Jub 7:10 And Ham saw Noah his father naked, and he went out and told his two brothers without.
Jub 7:11 And Shem took his garment and arose, he and Japheth, and they placed the garment on their shoulders and went backward, covering the shame of their father while their faces were turned away so they did not see his nakedness.
Jub 7:12 And when Noah awoke from his sleep and learned what his younger son had done to him, he cursed his son and said, “Cursed be Canaan; let him be a slave, the lowest of slaves to his brothers.”
Jub 7:13 And he blessed Shem and said, “Blessed be Yehowah Mighty One of Shem, and Canaan will be his servant.
Jub 7:14 May Yehowah enlarge Japheth, and may the Lord dwell in the dwelling of Shem, and Canaan will be his servant.”
Jub 7:15 And Ham knew that his father had cursed his younger son, and he was displeased that he had cursed his son, and he separated from his father, he and his sons with him, Cush and Mizraim and Put and Canaan.
Jub 7:16 And he built for himself a city and called its name after his wife Ne'elatama'uk.
Jub 7:17 And Japheth saw it and became envious of his brother, and he too built a city and called its name after his wife Adataneses.
Jub 7:18 And Shem dwelt with his father Noah, and he built a city close to his father on the mountain, and he too named it after his wife Sedeqetelebab.
Jub 7:19 And behold, these three cities are near Mount Lubar—Shem's city, Ham's city, and Japheth's city.

Jub 7:20 And Noah rejoiced that his sons had built cities and called their names after the names of their wives.
Jub 7:21 And he lived in the city of Shem, and Shem dwelt with him near his father, so that he might care for him.
Jub 7:22 And Noah slept with his fathers and was buried on Mount Lubar in the land of Ararat.
Jub 7:23 Nine hundred and fifty years he completed in his life, nineteen jubilees and two weeks and five years.
Jub 7:24 And in his life on earth, he taught the ordinances and commandments and all the judgments to his sons, so that they might do righteousness and carry out all the ordinances and keep the commandments of Yehowah.
Jub 7:25 And he blessed his sons and told them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth, and become many upon it and be a blessing upon it.
Jub 7:26 fear Him and worship Him, and bow down to Him, and bring offerings before Him continually all the days of your life.”
Jub 7:27 And he gave to Shem the writings of his fathers: Enoch and the words of the Watchers and the giants, and all that had been revealed to him, and he passed them on to his son Shem.
Jub 7:28 For he loved him exceedingly above all his sons.
Jub 7:29 And Noah slept with his fathers and was buried on Mount Lubar in the land of Ararat.
Jub 8:1 In the twenty-ninth jubilee, in the first week, in the beginning of it, Arpachshad took a wife and her name was Rasu'eja, the daughter of Susan, the daughter of Elam.
Jub 8:2 And she bore him a son in the third year of this week, and he called his name Kainam.
Jub 8:3 And the child grew, and his father taught him writing, and he went to seek for himself a place where he might seize a city for himself.
Jub 8:4 And he found a writing which the former generations had carved on the rock, and he read it, and transcribed it, and sinned because of it, for it contained the teaching of the Watchers about how they used to observe the omens of the sun and moon and stars in all the signs of heaven.
Jub 8:5 And he wrote it down but said nothing about it, for he was afraid to speak of it to Noah, lest he become angry at him because of it.
Jub 8:6 And in the thirtieth jubilee, in the second week, in the first year, he took a wife, and her name was Melka, the daughter of Madai, the son of Japheth.
Jub 8:7 And in the fourth year he bore a son, and he called his name Shelah, for he said, “Truly I have been sent.”

Jub 8:8 And Shelah took a wife, and her name was Mu'ak, the daughter of Kesed, the brother of his father, in the thirty-first jubilee, in the fifth week, in the first year.
Jub 8:9 And she bore him a son in the fifth year, and he called his name Eber. And he took a wife, and her name was Azurad, the daughter of Nebrod, in the thirty-second jubilee, in the seventh week, in the third year.
Jub 8:10 And in the sixth year she bore him a son, and he called his name Peleg, for in the days when he was born the children of Noah began to divide the earth among themselves, for this was the reason he was called Peleg.
Jub 8:11 And they divided it secretly among themselves, and told it only to Noah.
Jub 8:12 And it came to pass in the beginning of the thirty-third jubilee, that they divided the earth into three parts, for Shem and Ham and Japheth, according to the inheritance of each, in the first year of the first week, when one of us who watched the works of the Lord stood by Noah.
Jub 8:13 And he called his sons and they came to him, they and their children, and he divided the earth by lot according to his three sons, so that they might inherit it forever, each according to his portion.
Jub 8:14 And there came forth the writing by the hand of Noah concerning the division, as he divided it for his sons with the boundaries and regions for each.
Jub 8:15 And he knew beforehand, through the spirit of prophecy, that his sons would transgress and make their children fight to occupy the land—one brother against another.
Jub 8:16 And he said to them, “Cursed be he who crosses the boundary drawn and divides the inheritance of his sons. For whoever does this will be cursed, and none of his seed will be established in the land, nor in their records, nor under heaven; for they will be removed from the land and accursed forever.”
Jub 8:17 And they all said, “So be it; so be it,” for themselves and their sons forever throughout their generations until the day of judgment, when the Lord will judge them with the sword and with fire, for all the unclean wickedness of their error, by which they have filled the earth with transgression and uncleanness and fornication and sin.
Jub 9:1 And Ham divided his land among his sons, and the first portion came forth for Cush toward the east, and to the west of him for Mizraim, and to the west of him for Put, and to the west of him on the sea for Canaan.
Jub 9:2 And Shem also divided his land among his sons, and the first portion came forth for Elam and his sons to the east of the river Tigris until it approaches the east, the whole land of India, and on the Red Sea on its shore and the waters of Dedan and all the mountains of Mebri and Elyah, and all the land of Susan and all that is on the border of Pharnak.

Jub 9:3 And all the land of the East from the Red Sea and onward toward the east is for Elam and his children forever.
Jub 9:4 And the second portion came forth for Asshur and his sons: the whole land of Assyria and Nineveh and Shinar and to the border of India and it ascends and skirts the river.
Jub 9:5 And the third portion came forth for Arpachshad and his sons: all the land of the region of the Chaldees to the east of the Euphrates, bordering on the Red Sea, and all the waters of the desert close to the tongue of the sea which looks toward Egypt, and all the land of Lebanon and Sanir and Amana to the border of the Euphrates.
Jub 9:6 And the fourth portion came forth for Lud and his sons: all the mountains of Asshur and all the land of Elam, and his land goes to the Great Sea and reaches to the east of Asshur his brother.
Jub 9:7 And Japheth also divided the land of his inheritance among his sons.
Jub 9:8 And the first portion came forth for Gomer and his sons: the land of the east from the north side of the river Tina.
Jub 9:9 And the second portion came forth for Magog: all the inner regions northward to the sea of Me'at.
Jub 9:10 And the third portion came forth for Madai: all the mountains of the east of Media and between the two rivers, which descend to the sea of Me'at.
Jub 9:11 And the fourth portion came forth for Javan: all the islands and the regions on the border of Lud.
Jub 9:12 And the fifth portion came forth for Tubal: all the land west of the river Tina and to the north of the sea of Me'at.
Jub 9:13 And the sixth portion came forth for Meshech: all the region beyond the Tina toward the north, which comes toward the sea of Me'at.
Jub 9:14 And the seventh portion came forth for Tiras: four great islands in the midst of the sea, which reach to the portion of Ham, and the islands of Kamaturi come to him by lot.
Jub 9:15 And for Canaan came the fourth portion: the land of the Phoenicians to the border of the sea and two mountains named Lebanon and Sanir.
Jub 9:16 And he took the mountain range of Hermon and to the sea of salt and to the east of Gilead and to the border of the Red Sea and to the mouth of the sea.
Jub 9:17 And Ham, his father, and his brothers Cush and Mizraim and Put said to him, “You have taken a land which is not yours, and which was not allotted to us. Do not do this, for if you do, your sons will fall by the sword, and you will be cursed in the land.”

Jub 9:18 And he said to them, “I have only seen a blessed land with rivers of water and rich soil, and I will dwell there, and my children will prosper, and I will not leave it.”
Jub 9:19 And they took counsel together and came to Noah their father, and they told him of all these things.
Jub 9:20 And he said, “Cursed be Canaan; he will be a slave to his brothers. The land which he has taken will be taken away from him, and he will not remain in his inheritance. For he has transgressed the commandment of the Lord and the covenant made for all generations.”
Jub 9:21 “And the land of Canaan was assigned to Shem and his sons, and he will be a slave to them.”
Jub 9:22 “And because he has chosen to dwell in the land of Shem, it will be taken from him and given to Shem, and he will be under the curse forever.”
Jub 9:23 And Noah blessed his sons and cursed Canaan, and he gave all the land that he had divided to his sons as an inheritance, but he did not assign anything to Canaan or his sons.
Jub 9:24 And Canaan saw the land of Lebanon to the river of Egypt, that it was very good, and he did not go into the land of his inheritance to the west—that is to the sea—but he dwelt in the land of Lebanon, east of the sea.
Jub 9:25 And Ham, his father, and Cush and Mizraim, his brothers, said to him again, “You are dwelling in a land that is not yours and which was not allotted to you. Do not do this, for if you do, your sons will fall by the sword and you will be rooted out forever.”
Jub 9:26 And Canaan's sons disobeyed, and he and his sons went into the land of Lebanon and dwelt there from Hamath to the entrance of Egypt, they and all his sons until this day.
Jub 9:27 And for this reason, that land is called the land of Canaan.
Jub 10:1 And in the third week of this jubilee the unclean demons began to lead astray the children of the sons of Noah and to make them err and destroy them.
Jub 10:2 And the sons of Noah came to Noah their father and they told him about the demons who were leading astray and blinding and slaying his grandchildren.
Jub 10:3 And he prayed before the Lord his Divine One, and said, “Mighty One of the spirits of all flesh, who has shown mercy to me and has saved me and my sons from the waters of the flood, and has not caused me to perish as You did to the children of perdition—for Your grace has been great toward me—and great has been Your mercy to my soul.

Jub 10:4 Let Your grace be lined up upon my sons, and do not let wicked spirits rule over them, lest they destroy them from the earth.
Jub 10:5 But bless me and my sons so that we may increase and multiply and fill the earth.
Jub 10:6 And You know how the Watchers, the fathers of these spirits, acted in my day. As for these spirits which are living, imprison them and hold them in the place of condemnation, and let them not bring destruction upon the children of Your servant, my Divine One, for these are terrible and created for destruction.
Jub 10:7 And may they not rule over the spirits of the living, for You alone know their judgment, and they have no power over me or over my sons, because we are Yours."
Jub 10:8 And the Lord our Divine One instructed us to bind all of them.
Jub 10:9 And the chief of the spirits, Mastema, came and said, "Lord, Creator, let some of them remain before me, and let them listen to my voice and do everything I tell them. For if none of them is left to me, I will not be able to execute the power of my will among the children of men, for they are for corruption and leading astray before My judgment, for great is the wickedness of the sons of men."
Jub 10:10 And He said, "Let one-tenth of them remain before him, but let nine-tenths of them be bound in the place of condemnation."
Jub 10:11 And one of us, He commanded that we should teach Noah all their medicines, for He knew that they would not walk in uprightness, nor strive in righteousness.
Jub 10:12 And we did according to all His words. All the evil ones, we bound in the place of condemnation, and a tenth of them we left, so that they might be subject before Satan on the earth.
Jub 10:13 And we explained to Noah all the medicines for their diseases, together with their seductions, and how he could heal them using the herbs of the earth.
Jub 10:14 And Noah wrote down everything in a book, as we instructed him concerning every kind of medicine. So the evil spirits were restrained from following the sons of Noah.
Jub 10:15 And he gave everything he had written to Shem, his oldest son, for he loved him exceedingly above all his sons.
Jub 10:16 And Noah slept with his fathers and was buried on Mount Lubar in the land of Ararat.
Jub 10:17 Nine hundred and fifty years he completed in his life. Nineteen jubilees, two weeks, and five years.

Jub 10:18 And in his life, there were sicknesses and pain, from the time he was young until his death. And because of the evil of their ways, the children of the sons of Noah forgot the Lord.
Jub 10:19 And after this, Shem took to himself a wife, and her name was Sedeqetelebab.
Jub 10:20 And she bore him a son in the first year of this jubilee, and he called his name Arpachshad.
Jub 10:21 And he said, “Truly from the Lord my Divine One this seed has been born to me to keep the seed of righteousness in the earth and to preserve the blessing of the Lord which rests upon my lips and upon the lips of my descendants, that it may not be removed from the mouth of all the seed of the sons of men, from henceforth and forever.”
Jub 10:22 And he blessed the Creator of all things, Yehowah Almighty, who had delivered him from the flood and had not caused him to perish as He did to the children of perdition.
Jub 10:23 And he gave thanks before Yehowah Almighty, and he rejoiced, and he ate and drank with joy, he and all his children, for a full year of that jubilee.
Jub 11:1 And in the thirty-fifth jubilee, in the third week, in the first year, Reu took to himself a wife, and her name was Ora, the daughter of Ur, the son of Kesed. And she bore him a son, and he called his name Seroh, in the seventh year of this week in this jubilee.
Jub 11:2 And the sons of Noah began to war with each other, to take captive and to slay each other, and to shed the blood of men upon the earth, and to eat blood, and to build strong cities, and walls, and towers, and to exalt themselves above the people, and to set the beginning of kingdoms, and to go to war—people against people, and nations against nations, and city against city, and all began to do evil and acquire weapons, and to teach their sons warfare, and they began to capture cities, and to sell male and female slaves.
Jub 11:3 And Ur, the son of Kesed, built the city of Ara of the Chaldees, and called its name after his own name and the name of his father.
Jub 11:4 And they made for themselves molten images, and they worshiped each the idol, the molten image which they had made for themselves, and they began to make graven images and unclean spirits assisted and seduced them into commiWng sin and uncleanness.
Jub 11:5 And the prince, Mastema, exerted himself to do all this, and he sent other spirits, those who were put under his authority, to do all manner of wrong and sin, and to corrupt and destroy, and to shed blood upon the earth.
Jub 11:6 For this reason, he called the name of Seroh, Serug, because everyone turned to sin and departed from the commandments of the Lord and the language of the law, and the commandments, and the ordinances, and they began to forget everything and to go astray.

Jub 11:7 And he grew up, and dwelt in Ur of the Chaldees, near the father of his wife's house, and he worshiped idols, and he took to himself a wife in the fortieth jubilee, in the seventh week, in the first year of it, and her name was Melka, the daughter of Kaber, the daughter of his father's brother.
Jub 11:8 And she bore him Nahor, in the first year of the fifth week of this jubilee.
Jub 11:9 And he grew and dwelt in Ur among the Chaldeans, and his father taught him the learning of the Chaldeans—to divine and to observe the stars and the signs of heaven.
Jub 11:10 And in the forty-first jubilee, in the third week, in the seventh year, Nahor took to himself a wife, and her name was Ijaska, the daughter of Nestag of the Chaldeans.
Jub 11:11 And she bore him Terah in the seventh year of this week.
Jub 11:12 And the prince Mastema sent ravens and birds to devour the seed which was sown in the land, in order to destroy the land and rob the children of men of their labors.
Jub 11:13 Before they could cover the seed, the birds picked it from the surface of the ground.
Jub 11:14 And for this reason, the seer Sarasa (a name lost in Genesis) came to Noah and told him all the ravens were devouring the seed and laying waste the land.
Jub 11:15 And Noah blessed him and his sons, and he said to them, "May the Lord make you fruitful and multiply you and may you fill the earth, and may your seed be blessed. Let your enemies be fearful of you, and let all the nations be in awe of you."
Jub 11:16 "Let every bird and beast be afraid of you and your seed, and let not the ravens and birds devour your seed. Let their bodies be as food for you, just as the green herb of the field."
Jub 11:17 "But if you cover the seed on the earth and do not let the birds devour it, then your labors will be successful, and your seed will increase."
Jub 11:18 "Turn away from all unrighteousness, and walk in the way of righteousness. You and your seed will be blessed."
Jub 12:1 And it came to pass in the sixth week, in the seventh year of it, that Abram said to Terah his father, "My father!"
Jub 12:2 And he said, "Behold, here I am, my son."
Jub 12:3 And he said, "What help and profit do we have from all the idols which you worship and before which you bow?
Jub 12:4 For there is no spirit in them, for they are dumb forms and a misleading of the heart. Do not worship them.

Jub 12:5 Worship the Mighty One of heaven, who causes the rain and dew to descend on the earth and makes everything upon the earth, and has created all things by His word, and all life is from before His face.
Jub 12:6 Why do you worship those things that have no spirit in them? For they are the work of hands, and on your shoulders do you bear them, and you have no help from them. But they are a great shame to those who make them and a misleading of the heart to those who worship them. Do not serve them."
Jub 12:7 And then he said to him, "Behold, I will hide them so they will not be seen. Let no man find them for this generation or forever."
Jub 12:8 And he hid them all that night. And in the morning, when Terah arose, he went to bring them to offer sacrifice on them. But he found them not, and he said to Abram, his son, "Where are the deities which I made?"
Jub 12:9 And Abram said to him, "I placed them in the fire and destroyed them, for they were of no help to me or to you or to any man."
Jub 12:10 And Terah was angry with Abram, and he said, "You have destroyed my deities that I made."
Jub 12:11 And Abram answered, "If they cannot save themselves from the fire, how will they save you from the hand of the enemy, or from robbers, or from wild beasts, or from the powers of the pit?"
Jub 12:12 And Terah heeded not the words of Abram, but he kept them in his heart.
Jub 12:13 And in that day, the king Nimrod sent messengers to Terah, saying, "Bring forth your son Abram and bring him to me."
Jub 12:14 If it be that you do not, you will be slain, and all that you have will be destroyed.
Jub 12:15 And Terah feared on account of Abram, and he took a child who had been born in his house, and he hid him in the cave, and he brought him the child instead of Abram to the king.
Jub 12:16 And the king killed him, and Terah and his household mourned for the child for many days.
Jub 12:17 But Abram was hidden in the cave, and his mother nursed him for three years, and afterward, when he came out from the cave, he went to Noah and his son Shem, and he dwelt with them to learn the instruction of the Lord and His ways.
Jub 12:18 And no man knew where Abram was, and he remained with them for many years.
Jub 12:19 And Abram served the Lord from his youth, and he ceased not to worship the Mighty One of heaven.
Jub 12:20 And Abram said to his father, "Why do you serve these idols in whom there is no power to do anything?

Jub 12:21 For they are the work of men's hands, and you carry them on your shoulders, and you have no gain from them, but only sin. Let us serve Most High Yehowah, who created heaven and earth and all things, and let us walk in His ways."
Jub 12:22 And Terah said to his son Abram, "Be silent, lest they kill you."
Jub 12:23 And when Abram learned the ways of Yehowah and the commandment, he left Haran to go to the land of Canaan.
Jub 12:24 And he came to Hebron, and he dwelt there.
Jub 13:1 And Abram went from Haran, and he took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son to the land of Canaan, and he came to the land of Shechem.
Jub 13:2 And he dwelt near the oak of Moreh.
Jub 13:3 And in the fourth year of the fifth week, he moved from there to the mountain of Bethel on the west and Ai on the east, and he pitched his tent there.
Jub 13:4 And he saw that the land was very pleasant and fruitful, and he blessed the Lord and said, "Blessed be Yehowah Almighty who has given this land to me and to my seed forever."
Jub 13:5 And he built an altar there to the Lord who had appeared to him and he offered burnt offerings on it.
Jub 13:6 And in the sixth year of the fifth week he moved from there and went toward the south and came to Hebron. And Hebron was built at that time, and he dwelt there two years.
Jub 13:7 And in the first year of the sixth week there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down into Egypt to dwell there because the famine was very severe, and the land of Egypt was in abundance.
Jub 13:8 And when he was near entering into Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, "Say you are my sister, so that I may live because of you and that my soul may not be slain on account of you."
Jub 13:9 And he was afraid for her sake so that she would not be taken from him and he be killed.
Jub 13:10 And when he entered Egypt, the princes of Pharaoh saw Sarai, and they praised her before Pharaoh, and she was taken into Pharaoh's house.
Jub 13:11 And the Lord afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.
Jub 13:12 And Abram was very rich in cattle, silver, and gold, and Lot also.
Jub 13:13 And Pharaoh returned Sarai to Abram and sent messengers with him, and he went out of the land of Egypt and came to a place where he had pitched his tent at the beginning, to the altar on the mountain of Bethel, and he blessed the Lord his Divine One who had brought him back in peace.

Jub 13:14 And it came to pass in the forty-first jubilee, in the third year of the first week, that he returned to this place, and offered on it a burnt offering, and called upon the name of the Lord, and said, “You, Most High Yehowah, are my Divine One forever and ever.”
Jub 13:15 And in the fourth year of this week Lot parted from him, and Lot dwelt in Sodom. But the men of Sodom were wicked and exceedingly sinful.
Jub 13:16 And it grieved him in his heart that his brother’s son had parted from him, for he had no children.
Jub 13:17 In that year, when Lot was taken captive, the Lord said to Abram, after Lot had parted from him, “Lin up your eyes from the place where you are dwelling, to the north, and south, and west, and east.
Jub 13:18 For all the land which you see I will give to you and to your seed forever, and I will make your seed as the dust of the earth. If a man can number the dust of the earth, then your seed also will be numbered.
Jub 13:19 Arise, walk through the land in its length and breadth and see it all, for I will give it to your seed.”
Jub 13:20 And Abram went to Hebron and dwelt there.
Jub 13:21 And in that year, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Amraphel, king of Shinar, and Arioch, king of Sellasar, and Tidal, king of nations, came and slew the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Sodom fled, and many fell by wounds in the valley of Siddim by the Salt Sea.
Jub 13:22 And they captured Sodom and Adamah and Zeboiim, and they took Lot captive, the son of Abram’s brother, and all his possessions, and they went to Dan.
Jub 13:23 And one who had escaped came and told Abram that his brother’s son had been taken captive, and Abram armed his household servants.
Jub 13:24 And Abram went with his servants and pursued them to Hobah, which is north of Damascus.
Jub 13:25 And he recovered all the possessions of Lot and brought back Lot and his possessions, and the women and the people.
Jub 13:26 And the king of Sodom came to meet him, and he blessed him.
Jub 13:27 And Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine, and he was the priest of the Most High Yehowah.
Jub 13:28 And he blessed Abram and said, “Blessed be Abram by Most High Yehowah, possessor of heaven and earth, and blessed be Most High Yehowah, who has delivered your enemies into your hands.”
Jub 13:29 And Abram gave him a tenth of all the spoil, and the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people, and take the goods for

Jub 13:30 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I lift up my hand to the Lord, Most High Yehowah, that I will not take from you even a thread or a sandal strap, so that you may not say, ‘I have made Abram rich.’”
Jub 13:31 “Only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me—After, Eschol, and Mamre—let them take their portion.”
Jub 14:1 After these things, in the fourth year of this week, in the month of the third, Abram sat by the oak of Mamre, which is near Hebron.
Jub 14:2 And the Lord appeared to him and said, “Do not fear, Abram. I am your defender, and your reward will be very great.”
Jub 14:3 And he said, “Lord, Lord, what will You give me, seeing that I go childless? For the son of Masek, the son of my maidservant, Eliezer of Damascus, he will be my heir. To me You have given no seed.”
Jub 14:4 And He said to him, “This man will not be your heir, but one that will come from your own body will be your heir.”
Jub 14:5 And He brought him outside and said to him, “Look toward heaven and number the stars if you are able to count them.”
Jub 14:6 And he looked toward heaven and beheld the stars, and He said to him, “So will your seed be.”
Jub 14:7 And he believed in the Lord, and it was counted to him for righteousness.
Jub 14:8 And He said to him, “I am the Lord who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you the land of the Canaanites to possess it forever. And I will be your Divine One and the Mighty One of your seed after you.”
Jub 14:9 And he said, “Lord, Lord, how will I know that I will inherit it?”
Jub 14:10 And he said to him, “Take for me a heifer of three years, and a goat of three years, and a sheep of three years, and a turtledove and a pigeon.”
Jub 14:11 And he took all of these in the middle of the month, and he dwelt by the oak of Mamre. And he built an altar there and sacrificed all of these. He poured their blood on the altar and divided them in the middle, and set each half against the other. But the birds he did not divide.
Jub 14:12 And birds descended on the pieces, and Abram drove them away. He did not permit the birds to touch them.
Jub 14:13 And it came to pass when the sun had set, that a deep sleep fell on Abram, and behold, a great terror of darkness fell upon him, and a voice said to him, “Abram, Abram.”
Jub 14:14 And he said, “Here I am.”
Jub 14:15 And He said to him, “Know for certain that your seed will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and they will be enslaved and afflicted four hundred years.

Jub 14:16 But I will judge the nation whom they will serve, and afterward they will come out from there with much wealth.
Jub 14:17 And you will go to your fathers in peace, and you will be buried in a good old age.
Jub 14:18 And in the fourth generation they will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete."
Jub 14:19 And He awakened from his sleep, and he arose, and the sun had set, and there was a flame, and behold, a smoking furnace and a burning torch that passed between the pieces.
Jub 14:20 And on that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your seed I will give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates—
Jub 14:21 The Kenite, the Kenizzite, the Kadmonite, the Perizzite, the Rephaim, Jub 14:22 The Phakorite, the Hivite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Girgashite, and the Jebusite."
Jub 15:1 And in the fifth year of the fourth week of this jubilee, in the third month, in the middle of the month, Abram celebrated the feast of the firstfruits of the grain harvest.
Jub 15:2 And he offered new offerings on the altar—the firstfruits of the produce to the Lord—a heifer, a goat, and a sheep on the altar as a burnt sacrifice to the Lord, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, according to the commandment of the law, and he offered them upon the altar of burnt offering.
Jub 15:3 And he gave a tenth of all the firstfruits to the priests of the Lord, who served in the altar, and he placed the offerings in the fire.
Jub 15:4 And the Lord appeared to Abram and said to him, "I am Yehowah Almighty; walk before Me and be perfect.
Jub 15:5 I will make My covenant between Me and you, and I will multiply you exceedingly."
Jub 15:6 And Abram fell on his face, and Yehowah spoke to him and said,
Jub 15:7 "Behold, My ordinance is with you, and you will be the father of many nations.
Jub 15:8 Neither will your name be Abram any more, but your name will from this day be Abraham, for I have made you the father of many nations.
Jub 15:9 And I will make you very great, and I will make nations and kings come from you.
Jub 15:10 And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, so that I may be Yehowah to you and to your seed after you.

Jub 15:11 And I will give the land where you have been a stranger—the land of Canaan—that you may possess it forever, and I will be their Divine One."
Jub 15:12 And the Lord said to Abraham, "As for you, keep My covenant, you and your seed after you, and circumcise every male among you, and circumcise your foreskins, and it will be a sign of the eternal covenant between Me and you.
Jub 15:13 A child of eight days you will circumcise, every male throughout your generations, the servant born in your house, and the one purchased with money from any stranger whom you have acquired, who is not of your seed.
Jub 15:14 He that is born in your house will surely be circumcised, and those you have bought with money will be circumcised.
Jub 15:15 My covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant, and the uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin on the eighth day, that soul will be cut off from his people, for he has broken My covenant."
Jub 15:16 And Yehowah said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, her name will no longer be called Sarai, for Sarah will be her name.
Jub 15:17 And I will bless her, and I will give you a son by her. I will bless him and he will become a nation, and kings of nations will arise from him."
Jub 15:18 And Abraham fell on his face and rejoiced and said in his heart, "Shall a son be born to him that is one hundred years old? And will Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth?"
Jub 15:19 And he said to Yehowah, "O that Ishmael might live before You!"
Jub 15:20 And Yehowah said, "Yes, but Sarah also will bear you a son, and you will call his name Isaac. I will establish My covenant with him, an everlasting covenant, and for his seed after him.
Jub 15:21 And concerning Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I will bless him and make him great, and multiply him exceedingly, and he will father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.
Jub 15:22 But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this time in the next year."
Jub 15:23 And He finished speaking with him, and Yehowah went up from Abraham.
Jub 15:24 And Abraham did as Yehowah had said to him. He took Ishmael his son, and all those born in his house, and those he had bought with money, every male in his household, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins.
Jub 15:25 On the very same day Abraham was circumcised, and all the men of his household, and those born in the house, and all those he had bought with money from the children of strangers, were also circumcised with him.

Jub 16:1 And in the first year of the fifth week of this jubilee, in the third month, in the middle of the month, the Lord appeared to Abraham and said to him, “Abraham, Abraham.”
Jub 16:2 And he said, “Here I am.”
Jub 16:3 And He said to him, “Behold, I am the Mighty One of your father. Do not fear, for I am with you, and I will bless you exceedingly and multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and I will give to your seed this land in which you dwell, and they will inherit it forever. And I will establish My covenant with your seed forever—to be their Divine One and for them to be My children.”
Jub 16:4 And Abraham fell on his face and rejoiced, and he spoke in his heart, saying, “Shall a son be born to him that is one hundred years old, and will Sarah, who is ninety years old, bring forth a child?”
Jub 16:5 And the Lord said to Abraham, “Indeed, Sarah your wife will bear you a son, and you will call his name Isaac. And I will establish My covenant with him, an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.
Jub 16:6 And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I will bless him and make him great, and multiply him exceedingly, and he will father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.
Jub 16:7 But My covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time next year.”
Jub 16:8 And He ceased speaking with him, and Abraham rose up and did as Yehowah had said to him, and he rejoiced exceedingly.
Jub 16:9 And he came into his tent and sat down, and Sarah heard the voice of the messenger who spoke with Abraham, and she laughed when she heard that she would bear a son.
Jub 16:10 And she was siWng at the door of the tent, and she lined up her eyes and saw three men coming from afar, and she ran and welcomed them into the house, and she bowed to them and brought them water to wash their feet, and she opened her tent and made them a meal.
Jub 16:11 And they ate before her in the tent, and they blessed her, and one of them said to her, “I will surely return to you according to the time of life, and Sarah your wife will have a son.”
Jub 16:12 And Sarah heard it and laughed, saying in her heart, “Shall I, being old, truly bear, seeing my husband is aged?”
Jub 16:13 And the messenger of the Lord said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I truly bear, seeing I am old?’ Is anything too hard for the Lord? At the appointed time I will return to you, and Sarah will have a son.”
Jub 16:14 And Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid.

Jub 16:15 And He said to her, “No, but you did laugh.”
Jub 16:16 And the men arose from there, and they looked toward the cities of the plain, and the Lord said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do concerning Sodom and Gomorrah?”
Jub 16:17 And the Lord said to Abraham, “The cry of Sodom and Gomorrah has multiplied, and their sin is exceedingly great.
Jub 16:18 I will go down now and see if they have done all according to the cry that has come to Me. If not, I will know.”
Jub 16:19 And the men departed and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before the Lord.
Jub 16:20 And Abraham drew near and said, “Will You indeed destroy the righteous with the wicked?
Jub 16:21 Perhaps there are fifty righteous within the city. Will You destroy it and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it?
Jub 16:22 Far be it from You to do this thing—to slay the righteous with the wicked. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?”
Jub 16:23 And the Lord said, “If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake.”
Jub 16:24 And Abraham answered and said, “Behold now, I have taken upon myself to speak to the Lord, I who am dust and ashes.
Jub 16:25 Suppose there are five less than fifty righteous. Will You destroy the city for lack of five?”
Jub 16:26 And He said, “I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.”
Jub 16:27 And he continued to speak and said, “Perhaps forty will be found there.”
Jub 16:28 And He said, “I will not destroy it for forty’s sake.”
Jub 16:29 And he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak. Perhaps thirty will be found there.”
Jub 16:30 And He said, “I will not destroy it if I find thirty there.”
Jub 16:31 And he said, “Behold now, I have dared to speak to the Lord. Perhaps twenty will be found there.”
Jub 16:32 And He said, “I will not destroy it for twenty’s sake.”
Jub 16:33 And he said, “Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet this once more. Perhaps ten will be found there.”
Jub 16:34 And He said, “I will not destroy it for the sake of ten.”
Jub 16:35 And the Lord went His way when He had finished speaking with Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.
Jub 17:1 And in the first year of the first week in the forty-second jubilee, Abraham returned and dwelt opposite Hebron, that is, Kiryath Arba, two weeks of years.
Jub 17:2 And in the first year of the third week of this jubilee, the messengers of Yehowah appeared to Abraham at the oak of Mamre, and they said to him, “Behold, Sarah your wife will have a son.”

Jub 17:3 And he sat at the door of his tent during the heat of the day, and he lined his eyes and saw three men coming from afar, and he ran to meet them and bowed to the earth.
Jub 17:4 And he said, “Lord, if I have found favor in Your sight, do not pass by Your servant. Let water be brought and wash Your feet, and rest under the tree, and I will bring bread and you may refresh your hearts. Anerward you may go your way.”
Jub 17:5 And they said, “So do as you have said.”
Jub 17:6 And Abraham hastened into his tent to Sarah and said, “Make ready quickly three measures of fine flour, knead it, and make cakes.”
Jub 17:7 And Abraham ran to the herd and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to his servant, and he hastened to prepare it.
Jub 17:8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had prepared, and he set it before them, and he stood by them under the tree, and they ate.
Jub 17:9 And they said to him, “Where is Sarah your wife?”
Jub 17:10 And he said, “Behold, she is in the tent.”
Jub 17:11 And one of them said, “I will return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah your wife will have a son.”
Jub 17:12 And Sarah heard at the door of the tent behind him, and she laughed, for she was behind the tent door and had not yet appeared before them.
Jub 17:13 And Abraham and Sarah were old and advanced in years, and Sarah had ceased from the way of women.
Jub 17:14 And Sarah laughed, saying in her heart, “After I have grown old, will I now have pleasure, my lord being old also?”
Jub 17:15 And the messenger of the Lord said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, saying, ‘Shall I indeed bear a child, seeing I am old?’ Is anything too hard for the Lord? At the appointed time I will return to you according to the time of life, and Sarah will have a son.”
Jub 17:16 And Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh,” for she was afraid.
Jub 17:17 And He said to her, “No, but you did laugh.”
Jub 17:18 And in the fifth month of the fourth year of this jubilee, in the third week, Isaac was born to Abraham, and the messenger of the Lord spoke to him, saying, “Name the child Isaac.”
Jub 17:19 And Abraham circumcised his son on the eighth day. He was the first who had been circumcised according to the covenant which Yehowah made with Abraham.
Jub 17:20 And Abraham completed the feast of the harvest with great joy, for in the land of Canaan the Lord had given him all things that He had promised, and he rejoiced and blessed the Lord, and celebrated the feast of joy in this month seven days—near the altar which he had built at the oak of Mamre.

Jub 17:21 And he built booths for himself and for his servants on that feast, and he was the first to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles on the earth.
Jub 17:22 And during these seven days he brought every day a burnt offering to the altar—two oxen, two rams, seven sheep, one he-goat—for a sin offering, that he might atone thereby for himself and for his seed.
Jub 17:23 And as a thank offering, seven rams, seven kids, seven sheep, and seven he-goats, and their grain offering and drink offerings. These he burnt on the altar, together with their fat, offering the flesh, and sprinkling the blood upon the altar.
Jub 17:24 And he made a feast of joy seven days, and he blessed and praised the Lord for all things that He had done for him, and for that He had given him a son in his old age.
Jub 17:25 For He had performed all His words which He had spoken to him, and he was a man of faith, one who loved Yehowah and was well-pleasing in all his ways.
Jub 17:26 And the Lord said to Abraham, "I know that you will command your children and your household after you, that they will keep the way of the Lord, to do righteousness and justice, so that the Lord may bring upon Abraham all that He has spoken concerning him."
Jub 17:27 And He finished speaking with him, and Abraham returned to his home and rejoiced exceedingly.
Jub 18:1 And it came to pass in the seventh week, in the first year of it, in the first month, in the twelfth of this month, there were voices in heaven regarding Abraham, that he was faithful in all that was told him, and that he loved the Lord and that in every trial he was faithful.
Jub 18:2 And the prince Mastema came and said before Yehowah, "Behold, Abraham loves his son Isaac, and he delights in him above all things. Say to him that he should offer him as a burnt offering on the altar, and You will see if he does this commandment, and You will know if he is faithful in everything in which You have tried him."
Jub 18:3 And the Lord knew that Abraham was faithful in all his afflictions, for He had tested him in his country, and with famine, and had tried him with the wealth of kings, and had tried him again with his wife when she was taken, and with circumcision, and had tried him in every way, and he was found faithful.
Jub 18:4 And the Lord said to him, "Abraham, Abraham." And he said, "Here I am."

Jub 18:5 And He said, “Take your beloved son whom you love, Isaac, and go to the high land, and offer him on one of the mountains which I will show you.”
Jub 18:6 And he rose early in the morning, and he saddled his donkey, and he took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and split the wood for the burnt offering, and he came to the place on the third day, and he saw the place afar off.
Jub 18:7 And he came to a well of water, and he said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey, and I and the boy will go on to that place, and when we have worshiped, we will return to you.”
Jub 18:8 And he took the wood of the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he took in his hand the fire and the knife, and the two went together to that place.
Jub 18:9 And Isaac said to his father, “My father.” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” And he said, “Behold, here is the fire and the knife, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering, father?”
Jub 18:10 And he said, “Yehowah will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering, my son.” And they drew near the place of the mountain of the Lord.
Jub 18:11 And he built the altar and placed the wood upon it, and he bound Isaac his son and placed him on the altar upon the wood.
Jub 18:12 And Abraham stretched forth his hand to take the knife to slay his son.
Jub 18:13 And I stood before him, and before the prince Mastema, and the Lord said, “Tell him not to lay his hand upon the child nor to do anything to him, for I have now made known that he fears the Lord, and has not withheld his son, his firstborn, from Me.”
Jub 18:14 And I called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham.” And he was terrified and said, “Here I am.”
Jub 18:15 And I said to him, “Lay not your hand upon the boy, neither do anything to him, for now I have made known that you fear the Lord, and have not withheld your son, your firstborn, from Me.”
Jub 18:16 And the Lord called to Abraham by his name a second time from heaven, as I stood before Him, and He said, “By Myself I have sworn, says the Lord, because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your beloved, that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven and as the sand which is on the seashore.
Jub 18:17 And your seed will inherit the cities of its enemies, and in your seed will all nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice and I have shown to all that you are faithful to Me in all that I have told you. Go in peace."

Jub 18:18 And Abraham lined up his eyes and looked, and behold, a ram caught by his horns in a thicket.
Jub 18:19 And Abraham went and took the ram and offered it for a burnt offering instead of his son, and Abraham called that place The Lord Sees, so that it is said in the mountain the Lord is seen.
Jub 18:20 And the Lord again called Abraham by name from heaven as I stood before Him, and He said, "Blessed are you, Abraham, and blessed is your seed forever and ever, for in you will be blessing and all the nations of the earth will bless themselves by your seed, because you have obeyed My voice and I have shown to all that you are faithful."
Jub 18:21 And Abraham returned to his servants, and they arose and went together to Beersheba, and Abraham dwelt by the well of the oath.
Jub 18:22 And he celebrated this feast every year seven days with joy, and he called it The Feast of the Lord, according to the seven days in which he went and returned in peace.
Jub 18:23 And the Lord established it as an ordinance forever that it should be observed by the children of Israel so that they might remember continually how the Lord had tried Abraham and how He had shown Himself faithful in all things.
Jub 19:1 And in the first year of the first week in the forty-third jubilee, Isaac returned from the well of the vision, and he came to the south and dwelt at the well of the oath in the first year of the third week of this jubilee.
Jub 19:2 And in the first year of the fourth week a famine began in the land besides the first famine that had been in the days of Abraham.
Jub 19:3 And Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, to Gerar, in order to speak to him concerning his dwelling in that land.
Jub 19:4 And the Lord appeared to him and said, "Do not go down into Egypt; dwell in the land that I will tell you of. Live in this land, and I will be with you and bless you.
Jub 19:5 For to you and to your seed I will give all this land, and I will establish My oath which I swore to your father Abraham, and I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven and will give to your seed all these lands.
Jub 19:6 And in your seed will all nations of the earth be blessed, because your father obeyed My voice and kept My commandments, My ordinances, and My laws."
Jub 19:7 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar three weeks of years.
Jub 19:8 And the men of the place asked concerning his wife, and he said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," lest the men of the place should kill him because of Rebekah, for she was very beautiful.

Jub 19:9 And he was there for some time, and Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out through the window, and he saw Isaac playing with Rebekah his wife.
Jub 19:10 And Abimelech called Isaac and said to him, “Behold, she is certainly your wife. Why did you say, ‘She is my sister’? One of the people might easily have lain with her, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”
Jub 19:11 And Isaac said to him, “Because I was afraid that I would die because of her.”
Jub 19:12 And Abimelech said to him, “What is this that you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”
Jub 19:13 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, “He who touches this man or his wife will surely be put to death.”
Jub 19:14 And Isaac sowed in that land and found in that year one hundredfold, and the Lord blessed him, and the man became rich and gained more and more until he became exceedingly great.
Jub 19:15 And he had possessions of flocks and herds and many servants, and the Philistines envied him.
Jub 19:16 Now all the wells that the servants of his father had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped and filled with earth.
Jub 19:17 And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we.”
Jub 19:18 And Isaac departed from there in the first year of the seventh week of this jubilee, and he sojourned in the valley of Gerar.
Jub 19:19 And they dug again the wells of water that had been dug in the days of Abraham his father, which the Philistines had stopped after the death of Abraham his father, and he called their names as his father had named them.
Jub 19:20 And the servants of Isaac dug a well in the valley and found there a well of living water, and the shepherds of Gerar quarreled with the shepherds of Isaac, saying, “The water is ours.”
Jub 19:21 And Isaac named the well Esek, because they contended with him. And they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also, and he named it Sitnah.
Jub 19:22 And he departed from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over that one, and he called its name Rehoboth, saying, “Now the Lord has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land.”
Jub 19:23 And he went up from there to Beersheba in the first year of the first week in the forty-fourth jubilee.

Jub 19:24 And the Lord appeared to him that night, in the new month of the first month, and said to him, “I am the Mighty One of Abraham your father; fear not, for I am with you and will bless you and multiply your seed as the sand of the earth for the sake of Abraham My servant.”
Jub 19:25 And he built an altar there which Abraham his father had first built, and he called on the name of the Lord, and he offered a sacrifice to the Mighty One of his father Abraham.
Jub 19:26 And they dug a well and found living water.
Jub 19:27 And the servants of Isaac dug another well and did not find water, and they went and told Isaac that they had not found water, and he said, “I have sworn this day to the Philistines, and this thing will not be accounted against me.”
Jub 19:28 And he called the name of that place Beersheba, for there they both swore concerning it.
Jub 19:29 And they made a covenant at Beersheba, and Abimelech and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the chief captain of his army, came to Isaac and made peace with him.
Jub 19:30 And Isaac made a feast for them, and they ate and drank, and they arose early in the morning and swore an oath one to another, and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.
Jub 19:31 And in the same day the servants of Isaac came and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.”
Jub 19:32 And he called the name of that well Shibah, and therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.
Jub 19:33 And Esau, at forty years old, took to himself a wife, Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hethite, and another wife, Basemath, the daughter of Elon the Hethite.
Jub 19:34 And they made Isaac and Rebekah exceedingly sorrowful, for they grieved the spirit of Isaac and Rebekah his wife.
Jub 20:1 And in the forty-second jubilee, in the first year of the seventh week, Abraham called Ishmael and his twelve sons, and Isaac and his two sons, and the six sons of Keturah and their sons.
Jub 20:2 And he commanded them that they should observe the way of the Lord, to do righteousness and to love each his neighbor, and to act on this way among all men so that they might do justice and righteousness upon the earth.
Jub 20:3 And that they should circumcise their sons according to the covenant which He had made with them, and not deviate from the right path either to the right hand or to the left.
Jub 20:4 And he instructed them concerning the judgment and righteousness that they should do, so that they might fulfill it upon the earth and not corrupt their ways, nor transgress His commandments, nor defile the covenant which the Lord had made with them, so that they might be blessed in all their deeds and be fruitful in all the work of their hands.

Jub 20:5 And the Lord would be their Divine One, and they would be His people and His inheritance from that time forever.
Jub 20:6 And he said to them, “Beware, and do not befriend the sons of the earth, nor marry your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, for their deeds are unclean and all their ways are pollution and ungodliness, and they corrupt themselves and their sons.”
Jub 20:7 “And you will not walk in their ways nor act as they do, for their deeds are defiled, and all their ways are polluted and full of unrighteousness.”
Jub 20:8 “They build strong cities, and walls, and towers, and they set up images of stone and idols of gold and silver, and all kinds of unclean spirits occupy them, and they lead astray the hearts of men, and many will be destroyed by them.”
Jub 20:9 “And you, my sons, do not join yourselves to them, lest your seed be destroyed as theirs.”
Jub 20:10 “Separate yourselves from their impurities, and do not eat the blood of any flesh, nor the blood of cattle, or sheep, or goat, or any bird or beast, which eats of the blood of man.”
Jub 20:11 “For the life of all flesh is in the blood, lest your blood be required for your lives. The blood of every man will I require; whosoever sheds man’s blood, by man will his blood be shed, for man was made in the image of Yehowah.”
Jub 20:12 “And now, my children, listen and act according to the judgment of righteousness, and you will not commit sin, for judgment of death is not for the righteous who do righteousness, but for sinners and for those who transgress the law.”
Jub 20:13 “And do not eat the blood, for it is the soul; eat no blood whatever.”
Jub 20:14 “Do not accept gins of blood or any offering of the wicked, for it is an abomination to the Lord; it is not righteous for those who eat it, nor for those who give it, nor for those who take it. From the time of the shedding of man’s blood on the earth, the Lord has required blood.”
Jub 20:15 “Guard yourselves, therefore, from blood, that you may not be destroyed. And do not eat any living creature that moves on the earth or in the waters, or in the heavens, or in any place.
For this is an abomination before the Lord your Divine One.”
Jub 20:16 “And the Lord our Divine One will require the blood of every man from his hand. And guard yourselves, my children, from all blood, so that you may not be destroyed."

Jub 20:17 "And now, my children, hear and act according to the words of righteousness, and walk not in the ways of destruction, nor in the ways of death."
Jub 20:18 "Draw near to righteousness and join yourselves to the angel of righteousness, and walk in the way of truth, and you will live and prosper."
Jub 20:19 "Do not be of double heart, nor of double tongue, for deceit is a great sin before the Lord, and the one who does it will fall in it and will not escape it."
Jub 20:20 "Be upright, my children, in your ways, and in all the deeds of your life, and you will never be destroyed by wickedness."
Jub 20:21 "And the Lord will bless you and multiply you, and will cause His blessing to rest on all the work of your hands, in righteousness and peace, so that you may not be destroyed forever."
Jub 20:22 And all these words and commandments Abraham commanded his sons and his household after him. And he blessed them and said to them, "May Yehowah Mighty One of all bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and may His fear and His dread be upon all nations that you may rule over them."
Jub 20:23 "Bless me, my sons, that I may go in peace to my fathers. And do not let one of you be estranged from the Mighty One of Abraham, or from his house; for the Lord is with me and will bless you forever."
Jub 20:24 And all the nations of the earth will bless themselves by your seed, as you have blessed me, and as I have blessed you, and they will bless one another by you and by your seed forever.
Jub 21:1 And in the sixth year of the seventh week of this jubilee, Abraham called Isaac his son, and commanded him, saying, "I am old, my son, and I do not know the day of my death, and I am full of my days."
Jub 21:2 "Behold, I am one hundred and seventy-five years old, and throughout all the days of my life I have remembered the Lord, and sought with all my heart to do His will and to walk uprightly in all His ways."
Jub 21:3 "My soul has hated idols, so that I might observe the truth and keep myself from the ways of those who serve them and of those who defile themselves with them."
Jub 21:4 "And I have not eaten of their sacrifices, nor drunk of their drink offerings, nor eaten of the fat of their beasts, but have directed my heart to complete the will of Him who created me."
Jub 21:5 "For He is the living Yehowah, and He is holy, and faithful, and righteous, beyond all measure and truth."
Jub 21:6 "He has chosen me in love out of all mankind to raise up a righteous seed from my seed, that may bless the Lord forever.”

Jub 21:7 “And you, my son, keep His commandments and His ordinances and His judgments, and do not walk after the abominations or after the carved images or molten idols.”
Jub 21:8 “Do not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is in the blood, so that your blood may not be required from the hands of any flesh that sheds blood on the earth.”
Jub 21:9 “For the earth will be purified from all blood of sin, and no blood that is shed will be upon it, for all who shed innocent blood will be destroyed from the earth.”
Jub 21:10 “Eat not blood, my son, or the fat of any animal, or any of the beasts or cattle, or any bird that flies in the heaven.”
Jub 21:11 “And if you slay a sacrifice as a peace offering, slay it, pour out its blood upon the altar, and offer all its fat upon the fire.”
Jub 21:12 “And as a sweet fragrance before the Lord you will offer its meat and its blood upon the altar of the Mighty One of all, and its fat you will offer upon the fire.”
Jub 21:13 “For the fragrance of its sweet savor is a righteous offering to the Lord.”
Jub 21:14 “But guard yourself, my son, from blood; do not eat of it, for it is the soul of all flesh, so that your blood may not be required from the hands of all who shed blood on the earth.”
Jub 21:15 “And you, my son, be very careful in all your deeds, and be pure in all your ways, and in all your doings.”
Jub 21:16 “Let not the ways of righteousness be far from you, and guard yourself from all deceit and from all unrighteousness, that you may not perish.”
Jub 21:17 “Walk before the Lord sincerely and without blame, and you will be without blame.”
Jub 21:18 “He will bless you in all your deeds, and He will raise up from you a righteous seed in all the earth, for all nations will call you blessed.”
Jub 21:19 “And the blessings of the Lord will rest upon your head, and upon the seed of your righteousness, that you may be a blessing on all the earth.”
Jub 21:20 “And all the nations of the earth will bless themselves in your seed.”
Jub 21:21 “If you keep the commandments of the Lord your Divine One, then He will guard you and bless you in all your ways and will establish His name upon you and your seed, and the blessing of the Lord will rest upon you and upon your seed, that you may be blessed in all the earth.”
Jub 21:22 “Sit down before the Lord of all, and offer the offering of praise and thanksgiving to the Lord, who created you, and gave you the power of your limbs, and the understanding, and the tongue, and the eyes, and the ears, and the heart to perceive."

Jub 21:23 "Praise Him, and bless Him for all His works, for He is the source of all things, and there is no one like Him."
Jub 21:24 "He is the Mighty One of deities and Lord of lords and King of kings, and they will acknowledge Him and bless Him who has made all things."
Jub 21:25 "And now, my son Isaac, I command you to guard yourself from the spirit of fornication, and take not for yourself a wife from the daughters of Canaan, for the seed of Canaan will be rooted out of the land."
Jub 21:26 "For by Ham, the father of Canaan, a curse came upon the earth, since the flood, by his sin, in which he sinned against Noah his father."
Jub 21:27 "And for this reason he cursed his seed with slavery and the wickedness of their hearts, and you will not marry among them."
Jub 21:28 "Behold, all his seed is cursed according to their generations forever."
Jub 21:29 "But bless your sons and the seed of your sons, that they may be a chosen generation and a holy seed, that they may be blessed throughout the earth."
Jub 21:30 "And you will cleanse yourself and your seed from all sin and from all defilement, that you may be justified before the Lord, and may become a people for His inheritance."
Jub 21:31 And Abraham finished commanding his son Isaac and his servants, and he blessed them, and they ate and drank together, and he rejoiced and blessed the Mighty One of eternity, who had given him a righteous son to be his seed.
Jub 21:32 And he departed from him in peace that day, and all the days of his life were fulfilled, and he lived three jubilees and four weeks of years—one hundred and seventy-five years—and completed the days of his life, old and full of days.
Jub 21:33 For the days of the lives of the fathers were nineteen jubilees, and after the flood, they began to be fewer and shorter, and to decline because of the evil of their ways—through the pollution of their flesh, through fornication, and through unclean union which they defiled themselves with, and which they wrought upon the earth.
Jub 21:34 And they died earlier than they had in former times.
Jub 21:35 And Abraham was perfect in all his deeds with the Lord and well-pleasing in righteousness all the days of his life, and behold, he did not complete four jubilees in his life, when he had grown old by reason of wickedness, and reached the days of the full measure of the life of man, and being satisfied with days, he was full of joy.

Jub 21:36 For all his days were peace with joy, with gladness of heart, and he died in a good old age, full of days and satisfied, and all his seed wept for him.
Jub 21:37 And Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the double cave near Sarah his wife, and all the men of his house and all the sons of Keturah wept for him forty days.
Jub 21:38 And all the days of the mourning of Abraham were completed.
Jub 22:1 And in the first year of the seventh week of this jubilee, Abraham called Isaac his son and commanded him, saying, “My son.”
Jub 22:2 And Isaac said, “Here I am, father.”
Jub 22:3 And he said to him, “Behold, I am old, and I do not know the day of my death. I am full of my days.”
Jub 22:4 “Behold, I am one hundred and seventy-five years old, and throughout all the days of my life I have remembered the Lord, and sought with all my heart to do His will, and to walk uprightly in all His ways.”
Jub 22:5 “My soul has hated idols, so that I might observe the truth and keep myself from the works of those who serve them and defile themselves with them.”
Jub 22:6 “And I have not eaten of their sacrifices, nor drunk of their drink offerings, nor eaten of the fat of their beasts. But I have directed my heart to the Lord, the Mighty One of heaven, to whom all things are due, who gives life and breath and all things.”
Jub 22:7 “Bless the Mighty One of heaven who brought me out of Ur of the Chaldees, who delivered me from the fire of the Chaldees and from the hand of death, and gave me this land because of His covenant with me forever.”
Jub 22:8 “For He is faithful, and He is righteous, and there is no falsehood with Him, for He is righteous and true in all His ways. His judgments are true and established forever and ever.”
Jub 22:9 “And now, my son, keep His commandments and His ordinances and His judgments, and do not walk after the abominations or after the carved images and molten idols.”
Jub 22:10 “Do not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is in the blood, lest your blood be required for the blood of all flesh.”
Jub 22:11 “Eat no blood whatever. Do not accept gins of blood or offerings of the wicked, nor eat the blood of any creature, for it is the soul.”
Jub 22:12 “Guard yourself, my son, from all defilement and from all fornication, and from all sin, and from all unrighteousness, and keep yourself from mingling with those who walk in darkness, and drink not their drink, and eat not their bread, for their works are unclean and all their ways are defilement and pollution and corruption.”

Jub 22:13 “Guard yourself, my son Isaac, from taking a wife from among the daughters of Canaan, for all his seed is accursed, and there is none righteous among them, for their deeds are evil.”
Jub 22:14 “And I remember the words which the Lord spoke to me when I took your mother out of the house of my father, for He said to me, ‘Do not take a wife from among the daughters of Canaan, for the seed of Canaan will be rooted out of the land.’”
Jub 22:15 “For by Ham, the father of Canaan, a curse came upon the earth since the flood, because of the sin which he sinned against Noah his father.”
Jub 22:16 “Therefore he cursed his seed, and the curse continued upon them, and they are not removed until this day.”
Jub 22:17 “And you, my son, love the Lord of heaven and earth and keep His commandments, and do not follow their idols or their defi lements.”
Jub 22:18 “And do not eat blood, nor any creature which is defiled by its blood, for the life of all flesh is in the blood, and all who eat it will be cut off.”
Jub 22:19 “And all the days of your life you will walk in righteousness and truth, and you will teach your sons that they may also walk in righteousness and truth and in peace and gentleness, and that they may not be destroyed.”
Jub 22:20 “And do not mix with the nations, for their sin is great, and they defile themselves and their sons, and they have polluted their daughters with harlotry and the sin of their hearts, and they have been separated from Yehowah.”
Jub 22:21 “And you, my son, keep yourself from their evil works, and do not defile yourself with them, lest you be destroyed with them.”
Jub 22:22 “And now write down all this that I may give it to you and to your sons, that they may observe it forever, so that they may not forget the commandments of the Lord and walk after the nations and be destroyed.”
Jub 22:23 “For they are a snare and a trap and a stumbling block to your seed.”
Jub 22:24 “And now, my son, remember what I am commanding you today, and may Yehowah Mighty One of all bless you and your seed, that you may be a chosen people, a holy seed, and that you may be blessed in all your deeds.”
Jub 22:25 “And Yehowah Mighty One of all will bless you, as He said, and He will multiply you and your seed and cause His blessing to rest on all the works of your hands, and on your seed, that you may be blessed in all the earth.”
Jub 22:26 “Serve the Lord of all, and do His will and be upright in all His ways.”

Jub 22:27 “And He will bless you in all that you do, and He will raise up from you a righteous seed in all the earth, and all nations will bless themselves by your seed.”
Jub 22:28 “And all the blessings with which the Lord has blessed me and my seed will belong to you and to your seed forever.”
Jub 22:29 “And you will remember the Lord your Divine One all the days of your life, and you will not follow after vain deities or molten images or graven idols.”
Jub 22:30 “Fear Him and worship Him, and be upright before Him, and keep His commandments and ordinances and judgments in all your days.”
Jub 22:31 “And He will bless you and your seed, that you may become a blessing on the earth, and that you may bless all nations of the earth in your seed, and that they may bless you and your seed.”
Jub 22:32 “For the blessing of the Lord will rest upon you and upon your seed, that you may be blessed all the days of your life.”
Jub 22:33 And he ceased commanding his son Isaac and blessed him, and they ate and drank together and rejoiced.
Jub 22:34 And he rested that night and arose in the morning, and we blessed him before the Lord forever, and he went from us in peace.
Jub 22:35 And we went with him, and he died in a good old age, old and full of days, and his two sons, Isaac and Ishmael, buried him in the double cave near Sarah his wife.
Jub 22:36 And all the days of Abraham’s life were completed, one hundred seventy-five years, and he was gathered to his people in peace.
Jub 23:1 And he placed two fi ngers of Jacob upon the eyes of Isaac, and he blessed the Mighty One of deities, and he covered his eyes and was full of joy.
Jub 23:2 And he said, “Blessed be Yehowah Almighty, who sees the hearts and afflictions of His servants and who has rescued me from my afflictions and given me this joy.”
Jub 23:3 “Now I know that my seed will live and that Your name will be blessed forever and ever by all the generations of the earth.”
Jub 23:4 And he called Jacob and said to him, “My son Jacob, may the Mighty One of your fathers bless you and strengthen you to do His will and His good pleasure before Him, and may He choose you and your seed to become a people for His inheritance according to His will forever.”
Jub 23:5 “And you, my son Jacob, remember my words and keep the commandments of Abraham your father. Separate yourself from the nations, and do not eat with them, and do not do according to their works, and do not become their associate.”

Jub 23:6 “For their works are unclean, and all their ways are a pollution and an abomination and uncleanness.”
Jub 23:7 “They offer their sacrifices to the dead, and they worship evil spirits, and they eat over graves, and all their works are vanity and nothing.”
Jub 23:8 “They have no heart to understand and no eyes to see what their works are, or how they err in saying to a piece of wood, ‘You are my deity,’ and to a stone, ‘You are my lord, and you are my deliverer.’”
Jub 23:9 “They have no heart, and as for you, my son Jacob, may Most High Yehowah help you, and may the Mighty One of heaven bless you and remove you from their uncleanness and from all their error.”
Jub 23:10 “Be careful, my son Jacob, not to take a wife from any of the daughters of Canaan, for all his seed is accursed, and you will not take a wife from among them.”
Jub 23:11 “Arise, go to Mesopotamia, to the house of Bethuel, your mother’s father, and take for yourself a wife from there, from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.”
Jub 23:12 “And may Most High Yehowah bless you and your children, and may the Mighty One of Abraham bless you and increase you and multiply your seed as the stars of heaven and make you a blessing upon the earth and throughout all generations of the earth.”
Jub 23:13 “May the nations serve you and all the nations bow themselves before your seed. Be strong in righteousness and integrity, so that you may be holy and without sin.”
Jub 23:14 “And the Lord will be with you, and will bless you in all your deeds, and will not forsake you all the days of your life, and you will be a blessed man in all your deeds.”
Jub 23:15 “Raise up your seed in truth and righteousness and in the fear of Yehowah, and your seed will be blessed throughout all generations forever.”
Jub 23:16 And when Isaac had finished commanding Jacob and blessing him, two days after, Isaac lay down on his bed and died.
Jub 23:17 He was gathered to his fathers, old and full of days, and his two sons, Esau and Jacob, buried him.
Jub 23:18 And Esau said in his heart, “Jacob and I were brothers, and I loved him, but after our father’s death, I will slay him.”
Jub 23:19 And Jacob was afraid of Esau because of his words, and he fled to Laban his mother’s brother, and he dwelt with him until the anger of Esau turned away from him, and until his wrath passed from him.
Jub 23:20 And the words of Esau were remembered at that time in heaven concerning the threat that he had spoken to his brother Jacob, and it was written down as a testimony forever in the heavenly tablets, how he had said that he would slay him.

Jub 23:21 And in the days when Jacob went from his father Isaac to Laban in Mesopotamia, Rebekah his mother wept for him many days.
Jub 23:22 For she said, “I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth such as these from the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?”
Jub 23:23 And she sent word to Isaac her father, saying, “I am weary of my life because of the two daughters of Heth, for they are evil in all their deeds. If Jacob takes a wife from among them, I will not see the face of my son Jacob, for they will destroy my heart and all the days of my life will be destroyed.”
Jub 23:24 And Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and charged him not to take a wife from among the daughters of Canaan, but to go to the house of Bethuel, the father of his mother, and to the house of Laban, her brother, to take a wife from there from the daughters of Laban.
Jub 23:25 And Isaac blessed him and said to him, “May the Mighty One of Abraham and the Mighty One of Isaac be with you and bless you and multiply you and increase you greatly, and may you become a company of nations, and may He give you the blessing of your father Abraham, and to your seed after you, that you may inherit the land of your sojournings and all the land which the Lord gave to Abraham.”
Jub 23:26 “Go, my son, in peace.”
Jub 23:27 And Jacob departed from Beersheba to go to Haran on the first year of the second week in the forty-fourth jubilee, and he came to Luz, which is in the mountains, that is, Bethel, on the first day of the first month of this week, and he reached the place and stayed there all night because the sun had set.
Jub 23:28 And he took one of the stones of that place and placed it under the head of his bed, and he lay down to sleep in that place.
Jub 23:29 And he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven, and the angels of the Lord ascended and descended on it, and behold, the Lord stood upon it.
Jub 23:30 And He spoke to Jacob and said, “I am the Lord, the Mighty One of Abraham your father and the Yehowah of Isaac. The land on which you are lying I will give to you and to your seed after you.”
Jub 23:31 “And your seed will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south, and in you and in your seed will all the families of the nations be blessed.”
Jub 23:32 “And behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and I will bring you again into this land in peace, for I will not leave you until I have done all that I have spoken to you.”

Jub 23:33 And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Truly this place is the house of the Lord, and I did not know it.”
Jub 23:34 And he was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of Yehowah, and this is the gate of heaven.”
Jub 23:35 And Jacob arose early in the morning and took the stone that he had placed under his head, and he set it up as a pillar for a sign, and he poured oil on top of it.
Jub 23:36 And he called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the place before was Luz.
Jub 23:37 And Jacob vowed a vow to the Lord, saying, “If the Lord will be with me, and keep me in this way in which I am going, and give me bread to eat and clothes to wear, and I return in peace to my father’s house, then the Lord will be my Divine One, and this stone which I have set up as a pillar will be the house of the Lord, and of all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You, my Divine One.”
Jub 24:1 And in the second year of the second week of this jubilee, Jacob journeyed and came to the land of the east to Laban, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob.
Jub 24:2 And Laban welcomed Jacob and kissed him and rejoiced over him.
Jub 24:3 And Laban said to him, “Surely you are my bone and my flesh.” And Jacob stayed with him a month of days.
Jub 24:4 And Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my brother, should you serve me for nothing? Tell me, what will your wages be?”
Jub 24:5 And Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah and the name of the younger was Rachel.
Jub 24:6 And the eyes of Leah were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and appearance.
Jub 24:7 And Jacob loved Rachel, and he said to Laban, “I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.”
Jub 24:8 And Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man; stay with me.”
Jub 24:9 And Jacob served Laban seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.
Jub 24:10 And in the first year of the third week of this jubilee, Laban gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.
Jub 24:11 And Laban came to Jacob in the evening and gave him Leah, his elder daughter, and Jacob lay with her that night, and Laban gave Leah his maid Zilpah to be her handmaid.
Jub 24:12 And in the morning Jacob saw that it was Leah, and he said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve you for Rachel?

Why then have you deceived me?”
Jub 24:13 And Laban said to him, “It is not done so in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve me another seven years.”
Jub 24:14 And Jacob did so, and he completed the week of Leah, and Laban gave him Rachel, his daughter, to wife.
Jub 24:15 And Laban gave to Rachel his maid Bilhah to be her handmaid.
Jub 24:16 And Jacob lay also with Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah, and he served Laban another seven years.
Jub 24:17 And the Lord opened the womb of Leah, but Rachel was barren.
Jub 24:18 And Leah conceived and bore Jacob a son, and he called his name Reuben, for she said, “The Lord has looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.”
Jub 24:19 And she conceived again and bore a son, and she said, “Because the Lord has heard that I am hated, He has therefore given me this son also,” and she called his name Simeon.
Jub 24:20 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons,” therefore his name was called Levi.
Jub 24:21 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “This time I will praise the Lord,” therefore she called his name Judah, and she ceased bearing.
Jub 24:22 And Rachel envied her sister Leah, for she was barren, and she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or else I die.”
Jub 24:23 And Jacob said to her, “Am I in Yehowah’s place, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”
Jub 24:24 And she said, “Behold my maid Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear upon my knees, and that I may also have children by her.”
Jub 24:25 And she gave him Bilhah her maid to wife, and Jacob went in to her, and she conceived and bore Jacob a son.
Jub 24:26 And Rachel said, “Yehowah has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son,” therefore she called his name Dan.
Jub 24:27 And Bilhah, Rachel’s maid, conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.
Jub 24:28 And Rachel said, “With mighty wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister and have prevailed,” and she called his name Naphtali.
Jub 24:29 And when Leah saw that she had ceased bearing, she took Zilpah her maid and gave her to Jacob to wife.
Jub 24:30 And Zilpah, Leah’s maid, bore Jacob a son, and Leah said, “Fortune has come,” and she called his name Gad.

Jub 24:31 And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a second son, and Leah said, "Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed," and she called his name Asher.
Jub 24:32 And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah. And Rachel said to Leah, "Give me, I pray you, some of your son's mandrakes."
Jub 24:33 And she said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? And would you take away my son's mandrakes also?"
Jub 24:34 And Rachel said, "Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."
Jub 24:35 And Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come in to me, for surely I have hired you with my son's mandrakes." And he lay with her that night.
Jub 24:36 And Yehowah listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.
Jub 24:37 And Leah said, "Yehowah has given me my hire because I have given my maid to my husband," and she called his name Issachar.
Jub 24:38 And Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.
Jub 24:39 And Leah said, "Yehowah has endowed me with a good dowry; now my husband will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons," and she called his name Zebulun.
Jub 24:40 And afterward she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.
Jub 24:41 And Yehowah remembered Rachel, and Yehowah listened to her and opened her womb.
Jub 24:42 And she conceived and bore a son, and she said, "Yehowah has taken away my reproach," and she called his name Joseph, saying, "The Lord will add to me another son."
Jub 24:43 And Jacob served Laban twenty years, and in the years when Jacob served Laban, the Lord blessed Laban on account of Jacob, and the Lord prospered all the works of Laban's hands because of Jacob.
Jub 24:44 And Jacob became exceedingly rich, and he had oxen and sheep and donkeys and camels and male and female servants.
Jub 25:1 And in the second year of this week in this jubilee, Rebecca called Jacob her son and spoke to him, saying, "My son, do not take a wife from among the daughters of Canaan as Esau, your brother, who took two wives from the daughters of Canaan, and they have embittered my soul with all their unclean deeds, for all their deeds are fornication and lust, and there is no righteousness with them."
Jub 25:2 "For their deeds are evil, and I, my son, love you exceedingly, and my heart and my affection bless you every hour of the day and watch of the night."

Jub 25:3 “Now, my son, listen to my voice, and do the will of your mother, and do not take a wife from the daughters of this land, but go to Haran, to the house of Bethuel, your mother’s father, and take for yourself a wife from there from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.”
Jub 25:4 “Therefore Most High Yehowah will bless you and increase you and multiply you greatly, and you will become a company of nations, and the Lord will bless you with the blessings of your father Abraham, and all nations of the earth will bless themselves in your seed.”
Jub 25:5 “My son, leave this accursed land, and do not dwell in it, for you see how your brother’s conduct has been, how he has married a daughter of the land and has defiled himself and all the works of his hands.”
Jub 25:6 “For he has joined himself with the daughters of Canaan, and it was an evil thing in his eyes, for there is no righteousness among them, for their works are evil.”
Jub 25:7 “And I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife from among the daughters of Heth such as these, what good will my life be to me?”
Jub 25:8 And the words of Rebekah were told to Isaac, and he called Jacob his younger son, and blessed him and commanded him, saying,
Jub 25:9 “Do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan, but go to Mesopotamia, to the house of Bethuel, your mother’s father, and take for yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.”
Jub 25:10 “And Yehowah Almighty bless you and increase you and multiply you that you may become a company of nations, and give you the blessing of your father Abraham, and to your seed after you, that you may inherit the land of your sojournings and all the land which the Lord gave to Abraham.”
Jub 25:11 “Go, my son, in peace.”
Jub 25:12 And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Mesopotamia, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob.
Jub 25:13 And it came to pass after Jacob had gone to Mesopotamia that the spirit of Rebekah was grieved after her son, and she wept for him, and she said, “I am weary of my life.”
Jub 25:14 And Isaac said to her, “Why are you weeping for your son?”
Jub 25:15 And she said to him, “Let me weep for my son a few days, for I will rest my soul after he has gone from me.”
Jub 25:16 And she wept exceedingly because she loved him with all her heart and with all her soul more than all her other sons.
Jub 25:17 And Isaac comforted her, and he said to her, “My sister, weep not for Jacob, my son, for he goes in peace, and he will return in peace.”

Jub 25:18 “The Most High Yehowah will guard him from all evil and will be with him, for He will not forsake him all his days.”
Jub 25:19 “For I know that his ways will be prosperous in all things wherever he goes, until he returns in peace to us, and we will see him in peace.”
Jub 25:20 “Do not fear for him, my sister, for He that is the Mighty One of Abraham and the Mighty One of Isaac will not forsake him, nor destroy him, for He is a faithful Yehowah and will not forsake the seed of Abraham, His servant, nor destroy his seed from the earth, for He has been true and righteous all His word which He has spoken concerning us.”
Jub 25:21 “And I know that if he has children, he will multiply exceedingly and prosper very much in everything, and his seed will be blessed of the Lord forever.”
Jub 25:22 “And I know, my sister, that the Lord will surely bless his sons and multiply them greatly for His servant Abraham’s sake, and I have no fear concerning him or his seed, for the Lord will bless him and guard him and bless all his seed forever.”
Jub 25:23 And she wept for joy and comforted her heart for her son Jacob, and she blessed him with all her heart and with all her soul, saying,
Jub 25:24 “Blessed be you, my son Jacob, and may Most High Yehowah bless you beyond all the sons of the earth, for the Lord has chosen you to be a righteous seed, for from you will come a righteous seed, and kings and priests will arise from your seed, and they will be called holy children of the Most High.”
Jub 25:25 “And Yehowah will be their Divine One, and they will dwell before His face continually, and they will be His temple and His sanctuary, and they will glorify Him for all time.”
Jub 25:26 “May the Lord give you the blessings of your father Abraham, and of myself, and may you increase and multiply in the earth, and may your seed be perfected in the joy of heaven and earth forever.”
Jub 25:27 “And may your seed rejoice, and on the great day of peace may it possess the nations of the earth, and may they serve your seed and bow down to it.”
Jub 25:28 “And may your seed be strong before the Lord, and all flesh will bless you and your seed in all times forever.”
Jub 25:29 “Go in peace, my son Jacob, to the house of Laban, your mother’s brother, and come back in peace, and may Most High Yehowah be with you and guard you from all evil and grant you grace and mercy before all who see you, that you may prosper in all your works of your hands and be blessed and increase in all the land.”
Jub 25:30 “For the Lord will not forsake you, my son; be strong in the fear of the Lord and in His power, for He will bless you and your seed in all the earth.”

Jub 25:31 “For the nations will bless themselves in you and in your seed, and in the blessing of the Lord, the Mighty One of Abraham, who is over all.”
Jub 25:32 “Go, my son, in peace.”
Jub 25:33 And she ended commanding him and blessing him, and she said to him, “My son Jacob, remember my words and keep the commandments of your father Abraham. Separate yourself from the nations and do not eat with them, and do not do according to their works, and do not become their associate.”
Jub 25:34 “For their works are unclean, and all their ways are pollution and abomination and uncleanness.”
Jub 25:35 “And they offer their sacrifices to the dead and worship evil spirits, and they eat over graves, and all their works are vanity and nothing.”
Jub 25:36 “They have no heart to understand, and as for you, my son Jacob, Most High Yehowah will help you and the Mighty One of heaven will bless you and remove you from their uncleanness and from all their error.”
Jub 25:37 “Be careful, my son Jacob, not to take a wife from any of the daughters of Canaan, for all his seed is accursed.”
Jub 25:38 “And you will not take a wife from among them, but go to Mesopotamia to the house of Bethuel, the father of your mother, and take for yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.”
Jub 25:39 “And may Most High Yehowah bless you and your children, and may the Mighty One of Abraham bless you and increase you and multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and make you a blessing upon the earth and throughout all generations of the earth.”
Jub 25:40 “May the nations serve you, and all the nations bow themselves before your seed. Be strong in righteousness and integrity, that you may be holy and without sin.”
Jub 25:41 “And the Lord will be with you and will bless you in all your deeds and will not forsake you all the days of your life. You will be a blessed man in all your deeds.”
Jub 25:42 “Raise up your seed in truth and righteousness and in the fear of Yehowah, and your seed will be blessed throughout all generations forever.”
Jub 26:1 And in the seventh year of this week, Jacob came to Laban, and he served him for Rachel his daughter one week.
Jub 26:2 And in the first year of the third week, he said to him, “Give me my wife for whom I have served you seven years,” and Laban said to Jacob, “I will give you your wife.”

Jub 26:3 And he made a feast and gathered together all the men of the place, and he gave him Leah, his elder daughter, and Jacob did not know it.
Jub 26:4 And Jacob said to Laban, “Why have you dealt with me this way? Did I not serve you for Rachel and not for Leah? Why have you wronged me?”
Jub 26:5 And Laban said to him, “It is not done so in our country, to give the younger before the elder. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service you will serve me another seven years.”
Jub 26:6 And Jacob did so and served Laban seven more years, and he gave him Rachel for his wife.
Jub 26:7 And to Leah he gave Zilpah, her handmaid, and to Rachel he gave Bilhah, her handmaid, to be maids for them.
Jub 26:8 And the Lord opened Leah’s womb, and she conceived and bore Jacob a son, and he called his name Reuben.
Jub 26:9 And she conceived again and bore a son, and he called his name Simeon.
Jub 26:10 And she conceived again and bore a son, and he called his name Levi.
Jub 26:11 And she conceived again and bore a son, and he called his name Judah.
Jub 26:12 And she ceased bearing.
Jub 26:13 And in the fourth year of this week Reuben was born, and in the first year of the third week Simeon was born, and in the second year Levi was born, and in the third year Judah was born, and in the fourth year Bilhah, Rachel’s maid, bore Jacob a son, and he called his name Dan.
Jub 26:14 And in the fifth year Naphtali was born, and in the sixth year Zilpah, Leah’s maid, bore Jacob a son, and he called his name Gad.
Jub 26:15 And in the seventh year she bore him another son, and he called his name Asher.
Jub 26:16 And in the second year of the second week Rachel bore Joseph to Jacob.
Jub 26:17 And the Lord saw that Leah was hated and that Rachel loved Jacob more than her, and He opened her womb and made her fruitful, but Rachel was barren.
Jub 26:18 And Leah bore Jacob six sons and one daughter, and all the souls of her sons and her daughter were eight.
Jub 26:19 And through Zilpah she bore two sons, and through Bilhah, two sons, and in the land of Haran, Jacob had eleven sons and one daughter.
Jub 26:20 And in the first year of the sixth week of this jubilee, Jacob went up to Shechem and came in peace to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, and he pitched his tent before the city, and he bought a parcel of the field where he pitched his tent from Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred pieces of silver.

Jub 26:21 And he built an altar there, and he offered burnt offerings upon it to the Lord, who had delivered him from all his distress and had granted him to come in peace to the land of Canaan.
Jub 26:22 And while he was dwelling in the land of Canaan, Rachel bore Benjamin in the seventh year of this week in the first month of the eleventh jubilee.
Jub 26:23 And she died there in the land of Ephrath, that is Bethlehem, and Jacob built a pillar on the grave of Rachel on the road above her grave.
Jub 26:24 And Jacob went and dwelt toward the south of Magdaladraef, and he and Leah his wife went to his father Isaac in Hebron, which is in Mamre.
Jub 26:25 And behold, Isaac was still living in the land of Canaan in the mountains of Hebron, and Jacob went to him and rested with him near his father.
Jub 26:26 And Jacob told his father all that had happened to him in Mesopotamia, how the Lord had delivered him from the hand of Laban and from all the snares with which Laban had pursued him and had not allowed him to harm him.
Jub 26:27 And he kissed and embraced him, and he rejoiced greatly when he saw him.
Jub 26:28 And Jacob told his father all that had happened to him in the house of Laban, how he had come in peace to the land of Canaan, and Isaac blessed the Mighty One of his father Abraham, who had not withdrawn His mercy and His righteousness from the sons of His servant Isaac.
Jub 26:29 And in the first year of the first week of the forty-fifth jubilee, Rebecca called Jacob her son and commanded him concerning his father and concerning his brother, that he should honor them all the days of his life.
Jub 26:30 And Jacob said, “I will do everything as you have commanded me, for this thing is righteousness and great mercy to me that I should honor them.”
Jub 26:31 “And they will prolong my days, and the blessing of the Lord will be upon me if I honor them.”
Jub 26:32 “And you, my son, teach your children the instruction of honoring father and mother, for he who honors his father and his mother will prolong his days on the earth, and he who neglects them and does not honor his father and mother will be rooted out from the land of the living, and his seed will perish from under heaven.”

Jub 26:33 “For all the works of man are written on high in the heavenly tablets, and they are recorded for eternity concerning the day of judgment.”
Jub 26:34 “And every man who walks in righteousness and honor, before Yehowah will be recorded for righteousness on the heavenly tablets, and he will be remembered until the day of judgment, and all the evil that man does will be written down against him on the heavenly tablets until the day of his judgment.”
Jub 26:35 “And now, my son, love your brother also, and guard yourself from your brother Esau, for he has a violent nature, and he will rage against you and seek to destroy you from the face of the earth.”
Jub 26:36 “But do not fear him, for the Mighty One of heaven and earth will guard you and deliver you from his hand, and from all the ways of the men who are with him.”
Jub 26:37 “And you will be blessed in all your deeds, and you will be protected, and the Lord will not forsake you all the days of your life, for I know that the Lord will guard you from all evil, and that He will bless you with all good.”
Jub 26:38 “And the Lord will guard you from the sons of evil and from all spirits of sin.”
Jub 26:39 “May the Lord guard you from all the pollution of sin, that you may not defile yourself with them, or with any of their deeds of unrighteousness, for all their works are unclean and all their ways are pollution and abomination and uncleanness.”
Jub 26:40 “They offer their sacrifices to the dead and they worship evil spirits, and they eat over graves, and all their works are vanity and nothing.”
Jub 26:41 “They have no heart to understand, and as for you, my son Jacob, Most High Yehowah will help you, and the Mighty One of heaven will bless you and remove you from their uncleanness and from all their error.”
Jub 27:1 And in the seventh year of this week, Jacob came to his father Isaac and to his mother Rebekah from Bethel, where he had built an altar and where he had vowed a vow to the Lord.
Jub 27:2 And he came to his father and mother and greeted them, and they rejoiced to see him, and he blessed Jacob.
Jub 27:3 And Rebekah said to Isaac, “I am weary of my life because of the two daughters of Heth whom Esau has taken as wives, for they are evil in all their deeds, for all their deeds are fornication and lust, and there is no righteousness with them, for all their deeds are evil.”
Jub 27:4 “And now, my son, Jacob, do not take a wife from the daughters of Canaan as your brother Esau, for his sons will destroy your seed from the earth, and from the seed of Canaan there will be no salvation, for they will be rooted out of the earth."

Jub 27:5 "For all who worship idols and all the wicked will perish forever."
Jub 27:6 "Therefore, my son, obey my voice and do the will of your mother, and do not take a wife from the daughters of this land, but go to Haran, to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father, and take for yourself a wife from there, from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother."
Jub 27:7 "Therefore Most High Yehowah will bless you and increase you and multiply you greatly, and you will become a company of nations, and the Lord will bless you with the blessings of your father Abraham, and all nations of the earth will bless themselves in your seed."
Jub 27:8 "My son, leave this accursed land, and do not dwell in it, for you see how the sons of Canaan have defiled themselves and their land by their fornication and by the corruption of their ways."
Jub 27:9 "Take heed, my son Jacob, lest you also walk in their ways and defile yourself with them."
Jub 27:10 "Guard yourself from their unclean spirits, for they have defiled themselves and their daughters and their sons, and they have corrupted their ways before the Lord."
Jub 27:11 "And now, my son, love the Lord of heaven and earth and keep His commandments and walk not in the ways of the wicked, that you may be blessed in all your deeds and raised up by the Lord Mighty One of heaven."
Jub 27:12 "And you will be blessed in all your deeds, and the Lord will bless you exceedingly, and your seed will be blessed in all the earth."
Jub 27:13 "And all the nations of the earth will bless themselves in you and in your seed, and they will call you blessed and will place your name in their blessing."
Jub 27:14 "May the Mighty One of all be your helper and the Mighty One of heaven bless you, and remove you from the defilement of idols and from the unclean spirits and from all the sins of the sons of men."
Jub 27:15 "And may He guard you and bless you, and may His light shine upon you, and may He fill your heart with wisdom and understanding to guard His commandments, His ordinances, and His judgments."
Jub 27:16 "And may He strengthen you, and bless you, and may you inherit the earth and your seed after you, that you may possess it forever."
Jub 27:17 "And may He renew His covenant with you that He may be your Divine One and you and your seed after you may be His people in truth and righteousness all the days of the earth."
Jub 27:18 "And now, my son Jacob, leave this land and go in peace to your mother's brother Laban in Haran, and do not fear for your life, for the Lord will be with you and will guard you from all evil and will increase you and will not forsake you until you return in peace to the land of your fathers."

Jub 27:19 And Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the two daughters of Heth; if Jacob takes a wife from among the daughters of the land such as these, what good is my life to me?"
Jub 27:20 And Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and charged him, saying, "Do not take a wife from among the daughters of Canaan, but go to Mesopotamia to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father, and take for yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother."
Jub 27:21 "And may Yehowah Almighty bless you and increase you and multiply you that you may become a company of nations, and give you the blessing of your father Abraham, and to your seed after you, that you may inherit the land of your sojournings and all the land which the Lord gave to Abraham."
Jub 27:22 "Go, my son, in peace."
Jub 27:23 And Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Mesopotamia, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob.
Jub 27:24 And it came to pass after Jacob had gone to Mesopotamia that the spirit of Rebekah was grieved for her son, and she wept for him, saying, "I am weary of my life."
Jub 27:25 And Isaac said to her, "Why are you weeping for your son, my sister?"
Jub 27:26 And she said to him, "Let me weep for my son a few days, for I will rest my soul after he has gone from me."
Jub 27:27 And she wept exceedingly because she loved him with all her heart and with all her soul more than all her other sons.
Jub 27:28 And Isaac comforted her and said to her, "My sister, do not weep for Jacob, my son, for he goes in peace, and he will return in peace."
Jub 27:29 "The Most High Yehowah will guard him from all evil and will be with him, for He will not forsake him all the days of his life."
Jub 27:30 "For I know that his ways will prosper in all things wherever he goes, until he returns in peace to us, and we will see him in peace."
Jub 27:31 "Do not fear for him, my sister, for He that is the Mighty One of Abraham and the Mighty One of Isaac will not forsake him nor destroy him."
Jub 27:32 "For He is a faithful Yehowah, and will not forsake the seed of Abraham, His servant, nor destroy his seed from the earth, for He has been true and righteous in all His word which He has spoken concerning us."
Jub 27:33 And Rebekah lined up her eyes and wept, and Isaac comforted her, and she rested her heart concerning her son Jacob.

Jub 28:1 And Jacob went out from Beersheba and came to Haran in the first year of the second week in the forty-fourth jubilee.
Jub 28:2 And he came to a certain place in the mountains called Luz, which is Bethel, and he slept there at sunset, for the sun had set.
Jub 28:3 And he took one of the stones of that place and placed it under his head beneath the tree of Bethel.
Jub 28:4 And he saw in a dream, and behold, a ladder was set up upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven, and behold, the angels of the Lord ascended and descended on it.
Jub 28:5 And behold, the Lord stood upon it, and He spoke to Jacob and said, "I am the Lord, the Yehowah of Abraham your father, and the Mighty One of Isaac. The land on which you lie I will give to you and to your seed after you."
Jub 28:6 "And your seed will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south, and in you and in your seed will all the families of the nations be blessed."
Jub 28:7 "And behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and I will bring you again into this land in peace, for I will not leave you until I have done all that I have spoken to you."
Jub 28:8 And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Truly this place is the house of the Lord, and I did not know it."
Jub 28:9 And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of Yehowah, and this is the gate of heaven."
Jub 28:10 And Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar for a sign, and he poured oil upon its top.
Jub 28:11 And he called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the place was originally Luz.
Jub 28:12 And Jacob vowed a vow to the Lord, saying, "If the Lord will be with me and keep me in this way that I go, and give me bread to eat and clothing to wear, and if I return in peace to my father's house, then the Lord will be my Divine One."
Jub 28:13 "And this stone which I have set up as a pillar will be the house of Yehowah, and of all that You give me, I will surely give a tenth to You, my Divine One."
Jub 28:14 And he called upon the name of the Lord at that place, and the Lord appeared to him again and blessed him and said, "You will no longer be called Jacob, but your name will be Israel."
Jub 28:15 "And I will multiply you greatly, and kings will come forth from you, and they will rule everywhere wherever the foot of man treads."

Jub 28:16 “And the land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you and to your seed after you.”
Jub 28:17 And Jacob arose from that place and continued his journey, and he came to the land of the east, to the house of Laban, the brother of his mother Rebekah.
Jub 28:18 And he served him for Rachel his daughter seven years.
Jub 28:19 And in the first year of the third week of this jubilee, he said to Laban, “Give me my wife for whom I have served you seven years.”
Jub 28:20 And Laban made a feast and deceived Jacob, and gave him Leah, his elder daughter, instead of Rachel.
Jub 28:21 And Jacob lay with her, and in the morning he saw that it was Leah.
Jub 28:22 And he said to Laban, “Why have you done this to me? Did I not serve you for Rachel and not for Leah? Why have you wronged me?”
Jub 28:23 And Laban said to him, “It is not done so in our country, to give the younger before the elder. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve me another seven years.”
Jub 28:24 And Jacob did so and served Laban another seven years, and he gave him Rachel for his wife, and to Leah he gave Zilpah her maid, and to Rachel he gave Bilhah her maid.
Jub 28:25 And the Lord opened Leah’s womb, but Rachel was barren.
Jub 28:26 And Leah bore Jacob six sons and one daughter, and all the souls of her sons and daughter were eight.
Jub 28:27 And through Zilpah she bore two sons, and through Bilhah, two sons, and in the land of Haran Jacob had eleven sons and one daughter.
Jub 28:28 And in the first year of the sixth week of this jubilee, Jacob went up to Shechem and came in peace to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, and he pitched his tent before the city.
Jub 28:29 And he bought a parcel of the field where he pitched his tent from Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred pieces of silver.
Jub 28:30 And he built an altar there and offered burnt offerings upon it to the Lord, who had delivered him from all his distress, and had granted him to come in peace to the land of Canaan.
Jub 29:1 And in the first year of the sixth week of this jubilee, Jacob went up from Haran and came to his father Isaac in peace to Mamre, which is near Hebron, in the land of Canaan.
Jub 29:2 And he came to his father, and he and Leah his wife and Rachel his wife, and their servants, and all that belonged to him, and Isaac rejoiced greatly when he saw him.
Jub 29:3 And he blessed him and said, “The Mighty One of your fathers bless you, my son Jacob, and may the Mighty One of Abraham and Isaac be with you and increase you and multiply you exceedingly, and bless the seed of your sons as the sand of the sea, and may He give you all the blessings with which He blessed Abraham, and all His covenant He confirmed with him, and may it rest upon you and upon your seed forever, according to the days of heaven over the earth."

Jub 29:4 And all the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years, and he completed two jubilees and five weeks of years, and Isaac's days were fulfilled, and he died.
Jub 29:5 And Jacob and Esau buried him in the double cave near Abraham and Sarah his wife, and all the men of his house and his sons came together to mourn for Isaac, and all the days of Isaac were fulfilled in peace.
Jub 29:6 And in the first year of the seventh week of this jubilee, Jacob went up to Salem, which is east of Shechem, in peace in the fourth month.
Jub 29:7 And there they took Dinah, the daughter of Jacob, and brought her into the house of Shechem, the son of Hamor, the Hivite, the prince of the land, and he lay with her and defiled her.
Jub 29:8 And she was a little girl, twelve years of age, and he spoke to the heart of his father Hamor, saying, "Take me this child to be my wife."
Jub 29:9 And Jacob heard that the son of Hamor had defiled his daughter Dinah, but he was silent because his sons were feeding their cattle in the field.
Jub 29:10 And they came from the field when they heard it, and they grieved exceedingly, and were very angry because he had done a shameful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.
Jub 29:11 And Hamor spoke to Jacob and to his sons, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. Give her to him to wife, and make marriages with us. Give us your daughters, and take our daughters for your sons."
Jub 29:12 "You will dwell with us, and the land will be before you. Dwell and trade in it, and get possessions in it, and be at peace."
Jub 29:13 And Shechem said to Jacob and to his sons, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give. Ask me ever so much dowry and gin, and I will give it as you say, but give me the girl to be my wife."
Jub 29:14 And Jacob's sons answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and spoke to them because they had defiled Dinah, their sister.
Jub 29:15 And Simeon and Levi, brothers of Dinah, said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a reproach to us."

Jub 29:16 “Only on this condition will we consent to you: if you will become as we are, by every male among you being circumcised.”
Jub 29:17 “Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.”
Jub 29:18 “But if you will not listen to us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and we will go.”
Jub 29:19 And their words pleased Hamor and Shechem, his son, and the young man did not delay to do this thing, because he delighted greatly in Jacob’s daughter, and he was more honorable than all the house of his father.
Jub 29:20 And Hamor and Shechem, his son, came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying, “These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land and trade in it, for the land is large enough for them.”
Jub 29:21 “Let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.”
Jub 29:22 “Only on this condition will the men consent to dwell with us, to be one people—that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.”
Jub 29:23 “Shall not their cattle and their possessions and all their beasts be ours? Only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with us.”
Jub 29:24 And all who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and Shechem, his son, and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.
Jub 29:25 And on the third day, when they were in pain, Simeon and Levi, the sons of Leah, brothers of Dinah, took their swords and came boldly upon the city and destroyed all the males.
Jub 29:26 And they killed Hamor and Shechem, his son, with the edge of the sword, and they took Dinah from Shechem’s house and went out.
Jub 29:27 And the sons of Jacob came upon the slain and spoiled the city because they had defiled their sister Dinah.
Jub 29:28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their donkeys, and whatever was in the city and in the field, and all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives they took captive and plundered even all that was in the houses.
Jub 29:29 And Jacob heard what Simeon and Levi had done to the men of the city, and he feared greatly, and he said, “You have troubled me to make me hateful to the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number, and they will gather themselves together against me and destroy me, and I will be destroyed, I and my house.”

Jub 29:30 And they said to him, “Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?”
Jub 29:31 And the Lord delivered Jacob from the hands of the Canaanites and the Perizzites, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob, for dread fell upon them, and they did not rise up against them, for terror of the Lord was upon all the cities around them.
Jub 29:32 And Jacob and all who were with him came to Bethel, to the place where he had previously slept when he fled from Esau, his brother, and he built an altar there and he called upon the name of the Lord, and he offered sacrifices to the Mighty One of his fathers.
Jub 29:33 And the Lord appeared to him and blessed him and said to him, “You will be called Israel and will no longer be called Jacob alone.”
Jub 29:34 “And I will multiply you exceedingly and make nations and kings come from you, and they will reign wherever the foot of man treads.”
Jub 29:35 “And I will give to you and to your seed after you the land which I gave to Abraham and to Isaac, and I will bless you and your seed that they may be a blessing upon the earth in all nations of the earth.”
Jub 29:36 And he built an altar and called the place Bethel, and he dwelt there, and he told all his sons and his servants to purify themselves and to remove the strange deities from among them, and they threw away the idols and those which were in their ears and which were on their necks.
Jub 29:37 And Jacob purified himself and his sons and sanctified them to offer a burnt offering to the Lord on the altar which he had built at Bethel, and he offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and he blessed Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, who had delivered him from all his distress and had given him his children.
Jub 30:1 And it came to pass on the first day of the first month in the forty-fifth jubilee that Israel called his sons and they gathered together and said to them, “Purify yourselves and put away the strange deities that are among you.”
Jub 30:2 “Cast away the idols of the eyes and of the heart, and cleanse yourselves, and make yourselves pure before the Lord, that He may turn His face from you and may not bring evil upon you.”
Jub 30:3 “For He is a great and terrible Yehowah, and He will not be mocked, nor will He turn aside His wrath from those who defile themselves with idols and with the uncleanness of the nations.”
Jub 30:4 “Therefore, remove the strange deities from among you and serve Yehowah Mighty One of your fathers only, and it is He who will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”
Jub 30:5 And the sons of Jacob said, “Behold, we will put away the strange deities that are among us, and we will purify ourselves as our father commanded.”

Jub 30:6 And they gave up the idols which were in their hands and the rings which were in their ears and on their necks, and the idols of the nations, and Israel cast them away under the terebinth tree that was near Shechem.
Jub 30:7 And he went up to Bethel, and there he built an altar to the Lord who had appeared to him in that place where he fled from the face of Esau his brother.
Jub 30:8 And he offered burnt offerings upon the altar to the Lord who had delivered him from all his distress and had granted him to come in peace to this land.
Jub 30:9 And he called upon the name of the Lord and said, “You are my Divine One, the Mighty One of my father Abraham and the Mighty One of my father Isaac, the Lord who has created me and made all things, and who has delivered me from my distress and my affliction. You are righteous and faithful, and Your judgments are true and just forever.”
Jub 30:10 “Remember me, Lord, and bless me. Sanctify me and purify me and my seed, that we may become Yours forever and that You may not forsake us all the days of our lives.”
Jub 30:11 “Bless me and all the work of my hands, that I may be blessed in all that I do, that You may be glorified forever, and bless my sons and the sons of my sons, that they may be as the stars of heaven and as the sand of the sea for multitude.”
Jub 30:12 “And give them hearts of truth and righteousness, that they may love Your name and walk in the way of Your righteousness all their days.”
Jub 30:13 “And now, Lord, I have set apart this place and built an altar to You here, that it may be before You a sanctuary forever, and that Your name may be honored and glorified in it forever.”
Jub 30:14 “And bless me and my sons and all those who will come after us and all our seed, that we may be blessed forever, for You are the Lord, and You are our Divine One.”
Jub 30:15 And the Lord appeared to Jacob at Bethel on the first day of the first month in the forty-fifth jubilee and blessed him, and said to him, “Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel will your name be.”
Jub 30:16 And He said to him again, “I am the Lord who created heaven and earth, who formed all things. I will increase you and multiply you exceedingly, and kings will come forth from you, and they will rule everywhere wherever the foot of man treads.”
Jub 30:17 “And I will give to your seed all the land under heaven, and they will judge all nations according to their desires, and after that they will inherit the whole earth forever.”
Jub 30:18 “And He finished speaking with him, and He went up from him, and Jacob watched until He ascended into heaven.”

Jub 30:19 And he called that place Bethel, for there the Lord appeared to him and renewed the name of Israel for him and the blessing with which he had blessed him and all his sons.
Jub 30:20 And after this he went down from Bethel and dwelt on the south side of Ephrathah, and Rachel bore a son there, and she died at Ephrathah, that is Bethlehem.
Jub 30:21 And Jacob built a pillar on the grave of Rachel on the road above her grave.
Jub 30:22 And Jacob went and dwelt toward the south of Migdal-Eder, and he and Leah his wife went to his father Isaac in Hebron, which is in Mamre.
Jub 30:23 And behold, Isaac was still living in the land of Canaan, in the mountains of Hebron.
Jub 30:24 And Jacob told his father all that had happened to him in Mesopotamia, how the Lord had delivered him from the hand of Laban and from all the snares with which Laban had pursued him and had not allowed him to harm him.
Jub 30:25 And Isaac blessed the Mighty One of his father Abraham, who had not withdrawn His mercy and His righteousness from the sons of His servant Isaac.
Jub 30:26 And in the forty-fifth jubilee, in the seventh week, in the first year of it, Isaac called his two sons Esau and Jacob, and they came to him, and he said to them, “My sons, I am old, and my eyes are dim, and I do not know the day of my death.”
Jub 30:27 “Now sharpen your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out into the field and hunt for me, and bring me venison, and make me savory meat such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat and that my soul may bless you before I die.”
Jub 30:28 And Rebekah heard what Isaac spoke to Esau, and she went to Jacob her son and said to him, “Behold, I heard your father speaking to Esau, your brother, saying, ‘Bring me venison and make me savory meat that I may eat and bless you before the Lord before my death.’”
Jub 30:29 “Now, my son, obey my voice in that which I command you. Go to the flock and fetch me two good kids of the goats, and I will make savory meat for your father such as he loves, and you will bring it to your father to eat, that he may bless you before the Lord before his death.”
Jub 30:30 And Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, “My brother Esau is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. If my father feels me, then I will be in his sight as a deceiver, and I will bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing.”
Jub 30:31 And his mother said to him, “Your curse be upon me, my son.

Only obey my voice, and go and fetch me the goats.”
Jub 30:32 And he went and fetched them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made savory meat such as he loved.
Jub 30:33 And Rebekah took the best garments of her elder son Esau, which were in the house with her, and she clothed Jacob, her younger son, with them, and she put the skins of the kids upon his hands and upon the smooth of his neck.
Jub 30:34 And she gave the savory meat and the bread which she had prepared into the hands of her son Jacob.
Jub 30:35 And he went in to his father and said, “My father.” And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”
Jub 30:36 And Jacob said to his father, “I am your firstborn son Esau; I have done as you told me. Arise, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me.”
Jub 30:37 And Isaac said to his son, “How have you found it so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the Lord your Divine One brought it to me.”
Jub 30:38 And Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near that I may feel you, my son, whether you are my very son Esau or not.”
Jub 30:39 And Jacob came near to Isaac, his father, and he felt him, and said, “The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau,” and he did not recognize him because it was an arrangement of the Lord that his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands.
Jub 30:40 And he blessed him and said, “Are you my very son Esau?” And he said, “I am your son.”
Jub 30:41 And he said, “Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son’s venison, that my soul may bless you.” And he brought it near to him, and he ate, and he brought him wine, and he drank.
Jub 30:42 And Isaac, his father, said to him, “Come near and kiss me, my son.” And he came near and kissed him.
Jub 30:43 And he smelled the smell of his raiment, and he blessed him and said, “See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a full field which the Lord has blessed.”
Jub 30:44 “Therefore Yehowah give you of the dew of heaven and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine.”
Jub 30:45 “Let nations serve you, and peoples bow down to you. Be lord over your brethren, and let your mother’s sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you.”
Jub 31:1 And Jacob went on his journey from Bethel and came to Haran in the first year of the second week of the forty-fourth jubilee.
Jub 31:2 And he served Laban in the land of Haran for Rachel his daughter one week of years.

Jub 31:3 And in the first year of the third week of this jubilee, in the first month, on the sixteenth day, Jacob came to the well of water, and Rachel, the daughter of Laban, came to draw water.
Jub 31:4 And Jacob saw her, and he kissed her, and she ran and told her father Laban, and Laban came and welcomed him.
Jub 31:5 And Jacob told Laban that he was the son of Rebekah, his sister, and Laban rejoiced and said to him, “Surely you are my bone and my flesh.”
Jub 31:6 And he brought him into his house, and Jacob told Laban all that had happened, and Laban said to him, “Stay with me, my son.”
Jub 31:7 And Jacob served Laban one month, and Laban said to Jacob, “Because you are my kinsman, should you serve me for nothing? Tell me what will be your wages.”
Jub 31:8 And Jacob said, “I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.”
Jub 31:9 And Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than to another man; stay with me.”
Jub 31:10 And Jacob served Laban seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.
Jub 31:11 And in the first year of the third week, on the day of the new moon of the first month, Laban made a feast for the men of the house and gave him Leah his elder daughter, and Jacob lay with her that night.
Jub 31:12 And Laban gave Leah his maid Zilpah to be her handmaid.
Jub 31:13 And Jacob did not know it until the morning, and behold, it was Leah.
Jub 31:14 And Jacob said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?”
Jub 31:15 And Laban said to Jacob, “It is not done so in our country to give the younger before the elder. Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service you will serve me seven more years.”
Jub 31:16 And Jacob did so, and he completed the week of Leah, and Laban gave him Rachel his daughter to wife, and Laban gave to Rachel his maid Bilhah for a handmaid.
Jub 31:17 And Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah, and he served Laban seven more years.
Jub 31:18 And the Lord opened the womb of Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a son, and he called his name Reuben.
Jub 31:19 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “The Lord has heard that I am hated, and has therefore given me this son also,” and she called his name Simeon.
Jub 31:20 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons," therefore his name was called Levi.

Jub 31:21 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "This time I will praise the Lord," Therefore she called his name Judah, and she ceased bearing.
Jub 31:22 And when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, she envied her sister Leah, and she said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I die."
Jub 31:23 And Jacob said to her, "Am I in the place of Yehowah, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"
Jub 31:24 And she said, "Behold my maid Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her."
Jub 31:25 And she gave him Bilhah her maid to wife, and Jacob went in to her, and Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.
Jub 31:26 And Rachel said, "Yehowah has judged me, and has also heard my voice and given me a son." Therefore she called his name Dan.
Jub 31:27 And Bilhah, Rachel's maid, conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.
Jub 31:28 And Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister and have prevailed," and she called his name Naphtali.
Jub 31:29 And when Leah saw that she had ceased bearing, she took Zilpah her maid and gave her to Jacob to wife, and Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a son.
Jub 31:30 And Leah said, "Fortune has come," and she called his name Gad.
Jub 31:31 And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a second son, and Leah said, "Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed," and she called his name Asher.
Jub 31:32 And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah.
Jub 31:33 And Rachel said to Leah, "Give me, I pray you, some of your son's mandrakes."
Jub 31:34 And Leah said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? Would you also take away my son's mandrakes?"
Jub 31:35 And Rachel said, "Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."
Jub 31:36 And Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must come in to me, for surely I have hired you with my son's mandrakes," and he lay with her that night.
Jub 31:37 And Yehowah listened to Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.
Jub 31:38 And Leah said, "Yehowah has given me my hire, because I have given my maid to my husband," and she called his name Issachar.

Jub 31:39 And Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.
Jub 31:40 And Leah said, “Yehowah has endowed me with a good dowry; now my husband will dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons,” and she called his name Zebulun.
Jub 31:41 And afterward she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.
Jub 31:42 And Yehowah remembered Rachel, and Yehowah listened to her and opened her womb.
Jub 31:43 And she conceived and bore a son and said, “Yehowah has taken away my reproach,” and she called his name Joseph, saying, “The Lord will add to me another son.”
Jub 31:44 And Jacob served Laban twenty years, and the Lord blessed the work of Jacob’s hands, and Laban’s house was blessed on account of Jacob.
Jub 31:45 And Jacob acquired sheep and oxen and donkeys and camels and male and female servants, and he became exceedingly rich, and he prospered greatly, and the Lord blessed him.
Jub 32:1 And in the first year of the twenty-first jubilee, Jacob went up from Haran and returned to the land of Canaan.
Jub 32:2 And Jacob journeyed and came to the mountains of Gilead, and Laban pursued after him, and he caught up with Jacob on the mountains of Gilead in the third month of the first year of the twenty-first jubilee.
Jub 32:3 But the Lord did not allow Laban to harm Jacob, for He appeared to him in a dream by night, saying, “Take heed that you speak neither good nor evil to Jacob.”
Jub 32:4 And Laban met Jacob, and Jacob said to Laban, “Why have you pursued me, that you overtook me on the mountains of Gilead?”
Jub 32:5 “For you have not treated me rightly, nor have you dealt with me in righteousness. I served you for twenty years for your two daughters and for your sheep and your cattle, and you have changed my wages ten times.”
Jub 32:6 “If it had not been that the Mighty One of my father Abraham and the fear of Isaac had been with me, surely you would have now sent me away empty. Yehowah has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and has rebuked you last night.”
Jub 32:7 And Laban said to Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, and the sons are my sons, and the sheep are my sheep, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to these my daughters or to their sons whom they have borne?”
Jub 32:8 “Now come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and it will be a witness between me and you.”
Jub 32:9 And Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar, and Jacob said to his brothers, “Gather stones.”

Jub 32:10 And they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there upon the heap, and Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.
Jub 32:11 And Laban said to Jacob, “This heap is a witness between me and you this day.”
Jub 32:12 “Therefore its name is called Galeed and Mizpah, because he said, ‘The Lord watch between me and you when we are absent one from another.’”
Jub 32:13 “If you will afflict my daughters, or if you will take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, Yehowah is witness between me and you.”
Jub 32:14 And Laban said to Jacob, “Behold this heap and behold the pillar which I have set between me and you. This heap will be witness, and this pillar will be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and that you will not pass over this heap and this pillar to me for harm.”
Jub 32:15 “The Mighty One of Abraham and the Mighty One of Nahor judge between us.”
Jub 32:16 And Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac, and Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain, and he called his brothers and they ate bread and drank wine, and they lodged there on the mountain.
Jub 32:17 And early in the morning Laban arose and kissed his daughters and blessed them, and returned to his place, and Jacob went on his way to the land of Gilead.
Jub 32:18 And he passed over the Jabbok in the ninth month on the eleventh day of the month, and on that day Esau, his brother, came to meet him, and Jacob feared him greatly.
Jub 32:19 And he prayed to the Lord his Divine One and said, “O Lord, Mighty One of my father Abraham and Mighty One of my father Isaac, You who said to me, ‘Return to your father’s house and to your kindred, and I will do you good.’”
Jub 32:20 “I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which You have shown to Your servant, for with my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I have become two bands.”
Jub 32:21 “Deliver me, I pray You, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I fear him, lest he come and smite me and the mother with the children.”
Jub 32:22 “And You said, ‘I will surely do you good and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.’”
Jub 32:23 And he lodged there that night, and he took of that which came to his hand a present for Esau, his brother, two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, twenty rams, thirty milch camels and their colts, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty she-asses, and ten foals.

Jub 32:24 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass over before me, and put a space between drove and drove.”
Jub 32:25 And he commanded the foremost, saying, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, ‘Whose are you? and where are you going? and whose are these before you?’”
Jub 32:26 “Then you will say, ‘They are your servant Jacob’s; it is a present sent to my lord Esau, and behold he also is behind us.’”
Jub 32:27 And he commanded the second and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, “On this manner will you speak to Esau when you find him, and say moreover, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.’”
Jub 32:28 For he said, “I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.”
Jub 32:29 So the present went over before him, and he himself lodged that night in the company.
Jub 32:30 And he arose that night and took his two wives and his two handmaids and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford of Jabbok.
Jub 32:31 And he took them and sent them over the brook, and sent over all that he had.
Jub 32:32 And Jacob was left alone, and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.
Jub 32:33 And when he saw that he did not prevail against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob’s thigh was strained as he wrestled with him.
Jub 32:34 And he said, “Let me go, for the day breaks.”
Jub 32:35 And he said, “I will not let you go unless you bless me.”
Jub 32:36 And he said to him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Jacob.”
Jub 32:37 And he said, “Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel will your name be, for you have wrestled with Yehowah and with men, and have prevailed.”
Jub 32:38 And Jacob asked him, saying, “Tell me, I pray you, your name.” And he said, “Why do you ask my name?” And he blessed him there.
Jub 32:39 And Jacob called the name of that place Peniel, for he said, “I have seen Yehowah face to face, and my life is preserved.”
Jub 32:40 And the sun rose upon him as he passed over Peniel, and he limped because of his thigh.
Jub 32:41 Therefore the children of Israel do not eat the sinew of the thigh vein to this day, because He touched the hollow of Jacob’s thigh in the sinew of the thigh vein.
Jub 33:1 And Jacob went on his journey from Penuel, and he met Esau his brother in the land of Seir, and Esau came toward him with four hundred men.

Jub 33:2 And Jacob was afraid, and he divided his children and his wives and all that he had into two companies.
Jub 33:3 And Jacob prayed to the Lord, saying, “Deliver me from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid of him lest he come and smite me, the mother with the children.”
Jub 33:4 “And You said that You would do good to me and make my seed as the sand of the sea which cannot be numbered for multitude.”
Jub 33:5 And Jacob lined up his eyes and saw, and behold, Esau was coming, and four hundred men with him.
Jub 33:6 And Jacob bowed himself to the ground seven times until he came near to his brother, and Esau ran to meet him and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.
Jub 33:7 And Esau lined up his eyes and saw the women and the children and said, “Who are these with you?” And he said, “The children whom Yehowah has graciously given your servant.”
Jub 33:8 Then the handmaids came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.
Jub 33:9 And Leah also and her children came near and bowed themselves, and afterward Rachel and Joseph came near and bowed themselves.
Jub 33:10 And Esau said, “What do you mean by all this company which I met?” And he said, “To find grace in the sight of my lord.”
Jub 33:11 And Esau said, “I have enough, my brother; keep what you have to yourself.”
Jub 33:12 And Jacob said, “No, I pray you, if now I have found grace in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, for I have seen your face as though I had seen the face of Yehowah, and you were pleased with me.”
Jub 33:13 “Take, I pray you, my blessing that is brought to you, because Yehowah has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.” And he urged him, and he took it.
Jub 33:14 And Esau said, “Let us take our journey and go, and I will go before you.”
Jub 33:15 And Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me, and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.”
Jub 33:16 “Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant, and I will lead on slowly, according as the cattle that go before me and the children are able to endure, until I come to my lord to Seir.”
Jub 33:17 And Esau said, “Let me now leave with you some of the people that are with me.” And he said, “Why do this? Let me find grace in the sight of my lord.”

Jub 33:18 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir, and Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built himself a house, and made booths for his cattle; therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.
Jub 33:19 And Jacob came to Shalem, a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-Aram, and pitched his tent before the city.
Jub 33:20 And he bought a parcel of a field where he had spread his tent, from the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for one hundred pieces of money.
Jub 33:21 And he erected there an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.
Jub 33:22 And Jacob sent to his father Isaac twelve young goats, that through them he might learn that his son Jacob had come in peace to Shechem.
Jub 33:23 And the messengers came to Isaac and found him well, and they told him that Jacob his son had come to Shechem, and Isaac rejoiced exceedingly.
Jub 33:24 For he said, "Now I will see my son Jacob before I die."
Jub 33:25 And he blessed the Mighty One of Abraham, his father, who had not withdrawn His mercy and His righteousness from the sons of His servant Isaac.
Jub 33:26 And the spirit of prophecy came upon Isaac's mouth, and he blessed Jacob, and said, "You are blessed, O Lord Mighty One of Abraham and the Mighty One of Isaac. May You bless Jacob and multiply him exceedingly and strengthen him, and may he become a multitude of nations, and may You give him the blessing of Your servant Abraham, and to his seed after him, that they may inherit the land of their sojournings and all the land which You have given to Abraham and to his seed after him."
Jub 33:27 "And may they be blessed in Your name, who are blessed, and may all nations of the earth bless themselves in Your seed."
Jub 33:28 "May the nations fear You and all the nations bow themselves before You."
Jub 33:29 "Be strong in the power of the Lord, and may He bless you and your seed forever."
Jub 33:30 "And may Yehowah Almighty be with you and may He not forsake you all the days of your life, and may you be blessed in all your works and in all the work of your hands."
Jub 33:31 "And I know, my son, that the Lord will bless you and your seed and that through you and your seed all nations of the earth will be blessed and will call you blessed forever."
Jub 33:32 And Isaac called Jacob and blessed him again, and he commanded him, saying, “Do not take a wife from among the daughters of Canaan, for their seed is accursed.”

Jub 33:33 “Go to the house of your mother’s father and take for yourself a wife from among the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.”
Jub 33:34 “And Most High Yehowah bless you and your children, and may the Mighty One of Abraham bless you and increase you and multiply your seed as the stars of heaven and make you a blessing upon the earth in all the nations of the earth.”
Jub 33:35 “May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you.”
Jub 33:36 “Be strong in righteousness and integrity that you may be holy and without sin, and the Lord will be with you and will bless you in all your deeds.”
Jub 33:37 “And He will not forsake you all the days of your life, for you will be a blessed man and your seed will be blessed in all the earth.”
Jub 33:38 “Raise up your seed in truth and righteousness and in the fear of Yehowah, and your seed will be blessed throughout all generations forever.”
Jub 34:1 And in the sixth year of this week, on the forty-fifth jubilee, Isaac sent after Jacob to see him in his house at Hebron and to bless him before he died.
Jub 34:2 And Jacob went to his father Isaac, he and Leah his wife, in the new moon of the seventh month.
Jub 34:3 And Reuben saw Bilhah, Rachel’s maid, his father’s concubine, bathing in water in a secret place, and he loved her.
Jub 34:4 And he hid himself at night and entered Bilhah’s tent at night, and he found her sleeping alone on her bed.
Jub 34:5 And he lay with her, and she awoke and saw, and behold, Reuben was lying with her in the bed. And she uncovered the edge of her garments and seized him and cried out, and discovered that it was Reuben.
Jub 34:6 And she was ashamed because of him, and he went out of her tent, and she lamented for the thing greatly and told no one.
Jub 34:7 And when Jacob returned and sought her, she said to him, “I am not clean for you, for I have been defiled by your firstborn Reuben, for he has lain with me in the night, and I was asleep, and I did not know until he uncovered my nakedness and then I awoke and saw that he had defiled me.”
Jub 34:8 “Now I have defiled myself and will not again be clean for you.”
Jub 34:9 For Reuben had defiled his father’s bed, and it was evil in the sight of Jacob.
Jub 34:10 And he remembered the word of the Lord concerning Reuben, for the Lord had said to Abraham that the sin of uncleanness should not be counted among his seed forever, for he who lies with his father’s wife has defiled his father's nakedness.

Jub 34:11 "All the holy seed will be pure and without defilement."
Jub 34:12 And now Reuben defiled his father's bed, and his deed was very evil in the sight of Jacob his father.
Jub 34:13 And Jacob was angry with him and cursed him and said, "You will not live long upon the earth, and the sons of your seed will not be many, for you have gone up to your father's bed and defiled his bed by your lying."
Jub 34:14 "Therefore your seed will not be established, for you have been exalted to dishonor, and all your seed will be destroyed until you will have no seed left in the earth."
Jub 34:15 For he had gone up on his father's couch and slept with Bilhah, his father's concubine.
Jub 34:16 And Jacob did not again come near to her because Reuben had defiled her.
Jub 34:17 And the deed of Reuben was not revealed until the day of Jacob's death, and then Jacob told it to his twelve sons, and Jacob blessed his sons before he died.
Jub 34:18 And he gave to Reuben his firstborn the judgment of his sin and reproved him before all his sons, and he blessed Judah and Levi, for Judah and Levi were honored, and Reuben was greatly abased for the sin he had committed.
Jub 34:19 And Reuben repented not of the sin which he had done, and he was not forgiven for it, and he died in shame.
Jub 34:20 And it was written concerning him in the heavenly tablets that he should not be forgiven for the sin which he had committed, and that he should not enter into life eternal, and that his seed should perish from the face of the earth, for he had lain with his father's concubine.
Jub 34:21 And it is written concerning all who defile their father's bed that they will be destroyed from the earth.
Jub 34:22 For there is no greater sin in the sight of the Lord than the sin of a man who defi les his father's house, for he has dishonored his father and has revealed his nakedness in Israel.
Jub 34:23 And all who do so will be written down in the heavenly tablets as defilers of their father's house, and they will be rooted out of all Israel.
Jub 34:24 And there will be no forgiveness or mercy for them that they should live in this age or in the world to come, but they will be destroyed and perish forever.
Jub 34:25 For thus it is ordained and written on the heavenly tablets regarding all the seed of Israel: that he who defi les his father's bed and his father's wife will be rooted out from among the people.

Jub 34:26 And the man who uncovers his father's nakedness or his mother's nakedness is cursed before the Lord.
Jub 34:27 For there are no honor or purity before the Lord for such a man, and the wrath of the Lord will destroy him from among all His people.
Jub 34:28 And the deeds of Reuben were not forgiven, and he was not pardoned, and he was not numbered among the twelve tribes of Israel, for his portion was given to the sons of Joseph.
Jub 34:29 And it was recorded and set apart on the heavenly tablets that his seed should be destroyed, and that he should not have seed on the face of the earth forever.
Jub 35:1 And in the first year of the first week of the forty-fifth jubilee, Rebekah called Jacob her son and commanded him concerning his father and concerning his brother, that he should honor them all the days of his life.
Jub 35:2 And Jacob said, "I will do everything as you have commanded me, for this thing is righteousness and great mercy to me that I should honor them."
Jub 35:3 "And they will prolong my days, and the blessing of the Lord will be upon me if I honor them."
Jub 35:4 "And you, my son, teach your children the instruction of honoring father and mother, for he who honors his father and his mother will prolong his days on the earth, and he who neglects them and does not honor his father and mother will be rooted out from the land of the living, and his seed will perish from under heaven."
Jub 35:5 "For all the works of man are written on high in the heavenly tablets, and they are recorded for eternity concerning the day of judgment."
Jub 35:6 "And every man who walks in righteousness and honor before his father and mother will be recorded for righteousness on the heavenly tablets, and he will be remembered until the day of judgment."
Jub 35:7 "And all the evil that man does will be written down against him on the heavenly tablets until the day of his judgment."
Jub 35:8 "And now, my son, love your brother also, and guard yourself from your brother Esau, for he has a violent nature, and he will rage against you and seek to destroy you from the face of the earth."
Jub 35:9 "But do not fear him, for the Mighty One of heaven and earth will guard you and deliver you from his hand and from the hands of the sons of men who are with him."
Jub 35:10 "And you will be blessed in all your deeds, and you will be protected, and the Lord will not forsake you all the days of your life, for I know that the Lord will guard you from all evil, and that He will bless you with all good.”

Jub 35:11 “And the Lord will guard you from the sons of evil and from all spirits of sin.”
Jub 35:12 “May the Lord guard you from all the pollution of sin, that you may not defile yourself with them, or with any of their works of unrighteousness, for all their works are unclean and all their ways are pollution and abomination and uncleanness.”
Jub 35:13 “They offer their sacrifices to the dead, and they worship evil spirits, and they eat over graves, and all their works are vanity and nothing.”
Jub 35:14 “They have no heart to understand, and as for you, my son Jacob, Most High Yehowah will help you, and the Mighty One of heaven will bless you and remove you from their uncleanness and from all their error.”
Jub 35:15 “Be careful, my son Jacob, not to take a wife from any of the daughters of Canaan, for all his seed is accursed.”
Jub 35:16 “And you will not take a wife from among them, but go to Mesopotamia to the house of Bethuel, the father of your mother, and take for yourself a wife from the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.”
Jub 35:17 “And may Most High Yehowah bless you and your children, and may the Mighty One of Abraham bless you and increase you and multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and make you a blessing upon the earth and throughout all generations of the earth.”
Jub 35:18 “May the nations serve you and all the nations bow themselves before your seed.”
Jub 35:19 “Be strong in righteousness and integrity, that you may be holy and without sin, and the Lord will be with you and bless you in all your deeds.”
Jub 35:20 “And He will not forsake you all the days of your life, for you will be a blessed man in all your deeds.”
Jub 35:21 “Raise up your seed in truth and righteousness and in the fear of Yehowah, and your seed will be blessed throughout all generations forever.”
Jub 35:22 And when Rebekah finished commanding Jacob and blessing him, she lay down on her bed, and Jacob departed from her to Isaac his father.
Jub 35:23 And Rebekah loved Jacob with all her heart and with all her soul very much more than Esau, but she loved Esau less because of his evil deeds.
Jub 35:24 For she saw the deeds of Esau, that they were not right, for all his ways were violent and he loved the blood of beasts and man, and he sacrificed to idols and ate from the offerings of the dead.
Jub 35:25 And Rebekah died at Hebron, and Isaac and her sons Esau and Jacob buried her in the double cave near Abraham and Sarah his wife.

