Yehowah has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of those rulers,
Isa 14:6 who struck the people in wrath with unceasing blows, who ruled the ethnicities in anger, with an attack that was unrestrained.
Isa 14:7 The whole earth is at rest and is quiet; they begin celebrating with singing.
Isa 14:8 Even the cypress trees rejoice over you with the cedars of Lebanon; they say, ‘Since you are laid low, no woodcutter comes up to cut us down.’
Isa 14:9 The place of the dead below is eager to meet you when you go there. It arouses the dead for you, all the kings of the earth, making them rise up from their thrones, all the kings of the ethnicities.
Isa 14:10 They all will speak to you, ‘You have become as weak as us. You have become like us.
Isa 14:11 Your pomp has been brought down to the place of the dead with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread under you, and worms cover you.’
Isa 14:12 How you are fallen from Heaven, Daystar, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, you who conquered the ethnicities!
Isa 14:13 You had said in your heart, ‘I will ascend into Heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of the Almighty, and I will sit on the mount where they assemble for the appointment calendar festivals, in the far reaches of the north.
Isa 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.’
Isa 14:15 Yet you are now brought down to the place of the dead, to the depths of the pit.
Isa 14:16 Those who see you will gaze at you, and they will pay attention to you. They will ask, ‘Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms,

Isa 14:17 who made the globe like a wilderness, who overthrew its cities and did not let his prisoners go home?'
Isa 14:18 All the kings of the ethnicities, all of them lie down in honor, each one in his own tomb.
Isa 14:19 But you are cast out of your grave like a branch thrown away. The dead cover you like a garment, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit, as a carcass trampled under foot.
Isa 14:20 You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land and killed your people. The offspring of evildoers will never be mentioned again."
Isa 14:21 Prepare your slaughter for his children, for the iniquity of their ancestors, so they will not rise up and possess the earth and fill the whole globe with cities.
Isa 14:22 "I will rise up against them," declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. "I will cut off from Babylon name, descendant, and posterity," declares Yehowah.
Isa 14:23 "I will also make her into a possession of owls, and into pools of water, and I will sweep her with the broom of destruction," declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Isa 14:24 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has sworn, "Surely, as I have intended, so it will come about; and as I have purposed, so it will be:
Isa 14:25 I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him under foot. Then his yoke will be lifted from off them and his burden from off their shoulder."
Isa 14:26 This is the plan that is intended for the whole earth, and this is the hand that is raised over all the ethnicities.
Isa 14:27 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has planned this; who will stop him? His hand is raised, and who will turn it back?
Isa 14:28 In the year (c. 724 BC) that king Ahaz died, this declaration came:
Isa 14:29 Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken. For out of the serpent's root will grow out a viper, and his offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.
Isa 14:30 The firstborn of the poor will graze their sheep in my pastures, and the needy will lie down in safety. I will kill your root with famine that will put to death all your survivors.
Isa 14:31 Howl, gate; cry, city; all of you will melt away, Philistia. For out of the north comes a cloud of smoke, and there is no straggler in his ranks.
Isa 14:32 How then will one answer the messengers of that ethnicity? That Yehowah has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will find refuge.

Isaiah Chapter 15

Isa 15:1 A declaration about Moab. Indeed, in one night Ar of Moab is laid waste and destroyed; indeed, in one night Kir of Moab is laid waste and destroyed.
Isa 15:2 They have gone up to the temple, the people of Dibon went up to the heights to weep; Moab laments over Nebo and over Medeba. All their heads are shaved bare, and all their beards are cut off.
Isa 15:3 In their streets they wear sackcloth; on their housetops and in the square everyone wails, melting in tears.
Isa 15:4 Heshbon and Elealeh call out for help; their sound is heard as far as Jahaz. So the armed men of Moab call out for help; they tremble within themselves.
Isa 15:5 My heart cries out for Moab; her fugitives flee to Zoar and to Eglath Shelishiyah. They go up the ascent of Luhith weeping; on the road to Horonaim they loudly wail over their destruction.
Isa 15:6 The waters of Nimrim have dried up; the grass is withered away, and the new grass dies; nothing is green.
Isa 15:7 The abundance they have grown and stored they carry away over the brook of the poplars.
Isa 15:8 The cry has gone around the territory of Moab; the wailing as far as Eglaim and Beer Elim.
Isa 15:9 For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; but I will bring even more upon Dimon. A lion will attack those who escape from Moab and also those remaining in the land.

Isaiah Chapter 16

Isa 16:1 Send rams to the ruler of the land from Sela (Petra), in the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.
Isa 16:2 As wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so the women of Moab are at the fords of the Arnon River (aka Zarqa River).
Isa 16:3 “Give instruction, execute justice; provide some shade like night in the middle of the day; hide the fugitives; do not betray the fugitives.
Isa 16:4 Let them live among you, the refugees from Moab; be a hiding place for them from the destroyer.” For the oppression will stop, and destruction will cease, those who trample will disappear from the land.
Isa 16:5 A throne will be established in covenant faithfulness; and One from David’s tabernacle will faithfully sit there. He will judge as he seeks justice and does righteousness.
Isa 16:6 We have heard of Moab’s pride, his arrogance, his boasting, and his anger. But his boastings are empty words.
Isa 16:7 So Moab wails for Moab, they all wail! Mourn, you who are utterly destroyed, for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.
Isa 16:8 The fields of Heshbon have dried up as well as the vines of Sibmah. The rulers of the ethnicities have trampled the choice vines that reached to Jazer and spread into the desert. Its shoots spread abroad; they went over to the sea.
Isa 16:9 Indeed, I will weep along with Jazer for the vineyard of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh. For on your fields of summer fruit and harvest, I have ended the shouts of joy.
Isa 16:10 Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruit tree groves; and there is no singing or shouts in the vineyards. No one treads out wine in the presses, for I have put an end to the shouts of the one who treads.
Isa 16:11 So my heart sighs like a harp for Moab and my inward being for Kir Hareseth.
Isa 16:12 When Moab wears himself out on the high place and enters his temple to pray, his prayers will accomplish nothing.
Isa 16:13 This is the word that Yehowah spoke concerning Moab previously.
Isa 16:14 Again Yehowah prophesies, “Within three years, the glory of Moab will disappear; in spite of his many people, the remnant will be so few and insignificant.”

Isaiah Chapter 17

Isa 17:1 A declaration about Damascus: Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruined heap.
Isa 17:2 The cities of Aroer will be abandoned. They will be places for flocks to lie down, and no one will frighten them.
Isa 17:3 Fortified cities will disappear from Ephraim, the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Aram, they will be like the glory of the people of Israel, declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Isa 17:4 It will come about on that day that the glory of Jacob will become thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean.
Isa 17:5 It will be as when a harvester gathers the standing grain, and his arm reaps the heads of grain. It will be as when one gleans heads of grain in the Valley of Giants.
Isa 17:6 Gleanings will be left, however, as when the olive tree is shaken: two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the highest branches of a fruitful tree, declares Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
Isa 17:7 On that Day, men will look toward their Maker, and their eyes will look to the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 17:8 They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands, nor will they look to what their fingers have made, the Asherah poles or the sun-pillars.
Isa 17:9 On that Day, their strong cities will be like the abandoned wooded slopes on the hill summits, that were forsaken because of the people of Israel, and that will become a desolation.
Isa 17:10 For you have forgotten the Mighty One of your salvation and have ignored the Rock of your strength. So you plant pleasant plants and set out profane vine branches,
Isa 17:11 on the day you plant, hedge, and cultivate. Soon your seed will grow, but the harvest will fail on a day of grief and of desperate sorrow.
Isa 17:12 Woe! The uproar of many people, that roar like the roaring of the seas, and the rushing of ethnicities, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters!
Isa 17:13 The ethnicities will roar like the rushing of many waters, but Yehowah will rebuke them. They will flee far away and will be chased as the dead weeds on the mountains before the wind, and like weeds whirling before a storm.
Isa 17:14 At dusk, see, terror! Before dawn they will be gone! This is the portion of those who loot us, the lot of those who rob us.

Isaiah Chapter 18

Isa 18:1 Woe to the land of the rustling of wings, which is along the rivers of Cush;
Isa 18:2 who send ambassadors by the sea, in vessels of papyrus on the waters. Go, you swift messengers, to an ethnicity tall and smooth, to a people feared far and near, an ethnicity strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide.
Isa 18:3 All you inhabitants of the globe, and you who live on the earth, when a signal is lifted up on the mountains, look; and when the trumpet is blown, listen.
Isa 18:4 This is what Yehowah said to me, “I will quietly observe from my home, like the simmering heat in sunshine, like a cloud of mist in the heat of harvest.
Isa 18:5 Before the harvest, when the blossoming is over, and the flower is ripening into a grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning knives, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches.
Isa 18:6 They will be left together for the birds of the mountains and for the animals of the earth. The birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them.”
Isa 18:7 At that time, tribute will be brought to Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared far and near, an ethnicity strong and trampling down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, to Mount Zion.

Isaiah Chapter 19

Isa 19:1 A declaration about Egypt. See, Yehowah rides on a swift cloud and is coming to Egypt; the idols of Egypt quake before him, and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within themselves.
Isa 19:2 “I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians: A man will fight against his brother, and a man against his neighbor; city will be against city, and kingdom against kingdom.
Isa 19:3 The spirit of Egypt will be weakened from within. I will destroy his advice, though they sought the advice of idols, mediums, necromancers, and wizards who conjure up dead spirits.
Isa 19:4 I will give the Egyptians into the hand of a harsh master, and a strong king will rule over them,” declares Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Isa 19:5 The waters of the sea will dry up, and the river will dry up and become empty.
Isa 19:6 The rivers will become foul; the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up; the reed and pool will wither away.
Isa 19:7 The vegetation by the Nile, by the mouth of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile will dry up, turn to dust, and blow away.
Isa 19:8 The fishermen will wail and mourn, and all who cast a hook into the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will grieve.
Isa 19:9 The workers in combed flax and those who weave white linen will turn pale.
Isa 19:10 The cloth workers of Egypt will be crushed; all who work for hire will be grieved within themselves.
Isa 19:11 The princes of Zoan are completely foolish. The advice of the wisest advisors of Pharaoh has become senseless. How can you say to Pharaoh, “I am the son of wise men, a son of ancient kings?”
Isa 19:12 Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you and make known what Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces plans concerning Egypt.
Isa 19:13 The princes of Zoan have become fools, the princes of Memphis are deceived; they have made Egypt go astray, who are the cornerstones of her tribes.
Isa 19:14 Yehowah has mixed a spirit of distortion into her midst, and they have led Egypt astray in all she does, like a drunk staggering in his vomit.
Isa 19:15 There is nothing anyone can do for Egypt, whether head or tail, palm branch or reed.
Isa 19:16 In that Day, the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the upraised hand of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces that he raises over them.

Isa 19:17 The land of Judah will become a cause of staggering to Egypt. Whenever anyone reminds them of her, they will be afraid, because of the plan of Yehowah, that he is planning against them.
Isa 19:18 In that Day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. One of these cities will be called The City of the Sun (On-Heliopolis, destruction).
Isa 19:19 In that Day, there will be an altar to Yehowah in the middle of the land of Egypt and a stone pillar at the border to Yehowah.
Isa 19:20 It will be as a sign and a witness to Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces in the land of Egypt. When they cry to Yehowah because of oppressors, he will send them a Savior and a Defender, and he will deliver them.
Isa 19:21 Yehowah will become known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will acknowledge Yehowah on that Day. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings, and will make vows to Yehowah and fulfill them.
Isa 19:22 Yehowah will afflict Egypt, afflicting and healing. They will return to Yehowah; he will hear their prayer and will heal them.
Isa 19:23 In that Day, there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come to Egypt, and the Egyptian to Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.
Isa 19:24 In that Day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth;
Isa 19:25 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will bless them, “Blessed be Egypt, my people; Assyria, the work of my hands; and Israel, my inheritance.”

Isaiah Chapter 20

Isa 20:1 In the year (c. 712 BC) that Tartan (Sennacherib) came to Ashdod, when Sargon II the king of Assyria sent him, he fought against Ashdod and took it (c. 711 BC).
Isa 20:2 At that time, Yehowah ordered Isaiah son of Amoz, “Go and remove the sackcloth from your waist, and take your sandals off your feet.” He did so, walking naked and barefoot.
Isa 20:3 Yehowah said, “Just as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years, it is a sign and an omen concerning Egypt and concerning Cush.
Isa 20:4 In this way, the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.
Isa 20:5 They will be dismayed and ashamed because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their glory.
Isa 20:6 The inhabitants of these coasts will ask on that day, ‘Indeed, this was our source of hope, where we fled for help to be rescued from the king of Assyria, and now, how can we escape?’”

Isaiah Chapter 21

Isa 21:1 A declaration about the desert by the sea. Like storm winds sweeping through the Negev, it comes passing through from the wilderness, from a terrible land.
Isa 21:2 A distressing vision has been given to me: the treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up and attack, Elam; besiege, Media; I will stop all her groaning.
Isa 21:3 Therefore, my loins are filled with pain; pains like the pains of a woman in labor have taken hold of me; I am bowed down by what I heard; I am disturbed by what I saw.
Isa 21:4 My heart pounds, I shake with fear. Early evening, my favorite time of day, has brought me terror.
Isa 21:5 They prepare the table, they spread rugs and eat and drink; arise, princes, anoint your shields with oil.
Isa 21:6 For this is what the Lord commanded me, "Go, post a watchman; he must report what he sees.
Isa 21:7 When he sees a chariot, a pair of cavalry, riders on jack donkeys, and riders on camels, then he must pay attention and be on high alert."
Isa 21:8 And he who saw it cried, "O Lord, on the watchtower I stand all day, every day, and at my post I stand all night long!"
Isa 21:9 Here comes a chariot with a man and a pair of cavalry. He calls out, "Babylon has fallen, fallen, and all the carved figures of its deities are broken to the ground" (Rev. 18:2)!
Isa 21:10 My threshed and winnowed ones, children of my threshing floor! What I have heard from Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, I have declared to you.
Isa 21:11 A declaration about Dumah. One calls to me from Seir, "Watchman, what is left of the night? Watchman, what is left of the night?"
Isa 21:12 The watchman answered, "Dawn comes and also the night. If you want to ask, then ask; and come back again."
Isa 21:13 A declaration about Arabia. In the wilderness of Arabia you spend the night, you caravans of Dedanites.
Isa 21:14 Bring water for the thirsty; inhabitants of the land of Tema, meet the fugitives with bread.
Isa 21:15 For they have fled from the sword, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the weight of war.
Isa 21:16 For this is what the Lord prophesied to me, "Within a year, as a laborer hired for a year would see it, all the glory of Kedar will end.

Isa 21:17 Only a few of the archers, the warriors of Kedar, will remain,” for Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, has spoken.

Isaiah Chapter 22

Isa 22:1 A declaration about the Valley of Vision: What is the reason that you have all gone up to the housetops?
Isa 22:2 Is it so you may hear a city full of noises, a town full of revelry? Your dead were not killed with the sword, and they did not die in battle.
Isa 22:3 All your rulers fled away together, but they were captured without using a bow; all of them were captured together, though they had fled far away.
Isa 22:4 Therefore, I said, “Do not look at me, I will weep bitterly; do not try to comfort me concerning the destruction of the daughter of my people.”
Isa 22:5 For there is a day of tumult, treading down, and confusion from Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, in the Valley of Vision, a breaking down of the walls, and people crying out for help to his Set-apart Place on the mountain.
Isa 22:6 Elam takes up the quiver, with chariots of men and cavalry, and Kir lays the shield bare.
Isa 22:7 It will come about that your choicest valleys will be full of chariots, and the cavalry will take their positions at the gate.
Isa 22:8 He took away the protection of Judah; and you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest.
Isa 22:9 You saw the breaches of the City of David, that they were many, and you collected the water of the lower pool.
Isa 22:10 You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you tore down the houses to strengthen the wall.
Isa 22:11 You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool (John 9:7). But you did not consider the city’s Maker, who had planned it long ago.
Isa 22:12 Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces called on that day for weeping, for mourning, for shaved heads, and the wearing of sackcloth.
Isa 22:13 But look, instead, celebration and gladness, killing cattle and slaughtering sheep, eating meat and drinking wine; let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die!
Isa 22:14 This was revealed in my ears by Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces: “Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you, even when you die,” declares Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Isa 22:15 Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this, “Go to this administrator, to Shebna, who is over the household and ask,
Isa 22:16 ‘What are you doing here, and who gave you permission to cut out a tomb for yourself, hewing out a grave on the heights and carving out a resting place in the rock?’”

Isa 22:17 See, Yehowah is about to throw you down, a mighty man; he will grasp you tightly.
Isa 22:18 He will surely wind you round and round, and toss you like a ball into a vast country. There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will be; you will be the shame of your master's household!
Isa 22:19 "I will thrust you from your office and from your station. You will be pulled down.
Isa 22:20 It will come about on that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah.
Isa 22:21 I will clothe him with your tunic and put on him your sash, and I will transfer your authority into his hand. He will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
Isa 22:22 I will place the key of the House of David on his shoulder; he will open, and none will shut; he will shut, and none will open.
Isa 22:23 I will fasten him, a peg in a secure place, and he will become a seat of glory for his father's household.
Isa 22:24 They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and descendants, every small container from the cups to all the jugs.
Isa 22:25 On that day," declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, "the peg driven in a firm place will give way, break off, and fall, and the weight that was on it will be cut off, for Yehowah has spoken."

Isaiah Chapter 23

Isa 23:1 A declaration about Tyre: Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for there is neither home nor harbor; from the land of Cyprus it has been revealed to them.
Isa 23:2 Be silent, you inhabitants of the coast; the merchant of Sidon, who travels over the sea, has filled you.
Isa 23:3 Upon the great waters was the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile was her produce; and it became the commerce of the ethnicities.
Isa 23:4 Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the chief of the sea. He says, "I have not labored nor given birth, nor have I raised young men nor brought up young women."
Isa 23:5 When the intelligence report comes to Egypt, they will be grieved concerning Tyre.
Isa 23:6 Cross over to Tarshish; wail, you inhabitants of the coast.
Isa 23:7 Has this happened to you, the joyful city, whose origin is from ancient times, whose feet carried her far away to foreign places to settle?
Isa 23:8 Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the honored ones of the earth?
Isa 23:9 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has planned it to dishonor her pride and all her glory, to shame all her honored ones of the earth.
Isa 23:10 Plow your land, as one plows the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no longer a marketplace in Tyre.
Isa 23:11 Yehowah has reached out with his hand over the sea, and he has shaken the kingdoms; he has given a command concerning Phoenicia (modern Lebanon), to destroy the strongholds.
Isa 23:12 He declared, "You will not rejoice again, oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon; arise, pass over to Cyprus; but neither there will you have rest."
Isa 23:13 See the land of the Chaldeans. This people has ceased to be; the Assyrians have made it a wilderness for wild animals. They set up their siege towers; they demolished its palaces; they made it a heap of ruins.
Isa 23:14 Howl, you ships of Tarshish; for your refuge has been destroyed.
Isa 23:15 In that day, Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days of a king. After the end of seventy years there will happen in Tyre something like in the song of the prostitute.
Isa 23:16 Take a harp, go about the city, you forgotten prostitute; play it well, sing many songs, so that you may be remembered.
Isa 23:17 It will come about that after seventy years, Yehowah will help Tyre, and she will start making money again by doing the work of a prostitute, and she will offer her services to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Isa 23:18 Her profits and earnings will be set apart to Yehowah. They will not be stored up or kept in the treasury, for her profits will be given to those who live in the presence of Yehowah and will be used to supply them with abundant food, and so they can have the best quality clothing.

Isaiah Chapter 24

Isa 24:1 Look, Yehowah is about to empty the earth, to devastate it, mar its surface, and scatter its inhabitants.
Isa 24:2 It will come about that, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the receiver of interest, so with the payer of interest.
Isa 24:3 The earth will be completely devastated and completely stripped; for Yehowah has spoken this word.
Isa 24:4 The earth dries up and withers, the globe shrivels up and fades away, the prominent people of the earth waste away.
Isa 24:5 The earth is polluted by its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the law, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant.
Isa 24:6 Therefore, a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants are found guilty. The inhabitants of the earth burn up, and few people are left.
Isa 24:7 The new wine dries up, the vine withers, all the merry hearted groan.
Isa 24:8 The happy sound of the tambourines stops, and the revelry of those who rejoice; the joy of the lyre ceases.
Isa 24:9 They no longer drink wine and sing, and the beer is bitter to those who drink it.
Isa 24:10 The city of chaos has been broken down; every house is closed up and empty.
Isa 24:11 There is a crying in the streets because of the wine; all joy is darkened, the gladness of the land has disappeared.
Isa 24:12 In the city is left a desolation, and the gate is broken into a ruin.
Isa 24:13 For this is how it will be on the whole earth among the ethnicities, as when an olive tree is beaten, as the gleanings when the grape harvest is done.
Isa 24:14 They will lift up their voices and shout the majesty of Yehowah, and will joyfully shout from the sea!
Isa 24:15 Therefore, in the East glorify Yehowah, and in the isles of the sea give glory to the name of Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel.
Isa 24:16 From the farthest part of the earth we have heard songs, “Glory to the Righteous One!” But I said, “I have wasted away, I have wasted away, woe is me! The treacherous have dealt treacherously; yes, the treacherous have dealt quite treacherously.”
Isa 24:17 Terror, the pit, and the snare are upon you, inhabitants of the earth.
Isa 24:18 Then he who flees from the sound of terror will fall into the pit, and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be caught in the snare. The sluicegates of the heavens will be opened, and the foundations of the earth will shake (Gen. 7:11).

Isa 24:19 The earth will be completely broken, the earth ripped apart; the earth will be violently shaken.
Isa 24:20 The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and it will sway back and forth like a hut. Its sin will be heavy on it, and it will fall and never rise again.
Isa 24:21 It will come about on that Day, that Yehowah will punish the armed forces of the high ones on high and the kings of the earth on the earth.
Isa 24:22 They will be gathered together, prisoners in a pit, and will be shut up in a prison; and after many days, they will be punished.
Isa 24:23 Then the full moon will be ashamed, and the sun disgraced, for Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before his elders in glory.

Isaiah Chapter 25

Isa 25:1 Yehowah, you are my Divine One; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in perfect faithfulness and truth.
Isa 25:2 For you have made the city a heap, a fortified city, a ruin, and a fortress of foreigners into no city; it will never be rebuilt.
Isa 25:3 Therefore, a strong people will glorify you; a city of ruthless ethnicities will fear you.
Isa 25:4 For you have been a place of safety for the one who is poor, a shelter for the one who is needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm, and a shade from the heat. When the breath of the ruthless was like a storm against a wall,
Isa 25:5 and like heat in a dry land, you subdued the noise of foreigners, as the heat is subdued by the shade of a cloud, so the song of the ruthless ones is answered.
Isa 25:6 On this mountain, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will make for all ethnicities a feast of fat things, of choice wines, of tender meats, a feast on the strained dregs.
Isa 25:7 He will destroy on this mountain the covering over all people, the web woven over all the ethnicities.
Isa 25:8 He will swallow up death forever, and Lord Yehowah will wipe away tears from off all faces; the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Yehowah has spoken it.
Isa 25:9 It will be said on that Day, “Look, this is our Divine One; we have waited for him, and he will save us. This is Yehowah; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.”
Isa 25:10 For on this mountain the hand of Yehowah will rest; and Moab will be trampled down in his place, even as straw is trampled down in a pit filled with manure.
Isa 25:11 They will spread their hands in the midst of it, as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim. But Yehowah will bring down their pride in spite of the skill of their hands.
Isa 25:12 Your high fortress walls he will bring down to the ground, to the dust.

Isaiah Chapter 26

Isa 26:1 In that Day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; Yehowah has made salvation its walls and ramparts.
Isa 26:2 Open the gates, that the righteous and faithful nation may enter in.
Isa 26:3 The mind that is stayed on you, you will keep him in perfect peace, for he trusts in you.
Isa 26:4 Trust in Yehowah forever; for Yah, Yehowah is the Rock of Ages.
Isa 26:5 For he will bring down those who live proudly; the fortified city he will lay low, he will lay low to the ground; he will level it to the dust.
Isa 26:6 It will be trampled down by the feet of the poor and the treading of the needy.
Isa 26:7 The Path of the righteous is level, Righteous One; the Path of the righteous you make straight.
Isa 26:8 Yes, in the Path of your judgments, Yehowah, we eagerly wait for you; your name and your reputation are our desire.
Isa 26:9 I have longed for you in the night; yes, my spirit within me seeks you earnestly. For when your judgments come on the earth, the inhabitants of the globe learn righteousness.
Isa 26:10 Let grace be shown to the wicked one, but he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness, he acts wickedly and does not see the majesty of Yehowah.
Isa 26:11 Yehowah, your hand is lifted up, but they do not notice. But they will see your zeal for the people and be put to shame, because fire of your adversaries will devour them.
Isa 26:12 Yehowah, you will bring about peace for us; for indeed, you have also accomplished all our works for us.
Isa 26:13 Yehowah our Divine One, other masters besides you have ruled over us; but we acknowledge your name alone.
Isa 26:14 They are dead, they will not live; they are deceased, they will not arise. Indeed, you came in judgment and destroyed them, and made every memory of them to perish.
Isa 26:15 You have increased the nation, Yehowah, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have extended all the borders of the land.
Isa 26:16 Yehowah, in trouble have they looked to you; they whispered prayers when your discipline was on them.
Isa 26:17 As a pregnant woman nears the time for her to give birth, when she is in pain and cries out in her labor pains, so we have been before you, Yehowah.

Isa 26:18 We have been pregnant, we have been in labor, but it is as if we have only given birth to wind. We have not brought salvation to the earth, and the inhabitants of the globe have not fallen.
Isa 26:19 Your dead will live; their dead bodies will arise. Awake and sing for joy, you who live in the dust; for your dew is healing for them, and the earth will bring forth its dead (Dan. 12:2)!
Isa 26:20 Go, my people, enter into your rooms and shut your doors behind you; hide for a little while, until the indignation has passed by.
Isa 26:21 For look, Yehowah is about to come out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity; the earth will uncover her bloodshed, and will no longer conceal her murdered ones.

Isaiah Chapter 27

Isa 27:1 On that Day, Yehowah with his hard, great, and fierce sword will punish Leviathan the slithering serpent, Leviathan the squirming serpent, and he will kill the sea monster.
Isa 27:2 In that Day: a vineyard of wine, sing of it.
Isa 27:3 “I, Yehowah, am its protector; I water it every moment, so that no one hurts it; I guard it night and day.
Isa 27:4 I am not angry: Oh, that there were briers and thorns! In battle, I would march against them; I would burn them all together;
Isa 27:5 unless they grasp my protection and make peace with me; let them make peace with me.
Isa 27:6 In the coming Day, Jacob will take root; Israel will blossom and bud; and they will fill the surface of the globe with fruit.”
Isa 27:7 Has Yehowah attacked Jacob and Israel as he attacked those ethnicities who attacked them? Have Jacob and Israel been killed as in the slaughter of those ethnicities that were killed by them?
Isa 27:8 In exact measure you have contended, sending Jacob and Israel away; he drove them away with his severe wind, on the Day of the east wind.
Isa 27:9 So in this Way, the iniquity of Jacob will be atoned for, for this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin: When he will make all the altar stones as chalk and crushed to pieces, and no Asherah poles or sun-pillars will remain standing.
Isa 27:10 For the fortified city is desolate, the habitation is deserted and forsaken like the wilderness. There a calf feeds, and there he lies down and consumes its branches.
Isa 27:11 When the boughs are withered, they will be broken off. Women will come and make fires with them, for this is not a people of understanding. Therefore, their Maker will not have compassion on them, and he who made them will not be merciful to them.
Isa 27:12 It will come about on that Day, that Yehowah will thresh from the Euphrates River to the Wadi of Egypt, and you, the people of Israel, will be gathered together one by one.
Isa 27:13 On that Day, a great trumpet will be blown; and the perishing ones in the land of Assyria will come, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, they will worship Yehowah on the set-apart mountain in Jerusalem (Mat. 24:31).

Isaiah Chapter 28

Isa 28:1 Woe to the proud garland crown that is worn by each of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of its glorious beauty, the garland that is set on the head of the lush valley of those who are overcome with wine!
Isa 28:2 Behold, the Lord sends One who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail and a destructive windstorm, like a driving rain and overflowing waters; and he will throw each garland crown down to the ground.
Isa 28:3 The proud garland of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden underfoot.
Isa 28:4 The fading flower of his glorious beauty, that is on the head of the rich valley, will be as the first ripe fig before the summer, that, when someone sees it, while it is yet in his hand, he gulps it down.
Isa 28:5 In that Day, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will become a beautiful crown and a diadem of beauty for the remainder of his people,
Isa 28:6 a spirit of justice for him who sits in judgment, and strength for those who turn back their enemies at their gates.
Isa 28:7 But even these reel with wine (false doctrine), and stagger with beer (false doctrine). The priest and the prophet reel with beer, and they are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with beer, staggering in vision and reeling in judgment.
Isa 28:8 Truly, all tables are covered with vomit and filth, so that there is no clean place.
Isa 28:9 To whom will he teach knowledge, and to whom will he explain the message? To those who are weaned from milk or to those just taken from the breasts?
Isa 28:10 For it is command upon command, command upon command; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little.
Isa 28:11 Indeed, with mocking lips he will speak multilingually to this people (1 Cor. 14:21).
Isa 28:12 In the past, he said to them, “This is the rest, give rest to him who is weary; and this is the refreshing,” but they would not listen.
Isa 28:13 So the Word of Yehowah will be to them command upon command, command upon command; rule upon rule, rule upon rule; here a little, there a little; so that they may go and fall backward, and be broken, ensnared, and captured.
Isa 28:14 So listen to the Word of Yehowah, you who mock, you who rule over this people who are in Jerusalem.
Isa 28:15 This will happen, because you said, “We have made a covenant with death, and with the place of the dead we have reached an agreement. So when the overwhelming whip passes through, it will not reach us. For we have made a lie our refuge and taken shelter in falsehood.”

Isa 28:16 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares, “See: I will lay in Zion an established Stone, a testing Stone, a precious Cornerstone, a sure Foundation. He who believes on him will not be ashamed (Rom. 9:33).
Isa 28:17 I will make justice the measuring stick and righteousness the plumb line. Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the floodwaters will overwhelm the hiding place.
Isa 28:18 Your covenant with death will be dissolved, and your agreement with the place of the dead will not stand. When the conquering whip passes through, you will be overwhelmed by it.
Isa 28:19 Whenever it passes through, it will overwhelm you, and morning by morning it will pass through and by day and night it will come. When the message is understood, it will cause terror.
Isa 28:20 For the bed is too short for a man to stretch out on, and the blanket too narrow for him to wrap himself in.”
Isa 28:21 Yehowah will rise up as on Mount Perazim; he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon to do his work, his strange work, and perform his strange deed.
Isa 28:22 Now therefore, do not mock, or your bonds will be tightened. I have heard from Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, a decree of destruction on the earth.
Isa 28:23 Pay attention and listen to my voice; be attentive and listen to my words.
Isa 28:24 Does a farmer who plows all day to sow, only plow the ground? Does he continually break up and harrow the field?
Isa 28:25 When he has prepared the ground, does he not scatter caraway seed, sow the cumin, put in the wheat in rows and the barley in the right place, and the spelt at its edges?
Isa 28:26 His Divine One instructs him; he teaches him wisely.
Isa 28:27 Moreover, the caraway seed is not threshed with a sledge, nor is a cartwheel rolled over the cumin; but caraway is beaten with a trekking pole, and cumin with a rod.
Isa 28:28 Grain is ground for bread but not too finely, and though the wheels of his cart and his horses scatter it, his horses do not crush it.
Isa 28:29 This too comes from Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, who is wonderful in instruction and excellent in wisdom.

Isaiah Chapter 29

Isa 29:1 Woe to Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the Feasts come round.
Isa 29:2 But I will besiege Ariel, and she will be mourning and lamenting; and she will be to me like Ariel.
Isa 29:3 I will encamp against you in a circle and will lay siege against you with a palisade, and I will raise siege works against you.
Isa 29:4 You will be brought down and will speak from the ground; your speech will be low from the dust. Your voice will be like a dead spirit, and your speech will be a faint whisper from the dust.
Isa 29:5 The horde of your invaders will be like dust particles, and the multitude of the ruthless ones as chaff that passes away. It will happen suddenly, in an instant.
Isa 29:6 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will come to you with thunder, earthquake, great noise, with strong winds and violent storm, and the flames of a devouring fire.
Isa 29:7 It will be like a dream, a vision of the night: A horde of all the ethnicities will fight against Ariel and her stronghold. They will attack her and her fortifications to press upon her.
Isa 29:8 It will be like when a hungry man dreams he is eating, but when he awakes, his stomach is empty. It will be like when a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking, but when he awakes, he is fainting, with his thirst not quenched. Yes, so will be the great number of ethnicities that fights against Mount Zion.
Isa 29:9 Astonish yourselves and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind! Be drunk, but not with wine (false doctrine); stagger, but not with beer (false doctrine).
Isa 29:10 For Yehowah has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep. He has closed your eyes, the prophets and chiefs, and has covered your heads, the seers.
Isa 29:11 All revelation has become to you as the words of a Book that is sealed, which men might give to one who is learned, entreating, “Read this, please.” He also says, “I cannot, for it is sealed.”
Isa 29:12 If the Book is given to one who cannot read, entreating, “Read this, please,” he says, “I cannot read.”
Isa 29:13 The Lord said, “This people comes close to me with their mouths and honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Their reverence for me is only a commandment of people that has been taught (Mat. 15:8-9; Mark 7:6-7).

Isa 29:14 Therefore, see, I will proceed to do a marvelous thing among this people, wonder after miracle. The wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will disappear."
Isa 29:15 Woe to those who deeply hide their plans from Yehowah, and whose deeds are in darkness. They ask, "Who sees us, and who knows us?"
Isa 29:16 You turn things upside down! Should the potter be considered like clay, so that the thing that is made should say about him who made it, "He did not make me," or the thing formed say about him who formed it, "He does not understand?"
Isa 29:17 In just a little while, Lebanon will be turned into a field, and the field will become a forest.
Isa 29:18 On that Day, the deaf will hear the words of a Book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of the deep darkness.
Isa 29:19 The oppressed will again rejoice in Yehowah, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 29:20 For the ruthless will cease, and the scoffer will vanish. All those who love to do evil will be executed,
Isa 29:21 who by a word make a man out to be an offender. They lay a snare for him who seeks justice at the gate and put the righteous down with empty lies.
Isa 29:22 Therefore, this is what Yehowah says concerning the house of Jacob, Yehowah, who redeemed Abraham, "Jacob will no longer be ashamed, nor will his face be pale.
Isa 29:23 But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, they will sanctify my name. They will consecrate the name of the Set-apart One of Jacob, and they will stand in awe of the Mighty One of Israel.
Isa 29:24 Those who err in spirit will gain understanding, and complainers will learn knowledge."

Isaiah Chapter 30

Isa 30:1 “Woe to the rebellious children,” declares Yehowah. “They make plans, but not from me; they make alliances with ethnicities, but they were not directed by my Ruach, so they add sin to sin.
Isa 30:2 They set out to go down into (Cushite-controlled) Egypt, but have not asked for my direction. They seek protection from Pharaoh and take refuge in the shadow of Egypt (2 Kings 19:9).
Isa 30:3 Therefore, Pharaoh’s protection will be your shame, and the refuge in Egypt’s shade, your humiliation,
Isa 30:4 although their princes are at Zoan, and their messengers have come to Hanes.
Isa 30:5 They will all be ashamed because of a people who cannot help them, who are neither help nor aid, but a shame, and even a disgrace.”
Isa 30:6 A declaration about the beasts of the Negev: Through the land of trouble and danger, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the backs of donkey colts, and their treasures on the camels’ humps, to a people who cannot help them.
Isa 30:7 For Egypt’s help is worthless; therefore, I have called her Rahab, who sits still.
Isa 30:8 Now go, write it in their presence on a Tablet, and inscribe it on a Scroll, that it may be preserved for the time to come as a testimony.
Isa 30:9 For these are a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the Law of Yehowah.
Isa 30:10 They order the seers, “Do not see;” and the prophets, “Do not prophesy the truth to us; speak flattering words to us, prophesy illusions.
Isa 30:11 Turn aside from the Way, stray off the Path; cause the Set-apart One of Israel to cease speaking before our face.”
Isa 30:12 Therefore, the Set-apart One of Israel declares, “Because you reject this word, trust in oppression and deceit, and lean on it,
Isa 30:13 so this sin will be to you like a broken part ready to fall, like a bulge in a high wall whose fall will happen suddenly, in an instant.”
Isa 30:14 He will break it as a potter’s vessel is broken; he will not spare it, so that there will not be found among its pieces a sherd with which to scrape fire from the fireplace, or to scoop up water out of the cistern.
Isa 30:15 For this is what Lord Yehowah, the Set-apart One of Israel, declares, “In returning and resting you will be saved; in quietness and in trust will be your strength. But you were not willing.
Isa 30:16 You said, ‘No, for we will flee on horses,’ so you will flee; and, ‘We will ride upon swift horses,’ so those who pursue you will be swift.

Isa 30:17 One thousand will flee at the threat of one; at the threat of five you will flee, until your remnant will be like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, or like a flag on a hill."
Isa 30:18 Yet, Yehowah is waiting to be gracious to you, therefore, he is exalted, and he is ready to show you mercy. For Yehowah is an Almighty of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.
Isa 30:19 For a people will live in Zion, in Jerusalem, and you will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When he hears it, he will answer you.
Isa 30:20 Though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, even so, your Teacher will not hide himself anymore, but you will see your Teacher with your own eyes.
Isa 30:21 Your ears will hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the Way, walk in it," when you turn to the right, or when you turn to the left.
Isa 30:22 You will desecrate your carved figures overlaid with silver and your gold cast figures. You will throw them away like a menstrual rag. You will order them, "Get out of here!"
Isa 30:23 He will give the rain for your seed when you sow the ground, and bread with abundance from the ground, and the crops will be abundant. In that Day, your livestock will graze in broad pastures.
Isa 30:24 The oxen and the donkey colts, who plow the ground, will eat seasoned feed that has been winnowed with a shovel and a fork.
Isa 30:25 On every high mountain and on every high hill, there will be flowing brooks and streams of waters, in the Day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.
Isa 30:26 The light of the full moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the sunlight of seven days. In that Day, Yehowah will bind up the breaking of his people and heal the bruises of his wounding them.
Isa 30:27 Look, the name of Yehowah comes from a distant place, burning with his anger and in dense smoke. His lips are full of fury, and his tongue is like a devouring fire.
Isa 30:28 His breath is like an overflowing river that reaches up to the middle of the neck, to sift the ethnicities with the sieve of destruction. His breath is a bridle in the jaws of the people to cause them to wander away.
Isa 30:29 You will have a song as in the night, when a consecrated Feast is observed, and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to the Mountain of Yehowah, to the Rock of Israel.
Isa 30:30 Yehowah will make the splendor of his voice heard and show the motion of his arm in storming anger and flames of fire, with windstorm, rainstorm, and hailstones.

Isa 30:31 For at the voice of Yehowah, Assyria will be shattered; he will strike them with a trekking pole.
Isa 30:32 Every stroke of the appointed rod that Yehowah will lay on them will be accompanied with the music of tambourines and harps as he battles and fights with them.
Isa 30:33 For a place of burning was prepared long ago. Indeed, it is prepared for the king, and Yehowah has made it deep and wide. The pile is ready with a fire and much wood. The breath of Yehowah, like a stream of brimstone, will set it on fire.

Isaiah Chapter 31

Isa 31:1 Woe to those who go down to (Cushite-controlled) Egypt for help and lean on horses, and trust in chariots, for they are many, and in cavalry, for they are countless. But they are not concerned about the Set-apart One of Israel, nor do they seek Yehowah!
Isa 31:2 Yet he is wise, and he will bring disaster and will not retract his words. He will arise against the evil house and against the helpers of those who commit sin.
Isa 31:3 Egypt is a man and not the Almighty, their horses flesh and not spirit. When Yehowah reaches out with his hand, both the one who helps will stumble, and the one who is helped will fall; both will perish together.
Isa 31:4 This is what Yehowah says to me, “As a lion, even a young lion, growls over its torn prey, when a group of shepherds is called out against it, but it does not tremble at their voices, nor creep away from their sound; thus Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will descend to fight on Mount Zion, on that hill.
Isa 31:5 Like birds in flight, so Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will protect Jerusalem; he will protect and rescue as he passes over it and preserves it.
Isa 31:6 Return to him from whom you have deeply turned away, people of Israel.
Isa 31:7 For in that Day, each one will get rid of his idols of silver and his idols of gold that your own hands have sinfully made.
Isa 31:8 Assyria will fall by the sword; a sword not wielded by man will consume him. He will flee from the sword, and his young men will be forced to do hard labor.
Isa 31:9 They will lose all confidence because of terror, and his princes will be afraid at the sight of the battle flag of the Almighty,” declares Yehowah, “whose fire is in Zion, and whose burning lighthouse is in Jerusalem.”

Isaiah Chapter 32

Isa 32:1 Look, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.
Isa 32:2 Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a land of weariness.
Isa 32:3 Then the eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will hear attentively.
Isa 32:4 The rash will think carefully with understanding, and the stutterer will speak distinctly and with ease.
Isa 32:5 The fool will no longer be called honorable, nor the deceiver called principled.
Isa 32:6 For the fool speaks folly, and his heart plans evil and irreverent actions, and he speaks wrongly against Yehowah. He makes the hungry empty, and the thirsty he causes to lack drink.
Isa 32:7 The deceiver's methods are evil. He devises wicked schemes to ruin the poor with lies, even when the poor say what is right.
Isa 32:8 But the honorable man makes honorable plans; and because of his honorable actions, he will stand.
Isa 32:9 Rise up, you women who are at ease, and listen to my voice; you carefree daughters listen to me.
Isa 32:10 For in a little more than a year, your confidence will be broken, you carefree women, for the grape harvest will fail, the ingathering will not come.
Isa 32:11 Tremble, you women who are at ease; be troubled, you confident ones; take off your fine clothes and make yourselves bare; put on sackcloth around your waists.
Isa 32:12 You will wail for the nursing breasts, the pleasant fields, and for the fruitful vines.
Isa 32:13 The land of my people will be overgrown with thorns and briers, even in all the once joyful houses in the city of revelry.
Isa 32:14 For the palace will be forsaken, the crowded city will be deserted; the hill and the watchtower will become caves forever, a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;
Isa 32:15 until the Ruach is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered as a forest.
Isa 32:16 Then justice will reside in the wilderness; and righteousness will live in the fruitful field.
Isa 32:17 The work of righteousness will be peace; and the result of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.

Isa 32:18 My people will live in a peaceful habitation, in secure homes, and in quiet resting places.
Isa 32:19 But even if it hails and the forest is destroyed, and the city is completely annihilated,
Isa 32:20 you who sow beside all the streams will be blessed, you who send out your ox and jack donkey to graze.

Isaiah Chapter 33

Isa 33:1 Woe to you, destroyer who has not been destroyed! Woe to the betrayer whom they have not betrayed! When you stop destroying, you will be destroyed. When you stop betraying, they will betray you.
Isa 33:2 Yehowah, be gracious to us; we wait for you; be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.
Isa 33:3 At the loud noise the people flee; when you arise, the ethnicities are scattered.
Isa 33:4 Your spoil is gathered as the locusts gather; as locusts leap, men leap on it.
Isa 33:5 Yehowah is exalted. He lives in a high place. He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.
Isa 33:6 He will be the stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of Yehowah is his treasure.
Isa 33:7 Look, their envoys cry in the streets; the diplomats hoping for peace weep bitterly.
Isa 33:8 The highways are deserted; there are no more travelers. Covenants are broken, witnesses are despised, and mankind is not respected.
Isa 33:9 The land mourns and withers away; Lebanon is ashamed and withers away; Sharon is like a desert plain; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.
Isa 33:10 “Now will I arise,” declares Yehowah; “now I will be lifted up; now I will be elevated.
Isa 33:11 You conceive chaff, and you give birth to stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.
Isa 33:12 The people will be burned to lime, as thorn bushes are cut down and are burned.
Isa 33:13 You who are far away, hear what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge my might.”
Isa 33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the wicked ones. Who among us can sojourn with a raging fire? Who among us can sojourn with everlasting burnings?
Isa 33:15 He who walks righteously and speaks honestly; he who despises the gain of oppressions, who refuses to take a bribe, who does not plot violent crime, and does not look on evil,
Isa 33:16 he will make his home on the heights; his place of defense will be the fortresses of rocks; his food and water will be in steady supply.
Isa 33:17 Your eyes will see the king in his beauty; they will behold a vast land.

Isa 33:18 Your heart will recall the terror; where is the scribe, where is he who weighed the silver-currency? Where is he who counted the towers?
Isa 33:19 You will no longer see the defiant people, a people of a foreign language, whom you do not comprehend.
Isa 33:20 Look at Zion, the city of our appointment calendar festivals; your eyes will see Jerusalem as a quiet habitation, a tent that will not be removed, whose stakes will never be pulled up nor will any of its cords be broken.
Isa 33:21 Instead, Yehowah in majesty will be with us, in a place of broad rivers and streams. No warship with oars will travel it, and no large ships will sail by.
Isa 33:22 For Yehowah is our judge, Yehowah is our lawgiver, Yehowah is our king; he will save us.
Isa 33:23 Your riggings are slack; they cannot hold the mast in place; they cannot spread the sail; when the great spoil is divided, even the lame will drag off the spoil.
Isa 33:24 The inhabitants will not say, “I am sick.” The people who live there will be forgiven for their iniquity.

Isaiah Chapter 34

Isa 34:1 Come near, you ethnicities, and listen; pay attention, you people! The earth and all that fills it must listen, the globe, and all things that come from it.
Isa 34:2 For Yehowah is angry with all the ethnicities, and furious against all their armed forces; he has completely destroyed them, he has handed them over to the slaughter.
Isa 34:3 The bodies of their dead will be thrown out. The stench of the dead bodies will be everywhere; and the mountains will soak up their blood, the valleys will be split.
Isa 34:4 All the stars of the sky will fade away, and the sky will be rolled up like a scroll; and all their stars will fade away, as the leaf fades from off the vine, and as the overripe figs from the fig tree.
Isa 34:5 For when my sword will have drunk its fill in Heaven; look, it will now come down on Edom, on the people I am setting apart for destruction.
Isa 34:6 The sword of Yehowah is dripping with blood and covered with fat, dripping with the blood of lambs and goats, covered with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For Yehowah has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
Isa 34:7 Wild oxen will be slaughtered along with them, and young bulls with the older ones. Their land will be drunk with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.
Isa 34:8 For it will be a Day of Vengeance for Yehowah, and a year when he will pay them back for the cause of Zion.
Isa 34:9 The streams of Edom will be turned into pitch, her dust into sulfur, and her land will become burning pitch.
Isa 34:10 It will burn night and day; its smoke will rise forever; from generation to generation it will be a wasteland; no one will pass through it forever and ever.
Isa 34:11 But wild birds and animals will live there; the owl and the raven will make their nest in it. He will stretch over it the measuring line of ruin and the plumb line of destruction.
Isa 34:12 Her nobles will have nothing left to call a kingdom, and all her princes will be nothing.
Isa 34:13 Thorns will overgrow her palaces, nettles and thistles her fortresses. It will be a habitation of jackals, a place for ostriches.
Isa 34:14 The wild animals and the hyenas will meet there, and the wild goats will cry to one another. Nocturnal animals will settle there and find for themselves a place of rest.
Isa 34:15 Owls will make nests, lay and hatch their eggs, hatch and protect their young. Yes, there hawks will gather, each one with its mate.

Isa 34:16 Search and read through the Book of Yehowah; not one of these will be missing. None will lack for a mate; for his mouth has commanded it, and his Ruach has gathered them.
Isa 34:17 He has cast the lot for their parcel, and his hand has measured it out for them by a cord (Acts 1:26; Prov. 16:33; 18:18). They will possess it forever; from generation to generation they will live there.

Isaiah Chapter 35

Isa 35:1 The wilderness and the Arabah will be glad; and the desert will rejoice and blossom. Like the rose,
Isa 35:2 it will blossom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of Yehowah, the splendor of our Divine One.
Isa 35:3 Strengthen the weak hands and steady the knees that shake.
Isa 35:4 Say to those with a fearful heart, “Be strong, do not fear! Look, your Divine One will come with vengeance, with the recompense of the Almighty. He will come and save you.”
Isa 35:5 Then the eyes of the blind will see, and the ears of the deaf will hear (DSS includes: and dead people will be raised back to life).
Isa 35:6 Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the mute tongue will sing, for water breaks out in the Arabah, and streams in the wilderness (Mat. 11:1-6; DSS 4Q521; Luke 7:19-23).
Isa 35:7 The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water; in the habitation of jackals, where they once lay, will be grass with reeds and papyrus.
Isa 35:8 A highway will be there called The Set-apart Way. The unclean will not travel it. But it will be for him who walks in it. No fool will go on it.
Isa 35:9 No lion will be there, no ferocious beast will be on it; they will not be found there, but the redeemed will walk there.
Isa 35:10 The ransomed of Yehowah will return and come with singing to Zion, and everlasting joy will be on their heads; gladness and joy will overtake them; sorrow and sighing will flee away!

Isaiah Chapter 36

Isa 36:1 In the fourteenth year (c. 712 BC) of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.
Isa 36:2 Then the king of Assyria sent the chief commander from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a great military force. He approached the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway to Launderers' Field, and stood by it.
Isa 36:3 The Israeli officials who went out of the city to talk with them were Hilkiah's son Eliakim, the palace administrator, Shebna the king's secretary, and Asaph's son Joah, who wrote down the government decisions.
Isa 36:4 The chief commander said to them, "Tell Hezekiah that the great king, the king of Assyria, asks, 'What is the source of your confidence?
Isa 36:5 You speak only useless words, saying there is counsel and strength for war. Now in whom are you trusting? Who has given you courage to rebel against me?
Isa 36:6 Look, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed that you use as a trekking pole, but if a man leans on it, it will stick into his hand and pierce it. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt is to anyone who trusts in him.
Isa 36:7 But if you say to me, "We are trusting in Yehowah our Divine One," is not he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem?"
Isa 36:8 Now therefore, I want to make you a good offer from my master the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to find riders for them.
Isa 36:9 How could you resist even one captain of the least of my master's servants? You have put your trust in Egypt for chariots and cavalry!
Isa 36:10 Now then, have I traveled up here without Yehowah to fight against this land and destroy it? Yehowah ordered me, "Attack this land and destroy it."'"
Isa 36:11 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Shebnah, and Joah said to the chief commander, "Please speak to your servants in the Aramean language, Aramaic, for we understand it. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in the ears of the people who are on the wall."
Isa 36:12 But the chief commander asked, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, who will have to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"
Isa 36:13 Then the chief commander stood and shouted in a loud voice in the Jewish language, "Listen to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!

Isa 36:14 The king says, ‘Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to rescue you!
Isa 36:15 Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in Yehowah, saying, “Yehowah will surely rescue us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria!”’
Isa 36:16 Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: ‘Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree, and drink from the water in his own cistern.
Isa 36:17 You will do this, until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.’
Isa 36:18 Do not let Hezekiah mislead you, saying, ‘Yehowah will rescue us.’ Has any of the deities of the ethnicities rescued them from the hand of the king of Assyria?
Isa 36:19 Where are the deities of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the deities of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my power?
Isa 36:20 Among all the deities of these lands, is there any deity who has rescued his land from my power, as if Yehowah could save Jerusalem from my power?”
Isa 36:21 But the people remained silent and did not respond, for the king’s order was, “Do not answer him.”
Isa 36:22 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and reported to him the words of the chief commander.

Isaiah Chapter 37

Isa 37:1 It came about that when King Hezekiah heard their intelligence report, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the temple of Yehowah.
Isa 37:2 He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet.
Isa 37:3 They reported to him, “Hezekiah says, ‘This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and disgrace, like when a child is ready to be born, but the mother has no strength to give birth to her child.
Isa 37:4 It may be Yehowah your Divine One will hear the words of the chief commander, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living Almighty, and will rebuke the words which Yehowah your Divine One has heard. Now lift up your prayer for the remnant that is still here.’”
Isa 37:5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah,
Isa 37:6 and Isaiah responded to them, “Say to your master: ‘Yehowah declares, “Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have insulted me.
Isa 37:7 Look, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear an intelligence report and go back to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.”””
Isa 37:8 Then the chief commander returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had gone away from Lachish.
Isa 37:9 Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah king of Cush (in modern Sudan) and Egypt had mobilized to fight against him, so he sent messengers again to Hezekiah with a message:
Isa 37:10 “Say to Hezekiah, king of Judah, ‘Do not let your Divine One in whom you trust deceive you, saying, “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”
Isa 37:11 See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them completely. So will you be rescued?
Isa 37:12 Have the deities of the ethnicities rescued them, the ethnicities that my fathers destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Telassar?
Isa 37:13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the cities of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?’”
Isa 37:14 Hezekiah received this letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of Yehowah and spread it before Yehowah.

Isa 37:15 Hezekiah prayed to Yehowah:
Isa 37:16 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, you who sit above the cherubim, you are the Almighty alone over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth.
Isa 37:17 Turn your ear, Yehowah, and listen. Open your eyes, Yehowah, and see, and hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living Almighty.
Isa 37:18 It is true, Yehowah, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the ethnicities and their lands.
Isa 37:19 They have put their deities into the fire, for they were not deities but the work of men’s hands, just wood and stone. So the Assyrians have destroyed them.
Isa 37:20 So now, Yehowah our Divine One, save us from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are Yehowah.”
Isa 37:21 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel declares, ‘Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, Isa 37:22 this is the word that Yehowah has spoken about him: “The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.
Isa 37:23 Whom have you defied and insulted? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes in pride? Against the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 37:24 By your servants you have defied the Lord and have said, ‘With the multitude of my chariots I have gone up to the heights of the mountains, to the highest elevations of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and choice cypress trees there, and I will enter into its farthest high places, its most fruitful forest.
Isa 37:25 I have dug wells and drunk water in foreign lands; I dried up all the rivers of Egypt under the soles of my feet.’
Isa 37:26 Have you not heard how I determined it long ago and worked it out in ancient times? Now I am bringing it to pass. You are here to reduce impregnable cities into heaps of ruins.
Isa 37:27 Their inhabitants, of little strength, are shattered and ashamed. They are plants in the field, green grass, the grass on the roof or in the field, before the east wind.
Isa 37:28 But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me.
Isa 37:29 Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has reached my ears, I will put my hook in your nose, and my bit in your mouth; I will turn you back the way you came.”

Isa 37:30 This will be the sign for you: This year you will eat what grows wild, and in the second year what grows from that. But in the third year you must plant and harvest, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
Isa 37:31 The remnant of the house of Judah that survives will again take root and bear fruit.
Isa 37:32 For from Jerusalem a remnant will come out; from Mount Zion survivors will come. The zeal of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will do this.'"
Isa 37:33 Therefore, Yehowah says this about the king of Assyria: "He will not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow here. Neither will he come before it with shield or pour over a siege ramp against it.
Isa 37:34 The way by which he came will be the same way he will leave; he will not enter this city," declares Yehowah.
Isa 37:35 "For I will defend this city and rescue it, for my own sake and for David my servant's sake."
Isa 37:36 Then the angel of Yehowah went out and attacked the camp of the Assyrians, putting to death 185,000 soldiers. When the men arose at the crack of dawn, dead bodies lay everywhere (2 Kings 19:35; 2 Chron. 32:21; 20:24; Isa. 10:32).
Isa 37:37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria left Israel and went home and stayed in Nineveh.
Isa 37:38 Later, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his deity, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer murdered him with the sword (c. 678 BC). Then they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Isaiah Chapter 38

Isa 38:1 In those days, Hezekiah was sick to the point of dying. So Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him and prophesied to him, “Yehowah says, ‘Set your house in order; for you will die, not live.’”
Isa 38:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yehowah,
Isa 38:3 “Please, Yehowah, call to mind how I have faithfully walked before you with my whole heart, and how I have done what was good in your sight.” Then Hezekiah wept loudly.
Isa 38:4 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Isaiah,
Isa 38:5 “Go and say to Hezekiah, the leader of my people, ‘This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of David your ancestor, declares: I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears. See, I am about to add fifteen years to your life.
Isa 38:6 Then I will rescue you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.
Isa 38:7 This will be the sign to you from me, Yehowah, that Yehowah will do what I have spoken:
Isa 38:8 Look, I will cause the sun’s shadow on the sundial stairs of Ahaz to go back ten steps.’” So the shadow went back ten steps up the stairs on which it had advanced downward (c. 712 BC; 2 Kings 20:9-11; 2 Chron. 32:31).
Isa 38:9 This was the written prayer of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick and then recovered:
Isa 38:10 “I said that halfway through my life I will go through the gates of the place of the dead; I am sent there for the rest of my years.
Isa 38:11 I said that I will no longer see Yah, Yah in the land of the living; I will no longer look on mankind or the inhabitants of the world.
Isa 38:12 My life is removed and carried away from me like a shepherd’s tent; I have rolled up my life like a weaver; you are cutting me off from the loom; between day and night you are ending my life.
Isa 38:13 I cried out until dawn; like a lion he breaks all my bones. Between day and night you are ending my life.
Isa 38:14 Like a swallow I chirp; I coo like a dove; my eyes grow tired with looking upward. O Lord, I am oppressed; help me!
Isa 38:15 What should I say? He has both spoken to me and has done it; I will walk slowly all my years, because I am overcome with grief.
Isa 38:16 O Lord, the sufferings you send are good for me; may my life be given back to me; you have restored my life and health.

Isa 38:17 It was for my benefit that I experienced such grief. You in love have rescued me from the pit of destruction; for you have thrown all my sins behind your back.
Isa 38:18 For the place of the dead does not thank you; death does not praise you; those who go down into the pit do not hope in your truth.
Isa 38:19 The living person, he is the one who gives you thanks, as I do this day; a father makes known to children your truth.
Isa 38:20 Yehowah is about to save me, and we will celebrate with music all the days of our lives in the temple of Yehowah.”
Isa 38:21 Now Isaiah had prophesied, “Let them take a lump of figs and put it on the boil, and he will recover.”
Isa 38:22 Hezekiah also had asked, “What will be the sign that I should go up to the temple of Yehowah?”

Isaiah Chapter 39

Isa 39:1 At that time, Merodach Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick and had recovered.
Isa 39:2 Hezekiah was pleased by these things; he showed the messengers his storehouse of valuable things, the silver, the gold, the spices and precious oil, the storehouse of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his kingdom, that Hezekiah did not show them.
Isa 39:3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say to you? Where did they come from?” Hezekiah answered, “They came to me from the distant country of Babylon.”
Isa 39:4 Isaiah asked, “What have they seen in your house?” Hezekiah answered, “They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my valuable things that I have not shown them.”
Isa 39:5 Then Isaiah prophesied to Hezekiah, “Listen to the Word of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces:
Isa 39:6 ‘Look, the days are about to come when everything in your palace, the things that your ancestors stored away until this present day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,’ declares Yehowah.
Isa 39:7 ‘The sons born from you, whom you yourself have fathered, they will take them away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’”
Isa 39:8 Then Hezekiah responded to Isaiah, “The Word of Yehowah that you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “There will be peace and stability in my days.”

Isaiah Chapter 40

Isa 40:1 “Comfort, comfort my people,” says your Divine One.
Isa 40:2 “Speak tenderly to Jerusalem; and proclaim to her that her warfare has ended, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received double from the hand of Yehowah for all her sins.”
Isa 40:3 A voice cries out in the wilderness, “Prepare the Way of Yehowah; make straight in the Arabah a highway for our Divine One” (Mat. 3:3).
Isa 40:4 Every valley will be lifted up, and every mountain and hill will be leveled; and the rugged land will be made level and the rough places a plain;
Isa 40:5 and the glory of Yehowah will be revealed, and all people will see him together; for the mouth of Yehowah has spoken it.
Isa 40:6 A voice says, “Cry.” Another asks, “What should I cry?” “All flesh is grass, and all their kindness is like the flower of the field.
Isa 40:7 The grass withers and the flower wilts when the Ruach of Yehowah blows on it; surely humanity is grass.
Isa 40:8 The grass withers, the flower wilts, but the word of our Divine One will stand forever.”
Isa 40:9 Go up on a high mountain, Zion, bearer of the good news. Shout out loud, Jerusalem! You who bring the good news, raise your voice, do not be afraid. Shout to the cities of Judah, “Here is your Divine One!”
Isa 40:10 Look, Lord Yehowah comes as a victorious warrior, and his strong arm rules for him. See, his reward is with him, and those he has rescued go before him.
Isa 40:11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather in his arm the lambs, and carry them close to his heart, and will gently lead the ewes nursing their young.
Isa 40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, measured the sky with the span of his hand, held the dust of the earth in a basket, weighed the mountains in scales, or the hills in a balance (Prov. 30:4)?
Isa 40:13 Who has comprehended the Ruach of Yehowah or instructed him as his counselor?
Isa 40:14 From whom did he ever receive instruction? Who taught him the correct Way to do things, and taught him knowledge, or showed to him the Way of understanding?
Isa 40:15 Look, the ethnicities are like a drop in a bucket and are regarded like the dust on the scales; see, he weighs the isles as a speck.
Isa 40:16 Lebanon is not sufficient fuel nor its wild animals sufficient for a burnt offering.

Isa 40:17 All the ethnicities are insufficient before him; they are regarded by him as nothing, and worthless.
Isa 40:18 To whom then will you compare the Almighty? To what idol will you liken him?
Isa 40:19 An idol! A craftsman casts it: The goldsmith overlays it with gold and forges silver chains for it.
Isa 40:20 To make an offering one chooses a wood that will not rot; he seeks a skillful artisan to make an idol that will not fall over.
Isa 40:21 Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
Isa 40:22 He is the One who sits above the circular horizon of the earth; and the inhabitants are like grasshoppers before him. He stretches out the heavens like a curtain and spreads them out as a tent to live in.
Isa 40:23 He reduces rulers to nothing and makes the rulers of the earth insignificant.
Isa 40:24 See, they are barely planted; see, they are barely sown; see, they have barely taken root in the earth, before he blows upon them, and they wither, and the wind blows them away like straw.
Isa 40:25 “To whom then will you compare me, whom do I resemble?” asks the Set-apart One.
Isa 40:26 Look up at the sky! Who has created all these stars? He leads out their formations and calls them all by name. By the greatness of his might and by the strength of his power, not one is missing.
Isa 40:27 Why do you say, Jacob, and declare, Israel, “My way is hidden from Yehowah, and my Divine One is not concerned about my vindication?”
Isa 40:28 Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Eternal, Almighty Yehowah, the Creator of the ends of the earth, does not get tired or weary; there is no limit to his understanding.
Isa 40:29 He gives strength to the tired; and to the weak he gives renewed energy!
Isa 40:30 Even young people become tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall:
Isa 40:31 But those who wait for Yehowah will renew their strength; they will soar with wings like eagles; they will run and not be weary; they will walk and not faint (Exo. 19:4; Rev. 12:14)!

Isaiah Chapter 41

Isa 41:1 “Listen before me in silence, you coastlands; let the ethnicities renew their strength; let them come near and speak; let us come near together to argue a dispute.
Isa 41:2 Who has stirred up one from the East, calling him in righteousness to his service? He hands ethnicities over to him and helps him subdue kings. He turns them to dust with his sword, like windblown stubble with his bow.
Isa 41:3 He pursues them and passes by safely, by a swift path that his feet scarcely touch.
Isa 41:4 Who has performed and accomplished these deeds? Who has summoned the generations from the beginning? I, Yehowah, the first, and with the last, I am he.
Isa 41:5 The isles have seen and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble; they approach and come.
Isa 41:6 Everyone helps his neighbor, and every one says to one another, ‘Be encouraged.’
Isa 41:7 So the builder encourages the goldsmith, and he who works with the hammer encourages him who works with an anvil, saying of the welding, ‘It is good.’ They fasten it with nails, so it will not topple over.
Isa 41:8 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham my friend (Jacob 2:23),
Isa 41:9 you whom I am bringing back from the ends of the earth, and whom I called from the far away places, and to whom I said, ‘You are my servant;’ I have chosen you and not rejected you.
Isa 41:10 Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your Divine One. I will strengthen you, and I will help you, and I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.
Isa 41:11 See, they will be ashamed and disgraced, all who have been angry with you; they will be as nothing and will perish, those who oppose you.
Isa 41:12 You will seek and will not find those who contended with you; those who warred against you will be like nothing, absolutely nothing.
Isa 41:13 For I, Yehowah your Divine One, will hold your right hand, saying to you, ‘Do not fear; I am helping you.’
Isa 41:14 Do not fear, Jacob you worm, and you adults of Israel; I will help you,” declares Yehowah, your Redeemer, the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 41:15 “Look, I am making you like a sharp threshing sledge, new and two-edged; you will thresh the mountains and crush them; you will make the hills like chaff.

Isa 41:16 You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away; the wind will scatter them. You will rejoice in Yehowah, you will rejoice in the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 41:17 The oppressed and needy look for water, but there is none, and their tongues are parched for thirst; I, Yehowah, will respond to their prayers; I, the Mighty One of Israel, will not forsake them.
Isa 41:18 I will make streams to flow down the slopes and springs in the middle of the valleys; I will make the desert into a pool of water and the dry land into springs of water.
Isa 41:19 In the wilderness, I will set the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive tree. I will set the cypress in the desert plain with the pines and the cedar box trees.
Isa 41:20 I will do this, so that the people may see, recognize, and understand together, that the hand of Yehowah has done this, that the Set-apart One of Israel has created it.
Isa 41:21 Present your case," says Yehowah; "present your best arguments for your idols," says the King of Jacob.
Isa 41:22 "Let them bring us their own arguments; have them come forward and declare to us what will happen, so we may know these things well. Have them tell us of earlier predictive declarations, so we can reflect on them and know how they were fulfilled.
Isa 41:23 Tell things about the future, that we may know if you are deities; do something good or evil, that we may be frightened and impressed.
Isa 41:24 See, you idols are nothing and your deeds are nothing; the one who chooses you is detestable.
Isa 41:25 I have raised up one from the North, and he comes; from the sun's rising, I summon him who calls on my name, and he will trample the rulers like mud, like a potter who is treading on the clay.
Isa 41:26 Who announced this from the beginning, that we might know? Before this time, that we may say, "He is right?" Indeed none of them decreed it, yes, none heard you say anything.
Isa 41:27 I first announced to Zion, "Look, here they are!" I sent a herald to Jerusalem.
Isa 41:28 When I look, there is no one, not one among them who can give good advice, who, when I ask, can answer a word.
Isa 41:29 Look, all of them are nothing, and their deeds are nothing; their cast metal figures are wind and emptiness.

Isaiah Chapter 42

Isa 42:1 Behold, my Servant, whom I uphold; my Chosen One, in whom my soul delights. I have put my Ruach upon him; he will bring justice to the ethnicities.
Isa 42:2 He will not cry out nor shout, nor make his voice heard in the streets.
Isa 42:3 A crushed reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not extinguish: He will faithfully execute justice.
Isa 42:4 He will not grow faint nor be discouraged, until he has established justice on the earth; and in his name will the ethnicities trust" (LXX; Mat. 12:21).
Isa 42:5 This is what Almighty Yehowah says, the One who created the heavens and stretched them out, the One who made the earth and all that it produces, the One who gives breath to the ethnicities on it and life to those who live on it:
Isa 42:6 "I, Yehowah, have called you in righteousness and will hold your hand. I will keep you and set you as a covenant for the people, as a Light for the ethnicities,
Isa 42:7 to open the eyes of the blind, to release the prisoners from the dungeon, and from the house of confinement those who sit in darkness.
Isa 42:8 I am Yehowah, that is my name; and my glory I will not share with another nor my praise with carved idols (Exo. 3:14-16; Exo. 6:2-3).
Isa 42:9 See, the previous things came to pass, now I am about to declare new events. Before they begin to occur, I will tell you about them."
Isa 42:10 Sing to Yehowah a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth; you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, the coastlands, and those who live there.
Isa 42:11 Let the desert and the cities cry out, the villages where Kedar lives, shout for joy! Let the inhabitants of Sela (Petra) sing; let them shout from the mountaintops.
Isa 42:12 Let them give glory to Yehowah and declare his praise in the coastlands!
Isa 42:13 Yehowah will go out as a warrior; as a man of war he will stir up his zeal. He will shout, yes, he will roar his battle cries; he will show his enemies his power.
Isa 42:14 I have kept quiet for a long time; I have been still and restrained myself; now I will cry out like a woman in labor; I will gasp and pant.
Isa 42:15 I will lay waste mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation; and I will turn the rivers into islands and will dry up the marshes.
Isa 42:16 I will bring the blind by a Way that they do not know; in Paths that they do not know I will lead them. I will turn the darkness into light before them, and make the crooked places straight. These things I will do, and I will not abandon them.

Isa 42:17 They will be turned back, they will be completely put to shame, those who trust in carved figures, who say to cast metal figures, “You are our deities.”
Isa 42:18 Listen, you deaf; and look, you blind, that you may see.
Isa 42:19 Who is blind but my servant? Or deaf like my messenger I send? Who is as blind as my covenant partner, or blind as the servant of Yehowah?
Isa 42:20 You see many things but do not comprehend; ears are open, but no one hears.
Isa 42:21 It pleased Yehowah to praise his justice and to make his law glorious!
Isa 42:22 But this is a people robbed and plundered; they are all trapped in pits, held captive in prisons; they have become a plunder with no one to rescue them, and no one shouts, “Bring them back!”
Isa 42:23 Who among you will listen to this? Who will listen and hear in the future?
Isa 42:24 Who gave Jacob over to the robber and Israel to the looters? Was it not Yehowah, against whom we have sinned, in whose Ways they refused to walk, and whose law they refused to obey?
Isa 42:25 Therefore, he poured out his fierce anger against them with the devastation of war. It blazed around them, yet they did not realize it; it burned them, but they did not take it to heart.

Isaiah Chapter 43

Isa 43:1 But now this is what Yehowah says, he who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel: “Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name, you are mine.
Isa 43:2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned, and the flames will not destroy you.
Isa 43:3 For I am Yehowah your Divine One, the Set-apart One of Israel, your Savior. I have given Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you.
Isa 43:4 Since you are precious and special in my sight, I love you; therefore I will give people in exchange for you, and other people in exchange for your life.
Isa 43:5 Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east and gather you from the west.
Isa 43:6 I will say to the north, ‘Hand them over!’ and to the south, ‘Do not hold any back!’ Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the remote regions of the earth,
Isa 43:7 everyone who is called by my name, whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.
Isa 43:8 Bring out the people who are blind, even though they have eyes, and the deaf, even though they have ears.
Isa 43:9 All the ethnicities gather together, and the people assemble. Who among them could have declared this and announced to us earlier events? Let them bring their witnesses to prove themselves right, let them listen and affirm, ‘It is true.’
Isa 43:10 You are my witnesses,” declares Yehowah, “and my servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe in me, and understand that I AM. Before me there was no deity formed, and there will be none after me.
Isa 43:11 I, I am Yehowah, and there is no Savior but me.
Isa 43:12 I have declared, saved, and proclaimed, and there is no foreign deity among you. You are my witnesses,” declares Yehowah, “I AM the Almighty.
Isa 43:13 From this day on I AM, and no one can rescue anyone from my hand. I act, and who can turn it back?”
Isa 43:14 This is what Yehowah declares, your Redeemer, the Set-apart One of Israel: “For your sake I send to Babylon and lead them all down as fugitives, turning the Babylonians’ expressions of joy into songs of lamentation.
Isa 43:15 I am Yehowah, your Set-apart One, the Creator of Israel, your King.”
Isa 43:16 This is what Yehowah declares, who opened a way through the SEA and a path in the mighty waters,

Isa 43:17 who led out the chariot and horse, the army, and the mighty armed forces. They fell down together; they will never rise again; they are extinguished, quenched like a burning wick.
Isa 43:18 “Do not think about these former things nor consider the things of long ago.
Isa 43:19 Look, I am about to do a new thing; now it begins to happen; do you not perceive it? I will make a road in the wilderness and streams of water in the desert.
Isa 43:20 The wild animals of the field will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches, because I give water in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, for my chosen people to drink,
Isa 43:21 this people whom I formed for myself, that they might recount my praises!
Isa 43:22 But you have not called on me, Jacob; you have become tired of me, Israel.
Isa 43:23 You have not brought me any of your sheep as burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with grain offerings nor wearied you with demands for incense.
Isa 43:24 You have bought me no sweet-smelling cane with money, neither have you poured out to me the fat of your sacrifices; but you have burdened me with your sins, you have wearied me with your evil deeds.
Isa 43:25 I, yes, I am he who blots out your offenses for my own sake; and I will not call to mind your sins any longer.
Isa 43:26 Remind me of what happened. Let us debate together; present your cause, that you may be proved innocent.
Isa 43:27 Your first father sinned, and your leaders have transgressed against me.
Isa 43:28 Therefore, I will defile the set-apart officials; I will hand Jacob over to complete destruction and Israel to abusive humiliation.”

Isaiah Chapter 44

Isa 44:1 Now listen, Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen:
Isa 44:2 This is what Yehowah says, he who made you and formed you in the womb, and who will help you: “Do not fear, Jacob my servant; and you, Yeshurun, whom I have chosen.
Isa 44:3 For I will pour water on the thirsty ground, and flowing streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Ruach on your offspring, and my blessing on your children.
Isa 44:4 They will spring up among the grass, like willows by the streams of water.
Isa 44:5 One will say, ‘I belong to Yehowah,’ and another will call out the name of Jacob, and another will write on his hand, ‘Belonging to Yehowah,’ and name himself by the name of Israel.”
Isa 44:6 This is what Yehowah says, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces: “I am the first, and I am the last; and there is no Almighty but me (Isa. 41:4; 48:12; Rev. 1:8; 1:11; 1:17; 2:8; 21:6; 22:13).
Isa 44:7 Who is like me? Let him announce it and explain to me the events that occurred since I established my ancient people, and let them declare the events to come.
Isa 44:8 Do not fear or be afraid. Have I not declared to you long ago and announced it? You are my witnesses: Is there any Almighty besides me? There is no other Rock; I know of none.”
Isa 44:9 All who fashion idols are nothing; the things they delight in are worthless; their witnesses cannot see or know anything, and they will be put to shame.
Isa 44:10 Who would form a deity or cast an idol that is worthless?
Isa 44:11 Look, all his associates will be put to shame; the craftsmen are only men. Let them take their stand together; they will cower and be put to shame.
Isa 44:12 The blacksmith works with his tools, forming it, working over the coals. He shapes it with hammers and works it with his strong arm. He is hungry, and his strength wanes; he drinks no water and becomes faint.
Isa 44:13 The craftsman measures the wood with a line and marks it with a stylus. He shapes it with his tools and marks it out with a compass. He shapes it after the figure of a man, like an attractive human, so it may stay in a house.
Isa 44:14 He cuts down cedars, or chooses a cypress tree or an oak tree. He picks for himself trees in the forest. He plants a laurel tree, and the rain makes it grow.

Isa 44:15 Then a man uses it for a fire and warms himself. Yes, he kindles a fire and bakes bread. Then he makes from it a deity and bows down to it; he makes an idol and bows down to it.
Isa 44:16 He burns part of the wood for the fire, roasting his meat over it. He eats and is satisfied. He warms himself and says, “Ah, I am warm, I have seen the fire.”
Isa 44:17 With the rest of the wood he makes a deity, his carved image; he bows down to it and reverences it, and prays to it, “Rescue me, for you are my deity.”
Isa 44:18 They do not know, nor do they understand, for their eyes are blind and cannot see, and their hearts cannot perceive.
Isa 44:19 No one thinks, nor do they comprehend and say, “I have burned part of the wood in the fire; yes, I have also baked bread upon its coals. I have roasted meat over its coals and eaten. Now should I make the other part of the wood into something disgusting to worship? Should I bow down to a block of wood?”
Isa 44:20 It is as if he were eating ashes; his deceived heart misleads him. He cannot rescue himself, nor does he say, “This thing in my right hand is a false deity.”
Isa 44:21 Think about these things, Jacob and Israel, for you are my servant: I have formed you; you are my servant: Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.
Isa 44:22 I have blotted out, like a thick cloud, your rebellious deeds, and like a cloud, your sins; return to me, for I have redeemed you.
Isa 44:23 Sing, you heavens, for Yehowah has done this; shout, you depths of the earth! Break out into singing, you mountains, you forest with every tree in it; for Yehowah has redeemed Jacob and will show his glory in Israel.
Isa 44:24 This is what Yehowah says, your Redeemer, he who formed you from the womb: “I am Yehowah, who made everything, who alone stretched out the heavens, who alone fashioned the earth.
Isa 44:25 I who frustrate the omens of the empty talkers, and who disgrace those who read omens; I who overturn the wisdom of the wise and make their advice foolish.
Isa 44:26 I, Yehowah, who confirmed the words of his servant and brings to pass the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, ‘She will be inhabited,’ and of the towns of Judah, ‘They will be built again, and I will raise up their ruins;’
Isa 44:27 who says to the deep sea, ‘Be dry, and I will dry up your rivers.’
Isa 44:28 Yehowah is the One who says of Cyrus II, ‘He is my shepherd, he will do my every wish; he will decree about Jerusalem, ‘She will be rebuilt,’ and about the temple, ‘Let its foundations be laid.’”

Isaiah Chapter 45

Isa 45:1 This is what Yehowah says to his anointed, to Cyrus II, whose right hand I hold, in order to subdue ethnicities before him, to disarm kings, and to open the swinging doors before him, so that gates remain open:
Isa 45:2 “I will go before you and level the mountains; I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut in pieces their iron bars,
Isa 45:3 and I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden away, that you may know that it is I, Yehowah, who call you by your name, I, the Mighty One of Israel.
Isa 45:4 For Jacob my servant’s sake, and Israel my chosen, I have called you by your name: Giving you a title of honor, though you have not known me.
Isa 45:5 I am Yehowah, and there is no other; there is no Almighty but me. I will arm you for battle, though you have not known me;
Isa 45:6 that people may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is no deity but me: I am Yehowah, and there is no other.
Isa 45:7 I form the light and create darkness; I bring peace and create disaster; I am Yehowah, who does all these things.
Isa 45:8 You heavens, rain down from above! Let the skies rain down righteousness. Let the earth absorb it, that salvation may sprout up, and righteousness spring up together with it. I, Yehowah, have created them both.
Isa 45:9 Woe to anyone who argues with the One who formed him, to him who is like any other earthen pot among all the earthen pots in the ground! Does the clay ask the potter, ‘What are you making?’ or ‘Your work has no handles on it?’
Isa 45:10 Woe to him who asks a father, ‘What are you fathering?’ or a mother, ‘What are you giving birth to?’
Isa 45:11 This is what Yehowah asks, the Set-apart One of Israel, his Maker: ‘Why do you ask questions about what I will do for my children? Do you tell me what to do concerning the work of my hands?’
Isa 45:12 ‘I made the earth and created man on it. It was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all the stars to appear.
Isa 45:13 I stirred up Cyrus II in righteousness, and I will smooth out all his paths. He will build my city; he will let my exiled people go home, and not for price nor bribe,’” says Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Isa 45:14 This is what Yehowah says, “The earnings of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush with the Sabeans, men of tall stature, will be brought to you. They will be yours. They will follow after you, coming in chains. They will bow down to you and plead with you, ‘Surely the Almighty is with you, and there is no other except the Almighty.’”

Isa 45:15 Truly, you are an Almighty who hides yourself, Mighty One of Israel, Savior.
Isa 45:16 They will all be ashamed and disgraced together; those who carve idols will walk in humiliation.
Isa 45:17 But Israel will be saved by Yehowah with an everlasting salvation; you will never again be ashamed or humiliated.
Isa 45:18 This is what Yehowah says, who created the heavens, the true Almighty who created the earth and made it, who established it. He created it, not as a waste, but designed it to be inhabited: "I am Yehowah, and there is no other.
Isa 45:19 I have not spoken in private, in some hidden place; I did not say to Jacob's descendants, 'Seek me in vain!' I am Yehowah, who speaks sincerely; I declare the things that are right.
Isa 45:20 Assemble yourselves and come! Gather together, you refugees from among the ethnicities! They have no knowledge, those who carry carved images and pray to deities that cannot save.
Isa 45:21 Come close and declare it to me, bring the evidence! Let them conspire together. Who has shown this from long ago? Who announced it? Was it not I, Yehowah? There is no Almighty except me, a just Almighty and a Savior; there is no one besides me.
Isa 45:22 Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am the Almighty, and there is no other.
Isa 45:23 By myself I swear, speaking my just decree, and it will not turn back: 'To me every knee will bend, every tongue will swear (Phil. 2:9-11; Rom. 14:11).
Isa 45:24 They will say of me, "In Yehowah alone are righteousness and strength to come to him."'" They will all be ashamed who are angry at him.
Isa 45:25 In Yehowah, all the descendants of Israel will be justified; they will take pride in him.

Isaiah Chapter 46

Isa 46:1 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are carried by animals and beasts of burden. These idols that you carry are a heavy burden for weary animals.
Isa 46:2 Together they bend low, kneel down; they cannot rescue the images, and they themselves have gone off into captivity.
Isa 46:3 “Listen to me, house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been carried by me from before your birth, carried from the womb.
Isa 46:4 Even to your old age I am he, and until your hair is gray I will carry you. I made you, and I will bear you; I will carry you, and I will rescue you.
Isa 46:5 To whom will you compare me? Who do you think I resemble, so that we may be compared?
Isa 46:6 People pour out gold from the bag and weigh silver-currency on the scale. They hire a metalsmith, and he makes it into a deity; they bow down and worship it.
Isa 46:7 They lift it on their shoulder and carry it; they set it in its place, and it stands in its place and does not move from it. They cry out to it, but it cannot answer nor save anyone from his trouble.
Isa 46:8 Think about these things; never ignore them, you rebels!
Isa 46:9 Think about the earlier things, those of times past, for I am the Almighty, and there is no other, I am the Almighty, and there is no one like me.
Isa 46:10 I announce the end from the beginning, and beforehand what has not yet happened; I declare, “My plan will happen, and I will do as I desire.”
Isa 46:11 I call a bird of prey from the East, the man of my choice from a distant land; yes, I have spoken; I will also accomplish it; I have purposed, I will also do it.
Isa 46:12 Listen to me, you stubborn people, who are far from doing what is right.
Isa 46:13 I am bringing my righteousness near; it is not far away, and my salvation does not wait; and I will give salvation to Zion and my beauty to Israel.

Isaiah Chapter 47

Isa 47:1 Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans. You will no longer be called dainty and delicate.
Isa 47:2 Take the millstone and grind flour; remove your veil, strip off your flowing robe, uncover your legs, cross the streams.
Isa 47:3 Your nakedness will be uncovered, yes, your shame will be seen: I will take vengeance and will not spare a person.
Isa 47:4 Our Redeemer, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name, the Set-apart One of Israel.
Isa 47:5 Sit in silence and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans; for you will no longer be called queen of kingdoms.
Isa 47:6 I was angry with my people; I defiled my heritage and gave them over into your hand, but you showed them no mercy; you placed an extremely heavy yoke on the old people.
Isa 47:7 You said, “I will rule forever as sovereign queen.” You did not take these things to heart, nor did you consider how they would turn out.
Isa 47:8 So now hear this, you who love pleasure and sit securely; you who say in your heart, “I exist, and there is no one else like me; I will never sit as a widow, nor will I ever experience loss of children.”
Isa 47:9 But these two things will come to you in a moment, in one day: The loss of children and widowhood; in full force they will come on you, despite your sorceries and your many incantations and amulets.
Isa 47:10 You have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, “No one sees me;” your wisdom and your knowledge lead you astray, but you say in your heart, “I exist, and there is no one else like me.”
Isa 47:11 Disaster will overcome you; you will not be able to drive it away with your incantations. Destruction will fall on you; you will not be able to ward it off. Calamity will strike you suddenly, before you know it.
Isa 47:12 Persist in casting your spells and your many sorceries, which you have faithfully recited since your childhood; perhaps you will be successful, perhaps you will scare away disaster.
Isa 47:13 You are tired out with your many consultations; let those men stand up and save you, those astrologers with their horoscopes, stargazers, and those who declare the months, let them save you from what will happen to you.
Isa 47:14 See, they will become like stubble. The fire will burn them up. They will not save themselves from the hand of the flame. There are no coals to warm them and no fire for them to sit by!

Isa 47:15 This is what they have become to you, those with whom you have worked, and you bought and sold with them when you were young, and all of them keep doing their own foolish things; and when you cry out for help, there is no one who can rescue you.”

Isaiah Chapter 48

Isa 48:1 Hear this, house of Jacob, who are called by the name Israel, and have come from the sperm of Judah; you who swear by the name of Yehowah and invoke the Mighty One of Israel, but not sincerely nor in a righteous manner.
Isa 48:2 For they call themselves people of the set-apart city and trust in the Mighty One of Israel. Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name.
Isa 48:3 “I have declared the things from long ago; they came out from my mouth, and I made them known; then suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.
Isa 48:4 Because I knew that you were obstinate, your neck muscles tight as iron and your forehead like bronze,
Isa 48:5 therefore, I declared these things to you beforehand; before they happened I informed you, so you could not say, ‘My idol has done them,’ or ‘My carved figure and my cast metal figure have ordained these things.’
Isa 48:6 You heard about these things; look at all this evidence; and you, will you not admit what I said is true? From now on, I am showing you new things, hidden things that you have not known.
Isa 48:7 Now, and not from previously, they come into being, and before today, you have not heard about them, so you will not be able to say, ‘Yes, I knew about them.’
Isa 48:8 You never heard; you did not know; these things were not unfolded to your ears beforehand. For I knew that you have been faithlessly deceitful, and that you have been a rebel from birth.
Isa 48:9 For the sake of my name I will defer my anger, and for my honor I will hold back from destroying you.
Isa 48:10 Look, I refined you but not as silver; I have purified you in the furnace of affliction.
Isa 48:11 For my own sake, for my own sake I will act; for how can I allow my name to be dishonored? I will not give my glory to anyone else.
Isa 48:12 Listen to me, Jacob and Israel, whom I called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last (Isa. 41:4; 44:6; Rev. 1:8; 1:11; 1:17; 2:8; 21:6; 22:13).
Isa 48:13 Yes, my hand laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I call to them, they stand up together.
Isa 48:14 Assemble yourselves, all of you, and listen! Who among you has announced these things? The ally of Yehowah will accomplish his purpose against Babylon. He will carry out the will of the Almighty against the Chaldeans.
Isa 48:15 I, I have spoken, yes, I have summoned him, I have brought him, and he will succeed.

Isa 48:16 Come near to me, listen to this: From the beginning, I have not spoken in secret; when it happens, I am there." Now Lord Yehowah and his Ruach have sent me (Isa. 42:1).
Isa 48:17 This is what Yehowah, your Redeemer, the Set-apart One of Israel says, "I am Yehowah your Divine One, who teaches you how to succeed, who leads you by the Way that you should go.
Isa 48:18 If only you had obeyed my commandments! Then your peace and prosperity would have flowed like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
Isa 48:19 Your descendants would have been as numerous as the sand, and the children from your womb as numerous as the grains of sand; their name would not have been cut off nor blotted out from before me.
Isa 48:20 Come out from Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans! With the sound of a ringing cry announce it! Make this known, make it go out to the ends of the earth! Proclaim, 'Yehowah has redeemed his servant Jacob!'
Isa 48:21 They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts; he made the water to flow out of the rock for them; he split open the rock, and the waters gushed out.
Isa 48:22 There is no peace for the wicked," declares Yehowah.

Isaiah Chapter 49

Isa 49:1 Listen to me, you coastlands! Now give me your attention, you distant ethnicities. Yehowah has called me from birth by name, when my mother brought me into the world.
Isa 49:2 He has made my mouth like a sharp sword; he hid me in the shadow of his hand; he has made me into a polished arrow; in his quiver he has hidden me.
Isa 49:3 He said to me, “You are my servant, Israel, through whom I show my glory.”
Isa 49:4 But I replied, “Though I thought I have labored in vain, I have spent my energy for nothing, yet my justice is with Yehowah, and my reward is with my Divine One.”
Isa 49:5 Now Yehowah has spoken, he who formed me from birth to be his Servant, to restore Jacob again to himself, so that Israel would be gathered to him, for I am honored in the eyes of Yehowah, and my Divine One has become my strength,
Isa 49:6 and he says, “It is too small a thing for you to be my Servant to reestablish the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the survivors of Israel. I will make you a Light to the ethnicities, that you may be my Salvation to the ends of the earth.”
Isa 49:7 This is what Yehowah says, the Redeemer of Israel, their Set-apart One, to the one whose life is despised, hated by the ethnicities, and a slave of rulers, “Kings will see you and arise, and princes will see you and bow down, because of Yehowah who is faithful, even the Set-apart One of Israel, who has chosen you.”
Isa 49:8 This is what Yehowah says, “At a time I decide to show my grace I will answer you, and in the Day of Salvation I will help you; I will protect you and give you as a covenant for the people, to rebuild the land, to reassign the desolate inheritance.
Isa 49:9 You will say to the prisoners, ‘Come out;’ to those in dark dungeons, ‘Show yourselves.’ They will graze along the roads, and on all the bare slopes will be their pasture.
Isa 49:10 They will not be hungry or thirsty; nor will the heat or sun beat on them, for he who has mercy on them will lead them; he will guide them to springs of water (Rev. 7:16-17; John 7:37-38).
Isa 49:11 Then I will make all my mountains into a road and make my highways level.”
Isa 49:12 Look, these will come from far away, some from the north and the west; and others from the land of Sinim (Chinese, Orientals, Easterners).
Isa 49:13 Sing, heavens, and be joyful, earth; break into singing, you mountains! For Yehowah comforts his people and will have compassion on his afflicted.

Isa 49:14 But Zion said, “Yehowah has forsaken me, and my Lord has forgotten me.”
Isa 49:15 “Can a woman forget her baby nursing at her breast, so she does not have compassion on the son she has borne? Yes, they may forget, but I will not forget you.
Isa 49:16 Look, I have inscribed your name on my palms; your walls are continually before me.
Isa 49:17 Your children are hurrying back, while those who destroyed you are going away.
Isa 49:18 Look around and see, they are all gathering and coming to you. As surely as I live,” declares Yehowah, “you will surely wear them like jewelry; you will put them on like a bride.
Isa 49:19 Though you were a waste and desolate, a land that was in ruins, now you will be too small for the inhabitants, and those who devoured you will be far away.
Isa 49:20 The children born during the time of your bereavement will say in your hearing, ‘The place is too cramped for us, make room for us, so we may live here.’
Isa 49:21 Then you will ask yourself, ‘Who has borne these children for me? I was bereaved and barren, exiled and divorced. Who has raised these children? Look, I was left all alone; where did these come from?’”
Isa 49:22 This is what Lord Yehowah says, “Look, I will raise my hand to the ethnicities; I will raise my signal flag to the people. They will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.
Isa 49:23 Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursemaids; they will bow down to you with their faces to the earth and lick the dust of your feet; and you will know that I am Yehowah; those who wait for me will not be put to shame.”
Isa 49:24 Can the spoils be taken from the warrior, or captives be rescued from the fierce?
Isa 49:25 But this is what Yehowah declares, “Yes, the captives will be taken away from the warrior, and spoils will be rescued; for I will oppose your adversary and save your children.
Isa 49:26 I will feed your oppressors with their own flesh; and they will get drunk on their own blood, as if it were wine. Then all mankind will know that I, Yehowah, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Strong One of Jacob.”

Isaiah Chapter 50

Isa 50:1 This is what Yehowah says, “Where is the certificate of divorce with which I divorced your mother? To which of my creditors did I sell you? Look, you were sold because of your sins, and because of your rebellion, your mother was sent away.
Isa 50:2 Why did I come, but there was no one there? Why did I call, but no one answered? Was my hand too short to ransom you? Was there no power in me to rescue you? Look, at my rebuke I dry up the sea; I make the rivers a desert; their fish die for lack of water and rot.
Isa 50:4 Lord Yehowah has given me a tongue as one of those who are taught, so that I speak a sustaining word to the weary one; he wakes me dawn by dawn; he awakens my ear to hear like those who are taught.
Isa 50:5 Lord Yehowah has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, nor did I turn away backward.
Isa 50:6 I gave my back to those who beat me, and my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard; I did not hide my face from acts of shame and spitting.
Isa 50:7 For Lord Yehowah will help me; therefore, I am not disgraced; so I have made my face like flint, for I know that I will not be put to shame.
Isa 50:8 He who will justify me is close by. Who will oppose me? Let us stand and confront one another. Who is my accuser? Let him come near to me.
Isa 50:9 See, Lord Yehowah will help me. Who will declare me guilty? See, they will all wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.
Isa 50:10 Who among you fears Yehowah? Who obeys the voice of his servant? Who walks in deep darkness without light? He should trust in the name of Yehowah and lean on his Divine One.
Isa 50:11 Look, all you who light fires, who equip yourselves with torches: Walk in the light of your fire and in the flames that you have ignited. This is what you have received from me: You will lie down in a place of pain.

Isaiah Chapter 51

Isa 51:1 Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek Yehowah: Look at the rock from which you were chiseled and to the quarry from which you were cut.
Isa 51:2 Look at Abraham, your father, and to Sarah, who bore you; for when he was a lone individual, I called him. I blessed him and made him many.
Isa 51:3 Yes, Yehowah will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places; her wilderness he made like Eden, and her desert plains beside the Jordan River Valley like the garden of Yehowah; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving, and the sound of singing.
Isa 51:4 “Be attentive to me, my people; listen to me, my people! For the law will go out from Me, and I will make my justice to be a light for the ethnicities.
Isa 51:5 My righteousness is near; my salvation will go out, and my arm will judge the ethnicities; the coastlands will wait for me; for my arm they will eagerly wait.
Isa 51:6 Lift up your eyes to the sky, and look at the earth beneath, for the heavens will vanish away like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and its inhabitants will die like flies. But my salvation will continue forever, and my righteousness will never stop working.
Isa 51:7 Listen to me, you who know what is right, you people who have my law in your heart: Do not fear the insults of people nor be disheartened by their abuse.
Isa 51:8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my righteousness will be forever and my salvation to all generations.”
Isa 51:9 Awake, awake, clothe yourself with strength, arm of Yehowah. Awake as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Is it not you who crushed the sea monster, you who pierced the crocodile?
Isa 51:10 Did you not dry up the SEA, the waters of the great deep, and make the depths of the SEA into a way for the redeemed to pass through?
Isa 51:11 The ransomed of Yehowah will return and come to Zion with cries of joy and with gladness forever on their heads; and gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and mourning will flee away.
Isa 51:12 “I, I am he who comforts you. Why are you afraid of men who will die, the sons of mankind who are made like grass?
Isa 51:13 Why have you forgotten Yehowah your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth? You are in constant dread every day because of the hot fury of the oppressor, when he decides to destroy. Where is the fury of the oppressor?

Isa 51:14 The one who is bent down, Yehowah will hurry to release; he will not die and go down to the pit, nor will he lack bread.
Isa 51:15 For I am Yehowah your Divine One, who churns up the SEA, so that its waves roar, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name.
Isa 51:16 I have placed my words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, 'You are my people.'"
Isa 51:17 Awake, awake, stand up, Jerusalem, you who have drunk out of the hand of Yehowah from the bowl of his anger; you who have drunk out of the bowl down to the dregs from the cup of staggering.
Isa 51:18 There is no one among all the sons she has born to guide her; there is no one among all the sons that she has raised to take her by the hand.
Isa 51:19 These two troubles happened to you, who will grieve with you? Desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword, who will comfort you?
Isa 51:20 Your sons have fainted; they lie at every street corner, like an antelope in a net; they are filled with the anger of Yehowah, the rebuke of your Divine One.
Isa 51:21 But now, hear this you oppressed one and drunken one but not drunk with wine:
Isa 51:22 Your Lord Yehowah, your Divine One, who pleads the cause of his people, says this, "See, I have taken the cup of staggering from your hand, the bowl, which is the cup of my anger, so that you will not drink it again.
Isa 51:23 I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, those who have said to you, 'Lie down, that we may walk over you;' you made your back like the ground and like the street for them to walk on."

Isaiah Chapter 52

Isa 52:1 Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, set-apart city; for never again will the uncircumcised or the unclean enter you.
Isa 52:2 Shake yourself off from the dust; arise and sit, Jerusalem; take off the chain from your neck, captive daughter of Zion.
Isa 52:3 For this is what Yehowah says, “You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money.”
Isa 52:4 For this is what Lord Yehowah declares, “In the beginning, my people went down into Egypt to live temporarily; Assyria has oppressed them recently.
Isa 52:5 Now what do I have here,” declares Yehowah, “seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them wail,” declares Yehowah, “and my name is slandered continually all day long.
Isa 52:6 Therefore, my people will know my name; they will know in that day, that I am the One who says, “Yes, it is I!”
Isa 52:7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who brings the good news, who announces peace, who bears good tidings, who announces salvation, who declares to Zion, “Your Divine One reigns” (Rom. 10:15)!
Isa 52:8 Listen, your watchmen raise their voices, together they shout for joy, for they will see, every eye of theirs, the return of Yehowah to Zion.
Isa 52:9 Break out into joyful singing together, you ruins of Jerusalem; for Yehowah has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem.
Isa 52:10 Yehowah has bared his set-apart arm in the sight of all the ethnicities; all the earth will see the salvation of our Divine One.
Isa 52:11 Leave, leave, go out from there; touch nothing unclean; leave from her midst; purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of Yehowah.
Isa 52:12 For you will not go out in a rush, nor will you leave in a panic; for Yehowah will go before you; and the Mighty One of Israel will be your rearguard.
Isa 52:13 Look, my Servant will act wisely; he will be high and lifted up, and he will be exalted.
Isa 52:14 As many were horrified at you, his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any man, and his form no longer looked like anything human.
Isa 52:15 Even so, my Servant will sprinkle many ethnicities, and kings will shut their mouths because of him. For that which they had not been told of him, they will see, and that which they had not heard, they will understand (Rom. 15:21).

Isaiah Chapter 53

Isa 53:1 (Passage begins with 52:13-15.) Who has believed our announcement, and to whom has the arm of Yehowah been revealed (John 12:38)?
Isa 53:2 For he grew up before Yehowah like a sapling, and like a sprout out of parched earth; he had no remarkable appearance or splendor; when we saw him, there was no beauty to attract us.
Isa 53:3 He was despised and rejected by people; a man of sorrows, and One familiar with pain. Like One from whom people hide their faces, he was despised; and we considered him insignificant.
Isa 53:4 But surely he has borne our sicknesses and carried our sorrows; yet we thought he was being punished, struck by the Almighty and afflicted.
Isa 53:5 But he was pierced because of our rebellious deeds; he was crushed because of our sins. The punishment for our peace was on him, and with his wounds we are healed.
Isa 53:6 We all like sheep have gone astray; we have each turned to his own way, and Yehowah has placed on him the iniquity of us all.
Isa 53:7 He was oppressed; yet when he humbled himself, he did not open his mouth; as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.
Isa 53:8 By coercion and judgment he was condemned; who from that generation thought anymore about him? But he was executed; because of the offenses of my people, the penalty was put on him (Dan. 9:26).
Isa 53:9 They placed his grave with the criminals, with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, nor had there been any deceit in his mouth.
Isa 53:10 Yet it was the will of Yehowah to crush him and make him ill. When he makes his life an offering for sin, he will see his offspring, he will prolong his days, and the purpose of Yehowah will be accomplished through him.
Isa 53:11 After the suffering of his life, he will see light and be satisfied. By his knowledge my Righteous Servant will justify many; he will bear their iniquities.
Isa 53:12 Therefore, will I give him his portion among the multitudes, and he will divide the spoils with the many, because he exposed himself to death and was numbered with the transgressors. He bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Isaiah Chapter 54

Isa 54:1 “Sing, you barren woman, you who have not given birth; break into joyful singing and cry aloud, you who have never been in birth labor. For the children of the desolate one are more than the children of the married woman” (Gal. 4:27), declares Yehowah.
Isa 54:2 “Make your tent larger and spread your tent curtains farther out, unsparingly; lengthen your ropes and strengthen your stakes.
Isa 54:3 For you will spread out to the right hand and to the left, and your descendants will conquer ethnicities and resettle desolate cities.
Isa 54:4 Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed nor be discouraged, for you will not be disgraced; you will forget the shame of your youth and the disgrace of your widowhood.
Isa 54:5 For your Maker is your husband; Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name. The Set-apart One of Israel is your Redeemer; he is called the Mighty One of the whole earth.
Isa 54:6 For Yehowah has called you back as a wife abandoned and grieved in spirit, like a woman married young and rejected,” declares your Divine One.
Isa 54:7 “For a short time I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.
Isa 54:8 In a flood of anger, I hid my face from you momentarily; but with everlasting covenant faithfulness, I will have mercy on you,” declares Yehowah, “the One who rescues you.
Isa 54:9 For this is like the waters of Noah to me: As I swore that the waters of Noah would never again pass over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.
Isa 54:10 Though the mountains may fall and the hills be shaken, yet my steadfast love will not turn away from you, nor will my covenant of peace be shaken,” declares Yehowah, “who has mercy on you.
Isa 54:11 Afflicted one, storm-driven and uncomforted one, look, I will set your pavement in turquoise, and lay your foundations with sapphires.
Isa 54:12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies and your gates of sparkling stones, and your outer wall of beautiful stones.
Isa 54:13 Then all your children will be taught by Yehowah; and the peace of your children will be great.
Isa 54:14 In righteousness, I will reestablish you. You will no longer experience persecution, for you will not be afraid, and nothing frightening will come near you.
Isa 54:15 Look, if anyone stirs up trouble, it will not be from me; anyone who stirs up trouble with you will fall in defeat.

Isa 54:16 See, I have created the blacksmith, who blows the burning coals and forges weapons as his work, and I have created the destroyer to destroy.
Isa 54:17 No weapon that is formed against you will succeed; and you will condemn everyone who accuses you. This is the heritage of the servants of Yehowah and their vindication from me," declares Yehowah.

Isaiah Chapter 55

Isa 55:1 “Come, everyone who is thirsty, come to the water, and you who have no money, come, buy, and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost (Rev. 22:17).
Isa 55:2 Why do you weigh out silver-currency for what is not bread, and why do you labor for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in fatness.
Isa 55:3 Turn your ears and come to me! Listen, that you may live! I will make an everlasting covenant with you: My reliable, faithful love promised to David.
Isa 55:4 Look, I have placed him as a witness to the ethnicities, as a leader and commander of the people.
Isa 55:5 Look, you will call to an ethnicity that you did not know; and an ethnicity that did not know you will run to you because of Yehowah your Divine One, the Set-apart One of Israel, who has glorified you.”
Isa 55:6 Seek Yehowah while he may be found; call on him while he is nearby.
Isa 55:7 Let the wicked leave his path and the man of sin his thoughts. Let him return to Yehowah, and he will pity him, and to our Divine One, who will abundantly forgive him.
Isa 55:8 “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my Ways,” declares Yehowah.
Isa 55:9 “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my Ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
Isa 55:10 For as the rain and snow come down from the sky and do not return there, unless they saturate the earth, make it produce, sprout, and give seed to the farmer who sows and bread to the eater,
Isa 55:11 so also my word will be what goes from my mouth: It will not return to me useless, but it will accomplish that which I wish, and it will succeed in that for which I sent it.
Isa 55:12 For you will go out in joy and be led along peacefully; the mountains and the hills will break out in joyful shouts before you, and all the trees of the fields will clap their hands.
Isa 55:13 Instead of the thorn bushes, the cypress will grow; and instead of the brier, the myrtle tree will grow, and it will be for Yehowah, for his name, as an everlasting sign that will not be cut off.”

Isaiah Chapter 56

Isa 56:1 This is what Yehowah declares, “Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is coming soon, and my righteousness is about to be revealed.
Isa 56:2 Blessed is the man that does this, and who holds it tightly. He observes the Sabbath, not defiling it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”
Isa 56:3 Let no foreigner who has become a follower of Yehowah say, “Yehowah will certainly exclude me from his people.” The eunuch should not say, “See, I am a dry tree.”
Isa 56:4 For this is what Yehowah declares, “To the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths and choose what pleases me, and hold fast my covenant,
Isa 56:5 to them I will set up in my house and within my walls a monument that is better than having sons and daughters. I will give them an everlasting monument that will never be cut off.
Isa 56:6 Also, ethnicities who join themselves to Yehowah, to serve him, and who love the name of Yehowah, to worship him, every one who observes the Sabbath, and who keeps from defiling it, and who holds fast my covenant,
Isa 56:7 I will bring to my set-apart mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar. For my temple will be called a house of prayer for all ethnicities” (Mark 11:17),
Isa 56:8 declares Lord Yehowah, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, “I will still gather others in addition to them.”
Isa 56:9 All you wild beasts of the field, come and devour, all you beasts in the forest!
Isa 56:10 All their watchmen are blind, they do not understand. They are all silent dogs who cannot bark. They dream, and lying down they love to sleep.
Isa 56:11 The dogs have big appetites; they can never get enough; they are shepherds without discernment; they have all turned to their own way, each one covetous for unjust gain, according to his own will.
Isa 56:12 “Come,” they say, “let us drink wine and beer. Tomorrow will be like today, a day great beyond measure.”

Isaiah Chapter 57

Isa 57:1 The righteous perish, but no one considers it, and the people of covenant faithfulness are gathered away, but no one understands that the righteous is gathered away from the evil.
Isa 57:2 He enters into peace; they rest in their beds, those who walk in their uprightness.
Isa 57:3 But come here, you sons of the sorceress, children of the adulterer and the woman who has prostituted herself.
Isa 57:4 Whom are you merrily mocking? Against whom are you opening the mouth and sticking out the tongue? Are you not children of rebellion, children of deceit?
Isa 57:5 You heat yourselves up with deities, having sex together under the oaks, under every green tree, you who kill your children in the dry riverbeds, under the rocky overhangs.
Isa 57:6 Among the smooth things of the river valley are the things that have been assigned to you. They are the object of your devotion. You pour out your drink offering to them and raise up a grain offering. In these things should I take pleasure?
Isa 57:7 You prepared your bed on a high mountain; you also went up there to offer sacrifices.
Isa 57:8 Behind the door and the doorposts you set up your symbols; you deserted me, made yourselves naked, and went up; you made your bed wide. You made a covenant with them; you loved their beds; you saw their private parts.
Isa 57:9 You went to Molech with oil; you multiplied perfumes. You send your ambassadors far away; you went down to the place of the dead.
Isa 57:10 You were tired from your long journey, but you never said, “It is hopeless.” You found life in your hand; therefore you did not weaken.
Isa 57:11 “Whom are you worried about? Whom do you fear so much that has caused you to act so deceitfully, so much that you would not remember me or think about me? Because I was silent for so long, you are no longer afraid of me.
Isa 57:12 I will proclaim all your righteous acts and tell all that you have done, but they will not help you.
Isa 57:13 When you cry out, let your collection of idols rescue you. Instead, the wind will carry them all away, a breath will carry them all away. Yet he who takes refuge in me will inherit the land and will take possession of my set-apart mountain.
Isa 57:14 He will say, ‘Build, build! Clear a way! Remove all the stumbling blocks from the path of my people!’”

Isa 57:15 For this is what the high and elevated One says, who lives eternally, whose name is set apart, “I live in the exalted and Set-apart Place, with him also that is of a crushed and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble ones, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.
Isa 57:16 For I will not accuse forever, nor will I be angry forever, for then man’s spirit would faint before me, the lives that I have made.
Isa 57:17 Because of the sin of his violent gain, I was angry, and I punished him; I hid my face and was angry, but he went backward in the way of his heart.
Isa 57:18 I have seen his ways, but I will heal him. I will lead him, and comfort and console those who mourn for him,
Isa 57:19 and I create the fruit of the lips. Peace, peace to those who are far off and to those who are near,” says Yehowah, “I will heal them.
Isa 57:20 But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest, and its waters churn up mire and mud.
Isa 57:21 There is no peace for the wicked,” declares the Almighty.

Isaiah Chapter 58

Isa 58:1 “Cry loudly; do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Confront my people with their rebellion and the house of Jacob with their sins.
Isa 58:2 Yet they seek me daily and delight in the knowledge of my Ways, like a nation that practiced righteousness and did not abandon the law of their Divine One. They ask me for righteous judgments; they take pleasure in the thought of the Almighty coming near.
Isa 58:3 ‘Why have we fasted,’ they ask, ‘but you do not see it? Why have we humbled ourselves, but you do not notice?’ Look, on the day of your fast, you find your own pleasure and oppress all your laborers.
Isa 58:4 Look, you fast to quarrel and fight, and to hit with your fist of wickedness; you do not fast today to make your voice heard above.
Isa 58:5 Is this really the kind of fast that I would want: A day for anybody to humble himself, for him to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself? Do you really call this a fast, a day that pleases Yehowah?
Isa 58:6 Is not this the fast that I choose: To release wicked bonds, to undo the ropes of the yoke, to set the crushed ones free, and to break every yoke?
Isa 58:7 Is it not to break your bread with the hungry and to bring the poor and homeless into your house?” When you see someone naked, you should clothe him; and you should not hide yourself from your own relatives.
Isa 58:8 Then your light would be broken open like daybreak, and your healing would quickly sprout up; your righteousness would go before you, and the glory of Yehowah would be your rearguard.
Isa 58:9 Then you would call, and Yehowah would answer; you would cry out for help, and he would say, “Here I am!” If you take away from among yourselves the yoke, the accusing finger, and the speech of wickedness,
Isa 58:10 if you yourselves provide for the hungry and satisfy the need of the distressed; then your light will rise in the darkness, and your darkness will be like the noonday.
Isa 58:11 Then Yehowah will lead you continually and satisfy you in regions where there is no water, and he will strengthen your bones. You will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters never fail.
Isa 58:12 Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins; you will raise up the ruins of many generations; you will be called, “The repairer of the wall, the restorer of streets to live on.”
Isa 58:13 Suppose that you turn back your feet from traveling on the Sabbath, and from doing your own pleasure on my set-apart day. Suppose that you call the Sabbath a delight, and that you call the matters of Yehowah set apart and honored. Suppose that you honor the Sabbath by leaving your own business, and by not finding your own pleasure, and by not speaking your own words. Isa 58:14 “Then you will find delight in Yehowah; and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed you from the inheritance of Jacob your father,” for the mouth of Yehowah has spoken.

Isaiah Chapter 59

Isa 59:1 Look, the hand of Yehowah is not so short that it cannot save; nor his ear so dull, that it cannot hear.
Isa 59:2 Your sinful acts, however, have separated you from your Divine One, and your sins have made him hide his face from you and from hearing you.
Isa 59:3 For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with sin. Your lips speak lies and your tongue speaks maliciously.
Isa 59:4 No one calls in righteousness, and none pleads his case in truth. They trust in empty words and tell lies; they conceive trouble and give birth to sin.
Isa 59:5 They hatch eggs of a poisonous snake and weave a spider's web. Whoever eats of their eggs dies, and if an egg is crushed, it hatches into a poisonous snake.
Isa 59:6 Their webs cannot be used for garments, nor can they cover themselves with their works. Their works are works of sin, and deeds of violence are in their hands.
Isa 59:7 Their feet run to evil, and they run to pour out innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of sin; violence and destruction are their roads.
Isa 59:8 The Way of peace they do not know, and there is no justice in their paths. They have made crooked paths; whoever travels these paths does not know peace.
Isa 59:9 Therefore, justice is far from us, nor does righteousness reach us. We wait for light but see darkness; we look for brightness, but we walk in darkness.
Isa 59:10 We grope for the wall like the blind, like those who cannot see. We stumble at noonday as at dusk; among the strong we are like dead men.
Isa 59:11 We growl like bears and moan like doves; we wait for justice, but there is none; for rescue, but it is far from us.
Isa 59:12 For our many transgressions are before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and we know our sins.
Isa 59:13 We have rebelled, denying Yehowah and turning away from following our Divine One. We have spoken extortion and turning aside, conceived complaining from the heart and words of lying.
Isa 59:14 Justice is driven back, and righteousness stands far off; for truth stumbles in the public square, and right cannot come.
Isa 59:15 Truth has gone away, and he who turns away from evil makes himself a victim. Yehowah saw it and was displeased that there was no justice.
Isa 59:16 He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no one to intervene. Therefore, his own arm brought salvation for him, and his righteousness sustained him.

Isa 59:17 He put on righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation upon his head (Eph. 6:17; 1 Thes. 5:8). He clothed himself with garments of vengeance and wore zeal as a mantle.
Isa 59:18 He repaid them for what they had done, angry judgment to his adversaries, vengeance to his enemies, to the islands punishment as their reward.
Isa 59:19 So they will fear the name of Yehowah from the west, and his glory from the sun's rising; when the enemy comes as a narrow rushing stream, the Ruach of Yehowah will drive him away.
Isa 59:20 "A Redeemer will come to Zion and to those who turn from their rebellious deeds in Jacob," declares Yehowah.
Isa 59:21 "As for me, this is my covenant with them," declares Yehowah (Rom. 11:26-27), "my Ruach who is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, will not leave your mouth, or go out of the mouth of your children, or go out of the mouth of your children's children," declares Yehowah, "from this time and forever."

Isaiah Chapter 60

Isa 60:1 Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of Yehowah has risen on you.
Isa 60:2 Though darkness will cover the earth, and thick darkness the ethnicities; yet Yehowah will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen on you.
Isa 60:3 Ethnicities will come to your light, and kings to your bright light that is rising.
Isa 60:4 Look all around and see. They all gather themselves together and come to you. Your sons will come from far, and your daughters will be carried in their arms.
Isa 60:5 Then you will look and be radiant, and your heart will rejoice and overflow, because the abundance of the sea will be poured out to you, the wealth of the ethnicities will come to you.
Isa 60:6 Camel caravans will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all of them will come from Sheba; they will bring gold and frankincense, and will sing the praises of Yehowah.
Isa 60:7 All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth will serve your needs; they will be acceptable offerings on my altar; and I will glorify my glorious temple.
Isa 60:8 Who are these who fly along like a cloud and like the doves to their shelters?
Isa 60:9 The coastlands look for me, and the ships of Tarshish lead, to bring your sons from far away, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yehowah your Divine One, and for the Set-apart One of Israel, because he has honored you.
Isa 60:10 Sons of foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you; though in my wrath I punished you, yet in my grace I will have compassion on you.
Isa 60:11 Your gates also will remain open continually; they will not be shut day or night, so that the wealth of the ethnicities may be brought, with their kings being led.
Isa 60:12 Indeed, ethnicities and kingdoms that will not serve you will perish; those ethnicities will be completely destroyed.
Isa 60:13 The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the cypress tree, the fir, and the cypress box tree together, to beautify my sanctuary; and I will glorify the place of my feet.
Isa 60:14 They will come to you to bow down, the sons of those who humbled you; they will bow at your feet; they will call you the City of Yehowah, Zion of the Set-apart One of Israel.

Isa 60:15 Instead of you remaining abandoned and hated, with no one passing through you, I will make you a thing of pride forever, a joy from generation to generation.
Isa 60:16 You will also drink the milk of the ethnicities and will nurse at the breast of kings; you will know that I, Yehowah, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Strong One of Jacob.
Isa 60:17 Instead of bronze I will bring gold, instead of iron I will bring silver; instead of wood, bronze, and instead of stones, iron. I will appoint peace as your governors and justice your rulers.
Isa 60:18 Violence will no longer be heard in your land, or devastation, nor shattering within your borders; but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise!
Isa 60:19 The sun will no longer be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you; but Yehowah will be your everlasting Light and your Divine One your glory.
Isa 60:20 Your sun will no longer set, nor will your moon wane to conjunction; for Yehowah will be your everlasting Light, and the days of your mourning will be ended.
Isa 60:21 All your people will be righteous; they will take possession of the land for all time, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.
Isa 60:22 The little one will become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation; I, Yehowah, will swiftly accomplish these things (the final redemption) when the time comes.

Isaiah Chapter 61

Isa 61:1 The Ruach of Lord Yehowah is on me, because Yehowah has anointed me to proclaim the good news to the afflicted. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, and to set free those who are oppressed.
Isa 61:2 He has sent me to proclaim the year of the grace of Yehowah (Luke 4:18-19), the Day of vengeance of our Divine One, and to comfort all who mourn.
Isa 61:3 He has sent me to give to those who mourn in Zion, to give them a turban instead of ashes, oil of joy instead of mourning, a mantle of praise in place of a spirit of dullness, to call them oaks of righteousness, the planting of Yehowah, that he may be glorified.
Isa 61:4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins; they will restore the former desolations. They will restore the ruined cities, the desolations from many former generations.
Isa 61:5 Foreigners will stand and feed your flocks, and sons of ethnicities will work your fields and vineyards.
Isa 61:6 You will be called the priests of Yehowah; they will call you servants of our Divine One. You will eat the wealth of the ethnicities, and you will boast in their riches.
Isa 61:7 Instead of your shame you will have double; and instead of dishonor they will rejoice over their share. So they will have a double share of their land; everlasting joy will be theirs.
Isa 61:8 For I, Yehowah, love justice, and I hate robbery and violent injustice. I will faithfully repay them, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
Isa 61:9 Their descendants will be known among the ethnicities, and their offspring among the people. All who see them will acknowledge them, that they are the people whom Yehowah has blessed.
Isa 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in Yehowah; in my Divine One I will be glad! For he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has clothed me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom adorns himself with a turban, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
Isa 61:11 For as the earth produces its sprouting plants, and as the garden makes its planting grow, so Lord Yehowah will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up in front of all the ethnicities.

Isaiah Chapter 62

Isa 62:1 For Zion’s sake I will not be silent, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness proceeds brightly, and her salvation as a burning torch.
Isa 62:2 The ethnicities will see your righteousness and all kings your glory. You will be called by a new name that Yehowah will choose.
Isa 62:3 You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yehowah and a royal turban of kingship in the hand of your Divine One.
Isa 62:4 It will no more be said of you, “Abandoned;” nor of your land any longer will it be said, “Desolate.” Indeed, you will be called, “My delight is in her,” and your land, “Married,” for Yehowah delights in you, and your land will be married.
Isa 62:5 Truly, as a young man marries a young woman, so your sons will marry you, and as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, your Divine One will rejoice over you.
Isa 62:6 I have put watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem; they are not silent day or night. You who keep reminding Yehowah, do not be quiet.
Isa 62:7 Do not allow him to rest, until he reestablishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise on earth.
Isa 62:8 Yehowah has sworn by his right hand and by the arm of his strength, “Surely, I will no longer give your grain as food for your enemies. Foreigners will not drink your new wine, for which you have worked.
Isa 62:9 For those who harvest the grain will eat it and praise Yehowah, and those who pick the grapes will drink the wine in the courts of my set-apart sanctuary.”
Isa 62:10 Come through, come through the gates! Prepare the way for the people! Build up, build up the highway! Gather out the stones! Raise up a signal flag for the ethnicities!
Isa 62:11 Look, Yehowah announces to the ends of the earth, “Say to the daughter of Zion: Look, your Savior is coming! See, his reward is with him, and his recompense is going before him” (Rev. 22:12).
Isa 62:12 They will call you, “The set-apart people; the redeemed of Yehowah,” and you will be called, “Sought after; a city not abandoned.”

Isaiah Chapter 63

Isa 63:1 “Who is this who comes from Edom, clothed in red from Bozrah (in modern Jordan)? Who is he in royal clothing, marching confidently because of his great strength? It is I, speaking righteousness and powerfully able to save.
Isa 63:2 Why are your clothes red, and why do they look like you have been treading grapes in a winepress?
Isa 63:3 I have trodden grapes in the winepress alone, and no one from the ethnicities joined me. I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my fury. Their blood is spattered on my clothes and stained all my clothes (Rev. 14:18-20; 19:13-15; Joel 3:13).
Isa 63:4 For I looked forward to the Day of Vengeance, and the year for my redemption had arrived.
Isa 63:5 I looked, and there was no one to help. I wondered that there was none to help, but my own arm brought victory for me, and my strong anger drove me on.
Isa 63:6 I trampled down the ethnicities in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their blood on the earth.
Isa 63:7 I will tell of the acts of the covenant faithfulness of Yehowah, the praiseworthy deeds of Yehowah. I will tell of all that Yehowah has done for us, and of his great goodness to the house of Israel. This compassion he has shown us because of his mercy, and with many deeds of covenant faithfulness.
Isa 63:8 For he said, “For certain they are my people, children who are not disloyal.” He became their Savior.
Isa 63:9 Through all their suffering, he suffered too, and the angel from his presence saved them. In his love and mercy he saved them, and he lifted them up and carried them through all the ancient times.
Isa 63:10 But they rebelled and grieved his Ruach Kodesh. So he became their enemy and fought against them.
Isa 63:11 His people thought about the ancient times of Moses. They asked, “Where is Yehowah, who brought them up out of the SEA with the shepherds of his flock? Where is Yehowah, who put his Ruach Kodesh among them?
Isa 63:12 Where is Yehowah, who made his glorious power go with the right hand of Moses, and divided the water (SEA) before them, to make an everlasting name for himself?
Isa 63:13 Where is Yehowah, who led them through the deep water (SEA)? Like a horse running on flat land, they did not stumble.
Isa 63:14 As the cattle that go down into the valley, the Ruach of Yehowah gave them rest. So you led your people, to make yourself a name of praise.

Isa 63:15 Look down from Heaven and take notice from your set-apart and glorious habitation. Where are your zeal and your mighty acts? Your pity and your compassionate actions are kept from us.
Isa 63:16 For you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not recognize us, you, Yehowah, are our Father. ‘Our Redeemer’ has been your name from ancient times.
Isa 63:17 Yehowah, why do you make us wander from your Ways and harden our hearts, so we do not obey you? Return for your servants’ sake, the tribes of your inheritance.
Isa 63:18 Your people possessed your Set-apart Place for a short time, but then our enemies trampled it.
Isa 63:19 We have become like those over whom you never ruled, like those who were never called by your name.”

Isaiah Chapter 64

Isa 64:1 “Oh, if you had split open the heavens and come down! The mountains would have shaken at your presence,
Isa 64:2 as when fire kindles the brushwood, or the fire makes water boil. Oh, that your name would be known by your adversaries, that the ethnicities would tremble at your presence!
Isa 64:3 Previously, when you did marvelous things that we had not expected, you came down, and the mountains trembled at your presence.
Isa 64:4 Since ancient times, no one has heard or perceived, nor eye seen any Almighty One besides you, who does things for him who waits for him.
Isa 64:5 You come to help those who rejoice in doing what is right, those who call to mind your Ways and obey them. You were angry when we sinned. In your Ways, we will always be rescued.
Isa 64:6 For we have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a menstrual pad. We have all withered like leaves; our iniquities, like the wind, carry us away.
Isa 64:7 There are none who calls on your name, who makes an effort to take hold of you. For you have hidden your face from us and made us waste away in the hand of our iniquities.
Isa 64:8 Yet, Yehowah, you are our Father; we are the clay. You are our Potter; and we all are the work of your hand.
Isa 64:9 Be not too angry, Yehowah, nor always call to mind against us our sins. Please look at us all, your people.
Isa 64:10 Your set-apart cities have become a wilderness; Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.
Isa 64:11 Our set-apart and beautiful temple, where our fathers praised you, has been destroyed by fire, and all that was so dear is in ruins.
Isa 64:12 How can you still hold back, Yehowah? How can you remain silent and continue to humiliate us?”

Isaiah Chapter 65

Isa 65:1 “I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek. I announced, ‘Here I am! Here I am!’ to an ethnicity that did not call on my name.
Isa 65:2 I have spread out my hands all day to a stubborn ethnicity, who walk in a way that is not good, who have walked after their own thoughts and plans (Rom. 10:20-21)!
Isa 65:3 They are a people who continually offend me to my face, offering sacrifices in gardens, and burning incense on brick tiles.
Isa 65:4 They sit among the graves and keep watch all night, and eat pork with the broth of unclean meat in their dishes.
Isa 65:5 They declare, ‘Stand away, do not come near to me, for I am more set apart than you.’ These things are smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all day long.
Isa 65:6 Look, it is written before me: I will not keep quiet, for I will pay them back; I will repay them into their laps,
Isa 65:7 for their sins and the sins of their fathers together,” declares Yehowah. “I will repay them for burning incense on the mountains and for mocking me on the hills. I will therefore measure out their past deeds into their laps.”
Isa 65:8 This is what Yehowah declares, “As when juice is found in a cluster of grapes, when one says, ‘Do not ruin it, for there is good in it,’ this is what I will do for my servants’ sake: I will not ruin them all.
Isa 65:9 I will bring descendants from Jacob, and from Judah ones who will possess my mountains. My chosen ones will possess the land, and my servants will live there.
Isa 65:10 Sharon will become a pasture for the flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for my people who seek me.
Isa 65:11 But you who abandon Yehowah, who forget my set-apart mountain, who prepare a table for the deity Fortune, and fill wine glasses of mingled wine for the deity called Destiny:
Isa 65:12 I will destine you for the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter, because when I called, you did not answer; when I spoke, you did not listen. But you did what was evil in my sight and chose to do what displeases me.”
Isa 65:13 This is what Lord Yehowah declares, “Look, my servants will eat, but you will be hungry; look, my servants will drink, but you will be thirsty; look, my servants will rejoice, but you will be put to shame.

Isa 65:14 Look, my servants will shout with joy because of gladness of heart, but you will cry because of the pain of the heart, and will wail because of the crushing of the spirit.
Isa 65:15 You will leave behind your name as a curse for my chosen ones to speak; I, Lord Yehowah, will kill you; I will call my servants by another name.
Isa 65:16 Whoever pronounces a blessing on the earth will be blessed by me, the Mighty One of truth. Whoever takes an oath on the earth will swear by me, the Mighty One of truth, because the former troubles will be forgotten, for they will be hidden from my eyes.
Isa 65:17 For see, I am about to create new heavens and a new earth (2 Pet. 3:10-17; Rev. 21:1; Isa. 66:22); and the former things will not be remembered or be brought to mind.
Isa 65:18 But you will be glad and rejoice forever in what I am about to create. See, I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy and her people as a delight.
Isa 65:19 I will rejoice over Jerusalem and be glad over my people; weeping and cries of distress will no longer be heard in her.
Isa 65:20 Never again will an infant live there only a few days; nor will an old man die before his time. One who dies at one hundred years old will be considered a young person. Anyone who fails to reach the age of one hundred years old will be considered cursed.
Isa 65:21 They will build houses and inhabit them, and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
Isa 65:22 No longer will they build a house and another live in it; they will not plant, and another eat; for as the days of trees will be the days of my people. My chosen will fully outlive the work of their hands.
Isa 65:23 They will not labor in vain nor give birth to dismay. For they are the children of those blessed by Yehowah and their descendants with them.
Isa 65:24 Before they call, I will answer; and while they are still speaking, I will hear.
Isa 65:25 The cheetah and the lamb will graze together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox; but dust will be the snake's food. They will no longer hurt nor destroy on all my set-apart mountain," declares Yehowah (Isa. 11:6-8; Hos. 2:18).

Isaiah Chapter 66

Isa 66:1 This is what Yehowah says, “Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. Where then is the temple you will build for me? Where is the place where I may rest?
Isa 66:2 My hand has made all these things; that is how these things came to be,” declares Yehowah. “This is the man of whom I approve, the broken and contrite in spirit, and who trembles at my word.
Isa 66:3 He who slaughters an ox also murders a man; he who sacrifices a lamb also breaks a dog’s neck; he who offers a grain offering offers hog’s blood; he who offers a memorial of incense also blesses wickedness. They have chosen their own ways, and they take pleasure in their abominations.
Isa 66:4 In the same way, I will choose their own punishment; I will bring on them what they fear, because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, no one listened. They did what was evil in my sight and chose to do what displeases me.”
Isa 66:5 Hear the Word of Yehowah, you who tremble at his word, “Your brothers who hate and exclude you for my name’s sake have said, ‘May Yehowah be glorified, then we will see your joy,’ but they will be put to shame.
Isa 66:6 A sound of battle tumult comes from the city, a sound from the temple, the sound of Yehowah paying back his enemies.
Isa 66:7 Before she goes into labor, she gives birth; before pain is upon her, she gave birth to a Son.
Isa 66:8 Who has heard of such a thing? Who has seen such things? Will a land be born in one day? Can a nation be established in one moment? Yet as soon as Zion goes into labor, she gives birth to her children.
Isa 66:9 Do I bring a baby to the birth canal and not permit the child to be born?” asks Yehowah. “Or do I bring a child to the moment of delivery and then hold it back?” asks your Divine One.
Isa 66:10 Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her, all you who mourned over her!
Isa 66:11 For you will nurse and be satisfied; with her breasts you will be comforted; for you will drink them to the full and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.
Isa 66:12 This is what Yehowah declares, “I am about to spread peace over her like a river, and the riches of the ethnicities like an overflowing stream. You will nurse at her side, be carried in her arms, and be dandled on her knees.
Isa 66:13 As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you, and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

Isa 66:14 You will see this, and your heart will rejoice, and your bones will sprout like the tender grass. The hand of Yehowah will be made known to his servants, but he will show his anger against his enemies.
Isa 66:15 For look, Yehowah is coming with fire, and his chariots are coming like the windstorm to bring the heat of his anger, and his rebuke with flames of fire.
Isa 66:16 For Yehowah judges mankind by fire and with his sword. Those executed by Yehowah will be many.
Isa 66:17 They consecrate themselves and make themselves pure, so they may enter the gardens, following the one in the middle of those who eat hog's flesh and abominable things like mice. "They will come to an end," declares Yehowah.
Isa 66:18 "For I know their deeds and their thoughts. The time is coming when I will gather all ethnicities. They will come and see my glory.
Isa 66:19 I will set a mighty sign among them. Then I will send survivors from them to the ethnicities: To Tarshish, Put, and Lud, archers who draw their bows, to Tubal, Javan, and to the distant coastlands, where they have not heard about me nor seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the ethnicities.
Isa 66:20 They will bring back all your brothers out of all the ethnicities, as an offering to Yehowah. They will come on horses, and in chariots, in wagons, on mules, and on camels, to my set-apart mountain Jerusalem," declares Yehowah. "For the people of Israel will bring a grain offering in a clean vessel into the temple of Yehowah.
Isa 66:21 Some of these I will even choose as priests and Levites," says Yehowah.
Isa 66:22 "For just as the new heavens and the new earth that I will make will remain before me (2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 21:1; Isa. 65:17)," declares Yehowah, "so your descendants will remain, and your name will remain.
Isa 66:23 It will be from month to month, and from Sabbath to Sabbath, all people will come to bow down to me in worship," declares Yehowah (Zech. 14:16-19).
Isa 66:24 "They will go out and see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against me, for the maggots that eat them will not die, and the fire that consumes them will not be quenched; and it will be an abhorrence to all flesh" (Mark 9:44-48).

Book of Jeremiah

Jeremiah Chapter 1

Jer 1:1 This is the word of Jeremiah (Yirmeyahu) son of Hilkiah; he was one of the priests at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin.
Jer 1:2 The Word of Yehowah came to him in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign (c. 627 BC).
Jer 1:3 It also came in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem were taken away as prisoners (c. 587 BC).
Jer 1:4 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Jer 1:5 “Before I formed you in the womb, I chose you; before you came out from the womb I consecrated you; I made you a prophet to the ethnicities.”
Jer 1:6 “Ah, Lord Yehowah!” I said, “I do not know how to speak, for I am too young.”
Jer 1:7 But Yehowah ordered me, “Do not say, ‘I am too young.’ You must go everywhere I send you, and you must say whatever I command you!
Jer 1:8 Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to rescue you,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 1:9 Then Yehowah reached out with his hand, touched my mouth and said to me, “Now I have placed my words in your mouth.
Jer 1:10 Look, I am appointing you today over ethnicities and over kingdoms, to uproot and break down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and plant.”
Jer 1:11 The Word of Yehowah came to me, asking, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I answered, “I see an almond branch.”
Jer 1:12 Yehowah said to me, “You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to carry it out.”
Jer 1:13 The Word of Yehowah came to me a second time and asked, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a heated pot, whose surface is churning, tipping away from the north.”
Jer 1:14 Yehowah said to me, “Disaster will be opened up out of the north on all who live in this land.
Jer 1:15 For I am calling all the ethnicities of the northern kingdoms,” declares Yehowah. “They will come, and everyone will set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all the walls that surround it, and against all the cities of Judah.

Jer 1:16 I will pronounce sentence against them for all their evil in forsaking me, in burning incense to false deities, and in worshiping what they made with their own hands.
Jer 1:17 Get yourself ready! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not break down before them, or I will break you before them!
Jer 1:18 See! Today, I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land.
Jer 1:19 They will fight against you, but they will not defeat you, for I will be with you to rescue you," declares Yehowah.

Jeremiah Chapter 2

Jer 2:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Jer 2:2 “Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem. Say, ‘Yehowah says this: I have called to mind on your behalf the covenant faithfulness in your youthfulness, your love at the time when we were engaged, when you went after me in the wilderness, the land that was not sown.
Jer 2:3 Israel was set apart to Yehowah, the firstfruits of his harvest! All who ate from the firstfruits were held guilty; disaster came upon them,’” declares Yehowah.
Jer 2:4 Hear the Word of Yehowah, house of Jacob and every family in the house of Israel.
Jer 2:5 Yehowah says this, “What did your fathers find wrong with me, that they went far from following me? That they went after useless idols and became useless themselves?
Jer 2:6 They did not ask, ‘Where is Yehowah, who brought us up from the land of Egypt? Where is Yehowah, who led us to the wilderness, into the land of the Arabah and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, a land through which no one passes and where no one lives?’
Jer 2:7 But I brought you to the land of Carmel, to eat its fruit and other good things! Yet when you came, you defiled my land, you made my inheritance an abomination!
Jer 2:8 The priest did not ask, ‘Where is Yehowah?’ And the experts in the law did not know me! The shepherds transgressed against me. The prophets prophesied for Baal and walked after unprofitable things.
Jer 2:9 So I will still accuse you,” declares Yehowah, “and I will accuse your grandchildren.
Jer 2:10 For cross over to the coasts of Kittim and look. Send messengers out to Kedar and find out, and see if there has ever before been anything like this.
Jer 2:11 Has an ethnicity exchanged deities, even though they were not deities? But my people have exchanged their Glory for what cannot help them.
Jer 2:12 Shudder, Heaven, because of this! Be shocked and horrified,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 2:13 “For my people have committed two evils against me: They have abandoned the springs of living waters by digging out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns that cannot hold water!
Jer 2:14 Is Israel a slave? Was he not born at home? So why has he become plunder?
Jer 2:15 Young lions roared against him. They made a lot of noise and made his land a horror. His cities are destroyed without any inhabitants.

Jer 2:16 Also, the people of Memphis and Tahpanhes will shave your skull.
Jer 2:17 Did you not do this to yourselves when you abandoned Yehowah your Divine One, while he was leading you along the Way?
Jer 2:18 So now, why take the road to Egypt and drink the waters of Shihor? Why take the road to Assyria and drink the waters of the Euphrates River?
Jer 2:19 Your wickedness rebukes you, and your faithlessness punishes you. So think about it; understand that it is wicked and bitter for you to abandon me, Yehowah your Divine One, and to dread me no more," declares Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Jer 2:20 "For I broke your yoke that you had in ancient days; I tore your fetters off you. Still you stated, 'I will not serve!' since you bowed down on every high hill and beneath every leafy tree, you adulterer.
Jer 2:21 But I myself had planted you as a choice vine, a completely true seed. Yet how you have changed toward me, a disloyal one from a foreign vine!
Jer 2:22 For even if you clean yourself in the river or wash with strong soap, your iniquity is a stain before me," declares Lord Yehowah.
Jer 2:23 "How can you say, 'I am not defiled! I have not walked after the Baals?' Look at your behavior in the valleys! Understand what you have done, you swift camel running its own way!
Jer 2:24 You are a wild donkey, accustomed to the wilderness, longing for life and panting after the useless wind! Who turns her around when she is in heat? Anyone seeking her does not tire himself. They go out to her in her month of heat.
Jer 2:25 You must restrain your feet from becoming bare and your throat from being thirsty! But you have stated, 'It is hopeless! No, I love foreigners and go after them!'
Jer 2:26 Like the shame of a thief when he is found, so the house of Israel will be ashamed, they, their kings, their princes, and their priests and prophets!
Jer 2:27 These are the ones who say to the tree, 'You are my father,' and to the stone, 'You gave birth to me.' For their back faces me and not their faces. Nevertheless, they entreat in the time of troubles, 'Arise and save us!'
Jer 2:28 Yet, where are the deities that you made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they wish to save you in your time of troubles, for your idols equal your cities in number, Judah!
Jer 2:29 So why do you accuse me of doing wrong? All of you have sinned against me," declares Yehowah.
Jer 2:30 "I have punished your people in vain. They would not accept discipline. Your sword has devoured your prophets like a destructive lion!
Jer 2:31 You who belong to this generation! Pay attention to my word, the Word of Yehowah! Have I been a wilderness to Israel? Or a land of deep darkness?

Why would my people state, ‘Let us wander around, we will not go to you anymore?’
Jer 2:32 Will a virgin forget her jewelry, a bride her veils? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number!
Jer 2:33 How well you make your way to look for love. You have even taught your ways to wicked women.
Jer 2:34 The blood that was the life of innocent poor people has been found on your clothes. These people were not discovered in acts of burglary.
Jer 2:35 Instead, in spite of all these things, you keep stating, ‘I am blameless. Surely his anger will turn from me.’ But look! You will be judged since you say, ‘I have not sinned.’
Jer 2:36 Why do you treat so lightly this change in your ways? You will also be disappointed by Egypt, just as you were by Assyria.
Jer 2:37 You will also go out from there dejected, with your hands on your head, for Yehowah has rejected the ones whom you trusted, so you will not be helped by them.”

Jeremiah Chapter 3

Jer 3:1 “They say, ‘A man sends his wife away, so she goes from him and becomes another man’s wife. Should he return to her again? Is she not completely unclean?’ That woman is this land! You have acted like a whore with many companions, and now do you want to return to me?” declares Yehowah (Deut. 24:1-4).
Jer 3:2 “Lift up your eyes to the barren heights and look! Is there any place where you have not had illicit sex? By the roadsides you sat waiting for your lovers, as an Arab in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and wickedness.
Jer 3:3 So the rains were withheld, and the spring rains did not come. But your face is arrogant, like a promiscuous woman’s face. You refuse to feel shame.
Jer 3:4 Now will you not call out to me: ‘My father! My closest friend even from my youth!
Jer 3:5 Will he be angry with me forever? Will you always keep your anger?’ Look! You have proclaimed you would commit evil, and you have committed it. So continue to do it!”
Jer 3:6 Then Yehowah said to me in the days of King Josiah, “Do you see how Israel is faithless to me? She goes to every high mountain and under every leafy tree, and there she acts like a promiscuous woman.
Jer 3:7 I said, ‘After she does all these things, she will return to me,’ but she did not return. Then her faithless sister Judah saw what she did.
Jer 3:8 So I saw that for all these reasons she committed adultery. Apostate Israel! I sent her out and gave her a decree of divorce. But her treasonous sister, Judah, did not fear and went out and also acted like a promiscuous woman!
Jer 3:9 It mattered nothing to her that she defiled the land, so they made idols from the stone and the tree.
Jer 3:10 Then after all of this, neither did her faithless sister Judah return to me with all her heart but with a lie!” declares Yehowah.
Jer 3:11 Then Yehowah said to me, “Faithless Israel has been more righteous than faithless Judah!
Jer 3:12 Go and proclaim these words to the north. Say, ‘Return, faithless Israel!’ declares Yehowah, ‘I will not always be angry with you. Since I am faithful,’ declares Yehowah, ‘I will not stay angry forever.
Jer 3:13 Acknowledge your iniquity, for you have transgressed against Yehowah your Divine One; you have shared your ways with foreigners under every leafy tree! For you have not listened to my voice!’ declares Yehowah.
Jer 3:14 ‘Return, faithless people!’ declares Yehowah, ‘for I have married you! I will take you, one from a city, two from a clan, and I will bring you to Zion!

Jer 3:15 I will give you shepherds after my heart, and they will shepherd you with knowledge and insight.
Jer 3:16 Then it will happen that you will increase and bear fruit in the land in those days,' declares Yehowah. 'They will no longer say, "The Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah!" This matter will no longer come up in their hearts, for they will no longer think about it or pay attention to it. It will never be made again.'
Jer 3:17 In that time, they will proclaim about Jerusalem, 'This is the throne of Yehowah,' and all the ethnicities will gather at Jerusalem in the name of Yehowah. They will no longer walk in the stubbornness of their wicked hearts.
Jer 3:18 In those days, the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel. They will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave your ancestors as an inheritance.
Jer 3:19 As for me, I said, 'How I want to honor you as my son and give you a pleasant land, an inheritance more beautiful than what is in any ethnicity!' I would have said, 'You will call me "my Father."' I would have said that you would not turn from following me.
Jer 3:20 But like a woman faithless to her husband, you have betrayed me, house of Israel," declares Yehowah.
Jer 3:21 A voice is heard on the plains, the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel! For they have changed their ways; they have forgotten Yehowah their Divine One.
Jer 3:22 "Return, faithless people! I will heal you of treachery!" "Behold! We will come to you, for you are Yehowah our Divine One!
Jer 3:23 Only lies come from the hills, from the many mountains. Certainly, the salvation of Israel is only in Yehowah our Divine One.
Jer 3:24 Yet shameful idols have consumed what our ancestors have worked for, their flocks and cattle, their sons and daughters!
Jer 3:25 Let us lie down in shame. May our shame cover us, for we have sinned against Yehowah our Divine One! We ourselves and our ancestors, from the time of our youthfulness to this present day, have not listened to the voice of Yehowah our Divine One!"

Jeremiah Chapter 4

Jer 4:1 “If you return, Israel,” declares Yehowah, “then it should be to me that you return. If you remove your detestable things from before me and do not wander from me again,
Jer 4:2 and if you swear, ‘Yehowah lives in truth, justice, and righteousness,’ the ethnicities will ask for my blessing, and they will praise me.
Jer 4:3 For Yehowah declares this to each person in Judah and Jerusalem: ‘Plow your own ground and do not sow among thorns.
Jer 4:4 Be circumcised to Yehowah and remove the foreskins of your heart, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or else my fury will go out like fire and burn, with no one able to extinguish it. This will happen because of the wickedness of your deeds.
Jer 4:5 Report in Judah and let it be heard in Jerusalem. Cry, “Blow the trumpet in the land!” Proclaim, “Gather together! Let us go to the fortified cities!”
Jer 4:6 Lift up the signal flag and point it toward Zion, and run for safety! Do not stay, for I am bringing disaster from the north and a great collapse.
Jer 4:7 A lion is coming out from his thicket and someone who will destroy ethnicities is setting out. He is leaving his place to bring horror to your land, to turn your cities into ruins, where no one will live.
Jer 4:8 Because of this, wrap yourself in sackcloth, lament and wail. For the force of the anger of Yehowah has not turned away from us.
Jer 4:9 Then it will happen in that day,’ declares Yehowah, ‘that the hearts of the king and his officials will die. The priests will be appalled, and the prophets will be horrified.’”
Jer 4:10 So I said, “Ah! Lord Yehowah. Surely you have completely deceived this people and Jerusalem by proclaiming, ‘There will be peace for you.’ Yet the sword is striking against their life.”
Jer 4:11 In that time, it will be said of this people and Jerusalem, “A burning wind from the plains of the desert will make its way to the daughter of my people. It will not winnow or cleanse them.
Jer 4:12 A wind far stronger than that will come at my command, and I will now pass sentence against them.
Jer 4:13 See, he is attacking like clouds, and his chariots are like a storm. His horses are faster than eagles. Woe to us, for we will be devastated!
Jer 4:14 Cleanse your heart from wickedness, Jerusalem, so that you might be saved. How long will your deepest thoughts be about how to sin?
Jer 4:15 For a voice is bringing news from Dan, and the coming disaster is heard from the mountains of Ephraim.

Jer 4:16 Make the ethnicities think about this: See, announce to Jerusalem that besiegers are coming from a distant land to shout in battle against the cities of Judah.
Jer 4:17 They will be like the watchmen of a cultivated field against her all around, since she has been rebellious against me," declares Yehowah, Jer 4:18 "and your conduct and your deeds have done these things to you. This will be your punishment. How terrible it will be! It will strike your heart.
Jer 4:19 My heart! My heart! I am in anguish in my heart. My heart is turbulent within me. I cannot keep quiet for I hear the sound of the trumpet, an alarm for battle.
Jer 4:20 Collapse after collapse is proclaimed, for all the land is suddenly devastated. They devastate my tabernacle and my tent abruptly.
Jer 4:21 How long will I see the standard? Will I hear the sound of the trumpet?
Jer 4:22 For the foolishness of my people, they do not know me. They are idiotic people, and they have no understanding. They have skill at evil but do not know to do good.
Jer 4:23 I saw the land, and see! It was formless and empty. For there was no light for the heavens.
Jer 4:24 I looked at the mountains. Behold, they were trembling, and all the hills were shaking about.
Jer 4:25 I looked. Behold, there was no one, and all the birds of the sky had fled.
Jer 4:26 I looked. Behold, the orchards were a wilderness, and all the cities had been pulled down before Yehowah, before the fury of his wrath."
Jer 4:27 This is what Yehowah declares, "All the land will become a devastation, but I will not completely destroy them.
Jer 4:28 For this reason, the land will mourn, and the heavens above will darken. For I have declared my intentions; I will not hold back; I will not turn from carrying them out.
Jer 4:29 Every city will flee from the noise of the cavalry and the archers with a bow; they will run into the forests. Every city will climb up into the rocky places. The cities will be abandoned, for there will be no one to inhabit them.
Jer 4:30 Now that you have been devastated, what will you do? For though you dress in scarlet, adorn yourself with gold jewelry, and make your eyes look bigger with paint, your beauty is vain, the men who lusted for you now reject you. Instead, they are trying to take away your life.
Jer 4:31 So I hear the sound of anguish, distress as in the birth of a firstborn child, the sound of the daughter of Zion. She is gasping for breath. She spreads out her hands, 'Woe to me! I am fainting because of these murderers.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 5

Jer 5:1 “Rush about through the streets of Jerusalem; search in her city squares, too. Then look and think about this: If you can find a man or anyone who is acting justly and trying to act faithfully, then I will forgive Jerusalem.
Jer 5:2 Even if they are swearing, ‘By the life of Yehowah,’ they are making false oaths.”
Jer 5:3 Yehowah, do your eyes not look for faithfulness? You struck the people, but they do not feel pain. You have completely defeated them, but they still refuse to receive discipline. They make their faces harder than rock, for they refuse to repent.
Jer 5:4 So I said, “Surely these are only poor people. They are foolish, for they do not know the Ways of Yehowah, nor the decrees of their Divine One.
Jer 5:5 I will go to the important people and declare the messages of the Almighty to them, for they at least know the Ways of Yehowah, the decrees of their Divine One. But they all broke their yoke together; they all tore apart the chains that bound them to the Almighty.
Jer 5:6 So a lion from a thicket will attack them. A cheetah from the Arabah will ruin them. A lurking panther will come against their cities. Anyone who goes outside his city will be torn apart. For their transgressions increase. Their acts of faithlessness are unlimited.
Jer 5:7 Why should I pardon these people? Your sons have abandoned me and have made oaths by what are not deities. I fed them fully, but they committed adultery and took on the marks of a house of prostitution.
Jer 5:8 They were horses in heat. They roamed about wanting to mate. Each man neighed to his neighbor’s wife.
Jer 5:9 So should I not punish them,” asks Yehowah, “and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?
Jer 5:10 Go up onto her vineyards’ terraces and destroy. But do not bring complete destruction to them. Trim their vines, since those vines do not come from Yehowah.
Jer 5:11 For the houses of Israel and Judah have completely betrayed me,” declares Yehowah, Jer 5:12 “and they have denied me. They say, ‘He is not real. Evil will not come on us, nor will we see sword or famine.
Jer 5:13 For the prophets have become as useless as the wind, and there is no one else to declare the messages of the Almighty to us. Let their threats come upon themselves.’”

Jer 5:14 So Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces declares this, “Because you have said this, see, I am about to place my word in your mouth. It will be like a fire, and this people will be like wood! For it will consume them.
Jer 5:15 See! I am about to bring an ethnicity against you from far away, house of Israel,” declares Yehowah, “it is a lasting ethnicity, an ancient ethnicity! It is an ethnicity whose language you do not know, nor will you understand what they say.
Jer 5:16 Its quiver is like an open tomb. They are all soldiers.
Jer 5:17 So your harvest will be consumed, your sons and daughters also, and your food. They will eat your flocks and cattle; they will eat the fruit from your vines and fig trees. They will batter down with a sword your fortified cities that you trusted in.
Jer 5:18 But even in those days,” declares Yehowah, “I do not intend to destroy you completely.
Jer 5:19 It will happen when you, Israel and Judah, ask, ‘Why has Yehowah our Divine One done all these things to us?’ that then you, Jeremiah, will prophesy to them, ‘Just as you abandoned Yehowah and worshiped foreign deities in your land, so you will also serve foreigners in a land that is not your own.’
Jer 5:20 Report this to the house of Jacob and let it be heard in Judah. Say,
Jer 5:21 ‘Hear this, foolish people! For idols have no will; there are eyes in them, but they cannot see. There are ears on them, but they do not hear.
Jer 5:22 Do you not fear me,’ declares Yehowah, ‘or tremble before my face? I have placed a border of sand against the sea, an ongoing decree that it does not violate, even though the sea rises and falls, still it does not violate it. Even though its waves roar, they do not cross it.
Jer 5:23 But this people has a stubborn heart. It turns away in rebellion and goes away.
Jer 5:24 For they do not say in their hearts, “Let us fear Yehowah our Divine One, the One who brings the rain, the autumn rain and the spring rains, in their right time, keeping the fixed weeks of the harvest for us.”
Jer 5:25 Your iniquities kept these things from happening. Your sins have stopped good from coming to you.
Jer 5:26 For wicked men are found with my people. They watch as someone crouches to capture birds; they set a trap and catch people.
Jer 5:27 Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of deceit. So they grow large and become rich.
Jer 5:28 They have become fat; they shine with well-being. They crossed over all bounds of wickedness. They do not plead the cause of the people, or the cause of the orphan. They prosper even though they have not given justice to the needy.
Jer 5:29 Should I not punish them for these things,’ asks Yehowah, ‘and will I not take vengeance for myself on a nation like this?

Jer 5:30 Atrocities and horrors have occurred in the land.
Jer 5:31 The prophets prophesy with deceit, and the priests rule with their own power. My people love it this way, but what will happen in the end?'"

Jeremiah Chapter 6

Jer 6:1 Find safety, people of Benjamin, by leaving Jerusalem. Blow a trumpet in Tekoa. Raise up over Beth Hakerem a signal-fire, since wickedness is appearing from the north; a great crushing is coming.
Jer 6:2 The daughter of Zion, the beautiful and delicate woman, will be destroyed.
Jer 6:3 The shepherds and their flocks will go to them; they will set up tents against her all around; each man will shepherd with his own hand.
Jer 6:4 “Dedicate yourselves to the deities for the battle. Arise, let us attack at noon. It is too bad that the daylight is fading away, that the shadows of dusk are falling.
Jer 6:5 But let us attack at night and destroy her fortresses.”
Jer 6:6 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: “Cut her trees, and heap up siegeworks against Jerusalem. This is the right city to attack, because it is filled with oppression.
Jer 6:7 Just as a well keeps giving water, so this city keeps producing wickedness. Violence and disorder are heard in her. Suffering and plague are continually before me.
Jer 6:8 Accept discipline, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make you into a ruin, an uninhabited land.”
Jer 6:9 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this, “They will certainly glean those who are left in Israel like a vineyard. Reach out again with your hand to pick grapes from the vines.
Jer 6:10 To whom should I declare and warn so they will listen? Look! Their ears are uncircumcised; they are not able to pay attention! Look! The Word of Yehowah has come to them to correct them, but they do not want it.”
Jer 6:11 But I am filled with the fury of Yehowah. I am tired of holding it in. He commanded me, “Pour it out on the children in the streets and on the groups of young men. For every man will be taken away with his wife; and every old person heavy with years.
Jer 6:12 Their houses will be turned over to others, both their fields and their wives together. For I will attack the inhabitants of the land with my hand,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 6:13 “Yehowah declares that from their smallest to their greatest, each of them is greedy for dishonest gain. Prophets to priest, everyone practices deceit.
Jer 6:14 But they have healed the wounds of my people lightly. They shout, ‘Peace! Peace!’ when there is no peace.

Jer 6:15 Were they ashamed when they committed abominations? They were not ashamed at all. They had no shame. So they will fall with those who fall at the time that I punish them. They will be overthrown," declares Yehowah.
Jer 6:16 Yehowah declares this, "Stand at the road crossing and look; ask for the ancient Pathways. 'Where is this good Way?' Then go on it and find a resting place for yourselves. But the people say, 'We will not go.'
Jer 6:17 I appointed for you watchmen to listen for the trumpet. But they said, 'We will not listen.'
Jer 6:18 Therefore, ethnicities, listen! See, you witnesses, what will happen to them.
Jer 6:19 Hear, earth! See, I am about to bring disaster to this people, the fruit of their thoughts. They paid no attention to my word or law, but they instead rejected it."
Jer 6:20 "What does this frankincense going up from Sheba mean to me? Or these sweet smells from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable to me nor are your sacrifices.
Jer 6:21 So Yehowah declares this, 'See, I am about to place a stumbling block against this people. They will stumble over it, fathers and sons together. Inhabitants and their neighbors will also perish.'
Jer 6:22 Yehowah declares this, 'See, a people is coming from a northern land. For a great ethnicity has been stirred up to come from a distant land.
Jer 6:23 They will pick up bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion. Their sound is like the sea roar, and they are cavalry in formation as fighting men, daughter of Zion.'"
Jer 6:24 We have heard the news about them. Our hands fall limp in distress. Anguish seizes us as a woman bearing a child.
Jer 6:25 Do not go out to the fields and do not walk on the roads, for the swords of the enemy and terror are all around.
Jer 6:26 Daughter of my people, fasten on sackcloth and roll about in the dust of a funeral for an only child. Perform a bitter funeral for yourself, for the destroyer will come suddenly upon us.
Jer 6:27 "I have made you, Jeremiah, one who tests my people like one would test metal, so you will inspect and test their ways.
Jer 6:28 They are all the most stubborn of people, who go about slandering others. All of them are bronze and iron, acting corruptly.
Jer 6:29 The bellows are scorched by the fire that is burning them; the lead is consumed in the flames. The refining continues among them, but it is useless, because the evil is not removed.
Jer 6:30 They will be called rejected silver, for Yehowah has rejected them."

Jeremiah Chapter 7

Jer 7:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah,
Jer 7:2 “Stand at the gate of the temple of Yehowah and proclaim this word, ‘Hear the Word of Yehowah, all you of Judah, you who enter these gates to worship Yehowah.
Jer 7:3 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: “Make your ways and practices good, and I will let you continue to live in this place.
Jer 7:4 Do not entrust yourself to deceitful words and cry, “Temple of Yehowah! Temple of Yehowah! Temple of Yehowah!”
Jer 7:5 For if you actually make your ways and practices good; if you completely execute justice between a man and his neighbor,
Jer 7:6 if you do not exploit the sojourning foreigner staying in the land, the orphan, or the widow, and do not pour out innocent blood in this place, and do not walk after false deities to your own harm,
Jer 7:7 then I will let you stay in this place, in the land that I gave to your ancestors from ancient times and forever.
Jer 7:8 Behold! You are trusting in deceitful words that do not help you.
Jer 7:9 Do you steal, murder (John 10:10), and commit adultery? Do you swear deceitfully and offer incense to Baal and walk after false deities whom you have not known?
Jer 7:10 Then do you come and stand before me in this temple where my name is proclaimed and declare, “We are saved,” so you can do all of these abominations?
Jer 7:11 Is this temple, which carries my name, a den of bandits in your eyes (Mark 11:17)? But behold, I have seen it,’” declares Yehowah.
Jer 7:12 ‘So go to my place that was in Shiloh, where I allowed my name to stay there in the beginning, and look at what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel.
Jer 7:13 So now, on account of your doing all of these practices,’ declares Yehowah, ‘I spoke to you time and time again, but you did not listen. I summoned you, but you did not answer.
Jer 7:14 Therefore, what I did to Shiloh, I will also do to this temple that is called by my name, the temple in which you have trusted, this place that I gave to you and your ancestors.
Jer 7:15 For I will send you out from before me, just as I had sent out all your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.’

Jer 7:16 As for you, Jeremiah, do not pray for this people, and do not lift up a lamenting wail or say a prayer on their behalf, and do not petition me, for I will not listen to you.
Jer 7:17 Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
Jer 7:18 The children are gathering wood and the fathers are kindling the fire! The women are kneading dough to make cakes for the queen of the heavens and pour out drink offerings for false deities, so that they will provoke me.
Jer 7:19 Are they truly provoking me?" asks Yehowah. "Is it not themselves whom they are provoking, so that shame is on them?
Jer 7:20 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this, 'See, my anger and wrath will gush out onto this place, on both man and beast, on the tree in the fields and the fruit on the ground. It will burn and never be extinguished.'
Jer 7:21 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, says this, 'Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and the meat from them.
Jer 7:22 For when I brought your ancestors out from the land of Egypt, I did not require anything from them. I gave them no command about matters of burnt offerings and sacrifices.
Jer 7:23 I only gave them this command, "Listen to my voice, and I will be your Divine One, and you will be my people. So walk in all the Ways that I am commanding you, so that it may go well with you."
Jer 7:24 But they did not listen or pay attention. They lived by their own stubborn plans of their wicked hearts, so they went backwards, not forward.
Jer 7:25 Ever since the day when your ancestors went out from the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent every one of my servants, my prophets, to you. I persisted in sending them.
Jer 7:26 But they did not listen to me. They paid no attention. Instead, they hardened their necks. They were more wicked than their ancestors.'
Jer 7:27 So proclaim all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. Proclaim these things to them, but they will not answer you.
Jer 7:28 Say to them, "This is a nation that does not listen to the voice of Yehowah its Divine One and does not receive discipline. Truth is destroyed and cut off from their mouths.
Jer 7:29 Cut off your hair, shave yourself, and throw away your hair. Sing a funeral song over the open places. For Yehowah has rejected and abandoned this generation in his rage.
Jer 7:30 For the sons of Judah have done evil in my eyes," declares Yehowah, "they have set their detestable things in the temple where my name is proclaimed, in order to defile it.

Jer 7:31 Then they built the high place of Topheth that is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom. They did this to burn their sons and daughters in fire, something that I did not command, nor did it enter my mind.
Jer 7:32 So see, days are coming," declares Yehowah, "when it will no longer be called Topheth or Valley of Ben Hinnom. It will be the Valley of Slaughter; they will bury bodies in Topheth until there is no room left.
Jer 7:33 The corpses of this people will be food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away.
Jer 7:34 I will put an end to the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, the sounds of exaltation and jubilation, the sounds of the groom and the bride; since the land will become a desolation."""

Jeremiah Chapter 8

Jer 8:1 “At that time,” declares Yehowah, “they will bring out from the graves the bones of the kings of Judah and its officials, the bones of the priests and the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Jer 8:2 Then they will spread them out in the light of the sun, moon, and all the stars of the skies; these things in the sky that they have followed and served, that they have walked after and sought, and that they have worshiped. The bones will not be gathered or buried again. They will be like dung on the surface of the earth.
Jer 8:3 In every remaining place where I have driven them, they will choose death instead of life for themselves, all who are still left over from this evil nation,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Jer 8:4 So say to them, ‘Yehowah declares this: “Does anyone fall and not get up? Does anyone get lost and not try to return?
Jer 8:5 Why has this people, Jerusalem, turned away in permanent faithlessness? They hold on to treachery and refuse to repent.
Jer 8:6 I paid attention and listened, but they did not speak right; no one was sorry for his wickedness, no one who asks “What have I done?” All of them go where they wish, like a stallion rushing toward battle.
Jer 8:7 Even the stork in the sky knows the right times; and the doves, swifts, and cranes. They go on their migrations at the right time, but my people do not know the decrees of Yehowah.
Jer 8:8 How can you say, “We are wise, for the Law of Yehowah is with us?” Indeed, see! The deceitful pen of the scribes has created deceit.
Jer 8:9 The wise men will be ashamed. They are dismayed and trapped. See! They reject the Word of Yehowah, so what use is their wisdom?
Jer 8:10 So I will give their wives to others, and their fields to those who will possess them, for from the youngest to the greatest, all of them are exceedingly greedy! From the prophet to the priest, all of them practice deceit.
Jer 8:11 For they treated the fracture of the daughter of my people as if it were a trivial thing. They shouted, “Peace, peace,” but there was no peace!
Jer 8:12 Were they ashamed when they practiced abominations? They were not ashamed. They had no humility. So they will fall at the time of their punishment, with those who have already fallen. They will be overthrown,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 8:13 “I will remove them completely,” declares Yehowah. “There will be no grapes on the vine, nor will there be figs on the fig trees. For the leaf will wither, and what I have given to them will pass away.
Jer 8:14 ‘Why are we sitting here? Come together; let us go to the fortified cities, and we will become silent there in death. For Yehowah our Divine One will silence us. He will make us drink poison (opium, poppy juice), since we have sinned against Yehowah.

Jer 8:15 We are hoping for peace, but there will be nothing good. We are hoping for a time of healing, but see, there will be terror.'
Jer 8:16 The snorting of his stallions is heard from Dan. The whole earth shakes at the sound of the neighing of his strong horses. For the cavalry will come and consume the land and its wealth, the city and the ones living in it.
Jer 8:17 For see, I am sending out snakes among you, vipers that you cannot charm. They will bite you,"' declares Yehowah.
Jer 8:18 "My sorrow has no end, and my heart is sick.
Jer 8:19 See! The screaming voice of the daughter of my people from a far distant land! Is not Yehowah in Zion? Or is not her King in her? Why then would they offend me with their carved figures and foreign worthless idols?
Jer 8:20 'The harvest has passed on, summer is over. But we have not been saved.'
Jer 8:21 I am hurt because of the hurt of the daughter of my people. I mourn at the horrible things that have happened to her; I am dismayed.
Jer 8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why will the healing of the daughter of my people not happen?

Jeremiah Chapter 9

Jer 9:1 If only my head could produce water, and my eyes be a fountain of tears! For I wish to weep day and night for those among the daughter of my people who have been killed.
Jer 9:2 If only someone would give me a place for travelers in the wilderness to stay, where I could go to abandon my people. If only I could leave them, since all of them are adulterers, a band of traitors!"
Jer 9:3 Yehowah declares, "They tread on their bows of lies with their tongues, but it is not because of any faithfulness of theirs that they grow strong on the earth. They go from one wicked act to another. They do not know me.
Jer 9:4 Each of you, be on guard against your neighbor and do not trust in any brother. For every brother is certainly a deceiver, and every neighbor walks in slander.
Jer 9:5 Each man mocks his neighbor and does not speak the truth. Their tongues teach deceitful things. They are exhausted from committing iniquity.
Jer 9:6 Your dwelling is in the midst of deception; in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge me," declares Yehowah.
Jer 9:7 So Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this, "See, I am about to test them. I will examine them. How else should I act for the daughter of my people?
Jer 9:8 Their tongues are sharpened arrows; they speak unfaithful things. With their mouths they proclaim peace with their neighbors, but with their hearts they lie in wait for them.
Jer 9:9 Should I not punish them because of these things," asks Yehowah, "and should I not avenge myself on a nation that is like this?
Jer 9:10 I will sing a song of mourning and wailing for the mountains, and a funeral song will be sung for the meadows. For they are burned, so no one can pass through them. They will not hear the sound of any livestock. The birds of the sky and the animals have all fled away.
Jer 9:11 So I will turn Jerusalem into piles of ruins, a hideout for jackals. I will make Judah's cities ruined places without inhabitants."
Jer 9:12 Who is the wise man that understands this? What does the mouth of Yehowah proclaim to him, so he might report it? Why has the land perished? It is destroyed like the wilderness, where there is no one to pass through it.
Jer 9:13 Yehowah says, "It is because they have abandoned my law that I set before them, because they do not listen to my voice or walk by it.
Jer 9:14 It is because they have walked by their stubborn hearts and have followed the Baals as their fathers taught them to do.

Jer 9:15 Therefore, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘See, I am about to make this people eat wormwood and drink poisonous water (opium, poppy juice).
Jer 9:16 Then I will scatter them among the ethnicities that they have not known, neither they nor their ancestors. I will send out a sword after them, until I have completely destroyed them.’”
Jer 9:17 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this, “Think about this: Summon funeral singers; let them come. Send out for women skilled at lamenting; let them come.
Jer 9:18 Let them hurry and sing a mournful song over us, so our eyes may run with tears and our eyelids flow with water.
Jer 9:19 For the sound of wailing is heard in Zion, ‘How we are devastated. We are greatly ashamed, for we have abandoned the land since they tore down our houses.’
Jer 9:20 So you women, hear the Word of Yehowah; pay attention to the messages that come from his mouth. Then teach your daughters a mourning song and each neighbor woman a funeral song.
Jer 9:21 For death has come through our windows; it goes into our palaces. It destroys children from outside and young men in the city squares.
Jer 9:22 Speak this, ‘Yehowah declares, the corpses of men will fall like dung in the fields and like grain stalks after the reapers, and there will be no one to gather them.’”
Jer 9:23 Yehowah says this, “Do not let the wise man take pride in his wisdom or the warrior in his might. Do not let the wealthy man take pride in his riches.
Jer 9:24 For if a man takes pride in anything, let it be in this, that he has insight and knows me. For I am Yehowah, who acts with covenant loyalty, justice, and righteousness on earth. For it is in these that I take pleasure,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 9:25 “See, days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when I will punish all the circumcised who are such only in their body.
Jer 9:26 I will punish Egypt and Judah, Edom, the people of Ammon, Moab, and all the people who cut the hair on their heads extremely short. For all these ethnicities are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel has an uncircumcised heart.”

Jeremiah Chapter 10

Jer 10:1 “Hear the word that Yehowah is announcing to you, house of Israel.
Jer 10:2 Yehowah declares this, ‘Do not learn the ways of the ethnicities and do not be dismayed by the signs in the heavens, for the ethnicities are dismayed by these.
Jer 10:3 For the customs of the ethnicities are worthless. For someone cuts a tree down in a forest; the hands of a craftsman do this with an ax.
Jer 10:4 Then they decorate it with silver and gold. They strengthen it with hammer and nails, so it will not fall over.
Jer 10:5 These idols are like scarecrows in a cucumber field, for they can say nothing. They have to be carried, for they cannot take any steps at all. Do not fear them, for they cannot bring about evil, nor are they able to do anything good.’”
Jer 10:6 There is no one like you, Yehowah. You are great, and your name is great in power!
Jer 10:7 Who does not fear you, king of the ethnicities? For this is what you deserve, for there is no one like you among all the wise men of the ethnicities or all their royal kingdoms.
Jer 10:8 They are all the same, they are brutish and stupid, disciples of idols that are nothing but wood.
Jer 10:9 They bring hammered silver from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz made by artificers, the hands of refiners. Their clothes are blue and purple cloth. Their skillful men made all of these things.
Jer 10:10 But Yehowah is the true Almighty. He is the living Almighty and eternal King. The earth quakes at his anger, and the ethnicities cannot endure his anger.
Jer 10:11 You will speak to them like this, “The deities that did not make the heavens and earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”
Jer 10:12 The Maker of earth in his power established the globe in his wisdom and spread the heavens in his understanding.
Jer 10:13 His voice makes the roar of waters in the heavens, and he brings up the mists from the ends of the earth. He makes lightning for the rain and sends out wind from his storehouse.
Jer 10:14 Every man has become ignorant, without knowledge. Every metalworker is put to shame by his idols. For his cast images are frauds; there is no life in them.
Jer 10:15 They are useless, the work of mockers; they will perish at the time of their punishment.

Jer 10:16 But Yehowah, the portion of Jacob, is not like these, for he is the molder of all things. Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name.
Jer 10:17 Gather your luggage and leave the land, you people who have been living under the siege.
Jer 10:18 For Yehowah declares this, “See, I am about to throw the inhabitants of the land out this time. I will cause them distress, and they will find it to be so.”
Jer 10:19 Woe to me! Because of my broken bones, my wound is infected. So I said, “Surely this is agony, but I must bear it.”
Jer 10:20 My tent is devastated, and all of my tent cords are cut in two. They have taken my children away from me, so they no longer exist. There is no longer anyone to spread out my tent or to raise up my tent curtains.
Jer 10:21 For the shepherds have become stupid. They do not seek Yehowah. So they have no success; all their flocks are scattered.
Jer 10:22 The voice of an intelligence report has arrived, “See! It is coming, a great earthquake is coming from the land of the north to make the cities of Judah into ruins, hideouts for jackals.”
Jer 10:23 I know, Yehowah, that a man’s path does not come from himself. No person walking directs his own steps.
Jer 10:24 Discipline me, Yehowah, with justice, not in your anger or you would destroy me.
Jer 10:25 Pour your fury on the ethnicities that do not know you, and on the families that do not call on your name. For they have devoured Jacob and consumed him, so as to completely destroy him and demolish his habitation.

Jeremiah Chapter 11

Jer 11:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah,
Jer 11:2 “Listen to the words of this covenant, and declare them to each man in Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Jer 11:3 Say to them, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel declares this: “Cursed is anyone who does not listen to the words of this covenant.
Jer 11:4 This is the covenant that I commanded your ancestors to keep in the day I brought them out from the land of Egypt, from the furnace for smelting iron. I said, “Listen to my voice and do all of these things just as I have commanded you, for you will be my people, and I will be your Divine One.”
Jer 11:5 Obey me, so that I may confirm the oath that I swore to your ancestors, the oath that I would give them the land flowing with milk and honey, where you live today.”’” Then I, Jeremiah, answered, “Yes, Yehowah!”
Jer 11:6 Yehowah ordered me, “Proclaim all these things in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, ‘Listen to the words of this covenant and carry them out.
Jer 11:7 For I have been giving commands to your ancestors from the day I brought them up from the land of Egypt until this present time, persistently warning them to, “Listen to my voice.”’
Jer 11:8 But they did not listen or pay attention. Each person has been walking in the stubbornness of his wicked heart. So I brought all the curses in this covenant that I commanded to come against them. But the people still did not obey.”
Jer 11:9 Next, Yehowah said to me, “A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Jer 11:10 They have turned to the iniquities of their earliest ancestors, who refused to listen to my word, who instead walked after false deities to worship them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah broke my covenant that I established with their ancestors.
Jer 11:11 Therefore, Yehowah declares this, ‘See, I am about to bring disaster on them, disaster from which they will not be able to escape. Then they will call out to me, but I will not listen to them.
Jer 11:12 The cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and call out to the deities to which they had given offerings, but they will certainly not be saved by them at the time of their disaster.
Jer 11:13 For you Judah, the number of your deities has increased to equal the number of your cities. You have made the number of shameful altars in Jerusalem, incense altars for Baal, equal to the number of her streets.

Jer 11:14 So you yourself, Jeremiah, must not pray for this people. You must not wail or pray on their behalf. For I will not be listening when they call on me in their disaster.
Jer 11:15 Why is my beloved one, the one who has had so many wicked intentions, in my temple? The set-apart meat of your sacrifices cannot help you. You rejoice because of your evil actions.
Jer 11:16 In the past, Yehowah called you a leafy olive tree, beautiful with lovely fruit (Rom. 11:17; Zech. 4:11-12). But he will light a fire on it that will sound like the roar of a storm; its branches will be broken.
Jer 11:17 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, the One who planted you, has decreed disaster against you, because of the wicked acts that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have committed, they have angered me by giving offerings to Baal.'"
Jer 11:18 Yehowah made me know these things, so I know them. You, Yehowah, made me see their deeds.
Jer 11:19 I was like a gentle lamb being led to a butcher. I did not know that they had formed plans against me, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit! Let us cut him off from the land of the living, so his name will no longer be remembered."
Jer 11:20 Yet Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is the righteous judge who examines the heart and the mind. I will witness your vengeance against them, for I have presented my case to you.
Jer 11:21 Therefore, Yehowah says this concerning the people of Anathoth who are seeking your life, "They say, 'You must not prophesy in the name of Yehowah, or you will die by our hand.'
Jer 11:22 Therefore, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this, 'See, I am about to punish them. Their vigorous young men will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters will die by famine.
Jer 11:23 None of them will be left, because I am bringing disaster against the people of Anathoth, a year of their punishment.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 12

Jer 12:1 You are righteous, Yehowah, whenever I bring disputes to you. I must certainly tell you of my reason to complain: Why do the ways of the wicked succeed? All the faithless people are successful.
Jer 12:2 You planted them and they took root. They continue to produce fruit. You are near to them in their mouths, but far away from their hearts.
Jer 12:3 Yet you yourself know me, Yehowah. You have seen me and have examined my heart. Take them away like sheep to the slaughter. Set them apart for the Day of slaughter.
Jer 12:4 How long will the land go on drying up, and the plants in every field wither because of the wickedness of its inhabitants? Beasts and birds have been taken away. Indeed, the people say, “Yehowah does not know what will happen to us.”
Jer 12:5 The Lord said, “Indeed, if you, Jeremiah, have run with infantrymen and they have tired you out, how can you compete against cavalry? If you fall down in the safe countryside, how will you do in the thickets along the Jordan River?
Jer 12:6 For even your brothers and your father’s family have betrayed you and have loudly denounced you. Do not trust in them, even if they say nice things to you.
Jer 12:7 I have abandoned my house; I have forsaken my inheritance. I have given my own beloved people into the hands of her enemies.
Jer 12:8 My inheritance has become to me like a lion in a thicket; she sets herself against me with her own voice, so I hate her.
Jer 12:9 My prized possession is a hyena, and birds of prey circle around her overhead. Go, gather all the living creatures in the fields, and bring them in to eat them.
Jer 12:10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard. They have stomped all over my portion of land; they turned my delightful portion into a wilderness, a desolation.
Jer 12:11 They have made her a desolation. I mourn for her; she is desolate. All the land has been made desolate, for there is no one who takes it to heart.
Jer 12:12 Destroyers have come against all the bare places in the wilderness, for the sword of Yehowah is devouring from one end of the land to the other. There is no safety in the land for any living creature.
Jer 12:13 They have sown wheat but harvest thorn bushes. They are exhausted from work but have gained nothing. So be ashamed of your gain because of the anger of Yehowah.”
Jer 12:14 Yehowah declares this against all my neighbors, the wicked ones who strike at the possession that I made my people Israel inherit, “See, I am the One who is about to uproot them from their own ground, and I will pull up the house of Judah from among them.

Jer 12:15 Then after I uproot those ethnicities, it will happen that I will have compassion on them and bring them back; I will return them, each man to his inheritance and his land.
Jer 12:16 It will come about that if those ethnicities carefully learn the Ways of my people, to swear by my name, 'As Yehowah lives!' just as they have taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up in the midst of my people.
Jer 12:17 But if any do not listen, then I will uproot that ethnicity. It will certainly be uprooted and destroyed," declares Yehowah.

Jeremiah Chapter 13

Jer 13:1 Yehowah said this to me, “Go and buy a linen undergarment and put it on around your waist but do not put it in water first.”
Jer 13:2 So I bought an undergarment as Yehowah directed, and I put it on around my waist.
Jer 13:3 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me a second time,
Jer 13:4 “Take the undergarment that you purchased that is around your waist, get up and travel to the Euphrates. Hide it there in a rock crevice.”
Jer 13:5 So I went and hid it in the Euphrates just as Yehowah had commanded me.
Jer 13:6 After many days, Yehowah said to me, “Get up and go back to the Euphrates. Take from there the undergarment that I had told you to hide.”
Jer 13:7 So I went back to the Euphrates and dug out the undergarment where I had hid it. But behold! The undergarment was destroyed; it was no good at all.
Jer 13:8 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me again,
Jer 13:9 “Yehowah declares this: In the same way, I will destroy the great arrogance of Judah and Jerusalem.
Jer 13:10 This wicked people who refuses to listen to my word, who walk in the hardness of their heart, who go after false deities to worship them and bow down to them, they will be like this undergarment that is good for nothing.
Jer 13:11 For just as an undergarment clings to someone’s hips, so I have made all the house of Israel and all the house of Judah cling to me,” declares Yehowah, “to be my people, to bring me fame, praise, and honor. But they would not listen to me.
Jer 13:12 So you must speak this word to them, ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says this: Every jar will be filled with wine.’ They will answer you, ‘Do we not indeed know that every jar will be filled with wine?’
Jer 13:13 So say to them, ‘Yehowah declares this: See, I am about to fill with drunkenness every inhabitant of this land, the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Jer 13:14 Then I will smash each man against the other, fathers and children together,’ declares Yehowah, ‘I will not pity them or have compassion, and I will not spare them from destruction.’”
Jer 13:15 Listen and pay attention. Do not be arrogant, for Yehowah has spoken.
Jer 13:16 Give glory to Yehowah your Divine One before he brings darkness, and before he causes your feet to stumble on the mountains at dusk. For you are hoping for light, but he will turn the place into a deep darkness, into a dark cloud.
Jer 13:17 So if you will not listen, I will weep alone because of your arrogance.

My eyes will certainly weep and flow with tears, for the flock of Yehowah has been taken captive.
Jer 13:18 “Say to the king and to the queen mother, ‘Humble yourselves and sit down, for the crowns on your head, your pride and glory, have fallen off.’
Jer 13:19 The cities in the Negev will be shut up, with no one to open them. Judah will be taken captive, all of her into exile.
Jer 13:20 Lift up your eyes and look at the ones coming from the north. Where is the flock he gave to you, the flock that was so beautiful to you?
Jer 13:21 What will you say when Yehowah places over you those whom you had taught to be your friends? Are these not the beginnings of the labor pains that will seize you just like a woman in childbirth?
Jer 13:22 Then you might ask in your heart, ‘Why are these things happening to me?’ It will be for the multitude of your iniquities that your skirts are raised up, and you have been violated.
Jer 13:23 Can the ethnic Cushites change their skin color, or a leopard change its spots? If so, then you yourself, although accustomed to wickedness, would be able to do good.
Jer 13:24 So I will scatter them like chaff that perishes in the desert wind.
Jer 13:25 This is what I have given to you, the portion I have decreed for you,” declares Yehowah, “because you have forgotten me and trusted in deceit.
Jer 13:26 So also I myself will strip your skirts off you, and your private parts will be seen.
Jer 13:27 Your adultery and neighing, the shamefulness of your promiscuous behavior on the hills and in the fields! I will cause them to be seen, these detestable things! Woe to you, Jerusalem! You have not been clean. How long will this continue?”

Jeremiah Chapter 14

Jer 14:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Jeremiah regarding the drought,
Jer 14:2 “Let Judah mourn; let her gates fall apart. They are wailing for the land; their cries for Jerusalem are going up.
Jer 14:3 Their chiefs send out their servants for water. When they go to the trenches, they cannot find water. They all return unsuccessful; they cover their heads ashamed and dishonored.
Jer 14:4 Because of this, the ground is cracked, for there is no rain in the land. The plowmen are ashamed and cover their heads.
Jer 14:5 For even the doe leaves her young in the fields and abandons them, for there is no grass.
Jer 14:6 The wild donkeys stand on the bare plains, and they pant in the wind like jackals. Their eyes fail to work, for there is no vegetation.”
Jer 14:7 Even though our iniquities testify against us, Yehowah, act for the sake of your name. For our faithless actions increase; we have sinned against you.
Jer 14:8 Hope of Israel, the One who saves him in the time of distress, why will you be like a sojourner in the land, like a foreign wanderer who stretches out and spends just one night?
Jer 14:9 Why will you be like a confused man, like a warrior who is not able to rescue anyone? For you are in our midst, Yehowah! Your name has been proclaimed over us. Do not leave us.
Jer 14:10 Yehowah says this to this people: “Since they love to wander, they have not held back their feet from doing so.” Yehowah is not pleased with them. Now he calls to mind their iniquity and has punished their sins.
Jer 14:11 Yehowah ordered me, “Do not pray for good on behalf of this people.
Jer 14:12 For if they fast, I will not listen to their wailing, and if they offer up burnt offerings and food offerings, I will not take pleasure in them. For I will put an end to them by sword, famine, and plague.”
Jer 14:13 Then I said, “Oh, Lord Yehowah! See! The prophets are saying to the people, ‘You will not see sword; there will be no famine for you, for I will give you true security in this place.’”
Jer 14:14 Yehowah said to me, “The prophets prophesy deceit in my name. I did not send them out, nor did I give them any command or speak to them. But deceitful visions and useless, deceitful divination coming from their own minds are what they are prophesying to you.”
Jer 14:15 Therefore, Yehowah declares this, “About the prophets prophesying in my name, but whom I did not send out, those who say there will be no sword or famine in this land: These prophets will perish by sword and famine.

Jer 14:16 Then the people to whom they prophesied will be thrown out in the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and sword, for there will be no one to bury them, them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters, for I will pour out their wickedness on them.
Jer 14:17 Say this word to them: 'Let my eyes flow with tears, night and day. Do not let them stop, for there will be a great collapse of the virgin daughter of my people, a great and incurable wound.
Jer 14:18 If I go out to the field, there are the ones who were killed by the sword! If I come to the city, there are the diseases that are caused by famine. Both the prophet and the priest wander about the land, and they do not know.'"
Jer 14:19 Have you completely rejected Judah? Do you hate Zion? Why will you afflict us, when there is no healing for us? We hoped for peace, but there was nothing good, and for a time of healing, but see, there is only terror.
Jer 14:20 We admit, Yehowah, our offenses, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you.
Jer 14:21 Do not reject us! For the sake of your name, do not make your glorious throne a disgrace. Remember, and do not break your covenant with us.
Jer 14:22 Is there among the idols of the ethnicities anyone who can make the heavens give the spring rain? Are you not the One, Yehowah our Divine One, who does this? We hope in you, for you have done all these things.

Jeremiah Chapter 15

Jer 15:1 Then Yehowah said to me, “Even if Moses or Samuel were standing in front of me, I would still not be in favor of this people. Send them out from before me, for them to go away.
Jer 15:2 It will happen that they will ask you, ‘Where should we go?’ Then you must answer them, ‘Yehowah declares this: Those destined for death should go to death; those destined for the sword should go to the sword. Those destined for famine should go to famine; and those destined for captivity should go to captivity.’
Jer 15:3 For I will assign them to four groups,” declares Yehowah, “the sword to slaughter some, the dogs to drag some away, the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth to consume and destroy some.
Jer 15:4 I will make of them a horrifying thing to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.
Jer 15:5 For who will have compassion for you, Jerusalem? Who will grieve for you? Who will turn to ask about your welfare?
Jer 15:6 You have forsaken me,” declares Yehowah, “you have gone back from me. So I will strike you with my hand and destroy you. I am tired of having mercy on you.
Jer 15:7 So I will winnow them with a pitchfork at the gates of the land. I will bereave them. I will destroy my people since they will not turn from their ways.
Jer 15:8 I will make their widows number more than the sands of the seashore. Against the mothers of young men I will send the destroyer at noonday. I will make shock and horror suddenly fall on them.
Jer 15:9 The mother who has borne seven children will waste away. She will gasp. Her sun will set while it is still day. She will be ashamed and embarrassed, for I will give those who remain to the sword in the presence of their enemies,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 15:10 Woe to me, my mother! For you have borne me, I who am a man of controversy and argument through all the land. I have not lent, nor has anyone lent to me, but they all curse me.
Jer 15:11 Yehowah said: “Will I not rescue you for good? I will certainly make your enemies beg for help in the time of calamity and distress.
Jer 15:12 Can one smash iron? Especially iron from the north that is mixed with bronze?
Jer 15:13 I will give to your enemies your wealth and treasures as free plunder. I will do this because of all your sins committed within all your borders.
Jer 15:14 Then I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know, for a fire will ignite, kindled in my wrath against you.”

Jer 15:15 You yourself know, Yehowah! Call me to mind and help me. Bring vengeance for me against my pursuers. In your patience do not take me away. Acknowledge that I have suffered reproach for you.
Jer 15:16 Your words have been found, and I consumed them. Your words were a joy to me, a joy to my heart, for your name is proclaimed on me, Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces.
Jer 15:17 I did not sit in the circle of those who celebrated or rejoiced. I sat in solitude because of your powerful hand, for you filled me with indignation.
Jer 15:18 Why is my pain ongoing and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will you be like deceitful waters to me, waters that dry up?
Jer 15:19 Therefore, Yehowah said this, “If you repent, Jeremiah, then I will restore you, and you will stand before me and serve me. For if you separate the foolish things from the precious things, you will be like my mouth. The people will come back to you, but you yourself must not go back to them.
Jer 15:20 I will make you like an impenetrable bronze wall to this people, and they will wage war against you. But they will not defeat you, for I am with you to save and rescue you,” declares Yehowah,
Jer 15:21 “for I will rescue you from the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the hand of the tyrant.”

Jeremiah Chapter 16

Jer 16:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Jer 16:2 “Do not take a wife for yourself, and do not have sons or daughters for yourself in this place.
Jer 16:3 For Yehowah says this to the sons and daughters who are born in this place, to the mothers who bear them, and to the fathers who caused them to be born in this land,
Jer 16:4 ‘They will die diseased deaths. They will not be mourned or buried. They will be like dung on the ground. For they will come to an end by sword and famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth.’
Jer 16:5 For Yehowah says this, ‘Do not enter any house where there is mourning. Do not go about lamenting, and do not sympathize with these people. For I have gathered up my peace, covenant faithfulness, and acts of tender mercy, from this people,’ declares Yehowah,
Jer 16:6 ‘so the great and the small will die in this land. They will not be buried, nor will anyone mourn for them. No one will cut themselves or shave their heads for them.
Jer 16:7 No one must share any food in mourning to comfort them because of the deaths, and none must give a comforting cup to his father or his mother in order to comfort them.
Jer 16:8 You must not go to a banquet house to sit with them in order to eat or drink.’
Jer 16:9 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘See, before your eyes, in your days and in this place, I am about to put an end to the sound of joy and celebration, the voices of the groom and bride.’
Jer 16:10 Then it will happen that you will report all these words to this people, and they will ask you, ‘Why has Yehowah decreed all this great disaster against us? What is our iniquity and sin that we sinned against Yehowah our Divine One?’
Jer 16:11 So answer them, ‘Because your ancestors abandoned me,’ declares Yehowah, ‘they went after false deities and worshiped and bowed down to them. They abandoned me and have not kept my law.
Jer 16:12 But you yourselves have brought about more wickedness than your ancestors, for see, each person is walking by the stubbornness of his wicked heart; there is no one who listens to me.

Jer 16:13 So I will throw you from this land to a land that you have not known, neither you nor your ancestors, and you will worship false deities there by day and night, for I will not give any grace to you.’
Jer 16:14 Therefore, see! The days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when it will no longer be said, ‘As Yehowah lives, the One who brought up the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.’
Jer 16:15 For as Yehowah lives, the One who brought up the people of Israel from the land of the north and from the lands where he had scattered them, I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their ancestors.
Jer 16:16 See! I will send for many fishermen,” declares Yehowah, “so they will fish the people out. After this, I will send for many hunters, so they will hunt for them among all the mountains and hills, and in rock crevices.
Jer 16:17 For my eye is on all their ways; they cannot be hidden from before me. Their iniquity cannot be concealed from before my eyes.
Jer 16:18 I will first pay back double for their iniquity and sin for their polluting of my land with their disgusting idol figures, and for their filling my inheritance with their disgusting idols.”
Jer 16:19 Yehowah, you are my stronghold and my refuge, my place of safety in the Day of distress. The ethnicities will go to you from the ends of the earth and say, “Surely our ancestors inherited deceit. They are empty; there is no profit in them.”
Jer 16:20 “Do people make deities for themselves? But they are not deities.
Jer 16:21 Therefore, see! I will cause them to know in this time, I will cause them to know my hand and my power, so they will know that Yehowah is my name.”

Jeremiah Chapter 17

Jer 17:1 “The sin of Judah is written with an iron stylus having a diamond point. It is engraved on the tablet of their hearts and on the horns of your altars.
Jer 17:2 Their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles by the leafy trees on the high hills.
Jer 17:3 My mountain in the open country and all your wealth along with all of your treasures, I will give as plunder to others. That is the price of your high places, and the sin that is throughout all your territories.
Jer 17:4 You will lose the inheritance that I gave to you. I will enslave you to your enemies in a land that you do not know, for you have ignited a fire in my wrath, which will burn forever.”
Jer 17:5 Yehowah declares, “The person who trusts in mankind is accursed; he makes flesh his strength but turns his heart away from Yehowah.
Jer 17:6 For he will be like a juniper in the Arabah and will not see anything good coming. He will stay in the stony places in the wilderness, barren land without inhabitants.
Jer 17:7 But the person who trusts in Yehowah is blessed, for Yehowah is his reason for confidence.
Jer 17:8 For he will be like a tree planted beside waters along the stream; his roots will spread out. He will not see that heat is coming, for his leaves will be luxurious. Then in the year of drought he will not be anxious, nor will he stop producing fruit.
Jer 17:9 The heart (mind) is more deceitful than anything else. It is sick; who can understand it?
Jer 17:10 I am Yehowah, the One who searches through the mind, who tests the heart. I give to each person according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds.
Jer 17:11 A partridge hatches an egg that she did not lay. Someone may become rich unjustly, but when half his days are over, those riches will abandon him, and in the end he will be a fool.”
Jer 17:12 “The place of our temple is a glorious throne, elevated from the beginning.
Jer 17:13 Yehowah is the hope of Israel. All who abandon you will be ashamed. Those in the land who turn away from you will be cut off. For they are abandoning Yehowah, the fountain of living waters.
Jer 17:14 Heal me, Yehowah, and I will be healed! Rescue me, and I will be rescued. For you are my song of praise!
Jer 17:15 See, they are asking me, ‘Where is the Word of Yehowah? Let it come, I pray!’

Jer 17:16 As for me, I did not run from being a shepherd following you. I did not long for the Day of Disaster. You know the proclamations that came from my lips. They were made in your presence.
Jer 17:17 Do not be a terror to me. You are my refuge on the Day of Calamity.
Jer 17:18 May my pursuers be ashamed, but do not let me be ashamed. May they be dismayed, but do not let me be dismayed. Send the Day of Disaster against them and shatter them with a double share of destruction."
Jer 17:19 Yehowah commanded me: "Go and stand in the gate of the people where the kings of Judah enter and where they exit, then in all the other gates of Jerusalem.
Jer 17:20 Proclaim to them, 'Hear the Word of Yehowah, kings of Judah and all you people of Judah, and every resident of Jerusalem who comes in through these gates.
Jer 17:21 Yehowah declares this: "Be careful for the sake of your lives and do not carry a burden on the Sabbath day to bring it into the gates of Jerusalem.
Jer 17:22 Do not bring a load out from your house on the Sabbath day. Do not do any work, but set apart the Sabbath day, just as I commanded your ancestors to do.'"
Jer 17:23 They did not listen or pay attention, but stiffened their neck, so they would not hear me nor accept discipline.
Jer 17:24 It will happen that if you truly listen to me," declares Yehowah, "and do not bring a load into the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but instead set apart the Sabbath day to Yehowah and not do any work on it,
Jer 17:25 then kings, princes, and those who sit on David's throne will come to the gates of this city in chariots and with horses, they and their leaders, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever.
Jer 17:26 They will come from the cities of Judah and from all around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin and the lowlands, from the mountains, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, thank offerings to the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 17:27 But if you do not listen to me, to set apart the Sabbath day, to not carry heavy loads and to not enter the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will light a fire in its gates, and it will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem, and it cannot be put out."

Jeremiah Chapter 18

Jer 18:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Jeremiah,
Jer 18:2 “Arise and go out to the potter’s house, for I will have you hear my word there.”
Jer 18:3 So I went out to the potter’s house, and behold! The potter was working on the potter’s wheel.
Jer 18:4 But the object of clay that he was molding was ruined in his hand, so he changed his mind and made another object that seemed good in his eyes to do.
Jer 18:5 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Jer 18:6 “Should I not be able to act like this potter with you, house of Israel?” asks Yehowah. “See! Like clay in a potter’s hand, that is how you are in my hand, house of Israel.
Jer 18:7 At one moment, I may proclaim something about an ethnicity or a kingdom, that I will drive it out, tear it down, or destroy it.
Jer 18:8 But if the ethnicity about which I have made that proclamation turns from its evil, then I will relent from the disaster that I was planning to bring upon it.
Jer 18:9 At another moment, I may proclaim something about an ethnicity or a kingdom, that I will build it up or plant it.
Jer 18:10 But if it does evil in my eyes by not listening to my voice, then I will stop the good that I had said I would do for them.
Jer 18:11 So now, speak to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ‘Yehowah declares this: See, I am about to form disaster against you. I am about to devise a plan against you. Repent, each person from his wicked path, so your ways and your practices will bring good to you.’
Jer 18:12 But they will say, ‘This is no use. We will act according to our own plans. Each one of us will do what his evil, stubborn heart desires.’
Jer 18:13 Therefore, Yehowah says this, ‘Ask the ethnicities, who has ever heard of such a thing as this? The virgin Israel has committed a horrible act.
Jer 18:14 Does the snow in Lebanon ever leave the rocky hills on its sides? Are the mountain streams coming from far away ever destroyed, those cold streams?
Jer 18:15 Yet my people have forgotten me. They have made offerings to useless idols and been made to stumble in their paths; they have left the ancient Paths to walk lesser paths.
Jer 18:16 Their land will become a horror, an object of everlasting whistling. Everyone who passes by her will shudder and shake his head.
Jer 18:17 I will scatter them before their enemies like an eastern wind. I will show them my back, and not my face, on the day of their disaster.’”

Jer 18:18 So the people said, “Come, let us make plots against Jeremiah, since the law will never perish from the priests, or advice from the wise men, or words from the prophets. Come, let us attack him with our words and no longer pay attention to anything he proclaims.”
Jer 18:19 Pay attention to me, Yehowah, and listen to the voice of my enemies.
Jer 18:20 Will disaster from them really be my reward for being good to them? For they have dug a pit for me. Remember how I stood before you to speak for their welfare, to cause your fury to turn away from them.
Jer 18:21 Therefore, hand over their children to famine, and give them to the hands of those who use the sword. So let their women become bereaved and widows, and their men be killed, and their young men killed by the sword in battle.
Jer 18:22 Let a distressed shout be heard from their houses, as you suddenly bring raiders against them. For they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden traps for my feet.
Jer 18:23 But you, Yehowah, you know all of their plans against me to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquities and sins. Do not wipe their sins away from you. Instead, let them be overthrown before you. Act against them in the time of your wrath.

Jeremiah Chapter 19

Jer 19:1 Yehowah said this, “Go and purchase a potter’s clay flask while you are with the elders of the people and the priests.
Jer 19:2 Then go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom at the entry of the Broken Pottery Gate, and there proclaim the words that I will tell you.
Jer 19:3 Say, ‘Hear the Word of Yehowah, kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, “See, I am about to bring disaster on this place, and the ears of everyone who hears of it will tingle.
Jer 19:4 I will do this, because they have abandoned me and profaned this place. In this place, they offer sacrifices to false deities that they did not know. They, their ancestors, and the kings of Judah have also filled this place with innocent blood.
Jer 19:5 They built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to him, something that I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind.
Jer 19:6 Therefore, see, the days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when this place will no longer be called Topheth, the Valley of Ben Hinnom, for it will be the Valley of Slaughter.
Jer 19:7 In this place, I will make the plans of Judah and Jerusalem useless. I will make them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of the ones seeking their lives. Then I will give their corpses as food to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.
Jer 19:8 Then I will make this city a ruin and the object of whistling, for everyone passing by it will shudder and whistle regarding all of its plagues.
Jer 19:9 I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters; each man will consume the flesh of his neighbor in the siege and in the anguish brought on them by their enemies, and the ones seeking their lives.’”
Jer 19:10 Then you will break the clay flask in the sight of the men who went with you.
Jer 19:11 You will say to them, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: I will do this same thing to this people and this city,’ declares Yehowah, ‘just as Jeremiah shattered the clay flask, so that it could not be repaired again. People will bury the dead in Topheth, until there is no place left for any more dead.
Jer 19:12 This is what I will do to this place and its inhabitants, when I make this city like Topheth,’ declares Yehowah,
Jer 19:13 ‘so the houses of Jerusalem and of the kings of Judah will become like Topheth, all the houses on whose rooftops the unclean people worship all the stars of heaven and pour out drink offerings to false deities.’”

Jer 19:14 Then Jeremiah went from Topheth, where Yehowah had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the courtyard of the temple of Yehowah, and he said to all the people,
Jer 19:15 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘See, I am about to bring to this city and to all of its towns all the disaster that I have proclaimed against it, since they stiffened their neck and refused to listen to my words.’”

Jeremiah Chapter 20

Jer 20:1 Pashhur son of Immer the priest, he was a leading officer, heard Jeremiah prophesying these words before the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 20:2 So Pashhur beat Jeremiah the prophet and then placed him in the stocks that were at the Upper Gate of Benjamin in the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 20:3 It happened on the next day, that Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, "Yehowah has not called your name Pashhur, but you are Magor Missabib (Terror on Every Side).
Jer 20:4 For Yehowah declares this, 'Look, I will make you an object of horror, you and all of your loved ones, for they will fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes will see it. I will give all of Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will make them captives in Babylon or attack them with the sword.
Jer 20:5 I will give him all the wealth of this city and all of its produce, all of its precious items, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. I will place these things in the hand of your enemies, and they will seize them. They will take them and bring them to Babylon.
Jer 20:6 But you, Pashhur, and all the inhabitants of your house will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon and die there. You and all of your loved ones to whom you prophesied deceitful things will be buried there.'" Jer 20:7 "You deceived me, Yehowah. I was indeed deceived. You seized me and defeated me. I have become a laughingstock. The people mock me every day, all the day.
Jer 20:8 For whenever I have spoken, I have called out and proclaimed, 'Violence and destruction!' Then the Word of Yehowah has become for me reproach and mocking every day.
Jer 20:9 If I say, 'I will not think about Yehowah anymore. I will no longer proclaim his name.' Then it is like a fire in my heart, held within my bones. So I struggle to contain it, but I cannot.
Jer 20:10 I have heard intelligence reports of terror from many people all around. 'Report! We must report it!' Those who are close to me watch to see if I will fall. 'Perhaps he can be tricked. If so, we can overpower him and take our revenge on him.'
Jer 20:11 But Yehowah is with me like a powerful warrior, so the ones pursuing me will stagger. They will not defeat me. They will be greatly ashamed, because they will not succeed. They will have unending shame, it will never be forgotten.
Jer 20:12 But you, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, you who examine the righteous, and who see the mind and the heart. Let me see your vengeance on them, since I have shown my case to you.

Jer 20:13 Sing to Yehowah! Praise Yehowah! For he has rescued the lives of those who are oppressed from the hand of evildoers.
Jer 20:14 Let the day when I was born be cursed. Do not let the day that my mother bore me be blessed.
Jer 20:15 Let the man who informed my father be cursed, the one who announced, ‘A male child has been born to you,’ causing great joy!
Jer 20:16 Let that man be like the cities that Yehowah overthrew when he would not have mercy. May he hear a call for help at dawn and the shout of battle at noontime.
Jer 20:17 May this happen, since Yehowah did not kill me in the womb or make my mother my tomb, a pregnant womb forever.
Jer 20:18 Why is it that I came out from the womb to see troubles and agony, so that my days are filled with shame?”

Jeremiah Chapter 21

Jer 21:1 This is the word that came from Yehowah to Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to him. They entreated him,
Jer 21:2 “Seek advice from Yehowah on our behalf, for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war on us. Perhaps Yehowah will do miracles for us, as in times past, and will make him withdraw from us.”
Jer 21:3 So Jeremiah prophesied to them, “This is what you must say to Zedekiah,
Jer 21:4 ‘Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: See, I am about to turn back the instruments of war that are in your hand, with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are closing you in from outside the walls! For I will gather them in the middle of this city.
Jer 21:5 Then I myself will fight against you with a raised hand and a strong arm, and with wrath, fury, and great anger.
Jer 21:6 For I will attack the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast. They will die in a severe plague.
Jer 21:7 After this,’ declares Yehowah, ‘Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants, the people, and whoever remains in this city after the plague, the sword, and the famine, I will give them all into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those seeking their life. Then he will kill them with the edge of the sword. He will not pity them, spare them, or have compassion.’
Jer 21:8 Then to this people you must say, ‘Yehowah declares this: See, I am about to place before you the Way of life and the way of death.
Jer 21:9 Anyone staying in this city will die by the sword, famine, and plague; but anyone going out and falling on his knees before the Chaldeans who have closed in against you will live. He will escape with his life.
Jer 21:10 For I have set my face against this city in order to bring disaster and not to bring good,’ declares Yehowah. ‘It has been given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it.’
Jer 21:11 Concerning the house of the king of Judah, listen to the Word of Yehowah:
Jer 21:12 House of David, Yehowah declares, ‘Bring about justice at dawn. Rescue the one who has been robbed by the hand of the oppressor, or my fury will go out like fire and burn, and there is no one who can extinguish it because of your evil deeds.

Jer 21:13 See, inhabitant of the valley! I am against you, rock of the plain,’ declares Yehowah, ‘I am against anyone who is asking, “Who will come down to attack us?” or “Who will enter our houses?”
Jer 21:14 I have assigned the fruit of your practices to come against you,’ declares Yehowah, ‘and I will light a fire in the thickets, and it will consume everything around it.’”

Jeremiah Chapter 22

Jer 22:1 This is what Yehowah commands, “Go down to the house of the king of Judah and proclaim this word there:
Jer 22:2 Say, ‘King of Judah, listen to the Word of Yehowah, you who sit on David’s throne, you, and your servants, and your people who come through these gates.
Jer 22:3 Yehowah commands this, “Perform justice and righteousness, and anyone who has been robbed, rescue him from the hand of the oppressor. Do not mistreat any sojourning foreigner in your land, or any orphan or widow. Do not commit violence or pour out innocent blood in this place.
Jer 22:4 For if you truly do these things, then kings sitting on David’s throne will enter the gates of this house riding in a chariot and on horses, he, his servants, and his people!
Jer 22:5 But if you do not listen to these words from me that I have announced,” declares Yehowah, “then this royal palace will become a ruin.”’
Jer 22:6 For Yehowah declares this concerning the palace of the king of Judah, ‘You are like Gilead, or like the summit of Lebanon to me. Yet I will turn you into a wilderness, into cities with no inhabitants.
Jer 22:7 For I have designated destroyers to come against you! Men with their weapons will cut off the best of your cedars and let them fall into the fire.
Jer 22:8 Then many ethnicities will pass by this city. Each person will ask the next, “Why has Yehowah acted in this way toward this great city?”
Jer 22:9 Then the other will answer, “Because they abandoned the covenant of Yehowah their Divine One and bowed down to false deities and worshiped them.”
Jer 22:10 Do not weep for the dead. Do not mourn for him. But you must certainly weep for anyone who goes into captivity, for he will never return and see the land of his birth again.’
Jer 22:11 For Yehowah declares this about Jehoahaz son of Josiah king of Judah, who served as king instead of Josiah his father, ‘He has gone from this place and will not come back.
Jer 22:12 He will die there in the place to where they have exiled him, and he will never again see this land.’
Jer 22:13 Woe to anyone who is building his house in unrighteousness and his upper rooms in injustice; for whom others work, but who does not pay them.
Jer 22:14 Woe to anyone who says, ‘I will build for myself a house of great height and spacious upper rooms, who constructs wide windows for himself, and panels with cedar, and paints it all red.’

Jer 22:15 Is this what makes you a good king, that you wanted to have boards of cedar? Did not your father also eat and drink, yet do justice and righteousness? Then things went well for him.
Jer 22:16 He judged in favor of the poor and needy. It was good then. Is this not what it means to know me?" asks Yehowah.
Jer 22:17 "But there is nothing in your eyes and heart except worry for your unjust profit and for pouring out innocent blood, for producing oppression and crushing of others.
Jer 22:18 Therefore, Yehowah declares this about Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah: They will not lament for him with 'Woe, my brother!' or 'Woe, my sister!' They will not lament him with 'Woe, master!' or 'Woe, majesty!'
Jer 22:19 He will be buried with a donkey's burial, dragged away and thrown out beyond the gates of Jerusalem.
Jer 22:20 Go up Lebanon's mountains and shout. Lift your voice in Bashan. Shout from the Abarim mountains, for all of your friends will be destroyed!
Jer 22:21 I spoke to you when you were safe, but you replied, 'I will not listen.' This was your custom since your youth, for you have not listened to my voice.
Jer 22:22 The wind will shepherd away all your shepherds, and your friends will go into captivity. Then you will certainly be ashamed and humiliated by all of your evil deeds.
Jer 22:23 You king, you who live in the House of the Forest of Lebanon, you who nest among the cedars, how you will groan when the labor pains of anguish come on you like childbirth."
Jer 22:24 "As I live," declares Yehowah, "even if you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, were the signet on my right hand, I would tear you off.
Jer 22:25 For I have given you to the hand of the ones seeking your life and to the hand of those before whom you are afraid, even to the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and the Chaldeans.
Jer 22:26 I will throw you and your mother who bore you into another land, a country where you were not born, and there you will die.
Jer 22:27 About this land to which they will want to return, they will not come back here.
Jer 22:28 Is this a despised and shattered vessel? Is this man Jehoiachin a pot that pleases no one? Why have they thrown him and his descendants out, and have poured them out into a land that they did not know?
Jer 22:29 Land, Land, Land! Hear the Word of Yehowah!
Jer 22:30 Yehowah commands this, 'Write about this man Jehoiachin: He will be childless. He will not prosper during his days, and no one among his descendants will achieve success or ever again sit on David's throne and rule over Judah.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 23

Jer 23:1 “Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 23:2 Therefore, Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says this concerning the shepherds who are shepherding his people, “You are scattering my flock and driving them away. You have not cared for them at all. Know this! I will pay you back for the evil of your practices,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 23:3 “I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all of the lands where I have driven them, and I will return them to a grazing place, where they will be fruitful and increase.
Jer 23:4 Then I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, so they will no longer fear or be shattered. None of them will go missing,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 23:5 “See, the days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch. He will reign as king; he will act wisely and cause justice and righteousness in the land.
Jer 23:6 In his days, Judah will be rescued, and Israel will live in security. Then this is the name by which he will be called: Yehowah Our Righteousness.
Jer 23:7 Therefore see, days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when they will no longer say, ‘As Yehowah lives, who brought the people of Israel up from the land of Egypt.’
Jer 23:8 Instead they will say, ‘As Yehowah lives, who brought up and who led back the descendants of the house of Israel from the northern land and all the lands where they had been driven.’ Then they will live in their own land.”
Jer 23:9 Regarding the prophets, my heart is broken in me, and all of my bones tremble. I have become like a drunk man, like a man whom wine has overpowered because of Yehowah and his set-apart words.
Jer 23:10 For the land is full of adulterers. Because of these, the land is dried up. The meadows in the wilderness dry up. These prophets’ paths are wicked; their power is not used in a right manner.
Jer 23:11 “For both the prophets and the priests are polluted. I even found their wickedness in my temple!” declares Yehowah.
Jer 23:12 “Therefore, their path will be like a slippery place in the darkness. They will be pushed down. They will fall in it. For I will send disaster against them in the year of their punishment,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 23:13 “For I have seen offensiveness among the prophets in Samaria. They prophesied by Baal and led my people Israel off the right Path.
Jer 23:14 Among the prophets in Jerusalem I have seen horrible things: They commit adultery and walk in deceit. They strengthen the hands of evildoers; no one turns back from his evildoing. All of them have become like Sodom to me and its inhabitants like Gomorrah!”

Jer 23:15 Therefore, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this concerning the prophets, “Look, I am about to make them eat wormwood and drink poisonous water (opium, poppy juice), for pollution has gone out from the prophets of Jerusalem to all the land.”
Jer 23:16 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this, “Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you. They have deluded you! They are announcing visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of Yehowah.
Jer 23:17 They are constantly saying to those who dishonor me, ‘Yehowah declares there will be peace for you.’ For everyone walking in the stubbornness of his own heart says, ‘Disaster will not come upon you.’
Jer 23:18 Yet who has stood in the council meeting of Yehowah? Who sees and hears his word? Who pays attention to his word and listens?
Jer 23:19 See, there is a storm coming from Yehowah! His fury is going out, and a tempest is whirling about. It is whirling around the heads of the wicked.
Jer 23:20 The wrath of Yehowah will not return, until it has carried out and brought into being his heart’s intentions. In the last days, you will understand it.
Jer 23:21 I did not send out these prophets. They just appeared. I did not proclaim anything to them, but they have still prophesied.
Jer 23:22 For if they had stood in my council meeting, they would have caused my people to hear my word; they would have caused them to turn from their wicked words and corrupt practices.
Jer 23:23 Am I only an Almighty nearby,” asks Yehowah, “and not also an Almighty far away?
Jer 23:24 Can anyone hide in a secret place, so I cannot see him?” asks Yehowah. “And do I not fill the heavens and the earth?” asks Yehowah.
Jer 23:25 “I have heard what the prophets have said, those who were prophesying deceit in my name. They said, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’
Jer 23:26 How long will this go on, prophets who prophesy lies from their minds, and who prophesy from the deceit in their hearts?
Jer 23:27 They are planning on making my people forget my name with the dreams that they report, each one to his neighbor, just as their ancestors forgot my name in favor of the name of Baal (lord).
Jer 23:28 The prophet who has a dream, let him report the dream. But the one to whom I have declared something, let him declare my word truthfully. What does straw have to do with grain?” asks Yehowah.
Jer 23:29 “Is not my word like fire?” asks Yehowah, “And like a hammer that shatters a rock into pieces?
Jer 23:30 So see, I am against the prophets,” declares Yehowah, “anyone who steals words from another person and claims they come from me.

Jer 23:31 See, I am against the prophets," declares Yehowah, "who use their tongues to prophesy proclamations.
Jer 23:32 See, I am against the prophets who dream deceitfully," declares Yehowah, "and then proclaim them, and in this way mislead my people with their deceit and boasting. I am against them, for I have not sent them out nor given them commands. So they will certainly not help this people," declares Yehowah.
Jer 23:33 "When this people or a prophet or a priest asks you, 'What is the declaration of Yehowah?' Then you must ask them, 'What declaration? For I have abandoned you,'" declares Yehowah.
Jer 23:34 "As for the prophets, priests, and people who are saying, 'Yehowah declares,' I will punish that man and his household.
Jer 23:35 You continue to ask, each person of his neighbor and each man of his brother, 'What did Yehowah answer?' and, 'What did Yehowah declare?'
Jer 23:36 But you must no longer talk about the declaration of Yehowah, since each declaration from each man has become his own message, and you have perverted the words of the living Almighty, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, our Divine One.
Jer 23:37 This is what you are asking the prophet, 'What did Yehowah answer you? What did Yehowah declare?'
Jer 23:38 Then you report a declaration from Yehowah, but Yehowah says this, 'You say, "Here is a declaration of Yehowah," even though I sent a command to you, "Do not say: This is a declaration from Yehowah."
Jer 23:39 Therefore see, I am about to pick you up and throw you away from me, along with the city that I gave you and your ancestors.
Jer 23:40 Then I will put everlasting shame and insult on you that will not be forgotten.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 24

Jer 24:1 Yehowah showed me something. Behold, two baskets of figs were placed before the temple of Yehowah. This vision happened after Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, took into exile Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, the officials of Judah, the craftsmen, and the metalworkers from Jerusalem, and brought them to Babylon.
Jer 24:2 One basket of figs was perfectly good, like first ripe figs, but the other basket of figs was so rotten, they could not be eaten.
Jer 24:3 Yehowah asked me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?” I answered, “Figs. Figs that are perfectly good, and figs that are so rotten, they cannot be eaten.”
Jer 24:4 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Jer 24:5 “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says this: I will look on the exiles of Judah for their benefit, just like these good figs, the exiles whom I have sent out from this place to the land of Chaldea.
Jer 24:6 I will set my eyes on them for good and restore them to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them.
Jer 24:7 Then I will give them a heart to know me, for I am Yehowah. They will be my people, and I will be their Divine One, so they will turn to me with all their heart.
Jer 24:8 But like the bad figs that are too rotten to be eaten, this is what Yehowah declares, I will act in this Way with Zedekiah, king of Judah, with his officials, and with the rest of Jerusalem who remain in this land or go to stay in the land of Egypt.
Jer 24:9 I will turn them into a frightening thing, a disaster, in the sight of all the kingdoms on earth, a disgrace and a subject for proverbs, taunts, and curses in every place where I will have driven them.
Jer 24:10 I will send out sword, famine, and plague against them, until they are finished off from the land that I gave them and their ancestors.”

Jeremiah Chapter 25

Jer 25:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah. It came in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah. That was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon (c. 605 BC).
Jer 25:2 Jeremiah the prophet proclaimed this to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Jer 25:3 He said, “For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year (c. 627 BC) of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah until this day (c. 605 BC), the words of Yehowah have been coming to me. I have been proclaiming them to you. I was eager to proclaim them, but you would not listen.
Jer 25:4 Yehowah sent out all his servants the prophets to you. They were eager to go out, but you would not listen or pay attention.
Jer 25:5 These prophets proclaimed, ‘Let each man turn from his wicked way and the corruption of his practices and return to the land that Yehowah gave in ancient times to your ancestors and to you, as a permanent gift.
Jer 25:6 So do not walk after false deities to worship them or bow down to them, and do not provoke him with the work of your hands, so that he does you harm.’
Jer 25:7 ‘But you have not listened to me,’ declares Yehowah, ‘so you have provoked me with the work of your hands to do harm to you.’
Jer 25:8 So Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this, ‘Because you did not listen to my words,
Jer 25:9 see, I am about to send out a command to gather all the people of the north,’ declares Yehowah, ‘with Nebuchadnezzar my servant, king of Babylon, and bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all the ethnicities around you. For I will set them apart for destruction. I will turn them into a horror, an object for whistling, and an unending desolation.
Jer 25:10 The sounds of joy and celebration, the voices of the bridegroom and bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamps, I will make all these things disappear from these ethnicities.
Jer 25:11 Then all of this land will become a desolation and a horror, and these ethnicities will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years (c. 605 – 536 BC).
Jer 25:12 Then it will happen when seventy years have been completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that ethnicity, the land of the Chaldeans,’ declares Yehowah, ‘for their iniquity and make it an unending desolation.
Jer 25:13 Then I will carry out against that land all the words that I had spoken, and everything written in this Book that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the ethnicities.
Jer 25:14 For also many ethnicities and great kings will make slaves out of these nations. I will repay them for their deeds and the works of their hands.’”

Jer 25:15 For Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, said this to me, “Take this cup of the wine of fury from my hand and make all the ethnicities to which I am sending you drink it.
Jer 25:16 For they will drink and then stumble about and rant madly before the sword that I am sending out among them.”
Jer 25:17 So I took the cup from the hand of Yehowah, and I made all the ethnicities to which Yehowah had sent me drink it:
Jer 25:18 Jerusalem, the cities of Judah and her kings and officials, to turn them into ruins and something terrifying, and into an object for whistling and cursing, as they are at this present day.
Jer 25:19 Ethnicities also had to drink it: Pharaoh king of Egypt and his servants; his officials and all his people;
Jer 25:20 all people of mixed heritage and all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of Philistia, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;
Jer 25:21 Edom, Moab, and the people of Ammon.
Jer 25:22 The kings of Tyre and Sidon, the kings of the coasts on the other side of the sea,
Jer 25:23 Dedan, Tema, and Buz with all the ones who cut the hair on the sides of their heads, they also had to drink it.
Jer 25:24 These people also had to drink it: All the kings of Arabia and all the kings of people of mixed heritage who live in the wilderness;
Jer 25:25 all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes;
Jer 25:26 all the kings of the north, the ones close by and the ones far away, everyone with his brother and all the kingdoms of the world that are on the surface of the earth. Finally, the king of Babylon will drink after them all.
Jer 25:27 Yehowah ordered me, “Now you must say to them, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: Drink and become drunk, then vomit, fall down, and do not rise before the sword that I am sending among you.’
Jer 25:28 Then it will happen that if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, you will say to them, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: You must certainly drink it.
Jer 25:29 For see, I am about to bring disaster on the city that is called by my name, and should you yourselves be free from punishment? You will not be free, for I am calling a sword against all the inhabitants of the land!’ Declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Jer 25:30 So you yourself, Jeremiah, must prophesy to them all these words. You must say to them, ‘Yehowah will roar from the heights and will raise his voice from his set-apart dwelling, and thunder from his set-apart dwelling place; and he will shout like those who tread the grapes against all those who live on the earth.

Jer 25:31 A noise comes to the ends of the land, for a dispute from Yehowah is going to bring a lawsuit against the ethnicities. He will administer justice to all flesh. He will hand over the wicked ones to the sword,' declares Yehowah.
Jer 25:32 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this, 'See, disaster is going out from ethnicity to ethnicity, and a great storm is beginning from the farthest parts of the earth.
Jer 25:33 Then those killed by Yehowah will on that day extend from one end of the earth to the other; they will not be mourned, gathered, or buried. They will be like dung on the ground.
Jer 25:34 Wail, shepherds, and shout for help! Roll about on the ground, you majestic people in the flock. For your day to be slaughtered and scattered has come. You will fall like chosen rams.
Jer 25:35 Refuge for the shepherds is gone. There is no escape for the majestic ones in the flock.
Jer 25:36 There are the distressed cries of the shepherds and the wails of the majestic ones in the flock, for Yehowah is devastating their pastures.
Jer 25:37 So the peaceful pastures will be devastated because of the angry wrath of Yehowah.
Jer 25:38 Like a young lion, he has left his den, for their land will become a horror because of the oppressor's anger, because of his angry wrath.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 26

Jer 26:1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from Yehowah,
Jer 26:2 “Yehowah says this: Stand in the courtyard of my temple and speak about all the cities of Judah who come to worship at my temple. Proclaim all the words that I have commanded you to say to them. Do not cut short any word!
Jer 26:3 It may be that they will listen, that each man will turn from his wicked ways, so I will relent concerning the disaster that I am planning to bring on them because of the wickedness of their practices.
Jer 26:4 So you must say to them, ‘Yehowah declares this: If you do not listen to me, so as to walk in my law that I have placed before you,
Jer 26:5 if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I am persistently sending to you, but you have not listened,
Jer 26:6 then I will make this temple like Shiloh; I will turn this city into a curse in the sight of all the ethnicities on earth.’”
Jer 26:7 The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah announcing these words in the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 26:8 So it happened that when Jeremiah had finished announcing all that Yehowah commanded him to say to all the people, the priests, prophets, and all the people seized him and exclaimed, “You will certainly be executed!
Jer 26:9 Why have you prophesied in the name of Yehowah and said that this temple will become like Shiloh, and this city will become desolate, with no inhabitant?” For all the people had formed a mob against Jeremiah in the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 26:10 Then the officials of Judah heard these words and went up from the king’s house to the temple of Yehowah. They sat in the gateway at the New Gate of the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 26:11 The priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people, “It is right for this man to be executed, for he prophesied against this city, just as you heard with your own ears!”
Jer 26:12 So Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people, “Yehowah has sent me out to prophesy against this temple and this city, to say all the words that you have heard.
Jer 26:13 So now, improve your ways and your practices, and listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One, so that Yehowah will relent concerning the disaster that he has proclaimed against you.
Jer 26:14 I myself, look at me, am in your hand. Do to me what is good and right in your eyes.
Jer 26:15 But you must surely know that if you kill me, then you are bringing innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and its inhabitants, for Yehowah has truly sent me to you to proclaim all these words for your ears."

Jer 26:16 Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and prophets, "It is not right for this man to be executed, for he has proclaimed things to us in the name of Yehowah our Divine One."
Jer 26:17 Then men from the elders of the land rose up and spoke to the entire congregation of the people,
Jer 26:18 "Micah of Moresheth (aka Azekah) was prophesying in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He spoke to all the people of Judah, 'Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, and the temple mount will become a hill overgrown with thickets.'
Jer 26:19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all of Judah execute him? Did he not fear Yehowah and appease the face of Yehowah, so that Yehowah would relent concerning the disaster that he proclaimed to them? So will we do greater evil against our own lives?"
Jer 26:20 Meanwhile, there was another man who prophesied in the name of Yehowah, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim, he also prophesied against this city and this land, agreeing with all of Jeremiah's words.
Jer 26:21 But when King Jehoiakim and all his soldiers and officials heard his word, then the king tried to execute him, but Uriah heard and was afraid, so he ran away and went to Egypt.
Jer 26:22 Yet King Jehoiakim sent out men to Egypt, Elnathan son of Achbor and men with him to Egypt.
Jer 26:23 They took Uriah out from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim. Then Jehoiakim murdered him with a sword and sent his corpse out to the graves of the ordinary people.
Jer 26:24 But the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so he was not given into the hand of the people to be executed.

Jeremiah Chapter 27

Jer 27:1 In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yehowah (c. 597 BC).
Jer 27:2 This is what Yehowah commanded me, “Make fetters and a yoke for yourself. Place them on your neck.
Jer 27:3 Then send them out to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the people of Ammon, the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon. Send them by the hand of those kings’ ambassadors who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.
Jer 27:4 Give commands to them for their masters, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, says this: This is what you must say to your masters,
Jer 27:5 “I myself made the earth by my great strength and my raised arm. I also made the people and animals on the earth, and I give it to anyone who is right in my eyes.
Jer 27:6 So now, I myself am giving all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, my servant. Also, I am giving the living things in the fields to him to serve him.
Jer 27:7 For all the ethnicities will serve him, his sons, and his grandsons, until the time comes for his land to end. Then many ethnicities and great kings will subdue him.
Jer 27:8 So the ethnicity and the kingdom that does not serve Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and that does not put his neck into the yoke of the king of Babylon, I will punish that ethnicity with sword, famine, and plague,” declares Yehowah, “until I have destroyed them by his hand.
Jer 27:9 So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your seers, soothsayers, and sorcerers who have been speaking to you, ‘Do not serve the king of Babylon.’
Jer 27:10 For they are prophesying deceit to you in order to send you far away from your lands, for I will drive you away, and you will die.
Jer 27:11 But the ethnicity that places its neck into the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will allow it to rest in its land,” declares Yehowah, “and they will cultivate it and make their homes in it.”””
Jer 27:12 So I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah and gave him this message, “Place your necks into the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and you will live.
Jer 27:13 Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, famine, and plague, just as I have declared about the ethnicity that refuses to serve the king of Babylon?

Jer 27:14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, ‘Do not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they are prophesying lies to you.
Jer 27:15 ‘For I have not sent them out,’ declares Yehowah, ‘for they are prophesying deceit in my name, so that I will drive you out, and you will perish, both you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.’”
Jer 27:16 I proclaimed this to the priests and all the people, “Yehowah says this: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, ‘Look! The objects belonging to the temple of Yehowah are being returned from Babylon now!’ They are prophesying lies to you.
Jer 27:17 Do not listen to them. You should serve the king of Babylon and live. Why should this city become a ruin?
Jer 27:18 If they are prophets, and if the Word of Yehowah has truly come to them, let them beg Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces not to send to Babylon the objects that remain in his temple, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem.
Jer 27:19 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is making a proclamation about the pillars, the sea, and the base, and the rest of the objects that remain in this city,
Jer 27:20 the objects that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem (c. 598 BC).
Jer 27:21 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, says this about the objects that remain in the temple of Yehowah, the house of the king of Judah, and Jerusalem,
Jer 27:22 ‘They will be brought to Babylon, and they will remain there, until the day I have set to come for them,’ declares Yehowah, ‘then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.’”

Jeremiah Chapter 28

Jer 28:1 It happened in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year (c. 594 BC) and the fifth month, Hananiah son of Azzur the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the temple of Yehowah in front of the priests and all the people,
Jer 28:2 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, says this: I have broken the yoke imposed by the king of Babylon.
Jer 28:3 Within two years time, I will bring back to this place all the objects belonging to the temple of Yehowah that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took from this place and transported to Babylon.
Jer 28:4 Then I will bring back to this place Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the captives of Judah who were sent to Babylon,” declares Yehowah, “for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.”
Jer 28:5 So Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Hananiah the prophet in front of the priests and to all the people who stood in the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 28:6 Jeremiah the prophet said, “May Yehowah do this! May Yehowah confirm the words that you prophesied and bring back to this place the objects belonging to the temple of Yehowah, and all the captives from Babylon.
Jer 28:7 However, listen to the word that I am proclaiming in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people.
Jer 28:8 The prophets who existed before me and you from long ago also prophesied about many ethnicities and against great kingdoms, about war, famine, and plague.
Jer 28:9 So the prophet who prophesies that there will be peace, if his word comes true, then it will be known that he is indeed a prophet sent out by Yehowah.”
Jer 28:10 But Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it.
Jer 28:11 Then Hananiah spoke in front of all the people, “Yehowah says this: Just like this, within two years I will break from off the neck of every ethnicity the yoke imposed by Nebuchanezzar king of Babylon.” Then Jeremiah the prophet went on his way.
Jer 28:12 After Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah,
Jer 28:13 “Go and speak to Hananiah, ‘Yehowah declares this: You broke a yoke of wood, but I will make instead a yoke of iron.’
Jer 28:14 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: I have placed a yoke of iron on the neck of all these ethnicities to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I have also given him the wild beasts in the fields to rule over.”

Jer 28:15 Next, Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah the prophet, “Listen Hananiah! Yehowah has not sent you, but you yourself have caused this people to believe in lies.
Jer 28:16 So Yehowah declares this: ‘Look, I am about to send you out from the earth. You will die this year, since you proclaimed rebellion against Yehowah.’”
Jer 28:17 In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

Jeremiah Chapter 29

Jer 29:1 These are the words in the Scroll that Jeremiah the prophet sent out from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the captives and to the priests, prophets, and all the people that Nebuchadnezzar exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon.
Jer 29:2 This was after King Jehoiachin, the queen mother, and the high officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen had been sent away from Jerusalem.
Jer 29:3 He sent this Scroll by the hand of Elasah son of Shapan and Gemariah (Gemaryah) son of Hilkiah whom Zedekiah, king of Judah, had sent to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
Jer 29:4 The Scroll stated, "Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this to all the captives whom I caused to be exiled from Jerusalem to Babylon, Jer 29:5 'Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit.
Jer 29:6 Take wives and give birth to sons and daughters. Then take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands. Let them give birth to sons and daughters and increase there, so you do not become too few.
Jer 29:7 Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be exiled, and intercede with Yehowah on its behalf, since there will be peace for you, if it is at peace.'
Jer 29:8 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, 'Do not let your prophets who are in your midst and your diviners deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams that you yourselves are having.
Jer 29:9 For they are prophesying deceitfully to you in my name. I did not send them out,' declares Yehowah.
Jer 29:10 For Yehowah declares this, 'When Babylon has ruled you for seventy years (c. 605-536 BC), I will help you and carry out my good word for you to bring you back to this place.
Jer 29:11 For I myself know the plans that I have for you,' declares Yehowah, 'plans for peace and not for disaster, to give you a future and hope.
Jer 29:12 Then you will call to me, go, pray to me, and I will listen to you.
Jer 29:13 For you will seek me and find me, since you will seek me with all your heart.
Jer 29:14 Then I will be found by you,' declares Yehowah, 'and I will bring back your fortunes; I will gather you from all the ethnicities and places where I scattered you,' declares Yehowah, 'for I will bring you back to the place from where I caused you to be exiled.'
Jer 29:15 Since you said that Yehowah has raised up prophets for us in Babylon,

Jer 29:16 Yehowah says this to the king who sits on the throne of David and to all the people who are staying in that city, your brothers who have not gone out with you into captivity,
Jer 29:17 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this, ‘See, I am about to send sword, famine, and disease on them. For I will make them like rotten figs that are too bad to be eaten.
Jer 29:18 Then I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague and make them a horrible sight to all the kingdoms on earth, a horror, an object about curses and hissed words, and a shameful thing among all the ethnicities where I scattered her.
Jer 29:19 This is because they did not listen to my word,’ declares Yehowah, ‘that I sent out to them through my servants the prophets. I repeatedly sent them, but you would not listen,’ declares Yehowah.
Jer 29:20 So you yourselves listen to the Word of Yehowah, all you exiles whom he has sent out from Jerusalem to Babylon,
Jer 29:21 ‘I, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declare this about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who prophesy falsely to you in my name: See, I am about to put them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will execute them before your eyes.
Jer 29:22 Then a curse will be spoken about these persons by all the captives of Judah in Babylon. The curse will state: May Yehowah make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in fire.
Jer 29:23 This will happen because of the shameful things they did in Israel when they committed adultery with their neighbor’s wives and declared false words in my name, things that I never commanded them to say. For I am the One who knows; I am the Witness,’” declares Yehowah.
Jer 29:24 “About Shemaiah the Nehelamite, say this:
Jer 29:25 ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: Because you sent out letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, which said,
Jer 29:26 “Yehowah has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, for you to be in charge of the temple of Yehowah. You are in control of all the people who rave and make themselves into prophets. Put them in stocks and chains.
Jer 29:27 So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself into a prophet against you?
Jer 29:28 For he has sent out to us in Babylon and said, ‘It will be a long time. Build houses and live in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.’””’
Jer 29:29 Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet.
Jer 29:30 So the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah,

Jer 29:31 “Send word to all the exiles, ‘Yehowah says this about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you when I myself did not send him; because he has led you to believe lies,
Jer 29:32 therefore, Yehowah declares this: Look, I am about to punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. There will not be a man for him to stay among this people. He will not see the good that I will do for my people,’ declares Yehowah, ‘for he has proclaimed faithlessness against me, Yehowah.’”

Jeremiah Chapter 30

Jer 30:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah,
Jer 30:2 “This is what Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says, ‘Write for yourself in a Scroll all the words that I have declared to you.
Jer 30:3 For look, days are coming,’ declares Yehowah, ‘when I will restore the fortunes of my people, Israel and Judah. I, Yehowah, have said it. For I will bring them back to the land that I gave their ancestors, and they will possess it.’”
Jer 30:4 These are the words that Yehowah prophesied concerning Israel and Judah,
Jer 30:5 “For Yehowah declares this, ‘We have heard a trembling voice of dread and not of peace.
Jer 30:6 Ask and see if a man bears a child. Why do I see every young man with his hand on his loins? Like a woman bearing a child, why have all their faces become pale?
Jer 30:7 Woe! For that Day will be great, with none like it. It will be a time of distress for Jacob, but he will be rescued from it.
Jer 30:8 For it will be in that Day,’ declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, ‘that I will break the yoke off your neck, and I will shatter your chains, so foreigners will no longer enslave you.
Jer 30:9 But they will worship Yehowah their Divine One and serve David their king, whom I will make king over them.
Jer 30:10 So you, my servant Jacob, do not fear,’ declares Yehowah, ‘and do not be dismayed, Israel. For see, I am about to bring you back from far away, and your descendants from the land of captivity. Jacob will return and be at peace; he will be secure, and there will be no more terror.
Jer 30:11 For I am with you,’ declares Yehowah, ‘to save you. Then I will bring a complete end to all the ethnicities where I have scattered you. But I will certainly not put an end to you, though I discipline you justly and will certainly not leave you unpunished.’
Jer 30:12 For Yehowah says this, ‘Your injury is incurable; your wound is infected.
Jer 30:13 There is no one to plead your case; there is no remedy for your wound to heal you.
Jer 30:14 All of your lovers have forgotten you. They will not look for you, for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy and the discipline of a cruel master because of your many iniquities and your innumerable sins.
Jer 30:15 Why do you call for help for your injury? Your pain is incurable. Because of your many iniquities, your innumerable sins, I have done these things to you.

Jer 30:16 So everyone who consumes you will be consumed, and all of your adversaries will go into captivity. For the ones who have plundered you will become plunder, and I will make all of the ones despoiling you a spoil.
Jer 30:17 For I will bring healing on you; I will heal you of your wounds,' declares Yehowah, 'I will do this because they called you: Outcast. No one cares for this Zion.'" Jer 30:18 Yehowah says this, "See, I am about to bring back the fortunes of Jacob's tents and have compassion on his homes. Then a city will be built on the heap of ruins, and a stronghold will exist again where it used to be.
Jer 30:19 Then a song of praise and a sound of merriment will go out from them, for I will increase them and not diminish them; I will honor them, so they will not be humbled.
Jer 30:20 Then their people will be like before, and their congregation will be established before me, when I punish all the ones who are now tormenting them.
Jer 30:21 Their leader will come from among them. He will emerge from their midst when I draw him near, and when he approaches me. If I do not do this, who would dare come close to me?" declares Yehowah.
Jer 30:22 "Then you will be my people, and I will be your Divine One.
Jer 30:23 See, the tempest of Yehowah, his fury, has gone out. It is a continual tempest. It will whirl on the heads of the wicked people.
Jer 30:24 The wrath of Yehowah will not return, until it has carried out and brought into being his heart's intentions. In the final Days, you will understand it."

Jeremiah Chapter 31

Jer 31:1 “At that Time,” declares Yehowah, “I will be the Mighty One of all the clans of Israel, and they will be my people.”
Jer 31:2 Yehowah says this, “The people who have survived the sword that came to slaughter Israel have found grace and rest in the wilderness.”
Jer 31:3 Yehowah appeared to me in the past and proclaimed, “I have loved you with everlasting love. So I have drawn you toward myself with covenant faithfulness.
Jer 31:4 I will build you up again, so you will be built, virgin Israel. You will again pick up your tambourines and go out with happy dances!
Jer 31:5 You will plant vineyards again on the mountains of Samaria; the farmers will plant and put the fruit to good use.
Jer 31:6 For a Day will come when the watchmen in the mountains of Ephraim will proclaim, ‘Arise, let us go up to Zion, to Yehowah our Divine One.’”
Jer 31:7 For Yehowah says this, “Shout for joy over Jacob! Shout in gladness for the head of the ethnicities! Let praise be heard! Say, ‘Yehowah has rescued his people, the remnant of Israel.’
Jer 31:8 See, I am about to bring them from the northern lands. I will gather them from the farthest parts of the earth to the Feast of Passover (LXX Jer. 38:8; Jer. 23:7-8). The blind and lame will be among them; pregnant women and those who are about to give birth will be with them. A great congregation will return here.
Jer 31:9 They will come weeping; I will lead them as they make their pleas. I will have them journey to streams of water on a straight road. They will not stumble on it, for I will be a father to Israel, and Ephraim will be my firstborn.”
Jer 31:10 “Hear the Word of Yehowah, ethnicities. Report along the coasts in the distance. You must say, ‘The One who scattered Israel is gathering her up and keeping her as a shepherd keeps his sheep.’
Jer 31:11 For Yehowah has ransomed Jacob and has redeemed him from the hand that was too strong for him.
Jer 31:12 Then they will come and rejoice on the heights of Zion. They will rejoice over the goodness of Yehowah, over the grain and the new wine, over the oil and the offspring of the flocks and herds. For their lives will become like a watered garden, and they will never again feel any more sorrow.
Jer 31:13 Then virgins will rejoice with dancing, and young and old men will be together. For I will change their mourning into celebration. I will have compassion on them and cause them to rejoice instead of sorrowing!
Jer 31:14 Then I will saturate the lives of the priests in abundance. My people will fill themselves with my goodness,” declares Yehowah.

Jer 31:15 Yehowah says this: “A voice is heard in Ramah, wailing and bitter weeping. It is Rachel weeping for her children. She refuses to be comforted over them, for they are no longer here” (Mat. 2:18).
Jer 31:16 Yehowah commands this, “Hold your voice back from weeping and your eyes from tears; because there is a recompense for your suffering,” declares Yehowah, “your children will return from the enemy’s land.
Jer 31:17 There is hope for your future,” declares Yehowah, “your descendants will return inside their borders.”
Jer 31:18 “I have certainly heard Ephraim sorrowing, ‘You punished me, and I have been punished. Bring me back like an untrained calf, and I will be brought back, for you are Yehowah my Divine One.
Jer 31:19 For after I turned back to you, I was sorry; after I was trained, I slapped my thigh in grief. I was ashamed and humiliated, for I have borne the guilt of my youth.’
Jer 31:20 Is not Ephraim my precious child? Is he not my dear, delightful son? For whenever I speak against him, I certainly still call him to my loving mind. In this Way, my heart longs for him. I will certainly have compassion on him,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 31:21 “Place road signs for yourself. Set up guideposts for yourself. Set your mind on the right Path, the Way you should take. Come back, virgin Israel! Come back to these cities of yours.
Jer 31:22 How long will you continue to waver, faithless daughter? For Yehowah has created something new on earth: Women are surrounding strong men to protect them.”
Jer 31:23 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, says this, “When I bring back the people to their land, they will say this in the land of Judah and her cities, ‘May Yehowah bless you, you righteous place where he lives, you set-apart mountain.’
Jer 31:24 For Judah and all his cities will live together on her. Farmers and shepherds with their flocks will be there.
Jer 31:25 For I will give the weary ones water to drink, and I will fill everyone suffering from thirst.”
Jer 31:26 After this, I awoke, and I realized that my sleep had been refreshing.
Jer 31:27 “Look, the days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when I will sow the houses of Israel and Judah with the descendants of man and beast.
Jer 31:28 In the past, I kept them under surveillance in order to uproot them and to tear them down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring them harm. But in the coming days, I will watch over them, in order to build them up and to plant them,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 31:29 “In those days, no one will say any longer, ‘Fathers have eaten sour grapes, but the children’s teeth are dulled.’

Jer 31:30 For each man will die in his own iniquity; everyone who eats sour grapes, his teeth will be dulled.
Jer 31:31 Look, the days are coming," declares Yehowah, "when I will establish a New Covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah (Heb. 8:8-12; 10:16-17).
Jer 31:32 It will not be like the covenant that I established with their fathers in the days when I took them by their hand to bring them out from the land of Egypt. Those were the days when they broke my covenant (Exo. 32:1-4), although I was a husband for them," declares Yehowah.
Jer 31:33 "But this is the covenant that I will establish with the house of Israel after these days," declares Yehowah: "I will place my law within them and will write it on their heart (mind), for I will be their Divine One, and they will be my people.
Jer 31:34 Then each man will no longer teach his neighbor, or a man teach his brother or sister, 'Know Yehowah!' For all of them, from the least of them to the greatest, will know me," declares Yehowah, "for I will forgive their iniquity and will no longer call their sins to mind" (Mat. 11:11; Heb. 10:16-17).
Jer 31:35 Yehowah says this, "The One who makes the sun to shine by day, who gave statutes of the moon, and who makes the stars illuminate the night (Gen. 1:16; Psa. 136:8-9; Acts 27:20). He is the One who sets the sea in motion, so that its waves roar. Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name." He says this,
Jer 31:36 "Only if these enactments vanish from my sight," declares Yehowah, "will Israel's descendants ever stop from forever being a nation before me."
Jer 31:37 Yehowah says this, "Only if the highest heavens can be measured, and only if the earth's foundation below can be discovered, will I reject all of Israel's descendants because of all that they have done," declares Yehowah.
Jer 31:38 "Look, the days are coming," declares Yehowah, "when the city will be rebuilt for Yehowah, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.
Jer 31:39 Then the measuring line will go out again farther, to the hill of Gareb and around Goah.
Jer 31:40 The entire valley of burial and ashes, and all the fields to the Kidron Valley and to the corner of the Horse Gate in the east, will be set apart for me, Yehowah. It will not be pulled up or overthrown ever again."

Jeremiah Chapter 32

Jer 32:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah in the tenth year (c. 588 BC) of Zedekiah king of Judah, the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.
Jer 32:2 At that time, the military force of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard at the house of the king of Judah.
Jer 32:3 Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, and said, "Why do you prophesy, 'Yehowah declares this: Look, I am about to give over this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.
Jer 32:4 Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the hand of the Chaldeans, for he has indeed been given into the hand of the king of Babylon. His mouth will speak to the king's mouth, and his eyes will see the king's eyes.
Jer 32:5 For Zedekiah will go to Babylon, and he will be there until I do something with him,' declares Yehowah. 'Since you fought the Chaldeans, you will not be successful.'"
Jer 32:6 Jeremiah said, "The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Jer 32:7 'Look, Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is coming to you and will say, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth for yourself, for the right to buy it belongs to you."'
Jer 32:8 Then as Yehowah had declared, Hanamel, the son of my uncle, came to me in the courtyard of the guard, and he said to me, 'Buy my field that is in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of inheritance is yours, and the right to buy it belongs to you. Buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the Word of Yehowah.
Jer 32:9 So I bought the field in Anathoth from Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and I weighed out for him 17-weight silver-currency.
Jer 32:10 Then I wrote in a scroll and sealed it, and had witnesses witness it. Then I weighed the silver-currency in the scales.
Jer 32:11 Next, I took the deed of purchase that was sealed, following the command and the statutes, as well as the unsealed deed.
Jer 32:12 I gave the sealed scroll to Baruch son of Neriah (Neriyah) son of Machseiah (Machseyah) in front of Hanamel, the son of my uncle, and the witnesses who had written in the sealed scroll, and in front of all the Judeans who sat in the courtyard of the guard.
Jer 32:13 So I gave a command to Baruch before them,
Jer 32:14 'Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, says this: Take these scrolls with the receipt of this purchase that is sealed and this unsealed scroll. Place them in a new earthenware jar, so they will last for a long time.

Jer 32:15 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: Houses, fields, and vineyards will be purchased again in this land.'
Jer 32:16 After I gave the receipt of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to Yehowah,
Jer 32:17 'Oh, Lord Yehowah! Look! You alone have made the heavens and the earth by your great strength and with your raised arm. Nothing you say is too difficult for you to do.
Jer 32:18 You show covenant faithfulness to thousands and pour the guilt of men into the laps of their children after them. You are the great and powerful Almighty; Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is your name.
Jer 32:19 You are great in wisdom and mighty in deeds, for your eyes are open to all the ways of people, to give to each man what his conduct and deeds deserve.
Jer 32:20 You did signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. To this present day here in Israel and among all mankind, you have made your name famous.
Jer 32:21 For you brought your people Israel out from the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand, with a raised arm, and with great terror.
Jer 32:22 Then you gave them this land, which you had sworn to their ancestors to give to them, a land flowing with milk and honey.
Jer 32:23 So they entered and took possession of it. But they did not obey your voice or live in obedience to your law. They did nothing of what you had commanded them to do, so you brought all this disaster on them.
Jer 32:24 Look! The siege mounds have reached up to the city to capture it. For because of sword, famine, and plague, the city has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. For what you have said would happen is happening, and see, you are watching.
Jer 32:25 Lord Yehowah, you yourself said to me, "Purchase a field for yourself with silver-currency and have witnesses witness it, even though this city is being given into the hand of the Chaldeans."'
Jer 32:26 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Jeremiah,
Jer 32:27 "Look! I am Yehowah, Mighty One of all mankind. Is anything too difficult for me to do?
Jer 32:28 Therefore, Yehowah declares this, 'See, I am about to give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. He will capture it.
Jer 32:29 The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come, set fire to this city, and burn it, along with the houses on the roofs of which the people worshiped Baal and poured out drink offerings to false deities in order to provoke me.

Jer 32:30 For the people of Israel and Judah have certainly been people who have been doing evil before my eyes since their youth. The people of Israel have certainly offended me with the practices of their hands,' declares Yehowah.
Jer 32:31 'Yehowah declares that this city has been a provocation of my wrath and fury since the day that they built it. It has been that right up to this present day. So I will remove it from before my face
Jer 32:32 because of all the wickedness of the people of Israel and Judah, the things that they have done to provoke me, they, their kings, princes, priests, prophets, and every person in Judah and inhabitant of Jerusalem.
Jer 32:33 They turned their backs to me instead of their faces, though I had eagerly taught them. I tried to teach them, but not one of them listened in order to receive correction.
Jer 32:34 Then they placed their detestable things in the temple in order to pollute it, the temple where my name was called.
Jer 32:35 They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom in order to put their sons and daughters in the fire for Molech. I did not command them. It never entered my mind that they should do this detestable thing, and so cause Judah to sin.'
Jer 32:36 So now therefore, I, Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declare this concerning this city, the city about which you are saying, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, famine, and plague.'
Jer 32:37 See, I am about to gather them from every land where I had driven them in my wrath, fury, and great anger. I am about to bring them back to this place and enable them to live in security.
Jer 32:38 Then they will be my people, and I will be their Divine One.
Jer 32:39 I will give them one heart and one Way to honor me every day, so it will be good for them and their descendants after them.
Jer 32:40 Then I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. I will set honor for me in their hearts, so that they will never turn away from me.
Jer 32:41 Then I will rejoice in doing good to them. I will faithfully plant them in this land with all my heart and all my life.
Jer 32:42 For Yehowah declares this, 'Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so I will bring on them all the good things that I have promised I would do for them.
Jer 32:43 Then fields will be bought in this land, about which you are saying, "This is a ruined land, which has neither man nor beast. It has been given into the hand of the Chaldeans."
Jer 32:44 They will buy fields with silver-currency and write deeds in sealed scrolls. They will assemble witnesses in the land of Benjamin, all around Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, in the cities, in the hill country, in the lowlands, and in the cities of the Negev. For I will bring back their fortunes,””” declares Yehowah.

Jeremiah Chapter 33

Jer 33:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut within the courtyard of the guard, Jer 33:2 “Yehowah the Maker, says this, Yehowah, who forms in order to establish, Yehowah is his name,
Jer 33:3 ‘Call to me, and I will answer you. I will demonstrate great things to you, mysteries that you do not understand.’
Jer 33:4 For Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares this concerning the houses in this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that are torn down because of the siege ramps and the sword,
Jer 33:5 ‘The Chaldeans are coming to fight and to fill the houses with corpses of people whom I will kill in my wrath and fury, when I hide my face from this city because of all their wickedness.
Jer 33:6 But see, I am about to bring healing and a cure, for I will heal them and will bring to them abundance, peace, and faithfulness.
Jer 33:7 For I will bring back the fortunes of Judah and Israel; I will build them up as in the beginning.
Jer 33:8 Then I will purify them from all the iniquity that they have committed against me. I will pardon all the iniquities that they have done against me, and all the ways that they rebelled against me.
Jer 33:9 For this city will become for me an object of joy, a song of praise and honor for all the ethnicities of the earth who will hear of all the good things that I am going to do for it. Then they will tremble, because of all the good things and the peace that I will give to it.’
Jer 33:10 Yehowah says this, ‘In this place about which you are now saying, “It is desolate. There is neither man nor beast in the cities of Judah, and the streets of Jerusalem are uninhabited, with neither man nor beast.”
Jer 33:11 Again, there will be heard here sounds of rejoicing and celebration, sounds of bridegrooms and brides, sounds of people who say, “Give thanks to Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, for Yehowah is good, and his covenant faithfulness is unending.” Bring an offering of thanksgiving to the temple of Yehowah, for I will restore the fortunes of the land as in the beginning,’ says
Yehowah.
Jer 33:12 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: ‘In this desolate place, where now there is neither man nor beast, there will again be in all its cities a grazing place for shepherds who lead their flocks to lie down.

Jer 33:13 In the cities, in the hill country, the lowlands, and the Negev, in the land of Benjamin and all around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of the ones counting them,' declares Yehowah.
Jer 33:14 'Look! Days are coming,' declares Yehowah, 'when I will do what I have promised for the house of Israel and the house of Judah.
Jer 33:15 In those days and at that time, I will make a Righteous Branch to grow for David, and he will carry out justice and righteousness in the land.
Jer 33:16 In those days, Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will live in security, for this is what she will be called, "Yehowah our Righteousness."'
Jer 33:17 For Yehowah says this: 'A man from David's line will never be lacking to sit on the throne of the house of Israel,
Jer 33:18 nor will a man from the Levitical priests be lacking before me to raise burnt offerings, to burn food offerings, and to perform grain offerings all the time.'"
Jer 33:19 The Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah,
Jer 33:20 "Yehowah declares this: 'If you can break my covenant with day and night, so that there will no longer be day or night at their proper times,
Jer 33:21 then you will be able to break my covenant with David my servant, so that he will no longer have a son to sit on his throne, and my covenant with the Levitical priests, my servants.
Jer 33:22 As the armed forces of Heaven cannot be counted, and as the sand of the seashores cannot be measured, it is like that, I will increase the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who serve me.'"
Jer 33:23 The Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah,
Jer 33:24 "Have you not considered what this people has declared when they said, 'The two clans that Yehowah chose, now he has rejected them?' In this way, they despise my people, saying that they are no longer a nation in their sight.
Jer 33:25 I, Yehowah, declare this, 'If I have not established the covenant of day and night, and if I have not fixed the laws of the heavens and earth,
Jer 33:26 then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant, and not bring from them a Person to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and show mercy to them.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 34

Jer 34:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah. This word came when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all of his military force, together with all the kingdoms of the earth, the domains under his power, and all their people were waging war against Jerusalem and all of her cities,
Jer 34:2 “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says this: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and say to him, ‘Yehowah declares this: Look, I am about to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will burn it.
Jer 34:3 You will not escape from his hand, for you will certainly be seized and given into his hand. Your eyes will look at the eyes of the king of Babylon; he will speak directly to you as you go to Babylon.’
Jer 34:4 Listen to the Word of Yehowah, Zedekiah king of Judah! Yehowah says this concerning you, ‘You will not die by the sword.
Jer 34:5 You will die in peace. As in the funeral burning of your ancestors, the kings who were before you, they will burn your body. They will say, “Woe, master!” They will lament for you. Now I have spoken,’” declares Yehowah.
Jer 34:6 So Jeremiah the prophet proclaimed to Zedekiah king of Judah all these words in Jerusalem.
Jer 34:7 The military force of the king of Babylon made war against Jerusalem and all the remaining cities of Judah: Lachish and Azekah (aka Moresheth Gath). These cities of Judah remained as fortified cities.
Jer 34:8 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem, to proclaim freedom to them,
Jer 34:9 that each man must free his Hebrew servants, both male and female. No one is to make a slave of a Jew, who is his brother.
Jer 34:10 So all the leaders and people entered into the covenant that each person would free his male and female servants, so that they would not be enslaved any longer. They obeyed and set them free.
Jer 34:11 But after this they changed their minds. They brought back the servants whom they had freed. They forced them to become slaves again.
Jer 34:12 So the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah from Yehowah,
Jer 34:13 “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘I myself made a covenant with your ancestors on the day that I brought them out from the land of Egypt, out from the house of slavery. That was when I said,
Jer 34:14 “At the end of every seven years, each man must send away his brother, his fellow Hebrew who had sold himself to you and served you for six years. Send him away in freedom.” But your ancestors did not listen to me or pay attention.

Jer 34:15 Now you yourselves repented and began to do what is right in my eyes. You proclaimed freedom, each man to his neighbor, and you made a covenant before me in the temple that is called by my name.
Jer 34:16 But then you turned and polluted my name; you caused each man to bring back his male and female servants, the ones whom you had sent out to go where they wished. You forced them to become your servants again.'
Jer 34:17 Therefore, Yehowah says this, 'You yourselves have not listened to me. You should have proclaimed freedom, every one of you, to your brothers and fellow Israelis. So look! I am about to proclaim freedom to you,' declares Yehowah, 'freedom for the sword, the plague, and famine, for I am going to make you a horrible thing in the sight of every kingdom on earth.
Jer 34:18 Then I will deal with the people who have broken my covenant, who did not keep the words of the covenant that they established before me when they cut a bull in two and walked between its parts,
Jer 34:19 and then the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the officials and the priests, and all the people of the land walked between the parts of the bull.
Jer 34:20 I will give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their lives. Their bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and the beasts on the earth.
Jer 34:21 So I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his leaders into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who are seeking their life, and into the hand of the military force of the king of Babylon that has risen up to leave you.
Jer 34:22 Look, I am about to give a command,' declares Yehowah, 'and will bring them back to this city to wage war against it and take it, and to burn it. For I will turn the cities of Judah into ruined places in which there will be no inhabitants.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 35

Jer 35:1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah,
Jer 35:2 “Go to the clan of the Rechabites (Kenites) and speak with them. Then bring them to the temple of Yehowah, into one of the rooms there and give them wine to drink.”
Jer 35:3 So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah son of Habazziniah and his brothers, all his sons, and all the clan of the Rechabites.
Jer 35:4 I took them to the temple of Yehowah, into the rooms of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah (Yigdalyahu), the man of the Almighty. These rooms were beside the room of the leaders which was above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the gatekeeper.
Jer 35:5 Then I placed bowls and cups full of wine in front of the Rechabites and ordered them, “Drink some wine.”
Jer 35:6 But they answered, “We will not drink any wine, for our ancestor, Jonadab son of Rechab, commanded us, ‘Do not drink any wine, neither you nor your descendants, forever.
Jer 35:7 Also, do not build any houses, sow any seeds, or plant any vineyards; this is not for you. For you must live in tents all your days, so that you might live many days in the land where you are staying as foreigners.’
Jer 35:8 We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab son of Rechab, our ancestor, in all that he commanded us, to never drink wine all of our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters (Num. 6).
Jer 35:9 We will never build houses to live in, and there will be no vineyard, field, or seed in our possession.
Jer 35:10 We have lived in tents, and we have obeyed and done all that Jonadab our ancestor commanded us.
Jer 35:11 But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked the land, we said, ‘Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape from the Chaldean and Aramean armed forces.’ So we are living in Jerusalem.”
Jer 35:12 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah,
Jer 35:13 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, orders this, ‘Go and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will you not receive correction and listen to my words?” asks Yehowah.
Jer 35:14 “The words of Jonadab son of Rechab that he gave to his sons as a command, not to drink any wine, have been observed to this day. They have obeyed their ancestor’s command. But as for me, I myself have been making persistent proclamations to you, but you do not listen to me.

Jer 35:15 I sent out to you all my servants, the prophets. I was persistent in sending them to say, ‘Let each person turn from his wicked way and do good deeds; let no one walk any longer after false deities and worship them. Instead, come back to the land that I gave to you and your ancestors.’ Yet you will not listen to me or pay attention to me.
Jer 35:16 For the descendants of Jonadab son of Rechab have observed the commands of their ancestor that he gave them, but this people refuses to listen to me.”””
Jer 35:17 So Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces and Mighty One of Israel, declares this, “Look, all the disasters that I have proclaimed against them, I am about to bring these disasters on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, because I have made proclamations to them, but they refused to listen. I called to them, but they did not answer.”
Jer 35:18 Jeremiah said to the family of the Rechabites, “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, says this: You have listened to the commands of Jonadab your ancestor and have kept them all, you have obeyed all that he commanded you to do,
Jer 35:19 so Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘There will always be someone descended from Jonadab son of Rechab to serve me.’”

Jeremiah Chapter 36

Jer 36:1 It came about in the fourth year (c. 605 BC) of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from Yehowah,
Jer 36:2 “Take a scroll for yourself and write on it all the words that I have told you concerning Israel and Judah, and every ethnicity. Do this for everything I have spoken from the days of Josiah until this day.
Jer 36:3 Perhaps the people of Judah will listen to all the disasters that I intend to bring on them. Perhaps everyone will turn away from his wicked path, so I can forgive their iniquity and their sin.”
Jer 36:4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote in a Scroll, at Jeremiah’s dictation, all the words of Yehowah spoken to him.
Jer 36:5 Next, Jeremiah gave a command to Baruch, “I am in prison and cannot go to the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 36:6 So you must go and read from the Scroll that you wrote at my dictation. On the day of the fast, you must read the words of Yehowah in the hearing of the people in the temple of Yehowah, and also in the hearing of all of Judah who have come from their cities. Proclaim these words to them.
Jer 36:7 Perhaps their pleas for mercy will come before Yehowah. Perhaps each person will turn from his wicked way, since the wrath and fury that Yehowah has proclaimed against this people are severe.”
Jer 36:8 So Baruch son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him to do. He read aloud the words of Yehowah in the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 36:9 It came about in the fifth year (c. 604 BC) and ninth month of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, that all the people in Jerusalem, and the people who came to Jerusalem from the cities of Judah, proclaimed a fast in honor of Yehowah.
Jer 36:10 Baruch read aloud Jeremiah’s words in the temple of Yehowah, from the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard, by the gate of the entrance to the temple of Yehowah. He did this in the hearing of all the people.
Jer 36:11 Now Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan heard all of the words of Yehowah in the Scroll.
Jer 36:12 He went down to the house of the king, to the secretary’s room. Look, all the officials were sitting there: Elishama the scribe, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the officials.
Jer 36:13 Then Micaiah reported to them all the words that he had heard that Baruch read aloud in the people’s hearing.

Jer 36:14 So all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Cushi, to Baruch. Jehudi ordered Baruch, “Take the Scroll in your hand, the Scroll from which you were reading in the people’s hearing and come.” So Baruch son of Neriah took the Scroll in his hand and went to the officials.
Jer 36:15 Then they ordered him, “Sit down and read this in our hearing.” So Baruch read the Scroll.
Jer 36:16 It happened that when they heard all these words, each man turned in fear to the one next to him and said to Baruch, “We must certainly report all of these words to the king.”
Jer 36:17 Then they asked Baruch, “Tell us, how did you come to write all these words at Jeremiah’s dictation?”
Jer 36:18 Baruch answered them, “He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on this Scroll.”
Jer 36:19 Then the officials ordered Baruch, “Go, hide yourself, and Jeremiah, too. Do not let anyone know where you are.”
Jer 36:20 Then they went to the king’s court and reported these words to him. But first they deposited the Scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary.
Jer 36:21 Then the king sent Jehudi to get the Scroll. Jehudi took it from the room of Elishama the secretary. Then he read it aloud to the king and all the officials who were standing beside him.
Jer 36:22 Now the king was staying in the winter house in the ninth month, and a fireplace was burning in front of him.
Jer 36:23 It happened that as Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut it off with a knife and throw it into the fire in the fireplace, until all of the Scroll was destroyed.
Jer 36:24 But neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words were frightened, nor did they tear their clothes.
Jer 36:25 Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah had even urged the king not to burn the Scroll, but he did not listen to them.
Jer 36:26 Then the king commanded Jerahmeel, son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet, but Yehowah had hidden them.
Jer 36:27 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the Scroll and the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah’s dictation, Jer 36:28 “Go back, take another scroll for yourself, and write in it all the words that were on the original Scroll, the one that Jehoiakim king of Judah burned.
Jer 36:29 Then you must say this to Jehoiakim king of Judah: ‘You burned that Scroll, asking, “Why have you written on it, ‘The king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, for he will destroy both man and beast in it?’”’”

Jer 36:30 Therefore, Yehowah declares this concerning you, Jehoiakim king of Judah: “No descendant of yours will ever sit on the throne of David. As for you, your corpse will be thrown out into the heat of day and the frost of night.
Jer 36:31 For I will punish you, your descendants, and your servants for the iniquity of you all. I will bring on you, on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on every person in Judah, all the disasters with which I have threatened you with, but to which you paid no attention.”
Jer 36:32 So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah the scribe. Baruch wrote on it at Jeremiah’s dictation all the words that had been in the Scroll burned by Jehoiakim king of Judah. Furthermore, many other similar words were added to this Scroll.

Jeremiah Chapter 37

Jer 37:1 Now Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king instead of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had made Zedekiah king over the land of Judah.
Jer 37:2 But Zedekiah, his servants, and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Yehowah that he proclaimed by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet.
Jer 37:3 So King Zedekiah, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest sent a message to Jeremiah the prophet. They entreated, "Pray on our behalf to Yehowah our Divine One."
Jer 37:4 Now Jeremiah was coming and going among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.
Jer 37:5 Pharaoh Hophra's (Apries, Jer. 44:30) military force came out from Egypt, and the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard the news about them and left Jerusalem.
Jer 37:6 Then the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah the prophet,
Jer 37:7 "Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: This is what you will say to the king of Judah, because he has sent you to seek advice from me, 'See, Pharaoh Hophra's military force, which came to help you, is about to go back to Egypt, its own land.
Jer 37:8 The Chaldeans will return. They will fight against this city, capture it, and burn it.'
Jer 37:9 Yehowah declares this: Do not deceive yourselves by saying, 'Surely the Chaldeans are leaving us,' for they will not leave.
Jer 37:10 Even if you had defeated the entire Chaldean military force that is fighting you, so that only wounded men were left in their tents, they would get up and burn this city."
Jer 37:11 So it was when the Chaldean military force had left Jerusalem as Pharaoh Hophra's military force was coming,
Jer 37:12 then Jeremiah went out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin. He wanted to take possession of a tract of land there among his people.
Jer 37:13 As he was in the Benjamin Gate, a chief guard was there. His name was Jeriah (Yiriyah) son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah. He grabbed hold of Jeremiah the prophet and exclaimed, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans!"
Jer 37:14 But Jeremiah responded, "That is not true! I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But Jeriah did not listen to him. He took Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.
Jer 37:15 The officials were angry with Jeremiah. They beat him and put him in prison, which had been the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had turned it into a prison.

Jer 37:16 So Jeremiah was put into an underground cell, where he stayed for many days.
Jer 37:17 Then King Zedekiah sent someone who brought him to the palace. In his house, the king asked him privately, “Is there any word from Yehowah?” Jeremiah answered, “There is a word: You will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon.”
Jer 37:18 Then Jeremiah asked King Zedekiah, “How have I sinned against you, your servants, or this people, so that you have placed me in prison?
Jer 37:19 Where are your prophets, the ones who prophesied for you, and said the king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land?
Jer 37:20 But now listen, my master the king! Let my pleas come before you. Do not return me to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there.”
Jer 37:21 So King Zedekiah gave an order. His servants confined Jeremiah in the courtyard of the guard. A loaf of bread was given him every day from the street of the bakers, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah Chapter 38

Jer 38:1 Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard the words that Jeremiah was declaring to all the people,
Jer 38:2 “Yehowah declares this: Anyone staying in this city will be killed by sword, famine, and plague. But anyone who goes out to the Chaldeans will survive. He will escape with his own life and live.
Jer 38:3 Yehowah declares this: This city will be given into the hand of the military force of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.”
Jer 38:4 So the officials entreated the king, “Let this man be executed, for in this way, he is weakening the hands of the fighting men who remain in this city and the hands of all the people. He is proclaiming these words, for this man is not working for safety for this people but disaster.”
Jer 38:5 So King Zedekiah said, “Look, he is in your hand, since there is no king able to resist you.”
Jer 38:6 Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malkijah, son of the king. The cistern was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah down on ropes. There was no water in the cistern, but it was muddy, and he sank down into the mud.
Jer 38:7 Now Ebed Melech, the Cushite, was one of the eunuchs in the king’s house. He heard that they had placed Jeremiah in the cistern. Now the king was sitting at the Benjamin Gate.
Jer 38:8 So Ebed Melech went from the king’s house and spoke with the king,
Jer 38:9 “My master the king, these men have done evil with the way they have treated Jeremiah the prophet. They threw him into a cistern for him to die in it from hunger, since there is no more food in the city.”
Jer 38:10 Then the king gave a command to Ebed Melech the Cushite. He said, “Take command of thirty men from here and take Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies.”
Jer 38:11 So Ebed Melech took command of those men and went to the king’s house, to a storeroom for clothing under the house. From there he took rags and worn-out clothing and then let them down by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.
Jer 38:12 Ebed Melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, “Put the rags and worn-out clothing under your arms and on top of the ropes.” So Jeremiah did so.
Jer 38:13 Then they pulled Jeremiah by the ropes. In this way, they brought him up from the cistern. So Jeremiah stayed in the courtyard of the guard.
Jer 38:14 Then King Zedekiah sent word and brought Jeremiah the prophet to himself, to the third entrance in the temple of Yehowah. The king said to Jeremiah, “I want to ask you something. Do not keep the answer from me.”

Jer 38:15 Jeremiah replied to Zedekiah, “If I answer you, will you not certainly execute me? But if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”
Jer 38:16 But King Zedekiah swore to Jeremiah in private, “As Yehowah lives, the One who made us, I will not execute you or give you into the hand of those men who are seeking your life.”
Jer 38:17 So Jeremiah prophesied to Zedekiah, “Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: If you indeed go out to the officials of the king of Babylon then you will live, and this city will not be burned. You and your family will live.
Jer 38:18 But if you do not go out to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans. They will burn it, and you will not escape from their hand.”
Jer 38:19 King Zedekiah responded to Jeremiah, “But I am afraid of the people of Judah who have deserted to the Chaldeans, because I might be given over into their hand, for them to treat me badly.”
Jer 38:20 Jeremiah stated, “They will not give you over to them. Obey the message from Yehowah that I am telling you, so that things will go well for you, and so that you will live.
Jer 38:21 But if you refuse to go out, this is what Yehowah has shown me:
Jer 38:22 Look! All the women who are left in your house, king of Judah, will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. These women will say to you, ‘You have been deceived by your friends; they have ruined you. Your feet are now sunk into the mud, and your friends will run away.’
Jer 38:23 For all of your wives and children will be brought out to the Chaldeans, and you yourself will not escape from their hand. You will be captured by the hand of the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned.”
Jer 38:24 Then Zedekiah commanded Jeremiah, “Do not inform anyone about these words, so that you do not die.
Jer 38:25 If the officials hear that I have talked with you, and if they come and order you, ‘Tell us what you said to the king and do not hide it from us, or we will kill you,’
Jer 38:26 then you must say to them, ‘I made a humble plea before the king that he would not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.’”
Jer 38:27 Then all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, so he answered them as the king had instructed him. So they stopped talking with him, because they had not heard the conversation between Jeremiah and the king.
Jer 38:28 So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard, until the day Jerusalem was captured. And he was there when Jerusalem was captured (summer, c. 587 BC).

Jeremiah Chapter 39

Jer 39:1 In the ninth year (c. 589 BC) and tenth month of Zedekiah king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with all his military force against Jerusalem and besieged it.
Jer 39:2 In the eleventh year of Zedekiah (c. 587 BC), on the ninth of the fourth month, the city was broken into.
Jer 39:3 Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and sat in the middle gate: Nergal Sharezer, Samgar Nebo, and Sarsechim, an important official. Nergal Sharezer was a high official, and all the rest were the officials of the king of Babylon.
Jer 39:4 It happened that when Zedekiah, king of Judah, and all his fighting men saw them, they fled. They went out at night from the city by the king's garden path, through the gate between the two walls. The king went out in the direction of the Arabah.
Jer 39:5 But the army of Chaldeans pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. Then they captured him and brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where Nebuchadnezzar passed sentence on him.
Jer 39:6 The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his own eyes at Riblah. He also slaughtered all the noblemen of Judah.
Jer 39:7 Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in bronze chains in order to take him to Babylon.
Jer 39:8 Then the Chaldeans burned the king's house and the people's houses. They also tore down the walls of Jerusalem.
Jer 39:9 Nebuzaradan, captain of the king's bodyguards, took into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city. This included the people who had deserted to the Chaldeans, and the rest of the people who were left in the city.
Jer 39:10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the king's bodyguards allowed the poorest people who had nothing for themselves to remain in the land of Judah. He gave them vineyards and fields on that same day.
Jer 39:11 King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had given an order about Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan, the captain of the king's bodyguards, Jer 39:12 "Take him and care for him. Do not harm him. Do for him anything he tells you."
Jer 39:13 So Nebuzaradan captain of the king's bodyguards, Nebushazban the high official, Nergal Sharezer the high official, and all the most important officials of the king of Babylon sent men out.

Jer 39:14 Their men took Jeremiah from the courtyard of the guard and entrusted him to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, to take him home, so Jeremiah stayed among the people.
Jer 39:15 Now the Word of Yehowah had come to Jeremiah while he was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard,
Jer 39:16 “Speak to Ebed Melech the Cushite, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: See, I am about to carry out my words against this city for disaster and not for good. For they will all come true before you on that day.
Jer 39:17 But I will rescue you on that day,’ declares Yehowah, ‘and you will not be given into the hand of the men whom you fear.
Jer 39:18 For I will certainly rescue you. You will not fall by the sword. You will escape with your life, since you trust in me,’” declares Yehowah.

Jeremiah Chapter 40

Jer 40:1 This was the word that came to Jeremiah from Yehowah after Nebuzaradan, the captain of the king's bodyguard, had sent him away from Ramah. That was where Jeremiah had been taken to, and where he had been bound with chains. He had been among all the exiles of Jerusalem and Judah who were to be exiled to Babylon.
Jer 40:2 The chief guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "Yehowah your Divine One decreed this disaster against this place.
Jer 40:3 So Yehowah brought it about. He did just as he had decreed, since you people sinned against him and did not obey his voice. That is why this thing has happened to you people.
Jer 40:4 But now look! I have released you today from the chains that were on your hands. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take care of you. But if it is not good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, then do not do so. Look at all the land before you. Go where it is good and right in your eyes to go."
Jer 40:5 When Jeremiah did not reply, Nebuzaradan said, "Go to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has put in charge of the cities of Judah. Stay with him among the people or go wherever it is good in your eyes to go." The commander of the king's bodyguards gave him food and a gift and then sent him away.
Jer 40:6 So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. He stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.
Jer 40:7 Now some commanders of Judean soldiers who were still in the countryside, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah son of Ahikam, governor over the land. They also heard that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children who were the poorest people in the land, those who had not been exiled to Babylon.
Jer 40:8 So they went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. These men were Ishmael son of Nethaniah; Johanan and Jonathan, sons of Kareah; Seraiah son of Tanhumeth; the sons of Ephai the Netophathite; and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, they and their men.
Jer 40:9 Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, took an oath to them and to their men, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldean officials. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.
Jer 40:10 Look, I am living in Mizpah to meet with the Chaldeans who came to us. So harvest wine, summer fruit, and oil, and store them in your containers. Live in the cities that you have occupied."

Jer 40:11 Then all the Judeans in Moab, among the people of Ammon, and in Edom, and in every land heard that the king of Babylon had allowed a remnant of Judah to stay, that he had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan over them.
Jer 40:12 So all the Judeans returned from every place where they had been scattered. They came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They harvested wine and summer fruit in great abundance.
Jer 40:13 Johanan son of Kareah and all the military commanders in the countryside came to Gedaliah at Mizpah.
Jer 40:14 They asked him, “Do you realize that Baalis, king of the people of Ammon, sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to murder you?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikim did not believe them.
Jer 40:15 So Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah, “Allow me to go kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will suspect me. Why should he murder you? Why allow all of Judah that has been gathered to you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah to be destroyed?”
Jer 40:16 But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Do not do this thing, for you are telling lies about Ishmael.”

Jeremiah Chapter 41

Jer 41:1 But it happened, that in the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, from the royal family, and some officers of the king, came, ten men were with him, to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. They ate food together there in Mizpah.
Jer 41:2 But Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him rose up and attacked Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, with the sword. Ishmael killed Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land.
Jer 41:3 Then Ishmael killed all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah in Mizpah and the Chaldean fighting men found there.
Jer 41:4 Then it was the second day after the killing of Gedaliah, but no one knew.
Jer 41:5 Some men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, eighty men who had shaved their beard, torn their clothes, and cut themselves, with food offerings and frankincense in their hands to go to the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 41:6 So Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them as they went, walking and weeping. Then it happened, that as he encountered them, he said to them, “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam!”
Jer 41:7 It came about that when they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah slaughtered them and threw them into a pit, he and the men who were with him.
Jer 41:8 But there were ten men among them who entreated Ishmael, “Do not kill us, for there are provisions of ours in a field: wheat and barley, oil and honey.” So he did not kill them with their other companions.
Jer 41:9 The cistern where Ishmael threw all the dead bodies that he had struck down because of Gedaliah, was the same cistern that King Asa dug when he was being attacked by King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the homicide victims.
Jer 41:10 Next, Ishmael captured all the other people who were in Mizpah, the king’s daughters and all the people who were left in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the chief guard had assigned to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. So Ishmael son of Nethaniah captured them and went to cross over to the people of Ammon.
Jer 41:11 But Johanan son of Kareah and all the military commanders with him heard of all the harm that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done.
Jer 41:12 So they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They found him at the great pool of Gibeon.

Jer 41:13 Then it happened that when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the military commanders who were with him, they were happy.
Jer 41:14 So all the people whom Ishmael had captured at Mizpah turned around and went to Johanan son of Kareah.
Jer 41:15 But Ishmael son of Nethaniah fled with eight men from Johanan. He went to the people of Ammon.
Jer 41:16 Johanan son of Kareah and all the military commanders with him took from Mizpah all the people who had been rescued from Ishmael son of Nethaniah. This was after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Johanan and his companions took the strong men, the fighting men, the women and children, and the officials who had been rescued at Gibeon.
Jer 41:17 Then they went and stayed for awhile in Geruth Chimham, which is near Bethlehem. They were going to go to Egypt
Jer 41:18 because of the Chaldeans. They were afraid of them, since Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land.

Jeremiah Chapter 42

Jer 42:1 Then all the military commanders and Johanan son of Kereah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached Jeremiah the prophet.
Jer 42:2 They entreated him, “Let our pleas come before you. Pray for us to Yehowah your Divine One for these people who remain, since we are so few in number, as you see.
Jer 42:3 Ask Yehowah your Divine One to tell us the Way we should go, and what we should do.”
Jer 42:4 So Jeremiah the prophet answered them, “I have heard you. Look, I will pray to Yehowah your Divine One as you have requested. Whatever Yehowah answers, I will tell you. I will keep nothing back from you.”
Jer 42:5 They replied to Jeremiah, “May Yehowah be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not do everything that Yehowah your Divine One tells us to do.
Jer 42:6 Whether it is good or if it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yehowah our Divine One, to whom we are sending you, so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of Yehowah our Divine One.”
Jer 42:7 It happened that after ten days, the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah.
Jer 42:8 So Jeremiah called to Johanan son of Kareah and all the military commanders with him, and to all the people from the least to the greatest.
Jer 42:9 Then he said to them, “Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, to whom you sent me, so I might lay your pleas before him. Yehowah declares this,
Jer 42:10 ‘If you go back and live in this land, then I will build you and not tear you down; I will plant you and not pull you up, for I will turn back the disaster that I have brought on you.
Jer 42:11 Do not fear the king of Babylon, whom you are fearing. Do not fear him,’ declares Yehowah, ‘since I am with you to save you and rescue you from his hand.
Jer 42:12 For I will give you mercy. I will have compassion on you, and I will bring you back to your land.
Jer 42:13 But suppose that you say, “We will not stay in this land,” if you do not listen to my voice, the voice of Yehowah your Divine One.
Jer 42:14 Suppose that you say, “No! We will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see any war, where we will not hear the sound of the trumpet, and we will not go hungry for food. We will live there.”

Jer 42:15 Now listen to this Word of Yehowah, you remnant of Judah. Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘If you actually set out to go to Egypt, to go and live there,
Jer 42:16 then the sword that you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt. The famine that you are worrying about will pursue you to Egypt, and you will die there.
Jer 42:17 So it will happen that all the men who set out to go to Egypt to live there will die by sword, famine, or plague. There will be no survivor of them, no one to escape the disaster that I will bring on them.’
Jer 42:18 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: Just as my wrath and my fury were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, in the same way, my fury will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an object of cursing and a horror, an object for speaking curses, and something dishonorable, and you will not see this place again.’”
Jer 42:19 Then Jeremiah said, “Yehowah has spoken concerning you, the remnant of Judah. Do not go to Egypt! You certainly know that I have been a witness against you today.
Jer 42:20 For you fatally deceived yourselves when you sent me to Yehowah your Divine One and requested, ‘Pray to Yehowah our Divine One for us. Everything that Yehowah our Divine One says, tell us, and we will carry it out.’
Jer 42:21 For I have reported to you today, but you have not listened to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One or to anything about which he sent me to you.
Jer 42:22 So now, you should certainly know that you will die by sword, famine, and plague in the place where you desired to go to live.”

Jeremiah Chapter 43

Jer 43:1 It happened that Jeremiah finished proclaiming to all the people all the words of Yehowah their Divine One that Yehowah their Divine One had told him to say.
Jer 43:2 Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, “You are telling lies. Yehowah our Divine One has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to live there.’
Jer 43:3 For Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, for you to cause our death and to make us captives in Babylon.”
Jer 43:4 So Johanan son of Kareah, all the princes of the military force, and all the people refused to listen to the voice of Yehowah to live in the land of Judah.
Jer 43:5 Johanan son of Kareah and all the military commanders took away all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all the ethnicities where they had been scattered to live in the land of Judah.
Jer 43:6 They took the men and women, the children and the king’s daughters, and every person whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the king’s bodyguards, had let remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan. They also took Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.
Jer 43:7 They went to the land of Egypt, to Tahpanhes, because they did not listen to the voice of Yehowah.
Jer 43:8 So the Word of Yehowah came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes,
Jer 43:9 “Take some large stones in your hand, and in the sight of the people of Judah, hide them in the mortar in the pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Tahpanhes.”
Jer 43:10 Then prophesy to them, “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘See, I am about to send messengers to take Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon as my servant. I will place his throne over these stones that you, Jeremiah, have buried. Nebuchadnezzar will place his pavilion over them.
Jer 43:11 For he will come and attack the land of Egypt (c. 568 BC). Anyone who is assigned to death will be given to death. Anyone who is assigned to captivity will be taken captive. Anyone who is assigned to the sword will be given to the sword.
Jer 43:12 Then he will light a fire in the temples of Egypt’s deities. Nebuchadnezzar will burn them or capture them. He will clean out the land of Egypt just as shepherds clean vermin off their clothes. He will go out from that place in peace.

Jer 43:13 He will break the stone pillars at Heliopolis in the land of Egypt. He will burn the temples of Egypt’s deities.’”

Jeremiah Chapter 44

Jer 44:1 This was the word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Judeans who lived in the land of Egypt, the ones staying in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in the land of Pathros.
Jer 44:2 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: ‘You yourselves have seen all the disasters that I brought on Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. See, they are ruins today. There is no one to live in them.
Jer 44:3 This is because of the wicked things they did to offend me by going to burn incense and to worship false deities. These were deities that neither they themselves, nor you, nor your ancestors knew.
Jer 44:4 So I repeatedly sent all of my servants the prophets to them. I sent them to say, ‘Stop doing these abominable things that I hate.’
Jer 44:5 But they did not listen. They refused to pay attention or turn from their wickedness in burning incense to false deities.
Jer 44:6 So my fury and my wrath were poured out and kindled a fire in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. So they became ruins and devastations, as at this present day.’” Jer 44:7 So now Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces and the Mighty One of Israel, declares this, “Why are you doing great wickedness against yourselves? Why are you causing yourselves to be cut off from among Judah, men and women, children and babies? No remnant of you will be left.
Jer 44:8 By your wickedness, you have offended me with the deeds of your hands, by burning incense to false deities in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live. You have gone there, so that you will be destroyed, so that you will be a curse and a reproach among all the ethnicities of the earth.
Jer 44:9 Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your ancestors and the wickedness committed by the kings of Judah and their wives? Have you forgotten the evil committed by yourselves and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?
Jer 44:10 To this day, they still are not humbled. They do not honor my law or decrees that I placed before them and their ancestors, nor do they walk in them.”
Jer 44:11 Therefore, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, “See, I am about to set my face against you to bring disaster to you and to destroy all of Judah.
Jer 44:12 For I will take the remnant of Judah that has set out to go to the land of Egypt to live there. I will do this, so that they will all perish in the land of Egypt. They will fall by sword and famine. From the least to the greatest they will perish by sword and famine. They will die and will become an object of swearing, cursing, reproaching, and a horrible thing.

Jer 44:13 For I will punish the people inhabiting the land of Egypt, just as I punished Jerusalem with sword, famine, and plague.
Jer 44:14 No fugitive or survivor of the remnant of Judah who are going to live there in the land of Egypt will return to the land of Judah, even though they want to go back and live there. None of them will return, except for a few who will escape from here."
Jer 44:15 Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to false deities, and all the women who were in the great congregation, and all the people who were living in the land of Egypt in Pathros answered Jeremiah,
Jer 44:16 "About the word that you have told us in the name of Yehowah: We will not listen to you.
Jer 44:17 For we will certainly do all the things that we said we would do: Burn incense to the Queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her just as we, our ancestors, our kings, and our leaders did in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. Then we will be filled with food and will prosper, without experiencing any disaster.
Jer 44:18 When we refrained from doing these things, not offering incense to the Queen of heaven and not pouring out drink offerings to her, we were all suffering poverty and were dying by sword and famine."
Jer 44:19 The women explained, "When we were making incense offerings before the Queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, did we do these things without our husbands knowing about it?"
Jer 44:20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and women, and all the people who answered him, he proclaimed,
Jer 44:21 "Did not Yehowah remember the incense that you burned in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, you and your ancestors, your kings and leaders, and the people of the land? For Yehowah calls this to mind; it comes to his thoughts.
Jer 44:22 Then he was no longer able to bear it because of your wicked practices, because of the abominations that you did. Then your land became a desolation, a horror, and a curse, so there was no longer an inhabitant, as at this present day.
Jer 44:23 Because you burned incense and sinned against Yehowah, and because you would not listen to the voice of Yehowah, his law, his statutes, or his covenant decrees, this disaster against you has happened, as at this present day."
Jer 44:24 Then Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women, "Hear the Word of Yehowah, all of Judah who are in the land of Egypt.

Jer 44:25 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, ‘You and your wives both have said with your mouths and carried out with your hands what you said, “We will certainly carry out the vows that we made to worship the Queen of heaven, to pour out drink offerings to her.” Now fulfill your vows; carry them out.’
Jer 44:26 So then hear the Word of Yehowah, all of Judah who are staying in the land of Egypt, ‘See, I have sworn by my great name,’ declares Yehowah. ‘My name will no longer be called upon by the mouths of any of the men of Judah in all the land of Egypt, you who now say, “As Lord Yehowah lives.”
Jer 44:27 See, I am watching over them for disaster and not for good. Every person of Judah in the land of Egypt will perish by sword and famine, until they are all finished.
Jer 44:28 Then the survivors of the sword will return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah, only a small number of them. So all the remnant of Judah who went to the land of Egypt to live there will know whose word will come true: Mine or theirs.
Jer 44:29 This will be the sign for you,’ declares Yehowah, ‘that I am coming against you in this place, so that you will know that my words will certainly attack you with disaster.’
Jer 44:30 Yehowah declares this, ‘Look, I am about to give Pharaoh Hophra (Apries, Jer. 37:5), king of Egypt, into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek to kill him (fulfilled c. 570 BC). It will be the same as when I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, his enemy who sought his life.’”

Jeremiah Chapter 45

Jer 45:1 This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch son of Neriah. This happened when he wrote in a Scroll these words at Jeremiah's dictation, this was in the fourth year (c. 605 BC) of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, and he said,
Jer 45:2 "Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, says this to you, Baruch:
Jer 45:3 You have said, 'Woe is me, for Yehowah has added agony to my pain. My groaning has wearied me; I find no rest.'
Jer 45:4 This is what you must say to him: 'Yehowah declares this: See, what I built, I am now tearing down. What I planted, I am now pulling up. This is true over all the earth.
Jer 45:5 But are you hoping for great things for yourself? Do not hope for that. For see, disaster is coming on all humanity,' declares Yehowah, 'but I am giving you your life as your plunder everywhere you will go.'"

Jeremiah Chapter 46

Jer 46:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the ethnicities.
Jer 46:2 For Egypt: “This is about the military force of Pharaoh Neco II, king of Egypt that was at Carchemish by the Euphrates River. This was the military force that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah (c. 605 BC, Jer. 25:1-3):
Jer 46:3 Get the small shields and the large shields ready and go forward to fight.
Jer 46:4 Harness the stallions and mount them, you cavalrymen. Take your places, with your helmets on your heads. Polish the spears and put on your armor.
Jer 46:5 What am I seeing here? They are filled with terror and are running away, for their soldiers are defeated. They are running for safety and are not looking back. Terror is all around,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 46:6 “The swift cannot run away, and the soldiers cannot escape. They stumble in the north and fall beside the Euphrates River.
Jer 46:7 Who is this who rises like the Nile, whose waters toss up and down like the rivers?
Jer 46:8 Egypt rises like the Nile, and its waters toss up and down like the rivers. It says, ‘I will go up; I will cover the earth. I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.
Jer 46:9 Go up, cavalry. Be angry, you chariots. Let the soldiers go out, Cush and Put (Libyans), men skillful with a shield, and Ludim (Lydians), men skillful at bending their bows.’
Jer 46:10 That Day will be the Day of Vengeance for Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, and he will avenge himself on his foes. The sword will devour and be satisfied. It will drink its fill of their blood. For there will be a sacrifice to Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces in the northern land by the Euphrates River.
Jer 46:11 Go up to Gilead and obtain balm, virgin daughter of Egypt. You take many medicines, but it is useless. There is no cure for you.
Jer 46:12 The ethnicities have heard of your disgrace. The earth is filled with your laments, for soldier stumbles against soldier; both of them fall together.”
Jer 46:13 This is the word that Yehowah declared to Jeremiah the prophet when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came and attacked the land of Egypt:
Jer 46:14 “Report to Egypt and let it be heard in Migdol and Memphis. In Tahpanhes they have said, ‘Station yourself and take a stand, for the sword is devouring all around you.

Jer 46:15 Why has your deity Apis run away? Why is your bull-deity not standing? Yehowah has thrown him down.
Jer 46:16 He increases the numbers of those who stumble. Each soldier falls against the next one. They are shouting, “Get up! Let’s go home! Let’s go back to our own people, to our native land! Let’s leave this sword that is beating us down!”
Jer 46:17 They proclaimed there, “Pharaoh the king of Egypt is only a noise, one who has let his opportunity slip away.”
Jer 46:18 “As I live,” declares the King, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces by name, “someone will come who is like Mount Tabor and Mount Carmel by the sea.
Jer 46:19 Pack for yourselves bags to carry into exile, you daughters who live in Egypt. For Memphis will become a waste, a ruin. No one will live there.
Jer 46:20 Egypt is a beautiful young cow, but a stinging insect is coming from the north. It is coming.
Jer 46:21 The hired soldiers in her midst are like a fattened bull, but they will also turn and run away. They will not stand together, for the day of their disaster is coming against them, the time of their punishment.
Jer 46:22 Egypt hisses like a snake and crawls away, for her enemies are marching against her. They are going toward her like woodcutters with axes.
Jer 46:23 They will cut down the forests,” declares Yehowah, “although it is impenetrable. For the enemies will be more numerous than locusts, unable to be counted.
Jer 46:24 The daughter of Egypt will be made ashamed. She will be given into the hand of people from the north.”
Jer 46:25 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares, “See, I am about to punish Amon of Thebes (modern Luxor), Pharaoh, Egypt and her deities, her kings the Pharaohs, and those who trust in them.
Jer 46:26 I am giving them into the hand of the ones seeking their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his servants. Then after this, Egypt will be inhabited as in previous days,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 46:27 “But you, my servant Jacob, do not fear. Do not be dismayed, Israel, for see, I am about to bring you back from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Then Jacob will return, find peace, and be secure, and there will be no one to terrify him.
Jer 46:28 You, my servant Jacob, do not fear,” declares Yehowah, “for I am with you, so I will bring complete destruction against all the ethnicities where I scattered you. But I will not destroy you completely. Yet I will discipline you justly and will certainly not leave you unpunished.””"

Jeremiah Chapter 47

Jer 47:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines. This word came to him before Pharaoh attacked Gaza.
Jer 47:2 Yehowah declares this: “See, floods of water are rising in the north. They will be like an overflowing river! Then they will overflow the land and everything in it, its cities and its inhabitants! So everyone will shout for help, and all the inhabitants of the land will lament.
Jer 47:3 At the sound of the stamping of their strong horses’ hooves, at the roar of their chariots and the noise of their wheels, fathers will not help their children because of their own weakness.
Jer 47:4 For the day is coming that will devastate all of the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every survivor who wants to help them. For Yehowah is devastating the Philistines, those who remain from the island of Caphtor (Crete, Gen. 10:14; Deut. 2:23; 1 Chron. 1:12; Amos 9:7).
Jer 47:5 Baldness will come upon Gaza. As for Ashkelon, the people who are left in their valley will be made silent. How long will you cut yourself in mourning?
Jer 47:6 Woe, sword of Yehowah! How long will it be until you become silent? Go back to your scabbard! Stop and be silent.
Jer 47:7 How can you be quiet, for Yehowah has commanded you. He has summoned you to attack Ashkelon and against the coastlands along the Mediterranean Sea.”

Jeremiah Chapter 48

Jer 48:1 To Moab, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this, “Woe to Nebo, for it has been devastated. Kiriathaim has been captured and humiliated. Her fortress has been crushed and disgraced.
Jer 48:2 The honor of Moab is no more. Their enemies in Heshbon plotted disaster against her. They said, ‘Come and let us destroy her as an ethnicity. Dunghill, you will also perish, a sword will go after you.’
Jer 48:3 Listen! A sound of screaming is coming from Horonaim, where there is ruin and great destruction.
Jer 48:4 Moab has been destroyed. Her children have made their cries heard.
Jer 48:5 They go up the hill of Luhith weeping, for on the way down to Horonaim, screams are heard because of the destruction.
Jer 48:6 Flee! Save your lives and become like a juniper bush in the wilderness.
Jer 48:7 For because of your trust in your practices and your wealth, you also will be captured. Then Chemosh will go away into captivity, together with his priests and leaders.
Jer 48:8 For the destroyer will come to every city; no city will escape. So the valley will perish and the plain will be devastated, as Yehowah has declared.
Jer 48:9 Give wings to Moab, for she must certainly fly away. Her cities will become a wasteland, where there is no one to live in them.
Jer 48:10 May anyone who is lazy in doing the work of Yehowah be cursed! May anyone who keeps his sword back from shedding blood be cursed!
Jer 48:11 Moab has felt secure since he was young. He is like his wine that has never been poured from container to container. He has never gone into captivity. Therefore, he tastes as good as ever; his flavor remains unchanged.
Jer 48:12 So see, the days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when I will send him those who will tip him over and pour out all his pots and shatter his jars.
Jer 48:13 Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their object of trust.
Jer 48:14 How can you say, ‘We are soldiers, powerful fighting men?’
Jer 48:15 Moab will be devastated and its cities attacked. For its finest young men have gone down to the place of slaughter. The King declares! Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name.
Jer 48:16 Moab’s disaster is soon to happen; calamity is hurrying quickly.
Jer 48:17 All you who are around Moab, wail; and all you who know its fame, shout this, ‘Woe, the strong staff, the honored rod, has been broken!’
Jer 48:18 Come down from your honored place and sit on the dry ground, you daughter living in Dibon. For the one who will destroy Moab is attacking you, the one who will destroy your strongholds.

Jer 48:19 Stand on the road and watch, you people who live in Aroer. Ask the ones who are fleeing and escaping. Say, ‘What has happened?’
Jer 48:20 Moab has been shamed, for it has been shattered. Howl and lament; shout for help! Tell it to people by the Arnon River (aka Zarqa River) that Moab has been devastated.
Jer 48:21 Now punishment has come to the hill country, to Holon, Jachzah, and Mephaath,
Jer 48:22 to Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim,
Jer 48:23 to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon,
Jer 48:24 to Kerioth and Bozrah, and to all the cities in the land of Moab, the farthest and the closest cities.
Jer 48:25 The horn of Moab has been hacked off; its arm has been broken,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 48:26 “Make him drunk, for he acted proudly against me, Yehowah. Now Moab claps his hands in disgust at his own vomit, so he also has become an object for laughter.
Jer 48:27 For did Israel not become an object for laughter to you? Was he found among thieves, that you shook your head at him as often as you spoke about him?
Jer 48:28 Abandon the cities and camp on the cliffs, inhabitants of Moab. Become like a dove that is nesting over the mouth of a hole in the rocks.
Jer 48:29 We have heard of Moab’s pride, his arrogance, his haughtiness, his pride, his self-glory and the conceit in his heart.”
Jer 48:30 Yehowah declares, “I myself know his defiant speech, which amounts to nothing, like his deeds.
Jer 48:31 So I will howl a lament for Moab, and I will shout in sorrow for all of Moab! I will lament for the people of Kir Heresh.
Jer 48:32 I will weep for you more than I did for Jazer, vine of Sibmah! Your branches passed across the Dead Sea and reached as far as Jazer. The destroyers have attacked your summer fruit and your wine.
Jer 48:33 So celebration and rejoicing have been taken away from the fruit trees and the land of Moab. I have put an end to the wine from their winepresses. They will not tread with joyful shouts. Any shouts will not be shouts of joy.
Jer 48:34 From the shouts at Heshbon as far as Elealeh, their sound is heard at Jahaz, from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, since even the waters of Nimrim have dried up.
Jer 48:35 For I will put an end to anyone in Moab who makes sacrifices on the high places and burns incense to his deities,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 48:36 “So my heart is lamenting for Moab like a flute. My heart is lamenting like flutes for the people of Kir Heres. The riches they gained are gone.

Jer 48:37 For every head is bald and every beard shaved. Incisions are on every hand, and sackcloth is around their waists.
Jer 48:38 There is mourning everywhere, on every flat roof of Moab and in Moab's plazas. For I have destroyed Moab like pots that no one wants," declares Yehowah.
Jer 48:39 "How it has been shattered! How they howl in their lamenting! Moab turns it back in shame! So Moab will become an object of derision and a terror to all those who are around him."
Jer 48:40 For Yehowah declares this, "See, the enemy will come flying like an eagle, spreading out his wings over Moab.
Jer 48:41 Kerioth has been captured, and its strongholds have been seized. For in that day, the hearts of Moab's soldiers will be like the hearts of women in birth labor.
Jer 48:42 So Moab will be destroyed as a people, since they became arrogant against me, Yehowah.
Jer 48:43 Terror and the pit, and a trap are coming on you, inhabitant of Moab," declares Yehowah.
Jer 48:44 "Anyone who flees because of terror will fall into the pit, and anyone who climbs out of the pit will be caught in the trap, for I will bring this on them in the year of my vengeance against them," declares Yehowah.
Jer 48:45 "The ones who flee will stand in the shadow of Heshbon without any strength, for fire will go out from Heshbon, flame from the middle of Sihon. It will devour the forehead of Moab and the top of the heads of the boastful people.
Jer 48:46 Woe to you, Moab! Chemosh's people are destroyed. For your sons are taken as captives and your daughters into captivity.
Jer 48:47 But I will restore the fortunes of Moab in later days," declares Yehowah. The judgment on Moab ends here.

Jeremiah Chapter 49

Jer 49:1 About the people of Ammon, Yehowah asks this, “Does Israel have no children? Is there no one to inherit anything in Israel? Why does their king occupy Gad, and his people live in its cities?
Jer 49:2 So look, the days are coming,” declares Yehowah, “when I will sound the signal for battle against Rabbah among the people of Ammon, so it will become a deserted heap, and its daughters will light fires. For Israel will possess those who possessed him,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 49:3 “Howl in lament, Heshbon, for Ai will be devastated! Shout out, daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth. Lament and run about in futility, for their king is going into captivity, together with his priests and leaders.
Jer 49:4 Why are you proud of your strength? Your strength will flow away, faithless daughter, you who trust in your wealth. You ask, ‘Who will come against me?’
Jer 49:5 See, I am about to bring terror on you,” declares Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. “This terror will come from all those who surround you. Each one of you will be scattered before it. There will be no one to gather those running away.
Jer 49:6 But after this, I will restore the fortunes of the people of Ammon,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 49:7 About Edom, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces asks this, “Is there no longer any wisdom to be found in Teman? Has good advice disappeared from those who have understanding? Has their wisdom become corrupted?
Jer 49:8 Flee! Turn back! Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Dedan. For I am bringing the disaster of Esau on him at the time that I punish him.
Jer 49:9 If grape harvesters came to you, would they not leave a little bit behind? If thieves came in the night, would they not steal only as much as they wanted?
Jer 49:10 But I have stripped Esau bare. I have revealed his hiding places. So he will not be able to hide himself. His children, his brothers, and his neighbors are destroyed, and he is gone.
Jer 49:11 Leave your orphans behind. I will take care of their lives, and your widows can trust in me.”
Jer 49:12 For Yehowah declares this, “See, those who did not deserve it must certainly drink some of the cup. Do you yourself think you will go without punishment? You will not, for you will certainly drink.
Jer 49:13 For I have sworn by myself,” declares Yehowah, “that Bozrah will become a horror, a disgrace, a devastation, and an object for cursing. All of its cities will become devastations forever.

Jer 49:14 I have heard an intelligence report from Yehowah, and a messenger has been sent out to the ethnicities, ‘Gather together and attack her. Get ready for battle.’”
Jer 49:15 “For see, I have made you small compared to the ethnicities, despised by people.
Jer 49:16 As for your fearsomeness, your heart’s pride has deceived you, inhabitants of places on the cliff, you who have occupied the highest hills, so that you may make your nest high like an eagle. I will bring you down from there,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 49:17 “Edom will become a horror to everyone passing by it. Every such person will tremble and whistle because of all of its disasters.
Jer 49:18 Like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors,” declares Yehowah, “no one will live there; no person will stay there.
Jer 49:19 See, he will go up like a lion from the forests of the Jordan River to the green pasturelands. For I will quickly make Edom run from it, and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it. For who is like me, and who will summon me? What shepherd is able to resist me?”
Jer 49:20 “So listen to the plans that Yehowah has decided against Edom, the plans that he has formed against the inhabitants of Teman. They will certainly be dragged away, even the smallest flock. Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.
Jer 49:21 At the sound of their falling the earth shakes. The sound of distressed shouts is heard at the End Salt Sea (Gulf of Aqaba).
Jer 49:22 See, someone will attack like an eagle, and swoop down and spread his wings over Bozrah. Then on that day, the hearts of Edom’s soldiers will become like the heart of a woman in birth labor.”
Jer 49:23 About Damascus: “Hamath and Arpad will be ashamed, for they have heard an intelligence report of disaster. They melt away! They become as troubled as the sea, which cannot stay calm.
Jer 49:24 Damascus has become weak. It turns away to flee; terror seizes it. Distress and pain seize it, like the pain of a woman giving birth.
Jer 49:25 Its people ask, ‘How is the famous city, the city over which I have rejoiced, not yet evacuated?’
Jer 49:26 Therefore, its young men will fall in its plazas, and all the fighting men will perish on that day,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Jer 49:27 “For I will light a fire on the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the strongholds of Ben Hadad.”
Jer 49:28 About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, Yehowah declares this to Nebuchadnezzar; now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon was going to attack these places: “Arise and attack Kedar and destroy those people of the East.

Jer 49:29 His military force will take their tents and their flocks, their tent hangings, and all of their equipment. They will take their camels from the people of Kedar and call out to them, 'Terror is all around!'
Jer 49:30 Flee! Wander far away! Stay in holes in the ground, inhabitants of Hazor," declares Yehowah, "for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devised a plan against you. Flee! Turn back!
Jer 49:31 Arise! Attack the ethnicity at ease, who lives in safety," declares Yehowah. "They have no gates or bars in them, and its people live by themselves.
Jer 49:32 For their camels will become plunder, and the abundance of their property will become war plunder. Then I will scatter to every wind those who cut the corners of their hair, and I will bring disaster on them from every side," declares Yehowah.
Jer 49:33 "Hazor will become a lair of jackals, a permanent wasteland. No one will live there; no human will stay there."
Jer 49:34 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Jeremiah the prophet about Elam. This happened at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah (c. 597 BC), and he said,
Jer 49:35 "Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: See, I am about to break the bow of Elam, the main part of their power.
Jer 49:36 For I will bring the four winds from the four corners of the heavens, and I will scatter the people of Elam to all of those winds. There is no ethnicity to which those scattered from Elam will not go.
Jer 49:37 So I will shatter Elam before their enemies and before those who seek their lives. For I will bring disaster against them, the fury of my wrath," declares Yehowah, "and I will send the sword after them, until I have annihilated them.
Jer 49:38 Then I will put my throne in Elam and will destroy its king and leaders from there," declares Yehowah.
Jer 49:39 "And it will happen in the Last Days, that I will bring back the fortunes of Elam," declares Yehowah.

Jeremiah Chapter 50

Jer 50:1 This is the word that Yehowah declared about Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, by the hand of Jeremiah the prophet,
Jer 50:2 “Report to the ethnicities and cause them to listen. Lift up a signal and cause them to listen. Do not conceal it. Declare, ‘Babylon is taken. Bel is made ashamed. Merodach is dismayed. Its idols are put to shame; its images are dismayed.’
Jer 50:3 An ethnicity from the north will arise against it, in order to make her land a desolation. No one, neither man nor beast, will live in it. They will flee away.
Jer 50:4 In those days and at that time,” declares Yehowah, “the people of Israel and the people of Judah will come together to go with weeping and seek Yehowah their Divine One.
Jer 50:5 They will ask the way to Zion and will set off toward it, saying, ‘We will go and join ourselves to Yehowah in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.’”
Jer 50:6 “My people have been a lost flock. Their shepherds have led them astray in the mountains; they have turned them around from hill to hill. They went, they forgot the place where they had lived.
Jer 50:7 Everyone who went out to them devoured them. Their adversaries said, ‘We are not guilty, because they sinned against Yehowah, their true home, Yehowah, the hope of their ancestors.’
Jer 50:8 Leave from the midst of Babylon; go out from the land of the Chaldeans; be like male goats that leave before the rest of the flock does.
Jer 50:9 For see, I am about to set in motion and raise up a group of great ethnicities from the north against Babylon. They will arrange themselves against her. Babylon will be captured from there. Their arrows (smart weapons) are like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed.
Jer 50:10 Chaldea will become plunder. All those who plunder it will be satisfied,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 50:11 “You rejoice, you celebrate the plundering of my inheritance; you jump around like a calf stamping in its pasture; you neigh like a powerful horse.
Jer 50:12 So your mother will be greatly ashamed; the one who bore you will be embarrassed. See, she will be the least of ethnicities, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.
Jer 50:13 Because of the wrath of Yehowah, Babylon will not be inhabited, but will be a complete devastation. Everyone who passes by will shudder because of Babylon and will whistle because of all its wounds.

Jer 50:14 Arrange yourselves against Babylon all around her. Everyone who bends a bow must shoot at her. Do not keep back any of your arrows, for she has sinned against Yehowah.
Jer 50:15 Shout in victory against her all around her. She has surrendered her power; her towers have fallen. Her walls are torn down, for this is the vengeance of Yehowah. Take vengeance on her! Do to her just as she had done to the ethnicities!
Jer 50:16 Destroy both the farmer who sows seed and the one who uses a sickle at the time of harvest in Babylon. Let each person turn back to his own people from the oppressor's sword; let them flee to their own land.
Jer 50:17 Israel is a sheep scattered and driven away by lions. First, the king of Assyria devoured him; then after this, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon broke his bones.
Jer 50:18 Therefore, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: See, I am about to punish the king of Babylon and his land, just as I punished the king of Assyria.
Jer 50:19 I will restore Israel to his homeland; he will graze on Carmel and Bashan. Then he will be satisfied in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.
Jer 50:20 In those days and at that time," declares Yehowah, "iniquity will be looked for in Israel, but none will be found. I will inquire about the sins of Judah, but none will be found, for I will forgive the remnant that I spare."
Jer 50:21 "Arise against the land of Merathaim, against it and the ones inhabiting Pekod. Put them to the sword and set them apart for destruction," declares Yehowah, "do everything that I am commanding you.
Jer 50:22 The sounds of battle and enormous destruction are in the land.
Jer 50:23 How the hammer of all the lands has been cut apart and destroyed. How Babylon has become a horror among the ethnicities.
Jer 50:24 I have set a trap for you. You were captured, Babylon, and you did not know it! You were found and seized, since you challenged me, Yehowah.
Jer 50:25 Yehowah has opened his armory and is bringing out the weapons for carrying out his anger. There is work for Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces in the land of the Chaldeans.
Jer 50:26 Attack her from far away. Open her granaries and pile her up like heaps of grain. Set her apart for destruction. Leave no remnant of her.
Jer 50:27 Kill all her bulls. Send them down to the place of slaughter. Woe to them, for their day has come, the time for their punishment.
Jer 50:28 There is the sound of those fleeing, of those who are survivors, from the land of Babylon. These will report the vengeance of Yehowah our Divine One for Zion, and vengeance for his temple."
Jer 50:29 "Summon the archers against Babylon, all those who bend their bows. Camp against her, and let no one escape. Repay her for what she has done. Do to her by the measure she has used. For she had defied Yehowah, the Set-apart One of Israel.

Jer 50:30 So her young men will fall in the city squares, and all her fighting men will be destroyed on that day," declares Yehowah.
Jer 50:31 "See, I am against you, proud one," declares Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, "for your day has come, proud one, the time when I will punish you.
Jer 50:32 So the proud ones will stumble and fall. No one will raise them up. I will light a fire in their cities; it will devour everything around him."
Jer 50:33 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: "The people of Israel are oppressed, together with the people of Judah. All the ones who captured them still hold them; they refuse to let them go.
Jer 50:34 The one who rescues them is strong. Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name. He will truly plead their case, in order to bring rest to the land, and to bring strife to the ones inhabiting Babylon.
Jer 50:35 A sword is against the Chaldeans," declares Yehowah, "and against the inhabitants of Babylon, her leaders, and her wise men.
Jer 50:36 A sword is coming against those who say words for divination, so that they reveal themselves as fools. A sword is coming against her soldiers, so they will be filled with terror.
Jer 50:37 A sword is coming against their cavalry, their chariots and all of the people who are in the midst of Babylon, so they will become like women. A sword is coming against her storerooms, and they will be plundered.
Jer 50:38 A drought is coming on her waters, so they will become dry. For she is a land of worthless idols, and they act like people made insane by their dreadful idols.
Jer 50:39 So desert beasts with the jackals will inhabit there, and the young of ostriches will live in her. For all time, she will no longer be inhabited. From generation to generation, she will not be lived in.
Jer 50:40 Just as the Almighty overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbors," declares Yehowah, "no one will live there; no person will stay in her."
Jer 50:41 "See, a people is coming from the north, for a great ethnicity and many kings have been stirred up from a distant land.
Jer 50:42 They will pick up bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion. Their sound is like the sea roar, and they are cavalry in formation as fighting men, against you, daughter of Babylon.
Jer 50:43 The king of Babylon has heard their intelligence report, and his hands have fallen limp in distress. Anguish seizes him like a woman in labor.
Jer 50:44 Behold! He goes up like a lion from the heights of the Jordan River to the enduring grazing place. For I will quickly cause them to run from it, and I will put someone who will be chosen in charge of it. For who is like me, and who will summon me? What shepherd is able to resist me?

Jer 50:45 So listen to the plans that Yehowah has decided against Babylon, the plans that he has planned against the land of the Chaldeans. They will certainly be dragged away, even the smallest flock. Their pasturelands will be turned into ruined places.
Jer 50:46 At the sound of conquered Babylon, the earth shakes, and their shout of distress is heard among the ethnicities!”

Jeremiah Chapter 51

Jer 51:1 Yehowah declares this: “See, I am about to stir up a wind of destruction against Babylon and against those who live in Leb Kamai.
Jer 51:2 I will send foreigners to Babylon. They will scatter her and devastate her land, for they will come against her from all around on the day of disaster.
Jer 51:3 Do not let the archers bend their bows; do not let them put on armor. Do not spare her young men; set her whole military force apart for destruction.
Jer 51:4 For the wounded people will fall in the land of the Chaldeans; those who are killed will fall in her streets.
Jer 51:5 For Israel and Judah are not forsaken by their Divine One, by Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, although their land is filled with offenses committed against the Set-apart One of Israel.
Jer 51:6 Flee from the midst of Babylon; let each man save himself (Acts 2:40). Do not perish in her iniquity. For it is the time of the vengeance of Yehowah. He will repay all of it to her.
Jer 51:7 Babylon was a golden cup in the hand of Yehowah that made all the land drunk; ethnicities drank her wine and became insane.
Jer 51:8 Babylon will fall suddenly and be destroyed. Wail for her! Give her balm for her pain; perhaps she can be healed.
Jer 51:9 ‘We wished to heal Babylon, but she is not healed. Let us all leave her and go away to our own land. For her guilt reaches up to the heavens; it is piled up to the clouds.
Jer 51:10 Yehowah has declared our innocence. Come, let us tell in Zion the deeds of Yehowah our Divine One!’
Jer 51:11 Sharpen the arrows and take up the shields. Yehowah is stirring up the spirit of the king of the Medes in a plan to destroy Babylon. This is for the vengeance of Yehowah, vengeance for the destruction of his temple.
Jer 51:12 Raise the banner over Babylon’s walls; post the guards. Place the sentinels; hide soldiers to catch anyone running from the city, for Yehowah will do what he has planned. He will do what he has announced against Babylon’s inhabitants.
Jer 51:13 You people who live by many streams of water, you people who are rich with treasures, your end has come. The thread of your life is now cut short.
Jer 51:14 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has sworn by his own life, ‘I will fill you with your enemies, like a locust plague; they will raise a battle cry against you.’”
Jer 51:15 “He has made the earth by his power; he set in place the globe by his wisdom. By his understanding he stretched out the heavens.

Jer 51:16 When he thunders, there is the roar of waters in the heavens, for he brings up the mist from the ends of the earth. He makes lightning for rain and sends out wind from his storehouses.
Jer 51:17 Every man becomes like an animal without knowledge; every metalworker is put to shame by his idols. For his cast images are frauds; there is no life in them.
Jer 51:18 They are useless, the work of mockers; they will perish at the time of their punishment.
Jer 51:19 But Yehowah, the portion of Jacob, is not like these, for he is the molder of all things. Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name.”
Jer 51:20 “You are my war hammer, my weapon for battle. With you, I will smash ethnicities and destroy kingdoms.
Jer 51:21 With you, I will smash cavalry; with you, I will smash chariots and their drivers.
Jer 51:22 With you, I will smash each man and woman; with you, I will smash the old and the young. With you, I will smash the young men and the virgin girls.
Jer 51:23 With you, I will smash the shepherds and their flocks; with you, I will smash the plowmen and their teams. With you, I will smash the governors and officials.
Jer 51:24 For in your sight, I will pay Babylon and all the inhabitants of Chaldea for all of the evil that they did in Zion,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 51:25 “See, I am against you, you mountain, you who destroy other people,” declares Yehowah, “destroying all the earth. I will strike you with my hand and roll you down from the cliffs. Then I will make you a mountain burned completely through.
Jer 51:26 So they will not take from you any stone to construct a building’s corner or foundation; for you will become an everlasting devastation,” declares Yehowah.
Jer 51:27 “Lift up a banner over the earth. Blow the trumpet over the ethnicities. Call the ethnicities to attack her: Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz. Appoint a commander to attack her; bring up cavalry like swarming locusts.
Jer 51:28 Prepare the ethnicities to attack her: the kings of the Medes and his governors, all of his officials and all the lands under his rule.
Jer 51:29 For the land will shake and be in anguish, since the plans of Yehowah continue against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a wasteland where there is no inhabitant.
Jer 51:30 The soldiers in Babylon have stopped fighting; they stay in their strongholds. Their strength has failed; they have become women, her homes are on fire, the bars of her gates are broken.

Jer 51:31 A messenger runs to proclaim to another messenger, and a runner tells another runner to report to the king of Babylon that his city has been taken from end to end.
Jer 51:32 So the fords over the river are seized; the enemy is burning the reed marshes, and Babylon's fighting men are confused.
Jer 51:33 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, declares this: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor. It is time to trample her down. In a little while, the time of harvest will come to her.
Jer 51:34 Jerusalem says, 'Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me. He has drained me dry and has made me into an empty pot. He has swallowed me like a crocodile. He filled his stomach with my good food. He has rinsed me out.'
Jer 51:35 The inhabitants of Zion will say, 'May the violence done to me and my flesh be on Babylon.' Jerusalem will say, 'May my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea.'
Jer 51:36 Therefore, Yehowah declares this: See, I am about to plead your case and bring about vengeance for you. For I will dry up Babylon's waters and make her springs run dry.
Jer 51:37 Babylon will become heaps of rubble, a den of jackals, a horror, an object of whistling, where there are no inhabitants.
Jer 51:38 The Babylonians will roar together like young lions. They will growl like lion cubs.
Jer 51:39 When they become hot with greed, I will make a feast for them; I will make them drunk, so they become happy, and then sleep an unending sleep and not wake up," declares Yehowah, Jer 51:40 "I will send them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.
Jer 51:41 How Babylon has been captured! So the praise of all the earth is seized. How Babylon has become a ruined place among the ethnicities.
Jer 51:42 The sea has come up over Babylon! She is covered with its roaring waves.
Jer 51:43 Her cities have become a desolation, a dry land and a wilderness, a land that no one inhabits, and no human passes through.
Jer 51:44 So I will punish Bel in Babylon; I will bring out from his mouth what he swallowed, and the ethnicities will no longer flow to him with their offerings. The walls of Babylon will fall.
Jer 51:45 Go out from her midst, my people. Let each of you save his own life from the fury of the wrath of Yehowah (Rev. 18:4; 2 Cor. 6:17).
Jer 51:46 Do not let your hearts be timid or fear the intelligence report that is heard in the land, for the intelligence report will come one year. After it, in the next year, there will be another intelligence report, and violence will be in the land. Ruler will be against ruler.

Jer 51:47 Therefore see, days are coming when I will punish the carved idols of Babylon. All of her land will be ashamed, and all of her slaughtered ones will fall in her midst.
Jer 51:48 Then Heaven and earth, and all that is in them will rejoice over Babylon. For destroyers will come for her from the north," declares Yehowah.
Jer 51:49 "As Babylon has made the killed of Israel fall, so the killed of all her land will fall in Babylon.
Jer 51:50 Survivors of the sword, go away! Do not stay still. Call Yehowah to mind from far away; let Jerusalem come to mind.
Jer 51:51 We are ashamed, for we have heard insults; reproach has covered our faces, for foreigners have entered the set-apart places of the temple of Yehowah.
Jer 51:52 Therefore see, days are coming," declares Yehowah, "when I will punish her carved idols, and the wounded people will groan in all of her land.
Jer 51:53 For even if Babylon went up to the heavens or fortified her highest fortresses, destroyers would come from me to her," declares Yehowah.
Jer 51:54 "A shout of distress came from Babylon, a great collapse from the land of the Chaldeans.
Jer 51:55 For Yehowah is destroying Babylon. He is causing her loud voice to perish. Their enemies roar like the waves of many waters; their noisy voice resounds.
Jer 51:56 For the destroyers have come against her, against Babylon, and her warriors have been captured. Their bows are broken, for Yehowah is the Mighty One of vengeance; he will surely carry out this repayment.
Jer 51:57 For I will make her princes, her sages, her officials, and her soldiers drunk, and they will sleep in an unending sleep and never wake up," declares the King: Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces is his name.
Jer 51:58 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: "The thick walls of Babylon will be completely demolished, and her high gates will be burned. Then the people coming to her aid will labor uselessly; everything that the ethnicities try to do for her will be burned up and exhaust them."
Jer 51:59 This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah son of Machseiah when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year (c. 594 BC) of his reign. Now Seraiah was a chief officer.
Jer 51:60 For Jeremiah had written in a Scroll about all the disaster that was going to come on Babylon, all these words that were written about Babylon.
Jer 51:61 Jeremiah ordered Seraiah, "When you go to Babylon, then you will see, and you will read these words aloud.

Jer 51:62 Then you will say, ‘Yehowah, you yourself have declared that you would destroy this place, and that no man or animal will live in it, and it will be desolate forever.’
Jer 51:63 Then when you have finished reading this Scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates.
Jer 51:64 Prophesy, ‘Babylon will sink like this. It will not arise, because of the disaster that I am sending against it, and they will fall’” (Rev. 18:21). Jeremiah’s words end here.

Jeremiah Chapter 52

Jer 52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal; she was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.
Jer 52:2 He did what was evil in the sight of Yehowah; he did everything that Jehoiakim had done.
Jer 52:3 Through the anger of Yehowah, all these events happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he drove them from before himself. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.
Jer 52:4 It happened that in the ninth year (c. 589 BC) of the reign of King Zedekiah, on the tenth of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came with all his military force against Jerusalem. They camped opposite it, and they built a siege wall around it.
Jer 52:5 So the city was besieged, until the eleventh year (c. 587 BC) of King Zedekiah's reign.
Jer 52:6 On the ninth of the fourth month, the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.
Jer 52:7 Then the city was broken into, and all the fighting men fled and went out of the city at night by the way of the gate that was between the two walls, by the king's garden, although the Chaldeans were all around the city. So they went in the direction of the Arabah.
Jer 52:8 But the military force of Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of the Jordan River valley near Jericho. All his military force was scattered away from him.
Jer 52:9 They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him.
Jer 52:10 The king of Babylon slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his own eyes, and at Riblah he also slaughtered all the leaders of Judah.
Jer 52:11 Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon. The king of Babylon put him in prison until the day of his death.
Jer 52:12 Now on the tenth of the fifth month (2 Kings 25:8), which was the nineteenth year (c. 587 BC, Hebrew reckoning) of the reign of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan came to Jerusalem. He was the commander of the king's bodyguards and a servant of the king of Babylon.
Jer 52:13 He burned the temple of Yehowah, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem; also every important building in the city he burned.
Jer 52:14 As for the walls around Jerusalem, all the military force of the Babylonians who were with the commander of the bodyguard destroyed them.

Jer 52:15 As for the poorest people, the rest of the people who were left in the city, those who had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguard, took some of them away into exile.
Jer 52:16 But Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguard, left some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
Jer 52:17 As for the bronze pillars that belonged to the temple of Yehowah, and the stands, and the bronze sea that were in the temple of Yehowah, the Chaldeans broke them into pieces and carried all the bronze back to Babylon.
Jer 52:18 The pots, shovels, lamp trimmers, bowls, and all the utensils of bronze with which the priests had served in the temple, the Chaldeans took them all away.
Jer 52:19 The basins and the incense burners, the bowls, pots, menorot, pans, and basins that were made of gold, and those made of silver, the captain of the king's guard took them away as well.
Jer 52:20 The two pillars, the sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the stands, things that Solomon had made for the temple of Yehowah, contained more bronze than could be weighed.
Jer 52:21 The pillars were each nine meters high, and a line around each one measured six meters. Each was eight centimeters thick and hollow.
Jer 52:22 A capital of bronze was on top of it. The capital was two and one-half meters high, with latticework and pomegranates all around. It was all made of bronze. The other pillar and its pomegranates were the same as the first.
Jer 52:23 So there were ninety-six pomegranates on the capital's sides, and one hundred pomegranates above the surrounding latticework.
Jer 52:24 The commander of the bodyguard took prisoner Seraiah, the high priest, together with Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three gatekeepers.
Jer 52:25 From the city, he took prisoner an officer who was in charge of soldiers, and seven men of those who advised the king, who were still in the city. He also took prisoner the king's military officer responsible for drafting men into the military, along with sixty important men from the land who were in the city.
Jer 52:26 Then Nebuzaradan, the commander of the bodyguard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.
Jer 52:27 The king of Babylon executed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. In this way, Judah went out of its land into exile.
Jer 52:28 These were the people who Nebuchadnezzar exiled: in the seventh year (c. 598 BC), 3,023 Judeans.
Jer 52:29 In the eighteenth year (c. 587 BC, Babylonian reckoning) of Nebuchadnezzar he took 832 people from Jerusalem.

Jer 52:30 In the twenty-third year (c. 582 BC) of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's bodyguard, exiled 745 Judean people. All the exiled people totaled 4,600.
Jer 52:31 It happened later, in the thirty-seventh year (c. 562-561 BC) of the exile of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, on the twenty-fifth of the twelfth month, that Evil-Merodach, king of Babylon released Jehoiachin, king of Judah, from prison. This happened in the year that Evil-Merodach began to reign.
Jer 52:32 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat more honorable than that of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.
Jer 52:33 Evil-Merodach removed Jehoiachin's prison clothes, and Jehoiachin ate regularly at the king's table for the rest of his life,
Jer 52:34 and a regular food allowance was given to him every day for the rest of his life, until his death.

Book of Lamentations

Lamentations Chapter 1

Lam 1:1 The city that once was full of people is now sitting all alone. She has become like a widow, though she was a mighty nation. She was a princess among the ethnicities but is now forced into slavery.
Lam 1:2 She weeps and wails in the night, and her tears cover her cheeks. None of her lovers comfort her. All her friends have betrayed her. They have become her enemies.
Lam 1:3 After poverty and affliction, Judah has gone into exile. She lives among the ethnicities and finds no rest. All her pursuers overtook her in her desperation.
Lam 1:4 The roads of Zion mourn, because none come to the appointment calendar festivals. All her gates are desolate. Her priests groan. Her virgins are sorrowful, and she herself is in complete distress.
Lam 1:5 Her adversaries have become her master; her enemies prosper. Yehowah has afflicted her for her many sins. Her little children go into captivity to her adversary.
Lam 1:6 Beauty has left the daughter of Zion. Her princes have become like deer that cannot find pasture, and they go without strength before their pursuer.
Lam 1:7 In the days of her affliction and her homelessness, Jerusalem will call to mind all her precious treasures that she had in former days. When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, no one helped her. The adversaries saw her and laughed at her destruction.
Lam 1:8 Jerusalem sinned greatly, therefore, she has become scorned as something that is filthy. All who honored her now despise her, since they have seen her nakedness. She groans and tries to turn away.
Lam 1:9 She has become unclean beneath her skirts. She did not think about her future. Her fall was terrible. There was no one to comfort her. She cried out, "Look at my affliction, Yehowah, for the enemy has become too great!"
Lam 1:10 The adversary has put his hand on all our precious treasures. She has seen the ethnicities enter her sanctuary, even though you had commanded that they must not enter into your assembly.
Lam 1:11 All her people groan as they search for bread. They have given their precious treasures for food to restore their lives. Look, Yehowah, and consider me, for I have become worthless.

Lam 1:12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look and see if there is anyone else's sorrow like the sorrow that is being inflicted on me, since Yehowah has tormented me on the Day of his fierce anger.
Lam 1:13 It is from on high that he has sent fire into my bones, and it has conquered them. He has spread a net for my feet and turned me back. He has made me constantly desolate and weak.
Lam 1:14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound together by his hand. They are knit together and placed upon my neck. He has made my strength fail. The Lord has given me over into their hands, and I am not able to stand.
Lam 1:15 The Lord has tossed aside all my valiant men who defended me. He has called an assembly against me to crush my vigorous men. The Lord has trampled the virgin daughter of Judah as in a winepress.
Lam 1:16 For these things I weep. My eyes, water flows down from my eyes, since the Comforter (Menachem) who should restore my life is far from me. My children are desolate, because the enemy has triumphed.
Lam 1:17 Zion has spread her hands wide; there is none to comfort her. Yehowah has commanded that those around Jacob should be his adversaries. Jerusalem is something unclean to them.
Lam 1:18 Yehowah is righteous, for I have rebelled against his commandment. Hear, all you people, and see my sorrow. My virgins and my vigorous men have gone into captivity.
Lam 1:19 I called for my friends, but they were treacherous toward me. My priests and my elders perished in the city, while they sought food to restore their lives.
Lam 1:20 Look, Yehowah, for I am in distress; my stomach churns, my heart is disturbed within me, for I have been defiantly rebellious. Outside, the sword bereaves a mother, inside the house there is only death.
Lam 1:21 They have heard my groaning, but there is no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble, and they are glad that you have done it. You have brought the Day you promised; now let them become like me.
Lam 1:22 Let all their wickedness come before you. Deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my transgressions. My groans are many, and my heart is faint.

Lamentations Chapter 2

Lam 2:1 The Lord has covered the daughter of Zion under the cloud of his anger. He has thrown the splendor of Israel down from Heaven to earth. He has not remembered his footstool on the Day of his anger.
Lam 2:2 The Lord has swallowed up and has had no compassion on all the towns of Jacob. In the days of his anger, he has thrown down the fortified cities of the daughter of Judah; in dishonor he has brought down to the ground the kingdom and its rulers.
Lam 2:3 With fierce anger he has cut off every horn of Israel. He has withdrawn his right hand from before the enemy. He has burned up Jacob like a blazing fire that devours everything around it.
Lam 2:4 Like an enemy he has bent his bow toward us, with his right hand, as an opponent, he is ready to shoot. He has slaughtered all who had been so pleasing to him in the tent of the daughter of Zion; he has poured out his wrath like fire.
Lam 2:5 The Lord has become like an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel. He has swallowed up all her palaces. He has destroyed her strongholds. He has increased mourning and lamentation within the daughter of Judah.
Lam 2:6 He has attacked his tabernacle like a garden hut. He has destroyed the place of the festive assembly. Yehowah has caused both appointment calendar festivals and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, for he has despised both king and priest in the indignation of his anger.
Lam 2:7 The Lord has rejected his altar and disowned his sanctuary. He has given over the walls of her palaces into the hand of the enemy. They have raised a shout in the temple of Yehowah, as on the day of an appointment calendar festival!
Lam 2:8 Yehowah decided to destroy the city wall of the daughter of Zion. He has stretched out the measuring line and has not withheld his hand from destroying the wall. He has made the ramparts and wall to lament; together they wasted away.
Lam 2:9 Her gates have sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken the bars of her gate. Her king and her princes are among the ethnicities, the law is no more, and her prophets find no vision from Yehowah.
Lam 2:10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence. They have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth. The virgins of Jerusalem bowed their heads to the ground.
Lam 2:11 My eyes have failed from their tears; my stomach churns; my inner parts are poured out to the ground because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, children and infants faint in the streets of the city.

Lam 2:12 They ask their mothers, “Where is grain and wine?” As they faint like a wounded man in the streets of the city, their lives are poured out on the bosom of their mothers.
Lam 2:13 What can I say to you, daughter of Jerusalem? To what can I compare you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion? Your wound is as great as the sea. Who can heal you?
Lam 2:14 Your prophets have seen false and worthless visions for you. They have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes, but for you they have seen oracles that are false and misleading.
Lam 2:15 All those who pass along the road clap their hands at you. They whistle and shake their heads against the daughter of Jerusalem, and ask, “Is this the city that they called, ‘The Perfection of Beauty,’ ‘The Joy of All the Earth?’”
Lam 2:16 All your enemies open their mouths and mock you. They sneer, grind their teeth, and proclaim, “We have swallowed her up! This is the day we have waited for! We have lived to see it!”
Lam 2:17 Yehowah has done what he planned to do. He has fulfilled his word that he had commanded in days of old. He has overthrown you without pity, for he has permitted the enemy to rejoice over you; he has lifted up the horn of your enemies.
Lam 2:18 Their heart cried out to the Lord, O walls of the daughter of Zion! Make your tears flow down like a river day and night. Give yourself no relief, your eyes no relief.
Lam 2:19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the night watches! Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord. Lift up your hands to him for the lives of your children who faint with hunger at the corner of every street.
Lam 2:20 See, Yehowah, and consider those you have dealt with in this way. Should women eat the fruit of their wombs, the children whom they have cared for? Should priest and prophet be slaughtered in the sanctuary of the Lord?
Lam 2:21 Both the young and the old lie on the dust of the streets. My young women and my young men have fallen by the sword; you have slaughtered them in the Day of your anger without taking pity on them.
Lam 2:22 You have summoned, as you would call the people to an appointment calendar festival, my terrors on every side, on the Day of the anger of Yehowah no one escaped or survived; those I cared for and raised, my enemy has destroyed.

Lamentations Chapter 3

Lam 3:1 I am a man who has seen misery under the rod of the fury of the Almighty.
Lam 3:2 He drove me away and caused me to walk in darkness rather than light.
Lam 3:3 Surely, he turned his hand against me again and again, the whole day long.
Lam 3:4 He made my flesh and my skin waste away; he broke my bones.
Lam 3:5 He built up siege works against me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
Lam 3:6 He made me live in dark places, like those who died long ago.
Lam 3:7 He built a wall around me, and I cannot escape. He made my chains heavy,
Lam 3:8 and though I call out and cry for help, he shut out my prayer.
Lam 3:9 He blocked my path with a wall of hewn stone; he made my paths crooked.
Lam 3:10 He is like a bear waiting to ambush me, a lion in hiding;
Lam 3:11 he turned aside my paths and tore me to pieces, he has made me desolate.
Lam 3:12 He bent his bow and set me as a target for his arrow.
Lam 3:13 He pierced my heart with the arrows of his quiver.
Lam 3:14 I became a laughingstock to all my people, the object of their taunting all day long.
Lam 3:15 He filled me with bitterness and forced me to drink wormwood.
Lam 3:16 He crushed my teeth with gravel; he has pushed me down into the dust.
Lam 3:17 My soul is deprived of peace; I have forgotten what happiness is.
Lam 3:18 So I say, “My endurance has perished and so has my hope in Yehowah.”
Lam 3:19 Remember my affliction and my wanderings, the wormwood and bitterness (opium).
Lam 3:20 I continually remember it, and I am bowed down within me.
Lam 3:21 But I call this to mind, and therefore I have hope:
Lam 3:22 The steadfast love of Yehowah never ceases, and his compassions never end,
Lam 3:23 they are new every dawn; your faithfulness is great.
Lam 3:24 I proclaimed, “Yehowah is my inheritance,” therefore, I will hope in him.
Lam 3:25 Yehowah is good to those who wait for him, to the one who seeks him.
Lam 3:26 It is good to wait silently for the salvation of Yehowah.
Lam 3:27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

Lam 3:28 Let him sit alone in silence, when it is laid upon him.
Lam 3:29 Let him put his mouth in the dust, there may yet be hope (Mat. 26:39; Mark 14:35).
Lam 3:30 Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes him, and let him be filled full with disgrace.
Lam 3:31 For the Lord will not reject us forever,
Lam 3:32 but though he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
Lam 3:33 For he does not afflict from his heart or torment the children of mankind.
Lam 3:34 To crush underfoot all the prisoners of the earth,
Lam 3:35 to deny a man justice in the presence of the Most High,
Lam 3:36 to deny justice to a person, the Lord would not approve such things!
Lam 3:37 Who has spoken and it came to pass, unless the Lord decreed it?
Lam 3:38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that both calamities and the good come?
Lam 3:39 How can any person alive complain? How can a person complain about the punishment for his sins?
Lam 3:40 Let us examine our ways and test them, and let us return to Yehowah.
Lam 3:41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to the Almighty in Heaven:
Lam 3:42 We have transgressed and rebelled, and you have not forgiven.
Lam 3:43 You have covered yourself with anger and pursued us, you have killed, and you have not spared.
Lam 3:44 You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.
Lam 3:45 You have made us like filthy scum and refuse among the ethnicities.
Lam 3:46 All our enemies curse us,
Lam 3:47 panic and pitfall have come upon us, ruin and destruction.
Lam 3:48 My eyes flow with streams of tears, because my people are destroyed.
Lam 3:49 My eyes will shed tears without ceasing; without relief,
Lam 3:50 until he will look down, and Yehowah will see from Heaven.
Lam 3:51 My eyes cause me grief because of all the daughters of my city.
Lam 3:52 I have been hunted like a bird by those who were my enemies; they hunted me without a reason.
Lam 3:53 They cast me into a pit, and they threw a stone on me,
Lam 3:54 and waters poured over my head. I cried, “I have been cut off!”
Lam 3:55 I called on your name, Yehowah, from the depths of the pit.
Lam 3:56 You heard my voice when I called, “Do not close your ear to my cry for help!”
Lam 3:57 You came near on the day I called on you; you ordered, “Do not fear!”
Lam 3:58 O Lord, you defended my case, you saved my life!

Lam 3:59 Yehowah, you have seen the wrong they have done to me; judge my case.
Lam 3:60 You have seen their insults, all their plots against me.
Lam 3:61 You have heard their scorn, Yehowah, and all their plans regarding me.
Lam 3:62 The lips of those who rise up against me, and their accusations, come against me all the day.
Lam 3:63 Look at how they sit and then rise up; they mock me with their songs.
Lam 3:64 Pay back to them, Yehowah, according to what they have done.
Lam 3:65 You will let their hearts be blind! May your condemnation be upon them!
Lam 3:66 You pursue them in anger and destroy them from under Heaven, Yehowah!

Lamentations Chapter 4

Lam 4:1 The gold has become tarnished; how the purest gold has changed! The set-apart stones are scattered at the corner of every street.
Lam 4:2 The precious sons of Zion were worth their weight in pure gold, but now they are worth no more than clay jars, the work of the potter's hands!
Lam 4:3 Even the jackals offer the breast to nurse their cubs, but the daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the desert.
Lam 4:4 The tongue of the nursing baby sticks to the roof of his mouth from thirst; the children ask for food, but there is none for them.
Lam 4:5 The ones who used to feast on expensive food now starve in the streets; those who were brought up wearing purple clothing, now lie upon piles of garbage.
Lam 4:6 The punishment of the daughter of my people is greater than that of Sodom, and it was overthrown in a moment, and no one lifted a hand to help her.
Lam 4:7 Her Nazirites were purer than snow, whiter than milk; their bodies were more ruddy than coral, their form was like sapphire.
Lam 4:8 Their appearance now is darker than soot; they are not recognized in the streets. Their skin has shriveled on their bones; it has become as dry as wood.
Lam 4:9 Those who have been killed by the sword were happier than those killed by hunger, who wasted away, pierced by the lack of any harvest from the field.
Lam 4:10 The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children; they became their food during the time when the daughter of my people was being destroyed.
Lam 4:11 Yehowah showed all his wrath; he poured out his fierce anger. He kindled a fire in Zion that consumed her foundations.
Lam 4:12 The kings of the earth did not believe, nor did any of the inhabitants of the globe believe, that enemies or opponents could enter the gates of Jerusalem.
Lam 4:13 This happened because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who have shed the blood of the righteous in her midst.
Lam 4:14 They wandered, blind, through the streets. They were so defiled by that blood, that no one was allowed to touch their clothes.
Lam 4:15 "Away! Unclean!" people cried at them. "Away! Away! Do not touch!" So they wandered about; people said among the ethnicities, "They can stay here no longer."
Lam 4:16 Yehowah himself scattered them; he does not watch over them anymore. They do not honor the priests, and they did not show any grace to the elders.

Lam 4:17 Our eyes failed, looking in vain for help; from our watchtowers, we watched for an ethnicity that could not rescue us.
Lam 4:18 They followed our steps, we could not walk in our streets. Our end was near, and our days were numbered, our end had come.
Lam 4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles in the sky. They chased us to the mountains and lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
Lam 4:20 The breath in our nostrils, the anointed one of Yehowah, he was the one who was captured in their pits; of whom it was said, “Under his shadow, we would live among the ethnicities.”
Lam 4:21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, you who live in the land of Uz. But to you also the cup will be passed; you will be drunk and strip yourself naked.
Lam 4:22 Daughter of Zion, your punishment will come to an end, he will not extend your exile. But daughter of Edom, he will punish; he will uncover your sins.

Lamentations Chapter 5

Lam 5:1 Remember, Yehowah, what has happened to us, look and see our disgrace.
Lam 5:2 Our inheritance has been turned over to foreigners; our houses to resident aliens.
Lam 5:3 We have become orphans, the fatherless, and our mothers are like widows.
Lam 5:4 We must pay silver-currency for the water we drink, and we must pay silver-currency to get our own wood.
Lam 5:5 Those who are coming after us are close behind us; we are weary, and we can find no rest.
Lam 5:6 We have given ourselves to Egypt and to Assyria to get enough food.
Lam 5:7 Our fathers sinned, and they are no more, and we bear their iniquities.
Lam 5:8 Slaves rule over us, and there is no one to deliver us from their hand.
Lam 5:9 We get our bread only by risking our lives because of the sword in the wilderness.
Lam 5:10 Our skin has grown as hot as an oven because of the burning heat of hunger.
Lam 5:11 Women are raped in Zion and virgins in the cities of Judah.
Lam 5:12 Princes are hung up by their own hands and no honor is shown to the elders.
Lam 5:13 Young men are forced to grind grain with a millstone, and boys stagger under heavy loads of wood.
Lam 5:14 The elders have left the city gate, and the young men have left their music.
Lam 5:15 The joy of our heart has ceased, and our dancing has turned into mourning.
Lam 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head; woe to us, for we have sinned!
Lam 5:17 For this our heart has become sick, for these things our eyes grow dim,
Lam 5:18 for Mount Zion lies desolate, with jackals prowling over it.
Lam 5:19 But you, Yehowah, reign forever, and you will sit upon your throne from generation to generation.
Lam 5:20 Why do you forget us forever? Why do you forsake us for so many days?
Lam 5:21 Restore us to yourself, Yehowah, and we will be restored. Renew our days as they were long ago,
Lam 5:22 unless you have utterly rejected us, and you are angry with us beyond measure.

Book of Ezekiel

Ezekiel Chapter 1

Eze 1:1 In the thirtieth year (of the 50-year Jubilee Cycle), on the fifth of the fourth month, it came about that I was living among the captives by the Chebar Canal. The heavens opened, and I saw visions of the Almighty.
Eze 1:2 On the fifth of that month, it was the fifth year (c. 594 BC) of the exile of King Jehoiachin,
Eze 1:3 the Word of Yehowah came with power to Ezekiel son of Buzi the priest, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Chebar Canal, the hand of Yehowah was upon him there.
Eze 1:4 Then I looked, and there was a hurricane-force wind coming from the north; a great cloud with fire flashing within it and brightness surrounding it and inside of it, and the fire was the color of amber inside the cloud.
Eze 1:5 In the middle was the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: They had the likeness of a man,
Eze 1:6 but they had four faces each, and each of the creatures had four wings.
Eze 1:7 Their legs were straight, but the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf that shone like polished bronze.
Eze 1:8 Yet they had human hands under their wings on all four sides. For all four, their faces and wings were like this:
Eze 1:9 Their wings were touching the wings of the next creature, and they did not turn as they went; instead, each one went straight forward.
Eze 1:10 The appearance of their faces was like the face of a man, next, the face of a lion to the right, next, the face of an ox to the left, and finally, the face of an eagle.
Eze 1:11 Their faces were like that, and their wings were spread out above, so that each creature had a pair of wings that touched another creature's wing, and also a pair of wings that covered their bodies.
Eze 1:12 Each went straight forward, so that wherever the Ruach directed them to go, they went without turning.
Eze 1:13 The living creatures looked like burning coals of fire, or like torches; bright fire also moved about among the creatures, and there were flashes of lightning.
Eze 1:14 The living creatures were moving swiftly back and forth, and they looked like lightning!

Eze 1:15 Then I looked at the living creatures; there was one wheel on the ground beside the living creatures, with its four faces.
Eze 1:16 This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: Each wheel was like beryl, and the four were all the same; they looked like a wheel intersecting another wheel.
Eze 1:17 When the wheels moved, they went without turning in any direction the creatures faced.
Eze 1:18 As for their rims, they were high and fearsome, for the rims of all four were full of eyes round about.
Eze 1:19 Whenever the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels also rose up.
Eze 1:20 Wherever the Ruach would go, they went, and the wheels rose up beside them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
Eze 1:21 Whenever the creatures moved, the wheels also moved; and when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; when the creatures rose up from the earth, the wheels rose up beside them, because the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
Eze 1:22 Over the heads of the living creatures was what looked like an expansive dome; it looked like awe-inspiring crystal stretched out over their heads above.
Eze 1:23 Beneath the dome, each one of the creature's wings stretched out straight and touched another creature's wings. Each of the living creatures also had a pair to cover themselves; each had a pair to cover his own body.
Eze 1:24 Then I heard the sound of their wings. Like the noise of rushing water. Like the voice of the Most Powerful whenever they moved. Like the sound of a military force. Whenever they stood still, they lowered their wings.
Eze 1:25 A voice came from above the dome over their heads, whenever they stood still and lowered their wings.
Eze 1:26 Above the dome over their heads was the appearance of a throne that looked like sapphire, and on the throne was the appearance of One who looked like a Man.
Eze 1:27 I saw a figure that looked like glowing metal with fire in it from his hips up; from his hips downward it looked like fire and brightness all around.
Eze 1:28 It looked like a rainbow that appears in the clouds on a rainy day, and like bright light surrounding it. This appeared as the likeness of the glory of Yehowah. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice speaking.

Ezekiel Chapter 2

Eze 2:1 He commanded me, “Son of man, stand up on your feet; then I will speak to you.”
Eze 2:2 Then as he spoke to me, the Ruach entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me,
Eze 2:3 “Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to rebellious nations that have rebelled against me, both they and their ancestors have sinned against me up to this very day!
Eze 2:4 Their descendants have stubborn faces and hard hearts. I am sending you to them, and you will say to them, ‘This is what Lord Yehowah declares.’
Eze 2:5 Either they will listen, or they will not listen. They are a rebellious house, but they will at least know that a prophet has been among them.
Eze 2:6 You, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, although you are with briers and thorns, and although you live with scorpions. Do not fear their words or be dismayed by their faces, since they are a rebellious house.
Eze 2:7 But you will speak my words to them, whether they listen or not, because they are most rebellious.
Eze 2:8 But you, son of man, listen to what I am saying to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am about to give to you!”
Eze 2:9 Then I looked, and a hand was extended out to me; in it was a written Scroll.
Eze 2:10 He spread it out before me; it had been written on both its front and back, and written on it were lamentations, mourning, and woe.

Ezekiel Chapter 3

Eze 3:1 He ordered me, “Son of man, what you have found, eat. Eat this Scroll, then go speak to the house of Israel.”
Eze 3:2 So I opened my mouth, and he fed me that Scroll.
Eze 3:3 He ordered me, “Son of man, feed your belly and fill your stomach with this Scroll that I have given to you!” So I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.
Eze 3:4 Then he ordered me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak my words to them.
Eze 3:5 For you are not being sent to a people of a foreign speech or a difficult language, but to the house of Israel,
Eze 3:6 not to many ethnicities speaking multilingually, whose words you could not understand! If I sent you to them, they would listen to you.
Eze 3:7 But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me. So all the house of Israel is strongbrowed and hardhearted.
Eze 3:8 Behold! I have made your face as stubborn as their faces and your brow as hard as their brows.
Eze 3:9 I have made your brow like a diamond, harder than flint! Do not fear them or be discouraged by their faces, since they are a rebellious house.”
Eze 3:10 Then he said to me, “Son of man, all the words that I announce to you, take them into your heart and hear them with your ears!
Eze 3:11 Then go to the captives, to your people, and speak to them, ‘This is what Lord Yehowah declares,’ whether they will listen or not.”
Eze 3:12 Then the Ruach lifted me up, and I heard behind me the sound of a great uproar: “Blessed be the glory of Yehowah from his place!”
Eze 3:13 It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the sound of the wheels that were with them, and the sound of a great vibration.
Eze 3:14 The Ruach lifted me up and took me away, and I went with bitterness in my spirit’s rage, for the hand of Yehowah was powerfully pressing on me!
Eze 3:15 So I went to the captives at Tel Abib who lived along the Chebar Canal, and I stayed there among them for seven days, overwhelmed in amazement.
Eze 3:16 Then it happened after seven days, that the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 3:17 “Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel, so listen to the word from my mouth and give them my warning.

Eze 3:18 When I say to the wicked, ‘You will surely die,’ and you do not warn him or speak a warning to the wicked about his evil deeds, so he might live, the wicked one will die for his sin, but I will require his blood from your hand.
Eze 3:19 But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked deeds, then he will die for his sin, but you will have rescued your own life.
Eze 3:20 If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and acts unjustly, and I set a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you did not warn him, he will die in his sin, and I will not call to mind the righteous deeds that he performed, but I will require his blood from your hand.
Eze 3:21 But if you warn the righteous man to stop sinning, so that he no longer sins, he will surely live since he was warned; and you will have rescued your own life.”
Eze 3:22 So the hand of Yehowah was on me there, and he ordered me, “Arise! Go out into the plain, and I will speak with you there.”
Eze 3:23 I arose and went out into the plain, and there the glory of Yehowah was staying, like the glory that I had seen beside the Chebar Canal; so I fell on my face.
Eze 3:24 The Ruach came to me and stood me up on my feet; and he spoke with me, “Go and shut yourself up within your house,
Eze 3:25 for now, son of man, they will place ropes upon you and tie you, so you cannot go out among them.
Eze 3:26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, so you will be mute, and you will not be able to rebuke them, since they are a rebellious house.
Eze 3:27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, so you will say to them, ‘This is what Lord Yehowah declares.’ The one who will hear will hear; the one who will not listen will not listen, for they are a rebellious house!”

Ezekiel Chapter 4

Eze 4:1 “But you, son of man, take a brick for yourself and place it before you. Then carve the city of Jerusalem on it.
Eze 4:2 Then lay siege against it and build forts against it. Raise up an assault ramp against it and set camps around it. Place battering rams all around it.
Eze 4:3 Then take for yourself an iron pan and use it as an iron wall between yourself and the city and set your face against it, for it will be under siege, and you are to put the siege against it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.
Eze 4:4 Then lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel on it; you will carry their sin for the number of days that you lie down against the house of Israel.
Eze 4:5 I myself am assigning to you one day to represent each year of their punishment: 390 days! In this way, you will carry the sin of the house of Israel.
Eze 4:6 When you have completed these days, then lie down a second time on your right side, for you will carry the sin of the house of Judah for forty days. I am assigning to you one day for each year.
Eze 4:7 Set your face toward Jerusalem that is under siege, and with your arm uncovered prophesy against it.
Eze 4:8 For behold! I am placing bonds on you, so you will not turn from one side to the other, until you have completed the days of your siege.
Eze 4:9 Take for yourself wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them in a single container and make bread for yourself according to the number of the days that you will lie upon your side. For 390 days you will eat it.
Eze 4:10 The food you will eat will be by weight, two hundred grams per day, and you will eat it at set times each day.
Eze 4:11 Then you will drink water, measured out to one liter, and you will drink it at set times.
Eze 4:12 You will eat it as barley cakes, but you will bake it on excrement of human dung within their sight!”
Eze 4:13 For Yehowah says, “This means that the bread that the people of Israel will eat will be unclean, there among the ethnicities where I will banish them.”
Eze 4:14 But I responded, “Alas, Lord Yehowah! I have never been unclean! I have never eaten either anything that died or anything killed by animals, from my youth until now, and foul meat has never entered my mouth!”
Eze 4:15 So he answered me, “Look! I have given you cow manure instead of human dung, so you can prepare your bread over that.”
Eze 4:16 He also said to me, “Son of man! Behold! I am breaking the staff of bread in Jerusalem, and they will eat bread while rationing it in anxiety and drink water while rationing it in trembling.

Eze 4:17 Because they will lack bread and water, every man will be dismayed at his brother and waste away because of their iniquity.”

Ezekiel Chapter 5

Eze 5:1 “Then you, son of man, take a sharp sword as a barber’s razor for yourself and pass the razor over your head and your beard, then take scales to weigh and divide your hair.
Eze 5:2 Burn a third of it with fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are completed, and take a third of the hair and strike it with the sword all around the city. Then scatter a third of it to the wind, and I will draw out a sword to chase after the people.
Eze 5:3 But take a small number of hairs from them and tie them into the folds of your robe.
Eze 5:4 Then take more of the hair and throw it into the midst of the fire; and burn it in the fire; from there a fire will go out to all the house of Israel.”
Eze 5:5 Lord Yehowah says this, “This is Jerusalem in the midst of the ethnicities, where I have placed her, and where I have surrounded her with other lands.
Eze 5:6 But she has in wickedness rejected my decrees more than the ethnicities have, and my statutes more than the countries that surround her. The people have rejected my judgments and have not walked in my statutes.”
Eze 5:7 Therefore, Lord Yehowah says this, “Because you are more troublesome than the ethnicities that surround you and have not walked in my statutes or acted according to my decrees, or even acted according to the decrees of the ethnicities that surround you,”
Eze 5:8 therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this, “Behold! I myself will act against you. I will execute judgments within your midst for the ethnicities to see.
Eze 5:9 I will do to you what I have not done, and the like of which I will not do again, because of all your disgusting actions.
Eze 5:10 Therefore, fathers will eat the children in your midst, and sons will eat their fathers, since I will execute judgment on you and scatter to every direction all of you who are left.
Eze 5:11 Therefore, as I live,” Lord Yehowah declares, “it is certainly because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your hateful things and with all your disgusting deeds, that I myself will reduce you in number; my eye will not have pity on you, and I will not spare you.
Eze 5:12 A third of you will die by plague, and they will be consumed by famine in your midst. A third will fall by the sword surrounding you. Then I will scatter a third in every direction, and draw out a sword to chase after them as well.
Eze 5:13 Then my wrath will be completed, and I will cause my fury toward them to rest. I will be satisfied, and they will know that I, Yehowah, have spoken in my wrath, when I have completed my fury against them.

Eze 5:14 I will make you a desolation and a reproach to the ethnicities that surround you in the sight of everyone who passes by.
Eze 5:15 So Jerusalem will become something for other people to condemn and to mock, a warning and a horror to the ethnicities that surround you. I will execute judgments against you in wrath and fury, and with a furious rebuke, I, Yehowah have declared this!
Eze 5:16 I will send out harsh arrows of famine against you, that will become the means with which I will destroy you. For I will increase the famine on you and break your staff of bread.
Eze 5:17 I will send a famine and disasters against you, so you will be childless. Plague and blood will pass through you, and I will bring a sword against you. I, Yehowah, have declared this."

Ezekiel Chapter 6

Eze 6:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 6:2 “Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel and prophesy to them.
Eze 6:3 Say, ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to the word of Lord Yehowah! Lord Yehowah declares this to the mountains and to the hills, to the streambeds, and to the valleys: Behold! I am bringing a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.
Eze 6:4 Then your altars will become desolate, and your sun-pillars will be destroyed, and I will throw down your dead in front of their idols.
Eze 6:5 I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols and scatter your bones around your altars.
Eze 6:6 Everywhere you live, cities will be laid waste and the high places ruined, so that your altars will be laid waste and made desolate. Then they will be broken and disappear, your sun-pillars will be cut down, and your works will be wiped away.
Eze 6:7 The dead will fall down in your midst, and you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 6:8 But I will preserve a remnant among you, and there will be some who escape the sword among the ethnicities, when you are scattered throughout the countries.
Eze 6:9 Then those who escape will think of me among the ethnicities where they will be held captive, that I was grieved by their promiscuous heart that turned away from me, and by their eyes that whored after their idols. Then they will show loathing on their face for the wickedness which they have committed with all their abominations.
Eze 6:10 So they will know that I am Yehowah. It was for a reason that I said I would bring this evil to them.
Eze 6:11 Lord Yehowah declares this: Clap your hands and stomp your foot! Say, “Alas!” because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they will fall by sword, famine, and plague.
Eze 6:12 The one far away will die by plague, and the one who is near will fall by the sword. Those who remain and survive will die by famine. In this way, I will accomplish my fury against them.
Eze 6:13 Then you will know that I am Yehowah, when their dead lie among their idols, around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountain peaks, and under every flourishing tree and thick oak, the places where they burned incense to all their idols.

Eze 6:14 I will strike with my hand and make the land desolate and a waste, from the wilderness to Riblah, throughout all the places where they live. Then they will know that I am Yehowah.”

Ezekiel Chapter 7

Eze 7:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 7:2 “You, son of man, Lord Yehowah declares this to the land of Israel, ‘An end! An end has come to the four borders of the land.
Eze 7:3 Now the end is upon you, for I am sending out my wrath on you, and I will judge you according to your ways; then I will bring all your abominations upon you.
Eze 7:4 For my eyes will not pity you, and I will not spare you. Instead, I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations will be in your midst, so you will know that I am Yehowah.’
Eze 7:5 Lord Yehowah declares this: ‘Disaster! A unique disaster! Behold, it is coming.
Eze 7:6 An end is surely coming. The end has woken up against you. Behold, it is coming!
Eze 7:7 Your doom is coming to you who inhabit the land. The time has come; the Day of destruction is near, and the mountains will no longer be joyful.
Eze 7:8 Now before long, I will pour out my fury against you and fill up my wrath upon you, when I judge you according to your ways and bring all your abominations upon you.
Eze 7:9 For my eye will not look compassionately, and I will not spare you. As you have done, I will do to you; and your abominations will be in your midst, so you will know that I am Yehowah, the One punishing you.
Eze 7:10 Behold! The Day is coming. Doom has gone out. The rod has bloomed with the blossom of pride.
Eze 7:11 Violence has grown up into a rod of wickedness, none of them, and none of their multitude, none of their wealth, and none of their importance will last!
Eze 7:12 The time is coming; the Day has come close. Do not let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, since my anger is on the entire multitude!
Eze 7:13 For the seller will never return to that which is sold for as long as they live, since the vision is against the entire multitude. They will not return, for no man living in his sin will be strengthened!
Eze 7:14 They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready, but there is no one marching to battle; since my anger is on the entire multitude.
Eze 7:15 The sword is on the outside, and plague and famine are inside the building. Those who are in the field will die by the sword, while famine and plague will consume those in the city.
Eze 7:16 But some survivors will escape from among them, and they will go to the mountains. Like doves of the valleys, all of them will moan, each man for his iniquity.

Eze 7:17 Every hand will falter, and every knee will be weak as water,
Eze 7:18 and they will wear sackcloth, and terror will cover them; and shame will be on every face and baldness on all of their heads.
Eze 7:19 They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be like refuse. Their silver and their gold will not be able to rescue them in the Day of the rage of Yehowah. Their lives will not be saved, and their hunger will not be satisfied, because their iniquity has become a stumbling block.
Eze 7:20 They took jeweled ornaments in their pride, and they formed idolatrous figures depicting their abominations, and their detestable things they made with them, therefore, I am making these things unclean to them.
Eze 7:21 Then I will give those things into the hand of foreigners as plunder and to the wicked of the earth as plunder, and they will defile them.
Eze 7:22 Then I will turn my face away from them, when they defile my cherished place; bandits will enter it and defile it.
Eze 7:23 Make a chain, because the land is filled with the judgment of blood, and the city is full of violence.
Eze 7:24 So I will bring the most wicked of the ethnicities, and they will possess their houses, and I will bring an end to the pride of the mighty, for their consecrated places will be defiled!
Eze 7:25 Fear will come! They will seek peace, but there will be none.
Eze 7:26 Disaster upon disaster will come, and there will be intelligence report after intelligence report. Then they will seek a vision from the prophet, but the law will perish from the priest and advice from the elders.
Eze 7:27 The king will mourn and the prince will dress in despair, while the hands of the people of the land will tremble in fear. According to their own ways, I will do this to them! I will judge them by their own standards, until they know that I am Yehowah.'"

Ezekiel Chapter 8

Eze 8:1 So it came about in the sixth year (c. 593 BC), on the fifth of the sixth month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of Lord Yehowah again fell upon me there.
Eze 8:2 So I looked, and behold, there was a figure like a man, with what looked like fire from his hips downward, and from his hips upward there was a shining appearance like glowing metal.
Eze 8:3 Then he reached out the form of a hand and took me by the hair of my head; the Ruach lifted me up between earth and Heaven, and in visions from the Almighty, he brought me to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner northern gate, where the idol that provokes great jealousy was standing.
Eze 8:4 Then the glory of the Mighty One of Israel, whose appearance was the same as I had seen in the plain, was there.
Eze 8:5 Then he said to me, “Son of man, lift up your eyes to the north.” So I lifted up my eyes to the north, and to the north of the gate leading to the altar, there in the entrance, was the idol of jealousy.
Eze 8:6 So he said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing? These are great abominations that the house of Israel is doing here to make me go far from my own sanctuary. But you will turn and see even greater abominations.”
Eze 8:7 Then he brought me to the doorway of the courtyard, and I looked, and there was a hole in the wall.
Eze 8:8 He commanded me, “Son of man, dig into this wall.” So I dug into the wall, and there was a door.
Eze 8:9 Then he ordered me, “Go and see the wicked abominations that they are doing here.”
Eze 8:10 So I went in and looked, and behold! There was every form of creeping thing and detestable beast! Every idol of the house of Israel was carved into the wall all around.
Eze 8:11 Seventy elders of the house of Israel were there, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing in their midst. They were standing in front of the images, and each man had his censer in his hand, so that the smell of the cloud of incense went up.
Eze 8:12 He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark? Each one does this in the hidden chamber of his idol, for they say, ‘Yehowah does not see us! Yehowah has forsaken the land.’”
Eze 8:13 Then he said to me, “Turn again and see the other great abominations that they are doing.”

Eze 8:14 Next, he brought me to the entrance of the gate of the temple of Yehowah that was on the north side, and behold! The women were sitting there mourning for Tammuz.
Eze 8:15 So he said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? Turn again and see even greater abominations than these.”
Eze 8:16 He brought me into the inner courtyard of the temple of Yehowah, and behold! At the entrance to the temple of Yehowah between the portico and the altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of Yehowah and their faces toward the east, and they were worshiping the sun.
Eze 8:17 He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? Is it a little thing for the house of Judah to do these abominations that they are doing here? For they have filled the land with violence, and they have turned again to provoke me to anger, putting the branch to their noses.
Eze 8:18 So I will also act among them; my eye will not have compassion, and I will not spare them. Though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them.”

Ezekiel Chapter 9

Eze 9:1 Then he cried in my hearing with a loud voice, “Let the guards come up to the city, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand!”
Eze 9:2 Then behold! Six men came from the pathway of the upper gate that faces north, each with his weapon of slaughter in his hand. There was a man in their midst dressed in linen with a scribe’s inkwell at his side. So they went in and stood beside the bronze altar.
Eze 9:3 Then the glory of the Mighty One of Israel went up from the cherubim where it had been to the threshold of the temple. He called to the man dressed in linen who had the scribe’s inkwell at his side.
Eze 9:4 Yehowah ordered him, “Pass through the midst of the city, the midst of Jerusalem, and make a mark (a Tav; Rev. 7:3-4; Job 31:35) on the foreheads of those who groan and sigh about all the abominations being performed in the midst of the city.”
Eze 9:5 Then he spoke to the others within my hearing, “Pass through the city after him and execute. Do not let your eyes have compassion and do not spare, Eze 9:6 either old man, young man, virgin, little children or women. Execute all of them! But do not approach anyone who has the mark on his head. Begin at my sanctuary!” So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.
Eze 9:7 He commanded them, “Defile the temple and fill its courtyards with the dead. Proceed!” So they went out and attacked the city.
Eze 9:8 As they were attacking it, I found myself alone, and I fell on my face and cried out, and asked, “Ah, Lord Yehowah, will you destroy all the remnant of Israel in the outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?”
Eze 9:9 He answered me, “The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of blood and the city full of perversions, since they exclaim, ‘Yehowah has forgotten the land,’ and, ‘Yehowah does not see!’
Eze 9:10 So then my eye will not look with compassion, and I will not spare them. I will instead bring their way on their heads.”
Eze 9:11 Behold! The man dressed in linen who had the scribe’s inkwell by his side came back. He reported, “I have done all that you have commanded.”

Ezekiel Chapter 10

Eze 10:1 As I looked toward the dome that was over the heads of the cherubim, something appeared above them like a sapphire with the appearance of the likeness of a throne.
Eze 10:2 Then Yehowah ordered the man dressed in linen, “Go between the wheels underneath the cherubim, and fill both your hands with fiery coals from between the cherubim and scatter them over the city.” Then the man went in as I watched.
Eze 10:3 The cherubim stood on the right side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner courtyard.
Eze 10:4 The glory of Yehowah rose up from the cherubim and stood over the threshold of the temple; it filled the temple with the cloud, and the courtyard was full of the brightness of the glory of Yehowah.
Eze 10:5 Then I heard the sound of the cherubim’s wings in the outer courtyard, like the voice of the Most Powerful Sovereign when he speaks.
Eze 10:6 It came about, when Yehowah commanded the man dressed in linen, “Take fire from between the wheels that are between the cherubim,” the man went in and stood beside a wheel.
Eze 10:7 An angel reached out his hand between the cherubim to the fire that was among the cherubim, and lifted it up and placed it into the hands of the one dressed in linen. The man took it and went back out.
Eze 10:8 I saw on the cherubim something like a man’s hand under their wings.
Eze 10:9 So I looked, and behold! Four wheels were beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone.
Eze 10:10 They appeared in the same likeness for all four of them, like a wheel intersecting another wheel.
Eze 10:11 When they moved, they went in any of the four directions without turning in any other direction. Instead, wherever the head was facing, they followed it. They did not turn in any other direction as they went.
Eze 10:12 Their whole body, including their backs, their hands, and their wings, was covered with eyes, and eyes covered the four wheels all around also.
Eze 10:13 As I listened, the wheels were called, “Whirling.”
Eze 10:14 They had four faces each; the first face was the face of a cherub, the second face was the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.
Eze 10:15 Then the cherubim, these were the living creatures that I had seen by the Chebar Canal, rose up.

Eze 10:16 Whenever the cherubim moved, the wheels would go beside them, and whenever the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise up from the earth, the wheels did not turn. They still stayed beside them.
Eze 10:17 When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when they rose up, the wheels rose up with them, for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
Eze 10:18 Then the glory of Yehowah went out from over the threshold of the temple and stood over the cherubim.
Eze 10:19 The cherubim lifted up their wings and rose from the earth in my sight when they went out, and the wheels did the same beside them. They stood at the eastern entrance to the temple of Yehowah, and the glory of the Mighty One of Israel came upon them from above.
Eze 10:20 These were the living creatures that I had seen below the Mighty One of Israel by the Chebar Canal, so I knew that they were cherubim!
Eze 10:21 They had four faces each and four wings each, and the likeness of human hands under their wings,
Eze 10:22 and the likeness of their faces was like the faces that I had seen in the vision at the Chebar Canal, and each of them went straight ahead.

Ezekiel Chapter 11

Eze 11:1 Then the Ruach lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the temple of Yehowah, facing east, and behold, in the doorway of the gate there were twenty-five men. I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people, among them.
Eze 11:2 Yehowah said to me, “Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who decide wicked plans in this city.
Eze 11:3 They are saying, ‘The time to build houses is not now; this city is the pot, and we are the meat.’
Eze 11:4 Therefore, prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man.”
Eze 11:5 Then the Ruach of Yehowah fell on me, and he said to me, “Speak: This is what Yehowah says: As you are speaking, house of Israel; for I know what goes through your mind.
Eze 11:6 You have multiplied the homicide victims in this city and filled its streets with them.
Eze 11:7 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Your homicide victims, whose bodies you have laid in the midst of Jerusalem, are the meat, and this city is the pot. But you are going to be brought out from the midst of this city.
Eze 11:8 You have feared the sword, so I am bringing the sword upon you,” declares Lord Yehowah.
Eze 11:9 “I will bring you out of the midst of the city, and put you into the hands of foreigners, for I will bring judgment against you.
Eze 11:10 You will fall by the sword. I will judge you within the borders of Israel, so you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 11:11 This city will not be your cooking pot, nor will you be the meat within her midst. I will judge you within the borders of Israel.
Eze 11:12 Then you will know that I am Yehowah, the One whose statutes you have not walked in, and whose decrees you have not carried out. Instead, you have carried out the decrees of the ethnicities that surround you.”
Eze 11:13 It came about that as I was prophesying, Pelatiah, son of Benaiah, died. So I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice, and asked, “Alas, Lord Yehowah, will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?”
Eze 11:14 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 11:15 “Son of man, your brothers! Your brothers! The men of your clan and all the house of Israel! All of them are those of whom it is said by those living in Jerusalem, ‘They are far away from Yehowah! This land was given to us as our possession.’
Eze 11:16 Therefore say, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Though I have removed them far off among the ethnicities, and though I have scattered them among the lands, yet I have been a little sanctuary for them in the lands where they have gone.’

Eze 11:17 Therefore, say, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: I will gather you from the ethnicities, and assemble you from the lands where you were scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.’
Eze 11:18 Then they will go there and remove every detestable thing and every abomination from that place.
Eze 11:19 I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit in them when they come near to me; I will take the stony heart from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh (Eze. 36:26),
Eze 11:20 so that they will walk in my statutes, they will carry out my decrees and do them. Then they will be my people, and I will be their Divine One.
Eze 11:21 But to those who walk with affection toward their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their conduct on their own heads,” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 11:22 The cherubim lifted up their wings and the wheels that were beside them, and the glory of the Mighty One of Israel was high up over them.
Eze 11:23 Then the glory of Yehowah went up from within the midst of the city and stood on the mountain to the east of the city.
Eze 11:24 The Ruach lifted me up and brought me into Chaldea, to the exiles, in the vision from the Ruach of the Almighty, and the vision that I had seen went up from upon me.
Eze 11:25 Then I declared to the exiles all the things of Yehowah that I had seen.

Ezekiel Chapter 12

Eze 12:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 12:2 “Son of man, you live in the midst of a rebellious house, where they have eyes to see, but they do not see; and where they have ears to hear but do not listen, because they are a rebellious house.
Eze 12:3 Therefore, as for you, son of man, prepare your things for exile, and begin going out by day in their sight, for I will exile you in their sight from your place to another place. Perhaps they will begin to see, though they are a rebellious house.
Eze 12:4 You will bring out your things for an exile in the day in their sight; go out at dusk in their sight in the way that anyone goes into exile.
Eze 12:5 Dig a hole through the wall in their sight and go out through it.
Eze 12:6 In their sight, lift up your things onto your shoulder and bring them out in the darkness. Cover your face, for you must not see the land, since I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel.”
Eze 12:7 So I did this, just as I was commanded. I brought out my things of exile in the daytime, and at dusk I dug a hole through the wall by hand. I brought my things out in the dark and lifted them up on my shoulder in their sight.
Eze 12:8 Then at dawn, the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 12:9 “Son of man, is the house of Israel, that rebellious house, not asking, ‘What are you doing?’
Eze 12:10 Answer them, ‘Lord Yehowah says this: This prophetic action concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel in whose midst they are.’
Eze 12:11 Declare, ‘I am a sign to you. As I have done, so it will be done to them; they will go into exile and into captivity.
Eze 12:12 The prince who is among them will lift up his things upon his shoulder in the dark and will go out through the wall. They will dig through the wall and bring out their things. He will cover his face, so he will not see the land with his eyes.
Eze 12:13 I will spread out my net over him, and he will be caught in my snare; then I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it. He will die there.
Eze 12:14 I will also scatter in every direction all of those around him who were to assist him and his entire military force, and I will send out a sword after them.
Eze 12:15 Then they will know that I am Yehowah, when I scatter them among the ethnicities and disperse them throughout the lands.

Eze 12:16 But I will spare a few men from among them from the sword, famine, and plague, so they may record all of their abominations in the lands where I take them, so they will know that I am Yehowah.'"
Eze 12:17 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 12:18 "Son of man, eat your bread with trembling and drink your water with shaking and worry.
Eze 12:19 Then prophesy to the people of the land, 'Lord Yehowah declares this concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with trembling and drink their water while shaking, since the land will be despoiled of its fullness because of the violence of all those who live there.
Eze 12:20 So the cities that were inhabited will be desolate, and the land will become a wasteland; so you will know that I am Yehowah.'"
Eze 12:21 Again, the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 12:22 "Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel that says, 'The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?'
Eze 12:23 Therefore, prophesy to them, 'Lord Yehowah says this: I will put an end to this proverb, so the people of Israel will no longer use it.' Then declare to them, 'The days are approaching, and every vision will speak.'
Eze 12:24 For there will no longer be any false visions or favorable divinations within the house of Israel.
Eze 12:25 For I am Yehowah! I speak, and I carry out the words that I speak. The matter will no longer be delayed. For I will speak this word in your days, rebellious house, and I will carry it out!" Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 12:26 Again, the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 12:27 "Son of man! Behold, the house of Israel has said, 'The vision that he sees is for many days from now, and he prophesies of far off times.'
Eze 12:28 Therefore, prophesy to them, 'Lord Yehowah says this: My words will not be delayed any longer, but the word that I have spoken will be done,'" Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 13

Eze 13:1 Again, the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 13:2 “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets who are prophesying in Israel and say to those who are prophesying out of their own imaginations, ‘Listen to the Word of Yehowah.
Eze 13:3 Lord Yehowah declares this: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit, but who have seen nothing!
Eze 13:4 Israel, your prophets have been like jackals in the wastelands.
Eze 13:5 You have not gone to the breaks in the wall around the house of Israel in order to repair it, in order to resist in battle on the Day of Yehowah.
Eze 13:6 The people have false visions and make false predictions, those who say, “Such and such is the declaration of Yehowah.” Yehowah has not sent them, but they nevertheless have made people hope that their messages would come true.
Eze 13:7 Have you not had false visions and made false predictions, you who say, “Such and such is the declaration of Yehowah,” when I myself have not spoken?’
Eze 13:8 Therefore, Lord Yehowah says this, ‘Because you have had false visions and have told lies, therefore, Lord Yehowah declares against you:
Eze 13:9 My hand will be against the prophets who have lying visions and who make false predictions. They will not be in the congregation of my people, or enrolled in the record of the house of Israel; they must not go to the land of Israel. For you will know that I am Lord Yehowah!
Eze 13:10 Because of this, and because they led my people astray and declared, “Peace!” when there is no peace, they are building a wall that they will paint with whitewash.’
Eze 13:11 Say to those who are whitewashing the wall, ‘It will fall down; there will be a downpour of rain, and I will send hailstones to make it fall down, and a hurricane-force wind to break it down.
Eze 13:12 See, the wall will fall down. Have others not asked you, “Where is the whitewash that you put on it?”
Eze 13:13 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: I will bring a hurricane-force wind in my rage, and there will be floods of rain in my wrath! Hailstones in my rage will completely destroy it.
Eze 13:14 For I will tear down the wall that you have covered with whitewash, and I will demolish it to the ground and lay bare its foundations. So it will fall, and you will be annihilated in the middle of it all. Then you will know that I am Yehowah.

Eze 13:15 For I will annihilate in my fury the wall and those who whitewashed it. I will say to you, “The wall exists no more, nor do the people who whitewashed it, Eze 13:16 the prophets of Israel who prophesied about Jerusalem and who had visions of peace for her. But there is no peace,’” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 13:17 “So you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own minds, and prophesy against them.
Eze 13:18 Say, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Woe to the women who sew magic charms onto every part of their hand and make veils for their heads of every size, used to hunt down people. Will you hunt down my people but save your own lives?
Eze 13:19 You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and crumbs of bread, to execute people who should not die, and to preserve the lives of those who should not continue to live, because of your lies to my people who heard you.
Eze 13:20 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: I am against the magic charms that you have used to ensnare the people’s lives as if they were birds. Indeed, I will tear them from your arms; and the people whom you have trapped like birds, I will let them go free.
Eze 13:21 I will tear away your veils and rescue my people from your hand, so they will no longer be trapped in your hands. You will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 13:22 Because you discourage the heart of the righteous person with lies, even though I did not desire his discouragement, and because you encourage instead the actions of the wicked person, so that he will not turn from his way to save his life,
Eze 13:23 therefore, you will no longer have false visions or continue to make predictions, for I will rescue my people out of your hand. You will know that I am Yehowah.’”

Ezekiel Chapter 14

Eze 14:1 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me.
Eze 14:2 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 14:3 “Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their hearts and have put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their own faces. Should I be inquired of at all by them?
Eze 14:4 Therefore, announce this to them, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, or who puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and who then comes to a prophet, I, Yehowah, will answer him according to the number of his idols.
Eze 14:5 I will do this, so that I may take back the house of Israel in their hearts that have been driven far from me through their idols.’
Eze 14:6 Therefore, say to the house of Israel, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Repent and turn away from your idols! Turn back your faces from all your abominations.
Eze 14:7 For every one from the house of Israel and every one of the sojourning foreigners staying in Israel who deserts me, who takes his idols into his heart and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his own face, and who then comes to a prophet to seek me, I, Yehowah, will answer him myself.
Eze 14:8 So I will set my face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb, for I will cut him off from the midst of my people, and you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 14:9 If a prophet is deceived and speaks a message, then I, Yehowah, will deceive that prophet; I will reach out with my hand against him and destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.
Eze 14:10 They will carry their own iniquity; the iniquity of the prophet will be the same as the iniquity of the one who inquires from him.
Eze 14:11 Because of this, the house of Israel will no longer wander away from following me nor defile themselves any longer through all their transgressions. They will be my people, and I will be their Divine One,’” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 14:12 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 14:13 “Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a sin, so that I reach out with my hand against it and break the staff of its bread, and send out over it a famine and cut off both man and beast from the land;
Eze 14:14 then even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in the land’s midst, they could only rescue their own lives by their righteousness,” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 14:15 “If I send evil beasts through the land and make it barren, so that it becomes a wasteland, where no man may pass through because of the beasts,

Eze 14:16 then even if these same three men were in it, as I live," declares Lord Yehowah, "they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued, but the land would become a wasteland.
Eze 14:17 Or if I bring a sword against that land and order, 'Sword, go through the land and cut off both man and beast from it,'
Eze 14:18 then even if these three men were in the midst of the land, as I live," declares Lord Yehowah, "they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued.
Eze 14:19 Or if I send a plague against this land and pour out my fury against it through bloodshed, in order to cut off both man and beast,
Eze 14:20 then even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in that land, as I live," declares Lord Yehowah, "they would not be able to rescue even their own sons or daughters; only their own lives would be rescued by their righteousness."
Eze 14:21 For Lord Yehowah declares this: "I will certainly make things worse by sending my four punishments, famine, sword, wild animals, and plague, against Jerusalem to cut off both man and beast from her.
Eze 14:22 Yet, behold! A remnant will be left in her, survivors who will go out with sons and daughters. Behold! They will go out to you, and you will see their ways and actions and be comforted concerning the punishment that I have sent to Jerusalem, and about everything else that I have sent against the land.
Eze 14:23 The survivors will comfort you when you see their ways and their actions, so you will know all these things I have done against her, that I have not done them in vain!" Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 15

Eze 15:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 15:2 “Son of man, how is a vine better than any tree with branches that is among the trees in a forest?
Eze 15:3 Do people take wood from a vine to make anything? Or do they make a peg from it to hang anything on it?
Eze 15:4 See! If it is thrown into a fire as fuel, and if the fire has burned both of its ends and also the middle, is it good for anything?
Eze 15:5 See! When it was complete, it could not make anything; surely then when the fire has burned, then it still will not make anything useful.
Eze 15:6 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Unlike the trees in the forests, I have given the vine as fuel for fires; I will act in the same way toward the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Eze 15:7 For I will set my face against them. Though they come out from the fire, yet the fire will consume them; so you will know that I am Yehowah, when I set my face against them.
Eze 15:8 Then I will make the land into an abandoned wasteland, because they have committed sin,” Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 16

Eze 16:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 16:2 “Son of man, inform Jerusalem about her abominations,
Eze 16:3 and declare, ‘Lord Yehowah says this to Jerusalem: Your beginning and your birth took place in the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hethite.
Eze 16:4 On the day of your birth, your mother did not cut your umbilical cord, nor did she purify you in water or rub you down with salt, or wrap cloth around you.
Eze 16:5 No eye had compassion for you to do any of these things for you, to be compassionate toward you. On the day that you were born, with loathing for your life, you were thrown out into the open field.
Eze 16:6 But I passed by you, and I saw you writhing in your own blood; so I said to you in your blood, “Live!” Yes, I said to you in your blood, “You will live!”
Eze 16:7 I made you grow like a plant in a field. You multiplied and became great, and you became the jewel of jewels. Your breasts became firm, and your hair grew thick, though you had been naked and bare.
Eze 16:8 I passed by you again, and I saw you. See! The time of love came for you, so I spread my robe over you and covered your nakedness. Then I swore to you and brought you into a covenant,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘and you became mine.
Eze 16:9 So I washed you with water and rinsed your blood off you, and I anointed you with oil.
Eze 16:10 I dressed you in embroidered clothes and placed leather sandals on your feet. I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk.
Eze 16:11 Next, I adorned you with jewelry, and I put bracelets on your hands and a chain around your neck.
Eze 16:12 I put a nose ring in your nostrils and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.
Eze 16:13 So you were adorned with gold and silver, and you were dressed in fine linen, silk, and embroidered clothes; you ate fine flour, honey, and oil, and you were exquisitely beautiful, and you became a queen.
Eze 16:14 Your fame went out among the ethnicities because of your beauty, for it was perfect in the majesty that I had given to you,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 16:15 ‘But you trusted in your own beauty, and you acted like a whore because of your fame; you poured out your acts of prostitution on everyone who passed by. They were for them.

Eze 16:16 Then you took your clothes and with them you made high places for yourself decorated in various colors, and there you acted like a prostitute. This should not have happened. Nor should such a thing exist.
Eze 16:17 You took the fine jewels of the gold and silver that I gave you, and you made for yourself male figures, and you did with them as a prostitute would do.
Eze 16:18 You took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you set my oils and perfumes before them.
Eze 16:19 My bread I gave you, made with fine flour, oil, and honey, you set before them for a fragrant aroma, for this is what happened,' Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 16:20 'Then you took your sons and daughters whom you bore for me, and you sacrificed them to the images to be devoured as food. Are your acts of prostitution a small matter?
Eze 16:21 You slaughtered my children and put them into the fire.
Eze 16:22 In all your abominations and your acts of prostitution you have not thought about the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare as you thrashed about in your blood.
Eze 16:23 Woe! Woe to you!' Lord Yehowah declares, 'Therefore, in addition to all this wickedness, Eze 16:24 you built yourself a vaulted chamber in every public place.
Eze 16:25 You built your high place at the head of every road and desecrated your beauty, for you offered your body to everyone who passed by, and you performed many more acts of prostitution.
Eze 16:26 You have acted like a prostitute with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and you committed many more acts of prostitution, provoking me to anger.
Eze 16:27 See! I will strike you with my hand and cut off your food. I will hand your life over to your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, to bring you shame because of your lustful behavior.
Eze 16:28 You have acted like a prostitute with the Assyrians, because you could not be satisfied. You acted like a prostitute and still were not satisfied.
Eze 16:29 You performed many more acts of prostitution in the land of Canaan, all the way into Chaldea, and even this did not satisfy you.
Eze 16:30 Why is your heart so weak? Lord Yehowah declared that you would do all these things, deeds of a promiscuous and shameless woman.
Eze 16:31 You have built your high places at the head of every street and made your vaulted chamber in every public place. Yet you were not like a prostitute, because you refused to take payment.
Eze 16:32 You adulterous woman, you accept foreigners instead of your husband.