Jub 35:26 And all the sons of her sons came to mourn over her, but Jacob mourned for her more than all the rest, and he was very sorrowful, and Rebekah was comforted in her grave because she had seen Jacob and was assured that he would live and not die.
Jub 35:27 And Esau saw that Jacob had honored their mother Rebekah all the days of her life, and that Jacob had not departed from her, and that Jacob had obeyed his mother in all things that she had commanded him.
Jub 35:28 And Esau hated Jacob because of their mother, for Jacob had not gone after Esau's wives and had not joined himself to all their deeds.
Jub 35:29 And Esau had no love for his brother Jacob, for he hated him because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and his anger was great against him.
Jub 35:30 And Esau intended in his heart to kill Jacob his brother, but Jacob fled before him from Hebron and went to his uncle Laban, until the anger of Esau should turn away from him.
Jub 35:31 And the hands of the sons of Esau were heavy against Jacob and his sons, to destroy them, but Jacob knew that the Mighty One of his fathers was with him and would deliver him from their hands.
Jub 35:32 And Jacob prayed to the Lord his Divine One and said, "O Lord, my Divine One, Mighty One of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, You have been with me and have delivered me from all my affliction and have multiplied me, and You have remembered the promise which You made to my fathers. Now deliver me also from the hands of the sons of Esau, my brother, for I have done nothing to them, and yet they hate me and seek to destroy me."
Jub 35:33 "And do You, O Lord, deliver me from their hands, and let me not fear them, but let me stand firm in Your righteousness, for You are my refuge and my salvation."
Jub 35:34 And the Lord said to him, "Fear not, Jacob, for I am with you to save you from all evil, and from all who seek your life I will deliver you, for I am the Lord your Divine One."
Jub 36:1 And in the sixth year of this week Isaac called his two sons, Esau and Jacob, and they came to him, and he said to them, "My sons, I am old, and my eyes are dim, and I do not know the day of my death."
Jub 36:2 "Now therefore, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out into the field and hunt venison for me, and make me savory meat, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die."
Jub 36:3 And Rebekah heard Isaac speaking to Esau, and she went to Jacob her younger son and said to him, "Behold, I heard your father speaking to Esau your brother, saying, ‘Bring me venison and make me savory meat that I may eat and bless you before the Lord before my death.’”

Jub 36:4 “Now, my son, obey my voice in that which I command you. Go to the flock and fetch me two good kids of the goats, and I will make them savory meat for your father such as he loves, and you will bring it to your father to eat, that he may bless you before the Lord before his death.”
Jub 36:5 And Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, “Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. My father may feel me, and I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I will bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing.”
Jub 36:6 And his mother said to him, “Your curse be upon me, my son; only obey my voice and go, fetch them to me.”
Jub 36:7 And he went and fetched and brought them to his mother, and his mother made savory meat such as his father loved.
Jub 36:8 And Rebekah took the best garments of her elder son Esau, which were in the house with her, and she clothed Jacob, her younger son, with them, and she put the skins of the kids upon his hands and upon the smooth of his neck.
Jub 36:9 And she gave the savory meat and the bread which she had prepared into the hands of her son Jacob.
10 And he went in to his father and said, “My father.” And he said, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?”
Jub 36:11 And Jacob said to his father, “I am your firstborn son, Esau. I have done as you told me. Arise, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me.”
Jub 36:12 And Isaac said to his son, “How have you found it so quickly, my son?” And he said, “Because the Lord your Divine One brought it to me.”
Jub 36:13 And Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are my very son Esau or not.”
Jub 36:14 And Jacob came near to Isaac his father, and he felt him and said, “The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”
Jub 36:15 And he did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands, so he blessed him.
Jub 36:16 And he said, “Are you my very son Esau?” And he said, “I am.”
Jub 36:17 And he said, “Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son’s venison, that my soul may bless you.” And he brought it near to him, and he ate, and he brought him wine, and he drank.
Jub 36:18 And Isaac, his father, said to him, “Come near and kiss me, my son.” And he came near and kissed him.
Jub 36:19 And he smelled the smell of his raiment and blessed him and said,

“See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a full field which the Lord has blessed.”
Jub 36:20 “Therefore, may Yehowah give you of the dew of heaven and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine.”
Jub 36:21 “Let nations serve you, and peoples bow down to you. Be lord over your brethren, and let your mother’s sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you.”
Jub 36:22 And it came to pass as soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
Jub 36:23 And he also made savory meat and brought it to his father, and said to his father, “Let my father arise and eat of his son’s venison, that your soul may bless me.”
Jub 36:24 And Isaac his father said to him, “Who are you?” And he said, “I am your son, your firstborn, Esau.”
Jub 36:25 And Isaac trembled very exceedingly and said, “Who was it then that hunted venison and brought it to me, and I ate of all before you came and blessed him? Yes, and he will be blessed.”
Jub 36:26 And Esau heard the words of his father, and he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me, even me also, O my father.”
Jub 36:27 And he said, “Your brother came with deceit and has taken away your blessing.”
Jub 36:28 And he said, “Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing.”
Jub 36:29 “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”
Jub 36:30 And Isaac answered and said to Esau, “Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brothers have I given to him for servants, and with grain and wine have I sustained him. What will I do now for you, my son?”
Jub 36:31 And Esau said to Isaac his father, “Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father.” And Esau lined up his voice and wept.
Jub 36:32 And Isaac his father answered and said to him, “Behold, your dwelling will be away from the fatness of the earth and away from the dew of heaven above.”
Jub 36:33 “And by your sword will you live, and you will serve your brother. But it will come to pass, when you will break loose, that you will shake his yoke from off your neck.”
Jub 36:34 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob.”

Jub 36:35 And the words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah, and she sent and called Jacob her younger son and said to him, “Behold, your brother Esau will avenge himself on you and kill you.”
Jub 36:36 “Now therefore, my son, obey my voice and arise; flee to Laban my brother, to Haran, and stay with him a few days until your brother’s anger turns away and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and fetch you from there.”
Jub 36:37 And Jacob said in his heart, “If I should leave and go to my mother’s brother Laban, I will dwell with him until the day of my father’s death, for his spirit is troubled because of me, and I will not see my mother’s face again.”
Jub 36:38 And Rebekah wept for her son Jacob night and day until she died, and she said, “Let me not live after the days of my sorrow, for I will go down to the grave mourning for my son.”
Jub 36:39 And she called her maid Deborah and said to her, “Go with Jacob and remain with him, that you may teach him and tell him all that he must do until he returns to the house of his father.”
Jub 36:40 And she blessed him and said, “My son Jacob, may the Lord bless you and keep you from the evil of Esau and may He cause you to prosper in all your ways and in the truth of your heart before Him.”
Jub 36:41 “And may Yehowah Almighty guard you from all evil and deliver you from every wicked work, that you may prosper in all your works and in every good work of your hands.”
Jub 36:42 “And may He bless your seed and the seed of your sons that they may become a multitude of nations and a blessing in the earth.”
Jub 36:43 “Go in peace, my son Jacob, until you return in peace, and I will be with you always.”
Jub 37:1 And in the twelfth year of this week Jacob returned to the land of Canaan in peace, and they built booths for themselves and for their cattle in the seventh month of this jubilee.
Jub 37:2 And it was told to Esau that Jacob had come into the land of Canaan, and Esau gathered together his sons and the people of his house, about four hundred men.
Jub 37:3 And he went to Jacob, his brother, to make war with him, to slay him in the land of Canaan.
Jub 37:4 And Jacob sent messengers to Esau his brother to make peace with him, and to speak kindly to him, and to say, “Your servant Jacob says, ‘I have lived with Laban as a stranger and have been delayed until now. I have oxen and donkeys and sheep and male and female servants, and I have sent to inform my lord, that I may find grace in your sight.’”

Jub 37:5 And the messengers returned to Jacob saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he comes to meet you with four hundred men, and we thought that he was coming to fight against you.”
Jub 37:6 And Jacob was greatly afraid, and he was distressed, and he divided his people and his flocks and his herds and the camels into two companies, and he said, “If Esau comes to one company and attacks it, then the company which is left will escape.”
Jub 37:7 And Jacob prayed to the Lord his Divine One, and said, “O Lord, Mighty One of my father Abraham, and Yehowah of my father Isaac, You said to me when I went from my father’s house, ‘Return to your land and to your kindred, and I will do you good.’”
Jub 37:8 “I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which You have shown to Your servant, for with my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I have become two companies.”
Jub 37:9 “Deliver me, I pray You, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I fear him, lest he come and smite me, and the mother with the children.”
Jub 37:10 “And You said, ‘I will surely do you good and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.’”
Jub 37:11 And Jacob lodged there that night, and he took from what came to his hand a present for Esau his brother, two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, twenty rams, thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty she-asses, and ten foals.
Jub 37:12 And he sent them by the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass over before me and put a space between drove and drove.”
Jub 37:13 And he commanded the foremost, saying, “When Esau my brother meets you and asks you, saying, ‘Whose are you, and where are you going, and whose are these before you?’ then you will say, ‘They are your servant Jacob’s; it is a present sent to my lord Esau, and behold he also is behind us.’”
Jub 37:14 And he commanded the second and the third, and all who followed the droves, saying, “On this manner will you speak to Esau when you find him, and say moreover, ‘Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us.’”
Jub 37:15 “For he said, ‘I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face; perhaps he will accept me.’”
Jub 37:16 So the present went over before him, and he himself lodged that night in the camp.
Jub 37:17 And he rose up that night and took his two wives and his two handmaids and his eleven sons and passed over the ford of Jabbok.
Jub 37:18 And he took them and sent them over the brook, and sent over all that he had.

Jub 37:19 And Jacob was left alone, and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.
Jub 37:20 And when he saw that he did not prevail against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was strained as he wrestled with him.
Jub 37:21 And he said, "Let me go, for the day breaks." And he said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."
Jub 37:22 And he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob."
Jub 37:23 And he said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel will your name be, for you have wrestled with Yehowah and with men, and have prevailed."
Jub 37:24 And Jacob asked him, saying, "Tell me, I pray you, your name." And he said, "Why do you ask my name?" And he blessed him there.
Jub 37:25 And Jacob called the name of that place Peniel, for he said, "I have seen Yehowah face to face, and my life is preserved."
Jub 37:26 And the sun rose upon him as he passed over Peniel, and he limped because of his thigh.
Jub 37:27 Therefore the children of Israel do not eat the sinew of the thigh vein to this day, because He touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the thigh vein.
Jub 37:28 And Jacob lined up his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men.
Jub 37:29 And Jacob bowed himself to the ground seven times until he came near to his brother.
Jub 37:30 And Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.
Jub 37:31 And Esau lined up his eyes and saw the women and the children and said, "Who are these with you?" And he said, "The children whom Yehowah has graciously given your servant."
Jub 37:32 And the handmaids came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.
Jub 37:33 And Leah also and her children came near and bowed themselves, and afterward Rachel and Joseph came near and bowed themselves.
Jub 37:34 And Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?" And he said, "To find grace in the sight of my lord."
Jub 37:35 And Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; keep what you have to yourself."
Jub 37:36 And Jacob said, "No, I pray you, if now I have found grace in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, for I have seen your face as though I had seen the face of Yehowah, and you were pleased with me."

Jub 37:37 “Take, I pray you, my blessing that is brought to you, because Yehowah has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough.” And he urged him, and he took it.
Jub 37:38 And Esau said, “Let us take our journey and go, and I will go before you.”
Jub 37:39 And Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me, and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.”
Jub 37:40 “Let my lord, I pray you, pass over before his servant, and I will lead on slowly according to the pace of the cattle that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord to Seir.”
Jub 37:41 And Esau said, “Let me now leave with you some of the people that are with me.” And he said, “Why do this? Let me find grace in the sight of my lord.”
Jub 37:42 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.
Jub 37:43 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth and built himself a house, and made booths for his cattle; therefore he called the name of the place Succoth.
Jub 37:44 And Jacob came in peace to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-Aram, and he pitched his tent before the city.
Jub 37:45 And he bought a parcel of the field where he had spread his tent from the hand of the children of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for one hundred pieces of silver.
Jub 37:46 And he erected there an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.
Jub 38:1 And after that, Esau took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the people of his house and the possessions and the cattle and all that he had acquired and the souls which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and he went into the land of Seir away from his brother Jacob.
Jub 38:2 For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together, and the land of their sojournings could not bear them because of the multitude of their cattle.
Jub 38:3 And Esau dwelt in Mount Seir, and Esau is Edom.
Jub 38:4 And Jacob dwelt in the mountains of Hebron in the land of the sojournings of his father Isaac, and the Lord was with him, and he prospered in all that he did.
Jub 38:5 And these are the generations of Esau: he took wives, Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hethite, and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite, and Basemath, Ishmael’s daughter, the sister of Nebaioth.
Jub 38:6 And Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz, and Basemath bore Reuel, and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jaalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

Jub 38:7 And Esau took his sons and went up to the mountains of Seir, and he called his sons and said to them, “Behold, I am growing old, and I know not the day of my death, and I am this day going to my fathers.”
Jub 38:8 “Now therefore, my sons, hearken to your father Esau’s voice, and let your hearts be inclined to all that I command you, and you will prosper in all that you do.”
Jub 38:9 “Do not make war with the sons of Jacob, for the Lord is with them, and if you fight against them, you will fall before them.”
Jub 38:10 “Be afraid of them, my sons, for the Lord is with them, and the Lord will deliver them, and bless them, and they will become a great people and a mighty nation on the earth.”
Jub 38:11 “You will be servants to them, and you will be subject to them, and they will reign over you and will rule over you with a rod of iron.”
Jub 38:12 “Do righteousness and good to the sons of Jacob, that the Lord may have pleasure in you and have mercy upon you, and that He may not destroy you from among all the nations.”
Jub 38:13 “For the Lord gave to Jacob the dominion and to his sons forever, and they will reign over all the nations according to their desires, and all the nations will be subject to them.”
Jub 38:14 “Be careful, my sons, to keep yourselves from all unrighteousness and from all sin and from all idolatry, and from the defilement of your fathers’ idols, and from the pollution of fornication, and from the defilement of your mother’s daughters.”
Jub 38:15 “And you will not take wives from the daughters of Canaan, for all their seed is accursed.”
Jub 38:16 “And do not forget the Lord, the Mighty One of your father Abraham and of your father Isaac, for the Lord will destroy you if you do evil, and will root you out from under heaven.”
Jub 38:17 “And now, my sons, behold this land which we dwell in and all the land which is around it. Behold, all this land will fall to the hands of Jacob and to his seed, for he will possess it forever according to the covenant of the Lord.”
Jub 38:18 “Do not say in your hearts that the Lord gave this land to Abraham and to his seed; for it is not so, but the Lord gave it to Abraham and to his seed after him forever, and to his sons by his righteous seed.”
Jub 38:19 “For Jacob is his righteous seed, and to him and to his sons was given this land as their inheritance forever.”
Jub 38:20 “Behold, all that I have commanded you, my sons, keep and do it, and do not turn aside from all that I have commanded you to the right hand or to the left, and be very careful that you do not transgress the commandments of your Divine One."

Jub 38:21 "And I will know that you are my sons if you do these things, and if you walk in righteousness and truth before the Lord your Divine One."
Jub 38:22 "And do not forget the words of your father Esau, and do not transgress them in your hearts all the days of your life."
Jub 38:23 "And you will remember the Lord your Divine One all the days of your life."
Jub 38:24 "Do not walk after the desires of your heart and after the eyes of your flesh, and do not take to yourselves wives from the daughters of Canaan as I took, who brought trouble upon me and upon my house, and all my sons, until this day."
Jub 38:25 "For the daughters of Canaan are evil."
Jub 38:26 "And I, my sons, love your brethren Jacob and his sons, for they are your brothers in truth, and it will be counted as righteousness to you that you love them."
Jub 38:27 "And do not wish to do evil to them, but good only."
Jub 38:28 "And Yehowah Almighty will bless you for it, and you will be blessed all the days of your life."
Jub 38:29 And Esau called his sons, the sons of Edom, and commanded them according to all that he had said to his sons, and he gave them the writing in which he had written to them by the hand of his son Eliphaz.
Jub 38:30 And Esau died in that year in the fifth month of the forty-fifth jubilee, in the one hundred and fifty-seventh year of his life, in the day of his death in Mount Seir.
Jub 38:31 And Esau was buried in the land of Seir, and Jacob went and buried him with great honor, in the same manner as he buried his father Isaac, with trumpets and with mourning and with great lamentation.
Jub 38:32 And it was written on the heavenly tablets that Jacob and Esau should be recorded in the book of the generations of men, that Jacob should be the firstborn and the elder.
Jub 38:33 But because Esau had sold his birthright to Jacob, it was written thus: "Jacob was the firstborn."
Jub 38:34 And it was ordained that Jacob should be the elder and the greater, and Esau should be the younger.
Jub 38:35 And Jacob loved the Lord, and walked in all His ways and was blameless, and the Lord loved him forever.
Jub 38:36 And Jacob's sons multiplied exceedingly in the land of Canaan, and they possessed their inheritance according to their portions.
Jub 38:37 And Esau's sons dwelt in Mount Seir, and all the men of Edom were subject to the sons of Esau, and they were called Edom.

Jub 39:1 And Jacob dwelt in the land of his father's sojournings, in the land of Canaan.
Jub 39:2 These are the generations of Jacob: Joseph was seventeen years old when he was feeding the flock with his brothers, being still a youth among the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought an evil report of them to his father.
Jub 39:3 And Jacob loved Joseph more than all his sons because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a long robe with sleeves reaching to his wrists and to his ankles.
Jub 39:4 And when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.
Jub 39:5 And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it to his brothers, and they hated him even more.
Jub 39:6 And he said to them, "Listen to this dream which I have dreamed. Behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and my sheaf arose and stood upright, and behold, your sheaves stood round about and bowed down to my sheaf."
Jub 39:7 And his brothers said to him, "Shall you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed have dominion over us?" And they hated him yet more for his dreams and for his words.
Jub 39:8 And he dreamed another dream and told it to his father and to his brothers, and said, "Behold, I have dreamed another dream, and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me."
Jub 39:9 And he told it to his father and his brothers, and his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall I and your mother and your brothers indeed come to bow down ourselves to you to the earth?"
Jub 39:10 And his brothers envied him, but his father kept the saying in his heart.
Jub 39:11 And when the sons of Jacob went to feed their father's flock in Shechem, Israel said to Joseph, "Do not your brothers feed the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." And he said to him, "Here I am."
Jub 39:12 And he said to him, "Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring me word again."
Jub 39:13 So he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem, and a man found him wandering in the field, and the man asked him, saying, "What do you seek?"
Jub 39:14 And he said, "I seek my brothers; tell me, I pray you, where they are feeding their flocks."
Jub 39:15 And the man said to him, "They have departed from here, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’” And Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

Jub 39:16 And when they saw him afar off, before he came near to them, they conspired against him to slay him.
Jub 39:17 And they said one to another, “Behold, this dreamer comes. Now therefore, come and let us slay him, and cast him into one of the pits, and we will say, ‘An evil beast has devoured him,’ and we will see what will become of his dreams.”
Jub 39:18 And Reuben heard it and delivered him out of their hands, and said, “Let us not kill him.”
Jub 39:19 And Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood; cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but do not lay your hand upon him,” that he might deliver him out of their hands and bring him back to his father.
Jub 39:20 And it came to pass, when Joseph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Joseph of his coat, the long coat which was upon him.
Jub 39:21 And they took him and cast him into a pit, and the pit was empty; there was no water in it.
Jub 39:22 And they sat down to eat bread, and they lined up their eyes and looked, and behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing spices, balm, and myrrh, going to carry them down to Egypt.
Jub 39:23 And Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it if we slay our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother and our flesh.” And his brothers agreed.
Jub 39:24 Then there passed by Midianite merchants, and they drew and lined up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver, and they brought Joseph into Egypt.
Jub 39:25 And Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit, and he tore his clothes.
Jub 39:26 And he returned to his brothers and said, “The child is not; and I, where will I go?”
Jub 39:27 And they took Joseph’s coat and killed a goat and dipped the coat in the blood, and they sent the long coat and brought it to their father and said, “This we have found; know now whether it is your son’s coat or not.”
Jub 39:28 And he recognized it and said, “It is my son’s coat; an evil beast has devoured him; Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces.”
Jub 39:29 And Jacob tore his clothes and put sackcloth upon his loins and mourned for his son many days.
Jub 39:30 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted, and said, “I will go down to my son mourning to the grave.” And his father wept for him.

Jub 39:31 And the Midianites sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard.
Jub 40:1 And in those days Potiphar, the chief of Pharaoh’s guards, bought Joseph from the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver, and he placed him over his house and all that he had, and the Lord blessed the house of the Egyptian for Joseph’s sake, and all that he had, the Lord made to prosper in his hand.
Jub 40:2 And the Egyptian committed all that he had into the hands of Joseph, for he saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand.
Jub 40:3 And Joseph was goodly in form and fair to look upon, and the wife of his master lined up her eyes to Joseph and said to him, “Lie with me.”
Jub 40:4 But he refused and said to her, “Behold, my master knows not what is with me in the house, and he has committed all that he has into my hand. There is none greater in this house than I, neither has he kept anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against Yehowah?”
Jub 40:5 And she spoke to Joseph day by day, but he did not listen to her to lie by her or to be with her.
Jub 40:6 And it came to pass when Joseph went into the house to do his work, and there was none of the men of the house within, that she caught him by his garment, saying, “Lie with me.”
Jub 40:7 And he left his garment in her hand and fled and went outside.
Jub 40:8 And when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled, she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, “See, he has brought in a Hebrew to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice.”
Jub 40:9 “And it came to pass when he heard that I lined up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me and fled and went out.”
Jub 40:10 And she laid up his garment by her until his master came home, and she spoke to him according to these words, saying, “The Hebrew servant whom you have brought to us came in to me to mock me. And it came to pass when I lined up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me and fled out.”
Jub 40:11 And his master’s wrath was kindled when he heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying, “After this manner your servant did to me.”
Jub 40:12 And he took Joseph and cast him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were bound, and he was there in the prison.

Jub 40:13 But the Lord was with Joseph and showed him mercy and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison.
Jub 40:14 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison, and whatever they did there, he was the overseer of it.
Jub 40:15 The keeper of the prison looked not to anything that was under his hand because the Lord was with him, and that which he did, the Lord made it to prosper.
Jub 40:16 And it came to pass after these things that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker offended their lord, the king of Egypt.
Jub 40:17 And Pharaoh was angry with his two officers, with the chief of the butlers and with the chief of the bakers, and he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.
Jub 40:18 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them, and they continued a season in custody.
Jub 40:19 And they both dreamed a dream, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream—the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were bound in the prison.
Jub 40:20 And Joseph came in to them in the morning and looked upon Jub 40:21 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the prison, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"
Jub 40:22 And they said to him, "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it." And Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to Yehowah? Tell me, I pray you."
Jub 40:23 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph and said to him, "In my dream, behold, a vine was before me, and in the vine were three branches, and it was as though it budded, and its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes. Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup and gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand."
Jub 40:24 And Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days. Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you will deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand after the former manner when you were his butler."
Jub 40:25 "But think on me when it will be well with you, and show kindness, I pray you, to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon."

Jub 40:26 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, “I also was in my dream, and behold, I had three white baskets on my head, and in the uppermost basket there was all manner of baked meats for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket upon my head.”
Jub 40:27 And Joseph answered and said, “This is the interpretation of it: the three baskets are three days. Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from off you.”
Jub 40:28 And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh’s birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants, and he lined up the head of the chief butler and the head of the chief baker among his servants.
Jub 40:29 And he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he gave the cup into Pharaoh’s hand.
Jub 40:30 But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them.
Jub 40:31 Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph but forgot him.
Jub 41:1 And it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed, and behold, he stood by the river.
Jub 41:2 And behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favored and fat-fleshed cows, and they fed in a meadow.
Jub 41:3 And behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ill-favored and lean-fleshed, and they stood by the other cows on the brink of the river.
Jub 41:4 And the ill-favored and lean-fleshed cows ate up the seven well-favored and fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.
Jub 41:5 And he slept and dreamed a second time, and behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.
Jub 41:6 And behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.
Jub 41:7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream.
Jub 41:8 And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all the wise men, and Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was none who could interpret them to Pharaoh.
Jub 41:9 Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying, “I remember my faults this day. Pharaoh was angry with his servants and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker.”
Jub 41:10 “And we dreamed a dream one night, he and I; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.”

Jub 41:11 “And there was with us a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard, and we told him, and he interpreted our dreams to us; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.”
Jub 41:12 “And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was: me he restored to my office, and him he hanged.”
Jub 41:13 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon, and he shaved and changed his clothes and came in before Pharaoh.
Jub 41:14 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have dreamed a dream, and there is none who can interpret it, and I have heard say of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”
Jub 41:15 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, “It is not in me. Yehowah will give Pharaoh an answer of peace.”
Jub 41:16 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river, and behold, there came up out of the river seven cows, fat-fleshed and well-favored, and they fed in a meadow.”
Jub 41:17 “And behold, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ill-favored and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness.”
Jub 41:18 “And the lean and the ill-favored cows ate up the first seven fat cows, and when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them, but they were still ill-favored as at the beginning. So I awoke.”
Jub 41:19 “And I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good.”
Jub 41:20 “And behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them, and the thin ears devoured the seven good ears, and I told this to the magicians, but there was none that could declare it to me.”
Jub 41:21 And Joseph said to Pharaoh, “The dream of Pharaoh is one. Yehowah has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.”
Jub 41:22 “The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years. The dream is one.”
Jub 41:23 “And the seven thin and ill-favored cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind will be seven years of famine.”
Jub 41:24 “This is the thing which I have spoken to Pharaoh: what Yehowah is about to do He shows to Pharaoh.”
Jub 41:25 “Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt, and there will arise after them seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will consume the land."

Jub 41:26 "And the plenty will not be known in the land by reason of that famine following, for it will be very grievous."
Jub 41:27 "And for that the dream was doubled to Pharaoh twice, it is because the thing is established by Yehowah, and Yehowah will shortly bring it to pass."
Jub 41:28 "Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise and set him over the land of Egypt."
Jub 41:29 "Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years."
Jub 41:30 "And let them gather all the food of those good years that come and lay up grain under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities."
Jub 41:31 "And that food will be for store in the land against the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt, that the land perish not through the famine."
Jub 41:32 And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants.
Jub 41:33 And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom the spirit of Yehowah is?"
Jub 41:34 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "tiorasmuch as Yehowah has shown you all this, there is none so discreet and wise as you are. You will be over my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne will I be greater than you."
Jub 41:35 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."
Jub 41:36 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it upon Joseph's hand and arrayed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain about his neck.
Jub 41:37 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had, and they cried before him, "Bow the knee!" And he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.
Jub 41:38 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without you will no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."
Jub 41:39 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name ttaphenath-paneah, and he gave him to wife Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.
Jub 41:40 And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

Jub 41:41 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls, and he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt and laid up the food in the cities.
Jub 41:42 And he stored up grain as the sand of the sea, very much, until he ceased numbering, for it was without number.
Jub 41:43 And unto Joseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.
Jub 41:44 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, “For Yehowah has made me forget all my toil and all my father’s house.”
Jub 41:45 And the name of the second he called Ephraim, “For Yehowah has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.”
Jub 41:46 And the seven years of plenty that were in the land of Egypt ended, and the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph had said.
Jub 41:47 And the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.
Jub 41:48 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, “Go to Joseph; what he says to you, do.”
Jub 41:49 And the famine was over all the face of the earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians, and the famine grew sore in the land of Egypt.
Jub 41:50 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph to buy grain because the famine was severe in all the earth.
Jub 42:1 And the famine was severe upon the earth. And Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, and he sent his ten sons to buy food from there, but Benjamin he did not send, for he said, “Lest harm befall him.”
Jub 42:2 And the sons of Israel came to Egypt among those that came to buy. For the famine was upon the land of Canaan, and Joseph was governor over the land. He it was who sold to all the people of the land.
Jub 42:3 And Joseph’s brothers came and bowed themselves down before him with their faces to the earth, and Joseph saw his brothers and knew them, but they did not know him.
Jub 42:4 And he remembered the dreams which he dreamed concerning them, and he said to them, “You are spies; to see the nakedness of the land you have come.”
Jub 42:5 And they said to him, “No, my lord, your servants have come to buy food. We are all one man’s sons; we are true men; your servants are no spies.”
Jub 42:6 And he said to them, “No, but to see the nakedness of the land you have come.”
Jub 42:7 And they said, “We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan, and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not."

Jub 42:8 And Joseph said to them, "That is it that I spoke to you, saying, 'You are spies.' By this you will be proved: by the life of Pharaoh you will not go forth from here unless your youngest brother comes here."
Jub 42:9 "Send one of you and let him fetch your brother, and you will be bound, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you; or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies."
Jub 42:10 And he put them all together into prison for three days.
Jub 42:11 And Joseph said to them the third day, "Do this and live, for I fear Yehowah. If you are true men, let one of your brothers be bound in the house of your prison; go, carry grain for the famine of your houses."
Jub 42:12 "But bring your youngest brother to me, so will your words be verified, and you will not die." And they did so.
Jub 42:13 And they said one to another, "We are truly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul when he begged us, and we would not hear. Therefore is this distress come upon us."
Jub 42:14 And Reuben answered them, saying, "Did I not speak to you, saying, 'Do not sin against the child,' and you would not hear? Therefore, behold, also his blood is required."
Jub 42:15 And they did not know that Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them by an interpreter.
Jub 42:16 And he turned himself about from them and wept, and returned to them again and communed with them and took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.
Jub 42:17 Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with grain and to restore every man's money into his sack and to give them provision for the way, and thus did he to them.
Jub 42:18 And they loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed from there.
Jub 42:19 And as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder in the inn, he saw his money, for behold, it was in the mouth of his sack.
Jub 42:20 And he said to his brothers, "My money is restored, and behold, it is even in my sack." And their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, "What is this that Yehowah has done to us?"
Jub 42:21 And they came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that befell them, saying, "The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us and took us for spies of the country."
Jub 42:22 "And we said to him, 'We are true men; we are no spies. We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.'"

Jub 42:23 “And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, ‘Hereby will I know that you are true men. Leave one of your brothers here with me and take food for the famine of your households and go your way, and bring your youngest brother to me; then will I know that you are no spies, but that you are true men. So will I deliver you your brother, and you will trade in the land.’”
Jub 42:24 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, behold, every man’s bundle of money was in his sack. And when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.
Jub 42:25 And Jacob their father said to them, “You have bereaved me of my children. Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and you will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me.”
Jub 42:26 And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “Kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to you again.”
Jub 42:27 And he said, “My son will not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm befall him by the way in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.”
Jub 42:28 And the famine was severe in the land, and it came to pass when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, “Go again, buy us a little food.”
Jub 42:29 And Judah spoke to him, saying, “The man solemnly warned us, saying, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food.”
Jub 42:30 “But if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, ‘You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.’”
Jub 42:31 And Israel said, “Why did you deal so ill with me as to tell the man whether you had yet a brother?”
Jub 42:32 And they said, “The man asked us plainly of our kindred, saying, ‘Is your father yet alive? Have you another brother?’ and we told him according to the tenor of these words. Could we in any way know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”
Jub 42:33 And Judah said to Israel his father, “Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we, you, and also our little ones. I will be surety for him; of my hand will you require him. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.”
Jub 42:34 “For except we had lingered, surely by now we had returned this second time.”
Jub 42:35 And their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so now, do this. Take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels and carry down the man a present, a little balm, a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds, and take double money in your hand, and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand. Perhaps it was an oversight."

Jub 42:36 "Take also your brother, and arise, go again to the man. And may Yehowah Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved."
Jub 42:37 And the men took the present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin, and rose up and went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.
Jub 43:1 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, "Bring these men home, and slay and make ready, for these men will dine with me at noon."
Jub 43:2 And the man did as Joseph said, and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.
Jub 43:3 And the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house, and they said, "Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in, that he may seek occasion against us and take us for bondmen and our donkeys."
Jub 43:4 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house and spoke with him at the door of the house, and said, "O my lord, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food. And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight, and we have brought it again in our hand."
Jub 43:5 "And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks."
Jub 43:6 And he said, "Peace be to you, fear not. Your Yehowah and the Mighty One of your father has given you treasure in your sacks. I had your money." And he brought Simeon out to them.
Jub 43:7 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet, and he gave their donkeys food.
Jub 43:8 And they made ready the present against Joseph's coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.
Jub 43:9 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house and bowed themselves to him to the earth.
Jub 43:10 And he asked them of their welfare and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive?"
Jub 43:11 And they answered, "Your servant our father is in good health; he is yet alive." And they bowed down their heads and made obeisance.

Jub 43:12 And he lined up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "Yehowah be gracious to you, my son."
Jub 43:13 And Joseph made haste, for his heart yearned toward his brother, and he sought where to weep. And he entered into his chamber and wept there.
Jub 43:14 And he washed his face and went out and restrained himself and said, "Set on bread."
Jub 43:15 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.
Jub 43:16 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men marveled one at another.
Jub 43:17 And he took and sent portions to them from before him, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank and were merry with him.
Jub 43:18 Then Joseph commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth. And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his grain money."
Jub 43:19 And the steward did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.
Jub 43:20 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.
Jub 43:21 And when they were gone out of the city and not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good? Is not this the one in which my lord drinks and whereby indeed he divines? You have done evil in so doing.'"
Jub 43:22 And he overtook them and spoke to them these same words.
Jub 43:23 And they said to him, "Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing. Behold, the money which we found in our sacks' mouths we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal out of your lord's house silver or gold?"
Jub 43:24 "With whomever of your servants it is found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen."
Jub 43:25 And he said, "Now also let it be according to your words: he with whom it is found will be my servant, and you will be blameless."
Jub 43:26 Then they quickly took down every man his sack to the ground and opened every man his sack.

Jub 43:27 And he searched and began at the eldest and left at the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.
Jub 43:28 Then they tore their clothes, and every man loaded his donkey and returned to the city.
Jub 43:29 And Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, for he was still there, and they fell before him on the ground.
Jub 43:30 And Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly divine?"
Jub 43:31 And Judah said, "What will we say to my lord? What will we speak? Or how will we clear ourselves? Yehowah has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my lord's servants, both we and he also with whom the cup is found."
Jub 43:32 And he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he will be my servant, but as for you, go up in peace to your father."
Jub 43:33 Then Judah came near to him and said, "O my lord, let your servant, I pray you, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not your anger burn against your servant, for you are even as Pharaoh."
Jub 43:34 "My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?' And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one, and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.'"
Jub 43:35 "And you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes upon him.' And we said to my lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.'"
Jub 43:36 "And you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will see my face no more.'"
Jub 43:37 "And it came to pass when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord, and our father said, 'Go again and buy us a little food.' And we said, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother be with us, then we will go down, for we may not see the man's face except our youngest brother be with us.'"
Jub 43:38 "And your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons, and one went out from me, and I said, "Surely he is torn in pieces," and I saw him not since.'"
Jub 43:39 "'And if you take this one also from me, and harm befall him, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.'"
Jub 43:40 "Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life, it will come to pass, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die, and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave."

Jub 43:41 "For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him to you, then I will bear the blame to my father forever.' Now therefore, I pray you, let your servant remain instead of the lad as a bondman to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers."
Jub 43:42 "For how will I go up to my father and the lad be not with me? Lest I see the evil that will come upon my father."
Jub 44:1 Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried, "Cause every man to go out from me." And there stood no man with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.
Jub 44:2 And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.
Jub 44:3 And Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Does my father yet live?" And his brothers could not answer him, for they were troubled at his presence.
Jub 44:4 And Joseph said to his brothers, "Come near to me, I pray you." And they came near. And he said, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt."
Jub 44:5 "Now therefore, do not be grieved nor angry with yourselves that you sold me here, for Yehowah sent me before you to preserve life."
Jub 44:6 "For these two years has the famine been in the land, and yet there are five years in which there will neither be plowing nor harvest."
Jub 44:7 "And Yehowah sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance."
Jub 44:8 "So now, it was not you that sent me here, but Yehowah, and He has made me a father to Pharaoh and lord of all his house and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt."
Jub 44:9 "Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph, Yehowah has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me, do not delay.'"
Jub 44:10 "'And you will dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near to me, you and your children and your children's children, and your flocks and your herds and all that you have.'"
Jub 44:11 "'And there I will nourish you, for there are yet five years of famine, lest you and your household and all that you have come to poverty.'"
Jub 44:12 "And behold, your eyes see and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my mouth that speaks to you."
Jub 44:13 "And you will tell my father of all my glory in Egypt and of all that you have seen, and you will hurry and bring down my father here."

Jub 44:14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and Benjamin wept upon his neck.
Jub 44:15 Moreover, he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them, and after that his brothers talked with him.
Jub 44:16 And the fame of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, "Joseph's brothers have come." And it pleased Pharaoh well and his servants.
Jub 44:17 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this. Load your beasts and go, get you to the land of Canaan, and take your father and your households and come to me, and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.'"
Jub 44:18 "Now you are commanded, do this. Take wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives and bring your father and come."
Jub 44:19 "Do not regard your stuff, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours."
Jub 44:20 And the sons of Israel did so, and Joseph gave them wagons according to the commandment of Pharaoh and gave them provisions for the way.
Jub 44:21 To all of them he gave each man changes of garments, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments.
Jub 44:22 And to his father he sent after this manner: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt and ten she-donkeys loaded with grain and bread and food for his father for the journey.
Jub 44:23 So he sent his brothers away, and they departed, and he said to them, "See that you do not fall out by the way."
Jub 44:24 And they went up out of Egypt and came into the land of Canaan to Jacob their father, and told him, saying, "Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt."
Jub 44:25 And Jacob's heart fainted, for he did not believe them.
Jub 44:26 And they told him all the words of Joseph which he had said to them, and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.
Jub 44:27 And Israel said, "It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive. I will go and see him before I die."
Jub 44:28 And Israel took his journey with all that he had and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the Mighty One of his father Isaac.
Jub 44:29 And Yehowah spoke to Israel in the visions of the night and said, "Jacob, Jacob." And he said, "Here I am."

Jub 44:30 And He said, “I am Yehowah, the Mighty One of your father. Do not fear to go down into Egypt, for I will there make of you a great nation.”
Jub 44:31 “I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up again, and Joseph will put his hand upon your eyes.”
Jub 44:32 And Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father and their little ones and their wives in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.
Jub 44:33 And they took their cattle and their goods which they had gotten in the land of Canaan and came into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him.
Jub 44:34 His sons and his sons’ sons with him, his daughters and his sons’ daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.
Jub 45:1 And Israel came into the land of Egypt, into the land of Goshen, on the new moon of the fourth month of the second year of the third week of the forty-fifth jubilee.
Jub 45:2 And Joseph went up to meet his father Jacob, to Goshen, and he fell on his neck and wept upon his neck a long while.
Jub 45:3 And Israel said to Joseph, “Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are yet alive.”
Jub 45:4 And Joseph spoke to his brothers and to his father’s house, saying, “I will go up and show Pharaoh and say to him, ‘My brothers and my father’s house who were in the land of Canaan have come to me, and the men are shepherds, for their trade has been to feed cattle, and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.’”
Jub 45:5 “And it will come to pass, when Pharaoh will call you and will say, ‘What is your occupation?’ that you will say, ‘Your servants’ trade has been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers,’ that you may dwell in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.”
Jub 45:6 Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh and said, “My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they have are come out of the land of Canaan, and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.”
Jub 45:7 And he took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh.
Jub 45:8 And Pharaoh said to his brothers, “What is your occupation?” And they said to Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers.”
Jub 45:9 “We have come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants’ flocks, for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, we pray you, let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen.”

Jub 45:10 And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, “Your father and your brothers are come to you. The land of Egypt is before you. In the best of the land make your father and brothers to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell, and if you know any men of activity among them, make them rulers over my cattle.”
Jub 45:11 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.
Jub 45:12 And Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How old are you?”
Jub 45:13 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and I have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.”
Jub 45:14 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from before Pharaoh.
Jub 45:15 And Joseph placed his father and his brothers and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded.
Jub 45:16 And Joseph nourished his father and his brothers and all his father’s household with bread, according to their families.
Jub 45:17 And there was no bread in all the land, for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted because of the famine.
Jub 45:18 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain which they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh’s house.
Jub 45:19 And when money failed in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, “Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the money fails.”
Jub 45:20 And Joseph said, “Give your cattle, and I will give you bread for your cattle if the money is gone.”
Jub 45:21 And they brought their cattle to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses and for the flocks and for the cattle of the herds and for the donkeys, and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.
Jub 45:22 When that year was ended, they came to him the second year and said to him, “We will not hide it from our lord, how that our money is spent, and my lord also has our herds of cattle. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.”
Jub 45:23 “Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed that we may live and not die, that the land be not desolate.”
Jub 45:24 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold every man his field because the famine prevailed over them, so the land became Pharaoh's.

Jub 45:25 And as for the people, he moved them to the cities from one end of the borders of Egypt to the other end of it.
Jub 45:26 Only the land of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had a portion assigned them by Pharaoh, and they ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them, wherefore they sold not their lands.
Jub 45:27 Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh. Lo, here is seed for you, and you will sow the land."
Jub 45:28 "And it will come to pass in the increase that you will give the fifth part to Pharaoh, and four parts will be your own for seed of the field, for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones."
Jub 45:29 And they said, "You have saved our lives. Let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants."
Jub 45:30 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, except the land of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh's.
Jub 45:31 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and they had possessions there, and grew and multiplied exceedingly.
Jub 45:32 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the whole age of Jacob was a hundred forty-seven years.
Jub 45:33 And the days drew near that Israel must die, and he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found grace in your sight, put, I pray you, your hand under my thigh and deal kindly and truly with me. Do not bury me, I pray you, in Egypt."
Jub 45:34 "But I will lie with my fathers, and you will carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burying place."
Jub 45:35 And he said, "I will do as you have said." And he said, "Swear to me." And he swore to him, and Israel bowed himself upon the head of the bed.
Jub 46:1 And Jacob called to his sons and said, "Gather yourselves together that I may tell you what will befall you in the last days."
Jub 46:2 "Assemble yourselves and hear, you sons of Jacob, and listen to Israel your father."
Jub 46:3 "Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power."
Jub 46:4 "Unstable as water, you will not excel, because you went up to your father's bed; then you defiled it. He went up to my couch."
Jub 46:5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers; instruments of cruelty are in their habitation.”

Jub 46:6 “O my soul, do not come into their secret; to their assembly, my honor, do not be united, for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they hamstrung oxen.”
Jub 46:7 “Cursed be their anger, for it was fi erce, and their wrath, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.”
Jub 46:8 “Judah, you are he whom your brothers will praise. Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; your father’s children will bow down before you.”
Jub 46:9 “Judah is a lion’s whelp; from the prey, my son, you have gone up. He stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who will rouse him up?”
Jub 46:10 “The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh comes, and unto him will the gathering of the people be.”
Jub 46:11 “Binding his foal to the vine and his donkey’s colt to the choice vine, he washed his garments in wine and his clothes in the blood of grapes.”
Jub 46:12 “His eyes will be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.”
Jub 46:13 “Zebulun will dwell at the haven of the sea, and he will be for a haven of ships, and his border will be to Sidon.”
Jub 46:14 “Issachar is a strong donkey crouching down between two burdens.”
Jub 46:15 “And he saw that rest was good and the land that it was pleasant, and bowed his shoulder to bear and became a servant to tribute.”
Jub 46:16 “Dan will judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.”
Jub 46:17 “Dan will be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path that bites the horse heels so that its rider will fall backward.”
Jub 46:18 “I have waited for your salvation, O Lord.”
Jub 46:19 “Gad, a troop will overcome him, but he will overcome at the last.”
Jub 46:20 “Out of Asher his bread will be fat, and he will yield royal dainties.”
Jub 46:21 “Naphtali is a hind let loose; he gives beautiful words.”
Jub 46:22 “Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well, whose branches run over the wall.”
Jub 46:23 “The archers have sorely grieved him and shot at him and hated him.”
Jub 46:24 “But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob; from there is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel.”

Jub 46:25 “Even by the Mighty One of your father, who will help you, and by the Almighty, who will bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, blessings of the breasts and of the womb.”
Jub 46:26 “The blessings of your father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills; they will be on the head of Joseph and on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.”
Jub 46:27 “Benjamin will tear as a wolf; in the morning he will devour the prey, and at night he will divide the spoil.”
Jub 46:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them and blessed them; everyone according to his blessing he blessed them.
Jub 46:29 And he charged them and said to them, “I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hethite, in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hethite for a possession of a burying place.”
Jub 46:30 “There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah.”
Jub 46:31 “The field and the cave that is there were purchased from the children of Heth.”
Jub 46:32 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed and yielded up the ghost and was gathered to his people.
Jub 46:33 And Joseph fell upon his father’s face and wept upon him and kissed him.
Jub 46:34 And Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father, and the physicians embalmed Israel.
Jub 46:35 And forty days were fulfilled for him, for so are fulfilled the days of those who are embalmed, and the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.
Jub 46:36 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, “If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying, ‘My father made me swear, saying, “Lo, I die; in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan, there will you bury me.”’”
Jub 46:37 “‘Now therefore let me go up, I pray you, and bury my father, and I will come again.’”
Jub 46:38 And Pharaoh said, “Go up and bury your father, according as he made you swear.”
Jub 46:39 And Joseph went up to bury his father, and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt.

Jub 46:40 And all the house of Joseph and his brothers and his father's house, only their little ones and their flocks and their herds they left in the land of Goshen.
Jub 46:41 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great company.
Jub 46:42 And they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation, and he made a mourning for his father seven days.
Jub 46:43 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians." Therefore the name of it was called Abel-Mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.
Jub 46:44 And his sons did to him according as he commanded them.
Jub 46:45 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought for a burying place from Ephron the Hethite, before Mamre.
Jub 46:46 And Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.
Jub 47:1 And after this Joseph and his brothers returned to Egypt, and Joseph lived in Egypt until he died.
Jub 47:2 And all his brothers died, and all that generation.
Jub 47:3 And Joseph lived one hundred and ten years, and he saw Ephraim's children of the third generation, and the children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were brought up on Joseph's knees.
Jub 47:4 And Joseph said to his brothers, "I die, but Yehowah will surely visit you and bring you out of this land to the land which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."
Jub 47:5 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, "Yehowah will surely visit you, and you will carry up my bones from here."
Jub 47:6 So Joseph died, being one hundred and ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.
Jub 47:7 And Israel multiplied exceedingly and became a great nation, and they were fruitful and increased abundantly in the land of Egypt.
Jub 47:8 And the Egyptians dealt subtly with them and afflicted them, and they built for Pharaoh strong cities, Pithom and Raamses.
Jub 47:9 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew, and the Egyptians were sore afraid of the children of Israel.
Jub 47:10 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar and in brick and in all manner of service in the field. All their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigor.

Jub 47:11 And in those days Pharaoh commanded to slay all the male children born to the Hebrews, and to keep alive all the females.
Jub 47:12 And the midwives feared Yehowah and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the male children alive.
Jub 47:13 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared Yehowah, that He made them houses.
Jub 47:14 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, “Every son that is born you will cast into the river, and every daughter you will save alive.”
Jub 47:15 And in those days Moses was born to Amram and Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, and she conceived and bore a son, and saw that he was a goodly child.
Jub 47:16 And she hid him three months, and when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein, and laid it in the reeds by the river’s brink.
Jub 47:17 And his sister stood afar off to see what would be done to him.
Jub 47:18 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river, and her maidens walked along by the river’s side. And when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her maid to fetch it.
Jub 47:19 And when she had opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him and said, “This is one of the Hebrews’ children.”
Jub 47:20 Then said his sister to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and call to you a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?”
Jub 47:21 And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Go.” And the maid went and called the child’s mother.
Jub 47:22 And Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages.” And the woman took the child and nursed him.
Jub 47:23 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses, and said, “Because I drew him out of the water.”
Jub 47:24 And in those days, when Moses had grown, he went out to his brothers and looked on their burdens, and he saw an Egyptian smiting a Hebrew, one of his brothers.
Jub 47:25 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.
Jub 47:26 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together, and he said to him that did the wrong, “Why do you smite your fellow?”
Jub 47:27 And he said, “Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?”

Jub 47:28 And Moses feared and said, “Surely this thing is known.”
Jub 47:29 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh and dwelt in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.
Jub 47:30 And the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and drew water and filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.
Jub 47:31 And the shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and helped them and watered their flock.
Jub 47:32 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, “How is it that you are come so soon today?”
Jub 47:33 And they said, “An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and also drew water enough for us and watered the flock.”
Jub 47:34 And he said to his daughters, “Where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.”
Jub 47:35 And Moses was content to dwell with the man, and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.
Jub 47:36 And she bore him a son, and he called his name Gershom, for he said, “I have been a stranger in a strange land.”
Jub 47:37 And it came to pass, in the course of those many days, that the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to Yehowah by reason of the bondage.
Jub 47:38 And Yehowah heard their groaning, and Yehowah remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.
Jub 47:39 And Yehowah looked upon the children of Israel, and Yehowah knew them.
Jub 48:1 And in the sixth year of the third week of the forty-ninth jubilee, you know that the children of Israel were in bondage in Egypt.
Jub 48:2 And Pharaoh, king of Egypt, set taskmasters over them to afflict them with heavy labor, and they built strong cities for Pharaoh—Pithom and Raamses and On, which is Heliopolis.
Jub 48:3 And they made bricks, and all the work of the building was hard and grievous, for the Egyptians had made them serve with rigor.
Jub 48:4 And when they cried unto the Lord because of their oppression, He sent one to deliver them—Moses, the son of Amram, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi—and He made Himself known to him at the bush.
Jub 48:5 And He sent him into Egypt to bring forth the children of Israel from the land of Egypt.
Jub 48:6 And He hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and his counselors, and his servants, and all his people, that they might work evil against themselves.

Jub 48:7 And He wrought mighty wonders and great plagues in the land of Egypt for Israel's sake.
Jub 48:8 And the Lord smote Egypt with great afflictions, and they cast out the children of Israel from their midst.
Jub 48:9 And He did not bring them out by the hand of an angel nor by the hand of any messenger, but by His own power He brought them out.
Jub 48:10 And He led them through the sea as through dry land, and all the peoples whom He created marveled.
Jub 48:11 And the Egyptians pursued them and were swallowed up in the midst of the sea, and none of them remained, not even one.
Jub 48:12 And the Lord brought forth His people with joy and gladness, and He gave them the cloud to overshadow them by day and the pillar of fire to give them light by night, that they might travel both by day and by night.
Jub 48:13 And He gave them manna to eat from heaven, and quail He sent to them for meat.
Jub 48:14 And they drank water from the rock, and He smote the rock and the water gushed forth, and streams overfl owed in the wilderness.
Jub 48:15 And they remembered not His works nor the great wonders that He had shown them, but hardened their hearts and rebelled against the Lord, the Mighty One.
Jub 48:16 And they tempted Him in the wilderness and provoked Him to anger in the desert.
Jub 48:17 And the Lord gave over to destruction the mighty ones of Egypt, and their deities He judged and destroyed in their presence.
Jub 48:18 And He made a great slaughter among them on account of Israel, that they might know that the Lord is Yehowah and that there is no other beside Him.
Jub 48:19 And their princes, the magicians, and all their wise men, and their counselors whom they had called together to stand before Pharaoh, were slain before the Lord's face.
Jub 48:20 For the Lord smote them with evil plagues, and they were destroyed.
Jub 48:21 And the blood of the slain was poured out into the river, and their waters were defiled.
Jub 48:22 And the frogs and gnats and lice came up and devoured them, and the flies came and afflicted them sorely.
Jub 48:23 And the hail smote their cattle and their men and all that grew in the field, and the locusts devoured what remained of their food.
Jub 48:24 And the darkness covered them three days and three nights, and every man shut up in his house was as one dead.
Jub 48:25 And the firstborn of all Egypt, both of man and beast, the Lord smote in one night, and there was a great cry throughout the land of Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

Jub 48:26 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants and all his people, and he called for Moses and Aaron, saying, “Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both you and the children of Israel; go, serve the Lord as you have said.”
Jub 48:27 “Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone, and bless me also.”
Jub 48:28 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people that they might send them out of the land in haste, for they said, “We are all dead men.”
Jub 48:29 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.
Jub 48:30 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses, and they asked of the Egyptians jewels of silver and jewels of gold and clothing.
Jub 48:31 And the Lord gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked, and they spoiled the Egyptians.
Jub 48:32 And the Lord led them forth by the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, and He divided the sea before them, and they passed through it dry, while the waters stood as a wall on their right and on their left.
Jub 48:33 And Pharaoh pursued them with all his horses and chariots and horsemen, and they went after them into the midst of the sea.
Jub 48:34 And the Lord caused the sea to return upon them, and it covered Pharaoh and all his host, so that not one of them remained alive.
Jub 48:35 And the Lord delivered Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.
Jub 48:36 And Israel saw the great work which the Lord did to the Egyptians, and the people feared the Lord and believed in Him and in His servant Moses.
Jub 48:37 And then they sang the song of deliverance, saying, “I will sing to the Lord, for He has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider has He thrown into the sea.”
Jub 48:38 “The Lord is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation; this is my Divine One, and I will praise Him, my father’s Yehowah, and I will exalt Him.”
Jub 48:39 “The Lord is a man of war; the Lord is His name. Pharaoh’s chariots and his host has He cast into the sea; his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.”
Jub 48:40 “The depths have covered them; they sank to the bottom as a stone.”

Jub 48:41 “Your right hand, O Lord, has become glorious in power; Your right hand, O Lord, has dashed the enemy in pieces.”
Jub 48:42 “In the greatness of Your majesty You have overthrown those who rose up against You; You sent forth Your wrath which consumed them as stubble.”
Jub 48:43 “And with the blast of Your nostrils the waters were gathered together, the fl oods stood upright as a heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.”
Jub 48:44 “The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust will be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand will destroy them.’”
Jub 48:45 “You did blow with Your wind; the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty waters.”
Jub 48:46 “Who is like unto You, O Lord, among the deities? Who is like You, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?”
Jub 48:47 “You stretched out Your right hand; the earth swallowed them.”
Jub 48:48 “You in Your mercy have led forth the people which You have redeemed; You have guided them in Your strength to Your holy habitation.”
Jub 48:49 “The nations will hear and be afraid; sorrow will take hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.”
Jub 48:50 “Then the chiefs of Edom will be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling will take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Canaan will melt away.”
Jub 48:51 “Fear and dread will fall upon them; by the greatness of Your arm they will be as still as a stone till Your people pass over, O Lord, till the people pass over whom You have purchased.”
Jub 48:52 “You will bring them in and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, in the place, O Lord, which You have made for Your dwelling, in the sanctuary, O Lord, which Your hands have established.”
Jub 48:53 “The Lord will reign forever and ever.”
Jub 49:1 Remember the commandment which the Lord commanded you concerning the Passover, that you should observe it in its season on the fourteenth day of the first month, that you should kill it before evening, and that they should eat it by night on the evening of the fifteenth from the time of the setting of the sun.
Jub 49:2 For on this night—the beginning of the festival and the beginning of the joy—you were eating the Passover in Egypt, when all the powers of Mastema were let loose to slay all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh to the firstborn of the captive maidservant in the mill, and to the cattle.
Jub 49:3 And this is the sign which the Lord gave to them: in every house on the lintel of which they saw the blood of a lamb of one year old, into that house they did not enter to slay, but all who were in it were safe and the destroyer passed over it, that all might know that the Lord makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.

Jub 49:4 And this sign you will have on your houses and upon your doors for a memorial, for you were obeying the word of the Lord and you were saved from the destroyer.
Jub 49:5 And every plague which the Lord brought upon the Egyptians He brought upon their deities and upon their idols.
Jub 49:6 For their deities had the power of Mastema, and they had all agreed with him to receive the Egyptians to their destruction.
Jub 49:7 And the Lord executed great judgments upon them for this reason alone, that they might be destroyed from before His face and that they might never bring His people under subjection.
Jub 49:8 Therefore remember this day all the days of your life, and observe it from year to year all the days of your life, once a year, on its day according to all its law.
Jub 49:9 And do not adjourn it from day to day or from month to month, for it is written and ordained on the heavenly tablets that you should observe it at its appointed time once a year.
Jub 49:10 And all the children of Israel should remember and observe it throughout their generations, and in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you will kill it before evening, and they will eat it by night on the evening of the fifteenth from the time of the setting of the sun.
Jub 49:11 For on this night there was joy for Israel and sorrow for Egypt.
Jub 49:12 Because on this night the Lord smote all the firstborn of Egypt and delivered His people from among them, that every firstborn of men and cattle might die; and this is the sign which you will have upon your houses: the blood of the lamb on the lintel and upon the two posts.
Jub 49:13 And you will eat the flesh roasted with fire and its head with its inwards and its feet together. You will not break a bone in it, for no bone of the children of Israel will be broken.
Jub 49:14 For this reason the Lord commanded the children of Israel to observe the Passover on the day of its appointed time, that they might not break any bone of it, for it is a festival and a day of appointed time, and there is no passing over of it from day to day, but on its day will it be observed.
Jub 49:15 And you will not eat it raw nor boiled with water, but roasted with fire, cooked and eaten in haste, at the time of the going forth from Egypt, for on that night the children of Israel went out from Egypt and crossed the Red Sea on the fifteenth day of the first month in the morning of the third day of the week.

Jub 49:16 And the Lord brought them into the wilderness of Sinai, and there they kept the Passover on the mountain of the Lord.
Jub 49:17 And from this day the Lord commanded the children of Israel to observe the Passover throughout their generations as a memorial for ever, that they might remember that on this night the Lord delivered them from all the days of affliction and from all the powers of Mastema.
Jub 49:18 And every one who eats it and drinks of it before the Lord, bringing pure hands and a clean heart, will be safe all the days of the year from all destruction and from every plague, and from those who corrupt the earth.
Jub 49:19 For it is written and ordained on the heavenly tablets regarding Israel and all those who join themselves to Israel, that they will eat the Passover of the Lord, according to His law and the commandment, to eat it before the Lord from year to year all the days of their life.
Jub 49:20 And every man who is defiled and does not come to observe it on its appointed day, to eat it before the Lord, because he is not circumcised, or is unclean, or on a journey, or has not celebrated it on its appointed day, that soul will be cut off from Israel.
Jub 49:21 For the children of Israel will come and observe it again on the day of its appointed time, and they will not eat it outside of the sanctuary of the Lord, but before the Lord in the sanctuary of the Lord, and all the people of the congregation of Israel will observe it in its appointed time.
Jub 49:22 And every man who eats it or drinks of it before the Lord will come clean, with clean hands and a pure heart, and will wash his whole body in water before he eats and before he drinks.
Jub 49:23 And when the children of Israel come into the land which they are to possess, into the land of Canaan, and set up the tabernacle of the Lord in the midst of the land in one of their tribes where the Lord will have chosen that His name should dwell, there they will come and bring their offerings before the Lord, the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, and the grain offerings and the drink offerings, and all the fat of their sacrifices.
Jub 49:24 They will eat the Passover there, and not in any of the cities of Israel besides, until the sanctuary of the Lord has been built in the midst of the land, and they will not stray from following the Lord.
Jub 49:25 And all the children of Israel will remember it and will come to observe it, and they will not neglect it from year to year, once a year, in all their generations.
Jub 49:26 And there is no limit of days, for this is ordained forever, that they should observe it, and they will not be rooted out of the land.

Jub 49:27 For the Lord said to Moses, “Observe it in its appointed time, and in every year in all your generations, once a year on its day according to all its law.”
Jub 49:28 And it is not permissible to pass over it from day to day, nor to omit any of the commandments of it, for it is an eternal ordinance, written and engraved on the heavenly tablets.
Jub 49:29 And every one who eats it or drinks of it who is not circumcised, or who eats of it before the Lord with uncleanness, or who takes of it outside of the sanctuary of the Lord, will all be destroyed together.
Jub 49:30 For Yehowah Mighty One of Israel has sanctified this day for all generations forever, that they may be eaten and observed in their appointed times once a year, on the fourteenth day of the first month, from the evening of the fifteenth day, until the evening, from the third part of the day until the third part of the night, the two portions which the Lord has appointed, on the day of the feast and of the covenant.
Jub 49:31 This work is ordained forever to the children of Israel, that they should observe it and renew it each year upon the day of its appointed time.
Jub 50:1 And after this law I made known to you the days of the Sabbaths in the desert of Sinai, which is between Elim and Sinai.
Jub 50:2 And I told you of the Sabbaths of the land on Mount Sinai, and I told you of the jubilee years in the Sabbaths of years.
Jub 50:3 But the year of this jubilee you will make holy with pure hands and with a clean heart, so that all may eat in safety and bless the Lord who created all things, to praise His name forever and ever.
Jub 50:4 And every man who does work on it, whether it be father or son, or his servant, or his maidservant, or any who belong to him, if he does any work on it, he will surely die, and he will cause all who are with him to be destroyed from the midst of the people.
Jub 50:5 The man who does any work on it, or goes on a journey, or tills his land, whether in his house or in any other place, whoever lights a fire or rides on any beast, or travels by ship on the sea, or strikes or kills anything, or catches or slaughters a beast or bird, or draws water, or carries anything in or out through his gates on the day which he makes holy, that man will die.
Jub 50:6 You will not do any work on the Sabbath day except what you have prepared for yourselves on the sixth day, so as to eat, and drink, and rest, and keep Sabbath from all work on that day, and bless the Lord your Divine One, who gave you a day of festival, a holy day, and a day of the holy kingdom for all Israel.
Jub 50:7 This day among their days is called holy, for rest and sanctification are given to them on it above all other days.

Jub 50:8 Everyone who keeps it and observes it, and does not break it upon the earth, and does not defile it, will be holy and blessed throughout all his days like us.
Jub 50:9 Declare and say to the children of Israel the law of this day, both that they should keep Sabbath on it, and that they should not forsake it in the error of their hearts, and that they should not be engaged in doing their own pleasure on it, and that they should not bring up any burden upon it which is not prepared for it, or carry anything in or out through their gates which they had not prepared for themselves on the sixth day in their dwellings.
Jub 50:10 And they will not bring in nor take out anything from house to house on that day, for it is more holy and blessed than any jubilee day of jubilees.
Jub 50:11 On this day we kept Sabbath in the heavens before it was made known to any flesh to keep Sabbath thereon on the earth.
Jub 50:12 And the Creator of all things blessed it, but He did not sanctify any people or nations to keep Sabbath thereon with the sole exception of Israel; He granted to them alone to eat and to drink and to keep Sabbath thereon upon the earth.
Jub 50:13 And the Creator of all things blessed this day which He had created for blessing and holiness and glory above all days.
Jub 50:14 This law and testimony were given to the children of Israel as a law forever unto their generations.
Jub 50:15 And to them alone, so that they might keep Sabbath thereon, and that they might not defile it, as it is ordained and written concerning them on the heavenly tablets, that they should keep Sabbath thereon.
Jub 50:16 And whoever profanes it will surely die, and whoever lies with his wife or whoever says he will do anything on it that is defiling, or whoever draws water, or carries in or out any burden through his gates, will die.
Jub 50:17 And you will command the children of Israel to observe this day, that they may keep it holy and not defile it, and not do thereon any work which is not permitted to be done on it, and not to prepare thereon anything to be eaten or drunk which they had not prepared for themselves on the sixth day.
Jub 50:18 And they will not bring in nor take out anything on that day, for it is a holy day and a blessed day above all days of jubilee; on this day we kept Sabbath in the heavens before it was made known to any flesh to keep Sabbath thereon on the earth.
Jub 50:19 And the Creator of all things blessed it, but He did not sanctify all peoples or nations to keep Sabbath thereon with the sole exception of Israel; He granted to them alone that they should eat and drink and keep Sabbath thereon upon the earth.

Jub 50:20 And the Creator of all things blessed this day which He had created for blessing and holiness and glory above all days.
Jub 50:21 This law and testimony were given to the children of Israel as a law forever unto their generations.
Jub 50:22 And whoever will do any work on it, whether of man or beast, or whoever travels or rides in a ship on the sea, or whoever strikes or kills anything, or whoever slaughters a beast or bird, or whoever catches or slays anything in the waters, or whoever fasts or makes war on the Sabbaths—
Jub 50:23 The man who does any of these things on the Sabbath will die, so that the children of Israel may keep the Sabbaths according to the commandments concerning the Sabbaths of the land, as it is written on the tablets which He gave into my hands, that I should write for you the laws of the seasons and the seasons according to the division of their days.

Book of 1st Enoch

1En 1:1 The words of the blessing of Enoch, by which he blessed the chosen and righteous, who will be present on the day of tribulation when all the wicked and godless will be removed.
1En 1:2 Enoch, a righteous man, whose eyes were opened by Yehowah, saw the vision of the Holy One in the heavens.
He spoke and said, “This is the vision shown to me concerning the sons of heaven and the earth.
1En 1:3 A vision came to me, and I heard a holy voice. The Watchers of heaven I saw in my sleep, and I was taken in a vision of the heavens. Then the Holy One spoke, and His words reached me with power.
1En 1:4 He said, ‘Enoch, righteous man, scribe of truth, go and declare to the chosen of the earth the words of blessing and peace.’”
1En 1:5 “The Eternal Yehowah will come forth from His dwelling, and the Holy and Mighty One will descend on Mount Sinai. With Him will come the hosts of heaven, and He will appear in the strength of His power.
1En 1:6 All will be afraid, and Watchers will tremble. Great fear and trembling will seize them, to the ends of the earth, and high mountains will be shaken.
1En 1:7 The hills will be leveled, the high places will fall, and the earth will be torn apart.
1En 1:8 The earth will be split, and all upon it will perish, and there will be a judgment upon all.
1En 1:9 But with the righteous, He will make peace. He will protect the chosen, and mercy will be upon them. They will all belong to Yehowah, and will prosper and be blessed.
1En 1:10 He will help them all, and light will appear to them, and He will make peace with them.
1En 1:11 Behold, He comes with ten thousands of His holy ones, to execute judgment upon all, to destroy the wicked, to convict all flesh of the deeds they have done, and of all the harsh words that sinners have spoken against Him.
1En 2:1 Observe all the works of heaven: how they do not change their paths, how the lights of heaven rise and set in order, each in its appointed time, and do not transgress their set order.
1En 2:2 Look at the earth and consider its works: how all things upon it do not change, and everything that Yehowah has made appears to you as it was from the beginning.

1En 2:3 Behold the summer and the winter: how the whole earth is full of water, and clouds, dew, and rain rest upon it.
1En 3:1 Observe and see how all the trees appear withered, how all their leaves are stripped—except for fourteen trees which are not losing their foliage, but instead retain the old foliage until the new comes after two or three years.
1En 4:1 Again, observe the days of summer: how the sun is above the earth over you. You seek shade and shelter from its heat, while the earth burns with scorching heat, and you cannot walk on the ground or touch a rock because of the heat.
1En 5:1 Observe how the trees become green when their leaves come forth, and they bear fruit. Understand and know for yourselves that the living Yehowah made all these things for you, so that you might learn His works and give thanks to Him who lives forever.
1En 5:2 Yet the deeds of sinners are not like the ways of trees. They wither and die in shame, and they will be uprooted and cast out.
1En 5:3 In the day of judgment, the sinners will be rejected, and the godless will be destroyed from the face of the earth. They will be given no mercy or place of refuge.
1En 5:4 But the righteous will have peace. They will live and find mercy and blessing. They will shine like the lights of heaven.
1En 5:5 Their names will be written in the Book of Life, and their paths will be preserved forever by the Most High.
1En 6:1 In those days, when the children of men had multiplied, beautiful and attractive daughters were born to them.
1En 6:2 And the angels, the sons of heaven, saw them and desired them. They said to one another, “Come, let us choose wives from among the daughters of men, and have children with them.”
1En 6:3 Then Semjaza, their leader, said to them, “I fear you may not agree to do this deed, and I alone will be held responsible for this great sin.”
1En 6:4 But they all answered him and said, “Let us all swear an oath, and bind ourselves by mutual curses, so that we will not turn back from this plan until we have carried it out.”
1En 6:5 Then they all swore together and bound themselves by the curse.
1En 6:6 Altogether, they were two hundred who descended in the days of Jared on the summit of Mount Hermon.
They called the mountain “Hermon” because they had sworn and bound themselves there by curse.
1En 6:7 These are the names of their leaders: Semjaza, their captain, Arakiba, Rameel, Kokabeel, Tamiel, Ramuel, Danel, Ezeqeel, Baraqijal, Asael, Armers, Batariel, Ananel, ttaqiel, Samsiel, Satarel, Turel, Jomjael, and Sariel.

1En 6:8 These were the chiefs of the two hundred angels, and all the others were under their command.
1En 7:1 All the angels took wives for themselves, and each chose one for himself. They began to go in to them and defile themselves with them. They taught them sorcery, charms, and the cutting of roots, and revealed to them plants.
1En 7:2 The women became pregnant, and they bore great giants, whose height was three hundred cubits. These giants consumed all the possessions 1En 7:3 the giants turned against mankind and devoured them.
1En 7:4 They began to sin against birds, beasts, reptiles, and fish, devouring one another's flesh and drinking the blood.
1En 7:5 Then the earth cried out against the lawless ones.
1En 8:1 Azazel taught men how to make swords, knives, shields, and breastplates, and revealed to them the metals of the earth and how to work them. He taught them how to make bracelets, ornaments, and the use of antimony, as well as the beautifying of eyelids, all kinds of precious stones, and the coloring of dyes.
1En 8:2 Wickedness increased; fornication spread; and men were led astray and corrupted in all their ways.
1En 8:3 Semjaza taught enchantments and root-cuttings. Armaros taught the resolving of enchantments. Baraqijal taught astrology. Kokabel taught the constellations. Ezeqeel taught the knowledge of the clouds. Araqiel taught the signs of the earth. Shamsiel taught the signs of the sun. Sariel taught the course of the moon.
1En 8:4 As men perished, their cries went up to heaven.
1En 9:1 Then Michael, Uriel, Raphael, and Gabriel looked down from heaven and saw the blood being spilled upon the earth and all the lawlessness that had spread.
1En 9:2 They said to one another, “The earth, made without defect, cries out with the voice of the slain, and it reaches the gates of heaven.”
1En 9:3 “Now the souls of those who have died cry out, complaining to the gates of heaven, and their groaning has risen. They cannot escape the injustice that is done to them.”
1En 9:4 Then the holy ones said to the Lord of ages, “You see what Azazel has done, how he has taught all unrighteousness on earth and revealed the eternal secrets which were kept in heaven, which men were striving to learn.”
1En 9:5 “And Semjaza, whom You have appointed over them, has led the others to defile themselves with the daughters of men, so that they have polluted themselves.”

1En 9:6 “The women have borne giants, and the whole earth is now filled with blood and wickedness.
Behold, the souls of those who have died cry out to You and bring their groaning before the gates of heaven.”
1En 9:7 “You know all things before they happen. You see these things and have not spoken to us—what will we do to them about this?”
1En 10:1 Then the Most High, the Great and Holy One, spoke. He sent Uriel to the son of Lamech and said to him:
1En 10:2 “Go to Noah and tell him in My name, ‘Hide yourself!’ and reveal to him the end that is coming. The whole earth will be destroyed, and a flood will come upon all that lives on the earth. Tell him how he may escape and his seed may be preserved for all generations.”
1En 10:3 And again the Lord said to Raphael, “Bind Azazel hand and foot and cast him into the darkness. Split open the desert in Dudael and cast him in. Throw jagged and rough stones over him and cover him with darkness. Let him remain there forever and cover his face so that he may not see light.
1En 10:4 On the day of the great judgment, he will be cast into the fire.
1En 10:5 Heal the earth which the angels have corrupted. Declare the healing of the earth so that it may be cleansed from the defilement and works of the fallen. All the sons of men will not perish by the secret things they were taught by the watchers.
1En 10:6 All the earth has been corrupted by the teaching of the works of Azazel. To him ascribe all sin.”
1En 10:7 And the Lord said to Gabriel, “Proceed against the bastards and the reprobates, against the children of fornication. Destroy the children of the watchers from among men. Lead them out and send them against one another in battle, for their days will not be long.”
1En 10:8 “They will beg you, but their fathers will not receive their requests. They hope for eternal life, but none will be granted to them, for they are corrupt.”
1En 10:9 “Destroy all the giants and the children of the watchers. Let them perish from the face of the earth.”
1En 10:10 “And cleanse the earth from all oppression, injustice, sin, and all wickedness. Let the plant of righteousness and truth appear, and it will be a blessing. Works of righteousness and truth will be planted forever with joy.”
1En 10:11 “Then all the righteous will escape and live until they beget thousands. They will live long lives in peace, and nothing will harm them. No violence will destroy them in all the days of their lives.”
1En 10:12 “And in those days, I will open the storehouses of blessing in the heavens, and they will pour down righteousness and holiness upon the earth.”

1En 10:13 “The earth will be cleansed from all defilement, and sin will be brought to an end. All the works of unrighteousness will be destroyed, and the earth will be planted with righteousness for eternity.”
1En 11:1 In those days, I will open the storehouses of blessings from heaven, and they will pour out upon the earth, and it will be full of healing and blessing.
1En 11:2 All the trees of the earth will yield fruit, and every vine will produce in abundance; each vine will yield a thousand measures, and each measure will yield a thousand jars.
1En 11:3 The earth will be cleansed from all defilement, and all unrighteousness will be removed from it.
1En 11:4 All the works of truth and peace will be planted upon it, and righteousness will be its path forever.
1En 12:1 Before these things happened, Enoch was hidden, and no one among the children of men knew where he was hidden or where he lived or what had become of him.
1En 12:2 His dwelling was with the angels, the holy ones.
1En 12:3 In those days, I, Enoch, was blessing the Lord of majesty and the King of the ages. And behold, the watchers called me—Enoch the scribe—and said to me:
1En 12:4 “Enoch, scribe of righteousness, go declare to the watchers of heaven who have left the high heaven and the holy eternal place, who have defiled themselves with women, and have done as the children of men do, taking wives and corrupting themselves with the daughters of men.”
1En 12:5 “You were once holy, spiritual, living the life of eternity, but now you have defiled yourselves with the blood of women and brought forth children through the lust of the flesh.”
1En 12:6 “You have made yourselves mortal and polluted with the blood of men, and the children you have begotten will be evil spirits on the earth.”
1En 12:7 “Say to them: ‘You will have no peace.’”
1En 13:1 Then Enoch went and said to Azazel, “You will have no peace. A severe sentence has been passed against you to bind you. You will not have rest or mercy, nor will your request be granted, because of the unrighteous deeds you have taught and the sins you have revealed to men.”
1En 13:2 Then Enoch went to declare the same to all the others. They were all filled with great fear and trembling, and they begged Enoch to write a petition for them, that he might present their prayer before the Lord of heaven.
1En 13:3 For they were no longer able to speak or lift up their eyes to heaven because of their shameful deeds for which they had been judged.

1En 13:4 Then Enoch wrote the petition for them and their requests concerning forgiveness and the length of their punishment. He traveled to the waters of Dan, south of Hermon, and fell asleep there as he read the 1En 13:5 He saw visions in his dreams and received a message of rebuke. He returned to the watchers who were gathered together weeping at the place west of Mount Hermon, named Abel-Main.
1En 13:6 He told them of the visions and the words of rebuke he had received in the dream, saying, “Your petition will not be granted for all the days of eternity. Judgment has been passed upon you, and from now on, you will not ascend into heaven again.”
1En 13:7 “You will remain bound on earth all the days of the world. But before this, you will witness the destruction of your children and weep and plead for them, yet it will not help.”
1En 14:1 This is the book of the words of righteousness and of the rebuke of the eternal watchers, as it was written by Enoch, the righteous scribe. By the command of the Holy and Great One, he spoke to the fallen generation.
1En 14:2 Enoch took up his parable and said: “There was a vision shown to me in my sleep, and I will now tell it to the sons of heaven.”
1En 14:3 “As I was sleeping, my eyes were opened, and I saw a vision of the holy ones in the heavens. And I arose to bless the Lord of righteousness and glory.”
1En 14:4 “Then I was taken up in the spirit, and I saw the heavens opened, and I beheld a great house built of crystal.”
1En 14:5 “Its walls were like the shining sun, its floor was like the stars, and its ceiling was like lightning that fl ashed with fire.”
1En 14:6 “The cherubim and seraphim guarded the threshold, and a stream of fire ran before the house.”
1En 14:7 “Inside, I saw the Great Glory siWng on a throne, clothed with brightness like the sun, with garments whiter than snow.”
1En 14:8 “No angel could enter that house, and no fl eshly being could behold the face of the Majestic One.”
1En 14:9 “As I looked, I trembled, and fear seized me. My spirit was transformed, and I fell on my face.”
1En 14:10 “Then a voice came to me saying: ‘fear not, Enoch, righteous man and scribe of truth. Come near and hear My voice.’”
1En 14:11 “Then He spoke: ‘Go and say to the watchers of heaven who have sent you to intercede for them: It is not right for you to intercede for man, but for man to intercede for you.’”
1En 14:12 “‘Why have you abandoned your high, holy place in heaven, and lain with the daughters of men, defiling yourselves and fathering giants?’” 1En 14:13 “‘You were once spiritual, immortal, and holy, but now you have become polluted, and your children are corrupted spirits upon the earth.’”

1En 14:14 “‘You will have no peace or forgiveness, and judgment has gone forth against you forever.’”
1En 14:15 “‘You will not see the heavens again until the end of days. Your names will be blotted out from all the generations of heaven. Your children will be destroyed and cast off from the face of the earth.’”
1En 15:1 Then He answered and said to me, Enoch the righteous, the scribe: “Go and speak to the watchers of heaven who have sent you to intercede for them.”
1En 15:2 “Tell them: ‘You should intercede for men, not men for you.’”
1En 15:4 “Though you were holy, spiritual, and living the eternal life, you have polluted yourselves with the blood of flesh and have begotten children with the blood of men, producing flesh and blood beings who die and perish.”
1En 15:5 “Because of this, I have given them wives so they might sow seed in them, and children might be born by them, so the works of the earth will not cease.”
1En 15:6 “But you were spiritual beings of heaven, and in heaven was your dwelling. You were not meant to be with women.”
1En 15:7 “You, spiritual beings, were not destined for fl eshly wives because you belong to heaven.”
1En 15:8 “Now, the giants who are born from your flesh and blood union will be called evil spirits on the earth, and on the earth will be their dwelling.”
1En 15:9 “Evil spirits have come out from their bodies, because they were born from men and from the holy watchers. Their beginning is of heaven, but their nature is of earth.”
1En 15:10 “These spirits will be called evil spirits on the earth, and they will dwell among men and cause destruction, trouble, corruption, and sin.”
1En 15:11 “The spirits of the giants oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth. They cause distress; they eat nothing, yet hunger and thirst and cause off enses.”
1En 15:12 “These spirits will rise against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them.”
1En 16:1 “From the day of the slaughter and destruction, the death of the giants—when the spirits have gone forth from their bodies—their flesh will perish without judgment. Thus they will be destroyed until the day of the great consummation, when the great judgment will come upon all the earth."

1En 16:2 "Until that day, the watchers will remain bound in the earth below, a prison of darkness until the time of judgment is fulfilled."
1En 16:3 "You will not have peace. You have shown men what is hidden, and you have cursed generations with your sin."
1En 16:4 "Because of you, men have learned enchantments and sorcery, the cutting of roots and the secrets of the heavens, which they were not meant to know."
1En 16:5 "You will have no peace or forgiveness of sin. As long as the world endures, your judgment will be as eternal fire."
1En 17:1 They took me to a place where the heavens are set upon a foundation of burning fire, and I saw the celestial storehouses of lightning and thunder, the deepest ends of the earth, and pillars of heavenly fire.
1En 17:2 I saw a place over which a blazing fire ran unceasingly day and night. Wherever I turned, I saw a circle of great fire, unending and terrifying.
1En 17:3 Then they took me to a high mountain, the top of which reached to the heavens. From its summit, I saw the resting places of the holy ones and the spirits of the righteous.
1En 17:4 There was a place with rivers of fire flowing downward, and everywhere, fire and brimstone raged without end.
1En 17:5 I saw a chasm filled with burning columns of fire, descending into an immeasurable depth.
1En 17:6 It was then that I asked the angel who was with me, saying, "What is this burning abyss, so full of fear and fire?"
1En 17:7 And he answered me, saying: "This place is prepared for the rebellious ones. Here will the angels who joined Satan be imprisoned forever."
1En 17:8 "This is the prison of the fallen watchers and their hosts, a place of fire and sorrow until the great day of judgment."
1En 18:1 I saw the storehouses of all the winds; I saw how He had adorned all creation and established the foundations of the earth.
1En 18:2 I saw the cornerstone of the earth and the four winds which support the earth and the firmament of the heavens.
1En 18:3 I saw how the winds stretch out the vault of heaven and have their station between heaven and earth. These are the pillars of heaven.
1En 18:4 I saw the winds that turn the sky and cause the orbit of the sun and all the stars to set. And I saw the path of the angels.
1En 18:5 I looked and saw at the ends of the earth the firmament of the heaven above. And in that place, I saw a blazing fire that went on without ceasing.

1En 18:6 I looked again and saw a deep abyss with columns of heavenly fire, and though I could not see its bottom, I knew that it was immense.
1En 18:7 Then I asked the angel who was with me, “What is this place of burning?”
1En 18:8 And he said to me, “This is the end of heaven and earth. This is where the heavens end and the foundations of the earth are laid upon it.”
1En 18:9 “Here will the stars of heaven fall and be bound for disobedience, especially those who did not rise at their appointed times.”
1En 18:10 And he showed me the prison for the stars and the host of heaven. They were bound there until the day of their judgment and final destruction.
1En 18:11 This is the law and the order of the stars: Each has its own name and course, and they do not stray from it.
1En 18:12 I saw the heavenly tablets where all their names are written, the laws governing their times and seasons according to their rule.
1En 18:13 I was shown the stars of heaven coming forth in their season, and each star followed its assigned path.
1En 19:1 Uriel said to me, “The spirits of the angels who mingled with women will stand here.
1En 19:2 Their spirits, having assumed many forms, defiled mankind and led them astray to sacrifice to demons as deities, until the great judgment when they will be judged and thrown into the abyss of fire.”
1En 19:3 “And the women also of the angels who went astray will become sirens.”
1En 19:4 And I, Enoch, alone saw the vision—the ends of all things. And no man will see as I have seen.
1En 20:1 These are the names of the holy angels who watch.
1En 20:2 Uriel, one of the holy angels, who is over the world and over Tartarus.
1En 20:3 Raphael, one of the holy angels, who is over the spirits of men.
1En 20:4 Raguel, one of the holy angels who takes vengeance on the world of the luminaries.
1En 20:5 Michael, one of the holy angels, who is set over the best part of mankind and over chaos.
1En 20:6 Saraqael, one of the holy angels, who is set over the spirits who sin in the spirit.
1En 20:7 Gabriel, one of the holy angels, who is over Paradise, the serpents, and the cherubim.
1En 20:8 Remiel, one of the holy angels, whom Yehowah set over those who rise.

1En 21:1 Then I proceeded to where things were chaotic.
1En 21:2 And I saw there something terrible: there was neither heaven above nor firmly founded earth beneath, but a chaotic and terrible place.
1En 21:3 And there I saw seven stars of heaven bound together in it, like great mountains and burning with fire.
1En 21:4 Then I said, “For what sin are they bound, and why are they cast in here?”
1En 21:5 And Uriel, one of the holy angels who was with me and led me, spoke to me and said, “Enoch, for what reason do you ask, and why are you eager for the truth?”
1En 21:6 “These are some of the stars of heaven who have transgressed the commandment of the Lord and are bound here until ten thousand years are completed—the time of their sins.”
1En 21:7 And from there I went to another place, more terrible than the former, and I saw a great fire there which burned and blazed, and the place had a clen as far as the abyss, full of great descending columns of fire.
1En 21:8 I could not see its end, nor could I look beyond it.
1En 21:9 Then I said, “How terrifying this place is, and how painful to look upon!”
1En 21:10 Then Uriel, one of the holy angels who was with me, answered me: “This place is the prison of the angels, and here they will be imprisoned forever.”
1En 22:1 From there I went to another place, and he showed me in the west a great and high mountain and a hard rock and four hollow places in it, deep and wide and very smooth. How smooth are the hollow places and deep and dark to look at.
1En 22:2 Then Raphael answered and said to me, “These hollow places have been created for this very purpose, that the spirits of the souls of the dead should assemble there—indeed, all the souls of the children of men.”
1En 22:3 “These places have been made to receive them until the day of their judgment and until their appointed time.”
1En 22:4 “Until the great judgment is executed on them, I saw the spirits of the children of men who were dead, and their voices reached heaven and lamented.”
1En 22:5 Then I asked Raphael, the angel who was with me, and said to him, “This hollow place—who is it for, and who are these voices of lamentation?”
1En 22:6 He answered me and said, “These hollow places are for the spirits of the souls of the dead, and they are separated into different compartments, and in this way the spirits of the righteous are separated.”

1En 22:7 “This is the spring of water upon which the light shines. And likewise, there is a place for sinners when they die and are buried in the earth and judgment has not been executed on them in their lifetime.”
1En 22:8 “Here their spirits will be set apart in great pain until the great day of judgment and punishment and torment for those who curse forever and retribute for their spirits.”
1En 22:9 “There He will bind them forever. Indeed, this is the place of the spirits of those who complain and give testimony, who were destroyed in the days of the sinners.”
1En 22:10 “It was for this that a judgment has been prepared, for the day of the great slaughter, for the judgment of the cursed forever, for the recompense of their spirits.”
1En 22:11 “There He will bind them forever.”
1En 22:12 “And this division has been made for the spirits of those who make their complaint and give testimony concerning their destruction, when they were slain in the days of the sinners.”
1En 22:13 “Then I blessed the Lord of glory and said, ‘Blessed be my Lord, the Lord of righteousness, who rules forever.’”
1En 23:1 From there I went to another place, towards the west, to the ends of the earth.
1En 23:2 And I saw a burning fire which ran without resting, and did not stop from its course day or night but continued regularly.
1En 23:3 And I asked, saying, “What is this that has no rest?”
1En 23:4 Then Raguel, one of the holy angels who was with me, answered me and said,
1En 23:5 “This course of fire which you have seen is the fire in the west which persecutes all the luminaries of heaven.”
1En 24:1 From there I went to another place of the earth, and he showed me a mountain of fire that blazed day and night.
1En 24:2 And I went beyond it and saw seven magnifi cent mountains all diff ering each from the other, and their stones were beautiful and glorious, all radiant and splendid in appearance.
1En 24:3 Three of them were towards the east, standing each touching the other, and three were toward the south, each adorned with beautiful stones.
1En 24:4 And the one in the middle reached the highest heaven, like the throne of the Lord, made of alabaster, and the summit of the throne was of sapphire.
1En 24:5 And I saw a flaming fire, and beyond these mountains, there was a place where the end of the earth meets the heavens.
1En 25:1 And he said to me: “Enoch, why are you afraid of this mountain and its terrors?”

1En 25:2 And I answered and said: “Because of this fearful place and the spectacle of this burning fire.”
1En 25:3 And he said to me: “This place is the end of heaven and earth; it is the prison-house for the stars and the powers of heaven.”
1En 25:4 “And the stars which roll over the fire are the ones which have transgressed the command of Yehowah before their rising, because they did not come forth at their appointed times.”
1En 25:5 “And He was angry with them and bound them till the time of the consummation of their sins in the year of mystery.”
1En 25:6 Then Uriel, one of the holy angels, who was with me, answered and said: “This tree of fragrant smell, whose leaves wither not and its fruit never fails—this is the tree of life.”
1En 25:7 “In the midst of Paradise, the Lord has prepared it for the righteous, and they will eat of it and live long on the new earth; they will not die nor suffer torment.”
1En 25:8 And I blessed the Lord of Glory, the eternal King, who has prepared such things for the righteous, and has created them and promised to give them.
1En 26:1 From there I went to the middle of the earth, and I saw a blessed and fertile place, with branches that continually sprouted and grew.
1En 26:2 There was a sacred mountain in the center, and on it, to the east, a stream flowed beneath.
1En 26:3 And toward the south, there were fragrant trees that bore sweet-smelling resin like frankincense and myrrh, and the trees did not die or lose their leaves.
1En 26:4 Around this mountain was a valley, very deep and wide, and it was filled with trees and water and sweet fragrance.
1En 26:5 Then I said, “How beautiful is this place, full of life and blessing!”
1En 26:6 And the angel said to me, “This is the place where the righteous will gather when the Lord of Ruachim appears.
1En 26:7 Here will the elect dwell, for this is the place of rest, a holy place prepared for the righteous in the latter days.”
1En 27:1 Then I saw a deep valley with burning fire, and they brought kings and the mighty and cast them into it.
1En 27:2 And there my eyes saw how they made instruments for them—iron chains of immeasurable weight.
1En 27:3 And I asked the angel of peace who was with me, saying, “For whom are these chains being prepared?”
1En 27:4 And he said to me, “These are being prepared for the hosts of Azazel, so that they may be seized and cast into the abyss of complete condemnation.”

1En 27:5 “They will cover their jaws with rough stones, as the Lord of Ruachim has commanded.”
1En 27:6 “And Michael and Gabriel, Raphael and Phanuel—they will take hold of them on that great day and cast them into the furnace of fire, that the Lord of Ruachim may take vengeance on them for their iniquity.”
1En 27:7 “For they became servants of Satan and led astray those who dwell upon the earth.”
1En 27:8 “And in those days the punishment of the Lord will go forth, and all the storehouses of water which are above the heavens and below the earth will be opened.”
1En 27:9 “And all the waters will be joined with the waters above the heavens.”
1En 27:10 “And the water that is above the heaven is male, and the water which is beneath is female.”
1En 27:11 “And they will destroy all who dwell on the earth and those who are under the ends of the heaven.”
1En 28:1 Then I went to another place, toward the east of that mountain, and I saw trees of judgment, whose fragrance was like frankincense and myrrh, and the trees were not alike.
1En 28:2 And above these, over the mountains to the east and beyond the sea, flowed a stream that never ceased, full of wisdom and holiness.
1En 28:3 And I said, “How beautiful is this place, adorned with fragrant trees and full of light and living waters!”
1En 28:4 And the angel said to me, “This place is prepared for the righteous, that they may dwell here when the Lord of Ruachim comes in glory.
1En 28:5 It is set apart for those who have endured and walked in righteousness in the days of the sinners.”
1En 28:6 “For this land will be theirs, and no unclean thing will pass through it; for the Lord has sanctified it forever.”
1En 29:1 Then I went to another place in the desert, and I approached it, and I saw a mountain of fire fl ashing day and night.
1En 29:2 And I drew near to it and saw seven magnifi cent mountains, each different from the other. Their stones were brilliant and beautiful.
1En 29:3 One was of pearl, one of healing stone, one of amethyst, one of sapphire, one of emerald, one of ruby, and one of shining gold.
1En 29:4 And all the mountains were glorious and full of the glory of the Lord.
1En 29:5 And in the midst of these, there was a great and holy mountain, and upon it, the throne of the Lord was established, clothed in righteousness and truth.
1En 29:6 And from beneath the throne came rivers of fire and living waters, dividing into four directions and filling the earth with blessing and judgment.

1En 30:1 And those seven holy ones brought me to a place of blazing fire, and I saw within it a division: a place of punishment and a place of purification.
1En 30:2 And the fire was not quenched, and the flames reached high above like a great mountain, and the noise of the fire roared like many waters.
1En 30:3 Then one of the holy ones said to me, “This is the place prepared for the rebellious stars, the angels who did not keep their first estate but fell in pride.”
1En 30:4 “Here they will remain bound until the day of the great judgment, when the Most High will pronounce His sentence upon them.”
1En 30:5 “Their names will be blotted out from among the holy, and their lot will be among those who perish in everlasting shame.”
1En 30:6 And I trembled and bowed before the Lord, saying, “Great is Your justice, O Lord, and fearful is Your power over all creation.”
1En 31:1 And I saw beautiful trees full of fragrance and whose appearance was lovely, and their form was glorious; three trees there were, beyond all I had seen in beauty.
1En 31:2 And their fragrance was sweeter than all spices; and their leaves, blossoms, and wood never withered or lost their strength.
1En 31:3 And I said, “What kind of trees are these, and why are they so full of beauty, with fragrance that fills the air?”
1En 31:4 Then the holy angel who was with me answered and said, “This is the tree of wisdom, from which your forefather, old in years, and your mother, who was before you, ate and learned wisdom.”
1En 31:5 “And their eyes were opened, and they knew that they were naked, and they were driven from the garden.”
1En 32:1 And after these fragrant trees, I was shown the mountains of the earth, the pillars of heaven, and the ends of the great earth beneath the heavens.
1En 32:2 And I came to the Garden of Righteousness, and from afar it appeared to be filled with every kind of tree that grows—fragrant, beautiful, and flourishing.
1En 32:3 And in the midst of the garden was a tree of wisdom, whose fruit was like grapes of great sweetness, and its fragrance filled the entire garden.
1En 32:4 And I said, “What a glorious tree is this! Its appearance is lovely, and its leaves, fruit, and wood never fade.”
1En 32:5 And the holy angel Raphael answered me and said, “This is the tree of wisdom, of which your forefather and your mother of old ate and learned wisdom."

1En 32:6 "And their eyes were opened, and they knew that they were naked and were driven out of the garden."
1En 33:1 And from there I advanced to the north, to the ends of the earth, and I saw great and glorious wonders.
1En 33:2 There I saw three open portals of heaven; through each of them north winds blew, and there was frost, snow, dew, and rain.
1En 33:3 And from there I went to the extremities of the earth westward and saw three more open portals of heaven, through which came dew, rain, and wind.
1En 33:4 And from there I went to the southern extremities of the earth, and I saw three open portals of the heaven from which the wind, dew, rain, and warmth proceed.
1En 33:5 And from there I went to the east and saw the three portals of heaven open to the east, each discharging wind, dew, and rain.
1En 33:6 And the angel who was with me said, "These four quarters of the world are governed by four winds, and each has three portals for the blessings and punishments of heaven."
1En 33:7 "And all that comes upon the earth from heaven enters through them."
1En 34:1 And from there I advanced farther and saw a place that burns day and night, where there are seven mountains of precious stones—three towards the east and three towards the south.
1En 34:2 And those to the east were of colored stone, and one was of pearl, and one of healing stone; and those to the south were of red stone.
1En 34:3 And the middle one reached the heaven like the throne of Yehowah, made of alabaster, and its summit was like crystal.
1En 34:4 And I saw a blazing fire, and beyond these mountains is a region where the waters never cease.
1En 34:5 And I saw a mighty river and great darkness and clouds of mist.
1En 34:6 And I said, "What is this place of fearful sights?"
1En 34:7 And the angel Uriel, who was with me, said, "This is the end of heaven and earth: it is a prison for the stars and the host of heaven."
1En 34:8 "And the stars that transgressed the command of Yehowah before their time came will be bound here until the time of their judgment arrives —until the eternal judgment is accomplished."
1En 35:1 And I saw there the seven stars like great burning mountains.
1En 35:2 And the angel said to me, "This place is the end of heaven and earth: it has become a prison for the stars and the host of heaven."
1En 35:3 "And the stars which roll over the fire—these are the ones which have transgressed the commandment of the Lord in the beginning of their rising, because they did not come out at the appointed times."

1En 35:4 "And He was angry with them and bound them until the time of the consummation of their sins in the year of mystery."
1En 36:1 And from there I went to the south, to the ends of the earth, and I saw a burning fire that never ceased, and it continued day and night.
1En 36:2 And I came to a place beyond that fire where there was neither firmament of the heaven above nor a solid earth below, but a desolate and terrible place.
1En 36:3 And there I saw seven stars of heaven bound together like great mountains burning with fire.
1En 36:4 Then I said, "For what sin are they bound, and why have they been cast here?"
1En 36:5 And Uriel, one of the holy angels who was with me, and who guides me, spoke to me and said, "Enoch, for what reason do you ask, and for what reason are you eager for the truth?"
1En 36:6 "These are among the stars of heaven which have transgressed the commandment of the Most High, and are bound here until ten thousand years are fulfilled—the time of their sins."
1En 37:1 The second vision which he saw, the vision of wisdom, which Enoch the son of Jared saw—the vision of the Holy Ones in the heavens, and the angels who walked upon flaming fire.
1En 37:2 His eyes were opened, and he saw the heavens.
1En 37:3 And this is the first parable: When the congregation of the righteous will appear, and the sinners will be judged for their sins and be driven from the face of the earth,
1En 37:4 And when the Righteous One will appear before the eyes of the righteous, whose elect works are weighed by the Lord of Ruachim,
1En 37:5 And light will appear to the righteous and the elect who dwell on the earth—where then will be the dwelling of the sinners? And where will be the resting-place of those who have denied the Lord of Ruachim? It would have been better for them not to have been born.
1En 37:6 When the secrets of the righteous are revealed, the sinners will be judged, and the godless will be driven from the presence of the righteous and the elect.
1En 37:7 And from that time, those who possess the earth will no longer be mighty and exalted. They will not be able to look at the face of the holy ones, for the light of the Lord of Ruachim will have appeared on the face of the holy, righteous, and elect.
1En 37:8 And the kings and the mighty will be destroyed, and be given into the hands of the righteous and holy.
1En 37:9 And from then on, none will seek for themselves mercy from the Lord of Ruachim, for their lives will be at an end.

1En 38:1 The first parable: When the congregation of the righteous appears, and sinners are judged for their sins and removed from the face of the earth,
1En 38:2 And when the Righteous One appears before the eyes of the righteous, whose works are weighed by the Lord of Ruachim, 1En 38:3 Then light will appear to the righteous and to the chosen, and they will dwell on the earth, and the sinners and the godless will have no place among them.
1En 38:4 For the Lord of Ruachim has shone His light upon the righteous and the holy, and they will be victorious in the name of the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 38:5 And others will see and be ashamed, because they denied the name of the Lord of Ruachim, and their spirits will be cast into eternal darkness.
1En 38:6 And they will no longer rise from that time on, for the Lord of Ruachim has cast His judgment upon them, and their days are ended.
1En 39:1 And it will come to pass in those days that the elect and holy children will descend from the high heavens, and their generation will dwell with the sons of men.
1En 39:2 Enoch received books of zeal and wrath, and books of disturbance and banishment; and mercy will not be given to them, says the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 39:3 And in that time a cloud and a whirlwind carried me away from the face of the earth, and set me at the end of the heavens.
1En 39:4 And there I saw another vision: the dwelling places of the righteous and the resting places of the holy.
1En 39:5 My eyes beheld their habitations with the angels, and with the holy ones they were at rest; their garments were white, and their faces shone like snow.
1En 39:6 And I saw the righteous who were born again from the earth, and their spirits were full of joy, and they blessed the name of the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 39:7 And in that place, I blessed the Lord of Glory, who rules forever.
1En 39:8 Then my face was changed, and I could no longer see as before, for I was filled with light and the spirit of holiness.
1En 40:1 And after that, I saw thousands of thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, a multitude beyond number who stood before the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 40:2 On the four sides of the Lord of Ruachim, I saw four presences, and I learned their names, which the angel who came with me revealed to me.

1En 40:3 He said, “This first is Michael, the merciful and long-suffering;
1En 40:4 The second is Raphael, who is over all the diseases and the wounds of the children of men;
1En 40:5 The third is Gabriel, who is over all the powers;
1En 40:6 And the fourth is Phanuel, who is set over the repentance unto hope for those who inherit eternal life.”
1En 40:7 These are the four angels of the Lord of Ruachim, and their voices I heard in those days:
1En 40:8 They blessed the Lord of Glory and lined their voices in righteousness to Him.
1En 40:9 They praised with great glory the Lord, who sits upon the throne of eternity.
1En 40:10 They blessed and glorified and exalted the name of the Lord of Ruachim forever and ever.
1En 41:1 And after that, I saw all the secrets of the heavens and how the kingdom is divided and how the deeds of men are weighed in the balance.
1En 41:2 I saw the dwelling places of the elect and the resting places of the holy.
1En 41:3 There my eyes saw the sinners being driven from the presence of the righteous and the elect.
1En 41:4 And I saw the spirits of the dead being separated by that great chasm between light and darkness, where the flame burns and the voice of weeping is heard.
1En 41:5 And there I saw the secrets of the thunder and how when it resounds above in heaven, its sound is heard.
1En 41:6 The dwelling of the lightning and the thunder and how they are assigned to each according to their orders.
1En 41:7 I saw the paths of the angels and the ends of the earth and the firmament of heaven above.
1En 42:1 Wisdom found no place where she could dwell, so her dwelling was in heaven.
1En 42:2 Wisdom went out to dwell among the children of men, but she found no dwelling place.
1En 42:3 Wisdom returned to her place and took her seat among the holy ones.
1En 42:4 And unrighteousness went forth from her chambers; those who did 1En 42:5 Wisdom will not enter into the soul of deceit, nor dwell in the body that is subject to sin.
1En 42:6 For the spirit of wisdom is holy and flows from the mouth of Yehowah, and she will not abide with the unrighteous.

1En 42:7 She is a gentle spirit, full of mercy and righteousness.
1En 42:8 She is full of understanding and of strength and teaches all things to the children of men.
1En 42:9 She cannot be found by those who love wickedness or walk in the way of sin.
1En 42:10 Therefore, wisdom returned to heaven and took her place among the angels.
1En 43:1 And I saw other lightnings and the stars of heaven, and I saw how He called them all by their names and they obeyed Him.
1En 43:2 And I saw the balance of righteousness; how it is weighed according to the light and the stars, and their names are written in the book of the Most High.
1En 43:3 And all their courses and positions are known to Him, and the number of them is great and their paths are fixed.
1En 43:4 And I saw that their order is written down by a scribe of the Most High, and by His word they do not change their paths.
1En 43:5 And the light of the sun and the moon and all the stars brings order and balance to the heavens, and all serve Him faithfully.
1En 44:1 There I saw another law regarding the shining lights: how they obey the order of the stars set in their own times and in their own names and positions.
1En 44:2 And I saw how the thunder and lightning proceed without delay according to their stations and do not transgress their order.
1En 44:3 The winds blow in their own seasons, and all the spirits of the elements fulfill the command of the Holy One.
1En 44:4 The sun and moon and stars bear witness before the Lord of Ruachim, keeping watch with all their paths in the heavens, giving praise without ceasing.
1En 45:1 And this is the second parable concerning those who deny the name of the dwelling of the Holy Ones and the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 45:2 They will not ascend to heaven nor will they come upon the earth; such will be the lot of the sinners who have denied the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 45:3 They are kept for the day of affliction and tribulation.
1En 45:4 On that day, the Elect One will sit upon the throne of glory and judge all the works of the holy above in heaven, and in the balance will be weighed their deeds.
1En 45:5 He will measure their paths according to the name of the Lord of Ruachim, and their way will be hidden from the righteous and chosen.
1En 45:6 From that time forward, those who possess the earth will not be powerful and exalted, nor will they be able to look upon the face of the holy.

1En 45:7 For the light of the Lord of Ruachim will have appeared on the face of the holy, the righteous, and the chosen, and the mighty kings will be struck with terror when they behold the Elect One siWng upon the throne of His glory.
1En 46:1 And there I saw one who had a head of days, and His head was white like wool; and with Him was another being whose face had the appearance of a man, and his face was full of graciousness like one of the holy angels.
1En 46:2 And I asked the angel who went with me and showed me all the hidden things, “Who is this, and from where is he, who goes with the Head of Days?”
1En 46:3 And he answered and said to me, “This is the Son of Man who has righteousness, with whom dwells righteousness, and who reveals all the treasures of that which is hidden, because the Lord of Ruachim has chosen him, and his lot has surpassed all before the Lord of Ruachim in everlasting uprightness.”
1En 46:4 “And this Son of Man whom you have seen will raise up kings and the mighty from their seats, and the strong from their thrones; and will loosen the reins of the strong, and break the teeth of the sinners.”
1En 46:5 “And he will cast down the kings from their thrones and their kingdoms, because they do not exalt and praise Him, nor humbly acknowledge from where the kingdom was given to them.”
1En 46:6 “And he will cast down the countenance of the strong and will fill them with shame, and darkness will be their dwelling, and worms will be their bed, and they will have no hope of rising from their beds, for they do not exalt the name of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 46:7 “And these are they who judge the stars of heaven and raise their hands against the Most High, and tread upon the earth and dwell upon it; and all their deeds manifest injustice, and their power is based on their riches.”
1En 46:8 “And their faith is in the deities which they have made with their own hands, and they deny the name of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 46:9 “And they will be driven from the houses of His congregation, and of the faithful, who depend on the name of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 47:1 And in those days the prayer of the righteous and the blood of the righteous will have ascended from the earth before the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 47:2 And in those days the holy ones who dwell above in the heavens will unite with one voice and pray and praise, give thanks, and bless the name of the Lord of Ruachim on behalf of the blood of the righteous that has been shed.
1En 47:3 And that prayer will not be in vain before the Lord of Ruachim, for justice will be done to them, and their petition will be fulfilled.

1En 47:4 And in those days I saw the Head of Days when He seated Himself upon the throne of His glory, and the books of the living were opened before Him; and all His host which is in heaven above and His counselors stood before Him.
1En 47:5 And the hearts of the holy ones were filled with joy, because the number of the righteous had been offered, and the prayer of the righteous had been heard, and the blood of the righteous had been required before the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 48:1 And in that place I saw the fountain of righteousness, which did not cease and encircled itself with many fountains of wisdom.
1En 48:2 And all the thirsty drank of them and were filled with wisdom, and their dwellings were with the righteous and holy and elect.
1En 48:3 And at that hour that Son of Man was named in the presence of the Lord of Ruachim, and his name before the Head of Days.
1En 48:4 Even before the sun and the constellations were created, before the stars of the heaven were made, His name was named before the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 48:5 He will be a staff to the righteous to lean on, that they may not fall, and He will be the light of the nations, and the hope of those who are troubled of heart.
1En 48:6 All who dwell on earth will fall down and worship before Him, and will praise and bless and celebrate with song the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 48:7 For this purpose has He been chosen and hidden before Him, before the creation of the world and forevermore.
1En 48:8 And the wisdom of the Lord of Ruachim has revealed Him to the holy and the righteous, for He has preserved the lot of the righteous, because they have hated and despised this world of unrighteousness.
1En 48:9 And they have hated all its works and ways in the name of the Lord of Ruachim: for in His name they are saved, and according to His good pleasure it has been so regarding their life.
1En 48:10 In these days will the kings of the earth and the strong who possess the land become humble, because of the works of their hands; for on the day of their anguish and trouble they will not save themselves.
1En 48:11 And I will give them into the hands of My elect: as straw in the fire and as lead in the water, so will they burn before the face of the holy, and sink before the face of the righteous, and no trace of them will be found.
1En 48:12 And on the day of their affliction there will be rest on the earth, and before them they will fall and not rise again. And there will be no one to take them with his hands and raise them, for they have denied the Lord of Ruachim and His Anointed. Blessed be the name of the Lord of Ruachim!

1En 49:1 For wisdom is poured out like water, and the glory of her flows without measure before Him forever and ever.
1En 49:2 For she is mighty in all the secrets of righteousness, and the might of her glory is great as the brightness of the sun.
1En 49:3 And the Son of Man who was concealed in righteousness has been revealed, and the Most High has given Him the portion of judgment.
1En 49:4 He will cause the holy to rise from their rest, for the day of their salvation is near.
1En 49:5 And in those days, the elect will sit upon the throne of glory and will make distinction between the righteous and the wicked according to their deeds.
1En 49:6 And the measure of faith will be revealed, and righteousness will be weighed in the balance.
1En 49:7 And their deeds will be tested, and all will be known by their works.
1En 49:8 The secrets of the hearts will be revealed in the presence of the holy, and the voices of accusation will cease.
1En 49:9 And the light of the face of the Son of Man will be seen by the elect, and the sinners will be driven away before His face.
1En 49:10 And from that hour, those who possess the earth will no longer be mighty, and they will not be able to lift up their eyes to heaven in shame.
1En 49:11 And their countenance will be darkened, and their spirits will be poured out like water.
1En 49:12 For He is appointed by the Lord of Ruachim and will be called before Him from eternity.
1En 50:1 In those days, a change will occur for the holy and the elect.
1En 50:2 The light of day will dwell over them, and glory and honor will return to the holy.
1En 50:3 On the day of affliction, evil will be heaped up over the sinners, but the righteous will be victorious in the name of the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 50:4 And He will cause others to witness that they may repent and turn from the works of their hands.
1En 50:5 But they will have no honor in His presence, because the name of the Lord of Ruachim has been invoked over them.
1En 50:6 Yet He will save the righteous in His mercy, and they will see His judgment on the wicked and praise the name of the Lord of Ruachim forever.
1En 50:7 For wisdom will be given to the elect, and they will all live and not again sin by ungodliness or pride; but they who are wise will be humble.
1En 50:8 They will not again transgress, nor will they sin all the days of their life, nor will they die by the wrath or anger of Yehowah, but they will complete the number of the days of their life.

1En 50:9 And their lives will increase in peace, and the years of their joy will be multiplied in gladness and eternal peace, all the days of their life.
1En 51:1 And in those days, the earth will give back what has been entrusted to it, and Sheol will give back what it has received, and hell will give back what it owes.
1En 51:2 And He will choose the righteous and the holy from among them, for the day has come that they should be saved.
1En 51:3 And the Elect One will sit on His throne, and all the secrets of wisdom will flow from the thoughts of His mouth, for the Lord of Ruachim has given them to Him.
1En 51:4 He will glorify and praise the Lord of Ruachim, and He will proclaim His greatness and reveal His glory in perfect wisdom.
1En 51:5 In those days, the mountains will leap like rams, and the hills will skip like lambs satisfied with milk, and all will become angels in heaven.
1En 51:6 Their faces will shine with joy, for in those days the Elect One will arise, and the earth will rejoice, and the righteous will dwell upon it, and the chosen will walk upon it.
1En 52:1 And after those days in that place, I saw the Elect One of Righteousness and tiaith, and there will be righteousness in His days, and the righteous and elect will be without number before Him forever and ever.
1En 52:2 And I saw a strong angel who carried me and showed me the hidden place where mountains of iron, copper, silver, gold, son metal, and lead were gathered together.
1En 52:3 And I asked the angel, “What is this that I have seen in secret?”
1En 52:4 And he said to me, “All these things will serve the dominion of His Anointed, that He may be powerful and glorious upon the earth.”
1En 52:5 “But none of that mountain will be used or touched until the Great Day of Judgment.”
1En 52:6 “When there will be a curse over the sinners, and the punishment of the wicked will come from the Lord of Ruachim, then will this be given for war and for spoil.”
1En 52:7 “And the righteous will be victorious in the name of the Lord of Ruachim, and He will cause others to see that they may cease from the works of their hands.”
1En 52:8 “And they will have no hope of life, but they will be overthrown by the works of their own hands, for they have denied the Lord of Ruachim and His Anointed.”
1En 53:1 And there my eyes saw a deep valley, and its mouth was open; and all those who dwell on the earth and sea and islands will bring gins and offerings and tributes to Him, yet that deep valley will never be filled.

1En 53:2 And their hands commit evil, and everything that the righteous work is destroyed by the sinners, and they build up lies and boast in their deeds.
1En 53:3 And they will be destroyed by the works of their hands, and they will be bound in chains in the place of judgment.
1En 53:4 And in that valley of judgment will the angels bring torches of fire and burn them all on that day, and their works will become a testimony against them and their destruction.
1En 53:5 And the punishment of the just will be a light to the generations of the righteous, and the mercy of the Lord of Ruachim will be upon them forever and ever.
1En 54:1 And I looked, and I turned to another part of the earth, and I saw there a deep valley with burning fire.
1En 54:2 And they brought the kings and the mighty and began to cast them into this deep valley.
1En 54:3 And there my eyes saw how they made instruments for them—iron chains of immeasurable weight.
1En 54:4 And I asked the angel of peace who went with me, saying, “For whom are these chains being prepared?”
1En 54:5 And he said to me, “These are being prepared for the hosts of Azâzêl, so they may be seized and cast into the abyss of complete condemnation; and they will cover their jaws with rough stones, as the Lord of Ruachim commanded.”
1En 54:6 And Michael and Gabriel and Raphael and Phanuel—they will seize them on that great day and cast them into the burning furnace, so that the Lord of Ruachim may avenge Himself on them for their unrighteousness, because they became subject to Satan and led astray those who dwell upon the earth.
1En 54:7 And in those days will punishment come from the Lord of Ruachim, and He will open all the chambers of waters which are above the heavens and beneath the earth.
1En 54:8 And all the waters will be joined with the waters from above the heavens—the masculine waters—and the waters beneath the earth—the feminine waters.
1En 54:9 And they will destroy all who dwell on the earth and those who live under the ends of heaven.
1En 54:10 And when they have recognized their unrighteousness, they who dragged down the stars of heaven, they will cry and lament forever.
1En 55:1 And after this, I saw another host of chariots with men riding on them, and they came on the winds from the east, from the west, and from the south.

1En 55:2 The sound of their chariots was heard, and the noise of their wheels was as the sound of thunder, and the earth shook at their coming.
1En 55:3 And I asked the angel of peace who went with me, saying, “Who are these, and where are they going?”
1En 55:4 And he said to me, “They go forth to measure the earth and to bring judgment upon those who dwell upon it, and to bless the righteous and to give rest to the faithful.”
1En 55:5 “And they will cast down the spirits of deceit and of unrighteousness and will chain them in the place of destruction.”
1En 55:6 “And they will prepare the house of the righteous for the great King, and will bring the elect ones into it.”
1En 55:7 And I saw there the Lord of Ruachim seated on the throne of His glory, and the righteous were gathered before Him.
1En 55:8 And the hearts of the holy were filled with joy, for the number of the righteous had been completed, and the prayers of the righteous had been heard, and the blood of the righteous avenged before the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 56:1 And I saw in those days how long cords were given to those angels, and they took to themselves wings and flew, and they went toward the north.
1En 56:2 And I asked the angel, saying, “Why have they taken these cords and gone off?” And he said to me, “They have gone to measure.”
1En 56:3 “These are the angels who have gone forth to prepare the chains of the righteous.”
1En 56:4 “And they will bring the kings and the mighty, and begin to cast them into the deep valley.”
1En 56:5 “And there will be a day of judgment for the elect, and for the holy ones, and it will be for the chosen ones a day of mercy and righteousness.”
1En 56:6 “And it will be a day of terror and punishment for the wicked, and they will be judged in the presence of the righteous and the holy.”
1En 56:7 “And from that time, the kings and the mighty will perish and be given into the hands of the righteous and the holy.”
1En 56:8 “And from then on, none will seek mercy for them, for their life is at an end.”
1En 57:1 And it came to pass after this that I saw another host of chariots with men riding on them, and they came on the winds from the east and from the west to the south.
1En 57:2 And the sound of the noise of their chariots was heard, and when this took place the holy ones observed it from heaven, and the columns of the earth were shaken from their foundation, and the sound was heard from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven throughout one day.

1En 57:3 And all will fall down and worship the Lord of Ruachim. This is the end of the second parable.
1En 58:1 And I began to speak the third parable concerning the righteous and the elect.
1En 58:2 Blessed are you, O righteous and elect, for glorious is your portion.
1En 58:3 The righteous will be in the light of the sun, and the elect in the light of eternal life; the days of their life will be unending, and the days of the holy without number.
1En 58:4 And they will seek the light and find righteousness with the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 58:5 There will be peace to the righteous in the name of the Eternal Lord.
1En 58:6 After this, it will be said to the holy, that they should seek in heaven the secrets of righteousness, the lot of faith.
1En 58:7 For it has become bright as the sun upon the earth, and the darkness is past.
1En 58:8 And there will be a light that never ends, and they will walk in it all their days.
1En 59:1 In those days, my eyes beheld the secrets of the lightning and the thunder, and the secrets of the winds, how they are divided to blow over the earth and above the heaven.
1En 59:2 I saw the paths of the angels, and how they are assigned weights and measures, and the gates from which they go forth.
1En 59:3 I saw how the wind presses down the weight of the atmosphere, and the divisions of the earth.
1En 59:4 I saw the fountains of the winds, and the place from which they proceed, and how they are filled with dust and fire, and driven out from the storehouses.
1En 59:5 I saw the sound of the thunder and lightning, and how the winds cause them to roar in the clouds; they flash bright with light, and are sent forth to strike according to His command.
1En 59:6 And the Ruach of the sea is strong, and its power with the angels; and he has a mighty belt of righteousness around his waist.
1En 59:7 And I asked the angel of peace who was with me, “Who are these?”
1En 59:8 And he said to me, “These are the angels of the Lord of Ruachim who are appointed to go forth with all power over the seasons and years, the skies and the earth.”
1En 60:1 In the year five hundred, in the seventh month, on the fourteenth day of the month, in the life of Enoch:

1En 60:2 In that parable I saw how a mighty quaking shook the heaven of heavens, and the host of the Most High, and the angels, a thousand thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, were greatly disturbed.
1En 60:3 And the Head of Days sat on the throne of His glory, and the angels and the righteous stood around Him.
1En 60:4 A great trembling seized me, and fear took hold of me; my loins were loosened, and my spirit fainted.
1En 60:5 Then Michael, the archangel, took hold of me and strengthened me, and said to me, “Why are you afraid, Enoch, beloved man of Yehowah?”
1En 60:6 “The everlasting Lord has sent me to show you all that is secret.”
1En 60:7 “You will see what is hidden, for the Lord has chosen you as a scribe of righteousness.”
1En 60:8 And a cloud caught me up, and the wind lined me above the earth and set me upon the edge of heaven.
1En 60:9 And there I saw the dwelling places of the holy and the resting places of the righteous.
1En 60:10 And there my eyes beheld the secrets of the lightning and thunder, and the secrets of the winds, how they are divided, and how they blow to bring blessing or judgment.
1En 60:11 And I saw the storehouses where all the winds are assembled, and the divisions of the earth, and the foundations of heaven.
1En 60:12 And the thunder would roll, and its voice would strike like flaming arrows, and the lightning would flash to the ends of the heavens.
1En 60:13 And all these were directed by the command of the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 61:1 And I heard a loud voice proclaiming from heaven, saying,
1En 61:2 “Gather together the chosen and the holy, bring them from the ends of the earth, and let them stand before the glory of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 61:3 And the angels were gathered, and the powers of heaven surrounded them, and they stood in the presence of the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 61:4 And the Elect One was in their midst.
1En 61:5 And the spirits of the righteous were glorified, and their garments became white like snow, and their faces shone like the brightness of the stars.
1En 61:6 And I saw there that the Lord of Ruachim set upon the throne of His glory, and the spirit of righteousness was poured out upon them.
1En 61:7 And the word of His mouth will destroy all the sinners and all the unrighteous, and no one will stand against Him.
1En 61:8 And all the kings and the mighty and the exalted who rule over the earth will fall down before Him on their faces and worship Him.