Eze 16:33 People give payment to every prostitute, but you give your wages to all your lovers and bribe them to come to you from all around for your acts of prostitution.
Eze 16:34 So there is a difference between you and those other women, since no one goes to you to ask you to have sex with them. Instead, you pay them. No one pays you. Therefore, you are different.
Eze 16:35 Therefore, you prostitute, listen to the Word of Yehowah.
Eze 16:36 Lord Yehowah declares this: Because you have poured your lust out and exposed your private parts through your acts of prostitution with all of your lovers and with all your disgusting idols, and because of the blood of your children that you gave to your idols,
Eze 16:37 therefore, behold! I will gather all your lovers that you have met, all those whom you loved and all those whom you hated, and I will gather them against you on every side. I will expose your private parts to them, so they can see all your nakedness.
Eze 16:38 For I will punish you for adultery and the shedding of blood, and I will bring on you the bloodshed of my anger and passion.
Eze 16:39 I will give you into their hands, so they will throw down your mound and break down your high places, and they will strip you of your clothes and take all of your jewelry. They will leave you naked and bare.
Eze 16:40 Then they will bring up a crowd against you and execute you by stoning, and they will cut you apart with their swords.
Eze 16:41 They will burn your houses and will perform many acts of punishment on you in the sight of many women, for I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay anyone for them.
Eze 16:42 Then I will calm my fury against you; my anger will leave you, for I will be satisfied and will no longer be angry.
Eze 16:43 Because you did not call to mind the days of your youth when you made me shake with anger over all these things. Behold! I myself will bring the punishment for your conduct on your own head,' Lord Yehowah declares, 'so you will no longer act wickedly in all your disgusting ways.
Eze 16:44 Behold! Everyone who speaks proverbs concerning you will say, "As the mother is, so also is her daughter."
Eze 16:45 You are the daughter of your mother, who detested her husband and her children, and you are the sister of your sisters who detested their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hethite, and your father was an Amorite.
Eze 16:46 Your older sister was Samaria, and her daughters were the ones living in the north, while your younger sister was the one living south of you, that is, Sodom and her daughters (Num. 21:20).

Eze 16:47 Now do not walk in their ways or after their disgusting actions, as if those were merely small things. Indeed, in all your ways you have been worse than they have been.
Eze 16:48 As I live,' Lord Yehowah declares, 'Sodom, your sister, and her daughters, have not done as much evil as you and your daughters have done.
Eze 16:49 Behold! This was the sin of your sister Sodom: She was arrogant in her leisure, careless and unconcerned about anything. She did not strengthen the hands of the poor and needy people.
Eze 16:50 She was arrogant and committed disgusting actions before me, so I took them away just as you have seen.
Eze 16:51 Neither did Samaria commit even half of your sins; instead, you have done many more disgusting things than they did, and you have shown that your sisters were better than you, because of all the disgusting things that you do!
Eze 16:52 Especially you, show your own shame; in this way, you have shown that your sisters were better than you, because of the sins you committed in all those disgusting ways. Your sisters now seem better than you. Especially you, show your own shame, for in this way, you have shown that your sisters were better than you.
Eze 16:53 For I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters; but your fortunes will be among them.
Eze 16:54 On account of these things, you will show your shame; you will be humiliated, because of everything that you have done, and in this way, you will be a comfort to them.
Eze 16:55 So your sister Sodom and her daughters will be restored to their former condition, and Samaria and her daughters will be restored to their former estate. Then you and your daughters will be restored to your former condition.
Eze 16:56 Sodom your sister was not even mentioned by your mouth in the days when you were proud,
Eze 16:57 before your wickedness was revealed. But now you are an object of scorn to the daughters of Edom and to all the daughters of the Philistines around her. People all about despise you.
Eze 16:58 You will show your shame and your disgusting actions!' declares Yehowah.
Eze 16:59 'Lord Yehowah declares this: I will deal with you as you deserve, you who have despised your oath by breaking the covenant.
Eze 16:60 But I myself will call to mind my covenant with you made in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

Eze 16:61 Then you will call to mind your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older sisters and your younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters but not because of your covenant.
Eze 16:62 I myself will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 16:63 Because of these things, you will call everything to mind and be ashamed, so you will no longer open your mouth to speak because of your shame, when I have forgiven you for all that you have done,'" Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 17

Eze 17:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 17:2 “Son of man, present a riddle and speak a parable to the house of Israel.
Eze 17:3 Say, ‘Lord Yehowah says this: A large eagle with large wings and long pinions, full of feathers, and that was multicolored went to Lebanon and took hold of the top of a cedar tree.
Eze 17:4 It broke off the tips of the branches and took them to the land of Canaan; he planted it in a city of merchants.
Eze 17:5 He also took some seed of the land and planted it in ground ready for sowing. He planted it beside a large body of water like a willow.
Eze 17:6 Then it sprouted and became a spreading vine low to the ground. Its branches turned toward him, and its roots grew under it. So it became a vine and produced branches and sent out shoots.
Eze 17:7 But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers. Behold! This vine turned its roots toward the eagle, and it spread out its branches toward the eagle from the place it had been planted, so it would be watered.
Eze 17:8 It had been planted in good soil beside a large body of water, so it would produce branches and sprout fruit, to become a magnificent vine.’
Eze 17:9 Say to the people, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Will it prosper? Will he not pull up its roots and pluck out its fruit, so all of its growth of leaves will wither away? No strong arm or multitudes of people will sprout up from its roots.
Eze 17:10 So behold! After it has been planted, will it grow? Will it not wither when the eastern wind touches it? It will completely wither away in its plot.’”
Eze 17:11 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 17:12 “Speak to the rebellious house, ‘Do you not know what these things mean? Behold! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took her king and her princes and brought them to him in Babylon.
Eze 17:13 Then he took a royal descendant, made a covenant with him, and brought him under an oath. He took away the powerful people of the land,
Eze 17:14 so the kingdom might become lowly and not lift itself up. By keeping his covenant the land will survive.
Eze 17:15 But the king of Jerusalem rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt to acquire horses and a military force. Will he succeed? Will the one doing these things escape? If he breaks the covenant, will he escape?

Eze 17:16 As I live,' Lord Yehowah declares, 'he will surely die in the land of the king who made him king, the king whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke. He will die in the middle of Babylon.
Eze 17:17 Pharaoh with his mighty military force and assembling of many men for war will not protect him in battle, when the Babylonian military force builds siege mounds and siege walls to destroy many lives.
Eze 17:18 For the king despised his oath by breaking the covenant. Behold, he reached out with his hand to make a promise, and yet he did all these things. He will not escape.
Eze 17:19 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: As I live, was it not my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke? So I will bring his punishment on his head!
Eze 17:20 I will spread my net out over him, and he will be caught in my hunting net. Then I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment on him there for his treason that he committed when he betrayed me!
Eze 17:21 All of his refugees in his armed forces will fall by the sword, and the ones who remain will be scattered in every direction. Then you will know that I am Yehowah; I have declared this would happen.'"
Eze 17:22 Lord Yehowah declares this, "So I myself will take away the highest part of the cedar tree, and I will plant it away from its tender branches. I will break it off, and I myself will plant it on a high and towering mountain.
Eze 17:23 I will plant it on the mountains of Israel, so it will bear branches and produce fruit, and it will become a majestic cedar, so that every winged bird will live under it. They will nest in the shade of its branches.
Eze 17:24 Then all the trees of the field will know that I am Yehowah. I bring down the high trees, and I raise up the low trees. I wither the watered tree, and I cause the dried tree to bloom. I am Yehowah, I have declared that this will happen; and I have done it."

Ezekiel Chapter 18

Eze 18:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me again and asked,
Eze 18:2 “What do you mean, you who use this proverb concerning the land of Israel and say, ‘Fathers eat sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are made blunt?’
Eze 18:3 As I live,” Lord Yehowah declares, “there will certainly no longer be any occasion for you to use this proverb in Israel.
Eze 18:4 Behold! Every life belongs to me, the life of the father, as well as the life of the son, belongs to me! The soul who sins is the one who will die!
Eze 18:5 Suppose that a man is righteous and carries out justice and righteousness.
Eze 18:6 Suppose that he has not eaten on the mountains, that he has not lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, and that he has not defiled his neighbor’s wife, nor approached a woman during her monthly period.
Eze 18:7 Suppose that he has not oppressed anyone but instead has returned a pledge to its debtor. Suppose that he has not taken what was stolen but instead gives his food to the hungry, and that he covers the naked with clothes.
Eze 18:8 Then suppose that he does not charge any interest for loans nor gains too much profit. Suppose that he carries out justice and establishes faithfulness between people.
Eze 18:9 Suppose that he walks in my statutes and keeps my decrees to act faithfully. Then the promise for this righteous man is this: He will surely live!” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 18:10 “But suppose that he has a violent son who sheds blood and does any of these things to a brother,
Eze 18:11 even though his father did not do any of these things. Suppose that he eats on the mountains, and he defiles his neighbor’s wife.
Eze 18:12 Suppose that he oppresses the poor and needy, and that he seizes, robs, and does not return a pledge. Suppose that he lifts up his eyes to the idols or commits disgusting actions.
Eze 18:13 Suppose that he lends charging interest or gains too much profit. Should he live? He will not live! He has done all these disgusting actions. He will surely be executed, and his blood will be on him.
Eze 18:14 But behold! Suppose that he bears a son who sees all the sins that his father has committed. Suppose that he himself fears Yehowah and does not do such things.
Eze 18:15 Suppose that he does not eat on the mountains. Suppose that he does not lift up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor does he defile his neighbor’s wife.

Eze 18:16 Suppose that he does not oppress anyone, seize a pledge, or take stolen things, but instead gives his food to the hungry and covers the naked with clothes.
Eze 18:17 Suppose that he draws his hand back from the poor and does not take interest or gain too much profit. Suppose that he carries out my decrees and walks according to my statutes. Then he will not be executed for his father's sin; he will surely live!
Eze 18:18 His father, since he oppressed others by extortion and robbed his brother, and did what is not good among his people, behold, he will be executed for his iniquity.
Eze 18:19 But you ask, 'Why does the son not bear the iniquity of his father?' Because the son carries out justice, righteousness, and keeps all my statutes; he does them. He will surely live!
Eze 18:20 The one who sins, he will be executed. A son will not bear his father's iniquity, and a father will not bear his son's iniquity. The righteousness of the one who acts rightly will be on himself, and the wickedness of the wicked person will be on himself.
Eze 18:21 But if the wicked turns away from all his sins that he has done, and keeps all my statutes and performs justice and righteousness, then he will certainly live and not die.
Eze 18:22 All the transgressions that he has committed will not be called to mind against him. He will live by the righteousness that he practices.
Eze 18:23 Do I greatly rejoice over the death of the wicked," Lord Yehowah asks, "and not in his turning away from his way, so that he may live?
Eze 18:24 But if the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and practices abominations like all the abominations that the wicked person does, then will he live? All the righteousness that he had done will not be called to mind when he betrays me in his treason. So he will die in the sins that he commits.
Eze 18:25 But you say, 'The Way of the Lord is not fair!' Listen, house of Israel! Are my Ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?
Eze 18:26 When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity and dies because of them, then he will be executed for the iniquity that he has done.
Eze 18:27 But when a wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has done and performs justice and righteousness, then he will preserve his life.
Eze 18:28 For he has seen and turned away from all the transgressions that he had done. He will live life; he will not die.
Eze 18:29 But the house of Israel says, 'The Way of the Lord is not fair!' How is my Way not fair, house of Israel? How is your way not unfair?

Eze 18:30 Therefore, I will judge each man among you according to his ways, house of Israel!” Lord Yehowah declares. “Repent and turn away from all your transgressions, so that they will not be stumbling blocks of iniquity against you.
Eze 18:31 Throw away from off yourselves all of the transgressions that you have committed; make a new heart and a new spirit for yourselves. For why should you die, O house of Israel?
Eze 18:32 For I do not rejoice in the death of the one who is executed,” Lord Yehowah declares, “so repent and live!”

Ezekiel Chapter 19

Eze 19:1 “Now you, take up a lamentation for the leaders of Israel,
Eze 19:2 and wail, ‘Who was your mother? A lioness, she lived with a lion’s son; in the midst of young lions, she nurtured her cubs.
Eze 19:3 She is the one who raised up one of her cubs to become a young lion, a lion who learned to tear apart his victims, and then he devoured men.
Eze 19:4 Then the ethnicities heard about him. He was caught in their trap, and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.
Eze 19:5 Then she saw that although she had waited for his return, her hopes were now gone, so she took another of her cubs and raised him to become a young lion.
Eze 19:6 This young lion roamed about in the midst of lions. He was a young lion and learned to tear his victims; he devoured men.
Eze 19:7 Then he raped their widows and ruined their cities. The land and its fullness were abandoned because of the sound of his roaring.
Eze 19:8 But the ethnicities came against him from the surrounding provinces; they spread their nets over him. He was caught in their trap.
Eze 19:9 They put him in a cage with hooks and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into mountain fortresses, so that his voice would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.
Eze 19:10 Your mother was like a bloodred grapevine and blossoming pomegranate planted beside the water. She was fruitful and full of branches because of the abundance of water.
Eze 19:11 She had strong branches for rulers’ scepters, and her stature and heights were exalted among the branches of the thicket. She saw in her arrogance the abundance of her branches.
Eze 19:12 But the vine was uprooted in fury and thrown down to the earth, and an eastern wind dried out her fruit. Her strong branches were broken off and withered; fire consumed them.
Eze 19:13 So now she is planted in the wilderness, in a land of drought and thirst.
Eze 19:14 For fire went out from her large branches and consumed her fruit. There is no strong branch on her, no scepter to rule.’ This is a lamentation and will be sung as a lamentation.”

Ezekiel Chapter 20

Eze 20:1 It came about in the seventh year (c. 592 BC), on the tenth of the fifth month, that elders of Israel came to inquire of Yehowah and sat before me.
Eze 20:2 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 20:3 “Son of man, declare to the elders of Israel, ‘Lord Yehowah says this: Have you come to inquire of me? As I live, I will not be inquired of by you!’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 20:4 Will you judge them? Will you judge, son of man? Let them know about their fathers’ abominations.
Eze 20:5 Say to them, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: On the day that I chose Israel and raised my hand to swear an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I raised my hand to swear an oath to them, I proclaimed, “I am Yehowah your Divine One.”
Eze 20:6 On that day, I raised my hand to swear an oath to them, that I would bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had carefully selected for them. It was flowing with milk and honey; it was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands.
Eze 20:7 I declared to them, “Let each man throw away the detestable things from before his eyes and the idols of Egypt. Do not make yourselves unclean; I am Yehowah your Divine One.”
Eze 20:8 But they rebelled against me and were unwilling to listen to me. Each man did not throw away the detestable things from before his eyes nor forsake the idols of Egypt, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath among them in the middle of the land of Egypt.
Eze 20:9 I acted for my name’s sake, so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the ethnicities among whom they were staying. I made myself known to them, in their eyes, by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.
Eze 20:10 So I sent them out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness.
Eze 20:11 Then I gave them my statutes and made my decrees known to them, by which a man will live, if he obeys them.
Eze 20:12 I also gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between myself and them, for them to know that I am Yehowah who consecrates them.
Eze 20:13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They did not walk in my statutes; instead, they rejected my decrees, by which a man will live, if he obeys them. They greatly profaned my Sabbaths, so I declared I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness in order to end them.
Eze 20:14 But I acted for my name’s sake, so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the ethnicities, in whose sight I had brought them out of Egypt.

Eze 20:15 So I myself also raised my hand to swear an oath to them in the wilderness not to bring them into the land that I had been going to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey, which was the most beautiful ornament among all the lands.
Eze 20:16 I swore this, because they had rejected my decrees and did not walk in my statutes, and they profaned my Sabbaths, since their hearts walked after their idols.
Eze 20:17 But my eye had compassion for them because of their destruction, so I did not annihilate them in the wilderness.
Eze 20:18 I commanded their sons and daughters in the wilderness, “Do not walk according to the statutes of your parents; do not keep their decrees or profane yourselves with their idols.
Eze 20:19 I am Yehowah your Divine One, walk in my statutes; keep my decrees and obey them.
Eze 20:20 Keep my Sabbaths consecrated, so that they will be a sign between me and you, so that you will know that I am Yehowah your Divine One.”
Eze 20:21 But their sons and daughters rebelled against me. They did not walk in my statutes or keep my decrees, by which a man might live if he obeys them. They profaned my Sabbaths, so I determined to pour out my fury upon them to satisfy my wrath against them in the wilderness.
Eze 20:22 But I turned my hand away and acted for my name’s sake, so it would not be profaned in the eyes of the ethnicities in whose sight I had brought out the Israelis.
Eze 20:23 I myself also raised my hand to them in the wilderness, in order to swear that I would scatter them among the ethnicities and disperse them among the lands.
Eze 20:24 I decided to do this, since they had not obeyed my decrees, and since they had rejected my statutes and profaned my Sabbaths. Their eyes were longing after their fathers’ idols.
Eze 20:25 Then I also gave them over to their own statutes that are not good, and decrees by which they could not live.
Eze 20:26 I made them unclean by their gifts when they made a sacrifice of every firstborn of the womb and put them into the fire. I did this in order to terrify them, so they might know that I am Yehowah!’
Eze 20:27 Therefore, son of man, announce this to the house of Israel; say to them, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Your fathers blasphemed me by betraying me. They did it in this way:
Eze 20:28 When I brought them into the land that I lifted my hand to give to them, and when they saw all the high hills and leafy trees, then they offered their sacrifices there and provoked me by their offerings there. There, they also burned fragrant incense and poured out drink offerings.

Eze 20:29 Then I asked them, “What is this high place where you bring offerings there?” So the name is called Bamah to this day.’
Eze 20:30 Therefore, say to the house of Israel, ‘Lord Yehowah asks this: Why do you make yourselves unclean with the ways of your fathers? So why do you act like prostitutes, searching for disgusting things?
Eze 20:31 For when you offer up your gifts, and you put your sons into the fire, to this day you make yourselves unclean with all your idols. So why should I let you question me, house of Israel? As I live,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘I will not let you question me.
Eze 20:32 The thought that is forming in your mind will not come true. You say, “Let us be like the ethnicities, like the clans in the other lands who worship wood and stone.”
Eze 20:33 As I live,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘I will certainly reign over you with a mighty hand, a raised arm, and fury poured out.
Eze 20:34 I will bring you out from the ethnicities and will gather you out of the countries among whom you have been scattered. I will do this with a mighty hand and with fury poured out.
Eze 20:35 Then I will bring you into the wilderness of the ethnicities, and there I will judge you face to face.
Eze 20:36 As I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so also I will judge you,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 20:37 ‘I will cause you to pass under my trekking pole, and I will make you obey the requirements of the covenant.
Eze 20:38 I will purge from among you the rebels and those who revolt against me. I will send them out from the land where they are staying as foreigners, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 20:39 So to you, house of Israel, Lord Yehowah declares this: Each of you should go to his own idols. Worship them if you will refuse to listen to me, but you must no longer profane my set-apart name with your gifts and your idols.
Eze 20:40 For on my set-apart mountain, on the mountain peak of Israel,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘all of the house of Israel will worship me there in the land. I will be pleased to require your offerings there and also the firstfruits of your tribute with all your set-apart things.
Eze 20:41 I will accept you like fragrant incense, when I bring you out from the people and gather you out of the countries where you have been scattered. I will show myself as consecrated among you for the ethnicities to see.
Eze 20:42 Then when I bring you to the land of Israel, to the land that I have lifted my hand up to give to your fathers, you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 20:43 Then you will call to mind there your evil ways, and all of your deeds by which you made yourselves unclean, and you will hate yourselves in your own eyes for all your evil actions that you have committed.

Eze 20:44 So you will know that I am Yehowah when I do this to you for my name's sake, not for your evil ways or your corrupt deeds, house of Israel,'" Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 20:45 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 20:46 "Son of man, set your face toward the southern lands and speak against the south; prophesy against the forest of the Negev.
Eze 20:47 Say to the forest of the Negev, 'Hear the word of Yehowah! Lord Yehowah declares this: See, I will set a fire among you. It will devour every fresh tree and every dried tree among you. The fiery flame will not be quenched; every face from the south to the north will be burned.
Eze 20:48 Then all flesh will see that I am Yehowah when I light the fire, and it will not be quenched.'"
Eze 20:49 Then I responded, "Alas! Lord Yehowah, they are asking about me, 'Is he not a mere teller of parables?'"

Ezekiel Chapter 21

Eze 21:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 21:2 “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and speak against the sanctuaries; prophesy against the land of Israel.
Eze 21:3 Say to the land of Israel, ‘Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am against you! I will draw my sword from its scabbard and cut off both the righteous person and the wicked person from you!
Eze 21:4 In order for me to cut off both the righteous and the wicked from you, my sword will go out from its scabbard against all flesh from the south to the north.
Eze 21:5 Then all flesh will know that I, Yehowah, have drawn my sword from its scabbard. It will no longer hold back!’
Eze 21:6 As for you, son of man, groan as your loins break! In bitterness groan before their eyes!
Eze 21:7 Then it will happen that they will ask you, ‘For what reason are you groaning?’ Then you will answer, ‘Because of the intelligence report that is coming, for every heart will faint away, and every hand will falter! Every spirit will grow faint, and every knee will flow like water. Behold! It is coming, and it will be like this!’” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 21:8 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 21:9 “Son of man, prophesy, ‘The Lord declares this: Say: A sword! A sword! It will be sharpened and polished!
Eze 21:10 It will be sharpened in order to engage in great slaughter! It will be polished in order to be like lightning! Should we rejoice in my son’s scepter? The coming sword despises every such rod!
Eze 21:11 So the sword will be given to be polished and then to be grasped by the hand! The sword is sharpened, and it is polished, and it is to be given into the hand of the one who kills!’
Eze 21:12 Call for help and lament, son of man! For that sword has come against my people! It is against all the leaders of Israel. They are thrown against the sword with my people. Therefore, slap your thigh in grief!
Eze 21:13 For there is a trial, but what if the scepter does not last?” asks Lord Yehowah.
Eze 21:14 “Now you, son of man, prophesy and strike your two hands together, for the sword will attack even a third time! A sword for the homicide victims! It is a sword for the many to be slaughtered, piercing them everywhere!
Eze 21:15 In order to melt their hearts and to multiply their fallen, I have set the slaughter of the sword against their gates! Woe! It is made like lightning, set free to butcher!

Eze 21:17 For I will also strike my two hands together, and then I will bring my fury to rest! I, Yehowah, declare it!”
Eze 21:18 The Word of Yehowah came to me again,
Eze 21:19 “Now you, son of man, assign two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. The two roads will start in the same land, and a signpost will mark one of them as leading to a city.
Eze 21:20 Mark one road for the Babylonian military force to come to Rabbah, the city of the Ammonites. Mark the other to lead the military force to Judah and the city of Jerusalem, which is fortified.
Eze 21:21 For the king of Babylon will stop at the crossroads, at the junction, in order to practice divination. He will shake some arrows and ask direction from some idols, and he will examine a liver.
Eze 21:22 In his right hand will be an omen about Jerusalem, to set battering rams against it, to open his mouth to order the slaughter, to sound a war cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp, and to erect siege towers.
Eze 21:23 It will seem to be a useless omen in the eyes of the ones in Jerusalem, those who had sworn an oath to the Babylonians! But the king will accuse them of violating their treaty in order to besiege them!
Eze 21:24 Therefore, Lord Yehowah says this: Because you bring your iniquity to my remembrance, your transgressions will be revealed! Your sins will be seen in all of your actions! For this reason you will remind everyone that you will be captured by your enemy’s hand!
Eze 21:25 As for you, homicidal and wicked ruler of Israel, whose day of punishment has come, and whose time of committing iniquity has ended,
Eze 21:26 Lord Yehowah declares this to you: Remove the turban and take off the crown! Things will no longer be the same! Exalt the lowly and humble the exalted!
Eze 21:27 I will make everything a ruin! A ruin! A ruin! The crown will exist no longer, not until the One comes who has a right to it. Then I will give it to him (Rev. 14:14).
Eze 21:28 So you, son of man, prophesy, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this to the people of Ammon concerning their coming disgrace: A sword, a sword is drawn! It is sharpened for the slaughter in order to devour, so it will be like lightning!
Eze 21:29 While prophets see empty visions for you, while they perform rituals to come up with lies for you, this sword will lie on the necks of the wicked who are about to be killed, whose day of punishment has come, and whose time of iniquity is about to end.
Eze 21:30 Return the sword to its scabbard. In the place of your creation, in the land of your origin, I will judge you!

Eze 21:31 I will pour out my indignation on you! I will fan the fire of my rage against you and put you into the hand of cruel men, craftsmen of destruction!
Eze 21:32 You will become fuel for the fire! Your blood will be in the midst of the land. You will not be remembered, for I, Yehowah, have declared this!'"

Ezekiel Chapter 22

Eze 22:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 22:2 “Now you, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the city of blood? Make her know all her abominations.
Eze 22:3 You must say, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: This is a city that pours out blood in her midst, so that her time may come; a city that makes idols to make herself unclean.
Eze 22:4 You are guilty by the blood that you have poured out, and are made unclean by the idols that you have made. For you have drawn your days close and approached your final years. Therefore, I will make you a reproach to the ethnicities and a derision in the sight of every land.
Eze 22:5 Both those who are near and those who are far away from you will mock you, you unclean city, with the reputation known everywhere as being full of confusion.
Eze 22:6 Behold! The rulers of Israel, each one by his own power, have come to you to pour out blood.
Eze 22:7 They have dishonored fathers and mothers within you, and they have performed oppression on the sojourning foreigners in your midst. They have mistreated the orphans and the widows within you.
Eze 22:8 You have despised my set-apart things and have profaned my Sabbaths.
Eze 22:9 Slanderous men have come among you in order to pour out blood, and they eat on the mountains. They perform wickedness in your midst.
Eze 22:10 The nakedness of a father is revealed within you. They have abused the unclean woman within you during her impurity.
Eze 22:11 Men who commit abominations with their neighbors’ wives, and men who make their own daughters-in-law shamefully unclean; men who abuse their own sisters, daughters of their own fathers, all these are among you.
Eze 22:12 These men take bribes among you in order to shed blood. You have taken interest and gained too much profit, you have damaged your neighbors through oppression, and you have forgotten me,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 22:13 ‘See! With my hand I have struck the dishonest gain that you have made, and the bloodshed that is in your midst.
Eze 22:14 Will your heart stand, will your hands be strong on the days when I myself will deal with you? I, Yehowah, am declaring this, and I will do it.
Eze 22:15 So I will scatter you among the ethnicities and disperse you through the lands. In this way, I will purge your uncleanness from you.
Eze 22:16 So you will become unclean in the eyes of the ethnicities. Then you will know that I am Yehowah.’”

Eze 22:17 Next, the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 22:18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are the leftovers of bronze, tin, iron, and lead in your midst. They will be like the dross of silver in your furnace.
Eze 22:19 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this, ‘Because all of you have become like dross, therefore, behold! I am about to gather you into the center of Jerusalem.
Eze 22:20 As a collection of silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin in the midst of the furnace must have fire blown against it to melt it, so I will gather you in my wrath and fury. I will put you there and blow the fire on it to melt you; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will put you there and pour you out.
Eze 22:21 So I will gather you and blow against you with the fire of my wrath, so that you will be poured out in her midst.
Eze 22:22 As melting silver in the middle of a furnace, you will be melted down in its midst, and you will know that I, Yehowah, have poured out my fury against you!’”
Eze 22:23 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 22:24 “Son of man, say to her, ‘You are a land that has not been cleansed. There is no rain on the day of wrath!
Eze 22:25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets within her, like a roaring lion tearing apart a victim. They consume life and take precious wealth; they make many widows within her!
Eze 22:26 Her priests do violence to my law, and they profane my set-apart things. They do not distinguish between set-apart things and profane things, and do not teach the difference between the unclean and the clean. They hide their eyes from my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned in their midst.
Eze 22:27 Her princes within her are like cheetahs tearing apart their victims. They pour out blood and destroy life to make a profit dishonestly.
Eze 22:28 Her prophets have painted them over with whitewash; they see false visions and predict falsehoods to them. They say, “Lord Yehowah declares this,” when Yehowah has not spoken.
Eze 22:29 The people of the land have oppressed through extortion and plundered through robbery, and they mistreat the poor and needy, and oppress the sojourning foreigner without justice.
Eze 22:30 So I searched for a man from them who would build up a wall, and who would stand before me in its breach for the land, so I would not destroy it, but I found no one.
Eze 22:31 So I will pour out my indignation upon them. I will finish them with the fire of my indignation and set their way on their own heads,’” Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 23

Eze 23:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 23:2 “Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother.
Eze 23:3 They acted as prostitutes in Egypt in the time of their youth. They acted as prostitutes there. Their breasts were squeezed, and their virgin nipples were fondled there.
Eze 23:4 Their names were Oholah, the older sister, and Oholibah, her younger sister. Then they became mine and bore sons and daughters. Their names mean this: Oholah means Samaria, and Oholibah means Jerusalem.
Eze 23:5 But Oholah acted as a prostitute even when she was mine; she lusted for her lovers, for the Assyrians who were dominant,
Eze 23:6 the governor who wore violet, and for his officials, who were strong and handsome, all of them men riding on horses.
Eze 23:7 So she gave herself as a prostitute to them, to all the best of Assyria’s men, and she made herself unclean with everyone she lusted for, and with all their idols.
Eze 23:8 For she had not left her prostitute behavior behind in Egypt, when they had sex with her, when she had been a young girl, when they first began to fondle her virgin breasts, when they first began to pour out their promiscuous behavior on her.
Eze 23:9 Therefore, I gave her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians for whom she lusted.
Eze 23:10 They stripped her naked. They took her sons and daughters, and they killed her with the sword, and she became shameful to other women, so they passed judgment on her.
Eze 23:11 Her sister Oholibah saw this, but she lusted even more passionately and acted like a prostitute even more than her sister.
Eze 23:12 She lusted for the Assyrians, the governors and the dominating officials who dressed impressively, who were men riding horses. All of them were strong, handsome men.
Eze 23:13 I saw that she had made herself unclean. It was the same for both sisters.
Eze 23:14 Then she increased her prostitution even more. She saw men carved on walls, figures of Chaldeans painted in red,
Eze 23:15 wearing belts around their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads. All of them appeared to be officers of chariot troops, men of whom Babylonia (modern Iraq) was their birthplace.

Eze 23:16 As soon as her eyes saw them, she lusted for them, so she sent out messengers to them in Chaldea.
Eze 23:17 Then the Babylonians came to her and to her bed of lust, and they made her unclean with their promiscuousness. By what she had done she was made unclean, so she turned herself away from them in disgust.
Eze 23:18 She displayed her acts of prostitution, and she showed her unclothed body, so my soul turned away from her, just as my soul turned away from her sister.
Eze 23:19 Then she committed many more acts of prostitution, as she brought to mind and imitated the days of her youth, when she behaved as a prostitute in the land of Egypt.
Eze 23:20 So she lusted for her lovers, whose private parts were like those of donkeys, and whose reproductive emissions were like those of horses.
Eze 23:21 This is how you committed shameful acts of your youth, when the Egyptians fondled your nipples and squeezed your young breasts.
Eze 23:22 Therefore, Oholibah, Lord Yehowah declares this, 'Behold! I will turn your lovers against you. Those from whom you turned away, I will bring them against you from every side:
Eze 23:23 The Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, strong, handsome men, governors and commanders, all of them are officers and men of reputation, all of them riding on horses.
Eze 23:24 They will come against you with weapons, and with chariots and wagons, and with a great crowd of people. They will set large shields, small shields, and helmets against you all around. I will give them the opportunity to punish you, and they will punish you with their actions.
Eze 23:25 For I will set my anger on you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your nose and your ears, and your remnant will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters, so that your descendants will be devoured by fire.
Eze 23:26 They will strip you of your clothes and take away all of your jewelry.
Eze 23:27 So I will remove your shameful behavior from you and your acts of prostitution from the land of Egypt. You will not lift up your eyes toward them with longing, and you will think of Egypt no longer.'
Eze 23:28 For Lord Yehowah declares this, 'Behold! I will give you into the hand of the ones you hate, back into the hand of the ones from whom you had turned away.
Eze 23:29 They will deal with you hatefully; they will take all your possessions and abandon you unclothed and bare. The naked shame of your prostitution will be revealed, your shameful behavior and your promiscuousness.
Eze 23:30 These things will be done to you in your acting like a prostitute, lusting after ethnicities by which you became unclean with their idols.

Eze 23:31 You have walked in the way of your sister, so I will put her cup of punishment into your hand.’
Eze 23:32 Lord Yehowah declares this, ‘You will drink your sister’s cup that is deep and large. You will become a laughingstock and a subject for derision, this cup contains a great amount.
Eze 23:33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, the cup of horror and devastation; the cup of your sister Samaria.
Eze 23:34 You will drink it and drain it empty; then you will shatter it and tear your breasts with the sherds. For I have declared it,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 23:35 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this, ‘Because you have forgotten me and thrown me away behind your back, so also you will bear the consequences of your shameful behavior and acts of sexual immorality.’”
Eze 23:36 Yehowah said to me, “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? So present to them their disgusting actions,
Eze 23:37 since they have committed adultery, and since there is blood on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and they have even put their sons into the fire, as food for their idols.
Eze 23:38 Then they continue to do this to me: They make my sanctuary unclean, and on the same day, they defile my Sabbaths.
Eze 23:39 For when they had slaughtered their children for their idols, then they came to my sanctuary on the same day to defile it! So behold! This is what they have done in the middle of my temple.
Eze 23:40 You sent out for men who came from far away, to whom messengers had been sent, now behold. They indeed came, those for whom you bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry.
Eze 23:41 There you sat on a beautiful bed and at a table arranged before it, where you placed my incense and my oil.
Eze 23:42 So the sound of a carefree crowd was with you, and drunkards were brought from the wilderness with other worthless men. They put bracelets on your hands and ornate crowns on your heads.
Eze 23:43 Then I said about the one worn out by acts of adultery, ‘Now they will be sexually immoral with her, and she will be sexually immoral with them.’
Eze 23:44 Then they went and had sex with her as they would any prostitute; in the same way, they had sex with Oholah and Oholibah, women guilty of prostitution.
Eze 23:45 But righteous men will condemn them to punishment for adultery and to punishment for one who pours out blood, since they have committed adultery and have blood on their hands.
Eze 23:46 So Lord Yehowah declares this: I will raise up a company against them and give them up to be terrorized and plundered.

Eze 23:47 Then that company will execute them by stoning and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses.
Eze 23:48 For I will remove shameful behavior from the land and discipline all of the women, so they will no longer act like prostitutes.
Eze 23:49 So they will set your shameful behavior against you. You will bear the guilt of your sins with your idols, and in this way, you will know that I am Lord Yehowah."

Ezekiel Chapter 24

Eze 24:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me in the ninth year (c. 590 BC), on the tenth of the tenth month:
Eze 24:2 “Son of man, write for yourself the name of this day, this exact day, for this exact day the king of Babylon has besieged Jerusalem.
Eze 24:3 So speak a proverb against this rebellious house, a parable. Say to them, ‘Lord Yehowah says this: Place the cooking pot. Place it and pour water into it.
Eze 24:4 Gather pieces of food within it, every good piece, the thigh and shoulder, and fill it with the best bones.
Eze 24:5 Take the best of the flock and heap up the bones under it. Boil it thoroughly and also cook the bones in the midst of it.
Eze 24:6 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Woe to the city of blood, a cooking pot that has rust in it, and that rust will not come out of it. Take piece after piece from it but do not cast lots for it.
Eze 24:7 For her blood is in the midst of her. She has set it on the smooth rock; she has not poured it out on the ground to cover it with dust,
Eze 24:8 so it brings fury up to exact vengeance. I placed her blood on the smooth rock, so it could not be covered.
Eze 24:9 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Woe to the city of blood. I will also enlarge the pile of wood.
Eze 24:10 Stack up the wood and kindle the fire. Cook the meat well, mix in the spices, and let the bones be charred.
Eze 24:11 Then set the pot on its coals empty, in order to heat and scorch its bronze, so its uncleanness within it will be melted, its corrosion consumed.’
Eze 24:12 She has become weary because of toil, but her corrosion has not gone out of her by the fire.
Eze 24:13 Your shameful behavior is in your uncleanness, because I cleaned you, but still you would not become clean. You will still not be free from your uncleanness, until my fury rests from you.
Eze 24:14 I, Yehowah, have declared it will happen, and I will do it. I will not relent, nor will I rest from it. As your ways were, and as your activities, they will judge you!” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 24:15 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 24:16 “Son of man! Behold, I am taking the desire of your eyes from you with a plague, but you must not mourn nor weep, and your tears must not flow.
Eze 24:17 You must groan silently. Do not conduct a funeral for the dead. Tie your turban on you and place your sandals on your feet, but do not veil your facial hair or eat the bread of men who mourn for having lost their wives.”

Eze 24:18 So I spoke to the people at dawn, and my wife died at dusk. At dawn, I did what I had been commanded to do.
Eze 24:19 The people asked me, “Will you not tell us what these things mean, the things that you are doing?”
Eze 24:20 So I answered them, “The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 24:21 ‘Say to the house of Israel, Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! The pride of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and your lusts are defiling my sanctuary! So your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind yourselves will fall by the sword.
Eze 24:22 Then you will do exactly as I have done: You will not veil your facial hair, nor eat the bread of mourning men!
Eze 24:23 Instead, your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet; you will not mourn nor weep, for you will melt away in your iniquities, and each man will groan for his brother.
Eze 24:24 So Ezekiel will be a sign for you, as everything that he has done, you will do when this comes. Then you will know that I am Lord Yehowah!’”
Eze 24:25 “But you, son of man, on the day that I capture their temple, which is their joy, their pride, and what they see and desire, and when I take away their sons and daughters,
Eze 24:26 on that day, a refugee will come to you to give you the news!
Eze 24:27 On that day, your mouth will be opened up to that refugee, and you will speak, you will no longer be silent. You will be a sign for them, so that they will know that I am Yehowah.”

Ezekiel Chapter 25

Eze 25:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 25:2 “Son of man, set your face against the people of Ammon and prophesy against them.
Eze 25:3 Say to the people of Ammon, ‘Hear the word of Lord Yehowah. This is what Lord Yehowah declares: Because you said, “Aha!” over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into exile,
Eze 25:4 therefore, behold, I am giving you to a people in the East as their possession. They will set up camp against you and set up their tents among you. They will eat your fruit, and they will drink your milk.
Eze 25:5 I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the people of Ammon a field for flocks. Then you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 25:6 For Lord Yehowah declares this: You have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, and rejoiced with all the contempt within you against the land of Israel.
Eze 25:7 Therefore, behold! I will strike you with my hand and give you as plunder to the ethnicities. I will cut you off from the people and make you perish from among the countries! I will destroy you, and you will know that I am Yehowah.’
Eze 25:9 Therefore, behold! I will open the slopes of Moab, starting at his cities on the border, the splendor of Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiraiathaim,
Eze 25:10 to the people of the East who have been against the people of Ammon. I will give them up as a possession, so that the people of Ammon will not be remembered among the ethnicities.
Eze 25:11 So I will perform judgments against Moab, and they will know that I am Yehowah.’
Eze 25:12 Lord Yehowah says this, ‘Edom has taken vengeance against the house of Judah and has committed wrong in doing so.
Eze 25:13 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: I will strike Edom with my hand and destroy every person and animal there. I will make them a ruined, abandoned place, from Teman to Dedan. They will fall by the sword.
Eze 25:14 I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will do to Edom according to my anger and my fury, and they will know my vengeance,’ Lord Yehowah declares.

Eze 25:15 Lord Yehowah says this, ‘The Philistines have taken vengeance with malice, and from within themselves, they tried to destroy Judah again and again.
Eze 25:16 So this is what Lord Yehowah declares: Behold! I will reach out with my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites (Cretans) and destroy the remnant who are along the seacoast.
Eze 25:17 For I will take great vengeance against them with furious acts of punishment, so they will know that I am Yehowah, when I take my vengeance on them.’”

Ezekiel Chapter 26

Eze 26:1 So it was in the eleventh year (c. 588 BC), on the first of the month, that the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 26:2 “Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gates of the people are broken! She has turned to me; I will be filled up because she is ruined.’
Eze 26:3 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this, ‘Behold! I am against you, Tyre, and I will raise up many ethnicities against you, like the sea raises its waves.
Eze 26:4 They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers. I will sweep her dust away and make her like a bare rock.
Eze 26:5 She will become a place for nets to dry out in the midst of the sea, since I have spoken it,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘and she will become plunder for the ethnicities.
Eze 26:6 Her daughters who are in the fields will be slaughtered by the swords, and they will know that I am Yehowah.’”
Eze 26:7 “For this is what Lord Yehowah declares: Behold, from the north I am bringing Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, against Tyre, with horses and chariots, and with cavalry and a great many people.
Eze 26:8 He will kill with the sword your daughters in the field. He will set up a siege work, build a ramp against your walls, and raise up shields against you.
Eze 26:9 He will place his battering rams to hit against your walls, and his tools will tear down your towers.
Eze 26:10 His horses will be so many that their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake with the sound of cavalry, wagons, and chariots. When he enters your gates, he will enter as men come into a city whose walls have been broken down.
Eze 26:11 The hooves of his horses will trample all of your streets. He will kill your people with the sword, and your mighty stone pillars will fall to the ground.
Eze 26:12 They will plunder your riches and loot your merchandise. They will tear down your walls and destroy your luxurious homes. Your stones, your timber, and the rubble they will throw into the waters.
Eze 26:13 I will stop the noise of your songs. The sound of your harps will be heard no more.
Eze 26:14 I will make you a bare rock, you will become a place where nets are spread out to dry. You will never be built again, for I, Yehowah, have spoken.” This is the declaration of Lord Yehowah.
Eze 26:15 “Lord Yehowah says this to Tyre, ‘Will not the islands quake with the sound of your downfall and with the groans of the wounded, when the terrible slaughter is in your midst?

Eze 26:16 Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones and remove their robes and cast off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling, they will sit on the ground and tremble every moment, and they will be appalled because of you.
Eze 26:17 They will lift up a lament for you and say to you, “How you, who were inhabited by sailors, have been destroyed. The famous city that was so strong, it is now gone from the sea. The ones living in her once spread a terror about themselves upon everyone who lived near them.
Eze 26:18 Now the coasts tremble on the day of your downfall. The islands in the sea are terrified, because you have died.”
Eze 26:19 For Lord Yehowah declares this: When I make you a desolate city, like the other cities that are not inhabited, when I raise up the deeps against you, and when the great waters cover you,
Eze 26:20 then I will bring you down to the people of ancient times, like the others who have gone down into the pit; for I will make you live in the lowest realms of the earth as in ruins of ancient times. Because of this, you will not come back and stand in the land of the living.
Eze 26:21 I will place disaster on you, and you will exist no more. Then you will be sought, but you will never be found ever again,’” Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 27

Eze 27:1 Again the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 27:2 “Now you, son of man, begin a lamentation concerning Tyre,
Eze 27:3 and say to Tyre, who lives within the gates of the sea, merchants of people to many islands, Lord Yehowah says this to you: Tyre, you have said, ‘I am perfect in beauty.’
Eze 27:4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty.
Eze 27:5 They have made all your planks with cypress from Mount Hermon; they took cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.
Eze 27:6 They made your oars from the oaks of Bashan; they made your decks out of cypress wood from Cyprus, and they overlaid them with ivory.
Eze 27:7 Your sails were made from colorful linen from Egypt that served as your banner; the colors of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah are used for the awning on your boat.
Eze 27:8 Those who were living in Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; the sages of Tyre were within you; they were your pilots.
Eze 27:9 Highly experienced craftsmen from Byblos filled your seams; all the ships of the sea, and their sailors among you were carrying your merchandise for trade.
Eze 27:10 Persia, Lydia, and Libya were in your armed forces, your warriors. They hung shield and helmet within you; they showed your splendor.
Eze 27:11 The men of Arvad and Helech in your armed forces were on your walls surrounding you, and the people of Gammad were in your towers. They hung up their shields on your walls all around you. They completed your beauty.
Eze 27:12 Tarshish was your client because of the multitude of every kind of wealth: silver, iron, tin, and lead. They bought and sold your wares.
Eze 27:13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they traded slaves and in items made of bronze. They handled your merchandise.
Eze 27:14 Beth Togarmah provided horses, stallions, and mules as your merchandise.
Eze 27:15 The men of Rhodes were your traders on many coasts. Merchandise was in your hand; they sent back horn, ivory, and ebony as tribute.
Eze 27:16 Aram was a dealer in your many products; they provided emeralds, purple, colored cloth, fine fabric, pearls, coral, and rubies as your merchandise.
Eze 27:17 Judah and the land of Israel were trading with you. They provided wheat from Minnith, cakes, honey, oil, and balm as your merchandise.
Eze 27:18 Damascus was a trader of all your products, of all your enormous wealth, and of the wine of Helbon and the wool of Zahar.

Eze 27:19 Dan and Javan from Uzzal provided you with merchandise of wrought iron, cinnamon, and calamus. This became merchandise for you.
Eze 27:20 Dedan was your dealer in fine saddle blankets.
Eze 27:21 Arabia and all the chiefs of Kedar were traders with you; they provided you with lambs, rams, and goats.
Eze 27:22 The traders of Sheba and Raamah came to sell you the best of every spice and all kinds of precious gems; they traded gold for your merchandise.
Eze 27:23 Haran, Canneh, and Eden were traders with you, along with Sheba, Asshur, and Kilmad.
Eze 27:24 These were your dealers in ornate robes of violet cloths with woven colors, and in blankets of multicolored, embroidered, and well-woven cloth, rope, and cedar in your marketplaces.
Eze 27:25 The ships of Tarshish were the transporters of your merchandise. So you were filled up, heavily laden with cargo in the heart of the seas.
Eze 27:26 Your rowers have brought you into vast seas; the eastern wind has broken you in the middle of them.
Eze 27:27 Your wealth, merchandise, and trade goods; your mariners, sailors, and ship builders; your traders of merchandise and all the warriors who are in you, and all your crew, they will fall into the depths of the sea on the day of your destruction.
Eze 27:28 Cities at the sea will tremble at the sound of your pilot's cry!
Eze 27:29 All those who handle oars will come down from their ships; mariners and every sailor of the sea will stand on the land.
Eze 27:30 Then they will make you listen to their voice and will wail bitterly; they will cast dust up on their heads! They will roll about in ashes.
Eze 27:31 They will shave their heads bald for you and bind themselves with sackcloth, and they will weep bitterly over you, and they will cry out!
Eze 27:32 They will lift up their wails of lamentation for you and sing dirges over you! Who is like Tyre, who has now been brought to silence in the middle of the sea?
Eze 27:33 When your merchandise went ashore from the sea, it satisfied many people; you enriched the kings of the earth with your great wealth and merchandise.
Eze 27:34 But when you were shattered by the seas, by deep waters, your merchandise and all your crew sank!
Eze 27:35 All the inhabitants of the coasts were appalled at you, and their kings shuddered in horror! Their faces trembled!
Eze 27:36 The merchants of the people whistle at you; you have become a horror, and you will never again exist!"

Ezekiel Chapter 28

Eze 28:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 28:2 “Son of man, prophesy to the ruler of Tyre, ‘Lord Yehowah says this: Your heart is arrogant! You have boasted, “I am a deity! I will sit in the seat of the deities in the heart of the seas!” Even though you are a man and not a deity, you make your heart like the heart of a deity;
Eze 28:3 you think that you are wiser than Daniel, and that no secret amazes you!
Eze 28:4 You have made yourself wealthy with wisdom and skill, and obtained gold and silver in your treasuries!
Eze 28:5 By great wisdom and by your trading, you have multiplied your wealth, so your heart is arrogant because of your wealth.
Eze 28:6 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Because you have made your heart like the heart of a deity,
Eze 28:7 I will therefore bring foreigners against you, terrifying men from the ethnicities. They will bring their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they will profane your splendor.
Eze 28:8 They will send you down to the pit, and you will die the death of those who die in the heart of the seas.
Eze 28:9 Will you truly say, “I am a deity,” to the face of one who kills you? You are a man and not a deity, and you will be in the hand of the one who pierces you.
Eze 28:10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners, for I have spoken it,’” Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 28:11 The Word of Yehowah came again to me,
Eze 28:12 “Son of man, lift up a lament for the king of Tyre and say to him, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
Eze 28:13 You were in Eden, the garden of the Almighty. Every precious stone covered you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made from gold. It was on the day you were created that they were prepared.
Eze 28:14 I placed you on the set-apart mountain of the Almighty as the angel I anointed to guard mankind. You were in the midst of the fiery stones where you walked about.
Eze 28:15 You had integrity in your ways from the day you were created, until injustice was found within you.

Eze 28:16 In the large volume of your trading you were filled with violence, so you sinned. I have thrown you as defiled from the mountain of the Almighty and destroyed you, angel guard, from among the fiery stones.
Eze 28:17 Your heart was arrogant with your beauty; you ruined your wisdom because of your splendor. I have sent you down to the earth. I have placed you before kings, so they may see you.
Eze 28:18 Because of your many sins and your dishonest trade, you have defiled your consecrated places. So I have made fire come out from you; it will consume you. I will turn you into ashes on the earth in the sight of all who look at you.
Eze 28:19 All the ones who knew you among the people will shudder at you; they will be horrified, and you will never exist again.'"
Eze 28:20 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 28:21 "Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against her,
Eze 28:22 'Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am against you, Sidon! For I will be glorified in your midst, so your people will know that I am Yehowah, when I execute justice within you. I will be shown to be consecrated in you.
Eze 28:23 I will send out a plague in you and blood in your streets, and the slain will fall in your midst. When the sword comes against you from all around, then you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 28:24 Then there will no longer be pricking briars and painful thorns for the house of Israel from all those around her who despise her people, so they will know that I am Lord Yehowah!'
Eze 28:25 Lord Yehowah declares this, 'When I gather the house of Israel from the people among whom they were scattered, and when I am set apart among them, so the ethnicities may see, then they will make their homes in the land I will give to my servant Jacob.
Eze 28:26 Then they will live securely within her and build houses, plant vineyards, and live securely, when I execute justice on all the ones who now despise them from all around; so they will know that I am Yehowah their Divine One!'"

Ezekiel Chapter 29

Eze 29:1 In the tenth year (c. 589 BC), on the twelfth of the tenth month, the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 29:2 “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt; prophesy against him and against all of Egypt.
Eze 29:3 Speak and say, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt. You, the great crocodile that lurks in the midst of the River, that boasts, “My river is my own. I have made it for myself.”
Eze 29:4 For I will place hooks in your jaw, and the fish of your Nile will cling to your scales; I will lift you up from the middle of your river along with all the fish of the River that cling to your scales.
Eze 29:5 I will throw you down into the wilderness, you and all the fish from your river. You will fall on the open field; you will not be gathered nor lifted up. I will give you as food to the wild animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky.
Eze 29:6 Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yehowah, because they have been a hollow slender pole to the house of Israel.
Eze 29:7 When they took hold of you in their hand, you broke into splinters and pierced their shoulder; when they leaned on you, you shattered their legs and made their hips to shake.
Eze 29:8 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I will bring a sword against you; I will cut off both man and beast from you.
Eze 29:9 So the land of Egypt will become desolate and a ruin; then they will know that I am Yehowah, because the sea monster had boasted, “The River is mine, for I have made it.”
Eze 29:10 Therefore, behold! I am against you and against your river, so I will give the land of Egypt over to desolation and waste, and you will become a wasteland from Migdol to Syene (modern Aswan) and the borders of Cush.
Eze 29:11 No man’s foot will pass through it, and no wild animal’s foot will pass through it. It will not be inhabited for forty years.
Eze 29:12 For I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of uninhabited lands, and its cities in the midst of wasted cities will become a desolation for forty years; then I will scatter Egypt among the ethnicities, and I will disperse them throughout the lands.
Eze 29:13 For Lord Yehowah declares this: At the end of forty years, I will gather Egypt from people among whom they were scattered.
Eze 29:14 I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to the region of Pathros, to the land of their origin. Then they will be a lowly kingdom there.

Eze 29:15 It will be the lowliest of the kingdoms, and it will not be lifted up any more among the ethnicities. I will diminish them, so they will no longer rule over ethnicities.
Eze 29:16 The Egyptians will no longer be a reason for confidence for the house of Israel. Instead, they will be a reminder of the iniquity that Israel committed when they turned to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am Lord Yehowah.'"
Eze 29:17 Then it came about in the twenty-seventh year (c. 572 BC) on the first of the first month, that the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 29:18 "Son of man, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon stationed his military force to do hard work against Tyre. Every head was shaved and every shoulder was bared, but there were never any wages from Tyre for him and his military force, for the hard work that he did against Tyre.
Eze 29:19 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this, 'Behold! I am giving the land of Egypt to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and he will take away its wealth, plunder its possessions, and carry off all he finds there; that will be his armed force's wages.
Eze 29:20 I have given him the land of Egypt as the wages for the work they did for me,' Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 29:21 'On that day, I will make a horn sprout up for the house of Israel, and I will make you speak in their midst, so that they will know that I am Yehowah.'"

Ezekiel Chapter 30

Eze 30:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 30:2 “Son of man, prophesy, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Wail, “Woe is the coming Day!”
Eze 30:3 The Day is near. The Day is near for Yehowah. It will be a Day of clouds, a time of doom for ethnicities.
Eze 30:4 Then a sword will come against Egypt, and there will be anguish in Cush when the killed people fall in Egypt, when they take her wealth, and when her foundations are ruined.
Eze 30:5 Cush, Libya, and Lydia, and all the foreigners, and Chub, together with the people belonging to the covenant, they will all fall by the sword.
Eze 30:6 Yehowah says this: So the ones who support Egypt will fall, and the pride of her strength will go down. From Migdol to Syene their soldiers will fall by the sword,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 30:7 ‘They will be appalled in the midst of the abandoned lands, and their cities will be among all the ruined cities.
Eze 30:8 Then they will know that I am Yehowah, when I set fire in Egypt, and when all of her helpers are destroyed.
Eze 30:9 In that Day, messengers will go out from before me in ships to terrorize a secure Cush, and there will be anguish among them on the Day of Egypt’s doom. For behold! It is coming.
Eze 30:10 Lord Yehowah declares this: I will make an end of the multitudes of Egypt by the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.
Eze 30:11 He and his military force with him, the terror of ethnicities, will be brought to destroy the land; they will draw out their swords against Egypt and fill the land with dead people.
Eze 30:12 I will make the rivers into dry ground, and I will sell the land into the hand of wicked men. I will make the land and its fullness desolate by the hand of foreigners, I, Yehowah, have spoken.
Eze 30:13 Lord Yehowah declares this: I will destroy idols, and I will bring an end to the worthless idols of Memphis. There will no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt, and I will put terror on the land of Egypt.
Eze 30:14 Then I will make Pathros desolate and set fire in Zoan, and I will execute acts of judgment on Thebes (modern Luxor).
Eze 30:15 For I will pour out my fury on Pelusium (modern Tell el-Farama), the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the multitude of Thebes.
Eze 30:16 Then I will set fire in Egypt. Pelusium will be in severe agony, and Thebes will be broken up. Memphis will have enemies every day.

Eze 30:17 The young men in Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword, and their cities will go into captivity.
Eze 30:18 In Tahpanhes, the day will hold back its light when I break the yoke of Egypt there, and the pride of her strength will be finished. There will be a cloud covering her, and her daughters will walk into captivity.
Eze 30:19 I will execute acts of judgment in Egypt, so they will know that I am Yehowah.'"
Eze 30:20 Then it came about in the eleventh year (c. 588 BC), on the seventh of the first month, that the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 30:21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Behold! It is not bound up and able to receive medicine; no one can put a bandage on it, so it will not be strong enough to grasp a sword.
Eze 30:22 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this, 'Behold, I am against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. For I will break his arms, both the strong one and the broken one, and I will make the sword fall from his hand.
Eze 30:23 Then I will scatter Egypt among the ethnicities and disperse them among the lands.
Eze 30:24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and place my sword in his hand, so that I might destroy Pharaoh's arms. He will groan before the king of Babylon with the groans of a dying man.
Eze 30:25 For I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, while Pharaoh's arms will fall. Then they will know that I am Yehowah, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon; for he will attack the land of Egypt with it.
Eze 30:26 So I will scatter Egypt among the ethnicities and disperse them throughout the lands. Then they will know that I am Yehowah.'"

Ezekiel Chapter 31

Eze 31:1 Then it came about in the eleventh year (c. 588 BC), on the first of the third month, that the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 31:2 “Son of man, say to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his servants around him, ‘In your greatness, whom are you like?
Eze 31:3 Behold! Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, a forested canopy, and great height. Its tree top was among the clouds.
Eze 31:4 Many waters made it tall; the deep waters made it huge. Rivers flowed all around its area, for their channels stretched out to all the trees in the field.
Eze 31:5 Its great height was more than any of the other trees in the field, and its branches multiplied; its branches grew long because of many waters as they grew.
Eze 31:6 Every bird of the heavens nested in its branches, while every living thing of the field gave birth to its young under its foliage. All of the many ethnicities lived under its shade.
Eze 31:7 For it was beautiful in its greatness and the length of its branches, for its roots were in many waters.
Eze 31:8 Cedars in the garden of the Almighty could not equal it. None among the cypress trees matched its branches, and the plane tree could not equal its boughs. There was no other tree in the garden of the Almighty that was like it in its beauty.
Eze 31:9 I made it beautiful with its many branches, and all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of the Almighty envied it.
Eze 31:10 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Because you were so tall, and because it grew tall and set its top among the clouds, and its arrogant heart was exalted,
Eze 31:11 I have given it into the hand of a chief of the ethnicities, to deal with it according to what its wickedness deserves. I have thrown it out.
Eze 31:12 Foreigners who were the terror of all the ethnicities cut it off and left it to die. Its branches fell on the mountains and all the valleys, and its boughs lie broken in all the ravines of the land. Then all the ethnicities on earth came out from under its shade, and they went away from it.
Eze 31:13 All the birds of the sky rested on its trunk and all the beasts of the field sat on its branches.
Eze 31:14 This happened, so that none of the other watered trees would ever grow that tall, so that they would not raise their tree tops above the foliage, for no other tree that drank up water would ever again grow that tall. For they were all given over to death down to the lowest part of the earth, in the midst of the people of mankind who go down to the pit.

Eze 31:15 Lord Yehowah says this: On the day when the cedar went down to the place of the dead, I brought mourning to the earth. I covered the deep waters over it, and I held back the ocean waters. I kept back the great waters, and I brought mourning to Lebanon for him. So all the trees of the field mourned because of it.
Eze 31:16 I brought shuddering to the ethnicities at the sound of his downfall, when I threw him down to the place of the dead with those who went down into the pit. So I comforted all the trees of Eden in the lowest parts of the earth. These had been the choicest and best trees of Lebanon; the trees that drank the waters.
Eze 31:17 For they also went down with it to the place of the dead, to the ones who had been killed by the sword. These were its strong arm, those ethnicities who had lived in its shade.
Eze 31:18 Which of the trees in Eden was your equal in glory and greatness? For you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lowest parts of the earth among the uncircumcised; you will live with those who were killed by the sword.' This is Pharaoh and all of his servants," Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 32

Eze 32:1 Then it happened on the first of the twelfth month of the twelfth year (c. 587 BC), that the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 32:2 “Son of man, lift up a lament concerning Pharaoh the king of Egypt; say to him, ‘You are like a young lion among the ethnicities, but you are like a crocodile in the seas; you churn up the water, you stir up the waters with your feet and muddy their waters.
Eze 32:3 Lord Yehowah declares this: So I will spread my net over you in the assembly of many people, and they will lift you up in my net.
Eze 32:4 I will abandon you in the land. I will throw you into a field and cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you; the hunger of all living animals on earth will be satisfied by you.
Eze 32:5 For I will put your flesh on the mountains, and I will fill the valleys with your worm-filled corpse.
Eze 32:6 Then I will pour your blood over the mountains, and the stream beds will be filled with your blood.
Eze 32:7 Then, when I put out your lamp, I will cover the heavens and darken its stars; I will cover the sun with clouds, and the moon will not shine.
Eze 32:8 I will darken all the glowing lights in the heavens over you, and I will put darkness over your land,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 32:9 ‘So I will terrify the heart of many people in lands that you do not know, when I bring about your collapse among the ethnicities, among lands that you have not known.
Eze 32:10 I will shock many people concerning you; their kings will shudder in horror concerning you when I swing my sword before them. Every moment each one will tremble because of you, on the day of your downfall.
Eze 32:11 For Lord Yehowah declares this: The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.
Eze 32:12 I will cause your servants to fall by warriors’ swords, each warrior a terror of ethnicities. These warriors will devastate the glory of Egypt and destroy all of its multitudes.
Eze 32:13 For I will destroy all the livestock from beside the plentiful waters; the foot of man will no longer stir the waters up, neither will the hooves of cattle stir them.
Eze 32:14 Then I will calm their waters and make their rivers run like oil,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 32:15 ‘When I make the land of Egypt, a land that was full, a ruined place, an abandoned place; when I attack all of her inhabitants, then they will know that I am Yehowah.

Eze 32:16 There will be a lament, for the daughters of the ethnicities will lament over her; they will lament over Egypt. They will lament over all her servants,'" Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 32:17 Then it happened in the twelfth year (c. 587 BC), on the fifteenth of the month, that the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 32:18 "Son of man, weep for the servants of Egypt and throw them down, her and the daughters of majestic ethnicities, to the lowest earth with those who have gone down to the pit.
Eze 32:19 Ask them, 'Are you really more beautiful than anyone else? Go down and lie with the uncircumcised.'
Eze 32:20 They will fall among those who were killed by the sword. Egypt is given to the sword; her enemies will seize her and her servants.
Eze 32:21 The strongest of the warriors in the place of the dead will declare about Egypt and her allies, 'They have come down here! They will lie with the uncircumcised who were killed by the sword.'
Eze 32:22 Assyria is there with all her assembly. Her graves surround her; all of them were killed by the sword.
Eze 32:23 Those whose graves are set in the recesses of the pit are there, with all her assembly. Her graves surround all of those who were killed, who fell by the sword, those who brought terror on the land of the living.
Eze 32:24 Elam is there with all her servants. Her graves surround her; all of them were killed. Those who fell by the sword, who have gone down uncircumcised to the lowest parts of the earth, who brought their terrors on the land of the living, and who now carry their own shame with them, together with the ones going down to the pit.
Eze 32:25 They set a bedroll for Elam and all her servants in the midst of the slain; her graves surround her. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living. So they carry their own shame with them, together with the ones going down to the pit among all those who have been killed, those who are going down to the pit. Elam is among all those who were killed.
Eze 32:26 Meshech, Tubal, and all their servants are there! Their graves surround them. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, because they had brought their terrors on the land of the living.
Eze 32:27 They do not lie with the fallen warriors of the uncircumcised who have gone down to the place of the dead with all their weapons of war, and with their swords placed under their heads and their shields placed over their bones. For they were the terror of warriors in the land of the living.
Eze 32:28 So you, Egypt, will be destroyed in the midst of the uncircumcised! You will lie alongside of those who were killed by the sword.

Eze 32:29 Edom is there with her kings and all her leaders. They were powerful, but now they lie with those killed by the sword, with the uncircumcised, those who have gone down to the pit.
Eze 32:30 The princes of the north are there, all of them, and all the Sidonians who went down with the dead! They were powerful and made others to be afraid, but now they lie there in shame, uncircumcised with those who were killed by the sword. They carry their own shame, together with the others who are going down to the pit.
Eze 32:31 Pharaoh will look and be comforted about all his armed forces who were killed by the sword," Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 32:32 "I made him cause terror in the land of the living, but he will lie down in the midst of the uncircumcised, among those killed by the sword, Pharaoh and all his servants," Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 33

Eze 33:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 33:2 “Son of man, declare this to your people, ‘When I bring a sword against any land, then the people of that land take one man from among themselves and make him a watchman for them.
Eze 33:3 He looks for the sword as it comes on the land, and he blows his trumpet to warn the people!
Eze 33:4 If the people hear the sound of the trumpet but do not pay attention, and if the sword comes and kills them, then each one’s blood is on his own head.
Eze 33:5 If someone hears the sound of the trumpet and pays no attention, his blood is on him; but if he pays attention, he will save his own life.
Eze 33:6 However, if the watchman sees the sword as it is coming, but if he does not blow the trumpet, with the result that the people are not warned, and if the sword comes and takes anyone’s life, then that person dies in his own sin, but I will require his blood from the watchman.’
Eze 33:7 Now you yourself, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; you will hear the words from my mouth and warn them on my behalf.
Eze 33:8 If I say to a wicked person, ‘Wicked one, you will surely die!’ But if you do not announce this so as to warn the wicked about his way, then he who is wicked will die in his sin, but I will require his blood from your hand!
Eze 33:9 But you, if you warn the wicked about his way, so that he might turn back from it, and if he does not turn back from his way, then he will die in his sin, but you yourself will have saved your own life.
Eze 33:10 So you, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, ‘You are saying this, “Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we are decaying in them! How can we live?”’
Eze 33:11 Speak to them, ‘As I live,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘I do not delight in the death of the wicked, for if the wicked repents from his way, then he will live! Repent! Repent from your wicked ways! For why should you die, house of Israel?’
Eze 33:12 So now you, son of man, say to your people, ‘The righteousness of a righteous person will not save him if he sins! The wickedness of a wicked person will not cause him to perish if he repents from his sin! For the righteous person will not be able to live because of his righteousness if he sins.
Eze 33:13 If I say to the righteous, “He will surely live!” and if he trusts in his righteousness and then commits injustice, I will not call to mind any of his righteousness. He will die for the wickedness he committed.
Eze 33:14 So if I say to the wicked, “You will surely die,” but if he then repents from his sins and does what is just and right,

Eze 33:15 if he restores the loan guarantee that he wickedly demanded, or if he makes restitution for what he has stolen, and if he walks in the statutes that give life and no longer commits sin, then he will surely live. He will not die.
Eze 33:16 None of the sins that he has committed will be called to mind for him. He has acted justly and rightly, and so he will surely live!
Eze 33:17 But your people say, “The Way of the Lord is not fair!” But it is your ways that are not fair!
Eze 33:18 When the righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits sin, then he will die in it!
Eze 33:19 When the wicked turns away from his wickedness and does what is just and righteous, he will live because of those things!
Eze 33:20 But you people say, “The Way of the Lord is not fair!” I will judge each of you according to his way, house of Israel!’”
Eze 33:21 It happened in the twelfth year (c. 587 BC), on the fifth of the tenth month of our captivity, that a fugitive came to me from Jerusalem and announced, “The city has been captured!”
Eze 33:22 The hand of Yehowah had been on me at dusk before the fugitive came, and my mouth was opened by the time that he came to me at dawn. So my mouth was open; I was no longer mute!
Eze 33:23 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 33:24 “Son of man, the ones inhabiting those ruins in the land of Israel are talking, ‘Abraham was only one person, and he inherited the land, but we are many! The land has been given to us as a possession.’
Eze 33:25 Therefore, say to them, ‘Lord Yehowah says this: You eat blood, and you lift up your eyes towards your idols, then you pour out people’s blood. Should you really possess the land?
Eze 33:26 You have depended on your swords and have done disgusting things; each man defiles his neighbor’s wife. Should you really possess the land?’
Eze 33:27 You will say this to them, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: As I live, surely the ones in the ruins will fall by the sword, and I will give those in the fields to the living creatures as food, and those in fortresses and in caves will die of plagues.
Eze 33:28 Then I will turn the land into a desolation and a horror, and the pride of its might will end, for the mountains of Israel will be deserted, and there will be no one to pass through them.’
Eze 33:29 So they will know that I am Yehowah, when I make the land a desolation and a horror because of all the abominations that they have done.
Eze 33:30 So now you, son of man, your people are saying things about you beside the walls and the gates of the houses, and each one says to another, each man to his brother, ‘Let us go and listen to the prophet’s word that comes out from Yehowah!’

Eze 33:31 So my people will come to you, as they often do, and will sit in front of you and listen to your words, but they will not obey them. Right words are in their mouths, but their hearts are going after unjust profit.
Eze 33:32 For you are like a lovely song to them, a beautiful sound that is well played on a stringed instrument, so they will listen to your words, but none of them will obey them.
Eze 33:33 So when all of this happens, behold! It will happen! Then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel Chapter 34

Eze 34:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 34:2 “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who are shepherding themselves. Should not shepherds guard the flock?
Eze 34:3 You eat the fatty portions, and you dress in wool. You slaughter the fatlings of the flock. You do not shepherd at all.
Eze 34:4 You have not strengthened those who have diseases, nor do you heal the ones who are ill. You do not bind up the ones who are broken, and you do not restore the outcasts or seek the lost. Instead, you rule over them through strength and violence.
Eze 34:5 Then they were scattered without a shepherd, and they became food for all the living beasts in the fields, after they were scattered.
Eze 34:6 My flock strays on all of the mountains and on every high hill, and it is dispersed over the entire surface of the earth. Yet no one is searching for them.
Eze 34:7 Therefore, shepherds, hear the declaration of Yehowah:
Eze 34:8 As I live,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘because my flock has become plunder and food for all the beasts in the fields, because there was no shepherd, and none of my shepherds sought my flock, but the shepherds guarded themselves and did not shepherd my flock.
Eze 34:9 Therefore, shepherds, hear the declaration of Yehowah:
Eze 34:10 Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flock from their hand. Then I will dismiss them from shepherding the flock; neither will the shepherds any longer shepherd themselves, since I will take away my flock from their mouths, so that my flock will no longer be food for them.
Eze 34:11 For Lord Yehowah says this: Behold! I myself will seek out my flock, and I will look after them,
Eze 34:12 like a shepherd seeking his flock on the day he is within the midst of his scattered flock. Thus I will seek my flock, and I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on the day of clouds and darkness.
Eze 34:13 Then I will bring them out from among the people; I will gather them from the lands and bring them to their land. I will put them in pastures on the mountainsides of Israel, by the streams, and in every settlement in the land.
Eze 34:14 I will put them in good pastures; the high mountains of Israel will be their grazing places. They will lie down there in good places for grazing, in abundant pastures, and they will graze on the mountains of Israel.
Eze 34:15 I myself will shepherd my flock, and I myself will make them lie down,’ Lord Yehowah declares,

Eze 34:16 ‘I will seek the lost and restore the outcast. I will bind up the broken sheep and heal the sick sheep, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd with justice.
Eze 34:17 So now you, my flock, this is what Lord Yehowah says: Behold, I will be a judge between sheep and sheep and between rams and male goats.
Eze 34:18 Is it not enough to feed on the good pasture, that you must trample down with your feet what is left of the pasture; and to drink from clear waters, that you must muddy the rivers with your feet?
Eze 34:19 Must my sheep eat what you have trampled with your feet, and drink what you have muddied with your feet?
Eze 34:20 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this to them: Behold! I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the thin ones,
Eze 34:21 for you have pushed them with your sides and shoulders, and you have gored all of the weak ones with your horns, until you have scattered them away from the land.
Eze 34:22 I will save my flock, and they will no longer be plunder, and I will judge between one sheep and another!
Eze 34:23 I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David. He will shepherd them, he will feed them, and he will be their shepherd.
Eze 34:24 For I, Yehowah, will be their Divine One, and my servant David will be a prince among them, I, Yehowah, have declared this.
Eze 34:25 Then I will make a covenant of peace with them and remove the evil wild animals from the land, so that they will live securely in the wilderness and safely sleep in the forests.
Eze 34:26 I will also bring blessings on them and on the places around my hill, for I will send out showers in due season. These will be showers of blessing.
Eze 34:27 Then the trees of the field will produce their fruit, and the earth will yield its produce. My sheep will be secure in their land; then they will know that I am Yehowah, when I break the bars of their yoke, and when I rescue them from the hand of those who enslaved them.
Eze 34:28 They will no longer be plunder for the ethnicities, and the wild animals on the earth will no longer devour them. For they will live securely, and no one will frighten them.
Eze 34:29 For I will create a renowned planting place for them, so they will no longer be starved with hunger in the land, and the ethnicities will not bring insults against them.
Eze 34:30 Then they will know that I, Yehowah their Divine One, am with them. They are my people, the house of Israel,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 34:31 ‘For you are my sheep, the flock of my pasture, and my people! I will be your Divine One,’” Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 35

Eze 35:1 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 35:2 “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it.
Eze 35:3 Say to it, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will strike you with my hand and make you a desolation and a horror.
Eze 35:4 I will make your cities ruins, and you yourself will become desolate; then you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 35:5 Because you have always been hostile to the people of Israel, and because you poured them out into the hands of the sword at the time of their distress, at the time their punishment was at its greatest.
Eze 35:6 Therefore, as I live,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘I will prepare you for bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you! Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you.
Eze 35:7 I will make Mount Seir a complete desolation, when I cut off from it anyone who passes through and returns again.
Eze 35:8 Then I will fill its mountains with its dead. Your high hills and valleys and all of your streams, those killed by the sword will fall in them.
Eze 35:9 I will make you a perpetual desolation. Your cities will not be inhabited, but you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 35:10 You have said, “These two nations and these two lands will become mine, and we will possess them,” even when Yehowah was present with them.
Eze 35:11 Therefore, as I live,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘so I will do according to your anger and according to your jealousy that you had in your hatred of Israel, and I will show myself to them when I judge you.
Eze 35:12 So you will know that I am Yehowah. I have heard all the insults you spoke against the mountains of Israel, “They have been destroyed; they have been given over to us to devour.”
Eze 35:13 You exalted yourselves against me with what you said, and you multiplied the words you said against me; and I heard it all.’
Eze 35:14 Lord Yehowah declares this: ‘I will make you a desolation, while the entire earth rejoices.
Eze 35:15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the people of Israel because of its desolation, I will do the same to you. You will become a desolation, Mount Seir, and all of Edom, all of it! Then they will know that I am Yehowah.’”

Ezekiel Chapter 36

Eze 36:1 “Now you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to the Word of Yehowah.
Eze 36:2 Lord Yehowah says this: The enemy has said about you, “Aha!” and, “The ancient high places have become our possession.”’
Eze 36:3 Therefore, prophesy, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Because of your desolation and because of the attacks that came on you from all sides, you have become a possession of the ethnicities; you have been the subject of slanderous lips and tongues, and of people’s stories.
Eze 36:4 Therefore, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of Lord Yehowah: Lord Yehowah declares this to the mountains and the high hills, to the streambeds and valleys, to the uninhabited desolations and the forsaken cities that have become plunder and a subject of mocking for the ethnicities that surround them.
Eze 36:5 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: I have certainly spoken in the fire of my fury against the ethnicities, against Edom and all who took my land for themselves as a possession, against all those who had both joy in their heart and disdain in their spirit, as they seized my land that they might claim its pasturelands for themselves.’
Eze 36:6 Therefore, prophesy to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the high hills, to the streambeds and to the valleys, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! In my fury and in my anger I am declaring this, because you have borne the insults of ethnicities.
Eze 36:7 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: I myself will lift up my hand to swear that the ethnicities that surround you will certainly carry their own shame.
Eze 36:8 But you, mountains of Israel, you will grow branches and bear fruit for my people Israel, since they will soon come back to you.
Eze 36:9 For behold, I am for you, and I treat you with grace; you will be plowed and sown with seed.
Eze 36:10 So I will multiply on you mountains, men in all the house of Israel, all of it. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.
Eze 36:11 I will multiply man and beast on you mountains, so that they will multiply and be fruitful. Then I will cause you to be inhabited as you previously were, and I will make you prosper more than you did in the past, for you will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 36:12 I will bring men, my people Israel, to walk on you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will no longer cause their children to die.
Eze 36:13 Lord Yehowah declares this: Because they are saying to you, “You devour people, and your nation’s children have died,”

Eze 36:14 therefore, you will not consume people any longer, and you will no longer make your nation mourn their deaths,' Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 36:15 'Nor will I allow you to hear the insults of the ethnicities any longer; you will no longer have to bear the shame of the people or cause your nation to fall,'" Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 36:16 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 36:17 "Son of man, when the house of Israel inhabited their land, they defiled it with their ways and their deeds. Their ways were like the unclean menstruation of a woman before me.
Eze 36:18 So I poured out my fury against them for the blood that they poured out on the land, and for their pollution of it by their idols.
Eze 36:19 I scattered them among the ethnicities; they were dispersed throughout the lands. I judged them according to their ways and their deeds.
Eze 36:20 Then they went to the ethnicities, and wherever they went, they profaned my set-apart name when people said of them, 'Are these really the people of Yehowah? For they have been thrown out of his land.'
Eze 36:21 But I had compassion for my set-apart name that the house of Israel had defiled among the ethnicities, when they went there.
Eze 36:22 Therefore, say to the house of Israel, 'Lord Yehowah declares this: I am not doing this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my set-apart name, which you have profaned among the ethnicities everywhere you have gone.
Eze 36:23 For I will consecrate my great name, which you have profaned among the ethnicities, in the midst of the ethnicities, you profaned it. Then the ethnicities will know that I am Yehowah,' Lord Yehowah declares, 'when you see that I am consecrated.
Eze 36:24 I will take you from the ethnicities and gather you from every land, and I will bring you to your land.
Eze 36:25 Then I will sprinkle pure water on you, so you will be purified from all of your impurities, and I will purify you from all of your idols.
Eze 36:26 I will give you a new heart (mind) and a new Ruach in your innermost parts, and I will take away the heart of stone from your flesh. For I will give you a heart of flesh (Eze. 11:19).
Eze 36:27 I will set my Ruach in you and enable you to walk in my statutes and keep my decrees, so you will do them (Acts 21:20).
Eze 36:28 Then you will inhabit the land that I gave to your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your Divine One.
Eze 36:29 For I will save you from all of your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and multiply it. I will no longer put famine upon you.
Eze 36:30 I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field, so that you will no longer bear the shame of famine among the ethnicities.

Eze 36:31 Then you will think of your wicked ways and your deeds that were not good, and you will show loathing on your faces because of your own sins and your disgusting deeds.
Eze 36:32 I am not doing this for your sake,' Lord Yehowah declares, 'let this be known to you. So be ashamed and disgraced because of your ways, house of Israel.
Eze 36:33 Lord Yehowah declares this: On the day that I purify you from all your iniquity, I will cause you to inhabit the cities and to rebuild the ruined places.
Eze 36:34 For you will plow the ruined land, until it is no longer a ruin before the eyes of all who pass by.
Eze 36:35 Then they will say, "This land was desolate, but it has become like the Garden of Eden; the desolate cities and the uninhabited ruins that were torn down are now fortified and inhabited."
Eze 36:36 Then the ethnicities around you will know that I am Yehowah, that I built up the ruins and replanted the abandoned places. I am Yehowah. I have declared it, and I will do it.
Eze 36:37 Lord Yehowah declares this: Again I will be asked by the house of Israel to do this for them, to increase them like a flock of people.
Eze 36:38 Like the flock is set apart for sacrifices, like the flock in Jerusalem at her appointment calendar festivals, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people, and they will know that I am Yehowah.'"

Ezekiel Chapter 37

Eze 37:1 The hand of Yehowah was upon me, and he brought me out by the Ruach of Yehowah and set me down in the midst of a valley; it was full of bones.
Eze 37:2 Then he made me pass through them round and round. Behold! A great many of them were in the valley. Behold! They were extremely dry.
Eze 37:3 He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones live again?” So I answered, “O Lord Yehowah, you alone know.”
Eze 37:4 Then he ordered me, “Prophesy over these bones, ‘Dry bones, listen to the Word of Yehowah.
Eze 37:5 Lord Yehowah declares this to these bones: Behold! I am about to put breath into you, and you will live.
Eze 37:6 I will place sinews over you and bring flesh onto you. I will cover you with skin and put breath within you, so you will live. Then you will know that I am Yehowah.’”
Eze 37:7 So I prophesied as I was commanded; as I prophesied, behold, a sound came, that of shaking. Then the bones drew together, bone against bone.
Eze 37:8 I looked and behold, sinews were now on them, and flesh grew up and skin covered them. But there was still no breath in them.
Eze 37:9 Then Yehowah ordered me, “Prophesy to the Ruach, prophesy, son of man and say to the Ruach, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Ruach, come from the four winds, and breathe on these who have been killed, so they may live.’”
Eze 37:10 So I prophesied as I was commanded; the breath came into them, and they lived! Then they stood on their feet, an exceedingly great military force.
Eze 37:11 Then Yehowah said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the entire house of Israel. Behold! They are saying, ‘Our bones have dried up, and our hope is gone. We have been cut off.’
Eze 37:12 Therefore, prophesy, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I will open your graves and lift you out from them, my people. I will bring you back to the land of Israel (1 Cor. 15:42; 1 Thes. 4:16).
Eze 37:13 Then you will know that I am Yehowah, when I open your graves and bring you out from them, my people.
Eze 37:14 I will place my Ruach within you, so you will live, and I will cause you to rest in your land, when you know that I am Yehowah. I declare and will do it,’” says Yehowah.
Eze 37:15 Then the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 37:16 “So now you, son of man, take one stick for yourself and write on it, ‘For Judah and for the people of Israel, his companions.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the branch of Ephraim, and for all the people of Israel, their companions.’

Eze 37:17 Bring both of them together into one stick, so that they become one in your hand.
Eze 37:18 When your people ask you, ‘Will you not tell us what these things of yours mean?’
Eze 37:19 Then answer them, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am taking the branch of Joseph that is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel his companions and joining it to the branch of Judah, so that they will make one branch, and they will become one in my hand.’
Eze 37:20 Hold in your hand the branches that you wrote on before their eyes.
Eze 37:21 Say to them, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am about to take the people of Israel from among the ethnicities where they went. I will gather them from the surrounding lands, and I will bring them to their land.
Eze 37:22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and there will be one king as king over all of them, and they will no longer be two nations. They will no longer be divided into two kingdoms.
Eze 37:23 Then they will no longer defile themselves with their idols, their disgusting things, or any of their other sins. For I will save them from all of their faithless actions with which they have sinned, and I will purify them, so they will be my people, and I will be their Divine One.
Eze 37:24 David my servant will be king over them. So there will be one shepherd over them all, and they will walk according to my decrees, and they will keep my statutes and obey them.
Eze 37:25 They will live in the land that I have given to my servant Jacob, where your fathers had stayed. They will live in it forever, they, their children, and their grandchildren, for David my servant will be their prince forever.
Eze 37:26 I will establish a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will establish them and multiply them and set my consecrated place in their midst forever.
Eze 37:27 My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their Divine One, and they will be my people.
Eze 37:28 Then the ethnicities will know that I am Yehowah who sets Israel apart, when my Set-apart Place is among them forever.’”

Ezekiel Chapter 38

Eze 38:1 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Eze 38:2 “Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal; and prophesy against him.
Eze 38:3 Say, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.
Eze 38:4 So I will turn you around and set hooks in your jaw; I will send you out with all your military force, horses and cavalry, all of them dressed in full armor, a great company with large shields and small shields, all of them holding swords!
Eze 38:5 Persia (Iran), Cush, and Put are with them, all of them with shields and helmets!
Eze 38:6 Gomer and all her troops, and Beth Togarmah, from the far parts of the north, and all its troops! Many people are with you!
Eze 38:7 Get ready! Yes, prepare yourself and your troops assembled with you, and be their commander.
Eze 38:8 You will be called after many days, and after some years, you will go to a land that has recovered from the sword and that has been gathered from many people, gathered back to the mountains of Israel that had been a continuous ruin. But the land’s people will be brought out of the ethnicities, and they will live in safety, all of them!
Eze 38:9 So you will go up as a storm goes; you will be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your troops, all the many soldiers with you.
Eze 38:10 Lord Yehowah declares this: It will happen on that Day, that plans will form in your hearts, and you will devise wicked schemes.’
Eze 38:11 Then you will say, ‘I will go up to the open land; I will go to the quiet people living in safety, all of them living where there are no walls or bars, and where there are no city gates.
Eze 38:12 I will capture booty and steal plunder, in order to bring my hand against the ruins that are newly inhabited, and against the people gathered from the ethnicities, people who are gaining livestock and property, and who are living at the center of the earth.’
Eze 38:13 Sheba and Dedan, and the traders of Tarshish with all their young warriors, they will all ask you, ‘Have you come to capture booty? Have you assembled your military force to steal plunder, to carry off silver and gold, to take livestock and property, to capture much plunder?’
Eze 38:14 Therefore, prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: On that day, when my people Israel are living securely, will you not learn about them?

Eze 38:15 You will come from your place far away in the north with a great army, all of them cavalry, a great company, a large military force.
Eze 38:16 You will attack my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. It will happen that in the last days, I will bring you against my land, so the ethnicities might know me when Gog sees my consecration.
Eze 38:17 Lord Yehowah asks this: Are you not the one of whom I spoke in former days by the hand of my servants, the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in their own time for years, that I would bring you against them?
Eze 38:18 So it will come to be in that Day, when Gog attacks the land of Israel,' Lord Yehowah declares, 'my wrath will mount up in my anger.
Eze 38:19 I have declared this in the heat of my anger and with the fire of my rage: There will certainly be a great earthquake on that day in the land of Israel.
Eze 38:20 They will shake before me, the fish of the sea and the birds of the sky, the beasts of the fields, and all the creatures that crawl on the earth, and every person who is on the surface of the land. The mountains will be thrown down, and the cliffs will fall, until every wall falls to the earth.
Eze 38:21 I will summon a sword against him on all my mountains,' Lord Yehowah declares, 'each man's sword will be against his brother.
Eze 38:22 Then I will judge them with plague, blood, flooding rains, and fiery hailstones. I will bring rains of brimstone upon him, upon his troops, and the many people with him.
Eze 38:23 For I will show my greatness and my consecration, and I will make myself known in the eyes of the many ethnicities, and they will know that I am Yehowah.'"

Ezekiel Chapter 39

Eze 39:1 “Now you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Behold! I am against you, Gog, chief of Meshech and Tubal.
Eze 39:2 I will turn you and lead you on; I will bring you up from the far north and bring you to the mountains of Israel.
Eze 39:3 Then I will knock your bow out of your left hand and make the arrows fall from your right hand.
Eze 39:4 You will fall dead on the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops, and the soldiers who are with you. I will give you to the birds of prey and the wild beasts of the fields for food.
Eze 39:5 You will fall dead on the surface of the field, for I have spoken,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 39:6 ‘Then I will send out fire on Magog and on those living in safety on the coasts, and they will know that I am Yehowah.
Eze 39:7 For I will make my set-apart name known in the midst of my people Israel, and I will no longer allow my set-apart name to be profaned; the ethnicities will know that I am Yehowah, the Set-apart One in Israel.
Eze 39:8 Behold! The Day that I have declared is coming, and it will take place,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 39:9 ‘The ones living in the cities of Israel will go out and burn the weapons, small shields, large shields, bows, arrows, the clubs and spears; they will burn them with fire for seven years.
Eze 39:10 They will not gather wood from the fields or cut down the forests, since they will burn the weapons; they will take from those who took from them; they will plunder those who plundered them,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 39:11 ‘Then it will happen on that Day, that I will make a place there for Gog, a grave in Israel, a valley for those who journey to the east of the sea. It will block those who wish to cross over. There they will bury Gog with all his multitudes. They will call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.
Eze 39:12 For seven months the house of Israel will bury them in order to purify the land.
Eze 39:13 For all the people of the land will bury them; it will be a memorable day for them when I am glorified,’ Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 39:14 ‘All the people who pass through the land will bury those who lay on the surface of the land, in order to purify it. At the end of the seventh month, they will make their search.
Eze 39:15 As these men pass through the land, when they see any human bone, they will put a marker by it, until gravediggers come and bury it in the Valley of Hamon Gog.

Eze 39:16 There will be a city there by the name of Hamonah. In this way, they will purify the land.'
Eze 39:17 Now to you, son of man, Lord Yehowah says this: Speak to all the winged birds and all the wild beasts in the fields, 'Gather together and come. Gather from all around to the sacrifice that I myself am making for you, a large sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, so that you may consume flesh and drink blood.
Eze 39:18 You will consume the flesh of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth; they will be rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, they were all fattened in Bashan.
Eze 39:19 Then you will eat fat to your satisfaction; you will drink blood until drunkenness; this will be the sacrifice that I will slaughter for you.
Eze 39:20 You will be satisfied at my table with horses, charioteers, mighty men, and all the warriors,' Lord Yehowah declares (Luke 17:37; Rev. 19:17-18; Mat. 24:28).
Eze 39:21 I will set my glory among the ethnicities, and all the ethnicities will see my judgment that I perform, and my hand that I have set against them.
Eze 39:22 The house of Israel will know that I am Yehowah their Divine One from that Day onward.
Eze 39:23 The ethnicities will know that the house of Israel went into captivity because of their iniquity by which they betrayed me, so I hid my face from them and gave them into the hand of their adversaries, so that all of them fell by the sword.
Eze 39:24 I did to them according to their uncleanness and their sins, when I hid my face from them.
Eze 39:25 Therefore, Lord Yehowah declares this: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and I will have compassion on all the house of Israel, when I act with zeal for my set-apart name.
Eze 39:26 Then they will forget their shame and all the treason in which they betrayed me. They will forget all this, when they rest in their land in safety, with no one to terrify them.
Eze 39:27 When I restore them from the people and gather them from the lands of their enemies, I will consecrate myself in the sight of many ethnicities.
Eze 39:28 Then they will know that I am Yehowah their Divine One, for I sent them into captivity among the ethnicities, but then I gathered them back to their land. I left none of them among the ethnicities.
Eze 39:29 I will no longer hide my face from them, when I pour out my Ruach on the house of Israel," Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 40

Eze 40:1 In the twenty-fifth year (c. 574 BC, Ezekiel's Jubilee year!) of our captivity at the beginning of the year (Heb. Rosh HaShanah; Spring Equinox) on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was captured, on that same day, the hand of Yehowah was upon me, and he took me there.
Eze 40:2 In visions from the Almighty, he brought me to the land of Israel. He brought me to rest on an extremely high mountain; to the south were what appeared to be buildings of a city.
Eze 40:3 Then he brought me there. Behold! A man appeared who looked like bronze. A linen cord and a measuring stick were in his hand, and he stood in the city gate.
Eze 40:4 The man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes and listen with your ears, and fix your mind on all that I am revealing to you, for you were brought here, so I could reveal them to you. Report everything that you will see to the house of Israel."
Eze 40:5 There was a wall surrounding the temple complex, and there was a measuring stick in the man's hand, three and one-tenth meters in length. The man measured the width of the wall, three and one-tenth meters, and the height, three and one-tenth meters.
Eze 40:6 Then he went to the temple gate that faced east and up its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate, one stick in width, and the other threshold, one stick wide.
Eze 40:7 The guard chambers were each three and one-tenth meters long and three and one-tenth meters wide; there were two and three-quarters meters between any two of the chambers, and the threshold of the temple gate by the temple portico was three and one-tenth meters wide.
Eze 40:8 He measured the portico of the gate; it was one stick long.
Eze 40:9 He measured the portico of the gate. It was three and one-tenth of a meter wide. The doorposts were one meter wide. This was the portico of the gate facing the temple.
Eze 40:10 There were three guard chambers at the gate, and they were on either side of the gate. They all measured the same. The wall separating them all from each other also measured the same.
Eze 40:11 Then the man measured the width of the gateway entrance, five and two-fifths meters; and he measured the length of the gateway entrance, seven meters.
Eze 40:12 He measured the wall that was bordering the front of the chambers, one-half meter high. The chambers measured three and one-tenth meters on each side.

Eze 40:13 Then he measured the gateway from the roof of one chamber to that of the next chamber, thirteen and one-half meters, from the entrance of the first chamber to that of the second.
Eze 40:14 Then he measured the wall that went between the guard chambers, thirty-two meters long; he measured as far as the gate's portico.
Eze 40:15 The entrance from the front of the gate to the other end of the gate's portico was twenty-seven meters.
Eze 40:16 There were narrow windows in the chambers, and in the walls that separated them all around; it was the same for the portico, and all the windows were on the inner side. There were carvings of palm trees on the walls.
Eze 40:17 Then the man brought me to the outer courtyard of the temple. Behold, there were rooms, and there was pavement in the courtyard, with thirty rooms next to the pavement.
Eze 40:18 The pavement went up to the side of the gates, and its width was the same as the gates' length. This was the lower pavement.
Eze 40:19 Then the man measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner gate; it was fifty-four meters on the east side and the same on the north side.
Eze 40:20 Then he measured the length and width of the gate that was at the north of the outer court.
Eze 40:21 There were three chambers on either side of that gate, and the gate and its portico measured the same as the main gate, twenty-seven meters in total length and thirteen and one-half meters in width.
Eze 40:22 Its windows, portico, chambers, and its palm trees corresponded to the gate that faced east. Seven steps went up to it and to its portico.
Eze 40:23 There was a gate to the inner courtyard in front of the gate facing north, just as also there was a gate to the east; the man measured from one gate to the other gate, fifty-four meters in distance.
Eze 40:24 Next, the man brought me to the gate of the southern entrance, and its walls and portico measured the same as the other outer gate.
Eze 40:25 There were narrow windows in the gateway and its portico just as at that gate. The south gate and its portico measured twenty-five meters in length and thirteen and one-half meters in width.
Eze 40:26 There were seven steps up to the gate and its portico, and there were carvings of palm trees on the walls on either side.
Eze 40:27 There was a gate to the inner courtyard on the southern side, and the man measured from that gate to the gate of the south entrance, fifty-four meters in distance.
Eze 40:28 Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by way of its southern gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates.

Eze 40:29 Its chambers, walls, and porticos measured the same as the other gates; there were windows all around in the portico. The inner gate and its portico measured twenty-seven meters long and thirteen and one-half meters wide.
Eze 40:30 There were also porticos all around the inner wall; these were thirteen and one-half meters long and two and three-quarters meters wide.
Eze 40:31 This portico faced the outer courtyard with carved palm trees on its walls and eight steps going up to it.
Eze 40:32 Then the man brought me to the inner courtyard by the eastern way and measured the gate, which had the same measurements as the other gates.
Eze 40:33 Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The inner gate and its portico measured twenty-seven meters long and thirteen and one-half meters wide.
Eze 40:34 Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up to it.
Eze 40:35 Next, the man brought me to the northern gate and measured it; it measured the same as the other gates.
Eze 40:36 Its chambers, walls, and portico measured the same as the other gates, and there were windows all around. The gateway and its portico measured twenty-seven meters long and thirteen and one-half meters wide.
Eze 40:37 Its portico faced the outer courtyard; it had palm trees on either side of it and eight steps going up to it.
Eze 40:38 There was a room with a door by each of the inner gateways. This was where they rinsed the burnt offerings.
Eze 40:39 There were two tables on either side of each portico, on which the burnt offering was slaughtered, and also the sin offering and the guilt offering.
Eze 40:40 By the wall of the courtyard, going up to the gate to the north, there were two tables. Also, on the other side there were two tables at the gate's portico.
Eze 40:41 There were four tables on either side by the gate; they slaughtered animals on the eight tables.
Eze 40:42 There were four tables of cut stone for the burnt offerings, four-fifths of a meter long, four-fifths of a meter wide, and one-half meter tall. On them, they laid the tools with which they slaughtered the burnt offerings for the sacrifices.
Eze 40:43 Two-pronged hooks eight centimeters long were fastened in the portico all around, and the flesh of the offerings would be put on the tables.
Eze 40:44 Near the inner gate, in the inner courtyard, were singers' chambers. One of these rooms was on the north side, facing south, and one on the east side, facing north.

Eze 40:45 Then the man said to me, “This room facing south is for the priests who are on duty in the temple.
Eze 40:46 The room facing north was for the priests on duty at the altar. These are the sons of Zadok who come near to Yehowah to serve him; they are among the sons of Levi.”
Eze 40:47 Next, he measured the courtyard, fifty-four meters long and fifty-four meters wide in a square, with the altar in front of the temple.
Eze 40:48 Then the man brought me to the portico of the temple and measured its doorposts, they were two and three-quarters meters thick on either side. The entryway itself was seven meters wide, and the walls on each side of it were one and three-fifths meters wide.
Eze 40:49 The sanctuary’s portico was eleven meters long, and its width was six meters. There were ten steps that went up to it, and columns that stood on either side of it.

Ezekiel Chapter 41

Eze 41:1 Then the man brought me into the temple's Set-apart Place and measured the doorposts, three and one-tenth meters wide on either side, which was the width of the tent.
Eze 41:2 The width of the doorway was five and two-fifths meters; the wall on each side was two and three-quarters meters long. Then the man measured the dimensions of the Set-apart Place, twenty-two meters long and eleven meters wide.
Eze 41:3 Then the man went into the Most Set-apart Place and measured the posts of the doorway, one meter, and the doorway was three and one-tenth meters wide. The walls on either side were three and four-fifths meters wide.
Eze 41:4 Then he measured the room's length, eleven meters. Its width, eleven meters to the front of the temple hall. Then he said to me, "This is the Most Set-apart Place."
Eze 41:5 Then the man measured the wall of the temple, it was three and one-tenth meters thick. The width of each side room around the temple was two meters wide.
Eze 41:6 There were side rooms on three levels, one room above another, thirty rooms on each level. There were ledges around the wall of the temple, to support all of the side rooms, for there was no support put in the wall of the temple.
Eze 41:7 So the side rooms widened and went around going up, for the temple went around higher and higher all around; the rooms widened as the temple went up, and a stairway went up to the highest level, through the middle level.
Eze 41:8 Then I saw a raised part all around the temple, the foundation for the side chambers; it measured a full stick in height, three and one-tenth meters.
Eze 41:9 The width of the wall of the side rooms on the outside was two and three-quarters meters. There was an open space to the outside of these rooms in the sanctuary.
Eze 41:10 On the other side of this open space were the priests' outer side rooms; this space was eleven meters wide all around the sanctuary.
Eze 41:11 There were doors into the side rooms from another open space, one doorway was on the north side and the other on the south side. The width of this open area was two and three-quarters meters all around.
Eze 41:12 The building that faced the courtyard on the west side was thirty-eight meters wide. Its wall measured two and three-quarters meters thick all around, and it was forty-nine meters long.
Eze 41:13 Then the man measured the sanctuary, fifty-four meters long. The separated building, its wall, and the courtyard also measured fifty-four meters in length.

Eze 41:14 The width of the front of the courtyard in front of the sanctuary was also fifty-four meters.
Eze 41:15 Then the man measured the length of the building behind the sanctuary, to its west, and the galleries on either side, fifty-four meters. The Set-apart Place and the portico,
Eze 41:16 the inner walls and the windows, including the narrow windows and the galleries all around on three levels, were all paneled in wood.
Eze 41:17 Above the entryway to the inner sanctuary and spaced along the walls there was a measured pattern.
Eze 41:18 It was decorated with cherubim and palm trees; with a palm tree between each cherub, and each cherub had two faces:
Eze 41:19 The face of a man looked toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion looked toward a palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around the entire temple.
Eze 41:20 From the ground to above the doorway, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the outer wall of the temple.
Eze 41:21 The gate posts of the Set-apart Place were square and they all looked like each other.
Eze 41:22 The wooden altar in front of the Set-apart Place was one and three-fifths meters high and one meter long on each side. Its corner posts, base, and frame were made of wood. Then the man said to me, “This is the table that stands before Yehowah.”
Eze 41:23 There were double doors for the Set-apart Place and the Most Set-apart Place.
Eze 41:24 These doors had two hinged door panels each, two panels for one door and two panels for the other.
Eze 41:25 Carved on them, on the doors of the Set-apart Place, were cherubim and palm trees just as the walls were decorated, and there was a wooden roof over the portico at the front.
Eze 41:26 There were narrow windows and palm trees on either side of the portico. These were the side rooms of the temple, and they also had overhanging roofs.

Ezekiel Chapter 42

Eze 42:1 Next, the man sent me out to the outer courtyard on the north side, and he brought me to rooms in front of the outer courtyard and the northern outer wall.
Eze 42:2 Those rooms were fifty-four meters along their front and twenty-seven meters wide.
Eze 42:3 Some of those rooms faced the inner courtyard and were eleven meters away from the sanctuary. There were three levels of rooms, and the ones above looked down on the ones below and were open to them, having a walkway. Some of the rooms looked out onto the outer courtyard.
Eze 42:4 A passage five and two-fifths meters wide and fifty-four meters long ran in front of the rooms. The rooms' doors were toward the north.
Eze 42:5 But the upper halls were smaller, for the walkways took away from them more space than they did in the lowest and middle levels of the building.
Eze 42:6 For the halls on the third story had no columns, unlike the courtyards, which did have columns. So the highest level's rooms were smaller in size compared to the rooms in the lowest and middle levels.
Eze 42:7 The outside wall ran along the rooms toward the outer courtyard, the courtyard that was in front of the rooms. That wall was twenty-seven meters long.
Eze 42:8 The length of the rooms of the outer courtyard was twenty-seven meters, and the rooms facing the sanctuary were fifty-four meters long.
Eze 42:9 There was an entrance to the lowest rooms from the east side, coming from the outer courtyard.
Eze 42:10 Along the wall of the outer courtyard on the eastern side of the outer courtyard, in front of the sanctuary's inner courtyard, there were also rooms.
Eze 42:11 The walkway in front of them was the same in length and width as the rooms along the northern side. They also had the same number of entrances.
Eze 42:12 On the south side were doors into rooms that were just the same as on the north side. A passage on the inside had a door at its head, and the passage opened into the various rooms. On the east side, there was a doorway into the passage at one end.
Eze 42:13 Then the man said to me, "The northern rooms and the southern rooms that are in front of the outer courtyard are set-apart rooms where the priests who work nearest to Yehowah may eat the most set-apart food. They will put the most set-apart things there, the food offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, for this is a Set-apart Place.
Eze 42:14 When the priests enter there, they must not go out of the Set-apart Place to the outer court, without laying aside the clothes in which they served, since these are set apart. So they must dress in other clothes before going near the people."

Eze 42:15 The man completed measuring the inner temple and then took me out to the gate that faced the east and measured all the surrounding area there.
Eze 42:16 He measured the east side with a measuring stick, 250 meters with the measuring stick.
Eze 42:17 He measured the north side, 250 meters with the measuring stick.
Eze 42:18 He also measured the south side, 250 meters with the measuring stick.
Eze 42:19 He also turned and measured the west side, 250 meters with the measuring stick.
Eze 42:20 He measured it on four sides, its wall with it all around had a length of 250 meters and a width of 250 meters to separate between the set apart and the profane.

Ezekiel Chapter 43

Eze 43:1 The man then brought me to the gate that opened to the east.
Eze 43:2 Behold! The glory of the Mighty One of Israel came from the east; his voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with his glory.
Eze 43:3 It was like the vision that I saw when he had come to destroy the city, and like the vision that I saw at the Chebar Canal, and I fell on my face.
Eze 43:4 So the glory of Yehowah came to the temple by way of the gate that opened to the east.
Eze 43:5 Then the Ruach lifted me up and brought me into the inner court. Behold! The glory of Yehowah was filling the temple.
Eze 43:6 The man was standing beside me, and I heard someone else speaking to me from the temple.
Eze 43:7 He declared to me, “Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will live in the midst of the people of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no longer profane my set-apart name, they or their kings, with their faithlessness or with the corpses of their kings at their high places.
Eze 43:8 They will no longer profane my set-apart name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their gateposts next to my gateposts, with nothing but a wall between me and them. They profaned my set-apart name with their disgusting actions, so I consumed them with my anger.
Eze 43:9 Now let them remove their faithlessness and the corpses of their kings from before me, and I will live in their midst forever.
Eze 43:10 Son of man, you yourself must tell the house of Israel about this temple, so they will be ashamed of their iniquities. They should think about this description.
Eze 43:11 For if they are ashamed of all that they have done, then reveal to them the design of the temple, its details, its exits, its entrances, and all its designs, all its decrees and law. Then write this down before their eyes, so they will keep to all its design and all its rules, so as to obey them.
Eze 43:12 This is the regulation for the temple: From the peak of the hill to all the surrounding border around it, it will be most set-apart. Behold! This is the regulation for the temple.
Eze 43:13 These will be the measurements of the altar using the same measuring stick as was used for the temple. So the gutter around the altar will be one-half meter deep, and its width will also be one-half meter. The border around its surrounding edge will be twenty-three centimeters wide. This will be the base of the altar.

Eze 43:14 From the gutter at the ground level up to the lower ledge of the altar is one meter, and that ledge itself is one-half meter wide. Then from the small ledge up to the large edge of the altar, it is two meters, and the large edge is one-half meter wide.
Eze 43:15 The altar for the burnt offerings is two meters high, and there are four horns pointing upward on the altar.
Eze 43:16 The altar is six and one-half meters long and six and one-half meters wide, a square.
Eze 43:17 Its border is seven and three-fifths meters long and seven and three-fifths meters wide on each of its four sides, and its rim is twenty-seven centimeters wide. The gutter is one-half meter wide all around with its steps facing east."
Eze 43:18 Next, he said to me, "Son of man, Lord Yehowah says this: These are the regulations for the altar on the day they make it, for raising the burnt offering onto it, and for sprinkling blood on it.
Eze 43:19 You will give a bull from the cattle as a sin offering for the Levitical priests who are the descendants of Zadok, those who come near to me to serve me," Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 43:20 "Then you will take some of its blood and place it on the altar's four horns, on the four sides of its edge, and on the surrounding rim; you will cleanse it and make atonement for it.
Eze 43:21 Then take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the appointed part of the temple area outside of the sanctuary.
Eze 43:22 Then on the second day, you will offer a male goat without blemish from the goats as a sin offering; the priests will cleanse the altar just as they cleansed it with the bull.
Eze 43:23 When you finish its cleansing, offer an unblemished bull from the cattle and an unblemished ram from the flock.
Eze 43:24 Offer them before Yehowah; the priests will throw salt onto them and raise them up as a burnt offering to Yehowah.
Eze 43:25 You must prepare a male goat as a sin offering daily for seven days, and the priests must also prepare an unblemished bull of the cattle and unblemished ram from the flock.
Eze 43:26 They must atone for the altar for seven days and purify it, and in this way, they must consecrate it.
Eze 43:27 They must complete these days, and on the eighth day and onward, it will come about that the priests will prepare your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar, and I will accept you," Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 44

Eze 44:1 Then the man brought me back to the outer sanctuary gate that faced east; it was closed tightly.
Eze 44:2 Yehowah declared to me, “This gate has been sealed shut; it will not be opened. No man will go through it, for Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, has come through it, so it has been closed tightly.
Eze 44:3 The ruler of Israel will sit in it to eat food before Yehowah. He will enter by way of the gate’s portico and go out the same way.”
Eze 44:4 Next, he brought me by way of the northern gate that faces the temple. So I looked and behold, the glory of Yehowah filled the temple of Yehowah, and I fell on my face.
Eze 44:5 Then Yehowah said to me, “Son of man, set your heart and look with your eyes and listen with your ears to all that I am declaring to you, to all the statutes of the temple of Yehowah and all its regulations. Think about the temple’s entrance and exits.
Eze 44:6 Then say to the rebellious ones, the house of Israel, ‘Lord Yehowah declares this: Let all of your disgusting actions be enough for you, house of Israel,
Eze 44:7 that you brought foreigners with uncircumcised hearts and uncircumcised flesh to be in my sanctuary, profaning my temple, while you were offering me food, fat, and blood, you have broken my covenant by all your disgusting actions.
Eze 44:8 You have not carried out your duties regarding my set-apart things, but you appointed others to take up your duties, and you assigned them to care for my Set-apart Place.
Eze 44:9 Lord Yehowah declares this: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, from any of those who live among the people of Israel, may enter my Set-apart Place.
Eze 44:10 Yet the Levites went far from me, they wandered away from me, going after their idols, but they will pay for their sin.
Eze 44:11 They are servants in my sanctuary, watching the gates of the temple and serving in the temple, and they slaughter the burnt offerings and the people’s sacrifices, and they will stand before the people and serve them.
Eze 44:12 But because they performed the sacrifices before their idols, they became stumbling blocks for sin for the house of Israel. Therefore, I will lift up my hand to swear an oath against them,’ Lord Yehowah declares, ‘they will bear their punishment.

Eze 44:13 They will not come near me to act as my priests or to approach any of my set-apart things, the most set-apart things. Instead, they will bear their reproach and their guilt for the disgusting actions that they have done.
Eze 44:14 But I will place them as keepers of the work in the temple, for all of its duties and everything that is done in it.
Eze 44:15 Then the Levitical priests, those sons of Zadok who fulfilled the duties of my sanctuary when the people of Israel were wandering away from me, they will come near me to worship me. They will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood,' Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 44:16 'They will come to my sanctuary; they will approach my table to worship me and to fulfill their duties to me.
Eze 44:17 So it will be that when they come to the gates of the inner courtyard, they will have to dress in linen clothes, for they must not come in wool inside the gates of the inner court and its temple.
Eze 44:18 There should be linen turbans on their heads and linen underwear on their hips. They must not dress in clothes that make them sweat.
Eze 44:19 When they go out to the outer courtyard, to the outer courtyard in order to go to the people, they must take off the clothes they wore when they served; they must take them off and lay them down in a set-apart room, so they do not make other people set-apart by contact with their special clothing.
Eze 44:20 Also, they must neither shave their heads nor allow their hair to hang loosely, but they must trim the hair of their heads (1 Cor. 11:14).
Eze 44:21 No priest may drink wine when he comes to the inner court,
Eze 44:22 nor take a widow or a divorced woman as a wife for himself, but only a virgin from the line of the house of Israel or a widow who was previously married to a priest.
Eze 44:23 For they will teach my people the difference between the set-apart and the profane; they will make them know the unclean from the clean.
Eze 44:24 In a dispute they will stand to judge with my decrees; they must be just. They will keep my law and my statutes in every appointment calendar festival, and they will celebrate my consecrated Sabbaths.
Eze 44:25 They will not go to a dead person so as to become unclean, unless it is their father or mother, son or daughter, brother or a sister who has not had sex with a man; otherwise, they will become unclean.
Eze 44:26 After a priest has become unclean, people will count seven days for him.
Eze 44:27 Before the day he comes to the Set-apart Place, to the inner courtyard to serve in the Set-apart Place, he must bring a sin offering for himself,' Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 44:28 'This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance, and you must give them no property in Israel; I will be their property!

Eze 44:29 They will eat the food offerings, the sin offerings, the guilt offerings, and everything devoted to Yehowah in Israel will be theirs.
Eze 44:30 The best of the firstfruits of all things and every contribution, anything from all of your contributions will belong to the priests, and you will give the best of your meal offerings to the priests, so that blessing may rest on your household.
Eze 44:31 The priests will not eat any carrion or animal torn by a beast, whether bird or beast.

Ezekiel Chapter 45

Eze 45:1 When you cast lots to divide up the land as an inheritance, you must make an offering to Yehowah; this offering will be a consecrated part of the land, thirteen and one-half kilometers in length, and five and two-fifths kilometers wide. It will be set-apart, all its area round about.
Eze 45:2 From this, there will be a 270 meters by 270 meters square surrounding the Set-apart Place, with a surrounding border twenty-seven meters wide.
Eze 45:3 From this area you will measure a portion that is thirteen and one-half kilometers long and five and two-fifths kilometers wide; it will be a Set-apart Place for you; a Most Set-apart Place.
Eze 45:4 It will be a Set-apart Place in the land for the priests who serve Yehowah, who come near Yehowah to serve him. It will be a place for their houses and a consecrated area for the Set-apart Place.
Eze 45:5 So it will be thirteen and one-half kilometers long and two and three-quarters kilometers wide, and it will be for towns for the Levites who serve in the temple.
Eze 45:6 You will designate an area for the city, two and three-quarters kilometers wide and thirteen and one-half kilometers long, that will be next to the area reserved for the Set-apart Place; this city will belong to all the house of Israel.
Eze 45:7 The prince's land will be on both sides of the area reserved for the Set-apart Place and the city. It will be to their west and to their east. The length will correspond to the length of one of those portions, from the west to the east.
Eze 45:8 This land will be property for the prince in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress my people; instead, they will give the land to the house of Israel, for their tribes.'
Eze 45:9 Lord Yehowah declares this: 'It is enough for you, princes of Israel! Remove violence and strife; do justice and righteousness! Quit your evictions of my people,' Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 45:10 'You must have accurate scales, accurate ephahs, and accurate baths:
Eze 45:11 The ephah and the bath will be the same amount, 22 liters, so that a bath (22 liters) will be a tenth of a homer (220 liters); the ephah (22 liters) will be a tenth of a homer (220 liters). Their measure will be corresponding to the homer (220 liters).
Eze 45:12 The weight will equal 20 small weights; fifty-weight will make a large weight for you (Num. 18:16; Luke 19:13).
Eze 45:13 This is the contribution that you must present: 3.67 liters for every 220 liters of wheat, and you will give 3.67 liters for every 220 liters of barley.

Eze 45:14 The regulation offering of oil will be 2.2 liters for every cor (220 liters), which is ten baths (220 liters), or for every homer (220 liters), since a homer is also ten baths (220 liters).
Eze 45:15 One sheep or goat from the flock for every two hundred animals from the watered regions of Israel will be used for any burnt offering or peace offering to make atonement for the people,' Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 45:16 'All the people of the land will give this contribution to the prince in Israel.
Eze 45:17 It will be the prince's responsibility to furnish animals for the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings at the feasts and the beginning of the month celebrations, and on the Sabbaths, all the appointment calendar festivals of the house of Israel. He will provide for the sin offerings, the grain offerings, the burnt offerings, and the peace offerings for atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.'
Eze 45:18 Lord Yehowah says this: 'On the first of the first month (Gen. 8:13), you will take an unblemished bull from the herd and perform a sin offering for the sanctuary.
Eze 45:19 The priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering and place it on the doorposts of the temple and on the four corners of the border of the altar, and on the doorposts of the gate to the inner court.
Eze 45:20 You will do this on the seventh of the month for each person's sin by accident or ignorance; in this way, you will atone for the temple.
Eze 45:21 On the fourteenth day of the first month, there will be for you a feast, a seven day festival (Passover). You will eat unleavened bread.
Eze 45:22 On that day, the prince will prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull as a sin offering.
Eze 45:23 For the seven days of the feast, the prince will prepare a burnt offering for Yehowah: seven bulls and seven unblemished rams each day for seven days, and a male goat each day as a sin offering.
Eze 45:24 Then the prince will perform a food offering of 22 liters for each bull and 22 liters of flour for each ram with six liters of oil for each 22 liter offering.
Eze 45:25 On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, at the Feast of Tabernacles, the prince will perform offerings on these seven days: sin offerings, burnt offerings, food offerings, and offerings of oil.'

Ezekiel Chapter 46

Eze 46:1 Lord Yehowah says this: ‘The gate of the inner courtyard, facing east, will be shut for the six days of work, but on the Sabbath it will be opened, and on the beginning day of the month it will be opened.
Eze 46:2 The prince will enter the outer courtyard by the way of the gate and its portico from outside, and he will stand before the doorposts of the inner gate, while the priests perform his burnt offering and peace offering. Then he will worship at the threshold of the inner gate and go out, but the gate will not be shut until dusk.
Eze 46:3 The people of the land will also worship before Yehowah at the entrance to this gate on the Sabbaths and the beginning of the months.
Eze 46:4 The burnt offering that the prince offers to Yehowah on the Sabbath day will be six unblemished lambs and an unblemished ram.
Eze 46:5 The grain offering with the ram will be 22 liters, and the grain offering with the lambs will be what he wishes to give, and six liters of oil with each 22 liters of grain.
Eze 46:6 On the first day of the month, you must offer an unblemished bull from a herd, six lambs, and an unblemished ram.
Eze 46:7 He must make a grain offering of 22 liters for the bull and 22 liters for the ram, and what he wishes to give for the lambs, and six liters of oil for every 22 liters of grain.
Eze 46:8 When the prince enters by the way of the gate and its portico, he must leave by the same way.
Eze 46:9 But when the people of the land come before Yehowah at the appointment calendar festivals, anyone entering through the north gate to worship must leave through the south gate; and anyone entering through the south gate must leave through the north gate. No one may turn back to the gate through which he entered, for he must go out straight ahead.
Eze 46:10 The prince must be in their midst; when they go in, he must go in, and when they leave, he must leave.
Eze 46:11 At the feasts and the appointment calendar festivals, the grain offering must be 22 liters of grain for the bull and 22 liters for the ram, and whatever he wishes to give with the lambs, and six liters of oil for every 22 liter offering.
Eze 46:12 When the prince gives a freewill offering, either a burnt offering or a peace offering to Yehowah, he must open the gate for it facing east, and perform his burnt offering and his peace offering as he does it on the day of the Sabbath; then he must go out and shut the gate after he has gone out.
Eze 46:13 In addition, you will give an unblemished lamb one year old as a burnt offering to Yehowah daily; you will do this dawn after dawn.

Eze 46:14 You will give a grain offering with it dawn after dawn, 3.5 liters and two liters of oil to moisten the flour of the grain offering for Yehowah, according to a permanent statute.
Eze 46:15 They will prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, dawn after dawn, a permanent burnt offering.
Eze 46:16 Lord Yehowah says this: If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance. It will be the property of his sons, it is an inheritance.
Eze 46:17 But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, then it will be that servant's until the year of liberty (Jubilee), and then it will return to the prince. His inheritance will certainly be for his sons.
Eze 46:18 The prince will not take the people's inheritance away from their own property; he must provide for his sons from his own property, so that my people will not be scattered, each man from his own property.'"
Eze 46:19 Next, the man brought me through the entrance at the gate to the set-apart rooms for the priests, which faced north, and behold! There was a place toward the west.
Eze 46:20 He said to me, "This is the place where the priests must boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they must bake the grain offering. They must not bring the offerings into the outer courtyard, for then the people would be consecrated."
Eze 46:21 Then he brought me to the outer courtyard, and he led me past the four corners of that courtyard, and I saw that in every corner of the courtyard there was another court.
Eze 46:22 In the four corners of the outer courtyard there were four small courtyards, twenty-two meters long and sixteen meters wide. They were the same dimensions for all four of the courtyards.
Eze 46:23 There was a row made of stone all around the four of them, and cooking hearths were under the stone row.
Eze 46:24 The man said to me, "These are the places where the temple servants will boil the people's sacrifices."

Ezekiel Chapter 47

Eze 47:1 Then the man took me back to the entrance to the temple, and there was water flowing out from under the temple threshold toward the east, for the front of the temple faced east, and the water was flowing down the south side of the temple, to the right of the altar.
Eze 47:2 So he brought me out through the northern gate and led me around to the gate facing east, and there the water was flowing from this gate on its south side.
Eze 47:3 As the man was going toward the east, there was a measuring line in his hand; he measured off 540 meters and brought me through the water to ankle-deep water.
Eze 47:4 Then he measured 540 meters again and brought me through the water to knee-deep water; and he measured another 540 meters and brought me to hip-deep water.
Eze 47:5 Next, he measured off 540 meters farther, here it was a river that I was not able to pass, it was so deep. One could only swim it.
Eze 47:6 The man asked me, “Son of man, do you see this?” And he brought me out and had me walk back along the riverbank.
Eze 47:7 As I walked back, there the riverbank had many trees on this side and also on the other side.
Eze 47:8 The man said to me, “This water is going out to the eastern territory and down to the Arabah; this water flows into the Dead Sea and will make it fresh.
Eze 47:9 Every living creature which swarms where the water goes; there will be many fish for these waters flow there. It will make the salt water fresh. Everything will live wherever the river goes.
Eze 47:10 Then it will happen, that fishermen of Engedi will stand by the water, and there will be a place to dry out the fishing nets by Eneglaim. There will be many kinds of fish in the Dead Sea, like the fish in the Mediterranean Sea for their abundance (John 21:11).
Eze 47:11 But the Dead Sea’s swamps and marshes will not be made fresh; they will be for providing salt.
Eze 47:12 Beside this river on its banks, on both sides, all kinds of edible trees will grow. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will never stop appearing. The trees will bear fruit for each month, since their water comes from the Sanctuary. Their fruit will be food, and their leaves will be medicine (Rev. 22:1-2).
Eze 47:13 Lord Yehowah says this: This will be the way that you divide the land up for the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph will have two portions.

Eze 47:14 You, each man and brother among you, will inherit it. As I lifted up my hand to swear to give it to your fathers, in the same way, this land has become your inheritance.
Eze 47:15 This will be the boundary of the land on the north side from the Mediterranean Sea by way of Hethlon, and then to Zedad Lebo Hamath.
Eze 47:16 Then the boundary will go to Berothah, to Sibraim, which is between Damascus and Hamath, and then to Hazer Hatticon, which is beside the boundary of Hauran.
Eze 47:17 So the boundary will go from the sea to Hazar Enon on the border with Damascus and Hamath to the north. This will be the north side.
Eze 47:18 On the east side, between Hauran and Damascus and between Gilead and the land of Israel will be the Jordan River. You must measure from the border to the eastern sea as far as Tamar.
Eze 47:19 Then the south side: south of Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia), the brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea, and the southern side toward the south.
Eze 47:20 Then the western boundary will be the Mediterranean Sea to where it goes opposite Hamath (modern Hama, Syria). This will be the western side.
Eze 47:21 In this way, you will divide this land for yourselves, for the tribes of Israel.
Eze 47:22 So you will distribute the inheritances for yourselves and for the sojourning foreigners in your midst, those who have given birth to children in your midst, and who are with you, like the native born people of Israel. You will throw lots for inheritances among the tribes of Israel.
Eze 47:23 Then it will happen, that the sojourning foreigner will be with the tribe among whom he is living. You must give him an inheritance," Lord Yehowah declares.

Ezekiel Chapter 48

Eze 48:1 “These are the names of the tribes. The tribe of Dan will receive one portion of land; its boundary will run along the northern boundary of Israel by way of Hethlon and Lebo Hamath. Its boundary will go on to Hazar Enan and along the border with Damascus to the north and then on to Hamath. Dan’s boundary will go from the east all the way to the Mediterranean Sea.
Eze 48:2 To the south of Dan’s border will be the land of Asher, one portion of land, going from the east to the west.
Eze 48:3 South of the border with Asher will be the one portion of Naphtali, extending from the east side to the west side.
Eze 48:4 South of the border with Naphtali will be the one portion of Manasseh, extending from the east side to the west side.
Eze 48:5 South of the border of Manasseh from the eastern side to the west side will be Ephraim, one portion.
Eze 48:6 South of the border of Ephraim from the eastern side to the west side will be Reuben, one portion.
Eze 48:7 Beside the border with Reuben from the eastern side to the west side will be Judah, one portion.
Eze 48:8 The offering of land that you will make will be along the border with Judah and extend from the east side to the west side; it will be thirteen and one-half kilometers wide. Its length will correspond to one tribe’s portion from the east side to the west side, and the temple will be in the middle of it.
Eze 48:9 This land that you will offer up to Yehowah will be thirteen and one-half kilometers long and five and two-fifths kilometers in width.
Eze 48:10 These will be the assignments of this set-apart portion of land: The priests will have land assigned to them measuring thirteen and one-half kilometers in width on the north side; five and two-fifths kilometers in width on the west side; five and two-fifths kilometers in width on the east side; and thirteen and one-half kilometers in length on the south side, with the Set-apart Place of Yehowah in the middle of it.
Eze 48:11 This will be for the consecration of the priests of the line of Zadok, who have served me faithfully, and who did not go astray when the people of Israel went astray, as the Levites did.
Eze 48:12 The offering for them will be a portion of this most set-apart land, extending to the border of the Levites.
Eze 48:13 The Levites’ land along the border with the priests’ land will be thirteen and one-half kilometers long and five and two-fifths kilometers wide. The entire length of the two tracts of land will be thirteen and one-half kilometers long and eleven kilometers wide.

Eze 48:14 They must not sell it or exchange it; none of this firstfruits of the land of Israel must ever be separated from these tracts, for it all is set-apart to Yehowah.
Eze 48:15 The remaining land, two and three-quarters kilometers wide and thirteen and one-half kilometers long, will be for the collective use of the city, the houses, and the pastureland; the city will be in its midst.
Eze 48:16 These will be the city's measurements: The north side will be two and two-fifths kilometers long; the south side will be two and two-fifths kilometers long; the east side will be two and two-fifths kilometers long; and the west side will be two and two-fifths kilometers long.
Eze 48:17 There will be pasture for the city toward the north, 135 meters deep; to the south, 135 meters deep; to the east, 135 meters deep, and to the west, 135 meters deep.
Eze 48:18 The remaining area of the set-apart offering will stretch for five and two-fifths kilometers to the east and five and two-fifths kilometers to the west. It will stretch along the border of the set-apart offering, and its produce will be food for those working in the city.
Eze 48:19 The people who work in the city, people belonging to all the tribes of Israel, will farm that land.
Eze 48:20 All the land offering will measure thirteen and one-half kilometers by thirteen and one-half kilometers. In this way, you will make the set-apart offering of land, together with the land for the city.
Eze 48:21 The rest of the land on either side of the set-apart offering and the city area will be for the prince. The prince's tract of land to the east will extend for thirteen and one-half kilometers from the boundary of the set-apart offering to the eastern border, and his tract to the west will extend for thirteen and one-half kilometers to the western border. In the middle will be the set-apart offering, and the Set-apart Place of the temple will be in its midst.
Eze 48:22 The land extending from the property of the Levites and the area of the city in its midst will be for the prince; it will be between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, this land will be for the prince.
Eze 48:23 As for the remaining tribes, their portions will also run from the eastern side to the west side. Benjamin will receive one portion.
Eze 48:24 To the south of Benjamin's boundary, running from the east side to the west, will be the land of Simeon, one portion.
Eze 48:25 To the south of Simeon's boundary, running from the east side to the west, will be the land of Issachar, one portion.
Eze 48:26 To the south of Issachar's boundary, running from the east side to the west side, will be the land of Zebulun, one portion.
Eze 48:27 To the south of Zebulun's boundary, running from the east side to the west side, will be the land of Gad, one portion.

Eze 48:28 The southern boundary of Gad will extend from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh (modern Tabuk, Saudi Arabia), and farther to the brook of Egypt, and then to the Mediterranean Sea.
Eze 48:29 This is the land for which you will cast lots; it will be the inheritance of the tribes of Israel. These will be their portions," Lord Yehowah declares.
Eze 48:30 "These will be the exits from the city: On the north side, which will measure two and two-fifths kilometers in length,
Eze 48:31 will be three city gates on the north, named for tribes of Israel: one gate for Reuben, one gate for Judah, and one gate for Levi.
Eze 48:32 On the east side, which will measure two and two-fifths kilometers in length, will be three gates: one gate for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin, and one gate for Dan.
Eze 48:33 On the south side, which will measure two and two-fifths kilometers in length, will be three gates: one gate for Simeon, one gate for Issachar, and one gate for Zebulun.
Eze 48:34 On the west side, which will measure two and two-fifths kilometers in length, will be three gates: one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher, and one gate for Naphtali.
Eze 48:35 The distance around the city will be nine and three-fifths kilometers; from that day on, the city's name will be "Yehowah is There".

Book of Daniel

Daniel Chapter 1

Dan 1:1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah (c. 606 BC), Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylonia came to Jerusalem and surrounded the city to cut off all supplies to it.
Dan 1:2 The Lord gave Nebuchadnezzar victory over Jehoiakim king of Judah, and he gave him some of the consecrated objects from the temple of the Almighty. He brought them into the land of Babylonia, to the house of his deity, and he placed the consecrated objects in his deity's treasury.
Dan 1:3 The king spoke to Ashpenaz, his chief official, to bring in some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility,
Dan 1:4 young men without blemish, attractive in appearance, skillful in all wisdom, filled with knowledge and understanding, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the Babylonians' literature and language.
Dan 1:5 The king counted out for them a daily portion of his delicacies and some of the wine that he drank. These young men were to be trained for three years, and after that, they would serve the king.
Dan 1:6 Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, some of the people of Judah.
Dan 1:7 The chief official gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.
Dan 1:8 But Daniel intended in his mind that he would not pollute himself with the king's delicacies or with the wine that he drank. So he asked permission from the chief official that he might not pollute himself.
Dan 1:9 Now the Almighty gave Daniel grace and compassion through the respect that the chief official had for him.
Dan 1:10 The chief official said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my master the king. He has commanded what food and drink you should have. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men of your own age? The king might have my head because of you."
Dan 1:11 Then Daniel spoke to the steward whom the chief official had assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,
Dan 1:12 "Please test us, your servants, for ten days. Give us only some vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Dan 1:13 Then compare our appearance with the appearance of the young men who eat the king's delicacies, and treat us, your servants, based on what you see."
Dan 1:14 So the steward agreed with him to do this, and he tested them for ten days.
Dan 1:15 At the end of ten days their appearance was more healthy, and they were better nourished, than all the young men who ate the king's delicacies.
Dan 1:16 So the steward took away their delicacies and their wine and gave them only vegetables.
Dan 1:17 As for these four young men, the Almighty gave them knowledge and insight in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel could understand all kinds of visions and dreams.
Dan 1:18 At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.
Dan 1:19 The king spoke with them, and among the whole group there were none to compare with Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. They stood before the king, ready to serve him.
Dan 1:20 In every question of wisdom and understanding that the king asked them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and those who claimed to speak with the dead, who were in his entire kingdom.
Dan 1:21 Daniel was there until the first year of King Cyrus II (c. 536 BC).

Daniel Chapter 2

Dan 2:1 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar (c. 603 BC), he had dreams. His mind was troubled, and he could not sleep.
Dan 2:2 Then the king summoned the magicians and those who claimed to speak with the dead. He also called the sorcerers and wise men. He wanted them to tell him about his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.
Dan 2:3 The king said to them, “I have had a dream, and my mind is anxious to know what the dream means.”
Dan 2:4 Then the wise men spoke to the king in Aramaic, “King, live forever! Tell the dream to us, your servants, and we will reveal the meaning.”
Dan 2:5 The king replied to the Sages, “This matter has been settled. If you do not reveal the dream to me and interpret it, your bodies will be torn apart and your houses made into rubbish heaps.
Dan 2:6 But if you will tell me the dream and its meaning, you will receive gifts from me, a reward, and great honor. So tell to me the dream and its meaning.”
Dan 2:7 They replied again, “Let the king tell us, his servants, the dream, and we will tell you its meaning.”
Dan 2:8 The king answered, “I know for certain that you want more time, because you see how firm my decision is about this.
Dan 2:9 But if you do not tell me the dream, there is only one sentence for you. You have decided to prepare false and deceptive words that you agreed together to say to me, until I change my mind. So then tell me the dream, and then I will know you can interpret it for me.”
Dan 2:10 The Sages replied to the king, “There is not a man on earth able to meet the king’s demand. There is no great and powerful king who has demanded such a thing from any magician, or from anyone who claims to speak with the dead, or from a Sage.
Dan 2:11 What the king demands is difficult, and there is no one who can tell it to the king except the deities, and they do not live among humans.”
Dan 2:12 This made the king furiously enraged, and he gave an order to execute all the Sages in Babylon.
Dan 2:13 So the decree went out that all the Sages were to be executed. Because of this decree, they searched for Daniel and his friends, so they could be executed.
Dan 2:14 Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Arioch the commander of the king’s bodyguard, who had come to kill all the Sages of Babylon.
Dan 2:15 Daniel asked the king’s commander, “Why is the king’s decree so urgent?” So Arioch told Daniel what had happened.

Dan 2:16 Then Daniel went in and requested an appointment with the king, so that he could present the interpretation to the king.
Dan 2:17 Then Daniel went to his house and explained to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, what had happened.
Dan 2:18 He urged them to seek mercy from the Mighty One of Heaven concerning this mystery, so that he and they might not be killed with the rest of the Sages of Babylon.
Dan 2:19 That night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the Mighty One of Heaven,
Dan 2:20 “Praise the name of the Almighty forever and ever; for wisdom and power belong to him!
Dan 2:21 He changes the years and the seasons (Luke 21:11); he removes kings and places kings on their thrones. He gives wisdom to the Sages and knowledge to those who have understanding.
Dan 2:22 He reveals the deep and hidden things, because he knows what is in the darkness, and the light lives with him.
Dan 2:23 Mighty One of my ancestors, I thank you and praise you for the wisdom and power you gave to me. Now you have made known to me what we requested from you; you made known to us the matter that concerns the king.”
Dan 2:24 Then Daniel went in to see Arioch, the one the king appointed to execute all the Sages of Babylon. He went and said to him, “Do not execute the Sages of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will show the king the interpretation of his dream.”
Dan 2:25 Then Arioch quickly brought in Daniel before the king and announced, “I have found among the exiles of Judah a man who will reveal the meaning of the king’s dream.”
Dan 2:26 The king asked Daniel, who was called Belteshazzar, “Are you able to tell me the dream that I saw and its meaning?”
Dan 2:27 Daniel answered the king, “The mystery that the king has asked about cannot be revealed by the Sages, nor by those who claim to speak with the dead, nor by magicians, and not by astrologers.
Dan 2:28 Nevertheless, there is an Almighty who lives in Heaven, who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to you, King Nebuchadnezzar, what will happen in the last days. These were your dream and the visions of your mind as you lay on your bed.
Dan 2:29 As for you, king, your thoughts on your bed were about things to come, and the One who reveals mysteries has made known to you what is about to happen.
Dan 2:30 As for me, this mystery was not revealed to me because of any wisdom that I have more than any other living person. This mystery was revealed to me, so that you, king, may understand the meaning, and so that you may know the thoughts deep within you.

Dan 2:31 King, you looked up, and you saw a large statue. This statue, which was powerful and bright, stood before you. Its brightness was terrifying.
Dan 2:32 The head of the statue was made of fine gold. Its breast and arms were of silver. Its middle and its thighs were made of bronze,
Dan 2:33 and its legs were made of iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of clay.
Dan 2:34 You looked up, and a Stone was cut out, although not by human hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and it shattered them (Psa. 118:22; Isa. 8:14-15, 28:16,13; Mt. 21:44).
Dan 2:35 Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold at the same time were broken into pieces and became like the chaff of the threshing floors in the summer. The wind carried them away, and there was no trace of them left. But the Stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.
Dan 2:36 This was your dream. Now we will tell the king the meaning.
Dan 2:37 You, king, are king of kings to whom the Mighty One of Heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the honor.
Dan 2:38 He has given into your hand the place where humans live. He has given over the animals of the fields and the birds of the sky into your hand, and he has made you rule over them all. You are the statue's head of gold.
Dan 2:39 After you, another kingdom will arise that is inferior to you, and yet a third kingdom of bronze will rule over all the earth.
Dan 2:40 There will be a fourth kingdom (Islam), strong as iron, because iron breaks other things into pieces and shatters everything. It will shatter all these things and crush them.
Dan 2:41 Just as you saw, the feet and toes were partly made of baked clay and partly made of iron, so it will be a divided kingdom; some of the strength of iron will be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the soft clay.
Dan 2:42 As the toes of the feet were partly made of iron and partly made of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle.
Dan 2:43 As you saw the iron mixed with soft clay, so the people will be a hybrid; they will not stay together, just as iron does not mix with clay.
Dan 2:44 In the days of those kings, the Mighty One of Heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be conquered by another people. It will break the other kingdoms into pieces and put an end to all of them, and it will remain forever.
Dan 2:45 Just as you saw, a Stone was cut out of the mountain but not by human hands. It broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold into pieces. The great Almighty has made known to you, king, what will happen after this. The dream is true and this interpretation is reliable."

Dan 2:46 King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face before Daniel and honored him; he commanded that an offering be made and that incense be offered up to him.
Dan 2:47 The king said to Daniel, "Truly, your Divine One is the Mighty One of deities, the Lord of kings, and the One who reveals mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery."
Dan 2:48 Then the king made Daniel highly honored and gave him many wonderful gifts. He made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon. Daniel became chief governor over the Sages of Babylon.
Dan 2:49 Daniel entreated the king, and the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be administrators over the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained in the king's palace.

Daniel Chapter 3

Dan 3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue that was twenty-seven meters tall and three meters wide. He set it up in the Plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.
Dan 3:2 Then Nebuchadnezzar sent messages out to gather together the provincial governors, regional governors, and local governors, together with the counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the high officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the statue that he had set up.
Dan 3:3 Then the provincial governors, regional governors, and local governors, together with the counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the high officials of the provinces gathered together to the dedication of the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. They stood before it.
Dan 3:4 Then a herald loudly shouted, “You are commanded, people and ethnicities,
Dan 3:5 that at the time you hear the sound of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and prostrate yourselves to the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up!
Dan 3:6 Whoever does not fall down and worship, at that moment, will be thrown into a blazing furnace!”
Dan 3:7 So when all the people heard the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, all the people and ethnicities fell down and prostrated themselves to the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
Dan 3:8 Now at this time, certain Sages came and brought accusations against the Jews.
Dan 3:9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “King, live forever!
Dan 3:10 You, king, have made a decree that every person who hears the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, must fall down and prostrate himself to the golden statue.
Dan 3:11 Whoever does not fall down and worship must be thrown into a blazing furnace.
Dan 3:12 Now there are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon; their names are Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, king, pay no attention to you. They will not worship or serve your deities, or prostrate themselves before the golden statue you have set up.”
Dan 3:13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, filled with anger and rage, commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought to him. So they brought these men before the king.

Dan 3:14 Nebuchadnezzar asked them, “Have you made up your minds, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you will not worship my deities or prostrate yourselves to the golden statue that I have set up?
Dan 3:15 Now if you are ready, when you hear the sounds of the horns, flutes, zithers, lyres, harps, and pipes, and all kinds of music, to fall down and prostrate yourselves to the statue that I have made, all will be well. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace. Who is the deity who is able to rescue you out of my hands?”
Dan 3:16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, “Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.
Dan 3:17 If there is an answer, it is that our Divine One whom we serve is able to keep us safe from the blazing furnace, and he will rescue us out of your hand, king.
Dan 3:18 But if not, let it be known to you, king, that we will not worship your deities, and we will not prostrate ourselves to the golden statue you set up.”
Dan 3:19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage; the look on his face changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He commanded that the furnace should be heated first, seven times hotter than it was normally heated.
Dan 3:20 Then he commanded some valiantly strong men in his military force to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and to throw them into the blazing furnace.
Dan 3:21 They were tied up still wearing their robes, tunics, turbans, and tassel-bearing garments, and they were thrown into the blazing furnace.
Dan 3:22 Because the king’s command was strictly followed and the furnace was red hot, the flames killed the men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.
Dan 3:23 These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell into the blazing furnace while they were tied up.
Dan 3:24 Then King Nebuchadnezzar was amazed and stood up quickly. He asked his advisors, “Did we not throw three men tied up into the fire?” They answered the king, “Certainly, king.”
Dan 3:25 He said, “But I see four men who are not tied up walking around in the fire, and they are not hurt. The brilliance of the fourth is like the Son of the Almighty.”
Dan 3:26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near the door of the blazing furnace and called out, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of Most High Almighty, come out! Come here!” Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire.
Dan 3:27 The provincial governors, regional governors, other governors, and the king’s counselors who had gathered together saw these men. The fire had not hurt their bodies; the hair on their heads was not singed; their robes were not harmed; and there was no smell of fire on them.

Dan 3:28 Nebuchadnezzar proclaimed, “Let us praise the Mighty One of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his Messenger to deliver his servants! They trusted in him when they set aside my command, and they gave up their bodies rather than worship or prostrate themselves to any deity except their Divine One.
Dan 3:29 Therefore, I make a decree that any people or ethnicity that speaks anything against the Mighty One of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego must be torn apart, and that their houses must be made into rubbish heaps, because there is no other deity who is able to save like this.”
Dan 3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Daniel Chapter 4

Dan 4:1 King Nebuchadnezzar sent this decree to all people and ethnicities who lived on the earth: “May your peace increase.
Dan 4:2 It has seemed good to me to tell you about the signs and wonders that Most High Almighty has done for me.
Dan 4:3 How great are his signs, and how mighty are his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion lasts from generation to generation.”
Dan 4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living happily in my house, and I was enjoying prosperity in my palace.
Dan 4:5 But a dream I had made me afraid. As I lay there, the images I saw and the visions in my mind troubled me.
Dan 4:6 So I gave a decree to bring before me all the Sages of Babylon, so they could interpret the dream for me.
Dan 4:7 Then came the magicians, those who claimed to speak with the dead, the Sages, and the astrologers. I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me.
Dan 4:8 But at last Daniel came in, the one who is named Belteshazzar after the name of my deity, and in whom is the Ruach of the consecrated Divine Ones, and I told him the dream.
Dan 4:9 “Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the Ruach of the consecrated Divine Ones is in you, and that no mystery is too difficult for you. Tell me what I saw in my dream and what it means.
Dan 4:10 These were the sights that I saw in my mind as I lay upon my bed: I looked, and there was a tree in the middle of the earth, and its height was great.
Dan 4:11 The tree grew and became strong. Its top reached to the heavens, and it could be seen to the ends of the whole earth.
Dan 4:12 Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit was abundant, and on it was food for all. The wild animals found shade under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches. All living creatures were fed from it.
Dan 4:13 I saw in my mind as I lay on my bed, a set-apart messenger came down from Heaven.
Dan 4:14 He shouted, ‘Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves, and scatter its fruit! Let the animals flee from under it, and the birds fly away from its branches!
Dan 4:15 Leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the middle of the tender grass of the field. Let it be wet with the dew from the heavens. Let it live with the animals among the plants on the ground.

Dan 4:16 Let his mind be changed from man's mind, and let an animal's mind be given to him, until seven years pass by!
Dan 4:17 This decision is by the decree reported by the messenger. It is a decision made by the set-apart ones, so that those who are alive may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people and gives them to anyone he wishes to place over them, even to the most humble men.'
Dan 4:18 I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had this dream. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the Sages in my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you are able to do so, because the Ruach of the consecrated Divine Ones is in you."
Dan 4:19 Then Daniel, who was also named Belteshazzar, was greatly upset for awhile, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king said, "Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you." Belteshazzar replied, "My master, may the dream be for those who hate you; may its interpretation be for your enemies.
Dan 4:20 The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, and whose top reached up to the heavens, and which could be seen to the ends of the whole earth,
Dan 4:21 whose leaves were beautiful, and whose fruit was abundant, so that in it was food for all, and under it the animals of the field found shade, and in which the birds of the sky lived,
Dan 4:22 this tree is you, king, you who have grown so strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to the heavens, and your authority reaches to the ends of the earth.
Dan 4:23 You, king, saw a set-apart messenger coming down from Heaven and ordering, 'Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the middle of the tender grass of the field. Let it be wet with the dew from the heavens. Let it live with the wild animals in the fields, until seven years pass by.'
Dan 4:24 This is the interpretation, king. It is a decree of the Most High that has reached you, my master the king.
Dan 4:25 You will be driven from among men, and you will live with the wild animals in the fields. You will be made to eat grass like an ox, and you will be wet with the dew from the heavens, and seven years will pass by, until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people, and that he gives them to anyone he wishes.
Dan 4:26 As it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree, in this way, your kingdom will be returned to you, from the time you learn that Heaven rules.

Dan 4:27 Therefore, king, let my advice be acceptable to you. Stop sinning and do what is right. Turn away from your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed, and it may be that your prosperity will be extended."
Dan 4:28 All these things happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.
Dan 4:29 Twelve months later he was walking on the roof of the royal palace in Babylon,
Dan 4:30 and he asked, "Is this not the great Babylon, which I have built for my royal residence, for the glory of my majesty?"
Dan 4:31 While the words were still on the lips of the king, a voice came from Heaven: "King Nebuchadnezzar, it is announced to you that this kingdom has been taken away from you.
Dan 4:32 You will be driven away from people, and your home will be with the wild animals in the fields. You will be made to eat grass like an ox. Seven years will pass, until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of people, and he gives them to anyone he wishes."
Dan 4:33 This decree against Nebuchadnezzar was carried out immediately. He was driven away from people. He ate grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew from the heavens. His hair grew as long as eagles' feathers, and his nails became like birds' claws.
Dan 4:34 "At the end of the days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward Heaven, and my sanity was given back to me. I praised the Most High, and I honored and glorified the One who lives forever. For his reign is an everlasting reign, and his kingdom endures from all generations to all generations.
Dan 4:35 All the earth's inhabitants are considered by him to be as nothing; he does among the armed forces of Heaven and the inhabitants of the earth whatever suits his will. No one can stop him or challenge him. No one can ask him, 'Why have you done this?'"
Dan 4:36 At the same time that my sanity returned to me, my majesty and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My counselors and my noblemen sought my grace. I was brought back to my throne, and even more greatness was given to me.
Dan 4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, extol, and honor the King of Heaven, for all his deeds are right, and his Ways are just! He can humble those who walk in their own pride.

Daniel Chapter 5

Dan 5:1 King Belshazzar made a great feast for a thousand of his noblemen, and he drank wine in front of all one thousand of them.
Dan 5:2 While Belshazzar tasted the wine, he gave orders to bring the containers made of gold or silver that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem, from which he, his noblemen, and his wives and concubines could drink.
Dan 5:3 The servants brought the gold containers that had been taken out of the temple, the temple of the Almighty, in Jerusalem. The king, his noblemen, and his wives and concubines drank from them.
Dan 5:4 They drank the wine and praised their idols made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.
Dan 5:5 At that moment, the fingers of a human hand appeared in front of the lampstand and wrote on the plaster wall in the king's palace. The king could see part of the hand as it wrote.
Dan 5:6 Then the king's face changed, and his thoughts frightened him; his limbs could not support him, and his knees were knocking together.
Dan 5:7 The king shouted a command to bring in those who claimed to speak with the dead, Sages, and astrologers. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever explains this writing and its meaning will be clothed with purple and will have a gold chain around his neck. He will have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom."
Dan 5:8 Then all the king's Sages came in, but they could not read the writing or explain its meaning to the king.
Dan 5:9 Then King Belshazzar was greatly alarmed, and the look on his face changed. His noblemen were perplexed.
Dan 5:10 Now the queen came into the banquet house because of what the king and his nobles had said. The queen said, "King, live forever! Do not let your thoughts trouble you. Do not let the look on your face change.
Dan 5:11 There is a man in your kingdom who has the Ruach of the consecrated Divine Ones. In the days of your father, light, understanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the deities was found in him. King Nebuchadnezzar, your father the king, made him chief of the magicians, as well as chief of those who speak with the dead, of the Sages, and of the astrologers.
Dan 5:12 An excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting of dreams, explaining riddles, and solving problems, these qualities were found in this man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now call for Daniel, and he will tell you the meaning of what has been written."

Dan 5:13 Then Daniel was brought before the king. The king said to him, “You are that Daniel, one of the people of the exiles of Judah, whom my father the king brought out of Judah.
Dan 5:14 I have heard about you, that the Ruach of the Divine Ones is in you, and that light, understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you.
Dan 5:15 Now the Sages and those who claim to speak with the dead have been brought in before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not make known the interpretation of it.
Dan 5:16 I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now, if you can read the writing and tell me its meaning, you will be clothed with purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”
Dan 5:17 Then Daniel answered before the king, “Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another person. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to you, king, and will tell you the meaning.
Dan 5:18 As for you, king, Most High Almighty gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, greatness, honor, and majesty.
Dan 5:19 Because of the greatness Yehowah gave him, all people and ethnicities trembled and feared him. He executed those he wanted to die, and he kept alive those he wished to live. He raised up those he wanted, and he humbled those he wished.
Dan 5:20 But when his heart was arrogant, and his spirit was hardened, so that he acted presumptuously, he was brought down from his kingly throne, and they took away his majesty.
Dan 5:21 He was driven away from humanity, he had the mind of an animal, and he lived with the wild donkeys. He ate grass like an ox. His body was wet with the dew from the heavens, until he learned that Most High Almighty rules over the kingdoms of mankind, and that he sets over them anyone he wishes.
Dan 5:22 You his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this.
Dan 5:23 You have lifted yourself up against the Master of Heaven. From his temple, they brought you the containers that you, your nobles, your wives, and your concubines drank wine from, and you praised the idols made of silver and gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, idols that do not see, hear, or know anything. You have not honored the Almighty who holds your breath in his hand, and who knows all your ways.
Dan 5:24 Then Yehowah sent out a hand from his presence and this writing was done.
Dan 5:25 This is the writing that was done: ‘Mene, Mene, Tekel, and Pharsin.’
Dan 5:26 This is its meaning: ‘Mene,’ ‘The Almighty has numbered your kingdom and brought it to an end.’

Dan 5:27 ‘Tekel,’ ‘You are weighed in the scales and are found lacking.’
Dan 5:28 ‘Peres,’ ‘Your kingdom is divided and is given to the Medes and Persians.’”
Dan 5:29 Then Belshazzar gave a command, and they clothed Daniel with purple. A chain of gold was put around his neck, and the king made a proclamation about him, that he would have the authority of the third highest ruler in the kingdom.
Dan 5:30 That night Belshazzar, the Babylonian king, was killed,
Dan 5:31 and Darius the Mede (aka Cyrus II) received the kingdom, when he was about sixty-two years old (c. 539 BC).

Daniel Chapter 6

Dan 6:1 It pleased Darius to appoint over the kingdom 120 provincial governors who would rule over all the kingdom.
Dan 6:2 Over them there were three chief administrators, and Daniel was one of them. These chief administrators were appointed, so that they might supervise the provincial governors, so that the king should suffer no loss.
Dan 6:3 Daniel was distinguished above the other chief administrators and the provincial governors, because he had an extraordinary spirit. The king was planning to put him over the whole kingdom.
Dan 6:4 Then the other chief administrators and the provincial governors looked for mistakes in the work Daniel did for the kingdom, but they could find no corruption or failure in his duty, because he was faithful. No mistakes or negligence was found in him.
Dan 6:5 Then these men concluded, “We cannot find any reason to complain against this Daniel, unless we find something against him regarding the law of his Divine One.”
Dan 6:6 Then these administrators and governors brought a plan before the king. They said to him, “King Darius, may you live forever!
Dan 6:7 All the chief administrators of the kingdom, the regional governors, and the provincial governors, the advisors, and the governors have consulted together and decided that you, the king, should issue a decree and should enforce it, so that whoever makes a petition to any deity or man for thirty days, except to you, king, that person must be thrown into the den of lions.
Dan 6:8 Now King, issue a decree and sign the document, so that it may not be changed, as directed by the laws of the Medes and Persians, so it cannot be repealed.”
Dan 6:9 So King Darius signed the document making the decree into a law.
Dan 6:10 When Daniel learned that the document had been signed into law, he went into his house; now his windows were open in his upper room toward Jerusalem, and he got down on his knees, as he did three times a day, and prayed and gave thanks before his Divine One, as he had done before.
Dan 6:11 Then these men who had formed the plot together saw Daniel make requests and seek help from his Divine One.
Dan 6:12 Then they approached the king and asked him about his decree: “Did you not make a decree that everyone who makes a petition to any deity or human during the next thirty days, except to you, king, must be thrown into the den of lions?” The king answered, “The matter is settled, as directed by the law of the Medes and Persians; it cannot be repealed.”

Dan 6:13 Then they replied to the king, “That person Daniel, who is one of the people of the exile from Judah, pays no attention to you, king, or to the decree that you have signed. He prays to his Divine One three times a day.”
Dan 6:14 When the king heard this, he was terribly distressed, and he applied his mind to rescue Daniel from this ruling. He labored until sunset to try to save Daniel.
Dan 6:15 Then these men who had formed the plot gathered together with the king and said to him, “Know, king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree or statute that the king issues can be changed.”
Dan 6:16 Then the king gave an order, and they brought in Daniel, and they threw him into the lions’ den. The king encouraged Daniel, “May your Divine One, whom you serve continually, rescue you.”
Dan 6:17 A stone was brought over the entrance to the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.
Dan 6:18 Then the king went to his palace, and he went through the night fasting. No entertainment was brought before him, and sleep fled from him.
Dan 6:19 Then at daybreak the king rose up, and he quickly went to the lions’ den.
Dan 6:20 As he came near to the den, he called out to Daniel in a sad voice, inquiring of Daniel, “Daniel, servant of the living Almighty, has your Divine One, whom you serve continually, been able to save you from the lions?”
Dan 6:21 Then Daniel answered the king, “King, live forever!
Dan 6:22 My Divine One has sent his messenger and has shut the lions’ mouths, and they have not hurt me. For I was found blameless before him and also before you, king, and I have done you no harm.”
Dan 6:23 Then the king was exuberant. He gave an order that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was lifted up out of the den. No harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his Divine One.
Dan 6:24 The king gave an order, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel and threw them into the den of lions, they, their children, and their wives. Before they reached the floor, the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones to pieces.
Dan 6:25 Then King Darius wrote to all the people and ethnicities that live in all the earth: “May peace increase for you.
Dan 6:26 I hereby make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom, men tremble and fear before the Mighty One of Daniel, for he is the living Almighty and lives forever, and his kingdom will not be destroyed; his dominion will be to the end.
Dan 6:27 He makes us safe and rescues us, and he does signs and wonders in the heavens and in the earth; he has kept Daniel safe from the strength of the lions.”

Dan 6:28 So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius, that is, the reign of Cyrus II the Persian.

Daniel Chapter 7

Dan 7:1 In the first year (c. 551 BC) of Belshazzar king of Babylonia, Daniel had a dream and visions in his mind while lying on his bed. Then he wrote down what he had seen in the dream. He wrote down the most important events:
Dan 7:2 Daniel explained, “In my vision at night, I saw that the four winds of the skies were stirring up the great sea.
Dan 7:3 Four large animals, each one different from the other, came up out of the sea.
Dan 7:4 The first was like a lion but had eagle’s wings. As I was looking, its wings were torn off, and it was lifted from the ground and made to stand on two feet, like a man. The mind of a man was given to it.
Dan 7:5 Then there was a second animal, like a bear, and it was bending over; it had three ribs between its teeth in its mouth. It was told, ‘Get up and devour many people.’
Dan 7:6 After this, I looked again. There was another animal, one that looked like a leopard. On its back it had four wings like bird wings, and it had four heads. It was given authority to rule.
Dan 7:7 After this, I saw in my dream at night a fourth animal, terrifying, frightening, and extremely strong. It had large iron teeth; it devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled underfoot what was left. It was different from the other animals, and it had ten horns.
Dan 7:8 While I was considering the horns, I looked and saw another horn grow up among them, a little horn. Three of the first horns were wrenched out by the roots. I saw in this horn eyes like the eyes of a human, and a mouth that was boasting great things.
Dan 7:9 As I looked, thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His clothing was as white as snow, and the hair of his head was like pure wool. His throne was flames of fire, and its wheels were burning fire.
Dan 7:10 A river of fire flowed out from before him; millions served him, and one hundred million were standing before him. The court was in session, and the Books were opened.
Dan 7:11 I continued to look because of the boastful words spoken by the horn. I watched while the animal was killed, and its body was destroyed, and it was given over to be burned up.
Dan 7:12 As for the rest of the four beasts, their authority to rule was taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a period of time.
Dan 7:13 In my visions that night, I saw One coming with the clouds of Heaven like the Son of Man (Bar Anasha); he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him.

Dan 7:14 Authority to rule, glory, and royal power were given to him, so that all the people and ethnicities should serve him. His authority to rule is an everlasting authority that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.
Dan 7:15 As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved inside of me, and the visions I saw in my mind troubled me.
Dan 7:16 I approached one of them standing there and asked him to show me the meaning of these things.
Dan 7:17 ‘These large animals, four in number, are four kings that will arise from the earth.
Dan 7:18 But the set-apart people of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and they will possess it forever and ever.’
Dan 7:19 Then I wanted to know more about the fourth animal, it was so different from the others and dreadfully horrifying with its iron teeth and bronze claws; it devoured, broke into pieces, and trampled on what was left with its feet.
Dan 7:20 I wanted to know about the ten horns on its head, and about the other horn that grew up, and before which the three horns fell down. I wanted to know about the horn that had eyes, and about the mouth that boasted about great things and that seemed greater than its companions.
Dan 7:21 As I looked, this horn waged war against the set-apart people and was defeating them (Rev. 13:7),
Dan 7:22 until the Ancient of Days came, and justice was given to the set-apart people of the Most High. Then the time came when the set-apart people received the Kingdom.
Dan 7:23 This is what that person said, ‘As for the fourth beast, it will be a fourth kingdom on earth that will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, and it will trample it down and break it into pieces.
Dan 7:24 As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise, and another will arise after them. He will be different from the previous ones, and he will conquer the three kings.
Dan 7:25 He will speak words against the Most High and will oppress the set-apart people of the Most High (Rev. 13:7). He will try to change the set times and the decree. These things will be given into his hand for one year, two years, and half a year.
Dan 7:26 But the court will be in session, and they will take his royal power away to be consumed and destroyed at the end.
Dan 7:27 The Kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole Heaven, will be given to the people who belong to the set-apart people of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and all other kingdoms will serve and obey him.’

Dan 7:28 Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me, and my face changed in appearance. But I kept these things in my heart.”

Daniel Chapter 8

Dan 8:1 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar (c. 549 BC), I, Daniel, had a vision appear to me, after the one that appeared to me at first.
Dan 8:2 I saw in the vision, as I was looking, that I was in the fortified city of Susa in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai River (Karun River).
Dan 8:3 I looked up and saw before me a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal. Both horns were elevated, but one was more elevated than the other, and the more elevated one came up last.
Dan 8:4 I saw the ram charging west, then north, and then south; no other animal could stand before him. None of them was able to rescue anyone out of his hand. He did whatever he wanted, and he became great.
Dan 8:5 As I was thinking about this, I saw a male goat come from the West, who went across the surface of the whole earth, not seeming to touch the ground. The goat had a large horn between his eyes.
Dan 8:6 He came to the ram who had two horns, I had seen the ram standing on the bank of the canal, and the goat ran toward the ram in a powerful rage.
Dan 8:7 I saw the goat come close to the ram. He was extremely angry at the ram, and he hit the ram and broke off its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand before him. The goat knocked him down to the ground and trampled on him. There was no one who could rescue the ram from his power.
Dan 8:8 Then the goat became extremely large. But when he became strong, the large horn was broken, and in its place four prominent horns grew up that pointed toward the four winds of the skies.
Dan 8:9 Out of one of them grew another horn, little at first, but which became excessively large in the south, in the east, and in the Land of Beauty.
Dan 8:10 It became so large as to engage in war with the military force of Heaven. Some of that military force and some of the stars were thrown down to the earth, and it trampled on them.
Dan 8:11 It made itself to be as great as the Commander of the military force. It took away from him the continual burnt offering (Exo. 29:38-42, the twice-daily dawn and dusk burnt offering), and the place of his sanctuary was polluted.
Dan 8:12 Because of rebellion, the military force will be given over to the goat's horn, and the continual burnt offering will be stopped. The horn will throw truth down to the ground, and it will succeed in what it does (Dan. 11:31).
Dan 8:13 Then I heard a set-apart one speaking and another set-apart one answering him, "How long will these things last, this vision about the continual burnt offering, the sin that brings destruction, the handing over of the sanctuary, and the military force being trampled on?"

Dan 8:14 He answered me, “It will last for 2,300 days (dusk and dawn; Gen. 1:5). After that, the sanctuary will be put right.”
Dan 8:15 When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I tried to understand it. Then there stood before me One who looked like a Man.
Dan 8:16 I heard a Man’s voice calling between the banks of the Ulai River (Karun River). He said, “Gabriel, help this man understand the vision!”
Dan 8:17 So he came near where I stood. When he came, I was frightened and prostrated myself on the ground. He said to me, “Understand, son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end.”
Dan 8:18 When he spoke to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and made me stand up.
Dan 8:19 He said, “See, I will show you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time for the end.
Dan 8:20 As for the ram you saw, the one that had two horns, they are the kings of Media (Iraq) and Persia (Iran).
Dan 8:21 The male goat is the kingdom of Greece (the West). The large horn between his eyes is the first king.
Dan 8:22 As for the horn that was broken, in the place of which four others arose, four kingdoms will arise from his nation, but not with his great power.
Dan 8:23 At the latter time of those kingdoms, when the transgressors will have reached their limit, a grim-faced king, one who is highly intelligent, will arise.
Dan 8:24 His power will be great but not by his own power. He will be amazing in what he destroys; he will act and succeed. He will destroy powerful people among the set-apart ones.
Dan 8:25 By his craftiness, he will make deceit prosper under his hand. He will become great in his own mind. With a policy of security, he will destroy many people. He will even rise up against the Prince of princes, and he will be broken but not by any human hand.
Dan 8:26 The vision about the dusk dawn (the twice-daily continual burnt offering) that has been told is true. But seal up the vision, for it refers to many days in the future.”
Dan 8:27 Then I, Daniel, was overcome and lay weak for several days. Then I rose up and went about the king’s business. But I was appalled by the vision, and there was no one who understood it.

Daniel Chapter 9

Dan 9:1 Darius was the son of Ahasuerus (Astyages), a descendant of the Medes. It was Ahasuerus who had been made king over the realm of the Babylonians.
Dan 9:2 Now in the first year of Darius' reign (over Persia, c. 536 BC, Dan. 5:30-31), I, Daniel, was studying the number of the years in the Books, according to the word that had come to Jeremiah the prophet. I observed that there would be seventy years until Jerusalem's abandonment would end (70-year exile, c. 605 BC-536 BC).
Dan 9:3 I turned my face to the Lord Almighty, to seek him with prayer and requests, with fasting, wearing sackcloth and sitting in ashes.
Dan 9:4 I prayed to Yehowah my Divine One, and I made confession of our sins, "Please, O Lord, you are the great and awesome Almighty, you are the One who keeps the covenant and is faithful to love those who love you and keep your commandments.
Dan 9:5 We have sinned and have done what is wrong. We have acted wickedly, and we have rebelled, turning aside from your commands and decrees.
Dan 9:6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets who spoke in your name to our kings, our leaders, our ancestors, and to all the people of the land.
Dan 9:7 To you, O Lord, belongs righteousness. To us today, however, belongs shame on our faces, for the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, and to all Israel. This includes those who are near and those who are far away in all the lands where you scattered them. This is because of the great treachery that we committed against you.
Dan 9:8 To us, Yehowah, belongs shame on our faces, to our kings, to our leaders, and to our ancestors, because we have sinned against you.
Dan 9:9 To the Lord our Divine One belongs compassion and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him.
Dan 9:10 We have not obeyed the voice of Yehowah our Divine One by walking in his law he gave us through his servants the prophets.
Dan 9:11 All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, refusing to obey your voice. The curse and oath that are written in the Law of Moses, the servant of the Almighty, have been poured out on us, for we have sinned against him.
Dan 9:12 He has confirmed the words that he spoke against us and against our rulers over us, by bringing on us a great disaster. For under the whole of Heaven there has not been done anything that could compare with what has been done to Jerusalem.
Dan 9:13 As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come on us, yet we have not begged for mercy from Yehowah our Divine One by turning away from our iniquities and paying attention to your truth.

Dan 9:14 Therefore, Yehowah has kept the disaster ready and has brought it on us, for Yehowah our Divine One is righteous in all the deeds he does, yet we have not obeyed his voice.
Dan 9:15 Now O Lord our Divine One, you brought out your people from the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and you have made a famous name for yourself, as in this present day. But still we sinned; we have done wicked things.
Dan 9:16 O Lord, because of all your righteous deeds, let your anger and your wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your set-apart mountain. Because of our sins, and because of the iniquities of our ancestors, Jerusalem and your people have become an object of scorn to all those around us.
Dan 9:17 Now, our Divine One, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his plea for mercy; for your sake, Lord, make your face shine on your sanctuary that is desolate.
Dan 9:18 My Divine One, open your ears and listen; open your eyes and see. We have been devastated; look at the city that is called by your name. We do not beg for your help because of our righteousness, but because of your great mercy.
Dan 9:19 O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, pay attention and take action! For your own sake, do not delay, my Divine One, for your city and your people are called by your name."
Dan 9:20 While I was speaking, praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my requests before Yehowah my Divine One on behalf of the set-apart mountain of my Divine One,
Dan 9:21 while I was praying, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the first, flew down to me in rapid flight, in time for the sacrifice at dusk.
Dan 9:22 He gave me understanding and said to me, "Daniel, I have now come out to give you insight and understanding.
Dan 9:23 When you began pleading for mercy, the order was given, and I have come to tell you the answer, for you are greatly loved. Therefore, consider this word and understand the revelation.
Dan 9:24 Seventy sevens are decreed for your people and your set-apart city to end the rebellion and put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring everlasting righteousness, to seal the prophetic vision, and to anoint the Most Set-apart Place (Gen. 6:3; Lev. 25:8; Mat. 24:34).
Dan 9:25 Know and understand that from the issuing of the order to restore and rebuild Jerusalem to the coming of Prince Messiah, there will be seven sevens and sixty-two sevens. Jerusalem will be rebuilt with streets and a bulwark, despite the times of distress.
Dan 9:26 After the sixty-two sevens of years, Messiah will be destroyed and have nothing. The military force of a coming ruler will destroy the city and the set-apart place. Its end will come with a flood, and there will be war even to the end. Desolations have been decreed.

Dan 9:27 He will strengthen a covenant with many for one seven. In the middle of the seven, he will put an end to sacrifice and grain offering. On the wing of abominations will come someone who makes desolate. A full end and destruction are decreed to be poured out on the one who has made the desolation" (Dan. 11:31; Mat. 24:15; Zech. 5:11).

Daniel Chapter 10

Dan 10:1 In the third year of Cyrus II, king of Persia (c. 534 BC), a message was revealed to Daniel, who was also called Belteshazzar. This message was true. It was about a great war. Daniel understood the message when he had insight from the vision.
Dan 10:2 In those days, I, Daniel, was in mourning for three weeks.
Dan 10:3 I ate no delicacies, I ate no meat, I drank no wine, and I did not anoint myself with oil, until the completion of three entire weeks.
Dan 10:4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was beside the great river, that is, the Tigris,
Dan 10:5 I looked up and saw a man dressed in linen, with a belt around his waist made of pure gold from Uphaz.
Dan 10:6 His body was like topaz, and his face was like lightning. His eyes were like flaming torches, and his arms and his feet were like polished bronze. The sound of his words was like the sound of a great crowd.
Dan 10:7 I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision. However, a great terror came on them, and they ran away to hide themselves.
Dan 10:8 So I was left alone and saw this great vision. No strength remained in me; my bright appearance was turned into a ruined look, and no strength remained in me.
Dan 10:9 Then I heard his words, and as I heard them, I fell on my face in deep sleep with my face to the ground.
Dan 10:10 A hand touched me, and it made me tremble in my knees and the palms of my hands.
Dan 10:11 The angel said to me, “Daniel, man greatly treasured, understand the words that I am speaking to you. Stand upright, for I have been sent to you.” When he had spoken this message to me, I stood up trembling.
Dan 10:12 Then he said to me, “Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day you set your mind to understand and to humble yourself before your Divine One, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words.
Dan 10:13 The prince of the kingdom of Persia resisted me, and I was kept there with the kings of Persia for twenty-one days. But Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me.
Dan 10:14 Now I have come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the last days. For the vision is for days yet to come.”
Dan 10:15 While he was speaking to me using these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was unable to speak.

Dan 10:16 One who was like the sons of men touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke to him who stood before me: “My master, I am in agony because of the vision; I have no strength left.
Dan 10:17 I am your servant, my master. How can I talk with my master? For I now have no strength, and there is no breath left in me.”
Dan 10:18 Again, the one with an appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me.
Dan 10:19 He said, “Do not be afraid, man greatly treasured. May peace be to you! Be strong now, be courageous!” While he was speaking to me, I was strengthened. I responded, “Let my master speak, for you have strengthened me.”
Dan 10:20 He said, “Do you know why I have come to you? I will soon return to fight against the prince of Persia. When I go, the prince of Greece will come.
Dan 10:21 But I will tell you what is written in the Scripture of Truth (2 Tim. 3:16). There is no one who shows himself to be strong with me against them, except Michael your prince.”

Daniel Chapter 11

Dan 11:1 In the first year of Darius the Mede (aka Cyrus II, c. 536 BC), I myself came to support and protect him.
Dan 11:2 Now I will tell you the truth. Three kings will arise in Persia, and a fourth will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.
Dan 11:3 A mighty king will rise up who will rule a great kingdom, and he will act according to his desires.
Dan 11:4 When he has risen up, his kingdom will be broken and divided to the four winds of the skies, but not to his own descendants, and not with his power when he had been ruling. For his kingdom will be uprooted for others besides his descendants.
Dan 11:5 The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his kingdom with great power.
Dan 11:6 After a few years, when the time is right, they will make an alliance. The daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to confirm the agreement. But she will not keep her arm's strength, nor will he stand, or his arm. She will be abandoned, she and those who brought her, and her father, and the one who supported her in those times.
Dan 11:7 But a branch from her roots will rise up in her place. He will attack the military force and enter the fortress of the king of the North. He will fight them, and he will conquer them.
Dan 11:8 He will carry off to Egypt their deities along with their cast metal figures and their precious vessels of silver and gold. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North.
Dan 11:9 Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South, but he will withdraw to his own land.
Dan 11:10 His sons will get ready and assemble a great military force. It will keep coming and will flood everything; it will pass through all the way to his fortress.
Dan 11:11 Then the king of the South will become extremely angry; he will go and fight against him, the king of the North. The king of the North will raise up a great military force, but the military force will be given into his hand.
Dan 11:12 The military force will be carried off, and the heart of the king of the South will be lifted up, and he will make tens of thousands to fall, but he will not be victorious.
Dan 11:13 Then the king of the North will raise up another military force, greater than the first. After some years, the king of the North will surely come with a great military force supplied with much equipment.

Dan 11:14 In those times, many will rise against the king of the South. Sons of the violent among your people will set themselves in order to fulfill a vision, but they will stumble.
Dan 11:15 The king of the North will come, pour out earth for siege mounds, and capture a city with fortifications. The forces of the South will not be able to stand, not even their best soldiers. There will be no strength to stand.
Dan 11:16 Instead, the one who comes will act according to his desires against him; no one will stand in his way. He will stand in the land of beauty, and destruction will be in his hand.
Dan 11:17 The king of the North will set his face to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, and with him will be an agreement that he will make with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter of women in marriage to ruin the kingdom of the South. But the plan will not succeed or help him.
Dan 11:18 After this, the king of the North will pay attention to the coastlands and will capture many of them. But a commander will end his arrogance and will cause his arrogance to turn back upon him.
Dan 11:19 Then he will pay attention to the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall; he will not be found.
Dan 11:20 Then someone will rise up in his place, who will make a tax collector pass through for the sake of the splendor of the kingdom. But in the next days, he will be broken but not in anger or in battle.
Dan 11:21 In his place will rise up a despised person to whom the people will not have given the honor of royal power; he will come unexpectedly and will take over the kingdom by trickery.
Dan 11:22 A military force will be swept away like a flood from before him. Both that military force and the leader of the covenant will be destroyed.
Dan 11:23 From the time an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; with only a small number of people, he will become strong.
Dan 11:24 Without warning, he will come into the richest part of the province, and he will do what neither his father nor his father's father did. He will spread among his followers the booty, the plunder, and the wealth. He will plan the overthrow of fortresses but only for a time.
Dan 11:25 He will wake up his power and his heart against the king of the South with a great military force. The king of the South will wage war with a large, extremely powerful military force, but he will not stand, because others will make plots against him.
Dan 11:26 Even those who eat his fine food will try to destroy him. His military force will be swept away like a flood, and many of them will fall killed.
Dan 11:27 Both these kings, with their hearts set on evil against each other, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but it will be of no use. For the end will come at the time that has been appointed.

Dan 11:28 Then the king of the North will go back into his land with great riches, with his heart set against the set-apart covenant. He will act and then will return to his own land.
Dan 11:29 At the appointed time, he will return and come against the South again. But this time it will not be as before.
Dan 11:30 For ships of Cyprus will come against him, and he will become afraid and will turn back. He will be furious against the set-apart covenant, and he will show favor to those who forsake the set-apart covenant.
Dan 11:31 His military forces will rise up and profane the fortress sanctuary. They will take away the continual burnt offering (the twice-daily dawn and dusk burnt offering), and they will set up the abomination that causes desolation (1 Maccabees 1:54; Dan. 8:11-12; Dan. 12:11-12; Mat. 24:15; 2 Thes. 2:3; Zech. 5:11).
Dan 11:32 As for those who acted wickedly against the covenant, he will deceive them and corrupt them. But the people who know their Divine One will be strong and will take action.
Dan 11:33 The wise among the people will make many understand. But they will stumble by the sword and by flame; they will stumble into captivity and into being robbed for days.
Dan 11:34 In their stumbling, they will be helped with a little help. In hypocrisy, many will join themselves with them.
Dan 11:35 Some of the wise will stumble, so that refining will happen to them, and cleansing, and purifying, until the time of the end. For the appointed time is still to come.
Dan 11:36 The king (Antimessiah) will act according to his desires. He will lift himself up and make himself great above every deity. Against the Mighty One of deities he will say astonishing things, for he will succeed, until the wrath is completed. For what has been decreed will be done.
Dan 11:37 He will pay no attention to the Mighty One of his ancestors or to One desirable to women (Messiah). Neither will he pay attention to any other deity. For he will make himself great above all (2 Thes. 2:3-4).
Dan 11:38 He will honor the deity of fortresses instead of these. It is a deity whom his fathers did not acknowledge that he will honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and valuable gifts.
Dan 11:39 He will attack the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign deity. To anyone who acknowledges him, he will give much honor. He will make them rulers over many people, and he will divide up the land as a reward.
Dan 11:40 At the time of the end, the king of the South will attack. The king of the North will storm against him with chariots and cavalry, and with many ships. He will go against lands, flood them, and pass through.

Dan 11:41 He will go into the land of beauty, and tens of thousands of Israelis will fall. But these will escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the remainder of the people of Ammon.
Dan 11:42 He will extend his hand into lands; the land of Egypt will not be rescued.
Dan 11:43 He will have control over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the riches of Egypt; the Libyans and the Cushites will be in his footsteps.
Dan 11:44 But an intelligence report from the east and the north will frighten him, and he will go out with great rage to completely destroy and to set many apart for destruction.
Dan 11:45 He will set up the tent of his royal residence between the seas and the glorious set-apart mountain. He will come to his end, and there will be no helper for him.

Daniel Chapter 12

Dan 12:1 “At that time, Michael, the great prince who guards your people, will rise up. There will be a time of trouble such as never was since the beginning of any ethnicity until that time. At that time, your people will escape, everyone whose name is found written in the Book.
Dan 12:2 Many of those who are dead in the dust of the earth will rise up, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting contempt (Isa. 26:19).
Dan 12:3 Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the sky above, and those who turn many to righteousness are like the stars forever and ever.
Dan 12:4 But you, Daniel, close up these words; keep the Book sealed until the time of the end. Many will run here and there, and knowledge will increase.”
Dan 12:5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and there were two others standing. One stood on the bank on this side of the river, and one stood on the bank on the other side of the river.
Dan 12:6 One of them asked the man clothed in linen, the one who was upstream along the river, “How long will it be to the end of these amazing events?”
Dan 12:7 I heard the man clothed in linen, who was upstream along the river, he raised his right hand and his left hand to Heaven and swore by the One who lives forever that it would be for one year, two years, and half a year. When the power of the set-apart people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed.
Dan 12:8 I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, “My master, what will be the outcome of all these things?”
Dan 12:9 He answered, “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end.
Dan 12:10 Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand (Dan. 11:33-35).
Dan 12:11 From the time that the continual (twice-daily dawn and dusk burnt offering) is taken away and the abomination that causes complete desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days (Dan. 11:31; Mat. 24:15; Dan. 9:27; Zech. 5:11).
Dan 12:12 Blessed is the one who perseveres until the end of the 1,335 days.
Dan 12:13 You must go your way until the end, and you will rest. You will rise in the place assigned to you, at the end of days.”

Book of Hosea

Hosea Chapter 1

Hos 1:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Hosea son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam II son of Joash, king of Israel.
Hos 1:2 When Yehowah spoke at first through Hosea, he ordered him, “Go, take for yourself a wife who is a prostitute. She will have children who are the result of her prostitution. For the land is committing great prostitution by forsaking Yehowah.”
Hos 1:3 So Hosea went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.
Hos 1:4 Yehowah said to Hosea, “Call his name Jezreel. For in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the bloodshed at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.
Hos 1:5 It will happen on the day that I break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.”
Hos 1:6 Gomer conceived again and bore a daughter. Then Yehowah said to Hosea, “Call her name Lo Ruhamah, for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should forgive them at all.
Hos 1:7 Yet I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and I will save them by myself, Yehowah their Divine One. I will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or cavalry.”
Hos 1:8 Now after Gomer had weaned Lo Ruhamah, she conceived and bore another son.
Hos 1:9 Then Yehowah said, “Call his name Lo Ammi, for you are not my people, and I am not your Divine One.
Hos 1:10 Yet the number of the people of Israel will be like the sand of the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted. It will be that where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ it will be said to them, ‘You are children of the living Almighty.’
Hos 1:11 The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together. They will appoint one leader for themselves, and they will go up from the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel.

Hosea Chapter 2

Hos 2:1 Say to your brothers, ‘My people!’ and to your sisters, ‘You have been shown compassion.’”
Hos 2:2 Bring a lawsuit against your mother, bring a lawsuit, for she is not my wife, and neither am I her husband. Let her put away her prostitution from before herself, and her acts of adultery from between her breasts.
Hos 2:3 If not, I will strip her naked and show her nakedness as on the day that she was born. I will make her like the wilderness, like a parched land, and I will make her die from thirst.
Hos 2:4 I will not have any mercy on her children, for they are children of prostitution.
Hos 2:5 For their mother has been a prostitute, and she who conceived them has acted shamefully. She said, “I will go after my lovers, for they give me my bread and water, my wool and flax, my oil and drink.”
Hos 2:6 Therefore, I will build up a hedge to block her way with thorns. I will build up a wall against her, so she cannot find her way.
Hos 2:7 She will pursue her lovers, but she will not overtake them. She will seek them, but she will not find them. Then she will say, “I will return to my first husband, for it was better for me then than it is now.”
Hos 2:8 For she had not known that it was I who gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and who lavished on her silver and gold, which they then used for Baal.
Hos 2:9 So I will take back her grain at harvest time, and my new wine in its season. I will take back my wool and flax that were used to cover her nakedness.
Hos 2:10 Then I will strip her naked in the sight of her lovers, and no one will rescue her out of my hand.
Hos 2:11 I will also cause all her celebrations to cease, her feasts, her beginning of the month celebrations, her Sabbaths, and all her appointment calendar festivals.
Hos 2:12 “I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said, ‘These are the wages that my lovers gave me.’ I will make them a forest, and the animals of the field will eat them.
Hos 2:13 I will punish her for the feast days of the Baals, when she burned incense to them, when she adorned herself with her rings and jewelry, and she went after her lovers and forgot me,” declares Yehowah.
Hos 2:14 So I am going to win her back. I will bring her into the wilderness and speak tenderly to her.

Hos 2:15 I will give her back her vineyards, and the Valley of Achor as a door of hope. She will answer me there as she did in the days of her youth, as in the days that she came out of the land of Egypt.
Hos 2:16 “It will be in that Day,” declares Yehowah, “that you will call me, ‘My husband,’ and you will no longer call me, ‘My Baal.’
Hos 2:17 For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth; their names will not be remembered anymore.”
Hos 2:18 “On that Day, I will make a covenant for them with the beasts in the fields, with the birds in the sky, and with the crawling things on the ground. I will drive away the bow, the sword, and the battle from the land, and I will make you lie down in safety (Isa. 11:6-8; 65:25).
Hos 2:19 I will promise to be your husband forever. I will promise to be your husband in righteousness, justice, covenant faithfulness, and mercy.
Hos 2:20 I will promise to be your husband in faithfulness, and you will know me, Yehowah.
Hos 2:21 On that Day, I will answer,” declares Yehowah. “I will answer the heavens, and they will answer the earth.
Hos 2:22 The earth will answer the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and they will answer Jezreel.
Hos 2:23 I will plant her for myself in the land, and I will have mercy on her who has received no mercy. I will say to those who are not my people, ‘You are my people,’ and they will say to me, ‘You are my Divine One.’”

Hosea Chapter 3

Hos 3:1 Yehowah ordered me, “Go again, love a woman, loved by her husband, but who is an adulteress. Love her just as I, Yehowah, love the people of Israel, although they turn to false deities and love raisin cakes.”
Hos 3:2 So I bought her for myself for 15-weight silver-currency and 330 liters of barley.
Hos 3:3 I said to her, “You must live with me many days. You will not be a prostitute or belong to any other man. In the same way, I will be with you.”
Hos 3:4 For the people of Israel will live for many days without a king, prince, sacrifice, stone pillar, ephod, or household idols.
Hos 3:5 Afterward, the people of Israel will return and seek Yehowah their Divine One and David their king, and in the last days, they will come trembling before Yehowah and his goodness.

Hosea Chapter 4

Hos 4:1 Hear the Word of Yehowah, you people of Israel. Yehowah has a lawsuit against the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truthfulness or covenantal faithfulness, no knowledge of the Almighty in the land.
Hos 4:2 There is cursing, lying, murdering, stealing and adultery. The people have broken all bounds, and bloodshed comes after bloodshed.
Hos 4:3 So the land is drying up, and everyone living in it is wasting away; the beasts in the fields and the birds in the sky, even the fish in the sea, are being taken away.
Hos 4:4 But do not allow anyone to bring a lawsuit; do not let anyone accuse anyone else. For it is you, the priests, whom I am accusing.
Hos 4:5 You priests will stumble during the day; the prophets will also stumble with you by night, and I will destroy your mother.
Hos 4:6 My people are being destroyed because of the lack of knowledge. Because you priests have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you as priests to me. Because you have forgotten my law, although I am your Divine One, I also will forget your children.
Hos 4:7 The more the priests multiplied, the more they sinned against me. They exchanged their honor for shame.
Hos 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people; they are greedy for more of their wickedness.
Hos 4:9 It will be the same for the people as for the priests: I will punish them all for their practices; I will repay them for their deeds.
Hos 4:10 They will eat but not have enough; they will commit prostitution but not increase, because they have gone far away from Yehowah.
Hos 4:11 They love sexual promiscuity, wine, and new wine, which have taken away their understanding.
Hos 4:12 My people consult their wooden idols, and their trekking poles give them prophecies. For a mind of promiscuity has misled them, and they have acted as prostitutes instead of being faithful to their Divine One.
Hos 4:13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains and burn incense on the hills, under oaks, poplars, and terebinths, because the shade is good. So your daughters commit sexual immorality, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.
Hos 4:14 I will not punish your daughters when they choose to commit sexual immorality, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery. For the men also give themselves to the prostitutes, and they offer sacrifices, so they can commit immoral acts with sacred prostitutes. So this people who does not understand will be thrown down.

Hos 4:15 Though you, Israel, have committed adultery, may Judah not become guilty. Do not go to Gilgal, you people; do not go up to Beth Aven and do not swear, “As Yehowah lives!”
Hos 4:16 For Israel has behaved stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer. How can Yehowah bring them to pasture like lambs in a meadow?
Hos 4:17 Ephraim united himself with idols; leave him alone.
Hos 4:18 Even when their beer is gone, they continue to commit adultery; her rulers dearly love their shame.
Hos 4:19 The wind will wrap her up in its wings; and they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

Hosea Chapter 5

Hos 5:1 “Hear this, priests! Pay attention, house of Israel! Listen, house of the king! For judgment is coming against you all. You have been a snare at Mizpah and a net spread over Tabor.
Hos 5:2 The rebels stand deep in slaughter, but I will punish all of them.
Hos 5:3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me. Ephraim, now you have become like a prostitute; Israel is defiled.
Hos 5:4 Their deeds will not allow them to turn to their Divine One, for the mind of adultery is in them, and they do not know Yehowah.
Hos 5:5 The pride of Israel testifies against him; so Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their guilt; and Judah also will stumble with them.
Hos 5:6 They will go with their flocks and herds to seek Yehowah, but they will not find him, for he has withdrawn himself from them.
Hos 5:7 They were unfaithful to Yehowah, for they have borne illegitimate children. Now the beginning of the month festivals will devour them with their fields.
Hos 5:8 Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah. Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven: ‘We will follow you, Benjamin!’
Hos 5:9 Ephraim will become a desolation on the day of punishment. Among the tribes of Israel I have declared what is certain to happen.
Hos 5:10 The leaders of Judah are like those who move a boundary stone. I will pour my wrath on them like water (Deut. 19:14; 27:17; Prov. 22:28; 23:10-11; 15:25).
Hos 5:11 Ephraim is crushed; he is crushed in judgment, because he has willingly walked after idols.
Hos 5:12 So I will be like a moth to Ephraim, and like rot to the house of Judah.
Hos 5:13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria, and Judah sent messengers to the great king. But he was not able to cure you people or heal your wound.
Hos 5:14 So I will be like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry them off, and there will be no one to rescue them.
Hos 5:15 I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face, until they earnestly seek me in their distress.”

Hosea Chapter 6

Hos 6:1 “Come, let us return to Yehowah. For he has torn us to pieces, but he will heal us; he has injured us, but he will bandage our wounds.
Hos 6:2 After two days, he will revive us; he will raise us up on the third day, and we will live before him.
Hos 6:3 Let us know; let us press on to know Yehowah. His going forth is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring and autumn rains that water the land.”
Hos 6:4 Ephraim, what will I do with you? Judah, what will I do with you? Your faithfulness is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early.
Hos 6:5 So I have cut them to pieces by the prophets, I have killed them with the words of my mouth. Your decrees are like the light that shines out.
Hos 6:6 For I desire compassion and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of the Almighty more than burnt offerings (Mat. 12:7; 1 Sam. 15:22; Heb. 13:16).
Hos 6:7 Like Adam, they have broken the covenant; they were unfaithful to me.
Hos 6:8 Gilead is a city of evildoers with footprints of blood.
Hos 6:9 As gangs of robbers wait for someone, so the priests band together by consent to commit murder on the way; they have committed shameful crimes.
Hos 6:10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing; Ephraim’s prostitution is there, and Israel has become unclean.
Hos 6:11 For you also, Judah, a harvest has been appointed, when I will restore the fortunes of my people.

Hosea Chapter 7

Hos 7:1 Whenever I want to heal Israel, the sin of Ephraim is exposed, as well as the evil deeds of Samaria, for they practice deceit; a thief comes in, and a marauding band attacks in the street.
Hos 7:2 They do not realize in their hearts that I remember all their evil deeds. Now their deeds surround them; they are before my face.
Hos 7:3 With their evil they make the king glad, and by their lies the officials.
Hos 7:4 They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker, who ceases to stir the fire from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.
Hos 7:5 On the day of our king, the officials made themselves sick with the heat of wine. He reached out with his hand to those who were mocking.
Hos 7:6 For with hearts like an oven, they devise their deceitful plans. Their anger smolders all night; at dawn, it burns high like a flaming fire.
Hos 7:7 They all are as hot as an oven, and they devour those who rule over them. All their kings have fallen; none of them calls on me.
Hos 7:8 Ephraim mixes himself among the people. Ephraim is a flat cake that has not been turned over.
Hos 7:9 Foreigners have devoured his strength, but he does not know it. Gray hairs are sprinkled on him, but he does not know it.
Hos 7:10 The pride of Israel testifies against him; however, they have not returned to Yehowah their Divine One, nor have they sought him, in spite of all this.
Hos 7:11 Ephraim is like a dove, gullible and without sense, calling out to Egypt, then flying to Assyria.
Hos 7:12 When they go, I will spread my net over them, I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will punish them in their flocking together.
Hos 7:13 Woe to them! For they have strayed from me. Devastation is coming to them! They have rebelled against me! I would have rescued them, but they spoke lies against me.
Hos 7:14 They have not cried to me with all their heart, but they wail on their beds. They gather together for grain and new wine, and they turn away from me.
Hos 7:15 Though I trained them and strengthened their arms, they are now plotting evil against me.
Hos 7:16 They return, but they do not return to me, the Most High. They are like a slack bow. Their officials will fall by the sword because of the insolence of their tongues. This will become their mockery in the land of Egypt.

Hosea Chapter 8

Hos 8:1 “Place a trumpet at your lips! An eagle is coming over the temple of Yehowah, because the people have broken my covenant and rebelled against my law.
Hos 8:2 They cry out to me, ‘My Divine One, we in Israel know you!’
Hos 8:3 But Israel has rejected what is good, and the enemy will pursue him.
Hos 8:4 They have set up kings but not by me. They have made princes but without my knowledge. With their silver and gold they have made idols for themselves, but it was only so they might be cut off.”
Hos 8:5 “Your calf has been rejected, Samaria. My anger is burning against these people. For how long will they stay guilty?
Hos 8:6 For this idol came from Israel; a workman made it; it is not the Almighty! The calf of Samaria will be broken to pieces.
Hos 8:7 For the people sow the wind and reap the whirlwind. The standing grain has no heads; it yields no flour. If it does come to maturity, foreigners will devour it.
Hos 8:8 Israel is swallowed up; now they lie among the ethnicities like something useless.
Hos 8:9 For they went up to Assyria like a wild donkey all alone. Ephraim has hired lovers for herself.
Hos 8:10 Even though they have hired lovers among the ethnicities, I will now gather them together. They will begin to waste away, because of the oppression of the king of princes.
Hos 8:11 For Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin offerings, but they have become altars for committing sins instead.
Hos 8:12 I could write down my law for them ten thousand times (Deut. 17:18-19; 31:9; 27:1-8; Josh. 8:32), but they would view it as something strange to them.
Hos 8:13 As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice meat and eat it, but I, Yehowah, do not accept them. Now I will think about their iniquity and punish their sins. They will return to Egypt.
Hos 8:14 Israel has forgotten me, his Maker, and has built palaces. Judah has fortified many cities, but I will send fire on his cities; it will destroy his fortresses.”

Hosea Chapter 9

Hos 9:1 Do not rejoice, Israel, with joy like the other people. For you have been unfaithful, forsaking your Divine One. You love to pay the wages a prostitute requires on all the threshing floors.
Hos 9:2 But the threshing floor and the winepress will not feed them; the new wine will fail them.
Hos 9:3 They will not continue to live in the land of Yehowah; instead, Ephraim will return to Egypt, and one day they will eat unclean food in Assyria.
Hos 9:4 They will pour out no wine offerings to Yehowah, neither will they be pleasing to him. Their sacrifices will be to them like mourners' food: All who eat it will be defiled. For their food will be for themselves only; it will not come into the temple of Yehowah.
Hos 9:5 What will you do on the day of an appointment calendar festival, on the day of a feast for Yehowah?
Hos 9:6 For look, if they escape from destruction, Egypt will gather them, and Memphis will bury them. As for their treasures of silver, sharp briers will possess them, and thorns will fill their tents.
Hos 9:7 The days for punishment are coming; the days for retribution are coming. Let all Israel know these things. The prophet is a fool, and the inspired man is insane, because of your great iniquity and great hostility.
Hos 9:8 The prophet is the watchman for my Divine One over Ephraim. But a bird snare is on all of his paths, and hostility toward him is in the temple of the Almighty.
Hos 9:9 They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah. Yehowah will call to mind their iniquity, and he will punish their sins.
Hos 9:10 Yehowah says, "When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the wilderness. Like the firstfruit of the season on the fig tree, I found your fathers. But they went to Baal Peor, and they devoted themselves to that shameful idol. They became as detestable as the idol they loved.
Hos 9:11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no birth, no pregnancy, and no conception.
Hos 9:12 Though they have brought up children, I will take them away, so that none of them is left. Woe to them when I turn away from them!
Hos 9:13 I have seen Ephraim, just like Tyre, planted in a meadow, but Ephraim will bring out his children to someone who will slaughter them."
Hos 9:14 Give them, Yehowah, what will you give them? Give them a miscarrying womb and breasts that give no milk.

Hos 9:15 “Because of all their wickedness in Gilgal, that is where I began to hate them. Because of their sinful deeds, I will drive them out of my temple. I will love them no more; all their officials are rebels.
Hos 9:16 Ephraim is diseased, and their root is dried up; they bear no fruit. Even if they have children, I will executed their beloved children.”
Hos 9:17 My Divine One will reject them, because they have not obeyed him. They will become wanderers among the ethnicities.

Hosea Chapter 10

Hos 10:1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit. As his fruit increased, the more altars he built. As his land produced more, he improved his pillars.
Hos 10:2 Their heart is deceitful; now they must bear their guilt. Yehowah will demolish their altars; he will destroy their pillars.
Hos 10:3 For then they will say, “We have no king, for we did not fear Yehowah, and a king, what could he do for us?”
Hos 10:4 They speak empty words and make covenants by swearing falsely. So justice springs up like poisonous weeds (opium poppies) in the furrows of a field.
Hos 10:5 The inhabitants of Samaria will be afraid because of the calves of Beth Aven. Its people mourned over them, as did those idolatrous priests who had rejoiced over them and their splendor, but they are no longer there.
Hos 10:6 They will be carried to Assyria as a present for the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced, and Israel will be ashamed of its idol.
Hos 10:7 Samaria’s king will be destroyed, like a chip of wood on the surface of the water.
Hos 10:8 The high places of wickedness will be destroyed. This is the sin of Israel! Thorns and thistles will grow over their altars. The people will say to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”
Hos 10:9 “Israel, you have sinned since the days of Gibeah; there you have remained. Will not war overtake the sons of wrong in Gibeah?
Hos 10:10 When I desire it, I will discipline them. The ethnicities will gather together against them and put them in bonds for their double iniquity.
Hos 10:11 Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh the grain, so I will put a yoke on her fair neck. I will put a yoke on Ephraim; Judah will plow; Jacob will pull the harrow by himself.
Hos 10:12 Sow righteousness for yourselves, and reap the fruit of covenant faithfulness. Break up your unplowed ground, for it is time to seek Yehowah, until he comes and rains righteousness on you.
Hos 10:13 You have plowed wickedness; you reaped injustice. You have eaten the fruit of deception, because you trusted in your plans and in your many soldiers.
Hos 10:14 So a tumult of war will rise among your people, and all your fortified cities will be destroyed. It will be as Shalman (Shalmaneser IV, c. 783-773 BC) destroyed Beth Arbel on a day of battle, when mothers were dashed to pieces with their children.
Hos 10:15 So it will happen to you, Bethel, because of your great wickedness. At daybreak, the king of Israel will be completely cut off.”

Hosea Chapter 11

Hos 11:1 “When Israel was a young man I loved him, and I called my Son out of Egypt (Mat. 2:15).
Hos 11:2 The more they were called, the more they went away from me. They sacrificed to the Baals and burned incense to idols.
Hos 11:3 Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk. It was I who lifted them up by their arms, but they did not know that I cared for them.
Hos 11:4 I led them with cords of humanity, with bands of love. I was to them like someone who eased the yoke on their jaws, and I bent down to them and fed them.
Hos 11:5 Will they not return to the land of Egypt? Will Assyria not rule over them, because they refuse to return to me?
Hos 11:6 The sword will fall on their cities and destroy the bars of their gates; it will destroy them because of their own plans.
Hos 11:7 My people are determined to turn away from me. Though they call to the Most High, no one will help them.
Hos 11:8 How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Zeboiim? My heart has changed within me; all my compassions have been stirred up.
Hos 11:9 I will not execute my fierce anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim. For I am the Almighty and not a man; I am the Set-apart One among you, and I will not come in wrath.
Hos 11:10 They will walk after me, Yehowah. I will roar like a lion. I will indeed roar, and the people will come trembling from the West.
Hos 11:11 They will come trembling like a bird from Egypt, like a dove from the land of Assyria. I will make them live in their homes,” declares Yehowah.
Hos 11:12 “Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit. But Judah is still going about with me, the Almighty, and is faithful to me, the Set-apart One.”

Hosea Chapter 12

Hos 12:1 Ephraim feeds on the wind and follows after the east wind. He continually multiplies lies and violence. They make a covenant with Assyria and carry olive oil to Egypt.
Hos 12:2 Yehowah also has a lawsuit against Judah and will punish Jacob for what he has done; he will repay him for his deeds.
Hos 12:3 In the womb, Jacob grasped his brother by the heel, and in his manhood, he struggled with the Almighty.
Hos 12:4 He struggled with the angel and won. He wept and begged for his grace. He met Yehowah at Bethel; there Yehowah spoke with him.
Hos 12:5 This is Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces; “Yehowah” is his name to be called on.
Hos 12:6 So turn to your Divine One. Keep covenantal faithfulness and justice, and wait continually for your Divine One.
Hos 12:7 The merchants have false scales in their hands; they love to defraud.
Hos 12:8 Ephraim said, “I have certainly become rich; I have found wealth for myself. In all my work, they will not find any iniquity in me, anything that would be sin.”
Hos 12:9 “I am Yehowah your Divine One from the land of Egypt. I will again make you live in tabernacles, as in the days of the appointment calendar festival (Sukkot).
Hos 12:10 I spoke to the prophets, and I gave them many visions for you. By the hand of the prophets, I gave parables.”
Hos 12:11 If there is wickedness in Gilead, surely the people are worthless. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls; their altars will be like heaps of stone in the furrows of the fields.
Hos 12:12 Jacob fled to the land of Aram; Israel worked in order to get a wife; and he kept flocks of sheep to get a wife.
Hos 12:13 Yehowah brought Israel out of Egypt by a prophet, and by a prophet he took care of them.
Hos 12:14 Ephraim has bitterly angered Yehowah. So his Lord will leave his blood on him and will turn back on him his disgrace.

Hosea Chapter 13

Hos 13:1 “When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling. He exalted himself in Israel, but he became guilty because of Baal worship, and he died.
Hos 13:2 Now they sin more and more. They make cast metal figures from their silver, idols as skillfully worked as possible, all of them the work of the craftsmen. People say of them, ‘These men who sacrifice kiss calves.’
Hos 13:3 So they will be like the morning clouds, like the dew that goes away early, like the chaff that is driven by the wind away from a threshing floor, and like smoke out of a chimney.
Hos 13:4 But I am Yehowah your Divine One from the land of Egypt. You must acknowledge no deity but me; you must acknowledge that besides me, there is no other savior.
Hos 13:5 I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great dryness.
Hos 13:6 When you had pasture, then you became full; and when you were filled, your heart became lifted up. For that reason you forgot me.
Hos 13:7 I will become like a lion to them; like a leopard I will watch along the path.
Hos 13:8 I will attack them as a bear that is robbed of her cubs. I will rip open their chests, and there I will devour them as a lion, as a wild beast would tear them to pieces.
Hos 13:9 I will destroy you, Israel; who will be able to help you?
Hos 13:10 Where now is your king, that he may save you in all your cities? Where are your rulers, about whom you entreated me, ‘Give me a king and princes?’
Hos 13:11 I gave you a king in my anger, and I took him away in my wrath.
Hos 13:12 Ephraim’s iniquity has been stored up; his guilt has been stored up.
Hos 13:13 Pains of childbirth will come on him, but he is an unwise son, for when it is time to be born, he does not come out of the womb.
Hos 13:14 Will I rescue them from the hand of the place of the dead? Will I rescue them from death? Where, death, are your plagues? Where, the place of the dead, is your destruction? Compassion is hidden from my eyes” (1 Cor. 15:54-57).
Hos 13:15 Though Ephraim is prosperous among his brothers, an east wind will come; the wind of Yehowah will blow in from the wilderness. Ephraim’s spring will dry up, and his well will have no water. His enemy will plunder his storehouse of every precious object.
Hos 13:16 Samaria will be guilty, for she has rebelled against her Divine One. They will fall by the sword; their young children will be dashed to pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

Hosea Chapter 14

Hos 14:1 O Israel, return to Yehowah your Divine One, for you have fallen because of your iniquity.
Hos 14:2 Take with you words and return to Yehowah. Say to him, “Take away all our iniquity and accept what is good, so that we may offer to you the fruit of our lips, so that we may offer bulls, which we have promised to do.
Hos 14:3 Assyria will not save us; we will not ride on horses to war. Neither will we say anymore to the work of our hands, ‘You are our deities,’ for in you the fatherless person finds compassion.”
Hos 14:4 “I will heal their turning away; I will love them freely, for my anger has turned away from him.
Hos 14:5 I will be like the dew to Israel; he will blossom like the lily and take root like a cedar in Lebanon.
Hos 14:6 His branches will spread out; his beauty will be like the olive trees, and his fragrance like the cedars in Lebanon.
Hos 14:7 The people who live in his shade will return; they will revive like grain and blossom like vines. His fame will be like the wine of Lebanon.
Hos 14:8 Ephraim, what more have I to do with idols? I will answer him and care for him. I am like a cypress whose leaves are always green; from me comes your fruit.”
Hos 14:9 Who is wise that he may understand these things? Who understands these things, so that he may know them? For the Ways of Yehowah are right, and the righteous will walk in them, but the rebellious will stumble in them.

Book of Joel

Joel Chapter 1

Joe 1:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Joel son of Pethuel.
Joe 1:2 Hear this, you elders, and listen, all you inhabitants of the land. Has this ever before happened in your days or in the days of your ancestors?
Joe 1:3 Tell your children about it, and let your children tell their children, and their children the next generation.
Joe 1:4 What the swarming locust has left the great locust has eaten; what the great locust has left the grasshopper has eaten; and what the grasshopper has left the caterpillar has eaten.
Joe 1:5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because the sweet wine has been cut off from you.
Joe 1:6 For an ethnicity has come up upon my land, strong and without number. His teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the teeth of a lioness.
Joe 1:7 He has made my vineyard into a terrifying place and has stripped my fig tree bare. He has stripped its bark and thrown it away; the branches are bare white.
Joe 1:8 Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the death of her young husband.
Joe 1:9 The grain offering and the drink offering have been cut off from the temple of Yehowah. The priests, the servants of Yehowah, mourn.
Joe 1:10 The fields have been devastated, and the land has become weak. For the grain has been destroyed, the new wine has dried up, and the oil is spoiled.
Joe 1:11 Be ashamed, you farmers, and wail, you vine growers, for the wheat and the barley. For the harvest of the fields has perished.
Joe 1:12 The vines have withered, and the fig trees have dried up, the pomegranate trees, also the palm trees, and the apple trees, all the trees of the field have withered. For joy has withered away from the descendants of mankind.
Joe 1:13 Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests! Wail, you servants of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you servants of my Divine One. For the grain offering and the drink offering have been withheld from the temple of the Almighty.
Joe 1:14 Call for a consecrated fast and call a set-apart assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the temple of Yehowah your Divine One, and cry to Yehowah.

Joe 1:15 Alas for the Day! For the Day of Yehowah is almost here. With it will come destruction from the Most Powerful.
Joe 1:16 Has not food been cut off from before our eyes, and joy and gladness from the temple of the Almighty?
Joe 1:17 The seeds rot under their clods, the granaries are desolate, and the barns have been broken down, for the grain has withered.
Joe 1:18 How the animals groan! The herds of cattle are suffering, because they have no pasture. Also, the flocks of sheep suffer.
Joe 1:19 Yehowah, I cry to you. For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flames have burned all the trees of the fields.
Joe 1:20 Even the animals of the fields pant for you, for the water brooks have dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

Joel Chapter 2

Joe 2:1 Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm on my set-apart mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble in fear, for the Day of Yehowah is coming; indeed, it is near.
Joe 2:2 It is a Day of darkness and gloom, a Day of clouds and thick darkness. Like the dawn that spreads on the mountains, a large and mighty military force is approaching. There has never been a military force like it, and there never will be again, even after many generations.
Joe 2:3 A fire is consuming everything in front of it, and behind it a flame is burning. The land is like the Garden of Eden in front of it, but behind it there is a ruined wilderness. Indeed, nothing will escape from it.
Joe 2:4 The military force's appearance is like horses, and they run like cavalry.
Joe 2:5 They jump with a noise like that of chariots on the tops of the mountains, like the noise of fiery flames that devour the stubble, like a mighty military force ready for battle.
Joe 2:6 At their presence people are in anguish, and all their faces become pale.
Joe 2:7 They run like mighty warriors; they climb the walls like soldiers; they march, every one in step, and do not break their ranks.
Joe 2:8 Neither does one thrust another aside; they march, each in his path; they break through the defenses and do not fall out of line.
Joe 2:9 They rush on the city, they run on the wall, they climb in the houses, and they go through the windows like thieves.
Joe 2:10 The earth shakes in front of them, the heavens tremble, the sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars diminish their shining.
Joe 2:11 Yehowah raises his voice in front of his military force, for his warriors are quite numerous; for they are strong, those who carry out his commands. For the Day of Yehowah is great and extremely terrible. Who can survive it?
Joe 2:12 "Yet even now," commands Yehowah, "return to me with all your heart. Fast, weep, and mourn."
Joe 2:13 Tear your heart and not only your garments, and return to Yehowah your Divine One. For he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abundant in covenant faithfulness, and he would like to turn from inflicting punishment.
Joe 2:14 Who knows? Will he perhaps turn and have compassion, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for Yehowah your Divine One?
Joe 2:15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, call for a consecrated fast, and call a set-apart assembly.

Joe 2:16 Gather the people, call for the set-apart assembly. Assemble the elders, gather the children and the nursing infants. Let the bridegroom come out of his apartment, and the bride out of her bridal chamber (Psa. 19:5; 45:15).
Joe 2:17 Let the priests, the servants of Yehowah, weep between the porch and the altar. Let them plead, "Have pity on your people, Yehowah, and do not bring your inheritance to shame, so that the ethnicities may rule over them. Why should they ask among the ethnicities, 'Where is their Divine One?'"
Joe 2:18 Then Yehowah was zealous for his land and had pity on his people.
Joe 2:19 Yehowah answered his people, "Look, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil. You will be satisfied with them, and I will no longer make you a disgrace among the ethnicities.
Joe 2:20 I will remove the northern attackers far from you and will drive them into a dry and abandoned land. The front of their military force will go into the Dead Sea and the rear into the Mediterranean Sea. Its stench and bad smell will rise." Indeed, he has done great things.
Joe 2:21 Do not fear, land, be glad and rejoice, for Yehowah will do great things.
Joe 2:22 Do not fear, beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness will sprout, the trees will bear their fruit, and the fig trees and the vines will yield their full harvest.
Joe 2:23 Be glad, people of Zion, and rejoice in Yehowah your Divine One. For he will give you the autumn rain in due course and bring down showers for you, the autumn rain and the spring rain as at the first (of the year).
Joe 2:24 The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.
Joe 2:25 "I will restore to you the years of crops that the swarming locust has eaten, the great locust, the devouring locust, and the destroying locust, my mighty military force that I sent among you.
Joe 2:26 You will eat plentifully and be full, and praise the name of Yehowah your Divine One, who has done wonders among you, and I will never again bring shame on my people.
Joe 2:27 You will know that I am among Israel, and that I am Yehowah your Divine One, and there is none else, and I will never bring shame on my people.
Joe 2:28 It will come about afterward, that I will pour out my Ruach on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions.
Joe 2:29 Also on servants and female servants, in those days, I will pour out my Ruach.
Joe 2:30 I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.
Joe 2:31 The sun will turn into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible Day of Yehowah comes.

Joe 2:32 It will be that everyone who calls on the name of Yehowah will be saved (Acts 2:16-21; Rom. 10:13). For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as Yehowah has said, and among the survivors, those whom Yehowah calls.

Joel Chapter 3

Joe 3:1 Behold, in those Days and at that time, when I return the exiles of Judah and Jerusalem,
Joe 3:2 I will gather all the ethnicities, and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. I will judge them there, because of my people and my inheritance Israel, whom they scattered among the ethnicities, and because they divided up my land.
Joe 3:3 They threw lots for my people, traded a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, so they could drink.
Joe 3:4 Now, why are you angry at me, Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Will you repay me? Even if you do repay me, I will immediately return your retribution on your own head.
Joe 3:5 For you took my silver and my gold, and you brought my precious treasures into your temples.
Joe 3:6 You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, in order to remove them far from their territory.
Joe 3:7 Look, I am about to stir them up out of the place where you sold them and will return payment on your own head.
Joe 3:8 I will sell your sons and your daughters by the hand of the people of Judah. They will sell them to the Sabeans, to an ethnicity far off. For Yehowah has spoken.
Joe 3:9 Proclaim this among the ethnicities, 'Prepare yourselves for war, rouse the mighty men, let them come near, let all the men of battle come up.
Joe 3:10 Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning knives into spears. Let the weak shout, "I am strong!"
Joe 3:11 Hurry and come, all you nearby ethnicities, gather yourselves together there. Yehowah, bring down your mighty warriors.'
Joe 3:12 Let the ethnicities wake themselves up and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. For there will I sit to judge all the surrounding ethnicities.
Joe 3:13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, crush the grapes, for the winepress is full. The vats overflow, for their wickedness is enormous" (Rev. 14:14-20).
Joe 3:14 There is a tumult, a tumult in the Valley of Judgment. For the Day of Yehowah is near in the Valley of Judgment.
Joe 3:15 The sun and the moon become dark, the stars keep back their brightness.
Joe 3:16 Yehowah will roar from Zion and raise his voice from Jerusalem. The heavens and earth will shake, but Yehowah will be a shelter for his people and a fortress for the people of Israel.

Joe 3:17 “So you will know that I am Yehowah your Divine One who lives in Zion, my set-apart mountain. Then Jerusalem will be set-apart, and no military force will march through her again.
Joe 3:18 It will come about on that Day, that the mountains will drip with sweet wine, the hills will flow with milk, all the brooks of Judah will flow with water, and a fountain will come from the temple of Yehowah and water the Valley of Shittim.
Joe 3:19 Egypt will become an abandoned devastation, and Edom will become an abandoned wilderness, because of the violence done to the people of Judah, because they shed innocent blood in their land.
Joe 3:20 But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem will be inhabited from generation to generation.
Joe 3:21 I will avenge their blood that I have not yet avenged,” for Yehowah lives in Zion.

Book of Amos

Amos Chapter 1

Amo 1:1 These are the things concerning Israel that Amos, one of the shepherds in Tekoa, received in revelation. He received these things in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and also in the days of Jeroboam II son of Joash king of Israel, two years before (c. 797 BC; 2 Chron. 26:16-21) the earthquake (c. 795 BC; Zech. 14:5).
Amo 1:2 He prophesied, “Yehowah will roar from Zion; he will raise his voice from Jerusalem. The pastures of the shepherds will dry up; the top of Carmel will wither.”
Amo 1:3 This is what Yehowah says: “For three sins of Damascus, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because they threshed Gilead with instruments of iron.
Amo 1:4 I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the fortresses of Ben Hadad.
Amo 1:5 I will break the gate bars of Damascus and cut off the man who lives in Biqat Aven, and also the man who holds the scepter in Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go in captivity to Kir,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 1:6 This is what Yehowah says: “For three sins of Gaza, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because they carried away captive a whole people, to hand them over to Edom.
Amo 1:7 I will send fire on the walls of Gaza, and it will devour her fortresses.
Amo 1:8 I will cut off the man who lives in Ashdod and the man who holds the scepter from Ashkelon. I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the rest of the Philistines will perish,” declares Lord Yehowah.
Amo 1:9 This is what Yehowah says: “For three sins of Tyre, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because they had delivered up a whole people to Edom, and they broke their covenant of brotherhood.
Amo 1:10 I will send fire on the walls of Tyre, and it will devour her fortresses.”
Amo 1:11 This is what Yehowah says, “For three sins of Edom, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because he pursued his brother with the sword and cast off all pity. His anger raged continually, and his wrath lasted forever.
Amo 1:12 I will send fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah.”
Amo 1:13 This is what Yehowah says, “For three sins of the people of Ammon, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead, that they may enlarge their borders.

Amo 1:14 I will light a fire in the walls of Rabbah, and it will devour the palaces, with a shout in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.
Amo 1:15 Their king will go into captivity, he and his officials together," declares Yehowah.

Amos Chapter 2

Amo 2:1 This is what Yehowah says: “For three sins of Moab, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.
Amo 2:2 I will send fire on Moab, and it will devour the fortresses of Kerioth. Moab will die in an uproar, with shouting and the sound of the trumpet.
Amo 2:3 I will destroy the judge in her, and I will kill all the princes with him,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 2:4 This is what Yehowah says: “For three sins of Judah, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because they rejected the Law of Yehowah and did not keep his statutes. Their lies caused them to go astray, after which their fathers had also walked.
Amo 2:5 I will send fire on Judah, and it will devour the fortresses of Jerusalem.”
Amo 2:6 This is what Yehowah says: “For three sins of Israel, even for four, I will not turn away punishment, because they sold the innocent for silver-currency and the needy for a pair of sandals.
Amo 2:7 They trample on the heads of the poor as people trample on dust on the ground; they push the oppressed away. A man and his father have sex with the same girl, and so profane my set-apart name.
Amo 2:8 They lie down beside every altar on clothes taken as pledges, and in the house of their deity they drink wine purchased with fines they imposed.
Amo 2:9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of cedars; he was strong as the oaks. Yet I destroyed his fruit above and his roots below.
Amo 2:10 Also, I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness to possess the land of the Amorites.
Amo 2:11 I raised up prophets from among your sons and Nazirites from your young men (Num. 6). Is it not so, people of Israel?” declares Yehowah.
Amo 2:12 “But you persuaded the Nazirites to drink wine and commanded the prophets not to prophesy.
Amo 2:13 Look, I will crush you as a cart that is full of grain can crush someone.
Amo 2:14 The swift person will find no escape; the strong will not add to his own strength; neither will the mighty save himself.
Amo 2:15 The archer will not stand; the fast runner will not escape; the horseman will not save himself.
Amo 2:16 Even the bravest warriors will flee naked in that Day,” declares Yehowah.

Amos Chapter 3

Amo 3:1 Hear this word that Yehowah has spoken against you, people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt,
Amo 3:2 “I have chosen only you from all the families of the earth. Therefore, I will punish you for all your sins.”
Amo 3:3 Will two walk together unless they have agreed?
Amo 3:4 Will a lion roar in the forest when he has no victim? Will a young lion growl from his den if he has caught nothing?
Amo 3:5 Can a bird fall in a trap on the ground when no bait is set for him? Will a trap spring up from the ground when it has not caught anything?
Amo 3:6 Will the trumpet sound in a city and the people not tremble? Will disaster come on a city and Yehowah has not sent it?
Amo 3:7 Surely, Lord Yehowah will do nothing unless he reveals his plan to his servants the prophets.
Amo 3:8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? Lord Yehowah has spoken; who will not prophesy?
Amo 3:9 Proclaim this in the fortresses at Ashdod, and in the fortresses in the land of Egypt; say, “Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria and see what great confusion is in her, and what oppression is in her.
Amo 3:11 Therefore, this is what Lord Yehowah declares, “An enemy will surround the land. He will pull down your strongholds and plunder your fortresses.”
Amo 3:12 This is what Yehowah declares, “As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs only, or a piece of an ear, so will the people of Israel be rescued who live in Samaria, with only the corner of a bed, or just a corner of a bedspread.”
Amo 3:13 “Hear and testify against the house of Jacob,” declares Lord Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces.
Amo 3:14 “For in the day that I punish the sins of Israel, I will also punish the altars of Bethel. The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.
Amo 3:15 I will destroy the winter house with the summer house. The houses of ivory will perish, and the large houses will vanish,” declares Yehowah.

Amos Chapter 4

Amo 4:1 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, you who are in the mountain of Samaria, you who oppress the poor, you who crush the needy, you who shout to your husbands, “Bring us drinks!”
Amo 4:2 Lord Yehowah has sworn by his consecration, “Look, the days will come on you when they will take you away with hooks, the last of you with fishhooks.
Amo 4:3 You will go out through the breaks in the city wall, each one of you going straight through it, and you will be thrown out toward Harmon,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 4:4 “Go to Bethel and sin, to Gilgal and multiply sin, bring your sacrifices at dawn, your tithes every three years.
Amo 4:5 Offer a thanksgiving sacrifice with bread; proclaim freewill offerings; announce them, for this pleases you, you people of Israel,” declares Lord Yehowah.
Amo 4:6 “I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places. Yet you have not returned to me,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 4:7 “I also withheld rain from you when there were still three months to the harvest. I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city. One piece of land was rained on, but the piece of land where it did not rain dried up.
Amo 4:8 Two or three cities staggered to another city to drink water but were not satisfied. Yet you have not returned to me,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 4:9 “I afflicted you with blight and mildew. The multitude of your gardens, your vineyards, your fig trees, and your olive trees, the locusts devoured them all. Yet you have not returned to me,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 4:10 “I sent a plague on you as on Egypt. I killed your young men with the sword, carried away your horses, and made the stench of your camp come up to your nostrils. Yet you have not returned to me,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 4:11 “I overthrew cities among you, as when the Almighty overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a burning stick snatched out of the fire. Yet you have not returned to me,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 4:12 “Therefore, I will do something terrible to you, Israel; and because I will do something terrible to you, prepare to meet your Divine One, Israel!
Amo 4:13 For look, he who forms the mountains also creates the wind and proclaims his thoughts to mankind, makes dawn’s darkness, and treads on the high places of the Earth. Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, is his name.”

Amos Chapter 5

Amo 5:1 Hear this word that I take up as a lament over you, house of Israel.
Amo 5:2 The virgin Israel has fallen; she will rise no more; she is forsaken on her land; there is no one to raise her up.
Amo 5:3 For this is what Lord Yehowah declares: “The city that went out with a thousand will have a hundred left, and the one that went out with a hundred will have ten left belonging to the house of Israel.”
Amo 5:4 For this is what Yehowah commands the house of Israel: “Seek me and live!
Amo 5:5 Do not seek Bethel; nor enter Gilgal; do not journey to Beersheba. For Gilgal will surely go into captivity, and Bethel will become nothing.
Amo 5:6 Seek Yehowah and live, or he will break out like fire in the house of Joseph. It will devour, and there will be no one to extinguish it in Bethel.
Amo 5:7 Those people turn justice into a bitter thing and throw righteousness down to the ground!”
Amo 5:8 Yehowah made the Pleiades and Orion; he turns darkness into dawn; he makes the day dark with night and calls for the waters of the sea; he pours them out on the surface of the earth. Yehowah is his name!
Amo 5:9 He brings sudden destruction on the strong, so that destruction comes on the fortresses.
Amo 5:10 They hate anyone who corrects them in the city gate, and they abhor anyone who speaks the truth.
Amo 5:11 Because you trample down the poor and take portions of wheat from him, although you have built houses of worked stone, you will not live in them. You have delightful vineyards, but you will not drink their wine.
Amo 5:12 For I know how many are your offenses and how great are your sins, you who afflict the just, take bribes, and turn aside the needy in the city gate.
Amo 5:13 Therefore, any prudent person is silent at such a time, for it is an evil time.
Amo 5:14 Seek good and not evil, so that you may live. So Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, will really be with you, as you say he is.
Amo 5:15 Hate evil, love good, establish justice in the city gate. Perhaps Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.
Amo 5:16 Therefore, this is what Yehowah declares, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, the Lord, “Wailing will be in all the squares, and they will say in all the streets, ‘Woe! Woe!’ They will call the farmers to mourning and the mourners to wail.

Amo 5:17 In all vineyards there will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst," declares Yehowah.
Amo 5:18 Woe to you who desire the Day of Yehowah! Why do you long for the Day of Yehowah? It will be darkness and not light,
Amo 5:19 as when a man flees from a lion, and a bear meets him, or he goes in a house and puts his hand on the wall, and a snake bites him.
Amo 5:20 Will not the Day of Yehowah be darkness and not light? Gloom and no brightness?
Amo 5:21 "I hate, I despise your feasts; I take no delight in your festive assemblies.
Amo 5:22 Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them, neither will I look at the peace offerings of your fattened animals.
Amo 5:23 Remove from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the sound of your harps.
Amo 5:24 Instead, let justice flow like water and righteousness like a constantly flowing stream.
Amo 5:25 Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness for forty years, house of Israel?
Amo 5:26 You accepted the tabernacle of Molech, your king, and Kaiwan, your star deity, idols that you have made for yourselves.
Amo 5:27 Therefore, I will exile you beyond Damascus," declares Yehowah, whose name is Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces.

Amos Chapter 6

Amo 6:1 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure in the hill country of Samaria, the notable men of the best of the ethnicities, to whom the house of Israel comes for help!
Amo 6:2 Your leaders say, “Go to (the Neo-Hittite City of) Calneh (Calno; Isa. 10:5-12) and look; from there go to (the Neo-Hittite City of) Hamath, the great city; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are they better than your two kingdoms? Is their border larger than your border?”
Amo 6:3 Woe to those who put off the Day of disaster and make the throne of violence come near.
Amo 6:4 They lie on beds of ivory and lounge on their couches. They eat lambs from the flock and calves from the feeding stall.
Amo 6:5 They sing foolish songs to the music of the harp; they improvise on instruments as David did.
Amo 6:6 They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but they do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.
Amo 6:7 So they will now go into exile with the first exiles, and the feasts of those who lounge about will pass away.
Amo 6:8 “I, Lord Yehowah, have sworn by myself,” declares Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces, “I detest the pride of Jacob; I hate his fortresses. Therefore, I will hand over the city with all that is in it.”
Amo 6:9 It will come about that if there are ten men left in one house, they will all die.
Amo 6:10 When a man’s relative comes to take their bodies up, the one who is to cremate them after bringing the corpses out of the house, if he asks the person in the house, “Is there anyone with you?” What if that person answers, “No.” Then he will say, “Be quiet, for we must not mention the name of Yehowah.”
Amo 6:11 For look, Yehowah will give a command, and the big house will be smashed to pieces and the little house to bits.
Amo 6:12 Do horses run on the rocky cliffs? Does one plow there with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness.
Amo 6:13 You who rejoice over Lo Debar, who ask, “Have we not taken Karnaim by our own strength?”
Amo 6:14 “But look, I will raise up against you an ethnicity, house of Israel,” declares Yehowah, Mighty One of the heavenly armed forces. “They will afflict you from Lebo Hamath to the brook of the Arabah.”

Amos Chapter 7

Amo 7:1 This is what Lord Yehowah showed me. Look, he formed a locust swarm when the spring crop began to come up, and look, it was the late crop after the king's harvest.
Amo 7:2 When they finished eating the vegetation of the land, then I entreated, "Lord Yehowah, please forgive; how will Jacob survive? For he is so small."
Amo 7:3 Yehowah relented concerning this. "It will not happen," he answered.
Amo 7:4 This is what Lord Yehowah showed me: Look, Lord Yehowah called on fire to judge. It dried the vast, deep water under the earth and would have devoured the land also.
Amo 7:5 But I entreated, "Lord Yehowah, please stop; how will Jacob survive? For he is so small."
Amo 7:6 Yehowah relented concerning this, "This also will not happen," answered Lord Yehowah.
Amo 7:7 This is what he showed me: Look, the Lord stood beside a wall built using a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand.
Amo 7:8 Yehowah asked me, "Amos, what do you see?" I answered, "A plumb line." Then the Lord declared, "Look, I will put a plumb line among my people Israel. I will spare them no longer.
Amo 7:9 The high places of Isaac will be destroyed, the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam II with the sword."
Amo 7:10 Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam II, king of Israel: "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words.
Amo 7:11 For this is what Amos prophesied, 'Jeroboam II will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile away from his land.'"
Amo 7:12 Amaziah said to Amos, "Seer, go, run back to the land of Judah and there eat bread and prophesy.
Amo 7:13 But do not prophesy anymore here at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal house."
Amo 7:14 Then Amos responded to Amaziah, "I am not a prophet nor a prophet's son. I am a herdsman, and I take care of sycamore fig trees.
Amo 7:15 But Yehowah took me from tending the flock and commanded me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'
Amo 7:16 Now hear the Word of Yehowah. You say, 'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not speak against the house of Isaac.'
Amo 7:17 Therefore, this is what Yehowah declares, 'Your wife will be a prostitute in the city; your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword; your land will be measured and divided up; you will die in an unclean land, and Israel will surely go into exile from his land.’”

Amos Chapter 8

Amo 8:1 This is what Lord Yehowah showed me. Look, a basket of summer fruit!
Amo 8:2 He asked, “What do you see, Amos?” I answered, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then Yehowah said to me, “The end has come for my people Israel; I will spare them no longer.
Amo 8:3 The songs of the temple will become wailings in that Day,” declares Lord Yehowah. “The corpses will be many, in every place, they will throw them out in silence!”
Amo 8:4 Listen to this, you who trample the needy and remove the poor of the land.
Amo 8:5 They say, “When will the beginning of the month festival be over, so we can sell grain again? When will the Sabbath be over, so that we can sell wheat? We will make the measure small and increase the price, as we cheat with false scales.
Amo 8:6 This is so we can sell bad wheat, buy the poor with silver-currency and the needy for a pair of sandals.”
Amo 8:7 Yehowah has sworn by the pride of Jacob, “Surely I will never forget any of their actions.”
Amo 8:8 Will not the land quake for this, and every one who lives in it mourn? All of it will rise up like the Nile River, and it will be tossed about and sink again like the River of Egypt.
Amo 8:9 “It will happen in that Day,” declares Lord Yehowah, “that I will make the sun set at noon, and I will darken the earth on a bright day.
Amo 8:10 I will turn your feasts into mourning and all your songs into lamentation. I will make all of you wear sackcloth and have baldness on every head. I will make it like mourning for an only son and a bitter day to its end.
Amo 8:11 Look, the days are coming,” declares Lord Yehowah, “when I will send a famine in the land, not a famine for bread, nor of thirst for water, but for hearing the words of Yehowah.
Amo 8:12 They will stagger from sea to sea; they will run from the north to the east to seek the Word of Yehowah, but they will not find it.
Amo 8:13 In that Day, the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint from thirst.
Amo 8:14 Those who swear by the guilt of Samaria and shout, ‘As your deity lives, O Dan!’ And, ‘As the way of Beersheba exists!’ Even they will fall and not rise again.”

Amos Chapter 9

Amo 9:1 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he ordered, “Strike the tops of the pillars, so that the foundations will shake. Break them in pieces on all of their heads, and I will kill the last of them with the sword. Not one of them will get away, not one of them will escape.
Amo 9:2 Though they dig into the place of the dead, there my hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, there I will bring them down.
Amo 9:3 Though they hide on the top of Carmel, there I will search and take them. Though they are hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there will I give orders to the serpent, and it will bite them.
Amo 9:4 Though they go into captivity, driven by their enemies before them, there will I give orders to the sword, and it will kill them. I will keep my eyes on them for harm and not for good.”
Amo 9:5 Lord Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces touches the land and it melts; all who live in it mourn; all of it will rise up like the River and sink again like the River of Egypt.
Amo 9:6 It is he who builds his steps in the heavens, and has established his firmament over the earth. He calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, Yehowah is his name.
Amo 9:7 Yehowah inquires, “Are you not like the people of Cush to me, people of Israel? Did I not bring up Israel out of the land of Egypt, the Philistines from Crete (Caphtor; Gen. 10:14; Deut. 2:23; 1 Chron. 1:12; Jer. 47:4), and the Arameans from Kir?
Amo 9:8 Look, the eyes of Lord Yehowah are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth, except that I will not totally destroy the house of Jacob,” declares Yehowah.
Amo 9:9 “Look, I will give a command, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the ethnicities, as one shakes grain in a sieve, so that not the smallest stone will fall to the ground.
Amo 9:10 All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, those who say, ‘Disaster will not overtake or meet us.’
Amo 9:11 In that Day, I will raise up the tabernacle of David that has fallen and close up its breaches. I will raise up its ruins and rebuild it as in the days of old,
Amo 9:12 that the remnant of the people and all the ethnicities that are called by my name may earnestly seek me,” declares Yehowah who does this (Acts 15:16-17).
Amo 9:13 “Look, the days will come,” declares Yehowah, “when the plowman will overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes will overtake him who plants seed. The mountains will drip sweet wine, and all the hills will flow with it.

Amo 9:14 I will bring back from captivity my people Israel. They will build the ruined cities and inhabit them, they will plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they will make gardens and eat their fruit.
Amo 9:15 I will plant them upon their land, and they will never again be uprooted from the land that I have given them," declares Yehowah your Divine One.

Book of Obadiah

Obadiah Chapter 1

Oba 1:1 The Vision of Obadiah (Obadyah). Lord Yehowah says this concerning Edom: “We have heard an intelligence report from Yehowah, and an ambassador has been sent among the ethnicities, shouting, “Rise up! Let us rise up against her for battle!”
Oba 1:2 Behold, I will make you small among the ethnicities, you will be greatly despised.
Oba 1:3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, in your lofty home; who ask in your heart, “Who will bring me down to the ground?”
Oba 1:4 Though you soar high like the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there,” declares Yehowah.
Oba 1:5 “If thieves came to you, if robbers came by night; how are you cut off! Would they not only steal enough for themselves? If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave the gleanings?
Oba 1:6 How Esau has been ransacked, and his hidden treasures sought out!
Oba 1:7 All the men of your alliance will send you on your way to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you and prevailed against you. They who eat your bread have set a trap under you. There is no understanding in him.
Oba 1:8 Will I not on that Day,” declares Yehowah, “destroy the wise men from Edom and understanding out of the mountain of Esau?
Oba 1:9 Your mighty men will be dismayed, Teman, so that every man may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter.
Oba 1:10 Because of the violence done to your brother Jacob, you will be covered with shame, and you will be cut off forever.
Oba 1:11 On the day you stood aloof, on the day foreigners carried away his wealth, and strangers entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.
Oba 1:12 But do not gloat over your brother’s day, in the day of his misfortune, and do not rejoice over the people of Judah in the day of their destruction; do not boast in the day of their distress.
Oba 1:13 Do not enter my people’s gate in the day of their calamity; do not gloat over their affliction in the day of their disaster, do not loot their wealth in the day of their ruin.

Oba 1:15 For the Day of Yehowah is near upon all the ethnicities. As you have done, it will be done to you; your deeds will return on your own head.
Oba 1:16 For as you have drunk on my set-apart mountain, so will all the ethnicities drink continually. They will drink and swallow, and it will be as though they had never existed.
Oba 1:17 But in Mount Zion there will be those that escape, and it will be set-apart; and the house of Jacob will possess their own possessions.
Oba 1:18 The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau will be stubble, and they will burn them and consume them. There will be no survivors to the house of Esau," for Yehowah has declared it.
Oba 1:19 "Those from the Negev will possess the mount of Esau, and those of the plain will possess the land of the Philistines. They will possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria; and Benjamin will possess Gilead.
Oba 1:20 The exiles of this host of the people of Israel will possess the land of Canaan as far as Zarephath. The exiles of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad (Spain and Portugal), will possess the cities of the Negev.
Oba 1:21 Deliverers will go up to Mount Zion to rule over the hill country of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to Yehowah."

Book of Jonah

Jonah Chapter 1

Jon 1:1 Now the Word of Yehowah came to Jonah son of Amittai,
Jon 1:2 “Get up and go to Nineveh, that great city, and speak out against it, because their wickedness has risen up before me.”
Jon 1:3 But Jonah rose up to run away from the presence of Yehowah and go to Tarshish. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and boarded the ship to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of Yehowah.
Jon 1:4 But Yehowah sent out a great wind on the sea, and it became a mighty storm on the sea. Soon it appeared that the ship was going to be broken up.
Jon 1:5 Then the sailors became afraid, and each man cried out to his own deity. They threw the ship’s cargo into the sea to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was lying there deeply asleep.
Jon 1:6 So the captain came to him and said to him, “What are you doing sleeping? Get up! Call upon your Divine One! Maybe your Divine One will notice us, and we will not perish.”
Jon 1:7 They all said to each other, “Come, let us throw lots, so that we may know who is the cause of this evil that is happening to us.” So they threw lots, and the lot fell to Jonah.
Jon 1:8 Then they inquired of Jonah, “Please tell us who is the cause of this evil that is happening to us. What is your occupation, and where did you come from? What is your country, and from which people are you?”
Jon 1:9 Jonah answered them, “I am a Hebrew; and I worship Yehowah, Mighty One of Heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land.”
Jon 1:10 Then the men were even more afraid and asked Jonah, “What is this that you have done?” For the men knew that he was running away from the presence of Yehowah, because he had told them.
Jon 1:11 Then they asked Jonah, “What should we do to you, so that the sea will calm down for us?” For the sea became more and more violent.
Jon 1:12 Jonah answered them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you, for I know that it is because of me that this great storm is happening to you.”
Jon 1:13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get them back to the land, but they could not do it, because the sea was becoming more and more violent against them.

Jon 1:14 Therefore, they cried out to Yehowah, “We beg you, Yehowah, we beg you, do not let us perish on account of this man’s life, and do not lay upon us the guilt of his death, because you, Yehowah, have done just as it pleased you!”
Jon 1:15 So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped raging.
Jon 1:16 Then the men greatly feared Yehowah. They offered sacrifices to Yehowah and made vows.
Jon 1:17 Now Yehowah had prepared a large fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah Chapter 2

Jon 2:1 Then Jonah prayed to Yehowah his Divine One from the fish's stomach.
Jon 2:2 He said, "I called out to Yehowah about my distress, and he answered me; from the belly of the place of the dead I cried out for help! You heard my voice.
Jon 2:3 You had thrown me into the depths, into the heart of the seas, and the currents surrounded me; all your waves and billows passed over me.
Jon 2:4 I said, 'I am driven out from before your eyes; yet I will again look toward your set-apart temple.'
Jon 2:5 The waters closed around me to my soul; the deep was all around me; the seafloor surrounded my head.
Jon 2:6 I went down to the bases of the mountains; the earth with its bars closed upon me forever. Yet you brought up my life from the pit, Yehowah, my Divine One!
Jon 2:7 When my soul fainted within me, I called Yehowah to mind; then my prayer came to you, to your set-apart temple.
Jon 2:8 Those who pay attention to useless deities reject your faithfulness toward themselves.
Jon 2:9 But as for me, I will sacrifice to you with a voice of thanksgiving; I will fulfill that which I have vowed. Salvation comes from Yehowah!"
Jon 2:10 Then Yehowah spoke to the fish, and it vomited up Jonah upon the dry land.

Jonah Chapter 3

Jon 3:1 The Word of Yehowah came to Jonah a second time,
Jon 3:2 “Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I command you to give.”
Jon 3:3 So Jonah rose up and went to Nineveh in obedience to the Word of Yehowah. Now Nineveh was an expansively large city, one of three days’ journey.
Jon 3:4 Jonah began to enter the city, and after a day’s journey, he called out loudly, “In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!”
Jon 3:5 The people of Nineveh believed the Almighty, and they proclaimed a fast. They all put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them down to the least of them.
Jon 3:6 Soon, the news reached the king of Nineveh. He rose up from his throne, took off his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
Jon 3:7 He sent out a proclamation that stated, “In Nineveh, by the authority of the king and his nobles, let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not eat nor drink water.
Jon 3:8 But let both man and animal be covered with sackcloth, and let them cry out loudly to the Almighty. Let every one turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.
Jon 3:9 Who knows? The Almighty may relent, change his mind, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we do not perish.”
Jon 3:10 The Almighty saw what they did, that they turned from their evil ways. So then the Almighty changed his mind about the punishment that he had said he would do to them, and he did not do it.

Jonah Chapter 4

Jon 4:1 But this displeased Jonah, and he became extremely angry.
Jon 4:2 So Jonah prayed to Yehowah, “Ah, Yehowah, is this not just what I said when I was back in my own country? That is why I acted first and tried to flee to Tarshish, because I knew that you are a gracious Almighty, compassionate, slow to anger, abundant in faithfulness, and you relent from sending disaster.
Jon 4:3 Therefore, now, Yehowah, I beg you, take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.”
Jon 4:4 Yehowah asked, “Is it good that you are so angry?”
Jon 4:5 Then Jonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city. There he made a shelter and sat under it in the shade, so that he could see what might become of the city.
Jon 4:6 Yehowah Almighty prepared a plant and made it grow up over Jonah, so that it might be a shade over his head to relieve his distress. Jonah was extremely glad because of the plant.
Jon 4:7 But the Almighty prepared a worm at daybreak the next morning. It attacked the plant, and the plant withered.
Jon 4:8 It came about that when the sun rose the next morning, the Almighty prepared a hot east wind. Also, the sun beat down on Jonah’s head, and he became faint. Then Jonah wished that he might die. He said to himself, “It is better for me to die than to live.”
Jon 4:9 Then the Almighty asked Jonah, “Is it good that you are so angry about the plant?” Then Jonah answered, “It is good that I am angry, even to death.”
Jon 4:10 Yehowah said, “You have had compassion for the plant, for which you have not labored, nor did you make it grow. It grew up in a night and died in a night.
Jon 4:11 So as for me, should I not have compassion for Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than one hundred twenty thousand people who do not know the difference between their right hand and their left hand, and also much livestock?”

Book of Micah

Micah Chapter 1

Mic 1:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Micah of Moresheth (aka Azekah) in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, the word that he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.
Mic 1:2 Listen, all you people. Listen, earth, and all that is in you. Let Lord Yehowah be a witness against you, the Lord from his set-apart temple.
Mic 1:3 Look, Yehowah comes out of his place; he will come down and tread on the high places on the earth.
Mic 1:4 The mountains will melt under him; the valleys will break apart like wax before fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place.
Mic 1:5 All this is because of the rebellion of Jacob, and because of the sins of the house of Israel. What was the reason for Jacob's rebellion? Was it not Samaria? What was the reason for the high places of Judah? Was it not Jerusalem?
Mic 1:6 "I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the field, like a place for planting vineyards. I will pull her building stones into the valley; I will uncover her foundations.
Mic 1:7 All her carved figures will be crushed to pieces; and all the gifts to her will be burned up. All her idols I will make a ruin. For from the gifts to her prostitution she gathered them, and as a prostitute's pay they will return."
Mic 1:8 For this reason I will lament and wail; I will go barefoot and naked; I will wail like the jackals and mourn like owls.
Mic 1:9 For her wound is incurable, for it has come to Judah. It has reached the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.
Mic 1:10 Do not tell about it in Gath; do not weep at all. At Beth Leaphrah I roll myself in the dust.
Mic 1:11 Pass by, inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame. The inhabitants of Zaanan do not come out. Beth Ezel mourns, for their protection is taken away.
Mic 1:12 For the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good news, because disaster has come down from Yehowah to the gates of Jerusalem.
Mic 1:13 Harness the chariot to the team of horses, inhabitants of Lachish. You, Lachish, were the beginning of sin for the daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

Mic 1:14 So you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath (aka Azekah); the town of Achzib will disappoint the kings of Israel.
Mic 1:15 I will again bring a conqueror to you, inhabitants of Mareshah; the splendor of Israel will come to Adullam.
Mic 1:16 Shave your head and cut off your hair for the children in whom you delight. Make yourself as bald as eagles, for your children will go into exile from you.

Micah Chapter 2

Mic 2:1 Woe to those who plan iniquity, to those who plan on their beds to do evil. In the morning light they do it, because they have power.
Mic 2:2 They desire fields and seize them; they desire houses and take them. They oppress a man and his household, a man and his inheritance.
Mic 2:3 Therefore, Yehowah declares this, “Look, I am about to bring disaster against this clan, from which you will not remove your necks. You will not walk arrogantly, for it will be an evil time.
Mic 2:4 In that Day, your enemies will sing a song about you and lament with a wailing lamentation. They will sing, ‘We Israelis are completely ruined; Yehowah changes the territory of my people. How has he removed it from me? He portions out our fields to traitors!’”
Mic 2:5 Therefore, you rich people will have no descendants to divide up the territory by lot in the congregation of Yehowah.
Mic 2:6 “Do not prophesy,” they say. “They must not prophesy these things; reproaches must not come.”
Mic 2:7 Should it really be asked, house of Jacob, “Is the Ruach of Yehowah angry? Are these really his deeds?” Do not my words do good to anyone who walks uprightly?
Mic 2:8 Lately, my people have risen up like an enemy. You strip the robe, the garment, from those who pass by unsuspectingly, as soldiers return from war to what they think is safety.
Mic 2:9 You drive the women belonging to my people from their pleasant houses; you take my blessing from their young children forever.
Mic 2:10 Get up and leave, for this is not a place where you can stay, because of its uncleanness; it is destroyed with complete destruction.
Mic 2:11 If someone comes to you in a spirit of falsehood and lies, and says, “I will prophesy to you about wine and beer,” he would be considered to be a prophet for this people.
Mic 2:12 I will surely assemble all of you, Jacob. I will surely gather the remnant of Israel. I will bring them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in the midst of their pasture. There will be a loud noise because of the multitude of people.
Mic 2:13 Someone who breaks open their way for them will go ahead of them. They break through the gate and go out; their king will pass on before them. Yehowah will be at their head (Mat. 11:12; 2 Sam. 5:20; Gen. 38:29).

Micah Chapter 3

Mic 3:1 I said, “Now listen, you leaders of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel: Is it not right for you to understand justice?
Mic 3:2 You who hate good and love evil, you who tear off their skin, their flesh from their bones,
Mic 3:3 you who also eat the flesh of my people, and tear their skin off, break their bones, and chop them in pieces, just like meat for a pot, just like meat in a cauldron.
Mic 3:4 Then you rulers will cry out to Yehowah, but he will not answer you. He will hide his face from you at that time, because you have done evil deeds.”
Mic 3:5 Yehowah declares this about the prophets who make my people wander, “For those who feed them and announce, ‘There will be peace!’ But for those who put nothing in their mouths, they start a war against him.
Mic 3:6 Therefore, it will be night for you with no vision for you; it will be dark, so that you will do no divination. The sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be dark on them.
Mic 3:7 The seers will be put to shame, and the diviners will be confused. All of them will cover their lips, for there is no answer from the Almighty.”
Mic 3:8 But as for me, I am full of power by the Ruach of Yehowah, and am full of justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.
Mic 3:9 Now listen to this, you leaders of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, you who detest justice, and pervert everything right.
Mic 3:10 You build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with iniquity.
Mic 3:11 Your leaders judge for a bribe, your priests teach for a price, and your prophets do divination for money. Yet you rely on Yehowah and say, “Is not Yehowah with us? No evil will come on us.”
Mic 3:12 Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will be a heap of rubble, and the hill of the temple will be like a forested hill.

Micah Chapter 4

Mic 4:1 But in the last days, it will come about that the Mountain of the temple of Yehowah will be established over the other mountains. It will be exalted above the hills, and people will stream to it.
Mic 4:2 Many ethnicities will go and say, “Come, let us go up to the Mountain of Yehowah, to the temple of the Mighty One of Jacob. He will teach us his Ways, and we will walk in his Paths.” For from Zion the law will go out, and the Word of Yehowah from Jerusalem.
Mic 4:3 He will judge among many people and will decide concerning numerous ethnicities far away. They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning knives. Ethnicity will not lift up sword against ethnicity, nor will they train for war any longer (Isa. 2:4).
Mic 4:4 Instead, they will sit every person under his vine and under his fig tree. No one will make them afraid, for the mouth of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has spoken.
Mic 4:5 For all the people walk, each one, in the name of their deity. But we will walk in the name of Yehowah our Divine One forever and ever.
Mic 4:6 “On that Day,” declares Yehowah, “I will assemble the lame and gather the outcast, those whom I have afflicted.
Mic 4:7 I will turn the lame into a remnant, and the ones driven away into a strong nation, and I, Yehowah, will reign over them on Mount Zion, now and forever.
Mic 4:8 As for you, watchtower for the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you it will come, your former dominion will be restored, the kingdom that belongs to the daughter of Jerusalem.
Mic 4:9 Now why do you shout so loudly? Is there no king among you? Has your counselor died? Is this why pain grips you like that of a woman in labor?
Mic 4:10 Be in pain and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor. For now you will go out of the city, live in the field, and go to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There Yehowah will rescue you from the hand of your enemies.
Mic 4:11 Now many ethnicities are assembled against you; they say, ‘Let her be defiled; let our eyes gloat over Zion.’”
Mic 4:12 The prophet says, “They do not know the thoughts of Yehowah, neither do they understand his plans, for he has gathered them like sheaves for the threshing floor.”
Mic 4:13 Yehowah prophesies, “Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn to be iron, and I will make your hooves to be bronze. You will crush many people. I will devote their unjust wealth to myself, Yehowah, their possessions to me, the Lord of the whole earth.”

Micah Chapter 5

Mic 5:1 Now come together in battle ranks, daughter of soldiers; the soldiers have set up a siege around the city, with a trekking pole they will strike the Judge of Israel on the cheek.
Mic 5:2 But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, even though you are small among the 1,000-resident cities of Judah, out of you One will come to me to rule in Israel, whose beginning is from ancient times, from eternity.
Mic 5:3 Therefore, He will give them up, until the time when she who is in labor bears a child, and the rest of his brothers return to the people of Israel.
Mic 5:4 He will stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of Yehowah, in the majesty of the name of Yehowah his Divine One. They will remain, for then he will be great to the ends of the earth.
Mic 5:5 He will be our peace. When the Assyrians come into our land, when they march against our fortresses, then we will raise against them seven shepherds and eight leaders of men.
Mic 5:6 They will destroy the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its entrances with a drawn sword. He will rescue us from the Assyrians, when they come into our land, when they march inside our borders.
Mic 5:7 The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many people, like dew from Yehowah, like showers on the grass that do not wait for a man, and they do not wait for the children of mankind.
Mic 5:8 The remnant of Jacob will be among the ethnicities, among many people, like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep. When he goes through them, he will trample over them and tear them to pieces, and there will be no one to save them.
Mic 5:9 Your hand will be lifted against your enemies, and it will destroy them.
Mic 5:10 “It will happen in that Day,” declares Yehowah, “that I will destroy your horses from among you and will demolish your chariots.
Mic 5:11 I will destroy the cities in your land and throw down all your strongholds.
Mic 5:12 I will destroy the witchcraft in your hand, and you will no longer have any diviners.
Mic 5:13 I will destroy your carved figures and your stone pillars from among you. You will no longer worship the workmanship of your hands.
Mic 5:14 I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you, and I will destroy your cities.
Mic 5:15 I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the ethnicities that have not listened.”

Micah Chapter 6

Mic 6:1 Now listen to what Yehowah says, “Arise and state your case before the mountains; let the hills hear your voice.
Mic 6:2 Listen to the lawsuit of Yehowah, you mountains, and you enduring foundations of the earth. For Yehowah has a lawsuit with his people, and he will fight in court against Israel.”
Mic 6:3 “My people, what have I done to you? How have I wearied you? Testify against me!
Mic 6:4 For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt and rescued you out of the house of bondage. I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to you.
Mic 6:5 My people, call to mind what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam son of Beor answered him as you went from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of me, Yehowah.”
Mic 6:6 What should I bring to Yehowah, as I bow down to the high Almighty? Should I come to him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?
Mic 6:7 Will Yehowah be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousand rivers of oil? Should I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for my own sin?
Mic 6:8 He has told you, O man, what is good, and what Yehowah requires from you: Act justly, love kindness, and walk humbly with your Divine One (Deut. 10:12-13).
Mic 6:9 The voice of Yehowah is making a proclamation to the city, even now wisdom acknowledges your name: “Pay attention to the rod, and to the One who has put it in place.
Mic 6:10 There is wealth in the houses of the wicked that is dishonest, and false measures that are abominable.
Mic 6:11 Should I consider a person to be innocent if he uses fraudulent scales, with a bag of deceptive weights?
Mic 6:12 The rich men are full of violence, the inhabitants have spoken lies, and their tongue in their mouth is deceitful.
Mic 6:13 Therefore, I have struck you with a severe wound, I have made you a ruin because of your sins.
Mic 6:14 You will eat but not be satisfied; your emptiness will remain inside you. You will store goods away but not save, and what you do save, I will give to the sword.
Mic 6:15 You will sow but not reap; you will tread the olives but not anoint yourselves with oil; you will press grapes but drink no wine.

Mic 6:16 The regulations made by Omri have been kept and all the deeds of the house of Ahab. You walk by their advice. So I will make you, city, a ruin, and you inhabitants, an object of whistling, and you will bear scorn as my people.”

Micah Chapter 7

Mic 7:1 Woe is me! For me it is like when the harvest of summer fruit is over, and also even the gleaning of the leftover grapes in the vineyards: There are no more clusters of fruit to be found, none of the early figs that I crave.
Mic 7:2 Faithful people have disappeared from the land, there is no upright person in all mankind. They all lie in wait to shed blood; each one hunts his own brother with a net.
Mic 7:3 Their hands are trained well at doing harm: The ruler asks for money, the judge is ready for bribes, and the powerful man is saying to others what he wants to obtain. Thus they plot together.
Mic 7:4 The best of them is like briers, the most upright is a hedge of thorns. It is the day foretold by your watchmen, the day of your punishment. Now is the time of their confusion.
Mic 7:5 Do not trust any neighbor; put no confidence in any friend. Be careful about what you say even to the woman who lies in your arms.
Mic 7:6 For a son dishonors his father, a daughter rises up against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A man's enemies are the people of his own household (Luke 12:52-53; Mat. 10:34-35).
Mic 7:7 But as for me, I will look to Yehowah. I will wait for the Mighty One of my salvation; my Divine One will hear me.
Mic 7:8 Do not rejoice over me, my enemy. After I fall, I will rise. When I sit in darkness, Yehowah will be a light for me.
Mic 7:9 Because I sinned against Yehowah, I will bear his rage, until he pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me to the light, and I will see him rescue me in his justice.
Mic 7:10 Then my enemy will see it, and shame will cover the one who asked me, "Where is Yehowah your Divine One?" My eyes will look at her; she will be trampled down like the mud in the streets.
Mic 7:11 A Day to build your walls will come; on that Day, the boundaries will be widely extended.
Mic 7:12 On that Day, your people will come to you from Assyria and the cities in Egypt, from Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates, from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.
Mic 7:13 Those lands will be abandoned because of the people who are living there now, because of the fruit of their actions.
Mic 7:14 Shepherd your people with your trekking pole, the flock of your inheritance. They live alone in a forest, in the midst of Carmel. Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead like in the old days.

Mic 7:15 As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt, I will show them wonders.
Mic 7:16 The ethnicities will see and be ashamed of all their power. They will put their hands on their mouths; their ears will be deaf.
Mic 7:17 They will lick the dust like a snake, like creatures that crawl on the earth. They will come out of their dens with fear; they will come with fear to you, Yehowah our Divine One, and they will be afraid because of you.
Mic 7:18 Who is an Almighty like you, you who take away sin, you who pass over the transgression of the remnant of your inheritance? You do not keep your anger forever, because you love to show us your covenant faithfulness.
Mic 7:19 You will again have compassion on us; you will trample our iniquities under your feet. You will throw all our sins into the depths of the sea.
Mic 7:20 You will give truth to Jacob and covenant faithfulness to Abraham, as you swore to our ancestors in ancient days.

Book of Nahum

Nahum Chapter 1

Nah 1:1 The declaration about Nineveh. The Book of the Vision of Nahum, the Elkoshite.
Nah 1:2 Yehowah is a jealous Almighty and avenges; Yehowah avenges and is full of wrath; Yehowah takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he continues his anger for his enemies.
Nah 1:3 Yehowah is slow to anger and great in power; he will by no means declare his enemies innocent. Yehowah makes his way in the whirlwind and the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
Nah 1:4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry; he dries up all the rivers. Bashan is weak and Carmel also; the flowers of Lebanon are weak.
Nah 1:5 The mountains shake in his presence, and the hills melt; the earth collapses in his presence, indeed, the globe and all people who live on it.
Nah 1:6 Who can stand before his wrath? Who can resist the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him.
Nah 1:7 Yehowah is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he is faithful to those who take refuge in him.
Nah 1:8 But he will make a full end of his enemies with an overwhelming flood; he will pursue them into darkness.
Nah 1:9 What are you people plotting against Yehowah? He will make a full end of it; trouble will not rise up a second time.
Nah 1:10 For they will become tangled up like thorn bushes; they will be saturated in their own drink; they will be completely devoured by fire like dry stubble.
Nah 1:11 Someone arose among you, Nineveh, who planned evil against Yehowah, someone who promoted wickedness.
Nah 1:12 This is what Yehowah declares, “Even if they are at their full strength and full numbers, they will nevertheless be sheared; their people will be no more. But you, Judah: Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.
Nah 1:13 Now will I break that people’s yoke from off you; I will break your chains.”
Nah 1:14 Yehowah has given a command about you, Nineveh: “There will be no more descendants bearing your name. I will cut off the carved figures and the cast metal figures from the houses of your deities. I will dig your graves, for you are contemptible.”

Nah 1:15 Look, on the mountains there are the feet of someone who is bringing the good news, who is announcing peace! Celebrate my pilgrimage feasts, Judah, and keep your vows, for the wicked one will invade you no more; he is completely cut off.

Nahum Chapter 2

Nah 2:1 The one who will dash you to pieces is coming up against you. Man the city walls, guard the roads, make yourselves strong, assemble your armed forces.
Nah 2:2 For Yehowah is restoring the majesty of Jacob, like the majesty of Israel, although the plunderers devastated them and destroyed their vine branches.
Nah 2:3 The shields of his mighty men are red, and the courageous men are clothed in scarlet; the chariots flash with their metal on the day that they are made ready, and the cypress spears are waved in the air.
Nah 2:4 The chariots speed through the streets; they rush back and forth in the wide streets. They look like torches, and they run like lightning.
Nah 2:5 The one who will dash you to pieces calls his officers; they stumble over each other in their march; they hurry to attack the city wall. The large shield is made ready to protect these attackers.
Nah 2:6 The sluicegates at the rivers are forced open, and the palace falls to ruins.
Nah 2:7 Huzzab is stripped of her clothes and is taken away; her female servants moan like doves, beating on their breasts.
Nah 2:8 Nineveh is like a leaking pool of water, with its people fleeing away like rushing water. Others shout, “Stop, stop!” But no one looks back.
Nah 2:9 Take the silver plunder, take the gold plunder, for there is no end to it, to the splendor of all Nineveh’s beautiful things.
Nah 2:10 Nineveh is empty and ruined. Everyone’s heart melts, everyone’s knees strike together, and anguish is in everyone; their faces are all pale.
Nah 2:11 Where now is the lion’s den, the place where the young lion cubs feed, the place where the lion and lioness walked, with the cubs, where they were afraid of nothing?
Nah 2:12 The lion tore his victims to pieces for his cubs; he strangled victims for his lionesses, and filled his cave with victims, his dens with torn carrion.
Nah 2:13 “See, I am against you,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. “I will burn your chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions. I will cut off your plunder from your land, and the voices of your messengers will be heard no more.”

Nahum Chapter 3

Nah 3:1 Woe to the city full of blood! It is all full of lies and stolen property; victims are always in her.
Nah 3:2 But now there is the noise of whips and the sound of rattling wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots.
Nah 3:3 There are attacking cavalry, flashing swords, glittering spears, heaps of corpses, great piles of bodies. There is no end to the bodies; their attackers stumble over them.
Nah 3:4 This is happening because of the lustful actions of the beautiful prostitute, the expert in witchcraft, who sells ethnicities through her prostitution, and people through her acts of witchcraft.
Nah 3:5 “See, I am against you,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “I will raise up your skirt over your face and show your private parts to the ethnicities, your shame to the kingdoms.
Nah 3:6 I will throw disgusting filth on you and make you vile; I will make you someone that everyone will look at.
Nah 3:7 It will come about that everyone who looks at you will flee from you, and ask, ‘Nineveh is destroyed; who will weep for her?’ Where can I find anyone to comfort you?”
Nah 3:8 Nineveh, are you better than Thebes (modern Luxor), that was built on the Nile River, that had water around her, whose defense was the ocean, whose wall was the sea itself?
Nah 3:9 Cush and Egypt were her strength, and there was no end to it; Put and Libya were allies to her.
Nah 3:10 Yet Thebes was carried away; she went into captivity; her young children were dashed in pieces at the head of every street; her enemies threw lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.
Nah 3:11 You also will become drunk; you will try to hide, and you will also look for a refuge from your enemy.
Nah 3:12 All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the earliest ripe figs: If they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.
Nah 3:13 See, the people among you are women; the gates of your land have been opened wide to your enemies; fire has devoured their bars.
Nah 3:14 Go draw water for the siege; strengthen your fortresses; go into the clay and tread the mortar; pick up the molds for the bricks.
Nah 3:15 Fire will devour you there, and the sword will destroy you. It will devour you as young locusts devour everything. Make yourselves as many as the young locusts, as many as the full-grown locusts.

Nah 3:16 You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars in the heavens; but they are like young locusts: They plunder the land and then fly away.
Nah 3:17 Your princes are as many as the full-grown locusts, and your generals are like swarms of them that camp in the walls on a cold day. But when the sun rises, they fly away to no one knows where.
Nah 3:18 King of Assyria, your shepherds are asleep; your rulers are lying down resting. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.
Nah 3:19 No healing is possible for your wounds. Your wounds are severe. Everyone who hears the news about you will clap their hands in joy over you. Who has escaped your constant wickedness?

Book of Habakkuk

Habakkuk Chapter 1

Hab 1:1 The message that Habakkuk the prophet received,
Hab 1:2 “Yehowah, how long will I cry for help, and you will not hear? I have cried out to you in horror, ‘Violence!’ But you will not save me.
Hab 1:3 Why do you make me see iniquity and look upon wrongdoing? Destruction and violence are before me; there is strife, and contention rises up.
Hab 1:4 Therefore, the law is weakened, and justice does not last for any time. For the wicked surround the righteous; therefore false justice goes out.”
Yehowah replies to Habakkuk,
Hab 1:5 “Look at the ethnicities and examine them; be amazed and astonished! For I am surely about to do something in your days that you will not believe when it is reported to you.
Hab 1:6 For look! I am about to raise up the Chaldeans, that fierce and impetuous ethnicity, they are marching throughout the breadth of the land to seize homes that were not their own.
Hab 1:7 They are terrifying and fearsome; their judgment and splendor proceed from themselves.
Hab 1:8 Their horses also are swifter than leopards, quicker than cheetahs at dusk. So their horses stamp, and their cavalry come from a great distance, they fly like an eagle hurrying to eat.
Hab 1:9 They all come for violence; their multitudes go like the desert wind, and they gather captives like sand.
Hab 1:10 So they mock kings, and rulers are only a mockery for them. They laugh at every stronghold, for they heap up earth and take them.
Hab 1:11 Then the wind will rush on; it will move past, guilty men, those whose might is their deity.” Habakkuk asks Yehowah another question, Hab 1:12 “Are you not from ancient times, Yehowah my Divine One, my Set-apart One? We will not die. Yehowah has ordained them for judgment, and you, Rock, have established them for correction.
Hab 1:13 Your eyes are too pure to gaze upon evil, and you are not able to look on wrongdoing with grace; why then have you looked favorably on those who betray? Why are you silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than they are?
Hab 1:14 You make men like fish in the sea, like creeping things without a ruler over them.

Hab 1:15 They bring up all of them with fishhooks; they drag men away in fishnets and gather them in their net. This is why they rejoice and shout exuberantly!
Hab 1:16 Therefore, they sacrifice to their fishing nets and burn incense to their net, for fattened beasts are their portion, and the fatty meat is their food.
Hab 1:17 Will they therefore empty their fishing nets and continue to slaughter the ethnicities, feeling no compassion?”

Habakkuk Chapter 2

Hab 2:1 I will stand at my guard post and station myself on the watchtower, and I will watch carefully to see what he will say to me, and how I should turn from my complaint.
Hab 2:2 Yehowah answered me, “Record this vision, and write legibly on the tablets, so that the one reading them might run.
Hab 2:3 For the vision is yet for a future appointment calendar time and will finally speak and not fail. Though he postpones, wait for him. For he will surely come and will not delay.
Hab 2:4 Look! The one whose desires are not right within him is puffed-up. But the righteous will live by his faith.
Hab 2:5 For wine is a betrayer of the arrogant young man, so that he will not abide, but enlarges his desire like the grave, and like death, is never satisfied. He gathers to himself every ethnicity and gathers up for himself all of the people.
Hab 2:6 Will not all these create a saying to ridicule him and a taunting song about him, ‘Woe to the one increasing what is not his! For how long will you increase the weight of the pledges you have taken?’
Hab 2:7 Will the ones biting at you not rise up suddenly, and the ones terrifying you awaken? You will become a victim for them.
Hab 2:8 Because you have plundered many ethnicities, all the remnant of the people will plunder you. For you have shed human blood and acted with violence against the land, the cities, and all who live in them.
Hab 2:9 ‘Woe to the one who carves out evil gains for his household, so he can set his nest on high to keep himself safe from the hand of evil.’
Hab 2:10 You have devised shame for your household by cutting off many people and have sinned against yourself.
Hab 2:11 For the stones will cry out from the wall, and the rafters of timber will answer them,
Hab 2:12 ‘Woe to the one who builds a city with blood, and who establishes a town in iniquity.’
Hab 2:13 Is it not from Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces that people labor for fire, and all the ethnicities weary themselves for nothing?
Hab 2:14 Yet the land will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yehowah as the waters cover the sea.
Hab 2:15 ‘Woe to the one making his neighbor drink, you who add your poison, until you make them drunk, so you can look on their nakedness.’
Hab 2:16 You will be gorged with shame rather than glory. Drink of it also and reveal your own nakedness. The cup of the right hand of Yehowah will come in its turn to you, and disgrace will cover your honor.

Hab 2:17 The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of animals will terrify you. For you have shed human blood, and you have acted with violence against the land, the cities, and all who live in them.
Hab 2:18 What does the carved figure profit you? For the one who has carved it, or who casts a figure from molten metal, is a teacher of lies; for he trusts his own handiwork when he makes these mute deities.
Hab 2:19 ‘Woe to the one saying to the wood, “Wake up!” Or to the silent stone, “Arise!”’ Do these things teach? See, it is overlaid with gold and silver, but there is no breath at all within it.
Hab 2:20 But Yehowah is in his set-apart temple! Be silent before him all the earth.”

Habakkuk Chapter 3

Hab 3:2 Yehowah, I have heard your report, and I am afraid. Yehowah, revive your work in the midst of these times; in the midst of these times make it known; remember to have compassion in your wrath.
Hab 3:3 The Almighty came from Teman, and the Set-apart One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.
Hab 3:4 The two rays of his hand were as bright as lightning, where his strength was hidden.
Hab 3:5 Deadly disease went before him, and plague went after his feet.
Hab 3:6 He stood and measured the earth; he looked and shook the ethnicities. Even the eternal mountains were shattered, and the everlasting hills bowed down. His Path is eternal.
Hab 3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction, and the fabric of the tents in the land of Midian trembling.
Hab 3:8 Was Yehowah angry at the rivers? Was your wrath against the rivers, or your fury against the sea, when you rode upon your horses and your chariots of salvation?
Hab 3:9 You have brought out your bow without a cover; you put arrows to your bow! Selah. You divided the earth with rivers.
Hab 3:10 The mountains saw you and twisted in pain. Downpours of water passed over them; the deep sea raised a shout. It lifted up its waves.
Hab 3:11 The sun and moon stood still above in their high places, at the light of your arrows they flew, at the brightness of the lightning flash of your spear.
Hab 3:12 You have marched over the earth with indignation. In wrath you have threshed the ethnicities.
Hab 3:13 You went out for the salvation of your people, for the deliverance of your anointed one. You shatter the head of the household of the wicked to expose the base of the neck. Selah.
Hab 3:14 You have pierced the head of his warriors with his own arrows, since they came like a storm to scatter us, their gloating was like one who devours the poor in a hiding place.
Hab 3:15 You have traveled over the sea with your horses and heaped up the great waters.
Hab 3:16 I heard, and my inner parts trembled! My lips quivered at the sound. Decay comes into my bones, and I tremble within myself as I wait quietly for the day of distress to come upon the people who invade us.
Hab 3:17 Though the fig tree does not bud, and there is no produce from the vines; and though the produce of the olive tree disappoints, and the fields yield no food; and though the flock is cut off from the fold, and there is no cattle in the stalls, this is what I will do:

Hab 3:18 Still, I will rejoice in Yehowah! I will be joyful because of the Mighty One of my salvation!
Hab 3:19 Lord Yehowah is my strength, and he makes my feet like the deer's. He makes me go forward on my high places. To the music director, on my stringed instruments.

Book of Zephaniah

Zephaniah Chapter 1

Zep 1:1 This is the Word of Yehowah that came to Zephaniah (Tsephanyah) son of Cushi son of Gedaliah son of Amariah son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.
Zep 1:2 “I will utterly destroy everything from off the surface of the earth,” declares Yehowah.
Zep 1:3 “I will destroy man and beast; I will destroy the birds of the sky and the fish of the sea, the stumbling blocks along with the wicked. For I will cut off mankind from the surface of the earth,” declares Yehowah.
Zep 1:4 “I will reach out with my hand over Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off every remnant of Baal from this place and the names of the idolatrous priests with the priests,
Zep 1:5 the people who on the housetops worship the heavenly bodies, and the people who worship and swear to Yehowah, but who also swear by their king, Milcom.
Zep 1:6 I will also cut off those who have turned away from following Yehowah, those who neither seek Yehowah nor ask for his guidance.”
Zep 1:7 Be silent before Lord Yehowah! For the Day of Yehowah is near; Yehowah has prepared the sacrifice and set apart his guests.
Zep 1:8 “It will come about on the Day of the sacrifice of Yehowah, that I will punish the princes and the king’s sons, and everyone dressed in outlandish clothes (Deut. 22:5).
Zep 1:9 On that Day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, those who fill their master’s house with violence and deceit.
Zep 1:10 So it will be on that Day,” declares Yehowah, “that a cry of distress will come from the Fish Gate, wailing from the Second District, and a great crashing sound from the hills.
Zep 1:11 Wail, inhabitants of the Market District, for all the merchants will be ruined; all those who weigh out silver-currency will be cut off.
Zep 1:12 It will come about at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men who have settled into their wine, and say in their heart, ‘Yehowah will not do anything, either good or evil.’
Zep 1:13 Their wealth will become plunder, and their houses will be an abandoned devastation! They will build houses but not live in them, and plant vineyards but not drink their wine.

Zep 1:14 The great Day of Yehowah is near, near and hurrying quickly! The sound of the Day of Yehowah will be that of a warrior crying bitterly!
Zep 1:15 That Day will be a Day of fury, a Day of distress and anguish, a Day of storm and devastation, a Day of darkness and gloom, a Day of clouds and thick darkness.
Zep 1:16 It will be a Day of trumpets and alarms against the fortified cities and the high battlements.
Zep 1:17 For I will bring distress upon mankind, so that they will walk about like blind men, since they have sinned against Yehowah. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their inner parts like dung.
Zep 1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the Day of the fury of Yehowah. In the fire of his jealousy the whole earth will be consumed, for he will bring a complete and terrible end of all the inhabitants of the earth.”

Zephaniah Chapter 2

Zep 2:1 Rally yourselves together and gather, unashamed nation,
Zep 2:2 before the decree takes effect, and that Day passes like the chaff, before the fierce anger of the wrath of Yehowah comes upon you, before the Day of the wrath of Yehowah comes upon you.
Zep 2:3 Seek Yehowah, all you humble people on earth who obey his decrees! Seek righteousness. Seek humility, and perhaps you will be protected in the Day of the wrath of Yehowah.
Zep 2:4 For Gaza will be abandoned, and Ashkelon will turn into a devastation. They will drive out Ashdod at noon, and they will uproot Ekron!
Zep 2:5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Cherethites (Cretans)! Yehowah has spoken against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, until no inhabitant remains.
Zep 2:6 So the seacoast will become pastures for shepherds and for sheep pens.
Zep 2:7 The coastal region will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah, who will shepherd their flocks there. Their people will lie down at dusk in the houses of Ashkelon, for Yehowah their Divine One will care for them and restore their fortunes.
Zep 2:8 “I have heard the taunts of Moab and the reviling of the people of Ammon, when they taunted my people and violated their borders.
Zep 2:9 Therefore, as I live,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, Mighty One of Israel, “Moab will become like Sodom, and the people of Ammon like Gomorrah; a place of nettles and a salt pit, deserted forever. But the remnant of my people will plunder them, and the remainder of my nation will take possession of them.
Zep 2:10 This will happen to Moab and Ammon because of their pride, since they taunted and mocked the people of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Zep 2:11 Then they will fear Yehowah, for he will emaciate all the deities of the earth. Everyone will worship him, everyone from his own place, from every seashore of the ethnicities.
Zep 2:12 You Cushites also will be pierced by my sword,
Zep 2:13 and his outstretched hand will attack the north and destroy Assyria, so that Nineveh will become an abandoned devastation, as dry as the desert.
Zep 2:14 Then herds will lie down there, every animal of the ethnicities, both the desert owl and the hedgehog will rest in the top of her columns. A call will sing out from the windows; rubble will be in the doorways; her carved cedar beams will be exposed.

Zep 2:15 This is the exultant city that lived without fear, that said in her heart, “I am, and nothing is my equal.” How she has become a horror, a place for beasts to lie down in. Every one that passes by her will whistle and shake his fist at her.”

Zephaniah Chapter 3

Zep 3:1 Woe to the rebellious city! The violent city is defiled.
Zep 3:2 She has not listened to the voice of Yehowah, nor accepted correction from Yehowah. She does not trust in Yehowah and will not approach her Divine One.
Zep 3:3 Her princes are roaring lions in her midst. Her judges are cheetahs at dusk, who leave nothing to be gnawed upon at dawn.
Zep 3:4 Her prophets are insolent and treasonous men. Her priests have profaned what is set-apart and have done violence to the law.
Zep 3:5 Yehowah is righteous in her midst. He can do no wrong. Morning by morning he will dispense his justice! It will not be hidden in the light, yet unrighteous people know no shame.
Zep 3:6 “I have destroyed ethnicities; their fortresses are ruined. I have made their streets ruins, so that no one passes over them. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man inhabiting them.
Zep 3:7 I said, ‘Surely you will fear me. Accept correction and do not be cut off from your homes by all that I have planned to do to you.’ But they were eager to begin each morning by corrupting all their deeds.
Zep 3:8 Therefore, wait for me,” declares Yehowah, “until the Day that I rise up for the victim. For my decision is to gather the ethnicities, to assemble the kingdoms, and to pour out upon them my anger, all my fierce wrath, so that all the land will be devoured by the fire of my jealousy.
Zep 3:9 But then I will return a pure language to the people, to call all of them in the name of Yehowah to serve me standing shoulder to shoulder (Zech. 8:23).
Zep 3:10 From beyond the river of Cush my worshipers, my scattered people, will bring offerings due me.
Zep 3:11 In that Day, you will not be put to shame for all your deeds that you committed against me, since at that Time, I will remove from among you those who celebrated your pride, and because you will no longer act arrogantly on my set-apart mountain.
Zep 3:12 But I will leave in your midst a lowly and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of Yehowah.
Zep 3:13 The remnant of Israel will no longer commit injustice or speak lies, and no deceitful tongue will be found in their mouth; so they will graze and lie down, and no one will make them afraid.”
Zep 3:14 Sing, daughter of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem!

Zep 3:15 Yehowah has taken away your punishment; he has driven out your enemies! Yehowah is the king of Israel among you. You will never again fear evil!
Zep 3:16 In that Day, they will say to Jerusalem, “Do not fear, Zion. Do not let your hands falter.
Zep 3:17 Yehowah your Divine One is among you, a Chief to save you. He will celebrate over you, and with joy he will refresh you in his love. He will be glad over you, and he will shout for joy,
Zep 3:18 as on the day of the appointment calendar festival! I will take away disaster from you; you will no longer bear any shame for it.
Zep 3:19 Behold, I am about to deal with all your oppressors. At that Time, I will rescue the lame and gather up the outcast. I will make them as praise, and I will change their shame into renown in all the earth.
Zep 3:20 At that Time, I will lead you; at that Time, I will gather you together. I will make all the ethnicities of the earth respect and praise you, when you see that I restored you,” declares Yehowah.

Book of Haggai

Haggai Chapter 1

Hag 1:1 In the second year of King Darius I, Hystaspes (c. 520 BC), on the first day of the sixth month, the Word of Yehowah came by the hand of Haggai the prophet to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak,
Hag 1:2 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: These people say, ‘It is not time for us to come or to build the temple of Yehowah.’”
Hag 1:3 Then the Word of Yehowah came by the hand of Haggai the prophet,
Hag 1:4 “Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your finished houses, while this temple lies ruined?
Hag 1:5 So now Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: Consider your ways!
Hag 1:6 You have sown much seed, but bring in little harvest; you eat but do not have enough; you drink but cannot get drunk. You wear clothes but cannot warm yourselves, and the wage earner earns silver only to put it into a moneybag full of holes!
Hag 1:7 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: Consider your ways!
Hag 1:8 Go up to the mountain, bring timber and build my temple; then I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified!” declares Yehowah.
Hag 1:9 “You looked for much, but behold! You have brought little home, for I blew it away! Why?” asks Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. “Because my temple lies in ruins, while every man takes pleasure in his own house.
Hag 1:10 Because of this, the heavens withhold the dew from you, and the earth withholds its produce.
Hag 1:11 I have summoned a drought upon the land and upon the mountains, upon the grain and upon the new wine, upon the oil and upon the harvest of the earth, upon men and upon beasts, and upon all the labor of your hands!”
Hag 1:12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, along with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yehowah their Divine One and the words of Haggai the prophet, because Yehowah their Divine One had sent him, and the people feared the face of Yehowah.
Hag 1:13 Then Haggai, the messenger of Yehowah, spoke the message of Yehowah to the people, “I am with you!” Yehowah declares.

Hag 1:14 So Yehowah stirred up the spirit of the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and the spirit of the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, so that they went and worked on the temple of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, their Divine One,
Hag 1:15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius (c. 520 BC).

Haggai Chapter 2

Hag 2:1 On the twenty-first of the seventh month, the Word of Yehowah came by the hand of Haggai the prophet,
Hag 2:2 “Speak to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and to the remnant of the people.
Hag 2:3 Ask, ‘Who is left among you who saw this temple in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not like nothing in your eyes?’
Hag 2:4 Now be strong, Zerubbabel!” declares Yehowah, “and be strong, high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak; and be strong, all you people in the land!” declares Yehowah, “and work, for I am with you!” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Hag 2:5 “By the promises contained in the covenant that I established with you when you came out of Egypt and my Ruach standing among you, do not fear!
Hag 2:6 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: In a little while, I will once again shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land!
Hag 2:7 I will shake every ethnicity, and every ethnicity will bring their precious things to me, and I will fill this temple with glory,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Hag 2:8 “The silver and gold are mine!” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Hag 2:9 “The glory of this temple will be greater in the future than at the beginning,” says Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “and I will give peace in this place!” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Hag 2:10 On the twenty-fourth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius I, Hystaspes (c. 520 BC), the Word of Yehowah came by Haggai the prophet,
Hag 2:11 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: Ask the priests concerning the law,
Hag 2:12 ‘If a man carries meat that is set apart to Yehowah in the folds of his garment, and if he touches bread or stew, wine or oil, or any other food with his fold, does that food become set apart?’” The priests answered, “No.”
Hag 2:13 Then Haggai asked, “If someone who is unclean because of death touches any of these things, do they become unclean?” The priests answered, “Yes, they become unclean.”
Hag 2:14 So Haggai answered, “So it is with this people and this nation before me!” declares Yehowah. “And so it is with everything done by their hands: What they offer to me is unclean.
Hag 2:15 So now, think in your minds about the past leading up to this day. Before a stone was laid in the temple of Yehowah,

Hag 2:16 how was it then? When one came to a heap of grain expecting twenty measures, but there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures, but there were only twenty?
Hag 2:17 I afflicted you and all the work of your hands with blight and mildew, but you still did not turn to me," declares Yehowah.
Hag 2:18 "Consider from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the temple of Yehowah was laid (c. 520 BC). Consider it!
Hag 2:19 Is there still seed in the storehouse? The vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not produced! But from this day will I bless you!"
Hag 2:20 Then the Word of Yehowah came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth of the month,
Hag 2:21 "Speak to the governor of Judah, Zerubbabel, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth.
Hag 2:22 For I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the ethnicities! I will overthrow the chariots and their riders; the cavalry will fall down, each one because of his brother's sword.
Hag 2:23 On that day,' declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, as my servant,' declares Yehowah. 'I will set you like the seal on my ring, for it is you that I have chosen!'" declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.

Book of Zechariah

Zechariah Chapter 1

Zec 1:1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius' reign (Darius I, Hystaspes, c. 520 BC), the Word of Yehowah came to Zechariah (Zekaryah) son of Berechiah son of Iddo, the prophet,
Zec 1:2 "Yehowah was exceedingly angry with your fathers!
Zec 1:3 Say to them, 'Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: Turn to me!' declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, 'and I will return to you,' says Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Zec 1:4 'Do not be like your fathers to whom the prophets cried out previously, "Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: Turn from your evil ways and wicked practices!" But they would not hear and did not pay attention to me,' declares Yehowah.
Zec 1:5 Your fathers, where are they? Where are the prophets, are they here forever?
Zec 1:6 But my words and my decrees that I commanded my servants the prophets, have they not overtaken your fathers? So they repented and said, 'Just as Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces planned to do to us what our ways and actions deserved, so he has dealt with us.'"
Zec 1:7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius' reign (c. 519 BC), the Word of Yehowah came to Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo the prophet,
Zec 1:8 "I saw in the night, and look! A man was riding on a red horse, and he was among the myrtle trees that are in the valley; and behind him there were red, sorrel, and white horses" (Zech. 6:3, 6; Rev. 6:8).
Zec 1:9 I asked, "What are these things, Lord?" Then the angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these things are."
Zec 1:10 Then the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "These are those Yehowah has sent out to roam throughout the earth."
Zec 1:11 They answered the angel of Yehowah who stood among the myrtle trees, "We have been roaming throughout the earth; see, all the earth sits still and is at rest."
Zec 1:12 Then the angel of Yehowah asked, "Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, how long will you show no compassion to Jerusalem, and to the cities of Judah that have suffered indignation these seventy years?"

Zec 1:13 Yehowah answered the angel who had talked with me, with good words, words of comfort.
Zec 1:14 So the angel who had talked with me said to me, “Call out, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: I have been zealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great passion!
Zec 1:15 I am extremely angry with the ethnicities that are at ease. When I was only a little angry with them, they made the disaster worse.
Zec 1:16 Therefore, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My temple will be built within her,’ declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, ‘and the measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem!’
Zec 1:17 Again call out, ‘Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: My cities will once again overflow with goodness, and Yehowah will again comfort Zion, and he will once again choose Jerusalem!’”
Zec 1:18 Then I lifted up my eyes and saw four horns!
Zec 1:19 I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these?” He answered me, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”
Zec 1:20 Then Yehowah showed me four craftsmen.
Zec 1:21 I asked, “What are these people coming to do?” He answered, “These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no man would lift up his head. But these people are coming to drive them out, to cast down the horns of the ethnicities that lifted up any horn against the land of Judah to scatter her.”

Zechariah Chapter 2

Zec 2:1 Next, I lifted up my eyes and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.
Zec 2:2 I asked, “Where are you going?” So he answered me, “To measure Jerusalem, to determine its width and length.”
Zec 2:3 Then the angel who had talked with me went away, and another angel went out to meet him.
Zec 2:4 The second angel said to him, “Run and speak to that young man, ‘Jerusalem will sit in the open country because of the multitudes of men and beasts within her.
Zec 2:5 For I,’ declares Yehowah, ‘will become for her a wall of fire around her, and I will be the glory in her midst.
Zec 2:6 Up! Up! Flee from the land of the north,’ declares Yehowah, ‘for I have scattered you like the four winds of the skies!’ declares Yehowah.
Zec 2:7 ‘Up! Escape to Zion, you who live with the daughter of Babylon!’”
Zec 2:8 For after Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces honored me, he sent me against the ethnicities that plundered you, for whoever touches you, touches the apple of his eye.
Zec 2:9 He declared, “I myself will shake my hand over them, and they will be plunder for their slaves.” Then you will know that Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has sent me.
Zec 2:10 “Sing for joy, daughter of Zion, for I myself am about to come and encamp among you!” declares Yehowah.
Zec 2:11 Then great ethnicities will join themselves to Yehowah in that Day. He prophesies, “Then you will become my people; for I will encamp in the midst of you,” and you will know that Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has sent me to you.
Zec 2:12 For Yehowah will inherit Judah as his rightful possession in the set-apart land and will once again choose Jerusalem for himself.
Zec 2:13 Be silent, all flesh, before Yehowah, for he has been roused from out of his Set-apart Place!

Zechariah Chapter 3

Zec 3:1 Then Yehowah showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Yehowah, and Satan was standing at his right hand to accuse him of sin.
Zec 3:2 The angel of Yehowah said to Satan, “May Yehowah rebuke you, Satan; may Yehowah, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is this not a brand pulled from the fire?”
Zec 3:3 Joshua was dressed in filthy garments as he stood before the angel.
Zec 3:4 The angel spoke and ordered those who stood before him, “Remove the filthy garments from upon him.” Then he said to Joshua, “Look! I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will dress you in fine clothing.”
Zec 3:5 He said, “Let them put a clean turban on his head!” So they set a clean turban on Joshua’s head and clothed him with clean garments, while the angel of Yehowah was standing by.
Zec 3:6 Next, the angel of Yehowah solemnly commanded Joshua,
Zec 3:7 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: If you will walk in my Ways, and if you will keep my commandments, then you will govern my temple and guard my courts, for I will allow you to go and come among these who stand before me.
Zec 3:8 Listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your companions who live with you! For these men are a sign, for I myself will bring up my servant the Branch.
Zec 3:9 Now look at the stone that I have set before Joshua. There are seven facets on this single stone, and I will engrave an inscription,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “and I will remove the sin from this land in one day (Rev. 2:17).
Zec 3:10 In that Day,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “each man will invite his neighbor to sit under his vine and under his fig tree.”

Zechariah Chapter 4

Zec 4:1 Then the angel who was talking with me turned and roused me like a man roused from his sleep.
Zec 4:2 He asked me, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a menorah made entirely of gold, with a bowl on its top. It has seven lamps on it and seven lamp wicks at the top of each lamp.
Zec 4:3 Two olive trees are by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on the left side.”
Zec 4:4 So I spoke again to the angel who was talking with me. I asked, “What do these things mean, my master?”
Zec 4:5 The angel who was talking with me asked me, “Do you not know what these things mean?” I answered, “No, my master.”
Zec 4:6 So he explained to me, “This is the Word of Yehowah to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Ruach,” says Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Zec 4:7 “What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain, and he will bring out the top stone to shouts of ‘Grace! Grace!’ to it.”
Zec 4:8 The Word of Yehowah came to me,
Zec 4:9 “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this temple, and his hands will bring it to completion. Then you will know that Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has sent me to you.
Zec 4:10 Who has despised the day of small things? These people will rejoice and will see the plumb bob in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven lamps are the eyes of Yehowah that roam over the whole earth.”
Zec 4:11 Then I asked the angel, “What are these two olive trees that stand on the left and the right of the menorah?”
Zec 4:12 Once more I asked him, “What are these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that have golden oil pouring out of them” (Rom. 11:17; Jer. 11:16)?
Zec 4:13 Then he asked me, “Do you not know what these are?” I answered, “No, my master.”
Zec 4:14 So he answered, “These are the two sons of fresh olive oil who stand before the Lord of all the earth” (Rev. 11:4).

Zechariah Chapter 5

Zec 5:1 Then I turned and lifted my eyes, and I saw, behold, a flying roll!
Zec 5:2 The angel asked me, “What do you see?” I answered, “I see a flying roll, ten meters long and one and one-half meters wide.”
Zec 5:3 Then he declared to me, “This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land, for every thief will be cut off from now on based on what it says on the one side, while everyone who swears a false oath will be cut off based on what it says on the other side, according to their words.
Zec 5:4 “I will send it out,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “so it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one that swears falsely by my name. This flying roll will destroy entire buildings, consuming timber and stones, and a deadly residue will remain.”
Zec 5:5 Then the angel who was speaking with me went out and ordered me, “Raise your eyes and see what is coming!”
Zec 5:6 I asked, “What is it?” He answered, “This is a flying container. This is what they look like in the whole land.”
Zec 5:7 Then I saw a round weight of lead, and inside the lead was a fire offering!
Zec 5:8 The angel proclaimed, “This is a wicked fire offering!” The lead weight and the wicked fire offering were put back in the container and covered.
Zec 5:9 Then I saw another container coming toward me, and it had wind in its wings, for it had wings like a stork’s wings. It had two fires coming out of it. It lifted the first container with the wicked fire offering and carried it up between earth and the heavens.
Zec 5:10 So I asked the angel who was talking to me, “Where are they taking the container with the wicked fire offering?”
Zec 5:11 He answered me, “To build a housing for it in the land of Shinar, then the container will be set there on its prepared base” (Dan. 12:11).

Zechariah Chapter 6

Zec 6:1 Then I turned and lifted my eyes, and I saw four chariots coming out from between two mountains; and the two mountains were made of bronze.
Zec 6:2 The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot had black horses,
Zec 6:3 the third chariot had white horses, and the fourth chariot had pinto horses (Rev. 6:8; Zech 1:8).
Zec 6:4 So I answered and asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my master?"
Zec 6:5 The angel answered me, "These are the four spirits of Heaven that go out from the place where they were standing before the Lord of all the earth.
Zec 6:6 The one with the black horses is going out to the north country; the white horses are going out to the west country; and the pintos are going out to the south country."
Zec 6:7 The red horses went out and sought to go and roam over the earth, so the angel ordered, "Go and roam over the earth!" And they left for all the earth.
Zec 6:8 Then he called out to me, "Look at the ones that are going out to the north country; they will appease my Ruach concerning the north country!"
Zec 6:9 So the Word of Yehowah came to me,
Zec 6:10 "Collect an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, and go this same day and take it into the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah, who has come from Babylon.
Zec 6:11 Then take the silver and gold, make a crown and set it upon the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest (Ezra 3:2).
Zec 6:12 Speak to him, 'Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: See the Man, whose name is Branch! He will grow up where he is and will then build the temple of Yehowah!
Zec 6:13 It is he who will build the temple of Yehowah and will raise up its splendor; then he will sit and rule on his throne. He will be a Priest upon his throne, and the understanding of peace will exist between the two.
Zec 6:14 A crown will be placed in the temple of Yehowah to honor Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah and as a memorial to the generosity of the son of Zephaniah.
Zec 6:15 Then those who are far off will come and build the temple of Yehowah, so you will know that Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces has sent me to you; for this will happen, if you truly listen to the voice of Yehowah your Divine One!'"

Zechariah Chapter 7

Zec 7:1 When King Darius had been ruler for four years (c. 518 BC), on the fourth of the ninth month, Kislev, the Word of Yehowah came to Zechariah.
Zec 7:2 The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem Melech and their men to beg before the face of Yehowah.
Zec 7:3 They spoke to the priests who were at the temple of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces and to the prophets; they asked, “Should I mourn in the fifth month by means of a fast, as I have done these many years?”
Zec 7:4 So the Word of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces came to me,
Zec 7:5 “Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests, and ask, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, were you truly fasting for me?
Zec 7:6 When you ate and drank, did you not eat and drink for yourselves?
Zec 7:7 Were these not the same words that Yehowah proclaimed by the mouth of the former prophets, when you still inhabited Jerusalem and the surrounding cities in prosperity and were settled in the Negev, and the foothills to the west?’”
Zec 7:8 The Word of Yehowah came to Zechariah,
Zec 7:9 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this, ‘Judge with true justice, covenant faithfulness, and mercy. Let each man do this for his brother.
Zec 7:10 About the widow and orphan, the sojourning foreigner, and the poor person, do not oppress them, and let none of you plot any harm against another in your heart.’
Zec 7:11 But they refused to pay attention and set their shoulders stubbornly. They stopped up their ears, so they would not hear.
Zec 7:12 They made their hearts as hard as rock, so they would not hear the law or the words of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. He had sent these messages to the people by his Ruach in earlier times, by the mouth of the prophets. But the people refused to listen, so Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces was extremely angry with them.
Zec 7:13 It happened that when he called, they did not listen. In the same way,” says Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “they will call out to me, but I will not listen.
Zec 7:14 For I will scatter them with a whirlwind to all the ethnicities that they have not seen, and the land will be desolate after them. For no one will pass through the land or return to it, since the people have made their delightful land into a wasteland.”

Zechariah Chapter 8

Zec 8:1 The Word of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces came to me,
Zec 8:2 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: I am passionate for Zion with great zeal, and I am passionate for her with great anger!
Zec 8:3 Yehowah says this: I will return to Zion and will live in the midst of Jerusalem, for Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the Mountain of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will be called the Set-apart Mountain!
Zec 8:4 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: Old men and old women will once again be in the streets of Jerusalem, and every person will need a trekking pole in his hand, because he has grown so old.
Zec 8:5 The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in them.
Zec 8:6 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces asks this: If something seems impossible in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also seem impossible in my eyes?” declares Yehowah.
Zec 8:7 “Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: Behold, I am about to rescue my people from the land of the sunrise and from the land of the setting sun!
Zec 8:8 For I will bring them back, and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem, so they will again be my people, and I will be their Divine One in truth and in righteousness!
Zec 8:9 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: You who now continue to hear the same words that came from the prophets’ mouths when the foundation of my temple was laid, this temple of mine, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces: Strengthen your hands, so that the temple can be built.
Zec 8:10 For before those days, no crops were gathered in by anyone, there was no profit for either man or beast, and there was no peace from enemies for anyone going or coming. I had set every person each against his neighbor.
Zec 8:11 But now it will not be as in former days, I will be with the remnant of this people,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Zec 8:12 “For seeds of peace will be sown; the climbing vine will give its fruit, and the earth will give its produce; the skies will give their dew, for I will make the remnant of this people inherit all these things.
Zec 8:13 You were an example to the ethnicities of a curse, house of Judah and house of Israel. So I will rescue you, and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid; let your hands be strong!
Zec 8:14 For Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: Just as I planned to do harm to you when your ancestors provoked my anger,” says Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “and did not relent, Zec 8:15 so also I will plan in these days to do good again to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah! Do not fear!

Zec 8:16 These are the things that you must do: Speak truth, every person with his neighbor. Judge with truth, justice, and peace in your gates.
Zec 8:17 Do not plan to do evil within your heart against one another, and do not love false oaths, for these are the things I hate!" declares Yehowah.
Zec 8:18 Then the Word of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces came to me,
Zec 8:19 "Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: The fasts of the fourth month, the fifth, the seventh, and the tenth will become times of joy, gladness, and happy appointment calendar festivals for the house of Judah! Therefore, love truth and peace!
Zec 8:20 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says this: People will come again, even those who are living in many different cities.
Zec 8:21 The inhabitants of one city will go to another city and say, "Let us quickly go to beg before the face of Yehowah and to seek Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces! We ourselves are also going.
Zec 8:22 Many people and mighty ethnicities will come to seek Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces in Jerusalem and beg for the grace of Yehowah!
Zec 8:23 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces declares this: In those days, ten men from every multilingual ethnicity will grasp the tassel of a Jew's robe and say, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that the Almighty is with you'"" (Zeph. 3:9)!

Zechariah Chapter 9

Zec 9:1 This is a declaration of the Word of Yehowah concerning the land of Hadrach and Damascus. For the eye of Yehowah is on all mankind and also on all the tribes of Israel.
Zec 9:2 This declaration also concerns Hamath, which borders on Damascus, and it concerns Tyre and Sidon, though they are extremely wise.
Zec 9:3 “Tyre has built herself a stronghold and heaped up silver like dust and refined gold like mud in the streets.
Zec 9:4 Look! The Lord will dispossess her and destroy her strength on the sea, so she will be devoured by fire.
Zec 9:5 Ashkelon will see and be afraid! Gaza also will tremble greatly! Ekron, her hopes will be disappointed! The king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will no longer be inhabited!
Zec 9:6 Illegitimate people will make their homes in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.
Zec 9:7 For I will remove their blood from their mouths and their abominations from between their teeth. Then they will become a remnant for our Divine One like a clan in Judah, and Ekron will become like the Jebusites.
Zec 9:8 I will camp around my land against enemy armed forces, so no one can pass through or return, for no oppressor will pass any more through it. For now I will watch over my land with my own eyes!
Zec 9:9 Shout with great joy, daughter of Zion! Shout with happiness, daughter of Jerusalem! Behold! Your king is coming to you with righteousness and is rescuing you. He is humble and is riding on a colt, on the foal of a jenny (Gen. 49:11; Mat. 21:5; Exo. 4:20).
Zec 9:10 Then I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem, and the bow will be cut off from battle; for he will speak peace to the ethnicities, and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth!
Zec 9:11 As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you, I will set your prisoners free from the pit where there is no water.
Zec 9:12 Return to the stronghold, prisoners of hope! Even today, I am declaring that I will return double to you,
Zec 9:13 for I have bent Judah as my bow. I have filled my quiver with Ephraim. I have roused your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and have made you, Zion, like a warrior’s sword!
Zec 9:14 Yehowah will appear to them, and his arrows will shoot out like lightning! For Lord Yehowah will blow the trumpet and will advance with hurricane-force winds from the south.

Zec 9:15 Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will defend them, and they will devour them and defeat the stones of the slings. Then they will drink and shout like men drunk on wine, and they will be filled with wine like bowls, like the corners of the altar.
Zec 9:16 So Yehowah their Divine One will rescue them on that Day; they will be like the flock of his people, for they will be the jewels of a crown, raised up over his land.
Zec 9:17 How good and how beautiful they will be! The young men will flourish on grain and the virgins on new wine!”

Zechariah Chapter 10

Zec 10:1 “Ask for rain from Yehowah in the season of the spring rain, Yehowah who makes thunderstorms, and he gives rain showers to everyone and vegetation in the field.
Zec 10:2 For household idols speak falsely; the diviners envision a lie; they tell deceitful dreams and give empty comfort, so they wander like sheep and suffer, because there is no shepherd.
Zec 10:3 My wrath burns against the shepherds; it is the male goats, the leaders, that I will punish. Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will also attend to his flock, the house of Judah, and make them like his warhorse in battle!
Zec 10:4 From them will come the Cornerstone; from them will come the Tent Peg; from them will come the War Bow; from them will come all leaders together.
Zec 10:5 They will be like warriors who trample their enemies into the mud of the streets in battle; they will make war, for Yehowah is with them, and they will shame the cavalry.
Zec 10:6 I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph; for I will restore them and have mercy on them. They will be as though I had not cast them off, for I am Yehowah their Divine One, and I will respond to them.
Zec 10:7 Then Ephraim will be like a warrior, and their hearts will rejoice as with wine; their children will see and rejoice. Their hearts will rejoice in Yehowah!
Zec 10:8 I will whistle for them and gather them, for I will rescue them, and they will become as great as they previously were!
Zec 10:9 I sowed them among the ethnicities, but they will remember me in distant countries, so they and their children will live and return.
Zec 10:10 For I will restore them from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to the land of Gilead and Lebanon, until there is no more room for them.
Zec 10:11 I will pass through the sea of their affliction; I will strike the waves of that sea and will dry up all the depths of the Nile. The majesty of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will go away from the Egyptians.
Zec 10:12 I will strengthen them in Yehowah, and they will walk in my name,” declares Yehowah.

Zechariah Chapter 11

Zec 11:1 “Open your doors, Lebanon, that fire may devour your cedars!
Zec 11:2 Lament, cypress trees, for the cedar trees have fallen! What was majestic has been devastated! Lament, you oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest has gone down.
Zec 11:3 The shepherds howl, for their glory has been destroyed! The voice of the young lions roar, for the pride of the Jordan River has been devastated!”
Zec 11:4 This is what Yehowah my Divine One declares, “Like a shepherd, watch over the flock destined for slaughter!
Zec 11:5 The ones who buy them slaughter them and are not punished, and the ones who sell them rejoice, ‘Blessed be Yehowah! I have become rich!’ For the shepherds working for the flocks’ owners have no pity on them.
Zec 11:6 For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land!” declares Yehowah. “See! I myself am about to turn over every person into the hand of his neighbor and into the hand of his king, and they will destroy the land, and none of them will I deliver from their hand.”
Zec 11:7 So I became the shepherd of the flock destined for slaughter, for those who dealt in sheep. I took two trekking poles; one trekking pole I called “Grace,” and the other I called “Unity.” In this Way, I shepherded the flock.
Zec 11:8 In one month, I destroyed the three shepherds, for I ran out of patience with them, and they hated me as well.
Zec 11:9 Then I declared to the owners, “I will not work as a shepherd for you any longer. The sheep that are dying, let them die; the sheep that are being destroyed, let them be destroyed. Let the sheep that remain each eat the flesh of its neighbor.”
Zec 11:10 So I took my trekking pole “Grace” and broke it, to break the covenant that I had made with all of my tribes.
Zec 11:11 On that day, the covenant was broken, and those who dealt in sheep, and who were watching me, knew that Yehowah had spoken.
Zec 11:12 I said to them, “If it seems good to you, pay me my wages. But if not, do not do it.” So they vowed to pay my wages, thirty silver coins.
Zec 11:13 Then Yehowah ordered me, “Deposit the silver in the treasury, the excellent price at which they valued you!” So I took the thirty silver coins and deposited them in the treasury in the temple of Yehowah (Mat. 26:14-15; 27:3-10).
Zec 11:14 Then I broke my second trekking pole “Unity,” to break the joint tenancy between Judah and Israel.
Zec 11:15 Yehowah declared to me, “Again, take the equipment of a foolish shepherd for yourself,

Zec 11:16 for see, I am about to set in place a shepherd in the land. He will not care for the perishing sheep. He will not seek out the sheep gone missing, nor heal the crippled sheep. He will not feed the sheep that are healthy, but will eat the flesh of the fattened sheep and will tear off their hooves.
Zec 11:17 Woe to the worthless shepherd who forsakes the flock! May the sword come against his arm and his right eye! May his arm wither away, and may his right eye become blind!”

Zechariah Chapter 12

Zec 12:1 This is a declaration of the Word of Yehowah concerning Israel, a declaration of Yehowah, who stretched out the skies and laid the foundation of the earth, who fashions the spirit of mankind within man,
Zec 12:2 “See, I am about to make Jerusalem into a cup causing all the people surrounding her to stagger about. It will also be like that for Judah during the siege against Jerusalem.
Zec 12:3 On that Day, I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all people. Anyone trying to lift that stone will be cut to shreds, and all the ethnicities of the earth will gather against that city.
Zec 12:4 On that Day,” declares Yehowah, “I will strike every horse with terror and every rider with madness. I will look with grace on the house of Judah and will strike every horse of the armed forces blind.
Zec 12:5 Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts, ‘The inhabitants of Jerusalem are our strength because of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, their Divine One.’
Zec 12:6 On that Day, I will make the leaders of Judah like firepots among wood and like a flaming torch among standing grain, for they will consume all the surrounding people on their right and on their left. Jerusalem will again live in her own place.”
Zec 12:7 Yehowah will save the tents of Judah first, so that the honor of the House of David and the honor of those who live in Jerusalem may not be greater than the rest of Judah.
Zec 12:8 On that Day, Yehowah will be the defender of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on that Day, those who are weak among them will be like David, while the House of David will be like the Almighty, like the angel of Yehowah in front of them.
Zec 12:9 “On that Day, I will begin to destroy all the ethnicities that come against Jerusalem.
Zec 12:10 But I will pour out the Ruach of compassion and pleading on the House of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so they will look on me (Aleph Tav, H853), the One they have pierced (John 19:37; Rev. 1:7; Psa. 22:16). They will mourn for me, as one mourns for an only son; they will bitterly lament for me like those who lament the death of a firstborn son.
Zec 12:11 On that Day, the laments in Jerusalem will be like the laments at Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.
Zec 12:12 The land will mourn, each clan separate from other clans. The clan of the House of David will be separate, and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the house of Nathan will be separate, and their wives will be separate from the men.

Zec 12:13 The clan of the house of Levi will be separate, and their wives will be separate from the men. The clan of the Shimeites will be separate, and their wives will be separate from the men.
Zec 12:14 Every clan of the remaining clans, each clan will be separate, and the wives will be separate from the men.”

Zechariah Chapter 13

Zec 13:1 “On that Day, a fountain will be opened for the House of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for their sin and impurity.
Zec 13:2 On that Day,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they will no longer be called to mind. I will also cause the false prophets and their unclean spirit to go out of the land.
Zec 13:3 If any man continues to prophesy, his father and mother who bore him will tell him, ‘You will not live, for you speak lies in the name of Yehowah!’ Then the father and mother who bore him will execute him by piercing when he prophesies.
Zec 13:4 On that Day, each prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he is about to prophesy. These prophets will no longer wear a hairy cloak, in order to deceive the people.
Zec 13:5 For each will proclaim, ‘I am not a prophet! I am a man who works the soil, for the land became my work, while I was still a young man!’
Zec 13:6 But someone will ask him, ‘What are these wounds between your arms?’ and he will answer, ‘I was wounded with those in my friends’ house.’”
Zec 13:7 “Sword! Rouse yourself against my Shepherd, the Man who stands close to me,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. “Strike the Shepherd, and the flock will scatter! For I will turn my hand against the lowly ones.
Zec 13:8 Then it will come about that throughout all the land,” declares Yehowah, “that two thirds of it will be cut off! Those people will perish; only one-third will remain there.
Zec 13:9 I will bring that third through the fire and refine them as silver is refined; I will test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them, ‘This is my people!’ and they will declare, ‘Yehowah is our Divine One!’”

Zechariah Chapter 14

Zec 14:1 “Behold! The Day of Yehowah is coming, when your plunder will be divided in your midst.
Zec 14:2 For I will gather every ethnicity against Jerusalem for battle, and the city will be captured. The houses will be plundered and the women raped. Half of the city will go out into captivity, but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city.
Zec 14:3 But Yehowah will go out and wage war against those ethnicities, as when he wages war on the day of battle.
Zec 14:4 On that Day, his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is beside Jerusalem to the east. The Mount of Olives will be split in half between the east and the west by an extremely great valley, and half of the mountain will go back toward the north and half toward the south.
Zec 14:5 Then you will flee down the valley between his mountains, for the valley between those mountains will reach to Azal. You will flee just as you fled from the earthquake (c. 795 BC; Amos 1:1) in the days of Uzziah, king of Judah (2 Chron. 26:16-21). Then Yehowah my Divine One will come, and all the set-apart ones will be with him.
Zec 14:6 On that Day, there will be no light but no cold or frost either.
Zec 14:7 On that Day, a Day known only to Yehowah, there will no longer be day or night, for dusk will be a time of light.
Zec 14:8 On that Day, living waters will flow out of Jerusalem (Rev. 22:1-2). Half of them will flow to the Dead Sea and half to the Mediterranean Sea, in summer and in winter.
Zec 14:9 Yehowah will be king over all the earth. On that Day, there will be Yehowah only and his name Oneness.
Zec 14:10 All the land will be like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. Jerusalem will continue to be raised up and remain in its own place, from the Benjamin Gate to the place where the first gate was, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king’s winepresses.
Zec 14:11 The people will live in Jerusalem, and there will be no more complete destruction from Yehowah against them. Jerusalem will live in safety.
Zec 14:12 This will be the plague with which Yehowah will attack all the people that waged war against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot away even as they are standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.
Zec 14:13 On that Day, great fear from Yehowah will come among them. Each one will seize the hand of another, and the hand of one will be raised up against the hand of another.

Zec 14:14 Judah will also fight against Jerusalem. They will gather the wealth of all the surrounding ethnicities, gold, silver, and fine clothes in great abundance.
Zec 14:15 A plague will also be on the horses and the mules, the camels and the jack donkeys, and every animal in those camps will also suffer that same plague.
Zec 14:16 Then it will happen that all who remain in those ethnicities that came against Jerusalem will instead go up from year to year to worship the King, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, and to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.
Zec 14:17 It will happen that if anyone from all the ethnicities of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, then Yehowah will not bring rain on them.
Zec 14:18 If the nation of Egypt does not go up, then they will not receive rain. A plague from Yehowah will attack the ethnicities that do not go up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.
Zec 14:19 This will be the punishment for Egypt and the punishment for every ethnicity that does not go up to keep the Feast of Tabernacles (Isa. 66:23).
Zec 14:20 But on that Day, the bells of the horses will say, “Set apart to Yehowah,” and the basins in the temple of Yehowah will be like the bowls before the altar.
Zec 14:21 For every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be set apart to Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, and everyone who brings a sacrifice will eat from them and boil in them. On that Day, merchants will no longer be in the temple of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.”

Book of Malachi

Malachi Chapter 1

Mal 1:1 The declaration of the Word of Yehowah to Israel by the hand of Malachi.
Mal 1:2 “I have loved you,” declares Yehowah. “But you ask, ‘How have you loved us?’ Was not Esau Jacob’s brother?” asks Yehowah. “Yet I have loved Jacob, Mal 1:3 but Esau I have hated. I have made his mountains an abandoned devastation, and I have made his inheritance a place for the jackals of the wilderness.”
Mal 1:4 If Edom says, “We are beaten down, but we will rebuild the ruins,” Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces will declare, “They may rebuild, but I will throw down again. Others will call them ‘The country of wickedness’ and, ‘The people whom Yehowah has cursed forever.’
Mal 1:5 Your own eyes will see this, and you will proclaim, ‘Yehowah is great beyond the borders of Israel!’”
Mal 1:6 “A son honors his father, and a servant honors his master. If I, then, am a Father, where is my honor? If I am a Master, where is the reverence for me?” asks Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces of you priests, who despise my name. “But you ask, ‘How have we despised your name?’
Mal 1:7 By offering polluted bread upon my altar. But you ask, ‘How have we polluted you?’ By saying that the table of Yehowah is contemptible.
Mal 1:8 When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is that not evil? When you offer the lame and sick, is that not evil? Present that to your governor! Will he accept you or will he lift up your face?” asks Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 1:9 Now you keep asking the face of the Almighty, that he may be gracious to us. But Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces says that with such an offering in your hand, would he lift up any of your faces?
Mal 1:10 “Oh, if only there were one of you who would shut the temple gates, so that you might not light fires on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “and I will not accept any offering from your hand.
Mal 1:11 For from the rising of the sun to its setting, my name will be great among the ethnicities, and in every place incense and pure offerings will be offered in my name. For my name will be great among the ethnicities,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.

Mal 1:12 “But you are profaning it when you say the table of the Lord is polluted, and that its fruit, its food, is to be despised.
Mal 1:13 You also say, ‘How tiresome this is,’ and you snort at it,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. “You bring what has been taken by a wild animal or is lame or sick; and this you bring as your offering. Should I accept this from your hand?” asks Yehowah.
Mal 1:14 “May the deceiver be cursed who has a male animal in his flock and vows to give it to me, and yet sacrifices to me, the Lord, what is flawed! For I am a great King,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “and my name will be honored among the ethnicities.”

Malachi Chapter 2

Mal 2:1 Now you priests, this command is for you.
Mal 2:2 “If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it on your heart to give glory to my name,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “then I will send a curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them, because you are not laying my command on your heart.
Mal 2:3 See, I am about to rebuke your descendants, and I will spread dung on your faces, the dung from your feasts, and you will be taken away with it.
Mal 2:4 You will know that I have sent this command to you, and that my covenant may continue to be with Levi,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 2:5 “My covenant with him was life and peace, and I gave them to him; I gave him fear, and he feared me, and he stood in awe of my name.
Mal 2:6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many away from sin.
Mal 2:7 For a priest’s lips should keep knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is a messenger of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 2:8 But you have turned away from the true Path. You have caused many to stumble with respect to the law. You have broken the covenant of Levi,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 2:9 “So I also, I have made you contemptible and vile before all the people, because you have not kept my Ways, but have instead shown partiality with regard to the law.”
Mal 2:10 Is there not one father for us all? Has not one Almighty created us? Why are we faithless each man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers?
Mal 2:11 Judah has been faithless. A disgusting thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the Set-apart Place of Yehowah which he loves and has married the daughter of a foreign deity.
Mal 2:12 May Yehowah cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, the one who is awake and the one who answers, even if he is bringing an offering to Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 2:13 You also do this: You cover the altar of Yehowah with tears, with weeping and sighing, because he still does not turn toward the offering or accept it with grace from your hand.
Mal 2:14 But you ask, “Why does he not?” Because Yehowah was a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have been faithless (by not giving her a writ of divorce), even though she was your companion and your wife by covenant.

Mal 2:15 Did he not make them oneness, with a portion of his Ruach? Then why did he make you oneness? Because he was seeking an offspring from the Almighty. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.
Mal 2:16 “For I hate putting away” (without a written contract of divorce), says Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, “and the one who covers his garment (or wife) with violence,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. “So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not be faithless” (Mat. 19:1-12; Deut. 24:1-4).
Mal 2:17 You have wearied Yehowah with your words. But you ask, “How have we wearied him?” By saying, “Everyone who does evil is good in the eyes of Yehowah, and he delights in them,” or “Where is the Mighty One of justice?”

Malachi Chapter 3

Mal 3:1 “See, I am about to send my messenger, and he will prepare the Way before me. Then the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, see, he will come,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 3:2 But who will be able to endure the Day of his coming? Who will be able to stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner’s fire and like laundry soap.
Mal 3:3 He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi. He will refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings of righteousness to Yehowah.
Mal 3:4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to Yehowah, as in the days of old and as in ancient years.
Mal 3:5 “Then I will approach you for judgment. I will quickly become a witness against the sorcerers, the adulterers, the false witnesses, and against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, those who oppress the widow and the fatherless, against those who turn away the sojourning foreigner, and against those who do not honor me,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 3:6 “For I, Yehowah, do not change; therefore, you sons of Jacob have not come to an end.
Mal 3:7 From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces. “But you ask, ‘How will we return?’
Mal 3:8 Would a person rob the Almighty? Yet you are robbing me. But you ask, ‘How have we robbed you?’ In tithes and offerings.
Mal 3:9 You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me, the whole nation.
Mal 3:10 Bring the full tithes into the savings bank, so that there may be food in my temple (Deut. 14:22-29; 16:16-17; 28:12), and test me now in this,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “if I do not open to you the windows of Heaven and pour out a blessing on you, until there is no more room for it all.
Mal 3:11 I will speak against those who destroy your crops, so that they do not destroy the harvest of your land. Your vines in the fields will not lose their fruit,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 3:12 “All the ethnicities will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 3:13 “Your words against me have been strong,” says Yehowah. “But you ask, ‘What have we said among ourselves against you?’

Mal 3:14 You have said, ‘It is useless to serve the Almighty. What profit is it that we have kept his requirements or walked mournfully before Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces?
Mal 3:15 So now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only prosper, but they even test the Almighty and escape.’”
Mal 3:16 Then those who feared Yehowah spoke with one another. Yehowah paid attention and listened, and a Book of Remembrance was written before him about those who feared Yehowah and honored his name.
Mal 3:17 “They will be mine,” declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, “my own treasured possession, on the Day that I act. I will pity them, as a man pities his own son who serves him.
Mal 3:18 Turn around again, then you will distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who worships the Almighty, and one who does not worship him.

Malachi Chapter 4

Mal 4:1 For see, the Day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and all the evildoers will become stubble. The Day that is coming will burn them up," declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces, "so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.
Mal 4:2 But for you who fear my name, the Brilliance of righteousness will rise with healing in his wings. You will go out, and you will leap like calves from the feeding stall.
Mal 4:3 On that Day, you will trample down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the Day that I act," declares Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Mal 4:4 "Remember the law of my servant Moses, that I gave him at Horeb for all Israel, the statutes and the rulings.
Mal 4:5 See, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and fearful Day of Yehowah.
Mal 4:6 He will turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, so that I do not come and attack the earth with complete destruction."

Book of Matthew

Matthew Chapter 1

Mat 1:1 (Son Of Man Bible is released under a CC BY-SA 4.0 License. Original work is at door43.org) The Book of the genealogy of Yeshua Messiah, Son of David, son of Abraham.
Mat 1:2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers.
Mat 1:3 Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar (Levirate marriage), Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram.
Mat 1:4 Ram was the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon.
Mat 1:5 Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth (Levirate marriage), Obed the father of Jesse.
Mat 1:6 Jesse was the father of King David of Israel, King David of Israel the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah.
Mat 1:7 Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa.
Mat 1:8 Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram an ancestor of Uzziah (1 Chron. 3:11-12).
Mat 1:9 Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah.
Mat 1:10 Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, and Amon the father of Josiah.
Mat 1:11 Josiah was an ancestor of Jehoiachin and his brothers at the time of the deportation to Babylon.
Mat 1:12 After the deportation to Babylon, Jehoiachin was the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel was an ancestor of Zerubbabel.
Mat 1:13 Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor.
Mat 1:14 Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud.
Mat 1:15 Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob.
Mat 1:16 Jacob was the father of Joseph, the father of Miriam, by whom Yeshua was born, who is called Messiah.

Mat 1:17 All the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations, from David to the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to the Messiah fourteen generations.
Mat 1:18 The birth of Yeshua Messiah happened in the following way: Now as Miriam, mother of Yeshua, was betrothed to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant by Ruach ha'Kodesh.
Mat 1:19 Her husband, Joseph, was a righteous man, and he did not want her publicly stoned to death. So he decided to secretly divorce her (by putting her away with a contract of divorce, Mat. 5:31-32; 19:1-12; Mark 10:1-12; Deut. 24:1-4).
Mat 1:20 As he thought about these things, an angel of Yehowah appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Miriam as your wife, because the One who is conceived in her is conceived by Ruach ha'Kodesh.
Mat 1:21 She will give birth to a son, and you will call his name Yeshua (Strong's # H3467; H3444; H3442, Neh. 8:17), for he will save (Heb. yoshia) my people from their sins."
Mat 1:22 All this happened to fulfill what was spoken by Yehowah through the prophet,
Mat 1:23 "Behold, the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call his name Immanuel," which translated is, "Almighty is with us" (Isa. 7:14).
Mat 1:24 Joseph woke up from his sleep and did as the angel of Yehowah commanded him, and he took his wife.
Mat 1:25 But he did not have sexual relations with her, until she gave birth to her firstborn son. Then he called his name Yeshua.

Matthew Chapter 2

Mat 2:1 After Yeshua was born (c. 3 BC) in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King Herod the Great, Sages from the East arrived in Jerusalem asking,
Mat 2:2 “Where is he who was born King of the Jews? We saw his star as it rose in the East and have come to worship him” (Num. 24:17).
Mat 2:3 When King Herod heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
Mat 2:4 Herod the Great brought together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, and he asked them, “Where is the Messiah to be born?”
Mat 2:5 They answered him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is what was written by the prophet,
Mat 2:6 ‘But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are not the least among the 1,000-resident cities of Judah, for from you will come a Ruler who will shepherd my people Israel’” (Micah 5:2).
Mat 2:7 Then Herod secretly called the Sages to ask them exactly what time the star had appeared.
Mat 2:8 He sent them to Bethlehem, commanding, “Go and search carefully for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him.”
Mat 2:9 After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star that they had seen in the East went before them, until it came and stood still over where the young child was.
Mat 2:10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced delightfully with great joy!
Mat 2:11 They went into the house and saw the young child with Miriam his mother. They bowed down and worshiped him. They opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
Mat 2:12 Yehowah warned them in a dream not to return to Herod the Great, so they departed to their own country by another way.
Mat 2:13 After they had departed, an angel of Yehowah appeared to Joseph in a dream and ordered, “Get up, take the young Child and his mother, and flee to Egypt. Remain there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy him.”
Mat 2:14 That night Joseph rose, took the young Child and his mother, and departed into Egypt.
Mat 2:15 He remained there until the death of Herod the Great. This fulfilled what Yehowah had spoken through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my Son” (Hosea 11:1).
Mat 2:16 Then Herod the Great, when he saw that he had been mocked by the Sages, was extremely angry. He sent and murdered all the male children that were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, who were two years old and under, according to the time that he had determined exactly from the Sages.

Mat 2:17 Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet,
Mat 2:18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and she refused to be comforted, because they were no more” (Jer. 31:15).
Mat 2:19 When Herod the Great died (c. 1 BC), behold, an angel of Yehowah appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and ordered,
Mat 2:20 “Get up and take the Child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the Child’s life are dead.”
Mat 2:21 Joseph rose, took the Child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.
Mat 2:22 But when he heard that Herod Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father Herod the Great, he was afraid to go there. After he was warned by Yehowah in a dream, he left for the region of Galilee
Mat 2:23 and went and lived in a city called Natsareth. This fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophets, that he would be called the Natsarim (Isa. 11:1, the Branch).

Matthew Chapter 3

Mat 3:1 In those days (c. 27 AD), John the Immerser came preaching in the wilderness of Judea,
Mat 3:2 “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near!”
Mat 3:3 For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, “The voice of one calling out in the wilderness, ‘Make ready the Way of Yehowah, make his Paths straight!’ And turn yourselves to him” (Isa. 40:3).
Mat 3:4 Now John wore clothing of camel’s hair and a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.
Mat 3:5 Then Jerusalem, all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan River went out to him.
Mat 3:6 They were immersed by him in the Jordan River (Lev. 15; Rom. 6:3-7; Heb. 6:2), as they confessed their sins.
Mat 3:7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to him for immersion, he proclaimed to them, “You offspring of poisonous snakes, who warned you to flee from the wrath of Yehowah?
Mat 3:8 Bear fruit worthy of repentance.
Mat 3:9 Do not think of saying among yourselves, ‘We have Abraham for our father.’ For I say to you, that Yehowah is able to raise up children for Abraham even out of these stones.
Mat 3:10 Already, the ax has been placed against the root of the trees. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire.
Mat 3:11 I immerse you with water for repentance. But he who comes after me is mightier than I, and I am not worthy even to carry his sandals. He will immerse you with Ruach ha’Kodesh and heal you with fire.
Mat 3:12 His winnowing fork is in his hand to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and to gather his wheat into the storehouse. But he will burn up the chaff with fire that can never be put out” (Luke 12:49-50).
Mat 3:13 Then Yeshua came from Galilee to the Jordan River to be immersed by John.
Mat 3:14 But John kept trying to stop him, imploring, “I need to be immersed by you, and do you come to me for immersion?”
Mat 3:15 Yeshua responded to him, “Permit it now, for it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John immersed him.
Mat 3:16 After he was immersed, Yeshua came up immediately from the water, and behold, Heaven was opened to him. He saw Ruach ha’Kodesh of Yehowah coming down like a dove and resting upon him.
Mat 3:17 Behold, a voice came out of Heaven, “This is my beloved Son, in whom my soul delights.”

Matthew Chapter 4

Mat 4:1 Then Yeshua was led up by Ruach ha'Kodesh into the wilderness to be tempted by Satan.
Mat 4:2 When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry.
Mat 4:3 Satan came and tempted him, "Since you are the Son of Yehowah, command these stones to become bread."
Mat 4:4 But Yeshua answered him, "It is written, 'People will not live on bread alone, but by every word that comes out of the mouth of Yehowah'" (Deut. 8:3; Luke 4:4).
Mat 4:5 Then Satan took him into the set-apart city and set him on the highest point of the temple building,
Mat 4:6 and tempted him, "Since you are the Son of Yehowah, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'Yehowah will command his angels to take care of you,' and, 'They will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not hit your foot against a stone.'"
Mat 4:7 Yeshua responded to him, "Again, it is written, 'You must not test Yehowah your Divine One.'"
Mat 4:8 Again, Satan took him up to a high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world along with all their splendor.
Mat 4:9 He tempted him, "All these things I will give you, if you bow down and worship me."
Mat 4:10 Then Yeshua commanded him, "Go away from here, Satan! For it is written, 'You will worship Yehowah your Divine One, and you will serve only him.'"
Mat 4:11 Then Satan left him, and behold, angels came and served him.
Mat 4:12 Now when Yeshua heard that John had been delivered up (nimsar) into prison (bemaasar), he withdrew into Galilee.
Mat 4:13 He left Natsareth and went and lived in Capernaum, which is by the Sea of Galilee (Lake Kinneret), in the territories of Zebulun and Naphtali.
Mat 4:14 This happened to fulfill what was said by Isaiah the prophet,
Mat 4:15 "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan River, Galilee of the ethnicities!
Mat 4:16 The people who sat in darkness have seen a great Light, and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, upon them has a Light arisen" (Isa. 9:1-2).
Mat 4:17 From that time, Yeshua began to preach, "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven has come near!"

Mat 4:18 As Yeshua was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the Sea, for they were fishermen.
Mat 4:19 He invited them, “Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.”
Mat 4:20 Immediately, they left the nets and followed him.
Mat 4:21 As Yeshua was going on from there, he saw two other brothers (ahim aherim), Jacob son of Zebedee and John his brother. They were in the boat with Zebedee their father mending their nets. He called them,
Mat 4:22 and they immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.
Mat 4:23 Yeshua went about in all of Galilee, teaching in their houses of assembly, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness among the people.
Mat 4:24 The news about him went out into all of Syria, and the people brought to him all those who were sick, ill with various diseases and pains, those possessed by demons, and the epileptic and paralytic. Yeshua healed them (Acts 5:16).
Mat 4:25 Large crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan River.

Matthew Chapter 5

Mat 5:1 When Yeshua saw the crowds, he went up on the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
Mat 5:2 He opened his mouth and taught them,
Mat 5:3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
Mat 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Mat 5:5 Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth (Psa. 37:9-11).
Mat 5:6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
Mat 5:7 Blessed are the merciful, for they will obtain mercy.
Mat 5:8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see Yehowah.
Mat 5:9 Blessed are those who pursue (radaph) peace, for they will be called children of Yehowah.
Mat 5:10 Blessed are those who have been persecuted (radaph) for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
Mat 5:11 Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil things against you falsely for my sake.
Mat 5:12 Rejoice and be ecstatic, for great is your reward in Heaven! For in this way people persecuted the prophets who lived before you.
Mat 5:13 You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt has lost its taste, how can it be made salty again? It is never again good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet.
Mat 5:14 You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden.
Mat 5:15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but rather on the menorah, and it shines for everyone in the house.
Mat 5:16 Let your lights shine before people in such a way that they see your good deeds and glorify your Father who is in Heaven.
Mat 5:17 Do not think that I have come to destroy the law or the prophets (aka Tanakh; Deut. 4:2; 12:32; Prov. 30:6; Acts 24:14). I have come not to destroy them, but to uphold (lekayem) them (Rom. 13:8-10; Gal. 5:14).
Mat 5:18 For truly, I say to you, that until heaven and earth pass away, not one yod or one kots (thorn or stroke of a yod) will in any way pass away from the law, until all things have been accomplished.
Mat 5:19 Therefore, whoever breaks the least one of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But whoever keeps them and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Mat 5:20 For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will in no way enter the Kingdom of Heaven (Mat. 18:3).
Mat 5:21 You have heard that it was said to them in ancient times, 'Do not murder,' and, 'Whoever murders will be in danger of the Judgment.'
Mat 5:22 And I say to you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without cause will be in danger of the Judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'You idiot!' will be in danger of the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of hellfire.
Mat 5:23 Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you,
Mat 5:24 leave your gift there in front of the altar and go on your way. First, be reconciled with your brother and then come and offer your gift.
Mat 5:25 Agree with your accuser quickly, while you are with him on the way to court, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison.
Mat 5:26 Truly, I say to you, you will never come out from there, until you have paid the last brass penny you owe.
Mat 5:27 You have heard that it was said in ancient times, 'Do not commit adultery.'
Mat 5:28 And I say to you, that everyone who looks on a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
Mat 5:29 If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your body parts should perish, than that your whole body should be thrown into hell.
Mat 5:30 If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your body parts should perish, than that your whole body should go into hell.
Mat 5:31 It was also said, 'Whoever sends his wife away, let him give her a certificate of divorce' (A lawful putting away must have a written divorce contract to nullify the marriage contract. Deut. 24:1-4; Mat. 19).
Mat 5:32 And I say to you, that everyone who puts away his wife (without a written divorce contract), except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes her an adulteress. Whoever marries her after she has been put away (without a written divorce contract) commits adultery.
Mat 5:33 Again, you have heard that it was said to those in ancient times, 'Do not swear by my name a false oath, but carry out your oaths to Yehowah' (Lev. 19:12; Num 30:2; Exo. 20:7).
Mat 5:34 And I say to you, swear not in vain by anything, neither by Heaven, for it is the throne of Yehowah;

Mat 5:35 nor by the earth, for it is the footstool for his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.
Mat 5:36 Neither swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black.
Mat 5:37 But let your speech be, ‘Yes,’ or ‘No.’ Anything that is more than this is from the evil one.
Mat 5:38 You have heard that the law says, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’
Mat 5:39 And I say to you, do not resist one who is evil. Instead, whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.
Mat 5:40 If anyone wishes to go to court with you and takes away your coat, let that person also have your cloak.
Mat 5:41 Whoever compels you to go one kilometer, go with him two.
Mat 5:42 Give to anyone who asks you, and do not turn away from anyone who wishes to borrow from you.
Mat 5:43 You have heard that the law says, ‘You must unconditionally selflessly love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’
Mat 5:44 And I say to you, unconditionally selflessly love your enemies and pray for those who slander and persecute you, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you,
Mat 5:45 so that you may be children of your Father who is in Heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust.
Mat 5:46 For if you unconditionally selflessly love those who unconditionally selflessly love you, what reward do you get? Do not even the tax collectors do the same thing?
Mat 5:47 If you greet only your brethren and sistren, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do the same thing?
Mat 5:48 Therefore, you must become completely mature, as your heavenly Father is completely mature.

Matthew Chapter 6

Mat 6:1 Take heed that you do not do your acts of righteousness before people to be seen by them, or else you will have no reward from your Father who is in Heaven.
Mat 6:2 So when you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before yourself as the hypocrites do in the houses of assembly and in the streets, so that they may have the praise of people (Deut. 15:11). Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.
Mat 6:3 But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,
Mat 6:4 so that your gift may be given in secret. Then your Father who sees in secret will reward you.
Mat 6:5 When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the houses of assembly and on the street corners, so that they may be seen by people. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.
Mat 6:6 But you, when you pray, enter your inner chamber. Shut the door and pray to Yehowah who is in secret. Then your Father who sees in secret will hear you.
Mat 6:7 When you pray, do not make useless repetitions as the ethnicities do, for they think that Yehowah will hear them because of their many words.
Mat 6:8 Therefore, do not be like them, for Yehowah knows what things you need before you ask him.
Mat 6:9 Therefore, pray like this: 'Our Father in Heaven, may your name be consecrated.
Mat 6:10 May your kingdom come. May your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.
Mat 6:11 Give us today our daily bread.
Mat 6:12 Forgive us our sin debts, as we also have forgiven those who sin against us.
Mat 6:13 Let us not enter into temptation, but deliver us from all evil. (For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.) Amein.'
Mat 6:14 For if you forgive people their sins, Yehowah will also atone your sin for you.
Mat 6:15 But if you do not forgive their sins, Yehowah will not make atonement for you.
Mat 6:16 Moreover, when you fast, do not have a mournful face as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces, so that they may appear to people as fasting. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward.
Mat 6:17 But you, when you fast, comb your head and wash your face,

Mat 6:18 so that it would not appear to others that you are fasting (Isa. 58).
Mat 6:19 Do not store up for yourselves treasures on the earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.
Mat 6:20 Instead, store up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in and steal.
Mat 6:21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
Mat 6:22 The eye is the lamp of the body. Therefore, if your eye is good, the whole body is filled with light.
Mat 6:23 But if your eye is wicked, your whole body is full of darkness. Therefore, if the light that is in you is actually darkness, how great is that darkness!
Mat 6:24 No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and unconditionally selflessly love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve Yehowah and avarice.
Mat 6:25 Therefore, I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. For is not life more than food and the body more than clothes?
Mat 6:26 Look at the birds in the air. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns, but your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not more valuable than they are?
Mat 6:27 Which one of you by being anxious can add one minute to his lifespan?
Mat 6:28 Why are you anxious about clothing? Think about the lilies in the fields, how they grow. They do not work, and they do not spin cloth.
Mat 6:29 Yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.
Mat 6:30 If Yehowah so clothes the grass in the fields, which exists today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, you immature faithfuls?
Mat 6:31 Therefore, do not be anxious and ask, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What clothes will we wear?’
Mat 6:32 For the ethnicities search for these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need all of them.
Mat 6:33 But seek first the Kingdom of Yehowah and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you.
Mat 6:34 Therefore, do not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day has enough evil of its own.

Matthew Chapter 7

Mat 7:1 Do not judge, and you will not be judged.
Mat 7:2 For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged, and with the measure that you measure, it will be measured out to you.
Mat 7:3 Why do you look at the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but you do not notice the log that is in your own eye?
Mat 7:4 How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take out the splinter that is in your eye,' while the log is in your own eye?
Mat 7:5 You hypocrite! First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.
Mat 7:6 Do not give what is set apart to the dogs, and do not throw your pearls in front of the hogs (hazir). Otherwise, they may trample them underfoot and then turn (yahzeru) and tear you to pieces.
Mat 7:7 Ask Yehowah, and it will be given to you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened to you.
Mat 7:8 For everyone who asks, receives; everyone who seeks, finds; and to the person who knocks, it will be opened.
Mat 7:9 Or which one of you, if your son asks for a loaf of bread, will give him a stone?
Mat 7:10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?
Mat 7:11 Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will Yehowah in Heaven give good things to those who ask him?
Mat 7:12 Therefore, whatever things you want people to do to you, you should also do to them, for this is the law and the prophets (aka Tanakh).
Mat 7:13 Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many people who go through it.
Mat 7:14 But the gate is narrow and the Way is difficult that leads to life, and there are few who find it.
Mat 7:15 Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but are truly ravenous wolves.
Mat 7:16 By their fruits you will know them. Do people gather grapes from a thorn bush or figs from thistles?
Mat 7:17 In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but the bad tree produces bad fruit.
Mat 7:18 A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, nor can a bad tree produce good fruit.
Mat 7:19 Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Mat 7:20 So then you will recognize them by their fruits.
Mat 7:21 Not everyone who cries to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father who is in Heaven.
Mat 7:22 Many people will ask me in that Day, ‘Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, in your name drive out demons, and in your name do many mighty deeds?’
Mat 7:23 Then will I openly declare to them, ‘I never knew you! Get away from me, you guilty violators of the law!’
Mat 7:24 Therefore, everyone who hears my words and obeys them will be like a wise man who built his house upon bedrock.
Mat 7:25 The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, but it did not fall down, for it was built on the bedrock.
Mat 7:26 But everyone who hears my words and does not obey them will be like a foolish man who built his house upon the sand.
Mat 7:27 The rain came down, the floods came, the winds blew and struck that house, it fell, and its destruction was complete.”
Mat 7:28 It came about that when Yeshua finished preaching these words, the crowds were astonished by his teaching,
Mat 7:29 for he taught them as One who had authority and not as their scribes.

Matthew Chapter 8

Mat 8:1 When Yeshua had come down from the mountain, large crowds followed him.
Mat 8:2 Behold, a leper came to him and bowed before him, entreating, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”
Mat 8:3 Yeshua reached out his hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing. Be clean.” Immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy.
Mat 8:4 Yeshua told him, “See that you say nothing to any person. Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them” (Lev. 14).
Mat 8:5 When Yeshua had entered into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, entreating him,
Mat 8:6 “Lord, my son lies in the house paralyzed and in terrible pain!”
Mat 8:7 Yeshua responded to him, “I will come and heal him.”
Mat 8:8 The centurion answered, “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, only say the word, and my son will be healed.
Mat 8:9 For I also am a man who is placed under authority, and I have soldiers under me. I order this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another one, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”
Mat 8:10 When Yeshua heard this, he was amazed and proclaimed to those who were following him, “Truly, I say to you, I have not found anyone with such faith in Israel.
Mat 8:11 I tell you, many will come from the East and the West, and they will recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven.
Mat 8:12 But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.”
Mat 8:13 Yeshua spoke to the centurion, “Go! As you have believed, so may it be done for you.” And his son was healed at that hour and delivered of evil.
Mat 8:14 When Yeshua had come into Peter’s house, he saw Peter’s mother-in-law lying sick with a fever.
Mat 8:15 Yeshua touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she rose up and started serving him.
Mat 8:16 When dusk had come, the people brought to Yeshua many who were controlled by demons. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick.
Mat 8:17 In this way was fulfilled that which had been spoken by Isaiah the prophet, “He himself took our sickness and bore our diseases.”
Mat 8:18 Now when Yeshua saw the crowd around him, he gave instructions to leave for the other side of the Sea of Galilee.

Mat 8:19 Then a scribe came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”
Mat 8:20 Yeshua replied to him, “Foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”
Mat 8:21 Another of the disciples said to him, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.”
Mat 8:22 But Yeshua commanded him, “Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.”
Mat 8:23 When Yeshua had entered a boat, his disciples followed him into it.
Mat 8:24 Behold, there arose a great storm on the Sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But Yeshua was asleep.
Mat 8:25 The disciples came to him and woke him up, shouting, “Save us, Lord; we are about to die!”
Mat 8:26 Yeshua asked them, “Why are you afraid, you immature faithfuls?” Then he rose up and rebuked the winds and the Sea. Then there was a great calm.
Mat 8:27 The men marveled and asked, “What sort of Person is this, that even the winds and the Sea obey him?”
Mat 8:28 When Yeshua had come to the other side to the country of the Girgashites (Josh. 24:11), a two-natured person controlled by demons met (paga) him, coming out of the tombs, extremely violent, so that no traveler could pass that way.
Mat 8:29 Behold, they cried out and asked, “What do we have to do with you, Yeshua, Son of Yehowah? Have you come here to torment us before the appointed time?”
Mat 8:30 Now a herd of many pigs was there feeding, not too far away from them.
Mat 8:31 The demons kept entreating (paga) Yeshua, “If you cast us out, send us away into that herd of pigs.”
Mat 8:32 Yeshua commanded them, “Go!” The demons came out and went into the pigs; and behold, the whole herd plunged down a cliff into the Sea, and they died in the water.
Mat 8:33 Those who had been tending the pigs ran away, and they went into the city and reported everything, especially what had happened to the two-natured person who had been controlled by demons.
Mat 8:34 Behold, all the city came out to meet Yeshua. When they saw him, they begged him to leave their region (Mark 5:1-20; Luke 8:26-39).

Matthew Chapter 9

Mat 9:1 Yeshua entered a boat, crossed over, and came into his hometown.
Mat 9:2 Behold, they brought to him a paralyzed man lying on a mat. Seeing their faith, Yeshua said to the paralyzed man, "Son, you have faith in Yehowah. Your sins have been forgiven."
Mat 9:3 Behold, some of the scribes said among themselves, "This man is blaspheming."
Mat 9:4 Yeshua knew their thoughts and asked, "Why are you thinking evil in your hearts (minds)?
Mat 9:5 For which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?'
Mat 9:6 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," He commanded the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your mat, and walk to your house."
Mat 9:7 Then the man rose up and went away to his house.
Mat 9:8 When the crowds saw (vayiru) this, they feared (vayiru) and glorified Yehowah, who had given such authority to people.
Mat 9:9 As Yeshua passed by from there, he saw a man named Matthew, who was sitting at the tax collector's office. He sommanded him, "Follow me." He rose up and followed him.
Mat 9:10 As Yeshua sat down to eat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinful people came and dined with him and his disciples.
Mat 9:11 When the Pharisees saw it, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinful people?"
Mat 9:12 When Yeshua heard this, he answered, "People who are strong in body do not need a physician, only those who are sick.
Mat 9:13 You should go learn what this means, 'I desire compassion and not sacrifice.' For I came, not to call the righteous to repent but sinners."
Mat 9:14 Then the disciples of John came to Yeshua and asked, "Why do we and the Pharisees often fast, but your disciples do not fast?"
Mat 9:15 Yeshua answered them, "Can wedding attendants be sorrowful while the bridegroom is still with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.
Mat 9:16 No man puts a piece of new cloth on an old garment, for the patch will tear away from the garment, and a worse tear will be made.
Mat 9:17 Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will be spilled, and the wineskins will be destroyed. Instead, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both will be preserved" (Luke 5:36-39; Mark 2:18-22).

Mat 9:18 While Yeshua was teaching these things to them, behold, an official came and bowed down to him. He entreated, “Lord, my daughter has just now died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.”
Mat 9:19 Then Yeshua rose up and followed him, and so did his disciples.
Mat 9:20 Behold, a woman who had severe bleeding for twelve years came up behind Yeshua and touched the tassel of his garment.
Mat 9:21 For she had said to herself, “If only I touch his clothes, I will be made well.”
Mat 9:22 But Yeshua turned and saw her, and said, “Daughter, take courage in Yehowah; your faith has made you well.” And the woman was healed from that hour!
Mat 9:23 When Yeshua came into the official’s house, he saw the flute players and the crowds making much noise.
Mat 9:24 He said, “Go away, for the girl is not dead, but she is asleep.” But they laughed at him in mockery and asked, “Didn’t we see that she died?”
Mat 9:25 When the crowd had been put outside, Yeshua entered the room and took her by the hand, and the girl rose up alive!
Mat 9:26 The news about this spread into all that region.
Mat 9:27 As Yeshua passed by from there, two blind men followed him. They kept shouting, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”
Mat 9:28 When Yeshua had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Yeshua asked them, “Do you believe that I can restore your sight to you?” They answered him, “Yes, Lord.”
Mat 9:29 Then Yeshua touched their eyes and said, “Let it be done to you according to your faith,”
Mat 9:30 and their eyes were opened! Then Yeshua strictly commanded them, “See that no one knows about this.”
Mat 9:31 But the two men went out and spread the news about this throughout that region.
Mat 9:32 As those two men were going away, behold, a mute man possessed by a demon was brought to Yeshua.
Mat 9:33 When the demon had been driven out by Yeshua, the mute man spoke! The crowds were astonished and exclaimed, “This has never been seen before in Israel!”
Mat 9:34 But the Pharisees were blaspheming, “By the ruler of the demons, he drives out demons.”
Mat 9:35 Yeshua went about all the cities and the villages. He continued teaching in their houses of assembly, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of disease and all kinds of sickness among the people.
Mat 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were troubled and discouraged. They were like sheep without a shepherd.

Mat 9:37 He instructed his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few.
Mat 9:38 Therefore, urgently pray to the Lord of the harvest, so that he may send out laborers into his harvest.”

Matthew Chapter 10

Mat 10:1 Yeshua called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to drive them out, and to heal all kinds of disease and all kinds of sickness.
Mat 10:2 Now the names of the twelve apostles were these: The first, Simon, whom he also called Peter, and Andrew his brother; Jacob son of Zebedee, and John his brother;
Mat 10:3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; Jacob son of Alphaeus (Clopas, Joseph's brother), and Lebbaeus, surnamed Thaddaeus;
Mat 10:4 Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who would betray him.
Mat 10:5 These Twelve Yeshua sent out. He instructed them, "Do not go to any place where foreigners live and do not enter any town of the Samaritans.
Mat 10:6 Go instead to the lost sheep of the house of Israel;
Mat 10:7 and as you go, preach, 'The Kingdom of Heaven has come near.'
Mat 10:8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, and cast out demons. By grace you have received, by grace you must give.
Mat 10:9 Do not carry any gold, silver, or copper in your money belt (Hag. 1:9).
Mat 10:10 Do not take a backpack for your journey, or two tunics, or sandals, or a trekking pole, for a laborer deserves his sustenance.
Mat 10:11 Whatever city or village you enter, find who is worthy in it and stay there until you leave.
Mat 10:12 As you enter into the house, greet it with peace, 'Peace be with you and in this house.'
Mat 10:13 If the household is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace come back to you.
Mat 10:14 As for those who do not receive you or listen to your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet.
Mat 10:15 Truly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the Day of Judgment than for that city.
Mat 10:16 See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be as wise as serpents and harmless as doves.
Mat 10:17 Watch out for people! They will deliver you up to the Sanhedrin, and they will whip you in their houses of assembly.
Mat 10:18 Then you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them and to the ethnicities.
Mat 10:19 When they deliver you up, do not be anxious about how or what you will speak, for what to say will be given to you by Yehowah in that hour.

Mat 10:20 For it is not you who will speak, but Ruach ha'Kodesh of your Father who will speak through you.
Mat 10:21 Brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise up against their parents and cause them to be executed.
Mat 10:22 You will be hated by everyone because of my name. But whoever endures to the end, that person will be saved.
Mat 10:23 When they persecute you in this city, flee to the next, for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel before the Son of Yehowah has come to the disciple.
Mat 10:24 A disciple is not greater than his teacher, nor a servant above his master.
Mat 10:25 It is enough for the disciple that he should be like his teacher and the servant like his master. If they have called the Master of the house Beelzebul (Exo. 8:20-23), how much worse would be the names they call the members of his household!
Mat 10:26 Therefore, do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be known.
Mat 10:27 What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light, and what you hear softly in your ear, proclaim upon the housetops.
Mat 10:28 Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but are unable to kill the soul. Instead, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
Mat 10:29 Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge.
Mat 10:30 But even the hairs of your heads are all numbered.
Mat 10:31 Do not fear. You are more valuable than many sparrows.
Mat 10:32 Therefore, everyone who confesses me before people, I will also confess before Yehowah my Father who is in Heaven.
Mat 10:33 But he who denies me before people, I will also deny before Yehowah my Father.
Mat 10:34 Do not think that I came to bring peace upon the earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword.
Mat 10:35 For I came to set an alienated man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law (Micah 7:6).
Mat 10:36 A man's enemies (haoyevim) will be loved ones (ahuvim).
Mat 10:37 He who loves (ahav) father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves (ahav) son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.
Mat 10:38 He who does not pick up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me.
Mat 10:39 He who loves (ahav) his life will destroy it. But he who destroys his life for my sake will find it.

Mat 10:40 He who welcomes you welcomes me, and he who welcomes me also welcomes him who sent me.
Mat 10:41 He who welcomes a prophet, because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet's reward, and he who welcomes a righteous man, because he is a righteous man, will receive a righteous man's reward.
Mat 10:42 Whoever gives to one of these little ones, even a cup of cold water to drink, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will in no way lose his reward."

Matthew Chapter 11

Mat 11:1 It came about that when Yeshua had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and preach in their cities.
Mat 11:2 Now when John heard in the prison about the deeds of Messiah, he sent a message by his disciples
Mat 11:3 and asked him, “Are you the One who is coming to save us, or should we look for another?”
Mat 11:4 Yeshua answered them, “Go and report to John what you see and hear:
Mat 11:5 Blind people are receiving sight, lame people are walking, lepers are being cleansed, deaf people are hearing again, dead people are being raised back to life, and needy people are being told the good news (Isa. 35:5-6; DSS 4Q521; Luke 7:19-23).
Mat 11:6 Blessed is anyone who is not offended by me.”
Mat 11:7 As these men went on their way, Yeshua began to preach to the crowds about John, “What did you go out in the desert to see, a reed being shaken by the wind?
Mat 11:8 But what did you go out to see, a man dressed in soft clothing? Really, those who wear soft clothing live in kings’ houses.
Mat 11:9 But what did you go out to see, a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet.
Mat 11:10 This is he of whom it was written, ‘See, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your Way before you.’
Mat 11:11 I say to you, truly, among those born of women, no prophet is greater than John the Immerser. Yet the least important prophet in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he is (Jer. 31:34).
Mat 11:12 From the days of John the Immerser until now, the Kingdom of Heaven is breaking forth; citizens of the Kingdom are breaking free with it, and their king is leading them (Mic. 2:12-13; 2 Sam. 5:20; Gen. 38:29).
Mat 11:13 For all the prophets and the law (aka Tanakh) have been prophesying as a testimony confirming John;
Mat 11:14 and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who was to come.
Mat 11:15 He who has ears to hear, let him listen.
Mat 11:16 To what should I compare this generation? It is like children playing in the marketplace, who sit and call to one another,
Mat 11:17 ‘We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We mourned, and you did not weep.’
Mat 11:18 For John came not eating bread or drinking wine, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’

Mat 11:19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look, he is a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners' (Deut. 21:20)! But wisdom is justified by her deeds."
Mat 11:20 Then Yeshua began to rebuke the cities in which most of his mighty deeds were done, because they had not repented,
Mat 11:21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty deeds had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
Mat 11:22 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the Day of Judgment than for you.
Mat 11:23 You, Capernaum, do you think you will be exalted to Heaven? No, you will be brought down to the place of the dead. For if in Sodom there had been done the mighty deeds that were done in you, it would still have remained until today.
Mat 11:24 But I say to you, that it will be easier for the land of Sodom in the Day of Judgment than for you."
Mat 11:25 At that time Yeshua proclaimed, "I praise you, Father, Mighty One of Heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to immature children.
Mat 11:26 Yes, Father, for so it was well pleasing in your sight.
Mat 11:27 All things have been entrusted to me from my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.
Mat 11:28 Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened, and I will give you rest.
Mat 11:29 Take my yoke on you and learn from me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.
Mat 11:30 For my yoke is useful, and my burden is light" (Strong's H4853).

Matthew Chapter 12

Mat 12:1 At that time, Yeshua went on the Sabbath through the grainfields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain (Deut. 23:25), rub them in their hands, and eat them.
Mat 12:2 But when the Pharisees saw that, they complained to Yeshua, “See, your disciples do what is unlawful to do on the Sabbath.”
Mat 12:3 But Yeshua answered them, “Have you never read what David did, when he was hungry, and the men who were with him?
Mat 12:4 He went into the tabernacle of Yehowah and ate the bread of the presence, which was unlawful for him to eat and unlawful for those who were with him, but lawful only for the priests.
Mat 12:5 Have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath but are guiltless?
Mat 12:6 But I say to you, that One greater than the temple is here.
Mat 12:7 If you had known what this meant, ‘I desire compassion and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the innocent (Hos. 6:6).
Mat 12:8 For the Son of Yehowah is Lord of the Sabbath.”
Mat 12:9 Then Yeshua left from there and went into their house of assembly (Beit Kneset).
Mat 12:10 Behold, there was a man who had a withered hand. The Pharisees asked Yeshua, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbaths?” So that they might accuse him of sinning.
Mat 12:11 Yeshua answered them, “What man would there be among you, who, if he had just one sheep, and if this sheep fell into a deep hole on the Sabbath, would not grasp hold of it and lift it out?
Mat 12:12 How much more valuable, then, is a man than a sheep! Therefore, it is lawful to do well on the Sabbaths.”
Mat 12:13 Then Yeshua ordered the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and it was restored to health just like the other hand.
Mat 12:14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted against him. They were seeking how they might put him to death.
Mat 12:15 As Yeshua perceived this, he withdrew from there. Many people followed him, and he healed them all.
Mat 12:16 He commanded them not to make him known to others,
Mat 12:17 that it might come true, what had been said through Isaiah the prophet,
Mat 12:18 “See, my Servant whom I have chosen; my Beloved One, in whom my soul delights. I will put my Ruach upon him, and he will announce judgment to the ethnicities.

Mat 12:19 He will not strive nor cry aloud; neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.
Mat 12:20 He will not break any bruised reed; he will not extinguish any smoking flax, until he leads justice to victory,
Mat 12:21 and in his name the ethnicities will trust" (Isa. 42:1-4).
Mat 12:22 Then someone blind and mute, possessed by a demon, was brought to Yeshua. He healed him, with the result that the mute man spoke and saw.
Mat 12:23 All the crowds were amazed and asked, "Can this man be the Son of David?"
Mat 12:24 But when the Pharisees heard of this miracle, they blasphemed, "This man does not cast out demons except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons."
Mat 12:25 But Yeshua knew their thoughts and responded to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand.
Mat 12:26 If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?
Mat 12:27 And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason they will be your judges.
Mat 12:28 But if I drive out demons by the Ruach of Yehowah, then the Kingdom of Yehowah has come upon you.
Mat 12:29 How can anyone enter the house of the strong man and steal his belongings without first tying up the strong man? Then he will steal his belongings from his house.
Mat 12:30 The one who is not with me is against me, and the one who does not gather with me scatters.
Mat 12:31 Therefore, I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but blasphemy of Ruach ha'Kodesh will not be forgiven people.
Mat 12:32 Whoever speaks any word against the Son of Man, that will be forgiven him. But whoever speaks against Ruach ha'Kodesh, that will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in the age to come.
Mat 12:33 Make a tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit.
Mat 12:34 You offspring of vipers, since you are evil, how can you say good things? For out of the superabundance of the heart (mind) the mouth speaks.
Mat 12:35 The good person from the good treasure of the heart produces what is good, and the evil person from the evil treasure of the heart produces what is evil.
Mat 12:36 I say to you, that in the Day of Judgment, people will give an account to Yehowah for every idle word they will have said.
Mat 12:37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

Mat 12:38 Then certain scribes and Pharisees answered Yeshua, “Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you.”
Mat 12:39 But Yeshua replied to them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign. But no sign will be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet.
Mat 12:40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the stomach of the huge fish, so will the Son of the virgin be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.
Mat 12:41 The men of Nineveh will stand up at the Judgment with this generation of people and will condemn it. For they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and see, Someone greater than Jonah is here.
Mat 12:42 The Queen of the South (Sheba) will rise up at the Judgment with the men of this generation and condemn it. She came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and see, Someone greater than Solomon is here.
Mat 12:43 When an unclean spirit has gone away from a person, it passes through waterless places and looks for rest but does not find it.
Mat 12:44 Then it says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ Having returned, it finds that house swept out and put in order.
Mat 12:45 Then it goes and takes along with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all come in to live there. Then the final condition of that person becomes worse than the first. It will be just like that with this evil generation.”
Mat 12:46 While Yeshua was still speaking to the crowds, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with him.
Mat 12:47 Someone told him, “Look, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak with you.”
Mat 12:48 But Yeshua answered and asked him who told him, “Who is my mother, and who are my brethren and sistren and my relatives?”
Mat 12:49 Then he stretched out his hand toward his disciples and said, “See, here are my mother and my brethren and sistren!
Mat 12:50 For whoever does the will of my Father who is in Heaven, that person is my brother, sister, and mother.”

Matthew Chapter 13

Mat 13:1 On that day, Yeshua went out of the house and sat beside the Sea of Galilee.
Mat 13:2 A large crowd gathered around him, so he got into a boat and sat in it, while the whole crowd stood on the beach.
Mat 13:3 Then Yeshua spoke many things to them in parables, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow seed.
Mat 13:4 As he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured them.
Mat 13:5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil. Immediately, they sprang up, because the soil had no depth.
Mat 13:6 But when the sun had risen, they were scorched, because they had no root, and they withered away.
Mat 13:7 Other seeds fell among the thorn bushes. The thorns grew up and choked them.
Mat 13:8 Other seeds fell on good soil and produced grain, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty.
Mat 13:9 He who has ears to hear, let him listen."
Mat 13:10 The disciples came and asked Yeshua, "Why do you talk to the crowd in parables?"
Mat 13:11 Yeshua answered them, "You have been given the privilege of understanding mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but to them it is not given.
Mat 13:12 Because whoever has, even more will be given, and he will have superabundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.
Mat 13:13 This is why I talk to them in parables: Though they are seeing, they do not see; and though they are hearing, they do not hear or understand.
Mat 13:14 To them, the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, that which says, 'While hearing you will hear, but you will in no way understand; while seeing you will see, but you will in no way perceive.
Mat 13:15 For this people's heart has become dull, and they are hard of hearing, and they have closed their eyes, so they should not see with their eyes, or hear with their ears, or understand with their hearts, so they would turn around, and I would heal them' (Isa. 6:9-10).
Mat 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear.
Mat 13:17 Truly, I say to you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things that you see, and did not see them. They desired to hear the things that you hear, and did not hear them.
Mat 13:18 Listen then to the parable of the farmer who sowed his seed.

Mat 13:19 He who sows is the preacher. The seed is the Word of Yehowah. When anyone hears the Word of Yehowah but does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is the seed that was sown beside the road.
Mat 13:20 What was sown on rocky ground is the person who hears the Word of Yehowah and immediately receives it with joy,
Mat 13:21 yet he has no root in himself, and he endures for awhile. When tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, he quickly falls away.
Mat 13:22 What was sown among the thorn bushes, this is the person who hears the Word of Yehowah, but the worry of the world and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the Word of Yehowah, and it becomes unfruitful.
Mat 13:23 What was sown on the good soil, this is the person who hears the Word of Yehowah and obeys it. He bears fruit and makes a crop, yielding one hundred times as much as was planted, some sixty, and some thirty times as much."
Mat 13:24 Yeshua presented another parable to them, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a farmer who sowed good seed in his field.
Mat 13:25 But while people slept, his enemy came and also sowed weeds among the wheat and then went away.
Mat 13:26 When the blades sprouted and then produced their crop, then the weeds appeared also.
Mat 13:27 The servants of the landowner came and asked him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How does it now have weeds?'
Mat 13:28 He answered them, 'A man-faced enemy has done this.' The servants asked him, 'So do you want us to go and pull them out?'
Mat 13:29 The landowner answered, 'No. Because while you are pulling out the weeds, you might uproot the wheat with them.
Mat 13:30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At the time of the harvest, I will say to the reapers, "First, pull out the weeds and tie them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn."""
Mat 13:31 Then Yeshua presented another parable to them, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed which a farmer took and sowed in his field.
Mat 13:32 This seed is indeed the smallest of all other seeds. But when it has grown, it is greater than the garden plants. It becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."
Mat 13:33 Yeshua then told them another parable, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of flour, until all the dough had risen."
Mat 13:34 All these things Yeshua spoke to the crowds in parables, and he said nothing to them without a parable.

Mat 13:35 This was in order that what had been said through the prophet might come true, “I will open my mouth in parables. I will say things that were hidden from the foundation of the world.”
Mat 13:36 Then Yeshua left the crowds and went into the house. His disciples came to him and asked, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.”
Mat 13:37 Yeshua answered, “He who sows the good seed is the Son of the virgin.
Mat 13:38 The field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one,
Mat 13:39 and the enemy who sowed them is the Devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.
Mat 13:40 Therefore, as the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire, so will it be at the end of the age.
Mat 13:41 The Son of Yehowah will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all the things that cause sin, and those who violate the law.
Mat 13:42 They will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.
Mat 13:43 Then will the righteous people shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him listen.
Mat 13:44 Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field. A man found it and hid it. In his joy he goes and sells everything he possesses and buys that field.
Mat 13:45 Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a merchant looking for valuable pearls.
Mat 13:46 When he found one pearl of extremely high value, he went and sold everything that he possessed and bought it.
Mat 13:47 Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea, and that gathered creatures of every kind.
Mat 13:48 When it was filled, the fishermen drew it up on the beach. Then they sat down and gathered the good things into containers, but the worthless things they threw away.
Mat 13:49 It will be this way at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from among the righteous.
Mat 13:50 They will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.
Mat 13:51 Have you understood all these things?” The disciples answered him, “Yes, Lord.”
Mat 13:52 Then Yeshua taught them, “Therefore, every scribe who has become a disciple to the Kingdom of Heaven is like the head of a household, who draws out old and new things from his treasure.”
Mat 13:53 Then it came about that when Yeshua had finished these parables, he departed from that place.

Mat 13:54 Then Yeshua entered his own region and taught the people in their house of assembly. The result was that they were astonished and asked, “Where does this man get his wisdom and these miracles from?
Mat 13:55 Is not this man the craftsman’s son? Is not his mother called Miriam? Are not his brothers Jacob, Joseph II, Simon, and Judah?
Mat 13:56 Are not all his sisters with us? Where did he get all these things?”
Mat 13:57 They were offended by him. But Yeshua explained to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own family.”
Mat 13:58 He did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

Matthew Chapter 14

Mat 14:1 About that time, Herod Antipas the tetrarch heard the news about Yeshua.
Mat 14:2 He said to his sons, “This is John the Immerser; he has risen from the dead. Therefore, these powers are at work in him.”
Mat 14:3 For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Herod Philip’s wife (Lev. 20:21).
Mat 14:4 For John had told him, “It is not lawful for you to have her as your wife.”
Mat 14:5 Herod Antipas would have executed him, but he feared the people, because they regarded him as a prophet.
Mat 14:6 But when Herod’s birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst and pleased Herod.
Mat 14:7 In response, he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask.
Mat 14:8 After being instructed by her mother, she requested, “Give me here, on a platter, the head of John the Immerser.”
Mat 14:9 The king was upset by her request, but because of his oath and because of all those at dinner with him, he ordered that it should be done.
Mat 14:10 He sent and beheaded John in the prison.
Mat 14:11 Then his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she took it to her mother.
Mat 14:12 Then his disciples came, took up the corpse and buried it. After this, they went and told Yeshua.
Mat 14:13 Now when Yeshua heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to an isolated place. When the crowds heard of it, they followed him on foot from the cities.
Mat 14:14 Then Yeshua came before them and saw the large crowd. He had compassion on them and healed their sick.
Mat 14:15 At dusk, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is late. Dismiss the crowds, so that they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”
Mat 14:16 But Yeshua told them, “They have no need to go away. You give them something to eat.”
Mat 14:17 They responded to him, “We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish.”
Mat 14:18 Yeshua ordered, “Bring them to me.”
Mat 14:19 Then Yeshua ordered the crowd to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish. Looking up to Heaven, he blessed Yehowah, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowd.

Mat 14:20 They all ate and were filled. Then they took up what remained of the broken pieces of food, twelve baskets full (2 Kings 4:42-44; Lev. 24:5-6).
Mat 14:21 Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children (Mark 6:30; Luke 9:10; John 6:1).
Mat 14:22 Immediately, he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he sent away the crowds.
Mat 14:23 After he had sent away the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When nightfall came, he was there alone.
Mat 14:24 But the boat was now a long way from land, being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was blowing against them.
Mat 14:25 In the fourth watch of the night, Yeshua approached them, walking on the Sea.
Mat 14:26 When the disciples saw him walking on the Sea, they were terrified and cried out in fear, “It is a ghost!”
Mat 14:27 But Yeshua spoke to them right away, “Be brave in Yehowah! It is I! Do not be afraid.”
Mat 14:28 Peter answered him, “Lord, since it is you, command me to come to you on the water.”
Mat 14:29 Yeshua ordered, “Come!” So Peter got out from the boat and walked on the water to go to Yeshua.
Mat 14:30 But when Peter saw the fierce wind, he became afraid. As he began to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!”
Mat 14:31 Yeshua immediately stretched out his hand, took hold of Peter and asked him, “You immature faithful, why were you afraid?”
Mat 14:32 Then when Yeshua and Peter went into the boat, the wind ceased blowing.
Mat 14:33 Then the disciples in the boat worshiped Yeshua, “Truly, you are the Son of Yehowah.”
Mat 14:34 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.
Mat 14:35 When the men in that place recognized Yeshua, they sent messages everywhere into the surrounding area, and they brought to him everyone who was sick (halah).
Mat 14:36 They begged (hilah) him that they might just touch the tassel of his garment, and as many as touched it were healed.

Matthew Chapter 15

Mat 15:1 Then some Pharisees and scribes came to Yeshua from Jerusalem. They complained,
Mat 15:2 “Why do your disciples violate the traditions of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.”
Mat 15:3 He answered them, “Then why do you violate the commandment of Yehowah for the sake of your traditions?
Mat 15:4 For Yehowah commanded, ‘Honor your father and mother,’ and, ‘He who speaks evil of his father or mother must surely be executed’ (Exo. 20:12, 21:17; Mark 7:10).
Mat 15:5 But you say, ‘Whoever says to his father or mother, “Whatever help you would have received from me is now a gift given to Yehowah,”’
Mat 15:6 that person does not need to honor his father and his mother. In this way, you have made void the Word of Yehowah for the sake of your deceitful traditions.
Mat 15:7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you when he said,
Mat 15:8 ‘This people comes near to me with their mouth and honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
Mat 15:9 They worship me in vain, because they teach as their doctrines the commandments of people’” (Isa. 29:13).
Mat 15:10 Then he called the crowd to himself and taught them, “Listen and understand, Mat 15:11 nothing that enters into the mouth defiles a person. Instead, what comes out of the mouth, this is what defiles a person.”
Mat 15:12 Then the disciples came and asked Yeshua, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this statement?”
Mat 15:13 Yeshua answered, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up.
Mat 15:14 Let them alone, they are blind guides. If a blind person guides another blind person, both will fall into a pit.”
Mat 15:15 Peter responded to Yeshua, “Explain this parable to us.”
Mat 15:16 Yeshua taught, “Are you also still without understanding?
Mat 15:17 Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and is then excreted into the toilet?
Mat 15:18 But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart. They are the things that defile a person.
Mat 15:19 For from the heart proceed evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, and slander.

Mat 15:20 These are the things that defile a person. But to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a person” (Mark 7:14-23).
Mat 15:21 Then Yeshua went away from there and withdrew toward the regions of the cities of Tyre and Sidon.
Mat 15:22 Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from that region. She shouted out, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely tormented by a demon!”
Mat 15:23 But Yeshua answered her not a word. His disciples came and begged him, “Send her away, for she is shouting after us.”
Mat 15:24 But Yeshua answered, “I was not sent to anyone except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”
Mat 15:25 But she came and bowed down before him, entreating, “Lord, help me.”
Mat 15:26 He answered, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the puppies.”
Mat 15:27 She replied, “Yes, Lord, but even the puppy dogs eat some of the crumbs that fall from their masters’ tables.”
Mat 15:28 Then Yeshua answered her, “Woman, great is your faith; let it be done for you just as you wish.” At that hour her daughter was healed.
Mat 15:29 Yeshua left that place and went near to the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up a mountain and sat there.
Mat 15:30 Large crowds came to him. They brought with them lame, blind, mute, and crippled people, and many others who were sick. They presented them at the feet of Yeshua, and he healed them.
Mat 15:31 So the crowd marveled when they saw the mute persons speak, the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. They glorified the Mighty One of Israel!
Mat 15:32 Yeshua called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have stayed with me for three days already and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away without eating, or they may faint on the way.”
Mat 15:33 The disciples asked him, “Where can we get enough loaves of bread in such a deserted place to satisfy so large a crowd?”
Mat 15:34 Yeshua asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” They answered, “Seven, and a few small fish.”
Mat 15:35 Then Yeshua ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground.
Mat 15:36 He took the seven loaves and the fish, and after giving thanks to Yehowah, he broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples. The disciples gave them to the crowd.

Mat 15:37 The people all ate and were satisfied. Then they gathered up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over (2 Kings 4:42-44; Lev. 24:5-6).
Mat 15:38 Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.
Mat 15:39 Then Yeshua sent the crowds away, climbed into the boat, and went into the region of Magdala.

Matthew Chapter 16

Mat 16:1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from Heaven.
Mat 16:2 But Yeshua answered them, "When it is dusk, you say, 'Tomorrow it will be fair weather, for the sky is red.'
Mat 16:3 When it is daybreak, you say, 'Today it will be foul weather, for the sky is red and overcast.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.
Mat 16:4 An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet." Then Yeshua left them and went away.
Mat 16:5 When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.
Mat 16:6 Yeshua warned them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
Mat 16:7 The disciples reasoned among themselves, "It is because we took no bread."
Mat 16:8 Yeshua was aware of this and asked, "You immature faithfuls, why do you reason among yourselves and say that it is because you have taken no bread?
Mat 16:9 Do you not yet perceive or remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered up?
Mat 16:10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up (2 Kings 4:42-44; Lev. 24:5-6)?
Mat 16:11 How is it that you do not understand that I was not speaking to you about bread? Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."
Mat 16:12 Then they understood that he was not telling them to beware of yeast in bread, but to beware of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees (Luke 12:1).
Mat 16:13 Now when Yeshua came to the regions near Caesarea Philippi (modern Banias), he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"
Mat 16:14 They answered, "Some say John the Immerser; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets."
Mat 16:15 Yeshua asked them, "But who do you say that I AM?"
Mat 16:16 Answering, Simon Peter declared, "You are Messiah, the Son of living Yehowah!"
Mat 16:17 Yeshua answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar Yonah, for flesh and blood have not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in Heaven.

Mat 16:18 I also say to you that you are a pebble (even), and upon this rock (of redeemed sinners) I will build (evneh) my congregation. The gates of the place of the dead will not prevail against her.
Mat 16:19 I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you will forbid on earth will be forbidden in Heaven, and whatever you will permit on earth will be permitted in Heaven."
Mat 16:20 Then he commanded his disciples that they should tell no one that he is Yeshua the Messiah.
Mat 16:21 From that time, Yeshua started to tell his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem, suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, be killed, and be raised back to life on the third day.
Mat 16:22 Then Peter took him aside and rebuked him, "May this be far from you, Lord; may Yehowah never let this happen to you!"
Mat 16:23 But Yeshua turned his back to Peter and rebuked him, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you do not care for the words of Yehowah but for the things of people."
Mat 16:24 Then Yeshua taught his disciples, "If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.
Mat 16:25 For whoever wants to save his life will destroy it, and whoever destroys his life for my sake will find it.
Mat 16:26 For what does it profit a person if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life? What can a person give in exchange for his life?
Mat 16:27 For Yehowah will come in the glory of his Father with his angels (Deut 33; 1 Thes. 4:14). Then he will reward everyone according to what he has done.
Mat 16:28 Truly, I say to you, there are some of you who are standing here who will not taste death, until they see the Son of Yehowah coming in his kingdom."

Matthew Chapter 17

Mat 17:1 Six days later, Yeshua took with him Peter, Jacob, and John his brother, and brought them up a high mountain by themselves.
Mat 17:2 He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as brilliant as the light.
Mat 17:3 Behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him.
Mat 17:4 Peter spoke to Yeshua, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you desire, I will make here three shelters (sukkot), one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
Mat 17:5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, there was a voice out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son, in whom my soul delights. Listen to him" (Deut. 18:15; Isa. 42:1).
Mat 17:6 When the disciples heard it, they fell on their face and were deathly afraid.
Mat 17:7 Then Yeshua came, touched them, and ordered, "Get up and do not be afraid."
Mat 17:8 Then they looked up but saw no one except Yeshua only.
Mat 17:9 As they were coming down the mountain, Yeshua commanded them, "Report this vision to no one, until the Son of Yehowah has risen from the dead."
Mat 17:10 His disciples asked him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
Mat 17:11 Yeshua answered, "Elijah will indeed come and restore all things.
Mat 17:12 But I tell you, Elijah has already come, but they did not recognize him. Instead, they did whatever they wanted to him. In the same way, the Son of Yehowah will also suffer at their hands."
Mat 17:13 Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Immerser.
Mat 17:14 When they had come to the crowd, a man came to him, knelt before him,
Mat 17:15 and entreated, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic and suffers severely. For he often falls into the fire or the water.
Mat 17:16 I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him."
Mat 17:17 Yeshua answered, "Unbelieving and corrupt generation, how long will I have to stay with you? How long must I bear with you? Bring him here to me."
Mat 17:18 Yeshua rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that hour.
Mat 17:19 Then the disciples came to Yeshua privately and asked, "Why could we not cast it out?"

Mat 17:20 Yeshua answered them, “Because of your weak faith. For I truly say to you, if you have faith even as a grain of mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.
Mat 17:21 But this element of Satan does not go out except with prayer and fasting.”
Mat 17:22 While they stayed in Galilee, Yeshua prophesied to his disciples, “The Son of Yehowah will be delivered into the hands of people, Mat 17:23 and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up.” The disciples became extremely upset.
Mat 17:24 When they had come to Capernaum, the men who collected the half-weight offering came to Peter and complained, “Your teacher did not pay the half-weight offering” (Exo. 30:11-16; Exo. 38:25-26; 2 Kings 12:4-16).
Mat 17:25 He replied, “Truly.” But when Peter went into the house, Yeshua asked him first, “What do you think, Simon? The kings on earth, from whom do they receive tax or tribute? From their own children or from foreigners?”
Mat 17:26 When Peter answered, “From foreigners,” Yeshua instructed him, “Then the children are exempt from paying.
Mat 17:27 But so that we do not cause the offering collectors to sin, go to the Sea, throw in a hook, and draw in the fish that comes up first. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a silver coin. Take it and give it to the offering collectors for me and you.”

Matthew Chapter 18

Mat 18:1 At that same time, the disciples came to Yeshua and asked, “Who is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?”
Mat 18:2 Yeshua called to himself a little child, set him among them,
Mat 18:3 and taught, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn around and become like little children, you will in no way enter the Kingdom of Heaven (Mat. 5:20).
Mat 18:4 Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this little child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.
Mat 18:5 Whoever welcomes a little child like this in my name receives me.
Mat 18:6 But whoever causes one of these little ones who believes in me to sin, it would be better for him that a donkey’s millstone should be hung about his neck, and that he should be sunk into the depths of the sea.
Mat 18:7 Woe to the world because of offenses! For it is necessary that offenses come, but woe to the person through whom that offense comes!
Mat 18:8 If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into the Garden of Eden maimed or lame than to be thrown into the eternal fire having two hands or two feet.
Mat 18:9 If your eye causes you to stumble (takhshileha), pluck it out and throw (tashlikheha) it away from you. It is better for you to enter into the Garden of Eden with one eye than to be thrown into the eternal fire having both eyes.
Mat 18:10 See that you do not despise any of these little ones. For I say to you, that in Heaven their angels always look on the face of my Father who is in Heaven.
Mat 18:11 For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.
Mat 18:12 What do you think? If anyone has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine in the mountains and go off seeking the one that went astray?
Mat 18:13 If he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray.
Mat 18:14 In the same way, it is not the will of your Father in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish.
Mat 18:15 If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you will have gained your brother.
Mat 18:16 But if he does not listen to you, take one or two others along with you, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be verified.
Mat 18:17 And if he refuses to listen to them, tell the matter to the congregation elders (Beit Din). If he also refuses to listen to the congregation elders (Beit Din), let him be to you as a foreigner and a tax collector.

Mat 18:18 Truly, I say to you, whatever things you forbid on earth will be forbidden in Heaven; and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in Heaven.
Mat 18:19 Again, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in Heaven.
Mat 18:20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in their midst."
Mat 18:21 Then Peter came and asked him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Until seven times?"
Mat 18:22 Yeshua answered him, "I do not tell you seven times but until seventy times seven.
Mat 18:23 Therefore, the Kingdom of Heaven is similar to a human king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.
Mat 18:24 As he began the settling, one servant was brought to him who owed him ten thousand silver coins.
Mat 18:25 But since he had not the means to repay, his master commanded him to be sold, together with his wife, children, and everything that he had, and payment to be made.
Mat 18:26 So the servant fell down on his knees, asking for grace, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'
Mat 18:27 So the master of that servant, since he was moved with compassion (hamal), released him and forgave (mahal) him all the debt.
Mat 18:28 But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants, who owed him one hundred silver coins. He grasped him, took him by the throat and demanded, 'Pay me what you owe!'
Mat 18:29 But his fellow servant fell down and entreated him, 'Have patience with me, and I will repay you.'
Mat 18:30 But the first servant refused. Instead, he went and threw him into prison, until he should pay him what he owed.
Mat 18:31 When his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were extremely upset. They came and told their master everything that had happened.
Mat 18:32 Then that servant's master called him and said to him, 'You wicked servant, I forgave you all that debt, because you entreated me for grace.
Mat 18:33 Should you not have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?'
Mat 18:34 His master was angry and handed him over to the torturers, until he would pay all that was owed.
Mat 18:35 So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother or sister from your good heart."

Matthew Chapter 19

Mat 19:1 It came about that when Yeshua had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came to the region of Judea that is beyond the Jordan River.
Mat 19:2 Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.
Mat 19:3 Pharisees came to him, testing him, asking him, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife (without a written contract of divorce) for any cause?"
Mat 19:4 Yeshua answered, "Have you not read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female?
Mat 19:5 He who made them also said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and join to his wife, and the two will become one flesh?'
Mat 19:6 So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore, what Yehowah has joined together, let no one tear apart (without a Writ of Divorce)."
Mat 19:7 They asked him, "Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of divorce and then to send her away" (lawful divorce, Deut. 24:1-4)?
Mat 19:8 Yeshua answered them, "For your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to put away your wives (but only lawful with a written contract of divorce), but from the beginning it was not that way.
Mat 19:9 I say to you, whoever puts away his wife (without a written contract of divorce), except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and the man who marries a woman who is put away (without a written contract of divorce) commits adultery" (Mal. 2:16; 1 Cor. 7).
Mat 19:10 The disciples responded to Yeshua, "If that is the case of a man with his wife, it is not obligatory to marry."
Mat 19:11 But Yeshua replied to them, "Not everyone can accept this teaching, but only those who are allowed to accept it.
Mat 19:12 For there are eunuchs who were that way from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. He who is able to receive this teaching, let him receive it."
Mat 19:13 Then some little children were brought to him, so that he would lay his hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.
Mat 19:14 But Yeshua said, "Permit the little children and do not forbid them to come to me, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to such ones."
Mat 19:15 He placed his hands on the children, and then he went away from there.
Mat 19:16 Behold, a man came to Yeshua and asked, "Good Teacher, what good thing must I do that I may have eternal life?"

Mat 19:17 Yeshua answered him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? Only One is good, Yehowah, but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.”
Mat 19:18 The man asked him, “Which commandments?” Yeshua answered, “Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, Mat 19:19 honor your father and mother, and unconditionally selflessly love your neighbor as yourself.”
Mat 19:20 The young man said to him, “All these things I have obeyed from my childhood. What do I still need?”
Mat 19:21 Yeshua answered him, “If you wish to be completely mature, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven; and come, follow me.”
Mat 19:22 But when the young man heard what Yeshua said, he went away sorrowful, for he had many possessions.
Mat 19:23 Yeshua taught his disciples, “Truly, I say to you, it is difficult for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.
Mat 19:24 Again, I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of Yehowah.”
Mat 19:25 When the disciples heard it, they were quite astonished and asked, “Who then can save us?”
Mat 19:26 Yeshua looked at them and answered, “With people this is impossible, but with Yehowah all things are possible.”
Mat 19:27 Then Peter responded to him, “See, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?”
Mat 19:28 Yeshua answered them, “Truly, I say to you, in the Restoration when the Son of Yehowah sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
Mat 19:29 Every one who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, wife, children, or farmland for my name’s sake, will receive one hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life.
Mat 19:30 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.

Matthew Chapter 20

Mat 20:1 For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a landowner who went out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard.
Mat 20:2 After he had agreed with the workers for one silver coin a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
Mat 20:3 He went out again about 9 am and saw other workers standing idle in the marketplace.
Mat 20:4 To them he said, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' So they went to work.
Mat 20:5 Again he went out about 12 pm and again at 3 pm, and did the same.
Mat 20:6 Once more about 5 pm he went out and found others standing idle. He asked them, 'Why do you stand here idle all the day long?'
Mat 20:7 They answered him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.'
Mat 20:8 When dusk came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.'
Mat 20:9 When the workers who had been hired at 5 pm came, each of them received a silver coin.
Mat 20:10 When the first workers came, they thought that they would receive more, but they also received one silver coin each.
Mat 20:11 When they received their wages, they complained about the landowner.
Mat 20:12 They said, 'These last workers have worked only one hour, but you have made them equal to us, we who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.'
Mat 20:13 But the owner answered and said to one of them, 'Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for one silver coin?
Mat 20:14 Take what belongs to you and go your way. I choose to give to these last hired workers just the same as to you.
Mat 20:15 Do I not have the right to do as I want with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?'
Mat 20:16 So the last will be first and the first last. Many are called, but few are chosen."
Mat 20:17 As Yeshua was going up to Jerusalem, he took the Twelve aside, and on the way he explained to them,
Mat 20:18 "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Yehowah will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes. They will condemn him to death Mat 20:19 and will deliver him to the ethnicities for them to mock, to flog, and to crucify him. But on the third day he will be raised up."

Mat 20:20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Yeshua with her sons. She bowed down before him and asked for something from him.
Mat 20:21 Yeshua asked her, “What do you wish?” She answered him, “Command that these my two sons may sit, one at your right hand and one at your left hand, in your kingdom.”
Mat 20:22 But Yeshua responded, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and to be immersed with the immersion I will be immersed with?” They answered him, “We are able.”
Mat 20:23 He told them, “My cup you will indeed drink, and you will be immersed with the immersion I will be immersed with. But to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”
Mat 20:24 When the other ten disciples heard this, they were extremely angry with the two brothers.
Mat 20:25 But Yeshua called them to himself and taught, “You know that the rulers of the ethnicities subjugate them, and their important men exercise authority over them.
Mat 20:26 But it must not be this way among you. Instead, whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant,
Mat 20:27 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your servant,
Mat 20:28 just as the Son of Yehowah did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
Mat 20:29 As they went out from Jericho, a great crowd followed him.
Mat 20:30 There were two blind men sitting by the road. When they heard that Yeshua was passing by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”
Mat 20:31 The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be quiet, but they cried out even more loudly, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”
Mat 20:32 Then Yeshua stood still, called to them, and asked, “What do you wish me to do for you?”
Mat 20:33 They answered him, “Lord, that our eyes may be opened.”
Mat 20:34 Then Yeshua, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes. Immediately, they received their sight and followed him.

Matthew Chapter 21

Mat 21:1 As Yeshua and his disciples approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, Yeshua sent two disciples,
Mat 21:2 directing them, "Go into the next village, and you will immediately find a jenny donkey tied up there and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me.
Mat 21:3 If anyone says anything to you about that, you will say, 'The Lord has need of them for his work,' and that person will immediately send them with you."
Mat 21:4 Now this came about that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled,
Mat 21:5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, 'See, your King is coming to you, humble and riding on a colt, on a foal of a jenny'" (Gen. 49:11; Zech. 9:9; Exo. 4:20).
Mat 21:6 Then the disciples went and did just as Yeshua had instructed them.
Mat 21:7 They brought the jenny and the colt and put their coats on him, and Yeshua sat upon the coats.
Mat 21:8 Most of the crowd spread their coats on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them in the road.
Mat 21:9 Then the crowds that went before Yeshua, and those that followed him, were shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the One who comes in the name of Yehowah our Savior! Hosanna in the highest!"
Mat 21:10 When Yeshua had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred and asked, "Who is this Yeshua?"
Mat 21:11 The crowds answered, "This Yeshua is the Prophet from Natsareth in Galilee!"
Mat 21:12 Then Yeshua entered the temple of Yehowah. He cast out all those who bought and sold in the temple, and turned over the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold doves.
Mat 21:13 He proclaimed to them, "It is written, 'My temple will be called a house of prayer,' but you make it a den of robbers!"
Mat 21:14 Then the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.
Mat 21:15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the marvelous things that he did, and when they heard the children shouting in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" They became extremely angry.
Mat 21:16 They asked him, "Do you hear what these people are shouting?" Yeshua answered them, "Yes! But have you never read, 'Lord, out of the mouths of babes and nursing infants you have perfected praise?'"

Mat 21:17 Then Yeshua left them and went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.
Mat 21:18 Now at dawn, as he returned to the city, he was hungry.
Mat 21:19 Seeing a fig tree along the roadside, he went to it and found nothing on it except leaves. He cursed it, “May there be no fruit from you ever again,” and immediately the fig tree withered.
Mat 21:20 When the disciples saw it, they marveled and asked, “How did the fig tree immediately wither away?”
Mat 21:21 Yeshua answered them, “Truly, I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to this fig tree, but you will even say to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will be done.
Mat 21:22 Whatever you ask for in prayer, believing, you will receive.”
Mat 21:23 When Yeshua had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching and asked, “By what authority do you do these things, and who gave you this ability?”
Mat 21:24 Yeshua answered them, “I also will ask you one question. If you tell me, I will tell you by what authority I do these things.
Mat 21:25 The immersion of John, from where did it come? From Heaven or from humans?” They discussed among themselves, “If we say, ‘From Heaven,’ he will ask us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’
Mat 21:26 But if we say, ‘From humans,’ we fear the crowd, because they all view John as a prophet.”
Mat 21:27 Then they answered Yeshua, “We do not know.” He also said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.
Mat 21:28 But what do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go work today in the vineyard.’
Mat 21:29 The son answered, ‘I will not,’ but afterward he changed his mind and went.
Mat 21:30 Then the man went to the second son and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I will go, sir,’ but he did not go.
Mat 21:31 Which of the two sons did his father’s will?” They answered, “The first one.” Yeshua taught them, “Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes will enter the Kingdom of Yehowah before you do.
Mat 21:32 For John came to you in the Way of righteousness, but you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. But you, even when you saw this, you did not repent afterward and believe him.
Mat 21:33 Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner. He planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a watchtower, and rented it out to vine growers. Then he went into another country.
Mat 21:34 When the time of the fruit harvest approached, he sent some servants to the vine growers to get his fruit.