1En 61:9 And they will set their hopes on this Elect One, and they will not be disappointed.
1En 61:10 And the earth will rejoice, and the righteous will dwell upon it, and the elect will walk upon it in righteousness forever.
1En 62:1 And thus the Lord commanded the kings, princes, and the exalted who dwell on the earth, saying,
1En 62:2 “Open your eyes and lift up your heads, O mighty ones, and recognize the Elect One.”
1En 62:3 And the Lord of Ruachim sat upon the throne of His glory, and the spirit of righteousness was poured out upon Him, and the word of His mouth slew all the sinners, and all the unrighteous were destroyed from before His face.
1En 62:4 And there stood up in that day all the kings and the mighty and the exalted and those who hold the earth, and they will see and recognize how He sits on the throne of His glory, and righteousness is judged before Him, and no lying word is spoken before Him.
1En 62:5 Then pain will come upon them as upon a woman in travail, and one portion of them will look on the other, and they will be terrified and cast down their faces, and pain will seize them when they see that Son of Man siWng on the throne of His glory.
1En 62:6 And the kings and the mighty and all who possess the earth will praise, bless, and exalt Him who rules over all, who was hidden.
1En 62:7 For from the beginning the Son of Man was hidden, and the Most High preserved Him in the presence of His might and revealed Him to the elect.
1En 62:8 And the congregation of the elect and holy will be sown, and all the elect will stand before Him on that day.
1En 62:9 And all the kings and the mighty and the exalted and those who rule the earth will fall down before Him on their faces, and worship and set their hope upon that Son of Man, and will petition Him and supplicate for mercy at His hands.
1En 62:10 Nevertheless, the Lord of Ruachim will so press them that they will hastily go forth from His presence, and their faces will be filled with shame, and the darkness grow deeper on their faces.
1En 62:11 And He will deliver them to the angels for punishment, to execute vengeance upon them because they have oppressed His children and His elect.
1En 62:12 And they will be a spectacle for the righteous and for His elect; they will rejoice over them because the wrath of the Lord of Ruachim rests upon them, and His sword is drunk with their blood.

1En 62:13 And the righteous and elect will be saved on that day, and they will never again see the face of the sinners and unrighteous.
1En 62:14 And the Lord of Ruachim will abide over them, and with that Son of Man will they dwell, and they will eat and lie down and rise with Him forever and ever.
1En 62:15 And the righteous and elect will have risen from the earth and ceased to be downcast; they will be clothed with garments of glory, and these will be the garments of life from the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 62:16 And your garments will not wear out, and your glory will not fade before the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 63:1 In those days, the kings and the mighty and the exalted who possess the earth will beg Him who has dominion over all.
1En 63:2 And they will say, “Would that we had rest to glorify and give thanks and confess our faith before His glory!”
1En 63:3 “Now we see that our souls are full of injustice, and we are lost without hope.”
1En 63:4 “And we are thirsting for a drop of water, and there is none to quench us. All our wealth and honor has passed away like a shadow.”
1En 63:5 “We are not saved, and we have not believed in the Lord of Ruachim, nor did we glorify the name of the Lord in truth.”
1En 63:6 “Our hope rested upon the scepter of our kingdom and our own glory.”
1En 63:7 “And in the day of our suffering and tribulation, He does not save us, and we find no mercy before Him.”
1En 63:8 “We have sought the fire, and it has consumed us. We have walked in darkness instead of the light, and we have not recognized the path of righteousness.”
1En 63:9 “And the Son of Man has been hidden from our eyes in our pride and rebellion, and we have not turned from our evil deeds.”
1En 63:10 “Now our souls are in anguish, and fear has seized us because of the judgment that will come.”
1En 63:11 “He will not deliver us, for we have not known His name. Woe to us! How long will we suffer for our sins?”
1En 64:1 In those days Noah saw the earth had tilted, and its destruction was near.
1En 63:2 And he lined his voice and cried to his grandfather Enoch to show him the vision and the truth of what was coming.
1En 63:3 And Enoch replied, saying, “A great judgment has come upon the earth, and a flood of water will cover it for all the deeds done in it.”
1En 63:4 “And the heavens will be disturbed, and the firm foundations of the earth will shake.”

1En 63:5 “Because of the sin of men, the Most High will bring ruin upon the earth, and only one righteous man and his seed will be preserved.”
1En 63:6 “And the angels who have taught wickedness and led mankind astray will be bound in the depths of the earth until the day of their judgment.”
1En 63:7 “Do not be afraid, Noah, for your seed will be preserved for generations, and righteousness will again dwell upon the earth after many days.”
1En 63:8 And Enoch ceased speaking, and the vision was taken from him, but the words remained in the ears of Noah.
1En 65:1 In those days, Noah saw the earth leaning and that its destruction was near.
1En 65:2 And he arose and went to the ends of the earth and cried out to his great-grandfather Enoch.
1En 65:3 And Noah said, “Show me what is to come and what will befall the earth in the last days.”
1En 65:4 And Enoch answered Noah, saying, “A great destruction is coming upon the earth; a deluge of water will cover the whole land because of the sins of men.”
1En 65:5 “The angels who have revealed unlawful things to the sons of men will be destroyed from the earth.”
1En 65:6 “And all their off spring will perish, and there will not be left one of them upon the earth.”
1En 65:7 “But you, O Noah, My son, fear not. You are righteous before the Lord, and you will be preserved, you and your sons, and your house will be blessed forever.”
1En 65:8 “Do not depart from the presence of the Lord, and walk in uprightness, for the time is short and the judgment will come quickly upon all.”
1En 65:9 And after Enoch had spoken all these words, the Lord called him and said, “Come up here, Enoch, My scribe, and write these things for a witness to the generations to come.”
1En 66:1 And after this, he showed me the angels of punishment, who were ready to come and unleash the waters from beneath the earth to bring judgment upon the rebellious.
1En 66:2 And the Lord of Ruachim commanded the angels who were going forth, saying, “Do not lift your hands until the time when the sinners have seen My judgment.”
1En 66:3 “For the watchers who have sent you will witness it, and their children will perish, and their destruction will be forever.”
1En 66:4 “Bind them in the valleys of the earth with chains, and let their prisons be sealed until the great day of judgment.”

1En 66:5 And I saw the deep places of the earth open, and rivers of fire and water boiling with smoke and darkness.
1En 66:6 And I said, “What is this place of terror and great trembling?”
1En 66:7 And the angel who was with me said, “This place is prepared for the rebellious angels, where they will be imprisoned until the end of their judgment.”
1En 66:8 “Here will they dwell in torment, and their off spring will be no more seen among the sons of men.”
1En 67:1 In those days, the word of Yehowah came to me, and He said, “Noah, you are righteous before Me in this generation.”
1En 67:2 “Tell the Watchers who have left the high heaven and defiled themselves with the daughters of men that they will have no peace or mercy.”
1En 67:3 “Their children, the giants, will be destroyed, and their evil works will perish from the face of the earth.”
1En 67:4 “And the whole earth will be cleansed from the pollution they have caused, for My fury burns against them.”
1En 67:5 And I saw the valley where they had been bound and sealed until the great judgment, and it was filled with fire and smoke.
1En 67:6 And the water that once brought life to the valleys now boiled with heat, for the judgment of Yehowah had touched it.
1En 67:7 And I asked the angel who was with me, saying, “Why does this place burn with such fury, and for whom is this punishment prepared?”
1En 67:8 And he said to me, “This is the place prepared for the spirits of those who taught men unrighteousness and led them astray in the days of their glory.”
1En 67:9 “Here they will remain until the great judgment, when all things hidden will be revealed, and justice will be done to the righteous.”
1En 68:1 And after this, he gave me the names of the fallen angels, so that I might write them down for the generations of the earth.
1En 68:2 This is the account of the angels who fell from their heavenly station and defiled themselves with the daughters of men.
1En 68:3 Their names are: the chief of them, Semjâzâ, who led the others astray; 1En 68:4 Arakîba, Râmêêl, Kôkabîêl, Tâmîêl, Râmîêl, Dânêl, Êzêqêêl, Baraqîjâl, Asâêl, Armârôs, Bâtârêl, Anânêl, ttaqîêl, Samsâpêêl, Satarêl, Tûrêl, Jômjâêl, and Sarîêl.
1En 68:5 These are the chiefs of the two hundred angels who descended upon Mount Hermon in the days of Jared.
1En 68:6 And I wrote their names, their judgments, and the places of their binding for the generations to come.

1En 68:7 And behold, these are the ones who swore together and bound themselves by mutual curses.
1En 68:8 Their actions defiled the earth and brought about the flood, for their corruption had filled the whole world.
1En 68:9 And they will be bound under the hills of the earth until the great day of judgment, when they will be cast into the fire.
1En 68:10 This is the judgment of the fallen, and this is the record of their names for a memorial of their guilt.
1En 69:1 And after this judgment, I saw another list of those angels who rule over the curses, who bring suffering to mankind.
1En 69:2 These are the names of the fallen ones: the first is Yeqôn, who led astray the children of the holy angels and brought them down to the earth.
1En 69:3 The second is Asbêêl, who gave evil counsel to the sons of the holy angels and corrupted their ways.
1En 69:4 The third is Gâdrêêl: it was he who showed the children of men how to strike with deadly weapons and led Eve astray.
1En 69:5 The fourth is Pênêmû: he taught mankind how to write with ink and paper, and many were led into error because of it.
1En 69:6 The fifth is Kâsdejâ: he taught the children of men all the wicked strikes of spirits and demons and the smiting of embryos in the womb.
1En 69:7 Through these, many things have come upon the earth, from which the Watchers had taught the children of men.
1En 69:8 Michael, Raphael, Gabriel, Phanuel, and the other holy angels interceded and brought these accusations before the Most High.
1En 69:9 And the Most High said, “Bring judgment upon them, and bind them until the great day.”
1En 69:10 “Then they will be thrown into the abyss of fire and be imprisoned in torment forever.”
1En 69:11 And their names will be erased from the face of heaven and from the records of the righteous.
1En 69:12 This is the account of the fallen and the judgment prepared for them.
1En 70:1 And it came to pass after this that Enoch was taken up in the spirit to the highest heaven.
1En 70:2 He was carried away in the chariots of the spirit, and his name vanished from among those who dwell on the earth.
1En 70:3 From that day, I was not counted among them, for the Lord had taken me to dwell with the holy ones.
1En 70:4 He placed me between two winds, between the North and the West, where the angels take their seats of glory.

1En 70:5 And I saw the foundation of the firmament and the dwelling of the righteous ones in the light of glory.
1En 70:6 And there I remained in the presence of the Holy of Holies, and I was not of the earth but of the heavens.
1En 70:7 And blessed is he who is born in righteousness, for he will inherit the dwelling of light with the angels.
1En 71:1 And it came to pass after this that my spirit was carried off, and it ascended into the heavens.
1En 71:2 I saw the sons of the holy angels treading upon flames of fire, their garments white, and their faces shining like snow.
1En 71:3 And I saw two rivers of fire flowing without end, and a throne of glory set in the midst of the heavens.
1En 71:4 And the Great Glory sat upon it, whose robe was brighter than the sun and whiter than snow.
1En 71:5 And no angel was able to draw near, nor could any flesh behold Him—trembling seized me, and fear covered my face.
1En 71:6 And the Holy One approached me and set me upon my feet before the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 71:7 And the Lord called me by my name, and He said to me, “You are the son of man who was born for righteousness; righteousness abides in you, and the righteousness of the Head of Days will never leave you.”
1En 71:8 And He said to me, “Come near and hear My words.”
1En 71:9 And He raised me up and brought me close to the door, and I bowed before the throne of His glory.
1En 72:1 The book of the courses of the luminaries of the heaven, the relations of each, according to their classes, their dominion, and their seasons, according to their names and places of origin, and according to their months.
1En 72:2 Uriel, the holy angel who is the leader of them all, showed me everything and wrote them down for me—he also wrote their names, their laws, and their courses.
1En 72:3 The sun has six gates on the east and six on the west, from which it rises and sets in accordance with the appointed seasons and courses.
1En 72:4 The moon has a similar set of gates, though its light waxes and wanes according to a different law.
1En 72:5 The sun rises through a gate and sets through a gate—each path determines the length of day and night, changing gradually with the seasons.
1En 72:6 The first gate marks the beginning of the year, and as the sun moves through each gate, the days lengthen until the sixth, then shorten as it returns.

1En 72:7 In the east, six gates open for the sun, and it moves through them one by one with each month.
1En 72:8 The names of the months and their durations were also revealed to me: the year is exactly 364 days.
1En 72:9 And the sun and moon obey these fixed laws, never straying from the paths assigned to them.
1En 72:10 Uriel taught me the divisions of days, weeks, and months, the intercalation of days, and how they are made complete.
1En 72:11 All is in harmony, and the heavenly luminaries do not transgress their order, lest judgment come upon them.
1En 72:12 Blessed are those who observe these heavenly laws, for they will not err in reckoning the seasons and the appointed times of the Lord.
1En 73:1 And after this law I saw another law dealing with the smaller luminary, which is called the Moon.
1En 73:2 Her orbit is like the circuit of the heavens, and her chariot in which she rides is driven by the wind.
1En 73:3 Light is given to her in measures, and her rise and setting change each month in accordance with the phases of her waxing and waning.
1En 73:4 In the beginning of the month she appears from the east and becomes full on the fourteenth day.
1En 73:5 In her full light, she shines with the same radiance as the sun, but her size is smaller.
1En 73:6 When her light is fully full, she sets and begins to decrease until she disappears completely on the thirtieth day.
1En 73:7 Then she begins to rise again from the east in accordance with the set times of the appointed months.
1En 73:8 Throughout her course, she is governed by the laws of the heavens, not deviating from her fixed order.
1En 73:9 And thus I saw the courses of the Moon and the constancy of her path, how glorious she is in her obedience to the command of the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 74:1 And I saw another law for the lesser light, the Moon—how according to its course it is governed by a precise measure.
1En 74:2 And the Moon makes her journey in twenty-nine days and a half. In the first phase she rises with the Sun and becomes visible in the eastern sky.
1En 74:3 On that day, the light is received by her on one side, and she becomes a little visible.
1En 74:4 And on the second day, her light increases, and on the third, it shines one-third of the whole light.
1En 74:5 On the fourth day, she is seen in half of her light, and on the fifth day, five parts of her light appear.

1En 74:6 On the sixth day, she shines with two-thirds of her light, and on the seventh day, she becomes fully illuminated.
1En 74:7 Then she begins to decrease, returning in the same order, until on the fourteenth day her light has diminished again.
1En 74:8 Thus she completes her waxing and waning in the span of twenty-nine and a half days, in harmony with the Sun and the stars.
1En 74:9 Her orbit and her setting follow a strict pattern, and her path remains in obedience to the command of the Lord of Ruachim.
1En 74:10 This is the law and motion of the Moon which I saw, as it moves in its heavenly path ordained from the beginning.
1En 75:1 And the leaders of the orders of the luminaries are divided by the names of the holy angels who watch and guide their paths in the heavens.
1En 75:2 And I saw twelve openings in the heavens from which the sun rises and twelve in which it sets.
1En 75:3 These openings are arranged from the east to the west, according to the number of the months and the days of the year.
1En 75:4 And the Moon has likewise its own twelve gates, set apart from those of the Sun, through which it completes its circuit in its own season.
1En 75:5 And I saw the paths of the stars and the places they rise and set, according to their number and their names and their influence over the earth.
1En 75:6 And Uriel, the angel who is with me, explained everything to me and showed me all the laws for each year—how each one is governed, and the order of the times and their names.
1En 75:7 He showed me the months and their beginnings, and how the Sun and Moon work in harmony, each in its time, without deviating from the command of the Holy One.
1En 75:8 And the laws of the stars are firmly established in the heavenly tablets, and they do not stray from their paths.
1En 75:9 This is the law of the courses of the luminaries, ordained by the Lord of Glory, for the benefit of those who dwell on the earth.
1En 75:10 And they bring seasons, years, festivals, days, and months in order, according to the number appointed to them by the Eternal One.
1En 75:11 Praise be to the Lord of Ruachim, who has made all things by measure and wisdom!
1En 76:1 At the ends of the earth I saw twelve gates open to all the winds, from which the winds come and go and blow over the earth.
1En 76:2 Three of those gates were open on the face of the heavens—one to the east, one to the north, and one to the south—and likewise in the west there were three.

1En 76:3 Through each of these gates blow the winds of blessing and of punishment.
1En 76:4 From the east comes the wind of blessing and peace, and from there the righteous are preserved from destruction.
1En 76:5 From the north, come cold and dryness, and from the south, comes heat and drought.
1En 76:6 From the west come fragrance and dew, rain and seed, and from there descend the dew that brings blessing.
1En 76:7 And when the winds mix at the center of the earth, they bring storms, rain, and thunder; lightning strikes the earth from these intersections.
1En 76:8 The foundations of the earth are shaken when these winds pass over it, and the bounds of the seas rise.
1En 76:9 The winds in the firmament are balanced by the orders of the heavenly luminaries, which do not stray from their paths.
1En 76:10 And Uriel showed me the laws of these gates and how they govern the seasons and the movements of the sun and the moon.
1En 76:11 And all things upon the earth are moved according to the breathing of the winds that come from these gates.
1En 76:12 Blessed is the One who set all these in order, and who holds the winds in His fists and commands the seasons to appear in their appointed times.
1En 77:1 The first wind is called the east wind, because it is the first, and it rises from the place where the sun rises.
1En 77:2 And the second is called the south wind, because it comes from the region of the south and brings warmth and quietness.
1En 77:3 The third wind is named the west wind, for it comes from the setting of the sun and brings dew and rain.
1En 77:4 The fourth is the north wind, named for the direction of cold and darkness, and it carries with it snow and ice.
1En 77:5 And these four are the chief winds that blow upon the earth, and from them come the other eight, each having their own gates and purposes.
1En 77:6 The twelve gates of the winds are arranged across the four quarters of the earth, and from each quarter come three winds—blessing, destruction, and balance.
1En 77:7 Uriel, the holy angel, showed me all this, and he explained the names and purposes of each gate, and how each one has its time and season to open.
1En 77:8 And he said to me, “All creation is balanced by the paths of these winds, and nothing moves or stands still without their permission.”
1En 77:9 “The Most High has set their courses and watches them as He does the stars and heavenly hosts."

1En 77:10 "Blessed is He who has made all things, and by His wisdom, all things are upheld and governed."
1En 78:1 The names of the sun are as follows: the first is Oryares, and the second is Tomas.
1En 78:2 The moon has four names: Asonya, Ebla, Benase, and Erae.
1En 78:3 These are the two great luminaries: their disc is like the disc of heaven, and in size they are equal.
1En 78:4 In the chariot in which the sun rises, the wind drives it, and the sun goes down in the sky and returns by the north to reach the east and is led so that it comes to its course.
1En 78:5 It shines in the first gate of heaven for thirty-one days exactly, and it emerges by the fourth gate westward.
1En 78:6 In that season the day becomes longer than the night by the measure of a ninth part.
1En 78:7 And the day becomes twelve parts, and the night shortens to six parts.
1En 78:8 The sun returns to the east and enters the sixth gate, and it rises and sets through the sixth gate for thirty-one mornings.
1En 78:9 After this, the day grows longer, and the night becomes shorter.
1En 78:10 The sun returns to the east and enters the seventh gate and comes forth and shines for thirty-one days.
1En 78:11 It sets westward and returns to the east and enters the sixth gate and shines again for thirty days.
1En 78:12 At that time the day is equal to the night, and the length of the day is twelve parts, and of the night is twelve parts.
1En 78:13 Then the sun rises from that gate and sets in the west, and returns to the east, and rises in the fifth gate for thirty mornings, and sets in the west.
1En 78:14 In that season the day is shortened from twelve parts to eleven, and the night grows from twelve parts to thirteen.
1En 78:15 The sun returns to the east and enters the fourth gate, and shines for thirty-one days.
1En 78:16 Then the day is shortened to ten parts and the night becomes fourteen parts.
1En 78:17 The sun goes down from that gate and returns to the east, and rises in the third gate for thirty days, and sets in the west.
1En 78:18 At that time the night is longer than the day, and it becomes fifteen parts, and the day becomes nine parts.
1En 78:19 Then the sun returns to the east and enters the second gate of the east, and it returns by these thirty mornings and sets in the west at that time.

1En 78:20 The night is longer than the day, and the day is shortened to eight parts, and the night becomes sixteen parts.
1En 78:21 Then the sun returns to the east and enters the first gate for thirty days and sets in the west.
1En 78:22 At that time the night is lengthened, and it becomes seventeen parts, and the day is shortened to seven parts.
1En 79:1 And Uriel, the holy angel who is over the lights of heaven, said to me, “Behold, I have shown you all things, Enoch, and revealed to you every season and each year’s measure.”
1En 79:2 “The order of the days, the length of the months, the seasons of the years, and the positions of the sun and moon—these I have shown you for the understanding of the children of men.”
1En 79:3 “In the days of sinners the years will be shortened, and their seed will be late upon the earth and upon their fields.”
1En 79:4 “All things on the earth will be altered and will not appear in their time.”
1En 79:5 “The rain will be withheld, and the heaven will keep back its dew.”
1En 79:6 “In those times the fruits of the earth will be late, and will not grow in their season, and the fruits of the trees will be withheld in their time.”
1En 79:7 “The moon will alter her order and will not appear at her proper time.”
1En 79:8 “In those days the sun will shine more brightly than in previous days, and many stars will wander from their appointed paths, and they will appear in the sky but not in their seasons.”
1En 79:9 “The whole order of the stars will be hidden from the sinners, and the thoughts of those on the earth will err concerning them.”
1En 79:10 “And they will be changed from all their paths, and will err and take them to be deities.”
1En 79:11 “But the Most High will appear upon the earth, and with Him His host, and He will preserve the righteous.”
1En 79:12 “And behold, these are the secrets I have revealed to you, and you will write them in a book to testify against the generations of wickedness.”
1En 80:1 And in those days, the angel Uriel answered and said to me, “Behold, I have shown you all things, Enoch, and I have revealed to you the law of all the lights of heaven, each in its path, how they shine and their times according to their names and places.”
1En 80:2 “In the days of the sinners, the years will be shortened, and their seed will be late upon their land and fields; all things on the earth will change and not appear in their proper times."

1En 80:3 "The rain will be withheld, and the heavens will hold back the dew."
1En 80:4 "In those days, the fruits of the earth will delay and not grow in their seasons, and the fruits of the trees will be kept back in their time."
1En 80:5 "The moon will change its order and not appear at its proper time."
1En 80:6 "And in those days the sun will be seen and it will journey in the evening on the path of the west and will shine more brightly than it used to."
1En 80:7 "And many chiefs of the stars will transgress their appointed order and paths, and they will err before the watchers and many will err in taking them to be deities."
1En 80:8 "But judgment will come upon them, so that they will be destroyed from the face of the earth."
1En 80:9 "These are the secrets of the lights of heaven that were shown to Enoch the righteous."
1En 81:1 And he said to me, "O Enoch, observe the writing of the tablets of heaven, and read what is written there, and mark every individual detail."
1En 81:2 And I observed everything on the tablets of heaven, and I read all the words and all the deeds of the children of flesh who will be upon the earth, to the end of the generations.
1En 81:3 And I blessed the great Lord, the King of glory forever, in that He has made all the works of the world.
1En 81:4 And I praised the Lord because of His patience, and I blessed Him for the children of men.
1En 81:5 And after that I said, "Blessed is the man who dies in righteousness and goodness, concerning whom there is no book of unrighteousness written, and against whom no day of judgment will be found."
1En 81:6 And those seven holy ones brought me and set me on the earth before the door of my house, and said to me, "Declare everything to your sons and to all the household of your people, that they may live and walk in righteousness before the Lord."
1En 81:7 "And behold, Enoch, what is written in the book of the tablets of heaven. Read it and understand everything. Write down all the things you have seen and heard and explain them to your children."
1En 81:8 "And in another year you will be taken from among them, and your heart will be strengthened, for the book of righteousness and the warning of the wrath of the judgment will be written for the generations of eternity."

1En 81:9 “Blessed are all the righteous who will escape the wrath to come, and who will not be delivered into the hands of the sinners.”
1En 81:10 “Blessed are the righteous who live in those days and bring the righteous words to remembrance and understand them.”
1En 82:1 And now, my son Methuselah, all these things I recount to you and write down for you; I have revealed everything to you and have given you books concerning all these matters.
1En 82:2 Keep, my son Methuselah, the books written by your father’s hand and give them to the generations of the world.
1En 82:3 I have given wisdom to you and your children and those who will be your children, that they may give it to their children for generations—this wisdom that passes understanding.
1En 82:4 Those who understand it will not sleep, but will open their ears that they may learn this wisdom, and it will be their delight.
1En 82:5 Those who eat it will hunger for more, and those who drink it will thirst for more.
1En 82:6 Blessed are all the righteous who will walk in this way and will not sin like the sinners.
1En 82:7 In the counting of all their days, they will not be found to have strayed, for they will be remembered in heaven.
1En 82:8 And now, I have written down all the times of the years and the orders of their completion, and the details of their division, for all the days, months, feasts, weeks, and jubilees.
1En 82:9 I have revealed to you and given them to you so that you may tell the children of men, that they might do all that is required and avoid sin against the appointed times.
1En 82:10 This is the manner of the months and the feasts and the years and the jubilees.
1En 82:11 I have revealed it all to you, O Methuselah, and written it in the heavenly tablets.
1En 83:1 And now, my son Methuselah, I will show you all the visions that I saw.
1En 83:2 Two nights ago I had a vision, and I will now explain it to you.
1En 83:3 I saw in my sleep what I will tell you: a great sorrow came upon the heavens, and they fell to the earth.
1En 83:4 And I saw the earth swallowed up in a great abyss, and great mountains were torn from their places and thrown down.
1En 83:5 And high hills were leveled, and trees were uprooted and thrown into the abyss.
1En 83:6 Then a word came into my heart: “What is this vision about which I have seen such trouble?”

1En 83:7 I cried out to the Lord of glory, saying, “You know all things. You have always shown me the interpretation of all mysteries.
1En 83:8 Tell me, my Lord, what is the meaning of this vision of terror and sorrow?”
1En 83:9 The Lord sent His angel to me and said, “This is the punishment for the rulers of the earth because they have caused the land to be defiled by sin.”
1En 83:10 “Because they do not honor justice or walk in righteousness, their lands will be shaken, their foundations torn apart.”
1En 83:11 “This vision is for the generation to come—a warning to those who will live in the last days.”
1En 84:1 And I lined up my hands in righteousness and blessed the Holy and Great One.
1En 84:2 I spoke with the breath of my mouth and with the tongue of flesh, which Yehowah has made for the children of men, so that they might speak with it and understand with the heart.
1En 84:3 He has given them the power to comprehend the word, and He created me for this purpose, to bless and praise the Lord of all creation.
1En 84:4 Great is the Lord, the King of the ages! He created the world for the sake of the righteous, and established the generations of men so that they would praise His glory.
1En 84:5 Never will the righteous be cast aside, nor will their memory be lost before His face for all generations to come.
1En 84:6 The Lord knows all things, and even before they are, He has written them in His book and made them known to the righteous.
1En 84:7 The righteous will praise His name forever and ever, for His mercy is upon them, and His judgment will not delay.
1En 84:8 I have seen the days appointed for the righteous, and the vision of the Holy One, which He will reveal to the children of men.
1En 84:9 And now, my son Methuselah, I have explained all this to you, and written it down for the generations of righteousness to come.
1En 84:10 Keep this book in your heart, and pass it on to your children after you, that they may understand and bless the Lord of spirits forever.
1En 85:1 And after this, I saw another dream, and I will show it to you, my son Methuselah.
1En 85:2 And Enoch lined up his voice and said to his son, “To you I speak: hear my words and incline your ear to the vision of your father.”
1En 85:3 “Before I took your mother Edna, I saw a vision upon my bed; and behold, a bull came out of the earth, and that bull was white.
1En 85:4 And after it came forth a heifer, and with her came two young bulls, one black and the other red.

1En 85:5 And that black bull struck the red one and pursued him over the earth, and afterward, I could no longer see the red bull."
1En 85:6 "Then the black bull grew, and a heifer went with him, and I saw many off spring from them—beasts like them and following them."
1En 85:7 "And again I saw in my sleep a white bull, and it became a man and left the heifers behind."
1En 85:8 "And I saw many wild beasts and birds come and devour those cattle and bulls."
1En 85:9 "And the earth shook under them, and I was afraid and awoke from my sleep."
1En 86:1 And again I saw with my eyes as I slept, and I saw the heaven above, and behold, a star fell from heaven.
1En 86:2 And it arose and ate and pastured among those oxen.
1En 86:3 And after that I saw the large and black oxen, and behold, they all changed their stalls and pastures and their cattle, and began to live with each other.
1En 86:4 And again I saw in the vision, and looked to the heavens, and behold, many stars descended and fell from heaven to that first star, and became bulls among the oxen and pastured with them among them.
1En 86:5 And I looked at them and saw, and behold, they all let out their sexual organs like horses, and began to cover the cows of the oxen; and they all became pregnant and bore elephants, camels, and asses.
1En 86:6 And all the oxen were afraid of them and were frightened, and began to bite with their teeth and to devour and to gore with their horns.
1En 86:7 And they began also to devour those oxen; and behold, all the children of the earth began to tremble and quake before them and to flee from them.
1En 87:1 And again I saw them, and they began to gore each other and to devour each other, and the earth began to cry out.
1En 87:2 And I raised my eyes again to heaven, and I saw in the vision, and behold, there came out from heaven beings who were like white men: and four went forth from that place, and three with them.
1En 87:3 And those three who came last seized me by my hand and took me up from the generations of the earth and lined me up to a high place, and showed me a tower raised high above the earth, and all the hills were lower.
1En 87:4 And they said to me, "Remain here till you see everything that happens to those elephants and camels and asses and the stars and the oxen, and all of them."
1En 88:1 And I saw one of those four who had come forth first seize that first star that had fallen from heaven, and bind it hand and foot and cast it into an abyss; and that abyss was narrow and deep and horrible and dark.

1En 88:2 And one of them drew a sword and gave it to those elephants, camels, and asses; then they began to smite each other, and the whole earth quaked because of them.
1En 88:3 And as I was observing in the vision, lo, one of those four who had come forth stoned them from heaven, and gathered and took all the great stars whose privy members were like those of horses, and bound them all hand and foot and cast them into an abyss of the earth.
1En 89:1 And one of those four went to a white bull and instructed it, and it began to become a man and built for itself a large vessel and dwelt thereon, and three bulls dwelt with it in that vessel and were covered in it.
1En 89:2 And again I raised my eyes and saw the heavens above, and lo, there came forth stars in great multitudes, and they were all falling from the heavens. And they began to consume one another, and many of them were swallowed up.
1En 89:3 And again I raised my eyes and saw, and lo, a great beast rose up out of the earth and began to make war against the bulls and devour them.
1En 89:4 And I looked and saw the white bull, which had become a man, and he departed from before the beast.
1En 89:5 And that beast sought it and did not find it, and a loud cry was raised over the bulls, and they were terrified and fled.
1En 89:6 And again I looked, and lo, they began to till the land and built themselves a tower, and it was lony.
1En 89:7 And the Lord of the sheep came down and saw that tower, and they were all afraid and fled from it.
1En 89:8 And a lion emerged among those sheep and began to devour them and to tread them down.
1En 89:9 And again I saw that they forsook that house and their tower and began to wander and go astray.
1En 89:10 And I saw that the Lord of the sheep brought a new house, larger and lonier than the first, and set it up in the place of the first, which had been cast down. All its pillars were new, and its grandeur was greater than the first, the old one which He had taken away. And all the sheep were within it.
1En 90:1 And I looked until the time that thirty-five shepherds had undertaken the pasturing (of the sheep) and completed their periods as individually assigned.
1En 90:2 And then sheep entered with the shepherds and began to build all that they had seen and to bring before them everything.
1En 90:3 And I saw in this vision how the shepherds pastured for twelve hours, and behold, three of those sheep returned, entered and began to build all that they had seen, and everything they had begun to build was finished.

1En 90:4 And I saw those sheep again as they fell asleep, and I saw the twelve shepherds pasturing.
1En 90:5 And behold, three of the sheep came forward from the twelve sheep that were standing before the shepherds.
1En 90:6 And they entered and began building all that they had seen, and everything they had begun to build was completed.
1En 90:7 And I saw in this vision all the birds of heaven coming, the eagles, the vultures, the kites, the ravens.
1En 90:8 But the eagles led all the birds; and they began to devour those sheep and to pick out their eyes and to devour their flesh.
1En 90:9 And the sheep cried out because their flesh was being devoured by the birds.
1En 90:10 And I looked and lamented in my sleep over that shepherd who pastured the sheep.
1En 90:11 And I saw until the sheep were devoured by the dogs, the eagles, and the kites, and they left neither flesh nor skin nor sinew remaining.
1En 90:12 And I kept watching until the body of the sheep was shattered and the bones stood out.
1En 90:13 And I saw until twenty-three shepherds had pastured the sheep and completed, each in his time, fifty-eight periods.
1En 90:14 But behold, small lambs were born of those white sheep, and they began to open their eyes and to see, and to cry to the sheep.
1En 90:15 And the sheep did not cry out to them nor listen to what they said, but were very exceedingly deaf, and their eyes were extremely blinded.
1En 90:16 And I saw in the vision how the ravens flew upon those lambs, took one of those lambs, and dashed the sheep in pieces and devoured them.
1En 90:17 And I watched until horns grew upon those lambs, and the ravens cast down their horns.
1En 90:18 And I watched until a great sword was given to the sheep, and the sheep proceeded against all the beasts of the field to kill them.
1En 90:19 And all the beasts and the birds of the heaven fled from before them.
1En 90:20 And I watched until a throne was built in a pleasant land, and the Lord of the sheep sat on it.
1En 90:21 And He took all the sealed books and opened those books before the Lord of the sheep.
1En 90:22 And the Lord called the first seven white ones and commanded that they bring before Him the beginning of the first star that led the sheep astray.

1En 90:23 And they took him and brought him to the abyss, and He condemned him and cast him into the abyss, full of fire, flaming and full of pillars of fire.
1En 90:24 And that star fell into the abyss and was sealed in the midst of the abyss.
1En 90:25 And all the righteous saw and feared and they rejoiced because they hoped and waited for Him.
1En 91:1 “And now, my son Methuselah, call to me all your brothers and gather to me all the children of your mother, for the word calls me, and the spirit is poured upon me that I may show you everything that will come upon you forever.”
1En 91:2 Then Methuselah went and summoned all his brothers and assembled his relatives.
1En 91:3 And Enoch spoke to all of them, speaking to his sons: “Hear, my children, all the words of your father, and listen with your ears the words of my mouth, for I exhort you and say to you, beloved ones, love uprightness and walk in it.”
1En 91:4 “Do not draw near to uprightness with a double heart, and do not associate with those who have a double heart, but walk in righteousness, my children, and it will lead you in good paths.”
1En 91:5 “And righteousness will be your companion, for I know that the state of violence will grow on the earth, and great punishment will be completed upon the earth, and all iniquity will come to an end.”
1En 91:6 “Yes, it will be cut off from its roots, and its whole structure will be destroyed. Iniquity will again be complete on the earth, and all the deeds of sin, and unrighteousness, and blasphemy, and violence, and all deeds of apostasy will be renewed.”
1En 91:7 “When sin is brought upon the earth, and all deeds of unrighteousness and of violence and transgression will prevail, and when apostasy and iniquity increase, a great punishment will come from heaven upon all the sinners.”
1En 91:8 “And the holy Lord will come forth with wrath and punishment to execute judgment upon the earth. In those days violence will be cut off from its roots, and the roots of unrighteousness together with deceit will be destroyed from under heaven.”
1En 91:9 “And all the idols of the nations will be given away, and their temples will be burned with fire, and they will remove them from the whole earth. And they will be cast into the judgment of fire and will perish in wrath and in grievous judgment forever.”
1En 91:10 “And the righteous will arise from sleep and walk in the paths of righteousness, and all their paths and conversation will be in eternal uprightness with grace and mercy will the righteous be saved, and the chosen will bring light to all the ends of the world."

1En 92:1 "This is the book written by Enoch the scribe—a record of wisdom and instruction, praised by all who live on the earth, for all generations."
1En 92:2 "To those who live in the last days, who walk in righteousness and peace: do not be led astray by the ways of the wicked, but remain steadfast in righteousness, for the day of judgment draws near."
1En 92:3 "May the Lord bless the righteous with wisdom and a heart of understanding, that they may stand before His glory forever."
1En 92:4 "And now, my children, I declare to you the ways of righteousness and the paths of violence, for I have seen them both in the visions that were shown to me."
1En 92:5 "I will explain how the generations of man will unfold, divided into seven parts, and what will befall them in each."
1En 92:6 "In the first week, righteousness will be planted, and it will endure forever."
1En 92:7 "In the second week, great wickedness will rise, and deceit will increase; but at its end, one will be chosen as the plant of righteousness for all eternity."
1En 92:8 "In the third week, judgment will come upon mankind, and a righteous law will be revealed for all generations."
1En 92:9 "In the fourth week, visions will be shown to the holy and righteous, and a law will be established as a testimony for all generations; and a tower will be built in the name of the Lord forever."
1En 92:10 "In the fifth week, houses of glory and dominion will be raised up, and sin will increase upon the earth; but at its end, the righteous will be chosen as the root of an everlasting plant of righteousness."
1En 92:11 "In the sixth week, all those who dwell on the earth will become blind, and their hearts will forget wisdom; and at its close, a man will ascend, and the house of dominion will be consumed by fire, and the chosen root will be scattered among the nations."
1En 92:12 "In the seventh week, a rebellious generation will arise, and many will be their deeds; but at its end, the righteous will be chosen as witnesses of truth, and a law will be given for all future generations."
1En 92:13 "And after that will come the eighth week, the week of righteousness, in which a sword will be given to the righteous judgment, that they may execute justice upon sinners."
1En 92:14 "At the end of it, the sinners will be delivered into the hands of the righteous, who will cast them into the fire; and the house of dominion will be rebuilt in glory and endure forever."

1En 92:15 “In the ninth week, the righteous judgment will be revealed to the whole earth, and all the works of the ungodly will vanish from beneath the heavens, and the world will be written for destruction.”
1En 92:16 “After this, in the tenth week, there will be an eternal judgment, in which there will be no unrighteousness.”
1En 92:17 “The former heaven will pass away, and a new heaven will appear; and all the powers of heaven will shine with sevenfold light forever.”
1En 92:18 “Then will there be many weeks without number, in everlasting righteousness and goodness, and sin will never again be mentioned for all eternity.”
1En 93:1 “And after that, Enoch began to recount from the books and said, ‘I was born the seventh in the first week, while judgment and righteousness still endured.’”
1En 93:2 “And after me there will arise in the second week great wickedness, and deceit will grow; and in it there will be the first end. But in it a man will be saved, and after it is ended, unrighteousness will grow again, and a law will be made for sinners.”
1En 93:3 “And after this, in the third week, at its end, a man will be chosen as the plant of righteous judgment, and his posterity will become a plant of righteousness forever.”
1En 93:4 “And in the fourth week, at its end, visions of the holy and righteous will be seen, and a law will be made for all generations, and a dwelling will be built for the Great King in glory forever.”
1En 93:5 “And in the fifth week, at its end, a house of glory and dominion will be built forever; and sin will increase upon the earth, and the righteous will be chosen from among them, and the wisdom of the righteous will be revealed to the whole world.”
1En 93:6 “And after this, in the sixth week, all who live in it will be blinded, and all their hearts will forget wisdom; and a man will ascend. At its end, the house of dominion will be burned with fire, and the whole race of the chosen root will be scattered.”
1En 93:7 “And after that, in the seventh week, there will arise an apostate generation, and many will do evil; but the righteous will be chosen from among them and receive sevenfold instruction concerning all His creation.”
1En 93:8 “And after that, there will be another, the eighth week, the week of righteousness. A sword will be given to the righteous to execute righteous judgment upon the sinners.”
1En 93:9 “At its end, the house of dominion will be built in glory forever, and the righteous will have their dwelling therein, and their works will be revealed, and the memory of the righteous will not perish before the Lord of Ruachim forever.”

1En 93:10 “And after this, in the ninth week, the righteous judgment will be revealed to the whole world, and all the works of the wicked will vanish from the earth; and the world will be written for destruction, and all mankind will look to the path of uprightness.”
1En 93:11 “And after this, in the tenth week, in the seventh part, there will be the great eternal judgment, in which He will execute vengeance among the angels.”
1En 93:12 “And the first heaven will depart and pass away, and a new heaven will appear, and all the powers of the heavens will give sevenfold light forever.”
1En 93:13 “And after this, there will be many weeks without number in goodness and righteousness, and sin will no longer be mentioned forever.”
1En 94:1 “And now I say to you, my sons, love righteousness and walk in it; for the paths of righteousness are worthy of acceptance, but the paths of unrighteousness will suddenly be destroyed and vanish.”
1En 94:2 “To the men of my generation I say, walk in righteousness and do not walk in the paths of violence, for they will suddenly be destroyed and will not be found.”
1En 94:3 “The roots of sin are cut off in the days of violence, and the seed of unrighteousness will perish from the earth, and those who plow wickedness will not sow it again.”
1En 94:4 “Fear not, you who work righteousness, when sinners grow strong and prosper in their ways; do not be partners with them, but keep away from their oppression.”
1En 94:5 “For you will be delivered, and the yoke of their burden will be broken from your neck.”
1En 94:6 “Woe to those who build oppression and deceit and lay the foundation of sin, for they will suddenly be overthrown and will have no peace.”
1En 94:7 “Woe to those who build their houses with sin, for all their foundations will be torn down, and by the sword they will fall; and those who acquire gold and silver will quickly perish in the judgment.”
1En 94:8 “Woe to you, rich, for you have trusted in your riches, and from your riches you will be removed, because you did not remember the Most High in the days of your wealth.”
1En 94:9 “You have committed blasphemy and unrighteousness and are ready for the day of the slaughter and the darkness and the great judgment.”
1En 94:10 “For all those who acquire silver and gold unjustly will suddenly perish in the judgment.”

1En 94:11 “Blessed are all the righteous, blessed are those who walk in the paths of righteousness and sin not as sinners in the reckoning of all their days.”
1En 94:12 “In the time when they die, they will be gathered into peace, and there will be no fear before them in the day of judgment.”
1En 94:13 “But sinners will be delivered into the hands of the accursed; their children will be destroyed before their eyes, and they will be driven from their habitations.”
1En 94:14 “Violence will destroy the sinners from the face of the earth, and those who practice deceit and blasphemy will perish by the sword.”
1En 95:1 “Woe to you who practice unrighteousness and deceit and blasphemy; it will be a memorial against you for evil.”
1En 95:2 “Woe to you, mighty men, who oppress the righteous; for the day of your destruction is coming.”
1En 95:3 “On that day many will be delivered into the hands of the righteous and the holy, and your names will be a curse forever.”
1En 95:4 “The righteous will awake and curse you, you sinners, in the name of the Lord of Ruachim; and your works will be destroyed.”
1En 95:5 “Woe to you who rejoice in the distress of the righteous, for graves will be prepared for you.”
1En 95:6 “Woe to you who write down lying and unjust words, for they record their falsehoods to lead men astray; for they will have no peace, but will perish in everlasting condemnation.”
1En 95:7 “Woe to those who build oppression and establish deceit upon the earth, for they will suddenly fall and be destroyed; and their memorial will perish from before the face of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 95:8 “Woe to you who despise the words of the righteous, for you will have no hope of life.”
1En 95:9 “Woe to you who take delight in the works of your hands in pride and arrogance, for you will be cast down in disgrace.”
1En 95:10 “For you have set your hearts upon idols and upon the works of your own hands, and you will perish together with them.”
1En 95:11 “And in the day of the great judgment, the idols of the nations will be broken in pieces, and their temples will be burned with fire, and their priests will be cast into the flames.”
1En 95:12 “Blessed are all the righteous who walk in the name of the Lord of Ruachim forever, for they will be saved from all violence, and they will see the end of the sinners.”
1En 96:1 “Be hopeful, you righteous, for suddenly the sinners will perish before you, and you will have dominion over them according to your desire.”

1En 96:2 “In the day of the tribulation of the sinners, your children will rise and be exalted like eagles; your nests will be lined above the clouds, and you will be seen like the stars, shining with joy.”
1En 96:3 “The portion of the righteous will be greater than that of the sinners, for the sinners will be given into your hands, and you will tread upon them as they walk.”
1En 96:4 “Be not afraid, you righteous, when you see the sinners growing strong and flourishing in their ways; they will be delivered into your hands, and their roots will be cut off, and their remembrance will perish from under heaven.”
1En 96:5 “Rejoice, you righteous, for the sinners will perish before you, and you will inherit the earth.”
1En 96:6 “All their wealth and splendor will vanish like vapor, and they will have no place to hide from the face of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 96:7 “Woe to you, sinners, when you afflict the righteous in the day of darkness, for you will be delivered up for destruction and burned in the fire of judgment.”
1En 96:8 “Know that from now on the Most High will remember you for evil, and all your joy and glory will be turned into shame, and your strength will pass away like smoke.”
1En 96:9 “Woe to you, sinners, for your riches make you appear righteous, but your hearts convict you of guilt; and this remembrance of your sin will rise up against you as a witness in the day of judgment.”
1En 96:10 “Woe to you who devour the inheritance of the poor, and your houses are filled with oppression and deceit; for your possessions will be taken from you, and you will have no rest.”
1En 96:11 “Woe to you who drink water from every fountain, for suddenly you will be consumed and wither away, leaving no trace of your greatness.”
1En 96:12 “Woe to you who act in pride and deceit and honor lying words; for you will be consumed by the flame that does not sleep, and there will be no rest for your souls forever.”
1En 96:13 “Be hopeful, you righteous, for you will see the end of the sinners, and the Most High will give you light and life, and you will dwell with the angels in peace forever.”
1En 97:1 “And I, Enoch, lined up my eyes and saw a vision of the holy and righteous, and I blessed the Lord of Ruachim who lives forever.”
1En 97:2 “And He showed me the storehouses of the winds, of the thunder, and of the rain, and the paths of the stars, and the storehouses of the sun and moon, and how all things go forth according to the word of the Lord.”
1En 97:3 “And I saw the righteous being delivered, and the sinners being destroyed according to the judgment of the Lord of Ruachim.”

1En 97:4 “And I saw the spirits of the sinners crying out, and their works vanished from the face of the earth.”
1En 97:5 “And I saw the righteous shine like the stars and dwell with the Lord of Ruachim forever.”
1En 97:6 “And I saw the Elect One stand in glory and the children of the earth walk in His light, and all their paths be established in righteousness.”
1En 97:7 “And I saw that the sinners will perish, and the oppressors be brought low; and there will be no escape from the hand of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 97:8 “And the earth will be cleansed, and the heavens will rejoice, and all the works of Yehowah will be established in order.”
1En 97:9 “And the righteous will inherit the earth, and the holy will be glorified, and their joy will be everlasting before the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 97:10 “And all generations will see the works of the Lord, and they will bless His name and give thanks to the Most High forever.”
1En 98:1 “And I, Enoch, saw the angels of punishment going forth, and they held scourges of iron and chains of bronze, prepared for the sinners.”
1En 98:2 “And I asked the angel who was with me, ‘To whom are these going, who hold the scourges?’”
1En 98:3 “And he said, ‘They are sent to those who have sinned against the Lord of Ruachim, that they may be punished according to their deeds.’”
1En 98:4 “And behold, they will be bound and cast into the abyss of fire and torment, and they will remain there forever without reprieve.”
1En 98:5 “And whosoever is condemned and destroyed will be bound together with them to the end of all generations.”
1En 98:6 “And all spirits of the reprobate and of the children of the Watchers will be destroyed, because they have corrupted mankind.”
1En 98:7 “Destroy all iniquity from the face of the earth, and let every evil work come to an end; and the plant of righteousness and truth will appear.”
1En 98:8 “And it will be established as a blessing, and the works of righteousness and truth will be planted with joy and certainty forever.”
1En 98:9 “Then all the righteous will escape, and they will live and be multiplied, and all their days will be completed in peace.”
1En 98:10 “And the whole earth will be tilled in righteousness, planted with trees, and full of blessing.”
1En 98:11 “And all desirable trees will be planted upon it, and they will plant vines, and the vine will yield abundant wine; and each seed will bear a thousandfold, and each measure of olives will yield ten presses of oil.”
1En 98:12 “And the earth will be cleansed from oppression, from all unrighteousness, from all sin, from godlessness, and from all uncleanness wrought upon it.”

1En 98:13 “And all the children of men will become righteous, all nations will offer adoration, praise, and worship, and all will serve the Lord.”
1En 98:14 “And the earth will be cleansed from all defilement, from all sin, from all punishment, and from all torment; and I will never again send judgment upon it from generation to generation forever.”
1En 99:1 “And I, Enoch, lined up my eyes and saw the ends of the earth, and I beheld all the heavens and the angels of punishment prepared for the sinners.”
1En 99:2 “And I asked the angel who was with me, ‘To whom are these sent, who hold the scourges and chains?’”
1En 99:3 “And he said, ‘They are sent against all those who have sinned against the Lord of Ruachim, that they may be punished according to their deeds.’”
1En 99:4 “And I saw the sinners bound, and they were cast into the deep abyss of fire and torment, and they will remain there without reprieve forever.”
1En 99:5 “And the spirits of the reprobate will cry out, but their cries will not be heard, for they have sinned grievously against the Lord.”
1En 99:6 “And the elect will be delivered, and the children of the righteous will rise and shine like the stars, and they will dwell before the Lord of Ruachim forever.”
1En 99:7 “And the sinners will perish; their strength and pride will vanish, and they will be cut off from the face of the earth.”
1En 99:8 “And the Lord of Ruachim will execute judgment, and all oppression, iniquity, and deceit will be removed from the earth.”
1En 99:9 “And the earth will be cleansed from all sin and defilement, and the righteous will inherit it, and the holy will dwell upon it in peace and blessing.”
1En 99:10 “And the children of men will offer praise, and all nations will worship before the Lord of Ruachim; and the earth will be purified from all unrighteousness and uncleanness forever.”
1En 100:1 “And in those days the angels will descend into the secret places, and they will gather together all who have brought sin and unrighteousness, and they will bring them before judgment.”
1En 100:2 “And the Lord of Ruachim will rise upon them, and a great cloud will cover them, and the angels of punishment will bring upon them the punishment that has been prepared for them.”
1En 100:3 “The Lord of Ruachim will cause His indignation and His wrath to rest upon them, and the sword of His wrath will destroy them before Him.”
1En 100:4 “And the righteous and the holy will arise from the earth and will no longer lie down in the dust; their faces will shine with joy because the Lord of Ruachim has given them light."

1En 100:5 "In those days the earth will give back that which has been entrusted to it, and Sheol will give back that which it has received, and destruction will give back that which it owes."
1En 100:6 "And He will choose the righteous and holy from among them, for the day of their salvation has come."
1En 100:7 "The Lord of Ruachim will cause a light to appear upon the face of the holy and righteous, and they will live and not turn from Him forever."
1En 100:8 "And all the sinners will perish before the Lord of Ruachim, and they will be driven from the face of the earth."
1En 100:9 "From that day forth I will cause the holy angels to dwell with men, and the earth will be cleansed from corruption, from sin, and from punishment."
1En 100:10 "Then the righteous will rejoice, and the elect will dwell upon it, and they will multiply, and the earth will be blessed, and all the righteous will be gathered into it."
1En 100:1 "They will plant vines, and they will drink the wine, and it will bring them gladness; and the work of their hands will be blessed."
1En 100:12 "The righteous will rejoice in the Lord of Ruachim, and they will live before Him forever and ever."
1En 100:13 "Before the righteous there will be no more fear, for the Lord of Ruachim will dwell among them, and His light will be upon them."
1En 100:14 "And it will come to pass that the sinners will be destroyed from before the face of the Lord of Ruachim, and the righteous will be delivered and will live in joy and peace forever."
1En 101:1 "Observe the heavens, you children of men, and see how all the works of the Most High are steadfast before Him, and how they do not change according to your actions."
1En 101:2 "See how the lights of heaven do not alter their courses, nor the paths which He appointed for them from the day they were created."
1En 101:3 "They neither weary nor cease in their appointed order; but you have not been steadfast, nor have you obeyed the commandments of the Lord."
1En 101:4 "You have turned away and spoken proud and hard words with your impure mouths against His greatness."
1En 101:5 "O hard-hearted ones, you will find no peace!"
1En 101:6 "Therefore, you will curse your days, and the years of your life will perish; the years of your destruction will be multiplied in eternal cursing, and you will find no mercy."
1En 101:7 "Do you not see the sailors who go down into the sea and guide their ships over its waters? They have no peace upon it, yet it yields them profit.”

1En 101:8 “Is not the sea made by the hand of the Most High, just as His dry land, that it may bring forth fruit for men? Yet you, hard-hearted sinners, have no peace.”
1En 101:9 “Do not the waters and all the winds and all their changing movements work according to His word? Do they not restrain themselves at His command?”
1En 101:10 “Has He not set the foundations of the earth and all its laws? Will you not understand, you sinners, that all His works are faithful, and that judgment is before you?”
1En 101:11 “But you love vanity and take no delight in the words of the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 101:12 “Therefore, you will weep and lament because of the works of your hands.”
1En 101:13 “Woe to you, for all your deeds are cursed; the strength of your hands will be cut off, and you will have no rest.”
1En 101:14 “Do you not see the works of the heavens and how they obey Him, and the stars which rise and set in their appointed times and do not transgress His order?”
1En 101:15 “But you—you have not done so, nor have you kept His law, but have turned away and spoken proud and hard words with your impure mouths against His majesty.”
1En 101:16 “Therefore, you will have no peace.”
1En 102:1 “Now, therefore, I swear to you, you righteous, by the glory of the Great One and by His majesty and His kingdom and by His greatness, that I understand this mystery.”
1En 102:2 “I have read the tablets of heaven and have seen the writing of the holy ones, and I have found written and sealed within them that all goodness, joy, and glory have been prepared for you, and they will remain forever and ever.”
1En 102:3 “But for you, sinners, curses and darkness and destruction are prepared.”
1En 102:4 “And now you will understand how all your works are accounted, and how your deeds and the deeds of your ancestors are recorded before the Lord of Ruachim.”
1En 102:5 “Therefore, do not rejoice in evil, and do not be proud of your wickedness, for you will be held accountable and your days will be shortened, and your name will vanish from the earth.”
1En 102:6 “But you, the righteous, will be remembered, and your works will shine like the sun; your wisdom and understanding will endure forever.”
1En 102:7 “The sinners will perish and be destroyed from the earth, and their memory will vanish; and their spirits will be delivered into the hands of the angels of punishment."

1En 102:8 "And all the works of the unrighteous will be revealed and laid bare before the Most High; they will find no refuge or escape."
1En 102:9 "But the righteous will dwell in light and glory, and their joy will be everlasting before the Lord of Ruachim."
1En 102:10 "And the righteous will arise from sleep and walk in the paths of righteousness, and all their paths and conversation will be in eternal uprightness; with grace and mercy will the righteous be saved, and the chosen will bring light to all the ends of the world."
1En 103:1 "Now I swear to you, the righteous, by the glory of the Great One, by His splendor and His greatness, that I have read the tablets of heaven and seen the writing of the holy ones, and I found written therein concerning you, that all good and joy and glory have been prepared for you, and will remain forever and ever."
1En 103:2 "And that all the light of heaven will dwell upon you, and He has written down your lot before the face of the Lord of Ruachim, for those who love His name and will shine forever and ever."
1En 103:3 "And evil will be destroyed, and darkness will perish, and sinners will be driven from the face of the earth."
1En 103:4 "And now, fear not, you righteous, when you see sinners growing strong and flourishing in their ways; do not be companions with them, but keep far from their oppression, for you will be delivered."
1En 103:5 "And the yoke of their burden will be broken, and the Lord of Ruachim will bring light upon you, and you will live before Him forever and ever."
1En 103:6 "You sinners, though you say, 'None of our sins will be written down,' behold, all your sins are written daily until the day of judgment."
1En 103:7 "And now I show you that light and darkness, day and night, see all your sins."
1En 103:8 "Be not godless in your hearts, nor say in your hearts, 'He will not remember nor see'; but all your deeds and all your words are written in the books before the Most High."
1En 103:9 "Behold, the spirits of the righteous cry out and complain; their prayers ascend to heaven and do not cease before the face of the Lord of Ruachim until judgment is executed on those who oppress them."
1En 103:10 "You sinners say, 'Their souls are dead; they have found no path of righteousness.' But I tell you, as He lives, the Lord of Ruachim, that He will not permit righteousness to perish."
1En 103:11 "He will bring joy and light to those who love His name, and they will live again and see peace, and their reward will be before the Lord of Ruachim."

1En 103:12 "And for you sinners, there will be no salvation, but upon you all will come destruction and a curse forever."
1En 103:13 "Woe to you, you sinners, when you die in your sins and say concerning the righteous, 'They are dead and have found no life'; know that Yehowah will bring them to life, and light will shine upon them."
1En 103:14 "But for you, sinners, your dwelling will be darkness and the snares of death; you will have no rest, and your souls will not rise from the place of torment."
1En 103:15 "Then you will say, 'Our sins are great; we have not known or believed that we should rise to eternal life.'"
1En 103:16 "But now you know, for you have seen the righteous and their reward; yet your souls will go down into Sheol in misery and darkness forever."
1En 104:1 "Now I swear to you, righteous ones, that your names are written before the glory of the Great One; be hopeful, for your remembrance has not been forgotten before the face of the Lord of Ruachim."
1En 104:2 "And the greatness and the good things prepared for you will be revealed to your eyes, and you will have joy and gladness and eternal light."
1En 104:3 "And the Lord of Ruachim will dwell over you, and with the Son of Man you will eat, lie down, and rise up forever and ever."
1En 104:4 "And the righteous and elect will have risen from the earth and ceased to be downcast in countenance, and they will be clothed with garments of glory."
1En 104:5 "These will be the garments of life from the Lord of Ruachim: your garments will not grow old, nor will your glory pass away before the Lord of Ruachim."
1En 104:6 "And all the elect will shine like the sun and will dwell with the Lord of Ruachim forever."
1En 104:7 "And the sinners will be destroyed from before the face of the Lord of Ruachim, and the righteous will be delivered and will live in joy and peace forever."
1En 104:8 "And all the children of men will offer adoration and praise to the Lord of Ruachim; all will worship Him, and the earth will be cleansed from all defilement, from sin, from punishment, and from torment."
1En 104:9 "And the Lord of Ruachim will never again send upon it from generation to generation judgment or destruction, for He is merciful to the righteous forever."
1En 104:10 "And you will rejoice and be glad, for the Most High has chosen you, and all your deeds will shine with the light of His glory."

1En 105:1 “In those days the Lord called me and said to me, ‘Enoch, stand before My face and hear My voice.’”
1En 105:2 “And He said to me, ‘fear not, Enoch, you righteous man, scribe of righteousness; draw near and hear My voice.’”
1En 105:3 “‘Go and say to the watchers of heaven, who have sent you to intercede for them: You should intercede for men, and not men for you.’”
1En 105:4 “‘Why have you left the high, holy, and eternal heaven, and lain with women, and defiled yourselves with the daughters of men, and taken wives for yourselves, and done as the children of earth do, and begotten giants as your sons?’”
1En 105:5 “‘You were holy, living with the spiritual, eternal life; yet you have defiled yourselves with the blood of women, and begotten children through the lusts of the flesh, and by this the earth has been filled with blood and unrighteousness.’”
1En 105:6 “‘Behold, I will destroy all who are upon the earth.’”
1En 105:7 “‘But for the righteous I will cause peace to come; I will preserve the seed of righteousness, for a man will be born to them, and righteousness will dwell in him.’”
1En 105:8 “‘And truth will be revealed to all generations; and the earth will be cleansed from all defilement, from sin, from punishment, and from torment, and I will make the righteous dwell upon it forever.’”
1En 105:9 “‘And I will dwell with them, and My tabernacle will be with them, and I will be their Divine One, and they will be My people, and truth and peace will never leave them forever.’”
1En 105:10 “And after that, Enoch was taken, and no man of those born on earth will be able to find him, for he was hidden before the face of Yehowah.”
1En 105:11 “And he was with the Son of Man and with the Lord of Ruachim, and wisdom and glory and light were with him forever.”
1En 106:1 And after those days my son Methuselah chose a wife for his son Lamech and she became pregnant by him and bore a son.
1En 106:2 And his body was white like snow, and red like the flower of a rose, and the hair of his head was white like wool. And his eyes were beautiful and when he opened his eyes he made the whole house bright, like the Sun, so that the whole house was exceptionally bright.
1En 106:3 And when he was taken from the hand of the midwife he opened his mouth and spoke to the Lord of Righteousness.
1En 106:4 And his father Lamech was afraid of him, and fled, and went to his father Methuselah.
1En 106:5 And he said to him: "I have begotten a strange son; he is not like a man but is like the children of the Angels of Heaven, of a different type and not like us. And his eyes are like the rays of the Sun and his face glorious.

1En 106:6 And it seems to me that he is not sprung from me but from the Angels and I am afraid that something extraordinary may be done on the earth in his days.
1En 106:7 And now, my father, I am entreating you and petitioning you, to go to our father Enoch, and learn from him the truth, for his dwelling is with the Angels."
1En 106:8 And when Methuselah heard the words of his son he came to me, at the ends of the Earth, for he had heard that I was there. And he cried out, and I heard his voice and went to him. And I said to him: "Behold I am here my son, for you have come to me."
1En 106:9 And he answered me, and said: "Because of a great matter I have come to you, and because of a disturbing vision, have I come near.
1En 106:11 And he was taken from the hand of the midwife, and he opened his mouth, and blessed the Lord of Heaven.
1En 106:12 And his father Lamech was afraid and fled to me. And he does not believe he is sprung from him but thinks him to be from the Angels of Heaven. And behold, I have come to you, so that you may make known to me the truth."
1En 106:13 And I, Enoch, answered and said to him: "The Lord will do new things on Earth, and this I have already seen in a vision, and made known to you. For in the generation of my father, Jared, some from the height of Heaven transgressed the word of the Lord.
1En 106:14 And behold, they commit sin and transgress the law, and have been promiscuous with women, and commit sin with them, and have married some of them, and have begotten children by them.
1En 106:15 And there will be great destruction over the whole Earth, and there will be a deluge, and there will be great destruction for one year.
1En 106:16 But this child, who has been born to you, will be left on the Earth, and his three sons will be saved with him. When all the men who are on the Earth die he and his sons will be saved.
1En 106:17 They will beget on the Earth giants, not of spirit, but of flesh, and there will be great wrath on Earth, and the Earth will be cleansed of all corruption.
1En 106:18 And now make known to your son Lamech that the one who has been born is truly his son. And call his name Noah, for he will be a remnant for you and he and his sons will be saved from the destruction which is coming on the earth because of all the sin and all the iniquity, which will be committed on the Earth in his days.

1En 106:19 But after this, there will be yet greater iniquity than that which was committed on the earth before. For I know the mysteries of the Holy Ones, for the Lord showed them to me and made them known to me, and I read them in the Tablets of Heaven.
1En 107:1 And I saw written on them, that generation upon generation will do wrong, until a generation of righteousness shall arise, and wrongdoing shall be destroyed, and sin shall depart from the earth, and everything good shall come upon it.
1En 107:2 And now, my son, go, make known to your son Lamech, that this child that has been born, is truly his son, and this is no lie.
1En 107:3 And when Methuselah had heard the words of his father Enoch — for he showed him everything which is secret — he returned, having seen him, and called the name of that child Noah; for he will comfort the Earth after all the destruction.
1En 108:1 Another book which Enoch wrote for his son Methuselah and for those who should come after him and keep the law in the last days.
1En 108:2 You who have observed, and are waiting in these days, until an end shall be made of those who do evil, and an end shall be made of the power of the wrongdoers.
1En 108:3 Do indeed wait until sin shall pass away, for their names shall be erased from the Books of the Holy Ones, and their offspring will be destroyed forever. And their spirits will be killed, and they will cry out and moan in a chaotic desert place, and will burn in fire, for there is no Earth there.
1En 108:4 And there I saw something like a cloud, which could not be discerned, for because of its depth I was not able to look into it. And the flames of a fire I saw, burning brightly, and things like bright mountains revolved and shook from side to side.
1En 108:5 And I asked one of the Holy Angels, who were with me, and I said to him: “What is this bright place? For there is no sky, but only the flames of a burning fire, and the sounds of crying, and weeping, and moaning, and severe pain.”
1En 108:6 And he said to me: “This place which you see; here will be thrown the spirits of the sinners, and of the blasphemers, and of those who do evil. And of those who alter everything that the Lord has spoken through the mouths of the prophets about the things that shall be done.
1En 108:7 For there are books, and records, about them in Heaven above so that the Angels may read them and know what is about to come upon the sinners. And upon the spirits of the humble, and of those who afflicted their bodies and were recompensed by Yehowah, and of those who were abused by evil men.

1En 108:8 Those who loved Yehowah and did not love gold, or silver, or any possessions, but gave up their bodies to torment.
1En 108:9 Those who, from the moment they existed, did not desire earthly food, but counted themselves as a breath which passes away, and kept to this. And the Lord tested them much, and their spirits were found pure, so that they might bless His Name."
1En 108:10 And all their blessings I have recounted in the books, and he has assigned them their reward, for they were found to be such that they loved Heaven more than their life in the world. And although they were trampled underfoot by evil men, and had to listen to reviling and reproach from them, and were abused, yet they blessed their Lord.
1En 108:11 And the Lord said: "And now I will call the spirits of the good, who are of the Generation of Light, and I will transform those who were born in darkness, who in the flesh were not recompensed with honor as was fitting to their faith.
1En 108:12 And I will bring out into the shining light those who love my Holy Name and I will set each one on the throne of his honor."
1En 108:13 And they will shine for times without number, for righteous is the Judgment of Yehowah, for with the faithful He will keep faith in the dwelling of upright paths.
1En 108:14 And they will see those who were born in darkness thrown into the darkness while the righteous shine.
1En 108:15 And the sinners will cry out as they see them shining but they themselves will go where days and times have been written down for them.

Book of 2nd Enoch

The Book of the Secrets of Enoch

2En 1:1 There was a wise man, a great artificer, and the Lord conceived love for him and received him, that he should behold the uppermost dwellings and be an eye-witness of the wise and great and inconceivable and immutable realm of Yehowah Almighty, ofthe very wonderful and glorious and bright and many-eyed station of the Lord's servants, and of the inaccessible throne of the Lord, and of the degrees and manifestations of the incorporeal hosts, and of the ineffable ministration of the multitude of the elements, and of the various apparition and inexpressible singing of the host of Cherubim, and of the boundless light.

2En 1:2 At that time, he said, when my 165th year was completed, I begat my son Mathusal.

2En 1:3 After this too I lived two hundred years and completed of all the years of my life three hundred and sixty-five years.

2En 1:4 On the first day of the first month I was in my house alone and was resting on my couch and slept.

2En 1:5 And when I was asleep, great distress came up into my heart, and I was weeping with my eyes in sleep, and I could not understand what this distress was, or what would happen to me.

2En 1:6 And there appeared to me two men, exceeding big, so that I never saw such on earth; their faces were shining like the sun, their eyes too were like a burning light, and from their lips was fire coming forth with clothing and singing of various kinds in appearance purple, their wings were brighter than gold, their hands whiter than snow.

2En 1:7 They were standing at the head of my couch and began to call me by my name.

2En 1:8 And I arose from my sleep and saw clearly those two men standing in front of me.

2En 1:9 And I saluted them and was seized with fear and the appearance of my face was changed from terror, and those men said to me:

2En 1:10 'Have courage, Enoch, do mot fear; the eternal Yehowah sent us to thee, and lo! thou shalt to-day ascend with us into heaven, and thou shalt tell thy sons and all thy household all that they shall do without thee on earth in thy house, and let no one seek thee till the Lord return thee to them.

2En 1:11 And I made haste to obey them and went out from my house, and made to the doors, as it was ordered me, and summoned my sons Mathusal and Regim and Gaidad and made known to them all the marvels those men had told me.

2En 2:1 Listen to me, my children, I know not whither I go, or what will befall me; now therefore, my children, I tell you: turn not from Yehowah before the face of the vain, who made not Heaven and earth, for these shall perish and those who worship them, and may the Lord make confident your hearts in the fear of him. And now, my children, let no one think to seek me, until the Lord return me to you.

2En 3:1 It came to pass, when Enoch had told his sons, that the angels took him on to their wings and bore him up on to the first heaven and placed him on the clouds. And there I looked, and again I looked higher, and saw the ether, and they placed me on the first heaven and showed me a very great Sea, greater than the earthly sea.

2En 4:1 They brought before my face the elders and rulers of the stellar orders, and showed me two hundred angels, who rule the stars and their services to the heavens, and fly with their wings and come round all those who sail.

2En 5:1 And here I looked down and saw the treasure-houses of the snow, and the angels who keep their terrible store-houses, and the clouds whence they come out and into which they go.

2En 6:1 They showed me the treasure-house of the dew, like oil of the olive, and the appearance of its form, as of all the flowers of the earth; further many angels guarding the treasure-houses of these things, and how they are made to shut and open.

2En 7:1 And those men took me and led me up on to the second heaven, and showed me darkness, greater than earthly darkness, and there I saw prisoners hanging, watched, awaiting the great and boundless judgment, and these angels were dark-looking, more than earthly darkness, and incessantly making weeping through all hours.

2En 7:2 And I said to the men who were with me: 'Wherefore are these incessantly tortured?' they answered me: 'These are Yehowah's apostates, who obeyed not Yehowah's commands, but took counsel with their own will, and turned away with their prince, who also is fastened on the fifth heaven.'

2En 7:3 And I felt great pity for them, and they saluted me, and said to me: 'Man of Yehowah, pray for us to the Lord'; and I answered to them: 'Who am I, a mortal man, that I should pray for angels? who knoweth whither I go, or what will befall me? or who will pray for me?'

2En 8:1 And those men took me thence, and led me up on to the third heaven, and placed me there; and I looked downwards, and san the produce of these places, such as has never been known for goodness.

2En 8:2 And I saw all the sweet-flowering trees and beheld their fruits, which were sweet-smelling, and all the foods borne by them bubbling with fragrant exhalation.

2En 8:3 And in the midst of the trees that of life, in that place whereon the Lord rests, when he goes up into paradise; and this tree is of ineffable goodness and fragrance, and adorned more than every existing thing; and on all sides it is in form gold-looking and vermilion and fire-like and covers all, and it has produce from all fruits.

2En 8:4 Its root is in the garden at the earth's end.

2En 8:5 And paradise is between corruptibility and incorruptibility.

2En 8:6 And two springs come out which send forth honey and milk, and their springs send forth oil and wine, and they separate into four parts, and go round with quiet course, and go down into the Paradise of Eden, between corruptibility and in corruptibility.

2En 8:7 And thence they go forth along the earth, and have a revolution to their circle even as other elements.

2En 8:8 And here there is no unfruitful tree, and every place is blessed.

2En 8:9 And there are three hundred angels very bright, who keep the garden, and with incessant sweet singing and never-silent voices serve the Lord throughout all days and hours.

2En 8:10 And I said: 'How very sweet is this place,' and those men said to me:

2En 9:1 This place, O Enoch, is prepared for the righteous, who endure all manner of offense from those that exasperate their souls, who avert their eyes from iniquity, and make righteous judgment, and give bread to the hungering, and cover the naked with clothing, and raise up the fallen, and help injured orphans, and who walk without fault before the face of the Lord, and serve him alone, and for them is prepared this place for eternal inheritance.

2En 10:1 And those two men led me upon to the Northern side, and showed me there a very terrible place, and there were all manner of tortures in that place: cruel darkness and unillumined gloom, and there is no light there, but murky fire constantly flameth aloft, and there is a fiery river coming forth, and that whole place is everywhere fire, and everywhere there is frost and ice, thirst and shivering, while the bonds are very cruel, and the angels fearful and merciless, bearing angry weapons, merciless torture, and I said:

2En 10:2 'Woe, woe, how very terrible is this place.'

2En 10:3 And those men said to me: This place, O Enoch, is prepared for those who dishonor Yehowah, who on earth practice sin against nature, which is child-corruption after the sodomitic fashion, magic-making, enchantments and devilish witchcrafts, and who boast of their wicked deeds, stealing, lies, calumnies, envy, rancour, fornication, murder, and who, accursed, steal the souls of men, who, seeing the poor take away their goods and themselves wax rich, injuring them for other men's goods; who being able to satisfy the empty, made the hungering to die; being able to clothe, stripped the naked; and who knew not their creator, and bowed down to soulless (sc. lifeless) Gods, who cannot see nor hear, vain deities, who also built hewn images and bow down to unclean handiwork, for all these is prepared this place amongst these, for eternal inheritance.

2En 11:1 Those men took me, and led me up on to the fourth heaven, and showed me all the successive goings, and all the rays of the light of sun and moon.

2En 11:2 And I measured their goings and compared their light, and saw that the sun's light is greater than the moon's.

2En 11:3 Its circle and the wheels on which it goes always, like a wind going past with very marvelous speed, and day and night it has no rest. 1

2En 11:4 Its passage and return are accompanied by four great stars, and each star has under it a thousand stars, to the right of the sun's wheel, and by four to the left, each having under it a thousand stars, altogether eight thousand, issuing with the sun continually.

2En 11:5 And by day fifteen myriads of angels attend it, and by night a thousand.

2En 11:6 And six-winged ones issue with the angels before the sun's wheel into the fiery flames, and a hundred angels kindle the sun and set it alight.

2En 12:2 Thus the sun revolves and goes, and rises under the heaven, and its course goes under the earth with the light of its rays incessantly.

2En 13:1 Those men bore me away to the east, and placed me at the sun's gates, where the sun goes forth according to the regulation of the seasons and the circuit of the months of the whole year, and the number of the hours day and night,

2En 13:2 And I saw six gates open, each gate having sixty-one stadia and a quarter of one stadium, and I measured them truly, and understood their size to be so much, through which the sun goes forth, and goes to the west, and is made even, and rises throughout all the months, and turns back again from the six gates according to the succession of the seasons; thus the period of the whole year is finished after the returns of the four seasons.

2En 14:1 And again those men led me away to the western parts, and showed me six great gates open corresponding to the Eastern gates, opposite to where the sun sets, according to the number of the days three hundred and sixty-five and a quarter.

2En 15:1 Then the elements of the sun, called Phoenixes and Chalkydri break into song, therefore every bird flutters with its wings, rejoicing at the giver of light, and they broke into song at the command of the Lord.

2En 15:2 The giver of light comes to give brightness to the whole world, and the morning guard takes shape, which is the rays of the sun, and the sun of the earth goes out, and receives its brightness to light up the whole face of the earth, and they showed me this calculation of the sun's going.

2En 15:3 And the gates which it enters, these are the great gates of the computation of the hours of the year; for this reason the sun is a great creation, whose circuit lasts twenty-eight years, and begins again from the beginning.

2En 16:1 Those men showed me the other course, that of the moon, twelve great gates, crowned from west to east, by which the moon goes in and out of the customary times.

2En 16:2 It goes in at the first gate to the western places of the sun, by the first gates with thirty-one days exactly, by the second gates with thirty-one days exactly, by the third with thirty days exactly, by the fourth with thirty days exactly, by the fifth with thirty-one days exactly, by the sixth with thirty-one days exactly, by the seventh with thirty days exactly, by the eighth with thirty-one days perfectly, by the ninth with thirty-one days exactly, by the tenth with thirty days perfectly, by the eleventh with thirty-one days exactly, by the twelfth with twenty-eight days exactly.

2En 16:3 And it goes through the western gates in the order and number of the eastern, and accomplishes the three hundred and sixty-five and a quarter days of the solar year, while the lunar year has three hundred and fifty-four, and there are wanting to it twelve days of the solar circle, which are the lunar epacts of the whole year.

2En 16:4 Thus, too, the great circle contains five hundred and thirty-two years.

2En 16:5 The quarter of a day is omitted for three years, the fourth fulfils it exactly.

2En 16:6 Therefore they are taken outside of heaven for three years and are not added to the number of days, because they change the time of the years to two new months towards completion, to two others towards diminution.

2En 16:7 And when the western gates are finished, it returns and goes to the eastern to the lights, and goes thus day and night about the heavenly circles, lower than all circles, swifter than the heavenly winds, and spirits and elements and angels flying; each angel has six wings.

2En 16:8 It has a sevenfold course in nineteen years.

2En 17:1 In the midst of the heavens I saw armed soldiers, serving the Lord, with tympana and organs, with incessant voice, with sweet voice, with sweet and incessant voice and various singing, which it is impossible to describe, and which astonishes every mind, so wonderful and marvelous is the singing of those angels, and I was delighted listening to it.

2En 18:1 The men took me on to the fifth heaven and placed me, and there I saw many and countless soldiers, called Grigori, of human appearance, and their size was greater than that of great giants and their faces withered, and the silence of their mouths perpetual, and there was no service on the fifth heaven, and I said to the men who were with me:

2En 18:2 Wherefore are these very withered and their faces melancholy, and their mouths silent, and wherefore is there no service on this heaven?

2En 18:3 And they said to me: These are the Grigori, who with their prince Satanail rejected the Lord of light, and after them are those who are held in great darkness on the second heaven, and three of them went down on to earth from the Lord's throne, to the place Ermon, and broke through their vows on the shoulder of the hill Ermon and saw the daughters of men how good they are, and took to themselves wives, and befouled the earth with their deeds, who in all times of their age made lawlessness and mixing, and giants are born and marvelous big men and great enmity.

2En 18:4 And therefore Yehowah judged them with great judgment, and they weep for their brethren and they will be punished on the Lord's great day.

2En 18:5 And I said to the Grigori: 'I saw your brethren and their works, and their great torments, and I prayed for them, but the Lord has condemned them to be under earth till heaven and earth shall end for ever.'

2En 18:6 And I said: 'Wherefore do you wait, brethren, and do not serve before the Lord's face, and have not put your services before the Lord's face, lest you anger your Lord utterly?'

2En 18:7 And they listened to my admonition, and spoke to the four ranks in heaven, and lo! as I stood with those two men four trumpets trumpeted together with great voice, and the Grigori broke into song with one voice, and their voice went up before the Lord pitifully and affectingly.

2En 19:1 And thence those men took me and bore me up on to the sixth heaven, and there I saw seven bands of angels, very bright and very glorious, and their faces shining more than the sun's shining, glistening, and there is no difference in their faces, or behaviour, or manner of dress; and these make the orders, and learn the goings of the stars, and the alteration of the moon, or revolution of the sun, and the good government of the world.

2En 19:2 And when they see evildoing they make commandments and instruction, and sweet and loud singing, and all songs of praise.

2En 19:3 These are the archangels who are above angels, measure all life in heaven and on earth, and the angels who are appointed over seasons and years, the angels who are over rivers and sea, and who are over the fruits of the earth, and the angels who are over every grass, giving food to all, to every living thing, and the angels who write all the souls of men, and all their deeds, and their lives before the Lord's face; in their midst are six Phoenixes and six Cherubim and six six-winged ones continually with one voice singing one voice, and it is not possible to describe their singing, and they rejoice before the Lord at his footstool.

2En 20:1 And those two men lifted me up thence on to the seventh Heaven, and I saw there a very great light, and fiery troops of great archangels, incorporeal forces, and dominions, orders and governments, cherubim and seraphim, thrones and many-eyed ones, nine regiments, the Ioanit stations of light, and I became afraid, and began to tremble with great terror, and those men took me, and led me after them, and said to me:

2En 20:2 'Have courage, Enoch, do not fear,' and showed me the Lord from afar, sitting on His very high throne. For what is there on the tenth heaven, since the Lord dwells here?

2En 20:3 On the tenth heaven is Yehowah, in the Hebrew tongue he is called Aravat.

2En 20:4 And all the heavenly troops would come and stand on the ten steps according to their rank, and would bow down to the Lord, and would again go to their places in joy and felicity, singing songs in the boundless light with small and tender voices, gloriously serving him.

2En 21:1 And the cherubim and seraphim standing about the throne, the six-winged and many-eyed ones do not depart, standing before the Lord's face doing his will, and cover his whole throne, singing with gentle voice before the Lord's face: 'Holy, holy, holy, Lord Ruler of Sabaoth, heavens and earth are full of Thy glory.'

2En 21:2 When I saw all these things, those men said to me: 'Enoch, thus far is it commanded us to journey with thee,' and those men went away from me and thereupon I saw them not.

2En 21:3 And I remained alone at the end of the seventh heaven and became afraid, and fell on my face and said to myself: 'Woe is me, what has befallen me?'

2En 21:4 And the Lord sent one of his glorious ones, the archangel Gabriel, and he said to me: 'Have courage, Enoch, do not fear, arise before the Lord's face into eternity, arise, come with me.'

2En 21:5 And I answered him, and said in myself: 'My Lord, my soul is departed from me, from terror and trembling,' and I called to the men who led me up to this place, on them I relied, and it is with them I go before the Lord's face.

2En 21:6 And Gabriel caught me up, as a leaf caught up by the wind, and placed me before the Lord's face.

2En 21:7 And I saw the eighth Heaven, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Muzaloth, changer of the seasons, of drought, and of wet, and of the twelve signs of the zodiac, which are above the seventh Heaven.

2En 21:8 And I saw the ninth Heaven, which is called in Hebrew Kuchavim, where are the heavenly homes of the twelve signs of the zodiac.

2En 22:1 On the tenth Heaven, Aravoth, I saw the appearance of the Lord's face, like iron made to glow in fire, and brought out, emitting sparks, and it burns.

2En 22:2 Thus I saw the Lord's face, but the Lord's face is ineffable, marvelous and very awful, and very, very terrible.

2En 22:3 And who am I to tell of the Lord's unspeakable being, and of his very wonderful face? And I cannot tell the quantity of his many instructions, and various voices, the Lord's throne very great and not made with hands, nor the quantity of those standing round him, troops of cherubim and seraphim, nor their incessant singing, nor his immutable beauty, and who shall tell of the ineffable greatness of his glory?

2En 22:4 And I fell prone and bowed down to the Lord, and the Lord with his lips said to me:

2En 22:5 'Have courage, Enoch, do not fear, arise and stand before my face into eternity.'

2En 22:6 And the archistratege Michael lifted me up, and led me to before the Lord's face.

2En 22:7 And the Lord said to his servants tempting them: 'Let Enoch stand before my face into eternity,' and the glorious ones bowed down to the Lord, and said: 'Let Enoch go according to Thy word.'

2En 22:8 And the Lord said to Michael: 'Go and take Enoch from out his earthly garments, and anoint him with my sweet ointment, and put him into the garments of My glory.'

2En 22:9 And Michael did thus, as the Lord told him. He anointed me, and dressed me, and the appearance of that ointment is more than the great light, and his ointment is like sweet dew, and its smell mild, shining like the sun's ray, and I looked at myself, and was like one of his glorious ones.

2En 22:10 And the Lord summoned one of his archangels by name Pravuil, whose knowledge was quicker in wisdom than the other archangels, who wrote all the deeds of the Lord; and the Lord said to Pravuil:

2En 22:11 'Bring out the books from my store-houses, and a reed of quick-writing, and give it to Enoch, and deliver to him the choice and comforting books out of thy hand.'

2En 23:1 And he was telling me all the works of heaven, earth and sea, and all the elements, their passages and goings, and the thunderings of the thunders, the sun and moon, the goings and changes of the stars, the seasons, years, days, and hours, the risings of the wind, the numbers of the angels, and the formation of their songs, and all human things, the tongue of every human song and life, the commandments, instructions, and sweet-voiced singings, and all things that it is fitting to learn.

2En 23:2 And Pravuil told me: 'All the things that I have told thee, we have written. Sit and write all the souls of mankind, however many of them are born, and the places prepared for them to eternity; for all souls are prepared to eternity, before the formation of the world.'

2En 23:3 And all double thirty days and thirty nights, and I wrote out all things exactly, and wrote three hundred and sixty-six books.

2En 24:1 And the Lord summoned me, and said to me: 'Enoch, sit down on my left with Gabriel.'

2En 24:2 And I bowed down to the Lord, and the Lord spoke to me: Enoch, beloved, all thou seest, all things that are standing finished I tell to thee even before the very beginning, all that I created from non-being, and visible things from invisible.

2En 24:3 Hear, Enoch, and take in these my words, for not to My angels have I told my secret, and I have not told them their rise, nor my endless realm, nor have they understood my creating, which I tell thee to-day.

2En 24:4 For before all things were visible, I alone used to go about in the invisible things, like the sun from east to west, and from west to east.

2En 24:5 But even the sun has peace in itself, while I found no peace, because I was creating all things, and I conceived the thought of placing foundations, and of creating visible creation.

2En 25:1 I commanded in the very lowest parts, that visible things should come down from invisible, and Adoil came down very great, and I beheld him, and lo! he had a belly of great light.

2En 25:2 And I said to him: 'Become undone, Adoil, and let the visible come out of thee.'

2En 25:3 And he came undone, and a great light came out. And I was in the midst of the great light, and as there is born light from light, there came forth a great age, and showed all creation, which I had thought to create.

2En 25:4 And I saw that it was good.

2En 25:5 And I placed for myself a throne, and took my seat on it, and said to the light: 'Go thou up higher and fix thyself high above the throne, and be a foundation to the highest things.'

2En 25:6 And above the light there is nothing else, and then I bent up and looked up from my throne.

2En 26:1 And I summoned the very lowest a second time, and said: 'Let Archas come forth hard,' and he came forth hard from the invisible.

2En 26:2 And Archas came forth, hard, heavy, and very red.

2En 26:3 And I said: 'Be opened, Archas, and let there be born from thee,' and he came undone, an age came forth, very great and very dark, bearing the creation of all lower things, and I saw that it was good and said to him:

2En 26:4 'Go thou down below, and make thyself firm, and be for a foundation for the lower things,' and it happened and he went down and fixed himself, and became the foundation for the lower things, and below the darkness there is nothing else.

2En 27:1 And I commanded that there should be taken from light and darkness, and I said: 'Be thick,' and it became thus and I spread it out with the light, and it became water, and I spread it out over the darkness, below the light, and then I made firm the waters, that is to say the bottomless, and I made foundation of light around the water, and created seven circles from inside, and imaged it (sc. the water) like crystal wet and dry, that is to say like glass, and the circumcession of the waters and the other elements, and I showed each one of them its road, and the seven stars each one of them in its heaven, that they go thus, and I saw that it was good.

2En 27:2 And I separated between light and between darkness, that is to say in the midst of the water hither and thither, and I said to the light, that it should be the day, and to the darkness, that it should be the night, and there was evening and there was morning the first day.

2En 28:1 And then I made firm the heavenly circle, and made that the lower water which is under heaven collect itself together, into one whole, and that the chaos become dry, and it became so.

2En 28:2 Out of the waves I created rock hard and big, and from the rock I piled up the dry, and the dry I called earth, and the midst of the earth I called abyss, that is to say the bottomless, I collected the sea in one place and bound it together with a yoke.

2En 28:3 And I said to the sea: 'Behold I give thee thy eternal limits, and thou shalt not break loose from thy component parts.'

2En 28:4 Thus I made fast the firmament. This day I called me the first-created.

2En 29:1 And for all the heavenly troops I imaged the image and essence of fire, and my eye looked at the very hard, firm rock, and from the gleam of my eye the lightning received its wonderful nature, which is both fire in water and water in fire, and one does not put out the other, nor does the one dry up the other, therefore the lightning is brighter than the sun, softer than water and firmer than hard rock.

2En 29:2 And from the rock I cut off a great fire, and from the fire I created the orders of the incorporeal ten troops of angels, and their weapons are fiery and their raiment a burning flame, and I commanded that each one should stand in his order. Here Satanail with his angels was thrown down from the height.

2En 29:3 And one from out the order of angels, having turned away with the order that was under him, conceived an impossible thought, to place his throne higher than the clouds above the earth, that he might become equal in rank to my power.

2En 29:4 And I threw him out from the height with his angels, and he was flying in the air continuously above the bottomless.

2En 30:1 On the third day I commanded the earth to make grow great and fruitful trees, and hills, and seed to sow, and I planted Paradise, and enclosed it, and placed as armed guardians flaming angels, and thus I created renewal.

2En 30:2 Then came evening, and came morning the fourth day.

2En 30:3 On the fourth day I commanded that there should be great lights on the heavenly circles.

2En 30:4 On the first uppermost circle I placed the stars, Kruno, and on the second Aphrodit, on the third Aris, on the fifth Zeus, on the sixth Ermis, on the seventh lesser the moon, and adorned it with the lesser stars.

2En 30:5 And on the lower I placed the sun for the illumination of day, and the moon and stars for the illumination of night.

2En 30:6 The sun that it should go according to each animal (sc. signs of the zodiac), twelve, and I appointed the succession of the months and their names and lives, their thunderings, and their hour-markings, how they should succeed.

2En 30:7 Then evening came and morning came the fifth day.

2En 30:8 On the fifth day I commanded the sea, that it should bring forth fishes, and feathered birds of many varieties, and all animals creeping over the earth, going forth over the earth on four legs, and soaring in the air, male sex and female, and every soul breathing the spirit of life.

2En 30:9 And there came evening, and there came morning the sixth day.

2En 30:12 I conceived a cunning saying to say, I created man from invisible and from visible nature, of both are his death and life and image, he knows speech like some created thing, small in greatness and again great in smallness, and I placed him on earth, a second angel, honorable, great and glorious, and I appointed him as ruler to rule on earth and to have my wisdom, and there was none like him of earth of all my existing creatures.

2En 30:13 And I appointed him a name, from the four component parts, from east, from west, from south, from north, and I appointed for him four special stars, and I called his name Adam, and showed him the two ways, the light and the darkness, and I told him:

2En 30:14 'This is good, and that bad,' that I should learn whether he has love towards me, or hatred, that it be clear which in his race love me.

2En 30:15 For I have seen his nature, but he has not seen his own nature, therefore through not seeing he will sin worse, and I said 'After sin what is there but death?'

2En 30:16 And I put sleep into him and he fell asleep. And I took from him a rib, and created him a wife, that death should come to him by his wife, and I took his last word and called her name mother, that is to say, Eva.

2En 31:1 Adam has life on earth, and I created a garden in Eden in the east, that he should observe the testament and keep the command.

2En 31:2 I made the heavens open to him, that he should see the angels singing the song of victory, and the gloomless light.

2En 31:3 And he was continuously in paradise, and the devil understood that I wanted to create another world, because Adam was lord on earth, to rule and control it.

2En 31:4 The devil is the evil spirit of the lower places, as a fugitive he made Sotona from the heavens as his name was Satanail, thus he became different from the angels, but his nature did not change his intelligence as far as his understanding of righteous and sinful things.

2En 31:5 And he understood his condemnation and the sin which he had sinned before, therefore he conceived thought against Adam, in such form he entered and seduced Eva, but did not touch Adam.

2En 31:6 But I cursed ignorance, but what I had blessed previously, those I did not curse, I cursed not man, nor the earth, nor other creatures, but man's evil fruit, and his works.

2En 32:1 I said to him: 'Earth thou art, and into the earth whence I took thee thou shalt go, and I will not ruin thee, but send thee whence I took thee.

2En 32:2 Then I can again take thee at My second coming!

2En 32:3 And I blessed all my creatures visible and invisible. And Adam was five and half hours in paradise.

2En 32:4 And I blessed the seventh day, which is the Sabbath, on which he rested from all his works.

2En 33:1 And I appointed the eighth day also, that the eighth day should be the first-created after my work, and that the first seven revolve in the form of the seventh thousand, and that at the beginning of the eighth thousand there should be a time of not-counting, endless, with neither years nor months nor weeks nor days nor hours.

2En 33:2 And now, Enoch, all that I have told thee, all that thou hast understood, all that thou hast seen of heavenly things, all that thou hast seen on earth, and all that I have written in books by my great wisdom, all these things I have devised and created from the uppermost foundation to the lower and to the end, and there is no counsellor nor inheritor to my creations.

2En 33:3 I am self-eternal, not made with hands, and without change.

2En 33:4 My thought is my counsellor, my wisdom and my word are made, and my eyes observe all things how they stand here and tremble with terror.

2En 33:5 If I turn away my face, then all things will be destroyed.

2En 33:6 And apply thy mind, Enoch, and know him who is speaking to thee, and take thou the books which thou thyself hast written.

2En 33:7 And I give thee Samuil and Raguil, who led thee up, and the books, and go down to earth, and tell thy sons all that I have told thee, and all that thou hast seen, from the lower heaven up to my throne, and all the troops.

2En 33:8 For I created all forces, and there is none that resisteth me or that does not subject himself to me. For all subject themselves to my monarchy, and labor for my sole rule.

2En 33:9 Give them the books of the handwriting, and they will read them and will know me for the creator of all things, and will understand how there is no other Yehowah but me.

2En 33:10 And let them distribute the books of thy handwriting—children to children, generation to generation, nations to nations.

2En 33:11 And I will give thee, Enoch, my intercessor, the archistratege Michael, for the handwritings of thy fathers Adam, Seth, Enos, Cainan, Mahaleleel, and Jared thy father.

2En 34:1 They have rejected my commandments and my yoke, worthless seed has come up, not fearing Yehowah, and they would not bow down to me, but have begun to bow down to vain deities, and denied my unity, and have laden the whole earth with untruths, offenses, abominable lecheries namely one with another, and all manner of other unclean wickednesses, which are disgusting to relate.

2En 34:2 And therefore I will bring down a deluge upon the earth and will destroy all men, and the whole earth will crumble together into great darkness.

2En 35:1 Behold from their seed shall arise another generation, much afterwards, but of them many will be very insatiate.

2En 35:2 He who raises that generation, shall reveal to them the books of thy handwriting, of thy fathers, to them to whom he must point out the guardianship of the world, to the faithful men and workers of my pleasure, who do not acknowledge my name in vain.

2En 35:3 And they shall tell another generation, and those others having read shall be glorified thereafter, more than the first.

2En 36:1 Now, Enoch, I give thee the term. of thirty days to spend in thy house, and tell thy sons and all thy household, that all may hear from my face what is told them by thee, that they may read and understand, how there is no other Yehowah but me.

2En 36:2 And that they may always keep my commandments, and begin to read and take in the books of thy handwriting.

2En 36:3 And after thirty days I shall send my angel for thee, and he will take thee from earth and from thy sons to me.

2En 37:1 And the Lord called up one of the older angels, terrible and menacing, and placed him by me, in appearance white as snow, and his hands like ice, having the appearance of great frost, and he froze my face, because I could not endure the terror of the Lord, just as it is not possible to endure a stove's fire and the sun's heat, and the frost of the air.

2En 37:2 And the Lord said to me: 'Enoch, if thy face be not frozen here, no man will be able to behold thy face.'

2En 38:1 And the Lord said to those men who first led me up: 'Let Enoch go down on to earth with you, and await him till the determined day.'

2En 38:2 And they placed me by night on my couch.

2En 38:3 And Mathusal expecting my coming, keeping watch by day and by night at my couch, was filled with awe when he heard my coming, and I told him, 'Let all my household come together, that I tell them everything.'

2En 39:1 Oh my children, my beloved ones, hear the admonition of your father, as much as is according to the Lord's will.

2En 39:2 I have been let come to you to-day, and announce to you, not from my lips, but from the Lord's lips, all that is and was and all that is now, and all that will be till judgment-day.

2En 39:3 For the Lord has let me come to you, you hear therefore the words of my lips, of a man made big for you, but I am one who has seen the Lord's face, like iron made to glow from fire it sends forth sparks and burns, 2En 39:4 You look now upon my eyes, the eyes of a man big with meaning for you, but I have seen the Lord's eyes, shining like the sun's rays and filling the eyes of man with awe.

2En 39:5 You see now, my children, the right hand of a man that helps you, but I have seen the Lord's right hand filling heaven as be helped me.

2En 39:6 You see the compass of my work like your own, but I have seen the Lord's limitless and perfect compass, which has no end.

2En 39:7 You hear the words of my lips, as I heard the words of the Lord, like great thunder incessantly with hurling of clouds.

2En 39:8 And now, my children, hear the discourses of the father of the earth, how fearful and awful it is to come before the face of the ruler of the earth, how much more terrible and awful it is to come before the face of the ruler of heaven, the controller of quick and dead, and of the heavenly troops. Who can endure that endless pain?

2En 40:1 And now, my children, I know all things, for this is from the Lord's lips, and this my eyes have seen, from beginning to end.

2En 40:2 I know all things, and have written all things into books, the heavens and their end, and their plenitude, and all the armies and their marchings.

2En 40:3 I have measured and described the stars, the great countless multitude of them.

2En 40:4 What man has seen their revolutions, and their entrances? For not even the angels see their number, while I have written all their names.

2En 40:5 And I measured the sun's circle, and measured its rays, counted the hours, I wrote down too all' things that go over the earth I have written the things that are nourished, and all seed sown and unsown, which the earth produces and all plants, and every grass and every flower, and their sweet smells, and their names, and the dwelling-places of the clouds, and their composition, and their wings, and how they bear rain and raindrops.

2En 40:6 And I investigated all things, and wrote the road of the thunder and of the lightning, and they showed me the keys and their guardians, their rise, the way they go; it is let out in measure (sc. gently) by a chain, lest by a heavy chain and violence it hurl down the angry clouds and destroy all things on earth.

2En 40:7 I wrote the treasure-houses of the snow, and the store-houses of the cold and the frosty airs, and I observed their season's key-holder, he fills the clouds with them, and does not exhaust the treasure-houses.

2En 40:8 And I wrote the resting-places of the winds and observed and saw how their key-holders bear weighing-scales and measures; first, they put them in one weighing-scale, then in the other the weights and let them out according to measure cunningly over the whole earth, lest by heavy breathing they make the earth to rock.

2En 40:9 And I measured out the whole earth, its mountains, and all hills, fields, trees, stones, rivers, all existing things I wrote down, the height from earth to the seventh heaven, and downwards to the very lowest hell, and the judgment-place, and the very great, open and weeping hell.

2En 40:10 And I saw how the prisoners are in pain, expecting the limitless judgment.

2En 40:11 And I wrote down all those being judged by the judge, and all their judgments and all their works.

2En 41:1 And I saw all forefathers from all time with Adam and Eva, and I sighed and broke into tears and said of the ruin of their dishonor:

2En 41:2 'Woe is me for my infirmity and for that of my forefathers,' and thought in my, heart and said:

2En 41:3 'Blessed is the man who has not been born or who has been born and shall not sin before the Lord's face, that he come not into this place, nor bring the yoke of this place!

2En 42:1 I saw the key-holders and guards of the gates of hell standing, like great serpents, and their faces like extinguished lamps, and their eyes of fire, their sharp teeth, and I saw all the Lord's works, how they are right, while the works of man are some good, and others bad, and in their works are known those who lie evilly.

2En 43:1 I my children, measured and wrote out every work and every measure and every righteous judgment.

2En 44:1 The Lord with his hands having created man, in the likeness of his own face, the Lord made him small and great.

2En 44:3 Blessed is the man who does not direct his heart with malice against any man, and helps the injured and condemned, and raises the broken down, and shall do charity to the needy, because on the day of the great judgment every weight, every measure and every makeweight will be as in the market, that is to say they are hung on scales and stand in the market, and every one shall learn his own measure, and according to his measure shall take his reward.

2En 45:1 Whoever hastens to make offering before the Lord's face, the Lord for his part will hasten that offering by granting of his work.

2En 45:2 But whoever increases his lamp before the Lord's face and make not true judgment, the Lord will not increase his treasure in the realm of the highest.

2En 45:3 When the Lord demands bread, or candles, or flesh (sc. cattle), or any other sacrifice, then that is nothing; but Yehowah demands pure hearts, and with all that only tests the heart of man.

2En 46:1 Hear, my people, and take in the words of my lips.

2En 46:2 If any one bring any gifts to an earthly ruler, and have disloyal thoughts in his heart, and the ruler know this, will he not be angry with him, and not refuse his gifts, and not give him over to judgment?

2En 46:3 Or if one man make himself appear good to another by deceit of tongue, but have evil in his heart, then will not the other understand the treachery of his heart, and himself be condemned, since his untruth was plain to all?

2En 46:4 And when the Lord shall send a great light, then there will be judgment for the just and the unjust, and there no one shall escape notice.

2En 47:1 And now, my children, lay thought on your hearts, mark well the words of your father, which are all come to you from the Lord's lips.

2En 47:2 Take these books of your father's handwriting and read them.

2En 47:3 For the books are many, and in them you will learn all the Lord's works, all that has been from the beginning of creation, and will be till the end of time.

2En 47:4 And if you will observe my handwriting, you will not sin against the Lord; because there is no other except the Lord, neither in heaven, nor in earth, nor in the very lowest places, nor in the one foundation.

2En 47:5 The Lord has placed the foundations in the unknown, and has spread forth heavens visible and invisible; he fixed the earth on the waters, and created countless creatures, and who has counted the water and the foundation of the unfixed, or the dust of the earth, or the sand of the sea, or the drops of the rain, or the morning dew, or the wind's breathings? Who has filled earth and sea, and the indissoluble winter?

2En 47:6 I cut the stars out of fire, and decorated heaven, and put it in their midst.

2En 48:1 That the sun go along the seven heavenly circles, which are the, appointment of one hundred and eighty-two thrones, that it go down on a short day, and again one hundred and eighty-two, that it go down on a big day, and he has two thrones on which he rests, revolving hither and thither above the thrones of the months, from the seventeenth day of the month Tsivan it goes down to the month Thevan, from the seventeenth of Thevan it goes up.

2En 48:2 And thus it goes close to the earth, then the earth is and makes grow its fruit, and when it goes away, then the earth is sad, and trees and all fruits have no florescence.

2En 48:3 All this he measured, with good measurement of hours, and fixed a measure by his wisdom, of the visible and the invisible.

2En 48:4 From the invisible he made all things visible, himself being invisible.

2En 48:5 Thus I make known to you, my children, and distribute the books to your children, into all your generations, and amongst the nations who shall have the sense to fear Yehowah, let them receive them, and may they come to love them more than any food or earthly sweets, and read them and apply themselves to them.

2En 48:6 And those who understand not the Lord, who fear not Yehowah, who accept not, but reject, who do not receive them (sc. the books), a terrible judgment awaits these.

2En 48:7 Blessed is the man who shall bear their yoke and shall drag them along, for he shall be released on the day of the great judgment.

2En 49:1 I swear to you, my children, but I swear not by any oath, neither by heaven nor by earth, nor by any other creature which Yehowah created.

2En 49:2 The Lord said: 'There is no oath in me, nor injustice, but truth.'

2En 49:3 If there is no truth in men, let them swear by the words 'yea, yea,' or else, 'nay, nay!

2En 49:4 And I swear to you, yea, yea, that there has been no man in his mother's womb, but that already before, even to each one there is a place prepared for the repose of the soul, and a measure fixed how much it is intended that a man be tried in this world.

2En 49:5 Yea, children, deceive not yourselves, for there has been previously prepared a place for every soul of man.

2En 50:1 I have put every man's work in writing and none born on earth can remain hidden nor his works remain concealed.

2En 50:2 I see all things.

2En 50:3 Now therefore, my children, in patience and meekness spend the number of your days, that you inherit endless life.

2En 50:4 Endure for the sake of the Lord every wound, every injury, every evil word and attack.

2En 50:5 If ill-requitals befall you, return them not either to neighbor or enemy, because the Lord will return them for you and be your avenger on the day of great judgment, that there be no avenging here among men.

2En 50:6 Whoever of you spends gold or silver for his brother's sake, he will receive ample treasure in the world to come.

7 Injure not widows nor orphans nor strangers, lest Yehowah's wrath come upon you.

2En 51:1 Stretch out your hands to the poor according to your strength.

2En 51:2 Hide not your silver in the earth.

2En 51:3 Help the faithful man in affliction, and affliction will not find you in the time of your trouble.

2En 51:4 And every grievous and cruel yoke that come upon you bear all for the sake of the Lord, and thus you will find your reward in the day of judgment.

2En 51:5 It is good to go morning, midday, and evening into the Lord's dwelling, for the glory of your creator.

2En 51:6 Because every breathing thing glorifies him, and every creature visible and invisible returns him praise.

2En 52:1 Blessed is the man who opens his lips in praise of Mighty One of Sabaoth and praises the Lord with his heart.

2En 52:2 Cursed every man who opens his lips for the bringing into contempt and calumny of his neighbor, because he brings Yehowah into contempt.

2En 52:3 Blessed is he who opens his lips blessing and praising Yehowah.

2En 52:4 Cursed is he before the Lord all the days of his life, who opens his lips to curse and abuse.

2En 52:5 Blessed is he who blesses all the Lord's works.

2En 52:6 Cursed is he who brings the Lord's creation into contempt.

2En 52:7 Blessed is he who looks down and raises the fallen.

2En 52:8 Cursed is he who looks to and is eager for the destruction of what is not his.

2En 52:9 Blessed is he who keeps the foundations of his fathers made firm from the beginning.

2En 52:10 Cursed is he who perverts the decrees of his forefathers.

2En 52:11 Blessed is he who implants peace and love.

2En 52:12 Cursed is he who disturbs those that love their neighbors.

2En 52:13 Blessed is he who speaks with humble tongue and heart to all.

2En 52:14 Cursed is he who speaks peace with his. tongue, while in his heart there is no peace but a sword.

2En 52:15 For all these things will be laid bare in the weighing-scales and in the books, on the day of the great judgment.

2En 53:1 And now, my children, do not say: 'Our father is standing before Yehowah, and is praying for our sins,' for there is there no helper of any man who has sinned.

2En 53:2 You see how I wrote all works of every man, before his creation, all that is done amongst all men for all time, and none can tell or relate my handwriting, because the Lord sees all the imaginings of man, how they are vain, where they lie in the treasure-houses of the heart.

2En 53:3 And now, my children, mark well all the words of your father, that I tell you, lest you regret, saying: 'Why did our father not tell us?'

2En 54:1 At that time, not understanding this let these books which I have given you be for an inheritance of your peace.

2En 54:2 Hand them to all who want them, and instruct them, that they may see the Lord's very great and marvelous works.

2En 55:1 My children, behold, the day of my term and the time nave approached.

2En 55:2 For the angels who shall go with me are standing before me and urge me to my departure from you; they are standing here on earth, awaiting what has been told them.

2En 55:3 For tomorrow I shall go up on to heaven, to the uppermost Jerusalem to my eternal inheritance.

2En 55:4 Therefore I bid you do before the Lord's face all his good pleasure.

2En 56:1 Methosalam having answered his father Enoch, said: 'What is agreeable to thy eyes, father, that I may make before thy face, that thou mayst bless our dwellings, and thy sons, and that thy people may be made glorious through thee, and then that thou mayst depart thus, as the Lord said?

2En 56:2 Enoch answered to his son Methosalam and said: 'Hear, child, from the time when the Lord anointed me with the ointment of his glory, there has been no food in me, and my soul remembers not earthly enjoyment, neither do I want anything earthly!

2En 57:1 My child Methosalam, summon all thy brethren and our household and the elders of the people, that I may talk to them and depart, as is planned for me.'

2En 57:2 And Methosalam. made haste, and summoned his brethren, Regim, Riman, Uchan, Chermion, Gaidad, and all the elders of the people before the face of his father Enoch; and he blessed them, and said to them:

2En 58:1 Listen to me, my children, to-day.

2En 58:2 In those days when the Lord came down on to earth for Adam's sake, and visited all his creatures, which he created himself, after all these he created Adam, and the Lord called all the beasts of the earth, all the reptiles, and all the birds that soar in the air, and brought them all before the face of our father Adam.

2En 58:3 And Adam gave the names to all things living on earth.

2En 58:4 And the Lord appointed him ruler over all, and subjected to him all things under his hands, and made them dumb and made them dull that they be commanded of man, and be in subjection and obedience to him.

2En 58:5 Thus also the Lord created every man lord over all his possessions.

2En 58:6 The Lord will not judge a single soul of beast for man's sake, but adjudges the souls of men to their beasts in this world; for men have a special place.

2En 58:7 And as every soul of man is according to number, similarly beasts will not perish, nor all souls of beasts which the Lord created, till the great judgment, and they will accuse man, if he feed them ill.

2En 59:1 Whoever defiles the soul of beasts, defiles his own soul.

2En 59:2 For man brings clean animals to make sacrifice for sin, that he may have cure of his soul.

2En 59:3 And if they bring for sacrifice clean animals, and birds, man has cure, he cures his soul.

2En 59:4 All is given you for food, bind it by the four feet, that is to make good the cure, he cures his soul.

2En 59:5 But whoever kills beast without wounds, kills his own soul and defiles his own flesh.

2En 59:6 And he who does any beast any injury whatsoever, in secret, it is evil practice, and he defiles his own soul.

2En 60:1 He who works the killing of a man's soul, kills his own soul, and kills his own body, and there is no cure for him for all time.

2En 60:2 He who puts a man in any snare, shall stick in it himself, and there is no cure for him for all time.

2En 60:3 He who puts a man in any vessel, his retribution will not be wanting at the great judgment for all time.

2En 60:4 He who works crookedly or speaks evil against any soul, will not make justice for himself for all time.

2En 61:1 And now, my children, keep your hearts from every injustice, which the Lord hates. Just as a man asks for his own soul from Yehowah, so let him do to every living soul, because I know all things, how in the great time are many mansions prepared for men, good for the good, and bad for the bad, without number many.

2En 61:2 Blessed are those who enter the good houses, for in the bad there is no peace. nor return.

2En 61:3 Hear, my children, small and great! When man puts a good thought in his heart, brings gifts from his labours before the Lord's face and his hands made them not, then the Lord will turn away his face from the labor of his hand, and he cannot find the labor of his hands.

2En 61:4 And if his hands made it, but his heart murmur, and his heart cease not making murmur incessantly, he has not any advantage.

2En 62:1 Blessed is the man who in his patience brings his gifts with faith before the Lord's face, because he will find forgiveness of sins.

2En 62:2 But if he take back his words before the time, there is no repentance for him; and if the time pass and he do not of his own will what is promised, there is no repentance after death.

2En 62:3 Because every work which man does before the time, is all deceit before men, and sin before Yehowah.

2En 63:1 When man clothes the naked and fills the hungry, he will find reward from Yehowah.

2En 63:2 But if his heart murmur, he commits a double evil: ruin of himself and of that which he gives; and for him there will be no finding of reward on account of that.

2En 63:3 And if his own heart is filled with his food and his own flesh with his clothing he commits contempt, and forfeit all his endurance of poverty, and will not find reward of his good deeds.

2En 63:4 Every proud and magniloquent man is hateful to the Lord, and every false speech, clothed in untruth; it will be cut with the blade of the sword of death, and thrown into the fire, and shall burn for all time.'

2En 64:1 When Enoch had spoken these words to his sons, all people far and near heard how the Lord was calling Enoch. They took counsel together:

2En 64:2 'Let us go and kiss Enoch' and two thousand men came together and came to the place Achuzan where Enoch was, and his sons.

2En 64:3 And the elders of the people, the whole assembly, came and bowed down and began to kiss Enoch and said to him:

2En 64:4 'Our father Enoch, be thou blessed of the Lord, the eternal ruler, and now bless thy sons and all the people, that we may be glorified to-day before thy face.

2En 64:5 For thou shalt be glorified before the Lord's face for all time, since the Lord chose thee, rather than all men on earth, and designated thee writer of all his creation, visible and invisible, and redeemer of the sins of man, and helper of thy household.'

2En 65:1 And Enoch answered all his people saying: 'Hear, my children, before that all creatures were created, the Lord created the visible and invisible things.

2En 65:2 And as much time as there was and went past, understand that after that he created man in the likeness of his own form, and put into him eyes to see, and ears to hear, and heart to reflect, and intellect wherewith to deliberate.

2En 65:3 And the Lord saw all man's works, and created all his creatures, and divided time, from time he fixed the years, and from the years he appointed the months, and from the months he appointed the days, and of days he appointed seven.

2En 65:4 And in those he appointed the hours, measured them out exactly, that man might reflect on time and count years, months, and hours, their alternation, beginning, and end, and that he might count his own life, from the beginning until death, and reflect on his sin and write his work bad and good; because no work is hidden before the Lord, that every man might know his works and never transgress all his commandments, and keep my handwriting from generation to generation.

2En 65:5 When all creation visible and invisible, as the Lord created it, shall end, then every man goes to the great judgment, and then all time shall perish, and the years, and thenceforward there will be neither months nor days nor hours, they will be stuck together and will not be counted.

2En 65:6 There will be one aeon, and all the righteous who shall escape the Lord's great judgment, shall be collected in the great aeon, for the righteous the great aeon will begin, and they will live eternally, and then too there will be amongst them neither labor, nor sickness, nor humiliation, nor anxiety, nor need, nor violence, nor night, nor darkness, but. great light.

2En 65:7 And they shall have a great indestructible wall, and a paradise bright and incorruptible, for all corruptible things shall pass away, and there will be eternal life.

2En 66:1 And now, my children, keep your souls from all injustice, such as the Lord hates.

2En 66:2 Walk before his face with terror and trembling and serve him alone.

2En 66:3 Bow down to the true Yehowah, not to dumb idols, but bow down to his picture, and bring all just offerings before the Lord's face. The Lord hates what is unjust.

2En 66:4 For the Lord sees all things; when man takes thought in his heart, then he counsels the intellects, and every thought is always before the Lord, who made firm the earth and put all creatures on it.

2En 66:5 If you look to heaven, the Lord is there; if you take thought of the sea's deep and all the under-earth, the Lord is there.

2En 66:6 For the Lord created all things. Bow not down to things made by man, leaving the Lord of all creation, because no work can remain hidden before the Lord's face.

2En 66:8 Blessed are the just who shall escape the great judgment, for they shall shine forth more than the sun sevenfold, for in this world the seventh part is taken off from all, light, darkness, food, enjoyment, sorrow, paradise, torture, fire, frost, and other things; he put all down in writing, that you might read and understand.'

2En 67:1 When Enoch had talked to the people, the Lord sent out darkness on to the earth, and there was darkness, and it covered those men standing with Enoch, and they took Enoch up on to the highest heaven, where the Lord is; and he received him and placed him before his face, and the darkness went off from the earth, and light came again.

2En 67:2 And the people saw and understood not how Enoch had been taken, and glorified Yehowah, and found a roll in which was traced 'the invisible Yehowah'; and all went to their homes.

2En 68:1 Enoch was born on the sixth day of the month Tsivan, and lived three hundred and sixty-five years.

2En 68:2 He was taken up to heaven on the first day of the month Tsivan and remained in heaven sixty days.

2En 68:3 He wrote all these signs of all creation, which the Lord created, and wrote three hundred and sixty-six books, and handed them over to his sons and remained on earth thirty days, and was again taken up to heaven on the sixth day of the month Tsivan, on the very day and hour when he was born.

2En 68:4 As every man's nature in this life is dark, so are also his conception, birth, and departure from this life.

2En 68:5 At what hour he was conceived, at that hour he was born, and at that hour too he died.

2En 68:6 Methosalam and his brethren, all the sons of Enoch, made haste, and erected an altar at the place called Achuzan, whence and where Enoch had been taken up to heaven.

2En 68:7 And they took sacrificial oxen and summoned all people and sacrificed the sacrifice before the Lord's face.

2En 68:8 All people, the elders of the people and the whole assembly came to the feast and brought gifts to the sons of Enoch.

2En 68:9 And they made a great feast, rejoicing and making merry three days, praising Yehowah, who had given them such a sign through Enoch, who had found favor with him, and that they should hand it on to their sons from generation to generation, from age to age.

2En 68:10 Amen.

Book of Ezra

Ezr 1:1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of Yehowah by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, Yehowah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,
Ezr 1:2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, Yehowah Mighty One of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

Ezr 1:3 Who is there among you of all his people? his Divine One be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, he is the Almighty, which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of the Almighty that is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit the Almighty had raised, to go up to build the house of Yehowah which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 1:6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

Ezr 1:7 Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of Yehowah, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his deities;

Ezr 1:8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

Ezr 1:9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

Ezr 1:10 Thirty basins of gold, silver basins of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

Ezr 1:11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

Ezr 2:1 Now these are the children of the province that went up out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city;

Ezr 2:2 Which came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel:

Ezr 2:3 The children of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy and two.

Ezr 2:4 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

Ezr 2:5 The children of Arah, seven hundred seventy and five.

Ezr 2:6 The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve.

Ezr 2:7 The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

Ezr 2:8 The children of Zattu, nine hundred forty and five.

Ezr 2:9 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.

Ezr 2:10 The children of Bani, six hundred forty and two.

Ezr 2:11 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three.

Ezr 2:12 The children of Azgad, a thousand two hundred twenty and two.

Ezr 2:13 The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and six.

Ezr 2:14 The children of Bigvai, two thousand fifty and six.

Ezr 2:15 The children of Adin, four hundred fifty and four.

Ezr 2:16 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.

Ezr 2:17 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three.

Ezr 2:18 The children of Jorah, a hundred and twelve.

Ezr 2:19 The children of Hashum, two hundred twenty and three.

Ezr 2:20 The children of Gibbar, ninety and five.

Ezr 2:21 The children of Bethlehem, a hundred twenty and three.

Ezr 2:22 The men of Netophah, fifty and six.

Ezr 2:23 The men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty and eight.

Ezr 2:24 The children of Azmaveth, forty and two.

Ezr 2:25 The children of Kirjatharim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three.

Ezr 2:26 The children of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred twenty and one.

Ezr 2:27 The men of Michmas, a hundred twenty and two.

Ezr 2:28 The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty and three.

Ezr 2:29 The children of Nebo, fifty and two.

Ezr 2:30 The children of Magbish, a hundred fifty and six.

Ezr 2:31 The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

Ezr 2:32 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

Ezr 2:33 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five.

Ezr 2:34 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.

Ezr 2:35 The children of Senaah, three thousand and six hundred and thirty.

Ezr 2:36 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.

Ezr 2:37 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two.

Ezr 2:38 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.

Ezr 2:39 The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

Ezr 2:40 The Levites: the children of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the children of Hodaviah, seventy and four.

Ezr 2:41 The singers: the children of Asaph, a hundred twenty and eight.

Ezr 2:42 The children of the porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, in all a hundred thirty and nine.

Ezr 2:43 The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth,

Ezr 2:44 The children of Keros, the children of Siaha, the children of Padon,

Ezr 2:45 The children of Lebanah, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub,

Ezr 2:46 The children of Hagab, the children of Shalmai, the children of Hanan,

Ezr 2:47 The children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah,

Ezr 2:48 The children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam,

Ezr 2:49 The children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai,

Ezr 2:50 The children of Asnah, the children of Mehunim, the children of Nephusim,

Ezr 2:51 The children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur,

Ezr 2:52 The children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,

Ezr 2:53 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Thamah, Ezr 2:54 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

Ezr 2:55 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Peruda,

Ezr 2:56 The children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, Ezr 2:57 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Ami.

Ezr 2:58 All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

Ezr 2:59 And these were they which went up from Telmelah, Telharsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer: but they could not show their father's house, and their seed, whether they were of Israel:

Ezr 2:60 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two.

Ezr 2:61 And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name:

Ezr 2:62 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

Ezr 2:63 And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim.

Ezr 2:64 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, Ezr 2:65 Beside their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women.

Ezr 2:66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;

Ezr 2:67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

Ezr 2:68 And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of Yehowah which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of the Almighty to set it up in his place:

Ezr 2:69 They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

Ezr 2:70 So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Ezr 3:1 And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

Ezr 3:2 Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the Mighty One of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of the Almighty.

Ezr 3:3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto Yehowah, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

Ezr 3:4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

Ezr 3:5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new months, and of all the set feasts of Yehowah that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto Yehowah.

Ezr 3:6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto Yehowah. But the foundation of the temple of Yehowah was not yet laid.

Ezr 3:7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

Ezr 3:8 Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of the Almighty at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of Yehowah.

Ezr 3:9 Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of the Almighty: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

Ezr 3:10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Yehowah, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise Yehowah, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

Ezr 3:11 And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto Yehowah; because he is good, for his mercy endureth forever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised Yehowah, because the foundation of the house of Yehowah was laid.

Ezr 3:12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

Ezr 3:13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Ezr 4:1 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto Yehowah Mighty One of Israel;

Ezr 4:2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your Divine One, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

Ezr 4:3 But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our Divine One; but we ourselves together will build unto Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

Ezr 4:4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

Ezr 4:5 And hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 4:6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

Ezr 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

Ezr 4:8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

Ezr 4:9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites, Ezr 4:10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side of the river, and at such a time.

Ezr 4:11 This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men on this side of the river, and at such a time.

Ezr 4:12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations.

Ezr 4:13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings.

Ezr 4:14 Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

Ezr 4:15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

Ezr 4:16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side of the river.

Ezr 4:17 Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

Ezr 4:18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

Ezr 4:19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

Ezr 4:20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

Ezr 4:21 Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

Ezr 4:22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

Ezr 4:23 Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

Ezr 4:24 Then ceased the work of the house of the Almighty which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Ezr 5:1 Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the Mighty One of Israel, even unto them.