Mat 21:35 But the vine growers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned still another.
Mat 21:36 Again, the owner sent other servants, more than the first, but the vine growers treated them in the same way.
Mat 21:37 After that, the owner sent his own son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'
Mat 21:38 But when the vine growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take over the inheritance.'
Mat 21:39 So they took him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.
Mat 21:40 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine growers?"
Mat 21:41 They answered him, "He will destroy those miserable men in the most severe way, and will then rent out the vineyard to other vine growers, men who will give him his share of crops at the harvest time."
Mat 21:42 Yeshua asked them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The Stone which the builders rejected has been made the chief Cornerstone. This was from Yehowah, and it is marvelous in our eyes' (Psa. 118:22-23)?
Mat 21:43 Therefore, I say to you, the Kingdom of Yehowah will be taken away from you, and will be given to ethnicities that produce its fruits.
Mat 21:44 Whoever falls on this Stone will be broken to pieces. But anyone on whom it falls will be crushed."
Mat 21:45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they understood he was speaking about them.
Mat 21:46 Seeking to arrest him, they were afraid of the crowd, because the people regarded him as a prophet.

Matthew Chapter 22

Mat 22:1 Yeshua spoke to them again in parables,
Mat 22:2 “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a human king who prepared a marriage feast for his son.
Mat 22:3 He sent out his servants to call those who had been invited to come to the marriage feast, but they would not come.
Mat 22:4 Again, the king sent other servants, ordering, ‘Tell them who are invited, “See, I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fowl have been killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast.”’
Mat 22:5 But they paid no attention and went away, one to his farm, another to his business.
Mat 22:6 The others seized the king’s servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them.
Mat 22:7 The king was angry, and he sent his armed forces, and they killed those murderers and burned their houses.
Mat 22:8 Then he commanded his servants, ‘The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.
Mat 22:9 Therefore, go to the highway crossings and invite as many people to the marriage feast as you can find.’
Mat 22:10 The servants went out to the highways and gathered together all the people they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests.
Mat 22:11 But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes.
Mat 22:12 The king asked him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without wedding clothes?’ But he was speechless.
Mat 22:13 Then the king ordered the servants, ‘Bind this man hand and foot, take him away and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and the grinding of teeth.’
Mat 22:14 For many people are called, but few are chosen.”
Mat 22:15 Then the Pharisees went and planned how they might entrap Yeshua in his own talk.
Mat 22:16 Then they sent to him their disciples, together with the Herodians. They said to Yeshua, “Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and that you teach the Way of Yehowah in truth. You care for no one’s opinion, and you do not show partiality between people.
Mat 22:17 So tell us, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

Mat 22:18 But Yeshua understood their wickedness and responded, “Why are you testing me, you hypocrites?
Mat 22:19 Show me the coin for the tax.” Then they brought a silver coin to him.
Mat 22:20 Yeshua asked them, “Whose image and name are these?”
Mat 22:21 They answered him, “Caesar’s.” Then Yeshua told them, “Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to Yehowah the things that belong to Yehowah.”
Mat 22:22 When they heard it, they marveled. Then they left him and went away.
Mat 22:23 On that day, some Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him. They inquired of him,
Mat 22:24 “Teacher, Moses commanded, ‘If a man dies, having no children, his brother must marry his wife and have children for his brother (Levirate marriage).
Mat 22:25 There were seven brothers. The first married and then died. Having left no children, he left his wife to his brother.
Mat 22:26 Then the second brother did the same thing, then the third, all the way to the seventh brother.
Mat 22:27 After them all, the woman died.
Mat 22:28 Now in the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven brothers? For they all had married her.”
Mat 22:29 But Yeshua answered them, “You are mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of Yehowah.
Mat 22:30 For in the resurrection, they neither marry nor are given in marriage. Instead, they are like the angels of Yehowah in Heaven.
Mat 22:31 But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by Yehowah,
Mat 22:32 ‘I AM the Mighty One of Abraham, the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Jacob?’ Yehowah is not the Mighty One of the dead but of the living.”
Mat 22:33 When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.
Mat 22:34 But when the Pharisees heard that Yeshua had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered themselves together.
Mat 22:35 One of them, a law interpreter, asked him a question, testing him,
Mat 22:36 “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?”
Mat 22:37 Yeshua answered him, “‘Unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind’ (Deut. 6:5; 10:12; 30:6).
Mat 22:38 This is the great and first commandment.
Mat 22:39 And a second commandment is like it, ‘Unconditionally selflessly love your neighbor as yourself’ (Lev. 19:18, 34; Deut. 10:18-19).

Mat 22:40 By these two commandments derive the whole law and the prophets" (aka Tanakh).
Mat 22:41 Now while the Pharisees were still gathered together, Yeshua asked them a question,
Mat 22:42 "What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?" They answered him, "The Son of David."
Mat 22:43 Yeshua asked them, "How then does David in the Ruach call him Lord,
Mat 22:44 'Yehowah invited my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool"' (Psa. 110:1)?
Mat 22:45 If David then calls the Messiah 'Lord,' how is he David's son?"
Mat 22:46 No one was able to answer him a word, and no man dared ask him any more questions from that day on.

Matthew Chapter 23

Mat 23:1 Then Yeshua preached to the crowds and to his disciples,
Mat 23:2 “The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses’ seat.
Mat 23:3 Therefore, whatever he commands you to do, do these things and observe them. But do not imitate their deeds, for they say things but then do not do them.
Mat 23:4 Yes, they bind heavy burdens that are difficult to carry, and then they put them on people’s shoulders. But they themselves will not move a finger to carry them.
Mat 23:5 They do all their deeds to be seen by people. For they make their tefillin wide, and they lengthen the tekhelet (blue string in the tassel; Num. 15:38) of their garments.
Mat 23:6 They love the chief places at feasts and the chief seats in the houses of assembly,
Mat 23:7 and special greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi’ by people.
Mat 23:8 But you must not be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have only one Teacher, Messiah, and you are all brethren and sistren.
Mat 23:9 And call no man on earth your father, for you have only one Father, and he is in Heaven.
Mat 23:10 Neither must you be called ‘teacher,’ for you have only one Teacher, Messiah.
Mat 23:11 But he who is greatest among you will be your servant.
Mat 23:12 Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.
Mat 23:13 But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You shut the Kingdom of Heaven against people. For you do not enter it yourselves, and neither do you allow those about to enter to do so.
Mat 23:14 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows’ houses, while you make a show of long prayers. You will therefore receive greater condemnation.
Mat 23:15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you go over sea and land to make one convert, and when he has become one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as you.
Mat 23:16 Woe to you, you blind guides, you who say, ‘Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound to his oath.’
Mat 23:17 You blind fools! Which is greater, the gold or the temple that makes the gold set apart?

Mat 23:18 And, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing. But whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is bound to his oath.’
Mat 23:19 You blind people! Which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift set apart?
Mat 23:20 Therefore, he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by everything on it.
Mat 23:21 The one who swears by the temple, swears by it and by the One who lives in it,
Mat 23:22 and the one who swears by Heaven, swears by the throne of Yehowah and by him who sits on it.
Mat 23:23 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cumin, but you have left undone the weightier matters of the law, justice, mercy, and faith. But these you ought to have done and not to have left the other undone.
Mat 23:24 You blind guides, you who strain out a gnat but swallow a camel!
Mat 23:25 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.
Mat 23:26 You blind Pharisee! Clean first the inside of the cup and plate, so that the outside may become clean also (Luke 11:41).
Mat 23:27 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside look beautiful, but on the inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean.
Mat 23:28 In the same way, you also outwardly appear righteous to people, but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.
Mat 23:29 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the tombs of the righteous.
Mat 23:30 You say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been participants with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’
Mat 23:31 Therefore, you testify against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.
Mat 23:32 You also fill up the measure of your fathers.
Mat 23:33 You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of hell?
Mat 23:34 Therefore see, I am sending you prophets, wise disciples, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify; and some you will whip in your houses of assembly and drive them out from city to city.
Mat 23:35 The result is, that upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, to the blood of Zechariah, righteous son, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar.

Mat 23:36 Truly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.
Mat 23:37 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those who are sent to you numerous times! How often did I long to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!
Mat 23:38 See, your temple is left to you desolate.
Mat 23:39 For I say to you, you will not see me from now on until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yehowah'" (Psa. 118:26; Luke 13:35)!

Matthew Chapter 24

Mat 24:1 Yeshua went out from the temple and was going on his way. His disciples came to him to point out to him the buildings of the temple.
Mat 24:2 But he answered them, “Do you not see all these things? Truly, I say to you, not one stone will be left on another that will not be demolished.”
Mat 24:3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately and asked, “Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”
Mat 24:4 Yeshua answered them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray.
Mat 24:5 For many will come in my name. They will say, ‘I AM Messiah,’ and will lead many people astray.
Mat 24:6 You will hear of wars and intelligence reports concerning wars. See that you are not troubled, for these things must happen; but the end is not yet.
Mat 24:7 For ethnicity will rise against ethnicity, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places.
Mat 24:8 But all these things are only the beginning of birth pains.
Mat 24:9 Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you. You will be hated by all ethnicities for my name’s sake.
Mat 24:10 Then most will stumble, betray one another, and hate one another.
Mat 24:11 Many false prophets will rise up and lead many people astray.
Mat 24:12 Because lawlessness will be multiplied, the unconditional selfless love of many people will grow cold.
Mat 24:13 But the one who endures to the end will be saved.
Mat 24:14 This good news of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all ethnicities. Then the end will come.
Mat 24:15 Therefore, when you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the set-apart place” (let the reader understand; Dan. 11:31; 9:27; 12:11; 2 Thes. 2:3-4; Zech. 5:11),
Mat 24:16 “then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains,
Mat 24:17 let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house,
Mat 24:18 and let him who is in the field not return to take his cloak.
Mat 24:19 But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days!
Mat 24:20 Pray to Yehowah that your flight will not occur in the winter or on a Sabbath.
Mat 24:21 For then there will be Great Tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be again.

Mat 24:22 Unless those days are shortened by Yehowah, no flesh would be saved alive. But for the sake of the elect of Yehowah, those days will be shortened.
Mat 24:23 Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or ‘There is the Messiah!’ Do not believe it.
Mat 24:24 For false messiahs and false prophets will come and show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect of Yehowah.
Mat 24:25 See, I have told you ahead of time.
Mat 24:26 Therefore, if they say to you, ‘Look, he is in the wilderness,’ do not go out there. Or, ‘See, he is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it.
Mat 24:27 For as the lightning bursts out from the east and flashes all the way to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Yehowah.
Mat 24:28 Wherever a dead body is, there the vultures will gather (Luke 17:37; Eze. 39:17-20; Rev. 19:17-20).
Mat 24:29 But immediately after the Tribulation of those days (Mark 13:24), the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly powers will be shaken.
Mat 24:30 Then the sign of the Son of Yehowah will appear in the sky, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of the virgin coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory (Deut. 33; Dan. 7:13).
Mat 24:31 Then he will send his angels with a megaloud sound of a trumpet (1 Cor. 15:52; 1 Thes. 4:16; Rev. 11:15; Lev. 23:24; Isa. 27:13), and they will gather together the elect of Yehowah from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.
Mat 24:32 Learn a lesson from the fig tree. As soon as the branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near.
Mat 24:33 So also, when you see all these things, you should know that he is near, at the gates.
Mat 24:34 Truly, I say to you, this period of time will not pass, until all of these things will have happened (Gen. 6:3; Lev. 25:8; Dan. 9:24).
Mat 24:35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.
Mat 24:36 But concerning that Day and hour, no one knows, not even the angels of Heaven, nor the Son, but only the heavenly Father (Mark 13:32).
Mat 24:37 As the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of the virgin.
Mat 24:38 For as in those days before The Flood, they were eating (human flesh) and drinking (human blood), marrying (Nephilim) and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark,
Mat 24:39 and they knew nothing, until The Flood came and took them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Yehowah.
Mat 24:40 Then two men will be in a field, one will be taken, and one will be left.

Mat 24:41 Two women will be grinding with a mill, one will be taken, and one will be left.
Mat 24:42 Therefore, be on your guard, for you do not know at what hour the Lord will come.
Mat 24:43 But know this, that if the head of the household had known in what time of night the thief was coming, he would have been on guard and would not have allowed his house to be broken into.
Mat 24:44 Therefore, you must also be ready, for the Son of Yehowah will come at an hour that you do not expect.
Mat 24:45 So who is the faithful and wise servant whom his Master has set over his household, in order to give them their food at the right time?
Mat 24:46 Blessed is that servant whom his Master will find doing that when he comes.
Mat 24:47 Truly, I say to you, that the Master will set him over everything that he owns.
Mat 24:48 But if an evil servant says in his heart, 'My Master delays his coming,'
Mat 24:49 and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eats and drinks with drunkards;
Mat 24:50 then the Master of that servant will come on a day that the servant does not expect, and at an hour that he does not know.
Mat 24:51 His Master will remove him from his supervision and make his fate the same as that of the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Matthew Chapter 25

Mat 25:1 Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom.
Mat 25:2 Five of them were foolish and five were wise.
Mat 25:3 For when the foolish virgins took their lamps, they did not take any oil with them.
Mat 25:4 But the wise virgins took containers of oil along with their lamps.
Mat 25:5 Now while the bridegroom was delayed, they all got sleepy and slept.
Mat 25:6 But at midnight there was a cry, 'Look, the bridegroom comes! Go out and meet him!'
Mat 25:7 Then all those virgins rose up and lit their lamps.
Mat 25:8 The foolish entreated the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are going out.'
Mat 25:9 But the wise answered, 'Since there will not be enough for us and you, go instead to those who sell and buy some for yourselves.'
Mat 25:10 While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him to the wedding, and the door was shut (Gen. 7:16; Rev. 19:7).
Mat 25:11 Afterward, the other virgins also came and cried, 'Master, master, open for us!'
Mat 25:12 But he answered, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.'
Mat 25:13 Watch therefore, for you do not know the Day or the hour at which the Son of Man comes.
Mat 25:14 For it is like when a man was about to go into another country. He called his own servants and gave over to them his wealth in gold.
Mat 25:15 To one of them he gave 5 gold coins, to another he gave 2 gold coins, and to yet another he gave 1 gold coin. Each one received an amount according to his own ability, and that man went on his journey.
Mat 25:16 The one who received the 5 gold coins went at once and invested them and made another 5 coins.
Mat 25:17 Likewise, the one who had received 2 gold coins made another 2 coins.
Mat 25:18 But the servant who had received 1 gold coin went away, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.
Mat 25:19 Now after a long time, the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them.
Mat 25:20 The servant who had received 5 gold coins came, and he brought another 5 coins. He reported, 'Master, you gave me 5 gold coins. See, I have made 5 coins more.'

Mat 25:21 His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful over a few things. I will put you in charge over many things. Enter into the joy of your master!’
Mat 25:22 The servant who had received 2 gold coins came and reported, ‘Master, you gave me 2 gold coins. See, I have made 2 more.’
Mat 25:23 His master replied to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful over a few things. I will put you in charge over many things. Enter into the joy of your master!’
Mat 25:24 Then the servant who had received 1 gold coin came and complained, ‘Master, I know that you are a strict man. You reap where you did not sow, and you harvest where you did not scatter.
Mat 25:25 I was afraid, so I went away and hid your gold coin in the ground. See, you have here what belongs to you.’
Mat 25:26 But his master answered him, ‘You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown and harvest where I have not scattered.
Mat 25:27 Therefore, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming, I would have received back my own gold with interest.
Mat 25:28 Therefore, take away the coin from him and give it to the servant who has 10 gold coins.
Mat 25:29 For to everyone who possesses, more will be given, even more abundantly. But from anyone who does not possess anything, even what he does have will be taken away.
Mat 25:30 Throw the worthless servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth’ (Luke 19:11-27).
Mat 25:31 When the Son of Yehowah comes in his glory and all the set-apart angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne (Deut. 33; Dan. 7:13).
Mat 25:32 Before him will be gathered all the ethnicities, and he will separate the people one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.
Mat 25:33 He will place the sheep on his right hand but the goats on his left.
Mat 25:34 Then the King will say to those on his right hand, ‘Come, you who have been blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
Mat 25:35 For I was hungry, and you gave me food; I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink; I was a sojourning foreigner, and you took me in;
Mat 25:36 I was naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you cared for me; I was in prison, and you came to me.’
Mat 25:37 Then the righteous will respond with questions, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you a drink?
Mat 25:38 When did we see you a sojourning foreigner and take you in? Or naked and clothe you?
Mat 25:39 When did we see you sick or in prison and come to you?’

Mat 25:40 Then the King will answer them, ‘Truly, I say to you, what you did for one of the least of these brethren and sistren of mine, you did it for me.’
Mat 25:41 Then he will say to those on his left hand, ‘Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire that has been prepared for the Devil and his angels,
Mat 25:42 because I was hungry, but you did not give me food; I was thirsty, but you did not give me a drink;
Mat 25:43 I was a sojourning foreigner, but you did not take me in; naked, but you did not clothe me; sick and in prison, but you did not care for me.’
Mat 25:44 Then they will also respond with a question, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a sojourning foreigner, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not serve you?’
Mat 25:45 Then he will answer them, ‘Truly, I say to you, what you did not do for one of the least poor ones who belong to me, you did not do for me.’
Mat 25:46 These will go away into eternal fiery punishment but the righteous into eternal life.”

Matthew Chapter 26

Mat 26:1 It came about that when Yeshua had finished all these words, he prophesied to his disciples,
Mat 26:2 “You know that after two days, the Passover is coming, and the Son of Yehowah will be delivered up to be crucified.”
Mat 26:3 Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the palace of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas.
Mat 26:4 They plotted together to arrest Yeshua stealthily and execute him.
Mat 26:5 For they were saying, “Not during the appointment calendar festival, so that a riot does not arise among the people.”
Mat 26:6 Now while Yeshua was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper,
Mat 26:7 as he was reclining at the table, a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of expensive precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head.
Mat 26:8 But when his disciples saw it, they became angry and complained, “What is the reason for this waste?
Mat 26:9 This could have been sold for a large amount and given to the poor.”
Mat 26:10 But Yeshua, knowing this, rebuked them, “Why are you troubling this woman? For she has done a beautiful thing for me.
Mat 26:11 You always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me (Deut. 15:10-11).
Mat 26:12 For when she poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.
Mat 26:13 Truly, I say to you, wherever this good news is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in memory of her.”
Mat 26:14 Then one of the Twelve, who was named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests,
Mat 26:15 and asked, “What are you willing to give me to deliver him to you?” According to their agreement, they paid him thirty silver coins (Zech. 11:12-13).
Mat 26:16 From that moment, he sought an opportunity to deliver him to them.
Mat 26:17 And at the beginning of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Yeshua and asked, “Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover” (Exo. 12:6-8)?
Mat 26:18 He answered, “Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.”’”
Mat 26:19 The disciples did as Yeshua directed them, and they prepared the Passover.
Mat 26:20 When dusk came, he reclined with the Twelve.

Mat 26:21 As they were eating, he prophesied, “Truly, I say to you, that one of you will betray me.”
Mat 26:22 They were extremely sorrowful, and each one began to ask him, “Surely not I, Lord?”
Mat 26:23 He answered, “The one who dips his hand with me in the bowl is the one who will betray me.
Mat 26:24 The Son of Yehowah will go, just as it is written about him. But woe to that man by whom the Son of the virgin is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born.”
Mat 26:25 Judas, who would betray him, asked, “Is it I, Rabbi?” He answered him, “You have said it yourself.”
Mat 26:26 As they were eating, Yeshua took unleavened bread, blessed Yehowah, and broke it. He gave it to the disciples and said, “Take, eat. This represents my body.”
Mat 26:27 He took a cup, gave thanks to Yehowah, and gave it to them, and said, “Drink it, all of you.
Mat 26:28 For this represents my blood of the New Covenant that is poured out for many for the atonement (Heb. kaparah, #H3722; Lev. 17:10-14; Gen. 9:4) of sins.
Mat 26:29 And I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom” (Nazirite vow; Num. 6).
Mat 26:30 When they had sung the Hallel, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
Mat 26:31 Then Yeshua prophesied to them, “All of you will fall away tonight because of me, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’
Mat 26:32 But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”
Mat 26:33 But Peter responded to him, “Even if all fall away because of you, I will never fall away.”
Mat 26:34 Yeshua replied to him, “Truly, I say to you, this night before the Temple Herald shouts, you will deny (kaphar) me three times.”
Mat 26:35 Peter responded to him, “Even if I must die with you, I will not deny (kaphar) you.” All the other disciples said the same thing.
Mat 26:36 Then Yeshua went with them to a village (kephar) called Gethsemane and said to his disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”
Mat 26:37 He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee with him and began to become sorrowful and troubled.
Mat 26:38 Then he said to them, “My soul is deeply sorrowful, even to death. Remain here and watch with me.”
Mat 26:39 He went a little farther, fell on his face, and prayed (Lam. 3:29), “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me. Yet, not as I will, but as you will.”

Mat 26:40 He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, “What, could you not watch with me for one hour?
Mat 26:41 Watch and pray that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”
Mat 26:42 He went away a second time and prayed, “My Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink it, your will be done.”
Mat 26:43 He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.
Mat 26:44 So leaving them again, he went away and prayed a third time, speaking his own words.
Mat 26:45 Then Yeshua came to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Yehowah is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.
Mat 26:46 Arise, let us go. Look, the one who is betraying me is near!”
Mat 26:47 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, came. A large crowd came with him from the chief priests and elders of the people. They came with swords and clubs.
Mat 26:48 Now the man who was going to betray Yeshua had given them a signal, “Whomever I kiss, he is the One. Seize him.”
Mat 26:49 Immediately, he came up to Yeshua and said, “May Yehowah save you, Rabbi!” And he kissed him.
Mat 26:50 Yeshua replied to him, “Friend, do what you have come to do.” Then they came, laid hands on Yeshua, and seized him.
Mat 26:51 Behold, one of those who was with Yeshua stretched out his hand, drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
Mat 26:52 Then Yeshua responded to him, “Put your sword back in its scabbard, for all those who take up the sword will perish by the sword.
Mat 26:53 Do you think that I could not call upon my Father, and he would send me more than twelve legions of angelic warriors?
Mat 26:54 But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that this must happen?”
Mat 26:55 At that time, Yeshua spoke to the crowd, “Have you come out with swords and clubs to seize me like a robber? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you did not arrest me.
Mat 26:56 But all this has happened, so that the writings of the prophets will be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples left him and fled.
Mat 26:57 Those who had seized Yeshua led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and elders had gathered together.
Mat 26:58 But Peter followed him from a distance to the courtyard of the high priest. He went inside and sat down with the guards to see the outcome.
Mat 26:59 Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false testimony against Yeshua, so that they might execute him.

Mat 26:60 They did not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. But later, two false witnesses came forward
Mat 26:61 and testified, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of Yehowah and rebuild it in three days.’”
Mat 26:62 The high priest stood up and asked him, “Do you have no answer? What is it that they are testifying against you?”
Mat 26:63 But Yeshua was silent. The high priest ordered him, “I command you (per Lev. 5:1) by living Yehowah, tell us whether or not you are the Messiah, the Son of living Yehowah.”
Mat 26:64 Yeshua replied to him, “You have said it yourself. But I tell you, from now on you will see the Son of the virgin sitting at the right hand of Yehowah (Psa. 110:1), and coming on the clouds of Heaven.”
Mat 26:65 Then the high priest tore his clothes and exclaimed, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we still need witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy.
Mat 26:66 What do you think?” They answered, “He is worthy of execution.”
Mat 26:67 Then they spat in his face, and beat him, and struck him with the palms of their hands,
Mat 26:68 and said, “Prophesy to us, you Messiah. Who is it that struck you?”
Mat 26:69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him and said, “You were also with Yeshua of Galilee.”
Mat 26:70 But he denied it in front of them all, “I do not know what you are talking about.”
Mat 26:71 When he went out to the gateway, another servant girl saw him and said to those there, “This man was also with Yeshua the Natsari.”
Mat 26:72 He again denied it with an oath, “I do not know the man!”
Mat 26:73 After a little while, those who were standing by came and said to Peter, “Surely, you are also one of them, for the way you speak gives you away.”
Mat 26:74 Then he began to curse and swear, “I do not know the man,” and immediately the Temple Herald shouted.
Mat 26:75 Peter remembered the words that Yeshua had prophesied, “Before the Temple Herald shouts, you will deny me three times.” Then he went outside and wept bitterly.

Matthew Chapter 27

Mat 27:1 Now when dawn came, all the chief priests and elders of the people plotted against Yeshua to execute him.
Mat 27:2 They bound him, led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.
Mat 27:3 Then when Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Yeshua had been condemned, he repented and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and elders,
Mat 27:4 and confessed, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood.” But they responded, “What is that to us? See to that yourself.”
Mat 27:5 Then he threw down the silver coins in the temple, departed, and went out and hanged himself (on his sword, Acts 1:18; 1 Sam. 31:4-5; 1 Chron. 10:4-5; 2 Sam. 17:23).
Mat 27:6 The chief priests took the silver coins and said, “It is not lawful to put this into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.”
Mat 27:7 They discussed the matter together and with the money bought the potter’s field in which to bury sojourning foreigners.
Mat 27:8 For this reason that field has been called the “Field Of Blood” to this day.
Mat 27:9 Then that which had been spoken by Zechariah the prophet was fulfilled, “They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on him by the people of Israel, Mat 27:10 and they gave it for the potter’s field, as Yehowah had directed me” (Zech. 11:12-13).
Mat 27:11 Now Yeshua stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Yeshua answered him, “As you say.”
Mat 27:12 But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.
Mat 27:13 Then Pilate asked him, “Do you not hear all the charges against you?”
Mat 27:14 But he did not answer even one word, so Pilate was greatly amazed.
Mat 27:15 Now at the appointment calendar festival, it was the custom of Pilate to release one prisoner chosen by the Jews.
Mat 27:16 At that time, they had a notorious prisoner named Yehoshua Bar Rabban.
Mat 27:17 So when they were gathered together, Pilate asked them, “Who do you want me to release for you? Yehoshua Bar Rabban, or Yeshua who is called Messiah?”
Mat 27:18 He knew that they had handed Yeshua over to him because of envy.

Mat 27:19 While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, “Have nothing to do with that innocent man. For I have suffered much today, because of a dream I had about him.”
Mat 27:20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Yehoshua Bar Rabban and have Yeshua executed.
Mat 27:21 The governor asked them, “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?” They shouted, “Yehoshua Bar Rabban!”
Mat 27:22 Pilate asked them, “What should I do with Yeshua who is called Messiah?” They all answered, “Crucify him!”
Mat 27:23 Then he asked, “Why, what crime has he committed?” But they cried out even louder, “Crucify him!”
Mat 27:24 So when Pilate saw that he could not do anything, but instead a riot was starting, he took water, washed his hands in front of the crowd, and said, “I am innocent of the blood of this innocent man. See to it yourselves.”
Mat 27:25 All the people shouted, “May his blood be on us and on our children!”
Mat 27:26 Then he released Yehoshua Bar Rabban to them, but he scourged Yeshua and handed him over to be crucified.
Mat 27:27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Yeshua into the government headquarters and gathered the whole company of soldiers.
Mat 27:28 They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him.
Mat 27:29 They made a crown of thorns, put it on his head, and placed a trekking pole in his right hand. They knelt down before him and mocked him, “Hail, King of the Jews!”
Mat 27:30 They spat on him, and they took the trekking pole and repeatedly struck him on the head.
Mat 27:31 When they had mocked him, they took the robe off him, put his own garments on him, and led him away to crucify him.
Mat 27:32 As they came out of the city, they found a man from Cyrene named Simon, whom they forced to go with them, so that he might carry his crossbeam.
Mat 27:33 They came to a place called Gulgoleth, which means “The Place of a Skull.”
Mat 27:34 They gave him sour wine to drink mixed with an analgesic. But when he tasted it, he would not drink (Psa. 69:21).
Mat 27:35 When they had crucified him, they divided up his garments by casting lots, that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet, “They divided my garments among themselves, and for my clothes they cast lots” (Psa. 22:18).
Mat 27:36 And they sat and kept guard over him.
Mat 27:38 Two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right of him and one on the left.

Mat 27:39 Those who passed by insulted him, shaking their heads,
Mat 27:40 “You who were going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself! Since you are the Son of Yehowah, come down from the cross!”
Mat 27:41 In the same way, the chief priests were mocking him, along with the scribes and elders,
Mat 27:42 “He saved others, but he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel. Let him come down off the cross, and then we will believe in him.
Mat 27:43 He trusts in Yehowah, let Yehowah rescue him now, if Yehowah consents to release him. For he even said, ‘I AM the Son of Yehowah.’”
Mat 27:44 In the same way, the robbers who were crucified with him also spoke insults to him.
Mat 27:45 Now from 12 pm, darkness came over the whole land until 3 pm.
Mat 27:46 About 3 pm, Yeshua cried with a loud voice and asked, “Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?” which means, “My Divine One, my Divine One, why have you deserted me?”
Mat 27:47 When some of those who were standing there heard it, they said, “He is calling for Elijah.”
Mat 27:48 Immediately, one of them ran and took a sponge, filled it with diluted sour wine, put it on a trekking pole, and gave it to him to drink.
Mat 27:49 The centurion said, “Leave him alone. Let us see whether Elijah comes to save him.”
Mat 27:50 Then Yeshua cried out again with a loud voice and released his spirit (c. 30 AD).
Mat 27:51 Behold, the earth shook, the temple was broken on two sides, up and down, the lintel stone fell and broke to pieces, causing the curtain to split in two from top to bottom, and the rocks split apart.
Mat 27:52 The tombs were opened, and the bodies of many set-apart people who had died were raised.
Mat 27:53 They came out of the tombs after his resurrection, entered the set-apart city, and appeared to many.
Mat 27:54 Now when the centurion and those who were watching Yeshua saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they became deathly afraid, and proclaimed, “Truly, this was the Son of Yehowah.”
Mat 27:55 Many women who had followed Yeshua from Galilee to care for him were there looking on from a distance.
Mat 27:56 Among them were Miriam Magdalene, Miriam the mother of Jacob and Joseph II, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.
Mat 27:57 When it was dusk, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Yeshua.

Mat 27:58 He approached Pilate and asked for the body of Yeshua (Deut. 21:22-23). Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him.
Mat 27:59 Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
Mat 27:60 and laid it in his own new tomb that he had cut into the rock. Then he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb and went away.
Mat 27:61 Miriam Magdalene and the other Miriam (Yeshua's mother) were there, sitting opposite the tomb.
Mat 27:62 The next day, which was the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together with Pilate.
Mat 27:63 They requested, "Sir, we remember that when that deceiver was alive, he said, 'After three days I will rise again.'
Mat 27:64 Therefore, command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, otherwise his disciples may come and steal him, and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first."
Mat 27:65 Pilate ordered them, "Take a guard. Go and make it as secure as you can."
Mat 27:66 So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and placing the guard.

Matthew Chapter 28

Mat 28:1 But after the Sabbaths, at dawn of the first (Omer day 1, Sunday) of the Sabbaths (counting to Pentecost), Miriam Magdalene and the other Miriam (Yeshua's mother) came to see the tomb.
Mat 28:2 Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of Yehowah descended from Heaven, came and overturned the stone, and sat on it.
Mat 28:3 His appearance was like lightning and his clothing as white as snow.
Mat 28:4 The guards shook with fear and became like dead men.
Mat 28:5 The angel addressed the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Yeshua, who has been crucified.
Mat 28:6 He is not here, but is risen, just as he said. Come see the place where the Lord lay.
Mat 28:7 Go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead. See, he is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him.' See, I have told you."
Mat 28:8 The women quickly left the tomb with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples.
Mat 28:9 But as they were going to report to his disciples, behold, Yeshua met and greeted them, "May Yehowah save you!" The women came, took hold of his feet and worshiped him.
Mat 28:10 Then Yeshua ordered them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to leave for Galilee. There they will see me."
Mat 28:11 Now while the women were going, behold, some of the guards went into the city and told the chief priests all the things that had happened.
Mat 28:12 When the priests had met with the elders and discussed the matter with them, they gave a large amount of money to the soldiers,
Mat 28:13 and told them, "Say to others, 'The disciples of Yeshua came by night and stole his body while we were sleeping.'
Mat 28:14 If this report reaches the governor, we will persuade him and take any worries away from you."
Mat 28:15 So the soldiers took the money and did as they had been instructed. This report spread widely among the Jews and continues even today.
Mat 28:16 But the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain which Yeshua had directed them.
Mat 28:17 When they saw him, they worshiped him, but some doubted.
Mat 28:18 Yeshua came to them and spoke to them, "Yehowah has given me all authority in Heaven and on earth.
Mat 28:19 Therefore, as you are going, disciple all the ethnicities (Acts 15:21; Luke 16:29), immersing (tevilah) them into the name of the Father, of the Son, and of Ruach ha'Kodesh.

Mat 28:20 Teach them to guard all the things that I have commanded you. See, I AM with you always, even to the end of the age.” Amein.

Book of Mark

Mark Chapter 1

Mar 1:1 This is the beginning of the good news of Yeshua Messiah, the Son of Yehowah.
Mar 1:2 As it is written in Isaiah the prophet, “Look, I am sending my messenger before your face, the one who will prepare your Way.
Mar 1:4 John came, immersing in the wilderness and preaching an immersion of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
Mar 1:5 The whole country of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. They were immersed by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.
Mar 1:6 John was wearing a coat of camel’s hair and a leather belt around his waist, and he was eating locusts and wild honey.
Mar 1:7 He proclaimed, “Someone is coming after me who is more powerful than I, and I am not worthy even to stoop down to untie the strap of his sandals.
Mar 1:8 I immersed you with water, but he will immerse you with Ruach ha’Kodesh.”
Mar 1:9 It happened in those days that Yeshua came from Natsareth in Galilee, and he was immersed by John in the Jordan River (c. 27 AD).
Mar 1:10 As Yeshua came up out of the water, he saw the heavens split open and the Ruach coming down on him like a dove.
Mar 1:11 And a voice came out of Heaven, “You are my beloved Son, in whom my soul delights.”
Mar 1:12 Then the Ruach compelled him to go out into the wilderness.
Mar 1:13 He was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels served him.
Mar 1:14 Now after John was arrested, Yeshua came into Galilee proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of Yehowah,
Mar 1:15 “The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of Yehowah is near. Repent and believe in the good news.”
Mar 1:16 And walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net in the Sea, for they were fishermen.
Mar 1:17 Yeshua commanded them, “Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.”
Mar 1:18 And immediately, they left the nets and followed him.

Mar 1:19 As Yeshua was walking on a little farther, he saw Jacob son of Zebedee and John his brother; they were in the boat mending the nets.
Mar 1:20 He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and they followed him.
Mar 1:21 And they came into Capernaum, and on the Sabbath, Yeshua went into the house of assembly and taught.
Mar 1:22 They were astonished at his teaching, for he was teaching them as Someone who has authority and not as the scribes.
Mar 1:23 Just then a man in their house of assembly who had an unclean spirit cried out,
Mar 1:24 “Leave us alone! What do we have to do with you, Yeshua the Natsari? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are. You are the Set-apart One of Yehowah!”
Mar 1:25 Yeshua rebuked the demon, “Be quiet and come out of him!”
Mar 1:26 And the unclean spirit threw him down and went out from him while crying out with a loud voice.
Mar 1:27 And all the people were amazed, so they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching with authority? He even commands the unclean spirits and they obey him!”
Mar 1:28 And the news about him immediately went out everywhere into the whole region of Galilee.
Mar 1:29 And after coming out of the house of assembly, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, along with Jacob and John.
Mar 1:30 Now Simon’s mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever, and at once they told Yeshua about her.
Mar 1:31 So he came, took her by the hand, and raised her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she started serving them.
Mar 1:32 That evening, after the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed by demons.
Mar 1:33 The whole city gathered together at the door.
Mar 1:34 He healed many who were sick with various diseases and cast out many demons, but he did not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him (Acts 5:16).
Mar 1:35 He rose up early before dawn, while it was still dark; he left and went out into a solitary place, and there he prayed.
Mar 1:36 Simon and those who were with him searched for him.
Mar 1:37 They found him, and they said to him, “Everyone is looking for you.”
Mar 1:38 He replied, “Let us go elsewhere, out into the surrounding towns, so that I may preach there also. That is why I came out here.”
Mar 1:39 He went throughout all of Galilee, preaching in their houses of assembly and casting out demons.

Mar 1:40 A leper came to him. He was entreating him; he knelt down and begged him, “If you are willing, you can make me clean.”
Mar 1:41 Moved with compassion, Yeshua reached out his hand and touched him, saying to him, “I am willing. Be clean.”
Mar 1:42 Immediately, the leprosy left him, and he was made clean.
Mar 1:43 Yeshua strictly warned him and sent him away at once.
Mar 1:44 He told him, “Be sure to say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”
Mar 1:45 But he went out and began to tell everyone and spread the word so much, that Yeshua could no longer freely enter into any town. So he stayed out in solitary places, and people came to him from everywhere.

Mark Chapter 2

Mar 2:1 When he came back to Capernaum after a few days, it was heard that he was at home.
Mar 2:2 And so many were gathered there that there was no more space, not even at the door, and Yeshua spoke the word to them.
Mar 2:3 Then some men came to him who were bringing a paralyzed man; four people were carrying him.
Mar 2:4 When they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above where he was. And when they had dug a hole in it, they lowered the bed on which the paralyzed man lay.
Mar 2:5 Seeing their faith, Yeshua said to the paralyzed man, "Son, your sins are forgiven."
Mar 2:6 Now some of the scribes were sitting there, and they reasoned in their hearts,
Mar 2:7 "How can this man speak this way? He blasphemes! Who can forgive sins but Yehowah alone?"
Mar 2:8 And Yeshua immediately knew in his spirit what they were thinking among themselves. He asked them, "Why are you thinking this in your hearts?
Mar 2:9 What is easier to say to the paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take up your bed and walk?'
Mar 2:10 But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," he commanded the paralytic,
Mar 2:11 "I say to you, get up, take up your mat and go to your house."
Mar 2:12 He rose up and immediately took up the mat, and went out of the house in front of everyone, so that they were all amazed, and they gave glory to Yehowah, "We never saw anything like this!"
Mar 2:13 He went out again by the Sea, and all the crowd came to him, and he taught them.
Mar 2:14 As he passed by, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's office, and he commanded him, "Follow me." He rose up and followed him.
Mar 2:15 And when Yeshua was having a meal in Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinful people were dining with Yeshua and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him.
Mar 2:16 When the scribes, who were Pharisees, saw that Yeshua was eating with the sinful people and tax collectors, they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinful people?"

Mar 2:17 When Yeshua heard this, he answered them, “People who are strong in body do not need a physician; only people who are sick need one. I did not come to call righteous people but sinful people.”
Mar 2:18 John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. And some people came and asked him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?”
Mar 2:19 Yeshua answered them, “Can the wedding attendants fast while the bridegroom is still with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.
Mar 2:20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and in those days, they will fast.
Mar 2:21 No man sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment, otherwise the patch will tear away from it, the new from the old, and there will be a worse tear.
Mar 2:22 No man puts new wine into old wineskins, otherwise the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be lost. Instead, put new wine into fresh wineskins” (Luke 5:36-39; Mat. 9:14-17).
Mar 2:23 On the Sabbath, Yeshua went through some grainfields, and his disciples began to pick heads of grain (Deut. 23:25).
Mar 2:24 And the Pharisees asked him, “Look, why are they doing something that is not lawful on the Sabbath?”
Mar 2:25 He asked them, “Have you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry, he and the men who were with him,
Mar 2:26 how he went into the tabernacle of Yehowah when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the presence, which is unlawful for anyone to eat except the priests, and he even gave some to those who were with him?”
Mar 2:27 Yeshua taught, “The Sabbath was made for mankind, not mankind for the Sabbath.
Mar 2:28 Therefore, the Son of Man is Lord, even of the Sabbath.”

Mark Chapter 3

Mar 3:1 And again he walked into the house of assembly and there was a man with a withered hand.
Mar 3:2 Some people watched him closely, to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they could formally charge him.
Mar 3:3 Yeshua ordered the man with the withered hand, "Get up and stand here in the middle of everyone."
Mar 3:4 Then he asked the people, "Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbaths or to do harm; to save a life, or to kill?" But they were silent.
Mar 3:5 He looked around at them with anger, he was grieved by their hardness of heart, and he commanded the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored, as healthy as the other one.
Mar 3:6 The Pharisees went out and immediately began to plot with the Herodians as to how they might execute him.
Mar 3:7 Then Yeshua, with his disciples, went to the Sea, and a great crowd of people followed from Galilee, from Judea,
Mar 3:8 from Jerusalem, from Idumea, beyond the Jordan River, and around Tyre and Sidon. When they heard about the things he was doing, an extremely large crowd came to him.
Mar 3:9 And he asked his disciples to have a small boat ready for him because of the crowd, so that they would not crush him.
Mar 3:10 For he healed many, so that everyone who had afflictions eagerly approached him in order to touch him.
Mar 3:11 Whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, "You are the Son of Yehowah!"
Mar 3:12 He strictly ordered them not to make him known.
Mar 3:13 He went up on the mountain, he called for those he wanted, and they came to him.
Mar 3:14 He appointed the Twelve, whom he named apostles, so that they might be with him, and he might send them to proclaim the message,
Mar 3:15 and to have authority to heal diseases and to cast out demons.
Mar 3:16 And he appointed the Twelve: Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter;
Mar 3:17 Jacob son of Zebedee, and John the brother of Jacob, to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder;
Mar 3:18 and Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, Jacob son of Alphaeus (Clopas), Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot,
Mar 3:19 and Judas Iscariot, who would betray him.
Mar 3:20 Then he went home, and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat bread.

Mar 3:21 When his family heard about it, they went out to seize him, for they exclaimed, “He is out of his mind!”
Mar 3:22 The scribes who came down from Jerusalem blasphemed, “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and, “By the ruler of the demons he drives out demons.”
Mar 3:23 Yeshua called them to him and taught them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan?
Mar 3:24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
Mar 3:25 If a household is divided against itself, that household will not be able to stand.
Mar 3:26 If Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he is not able to stand but has come to an end.
Mar 3:27 But no one can enter into the house of a strongman and steal his belongings without tying up the strongman first, and then he will plunder his house.
Mar 3:28 Truly, I say to you, all sins of the children of men will be forgiven, even all the blasphemies which they utter,
Mar 3:29 but whoever blasphemes against Ruach ha’Kodesh will never have forgiveness but is guilty of an eternal sin.”
Mar 3:30 Yeshua said this, because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”
Mar 3:31 Then his mother and his brothers came and stood outside. They sent for him, summoning him.
Mar 3:32 And a crowd sat around him, and they told him, “Your mother and your brothers are outside, and they are looking for you.”
Mar 3:33 He asked them, “Who are my mother and my brothers?”
Mar 3:34 He looked around at those who were sitting in a circle around him and stated, “See, here are my mother and my brothers!
Mar 3:35 For whoever does the will of Yehowah, that person is my brother, sister, and mother.”

Mark Chapter 4

Mar 4:1 Again, he began to teach beside the Sea. And a large crowd gathered around him, so he stepped into a boat in the Sea and sat down. The whole crowd was on the seashore.
Mar 4:2 And he taught them many things with instructional parables,
Mar 4:3 “Listen, the farmer went out to sow his seed.
Mar 4:4 As he sowed, some seed fell on the road, and the birds came and devoured them.
Mar 4:5 Other seed fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much soil. Immediately, they sprang up, because they did not have deep soil.
Mar 4:6 But when the sun rose, they were scorched, and because they had no root, they dried up.
Mar 4:7 Other seed fell among the thorn bushes. The thorns grew up and choked them, and they did not produce any grain.
Mar 4:8 Other seed fell into good soil, and it produced grain while growing up and increasing, some brought forth thirty times as much, some sixty, and some a hundred.”
Mar 4:9 And he said, “Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear!”
Mar 4:10 When Yeshua was alone, those who were close to him and with the Twelve asked him about the parables.
Mar 4:11 He answered them, “To you is given the mystery of the Kingdom of Yehowah. But to those outside, everything is in parables, Mar 4:12 so that when they look, yes they look but do not see, and so that when they hear, yes they hear but do not understand, or else they would turn around, and Yehowah would forgive them” (Isa. 6:9-10).
Mar 4:13 And he taught them, “Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the other parables?
Mar 4:14 The farmer who sows his seed is the one who sows the word.
Mar 4:15 Some are the ones that fall beside the road, where the word was sown. And when they hear it, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.
Mar 4:16 And some are the ones that are sown on rocky ground, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy.
Mar 4:17 And they have no root in themselves but endure for a short time. Then tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, and immediately they stumble.
Mar 4:18 And others are the ones sown among the thorns. They hear the word,
Mar 4:19 but the cares of the world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires of other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

Mar 4:20 Then there are those who are the ones sown in the good soil. They hear the word, receive it, and produce fruit: some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundredfold."
Mar 4:21 Yeshua proclaimed to them, "Do you bring a lamp inside the house to put it under a basket, or under the bed? You bring it in, and you put it on a menorah.
Mar 4:22 For nothing is hidden that will not be known, and nothing is secret that will not come out into the open.
Mar 4:23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"
Mar 4:24 He taught them, "Pay attention to what you hear, for with the measure with which you measure, you will be measured, and it will be added to you.
Mar 4:25 Because whoever has, to him will be given more, and whoever has not, from him will be taken away even what he has."
Mar 4:26 And he taught, "The Kingdom of Yehowah is like a farmer who sows his seed on the ground.
Mar 4:27 He sleeps at night and gets up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how.
Mar 4:28 The earth bears grain by itself: first the blade, then the ear, then the mature grain in the ear.
Mar 4:29 And when the grain is ripe, he immediately sends out the sickle, because the harvest has come."
Mar 4:30 And he preached, "To what can we compare the Kingdom of Yehowah, or what parable can we use to explain it?
Mar 4:31 It is like a kernel of a mustard seed which, when it is sown, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth.
Mar 4:32 Yet, when it is sown, it grows and becomes greater than all the garden plants, and it forms large branches, so that the birds of the sky can make their nests in its shade."
Mar 4:33 With many parables like this he spoke the word to them, as much as they were able to understand,
Mar 4:34 and he did not speak to them without a parable. But when he was alone, he explained everything to his own disciples.
Mar 4:35 On that day, when dusk had come, he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side."
Mar 4:36 So they left the crowd, taking Yeshua with them, since he was already in the boat. Other boats were also with him.
Mar 4:37 And a violent windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already full.
Mar 4:38 But Yeshua himself was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him up, asking, "Teacher, do you not care that we are about to die?"

Mar 4:39 And woken up, he rebuked the wind and commanded the Sea, “Peace, be still!” And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm (Job 26:12).
Mar 4:40 And he asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still not have faith?”
Mar 4:41 They were filled with great fear and asked one another, “Who then is this, because even the wind and the Sea obey him?”

Mark Chapter 5

Mar 5:1 They came to the other side of the Sea, to the region of the Girgashites (Josh. 24:11).
Mar 5:2 And immediately when Yeshua was getting out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came to him from the tombs.
Mar 5:3 The man lived in the tombs. No one could restrain him anymore, not even with a chain.
Mar 5:4 He had been bound many times with shackles and with chains. He tore the chains apart, and his shackles were shattered. No one had the strength to subdue him.
Mar 5:5 Every night and day in the tombs and in the mountains, he cried out and cut himself with sharp stones.
Mar 5:6 When he saw Yeshua from a distance, he ran to him and bowed down before him.
Mar 5:7 He cried out with a loud voice, "What do I have to do with you, Yeshua, Son of Most High Yehowah? I beg you by Yehowah himself, do not torment me!"
Mar 5:8 For he had been commanding him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit."
Mar 5:9 And he asked him, "What is your name?" And he answered him, "My name is Legion, for we are many."
Mar 5:10 He begged him again and again not to send them out of the region.
Mar 5:11 Now a large herd of pigs was there feeding on the mountain,
Mar 5:12 and the demons begged him, "Send us into the pigs; let us enter into them."
Mar 5:13 So he allowed them; the unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs, and they plunged down a cliff into the Sea, and about two thousand pigs drowned in the Sea.
Mar 5:14 And those who were feeding the pigs fled and reported what had happened in the city and in the countryside. Then many people went out to see what had happened.
Mar 5:15 Then they came to Yeshua, and they saw the formerly demon-possessed man who had had the Legion, sitting down, dressed, and in his right mind, and they were afraid.
Mar 5:16 Those who had seen what happened to the demon-possessed man told them what had happened to him and also concerning the pigs.
Mar 5:17 And they began to beg him to leave their region.
Mar 5:18 And when he was getting into the boat, the formerly demon-possessed man begged him that he may go with him.

Mar 5:19 But Yeshua did not allow it; moreover, he commanded him, "Go to your household and to your people, and tell them what Yehowah did for you, and what mercy he gave you."
Mar 5:20 So he went away and began to proclaim the great things that Yeshua had done for him in the Decapolis, and everyone was amazed (Mat. 8:28-34; Luke 8:26-39).
Mar 5:21 And when Yeshua had crossed over again to the other side, in the boat, a large crowd gathered around him, as he was beside the Sea.
Mar 5:22 And one of the leaders of the house of assembly, named Jairus, came, and when he saw him, fell at his feet.
Mar 5:23 He entreated again and again, "My little daughter is near death. I beg you, come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made well and live."
Mar 5:24 So he went with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed close around him.
Mar 5:25 Now there was a woman whose blood had flowed for twelve years.
Mar 5:26 She had suffered much under the care of many doctors and had spent everything that she had, but instead of getting better she grew worse.
Mar 5:27 She had heard reports about Yeshua. So she came up behind him, when he was walking in the crowd, and she touched his cloak.
Mar 5:28 For she declared, "If I touch just his clothes, I will be healed."
Mar 5:29 When she touched him, the bleeding stopped, and she felt in her body that she was healed from her affliction.
Mar 5:30 And immediately Yeshua noticed in himself that power had gone out from him. And he turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"
Mar 5:31 His disciples said to him, "You see this crowd pressed around you, and you ask, 'Who touched me?'"
Mar 5:32 But Yeshua looked around to see who had done it.
Mar 5:33 The woman, knowing what had happened to her, feared and trembled. She came, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth.
Mar 5:34 He comforted her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace and be healed from your disease."
Mar 5:35 While he was speaking, some people came from the leader of the house of assembly, announcing, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any longer?"
Mar 5:36 But when Yeshua overheard what they said, he encouraged the leader of the house of assembly, "Do not be afraid. Just believe."
Mar 5:37 He did not permit anyone to accompany him, except Peter, Jacob, and John, the brother of Jacob.
Mar 5:38 They came to the house of assembly leader's house, and he saw there people making a lot of noise; they were weeping and wailing loudly.

Mar 5:39 When he entered the house, he said to them, “Why are you upset and why do you weep? The child is not dead but sleeps.”
Mar 5:40 They laughed at him. But he put them all outside, took the father of the child, the mother, those who were with him, and he went in where the child was.
Mar 5:41 He took the hand of the child and commanded her, “Talitha koum,” which translated is to say, “Little girl, I say to you, get up.”
Mar 5:42 Immediately, the child rose up alive and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were greatly astonished.
Mar 5:43 He strictly ordered them that no one should know about this. And he told them to give her something to eat.

Mark Chapter 6

Mar 6:1 And he went out from there and came into his hometown, and his disciples followed him.
Mar 6:2 When the Sabbath came, he taught in the house of assembly. Many people heard him, and they were amazed. They asked, “Where did he get these teachings?” “What is this wisdom that has been given to him?” “What are these miracles that he does with his hands?”
Mar 6:3 “Is this not the craftsman, the son of Miriam, and the brother of Jacob, Joseph II, Judah, and Simon? Are his sisters not here with us?” And they were offended by Yeshua.
Mar 6:4 And Yeshua responded to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown, among his own relatives, and in his own household.”
Mar 6:5 He was unable to do any mighty work, except to lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them.
Mar 6:6 Their unbelief amazed him. And he went around the villages teaching.
Mar 6:7 And he called the Twelve and began to send them out, two by two, and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits,
Mar 6:8 and he instructed them to take nothing for their journey, except for only a trekking pole: no bread, no backpack, and no money in their belt,
Mar 6:9 but to wear sandals, and not to wear two tunics.
Mar 6:10 And he instructed them, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place.
Mar 6:11 And if any town will not receive you or listen to you, when you leave that place, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony to them. Truly, I say to you, it will be more endurable for Sodom and Gomorrah on Judgment Day than for that town.”
Mar 6:12 They went out and proclaimed that people should turn away from their sins.
Mar 6:13 They cast out many demons, and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.
Mar 6:14 King Herod Antipas heard this, for the name of Yeshua had become well known. Some were saying, “John the Immerser had been raised from the dead and because of this, these miraculous powers are at work in him.”
Mar 6:15 Some others said, “He is Elijah.” Still others said, “He is a prophet, like one of the prophets in ancient times.”
Mar 6:16 But when Herod heard this he said, “John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.”

Mar 6:17 For Herod Antipas sent to have John arrested, and he had him bound in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Herod Philip's wife, because he had married her.
Mar 6:18 For John told Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
Mar 6:19 But Herodias held on to anger against him and wanted to execute him, but she could not,
Mar 6:20 for Herod feared John; he knew that he was a righteous and set-apart man, and he kept him safe. Listening to him made him greatly upset, yet he heard him gladly.
Mar 6:21 Then the opportunity came when Herod Antipas had his birthday, and he made a dinner for his officials, his commanders, and leaders of Galilee.
Mar 6:22 The daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced for them, and she pleased Herod and his dinner guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me for anything you want, and I will give it to you."
Mar 6:23 He swore to her, "Whatever you ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."
Mar 6:24 She went out and asked her mother, "What should I ask him for?" She answered, "The head of John the Immerser."
Mar 6:25 And immediately she entered with haste to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once, upon a platter, the head of John the Immerser."
Mar 6:26 Though this deeply grieved the king, he could not refuse her request, because of the oath he had made and because of his dinner guests.
Mar 6:27 So the king sent a soldier from his guard and commanded him to bring him John's head. The guard went and beheaded him in the prison.
Mar 6:28 He brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.
Mar 6:29 And his disciples, hearing this, came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.
Mar 6:30 And the apostles, gathering together around Yeshua, told him all that they had done and taught.
Mar 6:31 And he told them, "Come away by yourselves into a deserted place and rest awhile." For many were coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.
Mar 6:32 So they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves.
Mar 6:33 But they saw them leaving and many recognized them, and they ran there together on foot from all the towns, and they arrived there before them.
Mar 6:34 When they came ashore, he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And he began to teach them many things.

Mar 6:35 When the hour was late, his disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late.
Mar 6:36 Send them away, so that they may go into the nearby countryside and villages to buy something to eat for themselves.”
Mar 6:37 But he ordered them, “You give them something to eat.” They asked him, “Can we go and buy two hundred silver coins worth of bread and give it to them to eat?”
Mar 6:38 He asked them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.” When they found out, they answered, “Five loaves and two fish.”
Mar 6:39 He commanded all the people to sit down in groups upon the green grass.
Mar 6:40 They sat down in groups; groups of hundreds and fifties.
Mar 6:41 He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to Heaven, he blessed Yehowah, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples to set before the people. And he divided the two fish among them all.
Mar 6:42 They all ate until they were satisfied.
Mar 6:43 They took up broken pieces of bread, twelve baskets full, and also pieces of the fish (2 Kings 4:42-44; Lev. 24:5-6).
Mar 6:44 And there were five thousand men who ate the loaves (Mat. 14:13; Luke 9:10; John 6:1).
Mar 6:45 Immediately, he made his disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he sent the crowd away.
Mar 6:46 When they were gone, he went up the mountain to pray.
Mar 6:47 Dusk came, and the boat was now in the middle of the Sea, and he was alone on land.
Mar 6:48 And he saw that they were having great difficulty as they pulled against the oars, because the wind was against them. Around the fourth watch of the night, he came to them, walking on the Sea, and he wanted to pass by them.
Mar 6:49 But when they saw him walking on the Sea, they thought he was a ghost and cried out,
Mar 6:50 because they saw him and were terrified! And immediately, he spoke to them, “Be courageous! It is I! Do not be afraid!”
Mar 6:51 He climbed into the boat with them, and the wind ceased blowing. They were completely amazed and marveled.
Mar 6:52 For they had not understood what the loaves meant. Instead, their hearts were hardened.
Mar 6:53 When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and anchored the boat.
Mar 6:54 When they came out of the boat, they immediately recognized him.

Mar 6:55 And they ran through the whole region and began to bring the sick to him on mattresses, wherever they heard he was coming.
Mar 6:56 Wherever he entered into villages, or cities, or into the country, they would put the sick in the marketplaces, and they begged him to just let them touch the tassel of his garment. And as many as touched him were healed.

Mark Chapter 7

Mar 7:1 The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him.
Mar 7:2 And they saw that some of his disciples ate bread with hands that were defiled, that is, unwashed, they complained.
Mar 7:3 For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat, unless they wash their hands, because they hold to the tradition of the elders.
Mar 7:4 When the Pharisees come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they bathe themselves. And there are many other rules which they strictly follow, including the washing of cups, pots, copper vessels, and the couches upon which they eat.
Mar 7:5 The Pharisees and the scribes asked Yeshua, “Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, for they eat their bread with unwashed hands?”
Mar 7:6 But he answered them, “Isaiah prophesied well about you hypocrites. He wrote, ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
Mar 7:7 Empty worship they offer me, teaching the rules of people as their doctrines’ (Isa. 29:13).
Mar 7:8 You abandon the commandment of Yehowah and hold fast to the tradition of people, such as washing pots and cups, and you do many other things like that.”
Mar 7:9 And he rebuked them, “How well you reject the commandment of Yehowah, so you may keep your tradition!
Mar 7:10 For Moses commanded, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘He who speaks evil of his father or mother must surely be executed’ (Exo. 20: 12, 21:17; Mat. 15:4; Lev. 20:9; Deut. 5:16).
Mar 7:11 But you say, ‘If a man says to his father or mother, “Whatever help you would have received from me is Corban,”’ that is to say, ‘Given to Yehowah,’ Mar 7:12 then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or his mother.
Mar 7:13 You are making the commandment of Yehowah void by your tradition which you have handed down. And many similar things you do.”
Mar 7:14 He called the crowd again and taught them, “Listen to me, all of you, and understand.
Mar 7:15 There is nothing from outside of a person that can defile him when it enters into him. It is what comes out of the person that defiles him.
Mar 7:16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!”
Mar 7:17 Now when Yeshua left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about the parable.

Mar 7:18 Yeshua answered, “Are you also still without understanding? Do you not see that whatever enters into a person from outside cannot defile him, Mar 7:19 because it cannot go into his heart, but it goes into his stomach and then passes out into the toilet, excreting all food?”
Mar 7:20 He taught, “It is that which comes out of the person that defiles him.
Mar 7:21 For from within a person, out of the heart, proceed evil thoughts, adultery, sexual immorality, murder,
Mar 7:22 theft, coveting, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, and folly.
Mar 7:23 All these evils come from within, and they are what defile a person” (Mat. 15:10-20).
Mar 7:24 He rose up from there and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. He came into a house, and he did not want anyone to know he was there, yet he could not be hidden.
Mar 7:25 But immediately, a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, heard about him, came and fell down at his feet.
Mar 7:26 Now the woman was not a Jewess but a Syrophoenician by descent. She begged him to cast out the demon from her daughter.
Mar 7:27 Yeshua replied to her, “Let the children first be fed. For it is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the puppies.”
Mar 7:28 But she answered him, “Yes, Lord, but even the puppy dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.”
Mar 7:29 He responded to her, “Because you have said this, you are free to go. The demon has gone out of your daughter.”
Mar 7:30 She went back to her house and found the child lying on the bed, and the demon was gone.
Mar 7:31 Then he went out again from the region of Tyre, and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee up into the region of the Decapolis.
Mar 7:32 And they brought to him someone who was deaf and had difficulty speaking, and they begged him to lay his hand on him.
Mar 7:33 He took him aside from the crowd privately, and he put his fingers into his ears, and after spitting, he touched his tongue.
Mar 7:34 He looked up to Heaven, he sighed and spoke to him, “Ephphatha,” that is to say, “Be opened!”
Mar 7:35 And immediately, his hearing was opened, and the ligament of his tongue loosened, and he could speak clearly.
Mar 7:36 And he ordered them to tell no one. But the more he ordered them, the more abundantly they proclaimed it.
Mar 7:37 They were absolutely astonished, proclaiming, “He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak!”

Mark Chapter 8

Mar 8:1 In those days, there was again a large crowd, and they had nothing to eat. Yeshua called his disciples and explained to them,
Mar 8:2 “I have compassion on the crowd, because they continue to be with me already for three days and have nothing to eat.
Mar 8:3 If I send them away to their home without eating, they may faint on the way. And some of them have come a long way.”
Mar 8:4 His disciples asked him, “Where can we get enough loaves of bread in such a deserted place to satisfy these people?”
Mar 8:5 He asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” They answered, “Seven.”
Mar 8:6 He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground. He took the seven loaves, gave thanks to Yehowah, and broke them. He gave them to his disciples to set before them, and they set them before the crowd.
Mar 8:7 They also had a few small fish, and after he gave the blessing, he commanded the disciples to serve these as well.
Mar 8:8 They ate and were satisfied. And they picked up the remaining broken pieces, seven large baskets (2 Kings 4:42-44; Lev. 24:5-6).
Mar 8:9 There were about four thousand people. And he sent them away.
Mar 8:10 Immediately, he climbed into the boat with his disciples, and they went into the region of Dalmanutha.
Mar 8:11 Then the Pharisees came out and began to argue with him. They sought from him a sign from Heaven, to test him.
Mar 8:12 He sighed deeply in his Ruach and said, “Why does this generation seek for a sign? Truly, I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation.”
Mar 8:13 Then he left them, climbed into a boat again, and went away to the other side.
Mar 8:14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread with them. They had no more than one loaf of bread in the boat.
Mar 8:15 He warned them, “Keep watch and be on guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod” (Antipas; Luke 12:1).
Mar 8:16 The disciples reasoned with each other, “It is because we have no bread.”
Mar 8:17 Yeshua was aware of this, and he asked them, “Why are you reasoning about not having bread? Do you not yet perceive? Do you not understand? Have your hearts become so dull?
Mar 8:18 You have eyes, do you not see? You have ears, do you not hear? Do you not remember?

Mar 8:19 When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces of bread did you take up?" They answered him, "Twelve."
Mar 8:20 "And when I broke the seven loaves among the four thousand, how many baskets full did you take up?" They answered him, "Seven" (2 Kings 4:42-44; Lev. 24:5-6).
Mar 8:21 He asked, "Do you not yet understand?"
Mar 8:22 They came to Bethsaida. The people there brought to him a blind man and begged Yeshua to touch him.
Mar 8:23 Yeshua took hold of the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes and laid his hands on him, he asked him, "Do you see anything?"
Mar 8:24 He looked up and answered, "I see people who look like walking trees."
Mar 8:25 Then he again laid his hands upon his eyes, and the man opened his eyes, his sight was restored, and he saw everyone clearly.
Mar 8:26 Yeshua sent him away to his home and ordered, "Do not enter the town nor tell it to anyone in the town."
Mar 8:27 Yeshua went out with his disciples into the villages of Caesarea Philippi (modern Banias). On the way, he asked his disciples, "Who do the people say that I am?"
Mar 8:28 They answered him, "John the Immerser. Others say, 'Elijah,' and others, 'One of the prophets.'"
Mar 8:29 He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are Messiah."
Mar 8:30 Yeshua warned them not to tell anyone about him.
Mar 8:31 And he began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and would be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and would be killed, and within three days rise up.
Mar 8:32 He said this clearly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.
Mar 8:33 But Yeshua turned and looked at his disciples, and then he rebuked Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are not setting your mind on the things of Yehowah but on the things of people."
Mar 8:34 Then he called the crowd and his disciples together, and he instructed them, "If anyone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.
Mar 8:35 For whoever wants to save his life will destroy it, and whoever destroys his life for my sake and for the good news, will save it.
Mar 8:36 What does it profit a person to gain the whole world and then forfeit his life?
Mar 8:37 What can a person give in exchange for his life?

Mar 8:38 Whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the set-apart angels.”

Mark Chapter 9

Mar 9:1 And he prophesied to them, “Truly, I say to you, there are some of you who are standing here who will not taste death, before they see the Kingdom of Yehowah come with power.”
Mar 9:2 And six days later, Yeshua took Peter, Jacob, and John with him up a high mountain, alone by themselves. Then he was transfigured before them.
Mar 9:3 His garments became radiantly brilliant, extremely white, whiter than any bleacher on earth could bleach them.
Mar 9:4 Then Elijah with Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Yeshua.
Mar 9:5 Peter said to Yeshua, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here, so let us make three shelters (sukkot), one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”
Mar 9:6 For he did not know what to say, for they were terrified.
Mar 9:7 A cloud came and overshadowed them. Then a voice came out of the cloud, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.”
Mar 9:8 Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them but only Yeshua.
Mar 9:9 As they were coming down the mountain, he commanded them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.
Mar 9:10 So they kept the matter to themselves, but they discussed among themselves what “to rise from the dead” could mean.
Mar 9:11 They asked him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”
Mar 9:12 He answered them, “Elijah does indeed come first to restore all things. Then why is it written that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be treated as one who is worthless?
Mar 9:13 But I say to you, that Elijah has come, and they did whatever they wanted to him, just as Scripture says about him.”
Mar 9:14 And when they came back to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes were arguing with them.
Mar 9:15 And when they saw him, the whole crowd was amazed and ran up to him to greet him.
Mar 9:16 He asked the scribes, “What are you arguing with them about?”
Mar 9:17 Someone in the crowd answered him, “Teacher, I brought my son to you. He has a spirit that makes him mute.
Mar 9:18 It seizes him, and it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and he becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive it out of him, but they could not.”
Mar 9:19 He responded to them, “Unbelieving generation, how long will I have to stay with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him to me.”

Mar 9:20 They brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw Yeshua, it immediately threw him into a convulsion. The boy fell on the ground and foamed at the mouth.
Mar 9:21 Yeshua asked his father, “How long has he been like this?” The father answered, “Since childhood.
Mar 9:22 It has often thrown him into the fire or into the waters and tried to destroy him. If you are able to do anything, have pity on us and help us.”
Mar 9:23 Yeshua replied to him, “If you are able to believe; all things are possible for the one who believes.”
Mar 9:24 Immediately, the father of the child cried out, “Lord, I believe! Help my unbelief!”
Mar 9:25 When Yeshua saw the crowd running to them, he rebuked the unclean spirit, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter into him again!”
Mar 9:26 It cried out, greatly convulsed the boy, and then came out. The boy looked like one who was dead, so that many said, “He is dead.”
Mar 9:27 But Yeshua took him by the hand, lifted him up, and the boy stood up.
Mar 9:28 When Yeshua came into the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?”
Mar 9:29 He answered them, “This kind cannot come out except by prayer and fasting.”
Mar 9:30 They went out from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know where they were,
Mar 9:31 for he was prophesying to his disciples, “The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will put him to death. When he has been executed, he will rise again the third day.”
Mar 9:32 But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask him.
Mar 9:33 And they came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house, he asked them, “What were you discussing along the way?”
Mar 9:34 But they were silent. For they had been arguing with one another along the way about who was the greatest.
Mar 9:35 He sat down and called the Twelve together, and he said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.”
Mar 9:36 He took a little child and placed him in their midst. He took him in his arms and taught them,
Mar 9:37 “Whoever receives such a child in my name, also receives me, and if someone receives me, he does not receive me alone, but also the One who sent me.”
Mar 9:38 John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we stopped him, because he does not follow us.”

Mar 9:39 But Yeshua taught, “Do not stop him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name and can soon afterwards say anything bad about me.
Mar 9:40 Whoever is not against us is for us.
Mar 9:41 Whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you belong to Messiah, truly, I say to you, he will not lose his reward.
Mar 9:42 Whoever causes one of these little ones who believes in me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a large millstone tied around his neck and be thrown into the sea.
Mar 9:43 If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than to have two hands and to go into hell, into the unquenchable fire.
Mar 9:44 Where their maggot never dies, and the fire is never extinguished (Isa. 66:24).
Mar 9:45 If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame than to have your two feet and be thrown into hell, into the unquenchable fire.
Mar 9:46 Where their maggot never dies, and the fire is never extinguished.
Mar 9:47 If your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out. It is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of Yehowah with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hellfire.
Mar 9:48 Where their maggot does not die, and the fire is not extinguished.
Mar 9:49 For everyone will be seasoned through fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.
Mar 9:50 Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how can you make it salty again? Have salt within yourselves, and have peace with one another.”

Mark Chapter 10

Mar 10:1 Yeshua left that place, went to the region of Judea, and to the area beyond the Jordan River, and the crowds came to him again. He was teaching them again, as he was accustomed to do.
Mar 10:2 And Pharisees came to him to test him, and asked, “Is it lawful for a husband to put away his wife (without a written contract of divorce)?”
Mar 10:3 He answered, “What did Moses command you?”
Mar 10:4 They replied, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce and then to send her away” (lawful divorce, Deut. 24:1-4).
Mar 10:5 Yeshua taught them, “It was because of your hard hearts that he wrote you this precept.”
Mar 10:6 “But from the beginning of creation, ‘Yehowah made them male and female.’
Mar 10:7 ‘For this reason a groom will leave his father and mother and cleave to his wife,
Mar 10:8 and the two will become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two but one flesh.
Mar 10:9 Therefore, what Yehowah has joined together, let no human tear apart.”
Mar 10:10 When they were in the house, the disciples asked him again about this.
Mar 10:11 He answered them, “Whoever puts away his wife (without a written contract of divorce) and marries another woman commits adultery against her.
Mar 10:12 And if she puts away her husband (without a written contract of divorce) and marries another man, she commits adultery.”
Mar 10:13 And they brought their little children to him, so that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them.
Mar 10:14 But when Yeshua noticed it, he was quite displeased and taught them, “Permit the little children to come to me and do not forbid them, for the Kingdom of Yehowah belongs to those who are like them.
Mar 10:15 Truly, I say to you, whoever will not receive the Kingdom of Yehowah as a little child will definitely not enter it.”
Mar 10:16 Then he took the children into his arms and blessed them as he placed his hands on them.
Mar 10:17 And when he began his journey, a man ran up to him and knelt before him, and asked, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”
Mar 10:18 And Yeshua answered, “Why do you call me good? No one is good, except One, Yehowah.

Mar 10:19 You know the commandments: ‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not testify falsely, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.’”
Mar 10:20 The man replied, “Teacher, all these things I have obeyed from the time I was a youth.”
Mar 10:21 Yeshua looked at him and unconditionally selflessly loved him. He commanded him, “One thing you lack. You must sell all that you have and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven. Then come, take up the cross, and follow me.”
Mar 10:22 But because of this statement he looked sad, and he went away distressed, because he owned many possessions.
Mar 10:23 Yeshua looked around and said to his disciples, “How difficult it is for those who are rich to enter the Kingdom of Yehowah!”
Mar 10:24 The disciples were astonished at his words. But Yeshua spoke to them again, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in wealth to enter into the Kingdom of Yehowah!
Mar 10:25 It is easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye, than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of Yehowah.”
Mar 10:26 They were greatly astonished and asked each other, “Then who can be saved?”
Mar 10:27 Yeshua looked at them and answered, “With people it is impossible but not with Yehowah. For all things are possible with Yehowah.”
Mar 10:28 Peter began to speak to him, “Look, we have left everything and have followed you.”
Mar 10:29 Yeshua taught, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or wife, or father, or children, or farmland, for my sake, and for the good news,
Mar 10:30 who will not receive a hundred times as much now in this time: houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and farmland, with persecutions, and in the age to come, eternal life.
Mar 10:31 But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”
Mar 10:32 They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Yeshua was going ahead of them. The disciples were amazed, and those who were following behind were afraid. Then Yeshua took the Twelve aside again and began to prophesy to them what would soon happen to him,
Mar 10:33 “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death and deliver him to the ethnicities.
Mar 10:34 They will mock him, spit on him, whip him, and kill him. But on the third day he will rise.”

Mar 10:35 Jacob and John, the sons of Zebedee, came up to him and entreated, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask you.”
Mar 10:36 He asked them, “What do you want me to do for you?”
Mar 10:37 They requested, “Allow us to sit with you in your glory, one at your right hand and the other at your left.”
Mar 10:38 But Yeshua replied to them, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup which I will drink or endure the immersion with which I will be immersed?”
Mar 10:39 They answered him, “We are able.” Yeshua said to them, “The cup that I will drink, you will drink. And with the immersion with which I am immersed, you also will be immersed.
Mar 10:40 But who is to sit at my right hand or at my left hand is not mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”
Mar 10:41 When the other ten disciples heard about this, they began to be extremely angry with Jacob and John.
Mar 10:42 Yeshua called them to himself and stated, “You know those who are considered rulers of the ethnicities dominate them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.
Mar 10:43 But it will not be this way among you. Whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant,
Mar 10:44 and whoever wishes to be first among you must be the slave of all.
Mar 10:45 For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
Mar 10:46 They came to Jericho. As he left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, sat by the road.
Mar 10:47 When he heard that it was Yeshua the Natsari, he began to shout, “Yeshua, Son of David, have mercy on me!”
Mar 10:48 Many rebuked the blind man, telling him to be quiet. But he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”
Mar 10:49 Yeshua stopped and commanded him to be called. They called the blind man, “Be brave! Get up! He is calling for you.”
Mar 10:50 He threw aside his coat, sprang up, and came to Yeshua.
Mar 10:51 And Yeshua answered him and asked, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man requested, “Rabboni, I want to receive my sight.”
Mar 10:52 And Yeshua said to him, “Go. Your faith has healed you.” Immediately, he could see again, and he followed him in the Way.

Mark Chapter 11

Mar 11:1 Now as they came to Jerusalem, they were close to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, and Yeshua sent out two of his disciples,
Mar 11:2 and instructed them, "Go into the village opposite us. As soon as you enter it, you will find a colt that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it to me.
Mar 11:3 And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' you should answer, 'The Lord has need of it, and he will immediately send it back here.'"
Mar 11:4 They went away and found a colt tied at a door outside at the fork in the road, and they untied it.
Mar 11:5 And some people were standing there and asked them, "What are you doing, untying that colt?"
Mar 11:6 They spoke to them as Yeshua told them, and the people let them go their way.
Mar 11:7 The two disciples brought the colt to Yeshua and threw their coats on it, so Yeshua could ride it.
Mar 11:8 Many people spread their garments on the road, and others spread branches they had cut from the fields.
Mar 11:9 Those who went before him and those who followed, shouted, "Hosanna! Blessed is the One who comes in the name of Yehowah!
Mar 11:10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David, that comes in the name of Yehowah! Hosanna in the highest!"
Mar 11:11 Then Yeshua entered into Jerusalem and went into the temple and looked around at everything. Now the time being late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.
Mar 11:12 The next day, when they returned from Bethany, he was hungry.
Mar 11:13 And seeing from far away a fig tree that had leaves, he went to see if he could find any fruit on it. And when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.
Mar 11:14 Yeshua spoke to it, "No one will ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it.
Mar 11:15 They came to Jerusalem, and he entered the temple and began to cast out the sellers and the buyers in the temple. He turned over the tables of the money changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons.
Mar 11:16 He did not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple that could be sold.
Mar 11:17 He rebuked them, "Is it not written, 'My temple will be called a house of prayer for all the ethnicities?' But you have made it a den of robbers" (Isa. 56:7; Jer. 7:11)!

Mar 11:18 The chief priests and the scribes heard what he had said, and they looked for a way to kill him. For they feared him, because the entire crowd was amazed at his teaching.
Mar 11:19 At dusk, they left the city.
Mar 11:20 As they walked by at dawn, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots.
Mar 11:21 Peter remembered and exclaimed, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree you cursed has withered away!”
Mar 11:22 Yeshua taught them, “Have faith in Yehowah.
Mar 11:23 Truly, I say to you, that whoever says to this mountain, ‘Get up and cast yourself into the sea,’ and if he does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he said will happen, he will have what he says.
Mar 11:24 Therefore, I say to you: Everything you pray and ask for, believe that you receive it, and it will be yours.
Mar 11:25 When you stand and pray (The Amidah; Acts 3:1), you must forgive whatever you have against anyone, so that your Father who is in Heaven will also forgive you your transgressions.
Mar 11:26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in Heaven forgive your sins.”
Mar 11:27 They came to Jerusalem again. As Yeshua was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to him.
Mar 11:28 They asked him, “By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you the authority to do them?”
Mar 11:29 Yeshua answered them, “I will ask you one question. Tell me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.
Mar 11:30 The immersion of John, was it from Heaven or from humans? Answer me.”
Mar 11:31 They discussed between themselves and argued, “If we say, ‘From Heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’
Mar 11:32 But if we say, ‘From humans,’” they were afraid of the people, for everyone was convinced that John was a prophet.
Mar 11:33 Then they answered Yeshua, “We do not know.” Then Yeshua replied to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Mark Chapter 12

Mar 12:1 Then Yeshua began to teach them in parables, “A landowner planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, and dug a pit for a winepress. He built a watchtower and then leased the vineyard to vine growers. Then he went away on a journey.
Mar 12:2 At the right time, he sent a servant to the vine growers to receive from them some of the fruit of the vineyard.
Mar 12:3 But they took him, beat him, and sent him away with nothing.
Mar 12:4 Again, he sent to them another servant, they stoned him, which wounded him in the head, then sent him away, having treated him shamefully.
Mar 12:5 He sent yet another, and this one they killed. They treated many others in the same way, beating some and killing others.
Mar 12:6 He had still one more person to send, a beloved son. He was the last one he sent to them. He said, “They will respect my son.”
Mar 12:7 But the vine growers said to one another, “This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.”
Mar 12:8 They seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.
Mar 12:9 Therefore, what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the vine growers and will give the vineyard to others.
Mar 12:10 Have you not read this Scripture? ‘The Stone which the builders rejected has been made the chief Cornerstone.
Mar 12:11 This was from Yehowah, and it is marvelous in our eyes’” (Psa. 118:22-23).
Mar 12:12 They sought to arrest Yeshua, but they feared the crowd, for they knew that he had spoken this parable against them. So they left him and went away.
Mar 12:13 Then they sent some of the Pharisees and the Herodians to him to trap him with words.
Mar 12:14 When they came, they said to him, “Teacher, we know that you care for no one’s opinion, and you do not show partiality between people. You truly teach the Way of Yehowah. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay or not?”
Mar 12:15 But Yeshua knew their hypocrisy and answered them, “Why do you test me? Bring me a silver coin, so I can look at it.”
Mar 12:16 They brought one to Yeshua. He asked them, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?” They answered, “Caesar’s.”
Mar 12:17 Yeshua taught, “Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to Yehowah the things that belong to Yehowah.” They marveled at him.
Mar 12:18 Then Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him. They inquired of him,

Mar 12:19 “Teacher, Moses wrote for us, ‘If a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife behind him, but no child, the man should take the brother’s wife, and have children for his brother’ (Levirate marriage; Deut. 25:5-10).
Mar 12:20 There were seven brothers; the first took a wife and then died, leaving no children.
Mar 12:21 Then the second took her and died, leaving no children. And the third likewise.
Mar 12:22 And the seven left no children. Last of all, the woman also died.
Mar 12:23 In the resurrection, when they rise again, whose wife will she be? For all seven brothers had her as their wife.”
Mar 12:24 Yeshua responded, “Is this not the reason you are mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures nor the power of Yehowah?
Mar 12:25 For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but they are like angels in Heaven.
Mar 12:26 But concerning the dead that are raised, have you not read in the Book of Moses, in the account about the thorn bush, how Yehowah spoke to him, ‘I am the Mighty One of Abraham, the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Jacob’ (Exo. 3:6)?
Mar 12:27 He is not the Mighty One of the dead but the Mighty One of the living. You are quite mistaken.”
Mar 12:28 One of the scribes came and heard their discussion; he saw that Yeshua answered them well. He asked him, “What commandment is the most important of all?”
Mar 12:29 Yeshua answered, “The most important commandment is, ‘Hear, Israel, Yehowah our Divine One, Yehowah is Oneness.
Mar 12:30 You must unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah your Divine One with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength;’ this is the first commandment (Deut. 6:4-5; Exo. 20:2).
Mar 12:31 The second commandment is similar, ‘You must unconditionally selflessly love your neighbor as yourself’ (Lev. 19:18). There is no other greater commandment than these.”
Mar 12:32 The scribe replied, “Good, Teacher! You have truly said that Yehowah is Oneness, and that there is no other besides him.
Mar 12:33 To unconditionally selflessly love him with all the heart, with all the understanding, with all the soul, with all the strength, and to unconditionally selflessly love one’s neighbor as oneself, is even more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”
Mar 12:34 When Yeshua saw that he had given a wise answer, he replied to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of Yehowah.” After that, no one dared to ask Yeshua any more questions.

Mar 12:35 And Yeshua responded, while he was teaching in the temple; he asked, “How is it that the scribes say the Messiah is the Son of David?
Mar 12:36 David himself said in Ruach ha’Kodesh, ‘Yehowah invited my Lord, sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool’ (Psa. 110:1).
Mar 12:37 David himself calls him ‘Lord,’ so how can the Messiah be David’s son?” The large crowd gladly listened to him.
Mar 12:38 In his teaching, Yeshua warned, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and they like the greetings they receive in the marketplaces;
Mar 12:39 and they like to have the chief seats in the houses of assembly and chief places at feasts.
Mar 12:40 They also devour widows’ houses, and they pray long prayers for people to see. These men will receive greater condemnation.”
Mar 12:41 Then Yeshua sat down across from an offering box in the temple area; he was watching people as they dropped their money into the box. Many rich people put in large amounts of money.
Mar 12:42 Then a poor widow came and put in two brass coins, worth about a penny.
Mar 12:43 And he called his disciples and proclaimed to them, “Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them who contributed to the offering box.
Mar 12:44 For all of them gave out of their abundance. But this widow, out of her poverty, put in all of the money which she had to live on.”

Mark Chapter 13

Mar 13:1 As Yeshua was walking away from the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Teacher, look at the quality stones and wonderful buildings!”
Mar 13:2 He prophesied to him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left on another which will not be demolished.”
Mar 13:3 As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, Jacob, John, and Andrew asked him privately,
Mar 13:4 “Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign when all these things are about to happen?”
Mar 13:5 Yeshua answered them with this prophecy, “Be careful that no one leads you astray.
Mar 13:6 Many will come in my name and say, ‘I AM,’ and they will lead many astray.
Mar 13:7 When you hear of wars and intelligence reports of wars, do not worry; these things must happen, but the end is not yet.
Mar 13:8 For ethnicity will rise against ethnicity, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in many places, famines, and riots. These are the beginnings of birth pains.
Mar 13:9 Be on your guard. They will deliver you up to the Sanhedrin, and you will be beaten in houses of assembly. You will stand before both governors and kings for my sake, as a testimony to them.
Mar 13:10 But the good news must first be proclaimed to all the ethnicities.
Mar 13:11 When they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry about what you should say. For in that hour, what you should say will be given to you; it will not be you who speak but Ruach ha’Kodesh.
Mar 13:12 Brother will deliver up brother to death and a father his child. Children will rise up against their parents and cause them to be executed.
Mar 13:13 You will be hated by everyone because of my name. But whoever endures to the end, that person will be saved.
Mar 13:14 When you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it should not be standing (let the reader understand; Zech. 5:11), let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains,
Mar 13:15 let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house or take anything out of it,
Mar 13:16 and let him who is in the field not return to take his cloak.
Mar 13:17 But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days!
Mar 13:18 Pray that your flight does not occur in the winter.

Mar 13:19 For there will be Tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning, when Yehowah created the world, until now, no, nor ever will be again.
Mar 13:20 Unless Yehowah had shortened the days, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, those whom he chose, he cut short the days.
Mar 13:21 Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or ‘Look, there he is!’ Do not believe it.
Mar 13:22 For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and will give signs and wonders, so as to deceive, if possible, even the elect.
Mar 13:23 Be on guard! I have told you all these things ahead of time.
Mar 13:24 But after the Tribulation of those days (Mat. 24:29), the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light,
Mar 13:25 the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly powers will be shaken.
Mar 13:26 Then they will see the Son of the virgin coming in the clouds with great power and glory.
Mar 13:27 Then he will send his angels, and he will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.
Mar 13:28 Learn a lesson from the fig tree. As soon as the branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near.
Mar 13:29 So also, when you see these things happening, you know that he is near, close to the gates.
Mar 13:30 Truly, I say to you, this period of time will not pass, until all of these things occur.
Mar 13:31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.
Mar 13:32 But concerning that day or that hour, no one knows, not even the angels in Heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father (Mat. 24:36).
Mar 13:33 Be alert! Watch and pray, because you do not know what time it is.
Mar 13:34 It is like a homeowner who goes on a journey, he leaves his house and puts his servants in charge of the household, each one with his work, and he commands the watchman to stay awake.
Mar 13:35 Therefore, stay alert, because you do not know when the master of the house will come home; it could be at dusk, at midnight, when the watchman shouts, or at dawn.
Mar 13:36 Whether or not he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping.
Mar 13:37 What I say to you, I say to everyone: Watch!”

Mark Chapter 14

Mar 14:1 It was now two days before the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were considering how they might stealthily arrest Yeshua and then kill him.
Mar 14:2 For they were saying, “Not during the appointment calendar festival, so that a riot does not arise among the people.”
Mar 14:3 While Yeshua was in Bethany in the house of Simon the former leper, as he was reclining at the table, a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of extremely expensive myrrh of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured it on his head.
Mar 14:4 But there were some who were angry. They spoke among themselves, “What is the reason for this waste?
Mar 14:5 This perfume could have been sold for more than three hundred silver coins and given to the poor.” And they were rebuking her.
Mar 14:6 But Yeshua responded, “Leave her alone. Why are you troubling her? She has done a beautiful thing for me.
Mar 14:7 You always have the poor with you, and whenever you desire you can do good to them, but you will not always have me.
Mar 14:8 She has done what she could: In anticipation, she has anointed my body for burial.
Mar 14:9 Truly, I say to you, wherever the good news is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will be spoken of, in memory of her.”
Mar 14:10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went away to the chief priests, so that he might deliver him over to them.
Mar 14:11 When the chief priests heard it, they were glad and promised to give him money. He began looking for an opportunity to deliver him to them.
Mar 14:12 And the beginning of the season of Unleavened Bread came, when they repeatedly continuously sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go to prepare, so you may eat the Passover” (Exo. 12:6-8)?
Mar 14:13 He sent two of his disciples and instructed them, “Go into the city, and a man bearing a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him.
Mar 14:14 Where he enters a house, follow him in and say to the owner of that house, ‘The Teacher asks, “Where is my guest room where I will eat the Passover with my disciples?”’
Mar 14:15 He will show you a large furnished upper room that is ready. Make the preparations for us there.”
Mar 14:16 The disciples left and went to the city. They found everything as he had prophesied to them, and they prepared the Passover.

Mar 14:17 When it was dusk, he came with the Twelve.
Mar 14:18 As they were reclining at the table and eating, Yeshua prophesied, “Truly, I say to you, one of you eating with me will betray me.”
Mar 14:19 They were all sorrowful, and one by one they asked him, “Surely not I?”
Mar 14:20 Yeshua answered them, “It is one of the Twelve, the one now dipping with me in the bowl.
Mar 14:21 For the Son of Yehowah will go the Way that the Scripture says about him. But woe to that man through whom the Son of the virgin is betrayed! It would have been better for him if he had not been born.”
Mar 14:22 As they were eating, Yeshua took unleavened bread, blessed Yehowah, and broke it. He gave it to them and said, “Take this. This represents my body.”
Mar 14:23 He took a cup, gave thanks to Yehowah, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.
Mar 14:24 He said to them, “This represents my blood of the covenant, the blood that is poured out for many (Lev. 17:10-14; Gen. 9:4; Isa. 53:12).
Mar 14:25 Truly, I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine, until that Day when I drink it new in the Kingdom of Yehowah” (Nazirite vow, Num. 6).
Mar 14:26 When they had sung the Hallel, they went out to the Mount of Olives.
Mar 14:27 Yeshua prophesied to them, “Tonight, all of you will fall away, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd and the sheep will be scattered.’
Mar 14:28 But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”
Mar 14:29 Peter replied to him, “Even if all fall away, I will not.”
Mar 14:30 Yeshua prophesied to him, “Truly, I say to you, today, this night, before the Temple Herald shouts twice, you will deny me three times.”
Mar 14:31 But Peter said more fervently, “If I must die with you, I will not ever deny you!” They all made the same promise.
Mar 14:32 They came to the village called Gethsemane, and Yeshua said to his disciples, “Sit here while I pray.”
Mar 14:33 He took Peter, Jacob, and John with him and began to be distressed and deeply troubled.
Mar 14:34 He said to them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Remain here and watch.”
Mar 14:35 Yeshua went a little farther, fell to the ground, and he prayed that if it were possible, this hour might pass from him (Lam. 3:29).
Mar 14:36 He prayed, “Abba, Father, all things are possible with you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not my will but yours.”
Mar 14:37 He came back and found them sleeping, and he asked Peter, “Simon, are you asleep? Could you not watch for one hour?
Mar 14:38 Watch and pray that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

Mar 14:39 Again, he went away and prayed, and he used the same words.
Mar 14:40 Again, he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy, and they did not know what to say to him.
Mar 14:41 He came the third time and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Enough! The hour has come. Look! The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.
Mar 14:42 Get up; let us go. Look, the one who is betraying me is near!”
Mar 14:43 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, and a large crowd was with him with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.
Mar 14:44 Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I kiss, he is the One. Seize him and lead him away under guard.”
Mar 14:45 When Judas arrived, immediately he came up to Yeshua and greeted him, “Rabbi!” And he kissed him.
Mar 14:46 Then they laid hands on him and seized him.
Mar 14:47 But one of them who stood by drew his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
Mar 14:48 Yeshua said to them, “Do you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to capture me?
Mar 14:49 When I was daily with you, and I was teaching in the temple, you did not arrest me. But this was done that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.”
Mar 14:50 And all those with Yeshua abandoned him and fled.
Mar 14:51 A young man, wearing only a linen garment that was wrapped around him, was following Yeshua. When the men seized him,
Mar 14:52 he left the linen garment and ran away naked.
Mar 14:53 They led Yeshua to the high priest. There were gathered with him all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes.
Mar 14:54 Now Peter followed him from a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest. He sat among the guards, who were near a heaping charcoal fire to keep warm.
Mar 14:55 Now the chief priests and the entire Jewish Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Yeshua, so they might kill him. But they did not find any.
Mar 14:56 For many brought false testimony against him, but even their testimony did not agree.
Mar 14:57 Some stood up and brought false testimony against him; they said,
Mar 14:58 “We heard him prophesy, ‘I will destroy this temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’”
Mar 14:59 Yet even their testimony did not agree.
Mar 14:60 The high priest stood up among them and asked Yeshua, “Have you no answer? What is it these men testify against you?”

Mar 14:61 But he was silent and answered nothing. Again, the high priest questioned him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed?”
Mar 14:62 Yeshua answered, “I AM (Ahayah, Exo. 3:14-15). And you will see the Son of Man (Bar Anasha; Dan. 7:13) when he sits at the right hand of power and comes with the clouds of Heaven.”
Mar 14:63 The high priest tore his garments and asked, “Do we still need witnesses?
Mar 14:64 You have heard the blasphemy. What is your decision?” And they all condemned him as One who deserved death.
Mar 14:65 Some began to spit on him, to cover his face, strike him, and say to him, “Prophesy!” The officers took him and beat him.
Mar 14:66 While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came to him.
Mar 14:67 She saw Peter as he stood by a heaping charcoal fire to keep warm, and she looked closely at him. Then she said, “You were also with Yeshua the Natsari.”
Mar 14:68 But he denied it, “I neither know nor understand what you are talking about.” Then he went out into the courtyard. And the Temple Herald shouted.
Mar 14:69 But the servant girl there saw him, and began to say again to those who stood there, “This man is one of them!”
Mar 14:70 But he denied it again. After a little while, those who stood there were saying to Peter, “Surely you are one of them, for you also are a Galilean, and your speech agrees.”
Mar 14:71 But he began to put himself under curses and to swear, “I do not know this man you are talking about!”
Mar 14:72 The Temple Herald immediately shouted a second time. Then Peter remembered the words that Yeshua had prophesied to him: “Before the Temple Herald shouts twice, you will deny me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Mark Chapter 15

Mar 15:1 And immediately at dawn, the chief priests met together with the elders, scribes, and the entire Jewish Sanhedrin. Then they bound Yeshua and led him away. They handed him over to Pontius Pilate.
Mar 15:2 Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” He answered him, “As you say.”
Mar 15:3 The chief priests were presenting many charges against Yeshua.
Mar 15:4 Pilate again asked him, “Do you give no answer? See how many charges they are bringing against you!”
Mar 15:5 But Yeshua no longer answered Pilate, and that amazed him.
Mar 15:6 Now at the time of the appointment calendar festival, Pilate usually released to them one prisoner, a prisoner they requested.
Mar 15:7 There with the rebels in prison, among the murderers held for their part in the rebellion, was a man named Yehoshua Bar Rabban.
Mar 15:8 The crowd came to Pilate and began to ask him to do for them as he had done in the past.
Mar 15:9 Pilate asked them, “Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?”
Mar 15:10 For he knew that it was because of envy that the chief priests had handed Yeshua over to him.
Mar 15:11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to cry out that Yehoshua Bar Rabban should be released instead.
Mar 15:12 Pilate asked them again, “What then should I do with the King of the Jews?”
Mar 15:13 They shouted again, “Crucify him!”
Mar 15:14 Pilate asked them, “What wrong has he done?” But they shouted more and more, “Crucify him!”
Mar 15:15 Pilate wanted to satisfy the crowd, so he released Yehoshua Bar Rabban to them. He scourged Yeshua and then handed him over to be crucified.
Mar 15:16 The soldiers led him inside the courtyard, which is the government headquarters, and they called together the whole cohort of soldiers.
Mar 15:17 They put a purple robe on Yeshua, and they twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on him.
Mar 15:18 They began to salute him and shout, “Hail, King of the Jews!”
Mar 15:19 They struck his head with a trekking pole, and they spat on him. They bent their knees before him to pretend to worship him.
Mar 15:20 When they had mocked him, they took off of him the purple robe and put his own garments on him, and then led him out to crucify him.

Mar 15:21 They forced a passerby who was coming in from the country to carry the crossbeam of Yeshua, a man named Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus.
Mar 15:22 The soldiers brought Yeshua to the place called Gulgoleth, which translated means, “Place of a Skull.”
Mar 15:23 They offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not drink it.
Mar 15:24 They crucified him and divided up his garments by casting lots to determine what piece each soldier would take.
Mar 15:25 It was 9 am when they crucified him.
Mar 15:26 On a sign they wrote the charge against him, “The King of the Jews.”
Mar 15:27 With him they crucified two robbers, one on the right of him and one on his left.
Mar 15:28 And the Scripture was fulfilled that says, ‘He was counted with the lawless ones.’
Mar 15:29 Those who passed by insulted him, shaking their heads, “Aha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, Mar 15:30 save yourself and come down from the cross!”
Mar 15:31 In the same way, the chief priests were mocking him with each other, along with the scribes, “He saved others, but he cannot save himself.
Mar 15:32 Let Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe.” And those who were crucified with him also taunted him.
Mar 15:33 At 12 pm, darkness came over the whole land until 3 pm.
Mar 15:34 At 3 pm, Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?” which is translated, “My Divine One, my Divine One, why did you abandon me” (Psa. 22:1)?
Mar 15:35 Some of those standing by heard his words and exclaimed, “Look, he is calling for Elijah!”
Mar 15:36 Someone ran, put sour wine on a sponge, put it on a trekking pole, and gave it to him to drink. The man said, “Let us see if Elijah comes to take him down.”
Mar 15:37 Then Yeshua cried out with a loud voice and died (c. 30 AD).
Mar 15:38 The temple was broken on two sides, up and down. Then the temple lintel stone fell and broke to pieces, causing the curtain to split in two from the top to the bottom.
Mar 15:39 And when the centurion who stood and faced Yeshua saw that he was dead in this way, he proclaimed, “Truly, this man was the Son of Yehowah.”
Mar 15:40 There were also women who looked on from a distance. Among them were Miriam Magdalene, Miriam, the mother of Jacob the younger (son of Clopas) and of Joseph II, and Salome.

Mar 15:41 When he was in Galilee they followed him and served him. Many other women also came up with him to Jerusalem.
Mar 15:42 When dusk had come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath,
Mar 15:43 Joseph of Arimathea came there. He was a respected member of the Sanhedrin, who was waiting for the Kingdom of Yehowah. He boldly went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Yeshua.
Mar 15:44 Pilate was amazed that Yeshua was already dead; he called the centurion and asked him if Yeshua was dead.
Mar 15:45 When Pilate learned from the centurion that Yeshua was dead, he gave the body to Joseph.
Mar 15:46 Joseph had bought a linen cloth. He took him down from the cross, wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that had been cut out of a rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.
Mar 15:47 Miriam Magdalene and Miriam the mother of Joseph II saw the place where Yeshua was buried.

Mark Chapter 16

Mar 16:1 When the Sabbath was over, Miriam Magdalene, Miriam the mother of Jacob, and Salome had bought spices, that they might come and anoint the body of Yeshua.
Mar 16:2 At daybreak during the first (Omer day 1, Sunday) of the Sabbaths (counting to Pentecost), they went to the tomb at sunrise.
Mar 16:3 They were asking one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?”
Mar 16:4 When they looked up, they saw that the stone had been overturned, for it was extremely large.
Mar 16:5 They entered the tomb and saw a young man dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side, and they were astonished.
Mar 16:6 He said to them, “Do not be afraid. You seek Yeshua the Natsari, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. Look at the place where they had laid him.
Mar 16:7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.”
Mar 16:8 They went out and ran from the tomb; they were trembling and amazed. They said nothing to anyone, because they were so afraid.
Mar 16:9 At dawn of the first week (Omer day 1, Sunday, counting to Shavuot), after he arose, he appeared first to Miriam Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.
Mar 16:10 She went and told those who were with him, while they were mourning and weeping.
Mar 16:11 They heard that he was alive, and that he had been seen by her, but they did not believe.
Mar 16:12 After these things, he appeared in a different form to two of them, as they were walking out into the country (Luke 24:15-16).
Mar 16:13 They went and told the rest of the disciples, but they did not believe them.
Mar 16:14 Yeshua later appeared to the Eleven as they were reclining at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who saw him after he rose from the dead.
Mar 16:15 He commanded them, “Go into all the world and preach the good news to the entire creation.
Mar 16:16 He who believes and is immersed will be saved, and he who does not believe will be condemned.
Mar 16:17 These signs will go with those who believe: In my name they will cast out demons. They will speak multilingually.

Mar 16:18 They will pick up snakes with their hands, and if they drink anything deadly, it will not hurt them. They will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well.”
Mar 16:19 After the Lord had spoken to them, he was taken up into Heaven and sat down at the right hand of Yehowah.
Mar 16:20 The disciples left and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word by the signs that went with them. Amein.

Book of Luke

Luke Chapter 1

Luk 1:1 Many have tried to set in order a narrative about those matters that have been fulfilled among us,
Luk 1:2 just as they handed them to us, who from the beginning have been eyewitnesses and servants of the word.
Luk 1:3 So to me also it seemed good, having accurately investigated the course of all these things from the beginning, to write a chronological account for you, most excellent Theophilus.
Luk 1:4 This is so that you might know the truth about the things that you were taught.
Luk 1:5 In the days of Herod the Great, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zechariah, from the division of Abijah (1 Chron. 24:10). His wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.
Luk 1:6 They were both righteous before Yehowah, obeying all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord without craftiness.
Luk 1:7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both quite old by this time.
Luk 1:8 Now, it came about that Zechariah was in the presence of Yehowah carrying out the priestly duties in the order of his division.
Luk 1:9 According to the customary way of choosing which priest would serve, he had been chosen by lot to enter into the temple of Yehowah to burn incense.
Luk 1:10 The whole crowd of people was praying outside at the hour when the incense was burned.
Luk 1:11 Now an angel of Yehowah appeared to him and stood at the right side of the incense altar.
Luk 1:12 When Zechariah saw him, he was terrified and fear fell on him.
Luk 1:13 But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son. You will call his name John.
Luk 1:14 You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth.
Luk 1:15 For he will be great in the sight of Yehowah. He must never drink wine or beer (Nazirite vow, Num. 6), and he will be filled with Ruach ha’Kodesh from his mother’s womb.
Luk 1:16 And many of the people of Israel will be turned to Yehowah their Divine One.

Luk 1:17 He will go before the face of Yehowah in the Ruach and power of Elijah. He will do this to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, so that the disobedient will walk in the wisdom of the just, to make ready for Yehowah a people prepared for him" (Mal. 4:5-6).
Luk 1:18 Zechariah asked the angel, "How can I know this? For I am an old man and my wife is too old."
Luk 1:19 The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of Yehowah. I was sent to speak to you, to bring you this good news.
Luk 1:20 And behold, you will be mute, unable to speak, until the day these things take place. This is because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled at the appointed time."
Luk 1:21 Now the people were waiting for Zechariah. They were surprised that he was spending so much time in the temple.
Luk 1:22 But when he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized that he had seen a vision while he was in the temple. He kept on making signs to them and remained mute.
Luk 1:23 It came about that when the days of his service were over, he went to his house.
Luk 1:24 After these days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she kept herself hidden. She said,
Luk 1:25 "This is what Yehowah has done for me, when he looked at me with grace, in order to take away my shame before people."
Luk 1:26 In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from Yehowah to a town in Galilee named Natsareth, Luk 1:27 to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph. He belonged to the House of David, and the virgin's name was Miriam.
Luk 1:28 The angel came to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! Yehowah is with you. Blessed are you among women."
Luk 1:29 When she saw him, she was confused by his words, and she wondered what kind of greeting this could be.
Luk 1:30 The angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Miriam, for you have found grace with Yehowah.
Luk 1:31 And see, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son. You will call his name 'Yeshua'.
Luk 1:32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. Yehowah Almighty will give him the throne of his ancestor David.
Luk 1:33 He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and there will be no end to his kingdom."
Luk 1:34 Miriam asked the angel, "How will this happen, since I have not had sex with any man?"

Luk 1:35 The angel answered her, “Ruach ha’Kodesh will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will come over you. So the set-apart One to be born will be called the Son of Yehowah.
Luk 1:36 And see, your relative Elizabeth has also conceived a son in her old age. This is the sixth month for her, she who was called barren.
Luk 1:37 For nothing spoken by Yehowah will be impossible” (Gen. 18:14).
Luk 1:38 Miriam responded, “See, I am the female servant of Yehowah. Let it be for me according to your message.” Then the angel left her.
Luk 1:39 Then Miriam arose in those days and quickly went into the hill country, to a town in Judea.
Luk 1:40 She went into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.
Luk 1:41 Now it happened, that when Elizabeth heard Miriam’s greeting, the baby in her womb jumped, and Elizabeth was filled with Ruach ha’Kodesh.
Luk 1:42 She raised her voice and spoke loudly, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
Luk 1:43 And why has it happened to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
Luk 1:44 For see, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb jumped for joy!
Luk 1:45 And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of the things that were told her from Yehowah.”
Luk 1:46 Miriam sang, “My soul praises Yehowah,
Luk 1:47 and my spirit has rejoiced in Yehowah my Savior!
Luk 1:48 For he has looked at the low condition of his female servant. For see, from now on all generations will call me blessed.
Luk 1:49 For he who is mighty has done great things for me, and his name is set apart.
Luk 1:50 His mercy lasts from generation to generation for those who fear him.
Luk 1:51 He has displayed strength with his arm; he has scattered those who were proud about the thoughts of their hearts.
Luk 1:52 He has thrown down princes from their thrones, and he has raised up those of low condition.
Luk 1:53 He has filled the hungry with good things, but the rich he has sent away empty.
Luk 1:54 He has given help to Israel his servant, so as to remember to show mercy,
Luk 1:55 as he said to our fathers, to Abraham and his descendants forever.”
Luk 1:56 Miriam stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then returned to her house.
Luk 1:57 Now the time had come for Elizabeth to deliver her baby, and she gave birth to a son.

Luk 1:59 Now it happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child. They would have called him “Zechariah,” after the name of his father.
Luk 1:60 But his mother answered, “No. He will be called John.”
Luk 1:61 They replied to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.”
Luk 1:62 They made signs to his father as to how he wanted him to be named.
Luk 1:63 His father asked for a writing tablet and wrote, “His name is John.” They all were astonished at this.
Luk 1:64 Immediately, his mouth was opened, and his tongue was freed. He spoke and praised Yehowah!
Luk 1:65 Fear came on all who lived around them. All these matters were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea.
Luk 1:66 And all who heard them stored them in their hearts, asking, “What then will this child become?” For the hand of Yehowah was with him.
Luk 1:67 His father Zechariah was filled with Ruach ha’Kodesh and prophesied, Luk 1:68 “Praised be Yehowah, Mighty One of Israel, for he has come to help, and he has accomplished redemption for his people!
Luk 1:69 He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David,
Luk 1:70 as he spoke by the mouth of his set-apart prophets who were in ancient times.
Luk 1:71 He will bring salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.
Luk 1:72 He will do this to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his set-apart covenant,
Luk 1:73 the oath that he spoke to Abraham our father.
Luk 1:74 He swore to grant to us that we, having been delivered out of the hand of our enemies, would serve him without fear,
Luk 1:75 in consecration and righteousness before him all our days.
Luk 1:76 Yes, and you child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his Paths,
Luk 1:77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins.
Luk 1:78 This will happen because of the tender mercy of Yehowah, because of which the dawning Light from on high will come to help us,
Luk 1:79 to shine on those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death. He will do this to guide our feet into the Path of peace.”
Luk 1:80 Now the child grew and became strong in Ruach, and he was in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

Luke Chapter 2

Luk 2:1 Now in those days (c. 3 BC), it came about that Caesar Augustus sent out a decree ordering that registration of loyalty oaths be procured from all the people living in the world.
Luk 2:2 This was the first registration of loyalty oaths to Caesar collected while P. Sulpicius Quirinius was the imperial representative in Syria.
Luk 2:3 So everyone went to his hometown to register his loyalty oath to Caesar.
Luk 2:4 Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Natsareth, to Judea, to the City of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David.
Luk 2:5 He went there to register along with Miriam, his pregnant wife.
Luk 2:6 Now it came about that while they were there, the time came for her to deliver her baby.
Luk 2:7 She gave birth to her firstborn son (c. 3 BC), and she wrapped him in long strips of cloth and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no space for them in the caravansary.
Luk 2:8 There were shepherds in that region who were camping in the fields, guarding their flock at night.
Luk 2:9 An angel of Yehowah appeared to them, and the glory of Yehowah shone around them, and they were filled with great fear.
Luk 2:10 Then the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid, because I bring you the good news that will bring great joy to all the people.
Luk 2:11 Today, a Savior was born for you in the City of David! He is Lord Messiah!
Luk 2:12 This is the sign that will be given to you: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a feeding trough.”
Luk 2:13 Suddenly, there was together with the angel, a large heavenly military force praising Yehowah,
Luk 2:14 “Glory to Yehowah in the highest, and may there be peace on earth among people with whom he is pleased!”
Luk 2:15 It came about that when the angels had gone away from them into Heaven, the shepherds said to each other, “Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this matter that has happened, which Yehowah has made known to us.”
Luk 2:16 They hurried there and found Miriam and Joseph, and saw the baby lying in the feeding trough.
Luk 2:17 After they had seen him, they made known what had been said to them about this child.
Luk 2:18 All who heard it were amazed at what was spoken to them by the shepherds.

Luk 2:19 But Miriam kept thinking about all the things she had heard, treasuring them in her heart.
Luk 2:20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising Yehowah for everything that they had heard and seen, just as it had been spoken to them.
Luk 2:21 When it was the end of the eighth day, when he was circumcised, he was named Yeshua, the name he had been given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
Luk 2:22 When the required number of days for her purification had passed, according to the Law of Moses (Lev. 12; Gal. 4:4; Exo. 13:2, 12), Joseph and Miriam brought him up to the temple in Jerusalem to present him to Yehowah.
Luk 2:23 As it is written in the Law of Yehowah, "Every male who opens the womb will be set apart to Yehowah."
Luk 2:24 So they offered a sacrifice according to what was said in the Law of Yehowah, "a pair of doves or two young pigeons."
Luk 2:25 Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and reverent. He was looking for the Consolation of Israel, and Ruach ha'Kodesh was upon him.
Luk 2:26 It had been revealed to him by Ruach ha'Kodesh that he would not see death before he had seen the Messiah of Yehowah.
Luk 2:27 Led by the Ruach, Simeon came into the temple. When the parents brought in the infant Yeshua, to do for him according to the custom of the law,
Luk 2:28 he took him into his arms and praised Yehowah,
Luk 2:29 "Now let your servant depart in peace, Absolute Master, according to your spoken word.
Luk 2:30 For my eyes have seen your salvation (Yeshua; # H3442; H3091),
Luk 2:31 which you have prepared in the presence of all people:
Luk 2:32 A light for revelation to the ethnicities and glory to your people Israel."
Luk 2:33 Joseph and his mother were amazed at the things which were spoken concerning him.
Luk 2:34 Simeon blessed them and said to Miriam his mother, "Behold, this Child is appointed for the downfall and rising up of many people in Israel, and for a sign that is rejected (Luke 11:30),
Luk 2:35 and a sword will pierce your own soul, so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."
Luk 2:36 A prophetess named Anna was there. She was the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher. She was quite elderly. She had lived with her husband for seven years after her virginity, Luk 2:37 and was a widow about eighty-four years old. She never left the temple but was serving with fastings and prayers, night and day.

Luk 2:38 At that moment, she came near to them and began giving thanks to Yehowah, and she spoke about the child to everyone who had been waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.
Luk 2:39 When they had finished everything they were required to do according to the Law of Yehowah, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Natsareth.
Luk 2:40 The child grew and became strong in Ruach, increasing in wisdom, and the grace of Yehowah was upon him.
Luk 2:41 His parents went every year to Jerusalem for the Festival of the Passover.
Luk 2:42 When he was twelve years old (c. 9 AD), they again went up to Jerusalem at the customary time for the appointment calendar festival.
Luk 2:43 After they had stayed the full number of days for the feast, they began to return home. But the boy Yeshua stayed behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and his mother did not know it.
Luk 2:44 They assumed that he was with the group that was traveling with them, so they traveled a day's journey. Then they started looking for him among their relatives and friends.
Luk 2:45 When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem and started looking for him there.
Luk 2:46 It came about that after three days, they found him in the temple, sitting in the middle of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.
Luk 2:47 All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.
Luk 2:48 When they saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Listen, your father and I have been anxiously searching for you."
Luk 2:49 He asked them, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know that I must be engaged in my Father's business?"
Luk 2:50 But they did not understand what he meant by those words.
Luk 2:51 Then he went back home with them to Natsareth and was obedient to them. His mother treasured all these things in her heart.
Luk 2:52 But Yeshua continued to grow in wisdom and stature, and increased in grace with Yehowah and people.

Luke Chapter 3

Luk 3:1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar (c. 27 AD), while Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod Antipas was tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Herod Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene,
Luk 3:2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the Word of Yehowah came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness.
Luk 3:3 He went into all the region around the Jordan River, preaching an immersion of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
Luk 3:4 As it is written in the Book of the Words of Isaiah the prophet, "A voice of one calling out in the wilderness, 'Make ready the Way of Yehowah, make his Paths straight.
Luk 3:5 Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made low, and the crooked roads will be made straight, and the uneven places will be built into roads,
Luk 3:6 and all flesh will see the salvation of Yehowah'" (Isa. 40:3-5).
Luk 3:7 So John proclaimed to the crowds who were coming out to be immersed by him, "You offspring of vipers! Who warned you to run away from the wrath that is coming?
Luk 3:8 Therefore, produce fruits that are worthy of repentance and do not begin to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you that Yehowah is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones.
Luk 3:9 Even now the ax is set against the root of the trees. So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire."
Luk 3:10 Then the crowds kept asking him, "What then are we to do?"
Luk 3:11 He answered them, "If someone has two tunics, he should share it with a person who has none, and the one having food should do the same."
Luk 3:12 Tax collectors also came to be immersed, and they asked him, "Teacher, what must we do?"
Luk 3:13 He answered them, "Do not collect more money than you have been ordered to collect."
Luk 3:14 Some soldiers also asked him, "And what about us? What must we do?" He told them, "Do not take money from anyone by force and do not accuse anyone falsely. Be content with your wages."
Luk 3:15 Now as the people were eagerly expecting the Messiah to come, everyone was wondering in their hearts concerning John, whether or not he might be the Messiah.
Luk 3:16 John answered them all, "As for me, I immerse you with water, but Someone is coming who is more powerful than I, and I am not worthy even to untie the strap of his sandals. He will immerse you with Ruach ha'Kodesh and with fire.

Luk 3:17 His winnowing fork is in his hand to thoroughly clear off his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his storehouse. But he will burn up the chaff with fire that can never be put out."
Luk 3:18 With many other exhortations also, John preached the good news to the people.
Luk 3:19 When Herod Antipas the tetrarch had been reproved for marrying Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, and for all the other evil things that Herod had done,
Luk 3:20 he added this to them all, that he locked John up in prison.
Luk 3:21 Now it came about, when all the people were immersed, Yeshua also was immersed. And while he was praying, Heaven opened,
Luk 3:22 and Ruach ha'Kodesh in bodily form came down on him like a dove, and a voice came from Heaven, "You are my Son, whom I love. In whom my soul delights."
Luk 3:23 When Yeshua began his ministry (c. 27 AD), he was about thirty years old. He was the son, as it was assumed, of Joseph, the son of Heli,
Luk 3:24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph.
Luk 3:25 Joseph was the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,
Luk 3:26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah.
Luk 3:27 Judah was the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Salathiel, the son of Neri,
Luk 3:28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,
Luk 3:29 the son of Joseph, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi.
Luk 3:30 Levi was the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim,
Luk 3:31 the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,
Luk 3:32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon.
Luk 3:33 Nahshon was the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, the son of Arni, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,
Luk 3:34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,

Luk 3:35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah.
Luk 3:36 Shelah was the son of Kainan (see LXX at Gen. 10:24; 1 Chron. 1:18, 24; Gen. 11:12-13), the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,
Luk 3:37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Kenan,
Luk 3:38 the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of Yehowah.

Luke Chapter 4

Luk 4:1 Then Yeshua, being full of Ruach ha'Kodesh, returned from the Jordan River, and was led by the Ruach into the wilderness,
Luk 4:2 where for forty days, he was tempted by the Devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of that time he was hungry.
Luk 4:3 The Devil tempted him, "Since you are the Son of Yehowah, command this stone to become bread."
Luk 4:4 Yeshua answered him, "It is written, 'People do not live on bread alone but on every Word of Yehowah'" (Deut. 8:3; Mat. 4:4).
Luk 4:5 Then the Devil was leading Yeshua up to a high mountain, and he showed him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant of time.
Luk 4:6 The Devil tempted him, "I will give to you all this authority and all their splendor, for they have been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want.
Luk 4:7 So then, if you will bow down and worship me, all of it will be yours."
Luk 4:8 But Yeshua answered him, "Get behind me Satan! It is written, 'You will worship Lord Yehowah, and you will serve only him'" (Deut. 6:13; 10:20).
Luk 4:9 Then the Devil led Yeshua to Jerusalem and put him on the highest point of the temple building and tempted him, "Since you are the Son of Yehowah, throw yourself down from here.
Luk 4:10 For it is written, 'He will give orders to his angels regarding you, to protect you,'
Luk 4:11 and, 'They will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'"
Luk 4:12 And Yeshua answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put Lord Yehowah to the test'" (Deut. 6:16).
Luk 4:13 When the Devil had finished testing Yeshua, he went away and left him until an opportune time.
Luk 4:14 Then Yeshua returned to Galilee in the power of the Ruach, and news about him spread throughout the entire surrounding region.
Luk 4:15 And he began to teach in their houses of assembly, and he was praised by all!
Luk 4:16 He came into Natsareth, where he had been raised. And as was his custom, he entered the house of assembly on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read aloud.
Luk 4:17 The Scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him (Heb. 1:1; 1 Tim. 4:13). He opened the Scroll and found the place where it was written,
Luk 4:18 "The Ruach of Yehowah is upon me, because he anointed me to tell the good news to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom (deror, H1865, Lev. 25:10) to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, Luk 4:19 to proclaim the year of the grace of Yehowah" (Isa. 61:1-2a; c. 27 AD).

Luk 4:20 Then he rolled up the Scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the house of assembly were fixed on him.
Luk 4:21 He began to speak to them, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."
Luk 4:22 Everyone there spoke well of him, and they were amazed at the gracious words which were coming out of his mouth. And they asked, "Is this not the son of Joseph?"
Luk 4:23 He responded to them, "Surely you will say this proverb to me, 'Doctor, heal yourself. Whatever we heard that you did in Capernaum, do the same in your hometown.'"
Luk 4:24 But he taught, "Truly, I say to you, no prophet is received in his own hometown.
Luk 4:25 But in truth, I tell you that there were many widows in Israel during the time of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, and a great famine came upon all the land (c. 918 BC).
Luk 4:26 But Elijah was sent to none of them, but only to Zarephath in Sidon, to a widow living there.
Luk 4:27 And there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet, but none of them were cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."
Luk 4:28 All the people in the house of assembly were filled with rage when they heard these things.
Luk 4:29 They rose up, forced him out of the town, and led him to the cliff of the mountain on which their town was built, so they might throw him headfirst off the cliff.
Luk 4:30 But he passed through the middle of them, and he went to another place.
Luk 4:31 Then he went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee, and he began to teach them on the Sabbaths.
Luk 4:32 They were astonished at his teaching, because he spoke with authority.
Luk 4:33 Now in the house of assembly there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,
Luk 4:34 "Ah, leave us alone! What do we have to do with you, Yeshua the Natsari? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Set-apart One of Yehowah!"
Luk 4:35 Yeshua rebuked the demon, "Do not speak and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown the man down in the middle of them, he came out of him and did not harm him in any way.

Luk 4:36 All the people were quite amazed, and they kept talking about it with one another. They said, “What kind of words are these? He commands the unclean spirits with authority and power, and they come out.”
Luk 4:37 So news about him began to spread into every part of the surrounding region.
Luk 4:38 Then Yeshua left the house of assembly and entered into the house of Simon. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering with a high fever, and they pleaded with him on her behalf.
Luk 4:39 So he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. Immediately, she rose up and started serving them.
Luk 4:40 When the sun was setting, people brought to Yeshua everyone who was sick with various kinds of diseases. He laid his hands on every one of them and healed them.
Luk 4:41 Demons also came out from many of them, crying out, “You are Messiah the Son of Yehowah!” Yeshua rebuked the demons and would not let them speak, because they knew that he was Messiah.
Luk 4:42 When daybreak came, he went out into a solitary place. Crowds of people were looking for him and came to the place where he was. They tried to keep him from going away from them.
Luk 4:43 But he explained to them, “I must also preach the good news of the Kingdom of Yehowah to many other cities, because this is the reason I was sent here.”
Luk 4:44 Then he continued to preach in the houses of assembly throughout Galilee.

Luke Chapter 5

Luk 5:1 Now it happened, while the people were crowding around Yeshua and listening to the Word of Yehowah, that he was standing by the Sea of Galilee.
Luk 5:2 He saw two boats pulled up at the lakeshore. The fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets.
Luk 5:3 Yeshua got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put it out in the water a short distance from the land. Then he sat down and taught the people out of the boat.
Luk 5:4 When he had finished speaking, he ordered Simon, "Take the boat out into the deeper water and let down your nets for a catch."
Luk 5:5 Simon answered, "Teacher, we worked all night and caught nothing, but at your word, I will let down the nets."
Luk 5:6 When they had done this, they gathered quite a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking.
Luk 5:7 So they motioned to their partners in the other boat that they should come and help them. They came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.
Luk 5:8 But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at the knees of Yeshua, confessing, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord."
Luk 5:9 For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had taken.
Luk 5:10 This included Jacob and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Yeshua prophesied to Simon, "Do not be afraid, because from now on you will catch people."
Luk 5:11 When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.
Luk 5:12 It came about that while he was in one of the cities, a man full of leprosy was there. When he saw Yeshua, he fell on his face and begged him, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."
Luk 5:13 Then Yeshua reached out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him.
Luk 5:14 He instructed him to tell no one, but told him, "Go on your way, and show yourself to the priest and offer a sacrifice for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."
Luk 5:15 But the report about him spread even farther, and large crowds of people came together to hear him teach and to be healed of their sicknesses.
Luk 5:16 But he often withdrew into the deserted places and prayed.
Luk 5:17 It came about on one of those days that he was teaching, and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting there who had come from many different villages in the regions of Galilee and Judea, and from Jerusalem. The power of Yehowah was with him to heal them.

Luk 5:18 Now some men came, carrying on a mat a man that was paralyzed, and they looked for a way to bring him inside in order to lay him down in front of Yeshua.
Luk 5:19 They could not find a way to bring him in because of the crowd, so they went up to the housetop and let the man down through the tiles, on his mat, into the midst of the people, right in front of Yeshua.
Luk 5:20 Seeing their faith, Yeshua said, "Sir, your sins are forgiven you."
Luk 5:21 The scribes and the Pharisees began to question this, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but Yehowah alone?"
Luk 5:22 But Yeshua, perceiving what they were thinking, answered and asked them, "Why are you questioning this in your hearts?
Luk 5:23 Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?'
Luk 5:24 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins, I command you who is paralyzed, 'Get up, pick up your mat and go to your house.'"
Luk 5:25 Immediately, he rose up in front of them and picked up the mat on which he was lying. Then he went away to his house, glorifying Yehowah!
Luk 5:26 Everyone was amazed, and they glorified Yehowah. They were filled with fear, exclaiming, "We have seen extraordinary things today!"
Luk 5:27 After these things happened, Yeshua went out from there and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax collector's office. He commanded him, "Follow me."
Luk 5:28 So Levi rose up and followed him, leaving everything behind.
Luk 5:29 Then Levi gave a big banquet in his house for Yeshua. There were many tax collectors there, and other people who were reclining at the table and eating with them.
Luk 5:30 But the Pharisees and their scribes were complaining to his disciples, asking, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and other sinful people?"
Luk 5:31 Yeshua answered them, "People who are well do not need a physician; only those who are sick.
Luk 5:32 I did not come to call righteous people but to call sinners to repentance."
Luk 5:33 They replied to him, "The disciples of John often fast and pray, and the disciples of the Pharisees do the same. But your disciples eat and drink."
Luk 5:34 Yeshua answered them, "Can anyone make the wedding attendants of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is still with them?
Luk 5:35 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, then in those days they will fast."

Luk 5:36 Then Yeshua also spoke a parable to them: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and uses it to mend an old garment. If he did that, he would tear the new garment, and the piece of cloth from the new garment would not fit with the cloth of the old garment.
Luk 5:37 And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. If he does that, the new wine would burst the skins, and the wine would be spilled, and the wineskins would be destroyed.
Luk 5:38 But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.
Luk 5:39 And no one after drinking old wine wants the new, for he says, ‘The old is better’” (Mat. 9:14-17; Mark 2:18-22).

Luke Chapter 6

Luk 6:1 Now it happened on the second-first Sabbath, that Yeshua was going through the grainfields, and his disciples were picking the heads of grain (Deut. 23:25), rubbing them between their hands and eating the grain.
Luk 6:2 But some of the Pharisees asked, "Why are you doing something that is not lawful to do on the Sabbaths?"
Luk 6:3 And Yeshua answered them, "Have you not even read what David did when he was hungry, he and the men who were with him?
Luk 6:4 He went into the tabernacle of Yehowah and took the bread of the presence, and ate some of it, and also gave some to the men who were with him to eat, even though it was only lawful for the priests to eat it."
Luk 6:5 Then Yeshua declared them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."
Luk 6:6 It happened on another Sabbath, that he went into the house of assembly and taught the people there. A man was there whose right hand was withered.
Luk 6:7 The scribes and the Pharisees were watching him closely to see whether he would heal someone on the Sabbath, so that they might find a reason to accuse him.
Luk 6:8 But he knew what they were thinking, and Yeshua ordered the man whose hand was withered, "Get up and stand here in the middle of everyone." So the man rose up and stood there.
Luk 6:9 Yeshua said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life or to destroy it?"
Luk 6:10 Then he looked around at them all and commanded the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored, as healthy as the other one.
Luk 6:11 But they were filled with anger, and they talked to each other about what they might do to Yeshua.
Luk 6:12 It happened in those days, that he went out to the mountain to pray. He continued all night in prayer to Yehowah.
Luk 6:13 When it was day, he called his disciples to him, and he chose twelve of them, whom he also named Apostles.
Luk 6:14 The names of the Apostles were Simon, whom he also named Peter, and his brother Andrew, Jacob, John, Philip, Bartholomew,
Luk 6:15 Matthew, Thomas, Jacob (Yeshua's step-brother) son of Alphaeus (Clopas), Simon who was called the Zealot, Luk 6:16 Judah Thaddaeus, son of Jacob, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Luk 6:17 Then Yeshua came down the mountain with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon.
Luk 6:18 They had come to listen to him and to be healed of their diseases. People who were tormented with unclean spirits were also healed (Acts 5:16).
Luk 6:19 Everyone in the crowd kept trying to touch him, because power to heal was coming out from him, and he healed them all.
Luk 6:20 Then he looked at his disciples and taught, “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the Kingdom of Yehowah.
Luk 6:21 Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who grieve now, for you will laugh.
Luk 6:22 Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you and insult, slander, and libel you, because of the Son of Man.
Luk 6:23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because you will surely have a great reward in Heaven, for their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way.
Luk 6:24 But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort.
Luk 6:25 Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry later. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and cry later.
Luk 6:26 Woe to you, when all people speak well of you, for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.
Luk 6:27 But I say to you who are listening, unconditionally selflessly love your enemies and do good to those who hate you.
Luk 6:28 Bless those who curse you and pray for those who mistreat you.
Luk 6:29 To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer him also the other. If someone takes away your coat, do not withhold your tunic either.
Luk 6:30 Give to everyone who asks you. If someone takes away something that belongs to you, do not ask him to give it back to you.
Luk 6:31 As you want people to do to you, you should do the same to them.
Luk 6:32 If you only unconditionally selflessly love people who unconditionally selflessly love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners unconditionally selflessly love those who unconditionally selflessly love them.
Luk 6:33 If you do good only to people who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
Luk 6:34 If you only lend to people who you expect will pay you back, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount.
Luk 6:35 But unconditionally selflessly love your enemies and do good to them. Lend expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind toward unthankful and evil people.

Luk 6:36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.
Luk 6:37 Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven.
Luk 6:38 Give, and it will be given to you. A generous amount, pressed down, shaken together and spilling over, will pour into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.”
Luk 6:39 Then he also told them a parable: “Can a blind person guide another blind person? If he did, they would both fall into a pit, would they not?
Luk 6:40 A disciple is not greater than his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher.
Luk 6:41 And why do you look at the tiny splinter that is in your brother’s eye, but you do not notice the log that is in your own eye?
Luk 6:42 How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not even see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the splinter that is in your brother’s eye.
Luk 6:43 For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit, nor is there a rotten tree that produces good fruit.
Luk 6:44 For each tree is known by the kind of fruit it produces. For people do not gather figs from a thorn bush, nor do they gather grapes from a brier bush.
Luk 6:45 The good person from the good treasure of his heart produces what is good, and the evil person from the evil treasure of his heart produces what is evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.
Luk 6:46 Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and yet you do not obey the things that I say?
Luk 6:47 Every person who comes to me, hears my words, and obeys them, I will tell you what he is like.
Luk 6:48 He is like a homeowner building a house, who dug down deep in the ground and built the house’s foundation on bedrock. When a flood came, the river of water flowed against that house but could not shake it, because it had been built on bedrock.
Luk 6:49 But the person who hears my words and does not obey them, he is like a homeowner who built a house on top of the ground without a foundation. When the river of water flowed against that house, it immediately collapsed, and the ruin of that house was complete.”

Luke Chapter 7

Luk 7:1 After Yeshua had finished everything he was saying in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.
Luk 7:2 Now a centurion had a slave who was highly regarded by him, and he was sick and about to die.
Luk 7:3 When the centurion heard about Yeshua, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and heal his servant.
Luk 7:4 When they had come to Yeshua, they begged him earnestly, “He is worthy to have you do this for him, Luk 7:5 because he unconditionally selflessly loves our nation, and he is the one who built the house of assembly for us.”
Luk 7:6 So Yeshua continued on his way with them. But when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, “Lord, do not trouble yourself, because I am not worthy for you to come under my roof.
Luk 7:7 For this reason, I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you, but just say a word, and my servant will be healed.
Luk 7:8 For I also am a man who is under authority, with soldiers under me. I order this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another one, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”
Luk 7:9 When Yeshua heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, proclaimed, “I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such faith!”
Luk 7:10 And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant was well.
Luk 7:11 And the next day, Yeshua went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him.
Luk 7:12 As he came near to the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, who was a widow, and a rather large crowd from the town was with her.
Luk 7:13 When the Lord saw her, he was deeply moved with compassion for her and told her, “Do not cry.”
Luk 7:14 Then he went up and touched the wooden frame on which they carried the body, and those carrying it stood still. He commanded, “Young man, I say to you, arise.”
Luk 7:15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Yeshua gave him to his mother.
Luk 7:16 Then fear overcame all of them, and they kept glorifying Yehowah, proclaiming, “A great prophet has been raised among us!” and, “Yehowah has looked upon his people!”

Luk 7:17 This news about Yeshua spread throughout the whole of Judea and all the neighboring regions.
Luk 7:18 John's disciples told him about all these things.
Luk 7:19 Then John called two of his disciples and sent them to Yeshua to ask, "Are you the One who is to come, or should we look for another?"
Luk 7:20 When they had come near to Yeshua, the men said, "John the Immerser has sent us to you to ask, 'Are you the One who is coming, or should we look for another?'"
Luk 7:21 In that hour, he healed many people from sicknesses, afflictions, and from evil spirits, and to many blind people he gave sight (see DSS 4Q521).
Luk 7:22 Yeshua answered them, "After you have gone on your way, report to John what you have seen and heard. Blind people are receiving sight, lame people are walking, lepers are being cleansed, deaf people are hearing, dead people are being raised back to life, and needy people are being told the good news.
Luk 7:23 The person who does not stop believing in me because of my actions is blessed" (Isa. 35:5-6; DSS 4Q521; Mat. 11:1-6).
Luk 7:24 After John's messengers had gone away, Yeshua began to preach to the crowds about John, "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
Luk 7:25 But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothes? Look, those who wear expensive clothing and who live in luxury are in kings' palaces.
Luk 7:26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet.
Luk 7:27 This is he of whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger before your face, who will prepare your Way before you.'
Luk 7:28 I say to you, among those born of women, none is a greater prophet than John the Immerser. Yet the one who is least in the Kingdom of Yehowah is greater than he is."
Luk 7:29 When all the people heard this, including the tax collectors, they declared that Yehowah is righteous, because they had been immersed with the immersion of John.
Luk 7:30 But the Pharisees and the experts in Jewish law rejected the purpose of Yehowah for themselves, because they had not been immersed by John.
Luk 7:31 But the Lord taught, "To what then, can I compare the people of this generation? What are they like?
Luk 7:32 They are like children playing in the marketplace, who sit and call to one another, 'We played a flute for you, and you did not dance. We sang a funeral song, and you did not cry.'
Luk 7:33 For John the Immerser came eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!'

Luk 7:34 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, he is a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners’ (Deut. 21:20)!
Luk 7:35 But wisdom is justified by all her children.”
Luk 7:36 Now one of the Pharisees invited Yeshua to eat with him. So after Yeshua entered into the Pharisee’s house, he reclined at the table to eat.
Luk 7:37 Behold, there was a woman in the city who was a sinner. When she found out that Yeshua was reclining at the table in the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed oil.
Luk 7:38 As she stood behind him near his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with perfumed oil.
Luk 7:39 When the Pharisee who had invited Yeshua saw this, he thought to himself, “If this man were a prophet, then he would know who and what type of woman is touching him, that she is a sinner.”
Luk 7:40 Yeshua responded to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” He replied, “Say it, Teacher.”
Luk 7:41 Yeshua spoke, “A certain moneylender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred silver coins, and the other fifty.
Luk 7:42 When they could not pay him, he forgave them both. Therefore, which of them will unconditionally selflessly love him more?”
Luk 7:43 Simon answered him, “I suppose the one whom he forgave the most.” Yeshua affirmed to him, “You have judged correctly.”
Luk 7:44 Yeshua turned to the woman and rebuked Simon, “You see this woman. I have entered into your house. You gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.
Luk 7:45 You did not give me a kiss, but from the time I came in, she did not stop kissing my feet.
Luk 7:46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfumed oil.
Luk 7:47 Therefore, I say to you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven, for she unconditionally selflessly loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little.”
Luk 7:48 Then he informed her, “Your sins are forgiven.”
Luk 7:49 Those reclining together began to ask among themselves, “Who is this that even forgives sins?”
Luk 7:50 Then Yeshua assured the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.”

Luke Chapter 8

Luk 8:1 It happened soon afterward, that Yeshua began traveling around to different cities and villages, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of Yehowah. The Twelve were with him,
Luk 8:2 as well as certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and diseases: Miriam who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had been driven out;
Luk 8:3 Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's manager; Susanna; and many others, who, out of their possessions, provided for their needs.
Luk 8:4 While a large crowd of people was gathering, and people were coming to him from town after town, he told a parable:
Luk 8:5 "A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell beside the road, and it was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.
Luk 8:6 Some fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture.
Luk 8:7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up together with the seed and choked it.
Luk 8:8 But some fell on good soil and produced a crop that was a hundred times greater." After Yeshua had said these things, he called out, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear!"
Luk 8:9 His disciples asked him what this parable meant.
Luk 8:10 He answered, "The knowledge of the secrets of the Kingdom of Yehowah has been given to you, but for others I speak in parables, so that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.'
Luk 8:11 Now this is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the Word of Yehowah.
Luk 8:12 The ones along the path are those who have heard, but then the Devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so they may not believe and be saved.
Luk 8:13 And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But they have no root; they believe for awhile, and in a time of testing they fall away.
Luk 8:14 The seeds that fell among the thorns are people who hear the word, but as they go on their way, they are choked by the cares, riches, and pleasures of this life, and their fruit does not mature.
Luk 8:15 But the seed that fell on the good soil, these are the ones who, hearing the word with an honest and good heart, they hold it securely and bear fruit with patient endurance.

Luk 8:16 Now, no one when he has lit a lamp covers it with a bowl or puts it under a bed. Rather, he puts it on a menorah, so that everyone who enters may see the light.
Luk 8:17 For nothing is hidden that will not be made known, nor is anything secret that will not be known and come into the light.
Luk 8:18 So listen carefully, for to the one who has, more will be given to him, but the one who does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."
Luk 8:19 Then his mother and brothers came to him, but they could not get near him because of the crowd.
Luk 8:20 He was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."
Luk 8:21 But Yeshua answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the Word of Yehowah and do it."
Luk 8:22 Now one day, he climbed into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." They set sail.
Luk 8:23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A terrible windstorm came down on the lake, their boat was filling with water, and they were in danger.
Luk 8:24 Then the disciples of Yeshua came over to him and woke him up, shouting, "Master! Master! We are about to die!" He awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, they ceased, and there was a calm.
Luk 8:25 Then he asked them, "Where is your faith?" And they were afraid, and while they were afraid, they were also amazed, and they asked one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"
Luk 8:26 They sailed to the region of the Girgashites (Josh. 24:11), which is across the lake from Galilee.
Luk 8:27 When Yeshua stepped on the land, he was met by a certain man from the city who had demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but among the tombs.
Luk 8:28 When he saw Yeshua, he cried out and fell down before him, and he howled with a loud voice, "What have you to do with me, Yeshua, Son of Yehowah Most High? I beg you, do not torment me!"
Luk 8:29 For Yeshua had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For many times it had seized him, and though he was bound with chains and shackles and kept under guard, he had broken his chains, and he would be driven by the demon into the wilderness.
Luk 8:30 Then Yeshua asked him, "What is your name?" And he answered, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him.
Luk 8:31 They kept begging him not to send them into the abyss.

Luk 8:32 Now a large herd of pigs was there feeding on the mountain. The demons begged him to let them go into them, and he gave them permission.
Luk 8:33 So the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd plunged down a cliff into the lake and was drowned.
Luk 8:34 When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and told about it in the city and countryside.
Luk 8:35 So the people went out to see what had happened. And they came to Yeshua and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at the feet of Yeshua, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.
Luk 8:36 Then those who had seen it told them how the man who had been controlled by demons had been healed.
Luk 8:37 Then all the people of the region of the Girgashites asked Yeshua to depart from them, for they were overwhelmed with great fear. So he climbed into the boat, so they could start back.
Luk 8:38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged him to let him go with him, but Yeshua sent him away, ordering,
Luk 8:39 "Return to your home and give a full account of what Yehowah has done for you." The man went on his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what Yeshua had done for him (Mat. 8:28-34; Mark 5:1-20).
Luk 8:40 Now when Yeshua returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him.
Luk 8:41 Behold, a man named Jairus, who was one of the leaders of the house of assembly, came and fell down at the feet of Yeshua, and he begged him to come to his house,
Luk 8:42 because his only daughter, a girl of about twelve years of age, was dying. As Yeshua was on his way, the crowds of people pressed together around him.
Luk 8:43 Now a woman was there who had been bleeding for twelve years and had spent all her money on physicians but could not be healed by any of them.
Luk 8:44 She came behind Yeshua and touched the tassel of his coat, and immediately her bleeding stopped (Mal. 4:2).
Luk 8:45 Yeshua asked, "Who was it who touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Teacher, the crowds of people are all around you, and they are pressing in against you, and you ask, 'Who touched me?'"
Luk 8:46 But Yeshua replied, "Someone did touch me, for I know that power has gone out from me."
Luk 8:47 When the woman saw that she could not escape notice, she came trembling and falling down before him. She declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed.
Luk 8:48 Then he comforted her, "Daughter, be encouraged, your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

Luk 8:49 While he was still speaking, someone came from the house of assembly leader's house, announcing, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher any longer."
Luk 8:50 But when Yeshua heard this, he answered Jairus, "Do not be afraid; only believe, and she will be healed."
Luk 8:51 When he came to the house, he allowed no one to enter with him, except Peter, John, and Jacob, and the father of the child and her mother.
Luk 8:52 Now all were mourning and wailing for her, but he declared, "Do not weep; she is not dead but asleep."
Luk 8:53 But they scornfully laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.
Luk 8:54 But he ejected everyone from the room, took her by the hand and called out, "Child, arise!"
Luk 8:55 Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He ordered them to get her something to eat.
Luk 8:56 Her parents were astonished, but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

Luke Chapter 9

Luk 9:1 He called the twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority over all the demons and to cure diseases.
Luk 9:2 He sent them out to preach the Kingdom of Yehowah and to heal the sick.
Luk 9:3 He ordered them, "Take nothing for your journey, no trekking pole, no backpack, no bread, no money, and no extra tunics.
Luk 9:4 Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave.
Luk 9:5 Wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town, shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them."
Luk 9:6 Then they departed and went through the villages, proclaiming the good news and healing everywhere.
Luk 9:7 Now Herod Antipas, the tetrarch, heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,
Luk 9:8 and it was said that Elijah had appeared, and still others that one of the prophets of long ago had risen.
Luk 9:9 Herod asked, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he tried to see him.
Luk 9:10 When the apostles returned, they told him everything they had done. Then he took them with him, and they went away privately to an isolated place near a town called Bethsaida.
Luk 9:11 But when the crowds heard about this, they followed him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the Kingdom of Yehowah, and he cured those who needed healing.
Luk 9:12 Now the day was about to come to an end, and the Twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find lodging and food, because we are here in an isolated place."
Luk 9:13 But he told them, "You give them something to eat." They replied, "We have no more than five loaves of bread and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people."
Luk 9:14 There were about five thousand men. He instructed his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each."
Luk 9:15 So they did this and made the people sit down.
Luk 9:16 Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to Heaven, he blessed Yehowah and broke the food into pieces, and he gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

Luk 9:17 They all ate and were satisfied, and what was left over was picked up, twelve baskets of broken pieces (2 Kings 4:42-44; Lev. 24:5-6; Mat. 14:13; Mark 6:30; John 6:1).
Luk 9:18 It came about while Yeshua was praying by himself, the disciples were with him. He asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I AM?"
Luk 9:19 They answered, "John the Immerser. But others say Elijah, and others say that one of the prophets from long ago has risen."
Luk 9:20 Then he asked them, "But who do you say that I AM?" Peter answered, "Messiah of Yehowah."
Luk 9:21 But he strongly warned them to tell this to no one,
Luk 9:22 "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and he will be killed and on the third day be raised."
Luk 9:23 And he spoke to them all, "If anyone wants to come after me, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me.
Luk 9:24 Whoever would save his life will destroy it, but whoever destroys his life for my sake will save it.
Luk 9:25 What good is it for a person to gain the whole world and yet destroy or forfeit himself?
Luk 9:26 Whoever is ashamed of me and my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his own glory, the glory of the Father, and of the set-apart angels.
Luk 9:27 But I say to you, truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Kingdom of Yehowah."
Luk 9:28 Now about eight days after Yeshua said these words, he took with him Peter, John, and Jacob, and went up on the mountain to pray.
Luk 9:29 As he was praying, the form of his face was changed, and his clothes became brilliant white.
Luk 9:30 And behold, two men were talking with him, Moses and Elijah,
Luk 9:31 who appeared in glorious splendor. They spoke about his departure, which he was about to bring to completion in Jerusalem.
Luk 9:32 Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men who were standing with him.
Luk 9:33 A little while later, as they were going away from Yeshua, Peter said to him, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three shelters (Sukkot; c. 29 AD), one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He did not know what he was saying.
Luk 9:34 As he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud.
Luk 9:35 A Voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son; listen to him."

Luk 9:36 When the Voice had spoken, Yeshua was found alone. They kept silent and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen.
Luk 9:37 Now on the next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him.
Luk 9:38 And behold, a man from the crowd cried out, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child!
Luk 9:39 You see, a spirit takes control over him, and he suddenly screams; it causes him to have convulsions, so that he foams at the mouth. It hardly ever leaves him, and it bruises him badly.
Luk 9:40 I begged your disciples to force it out, but they could not.”
Luk 9:41 Yeshua answered, “You unbelieving and depraved generation, how long must I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”
Luk 9:42 While the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground and shook him with convulsions. But Yeshua rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.
Luk 9:43 Then they were all amazed at the greatness of Yehowah. While they all were marveling at everything Yeshua was doing, he prophesied to his disciples,
Luk 9:44 “Let these words go deeply into your ears: The Son of Man will be betrayed into the hands of men.”
Luk 9:45 But they did not understand this statement. It was hidden from them, so they could not know its meaning. And yet they were afraid to ask about this statement.
Luk 9:46 Then an argument started among them about which of them would be the greatest.
Luk 9:47 But Yeshua, knowing the reasoning in their hearts, took a little child and put him by his side,
Luk 9:48 and taught them, “Whoever welcomes this child in my name, welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me, welcomes the One who sent me. For whoever is least among you all is the one who will be great.”
Luk 9:49 John answered, “Master, we saw someone forcing out demons in your name, and we prevented him, because he does not follow along with us.”
Luk 9:50 “Do not stop him,” Yeshua declared, “because whoever is not against us is for us.”
Luk 9:51 When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem.
Luk 9:52 He sent messengers on ahead of him, and they went and entered into a Samaritan village to prepare everything for him.
Luk 9:53 But the people there did not welcome him, because he had set his face to go to Jerusalem.

Luk 9:54 When the disciples Jacob and John saw this, they asked, “Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from Heaven and destroy them, just like Elijah did?”
Luk 9:55 But he turned and rebuked them, “You do not know of what spirit you are.
Luk 9:56 For the Son of Man did not come to destroy people’s souls but to save them.” And they went on to another village.
Luk 9:57 As they were going along the road, someone said to him, “Lord, I will follow you wherever you go.”
Luk 9:58 Yeshua responded to him, “Foxes have holes, and birds in the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”
Luk 9:59 Then he ordered another, “Follow me.” But he replied, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”
Luk 9:60 But he commanded him, “Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim far and wide the Kingdom of Yehowah.”
Luk 9:61 Then someone else said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say goodbye to those in my home.”
Luk 9:62 Yeshua replied to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the Kingdom of Yehowah.”

Luke Chapter 10

Luk 10:1 Now after these things, the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them out two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he himself was about to go.
Luk 10:2 He instructed them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore, ask Yehowah of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.
Luk 10:3 Go on your way. See, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.
Luk 10:4 Carry no money belt, no traveler’s backpack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road.
Luk 10:5 Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘May peace be on this house!’
Luk 10:6 If a person of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him, but if not, it will return to you.
Luk 10:7 Remain in that same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not move around from house to house.
Luk 10:8 Whatever town you enter, and they receive you, eat what is set before you,
Luk 10:9 and heal the sick that are there. Say to them, ‘The Kingdom of Yehowah has come close to you.’
Luk 10:10 Whenever you enter a town, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,
Luk 10:11 ‘Even the dust from your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you! But know this: The Kingdom of Yehowah has come near to you.’
Luk 10:12 I say to you, that on Judgment Day, it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.
Luk 10:13 Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
Luk 10:14 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the Judgment than for you.
Luk 10:15 You, Capernaum, do you think you will be exalted to Heaven? No, you will be brought down to the place of the dead.
Luk 10:16 The one who listens to you listens to me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects the One who sent me.”
Luk 10:17 The seventy returned with joy, exclaiming, “Lord, even the demons submitted to us in your name!”
Luk 10:18 Yeshua responded to them, “I was watching Satan fall from Heaven as lightning!
Luk 10:19 See, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing will in any way hurt you.

Luk 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice only in this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice even more that your names are engraved in Heaven."
Luk 10:21 At that same time, Yeshua rejoiced greatly in Ruach, "I praise you, Father, Lord of Heaven and earth, because you concealed these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to immature children! Yes, Father, for so it was well pleasing in your sight!"
Luk 10:22 Then he turned around to the disciples and said privately, "All things have been entrusted to me from my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son, and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.
Luk 10:23 Blessed are those who see the things that you see.
Luk 10:24 I say to you, many prophets and kings desired to see the things you see, and they did not see them, and to hear the things that you hear, and they did not hear them."
Luk 10:25 Behold, a certain teacher of the Jewish laws stood up, so that he might test him, asking, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"
Luk 10:26 Yeshua asked him, "What is written in the law? How do you interpret it?"
Luk 10:27 And giving an answer, he said, "You will unconditionally selflessly love Lord Yehowah with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself" (Deut. 6:5; Lev. 19:18; 34).
Luk 10:28 Yeshua replied to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."
Luk 10:29 But the teacher, desiring to justify himself, asked Yeshua, "And who is my neighbor?"
Luk 10:30 And Yeshua spoke this answer, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. He fell among robbers, who stripped him of his belongings, and beat him, and left him half dead.
Luk 10:31 By chance a certain priest was going down that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.
Luk 10:32 Similarly, a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.
Luk 10:33 But a certain Samaritan (2 Chron. 28), as he journeyed, came to where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion.
Luk 10:34 He approached him and bound up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
Luk 10:35 The next day, he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him and whatever extra you spend, when I return, I will repay you.'

Luk 10:36 Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?”
Luk 10:37 The teacher answered, “The one who showed mercy to him.” Yeshua told him, “Go and do the same.”
Luk 10:38 Now as they were traveling along, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha welcomed him into her house.
Luk 10:39 She had a sister named Miriam, who sat at the feet of Yeshua and heard his word.
Luk 10:40 But Martha was overly busy with preparing to serve a meal. She came up to Yeshua and asked, “Lord, do you not care that my sister left me to serve alone? Therefore, tell her to help me.”
Luk 10:41 But Yeshua answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious about many things, Luk 10:42 but only one thing is necessary. Miriam has chosen what is best, which will not be taken away from her.”

Luke Chapter 11

Luk 11:1 It happened when Yeshua was praying in a certain place, after he finished, one of his disciples entreated him, “Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples.”
Luk 11:2 Yeshua taught them, “When you pray, say, ‘Our Father who is in Heaven, may your name be consecrated. May your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven.
Luk 11:3 Give us each day our daily bread.
Luk 11:4 Forgive us our sin debt, as we forgive everyone who sins against us. Let us not enter into temptation but deliver us from the evil one.’”
Luk 11:5 Yeshua spoke to them, “Which of you will have a friend, and will go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend to me three loaves of bread,
Luk 11:6 since a friend of mine just came in from his road trip, and I do not have anything to set before him.’
Luk 11:7 Then the one inside who answered him may say, ‘Do not bother me. The door is already shut, and my children, along with me, are in bed. I am not able to get up and give bread to you.’
Luk 11:8 I say to you, even if he does not get up and give bread to you because you are his friend, yet because of your shameless persistence, he will get up and give you as many loaves of bread as you need.
Luk 11:9 I also say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.
Luk 11:10 For every asking person receives; and the seeking person finds; and to the person who knocks, it will be opened (Deut. 4:29; Psa. 105:4; Amos 5:6).
Luk 11:11 Which father among you, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish? Or a loaf of bread, will give him a stone?
Luk 11:12 Or if he asks for an egg, will you give a scorpion to him?
Luk 11:13 Therefore, if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father from Heaven give Ruach ha’Kodesh to those who ask him?”
Luk 11:14 Later, Yeshua was driving out a demon, and it was mute. It happened that when the demon had come out, the mute man spoke. The crowds were astonished!
Luk 11:15 But some of the people blasphemed, “By Beelzebul, the ruler of demons, he drives out demons.”
Luk 11:16 Others tested him and sought from him a sign from Heaven.
Luk 11:17 But Yeshua knew their thoughts and corrected them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate, and a household divided against itself falls.

Luk 11:18 If Satan is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I cast out demons by Beelzebul.
Luk 11:19 If I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your children drive them out? Because of this, they will be your judges.
Luk 11:20 But if I drive out demons by the finger of Yehowah, then the Kingdom of Yehowah has come to you.
Luk 11:21 When a strong man who is fully armed guards his own house, his goods are safe,
Luk 11:22 but when a stronger man overcomes him, the stronger man takes away the armor that he trusted in and plunders the man's possessions.
Luk 11:23 The one who is not with me is against me, and the one who does not gather with me scatters.
Luk 11:24 When an unclean spirit has gone away from a person, it passes through waterless places and looks for rest. Finding none, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.'
Luk 11:25 Having returned, it finds that house swept out and put in order.
Luk 11:26 Then it goes and takes along with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all come in to live there. Then the final condition of that person becomes worse than the first."
Luk 11:27 It happened, that as he taught these things, a certain woman raised her voice above the crowd and shouted to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts that nursed you!"
Luk 11:28 But he responded, "Rather, blessed are they who hear the Word of Yehowah and obey it" (The Shema; Deut. 6:4ff)!
Luk 11:29 As the crowds were increasing, Yeshua began to speak, "This generation is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, though no sign will be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet.
Luk 11:30 For just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so too the Son of the virgin will be a sign to this generation (Luke 2:34).
Luk 11:31 The Queen of Sheba will rise up at the Judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and see, Someone greater than Solomon is here (1 Kings 10:1).
Luk 11:32 The people of Nineveh will stand up at the Judgment with this generation of people and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and see, Someone greater than Jonah is here.
Luk 11:33 No one, after lighting a lamp, puts it in a hidden place or under a basket, but on a menorah, so that those who enter may see the light.
Luk 11:34 Your eye is the lamp of the body. When your eye is good, the whole body is filled with light. But when your eye is bad, your body is full of darkness.
Luk 11:35 Therefore, be careful that the light in you is not darkness.

Luk 11:36 If then your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, then your whole body will be like when a lamp shines its brightness on you."
Luk 11:37 When he had finished speaking, a Pharisee asked him to eat with him at his house, so Yeshua went in and reclined.
Luk 11:38 And the Pharisee was surprised that he first did not wash before dinner.
Luk 11:39 But Yeshua responded to him, "Now then, you Pharisees clean the outside of cups and bowls, but the inside of you is filled with greed and evil.
Luk 11:40 You senseless people! Did not the One who made the outside also make the inside?
Luk 11:41 Clean what is inside, and then all things will be clean for you (Mat. 23:26).
Luk 11:42 But woe to you Pharisees, because you tithe the mint, rue, and every other garden herb, but you neglect justice and the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah. It is necessary to act justly and unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah, without failing to do the other things also.
Luk 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the front seats in the houses of assembly and respectful greetings in the marketplaces.
Luk 11:44 Woe to you scribes and pharisees, hypocrites, for you are like unmarked graves that people walk over without knowing it."
Luk 11:45 And a certain teacher of the law answered him, "Teacher, what you say insults us too."
Luk 11:46 Yeshua proclaimed, "And woe to you, teachers of the law! For you burden people with burdens hard to carry, but you do not even touch those burdens with one of your own fingers.
Luk 11:47 Woe to you, because you build tombs for the prophets, and it was your ancestors who killed them.
Luk 11:48 So you are witnesses, and you consent to the works of your ancestors, for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.
Luk 11:49 For this reason also, the Wisdom of Yehowah prophesied, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles, and they will persecute and kill some of them.'
Luk 11:50 This generation then, will be held responsible for all the blood of the prophets shed since the world began,
Luk 11:51 from Abel's blood to the blood of Zechariah, who was murdered between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I say to you, this generation will be held responsible.
Luk 11:52 Woe to you teachers of the law, because you have taken away the key of knowledge; you do not enter in yourselves, and you hinder those who are entering."
Luk 11:53 After Yeshua left there, the scribes and the Pharisees opposed him and argued with him about many things,

Luk 11:54 trying to trap him in his own words, so they could formally charge him.

Luke Chapter 12

Luk 12:1 In the meantime, when many thousands of the people were gathered together, so much that they trampled on each other, he began to preach to his disciples first of all, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
Luk 12:2 But there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be known.
Luk 12:3 So whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed upon the housetops.
Luk 12:4 I say to you my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that they have no more that they can do.
Luk 12:5 But I will warn you about whom to fear. Fear the One who, after he has killed, has authority to throw you into hell. Yes, I say to you, fear Him.
Luk 12:6 Are not five sparrows sold for two small coins? Yet not one of them is forgotten in the sight of Yehowah.
Luk 12:7 But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear. You are more valuable than many sparrows.
Luk 12:8 I say to you, everyone who confesses me before people, the Son of Man will also confess before the angels of Yehowah,
Luk 12:9 but he who denies me before people will be denied before the angels of Yehowah.
Luk 12:10 Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him, but to him who blasphemes against Ruach ha’Kodesh, it will not be forgiven.
Luk 12:11 When they bring you before the houses of assembly, the rulers, and the authorities, do not worry about how you will speak in your defense, or what you will say,
Luk 12:12 for Ruach ha’Kodesh will teach you in that hour what you should say.”
Luk 12:13 Then someone from the crowd entreated him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”
Luk 12:14 Yeshua asked him, “Man, who made me a judge or a mediator over you?”
Luk 12:15 And he taught them, “Watch that you keep yourselves from all greedy desires, because a person’s life does not consist of the abundance of his possessions.”
Luk 12:16 Then Yeshua told them a parable, “The field of a rich man yielded abundantly,
Luk 12:17 and he reasoned with himself, asking, ‘What will I do, because I do not have a place to store my crops?’

Luk 12:18 He said, ‘This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all of my grain and other goods.
Luk 12:19 I will say to my soul, “Soul, you have many goods stored up for many years. Rest easy, eat, drink, and be merry.”’
Luk 12:20 But Yehowah said to him, ‘Foolish man, tonight your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’
Luk 12:21 That is what someone is like who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich toward Yehowah.”
Luk 12:22 Yeshua instructed his disciples, “Therefore, I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear.
Luk 12:23 For life is more than food, and the body is more than clothes.
Luk 12:24 Consider the ravens, that they do not sow or reap. They have no storeroom or barn, but Yehowah feeds them. How much more valuable you are than the birds!
Luk 12:25 And which of you by being anxious can add a minute to his lifespan?
Luk 12:26 If then you are not able to do even that smallest thing, why do you worry about the rest?
Luk 12:27 Consider the lilies, how they grow. They do not labor, neither do they spin. Yet I say to you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.
Luk 12:28 If Yehowah so clothes the grass in the field, which exists today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you immature faithfuls!
Luk 12:29 Do not look for what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not be anxious.
Luk 12:30 For all the ethnicities of the world look for these things, and your Father knows that you need them.
Luk 12:31 But seek the Kingdom of Yehowah, and all these things will be added to you.
Luk 12:32 Do not fear, little flock, because your Father is well pleased to give you the Kingdom.
Luk 12:33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Make for yourselves purses which will not wear out, treasure in Heaven that does not run out, where no thief comes near, and no moth destroys.
Luk 12:34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
Luk 12:35 Let your long clothing be tucked in at your belt, and let your lamps be kept burning,
Luk 12:36 and be like people looking for their master when he returns from the wedding, so that when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open the door for him.

Luk 12:37 Blessed are those servants, whom the master will find watching when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will tuck in his long clothing at his belt, and have them sit down at the table, and he will come and serve them.
Luk 12:38 If the master comes in the second watch of the night, or if even in the third watch, and finds them ready, blessed are those servants.
Luk 12:39 Moreover, know this, that if the master of the house had known the hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.
Luk 12:40 Be ready also, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man comes."
Luk 12:41 Peter asked, "Lord, are you telling this parable only to us, or also to everyone?"
Luk 12:42 Yeshua responded, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager whom his lord will set over his other servants to give them their portion of food at the right time?
Luk 12:43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord finds doing that when he comes.
Luk 12:44 Truly, I say to you, that he will set him over all his property.
Luk 12:45 But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his return,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink, and to become drunk,
Luk 12:46 the lord of that servant will come in a day when he does not expect, and in an hour that he does not know, and will remove him from his supervision and appoint a place for him with the unfaithful.
Luk 12:47 That servant, having known his lord's will, and not having prepared or done according to his will, will be beaten with many blows.
Luk 12:48 But the one who did not know and did what deserved a beating, he will be beaten with a few blows. But everyone who has been given much, from them much will be required, and the one who has been entrusted with much, even more will be asked.
Luk 12:49 I intend to cast fire upon the earth (Mat. 3:11-12), and how I wish that it were already kindled.
Luk 12:50 But I have an immersion to be immersed with, and how I am distressed, until it is completed!
Luk 12:51 Do you think that I came to bring peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.
Luk 12:52 For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three people against two, and two people against three.
Luk 12:53 They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law" (Mic. 7:6; Mat. 10:34-35).

Luk 12:54 Yeshua was speaking to the crowds also, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, ‘A shower is coming,’ and so it happens.
Luk 12:55 And when a south wind is blowing, you say, ‘There will be a scorching heat,’ and it happens.
Luk 12:56 Hypocrites, you know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you do not know how to interpret the present time?
Luk 12:57 Why do you not judge what is right for yourselves?
Luk 12:58 For when you go with your adversary before the magistrate, on the way make an effort to settle the matter with him, so that he does not drag you to the judge, and so that the judge does not deliver you to the officer, and the officer does not throw you into prison.
Luk 12:59 I say to you, you will never come out from there, until you have paid the last bit of money.”

Luke Chapter 13

Luk 13:1 At that time, some people there told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pontius Pilate mixed with their own sacrifices.
Luk 13:2 Yeshua answered and asked them, "Do you think that these Galileans were more sinful than all the other Galileans, because they suffered in this way?
Luk 13:3 No, I tell you. But if you do not repent, all of you will perish in the same way.
Luk 13:4 Or those eighteen people on whom the Tower of Siloam fell and killed them, do you think they were worse sinners than other people in Jerusalem?
Luk 13:5 No, I say. But if you do not repent, all of you will also perish."
Luk 13:6 Yeshua told this parable, "Someone had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and looked for fruit on it but found none.
Luk 13:7 The man said to the gardener, 'Look, for three years I came and tried to find fruit on this fig tree and found none. Cut it down. Why let it waste the ground?'
Luk 13:8 The gardener answered, 'Lord, leave it alone this year, while I dig around it and put manure on it.
Luk 13:9 If it bears fruit next year, good; but if it does not, cut it down!'"
Luk 13:10 Now Yeshua was teaching in one of the houses of assembly during the Sabbath.
Luk 13:11 Behold, a woman was there who for eighteen years had an evil spirit of weakness, and she was bent over and not able to completely stand up.
Luk 13:12 When Yeshua saw her, he called to her, "Woman, you are freed from your weakness!"
Luk 13:13 He placed his hands on her, and immediately she was straightened up, and she glorified Yehowah!
Luk 13:14 But the house of assembly ruler was indignant, because Yeshua had healed on the Sabbath. So the ruler answered the crowd, "There are six days in which it is necessary to work. Come and be healed then, not on the Sabbath day."
Luk 13:15 Yeshua answered him, "Hypocrites! Does not each of you untie your donkey or cow from its feeding stall and lead it to drink on the Sabbath?
Luk 13:16 So too this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, should her bonds not be untied on the Sabbath day?"
Luk 13:17 As he said these things, all those who opposed him were ashamed, but the whole crowd was rejoicing over all the glorious things he did.
Luk 13:18 Then Yeshua taught, "What is the Kingdom of Yehowah like, and what can I compare it to?

Luk 13:19 It is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and threw into his garden, and it grew into a big tree, and the birds of the sky built their nests in its branches."
Luk 13:20 Again he said, "To what can I compare the Kingdom of Yehowah?
Luk 13:21 It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of flour, until it spread through all the flour."
Luk 13:22 Yeshua visited each city and village on the way to Jerusalem and taught them.
Luk 13:23 Someone asked him, "Lord, are only a few people to be saved?" So he answered them,
Luk 13:24 "Struggle to enter through the narrow door, because I say to you, many will want to enter but will not be able to enter.
Luk 13:25 Once the owner of the house gets up and locks the door, then you will stand outside and knock at the door, and shout, 'Lord, Lord, let us in!' And he will answer you, 'I do not know you or where you are from.'
Luk 13:26 Then you will say, 'We ate and drank in front of you, and you taught in our streets.'
Luk 13:27 But he will reply, 'I say to you, I do not know where you are from. Get away from me, you evildoers!'
Luk 13:28 There will be crying and the grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of Yehowah, but you are thrown out.
Luk 13:29 They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and recline at a table in the Kingdom of Yehowah.
Luk 13:30 And know this, those who are least important will be first, and those who are most important will be last."
Luk 13:31 Shortly after, some Pharisees came and told him, "Go and leave here, because Herod Antipas wants to kill you."
Luk 13:32 Yeshua responded, "Go and tell that fox, 'Look, I cast out demons and perform healings today and tomorrow, and the third day I will reach my goal.'
Luk 13:33 In any case, it is necessary for me to continue on today, tomorrow, and the following day, since it is not acceptable to kill a prophet away from Jerusalem.
Luk 13:34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to you! How often I desired to gather your children, the way a hen gathers her brood under her wings, but you did not desire this.
Luk 13:35 See, your house is abandoned. Truly, I say to you, you will not see me, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yehowah'" (Psa. 118:26; Mat. 23:39)!

Luke Chapter 14

Luk 14:1 It happened one Sabbath, when he went into the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees to eat bread, that they were watching him closely.
Luk 14:2 Behold, there in front of him was a man who was suffering from edema.
Luk 14:3 Yeshua asked the experts in the Jewish law and the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?"
Luk 14:4 But they kept silent. So Yeshua took hold of him, healed him, and sent him away.
Luk 14:5 He asked them, "Which of you who has a donkey or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day will not immediately pull him out?"
Luk 14:6 They were not able to give an answer to these things.
Luk 14:7 When Yeshua noticed how those who were invited chose the seats of honor, he spoke a parable to them,
Luk 14:8 "When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not recline in the place of honor, because someone may have been invited who is more honored than you.
Luk 14:9 When the person who invited both of you arrives, he will say to you, 'Give this other person your place,' and then in shame you will proceed to take the lowest place.
Luk 14:10 But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who recline at the table with you (Prov. 25:6-7).
Luk 14:11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."
Luk 14:12 Yeshua also said to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends, nor your brethren or sistren, nor your relatives, nor your rich neighbors, as they may also invite you in return, and you will be repaid.
Luk 14:13 But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind,
Luk 14:14 and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the just."
Luk 14:15 When one of them who sat at the table with Yeshua heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will eat bread in the Kingdom of Yehowah!"
Luk 14:16 But Yeshua responded to him, "A certain man prepared a large dinner and invited many.
Luk 14:17 When the dinner was prepared, he sent his servant to say to those who were invited, 'Come, because everything is now ready.'

Luk 14:18 They all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please excuse me.’
Luk 14:19 And another said, ‘I have bought five pairs of oxen, and I am going to try them out. Please excuse me.’
Luk 14:20 And another man said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.’
Luk 14:21 The servant came and told his master these things. Then the master of the house became angry and ordered his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in here the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’
Luk 14:22 The servant reported, ‘Master, what you commanded has been done, and yet there is still room.’
Luk 14:23 The master ordered the servant, ‘Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
Luk 14:24 For I say to you, none of those men who were invited will taste my dinner.’”
Luk 14:25 Now large crowds were going with him, and he turned and preached to them,
Luk 14:26 “If anyone comes to me and does not love his father and mother, his wife and children, his brothers and sisters, yes, even his own life, less than he loves me, he cannot be my disciple.
Luk 14:27 Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.
Luk 14:28 For which of you, who desires to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost to calculate if he has what he needs to complete it?
Luk 14:29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to mock him,
Luk 14:30 ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish.’
Luk 14:31 Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take advice about whether he is able with ten thousand soldiers to fight the other king who comes against him with twenty thousand warriors?
Luk 14:32 And if not, while the other military force is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for conditions of peace.
Luk 14:33 So therefore, any one of you who does not give up all that he has cannot be my disciple.
Luk 14:34 Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its taste, how can it be made salty again?
Luk 14:35 It is of no use for the soil or even for the manure pile. It is thrown away. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke Chapter 15

Luk 15:1 Now all the tax collectors and other sinners were coming to Yeshua to listen to him.
Luk 15:2 Both the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled to each other, “This man welcomes sinners and even eats with them.”
Luk 15:3 Yeshua spoke this parable to them,
Luk 15:4 “Which one of you, if he has a hundred sheep and then loses one of them, will not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the lost one, until he finds it?
Luk 15:5 Then when he has found it, he lays it across his shoulders and rejoices!
Luk 15:6 When he comes to the house, he calls together his friends and neighbors, shouting to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost sheep!’
Luk 15:7 I say to you, that even so, there will be joy in Heaven over one sinner who repents, more than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.
Luk 15:8 Or what woman who has ten silver coins, if she were to lose one coin, would not light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently, until she has found it?
Luk 15:9 And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I lost!’
Luk 15:10 Even so, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of Yehowah over one sinner who repents!”
Luk 15:11 Then Yeshua preached, “A certain man had two sons,
Luk 15:12 and the younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the portion of the wealth that falls to me.’ So he divided his property between them.
Luk 15:13 Not many days later, the younger son gathered together all he owned and went to a country far away, and there he wasted all his wealth by living recklessly.
Luk 15:14 Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine spread through that country, and he began to be in need.
Luk 15:15 He went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.
Luk 15:16 And he would gladly have eaten the carob pods that the pigs ate, because no one gave him anything.
Luk 15:17 But when the young son came to his senses, he cried, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have more than enough food, and I am here dying from hunger!
Luk 15:18 I will leave here and go to my father, and will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against Heaven and in your sight.

Luk 15:19 I am no more worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired servants.’”
Luk 15:20 So the young son left and came toward his father. While he was still far away, his father saw him, was moved with compassion, ran, hugged, and kissed him.
Luk 15:21 The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against Heaven and in your sight. I am not worthy to be called your son.’
Luk 15:22 But the father ordered his servants, ‘Bring quickly the best robe, put it on him, put a ring on his hand, and sandals on his feet.
Luk 15:23 Then bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let us celebrate with a feast!
Luk 15:24 For my son was dead, and now he is alive! He was lost, and now he is found!’ And they began to celebrate.
Luk 15:25 Now his elder son was out in the field. As he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.
Luk 15:26 He called to one of the servants and asked what these things might be.
Luk 15:27 The servant answered him, ‘Your brother has come home, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has returned safely.’
Luk 15:28 The elder son was angry and would not go in, and his father came out and begged him.
Luk 15:29 But the elder son answered his father, ‘Look, these many years I slaved for you, and I never broke a rule of yours, and yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might celebrate with my friends,
Luk 15:30 but when your son came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed for him the fattened calf.’
Luk 15:31 The father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.
Luk 15:32 But it was proper for us to feast and be happy, for this brother of yours was dead and is now alive; he was lost and has now been found!’”

Luke Chapter 16

Luk 16:1 Yeshua also taught the disciples, “There was a certain rich man who had a manager, and it was reported to him that this manager was wasting his possessions.
Luk 16:2 So the rich man called him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give an account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’
Luk 16:3 The manager said to himself, ‘What should I do, since my master is taking away my management job? I do not have strength to dig, and I am ashamed to beg.
Luk 16:4 I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from my management job, people will welcome me into their homes.’
Luk 16:5 Then the manager called for each one of his master’s debtors, and he asked the first one, ‘How much do you owe to my master?’
Luk 16:6 He answered, ‘3 kiloliters of olive oil.’ And he said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write 1.5 kiloliters.’
Luk 16:7 Then the manager asked another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He answered, ‘One thousand bushels of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill and write eight hundred.’
Luk 16:8 The master then commended the unrighteous manager, because he had acted shrewdly. For the children of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own people than are the Sons of Light (Essenes).
Luk 16:9 I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of unrighteous money, so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal dwellings.
Luk 16:10 He who is faithful in little is also faithful in much, and he who is unrighteous in little is also unrighteous in much.
Luk 16:11 If you have not been faithful in using unrighteous money, who will trust you with true wealth?
Luk 16:12 And if you have not been faithful in using other people’s money, who will give you money of your own?
Luk 16:13 No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and unconditionally selflessly love the other, or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve Yehowah and avarice.”
Luk 16:14 Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, and they ridiculed him.
Luk 16:15 And he answered them, “You justify yourselves in the sight of people, but Yehowah knows your hearts. That which is exalted among people is detestable in the sight of Yehowah.

Luk 16:16 The law and the prophets (aka Tanakh) were preached as a testimony confirming John. From that time on, the good news of the Kingdom of Yehowah is preached, and everyone tries to force their way into it.
Luk 16:17 But it is easier for Heaven and earth to pass away than for one kots (thorn or stroke of a yod) of the law to become invalid.
Luk 16:18 Everyone who puts away his wife (without a written contract of divorce) and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries one who is put away from her husband (without a written contract of divorce) commits adultery (Mat. 19; Deut. 24:1-4).
Luk 16:19 Now there was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and was enjoying his great wealth every day.
Luk 16:20 A certain beggar named Lazarus was laid at his gate, covered with sores, Luk 16:21 and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores.
Luk 16:22 It came about that the beggar died and was carried away by the angels to Abraham's lap (Paradise). The rich man also died and was buried,
Luk 16:23 and in the place of the dead, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far away and Lazarus at his side.
Luk 16:24 So he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame!'
Luk 16:25 But Abraham replied, 'Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things. But now he is comforted here, and you are in agony.
Luk 16:26 And besides all this, a great chasm has been put in place, so that those who want to cross over from here to you cannot, and no one can cross over from there to us.'
Luk 16:27 The rich man said, 'I beg you, Father Abraham, that you would send him to my father's house,
Luk 16:28 for I have five brothers, in order that he may warn them, for fear that they also come into this place of torment.'
Luk 16:29 But Abraham responded, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them listen to them.'
Luk 16:30 The rich man replied, 'No, Father Abraham, but if someone would go to them from the dead, they will repent.'
Luk 16:31 But Abraham answered him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.'"

Luke Chapter 17

Luk 17:1 Yeshua taught his disciples, "Certainly, temptations to sin will come at you, but woe to that person through whom they come!
Luk 17:2 It would be better for him if a millstone were put around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.
Luk 17:3 Watch yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him (Lev. 19:17).
Luk 17:4 If he sins against you seven times in the day and seven times returns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."
Luk 17:5 The apostles entreated the Lord, "Increase our faith."
Luk 17:6 Yeshua answered, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.
Luk 17:7 But which of you, who has a servant plowing or keeping sheep, will order him when he has come in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down to eat?'
Luk 17:8 Will he not say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat, and put a belt around your clothes and serve me, until I have finished eating and drinking. Then afterward, you will eat and drink?'
Luk 17:9 He does not thank the servant, because he did the things that were commanded, does he?
Luk 17:10 Even so you also, when you have done everything that you are commanded, should say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have only done what we ought to do.'"
Luk 17:11 It came about that as he traveled to Jerusalem, he went along the border between Samaria and Galilee.
Luk 17:12 As he entered into a certain village, there he was met by ten men who were lepers. They stood far away from him,
Luk 17:13 and they lifted up their voices, crying, "Yeshua, Master, have mercy on us!"
Luk 17:14 When he saw them, he ordered them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And it came about that, as they went, they were cleansed.
Luk 17:15 When one of them saw that he was healed, he turned back, with a loud voice glorifying Yehowah!
Luk 17:16 He bowed down at the feet of Yeshua, giving him thanks. He was a Samaritan.
Luk 17:17 Yeshua asked, "Were not the ten cleansed? Where are the nine?

Luk 17:18 Were there no others who returned to give glory to Yehowah, except this foreigner?”
Luk 17:19 He assured him, “Arise and go. Your faith has made you well.”
Luk 17:20 Being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of Yehowah would come, Yeshua answered them, “The Kingdom of Yehowah does not come with careful observing.
Luk 17:21 Neither will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or ‘There it is!’ For look, the Kingdom of Yehowah is within you.”
Luk 17:22 He prophesied to the disciples, “The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it.
Luk 17:23 Then they will say to you, ‘Look there! Look here!’ But do not go out or run after them,
Luk 17:24 for as the lightning shines brightly when it flashes from one part of the sky to another part of the sky, so will the Son of Man be in his Day.
Luk 17:25 But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.
Luk 17:26 As it happened in the days of Noah (c. 3398 BC), even so will it also happen in the days of the Son of the virgin.
Luk 17:27 They ate, they drank, they married, and they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the Flood came and destroyed them all.
Luk 17:28 Likewise, even as it happened in the days of Lot, they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building.
Luk 17:29 But in the day that Lot went out from Sodom (c. 2066 BC), it rained fire and sulfur from Heaven and destroyed them all.
Luk 17:30 After the same manner, it will be in the Day that the Son of Man is revealed.
Luk 17:31 In that Day, do not let him who is on the housetop go down to get his goods out of the house. And do not let him who is in the field return.
Luk 17:32 Remember Lot’s wife.
Luk 17:33 Whoever seeks to keep his life will destroy it, but whoever destroys his life will preserve it.
Luk 17:34 I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. One will be taken, and the other will be left.
Luk 17:35 There will be two women grinding together. One will be taken, and the other will be left.
Luk 17:36 There will be two in the field; one will be taken and the other left.”
Luk 17:37 They asked him, “Where to, Lord?” And he answered them, “Where there is a body, there will the vultures also be gathered together” (Rev. 19:17-18; Eze. 39:17-20; Mat. 24:28; Lev. 11:13; Heb. nesher; Deut. 28:49).

Luke Chapter 18

Luk 18:1 Then he spoke a parable to them about how they should always pray and not become discouraged,
Luk 18:2 “In a certain city there was a judge who did not fear Yehowah, and he did not respect people.
Luk 18:3 Now there was a widow in that city, and she came often to him, pleading, ‘Help me get justice against my opponent.’
Luk 18:4 For a long time he was not willing to help her, but after awhile he said to himself, ‘Though I do not fear Yehowah or respect people,
Luk 18:5 yet because this widow causes me trouble, I will help her get justice, so that she does not wear me out by her constant coming.’”
Luk 18:6 Then Yeshua said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says.
Luk 18:7 Now, will not Yehowah also bring justice to his chosen ones who cry out to him day and night? Will he delay long over them?
Luk 18:8 I say to you, that he will bring justice to them speedily. Even so, when the Son of Man comes, will he indeed find faith on the earth?”
Luk 18:9 Then he also spoke this parable to some who were persuaded in themselves that they were righteous, and who despised other people,
Luk 18:10 “Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector.
Luk 18:11 The Pharisee stood and prayed these things about himself, ‘Yehowah, I thank you that I am not like other people, robbers, unrighteous people, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.
Luk 18:12 I fast two times every week. I give tithes of all that I get.’
Luk 18:13 But the tax collector, standing at a distance, would not even lift up his eyes to Heaven, but hit his chest, praying, ‘Yehowah, be merciful to me, a sinner.’
Luk 18:14 I say to you, this man went back down to his house justified rather than the other, because everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but everyone who humbles himself will be exalted.”
Luk 18:15 The people were also bringing to him their infants, so that he might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
Luk 18:16 But Yeshua called them to him, teaching, “Permit the little children to come to me and do not forbid them. For the Kingdom of Yehowah belongs to such ones.
Luk 18:17 Truly, I say to you, whoever will not receive the Kingdom of Yehowah like a child will definitely not enter it.”
Luk 18:18 A certain ruler asked him, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Luk 18:19 Yeshua answered him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good, except One, Yehowah.
Luk 18:20 You know the commandments, do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not testify falsely, honor your father and mother.”
Luk 18:21 The ruler replied, “All these things I have obeyed from the time I was a youth.”
Luk 18:22 When Yeshua heard that, he commanded him, “One thing you still lack. You must sell all that you have and distribute it to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven, and come follow me.”
Luk 18:23 But when the ruler heard these things, he became extremely sad, for he was superabundantly rich.
Luk 18:24 Then Yeshua, seeing him become intensely sad, proclaimed, “How difficult it is for those who are rich to enter the Kingdom of Yehowah!
Luk 18:25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye, than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of Yehowah.”
Luk 18:26 Those hearing it asked, “Then who can be saved?”
Luk 18:27 Yeshua answered, “The things which are impossible with people are possible with Yehowah.”
Luk 18:28 Peter responded, “Well, we have left everything that is our own and have followed you.”
Luk 18:29 Yeshua then proclaimed to them, “Truly, I say to you, that there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of Yehowah, Luk 18:30 who will not receive much more in this world, and in the age to come, eternal life.”
Luk 18:31 After he gathered the Twelve to himself, he prophesied to them, “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that have been written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished.
Luk 18:32 For he will be given over to the ethnicities, and will be mocked, shamefully treated, and spit upon.
Luk 18:33 After whipping him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise again.”
Luk 18:34 They understood none of these things, and this word was hidden from them, and they did not understand the things that were said.
Luk 18:35 It came about that, as Yeshua approached Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting by the road begging,
Luk 18:36 and hearing a crowd going by, he asked what was happening.
Luk 18:37 They told him that Yeshua the Natsari was passing by.
Luk 18:38 So the blind man cried out, “Yeshua, Son of David, have mercy on me!”
Luk 18:39 The ones who were walking ahead rebuked the blind man, telling him to be quiet. But he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Luk 18:40 Yeshua stood still and ordered that the man be brought to him. Then when the blind man was near, Yeshua asked him,
Luk 18:41 “What do you want me to do for you?” He answered, “Lord, I want to receive my sight.”
Luk 18:42 Yeshua said to him, “Receive your sight. Your faith has saved you.”
Luk 18:43 Immediately, he received his sight and followed him, glorifying Yehowah! And all the people, when they saw this, gave praise to Yehowah!

Luke Chapter 19

Luk 19:1 Yeshua entered and was passing through Jericho.
Luk 19:2 Behold, there was a man there named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich.
Luk 19:3 He was trying to see who Yeshua was but could not see over the crowd, because he was short in height.
Luk 19:4 So he ran on ahead of the people and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, because Yeshua was about to pass that way.
Luk 19:5 When Yeshua came to the place, he looked up and ordered him, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house."
Luk 19:6 So he hurried and came down and welcomed him joyfully.
Luk 19:7 When everyone saw this, they all complained, "He has gone in to visit a man who is a sinner."
Luk 19:8 Zacchaeus stood and vowed to Yeshua, "Look, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone of anything, I will restore four times the amount."
Luk 19:9 Yeshua said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this household, because he too is a son of Abraham.
Luk 19:10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the people who are lost."
Luk 19:11 As they heard these things, he continued speaking and told a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and they thought that the Kingdom of Yehowah was about to appear immediately.
Luk 19:12 He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and then to return.
Luk 19:13 He called ten of his servants, and gave them 500 coins (Eze. 45:12), and instructed them, 'Conduct business until I come back.'
Luk 19:14 But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We will not have this man rule over us.'
Luk 19:15 It happened when he came back again, having received the kingdom, he commanded the servants to whom he had given the money to be called to him, that he might know what profit they had made by doing business.
Luk 19:16 The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your 50 coins has made 500 coins more.'
Luk 19:17 The nobleman said to him, 'Well done, good servant. Because you were faithful in little, you will have authority over ten cities.'
Luk 19:18 The second came, saying, 'Your 50 coins, lord, has made 250 coins.'
Luk 19:19 The nobleman said to him, 'You take charge over five cities.'
Luk 19:20 And another came, saying, 'Lord, here's your 50 coins, which I kept safely in a cloth,

Luk 19:21 for I was afraid of you, because you are a severe man. You take up that which you did not lay down, and reap that which you did not sow.'
Luk 19:22 The nobleman said to him, 'By your own words I will judge you, you wicked servant. You knew that I am a severe man, taking up that which I did not lay down, and reaping that which I did not sow.
Luk 19:23 Then why did you not put my money in the bank, so that when I returned I would have collected it with interest?'
Luk 19:24 The nobleman said to them that stood by, 'Take away from him the 50 coins, and give them to him that has the 500 coins.'
Luk 19:25 They said to him, 'Lord, he has 500 coins.'
Luk 19:26 'I say to you, that everyone who has will be given more, but from him that has not, even that which he has will be taken away.
Luk 19:27 But these enemies of mine, those who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and execute them before me'" (Mat. 25:14-30).
Luk 19:28 When he had said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.
Luk 19:29 It came about that when he came near to Bethphage and Bethany, to the Mount that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples,
Luk 19:30 ordering, "Go into the next village. As you enter, you will find a colt tied that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it to me.
Luk 19:31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' answer, 'The Lord has need of it.'"
Luk 19:32 Those who were sent, went and found the colt just as Yeshua had told them.
Luk 19:33 As they were untying the colt, the owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?"
Luk 19:34 They answered, "The Lord has need of it."
Luk 19:35 They brought it to Yeshua, and they threw their coats upon the colt and set Yeshua on it.
Luk 19:36 As he went, they spread their coats on the road.
Luk 19:37 As he was now approaching the place where the Mount of Olives descends, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise Yehowah with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen,
Luk 19:38 "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of Yehowah! Peace in Heaven and glory in the highest" (Psa 118:26)!
Luk 19:39 Some of the Pharisees in the multitude entreated him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."
Luk 19:40 Yeshua answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would cry out!"
Luk 19:41 When Yeshua approached and saw the city, he wept over it,

Luk 19:42 crying, “If only you had known in this day, even you, the things which bring you peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.
Luk 19:43 For the days will come upon you, when your enemies will build a barricade around you, and surround you, and press in on you from every side.
Luk 19:44 They will strike you down to the ground and your children with you. They will not leave one stone upon another, because you did not recognize the appointed time of your character inspection, when Yehowah was trying to save you.”
Luk 19:45 Yeshua entered the temple and began to cast out those who were buying and selling,
Luk 19:46 rebuking them, “It is written, ‘My temple will be a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a den of robbers!”
Luk 19:47 So Yeshua was teaching daily in the temple. The chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people wanted to kill him,
Luk 19:48 but they could not find a way to do it, because all the people were intently listening to him.

Luke Chapter 20

Luk 20:1 It came about one day, as Yeshua was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came to him with the elders.
Luk 20:2 They asked him, “Tell us by what authority you do these things? Or who is he that gave you this authority?”
Luk 20:3 He responded to them, “I also will ask you a question.
Luk 20:4 Tell me about the immersion of John. Was it from Heaven or from humans?”
Luk 20:5 They reasoned with themselves, “If we say, ‘From Heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’
Luk 20:6 But if we say, ‘From humans,’ all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.”
Luk 20:7 So they answered that they did not know where it came from.
Luk 20:8 Yeshua answered them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”
Luk 20:9 He told the people this parable, “A landowner planted a vineyard, rented it out to vine growers, and went into another country for a long time.
Luk 20:10 At the harvest season he sent a servant to the vine growers, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard. But the vine growers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.
Luk 20:11 He then sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.
Luk 20:12 He also sent yet a third, and they also wounded him and threw him out.
Luk 20:13 So the lord of the vineyard said, ‘What will I do? I will send my beloved son. Maybe they will respect him.’
Luk 20:14 But when the vine growers saw him, they discussed among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’
Luk 20:15 They threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the lord of the vineyard do to them?
Luk 20:16 He will come and destroy these vine growers and will give the vineyard to others.” And when they heard it, they exclaimed, “Yehowah forbid!”
Luk 20:17 But Yeshua looked at them and declared, “What is the meaning of that which is written: ‘The Stone that the builders rejected has become the Cornerstone?’
Luk 20:18 Every one who falls on that Stone will be broken to pieces. But on whomever it falls, it will crush” (Psa. 118:22; Isa. 8:14-15, 28:16,13).

Luk 20:19 So the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that hour, for they knew that he had spoken this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.
Luk 20:20 Watching him carefully, they sent out spies who pretended to be righteous, that they might find fault with his speech, so as to deliver him up to the civil authority of the governor.
Luk 20:21 They asked him, “Teacher, we know that you say and teach rightly, and are not influenced by anyone’s position, but you teach the truth about the Way of Yehowah.
Luk 20:22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”
Luk 20:23 But Yeshua understood their craftiness and asked them, “Why do you test me?”
Luk 20:24 “Show me a silver coin. Whose image and name is on it?” They answered, “Caesar’s.”
Luk 20:25 He taught them, “Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to Yehowah the things that belong to Yehowah.”
Luk 20:26 They were not able to find fault with what he had said in front of the people, but marveling at his answer, they were silent.
Luk 20:27 When some of the Sadducees came to him, the ones who say that there is no resurrection,
Luk 20:28 they asked him, “Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies, having a wife and being childless, the man should take the brother’s wife and have a child for his brother (Levirate marriage).
Luk 20:29 There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and died childless,
Luk 20:30 and the second married her but died childless as well.
Luk 20:31 The third took her, and likewise the seven also left no children, and died.
Luk 20:32 Afterward, the woman also died.
Luk 20:33 In the resurrection then, whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as their wife.”
Luk 20:34 Yeshua answered them, “The sons of this world marry and are given in marriage.
Luk 20:35 But those who are regarded as worthy in that age to receive the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage.
Luk 20:36 Neither can they die anymore, for they are equal to the angels and are children of Yehowah, being children of the resurrection.
Luk 20:37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the place concerning the thorn bush, where he calls Yehowah the Mighty One of Abraham, the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Jacob (Exo. 3:4-6).
Luk 20:38 Now he is not the Mighty One of the dead but of the living, because all live to him.”

Luk 20:40 For they did not dare ask him any more questions.
Luk 20:41 Yeshua asked them, “How do they say that the Messiah is David’s son?
Luk 20:42 For David himself says in the Book of Psalms, Yehowah invited my Lord, ‘Sit at my right hand,
Luk 20:43 until I make your enemies your footstool’ (Psa. 110:1).
Luk 20:44 David therefore calls the Messiah, ‘Lord,’ so how is he David’s son?”
Luk 20:45 In the hearing of all the people, he warned his disciples,
Luk 20:46 “Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love special greetings in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the houses of assembly, and chief places at feasts.
Luk 20:47 They also devour widows’ houses, and for a show, they make long prayers. Humans like this will receive greater condemnation.”

Luke Chapter 21

Luk 21:1 Yeshua looked up and saw the rich men who were putting their gifts into the treasury.
Luk 21:2 He saw a certain poor widow putting in two brass coins.
Luk 21:3 So he taught, “Truly, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all of them.
Luk 21:4 All of these gave gifts to Yehowah out of their abundance. But this widow, out of her poverty, put in all she had to live on.”
Luk 21:5 As some spoke of the temple, how it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, he prophesied,
Luk 21:6 “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left on another which will not be torn down.”
Luk 21:7 So they asked him, “Teacher, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign when these things are about to happen?”
Luk 21:8 Yeshua answered, “Be careful that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I AM,’ and, ‘The time is near.’ Do not go after them.
Luk 21:9 When you hear of wars and riots, do not be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end will not happen immediately.”
Luk 21:10 Then he prophesied to them, “Ethnicity will rise against ethnicity and kingdom against kingdom.
Luk 21:11 In various places, there will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues. There will be terrifying events and great signs from Heaven (Dan. 2:21).
Luk 21:12 But before all of these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you over to the houses of assembly and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors because of my name.
Luk 21:13 It will lead to an opportunity for your testimony.
Luk 21:14 Therefore, resolve in your hearts not to prepare your defense ahead of time,
Luk 21:15 for I will give you words and wisdom, which all your adversaries will not be able to resist or contradict.
Luk 21:16 But you will be delivered up also by parents, brethren and sistren, relatives and friends, and they will kill some of you.
Luk 21:17 You will be hated by everyone because of my name.
Luk 21:18 But not a hair of your head will perish.
Luk 21:19 In your endurance, you will gain your souls.
Luk 21:20 When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armed forces, then know that its destruction is near.
Luk 21:21 Then let those in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are in the middle of the city leave, and do not let those who are in the country enter it.

Luk 21:22 For these are Days of Vengeance, so that all the things that are written will be fulfilled.
Luk 21:23 Woe to them who are pregnant and to them who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress upon the land and wrath on this people.
Luk 21:24 And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and they will be led captive into all the ethnicities, and Jerusalem will be trampled by the ethnicities, until the times of the ethnicities are fulfilled.
Luk 21:25 There will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars. And on the earth, there will be distress of the ethnicities, in despair from the roar of the sea and waves.
Luk 21:26 There will be people fainting from fear and from expectation of the things which are coming upon the world. For the heavenly powers will be shaken.
Luk 21:27 Then they will see the Son of the virgin coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
Luk 21:28 But when these things begin to happen, stand up and lift up your heads, because your deliverance is coming near."
Luk 21:29 Yeshua told them a parable, "Look at the fig tree and all the trees.
Luk 21:30 When they sprout buds, you see for yourselves and know that summer is already near.
Luk 21:31 So also, when you see these things happening, you know that the Kingdom of Yehowah is near.
Luk 21:32 Truly, I say to you, this period of time will not pass, until all these things take place.
Luk 21:33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.
Luk 21:34 But pay attention to yourselves, so that your hearts are not burdened with the effects of drinking and intoxication, and the worries of life, and then that Day will close on you suddenly like a trap.
Luk 21:35 For it will come upon everyone living on the face of the whole earth.
Luk 21:36 But be alert at all times, praying that you may be counted worthy (or have strength) to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."
Luk 21:37 So during the days he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out and stayed on the Mount of Olives.
Luk 21:38 All of the people came at dawn to hear him in the temple.

Luke Chapter 22

Luk 22:1 Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread was approaching, which is called the Passover.
Luk 22:2 The chief priests and the scribes discussed how they could murder Yeshua, for they were afraid of the people.
Luk 22:3 Then Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, who was one of the Twelve.
Luk 22:4 Judas went to the chief priests and captains, and discussed with them how he would betray Yeshua to them.
Luk 22:5 They were glad and agreed to give him money.
Luk 22:6 He consented and looked for an opportunity to deliver him to them away from the crowd.
Luk 22:7 And the season of Unleavened Bread came, on which the Passover lambs must be repeatedly continuously sacrificed.
Luk 22:8 Yeshua sent Peter and John, ordering, "Go and prepare for us the Passover, so that we may eat it."
Luk 22:9 They asked him, "Where do you want us to make preparations?"
Luk 22:10 He answered them, "Listen, when you have entered the city, a man bearing a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he goes into.
Luk 22:11 Then say to the head of the household, 'The Teacher asks you, "Where is the guest room, where I will eat the Passover with my disciples?"'
Luk 22:12 He will show you a large furnished upper room. Make the preparations there."
Luk 22:13 So they went and found everything as he had prophesied to them. Then they prepared the Passover.
Luk 22:14 When the hour came, he sat down with the twelve apostles.
Luk 22:15 Then he said to them, "I have greatly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.
Luk 22:16 But I say to you, I will not eat it, until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of Yehowah" (Nazirite vow; Num. 6).
Luk 22:17 Then Yeshua took a cup, and when he had given thanks to Yehowah, he said, "Take this and share it among yourselves.
Luk 22:18 For I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the Kingdom of Yehowah comes."
Luk 22:19 Then he took unleavened bread, and when he had given thanks to Yehowah, he broke it and gave to them, saying, "This represents my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me" (Exo. 24:8; Jer. 31:31; Zech. 9:11; 1 Cor. 11:25; Num. 10:10; the Zikkaron).

Luk 22:20 He took the cup in the same way while dining, saying, “This cup represents the New Covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you (Lev. 17:10-14; Gen. 9:4; Isa. 53:12).
Luk 22:21 But pay attention. The one who betrays me is with me at the table.
Luk 22:22 For the Son of Man indeed goes as it has been determined. But woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!”
Luk 22:23 And they began to discuss among themselves which one of them it might be who would do this.
Luk 22:24 Then there arose also a quarrel among them about which of them was considered to be greatest.
Luk 22:25 He taught them, “The kings of the ethnicities are masters over them, and the ones who have authority over them are referred to as those who do good to their people.
Luk 22:26 But it must not be like this with you. Instead, let the one who is the greatest among you become like the youngest. And let the one who is the most important become like the one who serves.
Luk 22:27 For who is greater, the one who sits at the table, or the one who serves? Is it not the one who sits at the table? Yet I am among you as One who serves.
Luk 22:28 But you are the ones who have continued with me in my temptations.
Luk 22:29 I give to you a kingdom, even as my Father has given a kingdom to me,
Luk 22:30 that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. And you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
Luk 22:31 Simon, Simon, be aware, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat.
Luk 22:32 But I have prayed for you, that your faith may not fail. After you have repented, strengthen your brothers.”
Luk 22:33 Peter responded to him, “Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death.”
Luk 22:34 Yeshua replied, “I tell you, Peter, the Temple Herald will not shout at daybreak, before you deny three times that you know me.”
Luk 22:35 Then Yeshua asked them, “When I sent you out without a money belt, a backpack of provisions, or sandals, did you lack anything?” And they answered, “Nothing.”
Luk 22:36 Then he instructed them, “But now, the one who has a money belt, let him take it, and also a backpack of provisions. The one who does not have a sword should sell his cloak and buy one.
Luk 22:37 For I say to you, what is written about me must be fulfilled, ‘And he was regarded as one of the lawless.’ For what is predicted about me is being fulfilled.”

Luk 22:38 Then they said, “Lord, look! Here are two swords.” And he replied to them, “It is enough.”
Luk 22:39 Yeshua went out, as he often did, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed him.
Luk 22:40 When they arrived, he said to them, “Pray that you do not enter into temptation.”
Luk 22:41 He went away from them about a stone’s throw, and he knelt down and prayed,
Luk 22:42 “Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours be done.”
Luk 22:43 Then an angel from Heaven appeared to him, strengthening him.
Luk 22:44 Being in agony, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat became like large thick drops of blood falling down upon the ground.
Luk 22:45 When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping because of their sorrow,
Luk 22:46 and said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Rise and pray, that you may not enter into temptation.”
Luk 22:47 While he was still speaking, behold, a crowd appeared with Judas, one of the Twelve, leading them. He came near to Yeshua to kiss him,
Luk 22:48 but Yeshua asked him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”
Luk 22:49 When those who were around Yeshua saw what was happening, they asked, “Lord, should we strike with the sword?”
Luk 22:50 Then one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.
Luk 22:51 Yeshua answered, “Let this be enough.” And he touched his ear and healed him.
Luk 22:52 Yeshua said to the chief priests, to the captains of the temple, and to the elders who came against him, “Do you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs?
Luk 22:53 When I was daily with you in the temple, you did not lay your hands on me. But this is your hour and the authority of darkness.”
Luk 22:54 Seizing him, they led him away and brought him into the high priest’s house. But Peter followed from a distance.
Luk 22:55 After they had kindled a heaping charcoal fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat in the midst of them.
Luk 22:56 A certain female servant saw him as he sat in the light of the fire and looked straight at him, and said, “This man also was with him.”
Luk 22:57 But Peter denied it, “Woman, I do not know him.”
Luk 22:58 After a little while, someone else saw him and said, “You are also one of them.” But Peter replied, “Sir, I am not.”

Luk 22:59 After about an hour, another man insisted, “Truly, this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean.”
Luk 22:60 But Peter responded, “Sir, I do not know what you are saying.” And immediately, while he was speaking, the Temple Herald shouted.
Luk 22:61 Turning, the Lord looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of Yeshua, when he prophesied to him, “Before the Temple Herald shouts at daybreak, you will deny me three times.”
Luk 22:62 Going outside, Peter wept bitterly.
Luk 22:63 Then the men guarding Yeshua mocked and beat him.
Luk 22:64 They put a cover over him, punched him in the face, and asked him, “Prophesy! Who is the one who hit you?”
Luk 22:65 They spoke many other things against Yeshua, blaspheming him.
Luk 22:66 As soon as it was daylight, the elders of the people gathered together, both chief priests and scribes. They led him into the Sanhedrin,
Luk 22:67 and said, “If you are the Messiah, tell us.” But he replied to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe,
Luk 22:68 and if I ask you, you will not answer me or release me.
Luk 22:69 But from now on, the Son of the virgin will be seated at the right hand of the power of Yehowah.”
Luk 22:70 They all asked, “Then you are the Son of Yehowah?” And Yeshua answered them, “You say that I AM.”
Luk 22:71 They said, “Why do we still need a witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.”

Luke Chapter 23

Luk 23:1 The whole company of them rose up and brought Yeshua before Pontius Pilate.
Luk 23:2 They began to accuse him, “We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, and declaring that he himself is King Messiah.”
Luk 23:3 Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” And Yeshua answered him, “As you say.”
Luk 23:4 Pilate told the chief priests and the multitudes, “I find no fault in this man.”
Luk 23:5 But they were insisting, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place.”
Luk 23:6 So when Pilate heard about Galilee, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.
Luk 23:7 When he discovered that he was under Herod’s authority, he sent Yeshua to Herod Antipas, who himself also was at Jerusalem in those days.
Luk 23:8 When Herod saw Yeshua, he was extremely glad, because he had wanted to see him for a long time. He had heard about him, and he hoped to see some miracle done by him.
Luk 23:9 Herod questioned Yeshua in many words, but Yeshua answered him nothing.
Luk 23:10 The chief priests and the scribes stood, violently accusing him.
Luk 23:11 Herod, with his soldiers, insulted Yeshua, and they mocked him. Then they dressed him in elegant clothes and sent him back to Pilate.
Luk 23:12 For Herod Antipas and Pontius Pilate had become friends with each other that day; before this, they had been enemies with each other.
Luk 23:13 Pilate then called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the crowd of people,
Luk 23:14 and spoke to them, “You brought to me this man like a person who is leading the people to rebellion, and see, I having questioned him before you, find no fault in this man concerning those things of which you accuse him.
Luk 23:15 No, nor does Herod, for he sent him back to us, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him.
Luk 23:16 I will therefore punish him and release him.”
Luk 23:17 Now Pilate was obligated to release to the Jews one prisoner at the appointment calendar festival.
Luk 23:18 But they cried out all together, “Away with this man and release to us Yehoshua Bar Rabban!”

Luk 23:19 Yehoshua Bar Rabban was a man who had been put into prison for a certain rebellion in the city and for murder.
Luk 23:20 Pilate addressed them again, desiring to release Yeshua.
Luk 23:21 But they shouted, “Crucify him, crucify him!”
Luk 23:22 He said to them a third time, “Why, what evil has this man done? I have found nothing deserving the death penalty in him. Therefore, after punishing him, I will release him.”
Luk 23:23 But they were insistent with loud voices, demanding for him to be crucified! And the voices of the crowd and chief priests convinced Pilate.
Luk 23:24 So Pilate decided to grant their demand.
Luk 23:25 He released the one they asked for, who had been put in prison for rioting and murder, but he delivered up Yeshua to their will.
Luk 23:26 As they led him away, they seized one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and they laid the crossbeam on him to carry, following Yeshua.
Luk 23:27 A great crowd of the people, and of women who grieved and mourned for him, were following him.
Luk 23:28 But turning to them, Yeshua prophesied, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me but weep for yourselves and for your children.
Luk 23:29 For see, the days are coming in which they will say, ‘Blessed are the sterile, the wombs that did not bear, and the breasts that did not nurse.’
Luk 23:30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us,’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’
Luk 23:31 For if they do these things while the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”
Luk 23:32 Other men, two criminals, were led away with him to be executed.
Luk 23:33 When they came to the place that is called “The Skull,” there they crucified him and the criminals, one on his right and one on his left.
Luk 23:34 Yeshua prayed, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” And they cast lots, dividing up his garments.
Luk 23:35 The people stood watching, while the rulers also were mocking him, “He saved others. Let him save himself, since he is the Messiah, the chosen of Yehowah.”
Luk 23:36 The soldiers also ridiculed him, approaching him, offering him vinegar,
Luk 23:37 and saying, “Since you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!”
Luk 23:38 There was also a sign over him, written in Greek, Latin, and Aramaic, “This is the King of the Jews.”
Luk 23:39 One of the criminals who was hanging there insulted him, “Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us.”
Luk 23:40 But the other rebuked him, “Do you not fear Yehowah, since you are under the same sentence?

Luk 23:41 We indeed are here justly, for we are receiving what we deserve for our deeds. But this man did nothing wrong."
Luk 23:42 And he entreated Yeshua, "Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom."
Luk 23:43 Yeshua replied to him, "Truly, I say to you today, you will be with me in paradise."
Luk 23:44 It was now about 12 pm, and darkness came over the whole land until 3 pm,
Luk 23:45 as the sun's light failed and covered the temple in darkness. Then the temple was split in two, and the lintel stone fell and broke to pieces, causing the curtain to split down the middle.
Luk 23:46 Yeshua cried with a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he died (c. 30 AD).
Luk 23:47 When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified Yehowah, "Surely this was a righteous man."
Luk 23:48 When all the multitudes who came together to witness this sight saw the things that were done, they returned, beating their chests.
Luk 23:49 But all those who knew him, and the women who followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.
Luk 23:50 Behold, there was a man named Joseph, who was a member of the Sanhedrin. He was a good and righteous man.
Luk 23:51 This man had not agreed with the decision of the Sanhedrin and their action. He was from the Judean town of Arimathea; and he was looking for the Kingdom of Yehowah.
Luk 23:52 This man, approaching Pilate, asked for the body of Yeshua.
Luk 23:53 He took it down, wrapped it in fine linen, and placed it in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid.
Luk 23:54 It was the Day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was imminent.
Luk 23:55 The women, who had come with Yeshua out of Galilee, followed after, saw the tomb, and how his body was laid.
Luk 23:56 They returned and prepared spices and ointments. Then on the Sabbath, they rested according to the commandment (Exo. 20:8; 12:16; Lev. 23:3, 6-7).

Luke Chapter 24

Luk 24:1 At daybreak, during the first (Omer day 1, Sunday) of the Sabbath weeks (counting to Pentecost), they came along with others to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.
Luk 24:2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb.
Luk 24:3 They entered in but did not find the body of Lord Yeshua.
Luk 24:4 It happened that while they were confused about this, suddenly, two men stood by them in bright shining robes.
Luk 24:5 As the women were filled with fear and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to the women, “Why do you seek the living among the dead?
Luk 24:6 He is not here but has been raised! Remember how he spoke to you when he was still in Galilee,
Luk 24:7 ‘The Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and on the third day rise again.’”
Luk 24:8 The women remembered his words,
Luk 24:9 returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the Eleven and all the rest.
Luk 24:10 Now Miriam Magdalene, Joanna, Miriam the mother of Jacob, and the other women with them reported these things to the apostles.
Luk 24:11 But this message seemed like idle talk to the apostles, and they did not believe the women.
Luk 24:12 Yet Peter rose up, and ran to the tomb, and stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves. Peter then departed to his home, wondering what had happened.
Luk 24:13 Behold, two adherents were going that day to a village named Emmaus (1 Sam. 6:20-7:2), which was 12 kilometers from Jerusalem.
Luk 24:14 They discussed with each other about all the things that had happened.
Luk 24:15 It happened that while they discussed and questioned together, Yeshua himself approached and went with them.
Luk 24:16 But their eyes were prevented from recognizing him (Mark 16:12).
Luk 24:17 Yeshua asked them, “What are the two of you talking about as you walk?” They stood there looking sad.
Luk 24:18 One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only sojourning foreigner in Jerusalem who does not know the things which have happened there these days?”
Luk 24:19 Yeshua asked them, “What things?” They answered him, “The things concerning Yeshua the Natsari, who was a prophet, mighty in deed and word before Yehowah and all the people.

Luk 24:20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death and crucified him.
Luk 24:21 But we hoped that it was he who would free Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since all these things happened.
Luk 24:22 But also, some women of our company amazed us, having been at the tomb at dawn.
Luk 24:23 When they did not find his body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive!
Luk 24:24 Some men who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said. But they did not see him."
Luk 24:25 Yeshua rebuked them, "O foolish men and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken.
Luk 24:26 Was it not necessary for Messiah to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?"
Luk 24:27 Then beginning from Moses and through all the prophets, Yeshua interpreted to them the things concerning himself in all the Scriptures (began at Gen. 3:15).
Luk 24:28 As they approached the village to which they were going, Yeshua acted as though he was going further.
Luk 24:29 But they compelled him, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening, and the daylight is almost gone." So Yeshua went in to stay with them.
Luk 24:30 It happened that when he had sat down with them to eat, he took the unleavened bread, blessed Yehowah, and breaking it, he gave it to them.
Luk 24:31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he vanished out of their sight.
Luk 24:32 They asked one another, "Was not our heart burning within us, while he spoke to us on the way, while he opened to us the Scriptures?"
Luk 24:33 They rose up at that hour and returned to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,
Luk 24:34 announcing, "The Lord is risen indeed and has appeared to Simon!"
Luk 24:35 So they told the things that happened on the way, and how Yeshua was shown to them in the breaking of the unleavened bread.
Luk 24:36 As they spoke these things, Yeshua himself stood in the midst of them and greeted them, "Peace be to you!"
Luk 24:37 But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they saw a spirit.
Luk 24:38 Yeshua said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do questions arise in your heart?
Luk 24:39 See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see me having."
Luk 24:40 When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

Luk 24:41 And they still could not believe it because of joy, and they were amazed! Yeshua asked them, "Do you have anything to eat?"
Luk 24:42 They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and a honeycomb,
Luk 24:43 and he took the food and ate before them.
Luk 24:44 He said to them, "When I was with you, I told you that all that was written about me in the Law of Moses, the prophets, and the Psalms (aka Tanakh) must be fulfilled."
Luk 24:45 Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures.
Luk 24:46 He instructed them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah should suffer and rise again from the dead on the third day.
Luk 24:47 And repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all the ethnicities, beginning from Jerusalem.
Luk 24:48 You are witnesses of these things.
Luk 24:49 See, I am sending you my Father's Promise. But remain in the City of Jerusalem, until you are clothed with power from on high."
Luk 24:50 Then (on Omer day 40; Acts 1:3) Yeshua led them out, until they were near Bethany. He lifted up his hands and blessed them (Num. 6:23-27).
Luk 24:51 It happened that while he was blessing them, he left them and was carried up into Heaven.
Luk 24:52 So they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy!
Luk 24:53 They were continually in the temple praising and blessing Yehowah! Amein.

Book of John

John Chapter 1

Joh 1:1 In the beginning (c. 5654 BC) was the Word (Aleph Tav), and the Word was beside Yehowah, and the Word was Yehowah (Rev. 19:13).
Joh 1:2 This One was in the beginning beside Yehowah.
Joh 1:3 All things were made through him, and without him there was not one thing made that has been made.
Joh 1:4 In him was life, and that life was the Light of all people.
Joh 1:5 The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.
Joh 1:6 There was a man who was sent from Yehowah, whose name was John.
Joh 1:7 He came as a witness to testify about the Light, that all might believe through him.
Joh 1:8 John was not the Light, but came that he might testify about the Light.
Joh 1:9 The true Light, which gives light to all people, was coming into the world.
Joh 1:10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not know him.
Joh 1:11 He came to his own, and his own did not receive him.
Joh 1:12 But to as many as received him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of Yehowah.
Joh 1:13 These were not born of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of Yehowah.
Joh 1:14 And the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. We have seen his glory, glory as of the One and only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.
Joh 1:15 John testified about him and cried out, “This was the One of whom I proclaimed, ‘He who comes after me is more than me, for he was before me!’”
Joh 1:16 For from his fullness we have all received grace after grace.
Joh 1:17 For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Yeshua Messiah.
Joh 1:18 No one has seen Yehowah at any time. The only begotten Son, who is at the side of the Father, he has made him known.
Joh 1:19 And this is the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites to him from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”
Joh 1:20 He freely stated and did not deny, but answered, “I am not the Messiah.”

Joh 1:21 So they asked him, “What are you then? Are you Elijah?” He answered, “I am not.” They asked, “Are you the Prophet” (Deut. 18:15, 18; Acts 3:22-23, 7:37; John 1:25; 6:14; 9:17)? He replied, “No.”
Joh 1:22 Then they asked him, “Who are you, so that we may give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?”
Joh 1:23 He explained, “I am a voice crying in the wilderness: ‘Make the Way of Yehowah straight,’ just as Isaiah the prophet said” (Isa. 40:3).
Joh 1:24 And those who were sent were from the Pharisees.
Joh 1:25 And they asked him, “Why do you immerse then, if you are not the Messiah nor Elijah nor the Prophet?”
Joh 1:26 And John answered them, “I immerse with water. But among you stands Someone you do not know.
Joh 1:27 He is the One who comes after me and is more than me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie.”
Joh 1:28 These things were done in Bethabara on the other side of the Jordan River, where John was immersing.
Joh 1:29 The next day (c. 27 AD), John saw Yeshua coming to him and proclaimed, “Look, there is the Lamb of Yehowah who takes away the sin of the world!
Joh 1:30 This is the One of whom I declared, ‘The One who comes after me is more than me, for he was before me.’
Joh 1:31 I did not know him, but it was so that he could be revealed to Israel that I came immersing in water.”
Joh 1:32 John testified, “I saw the Ruach descending like a dove from Heaven, and he stayed upon him.
Joh 1:33 I did not recognize him, but he who sent me to immerse in water said to me, ‘Upon whom you will see the Ruach descending and remaining on him, he is the One immersing in Ruach ha’Kodesh.’
Joh 1:34 I have both seen and testified that this is the Son of Yehowah.”
Joh 1:35 Again, the next day, as John was standing with two of his disciples,
Joh 1:36 they saw Yeshua walking by, and John proclaimed, “Look, the Lamb of Yehowah!”
Joh 1:37 And his two disciples heard him declare this, and they followed Yeshua.
Joh 1:38 Then Yeshua turned, saw them following him, and asked them, “What do you want?” They replied, “Rabbi” (which translated means, Teacher), “where are you staying?”
Joh 1:39 He answered them, “Come and see.” Then they came and saw where he was staying; they stayed with him that day, for it was about 4 pm.
Joh 1:40 One of the two who heard John speak and then followed Yeshua was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter.

Joh 1:41 He first found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Mashiach,” which translated is: Messiah.
Joh 1:42 He brought him to Yeshua. And Yeshua looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John, you will be called Cephas,” which translates: Peter.
Joh 1:43 The next day, when Yeshua wanted to leave to go to Galilee, he found Philip and ordered him, “Follow me.”
Joh 1:44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida (modern el-Araj), the city of Andrew and Peter.
Joh 1:45 Philip found Nathaniel and said to him, “He of whom Moses wrote in the law and the prophets (aka Tanakh), we have found him: Yeshua son of Joseph, from Natsareth.”
Joh 1:46 Nathaniel asked him, “Can any good thing come out of Natsareth?” Philip answered him, “Come and see.”
Joh 1:47 Yeshua saw Nathaniel coming to him and said about him, “See, a true Israeli, in whom is no deceit!”
Joh 1:48 Nathaniel asked him, “How do you know me?” Yeshua answered him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”
Joh 1:49 Nathaniel proclaimed, “Rabbi, you are the Son of Yehowah! You are the King of Israel!”
Joh 1:50 Yeshua replied to him, “Because I said to you, ‘I saw you underneath the fig tree,’ do you believe? You will see greater things than this.”
Joh 1:51 And he prophesied, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see Heaven opened, and the angels of Yehowah ascending and descending upon the Son of Man” (Gen. 28:12).

John Chapter 2

Joh 2:1 Three days later, there was a wedding in Cana (Khirbet Qana) of Galilee, and the mother of Yeshua was there.
Joh 2:2 Yeshua and his disciples were invited to the wedding.
Joh 2:3 When the wine ran out, the mother of Yeshua mentioned to him, “They have no wine.”
Joh 2:4 Yeshua responded to her, “Woman, what is that to you and to me? My time has not yet come.”
Joh 2:5 His mother ordered the servants, “Whatever he says to you, do it.”
Joh 2:6 Now there were six stone water pots there, used for the Jewish ceremonial washing, each containing 75 to 115 liters (Lev. 11:33ff; Num. 19).
Joh 2:7 Yeshua ordered them, “Fill the water pots with water.” So they filled them up to the brim.
Joh 2:8 Then he told the servants, “Take some out now and take it to the head waiter.” So they did.
Joh 2:9 The head waiter tasted the water that had become wine, but he did not know where it came from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom
Joh 2:10 and complimented him, “Every party host serves the good wine first, and then the cheaper wine when they are drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.”
Joh 2:11 This first sign Yeshua did in Cana of Galilee, and he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.
Joh 2:12 After this, Yeshua, his mother, his brothers, and his disciples went down to Capernaum, and they stayed there for a few days.
Joh 2:13 Now the Passover of the Jews was near (c. 28 AD), and Yeshua went up to Jerusalem.
Joh 2:14 He found sellers of oxen, sheep, and pigeons, and the money changers were sitting there.
Joh 2:15 So he made a whip of cords and drove all of them out from the temple, including both the sheep and the oxen. He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.
Joh 2:16 To the pigeon sellers he shouted, “Take these things away from here! Stop making the house of my Father a marketplace!”
Joh 2:17 His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your temple will consume me.”
Joh 2:18 Then the Jewish authorities responded and asked him, “What sign will you show us, since you are doing these things?”

Joh 2:19 Yeshua answered, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”
Joh 2:20 Then the Jewish authorities replied, “This temple has been under reconstruction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?”
Joh 2:21 However, he was speaking about the temple of his body.
Joh 2:22 After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he prophesied this, and they believed the Scripture, including this statement that Yeshua had spoken.
Joh 2:23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover (c. 28 AD), during the appointment calendar festival, many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he did.
Joh 2:24 But Yeshua did not trust in them because he knew them all,
Joh 2:25 because he did not need anyone to testify to him about humans, for he knew what was in humans.

John Chapter 3

Joh 3:1 Now there was a Pharisee whose name was Nicodemus, a Jewish leader.
Joh 3:2 This man came to Yeshua at night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher that came from Yehowah, for no one can do these signs that you do unless Yehowah is with him.”
Joh 3:3 Yeshua replied to him, “Truly, truly, unless someone is born from above (1 Pet. 1:23; 1 John 2:29), he cannot see the Kingdom of Yehowah.”
Joh 3:4 Nicodemus asked him, “How can a human be born from above? He cannot enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born, can he?”
Joh 3:5 Yeshua answered, “Truly, truly, unless someone is born of water and the Ruach, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of Yehowah.
Joh 3:6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Ruach is spirit.
Joh 3:7 Do not be amazed that I told you, ‘You must be born from above’ (Titus 3:5-6).
Joh 3:8 The wind blows wherever it wishes; you hear its sound, but you do not know where it came from or where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Ruach.”
Joh 3:9 Nicodemus asked him, “How can these things be?”
Joh 3:10 Yeshua answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?
Joh 3:11 Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak what we know, and we testify about what we have seen. Yet you do not accept our testimony.
Joh 3:12 If I told you about earthly things, and you do not believe, how will you believe, if I tell you about heavenly things?
Joh 3:13 No one has ascended into Heaven, except he who descended from Heaven, the Son of Man, who is in Heaven.
Joh 3:14 Just as Moses lifted up the (bronze) ophidian in the wilderness (Num. 21:4-9; 2 Kings 18:1-4; See G3789), so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
Joh 3:15 so that all who believe in him will not die but may have eternal life.
Joh 3:16 For Yehowah so unconditionally selflessly loved all the people of the world, that he gave his one and only Son (Isa. 9:6; Gen. 22:2), that whoever believes in him will not die but have eternal life.
Joh 3:17 For Yehowah did not send the Son into the world in order to condemn the world but in order to save the world through him.
Joh 3:18 He who believes in him is not condemned, but he who does not believe is already condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of Yehowah.

Joh 3:19 This is the reason for the judgment: The Light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the Light, because their deeds were evil.
Joh 3:20 For everyone who does evil hates the Light and does not come to the Light, so that his deeds will not be exposed.
Joh 3:21 However, he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that it may be plainly seen that his deeds have been done in Yehowah."
Joh 3:22 After this, Yeshua and his disciples went into the land of Judea. There he spent some time with them and immersed.
Joh 3:23 Now John was also immersing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there. People were coming to him and were being immersed,
Joh 3:24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison.
Joh 3:25 Then there arose a dispute between some of John's disciples and a Jew about ceremonial washing.
Joh 3:26 They went to John and said to him, "Rabbi, the One who was with you on the other side of the Jordan River, about whom you have testified, look, he is immersing, and they are all going to him."
Joh 3:27 John replied, "A man cannot receive anything, unless it has been given to him from Heaven.
Joh 3:28 You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Messiah,' but instead, 'I have been sent before him.'
Joh 3:29 The bride belongs to the bridegroom. Now the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the voice of the bridegroom. This then is my joy made complete.
Joh 3:30 He must increase, but I must decrease.
Joh 3:31 He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth is earthly and speaks about the earth. He who comes from Heaven is above all.
Joh 3:32 He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but no one accepts his testimony.
Joh 3:33 He who has received his testimony has confirmed that Yehowah is true.
Joh 3:34 For the One whom Yehowah has sent speaks the words of Yehowah. For Yehowah does not give the Ruach by measure.
Joh 3:35 The Father unconditionally selflessly loves the Son and has given all things into his hand.
Joh 3:36 He who believes in the Son has eternal life, but the one who disobeys the Son will not see life, but the wrath of Yehowah stays on him."

John Chapter 4

Joh 4:1 Now when Yeshua knew that the Pharisees had heard that he was making and immersing more disciples than John,
Joh 4:2 although Yeshua himself was not immersing, but his disciples were,
Joh 4:3 he left Judea and went back again to Galilee.
Joh 4:4 But it was necessary for him to go through Samaria.
Joh 4:5 So he came to a town of Samaria, called Sychar, near the piece of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.
Joh 4:6 The Well of Jacob was there. Yeshua was tired from his journey and sat by the well. It was about 12 pm.
Joh 4:7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Yeshua entreated her, "Give me some water to drink."
Joh 4:8 For his disciples had gone away into the town to buy food.
Joh 4:9 Then the Samaritan woman asked him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, are asking me, being a Samaritan woman, for something to drink?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.
Joh 4:10 Yeshua answered her, "If you had known the gift of Yehowah, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."
Joh 4:11 The woman asked him, "Sir, you do not have a bucket, and the well is deep. Where then do you have the living water?
Joh 4:12 You are not greater, are you, than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock?"
Joh 4:13 Yeshua answered her, "Everyone who drinks from this water will be thirsty again,
Joh 4:14 but whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. Instead, the water that I will give him will become a fountain of water in him, springing up to eternal life" (Isa. 12:3; 55:1-3)!
Joh 4:15 The woman responded to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not become thirsty and not have to come here to draw water."
Joh 4:16 Yeshua ordered her, "Go, call your husband, and come back here."
Joh 4:17 The woman answered him, "I do not have a husband." Yeshua replied, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband,' Joh 4:18 for you have had five husbands, and the one you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true."
Joh 4:19 The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet.
Joh 4:20 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain (Mount Gerizim), but you say that Jerusalem is the place where people have to worship."

Joh 4:21 Yeshua spoke to her, “Believe me, woman, that an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.
Joh 4:22 You worship whom you do not know. We worship Whom we know, for salvation is from the Jews.
Joh 4:23 However, the hour is coming and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to be his worshipers.
Joh 4:24 Yehowah is Ruach, and the people who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”
Joh 4:25 The woman responded to him, “I know that Mashiach is coming, the One called Messiah. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”
Joh 4:26 Yeshua replied to her, “I AM, the One speaking to you.”
Joh 4:27 At that moment his disciples returned. Now they were wondering why he was speaking with a woman, but no one asked, “What do you want?” or “Why are you speaking with her?”
Joh 4:28 So the woman left her water pot, went back to the town, and said to the people,
Joh 4:29 “Come, see a Man who told me everything that I have ever done. This could not be the Messiah, could he?”
Joh 4:30 They left the town and came to him.
Joh 4:31 In the meantime, the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, eat.”
Joh 4:32 But he responded to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”
Joh 4:33 So the disciples asked each other, “No one has brought him anything to eat, have they?”
Joh 4:34 Yeshua taught them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work.
Joh 4:35 Do you not say, ‘There are four more months, and then the harvest comes?’ Look, I am saying to you, look up and see the fields, for they are already white for harvest!
Joh 4:36 He who is harvesting receives wages and gathers fruit for everlasting life, so that he who sows and he who harvests may rejoice together.
Joh 4:37 For in this the saying, ‘One sows and another harvests,’ is true.
Joh 4:38 I sent you to harvest what you have not worked for. Others have worked, and you have entered into their labor.”
Joh 4:39 Many of the Samaritans in that city believed in him, because of the report of the woman who was testifying, “He told me everything that I have done.”
Joh 4:40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days.
Joh 4:41 And many more believed because of his word.

Joh 4:42 They proclaimed to the woman, “We no longer believe because of what you said, for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this One is indeed the Messiah, the Savior of the world!”
Joh 4:43 After those two days, he departed from there for Galilee.
Joh 4:44 For Yeshua himself declared that a prophet has no honor in his own hometown.
Joh 4:45 When he came into Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him. They had seen all the things that he had done in Jerusalem at the appointment calendar festival, for they had also gone to the festival.
Joh 4:46 Now he came again to Cana (Khirbet Qana) in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. There was a certain royal official whose son in Capernaum was ill.
Joh 4:47 When he heard that Yeshua had come from Judea to Galilee, he went to Yeshua and asked him to come down and heal his son, who was about to die.
Joh 4:48 Yeshua then replied to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders, you will not believe.”
Joh 4:49 The official pleaded with him, “Sir, come down before my child dies!”
Joh 4:50 Yeshua responded to him, “Go. Your son lives.” The man believed the word that Yeshua spoke to him, and he went away.
Joh 4:51 While he was going down, his servants met him, saying that his son was living.
Joh 4:52 So he asked them the hour when he began to improve. They replied to him, “Yesterday, at 1 pm the fever left him.”
Joh 4:53 Then the father realized that it was at that hour that Yeshua had said to him, “Your son lives.” So he himself and his whole household believed.
Joh 4:54 This was the second sign that Yeshua did when he came out of Judea to Galilee.

John Chapter 5

Joh 5:1 After this, there was a festival of the Jews (c. 28 AD), and Yeshua went up to Jerusalem.
Joh 5:2 Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which in Aramaic is called Bethesda, and it has five roofed porches (2 Kings 18:17; Isa. 7:3; 12:3; John 7:38).
Joh 5:3 A large number of people who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed were lying there, waiting for the moving of the water.
Joh 5:4 For an angel went down into the pool and stirred up the water at certain times, and whoever stepped in while the water was stirring was healed from whatever disease he suffered from.
Joh 5:5 A certain man was there who had been sick for thirty-eight years.
Joh 5:6 When Yeshua saw him lying there, and after he realized that he had been there a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be healthy?"
Joh 5:7 The sick man answered, "Sir, I do not have anyone to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. When I come, another steps down before me."
Joh 5:8 Yeshua commanded him, "Get up, pick up your bed and walk."
Joh 5:9 Immediately, the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked. Now that day was a Sabbath.
Joh 5:10 So the Jews warned him who was healed, "It is the Sabbath, and you are not permitted to carry your mat."
Joh 5:11 He replied, "He who made me healthy told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"
Joh 5:12 They asked him, "Who is the Man that said to you, 'Pick it up and walk?'"
Joh 5:13 However, the one who was healed did not know who it was, because Yeshua had gone away secretly, for there was a crowd in the place.
Joh 5:14 Afterward, Yeshua found him in the temple and instructed him, "See, you have become healthy! Do not sin anymore, so that something worse will not happen to you."
Joh 5:15 The man went away and reported to the Jews that it was Yeshua who had made him healthy.
Joh 5:16 Now because of these things, the Jews persecuted Yeshua, because he did these things on the Sabbath.
Joh 5:17 Yeshua responded to them, "My Father is working even now, and I too, am working."
Joh 5:18 Because of this, the Jews sought even more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called Yehowah his own Father, making himself equal to Yehowah.

Joh 5:19 Yeshua answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of himself, except only what he sees the Father doing, for whatever the Father is doing, the Son does these things also.
Joh 5:20 For the Father loves the Son, and he shows him everything that he himself does, and he will show him greater things than these, so that you will be amazed.
Joh 5:21 For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whomever he wishes.
Joh 5:22 For the Father judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son,
Joh 5:23 so that everyone will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.
Joh 5:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned, but he has passed from death to life.
Joh 5:25 Truly, truly, I tell you the time is coming, and is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of Yehowah, and those who hear will live.
Joh 5:26 For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has also given to the Son, so that he has life in himself,
Joh 5:27 and the Father has given the Son authority to carry out judgment, because he is the Son of Man.
Joh 5:28 Do not be amazed at this, for there is a time coming in which everyone who is in the tombs will hear his voice
Joh 5:29 and will come out: Those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment.
Joh 5:30 I can do nothing from myself. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous, because I am not seeking my own will, but the will of the Father who sent me.
Joh 5:31 If I should testify about myself, my testimony would not be true.
Joh 5:32 There is Another who testifies about me, and you know that the testimony that he gives about me is true.
Joh 5:33 You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.
Joh 5:34 But the testimony that I receive is not from humans. I say these things that you might be saved.
Joh 5:35 John was a lamp that was burning and shining, and you were willing to rejoice in his light for awhile.
Joh 5:36 Yet the testimony that I have is greater than that of John, for the works that the Father has given me to accomplish, the exact works that I do, testify about me that the Father has sent me.
Joh 5:37 The Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You have neither heard his voice nor seen his form at any time.

Joh 5:38 You do not have his word remaining in you, for you are not believing in the One whom he has sent.
Joh 5:39 You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life, and these same Scriptures testify about me (Deut. 6:7),
Joh 5:40 and you are not willing to come to me, so that you may have life.
Joh 5:41 I do not receive praise from people,
Joh 5:42 but I know that you do not have the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah in yourselves.
Joh 5:43 I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another should come in his own name, you would receive him.
Joh 5:44 How can you believe, you who accept praise from one another but are not seeking the praise that comes from Yehowah only?
Joh 5:45 Do not think that I myself will accuse you before the Father. The one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have put your hopes.
Joh 5:46 If you believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me.
Joh 5:47 If you do not believe his writings (law), how are you going to believe my words?"

John Chapter 6

Joh 6:1 After these things, Yeshua went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias (Lake Kinneret).
Joh 6:2 A great crowd was following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing on those who were sick.
Joh 6:3 Yeshua went up the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples.
Joh 6:4 Now the Passover, the Jewish appointment calendar festival, was near (c. 29 AD).
Joh 6:5 When Yeshua looked up and saw a great crowd coming to him, he asked Philip, "Where are we going to buy bread, so that these may eat?"
Joh 6:6 But Yeshua asked this to test Philip, for he himself knew what he was going to do.
Joh 6:7 Philip answered him, "Two hundred silver coins worth of bread would not be sufficient for each one to have even a little."
Joh 6:8 One of the disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to Yeshua,
Joh 6:9 "There is a boy here who has five loaves of barley bread and two fish, but what are these among so many?"
Joh 6:10 Yeshua ordered, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a lot of grass in the place. So a total of about five thousand men sat down.
Joh 6:11 Then Yeshua took the loaves and after giving thanks to Yehowah, he gave it to the disciples who gave it to those who were sitting. He did the same with the fish, as much as they wanted.
Joh 6:12 When the people were filled, he instructed his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which remain, so that nothing will be lost."
Joh 6:13 So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten (Mat. 14:13; Mark 6:30; Luke 9:10).
Joh 6:14 Then when the people saw this sign that Yeshua did, they proclaimed, "This truly is the Prophet who is to come into the world" (Deut. 18:15, 18; Acts 3:22-23, 7:37; John 1:21, 25; 9:17)!
Joh 6:15 When Yeshua realized that they were about to come and seize him by force to make him king, he withdrew again up the mountain by himself.
Joh 6:16 At dusk, his disciples went down to the Sea.
Joh 6:17 They climbed into a boat and were going over the Sea to Capernaum. It was dark by this time, and Yeshua had not yet come to them.
Joh 6:18 And a strong wind was blowing, and the Sea was getting rough.
Joh 6:19 When they had rowed about four or five kilometers, they saw Yeshua walking on the Sea and coming near the boat, and they were afraid.
Joh 6:20 But he shouted to them, "It is I! Do not be afraid!"

Joh 6:21 Then they were willing to receive him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land where they were going.
Joh 6:22 The next day, the crowd that had been standing on the other side of the Sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one that the disciples had climbed into, and that Yeshua had not entered it with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone.
Joh 6:23 However, there were some boats that came from Tiberias close to the place where they had eaten the bread, after the Lord had given thanks.
Joh 6:24 When the crowd discovered that neither Yeshua nor his disciples were there, they themselves climbed into the boats and went to Capernaum seeking Yeshua.
Joh 6:25 After they found him on the other side of the Sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"
Joh 6:26 Yeshua answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate some of the bread and were filled.
Joh 6:27 Do not work for the food that perishes, but work for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you, for Yehowah the Father has set his seal on him."
Joh 6:28 Then they asked him, "What must we do, so that we may do the works of Yehowah?"
Joh 6:29 Yeshua told them, "This is the work of Yehowah: That you believe in the One whom he has sent."
Joh 6:30 So they asked him, "What sign then will you do, so that we may see and believe you? What will you do?
Joh 6:31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written, 'He gave them bread from Heaven to eat'" (Exodus 16:4).
Joh 6:32 Then Yeshua answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the Bread (manna) out of Heaven, but it is my Father who is giving you the true Bread from Heaven.
Joh 6:33 For the Bread of Yehowah is he who comes down from Heaven and gives life to the world."
Joh 6:34 So they responded to him, "Sir, give us this bread always."
Joh 6:35 Yeshua proclaimed to them, "I AM the Bread of Life; he who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty (Isa. 55:1-3).
Joh 6:36 But I told you that indeed you have seen me, and you do not believe.
Joh 6:37 Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me, and he who comes to me, I will certainly not throw out.
Joh 6:38 For I have come down from Heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me.

Joh 6:39 And this is the will of him who sent me, that I would not lose one of all those whom he has given me but will raise them up on the last Day.
Joh 6:40 For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in him would have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last Day."
Joh 6:41 Then the Jews grumbled about him, because he had declared, "I AM the Bread that has come down from Heaven."
Joh 6:42 They asked, "Is not this Yeshua, son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he now say, 'I have come down from Heaven?'"
Joh 6:43 Yeshua answered them, "Stop grumbling among yourselves.
Joh 6:44 No one can come to me, unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up on the last Day.
Joh 6:45 It is written in the prophets, 'Everyone will be taught by Yehowah.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me.
Joh 6:46 Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from Yehowah, he has seen the Father.
Joh 6:47 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in me has eternal life.
Joh 6:48 I AM the Bread of Life.
Joh 6:49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.
Joh 6:50 This is the Bread which comes down from Heaven, so that a person may eat some of it and not die.
Joh 6:51 I AM the living Bread that came down from Heaven. If anyone eats some of this Bread, he will live forever. The Bread is my flesh, that I will give for the life of the world."
Joh 6:52 The Jews became angry among themselves and began to argue, asking, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"
Joh 6:53 Then Yeshua taught them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in yourselves.
Joh 6:54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has everlasting life, and I will raise him up on the last Day.
Joh 6:55 For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.
Joh 6:56 He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him.
Joh 6:57 As the living Father sent me, and as I live because of the Father, so he who eats me, he will also live because of me.
Joh 6:58 This is the Bread that has come down from Heaven, not as the fathers ate manna and died. He who eats this Bread will live forever."
Joh 6:59 Yeshua said these things in the house of assembly, while he was teaching in Capernaum.
Joh 6:60 Then many of his disciples who heard this asked, "This is a difficult teaching; who can accept it?"
Joh 6:61 Yeshua, because he knew in himself that his disciples were grumbling at this, asked them, "Does this offend you?

Joh 6:62 Then what if you should see the Son of Man going up to where he was before?
Joh 6:63 It is the Ruach who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words that I have spoken to you are Ruach, and they are life.
Joh 6:64 Yet there are some of you who do not believe.” For Yeshua knew from the beginning who were the ones that would not believe, and who it was who would betray him.
Joh 6:65 He stated, “It is because of this that I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is granted to him by the Father.”
Joh 6:66 Because of this, many of his disciples went away and no longer walked with him.
Joh 6:67 Then Yeshua asked the Twelve, “You do not want to go away also, do you?”
Joh 6:68 Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom will we go? You have spoken words of eternal life,
Joh 6:69 and we have believed and come to know that you are Messiah, the Son of living Yehowah.”
Joh 6:70 Yeshua asked them, “Did not I choose you, the Twelve, and one of you is a devil?”
Joh 6:71 Now he spoke of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he, one of the Twelve, who would betray Yeshua.

John Chapter 7

Joh 7:1 And after these things, Yeshua traveled about in Galilee, for he did not want to go into Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him.
Joh 7:2 Now the Festival of Tabernacles in Judea was near (c. 29 AD).
Joh 7:3 His brothers therefore said to him, “Leave this place and go to Judea, so that your disciples also may see the works that you do.
Joh 7:4 No one does anything in secret, if he himself wants to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world.”
Joh 7:5 For even his brothers did not believe in him.
Joh 7:6 Yeshua therefore responded to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.
Joh 7:7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it that its works are evil.
Joh 7:8 You go up to the appointment calendar festival; I am not yet going to this festival, because my time has not yet been fulfilled.”
Joh 7:9 After he said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee.
Joh 7:10 But when his brothers had gone up to the appointment calendar festival, then he also went up to the festival, not publicly but in secret.
Joh 7:11 The Jews were looking for him at the festival and asked, “Where is he?”
Joh 7:12 There was much discussion among the crowds about him. Some said, “He is good.” Others said, “No, he leads the crowds astray.”
Joh 7:13 Yet no one spoke openly about him for fear of the Jews.
Joh 7:14 When the appointment calendar festival was already half over, Yeshua went up into the temple and began to teach.
Joh 7:15 Then the Jews marveled, asking, “How does this man know so much? He has never been educated.”
Joh 7:16 Yeshua taught them, “My teaching is not mine but is of him who sent me.
Joh 7:17 If anyone wishes to do his will, he will know about this teaching, whether it comes from Yehowah, or whether I speak from myself.
Joh 7:18 Whoever speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but whoever seeks the glory of him who sent him, that person is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him.
Joh 7:19 Did not Moses give you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me?”
Joh 7:20 The crowd answered, “You have a demon. Who seeks to kill you?”
Joh 7:21 Yeshua answered them, “I did one work, and you all marvel because of it.

Joh 7:22 Moses gave you circumcision, not that it is from Moses but from the ancestors, and on the Sabbath you circumcise a male.
Joh 7:23 If a male receives circumcision on the Sabbath, so that the Law of Moses is not broken, why are you angry with me, because I made a human being completely healthy on the Sabbath?
Joh 7:24 Do not judge according to appearance but judge righteously" (1 Sam. 16:7).
Joh 7:25 Some of them from Jerusalem asked, "Is not this the One they seek to kill?
Joh 7:26 And see, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. It cannot be that the rulers indeed know that this is the Messiah, can it?
Joh 7:27 Yet we know where this One is from. But when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from."
Joh 7:28 Then Yeshua cried out in the temple, proclaiming, "You both know me and know where I come from! I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, and you do not know him!
Joh 7:29 I know him, because I come from him, and he sent me!"
Joh 7:30 They were trying to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come.
Joh 7:31 But many in the crowd believed in him, and they asked, "When the Messiah comes, will he do more signs than what this One has done?"
Joh 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowds whispering these things about Yeshua, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.
Joh 7:33 Yeshua then prophesied, "I am still with you for a short time, and then I go to him who sent me.
Joh 7:34 You will seek me, but you will not find me; where I go, you will not be able to come."
Joh 7:35 The Jews therefore asked among themselves, "Where will this man go that we will not be able to find him? Will he go to the dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?
Joh 7:36 What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me but will not find me; where I go, you will not be able to come?'"
Joh 7:37 Now on the last great day of the Feast (of Tabernacles), Yeshua stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink!
Joh 7:38 He who believes in me, just as the Scripture says, rivers of living water will flow from his heart" (Isa. 12:3; Rev. 7:9-17; Isa. 49:10; Zech. 14:8; Joel 3:18; Mic. 4:2; Heb. 2:14)!
Joh 7:39 But he said this about the Ruach, whom those who believed in him would receive; Ruach ha'Kodesh had not yet been sent, because Yeshua was not yet glorified.

Joh 7:40 Some of the crowd, when they heard these words, said, “This is indeed the Prophet.”
Joh 7:41 Others said, “This is the Messiah.” But some asked, “Does the Messiah come from Galilee?
Joh 7:42 Have the Scriptures not said that the Messiah will come from the descendants of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?”
Joh 7:43 So there arose a division in the crowds because of him.
Joh 7:44 Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him.
Joh 7:45 Then the officers came back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, “Why did you not bring him?”
Joh 7:46 The officers answered, “Never has anyone spoken like this man.”
Joh 7:47 So the Pharisees rebuked them, “Have you also been deceived?
Joh 7:48 Have any of the rulers believed in him, or any of the Pharisees?
Joh 7:49 But this crowd that does not know the law, they are cursed.”
Joh 7:50 Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees, who came to him earlier at night, asked them,
Joh 7:51 “Does our law judge a man before hearing from him and knowing what he does?”
Joh 7:52 They answered him, “Are you also from Galilee? Search and see that no prophet comes from Galilee.”
Joh 7:53 Then everyone went to his own house.

John Chapter 8

Joh 8:1 Yeshua went to the Mount of Olives.
Joh 8:2 At dawn, he came to the temple again, and all the people came; he sat down and taught them.
Joh 8:3 The scribes and the Pharisees brought to him a woman caught in the act of adultery. They placed her in the middle.
Joh 8:4 Then they said to him, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in the criminal act of adultery.
Joh 8:5 Now in the law, Moses commanded us to execute such people by stoning; what do you say about her?”
Joh 8:6 They said this in order to trap him, so that they might have something to accuse him about, but Yeshua bent down and wrote on the ground with his finger.
Joh 8:7 When they continued asking him, he stood up and answered them, “He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.”
Joh 8:8 Again, he stooped down and wrote on the ground.
Joh 8:9 When they heard it, they were convicted in conscience, and they left one by one, beginning with the oldest. Finally, Yeshua was left alone with the woman who had been in the middle.
Joh 8:10 Yeshua stood up and seeing no one but the woman, asked her, “Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?”
Joh 8:11 She answered, “No one, Lord.” Yeshua stated, “Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more.”
Joh 8:12 Again, Yeshua spoke to them, “I AM the Light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in the darkness but will have the Light of Life.”
Joh 8:13 The Pharisees said to him, “You bear witness about yourself; your witness is not valid.”
Joh 8:14 Yeshua responded to them, “Even if I bear witness about myself, my witness is valid. I know where I came from and where I am going, but you do not know where I came from or where I am going.
Joh 8:15 You judge according to the flesh; I judge no one.
Joh 8:16 Yet if I judge, my judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me.
Joh 8:17 Yes, and in your law it is written that the testimony of two people is valid.
Joh 8:18 I AM bearing witness about myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness about me.”

Joh 8:19 They asked him, “Where is your father?” Yeshua answered, “You know neither me nor my Father; if you had known me, you would have known my Father also.”
Joh 8:20 Yeshua said these words in the treasury as he taught in the temple, and no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.
Joh 8:21 So again Yeshua prophesied to them, “I am going away; you will seek me and will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.”
Joh 8:22 The Jews asked, “Will he kill himself? Is that why he says, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come?’”
Joh 8:23 He explained to them, “You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.
Joh 8:24 Therefore, I said to you that you will die in your sins. For unless you believe that I AM, you will die in your sins.”
Joh 8:25 Accordingly, they asked him, “Who are you?” Yeshua answered them, “What I have said to you from the beginning.
Joh 8:26 I have many things to speak and to judge about you. However, he who sent me is true; and the things that I heard from him, these things I proclaim to the world.”
Joh 8:27 They did not understand that he was speaking to them about the Father.
Joh 8:28 Yeshua preached, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then will you know that I AM, and that I do nothing on my own initiative. As the Father taught me, I speak these things.
Joh 8:29 He who sent me is with me, the Father has not left me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to him.”
Joh 8:30 As he was saying these things, many believed in him.
Joh 8:31 Therefore, Yeshua said to those Jews who (thought that they) had believed him, “If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples;
Joh 8:32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”
Joh 8:33 They answered him, “We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves of anyone; how can you say, ‘You will be set free?’”
Joh 8:34 Yeshua answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is the slave of sin.
Joh 8:35 The slave does not remain in the house forever; the Son remains forever.
Joh 8:36 Therefore, if the Son sets you free, you will be truly free.
Joh 8:37 I know that you are Abraham’s descendants; you seek to kill me, because my word has no place in you.
Joh 8:38 I say what I have seen with my Father, and you also do what you heard from your father.”
Joh 8:39 They answered him, “Our father is Abraham.” Yeshua replied to them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the deeds of Abraham.

Joh 8:40 Yet, now you seek to kill me, a Man who has told you the truth that I heard from Yehowah. Abraham did not do this.
Joh 8:41 You do the works of your father.” They responded to him, “We were not born in sexual immorality; we have one Father: Yehowah.”
Joh 8:42 Yeshua answered them, “If Yehowah were your Father, you would unconditionally selflessly love me, for I came from Yehowah and am here; for neither have I come of myself, but he sent me.
Joh 8:43 Why do you not understand my words? It is because you cannot hear my words.
Joh 8:44 You are of your father, the Devil, and you wish to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own nature, because he is a liar and the father of lies.
Joh 8:45 Yet, because I speak the truth, you do not believe me.
Joh 8:46 Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe me?
Joh 8:47 He who is of Yehowah hears the words of Yehowah; you do not hear them, because you are not of Yehowah.”
Joh 8:48 The Jews responded by blaspheming him, “Do we not truly say that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?”
Joh 8:49 Yeshua answered, “I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.
Joh 8:50 I do not seek my glory; there is One seeking and judging.
Joh 8:51 Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death.”
Joh 8:52 The Jews blasphemed him, “Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham and the prophets died; but you say, ‘If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste death.’
Joh 8:53 You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are you? The prophets also died. Who do you make yourself out to be?”
Joh 8:54 Yeshua answered, “If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing; it is my Father who glorifies me, about whom you say that he is your Divine One.
Joh 8:55 You have not known him, but I know him. If I would say, ‘I do not know him,’ I would be like you, a liar. However, I know him and keep his word.
Joh 8:56 Your father Abraham rejoiced at seeing my Day; he saw it and was glad!”
Joh 8:57 The Jews asked him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and you have seen Abraham?”
Joh 8:58 Yeshua answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I AM” (Ahayah, Exo. 3:14-15).

Joh 8:59 Then they picked up stones to throw at him, but Yeshua hid himself and went out of the temple, going through the middle of them, and so walked away.

John Chapter 9

Joh 9:1 Now as Yeshua passed by, he saw a man blind from birth.
Joh 9:2 His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, so that he was born blind?"
Joh 9:3 Yeshua answered, "Neither did this man sin, nor his parents, but so that the works of Yehowah would be revealed in him.
Joh 9:4 I must work the works of him who sent me while it is day. Night is coming, when no one will be able to work.
Joh 9:5 While I am in the world, I AM the Light of the world."
Joh 9:6 After Yeshua said these things, he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and smeared the mud on his eyes.
Joh 9:7 He commanded him, "Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam (aka Silwan)," which translated is: Sent (1 Kings 1:33; 2 Kings 20:20; 2 Chron. 32:30; Isa. 22:9-11). So the man went away, washed, and came back seeing!
Joh 9:8 Then the man's neighbors and those who had seen him previously as a beggar were asking, "Is not this the man that used to sit and beg?"
Joh 9:9 Some answered, "It is he." Others said, "No, but he is like him." But he stated, "It is me."
Joh 9:10 They asked him, "Then how were your eyes opened?"
Joh 9:11 He answered, "The man who is called Yeshua made mud, smeared it on my eyes, and commanded me, 'Go to the Pool of Siloam (aka Silwan) and wash.' So I went and washed, and I received my sight."
Joh 9:12 They asked him, "Where is he?" He answered, "I do not know."
Joh 9:13 They brought the man who used to be blind to the Pharisees.
Joh 9:14 Now it was the Sabbath when Yeshua made the mud and opened his eyes.
Joh 9:15 Then again the Pharisees asked him how he had received his sight. He answered them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and now I can see."
Joh 9:16 Some of the Pharisees responded, "This man is not from Yehowah, because he does not keep the Sabbath." Others asked, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" So there was a division among them.
Joh 9:17 So they asked the formerly blind man again, "What do you say about him, since he opened your eyes?" The formerly blind man declared, "He is that Prophet" (Deut. 18:15, 18; Acts 3:22-23, 7:37; John 1:21, 25; 6:14)!

Joh 9:18 Now the Jews still did not believe about him that he was blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight.
Joh 9:19 They asked the parents, “Is this your son whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”
Joh 9:20 So his parents answered them, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind.
Joh 9:21 How he now sees, we do not know, and who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him, he is an adult. He can speak for himself.”
Joh 9:22 His parents said these things, because they were afraid of the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed that if anyone would profess Yeshua to be Messiah, he would be thrown out of the house of assembly.
Joh 9:23 Because of this, his parents said, “He is an adult, ask him.”
Joh 9:24 So for a second time, they called the man who had been blind and ordered him, “Give glory to Yehowah. We know that this man is a sinner.”
Joh 9:25 Then that man replied, “I do not know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: I was blind, and now I see!”
Joh 9:26 Then they asked him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”
Joh 9:27 He answered, “I have told you already, and you did not listen! Why do you want to hear it again? You do not want to become his disciples too, do you?”
Joh 9:28 They insulted him, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.
Joh 9:29 We know that Yehowah has spoken to Moses, but we do not know where this One is from.”
Joh 9:30 The man answered them, “This is remarkable, that you do not know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes.
Joh 9:31 We know that Yehowah does not listen to sinners, but if someone is a worshiper of Yehowah and does his will, he listens to him.
Joh 9:32 Since the world began, it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.
Joh 9:33 If this man were not from Yehowah, he could do nothing.”
Joh 9:34 They answered him, “You were completely born in sins, and you are teaching us?” Then they threw him out.
Joh 9:35 Yeshua heard that they had cast him out of the house of assembly. He found him and asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Yehowah?”
Joh 9:36 He replied and asked, “Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?”
Joh 9:37 Yeshua answered him, “You have seen him, and he is the One who is speaking with you.”
Joh 9:38 The man proclaimed, “Lord, I believe,” and he worshiped Him.
Joh 9:39 Yeshua declared, “For judgment I came into this world, so that those who do not see may see, and so that those who see may become blind.”

Joh 9:40 Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things and asked him, “Are we also blind?”
Joh 9:41 Yeshua answered them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin, but now you say, ‘We see,’ so your sin remains.”

John Chapter 10

Joh 10:1 “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter through the door into the sheep pen, but climbs up some other way, that person is a thief and a robber.
Joh 10:2 He who enters through the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
Joh 10:3 The doorman opens for him. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.
Joh 10:4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.
Joh 10:5 They will not follow a foreigner, but instead they will avoid him, for they do not know the voice of strangers.”
Joh 10:6 Yeshua spoke this parable to them, but they did not understand what these things were that he was saying to them.
Joh 10:7 Then Yeshua taught them again, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I AM the Door of the sheep.
Joh 10:8 Everyone who came before me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.
Joh 10:9 I AM the Door. If anyone enters in through me, he will be saved; he will go in and out and will find pasture.
Joh 10:10 The thief does not come except that he may steal, kill, and destroy. I have come, so that they will have life and have it superabundantly.
Joh 10:11 I AM the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
Joh 10:12 The hired servant is not a shepherd and does not own the sheep. He sees the wolf coming, abandons the sheep, and escapes. And the wolf carries them off and scatters them.
Joh 10:13 He runs away, because he is a hired servant and does not care for the sheep.
Joh 10:14 I AM the Good Shepherd, and I know my own, and my own know me.
Joh 10:15 The Father knows me, and I know the Father, and I lay down my life for the sheep.
Joh 10:16 I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice, so that there will be one flock and one Shepherd.
Joh 10:17 This is why the Father unconditionally selflessly loves me: I lay down my life, so that I may take it again.
Joh 10:18 No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”
Joh 10:19 A division again occurred among the Jews because of these words.

Joh 10:20 Many of them said, “He has a demon and is insane. Why do you listen to him?”
Joh 10:21 Others argued, “These are not the words of a demon possessed man. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”
Joh 10:22 Then it was time (9th month, 25th day, c. 29 AD) for the Festival of Dedication in Jerusalem (Hanukkah, Strong’s H2598; Chanukah, Lights; 1 Macc. 1:54, 4:52-61; 2 Macc. 10:5-9).
Joh 10:23 It was winter, and Yeshua was walking in the temple in the Portico of Solomon.
Joh 10:24 Then the Jews surrounded him and asked him, “How long will you hold us doubting? If you are the Messiah, tell us openly.”
Joh 10:25 Yeshua answered them, “I told you, but you do not believe. The works that I do in the name of my Father, these testify concerning me.
Joh 10:26 Yet you do not believe, because you are not my sheep, as I told you.
Joh 10:27 My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.
Joh 10:28 I give them eternal life; they will never die, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.
Joh 10:29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all others, and no one is able to snatch them out of the hand of the Father.
Joh 10:30 I and the Father are Oneness.”
Joh 10:31 Then the Jews took up stones again to execute him.
Joh 10:32 Yeshua answered them, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of those works are you stoning me?”
Joh 10:33 The Jews answered him, “We are not stoning you for any good work, but for blasphemy, because you, a human, are making yourself Yehowah.”
Joh 10:34 Yeshua answered them (Psa. 82:6-7), “Is it not written in your law, ‘I said, “You are deities?”’
Joh 10:35 If he called them deities, to whom the Word of Yehowah came, and the Scripture cannot be dissolved,
Joh 10:36 do you say to him whom the Father set apart and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I said, ‘I AM the Son of Yehowah?’
Joh 10:37 If I am not doing the works of my Father, do not believe me.
Joh 10:38 But if I am doing them, even if you do not believe me, believe in the works, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in me, and that I am in the Father.”
Joh 10:39 They tried to seize him again, but he went away out of their hand.
Joh 10:40 He went away again beyond the Jordan River to the place where John had first been immersing, and he stayed there.
Joh 10:41 Many people came to him, and they proclaimed, “John indeed did no signs, but all the things that John has said about this man are true.”
Joh 10:42 Many people believed in him there.

John Chapter 11

Joh 11:1 Now a certain man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Miriam and her sister Martha.
Joh 11:2 It was Miriam who anointed the Lord with myrrh and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.
Joh 11:3 The sisters then sent for Yeshua, entreating, “Lord, see, he whom you love is sick.”
Joh 11:4 When Yeshua heard it, he proclaimed, “This sickness is not to death, but instead it is for the glory of Yehowah, so that the Son of Yehowah may be glorified by it.”
Joh 11:5 Now Yeshua unconditionally selflessly loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus.
Joh 11:6 So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, Yeshua stayed two more days in the place where he was.
Joh 11:7 Then after this, he said to the disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.”
Joh 11:8 The disciples asked him, “Rabbi, right now the Jews are trying to stone you, and you are going back there again?”
Joh 11:9 Yeshua answered, “Are there not twelve hours of light in a day? If someone walks in the daytime, he will not stumble, because he sees by the light of this world.
Joh 11:10 However, if he walks at night, he will stumble, because the Light is not in him.”
Joh 11:11 He said these things, and after these things, he announced to them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going, so that I may wake him out of sleep.”
Joh 11:12 The disciples therefore replied to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”
Joh 11:13 Now Yeshua had spoken of his death, but they thought that he was speaking about the sleep of resting.
Joh 11:14 Then Yeshua told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead.
Joh 11:15 I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Moreover, let us go to him.”
Joh 11:16 Thomas, who was called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, so that we may die with him.”
Joh 11:17 When Yeshua came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.
Joh 11:18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about 3 kilometers away.
Joh 11:19 Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Miriam, to comfort them about their brother.

Joh 11:20 Then Martha, when she heard that Yeshua was coming, went to meet him, but Miriam was sitting in the house.
Joh 11:21 Martha then said to Yeshua, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.
Joh 11:22 Even now, I know that whatever you ask from Yehowah, Yehowah will give to you.”
Joh 11:23 Yeshua responded to her, “Your brother will rise again.”
Joh 11:24 Martha replied to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last Day.”
Joh 11:25 Yeshua told her, “I AM the Resurrection and the Life; he who believes in me, even if he dies, will live;
Joh 11:26 and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”
Joh 11:27 She answered him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of Yehowah, who is coming into the world.”
Joh 11:28 When she had said this, she went away and called her sister Miriam privately, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”
Joh 11:29 When she heard this, she rose up quickly and went to him.
Joh 11:30 Now Yeshua had not yet come into the village but was still in the place where Martha had met him.
Joh 11:31 So when the Jews, who were with her in the house, and who were comforting her, saw Miriam getting up quickly and going out, they followed her, saying, “She is going to the tomb to weep there.”
Joh 11:32 When Miriam came to the place where Yeshua was and saw him, she fell down at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”
Joh 11:33 Therefore, when Yeshua saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in Ruach and was troubled;
Joh 11:34 he asked, “Where have you laid him?” They answered him, “Lord, come and see.”
Joh 11:35 Yeshua wept.
Joh 11:36 Then the Jews exclaimed, “See how much he loved Lazarus!”
Joh 11:37 But some of them asked, “Could not this man, who opened the eyes of a blind man, also have made this man not die?”
Joh 11:38 Then Yeshua again, being deeply moved in himself, went to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a cork-shaped blocking stone lay against it.
Joh 11:39 Yeshua ordered, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of Lazarus, the one who had died, said to Yeshua, “Lord, by this time, the body will be decomposing and foul-smelling, for he has been dead for four days.”
Joh 11:40 Yeshua asked her, “Did I not say to you that if you believed, you would see the glory of Yehowah?”

Joh 11:41 So they took away the cork-shaped blocking stone where the dead was laid. Yeshua lifted up his eyes and prayed, “Father, I thank you that you listened to me.
Joh 11:42 I knew that you always listen to me, but it is because of the crowd that is standing around me that I said this, so that they may believe that you have sent me.”
Joh 11:43 After he had prayed this, he cried out with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”
Joh 11:44 The dead man came out; his feet and hands were bound with cloths, and his face was bound about with a facecloth. Yeshua ordered them, “Untie him and let him go.”
Joh 11:45 Then many of the Jews who came to Miriam and saw what Yeshua did, believed in him.
Joh 11:46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them the things that Yeshua had done.
Joh 11:47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the Sanhedrin together and said, “What will we do? This man does many signs.
Joh 11:48 If we leave him alone like this, all will believe in him; the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”
Joh 11:49 However, a certain man among them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing.
Joh 11:50 You do not consider that it is better for you that one Man dies for the people than that the whole nation perishes.”
Joh 11:51 Now this he said not from himself. Instead, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Yeshua should die for the nation;
Joh 11:52 and not only for the nation, but so that the children of Yehowah who are scattered would be gathered together into oneness.
Joh 11:53 So from that day onward, they planned how to kill Yeshua.
Joh 11:54 No longer did Yeshua walk openly among the Jews, but he departed from there, into the country near to the wilderness, into a town called Ephraim. There he stayed with his disciples.
Joh 11:55 Now the Passover of the Jews was near (c. 30 AD), and many went up to Jerusalem from the country, before the Passover, in order to purify themselves (Eze. 36:16-38; Heb. 9:13-14).
Joh 11:56 They were looking for Yeshua, and asking one another as they stood in the temple, “What do you think? That he will not come to the appointment calendar festival?”
Joh 11:57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given an order that if anyone knew where Yeshua was, he should report it, so that they might seize him.

John Chapter 12

Joh 12:1 Six days before the Passover, Yeshua came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had died, whom Yeshua had raised from the dead.
Joh 12:2 So they made him a dinner there, and Martha was serving, but Lazarus was one of those who was reclining at the table with Yeshua.
Joh 12:3 Then Miriam took a half liter of perfume made of extremely precious pure nard, anointed the feet of Yeshua with it, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.
Joh 12:4 Then Simon's son, Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples, the one who would betray him, asked,
Joh 12:5 "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred silver coins and given to the poor?"
Joh 12:6 Now he asked this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief: He had the moneybag and would steal from what was put in it.
Joh 12:7 Yeshua answered, "Allow her to keep what she has for the day of my burial.
Joh 12:8 You will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me" (Deut. 15:10-11).
Joh 12:9 Now a large crowd of the Jews learned that Yeshua was there, and they came, not only for Yeshua, but also to see Lazarus, whom Yeshua had raised from the dead.
Joh 12:10 The chief priests conspired together, so that they might also kill Lazarus;
Joh 12:11 for it was because of him that many of the Jews went away and believed in Yeshua.
Joh 12:12 On the next day, a large crowd came to the appointment calendar festival (Passover). When they heard that Yeshua was coming to Jerusalem,
Joh 12:13 they took the branches of the palm trees and went out to meet him, and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is the King of Israel, who comes in the name of Yehowah!"
Joh 12:14 Yeshua found a young donkey and sat on it; as it was written,
Joh 12:15 "Do not fear, daughter of Zion; see, your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt."
Joh 12:16 His disciples did not understand these things at first; but when Yeshua was glorified, they remembered that these things had been written about him, and that they had done these things to him.
Joh 12:17 Now the crowd testified that they had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him up from the dead.

Joh 12:18 It was also for this reason that the crowd went out to meet him, because they heard that he had done this sign.
Joh 12:19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, “Look, you can do nothing; see, the world has gone after him.”
Joh 12:20 Now certain Greeks were among those who were going up to worship at the appointment calendar festival.
Joh 12:21 These went to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and entreated him, “Sir, we want to see Yeshua.”
Joh 12:22 Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew went with Philip, and they told Yeshua.
Joh 12:23 Yeshua answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.
Joh 12:24 Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone; but if it dies, it will produce much fruit.
Joh 12:25 He who loves his life will destroy it; but he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.
Joh 12:26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me; and where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.
Joh 12:27 Now my soul is troubled, and what should I ask? ‘Father, save me from this hour?’ But for this reason I came to this hour.
Joh 12:28 Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from Heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.”
Joh 12:29 Then the crowd that stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.”
Joh 12:30 Yeshua answered, “This voice did not come for me but for you.
Joh 12:31 Now is the judgment of this world: Now will the ruler of this world be thrown out.
Joh 12:32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to myself.”
Joh 12:33 He said this to indicate what kind of death he would die.
Joh 12:34 The crowd asked him, “We have heard from the law that Messiah will stay forever. How can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up?’ Who is this Son of Man?”
Joh 12:35 Yeshua then answered them, “The Light will still be with you for a short time. Walk while you have the Light, so that darkness does not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.
Joh 12:36 While you have the Light, believe in the Light, so that you may be children of Light.” Yeshua said these things, then departed and hid from them.
Joh 12:37 Although Yeshua had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe in him,

Joh 12:38 so that the word of Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled, in which he asked: “Lord, who has believed our announcement? And to whom has the arm of Yehowah been revealed” (Isa. 53:1)?
Joh 12:39 For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah had also prophesied,
Joh 12:40 “He has blinded their eyes, and he has hardened their hearts; otherwise they would see with their eyes, understand with their hearts, turn around, and I would heal them.”
Joh 12:41 Isaiah said these things, because he saw the glory of Yeshua and spoke of him (Isa. 6:9-10).
Joh 12:42 But despite that, many of the rulers believed in Yeshua; but because of the Pharisees, they did not admit it, so that they would not be banned from the house of assembly.
Joh 12:43 They loved the praise that comes from people more than the praise that comes from Yehowah.
Joh 12:44 Yeshua cried out, “The one who believes in me, believes not only in me but also in him who sent me,
Joh 12:45 and the one who sees me sees him who sent me!
Joh 12:46 I have come as Light into the world, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness!
Joh 12:47 If anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I have not come to judge the world but to save the world!
Joh 12:48 The one who rejects me, and who does not receive my words, has One who judges him! The word I have spoken will judge him on the last Day!
Joh 12:49 For I did not speak for myself, but it is the Father who sent me, who has given me the command about what to say and what to preach!
Joh 12:50 I know that his command is eternal life, so that is what I speak, just as the Father has spoken to me, so I preach!”

John Chapter 13

Joh 13:1 Now it was before the Festival of the Passover (c. 30 AD). Yeshua knew that his hour had come to go out of this world and go to the Father. Having unconditionally selflessly loved his own who were in the world, he unconditionally selflessly loved them to the end.
Joh 13:2 And during supper, the Devil had already by now put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Yeshua.
Joh 13:3 He knew that the Father had given everything over into his hands, and that he had come from Yehowah and was going back to Yehowah.
Joh 13:4 He rose up from supper and took off his outer clothing. Then he took a towel and wrapped it around himself.
Joh 13:5 Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples and dry them with the towel that he had put around himself.
Joh 13:6 He came to Simon Peter, and Peter asked him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"
Joh 13:7 Yeshua answered him, "What I am doing you do not understand now, but you will understand this later."
Joh 13:8 Peter responded to him, "You will never wash my feet!" Yeshua replied to him, "If I do not wash you, you have no share with me."
Joh 13:9 Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, do not only wash my feet but also my hands and my head."
Joh 13:10 Yeshua said to him, "He who is bathed has no need, except to wash his feet, but he is completely clean; you are clean but not everyone."
Joh 13:11 For Yeshua knew who would betray him; that is why he said, "Not all of you are clean."
Joh 13:12 So when Yeshua had washed their feet, taken his garments, and reclined again, he taught them, "Do you know what I have done for you?
Joh 13:13 You call me, 'Teacher' and, 'Lord,' and you are speaking correctly, because so I AM.
Joh 13:14 If I then, the Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you should also wash the feet of one another.
Joh 13:15 For I have given you an example, so that you should also do just as I did for you.
Joh 13:16 Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master; nor is a messenger greater than he who sent him.
Joh 13:17 If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.
Joh 13:18 I am not speaking about all of you; I know those whom I have chosen, but this is so that the Scripture will be fulfilled: 'He who eats my food lifted up his heel against me' (Psa. 41:9).

Joh 13:19 I tell you this now before it happens, so that when it happens, you may believe that I AM.
Joh 13:20 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me, and he who receives me, receives him who sent me."
Joh 13:21 When Yeshua said this, he was troubled in Ruach. He testified, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that one of you will betray me."
Joh 13:22 The disciples looked at each other, wondering of whom he was speaking.
Joh 13:23 One of his disciples, whom Yeshua unconditionally selflessly loved, was reclining at the table against the side of Yeshua.
Joh 13:24 Simon Peter motioned to this disciple and said, "Ask him who he is speaking about."
Joh 13:25 So he leaned back against the side of Yeshua and asked him, "Lord, who is it?"
Joh 13:26 Then Yeshua answered, "It is the one for whom I will dip the portion and give it to him." So when he had dipped the food, he gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot.
Joh 13:27 And then after the portion, Satan entered into him, so Yeshua ordered him, "What you are doing, do it quickly."
Joh 13:28 Now no one who was reclining at the table knew why he said this to him.
Joh 13:29 Some thought that, since Judas had the moneybag, Yeshua said to him, "Buy what we need to have for the appointment calendar festival," or that he should give something to the poor.
Joh 13:30 After Judas received the portion, he went out immediately. It was night.
Joh 13:31 When Judas was gone, Yeshua said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and Yehowah is glorified in him.
Joh 13:32 Since Yehowah is glorified in him, Yehowah will glorify him in himself, and Yehowah will glorify him immediately.
Joh 13:33 Little children, still I am with you for a short time. You will look for me, and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' Now I also say this to you.
Joh 13:34 I am giving you a refreshing commandment, that you should unconditionally selflessly love one another; as I have unconditionally selflessly loved you, so also you should unconditionally selflessly love one another.
Joh 13:35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have unconditional selfless love one for another" (Lev. 19:18).
Joh 13:36 Simon Peter asked him, "Lord, where are you going?" Yeshua answered, "Where I am going, you cannot follow me now, but you will follow later."

Joh 13:37 Peter responded to him, “Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.”
Joh 13:38 Yeshua answered, “Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the Temple Herald will not shout, before you have denied me three times.”

John Chapter 14

Joh 14:1 “Do not let your heart be troubled. Believe in Yehowah, believe also in me.
Joh 14:2 In the house of my Father are many places to live. If it were not so, I would have told you, for I am going to prepare a place for you.
Joh 14:3 If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come once more and receive you to myself, so that where I am you will be also (Heb. 9:28).
Joh 14:4 You know the Way to where I am going.”
Joh 14:5 Thomas asked Yeshua, “Lord, we do not know where you are going, how can we know the Way?”
Joh 14:6 Yeshua answered him, “I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no one comes to the Father except through me.
Joh 14:7 If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on, you know him and have seen him.”
Joh 14:8 Philip replied to Yeshua, “Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.”
Joh 14:9 Yeshua responded to him, “I have been with you for so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father?’
Joh 14:10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you, I do not speak from my own authority, but the Father living in me is doing his work.
Joh 14:11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me, or else believe because of the works themselves.
Joh 14:12 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in me will do the works that I do, and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to my Father.
Joh 14:13 Whatever you ask in my name, I will do it, so that the Father will be glorified in the Son.
Joh 14:14 If you ask anything in my name, I will do it.
Joh 14:15 If you unconditionally selflessly love me, you will keep my commandments (Exo. 20:6).
Joh 14:16 And I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, so that he will be with you forever,
Joh 14:17 the Ruach of truth. The world cannot receive him, because it does not see him or know him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you.
Joh 14:18 I will not leave you alone; I will come back to you.
Joh 14:19 Yet a short time, and the world will no longer see me, but you see me. Because I live, you will also live.

Joh 14:20 On that Day, you will know that I am in my Father, and that you are in me, and that I am in you.
Joh 14:21 He who has my commandments and keeps them is the one who unconditionally selflessly loves me, and he who unconditionally selflessly loves me will be unconditionally selflessly loved by my Father, and I will unconditionally selflessly love him, and I will show myself to him."
Joh 14:22 Judah, not Iscariot, asked Yeshua, "Lord, why is it that you will show yourself to us and not to the world?"
Joh 14:23 Yeshua answered him, "If anyone unconditionally selflessly loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will unconditionally selflessly love him, we will come to him, and we will make our home with him.
Joh 14:24 He who does not unconditionally selflessly love me does not keep my words. The word that you hear is not from me but from the Father who sent me.
Joh 14:25 I have said these things to you, while I am staying with you.
Joh 14:26 However, the Counselor, Ruach ha'Kodesh, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you everything, and he will remind you of everything that I said to you.
Joh 14:27 I leave you peace; I give you my peace. I do not give it as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled and do not be afraid.
Joh 14:28 You heard that I said to you, 'I am going away, and I will come back to you.' If you unconditionally selflessly loved me, you would be glad, because I am going to the Father, for my Father is greater than I am.
Joh 14:29 Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you will believe.
Joh 14:30 I will no longer speak much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me,
Joh 14:31 but in order that the world will know that I unconditionally selflessly love the Father, I do just as the Father commanded me. Let us get up and go from here."

John Chapter 15

Joh 15:1 “I AM the true vine, and my Father is the Vinedresser (Isa. 5:1-7; Psa. 80:8, 14-17; Jer. 5:10).
Joh 15:2 He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and he prunes every branch that bears fruit, so that it will bear more fruit.
Joh 15:3 You are already clean, because of the message that I have spoken to you.
Joh 15:4 Remain in me and I in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me.
Joh 15:5 I AM the Vine, you are the branches. He who remains in me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for without me you can do nothing.
Joh 15:6 If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown away like a branch and dries up, and they gather the branches and throw them into the fire, and they are burned up.
Joh 15:7 If you remain in me, and if my words remain in you, ask whatever you delight in, and it will be done for you.
Joh 15:8 My Father is glorified in this, that you bear much fruit, and so prove that you are my disciples.
Joh 15:9 As the Father has unconditionally selflessly loved me, I have also unconditionally selflessly loved you. Remain in my unconditional selfless love.
Joh 15:10 If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my unconditional selfless love, as I have kept the commandments of my Father and remain in his unconditional selfless love.
Joh 15:11 I have spoken these things to you, so that my joy will be in you, and so that your joy will be complete.
Joh 15:12 This is my commandment, that you unconditionally selflessly love one another, as I have loved you.
Joh 15:13 No one has an unconditional selfless love greater than this, that he lays down his life for his friends.
Joh 15:14 You are my friends, if you do the things that I command you.
Joh 15:15 No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you.
Joh 15:16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you, so that you would go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain. This is so that whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he may give to you.
Joh 15:17 These things I command you, so that you unconditionally selflessly love one another.
Joh 15:18 If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you.

Joh 15:19 If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own. But because you are not of the world, and because I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
Joh 15:20 Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will also keep yours.
Joh 15:21 They will do all these things to you because of my name, because they do not know him who sent me.
Joh 15:22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin.
Joh 15:23 He who hates me also hates my Father.
Joh 15:24 If I had not done the works that no one else did among them, they would have no sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father.
Joh 15:25 But this is in order to fulfill the word that is written in their law, ‘They hated me without a cause’ (Psa. 69:4).
Joh 15:26 When the Counselor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is, the Ruach of truth, who goes out from the Father, he will testify about me.
Joh 15:27 You are also testifying, because you have been with me from the beginning.”

John Chapter 16

Joh 16:1 “I have spoken these things to you, so that you will not fall away.
Joh 16:2 They will throw you out of the houses of assembly. But the hour is coming when everyone who kills you will think that he is offering a service to Yehowah.
Joh 16:3 They will do these things, because they have not known the Father nor me.
Joh 16:4 I have spoken these things to you, so that when their hour comes, you will remember that I told you about them. I did not tell you about these things in the beginning, because I was with you.
Joh 16:5 But now I go to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’
Joh 16:6 But because I have said these things to you, sadness has filled your heart.
Joh 16:7 But truly, I tell you, it is better for you that I go away. For if I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you, but if I go, I will send him to you.
Joh 16:8 When he comes, he will prove the world to be wrong about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment,
Joh 16:9 about sin, because they do not believe in me;
Joh 16:10 about righteousness, because I am going to the Father, and you will no longer see me;
Joh 16:11 and about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.
Joh 16:12 I have many things to say to you, but you would not understand them now.
Joh 16:13 But when he comes, the Ruach of truth will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak from himself. But he will say whatever he hears, and he will tell you things that are to come.
Joh 16:14 He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine, and he will tell it to you.
Joh 16:15 Everything that the Father has is mine. Therefore, I said that the Ruach will take from what is mine, and he will tell it to you.
Joh 16:16 In a short time, you will no longer see me, and after another short time, you will see me, because I go to the Father.”
Joh 16:17 Then some of his disciples asked one another, “What is this that he says to us, ‘A short time, you will no longer see me,’ and, ‘After another short time, you will see me,’ and, ‘Because I go to the Father?’”
Joh 16:18 Therefore, they asked, “What is this that he says, ‘A short time?’ We do not know what he is talking about.”

Joh 16:19 Yeshua saw that they wanted to ask him, and he answered them, “Is this what you are asking yourselves, what I meant by saying, ‘A short time, and you will no longer see me, and a short time later, you will see me?’
Joh 16:20 Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and lament, but the world will be glad. You will become full of sadness, but your sorrow will be turned into joy!
Joh 16:21 When a woman gives birth, she has sadness, because her hour has come, but when she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers her pain, because of her joy that a human has been born into the world.
Joh 16:22 So you have sadness now, but I will see you again, and your heart will be glad, and no one will be able to take away your joy from you.
Joh 16:23 On that day, you will not ask me anything. Truly, truly, I say to you, if you ask anything of the Father in my name, he will give it to you.
Joh 16:24 Until now, you have not asked anything in my name. Ask, and you will receive, so that your joy will be fulfilled.
Joh 16:25 I have said these things to you in figures of speech, but the hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but instead, I will tell you plainly about the Father.
Joh 16:26 On that day, you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will intermediate with the Father for you,
Joh 16:27 for the Father himself affectionately loves you, because you have brotherly loved me, and because you have believed that I came from Yehowah.
Joh 16:28 I came from the Father, and I have come into the world. Again, I am leaving the world, and I am going to the Father.”
Joh 16:29 His disciples said, “See, now you are speaking plainly, and you are not using figures of speech.
Joh 16:30 Now we know that you know all things, and you do not need anyone to ask you questions. Because of this, we believe that you have come from Yehowah.”
Joh 16:31 Yeshua answered them, “Do you believe now?
Joh 16:32 See, the hour is coming, yes, and has indeed come, when you will be scattered, everyone to his own home, and you will leave me alone. Yet, I am not alone, because the Father is with me.
Joh 16:33 I have spoken these things to you, so that you will have peace in me. In the world you have tribulation, but have courage: I have conquered the world.”

John Chapter 17

Joh 17:1 After Yeshua said these things, he lifted up his eyes to Heaven and prayed, “Father, the hour has come, glorify your Son, so that the Son will glorify you,
Joh 17:2 just as you gave him authority over all flesh, so that he would give eternal life to everyone whom you have given him.
Joh 17:3 This is eternal life: That they know you, Yehowah, the true One, and him Whom you sent, Yeshua Messiah.
Joh 17:4 I glorified you on the earth. I have finished the work that you have given me to do.
Joh 17:5 Now Father, glorify me along with yourself with the glory that I had with you before the world was made.
Joh 17:6 I revealed your name to the people whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.
Joh 17:7 Now they know that everything that you have given me comes from you,
Joh 17:8 for I have given them all the words that you gave me. They received them and truly knew that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me.
Joh 17:9 I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.
Joh 17:10 Everything that is mine is yours, and yours is mine, and I am glorified in them.
Joh 17:11 I am no longer in the world, but these emissaries are in the world, and I am coming to you. Set-apart Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they will be united with us.
Joh 17:12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I protected them, and not one of them was destroyed, except for the son of destruction, so that the Scriptures would be fulfilled.
Joh 17:13 Now I am coming to you, but I am saying these things in the world, so that they will have my joy fulfilled in themselves.
Joh 17:14 I have given them your word, and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.
Joh 17:15 I do not ask for you to take them away from the world, but for you to keep them from the evil one.
Joh 17:16 They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.
Joh 17:17 Set them apart by the truth. Your word is truth.
Joh 17:18 Just as you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.
Joh 17:19 For their sakes I have set myself apart, so that they themselves may also be set apart in truth.

Joh 17:20 I pray not only for these, but also for those who will believe in me through their word,
Joh 17:21 so that they will all be oneness, just as you, Father, are in me, and I am in you. I pray that they will also be in us, so that the world will believe that you have sent me.
Joh 17:22 The glory that you gave me, I have given to them, so that they will be oneness, just as we are Oneness:
Joh 17:23 I in them, and you in me, that they may be brought to complete oneness, so that the world will know that you sent me, and that you have unconditionally selflessly loved them just as you unconditionally selflessly loved me.
Joh 17:24 Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you gave me, because you unconditionally selflessly loved me before the creation of the world.
Joh 17:25 Righteous Father, the world did not know you, but I know you; and these know that you sent me.
Joh 17:26 I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the unconditional selfless love with which you have unconditionally selflessly loved me will be in them, and I will be in them."

John Chapter 18

Joh 18:1 After Yeshua spoke these words, he went out with his disciples across the brook of the Kidron Valley, where there was a garden into which he and his disciples entered.
Joh 18:2 Now Judas, who was going to betray him, also knew the place, for Yeshua often went there with his disciples.
Joh 18:3 Then Judas, leading a group of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, went there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.
Joh 18:4 Then Yeshua, who knew all the things that were happening to him, went forward and asked them, "Who are you looking for?"
Joh 18:5 They answered him, "Yeshua the Natsari." Yeshua declared to them, "I AM." Judas, who betrayed him, was also standing with the soldiers.
Joh 18:6 So when he said to them, "I AM," they went backward and fell to the ground.
Joh 18:7 Then again he asked them, "Who are you looking for?" Again they answered, "Yeshua the Natsari."
Joh 18:8 Yeshua stated, "I told you that I AM (Ahayah, Exo. 3:14-15). So if you are looking for me, let these go."
Joh 18:9 This was in order to fulfill the word that he said: "Of those whom you have given me, I lost no one."
Joh 18:10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. Now the name of the servant was Malchus.
Joh 18:11 Yeshua said to Peter, "Put the sword back into its scabbard. Should I not drink the cup that the Father has given me?"
Joh 18:12 So the group of soldiers and the commander, and the officers of the Jews, seized Yeshua and tied him up.
Joh 18:13 They led him first to Annas, for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.
Joh 18:14 Now Caiaphas was the one who had given the advice to the Jews that it would be better that one man die for the people.
Joh 18:15 Simon Peter followed Yeshua and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Yeshua into the courtyard of the high priest;
Joh 18:16 but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the female doorkeeper, and he brought Peter in.
Joh 18:17 Then the female servant, the doorkeeper, asked Peter, "Are you not also one of the disciples of this man?" He answered, "I am not."

Joh 18:18 Now the servants and the officers were standing there; they had made a heaping charcoal fire, for it was cold, and they were warming themselves. Peter was also with them, standing there and warming himself.
Joh 18:19 The high priest then asked Yeshua about his disciples and his teaching.
Joh 18:20 Yeshua answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I was always teaching in houses of assembly and in the temple where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret.
Joh 18:21 Why did you ask me? Ask those who have heard me, about what I said to them. Look, these people know what I said."
Joh 18:22 When Yeshua had said this, one of the officers standing there struck Yeshua and asked, "Is that how you answer the high priest?"
Joh 18:23 Yeshua answered him, "If I spoke wrongly, testify about the wrong, but if rightly, why do you hit me?"
Joh 18:24 Then Annas sent him tied up to Caiaphas the high priest.
Joh 18:25 Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. The people then asked him, "Are you not also one of his disciples?" He denied it, "I am not."
Joh 18:26 One of the servants of the high priest, who was a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?"
Joh 18:27 Peter then denied again, and immediately the Temple Herald shouted.
Joh 18:28 Then they led Yeshua from Caiaphas to the government headquarters. It was daybreak, and they did not enter the government headquarters, so that they would not be defiled but could eat the Passover.
Joh 18:29 So Pontius Pilate went out to them and asked, "What accusation are you bringing against this man?"
Joh 18:30 They answered him, "If this man was not an evildoer, we would not have given him over to you."
Joh 18:31 Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law." The Jews replied to him, "It is not lawful for us to execute any man."
Joh 18:32 They said this, so that the word of Yeshua would be fulfilled, which he had spoken to indicate by what kind of death he would die.
Joh 18:33 Then Pilate entered the government headquarters again and called Yeshua, and he asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"
Joh 18:34 Yeshua answered, "Do you speak from yourself, or did others speak to you about me?"
Joh 18:35 Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your people and the chief priests gave you over to me. What did you do?"
Joh 18:36 Yeshua answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were part of this world, then my servants would fight, so that I would not be given over to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here."

Joh 18:37 Pilate then asked him, “Are you a king then?” Yeshua answered, “You say that I am a king. For this purpose I have been born, and for this purpose I have come into the world, so that I would bear witness to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth hears my voice.”
Joh 18:38 Pilate asked him, “What is truth?” When he had asked this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them, “I find no guilt in this man.
Joh 18:39 But you have the custom that I release one person to you at the Passover. So do you want me to release the King of the Jews to you?”
Joh 18:40 Then they cried out again, “Not this man but Yehoshua Bar Rabban!” Now Yehoshua Bar Rabban was a robber.

John Chapter 19

Joh 19:1 Then Pilate took Yeshua and whipped him.
Joh 19:2 The soldiers weaved a crown of thorns. They put it on the head of Yeshua and dressed him with a purple garment.
Joh 19:3 They came to him and mocked, “Hail, King of the Jews!” And they struck him.
Joh 19:4 Then Pilate went outside again and said to them, “See, I am bringing him outside to you, so that you will know that I find no guilt in him.”
Joh 19:5 So Yeshua came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate shouted to them, “Look, here is the man!”
Joh 19:6 Therefore, when the chief priests and the officers saw Yeshua, they cried out, “Crucify him, crucify him!” Pilate responded to them, “Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him.”
Joh 19:7 The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and according to that law he has to die, because he claimed to be the Son of Yehowah.”
Joh 19:8 When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid,
Joh 19:9 and he entered the government headquarters again and asked Yeshua, “Where do you come from?” But Yeshua gave him no answer.
Joh 19:10 Then Pilate asked him, “Are you not speaking to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you and authority to crucify you?”
Joh 19:11 Yeshua answered him, “You do not have any authority over me, except for what has been given to you from above. Therefore, he who gave me over to you has a greater sin.”
Joh 19:12 At this answer, Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out, “If you release this man, you are not a friend of Tiberius Caesar! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!”
Joh 19:13 When Pilate heard these words, he brought Yeshua out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place called “The Pavement,” but in Aramaic, “Gabbatha.”
Joh 19:14 Now it was Preparation for the Passover, at about 6 am. Pilate announced to the Jews, “See, here is your King!”
Joh 19:15 They cried out, “Away with him, away with him; crucify him!” Pilate asked them, “Should I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Tiberius Caesar!”
Joh 19:16 Then Pilate gave Yeshua over to them to be crucified.
Joh 19:17 Then they took Yeshua, and he went out, carrying the crossbeam for himself, to the place called, “The Place of a Skull,” which in Aramaic is called, “Golgotha.”

Joh 19:18 They crucified Yeshua there, and with him two other men, one on each side, with Yeshua in the middle.
Joh 19:19 Pilate also wrote a sign and put it on the cross. There it was written: Yeshua the Natsari, the King of the Jews.
Joh 19:20 Many of the Jews read this sign, because the place where Yeshua was crucified was near the city. The sign was written in Aramaic, in Latin, and in Greek.
Joh 19:21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'This one said, "I am King of the Jews."'"
Joh 19:22 Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."
Joh 19:23 When the soldiers crucified Yeshua, they took his clothes, divided them into four shares, one for each of them; and also the tunic. Now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top.
Joh 19:24 Then they said to each other, "Let us not tear it (Lev. 10:6), but instead let us cast lots for it to decide whose it will be." This happened, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled which said, "They divided my garments among themselves and cast lots for my clothing" (Psa. 22:18). This is what the soldiers did.
Joh 19:25 Now standing beside the cross of Yeshua were his (widowed) mother, Miriam, (now) the wife of Clopas (Alphaeus; Joseph's brother; Levirate marriage; Deut. 25:5-10), his mother's sister (Salome), and Miriam Magdalene.
Joh 19:26 When Yeshua saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, see your son!"
Joh 19:27 Then he said to the disciple, "See your mother!" From that hour the disciple took her to his own home.
Joh 19:28 After this, knowing that everything was now completed, and so that the Scriptures would be fulfilled, Yeshua said, "I am thirsty."
Joh 19:29 A container full of sour wine was placed there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop stick and lifted it up to his mouth.
Joh 19:30 When Yeshua had taken the diluted sour wine, he declared, "Paid in full!" He bowed his head and gave up his spirit (c. 30 AD).
Joh 19:31 Then the Jews, because it was the Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross during the Sabbath, for that Sabbath day was especially important (Exo. 12:16; Lev. 23:6-7), asked Pilate to break their legs and to remove them (Deut. 21:23).
Joh 19:32 Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and of the second man who had been crucified with Yeshua.
Joh 19:33 When they came to Yeshua, they saw that he was already dead, so they did not break his legs.
Joh 19:34 Moreover, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out.

Joh 19:35 The one who saw this has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that what he said is true, so that you would also believe.
Joh 19:37 Again, another Scripture says, “They will look at him whom they pierced” (Zech. 12:10; Rev. 1:7; Psa. 22:16; Isa. 53:7).
Joh 19:38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, since he was a disciple of Yeshua, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate if he could take away the body of Yeshua. Pilate gave him permission. So Joseph came and took away the body of Yeshua.
Joh 19:39 Nicodemus also came, he who at first had come to Yeshua by night. He brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about 34 kilograms in weight.
Joh 19:40 So they took the body of Yeshua and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, as was the custom of the Jews to bury bodies.
Joh 19:41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden was a new tomb in which no person had yet been buried.
Joh 19:42 Because it was the Preparation for the Jews, and because the tomb was close by, they laid Yeshua in it.

John Chapter 20

Joh 20:1 Now at dawn, while it was still dark, on the first (Omer day 1, Sunday) of the Sabbath weeks (counting to Pentecost), Miriam Magdalene came to the tomb, and she saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.
Joh 20:2 So she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Yeshua loved, and she said to them, "They took away the Lord out from the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him."
Joh 20:3 Then Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went to the tomb.
Joh 20:4 They both ran together, and the other disciple quickly ran ahead of Peter and arrived at the tomb first.
Joh 20:5 And stooping down, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go inside.
Joh 20:6 Simon Peter then arrived after him and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there spread out flat and sunk down,
Joh 20:7 and the facecloth that had been on his head. It was not lying with the linen cloths but was rolled up in a place by itself.
Joh 20:8 Then the other disciple, the one who first arrived at the tomb, also went in, and he saw and believed.
Joh 20:9 For until that time, they still did not know the Scripture that he should rise from the dead (Psa. 16:10).
Joh 20:10 So the disciples went back home again.
Joh 20:11 But Miriam was standing outside the tomb weeping. As she wept, she stooped down into the tomb.
Joh 20:12 She saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the foot of where the body of Yeshua had lain.
Joh 20:13 They asked her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She answered them, "Because they took away my Lord, and I do not know where they have put him."
Joh 20:14 When she said this, she turned around and saw Yeshua standing there, but she did not know that it was Yeshua.
Joh 20:15 Yeshua asked her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" She thought that he was the gardener, so she answered him, "Sir, if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him away."
Joh 20:16 Yeshua greeted her, "Miriam." She turned and responded to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni," which means "my Teacher."
Joh 20:17 Yeshua commanded her, "Do not touch me, for I have not yet gone up to my Father, but go to my brothers and say to them that I will go up to my Father and your Father, and my Divine One and your Divine One."

Joh 20:18 Miriam Magdalene came and told the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,” and that he had said these things to her.
Joh 20:19 When it was dusk on that day (Omer day 1, Sunday), the first of Shavuot (the Weeks counting to Pentecost), and the doors where the disciples were assembled were closed for fear of the Jews, Yeshua came and stood in the middle of them and greeted them, “Peace to you!”
Joh 20:20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord!
Joh 20:21 Yeshua then said to them again, “Peace to you. As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you.”
Joh 20:22 When Yeshua had said this, he breathed on them and instructed them, “Receive Ruach ha’Kodesh.
Joh 20:23 Whoever’s sins you forgive, they are forgiven; whoever’s sins you keep back, they are kept back.”
Joh 20:24 Thomas, one of the Twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Yeshua came.
Joh 20:25 The other disciples later said to him, “We have seen the Lord!” He responded to them, “Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and press my finger into the mark of the nails, and press my hand into his side, I will not believe.”
Joh 20:26 After eight days, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Yeshua came while the doors were closed, and stood among them and said, “Peace to you!”
Joh 20:27 Then he ordered Thomas, “Reach here with your finger and see my hands. Reach here with your hand and press it into my side. Do not be unbelieving, but believe.”
Joh 20:28 Thomas responded to him, “My Lord and my Divine One!”
Joh 20:29 Yeshua said to him, “Thomas, because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and believed.”
Joh 20:30 Now Yeshua did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, signs that have not been written in this Book,
Joh 20:31 but these have been written, so that you would believe that Yeshua is the Messiah, the Son of Yehowah, and so that believing, you would have life in his name.

John Chapter 21

Joh 21:1 After these things, Yeshua showed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. This is how he showed himself:
Joh 21:2 Simon Peter was together with Thomas called Didymus, Nathaniel from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples of Yeshua.
Joh 21:3 Simon Peter announced to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We too, will come with you." They went and climbed into a boat, but they caught nothing during the whole night.
Joh 21:4 Now when dawn was already come, Yeshua stood on the beach, but the disciples did not know it was Yeshua.
Joh 21:5 So Yeshua asked them, "Young men, do you have anything to eat?" They answered him, "No."
Joh 21:6 He told them, "Throw your net on the starboard side of the boat, and you will find some." So they threw their net and were not able to draw it in because of the large number of fish.
Joh 21:7 Then the disciple whom Yeshua unconditionally selflessly loved told Peter, "It's the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was Yeshua, he tied up his outer garment, for he was undressed, and threw himself into the Sea.
Joh 21:8 The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from the land, about ninety meters off, and they were pulling the net full of fish.
Joh 21:9 When they got out upon the land, they saw a charcoal fire there and fish laid on it, with bread.
Joh 21:10 Yeshua said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught."
Joh 21:11 Simon Peter then went up and drew the net to land, full of large fish; 153 (Eze. 47:10). There were so many, but the net was not torn.
Joh 21:12 Yeshua invited them, "Come and eat breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord.
Joh 21:13 Yeshua came, took the bread, blessed Yehowah, and gave it to them, and the fish also.
Joh 21:14 This was the third time that Yeshua showed himself to the disciples after he had risen from the dead.
Joh 21:15 After they ate breakfast, Yeshua asked Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you unconditionally selflessly love me more than these?" Peter answered him, "Yes Lord, you know that I affectionately love you." Yeshua ordered him, "Feed my lambs."
Joh 21:16 He asked him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you unconditionally selflessly love me?" Peter answered him, "Yes Lord, you know that I affectionately love you." Yeshua ordered him, "Take care of my sheep."

Joh 21:17 He asked him a third time, “Simon, son of John, do you affectionately love me?” Peter was sad, because Yeshua had asked him a third time, “Do you affectionately love me?” He answered him, “Lord, you know all things, you know that I affectionately love you.” Yeshua ordered him, “Feed my sheep.
Joh 21:18 Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to clothe yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you become old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will clothe you and carry you where you will not want to go.”
Joh 21:19 Now Yeshua said this, in order to indicate with what kind of death Peter would glorify Yehowah. After he had said this, he commanded Peter, “Follow me.”
Joh 21:20 Peter turned around and saw the disciple whom Yeshua unconditionally selflessly loved following them, the one who had also leaned back against the side of Yeshua at the supper, and who had asked, “Lord, who is the one who will betray you?”
Joh 21:21 Peter saw him and then asked Yeshua, “Lord, what will this man do?”
Joh 21:22 Yeshua answered him, “If I want him to stay until I come, what is that to you? Follow me.”
Joh 21:23 So this statement spread among the brethren and sistren, that that disciple would not die. Yet Yeshua did not say to Peter that the other disciple would not die, but, “If I want him to stay until I come, what is that to you?”
Joh 21:24 This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and who wrote these things, and we know that his testimony is true.
Joh 21:25 There are also many other things that Yeshua did. If each one were written down, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the Books that would be written. Amein.

Book of Acts

Acts Chapter 1

Act 1:1 The former Book I wrote, Theophilus, told all that Yeshua began to do and to teach,
Act 1:2 until the day that he was received up (Omer Day 40, c. 30 AD). This was after he had given a command through Ruach ha'Kodesh to the apostles he had chosen.
Act 1:3 After his suffering, he presented himself alive to them with many convincing proofs. For forty days (including Omer Day 40; Luke 24:50), he appeared to them, and he spoke about the Kingdom of Yehowah.
Act 1:4 When he was meeting together with them, he commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, about which he prophesied, "You heard from me Act 1:5 that John indeed immersed with water, but you will be immersed in Ruach ha'Kodesh in a few days" (Omer Day 50, Shavuot; Pentecost).
Act 1:6 When they were assembled together they were asking him, "Lord, is this the time you will restore the kingdom to Israel?"
Act 1:7 He answered them, "It is not for you to know the time delays regarding the appointment calendar dates, which the Father has determined by his own authority.
Act 1:8 But you will receive power, when Ruach ha'Kodesh comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."
Act 1:9 When Yeshua had said these things, as they were looking, he was raised up (on Omer Day 40), and a cloud hid him from their eyes.
Act 1:10 While they were looking intensely to Heaven as he went, suddenly, two men stood by them in dazzling white clothing.
Act 1:11 They said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand here looking into Heaven? This Yeshua who ascended up into Heaven will return in the same manner as you saw him going into Heaven."
Act 1:12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, which is near to Jerusalem, a Sabbath's walk of about 1.4 kilometers.
Act 1:13 When they arrived, they went up into the upper chamber, where they were staying. They were Peter, John, Jacob, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, Jacob son of Alphaeus (Clopas, Joseph's brother), Simon the Zealot, and Judah son of Jacob.

Act 1:14 These adherents were all united in oneness, as they diligently continued in prayer and petition. Included were the women, Miriam the mother of Yeshua, and his brothers.
Act 1:15 In those days, Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, about 120 people, and said,
Act 1:16 “Brethren and sistren, it was necessary that the Scripture should be fulfilled, that Ruach ha’Kodesh spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who guided the ones who arrested Yeshua.
Act 1:17 For he was one of us and received his share of the benefits of this ministry.”
Act 1:18 Now this man bought a field with the earnings he received for his wickedness, and there he fell headfirst (hanging himself on his sword), and his body burst open, and all his intestines poured out (Mat. 27:5; 1 Sam. 31:4-5; 2 Sam. 17:23).
Act 1:19 All those living in Jerusalem heard about this, so they called that field in their language “Akeldama,” that is, “Field Of Blood.”
Act 1:20 “For it is written in the Book of Psalms, ‘Let his field be made desolate, and do not let even one person live there.’ ‘Let someone else take his position of leadership.’
Act 1:21 It is necessary, therefore, that one of the men who accompanied us all the time Lord Yeshua went in and out among us,
Act 1:22 beginning from the immersion of John to the day that he was taken up from us (Omer Day 40), must be a witness with us of his resurrection.”
Act 1:23 They put forward two men, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also named Justus, and Matthias.
Act 1:24 The adherents prayed, “You, Lord, know the hearts of all people, so reveal which of these two is the one whom you have chosen Act 1:25 to take the place in this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas transgressed to go to his own place.”
Act 1:26 They cast lots for them; and the lot fell to Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles (Isa. 34:17; Prov. 16:33; 18:18).

Acts Chapter 2

Act 2:1 When the Day of Shavuot came (Pentecost; Omer day 50; c. 30 AD; Lev. 23:15-22), they were all together in the same place.
Act 2:2 Suddenly, there came from Heaven a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the whole temple where they were sitting (in Solomon's Portico).
Act 2:3 There appeared to them tongues like fire that were distributed, and they sat upon each one of them.
Act 2:4 They were all filled with Ruach ha'Kodesh and began to speak multilingually, as the Ruach gave them to speak.
Act 2:5 Now there were Jews who were living in Jerusalem, reverent men, from every ethnicity under Heaven (Deut. 16:16).
Act 2:6 When this sound was heard, the multitude came together and was confused, because each one heard them speaking in his own language.
Act 2:7 They were amazed and marveled; they asked, "Really, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
Act 2:8 Why is it that we are hearing them, each in our own birth language?
Act 2:9 Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, and those who live in Mesopotamia, in Judea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia,
Act 2:10 in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, Jews and proselytes,
Act 2:11 Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling multilingually about the mighty works of Yehowah."
Act 2:12 They were all amazed and perplexed; they asked one another, "What does this mean?"
Act 2:13 But others mocked, "They are full of fermented wine."
Act 2:14 But Peter stood with the Eleven, raised his voice and preached to them, "Men of Judea and all of you who live at Jerusalem, let this be known to you; pay attention to my words!
Act 2:15 For these adherents are not drunk as you assume, for it is only 9 am.
Act 2:16 But this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:
Act 2:17 'It will be in the last days,' Yehowah declares, 'I will pour out my Ruach on all people. Your sons and your daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.
Act 2:18 Also, on my servants and my female servants in those days, I will pour out my Ruach, and they will prophesy.
Act 2:19 I will show wonders in the sky above and signs on the earth below, blood, fire, and vapor of smoke.

Act 2:20 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the great and remarkable Day of Yehowah comes.
Act 2:21 It will be that everyone who calls on the name of Yehowah will be saved' (Joel 2:28-32; Rom. 10:13).
Act 2:22 Men of Israel, hear these words: Yeshua the Natsari, a man authenticated by Yehowah to you by mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which Yehowah did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know,
Act 2:23 because of the determined plan and foreknowledge of Yehowah, he was delivered up, and you, by the hand of lawless men, crucified and murdered him;
Act 2:24 whom Yehowah raised up, having loosed the pains of death from him, because it was not possible that he should be held by it.
Act 2:25 For David says about him, 'I saw Yehowah always before my face, for he is beside my right hand, so that I should not be moved.
Act 2:26 Therefore, my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced. Also, my flesh will live in hope.
Act 2:27 For you will not abandon my soul to the place of the dead, neither will you allow your Set-apart One to see decomposition.
Act 2:28 You revealed to me the Ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence' (Psa. 16:8-11).
Act 2:29 Brothers, I can speak to you confidently about the patriarch David: He both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
Act 2:30 Therefore, he was a prophet and knew that Yehowah had sworn with an oath to him, that he would resurrect Messiah in the flesh, to set this fruit of his body upon his throne.
Act 2:31 He foresaw this and spoke about the resurrection of the Messiah, 'He was neither abandoned to the place of the dead, nor did his flesh see decomposition.'
Act 2:32 This Yeshua, Yehowah raised him up, of which we all are witnesses.
Act 2:33 Therefore, having been raised up to the right hand of Yehowah and having received the promised Ruach Kodesh from the Father, he has poured out this, which you see and hear.
Act 2:34 For David did not ascend to Heaven, but he declares, 'Yehowah invited my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, Act 2:35 until I make your enemies the stool for your feet"' (Psa. 110:1).
Act 2:36 Therefore, let all the house of Israel certainly know that Yehowah has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Yeshua whom you crucified."
Act 2:37 Now when they heard this, they were pierced in their hearts and asked Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Men, brothers, what should we do?"
Act 2:38 And Peter answered them, "Repent and be immersed, each of you, in the name of Yeshua Messiah, because your sins are forgiven, and you will receive the gift of Ruach ha'Kodesh.

Act 2:39 For to you is the promise and to your children, and to all that are far off, as many people as Yehowah our Divine One will call.”
Act 2:40 With many other words he testified and urged them; he proclaimed, “Save yourselves from this wicked generation” (Jer. 51:6)!
Act 2:41 Then they received his word and were immersed, and there were added in that day about three thousand souls.
Act 2:42 The adherents diligently continued in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.
Act 2:43 Fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.
Act 2:44 All who believed were together and had all things in common,
Act 2:45 and the adherents sold their property and possessions and distributed them to all, according to the needs anyone had.
Act 2:46 So day after day, the adherents continued with one purpose in the temple, and they broke bread in homes, and they shared food with joy and humility of heart;
Act 2:47 they praised Yehowah and had grace with all the people. The Lord added to the congregation day by day those that were being saved.

Acts Chapter 3

Act 3:1 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of The Amidah Prayer, 3 pm (Mark 11:25).
Act 3:2 A certain man, lame from birth, was carried every day and was laid at the gate of the temple called Beautiful, so he could beg for alms from the people who went into the temple.
Act 3:3 When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked for alms.
Act 3:4 And Peter, with John, gazed intently at him and ordered, “Look at us.”
Act 3:5 The lame man looked at them, expecting to receive something from them.
Act 3:6 But Peter commanded, “Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have, I will give to you. In the name of Yeshua Messiah the Natsari, stand up and walk!”
Act 3:7 Peter took him by the right hand and raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength.
Act 3:8 Leaping up, the lame man stood and began to walk; and he entered with Peter and John into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising Yehowah!
Act 3:9 All the people saw him walking and praising Yehowah.
Act 3:10 They noticed that it was the man who had been sitting to receive alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement because of what had happened to him.
Act 3:11 As the lame man, who was healed, held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them into Solomon’s Portico, greatly marveling.
Act 3:12 When Peter saw this, he preached to the people, “You men of Israel, why do you marvel? Why do you fix your eyes on us, as if we had made him to walk by our own power or reverence?
Act 3:13 The Mighty One of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the Mighty One of our fathers, has glorified his servant Yeshua. He is the One whom you delivered up and rejected before the face of Pontius Pilate, when he had decided to release him.
Act 3:14 You rejected the Set-apart and Righteous One, and you asked instead for a murderer (Yehoshua Bar Rabban) to be released to you.
Act 3:15 You killed the Prince of Life, whom Yehowah raised from the dead, and we are witnesses of this.
Act 3:16 Now by faith in his name, this man whom you see and know, this same name made him strong. The faith that is through Yeshua gave to him this complete health in the presence of all of you.

Act 3:17 Now brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers.
Act 3:18 But the things which Yehowah foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Messiah should suffer, he has now fulfilled.
Act 3:19 Repent, therefore, and turn around, so that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come periods of refreshing from the presence of Yehowah;
Act 3:20 and that he may send Yeshua Messiah who has been proclaimed to you.
Act 3:21 He is the One Heaven must receive, until the time of the restoration of all things, about which Yehowah spoke long ago by the mouth of his set-apart prophets.
Act 3:22 Moses indeed said to the fathers, 'Yehowah Almighty will raise up a Prophet like me from among your brothers. You will listen to everything that he will speak to you.
Act 3:23 It will happen that every person who does not listen to that Prophet will be completely destroyed from among the people' (Deut. 18:15, 18; Acts 7:37, John 1:21, 25; 6:14; 9:17).
Act 3:24 Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel, and those who came after him, they spoke out and announced these days.
Act 3:25 You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that Yehowah made with your ancestors, as he said to Abraham, 'In your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.'
Act 3:26 After Yehowah raised up his servant Yeshua, he sent him to you first, in order to bless you by turning every one of you from your wickedness."

Acts Chapter 4

Act 4:1 As Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them.
Act 4:2 They were deeply troubled, because Peter and John were teaching the people and proclaiming in Yeshua the resurrection from the dead.
Act 4:3 They arrested them and put them in jail until the next morning, since it was now dusk.
Act 4:4 But many of the people who had heard the message believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.
Act 4:5 It came about on the next day, that their rulers, elders, and scribes gathered together in Jerusalem.
Act 4:6 Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and all who were relatives of the high priest.
Act 4:7 When they had set Peter and John in their midst, they asked them, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”
Act 4:8 Then Peter, filled with Ruach ha’Kodesh, preached to them, “You rulers of the people and elders of Israel,
Act 4:9 if we this day are being questioned concerning a good deed done to a sick man, by what means was this man made well?
Act 4:10 May this be known to you all and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Yeshua Messiah the Natsari, whom you crucified, whom Yehowah raised from the dead, it is by him that this man stands here healthy before you.
Act 4:11 Yeshua is the Stone which you as builders despised, but which has been made the chief Cornerstone (Psa. 118:22).
Act 4:12 There is no salvation in any other person: For there is no other name under Heaven, that is given among humans, by which we must be saved.”
Act 4:13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and realized that they were ordinary, uneducated men; they were surprised, becoming aware that Peter and John had been with Yeshua.
Act 4:14 Because they saw the man who was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against this.
Act 4:15 But after they had commanded the apostles to leave the Sanhedrin meeting, they talked among themselves.
Act 4:16 They said, “What should we do to these men? For the fact that a remarkable miracle has been done through them is known to everyone who lives in Jerusalem; we cannot deny it.
Act 4:17 But in order that it spreads no further among the people, let us warn them not to speak anymore to anyone in this name.”

Act 4:18 They called Peter and John in and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Yeshua.
Act 4:19 But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in the sight of Yehowah to obey you rather than Yehowah, you judge.
Act 4:20 For we cannot help speaking about the things that we have seen and heard.”
Act 4:21 After further warning Peter and John, they let them go. They were unable to find any excuse to punish them, because all of the people were glorifying Yehowah for what had been done.
Act 4:22 The man who had experienced this miracle of healing was more than forty years old.
Act 4:23 After they were set free, Peter and John came to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them.
Act 4:24 When they heard it, they raised their voices together to Yehowah, “Absolute Master Yehowah, you who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them,
Act 4:25 you who by Ruach ha’Kodesh, by the mouth of our father David your servant, said, ‘Why did the ethnicities rage, and the people imagine useless things?
Act 4:26 The kings of the earth set themselves together, and the rulers gathered together against Yehowah, and against his anointed’ (Psa. 2:1-2)!
Act 4:27 Indeed, both Herod Antipas and Pontius Pilate, together with the non-Jews and the people of Israel, gathered together in this city against your set-apart servant Yeshua, whom you anointed.
Act 4:28 They gathered together to do all that your hand and your desire decided in advance would happen.
Act 4:29 Now Lord, look upon their warnings and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness.
Act 4:30 So that while you stretch out your hand to heal, signs and wonders may happen through the name of your set-apart servant Yeshua.”
Act 4:31 When they finished praying, the place where they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with Ruach ha’Kodesh, and they spoke the Word of Yehowah with boldness.
Act 4:32 The large number of those who believed were of one heart and soul: And not one of them said that anything he possessed was really his own; instead, they had all things in common (like the Essenes).
Act 4:33 With great power, the apostles were proclaiming their testimony about the resurrection of Lord Yeshua, and great grace was upon them all.
Act 4:34 There was no person among them who lacked anything, for all who owned title to lands or houses sold them and brought the money from the things that were sold,

Act 4:35 and laid it at the apostles' feet. And distribution was made to each believer, according as any one had need (like the Essenes).
Act 4:36 Joseph, a Levite, a citizen of Cyprus, was given the name Barnabas by the apostles, that is, being translated, "Son of Encouragement."
Act 4:37 Having a field, he sold it, brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Acts Chapter 5

Act 5:1 Now a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a piece of property,
Act 5:2 and he kept back part of the sale money, his wife also knew it, and brought the other part of it and laid it at the apostles' feet.
Act 5:3 But Peter asked, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to Ruach ha'Kodesh and to keep back part of the price of the land?
Act 5:4 While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your control? How is it that you thought of this thing in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to Yehowah."
Act 5:5 Hearing these words, Ananias fell down and breathed his last. And great fear came upon all who heard it.
Act 5:6 The young men came forward and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him.
Act 5:7 After about three hours, his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.
Act 5:8 Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." She replied, "Yes, for so much."
Act 5:9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test the Ruach of Yehowah? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."
Act 5:10 She instantly fell down at his feet, and breathed her last, and the young men came in and found her dead; they carried her out and buried her by her husband.
Act 5:11 Great fear came upon the whole congregation, and upon all who heard these things.
Act 5:12 Many signs and wonders were taking place among the people through the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon's Portico.
Act 5:13 But no one else had the courage to join them; however, they were held in high esteem by the people.
Act 5:14 Still more believers were being added to the Lord, multitudes of men and women,
Act 5:15 so that they even carried the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, so that as Peter came by, his shadow might fall on some of them.
Act 5:16 There also came together a multitude from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all healed (Mat. 4:24).
Act 5:17 But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him, which is the sect of the Sadducees; and they were filled with jealousy,

Act 5:18 and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in the public jail.
Act 5:19 Yet during the night an angel of Yehowah opened the doors of the jail and led them out, and ordered,
Act 5:20 “Go, stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this Life.”
Act 5:21 When they heard this, they entered into the temple at the crack of dawn and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the Sanhedrin together, all the elders of the people of Israel, and sent to the jail to have the apostles brought.
Act 5:22 But the officers that went did not find them in the prison, and they returned and reported,
Act 5:23 “We found the jail securely shut and the guards standing at the door, but when we had opened it, we found no one inside.”
Act 5:24 Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them, as to what would come of it.
Act 5:25 Then someone came and told them, “The men whom you put in jail are standing in the temple and teaching the people.”
Act 5:26 So the captain went with the officers, and brought them back, but without violence, for they feared that the people might stone them.
Act 5:27 When they had brought them, they set them before the Sanhedrin. The high priest interrogated them,
Act 5:28 “We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, and yet, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and desire to bring this man’s blood upon us.”
Act 5:29 But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey Yehowah rather than people.
Act 5:30 The Mighty One of our fathers raised up Yeshua, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree (cross).
Act 5:31 Yehowah exalted him to his right hand to be Prince and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.
Act 5:32 We are witnesses of these things, and so is Ruach ha’Kodesh, whom Yehowah has given to those who obey him.”
Act 5:33 When the Sanhedrin members heard this, they were furious and wanted to murder the apostles.
Act 5:34 But a Pharisee named Gamaliel (Acts 22:3), a teacher of the law, who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and commanded the apostles to be taken outside for a little while.
Act 5:35 Then he said to them, “Men of Israel, pay close attention to what you propose to do with these people.

Act 5:36 For some time ago, Theudas rose up claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was killed, and all who had been obeying him were scattered and came to nothing.
Act 5:37 After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the (second) census (c. 6 AD) and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all who had been obeying him were scattered.
Act 5:38 Now I say to you, keep away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or work is of humans, it will be overthrown.
Act 5:39 But if it is of Yehowah, you will not be able to overthrow them; you may even find that you are fighting against Yehowah." So they were persuaded.
Act 5:40 Then they called the apostles in, beat them, and commanded them not to speak in the name of Yeshua, and let them go.
Act 5:41 They left the Sanhedrin rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for his name!
Act 5:42 Thereafter, every day in the temple and from house to house, they were continuously teaching and preaching Yeshua Messiah.

Acts Chapter 6

Act 6:1 Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint by the Greek-speaking Messianics began against the Aramaic-speaking Messianics (Acts 11:26), because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food.
Act 6:2 The Twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them and said, “It is not right for us to give up the Word of Yehowah in order to serve tables.
Act 6:3 You should therefore choose, brothers, seven men from among yourselves, men of good reputation, full of Ruach ha’Kodesh and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.
Act 6:4 As for us, we will always continue in prayer and in the ministry of the word.”
Act 6:5 Their speech pleased the whole multitude. So they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and Ruach ha’Kodesh, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte from Antioch.
Act 6:6 The believers brought these men before the apostles, who prayed and then placed their hands upon them.
Act 6:7 So the Word of Yehowah increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a large number of the priests became obedient to the faith.
Act 6:8 Now Stephen, full of faith and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people.
Act 6:9 But there arose some people who belonged to the house of assembly called the Freedmen, of the Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and Asia. These people were debating with Stephen.
Act 6:10 But they were not able to stand against the wisdom and the Ruach with which Stephen spoke.
Act 6:11 Then they secretly persuaded some men to testify, “We have heard Stephen speak blasphemous words against Moses and against Yehowah.”
Act 6:12 They incited the people, the elders, and the scribes, and they confronted Stephen, seized him, and brought him to the Sanhedrin.
Act 6:13 They brought false witnesses, who testified, “This man does not stop speaking words against this Set-apart Place and the law.
Act 6:14 For we have heard him say that Yeshua the Natsari will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us.”
Act 6:15 Everyone who sat in the Sanhedrin fixed their eyes on him and saw his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts Chapter 7

Act 7:1 The high priest asked, “Are these things true?”
Act 7:2 Stephen answered, “Brothers and fathers, listen to me: Yehowah of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran;
Act 7:3 he ordered him, ‘Leave your land and your relatives, and go into the land that I will show you.’
Act 7:4 Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran; from there, after his father died (c. 2090 BC, Gen. 11:32), Yehowah brought him into this land, where you live now.
Act 7:5 He gave none of it as an inheritance to him, no, not even enough to set a foot on. But he promised, even though Abraham had no child yet, that he would give the land as a possession to him and to his descendants after him.
Act 7:6 Yehowah was speaking to him like this, that his descendants would live for awhile in a foreign land, and that the inhabitants there would bring them into slavery and treat them badly for four hundred years (Gen. 15:13).
Act 7:7 ‘And I will judge the ethnicity to which they will be slaves,’ declared Yehowah, ‘and after that they will come out and worship me in this place.’
Act 7:8 And he gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision, so Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day; Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of the twelve patriarchs.
Act 7:9 The patriarchs were motivated by jealousy against Joseph and sold him into Egypt, and Yehowah was with him,
Act 7:10 and rescued him from all his sufferings, and gave him grace and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Pharaoh then made him governor over Egypt and over all his household.
Act 7:11 Now there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great suffering, and our fathers found no food.
Act 7:12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our forefathers the first time.
Act 7:13 At the second time, Joseph showed himself to his brothers; and Joseph’s family became known to Pharaoh.
Act 7:14 Joseph sent his brothers back to tell Jacob his father to come to Egypt, along with all his relatives, seventy persons in all (Gen. 46:27; Exo. 1:5; Deut. 10:22).
Act 7:15 So Jacob went down into Egypt; then he died (c. 1858 BC), himself and our forefathers.
Act 7:16 Jacob’s body was carried over to Hebron and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a price in silver-currency from the sons of Heth in Hebron. Joseph's bones were carried over to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Jacob had bought for a price in silver-currency from the sons of Hamor in Shechem (Gen. 33:18-20; Gen. 50:13; Josh. 24:32).

Act 7:17 As the time of the promise approached, the promise that Yehowah had made to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,
Act 7:18 until there arose another king over Egypt, a king who did not know about Joseph.
Act 7:19 This same king deceived our people and treated our forefathers so badly, they had to expose their infants to danger, hoping they would not survive.
Act 7:20 At that time, Moses was born; he was handsome before Yehowah and was nourished for three months in his father's house (Heb. 11:23; Exo. 2:2, c. 1730 BC).
Act 7:21 When he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and raised him as her own son.
Act 7:22 Moses was educated in all the learning of the Egyptians; and he was mighty in his words and works.
Act 7:23 But when he was about forty years old (c. 1691 BC), it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Israel.
Act 7:24 Seeing an Israeli being mistreated, Moses defended him and avenged him who was oppressed by striking the Egyptian:
Act 7:25 He thought that his brothers would understand that Yehowah by his hand was rescuing them, but they did not understand.
Act 7:26 On the next day, he came to some Israelis as they were quarreling; he tried to put them at peace with each other; he asked, 'Men, you are brothers; why are you hurting one another?'
Act 7:27 But the one who had wronged his neighbor pushed him away and asked, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?
Act 7:28 Would you like to murder me, as you murdered the Egyptian yesterday?'
Act 7:29 Moses ran away after hearing this; he became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.
Act 7:30 When forty years were past (c. 1651 BC), an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a thorn bush.
Act 7:31 When Moses saw the fire, he marveled at the sight; and as he approached to look at it, there came the voice of Yehowah,
Act 7:32 'I am the Mighty One of your fathers, the Mighty One of Abraham, and the Mighty One of Isaac, and the Mighty One of Jacob.' Moses trembled and did not dare to look.
Act 7:33 Yehowah ordered him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place you are standing on is set-apart ground.

Act 7:34 I have certainly seen the suffering of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their groaning, and I have come down to rescue them; now come, I will send you to Egypt.'
Act 7:35 This Moses whom they rejected, when they asked, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?' He was the one whom Yehowah sent as both a ruler and deliverer. Yehowah sent him by the hand of the Angel who appeared to Moses in the thorn bush.
Act 7:36 Moses led them out of Egypt (c. 1650 BC), after doing miracles and signs in Egypt and at the SEA, and in the wilderness during forty years (c. 1650 – 1611 BC).
Act 7:37 It is the same Moses who said to the people of Israel, 'Yehowah your Divine One will raise up a Prophet for you from among your brothers, a Prophet like me; listen to and obey him' (Deut. 18:15, 18; Acts 7:37, 3:22-23; John 1:21, 25; 6:14; 9:17).
Act 7:38 This is the man who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the Angel who had spoken to him on Mount Sinai. This is the man who was with our forefathers; this is the man who received living words to give to us.
Act 7:39 This is the man whom our forefathers refused to obey; they pushed him away from themselves, and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt (Exo. 32).
Act 7:40 At that time, they said to Aaron, 'Make us deities who will lead us. As for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.'
Act 7:41 So they made a calf in those days and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced because of the work of their hands.
Act 7:42 But Yehowah turned and gave them up to worship the stars in the sky, as it is written in the Book of the Prophets, 'Did you offer to me slain beasts and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness, house of Israel?
Act 7:43 You accepted the tabernacle of Molech and the star of the deity Kaiwan, and the images that you made to worship them: And I will carry you away beyond Damascus' (Amos 5:26-27).
Act 7:44 Our forefathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, just as Yehowah commanded when he spoke to Moses, that he should make it like the pattern that he had seen.
Act 7:45 This is the tent that our forefathers, in their turn, brought into the land with Joshua. This happened when they entered in on the possession of the ethnicities that Yehowah drove out before the presence of our forefathers. It was like this until the days of David,
Act 7:46 who found grace in the sight of Yehowah; he asked to find a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob.
Act 7:47 But Solomon built Yehowah a temple.

Act 7:48 However, the Most High does not live in temples made with hands; it is like the prophet says,
Act 7:49 ‘Heaven is my throne, and the earth the footstool for my feet. What kind of temple can you build me?’ asks Yehowah: ‘Or where is the place for my rest?
Act 7:50 Did not my hand make all these things?’
Act 7:51 You people who are stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist Ruach ha’Kodesh; you act just as your forefathers acted.
Act 7:52 Which of the prophets did your forefathers not persecute? They killed the prophets who appeared in advance of the coming of the Righteous One; and you have now become the betrayers and murderers of him also,
Act 7:53 you people who received the law that angels had established, but you did not keep it.”
Act 7:54 Now when the Sanhedrin members heard these things, they became extremely angry in their hearts, and they ground their teeth at Stephen.
Act 7:55 But he, being full of Ruach ha’Kodesh, looked up intently into Heaven and saw the glory of Yehowah; and he saw Yeshua standing at the right hand of Yehowah.
Act 7:56 Stephen exclaimed, “Look, I see Heaven opened, and the Son of Man (Bar Anasha, Dan. 7:13) standing at the right hand of Yehowah!”
Act 7:57 But the Sanhedrin members shouted out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him together;
Act 7:58 they threw him out of the city and stoned him: And the witnesses laid down their outer clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.
Act 7:59 As they were stoning Stephen, he kept calling out, “Lord Yeshua, receive my spirit!”
Act 7:60 He knelt down and called out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” When he had prayed this, he died.

Acts Chapter 8

Act 8:1 Saul was in agreement with Stephen's death. So there began on that day a great persecution against the congregation that was in Jerusalem; and the believers were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.
Act 8:2 Reverent men buried Stephen and made great lamentation over him.
Act 8:3 But Saul greatly harmed the congregation; he went into house after house and dragged out men and women, and put them into prison.
Act 8:4 Yet the believers who had been scattered went about preaching the word.
Act 8:5 Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Messiah.
Act 8:6 When multitudes of people heard and saw the signs that Philip did, they paid attention together to what he said.
Act 8:7 For from many people who had them, unclean spirits came out while loudly crying out; and many paralyzed and lame people were healed.
Act 8:8 And there was much joy in that city.
Act 8:9 But there was a certain man in the city named Simon, who had earlier been practicing magic; he used to astonish the people of Samaria, while claiming that he was an important person.
Act 8:10 All the Samaritans, from the least to the greatest, paid attention to him; they said, "This man is that power of Yehowah which is called great."
Act 8:11 They listened to him, because he had astonished them for a long time with his magical arts.
Act 8:12 But when they believed what Philip preached about the good news concerning the Kingdom of Yehowah and the name of Yeshua Messiah, they were immersed, both men and women.
Act 8:13 And Simon also himself believed: After he was immersed, he continued to be with Philip; when he saw signs and mighty deeds being done, he was amazed.
Act 8:14 Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the Word of Yehowah, they sent to them Peter and John.
Act 8:15 When they had come down, they prayed for them, that they might receive Ruach ha'Kodesh.
Act 8:16 For until that time, Ruach ha'Kodesh had not come upon any of them; they had only been immersed into the name of Lord Yeshua.
Act 8:17 Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received Ruach ha'Kodesh.
Act 8:18 Now when Simon saw that Ruach ha'Kodesh was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money.

Act 8:19 He begged, “Give me this power, too, that whoever I place my hands on might receive Ruach ha’Kodesh.”
Act 8:20 But Peter responded to him, “May your silver coins perish along with you, because you thought to obtain the gift of Yehowah with money.
Act 8:21 You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right with Yehowah.
Act 8:22 Therefore, repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to Yehowah, so that he might perhaps forgive you for the intention of your heart.
Act 8:23 For I see that you are in the poison of bitterness and in the bonds of sin.”
Act 8:24 Simon answered, “Pray to Yehowah for me, that none of the things which you have spoken of may happen to me.”
Act 8:25 When Peter and John had born witness and spoken the Word of Yehowah, they returned to Jerusalem; along the way, they preached the good news to many villages of the Samaritans.
Act 8:26 Now an angel of Yehowah spoke to Philip, “Arise and go toward the south to the desert road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.”
Act 8:27 He arose and went. Behold, there was a man, a eunuch of great authority under Candace Amanitore, queen of the Nubian Kingdom of Meroe (in modern Sudan). He was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship.
Act 8:28 He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.
Act 8:29 The Ruach directed Philip, “Go over and stay close to this chariot.”
Act 8:30 So Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”
Act 8:31 He asked, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” He begged Philip to come up into the chariot and sit with him.
Act 8:32 Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this, “He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and as a lamb before his shearer is silent, he does not open his mouth.
Act 8:33 In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away: Who will declare his generation? For his life was taken from the earth” (Isa. 53:7-8).
Act 8:34 So the eunuch asked Philip, “I beg you, of whom is the prophet speaking? Of himself, or of some other person?”
Act 8:35 Philip began to speak; he started with this Scripture in Isaiah to preach Yeshua to him.
Act 8:36 As they went on the road, they came to some water; the eunuch asked, “Look, there is water here; what prevents me from being immersed?”

Act 8:37 Philip answered, “If you believe with all your heart, you may be immersed.” He responded, “I believe that Yeshua Messiah is the Son of Yehowah.”
Act 8:38 So he commanded the chariot to stop. They went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and Philip immersed him.
Act 8:39 When they came up out of the water, the Ruach of Yehowah took Philip away; the eunuch saw him no longer, and he went on his way rejoicing!
Act 8:40 But Philip appeared at Azotus (Ashdod). He passed through that region and preached the good news to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea Maritima.

Acts Chapter 9

Act 9:1 But Saul, still speaking threats even of murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest
Act 9:2 and asked him for letters to the houses of assembly in Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem.
Act 9:3 As he was traveling, it happened that as he came near to Damascus, suddenly there shone all around him a light out of Heaven;
Act 9:4 and he fell upon the ground and heard a voice asking him (in Aramaic; Acts 26:14), "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"
Act 9:5 Saul asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The Lord answered, "I AM Yeshua, whom you are persecuting; it is difficult for you to kick against the goads."
Act 9:6 Also trembling and astounded, he asked, "Lord, what do you desire that I do?" And the Lord answered him, "Rise, enter into the city, and it will be told you what you must do."
Act 9:7 The men who traveled with Saul stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one.
Act 9:8 Saul arose from the ground, and when he opened his eyes, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus.
Act 9:9 For three days, he was without sight, and he neither ate nor drank.
Act 9:10 Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias; and the Lord spoke to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he answered, "See, I am here, Lord."
Act 9:11 Yeshua commanded him, "Arise, and go to Straight Street, and at the house of Judah ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul; for he is praying;
Act 9:12 and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and laying his hands on him, in order that he may receive his sight."
Act 9:13 But Ananias responded, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much harm he has done to your set-apart adherents in Jerusalem.
Act 9:14 He has authority from the chief priests to arrest everyone here who calls upon your name."
Act 9:15 But Yeshua explained to him, "Go, for he is a chosen instrument of mine, to carry my name before the ethnicities, kings, and the children of Israel;
Act 9:16 for I will show him how much he must suffer for the cause of my name."
Act 9:17 So Ananias departed and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, Lord Yeshua, who appeared to you on the road when you were coming, has sent me, so that you may receive your sight and be filled with Ruach ha'Kodesh."
Act 9:18 Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he received his sight; he arose and was immersed;

Act 9:19 and he ate and was strengthened. Then Saul stayed with the disciples in Damascus for several days.
Act 9:20 Right away (Gal. 1:17), he proclaimed Messiah in the houses of assembly, preaching that he is the Son of Yehowah.
Act 9:21 All who heard him were amazed and said, “Is not this the man who destroyed those in Jerusalem who called on this name? And he has come here in order to bring them bound to the chief priests.”
Act 9:22 But Saul became more and more powerful, and he was causing distress among the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Yeshua is Messiah.
Act 9:23 After many days, the Jews planned together to murder him.
Act 9:24 But their plan became known to Saul. They watched the gates day and night in order to murder him.
Act 9:25 But the disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.
Act 9:26 When he had come to Jerusalem (c. 36 AD), Saul attempted to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.
Act 9:27 But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles (Peter and Jacob only, per Gal.1:18-19). And he told them how Saul had seen Yeshua on the road, and that the Lord had spoken to him, and how at Damascus, Saul had boldly preached in the name of Yeshua.
Act 9:28 He met with them as they were coming in and going out of Jerusalem.
Act 9:29 He spoke boldly in the name of Lord Yeshua and debated with the Grecian Jews; but they kept trying to murder him.
Act 9:30 When the brothers learned of this, they brought him down to Caesarea Maritima and sent him away to Tarsus.
Act 9:31 So then the congregation throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had peace and was built up; they grew in numbers, walked in the fear of Yehowah, and in the comfort of Ruach ha’Kodesh.
Act 9:32 Now it came about that, as Peter went throughout the whole region, he came down also to the believers who lived in the town of Lydda.
Act 9:33 There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been in his bed for eight years, for he was paralyzed.
Act 9:34 Peter commanded him, “Aeneas, Yeshua Messiah heals you. Get up and make your bed!” And right away he rose up.
Act 9:35 So everyone who lived in Lydda and in Sharon saw the man, and they turned to the Lord.
Act 9:36 Now there was in Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated as “Dorcas.” This woman was full of good works and merciful deeds that she did for the poor.
Act 9:37 It came about in those days, that she fell sick and died; when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room (1 Cor. 15:29).

Act 9:38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, begging him, “Come to us without delay.”
Act 9:39 Peter arose and went with them. When he had arrived, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him weeping, showing him the coats and garments that Dorcas had made while she had been with them.
Act 9:40 Peter put them all out of the room, knelt down, and prayed; then turning to the body, he commanded, “Tabitha, arise!” She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
Act 9:41 Peter then gave her his hand and lifted her up; and when he called the believers and the widows, he presented her alive to them.
Act 9:42 This matter became known throughout all Joppa, and many people believed on the Lord.
Act 9:43 It happened that Peter stayed for many days in Joppa with a man named Simon, a tanner.

Acts Chapter 10

Act 10:1 Now there was a certain man in the city of Caesarea Maritima (c. 40 AD), Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian cohort.
Act 10:2 He was a reverent man, one who worshiped Yehowah with all his household; he gave a lot of alms to the people and was always praying to Yehowah.
Act 10:3 About 3 pm, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of Yehowah coming to him. The angel called him, “Cornelius!”
Act 10:4 Cornelius stared at the angel and was frightened, and asked, “What is it, sir?” The angel said to him, “Your prayers and your alms to the poor have gone up as a memorial offering into the presence of Yehowah.
Act 10:5 Now send men to the city of Joppa to bring a man named Simon who is called Peter.
Act 10:6 He is staying with a tanner named Simon, whose house is by the seaside. He will tell you what you should do.”
Act 10:7 When the angel who spoke to him had left, Cornelius called two of his house servants, and a reverent soldier from among the soldiers who were also serving him.
Act 10:8 Cornelius told them all that had happened and sent them to Joppa.
Act 10:9 Now on the next day, at about 12 pm, as they were on their journey and were approaching the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray.
Act 10:10 He then became hungry and wanted something to eat, but while the people were cooking some food, he was given a vision,
Act 10:11 and he saw the sky open and a certain container descending, something like a large sheet coming down to the earth, let down by its four corners.
Act 10:12 In it were all kinds of four-footed mammals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky.
Act 10:13 Then a voice spoke to him: “Stand up, Peter, kill and eat.”
Act 10:14 But Peter responded, “No way, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that was defiled or unclean.”
Act 10:15 But the voice came to him again a second time: “Whom Yehowah has cleansed, do not call defiled.”
Act 10:16 This happened three times; then the container was immediately taken back up into the sky.
Act 10:17 Now while Peter was confused about what the vision that he had seen could mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius stood before the gate, after they had asked their way to Simon’s house.

Act 10:18 And they called out and asked whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was staying there.
Act 10:19 While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Ruach directed him, "See, three men are looking for you.
Act 10:20 Arise, go down, and go with them. Do not hesitate to go with them, because I have sent them."
Act 10:21 So Peter went down to the men sent from Cornelius and said, "I am he whom you are seeking. What is the reason why you have come?"
Act 10:22 They answered, "A centurion named Cornelius, a righteous man and one who worships Yehowah, and is well spoken of by all the Jewish nation, was told by a set-apart angel of Yehowah to send for you to come to his house, so he could listen to a message from you."
Act 10:23 So Peter invited them to come in and stay with him. On the next day, he rose up and went with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.
Act 10:24 On the following day, they came to Caesarea Maritima. Cornelius was waiting for them; he had called together his relatives and his close friends.
Act 10:25 It came about that when Peter entered, Cornelius met him and bowed down at his feet to worship him.
Act 10:26 But Peter helped him up, saying, "Stand up! I too am a human."
Act 10:27 While Peter was talking with him, he went in and found many people gathered together.
Act 10:28 He said to them, "You yourselves know that it is not lawful for a Jewish man to associate with or to visit a foreigner. But Yehowah has shown me that I should not call any human defiled or unclean.
Act 10:29 That is why I came without arguing, when I was sent for. So I ask you why you sent for me?"
Act 10:30 Cornelius answered, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour. I was praying at 3 pm in my house; and see, a man stood before me in bright clothing.
Act 10:31 He said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms to the poor have reminded Yehowah about you.
Act 10:32 So send someone to Joppa, and call to you a man named Simon who is called Peter. He is staying in the house of a tanner named Simon, by the seaside. When he comes, he will preach to you.'
Act 10:33 So at once I sent for you. You are kind to have come. Now then, we are all here present in the sight of Yehowah, to hear everything that you have been instructed by Yehowah to say."
Act 10:34 Then Peter opened his mouth, "Truly, I perceive that Yehowah does not exhibit partiality.
Act 10:35 Instead, in every ethnicity anyone who worships him and does righteous deeds is acceptable to him.

Act 10:36 You know the message that he sent to the people of Israel, when he announced the good news of peace through Yeshua Messiah, who is Lord of all.
Act 10:37 You yourselves know the events that took place, which occurred throughout all Judea, beginning in Galilee, after the immersion that John announced;
Act 10:38 the events concerning Yeshua the Natsari, how Yehowah anointed him with Ruach ha'Kodesh and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the Devil, for Yehowah was with him.
Act 10:39 We are witnesses of all things that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem, this Yeshua whom they murdered, hanging him on a tree (cross).
Act 10:40 This Man, Yehowah raised up on the third day and gave him to be made known,
Act 10:41 not to all the people, but to the witnesses who were chosen beforehand by Yehowah, we ourselves, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
Act 10:42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that this is the One who has been appointed by Yehowah to be the Judge of the living and the dead.
Act 10:43 It is to him that all the prophets bear witness, so that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."
Act 10:44 While Peter was still preaching these things, Ruach ha'Kodesh fell on all of those who were listening to his message.
Act 10:45 All of the circumcised Messianics who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of Ruach ha'Kodesh was poured out also on the ethnicities.
Act 10:46 For they heard them speaking multilingually and praising Yehowah.
Act 10:47 Then Peter asked, "Can anyone keep water from these people, so they should not be immersed, these who have received Ruach ha'Kodesh as well as we?"
Act 10:48 Then he commanded them to be immersed in the name of Yeshua. Then they asked him to stay with them for several days.

Acts Chapter 11

Act 11:1 Now the apostles and the brethren and sistren who were in Judea heard that the ethnicities also had received the Word of Yehowah.
Act 11:2 When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, they who belonged to the circumcision group criticized him,
Act 11:3 "You associated with uncircumcised men and ate with them!"
Act 11:4 But Peter started to explain the matter to them in chronological detail,
Act 11:5 "I was praying in the city of Joppa, and I had a vision of a container coming down, like a large sheet let down from Heaven by its four corners. It descended to me.
Act 11:6 I gazed at it, and I thought about it. I saw the four-legged mammals of earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky.
Act 11:7 Then I heard a voice order me, "Stand up, Peter; kill and eat!"
Act 11:8 I responded, "No way, Lord: For nothing defiled or unclean has ever entered into my mouth."
Act 11:9 But the voice spoke again from Heaven, "Whom Yehowah has cleansed, do not call defiled."
Act 11:10 This happened three times, and then everything was taken back up into Heaven again.
Act 11:11 Behold, right away there were three men standing in front of the house where we were; they had been sent from Caesarea Maritima to me.
Act 11:12 The Ruach told me to go with them, and that I should make no distinction regarding them. These six Messianic brothers went with me, and we went into the man's house.
Act 11:13 He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, "Send men to Joppa and bring back Simon who is called Peter.
Act 11:14 He will preach to you a message by which you will be saved, you and all your household."
Act 11:15 As I began to speak to them, Ruach ha'Kodesh came on them, just as on us in the beginning (Acts 2; Shavuot; c. 30 AD).
Act 11:16 I remembered the words of Yeshua, how he prophesied, "John indeed immersed with water; but you will be immersed in Ruach ha'Kodesh."
Act 11:17 Then if Yehowah gave to them the same gift as he gave to us when we believed on Lord Yeshua Messiah, who was I, that I could oppose Yehowah?"
Act 11:18 When they heard these things, they said nothing in response, but they glorified Yehowah, "Then Yehowah has given repentance unto life to the ethnicities also!"

Act 11:19 Now those who had been scattered because of the persecution that started with the death of Stephen were spread as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, but they told the message only to Jews (c. 40 AD).
Act 11:20 But some of them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, came to Antioch and spoke also to the Grecian Jews, telling them the good news of Lord Yeshua.
Act 11:21 And the hand of Yehowah was with them; a large number believed and turned to the Lord.
Act 11:22 News about them came to the ears of the congregation in Jerusalem: And they sent out Barnabas as far as Antioch.
Act 11:23 When he came and saw the grace of Yehowah, he was glad; and he encouraged them all to remain with the Lord with all their heart.
Act 11:24 For he was a good man and full of Ruach ha'Kodesh and faith, and many people were added to the Lord.
Act 11:25 Barnabas then went out to Tarsus to look for Saul.
Act 11:26 When he found him, he brought him to Antioch. It came about, that for an entire year they gathered together with the congregation and taught many people (c. 41 AD). The disciples were called Messianics (Meshichim) first in Antioch.
Act 11:27 Now in these days, some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.
Act 11:28 One of them, Agabus by name, stood up and indicated by the Ruach that a great famine would occur over all the world. This happened in the days of Caesar Claudius I (c. 44 AD).
Act 11:29 So the disciples, as each one was able, decided to send help to the brethren and sistren in Judea.
Act 11:30 They did this; they sent money to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Acts Chapter 12

Act 12:1 Now about that time, King Herod Agrippa I laid hands on some who belonged to the congregation, so that he might mistreat them.
Act 12:2 He murdered Jacob the brother of John with the sword.
Act 12:3 After he saw that this pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. That was during the days of Unleavened Bread.
Act 12:4 After arresting him, he put him in prison and assigned four squads of soldiers to guard him; he was intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.
Act 12:5 So Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer was made earnestly to Yehowah for him by those in the congregation.
Act 12:6 The day before Herod was going to bring him out for execution, that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and guards in front of the door were watching over the prison.
Act 12:7 Behold, an angel of Yehowah suddenly appeared by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him, and said, “Get up quickly.” Then his chains fell off from his hands.
Act 12:8 The angel said to him, “Dress yourself and put on your sandals.” Peter did so. The angel said to him, “Put on your outer garment and follow me.”
Act 12:9 So Peter followed the angel and went out. He did not know that what was done by the angel was real. He thought he was seeing a vision.
Act 12:10 After they had passed by the first guard and the second, they came to the iron gate that led into the city; it opened for them by itself. They went out and went down a street, and the angel left him right away.
Act 12:11 When Peter came to sentience, he said, “Now I truly know that Yehowah has sent his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod Agrippa I, and from all the expectation of the Jewish people.”
Act 12:12 After he realized this, he came to the house of Miriam the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; many believers had gathered there and were praying.
Act 12:13 When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer.
Act 12:14 When she recognized Peter’s voice, out of joy she failed to open the door; instead, she came running into the room; she reported that Peter was standing at the door.
Act 12:15 So they said to her, “You are insane.” But she insisted that it was so. They said, “It is his angel.”
Act 12:16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened the door, they saw him and were amazed.

Act 12:17 Peter motioned to them with his hand to be silent, and he told them how Yehowah had brought him out of prison. He said, “Report these things to Jacob and to the brethren and sistren.” Then he left and went to another place.
Act 12:18 Now when it became day, there was no small excitement among the soldiers, regarding what had happened to Peter.
Act 12:19 After Herod had searched for him and could not find him, he questioned the guards and ordered them to be executed. Then Herod went down from Judea to Caesarea Maritima and stayed there.
Act 12:20 Now Herod Agrippa I was extremely angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They went to him together. They persuaded Blastus, the king’s assistant, to help them. Then they asked for peace, because their country received its food from the king’s country.
Act 12:21 On a set day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing and sat on a throne; he made a speech to them.
Act 12:22 The people shouted, “This is the voice of a deity, not of a human!”
Act 12:23 Immediately, an angel of Yehowah struck him, because he did not give Yehowah the glory; he was eaten by worms and died (c. 44 AD).
Act 12:24 But the Word of Yehowah grew and multiplied.
Act 12:25 After Barnabas and Saul completed their mission to Jerusalem, they returned from there (c. 44 AD); they took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Acts Chapter 13

Act 13:1 Now in the congregation in Syrian Antioch, there were some prophets and teachers. They were Barnabas, Symeon, called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen, the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
Act 13:2 While they were worshiping Yehowah and fasting, Ruach ha'Kodesh directed, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul, to do the work for which I have called them."
Act 13:3 After they had fasted, prayed, and laid their hands on these men, they sent them off.
Act 13:4 So Barnabas and Saul obeyed Ruach ha'Kodesh and went down to Seleucia; from there they sailed to the island of Cyprus (c. 44 AD; 1st missionary journey).
Act 13:5 When they were in the city of Salamis, they proclaimed the Word of Yehowah in the houses of assembly of the Jews. They also had John Mark as their assistant.
Act 13:6 When they had gone through the whole island to Paphos, they found a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar Yehoshua, Act 13:7 who associated with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, because he wanted to hear the Word of Yehowah.
Act 13:8 But Elymas "the magician," that is how his name is translated, opposed them; he tried to turn the proconsul away from the faith.
Act 13:9 But Saul, who is also called Paul (Acts 22:28, his Roman name), filled with Ruach ha'Kodesh, stared at him intensely,
Act 13:10 and prophesied, "You son of the Devil, you are full of all kinds of deceit and wickedness. You are an enemy of every kind of righteousness. You will never stop twisting the straight Paths of Yehowah, will you?
Act 13:11 Now look, the hand of Yehowah is upon you, and you will become blind. You will not see the sun for awhile." Immediately, there fell on Elymas a mist and darkness; he started going around asking people to lead him by the hand.
Act 13:12 After the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, because he was astonished at the teaching of Yeshua.
Act 13:13 Now Paul and his friends set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia. But John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem.
Act 13:14 Paul and his friends traveled from Perga and came to Pisidian Antioch. There they went into the house of assembly on the Sabbath day and sat down.
Act 13:15 After the reading of the law and the prophets (weekly Torah portion in the Tanakh), the leaders of the house of assembly sent them a message,

“Brothers, if you have any message of encouragement for the people here, express it.”
Act 13:16 So Paul stood up and motioned with his hand; he preached, “Men of Israel and you who honor Yehowah, listen.
Act 13:17 The Mighty One of this people Israel chose our forefathers and made the people numerous when they stayed as foreigners in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm he led them out of it (c. 1650 BC).
Act 13:18 For about forty years, he put up with them in the wilderness.
Act 13:19 After he had destroyed seven ethnicities in the land of Canaan, he gave our people their land for an inheritance,
Act 13:20 for about four hundred fifty years. After all these things, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet (c. 1123 BC).
Act 13:21 Then the people asked for a king, and Yehowah gave them Saul son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benjamin, to be king for forty years (died, c. 1063 BC).
Act 13:22 After Yehowah removed him from the kingship, he raised up David to be their king. It was about David that Yehowah said, ‘I have found David son of Jesse to be a man after my heart, who does all I want him to do.’
Act 13:23 From this man’s descendants Yehowah has raised for Israel a Savior, Yeshua, as he promised to do.
Act 13:24 This began to happen when, before Yeshua came, John first announced the immersion of repentance to all the people of Israel.
Act 13:25 As John was finishing his work, he said, ‘Who do you think I am? I am not the One. But listen, One is coming after me, the sandal of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.’
Act 13:26 Brethren and sistren, children of the line of Abraham, and those among you who worship Yehowah, it is to us that the message about this salvation has been sent.
Act 13:27 For they who live in Jerusalem, and their rulers, did not recognize him, and they fulfilled sayings of the prophets that are read every Sabbath, by condemning him.
Act 13:28 Even though they found no good cause for death in him, they asked Pontius Pilate to murder him.
Act 13:29 When they had completed all the things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree (cross) and laid him in a tomb.
Act 13:30 But Yehowah raised him from the dead (c. 30 AD).
Act 13:31 He was seen for many days by those who had come up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to the ethnicities.
Act 13:32 So we are bringing you the good news about the promise made to our forefathers:

Act 13:33 Yehowah has kept this promise to us, their children, in that he raised up Yeshua back to life. This is also what was written in the second Psalm: ‘You are my Son, today I have become your Father.’
Act 13:34 Also, about the fact that he raised him up from the dead, so that his body will not return to decomposition, he has spoken like this: ‘I will give you the trustworthy and sure blessings of David.’
Act 13:35 This is why he also says in another Psalm, ‘You will not allow your Set-apart One to see decomposition’ (Psa. 16:10).
Act 13:36 For after David had in his own generation served the desires of Yehowah, he died (c. 1023 BC), was laid with his fathers, and saw decomposition,
Act 13:37 but he whom Yehowah raised up saw no decomposition.
Act 13:38 So let it be known to you, brethren and sistren, that through this Man is proclaimed to you forgiveness of sins.
Act 13:39 By him every one who believes is justified from all the things which the Law of Moses could not justify you.
Act 13:40 So then be careful that the thing the prophets spoke about does not happen to you:
Act 13:41 ‘Look, you despisers, and be astonished and then perish; for I am doing a work in your days, a work that you will never believe, even if someone announces it to you.’”
Act 13:42 As the Jews left the house of assembly, the ethnicities begged Paul and Barnabas, that they might speak these same words again the next Sabbath.
Act 13:43 When the gathering ended, many of the Jews and reverent proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of Yehowah.
Act 13:44 On the next Sabbath, almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the Word of Yehowah.
Act 13:45 When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and spoke against the things that were said by Paul, insulting him and blaspheming.
Act 13:46 But Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, “It was necessary that the Word of Yehowah should first be spoken to you. Seeing you push it away from yourselves and consider yourselves unworthy of eternal life, see, we will turn to the ethnicities.
Act 13:47 For so has the Lord commanded us, ‘I have placed you as a light for the ethnicities, that you should bring Salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth’” (Isa. 49:6).
Act 13:48 As the non-Jews heard this, they were glad and glorified the Word of Yehowah. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed.
Act 13:49 The Word of Yehowah spread throughout that whole region.

Act 13:50 But the Jews urged on the reverent and important women, as well as the leading men of the city. These stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas and threw them out beyond their borders.
Act 13:51 But Paul and Barnabas shook off the dust from their feet against them. Then they went to the city of Iconium.
Act 13:52 And the disciples were filled with joy and Ruach ha'Kodesh.

Acts Chapter 14

Act 14:1 It came about in Iconium, that Paul and Barnabas entered together into the Jews' house of assembly and spoke in such a way that a great multitude both of Jews and Greeks believed.
Act 14:2 But the Jews who were disobedient stirred up the minds of the ethnicities and made them bitter against the brothers.
Act 14:3 So they stayed there for a long time, speaking boldly with the power of Yehowah, while he gave evidence about the message of his grace. He did this by granting signs and wonders to be done by the hands of Paul and Barnabas.
Act 14:4 But the majority of the city was divided: Some people sided with the Jews and some with the apostles.
Act 14:5 When both ethnicities and Jews attempted to persuade their leaders to mistreat and stone Paul and Barnabas,
Act 14:6 they became aware of it and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the surrounding region,
Act 14:7 and there they were preaching the good news.
Act 14:8 At Lystra a certain man sat, powerless in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked.
Act 14:9 This man heard Paul speaking. Paul fixed his eyes on him, and saw that he had faith to be made well.
Act 14:10 So he commanded him in a loud voice, "Stand up on your feet!" And the man jumped up and walked around.
Act 14:11 When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they raised their voice, saying in the dialect of Lycaonia, "The deities have come down to us in the form of men!"
Act 14:12 They called Barnabas, "Zeus," and Paul, "Hermes," because he was the main speaker.
Act 14:13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought oxen and wreaths to the gates; he and the multitudes wanted to offer sacrifice.
Act 14:14 But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothing and quickly went out into the crowd, crying out,
Act 14:15 "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are humans with the same feelings as you! We bring you the good news, that you should turn from these useless things to living Yehowah, who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and everything that is in them!
Act 14:16 In the past ages, he allowed all the ethnicities to walk in their own ways.

Act 14:17 But still, he did not leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you the rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness."
Act 14:18 Even with these words, Paul and Barnabas barely kept the multitudes from sacrificing to them.
Act 14:19 But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came and persuaded the crowds. They stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, thinking according to their custom that he was dead.
Act 14:20 Yet as the disciples were standing around him, he rose up and entered the city. The next day, he went to Derbe with Barnabas.
Act 14:21 After they had preached the good news in that city and discipled many, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch.
Act 14:22 They kept strengthening the souls of the disciples and encouraging them to continue in the faith, "We must enter into the Kingdom of Yehowah through many tribulations."
Act 14:23 When they had appointed for them elders in every congregation, and had prayed with fasting, they entrusted them to the Lord, in whom they had believed.
Act 14:24 Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia.
Act 14:25 When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.
Act 14:26 From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been committed to the grace of Yehowah for the work which they had now completed (c. 46 AD).
Act 14:27 When they arrived in Antioch and gathered the congregation together, they reported all the things that Yehowah had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith for the ethnicities.
Act 14:28 They stayed for a long time with the disciples (c. 46-49 AD).

Acts Chapter 15

Act 15:1 Certain men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.”
Act 15:2 When Paul and Barnabas had a confrontation and debate with them, the brothers decided that Paul, Barnabas, and certain others should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question (c. 49 AD).
Act 15:3 They therefore, being sent by the congregation, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria and announced the conversion of the ethnicities. They brought great joy to all the brethren and sistren.
Act 15:4 When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the congregation, the apostles, and the elders, and they reported all the things that Yehowah had done with them.
Act 15:5 But Messianic believers who belonged to the sect of Pharisees stood up and said, “It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the Law of Moses.”
Act 15:6 So the apostles and the elders gathered together to consider this matter.
Act 15:7 After much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that a good while ago Yehowah made a choice among you, that by my mouth the ethnicities should hear the word of the good news and believe.
Act 15:8 Yehowah, who knows the heart, witnesses to them, giving them Ruach ha’Kodesh, just as he did to us;
Act 15:9 and he made no distinction between us and them, making their hearts clean by faith.
Act 15:10 Now therefore, why do you test Yehowah, that you should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?
Act 15:11 But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of Lord Yeshua Messiah, just as they were.”
Act 15:12 All the multitude kept silent while they listened to Barnabas and Paul report the signs and wonders Yehowah had worked among the ethnicities through them.
Act 15:13 After they stopped speaking, Jacob answered, “Brothers, listen to me.
Act 15:14 Simon has told how Yehowah first graciously helped the ethnicities in order to take from them a people for his name.
Act 15:15 The words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written,
Act 15:16 ‘After these things I will return, and I will build again the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; I will set it up and restore its ruins again,
Act 15:17 so that the remnant of people may seek Yehowah, including all the ethnicities called by my name.

Act 15:18 This is what Yehowah declares, who has done these things that have been well known from ancient times' (Amos 9:11-12).
Act 15:19 Therefore, my opinion is that we should not trouble those of the ethnicities who return to Yehowah (Isa. 10:22);
Act 15:20 but that we write to them that they must keep away from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is suffocated, and from consuming blood (Lev. 17:10-14; Gen. 9:4; Deut. 12:23; Deut. 15:23).
Act 15:21 From generations of old there are people in every city who are preaching and reading Moses in the houses of assembly every Sabbath (discipleship by studying the weekly Torah portion; Mat. 28:19; Luke 16:29)."
Act 15:22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole congregation (Acts 11:26), to choose Judah called Barsabbas, and Silas, who were leaders of the brethren and sistren, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas.
Act 15:23 They wrote this: "The apostles, the elders and brothers, to the non-Jewish brothers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia, greetings.
Act 15:24 We have heard that certain men to whom we gave no such commandment, went out from us and have troubled you with teachings that upset your souls, saying you must be circumcised and observe the law.
Act 15:25 So it seemed good to all of us to agree to choose men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
Act 15:26 people who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Act 15:27 We have sent therefore Judah and Silas, who will also tell you the same things.
Act 15:28 For it seemed good to Ruach ha'Kodesh and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:
Act 15:29 That you turn away from things sacrificed to idols, from consuming blood, from things suffocated, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these, it will be well with you. Farewell."
Act 15:30 So they, when they were dismissed, came down to Antioch; after they gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter.
Act 15:31 When they had read it, they rejoiced because of the encouragement!
Act 15:32 Judah and Silas, also prophets, encouraged the brethren and sistren with many words and strengthened them.
Act 15:33 After they had spent some time there, they were sent away in peace from the brethren and sistren to the apostles.
Act 15:34 But it seemed good to Silas to remain there.
Act 15:35 But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch along with many others, where they taught and preached the Word of Yehowah.

Act 15:36 After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us return now and visit the brethren and sistren in every city where we proclaimed the Word of Yehowah, and see how they are.
Act 15:37 Barnabas wanted to also take with them John who was called Mark (Col. 4:10).
Act 15:38 But Paul thought it was not good to take Mark, who had left them in Pamphylia and did not go further with them in the work.
Act 15:39 Then there arose a sharp disagreement, so that they separated from each other, and Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus.
Act 15:40 But Paul chose Silas and left, after he was entrusted by the brothers to the grace of Yehowah.
Act 15:41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the congregations (c. 49 AD; 2nd missionary journey).

Acts Chapter 16

Act 16:1 Paul also came to Derbe and to Lystra; and behold, a certain disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a Messianic Jewess; his father was a Greek.
Act 16:2 He was well spoken of by the brethren and sistren who were at Lystra and Iconium.
Act 16:3 Paul wanted him to travel with him; so he took him and circumcised him, because of the Jews that were in those parts, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.
Act 16:4 As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered to the congregations the instructions for them to obey, the instructions that had been written by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem.
Act 16:5 So the congregations were strengthened in the faith and increased in number daily.
Act 16:6 Paul and his companions went through the regions of Phrygia and Galatia, since they had been forbidden by Ruach ha'Kodesh to preach the word in the province of Asia.
Act 16:7 When they came near Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, but the Ruach prevented them.
Act 16:8 So passing by Mysia, they came down to the city of Troas.
Act 16:9 A vision appeared to Paul in the night: A man of Macedonia was standing there, calling him, "Come over into Macedonia and help us!"
Act 16:10 When Paul had seen the vision, immediately we set out to go to Macedonia, concluding that Yehowah had called us to preach the good news to them (c. 49 AD; 2nd missionary journey).
Act 16:11 Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day we came to Neapolis;
Act 16:12 From there we went to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the most important city in the district and a Roman colony, and we stayed in this city for several days.
Act 16:13 On the Sabbath, we went outside the gate by the river, where we thought there would be a place of prayer. We sat down and spoke to the women who had come together.
Act 16:14 A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple cloth, from the city of Thyatira, who worshiped Yehowah, listened to us. Yehowah opened her heart to pay attention to the things which were spoken by Paul.
Act 16:15 When she was immersed, and her household, she urged us, "If you have judged me to be faithful to Yehowah, come into my house and stay there." And she persuaded us.

Act 16:16 It came about that, as we were going to the place of prayer, a certain young woman who had a spirit of divination encountered us. She brought her masters much gain by fortunetelling.
Act 16:17 This woman followed after Paul and us, and shouted, “These men are servants of Most High Yehowah! They proclaim to you the Way of salvation!”
Act 16:18 She did this for many days. But Paul, being greatly annoyed by her, turned and ordered the spirit, “I command you in the name of Yeshua Messiah to come out of her.” And it came out right away.
Act 16:19 When her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.
Act 16:20 When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men are Jews and are making a lot of trouble in our city.
Act 16:21 They are teaching things that are not lawful for us to receive or to observe as Romans.”
Act 16:22 Then the crowd rose up together against Paul and Silas; the magistrates tore their garments off them and commanded them to be beaten with rods.
Act 16:23 When they had laid many blows upon them, they threw them into prison and commanded the jailer to keep them securely.
Act 16:24 After he received this command, the jailer threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks (c. 49 AD).
Act 16:25 Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to Yehowah, and the other prisoners were listening to them.
Act 16:26 Suddenly, there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately, all the doors were opened, and everyone’s chains were unfastened.
Act 16:27 The jailer was awakened from sleep and saw the open prison doors; he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, because he thought that the prisoners had escaped.
Act 16:28 But Paul shouted with a loud voice, “Do not harm yourself, because we are all here!”
Act 16:29 The jailer called for lights and rushed in, and trembling for fear, fell down before Paul and Silas,
Act 16:30 and brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”
Act 16:31 They answered, “Believe in Lord Yeshua Messiah, so that you may be saved, you and your household.”
Act 16:32 They spoke the Word of Yehowah to him, together with everyone in his household.
Act 16:33 Then the jailer took them at the same hour of the night, and washed their wounds, and he and all his household were immersed immediately.

Act 16:34 He brought Paul and Silas up into his house and set food before them. He rejoiced greatly with all his household, because they had all believed in Yehowah.
Act 16:35 Now when it was day, the magistrates sent word to the guards, “Let those men go.”
Act 16:36 The jailer reported the words to Paul, “The magistrates have sent word to me to let you go: Now therefore, come out and go in peace.”
Act 16:37 But Paul replied to them, “They have publicly beaten us, men who are uncondemned Romans, and have thrown us into prison; and do they now drive us out secretly? No indeed; let them come themselves and bring us out.”
Act 16:38 The guards reported these words to the magistrates; the magistrates were afraid when they heard that Paul and Silas were Romans.
Act 16:39 The magistrates came and begged them; and when they had brought them out of prison, they asked Paul and Silas to leave the city.
Act 16:40 So Paul and Silas went out of the prison and came to the house of Lydia. When Paul and Silas saw the brethren and sistren, they encouraged them and then departed from the city.

Acts Chapter 17

Act 17:1 Now when they had passed through the cities of Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to the city of Thessalonica, where there was the Jews' house of assembly.
Act 17:2 Paul, as his custom was, went to them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures (Tanakh).
Act 17:3 He was opening the Scriptures and explaining that it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise again from the dead, "This Yeshua whom I proclaim to you is Messiah."
Act 17:4 Some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, including the reverent Greeks, many of the leading women, and a large crowd.
Act 17:5 But the unbelieving Jews, being moved with jealousy, took certain wicked men from the marketplace, gathered a crowd together, and set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they wanted to bring Paul and Silas out to the people.
Act 17:6 But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and certain other brothers before the officials of the city (Acts 11:26), crying, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also!
Act 17:7 These men whom Jason has welcomed act against the decrees of Caesar Claudius I; they say that there is another king, Yeshua!"
Act 17:8 When the crowd and the officials of the city heard these things, they were troubled.
Act 17:9 After they had taken financial security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.
Act 17:10 That night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. When they arrived there, they went into the Jews' house of assembly.
Act 17:11 Now these people were more noble than those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.
Act 17:12 Therefore, many of them believed, including some influential Greek women and many men.
Act 17:13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that Paul was also proclaiming the Word of Yehowah at Berea, they went there and agitated the crowds.
Act 17:14 Then immediately, the brothers sent Paul to go to the sea, but Silas and Timothy stayed there.
Act 17:15 Those who were leading Paul took him as far as the city of Athens. As they left Paul there, they received from him instructions for Silas and Timothy to come to him as quickly as possible.

Act 17:16 Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols.
Act 17:17 So he reasoned in the house of assembly with the Jews and those who worshiped Yehowah, and also with those he met every day in the marketplace.
Act 17:18 But also, some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some asked, “What is this babbler trying to say?” Others said, “He seems to be a preacher of foreign deities,” because he was preaching Yeshua and the resurrection.
Act 17:19 They took Paul and brought him to the Areopagus, asking, “May we know this new teaching which you were speaking?
Act 17:20 For you bring some strange things to our ears. Therefore, we want to know what these things mean.”
Act 17:21 Now all the Athenians and the sojourning foreigners living there spent their time in nothing but either telling or listening to something new.
Act 17:22 So Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus and preached, “You men of Athens, I see that you are intensely religious in every way.
Act 17:23 For as I passed along and observed the objects of your worship, I found an altar with this inscription, “To The Unknown Deity.” What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you.
Act 17:24 Yehowah, who made the world and everything in it, since he is Lord of Heaven and earth, does not live in temples built with hands.
Act 17:25 Neither is he served by people’s hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives people life, breath, and everything else.
Act 17:26 And from one blood he made every ethnicity of humans living on the surface of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons and the boundaries of their living areas (Deut. 19:14).
Act 17:27 Therefore, they should seek Yehowah, and perhaps they might reach out to him and find him, and indeed, he is not far from any one of us.
Act 17:28 For in him we live and move and have our being, just as one of your own poets has said, ‘For we also are his offspring.’
Act 17:29 Therefore, since we are the offspring of Yehowah, we ought not to think that the Divinity is like gold, or silver, or stones, sculptured with the art and thought of humans.
Act 17:30 Therefore, Yehowah overlooked the times of ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent.
Act 17:31 This is because he has set a Day when he will judge the world in righteousness by the Man he has chosen. Yehowah has given proof of this Man to everyone by raising him from the dead.”
Act 17:32 Now when the men of Athens heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked Paul; but others said, “We will listen to you again about this matter.”

Act 17:33 After that, Paul left them.
Act 17:34 But certain men joined him and believed, including Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Acts Chapter 18

Act 18:1 After these things, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth (50 AD).
Act 18:2 There he found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by kinship; he had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Caesar Claudius I had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome (c 49 AD); and Paul came to them;
Act 18:3 Paul lived and worked with them, because he was of the same trade. They were tentmakers.
Act 18:4 So Paul reasoned in the house of assembly every Sabbath. He persuaded both Jews and Greeks.
Act 18:5 But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the Ruach to testify to the Jews that Yeshua is Messiah.
Act 18:6 When the Jews opposed and insulted him, Paul shook out his garment at them and said to them, "May your blood be upon your own heads; I am innocent. From now on I will go to the ethnicities."
Act 18:7 Then he left from there and went to the house of Titius Justus, a man who worshiped Yehowah. His house was next to the house of assembly.
Act 18:8 Crispus, the leader of the house of assembly, and all of his household, believed in the Lord. Many of the Corinthians who heard Paul believed and were immersed (Acts 11:26).
Act 18:9 Yeshua encouraged Paul in a night vision, "Do not be afraid but speak and do not be silent.
Act 18:10 For I am with you, and no one will try to harm you, for I have many people in this city."
Act 18:11 Paul lived there for a year and six months, teaching the Word of Yehowah among them.
Act 18:12 But when Gallio became governor of Achaia, the Jews rose up together against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat;
Act 18:13 they accused, "This man persuades people to worship Yehowah contrary to the law."
Act 18:14 Yet when Paul was about to speak, Gallio declared to the Jews, "You Jews, if indeed it were a matter of wrong or a crime, it would be reasonable to deal with you.
Act 18:15 But since these are questions about words, names, and your own law, settle it yourselves. I will not be a judge of these matters."
Act 18:16 Gallio made them leave the judgment seat.
Act 18:17 So all the non-Jews seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the house of assembly, and beat him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio did not care what they did.

Act 18:18 Paul, after staying there for many more days, left the brethren and sistren and sailed for Syria with Priscilla and Aquila. Before he left the seaport, Cenchreae, he had his head shaved, because he had just commenced a Nazirite vow (Num. 6; c. 52 AD).
Act 18:19 When they came to Ephesus, Paul left Priscilla and Aquila there, but he himself went into the house of assembly and reasoned with the Jews.
Act 18:20 When they asked Paul to stay a longer time, he declined.
Act 18:21 But he took leave of them, explaining, "I must by all means keep the coming appointment calendar festival (Passover, see ch. 20; c. 52 AD), as is my custom, at Jerusalem, but I will return again to you, if it is the will of Yehowah." And he sailed from Ephesus.
Act 18:22 When Paul had landed at Caesarea Maritima, he went up and greeted the congregation and then went down to Antioch (Acts 11:26).
Act 18:23 After having spent some time there, Paul departed and went through the regions of Galatia and Phrygia consecutively and encouraged all the disciples (c. 53 AD; 3rd missionary journey).
Act 18:24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, came to Ephesus. He was eloquent in speech and mighty in the Scriptures.
Act 18:25 Apollos had been instructed in the Way of the Lord. Being fervent in the Ruach, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning the Lord, but he knew only the immersion of John.
Act 18:26 Apollos began to speak boldly in the house of assembly. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they befriended him and explained to him the Way of Yehowah more accurately.
Act 18:27 When he desired to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples in Achaia to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who believed by grace.
Act 18:28 Apollos publicly overwhelmed the Jews with his power and skill, showing by the Scriptures that Yeshua is Messiah.

Acts Chapter 19

Act 19:1 It came about that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to the city of Ephesus (c. 54-57 AD), and found certain disciples there (Acts 11:26).
Act 19:2 Paul asked them, “Did you receive Ruach ha’Kodesh when you believed?” They said to him, “No, we did not even hear about Ruach ha’Kodesh.”
Act 19:3 Paul asked, “Into what then were you immersed?” They answered, “Into John’s immersion.”
Act 19:4 So Paul replied, “John immersed with the immersion of repentance. He told the people that they should believe in the One who would come after him, that is, in Messiah Yeshua.”
Act 19:5 When the people heard this, they were immersed in the name of Lord Yeshua.
Act 19:6 Then when Paul had laid his hands on them, Ruach ha’Kodesh came on them, and they spoke multilingually and prophesied.
Act 19:7 In all, they were about twelve men.
Act 19:8 Paul went into the house of assembly and spoke boldly for the space of three months. He was leading discussions and persuading people about the things concerning the Kingdom of Yehowah.
Act 19:9 But when some Jews were hardened and disobedient, they began to speak evil of the Way before the crowd. So Paul left them and led the believers away from them (Acts 11:26). He began to speak every day in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.
Act 19:10 This continued for two years, so that all who lived in Asia heard the word of Lord Yeshua, both Jews and Greeks.
Act 19:11 Yehowah was doing mighty deeds by the hands of Paul,
Act 19:12 so that even the sick were healed, and evil spirits went out of them, when they took facecloths and aprons from Paul’s body.
Act 19:13 But there were Jewish exorcists traveling through the area who took the name of Lord Yeshua for their own use. They spoke it over those who had evil spirits, “I command you to leave by Yeshua whom Paul preaches.”
Act 19:14 Those who did this were the seven sons of a Jewish chief priest, Sceva (possibly Kamithos or Sceua).
Act 19:15 An evil spirit answered them, “Yeshua I know, and Paul I know; but who are you?”
Act 19:16 The evil spirit in the man leaped on the exorcists and overpowered them and beat them up. Then they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
Act 19:17 This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. They became afraid, and the name of Lord Yeshua was magnified.

Act 19:18 Also, many of the believers came, confessed, and admitted the evil things they had done (Acts 11:26).
Act 19:19 Many who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of everyone. When they counted the value of them, it was fifty thousand silver coins.
Act 19:20 So the Word of Yehowah spread more widely in powerful ways.
Act 19:21 Now after Paul completed his ministry in Ephesus, he decided in the Ruach to pass through Macedonia and Achaia on his way to Jerusalem; he said, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."
Act 19:22 Paul sent to Macedonia two of his disciples, Timothy and Erastus, who had helped him. But he himself stayed in Asia for awhile.
Act 19:23 At about that time (c. 57 AD), there arose a great disturbance in Ephesus concerning the Way (Acts 11:26).
Act 19:24 A certain silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver statues of Artemis, brought in much business for the craftsmen.
Act 19:25 So he gathered together the workmen of that occupation and said, "Sirs, you know that in this business we make a lot of money.
Act 19:26 You see and hear that, not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people. He is saying that there are no deities that are made with hands.
Act 19:27 And not only is there danger that our trade will no longer be needed, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis may be considered worthless. Then she would even lose her greatness, she whom all Asia and the world worships."
Act 19:28 When they heard this, they were filled with anger and cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"
Act 19:29 The whole city was filled with confusion, and the people rushed together into the theater. They had seized Paul's travel companions, Gaius and Aristarchus, who came from Macedonia.
Act 19:30 Paul wanted to enter in among the crowd of people, but the disciples prevented him.
Act 19:31 Also, some of the officials of the province of Asia, who were his friends, sent him a message strongly requesting him not to enter the theater.
Act 19:32 Some people were shouting one thing, and some another, for the crowd was in confusion. Most of them did not even know why they had come together.
Act 19:33 The Jews brought Alexander out of the crowd putting him up in front of the people. Alexander motioned with his hand to make an explanation to the people.
Act 19:34 But when they realized that he was a Jew, they all cried out with one voice for about two hours, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

Act 19:35 When the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he asked, “You people of Ephesus, what human is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Artemis, and of the image which fell down from heaven?
Act 19:36 Seeing then that these things are undeniable, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rash.
Act 19:37 For you have brought these men to this court who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess.
Act 19:38 Therefore, if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have an accusation against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse one another.
Act 19:39 But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in a lawful assembly.
Act 19:40 For indeed, we are in danger of being accused concerning this day’s riot. There is no cause for this disorder, and we will not be able to explain it.”
Act 19:41 When he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Acts Chapter 20

Act 20:1 After the uproar was over (c. 57 AD), Paul sent for the disciples and encouraged them. Then he said farewell to them and left to go into Macedonia.
Act 20:2 When he had gone through those regions and had fruitfully encouraged the believers (Acts 11:26), he went into Greece.
Act 20:3 After he had spent three months there, a plot was formed against him by the Jews, as he was about to sail for Syria, so he decided to return through Macedonia.
Act 20:4 Accompanying him as far as Asia were Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus, both from the Thessalonian believers (Acts 11:26); Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia.
Act 20:5 But these men had gone before us and were waiting for us at Troas.
Act 20:6 We sailed away from Philippi during the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we came to them in Troas. There we stayed for the remainder of the seven days (of ULB; c. 58 AD).
Act 20:7 On the first of the Sabbaths (counting to Pentecost), when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul spoke to the believers (Acts 11:26). He was planning to leave the next day, so he kept speaking until midnight.
Act 20:8 There were many lamps in the upper room where we had come together.
Act 20:9 In the window was sitting a young man named Eutychus, who fell into a deep sleep. As Paul spoke even longer, this young man, still sleeping, fell down from the third story and was picked up dead.
Act 20:10 But Paul went down, stretched himself out on him, and embraced him. Then he exclaimed, “Do not be upset any more, for he is alive!”
Act 20:11 Then he went upstairs again, broke bread, and ate. After talking with them much longer until daybreak, he left.
Act 20:12 They brought back the boy alive and were extremely comforted.
Act 20:13 We ourselves went ahead of Paul by ship and sailed away to Assos, where we planned to take Paul on board. This is what he himself desired to do, because he planned to go by land.
Act 20:14 When he met us at Assos, we took him onto the ship and went to Mitylene.
Act 20:15 Then we sailed from there and arrived the next day opposite the island of Chios. The following day we touched at the island of Samos and stayed at Trogyllium; and the day after, we came to the city of Miletus.
Act 20:16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not spend any time in Asia; for he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem for the Day of Shavuot (Pentecost, Omer day 50, c. 58 AD), if it were at all possible for him to do so.

Act 20:17 From Miletus, he sent men to Ephesus and called to himself the elders of the congregation (Acts 11:26).
Act 20:18 When they had come to him, he said to them, “You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I always spent my time with you.
Act 20:19 I kept serving the Lord with all humility and with tears, and in sufferings that happened to me because of the plots of the Jews.
Act 20:20 You know how I did not keep back from declaring to you anything that was useful, and how I taught you in public and also going from house to house.
Act 20:21 You know how I kept warning both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward Yehowah and faith in our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Act 20:22 And now look, I go bound in the Ruach to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there,
Act 20:23 except that Ruach ha’Kodesh witnesses to me in every city and says that chains and sufferings await me.
Act 20:24 But I do not consider that my life is in any way precious to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry that I received from Lord Yeshua, to bear witness to the good news of the grace of Yehowah.
Act 20:25 And now look, I know that you all, among whom I went about preaching the Kingdom of Yehowah, will see my face no more.
Act 20:26 Therefore, I testify to you this day, that I am innocent of the blood of everyone.
Act 20:27 For I did not keep back from declaring to you the whole will of Yehowah.
Act 20:28 Therefore, be careful about yourselves, and about all the flock of which Ruach ha’Kodesh has made you overseers. Be careful to shepherd the congregation of Yehowah (Acts 11:26), which he purchased with his own blood.
Act 20:29 I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you and not spare the flock.
Act 20:30 I know that from even among your own selves some men will come and say corrupt things, in order to draw away disciples after themselves.
Act 20:31 So be on guard. Remember that for three years, I did not stop instructing every one of you with tears night and day.
Act 20:32 And now, I entrust you to Yehowah and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are consecrated.
Act 20:33 I coveted no man’s silver, gold, or clothing.
Act 20:34 You yourselves know that these hands served my own needs and the needs of those who were with me.
Act 20:35 In all things, I gave you an example of how you should help the weak by working, and of how you should remember the words of Lord Yeshua, words that he himself taught: “It is more blessed to give than to receive.”

Act 20:36 After he had spoken in this way, he knelt down and prayed with them all.
Act 20:37 They all cried intensely and fell on Paul’s neck and kissed him.
Act 20:38 They were sad most of all because of what he had said, that they would never see his face again. Then they escorted him to the ship.

Acts Chapter 21

Act 21:1 When we had parted from them and had set sail, we took a straight course to the city of Cos, and the next day to the city of Rhodes, and from there to the city of Patara.
Act 21:2 When we found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.
Act 21:3 When we had come in sight of the island of Cyprus, we left it on the left, and sailed to Syria, and landed at the city of Tyre (c. 58 AD), because it was there that the ship was to unload its cargo.
Act 21:4 After we found the disciples, we stayed there seven days. These disciples said to Paul through the Ruach that he should not set foot in Jerusalem.
Act 21:5 When we had spent the days, we left and went on our journey. They all, with their wives and children, escorted us on our way, until we were out of the city. Then we knelt down on the beach, prayed, and said farewell to each other.
Act 21:6 We went on board the ship, while they returned home again.
Act 21:7 When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. There we greeted the brethren and sistren and stayed with them for one day.
Act 21:8 On the next day, we and Paul left and went to Caesarea Maritima. We entered the house of Philip, preacher of the good news, who was one of the Seven, and we stayed with him.
Act 21:9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.
Act 21:10 As we stayed there for some days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet named Agabus.
Act 21:11 He came to us and took Paul's belt. With it he tied his own feet and hands and prophesied, "Thus says Ruach ha'Kodesh, 'So will the Jews in Jerusalem tie up the man who owns this belt, and they will hand him over into the hands of the ethnicities.'"
Act 21:12 When we heard these things, both we and the people who lived in that place begged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.
Act 21:13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready, not only to be tied up, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of Lord Yeshua."
Act 21:14 Since Paul did not wish to be persuaded, we stopped trying and said, "May the will of Yehowah be done."
Act 21:15 After these days, we picked up our luggage and went up to Jerusalem.
Act 21:16 There also went with us some of the disciples from Caesarea Maritima. They brought with them a man named Mnason, a man from Cyprus, an early disciple (Acts 11:26), with whom we would stay.

Act 21:17 When we had arrived in Jerusalem, the brethren and sistren welcomed us gladly.
Act 21:18 The next day, Paul went with us to Jacob, and all the elders were present.
Act 21:19 When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things that Yehowah had done among the ethnicities through his ministry.
Act 21:20 When they heard it, they glorified Yehowah, and they said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed (Acts 11:26). All the Messianics are determined to uphold the law (Eze. 36:27).
Act 21:21 They have been told about you, that you teach all the Jews who live among the ethnicities to abandon Moses, and that you tell them not to circumcise their children, and not to follow the old customs.
Act 21:22 What should we do? The crowd will certainly gather together, because they will hear that you have come.
Act 21:23 So do what we say to you now: We have four men who made a vow (Num. 6).
Act 21:24 Take these men and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, so that they may shave their heads. So everyone will know that the things they have been told about you are false. They will learn that you also walk orderly and follow the law.
Act 21:25 But concerning the ethnicities who have believed (Acts 11:26), we wrote and gave the instructions that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, from consuming blood (Lev. 17:10-14; Gen. 9:4; Deut. 12:23; Deut. 15:23), from what is suffocated, and from sexual immorality.”
Act 21:26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purifying himself with them, went into the temple, announcing the completion of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.
Act 21:27 When the seven days were almost finished, some Jews from Asia saw Paul in the temple, and excited all the multitude, and laid hands on him.
Act 21:28 They were shouting, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches all people everywhere, things that are against the people, the law, and this place. Besides, he has also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this Set-apart Place!”
Act 21:29 For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they thought that Paul had brought him into the temple.
Act 21:30 All the city was excited, and the people ran together and laid hold of Paul. They dragged him out of the temple, and the doors were immediately shut.
Act 21:31 As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commander of the guard that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

Act 21:32 Right away he took soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When the people saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.
Act 21:33 Then the commander approached and laid hold on Paul, and commanded him to be bound with two chains. He asked who he was and what he had done.
Act 21:34 Some in the crowd were shouting one thing and others another. Since the commander could not tell anything, because of all the noise, he ordered that Paul be brought up into Antonia Fortress.
Act 21:35 When he came to the steps, he was carried by the soldiers because of the crowd's violence.
Act 21:36 For the crowd of people followed after and kept shouting out, "Away with him!"
Act 21:37 As Paul was about to be brought into Antonia Fortress, he asked the commander, "May I say something to you?" The commander asked, "Do you speak Greek?
Act 21:38 Are you not then the Egyptian, who previously led a rebellion and took the four thousand terrorists into the wilderness?"
Act 21:39 Paul answered, "I am a Jew, from the city of Tarsus in Cilicia. I am a citizen of an important city. I ask you, allow me to speak to the people."
Act 21:40 When the commander had given him permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand to the people. When there was a deep silence, he spoke to them in the Aramaic language (c. 58 AD),

Acts Chapter 22

Act 22:1 “Brothers and fathers, listen to my defense which I will now make to you.”
Act 22:2 When the crowd heard Paul speak to them in the Aramaic language, they became quiet. He testified,
Act 22:3 “I am a Jew (Acts 11:26), born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but educated in this city at the feet of Gamaliel. I was instructed according to the strict ways of the law of our forefathers. I am zealous for Yehowah, just as all of you are today.
Act 22:4 I persecuted this Way to the death; I tied up both men and women and delivered them into prisons.
Act 22:5 Also, the high priest and all the elders can bear witness that I received letters from them for the brothers in Damascus, for me to journey there. I was to bring back in bonds to Jerusalem those of this Way in order to be punished.
Act 22:6 It happened that when I was traveling and nearing Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light from Heaven began to shine around me.
Act 22:7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice ask me (in Aramaic see Acts 26:14), ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’
Act 22:8 I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He answered me, ‘I AM Yeshua the Natsari, whom you are persecuting.’
Act 22:9 Those who were with me saw the light, but they did not understand the voice of him who spoke to me.
Act 22:10 I asked, ‘What should I do, Lord?’ Yeshua answered me, ‘Arise and go into Damascus; there you will be told everything that you must do.’
Act 22:11 I could not see because of that light’s brightness, so I went into Damascus being led by the hands of those who were with me.
Act 22:12 There I met a man named Ananias (Acts 11:26), a reverent man according to the law and well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there.
Act 22:13 He came to me, stood by me, and said, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight.’ At that moment I saw him.
Act 22:14 Then he said, ‘Yehowah of our forefathers has chosen you to know his will, to see the Righteous One, and to hear the voice coming from his own mouth.
Act 22:15 For you will be a witness for him to all people about what you have seen and heard.
Act 22:16 And now why are you waiting? Arise, be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.’
Act 22:17 After I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I was praying in the temple, it happened that I was given a vision.
Act 22:18 I saw him say to me, ‘Hurry and leave Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about me.’