Ezr 5:2 Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of the Almighty which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of the Almighty helping them.

Ezr 5:3 At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side of the river, and Shetharboznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

Ezr 5:4 Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

Ezr 5:5 But the eye of their Divine One was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

Ezr 5:6 The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side of the river, and Shetharboznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side of the river, sent unto Darius the king:

Ezr 5:7 They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

Ezr 5:8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great Almighty, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

Ezr 5:9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

Ezr 5:10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

Ezr 5:11 And thus they returned us an answer, saying, We are the servants of the Mighty One of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up.

Ezr 5:12 But after that our fathers had provoked the Mighty One of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

Ezr 5:13 But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of the Almighty.

Ezr 5:14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of the Almighty, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;

Ezr 5:15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of the Almighty be builded in his place.

Ezr 5:16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of the Almighty which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

Ezr 5:17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of the Almighty at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

Ezr 6:1 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the scrolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.

Ezr 6:2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a scroll, and therein was a record thus written:

Ezr 6:3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of the Almighty at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

Ezr 6:4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

Ezr 6:5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of the Almighty, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of the Almighty.

Ezr 6:6 Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shetharboznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

Ezr 6:7 Let the work of this house of the Almighty alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of the Almighty in his place.

Ezr 6:8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of the Almighty: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered.

Ezr 6:9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the Mighty One of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

Ezr 6:10 That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savors unto the Mighty One of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

Ezr 6:11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

Ezr 6:12 And the Almighty that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of the Almighty which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

Ezr 6:13 Then Tatnai, governor on this side of the river, Shetharboznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

Ezr 6:14 And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the Mighty One of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

Ezr 6:15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

Ezr 6:16 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of the Almighty with joy,

Ezr 6:17 And offered at the dedication of this house of the Almighty a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

Ezr 6:18 And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of the Almighty, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses.

Ezr 6:19 And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month.

Ezr 6:20 For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

Ezr 6:21 And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, did eat,

Ezr 6:22 And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for Yehowah had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of the Almighty, Mighty One of Israel.

Ezr 7:1 Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

Ezr 7:2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

Ezr 7:3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

Ezr 7:4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

Ezr 7:5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

Ezr 7:6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which Yehowah Mighty One of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of Yehowah his Divine One upon him.

Ezr 7:7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

Ezr 7:8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

Ezr 7:9 For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his Divine One upon him.

Ezr 7:10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of Yehowah, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

Ezr 7:11 Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of Yehowah, and of his statutes to Israel.

Ezr 7:12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the Mighty One of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

Ezr 7:13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

Ezr 7:14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy Divine One which is in thine hand;

Ezr 7:15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered unto the Mighty One of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem,

Ezr 7:16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their Divine One which is in Jerusalem:

Ezr 7:17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your Divine One which is in Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your Divine One.

Ezr 7:19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy Divine One, those deliver thou before the Mighty One of Jerusalem.

Ezr 7:20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy Divine One, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

Ezr 7:21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the Mighty One of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, Ezr 7:22 Unto a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred measures of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

Ezr 7:23 Whatsoever is commanded by the Mighty One of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the Mighty One of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

Ezr 7:24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinim, or ministers of this house of the Almighty, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

Ezr 7:25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy Divine One, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy Divine One; and teach ye them that know them not.

Ezr 7:26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy Divine One, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

Ezr 7:27 Blessed be Yehowah Mighty One of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of Yehowah which is in Jerusalem:

Ezr 7:28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of Yehowah my Divine One was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

Ezr 8:1 These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

Ezr 8:2 Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; Hattush.

Ezr 8:3 Of the sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males a hundred and fifty.

Ezr 8:4 Of the sons of Pahathmoab; Elihoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

Ezr 8:5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

Ezr 8:6 Of the sons also of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males.

Ezr 8:7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

Ezr 8:8 And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

Ezr 8:9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

Ezr 8:10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and threescore males.

Ezr 8:11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

Ezr 8:12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him a hundred and ten males.

Ezr 8:13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them threescore males.

Ezr 8:14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

Ezr 8:15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.

Ezr 8:16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

Ezr 8:17 And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our Divine One.

Ezr 8:18 And by the good hand of our Divine One upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen;

Ezr 8:19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

Ezr 8:20 Also of the Nethinim, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were expressed by name.

Ezr 8:21 Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our Divine One, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

Ezr 8:22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our Divine One is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

Ezr 8:23 So we fasted and besought our Divine One for this: and he was entreated of us.

Ezr 8:24 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

Ezr 8:25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our Divine One, which the king, and his counselors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

Ezr 8:26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents;

Ezr 8:27 Also twenty basins of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

Ezr 8:28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto Yehowah; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto Yehowah Mighty One of your fathers.

Ezr 8:29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yehowah.

Ezr 8:30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our Divine One.

Ezr 8:31 Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our Divine One was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

Ezr 8:32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

Ezr 8:33 Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our Divine One by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;

Ezr 8:34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

Ezr 8:35 Also the children of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the Mighty One of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto Yehowah.

Ezr 8:36 And they delivered the king's commissions unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side of the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of the Almighty.

Ezr 9:1 Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hethites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

Ezr 9:2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

Ezr 9:3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

Ezr 9:4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the Mighty One of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

Ezr 9:5 And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto Yehowah my Divine One,

Ezr 9:6 And said, O my Divine One, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my Divine One: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

Ezr 9:7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

Ezr 9:8 And now for a little space grace hath been showed from Yehowah our Divine One, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our Divine One may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

Ezr 9:9 For we were bondmen; yet our Divine One hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our Divine One, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

Ezr 9:10 And now, O our Divine One, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

Ezr 9:11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

Ezr 9:12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth forever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.

Ezr 9:13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our Divine One hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

Ezr 9:14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

Ezr 9:15 Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

Ezr 10:1 Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of the Almighty, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore.

Ezr 10:2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our Divine One, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

Ezr 10:3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our Divine One to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our Divine One; and let it be done according to the law.

Ezr 10:4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.

Ezr 10:5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore.

Ezr 10:6 Then Ezra rose up from before the house of the Almighty, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Elijahhib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

Ezr 10:7 And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

Ezr 10:8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

Ezr 10:9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of the Almighty, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

Ezr 10:10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

Ezr 10:11 Now therefore make confession unto Yehowah Mighty One of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

Ezr 10:12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

Ezr 10:13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

Ezr 10:14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our Divine One for this matter be turned from us.

Ezr 10:15 Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.

Ezr 10:16 And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

Ezr 10:17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first month.

Ezr 10:18 And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah.

Ezr 10:19 And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

Ezr 10:20 And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah.

Ezr 10:21 And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziah.

Ezr 10:22 And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

Ezr 10:23 Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah, the same is Kelita, Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

Ezr 10:24 Of the singers also; Elijahhib: and of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

Ezr 10:25 Moreover of Israel: of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah, and Jeziah, and Malchiah, and Miamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.

Ezr 10:26 And of the sons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Eliah.

Ezr 10:27 And of the sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Elijahhib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza.

Ezr 10:28 Of the sons also of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

Ezr 10:29 And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, and Ramoth.

Ezr 10:30 And of the sons of Pahathmoab; Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel, and Binnui, and Manasseh.

Ezr 10:31 And of the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, Ezr 10:32 Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

Ezr 10:33 Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

Ezr 10:34 Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram, and Uel,

Ezr 10:35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh,

Ezr 10:36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Elijahhib,

Ezr 10:37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasau,

Ezr 10:38 And Bani, and Binnui, Shimei,

Ezr 10:39 And Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah,

Ezr 10:40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

Ezr 10:41 Azareel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah,

Ezr 10:42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

Ezr 10:43 Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jadau, and Joel, Benaiah.

Ezr 10:44 All these had taken strange wives: and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Book of Nehemiah

Neh 1:1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, Neh 1:2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

Neh 1:3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

Neh 1:4 And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the Mighty One of heaven,

Neh 1:5 And said, I beseech thee, Yehowah Mighty One of heaven, the great and terrible Almighty, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

Neh 1:6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

Neh 1:7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

Neh 1:8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

Neh 1:9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

Neh 1:10 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

Neh 1:11 Yehowah, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

Neh 2:1 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

Neh 2:2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

Neh 2:3 And said unto the king, Let the king live forever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

Neh 2:4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the Mighty One of heaven.

Neh 2:5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favor in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

Neh 2:6 And the king said unto me, the queen also sitting by him, For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

Neh 2:7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

Neh 2:8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my Divine One upon me.

Neh 2:9 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

Neh 2:10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

Neh 2:11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

Neh 2:12 And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my Divine One had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

Neh 2:13 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

Neh 2:14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

Neh 2:15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

Neh 2:16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

Neh 2:17 Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

Neh 2:18 Then I told them of the hand of my Divine One which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

Neh 2:19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

Neh 2:20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The Mighty One of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

Neh 3:1 Then Elijahhib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel.

Neh 3:2 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

Neh 3:3 But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

Neh 3:4 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.

Neh 3:5 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

Neh 3:6 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

Neh 3:7 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side of the river.

Neh 3:8 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

Neh 3:9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

Neh 3:10 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

Neh 3:11 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

Neh 3:12 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

Neh 3:13 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

Neh 3:14 But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Bethhaccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

Neh 3:15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

Neh 3:16 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Bethzur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

Neh 3:17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part.

Neh 3:18 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

Neh 3:19 And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armory at the turning of the wall.

Neh 3:20 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Elijahhib the high priest.

Neh 3:21 After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Elijahhib even to the end of the house of Elijahhib.

Neh 3:22 And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain.

Neh 3:23 After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah by his house.

Neh 3:24 After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

Neh 3:25 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

Neh 3:26 Moreover the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

Neh 3:27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

Neh 3:28 From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

Neh 3:29 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate.

Neh 3:30 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber.

Neh 3:31 After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nethinim, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner.

Neh 3:32 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

Neh 4:1 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

Neh 4:2 And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

Neh 4:3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

Neh 4:4 Hear, O our Divine One; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

Neh 4:5 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

Neh 4:6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

Neh 4:7 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth,

Neh 4:8 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

Neh 4:9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our Divine One, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

Neh 4:10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

Neh 4:11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

Neh 4:12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

Neh 4:13 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

Neh 4:14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

Neh 4:15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and the Almighty had brought their counsel to naught, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

Neh 4:16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and chain mail armor; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

Neh 4:17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bear burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

Neh 4:18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

Neh 4:19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

Neh 4:20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our Divine One shall fight for us.

Neh 4:21 So we labored in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

Neh 4:22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labor on the day.

Neh 4:23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

Neh 5:1 And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

Neh 5:2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up grain for them, that we may eat, and live.

Neh 5:3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy grain, because of the hunger.

Neh 5:4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

Neh 5:5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

Neh 5:6 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

Neh 5:7 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

Neh 5:8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the nations; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

Neh 5:9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our Divine One because of the reproach of the nations our enemies?

Neh 5:10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and grain: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

Neh 5:11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

Neh 5:12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

Neh 5:13 Also I shook my lap, and said, So the Almighty shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amein, and praised Yehowah. And the people did according to this promise.

Neh 5:14 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

Neh 5:15 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bear rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of the Almighty.

Neh 5:16 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

Neh 5:17 Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the nations that are about us.

Neh 5:18 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

Neh 5:19 Think upon me, my Divine One, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Neh 6:1 Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;

Neh 6:2 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in someone of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief.

Neh 6:3 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

Neh 6:4 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

Neh 6:5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

Neh 6:6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

Neh 6:7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

Neh 6:8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

Neh 6:9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, Yehowah, strengthen my hands.

Neh 6:10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of the Almighty, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

Neh 6:11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? And who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

Neh 6:12 And lo, I perceived that the Almighty had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Neh 6:13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

Neh 6:14 My Divine One, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

Neh 6:15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

Neh 6:16 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the nations that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our Divine One.

Neh 6:17 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

Neh 6:18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

Neh 6:19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

Neh 7:1 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

Neh 7:2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared the Almighty above many.

Neh 7:3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

Neh 7:4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

Neh 7:5 And my Divine One put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

Neh 7:6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

Neh 7:7 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Israel was this;

Neh 7:8 The children of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy and two.

Neh 7:9 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

Neh 7:10 The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

Neh 7:11 The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen.

Neh 7:12 The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

Neh 7:13 The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five.

Neh 7:14 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.

Neh 7:15 The children of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight.

Neh 7:16 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight.

Neh 7:17 The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two.

Neh 7:18 The children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven.

Neh 7:19 The children of Bigvai, two thousand threescore and seven.

Neh 7:20 The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five.

Neh 7:21 The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight.

Neh 7:22 The children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight.

Neh 7:23 The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four.

Neh 7:24 The children of Hariph, a hundred and twelve.

Neh 7:25 The children of Gibeon, ninety and five.

Neh 7:26 The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, a hundred fourscore and eight.

Neh 7:27 The men of Anathoth, a hundred twenty and eight.

Neh 7:28 The men of Bethazmaveth, forty and two.

Neh 7:29 The men of Kirjathjearim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three.

Neh 7:30 The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty and one.

Neh 7:31 The men of Michmas, a hundred and twenty and two.

Neh 7:32 The men of Bethel and Ai, a hundred twenty and three.

Neh 7:33 The men of the other Nebo, fifty and two.

Neh 7:34 The children of the other Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

Neh 7:35 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

Neh 7:36 The children of Jericho, three hundred forty and five.

Neh 7:37 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty and one.

Neh 7:38 The children of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

Neh 7:39 The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred seventy and three.

Neh 7:40 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two.

Neh 7:41 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seven.

Neh 7:42 The children of Harim, a thousand and seventeen.

Neh 7:43 The Levites: the children of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the children of Hodevah, seventy and four.

Neh 7:44 The singers: the children of Asaph, a hundred forty and eight.

Neh 7:45 The porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, a hundred thirty and eight.

Neh 7:46 The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hashupha, the children of Tabbaoth,

Neh 7:47 The children of Keros, the children of Sia, the children of Padon,

Neh 7:48 The children of Lebana, the children of Hagaba, the children of Shalmai,

Neh 7:49 The children of Hanan, the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar,

Neh 7:50 The children of Reaiah, the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda,

Neh 7:51 The children of Gazzam, the children of Uzza, the children of Phaseah,

Neh 7:52 The children of Besai, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephishesim,

Neh 7:53 The children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur,

Neh 7:54 The children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha,

Neh 7:55 The children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Tamah, Neh 7:56 The children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha.

Neh 7:57 The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida,

Neh 7:58 The children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, Neh 7:59 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon.

Neh 7:60 All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

Neh 7:61 And these were they which went up also from Telmelah, Telharesha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not show their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel.

Neh 7:62 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two.

Neh 7:63 And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

Neh 7:64 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

Neh 7:65 And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

Neh 7:66 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore,

Neh 7:67 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

Neh 7:68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

Neh 7:69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty donkeys.

Neh 7:70 And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basins, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

Neh 7:71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pounds of silver.

Neh 7:72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pounds of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

Neh 7:73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

Neh 8:1 And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spoke unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Yehowah had commanded to Israel.

Neh 8:2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

Neh 8:3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

Neh 8:4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Neh 8:5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; for he was above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

Neh 8:6 And Ezra blessed Yehowah, the great Almighty. And all the people answered, Amein, Amein, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshiped Yehowah with their faces to the ground.

Neh 8:7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

Neh 8:8 So they read in the book in the law of the Almighty distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

Neh 8:9 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto Yehowah your Divine One; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

Neh 8:10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of Yehowah is your strength.

Neh 8:11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

Neh 8:12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

Neh 8:13 And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

Neh 8:14 And they found written in the law which Yehowah had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

Neh 8:15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

Neh 8:16 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of the Almighty, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

Neh 8:17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

Neh 8:18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of the Almighty. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a festive assembly, according unto the manner.

Neh 9:1 Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

Neh 9:2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

Neh 9:3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of Yehowah their Divine One one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshiped Yehowah their Divine One.

Neh 9:4 Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto Yehowah their Divine One.

Neh 9:5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless Yehowah your Divine One forever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

Neh 9:6 Thou, even thou, art Yehowah alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshipeth thee.

Neh 9:7 Thou art Yehowah the Almighty, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham;

Neh 9:8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hethites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

Neh 9:9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red Sea;

Neh 9:10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

Neh 9:11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

Neh 9:12 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

Neh 9:13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spokest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

Neh 9:14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

Neh 9:15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

Neh 9:16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

Neh 9:17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art an Almighty ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

Neh 9:18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy Divine One that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

Neh 9:19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way wherein they should go.

Neh 9:20 Thou gavest also thy good Ruach to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

Neh 9:21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

Neh 9:22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

Neh 9:23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

Neh 9:24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

Neh 9:25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

Neh 9:26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

Neh 9:27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviors, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

Neh 9:28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

Neh 9:29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, which if a man do, he shall live in them; and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

Neh 9:30 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy Ruach in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

Neh 9:31 Nevertheless, for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful Almighty One.

Neh 9:32 Now therefore, our Divine One, the great, the mighty, and the terrible Almighty, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

Neh 9:33 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly:

Neh 9:34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

Neh 9:35 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

Neh 9:36 Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

Neh 9:37 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our livestock, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

Neh 9:38 And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it.

Neh 10:1 Now those that sealed were, Nehemiah, the Tirshatha, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah,

Neh 10:2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

Neh 10:3 Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah,

Neh 10:4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,

Neh 10:5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

Neh 10:6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

Neh 10:7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

Neh 10:8 Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the priests.

Neh 10:9 And the Levites: both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

Neh 10:10 And their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, Neh 10:11 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,

Neh 10:12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

Neh 10:13 Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.

Neh 10:14 The chief of the people; Parosh, Pahathmoab, Elam, Zatthu, Bani, Neh 10:15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

Neh 10:16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

Neh 10:17 Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur,

Neh 10:18 Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai,

Neh 10:19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

Neh 10:20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

Neh 10:21 Meshezabeel, Zadok, Jaddua,

Neh 10:22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

Neh 10:23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,

Neh 10:24 Hallohesh, Pileha, Shobek,

Neh 10:25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

Neh 10:26 And Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,

Neh 10:27 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

Neh 10:28 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinim, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of the Almighty, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding;

Neh 10:29 They clove to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in the Almighty's law, which was given by Moses the servant of the Almighty, and to observe and do all the commandments of Yehowah our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

Neh 10:30 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons:

Neh 10:31 And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

Neh 10:32 Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our Divine One;

Neh 10:33 For the showbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new months, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our Divine One.

Neh 10:34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our Divine One, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of Yehowah our Divine One, as it is written in the law:

Neh 10:35 And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of Yehowah:

Neh 10:36 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our Divine One, unto the priests that minister in the house of our Divine One:

Neh 10:37 And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our Divine One; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our labor.

Neh 10:38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our Divine One, to the chambers, into the treasure house.

Neh 10:39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our Divine One.

Neh 11:1 And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

Neh 11:2 And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

Neh 11:3 Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants.

Neh 11:4 And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez;

Neh 11:5 And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni.

Neh 11:6 All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men.

Neh 11:7 And these are the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah.

Neh 11:8 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

Neh 11:9 And Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the city.

Neh 11:10 Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin.

Neh 11:11 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of the Almighty.

Neh 11:12 And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah,

Neh 11:13 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, Neh 11:14 And their brethren, mighty men of valor, a hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men.

Neh 11:15 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

Neh 11:16 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of the Almighty.

Neh 11:17 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

Neh 11:18 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

Neh 11:19 Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were a hundred seventy and two.

Neh 11:20 And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

Neh 11:21 But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were over the Nethinim.

Neh 11:22 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of the Almighty.

Neh 11:23 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.

Neh 11:24 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

Neh 11:25 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjatharba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof,

Neh 11:26 And at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Bethphelet,

Neh 11:27 And at Hazarshual, and at Beersheba, and in the villages thereof,

Neh 11:28 And at Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in the villages thereof,

Neh 11:29 And at Enrimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth,

Neh 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam, and in their villages, at Lachish, and the fields thereof, at Azekah, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beersheba unto the valley of Hinnom.

Neh 11:31 The children also of Benjamin from Geba dwelt at Michmash, and Aija, and Bethel, and in their villages,

Neh 11:32 And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

Neh 11:33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

Neh 11:34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

Neh 11:35 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

Neh 11:36 And of the Levites were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin.

Neh 12:1 Now these are the priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Neh 12:2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

Neh 12:3 Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,

Neh 12:4 Iddo, Ginnetho, Abijah,

Neh 12:5 Miamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,

Neh 12:6 Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

Neh 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, Jedaiah. These were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of Jeshua.

Neh 12:8 Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over the thanksgiving, he and his brethren.

Neh 12:9 Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were over against them in the watches.

Neh 12:10 And Jeshua begat Joiakim, Joiakim also begat Elijahhib, and Elijahhib begat Joiada, Neh 12:11 And Joiada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua.

Neh 12:12 And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

Neh 12:13 Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan;

Neh 12:14 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

Neh 12:15 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

Neh 12:16 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

Neh 12:17 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai;

Neh 12:18 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

Neh 12:19 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

Neh 12:20 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

Neh 12:21 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

Neh 12:22 The Levites in the days of Elijahhib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

Neh 12:23 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Elijahhib.

Neh 12:24 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of the Almighty, ward over against ward.

Neh 12:25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates.

Neh 12:26 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

Neh 12:27 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

Neh 12:28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

Neh 12:29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

Neh 12:30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

Neh 12:31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate:

Neh 12:32 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

Neh 12:33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,

Neh 12:34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

Neh 12:35 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

Neh 12:36 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of the Almighty, and Ezra the scribe before them.

Neh 12:37 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward.

Neh 12:38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;

Neh 12:39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate.

Neh 12:40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of the Almighty, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

Neh 12:41 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;

Neh 12:42 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

Neh 12:43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for the Almighty had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

Neh 12:44 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

Neh 12:45 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their Divine One, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

Neh 12:46 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto the Almighty.

Neh 12:47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

Neh 13:1 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of the Almighty forever;

Neh 13:2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our Divine One turned the curse into a blessing.

Neh 13:3 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

Neh 13:4 And before this, Elijahhib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our Divine One, was allied unto Tobiah:

Neh 13:5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

Neh 13:6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king:

Neh 13:7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Elijahhib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of the Almighty.

Neh 13:8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

Neh 13:9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of the Almighty, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

Neh 13:10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

Neh 13:11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of the Almighty forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

Neh 13:12 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries.

Neh 13:13 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

Neh 13:14 Remember me, O my Divine One, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my Divine One, and for the offices thereof.

Neh 13:15 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

Neh 13:16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

Neh 13:17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

Neh 13:18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our Divine One bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

Neh 13:19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

Neh 13:20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

Neh 13:21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

Neh 13:22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my Divine One, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

Neh 13:23 In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

Neh 13:24 And their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

Neh 13:25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by the Almighty, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

Neh 13:26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his Divine One, and the Almighty made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

Neh 13:27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our Divine One in marrying foreign wives?

Neh 13:28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Elijahhib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.

Neh 13:29 Remember them, O my Divine One, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

Neh 13:30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business;

Neh 13:31 And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my Divine One, for good.

Book of 1st Esdras

1Es 1:1 And Josiah held the feast of the Passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the Passover the fourteenth day of the first month;

1Es 1:2 Having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of Yehowah.

1Es 1:3 And he spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto Yehowah, to set the holy ark of Yehowah in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built:

1Es 1:4 And said, Ye shall no more bear the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve Yehowah your Divine One, and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you after your families and kindreds,

1Es 1:5 According as David the king of Israel prescribed, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the temple according to the several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel, 1Es 1:6 Offer the Passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the Passover according to the commandment of Yehowah, which was given unto Moses.

1Es 1:7 And unto the people that was found there Josiah gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised, to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites.

1Es 1:8 And Helkias, Zacharias, and Syelus, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the Passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves.

1Es 1:9 And Jeconias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Assabias, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the Passover five thousand sheep, and seven hundred calves.

1Es 1:10 And when these things were done, the priests and Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in very comely order according to the kindreds, 1Es 1:11 And according to the several dignities of the fathers, before the people, to offer to Yehowah, as it is written in the book of Moses: and thus did they in the morning.

1Es 1:12 And they roasted the Passover with fire, as appertaineth: as for the sacrifices, they sod them in brass pots and pans with a good savor, 1Es 1:13 And set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron.

1Es 1:14 For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron.

1Es 1:15 The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, and Jeduthun, who was of the king's retinue.

1Es 1:16 Moreover the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his ordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

1Es 1:17 Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of Yehowah accomplished in that day, that they might hold the Passover, 1Es 1:18 And offer sacrifices upon the altar of Yehowah, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

1Es 1:19 So the children of Israel which were present held the Passover at that time, and the feast of sweet bread seven days.

1Es 1:20 And such a Passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel.

1Es 1:21 Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a Passover as Josiah, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were found dwelling at Jerusalem.

1Es 1:22 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept.

1Es 1:23 And the works of Josiah were upright before his Lord with a heart full of reverence.

1Es 1:24 As for the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times, concerning those that sinned, and did wickedly against Yehowah above all people and kingdoms, and how they grieved him exceedingly, so that the words of Yehowah rose up against Israel.

1Es 1:25 Now after all these acts of Josiah it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchemish upon Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

1Es 1:26 But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of Judea?

1Es 1:27 I am not sent out from Almighty Yehowah against thee; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now Yehowah is with me, yea, Yehowah is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and be not against Yehowah.

1Es 1:28 Howbeit Josiah did not turn back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremiah spoken by the mouth of Yehowah:

1Es 1:29 But joined battle with him in the plain of Megiddo, and the princes came against king Josiah.

1Es 1:30 Then said the king unto his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle.

1Es 1:31 Then got he up upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, and was buried in his father's sepulchre.

1Es 1:32 And in all Jewry they mourned for Josiah, yea, Jeremiah the prophet lamented for Josiah, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel.

1Es 1:33 These things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of Judah, and every one of the acts that Josiah did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of Yehowah, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judea.

1Es 1:34 And the people took Joachaz the son of Josiah, and made him king instead of Josiah his father, when he was twenty and three years old.

1Es 1:35 And he reigned in Judea and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem.

1Es 1:36 And he set a tax upon the land of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

1Es 1:37 The king of Egypt also made king Joacim his brother king of Judea and Jerusalem.

1Es 1:38 And he bound Joacim and the nobles: but Zaraces his brother he apprehended, and brought him out of Egypt.

1Es 1:39 Five and twenty years old was Joacim when he was made king in the land of Judea and Jerusalem; and he did evil before Yehowah.

1Es 1:40 Wherefore against him Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him into Babylon.

1Es 1:41 Nebuchadnezzar also took of the holy vessels of Yehowah, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple at Babylon.

1Es 1:42 But those things that are recorded of him, and of his uncleaness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

1Es 1:43 And Joacim his son reigned in his stead: he was made king being eighteen years old;

1Es 1:44 And reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did evil before Yehowah.

1Es 1:45 So after a year Nebuchadnezzar sent and caused him to be brought into Babylon with the holy vessels of Yehowah;

1Es 1:46 And made Zedechias king of Judea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years:

1Es 1:47 And he did evil also in the sight of Yehowah, and cared not for the words that were spoken unto him by the prophet Jeremiah from the mouth of Yehowah.

1Es 1:48 And after that king Nebuchadnezzar had made him to swear by the name of Yehowah, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, his heart, he transgressed the laws of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel.

1Es 1:49 The governors also of the people and of the priests did many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of Yehowah, which was sanctified in Jerusalem.

1Es 1:50 Nevertheless the Mighty One of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he spared them and his tabernacle also.

1Es 1:51 But they had his messengers in derision; and, look, when Yehowah spake unto them, they made a sport of his prophets:

1Es 1:52 So far forth, that he, being wroth with his people for their great unreverence, commanded the kings of the Chaldees to come up against them;

1Es 1:53 Who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compass of their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child, among them; for he delivered all into their hands.

1Es 1:54 And they took all the holy vessels of Yehowah, both great and small, with the vessels of the ark of Yehowah, and the king's treasures, and carried them away into Babylon.

1Es 1:55 As for the house of Yehowah, they burnt it, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and set fire upon her towers:

1Es 1:56 And as for her glorious things, they never ceased till they had consumed and brought them all to naught: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried unto Babylon:

1Es 1:57 Who became servants to him and his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfill the word of Yehowah spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah:

1Es 1:58 Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she rest, until the full term of seventy years.

1Es 2:1 In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of Yehowah might be accomplished, that he had promised by the mouth of Jeremiah;

1Es 2:2 Yehowah raised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing,

1Es 2:3 Saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians; Yehowah of Israel, the most high Lord, hath made me king of the whole world, 1Es 2:4 And commanded me to build him an house at Jerusalem in Jewry.

1Es 2:5 If therefore there be any of you that are of his people, let Yehowah, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Mighty One of Israel: for he is Yehowah that dwelleth in Jerusalem.

1Es 2:6 Whosoever then dwell in the places about, let them help him, those, I say, that are his neighbors, with gold, and with silver, 1Es 2:7 With gifts, with horses, and with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of Yehowah at Jerusalem.

1Es 2:8 Then the chief of the families of Judea and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose mind Yehowah had moved to go up, and to build an house for Yehowah at Jerusalem, 1Es 2:9 And they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver and gold, with horses and cattle, and with very many free gifts of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto.

1Es 2:10 King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols.

1Es 2:11 Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithridates his treasurer:

1Es 2:12 And by him they were delivered to Sanabassar the governor of Judea.

1Es 2:13 And this was the number of them; A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels.

1Es 2:14 So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carried away, were five thousand four hundred threescore and nine.

1Es 2:15 These were brought back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

1Es 2:16 But in the time of Artexerxes king of the Persians Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and Semellius the secretary, with others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem these letters following;

1Es 2:17 To king Artexerxes our lord, Thy servants, Rathumus the storywriter, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Celosyria and Phenice.

1Es 2:18 Be it now known to the lord king, that the Jews that are up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem, that rebellious and wicked city, do build the marketplaces, and repair the walls of it and do lay the foundation of the temple.

1Es 2:19 Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also rebel against kings.

1Es 2:20 And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter,

1Es 2:21 But to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers:

1Es 2:22 And thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities:

1Es 2:23 And that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein; for the which cause even this city was made desolate.

1Es 2:24 Wherefore now we do declare unto thee, O lord the king, that if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up anew, thou shalt from henceforth have no passage into Celosyria and Phenice.

1Es 2:25 Then the king wrote back again to Rathumus the storywriter, to Beeltethmus, to Semellius the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria and Phenice, after this manner;

1Es 2:26 I have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me: therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found that that city was from the beginning practising against kings;

1Es 2:27 And the men therein were given to rebellion and war: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in Celosyria and Phenice.

1Es 2:28 Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it;

1Es 2:29 And that those wicked workers proceed no further to the annoyance of kings,

1Es 2:30 Then king Artexerxes his letters being read, Rathumus, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste toward Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen and a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

1Es 3:1 Now when Darius reigned, he made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all his household, and unto all the princes of Media and Persia, 1Es 3:2 And to all the governors and captains and lieutenants that were under him, from India unto Ethiopia, of a hundred twenty and seven provinces.

1Es 3:3 And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bedchamber, and slept, and soon after awaked.

1Es 3:4 Then three young men, that were of the guard that kept the king's body, spake one to another;

1Es 3:5 Let every one of us speak a sentence: he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the king Darius give great gifts, and great things in token of victory:

1Es 3:6 As, to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with bridles of gold, and an headtire of fine linen, and a chain about his neck:

1Es 3:7 And he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin.

1Es 3:8 And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it under king Darius his pillow;

1Es 3:9 And said that, when the king is risen, some will give him the writings; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as was appointed.

1Es 3:10 The first wrote, Wine is the strongest.

1Es 3:11 The second wrote, The king is strongest.

1Es 3:12 The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Truth beareth away the victory.

1Es 3:13 Now when the king was risen up, they took their writings, and delivered them unto him, and so he read them:

1Es 3:14 And sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and Media, and the governors, and the captains, and the lieutenants, and the chief officers;

1Es 3:15 And sat him down in the royal seat of judgment; and the writings were read before them.

1Es 3:16 And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their own sentences. So they were called, and came in.

1Es 3:17 And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings. Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine;

1Es 3:18 And he said thus, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine! it causeth all men to err that drink it:

1Es 3:19 It maketh the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich:

1Es 3:20 It turneth also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow nor debt:

1Es 3:21 And it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor governor; and it maketh to speak all things by talents:

1Es 3:22 And when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw out swords:

1Es 3:23 But when they are from the wine, they remember not what they have done.

1Es 3:24 O ye men, is not wine the strongest, that enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

1Es 4:1 Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say, 1Es 4:2 O ye men, do not men excel in strength that bear rule over sea and land and all things in them?

1Es 4:3 But yet the king is more mighty: for he is lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; and whatsoever he commandeth them they do.

1Es 4:4 If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains walls and towers.

1Es 4:5 They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else.

1Es 4:6 Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbundry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king.

1Es 4:7 And yet he is but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare;

1Es 4:8 If he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build;

1Es 4:9 If he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant.

1Es 4:10 So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest:

1Es 4:11 And these keep watch round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in anything.

1Es 4:12 O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue.

1Es 4:13 Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (this was Zerubbabel) began to speak.

1Es 4:14 O ye men, it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that excelleth; who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women?

1Es 4:15 Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land.

1Es 4:16 Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh.

1Es 4:17 These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be.

1Es 4:18 Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favor and beauty?

1Es 4:19 And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever?

1Es 4:20 A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife.

1Es 4:21 He sticketh not to spend his life with his wife. and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country.

1Es 4:22 By this also ye must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labor and toil, and give and bring all to the woman?

1Es 4:23 Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers;

1Es 4:24 And looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love.

1Es 4:25 Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother.

1Es 4:26 Yea, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become servants for their sakes.

1Es 4:27 Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned, for women.

1Es 4:28 And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him?

1Es 4:29 Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the king, 1Es 4:30 And taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also struck the king with her left hand.

1Es 4:31 And yet for all this the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again.

1Es 4:32 O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

1Es 4:33 Then the king and the princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the truth.

1Es 4:34 O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day.

1Es 4:35 Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things.

1Es 4:36 All the earth crieth upon the truth, and the heaven blesseth it: all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing.

1Es 4:37 Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, and such are all their wicked works; and there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish.

1Es 4:38 As for the truth, it endureth, and is alwaYs strong; it liveth and conquereth forevermore.

1Es 4:39 With her there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works.

1Es 4:40 Neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, kingdom, power, and majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the Mighty One of truth.

1Es 4:41 And with that he held his peace. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is Truth, and mighty above all things.

1Es 4:42 Then said the king unto him, Ask what thou wilt more than is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and thou shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my cousin.

1Es 4:43 Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, 1Es 4:44 And to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them again thither.

1Es 4:45 Thou also hast vowed to build up the temple, which the Edomites burned when Judea was made desolate by the Chaldees.

1Es 4:46 And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality proceeding from thyself: I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to the King of heaven.

1Es 4:47 Then Darius the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers and lieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem.

1Es 4:48 He wrote letters also unto the lieutenants that were in Celosyria and Phenice, and unto them in Libanus, that they should bring cedar wood from Libanus unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him.

1Es 4:49 Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors;

1Es 4:50 And that all the country which they hold should be free without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held:

1Es 4:51 Yea, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built;

1Es 4:52 And other ten talents yearly, to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every day, as they had a commandment to offer seventeen:

1Es 4:53 And that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that went away.

1Es 4:54 He wrote also concerning. the charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister;

1Es 4:55 And likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up.

1Es 4:56 And he commanded to give to all that kept the city pensions and wages.

1Es 4:57 He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

1Es 4:58 Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven toward Jerusalem, and praised the King of heaven, 1Es 4:59 And said, From thee cometh victory, from thee cometh wisdom, and thine is the glory, and I am thy servant.

1Es 4:60 Blessed art thou, who hast given me wisdom: for to thee I give thanks, O Yehowah of our fathers.

1Es 4:61 And so he took the letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his brethren.

1Es 4:62 And they praised the Mighty One of their fathers, because he had given them freedom and liberty

1Es 4:63 To go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by his name: and they feasted with instruments of music and gladness seven days.

1Es 5:1 After this were the principal men of the families chosen according to their tribes, to go up with their wives and sons and daughters, with their menservants and maidservants, and their cattle.

1Es 5:2 And Darius sent with them a thousand horsemen, till they had brought them back to Jerusalem safely, and with musical [instruments] tabrets and flutes.

1Es 5:3 And all their brethren played, and he made them go up together with them.

1Es 5:4 And these are the names of the men which went up, according to their families among their tribes, after their several heads.

1Es 5:5 The priests, the sons of Phinehas the son of Aaron: Yehoshua the son of Josedec, the son of Saraias, and Joacim the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Salathiel, of the house of David, out of the kindred of Phares, of the tribe of Judah;

1Es 5:6 Who spake wise sentences before Darius the king of Persia in the second year of his reign, in the month Nisan, which is the first month.

1Es 5:7 And these are they of Jewry that came up from the captivity, where they dwelt as strangers, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon.

1Es 5:8 And they returned unto Jerusalem, and to the other parts of Jewry, every man to his own city, who came with Zerubbabel, with Yehoshua, Nehemias, and Zacharias, and Reesaias, Enenius, Mardocheus. Beelsarus, Aspharasus, Reelius, Roimus, and Baana, their guides.

1Es 5:9 The number of them of the nation, and their governors, sons of Phoros, two thousand a hundred seventy and two; the sons of Saphat, four hundred seventy and two:

1Es 5:10 The sons of Ares, seven hundred fifty and six:

1Es 5:11 The sons of Phaath Moab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve:

1Es 5:12 The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four: the sons of Zathul, nine hundred forty and five: the sons of Corbe, seven hundred and five: the sons of Bani, six hundred forty and eight:

1Es 5:13 The sons of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three: the sons of Sadas, three thousand two hundred twenty and two:

1Es 5:14 The sons of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and seven: the sons of Bagoi, two thousand sixty and six: the sons of Adin, four hundred fifty and four:

1Es 5:15 The sons of Aterezias, ninety and two: the sons of Ceilan and Azetas threescore and seven: the sons of Azuran, four hundred thirty and two:

1Es 5:16 The sons of Hananiah, a hundred and one: the sons of Arom, thirty two: and the sons of Bassa, three hundred twenty and three: the sons of Azephurith, a hundred and two:

1Es 5:17 The sons of Meterus, three thousand and five: the sons of Bethlomon, a hundred twenty and three:

1Es 5:18 They of Netophah, fifty and five: they of Anathoth, a hundred fifty and eight: they of Bethsamos, forty and two:

1Es 5:19 They of Kiriathiarius, twenty and five: they of Caphira and Beroth, seven hundred forty and three: they of Pira, seven hundred:

1Es 5:20 They of Chadias and Ammidoi, four hundred twenty and two: they of Cirama and Gabdes, six hundred twenty and one:

1Es 5:21 They of Macalon, a hundred twenty and two: they of Betolius, fifty and two: the sons of Nephis, a hundred fifty and six:

1Es 5:22 The sons of Calamolalus and Onus, seven hundred twenty and five: the sons of Jerechus, two hundred forty and five:

1Es 5:23 The sons of Annas, three thousand three hundred and thirty.

1Es 5:24 The priests: the sons of Jeddu, the son of Yehoshua among the sons of Sanasib, nine hundred seventy and two: the sons of Meruth, a thousand fifty and two:

1Es 5:25 The sons of Phassaron, a thousand forty and seven: the sons of Carme, a thousand and seventeen.

1Es 5:26 The Levites: the sons of Jessue, and Cadmiel, and Banuas, and Sudias, seventy and four.

1Es 5:27 The holy singers: the sons of Asaph, a hundred twenty and eight.

1Es 5:28 The porters: the sons of Salum, the sons of Jatal, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Dacobi, the sons of Teta, the sons of Sami, in all a hundred thirty and nine.

1Es 5:29 The servants of the temple: the sons of Esau, the sons of Asipha, the sons of Tabaoth, the sons of Ceras, the sons of Sud, the sons of Phaleas, the sons of Labana, the sons of Graba,

1Es 5:30 The sons of Acua, the sons of Uta, the sons of Cetab, the sons of Agaba, the sons of Subai, the sons of Anan, the sons of Cathua, the sons of Geddur,

1Es 5:31 The sons of Airus, the sons of Daisan, the sons of Noeba, the sons of Chaseba, the sons of Gazera, the sons of Azia, the sons of Phinehas, the sons of Azare, the sons of Bastai, the sons of Asana, the sons of Meani, the sons of Naphisi, the sons of Acub, the sons of Acipha, the sons of Assur, the sons of Pharacim, the sons of Basaloth, 1Es 5:32 The sons of Meeda, the sons of Coutha, the sons of Charea, the sons of Charcus, the sons of Aserer, the sons of Thomoi, the sons of Nasith, the sons of Atipha.

1Es 5:33 The sons of the servants of Solomon: the sons of Azaphion, the sons of Pharira, the sons of Jeeli, the sons of Lozon, the sons of Israel, the sons of Sapheth, 1Es 5:34 The sons of Hagia, the sons of Pharacareth, the sons of Sabi, the sons of Sarothie, the sons of Masias, the sons of Gar, the sons of Addus, the sons of Suba, the sons of Apherra, the sons of Barodis, the sons of Sabat, the sons of Allom.

1Es 5:35 All the ministers of the temple, and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two.

1Es 5:36 These came up from Thermeleth and Thelersas, Charaathalar leading them, and Aalar; 1Es 5:37 Neither could they shew their families, nor their stock, how they were of Israel: the sons of Ladan, the son of Ban, the sons of Necodan, six hundred fifty and two.

1Es 5:38 And of the priests that usurped the office of the priesthood, and were not found: the sons of Obdia, the sons of Accoz, the sons of Addus, who married Augia one of the daughters of Barzelus, and was named after his name.

1Es 5:39 And when the description of the kindred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood:

1Es 5:40 For unto them said Nehemias and Atharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there arose up an high priest clothed with doctrine and truth.

1Es 5:41 So of Israel, from them of twelve years old and upward, they were all in number forty thousand, beside menservants and womenservants two thousand three hundred and sixty.

1Es 5:42 Their menservants and handmaids were seven thousand three hundred forty and seven: the singing men and singing women, two hundred forty and five:

1Es 5:43 Four hundred thirty and five camels, seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, five thousand five hundred twenty and five beasts used to the yoke.

1Es 5:44 And certain of the chief of their families, when they came to the temple of Yehowah that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again in his own place according to their ability, 1Es 5:45 And to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and a hundred priestly vestments.

1Es 5:46 And so dwelt the priests and the Levites and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; and all Israel in their villages.

1Es 5:47 But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his own place, they came all together with one consent into the open place of the first gate which is toward the east.

1Es 5:48 Then stood up Yehoshua the son of Josedec, and his brethren the priests and Zerubbabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the Mighty One of Israel, 1Es 5:49 To offer burnt sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of Yehowah.

1Es 5:50 And there were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon his own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to Yehowah both morning and evening.

1Es 5:51 Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet:

1Es 5:52 And after that, the continual oblations, and the sacrifice of the sabbaths, and of the new months, and of all holy feasts.

1Es 5:53 And all they that had made any vow to Yehowah began to offer sacrifices to Yehowah from the first day of the seventh month, although the temple of Yehowah was not yet built.

1Es 5:54 And they gave unto the masons and carpenters money, meat, and drink, with cheerfulness.

1Es 5:55 Unto them of Zidon also and Tyre they gave carrs, that they should bring cedar trees from Libanus, which should be brought by floats to the haven of Joppa, according as it was commanded them by Cyrus king of the Persians.

1Es 5:56 And in the second year and second month after his coming to the temple of Yehowah at Jerusalem began Zerubbabel the son of Salathiel, and Yehoshua the son of Josedec, and their brethren, and the priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity:

1Es 5:57 And they laid the foundation of the house of Yehowah in the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem.

1Es 5:58 And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of Yehowah. Then stood up Yehoshua, and his sons and brethren, and Cadmiel his brother, and the sons of Madiabun, with the sons of Joda the son of Eliadun, with their sons and brethren, all Levites, with one accord setters forward of the business, laboring to advance the works in the house of Yehowah. So the workmen built the temple of Yehowah.

1Es 5:59 And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets; and the Levites the sons of Asaph had cymbals, 1Es 5:60 Singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising Yehowah, according as David the king of Israel had ordained.

1Es 5:61 And they sung with loud voices songs to the praise of Yehowah, because his mercy and glory is forever in all Israel.

1Es 5:62 And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving unto Yehowah for the rearing up of the house of Yehowah.

1Es 5:63 Also of the priests and Levites, and of the chief of their families, the ancients who had seen the former house came to the building of this with weeping and great crying.

1Es 5:64 But many with trumpets and joy shouted with loud voice,

1Es 5:65 Insomuch that the trumpets might not be heard for the weeping of the people: yet the multitude sounded marvellously, so that it was heard afar off.

1Es 5:66 Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what that noise of trumpets should mean.

1Es 5:67 And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple unto Yehowah Mighty One of Israel.

1Es 5:68 So they went to Zerubbabel and Yehoshua, and to the chief of the families, and said unto them, We will build together with you.

1Es 5:69 For we likewise, as ye, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto him from the days of Azbazareth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither.

1Es 5:70 Then Zerubbabel and Yehoshua and the chief of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not for us and you to build together an house unto Yehowah our Divine One.

1Es 5:71 We ourselves alone will build unto Yehowah of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us.

1Es 5:72 But the heathen of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judea, and holding them strait, hindered their building;

1Es 5:73 And by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that king Cyrus lived: so they were hindered from building for the space of two years, until the reign of Darius.

1Es 6:1 Now in the second year of the reign of Darius Aggeus and Zacharias the son of Addo, the prophets, prophesied unto the Jews in Jewry and Jerusalem in the name of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, which was upon them.

1Es 6:2 Then stood up Zerubbabel the son of Salatiel, and Yehoshua the son of Josedec, and began to build the house of Yehowah at Jerusalem, the prophets of Yehowah being with them, and helping them.

1Es 6:3 At the same time came unto them Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, with Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said unto them, 1Es 6:4 By whose appointment do ye build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the workmen that perform these things?

1Es 6:5 Nevertheless the elders of the Jews obtained favor, because Yehowah had visited the captivity;

1Es 6:6 And they were not hindered from building, until such time as signification was given unto Darius concerning them, and an answer received.

1Es 6:7 The copy of the letters which Sisinnes, governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, rulers in Syria and Phenice, wrote and sent unto Darius; To king Darius, greeting:

1Es 6:8 Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judea, and entered into the city of Jerusalem we found in the city of Jerusalem the ancients of the Jews that were of the captivity

1Es 6:9 Building an house unto Yehowah, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, and the timber already laid upon the walls.

1Es 6:10 And those works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it made.

1Es 6:11 Then asked we these elders, saying, By whose commandment build ye this house, and lay the foundations of these works?

1Es 6:12 Therefore to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chief doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men.

1Es 6:13 So they gave us this answer, We are the servants of Yehowah which made heaven and earth.

1Es 6:14 And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished.

1Es 6:15 But when our fathers provoked Yehowah unto wrath, and sinned against Yehowah of Israel which is in heaven, he gave them over into the power of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, of the Chaldees;

1Es 6:16 Who pulled down the house, and burned it, and carried away the people captives unto Babylon.

1Es 6:17 But in the first year that king Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon Cyrus the king wrote to build up this house.

1Es 6:18 And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nebuchadnezzar had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set them in his own temple those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to Zerubbabel and to Sanabassarus the ruler,

1Es 6:19 With commandment that he should carry away the same vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of Yehowah should be built in his place.

1Es 6:20 Then the same Sanabassarus, being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of Yehowah at Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended.

1Es 6:21 Now therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let search be made among the records of king Cyrus:

1Es 6:22 And if it be found that the building of the house of Yehowah at Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him signify unto us thereof.

1Es 6:23 Then commanded king Darius to seek among the records at Babylon: and so at Ecbatane the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a roll wherein these things were recorded.

1Es 6:24 In the first year of the reign of Cyrus king Cyrus commanded that the house of Yehowah at Jerusalem should be built again, where they do sacrifice with continual fire:

1Es 6:25 Whose height shall be sixty cubits and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus:

1Es 6:26 And that the holy vessels of the house of Yehowah, both of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar took out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before.

1Es 6:27 And also he commanded that Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phenice, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zerubbabel, the servant of Yehowah, and governor of Judea, and the elders of the Jews, to build the house of Yehowah in that place.

1Es 6:28 I have commanded also to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of the Jews, till the house of Yehowah be finished:

1Es 6:29 And out of the tribute of Celosyria and Phenice a portion carefully to be given these men for the sacrifices of Yehowah, that is, to Zerubbabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs;

1Es 6:30 And also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent:

1Es 6:31 That offerings may be made to the most high Yehowah for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives.

1Es 6:32 And he commanded that whosoever should transgress, yea, or make light of anything afore spoken or written, out of his own house should a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the king.

1Es 6:33 Yehowah therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that stretcheth out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of Yehowah in Jerusalem.

1Es 6:34 I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things it be done with diligence.

1Es 7:1 Then Sisinnes the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions following the commandments of king Darius, 1Es 7:2 Did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the ancients of the Jews and governors of the temple.

1Es 7:3 And so the holy works prospered, when Aggeus and Zacharias the prophets prophesied.

1Es 7:4 And they finished these things by the commandment of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artexerxes, kings of Persia.

1Es 7:5 And thus was the holy house finished in the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of Darius king of the Persians

1Es 7:6 And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and others that were of the captivity, that were added unto them, did according to the things written in the book of Moses.

1Es 7:7 And to the dedication of the temple of Yehowah they offered a hundred bullocks two hundred rams, four hundred lambs;

1Es 7:8 And twelve goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the chief of the tribes of Israel.

1Es 7:9 The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their kindreds, in the service of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, according to the book of Moses: and the porters at every gate.

1Es 7:10 And the children of Israel that were of the captivity held the Passover the fourteenth day of the first month, after that the priests and the Levites were sanctified.

1Es 7:11 They that were of the captivity were not all sanctified together: but the Levites were all sanctified together.

1Es 7:12 And so they offered the Passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

1Es 7:13 And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the people of the land, and sought Yehowah.

1Es 7:14 And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before Yehowah, 1Es 7:15 For that he had turned the counsel of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel.

1Es 8:1 And after these things, when Artexerxes the king of the Persians reigned came Esdras the son of Saraias, the son of Ezerias, the son of Helchiah, the son of Salum, 1Es 8:2 The son of Sadduc, the son of Achitob, the son of Amarias, the son of Ezias, the son of Meremoth, the son of Zaraias, the son of Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisum, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest.

1Es 8:3 This Esdras went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the Mighty One of Israel.

1Es 8:4 And the king did him honor: for he found grace in his sight in all his requests.

1Es 8:5 There went up with him also certain of the children of Israel, of the priest of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem, 1Es 8:6 In the seventh year of the reign of Artexerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the prosperous journey which Yehowah gave them.

1Es 8:7 For Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of Yehowah, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments.

1Es 8:8 Now the copy of the commission, which was written from Artexerxes the king, and came to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of Yehowah, is this that followeth;

1Es 8:9 King Artexerxes unto Esdras the priest and reader of the law of Yehowah sendeth greeting:

1Es 8:10 Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites being within our realm, as are willing and desirous should go with thee unto Jerusalem.

1Es 8:11 As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and my seven friends the counselors;

1Es 8:12 That they may look unto the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of Yehowah;

1Es 8:13 And carry the gifts unto Yehowah of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be found, to Yehowah in Jerusalem,

1Es 8:14 With that also which is given of the people for the temple of Yehowah their Divine One at Jerusalem: and that silver and gold may be collected for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining;

1Es 8:15 To the end that they may offer sacrifices unto Yehowah upon the altar of Yehowah their Divine One, which is in Jerusalem.

1Es 8:16 And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will do with the silver and gold, that do, according to the will of thy Divine One.

1Es 8:17 And the holy vessels of Yehowah, which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy Divine One, which is in Jerusalem, thou shalt set before thy Divine One in Jerusalem.

1Es 8:18 And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy Divine One, thou shalt give it out of the king's treasury.

1Es 8:19 And I king Artexerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoever Esdras the priest and the reader of the law of the most high Yehowah shall send for, they should give it him with speed, 1Es 8:20 To the sum of a hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to a hundred cors, and a hundred pieces of wine, and other things in abundance.

1Es 8:21 Let all things be performed after the law of Yehowah diligently unto the most high Yehowah, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons.

1Es 8:22 I command you also, that ye require no tax, nor any other imposition, of any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ministers of the temple, or of any that have doings in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose anything upon them.

1Es 8:23 And thou, Esdras, according to the wisdom of Yehowah ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phenice all those that know the law of thy Divine One; and those that know it not thou shalt teach.

1Es 8:24 And whosoever shall transgress the law of thy Divine One, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by imprisonment.

1Es 8:25 Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the only Lord Mighty One of my fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem:

1Es 8:26 And hath honored me in the sight of the king, and his counselors, and all his friends and nobles.

1Es 8:27 Therefore was I encouraged by the help of Yehowah my Divine One, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me.

1Es 8:28 And these are the chief according to their families and several dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artexerxes:

1Es 8:29 Of the sons of Phinehas, Gerson: of the sons of Ithamar, Gamael: of the sons of David, Lettus the son of Sechenias:

1Es 8:30 Of the sons of Pharez, Zacharias; and with him were counted a hundred and fifty men:

1Es 8:31 Of the sons of Pahath Moab, Eliaonias, the son of Zaraias, and with him two hundred men:

1Es 8:32 Of the sons of Zathoe, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him three hundred men: of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fifty men:

1Es 8:33 Of the sons of Elam, Josiah son of Gotholias, and with him seventy men:

1Es 8:34 Of the sons of Saphatias, Zaraias son of Michael, and with him threescore and ten men:

1Es 8:35 Of the sons of Joab, Abadias son of Jezelus, and with him two hundred and twelve men:

1Es 8:36 Of the sons of Banid, Assalimoth son of Josaphias, and with him a hundred and threescore men:

1Es 8:37 Of the sons of Babi, Zacharias son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men:

1Es 8:38 Of the sons of Astath, Johannes son of Acatan, and with him a hundred and ten men:

1Es 8:39 Of the sons of Adonikam the last, and these are the names of them, Eliphalet, Jewel, and Samaias, and with them seventy men:

1Es 8:40 Of the sons of Bago, Uthi the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men.

1Es 8:41 And these I gathered together to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days: and then I surveyed them.

1Es 8:42 But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites,

1Es 8:43 Then sent I unto Eleazar, and Iduel, and Masman, 1Es 8:44 And Alnathan, and Mamaias, and Joribas, and Nathan, Eunatan, Zacharias, and Mosollamon, principal men and learned.

1Es 8:45 And I bade them that they should go unto Saddeus the captain, who was in the place of the treasury:

1Es 8:46 And commanded them that they should speak unto Daddeus, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of Yehowah.

1Es 8:47 And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skillful men of the sons of Moli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, Asebebia, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen.

1Es 8:48 And Asebia, and Annus, and Osaias his brother, of the sons of Channuneus, and their sons, were twenty men.

1Es 8:49 And of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites to wit, the servants of the temple two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names were shewed.

1Es 8:50 And there I vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the cattle:

1Es 8:51 For I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries.

1Es 8:52 For we had said unto the king, that the power of Yehowah our Divine One should be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways.

1Es 8:53 And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us.

1Es 8:54 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Esebrias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with them:

1Es 8:55 And I weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given.

1Es 8:56 And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold, 1Es 8:57 And twenty golden vessels, and twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold.

1Es 8:58 And I said unto them, Both ye are holy unto Yehowah, and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto Yehowah, Mighty One of our fathers.

1Es 8:59 Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our Divine One.

1Es 8:60 So the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver and the gold and the vessels, brought them unto Jerusalem, into the temple of Yehowah.

1Es 8:61 And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us: and from the beginning of our journey Yehowah delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem.

1Es 8:62 And when we had been there three days, the gold and silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day unto Marmoth the priest the son of Iri.

1Es 8:63 And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them were Josabad the son of Jesu and Moeth the son of Sabban, Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight.

1Es 8:64 And all the weight of them was written up the same hour.

1Es 8:65 Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, 1Es 8:66 Threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to Yehowah.

1Es 8:67 And they delivered the king's commandments unto the king's stewards' and to the governors of Celosyria and Phenice; and they honored the people and the temple of Yehowah.

1Es 8:68 Now when these things were done, the rulers came unto me, and said,

1Es 8:69 The nation of Israel, the princes, the priests and Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor the pollutions of the nations to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pheresites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites.

1Es 8:70 For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers of this iniquity.

1Es 8:71 And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and very heavy.

1Es 8:72 So all they that were then moved at the word of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice.

1Es 8:73 Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto Yehowah,

1Es 8:74 I said, O Yehowah, I am confounded and ashamed before thy face;

1Es 8:75 For our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven.

1Es 8:76 For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even unto this day.

1Es 8:77 And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, unto this day.

1Es 8:78 And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Yehowah, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of thy sanctuary;

1Es 8:79 And to discover unto us a light in the house of Yehowah our Divine One, and to give us food in the time of our servitude.

1Es 8:80 Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food;

1Es 8:81 Yea, and honored the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Zion, that they have given us a sure abiding in Jewry and Jerusalem.

1Es 8:82 And now, O Yehowah, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy commandments, which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, saying, 1Es 8:83 That the land, which ye enter into to possess as a heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness.

1Es 8:84 Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons.

1Es 8:85 Moreover ye shall never seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children forevermore.

1Es 8:86 And all that is befallen is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins; for thou, O Yehowah, didst make our sins light, 1Es 8:87 And didst give unto us such a root: but we have turned back again to transgress thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the uncleanness of the nations of the land.

1Es 8:88 Mightest not thou be angry with us to destroy us, till thou hadst left us neither root, seed, nor name?

1Es 8:89 O Yehowah of Israel, thou art true: for we are left a root this day.

1Es 8:90 Behold, now are we before thee in our iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before thee.

1Es 8:91 And as Esdras in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude.

1Es 8:92 Then Jechonias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against Almighty Yehowah, we have married strange women of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel aloft.

1Es 8:93 Let us make an oath to Yehowah, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the heathen, with their children, 1Es 8:94 Like as thou hast decreed, and as many as do obey the law of Yehowah.

1Es 8:95 Arise and put in execution: for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee: do valiantly.

1Es 8:96 So Esdras arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

1Es 9:1 Then Esdras rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Joanan the son of Eliasib, 1Es 9:2 And remained there, and did eat no meat nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude.

1Es 9:3 And there was a proclamation in all Jewry and Jerusalem to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem:

1Es 9:4 And that whosoever met not there within two or three days according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself cast out from them that were of the captivity.

1Es 9:5 And in three days were all they of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem the twentieth day of the ninth month.

1Es 9:6 And all the multitude sat trembling in the broad court of the temple because of the present foul weather.

1Es 9:7 So Esdras arose up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed the law in marrying strange wives, thereby to increase the sins of Israel.

1Es 9:8 And now by confessing give glory unto Yehowah Mighty One of our fathers, 1Es 9:9 And do his will, and separate yourselves from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women.

1Es 9:10 Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as thou hast spoken, so will we do.

1Es 9:11 But forasmuch as the people are many, and it is foul weather, so that we cannot stand without, and this is not a work of a day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far:

1Es 9:12 Therefore let the rulers of the multitude stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come at the time appointed,

1Es 9:13 And with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of Yehowah from us for this matter.

1Es 9:14 Then Jonathan the son of Azael and Ezechias the son of Theocanus accordingly took this matter upon them: and Mosollam and Levis and Sabbatheus helped them.

1Es 9:15 And they that were of the captivity did according to all these things.

1Es 9:16 And Esdras the priest chose unto him the principal men of their families, all by name: and in the first day of the tenth month they sat together to examine the matter.

1Es 9:17 So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end in the first day of the first month.

1Es 9:18 And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were found:

1Es 9:19 Of the sons of Yehoshua the son of Josedec, and his brethren; Matthelas and Eleazar, and Joribus and Joadanus.

1Es 9:20 And they gave their hands to put away their wives and to offer rams to make reconcilement for their errors.

1Es 9:21 And of the sons of Emmer; Hananiah, and Zabdeus, and Eanes, and Sameius, and Hiereel, and Azariah.

1Es 9:22 And of the sons of Phaisur; Elionas, Massias Israel, and Nathanael, and Ocidelus and Talsas.

1Es 9:23 And of the Levites; Jozabad, and Semis, and Colius, who was called Calitas, and Patheus, and Judas, and Jonas.

1Es 9:24 Of the holy singers; Eleazurus, Bacchurus.

1Es 9:25 Of the porters; Sallumus, and Tolbanes.

1Es 9:26 Of them of Israel, of the sons of Phoros; Hiermas, and Eddias, and Melchias, and Maelus, and Eleazar, and Asibias, and Baanias.

1Es 9:27 Of the sons of Ela; Matthanias, Zacharias, and Hierielus, and Hieremoth, and Aedias.

1Es 9:28 And of the sons of Zamoth; Eliadas, Elisimus, Othonias, Jarimoth, and Sabatus, and Sardeus.

1Es 9:29 Of the sons of Babai; Johannes, and Hananiah and Josabad, and Amatheis.

1Es 9:30 Of the sons of Mani; Olamus, Mamuchus, Jedeus, Jasubus, Jasael, and Hieremoth.

1Es 9:31 And of the sons of Addi; Naathus, and Moosias, Lacunus, and Naidus, and Mathanias, and Sesthel, Balnuus, and Manasseas.

1Es 9:32 And of the sons of Annas; Elionas and Aseas, and Melchias, and Sabbeus, and Simon Chosameus.

1Es 9:33 And of the sons of Asom; Altaneus, and Matthias, and Baanaia, Eliphalet, and Manasses, and Semei.

1Es 9:34 And of the sons of Maani; Jeremiah, Momdis, Omaerus, Juel, Mabdai, and Pelias, and Anos, Carabasion, and Enasibus, and Mamnitanaimus, Eliasis, Bannus, Eliali, Samis, Selemias, Nathanias: and of the sons of Ozora; Sesis, Esril, Azaelus, Samatus, Zambis, Josephus.

1Es 9:35 And of the sons of Ethma; Mazitias, Zabadaias, Edes, Juel, Banaias.

1Es 9:36 All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children.

1Es 9:37 And the priests and Levites, and they that were of Israel, dwelt in Jerusalem, and in the country, in the first day of the seventh month: so the children of Israel were in their habitations.

1Es 9:38 And the whole multitude came together with one accord into the broad place of the holy porch toward the east:

1Es 9:39 And they spake unto Esdras the priest and reader, that he would bring the law of Moses, that was given of Yehowah Mighty One of Israel.

1Es 9:40 So Esdras the chief priest brought the law unto the whole multitude from man to woman, and to all the priests, to hear law in the first day of the seventh month.

1Es 9:41 And he read in the broad court before the holy porch from morning unto midday, before both men and women; and the multitude gave heed unto the law.

1Es 9:42 And Esdras the priest and reader of the law stood up upon a pulpit of wood, which was made for that purpose.

1Es 9:43 And there stood up by him Mattathias, Sammus, Hananiah, Azariah, Urias, Ezecias, Balasamus, upon the right hand:

1Es 9:44 And upon his left hand stood Phaldaius, Mishael, Melchias, Lothasubus, and Nabarias.

1Es 9:45 Then took Esdras the book of the law before the multitude: for he sat honorably in the first place in the sight of them all.

1Es 9:46 And when he opened the law, they stood all straight up. So Esdras blessed Almighty Yehowah Most High, the Mighty One of hosts, Almighty.

1Es 9:47 And all the people answered, Amen; and lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshiped Yehowah.

1Es 9:48 Also Yehoshua, Anus, Sarabias, Adinus, Jacubus, Sabateas, Auteas, Maianeas, and Calitas, Asrias, and Joazabdus, and Hananiah, Biatas, the Levites, taught the law of Yehowah, making them withal to understand it.

1Es 9:49 Then spake Attharates unto Esdras the chief priest. and reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, saying,

1Es 9:50 This day is holy unto Yehowah; (for they all wept when they heard the law:)

1Es 9:51 Go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send part to them that have nothing;

1Es 9:52 For this day is holy unto Yehowah: and be not sorrowful; for Yehowah will bring you to honor.

1Es 9:53 So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy to Yehowah; be not sorrowful.

1Es 9:54 Then went they their way, every one to eat and drink, and make merry, and to give part to them that had nothing, and to make great cheer;

1Es 9:55 Because they understood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.

Book of 2nd Esdras

2Es 1:1 The second book of the prophet Esdras, the son of Saraias, the son of Azariah, the son of Helchias, the son of Sadamias, the sou of Sadoc, the son of Achitob,

2Es 1:2 The son of Achias, the son of Phinehas, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Aziei, the son of Marimoth, the son of And he spake unto the of Borith, the son of Abisei, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, 2Es 1:3 The son of Aaron, of the tribe of Levi; which was captive in the land of the Medes, in the reign of Artexerxes king of the Persians.

2Es 1:4 And the word of Yehowah came unto me, saying,

2Es 1:5 Go thy way, and shew my people their sinful deeds, and their children their wickedness which they have done against me; that they may tell their children's children:

2Es 1:6 Because the sins of their fathers are increased in them: for they have forgotten me, and have offered unto strange deities.

2Es 1:7 Am not I even he that brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage? but they have provoked me unto wrath, and despised my counsels.

2Es 1:8 Pull thou off then the hair of thy head, and cast all evil upon them, for they have not been obedient unto my law, but it is a rebellious people.

2Es 1:9 How long shall I forbear them, into whom I have done so much good?

2Es 1:10 Many kings have I destroyed for their sakes; Pharaoh with his servants and all his power have I smitten down.

2Es 1:11 All the nations have I destroyed before them, and in the east I have scattered the people of two provinces, even of Tyrus and Sidon, and have slain all their enemies.

2Es 1:12 Speak thou therefore unto them, saying, Thus saith Yehowah, 2Es 1:13 I led you through the sea and in the beginning gave you a large and safe passage; I gave you Moses for a leader, and Aaron for a priest.

2Es 1:14 I gave you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders have I done among you; yet have ye forgotten me, saith Yehowah.

2Es 1:15 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, The quails were as a token to you; I gave you tents for your safeguard: nevertheless ye murmured there,

2Es 1:16 And triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies, but ever to this day do ye yet murmur.

2Es 1:17 Where are the benefits that I have done for you? when ye were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, did ye not cry unto me, 2Es 1:18 Saying, Why hast thou brought us into this wilderness to kill us? it had been better for us to have served the Egyptians, than to die in this wilderness.

2Es 1:19 Then had I pity upon your mournings, and gave you manna to eat; so ye did eat angels' bread.

2Es 1:20 When ye were thirsty, did I not cleave the rock, and waters flowed out to your fill? for the heat I covered you with the leaves of the trees.

2Es 1:21 I divided among you a fruitful land, I cast out the Canaanites, the Pherezites, and the Philistines, before you: what shall I yet do more for you? saith Yehowah.

2Es 1:22 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, When ye were in the wilderness, in the river of the Amorites, being athirst, and blaspheming my name, 2Es 1:23 I gave you not fire for your blasphemies, but cast a tree in the water, and made the river sweet.

2Es 1:24 What shall I do unto thee, O Jacob? thou, Judah, wouldest not obey me: I will turn me to other nations, and unto those will I give my name, that they may keep my statutes.

2Es 1:25 Seeing ye have forsaken me, I will forsake you also; when ye desire me to be gracious unto you, I shall have no mercy upon you.

2Es 1:26 Whensoever ye shall call upon me, I will not hear you: for ye have defiled your hands with blood, and your feet are swift to commit manslaughter.

2Es 1:27 Ye have not as it were forsaken me, but your own selves, saith Yehowah.

2Es 1:28 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Have I not prayed you as a father his sons, as a mother her daughters, and a nurse her young babes, 2Es 1:29 That ye would be my people, and I should be your Divine One; that ye would be my children, and I should be your father?

2Es 1:30 I gathered you together, as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings: but now, what shall I do unto you? I will cast you out from my face.

2Es 1:31 When ye offer unto me, I will turn my face from you: for your solemn feastdays, your new months, and your circumcisions, have I forsaken.

2Es 1:32 I sent unto you my servants the prophets, whom ye have taken and slain, and torn their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will require of your hands, saith Yehowah.

2Es 1:33 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Your house is desolate, I will cast you out as the wind doth stubble.

2Es 1:34 And your children shall not be fruitful; for they have despised my commandment, and done the thing that is an evil before me.

2Es 1:35 Your houses will I give to a people that shall come; which not having heard of me yet shall believe me; to whom I have shewed no signs, yet they shall do that I have commanded them.

2Es 1:36 They have seen no prophets, yet they shall call their sins to remembrance, and acknowledge them.

2Es 1:37 I take to witness the grace of the people to come, whose little ones rejoice in gladness: and though they have not seen me with bodily eyes, yet in spirit they believe the thing that I say.

2Es 1:38 And now, brother, behold what glory; and see the people that come from the east:

2Es 1:39 Unto whom I will give for leaders, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Oseas, Amos, and Micheas, Joel, Abdias, and Jonas, 2Es 1:40 Nahum, and Abacuc, Sophonias, Aggeus, Zachary, and Malachy, which is called also an angel of Yehowah.

2Es 2:1 Thus saith Yehowah, I brought this people out of bondage, and I gave them my commandments by menservants the prophets; whom they would not hear, but despised my counsels.

2Es 2:2 The mother that bare them saith unto them, Go your way, ye children; for I am a widow and forsaken.

2Es 2:3 I brought you up with gladness; but with sorrow and heaviness have I lost you: for ye have sinned before Yehowah your Divine One, and done that thing that is evil before him.

2Es 2:4 But what shall I now do unto you? I am a widow and forsaken: go your way, O my children, and ask mercy of Yehowah.

2Es 2:5 As for me, O father, I call upon thee for a witness over the mother of these children, which would not keep my covenant, 2Es 2:6 That thou bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoil, that there may be no offspring of them.

2Es 2:7 Let them be scattered abroad among the heathen, let their names be put out of the earth: for they have despised my covenant.

2Es 2:8 Woe be unto thee, Assur, thou that hidest the unrighteous in thee! O thou wicked people, remember what I did unto Sodom and Gomorrha;

2Es 2:9 Whose land lieth in clods of pitch and heaps of ashes: even so also will I do unto them that hear me not, saith the Almighty Lord.

2Es 2:10 Thus saith Yehowah unto Esdras, Tell my people that I will give them the kingdom of Jerusalem, which I would have given unto Israel.

2Es 2:11 Their glory also will I take unto me, and give these the everlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for them.

2Es 2:12 They shall have the tree of life for an ointment of sweet savor; they shall neither labor, nor be weary.

2Es 2:13 Go, and ye shall receive: pray for few days unto you, that they may be shortened: the kingdom is already prepared for you: watch.

2Es 2:14 Take heaven and earth to witness; for I have broken the evil in pieces, and created the good: for I live, saith Yehowah.

2Es 2:15 Mother, embrace thy children, and bring them up with gladness, make their feet as fast as a pillar: for I have chosen thee, saith Yehowah.

2Es 2:16 And those that be dead will I raise up again from their places, and bring them out of the graves: for I have known my name in Israel.

2Es 2:17 Fear not, thou mother of the children: for I have chosen thee, saith Yehowah.

2Es 2:18 For thy help will I send my servants Esau and Jeremiah, after whose counsel I have sanctified and prepared for thee twelve trees laden with divers fruits, 2Es 2:19 And as many fountains flowing with milk and honey, and seven mighty mountains, whereupon there grow roses and lilies, whereby I will fill thy children with joy.

2Es 2:20 Do right to the widow, judge for the fatherless, give to the poor, defend the orphan, clothe the naked, 2Es 2:21 Heal the broken and the weak, laugh not a lame man to scorn, defend the maimed, and let the blind man come into the sight of my clearness.

2Es 2:22 Keep the old and young within thy walls.

2Es 2:23 Wheresoever thou findest the dead, take them and bury them, and I will give thee the first place in my resurrection.

2Es 2:24 Abide still, O my people, and take thy rest, for thy quietness still come.

2Es 2:25 Nourish thy children, O thou good nurse; stablish their feet.

2Es 2:26 As for the servants whom I have given thee, there shall not one of them perish; for I will require them from among thy number.

2Es 2:27 Be not weary: for when the day of trouble and heaviness cometh, others shall weep and be sorrowful, but thou shalt be merry and have abundance.

2Es 2:28 The heathen shall envy thee, but they shall be able to do nothing against thee, saith Yehowah.

2Es 2:29 My hands shall cover thee, so that thy children shall not see hell.

2Es 2:30 Be joyful, O thou mother, with thy children; for I will deliver thee, saith Yehowah.

2Es 2:31 Remember thy children that sleep, for I shall bring them out of the sides of the earth, and shew mercy unto them: for I am merciful, saith Yehowah Almighty.

2Es 2:32 Embrace thy children until I come and shew mercy unto them: for my wells run over, and my grace shall not fail.

2Es 2:33 I Esdras received a charge of Yehowah upon the mount Oreb, that I should go unto Israel; but when I came unto them, they set me at naught, and despised the commandment of Yehowah.

2Es 2:34 And therefore I say unto you, O ye heathen, that hear and understand, look for your Shepherd, he shall give you everlasting rest; for he is nigh at hand, that shall come in the end of the world.

2Es 2:35 Be ready to the reward of the kingdom, for the everlasting light shall shine upon you forevermore.

2Es 2:36 Flee the shadow of this world, receive the joyfulness of your glory: I testify my Savior openly.

2Es 2:37 O receive the gift that is given you, and be glad, giving thanks unto him that hath led you to the heavenly kingdom.

2Es 2:38 Arise up and stand, behold the number of those that be sealed in the feast of Yehowah;

2Es 2:39 Which are departed from the shadow of the world, and have received glorious garments of Yehowah.

2Es 2:40 Take thy number, O Zion, and shut up those of thine that are clothed in white, which have fulfilled the law of Yehowah.

2Es 2:41 The number of thy children, whom thou longedst for, is fulfilled: beseech the power of Yehowah, that thy people, which have been called from the beginning, may be hallowed.

2Es 2:42 I Esdras saw upon the mount Zion a great people, whom I could not number, and they all praised Yehowah with songs.

2Es 2:43 And in the midst of them there was a young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads he set crowns, and was more exalted; which I marveled at greatly.

2Es 2:44 So I asked the angel, and said, Sir, what are these?

2Es 2:45 He answered and said unto me, These be they that have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of Yehowah: now are they crowned, and receive palms.

2Es 2:46 Then said I unto the angel, What young person is it that crowneth them, and giveth them palms in their hands?

2Es 2:47 So he answered and said unto me, It is the Son of Yehowah, whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them that stood so stiffly for the name of Yehowah.

2Es 2:48 Then the angel said unto me, Go thy way, and tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of Yehowah thy Divine One, thou hast seen.

2Es 3:1 In the thirtieth year after the ruin of the city I was in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and my thoughts came up over my heart:

2Es 3:2 For I saw the desolation of Zion, and the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.

2Es 3:3 And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the Most High, and said,

2Es 3:4 O Yehowah, who bearest rule, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou didst plant the earth, and that thyself alone, and commandedst the people, 2Es 3:5 And gavest a body unto Adam without soul, which was the workmanship of thine hands, and didst breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before thee.

2Es 3:6 And thou leadest him into paradise, which thy right hand had planted, before ever the earth came forward.

2Es 3:7 And unto him thou gavest commandment to love thy way: which he transgressed, and immediately thou appointedst death in him and in his generations, of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kindreds, out of number.

2Es 3:8 And every people walked after their own will, and did wonderful things before thee, and despised thy commandments.

2Es 3:9 And again in process of time thou broughtest the flood upon those that dwelt in the world, and destroyedst them.

2Es 3:10 And it came to pass in every of them, that as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these.

2Es 3:11 Nevertheless one of them thou leftest, namely, Noah with his household, of whom came all righteous men.

2Es 3:12 And it happened, that when they that dwelt upon the earth began to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, they began again to be more irreverent than the first.

2Es 3:13 Now when they lived so wickedly before thee, thou didst choose thee a man from among them, whose name was Abraham.

2Es 3:14 Him thou lovedst, and unto him only thou shewedst thy will:

2Es 3:15 And madest an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that thou wouldest never forsake his seed.

2Es 3:16 And unto him thou gavest Isaac, and unto Isaac also thou gavest Jacob and Esau. As for Jacob, thou didst choose him to thee, and put by Esau: and so Jacob became a great multitude.

2Es 3:17 And it came to pass, that when thou leadest his seed out of Egypt, thou broughtest them up to the mount Sinai.

2Es 3:18 And bowing the heavens, thou didst set fast the earth, movedst the whole world, and madest the depths to tremble, and troubledst the men of that age.

2Es 3:19 And thy glory went through four gates, of fire, and of earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that thou mightest give the law unto the seed of Jacob, and diligence unto the generation of Israel.

2Es 3:20 And yet tookest thou not away from them a wicked heart, that thy law might bring forth fruit in them.

2Es 3:21 For the first Adam bearing a wicked heart transgressed, and was overcome; and so be all they that are born of him.

2Es 3:22 Thus infirmity was made permanent; and the law (also) in the heart of the people with the malignity of the root; so that the good departed away, and the evil abode still.

2Es 3:23 So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end: then didst thou raise thee up a servant, called David:

2Es 3:24 Whom thou commandedst to build a city unto thy name, and to offer incense and oblations unto thee therein.

2Es 3:25 When this was done many years, then they that inhabited the city forsook thee,

2Es 3:26 And in all things did even as Adam and all his generations had done: for they also had a wicked heart:

2Es 3:27 And so thou gavest thy city over into the hands of thine enemies.

2Es 3:28 Are their deeds then any better that inhabit Babylon, that they should therefore have the dominion over Zion?

2Es 3:29 For when I came thither, and had seen impieties without number, then my soul saw many evildoers in this thirtieth year, so that my heart failed me.

2Es 3:30 For I have seen how thou sufferest them sinning, and hast spared wicked doers: and hast destroyed thy people, and hast preserved thine enemies, and hast not signified it.

2Es 3:31 I do not remember how this way may be left: Are they then of Babylon better than they of Zion?

2Es 3:32 Or is there any other people that knoweth thee beside Israel? or what generation hath so believed thy covenants as Jacob?

2Es 3:33 And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labor hath no fruit: for I have gone here and there through the heathen, and I see that they flow in wealth, and think not upon thy commandments.

2Es 3:34 Weigh thou therefore our wickedness now in the balance, and their's also that dwell the world; and so shall thy name no where be found but in Israel.

2Es 3:35 Or when was it that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in thy sight? or what people have so kept thy commandments?

2Es 3:36 Thou shalt find that Israel by name hath kept thy precepts; but not the heathen.

2Es 4:1 And the angel that was sent unto me, whose name was Uriel, gave me an answer, 2Es 4:2 And said, Thy heart hath gone to far in this world, and thinkest thou to comprehend the way of the Most High?

2Es 4:3 Then said I, Yea, my lord. And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shew thee three ways, and to set forth three similitudes before thee:

2Es 4:4 Whereof if thou canst declare me one, I will shew thee also the way that thou desirest to see, and I shall shew thee from whence the wicked heart cometh.

2Es 4:5 And I said, Tell on, my lord. Then said he unto me, Go thy way, weigh me the weight of the fire, or measure me the blast of the wind, or call me again the day that is past.

2Es 4:6 Then answered I and said, What man is able to do that, that thou shouldest ask such things of me?

2Es 4:7 And he said unto me, If I should ask thee how great dwellings are in the midst of the sea, or how many springs are in the beginning of the deep, or how many springs are above the firmament, or which are the outgoings of paradise:

2Es 4:8 Peradventure thou wouldest say unto me, I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven.

2Es 4:9 Nevertheless now have I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day wherethrough thou hast passed, and of things from which thou canst not be separated, and yet canst thou give me no answer of them.

2Es 4:10 He said moreover unto me, Thine own things, and such as are grown up with thee, canst thou not know;

2Es 4:11 How should thy vessel then be able to comprehend the way of the Highest, and, the world being now outwardly corrupted to understand the corruption that is evident in my sight?

2Es 4:12 Then said I unto him, It were better that we were not at all, than that we should live still in wickedness, and to suffer, and not to know wherefore.

2Es 4:13 He answered me, and said, I went into a forest into a plain, and the trees took counsel, 2Es 4:14 And said, Come, let us go and make war against the sea that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods.

2Es 4:15 The floods of the sea also in like manner took counsel, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the woods of the plain, that there also we may make us another country.

2Es 4:16 The thought of the wood was in vain, for the fire came and consumed it.

2Es 4:17 The thought of the floods of the sea came likewise to naught, for the sand stood up and stopped them.

2Es 4:18 If thou wert judge now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou begin to justify? or whom wouldest thou condemn?

2Es 4:19 I answered and said, Verily it is a foolish thought that they both have devised, for the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea also hath his place to bear his floods.

2Es 4:20 Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast given a right judgment, but why judgest thou not thyself also?

2Es 4:21 For like as the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea to his floods: even so they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth: and he that dwelleth above the heavens may only understand the things that are above the height of the heavens.

2Es 4:22 Then answered I and said, I beseech thee, O Yehowah, let me have understanding:

2Es 4:23 For it was not my mind to be curious of the high things, but of such as pass by us daily, namely, wherefore Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loved is given over unto irreverent nations, and why the law of our forefathers is brought to naught, and the written covenants come to none effect, 2Es 4:24 And we pass away out of the world as grasshoppers, and our life is astonishment and fear, and we are not worthy to obtain mercy.

2Es 4:25 What will he then do unto his name whereby we are called? of these things have I asked.

2Es 4:26 Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marvel; for the world hasteth fast to pass away, 2Es 4:27 And cannot comprehend the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: for this world is full of unrighteousness and infirmities.

2Es 4:28 But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee; for the evil is sown, but the destruction thereof is not yet come.

2Es 4:29 If therefore that which is sown be not turned upside down, and if the place where the evil is sown pass not away, then cannot it come that is sown with good.

2Es 4:30 For the grain of evil seed hath been sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much unreverence hath it brought up unto this time? and how much shall it yet bring forth until the time of threshing come?

2Es 4:31 Ponder now by thyself, how great fruit of wickedness the grain of evil seed hath brought forth.

2Es 4:32 And when the ears shall be cut down, which are without number, how great a floor shall they fill?

2Es 4:33 Then I answered and said, How, and when shall these things come to pass? wherefore are our years few and evil?

2Es 4:34 And he answered me, saying, Do not thou hasten above the most Highest: for thy haste is in vain to be above him, for thou hast much exceeded.

2Es 4:35 Did not the souls also of the righteous ask question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when cometh the fruit of the floor of our reward?

2Es 4:36 And unto these things Uriel the archangel gave them answer, and said, Even when the number of seeds is filled in you: for he hath weighed the world in the balance.

2Es 4:37 By measure hath he measured the times; and by number hath he numbered the times; and he doth not move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled.

2Es 4:38 Then answered I and said, O Yehowah that bearest rule, even we all are full of impiety.

2Es 4:39 And for our sakes peradventure it is that the floors of the righteous are not filled, because of the sins of them that dwell upon the earth.

2Es 4:40 So he answered me, and said, Go thy way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she hath fulfilled her nine months, if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her.

2Es 4:41 Then said I, No, Lord, that can she not. And he said unto me, In the grave the chambers of souls are like the womb of a woman:

2Es 4:42 For like as a woman that travaileth maketh haste to escape the necessity of the travail: even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them.

2Es 4:43 From the beginning, look, what thou desirest to see, it shall be shewed thee.

2Es 4:44 Then answered I and said, If I have found favor in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore,

2Es 4:45 Shew me then whether there be more to come than is past, or more past than is to come.

2Es 4:46 What is past I know, but what is for to come I know not.

2Es 4:47 And he said unto me, Stand up upon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude unto thee.

2Es 4:48 So I stood, and saw, and, behold, an hot burning oven passed by before me: and it happened that when the flame was gone by I looked, and, behold, the smoke remained still.

2Es 4:49 After this there passed by before me a watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained still.

2Es 4:50 Then said he unto me, Consider with thyself; as the rain is more than the drops, and as the fire is greater than the smoke; but the drops and the smoke remain behind: so the quantity which is past did more exceed.

2Es 4:51 Then I prayed, and said, May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? or what shall happen in those days?

2Es 4:52 He answered me, and said, As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part: but as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee; for I do not know it.

2Es 5:1 Nevertheless as coming the tokens, behold, the days shall come, that they which dwell upon earth shall be taken in a great number, and the way of truth shall be hidden, and the land shall be barren of faith.

2Es 5:2 But iniquity shall be increased above that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long ago.

2Es 5:3 And the land, that thou seest now to have root, shalt thou see wasted suddenly.

2Es 5:4 But if the Most High grant thee to live, thou shalt see after the third trumpet that the sun shall suddenly shine again in the night, and the moon thrice in the day:

2Es 5:5 And blood shall drop out of wood, and the stone shall give his voice, and the people shall be troubled:

2Es 5:6 And even he shall rule, whom they look not for that dwell upon the earth, and the fowls shall take their flight away together:

2Es 5:7 And the Sodomitish sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but they shall all hear the voice thereof.

2Es 5:8 There shall be a confusion also in many places, and the fire shall be oft sent out again, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and menstruous women shall bring forth monsters:

2Es 5:9 And salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another; then shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw itself into his secret chamber,

2Es 5:10 And shall be sought of many, and yet not be found: then shall unrighteousness and incontinency be multiplied upon earth.

2Es 5:11 One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? And it shall say, No.

2Es 5:12 At the same time shall men hope, but nothing obtain: they shall labor, but their ways shall not prosper.

2Es 5:13 To shew thee such tokens I have leave; and if thou wilt pray again, and weep as now, and fast even days, thou shalt hear yet greater things.

2Es 5:14 Then I awaked, and an extreme fearfulness went through all my body, and my mind was troubled, so that it fainted.

2Es 5:15 So the angel that was come to talk with me held me, comforted me, and set me up upon my feet.

2Es 5:16 And in the second night it came to pass, that Salathiel the captain of the people came unto me, saying, Where hast thou been? and why is thy countenance so heavy?

2Es 5:17 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed unto thee in the land of their captivity?

2Es 5:18 Up then, and eat bread, and forsake us not, as the shepherd that leaveth his flock in the hands of cruel wolves.

2Es 5:19 Then said I unto him, Go thy ways from me, and come not nigh me. And he heard what I said, and went from me.

2Es 5:20 And so I fasted seven days, mourning and weeping, like as Uriel the angel commanded me.

2Es 5:21 And after seven days so it was, that the thoughts of my heart were very grievous unto me again,

2Es 5:22 And my soul recovered the spirit of understanding, and I began to talk with the Most High again,

2Es 5:23 And said, O Yehowah that bearest rule, of every wood of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen thee one only vine:

2Es 5:24 And of all lands of the whole world thou hast chosen thee one pit: and of all the flowers thereof one lily:

2Es 5:25 And of all the depths of the sea thou hast filled thee one river: and of all builded cities thou hast hallowed Zion unto thyself:

2Es 5:26 And of all the fowls that are created thou hast named thee one dove: and of all the cattle that are made thou hast provided thee one sheep:

2Es 5:27 And among all the multitudes of people thou hast gotten thee one people: and unto this people, whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all.

2Es 5:28 And now, O Yehowah, why hast thou given this one people over unto many? and upon the one root hast thou prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy only one people among many?

2Es 5:29 And they which did gainsay thy promises, and believed not thy covenants, have trodden them down.

2Es 5:30 If thou didst so much hate thy people, yet shouldest thou punish them with thine own hands.

2Es 5:31 Now when I had spoken these words, the angel that came to me the night afore was sent unto me, 2Es 5:32 And said unto me, Hear me, and I will instruct thee; hearken to the thing that I say, and I shall tell thee more.

2Es 5:33 And I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then said he unto me, Thou art sore troubled in mind for Israel's sake: lovest thou that people better than he that made them?

2Es 5:34 And I said, No, Lord: but of very grief have I spoken: for my reins pain me every hour, while I labor to comprehend the way of the Most High, and to seek out part of his judgment.

2Es 5:35 And he said unto me, Thou canst not. And I said, Wherefore, Lord? whereunto was I born then? or why was not my mother's womb then my grave, that I might not have seen the travail of Jacob, and the wearisome toil of the stock of Israel?

2Es 5:36 And he said unto me, Number me the things that are not yet come, gather me together the dross that are scattered abroad, make me the flowers green again that are withered, 2Es 5:37 Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that in them are shut up, shew me the image of a voice: and then I will declare to thee the thing that thou labourest to know.

2Es 5:38 And I said, O Yehowah that bearest rule, who may know these things, but he that hath not his dwelling with men?

2Es 5:39 As for me, I am unwise: how may I then speak of these things whereof thou askest me?

2Es 5:40 Then said he unto me, Like as thou canst do none of these things that I have spoken of, even so canst thou not find out my judgment, or in the end the love that I have promised unto my people.

2Es 5:41 And I said, Behold, O Yehowah, yet art thou nigh unto them that be reserved till the end: and what shall they do that have been before me, or we that be now, or they that shall come after us?

2Es 5:42 And he said unto me, I will liken my judgment unto a ring: like as there is no slackness of the last, even so there is no swiftness of the first.

2Es 5:43 So I answered and said, Couldest thou not make those that have been made, and be now, and that are for to come, at once; that thou mightest shew thy judgment the sooner?

2Es 5:44 Then answered he me, and said, The creature may not haste above the maker; neither may the world hold them at once that shall be created therein.

2Es 5:45 And I said, As thou hast said unto thy servant, that thou, which givest life to all, hast given life at once to the creature that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: even so it might now also bear them that now be present at once.

2Es 5:46 And he said unto me, Ask the womb of a woman, and say unto her, If thou bringest forth children, why dost thou it not together, but one after another? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once.

2Es 5:47 And I said, She cannot: but must do it by distance of time.

2Es 5:48 Then said he unto me, Even so have I given the womb of the earth to those that be sown in it in their times.

2Es 5:49 For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the aged, even so have I disposed the world which I created.

2Es 5:50 And I asked, and said, Seeing thou hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speak before thee: for our mother, of whom thou hast told me that she is young, draweth now nigh unto age.

2Es 5:51 He answered me, and said, Ask a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee.

2Es 5:52 Say unto her, Wherefore are unto they whom thou hast now brought forth like those that were before, but less of stature?

2Es 5:53 And she shall answer thee, They that be born in the the strength of youth are of one fashion, and they that are born in the time of age, when the womb faileth, are otherwise.

2Es 5:54 Consider thou therefore also, how that ye are less of stature than those that were before you.

2Es 5:55 And so are they that come after you less than ye, as the creatures which now begin to be old, and have passed over the strength of youth.

2Es 5:56 Then said I, Lord, I beseech thee, if I have found favor in thy sight, shew thy servant by whom thou visitest thy creature.

2Es 6:1 And he said unto me, In the beginning, when the earth was made, before the borders of the world stood, or ever the winds blew,

2Es 6:2 Before it thundered and lightened, or ever the foundations of paradise were laid,

2Es 6:3 Before the fair flowers were seen, or ever the moveable powers were established, before the innumerable multitude of angels were gathered together,

2Es 6:4 Or ever the heights of the air were lifted up, before the measures of the firmament were named, or ever the chimneys in Zion were hot,

2Es 6:5 And ere the present years were sought out, and or ever the inventions of them that now sin were turned, before they were sealed that have gathered faith for a treasure:

2Es 6:6 Then did I consider these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other: by me also they shall be ended, and by none other.

2Es 6:7 Then answered I and said, What shall be the parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?

2Es 6:8 And he said unto me, From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were born of him, Jacob's hand held first the heel of Esau.

2Es 6:9 For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth.

2Es 6:10 The hand of man is betwixt the heel and the hand: other question, Esdras, ask thou not.

2Es 6:11 I answered then and said, O Yehowah that bearest rule, if I have found favor in thy sight, 2Es 6:12 I beseech thee, shew thy servant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou shewedst me part the last night.

2Es 6:13 So he answered and said unto me, Stand up upon thy feet, and hear a mighty sounding voice.

2Es 6:14 And it shall be as it were a great motion; but the place where thou standest shall not be moved.

2Es 6:15 And therefore when it speaketh be not afraid: for the word is of the end, and the foundation of the earth is understood.

2Es 6:16 And why? because the speech of these things trembleth and is moved: for it knoweth that the end of these things must be changed.

2Es 6:17 And it happened, that when I had heard it I stood up upon my feet, and hearkened, and, behold, there was a voice that spake, and the sound of it was like the sound of many waters.

2Es 6:18 And it said, Behold, the days come, that I will begin to draw nigh, and to visit them that dwell upon the earth,

2Es 6:19 And will begin to make inquisition of them, what they be that have hurt unjustly with their unrighteousness, and when the affliction of Zion shall be fulfilled;

2Es 6:20 And when the world, that shall begin to vanish away, shall be finished, then will I shew these tokens: the books shall be opened before the firmament, and they shall see all together:

2Es 6:21 And the children of a year old shall speak with their voices, the women with child shall bring forth untimely children of three or four months old, and they shall live, and be raised up.

2Es 6:22 And suddenly shall the sown places appear unsown, the full storehouses shall suddenly be found empty:

2Es 6:23 And tha trumpet shall give a sound, which when every man heareth, they shall be suddenly afraid.

2Es 6:24 At that time shall friends fight one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear with those that dwell therein, the springs of the fountains shall stand still, and in three hours they shall not run.

2Es 6:25 Whosoever remaineth from all these that I have told thee shall escape, and see my salvation, and the end of your world.

2Es 6:26 And the men that are received shall see it, who have not tasted death from their birth: and the heart of the inhabitants shall be changed, and turned into another meaning.

2Es 6:27 For evil shall be put out, and deceit shall be quenched.

2Es 6:28 As for faith, it shall flourish, corruption shall be overcome, and the truth, which hath been so long without fruit, shall be declared.

2Es 6:29 And when he talked with me, behold, I looked by little and little upon him before whom I stood.

2Es 6:30 And these words said he unto me; I am come to shew thee the time of the night to come.

2Es 6:31 If thou wilt pray yet more, and fast seven days again, I shall tell thee greater things by day than I have heard.

2Es 6:32 For thy voice is heard before the Most High: for the Mighty hath seen thy righteous dealing, he hath seen also thy chastity, which thou hast had ever since thy youth.

2Es 6:33 And therefore hath he sent me to shew thee all these things, and to say unto thee, Be of good comfort and fear not 2Es 6:34 And hasten not with the times that are past, to think vain things, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter times.

2Es 6:35 And it came to pass after this, that I wept again, and fasted seven days in like manner, that I might fulfill the three weeks which he told me.

2Es 6:36 And in the eighth night was my heart vexed within me again, and I began to speak before the Most High.

2Es 6:37 For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soul was in distress.

2Es 6:38 And I said, O Yehowah, thou spakest from the beginning of the creation, even the first day, and saidst thus; Let heaven and earth be made; and thy word was a perfect work.

2Es 6:39 And then was the spirit, and darkness and silence were on every side; the sound of man's voice was not yet formed.

2Es 6:40 Then commandedst thou a fair light to come forth of thy treasures, that thy work might appear.

2Es 6:41 Upon the second day thou madest the spirit of the firmament, and commandedst it to part asunder, and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might go up, and the other remain beneath.

2Es 6:42 Upon the third day thou didst command that the waters should be gathered in the seventh part of the earth: six pats hast thou dried up, and kept them, to the intent that of these some being planted of Yehowah and tilled might serve thee.

2Es 6:43 For as soon as thy word went forth the work was made.

2Es 6:44 For immediately there was great and innumerable fruit, and many and divers pleasures for the taste, and flowers of unchangeable color, and odours of wonderful smell: and this was done the third day.

2Es 6:45 Upon the fourth day thou commandedst that the sun should shine, and the moon give her light, and the stars should be in order:

2Es 6:46 And gavest them a charge to do service unto man, that was to be made.

2Es 6:47 Upon the fifth day thou saidst unto the seventh part, where the waters were gathered that it should bring forth living creatures, fowls and fishes: and so it came to pass.

2Es 6:48 For the dumb water and without life brought forth living things at the commandment of Yehowah, that all people might praise thy wondrous works.

2Es 6:49 Then didst thou ordain two living creatures, the one thou calledst Enoch, and the other Leviathan; 2Es 6:50 And didst separate the one from the other: for the seventh part, namely, where the water was gathered together, might not hold them both.

2Es 6:51 Unto Enoch thou gavest one part, which was dried up the third day, that he should dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousand hills:

2Es 6:52 But unto Leviathan thou gavest the seventh part, namely, the moist; and hast kept him to be devoured of whom thou wilt, and when.

2Es 6:53 Upon the sixth day thou gavest commandment unto the earth, that before thee it should bring forth beasts, cattle, and creeping things:

2Es 6:54 And after these, Adam also, whom thou madest lord of all thy creatures: of him come we all, and the people also whom thou hast chosen.

2Es 6:55 All this have I spoken before thee, O Yehowah, because thou madest the world for our sakes

2Es 6:56 As for the other people, which also come of Adam, thou hast said that they are nothing, but be like unto spittle: and hast likened the abundance of them unto a drop that falleth from a vessel.

2Es 6:57 And now, O Yehowah, behold, these heathen, which have ever been reputed as nothing, have begun to be lords over us, and to devour us.

2Es 6:58 But we thy people, whom thou hast called thy firstborn, thy only begotten, and thy fervent lover, are given into their hands.

2Es 6:59 If the world now be made for our sakes, why do we not possess an inheritance with the world? how long shall this endure?

2Es 7:1 And when I had made an end of speaking these words, there was sent unto me the angel which had been sent unto me the nights afore:

2Es 7:2 And he said unto me, Up, Esdras, and hear the words that I am come to tell thee.

2Es 7:3 And I said, Speak on, my Divine One. Then said he unto me, The sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deep and great.

2Es 7:4 But put the case the entrance were narrow, and like a river;

2Es 7:5 Who then could go into the sea to look upon it, and to rule it? if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad?

2Es 7:6 There is also another thing; A city is builded, and set upon a broad field, and is full of all good things:

2Es 7:7 The entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a dangerous place to fall, like as if there were a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deep water:

2Es 7:8 And one only path between them both, even between the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man go there at once.

2Es 7:9 If this city now were given unto a man for an inheritance, if he never shall pass the danger set before it, how shall he receive this inheritance?

2Es 7:10 And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he unto me, Even so also is Israel's portion.

2Es 7:11 Because for their sakes I made the world: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was decreed that now is done.

2Es 7:12 Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, full of sorrow and travail: they are but few and evil, full of perils,: and very painful.

2Es 7:13 For the entrances of the elder world were wide and sure, and brought immortal fruit.

2Es 7:14 If then they that live labor not to enter these strait and vain things, they can never receive those that are laid up for them.

2Es 7:15 Now therefore why disquietest thou thyself, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? and why art thou moved, whereas thou art but mortal?

2Es 7:16 Why hast thou not considered in thy mind this thing that is to come, rather than that which is present?

2Es 7:17 Then answered I and said, O Yehowah that bearest rule, thou hast ordained in thy law, that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the irreverent should perish.

2Es 7:18 Nevertheless the righteous shall suffer strait things, and hope for wide: for they that have done wickedly have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide.

2Es 7:19 And he said unto me. There is no judge above Yehowah, and none that hath understanding above the Highest.

2Es 7:20 For there be many that perish in this life, because they despise the law of Yehowah that is set before them.

2Es 7:21 For Yehowah hath given strait commandment to such as came, what they should do to live, even as they came, and what they should observe to avoid punishment.

2Es 7:22 Nevertheless they were not obedient unto him; but spake against him, and imagined vain things;

2Es 7:23 And deceived themselves by their wicked deeds; and said of the Most High, that he is not; and knew not his ways:

2Es 7:24 But his law have they despised, and denied his covenants; in his statutes have they not been faithful, and have not performed his works.

2Es 7:25 And therefore, Esdras, for the empty are empty things, and for the full are the full things.

2Es 7:26 Behold, the time shall come, that these tokens which I have told thee shall come to pass, and the bride shall appear, and she coming forth shall be seen, that now is withdrawn from the earth.

2Es 7:27 And whosoever is delivered from the foresaid evils shall see my wonders.

2Es 7:28 For my son Yehoshua shall be revealed with those that be with him, and they that remain shall rejoice within four hundred years.

2Es 7:29 After these years shall my son Messiah die, and all men that have life.

2Es 7:30 And the world shall be turned into the old silence seven days, like as in the former judgments: so that no man shall remain.

2Es 7:31 And after seven days the world, that yet awaketh not, shall be raised up, and that shall die that is corrupt

2Es 7:32 And the earth shall restore those that are asleep in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell in silence, and the secret places shall deliver those souls that were committed unto them.

2Es 7:33 And the Most High shall appear upon the seat of judgment, and misery shall pass away, and the long suffering shall have an end:

2Es 7:34 But judgment only shall remain, truth shall stand, and faith shall wax strong:

2Es 7:35 And the work shall follow, and the reward shall be shewed, and the good deeds shall be of force, and wicked deeds shall bear no rule.

2Es 7:36 Then said I, Abraham prayed first for the Sodomites, and Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wilderness:

2Es 7:37 And Yehoshua after him for Israel in the time of Achan:

2Es 7:38 And Samuel and David for the destruction: and Solomon for them that should come to the sanctuary:

2Es 7:39 And Helias for those that received rain; and for the dead, that he might live:

2Es 7:40 And Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib: and many for many.

2Es 7:41 Even so now, seeing corruption is grown up, and wickedness increased, and the righteous have prayed for the irreverent: wherefore shall it not be so now also?

2Es 7:42 He answered me, and said, This present life is not the end where much glory doth abide; therefore have they prayed for the weak.

2Es 7:43 But the day of doom shall be the end of this time, and the beginning of the immortality for to come, wherein corruption is past, 2Es 7:44 Intemperance is at an end, infidelity is cut off, righteousness is grown, and truth is sprung up.

2Es 7:45 Then shall no man be able to save him that is destroyed, nor to oppress him that hath gotten the victory.

2Es 7:46 I answered then and said, This is my first and last saying, that it had been better not to have given the earth unto Adam: or else, when it was given him, to have restrained him from sinning.

2Es 7:47 For what profit is it for men now in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment?

2Es 7:48 O thou Adam, what hast thou done? for though it was thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee.

2Es 7:49 For what profit is it unto us, if there be promised us an immortal time, whereas we have done the works that bring death?

2Es 7:50 And that there is promised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves being most wicked are made vain?

2Es 7:51 And that there are laid up for us dwellings of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly?

2Es 7:52 And that the glory of the Most High is kept to defend them which have led a wary life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all?

2Es 7:53 And that there should be shewed a paradise, whose fruit endureth forever, wherein is security and medicine, since we shall not enter into it?

2Es 7:54 For we have walked in unpleasant places.

2Es 7:55 And that the faces of them which have used abstinence shall shine above the stars, whereas our faces shall be blacker than darkness?

2Es 7:56 For while we lived and committed iniquity, we considered not that we should begin to suffer for it after death.

2Es 7:57 Then answered he me, and said, This is the condition of the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall fight;

2Es 7:58 That, if he be overcome, he shall suffer as thou hast said: but if he get the victory, he shall receive the thing that I say.

2Es 7:59 For this is the life whereof Moses spake unto the people while he lived, saying, Choose thee life, that thou mayest live.

2Es 7:60 Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no nor me which have spoken unto them, 2Es 7:61 That there should not be such heaviness in their destruction, as shall be joy over them that are persuaded to salvation.

2Es 7:62 I answered then, and said, I know, Lord, that the Most High is called merciful, in that he hath mercy upon them which are not yet come into the world,

2Es 7:63 And upon those also that turn to his law;

2Es 7:64 And that he is patient, and long suffereth those that have sinned, as his creatures;

2Es 7:65 And that he is bountiful, for he is ready to give where it needeth;

2Es 7:66 And that he is of great mercy, for he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to them which are to come.

2Es 7:67 For if he shall not multiply his mercies, the world would not continue with them that inherit therein.

2Es 7:68 And he pardoneth; for if he did not so of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousandth part of men should not remain living.

2Es 7:69 And being judge, if he should not forgive them that are cured with his word, and put out the multitude of contentions, 2Es 7:70 There should be very few left peradventure in an innumerable multitude.

2Es 8:1 And he answered me, saying, The Most High hath made this world for many, but the world to come for few.

2Es 8:2 I will tell thee a similitude, Esdras; As when thou askest the earth, it shall say unto thee, that it giveth much mould whereof earthen vessels are made, but little dust that gold cometh of: even so is the course of this present world.

2Es 8:3 There be many created, but few shall be saved.

2Es 8:4 So answered I and said, Swallow then down, O my soul, understanding, and devour wisdom.

2Es 8:5 For thou hast agreed to give ear, and art willing to prophesy: for thou hast no longer space than only to live.

2Es 8:6 O Yehowah, if thou suffer not thy servant, that we may pray before thee, and thou give us seed unto our heart, and culture to our understanding, that there may come fruit of it; how shall each man live that is corrupt, who beareth the place of a man?

2Es 8:7 For thou art alone, and we all one workmanship of thine hands, like as thou hast said.

2Es 8:8 For when the body is fashioned now in the mother's womb, and thou givest it members, thy creature is preserved in fire and water, and nine months doth thy workmanship endure thy creature which is created in her.

2Es 8:9 But that which keepeth and is kept shall both be preserved: and when the time cometh, the womb preserved delivereth up the things that grew in it.

2Es 8:10 For thou hast commanded out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, milk to be given, which is the fruit of the breasts, 2Es 8:11 That the thing which is fashioned may be nourished for a time, till thou disposest it to thy mercy.

2Es 8:12 Thou broughtest it up with thy righteousness, and nurturedst it in thy law, and reformedst it with thy judgment.

2Es 8:13 And thou shalt mortify it as thy creature, and quicken it as thy work.

2Es 8:14 If therefore thou shalt destroy him which with so great labor was fashioned, it is an easy thing to be ordained by thy commandment, that the thing which was made might be preserved.

2Es 8:15 Now therefore, Lord, I will speak; touching man in general, thou knowest best; but touching thy people, for whose sake I am sorry;

2Es 8:16 And for thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourn; and for Israel, for whom I am heavy; and for Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled;

2Es 8:17 Therefore will I begin to pray before thee for myself and for them: for I see the falls of us that dwell in the land.

2Es 8:18 But I have heard the swiftness of the judge which is to come.

2Es 8:19 Therefore hear my voice, and understand my words, and I shall speak before thee. This is the beginning of the words of Esdras, before he was taken up: and I said,

2Es 8:20 O Yehowah, thou that dwellest in everlastingness which beholdest from above things in the heaven and in the air;

2Es 8:21 Whose throne is inestimable; whose glory may not be comprehended; before whom the hosts of angels stand with trembling,

2Es 8:22 Whose service is conversant in wind and fire; whose word is true, and sayings constant; whose commandment is strong, and ordinance fearful;

2Es 8:23 Whose look drieth up the depths, and indignation maketh the mountains to melt away; which the truth witnesseth:

2Es 8:24 O hear the prayer of thy servant, and give ear to the petition of thy creature.

2Es 8:25 For while I live I will speak, and so long as I have understanding I will answer.

2Es 8:26 O look not upon the sins of thy people; but on them which serve thee in truth.

2Es 8:27 Regard not the wicked inventions of the heathen, but the desire of those that keep thy testimonies in afflictions.

2Es 8:28 Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before thee: but remember them, which according to thy will have known thy fear.

2Es 8:29 Let it not be thy will to destroy them which have lived like beasts; but to look upon them that have clearly taught thy law.

2Es 8:30 Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love them that always put their trust in thy righteousness and glory.

2Es 8:31 For we and our fathers do languish of such diseases: but because of us sinners thou shalt be called merciful.

2Es 8:32 For if thou hast a desire to have mercy upon us, thou shalt be called merciful, to us namely, that have no works of righteousness.

2Es 8:33 For the just, which have many good works laid up with thee, shall out of their own deeds receive reward.

2Es 8:34 For what is man, that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible generation, that thou shouldest be so bitter toward it?

2Es 8:35 For in truth them is no man among them that be born, but he hath dealt wickedly; and among the faithful there is none which hath not done amiss.

2Es 8:36 For in this, O Yehowah, thy righteousness and thy goodness shall be declared, if thou be merciful unto them which have not the confidence of good works.

2Es 8:37 Then answered he me, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according unto thy words it shall be.

2Es 8:38 For indeed I will not think on the disposition of them which have sinned before death, before judgment, before destruction:

2Es 8:39 But I will rejoice over the disposition of the righteous, and I will remember also their pilgrimage, and the salvation, and the reward, that they shall have.

2Es 8:40 Like as I have spoken now, so shall it come to pass.

2Es 8:41 For as the husbandman soweth much seed upon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sown good in his season cometh not up, neither doth all that is planted take root: even so is it of them that are sown in the world; they shall not all be saved.

2Es 8:42 I answered then and said, If I have found grace, let me speak.

2Es 8:43 Like as the husbandman's seed perisheth, if it come not up, and receive not thy rain in due season; or if there come too much rain, and corrupt it:

2Es 8:44 Even so perisheth man also, which is formed with thy hands, and is called thine own image, because thou art like unto him, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him unto the husbandman's seed.

2Es 8:45 Be not wroth with us but spare thy people, and have mercy upon thine own inheritance: for thou art merciful unto thy creature.

2Es 8:46 Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for the present, and things to cometh for such as be to come.

2Es 8:47 For thou comest far short that thou shouldest be able to love my creature more than I: but I have ofttimes drawn nigh unto thee, and unto it, but never to the unrighteous.

2Es 8:48 In this also thou art marvelous before the Most High:

2Es 8:49 In that thou hast humbled thyself, as it becometh thee, and hast not judged thyself worthy to be much glorified among the righteous.

2Es 8:50 For many great miseries shall be done to them that in the latter time shall dwell in the world, because they have walked in great pride.

2Es 8:51 But understand thou for thyself, and seek out the glory for such as be like thee.

2Es 8:52 For unto you is paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to come is prepared, plenteousness is made ready, a city is builded, and rest is allowed, yea, perfect goodness and wisdom.

2Es 8:53 The root of evil is sealed up from you, weakness and the moth is hid from you, and corruption is fled into hell to be forgotten:

2Es 8:54 Sorrows are passed, and in the end is shewed the treasure of immortality.

2Es 8:55 And therefore ask thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish.

2Es 8:56 For when they had taken liberty, they despised the Most High, thought scorn of his law, and forsook his ways.

2Es 8:57 Moreover they have trodden down his righteous,

2Es 8:58 And said in their heart, that there is no Yehowah; yea, and that knowing they must die.

2Es 8:59 For as the things aforesaid shalt receive you, so thirst and pain are prepared for them: for it was not his will that men should come to naught:

2Es 8:60 But they which be created have defiled the name of him that made them, and were unthankful unto him which prepared life for them.

2Es 8:61 And therefore is my judgment now at hand.

2Es 8:62 These things have I not shewed unto all men, but unto thee, and a few like thee. Then answered I and said, 2Es 8:63 Behold, O Yehowah, now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders, which thou wilt begin to do in the last times: but at what time, thou hast not shewed me.

2Es 9:1 He answered me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in itself: and when thou seest part of the signs past, which I have told thee before, 2Es 9:2 Then shalt thou understand, that it is the very same time, wherein the Highest will begin to visit the world which he made.

2Es 9:3 Therefore when there shall be seen earthquakes and uproars of the people in the world:

2Es 9:4 Then shalt thou well understand, that the Most High spake of those things from the days that were before thee, even from the beginning.

2Es 9:5 For like as all that is made in the world hath a beginning and an end, and the end is manifest:

2Es 9:6 Even so the times also of the Highest have plain beginnings in wonder and powerful works, and endings in effects and signs.

2Es 9:7 And every one that shall be saved, and shall be able to escape by his works, and by faith, whereby ye have believed,

2Es 9:8 Shall be preserved from the said perils, and shall see my salvation in my land, and within my borders: for I have sanctified them for me from the beginning.

2Es 9:9 Then shall they be in pitiful case, which now have abused my ways: and they that have cast them away despitefully shall dwell in torments.

2Es 9:10 For such as in their life have received benefits, and have not known me;

2Es 9:11 And they that have loathed my law, while they had yet liberty, and, when as yet place of repentance was open unto them, understood not, but despised it;

2Es 9:12 The same must know it after death by pain.

2Es 9:13 And therefore be thou not curious how the irreverent shall be punished, and when: but enquire how the righteous shall be saved, whose the world is, and for whom the world is created.

2Es 9:14 Then answered I and said,

2Es 9:15 I have said before, and now do speak, and will speak it also hereafter, that there be many more of them which perish, than of them which shall be saved:

2Es 9:16 Like as a wave is greater than a drop.

2Es 9:17 And he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the seed; as the flowers be, such are the colors also; such as the workman is, such also is the work; and as the husbandman ls himself, so is his husbandry also: for it was the time of the world.

2Es 9:18 And now when I prepared the world, which was not yet made, even for them to dwell in that now live, no man spake against me.

2Es 9:19 For then every one obeyed: but now the manners of them which are created in this world that is made are corrupted by a perpetual seed, and by a law which is unsearchable rid themselves.

2Es 9:20 So I considered the world, and, behold, there was peril because of the devices that were come into it.

2Es 9:21 And I saw, and spared it greatly, and have kept me a grape of the cluster, and a plant of a great people.

2Es 9:22 Let the multitude perish then, which was born in vain; and let my grape be kept, and my plant; for with great labor have I made it perfect.

2Es 9:23 Nevertheless, if thou wilt cease yet seven days more, but thou shalt not fast in them.

2Es 9:24 But go into a field of flowers, where no house is builded, and eat only the flowers of the field; taste no flesh, drink no wine, but eat flowers only.

2Es 9:25 And pray unto the Highest continually, then will I come and talk with thee.

2Es 9:26 So I went my way into the field which is called Ardath, like as he commanded me; and there I sat among the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me.

2Es 9:27 After seven days I sat upon the grass, and my heart was vexed within me, like as before:

2Es 9:28 And I opened my mouth, and began to talk before the Most High, and said, 2Es 9:29 O Yehowah, thou that shewest thyself unto us, thou wast shewed unto our fathers in the wilderness, in a place where no man treadeth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt.

2Es 9:30 And thou spakest saying, Hear me, O Israel; and mark my words, thou seed of Jacob.

2Es 9:31 For, behold, I sow my law in you, and it shall bring fruit in you, and ye shall be honored in it forever.

2Es 9:32 But our fathers, which received the law, kept it not, and observed not thy ordinances: and though the fruit of thy law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine;

2Es 9:33 Yet they that received it perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown in them.

2Es 9:34 And, lo, it ls a custom, when the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, that, that being perished wherein it was sown or cast into,

2Es 9:35 That thing also which was sown, or cast therein, or received, doth perish, and remaineth not with us: but with us it hath not happened so.

2Es 9:36 For we that have received the law perish by sin, and our heart also which received it

2Es 9:37 Notwithstanding the law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.

2Es 9:38 And when I spake these things in my heart, I looked back with mine eyes, and upon the right side I saw a woman, and, behold, she mourned and wept with a loud voice, and was much grieved in heart, and her clothes were rent, and she had ashes upon her head.

2Es 9:39 Then let I my thoughts go that I was in, and turned me unto her, 2Es 9:40 And said unto her, Wherefore weepest thou? why art thou so grieved in thy mind?

2Es 9:41 And she said unto me, Sir, let me alone, that I may bewail myself, and add unto my sorrow, for I am sore vexed in my mind, and brought very low.

2Es 9:42 And I said unto her, What aileth thee? tell me.

2Es 9:43 She said unto me, I thy servant have been barren, and had no child, though I had an husband thirty years, 2Es 9:44 And those thirty years I did nothing else day and night, and every hour, but make my, prayer to the Highest.

2Es 9:45 After thirty years Yehowah heard me thine handmaid, looked upon my misery, considered my trouble, and gave me a son: and I was very glad of him, so was my husband also, and all my neighbors: and we gave great honor unto the Almighty.

2Es 9:46 And I nourished him with great travail.

2Es 9:47 So when he grew up, and came to the time that he should have a wife, I made a feast.

2Es 10:1 And it so came to pass, that when my son was entered into his wedding chamber, he fell down, and died.

2Es 10:2 Then we all overthrew the lights, and all my neighbors rose up to comfort me: so I took my rest unto the second day at night.

2Es 10:3 And it came to pass, when they had all left off to comfort me, to the end I might be quiet; then rose I up by night and fled, and came hither into this field, as thou seest.

2Es 10:4 And I do now purpose not to return into the city, but here to stay, and neither to eat nor drink, but continually to mourn and to fast until I die.

2Es 10:5 Then left I the meditations wherein I was, and spake to her in anger, saying, 2Es 10:6 Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what happeneth unto us?

2Es 10:7 How that Zion our mother is full of all heaviness, and much humbled, mourning very sore?

2Es 10:8 And now, seeing we all mourn and are sad, for we are all in heaviness, art thou grieved for one son?

2Es 10:9 For ask the earth, and she shall tell thee, that it is she which ought to mourn for the fall of so many that grow upon her.

2Es 10:10 For out of her came all at the first, and out of her shall all others come, and, behold, they walk almost all into destruction, and a multitude of them is utterly rooted out.

2Es 10:11 Who then should make more mourning than she, that hath lost so great a multitude; and not thou, which art sorry but for one?

2Es 10:12 But if thou sayest unto me, My lamentation is not like the earth's, because I have lost the fruit of my womb, which I brought forth with pains, and bare with sorrows;

2Es 10:13 But the earth not so: for the multitude present in it according to the course of the earth is gone, as it came:

2Es 10:14 Then say I unto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with labor; even so the earth also hath given her fruit, namely, man, ever since the beginning unto him that made her.

2Es 10:15 Now therefore keep thy sorrow to thyself, and bear with a good courage that which hath befallen thee.

2Es 10:16 For if thou shalt acknowledge the determination of Yehowah to be just, thou shalt both receive thy son in time, and shalt be commended among women.

2Es 10:17 Go thy way then into the city to thine husband.

2Es 10:18 And she said unto me, That will I not do: I will not go into the city, but here will I die.

2Es 10:19 So I proceeded to speak further unto her, and said,

2Es 10:20 Do not so, but be counseled by me: for how many are the adversities of Zion? be comforted in regard of the sorrow of Jerusalem.

2Es 10:21 For thou seest that our sanctuary is laid waste, our altar broken down, our temple destroyed;

2Es 10:22 Our psaltery is laid on the ground, our song is put to silence, our rejoicing is at an end, the light of our candlestick is put out, the ark of our covenant is spoiled, our holy things are defiled, and the name that is called upon us is almost profaned: our children are put to shame, our priests are burnt, our Levites are gone into captivity, our virgins are defiled, and our wives ravished; our righteous men carried away, our little ones destroyed, our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weak;

2Es 10:23 And, which is the greatest of all, the seal of Zion hath now lost her honor; for she is delivered into the hands of them that hate us.

2Es 10:24 And therefore shake off thy great heaviness, and put away the multitude of sorrows, that the Mighty may be merciful unto thee again, and the Highest shall give thee rest and ease from thy labor.

2Es 10:25 And it came to pass while I was talking with her, behold, her face upon a sudden shined exceedingly, and her countenance glistered, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be.

2Es 10:26 And, behold, suddenly she made a great cry very fearful: so that the earth shook at the noise of the woman.

2Es 10:27 And I looked, and, behold, the woman appeared unto me no more, but there was a city builded, and a large place shewed itself from the foundations: then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voice, and said, 2Es 10:28 Where is Uriel the angel, who came unto me at the first? for he hath caused me to fall into many trances, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.

2Es 10:29 And as I was speaking these words behold, he came unto me, and looked upon me.

2Es 10:30 And, lo, I lay as one that had been dead, and mine understanding was taken from me: and he took me by the right hand, and comforted me, and set me upon my feet, and said unto me, 2Es 10:31 What aileth thee? and why art thou so disquieted? and why is thine understanding troubled, and the thoughts of thine heart?

2Es 10:32 And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me, and yet I did according to thy words, and I went into the field, and, lo, I have seen, and yet see, that I am not able to express.

2Es 10:33 And he said unto me, Stand up manfully, and I will advise thee.

2Es 10:34 Then said I, Speak on, my lord, in me; only forsake me not, lest I die frustrate of my hope.

2Es 10:35 For I have seen that I knew not, and hear that I do not know.