Act 22:19 I responded, ‘Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you in every house of assembly.
Act 22:20 When the blood of Stephen your martyr was spilled, I also was standing by and agreeing, and I was guarding the clothing of those who murdered him.’
Act 22:21 But he ordered me, ‘Leave, because I will send you far away to the ethnicities.’”
Act 22:22 The people allowed him to speak up to this point. But then they shouted, “Away with such a fellow from the earth, for it is not right that he should live!”
Act 22:23 As they were shouting, throwing off their coats, and throwing dust into the air,
Act 22:24 the commander ordered Paul to be brought into Antonia Fortress. He ordered that he should be questioned with scourging, so that he himself might know why they were shouting against him like that.
Act 22:25 When they had tied him up with the thongs, Paul asked the centurion who was standing by, “Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?”
Act 22:26 When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and told him, “What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman citizen.”
Act 22:27 The commander came and asked him, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?” Paul answered, “Yes.”
Act 22:28 The commander stated, “It was only with a large amount of money that I acquired citizenship.” But Paul declared, “I was born a Roman citizen.”
Act 22:29 Then the men who were going to question him left him immediately. The commander also was afraid, when he learned that Paul was a Roman citizen, because he had tied him up.
Act 22:30 On the next day, the commander wanted to know the truth about the Jews’ accusations against Paul. So he untied his bonds and ordered the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to meet. Then he brought Paul down and placed him in their midst.

Acts Chapter 23

Act 23:1 Paul looked directly at the Sanhedrin members and said, “Brothers, I have lived before Yehowah in all good conscience until this day.”
Act 23:2 The high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.
Act 23:3 Then said Paul to him, “Yehowah will strike you, you whitewashed wall. Are you sitting to judge me by the law, yet order me to be struck, against the law?”
Act 23:4 Those who stood by asked, “Is this how you insult the high priest of Yehowah?”
Act 23:5 Paul answered, “I did not know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, ‘You will not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’”
Act 23:6 When Paul saw that one part of the Sanhedrin were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he spoke loudly in the Sanhedrin, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees! It is because I confidently expect the resurrection of the dead that I am being judged!”
Act 23:7 When he said this, an argument began between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the crowd was divided.
Act 23:8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, no angels, and no Ruach, but the Pharisees acknowledge all of them.
Act 23:9 So a large uproar occurred, and some of the scribes belonging to the Pharisees stood up and argued, “We find nothing wrong with this man. What if Ruach or an angel has spoken to him? Let us not resist Yehowah.”
Act 23:10 When there arose a great argument, the commander feared that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, so he commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among the Sanhedrin members, and bring him up into Antonia Fortress.
Act 23:11 The following night Yeshua stood beside him and prophesied, “Do not be afraid, for as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness in Rome.”
Act 23:12 When it became day, some Jews made a pact and called a curse down upon themselves: They swore that they would neither eat nor drink anything, until they had killed Paul.
Act 23:13 There were more than forty men who made this plot.
Act 23:14 They went to the chief priests and the elders, and said, “We have put ourselves under a great curse, to eat nothing until we have killed Paul.
Act 23:15 Now therefore, let the Sanhedrin tell the commander to bring him down to you tomorrow, as if you would decide his case more precisely. As for us, we are ready to kill him before he comes here.”

Act 23:16 But Paul's sister's son heard that they were lying in wait, so he went and entered Antonia Fortress and told Paul.
Act 23:17 Paul called one of the centurions and requested, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him."
Act 23:18 So the centurion took the young man and brought him to the commander and reported, "Paul the prisoner called me to him, and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to say to you."
Act 23:19 The commander took him by the hand to a private place and asked him, "What is it that you have to tell me?"
Act 23:20 The young man reported, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring down Paul tomorrow to the Sanhedrin, as if they were going to ask more precisely about his case.
Act 23:21 But do not give in to them, because there are more than forty men who are lying in wait for him. They have called a curse down on themselves, neither to eat nor to drink, until they have killed him. Even now they are ready, waiting for consent from you."
Act 23:22 So the commander let the young man go, after instructing him, "Tell no one that you have said these things to me."
Act 23:23 Then he called to him two of the centurions and ordered, "Get two hundred soldiers ready to go as far as Caesarea Maritima, and seventy cavalry also, and two hundred spearmen. You will leave at 9 pm."
Act 23:24 He also ordered them to provide animals which Paul could ride, and to take him safely to Felix the governor.
Act 23:25 Then he wrote a letter like this:
Act 23:26 "Claudius Lysias to the most excellent Governor Felix, greetings.
Act 23:27 This man was arrested by the Jews and was about to be murdered by them, when I came upon them with soldiers and rescued him, since I learned that he was a Roman citizen.
Act 23:28 I wanted to know why they accused him, so I took him down to their Sanhedrin.
Act 23:29 I learned that he was being accused about questions concerning their own law, but that there was no accusation against him that deserved execution or imprisonment.
Act 23:30 Then it was made known to me that there was a plot against the man, so I immediately sent him to you, and instructed his accusers also to bring their charges against him in your presence. Farewell."
Act 23:31 So the soldiers obeyed their orders: They took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.
Act 23:32 On the next day, most of the soldiers left the cavalry to go with him, and they themselves returned to Antonia Fortress.

Act 23:33 When the cavalry reached Caesarea Maritima and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.
Act 23:34 When the governor read the letter, he asked what province Paul was from; when he learned that he was from Cilicia,
Act 23:35 he said, “I will hear you fully when your accusers come here.” Then he commanded him to be kept in Herod Agrippa II’s government headquarters.

Acts Chapter 24

Act 24:1 After five days, Ananias the chief priest, certain elders, and an orator named Tertullus, went there. These men brought charges against Paul to the governor.
Act 24:2 When Paul stood before the governor, Tertullus began to accuse him and said to the governor, “Because of you we have great peace; and your foresight brings good reform to our nation;
Act 24:3 so with all thankfulness we welcome everything that you do, most excellent Felix, governor of Judea.
Act 24:4 So that I detain you no more, I ask you to briefly listen to me with kindness.
Act 24:5 For we have found this man to be a pest, and one who causes all the Jews throughout the world to rebel. He is a leader of the (the Way, Messianic) sect of the Natsarim.
Act 24:6 He even tried to desecrate the temple; so we arrested him. And we wanted to judge him according to our law.
Act 24:7 But Lysias, the commander, came and forcibly took him out of our hands,
Act 24:8 commanding his accusers to come to you. When you question Paul about all these matters, you too will be able to learn what we accuse him of.”
Act 24:9 The Jews together accused Paul too, and said that these things were true.
Act 24:10 But when the governor motioned for Paul to speak, Paul answered, “I understand that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, and so I gladly explain myself to you.
Act 24:11 You are able to verify that it has not been more than twelve days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem;
Act 24:12 and when they found me in the temple, I did not argue with anyone, and I did not stir up a crowd, either in the houses of assembly or in the city;
Act 24:13 and they cannot prove to you the accusations that they make against me now.
Act 24:14 But I admit this to you, that according to the Way that they call a (Natsari, Messianic) sect, in that same Way, I serve Yehowah of our forefathers. I am faithful to all that is in the law and the writings of the prophets (aka Tanakh).
Act 24:15 I have the same hope in Yehowah, just as these men also wait for it, the coming resurrection of the dead, of both the righteous and the unrighteous;
Act 24:16 and in this, I work to have a conscience without blame before Yehowah and humans through all things.

Act 24:17 Now after many years, I came to bring help to my nation and gifts of money.
Act 24:18 When I did this, certain Jews from Asia found me in a purification ceremony in the temple, not with a crowd or an uproar.
Act 24:19 These men ought to be before you now and say what they have against me, if they have anything.
Act 24:20 Or else, these same men should say what wrong they found in me, when I stood before the Jewish Sanhedrin;
Act 24:21 unless it is about this one thing that I said out loud when I stood among them, 'It is about the resurrection of the dead that I am being judged today by you!'"
Act 24:22 Felix was well informed about the Way, and so he adjourned the hearing. He said, "Whenever Lysias the commander comes down from Jerusalem, I will decide your case."
Act 24:23 Then he commanded the centurion to guard Paul, but to have leniency, and that no one should stop his friends from helping him or from visiting him.
Act 24:24 After some days, Felix returned with Druscilla his wife, a Jewess, and he sent for Paul, and he heard from him about faith in Messiah.
Act 24:25 But when Paul reasoned with him about righteousness, self control, and the coming judgment, Felix became frightened and ordered, "Go away for now. But when I have the opportunity later on, I will send for you."
Act 24:26 At the same time, he was hoping that Paul would pay him a bribe, so he could set him free, so he often sent for him and spoke with him.
Act 24:27 But when two years passed (c. 58-60 AD), Porcius Festus became the governor of Judea after Felix, but Felix wanted to gain favor with the Jews, so he left Paul to continue under guard.

Acts Chapter 25

Act 25:1 Now Festus entered the province, and after three days, he went from Caesarea Maritima up to Jerusalem.
Act 25:2 The high priest and the prominent Jews brought accusations against Paul to him, and they spoke strongly to Festus.
Act 25:3 And they asked Festus for a favor concerning Paul, that he might call him to Jerusalem, so that they could murder him along the way.
Act 25:4 But Festus answered that Paul was a prisoner in Caesarea Maritima, and that he himself was soon to return there.
Act 25:5 "Therefore, those who can," he said, "should go there with us. If there is something wrong with the man, you should accuse him."
Act 25:6 After he stayed a little more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea Maritima. And on the next day, he sat in the judgment seat and commanded Paul to be brought to him.
Act 25:7 When he arrived, the Jews from Jerusalem stood nearby, and they brought many serious charges against Paul, which they could not prove.
Act 25:8 Paul defended himself, "I have done nothing wrong against the law of the Jews or against the temple, or against Caesar have I sinned at all."
Act 25:9 But Festus wanted to gain the favor of the Jews, and so he asked Paul, "Do you want to go up to Jerusalem and to be judged by me there about these things?"
Act 25:10 Paul answered, "I stand before the judgment seat of Caesar Nero where I must be judged. I have wronged no Jews, just as you also know well enough.
Act 25:11 Though, if I have done wrong, and if I have done what is worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if their accusations are nothing, no one may hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar Nero."
Act 25:12 After Festus talked with the council, he answered, "You appealed to Caesar; you will go to Caesar Nero."
Act 25:13 Now after some days, King Herod Agrippa II and Bernice (brother and sister) arrived at Caesarea Maritima to pay an official visit to Festus.
Act 25:14 After he had been there for many days, Festus presented Paul's case to the king; he said, "A certain man was left behind here by Felix as a prisoner.
Act 25:15 When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought charges against this man to me, and they asked for condemnation against him.
Act 25:16 To this I answered that it is not the custom with Romans to give up a man to die as a favor; rather, the accused man should have an opportunity to face his accusers and to make a defense against the charges.

Act 25:17 Therefore, when they came together here, I did not wait, but the next day I sat in the judgment seat, and I ordered the man to be brought in.
Act 25:18 When the accusers stood up and accused him, I thought that none of the charges that they brought against him were serious.
Act 25:19 Instead, they had certain disputes with him about their own religion and about a certain Yeshua who was dead, whom Paul claims to be alive.
Act 25:20 I was puzzled about how to investigate this matter, and I asked him if he would go to Jerusalem to be judged there about these things.
Act 25:21 But when Paul called to be kept under guard for the emperor's decision, I ordered him to be kept, until I send him to Caesar Nero Augustus."
Act 25:22 Agrippa II spoke to Festus, "I would also like to listen to this man." "Tomorrow," Festus replied, "You will hear him."
Act 25:23 So on the next day, King Herod Agrippa II and Bernice came with much ceremony; they came into the hall with the military officers and with the prominent men of the city. And when Festus spoke the command, Paul was brought to them.
Act 25:24 Festus said, "King Agrippa II, and all you men who are here with us, you see this man; all the multitude of Jews consulted with me in Jerusalem and here also, and they shouted to me that he should no longer live.
Act 25:25 I learned that he had done nothing worthy of death; but because he called upon Augustus, I decided to send him.
Act 25:26 But I do not have something definite to write to the emperor. For this reason, I have brought him to you, especially to you, King Agrippa II, so that I might have something more to write about the case.
Act 25:27 For it seems unreasonable for me to send a prisoner and to not also state the charges against him."

Acts Chapter 26

Act 26:1 So Herod Agrippa II said to Paul, “You may speak for yourself.” Then Paul stretched out his hand and made his defense.
Act 26:2 “I regard myself as happy, King Agrippa, to make my case before you today against all the accusations of the Jews;
Act 26:3 especially because you are an expert in all the Jewish customs and questions. So I ask you to hear me patiently.
Act 26:4 Truly, all the Jews know how I lived from my youth in my own nation and at Jerusalem.
Act 26:5 They knew me from the beginning, and they should admit that I lived as a Pharisee, an extremely strict sect of our religion.
Act 26:6 Now I stand here to be judged, because I look for the promise that Yehowah made to our fathers.
Act 26:7 For this is the promise our twelve tribes hoped to receive as they earnestly worshiped Yehowah day and night. It is for this hope, King Agrippa, that the Jews accuse me.
Act 26:8 Why should any of you think it is incredible that Yehowah raises the dead?
Act 26:9 At one time, I thought to myself that I should do many things against the name of Yeshua the Natsari.
Act 26:10 I did these in Jerusalem. I locked up many of the believers in prison by the authority I received from the chief priests, and when they were murdered, I cast my vote against them.
Act 26:11 I punished them many times in all the houses of assembly, and I tried to force them to blaspheme. I was furiously enraged against them, and I persecuted them even to foreign cities.
Act 26:12 While I was doing this, I went to Damascus with authority and orders from the chief priests;
Act 26:13 and on the way there, at midday, King, I saw a light from Heaven that was brighter than the sun, and it shone around both me and the men who were traveling with me (Acts 11:26).
Act 26:14 When we all fell to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me in the Aramaic language, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’
Act 26:15 Then I asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He answered, ‘I AM Yeshua the Natsari, whom you persecute.
Act 26:16 Now get up and stand on your feet, because for this purpose I appeared to you, to appoint you to be a servant and a witness concerning the things that you know about me now, and the things that I will show to you later;

Act 26:17 and I will rescue you from the people and from the ethnicities to whom I am now sending you,
Act 26:18 to open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to Yehowah, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and the inheritance that I give to those who I set apart for myself by faith in me.'
Act 26:19 Therefore, King Agrippa, I did not disobey the heavenly vision;
Act 26:20 but to those in Damascus first, and then at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the ethnicities, I preached that they should repent and return to Yehowah, doing deeds worthy of repentance.
Act 26:21 For this cause, the Jews arrested me in the temple and tried to kill me.
Act 26:22 Yehowah has helped me until now, so I stand and testify to the common people and to the great ones about nothing more than what the prophets and Moses said would happen;
Act 26:23 that Messiah must suffer, and that he would be the first from the resurrection of the dead to rise and to proclaim light to the Jewish people and to the ethnicities."
Act 26:24 As Paul completed his defense, Festus exclaimed with a loud voice, "Paul, you are insane; your great learning makes you insane!"
Act 26:25 But Paul answered, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus; but with courage, I speak words of truth and soberness.
Act 26:26 For the king knows about these things; and so I speak freely to him, for I am persuaded that none of this is hidden from him; for this has not been done in a corner.
Act 26:27 Do you believe the prophets, King Agrippa? I know that you believe."
Act 26:28 Agrippa II asked Paul, "In a short time would you persuade me and make me a Messianic" (Acts 11:26)?
Act 26:29 Paul answered, "I pray to Yehowah, that whether in a short or long time, not you only, but also all that hear me today, would be like me, but without these prison chains."
Act 26:30 Then the king stood up, and the governor, and Bernice also, and those who were sitting with them;
Act 26:31 when they left the hall, they talked to one another, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds."
Act 26:32 Agrippa II said to Festus, "This man could have been freed, if he had not appealed to Caesar Nero."

Acts Chapter 27

Act 27:1 When it was decided that we should sail for Italy (c. 60 AD; 4th missionary journey), they put Paul and some other prisoners under the charge of a centurion named Julius of the Augustan Regiment.
Act 27:2 We boarded a ship from Adramyttium, which was about to sail along the coast of Asia. So we went to sea. Aristarchus from Thessalonica in Macedonia went with us.
Act 27:3 The next day, we landed at the city of Sidon, where Julius treated Paul kindly and allowed him to go to his friends to receive their care.
Act 27:4 From there, we went to sea and sailed around the island of Cyprus which was sheltered from the wind, because the wind was against us.
Act 27:5 When we had sailed across the water that is near Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
Act 27:6 There, the centurion found a ship from Alexandria that was going to sail to Italy. He put us in it.
Act 27:7 When we had sailed slowly for many days and had finally arrived with difficulty near Cnidus, the wind no longer allowed us to go that way, so we sailed along the sheltered side of Crete, opposite Salmone.
Act 27:8 We sailed along the coast with difficulty, until we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, which is near the city of Lasea.
Act 27:9 We had now taken much time, the appointment calendar festival Day of Atonements also had passed (10th day of the 7th month, Lev. 23:26-32; Isa. 58; Lev. 16), and it had now become dangerous to sail. So Paul warned them,
Act 27:10 "Men, I see that the voyage we are about to take will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."
Act 27:11 But the centurion paid more attention to the shipmaster and to the owner of the ship than to those things that were spoken by Paul.
Act 27:12 Because the harbor was not easy to spend the winter in, most of the sailors advised to sail from there, if by any means we could reach the city of Phoenix, to spend the winter there. Phoenix is a harbor in Crete, and it faces northwest and southwest.
Act 27:13 When the south wind began to blow gently, the sailors thought that they had what they needed. So they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to the shore.
Act 27:14 But after a short time a tempestuous wind, called The Northeaster, began to beat down on us from across the island.
Act 27:15 When the ship was caught head on and could not face the wind, we gave in to it and were driven along by it.

Act 27:16 We ran along the sheltered side of a small island called Clauda; and with difficulty we were able to secure the lifeboat.
Act 27:17 When they had hoisted it up, they used its ropes to bind the hull of the ship. They were afraid that we should run upon the sandbars of Syrtis, so they let down the sea anchor and were driven along.
Act 27:18 We were extremely battered by the storm, so the next day, the sailors began to throw the cargo overboard.
Act 27:19 On the third day, the sailors threw overboard the ship's tackle with their own hands.
Act 27:20 When the sun and stars did not shine on us for many days (Gen. 1:16; Psa. 136:8-9; Jer. 31:35), and the great storm still beat upon us, any more hope that we should be saved was abandoned.
Act 27:21 When they had gone long without food, then Paul stood up among the sailors and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not have set sail from Crete, so as to realize this injury and loss.
Act 27:22 And now, I advise you to take courage, for there will be no loss of life among you but only the loss of the ship.
Act 27:23 For last night an angel of Yehowah, to whom I belong, whom also I worship, his angel stood beside me
Act 27:24 and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar Nero, and see, Yehowah in his kindness has given to you all those who are sailing with you.'
Act 27:25 Therefore, men, take courage, for I trust Yehowah, that it will happen just as it was told me.
Act 27:26 But we must wreck upon some island."
Act 27:27 When the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven this way and that in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors thought that they were approaching some land.
Act 27:28 They took soundings and found 40 meters; after a little while, they took more soundings and found 30 meters.
Act 27:29 They were afraid that we might crash on the rocks, so they lowered four anchors from the stern and prayed that morning would come soon.
Act 27:30 The sailors were looking for a way to abandon the ship and had lowered the lifeboat into the Sea, and pretended that they would throw down the anchors from the bow.
Act 27:31 But Paul warned the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved."
Act 27:32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat and let it drift away.
Act 27:33 At dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, "This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and do not eat; you have eaten nothing.

Act 27:34 So I beg you to take some food, for this is for your survival; and not one hair of your head will be lost.”
Act 27:35 When he had said this, he took bread, and he thanked Yehowah in the sight of everyone. Then he broke the bread and began to eat.
Act 27:36 Then they were all encouraged, and they also took food.
Act 27:37 We were 276 souls in the ship.
Act 27:38 When they had eaten enough, they made the ship lighter by throwing out the wheat into the sea.
Act 27:39 When it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they saw a bay with a beach, and they discussed whether they could drive the ship onto it.
Act 27:40 So they cut loose the anchors and left them in the sea. At the same time they loosed the ropes of the rudders and raised the foresail to the wind; and so they headed to the beach.
Act 27:41 But they came to a place where two currents met, and the ship ran into the ground. The bow of the ship stuck there and remained unmovable, but the stern began to break up because of the violent waves.
Act 27:42 The soldiers’ plan was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them could swim away and escape.
Act 27:43 But the centurion wanted to save Paul, so he stopped their plan; and he ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land.
Act 27:44 Then the rest of the men should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. In this way, it happened that all of us came safely to land.

Acts Chapter 28

Act 28:1 When we were brought safely through, we learned that the island was called Malta (c. 60-61 AD).
Act 28:2 The native people offered to us not just ordinary kindness, but they lit a fire and welcomed us all because of the constant rain and cold.
Act 28:3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and placed them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened onto his hand.
Act 28:4 When the native people saw the venomous snake hanging from his hand, they said one to another, “This man certainly is a murderer who escaped from the sea, yet justice does not permit him to live.”
Act 28:5 But then he shook the animal into the fire and suffered no harm.
Act 28:6 They were waiting for him to become inflamed with a fever or to suddenly drop dead. But after they watched him for a long time and saw that nothing was unusual with him, they changed their minds and said that he was a deity.
Act 28:7 Now in a nearby place there were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, a man named Publius. He welcomed us and kindly provided for us for three days.
Act 28:8 It happened that the father of Publius had been made ill with a fever and dysentery. When Paul went to him, he prayed, placed his hands on him, and healed him.
Act 28:9 After this happened, the rest of the people on the island who were sick also came and were healed.
Act 28:10 The people also honored us with many honors (gifts, rewards). When we were preparing to sail, they gave us what we needed.
Act 28:11 After three months, we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island, whose figurehead was The Twin Brothers.
Act 28:12 After we landed at the city of Syracuse, we stayed there three days.
Act 28:13 From there, we sailed and arrived at the city of Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and in two days, we came to the city of Puteoli.
Act 28:14 There, we found some brethren and sistren and were invited to stay with them for seven days. In this way, we came to Rome.
Act 28:15 From there, the brethren and sistren, after they heard about us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw the brethren and sistren, he thanked Yehowah and took courage.
Act 28:16 When we entered Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the commander of the guard (c. 61 AD). But Paul was allowed to live by himself with the soldier who was guarding him.

Act 28:17 Then it came about that after three days, Paul called together those men who were the leaders among the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, “Brothers, although I have done nothing wrong against the people or the customs of our forefathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
Act 28:18 After they questioned me, they wished to set me free, because there was no reason in me to be executed.
Act 28:19 But when the Jews spoke against their desire, I was forced to appeal to Caesar Nero, although it is not as if I were bringing any accusation against my nation.
Act 28:20 Because of my appeal, then, I have asked to see you and to speak with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain.”
Act 28:21 Then they replied to him, “We neither received letters from Judea about you, nor did any of the brothers come and report or say anything evil about you.
Act 28:22 But we want to hear from you what you think about this (Natsari, the Way, Messianic) sect, because it is known by us that it is spoken against everywhere.”
Act 28:23 When they had set a day for him, more people came to him at his dwelling place. He presented the matter to them and testified about the Kingdom of Yehowah. He tried to persuade them about Yeshua, both from the Law of Moses and from the prophets (aka Tanakh), from dawn until dusk.
Act 28:24 Some were convinced about the things which were said, while others did not believe.
Act 28:25 When they did not agree with one another, they left, after Paul had spoken this one word, “Ruach ha’Kodesh spoke well through Isaiah the prophet to your forefathers, Act 28:26 ‘Go to this people and say, “By hearing you will hear but not understand; and seeing you will see but will not perceive.
Act 28:27 For the heart of this people has become dull, and with their ears they hardly hear, and they have shut their eyes. Otherwise, they might see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn around, and I would heal them.”’
Act 28:28 Therefore, you should know that this salvation of Yehowah has been sent to the ethnicities, and they will listen.”
Act 28:29 When he had said these things, the Jews went away. They were having a great dispute among themselves.
Act 28:30 Paul lived for two whole years in his own rented house (c. 61-63 AD), and he welcomed all who came to him.
Act 28:31 He was preaching the Kingdom of Yehowah and was teaching the things about Lord Yeshua Messiah with all boldness. No one stopped him.

Book of Romans

Romans Chapter 1

Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Yeshua Messiah, called to be an apostle and set apart for the good news of Yehowah.
Rom 1:2 This is the good news that he promised beforehand by his prophets in the set-apart Scriptures.
Rom 1:3 It is about his Son, Yeshua Messiah, our Lord, who was born from the descendants of David according to the flesh.
Rom 1:4 By resurrection from the dead, he was declared to be the powerful Son of Yehowah by Ruach ha'Kodesh.
Rom 1:5 Through him, we have received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the ethnicities, for the sake of his name.
Rom 1:6 Among whom you also have been called to belong to Yeshua Messiah.
Rom 1:7 This letter is to all who are in Rome, the beloved of Yehowah, who are called as set-apart people. May grace be to you, and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Rom 1:8 First, I thank Yehowah through Yeshua Messiah for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.
Rom 1:9 For Yehowah is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the good news of his Son, of how continually I make mention of you.
Rom 1:10 I always request in my prayers that by any means I may at last be successful now by the will of Yehowah in coming to you.
Rom 1:11 For I desire to see you, that I may give you some spiritual gift, in order to strengthen you.
Rom 1:12 That is, I long to be mutually encouraged among you, through each other's faith, yours and mine.
Rom 1:13 Now I do not want you to be unaware, brethren and sistren, that I often intended to come to you, but I was hindered until now. I wanted this in order to have some fruit among you, just as also among the rest of the ethnicities.
Rom 1:14 I am a debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish.
Rom 1:15 So as for me, I am ready to proclaim the good news also to you who are in Rome.

Rom 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the good news, for it is the power of Yehowah for salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and equally for the Greek.
Rom 1:17 For in it the righteousness of Yehowah is revealed from faith to faith, as it has been written, “The righteous will live by faith” (Hab. 2:14).
Rom 1:18 For the wrath of Yehowah is revealed from Heaven against all wickedness and unrighteousness of people, who through unrighteousness hold back the truth.
Rom 1:19 This is because that which is known about Yehowah is visible within them. For Yehowah has enlightened them.
Rom 1:20 For his unseen aspects have been clearly visible since the creation of the world. They are understood through the created things. These aspects are his everlasting power and Divinity. As a result, these people are without excuse.
Rom 1:21 This is because, although they knew about Yehowah, they did not glorify him as Yehowah, nor did they give him thanks. Instead, they became foolish in their thoughts, and their senseless hearts were darkened.
Rom 1:22 They claimed to be wise, but they became foolish.
Rom 1:23 They exchanged the glory of imperishable Yehowah for the likenesses of an image of perishable humans, of birds, of four-footed mammals, and of reptiles.
Rom 1:24 Therefore, Yehowah gave them over to the lusts of their hearts for uncleanness, for their bodies to be dishonored among themselves.
Rom 1:25 It is they who changed the truth of Yehowah into a lie, and who worshiped and served the creation instead of the Creator, who is praised forever. Amein.
Rom 1:26 Because of this, Yehowah gave them over to dishonorable passions, for their women exchanged their natural functions for what is against nature.
Rom 1:27 Likewise, the males also left their natural function with women and burned in their lust for one another. These were males who did with males what is indecent, and who received in themselves the penalty that was due their perversion (Lev. 18:22).
Rom 1:28 Because they did not approve of having Yehowah in their awareness, Yehowah gave them up to a depraved mind, for them to do those things that are not proper.
Rom 1:29 They have been filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, and malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, and evil intentions.
Rom 1:30 They are gossips, slanderers, and haters of Yehowah. They are violent, arrogant, and boastful. They are inventors of evil things, and they are disobedient to their parents.

Rom 1:31 They have no understanding; they are untrustworthy, without natural affections or covenant, and unmerciful.
Rom 1:32 They understand the regulations of Yehowah, that those who practice such things are deserving of death. But not only do they do these things, they also approve of others who do them.

Romans Chapter 2

Rom 2:1 Therefore, you are without excuse, O human, you who judge, for what you judge in another you condemn in yourself. For you who judge practice the same things.
Rom 2:2 But we know that the judgment of Yehowah is according to truth when it falls on those who practice such things.
Rom 2:3 But consider this, people, you who judge those who practice such things, although you do the same things. Will you escape from the judgment of Yehowah?
Rom 2:4 Or do you think so little of the riches of his goodness, his delayed punishment, and his patience? Do you not know that the goodness of Yehowah is meant to lead you to repentance?
Rom 2:5 But it is to the extent of your hardness and unrepentant heart that you are storing up for yourself wrath on the Day of wrath, that is, the Day of the revelation of the righteous judgment of Yehowah.
Rom 2:6 He will pay back to every person the same measure of his actions:
Rom 2:7 To those who according to consistent, good actions have sought praise, honor, and incorruptibility, he will give eternal life.
Rom 2:8 But to those who are self-seeking, who disobey the truth but obey unrighteousness, wrath and fierce anger will come.
Rom 2:9 Yehowah will bring tribulation and distress on every human soul that has practiced evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
Rom 2:10 But praise, honor, and peace will come to everyone who practices good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
Rom 2:11 For there is no partiality with Yehowah.
Rom 2:12 For as many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have sinned in respect to the law will be judged by the law.
Rom 2:13 For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before Yehowah, but it is the doers of the law who will be justified.
Rom 2:14 For when ethnicities, who do not have the law, do by nature the things of the law, they are a law to themselves, although they do not have the law.
Rom 2:15 By this, they show that the actions required by the law are written in their hearts. Their conscience also bears witness to them, and their own thoughts either accuse or defend them to themselves.
Rom 2:16 That will happen on the Day when Yehowah will judge the secrets of all people, according to my good news, through Yeshua Messiah.
Rom 2:17 Suppose that you call yourself a Jew, rest upon the law, rejoice proudly in Yehowah,

Rom 2:18 know his will, and test the things that differ from it, having been instructed by the law.
Rom 2:19 And suppose that you are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,
Rom 2:20 a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of immature children, and that you have in the law the form of knowledge and the truth.
Rom 2:21 You then who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach not to steal, do you steal?
Rom 2:22 You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob temples?
Rom 2:23 You who proudly rejoice in the law, do you dishonor Yehowah through your transgression of the law?
Rom 2:24 For, “The name of Yehowah is dishonored among the ethnicities because of you,” just as it has been written.
Rom 2:25 For circumcision indeed benefits you if you obey the law, but if you are a violator of the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision.
Rom 2:26 If then, the uncircumcised person keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be considered as circumcision?
Rom 2:27 And will not the one who is naturally uncircumcised judge you if he fulfills the law? This is because you have the written Scriptures and circumcision, yet are a violator of the law!
Rom 2:28 For he is not a Jew who is merely one outwardly; neither is circumcision that which is merely outward in the flesh.
Rom 2:29 But he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Ruach, not in the letter. The praise of such a person comes not from people but from Yehowah.

Romans Chapter 3

Rom 3:1 Then what advantage does the Jew have? And what is the benefit of circumcision?
Rom 3:2 It is great in every way. First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the words of Yehowah.
Rom 3:3 For what if some Jews were without faith? Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of Yehowah invalid?
Rom 3:4 May it never be! Instead, let Yehowah be found to be true, even though every human is a liar. As it has been written, “That you might be shown to be righteous in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment.”
Rom 3:5 But if our unrighteousness shows the righteousness of Yehowah, what can we say? Yehowah is not unrighteous when he is inflicting his wrath, is he? I am speaking according to human logic.
Rom 3:6 May it never be! For then how would Yehowah judge the world?
Rom 3:7 But if the truth of Yehowah through my lie provides abundant glory for him, why am I still being judged as a sinner?
Rom 3:8 Why not say, as we are falsely reported to say, and as some affirm that we say, “Let us do evil, so that good may come?” The judgment on them is just.
Rom 3:9 What then? Are we excusing ourselves? Not at all. For we have already accused both Jews and Greeks, all of them, of being under sin.
Rom 3:10 This is as it is written: “There is no one righteous, not one.
Rom 3:11 There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after Yehowah.
Rom 3:12 They have all turned from the Way. They together have become useless. There is no one who does good, no, not even one.
Rom 3:13 Their throat is an open grave. Their tongues have deceived. The poison of snakes is under their lips.
Rom 3:14 Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.
Rom 3:15 Their feet are swift to pour out blood.
Rom 3:16 Destruction and suffering are in their paths.
Rom 3:17 These people have not known the Way of peace.
Rom 3:18 There is no fear of Yehowah before their eyes.”
Rom 3:19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to the ones who are under the law. This is in order that every mouth may be shut, and so that all the world may become answerable to Yehowah.
Rom 3:20 This is because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin.
Rom 3:21 But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of Yehowah has been made known. It was witnessed by the law and the prophets (aka Tanakh),

Rom 3:22 that is, the righteousness of Yehowah through faith in Yeshua Messiah for all those who believe. For there is no distinction.
Rom 3:23 For all have sinned and come short of the glory of Yehowah.
Rom 3:24 They are freely justified by his grace through the redemption that is in Messiah Yeshua.
Rom 3:25 For Yehowah provided Messiah Yeshua as a propitiation through faith in his blood. He offered Messiah as proof of his justice, because of his disregard of previous sins in the patience of Yehowah.
Rom 3:26 This all happened for the demonstration of his righteousness at this present time. This was so he could prove himself just, and to show that he justifies anyone because of faith in Yeshua.
Rom 3:27 Where then is boasting? It is excluded. On what law? Of works? No, but on the law of faith (covenant).
Rom 3:28 We conclude then that a person is justified by faith without works of the law.
Rom 3:29 Or is he the Mighty One of Jews only? Is he not also of the ethnicities? Yes, of the ethnicities also.
Rom 3:30 Since indeed, one Yehowah will justify the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through faith.
Rom 3:31 Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! Instead, we uphold the law (Mat. 5:17).

Romans Chapter 4

Rom 4:1 What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, found?
Rom 4:2 For if Abraham had been justified by works, he would have had a reason to boast but not before Yehowah.
Rom 4:3 For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed Yehowah, and it was counted to him as righteousness.”
Rom 4:4 Now for him who works, the recompense is not counted as grace, but as what is owed.
Rom 4:5 But for him who does not work but instead believes in the One who justifies the wicked, his faith is counted as righteousness.
Rom 4:6 David also pronounces blessing on the person to whom Yehowah counts righteousness without works.
Rom 4:7 He said, “Blessed are those whose violations of the law are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
Rom 4:8 Blessed is the man against whom Yehowah will not count sin.”
Rom 4:9 Then is this blessing pronounced only on those of the circumcision or also on those of the uncircumcision? For we say, “Faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness.”
Rom 4:10 So how was it counted? When Abraham was in circumcision or in uncircumcision? It was not in circumcision but in uncircumcision.
Rom 4:11 Abraham received the sign of circumcision. This was a seal of the righteousness of the faith that he had already possessed when he was in uncircumcision. The result of this sign was that he became the father of all those who believe, even if they are in uncircumcision. This means that righteousness will be counted for them.
Rom 4:12 This also meant that Abraham became the father of circumcision for those who come not only from the circumcision, but also for those who follow in the steps of our father Abraham. And this was the faith that he had in uncircumcision.
Rom 4:13 For it was not through the law that the promise was given to Abraham and to his descendants, this promise that they would be heirs of the world. Instead, it was through the righteousness of faith.
Rom 4:14 For if those belonging to the law are heirs, faith is made empty, and the promise is nullified.
Rom 4:15 For the law brings about wrath, but where there is no law, neither is there disobedience.
Rom 4:16 For this reason this happens by faith, so that it might be by grace. As a result, the promise is sure for all the descendants. And these descendants will include not only those who know the law, but also those who are from Abraham's faith. For he is the father of us all,

Rom 4:17 as it is written, "I have made you the father of many ethnicities." Abraham was in the presence of him whom he trusted, that is, Yehowah, who gives life to the dead and calls the things that do not exist into existence.
Rom 4:18 Despite all outward circumstances, Abraham confidently trusted Yehowah for the future. So he became the father of many ethnicities, according to what had been spoken, "Thus will be your descendants."
Rom 4:19 He was not weak in faith. Abraham understood that his own body was unable to have children, because he was about a hundred years old (c. 2065 BC). He also acknowledged that Sarah's womb was not able to bear children.
Rom 4:20 But because of the promise of Yehowah, Abraham did not hesitate in unbelief. Instead, he was strengthened in faith and gave glory to Yehowah.
Rom 4:21 He was fully convinced that what Yehowah had promised, he was also able to accomplish.
Rom 4:22 Therefore, this was also counted to him as righteousness.
Rom 4:23 Now it was not written only for his benefit, that it was counted for him.
Rom 4:24 It was written also for us, for whom it will be counted, we who believe in him who raised Yeshua our Lord from the dead.
Rom 4:25 This is the One who was delivered up to execution for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

Romans Chapter 5

Rom 5:1 Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with Yehowah through our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Rom 5:2 Through him we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in the confidence Yehowah gives us for the future, the hope that we will share in the glory of Yehowah.
Rom 5:3 Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings. We know that suffering produces endurance.
Rom 5:4 Endurance produces proven character, and proven character produces hope for the future.
Rom 5:5 This hope does not disappoint, because the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah has been poured into our hearts through Ruach ha'Kodesh, who was given to us.
Rom 5:6 For while we were still weak, at the right time, Messiah died for the wicked.
Rom 5:7 For one will hardly die for a righteous person. That is, perhaps someone would dare to die for a good person.
Rom 5:8 But Yehowah proves his own unconditional selfless love toward us, because while we were still sinners, Messiah died for us.
Rom 5:9 Much more, then, now that we are justified by his blood, we will be saved by him from the wrath of Yehowah.
Rom 5:10 For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to Yehowah through the death of his Son, much more, after having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.
Rom 5:11 Not only this, but we also rejoice in Yehowah through our Lord Yeshua Messiah, through whom we now have received this reconciliation.
Rom 5:12 So then, as through one man sin entered into the world, in this way, death entered through sin. And death spread to all people, because all sinned.
Rom 5:13 For until the law, sin was in the world, but there is no accounting for sin when there is no law.
Rom 5:14 Nevertheless, death ruled from Adam until Moses, even over those who did not sin like Adam's disobedience, who is a pattern of him who was to come.
Rom 5:15 But even so, the free gift is not like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one, the many died, much more did the grace of Yehowah and the gift by the grace of the one man, Yeshua Messiah, abound for the many.
Rom 5:16 For the gift is not like the outcome of the one who sinned. For on the one hand, the judgment of condemnation came because of the trespass of one man. But on the other hand, the free gift resulting in justification came after many trespasses.

Rom 5:17 For if by the trespass of one, death ruled through the one, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness rule through the life of the One, Yeshua Messiah.
Rom 5:18 So then as through one trespass all people came to condemnation, even so through one act of righteousness came the justification of life for all people.
Rom 5:19 For as through the one man's disobedience, the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the One will many be made righteous.
Rom 5:20 But the law came in alongside, in order that the trespass might abound. But where sin abounded, grace abounded even more.
Rom 5:21 This happened so that, as sin ruled in death, even so grace might rule through righteousness for everlasting life through Yeshua Messiah our Lord.

Romans Chapter 6

Rom 6:1 What then will we say? Should we continue in sin, so that grace may abound?
Rom 6:2 May it never be! We who died to sin, how can we still live in it?
Rom 6:3 Do you not know that as many as were immersed (tevilah) into Yeshua Messiah were immersed into his death?
Rom 6:4 We were buried, then, with him through immersion into death. This happened, in order that just as Messiah was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so also we might walk in newness of life.
Rom 6:5 For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be united with his resurrection.
Rom 6:6 We know this, that our old self was crucified with him, in order that the body of sin might be destroyed. This happened, so that we should no longer be enslaved to sin.
Rom 6:7 He who has died is declared righteous in respect to sin.
Rom 6:8 But if we have died with Messiah, we believe that we will also live together with him.
Rom 6:9 We know that Messiah has been raised from the dead, and that he is no longer dead. Death no longer rules over him.
Rom 6:10 For in regard to the death that he died to sin, he died once for all. However, the life that he lives, he lives it for Yehowah.
Rom 6:11 In the same way, you also must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive to Yehowah in Yeshua Messiah our Lord.
Rom 6:12 Therefore, do not let sin rule in your mortal body, in order that you may obey its lusts.
Rom 6:13 Do not present the parts of your body to sin, to be tools used for unrighteousness. But present yourselves to Yehowah, as dead who are now living. And present the parts of your body to Yehowah as tools to be used for righteousness.
Rom 6:14 Do not allow sin to rule over you (Gen. 4:7). For you are not under the law (not condemned; John 3:18), but under grace.
Rom 6:15 What then? Should we sin because we are not under the law (not condemned; John 3:18), but under grace? May it never be!
Rom 6:16 Do you not know that the one to whom you present yourselves as servants is the one to which you are obedient, the one you must obey? This is true, whether you are servants to sin which leads to death, or servants to obedience which leads to righteousness.
Rom 6:17 But thanks be to Yehowah! For you were servants of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart the pattern of teaching that you were given.

Rom 6:18 You have been made free from sin, and you have been made servants of righteousness.
Rom 6:19 I speak like a human because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your body parts as slaves to uncleanness and to lawlessness unto lawlessness, in the same way, now present your body parts as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.
Rom 6:20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness.
Rom 6:21 At that time, what fruit then did you have of the things of which you are now ashamed? For the outcome of those things is death.
Rom 6:22 But now that you have been made free from sin and are enslaved to Yehowah, you have your fruit for sanctification. The result is eternal life.
Rom 6:23 For sin pays wages of death, but the gift of Yehowah is eternal life in Yeshua Messiah our Lord.

Romans Chapter 7

Rom 7:1 Or do you not know, brethren and sistren, for I am speaking to those who know the law, that the law controls a person for as long as he lives?
Rom 7:2 For the married woman is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage.
Rom 7:3 So then while her husband is living, if she lives with another man, she will be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so she is not an adulteress if she lives with another man.
Rom 7:4 Therefore, my brethren and sistren, you were also made dead to the law through the body of Messiah (Gal. 3:13). This is so that you could be joined to another, that is, to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might produce fruit for Yehowah.
Rom 7:5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions were activated in our members through the law to produce fruit to death.
Rom 7:6 But now, we have been released from the law. We have died to that by which we were held. This is so that we might serve in newness of the Ruach and not in oldness of the letter.
Rom 7:7 What will we say then? Is the law itself sin? May it never be! However, I would never have known sin, if it were not through the law. For I would not have known covetousness, unless the law said, “You must not covet.”
Rom 7:8 But sin took the opportunity through the commandment and brought about every lust in me. For without the law, sin is dead.
Rom 7:9 At one time, I was alive without the law, but when the commandment came, sin regained life, and I died.
Rom 7:10 The commandment that was to bring life turned out to be death for me.
Rom 7:11 For sin took the opportunity through the commandment and deceived me. Through the commandment it killed me.
Rom 7:12 So the law is set-apart, and the commandment is set-apart, righteous, and good.
Rom 7:13 So did what is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin through what is good, brought about death in me. This was in order that through the commandment, sin might become sinful beyond measure.
Rom 7:14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh. I have been sold under slavery to sin.
Rom 7:15 For what I do, I do not really understand. For what I want to do, I do not do, and what I hate, I do.

Rom 7:16 But if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law that the law is good.
Rom 7:17 But now it is no longer I who do it, but the sin that lives in me.
Rom 7:18 For I know that in me, that is in my flesh, lives no good thing. For the desire for good is with me, but I cannot do it.
Rom 7:19 For the good that I want, I do not do, but the evil that I do not want, that I do.
Rom 7:20 Now if I do what I do not want to do, then it is no longer I who am acting, but rather sin that lives in me.
Rom 7:21 I find, then, the principle in me that I want to do what is good, but that evil is actually present in me.
Rom 7:22 For I rejoice in the Law of Yehowah with the inner self.
Rom 7:23 But I see a different principle in my body parts. It fights against that new principle in my mind. It takes me captive by the principle of sin that is in my body parts.
Rom 7:24 I am a miserable person! Who will deliver me from this body of death?
Rom 7:25 But thanks be to Yehowah through Yeshua Messiah our Lord! So then I myself serve the Law of Yehowah with my mind. However, with the flesh I serve the principle of sin.

Romans Chapter 8

Rom 8:1 There is therefore, now no condemnation for those who are in Messiah Yeshua, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Ruach.
Rom 8:2 For the law of the Ruach of life in Messiah Yeshua has made me free from the law of sin and death.
Rom 8:3 For what the law was unable to do, because it was weak through the flesh, Yehowah did. He sent his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be an offering for sin, and he condemned sin in the flesh.
Rom 8:4 He did this, in order that the requirements of the law might be fulfilled in us, we who walk not according to the flesh but according to Ruach.
Rom 8:5 Those who live according to the flesh pay attention to the things of the flesh, but those who live according to Ruach pay attention to the things of the Ruach.
Rom 8:6 For the mentality of the flesh is death, but the mentality of the Ruach is life and peace.
Rom 8:7 This is because the mentality of the flesh is hostile toward Yehowah, for it is not subject to the Law of Yehowah, nor is it able to be.
Rom 8:8 Those who are in the flesh are not able to please Yehowah.
Rom 8:9 However, you are not in the flesh but in the Ruach, if it is true that the Ruach of Yehowah lives in you. But if someone does not have the Ruach of Messiah, he does not belong to him.
Rom 8:10 If Messiah is in you, the body is dead in respect to sin, but the spirit is alive in respect to righteousness.
Rom 8:11 If the Ruach of him who raised Yeshua from the dead lives in you, he who raised Messiah from the dead will give life also to your mortal bodies through his Ruach, who lives in you.
Rom 8:12 So then brethren and sistren, we are debtors, but not to the flesh to live according to the flesh.
Rom 8:13 For if you live according to the flesh, you are about to die, but if by the Ruach you put to death the body's actions, you will live.
Rom 8:14 For as many as are led by the Ruach of Yehowah, these are children of Yehowah.
Rom 8:15 For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again so as to fear. Instead, you received the Ruach of adoption, by which we cry, "Abba, Father!"
Rom 8:16 Ruach himself bears witness with our spirit, that we are children of Yehowah.
Rom 8:17 If we are children, then we are also heirs, heirs of Yehowah. And we are joint heirs with Messiah, if indeed we suffer with him, so that we may also be glorified with him.

Rom 8:18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that will be revealed in us.
Rom 8:19 For the eager expectation of the creation waits for the revealing of the children of Yehowah.
Rom 8:20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will, but of him who subjected it. It is in the confident assurance
Rom 8:21 that the creation itself will be delivered from slavery to corruption, and that it will be brought into the freedom of the glory of the children of Yehowah.
Rom 8:22 For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers with pains of childbirth together even now.
Rom 8:23 Not only that, but even we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Ruach, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, the redemption of our body.
Rom 8:24 For by this hope we were saved. But what we are hopeful will happen has not yet been seen, for who confidently waits for what he already sees?
Rom 8:25 But if we are confident about what we do not yet see, then we wait with patience for it.
Rom 8:26 In the same way, Ruach also helps in our weakness. For we do not know how we should pray, but Ruach himself intercedes for us with inexpressible groans.
Rom 8:27 He who searches the hearts knows the mind of the Ruach, because he intercedes on behalf of the believers according to the will of Yehowah.
Rom 8:28 We know that for those who unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah, he works all things together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.
Rom 8:29 Because those whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren and sistren.
Rom 8:30 Those whom he predestined, these he also called. Those whom he called, these he also justified. Those whom he justified, these he also glorified.
Rom 8:31 What then will we say about these things? If Yehowah is for us, who can be against us?
Rom 8:32 He who did not spare his own Son but delivered him up on behalf of us all, how will he not also with him freely give us all things?
Rom 8:33 Who will bring any accusation against the chosen ones of Yehowah? Yehowah is the One who justifies.
Rom 8:34 Who is the one who will condemn? Messiah Yeshua is the One who died for us, and more than that, he also was raised. He is ruling with Yehowah in the place of honor, and he is the One who is interceding for us.

Rom 8:35 What will separate us from the unconditional selfless love of Messiah? Will tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?
Rom 8:36 Just as it is written, “For your benefit we are killed all day long. We were considered as sheep for the slaughter.”
Rom 8:37 In all these things, we are more than conquerors through the One who unconditionally selflessly loved us.
Rom 8:38 For I have been convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor governments, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,
Rom 8:39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah, which is in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

Romans Chapter 9

Rom 9:1 I tell the truth in Messiah. I do not lie, and my conscience bears witness with me in Ruach ha'Kodesh,
Rom 9:2 that for me there is great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.
Rom 9:3 For I could wish that I myself would be cursed and set apart from Messiah for the sake of my brothers, those of my relatives according to the flesh.
Rom 9:4 They are Israelis. They have the adoption, the glory, the covenants (Gen. 1:1-Exo. 24:11), the legislating of the law (Exo. 24:12-Deut. 31:26), the worship (of Yehowah), and the promises.
Rom 9:5 Theirs are the ancestors from whom Messiah has come with respect to the flesh, he who is over all, Yehowah blessed forever. Amein.
Rom 9:6 But it is not as though the promises of Yehowah have failed. For it is not everyone in Israel who truly belongs to Israel.
Rom 9:7 Neither are all Abraham's descendants truly his children. But, "It is through Isaac that your descendants will be called."
Rom 9:8 That is, the children of the flesh are not the children of Yehowah. But the children of the promise are regarded as descendants.
Rom 9:9 For this is the word of promise: "At this time I will come, and a son will be given to Sarah."
Rom 9:10 Not only this, but after Rebecca also had conceived by one man, our father Isaac,
Rom 9:11 for the children were not yet born and had not yet done anything good or bad, so that the purpose of Yehowah according to choice might stand, not because of actions, but because of him who calls,
Rom 9:12 it was prophesied to her, "The older will serve the younger."
Rom 9:13 It is just as had been written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."
Rom 9:14 What then will we say? Is there unrighteousness with Yehowah? May it never be!
Rom 9:15 For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."
Rom 9:16 So then it is not because of him who wills, nor because of him who runs, but because of Yehowah, who shows mercy.
Rom 9:17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this exact purpose I raised you up, so that I might demonstrate my power in you, and so that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."
Rom 9:18 So then Yehowah has mercy on whom he wishes, and whom he wishes, he makes stubborn.
Rom 9:19 You will then ask me, "Why does he still find fault? For who has ever withstood his will?"

Rom 9:20 On the contrary, human, who are you who answers against Yehowah? Will what has been molded ask the One who molds it, “Why did you make me this way?”
Rom 9:21 Does the potter not have the right over the clay to make from the same lump a container for special use and another container for daily use?
Rom 9:22 What if Yehowah, who is willing to show his wrath and to make his power known, endured with much patience containers of wrath prepared for destruction?
Rom 9:23 What if he did this, in order that he might make known the riches of his glory upon containers of mercy, which he had previously prepared for glory?
Rom 9:24 What if he did this also for us, whom he also called, not only from among the Jews, but also from among the ethnicities?
Rom 9:25 As he says also in Hosea: “I will call my people who were not my people, and her beloved who was not beloved.
Rom 9:26 And it will be that where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called, ‘children of living Yehowah.’”
Rom 9:27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, “If the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, it will be a remnant that will be saved!
Rom 9:28 For Lord Yehowah will carry out his word on the earth, cutting it short in righteousness, soon and completely” (Isa. 10:23)!
Rom 9:29 And it is as Isaiah said before, “If Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces had not left descendants behind for us, we would have become like Sodom and have been made like Gomorrah” (Isa. 1:9).
Rom 9:30 What will we say then? That the ethnicities, who were not pursuing righteousness, obtained righteousness, the righteousness by faith.
Rom 9:31 But Israel, who did pursue a law of righteousness, did not arrive at the law of righteousness.
Rom 9:32 Why not? Because they did not pursue it by faith but by works of the law. They stumbled over the Stone of stumbling,
Rom 9:33 as it has been written, “Look, I am laying in Zion a Stone of stumbling and a Rock of offense. He who believes in him will not be ashamed” (Isa. 8:14-15; 28:16, 13; Rom. 10:11).

Romans Chapter 10

Rom 10:1 Brethren and sistren, my heart's desire and my request to Yehowah is for Israel, for their salvation.
Rom 10:2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for Yehowah but not according to knowledge.
Rom 10:3 For they do not know of the righteousness of Yehowah, and they seek to establish their own righteousness. They did not submit to the righteousness of Yehowah.
Rom 10:4 For Messiah is the ultimate objective of the law for righteousness for everyone who believes.
Rom 10:5 For Moses writes about the righteousness that comes from the law: "The person who does the righteousness of the law will live by this righteousness" (Lev. 18:4-5).
Rom 10:6 But the righteousness that comes from faith says this, "Do not ask in your heart, 'Who will ascend into Heaven?' That is, to bring Messiah down.
Rom 10:7 And do not ask, 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" That is, to bring Messiah up from the dead.
Rom 10:8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (Deut. 30:11-14). That is the word of faith, which we proclaim.
Rom 10:9 For if you acknowledge Lord Yeshua with your mouth, and believe in your heart that Yehowah raised him from the dead, you will be saved.
Rom 10:10 For with the heart man believes for righteousness, and with the mouth he acknowledges for salvation.
Rom 10:11 For Scripture says, "Everyone who believes on him will not be put to shame" (Isa. 28:16).
Rom 10:12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek. For the same Lord is Mighty One of all, and he is rich to all who call upon him.
Rom 10:13 For everyone who calls on the name of Yehowah will be saved (Joel 2:32; Acts 2:21).
Rom 10:14 How then can they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without a preacher?
Rom 10:15 And how can they preach, unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim the good news of peace and glad tidings of good things" (Isa. 52:7; Eph. 6:15)!
Rom 10:16 But they did not all listen to the good news. For Isaiah asks, "Lord, who has believed our message" (Isa. 53:1)?
Rom 10:17 So faith comes from hearing and hearing by the Word of Yehowah.

Rom 10:18 But I ask, “Did they not hear?” Yes, most certainly. “Their sound has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the globe” (Psalm 19:4).
Rom 10:19 Moreover, I ask, “Did Israel not know?” First, Moses says, “I will provoke you to jealousy by what is not an ethnicity. By means of an ethnicity without understanding, I will stir you up to anger” (Deut. 32:21).
Rom 10:20 And Isaiah is quite bold and says, “I was found by those who did not seek me. I appeared to those who did not ask for me” (Isa. 11:10).
Rom 10:21 But to Israel he says, “All the day long I reached out my hands to a disobedient and resistant people” (Isa. 65:1-2).

Romans Chapter 11

Rom 11:1 I ask then, did Yehowah reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Israeli, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
Rom 11:2 Yehowah did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah, how he pleaded with Yehowah against Israel?
Rom 11:3 “Lord Almighty, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life” (1 Kings 19:10, 14).
Rom 11:4 But what does the answer of Yehowah say to him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bent the knee to Baal.”
Rom 11:5 Even so then, at this present time also, there is a remnant because of the choice of grace (Gen. 45:7).
Rom 11:6 But if it is by grace, it is no longer by works. Otherwise, grace would no longer be grace. But if it is by works, then there is no more grace, otherwise, work is no longer work.
Rom 11:7 What then? The thing that Israel was seeking, it did not obtain, but the chosen obtained it, and the rest were hardened.
Rom 11:8 It is just as it is written: “Yehowah has given them a spirit of dullness, eyes so that they should not see, and ears so that they should not hear, to this day.”
Rom 11:9 And David says, “Let their table be made a net, a trap, a stumbling block, and retaliation against them.
Rom 11:10 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they may not see. Always keep their backs bent.”
Rom 11:11 I ask then, “Did they stumble so as to fall?” May it never be! Instead, by their failure, salvation has come to the ethnicities, in order to provoke them to jealousy.
Rom 11:12 Now if their failure is the riches of the world, and if their loss is the riches of the ethnicities, how much greater will their completion be!
Rom 11:13 And now, I am speaking to you ethnicities. As long as I am an apostle to the ethnicities, I honor my ministry.
Rom 11:14 Perhaps I will provoke to jealousy those who are of my own flesh. Perhaps we will save some of them.
Rom 11:15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their reception be but life from the dead?
Rom 11:16 If the firstfruits are set-apart, so is the lump of dough. If the root is set-apart, so are the branches.

Rom 11:17 But if some of the branches were broken off, if you, a wild olive branch, were grafted in among them, and if you shared with them in the rich Root of the olive tree (Jer. 11:16; Zech. 4:11-12),
Rom 11:18 do not boast over the branches. But if you do boast, it is not you who supports the Root, but the Root that supports you.
Rom 11:19 You will say then, “Branches were broken off, so that I might be grafted in.”
Rom 11:20 That is true. Because of their unbelief they were broken off, but you stand firm because of your faith. Do not think too highly of yourself but fear.
Rom 11:21 For if Yehowah did not spare the natural branches, perhaps neither will he spare you.
Rom 11:22 Look then at the kind actions and the severity of Yehowah. On the one hand, severity came on the Jews who fell. But on the other hand, the kindness of Yehowah comes on you, if you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off.
Rom 11:23 And also, if they do not continue in their unbelief, they will be grafted back in. For Yehowah is able to graft them in again.
Rom 11:24 For if you were cut out of what is by nature a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these Jews, who are the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree?
Rom 11:25 For I do not want you to be unaware, brethren and sistren, of this mystery, in order that you will not be wise in your own thinking. This mystery is that a partial hardening has occurred in Israel, until the completion of the ethnicities comes in (Gen. 48:19).
Rom 11:26 Thus in this way, all Israel will be saved, just as it is written: “Out of Zion will come the Deliverer. He will remove wickedness from Jacob.
Rom 11:27 And this will be my covenant with them, when I will take away their sins” (Isa. 59:20-21; 27:9).
Rom 11:28 On the one hand, concerning the good news, they are enemies on your behalf. On the other hand, according to the choice of Yehowah, they are beloved because of the ancestors.
Rom 11:29 For the gifts and the call of Yehowah are irrevocable.
Rom 11:30 For you were formerly disobedient to Yehowah, but now you have received mercy because of their disobedience.
Rom 11:31 In the same way, now these Jews have been disobedient. The result was that by the mercy shown to you, they may also now receive mercy.
Rom 11:32 For Yehowah has shut up all into disobedience, in order that he might show mercy on all.

Rom 11:33 Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of Yehowah! How unsearchable are his judgments and his Ways beyond discovering!
Rom 11:34 “For who has known the Ruach of Yehowah? Or who has become his advisor (Isa. 40:13)?
Rom 11:35 Or who has first given anything to Yehowah, so it will be paid back to him?”
Rom 11:36 For from him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory forever. Amein.

Romans Chapter 12

Rom 12:1 I urge you therefore, brethren and sistren, by the mercies of Yehowah, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, set-apart, acceptable to Yehowah. This is your reasonable service.
Rom 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind. Do this to discern what is the good, acceptable, and perfect will of Yehowah.
Rom 12:3 For I say, because of the grace that was given to me, that everyone who is among you should not think more highly than they ought to think. Instead, they should think in a wise way, just as Yehowah has given out to each one a certain amount of faith.
Rom 12:4 For we have many members in one body, but not all the members have the same function.
Rom 12:5 In the same way, we who are many are one body in Messiah, and are individually members of each other.
Rom 12:6 We have different gifts according to the grace that was given to us. If one's gift is prophecy, let it be done according to the proportion of his faith.
Rom 12:7 If one's gift is service, let him serve. If one has the gift of teaching, let him teach.
Rom 12:8 If one's gift is encouragement, let him encourage. If one's gift is giving, let him do it generously. If one's gift is leading, let it be done with care. If one's gift is in showing mercy, let it be done with cheerfulness.
Rom 12:9 Let unconditional selfless love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil; hold on to that which is good.
Rom 12:10 Concerning brotherly love, be affectionate to one another. Concerning honor, respect one another.
Rom 12:11 Concerning diligence, do not be hesitant. Concerning the Ruach, be eager. Concerning Yehowah, serve him.
Rom 12:12 Rejoice in the hope you have about the future. Be patient in your troubles. Keep on praying.
Rom 12:13 Share in the needs of the believers. Find many ways to show hospitality.
Rom 12:14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.
Rom 12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep.
Rom 12:16 Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not think in proud ways, but accept lowly people. Do not be wise in your own thoughts.
Rom 12:17 Repay no one evil for evil. Do good things in the sight of all people.
Rom 12:18 If possible, as much as it lies with you, be at peace with all people.

Rom 12:19 Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but give way to the wrath of Yehowah. For it is written, “Vengeance is mine; I will repay,” declares Yehowah (Deut. 32:35).
Rom 12:20 “But if your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him a drink. For if you do this, you will heap coals of fire on his head.”
Rom 12:21 Do not be overcome by evil but overcome evil with good.

Romans Chapter 13

Rom 13:1 Let every soul be submitted to higher authorities, for there is no authority unless it comes from Yehowah. And the authorities that exist have been appointed by Yehowah.
Rom 13:2 Therefore, he who resists that authority opposes the command of Yehowah; and those who oppose it will receive judgment on themselves.
Rom 13:3 For rulers are not a terror to good deeds but to evil deeds. Do you desire to be unafraid of authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from it.
Rom 13:4 For he is a servant of Yehowah to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for he does not carry the sword for no reason. For he is a servant of Yehowah, an avenger for wrath on the one who does evil.
Rom 13:5 Therefore, you must submit (Acts 5:29), not only because of the wrath, but also because of conscience.
Rom 13:6 Because of this, you pay taxes also. For authorities are servants of Yehowah, who attend to this exact thing continually.
Rom 13:7 Pay to everyone what is owed to them: tax to whom tax is due; toll to whom toll is due; respect to whom respect is due; honor to whom honor is due.
Rom 13:8 Owe no one anything except to unconditionally selflessly love one another. For he who unconditionally selflessly loves his neighbor has upheld the law (Mat. 5:17).
Rom 13:9 For, “You will not commit adultery, you will not murder, you will not steal, you will not give false testimony, you will not covet,” and if there is any other commandment also, it is summed up in this sentence: “You will love your neighbor as yourself.”
Rom 13:10 Unconditional selfless love does not harm one’s neighbor. Therefore, unconditional selfless love is the fulfillment of the law.
Rom 13:11 Because of this, you know the time, that it is already time for you to awake out of sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.
Rom 13:12 The night has advanced, and the day has come near. Let us therefore put aside the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.
Rom 13:13 Let us walk appropriately, as in the day, not in wild celebrations or drunkenness. And let us not walk in sexual immorality, or in uncontrolled lust, and not in strife or jealousy.
Rom 13:14 But put on Lord Yeshua Messiah, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

Romans Chapter 14

Rom 14:1 Receive anyone who is weak in faith, without giving judgment about opinions.
Rom 14:2 One person has faith to eat any food, another who is weak eats only vegetables (Lev. 11; 20:25; Deut. 14).
Rom 14:3 May the one who eats not despise the one who does not eat. And may the one who does not eat, not judge the other who eats. For Yehowah has received him.
Rom 14:4 Who are you, you who judge a servant belonging to someone else? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. But he will be made to stand, for Yehowah is able to make him stand.
Rom 14:5 One person values one day above another. Another values every day equally. Let each person be convinced in his own mind.
Rom 14:6 He who observes the day, observes it for Yehowah. And he who eats, eats for Yehowah, for he gives Yehowah thanks. He who does not eat (fasts), refrains from eating for Yehowah (Isa. 58). He also gives thanks to Yehowah.
Rom 14:7 For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself.
Rom 14:8 For if we live, we live for Yehowah. And if we die, we die for Yehowah. Then whether we live or die, we belong to Yehowah.
Rom 14:9 For to this purpose Messiah died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.
Rom 14:10 But you, why do you judge your brother or sister? And you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Messiah.
Rom 14:11 For it is written, “As I live,” declares Yehowah, “to me every knee will bend, and every tongue will profess Yehowah” (Isa. 45:23; Phil 2:9-11).
Rom 14:12 So then each one of us will give an account of himself to Yehowah.
Rom 14:13 Therefore, let us no longer judge one another, but instead decide this, that no one will place a stumbling block or a snare for his brother or sister.
Rom 14:14 I know and am persuaded in Lord Yeshua, that nothing is defiled by itself. Only for him who considers anything to be defiled, for him it is defiled.
Rom 14:15 If because of food your brother or sister is hurt, you are no longer walking in unconditional selfless love. Do not destroy with your food one for whom Messiah died.
Rom 14:16 So do not let your good actions cause people to mock them.
Rom 14:17 For the Kingdom of Yehowah is not about food and drink, but about righteousness, peace, and joy in Ruach ha’Kodesh.
Rom 14:18 For the one who serves Messiah in this Way is acceptable to Yehowah and approved by people.

Rom 14:19 So then let us pursue the things of peace and the things that build up one another.
Rom 14:20 Do not destroy the work of Yehowah because of food (defined in Lev. 11 and Deut. 14). All things are indeed clean, but it is evil for that person who eats and causes him to stumble.
Rom 14:21 It is good not to eat meat, nor to drink wine, nor anything by which your brother or sister stumbles or takes offense, or is weakened.
Rom 14:22 These particular beliefs that you have, keep them between yourself and Yehowah. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself in respect to what he approves of.
Rom 14:23 He who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not from faith. And whatever is not from faith is sin.

Romans Chapter 15

Rom 15:1 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and ought not to please ourselves.
Rom 15:2 Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, in order to build him up.
Rom 15:3 For even Messiah did not please himself. Instead, it was just as it is written, “The insults of those who insulted you fell on me.”
Rom 15:4 For whatever was previously written was written for our instruction, in order that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we would have confidence.
Rom 15:5 Now may Yehowah of patience and encouragement grant you to be of the same mind with each other according to Messiah Yeshua.
Rom 15:6 May he do this in order that with one mind and mouth you may glorify Yehowah, the Father of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Rom 15:7 Therefore, receive one another, even as Messiah also received you, to the glory of Yehowah.
Rom 15:8 For I say that Yeshua Messiah has been made a servant of the circumcision in behalf of the truth of Yehowah. He did this, so that he might confirm the promises given to the fathers, Rom 15:9 and for the ethnicities to glorify Yehowah for his mercy. It is as it is written, “Therefore, I will give praise to you among the ethnicities and sing praise to your name” (Psa. 18:49).
Rom 15:10 Again it says, “Rejoice, you ethnicities, with his people” (Deut. 32:43).
Rom 15:11 And again, “Praise the Lord, all you ethnicities; let all the people praise him” (Psa. 117:1).
Rom 15:12 Again, Isaiah says, “There will be the root of Jesse, and the One who will arise to rule over the ethnicities. The ethnicities will have confidence in him” (Isa. 11:10).
Rom 15:13 Now may Yehowah of confidence fill you with all joy and peace for believing, so that you may abound in confidence by the power of Ruach ha’Kodesh.
Rom 15:14 I myself am also convinced about you, my brethren and sistren. I am convinced that you yourselves are also full of goodness, filled with all knowledge. I am convinced that you are also able to exhort one another.
Rom 15:15 But I am writing more boldly to you about some things in order to remind you again, because of the grace that was given me by Yehowah.
Rom 15:16 This grace was that I should be a servant of Yeshua Messiah sent to the ethnicities, to offer as a priest the good news of Yehowah. I should do this, so that the offering of the ethnicities might become acceptable, consecrated by Ruach ha'Kodesh.

Rom 15:17 So my delight is in Yeshua Messiah and in the things of Yehowah.
Rom 15:18 For I will not dare to speak of anything except what Messiah has accomplished through me for the obedience of the ethnicities. These are things done by word and action,
Rom 15:19 by the power of signs and wonders, and by the power of the Ruach of Yehowah. This was so that from Jerusalem, and round about as far as Illyricum, I might fully carry out the good news of Messiah.
Rom 15:20 In this Way, my desire has been to proclaim the good news, but not where Messiah is known by name, in order that I might not build upon another person's foundation.
Rom 15:21 But as it is written: "Those to whom no report of him came will see him, and those who have not heard will understand" (Isa. 52:15).
Rom 15:22 Therefore, I was also hindered many times from coming to you.
Rom 15:23 But now, I no longer have any place in these regions, and I have been longing for many years to come to you.
Rom 15:24 So whenever I go to Spain (c. 63-67 AD; 5th missionary journey), I hope to see you in passing, and to be sent on my way by you, after I enjoy your company for awhile.
Rom 15:25 But now I am going to Jerusalem to serve the believers.
Rom 15:26 For it was the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution to the poor among the believers who are in Jerusalem.
Rom 15:27 Yes, it was their good pleasure, and indeed, they are their debtors. For if the ethnicities have shared in their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in material things.
Rom 15:28 Therefore, when I have accomplished this and have certified this fruit to them, I will go on by way of you to Spain.
Rom 15:29 I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the good news of Messiah.
Rom 15:30 Now I urge you, brethren and sistren, by our Lord Yeshua Messiah, and by the unconditional selfless love of Ruach ha'Kodesh, that you strive together with me in your prayers to Yehowah for me.
Rom 15:31 Pray that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the believers.
Rom 15:32 Pray that I may come to you in joy through the will of Yehowah, and that I may, together with you, find renewal.
Rom 15:33 May Yehowah of peace be with you all. Amein.

Romans Chapter 16

Rom 16:1 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the congregation that is in Cenchrea,
Rom 16:2 in order that you may receive her in the Lord. Do this in a manner worthy of the believers, and stand by her in whatever matter she may have need of you. For she herself as well has become a helper of many, and of myself as well.
Rom 16:3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Messiah Yeshua,
Rom 16:4 who for my life risked their own lives. I give thanks to them, and not only I, but also all the congregations of the ethnicities.
Rom 16:5 Greet the congregation that is in their house. Greet Epaenetus my beloved, who is the firstfruit of Achaia to Messiah.
Rom 16:6 Greet Miriam, who has worked hard for you.
Rom 16:7 Greet Andronicon and Iounias, my kinsfolk, and my fellow prisoners. They are prominent among the apostles, who also were in Messiah before me.
Rom 16:8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.
Rom 16:9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Messiah, and Stachys, my beloved.
Rom 16:10 Greet Apelles, the approved in Messiah. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.
Rom 16:11 Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.
Rom 16:12 Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who work hard in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has worked much in the Lord.
Rom 16:13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
Rom 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren and sistren who are with them.
Rom 16:15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the believers who are with them.
Rom 16:16 Greet one another with a set-apart kiss. All the Messianic congregations greet you (Acts 11:26).
Rom 16:17 Now I urge you, brethren and sistren, to watch out for those who are causing the divisions and stumbling. They are going beyond the teaching that you have learned. Turn away from them.
Rom 16:18 For people such as these do not serve our Lord Yeshua Messiah, but their own stomach. By their smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the innocent.
Rom 16:19 For your example of obedience reaches everyone. I rejoice, therefore, over you, but I want you to be wise as to that which is good and innocent to that which is evil.

Rom 16:20 Yehowah of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be with you. Amein.
Rom 16:21 Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen.
Rom 16:22 I, Tertius, who write down this epistle, greet you in the Lord.
Rom 16:23 Gaius, the host for me and for the whole congregation, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, with Brother Quartus.
Rom 16:24 May the grace of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be with you all. Amein.
Rom 16:25 Now to him who is able to make you stand according to my good news and the preaching of Yeshua Messiah, according to the revelation of the mystery that has been kept secret from long ago,
Rom 16:26 but that now has been revealed and made known by the prophetic Scriptures according to the command of eternal Yehowah, for the obedience of faith among all the ethnicities.
Rom 16:27 To Yehowah, solely wise, through Yeshua Messiah, be the glory forever. Amein.

Book of 1st Corinthians

1 Corinthians Chapter 1

1Co 1:1 Paul, called by Yeshua Messiah to be an apostle by the will of Yehowah, and Sosthenes our brother,
1Co 1:2 to the congregation of Yehowah at Corinth, to those who have been consecrated in Messiah Yeshua, who are called to be set-apart people. We are also writing to all who call on the name of our Lord Yeshua Messiah in every place, their Lord and ours.
1Co 1:3 May grace and peace be to you from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Co 1:4 I always give thanks to Yehowah for you, because of the grace of Yehowah that Yeshua Messiah gave to you.
1Co 1:5 He has made you rich in every way, in all speech and with all knowledge,
1Co 1:6 just as the testimony about Messiah has been confirmed as true among you.
1Co 1:7 Therefore, you lack no spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for the revelation of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Co 1:8 He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you will be blameless on the Day of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Co 1:9 Yehowah is faithful, who called you into the fellowship of his Son, Yeshua Messiah our Lord.
1Co 1:10 Now I urge you, brethren and sistren, through the name of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, that you all agree, and that there be no divisions among you. I urge that you be joined together with the same mind and by the same purpose.
1Co 1:11 For it has been made clear to me, my brethren and sistren, by Chloe's people, that there are factions among you.
1Co 1:12 I mean this: Each one of you says, "I am with Paul," or "I am with Apollos," or "I am with Cephas," or "I am with Messiah."
1Co 1:13 Is Messiah divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you immersed in the name of Paul?
1Co 1:14 I thank Yehowah that I immersed none of you, except Crispus and Gaius.
1Co 1:15 This was so that no one would say that you were immersed into my name.
1Co 1:16 I also immersed the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know if I immersed any others.

1Co 1:17 For Messiah did not send me to immerse but to preach the good news. He did not send me to preach with words of human wisdom, so that the cross of Messiah should not be emptied of its power.
1Co 1:18 For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are dying. But among those whom Yehowah is saving, it is the power of Yehowah.
1Co 1:19 For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise. I will frustrate the understanding of the intelligent."
1Co 1:20 Where is the wise person? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this world? Has not Yehowah turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness?
1Co 1:21 Since in the wisdom of Yehowah, the world in its wisdom did not know Yehowah, it pleased Yehowah through the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe.
1Co 1:22 For Jews ask for miraculous signs and Greeks seek wisdom.
1Co 1:23 But we preach Messiah crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Greeks.
1Co 1:24 But to those whom Yehowah has called, both Jews and Greeks, we preach Messiah as the power of Yehowah and the wisdom of Yehowah.
1Co 1:25 For the foolishness of Yehowah is wiser than humans, and the weakness of Yehowah is stronger than humans.
1Co 1:26 Look at your calling, brethren and sistren. Not many of you were wise by human standards. Not many of you were powerful. Not many of you were of noble birth.
1Co 1:27 But Yehowah chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise. Yehowah chose what is weak in the world to shame what is strong.
1Co 1:28 Yehowah chose what is low and despised in the world. He even chose things that are regarded as nothing, to bring to nothing things that are held as valuable.
1Co 1:29 He did this, so that no one would have a reason to boast before him.
1Co 1:30 Because of what Yehowah did, now you are in Messiah Yeshua, who became for us wisdom from Yehowah. He became our righteousness, consecration, and redemption.
1Co 1:31 As a result, as Scripture says, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord" (Jer. 9:24).

1 Corinthians Chapter 2

1Co 2:1 When I came to you, brethren and sistren, I did not come with eloquence of speech or wisdom as I proclaimed hidden truths about Yehowah.
1Co 2:2 For I decided to know nothing when I was among you except Yeshua Messiah, and him crucified.
1Co 2:3 And I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.
1Co 2:4 And my message and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of human wisdom. Instead, they were with the demonstration of the Ruach and of power,
1Co 2:5 so that your faith might not be in the wisdom of humans, but in the power of Yehowah.
1Co 2:6 Now we do speak wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this world, or of the rulers of this age, who are passing away.
1Co 2:7 Instead, we speak the wisdom of Yehowah in hidden truth, the hidden wisdom that Yehowah predestined before the ages for our glory.
1Co 2:8 None of the rulers of this age knew this wisdom, for if they had understood it at that time, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
1Co 2:9 But as it is written, “Things that no eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has imagined, the things that Yehowah has prepared for those who love him” (Isa. 64:4).
1Co 2:10 These are the things that Yehowah has revealed to us through the Ruach. For the Ruach searches everything, even the deep things of Yehowah.
1Co 2:11 For who knows a person’s thoughts except the spirit of the person in him? So also, no one knows the deep things of Yehowah except the Ruach of Yehowah.
1Co 2:12 But we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Ruach who is from Yehowah, so that we might know the things freely given to us by Yehowah.
1Co 2:13 We speak about these things in words that human wisdom cannot teach, but which Ruach ha’Kodesh teaches us. The Ruach interprets spiritual words with spiritual wisdom.
1Co 2:14 The sensual person does not receive the things that belong to the Ruach of Yehowah, for they are foolishness to him. He cannot know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
1Co 2:15 The one who is spiritual judges all things, but he is not subject to the judgment of others.
1Co 2:16 “For who can know the mind of Yehowah, that he can instruct him” (Isa. 40:13)? But we have the mind of Messiah.

1 Corinthians Chapter 3

1Co 3:1 And I, brethren and sistren, could not speak to you as spiritual people, but instead as to fleshly people, as to immature children in Messiah.
1Co 3:2 I fed you milk and not meat, for you were not ready for meat. And even now you are not ready.
1Co 3:3 For you are still fleshly. For where jealousy, strife, and dissensions exist among you, are you not living according to the flesh, and are you not walking by human standards?
1Co 3:4 For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another says, “I follow Apollos,” are you not fleshly?
1Co 3:5 Who then is Apollos? And who is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, to each of whom the Lord gave tasks.
1Co 3:6 I planted, Apollos watered, but Yehowah gave the growth.
1Co 3:7 So then neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything. But it is Yehowah who gives the growth.
1Co 3:8 Now he who plants, and he who waters are united, and each will receive his own wages according to his own labor.
1Co 3:9 For we are the fellow workers of Yehowah. You are the garden of Yehowah, the building of Yehowah.
1Co 3:10 According to the grace of Yehowah that was given to me as a skilled master builder, I laid a foundation, and another is building on it. But let each one be careful how he builds on it.
1Co 3:11 For no one can lay a foundation other than the One that has been laid, that is, Yeshua Messiah.
1Co 3:12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw,
1Co 3:13 his work will be revealed, for the Day will reveal it. For it will be revealed in fire. The fire will test the quality of what each one had done.
1Co 3:14 If anyone’s work that he built remains, he will receive a reward;
1Co 3:15 but if anyone’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, as though escaping through fire.
1Co 3:16 Do you not know that you are the temple of Yehowah, and that the Ruach of Yehowah lives in you?
1Co 3:17 If anyone destroys the temple of Yehowah, Yehowah will destroy that person. For the temple of Yehowah is set-apart, and so are you.
1Co 3:18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a fool, that he may become wise.

1Co 3:20 And again, “Yehowah knows that the reasoning of the wise is futile” (Psa. 94:11).
1Co 3:21 So no more boasting about people! For all things are yours,
1Co 3:22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All things are yours,
1Co 3:23 and you belong to Messiah, and Messiah belongs to Yehowah.

1 Corinthians Chapter 4

1Co 4:1 This is how a person should regard us, as servants of Messiah and stewards of the hidden truths of Yehowah.
1Co 4:2 In this connection, it is a requirement for stewards that they be faithful.
1Co 4:3 But for me, it is extremely insignificant that I should be judged by you or by any human court. For I do not even judge myself.
1Co 4:4 I am not aware of any charge being made against me, but that does not mean I am innocent. It is Yehowah who judges me.
1Co 4:5 Therefore, do not pronounce judgment about anything before the time, before the Lord comes. He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his praise from Yehowah.
1Co 4:6 Now brethren and sistren, I applied these principles to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that from us you might learn the meaning of the saying, “Do not hold an opinion beyond what is written.” This is so that none of you may be puffed up in grace of one against the other.
1Co 4:7 For who sees any difference between you and others? What do you have that you did not freely receive? If you have freely received it, why do you boast as if you had not done so?
1Co 4:8 Already you have all you could want! Already you have become rich! You began to reign, and that quite apart from us! Indeed, I wish you did reign, so that we could reign with you.
1Co 4:9 For I think Yehowah has put us apostles on display as the last in line in a procession, and like men sentenced to death. We have become a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to humans.
1Co 4:10 We are fools for the sake of Messiah, but you are wise in Messiah. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we are held in dishonor.
1Co 4:11 Up to this present hour, we are hungry and thirsty, we are poorly clothed, we are brutally beaten, and we are homeless.
1Co 4:12 We work hard, working with our own hands. When we are reviled, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure.
1Co 4:13 When we are slandered, we speak with kindness. We have become, and are still considered to be, the refuse of the world and the filthiest of all things.
1Co 4:14 I do not write these things to shame you but to correct you as my beloved children.
1Co 4:15 For even if you have ten thousand tutors in Messiah, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Messiah Yeshua through the good news.
1Co 4:16 So I urge you to be imitators of me.

1Co 4:17 That is why I sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of my Ways in Messiah, just as I teach them everywhere and in every congregation (Acts 11:26).
1Co 4:18 Now some of you have become arrogant, acting as though I were not coming to you.
1Co 4:19 But I will come to you soon, if Yehowah wills. Then I will know not merely the talk of these who are so arrogant, but I will see their power.
1Co 4:20 For the Kingdom of Yehowah does not consist in talk but in power.
1Co 4:21 What do you want? Should I come to you with a rod or with unconditional selfless love and in the Ruach of gentleness?

1 Corinthians Chapter 5

1Co 5:1 We heard a report that there is sexual immorality among you, a kind of immorality that is not even permitted among the ethnicities. The report is that one of you is having sex with his father's wife (Lev. 20:11; Deut. 22:30, 27:30).
1Co 5:2 And you are so arrogant! Should you not mourn instead? The one who did this must be removed from among you.
1Co 5:3 For although I am absent in body but still present in spirit, I have already judged the one who did this, just as though I were there.
1Co 5:4 When you gather together in the name of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, and my spirit is there as well in the power of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, I have already judged this person.
1Co 5:5 I have done this to hand this person over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the Day of Lord Yeshua.
1Co 5:6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole loaf?
1Co 5:7 Cleanse yourselves of the old yeast, so that you may be new dough, since you are unleavened. For Messiah, our Passover, has been sacrificed.
1Co 5:8 So let us then celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of bad behavior and wickedness. Instead, let us celebrate with unleavened sincerity and truth.
1Co 5:9 I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people.
1Co 5:10 In no way did I mean the immoral people of this world, or the greedy, or scammers, or idolaters, since to stay away from them you would need to go out of the world.
1Co 5:11 But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother or sister, but who is living in sexual immorality, or who is greedy, or is an idolater, or is verbally abusive, or is a drunkard, or a scammer. Do not even eat a meal with such a person.
1Co 5:12 For how am I involved with judging those who are outside the congregation? Instead, are you not to judge those who are inside the congregation?
1Co 5:13 But Yehowah judges those who are on the outside. "Remove the evil person from among you."

1 Corinthians Chapter 6

1Co 6:1 When one of you has a dispute with another, does he dare to go to the civil court before an unbelieving judge, rather than before the believers?
1Co 6:2 Do you not know that the believers will judge the world? And if you will judge the world, are you not able to settle unimportant matters?
1Co 6:3 Do you not know that we will judge the angels? How much more, then, can we judge matters of this life?
1Co 6:4 If then, you have to make judgments that pertain to daily life, why do you lay such cases as these before those who have no standing in the congregation?
1Co 6:5 I say this to your shame. Is there no one among you wise enough to settle a dispute between brethren and sistren?
1Co 6:6 But as it stands, one believer goes to court against another believer, and that case is placed before a judge who is an unbeliever!
1Co 6:7 The fact that there are any lawsuits at all between believers is already a defeat for you. Why not rather suffer the wrong? Why not rather allow yourselves to be cheated?
1Co 6:8 But you have wronged and cheated others, and these are your own brethren and sistren!
1Co 6:9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of Yehowah? Do not believe lies. The sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, male prostitutes, those who practice homosexuality (Lev. 18; 20; Deut. 22),
1Co 6:10 thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, and scammers, none of them will inherit the Kingdom of Yehowah.
1Co 6:11 And such were some of you. But you have been cleansed, you have been sanctified, you have been made right with Yehowah in the name of Lord Yeshua and by the Ruach of Yehowah.
1Co 6:12 “Everything done lawfully is for me,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything done lawfully is for me,” but I will not be mastered by any of them.
1Co 6:13 “Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food,” but Yehowah will do away with both of them. The body is not intended for sexual immorality. Instead, the body is for the Lord, and the Lord will provide for the body.
1Co 6:14 Yehowah both raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power.
1Co 6:15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Messiah? Should I then take away the members of Messiah and join them to a prostitute? May it not be!
1Co 6:16 Do you not know that he who is joined to a prostitute becomes one flesh with her? As Scripture says, “The two will become one flesh.”
1Co 6:17 But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

1Co 6:18 Run away from sexual immorality! Every other sin that a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body.
1Co 6:19 Do you not know that your body is a temple of Ruach ha'Kodesh, who lives within you, whom you have from Yehowah? Do you not know that you are not your own?
1Co 6:20 For you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify Yehowah with your body, and with your spirit, which belong to Yehowah.

1 Corinthians Chapter 7

1Co 7:1 Now concerning the issues you wrote about: “It is good for a man not to touch a woman.”
1Co 7:2 But because of temptations for many immoral acts, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.
1Co 7:3 The husband should give to the wife her conjugal rights and likewise the wife to her husband.
1Co 7:4 It is not the wife who has authority over her own body, it is the husband. And likewise, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.
1Co 7:5 Do not deprive each other, except by mutual agreement and for a specific period of time. Do this, so that you may devote yourselves to fasting and prayer. Then you should come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.
1Co 7:6 But I say these things to you as a concession and not as a command.
1Co 7:7 I wish that everyone were as I am. But each one has his own gift from Yehowah. One has this kind of gift and another that kind.
1Co 7:8 To the unmarried and to widows I say that it is good for them if they remain unmarried, as I am.
1Co 7:9 But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better for them to marry than to burn with passion.
1Co 7:10 Now to the married I give this command, not I, but the Lord: “The wife should not separate from her husband” (without a written contract of divorce).
1Co 7:11 But if she does separate from her husband, she should remain unmarried or else be reconciled to him. And, “The husband should not divorce his wife” (Mat. 19; Deut. 24:1-4).
1Co 7:12 But to the rest I say, I, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and if she is content to live with him, he should not divorce her.
1Co 7:13 If a woman has an unbelieving husband, and if he is content to live with her, she should not divorce him.
1Co 7:14 For the unbelieving husband is set apart because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is set apart because of the husband. Otherwise, your children would be unclean, but actually they are set apart.
1Co 7:15 But if the non-believing partner departs, let him go (with a written contract of divorce). In such cases, the brother or sister is not bound to their vows. Yehowah has called us to live in peace.
1Co 7:16 For how do you know, woman, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

1Co 7:17 Only let each one live the life Yehowah has assigned him, each as the Lord has called him. This is my rule in all the congregations.
1Co 7:18 Was anyone circumcised when he was called to believe? He should not try to appear uncircumcised. Was anyone uncircumcised when he was called to faith? He should not be circumcised.
1Co 7:19 For it is neither circumcision nor uncircumcision that matters. What matters is obeying the commandments of Yehowah.
1Co 7:20 Each one should remain in the calling he was in when Yehowah called him to believe.
1Co 7:21 Were you a slave when Yehowah called you? Do not be concerned about it. But if you can become free, take advantage of it.
1Co 7:22 For someone who is called by the Lord as a slave is the freeman of the Lord. Likewise, the one who was free when he was called to believe is the slave of Messiah.
1Co 7:23 You have been bought with a price, so do not become slaves of people.
1Co 7:24 Brethren and sistren, in whatever life each of us was in when we were called to believe, let us remain like that in Yehowah.
1Co 7:25 Now concerning those who never married, I have no commandment from the Lord. But I give my opinion as one who, by the mercy of the Lord, is trustworthy.
1Co 7:26 Therefore, I think that because of the impending crisis, it is good for a man to remain as he is.
1Co 7:27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free of her. Are you free of a wife? Do not seek a wife.
1Co 7:28 But if you do marry, you have not committed a sin. And if an unmarried woman marries, she has committed no sin. Yet those who marry will have many kinds of trouble while living, and I would like to spare you from them.
1Co 7:29 But this I say, brothers: The time is short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none.
1Co 7:30 Those who weep should act as though they were not weeping, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who are buying anything as though they did not possess anything.
1Co 7:31 And those who make use of the world should not act as though they are making total use of it, for the system of this world is coming to an end.
1Co 7:32 I would like you to be free from worries. The unmarried person is concerned about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord.
1Co 7:33 But the married person is concerned about the things of the world, how to please his wife.
1Co 7:34 The unmarried woman or the virgin is concerned about the things of the Lord, how to be set apart in body and in spirit. But the married woman is concerned about the things of the world, how to please her husband.

1Co 7:35 I say this for your own benefit and not to put any constraint on you. I say this for what is right, so that you may be devoted to the Lord without any distraction.
1Co 7:36 But if anyone thinks that he is not treating his virgin daughter with respect, if she is beyond the age of marriage, and it must be so, he should do what he wants. He is not sinning. He should let her marry.
1Co 7:37 But if he is standing firm in his heart, if he is not under pressure but can control his own will, and if he has decided in his own heart to do this, to keep his own daughter a virgin, he will do well.
1Co 7:38 So the one who lets his virgin daughter marry does well, and the one who chooses not to let her marry will do even better.
1Co 7:39 A wife is bound by the law to her husband for as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry whomever she wishes to marry but only in the Lord.
1Co 7:40 Yet, in my judgment she would be happier if she lives as she is. And I think that I also have the Ruach of Yehowah.

1 Corinthians Chapter 8

1Co 8:1 Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that, “we all have knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but unconditional selfless love builds up.
1Co 8:2 If anyone thinks he knows something, that person does not yet know as he should know.
1Co 8:3 But if anyone unconditionally selflessly loves Yehowah, that person is known by him.
1Co 8:4 So about eating food sacrificed to idols: We know that “an idol in this world is nothing,” and that “Yehowah is Oneness.”
1Co 8:5 For maybe so-called deities do exist, either in Heaven or on earth, just as there are many “deities” and many “lords.”
1Co 8:6 Yet for us, “There is only one Father, Yehowah, from him are all things, and for whom we live, and one Lord Yeshua Messiah, through whom all things exist, and through whom we exist.”
1Co 8:7 However, this knowledge is not in everyone. Instead, some previously practiced idol worship, and they eat this food as if it were something sacrificed to an idol. Their conscience is thereby corrupted, because it is weak.
1Co 8:8 But food will not present us to Yehowah. We are not worse if we do not eat, nor better if we do eat it.
1Co 8:9 But take care that your freedom does not become a reason for someone who is weak in faith to stumble.
1Co 8:10 For suppose that someone sees you, who have knowledge, eating a meal in an idol’s temple. Is not his weak conscience emboldened to eat what is offered to idols?
1Co 8:11 So because of your understanding about the true nature of idols, the weaker one, the brother or sister for whom Messiah died, is destroyed.
1Co 8:12 Thus, when you sin against your brethren and sistren and wound their weak consciences, you sin against Messiah.
1Co 8:13 Therefore, if food causes my brother or sister to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I may not cause my brother or sister to fall.

1 Corinthians Chapter 9

1Co 9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Yeshua Messiah our Lord? Are you not my workmanship in the Lord?
1Co 9:2 If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you. For you are the proof of my apostleship in the Lord.
1Co 9:3 This is my defense to those who examine me:
1Co 9:4 Do we not have the right to eat and drink?
1Co 9:5 Do we not have the right to take along with us a wife who is a believer, as do the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?
1Co 9:6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who must work?
1Co 9:7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink milk from it?
1Co 9:8 Do I say these things based on human authority? Does not the law also say this?
1Co 9:9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, “Do not put a muzzle on an ox when it is treading out the grain.” Is it really the oxen that Yehowah cares about (Deut. 25:4)?
1Co 9:10 Is he not speaking about us? It was written for us, because the one who plows should plow in hope, and the one who threshes should thresh in the expectation of sharing in the harvest.
1Co 9:11 If we sowed spiritual things among you, is it too much for us to reap material things from you?
1Co 9:12 If others exercised this right from you, do we not have even more? Nevertheless, we did not claim this right. Instead, we endured everything rather than be a hindrance to the good news of Messiah.
1Co 9:13 Do you not know that those who serve in the temple get their food from the temple? Do you not know that those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar?
1Co 9:14 In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the good news should get their living from the good news.
1Co 9:15 But I have not claimed any of these rights. And I do not write this so something might be done for me. I would rather die than anyone deprive me of this boast.
1Co 9:16 For if I preach the good news, I have no reason for boasting, because I must do this. And woe be to me if I do not preach the good news!
1Co 9:17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward. But if not willingly, I still have a responsibility that was entrusted to me.
1Co 9:18 What then is my reward? That when I preach, I may offer the good news without charge and so not take full use of my right in the good news.

1Co 9:19 For though I am free from all, I became a servant to all, in order that I might win more.
1Co 9:20 To the Jews I became like a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law, I became like one under the law, in order to win those under the law.
1Co 9:21 To those outside the law, I became like one outside the law, although I was not outside the Law of Yehowah myself, but under the law of Messiah. I did this, so that I may win those outside the law.
1Co 9:22 To the weak, I became weak, so that I may win the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that I may by all means save some.
1Co 9:23 I do all things for the good news' sake, so that I may participate in its blessings.
1Co 9:24 Do you not know that in a race all the runners run the race, but that only one receives the prize? So run to win the prize.
1Co 9:25 An athlete exercises self-control in all his training. They do it to receive a wreath that is perishable, but we run, so that we might receive an imperishable wreath.
1Co 9:26 Therefore, I do not run without purpose or box by beating the air.
1Co 9:27 But I subdue my body and make it a slave, so that after I have preached to others, I myself may not be disqualified.

1 Corinthians Chapter 10

1Co 10:1 I want you to know, brethren and sistren, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the SEA.
1Co 10:2 All were immersed into Moses in the cloud and in the SEA,
1Co 10:3 and all ate the same spiritual food.
1Co 10:4 All drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from a spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Messiah.
1Co 10:5 But Yehowah was not well pleased with most of them, and their corpses were scattered about in the wilderness.
1Co 10:6 Now these things were examples for us, so we would not lust for evil things as they did.
1Co 10:7 Do not be idolaters, as some of them were. This is as it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.”
1Co 10:8 Let us not commit sexual immorality, as many of them did. In one day, twenty-three thousand people died because of it (Num. 25:9).
1Co 10:9 Neither let us put Messiah to the test, as many of them did and were destroyed by snakes.
1Co 10:10 Also, do not grumble, as many of them did and were destroyed by an angel of death.
1Co 10:11 Now these things happened to them as examples for us. They were written for our instruction, for us on whom the end of the ages has come.
1Co 10:12 Therefore, let anyone who thinks he stands, be careful that he does not fall.
1Co 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to all humanity. Instead, Yehowah is faithful. He will not let you be tempted beyond your ability. With the temptation, he will also provide the way of escape, so that you may be able to endure it.
1Co 10:14 Therefore, my beloved emissaries, run away from idolatry.
1Co 10:15 I speak to you as thoughtful people, so you may judge what I say.
1Co 10:16 The cup of blessing with which we bless Yehowah, is it not a sharing in the blood of Messiah? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Messiah?
1Co 10:17 Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body. We all take of one bread together.
1Co 10:18 Look at the people of Israel: Are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar?
1Co 10:19 What am I saying then? That an idol is anything? Or that food sacrificed to an idol is anything?

1Co 10:20 But I say about the things the ethnicities sacrifice, that they offer these things to demons and not to Yehowah. I do not want you to be participants with demons!
1Co 10:21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot have fellowship at the table of the Lord and the table of demons.
1Co 10:22 Or do we provoke Yehowah to jealousy? Are we stronger than he is?
1Co 10:23 “All things done lawfully are for me,” but not everything is beneficial. “All things done lawfully are for me,” but not everything builds people up.
1Co 10:24 No one should seek his own good. Instead, each one should seek the good of his neighbor.
1Co 10:25 Whatever is sold in the market, eat nothing until you ask questions for the sake of conscience.
1Co 10:26 For, “The earth belongs to Yehowah and the fullness of it” (Psa. 24:1).
1Co 10:27 If an unbeliever invites you to eat a meal, and you wish to go, eat nothing that is set before you, until you ask questions for the sake of conscience.
1Co 10:28 And if someone says to you, “This food was from a pagan sacrifice,” do not eat it. This is for the sake of the one who informed you and for the sake of conscience.
1Co 10:29 I do not mean your own conscience, but the other person’s conscience. For why should my freedom be judged by another’s conscience?
1Co 10:30 If I partake of the meal with gratitude, why am I being insulted for that for which I gave thanks?
1Co 10:31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of Yehowah.
1Co 10:32 Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks, or to the congregation of Yehowah.
1Co 10:33 I try to please all people in all things. I do not seek my benefit but that of the many. I do this, so that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians Chapter 11

1Co 11:1 Be imitators of me, just as I am an imitator of Messiah.
1Co 11:2 Now I praise you, brethren and sistren, because you remember me in everything. I praise you, because you hold fast to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.
1Co 11:3 Now I want you to understand that Messiah is the head of every man, that a man is the head of a woman, and that Yehowah is the head of Messiah.
1Co 11:4 Any man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head.
1Co 11:5 But any woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if her head were shaved.
1Co 11:6 For if a woman will not cover her head, she should cut her hair short. If it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off, or for her to shave her head, let her cover her head.
1Co 11:7 For a man should not have his head covered effeminately (Deut. 22:5), since he is the image and glory of Yehowah. But the woman is the glory of the man.
1Co 11:8 For man was not made from woman. Instead, woman was made from man.
1Co 11:9 For neither was man created for woman. Instead, woman was created for man.
1Co 11:10 This is why the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.
1Co 11:11 Nevertheless, in Yehowah, the woman is not independent from the man, nor is the man independent from the woman.
1Co 11:12 For as the woman comes from the man, so does the man come from the woman. And all things come from Yehowah.
1Co 11:13 Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to Yehowah with her head uncovered?
1Co 11:14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace for him (Eze. 44:20)?
1Co 11:15 Does not nature teach you that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair has been given to her as a covering.
1Co 11:16 But if anyone wants to argue about this, we do not have any other practice, nor do the congregations of Yehowah.
1Co 11:17 But in the following instructions, I do not praise you. For when you come together, it is not for the better but for the worse.
1Co 11:18 For in the first place, I hear that when you come together in the congregation, there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

1Co 11:19 For there must also be factions among you, so that those who are approved may be recognized among you.
1Co 11:20 For when you come together, it is not to eat the supper of the Lord.
1Co 11:21 When you eat, each one eats his own food before the others have their supper. One is hungry, and another becomes drunk.
1Co 11:22 Do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Do you despise the congregation of Yehowah and humiliate those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? I will not praise you for this!
1Co 11:23 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you, that Lord Yeshua, on the night when he was betrayed, took unleavened bread.
1Co 11:24 After he had given thanks to Yehowah, he broke it and said, "Take, eat, this represents my body, which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me."
1Co 11:25 In the same way, he took the cup after supper, and he said, "This cup represents the New Covenant in my blood. Do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me" (Lev. 17:10-14; Gen. 9:4; Luke 22:19; Num. 10:10; the Zikkaron).
1Co 11:26 For every time you eat this unleavened bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of Yeshua until he comes.
1Co 11:27 Whoever, therefore, eats the unleavened bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.
1Co 11:28 Let a person examine himself first, and in this Way, let him eat of the unleavened bread and drink of the cup.
1Co 11:29 For he who eats and drinks irreverently, without discerning the body of the Lord, eats and drinks judgment to himself.
1Co 11:30 That is why many among you are weak and ill, and some of you have died.
1Co 11:31 But if we examine ourselves, we will not be judged.
1Co 11:32 But when we are judged by Yehowah, we are disciplined, so that we may not be condemned along with the world.
1Co 11:33 Therefore, my brethren and sistren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.
1Co 11:34 If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that when you come together, it will not be for judgment. And about the other things you wrote, I will give directions when I come.

1 Corinthians Chapter 12

1Co 12:1 About spiritual gifts, brethren and sistren, I do not want you to be uninformed.
1Co 12:2 You know that when you were pagans, you were led astray to voiceless idols, in whatever ways you were led by them.
1Co 12:3 Therefore, I want you to know that no one who speaks by the Ruach of Yehowah can say, “Yeshua is accursed.” No one can say, “Yeshua is Lord,” except by Ruach ha’Kodesh (Deut. 21:22-23; Gal. 3:13-14).
1Co 12:4 Now there are different gifts but the same Ruach.
1Co 12:5 And there are different ministries but the same Lord.
1Co 12:6 And there are different kinds of work, but it is Yehowah who makes them possible in everyone.
1Co 12:7 Now to each one is given the outward display of the Ruach for the benefit of all.
1Co 12:8 For to one is given by the Ruach the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge by the same Ruach.
1Co 12:9 To another is given faith by the same Ruach, and to another gifts of healing by the same Ruach.
1Co 12:10 To another is given deeds of power, and to another prophecy. To another is given the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another speaking multilingually, and to another the interpretation of languages.
1Co 12:11 But the one and the same Ruach works in all of these, giving the gifts to each one individually, as he chooses.
1Co 12:12 For as the body is one and has many members and all are members of the same body, so it is with Messiah.
1Co 12:13 For by one Ruach we were all immersed into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and all were made to drink of one Ruach.
1Co 12:14 For the body is not a single member but many.
1Co 12:15 If the foot says, “Since I am not the hand, I am not part of the body,” it is not any less a part of the body.
1Co 12:16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not part of the body,” it is not any less a part of the body.
1Co 12:17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?
1Co 12:18 But Yehowah arranged each part of the body as he designed it.
1Co 12:19 And if they were all the same member, where would the body be?
1Co 12:20 So now they are many members but only one body.
1Co 12:21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you.” Nor does the head say to the feet, “I have no need of you.”

1Co 12:22 But the members of the body that appear to be weaker are essential.
1Co 12:23 And the parts of the body that we think are less honorable, we give them greater honor, and our unpresentable members have more dignity.
1Co 12:24 Now our presentable members have no need to be treated with dignity, for they already have dignity. But Yehowah has joined all the members together, and he gave more honor to those that lacked it.
1Co 12:25 He did this, so there may be no division within the body, but that the members should care for one another with the same affection.
1Co 12:26 And when one member suffers, all the members suffer together. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice together.
1Co 12:27 Now you are the body of Messiah and individually members of it.
1Co 12:28 And Yehowah has appointed in the congregation first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then those who do powerful deeds, then gifts of healing, those who provide helps, those who do the work of administration, and those who speak multilingually.
1Co 12:29 Are all of them apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all do powerful deeds?
1Co 12:30 Do all of them have gifts of healing? Do all of them speak multilingually? Do all of them interpret languages?
1Co 12:31 Zealously seek the greater gifts. And I will show you a more excellent Way.

1 Corinthians Chapter 13

1Co 13:1 Suppose that I speak the languages of humans and of angels. But if I do not have unconditional selfless love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.
1Co 13:2 Suppose that I have the gift of prophecy and understand all hidden truths and knowledge, and that I have all faith so as to remove mountains. But if I do not have unconditional selfless love, I am nothing.
1Co 13:3 And suppose that I give all I own to feed the poor, and that I give my body to be burned. But if I do not have unconditional selfless love, I gain nothing.
1Co 13:4 Unconditional selfless love is patient and kind. Unconditional selfless love does not envy. Unconditional selfless love does not boast. It is not arrogant or rude.
1Co 13:5 It is not self-serving. It is not easily angered, nor does it keep a count of wrongs.
1Co 13:6 It does not rejoice in unrighteousness. Instead, it rejoices in the truth.
1Co 13:7 Unconditional selfless love bears all things, believes all things, has confidence concerning all things, and endures all things.
1Co 13:8 Unconditional selfless love never ends. If there are prophecies, they will pass away. If there are languages, they will cease. If there is knowledge, it will pass away.
1Co 13:9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
1Co 13:10 But when the Perfect comes, that which is incomplete will pass away.
1Co 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became an adult, I put away childish things.
1Co 13:12 For now we see indistinctly in a (bronze) mirror but then face to face. Now I know incompletely, but then I will know fully, just as I have been fully known.
1Co 13:13 But now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is unconditional selfless love.

1 Corinthians Chapter 14

1Co 14:1 Pursue unconditional selfless love and be zealous for spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy.
1Co 14:2 For the one who speaks multilingually does not speak to people but to Yehowah. For no one understands him, because he speaks hidden things in the Ruach.
1Co 14:3 But the one who prophesies speaks to people to build them up, to encourage them, and to comfort them.
1Co 14:4 The one who speaks multilingually builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the congregation.
1Co 14:5 Now I wish that you all spoke multilingually. But even more than that, I wish that you would prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks multilingually, unless someone interprets, so that the congregation may be built up (Acts 11:26).
1Co 14:6 But now, brethren and sistren, if I come to you speaking multilingually, how will I benefit you? I cannot, unless I speak to you with revelation, or knowledge, or prophecy, or teaching.
1Co 14:7 If lifeless instruments are producing sounds, like the flute or the harp, and they do not produce different tones, how will anyone know what tune the flute or harp is playing?
1Co 14:8 For if the trumpet is played with an uncertain sound, how will anyone know when it is time to prepare for battle?
1Co 14:9 So it is with you. If you utter speech that is unintelligible, how will anyone understand what you have said? You will be speaking, and no one will understand you.
1Co 14:10 There are doubtless many different languages in the world (7,170 by 2026 AD), and none is without meaning.
1Co 14:11 But if I do not know the meaning of a language, I will be a foreigner to the speaker, and the speaker will be a foreigner to me.
1Co 14:12 Likewise with you. Since you are eager for the manifestations of the Ruach, be zealous to abound in building up the congregation.
1Co 14:13 So the one who speaks multilingually should pray that he may interpret.
1Co 14:14 For if I pray multilingually, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.
1Co 14:15 What am I to do? I will pray with the Ruach, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with the Ruach, and I will also sing with my mind.
1Co 14:16 Otherwise, if you praise with the Ruach, how will the outsider say, “Amein,” when you are giving thanks to Yehowah, if he does not know what you are saying?

1Co 14:17 For you certainly give thanks well enough, but the other person is not built up.
1Co 14:18 I thank Yehowah that I speak multilingually more than all of you.
1Co 14:19 But in the congregation I would rather speak five words with my understanding, so that I might instruct others, than ten thousand words multilingually.
1Co 14:20 Brethren and sistren, do not be children in your thinking. Rather, in regard to evil, be like infants. But in your thinking be mature.
1Co 14:21 In the Tanakh it is written, “By the lips of foreigners, I will speak multilingually to this people. Even then they will not hear me,” declares Yehowah (Isa. 28:11-12).
1Co 14:22 Therefore, speaking multilingually is a sign, not to believers but to unbelievers. But prophesying is for a sign, not for unbelievers but for believers.
1Co 14:23 If, therefore, the whole congregation comes together and all speak multilingually, and outsiders and unbelievers come in, would they not say that you are insane?
1Co 14:24 But if you all were prophesying and an unbeliever or an outsider came in, he would be convicted by all he hears. He would be judged by all that is said.
1Co 14:25 The secrets of his heart would be revealed. As a result, he would fall on his face and worship Yehowah. He would declare that Yehowah is really among you.
1Co 14:26 What is next then, brethren and sistren? When you come together, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, an unlearned language, or an interpretation. Do everything so that you build up the congregation.
1Co 14:27 If anyone speaks multilingually, let there be two or at most three, and each one in turn. And someone should interpret what is said.
1Co 14:28 But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silent in the congregation. Let each one speak to himself alone and to Yehowah.
1Co 14:29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others listen with discernment to what is said.
1Co 14:30 But if an insight is given to one who is sitting in the service, let the one who had been speaking be silent.
1Co 14:31 For each of you can prophesy one by one, so that each one may learn, and all may be encouraged.
1Co 14:32 For the spirits of the prophets are under the control of the prophets.
1Co 14:33 For Yehowah is not of confusion but of peace. This is the rule in all congregations of the believers.
1Co 14:34 The women should not interrupt the congregations. For they are not permitted to interrupt. Instead, they should be in submission, as also the law says.

1Co 14:35 If there is anything they desire to learn, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is disgraceful for a woman to interrupt the congregation.
1Co 14:36 Did the Word of Yehowah come from you? Are you the only ones it has reached?
1Co 14:37 If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, he should acknowledge that the things I write to you are a command of the Lord.
1Co 14:38 But if anyone does not recognize this, let him not be recognized.
1Co 14:39 So then brethren and sistren, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid anyone from speaking multilingually.
1Co 14:40 But let all things be done properly and in order.

1 Corinthians Chapter 15

1Co 15:1 Now I remind you, brethren and sistren, of the good news I proclaimed to you, which you received and on which you stand.
1Co 15:2 It is by this good news that you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain.
1Co 15:3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: That Messiah died for our sins according to the Scriptures,
1Co 15:4 that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures.
1Co 15:5 And that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve.
1Co 15:6 Then he appeared to more than five hundred brethren and sistren at once. Most of them are still alive (c. 55 AD), but some have died.
1Co 15:7 Then he appeared to Jacob, then to all the apostles.
1Co 15:8 Last of all, he appeared to me, as if to a child born at the wrong time.
1Co 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles. I am unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the congregation of Yehowah (Acts 11:26).
1Co 15:10 But by the grace of Yehowah I am what I am, and his grace in me was not in vain. Instead, I worked harder than all of them. Yet it was not I, but the grace of Yehowah that is with me.
1Co 15:11 Therefore, whether it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.
1Co 15:12 Now if Messiah is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead?
1Co 15:13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Messiah has been raised.
1Co 15:14 And if Messiah has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain.
1Co 15:15 And we are found to be false witnesses of Yehowah, because we testified against Yehowah, saying he raised up Messiah when he did not, if it's true that the dead are not raised.
1Co 15:16 For if the dead are not raised, not even Messiah has been raised.
1Co 15:17 And if Messiah has not been raised, your faith is in vain, and you are still in your sins.
1Co 15:18 Then those who have died in Messiah have also perished.
1Co 15:19 If only in this life we have confidence for the future in Messiah, of all people we are most to be pitied.
1Co 15:20 But now, Messiah has been raised from the dead, the Firstfruit of those who died.
1Co 15:21 For since death came by a man, by a Man also came the resurrection of the dead.

1Co 15:22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Messiah will all be made alive.
1Co 15:23 But each in his own order: Messiah, the Firstfruit, and then those who belong to Messiah at his coming.
1Co 15:24 Then the end, when Messiah will hand over the kingdom to Yehowah the Father. This is when he will abolish all rule, all authority, and power.
1Co 15:25 For he must reign, until he has put all his enemies under his feet.
1Co 15:26 The last enemy to be destroyed is death.
1Co 15:27 For, “He has put everything under his feet.” But when it says, “He has put everything,” it is clear that this does not include Yehowah who put everything in subjection to himself (Psa. 8:4-6; Heb. 2:8).
1Co 15:28 When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subjected to the One who subjected everything to him. This will happen, so that Yehowah the Father may be all in all.
1Co 15:29 Or else, what will those do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they immersed for the hope of them (1 John 3:2; Acts 9:37)?
1Co 15:30 And why are we in danger every hour?
1Co 15:31 I affirm by my boasting in you, which I have in Messiah Yeshua our Lord, I die daily.
1Co 15:32 What do I gain, from a human point of view, if I fought with beasts at Ephesus, if the dead are not raised? “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”
1Co 15:33 Be not deceived: “Bad company corrupts good morals.”
1Co 15:34 Sober up! Live righteously! Do not keep sinning. For some of you have no knowledge of Yehowah. I say this to your shame.
1Co 15:35 But someone will ask, “How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body will they come?”
1Co 15:36 You are so ignorant! What you sow will not sprout life unless it dies.
1Co 15:37 And what you sow is not the body that will be but a bare seed. It may become wheat or something else.
1Co 15:38 But Yehowah will give it a body as he chooses, and to each seed its own body.
1Co 15:39 Not all flesh is the same. Instead, there is one flesh of humans, and another flesh for livestock, and another flesh for birds, and another for fish.
1Co 15:40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the glory of the heavenly body is one kind and the glory of the earthly is another.
1Co 15:41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars. For one star differs from another star in glory.
1Co 15:42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, and what is raised is imperishable (Eze. 37:12).
1Co 15:43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.

1Co 15:44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.
1Co 15:45 So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul” (Gen. 2:7). The last Adam is life-giving Ruach.
1Co 15:46 But the spiritual did not come first but the natural, and then the spiritual.
1Co 15:47 The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second Man is the Lord from Heaven.
1Co 15:48 Just as the one made from dust is, so also are those who are made of the dust. And as the Man of Heaven is, so also are those who are of Heaven.
1Co 15:49 Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the heavenly Man.
1Co 15:50 Now this I say, brethren and sistren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of Yehowah. Neither does what is perishable inherit what is imperishable.
1Co 15:51 Look! I tell you a secret truth: We will not all die, but we will all be changed.
1Co 15:52 We will be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet (Mat. 24:31; 1 Thes. 4:16; Rev. 11:15; 20:4-5). For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.
1Co 15:53 For this perishable body must put on what is imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality.
1Co 15:54 But when this perishable body has put on what is imperishable, and when this mortal body has put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, “Death is swallowed up in victory!”
1Co 15:55 “Grave, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?”
1Co 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law (Hos. 13:14).
1Co 15:57 But thanks to Yehowah, who gives us the victory through our Lord Yeshua Messiah!
1Co 15:58 Therefore, my dear brethren and sistren, be steadfast and immovable. Always abound in the work of the Lord, because you know that your work in the Lord is not in vain.

1 Corinthians Chapter 16

1Co 16:1 Now concerning the collection for the believers, as I directed the congregations of Galatia, so you are to do.
1Co 16:2 On the first of Shavuot (Omer day 1), each of you is to put something aside and store it up as you are able. Do this so that there will be no collections when I come.
1Co 16:3 And when I arrive, whomever you approve, I will send with letters to deliver your offering to Jerusalem.
1Co 16:4 And if it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me.
1Co 16:5 But I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia. For I will pass through Macedonia.
1Co 16:6 Perhaps, I may stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you may help me on my journey, wherever I go.
1Co 16:7 For I do not wish to see you now for a short time. For I hope to spend some time with you, if Yehowah permits.
1Co 16:8 But I will stay in Ephesus until Shavuot,
1Co 16:9 for a wide opportune door has opened for me, and there are many adversaries.
1Co 16:10 Now when Timothy comes, see that he is with you unafraid, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am doing.
1Co 16:11 Let no one despise him. Help him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me. For I am expecting him to come along with the brothers.
1Co 16:12 Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly encouraged him to visit you with the brothers. But it was not at all his will that he come now. However, he will come when the time is right.
1Co 16:13 Be watchful, stand fast in the faith, act like men, be strong.
1Co 16:14 Let all that you do be done in unconditional selfless love.
1Co 16:15 You know the household of Stephanas, that they were the first converts in Achaia, and that they have set themselves to the service of the believers. Now I urge you, brethren and sistren, 1Co 16:16 to be in submission to such people, to everyone who helps in the work, and labors with us.
1Co 16:17 And I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus. They have made up for your absence.
1Co 16:18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. So then recognize people like this.
1Co 16:19 The congregations of Asia send greetings to you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you in the Lord, with the congregation that is in their home (Acts 11:26).

1Co 16:20 All the brethren and sistren greet you. Greet one another with a set-apart kiss.
1Co 16:21 I, Paul, write this with my own hand.
1Co 16:22 If any one does not affectionately love Lord Yeshua Messiah, may he be accursed at the coming Judgment!
1Co 16:23 The grace of Lord Yeshua Messiah be with you.
1Co 16:24 My unconditional selfless love be with you all in Messiah Yeshua. Amein.

Book of 2nd Corinthians

2 Corinthians Chapter 1

2Co 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Yeshua Messiah by the will of Yehowah, and Brother Timothy, to the congregation of Yehowah that is in Corinth, and to all the believers in the entire region of Achaia.
2Co 1:2 May grace be to you and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
2Co 1:3 May Yehowah the Father of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be praised. Yehowah is the Father of mercies and of all comfort.
2Co 1:4 Yehowah comforts us in all our affliction, so that we can comfort those who are in any affliction. We comfort others with the same comfort that Yehowah used to comfort us.
2Co 1:5 For just as the sufferings of Messiah abound for our sake, so also our comfort abounds through Messiah.
2Co 1:6 But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. And if we are comforted, it is for your comfort. Your comfort is working effectively when you patiently share in the same sufferings that we also suffer.
2Co 1:7 And our confidence about you is certain. We know that as you also share the sufferings, you also share the comfort.
2Co 1:8 For we do not want you to be ignorant, brethren and sistren, about the troubles we had in Asia. We were completely crushed beyond what we could bear, so much that we did not even hope to live any longer.
2Co 1:9 Indeed, we had the sentence of death on us. But that was to make us not put our trust in ourselves, but instead in Yehowah, who raises the dead.
2Co 1:10 He rescued us from such a deadly peril, and he will rescue us again. We have set our confidence in him, that he will deliver us yet again.
2Co 1:11 He will do this as you also help us by your prayer. Then many will give thanks on our behalf for the gracious favor given to us through the prayers of many.
2Co 1:12 We are proud of this: the testimony of our conscience. For it is in pure motives and divine sincerity that we have conducted ourselves in the world. We have done this all the more with you, not in earthly wisdom but by the grace of Yehowah.
2Co 1:13 We do not write to you anything you cannot read or understand. I hope that you will understand even to the end, 2Co 1:14 just as you have understood us in part, we will be your reason for boasting on the Day of our Lord Yeshua, just as you will be our reason to boast.

2Co 1:15 Because I was confident about this, I wanted to come to you first, so that you might receive the benefit of two visits.
2Co 1:16 I was planning to visit you on my way to Macedonia. Then I wanted to visit you again on my trip from Macedonia, and then for you to send me on my way to Judea.
2Co 1:17 When I was thinking this way, was I hesitating? Do I plan things according to human standards, so that I say, “Yes, yes” and, “No, no” at the same time?
2Co 1:18 But just as Yehowah is faithful, we do not say both “Yes” and “No.”
2Co 1:19 For the Son of Yehowah, Yeshua Messiah, whom Silas, Timothy, and I proclaimed among you, is not “Yes” and “No.” Instead, he is always “Yes.”
2Co 1:20 For all the promises of Yehowah are “Yes” in him. So also through him we say, “Amein!” to the glory of Yehowah.
2Co 1:21 Now it is Yehowah who confirms us with you in Messiah, and he commissioned us.
2Co 1:22 He set his seal on us and gave us the Ruach in our hearts as a guarantee of what he would later give us.
2Co 1:23 Instead, I call Yehowah to bear witness for me, that the reason I did not come to Corinth was so that I might spare you.
2Co 1:24 This is not because we are trying to control what your faith should be. Instead, we are working with you for your joy, as you stand in your faith.

2 Corinthians Chapter 2

2Co 2:1 So I decided for my own part that I would not again come to you in painful circumstances.
2Co 2:2 If I caused you pain, who could cheer me up except the one who was hurt by me?
2Co 2:3 I wrote as I did in order that when I came to you, I might not be hurt by those who should have made me rejoice. I have confidence about all of you that my joy is the same joy you all have.
2Co 2:4 For I wrote to you from great affliction, with anguish of heart, and with many tears. I did not want to cause you pain. Instead, I wanted you to know the depth of the unconditional selfless love that I have for you.
2Co 2:5 If anyone has caused pain, he has not caused it only to me, but in some measure, not to put it too harshly, to all of you.
2Co 2:6 This punishment of that person by the majority is enough.
2Co 2:7 So now rather than punishment, you should forgive and comfort him. Do this so that he is not overwhelmed by too much sorrow.
2Co 2:8 So I encourage you to publicly affirm your unconditional selfless love for him.
2Co 2:9 This was the reason I wrote, so that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything.
2Co 2:10 If you forgive anyone, I forgive that person as well. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, it is forgiven for your sake in the presence of Messiah.
2Co 2:11 This is so that Satan will not trick us. For we are not ignorant of his plans.
2Co 2:12 A door was opened to me by Yehowah, when I came to the city of Troas to preach there the good news of Messiah.
2Co 2:13 Even so, I had no peace of mind, because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I left them and returned to Macedonia.
2Co 2:14 But may thanks be to Yehowah, who in Messiah always leads us in triumph! Through us he spreads the sweet aroma of the knowledge of him everywhere.
2Co 2:15 For we are to Yehowah the sweet aroma of Messiah, both among those who are saved and among those who are perishing.
2Co 2:16 To the people who are perishing, it is an aroma from death to death. To the ones being saved, it is an aroma from life to life. Who is worthy of these things?

2Co 2:17 For we are not like so many people peddling the Word of Yehowah for profit. Instead, with purity of motives, we speak in Messiah, as we are sent from Yehowah, in the sight of Yehowah.

2 Corinthians Chapter 3

2Co 3:1 Are we beginning to praise ourselves again? We do not need letters of recommendation to you or from you, like some people, do we?
2Co 3:2 You yourselves are our letter of recommendation, written on our hearts, known and read by all people.
2Co 3:3 And you show that you are a letter from Messiah, delivered by us. It was written not with ink but by the Ruach of living Yehowah. It was not written on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.
2Co 3:4 And this is the confidence that we have in Yehowah through Messiah.
2Co 3:5 We are not competent in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us. Instead, our competence is from Yehowah.
2Co 3:6 It is Yehowah who made us able to be servants of a New Covenant. This is a covenant not of the letter but of the Ruach. For the letter kills, but the Ruach gives life.
2Co 3:7 Now the service that produced death, engraved in letters on stones, came in such glory that the people of Israel could not look directly at Moses' face. This is because of the glory of his face, a glory that was fading.
2Co 3:8 How much more glorious will be the service that the Ruach does?
2Co 3:9 For if the service of condemnation had glory, how much more does the service of righteousness abound in glory!
2Co 3:10 For indeed, that which was once made glorious is no longer glorious in this respect, because of the glory that exceeds it.
2Co 3:11 For if that which was passing away had glory, how much more will what is permanent have glory!
2Co 3:12 Since we have such confidence, we are quite bold.
2Co 3:13 We are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face, so that the children of Israel were not able to look directly at the ending of a glory that was passing away.
2Co 3:14 But their minds were closed. Even until this day, the same veil remains on the reading of the First Covenant. It is not opened up to the Jews, because only in Messiah is the veil removed.
2Co 3:15 But even today, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their hearts.
2Co 3:16 But when a person turns to the Lord, the veil is lifted away.
2Co 3:17 Now the Lord is the Ruach. Where the Ruach of the Lord is, there is freedom.
2Co 3:18 Now all of us, with unveiled faces, see as in a (bronze) mirror the glory of Yehowah. We are being transformed into the same glorious likeness from one degree of glory into another, just as from the Ruach of Yehowah.

2 Corinthians Chapter 4

2Co 4:1 Therefore, because we have this ministry, and just as we have received mercy, we do not become discouraged.
2Co 4:2 Instead, we have renounced the ways that are shameful and hidden. We do not live by craftiness, and we do not mishandle the Word of Yehowah. By presenting the truth, we recommend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of Yehowah.
2Co 4:3 But if our good news is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing.
2Co 4:4 In their case, the deity of this world has blinded their unbelieving minds. As a result, they are not able to see the light of the good news of the glory of Messiah, who is the image of Yehowah shining on them.
2Co 4:5 For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Messiah Yeshua as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for the sake of Yeshua.
2Co 4:6 For Yehowah is the One who declared, "Light will shine out of darkness." He has shone in our hearts, to give the Light of the knowledge of the glory of Yehowah in the presence of Yeshua Messiah.
2Co 4:7 But we have this treasure in jars of clay, so that it is clear that the exceedingly great power belongs to Yehowah and not to us.
2Co 4:8 We are afflicted in every way but not overwhelmed. We are perplexed but not filled with despair.
2Co 4:9 We are persecuted but not forsaken. We are struck down but not destroyed.
2Co 4:10 We always carry in our body the death of Lord Yeshua, so that the life of Yeshua also may be shown in our bodies.
2Co 4:11 We who are alive are always carrying around in our body the death of Yeshua, so that the life of Yeshua may be shown in our human bodies.
2Co 4:12 So death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.
2Co 4:13 But we have the same spirit of faith according to that which was written: "I believed, and so I spoke." We also believe, and so we also speak.
2Co 4:14 We know that the One who raised Lord Yeshua will also raise us through Yeshua. We know that he will bring us with you into his presence.
2Co 4:15 Everything is for your sake, so that as grace is spread to many people, thanksgiving may increase to the glory of Yehowah.
2Co 4:16 So we do not become discouraged. Even though outwardly we are wasting away, inwardly we are being renewed day by day.
2Co 4:17 For this momentary, light affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory that exceeds all measurement.

2Co 4:18 For we are not watching for things that are seen but for things that are unseen. The things which we can see are temporary, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

2 Corinthians Chapter 5

2Co 5:1 We know that if the earthly dwelling that we live in is destroyed, we have a building from Yehowah. It is a house not made by human hands, but an eternal house, in Heaven.
2Co 5:2 For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling.
2Co 5:3 We long for this, because by putting it on, we will not be found to be naked.
2Co 5:4 For indeed, while we are in this tent, we groan, being burdened. We do not want to be unclothed. Instead, we want to be clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.
2Co 5:5 The One who prepared us for this exact thing is Yehowah, who gave us the Ruach as a pledge of what is to come.
2Co 5:6 Therefore, always be confident. Be aware that while we are at home in the body, we are away from the Lord.
2Co 5:7 For we walk by faith, not by sight.
2Co 5:8 So we have confidence. We would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord.
2Co 5:9 So we make it our goal, whether we are at home or away, to please him.
2Co 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Messiah, so that each one may receive what is due for the things done in the body, whether for good or for bad.
2Co 5:11 Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade people. What we are is clearly seen by Yehowah. I hope that it is also clear to your conscience.
2Co 5:12 We are not trying to persuade you again to view us as sincere. Instead, we are giving you a reason to be proud of us, so you may have an answer for those who boast about appearances but not about what is in the heart.
2Co 5:13 For if we are out of our minds, it is for Yehowah. And if we are in our right minds, it is for your sake.
2Co 5:14 For the unconditional selfless love of Messiah compels us, because we are certain of this: That one Person died for all, and that therefore all have died.
2Co 5:15 And Messiah died for all, so that those who live should live no longer for themselves. Instead, they should live for him who died for them and was raised.
2Co 5:16 For this reason, from now on we do not judge anyone according to human standards, even though we once regarded Messiah in this way. But now we do not judge anyone in this way any longer.
2Co 5:17 Therefore, if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. See, they have become new.

2Co 5:18 All these things are from Yehowah. He reconciled us to himself through Yeshua Messiah, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.
2Co 5:19 That is, in Messiah, Yehowah is reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them. He is entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.
2Co 5:20 So we are appointed as the representatives of Messiah, as though Yehowah were making his appeal through us. We plead with you, for the sake of Messiah: “Be reconciled to Yehowah!”
2Co 5:21 He made Messiah become the sacrifice for our sin. He is the One who never sinned. He did this, so that we might become the righteousness of Yehowah in him.

2 Corinthians Chapter 6

2Co 6:1 And so, working together, we beg you not to receive the grace of Yehowah to no effect.
2Co 6:2 For he says, “In a favorable time I paid attention to you, and in the Day of Salvation I helped you.” Look, now is the favorable time. Look, now is the Day of Salvation.
2Co 6:3 We do not place a stumbling block in front of anyone, for we do not wish our ministry to be brought into disrepute.
2Co 6:4 Instead, we prove ourselves by all our actions, that we are the servants of Yehowah. We are his servants in much endurance, affliction, distress, hardship,
2Co 6:5 beatings, imprisonments, riots, in hard work, in sleepless nights, in hunger,
2Co 6:6 in purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, in Ruach ha’Kodesh, and in genuine love.
2Co 6:7 We are his servants in the Word of Truth, in the power of Yehowah. We have the armor of righteousness for the right hand and for the left.
2Co 6:8 We work in honor and dishonor, in slander and praise. We are accused of being deceitful, and yet we are truthful.
2Co 6:9 We work as if we were unknown, and we are still well known. We work as dying and see, we are still living. We work as being punished for our actions but not as condemned to death.
2Co 6:10 We work as sorrowful, but we are always rejoicing! We work as poor, but we are making many rich. We work as having nothing and yet as possessing all things.
2Co 6:11 We have spoken the whole truth to you, Corinthians, and our heart is wide open.
2Co 6:12 Your hearts are not restrained by us, but you are restrained by your own feelings.
2Co 6:13 Now in fair exchange, I speak as to children, open your hearts wide.
2Co 6:14 Do not be tied together with unbelievers. For what association does righteousness have with lawlessness? And what fellowship does light have with darkness?
2Co 6:15 What agreement can Messiah have with Satan (Belial)? Or what share does a believer have together with an unbeliever?
2Co 6:16 And what agreement is there between the temple of Yehowah and idols? For we are the temple of living Yehowah, just as Yehowah promised: “I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their Divine One, and they will be my people.”

2Co 6:17 Therefore, “Come out from among them, and be set apart,” commands Yehowah (Rev. 18:4; Jer. 51:45). “Touch no impure thing (moral or religious), and I will welcome you.
2Co 6:18 I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters,” declares our Most Powerful Lord.

2 Corinthians Chapter 7

2Co 7:1 Loved ones, since we have these promises, let us cleanse ourselves of everything that makes us unclean in our body and spirit. Let us pursue consecration in the fear of Yehowah.
2Co 7:2 Make room for us! We have not wronged anyone. We have not harmed anyone or taken advantage of anyone.
2Co 7:3 It is not to condemn you that I say this. For I have already said that you are in our hearts, for us to die together and to live together.
2Co 7:4 I have great confidence in you, and I am proud of you. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy even in all of our afflictions!
2Co 7:5 When we came to Macedonia, our bodies had no rest. Instead, we were troubled in every way by conflicts on the outside and fears on the inside.
2Co 7:6 But Yehowah, who comforts the discouraged, comforted us by the arrival of Titus.
2Co 7:7 It was not only by his arrival that Yehowah comforted us. It was also by the comfort that Titus had received from you. He told us of your great affection, your sorrow, and your deep concern for me. So I rejoiced even more.
2Co 7:8 Even though my letter made you sad, I do not regret it. But I did regret it, when I saw that my letter made you sad. But you were sad just for a little while.
2Co 7:9 Now I am happy, not because you were distressed, but because your sadness brought you to repentance. You experienced a divine sorrow, so you suffered no loss because of us.
2Co 7:10 For divine sorrow brings about repentance that accomplishes salvation without regret. Worldly sorrow, however, brings about death.
2Co 7:11 See what great determination this divine sorrow produced in you. How great was the determination in you to prove you were innocent. How great was your indignation, your fear, your longing, your zeal, and your desire to see that justice should be done! In everything you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter.
2Co 7:12 Although I wrote to you, I did not write for the sake of the wrongdoer, nor for the one who suffered the wrong. I wrote so that our earnestness for you should be made known to you in the sight of Yehowah.
2Co 7:13 It is by this that we are encouraged. In addition to our own comfort, we also rejoiced even more because of Titus' joy, because his spirit was refreshed by all of you.
2Co 7:14 For if I boasted to him about you, I was not embarrassed. On the contrary, just as everything we said to you was true, our boasting about you to Titus proved to be true.

2Co 7:15 His affection for you is even greater, as he remembers the obedience of all of you, how you welcomed him with fear and trembling.
2Co 7:16 I rejoice, because I have complete confidence in you!

2 Corinthians Chapter 8

2Co 8:1 We want you to know, brethren and sistren, about the grace of Yehowah that has been given to the congregations of Macedonia (Acts 11:26).
2Co 8:2 During a great test of affliction, the abundance of their joy and the extremity of their poverty have produced great riches of generosity.
2Co 8:3 For I bear witness that they voluntarily gave as much as they were able, and even beyond what they were able.
2Co 8:4 With much begging, they pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to the believers.
2Co 8:5 This did not happen as we had expected. Instead, they first gave themselves to the Lord. Then they gave themselves to us by the will of Yehowah.
2Co 8:6 So we urged Titus, who had already begun this task, to bring to completion this act of generosity on your part.
2Co 8:7 But you abound in everything, in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your unconditional selfless love for us. So also make sure that you abound in this generous deed.
2Co 8:8 I say this not as a command. Instead, I say this in order to test the sincerity of your unconditional selfless love by comparing it to the eagerness of other people.
2Co 8:9 For you know the grace of our Lord Yeshua Messiah. Even though he was rich, for your sakes he became poor, so that through his poverty you might become rich.
2Co 8:10 In this matter, I will give you advice that will help you. One year ago, you not only started to do something, but you desired to do it.
2Co 8:11 Now finish it. Just as there was an eagerness and desire to do it then, may you also bring it to completion, as much as you can.
2Co 8:12 For if you are eager to do this deed, it is a good and acceptable thing. It must be based on what a person has, not on what he does not have.
2Co 8:13 For this task is not in order that others may be relieved, and you may be burdened.
2Co 8:14 Instead, there should be fairness. Your abundance at the present time will supply what they need. This is also so that their abundance may supply your need, and so that there may be fairness.
2Co 8:15 It is as it is written: “The one with much did not have anything left over, and the one who had little did not have any lack” (Exo. 16:16-18).
2Co 8:16 But thanks be to Yehowah, who put into Titus’ heart the same earnest care that I have for you.
2Co 8:17 For he not only accepted our appeal, but he was also quite earnest about it. He came to you of his own free will.

2Co 8:18 We have sent with him the brother who is praised among all of the congregations for his work in proclaiming the good news.
2Co 8:19 Not only this, but he also was selected by the congregations to travel with us in our carrying out this act of generosity. This is for the glory of the Lord himself and for your eagerness to help.
2Co 8:20 We are avoiding the possibility that anyone should complain about us concerning this generosity that we are carrying out.
2Co 8:21 We take care to do what is honorable, not only before Yehowah but also before people.
2Co 8:22 We are also sending another brother with them. We have often tested him, and we have found him enthusiastic for many tasks. He is now even more diligent because of the great confidence he has in you.
2Co 8:23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are sent by the congregations. They are the glory of Messiah.
2Co 8:24 So show them your unconditional selfless love, and show to the congregations the reason for our boasting about you.

2 Corinthians Chapter 9

2Co 9:1 Concerning the ministry for the believers, it is not necessary for me to write to you.
2Co 9:2 I know about your desire, which I boasted about to the people of Macedonia. I told them that Achaia has been getting ready since last year. Your eagerness has motivated most of them to action.
2Co 9:3 Now I have sent the brothers, so that our boasting about you may not be futile, and so that you would be ready, as I said you would be.
2Co 9:4 Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we would be ashamed, I say nothing about you, for being so confident in you.
2Co 9:5 So I thought it was necessary to urge the brothers to come to you and to make arrangements in advance for the gift you have promised. This is so that it might be ready as a blessing, and not as something extorted.
2Co 9:6 The point is this: The one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows for the purpose of a blessing will also reap a blessing.
2Co 9:7 Let each one give as he has planned in his heart. Let him not give out of sorrow or compulsion. For Yehowah unconditionally selflessly loves a cheerful giver.
2Co 9:8 And Yehowah is able to make every blessing multiply for you, so that always, in all things, you may have all you need. This will be so that you may multiply every good deed.
2Co 9:9 As it is written: “He has distributed his riches and given them to the poor. His righteousness lasts forever.”
2Co 9:10 He who supplies seed to the farmer who sows and bread for food, will also supply and multiply your seed for sowing. He will increase the harvest of your righteousness.
2Co 9:11 You will be enriched in every way, so you can be generous. This will bring about thanksgiving to Yehowah through us.
2Co 9:12 For carrying out this service not only meets the needs of the believers, it also multiplies into many acts of thanksgiving to Yehowah.
2Co 9:13 Because of your being tested and proved by this service, you will also glorify Yehowah by obedience to your confession of the good news of Messiah. You will also glorify Yehowah by the generosity of your gift to them and to everyone.
2Co 9:14 They long for you, and they are praying for you. They do this because of the great grace of Yehowah that is on you.
2Co 9:15 May thanks be to Yehowah for his inexpressible gift!

2 Corinthians Chapter 10

2Co 10:1 I, Paul myself, appeal to you by the humility and gentleness of Messiah. I am meek when I am in your presence, but I am bold toward you when I am away.
2Co 10:2 I beg of you that, when I am present with you, I will not need to be bold with self-confidence. But I think I will need to be bold when I oppose those who assume that we are living according to the flesh.
2Co 10:3 For even though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh.
2Co 10:4 For the weapons we fight with are not fleshly. Instead, they have divine power through Yehowah to destroy strongholds.
2Co 10:5 They bring to nothing misleading arguments. We also destroy every high thing that rises up against the knowledge of Yehowah. We take every thought captive into obedience to Messiah.
2Co 10:6 And we are getting ready to punish every act of disobedience, as soon as your obedience is complete.
2Co 10:7 Look at what is clearly in front of you. If anyone is convinced that he belongs to Messiah, let him remind himself that just as he belongs to Messiah, so also we belong to Messiah.
2Co 10:8 For even if I boast a little too much about our authority, which the Lord gave for us to build you up and not to destroy you, I will not be ashamed.
2Co 10:9 I do not want it to appear that I am terrifying you by my letters.
2Co 10:10 For some people say, “His letters are serious and powerful, but physically he is weak. His words are not worth listening to.”
2Co 10:11 Let such people be aware that what we are in the words of our letters when we are absent is what we will be in our actions when we are there.
2Co 10:12 We do not go so far as to group ourselves or compare ourselves with those who praise themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with each other, they have no insight.
2Co 10:13 We, however, will not boast beyond limits. Instead, we will do so only within the limits of what Yehowah has assigned to us, limits that reach as far as you.
2Co 10:14 For we did not overextend ourselves when we reached you. We were the first to reach as far as you with the good news of Messiah.
2Co 10:15 We have not boasted beyond limits about the labors of others. Instead, we hope as your faith grows that our own area of work will be greatly expanded, and still within its proper limits.

2Co 10:16 We hope for this, so that we may preach the good news even in regions beyond you. We will not boast about the work being done in another's area.
2Co 10:17 "But let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."
2Co 10:18 For it is not the one who recommends himself who is approved. Instead, it is the one whom Yehowah recommends.

2 Corinthians Chapter 11

2Co 11:1 I wish that you could put up with me in some foolishness. But you are indeed putting up with me!
2Co 11:2 For I am jealous about you. I have a divine jealousy for you, since I promised you in marriage to one husband. I promised to present you as a pure virgin to Messiah.
2Co 11:3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your thoughts might be led astray, away from a sincere and pure devotion to Messiah.
2Co 11:4 For suppose that someone comes and proclaims another Yeshua than the One we preached. Or suppose that you receive a different spirit than Whom you received. Or suppose that you receive a different good news than the one you received. You put up with these things well enough!
2Co 11:5 For I think that I am not in the least inferior to those so-called super-apostles.
2Co 11:6 But even if I am untrained in giving speeches, I am not untrained in knowledge. In every way and in all things, we have made this known to you.
2Co 11:7 Did I sin by humbling myself, so you might be exalted? For I freely preached the good news of Yehowah to you.
2Co 11:8 I robbed other congregations by accepting support from them, so that I could serve you.
2Co 11:9 When I was with you and I was in need, I did not burden anyone. For my needs were met by the brothers who came from Macedonia. In everything I have kept myself from being a burden to you, and I will continue to do that.
2Co 11:10 As the truth of Messiah is in me, this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the parts of Achaia.
2Co 11:11 Why? Because I do not unconditionally selflessly love you? Yehowah knows.
2Co 11:12 And what I do I will keep doing, in order that I may take away the claim for criticizing me and the claim for which they want to boast, that they are found to be doing the same work that we are doing.
2Co 11:13 For such people are false apostles and deceitful workers. They disguise themselves as the apostles of Messiah.
2Co 11:14 And this is no surprise, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.
2Co 11:15 It is no great surprise if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their fate will be what their deeds deserve.
2Co 11:16 I say again: Let no one think I am a fool. But if you do, receive me as a fool, so I may boast a little.

2Co 11:17 What I am saying about this boastful confidence is not condoned by the Lord, but I am speaking as a fool.
2Co 11:18 Since many people boast according to the flesh, I will also boast.
2Co 11:19 For you gladly put up with fools. You are wise yourselves!
2Co 11:20 For you put up with someone if he enslaves you, if he consumes you, if he takes advantage of you, if he considers himself better than you, or if he slaps you in the face.
2Co 11:21 I will say to our shame that we were too weak to do that. Yet if anyone boasts, I am speaking like a fool, I too will boast.
2Co 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelis? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.
2Co 11:23 Are they the servants of Messiah? I speak as though I were out of my mind. I am more. I have been in even more hard work, in far more prisons, in beatings beyond measure, in facing many dangers of death.
2Co 11:24 From Jews, I received five times the “forty lashes minus one.”
2Co 11:25 Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. I have spent overnight in the open sea.
2Co 11:26 I have been on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, in danger from robbers, in danger from my own people, in danger from ethnicities, in danger in the city, in danger in the wilderness, in danger at sea, in danger from false brethren and sistren.
2Co 11:27 I have been at hard work and in hardship, in many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often in fasting, in cold and nakedness.
2Co 11:28 Apart from everything else, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the congregations.
2Co 11:29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who has been caused to stumble, and I do not burn?
2Co 11:30 If I must boast, I will boast about what shows my weakness.
2Co 11:31 Yehowah, the Father of Lord Yeshua Messiah, the One who is praised forever, knows that I am not lying!
2Co 11:32 At Damascus, the governor under King Aretas IV was guarding the city of Damascus to arrest me.
2Co 11:33 But I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall, and I escaped from his hands.

2 Corinthians Chapter 12

2Co 12:1 I must boast, but nothing is gained by it. But I will go on to visions and revelations from Yehowah.
2Co 12:2 I knew a man in Messiah prior to fourteen years ago who, whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know, Yehowah knows, was caught up into the third Heaven.
2Co 12:3 And I know that this man, whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know, Yehowah knows,
2Co 12:4 was caught up into paradise and heard ineffable living words, which a human is not allowed to speak.
2Co 12:5 On behalf of such a person I will boast. But on behalf of myself I will not boast, except about my weaknesses.
2Co 12:6 If I wanted to boast, I would not be foolish, for I would be speaking the truth. But I will keep from boasting, so that no one will think more of me than what is seen in me or heard from me.
2Co 12:7 I will also keep from boasting because of the extraordinary kind of those revelations. Therefore, so I would not be puffed up with pride, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger from Satan to harass me, so I would not become too proud.
2Co 12:8 Three times I begged the Lord about this, for him to take it away from me.
2Co 12:9 And he said to me, "My grace is enough for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." So I would much rather boast about my weakness, so that the power of Messiah might reside on me.
2Co 12:10 Therefore, I am content for the sake of Messiah in weaknesses, in insults, in troubles, in persecutions and distressing situations. For whenever I am weak, then I am strong.
2Co 12:11 I have become a fool in boasting! You forced me to this, for I should have been praised by you. For I was not at all inferior to the so-called super-apostles, even though I am nothing.
2Co 12:12 The true signs of an apostle were performed among you with complete patience, signs, wonders, and mighty deeds.
2Co 12:13 For how were you less important than the rest of the congregations, except that I was not a burden to you? Forgive me for this wrong!
2Co 12:14 Look! I am ready to come to you a third time. I will not be a burden to you, for I do not want what is yours. I want you. For children should not save up for the parents. Instead, the parents should save up for the children.

2Co 12:15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I unconditionally selflessly love you more, am I to be unconditionally selflessly loved less?
2Co 12:16 But as it is, I did not burden you. But since I am so crafty, I am the one who caught you by deceit.
2Co 12:17 Did I take advantage of you by anyone I sent to you?
2Co 12:18 I urged Titus to go to you, and I sent the other brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same Ruach? Did we not walk in the same steps?
2Co 12:19 Do you think all of this time we have been defending ourselves to you? In the sight of Yehowah, we have in Messiah been saying everything for your strengthening.
2Co 12:20 For I fear that when I come I may not find you as I wish. I fear that you might not find me as you wish. I fear that there may be arguments, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, gossip, slander, pride, and disorder.
2Co 12:21 I fear that when I come back, Yehowah might humble me before you. I fear that I might be grieved by many of those who have sinned before now, and who did not repent of the impurity, sexual immorality, and lustful indulgence that they practiced.

2 Corinthians Chapter 13

2Co 13:1 This is the third time that I am coming to you. “Every accusation must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses” (Deut. 19:15; 17:6).
2Co 13:2 I have already said to those who sinned before and to all the rest when I was there the second time, and I say it again: When I come again, I will not spare them.
2Co 13:3 I tell you this, because you are looking for evidence that Messiah is speaking through me. He is not weak toward you. Instead, he is powerful in you.
2Co 13:4 For he was crucified in weakness, but he is alive by the power of Yehowah. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him by the power of Yehowah among you.
2Co 13:5 Examine yourselves to see if you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not realize that Yeshua Messiah is in you? He is, unless you are not approved.
2Co 13:6 And I am confident that you will find that we are not unapproved.
2Co 13:7 Now we pray to Yehowah that you may not do any wrong. I do not pray that we may appear to have passed the test. Instead, I pray that you may do what is right, although we may seem to have failed the test.
2Co 13:8 For we are not able to do anything against the truth but only for the truth.
2Co 13:9 For we rejoice when we are weak, and you are strong. We also pray that you may be made complete.
2Co 13:10 I write these things while I am away from you, so that when I am with you, I do not have to deal harshly with you in the use of my authority, which Yehowah gave to me, so that I may build you up and not tear you down.
2Co 13:11 Finally, brethren and sistren, rejoice! Work for restoration, be encouraged, agree with one another, live in peace. Loving peaceful Yehowah will be with you.
2Co 13:12 Greet each other with a set-apart kiss.
2Co 13:13 All of the believers greet you.
2Co 13:14 May the grace of Lord Yeshua Messiah, the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah, and the fellowship of Ruach ha’Kodesh be with all of you. Amein.

Book of Galatians

Galatians Chapter 1

Gal 1:1 Paul, an apostle, not an apostle from humans nor through human agency, but through Yeshua Messiah and Yehowah the Father, who raised him from the dead,
Gal 1:2 and all the brothers with me, to the congregations of Galatia (Acts 11:26):
Gal 1:3 Grace to you and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah,
Gal 1:4 who gave himself for our sins, so that he may deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of Yehowah our Father,
Gal 1:5 to him be the glory forever and ever. Amein.
Gal 1:6 I am amazed that you are turning away so quickly from him who called you by Messiah's grace. I am amazed that you are turning to a different good news.
Gal 1:7 This is not to say that there is other good news, but there are some people who cause you trouble and want to corrupt the good news of Messiah.
Gal 1:8 But even if we or an angel from Heaven should proclaim to you good news other than the good message we proclaimed to you, let him be cursed.
Gal 1:9 As we have said before, so now I say again, "If someone proclaims to you good news other than the good message you received, let him be cursed."
Gal 1:10 For am I now seeking the approval of humans or Yehowah? Am I seeking to please humans? If I am still trying to please humans, I am not the servant of Messiah.
Gal 1:11 For I want you to know, brethren and sistren, that the good news I proclaimed is not a human's good news.
Gal 1:12 I did not receive it from any human, nor was I taught it. Instead, it was by revelation of Yeshua Messiah to me.
Gal 1:13 You have heard about my former life in Judaism, how I was persecuting the Messianic congregation of Yehowah beyond measure, and that I was trying to destroy it.
Gal 1:14 I advanced in Judaism beyond many of those who were my own age, from out of my own people. That is how extremely zealous I was for the traditions of my fathers.
Gal 1:15 But when Yehowah, who had set me apart from my mother's womb, and who called me through his grace,

Gal 1:16 was pleased to reveal his Son in me, so that I would proclaim him among the ethnicities, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood.
Gal 1:17 I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who had become apostles before me. Instead, I went to Arabia and then returned to Damascus.
Gal 1:18 Then after three years (c. 33-36 AD), I went up to Jerusalem to get to know Cephas, and I stayed with him fifteen days.
Gal 1:19 But I saw none of the other apostles except Jacob, the brother of the Lord.
Gal 1:20 In what I write to you, I assure you before Yehowah, that I am not lying.
Gal 1:21 Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia.
Gal 1:22 I was still not personally known to the Messianic congregations of Judea (Acts 11:26).
Gal 1:23 They only heard it being said, “The man who once persecuted us is now proclaiming the faith he once tried to destroy.”
Gal 1:24 And they glorified Yehowah because of me.

Galatians Chapter 2

Gal 2:1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me (Acts 15; c. 49 AD).
Gal 2:2 I went up because of a revelation, and set before them the good news that I proclaim among the ethnicities. I spoke privately to those who seemed to be important, in order to make sure that I was not running, or had not run, in vain.
Gal 2:3 But not even Titus, who was with me, and who was a Greek, was forced to be circumcised.
Gal 2:4 The false brothers came in secretly to spy on the liberty we have in Messiah Yeshua. They desired to make us slaves,
Gal 2:5 but we did not yield in submission to them for a moment, so that the truth of the good news would remain with you.
Gal 2:6 But those who seemed to be important, whatever they were does not matter to me, Yehowah shows no partiality, those I say, who seemed important added nothing to me.
Gal 2:7 On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the good news to those who are uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the good news to those who are circumcised.
Gal 2:8 For Yehowah, who worked in Peter for the apostleship to those who are circumcised, also worked in me to the ethnicities.
Gal 2:9 When Jacob, Cephas, and John, who were recognized as those who built up the congregation, understood the grace that had been given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me. They did this, so that we should go to the ethnicities, and so that they should go to those who are circumcised.
Gal 2:10 They requested only that we remember the poor, the exact thing that I was eager to do.
Gal 2:11 But when Cephas came to Antioch (c. 52 AD), I opposed him to his face, because he was declared to be in the wrong.
Gal 2:12 Before certain men came from Jacob, Cephas was eating with the ethnicities. But when these men came, he stopped and kept away from the non-Jews. He was afraid of those who were demanding circumcision.
Gal 2:13 Also, the rest of the Messianic Jews joined in this hypocrisy. Even Barnabas was led astray with them by their hypocrisy.
Gal 2:14 But when I saw that their behavior was not following the truth of the good news, I said to Cephas in front of all of them, “If you are a Messianic Jew but are living like a pagan and not like a Messianic Jew, how can you force the ethnicities to live like Messianic Jews” (Acts 11:26)?

Gal 2:15 We ourselves are Jews by birth and not pagan sinners;
Gal 2:16 yet we know that no person is justified by the works of the law but through faith in Yeshua Messiah. We also came to faith in Yeshua Messiah, so that we might be justified by faith in Messiah and not by the works of the law. For by the works of the law no flesh will be justified (Mark 7:1-9).
Gal 2:17 But if, while we seek to be justified in Messiah, we too were found to be sinners, does Messiah then promote sin? Absolutely not!
Gal 2:18 For if I rebuild those things I once destroyed, I prove myself to be a lawbreaker.
Gal 2:19 For through the law, I died to the law, so that I might live for Yehowah.
Gal 2:20 I have been crucified with Messiah. It is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me. The life I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of Yehowah, who unconditionally selflessly loved me and gave himself for me.
Gal 2:21 I do not set aside the grace of Yehowah, for if righteousness could be gained through the law (Heb. 7:11), then Messiah died for nothing!

Galatians Chapter 3

Gal 3:1 Foolish Galatians! Who has put a spell on you not to obey the truth? Before your eyes Yeshua Messiah was vividly portrayed as crucified among you.
Gal 3:2 This is the only thing I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Ruach by the works of the law or by believing what you heard?
Gal 3:3 Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Ruach, are you now going to finish by the flesh?
Gal 3:4 Have you suffered so many things for nothing, if indeed it was for nothing?
Gal 3:5 Does he who gives the Ruach to you and works miracles among you do so by the works of the law, or by hearing with faith?
Gal 3:6 Just as Abraham "believed Yehowah, and it was credited to him as righteousness" (Gen. 15:6),
Gal 3:7 in the same Way, understand then, that those of faith are the children of Abraham.
Gal 3:8 The Scripture, foreseeing that Yehowah would justify the ethnicities by faith, preached the good news beforehand to Abraham, "In you will all the ethnicities be blessed" (Gen. 12:3).
Gal 3:9 So then, those of faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.
Gal 3:10 All who rely on the works of the law are under a curse; and so it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not abide by all the things written in the Book of the Law, and do them" (Deut. 27:26; Lev. 26:14-43).
Gal 3:11 Now it is clear that no one is justified before Yehowah by the law, because the righteous will live by faith.
Gal 3:12 But the law is not of faith, rather, "The person who does the works of the law must live by them."
Gal 3:13 Messiah redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree (cross)" (Deut. 21:22-23; 1 Cor. 12:3),
Gal 3:14 so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the ethnicities in Yeshua Messiah, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Ruach.
Gal 3:15 Brethren and sistren, let me speak in human terms. In a man-made contract, no one can set it aside or add to it, once it is established by law.
Gal 3:16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his descendant. It does not say, "to descendants," referring to many, but instead to only One, "and to your descendant," who is Messiah.
Gal 3:17 Now what I mean is this: The law, which came 430 years afterward (Exo. 12:40-41), does not set aside the covenant previously established by Yehowah in Messiah (Gen. 15), so as to nullify the promise.

Gal 3:18 For if the inheritance comes by the law, then it no longer comes by promise. But Yehowah gave it to Abraham by a promise (Gen. 12; Eph. 2:12).
Gal 3:19 What then was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the Descendant of Abraham would come to whom the promise had been made. The law was put into force through angels by a mediator.
Gal 3:20 Now a mediator implies more than one person, and Yehowah is Oneness.
Gal 3:21 So is the law against the promises of Yehowah? Absolutely not! For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law.
Gal 3:22 But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin. Yehowah did this, so that the promise to save us by faith in Yeshua Messiah might be given to those who believe.
Gal 3:23 Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law (Exo. 24:12-Deut. 31:26), imprisoned until faith should be revealed.
Gal 3:24 So then the law became our tutor until Messiah came, so that we might be justified by faith.
Gal 3:25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.
Gal 3:26 For you are all children of Yehowah through faith in Messiah Yeshua.
Gal 3:27 For as many of you as were immersed into Messiah, you have received Messiah.
Gal 3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female (Gen. 1:27-28), for you are all oneness in Messiah Yeshua.
Gal 3:29 And if you belong to Messiah, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise.

Galatians Chapter 4

Gal 4:1 I am saying that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a slave, though he is owner of the entire estate.
Gal 4:2 But he is under guardians and trustees, until the date set by his father.
Gal 4:3 So also we, when we were children, were held enslaved to the elemental principles of the world.
Gal 4:4 But when the fullness of time had come, Yehowah sent out his Son, born of a woman, born under the law (Lev. 12; Luke 2:22).
Gal 4:5 He did this to redeem those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children.
Gal 4:6 And because you are children, Yehowah has sent the Ruach of his Son into your hearts, who calls out, “Abba, Father!”
Gal 4:7 So you are no longer a slave, but a child, and if a child, then you are also an heir of Yehowah through Messiah.
Gal 4:8 But at that time, when you did not know Yehowah, you were made to be slaves to those who are, by nature, not deities at all.
Gal 4:9 But now that you have come to know Yehowah, or rather that you are known by Yehowah, how is it that you are turning back to the weak and worthless elemental principles? Do you want to be enslaved all over again?
Gal 4:10 You observe days, months, appointed festivals, and years!
Gal 4:11 I am afraid for you that somehow my work with you may have been for nothing.
Gal 4:12 I beg you, brethren and sistren, become like me, for I also have become like you. You did me no wrong.
Gal 4:13 But you know that it was because of a physical illness that I proclaimed the good news to you the first time.
Gal 4:14 Though my physical condition put you to the test, you did not despise or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of Yehowah, as if I were Messiah Yeshua himself.
Gal 4:15 Where then is your blessing now? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have torn out your own eyes and given them to me.
Gal 4:16 So then, have I become your enemy, because I am telling you the truth?
Gal 4:17 They are zealous to win you over but for no good. They want to shut you out, so you may be zealous for them.
Gal 4:18 It is always good to be zealous for a good purpose, and not only when I am present with you.
Gal 4:19 My little children, again I am in the pains of childbirth for you, until Messiah is formed in you.

Gal 4:20 I wish I could be present with you now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.
Gal 4:21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law?
Gal 4:22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave girl and one by the free woman.
Gal 4:23 But the one was born by the slave girl according to the flesh, but the other was born by the free woman through promise.
Gal 4:24 These things may be interpreted as an allegory, for these women represent two covenants. One of them is from Mount Sinai, and she gives birth to children who are slaves. This is Hagar.
Gal 4:25 Now Hagar represents Mount Sinai in Arabia; and she represents the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.
Gal 4:26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother.
Gal 4:27 For it is written, “Rejoice, you barren one who does not give birth. Cry out and shout for joy, you who are not suffering the pains of childbirth. Because the children of the abandoned woman are more numerous than the woman who has a husband” (Isa 54:1).
Gal 4:28 But you brethren and sistren, like Isaac, are children of promise.
Gal 4:29 At that time, the one who was born according to the flesh persecuted the one born according to the Ruach. It is the same now.
Gal 4:30 But what does the Scripture say? “Send away the slave girl and her son. For the son of the slave girl will not share in the inheritance with the son of the free woman” (Gen. 21:10).
Gal 4:31 Therefore, brethren and sistren, we are not children of a slave girl but of the free woman.

Galatians Chapter 5

Gal 5:1 For freedom, Messiah has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not again be put under the control of a yoke of slavery.
Gal 5:2 Look, I, Paul, say to you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Messiah will not benefit you in any way.
Gal 5:3 I testify again to every man who lets himself be circumcised, that he is obligated to obey the whole law.
Gal 5:4 You are cut off from Messiah, you who would be justified by the law; you no longer experience grace.
Gal 5:5 For through the Ruach, by faith, we eagerly wait for the certain hope of righteousness.
Gal 5:6 In Yeshua Messiah, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but only faith working through unconditional selfless love.
Gal 5:7 You were running well. Who prevented you from obeying the truth?
Gal 5:8 This persuasion does not come from him who calls you!
Gal 5:9 A little yeast makes the whole batch of dough rise (Mat. 16:6-12; Mark 8:15).
Gal 5:10 I have confidence in Yehowah that you will take no other view. The one who is troubling you will pay the penalty, whoever he is.
Gal 5:11 Brethren and sistren, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case, the stumbling block of the cross has been removed.
Gal 5:12 As for those who are disturbing you, I wish they would castrate themselves!
Gal 5:13 For you were called to freedom, brethren and sistren. But do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the sinful nature; rather, through unconditional selfless love serve one another.
Gal 5:14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one commandment; in, “You must love your neighbor as yourself” (Lev. 19:18, 34; Deut. 10:18-19).
Gal 5:15 But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another.
Gal 5:16 But I say, walk by the Ruach, and you will not carry out the desires of the sinful nature.
Gal 5:17 For the desires of the sinful nature are against the Ruach, and the desires of the Ruach are against the sinful nature. For these are in conflict with each other, so that you cannot do the things you delight in.
Gal 5:18 But if you are led by the Ruach, you are not under the law (Rom. 7-8).
Gal 5:19 Now the works of the sinful nature are evident: adultery, sexual immorality, impurity (Lev. 11; Deut. 14; 2 Cor. 6:17-18), lustfulness,

Gal 5:20 idolatry, drug sorcery, hostilities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, rivalry, dissension, divisions,
Gal 5:21 envy, murders, intoxication, nighttime drunken riots, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of Yehowah.
Gal 5:22 But the fruit of the Ruach is unconditional selfless love, joy, peace (#H7965), long-tempered patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,
Gal 5:23 meekness producing gentleness, and self-control; there is no law opposing such things.
Gal 5:24 Those who belong to Messiah Yeshua have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires.
Gal 5:25 If we live by the Ruach, let us also walk by the Ruach.
Gal 5:26 Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Galatians Chapter 6

Gal 6:1 Brethren and sistren, if a person is caught in some sin, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of humility. Be concerned about yourself, so you also may not be tempted.
Gal 6:2 Carry one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Messiah (Rom. 15:1-3).
Gal 6:3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.
Gal 6:4 Each one should examine his own work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself alone and not in someone else (1 Cor. 3:13-15; Mat. 5:16; John 14:1-12; Titus 2:7, 14).
Gal 6:5 For each one will carry his own load.
Gal 6:6 The one who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches.
Gal 6:7 Do not be deceived. Yehowah is not mocked, for whatever a person plants, that he will also harvest.
Gal 6:8 For he who plants seed to his own sinful nature, from the sinful nature will gather in destruction. The one who plants seed to the Ruach, from the Ruach will gather in eternal life.
Gal 6:9 Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the right time we will gather in a harvest, if we do not give up.
Gal 6:10 So then, as we have the opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the household of faith.
Gal 6:11 See what large letters I write to you with my own hand.
Gal 6:12 Those who want to make a good impression in the flesh are trying to compel you to be circumcised. They do this only to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Messiah.
Gal 6:13 For not even those who circumcised themselves keep the law, but they want you to be circumcised, so that they may boast about your flesh.
Gal 6:14 But may I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, through which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world.
Gal 6:15 For in Messiah Yeshua, neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but what counts is a new creation.
Gal 6:16 And to all who live according to this standard, peace and mercy be upon them, even upon the Israel of Yehowah.
Gal 6:17 From now on let no one trouble me, for I carry on my body the marks of Lord Yeshua.
Gal 6:18 May the grace of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be with your spirit, brethren and sistren. Amein.

Book of Ephesians

Ephesians Chapter 1

Eph 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Yeshua Messiah through the will of Yehowah, to the set-apart adherents in Ephesus, who are faithful in Messiah Yeshua.
Eph 1:2 Grace to you and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Eph 1:3 May Yehowah the Father of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be praised, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing of Heaven in Messiah.
Eph 1:4 Yehowah chose us in him before the beginning of the world, that we may be set apart and blameless in his sight in unconditional selfless love.
Eph 1:5 Yehowah chose us beforehand for adoption as children through Yeshua Messiah to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will.
Eph 1:6 Our adoption results in the praise of his glorious grace that he has freely given us in the One he unconditionally selflessly loves.
Eph 1:7 In Yeshua we have redemption through his blood and the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace.
Eph 1:8 He lavished this grace upon us with all wisdom and understanding.
Eph 1:9 Yehowah made known to us the hidden purpose of his will, according to what pleased him, and which he demonstrated in Messiah,
Eph 1:10 with a view to a plan for the fullness of appointment calendar times, to bring all things together, all things in Heaven and on earth, under one head, even Messiah.
Eph 1:11 In Messiah, we were appointed as heirs. We were decided on beforehand according to the plan of him who works out everything according to the purpose of his will.
Eph 1:12 Yehowah appointed us as heirs, so that we might be the first to have confident hope in Messiah, so we would be for the praise of his glory.
Eph 1:13 In Messiah, you also, when you had heard the Word of Truth, the good news of your salvation, you believed in him and were sealed with the promised Ruach Kodesh,
Eph 1:14 who is the guarantee of our inheritance, until we take full possession of it, to the praise of his glory.
Eph 1:15 For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in Lord Yeshua and your unconditional selfless love for all the set-apart people of Yehowah,
Eph 1:16 I have not stopped thanking Yehowah for you, as I mention you in my prayers:

Eph 1:17 That the Mighty One of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, the Father of glory, will give to you the Ruach of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him.
Eph 1:18 I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, that you may know the confident hope to which he has called you and the riches of his glorious inheritance among all the set-apart people of Yehowah.
Eph 1:19 And in my prayers I ask that you may know the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe, according to the working of his great strength.
Eph 1:20 This is the same power that Yehowah worked in Messiah when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in Heaven.
Eph 1:21 He seated Messiah far above all rule, authority, power, and dominion, and every name that is named. Messiah will rule, not only in this age, but also in the age to come.
Eph 1:22 Yehowah put all things under the feet of Messiah and gave him to the congregation as head over all things.
Eph 1:23 The congregation is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Ephesians Chapter 2

Eph 2:1 And as for you, you were dead in your trespasses and sins.
Eph 2:2 It was in these trespasses and sins that you once lived according to the ways of this world. You were living according to the ruler of the authorities of the air, the spirit that is working in the children of disobedience.
Eph 2:3 Once, we all lived among these people, fulfilling the evil desires of our sinful nature, and carrying out the desires of the body and of the mind. We were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of humanity.
Eph 2:4 But Yehowah is rich in mercy, because of his great love with which he unconditionally selflessly loved us.
Eph 2:5 While we were dead in trespasses, he made us alive together in Messiah, by grace you have been saved.
Eph 2:6 Yehowah raised us up together with Messiah, and Yehowah made us sit together in Heaven in Messiah Yeshua,
Eph 2:7 so that in the ages to come, he might show to us the immeasurably great riches of his grace expressed in his kindness toward us in Messiah Yeshua.
Eph 2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this did not come from you, it is the gift of Yehowah.
Eph 2:9 Grace is not from works, so no one may boast.
Eph 2:10 For we are the workmanship of Yehowah, created in Messiah Yeshua to do good deeds that Yehowah planned long ago for us, so that we would walk in them.
Eph 2:11 Therefore, remember that once you were ethnicities in the flesh. You are called “uncircumcision” by what is called the “circumcision” in the flesh made by human hands.
Eph 2:12 For at that time, you were separated from Messiah. You were estranged to the community of Israel. You were foreigners to the covenants of the promise (Gen. 1:1-Exo. 24:11). You had no certain hope about the future. You were without Yehowah in the world.
Eph 2:13 But now in Messiah Yeshua you who once were far away from Yehowah have been brought near by the blood of Messiah.
Eph 2:14 For he is our peace. He made the two (Jews and non-Jews) oneness. He destroyed the partition barrier that divided us.
Eph 2:15 The hostility in his flesh nullifying the law of injunctions in regulations (Col. 2:14), that he should be creating the two, in himself, into one new human being, making peace.
Eph 2:16 Messiah reconciles both people (Jews and non-Jews) into one body to Yehowah through the cross, putting to death the hostility.

Eph 2:17 Yeshua came and proclaimed peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near.
Eph 2:18 For through Yeshua we both have access in one Ruach to the Father.
Eph 2:19 So then now, you are no longer foreigners and resident aliens. Instead, you are fellow citizens with the set-apart people of Yehowah and members of the household of Yehowah.
Eph 2:20 You have been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, and Yeshua Messiah himself is the chief Cornerstone.
Eph 2:21 In him, the whole building fits together and grows as a set-apart temple in the Lord.
Eph 2:22 It is in him that you also are being built together as a dwelling place for Yehowah in the Ruach.

Ephesians Chapter 3

Eph 3:1 Because of this, I, Paul, am the prisoner of Yeshua Messiah for you ethnicities.
Eph 3:2 I assume that you have heard of the stewardship of the grace of Yehowah that was given to me for you.
Eph 3:3 I am writing according to the revelation made known to me. This is the hidden truth about which I briefly wrote to you.
Eph 3:4 When you read about this, you will be able to understand my insight into this hidden truth about Messiah.
Eph 3:5 In other generations, this truth was not made known to the children of mankind. But now it has been revealed by the Ruach to his apostles and prophets, who were set apart for this work.
Eph 3:6 This hidden truth is that the non-Jews are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and they share the promise in Messiah through the good news.
Eph 3:7 For I became a servant of this good news by the gift of the grace of Yehowah given to me through the working of his power.
Eph 3:8 Yehowah gave this gift to me, although I am the least of all the set-apart people of Yehowah. This gift is that I should proclaim to the ethnicities the good news of the unsearchable riches of Messiah.
Eph 3:9 The gift of Yehowah to me is that I will bring to light to everyone what the plan of Yehowah is. This plan had been hidden for ages in the past by Yehowah, who created all things through Yeshua Messiah.
Eph 3:10 This plan was made known through the congregation, so the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms would come to know the many-sided nature of the wisdom of Yehowah.
Eph 3:11 This happened according to the eternal plan that he accomplished in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.
Eph 3:12 For in Messiah we have boldness and access with confidence because of our faith in him.
Eph 3:13 Therefore, I ask you not to be discouraged because of what I am suffering for you, which is your glory.
Eph 3:14 For this reason, I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Yeshua Messiah,
Eph 3:15 from whom every family in Heaven and on earth is named.
Eph 3:16 I pray that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened in spirit with power through his Ruach, who is in you.
Eph 3:17 I pray that Messiah may live in your hearts through faith, that you will be rooted and grounded in his unconditional selfless love.

Eph 3:18 May you have strength so you can understand, along with all the believers, what is the width, the length, the height, and the depth,
Eph 3:19 and that you may know the unconditional selfless love of Messiah, which goes beyond knowledge, and that you may be filled with all the fullness of Yehowah.
Eph 3:20 Now to him who is able to do far beyond all that we ask or think, according to his power that works in us,
Eph 3:21 to him be glory in the congregation in Messiah Yeshua to all generations forever and ever. Amein.

Ephesians Chapter 4

Eph 4:1 I, therefore, as the prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk worthily of the calling by which you were called.
Eph 4:2 I urge you to live with great humility, gentleness, and long-tempered patience, putting up with one another in unconditional selfless love.
Eph 4:3 Do your best to keep the unity of the Ruach in the bond of peace.
Eph 4:4 There is one body and one Ruach (Rev. 1:4; 3:1; Isa. 11:2-4), just as also you were called in one certain hope of your calling.
Eph 4:5 And there is one Lord, one faith, one immersion,
Eph 4:6 one Yehowah, Father of all, who is over all, through all, and in you all.
Eph 4:7 To each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Messiah.
Eph 4:8 It is as Scripture says: "When he ascended to the heights, he led our vanquished enemies into captivity, and he received gifts from humans" (Psa. 68:18).
Eph 4:9 What is the meaning of, "He ascended," except that he also descended into the lower regions of the earth?
Eph 4:10 He who descended is the same Person who also ascended far above all of Heaven, that he might fill all things.
Eph 4:11 Messiah gave some to be apostles, some as prophets, some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers.
Eph 4:12 He gave these offices to equip his set-apart adherents for the work of service, for the building up of the body of Messiah.
Eph 4:13 He continues to build up his body, until we all reach the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of Yehowah, and that we become a complete person and so reach the measure of maturity of the fullness of Messiah.
Eph 4:14 Messiah builds us up, so that we should no longer be immature children who are tossed back and forth by the waves, and carried away by every wind of teaching and by the trickery of people in their deceitful schemes.
Eph 4:15 Instead, speaking the truth in unconditional selfless love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, that is, Messiah.
Eph 4:16 Messiah builds the whole body, and it is joined and held together by every supporting ligament, and when each part works together, that makes the body grow, so that it builds itself up in unconditional selfless love.
Eph 4:17 Therefore, I say and insist on this in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the ethnicities live, in the futility of their minds.
Eph 4:18 They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of Yehowah, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their hearts.

Eph 4:19 They have no shame and have given themselves over to licentiousness, and they are continually practicing every kind of impurity with avarice.
Eph 4:20 But that is not how you learned about Messiah.
Eph 4:21 I assume that you have heard about him, and that you were taught in him, as the truth is in Yeshua.
Eph 4:22 You were taught to put off what belongs to your former manner of life, to put off the old self. It is the old self that is corrupt because of its deceitful desires.
Eph 4:23 You were taught to be renewed in the spirit of your mind,
Eph 4:24 and to put on the new self that is created in the image of Yehowah, in true righteousness and consecration.
Eph 4:25 Therefore, get rid of lies, and let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor, because we are members of one another.
Eph 4:26 Be angry and do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your anger.
Eph 4:27 Do not give an opportunity to the Devil.
Eph 4:28 The one who had been stealing must steal no longer. He must labor, doing useful work with his hands, so that he may have something to share with those who are in need.
Eph 4:29 Do not let any filthy talk come out of your mouth. Use only words that are helpful for building others up, according to their needs, that your words would be helpful to those who hear you.
Eph 4:30 And do not grieve Ruach ha'Kodesh of Yehowah, by whom you were sealed for the Day of Redemption (Rev. 9:4).
Eph 4:31 Put away all bitterness, anger, rage, quarreling, and insults, along with every kind of evil.
Eph 4:32 Be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as Yehowah in Messiah forgave you.

Ephesians Chapter 5

Eph 5:1 Therefore, be imitators of Yehowah, as dearly loved children.
Eph 5:2 And walk in unconditional selfless love, as also Messiah unconditionally selflessly loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to Yehowah.
Eph 5:3 But there must not be even a suggestion among you of sexual immorality or any kind of impurity (Lev. 11; Deut. 14; 2 Cor. 6:17-18), or of greed, for these are improper for set-apart adherents.
Eph 5:4 Let there be no filthiness, no foolish talk, and no crude jokes, all of which are improper. Instead, there should be thanksgiving.
Eph 5:5 For you can be sure of this, that no sexually immoral, (morally or religiously) impure, or greedy person, that is, an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Messiah and Yehowah.
Eph 5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the anger of Yehowah is coming upon the children of disobedience.
Eph 5:7 Therefore, do not join in with them.
Eph 5:8 For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light,
Eph 5:9 for the fruit of the Ruach consists in all goodness, righteousness, and truth,
Eph 5:10 and find out what is pleasing to the Lord.
Eph 5:11 Do not associate with the unfruitful works of darkness but rather expose them.
Eph 5:12 For it is shameful even to mention the things they do in secret.
Eph 5:13 But when anything is exposed, it is illuminated by the light, it becomes visible. For anything that becomes visible is light.
Eph 5:14 Therefore, it says, “Awake, you sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Messiah will illuminate you.”
Eph 5:15 Look carefully how you live, not as unwise but as wise.
Eph 5:16 Redeem the time, because the days are evil.
Eph 5:17 Therefore, do not be foolish, but understand what the will of Yehowah is.
Eph 5:18 And do not get drunk with wine, for that leads to reckless behavior. Instead, be filled with the Ruach,
Eph 5:19 speaking to each other in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart,
Eph 5:20 always giving thanks for everything, in the name of our Lord Yeshua Messiah to Yehowah the Father,
Eph 5:21 submitting yourselves to one another in reverence for Yehowah.

Eph 5:22 Wives, submit to your husbands, as to the Lord.
Eph 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife as Messiah also is the head of the congregation (Acts 11:26), and he is its Savior.
Eph 5:24 But as the congregation submits to Messiah, so also wives must submit to their husbands in everything.
Eph 5:25 Husbands, unconditionally selflessly love your wives, as Messiah unconditionally selflessly loved the congregation and gave himself up for her.
Eph 5:26 Messiah gave himself for the congregation, so that he might consecrate her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the spoken word,
Eph 5:27 so that he might present her to himself as a glorious congregation, without stain or wrinkle or any such thing, but set apart and without fault.
Eph 5:28 In the same way, husbands ought to unconditionally selflessly love their own wives as their own bodies. He who unconditionally selflessly loves his own wife unconditionally selflessly loves himself.
Eph 5:29 For no one ever hated his own body, but nourishes and treats it with care, just as the Lord nourishes and treats the congregation with care,
Eph 5:30 because we are members of his body, his flesh and bones.
Eph 5:31 “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”
Eph 5:32 This hidden truth is great, but I am speaking about Messiah and the congregation (Acts 11:26).
Eph 5:33 Nevertheless, each of you also must unconditionally selflessly love his own wife as himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Ephesians Chapter 6

Eph 6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.
Eph 6:2 “Honor your father and mother,” which is the first commandment with promise,
Eph 6:3 “so that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.”
Eph 6:4 Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger. Instead, raise them in the discipline and instruction of Yehowah.
Eph 6:5 Slaves, be obedient to your earthly masters with deep respect and trembling, in the honesty of your heart. Be obedient to them as you would be obedient to Messiah.
Eph 6:6 Be obedient not only when your masters are watching in order to please them. Instead, be obedient as slaves of Messiah, who do the will of Yehowah from your heart.
Eph 6:7 Serve with all your heart, as though you were serving Yehowah and not people,
Eph 6:8 because we know that for whatever good deed each person does, he will receive a reward from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free.
Eph 6:9 Masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Do not threaten them. You know that he who is both their Master and yours is in Heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.
Eph 6:10 Finally, be strong in Yehowah and in the strength of his might.
Eph 6:11 Put on the whole armor of Yehowah (High Priest’s garments), so that you may be able to stand against the scheming plans of the Devil.
Eph 6:12 For our struggle is not against flesh and blood. Instead, it is against the governments, spiritual authorities, and rulers of the realm of evil darkness of this age, against the evil spirits in the heavenlies.
Eph 6:13 Therefore, put on the whole armor of Yehowah (High Priest’s garments), so that you may be able to stand in this time of evil, and after you have done everything, to stand firm.
Eph 6:14 Stand, therefore, after you have put on the belt of truth and the breastplate of righteousness (High Priest’s garments).
Eph 6:15 Then as sandals for your feet, put on the readiness to proclaim the good news of peace.
Eph 6:16 In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, by which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.
Eph 6:17 And take the turban of salvation and the sword of the Ruach, which is the spoken Word of Yehowah (High Priest’s garments; Exo. 28:4; Isa. 59:17; 1 Thes. 5:8).

Eph 6:18 With every prayer and request, pray at all times in the Ruach. With this mind, always be watching with all perseverance, as you offer prayers for all the set-apart people of Yehowah.
Eph 6:19 And pray for me, that a message might be given to me when I open my mouth. Pray that I might make known with boldness the hidden truth of the good news.
Eph 6:20 It is for the good news that I am an ambassador who is kept in chains, so that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.
Eph 6:21 Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything, so that you may know how I am doing.
Eph 6:22 I have sent him to you for this exact purpose, so that you may know how we are, and so that he may encourage your hearts.
Eph 6:23 Peace be to the brethren and sistren, and unconditional selfless love with faith from Yehowah the Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Eph 6:24 May grace be with all those who perpetually and unconditionally selflessly love our Lord Yeshua Messiah. Amein.

Book of Philippians

Philippians Chapter 1

Php 1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Yeshua Messiah, to all those set apart in Messiah Yeshua who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons.
Php 1:2 May grace be to you and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Php 1:3 I thank Yehowah in every remembrance of you.
Php 1:4 Always, in every prayer of mine for you all, it is with joy that I make my prayer.
Php 1:5 I give thanks for your fellowship in the good news from the first day until now.
Php 1:6 I am confident of this exact thing, that he who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the Day of Yeshua Messiah.
Php 1:7 It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, because I have you in my heart. You all have been my partners in grace both in my imprisonment and in my defense and confirmation of the good news.
Php 1:8 For Yehowah is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Yeshua Messiah.
Php 1:9 And I am praying this: That your unconditional selfless love may abound more and more in knowledge and all understanding.
Php 1:10 I pray for this, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so you may be sincere and without offense into the Messianic Age.
Php 1:11 I pray that you also will be filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Yeshua Messiah, to the glory and praise of Yehowah.
Php 1:12 Now I want you to know, brethren and sistren, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the good news.
Php 1:13 As a result, my chains in Messiah came to light throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else.
Php 1:14 And most of the brethren and sistren have far more confidence in Yeshua because of my chains, and they have courage to fearlessly speak the word.
Php 1:15 Some indeed even proclaim Messiah out of envy and strife, and also others out of good will.
Php 1:16 The latter do it out of unconditional selfless love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the good news.

Php 1:17 But the former proclaim Messiah out of selfish ambition, not sincerely. They think they will afflict me while I am imprisoned.
Php 1:18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Messiah is proclaimed, and in this I rejoice! Yes, and I will rejoice,
Php 1:19 for I know that this will result in my deliverance through your prayers and the help of the Ruach of Yeshua Messiah.
Php 1:20 It is according to my eager expectation and certain hope that I will not be at all ashamed, and yet with all boldness, now as always, Messiah will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.
Php 1:21 For to me to live is Messiah and to die is gain.
Php 1:22 But if I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which to choose? I do not know.
Php 1:23 For I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Messiah, which is far better,
Php 1:24 yet to remain in the flesh is more necessary for your sake.
Php 1:25 And being convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith.
Php 1:26 So that in me you may have increasing reasons to boast in Yeshua Messiah when I come to you again.
Php 1:27 Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the good news of Messiah, so that whether I come to see you or am absent, I may hear about you, that you are standing firm in one Ruach, with one mind striving together for the faith of the good news.
Php 1:28 And do not be frightened in any respect by those who are your opponents. This is a sign to them of their destruction but of your salvation, and this from Yehowah.
Php 1:29 For it has been granted to you, for the sake of Messiah, not only to believe in him but also to suffer for his sake,
Php 1:30 having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now you hear is in me.

Philippians Chapter 2

Php 2:1 If there is any encouragement in Messiah, if there is any comfort from his unconditional selfless love, if there is any fellowship of the Ruach, if there are any tender mercies and compassions,
Php 2:2 then make my joy full by thinking alike, having the same unconditional selfless love, being united in Ruach, and having the same purpose.
Php 2:3 Do nothing out of selfishness or empty conceit. Instead, with humility consider others better than yourselves.
Php 2:4 Each of you should take care not only for your own needs but also for the needs of others.
Php 2:5 Think in the Way that was also in Messiah Yeshua.
Php 2:6 He existed in the form of Yehowah, but he did not consider his equality with Yehowah as something to hold on to.
Php 2:7 Instead, he emptied himself. He took the form of a servant. He appeared in the likeness of humans.
Php 2:8 And being found in the circumstance of a human, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death, even death of a cross!
Php 2:9 Therefore, Yehowah also highly exalted him. He gave him the name that is above every name.
Php 2:10 He did this, so that at the name of Yeshua every knee should bend, the knees of those in Heaven, on earth, and under the earth (Gen. 41:43).
Php 2:11 And he did this, so that every tongue should confess that Yeshua Messiah is Lord, to the glory of Yehowah the Father (Isaiah 45:23; Rom. 14:11).
Php 2:12 So then my beloved, as you always obey, not only in my presence but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
Php 2:13 For it is Yehowah who is working in you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.
Php 2:14 Do all things without complaining or arguing.
Php 2:15 Act in this Way, so that you may become blameless and honest, children of Yehowah without blemish. Act in this Way, so that you may shine as lights in the world, in the middle of a crooked and depraved generation.
Php 2:16 Hold tightly to the word of life, so that I may have reason to glory on the Day of Messiah. For then I will know that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.
Php 2:17 But even if I am poured out as an offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and I rejoice with you all!
Php 2:18 In the same manner, you also rejoice, and you rejoice with me!

Php 2:19 But I hope in Lord Yeshua to send Timothy to you soon, so that I may also be encouraged when I know the things about you.
Php 2:20 For I have no one else with his same attitude, who is truly anxious for you.
Php 2:21 For they all seek their own interests, not the things of Yeshua Messiah.
Php 2:22 But you know his worth, because as a child serves his father, so he served with me in the good news.
Php 2:23 So I hope to send him as soon as I see how things will go with me.
Php 2:24 But I am confident in the Lord that I myself will also come soon.
Php 2:25 But I think it is necessary to send Epaphroditus back to you. He is my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your messenger and servant for my needs.
Php 2:26 For he was distressed, and he longed to be with you all, because you heard that he was sick.
Php 2:27 For indeed he was so sick that he almost died. But Yehowah had mercy on him, and not on him only, but also on me, so that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow.
Php 2:28 So it is all the more eagerly that I am sending him, so that when you see him again, you may rejoice, and I will be freer from anxiety.
Php 2:29 Welcome Epaphroditus in the Lord with all joy. Honor people like him.
Php 2:30 For it was for the work of Messiah that he came near death. He risked his life to serve me and fill up what you could not do in service to me.

Philippians Chapter 3

Php 3:1 Finally, my brethren and sistren, rejoice in the Lord. For me to write these same things again to you is not bothersome. These things will keep you safe.
Php 3:2 Watch out for the dogs. Watch out for the evil workers. Watch out for the false circumcision.
Php 3:3 For we are the circumcision. It is we who worship by the Ruach of Yehowah. It is we who take pride in Messiah Yeshua, and who have no confidence in the flesh.
Php 3:4 Even so, I myself could have confidence in the flesh. If anyone thinks he has confidence in the flesh, I could have even more.
Php 3:5 I was circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in respect to the law, a Pharisee.
Php 3:6 I zealously persecuted the congregation. In respect to the righteousness of the law, I was blameless.
Php 3:7 But whatever things were a profit for me, I have considered them as loss because of Messiah.
Php 3:8 In fact, now I count all things to be loss because of the excellency of the knowledge of Messiah Yeshua my Lord. For him I have discarded all things. I consider them rubbish, so that I may gain Messiah
Php 3:9 and be found in him. I do not have a righteousness of my own from the law. Instead, I have the righteousness that is through faith in Messiah, the righteousness that is from Yehowah based on faith.
Php 3:10 So now I want to know him and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings. I want to be transformed into the likeness of his death,
Php 3:11 so somehow I may experience the resurrection from the dead.
Php 3:12 It is not true that I have already received these things, or that I have become complete. But I press on, in order that I may grasp that for which I was grasped by Messiah Yeshua.
Php 3:13 Brethren and sistren, I do not think that I myself have yet grasped it. But there is one thing: I forget what is behind and strain for what is ahead.
Php 3:14 I press on toward the goal to win the prize of the upward calling of Yehowah in Messiah Yeshua.
Php 3:15 All of us who are mature, let us think this Way. And if you think differently about anything, Yehowah will also reveal that to you.
Php 3:16 However, whatever we have reached, let us hold to that standard.
Php 3:17 Be imitators of me, brethren and sistren. Closely watch those who are walking by the example that you have in us.

Php 3:18 Many are walking, those about whom I have often told you, and now I am telling you with tears, as enemies of the cross of Messiah.
Php 3:19 Their destiny is destruction. For their deity is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. They think about earthly things.
Php 3:20 But our citizenship is in Heaven, from where we also wait for the Savior, Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Php 3:21 He will transform our lowly bodies into bodies formed like his glorious body, formed by the might of his power to subject all things to himself.

Philippians Chapter 4

Php 4:1 Therefore, my beloved brethren and sistren whom I long for, my joy and crown, in this Way stand firm in the Lord, beloved friends.
Php 4:2 I am pleading with Euodia, and I am pleading with Syntyche, be of the same mind in the Lord.
Php 4:3 Indeed, I am entreating you also, my true yokefellow: Help these women. For they labored with me in spreading the good news along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.
Php 4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, rejoice!
Php 4:5 Let your gentleness be known to all people. The Lord is near.
Php 4:6 Do not be anxious about anything. Instead, in everything by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to Yehowah.
Php 4:7 And the peace of Yehowah, which exceeds all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Messiah Yeshua.
Php 4:8 Finally, brethren and sistren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is anything excellent, if there is anything to be praised, think about these things.
Php 4:9 The things that you have learned, received, heard, and seen in me, do these things. And Yehowah of peace will be with you.
Php 4:10 I greatly rejoice in the Lord, because now at last you have renewed your concern for me. You had indeed been concerned for me before, but there was no opportunity for you to help.
Php 4:11 I am not saying this because I am in need. For I have learned to be content in all circumstances.
Php 4:12 I know what it is to be poor, and I also know what it is to have plenty. In every way and in all things, I have learned the secret of how to be well-fed or to be hungry, and how to have an abundance or to be in need.
Php 4:13 I can do all things through Messiah who strengthens me.
Php 4:14 However, you did well to share with me in my difficulties.
Php 4:15 And you know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the good news, when I left Macedonia, no congregation supported me in the matter of giving and receiving except you only.
Php 4:16 Even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent help for my needs more than once.
Php 4:17 It is not that I seek the gift. Instead, I seek the fruit that increases to your account.

Php 4:18 I have received all the things, and I have plenty. I have been filled. I have received from Epaphroditus the things from you. They are a sweet smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice pleasing to Yehowah.
Php 4:19 And Yehowah will fill every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Messiah Yeshua.
Php 4:20 Now to Yehowah our Father be the glory forever and ever. Amein.
Php 4:21 Greet every believer in Messiah Yeshua. The brothers who are with me greet you.
Php 4:22 All the believers here greet you, especially those of Caesar Nero's household.
Php 4:23 May the grace of Lord Yeshua Messiah be with your spirit. Amein.

Book of Colossians

Colossians Chapter 1

Col 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Yeshua Messiah through the will of Yehowah, and Timothy our brother,
Col 1:2 to the believers and faithful brethren and sistren in Messiah who are at Colossae (near modern Honaz, Turkey). May grace be to you, and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Col 1:3 We give thanks to Yehowah, the Father of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, and we always pray for you.
Col 1:4 We have heard of your faith in Messiah Yeshua, and of the unconditional selfless love that you have for all those set apart for Yehowah.
Col 1:5 You have this love, because of the hope reserved for you in Heaven. You heard about this confident expectation before in the Word of Truth, the good news,
Col 1:6 which has come to you. This good news is bearing fruit and is growing in all the world. It has been doing this in you also from the day you heard it and learned about the grace of Yehowah in truth.
Col 1:7 This is the good news as you learned it from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is the faithful servant of Messiah on our behalf.
Col 1:8 Epaphras has made known to us your unconditional selfless love in the Ruach.
Col 1:9 Because of this love, from the day we heard this, we have not stopped praying for you. We have been asking that you will be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.
Col 1:10 We have been praying that you will walk worthily of the Lord in pleasing Ways. We have been praying that you will bear fruit in every good deed, and that you will grow in the knowledge of Yehowah.
Col 1:11 We pray you may be strengthened in every ability according to the power of his glory into all perseverance and patience.
Col 1:12 We pray that you will joyfully give thanks to the Father, who has made you able to have a share in the inheritance of the believers in light.
Col 1:13 He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the Kingdom of his beloved Son.
Col 1:14 In his Son, we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins.

Col 1:15 The Son is the image of invisible Yehowah. He is the Firstborn of all creation.
Col 1:16 For by him all things were created, those in the heavens and those on the earth, the visible and the invisible things. Whether thrones or dominions or governments or authorities, all things were created by him and for him.
Col 1:17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.
Col 1:18 And he is the head of the body, the congregation (Acts 11:26). He is the beginning and the Firstborn from among the dead, so he has first place among all things.
Col 1:19 For Yehowah was pleased that all his fullness should live in him.
Col 1:20 Yehowah made peace through the blood of his cross. Yehowah reconciled all things to himself, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens.
Col 1:21 And you also, at one time, were strangers to Yehowah and were his enemies in mind and in evil deeds.
Col 1:22 But now he has reconciled you by his physical body through death. He did this in order to present you set-apart, blameless, and above reproach before him,
Col 1:23 if you continue in the faith, established and firm, not moved away from the hope of the good news that you heard. This is the good news that was proclaimed to every person created under the heavens. This is the good news of which I, Paul, became a servant.
Col 1:24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you. And I fill up in my flesh what is lacking of the afflictions of Messiah for the sake of his body, which is the congregation.
Col 1:25 It is of this congregation that I am a servant, according to the responsibility from Yehowah that was given to me for you, to fulfill the Word of Yehowah.
Col 1:26 This is the secret truth that was hidden for ages and for generations. But now it has been revealed to his set-apart people.
Col 1:27 It is to them that Yehowah wanted to make known the riches of the glory of this secret truth among the ethnicities. It is that Messiah is in you, the hope of glory.
Col 1:28 This is he Whom we proclaim. We admonish every person, and we teach every person with all wisdom, so that we may present every person complete in Messiah Yeshua.
Col 1:29 For this I labor and strive according to his energy that is at work in me in power (Deut. 34:7)!

Colossians Chapter 2

Col 2:1 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have had for you, for the adherents at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh.
Col 2:2 I work, so that their hearts may be encouraged by being brought together in unconditional selfless love and into all the riches of full assurance of understanding, into the knowledge of the secret truth of Father Yehowah and Messiah.
Col 2:3 In him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.
Col 2:4 I say this, so that no one may trick you with persuasive speech.
Col 2:5 And although I am not with you in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit. I rejoice to see your good order and the strength of your faith in Messiah.
Col 2:6 As you received Messiah Yeshua the Lord, walk in him.
Col 2:7 Be firmly planted in him, be built on him, be established in faith just as you were taught, and abound in thanksgiving.
Col 2:8 See that no one captures you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of humans, conforming to the elements of the world, and not conforming to Messiah.
Col 2:9 For in him lives all the fullness of Divinity bodily.
Col 2:10 And you are complete in him. He is the head of every power and authority.
Col 2:11 In him, you were also circumcised with a circumcision not done by humans in the removal of the body of sins of the flesh, but in the circumcision of Messiah.
Col 2:12 You were buried with him in immersion. And in him, you were raised up through faith in the power of Yehowah, who raised him from the dead.
Col 2:13 And when you were dead in your trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive together with him and forgave all of your trespasses.
Col 2:14 He erased the written record of sin debts found in the regulations that was against us and opposed us (Eph. 2:15). He removed the verdict of condemnation and nailed it to the cross.
Col 2:15 He disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, being victorious over them by the cross.
Col 2:16 So then, let no one but the body of Messiah judge you (1 Cor. 5:12; Acts 11:26) in eating or in drinking, or about an appointment calendar festival, or a new month (Num. 10:10), or about Sabbaths.
Col 2:17 These are a shadow of the things to come.

Col 2:18 Let no one who delights in false humility and the worship of angels judge you out of your prize. Such a person enters into the things he has not seen and becomes puffed up by his fleshly thinking.
Col 2:19 He does not hold on to the Head. It is from the Head that the whole body throughout its joints and ligaments is supplied and held together; it grows with the growth given by Yehowah.
Col 2:20 If you died together with Messiah to the elements of the world, why do you live in the world as though obligated to the oral traditions:
Col 2:21 “Do not handle, nor taste, nor touch?”
Col 2:22 All these things are destined for corruption with use, according to the instructions and teachings of humans.
Col 2:23 These rules have the wisdom of self-made religion, humility, and severity of the body. But they have no value against indulgence of the flesh.

Colossians Chapter 3

Col 3:2 Think about the things above, not about the things on earth.
Col 3:3 For you have died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in Yehowah.
Col 3:4 When Messiah appears, who is our life, then you will also appear with him in glory.
Col 3:5 Put to death, then, the members that are on earth, sexual immorality, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and greed, which is idolatry.
Col 3:6 It is for these things that the wrath of Yehowah is coming on the children of disobedience.
Col 3:7 It is in these things that you also once walked when you lived in them.
Col 3:8 But now you must get rid of all these things, wrath, anger, evil intentions, insults, and obscene speech from your mouth.
Col 3:9 Do not lie to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices,
Col 3:10 and you have put on the new self that is being made new in knowledge according to the image of the One who created it.
Col 3:11 This is where there is no Greek or Jew, circumcision or uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, or freeman, but Messiah is all and is in all.
Col 3:12 Put on then, as the chosen ones of Yehowah, set-apart and beloved, a heart of mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.
Col 3:13 Bear with one another. Be gracious to each other. If someone has a complaint against someone else, forgive in the same way that Messiah has forgiven you.
Col 3:14 Above all these things, have unconditional selfless love, which is the bond of perfection.
Col 3:15 Let the peace of Yehowah rule in your hearts. It was for this peace that you were called in one body. And be thankful.
Col 3:16 Let the word of Messiah live in you richly. With all wisdom, teach and admonish one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Sing with thankfulness in your hearts to Yehowah.
Col 3:17 And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of Lord Yeshua. Give thanks to Yehowah the Father through him.
Col 3:18 Wives, submit to your husbands, as it is appropriate in the Lord.
Col 3:19 Husbands, unconditionally selflessly love your wives and do not be bitter against them.
Col 3:20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is pleasing in the Lord.

Col 3:21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they will not be discouraged.
Col 3:22 Slaves, obey your masters according to the flesh in all things, not with eyeservice as people pleasers but with a sincere heart. Fear Yehowah.
Col 3:23 Whatever you do, work from your soul as to the Lord and not as to people.
Col 3:24 You know that you will receive from the Lord the Reward of Inheritance (ROI). It is the Lord Messiah whom you serve.
Col 3:25 For anyone who does unrighteousness will receive the penalty for the unrighteousness that he did, and there is no partiality.

Colossians Chapter 4

Col 4:1 Masters, give to slaves what is right and fair. You know that you also have a Master in Heaven.
Col 4:2 Continue steadfastly in prayer. Stay alert in it with thanksgiving.
Col 4:3 Pray together for us also, that Yehowah would open a door for the word, to speak the mysterious truth of Messiah. Because of this, I am chained up.
Col 4:4 And pray that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak.
Col 4:5 Walk in wisdom toward those outside and redeem the time.
Col 4:6 Let your words always be with grace. Let them be seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you should answer each person.
Col 4:7 As for the things concerning me, Tychicus will make them known to you. He is a beloved brother, a faithful servant, and fellow slave in the Lord.
Col 4:8 I sent him to you for this, that you might know the matters about us, and so that he may encourage your hearts.
Col 4:9 I sent him together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you everything that has happened here.
Col 4:10 Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, as well as Mark, the cousin of Barnabas, about whom you received orders; if he comes to you, receive him,
Col 4:11 and also Yehoshua who is called Justus. These alone of the circumcision are my fellow workers for the Kingdom of Yehowah. They have been a comfort to me.
Col 4:12 Epaphras greets you. He is one of you and a slave of Messiah. He always strives for you in prayer, so that you may stand complete and fully assured in all the will of Yehowah.
Col 4:13 For I bear witness of him, that he works hard for you, for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis.
Col 4:14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.
Col 4:15 Greet the brethren and sistren in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the congregation that is in his house (Acts 11:26).
Col 4:16 When this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the congregation of the Laodiceans, and see that you also read the letter from Laodicea.
Col 4:17 Say to Archippus, “Look to the ministry that you have received in the Lord, that you should fulfill it.”
Col 4:18 This greeting is with my own hand, Paul. Remember my imprisonment. May grace be with you. Amein.

Book of 1st Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians Chapter 1

1Th 1:1 Paul, Silas, and Timothy to the congregation of the Thessalonians in Father Yehowah and Lord Yeshua Messiah. May grace and peace be to you from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Th 1:2 We always give thanks to Yehowah for all of you, as we mention you in our prayers.
1Th 1:3 We remember without ceasing before Yehowah our Father your work of faith, labor of unconditional selfless love, and patient hope for the future in our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Th 1:4 Brethren and sistren unconditionally selflessly loved by Yehowah, we know he has chosen you,
1Th 1:5 because our good news came to you not in word only, but also in power, in Ruach ha'Kodesh, and in much assurance. In the same way, you also know what kind of men we were among you for your sake.
1Th 1:6 You became imitators of us and of the Lord, as you received the word in much hardship with joy from Ruach ha'Kodesh.
1Th 1:7 As a result, you became an example to all in Macedonia and Achaia who believe.
1Th 1:8 For from you, the Word of Yehowah has rung out and not only in Macedonia and Achaia. Instead, to every place your faith in Yehowah has gone out. As a result, we do not need to say anything.
1Th 1:9 For they themselves report what kind of coming we had among you. They tell how you turned to Yehowah from the idols to serve living and true Yehowah.
1Th 1:10 They report that you are waiting for his Son from Heaven, whom he raised from the dead. This is Yeshua, who rescues us from the wrath to come.

1 Thessalonians Chapter 2

1Th 2:1 For you yourselves know, brethren and sistren, that our coming to you was not useless.
1Th 2:2 You know that we previously suffered and were shamefully treated at Philippi. We were bold in Yehowah to speak to you the good news of Yehowah in much struggling.
1Th 2:3 For our exhortation was not from error, nor from impurity, nor from deceit.
1Th 2:4 Instead, just as we have been approved by Yehowah to be trusted with the good news, so we speak. We speak, not to please people, but to please Yehowah. He is the One who examines our hearts.
1Th 2:5 For we did not at any time use words as flattery, as you know, nor as a pretext for covetousness, as Yehowah is our witness.
1Th 2:6 Nor did we seek glory from people, either from you or from others. We could have claimed privileges as apostles of Messiah.
1Th 2:7 Instead, we were as gentle among you as a mother comforting her own children.
1Th 2:8 In this way, we had affection for you. We were pleased to share with you not only the good news of Yehowah but also our own lives. For you had become dear to us.
1Th 2:9 For you remember, brethren and sistren, our labor and toil. Night and day we were working, so that we might not weigh down any of you. During that time, we preached to you the good news of Yehowah.
1Th 2:10 You are witnesses, and Yehowah also, how purely, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe.
1Th 2:11 In the same way, you know how we dealt with each one of you as a father deals with his own children;
1Th 2:12 we were begging you, encouraging and urging you to walk in a manner that is worthy of Yehowah, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.
1Th 2:13 For this reason we also thank Yehowah constantly. For when you received from us the message of Yehowah that you heard, you accepted it not as the word of humans. Instead, you received it as it truly is, the Word of Yehowah. It is this word that is also at work in you who believe.
1Th 2:14 For you, brethren and sistren, became imitators of the Messianic congregations of Yehowah and Yeshua that are in Judea (Acts 11:26). For you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, as they did from the Jews.

1Th 2:15 It was the Jews who killed both Lord Yeshua and the prophets. It was the Jews who drove us out. They do not please Yehowah. Instead, they are hostile to all people.
1Th 2:16 They forbid us to speak to the ethnicities for them to be saved. The result is that they always fill up their own sins. Wrath must come on them in the end.
1Th 2:17 We were separated from you, brethren and sistren, for a short time, in person not in heart. We were especially eager, with great desire, to see your face.
1Th 2:18 For we wished to come to you, I, Paul, once and again, but Satan stopped us.
1Th 2:19 For what is our hope for the future, or joy, or crown of boasting in front of our Lord Yeshua Messiah at his coming? Is it not you just as much as others?
1Th 2:20 For you are our glory and our joy!

1 Thessalonians Chapter 3

1Th 3:1 Therefore, when we could no longer bear it, we thought it was good to be left behind at Athens alone.
1Th 3:2 We sent Brother Timothy, our fellow worker for Yehowah in the good news of Messiah, to strengthen and comfort you regarding your faith.
1Th 3:3 We did this, so that no one would be shaken by these sufferings. For yourselves know that for this we have been appointed.
1Th 3:4 Truly, when we were with you, we told you in advance that we were about to suffer affliction, and that happened, as you know.
1Th 3:5 For this reason, when I could no longer stand it, I sent, that I might know about your faith. Perhaps the Tempter had somehow tempted you, and our labor was in vain.
1Th 3:6 But Timothy came to us from you and brought us the good news of your faith and unconditional selfless love. He told us that you always have good memories of us, and that you long to see us just as we also long to see you.
1Th 3:7 Because of this, brethren and sistren, we were comforted by you because of your faith, in all our distress and affliction.
1Th 3:8 For now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord.
1Th 3:9 For what thanks can we give to Yehowah for you, for all the joy that we have before Yehowah over you?
1Th 3:10 Night and day we pray with intense diligence that we may see your face and provide what is lacking in your faith.
1Th 3:11 May our Father Yehowah himself, and our Lord Yeshua Messiah, direct our way to you.
1Th 3:12 May the Lord make you increase and abound in unconditional selfless love one for another and toward all people, as we also do for you.
1Th 3:13 May he strengthen your hearts, so that they will be blameless in consecration before our Father Yehowah, at the coming of our Lord Yeshua Messiah with all his set-apart ones.

1 Thessalonians Chapter 4

1Th 4:1 Finally, brethren and sistren, we encourage and exhort you in Lord Yeshua. As you received instructions from us about how you must walk and please Yehowah, also walk in this Way, so that you do so even more.
1Th 4:2 For you know what instructions we gave you through Lord Yeshua.
1Th 4:3 For this is the will of Yehowah, your sanctification, that you avoid sexual immorality,
1Th 4:4 that each of you know how to control his body in purity and honor,
1Th 4:5 not in the passion of lust, as the ethnicities who do not know Yehowah.
1Th 4:6 Let no one transgress and wrong his brother or sister in this matter. For Yehowah is an avenger in all these things, just as we forewarned you and testified.
1Th 4:7 For Yehowah did not call us to uncleanness but to purity.
1Th 4:8 Therefore, he who rejects this rejects not a human but Yehowah, who gives his Ruach Kodesh to you.
1Th 4:9 Regarding affectionate love, you have no need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by Yehowah to unconditionally selflessly love one another.
1Th 4:10 Indeed, you do this for all the brethren and sistren who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren and sistren, to do this even more.
1Th 4:11 We also exhort you to aspire to live quietly, mind your own business, and work with your hands, just as we commanded you.
1Th 4:12 Do this, so that you may walk properly in respect to those who are outside the faith, and so that you may have need of nothing.
1Th 4:13 We do not want you to misunderstand, brethren and sistren, about those who are dead, so that you do not grieve like the rest who do not have hope for the future.
1Th 4:14 For if we believe that Yeshua died and rose again, even so Yehowah will bring with Yeshua emissaries who have died in him.
1Th 4:15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord (Mat. 24:29-31), that we who are alive, who are left at the coming of Yeshua, will surely not precede emissaries who have died.
1Th 4:16 For Yeshua himself will descend from Heaven. He will come with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of Yehowah (1 Cor. 15:52; Mat. 24:31; Rev. 11:15; 20:5; Eze. 37:12), and the dead in Messiah will rise first.
1Th 4:17 Then, we living remaining brethren and sistren will together with them be caught up in the clouds to meet Yeshua in the breathable air. In this way, we will always be with the Lord.

1Th 4:18 Therefore, comfort one another with these words.

1 Thessalonians Chapter 5

1Th 5:1 Now concerning the times and appointment calendar festivals, brethren and sistren, you have no need that anything be written to you.
1Th 5:2 For you yourselves know perfectly well that the Day of Yehowah is coming like a thief in the night.
1Th 5:3 When they say, “Peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come on them. It will be like birth pains in a pregnant woman. They will in no way escape.
1Th 5:4 But you, brethren and sistren, are not in darkness, so that the Day would overtake you like a thief.
1Th 5:5 For you are all children of the light and children of the day. We are not children of the night or the darkness.
1Th 5:6 So then, let us not sleep as the rest do. Instead, let us keep watch and be sober.
1Th 5:7 For those who sleep do so at night, and those who get drunk do so at night.
1Th 5:8 But since we belong to the day, we must stay sober and put on faith and unconditional selfless love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation for our helmet (Isa. 59:17; Eph. 6:17).
1Th 5:9 For Yehowah did not destine us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Th 5:10 It is he who died for us, so that whether we are alive or dead, we may live together with him.
1Th 5:11 Therefore, comfort one another and build each other up, just as you are already doing.
1Th 5:12 We ask you, brethren and sistren, to acknowledge those who labor among you, and who are over you in the Lord, and who warn you.
1Th 5:13 We also ask you to regard them highly in unconditional selfless love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.
1Th 5:14 We exhort you, brethren and sistren: Warn the disorderly, encourage the discouraged, help the weak, be patient toward all.
1Th 5:15 See that no one pay back evil for evil to anyone. Instead, pursue what is good for one another and for all.
1Th 5:16 Rejoice always!
1Th 5:17 Pray without ceasing.
1Th 5:18 In everything give thanks. For this is the will of Yehowah in Messiah Yeshua for you.
1Th 5:19 Do not quench the Ruach.
1Th 5:20 Do not despise prophecies.

1Th 5:21 Test all things. Hold on to what is good.
1Th 5:22 Avoid every appearance of evil.
1Th 5:23 May Yehowah of peace completely consecrate you. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved without blame for the coming of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Th 5:24 Faithful is he who calls you, the One who will also do it.
1Th 5:25 Brethren and sistren, pray also for us.
1Th 5:26 Greet all the brethren and sistren with a set-apart kiss.
1Th 5:27 I request of you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the set-apart brethren and sistren.
1Th 5:28 May the grace of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be with you. Amein.

Book of 2nd Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians Chapter 1

2Th 1:1 Paul, Silas, and Timothy, to the congregation of the Thessalonians in Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
2Th 1:2 May grace be to you and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
2Th 1:3 We should always give thanks to Yehowah for you, brethren and sistren. For this is appropriate, because your faith is growing exceedingly, and the unconditional selfless love of each of you abounds for one another.
2Th 1:4 So we ourselves speak proudly about you among the congregations of Yehowah. We talk about your patience and faith in all your persecutions. We talk about the afflictions that you endure.
2Th 1:5 This is a sign of the righteous judgment of Yehowah. The result is that you will be considered worthy of the Kingdom of Yehowah for which you suffer.
2Th 1:6 It is righteous for Yehowah to return affliction to those who afflict you,
2Th 1:7 and relief to you who are afflicted with us. He will do this at the appearing of Lord Yeshua from Heaven with the angels of his power.
2Th 1:8 In flaming fire, he will take vengeance on those who do not know Yehowah, and on those who do not respond to the good news of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
2Th 1:9 They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power.
2Th 1:10 He will do this when he comes on that Day to be glorified in his set-apart people and to be marveled at by all those who believe in that Day. For our testimony to you was believed.
2Th 1:11 Because of this, we also pray continually for you. We pray that Yehowah will consider you worthy of your calling. We pray that he will fulfill every desire of goodness and every work of faith with power.
2Th 1:12 We pray these things, so that the name of our Lord Yeshua Messiah may be glorified by you. We pray that you will be glorified by him because of the grace of Yehowah and Lord Yeshua Messiah.

2 Thessalonians Chapter 2

2Th 2:1 Now about the coming of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, even our being gathered together to be with him: We ask you, brethren and sistren,
2Th 2:2 that you not be easily disturbed or troubled, either by a spirit, by a message, or by a letter that seems to be coming from us, to the effect that the Day of Messiah has already come.
2Th 2:3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not come, until after the falling away comes, then the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction (Antimessiah).
2Th 2:4 This is he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is a so-called deity or that is worshiped. As a result, he as Yehowah sits in the temple of Yehowah (Rev. 11:1) and exhibits himself as Yehowah (Dan. 8:11; 11:31, 36-37; Mat. 24:15).
2Th 2:5 Do you not remember that when I was with you I told you these things?
2Th 2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already working, only there is someone who restrains him now, until he is out of the way.
2Th 2:8 Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom Lord Yeshua will kill with the Ruach of his mouth. The Lord will bring him to nothing by the manifestation of his coming.
2Th 2:9 The lawless one's coming will be due to the work of Satan with all power, signs, and false wonders,
2Th 2:10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness. These things will be for those who are perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth for them to be saved.
2Th 2:11 For this reason, Yehowah is sending them a work of error, so that they would believe a lie.
2Th 2:12 The result is that they will all be judged, those who did not believe the truth but instead took pleasure in unrighteousness.
2Th 2:15 So then brethren and sistren, stand firm. Grasp the traditions that you were taught, whether by word or by our letter.

2Th 2:16 Now may our Lord Yeshua Messiah himself, and Yehowah our Father who unconditionally selflessly loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope for the future through grace, 2Th 2:17 comfort and establish your hearts in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians Chapter 3

2Th 3:1 And now, brethren and sistren, pray for us, that the Word of Yehowah may spread quickly and be honored, as it also is with you.
2Th 3:2 Pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil people, for not all have faith.
2Th 3:3 But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one.
2Th 3:4 We have confidence in the Lord about you, that you both do and will continue to do the things that we command.
2Th 3:5 May the Lord direct your hearts to the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah and to the endurance of Messiah.
2Th 3:6 Now we command you, brethren and sistren, in the name of our Lord Yeshua Messiah, that you avoid every brother or sister who lives idly and not according to the traditions that you received from us.
2Th 3:7 For you yourselves know it is proper for you to imitate us. We did not live among you as those who had no discipline.
2Th 3:8 And we did not eat anyone's food without paying for it. Instead, we worked night and day in difficult labor and hardship, so we might not be a burden to any of you.
2Th 3:9 We did this, not because we have no authority. Instead, we did this in order to be an example to you, so that you may imitate us.
2Th 3:10 When we were with you, we commanded you, "If any one does not want to work, he should not eat."
2Th 3:11 For we hear that some walk idly among you. They do not work but are instead meddlers.
2Th 3:12 Now such ones we command and exhort in Lord Yeshua Messiah, that they should work with quietness and eat their own food.
2Th 3:13 But you, brethren and sistren, do not lose heart in doing what is right.
2Th 3:14 If anyone does not obey our word in this letter, take note of him and have no association with him, so that he may be ashamed.
2Th 3:15 Do not consider him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.
2Th 3:16 May the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. May Yehowah be with you all.
2Th 3:17 This is my greeting, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter. This is how I write.
2Th 3:18 May the grace of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be with you all. Amein.

Book of 1st Timothy

1 Timothy Chapter 1

1Ti 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Yeshua Messiah according to the commandment of Yehowah our Savior and Lord Yeshua Messiah our hope,
1Ti 1:2 to Timothy, a true son in the faith: grace, mercy, and peace from Yehowah our Father and Yeshua Messiah our Lord.
1Ti 1:3 As I urged you to do when I was leaving for Macedonia, remain in Ephesus, so that you can command certain people not to teach a different doctrine.
1Ti 1:4 Neither should they pay attention to stories and endless genealogies. These cause arguments rather than helping the plan of Yehowah, which is by faith.
1Ti 1:5 Now the goal of the commandment is unconditional selfless love from a pure heart, from a good conscience, and from a sincere faith.
1Ti 1:6 Some people have missed the mark and have turned away from these things to foolish talk.
1Ti 1:7 They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not understand what they say or what they insist on.
1Ti 1:8 But we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully (in the administration of justice).
1Ti 1:9 And we know this, that law is not made for a righteous person, but for a lawless and rebellious people, for wicked people and sinners, and for those who are wicked and profane. It is made for those who murder their fathers and mothers, for murderers,
1Ti 1:10 for sexually immoral people, for homosexuals, for those who kidnap people for slaves, for liars, for false witnesses, and for whatever else is against faithful instruction.
1Ti 1:11 This instruction is according to the glorious good news of blessed Yehowah with which I have been entrusted.
1Ti 1:12 I thank Messiah Yeshua our Lord. He strengthened me, for he considered me faithful, and he placed me into service.
1Ti 1:13 I was a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a violent man. But I received mercy, because I acted ignorantly in unbelief.
1Ti 1:14 But the grace of our Lord overflowed with faith and unconditional selfless love that is in Messiah Yeshua.

1Ti 1:15 This message is reliable and worthy of all acceptance, that Messiah Yeshua came into the world to save sinners. I am the worst of these.
1Ti 1:16 But for this reason I was given mercy, so that in me, the foremost, Yeshua Messiah, might demonstrate all long-tempered patience. He did this as an example for those who would trust in him for eternal life.
1Ti 1:17 Now to the King of the ages, the immortal, invisible, only wise Yehowah, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amein.
1Ti 1:18 I am placing this command before you, Timothy, my child. I am doing this in accordance with the prophecies previously made about you, so that you might engage in the good fight.
1Ti 1:19 Do this, so that you may have faith and a good conscience. Some people have rejected these and have been shipwrecked in respect to the faith.
1Ti 1:20 Such are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I gave over to Satan, so that they may be taught not to blaspheme.

1 Timothy Chapter 2

1Ti 2:1 Therefore, first of all, I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people,
1Ti 2:2 for kings and all who are in authority, in order that we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all reverence and dignity.
1Ti 2:3 This is good and acceptable before Yehowah our Savior.
1Ti 2:4 He desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
1Ti 2:5 For Yehowah is Oneness, and there is one mediator for Yehowah and people, the man Messiah Yeshua.
1Ti 2:6 He gave himself as a ransom for all, as the testimony at his appointed time.
1Ti 2:7 For this purpose, I myself was made a herald and an apostle. I am telling the truth in Messiah. I am not lying. I am a teacher of the ethnicities in faith and truth.
1Ti 2:8 Therefore, I want men in every place to pray and to lift up consecrated hands without anger or arguing.
1Ti 2:9 Likewise, I want the women to dress themselves in proper clothing, with modesty and self-control. They should not have braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or expensive clothing.
1Ti 2:10 I want them to dress with what is appropriate for women who profess reverence towards Yehowah through good works.
1Ti 2:11 A woman should learn in silence and in all compliance.
1Ti 2:12 I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man, but to live in quietness.
1Ti 2:13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.
1Ti 2:14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman was completely deceived in transgression.
1Ti 2:15 However, women will be saved through bearing children, if they continue in faith, unconditional selfless love, and sanctification with soundness of mind.

1 Timothy Chapter 3

1Ti 3:1 This saying is trustworthy: If someone aspires to be an overseer, he desires a good work.
1Ti 3:2 Therefore, the overseer must be without reproach. He must be a husband of one wife. He must be moderate, sensible, orderly, hospitable. He must be able to teach.
1Ti 3:3 He must not be addicted to wine, not a brawler, not covetous, but instead, gentle, peaceful. He must not be a lover of money.
1Ti 3:4 He should manage his own household well, and his children should obey him with all respect.
1Ti 3:5 For if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for a congregation of Yehowah?
1Ti 3:6 He should not be a new convert, so that he does not swell with pride and fall into condemnation as the Devil.
1Ti 3:7 He must also have a good reputation with those outside, so that he does not fall into disgrace and the trap of the Devil.
1Ti 3:8 Deacons, likewise, should be dignified, not double-talkers. They should not drink too much wine or be greedy for money.
1Ti 3:9 They should keep the mysterious truth of the faith with a pure conscience.
1Ti 3:10 They should also be approved first, then they should serve as a deacon, because they are blameless.
1Ti 3:11 Wives, in the same way, should be dignified. They should not be slanderers. They should be moderate and faithful in all things.
1Ti 3:12 Deacons must be husbands of one wife. They must manage well their children and household.
1Ti 3:13 For those who have served as a deacon well, acquire for themselves a good standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Messiah Yeshua.
1Ti 3:14 I am writing these things to you, and I hope to come to you soon.
1Ti 3:15 But if I delay, I am writing so that you may know how to behave in the household of Yehowah, which is the congregation of living Yehowah, the pillar and support of the truth.
1Ti 3:16 And it is undeniable that the revealed truth of reverence is great: "Yehowah was manifest in the flesh, was justified by the Ruach, was seen by angels, was proclaimed among ethnicities, was believed on in the world, and was taken up in glory."

1 Timothy Chapter 4

1Ti 4:1 Now the Ruach clearly says that in later times some people will leave the faith and pay attention to deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons
1Ti 4:2 in lying hypocrisy. Their own consciences will be cauterized.
1Ti 4:3 They will forbid to marry and refrain from foods that Yehowah created for sharing with thanksgiving among those who believe, and who know the truth (Lev. 11; 20:25; Deut. 14).
1Ti 4:4 For everything created by Yehowah is good. Nothing that we take with thanksgiving is to be rejected.
1Ti 4:5 For it is sanctified by the Word of Yehowah and prayer.
1Ti 4:6 If you place these things before the brethren and sistren, you will be a good servant of Yeshua Messiah. For you are being nourished by the words of faith and by the good teaching that you have followed.
1Ti 4:7 But reject worldly stories loved by old women. Instead, train yourself in reverence.
1Ti 4:8 For bodily training is a little useful, but reverence is useful for all things. It holds promise for this life now and the life to come.
1Ti 4:9 This message is trustworthy and worthy of full acceptance.
1Ti 4:10 For it is for this that we struggle and work hard. For we have confidence in living Yehowah, who is the Savior of all people, but especially of believers.
1Ti 4:11 Proclaim and teach these things.
1Ti 4:12 Let no one despise your youth. Instead, be an example for those who believe, in speech, conduct, unconditional selfless love, in spirit, faithfulness, and purity.
1Ti 4:13 Until I come, attend to the reading (weekly Torah portion; Heb. 1:1; Luke 4:16-20), to the exhortation, and to the teaching.
1Ti 4:14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders.
1Ti 4:15 Practice these things. Be in them, so that your progress may be evident to all people.
1Ti 4:16 Give careful attention to yourself and to the teaching. Continue in these things. For by doing so, you will save yourself and those who listen to you.

1 Timothy Chapter 5

1Ti 5:1 Do not scold an older man. Instead, exhort him as if he were a father. Exhort younger men as if they were brothers.
1Ti 5:2 Exhort older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters in all purity.
1Ti 5:3 Honor widows, the real widows.
1Ti 5:4 But if a widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show honor in their own household. Let them repay their parents, because this is pleasing to Yehowah.
1Ti 5:5 But a real widow is left all alone. She puts her confidence in Yehowah. She always remains with requests and prayers both night and day.
1Ti 5:6 However, the woman who lives for pleasure is dead, even though she is still alive.
1Ti 5:7 And preach these things, so that they may be without reproach.
1Ti 5:8 But if someone does not provide for his own widows, especially for those his own relatives, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.
1Ti 5:9 Let a woman be enrolled as a widow who is not younger than sixty, a wife of one husband.
1Ti 5:10 She must be known for good deeds, whether it is that she has cared for children, or has been hospitable to foreigners, or has washed the feet of the believers, or has relieved the afflicted, or has been devoted to every good work.
1Ti 5:11 But as for younger widows, refuse to enroll them in the list. For when they give in to bodily desires against Messiah, they want to marry.
1Ti 5:12 In this way, they incur guilt, because they revoke their first commitment.
1Ti 5:13 They also become accustomed to being idle. They go around from house to house. Not only do they become idle, but they also become gossips and meddlesome. They say things they should not say.
1Ti 5:14 I therefore want younger women to marry, to bear children, to manage the household, in order to give the adversary no opportunity to accuse us of doing evil.
1Ti 5:15 For some have already turned aside after Satan.
1Ti 5:16 If any trustworthy believers have widows, let them help them, so that the congregation will not be weighed down, so that it might help the real widows.
1Ti 5:17 Let the elders who rule well be considered worthy of double honor (gifts, rewards), especially those who work with the word and in teaching.
1Ti 5:18 For the Scripture says, “You will not put a muzzle on an ox while it treads the grain” (Deut. 25:4), and, “The laborer is worthy of his wages” (Mat. 10:10).

1Ti 5:19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder unless there are two or three witnesses.
1Ti 5:20 Correct sinners before all, so that the rest may be afraid.
1Ti 5:21 I solemnly command you before Yehowah and before Lord Yeshua Messiah and their chosen angels, that you keep these commands without prejudice, and that you do nothing out of favoritism.
1Ti 5:22 Place hands hastily on no one. Do not share in the sins of another person. You should keep yourself pure.
1Ti 5:23 You should no longer drink water. Instead, you should take a little wine for your stomach and your frequent sicknesses.
1Ti 5:24 The sins of some people are openly known, and they go before them into judgment. But some sins follow them later.
1Ti 5:25 Likewise, some good works are openly known, but even the others cannot be hidden.

1 Timothy Chapter 6

1Ti 6:1 Let all who are under the yoke as slaves regard their own masters as worthy of all honor. They should do this, so that the name of Yehowah and the teaching might not be blasphemed.
1Ti 6:2 The slaves who have believing masters should not disrespect them, because they are brothers. Instead, they should serve them all the more. For the masters who are helped by their work are believers and are loved. Teach and declare these things.
1Ti 6:3 Suppose that someone teaches differently and does not accept our faithful instruction, that is, the words of our Lord Yeshua Messiah. Suppose that they do not accept the teaching that leads to reverence.
1Ti 6:4 That person is proud and knows nothing. Instead, he is sick with controversies and arguments about words. These words result in envy, strife, insults, evil suspicions, 1Ti 6:5 and the constant conflict between people with depraved minds. They turn away from truth. They think that reverence is a way to become rich. Remove yourself from these sorts of people.
1Ti 6:6 Now reverence with contentment is great gain.
1Ti 6:7 For we have brought nothing into the world. Neither are we able to take out anything.
1Ti 6:8 Instead, let us be satisfied with food and clothing.
1Ti 6:9 Now those who want to become wealthy fall into temptation, into a trap. They fall into many foolish and harmful passions, and into whatever else makes people sink into ruin and destruction.
1Ti 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all evil (Eccl. 5:10; Heb. 13:5). Some people who desire it have been misled away from the faith and have pierced themselves with much grief.
1Ti 6:11 But you, man of Yehowah, flee from these things. Pursue righteousness, reverence, faithfulness, unconditional selfless love, endurance, and gentleness.
1Ti 6:12 Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of the everlasting life to which you were called. It was about this that you gave witness before many witnesses as to what is good.
1Ti 6:13 I give you this command before Yehowah, who causes all things to live, and before Messiah Yeshua, who spoke what is true to Pontius Pilate:
1Ti 6:14 Keep the commandment perfectly, without reproach, until the appearance of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
1Ti 6:15 Yehowah will reveal his appearing at the right time, Yehowah, the Blessed One, the only Authority, the King who reigns, the Lord who rules.

1Ti 6:16 Only he has immortality and dwells in inapproachable light. No person sees him or is able to view him. To him be honor and eternal power. Amein.
1Ti 6:17 Tell the rich in this world not to be proud and not to hope in riches, which are uncertain. Instead, they should hope in Yehowah. He offers to us all the true riches to enjoy.
1Ti 6:18 Tell them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, and willing to share.
1Ti 6:19 In that Way, they will store up for themselves a good foundation for what is to come, so that they will take hold of eternal life.
1Ti 6:20 Timothy, protect what was given to you. Avoid the foolish talk and contradictory arguments of what is falsely called knowledge.
1Ti 6:21 Some men proclaim these things, and so they have missed the faith. May grace be with you. Amein.

Book of 2nd Timothy

2 Timothy Chapter 1

2Ti 1:1 Paul, an apostle of Yeshua Messiah through the will of Yehowah, according to the promise of the life that is in Messiah Yeshua, 2Ti 1:2 to Timothy (c. 67 AD), beloved child: grace, mercy, and peace from Yehowah the Father and Messiah Yeshua our Lord.
2Ti 1:3 I thank Yehowah, whom I serve from my forefathers with a clean conscience, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day.
2Ti 1:4 As I remember your tears, I long to see you, that I may be filled with joy.
2Ti 1:5 I have been reminded of your genuine faith, which lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice. And I am convinced that it lives in you also.
2Ti 1:6 This is the reason I am reminding you to rekindle the gift of Yehowah in you through the laying on of my hands.
2Ti 1:7 For Yehowah did not give us the spirit of fear but of power, unconditional selfless love, and discipline.
2Ti 1:8 So do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me, Paul, his prisoner. Instead, share in suffering for the good news according to the power of Yehowah.
2Ti 1:9 It is Yehowah who saved us and called us with a set-apart calling. He did this, not according to our works, but according to his own plan and grace. He gave us these things in Messiah Yeshua before times ever began.
2Ti 1:10 But now the salvation of Yehowah has been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Yeshua Messiah, who put an end to death and brought life that never ends to light through the good news.
2Ti 1:11 Because of this, I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the ethnicities.
2Ti 1:12 For this cause, I also suffer these things. But I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed. I am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have entrusted to him until that Day.
2Ti 1:13 Keep the example of faithful messages that you heard from me, with the faith and unconditional selfless love that are in Messiah Yeshua.
2Ti 1:14 The good thing that Yehowah committed to you, guard it through Ruach ha'Kodesh, who lives in us.
2Ti 1:15 You know this, that all who live in Asia turned away from me. In this group are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

2Ti 1:16 May Yehowah grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my imprisonment.
2Ti 1:17 Instead, when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and he found me.
2Ti 1:18 May Yehowah grant to him to find mercy from the Lord on that Day. And all the ways he helped me in Ephesus, you know well enough.

2 Timothy Chapter 2

2Ti 2:1 You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Messiah Yeshua.
2Ti 2:2 And the things you heard from me among many witnesses, entrust them to faithful people, who will be able to teach others also.
2Ti 2:3 Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Yeshua Messiah.
2Ti 2:4 No soldier serves while entangled in the affairs of this life, so that he may please his superior officer.
2Ti 2:5 Also, if someone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned unless he competes by the rules.
2Ti 2:6 It is necessary that the hardworking farmer receive his share of the crops first.
2Ti 2:7 Think about what I am saying, for Yehowah will give you understanding in everything.
2Ti 2:8 Remember Yeshua Messiah, from David's seed, who was raised from the dead. This is according to my good news message,
2Ti 2:9 for which I am suffering to the point of being chained as a criminal. But the Word of Yehowah is not chained.
2Ti 2:10 Therefore, I endure all things for those who are chosen, so that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Messiah Yeshua, with eternal glory.
2Ti 2:11 This saying is trustworthy: "If we have died with him, we will also live with him.
2Ti 2:12 If we endure, we will also reign with him. If we deny him, he also will deny us.
2Ti 2:13 If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself."
2Ti 2:14 Keep reminding them of these things. Warn them before Yehowah not to quarrel about words. Because of this, there is nothing useful. Because of this, there is destruction for those who listen.
2Ti 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to Yehowah as one approved, a worker who has no reason to be ashamed, who accurately teaches the Word of Truth (Psa. 119).
2Ti 2:16 Avoid profane talk, which leads to more and more wickedness.
2Ti 2:17 Their talk will spread like gangrene. Among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus.
2Ti 2:18 These are men who have missed the truth. They say that the resurrection has already happened. They overturn the faith of some.
2Ti 2:19 However, the firm foundation of Yehowah stands. It has this inscription: "The Lord knows those who are his." And, "Everyone who names the name of Messiah must depart from unrighteousness."

2Ti 2:20 In a wealthy home, there are not only containers of gold and silver. There are also containers of wood and clay. Some of these are for honorable use and some for dishonorable.
2Ti 2:21 If someone cleans himself from dishonorable use, he is an honorable container. He is set apart, useful to the Absolute Master and prepared for every good work.
2Ti 2:22 Flee youthful lusts. Pursue righteousness, faith, unconditional selfless love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
2Ti 2:23 But refuse foolish and ignorant questions. You know that they give birth to arguments.
2Ti 2:24 The servant of the Lord must not quarrel. Instead, he must be gentle toward all, able to teach, and patient.
2Ti 2:25 He must in meekness educate those who oppose him. Yehowah may perhaps give them repentance for the knowledge of the truth.
2Ti 2:26 They may become sober again and leave the Devil's trap, after they have been captured by him for his will.

2 Timothy Chapter 3

2Ti 3:1 But know this: In the last days, there will be difficult times.
2Ti 3:2 For people will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, and profane.
2Ti 3:3 They will be without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, violent, not lovers of good.
2Ti 3:4 They will be betrayers, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of Yehowah.
2Ti 3:5 They will have a semblance of reverence, but they will deny its power. Turn away from these people.
2Ti 3:6 For some of them are men who enter into homes and captivate foolish women. These are women who are heaped up with sins and are led away by various desires.
2Ti 3:7 These women are always learning, but they are never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
2Ti 3:8 In the same way that Jannes and Jambres stood against Moses (Exo. 7:11; 7:22; 8:7), these false teachers also stand against the truth. They are people destroyed in mind, unapproved regarding the faith.
2Ti 3:9 But they will not advance far. For their foolishness will be obvious to all, just like that of those men.
2Ti 3:10 But as for you, you have followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, long-suffering, unconditional selfless love, patience,
2Ti 3:11 persecutions, sufferings, and what happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra. I endured persecutions. Out of them all, the Lord rescued me.
2Ti 3:12 All those who want to live reverently in Messiah Yeshua will be persecuted.
2Ti 3:13 Evil people and wizards will grow more and more evil. They will lead others astray. They themselves are being led astray.
2Ti 3:14 But as for you, remain in the things that you have learned and have firmly believed. You know from whom you have learned.
2Ti 3:15 You know that from childhood you have known the Set-apart Scriptures. These are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Messiah Yeshua.
2Ti 3:16 All Scripture is Yehowah-breathed. It is profitable for doctrine, for conviction, for correction, and for training in righteousness (Dan. 10:21).
2Ti 3:17 This is so that the person of Yehowah may be competent, equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy Chapter 4

2Ti 4:1 I give this command before Yehowah and Lord Yeshua Messiah, who will judge the living and the dead because of his appearing and his kingdom:
2Ti 4:2 Preach the Word. Be ready when it is convenient, and when it is not. Reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all patience and teaching.
2Ti 4:3 For the time will come when people will not endure sound teaching. Instead, they will heap up for themselves teachers according to their own desires. They will be tickling their ears.
2Ti 4:4 They will turn their hearing away from the truth, and they will turn aside to myths.
2Ti 4:5 But you be sober minded in all things. Suffer hardship; do the work of an evangelist; fulfill your service.
2Ti 4:6 For I am already being poured out. The time of my departure has come (c. 68 AD; Paul martyred in spring).
2Ti 4:7 I have competed in the good contest; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.
2Ti 4:8 The crown of righteousness has been reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day. And not to me only, but also to all adherents who have loved his appearing.
2Ti 4:9 Do your best to come to me quickly.
2Ti 4:10 For Demas has left me. He loves this present world and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens went to Galatia, and Titus went to Dalmatia (modern Croatia).
2Ti 4:11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is useful to me in the work.
2Ti 4:12 Tychicus I sent to Ephesus.
2Ti 4:13 The coat that I left at Troas with Carpus, bring it when you come, and the Books, especially the parchments.
2Ti 4:14 Alexander the coppersmith displayed many evil deeds against me. Yehowah will repay to him according to his deeds.
2Ti 4:15 You also should guard yourself against him, because he greatly opposed our words.
2Ti 4:16 At my first defense, no one stood with me. Instead, everyone left me. May it not be counted against them.
2Ti 4:17 But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me so that, through me, the proclamation might be fully accomplished, and that all the ethnicities might hear. I was rescued out of the lion’s mouth.
2Ti 4:18 Yehowah will rescue me from every evil deed and will save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amein.

2Ti 4:19 Greet Priscilla, Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
2Ti 4:20 Erastus remained at Corinth, but Trophimus I left sick at Miletus.
2Ti 4:21 Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, also Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brethren and sistren.
2Ti 4:22 May Lord Yeshua Messiah be with your spirit. May grace be with you. Amein.

Book of Titus

Titus Chapter 1

Tit 1:1 Paul, a servant of Yehowah and an apostle of Yeshua Messiah, for the faith of the chosen people of Yehowah and the knowledge of the truth that agrees with reverence,
Tit 1:2 with the hope of everlasting life that Yehowah, who does not lie, promised before all the ages of time.
Tit 1:3 At the appointed time, he revealed his word by the message that he trusted me to deliver. I was to do this by the command of Yehowah our Savior.
Tit 1:4 To Titus, a true son in our common faith. Grace, mercy, and peace from Yehowah the Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah our Savior.
Tit 1:5 For this purpose I left you in Crete (c. 63-67 AD; 5th missionary journey), that you might set in order things not yet complete, and ordain elders in every city as I directed you.
Tit 1:6 An elder must be without blame, the husband of one wife, with faithful children not accused of being wicked or undisciplined.
Tit 1:7 It is necessary for the overseer, as the household manager of Yehowah, to be blameless. He must not be arrogant. He must not be easily angered, not addicted to wine, not a brawler, and not a man greedy for money.
Tit 1:8 Instead, he should be hospitable, a friend of what is good. He must be sensible, righteous, set-apart, and self-controlled.
Tit 1:9 He should hold tightly to the trustworthy message that was taught, so that he may be able to encourage others with good teaching and correct those who oppose him.
Tit 1:10 For there are many rebellious people, especially those of the circumcision. Their words are worthless. They deceive and lead people in the wrong direction.
Tit 1:11 It is necessary to stop them. They teach what they should not teach for shameful profit and break up whole families.
Tit 1:12 One of them, a wise man of theirs, said, “Cretans are unceasing liars, worthless and dangerous animals, lazy bellies.”
Tit 1:13 This statement is true, so correct them severely, so that they may be sound in the faith.
Tit 1:14 Do not pay any attention to Jewish myths or to the commandments of humans who turn back the truth.

Tit 1:15 To those who are pure, all things are pure. But to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, nothing is pure. For their minds and consciences have been corrupted.
Tit 1:16 They profess to know Yehowah, but they deny him by their deeds. They are detestable and disobedient. They are unapproved for any good deed.

Titus Chapter 2

Tit 2:1 But you, say what fits with faithful instruction.
Tit 2:2 Older men must be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in unconditional selfless love, and in perseverance.
Tit 2:3 Older women likewise should always present themselves as reverent, not slanderers. They should not be enslaved to much wine. They should teach what is good,
Tit 2:4 in order to train the younger women to affectionately love their own husbands and children.
Tit 2:5 They should train them to be sensible, pure, good housekeepers, and obedient to their own husbands. They should do these things, so that the Word of Yehowah may not be insulted.
Tit 2:6 In the same way, encourage the younger men to be sensible.
Tit 2:7 In all ways, present yourself as a model of good works; and when you teach, show purity, integrity, and dignity.
Tit 2:8 Speak a message that is sound and blameless, so that anyone who is opposed may be put to shame, because he has nothing bad to say about us.
Tit 2:9 Slaves are to obey their masters in all things. They are to please them and not argue with them.
Tit 2:10 They should not pilfer. Instead, they should show all good faith, so that in every way, they adorn the teaching of Yehowah our Savior.
Tit 2:11 For the saving grace of Yehowah has appeared to all people.
Tit 2:12 It trains us to deny wickedness and worldly passions. It trains us to live sensibly, righteously, and reverently in this present age, Tit 2:13 while we look forward to receiving our blessed hope and the appearance of the glory of great Yehowah and our Savior Yeshua Messiah.
Tit 2:14 Yeshua gave himself for us, in order to redeem us from all lawlessness and to make pure, for himself, a special people who are eager to do good works.
Tit 2:15 Speak of and encourage these things. Give correction with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

Titus Chapter 3

Tit 3:1 Remind them to submit to rulers and authorities, to obey them, to be ready for every good work.
Tit 3:2 Remind them to revile no one, to avoid fighting, to let other people have their way, and to show humility to all people.
Tit 3:3 For once we ourselves were thoughtless and disobedient. We were led astray and enslaved by various passions and pleasures. We lived in evil and envy. We were detestable and hated one another.
Tit 3:4 But when the kindness of Yehowah our Savior and his love for mankind appeared,
Tit 3:5 it was not by works of righteousness that we did, but by his mercy that he saved us. He saved us through the washing of new birth and renewal by Ruach ha'Kodesh.
Tit 3:6 Yehowah richly poured Ruach ha'Kodesh on us through our Savior Yeshua Messiah (John 3:6-7).
Tit 3:7 He did this in order that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs through the hope of eternal life.
Tit 3:8 This message is trustworthy. I want you to speak confidently about these things, so that those who trust Yehowah may be intent on the good works that he put before them. These things are good and profitable for all people.
Tit 3:9 But avoid foolish debates, genealogies, strife, and conflict about the law. Those things are worthless and unprofitable.
Tit 3:10 Reject anyone who is causing divisions among you, after one or two warnings,
Tit 3:11 and know that such a one has turned from the right Way and is sinning and condemns himself.
Tit 3:12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry and come to me at Nicopolis, where I have decided to spend the winter (c. 63-67 AD).
Tit 3:13 Hurry and send Zenas, the expert in the law, and Apollos, in a way that they lack nothing.
Tit 3:14 Our people must learn to engage in good works that meet urgent needs, so that they may not be unfruitful.
Tit 3:15 All those who are with me greet you. Greet those who affectionately love us in faith. Grace be with all of you. Amein.

Book of Philemon

Philemon Chapter 1

Phm 1:1 Paul, a prisoner of Yeshua Messiah, and brother Timothy to Philemon, our dear friend and fellow worker,
Phm 1:2 and to Apphia our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the congregation that meets in your home.
Phm 1:3 May grace be to you and peace from Yehowah our Father and Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Phm 1:4 I always thank Yehowah, as I mention you in my prayers.
Phm 1:5 I have heard of the unconditional selfless love and the faith that you have in Lord Yeshua and for all the believers.
Phm 1:6 I pray that the fellowship of your faith may be effective for the knowledge of everything good that is in you for Messiah Yeshua.
Phm 1:7 For I have had much joy and comfort because of your unconditional selfless love, because the hearts of the believers have been refreshed by you, brother.
Phm 1:8 Therefore, although I have all the boldness in Messiah to command you to do what you should do,
Phm 1:9 yet because of unconditional selfless love, I appeal to you instead, I, Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner for Yeshua Messiah.
Phm 1:10 I am asking you concerning my child Onesimus, whom I have fathered in during my imprisonment.
Phm 1:11 For he once was useless to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me.
Phm 1:12 I have sent him back to you, therefore receive him, he who is my heart.
Phm 1:13 I wish I could have kept him with me, so he could serve me for you, while I am in chains for the sake of the good news.
Phm 1:14 But I did not want to do anything without your consent. I did not want your good deed to be from necessity but from good will.
Phm 1:15 Perhaps for this he was separated from you for a time, so that you might have him back forever.
Phm 1:16 No longer would he be a slave, but better than a slave, a beloved brother. He is beloved especially to me, and much more so to you, in both the flesh and in the Lord.
Phm 1:17 And so if you have me as a partner, receive him as me.
Phm 1:18 If he has wronged you or owes you anything, charge that to me.

Phm 1:19 I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will pay you back. Not to tell you that you owe me your own self.
Phm 1:20 Yes, brother, do me a favor in the Lord; give rest to my heart in Messiah.
Phm 1:21 Confident about your obedience, I am writing to you. I know that you will do even more than I ask.
Phm 1:22 At the same time, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you.
Phm 1:23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Messiah Yeshua, greets you.
Phm 1:24 So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.
Phm 1:25 May the grace of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be with your spirit. Amein.

Book of Hebrews

Hebrews Chapter 1

Heb 1:1 Long ago, Yehowah spoke to our ancestors through the prophets, and in many other ways (the Torah portions; Luke 4:16-20, 16:29; 1 Tim. 4:13; Acts 13:15, 15:21).
Heb 1:2 But in these last days, he has spoken to us through his Son, whom he appointed to be the heir of all things. It is through him that Yehowah also made the universe.
Heb 1:3 He is the brightness of the glory of Yehowah and the character of his essence. He even holds everything together by the spoken word of his power. After he had made cleansing for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.
Heb 1:4 He has become just as superior to the angels, as the name he has inherited is more excellent than their name.
Heb 1:5 For to which of the angels did Yehowah ever say, "You are my Son, today I have become your father," and again, "I will be a father to him, and he will be a Son to me?"
Heb 1:6 But again, when Yehowah brings the Firstborn into the world, he commands, "All the angels of Yehowah must worship him" (Deut. 32:43).
Heb 1:7 About the angels he declares, "He is the One who makes his angels spirits, and his servants flames of fire."
Heb 1:8 But about the Son he declares, "Your throne, Almighty One, is forever and ever. The scepter of your kingdom is the scepter of justice.
Heb 1:9 You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness. Therefore, the Almighty your Divine One has anointed you with the oil of joy more than your companions" (Psa. 45:6-7).
Heb 1:10 "In the beginning (c. 5654 BC), Yehowah, you laid the earth's foundation. The heavens are the work of your hands.
Heb 1:11 They will perish, but you will continue. They will all wear out like a piece of clothing.
Heb 1:12 You will roll them up like a coat, and they will be changed like a piece of clothing. But you are the same, and your years do not end."
Heb 1:13 But to which of the angels has Yehowah invited at any time, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies a stool for your feet?"
Heb 1:14 Are not all angels spirits who serve, and who are sent to care for those who will inherit salvation?

Hebrews Chapter 2

Heb 2:1 Therefore, we must give far more attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away from it.
Heb 2:2 For if the message that was spoken through the angels is valid, and every transgression and disobedience receives just punishment,
Heb 2:3 how then can we escape, if we ignore so great a salvation? This is salvation that was first announced by the Lord and confirmed to us by those who heard it.
Heb 2:4 At the same time Yehowah testified to it by signs, wonders, and various powerful deeds, and by distributing the gifts of Ruach ha'Kodesh according to his will.
Heb 2:5 For it was not to the angels that Yehowah subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking.
Heb 2:6 Instead, someone has somewhere testified, "What is mankind, that you are mindful of him? Or a son of man, that you care for him?
Heb 2:7 You made him a little lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor, and set him over the works of your hands.
Heb 2:8 You put everything in subjection under his feet" (Psa. 8:4-6; 1 Cor. 15:27). For it was to him that Yehowah has subjected all things. He did not leave anything not subjected to him. But now we do not yet see everything subjected to him.
Heb 2:9 But we see the One who was made lower than the angels for a short time: Yeshua, who because of his suffering and death, has been crowned with glory and honor. So now by the grace of Yehowah, he has tasted death for everyone.
Heb 2:10 For it was proper for Yehowah, because everything exists for him and through him, to bring many children to glory. It was proper for him to make the leader of their salvation complete through his sufferings.
Heb 2:11 For both the One who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have one source. So he is not ashamed to call them brethren and sistren.
Heb 2:12 He says, "I will proclaim your name to my brethren and sistren, I will sing praise to you from inside the congregation."
Heb 2:13 And again, "I will trust in him." And again, "See, here am I, and the children whom Yehowah has given me."
Heb 2:14 Therefore, since the children of Yehowah share flesh and blood, Yeshua also shared the same things with them, so that through death he would do away with the one who had the power of death, that is, the Devil.

Heb 2:15 This was so that he would free all those who through fear of death lived all their lives in slavery.
Heb 2:16 For of course it is not with angels that he is concerned; instead, it is with the seed of Abraham that he is concerned.
Heb 2:17 So it was necessary for him to become like his brothers in all ways, so that he would be a merciful and faithful high priest in relation to the things of Yehowah, and so that he would bring about the pardon of the people's sins.
Heb 2:18 Because Yeshua himself has suffered and was tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Hebrews Chapter 3

Heb 3:1 Therefore, set-apart brethren and sistren, you share in a heavenly calling. Think about Messiah Yeshua, the Apostle and High Priest of our confession.
Heb 3:2 He was faithful to Yehowah who appointed him, just as Moses was also faithful in the household of Yehowah.
Heb 3:3 For Yeshua has been considered worthy of greater glory than Moses, because the one who builds a house has more honor than the house itself.
Heb 3:4 For every house is built by someone, but the One who built everything is Yehowah.
Heb 3:5 On one hand, Moses was faithful as a servant in the entire household of Yehowah. He was a testimony about the things that were to be spoken of in the future.
Heb 3:6 But Messiah is the Son in charge of the household of Yehowah. We are his household, if we hold fast to our courage and to our proud hope to the end.
Heb 3:7 Therefore, it is just as Ruach ha'Kodesh says: "Today, if you hear his voice,
Heb 3:8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the time of testing in the wilderness.
Heb 3:9 This was when your ancestors rebelled by testing me, and when, during forty years (c. 1650 – 1611 BC), they saw my deeds.
Heb 3:10 Therefore, I was displeased with that generation. I said, 'They are always being led astray in their hearts. They have not known my Ways.'
Heb 3:11 It is just as I swore in my anger: 'They will never enter my rest'" (Psa. 95:8-11).
Heb 3:12 Be careful, brethren and sistren, so that among you there will not be anyone with an evil heart of unbelief, a heart that turns away from living Yehowah.
Heb 3:13 Instead, encourage one another daily, as long as it is called "today," so that no one among you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.
Heb 3:14 For we have become the partners of Messiah, if we firmly hold to our confidence in him from the beginning to the end.
Heb 3:15 About this it has been said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."
Heb 3:16 Who was it who heard Yehowah and rebelled? Was it not all those who came out of Egypt through Moses?
Heb 3:17 With whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness?

Heb 3:18 To whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, if it was not to those who disobeyed him?
Heb 3:19 And we see that they were not able to enter his rest because of unbelief.

Hebrews Chapter 4

Heb 4:1 Therefore, let us be careful, so that none of you might seem to have failed to reach the promise left behind for you to enter the rest of Yehowah.
Heb 4:2 For we were told the good news just as they were. But that message did not benefit those who did not unite in faith with those who obeyed.
Heb 4:3 For we who have believed are the ones who will enter that rest, just as he said, “As I swore in my wrath, they will never enter my rest.” Even so, his created works were finished at the foundation of the world.
Heb 4:4 For he has stated somewhere about the seventh day, “Yehowah rested on the seventh day from all his deeds” (Gen. 2:2).
Heb 4:5 Again, he has declared, “They will never enter my rest.”
Heb 4:6 Therefore, because it is still reserved for some to enter his rest, and since many Israelis who heard the good news did not enter it because of disobedience,
Heb 4:7 Yehowah has again set a certain day called, “Today.” After many days, he spoke through David, as it was earlier said, “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts.”
Heb 4:8 For if Joshua the son of Nun had given them rest, Yehowah would not have spoken later on about another day.
Heb 4:9 Therefore, there is still Sabbath-keeping for the people of Yehowah.
Heb 4:10 For he who enters into the rest of Yehowah has himself also rested from his deeds, just as Yehowah did from his.
Heb 4:11 Therefore, let us be eager to enter that rest, so that no one will fall into the kind of disobedience that they did (Psa. 95).
Heb 4:12 For the Word of Yehowah is living, active, and sharper than any two-edged sword. It pierces even to the division of soul from spirit and joints from marrow. It is able to know the heart’s thoughts and intentions.
Heb 4:13 Nothing created is hidden before Yehowah. Instead, everything is bare and open to the eyes of the One to whom we must give account.
Heb 4:14 Therefore, since we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Yeshua the Son of Yehowah, let us firmly hold to our professed beliefs.
Heb 4:15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot feel sympathy for our weaknesses. Instead, we have Someone who has in all ways been tempted as we are, except that he is without sin.
Heb 4:16 Let us then go with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews Chapter 5

Heb 5:1 For every high priest, chosen from among people, is appointed to act on the behalf of people in the things concerning Yehowah, so that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.
Heb 5:2 He can deal gently with the ignorant and the wayward, because he himself also is surrounded with weakness.
Heb 5:3 Because of this, he also is required to offer sacrifices for his own sins, just as he does for the people's sins.
Heb 5:4 And it is not for himself that anyone takes this honor. Instead, he is called by Yehowah, just as Aaron was.
Heb 5:5 In the same way, neither did Messiah honor himself by making himself High Priest. Instead, the One speaking to him declared, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father."
Heb 5:6 It is just as he also says in another passage, "You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek" (Psalm 110:4).
Heb 5:7 During the days of his flesh, Messiah offered up both prayers and requests with loud cries and tears to Yehowah, the One able to save him from death. He was heard because of his reverence.
Heb 5:8 Even though he was a Son, he learned obedience from the things that he suffered.
Heb 5:9 He was made perfect and became, for everyone who obeys him, the Causer of eternal salvation.
Heb 5:10 He was designated by Yehowah as high priest after the order of Melchizedek.
Heb 5:11 We have much to say about Yeshua, but it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.
Heb 5:12 For though by this time you should be teachers, you still have need for someone to teach you the basic principles of the messages of Yehowah. You need milk, not solid food!
Heb 5:13 For anyone who only takes milk is inexperienced with the message of righteousness, because he is still a baby.
Heb 5:14 But solid food is for adults. These are those who, because of their maturity, have their understanding trained for distinguishing good from evil.

Hebrews Chapter 6

Heb 6:1 So then let us leave the beginning of the message of Messiah and move forward to maturity. Let us not lay again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith in Yehowah,
Heb 6:2 nor the foundation of teaching about immersions, laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.
Heb 6:3 We will also do this if Yehowah permits.
Heb 6:4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, who tasted the heavenly gift, who were sharers of Ruach ha'Kodesh,
Heb 6:5 and who tasted the good spoken Word of Yehowah and the powers of the age to come,
Heb 6:6 but who then fell away, it is impossible to restore them again to repentance. This is because they crucify the Son of Yehowah for themselves again and publicly shame him.
Heb 6:7 For the land that drinks in the rain that often comes on it, and that gives birth to the plants useful to those for whom the land was worked, this is the land that receives a blessing from Yehowah.
Heb 6:8 But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and is near to a curse. Its end is in burning.
Heb 6:9 But we are convinced about better things concerning you, beloved, things that concern salvation, even though we speak like this.
Heb 6:10 For Yehowah is not unjust that he would forget your work, and the unconditional selfless love that you have shown for his name, because you served the believers and still serve them.
Heb 6:11 And we greatly desire that each of you may show the same diligence to the end for the sake of full assurance of hope.
Heb 6:12 This is so that you will not become lazy, but imitators of those who by faith and patience inherit the promises.
Heb 6:13 For when Yehowah made his promise to Abraham, he swore by himself, since he could not swear by anyone greater (Gen. 12).
Heb 6:14 He promised, "I will certainly bless you, and I will greatly increase you."
Heb 6:15 In this way, Abraham obtained what was promised, after he had patiently waited.
Heb 6:16 For people swear by someone greater than themselves. At the end of each of their disputes, an oath serves as confirmation.
Heb 6:17 When Yehowah decided to show more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable quality of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath.

Heb 6:18 He did this, so that by two unchangeable things, with which it is impossible for Yehowah to lie, we who have fled for refuge will have a strong encouragement to hold firmly to the hope that has been placed before us (Josh. 20).
Heb 6:19 We have this confidence as a secure and reliable anchor of our souls, confidence that enters into the Most Set-apart Place behind the curtain.
Heb 6:20 Yeshua entered into that Most Set-apart Place as a forerunner for us, having become High Priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews Chapter 7

Heb 7:1 It was this Melchizedek, King of Salem, priest of Yehowah Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him (c. 2080 BC, Abram was 85).
Heb 7:2 It was to him that Abraham gave a tenth of everything. His name "Melchizedek," which translated means "King of Righteousness." His other title is "King of Salem," that is, "King of Peace."
Heb 7:3 He is without father, without mother, without ancestors, with neither beginning of days nor end of life. Instead, he resembles the Son of Yehowah, because he remains a priest forever.
Heb 7:4 See how great this man was. Our ancestor Abraham gave a tenth of the things that he had taken in battle.
Heb 7:5 On one hand, the sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have a command from the law to collect tithes from the people, that is, from their brothers, even though they, too, have come from Abraham's body.
Heb 7:6 But on the other hand, Melchizedek, whose descent was not traced from them, received tithes from Abraham, and blessed him, the one who had the promises.
Heb 7:7 There is no denying that the lesser person is blessed by the greater person.
Heb 7:8 In this case, mortal men receive tithes, but in that case it is testified that he lives on.
Heb 7:9 And in a manner of speaking, Levi, who received tithes, also paid tithes through Abraham,
Heb 7:10 because Levi was in the body of his ancestor when Melchizedek met Abraham.
Heb 7:11 Now if perfection were possible through the Levitical priesthood, for under it the people received the enacted law (Exo. 24:12-Deut. 31:26), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be considered to be after the manner of Aaron?
Heb 7:12 For when the priesthood is changed, the law must also be changed.
Heb 7:13 For the One about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar.
Heb 7:14 Now clearly, it is from Judah that our Lord was born, a tribe that Moses never mentioned concerning priests.
Heb 7:15 And what we say is clearer yet, if another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek.
Heb 7:16 It was not on the basis of the law of fleshly descent that he became a priest, but instead on the basis of the power of an indestructible life.

Heb 7:17 For Scripture witnesses about him: “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”
Heb 7:18 For there was a cancellation of the former commandment, because it was weak and useless.
Heb 7:19 For the law made nothing perfect. However, there is the introduction of a better hope for the future through which we approach Yehowah.
Heb 7:20 And this did not happen without the taking of an oath. On one hand, those others become priests without any oath.
Heb 7:21 But on the other hand, this One, Yeshua, became a priest with an oath sworn by the One who proclaimed to him, “Yehowah swore and will not change his mind: ‘You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.’”
Heb 7:22 By this also, Yeshua has given the guarantee of a better covenant.
Heb 7:23 On one hand, many become priests, because by death they are kept from continuing on.
Heb 7:24 On the other hand, because Yeshua remains forever, he has a permanent priesthood.
Heb 7:25 Therefore, he is also able to completely save those who approach Yehowah through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.
Heb 7:26 For such a High Priest is suitable for us. He is sinless, blameless, pure, separated from sinners, and has become higher than Heaven.
Heb 7:27 He does not need, unlike the high priests, to offer up daily sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. He did this once for all, when he offered himself.
Heb 7:28 For the law appoints as high priests men who have weaknesses. But the word of the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect forever.

Hebrews Chapter 8

Heb 8:1 Now the point of what we are saying is this: We have a High Priest who has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in Heaven.
Heb 8:2 He is a servant in the Set-apart Place, the true tabernacle that Yehowah, not a human, set up.
Heb 8:3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore, it is necessary for him to have something to offer.
Heb 8:4 Now, if Messiah were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law.
Heb 8:5 They serve in an exhibit that is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things. It is just as Moses was divinely warned when he was about to construct the tabernacle: He commanded, "See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain" (Exo. 25:40).
Heb 8:6 But now Messiah has received a much better ministry. It is just as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which is enacted on better promises.
Heb 8:7 For if that first priesthood had been faultless, there would have been no need for a second priesthood.
Heb 8:8 For when Yehowah found fault with the people, he prophesied, "See, the days are coming," declares Yehowah, "when I will make a New Covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.
Heb 8:9 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors on the day that I took them by their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt. For they did not continue in my covenant (Exo. 32:1-4), and I disregarded them," declares Yehowah.
Heb 8:10 "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days," declares Yehowah. "I will put my law into their minds, and I will also write it on their hearts. I will be their Divine One, and they will be my people.
Heb 8:11 They will not teach each one his neighbor and each one his brother or sister, 'Know Yehowah!' For all will know me, from the least to the greatest of them.
Heb 8:12 For I will be merciful to their acts of unrighteousness and their sins, and I will not remember their lawlessness any longer" (Jer. 31:31-34).
Heb 8:13 By saying "New," he has made the First (Covenant) old. And what has become outdated and old is near to disappearing (Mat. 24:35).

Hebrews Chapter 9

Heb 9:1 Now even the first priesthood had regulations for worship and an earthly sanctuary (Lev. 10:1).
Heb 9:2 For a tabernacle was prepared. The first room, in which were the menorah, the table, and the bread of the presence, was called the Set-apart Place.
Heb 9:3 Behind the second curtain was another room, called the Most Set-apart Place.
Heb 9:4 It had a golden censer (Lev. 16:12). It also had the Ark of the Covenant, which was completely overlaid with gold. Inside it was a golden jar holding the manna, Aaron's trekking pole that budded, and the tablets of the (First) Covenant.
Heb 9:5 Above the Ark of the Covenant, glorious cherubim overshadowed the atonement lid, which we cannot now talk about in detail.
Heb 9:6 After these things were prepared, the priests always entered the outer room of the tabernacle to perform their services.
Heb 9:7 But only the high priest entered the second room once each year, and not without blood that he offered for himself and for the people's unintentional sins.
Heb 9:8 Ruach ha'Kodesh showed that the Way into the Most Set-apart Place was not yet revealed as long as the first tabernacle was still standing.
Heb 9:9 This was an illustration for the present time. Both the gifts and sacrifices that are now being offered are not able to perfect the worshiper's conscience.
Heb 9:10 They are only concerned with food, drink, and various sorts of ceremonial washings. These were all regulations for the flesh, until the appointed time the Restoration is imposed.
Heb 9:11 Messiah came as High Priest of the good things that have come. He went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that was not made by human hands, one not belonging to this created world.
Heb 9:12 It was not by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood that he entered into the Most Set-apart Place once for all and secured our eternal redemption.
Heb 9:13 For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the sprinkling of a red heifer's ashes on those who have become unclean sets them apart to Yehowah for the cleansing of their flesh (Num. 19),
Heb 9:14 how much more will the blood of Messiah, who through the eternal Ruach offered himself without blemish to Yehowah, cleanse our conscience from dead works to serve living Yehowah?

Heb 9:15 For this reason, he is Mediator of a New Covenant. This is so that, since a death has taken place to free those under the First Covenant from their sins, those who are called will receive the promise of an eternal inheritance.
Heb 9:16 For where there is a Will, the death of the person who made it must be proved.
Heb 9:17 For a Will is only in force when there has been a death, because it has no force while the one who made it is still alive.
Heb 9:18 So not even the First Covenant was established without blood.
Heb 9:19 For when Moses had given every command in the law to all the people, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water, red wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the Scroll itself and all the people.
Heb 9:20 Then he said, “This is the blood of the covenant that Yehowah has commanded for you” (Exo. 24:8; Exo. 30 and 40; Lev. 8 and 16).
Heb 9:21 In the same manner, he sprinkled the blood on the tabernacle and all the containers used in the service.
Heb 9:22 And according to the law, almost everything is cleansed with blood. Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.
Heb 9:23 Therefore, it was necessary that the copies of the things in Heaven should be cleansed with these animal sacrifices. However, the heavenly things themselves had to be cleansed with much better sacrifices.
Heb 9:24 For Messiah did not enter into the Most Set-apart Place made with hands, which is only a copy of the true one. Instead, he entered into Heaven itself, to appear now in the presence of Yehowah for us.
Heb 9:25 He did not go there in order to offer himself many times, as does the high priest, who enters the Most Set-apart Place year by year with the blood of another.
Heb 9:26 If that had been the case, then it would have been necessary for him to suffer many times since the world’s foundation. But now it is just one time at the end of the ages, that he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.
Heb 9:27 Every person is destined to die once, and after that comes judgment.
Heb 9:28 In the same way, Messiah also, who was offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but for the salvation of those who are waiting patiently for him (John 14:3).

Hebrews Chapter 10

Heb 10:1 For the law is only a shadow of the good things to come, not the real forms of those things themselves. Those who approach Yehowah can never be made perfect by the same sacrifices that the priests continually bring year after year.
Heb 10:2 Or else, would not those sacrifices have ceased to be offered? In that case, if they had been cleansed once and for all, the worshipers would have no longer been aware of sin.
Heb 10:3 But with those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins year after year.
Heb 10:4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.
Heb 10:5 When Messiah came into the world, he said, "It was neither sacrifices nor offerings that you desired. Instead, it is a body that you have prepared for me (Psa. 40:6).
Heb 10:6 In neither whole burnt offerings nor sacrifices for sin did you take pleasure.
Heb 10:7 Then I said, 'See, here I am, as it is written about me in the Scroll of the Book, to do your will, Yehowah'" (Psa. 40:7-8a).
Heb 10:8 First he said, "It was neither sacrifices, nor offerings, nor whole burnt offerings, nor sacrifices for sin that you desired. Nor did you take pleasure in them." These are sacrifices that are offered according to the law.
Heb 10:9 Then he said, "See, here I am to do your will, Yehowah." He takes away the first practice in order to establish the second practice.
Heb 10:10 And by that will, we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Yeshua Messiah once for all.
Heb 10:11 On the one hand, every priest stands day by day to serve Yehowah. He is always offering the same sacrifices, although they can never take away sins.
Heb 10:12 On the other hand, Messiah offered one sacrifice for sins forever, then he sat down at the right hand of Yehowah (Psa. 110:5).
Heb 10:13 From then on he is waiting, until his enemies are made a stool for his feet.
Heb 10:14 For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.
Heb 10:15 And Ruach ha'Kodesh also testifies to us. For first he said,
Heb 10:16 "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days," says Yehowah. "I will put my law in their hearts, and I will write it on their minds.
Heb 10:17 No more will I remember their sins and lawlessness" (Jer. 31:33-34).
Heb 10:18 Now where there is forgiveness for these, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin.

Heb 10:19 Therefore, brethren and sistren, we have confidence to enter into the Most Set-apart Place by the blood of Yeshua.
Heb 10:20 That is the new and living Way that he has opened for us through the curtain, that is, by means of his flesh.
Heb 10:21 And because we have a High Priest over the temple of Yehowah,
Heb 10:22 let us approach with true hearts in the full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water.
Heb 10:23 Let us also hold tightly to the confession of our hope, without wavering, because Yehowah, who has promised, is faithful.
Heb 10:24 Let us consider how to motivate one another to unconditional selfless love and good deeds.
Heb 10:25 Let us not stop meeting together, as some have done. Instead, encourage one another more and more, and all the more as you see the Day coming closer.
Heb 10:26 For if we deliberately go on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, a sacrifice for sins no longer exists.
Heb 10:27 Instead, there is only a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the enemies of Yehowah.
Heb 10:28 Anyone who has rejected the Law of Moses dies without mercies at the testimony of two or three witnesses.
Heb 10:29 How much worse punishment do you think one deserves who has trampled under foot the Son of Yehowah, who treated the blood of the covenant as profane, the blood by which he was sanctified, and insulted the Ruach of grace?
Heb 10:30 For we know the One who said, “Vengeance belongs to me; I will pay back,” declares Yehowah. And again, “Yehowah will judge his people.”
Heb 10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of living Yehowah!
Heb 10:32 But remember the former days, after you were enlightened, how you endured a great struggle in suffering.
Heb 10:33 You were exposed to public ridicule by insults and persecution, and you were sharing with adherents who went through such suffering.
Heb 10:34 For you had compassion on me who was a prisoner, and you accepted with joy the seizure of your possessions. You knew that you yourselves had in Heaven a better and everlasting possession.
Heb 10:35 So do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.
Heb 10:36 For you need patience, so that you may receive what Yehowah has promised, after you have done his will.
Heb 10:37 “For soon, in a little while, the One who is coming will indeed come and not delay.

Heb 10:38 My righteous one will live by faith. If he turns back, I will not be pleased with him.”
Heb 10:39 But we are not any of those who turn back to destruction. Instead, we are adherents who have faith for keeping our soul.

Hebrews Chapter 11

Heb 11:1 Now faith is the foundational catalyst of things that are confidently expected. It is the evidence of events that are still not seen.
Heb 11:2 For because of this the ancestors were approved for their faith.
Heb 11:3 By faith we understand that the universe was created by the command of Yehowah, so that what is visible was not made out of things that were visible (Psa. 33:6,8-9).
Heb 11:4 It was by faith that Abel offered Yehowah a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he was attested to be righteous, and Yehowah spoke well of him because of his offerings. And by faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead.
Heb 11:5 It was by faith that Enoch was taken up, so that he did not see death. "He was not found, because Yehowah took him." For before he was taken up, it was testified that he had pleased Yehowah.
Heb 11:6 Now without faith it is impossible to please Yehowah. For it is necessary that anyone coming to Yehowah must believe that he exists (Exo. 20:2; 1 John 3:23), and that he is a rewarder of those who worshipfully seek him.
Heb 11:7 It was by faith that Noah, having been given a divine message about things not yet seen, with reverent caution built an ark to save his household. By doing this, he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that is according to faith (2 Pet. 2:5).
Heb 11:8 It was by faith that Abraham, when he was called, obeyed and went out to the place that he was to receive as an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he was going.
Heb 11:9 It was by faith that he lived in the land of promise as a sojourning foreigner. He lived in tents (sukkot) with Isaac and Jacob, fellow heirs of the same promise.
Heb 11:10 For he was looking forward to the city which has foundations, the city of which the Architect and Builder is Yehowah.
Heb 11:11 It was by faith, even though Sarah herself was barren, that Abraham received ability to father a child. This happened even though he was too old, since he considered as faithful the One who had given the promise.
Heb 11:12 Therefore, from this one man, who was almost dead, were born those who were like the stars in the sky for their multitude and like the grains of sand along the seashore, which are uncountable.
Heb 11:13 It was in faith that all these died without receiving the promises. Instead, after seeing and being convinced, and greeting them from far off, they admitted that they were sojourning foreigners and exiles on earth (1 Chron. 29:15).

Heb 11:14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.
Heb 11:15 If they had been thinking of the country from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return.
Heb 11:16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, Heaven. Therefore, Yehowah is not ashamed to be called their Divine One, since he has prepared a city for them.
Heb 11:17 It was by faith that Abraham, when he was tested, offered Isaac. It was his only son whom he offered, he who had received the promises.
Heb 11:18 It was Abraham to whom it had been said, "It is through Isaac that your Descendant will be named."
Heb 11:19 Abraham reasoned that Yehowah was able to raise up Isaac from the dead, and figuratively speaking, it was from there that he received him back.
Heb 11:20 It was also by faith about things to come that Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau.
Heb 11:21 It was by faith that Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons. Jacob worshiped, leaning on the top of his trekking pole.
Heb 11:22 It was by faith that Joseph, when his end was near, spoke of the departure of the children of Israel from Egypt and instructed them about his bones.
Heb 11:23 It was by faith that Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child (Acts 7:20; Exo. 2:2, c. 1730 BC). They were not afraid of the king's command.
Heb 11:24 It was by faith that Moses, after he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter.
Heb 11:25 Instead, he chose to suffer with the people of Yehowah, rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for awhile.
Heb 11:26 He reasoned that the disgrace of following Messiah was greater riches than Egypt's treasures. For he was fixing his eyes on his reward.
Heb 11:27 It was by faith that Moses left Egypt. He did not fear the king's anger, for he endured as if he were seeing the One who is invisible.
Heb 11:28 It was by faith that he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch the Israelis' firstborn children.
Heb 11:29 It was by faith that they passed through the SEA as if over dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do this, they were swallowed up.
Heb 11:30 It was by faith that Jericho's walls collapsed downslope, after they had been circled around for seven days (Josh. 6:5, 20).
Heb 11:31 It was by faith that Rahab the prostitute did not die with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

Heb 11:32 And what more can I say? For time will fail me if I tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and about the prophets.
Heb 11:33 It was through faith that they conquered kingdoms, worked justice, and received promises. They stopped the mouths of lions,
Heb 11:34 extinguished the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were healed of illnesses, became mighty in battle, and defeated foreign armed forces.
Heb 11:35 Women received back their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting release, so that they would obtain a better resurrection.
Heb 11:36 Others had testing in mocking and whippings, and even chains and imprisonment.
Heb 11:37 They were stoned. They were sawn in two. They were tested and killed with the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins. They were destitute, oppressed, and mistreated.
Heb 11:38 The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts, mountains, caves, and in holes in the ground (Isa. 2:19).
Heb 11:39 Although all these people were approved by Yehowah because of their faith, they did not receive the promise.
Heb 11:40 Yehowah planned something better for us, so that without us, they would not be made perfect.

Hebrews Chapter 12

Heb 12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a large cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and easily entangling sin. Let us patiently run the race that is placed before us.
Heb 12:2 Let us pay attention to Yeshua, the Chief Leader and Perfecter of the faith. For the joy that was placed before him, he endured the cross, despised its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of Yehowah.
Heb 12:3 So think about him, the One who has endured such opposition from sinners against himself, so that you do not become weary in your hearts and give up.
Heb 12:4 You have not yet resisted or struggled against sin to the point of blood.
Heb 12:5 And you have forgotten the encouragement that instructs you as children: "My child, do not think lightly of the discipline of Yehowah, nor grow weary when you are corrected by him."
Heb 12:6 For Yehowah disciplines everyone whom he unconditionally selflessly loves, and he punishes every child whom he receives.
Heb 12:7 Endure suffering as discipline. Yehowah deals with you as with children. For what child is there whom his father does not discipline?
Heb 12:8 But if you are without discipline, which all people share in, then you are illegitimate and not his children.
Heb 12:9 Furthermore, we had fathers in the flesh as disciplinarians, and we respected them. Should we not even more so obey the Father of spirits and live?
Heb 12:10 For on the one hand, our fathers disciplined us for a few days as it seemed right to them. But on the other hand, Yehowah does so for our good, so that we can share in his consecration.
Heb 12:11 No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but rather painful. However, it later produces the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those who have been trained by it.
Heb 12:12 So strengthen your hands that hang down and your weak knees.
Heb 12:13 Make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame will not be sprained but rather be healed.
Heb 12:14 Pursue peace with everyone and also consecration, without which, no one will see Yehowah.
Heb 12:15 Be careful, so that no one lacks the grace of Yehowah, and that no root of bitterness grows up to cause trouble, so that many do not become polluted by it.
Heb 12:16 Be careful that there be no sexually immoral or wicked person such as Esau, who for one meal sold his own birthright (Gen. 25:29-34).

Heb 12:17 For you know that afterwards, when he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, because he found no opportunity for repentance, even though he sought it with tears.
Heb 12:18 For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched, a mountain of burning fire, darkness, gloom, and storm.
Heb 12:19 You have not come to a trumpet blast, nor to a voice that speaks words whose hearers begged that not another word be spoken to them.
Heb 12:20 For they could not endure what was commanded: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned or shot with an arrow."
Heb 12:21 So fearful was this sight that Moses exclaimed, "I am terrified and trembling!"
Heb 12:22 Instead, you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of living Yehowah, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to a myriad of angels in celebration.
Heb 12:23 You have come to the congregation of the firstborn, who have been registered in Heaven. You have come to Yehowah, the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones who have been made perfect.
Heb 12:24 And you have come to Yeshua, the Mediator of a New Covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks better than Abel's blood.
Heb 12:25 See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, much less will we escape if we turn away from the One who is warning from Heaven.
Heb 12:26 At one time, his voice shook the earth. But now he has promised, "One more time I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens" (Hag. 2:6).
Heb 12:27 These words, "One more time," mean the removal of those things that can be shaken, that is, of the things that have been created, so that the things that cannot be shaken will remain.
Heb 12:28 Therefore, receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be grateful, and in this manner worship Yehowah with reverence and awe.
Heb 12:29 For our Divine One is a consuming fire.

Hebrews Chapter 13

Heb 13:1 Let affectionate love continue.
Heb 13:2 Do not forget hospitality for strangers. For through this, some have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.
Heb 13:3 Remember prisoners, as if you were imprisoned with them. Remember those who are mistreated, as if you also were them in the body.
Heb 13:4 Let marriage be respected by everyone and the marriage bed be pure, for Yehowah will judge the sexually immoral people and adulterers.
Heb 13:5 Let your conduct be free from the love of money (Eccl. 5:10; 1 Tim. 6:10). Be content with the things you have, for Yehowah himself has promised, "I will never leave you, nor will I forsake you" (Deut. 31:6).
Heb 13:6 Let us be content, so that we may have courage to say, "Yehowah is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can a human do to me" (Psa. 118:6)?
Heb 13:7 Consider your leaders, adherents who spoke the Word of Yehowah to you, and consider the result of their conduct. Imitate their faith.
Heb 13:8 Yeshua Messiah is the same yesterday, today, and forever.
Heb 13:9 Do not be carried away by various strange teachings. For it is good that the heart should be strengthened by grace, not by foods that do not help those who walk by them.
Heb 13:10 We have an altar from which those who serve in the tabernacle have no right to eat.
Heb 13:11 For the blood of the animals killed for sins is brought by the high priest into the Set-apart Place, while their bodies are burned outside the camp.
Heb 13:12 So Yeshua also suffered outside the city gate, in order to sanctify the people through his own blood (Num. 19).
Heb 13:13 Let us therefore go to him outside the camp, bearing his shame.
Heb 13:14 For we do not have any permanent city here. Instead, we are looking for one that is to come.
Heb 13:15 Through him then, let us always offer up sacrifices of praise to Yehowah, praise that is the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name.
Heb 13:16 And let us not forget doing good and helping one another, for it is with such sacrifices that Yehowah is entirely pleased.
Heb 13:17 Obey and submit to your leaders, for they keep watch over your souls, as adherents who will give account. Obey, so that your leaders will do this with joy, and not with groaning, which would be useless to you.
Heb 13:18 Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a clean conscience, and that we desire to live rightly in all things.
Heb 13:19 I encourage you even more to do this, so that I will be returned to you sooner.

Heb 13:20 Now may Yehowah of peace, who brought back from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Yeshua, by the blood of an everlasting covenant,
Heb 13:21 perfect you with every good thing to do his will. May he work in us what is well pleasing before him, through Yeshua Messiah, to whom be the glory forever. Amein.
Heb 13:22 Now I encourage you, brethren and sistren, to bear with the word of encouragement that I have briefly written to you.
Heb 13:23 Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I will see you, if he comes soon.
Heb 13:24 Greet all your leaders and all the believers. Those from Italy greet you.
Heb 13:25 May grace be with you all. Amein.

Book of Jacob

Jacob Chapter 1

Jac 1:1 Jacob, a servant of Yehowah and of Lord Yeshua Messiah, to the twelve tribes in the dispersion (2 Kings 17:23; 18:11): Greetings.
Jac 1:2 Consider it all joy, my brethren and sistren, when you experience various troubles.
Jac 1:3 You know that the testing of your faith produces endurance.
Jac 1:4 Let endurance complete its work, so that you may become fully developed and complete, not lacking anything.
Jac 1:5 But if any of you needs wisdom, let him ask for it from Yehowah, the One who gives generously and without rebuke to all who ask, and he will give it to him.
Jac 1:6 But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing. For anyone who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven by the wind and tossed around.
Jac 1:7 For that person must not think that he will receive anything from Yehowah.
Jac 1:8 Such a person is double-minded, unstable in all his ways.
Jac 1:9 Let the poor brother boast of his high position
Jac 1:10 but the rich person of his low position, because he will pass away as a wild flower in the grass.
Jac 1:11 For the sun rises with burning heat and dries up the grass. The flower falls off, and its beauty perishes. In the same way, the rich person will fade away in the middle of his journey.
Jac 1:12 Blessed is the man who endures testing. For after he has passed the test, he will receive the crown of life, which has been promised to those who unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah.
Jac 1:13 Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am tempted by Yehowah,” because Yehowah is not tempted by evil, nor does he himself tempt anyone.
Jac 1:14 But each person is tempted by his own desire, which drags him away and entices him.
Jac 1:15 Then after the desire conceives, it gives birth to sin. And after the sin is full grown, it gives birth to death.
Jac 1:16 Do not be deceived my beloved brethren and sistren.
Jac 1:17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above. It comes down from the Father of lights. With him there is no changing or shadow because of turning.

Jac 1:18 Yehowah chose to give us birth by the Word of Truth, so that we would be a kind of firstfruits of all the things that he created.
Jac 1:19 You know this, my beloved brethren and sistren: Let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger.
Jac 1:20 For the anger of man does not work the righteousness of Yehowah.
Jac 1:21 Therefore, take off all sinful filth and abundant amounts of evil. In humility receive the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.
Jac 1:22 Be doers of the word and not only hearers, deceiving yourselves.
Jac 1:23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word but not a doer, he is like a man who examines his natural face in a (bronze) mirror.
Jac 1:24 He examines himself and then goes away and immediately forgets what he was like.
Jac 1:25 But the person who looks carefully into the perfect law of freedom, and continues to do the work, not just being a hearer who forgets, this person will be blessed in his actions.
Jac 1:26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, but if he does not control his tongue, he deceives his heart, and his religion is worthless.
Jac 1:27 Pure and spotless religion before our Father Yehowah is this: to help the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself spotless from the world.

Jacob Chapter 2

Jac 2:1 My brethren and sistren, do not hold to faith in our glorious Lord Yeshua Messiah with favoritism toward certain people.
Jac 2:2 Suppose that someone enters your Messianic house of assembly wearing gold rings and fine clothes, and there also enters a poor person in dirty clothes (Acts 11:26).
Jac 2:3 If you look at the person wearing fine clothes and say, “Please sit here in a nice place,” but you say to the poor person, “You stand over there,” or “Sit at my feet,” Jac 2:4 are you not discriminating among yourselves? Have you not become judges with evil thoughts?
Jac 2:5 Listen, my beloved brethren and sistren, did not Yehowah choose the poor of the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who unconditionally selflessly love him?
Jac 2:6 But you have dishonored the poor! Is it not the rich who oppress you? And are they not the ones who drag you to court?
Jac 2:7 Do they not insult the good Name that you belong to?
Jac 2:8 However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, “You will love your neighbor as yourself,” you do well (Lev. 19:18).
Jac 2:9 But if you favor certain people, you are committing sin, and you are convicted by the law as lawbreakers.
Jac 2:10 For whoever obeys the whole law, except that he stumbles in just a single way, has become guilty of breaking the whole law.
Jac 2:11 For the One who commanded, “Do not commit adultery,” also commanded, “Do not murder.” If you do not commit adultery, but if you do commit murder, you have become a lawbreaker.
Jac 2:12 So speak and act as those who will be judged by means of the law of freedom.
Jac 2:13 For judgment comes without mercy to those who have shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.
Jac 2:14 What good is it, my brethren and sistren, if someone says he has faith, but if he has no works? Can that faith save him?
Jac 2:15 Suppose that a brother or sister is badly clothed and lacks food for the day.
Jac 2:16 Suppose that one of you says to them, “Go in peace, stay warm and be filled.” If you do not give them the things necessary for the body, what good is that?
Jac 2:17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

Jac 2:18 Yet someone may say, “You have faith, and I have works.” Show me your faith without works, and I will show you my faith by my works.
Jac 2:19 You believe that Yehowah is Oneness; you do well. But even the demons believe that, and they tremble.
Jac 2:20 Do you want to know, foolish person, that faith without works is useless?
Jac 2:21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?
Jac 2:22 You see that faith worked with his works, and that by works his faith was fully developed.
Jac 2:23 The Scripture was fulfilled that says, “Abraham believed Yehowah, and it was counted to him as righteousness.” And he was called a friend of Yehowah (Isa. 41:8).
Jac 2:24 You see that it is by works that a person is justified and not only by faith.
Jac 2:25 In the same way also, was not Rahab the prostitute justified by works, when she welcomed the messengers and sent them away by another road?
Jac 2:26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, likewise also, faith apart from works is dead.

Jacob Chapter 3

Jac 3:1 Not many people should become teachers, my brethren and sistren. We know that we will receive more severe judgment.
Jac 3:2 For we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in words, he is a fully developed man, able to control even his whole body.
Jac 3:3 Now if we put bits into horses' mouths for them to obey us, we can also direct their whole bodies.
Jac 3:4 Notice also that ships, although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, are steered by a tiny rudder to wherever the pilot desires.
Jac 3:5 Likewise, the tongue is a small body part, yet it boasts great things. Notice also how a small fire kindles a large forest fire.
Jac 3:6 The tongue is also a fire, a world of sinfulness set among our body parts. It stains the whole body and sets on fire the course of life. It is itself set on fire by hell.
Jac 3:7 For every kind of wild animal, bird, reptile, and sea creature is being tamed and has been tamed by mankind.
Jac 3:8 But as for the tongue, no one among humans is able to tame it. It is an uncontrollable evil, full of deadly poison.
Jac 3:9 With it we praise Father Yehowah, and with it we curse people, who have been made in the likeness of Yehowah.
Jac 3:10 Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brethren and sistren, these things should not happen.
Jac 3:11 Does a spring pour out from its opening both sweet and bitter water?
Jac 3:12 Does a fig tree, my brethren and sistren, make olives? Or a grapevine, figs? Neither can salty water produce sweet water.
Jac 3:13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let that person show a good life by his works in the humility of wisdom.
Jac 3:14 But if you have bitter jealousy and ambition in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth.
Jac 3:15 This is not the wisdom that comes down from above. Instead, it is earthly, unspiritual, demonic.
Jac 3:16 For where there are jealousy and ambition, there is confusion and every evil practice.
Jac 3:17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, responsive to reason, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial, and sincere.
Jac 3:18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace among those who make peace.

Jacob Chapter 4

Jac 4:1 Where do quarrels and disputes among you come from? Do they not come from your desires that fight among your members?
Jac 4:2 You desire, and you do not have. You murder and covet, and you are not able to obtain. You fight and quarrel. You do not possess, because you do not ask.
Jac 4:3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, in order that you may use it for your sensual desires.
Jac 4:4 You adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility against Yehowah? So whoever wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of Yehowah.
Jac 4:5 Or do you think the Scripture says in vain, “The Ruach he caused to live in us is deeply jealous?”
Jac 4:6 But Yehowah gives more grace, so the Scripture says, “Yehowah opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”
Jac 4:7 So submit to Yehowah. Resist the Devil, and he will flee from you.
Jac 4:8 Come close to Yehowah, and he will come close to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.
Jac 4:9 Grieve, mourn, and cry! Let your laughter turn into sadness and your joy into gloom.
Jac 4:10 Humble yourselves before Yehowah, and he will lift you up.
Jac 4:11 Do not speak against one another, brethren and sistren. The person who speaks against a brother or sister or judges his brother or sister speaks against the law and judges the law. If you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.
Jac 4:12 Only One is the Lawgiver and Judge. He is the One who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you, you who judge your neighbor?
Jac 4:13 Now listen, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go into this city, spend a year there, trade, and make a profit.”
Jac 4:14 Who knows what will happen tomorrow, and what is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little while and then disappears.
Jac 4:15 Instead, you should say, “If Yehowah wills, we will live and do this or that.”
Jac 4:16 But now you are boasting about your arrogant plans. All such boasting is evil.
Jac 4:17 So for anyone who knows to do good but does not do it, for him it is sin.

Jacob Chapter 5

Jac 5:1 Come now, you who are rich, weep and wail because of the miseries coming on you.
Jac 5:2 Your riches have rotted, and your clothes have become moth-eaten.
Jac 5:3 Your gold and silver have corroded. Their corrosion will be a witness against you. It will consume your flesh like fire. You have stored up your treasure for the last days.
Jac 5:4 Look, the pay of the laborers is crying out, the pay that you have withheld from those who harvested your fields. And the cries of the harvesters have gone into the ears of Yehowah of the heavenly armed forces.
Jac 5:5 You have lived in luxury on the earth and indulged yourselves. You have fattened your hearts for a day of slaughter.
Jac 5:6 You have condemned and murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you.
Jac 5:7 So be patient, brethren and sistren, until the coming of the Lord. See, the farmer awaits the valuable harvest from the ground. He is patiently waiting for it, until it receives the autumn and spring rains.
Jac 5:8 You too, be patient. Make your hearts strong, because the coming of the Lord is near.
Jac 5:9 Do not complain, brethren and sistren, against one another, so that you will not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the door.
Jac 5:10 Take an example, brethren and sistren, from the suffering and patience of the prophets, those who spoke in the name of Yehowah.
Jac 5:11 See, we regard those who endured as blessed. You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you know the purpose of Yehowah, how Yehowah is extremely compassionate and merciful.
Jac 5:12 Above all, my brethren and sistren, do not swear, either by Heaven or by the earth, or by any other oath. Instead, let your “Yes” mean “Yes” and your “No” mean “No,” so you do not fall under judgment.
Jac 5:13 Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise!
Jac 5:14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the congregation, and let them pray over him. Let them anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord.
Jac 5:15 The prayer of faith will heal the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, Yehowah will forgive him.
Jac 5:16 So confess your transgressions to one another and pray for each other, so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is exceptionally strong in its working.

Jac 5:17 Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain in the land for three years and six months (c. 918 BC).
Jac 5:18 And Elijah prayed again. The heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.
Jac 5:19 My brethren and sistren, if anyone among you wanders from the truth, and someone brings him back,
Jac 5:20 that person should know that whoever turns a sinner from his wandering way will save him from death and will cover over a large number of sins.

Book of 1st Peter

1 Peter Chapter 1

1Pe 1:1 Peter, an apostle of Yeshua Messiah, to the resident aliens of the dispersion throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.
1Pe 1:2 This is according to the foreknowledge of Yehowah the Father, set apart by the Ruach for obedience and for the sprinkling of the blood of Yeshua Messiah. May grace be to you, and may your peace increase.
1Pe 1:3 May Yehowah the Father of our Lord Yeshua Messiah be blessed. In his great mercy, he gave us a new birth for the hope of an inheritance. This inheritance is by means of the resurrection of Yeshua Messiah from the dead.
1Pe 1:4 This is for an inheritance that will not perish, will not become stained, and will not fade away. It is reserved in Heaven for you.
1Pe 1:5 You are protected by the power of Yehowah through faith, for the salvation that is ready to be revealed at the last time.
1Pe 1:6 You are extremely glad about this, even though it is now necessary for you to feel sadness in many different troubles.
1Pe 1:7 This is for the proving of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes, even though it is tested by fire. This happens, so that your faith will be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revealing of Yeshua Messiah!
1Pe 1:8 You have not seen him, but you unconditionally selflessly love him. You do not see him now, but you believe in him, and you are quite glad with unspeakable, glorious joy!
1Pe 1:9 You are now receiving for yourselves the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.
1Pe 1:10 The prophets searched and inquired carefully about this salvation, and prophesied about the grace that would be yours.
1Pe 1:11 They searched to know about whom and when the Ruach of Messiah in them was speaking to them. This was happening as he was telling them in advance about the sufferings of Messiah and the glorious things after that.
1Pe 1:12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told to you by those who preached the good news to you by Ruach ha'Kodesh sent from Heaven, things into which angels long to look.
1Pe 1:13 So gird up the loins of your mind. Be sober. Put unwavering confidence in the grace that will be brought to you at the revealing of Yeshua Messiah.

1Pe 1:14 As obedient children, do not conform yourselves to the previous desires that you followed when you were ignorant.
1Pe 1:15 But as the One who called you is set apart, you too, be set apart in your whole behavior.
1Pe 1:16 For it is written, “Be set apart, because I am set apart” (Lev. 11:44-45; 19:2; 20:7).
1Pe 1:17 And if you call “Father,” the One who judges without bias according to each person’s work, spend the time of your journey in reverence.
1Pe 1:18 You know that it was not with perishable silver or gold that you have been redeemed from the foolish behavior that you learned from your fathers.
1Pe 1:19 Instead, you have been redeemed with the precious blood of Messiah, who was like a lamb without blemish or spot.
1Pe 1:20 Messiah was chosen before the foundation of the world, but now he has been revealed to you in these last times.
1Pe 1:21 Through him you believe in Yehowah, who raised him from the dead, and to whom he gave glory, so that your faith and hope would be in Yehowah.
1Pe 1:22 You made your souls pure by obedience to the truth through the Ruach. This was for the purpose of sincere affectionate love; so unconditionally selflessly love one another earnestly from the heart.
1Pe 1:23 You have been born again (John 3:3; 1 John 2:29), not from perishable seed, but from imperishable seed, through the living and remaining Word of Yehowah.
1Pe 1:24 For “all flesh is like grass, and all mankind’s glory is like the flower of the grass. The grass dries up, and the flower falls off, 1Pe 1:25 but the Word of Yehowah remains forever.” This is the spoken good news that was announced to you (Isa. 40:6-8).

1 Peter Chapter 2

1Pe 2:1 Therefore, put aside all evil, all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all slander.
1Pe 2:2 As newborn infants, long for pure milk of the word, so that through it you may grow in salvation,
1Pe 2:3 since you have tasted that the Lord is kind.
1Pe 2:4 Come to him who is a living Stone that has been rejected by people, but that has been chosen by Yehowah as valuable to him.
1Pe 2:5 You also are like living stones that are being built up to be a spiritual house, in order to be a set-apart priesthood that offers the spiritual sacrifices acceptable to Yehowah through Yeshua Messiah.
1Pe 2:6 Scripture contains this: "See: I will lay in Zion an established Stone, a testing Stone, a precious Cornerstone, a sure Foundation. He who believes in him will not be ashamed" (Isa. 28:16).
1Pe 2:7 The honor then is for you who believe he is valuable. But, "the Stone that was rejected by the builders, this has become the chief Cornerstone" (Psa. 118:22-23),
1Pe 2:8 and, "a Stone of striking, and a Rock of stumbling." They stumble, disobeying the word, for which they were also destined (Isa. 8:14-15).
1Pe 2:9 But you are a chosen family, a royal priesthood, a set-apart nation, a people for the possession of Yehowah, so that you would announce the wonderful actions of the One who called you out from darkness into his marvelous light.
1Pe 2:10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of Yehowah. You did not receive mercy, but now you have received mercy.
1Pe 2:11 Beloved, I call on you as sojourning foreigners and resident aliens to abstain from fleshly desires, which make war against your soul.
1Pe 2:12 You should have good behavior among the ethnicities, so that, if they speak about you as having done evil things, they may observe your good works and glorify Yehowah on the Day of his coming.
1Pe 2:13 Submit to every human authority for the sake of the Lord, including both the king as supreme,
1Pe 2:14 and also the governors, who are sent to punish evildoers and to praise those who do well.
1Pe 2:15 For this is the will of Yehowah, that in doing good, you silence the ignorant talk of foolish people.
1Pe 2:16 As free people, do not use your freedom as a covering for wickedness but be like servants of Yehowah.
1Pe 2:17 Honor all people. Unconditionally selflessly love the brotherhood. Fear Yehowah. Honor the king.

1Pe 2:18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect. Be subject not only to the good and gentle masters, but also to the malicious ones.
1Pe 2:19 For it is praiseworthy if anyone endures pain while suffering injustice because of his awareness of Yehowah.
1Pe 2:20 For how much credit is there if you sin and then endure while being punished? But if you have done well, and then you suffer while being punished, this is praiseworthy with Yehowah.
1Pe 2:21 For it is to this that you were called, because Messiah also suffered for you. He left an example for you to follow in his footsteps.
1Pe 2:22 He committed no sin, neither was any deceit found in his mouth.
1Pe 2:23 When he was reviled, he did not revile back. When he suffered, he did not threaten back, but he gave himself to the One who judges justly.
1Pe 2:24 He himself carried our sins in his body to the tree (cross), so that we would have no more part in sin, and so that we would live for righteousness. By his bruises you have been healed.
1Pe 2:25 All of you had been wandering away like lost sheep, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

1 Peter Chapter 3

1Pe 3:1 In this Way, you who are wives should submit to your own husbands. Do this, so even if some husbands are disobedient to the word, they may be won without a word, through their wives' behavior.
1Pe 3:2 For they will have seen your sincere behavior with respect.
1Pe 3:3 Let it be done not with outward ornaments: braided hair, jewels of gold, or fashionable clothing.
1Pe 3:4 Instead, let it be done with the inner person of the heart, and the lasting beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious before Yehowah.
1Pe 3:5 For set-apart women once adorned themselves in this Way. They had confidence in Yehowah, and they submitted to their own husbands.
1Pe 3:6 In this Way, Sarah obeyed Abraham and called him her master. You are now her children, if you do what is good, and if you are not afraid of trouble.
1Pe 3:7 In the same Way, you husbands should live with your wives according to understanding, as with a weaker container, a woman. You should give them honor as fellow heirs of the gift of life. Do this, so that your prayers will not be hindered.
1Pe 3:8 Finally, all of you, be like-minded, compassionate, loving as brethren and sistren, tenderhearted, and kind.
1Pe 3:9 Do not pay back evil for evil or insult for insult. On the contrary, continue to bless, because for this you were called, that you might inherit a blessing.
1Pe 3:10 "The one who wants to love life and see good days should stop his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit.
1Pe 3:11 Let him turn away from what is bad and do what is good. Let him seek peace and pursue it.
1Pe 3:12 The eyes of Yehowah see the righteous, and his ears hear their requests. But the face of Yehowah is against those who do evil."
1Pe 3:13 Who is the one who will harm you if you desire what is good?
1Pe 3:14 But if you suffer because of righteousness, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear. Do not be troubled.
1Pe 3:15 Instead, set apart Lord Yehowah in your hearts as consecrated. Always be ready to answer everyone who asks you why you have hope within you. Do this with meekness and respect.
1Pe 3:16 Have a good conscience, so that the people who insult your good life in Messiah may be ashamed, because they are speaking against you as if you were evildoers.
1Pe 3:17 It is better, if Yehowah desires, that you suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

1Pe 3:18 Messiah also suffered once for sins. He who is righteous suffered for us, who were unrighteous, so that he would bring us to Yehowah. He was executed in the flesh, but he was made alive by the Ruach.
1Pe 3:19 By the Ruach, he went and preached to the spirits who are now in prison.
1Pe 3:20 They were disobedient when the patience of Yehowah was waiting in the days of Noah, in the days of the building of an ark, and Yehowah saved a few people, eight souls, through the water (Gen. 6-9).
1Pe 3:21 This is a symbol of the immersion that saves you now, not as a washing away of dirt from the body, but as the appeal of a good conscience to Yehowah, through the resurrection of Yeshua Messiah.
1Pe 3:22 Messiah is at the right hand of Yehowah. He went into Heaven. Angels, authorities, and powers must submit to him.

1 Peter Chapter 4

1Pe 4:1 Therefore, because Messiah suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves with the same intention. For whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin.
1Pe 4:2 As a result, such a person, for the rest of his time in the flesh, no longer lives for human desires but for the will of Yehowah.
1Pe 4:3 For enough time has passed to do what the ethnicities want to do, licentiousness, passion, drunkenness, carousings, wild parties, and disgusting acts of idolatry.
1Pe 4:4 They think it is strange that you do not join with them in these floods of dissipation, so they speak evil about you.
1Pe 4:5 They will give an account to the One who is ready to judge the living and the dead.
1Pe 4:6 For this purpose the good news was preached also to the dead, so that, although they have been judged in the flesh as humans, they may live according to Yehowah in the Ruach.
1Pe 4:7 The end of all things is coming near. Therefore, be of sound mind, and be sober in your thinking for the sake of prayers.
1Pe 4:8 Above all things, have fervent unconditional selfless love for one another, for unconditional selfless love covers a multitude of sins.
1Pe 4:9 Be hospitable to one another without complaining.
1Pe 4:10 As each one of you has received a gift, use it to serve one another. Do this as good stewards of the varied grace of Yehowah.
1Pe 4:11 If anyone speaks, let it be like the oracles of Yehowah. If anyone serves, let it be from the strength that Yehowah supplies. Do these things, so that in all ways Yehowah would be glorified through Yeshua Messiah. May there be to Yeshua glory and power forever and ever. Amein.
1Pe 4:12 Beloved, do not be amazed at the testing in the fire that has happened to you, as if something strange were happening to you.
1Pe 4:13 Instead, however much you experience the sufferings of Messiah, rejoice, so that you may also rejoice and be glad at the revealing of his glory.
1Pe 4:14 If you are insulted for the name of Messiah, you are blessed, because the Ruach of glory and of Yehowah is resting on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified.
1Pe 4:15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evildoer, or a meddler.
1Pe 4:16 But if anyone suffers as a Messianic, let him not be ashamed; instead, let him glorify Yehowah with that name (Acts 11:26).

1Pe 4:17 For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of Yehowah. If it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the good news of Yehowah?
1Pe 4:18 And if “the righteous person is scarcely saved, how will the irreverent person and the sinner appear?”
1Pe 4:19 Therefore, let adherents who suffer because of the will of Yehowah entrust their souls to the faithful Creator in well-doing.

1 Peter Chapter 5

1Pe 5:1 I am exhorting the elders among you, I, who am a fellow elder. I am also a witness of the sufferings of Messiah, and am also a participant in the glory that will be revealed.
1Pe 5:2 Therefore, I exhort you, elders, tend the flock of Yehowah that is among you. Look after them, not because you must, but because you wish to, according to the will of Yehowah. Look after them, not for dishonest money but willingly.
1Pe 5:3 Do not act as a master over the people who are in your care. Instead, be an example to the flock.
1Pe 5:4 Then, when the Chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive an unfading crown of glory.
1Pe 5:5 In the same way, you younger men submit to the older men. All of you clothe yourselves with humility and serve one another. For Yehowah resists the proud, but he gives grace to the humble.
1Pe 5:6 Therefore, humble yourselves under the mighty hand of Yehowah, so that he may lift you up in due time.
1Pe 5:7 Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.
1Pe 5:8 Be sober, be watchful. Your adversary, the Devil, is stalking around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour.
1Pe 5:9 Stand against him. Be strong in your faith. You know that your community of believers that are in the world are enduring the same sufferings.
1Pe 5:10 After you suffer for a little while, Yehowah of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Messiah Yeshua, will perfect you, establish you, strengthen and stabilize you.
1Pe 5:11 To him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amein.
1Pe 5:12 I regard Silas as a faithful brother, and I have written to you briefly through him. I am exhorting you, and I am testifying to you that what I have written is the true grace of Yehowah. Stand in it.
1Pe 5:13 Co-elected brethren and sistren in Babylon greet you. Also Mark, my son, greets you.
1Pe 5:14 Greet one another with a kiss of unconditional selfless love. May peace be to you all who are in Messiah Yeshua. Amein.

Book of 2nd Peter

2 Peter Chapter 1

2Pe 1:1 Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Yeshua Messiah, to those who have received the same precious faith as we have received, faith in the righteousness of Yehowah and our Savior Yeshua Messiah.
2Pe 1:2 May grace and peace increase in measure in the knowledge of Yehowah and of Yeshua our Lord.
2Pe 1:3 All the things concerning divine power for life and reverence have been given to us through the knowledge of Yehowah, who called us through his own glory and virtue.
2Pe 1:4 Through these, he gave us precious and great promises, so that you might be sharers in the divine nature, as you escape from the corruption that is in the world because of wicked desires.
2Pe 1:5 For this reason, do your best to add virtue through your faith, and through your virtue, knowledge.
2Pe 1:6 Through your knowledge, add self-control, and through your self-control, add endurance, and through your endurance, add reverence.
2Pe 1:7 Through your reverence, add brotherly affection, and through your brotherly affection, add unconditional selfless love.
2Pe 1:8 If these things are in you and grow in you, you will not be barren or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
2Pe 1:9 But whoever lacks these things sees only what is near; he is blind. He has forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.
2Pe 1:10 Therefore, brethren and sistren, do your best to make your calling and election sure for yourselves. If you do these things, you will not stumble.
2Pe 1:11 In this Way, an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Yeshua Messiah will be richly granted to you.
2Pe 1:12 Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you of these things, although you know them, and although you are strong in the truth now.
2Pe 1:13 I think it is right for me to stir you up with a reminder about these things, as long as I am in this tent.
2Pe 1:14 For I know that soon I will remove my tent, as our Lord Yeshua Messiah has shown me.
2Pe 1:15 I will do my best to see to it that you always remember these things after my departure.

2Pe 1:16 For we did not follow cleverly invented myths when we told you about the power and the appearance of our Lord Yeshua Messiah. Instead, we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
2Pe 1:17 For he received honor and glory from Yehowah the Father, when a voice was brought to him by the majestic Glory proclaiming, “This is my beloved Son, my chosen One, in whom my soul delights” (Isa. 42:1).
2Pe 1:18 We heard this voice that came out of Heaven, while we were with him on the set-apart mountain.
2Pe 1:19 We have this more sure prophetic word. You do well to pay attention to it. It is like a lamp shining in a dark place, until the Day dawns, and the Morning Star rises in your hearts.
2Pe 1:20 Know this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is about one’s own interpretation.
2Pe 1:21 For no prophecy ever came by the will of a human. Instead, set-apart people carried along by Ruach ha’Kodesh spoke from Yehowah.

2 Peter Chapter 2

2Pe 2:1 False prophets came to the people, and false teachers will also come to you. They will secretly bring with them destructive heresies, and they will deny the Absolute Master who bought them. They are bringing quick destruction upon themselves.
2Pe 2:2 Many will follow their licentiousness, and through them the Way of truth will be blasphemed.
2Pe 2:3 With greediness they will make a profit off of you with deceptive words. Their condemnation does not delay for long; their destruction does not sleep.
2Pe 2:4 For Yehowah did not spare the angels who sinned. Instead, he handed them down to the deepest abyss of hell to be kept in chains of lower darkness until the Judgment.
2Pe 2:5 Also, he did not spare the ancient world. Instead, he preserved Noah, who was the eighth herald of righteousness (8th Melchizedek, Heb. 11:7), when he brought a flood on the world of the wicked (c. 3398 BC).
2Pe 2:6 Yehowah also reduced the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes and condemned them to destruction, as an example of what is to happen to the wicked.
2Pe 2:7 But as for righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the behavior of lawless men in licentiousness, Yehowah rescued him.
2Pe 2:8 For that righteous man, who was living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul, because of what he saw and heard of their lawless deeds.
2Pe 2:9 Yehowah knows how to rescue the reverent out of trials, and how to hold unrighteous men for punishment at the Day of Judgment.
2Pe 2:10 This is especially true for those who continue in the corrupt desires of the flesh and despise authority. They are presumptuous and arrogant. They are not afraid to blaspheme the glorious ones.
2Pe 2:11 Angels have greater strength and power, but they do not bring insulting judgments against them to Yehowah.
2Pe 2:12 But these mindless animals are naturally made for capture and destruction. They do not know what they insult. They will be destroyed.
2Pe 2:13 They will receive the reward of their wrongdoing. They think that debauchery during the day is a pleasure. They are stains and blemishes. They enjoy their deceitful actions, while they are feasting with you.
2Pe 2:14 They have eyes full of an adulteress; they are never satisfied with sin. They entice unstable souls into wrongdoing, and they have their hearts trained in covetousness. They are children of a curse!

2Pe 2:15 They have abandoned the right Way. They went astray, and they have followed the way of Balaam son of Beor, who loved to receive payment for unrighteousness.
2Pe 2:16 But he obtained a rebuke for his own transgression. A mute donkey speaking in a human voice stopped the prophet's insanity.
2Pe 2:17 These men are like springs without water. They are like clouds that a storm drives along. Thick darkness is reserved for them forever.
2Pe 2:18 They speak with vain arrogance. They entice people through the lusts of the flesh and lasciviousness. They entice people who try to escape from those who live in error.
2Pe 2:19 They promise freedom to them, but they themselves are slaves of corruption. For a man is a slave to whatever overcomes him.
2Pe 2:20 Whoever escapes the defilements of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Yeshua Messiah, and then returns to those defilements again, the last state has become worse for them than the first state.
2Pe 2:21 It would have been better for them not to know the Way of righteousness, than to know it and turn away from the set-apart commandment delivered to them.
2Pe 2:22 This proverb is true for them: "A dog returns to its own vomit. A washed sow returns to her rolling in the mud."

2 Peter Chapter 3

2Pe 3:1 Now I am writing to you, beloved, this second letter as a reminder to stir up your sincere mind,
2Pe 3:2 so that you will recall the words spoken in the past by the set-apart prophets, and the command of our Lord and Savior given through your apostles.
2Pe 3:3 Know this first, that mockers will come in the last days. They will mock and proceed according to their own desires.
2Pe 3:4 They will say, “Where is the promise of his return? From when our fathers died, all things have stayed the same since the beginning of creation.”
2Pe 3:5 They willfully forget that the heavens and the earth came to exist out of water and through water, long ago, by the command of Yehowah,
2Pe 3:6 and that through these things, the world of that time was destroyed, being flooded with water (c. 3398 BC).
2Pe 3:7 But now the heavens and the earth are reserved for fire by that same command. They are reserved for the Day of Judgment and the destruction of wicked humans.
2Pe 3:8 It should not escape your notice, beloved, that one day with Yehowah is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day (Psa. 90:4).
2Pe 3:9 Yehowah does not move slowly concerning his promises, as some consider slowness to be. Instead, he is patient toward you. He does not desire for any of you to perish, but for everyone to make room for repentance.
2Pe 3:10 However, the Day of Yehowah will come as a thief in the night: The heavens will pass away with a loud noise. The elements will be burned with fire, and the earth and the deeds in it will be consumed.
2Pe 3:11 Since all these things will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people should you be? You should live set apart and reverent lives.
2Pe 3:12 You should expect and hasten the coming of the Day of Yehowah. On that Day, the heavens will be destroyed by fire, and the elements will be melted in great heat.
2Pe 3:13 But according to his promise, we are waiting for the new heavens and the new earth, where righteousness will dwell (Rev. 21:1; Isa. 65:17; Isa. 66:22).
2Pe 3:14 Therefore, beloved, since you expect these things, do your best to be found spotless and blameless before him, in peace.
2Pe 3:15 Also, consider the patience of our Lord to be salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul wrote to you, according to the wisdom that was given to him.
2Pe 3:16 Paul speaks of these things in all his letters, in which there are things that are difficult to understand. Ignorant and unstable men distort (Hellenize) these things, as they also do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

2Pe 3:17 Therefore, beloved, since you know these things, guard yourselves, so that you are not led astray by the deceit of lawless people, and you lose your own faithfulness.
2Pe 3:18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Yeshua Messiah. May the glory be to him both now and forever. Amein!

Book of 1st John

1 John Chapter 1

1Jn 1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at, and our hands have touched, it is about the Word of life.
1Jn 1:2 Also, the life was made known, and we have seen it, and we bear witness to it. We are announcing to you the eternal life, which was with the Father, and which has been made known to us.
1Jn 1:3 That which we have seen and heard we declare also to you, so you also will have fellowship with us. Our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Yeshua Messiah.
1Jn 1:4 Also, we are writing these things to you, so that your joy will be complete.
1Jn 1:5 This is the message that we have heard from him and are announcing to you: Yehowah is light, and in him there is no darkness at all.
1Jn 1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in darkness, we are lying and are not practicing the truth.
1Jn 1:7 But if we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Yeshua Messiah his Son cleanses us from every sin.
1Jn 1:8 If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
1Jn 1:9 If we continually confess our sins to Yehowah, he is continually faithful and just, so that he continually forgives us our sins and continually cleanses us from all unrighteousness (Psa. 32:5; Num. 5:6-7; Mark 1:5; Jam. 5:16; Col. 2:13).
1Jn 1:10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar, and his word is not in us.

1 John Chapter 2

1Jn 2:1 Children, I am writing these things to you, so that you will not sin. But if anyone sins, we have an Advocate (Heb. Menachem) with the Father, Yeshua Messiah, the One who is righteous.
1Jn 2:2 He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the whole world.
1Jn 2:3 By this we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.
1Jn 2:4 The one who proclaims, “I know Yehowah,” but does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
1Jn 2:5 But whoever keeps his word, truly, it is in that person that the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah has been perfected. By this we know that we are in him.
1Jn 2:6 The one who says he remains in Yehowah should himself also walk just as Yeshua walked.
1Jn 2:7 Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment that you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you heard from the beginning.
1Jn 2:8 Yet I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in Messiah and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.
1Jn 2:9 The one who says that he is in the light and hates his brother or sister is in the darkness until now.
1Jn 2:10 The one who unconditionally selflessly loves his brother or sister remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him.
1Jn 2:11 But the one who hates his brother or sister is in the darkness and walks in the darkness; he does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.
1Jn 2:12 I am writing to you, dear children, because your sins are forgiven through his name.
1Jn 2:13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know the One who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, little children, because you know the Father.
1Jn 2:14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know the One who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the Word of Yehowah remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.
1Jn 2:15 Do not love the world nor the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the unconditional selfless love of the Father is not in him.
1Jn 2:16 For everything that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the arrogance of life, is not from the Father but is from the world.

1Jn 2:17 The world and its lust are passing away. But whoever does the will of Yehowah will remain forever.
1Jn 2:18 Little children, it is the last hour. Just as you heard that Antimessiah is coming, now many antimessiahs have come. By this we know that it is the last hour.
1Jn 2:19 They went out from us, but they were not from us. For if they had been from us, they would have remained with us. But when they went out, that showed they were not from us.
1Jn 2:20 But you have an anointing from the Set-apart One, and you all know the truth.
1Jn 2:21 I did not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is from the truth.
1Jn 2:22 Who is the liar, but the one who denies that Yeshua is Messiah? That person is antimessiah, since he denies the Father and the Son.
1Jn 2:23 No one who denies the Son has the Father. Whoever acknowledges the Son also has the Father.
1Jn 2:24 As for you, let what you have heard from the beginning remain in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you will also remain in the Son and in the Father.
1Jn 2:25 And this is the promise he gave to us: eternal life.
1Jn 2:26 I have written these things to you about those who would lead you astray.
1Jn 2:27 As for you, the anointing that you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you everything, is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in him.
1Jn 2:28 And now, dear children, remain in him, so that when he appears, we will have boldness and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
1Jn 2:29 If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who does what is right has been born from him (John 3:3; 1 Pet. 1:23).

1 John Chapter 3

1Jn 3:1 See what kind of unconditional selfless love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of Yehowah, and this is what we are. For this reason, the world does not know us, because it did not know him.
1Jn 3:2 Beloved, we are now children of Yehowah, and it has not yet been revealed what we will be. We know that when Messiah appears, we will be like him, for we will see him just as he is (1 Cor. 15:29).
1Jn 3:3 Everyone who has this hope about the future fixed on him purifies himself just as he is pure.
1Jn 3:4 Everyone who commits sin is doing what is lawless; for sin is violation of the law.
1Jn 3:5 You know that Messiah was revealed in order to take away sins, and in him there is no sin.
1Jn 3:6 No one who remains in him will keep on sinning. No one who continues to sin has seen him or known him.
1Jn 3:7 Dear children, do not let anyone lead you astray. The one who does righteousness is righteous, just as Messiah is righteous.
1Jn 3:8 The one who commits sin is from the Devil, for the Devil has sinned from the beginning. For this reason the Son of Yehowah was revealed, so that he would destroy the works of the Devil.
1Jn 3:9 Whoever has been born from Yehowah does not continue to sin, because the seed of Yehowah remains in him. He cannot continue to sin, because he has been born of Yehowah.
1Jn 3:10 In this, the children of Yehowah and the children of the Devil are revealed. Whoever does not do what is righteous is not from Yehowah; neither is the one who does not unconditionally selflessly love his brother or sister.
1Jn 3:11 For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning: That we should unconditionally selflessly love one another,
1Jn 3:12 not like Cain, who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he kill him? Because his works were evil and his brother's righteous.
1Jn 3:13 Do not be amazed, my brethren and sistren, if the world hates you.
1Jn 3:14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we unconditionally selflessly love the brethren and sistren. Anyone who does not unconditionally selflessly love his brother or sister remains in death.
1Jn 3:15 Anyone who hates his brother or sister is a murderer. And you know that eternal life does not remain in a murderer.
1Jn 3:16 By this we know the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah, because Messiah laid down his life for us. We also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren and sistren.

1Jn 3:17 But whoever has the world's goods, sees his brother or sister in need, and shuts up his heart of compassion from him, how does the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah remain in him?
1Jn 3:18 My dear children, let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in actions and truth.
1Jn 3:19 It is by this we know that we are from the truth, and we assure our hearts before him.
1Jn 3:20 For if our hearts condemn us, Yehowah is greater than our hearts, and he knows all things.
1Jn 3:21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence toward Yehowah.
1Jn 3:22 Whatever we ask we will receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing before him.
1Jn 3:23 This is his (1st) commandment: That we should believe in the name of his Son Yeshua Messiah and unconditionally selflessly love one another, just as he gave us this commandment (Exo. 20:2; Heb. 11:6).
1Jn 3:24 The one who keeps the commandments of Yehowah remains in him, and Yehowah remains in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Ruach whom he gave to us.

1 John Chapter 4

1Jn 4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit. Instead, test the spirits to see whether they are from Yehowah, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.
1Jn 4:2 By this you will know the Ruach of Yehowah, every spirit that acknowledges that Yeshua Messiah has come in the flesh is from Yehowah,
1Jn 4:3 and every spirit that does not acknowledge that Yeshua Messiah has come in the flesh is not from Yehowah. This is the spirit of Antimessiah, which you have heard is coming and now is already in the world.
1Jn 4:4 You are from Yehowah, dear children, and have overcome them, because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.
1Jn 4:5 They are from the world; therefore what they say is from the world, and the world listens to them.
1Jn 4:6 We are from Yehowah. Anyone who knows Yehowah listens to us. He who is not from Yehowah does not listen to us. By this we know the Ruach of Truth and the spirit of error.
1Jn 4:7 Beloved, let us unconditionally selflessly love one another, for unconditional selfless love is from Yehowah, and everyone who unconditionally selflessly loves is born from Yehowah and knows Yehowah.
1Jn 4:8 The person who does not unconditionally selflessly love does not know Yehowah, for Yehowah is unconditional selfless love.
1Jn 4:9 Because of this, the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah was revealed among us, that Yehowah has sent his only Son into the world, so that we would live through him.
1Jn 4:10 In this is unconditional selfless love, not that we unconditionally selflessly loved Yehowah, but that he unconditionally selflessly loved us, and that he sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
1Jn 4:11 Beloved, if Yehowah so unconditionally selflessly loved us, we also should unconditionally selflessly love one another.
1Jn 4:12 No one has ever seen Yehowah. If we unconditionally selflessly love one another, Yehowah remains in us, and his unconditional selfless love is perfected in us.
1Jn 4:13 By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Ruach.
1Jn 4:14 Also, we have seen and have borne witness that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.
1Jn 4:15 Whoever acknowledges that Yeshua is the Son of Yehowah, Yehowah remains in him and he in Yehowah.

1Jn 4:16 Also, we have known and believed the unconditional selfless love that Yehowah has for us. Yehowah is unconditional selfless love, and the one who remains in this unconditional selfless love remains in Yehowah, and Yehowah remains in him.
1Jn 4:17 Because of this, this unconditional selfless love has been made perfect among us, so that we will have confidence on the Day of Judgment, because as he is, just so are we in this world.
1Jn 4:18 There is no fear in unconditional selfless love. Instead, perfect unconditional selfless love throws fear out, because fear has to do with punishment. But the one who fears has not been made perfect in unconditional selfless love.
1Jn 4:19 We unconditionally selflessly love him, because he first unconditionally selflessly loved us.
1Jn 4:20 If anyone says, “I unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah,” but hates his brother or sister, he is a liar. For the one who does not unconditionally selflessly love his brother or sister, whom he has seen, cannot unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah, whom he has not seen.
1Jn 4:21 Also, this is the commandment we have from him: Whoever unconditionally selflessly loves Yehowah must also unconditionally selflessly love his own brother or sister.

1 John Chapter 5

1Jn 5:1 Whoever believes that Yeshua is the Messiah is born from Yehowah. And whoever unconditionally selflessly loves the father also unconditionally selflessly loves the child born from him.
1Jn 5:2 Because of this, we know that we unconditionally selflessly love the children of Yehowah: When we unconditionally selflessly love Yehowah and do his commandments.
1Jn 5:3 For this is unconditional selfless love for Yehowah: That we keep his commandments (Exo. 20:6). And his commandments are not burdensome.
1Jn 5:4 For everyone who is born from Yehowah overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith.
1Jn 5:5 Who is the one who overcomes the world? The one who believes that Yeshua is the Son of Yehowah.
1Jn 5:6 This is the One who came by water and blood: Yeshua Messiah. He came not only by water but by water and blood. It is the Ruach who testifies, because the Ruach is the truth.
1Jn 5:7 For there are three who bear witness in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and Ruach ha'Kodesh: and these three are Oneness.
1Jn 5:8 And there are three that bear witness on the earth, the Ruach, the water, and the blood. These three agree in Oneness.
1Jn 5:9 If we receive the witness of people, the witness of Yehowah is greater. For the testimony of Yehowah is this, that he has borne witness concerning his Son.
1Jn 5:10 Anyone who believes in the Son of Yehowah has the testimony in himself. Anyone who does not believe Yehowah has made him out to be a liar, because he has not believed the witness that Yehowah has given concerning his Son.
1Jn 5:11 And the witness is this: Yehowah gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.
1Jn 5:12 The one who has the Son has life. The one who does not have the Son of Yehowah does not have life.
1Jn 5:13 I have written these things to you, so that you will know that you have eternal life, to you who believe in the name of the Son of Yehowah.
1Jn 5:14 Also, this is the confidence we have before him, that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.
1Jn 5:15 Also, if we know that he hears us, whatever we ask of him, we know that we have whatever we have asked of him.
1Jn 5:16 If anyone sees his brother or sister commit a sin that does not result in death, he must pray, and Yehowah will give him life. I refer to those whose sin does not result in death. There is a sin that results in death; I am not saying that he should pray about that.

1Jn 5:17 All unrighteousness is sin, but there is sin that does not result in death.
1Jn 5:18 We know that whoever is born from Yehowah does not sin. But the One who was born from Yehowah keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him.
1Jn 5:19 We know that we are from Yehowah, and we know that the whole world lies in the evil one.
1Jn 5:20 But we know that the Son of Yehowah has come and has given us understanding, so that we know the One who is true. Also, we are in the One who is true, in his Son Yeshua Messiah. He is Yehowah the true and eternal life.
1Jn 5:21 Children, keep yourselves from idols. Amein.

Book of 2nd John

2 John Chapter 1

2Jn 1:1 From the elder to the chosen lady and her children, whom I unconditionally selflessly love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth,
2Jn 1:2 because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us forever.
2Jn 1:3 May grace, mercy, and peace be with you from Yehowah the Father and from Lord Yeshua Messiah, the Son of the Father, in truth and unconditional selfless love.
2Jn 1:4 I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received this commandment from the Father.
2Jn 1:5 Now I plead with you, lady, not as though I were writing to you a new commandment, but one that we have had from the beginning, that we should unconditionally selflessly love one another.
2Jn 1:6 And this is unconditional selfless love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, just as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.
2Jn 1:7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world, and they do not confess that Yeshua Messiah came in the flesh. This is a deceiver and antimessiah.
2Jn 1:8 Look to yourselves, that you do not lose the things for which we all have worked, but so that you may receive a full reward.
2Jn 1:9 Whoever goes on ahead and does not remain in the teaching of Messiah does not have Yehowah. The one who remains in the teaching of Messiah, this one has both the Father and the Son.
2Jn 1:10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house and do not greet him.
2Jn 1:11 For the one who greets him participates in his evil deeds.
2Jn 1:12 I have many things to write to you, but I did not wish to write them in a letter. However, I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that our joy will be complete.
2Jn 1:13 The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amein.

Book of 3rd John

3 John Chapter 1

3Jn 1:1 The elder to beloved Gaius, whom I unconditionally selflessly love in truth.
3Jn 1:2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.
3Jn 1:3 For I rejoiced greatly when brethren and sistren came and bore witness to your truth, just as you walk in truth.
3Jn 1:4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear that my children walk in the truth.
3Jn 1:5 Beloved, you practice faithfulness whenever you work for the brethren and sistren and for sojourning foreigners,
3Jn 1:6 who have borne witness of your unconditional selfless love in the presence of the congregation. You do well to send them off on their journey in a manner worthy of Yehowah,
3Jn 1:7 because it was for the sake of the Name that they went out, taking nothing from the ethnicities.
3Jn 1:8 We therefore should welcome such as these, so that we will be fellow workers for the truth.
3Jn 1:9 I wrote something to the congregation, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not receive us.
3Jn 1:10 Therefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds that he does, how he says ridiculous things against us with evil words. Not satisfied with these deeds, he himself does not receive the brethren and sistren. He forbids those who desire to do so and drives them out of the congregation.
3Jn 1:11 Beloved, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. The one who does good is of Yehowah; the one who does evil has not seen Yehowah.
3Jn 1:12 Demetrius is borne witness to by all and by the truth itself. We also bear witness, and you know that our testimony is true.
3Jn 1:13 I had many things to write to you, but I do not wish to write them to you with pen and ink.
3Jn 1:14 But I expect to see you soon, and we will speak face to face.
3Jn 1:15 May peace be with you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Book of Judah

Judah Chapter 1

Jud 1:1 Judah, a servant of Yeshua Messiah, and brother of Jacob, to those who are called, consecrated in Yehowah the Father, and kept for Yeshua Messiah:
Jud 1:2 May mercy, peace, and unconditional selfless love be multiplied to you.
Jud 1:3 Beloved, while I was making every effort to write to you about our common salvation, I had to write to you to exhort you to struggle earnestly for the faith that was handed down once for all to the believers.
Jud 1:4 For certain people have slipped in secretly among you. These are people who were marked out for condemnation. They are wicked people who pervert the grace of Yehowah into licentiousness, and who deny Yehowah our only Absolute Master, and our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Jud 1:5 Now I wish to remind you, although once you fully knew it, that Yehowah saved a people out of the land of Egypt, but that afterward he destroyed those who did not believe.
Jud 1:6 Also, angels who did not keep to their own position of authority, but who left their proper dwelling place, Yehowah has kept them in everlasting chains, in utter darkness, for the Judgment on the great Day.
Jud 1:7 It is just like Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, which also indulged themselves in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desires. They were displayed as examples of those who suffer the punishment in eternal fire.
Jud 1:8 Yet in the same way, these dreamers also pollute their bodies. They reject authority, and they say slanderous things against the glorious ones.
Jud 1:9 But even Michael the archangel, when he was arguing with the Devil and disputing with him about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring a slanderous judgment against him. Instead he said, “May Yehowah rebuke you!”
Jud 1:10 But these people bring slanders against whatever they do not understand. And what they do understand, what unreasoning animals know by instinct, these are what destroyed them.
Jud 1:11 Woe to them! For they have walked in the way of Cain, and have plunged into Balaam’s error for profit. They have perished in Korah’s rebellion.
Jud 1:12 These are the ones who are hidden reefs in your love feasts. They feast shamelessly, feeding only for themselves. They are clouds without water, carried along by winds. They are autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, torn up by the roots.

Jud 1:13 They are violent waves in the sea, foaming out their own shame. They are wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.
Jud 1:14 Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about them, “Look! Yehowah is coming with myriad of his set-apart ones (Mat. 25:31; Mark 8:38; 1 Thes. 4:14; Col. 3:4; Zech. 14:5; 1 Enoch, Sec. 1, 1:9).
Jud 1:15 He is coming to execute judgment on everyone. He is coming to convict all the wicked of all the works they have done in a wicked way, and of all the harsh words that wicked sinners have spoken against him.”
Jud 1:16 These are grumblers, complainers, who follow their evil desires. They are loud boasters, who, for their own advantage, flatter others.
Jud 1:17 But you, beloved, remember the words that were spoken in the past by the apostles of our Lord Yeshua Messiah.
Jud 1:18 They prophesied to you, “In the last time, there will be mockers who will follow their own wicked desires.”
Jud 1:19 These people are divisive. They are worldly, and they do not have the Ruach.
Jud 1:20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most set-apart faith, and pray in Ruach ha’Kodesh.
Jud 1:21 Keep yourselves in the unconditional selfless love of Yehowah, and wait for the mercy of our Lord Yeshua Messiah that brings you eternal life.
Jud 1:22 Be merciful to those who doubt.
Jud 1:23 Save others by snatching them out of the fire. To others be merciful with fear. Hate even the garment stained by the flesh.
Jud 1:24 Now to the One who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to cause you to stand before his glorious presence, without blemish and with great joy,
Jud 1:25 only to wise Yehowah our Savior through Yeshua Messiah our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and power, before all time, now, and forevermore. Amein.

Book of Revelation

Revelation Chapter 1

Rev 1:1 This is the revelation of Yeshua Messiah that Yehowah gave him to show his servants what must take place quickly once things begin. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John.
Rev 1:2 John testified about the Word of Yehowah and about the testimony given about Yeshua Messiah, all the things that he saw.
Rev 1:3 Blessed are the ones who read aloud, and who listen to the words of this prophecy, and who obey what is written in it, because the time is near.
Rev 1:4 John, to the seven congregations in Asia (Acts 11:26): May grace be to you and peace from the One who is, who was, and who is to come (Exo. 3:14-15), and from the seven Ruachim who are before his throne,
Rev 1:5 and from Yeshua Messiah, who is the faithful witness, the Firstborn from the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To the One who unconditionally selflessly loves us and has washed us from our sins by his blood,
Rev 1:6 he has made us a kingdom, priests for Yehowah his Father, to him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amein.
Rev 1:7 Look, he is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, including those who pierced him (Zech. 12:10; John 19:37; Psa. 22:16; Isa. 53:7). And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of him. Yes, Amein.
Rev 1:8 "I AM the Aleph and the Tav, the beginning and the end," declares the Lord, "the One who is, who was, and who is to come, the Most Powerful" (Exo. 3:14-15; Rev. 1:4; Isa. 41:4; 44:6; 48:12; Rev. 1:11; 1:17; 2:8; 21:6; 22:13).
Rev 1:9 I, John, your brother and the one who shares with you in the suffering, kingdom, and patient endurance that are in Yeshua Messiah, was on the island called Patmos (banished by Domitian, c. 95 AD), because of the Word of Yehowah and the testimony of Yeshua Messiah.
Rev 1:10 I was in the Ruach on the Day of Yehowah (Joel 2). I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,
Rev 1:11 "I AM the Aleph and the Tav, the first and the last (Isa. 44:6; 48:12; Rev. 1:8; 1:17; 2:8; 21:6; 22:13)! Write what you see in a Book and send it to the seven congregations in Asia, to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamum, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea!"
Rev 1:12 I turned around to see whose voice was speaking to me, and as I turned I saw the menorah with seven golden lamps.

Rev 1:13 In the middle of the menorah there was One like the Son of Man, wearing a long robe that reached down to his feet, and a golden sash around his chest.
Rev 1:14 His head and hair were as white as wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like a flame of fire.
Rev 1:15 His feet were like polished bronze, like bronze that had been refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many rushing waters.
Rev 1:16 He had seven stars in his right hand, and a sword with two sharp edges was coming out of his mouth. His face was shining like the sun at its strongest.
Rev 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man. He placed his right hand on me and said, "Do not be afraid. I AM the first and the last (Isa. 44:6; 48:12; Rev. 1:8; 1:11; 2:8; 21:6; 22:13),
Rev 1:18 and the One who lives. I was dead, but look, I live forever, Amein! And I have the keys of death and of the place of the dead.
Rev 1:19 Therefore, write down what you have seen, what is now, and what will take place after this.
Rev 1:20 As for the hidden meaning about the seven stars you saw in my right hand, and the menorah with the seven golden lamps: The seven stars are the pastors of the seven congregations, and the seven-lamp menorah is the seven congregations."

Revelation Chapter 2

Rev 2:1 “To the pastor of the congregation in Ephesus write: ‘These are the words of the One who holds the seven stars in his right hand, and who walks among the seven-lamp golden menorah,
Rev 2:2 “I know what you have done and your hard labor and your patient endurance. I know that you cannot tolerate the evil people. I know that you have tested those who say they are apostles but are not, and that you have found them to be false.
Rev 2:3 I know you have patient endurance, and you have suffered much because of my name, and that you have not grown weary.
Rev 2:4 But I have against you the fact that you have left behind your first unconditional selfless love.
Rev 2:5 Remember, therefore, from where you have fallen. Repent and do the things you did at first. Unless you repent, I will come to you quickly, and I will remove your menorah from its place.
Rev 2:6 But you have this: You hate what the Nicolaitans have done, which I also hate.
Rev 2:7 Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Ruach is saying to the congregations. To the one who conquers, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of Yehowah.”””
Rev 2:8 “To the pastor of the congregation in Smyrna write: ‘These are the words of the One who is the first and the last (Isa. 44:6; 48:12; Rev. 1:8; 1:11; 21:6; 22:13), the One who was dead, and who became alive again:
Rev 2:9 “I know your sufferings and your poverty, but you are rich. I know the slander of those who say they are Jews, but they are not. They are Satan’s house of assembly.
Rev 2:10 Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Look! The Devil is about to throw some of you into prison, so that you will be tested, and you will suffer for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.
Rev 2:11 Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Ruach is saying to the congregations. The one who conquers will not be hurt by the second death.”””
Rev 2:12 “To the pastor of the congregation in Pergamum write: ‘These are the words of the One who has the sword with two sharp edges:
Rev 2:13 “I know your deeds and where you live, there where Satan’s throne is. Yet you hold on tightly to my name. I know that you did not deny your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas my martyr, my faithful one, who was killed among you, there where Satan lives.
Rev 2:14 But I have a few things against you: You have there some who hold tightly to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, so they would eat food sacrificed to idols and be sexually immoral.

Rev 2:15 In the same way, you even have some who hold tightly to the teaching of the Nicolaitans, which I hate.
Rev 2:16 Repent, therefore! If you do not, I will quickly come to you, and I will wage war against them with the sword in my mouth.
Rev 2:17 Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Ruach is saying to the congregations. To the one who conquers, I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give a white stone with a new name written on the stone, a name which no one knows but the one who receives it"""" (Zech. 3:9).
Rev 2:18 "To the pastor of the congregation in Thyatira write: 'These are the words of the Son of Yehowah, who has eyes like a flame of fire and feet like polished bronze:
Rev 2:19 "I know what you have done: your unconditional selfless love, faith, service, and your patient endurance. I know that what you have done recently is more than you did at first.
Rev 2:20 But I have this against you: You tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching, she deceives my servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols.
Rev 2:21 I gave her time to repent, but she is not willing to repent of her sexual immorality.
Rev 2:22 Look! I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into Great Tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds.
Rev 2:23 I will strike her children dead, and all the congregations will know that I AM the One who searches thoughts and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.
Rev 2:24 But to the rest of you in Thyatira, to everyone who does not hold this teaching, and does not know what some call the deep things of Satan, to you I say, 'I do not put any other burden on you.'
Rev 2:25 In any case, you must hold on tightly until I come.
Rev 2:26 The one who conquers and who does what I have done until the end, to him I will give authority over the ethnicities.
Rev 2:27 'He will rule them with an iron rod, like clay jars he will break them into pieces' (Psa. 2:9).
Rev 2:28 Just as I have received from my Father, I will also give him the Morning Star.
Rev 2:29 Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Ruach is saying to the congregations."""

Revelation Chapter 3

Rev 3:1 “To the pastor of the congregation in Sardis write: ‘These are the words of the One who holds the sevenfold Ruach of Yehowah and the seven stars. “I know what you have done. You have a reputation that you are alive, but you are dead.
Rev 3:2 Wake up and strengthen what remains but is about to die, because I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of Yehowah.
Rev 3:3 Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard. Obey it and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come against you.
Rev 3:4 But there are a few names of the people in Sardis who did not make their clothes dirty. They will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy.
Rev 3:5 The one who conquers will be clothed in white garments, and I will never delete his name out of the Book of Life, and I will speak his name before my Father and before his angels.
Rev 3:6 Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Ruach is saying to the congregations.”””
Rev 3:7 “To the pastor of the congregation in Philadelphia write: ‘These are the words of the One who is set apart and true, he holds the key of David, he opens and no one shuts, he shuts and no one can open.
Rev 3:8 “I know what you have done. Look, I have put before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have obeyed my word and have not denied my name.
Rev 3:9 Look! Those who belong to Satan’s house of assembly, those who say they are Jews but are not; they are lying instead. I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and they will come to know that I unconditionally selflessly loved you.
Rev 3:10 Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of testing that is coming on the whole world, to test those who live on the earth.
Rev 3:11 I am coming soon. Hold tight to what you have, so no one can take away your crown.
Rev 3:12 I will make the one who conquers a pillar in the temple of Yehowah, and he will never go out of it. I will write on him the name of Yehowah, the name of the city of Yehowah, the New Jerusalem, that comes down out of Heaven from Yehowah, and my new name.
Rev 3:13 Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Ruach is saying to the congregations.”””

Rev 3:14 “To the pastor of the congregation in Laodicea write: ‘These are the words of the Amein, the reliable and true witness, the Ruler over the creation of Yehowah.
Rev 3:15 “I know what you have done, and that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot!
Rev 3:16 So because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I am about to vomit you out of my mouth.
Rev 3:17 For you say, ‘I am rich, I have had many material possessions, and I need nothing.’ But you do not know that you are most miserable, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked.
Rev 3:18 Listen to my advice: Buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may become rich, and brilliant white garments, so you may clothe yourself and not show the shame of your nakedness, and salve to anoint your eyes, so you will see.
Rev 3:19 I train everyone whom I love like a brother, and I teach them how they should live. Therefore, be earnest and repent.
Rev 3:20 Look, I am standing at the door and am knocking. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, will eat with him, and he with me.
Rev 3:21 The one who conquers, I will give him the right to sit down with me on my throne, just as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.
Rev 3:22 Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Ruach is saying to the congregations.”””

Revelation Chapter 4

Rev 4:1 After these things, I looked, and I saw an open door in Heaven. The first voice that I had heard was speaking to me like a trumpet, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after these things.”
Rev 4:2 At once, I was in the Ruach, and I saw there was a throne placed in Heaven, with Someone sitting on it.
Rev 4:3 The One who was sitting on it looked like jasper and carnelian. There was a rainbow around the throne. The rainbow looked like an emerald.
Rev 4:4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders, dressed with white garments, with golden crowns on their heads.
Rev 4:5 From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings, and crashes of thunder. A seven-lamp fiery menorah was burning in front of the throne, lamps that are the sevenfold Ruach of Yehowah.
Rev 4:6 Before the throne was a sea of glass, like crystal. In the middle of the throne and around the throne were four living creatures, full of eyes, front and back.
Rev 4:7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature was like a calf, the third living creature had a face like a human, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.
Rev 4:8 The four living creatures each had six wings, full of eyes on top and underneath. Day and night they do not stop proclaiming, “Set apart, set apart, set apart is Most Powerful Lord Yehowah, who was, who is, and who is to come” (Exo. 3:14-15)!
Rev 4:9 Whenever the living creatures gave glory, honor, and thanks to the One who was seated on the throne, the One who lives forever and ever,
Rev 4:10 the twenty-four elders prostrated themselves before the One seated on the throne. They bowed down to the One living forever and ever, and they threw down their crowns before the throne, praising,
Rev 4:11 “Worthy are you, Yehowah, to receive glory, honor, and power! For you created all things, and by your will they exist and were created!”

Revelation Chapter 5

Rev 5:1 Then I saw in the right hand of the One who was seated on the throne, a Scroll written on the front side and the back side. It had been sealed with seven seals.
Rev 5:2 I saw a powerful angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the Scroll and break its seals?”
Rev 5:3 No one in Heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the Scroll or to read it.
Rev 5:4 I wept bitterly, because no one was found worthy to open the Scroll or to read it, or to even look at it.
Rev 5:5 But one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. Look! The Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered. He is able to open the Scroll and its seven seals.”
Rev 5:6 I saw a Lamb standing between the throne, the four living creatures, and among the elders. He looked as though he had been slaughtered. He had seven horns and seven eyes; these are the sevenfold Ruachim of Yehowah sent out over all the earth (Eph. 4:4; Isa. 11:2-4).
Rev 5:7 He went and took hold of the Scroll out of the right hand of the One who was seated on the throne.
Rev 5:8 When the Lamb took the Scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders prostrated themselves before him. Each of them had a harp and a golden bowl full of incense, which is the prayers of the believers.
Rev 5:9 They sang a new song: “You are worthy to take the Scroll and to open its seals! For you were slaughtered, and with your blood you purchased people for Yehowah from every tribe, language, people, and ethnicity!
Rev 5:10 You made them kings and priests to serve Yehowah (Deut. 17:18-19), and they will reign on the earth!”
Rev 5:11 Then I looked and heard the sound of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders. Their total number was multiplied thousands of millions.
Rev 5:12 They proclaimed in a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been slaughtered to receive power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and praise!”
Rev 5:13 I heard every created thing that was in Heaven, on the earth, under the earth, and on the sea, everything in them, proclaiming, “To the One who sits on the throne and to the Lamb, be praise, honor, glory, and the power to rule, forever and ever!”
Rev 5:14 The four living creatures shouted, “Amein!” And the elders prostrated themselves and worshiped him who lives forever and ever.

Revelation Chapter 6

Rev 6:1 I looked when the Lamb opened the first of seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say in a voice that sounded like thunder, “Come and look!”
Rev 6:2 I looked and saw a white horse. Its rider held a bow, and he was given a crown. He came out as a conqueror in order to conquer.
Rev 6:3 When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come and look!”
Rev 6:4 Then another horse came out, fiery red. To its rider was given permission to take peace away from the earth, so that its people would slaughter one another. This rider was given a huge sword.
Rev 6:5 When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come and look!” I saw a black horse, and its rider held a pair of scales in his hand.
Rev 6:6 I heard what seemed to be a voice among the four living creatures say, “One liter of wheat for one silver coin, and three liters of barley for a silver coin. But do not harm the oil and the wine.”
Rev 6:7 When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come and look!”
Rev 6:8 Then I saw a greenish pinto (Zech. 6:3, 6; 1:8). The rider on it was named Death, and the place of the dead was following him. They were given authority over one-fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, famine and disease, and with the wild animals of the earth.
Rev 6:9 When the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been killed because of the Word of Yehowah and the testimony which they held.
Rev 6:10 They cried out with a loud voice, “How long, Absolute Master, set apart and true, until you judge those who live on the earth, and until you avenge our blood!?!”
Rev 6:11 Then each of them was given a white robe, and they were told that they should wait a little longer, until the full number of their fellow servants and their brethren and sistren was reached who were to be killed, just as they had been killed.
Rev 6:12 When the Lamb opened the sixth seal, I watched and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as black as sackcloth, and the moon became like blood.
Rev 6:13 The stars in the heavens fell to the earth, just as a fig tree drops its unripe fruit when shaken by a stormy wind.

Rev 6:14 The sky vanished like a scroll that was being rolled up. Every mountain and island was moved out of its place.
Rev 6:15 Then the kings of the earth and the important people, and the generals, the rich, the powerful, and everyone else, slave and free, hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains.
Rev 6:16 They shouted to the mountains and to the rocks, “Fall on us! Hide us from the face of the One who is seated on the throne and from the Lamb’s wrath!
Rev 6:17 For the great Day of their wrath has come. Who is able to stand?”

Revelation Chapter 7

Rev 7:1 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, tightly holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind should blow on the earth, on the sea, or against any tree.
Rev 7:2 I saw another angel coming up from the east, who had the seal of living Yehowah. He cried out with a loud voice to the four angels who were given permission to harm the earth and the sea:
Rev 7:3 “Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees, until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of Yehowah!”
Rev 7:4 I heard the number of those who were sealed (a Tav; Eze. 9:4; Job 31:35): 144,000 who were sealed from every tribe of the children of Israel:
Rev 7:5 Twelve thousand from the tribe of Judah were sealed, twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand from the tribe of Gad,
Rev 7:6 twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand from the tribe of Manasseh,
Rev 7:7 twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand from the tribe of Issachar,
Rev 7:8 twelve thousand from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph, and twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed.
Rev 7:9 After these things I looked, and there was a huge multitude that no one could count, from all ethnicities, tribes, people, and languages, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands,
Rev 7:10 and they were calling out with a loud voice: “Salvation belongs to Yehowah who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”
Rev 7:11 All the angels were standing around the throne, around the elders and the four living creatures, and they prostrated themselves on their faces before the throne. They worshiped Yehowah,
Rev 7:12 declaring, “Amein! Praise, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and strength be to Yehowah forever and ever! Amein!”
Rev 7:13 Then one of the elders asked me, “Who are these clothed with white robes, and where did they come from?”
Rev 7:14 I answered him, “Sir, you know,” and he said to me, “These are the ones who have come out of the Great Tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
Rev 7:15 For this reason, they are before the throne of Yehowah, and they worship him day and night in his temple. The One who is seated on the throne will tabernacle with them.

Rev 7:16 They will not be hungry again, nor will they be thirsty again. The sun will not beat down on them nor any burning radiation.
Rev 7:17 For the Lamb in the middle of the throne will shepherd them, and he will guide them to springs of living water (Isa. 49:10; John 7:37-38; Eze. 47:10), and Yehowah will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Revelation Chapter 8

Rev 8:1 When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in Heaven for about half an hour.
Rev 8:2 Then I saw the seven angels who stand before Yehowah, and seven trumpets were given to them.
Rev 8:3 Another angel came, holding a golden incense bowl, standing at the incense altar. Much incense was given to him, so that he would offer it with the prayers of all the believers on the golden incense altar before the throne.
Rev 8:4 The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the believers, rose up before Yehowah from the angel's hand.
Rev 8:5 The angel took the incense bowl and filled it with fire from the altar. Then he threw it down to the earth, and there were crashes of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.
Rev 8:6 The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them.
Rev 8:7 The first angel sounded his trumpet, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood. It was thrown down onto the earth, so that a third of it was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.
Rev 8:8 The second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea became blood,
Rev 8:9 a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.
Rev 8:10 The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a huge star fell from the sky, blazing like a torch, on a third of the rivers and springs of water.
Rev 8:11 The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters that became bitter.
Rev 8:12 The fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, as well as a third of the moon and a third of the stars. So a third of them turned dark; a third of the day and a third of the night had no light.
Rev 8:13 I looked, and I heard an eagle that was flying in the middle of the sky, calling out with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe, to those who live on the earth, because of the remaining trumpet blasts that are about to be sounded by the three angels!"

Revelation Chapter 9

Rev 9:1 Then the fifth angel sounded his trumpet. I saw a star from Heaven that had fallen to the earth. The star was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.
Rev 9:2 He opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and smoke went up out of the shaft like smoke from a huge furnace. The sun and the air turned dark by the smoke pouring out of the shaft.
Rev 9:3 Out of the smoke, locusts came on the earth, and they were given power like that of scorpions on the earth.
Rev 9:4 They were told not to damage the grass on the earth or any green plant or tree, but only the people who did not have the seal of Yehowah on their foreheads (Eph. 4:30).
Rev 9:5 They were not given permission to kill those people, but only to torture them for five months. Their agony would be like the sting of a scorpion when it strikes a person.
Rev 9:6 In those days, people will seek death but will not find it. They will greatly desire to die, but death will flee from them.
Rev 9:7 The locusts looked like armored cavalry prepared for battle. On their heads were something like crowns of gold, and their faces were like human faces.
Rev 9:8 They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth.
Rev 9:9 They had body armor like iron breastplates, and the sound of their wings was like the sound made by many chariots and cavalry riding into battle.
Rev 9:10 They had tails with stingers like scorpions; in their tails they had power to harm people for five months.
Rev 9:11 They had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Aramaic was Abaddon, and in Greek he had the name Apollyon.
Rev 9:12 The first woe is past. Look! After this there are still two disasters to come.
Rev 9:13 The sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice coming from the four horns of the golden altar that is present before Yehowah.
Rev 9:14 The voice said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."
Rev 9:15 The four angels who had been prepared for that hour, that day, that month, and that year, were released to kill a third of mankind.
Rev 9:16 The numerical strength of the cavalry force was 200,000,000. I heard their total number.

Rev 9:17 This is how I saw the horses in my vision: Their breastplates were fiery red, dark blue and sulfurous yellow. The heads of the horses resembled the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur.
Rev 9:18 A third of the people were killed by these three plagues: The fire, smoke, and sulfur that came out of their mouths.
Rev 9:19 For the power of the cavalry was in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails were like snakes, and they had heads with which they inflicted wounds on people.
Rev 9:20 The rest of mankind, those who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the deeds they had done, nor did they stop worshiping demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, things that cannot see, hear, or walk.
Rev 9:21 Neither did they repent of their murders, their drug sorceries, their sexual immorality, or their acts of theft.

Revelation Chapter 10

Rev 10:1 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from Heaven. He was robed in a cloud, and there was a rainbow above his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet were like pillars of fire.
Rev 10:2 He held a little Scroll in his hand that was open, and he put his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land.
Rev 10:3 Then he shouted in a loud voice like a roaring lion. When he shouted, the seven thunders spoke out with their sounds.
Rev 10:4 When the seven thunders spoke out, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from Heaven ordering, “Keep secret what the seven thunders said. Do not write it down.”
Rev 10:5 Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and the earth, raised his hand to Heaven.
Rev 10:6 He swore by the One who lives forever and ever, who created the heavens and all that is in it, the earth and all that is on it, and the sea and all that is in it, and the angel said, “There will be no more time delay.
Rev 10:7 But in the Days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, then the mystery of Yehowah will be accomplished, just as he proclaimed to his servants the prophets.”
Rev 10:8 The voice I heard from Heaven spoke to me again: “Go, take the open Scroll that is in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land.”
Rev 10:9 Then I went to the angel and told him to give me the little Scroll. He said to me, “Take the Scroll and eat it. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.”
Rev 10:10 I took the little Scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but after I ate it, my stomach became bitter.
Rev 10:11 Then someone said to me, “You must prophesy again about many people, ethnicities, languages, and kings.”

Revelation Chapter 11

Rev 11:1 A reed similar to a trekking pole was given to me to use as a measuring stick. I was told, “Get up and measure the temple of Yehowah, the altar, and those who worship in it.
Rev 11:2 But do not measure the courtyard outside the temple, for it has been given over to the ethnicities. They will trample the set-apart city for forty-two months.
Rev 11:3 I will give my two witnesses authority to prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth.”
Rev 11:4 These witnesses are the two olive trees and the two menorot that have stood before Yehowah of the earth (Zech. 4:11-14).
Rev 11:5 If anyone chooses to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies. Anyone who wishes to harm them must be killed in this way.
Rev 11:6 These witnesses have authority to close up the sky, so that no rain will fall during the time that they prophesy. They have power to turn the waters to blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague whenever they wish.
Rev 11:7 When they will have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the bottomless pit will wage war against them. He will conquer them and kill them.
Rev 11:8 Their bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which is symbolically called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord was crucified.
Rev 11:9 For three and a half days some from every people, tribe, language, and ethnicity will look at their dead bodies. They will not permit them to be placed in a tomb.
Rev 11:10 Those who live on the earth will rejoice over them and celebrate. They will even send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who lived on the earth.
Rev 11:11 But after three and a half days, the Ruach of life from Yehowah will enter them, and they will stand on their feet. Great fear will fall on those who see them.
Rev 11:12 Then they will hear a loud voice from Heaven call to them, “Come up here!” Then they will go up into Heaven in a cloud, while their enemies look on.
Rev 11:13 At that hour, there will be a major earthquake, and a tenth part of the city will collapse. Seven thousand people will be killed in the earthquake, and the survivors will be terrified and give glory to Yehowah of Heaven.
Rev 11:14 The second woe is past. Look! The third woe is coming quickly.

Rev 11:15 Then the seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and loud voices spoke in Heaven, “The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of Yehowah and of his Messiah! He will reign forever and ever!”
Rev 11:16 Then the twenty-four elders who were sitting on their thrones in the presence of Yehowah prostrated themselves on their faces. They worshiped Yehowah.
Rev 11:17 They said, “We give thanks to you, Most Powerful Lord Yehowah, the One who is, who was, and who is coming, because you have taken your great power and have begun to reign (Exo. 3:14-15).
Rev 11:18 The ethnicities were enraged, but your wrath has come. The time has come for the dead to be judged, and for you to reward your servants the prophets, those who are believers, and those who feared your name, both the unimportant and the mighty. And the time has come for you to destroy those who are destroying the earth.”
Rev 11:19 Then the temple of Yehowah in Heaven was opened, and the Ark of his Covenant was seen within his temple. There were flashes of lightning, rumblings, crashes of thunder, an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

Revelation Chapter 12

Rev 12:1 A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and with the moon under her feet, and a crown of twelve stars was on her head.
Rev 12:2 She was pregnant, and she was crying out in birth pains, in the anguish of childbirth.
Rev 12:3 Then another sign was seen in heaven: Look! There was a huge red dragon that had seven heads and ten horns, and there were seven crowns on his heads.
Rev 12:4 His tail swept away a third of the stars in heaven and hurled them down to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth, he would devour her child.
Rev 12:5 She gave birth to a Son, a male child, who would rule all the ethnicities with an iron rod (Psa. 2:9). Her Child was snatched away to Yehowah and to his throne,
Rev 12:6 and the woman fled into the wilderness, where Yehowah had prepared a place for her, so she could be taken care of for 1,260 days.
Rev 12:7 Now there was war in Heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought back.
Rev 12:8 But the dragon was not strong enough to win. So there was no longer any place in Heaven for him and his angels.
Rev 12:9 The great dragon, that old serpent called the Devil or Satan, who deceives the whole world, was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.
Rev 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice in Heaven: “Now have come the salvation, the power, the Kingdom of Yehowah, and the authority of his Messiah! For the accuser of our brethren and sistren has been thrown down, the one who accused them before Yehowah day and night.
Rev 12:11 They conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not love their lives even to death.
Rev 12:12 Therefore, rejoice you heavens, and all who reside in them. But woe to the earth and to the sea, because the Devil has gone down to you. He is filled with terrible anger, because he knows he only has a little time.”
Rev 12:13 When the dragon realized he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male Child.
Rev 12:14 But the woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she would fly to the place prepared for her in the wilderness (Exo. 19:4; Isa. 40:31). This was the place where she would be taken care of for one year, two years, and half a year, out of the serpent’s presence (Dan. 7:25; 12:7).

Rev 12:15 The serpent poured water out of his mouth like a river, that he would make a flood to sweep her away.
Rev 12:16 But the earth helped the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon was pouring out of his mouth.
Rev 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to wage war with the rest of her descendants, Messianics who obey the commandments of Yehowah and hold to the testimony of Yeshua Messiah.

Revelation Chapter 13

Rev 13:1 And I stood on the sand of the seashore. Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads. On its horns were ten crowns, and on each of its heads was a blasphemous name.
Rev 13:2 This beast I saw was like a leopard. Its feet were like a bear's feet, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave his power to it, his throne, and his great authority to rule.
Rev 13:3 One of the beast's heads appeared to have been killed, but its fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth marveled as they followed the beast.
Rev 13:4 They also worshiped the dragon, for he had given his authority to the beast. They worshiped the beast, too, and kept asking, "Who is like the beast?" and, "Who can fight against it?"
Rev 13:5 The beast was given a mouth that could speak proud words and blasphemies. It was permitted to exercise authority for forty-two months.
Rev 13:6 So the beast opened its mouth to speak blasphemies against Yehowah: Blaspheming his name, the place where he lives, and those who live in Heaven.
Rev 13:7 The beast was permitted to wage war with the believers and to conquer them (Dan. 7:21, 25). Also, authority was given to it over every tribe, people, language, and ethnicity.
Rev 13:8 All who live on the earth will worship it, everyone whose name was not written in the Book of Life of the Lamb, who had been slaughtered since the creation of the world.
Rev 13:9 If anyone has an ear, let him listen.
Rev 13:10 If anyone is to be taken into captivity, into captivity he will go. If anyone is to be killed with a sword, with a sword he will be killed. Here is a call for patient endurance and faith for those who are set apart.
Rev 13:11 Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb, and it spoke like a dragon.
Rev 13:12 It exercised all the authority of the first beast in its presence, and it made the earth and those who live on it worship the first beast, the one whose lethal wound had been healed.
Rev 13:13 It performed mighty miracles. It even made fire come down on the earth from the sky in front of people.
Rev 13:14 By the signs it was permitted to do in the presence of the beast, it deceived those who lived on the earth. It told them to make an image in honor of the beast that had the sword wound but lived.
Rev 13:15 It was permitted to give breath to the beast's image, so that the image would even speak and cause all who refused to worship the image of the beast to be killed.

Rev 13:16 It also forced everyone, unimportant and mighty, rich and poor, free and slave, in order to give them a mark on the right hand or on the forehead (Lev. 19:28; Rev. 20:4).
Rev 13:17 It was impossible for anyone to buy or sell, unless he had the mark or name of the beast (Lev. 19:28; Rev. 20:4), that is, the number representing its name.
Rev 13:18 This calls for wisdom. If anyone has insight, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a human being. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

Revelation Chapter 14

Rev 14:1 I looked and saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion. With him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.
Rev 14:2 I heard a voice from Heaven sounding like a roar of many waters and loud thunder. The sound I heard was also like harpists playing their harps.
Rev 14:3 They sang a new song before the throne, the four living creatures, and before the elders. No one could learn the song except for the 144,000 who had been bought from the earth.
Rev 14:4 These are the ones that have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. It is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were bought out of mankind as firstfruits for Yehowah and for the Lamb.
Rev 14:5 No lie was found in their mouth; they are blameless before the throne of Yehowah.
Rev 14:6 I saw another angel flying in midair, holding and announcing the eternal good news to those who live on the earth, to every ethnicity, tribe, language, and people.
Rev 14:7 He called out with a loud voice, "Fear Yehowah and give him glory! For the hour of his judgment has come! Worship him, the One who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the springs of water!"
Rev 14:8 Another angel, a second angel followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great city, who persuaded all the ethnicities to drink the wine of her immoral passion!"
Rev 14:9 Another angel, a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand (Lev. 19:28; Rev. 13:16-17),
Rev 14:10 he will also drink of the wine of the wrath of Yehowah, the wine that has been poured undiluted into the cup of his anger! The person who drinks it will be tormented with fire and sulfur before the set-apart angels of Yehowah and before the Lamb!
Rev 14:11 The smoke from their torment goes up forever and ever, and they have no rest day or night, these worshipers of the beast and his image, and everyone who receives the mark of his name (Isa. 34:9-10; Lev. 19:28; Rev. 13:16-17).
Rev 14:12 Here is a call for the patient endurance of those who are set apart, Messianics who obey the commandments of Yehowah and the faith of Yeshua."
Rev 14:13 I heard a voice from Heaven say, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Ruach, "so that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds will follow them."

Rev 14:14 I looked, and there was a white cloud. Seated on the cloud was One like the Son of Man. He had a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand (Eze. 21:27).
Rev 14:15 Then another angel came out of the temple and called with a loud voice to the One sitting on the cloud: “Take your sickle and start to reap! For the time to reap has come, since the harvest of the earth is ripe!”
Rev 14:16 Then the One who was sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.
Rev 14:17 Another angel came out from the temple in Heaven; he also had a sharp sickle.
Rev 14:18 Still another angel came out from the incense altar, who had authority over fire. He called out with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, “Take your sharp sickle and gather in the clusters of grapes from the vines of the earth, for their grapes are now ripe!”
Rev 14:19 The angel swung his sickle to the earth and gathered the grape harvest of the earth. He threw it into the great wine vat of the wrath of Yehowah.
Rev 14:20 The winepress was stomped outside the city, and blood poured out from it up to the height of a horse’s bridle, for 300 kilometers (Rev. 19:13-15; Joel 3:13).

Revelation Chapter 15

Rev 15:1 Then I saw another sign in Heaven, great and marvelous: There were seven angels with the seven final plagues, for with them the wrath of Yehowah will be completed.
Rev 15:2 I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mixed with fire. Standing beside the sea were those who had been victorious over the beast and his image, over his mark (Lev. 19:28; Rev. 13:16-17), and over the number representing his name. They were holding harps given to them by Yehowah.
Rev 15:3 They were singing the song of Moses (Deut. 31:16-22; 32:1-47), the servant of Yehowah, and the song of the Lamb: "Great and marvelous are your deeds, Most Powerful Lord Yehowah. Just and true are your Ways, King of the ethnicities.
Rev 15:4 Who will not fear you, Yehowah, and glorify your name? For you alone are set apart. All ethnicities will come and worship before you, because your righteous deeds have been revealed."
Rev 15:5 After these things I looked, and behold, the temple having the Tent of Witness was open in Heaven.
Rev 15:6 Out of the Most Set-apart Place came the seven angels holding the seven plagues. They were clothed with pure, bright linen and had golden sashes around their chests.
Rev 15:7 One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of Yehowah, who lives forever and ever.
Rev 15:8 The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of Yehowah and from his power. No one could enter it, until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

Revelation Chapter 16

Rev 16:1 I heard a loud voice call out of the temple and say to the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of Yehowah!”
Rev 16:2 The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth; ugly and painful sores came on the people who had the mark of the beast (Lev. 19:28; Rev. 13:16-17), those who worshiped his image.
Rev 16:3 The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea. It became blood, like the blood of a dead person, and every living thing in the sea died.
Rev 16:4 The third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.
Rev 16:5 I heard the angel of the waters say, “You are righteous, Yehowah, the One who is and who was and who is to come, because you have judged these things.
Rev 16:6 Because they poured out the blood of the believers and prophets, you have given them blood to drink; it is what they deserve.”
Rev 16:7 I heard the altar reply, “Yes, Most Powerful Lord Yehowah, your judgments are true and righteous.”
Rev 16:8 The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given permission to scorch the people with fire.
Rev 16:9 They were scorched by the terrible radiation, and they blasphemed the name of Yehowah, who has the power over these plagues. They did not repent or give him glory.
Rev 16:10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and darkness covered its kingdom. They chewed on their tongues because of the pain.
Rev 16:11 They blasphemed Yehowah of Heaven because of their pain and sores, and they still refused to repent of what they had done.
Rev 16:12 The sixth angel poured out his bowl into the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, in order to prepare the way for the kings that would come from the East.
Rev 16:13 I saw three unclean spirits that looked like frogs coming out of the mouths of the dragon, of the beast, and of the false prophet.
Rev 16:14 For they are spirits of demons performing miraculous signs. They were going out to the kings of the whole world in order to gather them together for the war on the great Day of Most Powerful Yehowah.
Rev 16:15 “Look! I am coming as a thief! Blessed is the one who keeps watching, keeping his garments on, so that he will not go out naked, and they see his shameful condition.”

Rev 16:16 They brought them together at the place that is called Armageddon in Aramaic.
Rev 16:17 Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. Then a loud voice came out of the temple of Heaven and from the throne, heralding, “It is done!”
Rev 16:18 There were flashes of lightning, rumbles, crashes of thunder, and a terrible earthquake, an earthquake greater than any that has ever happened since humans have been on the earth, so great was this earthquake.
Rev 16:19 The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the ethnicities collapsed. Then Yehowah called to mind Babylon the Great, and he gave that city the cup filled with the wine made from his furious wrath.
Rev 16:20 Every island disappeared, and the mountains were no longer found.
Rev 16:21 Great hailstones, weighing about thirty-three kilograms, came down from the sky upon the people. They cursed Yehowah for the plague of hail, because that plague was so terrible.

Revelation Chapter 17

Rev 17:1 One of the seven angels who had been holding the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the condemnation of the great prostitute who is seated on many waters.
Rev 17:2 It is with her that the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality. It is with the wine of her sexual immorality that the earth’s inhabitants became drunk.”
Rev 17:3 Then the angel carried me away in the Ruach to a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names. The beast had seven heads and ten horns.
Rev 17:4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and was adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She was holding in her hand a golden cup full of detestable things and the impurities of her sexual immorality.
Rev 17:5 On her forehead was written a name having a secret meaning: “Babylon the Great, the mother of prostitutes and of the detestable things of the earth.”
Rev 17:6 I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the believers and with the blood of the martyrs of Yeshua. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.
Rev 17:7 But the angel said to me, “Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the meaning of the woman and of the beast that is carrying her, the beast that has the seven heads and the ten horns.
Rev 17:8 The beast you saw existed, does not exist now, but is about to come up from the bottomless pit. Then it will go on to destruction. Those who live on the earth, those whose names have not been written in the Book of Life since the foundation of the world, they will be astounded when they see the beast that existed, does not exist now, but is about to come.
Rev 17:9 This calls for a mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated.
Rev 17:10 They are also seven kings. Five kings have fallen, one exists, and the other has not yet come; when he comes, he can remain only for a little while.
Rev 17:11 The beast that existed but does not exist now, is itself also an eighth king; but it is one of those seven kings, and it is going to destruction.
Rev 17:12 The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority as kings for one hour together with the beast.
Rev 17:13 These are of one mind, and they give over their power and authority to the beast.

Rev 17:14 They will wage war against the Lamb. But the Lamb will conquer them, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and with him are the called, chosen, and faithful.”
Rev 17:15 The angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are people, multitudes, ethnicities, and languages.
Rev 17:16 The ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, they will devour her flesh, and they will burn her completely with fire.
Rev 17:17 For Yehowah has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by agreeing to give their power to rule to the beast, until the words of Yehowah are fulfilled.
Rev 17:18 The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

Revelation Chapter 18

Rev 18:1 After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of Heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illumined by his glory.
Rev 18:2 He cried out with a mighty voice, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the Great! She has become a dwelling place for demons, a refuge for every unclean spirit, and a refuge for every unclean and detestable bird (Isa. 21:9)!
Rev 18:3 For all the ethnicities have drunk the wine of her immoral passion. The kings of the earth have committed immorality with her. The merchants of the earth have become rich from the power of her sensual way of living.”
Rev 18:4 Then I heard another voice from Heaven command, “Come out from her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, and so that you will not receive any of her plagues (Jer. 51:45; 2 Cor. 6:17)!
Rev 18:5 Her sins have piled up as high as Heaven, and Yehowah has remembered her evil actions.
Rev 18:6 Pay her back as she has paid others back, and repay her double for what she has done; in the cup she mixed, mix double the amount for her.
Rev 18:7 As she glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her just as much torture and grief. For she says in her heart, ‘I am seated as a queen; I am not a widow, and I will never see mourning.’
Rev 18:8 Therefore, in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine. She will be consumed by fire, for Lord Yehowah is mighty, and he is her judge.”
Rev 18:9 The kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality and went out of control with her will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning.
Rev 18:10 They will stand off at a distance, afraid of her torment, crying, “Woe, woe to the great city, Babylon, the powerful city! For in a single hour your punishment has come!”
Rev 18:11 The merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, since no one buys her merchandise anymore,
Rev 18:12 merchandise of gold, silver, precious stone, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all kinds of scented wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, bronze, iron, marble,
Rev 18:13 cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and slaves and human souls.
Rev 18:14 The fruit that you longed for with all your might is gone from you. All your luxury and splendor have vanished, never to be found again.

Rev 18:15 The merchants of these goods who became rich by her will stand away from her at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning loudly.
Rev 18:16 They will cry, “Woe, woe to the great city that was dressed in fine linen, in purple, and in scarlet, and was adorned with gold, precious jewels, and pearls!
Rev 18:17 In a single hour all that wealth has been wasted!” Every ship’s captain, every seafaring man, sailors, and all whose living is made from the sea, stood off at a distance.
Rev 18:18 They cried out as they saw the smoke of her burning. They asked, “What city is like the great city?”
Rev 18:19 They threw dust on their heads, and cried out, weeping and mourning, “Woe, woe to the great city where all who had their ships at sea became rich from her wealth! For in a single hour she has been destroyed!”
Rev 18:20 “Rejoice over her, Heaven, you set-apart apostles and prophets, for Yehowah has brought your judgment on her!”
Rev 18:21 A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, proclaiming, “In this way, Babylon, the great city, will be thrown down with violence and will not be seen anymore (Jer. 51:63-64)!
Rev 18:22 The sound made by harpists, musicians, flute players, and trumpeters will not be heard anymore in you. No craftsman of any kind will be found in you. No sound of a mill will be heard anymore in you.
Rev 18:23 The light of a lamp will not shine in you anymore. The voices of the bridegroom and the bride will not be heard in you anymore, for your merchants were the princes of the earth, and the ethnicities were deceived by your drug sorcery.
Rev 18:24 In her the blood of prophets and believers was found, and the blood of all who have been killed on the earth.”

Revelation Chapter 19

Rev 19:1 After these things, I heard what sounded like a loud voice of a large number of people in Heaven proclaiming, “HalleluYah! Salvation, glory, honor, and power belong to Yehowah our Divine One.
Rev 19:2 His judgments are true and just, for he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality. He has taken revenge for the blood of his servants, which she herself shed.”
Rev 19:3 They spoke a second time: “HalleluYah! The smoke rises from her forever and ever.”
Rev 19:4 The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures prostrated themselves and worshiped Yehowah who was seated on the throne. They were shouting, “Amein! HalleluYah!”
Rev 19:5 Then a voice spoke out from the throne, “Praise Yehowah, all you his servants, you who fear him, both the unimportant and the powerful!”
Rev 19:6 Then I heard what sounded like the voice of a great number of people, like the roar of many waters, and like loud crashes of thunder, “HalleluYah! For Most Powerful Lord Yehowah reigns!
Rev 19:7 Let us rejoice, be happy, and give him the glory, because the wedding celebration of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready (Mat. 25:10).
Rev 19:8 She was permitted to be dressed in bright and clean fine linen,” for fine linen is the righteous acts of believers.
Rev 19:9 The angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb.” He also said to me, “These are true words of Yehowah.”
Rev 19:10 I prostrated myself before his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “Do not do this! I am a fellow servant with you and your brethren and sistren who hold the testimony of Yeshua. Worship Yehowah, for the spirit of this prophecy is the testimony of Yeshua.”
Rev 19:11 Then I saw Heaven open, and I looked and there was a white horse. The One riding it is called Faithful and True. It is with justice that he judges and wages war.
Rev 19:12 His eyes are like a fiery flame, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself.
Rev 19:13 He wears a robe that was dipped in blood, and his name is called the Word of Yehowah (John 1:1).
Rev 19:14 Dressed in clean white fine linen, the cavalry forces of Heaven were following him on white horses.

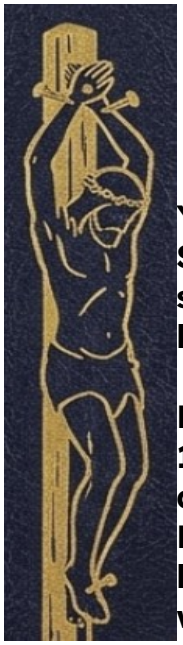
Rev 19:15 Out of his mouth goes a sharp sword with which he strikes down the ethnicities, and he will rule them with an iron rod (Psa. 2:9). He tramples in the winepress of the fury of the wrath of Most Powerful Yehowah (Isa. 63:2-3; Joel 3:13; Psa. 45:3; Rev. 16:12-16).
Rev 19:16 He has a name written on his robe and on his thigh: "King of kings and Lord of lords."
Rev 19:17 I saw an angel standing in the sun. He called out in a loud voice to all the birds flying overhead, "Come, gather together for the feast of great Yehowah!
Rev 19:18 Come, eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of commanders, the flesh of warriors, the flesh of cavalry, and the flesh of all types, both free and slave, the unimportant and the powerful" (Luke 17:37; Eze. 39:17-20; Mat. 24:28)!
Rev 19:19 I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armed forces. They were gathering in order to wage war with the One who rode the horse and with his military force.
Rev 19:20 The beast was captured and with him the false prophet who performed the signs in his presence. With these signs he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast (Lev. 19:28; Rev. 13:16-17), and who worshiped his image. The two of them were thrown alive into the Lake of Fire of burning sulfur.
Rev 19:21 The rest of them were killed by the sword that came out of the mouth of the One who rode on the horse. All the birds ate their dead flesh.

Revelation Chapter 20

Rev 20:1 Then I saw an angel coming down from Heaven. He had the key to the bottomless pit, and he had a great chain in his hand.
Rev 20:2 He took hold of the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years.
Rev 20:3 He threw him into the bottomless pit, he shut it and sealed it over him. This was so that he would not deceive the ethnicities anymore, until the thousand years were over. After that, he must be set free for a short time.
Rev 20:4 Then I saw thrones. Seated on them were those who had been given authority to judge. I also saw the souls of emissaries who had been beheaded for the testimony of Yeshua and for the Word of Yehowah. They had not worshiped the beast or his image, and they had refused to receive the mark on their forehead or hand (Lev. 19:28; Rev. 13:16-17). They came to life, and they reigned with Messiah for a thousand years.
Rev 20:5 This is the first resurrection (Mat. 24:29-31; 1 Cor. 15:51-52; 1 Thes. 4:13-18), but the rest of the dead did not come to life, until the thousand years were ended.
Rev 20:6 Blessed and set apart is anyone who takes part in the first resurrection! Over these the second death has no power. They will be priests of Yehowah and of Messiah and will reign with Him for a thousand years.
Rev 20:7 When the thousand years come to an end (c. 3030 AD), Satan will be released from his prison.
Rev 20:8 He will go out to deceive the ethnicities at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to bring them together for the war. They will be as many as the sand of the sea.
Rev 20:9 They went up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the believers, the beloved city. But fire from Yehowah came down out of Heaven and devoured them.
Rev 20:10 The Devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the Lake of Fire and burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.
Rev 20:11 Then I saw a great white throne and the One who is seated on it. The earth and the sky fled away from his presence, but there was no place for them to go.
Rev 20:12 I saw the dead, the mighty and the unimportant, standing before Yehowah, and the books were opened. Then another book was opened, the Book of Life. The dead were judged by what was recorded in the books, according to their deeds.

Rev 20:13 The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and the place of the dead gave up the dead who were in them, and the dead were judged according to what they had done.
Rev 20:14 Death and the place of the dead were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death, the Lake of Fire.
Rev 20:15 If anyone's name was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the Lake of Fire.

Revelation Chapter 21



Rev 21:1 Then I saw a new Heaven and a new earth (2 Pet. 3:10-13; Isa. 65:17; 66:22), for the first Heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.
Rev 21:2 I, John, saw the set-apart city, New Jerusalem, that came down out of Heaven from Yehowah, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.
Rev 21:3 I heard a loud voice from the throne, "Look! The tabernacle of Yehowah is with humans, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and Yehowah himself will be with them, and he will be their Divine One.
Rev 21:4 Yehowah will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death, or grieving, or crying, or pain. The former things have passed away.
Rev 21:5 The One who was seated on the throne declared, "Look! I make all things new." He ordered, "Write this down, because these words are faithful and true."
Rev 21:6 He declared to me, "These things are done! I AM the Aleph and the Tav, the beginning and the end (Isa. 41:4; 44:6; 48:12; Rev. 1:8; 1:11; 1:17; 2:8; 22:13). To the one who thirsts I will give drink without cost from the spring of the water of life.
Rev 21:7 The one who conquers will inherit all these things, and I will be his Divine One, and he will be my child.
Rev 21:8 But as for the cowards, the faithless, the detestable, the murderers, the sexually immoral, drug sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their place will be in the Lake of Fire of burning sulfur. That is the second death."
Rev 21:9 One of the seven angels came to me, the one who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues, and he said, "Come here. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."
Rev 21:10 Then he carried me away in the Ruach to a majestic high mountain and showed me the magnificent set-apart city Jerusalem coming down out of Heaven from Yehowah.
Rev 21:11 Jerusalem had the glory of Yehowah, and its brilliance was like a costly precious jewel, like a stone of crystal-clear jasper.
Rev 21:12 It had a monolithic high wall with twelve gates, with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.
Rev 21:13 On the east were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.
Rev 21:14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Rev 21:15 The one who spoke with me had a measuring stick made of gold to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.
Rev 21:16 The city was laid out in a square; its length was the same as its width. He measured the city with the measuring stick, 2,220 kilometers in length; its length, width, and height were the same.
Rev 21:17 He also measured its wall, sixty-six meters thick by human measurement, which is also the angel's measure.
Rev 21:18 The wall was built of jasper and the city of pure gold, like clear glass.
Rev 21:19 The foundations of the wall were adorned with every kind of precious stone. The first was jasper, the second was sapphire, the third was agate, the fourth was emerald,
Rev 21:20 the fifth was onyx, the sixth was carnelian, the seventh was chrysolite, the eighth was beryl, the ninth was topaz, the tenth was chrysoprase, the eleventh was jacinth, and the twelfth was amethyst.
Rev 21:21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls; each of the gates was made from a single pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.
Rev 21:22 I saw no temple in the city, for Most Powerful Lord Yehowah and the Lamb are its temple.
Rev 21:23 The city had no need of the sun or the moon in order to shine on it, because the glory of Yehowah shone on it, and its lamp is the Lamb.
Rev 21:24 The ethnicities will walk by the light of that city. The kings of the earth will bring their glory and splendor into it.
Rev 21:25 Its gates will not be shut during the day, and there will be no night there.
Rev 21:26 They will bring the splendor and the honor of the ethnicities into it,
Rev 21:27 and nothing unclean will ever enter into it. Neither will anyone who commits anything shameful or deceitful enter, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

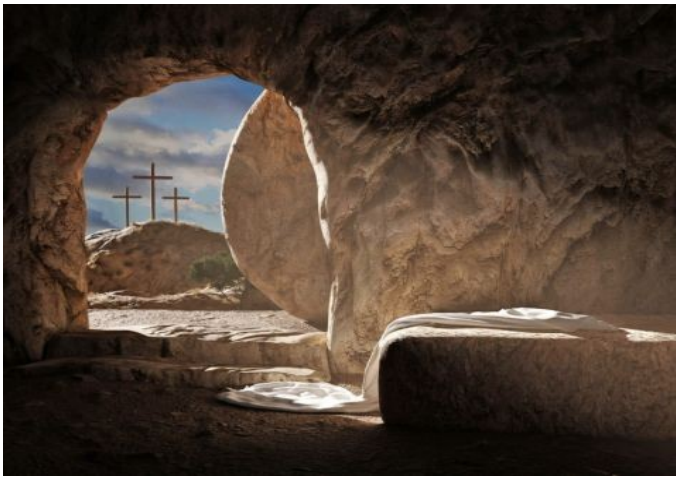
Revelation Chapter 22

Rev 22:1 Then the angel showed me the pure river of the water of life, clear as crystal. It was flowing from the throne of Yehowah and of the Lamb
Rev 22:2 through the middle of the city's street. On each side of the river was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, and it bears its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree are for the healing of the ethnicities (Eze. 47:12).
Rev 22:3 There will no longer be any curse. The throne of Yehowah and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him.
Rev 22:4 They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.
Rev 22:5 There will be no more night; they will have no need for the light of a lamp or sunlight, because Lord Yehowah will shine on them. They will reign forever and ever.
Rev 22:6 The angel said to me, "These words are faithful and true. Lord Yehowah of the set-apart prophets sent his angel to show his servants what must happen soon."
Rev 22:7 "Look! I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who obeys the words of the prophecy of this Book."
Rev 22:8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw them, I prostrated myself before the feet of the angel to worship him, the angel who showed me these things.
Rev 22:9 He ordered me, "Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you, with your brothers the prophets, and with those who obey the words of this Book. Worship Yehowah!"
Rev 22:10 He ordered me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this Book, for the time is near.
Rev 22:11 The one who is unrighteous, let him continue to do unrighteousness. The one who is morally filthy, let him continue to be morally filthy. The one who is righteous, let him continue to do what is righteous. The one who is set apart, let him continue to be set apart."
Rev 22:12 "Look! I am coming soon. My reward is with me, to pay back each one according to what he has done (Isa. 62:11).
Rev 22:13 I AM the Aleph and the Tav, the first and the last, the beginning and the end (Isa. 41:4; 44:6; 48:12; Rev. 1:8; 1:11; 1:17; 2:8; 21:6).
Rev 22:14 Blessed are those who obey his commandments, so that they will have the right to eat from the tree of life and to enter the city through the gates.
Rev 22:15 Outside are the dogs, the drug sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

Rev 22:16 “I, Yeshua, have sent my messenger to testify to you about these things in the congregations. I AM the root and the descendant of David, the bright Morning Star.”
Rev 22:17 The Ruach and the bride say, “Come!” Let the one who hears say, “Come!” Whoever is thirsty, let him come, and whoever desires it, let him freely possess the water of life (Isa. 55:1; 12:3).
Rev 22:18 I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this Book: If anyone adds to them, Yehowah will add to him the plagues that are written about in this Book.
Rev 22:19 If anyone takes away from the words of this Book of Prophecy, Yehowah will take away his share in the Book (or Tree) of Life and in the set-apart city that are written about in this Book.
Rev 22:20 The One who testifies to these things affirms, “Yes! I am coming soon!” Amein! Come, Lord Yeshua!
Rev 22:21 May the grace of Lord Yeshua Messiah be with you all. Amein.

About the Author

Yeshua Ha'Mashiach died for you and rose from the dead for you. He wrote the Set-apart Scriptures for you. He invites you to seek him for the salvation of your soul. He is your Friend, Savior, Teacher, Mentor, High Priest, Redeemer, King of kings and Lord of lords. Invite him into your life today.



He commands you to copy this Book and give it to everyone you know, Deut. 17:18-19, "When he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he must write for himself in a Scroll a copy of this law, from the law that is before the priests, who are Levites. 19 The Scroll must be with him, and he must read in it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to honor Yehowah his Divine One, so as to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to observe them."

Jos. 8:32, "There, in the presence of the people of Israel, he wrote on the stones a copy of the Law of Moses."

Deut. 31:9, "Moses wrote this law and gave it out to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the Ark of the Covenant of Yehowah; he also gave copies of it to all the elders of Israel."

Deut. 27:1-8, "Moses and the elders of Israel ordered the people, "Keep all the commandments that I command you today. 2 On the day when you will pass over the Jordan River to the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, you must set up some large stones and plaster them with plaster. 3 You must write on them all the words of this law when you have passed over; that you may go into the land that Yehowah your Divine One is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Yehowah, Mighty One of your ancestors, has promised you. 4 When you have passed over the Jordan River, set up these stones that I am commanding you about today, on Mount Ebal, and plaster them with plaster... 8 You will calligraphically write legibly on the stones all the words of this law.""

Hos. 8:12, "I could write down my law for them ten thousand times, but they would view it as something strange to them."