2Es 10:36 Or is my sense deceived, or my soul in a dream?

2Es 10:37 Now therefore I beseech thee that thou wilt shew thy servant of this vision.

2Es 10:38 He answered me then, and said, Hear me, and I shall inform thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid: for the Highest will reveal many secret things unto thee.

2Es 10:39 He hath seen that thy way is right: for that thou sorrowest continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Zion.

2Es 10:40 This therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest:

2Es 10:41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou begannest to comfort her:

2Es 10:42 But now seest thou the likeness of the woman no more, but there appeared unto thee a city builded.

2Es 10:43 And whereas she told thee of the death of her son, this is the solution:

2Es 10:44 This woman, whom thou sawest is Zion: and whereas she said unto thee, even she whom thou seest as a city builded, 2Es 10:45 Whereas, I say, she said unto thee, that she hath been thirty years barren: those are the thirty years wherein there was no offering made in her.

2Es 10:46 But after thirty years Solomon builded the city and offered offerings: and then bare the barren a son.

2Es 10:47 And whereas she told thee that she nourished him with labor: that was the dwelling in Jerusalem.

2Es 10:48 But whereas she said unto thee, That my son coming into his marriage chamber happened to have a fail, and died: this was the destruction that came to Jerusalem.

2Es 10:49 And, behold, thou sawest her likeness, and because she mourned for her son, thou begannest to comfort her: and of these things which have chanced, these are to be opened unto thee.

2Es 10:50 For now the Most High seeth that thou art grieved unfeignedly, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comeliness of her beauty:

2Es 10:51 And therefore I bade thee remain in the field where no house was builded:

2Es 10:52 For I knew that the Highest would shew this unto thee.

2Es 10:53 Therefore I commanded thee to go into the field, where no foundation of any building was.

2Es 10:54 For in the place wherein the Highest beginneth to shew his city, there can no man's building be able to stand.

2Es 10:55 And therefore fear not, let not thine heart be affrighted, but go thy way in, and see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see:

2Es 10:56 And then shalt thou hear as much as thine ears may comprehend.

2Es 10:57 For thou art blessed above many other, and art called with the Highest; and so are but few.

2Es 10:58 But tomorrow at night thou shalt remain here;

2Es 10:59 And so shall the Highest shew thee visions of the high things, which the Most High will do unto them that dwell upon the earth in the last days. So I slept that night and another, like as he commanded me.

2Es 11:1 Then saw I a dream, and, behold, there came up from the sea an eagle, which had twelve feathered wings, and three heads.

2Es 11:2 And I saw, and, behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and all the winds of the air blew on her, and were gathered together.

2Es 11:3 And I beheld, and out of her feathers there grew other contrary feathers; and they became little feathers and small.

2Es 11:4 But her heads were at rest: the head in the midst was greater than the other, yet rested it with the residue.

2Es 11:5 Moreover I beheld, and, lo, the eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned upon earth, and over them that dwelt therein.

2Es 11:6 And I saw that all things under heaven were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, no, not one creature upon earth.

2Es 11:7 And I beheld, and, lo, the eagle rose upon her talons, and spake to her feathers, saying,

2Es 11:8 Watch not all at once: sleep every one in his own place, and watch by course:

2Es 11:9 But let the heads be preserved for the last.

2Es 11:10 And I beheld, and, lo, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the midst of her body.

2Es 11:11 And I numbered her contrary feathers, and, behold, there were eight of them.

2Es 11:12 And I looked, and, behold, on the right side there arose one feather, and reigned over all the earth;

2Es 11:13 And so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more: so the next following stood up. and reigned, and had a great time;

2Es 11:14 And it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so that it appeared no more.

2Es 11:15 Then came there a voice unto it, and said,

2Es 11:16 Hear thou that hast borne rule over the earth so long: this I say unto thee, before thou beginnest to appear no more,

2Es 11:17 There shall none after thee attain unto thy time, neither unto the half thereof.

2Es 11:18 Then arose the third, and reigned as the other before, and appeared no more also.

2Es 11:19 So went it with all the residue one after another, as that every one reigned, and then appeared no more.

2Es 11:20 Then I beheld, and, lo, in process of time the feathers that followed stood up upon the right side, that they might rule also; and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more:

2Es 11:21 For some of them were set up, but ruled not.

2Es 11:22 After this I looked, and, behold, the twelve feathers appeared no more, nor the two little feathers:

2Es 11:23 And there was no more upon the eagle's body, but three heads that rested, and six little wings.

2Es 11:24 Then saw I also that two little feathers divided themselves from the six, and remained under the head that was upon the right side: for the four continued in their place.

2Es 11:25 And I beheld, and, lo, the feathers that were under the wing thought to set up themselves and to have the rule.

2Es 11:26 And I beheld, and, lo, there was one set up, but shortly it appeared no more.

2Es 11:27 And the second was sooner away than the first.

2Es 11:28 And I beheld, and, lo, the two that remained thought also in themselves to reign:

2Es 11:29 And when they so thought, behold, there awaked one of the heads that were at rest, namely, it that was in the midst; for that was greater than the two other heads.

2Es 11:30 And then I saw that the two other heads were joined with it.

2Es 11:31 And, behold, the head was turned with them that were with it, and did eat up the two feathers under the wing that would have reigned.

2Es 11:32 But this head put the whole earth in fear, and bare rule in it over all those that dwelt upon the earth with much oppression; and it had the governance of the world more than all the wings that had been.

2Es 11:33 And after this I beheld, and, lo, the head that was in the midst suddenly appeared no more, like as the wings.

2Es 11:34 But there remained the two heads, which also in like sort ruled upon the earth, and over those that dwelt therein.

2Es 11:35 And I beheld, and, lo, the head upon the right side devoured it that was upon the left side.

2Es 11:36 Then I head a voice, which said unto me, Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.

2Es 11:37 And I beheld, and lo, as it were a roaring lion chased out of the wood: and I saw that he sent out a man's voice unto the eagle, and said,

2Es 11:38 Hear thou, I will talk with thee, and the Highest shall say unto thee, 2Es 11:39 Art not thou it that remainest of the four beasts, whom I made to reign in my world, that the end of their times might come through them?

2Es 11:40 And the fourth came, and overcame all the beasts that were past, and had power over the world with great fearfulness, and over the whole compass of the earth with much wicked oppression; and so long time dwelt he upon the earth with deceit.

2Es 11:41 For the earth hast thou not judged with truth.

2Es 11:42 For thou hast afflicted the meek, thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast loved liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast down the walls of such as did thee no harm.

2Es 11:43 Therefore is thy wrongful dealing come up unto the Highest, and thy pride unto the Mighty.

2Es 11:44 The Highest also hath looked upon the proud times, and, behold, they are ended, and his abominations are fulfilled.

2Es 11:45 And therefore appear no more, thou eagle, nor thy horrible wings, nor thy wicked feathers nor thy malicious heads, nor thy hurtful claws, nor all thy vain body:

2Es 11:46 That all the earth may be refreshed, and may return, being delivered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the judgment and mercy of him that made her.

2Es 12:1 And it came to pass, while the lion spake these words unto the eagle, I saw,

2Es 12:2 And, behold, the head that remained and the four wings appeared no more, and the two went unto it and set themselves up to reign, and their kingdom was small, and fill of uproar.

2Es 12:3 And I saw, and, behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the eagle was burnt so that the earth was in great fear: then awaked I out of the trouble and trance of my mind, and from great fear, and said unto my spirit, 2Es 12:4 Lo, this hast thou done unto me, in that thou searchest out the ways of the Highest.

2Es 12:5 Lo, yet am I weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit; and little strength is there in me, for the great fear wherewith I was afflicted this night.

2Es 12:6 Therefore will I now beseech the Highest, that he will comfort me unto the end.

2Es 12:7 And I said, Lord that bearest rule, if I have found grace before thy sight, and if I am justified with thee before many others, and if my prayer indeed be come up before thy face;

2Es 12:8 Comfort me then, and shew me thy servant the interpretation and plain difference of this fearful vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soul.

2Es 12:9 For thou hast judged me worthy to shew me the last times.

2Es 12:10 And he said unto me, This is the interpretation of the vision:

2Es 12:11 The eagle, whom thou sawest come up from the sea, is the kingdom which was seen in the vision of thy brother Daniel.

2Es 12:12 But it was not expounded unto him, therefore now I declare it unto thee.

2Es 12:13 Behold, the days will come, that there shall rise up a kingdom upon earth, and it shall be feared above all the kingdoms that were before it.

2Es 12:14 In the same shall twelve kings reign, one after another:

2Es 12:15 Whereof the second shall begin to reign, and shall have more time than any of the twelve.

2Es 12:16 And this do the twelve wings signify, which thou sawest.

2Es 12:17 As for the voice which thou heardest speak, and that thou sawest not to go out from the heads but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation:

2Es 12:18 That after the time of that kingdom there shall arise great strivings, and it shall stand in peril of failing: nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning.

2Es 12:19 And whereas thou sawest the eight small under feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation:

2Es 12:20 That in him there shall arise eight kings, whose times shall be but small, and their years swift.

2Es 12:21 And two of them shall perish, the middle time approaching: four shall be kept until their end begin to approach: but two shall be kept unto the end.

2Es 12:22 And whereas thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation:

2Es 12:23 In his last days shall the Most High raise up three kingdoms, and renew many things therein, and they shall have the dominion of the earth, 2Es 12:24 And of those that dwell therein, with much oppression, above all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the eagle.

2Es 12:25 For these are they that shall accomplish his wickedness, and that shall finish his last end.

2Es 12:26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die upon his bed, and yet with pain.

2Es 12:27 For the two that remain shall be slain with the sword.

2Es 12:28 For the sword of the one shall devour the other: but at the last shall he fall through the sword himself.

2Es 12:29 And whereas thou sawest two feathers under the wings passing over the head that is on the right side;

2Es 12:30 It signifieth that these are they, whom the Highest hath kept unto their end: this is the small kingdom and full of trouble, as thou sawest.

2Es 12:31 And the lion, whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness with all the words which thou hast heard;

2Es 12:32 This is the anointed, which the Highest hath kept for them and for their wickedness unto the end: he shall reprove them, and shall upbraid them with their cruelty.

2Es 12:33 For he shall set them before him alive in judgment, and shall rebuke them, and correct them.

2Es 12:34 For the rest of my people shall he deliver with mercy, those that have been pressed upon my borders, and he shall make them joyful until the coming of the day of judgment, whereof I have spoken unto thee from the the beginning.

2Es 12:35 This is the dream that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

2Es 12:36 Thou only hast been meet to know this secret of the Highest.

2Es 12:37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast seen in a book, and hide them:

2Es 12:38 And teach them to the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keep these secrets.

2Es 12:39 But wait thou here thyself yet seven days more, that it may be shewed thee, whatsoever it pleaseth the Highest to declare unto thee. And with that he went his way.

2Es 12:40 And it came to pass, when all the people saw that the seven days were past, and I not come again into the city, they gathered them all together, from the least unto the greatest, and came unto me, and said, 2Es 12:41 What have we offended thee? and what evil have we done against thee, that thou forsakest us, and sittest here in this place?

2Es 12:42 For of all the prophets thou only art left us, as a cluster of the vintage, and as a candle in a dark place, and as a haven or ship preserved from the tempest.

2Es 12:43 Are not the evils which are come to us sufficient?

2Es 12:44 If thou shalt forsake us, how much better had it been for us, if we also had been burned in the midst of Zion?

2Es 12:45 For we are not better than they that died there. And they wept with a loud voice. Then answered I them, and said,

2Es 12:46 Be of good comfort, O Israel; and be not heavy, thou house of Jacob:

2Es 12:47 For the Highest hath you in remembrance, and the Mighty hath not forgotten you in temptation.

2Es 12:48 As for me, I have not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you: but am come into this place, to pray for the desolation of Zion, and that I might seek mercy for the low estate of your sanctuary.

2Es 12:49 And now go your way home every man, and after these days will I come unto you.

2Es 12:50 So the people went their way into the city, like as I commanded them:

2Es 12:51 But I remained still in the field seven days, as the angel commanded me; and did eat only in those days of the flowers of the field, and had my meat of the herbs.

2Es 13:1 And it came to pass after seven days, I dreamed a dream by night:

2Es 13:2 And, lo, there arose a wind from the sea, that it moved all the waves thereof.

2Es 13:3 And I beheld, and, lo, that man waxed strong with the thousands of heaven: and when he turned his countenance to look, all the things trembled that were seen under him.

2Es 13:4 And whensoever the voice went out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voice, like as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire.

2Es 13:5 And after this I beheld, and, lo, there was gathered together a multitude of men, out of number, from the four winds of the heaven, to subdue the man that came out of the sea

2Es 13:6 But I beheld, and, lo, he had graved himself a great mountain, and flew up upon it.

2Es 13:7 But I would have seen the region or place whereout the hill was graven, and I could not.

2Es 13:8 And after this I beheld, and, lo, all they which were gathered together to subdue him were sore afraid, and yet durst fight.

2Es 13:9 And, lo, as he saw the violence of the multitude that came, he neither lifted up his hand, nor held sword, nor any instrument of war:

2Es 13:10 But only I saw that he sent out of his mouth as it had been a blast of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his tongue he cast out sparks and tempests.

2Es 13:11 And they were all mixed together; the blast of fire, the flaming breath, and the great tempest; and fell with violence upon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burned them up every one, so that upon a sudden of an innumerable multitude nothing was to be perceived, but only dust and smell of smoke: when I saw this I was afraid.

2Es 13:12 Afterward saw I the same man come down from the mountain, and call unto him another peaceable Multitude.

2Es 13:13 And there came much people unto him, whereof some were glad, some were sorry, and some of them were bound, and other some brought of them that were offered: then was I sick through great fear, and I awaked, and said,

2Es 13:14 Thou hast shewed thy servant these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthy that thou shouldest receive my prayer:

2Es 13:15 Shew me now yet the interpretation of this dream.

2Es 13:16 For as I conceive in mine understanding, woe unto them that shall be left in those days and much more woe unto them that are not left behind!

2Es 13:17 For they that were not left were in heaviness.

2Es 13:18 Now understand I the things that are laid up in the latter days, which shall happen unto them, and to those that are left behind.

2Es 13:19 Therefore are they come into great perils and many necessities, like as these dreams declare.

2Es 13:20 Yet is it easier for him that is in danger to come into these things, than to pass away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that happen in the last days. And he answered unto me, and said, 2Es 13:21 The interpretation of the vision shall I shew thee, and I will open unto thee the thing that thou hast required.

2Es 13:22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behind, this is the interpretation:

2Es 13:23 He that shall endure the peril in that time hath kept himself: they that be fallen into danger are such as have works, and faith toward the Almighty.

2Es 13:24 Know this therefore, that they which be left behind are more blessed than they that be dead.

2Es 13:25 This is the meaning of the vision: Whereas thou sawest a man coming up from the midst of the sea:

2Es 13:26 The same is he whom Yehowah the Highest hath kept a great season, which by his own self shall deliver his creature: and he shall order them that are left behind.

2Es 13:27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast of wind, and fire, and storm;

2Es 13:28 And that he held neither sword, nor any instrument of war, but that the rushing in of him destroyed the whole multitude that came to subdue him; this is the interpretation:

2Es 13:29 Behold, the days come, when the Most High will begin to deliver them that are upon the earth.

2Es 13:30 And he shall come to the astonishment of them that dwell on the earth.

2Es 13:31 And one shall undertake to fight against another, one city against another, one place against another, one people against another, and one realm against another.

2Es 13:32 And the time shall be when these things shall come to pass, and the signs shall happen which I shewed thee before, and then shall my Son be declared, whom thou sawest as a man ascending.

2Es 13:33 And when all the people hear his voice, every man shall in their own land leave the battle they have one against another.

2Es 13:34 And an innumerable multitude shall be gathered together, as thou sawest them, willing to come, and to overcome him by fighting.

2Es 13:35 But he shall stand upon the top of the mount Zion.

2Es 13:36 And Zion shall come, and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest the hill graven without hands.

2Es 13:37 And this my Son shall rebuke the wicked inventions of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest;

2Es 13:38 And shall lay before them their evil thoughts, and the torments wherewith they shall begin to be tormented, which are like unto a flame: and he shall destroy them without labor by the law which is like unto me.

2Es 13:39 And whereas thou sawest that he gathered another peaceable multitude unto him;

2Es 13:40 Those are the ten tribes, which were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Osea the king, whom Salmanasar the king of Assyria led away captive, and he carried them over the waters, and so came they into another land.

2Es 13:41 But they took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt, 2Es 13:42 That they might there keep their statutes, which they never kept in their own land.

2Es 13:43 And they entered into Euphrates by the narrow places of the river.

2Es 13:44 For the Most High then shewed signs for them, and held still the flood, till they were passed over.

2Es 13:45 For through that country there was a great way to go, namely, of a year and a half: and the same region is called Arsareth.

2Es 13:46 Then dwelt they there until the latter time; and now when they shall begin to come,

2Es 13:47 The Highest shall stay the springs of the stream again, that they may go through: therefore sawest thou the multitude with peace.

2Es 13:48 But those that be left behind of thy people are they that are found within my borders.

2Es 13:49 Now when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shall defend his people that remain.

2Es 13:50 And then shall he shew them great wonders.

2Es 13:51 Then said I, O Yehowah that bearest rule, shew me this: Wherefore have I seen the man coming up from the midst of the sea?

2Es 13:52 And he said unto me, Like as thou canst neither seek out nor know the things that are in the deep of the sea: even so can no man upon earth see my Son, or those that be with him, but in the day time.

2Es 13:53 This is the interpretation of the dream which thou sawest, and whereby thou only art here lightened.

2Es 13:54 For thou hast forsaken thine own way, and applied thy diligence unto my law, and sought it.

2Es 13:55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and hast called understanding thy mother.

2Es 13:56 And therefore have I shewed thee the treasures of the Highest: after other three days I will speak other things unto thee, and declare unto thee mighty and wondrous things.

2Es 13:57 Then went I forth into the field, giving praise and thanks greatly unto the Most High because of his wonders which he did in time;

2Es 13:58 And because he governeth the same, and such things as fall in their seasons: and there I sat three days.

2Es 14:1 And it came to pass upon the third day, I sat under an oak, and, behold, there came a voice out of a bush over against me, and said, Esdras, Esdras.

2Es 14:2 And I said, Here am I, Lord And I stood up upon my feet.

2Es 14:3 Then said he unto me, In the bush I did manifestly reveal myself unto Moses, and talked with him, when my people served in Egypt:

2Es 14:4 And I sent him and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him up to the mount of where I held him by me a long season,

2Es 14:5 And told him many wondrous things, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the end; and commanded him, saying,

2Es 14:6 These words shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hide.

2Es 14:7 And now I say unto thee,

2Es 14:8 That thou lay up in thy heart the signs that I have shewed, and the dreams that thou hast seen, and the interpretations which thou hast heard:

2Es 14:9 For thou shalt be taken away from all, and from henceforth thou shalt remain with my Son, and with such as be like thee, until the times be ended.

2Es 14:10 For the world hath lost his youth, and the times begin to wax old.

2Es 14:11 For the world is divided into twelve parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and half of a tenth part:

2Es 14:12 And there remaineth that which is after the half of the tenth part.

2Es 14:13 Now therefore set thine house in order, and reprove thy people, comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce corruption,

2Es 14:14 Let go from thee mortal thoughts, cast away the burdens of man, put off now the weak nature, 2Es 14:15 And set aside the thoughts that are most heavy unto thee, and haste thee to flee from these times.

2Es 14:16 For yet greater evils than those which thou hast seen happen shall be done hereafter.

2Es 14:17 For look how much the world shall be weaker through age, so much the more shall evils increase upon them that dwell therein.

2Es 14:18 For the time is fled far away, and leasing is hard at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, which thou hast seen.

2Es 14:19 Then answered I before thee, and said,

2Es 14:20 Behold, Lord, I will go, as thou hast commanded me, and reprove the people which are present: but they that shall be born afterward, who shall admonish them? thus the world is set in darkness, and they that dwell therein are without light.

2Es 14:21 For thy law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the work that shall begin.

2Es 14:22 But if I have found grace before thee, send Ruach ha'Kodesh into me, and I shall write all that hath been done in the world since the beginning, which were written in thy law, that men may find thy path, and that they which will live in the latter days may live.

2Es 14:23 And he answered me, saying, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say unto them, that they seek thee not for forty days.

2Es 14:24 But look thou prepare thee many box trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, and Asiel, these five which are ready to write swiftly;

2Es 14:25 And come hither, and I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write.

2Es 14:26 And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish, and some things shalt thou shew secretly to the wise: tomorrow this hour shalt thou begin to write.

2Es 14:27 Then went I forth, as he commanded, and gathered all the people together, and said, 2Es 14:28 Hear these words, O Israel.

2Es 14:29 Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were delivered:

2Es 14:30 And received the law of life, which they kept not, which ye also have transgressed after them.

2Es 14:31 Then was the land, even the land of Zion, parted among you by lot: but your fathers, and ye yourselves, have done unrighteousness, and have not kept the ways which the Highest commanded you.

2Es 14:32 And forasmuch as he is a righteous judge, he took from you in time the thing that he had given you.

2Es 14:33 And now are ye here, and your brethren among you.

2Es 14:34 Therefore if so be that ye will subdue your own understanding, and reform your hearts, ye shall be kept alive and after death ye shall obtain mercy.

2Es 14:35 For after death shall the judgment come, when we shall live again: and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the works of the irreverent shall be declared.

2Es 14:36 Let no man therefore come unto me now, nor seek after me these forty days.

2Es 14:37 So I took the five men, as he commanded me, and we went into the field, and remained there.

2Es 14:38 And the next day, behold, a voice called me, saying, Esdras, open thy mouth, and drink that I give thee to drink.

2Es 14:39 Then opened I my mouth, and, behold, he reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the color of it was like fire.

2Es 14:40 And I took it, and drank: and when I had drunk of it, my heart uttered understanding, and wisdom grew in my breast, for my spirit strengthened my memory:

2Es 14:41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more.

2Es 14:42 The Highest gave understanding unto the five men, and they wrote the wonderful visions of the night that were told, which they knew not: and they sat forty days, and they wrote in the day, and at night they ate bread.

2Es 14:43 As for me. I spake in the day, and I held not my tongue by night.

2Es 14:44 In forty days they wrote two hundred and four books.

2Es 14:45 And it came to pass, when the forty days were filled, that the Highest spake, saying, The first that thou hast written publish openly, that the worthy and unworthy may read it:

2Es 14:46 But keep the seventy last, that thou mayest deliver them only to such as be wise among the people:

2Es 14:47 For in them is the spring of understanding, the fountain of wisdom, and the stream of knowledge.

2Es 14:48 And I did so.

2Es 15:1 Behold, speak thou in the ears of my people the words of prophecy, which I will put in thy mouth, saith Yehowah:

2Es 15:2 And cause them to be written in paper: for they are faithful and true.

2Es 15:3 Fear not the imaginations against thee, let not the incredulity of them trouble thee, that speak against thee.

2Es 15:4 For all the unfaithful shall die in their unfaithfulness.

2Es 15:5 Behold, saith Yehowah, I will bring plagues upon the world; the sword, famine, death, and destruction.

2Es 15:6 For wickedness hath exceedingly polluted the whole earth, and their hurtful works are fulfilled.

2Es 15:7 Therefore saith Yehowah,

2Es 15:8 I will hold my tongue no more as touching their wickedness, which they profanely commit, neither will I suffer them in those things, in which they wickedly exercise themselves: behold, the innocent and righteous blood crieth unto me, and the souls of the just complain continually.

2Es 15:9 And therefore, saith Yehowah, I will surely avenge them, and receive unto me all the innocent blood from among them.

2Es 15:10 Behold, my people is led as a flock to the slaughter: I will not suffer them now to dwell in the land of Egypt:

2Es 15:11 But I will bring them with a mighty hand and a stretched out arm, and smite Egypt with plagues, as before, and will destroy all the land thereof.

2Es 15:12 Egypt shall mourn, and the foundation of it shall be smitten with the plague and punishment that Yehowah shall bring upon it.

2Es 15:13 They that till the ground shall mourn: for their seeds shall fail through the blasting and hail, and with a fearful constellation.

2Es 15:14 Woe to the world and them that dwell therein!

2Es 15:15 For the sword and their destruction draweth nigh, and one people shall stand up and fight against another, and swords in their hands.

2Es 15:16 For there shall be sedition among men, and invading one another; they shall not regard their kings nor princes, and the course of their actions shall stand in their power.

2Es 15:17 A man shall desire to go into a city, and shall not be able.

2Es 15:18 For because of their pride the cities shall be troubled, the houses shall be destroyed, and men shall be afraid.

2Es 15:19 A man shall have no pity upon his neighbor, but shall destroy their houses with the sword, and spoil their goods, because of the lack of bread, and for great tribulation.

2Es 15:20 Behold, saith Yehowah, I will call together all the kings of the earth to reverence me, which are from the rising of the sun, from the south, from the east, and Libanus; to turn themselves one against another, and repay the things that they have done to them.

2Es 15:21 Like as they do yet this day unto my chosen, so will I do also, and recompense in their bosom. Thus saith Almighty Yehowah;

2Es 15:22 My right hand shall not spare the sinners, and my sword shall not cease over them that shed innocent blood upon the earth.

2Es 15:23 The fire is gone forth from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners, like the straw that is kindled.

2Es 15:24 Woe to them that sin, and keep not my commandments! saith Yehowah.

2Es 15:25 I will not spare them: go your way, ye children, from the power, defile not my sanctuary.

2Es 15:26 For Yehowah knoweth all them that sin against him, and therefore delivereth he them unto death and destruction.

2Es 15:27 For now are the plagues come upon the whole earth and ye shall remain in them: for Yehowah shall not deliver you, because ye have sinned against him.

2Es 15:28 Behold an horrible vision, and the appearance thereof from the east:

2Es 15:29 Where the nations of the dragons of Arabia shall come out with many chariots, and the multitude of them shall be carried as the wind upon earth, that all they which hear them may fear and tremble.

2Es 15:30 Also the Carmanians raging in wrath shall go forth as the wild boars of the wood, and with great power shall they come, and join battle with them, and shall waste a portion of the land of the Assyrians.

2Es 15:31 And then shall the dragons have the upper hand, remembering their nature; and if they shall turn themselves, conspiring together in great power to persecute them,

2Es 15:32 Then these shall be troubled bled, and keep silence through their power, and shall flee.

2Es 15:33 And from the land of the Assyrians shall the enemy besiege them, and consume some of them, and in their host shall be fear and dread, and strife among their kings.

2Es 15:34 Behold clouds from the east and from the north unto the south, and they are very horrible to look upon, full of wrath and storm.

2Es 15:35 They shall smite one upon another, and they shall smite down a great multitude of stars upon the earth, even their own star; and blood shall be from the sword unto the belly, 2Es 15:36 And dung of men unto the camel's hough.

2Es 15:37 And there shall be great fearfulness and trembling upon earth: and they that see the wrath shall be afraid, and trembling shall come upon them.

2Es 15:38 And then shall there come great storms from the south, and from the north, and another part from the west.

2Es 15:39 And strong winds shall arise from the east, and shall open it; and the cloud which he raised up in wrath, and the star stirred to cause fear toward the east and west wind, shall be destroyed.

2Es 15:40 The great and mighty clouds shall be puffed up full of wrath, and the star, that they may make all the earth afraid, and them that dwell therein; and they shall pour out over every high and eminent place a horrible star, 2Es 15:41 Fire, and hail, and flying swords, and many waters, that all fields may be full, and all rivers, with the abundance of great waters.

2Es 15:42 And they shall break down the cities and walls, mountains and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadows, and their corn.

2Es 15:43 And they shall go stedfastly unto Babylon, and make her afraid.

2Es 15:44 They shall come to her, and besiege her, the star and all wrath shall they pour out upon her: then shall the dust and smoke go up unto the heaven, and all they that be about her shall bewail her.

2Es 15:45 And they that remain under her shall do service unto them that have put her in fear.

2Es 15:46 And thou, Asia, that art partaker of the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person:

2Es 15:47 Woe be unto thee, thou wretch, because thou hast made thyself like unto her; and hast decked thy daughters in whoredom, that they might please and glory in thy lovers, which have always desired to commit whoredom with thee.

2Es 15:48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her works and inventions: therefore saith Yehowah, 2Es 15:49 I will send plagues upon thee; widowhood, poverty, famine, sword, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death.

2Es 15:50 And the glory of thy Power shall be dried up as a flower, the heat shall arise that is sent over thee.

2Es 15:51 Thou shalt be weakened as a poor woman with stripes, and as one chastized with wounds, so that the mighty and lovers shall not be able to receive thee.

2Es 15:52 Would I with jealousy have so proceeded against thee, saith Yehowah,

2Es 15:53 If thou hadst not always slain my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and saying over their dead, when thou wast drunken, 2Es 15:54 Set forth the beauty of thy countenance?

2Es 15:55 The reward of thy whoredom shall be in thy bosom, therefore shalt thou receive recompense.

2Es 15:56 Like as thou hast done unto my chosen, saith Yehowah, even so shall Yehowah do unto thee, and shall deliver thee into mischief

2Es 15:57 Thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall through the sword: thy cities shall be broken down, and all thine shall perish with the sword in the field.

2Es 15:58 They that be in the mountains shall die of hunger, and eat their own flesh, and drink their own blood, for very hunger of bread, and thirst of water.

2Es 15:59 Thou as unhappy shalt come through the sea, and receive plagues again.

2Es 15:60 And in the passage they shall rush on the idle city, and shall destroy some portion of thy land, and consume part of thy glory, and shall return to Babylon that was destroyed.

2Es 15:61 And thou shalt be cast down by them as stubble, and they shall be unto thee as fire; 2Es 15:62 And shall consume thee, and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountains; all thy woods and thy fruitful trees shall they burn up with fire.

2Es 15:63 Thy children shall they carry away captive, and, look, what thou hast, they shall spoil it, and mar the beauty of thy face.

2Es 16:1 Woe be unto thee, Babylon, and Asia! woe be unto thee, Egypt and Syria!

2Es 16:2 Gird up yourselves with cloths of sack and hair, bewail your children, and be sorry; for your destruction is at hand.

2Es 16:3 A sword is sent upon you, and who may turn it back?

2Es 16:4 A fire is sent among you, and who may quench it?

2Es 16:5 Plagues are sent unto you, and what is he that may drive them away?

2Es 16:6 May any man drive away an hungry lion in the wood? or may any one quench the fire in stubble, when it hath begun to burn?

2Es 16:7 May one turn again the arrow that is shot of a strong archer?

2Es 16:8 The mighty Lord sendeth the plagues and who is he that can drive them away?

2Es 16:9 A fire shall go forth from his wrath, and who is he that may quench it?

2Es 16:10 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not fear? he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid?

2Es 16:11 Yehowah shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly beaten to powder at his presence?

2Es 16:12 The earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof; the sea ariseth up with waves from the deep, and the waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof also, before Yehowah, and before the glory of his power:

2Es 16:13 For strong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, his arrows that he shooteth are sharp, and shall not miss, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world.

2Es 16:14 Behold, the plagues are sent, and shall not return again, until they come upon the earth.

2Es 16:15 The fire is kindled, and shall not be put out, till it consume the foundation of the earth.

2Es 16:16 Like as an arrow which is shot of a mighty archer returneth not backward: even so the plagues that shall be sent upon earth shall not return again.

2Es 16:17 Woe is me! woe is me! who will deliver me in those days?

2Es 16:18 The beginning of sorrows and great mournings; the beginning of famine and great death; the beginning of wars, and the powers shall stand in fear; the beginning of evils! what shall I do when these evils shall come?

2Es 16:19 Behold, famine and plague, tribulation and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment.

2Es 16:20 But for all these things they shall not turn from their wickedness, nor be always mindful of the scourges.

2Es 16:21 Behold, victuals shall be so good cheap upon earth, that they shall think themselves to be in good case, and even then shall evils grow upon earth, sword, famine, and great confusion.

2Es 16:22 For many of them that dwell upon earth shall perish of famine; and the other, that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy.

2Es 16:23 And the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be wasted, and the cities shall be cast down.

2Es 16:24 There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it

2Es 16:25 The trees shall give fruit, and who shall gather them?

2Es 16:26 The grapes shall ripen, and who shall tread them? for all places shall be desolate of men:

2Es 16:27 So that one man shall desire to see another, and to hear his voice.

2Es 16:28 For of a city there shall be ten left, and two of the field, which shall hide themselves in the thick groves, and in the clefts of the rocks.

2Es 16:29 As in an orchard of Olives upon every tree there are left three or four olives;

2Es 16:30 Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters of them that diligently seek through the vineyard:

2Es 16:31 Even so in those days there shall be three or four left by them that search their houses with the sword.

2Es 16:32 And the earth shall be laid waste, and the fields thereof shall wax old, and her ways and all her paths shall grow full of thorns, because no man shall travel therethrough.

2Es 16:33 The virgins shall mourn, having no bridegrooms; the women shall mourn, having no husbands; their daughters shall mourn, having no helpers.

2Es 16:34 In the wars shall their bridegrooms be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine.

2Es 16:35 Hear now these things and understand them, ye servants of Yehowah.

2Es 16:36 Behold, the word of Yehowah, receive it: believe not the deities of whom Yehowah spake.

2Es 16:37 Behold, the plagues draw nigh, and are not slack.

2Es 16:38 As when a woman with child in the ninth month bringeth forth her son, with two or three hours of her birth great pains compass her womb, which pains, when the child cometh forth, they slack not a moment:

2Es 16:39 Even so shall not the plagues be slack to come upon the earth, and the world shall mourn, and sorrows shall come upon it on every side.

2Es 16:40 O my people, hear my word: make you ready to thy battle, and in those evils be even as pilgrims upon the earth.

2Es 16:41 He that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that will lose:

2Es 16:42 He that occupieth merchandise, as he that hath no profit by it: and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein:

2Es 16:43 He that soweth, as if he should not reap: so also he that planteth the vineyard, as he that shall not gather the grapes:

2Es 16:44 They that marry, as they that shall get no children; and they that marry not, as the widowers.

2Es 16:45 And therefore they that labor labor in vain:

2Es 16:46 For strangers shall reap their fruits, and spoil their goods, overthrow their houses, and take their children captives, for in captivity and famine shall they get children.

2Es 16:47 And they that occupy their merchandise with robbery, the more they deck their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their own persons:

2Es 16:48 The more will I be angry with them for their sin, saith Yehowah.

2Es 16:49 Like as a whore envieth a right honest and virtuous woman:

2Es 16:50 So shall righteousness hate iniquity, when she decketh herself, and shall accuse her to her face, when he cometh that shall defend him that diligently searcheth out every sin upon earth.

2Es 16:51 And therefore be ye not like thereunto, nor to the works thereof.

2Es 16:52 For yet a little, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousness shall reign among you.

2Es 16:53 Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for Yehowah shall burn coals of fire upon his head, which saith before Almighty Yehowah and his glory, I have not sinned.

2Es 16:54 Behold, Yehowah knoweth all the works of men, their imaginations, their thoughts, and their hearts:

2Es 16:55 Which spake but the word, Let the earth be made; and it was made: Let the heaven be made; and it was created.

2Es 16:56 In his word were the stars made, and he knoweth the number of them.

2Es 16:57 He searcheth the deep, and the treasures thereof; he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth.

2Es 16:58 He hath shut the sea in the midst of the waters, and with his word hath he hanged the earth upon the waters.

2Es 16:59 He spreadeth out the heavens like a vault; upon the waters hath he founded it.

2Es 16:60 In the desert hath he made springs of water, and pools upon the tops of the mountains, that the floods might pour down from the high rocks to water the earth.

2Es 16:61 He made man, and put his heart in the midst of the body, and gave him breath, life, and understanding.

2Es 16:62 Yea and the Ruach of Almighty Yehowah, which made all things, and searcheth out all hidden things in the secrets of the earth, 2Es 16:63 Surely he knoweth your inventions, and what ye think in your hearts, even them that sin, and would hide their sin.

2Es 16:64 Therefore hath Yehowah exactly searched out all your works, and he will put you all to shame.

2Es 16:65 And when your sins are brought forth, ye shall be ashamed before men, and your own sins shall be your accusers in that day.

2Es 16:66 What will ye do? or how will ye hide your sins before Yehowah and his angels?

2Es 16:67 Behold, Yehowah himself is the judge, fear him: leave off from your sins, and forget your iniquities, to meddle no more with them forever:

so shall Yehowah lead you forth, and deliver you from all trouble.

2Es 16:68 For, behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled over you, and they shall take away certain of you, and feed you, being idle, with things offered unto idols.

2Es 16:69 And they that consent unto them shall be had in derision and in reproach, and trodden under foot.

2Es 16:70 For there shall be in every place, and in the next cities, a great insurrection upon those that fear Yehowah.

2Es 16:71 They shall be like mad men, sparing none, but still spoiling and destroying those that fear Yehowah.

2Es 16:72 For they shall waste and take away their goods, and cast them out of their houses.

2Es 16:73 Then shall they be known, who are my chosen; and they shall be tried as the gold in the fire.

2Es 16:74 Hear, O ye my beloved, saith Yehowah: behold, the days of trouble are at hand, but I will deliver you from the same.

2Es 16:75 Be ye not afraid neither doubt; for Yehowah is your guide, 2Es 16:76 And the guide of them who keep my commandments and precepts, saith Almighty Yehowah: let not your sins weigh you down, and let not your iniquities lift up themselves.

2Es 16:77 Woe be unto them that are bound with their sins, and covered with their iniquities like as a field is covered over with bushes, and the path thereof covered with thorns, that no man may travel through!

2Es 16:78 It is left undressed, and is cast into the fire to be consumed therewith.

Book of Tobit

Tob 1:1 The book of the words of Tobit, son of Tobiel, the son of Ananiel, the son of Aduel, the son of Gabael, of the seed of Asael, of the tribe of Nephthali;

Tob 1:2 Who in the time of Enemessar king of the Assyrians was led captive out of Thisbe, which is at the right hand of that city, which is called properly Nephthali in Galilee above Aser.

Tob 1:3 I Tobit have walked all the days of my life in the ways of truth and justice, and I did many almsdeeds to my brethren, and my nation, who came with me to Nineve, into the land of the Assyrians.

Tob 1:4 And when I was in mine own country, in the land of Israel being but young, all the tribe of Nephthali my father fell from the house of Jerusalem, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, that all the tribes should sacrifice there, where the temple of the habitation of the Most High was consecrated and built for all ages.

Tob 1:5 Now all the tribes which together revolted, and the house of my father Nephthali, sacrificed unto the heifer Baal.

Tob 1:6 But I alone went often to Jerusalem at the feasts, as it was ordained unto all the people of Israel by an everlasting decree, having the firstfruits and tenths of increase, with that which was first shorn; and them gave I at the altar to the priests the children of Aaron.

Tob 1:7 The first tenth part of all increase I gave to the sons of Aaron, who ministered at Jerusalem: another tenth part I sold away, and went, and spent it every year at Jerusalem:

Tob 1:8 And the third I gave unto them to whom it was meet, as Debora my father's mother had commanded me, because I was left an orphan by my father.

Tob 1:9 Furthermore, when I was come to the age of a man, I married Anna of mine own kindred, and of her I begat Tobias.

Tob 1:10 And when we were carried away captives to Nineve, all my brethren and those that were of my kindred did eat of the bread of the nations.

Tob 1:11 But I kept myself from eating;

Tob 1:12 Because I remembered Yehowah with all my heart.

Tob 1:13 And the Most High gave me grace and favor before Enemessar, so that I was his purveyor.

Tob 1:14 And I went into Media, and left in trust with Gabael, the brother of Gabrias, at Rages a city of Media ten talents of silver.

Tob 1:15 Now when Enemessar was dead, Sennacherib his son reigned in his stead; whose estate was troubled, that I could not go into Media.

Tob 1:16 And in the time of Enemessar I gave many alms to my brethren, and gave my bread to the hungry,

Tob 1:17 And my clothes to the naked: and if I saw any of my nation dead, or cast about the walls of Nineve, I buried him.

Tob 1:18 And if the king Sennacherib had slain any, when he was come, and fled from Judea, I buried them privily; for in his wrath he killed many; but the bodies were not found, when they were sought for of the king.

Tob 1:19 And when one of the Ninevites went and complained of me to the king, that I buried them, and hid myself; understanding that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew myself for fear.

Tob 1:20 Then all my goods were forcibly taken away, neither was there anything left me, beside my wife Anna and my son Tobias.

Tob 1:21 And there passed not five and fifty days, before two of his sons killed him, and they fled into the mountains of Ararath; and Sarchedonus his son reigned in his stead; who appointed over his father's accounts, and over all his affairs, Achiacharus my brother Anael's son.

Tob 1:22 And Achiacharus intreating for me, I returned to Nineve. Now Achiacharus was cupbearer, and keeper of the signet, and steward, and overseer of the accounts: and Sarchedonus appointed him next unto him: and he was my brother's son.

Tob 2:1 Now when I was come home again, and my wife Anna was restored unto me, with my son Tobias, in the feast of Shavuot, which is the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, in the which I sat down to eat.

Tob 2:2 And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring what poor man soever thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is mindful of Yehowah; and, lo, I tarry for thee.

Tob 2:3 But he came again, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, and is cast out in the marketplace.

Tob 2:4 Then before I had tasted of any meat, I started up, and took him up into a room until the going down of the sun.

Tob 2:5 Then I returned, and washed myself, and ate my meat in heaviness,

Tob 2:6 Remembering that prophecy of Amos, as he said, Your feasts shall be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation.

Tob 2:7 Therefore I wept: and after the going down of the sun I went and made a grave, and buried him.

Tob 2:8 But my neighbors mocked me, and said, This man is not yet afraid to be put to death for this matter: who fled away; and yet, lo, he burieth the dead again.

Tob 2:9 The same night also I returned from the burial, and slept by the wall of my courtyard, being polluted and my face was uncovered:

Tob 2:10 And I knew not that there were sparrows in the wall, and mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes, and a whiteness came in mine eyes: and I went to the physicians, but they helped me not: moreover Achiacharus did nourish me, until I went into Elymais.

Tob 2:11 And my wife Anna did take women's works to do.

Tob 2:12 And when she had sent them home to the owners, they paid her wages, and gave her also besides a kid.

Tob 2:13 And when it was in my house, and began to cry, I said unto her, From whence is this kid? is it not stolen? render it to the owners; for it is not lawful to eat anything that is stolen.

Tob 2:14 But she replied upon me, It was given for a gift more than the wages. Howbeit I did not believe her, but bade her render it to the owners: and I was abashed at her. But she replied upon me, Where are thine alms and thy righteous deeds? behold, thou and all thy works are known.

Tob 3:1 Then I being grieved did weep, and in my sorrow prayed, saying,

Tob 3:2 O Yehowah, thou art just, and all thy works and all thy ways are mercy and truth, and thou judgest truly and justly forever.

Tob 3:3 Remember me, and look on me, punish me not for my sins and ignorances, and the sins of mg fathers, who have sinned before thee:

Tob 3:4 For they obeyed not thy commandments: wherefore thou hast delivered us for a spoil, and unto captivity, and unto death, and for a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed.

Tob 3:5 And now thy judgments are many and true: deal with me according to my sins and my fathers': because we have not kept thy commandments, neither have walked in truth before thee.

Tob 3:6 Now therefore deal with me as seemeth best unto thee, and command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be dissolved, and become earth: for it is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because I have heard false reproaches, and have much sorrow: command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress, and go into the everlasting place: turn not thy face away from me.

Tob 3:7 It came to pass the same day, that in Ecbatane a city of Media Sara the daughter of Raguel was also reproached by her father's maids;

Tob 3:8 Because that she had been married to seven husbands, whom Asmodeus the evil spirit had killed, before they had lain with her. Dost thou not know, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? thou hast had already seven husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them.

Tob 3:9 Wherefore dost thou beat us for them? if they be dead, go thy ways after them, let us never see of thee either son or daughter.

Tob 3:10 Whe she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have strangled herself; and she said, I am the only daughter of my father, and if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and I shall bring his old age with sorrow unto the grave.

Tob 3:11 Then she prayed toward the window, and said, Blessed art thou, O Yehowah my Divine One, and thine holy and glorious name is blessed and honorable forever: let all thy works praise thee forever.

Tob 3:12 And now, O Yehowah, I set I mine eyes and my face toward thee,

Tob 3:13 And say, Take me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach.

Tob 3:14 Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man,

Tob 3:15 And that I never polluted my name, nor the name of my father, in the land of my captivity: I am the only daughter of my father, neither hath he any child to be his heir, neither any near kinsman, nor any son of his alive, to whom I may keep myself for a wife: my seven husbands are already dead; and why should I live? but if it please not thee that I should die, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, that I hear no more reproach.

Tob 3:16 So the prayers of them both were heard before the majesty of the great Yehowah.

Tob 3:17 And Raphael was sent to heal them both, that is, to scale away the whiteness of Tobit's eyes, and to give Sara the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind Asmodeus the evil spirit; because she belonged to Tobias by right of inheritance. The selfsame time came Tobit home, and entered into his house, and Sara the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

Tob 4:1 In that day Tobit remembered the money which he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media,

Tob 4:2 And said with himself, I have wished for death; wherefore do I not call for my son Tobias that I may signify to him of the money before I die?

Tob 4:3 And when he had called him, he said, My son, when I am dead, bury me; and despise not thy mother, but honor her all the days of thy life, and do that which shall please her, and grieve her not.

Tob 4:4 Remember, my son, that she saw many dangers for thee, when thou wast in her womb: and when she is dead, bury her by me in one grave.

Tob 4:5 My son, be mindful of Yehowah our Divine One all thy days, and let not thy will be set to sin, or to transgress his commandments: do uprightly all thy life long, and follow not the ways of unrighteousness.

Tob 4:6 For if thou deal truly, thy doings shall prosperously succeed to thee, and to all them that live justly.

Tob 4:7 Give alms of thy substance; and when thou givest alms, let not thine eye be envious, neither turn thy face from any poor, and the face of Yehowah shall not be turned away from thee.

Tob 4:8 If thou hast abundance give alms accordingly: if thou have but a little, be not afraid to give according to that little:

Tob 4:9 For thou layest up a good treasure for thyself against the day of necessity.

Tob 4:10 Because that alms do deliver from death, and suffereth not to come into darkness.

Tob 4:11 For alms is a good gift unto all that give it in the sight of the Most High.

Tob 4:12 Beware of all whoredom, my son, and chiefly take a wife of the seed of thy fathers, and take not a strange woman to wife, which is not of thy father's tribe: for we are the children of the prophets, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: remember, my son, that our fathers from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed shall inherit the land.

Tob 4:13 Now therefore, my son, love thy brethren, and despise not in thy heart thy brethren, the sons and daughters of thy people, in not taking a wife of them: for in pride is destruction and much trouble, and in lewdness is decay and great want: for lewdness is the mother of famine.

Tob 4:14 Let not the wages of any man, which hath wrought for thee, tarry with thee, but give him it out of hand: for if thou serve Yehowah, he will also repay thee: be circumspect my son, in all things thou doest, and be wise in all thy conversation.

Tob 4:15 Do that to no man which thou hatest: drink not wine to make thee drunken: neither let drunkenness go with thee in thy journey.

Tob 4:16 Give of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked; and according to thine abundance give alms: and let not thine eye be envious, when thou givest alms.

Tob 4:17 Pour out thy bread on the burial of the just, but give nothing to the wicked.

Tob 4:18 Ask counsel of all that are wise, and despise not any counsel that is profitable.

Tob 4:19 Bless Yehowah thy Divine One always, and desire of him that thy ways may be directed, and that all thy paths and counsels may prosper: for every nation hath not counsel; but Yehowah himself giveth all good things, and he humbleth whom he will, as he will; now therefore, my son, remember my commandments, neither let them be put out of thy mind.

Tob 4:20 And now I signify this to they that I committed ten talents to Gabael the son of Gabrias at Rages in Media.

Tob 4:21 And fear not, my son, that we are made poor: for thou hast much wealth, if thou fear Yehowah, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in his sight.

Tob 5:1 Tobias then answered and said, Father, I will do all things which thou hast commanded me:

Tob 5:2 But how can I receive the money, seeing I know him not?

Tob 5:3 Then he gave him the handwriting, and said unto him, Seek thee a man which may go with thee, while I yet live, and I will give him wages: and go and receive the money.

Tob 5:4 Therefore when he went to seek a man, he found Raphael that was an angel.

Tob 5:5 But he knew not; and he said unto him, Canst thou go with me to Rages? and knowest thou those places well?

Tob 5:6 To whom the angel said, I will go with thee, and I know the way well: for I have lodged with our brother Gabael.

Tob 5:7 Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me, till I tell my father.

Tob 5:8 Then he said unto him, Go and tarry not. So he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee.

Tob 5:9 So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another.

Tob 5:10 Then Tobit said unto him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art.

Tob 5:11 To whom he said, Dost thou seek for a tribe or family, or an hired man to go with thy son? Then Tobit said unto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and name.

Tob 5:12 Then he said, I am Azariah, the son of Hananiah the great, and of thy brethren.

Tob 5:13 Then Tobit said, Thou art welcome, brother; be not now angry with me, because I have enquired to know thy tribe and thy family; for thou art my brother, of an honest and good stock: for I know Hananiah and Jonathas, sons of that great Samaias, as we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the firstborn, and the tenths of the fruits; and they were not seduced with the error of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a good stock.

Tob 5:14 But tell me, what wages shall I give thee? wilt thou a drachm a day, and things necessary, as to mine own son?

Tob 5:15 Yea, moreover, if ye return safe, I will add something to thy wages.

Tob 5:16 So they were well pleased. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, and Yehowah send you a good journey. And when his son had prepared all things far the journey, his father said, Go thou with this man, and Yehowah, which dwelleth in heaven, prosper your journey, and the angel of Yehowah keep you company. So they went forth both, and the young man's dog with them.

Tob 5:17 But Anna his mother wept, and said to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our son? is he not the staff of our hand, in going in and out before us?

Tob 5:18 Be not greedy to add money to money: but let it be as refuse in respect of our child.

Tob 5:19 For that which Yehowah hath given us to live with doth suffice us.

Tob 5:20 Then said Tobit to her, Take no care, my sister; he shall return in safety, and thine eyes shall see him.

Tob 5:21 For the good angel will keep him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall return safe.

Tob 5:22 Then she made an end of weeping.

Tob 6:1 And as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river Tigris, and they lodged there.

Tob 6:2 And when the young man went down to wash himself, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him.

Tob 6:3 Then the angel said unto him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold of the fish, and drew it to land.

Tob 6:4 To whom the angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart and the liver and the gall, and put them up safely.

Tob 6:5 So the young man did as the angel commanded him; and when they had roasted the fish, they did eat it: then they both went on their way, till they drew near to Ecbatane.

Tob 6:6 Then the young man said to the angel, Brother Azariah, to what use is the heart and the liver and the gal of the fish?

Tob 6:7 And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed.

Tob 6:8 As for the gall, it is good to anoint a man that hath whiteness in his eyes, and he shall be healed.

Tob 6:9 And when they were come near to Rages,

Tob 6:10 The angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy cousin; he also hath one only daughter, named Sara; I will speak for her, that she may be given thee for a wife.

Tob 6:11 For to thee doth the right of her appertain, seeing thou only art of her kindred.

Tob 6:12 And the maid is fair and wise: now therefore hear me, and I will speak to her father; and when we return from Rages we will celebrate the marriage: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according to the law of Moses, but he shall be guilty of death, because the right of inheritance doth rather appertain to thee than to any other.

Tob 6:13 Then the young man answered the angel, I have heard, brother Azariah that this maid hath been given to seven men, who all died in the marriage chamber.

Tob 6:14 And now I am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest if I go in unto her, I die, as the other before: for a wicked spirit loveth her, which hurteth no body, but those which come unto her; wherefore I also fear lest I die, and bring my father's and my mother's life because of me to the grave with sorrow: for they have no other son to bury them.

Tob 6:15 Then the angel said unto him, Dost thou not remember the precepts which thy father gave thee, that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine own kindred? wherefore hear me, O my brother; for she shall be given thee to wife; and make thou no reckoning of the evil spirit; for this same night shall she be given thee in marriage.

Tob 6:16 And when thou shalt come into the marriage chamber, thou shalt take the ashes of perfume, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shalt make a smoke with it:

Tob 6:17 And the devil shall smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise up both of you, and pray to Yehowah which is merciful, who will have pity on you, and save you: fear not, for she is appointed unto thee from the beginning; and thou shalt preserve her, and she shall go with thee. Moreover I suppose that she shall bear thee children. Now when Tobias had heard these things, he loved her, and his heart was effectually joined to her.

Tob 7:1 And when they were come to Ecbatane, they came to the house of Raguel, and Sara met them: and after they had saluted one another, she brought them into the house.

Tob 7:2 Then said Raguel to Edna his wife, How like is this young man to Tobit my cousin!

Tob 7:3 And Raguel asked them, From whence are ye, brethren? To whom they said, We are of the sons of Nephthalim, which are captives in Nineve.

Tob 7:4 Then he said to them, Do ye know Tobit our kinsman? And they said, We know him. Then said he, Is he in good health?

Tob 7:5 And they said, He is both alive, and in good health: and Tobias said, He is my father.

Tob 7:6 Then Raguel leaped up, and kissed him, and wept,

Tob 7:7 And blessed him, and said unto him, Thou art the son of an honest and good man. But when he had heard that Tobit was blind, he was sorrowful, and wept.

Tob 7:8 And likewise Edna his wife and Sara his daughter wept. Moreover they entertained them cheerfully; and after that they had killed a ram of the flock, they set store of meat on the table. Then said Tobias to Raphael, Brother Azariah, speak of those things of which thou didst talk in the way, and let this business be dispatched.

Tob 7:9 So he communicated the matter with Raguel: and Raguel said to Tobias, Eat and drink, and make merry:

Tob 7:10 For it is meet that thou shouldest marry my daughter: nevertheless I will declare unto thee the truth.

Tob 7:11 I have given my daughter in marriage te seven men, who died that night they came in unto her: nevertheless for the present be merry. But Tobias said, I will eat nothing here, till we agree and swear one to another.

Tob 7:12 Raguel said, Then take her from henceforth according to the manner, for thou art her cousin, and she is thine, and the merciful Yehowah give you good success in all things.

Tob 7:13 Then he called his daughter Sara, and she came to her father, and he took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife to Tobias, saying, Behold, take her after the law of Moses, and lead her away to thy father. And he blessed them;

Tob 7:14 And called Edna his wife, and took paper, and did write an instrument of covenants, and sealed it.

Tob 7:15 Then they began to eat.

Tob 7:16 After Raguel called his wife Edna, and said unto her, Sister, prepare another chamber, and bring her in thither.

Tob 7:17 Which when she had done as he had bidden her, she brought her thither: and she wept, and she received the tears of her daughter, and said unto her,

Tob 7:18 Be of good comfort, my daughter; Yehowah of heaven and earth give thee joy for this thy sorrow: be of good comfort, my daughter.

Tob 8:1 And when they had supped, they brought Tobias in unto her.

Tob 8:2 And as he went, he remembered the words of Raphael, and took the ashes of the perfumes, and put the heart and the liver of the fish thereupon, and made a smoke therewith.

Tob 8:3 The which smell when the evil spirit had smelled, he fled into the utmost parts of Egypt, and the angel bound him.

Tob 8:4 And after that they were both shut in together, Tobias rose out of the bed, and said, Sister, arise, and let us pray that Yehowah would have pity on us.

Tob 8:5 Then began Tobias to say, Blessed art thou, O Mighty One of our fathers, and blessed is thy holy and glorious name forever; let the heavens bless thee, and all thy creatures.

Tob 8:6 Thou madest Adam, and gavest him Eve his wife for a helper and stay: of them came mankind: thou hast said, It is not good that man should be alone; let us make unto him an aid like unto himself.

Tob 8:7 And now, O Yehowah, I take not this my sister for lush but uprightly: therefore mercifully ordain that we may become aged together.

Tob 8:8 And she said with him, Amen.

Tob 8:9 So they slept both that night. And Raguel arose, and went and made a grave,

Tob 8:10 Saying, I fear lest he also be dead.

Tob 8:11 But when Raguel was come into his house,

Tob 8:12 He said unto his wife Edna. Send one of the maids, and let her see whether he be alive: if he be not, that we may bury him, and no man know it.

Tob 8:13 So the maid opened the door, and went in, and found them both asleep,

Tob 8:14 And came forth, and told them that he was alive.

Tob 8:15 Then Raguel praised Yehowah, and said, O Yehowah, thou art worthy to be praised with all pure and holy praise; therefore let thy saints praise thee with all thy creatures; and let all thine angels and thine elect praise thee forever.

Tob 8:16 Thou art to be praised, for thou hast made me joyful; and that is not come to me which I suspected; but thou hast dealt with us according to thy great mercy.

Tob 8:17 Thou art to be praised because thou hast had mercy of two that were the only begotten children of their fathers: grant them mercy, O Yehowah, and finish their life in health with joy and mercy.

Tob 8:18 Then Raguel bade his servants to fill the grave.

Tob 8:19 And he kept the wedding feast fourteen days.

Tob 8:20 For before the days of the marriage were finished, Raguel had said unto him by an oath, that he should not depart till the fourteen days of the marriage were expired;

Tob 8:21 And then he should take the half of his goods, and go in safety to his father; and should have the rest when I and my wife be dead.

Tob 9:1 Then Tobias called Raphael, and said unto him,

Tob 9:2 Brother Azariah, take with thee a servant, and two camels, and go to Rages of Media to Gabael, and bring me the money, and bring him to the wedding.

Tob 9:3 For Raguel hath sworn that I shall not depart.

Tob 9:4 But my father counteth the days; and if I tarry long, he will be very sorry.

Tob 9:5 So Raphael went out, and lodged with Gabael, and gave him the handwriting: who brought forth bags which were sealed up, and gave them to him.

Tob 9:6 And early in the morning they went forth both together, and came to the wedding: and Tobias blessed his wife.

Tob 10:1 Now Tobit his father counted every day: and when the days of the journey were expired, and they came not,

Tob 10:2 Then Tobit said, Are they detained? or is Gabael dead, and there is no man to give him the money?

Tob 10:3 Therefore he was very sorry.

Tob 10:4 Then his wife said unto him, My son is dead, seeing he stayeth long; and she began to wail him, and said,

Tob 10:5 Now I care for nothing, my son, since I have let thee go, the light of mine eyes.

Tob 10:6 To whom Tobit said, Hold thy peace, take no care, for he is safe.

Tob 10:7 But she said, Hold thy peace, and deceive me not; my son is dead. And she went out every day into the way which they went, and did eat no meat on the daytime, and ceased not whole nights to bewail her son Tobias, until the fourteen days of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there. Then Tobias said to Raguel, Let me go, for my father and my mother look no more to see me.

Tob 10:8 But his father in law said unto him, Tarry with me, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare unto him how things go with thee.

Tob 10:9 But Tobias said, No; but let me go to my father.

Tob 10:10 Then Raguel arose, and gave him Sara his wife, and half his goods, servants, and cattle, and money:

Tob 10:11 And he blessed them, and sent them away, saying, The Mighty One of heaven give you a prosperous journey, my children.

Tob 10:12 And he said to his daughter, Honor thy father and thy mother in law, which are now thy parents, that I may hear good report of thee. And he kissed her. Edna also said to Tobias, Yehowah of heaven restore thee, my dear brother, and grant that I may see thy children of my daughter Sara before I die, that I may rejoice before Yehowah: behold, I commit my daughter unto thee of special trust; where are do not entreat her evil.

Tob 11:1 After these things Tobias went his way, praising Yehowah that he had given him a prosperous journey, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till they drew near unto Nineve.

Tob 11:2 Then Raphael said to Tobias, Thou knowest, brother, how thou didst leave thy father:

Tob 11:3 Let us haste before thy wife, and prepare the house.

Tob 11:4 And take in thine hand the gall of the fish. So they went their way, and the dog went after them.

Tob 11:5 Now Anna sat looking about toward the way for her son.

Tob 11:6 And when she espied him coming, she said to his father, Behold, thy son cometh, and the man that went with him.

Tob 11:7 Then said Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes.

Tob 11:8 Therefore anoint thou his eyes with the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and the whiteness shall fall away, and he shall see thee.

Tob 11:9 Then Anna ran forth, and fell upon the neck of her son, and said unto him, Seeing I have seen thee, my son, from henceforth I am content to die. And they wept both.

Tob 11:10 Tobit also went forth toward the door, and stumbled: but his son ran unto him,

Tob 11:11 And took hold of his father: and he strake of the gall on his fathers' eyes, saying, Be of good hope, my father.

Tob 11:12 And when his eyes began to smart, he rubbed them;

Tob 11:13 And the whiteness pilled away from the corners of his eyes: and when he saw his son, he fell upon his neck.

Tob 11:14 And he wept, and said, Blessed art thou, O Yehowah, and blessed is thy name forever; and blessed are all thine holy angels:

Tob 11:15 For thou hast scourged, and hast taken pity on me: for, behold, I see my son Tobias. And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media.

Tob 11:16 Then Tobit went out to meet his daughter in law at the gate of Nineve, rejoicing and praising Yehowah: and they which saw him go marveled, because he had received his sight.

Tob 11:17 But Tobias gave thanks before them, because Yehowah had mercy on him. And when he came near to Sara his daughter in law, he blessed her, saying, Thou art welcome, daughter: Yehowah be blessed, which hath brought thee unto us, and blessed be thy father and thy mother. And there was joy among all his brethren which were at Nineve.

Tob 11:18 And Achiacharus, and Nasbas his brother's son, came:

Tob 11:19 And Tobias' wedding was kept seven days with great joy.

Tob 12:1 Then Tobit called his son Tobias, and said unto him, My son, see that the man have his wages, which went with thee, and thou must give him more.

Tob 12:2 And Tobias said unto him, O father, it is no harm to me to give him half of those things which I have brought:

Tob 12:3 For he hath brought me again to thee in safety, and made whole my wife, and brought me the money, and likewise healed thee.

Tob 12:4 Then the old man said, It is due unto him.

Tob 12:5 So he called the angel, and he said unto him, Take half of all that ye have brought and go away in safety.

Tob 12:6 Then he took them both apart, and said unto them, Bless Yehowah, praise him, and magnify him, and praise him for the things which he hath done unto you in the sight of all that live. It is good to praise Yehowah, and exalt his name, and honorably to shew forth the works of Yehowah; therefore be not slack to praise him.

Tob 12:7 It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but it is honorable to reveal the works of Yehowah. Do that which is good, and no evil shall touch you.

Tob 12:8 Prayer is good with fasting and alms and righteousness. A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold:

Tob 12:9 For alms doth deliver from death, and shall purge away all sin. Those that exercise alms and righteousness shall be filled with life:

Tob 12:10 But they that sin are enemies to their own life.

Tob 12:11 Surely I will keep close nothing from you. For I said, It was good to keep close the secret of a king, but that it was honorable to reveal the works of Yehowah.

Tob 12:12 Now therefore, when thou didst pray, and Sara thy daughter in law, I did bring the remembrance of your prayers before the Holy One: and when thou didst bury the dead, I was with thee likewise.

Tob 12:13 And when thou didst not delay to rise up, and leave thy dinner, to go and cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me: but I was with thee.

Tob 12:14 And now Yehowah hath sent me to heal thee and Sara thy daughter in law.

Tob 12:15 I am Raphael, one of the seven holy angels, which present the prayers of the saints, and which go in and out before the glory of the Holy One.

Tob 12:16 Then they were both troubled, and fell upon their faces: for they feared.

Tob 12:17 But he said unto them, Fear not, for it shall go well with you; praise Yehowah therefore.

Tob 12:18 For not of any favor of mine, but by the will of our Divine One I came; wherefore praise him forever.

Tob 12:19 All these days I did appear unto you; but I did neither eat nor drink, but ye did see a vision.

Tob 12:20 Now therefore give Yehowah thanks: for I go up to him that sent me; but write all things which are done in a book.

Tob 12:21 And when they arose, they saw him no more.

Tob 12:22 Then they confessed the great and wonderful works of Yehowah, and how the angel of Yehowah had appeared unto them.

Tob 13:1 Then Tobit wrote a prayer of rejoicing, and said, Blessed be Yehowah that liveth forever, and blessed be his kingdom.

Tob 13:2 For he doth scourge, and hath mercy: he leadeth down to hell, and bringeth up again: neither is there any that can avoid his hand.

Tob 13:3 Confess him before the nations, ye children of Israel: for he hath scattered us among them.

Tob 13:4 There declare his greatness, and extol him before all the living: for he is our Lord, and he is the Yehowah our Father forever.

Tob 13:5 And he will scourge us for our iniquities, and will have mercy again, and will gather us out of all nations, among whom he hath scattered us.

Tob 13:6 If ye turn to him with your whole heart, and with your whole mind, and deal uprightly before him, then will he turn unto you, and will not hide his face from you. Therefore see what he will do with you, and confess him with your whole mouth, and praise Yehowah of might, and extol the everlasting King. In the land of my captivity do I praise him, and declare his might and majesty to a sinful nation. O ye sinners, turn and do justice before him: who can tell if he will accept you, and have mercy on you?

Tob 13:7 I will extol my Divine One, and my soul shall praise the King of heaven, and shall rejoice in his greatness.

Tob 13:8 Let all men speak, and let all praise him for his righteousness.

Tob 13:9 O Jerusalem, the holy city, he will scourge thee for thy children's works, and will have mercy again on the sons of the righteous.

Tob 13:10 Give praise to Yehowah, for he is good: and praise the everlasting King, that his tabernacle may be builded in thee again with joy, and let him make joyful there in thee those that are captives, and love in thee forever those that are miserable.

Tob 13:11 Many nations shall come from far to the name of Almighty Yehowah with gifts in their hands, even gifts to the King of heaven; all generations shall praise thee with great joy.

Tob 13:12 Cursed are all they which hate thee, and blessed shall all be which love thee forever.

Tob 13:13 Rejoice and be glad for the children of the just: for they shall be gathered together, and shall bless Yehowah of the just.

Tob 13:14 O blessed are they which love thee, for they shall rejoice in thy peace: blessed are they which have been sorrowful for all thy scourges; for they shall rejoice for thee, when they have seen all thy glory, and shall be glad forever.

Tob 13:15 Let my soul bless Yehowah the great King.

Tob 13:16 For Jerusalem shall be built up with sapphires and emeralds, and precious stone: thy walls and towers and battlements with pure gold.

Tob 13:17 And the streets of Jerusalem shall be paved with beryl and carbuncle and stones of Ophir.

Tob 13:18 And all her streets shall say, Alleluia; and they shall praise him, saying, Blessed be Yehowah, which hath extolled it forever.

Tob 14:1 So Tobit made an end of praising Yehowah.

Tob 14:2 And he was eight and fifty years old when he lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight years: and he gave alms, and he increased in the fear of Almighty Yehowah, and praised him.

Tob 14:3 And when he was very aged he called his son, and the sons of his son, and said to him, My son, take thy children; for, behold, I am aged, and am ready to depart out of this life.

Tob 14:4 Go into Media my son, for I surely believe those things which Jonas the prophet spake of Nineve, that it shall be overthrown; and that for a time peace shall rather be in Media; and that our brethren shall lie scattered in the earth from that good land: and Jerusalem shall be desolate, and the house of Yehowah in it shall be burned, and shall be desolate for a time;

Tob 14:5 And that again Yehowah will have mercy on them, and bring them again into the land, where they shall build a temple, but not like to the first, until the time of that age be fulfilled; and afterward they shall return from all places of their captivity, and build up Jerusalem gloriously, and the house of Yehowah shall be built in it forever with a glorious building, as the prophets have spoken thereof.

Tob 14:6 And all nations shall turn, and fear Almighty Yehowah truly, and shall bury their idols.

Tob 14:7 So shall all nations praise Yehowah, and his people shall confess Yehowah, and Yehowah shall exalt his people; and all those which love Almighty Yehowah in truth and justice shall rejoice, shewing mercy to our brethren.

Tob 14:8 And now, my son, depart out of Nineve, because that those things which the prophet Jonas spake shall surely come to pass.

Tob 14:9 But keep thou the law and the commandments, and shew thyself merciful and just, that it may go well with thee.

Tob 14:10 And bury me decently, and thy mother with me; but tarry no longer at Nineve. Remember, my son, how Aman handled Achiacharus that brought him up, how out of light he brought him into darkness, and how he rewarded him again: yet Achiacharus was saved, but the other had his reward: for he went down into darkness. Manasses gave alms, and escaped the snares of death which they had set for him: but Aman fell into the snare, and perished.

Tob 14:11 Wherefore now, my son, consider what alms doeth, and how righteousness doth deliver. When he had said these things, he gave up the ghost in the bed, being a hundred and eight and fifty years old; and he buried him honorably.

Tob 14:12 And when Anna his mother was dead, he buried her with his father. But Tobias departed with his wife and children to Ecbatane to Raguel his father in law, Tob 14:13 Where he became old with honor, and he buried his father and mother in law honorably, and he inherited their substance, and his father Tobit's.

Tob 14:14 And he died at Ecbatane in Media, being a hundred and seven and twenty years old.

Tob 14:15 But before he died he heard of the destruction of Nineve, which was taken by Nebuchadnezzar and Assuerus: and before his death he rejoiced over Nineve.

Book of Judith

Jdt 1:1 In the twelfth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, who reigned in Nineve, the great city; in the days of Arphaxad, which reigned over the Medes in Ecbatane,

Jdt 1:2 And built in Ecbatane walls round about of stones hewn three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits:

Jdt 1:3 And set the towers thereof upon the gates of it a hundred cubits high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubits:

Jdt 1:4 And he made the gates thereof, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and the breadth of them was forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in array of his footmen:

Jdt 1:5 Even in those days king Nebuchadnezzar made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain, which is the plain in the borders of Ragau.

Jdt 1:6 And there came unto him all they that dwelt in the hill country, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and Tigris and Hydaspes, and the plain of Arioch the king of the Elymeans, and very many nations of the sons of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battle.

Jdt 1:7 Then Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians sent unto all that dwelt in Persia, and to all that dwelt westward, and to those that dwelt in Cilicia, and Damascus, and Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt upon the sea coast,

Jdt 1:8 And to those among the nations that were of Carmel, and Galaad, and the higher Galilee, and the great plain of Esdrelom,

Jdt 1:9 And to all that were in Samaria and the cities thereof, and beyond Jordan unto Jerusalem, and Betane, and Chelus, and Kades, and the river of Egypt, and Taphnes, and Ramesse, and all the land of Gesem, Jdt 1:10 Until ye come beyond Tanis and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, until ye come to the borders of Ethiopia.

Jdt 1:11 But all the inhabitants of the land made light of the commandment of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians, neither went they with him to the battle; for they were not afraid of him: yea, he was before them as one man, and they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect, and with disgrace.

Jdt 1:12 Therefore Nebuchadnezzar was very angry with all this country, and sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all those coasts of Cilicia, and Damascus, and Syria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and all Judea, and all that were in Egypt, till ye come to the borders of the two seas.

Jdt 1:13 Then he marched in battle array with his power against king Arphaxad in the seventeenth year, and he prevailed in his battle: for he overthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen, and all his chariots,

Jdt 1:14 And became lord of his cities, and came unto Ecbatane, and took the towers, and spoiled the streets thereof, and turned the beauty thereof into shame.

Jdt 1:15 He took also Arphaxad in the mountains of Ragau, and smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him utterly that day.

Jdt 1:16 So he returned afterward to Nineve, both he and all his company of sundry nations being a very great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease, and banqueted, both he and his army, a hundred and twenty days.

Jdt 2:1 And in the eighteenth year, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians that he should, as he said, avenge himself on all the earth.

Jdt 2:2 So he called unto him all his officers, and all his nobles, and communicated with them his secret counsel, and concluded the afflicting of the whole earth out of his own mouth.

Jdt 2:3 Then they decreed to destroy all flesh, that did not obey the commandment of his mouth.

Jdt 2:4 And when he had ended his counsel, Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians called Holofernes the chief captain of his army, which was next unto him, and said unto him.

Jdt 2:5 Thus saith the great king, the lord of the whole earth, Behold, thou shalt go forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their own strength, of footmen a hundred and twenty thousand; and the number of horses with their riders twelve thousand.

Jdt 2:6 And thou shalt go against all the west country, because they disobeyed my commandment.

Jdt 2:7 And thou shalt declare unto that they prepare for me earth and water: for I will go forth in my wrath against them and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of mine army, and I will give them for a spoil unto them:

Jdt 2:8 So that their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow:

Jdt 2:9 And I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth.

Jdt 2:10 Thou therefore shalt go forth. and take beforehand for me all their coasts: and if they will yield themselves unto thee, thou shalt reserve them for me till the day of their punishment.

Jdt 2:11 But concerning them that rebel, let not thine eye spare them; but put them to the slaughter, and spoil them wheresoever thou goest.

Jdt 2:12 For as I live, and by the power of my kingdom, whatsoever I have spoken, that will I do by mine hand.

Jdt 2:13 And take thou heed that thou transgress none of the commandments of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I have commanded thee, and defer not to do them.

Jdt 2:14 Then Holofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called ail the governors and captains, and the officers of the army of Assur;

Jdt 2:15 And he mustered the chosen men for the battle, as his lord had commanded him, unto a hundred and twenty thousand, and twelve thousand archers on horseback;

Jdt 2:16 And he ranged them, as a great army is ordered for the war.

Jdt 2:17 And he took camels and asses for their carriages, a very great number; and sheep and oxen and goats without number for their provision:

Jdt 2:18 And plenty of victual for every man of the army, and very much gold and silver out of the king's house.

Jdt 2:19 Then he went forth and all his power to go before king Nebuchadnezzar in the voyage, and to cover all the face of the earth westward with their chariots, and horsemen, and their chosen footmen.

Jdt 2:20 A great number also sundry countries came with them like locusts, and like the sand of the earth: for the multitude was without number.

Jdt 2:21 And they went forth of Nineve three days' journey toward the plain of Bectileth, and pitched from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper Cilicia.

Jdt 2:22 Then he took all his army, his footmen, and horsemen and chariots, and went from thence into the hill country;

Jdt 2:23 And destroyed Phud and Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rasses, and the children of Israel, which were toward the wilderness at the south of the land of the Chellians.

Jdt 2:24 Then he went over Euphrates, and went through Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, till ye come to the sea.

Jdt 2:25 And he took the borders of Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Japheth, which were toward the south, over against Arabia.

Jdt 2:26 He compassed also all the children of Madian, and burned up their tabernacles, and spoiled their sheepcotes.

Jdt 2:27 Then he went down into the plain of Damascus in the time of wheat harvest, and burnt up all their fields, and destroyed their flocks and herds, also he spoiled their cities, and utterly wasted their countries, and smote all their young men with the edge of the sword.

Jdt 2:28 Therefore the fear and dread of him fell upon all the inhabitants of the sea coasts, which were in Sidon and Tyrus, and them that dwelt in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwelt in Jemnaan; and they that dwelt in Azotus (Ashdod) and Ashkelon feared him greatly.

Jdt 3:1 So they sent ambassadors unto him to treat of peace, saying,

Jdt 3:2 Behold, we the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the great king lie before thee; use us as shall be good in thy sight.

Jdt 3:3 Behold, our houses, and all our places, and all our fields of wheat, and flocks, and herds, and all the lodges of our tents lie before thy face; use them as it pleaseth thee.

Jdt 3:4 Behold, even our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy servants; come and deal with them as seemeth good unto thee.

Jdt 3:5 So the men came to Holofernes, and declared unto him after this manner.

Jdt 3:6 Then came he down toward the sea coast, both he and his army, and set garrisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for aid.

Jdt 3:7 So they and all the country round about received them with garlands, with dances, and with timbrels.

Jdt 3:8 Yet he did cast down their frontiers, and cut down their groves: for he had decreed to destroy all the deities of the land, that all nations should worship Nebuchadnezzar only, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as deity.

Jdt 3:9 Also he came over against Esdraelon near unto Judea, over against the great strait of Judea.

Jdt 3:10 And he pitched between Geba and Scythopolis, and there he tarried a whole month, that he might gather together all the carriages of his army.

Jdt 4:1 Now the children of Israel, that dwelt in Judea, heard all that Holofernes the chief captain of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples, and brought them to naught.

Jdt 4:2 Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were troubled for Jerusalem, and for the temple of Yehowah their Divine One:

Jdt 4:3 For they were newly returned from the captivity, and all the people of Judea were lately gathered together: and the vessels, and the altar, and the house, were sanctified after the profanation.

Jdt 4:4 Therefore they sent into all the coasts of Samaria, and the villages and to Bethoron, and Belmen, and Jericho, and to Choba, and Esora, and to the valley of Salem:

Jdt 4:5 And possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains, and fortified the villages that were in them, and laid up victuals for the provision of war: for their fields were of late reaped.

Jdt 4:6 Also Joacim the high priest, which was in those days in Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in Bethulia, and Betomestham, which is over against Esdraelon toward the open country, near to Dothaim, Jdt 4:7 Charging them to keep the passages of the hill country: for by them there was an entrance into Judea, and it was easy to stop them that would come up, because the passage was straight, for two men at the most.

Jdt 4:8 And the children of Israel did as Joacim the high priest had commanded them, with the ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Jerusalem.

Jdt 4:9 Then every man of Israel cried to Yehowah with great fervency, and with great vehemency did they humble their souls:

Jdt 4:10 Both they, and their wives and their children, and their cattle, and every stranger and hireling, and their servants bought with money, put sackcloth upon their loins.

Jdt 4:11 Thus every man and women, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, fell before the temple, and cast ashes upon their heads, and spread out their sackcloth before the face of Yehowah: also they put sackcloth about the altar,

Jdt 4:12 And cried to the Mighty One of Israel all with one consent earnestly, that he would not give their children for a prey, and their wives for a spoil, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the sanctuary to profanation and reproach, and for the nations to rejoice at.

Jdt 4:13 So Yehowah heard their prayers, and looked upon their afflictions: for the people fasted many days in all Judea and Jerusalem before the sanctuary of Yehowah Almighty.

Jdt 4:14 And Joacim the high priest, and all the priests that stood before Yehowah, and they which ministered unto Yehowah, had their loins girt with sackcloth, and offered the daily burnt offerings, with the vows and free gifts of the people,

Jdt 4:15 And had ashes on their mitres, and cried unto Yehowah with all their power, that he would look upon all the house of Israel graciously.

Jdt 5:1 Then was it declared to Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, that the children of Israel had prepared for war, and had shut up the passages of the hill country, and had fortified all the tops of the high hills and had laid impediments in the champaign countries:

Jdt 5:2 Wherewith he was very angry, and called all the princes of Moab, and the captains of Ammon, and all the governors of the sea coast,

Jdt 5:3 And he said unto them, Tell me now, ye sons of Canaan, who this people is, that dwelleth in the hill country, and what are the cities that they inhabit, and what is the multitude of their army, and wherein is their power and strength, and what king is set over them, or captain of their army;

Jdt 5:4 And why have they determined not to come and meet me, more than all the inhabitants of the west.

Jdt 5:5 Then said Achior, the captain of all the sons of Ammon, Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of thy servant, and I will declare unto thee the truth concerning this people, which dwelleth near thee, and inhabiteth the hill countries: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy servant.

Jdt 5:6 This people are descended of the Chaldeans:

Jdt 5:7 And they sojourned heretofore in Mesopotamia, because they would not follow the deities of their fathers, which were in the land of Chaldea.

Jdt 5:8 For they left the way of their ancestors, and worshiped the Mighty One of heaven, the Yehowah whom they knew: so they cast them out from the face of their deities, and they fled into Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many days.

Jdt 5:9 Then their Divine One commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to go into the land of Canaan: where they dwelt, and were increased with gold and silver, and with very much cattle.

Jdt 5:10 But when a famine covered all the land of Canaan, they went down into Egypt, and sojourned there, while they were nourished, and became there a great multitude, so that one could not number their nation.

Jdt 5:11 Therefore the king of Egypt rose up against them, and dealt subtilly with them, and brought them low with laboring in brick, and made them slaves.

Jdt 5:12 Then they cried unto their Divine One, and he smote all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues: so the Egyptians cast them out of their sight.

Jdt 5:13 And Yehowah dried the Red Sea before them,

Jdt 5:14 And brought them to mount Sina, and Cades-Barne, and cast forth all that dwelt in the wilderness.

Jdt 5:15 So they dwelt in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of Esebon, and passing over Jordan they possessed all the hill country.

Jdt 5:16 And they cast forth before them the Chanaanite, the Pherezite, the Jebusite, and the Sychemite, and all the Gergesites, and they dwelt in that country many days.

Jdt 5:17 And whilst they sinned not before their Divine One, they prospered, because the Yehowah that hateth iniquity was with them.

Jdt 5:18 But when they departed from the way which he appointed them, they were destroyed in many battles very sore, and were led captives into a land that was not their's, and the temple of their Divine One was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by the enemies.

Jdt 5:19 But now are they returned to their Divine One, and are come up from the places where they were scattered, and have possessed Jerusalem, where their sanctuary is, and are seated in the hill country; for it was desolate.

Jdt 5:20 Now therefore, my lord and governor, if there be any error against this people, and they sin against their Divine One, let us consider that this shall be their ruin, and let us go up, and we shall overcome them.

Jdt 5:21 But if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my lord now pass by, lest their Lord defend them, and their Divine One be for them, and we become a reproach before all the world.

Jdt 5:22 And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people standing round about the tent murmured, and the chief men of Holofernes, and all that dwelt by the seaside, and in Moab, spake that he should kill him.

Jdt 5:23 For, say they, we will not be afraid of the face of the children of Israel: for, lo, it is a people that have no strength nor power for a strong battle

Jdt 5:24 Now therefore, lord Holofernes, we will go up, and they shall be a prey to be devoured of all thine army.

Jdt 6:1 And when the tumult of men that were about the council was ceased, Holofernes the chief captain of the army of Assur said unto Achior and all the Moabites before all the company of other nations,

Jdt 6:2 And who art thou, Achior, and the hirelings of Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied against us as to day, and hast said, that we should not make war with the people of Israel, because their Divine One will defend them? and who is Yehowah but Nebuchadnezzar?

Jdt 6:3 He will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their Divine One shall not deliver them: but we his servants will destroy them as one man; for they are not able to sustain the power of our horses.

Jdt 6:4 For with them we will tread them under foot, and their mountains shall be drunken with their blood, and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footsteps shall not be able to stand before us, for they shall utterly perish, saith king Nebuchadnezzar, lord of all the earth: for he said, None of my words shall be in vain.

Jdt 6:5 And thou, Achior, an hireling of Ammon, which hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, shalt see my face no more from this day, until I take vengeance of this nation that came out of Egypt.

Jdt 6:6 And then shall the sword of mine army, and the multitude of them that serve me, pass through thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slain, when I return.

Jdt 6:7 Now therefore my servants shall bring thee back into the hill country, and shall set thee in one of the cities of the passages:

Jdt 6:8 And thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them.

Jdt 6:9 And if thou persuade thyself in thy mind that they shall be taken, let not thy countenance fall: I have spoken it, and none of my words shall be in vain.

Jdt 6:10 Then Holofernes commanded his servants, that waited in his tent, to take Achior, and bring him to Bethulia, and deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel.

Jdt 6:11 So his servants took him, and brought him out of the camp into the plain, and they went from the midst of the plain into the hill country, and came unto the fountains that were under Bethulia.

Jdt 6:12 And when the men of the city saw them, they took up their weapons, and went out of the city to the top of the hill: and every man that used a sling kept them from coming up by casting of stones against them.

Jdt 6:13 Nevertheless having gotten privily under the hill, they bound Achior, and cast him down, and left him at the foot of the hill, and returned to their lord.

Jdt 6:14 But the Israelis descended from their city, and came unto him, and loosed him, and brought him to Bethulia, and presented him to the governors of the city:

Jdt 6:15 Which were in those days Ozias the son of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniel, and Charmis the son of Melchiel.

Jdt 6:16 And they called together all the ancients of the city, and all their youth ran together, and their women, to the assembly, and they set Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done.

Jdt 6:17 And he answered and declared unto them the words of the council of Holofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of Assur, and whatsoever Holofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel.

Jdt 6:18 Then the people fell down and worshiped Yehowah, and cried unto Yehowah. saying,

Jdt 6:19 O Yehowah Mighty One of heaven, behold their pride, and pity the low estate of our nation, and look upon the face of those that are sanctified unto thee this day.

Jdt 6:20 Then they comforted Achior, and praised him greatly.

Jdt 6:21 And Ozias took him out of the assembly unto his house, and made a feast to the elders; and they called on the Mighty One of Israel all that night for help.

Jdt 7:1 The next day Holofernes commanded all his army, and all his people which were come to take his part, that they should remove their camp against Bethulia, to take aforehand the ascents of the hill country, and to make war against the children of Israel.

Jdt 7:2 Then their strong men removed their camps in that day, and the army of the men of war was a hundred and seventy thousand footmen, and twelve thousand horsemen, beside the baggage, and other men that were afoot among them, a very great multitude.

Jdt 7:3 And they camped in the valley near unto Bethulia, by the fountain, and they spread themselves in breadth over Dothaim even to Belmaim, and in length from Bethulia unto Cynamon, which is over against Esdraelon.

Jdt 7:4 Now the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said every one to his neighbor, Now will these men lick up the face of the earth; for neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills, are able to bear their weight.

Jdt 7:5 Then every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched all that night.

Jdt 7:6 But in the second day Holofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel which were in Bethulia, Jdt 7:7 And viewed the passages up to the city, and came to the fountains of their waters, and took them, and set garrisons of men of war over them, and he himself removed toward his people.

Jdt 7:8 Then came unto him all the chief of the children of Esau, and all the governors of the people of Moab, and the captains of the sea coast, and said,

Jdt 7:9 Let our lord now hear a word, that there be not an overthrow in thine army.

Jdt 7:10 For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their spears, but in the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, because it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains.

Jdt 7:11 Now therefore, my lord, fight not against them in battle array, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish.

Jdt 7:12 Remain in thy camp, and keep all the men of thine army, and let thy servants get into their hands the fountain of water, which issueth forth of the foot of the mountain:

Jdt 7:13 For all the inhabitants of Bethulia have their water thence; so shall thirst kill them, and they shall give up their city, and we and our people shall go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will camp upon them, to watch that none go out of the city.

Jdt 7:14 So they and their wives and their children shall be consumed with fire, and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrown in the streets where they dwell.

Jdt 7:15 Thus shalt thou render them an evil reward; because they rebelled, and met not thy person peaceably.

Jdt 7:16 And these words pleased Holofernes and all his servants, and he appointed to do as they had spoken.

Jdt 7:17 So the camp of the children of Ammon departed, and with them five thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and took the waters, and the fountains of the waters of the children of Israel.

Jdt 7:18 Then the children of Esau went up with the children of Ammon, and camped in the hill country over against Dothaim: and they sent some of them toward the south, and toward the east over against Ekrebel, which is near unto Chusi, that is upon the brook Mochmur; and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the plain, and covered the face of the whole land; and their tents and carriages were pitched to a very great multitude.

Jdt 7:19 Then the children of Israel cried unto Yehowah their Divine One, because their heart failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them.

Jdt 7:20 Thus all the company of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots, and horsemen, four and thirty days, so that all their vessels of water failed all the inhibitants of Bethulia.

Jdt 7:21 And the cisterns were emptied, and they had not water to drink their fill for one day; for they gave them drink by measure.

Jdt 7:22 Therefore their young children were out of heart, and their women and young men fainted for thirst, and fell down in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them.

Jdt 7:23 Then all the people assembled to Ozias, and to the chief of the city, both young men, and women, and children, and cried with a loud voice, and said before all the elders,

Jdt 7:24 Yehowah be judge between us and you: for ye have done us great injury, in that ye have not required peace of the children of Assur.

Jdt 7:25 For now we have no helper: but Yehowah hath sold us into their hands, that we should be thrown down before them with thirst and great destruction.

Jdt 7:26 Now therefore call them unto you, and deliver the whole city for a spoil to the people of Holofernes, and to all his army.

Jdt 7:27 For it is better for us to be made a spoil unto them, than to die for thirst: for we will be his servants, that our souls may live, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wives nor our children to die.

Jdt 7:28 We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our Divine One and Lord of our fathers, which punisheth us according to our sins and the sins of our fathers, that he do not according as we have said this day.

Jdt 7:29 Then there was great weeping with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried unto Almighty Yehowah with a loud voice.

Jdt 7:30 Then said Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage, let us yet endure five days, in the which space Yehowah our Divine One may turn his mercy toward us; for he will not forsake us utterly.

Jdt 7:31 And if these days pass, and there come no help unto us, I will do according to your word.

Jdt 7:32 And he dispersed the people, every one to their own charge; and they went unto the walls and towers of their city, and sent the women and children into their houses: and they were very low brought in the city.

Jdt 8:1 Now at that time Judith heard thereof, which was the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Ozel, the son of Elcia, the son of Hananiah, the son of Gedeon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Eliu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of Samael, the son of Salasadal, the son of Israel.

Jdt 8:2 And Manasses was her husband, of her tribe and kindred, who died in the barley harvest.

Jdt 8:3 For as he stood overseeing them that bound sheaves in the field, the heat came upon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in the city of Bethulia: and they buried him with his fathers in the field between Dothaim and Balamo.

Jdt 8:4 So Judith was a widow in her house three years and four months.

Jdt 8:5 And she made her a tent upon the top of her house, and put on sackcloth upon her loins and ware her widow's apparel.

Jdt 8:6 And she fasted all the days of her widowhood, save the eves of the sabbaths, and the sabbaths, and the eves of the new months, and the new months and the feasts and solemn days of the house of Israel.

Jdt 8:7 She was also of a goodly countenance, and very beautiful to behold: and her husband Manasses had left her gold, and silver, and menservants and maidservants, and cattle, and lands; and she remained upon them.

Jdt 8:8 And there was none that gave her an ill word; ar she feared Yehowah greatly.

Jdt 8:9 Now when she heard the evil words of the people against the governor, that they fainted for lack of water; for Judith had heard all the words that Ozias had spoken unto them, and that he had sworn to deliver the city unto the Assyrians after five days;

Jdt 8:10 Then she sent her waitingwoman, that had the government of all things that she had, to call Ozias and Chabris and Charmis, the ancients of the city.

Jdt 8:11 And they came unto her, and she said unto them, Hear me now, O ye governors of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your words that ye have spoken before the people this day are not right, touching this oath which ye made and pronounced between Yehowah and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days Yehowah turn to help you.

Jdt 8:12 And now who are ye that have tempted Yehowah this day, and stand instead of Yehowah among the children of men?

Jdt 8:13 And now try Yehowah Almighty, but ye shall never know anything.

Jdt 8:14 For ye cannot find the depth of the heart of man, neither can ye perceive the things that he thinketh: then how can ye search out Yehowah, that hath made all these things, and know his mind, or comprehend his purpose? Nay, my brethren, provoke not Yehowah our Divine One to anger.

Jdt 8:15 For if he will not help us within these five days, he hath power to defend us when he will, even every day, or to destroy us before our enemies.

Jdt 8:16 Do not bind the counsels of Yehowah our Divine One: for Yehowah is not as man, that he may be threatened; neither is he as the son of man, that he should be wavering.

Jdt 8:17 Therefore let us wait for salvation of him, and call upon him to help us, and he will hear our voice, if it please him.

Jdt 8:18 For there arose none in our age, neither is there any now in these days neither tribe, nor family, nor people, nor city among us, which worship deities made with hands, as hath been aforetime.

Jdt 8:19 For the which cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for a spoil, and had a great fall before our enemies.

Jdt 8:20 But we know none other deity, therefore we trust that he will not dispise us, nor any of our nation.

Jdt 8:21 For if we be taken so, all Judea shall lie waste, and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and he will require the profanation thereof at our mouth.

Jdt 8:22 And the slaughter of our brethren, and the captivity of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance, will he turn upon our heads among the nations, wheresoever we shall be in bondage; and we shall be an offense and a reproach to all them that possess us.

Jdt 8:23 For our servitude shall not be directed to favor: but Yehowah our Divine One shall turn it to dishonor.

Jdt 8:24 Now therefore, O brethren, let us shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend upon us, and the sanctuary, and the house, and the altar, rest upon us.

Jdt 8:25 Moreover let us give thanks to Yehowah our Divine One, which trieth us, even as he did our fathers.

Jdt 8:26 Remember what things he did to Abraham, and how he tried Isaac, and what happened to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother.

Jdt 8:27 For he hath not tried us in the fire, as he did them, for the examination of their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on us: but Yehowah doth scourge them that come near unto him, to admonish them.

Jdt 8:28 Then said Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that may gainsay thy words.

Jdt 8:29 For this is not the first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of thy days all the people have known thy understanding, because the disposition of thine heart is good.

Jdt 8:30 But the people were very thirsty, and compelled us to do unto them as we have spoken, and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break.

Jdt 8:31 Therefore now pray thou for us, because thou art a reverent woman, and Yehowah will send us rain to fill our cisterns, and we shall faint no more.

Jdt 8:32 Then said Judith unto them, Hear me, and I will do a thing, which shall go throughout all generations to the children of our nation.

Jdt 8:33 Ye shall stand this night in the gate, and I will go forth with my waitingwoman: and within the days that ye have promised to deliver the city to our enemies Yehowah will visit Israel by mine hand.

Jdt 8:34 But enquire not ye of mine act: for I will not declare it unto you, till the things be finished that I do.

Jdt 8:35 Then said Ozias and the princes unto her, Go in peace, and Almighty Yehowah be before thee, to take vengeance on our enemies.

Jdt 8:36 So they returned from the tent, and went to their wards.

Jdt 9:1 Judith fell upon her face, and put ashes upon her head, and uncovered the sackcloth wherewith she was clothed; and about the time that the incense of that evening was offered in Jerusalem in the house of Yehowah Judith cried with a loud voice, and said,

Jdt 9:2 O Yehowah Mighty One of my father Simeon, to whom thou gavest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a maid to defile her, and discovered the thigh to her shame, and polluted her virginity to her reproach; for thou saidst, It shall not be so; and yet they did so:

Jdt 9:3 Wherefore thou gavest their rulers to be slain, so that they dyed their bed in blood, being deceived, and smotest the servants with their lords, and the lords upon their thrones;

Jdt 9:4 And hast given their wives for a prey, and their daughters to be captives, and all their spoils to be divided among thy dear children; which were moved with thy zeal, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called upon thee for aid: O Yehowah, O my Divine One, hear me also a widow.

Jdt 9:5 For thou hast wrought not only those things, but also the things which fell out before, and which ensued after; thou hast thought upon the things which are now, and which are to come.

Jdt 9:6 Yea, what things thou didst determine were ready at hand, and said, Lo, we are here: for all thy ways are prepared, and thy judgments are in thy foreknowledge.

Jdt 9:7 For, behold, the Assyrians are multiplied in their power; they are exalted with horse and man; they glory in the strength of their footmen; they trust in shield, and spear, and bow, and sling; and know not that thou art Yehowah that breakest the battles: Yehowah is thy name.

Jdt 9:8 Throw down their strength in thy power, and bring down their force in thy wrath: for they have purposed to defile thy sanctuary, and to pollute the tabernacle where thy glorious name resteth and to cast down with sword the horn of thy altar.

Jdt 9:9 Behold their pride, and send thy wrath upon their heads: give into mine hand, which am a widow, the power that I have conceived.

Jdt 9:10 Smite by the deceit of my lips the servant with the prince, and the prince with the servant: break down their stateliness by the hand of a woman.

Jdt 9:11 For thy power standeth not in multitude nor thy might in strong men: for thou art a Mighty One of the afflicted, a helper of the oppressed, an upholder of the weak, a protector of the forlorn, a savior of them that are without hope.

Jdt 9:12 I pray thee, I pray thee, O Mighty One of my father, and Mighty One of the inheritance of Israel, Lord of the heavens and earth, Creator of the waters, king of every creature, hear thou my prayer:

Jdt 9:13 And make my speech and deceit to be their wound and stripe, who have purposed cruel things against thy covenant, and thy hallowed house, and against the top of Zion, and against the house of the possession of thy children.

Jdt 9:14 And make every nation and tribe to acknowledge that thou art the Mighty One of all power and might, and that there is none other that protecteth the people of Israel but thou.

Jdt 10:1 Now after that she had ceased to cry unto the Mighty One of Israel, and bad made an end of all these words.

Jdt 10:2 She rose where she had fallen down, and called her maid, and went down into the house in the which she abode in the sabbath days, and in her feast days,

Jdt 10:3 And pulled off the sackcloth which she had on, and put off the garments of her widowhood, and washed her body all over with water, and anointed herself with precious ointment, and braided the hair of her head, and put on a tire upon it, and put on her garments of gladness, wherewith she was clad during the life of Manasses her husband.

Jdt 10:4 And she took sandals upon her feet, and put about her her bracelets, and her chains, and her rings, and her earrings, and all her ornaments, and decked herself bravely, to allure the eyes of all men that should see her.

Jdt 10:5 Then she gave her maid a bottle of wine, and a cruse of oil, and filled a bag with parched corn, and lumps of figs, and with fine bread; so she folded all these things together, and laid them upon her.

Jdt 10:6 Thus they went forth to the gate of the city of Bethulia, and found standing there Ozias and the ancients of the city, Chabris and Charmis.

Jdt 10:7 And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly, and said unto her.

Jdt 10:8 The Yehowah, the Mighty One of our fathers give thee favor, and accomplish thine enterprizes to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. Then they worshiped Yehowah.

Jdt 10:9 And she said unto them, Command the gates of the city to be opened unto me, that I may go forth to accomplish the things whereof ye have spoken with me. So they commanded the young men to open unto her, as she had spoken.

Jdt 10:10 And when they had done so, Judith went out, she, and her maid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the mountain, and till she had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

Jdt 10:11 Thus they went straight forth in the valley: and the first watch of the Assyrians met her,

Jdt 10:12 And took her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said, I am a woman of the Hebrews, and am fled from them: for they shall be given you to be consumed:

Jdt 10:13 And I am coming before Holofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of truth; and I will shew him a way, whereby he shall go, and win all the hill country, without losing the body or life of any one of his men.

Jdt 10:14 Now when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beauty, and said unto her,

Jdt 10:15 Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast hasted to come down to the presence of our lord: now therefore come to his tent, and some of us shall conduct thee, until they have delivered thee to his hands.

Jdt 10:16 And when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart, but shew unto him according to thy word; and he will entreat thee well.

Jdt 10:17 Then they chose out of them a hundred men to accompany her and her maid; and they brought her to the tent of Holofernes.

Jdt 10:18 Then was there a concourse throughout all the camp: for her coming was noised among the tents, and they came about her, as she stood without the tent of Holofernes, till they told him of her.

Jdt 10:19 And they wondered at her beauty, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and every one said to his neighbor, Who would despise this people, that have among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left who being let go might deceive the whole earth.

Jdt 10:20 And they that lay near Holofernes went out, and all his servants and they brought her into the tent.

Jdt 10:21 Now Holofernes rested upon his bed under a canopy, which was woven with purple, and gold, and emeralds, and precious stones.

Jdt 10:22 So they shewed him of her; and he came out before his tent with silver lamps going before him.

Jdt 10:23 And when Judith was come before him and his servants they all marveled at the beauty of her countenance; and she fell down upon her face, and did reverence unto him: and his servants took her up.

Jdt 11:1 Then said Holofernes unto her, Woman, be of good comfort, fear not in thine heart: for I never hurt any that was willing to serve Nebuchadnezzar, the king of all the earth.

Jdt 11:2 Now therefore, if thy people that dwelleth in the mountains had not set light by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them: but they have done these things to themselves.

Jdt 11:3 But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come unto us: for thou art come for safeguard; be of good comfort, thou shalt live this night, and hereafter:

Jdt 11:4 For none shall hurt thee, but entreat thee well, as they do the servants of king Nebuchadnezzar my lord.

Jdt 11:5 Then Judith said unto him, Receive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speak in thy presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord this night.

Jdt 11:6 And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, Yehowah will bring the thing perfectly to pass by thee; and my lord shall not fail of his purposes.

Jdt 11:7 As Nebuchadnezzar king of all the earth liveth, and as his power liveth, who hath sent thee for the upholding of every living thing: for not only men shall serve him by thee, but also the beasts of the field, and the cattle, and the fowls of the air, shall live by thy power under Nebuchadnezzar and all his house.

Jdt 11:8 For we have heard of thy wisdom and thy policies, and it is reported in all the earth, that thou only art excellent in all the kingdom, and mighty in knowledge, and wonderful in feats of war.

Jdt 11:9 Now as concerning the matter, which Achior did speak in thy council, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulia saved him, and he declared unto them all that he had spoken unto thee.

Jdt 11:10 Therefore, O lord and governor, respect not his word; but lay it up in thine heart, for it is true: for our nation shall not be punished, neither can sword prevail against them, except they sin against their Divine One.

Jdt 11:11 And now, that my lord be not defeated and frustrate of his purpose, even death is now fallen upon them, and their sin hath overtaken them, wherewith they will provoke their Divine One to anger whensoever they shall do that which is not fit to be done:

Jdt 11:12 For their victuals fail them, and all their water is scant, and they have determined to lay hands upon their cattle, and purposed to consume all those things, that Yehowah hath forbidden them to eat by his laws:

Jdt 11:13 And are resolved to spend the firstfruits of the corn, and the tenths of wine and oil, which they had sanctified, and reserved for the priests that serve in Jerusalem before the face of our Divine One; the which things it is not lawful for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands.

Jdt 11:14 For they have sent some to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there have done the like, to bring them a license from the senate.

Jdt 11:15 Now when they shall bring them word, they will forthwith do it, and they shall be given to thee to be destroyed the same day.

Jdt 11:16 Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing all this, am fled from their presence; and Yehowah hath sent me to work things with thee, whereat all the earth shall be astonished, and whosoever shall hear it.

Jdt 11:17 For thy servant is religious, and serveth the Mighty One of heaven day and night: now therefore, my lord, I will remain with thee, and thy servant will go out by night into the valley, and I will pray unto Yehowah, and he will tell me when they have committed their sins:

Jdt 11:18 And I will come and shew it unto thee: then thou shalt go forth with all thine army, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee.

Jdt 11:19 And I will lead thee through the midst of Judea, until thou come before Jerusalem; and I will set thy throne in the midst thereof; and thou shalt drive them as sheep that have no shepherd, and a dog shall not so much as open his mouth at thee: for these things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and they were declared unto me, and I am sent to tell thee.

Jdt 11:20 Then her words pleased Holofernes and all his servants; and they marveled at her wisdom, and said,

Jdt 11:21 There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both for beauty of face, and wisdom of words.

Jdt 11:22 Likewise Holofernes said unto her. Yehowah hath done well to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands and destruction upon them that lightly regard my lord.

Jdt 11:23 And now thou art both beautiful in thy countenance, and witty in thy words: surely if thou do as thou hast spoken thy Divine One shall be my Divine One, and thou shalt dwell in the house of king Nebuchadnezzar, and shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

Jdt 12:1 Then he commanded to bring her in where his plate was set; and bade that they should prepare for her of his own meats, and that she should drink of his own wine.

Jdt 12:2 And Judith said, I will not eat thereof, lest there be an offense: but provision shall be made for me of the things that I have brought.

Jdt 12:3 Then Holofernes said unto her, If thy provision should fail, how should we give thee the like? for there be none with us of thy nation.

Jdt 12:4 Then said Judith unto him As thy soul liveth, my lord, thine handmaid shall not spend those things that I have, before Yehowah work by mine hand the things that he hath determined.

Jdt 12:5 Then the servants of Holofernes brought her into the tent, and she slept till midnight, and she arose when it was toward the morning watch,

Jdt 12:6 And sent to Holofernes, saying, Let my lord now command that thine handmaid may go forth unto prayer.

Jdt 12:7 Then Holofernes commanded his guard that they should not stay her: thus she abode in the camp three days, and went out in the night into the valley of Bethulia, and washed herself in a fountain of water by the camp.

Jdt 12:8 And when she came out, she besought Yehowah Mighty One of Israel to direct her way to the raising up of the children of her people.

Jdt 12:9 So she came in clean, and remained in the tent, until she did eat her meat at evening.

Jdt 12:10 And in the fourth day Holofernes made a feast to his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet.

Jdt 12:11 Then said he to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now, and persuade this Hebrew woman which is with thee, that she come unto us, and eat and drink with us.

Jdt 12:12 For, lo, it will be a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not unto us, she will laugh us to scorn.

Jdt 12:13 Then went Bagoas from the presence of Holofernes, and came to her, and he said, Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my lord, and to be honored in his presence, and drink wine, and be merry with us and be made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, which serve in the house of Nebuchadnezzar.

Jdt 12:14 Then said Judith unto him, Who am I now, that I should gainsay my lord? surely whatsoever pleaseth him I will do speedily, and it shall be my joy unto the day of my death.

Jdt 12:15 So she arose, and decked herself with her apparel and all her woman's attire, and her maid went and laid soft skins on the ground for her over against Holofernes, which she had received of Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them.

Jdt 12:16 Now when Judith came in and sat down, Holofernes his heart was ravished with her, and his mind was moved, and he desired greatly her company; for he waited a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her.

Jdt 12:17 Then said Holofernes unto her, Drink now, and be merry with us.

Jdt 12:18 So Judith said, I will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born.

Jdt 12:19 Then she took and ate and drank before him what her maid had prepared.

Jdt 12:20 And Holofernes took great delight in her, and drank more wine than he had drunk at any time in one day since he was born.

Jdt 13:1 Now when the evening was come, his servants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed the waiters from the presence of his lord; and they went to their beds: for they were all weary, because the feast had been long.

Jdt 13:2 And Judith was left along in the tent, and Holofernes lying along upon his bed: for he was filled with wine.

Jdt 13:3 Now Judith had commanded her maid to stand without her bedchamber, and to wait for her. coming forth, as she did daily: for she said she would go forth to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas according to the same purpose.

Jdt 13:4 So all went forth and none was left in the bedchamber, neither little nor great. Then Judith, standing by his bed, said in her heart, O Yehowah Mighty One of all power, look at this present upon the works of mine hands for the exaltation of Jerusalem.

Jdt 13:5 For now is the time to help thine inheritance, and to execute thine enterprizes to the destruction of the enemies which are risen against us.

Jdt 13:6 Then she came to the pillar of the bed, which was at Holofernes' head, and took down his fauchion from thence,

Jdt 13:7 And approached to his bed, and took hold of the hair of his head, and said, Strengthen me, O Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, this day.

Jdt 13:8 And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might, and she took away his head from him.

Jdt 13:9 And tumbled his body down from the bed, and pulled down the canopy from the pillars; and anon after she went forth, and gave Holofernes his head to her maid;

Jdt 13:10 And she put it in her bag of meat: so they twain went together according to their custom unto prayer: and when they passed the camp, they compassed the valley, and went up the mountain of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

Jdt 13:11 Then said Judith afar off, to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate: Yehowah, even our Divine One, is with us, to shew his power yet in Jerusalem, and his forces against the enemy, as he hath even done this day.

Jdt 13:12 Now when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city, and they called the elders of the city.

Jdt 13:13 And then they ran all together, both small and great, for it was strange unto them that she was come: so they opened the gate, and received them, and made a fire for a light, and stood round about them.

Jdt 13:14 Then she said to them with a loud voice, Praise, praise Yehowah, praise Yehowah, I say, for he hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night.

Jdt 13:15 So she took the head out of the bag, and shewed it, and said unto them, behold the head of Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, and behold the canopy, wherein he did lie in his drunkenness; and Yehowah hath smitten him by the hand of a woman.

Jdt 13:16 As Yehowah liveth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceived him to his destruction, and yet hath he not committed sin with me, to defile and shame me.

Jdt 13:17 Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves and worshiped Yehowah, and said with one accord, Blessed be thou, O our Divine One, which hast this day brought to naught the enemies of thy people.

Jdt 13:18 Then said Ozias unto her, O daughter, blessed art thou of the most high Yehowah above all the women upon the earth; and blessed be Almighty Yehowah, which hath created the heavens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chief of our enemies.

Jdt 13:19 For this thy confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of Yehowah forever.

Jdt 13:20 And Yehowah turn these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee in good things because thou hast not spared thy life for the affliction of our nation, but hast revenged our ruin, walking a straight way before our Divine One. And all the people said; So be it, so be it.

Jdt 14:1 Then said Judith unto them, Hear me now, my brethren, and take this head, and hang it upon the highest place of your walls.

Jdt 14:2 And so soon as the morning shall appear, and the sun shall come forth upon the earth, take ye every one his weapons, and go forth every valiant man out of the city, and set ye a captain over them, as though ye would go down into the field toward the watch of the Assyrians; but go not down.

Jdt 14:3 Then they shall take their armor, and shall go into their camp, and raise up the captains of the army of Assur, and shall run to the tent of Holofernes, but shall not find him: then fear shall fall upon them, and they shall flee before your face.

Jdt 14:4 So ye, and all that inhabit the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as they go.

Jdt 14:5 But before ye do these things, call me Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to us as it were to his death.

Jdt 14:6 Then they called Achior out of the house of Ozias; and when he was come, and saw the head of Holofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face, and his spirit failed.

Jdt 14:7 But when they had recovered him, he fell at Judith's feet, and reverenced her, and said, Blessed art thou in all the tabernacles of Judah, and in all nations, which hearing thy name shall be astonished.

Jdt 14:8 Now therefore tell me all the things that thou hast done in these days. Then Judith declared unto him in the midst of the people all that she had done, from the day that she went forth until that hour she spake unto them.

Jdt 14:9 And when she had left off speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful noise in their city.

Jdt 14:10 And when Achior had seen all that the Mighty One of Israel had done, he believed in Yehowah greatly, and circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined unto the house of Israel unto this day.

Jdt 14:11 And as soon as the morning arose, they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall, and every man took his weapons, and they went forth by bands unto the straits of the mountain.

Jdt 14:12 But when the Assyrians saw them, they sent to their leaders, which came to their captains and tribunes, and to every one of their rulers.

Jdt 14:13 So they came to Holofernes' tent, and said to him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our lord: for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be utterly destroyed.

Jdt 14:14 Then went in Bagoas, and knocked at the door of the tent; for he thought that he had slept with Judith.

Jdt 14:15 But because none answered, he opened it, and went into the bedchamber, and found him cast upon the floor dead, and his head was taken from him.

Jdt 14:16 Therefore he cried with a loud voice, with weeping, and sighing, and a mighty cry, and rent his garments.

Jdt 14:17 After he went into the tent where Judith lodged: and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people, and cried,

Jdt 14:18 These slaves have dealt treacherously; one woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of king Nebuchadnezzar: for, behold, Holofernes lieth upon the ground without a head.

Jdt 14:19 When the captains of the Assyrians' army heard these words, they rent their coats and their minds were wonderfully troubled, and there was a cry and a very great noise throughout the camp.

Jdt 15:1 And when they that were in the tents heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done.

Jdt 15:2 And fear and trembling fell upon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbor, but rushing out all together, they fled into every way of the plain, and of the hill country.

Jdt 15:3 They also that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulia fled away. Then the children of Israel, every one that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them.

Jdt 15:4 Then sent Ozias to Betomasthem, and to Bebai, and Chobai, and Cola and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should tell the things that were done, and that all should rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them.

Jdt 15:5 Now when the children of Israel heard it, they all fell upon them with one consent, and slew them unto Chobai: likewise also they that came from Jerusalem, and from all the hill country, (for men had told them what things were done in the camp of their enemies) and they that were in Galaad, and in Galilee, chased them with a great slaughter, until they were past Damascus and the borders thereof.

Jdt 15:6 And the residue that dwelt at Bethulia, fell upon the camp of Assur, and spoiled them, and were greatly enriched.

Jdt 15:7 And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter had that which remained; and the villages and the cities, that were in the mountains and in the plain, got many spoils: for the multitude was very great.

Jdt 15:8 Then Joacim the high priest, and the ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to behold the good things that Yehowah had shewed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to salute her.

Jdt 15:9 And when they came unto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said unto her, Thou art the exaltation of Jerusalem, thou art the great glory of Israel, thou art the great rejoicing of our nation:

Jdt 15:10 Thou hast done all these things by thine hand: thou hast done much good to Israel, and Yehowah is pleased therewith: blessed be thou of the Almighty Lord forevermore. And all the people said, So be it.

Jdt 15:11 And the people spoiled the camp the space of thirty days: and they gave unto Judith Holofernes his tent, and all his plate, and beds, and vessels, and all his stuff: and she took it and laid it on her mule; and made ready her carts, and laid them thereon.

Jdt 15:12 Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and blessed her, and made a dance among them for her: and she took branches in her hand, and gave also to the women that were with her.

Jdt 15:13 And they put a garland of olive upon her and her maid that was with her, and she went before all the people in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armor with garlands, and with songs in their mouths.

Jdt 16:1 Then Judith began to sing this thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang after her this song of praise.

Jdt 16:2 And Judith said, Begin unto my Divine One with timbrels, sing unto my Lord with cymbals: tune unto him a new psalm: exalt him, and call upon his name.

Jdt 16:3 For Yehowah breaketh the battles: for among the camps in the midst of the people he hath delivered me out of the hands of them that persecuted me.

Jdt 16:4 Assur came out of the mountains from the north, he came with ten thousands of his army, the multitude whereof stopped the torrents, and their horsemen have covered the hills.

Jdt 16:5 He bragged that he would burn up my borders, and kill my young men with the sword, and dash the sucking children against the ground, and make mine infants as a prey, and my virgins as a spoil.

Jdt 16:6 But the Almighty Lord hath disappointed them by the hand of a woman.

Jdt 16:7 For the mighty one did not fall by the young men, neither did the sons of the Titans smite him, nor high giants set upon him: but Judith the daughter of Merari weakened him with the beauty of her countenance.

Jdt 16:8 For she put off the garment of her widowhood for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and anointed her face with ointment, and bound her hair in a tire, and took a linen garment to deceive him.

Jdt 16:9 Her sandals ravished his eyes, her beauty took his mind prisoner, and the fauchion passed through his neck.

Jdt 16:10 The Persians quaked at her boldness, and the Medes were daunted at her hardiness.

Jdt 16:11 Then my afflicted shouted for joy, and my weak ones cried aloud; but they were astonished: these lifted up their voices, but they were overthrown.

Jdt 16:12 The sons of the damsels have pierced them through, and wounded them as fugatives' children: they perished by the battle of Yehowah.

Jdt 16:13 I will sing unto Yehowah a new song: O Yehowah, thou art great and glorious, wonderful in strength, and invincible.

Jdt 16:14 Let all creatures serve thee: for thou spakest, and they were made, thou didst send forth thy spirit, and it created them, and there is none that can resist thy voice.

Jdt 16:15 For the mountains shall be moved from their foundations with the waters, the rocks shall melt as wax at thy presence: yet thou art merciful to them that fear thee.

Jdt 16:16 For all sacrifice is too little for a sweet savor unto thee, and all the fat is not sufficient for thy burnt offering: but he that feareth Yehowah is great at all times.

Jdt 16:17 Woe to the nations that rise up against my kindred! Yehowah Almighty will take vengeance of them in the day of judgment, in putting fire and worms in their flesh; and they shall feel them, and weep forever.

Jdt 16:18 Now as soon as they entered into Jerusalem, they worshiped Yehowah; and as soon as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings, and their free offerings, and their gifts.

Jdt 16:19 Judith also dedicated all the stuff of Holofernes, which the people had given her, and gave the canopy, which she had taken out of his bedchamber, for a gift unto Yehowah.

Jdt 16:20 So the people continued feasting in Jerusalem before the sanctuary for the space of three months and Judith remained with them.

Jdt 16:21 After this time every one returned to his own inheritance, and Judith went to Bethulia, and remained in her own possession, and was in her time honorable in all the country.

Jdt 16:22 And many desired her, but none knew her all the days of her life, after that Manasses her husband was dead, and was gathered to his people.

Jdt 16:23 But she increased more and more in honor, and waxed old in her husband's house, being a hundred and five years old, and made her maid free; so she died in Bethulia: and they buried her in the cave of her husband Manasses.

Jdt 16:24 And the house of Israel lamented her seven days: and before she died, she did distribute her goods to all them that were nearest of kindred to Manasses her husband, and to them that were the nearest of her kindred.

Jdt 16:25 And there was none that made the children of Israel any more afraid in the days of Judith, nor a long time after her death.

Book of Esther

Est 1:1 Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Cush, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces:

Est 1:2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

Est 1:3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

Est 1:4 When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even a hundred and fourscore days.

Est 1:5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

Est 1:6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

Est 1:7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, the vessels being diverse one from another, and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

Est 1:8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

Est 1:9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

Est 1:10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha,

Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,

Est 1:11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

Est 1:12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

Est 1:13 Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

Est 1:14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;

Est 1:15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

Est 1:16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

Est 1:17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

Est 1:18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

Est 1:19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

Est 1:20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, for it is great, all the wives shall give to their husbands honor, both to great and small.

Est 1:21 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

Est 1:22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

Est 2:1 After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

Est 2:2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

Est 2:3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

Est 2:4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

Est 2:5 Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;

Est 2:6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jehoiachin king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

Est 2:7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

Est 2:8 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

Est 2:9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

Est 2:10 Esther had not showed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not show it.

Est 2:11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

Est 2:12 Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors, and with other things for the purifying of the women;

Est 2:13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

Est 2:14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

Est 2:15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

Est 2:16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

Est 2:17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

Est 2:18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

Est 2:19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

Est 2:20 Esther had not yet showed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

Est 2:21 In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on king Ahasuerus.

Est 2:22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

Est 2:23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

Est 3:1 After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

Est 3:2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

Est 3:3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

Est 3:4 Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

Est 3:5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

Est 3:6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had showed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

Est 3:7 In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

Est 3:8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

Est 3:9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

Est 3:10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

Est 3:11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

Est 3:12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

Est 3:13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a possession.

Est 3:14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

Est 3:15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

Est 4:1 When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

Est 4:2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

Est 4:3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Est 4:4 So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

Est 4:5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

Est 4:6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

Est 4:7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

Est 4:8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to show it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

Est 4:9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

Est 4:10 Again Esther spoke unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

Est 4:11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

Est 4:12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

Est 4:13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

Est 4:14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

Est 4:15 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

Est 4:16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

Est 4:17 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Est 5:1 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

Est 5:2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the scepter.

Est 5:3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

Est 5:4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

Est 5:5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Est 5:6 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

Est 5:7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is;

Est 5:8 If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king hath said.

Est 5:9 Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

Est 5:10 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

Est 5:11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

Est 5:12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

Est 5:13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

Est 5:14 Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

Est 6:1 On that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

Est 6:2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

Est 6:3 And the king said, What honor and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

Est 6:4 And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

Est 6:5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

Est 6:6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honor? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself?

Est 6:7 And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honor,

Est 6:8 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

Est 6:9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honor, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honor.

Est 6:10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

Est 6:11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honor.

Est 6:12 And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

Est 6:13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

Est 6:14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Est 7:1 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

Est 7:2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

Est 7:3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

Est 7:4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

Est 7:5 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?

Est 7:6 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

Est 7:7 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

Est 7:8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

Est 7:9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

Est 7:10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

Est 8:1 On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

Est 8:2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

Est 8:3 And Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

Est 8:4 Then the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

Est 8:5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

Est 8:6 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

Est 8:7 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

Est 8:8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

Est 8:9 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Cush, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

Est 8:10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

Est 8:11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a possession,

Est 8:12 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

Est 8:13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

Est 8:14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

Est 8:15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

Est 8:16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honor.

Est 8:17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Est 9:1 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;

Est 9:2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

Est 9:3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

Est 9:4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

Est 9:5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

Est 9:6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

Est 9:7 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

Est 9:8 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

Est 9:9 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

Est 9:10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

Est 9:11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

Est 9:12 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

Est 9:13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

Est 9:14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

Est 9:15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the spoil they laid not their hand.

Est 9:16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the spoil,

Est 9:17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

Est 9:19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

Est 9:20 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

Est 9:21 To establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

Est 9:22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

Est 9:23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

Est 9:24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

Est 9:25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Est 9:26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

Est 9:27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

Est 9:28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

Est 9:29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

Est 9:30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

Est 9:31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

Est 9:32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

Est 10:1 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

Est 10:2 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

Est 10:3 For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

Est 10:4 Then Mordecai said, Yehowah hath done these things.

Est 10:5 For I remember a dream which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof hath failed.

Est 10:6 A little fountain became a river, and there was light, and the sun, and much water: this river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen:

Est 10:7 And the two dragons are I and Haman.

Est 10:8 And the nations were those that were assembled to destroy the name of the Jews:

Est 10:9 And my nation is this Israel, which cried to Yehowah, and were saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, and the Lord hath delivered us from all those evils, and Yehowah hath wrought signs and great wonders, which have not been done among the Gentiles.

Est 10:10 Therefore hath he made two lots, one for the people of Yehowah, and another for all the Gentiles.

Est 10:11 And these two lots came at the hour, and time, and day of judgment, before Yehowah among all nations.

Est 10:12 So Yehowah remembered his people, and justified his inheritance.

Est 10:13 Therefore those days shall be unto them in the month Adar, the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the same month, with an assembly, and joy, and with gladness before Yehowah, according to the generations forever among his people.

Est 11:1 In the fourth year of the reign of Ptolemeus and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said he was a priest and Levite, and Ptolemeus his son, brought this epistle of Purim, which they said was the same, and that Lysimachus the son of Ptolemeus, that was in Jerusalem, had interpreted it.

Est 11:2 In the second year of the reign of Artexerxes the great, in the first day of the month Nisan, Mordecai the son of Jairus, the son of Semei, the son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, had a dream;

Est 11:3 Who was a Jew, and dwelt in the city of Susa, a great man, being a servitor in the king's court.

Est 11:4 He was also one of the captives, which Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon carried from Jerusalem with Jechonias king of Judea; and this was his dream:

Est 11:5 Behold a noise of a tumult, with thunder, and earthquakes, and uproar in the land:

Est 11:6 And, behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their cry was great.

Est 11:7 And at their cry all nations were prepared to battle, that they might fight against the righteous people.

Est 11:8 And lo a day of darkness and obscurity, tribulation and anguish, affliction and great uproar, upon earth.

Est 11:9 And the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing their own evils, and were ready to perish.

Est 11:10 Then they cried unto Yehowah, and upon their cry, as it were from a little fountain, was made a great flood, even much water.

Est 11:11 The light and the sun rose up, and the lowly were exalted, and devoured the glorious.

Est 11:12 Now when Mordecai, who had seen this dream, and what Yehowah had determined to do, was awake, he bare this dream in mind, and until night by all means was desirous to know it.

Est 12:1 And Mordecai took his rest in the court with Gabatha and Tharra, the two eunuchs of the king, and keepers of the palace.

Est 12:2 And he heard their devices, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands upon Artexerxes the king; and so he certified the king of them.

Est 12:3 Then the king examined the two eunuchs, and after that they had confessed it, they were strangled.

Est 12:4 And the king made a record of these things, and Mordecai also wrote thereof.

Est 12:5 So the king commanded, Mordecai to serve in the court, and for this he rewarded him.

Est 12:6 Howbeit Haman the son of Amadathus the Agagite, who was in great honor with the king, sought to molest Mordecai and his people because of the two eunuchs of the king.

Est 13:1 The copy of the letters was this: The great king Artexerxes writeth these things to the princes and governors that are under him from India unto Ethiopia in a hundred and seven and twenty provinces.

Est 13:2 After that I became lord over many nations and had dominion over the whole world, not lifted up with presumption of my authority, but carrying myself always with equity and mildness, I purposed to settle my subjects continually in a quiet life, and making my kingdom peaceable, and open for passage to the utmost coasts, to renew peace, which is desired of all men.

Est 13:3 Now when I asked my counselors how this might be brought to pass, Haman, that excelled in wisdom among us, and was approved for his constant good will and steadfast fidelity, and had the honor of the second place in the kingdom,

Est 13:4 Declared unto us, that in all nations throughout the world there was scattered a certain malicious people, that had laws contrary to ail nations, and continually despised the commandments of kings, so as the uniting of our kingdoms, honorably intended by us cannot go forward.

Est 13:5 Seeing then we understand that this people alone is continually in opposition unto all men, differing in the strange manner of their laws, and evil affected to our state, working all the mischief they can that our kingdom may not be firmly established:

Est 13:6 Therefore have we commanded, that all they that are signified in writing unto you by Haman, who is ordained over the affairs, and is next unto us, shall all, with their wives and children, be utterly destroyed by the sword of their enemies, without all mercy and pity, the fourteenth day of the twelfth month Adar of this present year:

Est 13:7 That they, who of old and now also are malicious, may in one day with violence go into the grave, and so ever hereafter cause our affairs to be well settled, and without trouble.

Est 13:8 Then Mordecai thought upon all the works of Yehowah, and made his prayer unto him,

Est 13:9 Saying, O Lord Yehowah, the King Almighty: for the whole world is in thy power, and if thou hast appointed to save Israel, there is no man that can gainsay thee:

Est 13:10 For thou hast made heaven and earth, and all the wondrous things under the heaven.

Est 13:11 Thou art Lord of all things, and and there is no man that can resist thee, which art Yehowah.

Est 13:12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest, Yehowah, that it was neither in contempt nor pride, nor for any desire of glory, that I did not bow down to proud Haman.

Est 13:13 For I could have been content with good will for the salvation of Israel to kiss the soles of his feet.

Est 13:14 But I did this, that I might not prefer the glory of man above the glory of Yehowah: neither will I worship any but thee, O Yehowah, neither will I do it in pride.

Est 13:15 And now, O Lord Yehowah and King, spare thy people: for their eyes are upon us to bring us to naught; yea, they desire to destroy the inheritance, that hath been thine from the beginning.

Est 13:16 Despise not the portion, which thou hast delivered out of Egypt for thine own self.

Est 13:17 Hear my prayer, and be merciful unto thine inheritance: turn our sorrow into joy, that we may live, O Yehowah, and praise thy name: and destroy not the mouths of them that praise thee, O Yehowah.

Est 13:18 All Israel in like manner cried most earnestly unto Yehowah, because their death was before their eyes.

Est 14:1 Queen Esther also, being in fear of death, resorted unto Yehowah:

Est 14:2 And laid away her glorious apparel, and put on the garments of anguish and mourning: and instead of precious ointments, she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she humbled her body greatly, and all the places of her joy she filled with her torn hair.

Est 14:3 And she prayed unto Lord Yehowah of Israel, saying, O my Divine One, thou only art our King: help me, desolate woman, which have no helper but thee:

Est 14:4 For my danger is in mine hand.

Est 14:5 From my youth up I have heard in the tribe of my family that thou, O Yehowah, tookest Israel from among all people, and our fathers from all their predecessors, for a perpetual inheritance, and thou hast performed whatsoever thou didst promise them.

Est 14:6 And now we have sinned before thee: therefore hast thou given us into the hands of our enemies,

Est 14:7 Because we worshiped their deities: O Yehowah, thou art righteous.

Est 14:8 Nevertheless it satisfieth them not, that we are in bitter captivity: but they have stricken hands with their idols,

Est 14:9 That they will abolish the thing that thou with thy mouth hast ordained, and destroy thine inheritance, and stop the mouth of them that praise thee, and quench the glory of thy house, and of thine altar,

Est 14:10 And open the mouths of the heathen to set forth the praises of the idols, and to magnify a fleshly king forever.

Est 14:11 O Yehowah, give not thy sceptre unto them that be nothing, and let them not laugh at our fall; but turn their device upon themselves, and make him an example, that hath begun this against us.

Est 14:12 Remember, O Yehowah, make thyself known in time of our affliction, and give me boldness, O King of the nations, and Lord of all power.

Est 14:13 Give me eloquent speech in my mouth before the lion: turn his heart to hate him that fighteth against us, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are like-minded to him:

Est 14:14 But deliver us with thine hand, and help me that am desolate, and which have no other help but thee.

Est 14:15 Thou knowest all things, O Yehowah; thou knowest that I hate the glory of the unrighteous, and abhor the bed of the uncircumcised, and of all the heathen.

Est 14:16 Thou knowest my necessity: for I abhor the sign of my high estate, which is upon mine head in the days wherein I shew myself, and that I abhor it as a menstruous rag, and that I wear it not when I am private by myself.

Est 14:17 And that thine handmaid hath not eaten at Haman's table, and that I have not greatly esteemed the king's feast, nor drunk the wine of the drink offerings.

Est 14:18 Neither had thine handmaid any joy since the day that I was brought hither to this present, but in thee, O Yehowah Mighty One of Abraham.

Est 14:19 O thou mighty Yehowah above all, hear the voice of the forlorn and deliver us out of the hands of the mischievous, and deliver me out of my fear.

Est 15:1 And upon the third day, when she had ended her prayers, she laid away her mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparel.

Est 15:2 And being gloriously adorned, after she had called upon Yehowah, who is the beholder and savior of all things, she took two maids with her:

Est 15:3 And upon the one she leaned, as carrying herself daintily;

Est 15:4 And the other followed, bearing up her train.

Est 15:5 And she was ruddy through the perfection of her beauty, and her countenance was cheerful and very amiable: but her heart was in anguish for fear.

Est 15:6 Then having passed through all the doors, she stood before the king, who sat upon his royal throne, and was clothed with all his robes of majesty, all glittering with gold and precious stones; and he was very dreadful.

Est 15:7 Then lifting up his countenance that shone with majesty, he looked very fiercely upon her: and the queen fell down, and was pale, and fainted, and bowed herself upon the head of the maid that went before her.

Est 15:8 Then Yehowah changed the spirit of the king into mildness, who in a fear leaped from his throne, and took her in his arms, till she came to herself again, and comforted her with loving words and said unto her,

Est 15:9 Esther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheer:

Est 15:10 Thou shalt not die, though our commandment be general: come near.

Est 15:11 And so be held up his golden sceptre, and laid it upon her neck,

Est 15:12 And embraced her, and said, Speak unto me.

Est 15:13 Then said she unto him, I saw thee, my lord, as an angel of Yehowah, and my heart was troubled for fear of thy majesty.

Est 15:14 For wonderful art thou, lord, and thy countenance is full of grace.

Est 15:15 And as she was speaking, she fell down for faintness.

Est 15:16 Then the king was troubled, and ail his servants comforted her.

Est 16:1 The great king Artexerxes unto the princes and governors of a hundred and seven and twenty provinces from India unto Ethiopia, and unto all our faithful subjects, greeting.

Est 16:2 Many, the more often they are honored with the great bounty of their gracious princes, the more proud they are waxen,

Est 16:3 And endeavor to hurt not our subjects only, but not being able to bear abundance, do take in hand to practice also against those that do them good:

Est 16:4 And take not only thankfulness away from among men, but also lifted up with the glorious words of lewd persons, that were never good, they think to escape the justice of Yehowah, that seeth all things and hateth evil.

Est 16:5 Oftentimes also fair speech of those, that are put in trust to manage their friends' affairs, hath caused many that are in authority to be partakers of innocent blood, and hath enwrapped them in remediless calamities:

Est 16:6 Beguiling with the falsehood and deceit of their lewd disposition the innocency and goodness of princes.

Est 16:7 Now ye may see this, as we have declared, not so much by ancient histories, as ye may, if ye search what hath been wickedly done of late through the pestilent behavior of them that are unworthily placed in authority.

Est 16:8 And we must take care for the time to come, that our kingdom may be quiet and peaceable for all men,

Est 16:9 Both by changing our purposes, and always judging things that are evident with more equal proceeding.

Est 16:10 For Haman, a Macedonian, the son of Amadatha, being indeed a stranger from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodness, and as a stranger received of us,

Est 16:11 Had so far forth obtained the favor that we shew toward every nation, as that he was called our father, and was continually honored of all the next person unto the king.

Est 16:12 But he, not bearing his great dignity, went about to deprive us of our kingdom and life:

Est 16:13 Having by manifold and cunning deceits sought of us the destruction, as well of Mordecai, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of blameless Esther, partaker of our kingdom, with their whole nation.

Est 16:14 For by these means he thought, finding us destitute of friends to have translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians.

Est 16:15 But we find that the Jews, whom this wicked wretch hath delivered to utter destruction, are no evildoers, but live by most just laws:

Est 16:16 And that they be children of the most high and most mighty, living Yehowah, who hath ordered the kingdom both unto us and to our progenitors in the most excellent manner.

Est 16:17 Wherefore ye shall do well not to put in execution the letters sent unto you by Haman the son of Amadatha.

Est 16:18 For he that was the worker of these things, is hanged at the gates of Susa with all his family: Yehowah, who ruleth all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to his desserts.

Est 16:19 Therefore ye shall publish the copy of this letter in all places, that the Jews may freely live after their own laws.

Est 16:20 And ye shall aid them, that even the same day, being the thirteenth day of the twelfth month Adar, they may be avenged on them, who in the time of their affliction shall set upon them.

Est 16:21 For Almighty Yehowah hath turned to joy unto them the day, wherein the chosen people should have perished.

Est 16:22 Ye shall therefore among your solemn feasts keep it an high day with all feasting:

Est 16:23 That both now and hereafter there may be safety to us and the well affected Persians; but to those which do conspire against us a memorial of destruction.

Est 16:24 Therefore every city and country whatsoever, which shall not do according to these things, shall be destroyed without mercy with fire and sword, and shall be made not only unpassable for men, but also most hateful to wild beasts and fowls forever.

Book of 1st Maccabees

1Ma 1:1 And it happened, after that Alexander son of Philip, the Macedonian, who came out of the land of Chettiim, had smitten Darius king of the Persians and Medes, that he reigned in his stead, the first over Greece,

1Ma 1:2 And made many wars, and won many strongholds, and slew the kings of the earth,

1Ma 1:3 And went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of many nations, insomuch that the earth was quiet before him; whereupon he was exalted and his heart was lifted up.

1Ma 1:4 And he gathered a mighty strong host and ruled over countries, and nations, and kings, who became tributaries unto him.

1Ma 1:5 And after these things he fell sick, and perceived that he should die.

1Ma 1:6 Wherefore he called his servants, such as were honorable, and had been brought up with him from his youth, and parted his kingdom among them, while he was yet alive.

1Ma 1:7 So Alexander reigned twelves years, and then died (c. 323 BC).

1Ma 1:8 And his servants bare rule every one in his place.

1Ma 1:9 And after his death they all put crowns upon themselves; so did their sons after them many years: and evils were multiplied in the earth.

1Ma 1:10 And there came out of them a wicked root Antiochus IV surnamed Epiphanes, son of Antiochus the king, who had been a hostage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundred and thirty and seventh year (175 BC) of the kingdom of the Greeks.

1Ma 1:11 In those days went there out of Israel wicked men, who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen that are round about us: for since we departed from them we have had much sorrow.

1Ma 1:12 So this device pleased them well.

1Ma 1:13 Then certain of the people were so forward herein, that they went to the king, who gave them license to do after the ordinances of the heathen:

1Ma 1:14 Whereupon they built a place of exercise at Jerusalem according to the customs of the heathen:

1Ma 1:15 And made themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the heathen, and were sold to do mischief.

1Ma 1:16 Now when the kingdom was established before Antiochus IV, he thought to reign over Egypt that he might have the dominion of two realms.

1Ma 1:17 Wherefore he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great navy, 1Ma 1:18 And made war against Ptolemy king of Egypt: but Ptolemy was afraid of him, and fled; and many were wounded to death.

1Ma 1:19 Thus they got the strong cities in the land of Egypt and he took the spoils thereof.

1Ma 1:20 And after that Antiochus IV had smitten Egypt, he returned again in the hundred forty and third year (c. 169 BC), and went up against Israel and Jerusalem with a great multitude,

1Ma 1:21 And entered proudly into the sanctuary, and took away the golden altar, and the candlestick of light, and all the vessels thereof,

1Ma 1:22 And the table of the shewbread, and the pouring vessels, and the vials. and the censers of gold, and the veil, and the crown, and the golden ornaments that were before the temple, all which he pulled off.

1Ma 1:23 He took also the silver and the gold, and the precious vessels: also he took the hidden treasures which he found.

1Ma 1:24 And when he had taken all away, he went into his own land, having made a great massacre, and spoken very proudly.

1Ma 1:25 Therefore there was a great mourning in Israel, in every place where they were;

1Ma 1:26 So that the princes and elders mourned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of women was changed.

1Ma 1:27 Every bridegroom took up lamentation, and she that sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness, 1Ma 1:28 The land also was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

1Ma 1:29 And after two years (c. 167 BC) fully expired the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Judah, who came unto Jerusalem with a great multitude, 1Ma 1:30 And spake peaceable words unto them, but all was deceit: for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel.

1Ma 1:31 And when he had taken the spoils of the city, he set it on fire, and pulled down the houses and walls thereof on every side.

1Ma 1:32 But the women and children took they captive, and possessed the cattle.

1Ma 1:33 Then builded they the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with mighty towers, and made it a stronghold for them.

1Ma 1:34 And they put therein a sinful nation, wicked men, and fortified themselves therein.

1Ma 1:35 They stored it also with armor and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and so they became a sore snare:

1Ma 1:36 For it was a place to lie in wait against the sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel.

1Ma 1:37 Thus they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled it:

1Ma 1:38 Insomuch that the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them: whereupon the city was made a habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her; and her own children left her.

1Ma 1:39 Her sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, her feasts were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproach, and her honor into contempt.

1Ma 1:40 As had been her glory, so was her dishonor increased, and her excellency was turned into mourning.

1Ma 1:41 Moreover king Antiochus IV wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, 1Ma 1:42 And everyone should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king.

1Ma 1:43 Yea, many also of the Israelis consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath.

1Ma 1:44 For the king had sent letters by messengers unto Jerusalem and the cities of Judah that they should follow the strange laws of the land,

1Ma 1:45 And forbid burnt offerings, and sacrifice, and drink offerings, in the temple; and that they should profane the sabbaths and festival days:

1Ma 1:46 And pollute the sanctuary and holy people:

1Ma 1:47 Set up altars, and groves, and chapels of idols, and sacrifice swine's flesh, and unclean beasts:

1Ma 1:48 That they should also leave their children uncircumcised, and make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation:

1Ma 1:49 To the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances.

1Ma 1:50 And whosoever would not do according to the commandment of the king, he said, he should die.

1Ma 1:51 In the selfsame manner wrote he to his whole kingdom, and appointed overseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Judah to sacrifice, city by city.

1Ma 1:52 Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit every one that forsook the law; and so they committed evils in the land;

1Ma 1:53 And drove the Israelis into secret places, even wheresoever they could flee for succor.

1Ma 1:54 Now the fifteenth day of the month Kislev, in the hundred forty and fifth year (c. 167 BC), they set up the abomination of desolation upon the altar, and builded idol altars throughout the cities of Judah on every side;

1Ma 1:55 And burnt incense at the doors of their houses, and in the streets.

1Ma 1:56 And when they had rent in pieces the Books of the law which they found, they burnt them with fire.

1Ma 1:57 And whosoever was found with any Book of the Testament, or if any committed to the law, the king's commandment was, that they should put him to death.

1Ma 1:58 Thus did they by their authority unto the Israelis every month, to as many as were found in the cities.

1Ma 1:59 Now the five and twentieth day of the month they did sacrifice upon the idol altar, which was upon the altar of Yehowah.

1Ma 1:60 At which time according to the commandment they put to death certain women, that had caused their children to be circumcised.

1Ma 1:61 And they hanged the infants about their necks, and rifled their houses, and slew them that had circumcised them.

1Ma 1:62 Howbeit many in Israel were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves not to eat any unclean thing.

1Ma 1:63 Wherefore the rather to die, that they might not be defiled with meats, and that they might not profane the holy covenant: so then they died.

1Ma 1:64 And there was very great wrath upon Israel.

1Ma 2:1 In those days arose Mattathias the son of John, the son of Simeon, a priest of the sons of Joarib, from Jerusalem, and dwelt in Modin.

1Ma 2:2 And he had five sons, Joannan, called Caddis:

1Ma 2:3 Simon; called Thassi:

1Ma 2:4 Judas, who was called Maccabeus:

1Ma 2:5 Eleazar, called Avaran: and Jonathan, whose surname was Apphus.

1Ma 2:6 And when he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Judah and Jerusalem, 1Ma 2:7 He said, Woe is me! Wherefore was I born to see this misery of my people, and of the holy city, and to dwell there, when it was delivered into the hand of the enemy, and the sanctuary into the hand of strangers?

1Ma 2:8 Her temple is become as a man without glory.

1Ma 2:9 Her glorious vessels are carried away into captivity, her infants are slain in the streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy.

1Ma 2:10 What nation hath not had a part in her kingdom and gotten of her spoils?

1Ma 2:11 All her ornaments are taken away; of a free woman she is become a bondslave.

1Ma 2:12 And, behold, our sanctuary, even our beauty and our glory, is laid waste, and the nations have profaned it.

1Ma 2:13 To what end therefore shall we live any longer?

1Ma 2:14 Then Mattathias and his sons rent their clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourned very sore.

1Ma 2:15 In the mean while the king's officers, such as compelled the people to revolt, came into the city Modin, to make them sacrifice.

1Ma 2:16 And when many of Israel came unto them, Mattathias also and his sons came together.

1Ma 2:17 Then answered the king's officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou art a ruler, and an honorable and great man in this city, and strengthened with sons and brethren:

1Ma 2:18 Now therefore come thou first, and fulfill the king's commandment, like as all the heathen have done, yea, and the men of Judah also, and such as remain at Jerusalem: so shalt thou and thy house be in the number of the king's friends, and thou and thy children shall be honored with silver and gold, and many rewards.

1Ma 2:19 Then Mattathias answered and spake with a loud voice, Though all the nations that are under the king's dominion obey him, and fall away every one from the religion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments:

1Ma 2:20 Yet will I and my sons and my brethren walk in the covenant of our fathers!

1Ma 2:21 Yehowah forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances!

1Ma 2:22 We will not hearken to the king's words, to go from our religion, either on the right hand, or the left!

1Ma 2:23 Now when he had left speaking these words, there came one of the Jews in the sight of all to sacrifice on the altar which was at Modin, according to the king's commandment.

1Ma 2:24 Which thing when Mattathias saw, he was inflamed with zeal, and his reins trembled, neither could he forbear to shew his anger according to judgment: wherefore he ran, and slew him upon the altar.

1Ma 2:25 Also the king's commissioner, who compelled men to sacrifice, he killed at that time, and the altar he pulled down.

1Ma 2:26 Thus dealt he zealously for the law of Yehowah like as Phinehas did unto Zambri the son of Salom.

1Ma 2:27 And Mattathias cried throughout the city with a loud voice, saying, Whosoever is zealous of the law, and maintaineth the covenant, let him follow me.

1Ma 2:28 So he and his sons fled into the mountains, and left all that ever they had in the city.

1Ma 2:29 Then many that sought after justice and judgment went down into the wilderness, to dwell there:

1Ma 2:30 Both they, and their children, and their wives; and their cattle; because afflictions increased sore upon them.

1Ma 2:31 Now when it was told the king's servants, and the host that was at Jerusalem, in the city of David, that certain men, who had broken the king's commandment, were gone down into the secret places in the wilderness, 1Ma 2:32 They pursued after them a great number, and having overtaken them, they camped against them, and made war against them on the sabbath day.

1Ma 2:33 And they said unto them, Let that which ye have done hitherto suffice; come forth, and do according to the commandment of the king, and ye shall live.

1Ma 2:34 But they said, We will not come forth, neither will we do the king's commandment, to profane the sabbath day.

1Ma 2:35 So then they gave them the battle with all speed.

1Ma 2:36 Howbeit they answered them not, neither cast they a stone at them, nor stopped the places where they lay hid;

1Ma 2:37 But said, Let us die all in our innocency: heaven and earth will testify for us, that ye put us to death wrongfully.

1Ma 2:38 So they rose up against them in battle on the sabbath, and they slew them, with their wives and children and their cattle, to the number of a thousand people.

1Ma 2:39 Now when Mattathias and his friends understood hereof, they mourned for them right sore.

1Ma 2:40 And one of them said to another, If we all do as our brethren have done, and fight not for our lives and laws against the heathen, they will now quickly root us out of the earth.

1Ma 2:41 At that time therefore they decreed, saying, Whosoever shall come to make battle with us on the sabbath day, we will fight against him; neither will we die all, as our brethren that were murdered in the secret places.

1Ma 2:42 Then came there unto him a company of Assideans (Hasidim) who were mighty men of Israel, even all such as were voluntarily devoted unto the law.

1Ma 2:43 Also all they that fled for persecution joined themselves unto them, and were a stay unto them.

1Ma 2:44 So they joined their forces, and smote sinful men in their anger, and wicked men in their wrath: but the rest fled to the heathen for succor.

1Ma 2:45 Then Mattathias and his friends went round about, and pulled down the altars:

1Ma 2:46 And what children soever they found within the coast of Israel uncircumcised, those they circumcised valiantly.

1Ma 2:47 They pursued also after the proud men, and the work prospered in their hand.

1Ma 2:48 So they recovered the law out of the hand of the nations, and out of the hand of kings, neither suffered they the sinner to triumph.

1Ma 2:49 Now when the time drew near that Mattathias should die, he said unto his sons, Now hath pride and rebuke gotten strength, and the time of destruction, and the wrath of indignation:

1Ma 2:50 Now therefore, my sons, be ye zealous for the law, and give your lives for the covenant of your fathers.

1Ma 2:51 Call to remembrance what acts our fathers did in their time; so shall ye receive great honor and an everlasting name.

1Ma 2:52 Was not Abraham found faithful in temptation, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness?

1Ma 2:53 Joseph in the time of his distress kept the commandment and was made lord of Egypt.

1Ma 2:54 Phinehas our father in being zealous and fervent obtained the covenant of an everlasting priesthood.

1Ma 2:55 Joshua for fulfilling the word was made a judge in Israel.

1Ma 2:56 Caleb for bearing witness before the congregation received the heritage of the land.

1Ma 2:57 David for being merciful possessed the throne of an everlasting kingdom.

1Ma 2:58 Elijah for being zealous and fervent for the law was taken up into heaven.

1Ma 2:59 Hananiah, Azariah, and Mishael, by believing were saved out of the flame.

1Ma 2:60 Daniel for his innocency was delivered from the mouth of lions.

1Ma 2:61 And thus consider ye throughout all ages, that none that put their trust in him shall be overcome.

1Ma 2:62 Fear not then the words of a sinful man: for his glory shall be dung and worms.

1Ma 2:63 Today he shall be lifted up and tomorrow he shall not be found, because he is returned into his dust, and his thought is come to nothing.

1Ma 2:64 Wherefore, ye my sons, be valiant and shew yourselves men in the behalf of the law; for by it shall ye obtain glory.

1Ma 2:65 And behold, I know that your brother Simon is a man of counsel, give ear unto him always: he shall be a father unto you.

1Ma 2:66 As for Judas Maccabeus, he hath been mighty and strong, even from his youth up: let him be your captain, and fight the battle of the people.

1Ma 2:67 Take also unto you all those that observe the law, and avenge ye the wrong of your people.

1Ma 2:68 Recompense fully the heathen, and take heed to the commandments of the law.

1Ma 2:69 So he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers.

1Ma 2:70 And he died in the hundred forty and sixth year (c. 166 BC), and his sons buried him in the sepulchres of his fathers at Modin, and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

1Ma 3:1 Then his son Judas, called Maccabeus, rose up in his stead.

1Ma 3:2 And all his brethren helped him, and so did all they that held with his father, and they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel.

1Ma 3:3 So he got his people great honor, and put on a breastplate as a giant, and girt his warlike harness about him, and he made battles, protecting the host with his sword.

1Ma 3:4 In his acts he was like a lion, and like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey.

1Ma 3:5 For He pursued the wicked, and sought them out, and burnt up those that vexed his people.

1Ma 3:6 Wherefore the wicked shrunk for fear of him, and all the workers of iniquity were troubled, because salvation prospered in his hand.

1Ma 3:7 He grieved also many kings, and made Jacob glad with his acts, and his memorial is blessed forever.

1Ma 3:8 Moreover he went through the cities of Judah, destroying the irreverent out of them, and turning away wrath from Israel:

1Ma 3:9 So that he was renowned unto the utmost part of the earth, and he received unto him such as were ready to perish.

1Ma 3:10 Then Apollonius gathered the nations together, and a great host out of Samaria, to fight against Israel.

1Ma 3:11 Which thing when Judas perceived, he went forth to meet him, and so he smote him, and slew him: many also fell down slain, but the rest fled.

1Ma 3:12 Wherefore Judas took their spoils, and Apollonius' sword also, and therewith he fought all his life long.

1Ma 3:13 Now when Seron, a prince of the army of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered unto him a multitude and company of the faithful to go out with him to war;

1Ma 3:14 He said, I will get me a name and honor in the kingdom; for I will go fight with Judas and them that are with him, who despise the king's commandment.

1Ma 3:15 So he made him ready to go up, and there went with him a mighty host of the irreverent to help him, and to be avenged of the children of Israel.

1Ma 3:16 And when he came near to the going up of Bethhoron, Judas went forth to meet him with a small company:

1Ma 3:17 Who, when they saw the host coming to meet them, said unto Judas, How shall we be able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, seeing we are ready to faint with fasting all this day?

1Ma 3:18 Unto whom Judas answered, It is no hard matter for many to be shut up in the hands of a few; and with the Mighty One of heaven it is all one, to deliver with a great multitude, or a small company:

1Ma 3:19 For the victory of battle standeth not in the multitude of a host; but strength cometh from heaven.

1Ma 3:20 They come against us in much pride and iniquity to destroy us, and our wives and children, and to spoil us:

1Ma 3:21 But we fight for our lives and our laws.

1Ma 3:22 Wherefore Yehowah himself will overthrow them before our face: and as for you, be ye not afraid of them.

1Ma 3:23 Now as soon as he had left off speaking, he leapt suddenly upon them, and so Seron and his host was overthrown before him.

1Ma 3:24 And they pursued them from the going down of Bethhoron unto the plain, where were slain about eight hundred men of them; and the residue fled into the land of the Philistines.

1Ma 3:25 Then began the fear of Judas and his brethren, and an exceeding great dread, to fall upon the nations round about them:

1Ma 3:26 Insomuch as his fame came unto the king, and all nations talked of the battles of Judas.

1Ma 3:27 Now when king Antiochus IV heard these things, he was full of indignation: wherefore he sent and gathered together all the forces of his realm, even a very strong army.

1Ma 3:28 He opened also his treasure, and gave his soldiers pay for a year, commanding them to be ready whensoever he should need them.

1Ma 3:29 Nevertheless, when he saw that the money of his treasures failed and that the tributes in the country were small, because of the dissension and plague, which he had brought upon the land in taking away the laws which had been of old time;

1Ma 3:30 He feared that he should not be able to bear the charges any longer, nor to have such gifts to give so liberally as he did before: for he had abounded above the kings that were before him.

1Ma 3:31 Wherefore, being greatly perplexed in his mind, he determined to go into Persia, there to take the tributes of the countries, and to gather much money.

1Ma 3:32 So he left Lysias, a nobleman, and one of the blood royal, to oversee the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates unto the borders of Egypt:

1Ma 3:33 And to bring up his son Antiochus V, until he came again.

1Ma 3:34 Moreover he delivered unto him the half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Judah and Jerusalem:

1Ma 3:35 To wit, that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away their memorial from that place;

1Ma 3:36 And that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot.

1Ma 3:37 So the king took the half of the forces that remained, and departed from Antioch, his royal city, the hundred forty and seventh year (c. 165 BC); and having passed the river Euphrates, he went through the high countries.

1Ma 3:38 Then Lysias chose Ptolemy the son of Dorymenes, Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men of the king's friends:

1Ma 3:39 And with them he sent forty thousand footmen, and seven thousand horsemen, to go into the land of Judah, and to destroy it, as the king commanded.

1Ma 3:40 So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by Emmaus in the plain country.

1Ma 3:41 And the merchants of the country, hearing the fame of them, took silver and gold very much, with servants, and came into the camp to buy the children of Israel for slaves: a power also of Syria and of the land of the Philistines joined themselves unto them.

1Ma 3:42 Now when Judas and his brethren saw that miseries were multiplied, and that the forces did encamp themselves in their borders: for they knew how the king had given commandment to destroy the people, and utterly abolish them;

1Ma 3:43 They said one to another, Let us restore the decayed fortune of our people, and let us fight for our people and the sanctuary.

1Ma 3:44 Then was the congregation gathered together, that they might be ready for battle, and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion.

1Ma 3:45 Now Jerusalem lay void as a wilderness, there was none of her children that went in or out: the sanctuary also was trodden down, and aliens kept the stronghold; the heathen had their habitation in that place; and joy was taken from Jacob, and the pipe with the harp ceased.

1Ma 3:46 Wherefore the Israelis assembled themselves together, and came to Maspha, over against Jerusalem; for in Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Israel.

1Ma 3:47 Then they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and cast ashes upon their heads, and rent their clothes,

1Ma 3:48 And laid open the book of the law, wherein the heathen had sought to paint the likeness of their images.

1Ma 3:49 They brought also the priests' garments, and the firstfruits, and the tithes: and the Nazarites they stirred up, who had accomplished their days.

1Ma 3:50 Then cried they with a loud voice toward heaven, saying, What shall we do with these, and whither shall we carry them away?

1Ma 3:51 For thy sanctuary is trodden down and profaned, and thy priests are in heaviness, and brought low.

1Ma 3:52 And lo, the heathen are assembled together against us to destroy us: what things they imagine against us, thou knowest.

1Ma 3:53 How shall we be able to stand against them, except thou, O Yehowah, be our help?

1Ma 3:54 Then sounded they with trumpets, and cried with a loud voice.

1Ma 3:55 And after this Judas ordained captains over the people, even captains over thousands, and over hundreds, and over fifties, and over tens.

1Ma 3:56 But as for such as were building houses, or had betrothed wives, or were planting vineyards, or were fearful, those he commanded that they should return, every man to his own house, according to the law.

1Ma 3:57 So the camp removed, and pitched upon the south side of Emmaus.

1Ma 3:58 And Judas said, arm yourselves, and be valiant men, and see that ye be in readiness against the morning, that ye may fight with these nations, that are assembled together against us to destroy us and our sanctuary:

1Ma 3:59 For it is better for us to die in battle, than to behold the calamities of our people and our sanctuary.

1Ma 3:60 Nevertheless, as the will of Yehowah is in heaven, so let him do.

1Ma 4:1 Then took Gorgias five thousand footmen, and a thousand of the best horsemen, and removed out of the camp by night;

1Ma 4:2 To the end he might rush in upon the camp of the Jews, and smite them suddenly. And the men of the fortress were his guides.

1Ma 4:3 Now when Judas heard thereof he himself removed, and the valiant men with him, that he might smite the king's army which was at Emmaus, 1Ma 4:4 While as yet the forces were dispersed from the camp.

1Ma 4:5 In the mean season came Gorgias by night into the camp of Judas:

and when he found no man there, he sought them in the mountains: for said he, These fellows flee from us

1Ma 4:6 But as soon as it was day, Judas shewed himself in the plain with three thousand men, who nevertheless had neither armor nor swords to their minds.

1Ma 4:7 And they saw the camp of the heathen, that it was strong and well harnessed, and compassed round about with horsemen; and these were expert of war.

1Ma 4:8 Then said Judas to the men that were with him, Fear ye not their multitude, neither be ye afraid of their assault.

1Ma 4:9 Remember how our fathers were delivered in the Red Sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with an army.

1Ma 4:10 Now therefore let us cry unto heaven, if peradventure Yehowah will have mercy upon us, and remember the covenant of our fathers, and destroy this host before our face this day:

1Ma 4:11 That so all the heathen may know that there is one who delivereth and saveth Israel.

1Ma 4:12 Then the strangers lifted up their eyes, and saw them coming over against them.

1Ma 4:13 Wherefore they went out of the camp to battle; but they that were with Judas sounded their trumpets.

1Ma 4:14 So they joined battle, and the heathen being discomfited fled into the plain.

1Ma 4:15 Howbeit all the hindmost of them were slain with the sword: for they pursued them unto Gazera, and unto the plains of Idumea, and Azotus (Ashdod), and Jamnia, so that there were slain of them upon a three thousand men.

1Ma 4:16 This done, Judas returned again with his host from pursuing them,

1Ma 4:17 And said to the people, Be not greedy of the spoil inasmuch as there is a battle before us, 1Ma 4:18 And Gorgias and his host are here by us in the mountain: but stand ye now against our enemies, and overcome them, and after this ye may boldly take the spoils.

1Ma 4:19 As Judas was yet speaking these words, there appeared a part of them looking out of the mountain:

1Ma 4:20 Who when they perceived that the Jews had put their host to flight and were burning the tents; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done:

1Ma 4:21 When therefore they perceived these things, they were sore afraid, and seeing also the host of Judas in the plain ready to fight, 1Ma 4:22 They fled every one into the land of strangers.

1Ma 4:23 Then Judas returned to spoil the tents, where they got much gold, and silver, and blue silk, and purple of the sea, and great riches.

1Ma 4:24 After this they went home, and sung a song of thanksgiving, and praised Yehowah in heaven: because it is good, because his mercy endureth forever.

1Ma 4:25 Thus Israel had a great deliverance that day.

1Ma 4:26 Now all the strangers that had escaped came and told Lysias what had happened:

1Ma 4:27 Who, when he heard thereof, was confounded and discouraged, because neither such things as he would were done unto Israel, nor such things as the king commanded him were come to pass.

1Ma 4:28 The next year (c. 164 BC) therefore following Lysias gathered together threescore thousand choice men of foot, and five thousand horsemen, that he might subdue them.

1Ma 4:29 So they came into Idumea, and pitched their tents at Bethzur, and Judas met them with ten thousand men.

1Ma 4:30 And when he saw that mighty army, he prayed and said, Blessed art thou, O Savior of Israel, who didst quell the violence of the mighty man by the hand of thy servant David, and gavest the host of strangers into the hands of Jonathan the son of Saul, and his armor bearer;

1Ma 4:31 Shut up this army in the hand of thy people Israel, and let them be confounded in their power and horsemen:

1Ma 4:32 Make them to be of no courage, and cause the boldness of their strength to fall away, and let them quake at their destruction:

1Ma 4:33 Cast them down with the sword of them that love thee, and let all those that know thy name praise thee with thanksgiving.

1Ma 4:34 So they joined battle; and there were slain of the host of Lysias about five thousand men, even before them were they slain.

1Ma 4:35 Now when Lysias saw his army put to flight, and the manliness of Judas' soldiers, and how they were ready either to live or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia, and gathered together a company of strangers, and having made his army greater than it was, he purposed to come again into Judea.

1Ma 4:36 Then said Judas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: let us go up to cleanse and dedicate the sanctuary.

1Ma 4:37 Upon this all the host assembled themselves together, and went up into mount Zion.

1Ma 4:38 And when they saw the sanctuary desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned up, and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest, or in one of the mountains, yea, and the priests' chambers pulled down;

1Ma 4:39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and cast ashes upon their heads, 1Ma 4:40 And fell down flat to the ground upon their faces, and blew an alarm with the trumpets, and cried toward heaven.

1Ma 4:41 Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against those that were in the fortress, until he had cleansed the sanctuary.

1Ma 4:42 So he chose priests of blameless conversation, such as had pleasure in the law:

1Ma 4:43 Who cleansed the sanctuary, and bare out the defiled stones into an unclean place.

1Ma 4:44 And when as they consulted what to do with the altar of burnt offerings, which was profaned;

1Ma 4:45 They thought it best to pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because the heathen had defiled it: wherefore they pulled it down, 1Ma 4:46 And laid up the stones in the mountain of the temple in a convenient place, until there should come a prophet to shew what should be done with them.

1Ma 4:47 Then they took whole stones according to the law, and built a new altar according to the former;

1Ma 4:48 And made up the sanctuary, and the things that were within the temple, and hallowed the courts.

1Ma 4:49 They made also new holy vessels, and into the temple they brought the candlestick, and the altar of burnt offerings, and of incense, and the table.

1Ma 4:50 And upon the altar they burned incense, and the lamps that were upon the candlestick they lighted, that they might give light in the temple.

1Ma 4:51 Furthermore they set the loaves upon the table, and spread out the veils, and finished all the works which they had begun to make.

1Ma 4:52 Now on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month, which is called the month Kislev, in the hundred forty and eighth year (c. 164 BC), they rose up betimes in the morning,

1Ma 4:53 And offered sacrifice according to the law upon the new altar of burnt offerings, which they had made.

1Ma 4:54 Look, at what time and what day the heathen had profaned it, even in that was it dedicated with songs, and citherns, and harps, and cymbals.

1Ma 4:55 Then all the people fell upon their faces, worshiping and praising the Mighty One of heaven, who had given them good success.

1Ma 4:56 And so they kept the dedication of the altar eight days and offered burnt offerings with gladness, and sacrificed the sacrifice of deliverance and praise.

1Ma 4:57 They decked also the forefront of the temple with crowns of gold, and with shields; and the gates and the chambers they renewed, and hanged doors upon them.

1Ma 4:58 Thus was there very great gladness among the people, for that the reproach of the heathen was put away.

1Ma 4:59 Moreover Judas and his brethren with the whole congregation of Israel ordained, that the days of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from year to year by the space of eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month Kislev, with mirth and gladness.

1Ma 4:60 At that time also they builded up the mount Zion with high walls and strong towers round about, lest the nations should come and tread it down as they had done before.

1Ma 4:61 And they set there a garrison to keep it, and fortified Bethzur to preserve it; that the people might have a defense against Idumea.

1Ma 5:1 Now when the nations round about heard that the altar was built and the sanctuary renewed as before, it displeased them very much.

1Ma 5:2 Wherefore they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that was among them, and thereupon they began to slay and destroy the people.

1Ma 5:3 Then Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumea at Arabattine, because they besieged Gael: and he gave them a great overthrow, and abated their courage, and took their spoils.

1Ma 5:4 Also he remembered the injury of the children of Bean, who had been a snare and an offense unto the people, in that they lay in wait for them in the ways.

1Ma 5:5 He shut them up therefore in the towers, and encamped against them, and destroyed them utterly, and burned the towers of that place with fire, and all that were therein.

1Ma 5:6 Afterward he passed over to the children of Ammon, where he found a mighty power, and much people, with Timotheus their captain.

1Ma 5:7 So he fought many battles with them, till at length they were discomfited before him; and he smote them.

1Ma 5:8 And when he had taken Jazar, with the towns belonging thereto, he returned into Judea.

1Ma 5:9 Then the heathen that were at Galaad assembled themselves together against the Israelis that were in their quarters, to destroy them; but they fled to the fortress of Dathema.

1Ma 5:10 And sent letters unto Judas and his brethren, The heathen that are round about us are assembled together against us to destroy us:

1Ma 5:11 And they are preparing to come and take the fortress whereunto we are fled, Timotheus being captain of their host.

1Ma 5:12 Come now therefore, and deliver us from their hands, for many of us are slain:

1Ma 5:13 Yea, all our brethren that were in the places of Tobie are put to death: their wives and their children also they have carried away captives, and borne away their stuff; and they have destroyed there about a thousand men.

1Ma 5:14 While these letters were yet reading, behold, there came other messengers from Galilee with their clothes rent, who reported on this wise, 1Ma 5:15 And said, They of Ptolemais, and of Tyrus, and Sidon, and all Galilee of the nations, are assembled together against us to consume us.

1Ma 5:16 Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled a great congregation together, to consult what they should do for their brethren, that were in trouble, and assaulted of them.

1Ma 5:17 Then said Judas unto Simon his brother, Choose thee out men, and go and deliver thy brethren that are in Galilee, for I and Jonathan my brother will go into the country of Galaad.

1Ma 5:18 So he left Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azariah, captains of the people, with the remnant of the host in Judea to keep it.

1Ma 5:19 Unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Take ye the charge of this people, and see that ye make not war against the heathen until the time that we come again.

1Ma 5:20 Now unto Simon were given three thousand men to go into Galilee, and unto Judas eight thousand men for the country of Galaad.

1Ma 5:21 Then went Simon into Galilee, where he fought many battles with the heathen, so that the heathen were discomfited by him.

1Ma 5:22 And he pursued them unto the gate of Ptolemais; and there were slain of the heathen about three thousand men, whose spoils he took.

1Ma 5:23 And those that were in Galilee, and in Arbattis, with their wives and their children, and all that they had, took he away with him, and brought them into Judea with great joy.

1Ma 5:24 Judas Maccabeus also and his brother Jonathan went over Jordan, and traveled three days' journey in the wilderness,

1Ma 5:25 Where they met with the Nabathites, who came unto them in a peaceable manner, and told them every thing that had happened to their brethren in the land of Galaad:

1Ma 5:26 And how that many of them were shut up in Bosora, and Bosor, and Alema, Casphor, Maked, and Carnaim; all these cities are strong and great:

1Ma 5:27 And that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the country of Galaad, and that against tomorrow they had appointed to bring their host against the forts, and to take them, and to destroy them all in one day.

1Ma 5:28 Hereupon Judas and his host turned suddenly by the way of the wilderness unto Bosora; and when he had won the city, he slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burned the city with fire, 1Ma 5:29 From whence he removed by night, and went till he came to the fortress.

1Ma 5:30 And betimes in the morning they looked up, and, behold, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders and other engines of war, to take the fortress: for they assaulted them.

1Ma 5:31 When Judas therefore saw that the battle was begun, and that the cry of the city went up to heaven, with trumpets, and a great sound, 1Ma 5:32 He said unto his host, Fight this day for your brethren.

1Ma 5:33 So he went forth behind them in three companies, who sounded their trumpets, and cried with prayer.

1Ma 5:34 Then the host of Timotheus, knowing that it was Maccabeus, fled from him: wherefore he smote them with a great slaughter; so that there were killed of them that day about eight thousand men.

1Ma 5:35 This done, Judas turned aside to Maspha; and after he had assaulted it he took and slew all the males therein, and received the spoils thereof and burnt it with fire.

1Ma 5:36 From thence went he, and took Casphon, Maged, Bosor, and the other cities of the country of Galaad.

1Ma 5:37 After these things gathered Timotheus another host and encamped against Raphon beyond the brook.

1Ma 5:38 So Judas sent men to espy the host, who brought him word, saying, All the heathen that be round about us are assembled unto them, even a very great host.

1Ma 5:39 He hath also hired the Arabians to help them and they have pitched their tents beyond the brook, ready to come and fight against thee. Upon this Judas went to meet them.

1Ma 5:40 Then Timotheus said unto the captains of his host, When Judas and his host come near the brook, if he pass over first unto us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us:

1Ma 5:41 But if he be afraid, and camp beyond the river, we shall go over unto him, and prevail against him.

1Ma 5:42 Now when Judas came near the brook, he caused the scribes of the people to remain by the brook: unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Suffer no man to remain in the camp, but let all come to the battle.

1Ma 5:43 So he went first over unto them, and all the people after him: then all the heathen, being discomfited before him, cast away their weapons, and fled unto the temple that was at Carnaim.

1Ma 5:44 But they took the city, and burned the temple with all that were therein. Thus was Carnaim subdued, neither could they stand any longer before Judas.

1Ma 5:45 Then Judas gathered together all the Israelis that were in the country of Galaad, from the least unto the greatest, even their wives, and their children, and their stuff, a very great host, to the end they might come into the land of Judea.

1Ma 5:46 Now when they came unto Ephron, (this was a great city in the way as they should go, very well fortified) they could not turn from it, either on the right hand or the left, but must needs pass through the midst of it.

1Ma 5:47 Then they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones.

1Ma 5:48 Whereupon Judas sent unto them in peaceable manner, saying, Let us pass through your land to go into our own country, and none shall do you any hurt; we will only pass through on foot: howbeit they would not open unto him.

1Ma 5:49 Wherefore Judas commanded a proclamation to be made throughout the host, that every man should pitch his tent in the place where he was.

1Ma 5:50 So the soldiers pitched, and assaulted the city all that day and all that night, till at the length the city was delivered into his hands:

1Ma 5:51 Who then slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and razed the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through the city over them that were slain.

1Ma 5:52 After this went they over Jordan into the great plain before Bethshan.

1Ma 5:53 And Judas gathered together those that came behind, and exhorted the people all the way through, till they came into the land of Judea.

1Ma 5:54 So they went up to mount Zion with joy and gladness, where they offered burnt offerings, because not one of them were slain until they had returned in peace.

1Ma 5:55 Now what time as Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon his brother in Galilee before Ptolemais, 1Ma 5:56 Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azariah, captains of the garrisons, heard of the valiant acts and warlike deeds which they had done.

1Ma 5:57 Wherefore they said, Let us also get us a name, and go fight against the heathen that are round about us.

1Ma 5:58 So when they had given charge unto the garrison that was with them, they went toward Jamnia.

1Ma 5:59 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the city to fight against them.

1Ma 5:60 And so it was, that Joseph and Azaras were put to flight, and pursued unto the borders of Judea: and there were slain that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men.

1Ma 5:61 Thus was there a great overthrow among the children of Israel, because they were not obedient unto Judas and his brethren, but thought to do some valiant act.

1Ma 5:62 Moreover these men came not of the seed of those, by whose hand deliverance was given unto Israel.

1Ma 5:63 Howbeit the man Judas and his brethren were greatly renowned in the sight of all Israel, and of all the heathen, wheresoever their name was heard of;

1Ma 5:64 Insomuch as the people assembled unto them with joyful acclamations.

1Ma 5:65 Afterward went Judas forth with his brethren, and fought against the children of Esau in the land toward the south, where he smote Hebron, and the towns thereof, and pulled down the fortress of it, and burned the towers thereof round about.

1Ma 5:66 From thence he removed to go into the land of the Philistines, and passed through Samaria.

1Ma 5:67 At that time certain priests, desirous to shew their valor, were slain in battle, for that they went out to fight unadvisedly.

1Ma 5:68 So Judas turned to Azotus (Ashdod) in the land of the Philistines, and when he had pulled down their altars, and burned their carved images with fire, and spoiled their cities, he returned into the land of Judea.

1Ma 6:1 About that time king Antiochus travelling through the high countries heard say, that Elymais in the country of Persia was a city greatly renowned for riches, silver, and gold;

1Ma 6:2 And that there was in it a very rich temple, wherein were coverings of gold, and breastplates, and shields, which Alexander, son of Philip, the Macedonian king, who reigned first among the Grecians, had left there.

1Ma 6:3 Wherefore he came and sought to take the city, and to spoil it; but he was not able, because they of the city, having had warning thereof,

1Ma 6:4 Rose up against him in battle: so he fled, and departed thence with great heaviness, and returned to Babylon.

1Ma 6:5 Moreover there came one who brought him tidings into Persia, that the armies, which went against the land of Judea, were put to flight:

1Ma 6:6 And that Lysias, who went forth first with a great power was driven away of the Jews; and that they were made strong by the armor, and power, and store of spoils, which they had gotten of the armies, whom they had destroyed:

1Ma 6:7 Also that they had pulled down the abomination, which he had set up upon the altar in Jerusalem, and that they had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls, as before, and his city Bethzur.

1Ma 6:8 Now when the king heard these words, he was astonished and sore moved: whereupon he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not befallen him as he looked for.

1Ma 6:9 And there he continued many days: for his grief was ever more and more, and he made account that he should die.

1Ma 6:10 Wherefore he called for all his friends, and said unto them, The sleep is gone from mine eyes, and my heart faileth for very care.

1Ma 6:11 And I thought with myself, Into what tribulation am I come, and how great a flood of misery is it, wherein now I am! for I was bountiful and beloved in my power.

1Ma 6:12 But now I remember the evils that I did at Jerusalem, and that I took all the vessels of gold and silver that were therein, and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Judea without a cause.

1Ma 6:13 I perceive therefore that for this cause these troubles are come upon me, and, behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land.

1Ma 6:14 Then called he for Philip, one of his friends, who he made ruler over all his realm, 1Ma 6:15 And gave him the crown, and his robe, and his signet, to the end he should bring up his son Antiochus V, and nourish him up for the kingdom.

1Ma 6:16 So king Antiochus IV died there in the hundred forty and ninth year (c. 163 BC).

1Ma 6:17 Now when Lysias knew that the king was dead, he set up Antiochus V his son, whom he had brought up being young, to reign in his stead, and his name he called Eupator.

1Ma 6:18 About this time they that were in the tower shut up the Israelis round about the sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen.

1Ma 6:19 Wherefore Judas, purposing to destroy them, called all the people together to besiege them.

1Ma 6:20 So they came together, and besieged them in the hundred and fiftieth year (c. 162 BC), and he made mounts for shot against them, and other engines.

1Ma 6:21 Howbeit certain of them that were besieged got forth, unto whom some irreverent men of Israel joined themselves:

1Ma 6:22 And they went unto the king, and said, How long will it be ere thou execute judgment, and avenge our brethren?

1Ma 6:23 We have been willing to serve thy father, and to do as he would have us, and to obey his commandments;

1Ma 6:24 For which cause they of our nation besiege the tower, and are alienated from us: moreover as many of us as they could light on they slew, and spoiled our inheritance.

1Ma 6:25 Neither have they stretched out their hand against us only, but also against their borders.

1Ma 6:26 And, behold, this day are they besieging the tower at Jerusalem, to take it: the sanctuary also and Bethzur have they fortified.

1Ma 6:27 Wherefore if thou dost not prevent them quickly, they will do the greater things than these, neither shalt thou be able to rule them.

1Ma 6:28 Now when the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and those that had charge of the horse.

1Ma 6:29 There came also unto him from other kingdoms, and from isles of the sea, bands of hired soldiers.

1Ma 6:30 So that the number of his army was a hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty elephants exercised in battle.

1Ma 6:31 These went through Idumea, and pitched against Bethzur, which they assaulted many days, making engines of war; but they of Bethzur came out, and burned them with fire, and fought valiantly.

1Ma 6:32 Upon this Judas removed from the tower, and pitched in Bathzacharias, over against the king's camp.

1Ma 6:33 Then the king rising very early marched fiercely with his host toward Bathzacharias, where his armies made them ready to battle, and sounded the trumpets.

1Ma 6:34 And to the end they might provoke the elephants to fight, they shewed them the blood of grapes and mulberries.

1Ma 6:35 Moreover they divided the beasts among the armies, and for every elephant they appointed a thousand men, armed with coats of mail, and with helmets of brass on their heads; and beside this, for every beast were ordained five hundred horsemen of the best.

1Ma 6:36 These were ready at every occasion: wheresoever the beast was, and whithersoever the beast went, they went also, neither departed they from him.

1Ma 6:37 And upon the beasts were there strong towers of wood, which covered every one of them, and were girt fast unto them with devices: there were also upon every one two and thirty strong men, that fought upon them, beside the Indian that ruled him.

1Ma 6:38 As for the remnant of the horsemen, they set them on this side and that side at the two parts of the host giving them signs what to do, and being harnessed all over amidst the ranks.

1Ma 6:39 Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains glistered therewith, and shined like lamps of fire.

1Ma 6:40 So part of the king's army being spread upon the high mountains, and part on the valleys below, they marched on safely and in order.

1Ma 6:41 Wherefore all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the harness, were moved: for the army was very great and mighty.

1Ma 6:42 Then Judas and his host drew near, and entered into battle, and there were slain of the king's army six hundred men.

1Ma 6:43 Eleazar also, surnamed Savaran, perceiving that one of the beasts, armed with royal harness, was higher than all the rest, and supposing that the king was upon him,

1Ma 6:44 Put himself in jeopardy, to the end he might deliver his people, and get him a perpetual name:

1Ma 6:45 Wherefore he ran upon him courageously through the midst of the battle, slaying on the right hand and on the left, so that they were divided from him on both sides.

1Ma 6:46 Which done, he crept under the elephant, and thrust him under, and slew him: whereupon the elephant fell down upon him, and there he died.

1Ma 6:47 Howbeit the rest of the Jews seeing the strength of the king, and the violence of his forces, turned away from them.

1Ma 6:48 Then the king's army went up to Jerusalem to meet them, and the king pitched his tents against Judea, and against mount Zion.

1Ma 6:49 But with them that were in Bethzur he made peace: for they came out of the city, because they had no victuals there to endure the siege, since it was a sabbatical year for the land (c. 162 BC).

1Ma 6:50 So the king took Bethzur, and set a garrison there to keep it.

1Ma 6:51 As for the sanctuary, he besieged it many days: and set there artillery with engines and instruments to cast fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts and slings.

1Ma 6:52 Whereupon they also made engines against their engines, and held them battle a long season.

1Ma 6:53 Yet at the last, their vessels being without victuals, for that it was the seventh year (c. 162 BC), and they in Judea that were delivered from the nations, had eaten up the residue of the store.

1Ma 6:54 There were but a few left in the sanctuary, because the famine did so prevail against them, that they were fain to disperse themselves, every man to his own place.

1Ma 6:55 At that time Lysias heard say, that Philip, whom Antiochus IV the king, while he lived, had appointed to bring up his son Antiochus V, that he might be king, 1Ma 6:56 Was returned out of Persia and Media, and the king's host also that went with him, and that he sought to take unto him the ruling of the affairs.

1Ma 6:57 Wherefore he went in all haste, and said to the king and the captains of the host and the company, We decay daily, and our victuals are but small, and the place we lay siege unto is strong, and the affairs of the kingdom lie upon us:

1Ma 6:58 Now therefore let us be friends with these men, and make peace with them, and with all their nation;

1Ma 6:59 And covenant with them, that they shall live after their laws, as they did before: for they are therefore displeased, and have done all these things, because we abolished their laws.

1Ma 6:60 So the king and the princes were content: wherefore he sent unto them to make peace; and they accepted thereof.

1Ma 6:61 Also the king and the princes made an oath unto them: whereupon they went out of the stronghold.

1Ma 6:62 Then the king entered into mount Zion; but when he saw the strength of the place, he broke his oath that he had made, and gave commandment to pull down the wall round about.

1Ma 6:63 Afterward departed he in all haste, and returned unto Antiochia, where he found Philip to be master of the city: so he fought against him, and took the city by force.

1Ma 7:1 In the hundred and one and fiftieth year (c. 161 BC) Demetrius the son of Seleucus departed from Rome, and came up with a few men unto a city of the sea coast, and reigned there.

1Ma 7:2 And as he entered into the palace of his ancestors, so it was, that his forces had taken Antiochus V and Lysias, to bring them unto him.

1Ma 7:3 Wherefore, when he knew it, he said, Let me not see their faces.

1Ma 7:4 So his host slew them. Now when Demetrius was set upon the throne of his kingdom,

1Ma 7:5 There came unto him all the wicked and irreverent men of Israel, having Alcimus, who was desirous to be high priest, for their captain:

1Ma 7:6 And they accused the people to the king, saying, Judas and his brethren have slain all thy friends, and driven us out of our own land.

1Ma 7:7 Now therefore send some man whom thou trustest, and let him go and see what havock he hath made among us, and in the king's land, and let him punish them with all them that aid them.

1Ma 7:8 Then the king chose Bacchides, a friend of the king, who ruled beyond the flood, and was a great man in the kingdom, and faithful to the king,

1Ma 7:9 And him he sent with that wicked Alcimus, whom he made high priest, and commanded that he should take vengeance of the children of Israel.

1Ma 7:10 So they departed, and came with a great power into the land of Judea, where they sent messengers to Judas and his brethren with peaceable words deceitfully.

1Ma 7:11 But they gave no heed to their words; for they saw that they were come with a great power.

1Ma 7:12 Then did there assemble unto Alcimus and Bacchides a company of scribes, to require justice.

1Ma 7:13 Now the Assideans were the first among the children of Israel that sought peace of them:

1Ma 7:14 For said they, One that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come with this army, and he will do us no wrong.

1Ma 7:15 So he spake unto them, peaceably, and sware unto them, saying, we will procure the harm neither of you nor your friends.

1Ma 7:16 Whereupon they believed him: howbeit he took of them threescore men, and slew them in one day, according to the words which he wrote,

1Ma 7:17 The flesh of thy saints have they cast out, and their blood have they shed round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

1Ma 7:18 Wherefore the fear and dread of them fell upon all the people, who said, There is neither truth nor righteousness in them; for they have broken the covenant and oath that they made.

1Ma 7:19 After this, removed Bacchides from Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Bezeth, where he sent and took many of the men that had forsaken him, and certain of the people also, and when he had slain them, he cast them into the great pit.

1Ma 7:20 Then committed he the country to Alcimus, and left with him a power to aid him: so Bacchides went to the king.

1Ma 7:21 But Alcimus contended for the high priesthood.

1Ma 7:22 And unto him resorted all such as troubled the people, who, after they had gotten the land of Judah into their power, did much hurt in Israel.

1Ma 7:23 Now when Judas saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his company had done among the Israelis, even above the heathen, 1Ma 7:24 He went out into all the coasts of Judea round about, and took vengeance of them that had revolted from him, so that they durst no more go forth into the country.

1Ma 7:25 On the other side, when Alcimus saw that Judas and his company had gotten the upper hand, and knew that he was not able to abide their force, he went again to the king, and said all the worst of them that he could.

1Ma 7:26 Then the king sent Nicanor, one of his honorable princes, a man that bare deadly hate unto Israel, with commandment to destroy the people.

1Ma 7:27 So Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great force; and sent unto Judas and his brethren deceitfully with friendly words, saying, 1Ma 7:28 Let there be no battle between me and you; I will come with a few men, that I may see you in peace.

1Ma 7:29 He came therefore to Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably. Howbeit the enemies were prepared to take away Judas by violence.

1Ma 7:30 Which thing after it was known to Judas, to wit, that he came unto him with deceit, he was sore afraid of him, and would see his face no more.

1Ma 7:31 Nicanor also, when he saw that his counsel was discovered, went out to fight against Judas beside Capharsalama:

1Ma 7:32 Where there were slain of Nicanor's side about five thousand men, and the rest fled into the city of David.

1Ma 7:33 After this went Nicanor up to mount Zion, and there came out of the sanctuary certain of the priests and certain of the elders of the people, to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the burnt sacrifice that was offered for the king.

1Ma 7:34 But he mocked them, and laughed at them, and abused them shamefully, and spake proudly, 1Ma 7:35 And sware in his wrath, saying, Unless Judas and his host be now delivered into my hands, if ever I come again in safety, I will burn up this house: and with that he went out in a great rage.

1Ma 7:36 Then the priests entered in, and stood before the altar and the temple, weeping, and saying,

1Ma 7:37 Thou, O Yehowah, didst choose this house to be called by thy name, and to be a house of prayer and petition for thy people:

1Ma 7:38 Be avenged of this man and his host, and let them fall by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue any longer.

1Ma 7:39 So Nicanor went out of Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Bethhoron, where a host out of Syria met him.

1Ma 7:40 But Judas pitched in Adasa with three thousand men, and there he prayed, saying, 1Ma 7:41 O Yehowah, when they that were sent from the king of the Assyrians blasphemed, thine angel went out, and smote a hundred fourscore and five thousand of them.

1Ma 7:42 Even so destroy thou this host before us this day, that the rest may know that he hath spoken blasphemously against thy sanctuary, and judge thou him according to his wickedness.

1Ma 7:43 So the thirteenth day of the month Adar the hosts joined battle: but Nicanor's host was discomfited, and he himself was first slain in the battle.

1Ma 7:44 Now when Nicanor's host saw that he was slain, they cast away their weapons, and fled.

1Ma 7:45 Then they pursued after them a day's journey, from Adasa unto Gazera, sounding an alarm after them with their trumpets.

1Ma 7:46 Whereupon they came forth out of all the towns of Judea round about, and closed them in; so that they, turning back upon them that pursued them, were all slain with the sword, and not one of them was left.

1Ma 7:47 Afterwards they took the spoils, and the prey, and smote off Nicanors head, and his right hand, which he stretched out so proudly, and brought them away, and hanged them up toward Jerusalem.

1Ma 7:48 For this cause the people rejoiced greatly, and they kept that day a day of great gladness.

1Ma 7:49 Moreover they ordained to keep yearly this day, being the thirteenth of Adar.

1Ma 7:50 Thus the land of Judah was in rest a little while.

1Ma 8:1 Now Judas had heard of the the Romans, that they were mighty and valiant men, and such as would lovingly accept all that joined themselves unto them, and make a league of amity with all that came unto them;

1Ma 8:2 And that they were men of great valor. It was told him also of their wars and noble acts which they had done among the Galatians, and how they had conquered them, and brought them under tribute;

1Ma 8:3 And what they had done in the country of Spain, for the winning of the mines of the silver and gold which is there;

1Ma 8:4 And that by their policy and patience they had conquered all the place, though it were very far from them; and the kings also that came against them from the uttermost part of the earth, till they had discomfited them, and given them a great overthrow, so that the rest did give them tribute every year:

1Ma 8:5 Beside this, how they had discomfited in battle Philip, and Perseus, king of the Citims, with others that lifted up themselves against them, and had overcome them:

1Ma 8:6 How also Antiochus the great king of Asia, that came against them in battle, having a hundred and twenty elephants, with horsemen, and chariots, and a very great army, was discomfited by them;

1Ma 8:7 And how they took him alive, and covenanted that he and such as reigned after him should pay a great tribute, and give hostages, and that which was agreed upon,

1Ma 8:8 And the country of India, and Media and Lydia and of the goodliest countries, which they took of him, and gave to king Eumenes:

1Ma 8:9 Moreover how the Grecians had determined to come and destroy them;

1Ma 8:10 And that they, having knowledge thereof sent against them a certain captain, and fighting with them slew many of them, and carried away captives their wives and their children, and spoiled them, and took possession of their lands, and pulled down their strongholds, and brought them to be their servants unto this day:

1Ma 8:11 It was told him besides, how they destroyed and brought under their dominion all other kingdoms and isles that at any time resisted them;

1Ma 8:12 But with their friends and such as relied upon them they kept amity: and that they had conquered kingdoms both far and nigh, insomuch as all that heard of their name were afraid of them:

1Ma 8:13 Also that, whom they would help to a kingdom, those reign; and whom again they would, they displace: finally, that they were greatly exalted:

1Ma 8:14 Yet for all this none of them wore a crown or was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby:

1Ma 8:15 Moreover how they had made for themselves a senate house, wherein three hundred and twenty men sat in council daily, consulting always for the people, to the end they might be well ordered:

1Ma 8:16 And that they committed their government to one man every year, who ruled over all their country, and that all were obedient to that one, and that there was neither envy nor emmulation among them.

1Ma 8:17 In consideration of these things, Judas chose Eupolemus the son of John, the son of Accos, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome, to make a league of amity and confederacy with them,

1Ma 8:18 And to intreat them that they would take the yoke from them; for they saw that the kingdom of the Grecians did oppress Israel with servitude.

1Ma 8:19 They went therefore to Rome, which was a very great journey, and came into the senate, where they spake and said.

1Ma 8:20 Judas Maccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Jews, have sent us unto you, to make a confederacy and peace with you, and that we might be registered your confederates and friends.

1Ma 8:21 So that matter pleased the Romans well.

1Ma 8:22 And this is the copy of the epistle which the senate wrote back again in tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that there they might have by them a memorial of peace and confederacy:

1Ma 8:23 Good success be to the Romans, and to the people of the Jews, by sea and by land forever: the sword also and enemy be far from them,

1Ma 8:24 If there come first any war upon the Romans or any of their confederates throughout all their dominion,

1Ma 8:25 The people of the Jews shall help them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart:

1Ma 8:26 Neither shall they give anything unto them that make war upon them, or aid them with victuals, weapons, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good unto the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants without taking anything therefore.

1Ma 8:27 In the same manner also, if war come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them with all their heart, according as the time shall be appointed them:

1Ma 8:28 Neither shall victuals be given to them that take part against them, or weapons, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants, and that without deceit.

1Ma 8:29 According to these articles did the Romans make a covenant with the people of the Jews.

1Ma 8:30 Howbeit if hereafter the one party or the other shall think to meet to add or diminish anything, they may do it at their pleasures, and whatsoever they shall add or take away shall be ratified.

1Ma 8:31 And as touching the evils that Demetrius doeth to the Jews, we have written unto him, saying, Wherefore thou made thy yoke heavy upon our friends and confederates the Jews?

1Ma 8:32 If therefore they complain any more against thee, we will do them justice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

1Ma 9:1 Furthermore, when Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his host were slain in battle, he sent Bacchides and Alcimus into the land of Judea the second time, and with them the chief strength of his host:

1Ma 9:2 Who went forth by the way that leadeth to Galgala, and pitched their tents before Masaloth, which is in Arbela, and after they had won it, they slew much people.

1Ma 9:3 Also the first month of the hundred fifty and second year (c. 160 BC) they encamped before Jerusalem:

1Ma 9:4 From whence they removed, and went to Berea, with twenty thousand footmen and two thousand horsemen.

1Ma 9:5 Now Judas had pitched his tents at Eleasa, and three thousand chosen men with him:

1Ma 9:6 Who seeing the multitude of the other army to he so great were sore afraid; whereupon many conveyed themselves out of the host, insomuch as abode of them no more but eight hundred men.

1Ma 9:7 When Judas therefore saw that his host slipt away, and that the battle pressed upon him, he was sore troubled in mind, and much distressed, for that he had no time to gather them together.

1Ma 9:8 Nevertheless unto them that remained he said, Let us arise and go up against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them.

1Ma 9:9 But they dehorted him, saying, We shall never be able: let us now rather save our lives, and hereafter we will return with our brethren, and fight against them: for we are but few.

1Ma 9:10 Then Judas said, Yehowah forbid that I should do this thing, and flee away from them: if our time be come, let us die manfully for our brethren, and let us not stain our honor.

1Ma 9:11 With that the host of Bacchides removed out of their tents, and stood over against them, their horsemen being divided into two troops, and their slingers and archers going before the host and they that marched in the foreward were all mighty men.

1Ma 9:12 As for Bacchides, he was in the right wing: so the host drew near on the two parts, and sounded their trumpets.

1Ma 9:13 They also of Judas' side, even they sounded their trumpets also, so that the earth shook at the noise of the armies, and the battle continued from morning till night.

1Ma 9:14 Now when Judas perceived that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, he took with him all the hardy men, 1Ma 9:15 Who discomfited the right wing, and pursued them unto the mount Azotus (Ashdod).

1Ma 9:16 But when they of the left wing saw that they of the right wing were discomfited, they followed upon Judas and those that were with him hard at the heels from behind:

1Ma 9:17 Whereupon there was a sore battle, insomuch as many were slain on both parts.

1Ma 9:18 Judas also was killed, and the remnant fled.

1Ma 9:19 Then Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers in Modin.

1Ma 9:20 Moreover they bewailed him, and all Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned many days, saying, 1Ma 9:21 How is the valiant man fallen, that delivered Israel!

1Ma 9:22 As for the other things concerning Judas and his wars, and the noble acts which he did, and his greatness, they are not written: for they were very many.

1Ma 9:23 Now after the death of Judas the wicked began to put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and there arose up all such as wrought iniquity.

1Ma 9:24 In those days also was there a very great famine, by reason whereof the country revolted, and went with them.

1Ma 9:25 Then Bacchides chose the wicked men, and made them lords of the country.

1Ma 9:26 And they made enquiry and search for Judas' friends, and brought them unto Bacchides, who took vengeance of them, and used them despitefully.

1Ma 9:27 So was there a great affliction in Israel, the like whereof was not since the time that a prophet was not seen among them.

1Ma 9:28 For this cause all Judas' friends came together, and said unto Jonathan, 1Ma 9:29 Since thy brother Judas died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies, and Bacchides, and against them of our nation that are adversaries to us.

1Ma 9:30 Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our prince and captain in his stead, that thou mayest fight our battles.

1Ma 9:31 Upon this Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and rose up instead of his brother Judas.

1Ma 9:32 But when Bacchides got knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay him.

1Ma 9:33 Then Jonathan, and Simon his brother, and all that were with him, perceiving that, fled into the wilderness of Thecoe, and pitched their tents by the water of the pool Asphar.

1Ma 9:34 Which when Bacchides understood, he came near to Jordan with all his host upon the sabbath day.

1Ma 9:35 Now Jonathan had sent his brother John, a captain of the people, to pray his friends the Nabathites, that they might leave with them their carriage, which was much.

1Ma 9:36 But the children of Jambri came out of Medaba, and took John, and all that he had, and went their way with it.

1Ma 9:37 After this came word to Jonathan and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great marriage, and were bringing the bride from Nadabatha with a great train, as being the daughter of one of the great princes of Canaan.

1Ma 9:38 Therefore they remembered John their brother, and went up, and hid themselves under the covert of the mountain:

1Ma 9:39 Where they lifted up their eyes, and looked, and, behold, there was much ado and great carriage: and the bridegroom came forth, and his friends and brethren, to meet them with drums, and instruments of music, and many weapons.

1Ma 9:40 Then Jonathan and they that were with him rose up against them from the place where they lay in ambush, and made a slaughter of them in such sort, as many fell down dead, and the remnant fled into the mountain, and they took all their spoils.

1Ma 9:41 Thus was the marriage turned into mourning, and the noise of their melody into lamentation.

1Ma 9:42 So when they had avenged fully the blood of their brother, they turned again to the marsh of Jordan.

1Ma 9:43 Now when Bacchides heard hereof, he came on the sabbath day unto the banks of Jordan with a great power.

1Ma 9:44 Then Jonathan said to his company, Let us go up now and fight for our lives, for it standeth not with us to day, as in time past:

1Ma 9:45 For, behold, the battle is before us and behind us, and the water of Jordan on this side and that side, the marsh likewise and wood, neither is there place for us to turn aside.

1Ma 9:46 Wherefore cry ye now unto heaven, that ye may be delivered from the hand of your enemies.

1Ma 9:47 With that they joined battle, and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides, but he turned back from him.

1Ma 9:48 Then Jonathan and they that were with him leapt into Jordan, and swam over unto the other bank: howbeit the other passed not over Jordan unto them.

1Ma 9:49 So there were slain of Bacchides' side that day about a thousand men.

1Ma 9:50 Afterward returned Bacchides to Jerusalem and repaired the strong cites in Judea; the fort in Jericho, and Emmaus, and Bethhoron, and Bethel, and Thamnatha, Pharathoni, and Taphon, these did he strengthen with high walls, with gates and with bars.

1Ma 9:51 And in them he set a garrison, that they might work malice upon Israel.

1Ma 9:52 He fortified also the city Bethzur, and Gazera, and the tower, and put forces in them, and provision of victuals.

1Ma 9:53 Besides, he took the chief men's sons in the country for hostages, and put them into the tower at Jerusalem to be kept.

1Ma 9:54 Moreover in the hundred fifty and third year (c. 159 BC), in the second month, Alcimus commanded that the wall of the inner court of the sanctuary should be pulled down; he pulled down also the works of the prophets

1Ma 9:55 And as he began to pull down, even at that time was Alcimus plagued, and his enterprizes hindered: for his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsy, so that he could no more speak anything, nor give order concerning his house.

1Ma 9:56 So Alcimus died at that time with great torment.

1Ma 9:57 Now when Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, he returned to the king: whereupon the land of Judea was in rest two years.

1Ma 9:58 Then all the irreverent men held a council, saying, Behold, Jonathan and his company are at ease, and dwell without care: now therefore we will bring Bacchides hither, who shall take them all in one night.

1Ma 9:59 So they went and consulted with him.

1Ma 9:60 Then removed he, and came with a great host, and sent letters privily to his adherents in Judea, that they should take Jonathan and those that were with him: howbeit they could not, because their counsel was known unto them.

1Ma 9:61 Wherefore they took of the men of the country, that were authors of that mischief, about fifty persons, and slew them.

1Ma 9:62 Afterward Jonathan, and Simon, and they that were with him, got them away to Bethbasi, which is in the wilderness, and they repaired the decays thereof, and made it strong.

1Ma 9:63 Which thing when Bacchides knew, he gathered together all his host, and sent word to them that were of Judea.

1Ma 9:64 Then went he and laid siege against Bethbasi; and they fought against it a long season and made engines of war.

1Ma 9:65 But Jonathan left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth himself into the country, and with a certain number went he forth.

1Ma 9:66 And he smote Odonarkes and his brethren, and the children of Phasiron in their tent.

1Ma 9:67 And when he began to smite them, and came up with his forces, Simon and his company went out of the city, and burned up the engines of war,

1Ma 9:68 And fought against Bacchides, who was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore: for his counsel and travail was in vain.

1Ma 9:69 Wherefore he was very wroth at the wicked men that gave him counsel to come into the country, inasmuch as he slew many of them, and purposed to return into his own country.

1Ma 9:70 Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadors unto him, to the end he should make peace with him, and deliver them the prisoners.

1Ma 9:71 Which thing he accepted, and did according to his demands, and sware unto him that he would never do him harm all the days of his life.

1Ma 9:72 When therefore he had restored unto him the prisoners that he had taken aforetime out of the land of Judea, he returned and went his way into his own land, neither came he any more into their borders.

1Ma 9:73 Thus the sword ceased from Israel: but Jonathan dwelt at Machmas, and began to govern the people; and he destroyed the irreverent men out of Israel.

1Ma 10:1 In the hundred and sixtieth year (c. 152 BC) Alexander, the son of Antiochus IV surnamed Epiphanes, went up and took Ptolemais: for the people had received him, by means whereof he reigned there, 1Ma 10:2 Now when king Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered together an exceeding great host, and went forth against him to fight.

1Ma 10:3 Moreover Demetrius sent letters unto Jonathan with loving words, so as he magnified him.

1Ma 10:4 For said he, Let us first make peace with him, before he join with Alexander against us:

1Ma 10:5 Else he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brethren and his people.

1Ma 10:6 Wherefore he gave him authority to gather together a host, and to provide weapons, that he might aid him in battle: he commanded also that the hostages that were in the tower should be delivered him.

1Ma 10:7 Then came Jonathan to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the tower:

1Ma 10:8 Who were sore afraid, when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together a host.

1Ma 10:9 Whereupon they of the tower delivered their hostages unto Jonathan, and he delivered them unto their parents.

1Ma 10:10 This done, Jonathan settled himself in Jerusalem, and began to build and repair the city.

1Ma 10:11 And he commanded the workmen to build the walls and the mount Zion and about with square stones for fortification; and they did so.

1Ma 10:12 Then the strangers, that were in the fortresses which Bacchides had built, fled away;

1Ma 10:13 Insomuch as every man left his place, and went into his own country.

1Ma 10:14 Only at Bethzur certain of those that had forsaken the law and the commandments remained still: for it was their place of refuge.

1Ma 10:15 Now when king Alexander had heard what promises Demetrius had sent unto Jonathan: when also it was told him of the battles and noble acts which he and his brethren had done, and of the pains that they had endured, 1Ma 10:16 He said, Shall we find such another man? now therefore we will make him our friend and confederate.

1Ma 10:17 Upon this he wrote a letter, and sent it unto him, according to these words, saying,

1Ma 10:18 King Alexander to his brother Jonathan sendeth greeting:

1Ma 10:19 We have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and meet to be our friend.

1Ma 10:20 Wherefore now this day we ordain thee to be the high priest of thy nation, and to be called the king's friend; (and therewithal he sent him a purple robe and a crown of gold) and require thee to take our part, and keep friendship with us.

1Ma 10:21 So in the seventh month of the hundred and sixtieth year (c. 152 BC), at the feast of tabernacles, Jonathan put on the holy robe, and gathered together forces, and provided much armor.

1Ma 10:22 Whereof when Demetrius heard, he was very sorry, and said,

1Ma 10:23 What have we done, that Alexander hath prevented us in making amity with the Jews to strengthen himself?

1Ma 10:24 I also will write unto them words of encouragement, and promise them dignities and gifts, that I may have their aid.

1Ma 10:25 He sent unto them therefore to this effect: King Demetrius unto the people of the Jews sendeth greeting:

1Ma 10:26 Whereas ye have kept covenants with us, and continued in our friendship, not joining yourselves with our enemies, we have heard hereof, and are glad.

1Ma 10:27 Wherefore now continue ye still to be faithful unto us, and we will well recompense you for the things ye do in our behalf, 1Ma 10:28 And will grant you many immunities, and give you rewards.

1Ma 10:29 And now do I free you, and for your sake I release all the Jews, from tributes, and from the customs of salt, and from crown taxes,

1Ma 10:30 And from that which appertaineth unto me to receive for the third part or the seed, and the half of the fruit of the trees, I release it from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Judea, nor of the three governments which are added thereunto out of the country of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth forevermore.

1Ma 10:31 Let Jerusalem also be holy and free, with the borders thereof, both from tenths and tributes.

1Ma 10:32 And as for the tower which is at Jerusalem, I yield up authority over it, and give the high priest, that he may set in it such men as he shall choose to keep it.

1Ma 10:33 Moreover I freely set at liberty every one of the Jews, that were carried captives out of the land of Judea into any part of my kingdom, and I will that all my officers remit the tributes even of their cattle.

1Ma 10:34 Furthermore I will that all the feasts, and sabbaths, and new months, and solemn days, and the three days before the feast, and the three days after the feast shall be all of immunity and freedom for all the Jews in my realm.

1Ma 10:35 Also no man shall have authority to meddle with or to molest any of them in any matter.

1Ma 10:36 I will further, that there be enrolled among the king's forces about thirty thousand men of the Jews, unto whom pay shall be given, as belongeth to all king's forces.

1Ma 10:37 And of them some shall be placed in the king's strongholds, of whom also some shall be set over the affairs of the kingdom, which are of trust: and I will that their overseers and governors be of themselves, and that they live after their own laws, even as the king hath commanded in the land of Judea.

1Ma 10:38 And concerning the three governments that are added to Judea from the country of Samaria, let them be joined with Judea, that they may be reckoned to be under one, nor bound to obey other authority than the high priest's.

1Ma 10:39 As for Ptolemais, and the land pertaining thereto, I give it as a free gift to the sanctuary at Jerusalem for the necessary expenses of the sanctuary.

1Ma 10:40 Moreover I give every year fifteen thousand shekels of silver out of the king's accounts from the places appertaining.

1Ma 10:41 And all the overplus, which the officers paid not in as in former time, from henceforth shall be given toward the works of the temple.

1Ma 10:42 And beside this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they took from the uses of the temple out of the accounts year by year, even those things shall be released, because they appertain to the priests that minister.

1Ma 10:43 And whosoever they be that flee unto the temple at Jerusalem, or be within the liberties hereof, being indebted unto the king, or for any other matter, let them be at liberty, and all that they have in my realm.

1Ma 10:44 For the building also and repairing of the works of the sanctuary expenses shall be given of the king's accounts.

1Ma 10:45 Yea, and for the building of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, expenses shall be given out of the king's accounts, as also for the building of the walls in Judea.

1Ma 10:46 Now when Jonathan and the people heard these words, they gave no credit unto them, nor received them, because they remembered the great evil that he had done in Israel; for he had afflicted them very sore.

1Ma 10:47 But with Alexander they were well pleased, because he was the first that entreated of true peace with them, and they were confederate with him always.

1Ma 10:48 Then gathered king Alexander great forces, and camped over against Demetrius.

1Ma 10:49 And after the two kings had joined battle, Demetrius' host fled: but Alexander followed after him, and prevailed against them.

1Ma 10:50 And he continued the battle very sore until the sun went down: and that day was Demetrius slain.

1Ma 10:51 Afterward Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemy king of Egypt with a message to this effect:

1Ma 10:52 Forasmuch as I am come again to my realm, and am set in the throne of my progenitors, and have gotten the dominion, and overthrown Demetrius, and recovered our country;

1Ma 10:53 For after I had joined battle with him, both he and his host was discomfited by us, so that we sit in the throne of his kingdom:

1Ma 10:54 Now therefore let us make a league of amity together, and give me now thy daughter to wife: and I will be thy son in law, and will give both thee and her as according to thy dignity.

1Ma 10:55 Then Ptolemy the king gave answer, saying, Happy be the day wherein thou didst return into the land of thy fathers, and satest in the throne of their kingdom.

1Ma 10:56 And now will I do to thee, as thou hast written: meet me therefore at Ptolemais, that we may see one another; for I will marry my daughter to thee according to thy desire.

1Ma 10:57 So Ptolemy went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and they came unto Ptolemais in the hundred threescore and second year (c. 150 BC):

1Ma 10:58 Where king Alexander meeting him, he gave unto him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great glory, as the manner of kings is.

1Ma 10:59 Now king Alexander had written unto Jonathan, that he should come and meet him.

1Ma 10:60 Who thereupon went honorably to Ptolemais, where he met the two kings, and gave them and their friends silver and gold, and many presents, and found favor in their sight.

1Ma 10:61 At that time certain pestilent fellows of Israel, men of a wicked life, assembled themselves against him, to accuse him: but the king would not hear them.

1Ma 10:62 Yea more than that, the king commanded to take off his garments, and clothe him in purple: and they did so.

1Ma 10:63 And he made him sit by himself, and said unto his princes, Go with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause.

1Ma 10:64 Now when his accusers saw that he was honored according to the proclamation, and clothed in purple, they fled all away.

1Ma 10:65 So the king honored him, and wrote him among his chief friends, and made him a duke, and partaker of his dominion.

1Ma 10:66 Afterward Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness.

1Ma 10:67 Furthermore in the; hundred threescore and fifth year (c. 147 BC) came Demetrius son of Demetrius out of Crete into the land of his fathers:

1Ma 10:68 Whereof when king Alexander heard tell, he was right sorry, and returned into Antioch.

1Ma 10:69 Then Demetrius made Apollonius the governor of Celosyria his general, who gathered together a great host, and camped in Jamnia, and sent unto Jonathan the high priest, saying, 1Ma 10:70 Thou alone liftest up thyself against us, and I am laughed to scorn for thy sake, and reproached: and why dost thou vaunt thy power against us in the mountains?

1Ma 10:71 Now therefore, if thou trustest in thine own strength, come down to us into the plain field, and there let us try the matter together: for with me is the power of the cities.

1Ma 10:72 Ask and learn who I am, and the rest that take our part, and they shall tell thee that thy foot is not able to to flight in their own land.

1Ma 10:73 Wherefore now thou shalt not be able to abide the horsemen and so great a power in the plain, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee unto.

1Ma 10:74 So when Jonathan heard these words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind, and choosing ten thousand men he went out of Jerusalem, where Simon his brother met him for to help him.

1Ma 10:75 And he pitched his tents against Joppa: but; they of Joppa shut him out of the city, because Apollonius had a garrison there.

1Ma 10:76 Then Jonathan laid siege unto it: whereupon they of the city let him in for fear: and so Jonathan won Joppa.

1Ma 10:77 Whereof when Apollonius heard, he took three thousand horsemen, with a great host of footmen, and went to Azotus (Ashdod) as one that journeyed, and therewithal drew him forth into the plain, because he had a great number of horsemen, in whom he put his trust.

1Ma 10:78 Then Jonathan followed after him to Azotus (Ashdod), where the armies joined battle.

1Ma 10:79 Now Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen in ambush.

1Ma 10:80 And Jonathan knew that there was an ambushment behind him; for they had compassed in his host, and cast darts at the people, from morning till evening.

1Ma 10:81 But the people stood still, as Jonathan had commanded them: and so the enemies' horses were tired.

1Ma 10:82 Then brought Simon forth his host, and set them against the footmen, (for the horsemen were spent) who were discomfited by him, and fled.

1Ma 10:83 The horsemen also, being scattered in the field, fled to Azotus (Ashdod), and went into Bethdagon, their idol's temple, for safety.

1Ma 10:84 But Jonathan set fire on Azotus (Ashdod), and the cities round about it, and took their spoils; and the temple of Dagon, with them that were fled into it, he burned with fire.

1Ma 10:85 Thus there were burned and slain with the sword well nigh eight thousand men.

1Ma 10:86 And from thence Jonathan removed his host, and camped against Ashkelon, where the men of the city came forth, and met him with great pomp.

1Ma 10:87 After this returned Jonathan and his host unto Jerusalem, having many spoils.

1Ma 10:88 Now when king ALexander heard these things, he honored Jonathan yet more.

1Ma 10:89 And sent him a buckle of gold, as the use is to be given to such as are of the king's blood: he gave him also Accaron with the borders thereof in possession.

1Ma 11:1 And the king of Egypt gathered together a great host, like the sand that lieth upon the sea shore, and many ships, and went about through deceit to get Alexander's kingdom, and join it to his own.

1Ma 11:2 Whereupon he took his journey into Spain in peaceable manner, so as they of the cities opened unto him, and met him: for king Alexander had commanded them so to do, because he was his brother in law.

1Ma 11:3 Now as Ptolemy entered into the cities, he set in every one of them a garrison of soldiers to keep it.

1Ma 11:4 And when he came near to Azotus (Ashdod), they shewed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus (Ashdod) and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies that were cast abroad and them that he had burnt in the battle; for they had made heaps of them by the way where he should pass.

1Ma 11:5 Also they told the king whatsoever Jonathan had done, to the intent he might blame him: but the king held his peace.

1Ma 11:6 Then Jonathan met the king with great pomp at Joppa, where they saluted one another, and lodged.

1Ma 11:7 Afterward Jonathan, when he had gone with the king to the river called Eleutherus, returned again to Jerusalem.

1Ma 11:8 King Ptolemy therefore, having gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea unto Seleucia upon the sea coast, imagined wicked counsels against Alexander.

1Ma 11:9 Whereupon he sent ambasadors unto king Demetrius, saying, Come, let us make a league betwixt us, and I will give thee my daughter whom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign in thy father's kingdom:

1Ma 11:10 For I repent that I gave my daughter unto him, for he sought to slay me.

1Ma 11:11 Thus did he slander him, because he was desirous of his kingdom.

1Ma 11:12 Wherefore he took his daughter from him, and gave her to Demetrius, and forsook Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known.

1Ma 11:13 Then Ptolemy entered into Antioch, where he set two crowns upon his head, the crown of Asia, and of Egypt.

1Ma 11:14 In the mean season was king Alexander in Cilicia, because those that dwelt in those parts had revolted from him.

1Ma 11:15 But when Alexander heard of this, he came to war against him: whereupon king Ptolemy brought forth his host, and met him with a mighty power, and put him to flight.

1Ma 11:16 So Alexander fled into Arabia there to be defended; but king Ptolemy was exalted:

1Ma 11:17 For Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it unto Ptolemy.

1Ma 11:18 King Ptolemy also died the third day after, and they that were in the strongholds were slain one of another.

1Ma 11:19 By this means Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and seventh year (c. 145 BC).

1Ma 11:20 At the same time Jonathan gathered together them that were in Judea to take the tower that was in Jerusalem: and he made many engines of war against it.

1Ma 11:21 Then came irreverent persons, who hated their own people, went unto the king, and told him that Jonathan besieged the tower,

1Ma 11:22 Whereof when he heard, he was angry, and immediately removing, he came to Ptolemais, and wrote unto Jonathan, that he should not lay siege to the tower, but come and speak with him at Ptolemais in great haste.

1Ma 11:23 Nevertheless Jonathan, when he heard this, commanded to besiege it still: and he chose certain of the elders of Israel and the priests, and put himself in peril;

1Ma 11:24 And took silver and gold, and raiment, and divers presents besides, and went to Ptolemais unto the king, where he found favor in his sight.

1Ma 11:25 And though certain irreverent men of the people had made complaints against him,

1Ma 11:26 Yet the king treated him as his predecessors had done before, and promoted him in the sight of all his friends,

1Ma 11:27 And confirmed him in the high priesthood, and in all the honors that he had before, and gave him preeminence among his chief friends.

1Ma 11:28 Then Jonathan desired the king, that he would make Judea free from tribute, as also the three governments, with the country of Samaria; and he promised him three hundred talents.

1Ma 11:29 So the king consented, and wrote letters unto Jonathan of all these things after this manner:

1Ma 11:30 King Demetrius unto his brother Jonathan, and unto the nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting:

1Ma 11:31 We send you here a copy of the letter which we did write unto our cousin Lasthenes concerning you, that ye might see it.

1Ma 11:32 King Demetrius unto his father Lasthenes sendeth greeting:

1Ma 11:33 We are determined to do good to the people of the Jews, who are our friends, and keep covenants with us, because of their good will toward us.

1Ma 11:34 Wherefore we have ratified unto them the borders of Judea, with the three governments of Apherema and Lydda and Ramathem, that are added unto Judea from the country of Samaria, and all things appertaining unto them, for all such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the payments which the king received of them yearly aforetime out of the fruits of the earth and of trees.

1Ma 11:35 And as for other things that belong unto us, of the tithes and customs pertaining unto us, as also the saltpits, and the crown taxes, which are due unto us, we discharge them of them all for their relief.

1Ma 11:36 And nothing hereof shall be revoked from this time forth forever.

1Ma 11:37 Now therefore see that thou make a copy of these things, and let it be delivered unto Jonathan, and set upon the holy mount in a conspicuous place.

1Ma 11:38 After this, when king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his forces, every one to his own place, except certain bands of strangers, whom he had gathered from the isles of the heathen: wherefore all the forces of his fathers hated him.

1Ma 11:39 Moreover there was one Tryphon, that had been of Alexander's part afore, who, seeing that all the host murmured against Demetrius, went to Simalcue the Arabian that brought up Antiochus the young son of Alexander, 1Ma 11:40 And lay sore upon him to deliver him this young Antiochus, that he might reign in his father's stead: he told him therefore all that Demetrius had done, and how his men of war were at enmity with him, and there he remained a long season.

1Ma 11:41 In the mean time Jonathan sent unto king Demetrius, that he would cast those of the tower out of Jerusalem, and those also in the fortresses: for they fought against Israel.

1Ma 11:42 So Demetrius sent unto Jonathan, saying, I will not only do this for thee and thy people, but I will greatly honor thee and thy nation, if opportunity serve.

1Ma 11:43 Now therefore thou shalt do well, if thou send me men to help me; for all my forces are gone from me.

1Ma 11:44 Upon this Jonathan sent him three thousand strong men unto Antioch: and when they came to the king, the king was very glad of their coming.

1Ma 11:45 Howbeit they that were of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city, to the number of a hundred and twenty thousand men, and would have slain the king.

1Ma 11:46 Wherefore the king fled into the court, but they of the city kept the passages of the city, and began to fight.

1Ma 11:47 Then the king called to the Jews for help, who came unto him all at once, and dispersing themselves through the city slew that day in the city to the number of a hundred thousand.

1Ma 11:48 Also they set fire on the city, and got many spoils that day, and delivered the king.

1Ma 11:49 So when they of the city saw that the Jews had got the city as they would, their courage was abated: wherefore they made supplication to the king, and cried, saying,

1Ma 11:50 Grant us peace, and let the Jews cease from assaulting us and the city.

1Ma 11:51 With that they cast away their weapons, and made peace; and the Jews were honored in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realm; and they returned to Jerusalem, having great spoils.

1Ma 11:52 So king Demetrius sat on the throne of his kingdom, and the land was quiet before him.

1Ma 11:53 Nevertheless he dissembled in all that ever he spake, and estranged himself from Jonathan, neither rewarded he him according to the benefits which he had received of him, but troubled him very sore.

1Ma 11:54 After this returned Tryphon, and with him the young child Antiochus, who reigned, and was crowned.

1Ma 11:55 Then there gathered unto him all the men of war, whom Demetrius had put away, and they fought against Demetrius, who turned his back and fled.

1Ma 11:56 Moreover Tryphon took the elephants, and won Antioch.

1Ma 11:57 At that time young Antiochus wrote unto Jonathan, saying, I confirm thee in the high priesthood, and appoint thee ruler over the four governments, and to be one of the king's friends.

1Ma 11:58 Upon this he sent him golden vessels to be served in, and gave him leave to drink in gold, and to be clothed in purple, and to wear a golden buckle.

1Ma 11:59 His brother Simon also he made captain from the place called The ladder of Tyrus unto the borders of Egypt.

1Ma 11:60 Then Jonathan went forth, and passed through the cities beyond the water, and all the forces of Syria gathered themselves unto him for to help him: and when he came to Ashkelon, they of the city met him honorably.

1Ma 11:61 From whence he went to Gaza, but they of Gaza shut him out; wherefore he laid siege unto it, and burned the suburbs thereof with fire, and spoiled them.

1Ma 11:62 Afterward, when they of Gaza made supplication unto Jonathan, he made peace with them, and took the sons of their chief men for hostages, and sent them to Jerusalem, and passed through the country unto Damascus.

1Ma 11:63 Now when Jonathan heard that Demetrius' princes were come to Cades, which is in Galilee, with a great power, purposing to remove him out of the country,

1Ma 11:64 He went to meet them, and left Simon his brother in the country.

1Ma 11:65 Then Simon encamped against Bethzur and fought against it a long season, and shut it up:

1Ma 11:66 But they desired to have peace with him, which he granted them, and then put them out from thence, and took the city, and set a garrison in it.

1Ma 11:67 As for Jonathan and his host, they pitched at the water of Gennesar, from whence betimes in the morning they got them to the plain of Nasor.

1Ma 11:68 And, behold, the host of strangers met them in the plain, who, having laid men in ambush for him in the mountains, came themselves over against him.

1Ma 11:69 So when they that lay in ambush rose out of their places and joined battle, all that were of Jonathan's side fled;

1Ma 11:70 Insomuch as there was not one of them left, except Mattathias the son of Absalom, and Judas the son of Calphi, the captains of the host.

1Ma 11:71 Then Jonathan rent his clothes, and cast earth upon his head, and prayed.

1Ma 11:72 Afterwards turning again to battle, he put them to flight, and so they ran away.

1Ma 11:73 Now when his own men that were fled saw this, they turned again unto him, and with him pursued them to Cades, even unto their own tents, and there they camped.

1Ma 11:74 So there were slain of the heathen that day about three thousand men: but Jonathan returned to Jerusalem.

1Ma 12:1 Now when Jonathan saw that time served him, he chose certain men, and sent them to Rome, for to confirm and renew the friendship that they had with them.

1Ma 12:2 He sent letters also to the Lacedemonians, and to other places, for the same purpose.

1Ma 12:3 So they went unto Rome, and entered into the senate, and said, Jonathan the high priest, and the people of the Jews, sent us unto you, to the end ye should renew the friendship, which ye had with them, and league, as in former time.

1Ma 12:4 Upon this the Romans gave them letters unto the governors of every place that they should bring them into the land of Judea peaceably.

1Ma 12:5 And this is the copy of the letters which Jonathan wrote to the Lacedemonians:

1Ma 12:6 Jonathan the high priest, and the elders of the nation, and the priests, and the other of the Jews, unto the Lacedemonians their brethren send greeting:

1Ma 12:7 There were letters sent in times past unto Onias the high priest from Darius, who reigned then among you, to signify that ye are our brethren, as the copy here underwritten doth specify.

1Ma 12:8 At which time Onias treated the ambassador that was sent honorably, and received the letters, wherein declaration was made of the league and friendship.

1Ma 12:9 Therefore we also, albeit we need none of these things, that we have the holy books of scripture in our hands to comfort us, 1Ma 12:10 Have nevertheless attempted to send unto you for the renewing of brotherhood and friendship, lest we should become strangers unto you altogether: for there is a long time passed since ye sent unto us.

1Ma 12:11 We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our feasts, and other convenient days, do remember you in the sacrifices which we offer, and in our prayers, as reason is, and as it becometh us to think upon our brethren:

1Ma 12:12 And we are right glad of your honor.

1Ma 12:13 As for ourselves, we have had great troubles and wars on every side, forsomuch as the kings that are round about us have fought against us.

1Ma 12:14 Howbeit we would not be troublesome unto you, nor to others of our confederates and friends, in these wars:

1Ma 12:15 For we have help from heaven that succoureth us, so as we are delivered from our enemies, and our enemies are brought under foot.

1Ma 12:16 For this cause we chose Numenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater the son of Jason, and sent them unto the Romans, to renew the amity that we had with them, and the former league.

1Ma 12:17 We commanded them also to go unto you, and to salute and to deliver you our letters concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

1Ma 12:18 Wherefore now ye shall do well to give us an answer thereto.

1Ma 12:19 And this is the copy of the letters which Oniares sent.

1Ma 12:20 Areus king of the Lacedemonians to Onias the high priest, greeting:

1Ma 12:21 It is found in writing, that the Lacedemonians and Jews are brethren, and that they are of the stock of Abraham:

1Ma 12:22 Now therefore, since this is come to our knowledge, ye shall do well to write unto us of your prosperity.

1Ma 12:23 We do write back again to you, that your cattle and goods are our's, and our's are your's We do command therefore our ambassadors to make report unto you on this wise.

1Ma 12:24 Now when Jonathan heard that Demebius' princes were come to fight against him with a greater host than afore, 1Ma 12:25 He removed from Jerusalem, and met them in the land of Amathis: for he gave them no respite to enter his country.

1Ma 12:26 He sent spies also unto their tents, who came again, and told him that they were appointed to come upon them in the night season.

1Ma 12:27 Wherefore so soon as the sun was down, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in arms, that all the night long they might be ready to fight: also he sent forth sentinels round about the host.

1Ma 12:28 But when the adversaries heard that Jonathan and his men were ready for battle, they feared, and trembled in their hearts, and they kindled fires in their camp.

1Ma 12:29 Howbeit Jonathan and his company knew it not till the morning: for they saw the lights burning.

1Ma 12:30 Then Jonathan pursued after them, but overtook them not: for they were gone over the river Eleutherus.

1Ma 12:31 Wherefore Jonathan turned to the Arabians, who were called Zabadeans, and smote them, and took their spoils.

1Ma 12:32 And removing thence, he came to Damascus, and so passed through all the country,

1Ma 12:33 Simon also went forth, and passed through the country unto Ashkelon, and the holds there adjoining, from whence he turned aside to Joppa, and won it.

1Ma 12:34 For he had heard that they would deliver the hold unto them that took Demetrius' part; wherefore he set a garrison there to keep it.

1Ma 12:35 After this came Jonathan home again, and calling the elders of the people together, he consulted with them about building strongholds in Judea, 1Ma 12:36 And making the walls of Jerusalem higher, and raising a great mount between the tower and the city, for to separate it from the city, that so it might be alone, that men might neither sell nor buy in it.

1Ma 12:37 Upon this they came together to build up the city, forasmuch as part of the wall toward the brook on the east side was fallen down, and they repaired that which was called Caphenatha.

1Ma 12:38 Simon also set up Adida in Sephela, and made it strong with gates and bars.

1Ma 12:39 Now Tryphon went about to get the kingdom of Asia, and to kill Antiochus the king, that he might set the crown upon his own head.

1Ma 12:40 Howbeit he was afraid that Jonathan would not suffer him, and that he would fight against him; wherefore he sought a way how to take Jonathan, that he might kill him. So he removed, and came to Bethshan.

1Ma 12:41 Then Jonathan went out to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for the battle, and came to Bethshan.

1Ma 12:42 Now when Tryphon saw Jonathan came with so great a force, he durst not stretch his hand against him;

1Ma 12:43 But received him honorably, and commended him unto all his friends, and gave him gifts, and commanded his men of war to be as obedient unto him, as to himself.

1Ma 12:44 Unto Jonathan also he said, Why hast thou brought all this people to so great trouble, seeing there is no war betwixt us?

1Ma 12:45 Therefore send them now home again, and choose a few men to wait on thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais, for I will give it thee, and the rest of the strongholds and forces, and all that have any charge: as for me, I will return and depart: for this is the cause of my coming.

1Ma 12:46 So Jonathan believing him did as he bade him, and sent away his host, who went into the land of Judea.

1Ma 12:47 And with himself he retained but three thousand men, of whom he sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with him.

1Ma 12:48 Now as soon as Jonathan entered into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates and took him, and all them that came with him they slew with the sword.

1Ma 12:49 Then sent Tryphon a host of footmen and horsemen into Galilee, and into the great plain, to destroy all Jonathan's company.

1Ma 12:50 But when they knew that Jonathan and they that were with him were taken and slain, they encouraged one another; and went close together, prepared to fight.

1Ma 12:51 They therefore that followed upon them, perceiving that they were ready to fight for their lives, turned back again.

1Ma 12:52 Whereupon they all came into the land of Judea peaceably, and there they bewailed Jonathan, and them that were with him, and they were sore afraid; wherefore all Israel made great lamentation.

1Ma 12:53 Then all the heathen that were round about them sought to destroy them: for said they, They have no captain, nor any to help them: now therefore let us make war upon them, and take away their memorial from among men.

1Ma 13:1 Now when Simon heard that Tryphon had gathered together a great host to invade the land of Judea, and destroy it,

1Ma 13:2 And saw that the people was in great trembling and fear, he went up to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together,

1Ma 13:3 And gave them exhortation, saying, Ye yourselves know what great things I, and my brethren, and my father's house, have done for the laws and the sanctuary, the battles also and troubles which we have seen.

1Ma 13:4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slain for Israel's sake, and I am left alone.

1Ma 13:5 Now therefore be it far from me, that I should spare mine own life in any time of trouble: for I am no better than my brethren.

1Ma 13:6 Doubtless I will avenge my nation, and the sanctuary, and our wives, and our children: for all the heathen are gathered to destroy us of very malice.

1Ma 13:7 Now as soon as the people heard these words, their spirit revived.

1Ma 13:8 And they answered with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt be our leader instead of Judas and Jonathan thy brother!

1Ma 13:9 Fight thou our battles, and whatsoever, thou commandest us, that will we do.

1Ma 13:10 So then he gathered together all the men of war, and made haste to finish the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about.

1Ma 13:11 Also he sent Jonathan the son of Absalom, and with him a great power, to Joppa: who casting out them that were therein remained there in it.

1Ma 13:12 So Tryphon removed from Ptolemaus with a great power to invade the land of Judea, and Jonathan was with him in ward.

1Ma 13:13 But Simon pitched his tents at Adida, over against the plain.

1Ma 13:14 Now when Tryphon knew that Simon was risen up instead of his brother Jonathan, and meant to join battle with him, he sent messengers unto him, saying, 1Ma 13:15 Whereas we have Jonathan thy brother in hold, it is for money that he is owing unto the king's treasure, concerning the business that was committed unto him.

1Ma 13:16 Wherefore now send a hundred talents of silver, and two of his sons for hostages, that when he is at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will let him go.

1Ma 13:17 Hereupon Simon, albeit he perceived that they spake deceitfully unto him yet sent he the money and the children, lest peradventure he should procure to himself great hatred of the people:

1Ma 13:18 Who might have said, Because I sent him not the money and the children, therefore is Jonathan dead.

1Ma 13:19 So he sent them the children and the hundred talents: howbeit Tryphon dissembled neither would he let Jonathan go.

1Ma 13:20 And after this came Tryphon to invade the land, and destroy it, going round about by the way that leadeth unto Adora: but Simon and his host marched against him in every place, wheresoever he went.

1Ma 13:21 Now they that were in the tower sent messengers unto Tryphon, to the end that he should hasten his coming unto them by the wilderness, and send them victuals.

1Ma 13:22 Wherefore Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that night: but there fell a very great snow, by reason whereof he came not. So he departed, and came into the country of Galaad.

1Ma 13:23 And when he came near to Bascama he slew Jonathan, who was buried there.

1Ma 13:24 Afterward Tryphon returned and went into his own land.

1Ma 13:25 Then sent Simon, and took the bones of Jonathan his brother, and buried them in Modin, the city of his fathers.

1Ma 13:26 And all Israel made great lamentation for him, and bewailed him many days.

1Ma 13:27 Simon also built a monument upon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren, and raised it aloft to the sight, with hewn stone behind and before.

1Ma 13:28 Moreover he set up seven pyramids, one against another, for his father, and his mother, and his four brethren.

1Ma 13:29 And in these he made cunning devices, about the which he set great pillars, and upon the pillars he made all their armor for a perpetual memory, and by the armor ships carved, that they might be seen of all that sail on the sea.

1Ma 13:30 This is the sepulchre which he made at Modin, and it standeth yet unto this day.

1Ma 13:31 Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the young king Antiochus, and slew him.

1Ma 13:32 And he reigned in his stead, and crowned himself king of Asia, and brought a great calamity upon the land.

1Ma 13:33 Then Simon built up the strongholds in Judea, and fenced them about with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars, and laid up victuals therein.

1Ma 13:34 Moreover Simon chose men, and sent to king Demetrius, to the end he should give the land an immunity, because all that Tryphon did was to spoil.

1Ma 13:35 Unto whom king Demetrius answered and wrote after this manner:

1Ma 13:36 King Demetrius unto Simon the high priest, and friend of kings, as also unto the elders and nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting:

1Ma 13:37 The golden crown, and the scarlet robe, which ye sent unto us, we have received: and we are ready to make a steadfast peace with you, yea, and to write unto our officers, to confirm the immunities which we have granted.

1Ma 13:38 And whatsoever covenants we have made with you shall stand; and the strongholds, which ye have builded, shall be your own.

1Ma 13:39 As for any oversight or fault committed unto this day, we forgive it, and the crown tax also, which ye owe us: and if there were any other tribute paid in Jerusalem, it shall no more be paid.

1Ma 13:40 And look who are meet among you to be in our court, let them be enrolled, and let there be peace betwixt us.

1Ma 13:41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken away from Israel in the hundred and seventieth year (c. 142 BC).

1Ma 13:42 Then the people of Israel began to write in their instruments and contracts, In the first year of Simon the high priest, the governor and leader of the Jews.

1Ma 13:43 In those days Simon camped against Gaza and besieged it round about; he made also an engine of war, and set it by the city, and battered a certain tower, and took it.

1Ma 13:44 And they that were in the engine leaped into the city; whereupon there was a great uproar in the city:

1Ma 13:45 Insomuch as the people of the city rent their clothes, and climbed upon the walls with their wives and children, and cried with a loud voice, beseeching Simon to grant them peace.

1Ma 13:46 And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickedness, but according to thy mercy.

1Ma 13:47 So Simon was appeased toward them, and fought no more against them, but put them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein the idols were, and so entered into it with songs and thanksgiving.

1Ma 13:48 Yea, he put all uncleanness out of it, and placed such men there as would keep the law, and made it stronger than it was before, and built therein a dwelling place for himself.

1Ma 13:49 They also of the tower in Jerusalem were kept so strait, that they could neither come forth, nor go into the country, nor buy, nor sell: wherefore they were in great distress for want of victuals, and a great number of them perished through famine.

1Ma 13:50 Then cried they to Simon, beseeching him to be at one with them: which thing he granted them; and when he had put them out from thence, he cleansed the tower from pollutions:

1Ma 13:51 And entered into it the three and twentieth day of the second month in the hundred seventy and first year (c. 141 BC), with thanksgiving, and branches of palm trees, and with harps, and cymbals, and with viols, and hymns, and songs: because there was destroyed a great enemy out of Israel.

1Ma 13:52 He ordained also that that day should be kept every year with gladness. Moreover the hill of the temple that was by the tower he made stronger than it was, and there he dwelt himself with his company.

1Ma 13:53 And when Simon saw that John his son was a valiant man, he made him captain of all the hosts; and he dwelt in Gazera.

1Ma 14:1 Now in the hundred threescore and twelfth year (c. 140 BC) king Demetrius gathered his forces together, and went into Media to get him help to fight against Tryphone.

1Ma 14:2 But when Arsaces, the king of Persia and Media, heard that Demetrius was entered within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him alive:

1Ma 14:3 Who went and smote the host of Demetrius, and took him, and brought him to Arsaces, by whom he was put in ward.

1Ma 14:4 As for the land of Judea, that was quiet all the days of Simon; for he sought the good of his nation in such wise, as that evermore his authority and honor pleased them well.

1Ma 14:5 And as he was honorable in all his acts, so in this, that he took Joppa for a haven, and made an entrance to the isles of the sea,

1Ma 14:6 And enlarged the bounds of his nation, and recovered the country,

1Ma 14:7 And gathered together a great number of captives, and had the dominion of Gazera, and Bethzur, and the tower, out of the which he took all uncleaness, neither was there any that resisted him.

1Ma 14:8 Then did they till their ground in peace, and the earth gave her increase, and the trees of the field their fruit.

1Ma 14:9 The ancient men sat all in the streets, communing together of good things, and the young men put on glorious and warlike apparel.

1Ma 14:10 He provided victuals for the cities, and set in them all manner of munition, so that his honorable name was renowned unto the end of the world.

1Ma 14:11 He made peace in the land, and Israel rejoiced with great joy:

1Ma 14:12 For every man sat under his vine and his fig tree, and there was none to fray them:

1Ma 14:13 Neither was there any left in the land to fight against them: yea, the kings themselves were overthrown in those days.

1Ma 14:14 Moreover he strengthened all those of his people that were brought low: the law he searched out; and every contemner of the law and wicked person he took away.

1Ma 14:15 He beautified the sanctuary, and multiplied vessels of the temple.

1Ma 14:16 Now when it was heard at Rome, and as far as Sparta, that Jonathan was dead, they were very sorry.

1Ma 14:17 But as soon as they heard that his brother Simon was made high priest in his stead, and ruled the country, and the cities therein:

1Ma 14:18 They wrote unto him in tables of brass, to renew the friendship and league which they had made with Judas and Jonathan his brethren:

1Ma 14:19 Which writings were read before the congregation at Jerusalem.

1Ma 14:20 And this is the copy of the letters that the Lacedemonians sent; The rulers of the Lacedemonians, with the city, unto Simon the high priest, and the elders, and priests, and residue of the people of the Jews, our brethren, send greeting:

1Ma 14:21 The ambassadors that were sent unto our people certified us of your glory and honor: wherefore we were glad of their coming,

1Ma 14:22 And did register the things that they spake in the council of the people in this manner; Numenius son of Antiochus, and Antipater son of Jason, the Jews' ambassadors, came unto us to renew the friendship they had with us.

1Ma 14:23 And it pleased the people to entertain the men honorably, and to put the copy of their ambassage in public records, to the end the people of the Lacedemonians might have a memorial thereof: furthermore we have written a copy thereof unto Simon the high priest.

1Ma 14:24 After this Simon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of gold of a thousand pound weight to confirm the league with them.

1Ma 14:25 Whereof when the people heard, they said, What thanks shall we give to Simon and his sons?

1Ma 14:26 For he and his brethren and the house of his father have established Israel, and chased away in fight their enemies from them, and confirmed their liberty.

1Ma 14:27 So then they wrote it in tables of brass, which they set upon pillars in mount Zion: and this is the copy of the writing; The eighteenth day of the month Elul, in the hundred threescore and twelfth year (c. 140 BC), being the third year of Simon the high priest, 1Ma 14:28 At Saramel in the great congregation of the priests, and people, and rulers of the nation, and elders of the country, were these things notified unto us.

1Ma 14:29 Forasmuch as oftentimes there have been wars in the country, wherein for the maintenance of their sanctuary, and the law, Simon the son of Mattathias, of the posterity of Jarib, together with his brethren, put themselves in jeopardy, and resisting the enemies of their nation did their nation great honor:

1Ma 14:30 For after that Jonathan, having gathered his nation together, and been their high priest, was added to his people,

1Ma 14:31 Their enemies prepared to invade their country, that they might destroy it, and lay hands on the sanctuary:

1Ma 14:32 At which time Simon rose up, and fought for his nation, and spent much of his own substance, and armed the valiant men of his nation and gave them wages,

1Ma 14:33 And fortified the cities of Judea, together with Bethzur, that lieth upon the borders of Judea, where the armor of the enemies had been before; but he set a garrison of Jews there:

1Ma 14:34 Moreover he fortified Joppa, which lieth upon the sea, and Gazera, that bordereth upon Azotus (Ashdod), where the enemies had dwelt before: but he placed Jews there, and furnished them with all things convenient for the reparation thereof.

1Ma 14:35 The people therefore sang the acts of Simon, and unto what glory he thought to bring his nation, made him their governor and chief priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice and faith which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to exalt his people.

1Ma 14:36 For in his time things prospered in his hands, so that the heathen were taken out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David in Jerusalem, who had made themselves a tower, out of which they issued, and polluted all about the sanctuary, and did much hurt in the holy place:

1Ma 14:37 But he placed Jews therein. and fortified it for the safety of the country and the city, and raised up the walls of Jerusalem.

1Ma 14:38 King Demetrius also confirmed him in the high priesthood according to those things, 1Ma 14:39 And made him one of his friends, and honored him with great honor.

1Ma 14:40 For he had heard say, that the Romans had called the Jews their friends and confederates and brethren; and that they had entertained the ambassadors of Simon honorably;

1Ma 14:41 Also that the Jews and priests were well pleased that Simon should be their governor and high priest forever, until there should arise a faithful prophet;

1Ma 14:42 Moreover that he should be their captain, and should take charge of the sanctuary, to set them over their works, and over the country, and over the armor, and over the fortresses, that, I say, he should take charge of the sanctuary;

1Ma 14:43 Beside this, that he should be obeyed of every man, and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and wear gold:

1Ma 14:44 Also that it should be lawful for none of the people or priests to break any of these things, or to gainsay his words, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or wear a buckle of gold;

1Ma 14:45 And whosoever should do otherwise, or break any of these things, he should be punished.

1Ma 14:46 Thus it liked all the people to deal with Simon, and to do as hath been said.

1Ma 14:47 Then Simon accepted hereof, and was well pleased to be high priest, and captain and governor of the Jews and priests, and to defend them all.

1Ma 14:48 So they commanded that this writing should be put in tables of brass, and that they should be set up within the compass of the sanctuary in a conspicuous place;

1Ma 14:49 Also that the copies thereof should be laid up in the treasury, to the end that Simon and his sons might have them.

1Ma 15:1 Moreover Antiochus son of Demetrius the king sent letters from the isles of the sea unto Simon the priest and prince of the Jews, and to all the people;

1Ma 15:2 The contents whereof were these: King Antiochus to Simon the high priest and prince of his nation, and to the people of the Jews, greeting:

1Ma 15:3 Forasmuch as certain pestilent men have usurped the kingdom of our fathers, and my purpose is to challenge it again, that I may restore it to the old estate, and to that end have gathered a multitude of foreign soldiers together, and prepared ships of war;

1Ma 15:4 My meaning also being to go through the country, that I may be avenged of them that have destroyed it, and made many cities in the kingdom desolate:

1Ma 15:5 Now therefore I confirm unto thee all the oblations which the kings before me granted thee, and whatsoever gifts besides they granted.

1Ma 15:6 I give thee leave also to coin money for thy country with thine own stamp.

1Ma 15:7 And as concerning Jerusalem and the sanctuary, let them be free; and all the armor that thou hast made, and fortresses that thou hast built, and keepest in thine hands, let them remain unto thee.

1Ma 15:8 And if anything be, or shall be, owing to the king, let it be forgiven thee from this time forth forevermore.

1Ma 15:9 Furthermore, when we have obtained our kingdom, we will honor thee, and thy nation, and thy temple, with great honor, so that your honor shall be known throughout the world.

1Ma 15:10 In the hundred threescore and fourteenth year (c. 138 BC) went Antiochus into the land of his fathers: at which time all the forces came together unto him, so that few were left with Tryphon.

1Ma 15:11 Wherefore being pursued by king Antiochus, he fled unto Dora, which lieth by the seaside:

1Ma 15:12 For he saw that troubles came upon him all at once, and that his forces had forsaken him.

1Ma 15:13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora, having with him a hundred and twenty thousand men of war, and eight thousand horsemen.

1Ma 15:14 And when he had compassed the city round about, and joined ships close to the town on the seaside, he vexed the city by land and by sea, neither suffered he any to go out or in.

1Ma 15:15 In the mean season came Numenius and his company from Rome, having letters to the kings and countries; wherein were written these things:

1Ma 15:16 Lucius, consul of the Romans unto king Ptolemy, greeting:

1Ma 15:17 The Jews' ambassadors, our friends and confederates, came unto us to renew the old friendship and league, being sent from Simon the high priest, and from the people of the Jews:

1Ma 15:18 And they brought a shield of gold of a thousand pound.

1Ma 15:19 We thought it good therefore to write unto the kings and countries, that they should do them no harm, nor fight against them, their cities, or countries, nor yet aid their enemies against them.

1Ma 15:20 It seemed also good to us to receive the shield of them.

1Ma 15:21 If therefore there be any pestilent fellows, that have fled from their country unto you, deliver them unto Simon the high priest, that he may punish them according to their own law.

1Ma 15:22 The same things wrote he likewise unto Demetrius the king, and Attalus, to Ariarathes, and Arsaces, 1Ma 15:23 And to all the countries and to Sampsames, and the Lacedemonians, and to Delus, and Myndus, and Sicyon, and Caria, and Samos, and Pamphylia, and Lycia, and Halicarnassus, and Rhodus, and Aradus, and Cos, and Side, and Aradus, and Gortyna, and Cnidus, and Cyprus, and Cyrene.

1Ma 15:24 And the copy hereof they wrote to Simon the high priest.

1Ma 15:25 So Antiochus the king camped against Dora the second day, assaulting it continually, and making engines, by which means he shut up Tryphon, that he could neither go out nor in.

1Ma 15:26 At that time Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to aid him; silver also, and gold, and much armor.

1Ma 15:27 Nevertheless he would not receive them, but brake all the covenants which he had made with him afore, and became strange unto him.

1Ma 15:28 Furthermore he sent unto him Athenobius, one of his friends, to commune with him, and say, Ye withhold Joppa and Gazera; with the tower that is in Jerusalem, which are cities of my realm.

1Ma 15:29 The borders thereof ye have wasted, and done great hurt in the land, and got the dominion of many places within my kingdom.

1Ma 15:30 Now therefore deliver the cities which ye have taken, and the tributes of the places, whereof ye have gotten dominion without the borders of Judea:

1Ma 15:31 Or else give me for them five hundred talents of silver; and for the harm that ye have done, and the tributes of the cities, other five hundred talents: if not, we will come and fight against you.

1Ma 15:32 So Athenobius the king's friend came to Jerusalem: and when he saw the glory of Simon, and the cupboard of gold and silver plate, and his great attendance, he was astonished, and told him the king's message.

1Ma 15:33 Then answered Simon, and said unto him, We have neither taken other men's land, nor holden that which appertaineth to others, but the inheritance of our fathers, which our enemies had wrongfully in possession a certain time.

1Ma 15:34 Wherefore we, having opportunity, hold the inheritance of our fathers.

1Ma 15:35 And whereas thou demandest Joppa and Gazera, albeit they did great harm unto the people in our country, yet will we give thee a hundred talents for them. Hereunto Athenobius answered him not a word;

1Ma 15:36 But returned in a rage to the king, and made report unto him of these speeches, and of the glory of Simon, and of all that he had seen: whereupon the king was exceeding wroth.

1Ma 15:37 In the mean time fled Tryphon by ship unto Orthosias.

1Ma 15:38 Then the king made Cendebeus captain of the sea coast, and gave him a host of footmen and horsemen,

1Ma 15:39 And commanded him to remove his host toward Judea; also he commanded him to build up Cedron, and to fortify the gates, and to war against the people; but as for the king himself, he pursued Tryphon.

1Ma 15:40 So Cendebeus came to Jamnia and began to provoke the people and to invade Judea, and to take the people prisoners, and slay them.

1Ma 15:41 And when he had built up Cedrou, he set horsemen there, and a host of footmen, to the end that issuing out they might make outroads upon the ways of Judea, as the king had commanded him.

1Ma 16:1 Then came up John from Gazera, and told Simon his father what Cendebeus had done.

1Ma 16:2 Wherefore Simon called his two eldest sons, Judas and John, and said unto them, I, and my brethren, and my father's house, have ever from my youth unto this day fought against the enemies of Israel; and things have prospered so well in our hands, that we have delivered Israel oftentimes.

1Ma 16:3 But now I am old, and ye, by Yehowah's mercy, are of a sufficient age: be ye instead of me and my brother, and go and fight for our nation, and the help from heaven be with you.

1Ma 16:4 So he chose out of the country twenty thousand men of war with horsemen, who went out against Cendebeus, and rested that night at Modin.

1Ma 16:5 And when as they rose in the morning, and went into the plain, behold, a mighty great host both of footmen and horsemen came against them: howbeit there was a water brook betwixt them.

1Ma 16:6 So he and his people pitched over against them: and when he saw that the people were afraid to go over the water brook, he went first over himself, and then the men seeing him passed through after him.

1Ma 16:7 That done, he divided his men, and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen: for the enemies' horsemen were very many.

1Ma 16:8 Then sounded they with the holy trumpets: whereupon Cendebeus and his host were put to flight, so that many of them were slain, and the remnant got them to the stronghold.

1Ma 16:9 At that time was Judas John's brother wounded; but John still followed after them, until he came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had built.

1Ma 16:10 So they fled even unto the towers in the fields of Azotus (Ashdod); wherefore he burned it with fire: so that there were slain of them about two thousand men. Afterward he returned into the land of Judea in peace.

1Ma 16:11 Moreover in the plain of Jericho was Ptolemeus the son of Abubus made captain, and he had abundance of silver and gold:

1Ma 16:12 For he was the high priest's son in law.

1Ma 16:13 Wherefore his heart being lifted up, he thought to get the country to himself, and thereupon consulted deceitfully against Simon and his sons to destroy them.

1Ma 16:14 Now Simon was visiting the cities that were in the country, and taking care for the good ordering of them; at which time he came down himself to Jericho with his sons, Mattathias and Judas, in the hundred threescore and seventeenth year (c. 135 BC), in the eleventh month, called Sabat:

1Ma 16:15 Where the son of Abubus receiving them deceitfully into a little hold, called Docus, which he had built, made them a great banquet: howbeit he had hid men there.

1Ma 16:16 So when Simon and his sons had drunk largely, Ptolemy and his men rose up, and took their weapons, and came upon Simon into the banqueting place, and slew him, and his two sons, and certain of his servants.

1Ma 16:17 In which doing he committed a great treachery, and recompensed evil for good.

1Ma 16:18 Then Ptolemy wrote these things, and sent to the king, that he should send him a host to aid him, and he would deliver him the country and cities.

1Ma 16:19 He sent others also to Gazera to kill John: and unto the tribunes he sent letters to come unto him, that he might give them silver, and gold, and rewards.

1Ma 16:20 And others he sent to take Jerusalem, and the mountain of the temple.

1Ma 16:21 Now one had run afore to Gazera and told John that his father and brethren were slain, and, quoth he, Ptolemy hath sent to slay thee also.

1Ma 16:22 Hereof when he heard, he was sore astonished: so he laid hands on them that were come to destroy him, and slew them; for he knew that they sought to take him away.

1Ma 16:23 As concerning the rest of the acts of John, and his wars, and worthy deeds which he did, and the building of the walls which he made, and his doings, 1Ma 16:24 Behold, these are written in the chronicles of his priesthood, from the time he was made high priest after his father.

Book of 2nd Maccabees

2Ma 1:1 The brethren, the Jews that be at Jerusalem and in the land of Judea, wish unto the brethren, the Jews that are throughout Egypt health and peace:

2Ma 1:2 Yehowah be gracious unto you, and remember his covenant that he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, his faithful servants;

2Ma 1:3 And give you all a heart to serve him, and to do his will, with a good courage and a willing mind;

2Ma 1:4 And open your hearts in his law and commandments, and send you peace,

2Ma 1:5 And hear your prayers, and be at one with you, and never forsake you in time of trouble.

2Ma 1:6 And now we be here praying for you.

2Ma 1:7 What time as Demetrius reigned, in the hundred threescore and ninth year (c. 143 BC), we the Jews wrote unto you in the extremity of trouble that came upon us in those years, from the time that Jason and his company revolted from the holy land and kingdom,

2Ma 1:8 And burned the porch, and shed innocent blood: then we prayed unto Yehowah, and were heard; we offered also sacrifices and fine flour, and lighted the lamps, and set forth the loaves.

2Ma 1:9 And now see that ye keep the feast of tabernacles in the month Kislev.

2Ma 1:10 In the hundred fourscore and eighth year (c. 124 BC), the people that were at Jerusalem and in Judea, and the council, and Judas, sent greeting and health unto Aristobulus, king Ptolemeus' master, who was of the stock of the anointed priests, and to the Jews that were in Egypt:

2Ma 1:11 Insomuch as Yehowah hath delivered us from great perils, we thank him highly, as having been in battle against a king.

2Ma 1:12 For he cast them out that fought within the holy city.

2Ma 1:13 For when the leader was come into Persia, and the army with him that seemed invincible, they were slain in the temple of Nanea by the deceit of Nanea's priests.

2Ma 1:14 For Antiochus, as though he would marry her, came into the place, and his friends that were with him, to receive money in name of a dowry.

2Ma 1:15 Which when the priests of Nanea had set forth, and he was entered with a small company into the compass of the temple, they shut the temple as soon as Antiochus was come in:

2Ma 1:16 And opening a privy door of the roof, they threw stones like thunderbolts, and struck down the captain, hewed them in pieces, smote off their heads and cast them to those that were without.

2Ma 1:17 Blessed be our Divine One in all things, who hath delivered up the irreverent.

2Ma 1:18 Therefore whereas we are now purposed to keep the purification of the temple upon the five and twentieth day of the month Kislev, we thought it necessary to certify you thereof, that ye also might keep it, as the feast of the tabernacles, and of the fire, which was given us when Nehemiah offered sacrifice, after that he had builded the temple and the altar.

2Ma 1:19 For when our fathers were led into Persia, the priests that were then devout took the fire of the altar privily, and hid it in a hollow place of a pit without water, where they kept it sure, so that the place was unknown to all men.

2Ma 1:20 Now after many years, when it pleased Yehowah, Nehemiah, being sent from the king of Persia, did send of the posterity of those priests that had hid it to the fire: but when they told us they found no fire, but thick water;

2Ma 1:21 Then commanded he them to draw it up, and to bring it; and when the sacrifices were laid on, Nehemiah commanded the priests to sprinkle the wood and the things laid thereupon with the water.

2Ma 1:22 When this was done, and the time came that the sun shone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a great fire kindled, so that every man marveled.

2Ma 1:23 And the priests made a prayer whilst the sacrifice was consuming, I say, both the priests, and all the rest, Jonathan beginning, and the rest answering thereunto, as Nehemiah did.

2Ma 1:24 And the prayer was after this manner; O Yehowah, Lord Yehowah, Creator of all things, who art fearful and strong, and righteous, and merciful, and the only and gracious King,

2Ma 1:25 The only giver of all things, the only just, almighty, and everlasting, thou that deliverest Israel from all trouble, and didst choose the fathers, and sanctify them:

2Ma 1:26 Receive the sacrifice for thy whole people Israel, and preserve thine own portion, and sanctify it.

2Ma 1:27 Gather those together that are scattered from us, deliver them that serve among the heathen, look upon them that are despised and abhorred, and let the heathen know that thou art our Divine One.

2Ma 1:28 Punish them that oppress us, and with pride do us wrong.

2Ma 1:29 Plant thy people again in thy holy place, as Moses hath spoken.

2Ma 1:30 And the priests sung psalms of thanksgiving.

2Ma 1:31 Now when the sacrifice was consumed, Nehemiah commanded the water that was left to be poured on the great stones.

2Ma 1:32 When this was done, there was kindled a flame: but it was consumed by the light that shined from the altar.

2Ma 1:33 So when this matter was known, it was told the king of Persia, that in the place, where the priests that were led away had hid the fire, there appeared water, and that Nehemiah had purified the sacrifices therewith.

2Ma 1:34 Then the king, enclosing the place, made it holy, after he had tried the matter.

2Ma 1:35 And the king took many gifts, and bestowed thereof on those whom he would gratify.

2Ma 1:36 And Nehemiah called this thing Naphthar, which is as much as to say, a cleansing: but many men call it Nephi.

2Ma 2:1 It is also found in the records, that Jeremiah the prophet commanded them that were carried away to take of the fire, as it hath been signified:

2Ma 2:2 And how that the prophet, having given them the law, charged them not to forget the commandments of Yehowah, and that they should not err in their minds, when they see images of silver and gold, with their ornaments.

2Ma 2:3 And with other such speeches exhorted he them, that the law should not depart from their hearts.

2Ma 2:4 It was also contained in the same writing, that the prophet, being warned of Yehowah, commanded the tabernacle and the ark to go with him, as he went forth into the mountain, where Moses climbed up, and saw the heritage of Yehowah.

2Ma 2:5 And when Jeremiah came thither, he found a hollow cave, wherein he laid the tabernacle, and the ark, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the door.

2Ma 2:6 And some of those that followed him came to mark the way, but they could not find it.

2Ma 2:7 Which when Jeremiah perceived, he blamed them, saying, As for that place, it shall be unknown until the time that Yehowah gather his people again together, and receive them unto mercy.

2Ma 2:8 Then shall Yehowah shew them these things, and the glory of Yehowah shall appear, and the cloud also, as it was shewed under Moses, and as when Solomon desired that the place might be honorably sanctified.

2Ma 2:9 It was also declared, that he being wise offered the sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the temple.

2Ma 2:10 And as when Moses prayed unto Yehowah, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the sacrifices: even so prayed Solomon also, and the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offerings.

2Ma 2:11 And Moses said, Because the sin offering was not to be eaten, it was consumed.

2Ma 2:12 So Solomon kept those eight days.

2Ma 2:13 The same things also were reported in the writings and commentaries of Nehemiah; and how he founding a library gathered together the acts of the kings, and the prophets, and of David, and the epistles of the kings concerning the holy gifts.

2Ma 2:14 In like manner also Judas gathered together all those things that were lost by reason of the war we had, and they remain with us, 2Ma 2:15 Wherefore if ye have need thereof, send some to fetch them unto you.

2Ma 2:16 Whereas we then are about to celebrate the purification, we have written unto you, and ye shall do well, if ye keep the same days.

2Ma 2:17 We hope also, that Yehowah, that delivered all his people, and gave them all a heritage, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the sanctuary,

2Ma 2:18 As he promised in the law, will shortly have mercy upon us, and gather us together out of every land under heaven into the holy place: for he hath delivered us out of great troubles, and hath purified the place.

2Ma 2:19 Now as concerning Judas Maccabeus, and his brethren, and the purification of the great temple, and the dedication of the altar,

2Ma 2:20 And the wars against Antiochus IV Epiphanes, and Eupator his son,

2Ma 2:21 And the manifest signs that came from heaven unto those that behaved themselves manfully to their honor for Judaism: so that, being but a few, they overcame the whole country, and chased barbarous multitudes,

2Ma 2:22 And recovered again the temple renowned all the world over, and freed the city, and upheld the laws which were going down, Yehowah being gracious unto them with all favor:

2Ma 2:23 All these things, I say, being declared by Jason of Cyrene in five books, we will assay to abridge in one volume.

2Ma 2:24 For considering the infinite number, and the difficulty which they find that desire to look into the narrations of the story, for the variety of the matter,

2Ma 2:25 We have been careful, that they that will read may have delight, and that they that are desirous to commit to memory might have ease, and that all into whose hands it comes might have profit.

2Ma 2:26 Therefore to us, that have taken upon us this painful labor of abridging, it was not easy, but a matter of sweat and watching;

2Ma 2:27 Even as it is no ease unto him that prepareth a banquet, and seeketh the benefit of others: yet for the pleasuring of many we will undertake gladly this great pain;

2Ma 2:28 Leaving to the author the exact handling of every particular, and laboring to follow the rules of an abridgment.

2Ma 2:29 For as the master builder of a new house must care for the whole building; but he that undertaketh to set it out, and paint it, must seek out fit things for the adorning thereof: even so I think it is with us.

2Ma 2:30 To stand upon every point, and go over things at large, and to be curious in particulars, belongeth to the first author of the story:

2Ma 2:31 But to use brevity, and avoid much laboring of the work, is to be granted to him that will make an abridgment.

2Ma 2:32 Here then will we begin the story: only adding thus much to that which hath been said, that it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the story itself.

2Ma 3:1 Now when the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the laws were kept very well, because of the reverence of Onias the high priest, and his hatred of wickedness,

2Ma 3:2 It came to pass that even the kings themselves did honor the place, and magnify the temple with their best gifts;

2Ma 3:3 Insomuch that Seleucus of Asia of his own revenues bare all the costs belonging to the service of the sacrifices.

2Ma 3:4 But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin, who was made governor of the temple, fell out with the high priest about disorder in the city.

2Ma 3:5 And when he could not overcome Onias, he got him to Apollonius the son of Thraseas, who then was governor of Celosyria and Phenice,

2Ma 3:6 And told him that the treasury in Jerusalem was full of infinite sums of money, so that the multitude of their riches, which did not pertain to the account of the sacrifices, was innumerable, and that it was possible to bring all into the king's hand.

2Ma 3:7 Now when Apollonius came to the king, and had shewed him of the money whereof he was told, the king chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commandment to bring him the foresaid money.

2Ma 3:8 So forthwith Heliodorus took his journey; under a color of visiting the cities of Celosyria and Phenice, but indeed to fulfill the king's purpose.

2Ma 3:9 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received of the high priest of the city, he told him what intelligence was given of the money, and declared wherefore he came, and asked if these things were so indeed.

2Ma 3:10 Then the high priest told him that there was such money laid up for the relief of widows and fatherless children:

2Ma 3:11 And that some of it belonged to Hircanus son of Tobias, a man of great dignity, and not as that wicked Simon had misinformed: the sum whereof in all was four hundred talents of silver, and two hundred of gold:

2Ma 3:12 And that it was altogether impossible that such wrongs should be done unto them, that had committed it to the holiness of the place, and to the majesty and inviolable sanctity of the temple, honored over all the world.

2Ma 3:13 But Heliodorus, because of the king's commandment given him, said, That in any wise it must be brought into the king's treasury.

2Ma 3:14 So at the day which he appointed he entered in to order this matter: wherefore there was no small agony throughout the whole city.

2Ma 3:15 But the priests, prostrating themselves before the altar in their priests' vestments, called unto heaven upon him that made a law concerning things given to be kept, that they should safely be preserved for such as had committed them to be kept.

2Ma 3:16 Then whoso had looked the high priest in the face, it would have wounded his heart: for his countenance and the changing of his color declared the inward agony of his mind.

2Ma 3:17 For the man was so compassed with fear and horror of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked upon him, what sorrow he had now in his heart.

2Ma 3:18 Others ran flocking out of their houses to the general supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt.

2Ma 3:19 And the women, girt with sackcloth under their breasts, abounded in the streets, and the virgins that were kept in ran, some to the gates, and some to the walls, and others looked out of the windows.

2Ma 3:20 And all, holding their hands toward heaven, made supplication.

2Ma 3:21 Then it would have pitied a man to see the falling down of the multitude of all sorts, and the fear of the high priest being in such an agony.

2Ma 3:22 They then called upon the Almighty Lord to keep the things committed of trust safe and sure for those that had committed them.

2Ma 3:23 Nevertheless Heliodorus executed that which was decreed.

2Ma 3:24 Now as he was there present himself with his guard about the treasury, Yehowah of spirits, and the Prince of all power, caused a great apparition, so that all that presumed to come in with him were astonished at the power of Yehowah, and fainted, and were sore afraid.

2Ma 3:25 For there appeared unto them a horse with a terrible rider upon him, and adorned with a very fair covering, and he ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeet, and it seemed that he that sat upon the horse had complete harness of gold.

2Ma 3:26 Moreover two other young men appeared before him, notable in strength, excellent in beauty, and comely in apparel, who stood by him on either side; and scourged him continually, and gave him many sore stripes.

2Ma 3:27 And Heliodorus fell suddenly unto the ground, and was compassed with great darkness: but they that were with him took him up, and put him into a litter.

2Ma 3:28 Thus him, that lately came with a great train and with all his guard into the said treasury, they carried out, being unable to help himself with his weapons: and manifestly they acknowledged the power of Yehowah.

2Ma 3:29 For he by the hand of Yehowah was cast down, and lay speechless without all hope of life.

2Ma 3:30 But they praised Yehowah, that had miraculously honored his own place: for the temple; which a little afore was full of fear and trouble, when the Almighty Lord appeared, was filled with joy and gladness.

2Ma 3:31 Then straightway certain of Heliodorus' friends prayed Onias, that he would call upon the Most High to grant him his life, who lay ready to give up the ghost.

2Ma 3:32 So the high priest, suspecting lest the king should misconceive that some treachery had been done to Heliodorus by the Jews, offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

2Ma 3:33 Now as the high priest was making an atonement, the same young men in the same clothing appeared and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Give Onias the high priest great thanks, insomuch as for his sake Yehowah hath granted thee life:

2Ma 3:34 And seeing that thou hast been scourged from heaven, declare unto all men the mighty power of Yehowah. And when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more.

2Ma 3:35 So Heliodorus, after he had offered sacrifice unto Yehowah, and made great vows unto him that had saved his life, and saluted Onias, returned with his host to the king.

2Ma 3:36 Then testified he to all men the works of great Yehowah, which he had seen with his eyes.

2Ma 3:37 And when the king Heliodorus, who might be a fit man to be sent yet once again to Jerusalem, he said, 2Ma 3:38 If thou hast any enemy or traitor, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him well scourged, if he escape with his life: for in that place, no doubt; there is an especial power of Yehowah.

2Ma 3:39 For he that dwelleth in heaven hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it; and he beateth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

2Ma 3:40 And the things concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasury, fell out on this sort.

2Ma 4:1 This Simon now, of whom we spake afore, having been a betrayer of the money, and of his country, slandered Onias, as if he had terrified Heliodorus, and been the worker of these evils.

2Ma 4:2 Thus was he bold to call him a traitor, that had deserved well of the city, and tendered his own nation, and was so zealous of the laws.

2Ma 4:3 But when their hatred went so far, that by one of Simon's faction murders were committed,

2Ma 4:4 Onias seeing the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as being the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, did rage, and increase Simon's malice,

2Ma 4:5 He went to the king, not to be an accuser of his countrymen, but seeking the good of all, both public and private:

2Ma 4:6 For he saw that it was impossible that the state should continue quiet, and Simon leave his folly, unless the king did look thereunto.

2Ma 4:7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus IV, called Epiphanes, took the kingdom, Jason the brother of Onias labored underhand to be high priest,

2Ma 4:8 Promising unto the king by intercession three hundred and threescore talents of silver, and of another revenue eighty talents:

2Ma 4:9 Beside this, he promised to assign a hundred and fifty more, if he might have license to set him up a place for exercise, and for the training up of youth in the fashions of the heathen, and to write them of Jerusalem by the name of Antiochians.

2Ma 4:10 Which when the king had granted, and he had gotten into his hand the rule he forthwith brought his own nation to Greekish fashion.

2Ma 4:11 And the royal privileges granted of special favor to the Jews by the means of John the father of Eupolemus, who went ambassador to Rome for amity and aid, he took away; and putting down the governments which were according to the law, he brought up new customs against the law:

2Ma 4:12 For he built gladly a place of exercise under the tower itself, and brought the chief young men under his subjection, and made them wear a hat.

2Ma 4:13 Now such was the height of Greek fashions, and increase of heathenish manners, through the exceeding profaneness of Jason, that irreverent wretch, and no high priest;

2Ma 4:14 That the priests had no courage to serve any more at the altar, but despising the temple, and neglecting the sacrifices, hastened to be partakers of the unlawful allowance in the place of exercise, after the game of Discus called them forth;

2Ma 4:15 Not setting by the honors of their fathers, but liking the glory of the Grecians best of all.

2Ma 4:16 By reason whereof sore calamity came upon them: for they had them to be their enemies and avengers, whose custom they followed so earnestly, and unto whom they desired to be like in all things.

2Ma 4:17 For it is not a light thing to do wickedly against the laws of Yehowah: but the time following shall declare these things.

2Ma 4:18 Now when the game that was used every fourth year was kept at Tyrus, the king being present,

2Ma 4:19 This ungracious Jason sent special messengers from Jerusalem, who were Antiochians, to carry three hundred drachmas of silver to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers thereof thought fit not to bestow upon the sacrifice, because it was not convenient, but to be reserved for other charges.

2Ma 4:20 This money then, in regard of the sender, was appointed to Hercules' sacrifice; but because of the bearers thereof, it was employed to the making of gallies.

2Ma 4:21 Now when Apollonius the son of Menestheus was sent into Egypt for the coronation of king Ptolemeus Philometor, Antiochus, understanding him not to be well affected to his affairs, provided for his own safety: whereupon he came to Joppa, and from thence to Jerusalem:

2Ma 4:22 Where he was honorably received of Jason, and of the city, and was brought in with torch alight, and with great shoutings: and so afterward went with his host unto Phenice.

2Ma 4:23 Three years afterward Jason sent Menelaus, the aforesaid Simon's brother, to bear the money unto the king, and to put him in mind of certain necessary matters.

2Ma 4:24 But he being brought to the presence of the king, when he had magnified him for the glorious appearance of his power, got the priesthood to himself, offering more than Jason by three hundred talents of silver.

2Ma 4:25 So he came with the king's mandate, bringing nothing worthy of the high priesthood, but having the fury of a cruel tyrant, and the rage of a savage beast.

2Ma 4:26 Then Jason, who had undermined his own brother, being undermined by another, was compelled to flee into the country of the Ammonites.

2Ma 4:27 So Menelaus got the principality: but as for the money that he had promised unto the king, he took no good order for it, albeit Sostratis the ruler of the castle required it:

2Ma 4:28 For unto him appertained the gathering of the customs. Wherefore they were both called before the king.

2Ma 4:29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his stead in the priesthood; and Sostratus left Crates, who was governor of the Cyprians.

2Ma 4:30 While those things were in doing, they of Tarsus and Mallos made insurrection, because they were given to the king's concubine, called Antiochus.

2Ma 4:31 Then came the king in all haste to appease matters, leaving Andronicus, a man in authority, for his deputy.

2Ma 4:32 Now Menelaus, supposing that he had gotten a convenient time, stole certain vessels of gold out of the temple, and gave some of them to Andronicus, and some he sold into Tyrus and the cities round about.

2Ma 4:33 Which when Onias knew of a surety, he reproved him, and withdrew himself into a sanctuary at Daphne, that lieth by Antiochia.

2Ma 4:34 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him to get Onias into his hands; who being persuaded thereunto, and coming to Onias in deceit, gave him his right hand with oaths; and though he were suspected by him, yet persuaded he him to come forth of the sanctuary: whom forthwith he shut up without regard of justice.

2Ma 4:35 For the which cause not only the Jews, but many also of other nations, took great indignation, and were much grieved for the unjust murder of the man.

2Ma 4:36 And when the king was come again from the places about Cilicia, the Jews that were in the city, and certain of the Greeks that abhorred the fact also, complained because Onias was slain without cause.

2Ma 4:37 Therefore Antiochus was heartily sorry, and moved to pity, and wept, because of the sober and modest behavior of him that was dead.

2Ma 4:38 And being kindled with anger, forthwith he took away Andronicus his purple, and rent off his clothes, and leading him through the whole city unto that very place, where he had committed impiety against Onias, there slew he the cursed murderer. Thus Yehowah rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserved.

2Ma 4:39 Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by Lysimachus with the consent of Menelaus, and the fruit thereof was spread abroad, the multitude gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, many vessels of gold being already carried away.

2Ma 4:40 Whereupon the common people rising, and being filled with rage, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and began first to offer violence; one Auranus being the leader, a man far gone in years, and no less in folly.

2Ma 4:41 They then seeing the attempt of Lysimachus, some of them caught stones, some clubs, others taking handfuls of dust, that was next at hand, cast them all together upon Lysimachus, and those that set upon them.

2Ma 4:42 Thus many of them they wounded, and some they struck to the ground, and all of them they forced to flee: but as for the church robber himself, him they killed beside the treasury.

2Ma 4:43 Of these matters therefore there was an accusation laid against Menelaus.

2Ma 4:44 Now when the king came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the senate pleaded the cause before him:

2Ma 4:45 But Menelaus, being now convicted, promised Ptolemy the son of Dorymenes to give him much money, if he would pacify the king toward him.

2Ma 4:46 Whereupon Ptolemy taking the king aside into a certain gallery, as it were to take the air, brought him to be of another mind:

2Ma 4:47 Insomuch that he discharged Menelaus from the accusations, who notwithstanding was cause of all the mischief: and those poor men, who, if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, should have been judged innocent, them he condemned to death.

2Ma 4:48 Thus they that followed the matter for the city, and for the people, and for the holy vessels, did soon suffer unjust punishment.

2Ma 4:49 Wherefore even they of Tyrus, moved with hatred of that wicked deed, caused them to be honorably buried.

2Ma 4:50 And so through the covetousness of them that were of power Menelaus remained still in authority, increasing in malice, and being a great traitor to the citizens.

2Ma 5:1 About the same time Antiochus prepared his second voyage into Egypt:

2Ma 5:2 And then it happened, that through all the city, for the space almost of forty days, there were seen horsemen running in the air, in cloth of gold, and armed with lances, like a band of soldiers,

2Ma 5:3 And troops of horsemen in array, encountering and running one against another, with shaking of shields, and multitude of pikes, and drawing of swords, and casting of darts, and glittering of golden ornaments, and harness of all sorts.

2Ma 5:4 Wherefore every man prayed that that apparition might turn to good.

2Ma 5:5 Now when there was gone forth a false rumor, as though Antiochus had been dead, Jason took at the least a thousand men, and suddenly made an assault upon the city; and they that were upon the walls being put back, and the city at length taken, Menelaus fled into the castle:

2Ma 5:6 But Jason slew his own citizens without mercy, not considering that to get the day of them of his own nation would be a most unhappy day for him; but thinking they had been his enemies, and not his countrymen, whom he conquered.

2Ma 5:7 Howbeit for all this he obtained not the principality, but at the last received shame for the reward of his treason, and fled again into the country of the Ammonites.

2Ma 5:8 In the end therefore he had an unhappy return, being accused before Aretas the king of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men, hated as a forsaker of the laws, and being had in abomination as an open enemy of his country and countrymen, he was cast out into Egypt.

2Ma 5:9 Thus he that had driven many out of their country perished in a strange land, retiring to the Lacedemonians, and thinking there to find succor by reason of his kindred:

2Ma 5:10 And he that had cast out many unburied had none to mourn for him, nor any solemn funerals at all, nor sepulchre with his fathers.

2Ma 5:11 Now when this that was done came to the king's ear, he thought that Judea had revolted: whereupon removing out of Egypt in a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms, 2Ma 5:12 And commanded his men of war not to spare such as they met, and to slay such as went up upon the houses.

2Ma 5:13 Thus there was killing of young and old, taking away of men, women, and children, slaying of virgins and infants.

2Ma 5:14 And there were destroyed within the space of three whole days fourscore thousand, whereof forty thousand were slain in the conflict; and no fewer sold than slain.

2Ma 5:15 Yet was he not content with this, but presumed to go into the most holy temple of all the world; Menelaus, that traitor to the laws, and to his own country, being his guide:

2Ma 5:16 And taking the holy vessels with polluted hands, and with profane hands pulling down the things that were dedicated by other kings to the augmentation and glory and honor of the place, he gave them away.

2Ma 5:17 And so haughty was Antiochus in mind, that he considered not that Yehowah was angry for a while for the sins of them that dwelt in the city, and therefore his eye was not upon the place.

2Ma 5:18 For had they not been formerly wrapped in many sins, this man, as soon as he had come, had forthwith been scourged, and put back from his presumption, as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the king sent to view the treasury.

2Ma 5:19 Nevertheless Yehowah did not choose the people for the place's sake, but the place far the people's sake.

2Ma 5:20 And therefore the place itself, that was partaker with them of the adversity that happened to the nation, did afterward communicate in the benefits sent from Yehowah: and as it was forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty, so again, the great Lord being reconciled, it was set up with all glory.

2Ma 5:21 So when Antiochus had carried out of the temple a thousand and eight hundred talents, he departed in all haste unto Antiochia, weening in his pride to make the land navigable, and the sea passable by foot: such was the haughtiness of his mind.

2Ma 5:22 And he left governors to vex the nation: at Jerusalem, Philip, for his country a Phrygian, and for manners more barbarous than he that set him there;

2Ma 5:23 And at Garizim, Andronicus; and besides, Menelaus, who worse than all the rest bare a heavy hand over the citizens, having a malicious mind against his countrymen the Jews.

2Ma 5:24 He sent also that detestable ringleader Apollonius with an army of two and twenty thousand, commanding him to slay all those that were in their best age, and to sell the women and the younger sort:

2Ma 5:25 Who coming to Jerusalem, and pretending peace, did forbear till the holy day of the sabbath, when taking the Jews keeping holy day, he commanded his men to arm themselves.

2Ma 5:26 And so he slew all them that were gone to the celebrating of the sabbath, and running through the city with weapons slew great multitudes.

2Ma 5:27 But Judas Maccabeus with nine others, or thereabout, withdrew himself into the wilderness, and lived in the mountains after the manner of beasts, with his company, who fed on herbs continually, lest they should be partakers of the pollution.

2Ma 6:1 Not long after this the king sent an old man of Athens to compel the Jews to depart from the laws of their fathers, and not to live after the laws of Yehowah:

2Ma 6:2 And to pollute also the temple in Jerusalem, and to call it the temple of Jupiter Olympius; and that in Garizim, of Jupiter the Defender of strangers, as they did desire that dwelt in the place.

2Ma 6:3 The coming in of this mischief was sore and grievous to the people:

2Ma 6:4 For the temple was filled with riot and reveling by the nations, who dallied with harlots, and had to do with women within the circuit of the holy places, and besides that brought in things that were not lawful.

2Ma 6:5 The altar also was filled with profane things, which the law forbiddeth.

2Ma 6:6 Neither was it lawful for a man to keep sabbath days or ancient fasts, or to profess himself at all to be a Jew.

2Ma 6:7 And in the day of the king's birth every month they were brought by bitter constraint to eat of the sacrifices; and when the fast of Bacchus was kept, the Jews were compelled to go in procession to Bacchus, carrying ivy.

2Ma 6:8 Moreover there went out a decree to the neighbor cities of the heathen, by the suggestion of Ptolemy, against the Jews, that they should observe the same fashions, and be partakers of their sacrifices:

2Ma 6:9 And whoso would not conform themselves to the manners of the nations should be put to death. Then might a man have seen the present misery.

2Ma 6:10 For there were two women brought, who had circumcised their children; whom when they had openly led round about the city, the babes nursing at their breasts, they cast them down headlong from the wall.

2Ma 6:11 And others, that had run together into caves near by, to keep the sabbath day secretly, being discovered by Philip, were all burnt together, because they made a conscience to help themselves for the honor of the most sacred day.

2Ma 6:12 Now I beseech those that read this Book, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they judge those punishments not to be for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation.

2Ma 6:13 For it is a token of his great goodness, when wicked doers are not suffered any long time, but forthwith punished.

2Ma 6:14 For not as with other nations, whom Yehowah patiently forbeareth to punish, till they be come to the fulness of their sins, so dealeth he with us,

2Ma 6:15 Lest that, being come to the height of sin, afterwards he should take vengeance of us.

2Ma 6:16 And therefore he never withdraweth his mercy from us: and though he punish with adversity, yet doth he never forsake his people.

2Ma 6:17 But let this that we at spoken be for a warning unto us. And now will we come to the declaring of the matter in a few words.

2Ma 6:18 Eleazar, one of the principal scribes, an aged man, and of a well favored countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and to eat swine's flesh.

2Ma 6:19 But he, choosing rather to die gloriously, than to live stained with such an abomination, spit it forth, and came of his own accord to the torment,

2Ma 6:20 As it behooved them to come, that are resolute to stand out against such things, as are not lawful for love of life to be tasted.

2Ma 6:21 But they that had the charge of that wicked feast, for the old acquaintance they had with the man, taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his own provision, such as was lawful for him to use, and make as if he did eat of the flesh taken from the sacrifice commanded by the king;

2Ma 6:22 That in so doing he might be delivered from death, and for the old friendship with them find favor.

2Ma 6:23 But he began to consider discreetly, and as became his age, and the excellency of his ancient years, and the honor of his gray head, whereon was come, and his most honest education from a child, or rather the holy law made and given by Yehowah: therefore he answered accordingly, and willed them straightway to send him to the grave.

2Ma 6:24 For it becometh not our age, said he, in any wise to dissemble, whereby many young persons might think that Eleazar, being fourscore years old and ten, were now gone to a strange religion;

2Ma 6:25 And so they through mine hypocrisy, and desire to live a little time and a moment longer, should be deceived by me, and I get a stain to mine old age, and make it abominable.

2Ma 6:26 For though for the present time I should be delivered from the punishment of men: yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty, neither alive, nor dead.

2Ma 6:27 Wherefore now, manfully changing this life, I will shew myself such a one as mine age requireth,

2Ma 6:28 And leave a notable example to such as be young to die willingly and courageously for the honorable and holy laws. And when he had said these words, immediately he went to the torment:

2Ma 6:29 They that led him changing the good will they bare him a little before into hatred, because the foresaid speeches proceeded, as they thought, from a desperate mind.

2Ma 6:30 But when he was ready to die with stripes, he groaned, and said, It is manifest unto Yehowah, that hath the holy knowledge, that whereas I might have been delivered from death, I now endure sore pains in body by being beaten: but in soul am well content to suffer these things, because I fear him.

2Ma 6:31 And thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memorial of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation.

2Ma 7:1 It came to pass also, that seven brethren with their mother were taken, and compelled by the king against the law to taste swine's flesh, and were tormented with scourges and whips.

2Ma 7:2 But one of them that spake first said thus, What wouldest thou ask or learn of us? We are ready to die, rather than to transgress the laws of our fathers.

2Ma 7:3 Then the king, being in a rage, commanded pans and caldrons to be made hot:

2Ma 7:4 Which forthwith being heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that spake first, and to cut off the utmost parts of his body, the rest of his brethren and his mother looking on.

2Ma 7:5 Now when he was thus maimed in all his members, he commanded him being yet alive to be brought to the fire, and to be fried in the pan: and as the vapor of the pan was for a good space dispersed, they exhorted one another with the mother to die manfully, saying thus,

2Ma 7:6 Lord Yehowah looketh upon us, and in truth hath comfort in us, as Moses in his song, which witnessed to their faces, declared, saying, And he shall be comforted in his servants.

2Ma 7:7 So when the first was dead after this number, they brought the second to make him a mocking stock: and when they had pulled off the skin of his head with the hair, they asked him, Wilt thou eat, before thou be punished throughout every member of thy body?

2Ma 7:8 But he answered in his own language, and said, No. Wherefore he also received the next torment in order, as the former did.

2Ma 7:9 And when he was at the last gasp, he said, Thou like a fury takest us out of this present life, but the King of the world shall raise us up, who have died for his laws, unto everlasting life.

2Ma 7:10 After him was the third made a mocking stock: and when he was required, he put out his tongue, and that right soon, holding forth his hands manfully.

2Ma 7:11 And said courageously, These I had from heaven; and for his laws I despise them; and from him I hope to receive them again.

2Ma 7:12 Insomuch that the king, and they that were with him, marveled at the young man's courage, for that he nothing regarded the pains.

2Ma 7:13 Now when this man was dead also, they tormented and mangled the fourth in like manner.

2Ma 7:14 So when he was ready to die he said thus, It is good, being put to death by men, to look for hope from Yehowah to be raised up again by him: as for thee, thou shalt have no resurrection to life.

2Ma 7:15 Afterward they brought the fifth also, and mangled him.

2Ma 7:16 Then looked he unto the king, and said, Thou hast power over men, thou art corruptible, thou doest what thou wilt; yet think not that our nation is forsaken of Yehowah;

2Ma 7:17 But abide a while, and behold his great power, how he will torment thee and thy seed.

2Ma 7:18 After him also they brought the sixth, who being ready to die said,

Be not deceived without cause: for we suffer these things for ourselves, having sinned against our Divine One: therefore marvelous things are done unto us.

2Ma 7:19 But think not thou, that takest in hand to strive against Yehowah, that thou shalt escape unpunished.

2Ma 7:20 But the mother was marvelous above all, and worthy of honorable memory: for when she saw her seven sons slain within the space of one day, she bare it with a good courage, because of the hope that she had in Yehowah.

2Ma 7:21 Yea, she exhorted every one of them in her own language, filled with courageous spirits; and stirring up her womanish thoughts with a manly stomach, she said unto them,

2Ma 7:22 I cannot tell how ye came into my womb: for I neither gave you breath nor life, neither was it I that formed the members of every one of you;

2Ma 7:23 But doubtless the Creator of the world, who formed the generation of man, and found out the beginning of all things, will also of his own mercy give you breath and life again, as ye now regard not your own selves for his laws' sake.

2Ma 7:24 Now Antiochus, thinking himself despised, and suspecting it to be a reproachful speech, whilst the youngest was yet alive, did not only exhort him by words, but also assured him with oaths, that he would make him both a rich and a happy man, if he would turn from the laws of his fathers; and that also he would take him for his friend, and trust him with affairs.

2Ma 7:25 But when the young man would in no case hearken unto him, the king called his mother, and exhorted her that she would counsel the young man to save his life.

2Ma 7:26 And when he had exhorted her with many words, she promised him that she would counsel her son.

2Ma 7:27 But she bowing herself toward him, laughing the cruel tyrant to scorn, spake in her country language on this manner; O my son, have pity upon me that bare thee nine months in my womb, and gave thee such three years, and nourished thee, and brought thee up unto this age, and endured the troubles of education.

2Ma 7:28 I beseech thee, my son, look upon the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, and consider that Yehowah made them of things that were not; and so was mankind made likewise.

2Ma 7:29 Fear not this tormentor, but, being worthy of thy brethren, take thy death that I may receive thee again in mercy with thy brethren.

2Ma 7:30 Whiles she was yet speaking these words, the young man said, Whom wait ye for? I will not obey the king's commandment: but I will obey the commandment of the law that was given unto our fathers by Moses.

2Ma 7:31 And thou, that hast been the author of all mischief against the Hebrews, shalt not escape the hands of Yehowah.

2Ma 7:32 For we suffer because of our sins.

2Ma 7:33 And though the living Lord be angry with us a little while for our chastening and correction, yet shall he be at one again with his servants.

2Ma 7:34 But thou, O irreverent man, and of all other most wicked, be not lifted up without a cause, nor puffed up with uncertain hopes, lifting up thy hand against the servants of Yehowah:

2Ma 7:35 For thou hast not yet escaped the judgment of Almighty Yehowah, who seeth all things.

2Ma 7:36 For our brethren, who now have suffered a short pain, are dead under Yehowah's covenant of everlasting life: but thou, through the judgment of Yehowah, shalt receive just punishment for thy pride.

2Ma 7:37 But I, as my brethren, offer up my body and life for the laws of our fathers, beseeching Yehowah that he would speedily be merciful unto our nation; and that thou by torments and plagues mayest confess, that he alone is Yehowah;

2Ma 7:38 And that in me and my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which is justly brought upon our nation, may cease.

2Ma 7:39 Than the king being in a rage, handed him worse than all the rest, and took it grievously that he was mocked.

2Ma 7:40 So this man died undefiled, and put his whole trust in Yehowah.

2Ma 7:41 Last of all after the sons the mother died.

2Ma 7:42 Let this be enough now to have spoken concerning the idolatrous feasts, and the extreme tortures.

2Ma 8:1 Then Judas Maccabeus, and they that were with him, went privily into the towns, and called their kinsfolk together, and took unto them all such as continued in the Jews' religion, and assembled about six thousand men.

2Ma 8:2 And they called upon Yehowah, that he would look upon the people that was trodden down of all; and also pity the temple profaned of irreverent men;

2Ma 8:3 And that he would have compassion upon the city, sore defaced, and ready to be made even with the ground; and hear the blood that cried unto him,

2Ma 8:4 And remember the wicked slaughter of harmless infants, and the blasphemies committed against his name; and that he would shew his hatred against the wicked.

2Ma 8:5 Now when Maccabeus had his company about him, he could not be withstood by the heathen: for the wrath of Yehowah was turned into mercy.

2Ma 8:6 Therefore he came at unawares, and burnt up towns and cities, and got into his hands the most commodious places, and overcame and put to flight no small number of his enemies.

2Ma 8:7 But specially took he advantage of the night for such privy attempts, insomuch that the fruit of his holiness was spread everywhere.

2Ma 8:8 So when Philip saw that this man increased by little and little, and that things prospered with him still more and more, he wrote unto Ptolemeus, the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, to yield more aid to the king's affairs.

2Ma 8:9 Then forthwith choosing Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of his special friends, he sent him with no fewer than twenty thousand of all nations under him, to root out the whole generation of the Jews; and with him he joined also Gorgias a captain, who in matters of war had great experience.

2Ma 8:10 So Nicanor undertook to make so much money of the captive Jews, as should defray the tribute of two thousand talents, which the king was to pay to the Romans.

2Ma 8:11 Wherefore immediately he sent to the cities upon the sea coast, proclaiming a sale of the captive Jews, and promising that they should have fourscore and ten bodies for one talent, not expecting the vengeance that was to follow upon him from Almighty Yehowah.

2Ma 8:12 Now when word was brought unto Judas of Nicanor's coming, and he had imparted unto those that were with him that the army was at hand, 2Ma 8:13 They that were fearful, and distrusted the justice of Yehowah, fled, and conveyed themselves away.

2Ma 8:14 Others sold all that they had left, and withal besought Yehowah to deliver them, sold by the wicked Nicanor before they met together:

2Ma 8:15 And if not for their own sakes, yet for the covenants he had made with their fathers, and for his holy and glorious name's sake, by which they were called.

2Ma 8:16 So Maccabeus called his men together unto the number of six thousand, and exhorted them not to be stricken with terror of the enemy, nor to fear the great multitude of the heathen, who came wrongly against them; but to fight manfully,

2Ma 8:17 And to set before their eyes the injury that they had unjustly done to the holy place, and the cruel handling of the city, whereof they made a mockery, and also the taking away of the government of their forefathers:

2Ma 8:18 For they, said he, trust in their weapons and boldness; but our confidence is in the Almighty who at a beck can cast down both them that come against us, and also all the world.

2Ma 8:19 Moreover, he recounted unto them what helps their forefathers had found, and how they were delivered, when under Sennacherib a hundred fourscore and five thousand perished.

2Ma 8:20 And he told them of the battle that they had in Babylon with the Galatians, how they came but eight thousand in all to the business, with four thousand Macedonians, and that the Macedonians being perplexed, the eight thousand destroyed a hundred and twenty thousand because of the help that they had from heaven, and so received a great booty.

2Ma 8:21 Thus when he had made them bold with these words, and ready to die for the law and the country, he divided his army into four parts;

2Ma 8:22 And joined with himself his own brethren, leaders of each band, to wit Simon, and Joseph, and Jonathan, giving each one fifteen hundred men.

2Ma 8:23 Also he appointed Eleazar to read the holy Book: and when he had given them this watchword, The help of Yehowah; himself leading the first band,

2Ma 8:24 And by the help of the Almighty they slew above nine thousand of their enemies, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanor's host, and so put all to flight;

2Ma 8:25 And took their money that came to buy them, and pursued them far: but lacking time they returned:

2Ma 8:26 For it was the day before the sabbath, and therefore they would no longer pursue them.

2Ma 8:27 So when they had gathered their armor together, and spoiled their enemies, they occupied themselves about the sabbath, yielding exceeding praise and thanks to Yehowah, who had preserved them unto that day, which was the beginning of mercy distilling upon them.

2Ma 8:28 And after the sabbath, when they had given part of the spoils to the maimed, and the widows, and orphans, the residue they divided among themselves and their servants.

2Ma 8:29 When this was done, and they had made a common supplication, they besought the merciful Lord to be reconciled with his servants forever.

2Ma 8:30 Moreover of those that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, who fought against them, they slew above twenty thousand, and very easily got high and strongholds, and divided among themselves many spoils more, and made the maimed, orphans, widows, yea, and the aged also, equal in spoils with themselves.

2Ma 8:31 And when they had gathered their armor together, they laid them up all carefully in convenient places, and the remnant of the spoils they brought to Jerusalem.

2Ma 8:32 They slew also Philarches, that wicked person, who was with Timotheus, and had annoyed the Jews many ways.

2Ma 8:33 Furthermore at such time as they kept the feast for the victory in their country they burnt Callisthenes, that had set fire upon the holy gates, who had fled into a little house; and so he received a reward meet for his wickedness.

2Ma 8:34 As for that most ungracious Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants to buy the Jews, 2Ma 8:35 He was through the help of Yehowah brought down by them, of whom he made least account; and putting off his glorious apparel, and discharging his company, he came like a fugitive servant through the midland unto Antioch having very great dishonor, for that his host was destroyed.

2Ma 8:36 Thus he, that took upon him to make good to the Romans their tribute by means of captives in Jerusalem, told abroad, that the Jews had Yehowah to fight for them, and therefore they could not be hurt, because they followed the laws that he gave them.

2Ma 9:1 About that time came Antiochus with dishonor out of the country of Persia, 2Ma 9:2 for he had entered the city called Persepolis, and went about to rob the temple, and to hold the city; whereupon the multitude running to defend themselves with their weapons put them to flight; and so it happened, that Antiochus being put to flight of the inhabitants returned with shame.

2Ma 9:3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, news was brought him what had happened unto Nicanor and Timotheus.

2Ma 9:4 Then swelling with anger, he thought to avenge upon the Jews the disgrace done unto him by those that made him flee. Therefore commanded he his chariotman to drive without ceasing, and to dispatch the journey, the judgment of Yehowah now following him. For he had spoken proudly in this sort, That he would come to Jerusalem and make it a common burying place of the Jews.

2Ma 9:5 But Yehowah Almighty, the Mighty One of Israel, smote him with an incurable and invisible plague: or as soon as he had spoken these words, a pain of the bowels that was remediless came upon him, and sore torments of the inner parts;

2Ma 9:6 And that most justly: for he had tormented other men's bowels with many and strange torments.

2Ma 9:7 Howbeit he nothing at all ceased from his bragging, but still was filled with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Jews, and commanding to haste the journey: but it came to pass that he fell down from his chariot, carried violently; so that having a sore fall, all the members of his body were much pained.

2Ma 9:8 And thus he that a little afore thought he might command the waves of the sea, (so proud was he beyond the condition of man) and weigh the high mountains in a balance, was now cast on the ground, and carried in a horse litter, shewing forth unto all the manifest power of Yehowah.

2Ma 9:9 So that the worms rose up out of the body of this wicked man, and while he lived in sorrow and pain, his flesh fell away, and the filthiness of his smell was noisome to all his army.

2Ma 9:10 And the man, that thought a little afore he could reach to the stars of heaven, no man could endure to carry for his intolerable stink.

2Ma 9:11 Here therefore, being plagued, he began to leave off his great pride, and to come to the knowledge of himself by the scourge of Yehowah, his pain increasing every moment.

2Ma 9:12 And when he himself could not abide his own smell, he said these words, It is meet to be subject unto Yehowah, and that a man that is mortal should not proudly think of himself as if he were Yehowah.

2Ma 9:13 This wicked person vowed also unto Yehowah, who now no more would have mercy upon him, saying thus,

2Ma 9:14 That the holy city (to the which he was going in haste to lay it even with the ground, and to make it a common burying place,) he would set at liberty:

2Ma 9:15 And as touching the Jews, whom he had judged not worthy so much as to be buried, but to be cast out with their children to be devoured of the fowls and wild beasts, he would make them all equals to the citizens of Athens:

2Ma 9:16 And the holy temple, which before he had spoiled, he would garnish with goodly gifts, and restore all the holy vessels with many more, and out of his own revenue defray the charges belonging to the sacrifices:

2Ma 9:17 Yea, and that also he would become a Jew himself, and go through all the world that was inhabited, and declare the power of Yehowah.

2Ma 9:18 But for all this his pains would not cease: for the just judgment of Yehowah was come upon him: therefore despairing of his health, he wrote unto the Jews the letter underwritten, containing the form of a supplication, after this manner:

2Ma 9:19 Antiochus, king and governor, to the good Jews his citizens wisheth much joy, health, and prosperity:

2Ma 9:20 If ye and your children fare well, and your affairs be to your contentment, I give very great thanks to Yehowah, having my hope in heaven.

2Ma 9:21 As for me, I was weak, or else I would have remembered kindly your honor and good will returning out of Persia, and being taken with a grievous disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all:

2Ma 9:22 Not distrusting mine health, but having great hope to escape this sickness.

2Ma 9:23 But considering that even my father, at what time he led an army into the high countries, appointed a successor,

2Ma 9:24 To the end that, if anything fell out contrary to expectation, or if any tidings were brought that were grievous, they of the land, knowing to whom the state was left, might not be troubled:

2Ma 9:25 Again, considering how that the princes that are borderers and neighbors unto my kingdom wait for opportunities, and expect what shall be the event. I have appointed my son Antiochus king, whom I often committed and commended unto many of you, when I went up into the high provinces; to whom I have written as followeth:

2Ma 9:26 Therefore I pray and request you to remember the benefits that I have done unto you generally, and in special, and that every man will be still faithful to me and my son.

2Ma 9:27 For I am persuaded that he understanding my mind will favorably and graciously yield to your desires.

2Ma 9:28 Thus the murderer and blasphemer having suffered most grievously, as he treated other men, so died he a miserable death in a foreign country in the mountains.

2Ma 9:29 And Philip, that was brought up with him, carried away his body, who also fearing the son of Antiochus went into Egypt to Ptolemeus Philometor.

2Ma 10:1 Now Maccabeus and his company, Yehowah guiding them, recovered the temple and the city:

2Ma 10:2 But the altars which the heathen had built in the open street, and also the chapels, they pulled down.

2Ma 10:3 And having cleansed the temple they made another altar, and striking stones they took fire out of them, and offered a sacrifice after two years, and set forth incense, and lights, and shewbread.

2Ma 10:4 When that was done, they fell flat down, and besought Yehowah that they might come no more into such troubles; but if they sinned any more against him, that he himself would chasten them with mercy, and that they might not be delivered unto the blasphemous and barbarous nations.

2Ma 10:5 Now upon the same day that the strangers profaned the temple, on the very same day it was cleansed again, even the five and twentieth day of the same month, which is Kislev.

2Ma 10:6 And they kept the eight days with gladness, as in the feast of the tabernacles, remembering that not long afore they had held the feast of the tabernacles, when as they wandered in the mountains and dens like beasts.

2Ma 10:7 Therefore they bare branches, and fair boughs, and palms also, and sang psalms unto him that had given them good success in cleansing his place.

2Ma 10:8 They ordained also by a common statute and decree, That every year those days should be kept of the whole nation of the Jews.

2Ma 10:9 And this was the end of Antiochus IV, called Epiphanes.

2Ma 10:10 Now will we declare the acts of Antiochus V Eupator, who was the son of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the wars.

2Ma 10:11 So when he was come to the crown, he set one Lysias over the affairs of his realm, and appointed him his chief governor of Celosyria and Phenice.

2Ma 10:12 For Ptolemeus, that was called Macron, choosing rather to do justice unto the Jews for the wrong that had been done unto them, endeavored to continue peace with them.

2Ma 10:13 Whereupon being accused of the king's friends before Eupator, and called traitor at every word because he had left Cyprus, that Philometor had committed unto him, and departed to Antiochus IV Epiphanes, and seeing that he was in no honorable place, he was so discouraged, that he poisoned himself and died.

2Ma 10:14 But when Gorgias was governor of the holds, he hired soldiers, and nourished war continually with the Jews:

2Ma 10:15 And therewith all the Idumeans, having gotten into their hands the most commodious holds, kept the Jews occupied, and receiving those that were banished from Jerusalem, they went about to nourish war.

2Ma 10:16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made supplication, and besought Yehowah that he would be their helper; and so they ran with violence upon the strongholds of the Idumeans, 2Ma 10:17 And assaulting them strongly, they won the holds, and kept off all that fought upon the wall, and slew all that fell into their hands, and killed no fewer than twenty thousand.

2Ma 10:18 And because certain, who were no less than nine thousand, were fled together into two very strong castles, having all manner of things convenient to sustain the siege,

2Ma 10:19 Maccabeus left Simon and Joseph, and Zaccheus also, and them that were with him, who were enough to besiege them, and departed himself unto those places which more needed his help.

2Ma 10:20 Now they that were with Simon, being led with covetousness, were persuaded for money through certain of those that were in the castle, and took seventy thousand drachmas, and let some of them escape.

2Ma 10:21 But when it was told Maccabeus what was done, he called the governors of the people together, and accused those men, that they had sold their brethren for money, and set their enemies free to fight against them.

2Ma 10:22 So he slew those that were found traitors, and immediately took the two castles.

2Ma 10:23 And having good success with his weapons in all things he took in hand, he slew in the two holds more than twenty thousand.

2Ma 10:24 Now Timotheus, whom the Jews had overcome before, when he had gathered a great multitude of foreign forces, and horses out of Asia not a few, came as though he would take Jewry by force of arms.

2Ma 10:25 But when he drew near, they that were with Maccabeus turned themselves to pray unto Yehowah, and sprinkled earth upon their heads, and girded their loins with sackcloth, 2Ma 10:26 And fell down at the foot of the altar, and besought him to be merciful to them, and to be an enemy to their enemies, and an adversary to their adversaries, as the law declareth.

2Ma 10:27 So after the prayer they took their weapons, and went on further from the city: and when they drew near to their enemies, they kept by themselves.

2Ma 10:28 Now the sun being newly risen, they joined both together; the one part having together with their virtue their refuge also unto Yehowah for a pledge of their success and victory: the other side making their rage leader of their battle

2Ma 10:29 But when the battle waxed strong, there appeared unto the enemies from heaven five comely men upon horses, with bridles of gold, and two of them led the Jews,

2Ma 10:30 And took Maccabeus betwixt them, and covered him on every side with weapons, and kept him safe, but shot arrows and lightnings against the enemies: so that being confounded with blindness, and full of trouble, they were killed.

2Ma 10:31 And there were slain of footmen twenty thousand and five hundred, and six hundred horsemen.

2Ma 10:32 As for Timotheus himself, he fled into a very stronghold, called Gawra, where Chereas was governor.

2Ma 10:33 But they that were with Maccabeus laid siege against the fortress courageously four days.

2Ma 10:34 And they that were within, trusting to the strength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and uttered wicked words.

2Ma 10:35 Nevertheless upon the fifth day early twenty young men of Maccabeus' company, inflamed with anger because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall manly, and with a fierce courage killed all that they met withal.

2Ma 10:36 Others likewise ascending after them, while they were busied with them that were within, burnt the towers, and kindling fires burnt the blasphemers alive; and others broke open the gates, and, having received in the rest of the army, took the city,

2Ma 10:37 And killed Timotheus, that was hid in a certain pit, and Chereas his brother, with Apollophanes.

2Ma 10:38 When this was done, they praised Yehowah with psalms and thanksgiving, who had done so great things for Israel, and given them the victory.

2Ma 11:1 Not long after, Lysias the king's protector and cousin, who also managed the affairs, took sore displeasure for the things that were done.

2Ma 11:2 And when he had gathered about fourscore thousand with all the horsemen, he came against the Jews, thinking to make the city a habitation of the nations,

2Ma 11:3 And to make a gain of the temple, as of the other chapels of the heathen, and to set the high priesthood to sale every year:

2Ma 11:4 Not at all considering the power of Yehowah but puffed up with his ten thousands of footmen, and his thousands of horsemen, and his fourscore elephants.

2Ma 11:5 So he came to Judea, and drew near to Bethzur, which was a strong town, but distant from Jerusalem about five furlongs, and he laid sore siege unto it.

2Ma 11:6 Now when they that were with Maccabeus heard that he besieged the holds, they and all the people with lamentation and tears besought Yehowah that he would send a good angel to deliver Israel.

2Ma 11:7 Then Maccabeus himself first of all took weapons, exhorting the others that they would jeopardize themselves together with him to help their brethren: so they went forth together with a willing mind.

2Ma 11:8 And as they were at Jerusalem, there appeared before them on horseback one in white clothing, shaking his armor of gold.

2Ma 11:9 Then they praised merciful Yehowah all together, and took heart, insomuch that they were ready not only to fight with men, but with most cruel beasts, and to pierce through walls of iron.

2Ma 11:10 Thus they marched forward in their armor, having a helper from heaven: for Yehowah was merciful unto them

2Ma 11:11 And giving a charge upon their enemies like lions, they slew eleven thousand footmen, and sixteen hundred horsemen, and put all the others to flight.

2Ma 11:12 Many of them also being wounded escaped naked; and Lysias himself fled away shamefully, and so escaped.

2Ma 11:13 Who, as he was a man of understanding, casting with himself what loss he had had, and considering that the Hebrews could not be overcome, because Almighty Yehowah helped them, he sent unto them,

2Ma 11:14 And persuaded them to agree to all reasonable conditions, and promised that he would persuade the king that he must needs be a friend unto them.

2Ma 11:15 Then Maccabeus consented to all that Lysias desired, being careful of the common good; and whatsoever Maccabeus wrote unto Lysias concerning the Jews, the king granted it.

2Ma 11:16 For there were letters written unto the Jews from Lysias to this effect: Lysias unto the people of the Jews sendeth greeting:

2Ma 11:17 John and Absalom, who were sent from you, delivered me the petition subscribed, and made request for the performance of the contents thereof.

2Ma 11:18 Therefore what things soever were meet to be reported to the king, I have declared them, and he hath granted as much as might be.

2Ma 11:19 And if then ye will keep yourselves loyal to the State, hereafter also will I endeavor to be a means of your good.

2Ma 11:20 But of the particulars I have given order both to these and the others that came from me, to commune with you.

2Ma 11:21 Fare ye well. The hundred and eight and fortieth year (c. 164 BC), the four and twentieth day of the month Dioscorinthius.

2Ma 11:22 Now the king's letter contained these words: King Antiochus unto his brother Lysias sendeth greeting:

2Ma 11:23 Since our father is translated unto the deities, our will is, that they that are in our realm live quietly, that every one may attend upon his own affairs.

2Ma 11:24 We understand also that the Jews would not consent to our father, for to be brought unto the custom of the nations, but had rather keep their own manner of living: for the which cause they require of us, that we should suffer them to live after their own laws.

2Ma 11:25 Wherefore our mind is, that this nation shall be in rest, and we have determined to restore them their temple, that they may live according to the customs of their forefathers.

2Ma 11:26 Thou shalt do well therefore to send unto them, and grant them peace, that when they are certified of our mind, they may be of good comfort, and ever go cheerfully about their own affairs.

2Ma 11:27 And the letter of the king unto the nation of the Jews was after this manner: King Antiochus sendeth greeting unto the council, and the rest of the Jews:

2Ma 11:28 If ye fare well, we have our desire; we are also in good health.

2Ma 11:29 Menelaus declared unto us, that your desire was to return home, and to follow your own business:

2Ma 11:30 Wherefore they that will depart shall have safe conduct till the thirtieth day of Xanthicus with security.

2Ma 11:31 And the Jews shall use their own kind of meats and laws, as before; and none of them any manner of ways shall be molested for things ignorantly done.

2Ma 11:32 I have sent also Menelaus, that he may comfort you.

2Ma 11:33 Fare ye well. In the hundred forty and eighth year (c. 164 BC), and the fifteenth day of the month Xanthicus.

2Ma 11:34 The Romans also sent unto them a letter containing these words: Quintus Memmius and Titus Manlius, ambassadors of the Romans, send greeting unto the people of the Jews.

2Ma 11:35 Whatsoever Lysias the king's cousin hath granted, therewith we also are well pleased.

2Ma 11:36 But touching such things as he judged to be referred to the king, after ye have advised thereof, send one forthwith, that we may declare as it is convenient for you: for we are now going to Antioch.

2Ma 11:37 Therefore send some with speed, that we may know what is your mind.

2Ma 11:38 Farewell. This hundred and eight and fortieth year (c. 164 BC), the fifteenth day of the month Xanthicus.

2Ma 12:1 When these covenants were made, Lysias went unto the king, and the Jews were about their husbandry.

2Ma 12:2 But of the governors of several places, Timotheus, and Apollonius the son of Genneus, also Hieronymus, and Demophon, and beside them Nicanor the governor of Cyprus, would not suffer them to be quiet and live in peace.

2Ma 12:3 The men of Joppa also did such an irreverent deed: they prayed the Jews that dwelt among them to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had prepared, as though they had meant them no hurt.

2Ma 12:4 Who accepted of it according to the common decree of the city, as being desirous to live in peace, and suspecting nothing: but when they were gone forth into the deep, they drowned no less than two hundred of them.

2Ma 12:5 When Judas heard of this cruelty done unto his countrymen, he commanded those that were with him to make them ready.

2Ma 12:6 And calling upon Yehowah the righteous Judge, he came against those murderers of his brethren, and burnt the haven by night, and set the boats on fire, and those that fled thither he slew.

2Ma 12:7 And when the town was shut up, he went backward, as if he would return to root out all them of the city of Joppa.

2Ma 12:8 But when he heard that the Jamnites were minded to do in like manner unto the Jews that dwelt among them,

2Ma 12:9 He came upon the Jamnites also by night, and set fire on the haven and the navy, so that the light of the fire was seen at Jerusalem two hundred and forty furlongs off.

2Ma 12:10 Now when they were gone from thence nine furlongs in their journey toward Timotheus, no fewer than five thousand men on foot and five hundred horsemen of the Arabians set upon him.

2Ma 12:11 Whereupon there was a very sore battle; but Judas' side by the help of Yehowah got the victory; so that the Nomades of Arabia, being overcome, besought Judas for peace, promising both to give him cattle, and to pleasure him otherwise.

2Ma 12:12 Then Judas, thinking indeed that they would be profitable in many things, granted them peace: whereupon they shook hands, and so they departed to their tents.

2Ma 12:13 He went also about to make a bridge to a certain strong city, which was fenced about with walls, and inhabited by people of divers countries; and the name of it was Caspis.

2Ma 12:14 But they that were within it put such trust in the strength of the walls and provision of victuals, that they behaved themselves rudely toward them that were with Judas, railing and blaspheming, and uttering such words as were not to be spoken.

2Ma 12:15 Wherefore Judas with his company, calling upon the great Lord of the world, who without rams or engines of war did cast down Jericho in the time of Joshua, gave a fierce assault against the walls,

2Ma 12:16 And took the city by the will of Yehowah, and made unspeakable slaughters, insomuch that a lake two furlongs broad near adjoining thereunto, being filled full, was seen running with blood.

2Ma 12:17 Then departed they from thence seven hundred and fifty furlongs, and came to Characa unto the Jews that are called Tubieni.

2Ma 12:18 But as for Timotheus, they found him not in the places: for before he had dispatched anything, he departed from thence, having left a very strong garrison in a certain hold.

2Ma 12:19 Howbeit Dositheus and Sosipater, who were of Maccabeus' captains, went forth, and slew those that Timotheus had left in the fortress, above ten thousand men.

2Ma 12:20 And Maccabeus ranged his army by bands, and set them over the bands, and went against Timotheus, who had about him a hundred and twenty thousand men of foot, and two thousand and five hundred horsemen.

2Ma 12:21 Now when Timotheus had knowledge of Judas' coming, he sent the women and children and the other baggage unto a fortress called Carnion: for the town was hard to besiege, and uneasy to come unto, by reason of the straitness of all the places.

2Ma 12:22 But when Judas and his first band came in sight, the enemies, being smitten with fear and terror through the appearing of him who seeth all things, fled amain, one running into this way, another that way, so as that they were often hurt of their own men, and wounded with the points of their own swords.

2Ma 12:23 Judas also was very earnest in pursuing them, killing those wicked wretches, of whom he slew about thirty thousand men.

2Ma 12:24 Moreover Timotheus himself fell into the hands of Dositheus and Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let him go with his life, because he had many of the Jews' parents, and the brethren of some of them, who, if they put him to death, should not be regarded.

2Ma 12:25 So when he had assured them with many words that he would restore them without hurt, according to the agreement, they let him go for the saving of their brethren.

2Ma 12:26 Then Maccabeus marched forth to Carnion, and to the temple of Atargatis, and there he slew five and twenty thousand persons.

2Ma 12:27 And after he had put to flight and destroyed them, Judas removed the host toward Ephron, a strong city, wherein Lysias abode, and a great multitude of divers nations, and the strong young men kept the walls, and defended them mightily: wherein also was great provision of engines and darts.

2Ma 12:28 But when Judas and his company had called upon Almighty Yehowah, who with his power breaketh the strength of his enemies, they won the city, and slew twenty and five thousand of them that were within,

2Ma 12:29 From thence they departed to Scythopolis, which lieth six hundred furlongs from Jerusalem,

2Ma 12:30 But when the Jews that dwelt there had testified that the Scythopolitans dealt lovingly with them, and treated them kindly in the time of their adversity, 2Ma 12:31 they gave them thanks, desiring them to be friendly still unto them: and so they came to Jerusalem, the feast of the weeks approaching.

2Ma 12:32 And after the feast, called Shavuot, they went forth against Gorgias the governor of Idumea, 2Ma 12:33 Who came out with three thousand men of foot and four hundred horsemen.

2Ma 12:34 And it happened that in their fighting together a few of the Jews were slain.

2Ma 12:35 At which time Dositheus, one of Bacenor's company, who was on horseback, and a strong man, was still upon Gorgias, and taking hold of his coat drew him by force; and when he would have taken that cursed man alive, a horseman of Thracia coming upon him smote off his shoulder, so that Gorgias fled unto Marisa.

2Ma 12:36 Now when they that were with Gorgias had fought long, and were weary, Judas called upon Yehowah, that he would shew himself to be their helper and leader of the battle.

2Ma 12:37 And with that he began in his own language, and sung psalms with a loud voice, and rushing unawares upon Gorgias' men, he put them to flight.

2Ma 12:38 So Judas gathered his host, and came into the city of Odollam, And when the seventh day came, they purified themselves, as the custom was, and kept the sabbath in the same place.

2Ma 12:39 And upon the day following, as the use had been, Judas and his company came to take up the bodies of them that were slain, and to bury them with their kinsmen in their fathers' graves.

2Ma 12:40 Now under the coats of every one that was slain they found things consecrated to the idols of the Jamnites, which is forbidden the Jews by the law. Then every man saw that this was the cause wherefore they were slain.

2Ma 12:41 All men therefore praising Yehowah, the righteous Judge, who had opened the things that were hid,

2Ma 12:42 betook themselves unto prayer, and besought him that the sin committed might wholly be put out of remembrance. Besides, that noble Judas exhorted the people to keep themselves from sin, forsomuch as they saw before their eyes the things that came to pass for the sins of those that were slain.

2Ma 12:43 And when he had made a gathering throughout the company to the sum of two thousand drachmas of silver, he sent it to Jerusalem to offer a sin offering, doing therein very well and honestly, in that he was mindful of the resurrection:

2Ma 12:44 For if he had not hoped that they that were slain should have risen again, it had been superfluous and vain to pray for the dead.

2Ma 12:45 And also in that he perceived that there was great favor laid up for those that died reverent, it was a holy and good thought. Whereupon he made a reconciliation for the dead, that they might be delivered from sin.

2Ma 13:1 In the hundred forty and ninth year (c. 163 BC) it was told Judas, that Antiochus V Eupator was coming with a great power into Judea,

2Ma 13:2 And with him Lysias his protector, and ruler of his affairs, having either of them a Grecian power of footmen, a hundred and ten thousand, and horsemen five thousand and three hundred, and elephants two and twenty, and three hundred chariots armed with hooks.

2Ma 13:3 Menelaus also joined himself with them, and with great dissimulation encouraged Antiochus, not for the safeguard of the country, but because he thought to have been made governor.

2Ma 13:4 But the King of kings moved Antiochus' mind against this wicked wretch, and Lysias informed the king that this man was the cause of all mischief, so that the king commanded to bring him unto Berea, and to put him to death, as the manner is in that place.

2Ma 13:5 Now there was in that place a tower of fifty cubits high, full of ashes, and it had a round instrument which on every side hanged down into the ashes.

2Ma 13:6 And whosoever was condemned of sacrilege, or had committed any other grievous crime, there did all men thrust him unto death.

2Ma 13:7 Such a death it happened that wicked man to die, not having so much as burial in the earth; and that most justly:

2Ma 13:8 For inasmuch as he had committed many sins about the altar, whose fire and ashes were holy, he received his death in ashes.

2Ma 13:9 Now the king came with a barbarous and haughty mind to do far worse to the Jews, than had been done in his father's time.

2Ma 13:10 Which things when Judas perceived, he commanded the multitude to call upon Yehowah night and day, that if ever at any other time, he would now also help them, being at the point to be put from their law, from their country, and from the holy temple:

2Ma 13:11 And that he would not suffer the people, that had even now been but a little refreshed, to be in subjection to the blasphemous nations.

2Ma 13:12 So when they had all done this together, and besought the merciful Lord with weeping and fasting, and lying flat upon the ground three days long, Judas, having exhorted them, commanded they should be in a readiness.

2Ma 13:13 And Judas, being apart with the elders, determined, before the king's host should enter into Judea, and get the city, to go forth and try the matter in fight by the help of Yehowah.

2Ma 13:14 So when he had committed all to the Creator of the world, and exhorted his soldiers to fight manfully, even unto death, for the laws, the temple, the city, the country, and the commonwealth, he camped by Modin:

2Ma 13:15 And having given the watchword to them that were about him, Victory is of Yehowah; with the most valiant and choice young men he went into the king's tent by night, and slew in the camp about four thousand men, and the chiefest of the elephants, with all that were upon him.

2Ma 13:16 And at last they filled the camp with fear and tumult, and departed with good success.

2Ma 13:17 This was done at the break of the day, because the protection of Yehowah did help him.

2Ma 13:18 Now when the king had taken a taste of the manliness of the Jews, he went about to take the holds by policy,

2Ma 13:19 And marched toward Bethzur, which was a stronghold of the Jews: but he was put to flight, failed, and lost many of his men:

2Ma 13:20 For Judas had conveyed unto them that were in it such things as were necessary.

2Ma 13:21 But Rhodocus, who was in the Jews' host, disclosed the secrets to the enemies; therefore he was sought out, and when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

2Ma 13:22 The king treated with them in Bethsum the second time, gave his hand, took their's, departed, fought with Judas, was overcome;

2Ma 13:23 Heard that Philip, who was left over the affairs in Antioch, was desperately bent, confounded, entreated the Jews, submitted himself, and sware to all equal conditions, agreed with them, and offered sacrifice, honored the temple, and dealt kindly with the place,

2Ma 13:24 And accepted well of Maccabeus, made him principal governor from Ptolemais unto the Gerrhenians;

2Ma 13:25 Came to Ptolemais: the people there were grieved for the covenants; for they stormed, because they would make their covenants void:

2Ma 13:26 Lysias went up to the judgment seat, said as much as could be in defense of the cause, persuaded, pacified, made them well affected, returned to Antioch. Thus it went touching the king's coming and departing.

2Ma 14:1 After three years was Judas informed, that Demetrius the son of Seleucus, having entered by the haven of Tripolis with a great power and navy, 2Ma 14:2 Had taken the country, and killed Antiochus, and Lysias his protector.

2Ma 14:3 Now one Alcimus, who had been high priest, and had defiled himself willfully in the times of their mingling with the nations, seeing that by no means he could save himself, nor have any more access to the holy altar,

2Ma 14:4 came to king Demetrius in the hundred and one and fiftieth year (c. 161 BC), presenting unto him a crown of gold, and a palm, and also of the boughs which were used solemnly in the temple: and so that day he held his peace.

2Ma 14:5 Howbeit having gotten opportunity to further his foolish enterprise, and being called into counsel by Demetrius, and asked how the Jews stood affected, and what they intended, he answered thereunto:

2Ma 14:6 Those of the Jews that he called Assideans, whose captain is Judas Maccabeus, nourish war and are seditious, and will not let the rest be in peace.

2Ma 14:7 Therefore I, being deprived of mine ancestors' honor, I mean the high priesthood, am now come hither:

2Ma 14:8 First, verily for the unfeigned care I have of things pertaining to the king; and secondly, even for that I intend the good of mine own countrymen: for all our nation is in no small misery through the unadvised dealing of them aforersaid.

2Ma 14:9 Wherefore, O king, seeing knowest all these things, be careful for the country, and our nation, which is pressed on every side, according to the clemency that thou readily shewest unto all.

2Ma 14:10 For as long as Judas liveth, it is not possible that the State should be quiet.

2Ma 14:11 This was no sooner spoken of him, but others of the king's friends, being maliciously set against Judas, did more incense Demetrius.

2Ma 14:12 And forthwith calling Nicanor, who had been master of the elephants, and making him governor over Judea, he sent him forth, 2Ma 14:13 commanding him to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high priest of the great temple.

2Ma 14:14 Then the heathen, that had fled out of Judea from Judas, came to Nicanor by flocks, thinking the harm and calamities of the Jews to be their welfare.

2Ma 14:15 Now when the Jews heard of Nicanor's coming, and that the heathen were up against them, they cast earth upon their heads, and made supplication to him that had established his people forever, and who always helpeth his portion with manifestation of his presence.

2Ma 14:16 So at the commandment of the captain they removed straightway from thence, and came near unto them at the town of Dessau.

2Ma 14:17 Now Simon, Judas' brother, had joined battle with Nicanor, but was somewhat discomfited through the sudden silence of his enemies.

2Ma 14:18 Nevertheless Nicanor, hearing of the manliness of them that were with Judas, and the courageousness that they had to fight for their country, durst not try the matter by the sword.

2Ma 14:19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, and Theodotus, and Mattathias, to make peace.

2Ma 14:20 So when they had taken long advisement thereupon, and the captain had made the multitude acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of one mind, they consented to the covenants,

2Ma 14:21 and appointed a day to meet in together by themselves: and when the day came, and stools were set for either of them,

2Ma 14:22 Ludas placed armed men ready in convenient places, lest some treachery should be suddenly practiced by the enemies: so they made a peaceable conference.

2Ma 14:23 Now Nicanor abode in Jerusalem, and did no hurt, but sent away the people that came flocking unto him.

2Ma 14:24 And he would not willingly have Judas out of his sight: for he loved the man from his heart.

2Ma 14:25 He prayed him also to take a wife, and to beget children: so he married, was quiet, and took part of this life.

2Ma 14:26 But Alcimus, perceiving the love that was betwixt them, and considering the covenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor was not well affected toward the State; for that he had ordained Judas, a traitor to his realm, to be the king's successor.

2Ma 14:27 Then the king being in a rage, and provoked with the accusations of the most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was much displeased with the covenants, and commanding him that he should send Maccabeus prisoner in all haste unto Antioch.

2Ma 14:28 When this came to Nicanor's hearing, he was much confounded in himself, and took it grievously that he should make void the articles which were agreed upon, the man being in no fault.

2Ma 14:29 But because there was no dealing against the king, he watched his time to accomplish this thing by policy.

2Ma 14:30 Notwithstanding, when Maccabeus saw that Nicanor began to be rude unto him, and that he treated him more roughly than he was wont, perceiving that such sour behavior came not of good, he gathered together not a few of his men, and withdrew himself from Nicanor.

2Ma 14:31 But the other, knowing that he was notably prevented by Judas' policy, came into the great and holy temple, and commanded the priests, that were offering their usual sacrifices, to deliver him the man.

2Ma 14:32 And when they sware that they could not tell where the man was whom he sought,

2Ma 14:33 He stretched out his right hand toward the temple, and made an oath in this manner: If ye will not deliver me Judas as a prisoner, I will lay this temple of Yehowah even with the ground, and I will break down the altar, and erect a notable temple unto Bacchus.

2Ma 14:34 After these words he departed. Then the priests lifted up their hands toward heaven, and besought him that was ever a defender of their nation, saying in this manner;

2Ma 14:35 Thou, O Yehowah of all things, who hast need of nothing, wast pleased that the temple of thine habitation should be among us:

2Ma 14:36 Therefore now, O holy Lord of all holiness, keep this house ever undefiled, which lately was cleansed, and stop every unrighteous mouth.

2Ma 14:37 Now was there accused unto Nicanor one Razis, one of the elders of Jerusalem, a lover of his countrymen, and a man of very good report, who for his kindness was called a father of the Jews.

2Ma 14:38 For in the former times, when they mingled not themselves with the nations, he had been accused of Judaism, and did boldly jeopardize his body and life with all vehemency for the religion of the Jews.

2Ma 14:39 So Nicanor, willing to declare the hate that he bare unto the Jews, sent above five hundred men of war to take him:

2Ma 14:40 For he thought by taking him to do the Jews much hurt.

2Ma 14:41 Now when the multitude would have taken the tower, and violently broken into the outer door, and bade that fire should be brought to burn it, he being ready to be taken on every side fell upon his sword;

2Ma 14:42 Choosing rather to die manfully, than to come into the hands of the wicked, to be abused otherwise than beseemed his noble birth:

2Ma 14:43 But missing his stroke through haste, the multitude also rushing within the doors, he ran boldly up to the wall, and cast himself down manfully among the thickest of them.

2Ma 14:44 But they quickly giving back, and a space being made, he fell down into the midst of the void place.

2Ma 14:45 Nevertheless, while there was yet breath within him, being inflamed with anger, he rose up; and though his blood gushed out like spouts of water, and his wounds were grievous, yet he ran through the midst of the throng; and standing upon a steep rock,

2Ma 14:46 when as his blood was now quite gone, he plucked out his bowels, and taking them in both his hands, he cast them upon the throng, and calling upon Yehowah of life and spirit to restore him to those again, he thus died.

2Ma 15:1 But Nicanor, hearing that Judas and his company were in the strong places about Samaria, resolved without any danger to set upon them on the sabbath day.

2Ma 15:2 Nevertheless, the Jews that were compelled to go with him said, O destroy not so cruelly and barbarously, but give honor to that day, which he, that seeth all things, hath honored with holiness above all other days.

2Ma 15:3 Then the most ungracious wretch demanded, if there were a Mighty One in heaven, that had commanded the sabbath day to be kept.

2Ma 15:4 And when they said, There is in heaven a living Lord, and mighty, who commanded the seventh day to be kept:

2Ma 15:5 Then said the other, And I also am mighty upon earth, and I command to take arms, and to do the king's business. Yet he obtained not to have his wicked will done.

2Ma 15:6 So Nicanor in exceeding pride and haughtiness determined to set up a public monument of his victory over Judas and them that were with him.

2Ma 15:7 But Maccabeus had ever sure confidence that Yehowah would help him:

2Ma 15:8 Wherefore he exhorted his people not to fear the coming of the heathen against them, but to remember the help which in former times they had received from heaven, and now to expect the victory and aid, which should come unto them from the Almighty.

2Ma 15:9 And so comforting them out of the law and the prophets, and withal putting them in mind of the battles that they had won afore, he made them more cheerful.

2Ma 15:10 And when he had stirred up their minds, he gave them their charge, shewing them therewithall the falsehood of the heathen, and the breach of oaths.

2Ma 15:11 Thus he armed every one of them, not so much with defense of shields and spears, as with comfortable and good words: and beside that, he told them a dream worthy to be believed, as if it had been so indeed, which did not a little rejoice them.

2Ma 15:12 And this was his vision: That Onias, who had been high priest, a virtuous and a good man, reverend in conversation, gentle in condition, well spoken also, and exercised from a child in all points of virtue, holding up his hands prayed for the whole body of the Jews.

2Ma 15:13 This done, in like manner there appeared a man with gray hairs, and exceeding glorious, who was of a wonderful and excellent majesty.

2Ma 15:14 Then Onias answered, saying, This is a lover of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy city, to wit, Jeremiah the prophet of Yehowah.

2Ma 15:15 Whereupon Jeremiah holding forth his right hand gave to Judas a sword of gold, and in giving it spake thus, 2Ma 15:16 Take this holy sword, a gift from Yehowah, with the which thou shalt wound the adversaries.

2Ma 15:17 Thus being well comforted by the words of Judas, which were very good, and able to stir them up to valor, and to encourage the hearts of the young men, they determined not to pitch camp, but courageously to set upon them, and manfully to try the matter by conflict, because the city and the sanctuary and the temple were in danger.

2Ma 15:18 For the care that they took for their wives, and their children, their brethren, and folks, was in least account with them: but the greatest and principal fear was for the holy temple.

2Ma 15:19 Also they that were in the city took not the least care, being troubled for the conflict abroad.

2Ma 15:20 And now, when as all looked what should be the trial, and the enemies were already come near, and the army was set in array, and the beasts conveniently placed, and the horsemen set in wings,

2Ma 15:21 Maccabeus seeing the coming of the multitude, and the divers preparations of armor, and the fierceness of the beasts, stretched out his hands toward heaven, and called upon Yehowah that worketh wonders, knowing that victory cometh not by arms, but even as it seemeth good to him, he giveth it to such as are worthy:

2Ma 15:22 Therefore, in his prayer he said after this manner; O Yehowah, thou didst send thine angel in the time of Hezekiah king of Judea, and didst slay in the host of Sennacherib a hundred fourscore and five thousand:

2Ma 15:23 Wherefore now also, O Yehowah of heaven, send a good angel before us for a fear and dread unto them;

2Ma 15:24 And through the might of thine arm let those be stricken with terror, that come against thy holy people to blaspheme. And he ended thus.

2Ma 15:25 Then Nicanor and they that were with him came forward with trumpets and songs.

2Ma 15:26 But Judas and his company encountered the enemies with invocation and prayer.

2Ma 15:27 So that fighting with their hands, and praying unto Yehowah with their hearts, they slew no less than thirty and five thousand men: for through the appearance of Yehowah they were greatly cheered.

2Ma 15:28 Now when the battle was done, returning again with joy, they knew that Nicanor lay dead in his harness.

2Ma 15:29 Then they made a great shout and a noise, praising the Almighty in their own language.

2Ma 15:30 And Judas, who was ever the chief defender of the citizens both in body and mind, and who continued his love toward his countrymen all his life, commanded to strike off Nicanor's head, and his hand with his shoulder, and bring them to Jerusalem.

2Ma 15:31 So when he was there, and called them of his nation together, and set the priests before the altar, he sent for them that were of the tower,

2Ma 15:32 And shewed them vile Nicanor's head, and the hand of that blasphemer, which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy temple of the Almighty.

2Ma 15:33 And when he had cut out the tongue of that irreverent Nicanor, he commanded that they should give it by pieces unto the fowls, and hang up the reward of his madness before the temple.

2Ma 15:34 So every man praised toward heaven the glorious Lord, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his own place undefiled.

2Ma 15:35 He hanged also Nicanor's head upon the tower, an evident and manifest sign unto all of the help of Yehowah.

2Ma 15:36 And they ordained all with a common decree in no case to let that day pass without solemnity, but to celebrate the thirtieth day of the twelfth month, which in the Syrian tongue is called Adar, the day before Mardocheus' day.

2Ma 15:37 Thus went it with Nicanor: and from that time forth the Hebrews had the city in their power. And here will I make an end.

2Ma 15:38 And if I have done well, and as is fitting the story, it is that which I desired: but if slenderly and meanly, it is that which I could attain unto.

2Ma 15:39 For as it is hurtful to drink wine or water alone; and as wine mingled with water is pleasant, and delighteth the taste: even so speech finely framed delighteth the ears of them that read the story. And here shall be an end.

Book of 3rd Maccabees

3Ma 1:1 Now when Philopator had learned from those who had returned of the capture by Antiochus of the places which had been held by him, he issued orders to all his forces, foot and horse, and taking with him his sister Arsinoe, marched to the district over against Raphia, where the army of Antiochus was encamped.

3Ma 1:2 But a certain Theodotus, determining to carry out his plot, took with him the bravest of the soldiers of Ptolemy who had been previously assigned to him, and went by night to the tent of Ptolemy, intending to kill him singlehandedly, and thereby put an end to the war.

3Ma 1:3 But Dositheus, called the son of Drimylus, who was by birth a Jew, but had subsequently abandoned the observance of the law, and renounced his ancestral faith, had conveyed Ptolemy away, and put some obscure person to sleep in the tent; and so it happened that on this man fell the vengeance intended for the other.

3Ma 1:5 And thus it came about that their adversaries were destroyed in the encounter, and that many were also taken captive.

3Ma 1:6 So Ptolemy, having crushed the attack, determined to visit the neighboring cities, and encourage them.

3Ma 1:7 And having done this, and given gifts to their shrines, he inspired his subjects with confidence.

3Ma 1:8 And when the Jews had sent to him some of the senate and elders to greet him, and bring him gifts, and congratulate him on what had happened, he became the more eager to visit them as quickly as possible.

3Ma 1:9 And when he had come to Jerusalem he sacrificed to Most High Yehowah and offered thank offerings, acting in some measure according to what was suitable to the place. And entering into the holy place, and being struck by the care displayed, and the beauty,

3Ma 1:10 and admiring also the good order of the temple, it came into his mind to purpose to enter into the sanctuary.

3Ma 1:11 And when they said that this was not allowed, since not even members of their own nation could enter, or all the priests, but only the High Priest who was chief of all, and he once a year, he was by no means convinced.

3Ma 1:12 And when the law had been read out to him, not even then did he desist from his claim that he himself should enter, saying, Even if they are deprived of this honor, I must not be so, 3Ma 1:13 And he asked why, when he entered into every shrine, none of those present hindered him?

3Ma 1:14 And someone answered thoughtlessly that he did wrong to make this boast.

3Ma 1:15 But since this is so, he said, why should I not enter in any case, whether they wish it or not?

3Ma 1:16 Then the priests in all their robes fell down, and besought Most High Yehowah to aid them in that which had come upon them, and to turn the violence of him who was making this wicked attack, filling the temple with lamentation and tears;

3Ma 1:17 and those who were left in the city hurried forth in confusion, concluding that something strange was happening.

3Ma 1:18 The virgins who had been shut up in their chambers rushed forth with their mothers, and covering their hair with dust and ashes, filled the streets with groanings and lamentations.

3Ma 1:19 And those who had been lately married, leaving the chambers prepared for wedded intercourse and forgetting their proper modesty, ran about in confusion through the city.

3Ma 1:20 And as for the newborn children, the mothers and nurses who had charge of them, left them here and there, in the houses or in the streets without care, and came in crowds to the temple which is high above all.

3Ma 1:21 And manifold were the supplications of those gathered here because of the impious enterprise of the king.

3Ma 1:22 And with them the bolder from among the citizens would not endure his carrying the matter to an extremity, or his determination to complete his project;

3Ma 1:23 but calling on one another to rush to arms, and to die bravely for the law of their fathers, they made great confusion in the place, and being with difficulty turned from their purpose by the elders and the priests they joined in supplication with them.

3Ma 1:24 And the multitude continued meanwhile praying as before.

3Ma 1:25 But the elders who were with the king tried in many ways to turn his haughty mind from the purpose he had conceived.

3Ma 1:26 But being emboldened and now setting them all aside, he was even beginning to approach, thinking that he would complete the design aforesaid.

3Ma 1:27 Therefore those who were with him, seeing this, joined with our own people in beseeching him who has all power to defend them in their present need, and not to disregard the lawless and insolent deed.

3Ma 1:28 So incessant and vehement was the united cry of the multitude that an indescribable uproar arose.

3Ma 1:29 For it might have been thought that not only the people, but even the walls and the whole pavement were crying out, since all preferred death to the profanation of the holy place.

3Ma 2:1 Then the High Priest Simon, bowing his knees before the holy place, and spreading out his hands in calm reverence, prayed after this manner:

3Ma 2:2 Lord, Lord, King of the heavens, and sovereign of all creation, holy among the holy ones, only ruler, almighty, give ear to us who are grievously troubled by one wicked and profane, made wanton in insolence and might.

3Ma 2:3 For thou, who hast created all things, and governest the whole world, art a righteous ruler, and judgest those who do aught in violence and arrogance,

3Ma 2:4 Thou didst destroy those who aforetime did iniquity, among whom were giants trusting in their strength and boldness, bringing upon them a boundless flood of water.

3Ma 2:5 Thou didst burn up with fire and brimstone the men of Sodom, workers of arrogance, who had become known of all for their crimes, and didst make them an example to those who should come after.

3Ma 2:6 Thou didst try with manifold and grievous punishments the insolent Pharaoh when he enslaved thy holy people Israel, and didst make known thy mighty power.

3Ma 2:7 And when he pursued with chariots and a multitude of peoples thou didst overwhelm him in the depth of the sea, but those who trusted in thee, the ruler of all creation, thou didst bring safely through.

3Ma 2:8 And they seeing the works of thy hands did praise thee, the Almighty.

3Ma 2:9 Thou, O King, when thou didst create the boundless and measureless earth, didst choose this city and sanctify this place [for thy name] for thyself, who hast need of nothing, and didst glorify it by a splendid manifestation, establishing it to the glory of thy great and honorable name.

3Ma 2:10 And loving the house of Israel, thou didst promise that if there should be a falling away, and distress should overtake us, and we should come to this place and make our supplication, thou wouldest hear our prayer.

3Ma 2:11 And indeed thou art faithful and true.

3Ma 2:12 And seeing that oftentimes when our fathers were afflicted thou didst succor them in their humiliation, and didst deliver them from great evils, 3Ma 2:13 behold now, O holy King, for our many great sins we are grievously troubled and put into subjection to our foes, and faint in our weakness.

3Ma 2:14 In our low estate this insolent and profane man seeketh to do violence to the holy place which is consecrated upon earth to the name of thy glory.

3Ma 2:15 For man cannot reach thy dwelling place, the heaven of heavens.

3Ma 2:16 But since thy good pleasure was in thy glory amongst thy people Israel, thou didst hallow this place.

3Ma 2:17 Punish us not by the uncleanness of these men, neither chastise us by their profane doings, lest the transgressors boast in their wrath or exult in the insolence of their tongue, saying,

3Ma 2:18 We have trodden down the house of the sanctuary as the houses of the abominations are trodden down.

3Ma 2:19 Blot out our sins and scatter abroad our offenses and manifest thy mercy at this hour.

3Ma 2:20 Let thy compassion speedily overtake us, and put praises in the mouth of the fallen and broken in heart, granting us peace.

3Ma 2:21 Then Yehowah who beholds all, the Father of all, holy among the holy ones, hearing the supplication spoken according to the law, scourged him who was greatly uplifted in violence and insolence, 3Ma 2:22 shaking him to and fro as a reed by the wind, so that lying on the ground powerless and paralyzed in body he could not so much as speak, being smitten by a righteous judgment.

3Ma 2:23 Whereupon his friends and bodyguard seeing that the chastisement which had overtaken him was swift, and fearing lest he should even die, speedily drew him out, being overwhelmed by an exceeding great fear.

3Ma 2:24 But having after some time recovered himself, he by no means came to repentance though he had been thus punished, but departed with bitter threats.

3Ma 2:25 So, arriving in Egypt, and going on further in his wickedness, through his boon companions and associates, who have been already mentioned, utter strangers to all justice,

3Ma 2:26 he was not content with his countless excesses, but even reached such a pitch of insolence that he raised evil reports in those parts, and many of his friends watching carefully the royal purpose, themselves also followed his will.

3Ma 2:27 He purposed publicly to inflict a disgrace upon the Jewish nation, and erected a pillar on the tower in the palace with the inscription,

3Ma 2:28 That none who did not sacrifice should be allowed to enter their temples; and that all Jews should be degraded to the rank of natives and the condition of serfs, and that those who spoke against it should be taken by force and put to death;

3Ma 2:29 and that those who were registered should even be branded on their bodies with an ivy leaf, the emblem of Dionysus, and be reduced to their former limited status.

3Ma 2:30 But that he might not appear an enemy to all, he added, but if any of them prefer to join those who are initiated into the mysteries, they shall have equal rights with the citizens of Alexandria.

3Ma 2:31 Some obviously hating the price paid for the religion of their city readily gave themselves up, expecting to gain great glory from their association with the king.

3Ma 2:32 But the greater part stood firm with a noble courage, and departed not from their religion; and paying money as a ransom for their lives fearlessly attempted to save themselves from the registration.

3Ma 2:33 And they remained of good hope that they should find help, and abhorred those who parted from them, accounting them as enemies of their nation, and excluding them from social intercourse and the rendering of any service.

3Ma 3:1 The impious king perceiving this was so greatly enraged that he was not only wroth with those who dwelt at Alexandria, but was even more bitterly hostile to those in the country, and ordered that they should all be speedily gathered together, and put an end to by the most cruel death.

3Ma 3:2 While this was being arranged a malicious report was noised abroad against the Jewish nation on the part of men who agreed together to do them hurt, an occasion being afforded for representing that they hindered them from the observance of the laws.

3Ma 3:3 But the Jews continued to maintain their goodwill towards the kings and their unswerving fidelity.

3Ma 3:4 Yet, worshiping Yehowah, and living according to his law, they held themselves apart in the matter of food; and for this reason they were disliked by some;

3Ma 3:5 but adorning their conversation by the good practice of righteousness they were established in the good report of all.

3Ma 3:6 But of this good practice, which was the common talk of all men with regard to the nation, the foreigners took no account;

3Ma 3:7 but they talked continually of the difference they made with regard to worship and food, alleging that they were friendly neither to the king or his army, but ill-disposed, and bitterly hostile to his interests; thus they cast no small opprobrium upon them.

3Ma 3:8 But the Greeks in the city having been in no way injured by them, 3Ma 3:9 seeing the unexpected disturbance about them, and the unlooked for concourse, were not able to help them, for they lived under a tyranny, but tried to comfort them and were indignant, expecting that this affair would take a change for the better; for so great a community could not be thus allowed to perish when it had committed no fault.

3Ma 3:10 And already some of their neighbors and friends and business associates, taking aside some of the Jews secretly, gave pledges of their protection and earnest endeavors for their assistance.

3Ma 3:11 So the king puffed up by his present prosperity, and regarding not the power of Most High Yehowah, but supposing that he himself would always hold firmly to the same purpose, wrote this letter against them:

3Ma 3:12 King Ptolemy Philopator to his generals and soldiers in Egypt and every place greeting and prosperity.

3Ma 3:13 I myself and our affairs prosper.

3Ma 3:14 Our expedition into Asia, of which you yourselves are aware, having been brought to an expected conclusion by the help of the deities, 3Ma 3:15 granted us deliberately, we thought, not by force of arms, but by kindness and much benevolence to foster the peoples of Coele Syria and Phoenicia, bestowing benefits upon them with all readiness.

3Ma 3:16 And having granted large revenues to the temples in the cities, we came to Jerusalem as well, going up thither to show honor to the temple of the accursed people who never cease from their folly.

3Ma 3:17 Seemingly they welcomed our presence, but their welcome was insincere; for when we were eager to enter their shrine and to honor it with magnificent and beautiful offerings,

3Ma 3:18 carried away by their ancient pride they prevented us from going in, being: left unhurt by our power on account of the benevolence we have to all.

3Ma 3:19 But they show plainly their ill will towards us, and standing alone among nations in their stiffnecked resistance to kings and their own benefactors, they refuse to take anything in a proper spirit.

3Ma 3:20 We accommodated ourselves to their folly, and returning victoriously to Egypt, and treating all nations with kindness, have acted as was right.

3Ma 3:21 And under these circumstances, making known to all our ready forgiveness of their fellow countrymen, on account of their alliance, and the numerous matters which have been freely entrusted to them from of old, we have ventured to make a change, and have made up our mind to hold them worthy even of Alexandrian citizenship, and to give them a share in our religious rites from time to time.

3Ma 3:22 But they taking this in the opposite spirit and rejecting the good offer with their inborn ill feeling, and continually inclining to evil,

3Ma 3:23 not only refused the invaluable citizenship, but also show their contempt silently and by words for the few among them who behave properly towards us, in every case secretly expecting that through their infamous behavior we should speedily alter our policy.

3Ma 3:24 Therefore having good proof for our persuasion that they are evilly disposed towards us in every way, and taking precautions lest when some sudden tumult is raised against us hereafter we should have these impious people behind our backs as traitors and barbarous foes,

3Ma 3:25 we give order that, as soon as this epistle reaches you, you shall at once send to us with harsh and violent treatment those who dwell among you with women and children, binding them fast in every way with iron chains, to meet a terrible and ignominious death, as befits traitors.

3Ma 3:26 For we believe that when they have been punished together, our estate will be established for the future in the surest and best condition.

3Ma 3:27 And whoever shall harbor any Jew, old man or child or very suckling, shall with all his house be tortured to death with the most horrible torments.

3Ma 3:28 Information may be given by anyone; the informer to receive the estate of the guilty party, with two thousand drachma from the royal treasury, and to be honored with freedom.

3Ma 3:29 And every place where a Jew shall be detected at all in concealment, shall be made a waste and burnt with fire, and shall become entirely useless to any mortal creature for all time.

3Ma 3:30 Thus ran the letter.

3Ma 4:1 In every place where this decree reached, a feast at the public charges was made for the heathen with exultation and joy, the hatred which had long before become inveterate in their hearts being now freely displayed.

3Ma 4:2 But among the Jews there was unceasing grief and a lamentable crying with tears, their heart being all aflame with their groanings, as they bewailed the unlooked for destruction which had been suddenly decreed against them.

3Ma 4:3 What district or city or what habitable place at all or what streets were not filled with wailing and lamentation for them?

3Ma 4:4 For in such manner with harshness and pitiless heart were they sent away with one accord by the generals in the cities, that at the sight of their unusual sufferings even some of their enemies with common pity before their eyes, remembering the uncertain issue of life, wept at their hapless departure.

3Ma 4:5 For there was carried away a multitude of old men, covered with their wealth of gray hairs, forcing to a swift journey their feet bent and sluggish from old age under the violence of their rough driving which knew no shame.

3Ma 4:6 And the young women which had but lately entered the marriage chamber for the society of wedded life, with lamentations instead of joy, and with their perfumed locks covered with dust, were carried away unveiled, and with one accord sang a dirge in place of the wedding hymn, scarred by the cruel treatment of the heathen;

3Ma 4:7 and as prisoners exposed to public gaze they were dragged along with violence until they were embarked on board.

3Ma 4:8 And their consorts, with ropes on their necks instead of garlands, in the flower of their youthful age, spent the remainder of the days of their marriage feast in dirges instead of mirth and youthful ease, seeing the grave already yawning at their feet.

3Ma 4:9 And they were brought on board driven like wild beasts under the constraint of iron bonds; some were fastened by the neck to the benches of the ships; others had their feet secured in the strongest fetters;

3Ma 4:10 and further they were shut off from the light by the thick planks above, that in entire darkness they might be treated as traitors throughout the whole voyage.

3Ma 4:11 When they had been brought to the place called Schedia, and the voyage was completed as determined by the king, he ordered them to be imprisoned in the hippodrome that was before the city, a place of immense circuit and very suitable for making them a gazing stock to all who entered the city, and to those of the inhabitants (?) who went into the country to sojourn, so that they might neither communicate with his army, or in any way claim protection of the walls.

3Ma 4:12 But after this had been done, hearing that their fellow countrymen in the city often went out in secret and bewailed the shameful fate of their brethren, 3Ma 4:13 he was enraged and ordered that they should be treated in exactly the same way as the others, receiving in no respect a lesser punishment.

3Ma 4:14 And he commanded that the whole race should be registered by name, not for the wearisome service of labor which was briefly described before, but that they should be tortured with the torments to which he had sentenced them, and finally be made an end of in the space of a single day.

3Ma 4:15 The registration therefore was carried on with bitter haste and zealous diligence from sunrise to sunset, coming to an end after forty days but still uncompleted.

3Ma 4:16 But the king was greatly and continually filled with joy, ordering feasts in the temples of his idols, with a heart far astray from the truth and profane lips, praising dumb idols which could not speak to them or help, and uttering words which were not fitting against Most High Yehowah.

3Ma 4:17 But after the aforesaid space of time the scribes reported to the king that they were no longer able to continue the registration of the Jews on account of their incalculable number;

3Ma 4:18 although the greater number of them were still in the country, some still remaining in their homes and others on the journey, it was impossible for all the generals in Egypt.

3Ma 4:19 And after he had threatened them fiercely as having been bribed to contrive their escape, he was at length clearly convinced on this point,

3Ma 4:20 when they told him and proved that even the paper manufactory and the pens which they used for writing had already given out,

3Ma 4:21 But this was the working of the invincible providence of him who was aiding the Jews from heaven.

3Ma 5:1 Then he called Hermon who was in charge of the elephants, and filled with bitter anger and wrath, and altogether inflexible, 3Ma 5:2 ordered him for the next day to drug all the elephants, in number five hundred, with copious handfuls of frankincense, and abundance of unmixed wine, and then when they were maddened by the plentiful supply of drink to bring them in to compass the fate of the Jews.

3Ma 5:3 And giving this order he turned to his feasting, having gathered together those of his friends and army who were most hostile to the Jews, 3Ma 5:4 while [Hermon] the ruler of the elephants attended to the injunction with all care.

3Ma 5:5 And the servants who were in charge of the Jews went out in the evening and bound the hands of the hapless wretches, taking all other precautions to keep them safe through the night, imagining that the nation would at one blow meet its final destruction.

3Ma 5:6 But the Jews who seemed to the heathen to be destitute of all protection on account of the constraint and bonds which encompassed them on every side,

3Ma 5:7 with crying that would not be silenced, all called with tears on the Almighty Lord and ruler of all power, their merciful Yehowah and father, 3Ma 5:8 beseeching him to frustrate the wicked design against them and to deliver them by a glorious manifestation from the fate yawning ready before them.

3Ma 5:9 So their prayer ascended fervently to heaven;

3Ma 5:10 but Hermon, having given the pitiless elephants drink till they were filled with the plenteous supply of wine and sated with frankincense, came early in the morning to the palace to report to the king about this.

3Ma 5:11 But the good creature, bestowed night and day from the beginning of time by him who gives the portion of sleep to all, even to whomsoever he will, this he sent upon the king;

3Ma 5:12 and he was overborne by a sweet and heavy slumber by the operation of the Lord, thus being greatly foiled in his lawless purpose, and utterly disappointed in his unchangeable design.

3Ma 5:13 But the Jews having escaped the appointed hour praised holy Yehowah, and again besought him who is ready to forgive to manifest the might of his all powerful hand before the proud eyes of the heathen.

3Ma 5:14 But when the middle of the tenth hour had nearly come he who was in charge of the invitations, seeing the guests assembled, went to the king and shook him.

3Ma 5:15 And having woken him up with difficulty, he pointed out that the hour for the banquet was already passing, reminding him of the circumstances.

3Ma 5:16 And the king considering these, betook himself to his cups and ordered those who had come for the banquet to take their places over against him.

3Ma 5:17 And when this had been done he called on them to give themselves up to revelry, and counting themselves highly honored to reckon as a joy the feast, late as it was.

3Ma 5:18 And when the entertainment had gone on for some time, the king called Hermon and asked with fierce threats why the Jews had been allowed to survive that day.

3Ma 5:19 But when he pointed out that he had completely carried out the order overnight, and his friends confirmed him,

3Ma 5:20 the king with a rage more fierce than Phalaris, said that the Jews might thank his sleep for the respite of the day; but, he added, make ready the elephants in the same manner without further delay for the following day to destroy utterly the accursed Jews.

3Ma 5:21 When the king had spoken, all who were present readily assented with joy with one accord, and each one departed to his own house.

3Ma 5:22 But they did not spend the night season in sleep, so much as in devising all manner of cruel insults for those whom they thought to be in such wretched plight.

3Ma 5:23 So as soon as the cock had crowed in the morning, Hermon harnessed the beasts and began to put them in motion in the great colonnade.

3Ma 5:24 And the multitudes in the city assembled for the piteous spectacle, eagerly looking for the break of day.

3Ma 5:25 But the Jews drawing their last breath for but a brief moment more, with tearful supplications and strains of woe, raising their hands to heaven, besought Most High Yehowah again to help them speedily.

3Ma 5:26 The rays of the sun were not yet scattered abroad, and the king was receiving his friends, when Hermon came to his side and invited him to go forth, explaining that the desire of the king was ready to be fulfilled.

3Ma 5:27 When the king understood him, he was astonished at the unusual swmmons to go forth, having been overwhelmed with complete ignorance, and asked what was the matter on account of which this had been so zealously completed.

3Ma 5:28 But this was the operation of Yehowah the ruler of all, who had put in his mind forgetfulness of his former devices.

3Ma 5:29 But Hermon and all his friends pointed to the beasts and the army: It is prepared, O king, according to thine eager purpose.

3Ma 5:30 But he was filled with fierce anger at the words, because by the providence of Yehowah he had entirely lost his wits on this matter, and looking on him said threateningly, 3Ma 5:31 If thy parents or offspring were here, I would have furnished them as this rich banquet for the fierce beasts in place of the Jews against whom I have no charge and who have shown in a preeminent degree a full and unshaken loyalty to my ancestors.

3Ma 5:32 And indeed, if it were not for the affection handled by their life together and thy service, thou shouldest have died instead of these.

3Ma 5:33 So Hermon met with an unexpected and dangerous threat, and his eyes and countenance fell.

3Ma 5:34 And the king’s friends, slinking away sullenly one by one, sent away the assembled crowds, each to his own business.

3Ma 5:35 And the Jews hearing the words of the king, praised Lord Yehowah who had manifested his glory, the king of kings, having obtained this help also from him.

3Ma 5:36 But the king, having arranged the banquet once more in the same way, ordered them to turn to their pleasures.

3Ma 5:37 And calling Hermon he said threateningly, How often, thou wretched creature, must I give thee orders about these very things?

3Ma 5:38 Even now make ready the elephants for the morrow to destroy the Jews.

3Ma 5:39 But his kinsmen who sat at table with him wondered at his shifting purpose, and remonstrated, 3Ma 5:40 How long, O King, dost thou make trial of us as though we were fools, now for the third time giving orders for their destruction, and once more when the matter is in hand changing and canceling thy decree?

3Ma 5:41 Wherefore the city is in a tumult through its expectation, and being crowded with throngs of people has now been several times in danger of being put to plunder.

3Ma 5:42 On this the king, a Phalaris in all things, was filled with madness, and, reckoning nothing of the changes of mind which had been wrought in him for the protection of the Jews, swore strongly a fruitless oath that he would without delay send to the grave the Jews mangled by the knees and feet of the beasts, 3Ma 5:43 and would march against Judea and quickly level it to the ground with fire and sword, and burning to the earth their temple which we might not enter would quickly make it empty for all time of those who sacrificed therein.

3Ma 5:44 Then his friends and kinsmen went away joyfully with good confidence, and ordered the army to the most convenient places of the city to keep guard.

3Ma 5:45 And the ruler of the elephants, having driven the beasts into a state almost one might say of madness by fragrant draughts of wine mingled with frankincense, and having fitted them in a fearful guise with implements,

3Ma 5:46 at dawn, the city being now filled with countless multitudes thronging towards the hippodrome, entered the palace and urged on the king to the business that lay before him.

3Ma 5:47 And he, his impious heart filled with fierce anger, started forth with all his force with the beasts, determined with an unfeeling heart and his own eyes to gaze on the grievous and piteous destruction of the aforementioned Jews.

3Ma 5:48 And when they saw the dust raised by the elephants going out at the gate, and the armed force accompanying them, and the movement of the crowd, and heard he far-sounding tumult,

3Ma 5:49 thinking that the last crisis of their life had come and the end of their miserable suspense, they betook themselves to lamentation and groans, and kissed one another, embracing their relatives and falling on their necks, parents and children, mothers and daughters; and others with new-born babes at their breast drawing their last milk.

3Ma 5:50 But none the less, reflecting on their former deliverances sent from heaven, with one accord they threw themselves on their faces, 3Ma 5:51 and took the babes from their breasts, and cried out with an exceeding loud voice, beseeching the ruler of all power by a manifestation to show pity upon them now that they were come to the gates of death.

3Ma 6:1 But a certain Eleazar, a man of note among the priests of the country, whose years had already reached old age, and who was adorned with every virtue of life, made the elders who were round him cease from calling on holy Yehowah, and prayed thus:

3Ma 6:2 King of great power, most high, Almighty Yehowah, who governest all creation with loving-kindness, 3Ma 6:3 look upon the seed of Abraham, the children of Jacob thy sanctified one, the people of thy sanctified inheritance, who are unjustly perishing, strangers in a strange land.

3Ma 6:4 O Father, thou didst destroy Pharaoh, the former ruler of this Egypt, with his multitude of chariots, when he was lifted high in his lawless insolence and a tongue speaking great things, drowning him together with his proud host, and didst cause the light of thy mercy to shine upon the race of Israel.

3Ma 6:5 Thou, when Sennacherib, the cruel king of the Assyrians, was puffed up by his countless hosts, after he had taken the whole earth captive by his sword, and was lifted up against thy holy city speaking grievous words of boasting and insolence, thou, Lord, didst break him in pieces, making manifest thy power to many nations.

3Ma 6:6 Thou, when the three friends in Babylonia freely gave their life to the flames that they should not serve vain things, didst make as dew the fiery furnace, and deliver them unharmed even to the hair of their head, turning the flame upon all their adversaries.

3Ma 6:7 Thou, when Daniel was cast through the slanders of envy to the lions beneath the ground as food for wild beasts, didst bring him up to the light unhurt.

3Ma 6:8 And when Jonah was languishing unpitied in the belly of the sea-born monster, thou didst restore him, O Father, uninjured to all his household.

3Ma 6:9 And now, thou hater of insolence, rich in mercy, protector of all, quickly manifest thyself to the saints of Israel's line, in their insolent oppression by the abominable and lawless heathen.

3Ma 6:10 And if our life has been ensnared in impious deeds during our sojourning, save us from the hand of the enemy, and destroy us, O Lord, by whatever fate thou choosest.

3Ma 6:11 Let not the men whose thoughts are vanity bless their vain deities for the destruction of thy beloved saying, Neither has their Divine One delivered them.

3Ma 6:12 Thou who hast all might and all power, the Eternal, look now upon us; pity us who by the mad insolence of lawless men are being sent to death as traitors;

3Ma 6:13 and let the heathen today fear thy invincible might, thou glorious one, who hast mighty works for the salvation of the race of Israel.

3Ma 6:14 The whole multitude of babes with their parents beseecheth thee with tears.

3Ma 6:15 Let it be shown to all heathen that thou art with us, O Lord, and hast not turned thy face away from us; but as thou hast said, Not even when they were in the land of their enemies have I forgotten them, even so bring it to pass, O Lord.

3Ma 6:16 And when Eleazar was even now ending his prayer, the king with the beasts and the whole insolent array of his army came to the hippodrome.

3Ma 6:17 And the Jews beholding it raised a great cry to heaven, so that now the surrounding valleys re-echoed it, and caused in all the hosts an uncontrollable trembling.

3Ma 6:18 Then the greatly glorious, almighty, and true Yehowah, making manifest his holy face, opened the gates of heaven, from which two glorious angels of terrible aspect descended, visible to all but the Jews, 3Ma 6:19 and withstood them and filled the army of the adversaries with confusion and terror, and bound them with immoveable fetters.

3Ma 6:20 And a great horror seized on the body of the king as well, and his fierce insolence was forgotten.

3Ma 6:21 And the beasts turned round against the armed hosts that followed them and began to tread them under foot and destroy them.

3Ma 6:22 And the king's wrath was turned to pity and tears on account of that which he had devised before.

3Ma 6:23 For hearing the outcry and seeing them all prostrate to meet their death, he wept and angrily threatened his friends saying,

3Ma 6:24 Ye usurp the kingly power, surpassing even tyrants in your cruelty; and me myself, who am your benefactor, ye plot to deprive of my dominion and my life, devising secretly things that are unprofitable to the kingdom.

3Ma 6:25 Who hath driven each one from his home the men who have faithfully held the fortresses of our country, and gathered them here without reason?

3Ma 6:26 Who hath thus lawlessly overwhelmed with indignities those who from the beginning have been in all things conspicuous beyond all nations in their goodwill towards us, and have ofttimes encountered the worst dangers man can undergo?

3Ma 6:27 Loose, yea loose, their unjust bonds; send them to their homes in peace, asking pardon for what has been already done.

3Ma 6:28 Set free the sons of the almighty living Mighty One of Heaven, who from the days of our ancestors until now hath granted an unimpaired stability and glory to our estate.

3Ma 6:29 Thus he spake; and they, having been set free in a moment, praised holy Yehowah their savior, having but now escaped death.

3Ma 6:30 Then the king returning to the city called the officer who was over the revenues, and ordered him to supply to the Jews for a space of seven days wines and all else necessary for a feast, decreeing that they should keep a festival of deliverance with all manner of rejoicing in the very place in which they had thought to meet their fate.

3Ma 6:31 Then those who before were reviled and nigh to the grave, or rather had already one foot therein, instead of a bitter and most lamentable death, held a banquet to celebrate their deliverance, and full of joy they portioned between their companies the place which had been prepared for their destruction and grave.

3Ma 6:32 And ceasing the piteous strain of dirges, they took up the song of their fathers, praising Yehowah the savior of Israel and doer of wonders; and laying aside all wailing and lamentation they formed dances in token of joy for their safe deliverance.

3Ma 6:33 And likewise the king too, convening a great banquet in celebration of this, unceasingly gave thanks in exalted terms to heaven for their unexpected deliverance.

3Ma 6:34 And those who before supposed that they (the Jews) were doomed to destruction and to be food for birds, and had joyfully carried out the registration, groaned at finding themselves covered with confusion and their fiery blast of insolence quenched ingloriously.

3Ma 6:35 And the Jews, as we have already said, formed the dance which we have before described, and spent their time in feasting with joyful thanksgiving and psalms.

3Ma 6:36 And establishing a public ordinance about this, to be observed for all their sojourning from generation to generation, they appointed the days mentioned to be kept as a festival, not for the sake of drinking or gluttony, but in memory of the salvation granted them by Yehowah.

3Ma 6:37 And they petitioned the king, desiring to depart to their home.

3Ma 6:38 Now they were registering them from the twenty-fifth day of Pachon to the fourth of Epiphis, for forty days; and they were appointing their destruction from the fifth of Epiphis to the seventh, three days.

3Ma 6:39 And on these did the ruler of all with great glory manifest his mercy and deliver them one and all unhurt.

3Ma 6:40 And they feasted, provided with all things by the king, till the fourteenth day on which they also made petition for their return.

3Ma 6:41 And the king granting their request wrote for them the following letter to the generals in the cities, generously declaring his purpose.

3Ma 7:1 King Ptolomaeus Philopator to the generals in Egypt and to all set over his affairs greeting and prosperity.

3Ma 7:2 We ourselves and our children prosper, great Yehowah directing our estate as we will.

3Ma 7:3 Certain of our friends with evil heart by frequently urging the matter upon us persuaded us to gather together in a body the Jews in the kingdom, and to inflict upon them extraordinary punishments as traitors, 3Ma 7:4 urging that our state would never be firmly established, on account of the enmity which they have to all nations, until this was done.

3Ma 7:5 And they, bringing them bound with harsh treatment as slaves, or rather traitors, without any enquiry or examination, attempted to put them to death, girding themselves with a cruelty fiercer than Scythian customs.

3Ma 7:6 But we severely threatened them for this, and of the clemency which we have to all men scarcely granted them their lives; and knowing that the Mighty One of heaven surely protects the Jews, fighting on their side continually as a father for his children, 3Ma 7:7 and taking into account the goodwill as of a friend which they have shown unswervingly to us and our ancestors, we have rightly absolved them from all blame on whatsoever account.

3Ma 7:8 And we have ordered them each to return to his own home, and that no one in any place should injure them at all or reproach them for their unreasonable sufferings.

3Ma 7:9 For know well that if we devise any evil against them, or harm them in any way, we shall have not man but the ruler of all power, Most High Yehowah, as an adversary to avenge what is done, and that in every way and at all time without being able to escape him. Fare ye well.

3Ma 7:10 The Jews receiving this epistle did not at once make haste to prepare for their departure, but desired further of the king that those of the Jewish race who had of their own will transgressed against holy Yehowah [and the law of Yehowah] should receive at their hand fitting punishment, 3Ma 7:11 urging that those who for their belly's sake had transgressed against the divine command would never be well disposed to the king's commands either.

3Ma 7:12 And he acknowledging the truth of what they said and praising them, gave them full indemnity to destroy in every place in his dominions those who had transgressed against the law of Yehowah, and this with all freedom without any further authority or enquiry from the king.

3Ma 7:13 Then having received his words with applause, as was fitting, their priests and the whole multitude with shouts of hallelujah departed in joy.

3Ma 7:14 So as they went on their way they slew whomsoever they met of their countrymen who had been defiled, and put them to death with ignominy.

3Ma 7:15 And on that day they slew over three hundred men, and they kept it as a joyful festival, having destroyed the impious.

3Ma 7:16 But they themselves who had held fast to Yehowah even unto death, and had entered into the full enjoyment of their safe delivery, departed from the city crowned with all manner of fragrant flowers and with cries of joy, in praises and melodious hymns giving thanks to the Mighty One of their fathers, the eternal savior of Israel.

3Ma 7:17 And when they had reached Ptolemais, called, on account of the peculiarity of the place, The Rose-bearing, the fleet, according to their general wish waited for them seven days, 3Ma 7:18 and they held there a banquet to celebrate their deliverance, the king having generously provided for them all things for their journey until each one had ome to his own home.

3Ma 7:19 Having reached the end of their voyage in peace with befitting thanksgivings, there too in like manner they determined to observe these days as well as a festival during the time of their sojourning;

3Ma 7:20 and having inscribed them as holy on a pillar, and having dedicated a place of prayer on the spot where they had held their festival, they departed unharmed, free, and full of joy, being brought safely on their journey by land and sea and river according to the king's command, each to his own country,

3Ma 7:21 having even greater authority than before in the eyes of their enemies with glory and respect, and being despoiled by no one at all of their goods.

3Ma 7:22 And they all recovered the whole of their property according to the registration, so that those who held any of it returned it with great fear, great Yehowah having perfectly wrought great things for their salvation.

3Ma 7:23 Blessed be the deliverer of Israel for ever and ever. AMEN.

Book of 4th Maccabees

4Ma 1:1 Since the subject I propose to discuss is most philosophical, namely whether Yehowah-directed Reason has complete authority over the passions, I would earnestly counsel you to give serious attention to its philosophy.

4Ma 1:2 For the subject is necessary to everyone as a branch of knowledge, and also it includes the praise of the highest of virtues, which is prudence.

4Ma 1:3 If then Reason is seen to control the passions which hinder temperance, that is to say gluttony and lust, 4Ma 1:4 it is also clearly shown to be superior to the passions which stand in the way of justice, such as malice, and to those which stand in the way of courage, anger pain and fear.

4Ma 1:5 How then, some may ask, if Reason rules the passions, is it not superior to forgetfulness and ignorance? Their attempt at argument is ridiculous.

4Ma 1:6 For Reason does not rule its own passions, but those which are opposed to justice, bravery, temperance and right judgment; and it rules these not by way of destroying them but by refusing to yield to them.

4Ma 1:7 I might then show you from many different sources how Yehowah-directed Reason has full control over the passions;

4Ma 1:8 but I may illustrate it far the best from the heroism of those who died for virtue, Eleazar, and the seven brethren and their mother.

4Ma 1:9 For all these by despising sufferings even unto death, showed how Reason rules the passions.

4Ma 1:10 I might then praise for their virtues the men who at this season died with their mother in the cause of what is noble and good, but I would rather felicitate them on the honors they won.

4Ma 1:11 For by their courage and endurance they attracted the admiration not only of mankind in general, but even of their torturers, and became the cause of the destruction of the tyranny which oppressed our nation, overcoming the tyrant by their endurance, so that our country was purified by them.

4Ma 1:12 But there will presently be an opportunity to speak about this when we have first, according to my custom, stated the general principle; after that I will turn to their story, giving glory to all-wise Yehowah.

4Ma 1:13 We enquire then whether Reason has control over the passions.

4Ma 1:14 But let us define clearly what Reason really is, and what passion is; how many types of passions there are, and whether Reason controls them all.

4Ma 1:15 Reason then is mind choosing with sound judgment the life of wisdom.

4Ma 1:16 And wisdom is knowledge of things human and divine, and of their causes, 4Ma 1:17 This wisdom is what we are taught by the law, by which we learn things divine with reverence, and things human for our profit.

4Ma 1:18 And of wisdom the types are prudence, justice, courage, and temperance.

4Ma 1:19 Prudence is the greatest of all; it is through this in fact that Reason controls the passions.

4Ma 1:20 Now of passions the most comprehensive types are two, pleasure and pain; and of these each is concerned with the soul as well as with the body.

4Ma 1:21 And there are many consequences of the passions in connection both with pleasure and with pain.

4Ma 1:22 For before pleasure comes desire; after it joy;

4Ma 1:23 and before pain, fear; after it sorrow.

4Ma 1:24 And anger is a passion which embraces both pleasure and pain, if we consider what happens when we fall into it.

4Ma 1:25 And under pleasure falls also the debased disposition which is the most varied of all the passions.

4Ma 1:26 In the soul it is boastful imposture, and covetousness, and vanity, and quarrelsomeness and backbiting;

4Ma 1:27 and in the body indiscriminate eating and gluttony and gormandizing in secret.

4Ma 1:28 Pleasure and pain being as it were two trees growing from body and soul, there are many offshoots of these passions.

4Ma 1:29 Each one of these the master-gardener Reason purges, as he prunes and binds up and irrigates and directs the water in all directions, bringing into cultivation the wild thickets of dispositions and passions.

4Ma 1:30 For Reason is guide of the virtues, but supreme master of the passions. Mark therefore in the first place by the controlling acts of temperance how Reason is supreme lord of the passions.

4Ma 1:31 Temperance of course is control of the desires.

4Ma 1:32 And of the desires some belong to the soul, some to the body; and Reason is seen to control both.

4Ma 1:33 For how is it that when we are tempted to forbidden meats, we turn away from the pleasures they promise? Is it not because Reason is able to control the desires? That is my answer.

4Ma 1:34 Therefore when we desire things from the waters, or birds or animals, all kinds of meats forbidden us in the law, we abstain on account of the control of Reason.

4Ma 1:35 For the passions and desires are checked and turned aside by the temperate mind; and all the motions of the body are bridled by Reason.

4Ma 2:1 And is it to be wondered at if the desires of the soul for the enjoyment of beauty are frustrated?

4Ma 2:2. This is the very reason why we praise Joseph the temperate, because by the power of mind he conquered the desire for pleasure.

4Ma 2:3 For though a young man and subject to the promptings of sex, by the power of Reason he brought to nothing the fierce impulse of the passions,

4Ma 2:4 And Reason is seen to control the promptings not only of sensual pleasure, but of every kind of desire;

4Ma 2:5 for the law says “Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife nor anything that is his.”

4Ma 2:6 And indeed when the law orders us not to covet, it may help me to convince you that Reason is able to control the desires just as it does the passions which hinder justice.

4Ma 2:7 For when a man is naturally a secret gormandizer, or a glutton, or a drunkard, how is he taught better unless Reason is clearly lord over the passions?

4Ma 2:8 As soon as a man orders his life according to the law, even if he be fond of money, he does violence to his own disposition, lending money to the poor without interest and canceling the debt at the seven-year period.

4Ma 2:9 Or if a man is miserly he is ruled by the law through Reason, neither gleaning his fields when reaped, nor picking his vines the second time. And in the case of all other passions too it is possible to see that Reason is superior to them.

4Ma 2:10 For the law is superior even to affection for parents, not allowing the surrender of virtue for their sakes;

4Ma 2:11 and it is superior to love of wife, rebuking her for any transgressions;

4Ma 2:12 it is higher than love of children, punishing them for wrong-doing; it conquers affection for friends, reproving them for evil.

4Ma 2:13 And do not think it a strange thing when Reason is able to, overcome even hatred at the command of the law, 4Ma 2:14 not cutting down the cultivated trees of enemies, saving hostile property from looters, and repairing ruins.

4Ma 2:15 And Reason is seen to rule even the more violent passions, ambition, vanity, boastful imposture, pride and backbiting.

4Ma 2:16 For all these evil passions the temperate mind repels, as it repels anger too; for it rules over this as well.

4Ma 2:17 When Moses was angered against Dathan and Abiram, he did not act angrily towards them, but directed the course of his anger by Reason.

4Ma 2:18 For, as I said, the temperate mind is able to show its superiority over the passions, modifying some and crushing others.

4Ma 2:19 For why did our wise father Jacob blame Simeon and Levi and their friends for the slaughter of the whole tribe of the Shechemites, which was not according to Reason, saying “Cursed be their anger?”

4Ma 2:20 Unless Reason were able to control bursts of anger, he would not have spoken so.

4Ma 2:21 For when Yehowah made man He implanted in him his passions and dispositions.

4Ma 2:22 At the same time He enthroned mind amid the senses as the sacred guide over all,

4Ma 2:23 and to this He gave law; if a man order his life by this, he shall reign over a kingdom which is temperate, just, good, and brave.

4Ma 2:24 How then, it may be said, if Reason rules the passions, does it not rule forgetfulness and ignorance?

4Ma 3:1 The implied argument is simply absurd. For we see that Reason is ruler not over its own passions, but over those of the body.

4Ma 3:2 For example, none of you can extirpate desire, but Reason can bring it about that you should not be enslaved to desire.

4Ma 3:3 None of you can extirpate anger from the soul, but Reason can come to your aid against anger.

4Ma 3:4 None of you can extirpate an evil disposition, but Reason can be your ally so that you are not swayed by it.

4Ma 3:5 For Reason does not uproot the passions but opposes them.

4Ma 3:6 It is possible to show this more clearly by the story of King David's thirst.

4Ma 3:7 For fighting the whole day against the Philistines, he had slain many of them with the aid of the soldiers of our country;

4Ma 3:8 then when evening came, in a sweat and exhausted, he reached the royal tent round which the whole army of our forefathers was encamped.

4Ma 3:9 The rest all took their supper;

4Ma 3:10 but the king, having an intense thirst, though he had abundant springs of water, could not satisfy it from them.

4Ma 3:11 But an unreasonable desire for the water that was in the possession of the enemy grew more intense and inflamed him; it unmanned and consumed him.

4Ma 3:12 So when his bodyguard chafed at the king's desire, two young men, brave warriors, respecting it, armed themselves fully and taking a pitcher scaled the enemies' ramparts,

4Ma 3:13 and hiding themselves from the sentries at the gates they passed through the whole hostile camp in their search.

4Ma 3:14 They bravely discovered the spring and drew from it the draught for the king.

4Ma 3:15 But he, though consumed with thirst, reasoned that such a draught, counted as equivalent to blood, was a grievous danger to his soul.

4Ma 3:16 So setting Reason against desire, he poured out the drink as an offering to Yehowah.

4Ma 3:17 For the temperate mind can conquer the compulsions of the passions and quench the fires of the desires, 4Ma 3:18 and overcome the sufferings of the body, even when extreme, and by the noble virtue of Reason scorn all the tyranny of the passions.

4Ma 3:19 But it is now time for us to set forth the story of self-controlled Reason.

4Ma 3:20 For when our fathers, as a result of their devotion to the law, enjoyed profound peace and prosperity, so that the king of Asia, Seleucus Nicanor, even assigned them funds for the Temple service and recognized their form of government, 4Ma 3:21 at that very time a party, bringing in innovations contrary to the general concord, involved themselves in a variety of calamities.

4Ma 4:1 For a certain Simon was in opposition to Onias, a man of irreproachable character, who then held the High-priesthood for life, and being unable to injure him, in spite of slanders of every description, on account of the people, he fled into exile with the intention of betraying his country.

4Ma 4:2 So he came to Apollonius, the governor of Syria, Phoenicia, and Cilicia, and said:

4Ma 4:3 I am come to you with a desire to serve the king, and inform you that many thousands of private deposits are stored in the treasuries of Jerusalem, which do not belong to the Temple funds but to Seleucus the king.

4Ma 4:4 Apollonius, having ascertained the details, praised Simon for his care for the king’s interests, and went to Seleucus to inform him of the treasure.

4Ma 4:5 Having obtained authority to deal with this matter, he came quickly to our country with the accursed Simon and a very powerful army, 4Ma 4:6 saying that he came by the king's command to take possession of the private deposits of the treasury.

4Ma 4:7 Our people were deeply indignant at this announcement and protested, feeling that it was scandalous that those who had entrusted their deposits to the sacred treasury should lose their money, and tried to prevent it in every way they could.

4Ma 4:8 Apollonius however made his way to the Temple with threats.

4Ma 4:9 The priests in the Temple with women and children besought Yehowah to defend His Holy Place which was being desecrated, 4Ma 4:10 and when Apollonius with an armed force proceeded to the plunder of the money, there appeared from heaven angels on horses in flashing armor who filled them with great fear and dread.

4Ma 4:11 Apollonius fell down half-dead in the Court of the Gentiles, and stretching out his hands to heaven he implored the Hebrews with tears to pray for him and to propitiate the heavenly host.

4Ma 4:12 For he acknowledged that he had sinned and deserved even to die, but promised if he were spared to celebrate to all men the blessedness of the sacred place.

4Ma 4:13 Onias the High-priest, moved by these words, though otherwise scrupulous, interceded for him lest King Seleucus should think that Apollonius had been overthrown by a human plot instead of by divine justice.

4Ma 4:14 So he went his way unexpectedly preserved to inform the king of what had happened to him.

4Ma 4:15 But on the death of Seleucus the king he was succeeded by his son Antiochus IV Epiphanes, an arrogant and terrible ruler.

4Ma 4:16 He deposed Onias from the High-priesthood and made Jason his brother High-priest, 4Ma 4:17 on his consenting to pay three thousand six hundred and sixty talents yearly in return for the appointment.

4Ma 4:18 In this way he set up Jason as High-priest and ruler of the people.

4Ma 4:19 Jason changed their manner of life and their constitution in complete defiance of the law,

4Ma 4:20 not only going so far as to set up a gymnasium on the Mount of our fathers, but even abolishing the service of the Temple.

4Ma 4:21 Divine Justice in anger at this brought Antiochus himself to war against us.

4Ma 4:22 For when he was fighting in Egypt against Ptolemy, he heard that a report had been spread of his death, and that the people of Jerusalem were in transports of joy thereat, and marched at once against them.

4Ma 4:23 And having sacked their city, he decreed the penalty of death on any who were found living according to the law of their fathers.

4Ma 4:24 And since he was in no way able by his decrees to destroy the devotion of the people, but saw all his threats and penalties utterly despised,

4Ma 4:25 so that even women for circumcising their children were flung headlong from the rocks with their babes, knowing that this would be their fate,

4Ma 4:26 since, I say, his decrees were despised by the populace, he tried himself to compel each one of the nation by tortures to eat unclean food and forswear Judaism.

4Ma 5:1 So the tyrant Antiochus, sitting with his counselors on a certain high place, with his troops standing by underarms,

4Ma 5:2 ordered his bodyguards to bring up the Hebrews one by one and to compel them to eat swine's flesh and meat offered to idols;

4Ma 5:3 those who refused to touch the unclean thing he ordered to be tortured and killed.

4Ma 5:4 And when many had been dragged together, the first of the group to be brought near him was a Hebrew by name Eleazar, a priest by birth, a lawyer by training, advanced in years and known to many of the tyrant's friends for his skill in philosophy.

4Ma 5:5 Antiochus seeing him said:

4Ma 5:6 Before beginning to torture an old man like thee, I would counsel thee to eat of the swine's flesh and save thyself, for I respect thy age and thy gray hairs, though I cannot think thee a philosopher when thou hast had them so long and dost still cling to the religion of the Jews.

4Ma 5:7 For why dost thou abominate eating the excellent flesh of this creature when nature has bestowed it upon us?

4Ma 5:8 It is foolish not to enjoy pleasures that can be had without reproach, and wrong to turn away from the free gifts of nature.

4Ma 5:9 But thou seemest to me to be likely to act still more foolishly if with fantastic ideas about the truth

4Ma 5:10 thou dost proceed to defy even me to thine own punishment. Wilt thou not wake from the vain dreams of thy philosophy?

4Ma 5:11 Wilt thou scatter the foolish vaporings of thy reasonings and adopt a new frame of mind worthy of thy advanced years, learning the true philosophy of experience?

4Ma 5:12 Yield to my charitable counsel and take pity on thy own gray hairs.

4Ma 5:13 For bethink thyself that even if there be any power that watches over this religion of yours, it would pardon thee for any transgression of the law committed under compulsion.

4Ma 5:14 When the tyrant urged him in this way to the eating of flesh forbidden by the law, Eleazar asked leave to speak,

4Ma 5:15 And obtaining permission he began his defense thus:

4Ma 5:16 Antiochus, we have agreed to order our life according to the divine law, and we consider no compulsion to be stronger than our desire to obey that law.

4Ma 5:17 Therefore under no circumstances do we deem it right to transgress it.

4Ma 5:18 And indeed even if our law were, as thou dost suppose, not in very truth divine, but we falsely imagined it to be so, not even then would it be right for us to destroy our reputation for piety.

4Ma 5:19 Do not think the eating of unclean flesh a small sin.

4Ma 5:20 For it is equally serious to break the law in small things as in great,

4Ma 5:21 since in either case the law is equally despised.

4Ma 5:22 Thou mockest at our philosophy as though under it we were not living in accordance with sound reason.

4Ma 5:23 Yet it teaches us temperance so that we control all passions and desires, and it trains us in courage so that we readily undergo any pain.

4Ma 5:24 And it trains us in justice so that with all our various dispositions we act with due balance; it teaches us true religion so that we worship with reverence the true Almighty alone.

4Ma 5:25 Therefore we do not eat unclean food; for believing the law to be given by Yehowah, we know that the Creator of the universe feels for us according to nature in giving us the law.

4Ma 5:26 While allowing us to eat things that would be suited to our souls' good, He forbade us to eat what would be contrary to it.

4Ma 5:27 But like a true tyrant not only dost thou compel us to transgress the law, but also to eat, so that thou mayest mock at this abominable defilement.

4Ma 5:28 But never shalt thou enjoy this mockery over me,

4Ma 5:29 neither will I break the sacred oaths of my fathers with respect to keeping the law, 4Ma 5:30 not even if thou dost cut out my eyes and burn my entrails.

4Ma 5:31 I am not so old or so little of a man that my reason is not still young in the cause of true religion.

4Ma 5:32 Therefore make ready thy racks and blow the fire more fiercely.

4Ma 5:33 My pity for my gray hairs is not such as to cause me to break the law of my fathers by mine own act.

4Ma 5:34 I will not play thee false, O law my teacher, nor will I shun thee, beloved self-control.

4Ma 5:35 I will not put thee to shame, O Reason the true philosopher, nor deny thee, honored priesthood and science of the law.

4Ma 5:36 Thou shalt defile neither the pure lips of my old age nor the ripe years of a life devoted to the law.

4Ma 5:37 My fathers shall welcome me unsullied, fearing not thy torments even unto death.

4Ma 5:38 Thou mayest be tyrant over the irreverent, but thou shalt lord it neither by word nor by deed over the commands of my Reason where religion is at stake.

4Ma 6:1 When Eleazar had made this eloquent answer to the exhortations of the tyrant, the guards who stood by dragged him roughly to the instruments of torture.

4Ma 6:2 And first they stripped him of his clothing, the old man who was adorned with the beauty of holiness.

4Ma 6:3 Then binding his arms on either side they scourged him with whips, 4Ma 6:4 a herald crying from over against him, Obey the commands of the king.

4Ma 6:5 But the high-souled and noble man, an Eleazar in very truth, was in no wise moved from his purpose, as though his torments were but a dream.

4Ma 6:6 Nay, the old man, lifting his eyes to heaven, suffered his flesh to be torn by the scourges till, bathed in blood and his sides all wounded, 4Ma 6:7 he fell to the ground when his body could no longer bear the torture; yet kept he the power of reason erect and unflinching.

4Ma 6:8 With his foot one of the rough guards violently kicked his side to make him rise up.

4Ma 6:9 But he bore the pain, despised the violence, endured the torments, 4Ma 6:10 and, like a brave athlete receiving punishment, won the victory over his torturers, old man though he was.

4Ma 6:11 With his face bathed in sweat and his breath coming hard, his courage won the admiration even of his tormentors themselves,

4Ma 6:12 so, partly in pity for his age,

4Ma 6:13 partly in sympathy for one who had been their friend, partly in admiration at his endurance, some of the king’s suite approached him and said:

4Ma 6:14 Why, O Eleazar, dost thou bring destruction upon thyself in these evils?

4Ma 6:15 We will set before thee of the prepared meats and do thou feign to taste of the swine’s flesh and save thyself.

4Ma 6:16 But Eleazar, as though their counsel added to the cruelty of his tortures, cried out:

4Ma 6:17 Let not us, the sons of Abraham, be so evil-minded as to feign a deed which would beshame us.

4Ma 6:18 For it would indeed be contrary to reason if, after spending our life till old age in service of the truth, and keeping in accordance with the law the repute of so doing, we were now to change,

4Ma 6:19 and should in our own selves become to the young a pattern of impiety, setting them the example of eating unclean food.

4Ma 6:20 Shame were it for us to live on a short space longer, mocked during it of all men for cowardice, 4Ma 6:21 and, despised by the tyrant as unmanly, to fail to defend our divine law unto death.

4Ma 6:22 Therefore do ye children of Abraham die nobly for your religion, 4Ma 6:23 and ye guards of the tyrant, why do ye delay?

4Ma 6:24 Seeing him proudly despising the tortures, and equally unmoved by their pity, they brought him to the fire.

4Ma 6:25 Then, burning him with cruelly devised instruments, they cast him beneath it and poured ill-savored broth into his nostrils.

4Ma 6:26 But he, now burnt to the bone and at the point of death, lifted up his eyes to Yehowah and said:

4Ma 6:27 Thou knowest, O Yehowah, that though I might have saved myself, I die in fiery torments for thy law's sake.

4Ma 6:28 Be merciful to the people and be content with our punishment on their behalf.

4Ma 6:29 Make my blood a purification for them and take my life as a ransom for their life.

4Ma 6:30 Saying this the holy man died nobly under his tortures, enduring torments even unto death by the power of Reason for the law's sake.

4Ma 6:31 Avowedly, then, Yehowah-directed Reason is master of the passions.

4Ma 6:32 For if the passions had been superior to Reason, I should have credited them with the evidence of their superiority.

4Ma 6:33 But now that Reason has conquered the passions, we justly ascribe to it the power of ruling them.

4Ma 6:34 And it is right that we should admit that the greater strength belongs to Reason, when it shows itself stronger even than external sufferings;

4Ma 6:35 for it were ridiculous to deny it. And I prove not only that Reason has been stronger than suffering, but also that it is stronger than pleasure and that it refuses to yield to it.

4Ma 7:1 For the Reason of our father Eleazar, like a skilled pilot steering the ship of piety through the sea of the passions,

4Ma 7:2 though buffeted by the threats of the tyrant and swept by the mighty waves of his tortures,

4Ma 7:3 in no way suffered the helm of piety to swerve until he entered the haven of victorious death.

4Ma 7:4 No city besieged with all manner of cunning devices ever resisted so well as did that Saint, who, with his holy soul swept by the fires of torture and rack, overcame his besiegers in the strength of Reason which was the defense of his piety.

4Ma 7:5 For our father Eleazar, with his mind standing firm like a projecting crag, broke the frenzied waves of the passions.

4Ma 7:6 O priest worthy of the priesthood, thou didst not defile thy hallowed teeth, nor didst thou pollute with unclean food thy belly which was the seat of piety and purity.

4Ma 7:7 O thou whose conduct never broke the music of the law, thou philosopher of the divine life!

4Ma 7:8 Such should those be who are called to serve the law, defending it with their own blood and noble agony in the face of sufferings even unto death.

4Ma 7:9 Thou, O father, didst confirm our devotion to the law by thy steadfastness unto glory; after speaking in honor of holiness thou didst not bring it to naught; by thy deeds thou didst place the words of philosophy on a sure foundation.

4Ma 7:10 O aged hero mightier than torture, veteran fiercer than the flame, great king over the passions, Eleazar’s deed.

4Ma 7:11 For as our father Aaron, armed with the censer, ran through the multitude of his nation and overcame the fiery angel, 4Ma 7:12 so Eleazar, the son of Aaron, consumed by the heat of the fire, did not allow his Reason to swerve.

4Ma 7:13 And yet, most marvelous of all, though an old man, the sinews of his body unstrung, his muscles relaxed, his nerves worn out, he renewed his youth

4Ma 7:14 by the spirit of Reason, and by his Isaac-like Reason brought to naught the many-headed torture.

4Ma 7:15 O blessed age, O reverend gray hairs, O life given to the law, perfected by the faithful seal of death!

4Ma 7:16 If then an old man despised tortures unto death on behalf of righteousness, righteous Reason admittedly is able to guide the passions.

4Ma 7:17 But it may be that some will say that all men do not rule the passions because all do not have their Reason enlightened.

4Ma 7:18 The answer is that those who care for righteousness with their whole heart, these alone can control the passions of the flesh,

4Ma 7:19 believing that to Yehowah they die not, as our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob die not, but live to Yehowah.

4Ma 7:20 There is then no contradiction in certain persons appearing to be slaves to their passions owing to the weakness of their Reason.

4Ma 7:21 For who that follows philosophy righteously according to the full rule of philosophy, and believes in Yehowah, 4Ma 7:22 and knows that it is a blessed thing to endure any pain for the sake of virtue, would not control his passions for the sake of righteousness?

4Ma 7:23 For the wise and temperate man alone is the brave lord of the passions.

4Ma 7:24 Therefore indeed even lads, becoming philosophers by the power of the Reason which is according to righteousness, have overcome yet more cruel torments.

4Ma 8:1 When in his first trial the tyrant found himself plainly defeated, being unable to compel an old man to eat unclean food, 4Ma 8:2 then in fierce anger he ordered others of the young men of the Hebrews to be brought, and, if they would eat the unclean food, to release them when they had done so, but, if they refused, to torture them yet more cruelly.

4Ma 8:3 On these orders of the tyrant there were brought up seven brethren with their mother, fair, modest, well-born, and with every charm.

4Ma 8:4 The tyrant, seeing them walking as if in a chorus with their mother in the midst, took notice of them and, struck by their comely and noble appearance, smiled on them, and calling them to him said:

4Ma 8:5 O youths, with all good will, I marvel at the beauty of each one of you, and honoring greatly such a band of brothers, I not only counsel you to avoid the infection of the madness of the old man who has just been tortured, 4Ma 8:6 but I invite you to yield and enjoy my friendship; for as I can punish those who disobey my commands, so may I also do good to those who obey me.

4Ma 8:7 Trust my word, and you shall receive positions of importance in my service, if you will deny the ancestral law of your sophers' citizenship; embrace a Greek mode of life;

4Ma 8:8 change your habits and take pleasure in your youth,

4Ma 8:9 For if you drive me to anger by your disobedience, you will compel me to torture each one of you to death with terrible penalties.

4Ma 8:10 Have pity on yourselves, whom even I your foe pity for your youth and comeliness.

4Ma 8:11 Will you not realize that if you disobey nothing awaits you but death with torments?

4Ma 8:12 With these words he ordered the instruments of torture to be brought forward that fear might help to persuade them to eat the unclean food.

4Ma 8:13 And when the guards produced wheels and instruments for dislocating joints, racks and cranks and catapults and cauldrons and braziers and thumbscrews and iron grips and wedges and branding irons, he spake again and said:

4Ma 8:14 Lads, fear, and the Justice which you reverence will pardon you if you break her law under compulsion.

4Ma 8:15 But they, hearing his persuasive words and seeing the terrible instruments, not only showed no fear, but even proved their philosophy in opposition to the tyrant, and by their right reason brought low his tyrant's power.

4Ma 8:16 And yet, let us consider; if some among them had been cowardly and unmanly, what sort of language would they have used? Would it not have been something like this?

4Ma 8:17 Miserable and foolish are we; when the king invites and calls us to receive his benefits, are we not to obey him?

4Ma 8:18 Why do we delight ourselves with vain purposes and dare a disobedience which can only bring death?

4Ma 8:19 Shall we not fear, my brothers, the instruments of torment and consider the threats of the tortures and flee this vainglorious and disastrous vaunting?

4Ma 8:20 Let us pity our own youth and have compassion on our mother's age;

4Ma 8:21 let us lay it to heart that if we disobey we shall die.

4Ma 8:22 Even the divine Justice will pardon us if of necessity we fear the king.

4Ma 8:23 Why do we banish ourselves from life that is so pleasant, and deprive ourselves of the sweet world?

4Ma 8:24 Let us not do violence to necessity, or to our own torment indulge in empty conceits.

4Ma 8:25 Not even the law itself willingly condemns us to death, fearing as we do the instruments of torture.

4Ma 8:26 Why does such love of contention inflame us and a fatal boldness attract us, when we might live in peace by obeying the king?

4Ma 8:27 But the young men, though on the point of torture, said nothing of all this, nor did it even come into their mind.

4Ma 8:28 For they despised the passions and were masters over pain.

4Ma 8:29 Therefore as soon as the king ceased counseling them to eat the unclean food, all with one voice together as with one mind, said:

4Ma 9:1 Why dost thou delay, O tyrant? for we are ready to die rather than transgress the commands of our fathers.

4Ma 9:2 For we should rightly shame our ancestors if we did not by our obedience to the law take Moses as our counselor.

4Ma 9:3 O tyrant that counselest breaking of the law, do not in thy hatred of us pity us more than ourselves.

4Ma 9:4 For we hold thy pity which bids us save ourselves by a breach of the law, more cruel than death itself.

4Ma 9:5 Thou dost try to terrify us, threatening us with death by torture, as though thou hadst learnt nothing but a short while ago from Eleazar.

4Ma 9:6 But if the old men of the Hebrews on behalf of religion have died enduring even tortures, more fittingly will we young ones die, despising the torments of thy compulsion over which our aged teacher triumphed.

4Ma 9:7 Make trial then, O tyrant; and if thou takest our lives on behalf of religion, think not that thou dost injure us by thy tortures.

4Ma 9:8 We through our patient bearing of suffering shall win the prize of virtue;

4Ma 9:9 thou for our cruel murder shalt endure in sufficient measure at the hands of divine justice age-long torment in fire.

4Ma 9:10 These words added to the king’s indignation at their disobedience rage at what he considered their ingratitude.

4Ma 9:11 So at his order the scourgers brought forward the eldest, and tearing off his garments bound both his hands and arms with thongs.

4Ma 9:12 And when they were wearied of flogging him with the whips and had gained nothing they put him on the wheel.

4Ma 9:13 On this the noble youth was racked till his limbs were out of joint.

4Ma 9:14 And broken in every limb he burst into denunciations, saying:

4Ma 9:15 Thou abominable tyrant, enemy of Heaven’s justice, brutal of heart, thou torturest me thus not for murder or impiety, but for defending the divine law.

4Ma 9:16 And when the guards said: Consent to eat, that thou mayest be freed from thy torments,

4Ma 9:17 he replied: Your wheel, O hateful minions, is not so strong as to strangle my Reason. Cut my limbs and burn my flesh and twist my joints;

4Ma 9:18 I will persuade you through all my torments that the children of the Hebrews alone are unconquerable in virtue’s cause.

4Ma 9:19 At these words they heaped on more coal and tightening the wheel stretched him still more upon it.

4Ma 9:20 And the wheel was besmeared with his blood all round, and the heap of coals was extinguished by the drops from his body, and pieces of flesh were whirled round on the axles of the machine.

4Ma 9:21 And though the frame of his body was now in dissolution the heroic youth like a true son of Abraham uttered no groan,

4Ma 9:22 but, as though in the fire he was already being transformed into incorruption, he bravely endured the torments,

4Ma 9:23 crying: Imitate me, my brothers. Never desert your post by my side, nor forswear our brotherhood in nobility of soul; fight a good and holy fight on behalf of righteousness, 4Ma 9:24 through which fight may the mercy of the just Providence which was with our fathers be won for our nation and take vengeance on the accursed tyrant.

4Ma 9:25 With these words the holy youth gave up the ghost.

4Ma 9:26 And while all were wondering at his endurance, the guards brought up the one who was next in age to him, and fastening on themselves iron hands with sharp claws they bound him to the instruments and the catapult.

4Ma 9:27 They asked him before the torture whether he were willing to eat, but hearing his noble resolve,

4Ma 9:28 they tore at his sinews with their iron hands and flayed off all his flesh down to his chin, together with the skin of his head, like wild leopards, And he, steadfastly enduring the agony, said:

4Ma 9:29 How sweet is every form of death on behalf of the religion of our fathers; and, speaking to the tyrant,

4Ma 9:30 O most cruel of tyrants, dost thou not feel that thou art now tortured more than I, seeing the arrogant reasoning of thy tyranny conquered by our endurance for righteousness' sake?

4Ma 9:31 For my pain is lightened by the joys which attend virtue, but thou art tortured by the threats which attend wickedness; nor, thou abominable tyrant, shalt thou escape the vengeance of the divine wrath.

4Ma 10:1 So when he had bravely met his glorious death, the third was brought forward amid many exhortations from all sides to eat and save himself.

4Ma 10:2 But he cried out and said: Know ye not that the same father begat me and my brothers that have died, and the same mother bore us, and in the same beliefs was I nurtured?

4Ma 10:3 I do not forswear the noble bond of kinship with my brethren.

4Ma 10:4 Therefore, whatever engine of torture ye have, apply it to my body; my soul ye shall never touch, not even if ye would.

4Ma 10:5 But they, angered at the boldness of the hero, dislocated his hands and his feet with their dislocating instruments, and wrenching his limbs from their sockets, pulled them asunder,

4Ma 10:6 and twisted round his fingers and arms and legs and elbow joints,

4Ma 10:7 And being in no way able to choke his spirit, they flayed off his skin with the tips of his fingers and stripped off his scalp as the Scythians do and straightway brought him to the wheel.

4Ma 10:8 On this they twisted his spine, and he saw his own flesh hanging in shreds, and drops of blood falling from his entrails.

4Ma 10:9 On the point of death he said:

4Ma 10:10 O most abominable of tyrants, we suffer these things on behalf of the discipline and virtue which we have from Yehowah, 4Ma 10:11 but thou for thy impiety and cruelty shalt endure torments which none can stop.

4Ma 10:12 So when he had died in a manner worthy of his brethren, they dragged up the fourth, saying:

4Ma 10:13 Avoid the infection of thy brothers' madness; obey the king and save thyself.

4Ma 10:14 But he replied: Ye have no fire to bring against me which is so hot as to make me a coward.

4Ma 10:15 By the blessed death of my brethren, and the eternal destruction of the tyrant, and the glorious life of the righteous, I will not deny my noble brotherhood.

4Ma 10:16 Devise thy tortures, O tyrant, that by these too thou mayest learn that I am the brother of those who have already been tortured.

4Ma 10:17 Hearing this, the bloodthirsty, murderous and abominable Antiochus ordered his tongue to be cut out.

4Ma 10:18 But he said: Even if you takeaway my pipe of speech, Yehowah hears the silent.

4Ma 10:19 See, my tongue hangs out; cut it, for thou shalt not thereby silence the voice of my Reason.

4Ma 10:20 Gladly for the cause of Yehowah do we give our members to be mutilated.

4Ma 10:21 But thou shalt speedily be overtaken of Yehowah; for thou cuttest out the tongue that has sung the divine hymns of praise.

4Ma 11:1 But when he too had died under the cruelty of the tortures, the fifth sprang forward saying:

4Ma 11:2. I do not purpose, O tyrant, to claim exemption from the torture endured for virtue's sake.

4Ma 11:3 I come forward of my own accord that by murdering me too thou mayest by yet more misdeeds incur the greater penalty at the hands of the divine Justice.

4Ma 11:4 O thou enemy of virtue and of man alike, for what crime dost thou destroy us in this manner?

4Ma 11:5 Dost thou think it evil that we worship the creator of all and live according to His law of virtue?

4Ma 11:6 But this is worthy of honors, not of tortures, 4Ma 11:7 if thou didst understand the aspirations of mankind and hadst hope of salvation from Yehowah.

4Ma 11:8 But now being estranged from Yehowah, thou warrest against them that worship Him.

4Ma 11:9 As he said this, the guards bound him and dragged him to the catapult, 4Ma 11:10 and binding him thereon by the knees and fastening them with iron cramps, they bent his loins back upon the wedge of the wheel, and as he was completely broken back on this like a scorpion, every limb was disjointed.

4Ma 11:11 In this way, panting hard and in anguish of body,

4Ma 11:12 Good, he cried, in spite of thy will, O tyrant, are the favors thou grantest us, good, since thou enablest us to show by yet more noble sufferings our patient loyalty to the law.

4Ma 11:13 So when he too was dead, the sixth was brought, a mere lad; and when the tyrant asked if he wished to eat and be released, he said:

4Ma 11:14 Though in years I am younger than my brothers, yet in understanding am I as old.

4Ma 11:15 Being born and brought up for the same end, we should also die in like manner for the same cause.

4Ma 11:16 Therefore if it be thy mind to torture those who eat not the unclean meat, torture.

4Ma 11:17 When he had said this they brought him to the wheel,

4Ma 11:18 and stretching him carefully on it they dislocated the bones of his back and roasted him from beneath;

4Ma 11:19 and heating sharp spits in the fire, they ran them into his back and piercing his side they burnt away his entrails.

4Ma 11:20 But he cried in the midst of his tortures: O contest worthy of saints, wherein so many brethren have been summoned to a test of suffering and have not been conquered.

4Ma 11:21 For unconquerable, O tyrant, is Yehowah-directed knowledge.

4Ma 11:22 In the armor of virtue I too shall die with my brethren, 4Ma 11:23 adding in myself one strong avenger more against thee, O thou cunning deviser of tortures and enemy of the truly righteous.

4Ma 11:24 Six lads, we have brought to naught thy tyrant’s power.

4Ma 11:25 For when thou canst not sway our Reason or drive us to eat unclean meat, does not this bring thee to naught?

4Ma 11:26 Thy fire is cool to us; thy catapults hurt us not; thy violence has no power.

4Ma 11:27 For the guards, not of a tyrant but of the divine law, have been our champions; therefore our Reason remains unconquered.

4Ma 12:1 So when he too had died a blessed death, having been thrown into a cauldron, the seventh came up, the youngest of all.

4Ma 12:2 The tyrant, although he was greatly embittered by his brethren, pitied him,

4Ma 12:3 and seeing him already bound with fetters, sent for him and tried to dissuade him, saying:

4Ma 12:4 Thou seest the end of the folly of thy brethren; their disobedience has brought them to death upon the rack. And unless thou obey, thou too shalt be tortured miserably and perish before thy time.

4Ma 12:5 But if thou obey, thou shalt be my friend and advanced to high office in the affairs of the kingdom.

4Ma 12:6 And giving this advice, he sent for the mother of the lad, that in sorrow for her loss of so many sons she might urge the survivor to obey and save himself.

4Ma 12:7 But when his mother had encouraged him in the Hebrew tongue, as we shall soon tell, 4Ma 12:8 he cried: Release me; let me speak to the king and all his friends.

4Ma 12:9 Rejoicing at the youth's promise they speedily released him.

4Ma 12:10 And running up to the gridirons he said:

4Ma 12:11 Irreverent tyrant, impious above all sinners, art thou not ashamed, when thou hast received of Yehowah thy good things and thy kingdom, to slay His servants and to torture those who follow after righteousness?

4Ma 12:12 Therefore the divine justice shall keep thee in store for a fiercer and age-long fire and torments, which shall not leave thee for all the age.

4Ma 12:13 Art thou not ashamed, being human, though with the heart of a beast, to cut out the tongue of men of like feelings with thyself and made of the same elements, and to maltreat and torment them in this way?

4Ma 12:14 They have died nobly and have sealed their righteous devotion to Yehowah; 4Ma 12:15 but thou shalt rue bitterly having slain without cause the champions of virtue.

4Ma 12:16 Then when he too was on the point of death, he said:

4Ma 12:17 I am no renegade from the testimony borne by my brethren.

4Ma 12:18 I call on the Mighty One of my fathers that He may show mercy to my nation.

4Ma 12:19 Thee He will punish both in the life that now is and after death.

4Ma 12:20 With this prayer he cast himself into the braziers and so died.

4Ma 13:1 If then the seven brethren despised sufferings even to death, it is manifestly shown that Yehowah-directed Reason is supreme lord over the passions.

4Ma 13:2 For if they had been the slaves of their passions and had eaten the unclean food, we should have said that they had been conquered by them.

4Ma 13:3 But as it is it was not so; but by the Reason which is commended in the sight of Yehowah they overcame the passions.

4Ma 13:4 And we can see the superiority of the understanding, for they won the victory over both passion and sufferings.

4Ma 13:5 How then can we refuse to admit right reason's mastery over passion in these men who shrank not from the agonies of the fire?

4Ma 13:6 For as towers defending the mouth of harbors break the fury of the waves and make the haven calm for those who sail in,

4Ma 13:7 so the right reason of the young heroes, like seven towers, protected the harbor of righteousness and overcame the unruly raging of the passions.

4Ma 13:8 For as a holy choir of righteousness, they cheered one another saying:

4Ma 13:9 Brothers that we are, let us die like brothers for the law; let us imitate the three Youths of Assyria who despised the like ordeal of the furnace.

4Ma 13:10 Let us not shrink when called to the proof of our righteousness.

4Ma 13:11 And one cried: Brother, be of good cheer; and another: Bear it nobly;

4Ma 13:12 and a third, calling to mind the past, said: Remember whence ye come and at whose hand Isaac endured to be offered up for righteousness' sake.

4Ma 13:13 And one and all together, looking on one another brightly and right full of courage, said: Let us with our whole heart consecrate ourselves to Yehowah who giveth our souls and let us lend our bodies to the defense of the law.

4Ma 13:14 Let us not fear him who thinketh he killeth.

4Ma 13:15 For a great trial and danger to the soul is laid up in eternal torment for those who transgress the ordinance of Yehowah.

4Ma 13:16 Let us then arm ourselves with the power to conquer the passions which comes from the divine Reason.

4Ma 13:17 When we have so suffered, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob will receive us and all the Fathers will praise us.

4Ma 13:18 And to each one of the brethren as they were dragged away the survivors said: Shame us not, brother; be not false to those who have gone before.

4Ma 13:19 Now ye are not ignorant of the charm of brotherhood which the divine and all-wise Providence has imparted through their fathers to those whom they beget, implanting it in them even in their mother's womb;

4Ma 13:20 wherein brothers dwell for the same space of time and are formed for the same period and are nourished from the same blood and brought to maturity from the same life;

4Ma 13:21 they are brought to birth at the same interval and drink the milk from the same breasts, from which their souls are nursed in brotherly love in the same embraces,

4Ma 13:22 and they grow more and more through their common nurture and daily companionship and general training and our discipline in the law of Yehowah.

4Ma 13:23 Brotherly love and sympathy being thus strong, the seven brethren realized their union with one another in yet deeper sympathy.

4Ma 13:24 For trained in the same law and practicing the same virtues and brought up in a life of righteousness, they loved one another yet more.

4Ma 13:25 For their rivalry in all goodness strengthened their mutual union, 4Ma 13:26 making their brotherly love more fervent by the bond of religion.

4Ma 13:27 But though nature and companionship and their habits of virtue increased the charms of their brotherhood, yet for the sake of religion the survivors endured to see their brethren outraged and tortured to death.

4Ma 14:1 Nay, they even urged them on to face the agony so as not only to despise the suffering but also to overcome the passion of brotherly affection.

4Ma 14:2 O powers of reason, more kingly than kings, freer than the free, 4Ma 14:3 O holy and harmonious concord of the seven brethren in the cause of righteousness!

4Ma 14:4 No one of the seven youths played the coward or shrank from death;

4Ma 14:5 all, as if running the way to immortal life, hastened to death by torture.

4Ma 14:6 For as hands and feet move in harmony with the promptings of the soul, so those holy youths, as though moved by the immortal spirit of righteousness, went in harmony to death for her sake.

4Ma 14:7 O all-hallowed sevenfold band of brothers in harmony! For as the seven days of the creation of the world round the sacred number seven, 4Ma 14:8 thus the youths in chorus circled round righteousness, making of no account the fear of torment.

4Ma 14:9 Even now as we hear the story of their suffering we shudder, but they not only saw, they not only heard the utterance of the instant threat, but they felt it all and stood firm, and that under the agonies of fire;

4Ma 14:10 and what can be more terrible than these? For the power of fire which is sharp and keen quickly destroyed their bodies.

4Ma 14:11 And think it not strange that with those men Reason triumphed under torture, when the mind even of a woman despised sufferings still more manifold.

4Ma 14:12 For the mother of the seven bore the tortures inflicted upon each one of her sons.

4Ma 14:13 Consider how manifold are the yearnings of maternal affection, drawing as it does all things to the sympathy of love;

4Ma 14:14 since even irrational animals have the same sympathy and affection for their offspring as have men.

4Ma 14:15 For among birds those that nest in the roofs of houses protect their young;

4Ma 14:16 and those that build and hatch their young on the mountain crags and in clefts of rocks and holes and tops of trees, drive away the intruder, 4Ma 14:17 and even when they cannot, they flutter round their nestlings in the grief of love, calling to them with their own cries, and helping them in whatever way they can.

4Ma 14:18 And what need is there to show the love of offspring in the case of other animals?

4Ma 14:19 For bees too at the season of making the honey drive off any who approach, and with their sting as with a sword stab those who come near their brood, defending them to the death.

4Ma 14:20 But the mother of the youths with a soul like Abraham was not moved from her purpose by her natural feeling for her children.

4Ma 15:1 O Reason of the sons, lord over the passions! O religion, dearer to the mother than her sons!

4Ma 15:2 The mother, when two things were set before her, religion and the preservation of her sons for a season according to the promise of the tyrant,

4Ma 15:3 loved rather religion that preserves to eternal life according to the will of Yehowah.

4Ma 15:4 How can I set forth the passionate love of parents for their children? We stamp a marvelous likeness of soul and form on the tender mold of the child, especially because mothers are in closer sympathy with their offspring than fathers.

4Ma 15:5 For mothers are of soft soul, and the more children they bear, the more does their love abound.

4Ma 15:6 But of all mothers the mother of the seven abounded in love for her sons, since by seven child-bearings she nourished her devotion for them,

4Ma 15:7 and by her many pangs for each one was compelled to have the keener sympathy for them;

4Ma 15:8 yet in her fear of Yehowah she rejected the present safety of her children.

4Ma 15:9 Nay, on account of her sons' very nobility of character and their ready obedience to the law, her affection for them was all the greater.

4Ma 15:10 For they were just and temperate and brave and high-souled and lovers of each other and of their mother with such devotion that in keeping the ordinances of the law they obeyed her even unto death.

4Ma 15:11 Yet although there was so much in her maternal affection to tempt the mother to sympathize with them, in the case of no one of them were their manifold tortures able to bend her reason.

4Ma 15:12 Nay, the mother actually encouraged each severally and all together to die for their religion, 4Ma 15:13 O sacred natural instincts and love of parents and yearning towards offspring and wages of parenthood, and unconquerable passions of mothers!

4Ma 15:14 The mother, seeing each one tortured and burnt, swerved not for her religion's sake.

4Ma 15:15 She saw the flesh of her sons melting in the heat, their toes and fingers scattered on the ground, and the flesh of their faces round about their cheekbones hanging down like masks.

4Ma 15:16 O mother who didst now know more bitter sufferings than in their birthpangs!

4Ma 15:17 O thou who alone didst bring forth perfect reverence!

4Ma 15:18 Thy firstborn breathing out his spirit did not alter thy resolution, nor the second piteously looking to thee in his tortures, nor the third as he died.

4Ma 15:19 Nor didst thou weep when thou sawest the eyes of each one looking boldly in his torments on the same cruel fate, or when thou sawest in their nostrils the foreboding of death.

4Ma 15:20 Thou didst behold the flesh of one son cut off after the flesh of another, hand after hand severed, head after head flayed, corpse falling upon corpse, and the place crowded with spectators on account of the tortures of thy children; yet thou didst shed no tear.

4Ma 15:21 Not the voices of sirens or the song of swans delighting the ear do so melt the hearer, as did the voices of the sons crying to their mother from the torments.

4Ma 15:22 How many, how great were then the tortures of the mother, as her children were tortured by rack and fire.

4Ma 15:23 But Yehowah-directed Reason in the midst of her sufferings gave her a man's heart and nerved her to hold of no account the immediate claims of affection.

4Ma 15:24 And though she saw the destruction of seven sons and the manifold variety of their tortures, the noble mother bade them farewell and sent them forth in faith in Yehowah.

4Ma 15:25 For in the council chamber of her mind, as it were, she beheld cunning counselors, the claims of nature and motherhood and love for children, and the horrors of their tortures;

4Ma 15:26 and she, the mother, held two votes for her sons, one for death and one for life;

4Ma 15:27 yet she chose not that which brought life for her sons for a short season,

4Ma 15:28 but as a true daughter of Abraham called to mind his Yehowah-fearing courage.

4Ma 15:29 O mother of the race, champion of the law, defender of religion, winner of the prize in the struggle with compassion!

4Ma 15:30 O braver than men in endurance, and more heroic than heroes in what thou hast borne!

4Ma 15:31 For as the ark of Noah carrying the world on the world-whelming deluge, withstood the mighty waves, 4Ma 15:32 so thou, the guardian of the law, buffeted from all sides in the raging storm of the passions, and hard beat by the sufferings of thy sons as by mighty blasts, didst nobly bear the tempests which assailed religion.

4Ma 16:1 If then a woman, and that an old one and the mother of seven sons, endured to see her children tortured to death, it is clear that Yehowah-directed Reason is full lord of the passions.

4Ma 16:2 I have shown how not only did men conquer the passions, but how even a woman despised the fiercest torment.

4Ma 16:3 Not so fierce were the lions round Daniel, not so hot burned the fiery furnace of Mishael, as were the natural instincts of affection which consumed her as she saw the tortures of her own sons.

4Ma 16:4 But by the Reason of reverence did the mother quench all these many and great passions.

4Ma 16:5 For we may take into account that if the woman had been weak of spirit, being a mother, she would have bewailed over them, and it may be would have spoken thus:

4Ma 16:6 Ah, hapless one that I am, thrice wretched and more, who have borne seven sons and am the mother of none!

4Ma 16:7 In vain was I seven times with child, to no purpose was the ten months' burden borne seven times, fruitlessly did I nurse and to my sorrow did I give suck.

4Ma 16:8 In vain did I endure for you, my sons, my many pangs, and the still more anxious cares of your upbringing.

4Ma 16:9 Alas for my sons, some unwed and some wedded and childless, I shall not see your children, nor shall I have the joy of being called by the name of grandparent.

4Ma 16:10 I that had many and beautiful children am bereft and desolate in my woe.

4Ma 16:11 Nor when I die shall I have any of my sons to bury me. But the holy and Yehowah-fearing mother lamented none of them with any such lamentation,

4Ma 16:12 nor did she try to persuade any of them to escape death or grieve over them as though they perished:

4Ma 16:13 But as though her mind were of adamant and she were bringing forth once more the company of her sons to immortal life, she rather encouraged them by her prayers to die for their religion.

4Ma 16:14 O mother, true soldier of Yehowah in the cause of religion, though old and a woman, thou didst defeat even the tyrant by thy endurance, and both in deed and in word wast found stronger than a man.

4Ma 16:15 For when thou hadst been seized with thy sons, thou didst stand and see Eleazar tortured, and didst speak to them in the Hebrew tongue, saying:

4Ma 16:16 My sons, noble is the contest; called thereto to bear testimony for your nation, strive zealously for the law of your fathers.

4Ma 16:17 Shame were it that this old man should endure sufferings for the sake of religion, but that you that are young should shrink from torture.

4Ma 16:18 Remember that to serve Yehowah have ye come into the world and enjoyed life;

4Ma 16:19 therefore ought ye also to bear any pain for Yehowah's sake.

4Ma 16:20 To serve Him did Abraham our father make haste to sacrifice Isaac his son who was to be the father of our nation, and Isaac shrank not when he saw his father's hand descending with the knife upon him, 4Ma 16:21 Daniel the righteous was thrown to the lions; Hananiah, Azariah, and Mishael were cast violently into the furnace of fires and endured for the sake of Yehowah.

4Ma 16:22 Do ye then have the same faith towards Yehowah and be not troubled;

4Ma 16:23 for it were against Reason that having learnt reverence ye should not withstand suffering.

4Ma 16:24 With these words the mother of the seven encouraged each one of her sons and bade them die rather than transgress the ordinance of Yehowah;

4Ma 16:25 for they knew well that those who die for Yehowah live unto Yehowah, as do Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and all the patriarchs.

4Ma 17:1 And some of the guards declared that when she was about to be seized and put to death, she cast herself on the pyre in order that no one should touch her body.

4Ma 17:2 O mother who with thy seven sons didst break the tyrant's violence and didst bring to naught his evil devices and didst show the grandeur of faith!

4Ma 17:3 For thou wast grandly set as it were a roof upon thy sons as pillars and didst bear unshaken the earthquake of the tortures.

4Ma 17:4 Be of courage then, mother of the holy soul, having the hope of thy endurance firmly set on Yehowah.

4Ma 17:5 Not so majestic stands the moon in heaven amid the stars, as thou, lighting the path of thy seven star-like sons to reverence, dost stand in honor with Yehowah and art set in heaven with them.

4Ma 17:6 For thou didst bear thy children from Abraham our father.

4Ma 17:7 And if it were lawful for us to paint, as in a picture, the story of thy reverence, would not they who beheld shudder at the sight of the mother of seven sons enduring tortures unto death for the sake of reverence?

4Ma 17:8 For it were fitting on their tomb itself to inscribe even these words speaking as a memorial to our nation:

4Ma 17:9 Here lie an aged priest, an aged woman, and her seven sons, Through the violence of a tyrant who desired to destroy the polity of the Hebrew race;

4Ma 17:10 They vindicated our nation, looking unto Yehowah, and enduring torments even unto death.

4Ma 17:11 For truly holy was the contest that was waged by them.

4Ma 17:12 For virtue proved them then by endurance; the prize was victory in incorruption in life of length of days.

4Ma 17:13 Eleazar was first in the contest, and the mother played her part, and the brothers contested too;

4Ma 17:14 and the tyrant was their opponent, and the world and the society of mankind were the spectators;

4Ma 17:15 and religion carried the day, crowning her athletes.

4Ma 17:16 Who did not marvel at the athletes of the true law? Who were not amazed at them?

4Ma 17:17 The tyrant himself and his whole council wondered at their endurance, 4Ma 17:18 whereby they now stand before the throne of Yehowah and live the life of the blessed.

4Ma 17:19 For Moses saith, All thy sanctified ones are beneath thy hands.

4Ma 17:20 These then having sanctified themselves in the cause of Yehowah are honored not only with this honor, but also in that for their sakes our foes did not overcome our people, 4Ma 17:21 and the tyrant was chastised and our land was purified.

4Ma 17:22 They became as it were a ransom for our nation's sin, and through the blood of these righteous ones and their propitiating death, the divine Providence preserved Israel which before was evil treated.

4Ma 17:23 For when the tyrant Antiochus saw the courage of their virtue and their endurance under torments, he held up their endurance to his soldiers as an example;

4Ma 17:24 and applied to the punishment of the wicked too strictly as implying everlastingness. The fact is that the question of eternity had not really been thought out.

4Ma 18:1 O sons of Israel, born of the seed of Abraham, obey this law, and in all things follow reverence, 4Ma 18:2 knowing that Yehowah-directed Reason is lord over the passions and over pains not only from within but from without.

4Ma 18:3 Wherefore they, giving up their bodies to suffering for the sake of religion, were not only admired by men but also obtained a divine inheritance.

4Ma 18:4 And through them our nation had peace, and renewing the observance of the law in our country drave cut our foes.

4Ma 18:5 And the tyrant Antiochus was both punished on earth and after death he is now chastized. For when he could in no possible way compel the inhabitants of Jerusalem to change their nationality and to depart from the customs of their fathers,

4Ma 18:6 he left Jerusalem and marched against the Persians. And the mother of the seven children said this too to her sons, righteous woman that she was:

4Ma 18:7 I was a pure maiden and left not my father’s house, and I kept guard over the rib which became woman’s body.

4Ma 18:8 No seducer of the desert or ravisher of the field corrupted me, nor did the seducing serpent of deceit defile the purity of my maidenhood, but I lived with my husband all the days of my maturity.

4Ma 18:9 And when these my sons were grown up, their father died. Happy was he; he found the blessedness of children and never knew the pangs of losing them.

4Ma 18:10 He taught you while he was yet with you the law and the Prophets.

4Ma 18:11 He read to us of Abel slain by Cain, and Isaac who became a sacrifice, and Joseph kept in bonds;

4Ma 18:12 he spoke to us of the zeal of Phinehas, and told you the story of Hananiah, Azariah, and Mishael in the fire;

4Ma 18:13 he glorified Daniel in the den of lions and blessed him,

4Ma 18:14 and reminded you of the scripture of Isaiah that says: Even if thou passest through the fire, the flame shall not burn thee.

4Ma 18:15 He sang to us of the Psalmist David who says: Many are the troubles of the righteous.

4Ma 18:16 He read to us the Proverbs of Solomon: He is a tree of life to all them that do his will.

4Ma 18:17 He affirmed the words of Ezekiel: Shall these dry bones live?

4Ma 18:18 Nay, he forgot not the song which Moses taught which teaches: I will slay and will make alive.

4Ma 18:19 This is your life and the blessedness of your days.

4Ma 18:20 O cruel day and yet not cruel, when the cruel tyrant of the Greeks set the blazing fire in his barbarous braziers, and in fiercely boiling anger brought to the catapult and again to his tortures the seven sons of the daughter of Abraham, 4Ma 18:21 and blinded their eyes and cut out their tongues and slew them with manifold torments.

4Ma 18:22 Wherefore the divine Justice pursued and shall pursue the accursed wretch.

4Ma 18:23 But the sons of Abraham, together with their mother who won the crown, are gathered to the company of their fathers, receiving pure and immortal souls from Yehowah, 4Ma 18:24 to Whom be the glory for ever and ever, Amen.

Book of Job

Job 1:1 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared the Almighty, and eschewed evil.

Job 1:2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

Job 1:3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the East.

Job 1:4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

Job 1:5 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed the Almighty in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

Job 1:6 Now there was a day when the sons of the Almighty came to present themselves before Yehowah, and Satan came also among them.

Job 1:7 And Yehowah said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered Yehowah, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

Job 1:8 And Yehowah said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth the Almighty, and escheweth evil?

Job 1:9 Then Satan answered Yehowah, and said, Doth Job fear the Almighty for naught?

Job 1:10 Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his livestock is increased in the land.

Job 1:11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

Job 1:12 And Yehowah said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of Yehowah.

Job 1:13 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

Job 1:14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them:

Job 1:15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Job 1:16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of deities is fallen from the heavens, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Job 1:17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Job 1:18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

Job 1:19 And behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Job 1:20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshiped,

Job 1:21 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: Yehowah gave, and Yehowah hath taken away; blessed be the name of Yehowah.

Job 1:22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged the Almighty foolishly.

Job 2:1 Again there was a day when the sons of the Almighty came to present themselves before Yehowah, and Satan came also among them to present himself before Yehowah.

Job 2:2 And Yehowah said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered Yehowah, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

Job 2:3 And Yehowah said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth the Almighty, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

Job 2:4 And Satan answered Yehowah, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

Job 2:5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

Job 2:6 And Yehowah said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

Job 2:7 So went Satan forth from the presence of Yehowah, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

Job 2:8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

Job 2:9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse the Almighty, and die.

Job 2:10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of the Almighty, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

Job 2:11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

Job 2:12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

Job 2:13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

Job 3:1 After this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

Job 3:2 And Job spoke, and said,

Job 3:3 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

Job 3:4 Let that day be darkness; let not the Almighty regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

Job 3:5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

Job 3:6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

Job 3:7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

Job 3:8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up Leviathan.

Job 3:9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

Job 3:10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

Job 3:11 Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the spirit when I came out of the belly?

Job 3:12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

Job 3:13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept, then had I been at rest.

Job 3:14 With kings and counselors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves;

Job 3:15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

Job 3:16 Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

Job 3:17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

Job 3:18 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

Job 3:19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

Job 3:20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;

Job 3:21 Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

Job 3:22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

Job 3:23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom the Almighty hath hedged in?

Job 3:24 For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

Job 3:25 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

Job 3:26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

Job 4:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

Job 4:2 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking?

Job 4:3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

Job 4:4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

Job 4:5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

Job 4:6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

Job 4:7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? Or where were the righteous cut off?

Job 4:8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Job 4:9 By the blast of the Almighty they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

Job 4:10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

Job 4:11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

Job 4:12 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

Job 4:13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men,

Job 4:14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

Job 4:15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

Job 4:16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: An image was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

Job 4:17 Shall mortal man be more just than the Almighty? Shall a man be more pure than his maker?

Job 4:18 Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly.

Job 4:19 How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

Job 4:20 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish forever without any regarding it.

Job 4:21 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? They die, even without wisdom.

Job 5:1 Call now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

Job 5:2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

Job 5:3 I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

Job 5:4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

Job 5:5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

Job 5:6 Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

Job 5:7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

Job 5:8 I would seek unto the Almighty, and unto the Almighty would I commit my cause.

Job 5:9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvelous things without number.

Job 5:10 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields.

Job 5:11 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

Job 5:12 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

Job 5:13 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness, and the counsel of the willful is carried headlong.

Job 5:14 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

Job 5:15 But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

Job 5:16 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

Job 5:17 Behold, happy is the man whom the Almighty correcteth. Therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Most Powerful.

Job 5:18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up, he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

Job 5:19 He shall deliver thee in six troubles, yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

Job 5:20 In famine he shall redeem thee from death, and in war from the power of the sword.

Job 5:21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue, neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

Job 5:22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh, neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

Job 5:23 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field, and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

Job 5:24 And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin.

Job 5:25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

Job 5:26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

Job 5:27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

Job 6:1 But Job answered and said,

Job 6:2 Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

Job 6:3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea. Therefore my words are swallowed up.

Job 6:4 For the arrows of the Most Powerful are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit. The terrors of the Almighty do set themselves in array against me.

Job 6:5 Doth the wild donkey bray when he hath grass? Or loweth the ox over his fodder?

Job 6:6 Can that which is unsavory be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

Job 6:7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

Job 6:8 Oh that I might have my request; and that the Almighty would grant me the thing that I long for!

Job 6:9 Even that it would please the Almighty to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand and cut me off!

Job 6:10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow. Let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

Job 6:11 What is my strength, that I should hope? And what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

Job 6:12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of brass?

Job 6:13 Is not my help in me? And is wisdom driven quite from me?

Job 6:14 To him that is afflicted pity should be showed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Most Powerful.

Job 6:15 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;

Job 6:16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid.

Job 6:17 What time they wax warm, they vanish. When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

Job 6:18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing and perish.

Job 6:19 The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.

Job 6:20 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither and were ashamed.

Job 6:21 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down and are afraid.

Job 6:22 Did I say, Bring unto me? Or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

Job 6:23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? Or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

Job 6:24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue. And cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

Job 6:25 How forcible are right words! But what doth your arguing reprove?

Job 6:26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

Job 6:27 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

Job 6:28 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident unto you if I lie.

Job 6:29 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.

Job 6:30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? Cannot my taste discern perverse things?

Job 7:1 Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? Are not his days also like the days of a hireling?

Job 7:2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as a hireling looketh for the reward of his work,

Job 7:3 so am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

Job 7:4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? And I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

Job 7:5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken and become loathsome.

Job 7:6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

Job 7:7 O remember that my life is wind. Mine eye shall no more see good.

Job 7:8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: Thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

Job 7:9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away, so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

Job 7:10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

Job 7:11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 7:12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

Job 7:13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

Job 7:14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions,

Job 7:15 so that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

Job 7:16 I loathe it; I would not live always: Let me alone; for my days are vanity.

Job 7:17 What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? And that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?

Job 7:18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

Job 7:19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

Job 7:20 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? Why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

Job 7:21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? For now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

Job 8:1 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

Job 8:2 How long wilt thou speak these things? And how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

Job 8:3 Doth the Almighty pervert judgment? Or doth the Most Powerful pervert justice?

Job 8:4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;

Job 8:5 If thou wouldest seek unto the Almighty betimes, and make thy supplication to the Most Powerful;

Job 8:6 If thou were pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

Job 8:7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

Job 8:8 For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers.

Job 8:9 For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow.

Job 8:10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

Job 8:11 Can the rush grow up without mire? Can the bulrush grow without water?

Job 8:12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

Job 8:13 So are the paths of all that forget the Almighty; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish.

Job 8:14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.

Job 8:15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand. He shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

Job 8:16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

Job 8:17 His roots are wrapped about the heap and seeth the place of stones.

Job 8:18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

Job 8:19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

Job 8:20 Behold, the Almighty will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers.

Job 8:21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing and thy lips with rejoicing.

Job 8:22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to naught.

Job 9:1 Then Job answered and said,

Job 9:2 I know it is so of a truth, but how should man be just with the Almighty?

Job 9:3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

Job 9:4 He is wise in heart and mighty in strength. Who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

Job 9:5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not. Which overturneth them in his anger.

Job 9:6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

Job 9:7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

Job 9:8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

Job 9:9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

Job 9:10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

Job 9:11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not. He passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

Job 9:12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? Who will say unto him, What doest thou?

Job 9:13 If the Almighty will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

Job 9:14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

Job 9:15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

Job 9:16 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

Job 9:17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

Job 9:18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

Job 9:19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong. And if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

Job 9:20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me. If I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

Job 9:21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul. I would despise my life.

Job 9:22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

Job 9:23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

Job 9:24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. He covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

Job 9:25 Now my days are swifter than a footman. They flee away, they see no good.

Job 9:26 They are passed away as the swift ships; as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

Job 9:27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself.

Job 9:28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

Job 9:29 If I be wicked, why then labor I in vain?

Job 9:30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands ever so clean;

Job 9:31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

Job 9:32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

Job 9:33 Neither is there any judge betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

Job 9:34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me.

Job 9:35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

Job 10:1 My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

Job 10:2 I will say unto the Almighty, Do not condemn me; show me wherefore thou contendest with me.

Job 10:3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

Job 10:4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? Or seest thou as man seeth?

Job 10:5 Are thy days as the days of man? Are thy years as man's days,

Job 10:6 That thou inquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

Job 10:7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

Job 10:8 Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

Job 10:9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

Job 10:10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

Job 10:11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

Job 10:12 Thou hast granted me life and favor, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

Job 10:13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

Job 10:14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

Job 10:15 If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;

Job 10:16 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion. And again thou showest thyself marvelous upon me.

Job 10:17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

Job 10:18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me!

Job 10:19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

Job 10:20 Are not my days few? Cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

Job 10:21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

Job 10:22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

Job 11:1 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

Job 11:2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? And should a man full of talk be justified?

Job 11:3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? And when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

Job 11:4 For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

Job 11:5 But oh that the Almighty would speak, and open his lips against thee;

Job 11:6 And that he would show thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that the Almighty exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

Job 11:7 Canst thou by searching find out the Almighty? Canst thou find out the Most Powerful unto perfection?

Job 11:8 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? Deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

Job 11:9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.

Job 11:10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

Job 11:11 For he knoweth vain men. He seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

Job 11:12 For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild donkey's colt.

Job 11:13 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

Job 11:14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

Job 11:15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear.

Job 11:16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away.

Job 11:17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

Job 11:18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

Job 11:19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

Job 11:20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the spirit.

Job 12:1 And Job answered and said,

Job 12:2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

Job 12:3 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

Job 12:4 I am as one mocked of his neighbor, who calleth upon the Almighty, and he answereth him: The just upright man is laughed to scorn.

Job 12:5 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

Job 12:6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke the Almighty are secure; into whose hand the Almighty bringeth abundantly.

Job 12:7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee.

Job 12:8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

Job 12:9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of Yehowah hath wrought this?

Job 12:10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

Job 12:11 Doth not the ear try words? And the mouth taste his meat?

Job 12:12 With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

Job 12:13 With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

Job 12:14 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again. He shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

Job 12:15 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: Also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

Job 12:16 With him is strength and wisdom. The deceived and the deceiver are his.

Job 12:17 He leadeth counselors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

Job 12:18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

Job 12:19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

Job 12:20 He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

Job 12:21 He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

Job 12:22 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

Job 12:23 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: He enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.

Job 12:24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

Job 12:25 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

Job 13:1 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

Job 13:2 What ye know, the same do I know also. I am not inferior unto you.

Job 13:3 Surely I would speak to the Most Powerful, and I desire to reason with the Almighty.

Job 13:4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value.

Job 13:5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace! And it should be your wisdom.

Job 13:6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

Job 13:7 Will ye speak wickedly for the Almighty? And talk deceitfully for him?

Job 13:8 Will ye accept his person? Will ye contend for the Almighty?

Job 13:9 Is it good that he should search you out? Or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

Job 13:10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

Job 13:11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? And his dread fall upon you?

Job 13:12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

Job 13:13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

Job 13:14 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

Job 13:15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him, but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

Job 13:16 He also shall be my salvation, for a hypocrite shall not come before him.

Job 13:17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

Job 13:18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

Job 13:19 Who is he that will plead with me? For now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the spirit.

Job 13:20 Only do not two things unto me, then will I not hide myself from thee.

Job 13:21 Withdraw thine hand far from me, and let not thy dread make me afraid.

Job 13:22 Then call thou, and I will answer, or let me speak, and answer thou me.

Job 13:23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? Make me to know my transgression and my sin.

Job 13:24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

Job 13:25 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? And wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

Job 13:26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

Job 13:27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

Job 13:28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

Job 14:1 Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

Job 14:2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: He fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

Job 14:3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such a one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

Job 14:4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

Job 14:5 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

Job 14:6 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

Job 14:7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

Job 14:8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

Job 14:9 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

Job 14:10 But man dieth, and wasteth away: Yea, man giveth up the spirit, and where is he?

Job 14:11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

Job 14:12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: Till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

Job 14:13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

Job 14:14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

Job 14:15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: Thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

Job 14:16 For now thou numberest my steps: Dost thou not watch over my sin?

Job 14:17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

Job 14:18 And surely the mountain falling cometh to naught, and the rock is removed out of his place.

Job 14:19 The waters wear the stones: Thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

Job 14:20 Thou prevailest forever against him, and he passeth: Thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

Job 14:21 His sons come to honor, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

Job 14:22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

Job 15:1 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

Job 15:2 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

Job 15:3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? Or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

Job 15:4 Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before the Almighty.

Job 15:5 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

Job 15:6 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: Yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

Job 15:7 Art thou the first man that was born? Or wast thou made before the hills?

Job 15:8 Hast thou heard the secret of the Almighty? And dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

Job 15:9 What knowest thou, that we know not? What understandest thou, which is not in us?

Job 15:10 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

Job 15:11 Are the consolations of the Almighty small with thee? Is there any secret thing with thee?

Job 15:12 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? And what do thy eyes wink at,

Job 15:13 That thou turnest thy spirit against the Almighty, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

Job 15:14 What is man, that he should be clean? And he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?

Job 15:15 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.

Job 15:16 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?

Job 15:17 I will show thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;

Job 15:18 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it:

Job 15:19 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no foreigner passed among them.

Job 15:20 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.

Job 15:21 A dreadful sound is in his ears: In prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.

Job 15:22 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.

Job 15:23 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? He knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

Job 15:24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.

Job 15:25 For he stretcheth out his hand against the Almighty, and strengtheneth himself against the Most Powerful.

Job 15:26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick curve of his shields:

Job 15:27 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

Job 15:28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

Job 15:29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

Job 15:30 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

Job 15:31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity, for vanity shall be his recompense.

Job 15:32 It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

Job 15:33 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

Job 15:34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

Job 15:35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

Job 16:1 Then Job answered and said,

Job 16:2 I have heard many such things: Miserable comforters are ye all.

Job 16:3 Shall vain words have an end? Or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

Job 16:4 I also could speak as ye do: If your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.

Job 16:5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should asswage your grief.

Job 16:6 Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged: And though I forbear, what am I eased?

Job 16:7 But now he hath made me weary: Thou hast made desolate all my company.

Job 16:8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me. And my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

Job 16:9 He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: He gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

Job 16:10 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.

Job 16:11 The Almighty hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

Job 16:12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder. He hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

Job 16:13 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my inner being asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

Job 16:14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

Job 16:15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

Job 16:16 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

Job 16:17 Not for any injustice in mine hands. Also my prayer is pure.

Job 16:18 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

Job 16:19 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.

Job 16:20 My friends scorn me, but mine eye poureth out tears unto the Almighty.

Job 16:21 O that one might plead for a man with the Almighty, as a man pleadeth for his neighbor!

Job 16:22 When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

Job 17:1 My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

Job 17:2 Are there not mockers with me? And doth not mine eye continue in their provocation?

Job 17:3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?

Job 17:4 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding. Therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

Job 17:5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

Job 17:6 He hath made me also a byword of the people; and aforetime they spit in my face.

Job 17:7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.

Job 17:8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

Job 17:9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.

Job 17:10 But as for you all, do ye return and come now, for I cannot find one wise man among you.

Job 17:11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

Job 17:12 They change the night into day: The light is short because of darkness.

Job 17:13 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

Job 17:14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father. To the worm, Thou art my mother and my sister.

Job 17:15 And where is now my hope? As for my hope, who shall see it?

Job 17:16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

Job 18:1 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

Job 18:2 How long will it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.

Job 18:3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?

Job 18:4 He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?

Job 18:5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

Job 18:6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.

Job 18:7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.

Job 18:8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

Job 18:9 The snare shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him.

Job 18:10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

Job 18:11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

Job 18:12 His strength shall be hungerbitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.

Job 18:13 It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.

Job 18:14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

Job 18:15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

Job 18:16 His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

Job 18:17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

Job 18:18 He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

Job 18:19 He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

Job 18:20 They that come after him shall be astonished at his day, as they that went before were affrighted.

Job 18:21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not the Almighty.

Job 19:1 Then Job answered and said,

Job 19:2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

Job 19:3 These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me.

Job 19:4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

Job 19:5 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

Job 19:6 Know now that the Almighty hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

Job 19:7 Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

Job 19:8 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

Job 19:9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

Job 19:10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

Job 19:11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.

Job 19:12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

Job 19:13 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

Job 19:14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

Job 19:15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a foreigner: I am an alien in their sight.

Job 19:16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I entreated him with my mouth.

Job 19:17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

Job 19:18 Yea, young children despised me; I arose, and they spoke against me.

Job 19:19 All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

Job 19:20 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

Job 19:21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of the Almighty hath touched me.

Job 19:22 Why do ye persecute me as the Almighty, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

Job 19:23 Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

Job 19:24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever!

Job 19:25 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

Job 19:26 And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see the Almighty:

Job 19:27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my inner being be consumed within me.

Job 19:28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me?

Job 19:29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

Job 20:1 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

Job 20:2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.

Job 20:3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

Job 20:4 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth,

Job 20:5 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

Job 20:6 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds;

Job 20:7 Yet he shall perish forever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

Job 20:8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

Job 20:9 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

Job 20:10 His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

Job 20:11 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

Job 20:12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

Job 20:13 Though he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth:

Job 20:14 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

Job 20:15 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: the Almighty shall cast them out of his belly.

Job 20:16 He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him.

Job 20:17 He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.

Job 20:18 That which he labored for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

Job 20:19 Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away a house which he builded not;

Job 20:20 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.

Job 20:21 There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

Job 20:22 In the fullness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

Job 20:23 When he is about to fill his belly, the Almighty shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

Job 20:24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

Job 20:25 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

Job 20:26 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

Job 20:27 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

Job 20:28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

Job 20:29 This is the portion of a wicked man from the Almighty, and the heritage appointed unto him by the Almighty.

Job 21:1 But Job answered and said,

Job 21:2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

Job 21:3 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

Job 21:4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

Job 21:5 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

Job 21:6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

Job 21:7 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

Job 21:8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

Job 21:9 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of the Almighty upon them.

Job 21:10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

Job 21:11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

Job 21:12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.

Job 21:13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

Job 21:14 Therefore they say unto the Almighty, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

Job 21:15 What is the Most Powerful, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

Job 21:16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

Job 21:17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! The Almighty distributeth sorrows in his anger.

Job 21:18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

Job 21:19 The Almighty layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

Job 21:20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Most Powerful.

Job 21:21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

Job 21:22 Shall any teach the Almighty knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

Job 21:23 One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

Job 21:24 His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

Job 21:25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

Job 21:26 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

Job 21:27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

Job 21:28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked?

Job 21:29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens,

Job 21:30 That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

Job 21:31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

Job 21:32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

Job 21:33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

Job 21:34 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

Job 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

Job 22:2 Can a man be profitable unto the Almighty, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

Job 22:3 Is it any pleasure to the Most Powerful, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

Job 22:4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

Job 22:5 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

Job 22:6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for naught, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

Job 22:7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

Job 22:8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honorable man dwelt in it.

Job 22:9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

Job 22:10 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

Job 22:11 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

Job 22:12 Is not the Almighty in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

Job 22:13 And thou sayest, How doth the Almighty know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

Job 22:14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

Job 22:15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?

Job 22:16 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood:

Job 22:17 Which said unto the Almighty, Depart from us: and what can the Most Powerful do for them?

Job 22:18 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

Job 22:19 The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

Job 22:20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

Job 22:21 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

Job 22:22 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

Job 22:23 If thou return to the Most Powerful, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

Job 22:24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

Job 22:25 Yea, the Most Powerful shall be thy defense, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

Job 22:26 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Most Powerful, and shalt lift up thy face unto the Almighty.

Job 22:27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

Job 22:28 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

Job 22:29 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.

Job 22:30 He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

Job 23:1 Then Job answered and said,

Job 23:2 Even today is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

Job 23:3 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

Job 23:4 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

Job 23:5 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

Job 23:6 Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.

Job 23:7 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered forever from my judge.

Job 23:8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

Job 23:9 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

Job 23:10 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Job 23:11 My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.

Job 23:12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

Job 23:13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

Job 23:14 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

Job 23:15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.

Job 23:16 For the Almighty maketh my heart soft, and the Most Powerful troubleth me:

Job 23:17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

Job 24:1 Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Most Powerful, do they that know him not see his days?

Job 24:2 Some remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof.

Job 24:3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.

Job 24:4 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth hide themselves together.

Job 24:5 Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

Job 24:6 They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.

Job 24:7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

Job 24:8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

Job 24:9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

Job 24:10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

Job 24:11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

Job 24:12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet the Almighty layeth not folly to them.

Job 24:13 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

Job 24:14 The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

Job 24:15 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguiseth his face.

Job 24:16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light.

Job 24:17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

Job 24:18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

Job 24:19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.

Job 24:20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

Job 24:21 He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.

Job 24:22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

Job 24:23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways.

Job 24:24 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.

Job 24:25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

Job 25:1 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

Job 25:2 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

Job 25:3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?

Job 25:4 How then can man be justified with the Almighty? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

Job 25:5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

Job 25:6 How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

Job 26:1 But Job answered and said,

Job 26:2 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

Job 26:3 How hast thou counseled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?

Job 26:4 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

Job 26:5 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

Job 26:6 Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

Job 26:7 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

Job 26:8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

Job 26:9 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

Job 26:10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

Job 26:11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof.

Job 26:12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

Job 26:13 By his Ruach he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

Job 26:14 Lo, these are parts of his ways: but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

Job 27:1 Moreover Job continued his parable, and said,

Job 27:2 As the Almighty liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Most Powerful, who hath vexed my soul;

Job 27:3 All the while my breath is in me, and the Ruach of the Almighty is in my nostrils;

Job 27:4 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

Job 27:5 The Almighty forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

Job 27:6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

Job 27:7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

Job 27:8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when the Almighty taketh away his soul?

Job 27:9 Will the Almighty hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

Job 27:10 Will he delight himself in the Most Powerful? will he always call upon the Almighty?

Job 27:11 I will teach you by the hand of the Almighty: that which is with the Most Powerful will I not conceal.

Job 27:12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

Job 27:13 This is the portion of a wicked man with the Almighty, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Most Powerful.

Job 27:14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

Job 27:15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

Job 27:16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

Job 27:17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Job 27:18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

Job 27:19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

Job 27:20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

Job 27:21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

Job 27:22 For the Almighty shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

Job 27:23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall whistle him out of his place.

Job 28:1 Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they refine it.

Job 28:2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

Job 28:3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

Job 28:4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

Job 28:5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

Job 28:6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.

Job 28:7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

Job 28:8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

Job 28:9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

Job 28:10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

Job 28:11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

Job 28:12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

Job 28:14 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

Job 28:15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

Job 28:16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

Job 28:17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

Job 28:18 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

Job 28:19 The topaz of Cush shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

Job 28:20 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

Job 28:21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.

Job 28:22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

Job 28:23 The Almighty understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

Job 28:24 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;

Job 28:25 To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

Job 28:26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:

Job 28:27 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

Job 28:28 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of Yehowah, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

Job 29:1 Moreover Job continued his parable, and said,

Job 29:2 Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when the Almighty preserved me;

Job 29:3 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

Job 29:4 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of the Almighty was upon my tabernacle;

Job 29:5 When the Most Powerful was yet with me, when my children were about me;

Job 29:6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil;

Job 29:7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

Job 29:8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

Job 29:9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

Job 29:10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

Job 29:11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

Job 29:12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

Job 29:13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

Job 29:14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

Job 29:15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

Job 29:16 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

Job 29:17 And I broke the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

Job 29:18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

Job 29:19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

Job 29:20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.

Job 29:21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

Job 29:22 After my words they spoke not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

Job 29:23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

Job 29:24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

Job 29:25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

Job 30:1 But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

Job 30:2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

Job 30:3 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

Job 30:4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

Job 30:5 They were driven forth from among men, they cried after them as after a thief;

Job 30:6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

Job 30:7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

Job 30:8 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth.

Job 30:9 And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

Job 30:10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

Job 30:11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

Job 30:12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

Job 30:13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

Job 30:14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

Job 30:15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

Job 30:16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

Job 30:17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

Job 30:18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

Job 30:19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

Job 30:20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

Job 30:21 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

Job 30:22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.

Job 30:23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

Job 30:24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

Job 30:25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

Job 30:26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

Job 30:27 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me.

Job 30:28 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

Job 30:29 I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

Job 30:30 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat.

Job 30:31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my pipe into the voice of them that weep.

Job 31:1 I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

Job 31:2 For what portion of the Almighty is there from above? and what inheritance of the Most Powerful from on high?

Job 31:3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

Job 31:4 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

Job 31:5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to deceit;

Job 31:6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that the Almighty may know mine integrity.

Job 31:7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

Job 31:8 Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

Job 31:9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbor's door;

Job 31:10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

Job 31:11 For this is a heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

Job 31:12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

Job 31:13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;

Job 31:14 What then shall I do when the Almighty riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

Job 31:15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

Job 31:16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

Job 31:17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

Job 31:18 For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;

Job 31:19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

Job 31:20 If his loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

Job 31:21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

Job 31:22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

Job 31:23 For destruction from the Almighty was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

Job 31:24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

Job 31:25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

Job 31:26 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness;

Job 31:27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

Job 31:28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the Almighty that is above.

Job 31:29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him:

Job 31:30 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

Job 31:31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

Job 31:32 The foreigner did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveler.

Job 31:33 If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:

Job 31:34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

Job 31:35 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Most Powerful would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

Job 31:36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

Job 31:37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

Job 31:38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

Job 31:39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

Job 31:40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

Job 32:1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

Job 32:2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than the Almighty.

Job 32:3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

Job 32:4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he.

Job 32:5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

Job 32:6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not show you mine opinion.

Job 32:7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

Job 32:8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Most Powerful giveth them understanding.

Job 32:9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

Job 32:10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will show mine opinion.

Job 32:11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.

Job 32:12 Yea, I attended unto you, and behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

Job 32:13 Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: the Almighty thrusteth him down, not man.

Job 32:14 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

Job 32:15 They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking.

Job 32:16 When I had waited, for they spoke not, but stood still, and answered no more;

Job 32:17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will show mine opinion.

Job 32:18 For I am full of matter, the Ruach within me constraineth me.

Job 32:19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

Job 32:20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

Job 32:21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

Job 32:22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

Job 33:1 Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

Job 33:2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

Job 33:3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

Job 33:4 The Ruach of the Almighty hath made me, and the breath of the Most Powerful hath given me life.

Job 33:5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

Job 33:6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in the Almighty's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

Job 33:7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

Job 33:8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,

Job 33:9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

Job 33:10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy,

Job 33:11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

Job 33:12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that the Almighty is greater than man.

Job 33:13 Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.

Job 33:14 For the Almighty speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

Job 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

Job 33:16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,

Job 33:17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

Job 33:18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

Job 33:19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

Job 33:20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.

Job 33:21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

Job 33:22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

Job 33:23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show unto man his uprightness:

Job 33:24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom.

Job 33:25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

Job 33:26 He shall pray unto the Almighty, and he will be favorable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

Job 33:27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

Job 33:28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

Job 33:29 Lo, all these things worketh the Almighty oftentimes with man, Job 33:30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

Job 33:31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

Job 33:32 If thou hast anything to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

Job 33:33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

Job 34:1 Furthermore Elihu answered and said,

Job 34:2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

Job 34:3 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

Job 34:4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

Job 34:5 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and the Almighty hath taken away my judgment.

Job 34:6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

Job 34:7 What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water?

Job 34:8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

Job 34:9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with the Almighty.

Job 34:10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from the Almighty, that he should do wickedness; and from the Most Powerful, that he should commit iniquity.

Job 34:11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

Job 34:12 Yea, surely the Almighty will not do wickedly, neither will the Most Powerful pervert judgment.

Job 34:13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

Job 34:14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

Job 34:15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

Job 34:16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

Job 34:17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

Job 34:18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

Job 34:19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

Job 34:20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

Job 34:21 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

Job 34:22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

Job 34:23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with the Almighty.

Job 34:24 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

Job 34:25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

Job 34:26 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;

Job 34:27 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

Job 34:28 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

Job 34:29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

Job 34:30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

Job 34:31 Surely it is meet to be said unto the Almighty, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

Job 34:32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

Job 34:33 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

Job 34:34 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

Job 34:35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

Job 34:36 My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.

Job 34:37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against the Almighty.

Job 35:1 Elihu spoke moreover, and said,

Job 35:2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than the Almighty's?

Job 35:3 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?

Job 35:4 I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

Job 35:5 Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

Job 35:6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

Job 35:7 If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

Job 35:8 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

Job 35:9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

Job 35:10 But none saith, Where is the Almighty my maker, who giveth songs in the night;

Job 35:11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

Job 35:12 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

Job 35:13 Surely the Almighty will not hear vanity, neither will the Most Powerful regard it.

Job 35:14 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

Job 35:15 But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity:

Job 35:16 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

Job 36:1 Elihu also proceeded, and said,

Job 36:2 Suffer me a little, and I will show thee that I have yet to speak on the Almighty's behalf.

Job 36:3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

Job 36:4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

Job 36:5 Behold, the Almighty is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

Job 36:6 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.

Job 36:7 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them forever, and they are exalted.

Job 36:8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

Job 36:9 Then he showeth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

Job 36:10 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

Job 36:11 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

Job 36:12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

Job 36:13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

Job 36:14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

Job 36:15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

Job 36:16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

Job 36:17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.

Job 36:18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

Job 36:19 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

Job 36:20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

Job 36:21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

Job 36:22 Behold, the Almighty exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?

Job 36:23 Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

Job 36:24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

Job 36:25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

Job 36:26 Behold, the Almighty is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his years be searched out.

Job 36:27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapor thereof:

Job 36:28 Which the clouds do drop and distill upon man abundantly.

Job 36:29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

Job 36:30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

Job 36:31 For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.

Job 36:32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

Job 36:33 The noise thereof showeth concerning it, the livestock also concerning the vapor.

Job 37:1 At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

Job 37:2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

Job 37:3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.

Job 37:4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

Job 37:5 The Almighty thundereth marvelously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

Job 37:6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

Job 37:7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

Job 37:8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

Job 37:9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.

Job 37:10 By the breath of the Almighty frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

Job 37:11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud:

Job 37:12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

Job 37:13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

Job 37:14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of the Almighty.

Job 37:15 Dost thou know when the Almighty disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

Job 37:16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

Job 37:17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

Job 37:18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?

Job 37:19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

Job 37:20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

Job 37:21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

Job 37:22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with the Almighty is terrible majesty.

Job 37:23 Touching the Most Powerful, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

Job 37:24 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

Job 38:1 Then Yehowah answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

Job 38:2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

Job 38:3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

Job 38:4 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

Job 38:5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

Job 38:6 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof;

Job 38:7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of the Almighty shouted for joy?

Job 38:8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

Job 38:9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

Job 38:10 And broke up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,

Job 38:11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

Job 38:12 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place;

Job 38:13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

Job 38:14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

Job 38:15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

Job 38:16 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

Job 38:17 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

Job 38:18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.

Job 38:19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof,

Job 38:20 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

Job 38:21 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

Job 38:22 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

Job 38:23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

Job 38:24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

Job 38:25 Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;

Job 38:26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

Job 38:27 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

Job 38:28 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

Job 38:29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

Job 38:30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

Job 38:31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

Job 38:32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

Job 38:33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

Job 38:34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

Job 38:35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

Job 38:36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

Job 38:37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven,

Job 38:38 When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

Job 38:39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions,

Job 38:40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the cover to lie in wait?

Job 38:41 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto the Almighty, they wander for lack of meat.

Job 39:1 Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

Job 39:2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfill? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

Job 39:3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

Job 39:4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with grain; they go forth, and return not unto them.

Job 39:5 Who hath sent out the wild donkey free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild donkey?

Job 39:6 Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.

Job 39:7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.

Job 39:8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.

Job 39:9 Will the wild bull be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy feed trough?

Job 39:10 Canst thou bind the wild oxen with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?

Job 39:11 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labor to him?

Job 39:12 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?

Job 39:13 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?

Job 39:14 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust, Job 39:15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

Job 39:16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labor is in vain without fear;

Job 39:17 Because the Almighty hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

Job 39:18 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

Job 39:19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

Job 39:20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

Job 39:21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.

Job 39:22 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.

Job 39:23 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

Job 39:24 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

Job 39:25 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

Job 39:26 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

Job 39:27 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?

Job 39:28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

Job 39:29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

Job 39:30 Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

Job 40:1 Moreover Yehowah answered Job, and said,

Job 40:2 Shall he that contendeth with the Most Powerful instruct him? he that reproveth the Almighty, let him answer it.

Job 40:3 Then Job answered Yehowah, and said,

Job 40:4 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

Job 40:5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

Job 40:6 Then answered Yehowah unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said, Job 40:7 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

Job 40:8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

Job 40:9 Hast thou an arm like the Almighty? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

Job 40:10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

Job 40:11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

Job 40:12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

Job 40:13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

Job 40:14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

Job 40:15 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

Job 40:16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

Job 40:17 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his thighs are wrapped together.

Job 40:18 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

Job 40:19 He is the chief of the ways of the Almighty: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

Job 40:20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

Job 40:21 He lieth under the shady trees, in the cover of the reed, and swamp.

Job 40:22 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

Job 40:23 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

Job 40:24 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

Job 41:1 Canst thou draw out leviathan with a hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?

Job 41:2 Canst thou put a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

Job 41:3 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

Job 41:4 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant forever?

Job 41:5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

Job 41:6 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

Job 41:7 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

Job 41:8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

Job 41:9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

Job 41:10 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

Job 41:11 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

Job 41:12 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

Job 41:13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

Job 41:14 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

Job 41:15 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

Job 41:16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

Job 41:17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

Job 41:18 By his sneezings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

Job 41:19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

Job 41:20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or cauldron.

Job 41:21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

Job 41:22 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

Job 41:23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

Job 41:24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

Job 41:25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

Job 41:26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the coat of mail armor.

Job 41:27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

Job 41:28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

Job 41:29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

Job 41:30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

Job 41:31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

Job 41:32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

Job 41:33 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.

Job 41:34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

Job 42:1 Then Job answered Yehowah, and said,

Job 42:2 I know that thou canst do everything, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

Job 42:3 Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

Job 42:4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

Job 42:5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

Job 42:6 Wherefore I reject myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

Job 42:7 And it was so, that after Yehowah had spoken these words unto Job, Yehowah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

Job 42:8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

Job 42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as Yehowah commanded them:

Yehowah also accepted Job.

Job 42:10 And Yehowah turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also Yehowah gave Job twice as much as he had before.

Job 42:11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that Yehowah had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

Job 42:12 So Yehowah blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she donkeys.

Job 42:13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

Job 42:14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch.

Job 42:15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

Job 42:16 After this lived Job a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

Job 42:17 So Job died, being old and full of days.

Book of Psalms

Psa 1:1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

Psa 1:2 But his delight is in the law of Yehowah; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

Psa 1:3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

Psa 1:4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Psa 1:5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

Psa 1:6 For Yehowah knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psa 2:1 Why do the nations rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

Psa 2:2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against Yehowah, and against his anointed, saying,

Psa 2:3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

Psa 2:4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

Psa 2:5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

Psa 2:6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

Psa 2:7 I will declare the decree: Yehowah hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

Psa 2:8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the nations for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Psa 2:9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Psa 2:10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

Psa 2:11 Serve Yehowah with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Psa 2:12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Psa 3:1 (A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.) Yehowah, how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.

Psa 3:2 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in the Almighty. Selah.

Psa 3:3 But thou, Yehowah, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

Psa 3:4 I cried unto Yehowah with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

Psa 3:5 I laid me down and slept; I awoke; for Yehowah sustained me.

Psa 3:6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

Psa 3:7 Arise, Yehowah; save me, O my Divine One: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

Psa 3:8 Salvation belongeth unto Yehowah: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

Psa 4:1 (To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.) Hear me when I call, Mighty One of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

Psa 4:2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood? Selah.

Psa 4:3 But know that Yehowah hath set apart him that is reverent for himself: Yehowah will hear when I call unto him.

Psa 4:4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

Psa 4:5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in Yehowah.

Psa 4:6 There be many that say, Who will show us any good? Yehowah, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Psa 4:7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their grain and their wine increased.

Psa 4:8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, Yehowah, only makest me dwell in safety.

Psa 5:1 (To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm of David.) Give ear to my words, Yehowah, consider my meditation.

Psa 5:2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my Divine One: for unto thee will I pray.

Psa 5:3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, Yehowah; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

Psa 5:4 For thou art not an Almighty One that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

Psa 5:5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

Psa 5:6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak falsehood: Yehowah will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

Psa 5:7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

Psa 5:8 Lead me, Yehowah, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

Psa 5:9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

Psa 5:10 Destroy thou them, O Almighty; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

Psa 5:11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

Psa 5:12 For thou, Yehowah, wilt bless the righteous; with favor wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

Psa 6:1 (To the chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.) Yehowah, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

Psa 6:2 Have mercy upon me, Yehowah; for I am weak: Yehowah, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

Psa 6:3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, Yehowah, how long?

Psa 6:4 Return, Yehowah, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

Psa 6:5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

Psa 6:6 I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

Psa 6:7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

Psa 6:8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for Yehowah hath heard the voice of my weeping.

Psa 6:9 Yehowah hath heard my supplication; Yehowah will receive my prayer.

Psa 6:10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

Psa 7:1 (Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto Yehowah, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.) Yehowah my Divine One, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

Psa 7:2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

Psa 7:3 Yehowah my Divine One, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

Psa 7:4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:

Psa 7:5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honor in the dust. Selah.

Psa 7:6 Arise, Yehowah, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

Psa 7:7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

Psa 7:8 Yehowah shall judge the people: judge me, Yehowah, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

Psa 7:9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous Almighty One trieth the hearts and inner being.

Psa 7:10 My defense is of the Almighty, which saveth the upright in heart.

Psa 7:11 The Almighty judgeth the righteous, and the Almighty is angry with the wicked every day.

Psa 7:12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

Psa 7:13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

Psa 7:14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

Psa 7:15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

Psa 7:16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own head.

Psa 7:17 I will praise Yehowah according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of Yehowah most high.

Psa 8:1 (To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of David.) Yehowah our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

Psa 8:2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

Psa 8:3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

Psa 8:4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

Psa 8:5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the mighty ones, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

Psa 8:6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

Psa 8:7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

Psa 8:8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

Psa 8:9 Yehowah our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Psa 9:1 (To the chief Musician upon Muthlabben, A Psalm of David.) I will praise thee, Yehowah, with my whole heart; I will show forth all thy marvelous works.

Psa 9:2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

Psa 9:3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Psa 9:4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.

Psa 9:5 Thou hast rebuked the nations, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name forever and ever.

Psa 9:6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

Psa 9:7 But Yehowah shall endure forever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

Psa 9:8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

Psa 9:9 Yehowah also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

Psa 9:10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Yehowah, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

Psa 9:11 Sing praises to Yehowah, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

Psa 9:12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

Psa 9:13 Have mercy upon me, Yehowah; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

Psa 9:14 That I may show forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

Psa 9:15 The nations are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

Psa 9:16 Yehowah is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

Psa 9:17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget the Almighty.

Psa 9:18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

Psa 9:19 Arise, Yehowah; let not man prevail: let the nations be judged in thy sight.

Psa 9:20 Put them in fear, Yehowah: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

Psa 10:1 Why standest thou afar off, Yehowah? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

Psa 10:2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

Psa 10:3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom Yehowah abhorreth.

Psa 10:4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after the Almighty: the Almighty is not in all his thoughts.

Psa 10:5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

Psa 10:6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

Psa 10:7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

Psa 10:8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are secretly set against the poor.

Psa 10:9 He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

Psa 10:10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

Psa 10:11 He hath said in his heart, the Almighty hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

Psa 10:12 Arise, O Yehowah; O Almighty, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

Psa 10:13 Wherefore doth the wicked despise the Almighty? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

Psa 10:14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

Psa 10:15 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

Psa 10:16 Yehowah is King forever and ever: the nations are perished out of his land.

Psa 10:17 Yehowah, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

Psa 10:18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

Psa 11:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) In Yehowah put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

Psa 11:2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may secretly shoot at the upright in heart.

Psa 11:3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

Psa 11:4 Yehowah is in his holy temple, Yehowah's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.

Psa 11:5 Yehowah trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

Psa 11:6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and a horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

Psa 11:7 For righteous Yehowah loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

Psa 12:1 (To the chief Musician upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.) Help, Yehowah; for the reverent man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

Psa 12:2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbor: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

Psa 12:3 Yehowah shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:

Psa 12:4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

Psa 12:5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith Yehowah; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

Psa 12:6 The words of Yehowah are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Psa 12:7 Thou shalt keep them, Yehowah, thou shalt preserve them from this generation forever.

Psa 12:8 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

Psa 13:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) How long wilt thou forget me, Yehowah? forever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

Psa 13:2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

Psa 13:3 Consider and hear me, Yehowah my Divine One: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

Psa 13:4 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

Psa 13:5 But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

Psa 13:6 I will sing unto Yehowah, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

Psa 14:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) The fool hath said in his heart, There is no Almighty. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

Psa 14:2 Yehowah looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek the Almighty.

Psa 14:3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Psa 14:4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon Yehowah.

Psa 14:5 There were they in great fear: for the Almighty is in the generation of the righteous.

Psa 14:6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because Yehowah is his refuge.

Psa 14:7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when Yehowah bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Psa 15:1 (A Psalm of David.) Yehowah, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

Psa 15:2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

Psa 15:3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbor, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor.

Psa 15:4 In whose eyes a vile person is despised; but he honoreth them that fear Yehowah. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

Psa 15:5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

Psa 16:1 (Michtam of David.) Preserve me, Yehowah for in thee do I put my trust.

Psa 16:2 O my soul, thou hast said unto Yehowah, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;

Psa 16:3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

Psa 16:4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another deity: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

Psa 16:5 Yehowah is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

Psa 16:6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

Psa 16:7 I will bless Yehowah, who hath given me counsel: my inner being also instructs me in the night seasons.

Psa 16:8 I have set Yehowah always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Psa 16:9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

Psa 16:10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

Psa 16:11 Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore.

Psa 17:1 (A Prayer of David.) Hear the right, Yehowah, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

Psa 17:2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

Psa 17:3 Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

Psa 17:4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

Psa 17:5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

Psa 17:6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, Yehowah: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

Psa 17:7 Show thy marvelous loving-kindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

Psa 17:8 Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings,

Psa 17:9 From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

Psa 17:10 They are enclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

Psa 17:11 They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

Psa 17:12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

Psa 17:13 Arise, Yehowah, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:

Psa 17:14 From men which are thy hand, Yehowah, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

Psa 17:15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

Psa 18:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, the servant of Yehowah, who spoke unto Yehowah the words of this song in the day that Yehowah delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,) I will love thee, Yehowah, my strength.

Psa 18:2 Yehowah is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my Divine One, my strength, in whom I will trust; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

Psa 18:3 I will call upon Yehowah, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

Psa 18:4 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

Psa 18:5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

Psa 18:6 In my distress I called upon Yehowah, and cried unto my Divine One: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

Psa 18:7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

Psa 18:8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

Psa 18:9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

Psa 18:10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

Psa 18:11 He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

Psa 18:12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

Psa 18:13 Yehowah also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

Psa 18:14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

Psa 18:15 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, Yehowah, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

Psa 18:16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

Psa 18:17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

Psa 18:18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but Yehowah was my stay.

Psa 18:19 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

Psa 18:20 Yehowah rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

Psa 18:21 For I have kept the ways of Yehowah, and have not wickedly departed from my Divine One.

Psa 18:22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

Psa 18:23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

Psa 18:24 Therefore hath Yehowah recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

Psa 18:25 With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright;

Psa 18:26 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the willful thou wilt show thyself willful.

Psa 18:27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

Psa 18:28 For thou wilt light my candle: Yehowah my Divine One will enlighten my darkness.

Psa 18:29 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my Divine One have I leaped over a wall.

Psa 18:30 As for the Almighty, his way is perfect: the word of Yehowah is tried: he is a shield to all those that trust in him.

Psa 18:31 For who is the Almighty save Yehowah? or who is a rock save our Divine One?

Psa 18:32 It is the Almighty that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

Psa 18:33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

Psa 18:34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

Psa 18:35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

Psa 18:36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

Psa 18:37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

Psa 18:38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

Psa 18:39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

Psa 18:40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

Psa 18:41 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto Yehowah, but he answered them not.

Psa 18:42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

Psa 18:43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the nations: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

Psa 18:44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the sons of foreigners shall submit themselves unto me.

Psa 18:45 The foreigners shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

Psa 18:46 Yehowah liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the Mighty One of my salvation be exalted.

Psa 18:47 It is the Almighty that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

Psa 18:48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

Psa 18:49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, Yehowah, among the nations, and sing praises unto thy name.

Psa 18:50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and showeth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed forevermore.

Psa 19:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) The heavens declare the glory of the Almighty; and the firmament showeth his handywork.

Psa 19:2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.

Psa 19:3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

Psa 19:4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the age. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

Psa 19:5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

Psa 19:6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

Psa 19:7 The law of Yehowah is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of Yehowah is sure, making wise the simple.

Psa 19:8 The statutes of Yehowah are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of Yehowah is pure, enlightening the eyes.

Psa 19:9 The fear of Yehowah is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of Yehowah are true and righteous altogether.

Psa 19:10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Psa 19:11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Psa 19:12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Psa 19:13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

Psa 19:14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, Yehowah, my strength, and my redeemer.

Psa 20:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) Yehowah hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the Mighty One of Jacob defend thee;

Psa 20:2 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion;

Psa 20:3 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah.

Psa 20:4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfill all thy counsel.

Psa 20:5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our Divine One we will set up our banners: Yehowah fulfill all thy petitions.

Psa 20:6 Now know I that Yehowah saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

Psa 20:7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of Yehowah our Divine One.

Psa 20:8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

Psa 20:9 Save, Yehowah: let the king hear us when we call.

Psa 21:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) The king shall joy in thy strength, Yehowah; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

Psa 21:2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

Psa 21:3 For thou goeth before him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

Psa 21:4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days forever and ever.

Psa 21:5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honor and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

Psa 21:6 For thou hast made him most blessed forever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

Psa 21:7 For the king trusteth in Yehowah, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.

Psa 21:8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

Psa 21:9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: Yehowah shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

Psa 21:10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

Psa 21:11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

Psa 21:12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

Psa 21:13 Be thou exalted, Yehowah, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

Psa 22:1 (To the chief Musician upon Aijeleth Shahar, A Psalm of David.) My Divine One, my Divine One, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

Psa 22:2 O my Divine One, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent.

Psa 22:3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

Psa 22:4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

Psa 22:5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

Psa 22:6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

Psa 22:7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

Psa 22:8 He trusted on Yehowah that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

Psa 22:9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

Psa 22:10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my Divine One from my mother's belly.

Psa 22:11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help.

Psa 22:12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

Psa 22:13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

Psa 22:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

Psa 22:15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

Psa 22:16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have enclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

Psa 22:17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

Psa 22:18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Psa 22:19 But be not thou far from me, Yehowah: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

Psa 22:20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.

Psa 22:21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the wild oxen.

Psa 22:22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

Psa 22:23 Ye that fear Yehowah, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

Psa 22:24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard.

Psa 22:25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

Psa 22:26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise Yehowah that seek him: your heart shall live forever.

Psa 22:27 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto Yehowah: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

Psa 22:28 For the kingdom is Yehowah's: and he is the governor among the nations.

Psa 22:29 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

Psa 22:30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

Psa 22:31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

Psa 23:1 (A Psalm of David.) Yehowah is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Psa 23:2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

Psa 23:3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Psa 23:4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Psa 23:5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Psa 23:6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of Yehowah forever.

Psa 24:1 (A Psalm of David.) The earth is Yehowah's, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

Psa 24:2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Psa 24:3 Who shall ascend into the hill of Yehowah? or who shall stand in his holy place?

Psa 24:4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

Psa 24:5 He shall receive the blessing from Yehowah, and righteousness from the Mighty One of his salvation.

Psa 24:6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

Psa 24:7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Psa 24:8 Who is this King of glory? Yehowah strong and mighty, Yehowah mighty in battle.

Psa 24:9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Psa 24:10 Who is this King of glory? Yehowah of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

Psa 25:1 (A Psalm of David.) Unto thee, Yehowah, do I lift up my soul.

Psa 25:2 O my Divine One, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.

Psa 25:3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

Psa 25:4 Show me thy ways, Yehowah; teach me thy paths.

Psa 25:5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the Mighty One of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

Psa 25:6 Remember, Yehowah, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

Psa 25:7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, Yehowah.

Psa 25:8 Good and upright is Yehowah: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

Psa 25:9 The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

Psa 25:10 All the paths of Yehowah are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

Psa 25:11 For thy name's sake, Yehowah, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

Psa 25:12 What man is he that feareth Yehowah? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

Psa 25:13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

Psa 25:14 The secret of Yehowah is with them that fear him; and he will show them his covenant.

Psa 25:15 Mine eyes are ever toward Yehowah; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

Psa 25:16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

Psa 25:17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

Psa 25:18 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.

Psa 25:19 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

Psa 25:20 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.

Psa 25:21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

Psa 25:22 Redeem Israel, Almighty One, out of all his troubles.

Psa 26:1 (A Psalm of David.) Judge me, Yehowah; for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in Yehowah; therefore I shall not slide.

Psa 26:2 Examine me, Yehowah, and prove me; try my inner being and my heart.

Psa 26:3 For thy loving-kindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.

Psa 26:4 I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

Psa 26:5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.

Psa 26:6 I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, Yehowah:

Psa 26:7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

Psa 26:8 Yehowah, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honor dwelleth.

Psa 26:9 Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:

Psa 26:10 In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.

Psa 26:11 But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

Psa 26:12 My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bless Yehowah.

Psa 27:1 (A Psalm of David.) Yehowah is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? Yehowah is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

Psa 27:2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Psa 27:3 Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

Psa 27:4 One thing have I desired of Yehowah, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of Yehowah all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of Yehowah, and to inquire in his temple.

Psa 27:5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

Psa 27:6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto Yehowah.

Psa 27:7 Hear, Yehowah, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

Psa 27:8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Yehowah, will I seek.

Psa 27:9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, Mighty One of my salvation.

Psa 27:10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then Yehowah will take me up.

Psa 27:11 Teach me thy way, Yehowah, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

Psa 27:12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

Psa 27:13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of Yehowah in the land of the living.

Psa 27:14 Wait on Yehowah: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on Yehowah.

Psa 28:1 (A Psalm of David.) Unto thee will I cry, Yehowah my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

Psa 28:2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

Psa 28:3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts.

Psa 28:4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their recompense.

Psa 28:5 Because they regard not the works of Yehowah, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

Psa 28:6 Blessed be Yehowah, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

Psa 28:7 Yehowah is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

Psa 28:8 Yehowah is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

Psa 28:9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up forever.

Psa 29:1 (A Psalm of David.) Give unto Yehowah, O ye mighty, give unto Yehowah glory and strength.

Psa 29:2 Give unto Yehowah the glory due unto his name; worship Yehowah in the beauty of holiness.

Psa 29:3 The voice of Yehowah is upon the waters: the Mighty One of glory thundereth: Yehowah is upon many waters.

Psa 29:4 The voice of Yehowah is powerful; the voice of Yehowah is full of majesty.

Psa 29:5 The voice of Yehowah breaketh the cedars; yea, Yehowah breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

Psa 29:6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young bull.

Psa 29:7 The voice of Yehowah divideth the flames of fire.

Psa 29:8 The voice of Yehowah shaketh the wilderness; Yehowah shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

Psa 29:9 The voice of Yehowah maketh the does to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

Psa 29:10 Yehowah sitteth upon the flood; yea, Yehowah sitteth King forever.

Psa 29:11 Yehowah will give strength unto his people; Yehowah will bless his people with peace.

Psa 30:1 (A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David.) I will extol thee, Yehowah; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

Psa 30:2 Yehowah my Divine One, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

Psa 30:3 Yehowah, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

Psa 30:4 Sing unto Yehowah, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

Psa 30:5 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favor is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Psa 30:6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

Psa 30:7 Yehowah, by thy favor thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

Psa 30:8 I cried to thee, Yehowah; and unto Yehowah I made supplication.

Psa 30:9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

Psa 30:10 Hear, Yehowah, and have mercy upon me: Yehowah, be thou my helper.

Psa 30:11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

Psa 30:12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. Yehowah my Divine One, I will give thanks unto thee forever.

Psa 31:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) In thee, Yehowah, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness.

Psa 31:2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for a house of defense to save me.

Psa 31:3 For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

Psa 31:4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me: for thou art my strength.

Psa 31:5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, Yehowah Mighty One of truth.

Psa 31:6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in Yehowah.

Psa 31:7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities;

Psa 31:8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

Psa 31:9 Have mercy upon me, Yehowah, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

Psa 31:10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

Psa 31:11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbors, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

Psa 31:12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

Psa 31:13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

Psa 31:14 But I trusted in thee, Yehowah: I said, Thou art my Divine One.

Psa 31:15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

Psa 31:16 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

Psa 31:17 Let me not be ashamed, Yehowah; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

Psa 31:18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

Psa 31:19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

Psa 31:20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

Psa 31:21 Blessed be Yehowah: for he hath showed me his marvelous kindness in a strong city.

Psa 31:22 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

Psa 31:23 O love Yehowah, all ye his saints: for Yehowah preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

Psa 31:24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in Yehowah.

Psa 32:1 (A Psalm of David, Maschil.) Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Psa 32:2 Blessed is the man unto whom Yehowah imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

Psa 32:3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

Psa 32:4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

Psa 32:5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto Yehowah; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

Psa 32:6 For this shall every one that is reverent pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

Psa 32:7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

Psa 32:8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Psa 32:9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

Psa 32:10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in Yehowah, mercy shall compass him about.

Psa 32:11 Be glad in Yehowah, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

Psa 33:1 Rejoice in Yehowah, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

Psa 33:2 Praise Yehowah with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

Psa 33:3 Sing unto him a new song; play skillfully with a loud noise.

Psa 33:4 For the word of Yehowah is right; and all his works are done in truth.

Psa 33:5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of Yehowah.

Psa 33:6 By the word of Yehowah were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

Psa 33:7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

Psa 33:8 Let all the earth fear Yehowah: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

Psa 33:9 For he spoke, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

Psa 33:10 Yehowah bringeth the counsel of the nations to naught: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

Psa 33:11 The counsel of Yehowah standeth forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Psa 33:12 Blessed is the nation whose Divine One is Yehowah; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

Psa 33:13 Yehowah looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.

Psa 33:14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

Psa 33:15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.

Psa 33:16 There is no king saved by the multitude of a host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

Psa 33:17 A horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

Psa 33:18 Behold, the eye of Yehowah is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

Psa 33:19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

Psa 33:20 Our soul waiteth for Yehowah: he is our help and our shield.

Psa 33:21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

Psa 33:22 Let thy mercy, Yehowah, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

Psa 34:1 (A Psalm of David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.) I will bless Yehowah at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

Psa 34:2 My soul shall make her boast in Yehowah: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

Psa 34:3 O magnify Yehowah with me, and let us exalt his name together.

Psa 34:4 I sought Yehowah, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

Psa 34:5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

Psa 34:6 This poor man cried, and Yehowah heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

Psa 34:7 The angel of Yehowah encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

Psa 34:8 O taste and see that Yehowah is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

Psa 34:9 O fear Yehowah, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

Psa 34:10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek Yehowah shall not want any good thing.

Psa 34:11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of Yehowah.

Psa 34:12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

Psa 34:13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

Psa 34:14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

Psa 34:15 The eyes of Yehowah are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

Psa 34:16 The face of Yehowah is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

Psa 34:17 The righteous cry, and Yehowah heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

Psa 34:18 Yehowah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

Psa 34:19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but Yehowah delivereth him out of them all.

Psa 34:20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

Psa 34:21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

Psa 34:22 Yehowah redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

Psa 35:1 (A Psalm of David.) Plead my cause, Yehowah, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

Psa 35:2 Take hold of shield and lance, and stand up for mine help.

Psa 35:3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

Psa 35:4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

Psa 35:5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of Yehowah chase them.

Psa 35:6 Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the angel of Yehowah persecute them.

Psa 35:7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

Psa 35:8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

Psa 35:9 And my soul shall be joyful in Yehowah: it shall rejoice in his salvation.

Psa 35:10 All my bones shall say, Yehowah, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

Psa 35:11 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

Psa 35:12 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul.

Psa 35:13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

Psa 35:14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

Psa 35:15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the smiters gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not:

Psa 35:16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

Psa 35:17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.

Psa 35:18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

Psa 35:19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

Psa 35:20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

Psa 35:21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.

Psa 35:22 This thou hast seen, Yehowah: keep not silence: Yehowah, be not far from me.

Psa 35:23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, my Divine One and my Lord.

Psa 35:24 Judge me, Yehowah my Divine One, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.

Psa 35:25 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

Psa 35:26 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonor that magnify themselves against me.

Psa 35:27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let Yehowah be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

Psa 35:28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

Psa 36:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of Yehowah.) The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of the Almighty before his eyes.

Psa 36:2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

Psa 36:3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

Psa 36:4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

Psa 36:5 Thy mercy, Yehowah, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

Psa 36:6 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: Yehowah, thou preservest man and beast.

Psa 36:7 How excellent is thy loving-kindness, Yehowah! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

Psa 36:8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

Psa 36:9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

Psa 36:10 O continue thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

Psa 36:11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

Psa 36:12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

Psa 37:1 (A Psalm of David.) Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

Psa 37:2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

Psa 37:3 Trust in Yehowah, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

Psa 37:4 Delight thyself also in Yehowah; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Psa 37:5 Commit thy way unto Yehowah; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

Psa 37:6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

Psa 37:7 Rest in Yehowah, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Psa 37:8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

Psa 37:9 For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon Yehowah, they shall inherit the earth.

Psa 37:10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

Psa 37:11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

Psa 37:12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

Psa 37:13 The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.

Psa 37:14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

Psa 37:15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

Psa 37:16 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

Psa 37:17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but Yehowah upholdeth the righteous.

Psa 37:18 Yehowah knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be forever.

Psa 37:19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

Psa 37:20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of Yehowah shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

Psa 37:21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous showeth mercy, and giveth.

Psa 37:22 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

Psa 37:23 The steps of a good man are ordered by Yehowah: and he delighteth in his way.

Psa 37:24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for Yehowah upholdeth him with his hand.

Psa 37:25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

Psa 37:26 He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

Psa 37:27 Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell forevermore.

Psa 37:28 For Yehowah loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved forever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

Psa 37:29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein forever.

Psa 37:30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

Psa 37:31 The law of his Divine One is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

Psa 37:32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

Psa 37:33 Yehowah will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

Psa 37:34 Wait on Yehowah, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

Psa 37:35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

Psa 37:36 Yet he passed away, and lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

Psa 37:37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

Psa 37:38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

Psa 37:39 But the salvation of the righteous is of Yehowah: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

Psa 37:40 And Yehowah shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

Psa 38:1 (A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.) Yehowah, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

Psa 38:2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

Psa 38:3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

Psa 38:4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

Psa 38:5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

Psa 38:6 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

Psa 38:7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

Psa 38:8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

Psa 38:9 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

Psa 38:10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

Psa 38:11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.

Psa 38:12 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

Psa 38:13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a mute man that openeth not his mouth.

Psa 38:14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

Psa 38:15 For in thee, Yehowah, do I hope: thou wilt hear, Yehowah my Divine One.

Psa 38:16 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

Psa 38:17 For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

Psa 38:18 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.

Psa 38:19 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

Psa 38:20 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is.

Psa 38:21 Forsake me not, Yehowah: O my Divine One, be not far from me.

Psa 38:22 Make haste to help me, Yehowah my salvation.

Psa 39:1 (To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.) I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

Psa 39:2 I was mute with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.

Psa 39:3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spoke I with my tongue,

Psa 39:4 Yehowah, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am.

Psa 39:5 Behold, thou hast made my days as a handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

Psa 39:6 Surely every man walketh in a vain show: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

Psa 39:7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

Psa 39:8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.

Psa 39:9 I was mute, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.

Psa 39:10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

Psa 39:11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

Psa 39:12 Hear my prayer, Yehowah, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a foreigner with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

Psa 39:13 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

Psa 40:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) I waited patiently for Yehowah; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

Psa 40:2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

Psa 40:3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our Divine One: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Yehowah.

Psa 40:4 Blessed is that man that maketh Yehowah his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Psa 40:5 Many, Yehowah my Divine One, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Psa 40:6 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; but a body hast thou prepared me: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

Psa 40:7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, Psa 40:8 I delight to do thy will, O Almighty: yea, thy law is within my heart.

Psa 40:9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, Yehowah, thou knowest.

Psa 40:10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Psa 40:11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, Yehowah: let thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

Psa 40:12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

Psa 40:13 Be pleased, Yehowah, to deliver me: Yehowah, make haste to help me.

Psa 40:14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

Psa 40:15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

Psa 40:16 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, Yehowah be magnified.

Psa 40:17 But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my Divine One.

Psa 41:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) Blessed is he that considereth the poor: Yehowah will deliver him in time of trouble.

Psa 41:2 Yehowah will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

Psa 41:3 Yehowah will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

Psa 41:4 I said, Yehowah, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

Psa 41:5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

Psa 41:6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

Psa 41:7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

Psa 41:8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

Psa 41:9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my victuals, hath lifted up his heel against me.

Psa 41:10 But thou, Yehowah, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may recompense them.

Psa 41:11 By this I know that thou favorest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

Psa 41:12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face forever.

Psa 41:13 Blessed be Yehowah Mighty One of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amein, and Amein.

Psa 42:1 (To the chief Musician, Maschil, for the sons of Korah.) As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, Yehowah.

Psa 42:2 My soul thirsteth for the Almighty, for the living Almighty: when shall I come and appear before the Almighty?

Psa 42:3 My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy Divine One?

Psa 42:4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of the Almighty, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.

Psa 42:5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in the Almighty: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

Psa 42:6 O my Divine One, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

Psa 42:7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

Psa 42:8 Yet Yehowah will command his loving-kindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the Mighty One of my life.

Psa 42:9 I will say unto the Almighty my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

Psa 42:10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy Divine One?

Psa 42:11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in the Almighty: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my Divine One.

Psa 43:1 Judge me, Yehowah, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

Psa 43:2 For thou art the Almighty One of my strength: why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

Psa 43:3 O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

Psa 43:4 Then will I go unto the altar of the Almighty, unto the Almighty my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, Yehowah my Divine One.

Psa 43:5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in the Almighty: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my Divine One.

Psa 44:1 (To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.) We have heard with our ears, Yehowah, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

Psa 44:2 How thou didst drive out the nations with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

Psa 44:3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favor unto them.

Psa 44:4 Thou art my King, Yehowah: command deliverance for Jacob.

Psa 44:5 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

Psa 44:6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

Psa 44:7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

Psa 44:8 In the Almighty we boast all the day long, and praise thy name forever. Selah.

Psa 44:9 But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

Psa 44:10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

Psa 44:11 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the nations.

Psa 44:12 Thou sellest thy people for naught, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

Psa 44:13 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

Psa 44:14 Thou makest us a byword among the nations, a shaking of the head among the people.

Psa 44:15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me,

Psa 44:16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.

Psa 44:17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

Psa 44:18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way;

Psa 44:19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

Psa 44:20 If we have forgotten the name of our Divine One, or stretched out our hands to a strange deity;

Psa 44:21 Shall not the Almighty search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

Psa 44:22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

Psa 44:23 Awake, why sleepest thou, Yehowah? arise, cast us not off forever.

Psa 44:24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

Psa 44:25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

Psa 44:26 Arise for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

Psa 45:1 (To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, Maschil, A Song of loves.) My heart is composing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Psa 45:2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore the Almighty hath blessed thee forever.

Psa 45:3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

Psa 45:4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

Psa 45:5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

Psa 45:6 Thy throne, Yehowah, is forever and ever: the scepter of thy kingdom is a right scepter.

Psa 45:7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore the Almighty, thy Divine One, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

Psa 45:8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

Psa 45:9 Kings' daughters were among thy honorable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

Psa 45:10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

Psa 45:11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

Psa 45:12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favor.

Psa 45:13 The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

Psa 45:14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

Psa 45:15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace.

Psa 45:16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

Psa 45:17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee forever and ever.

Psa 46:1 (To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, A Song upon Alamoth.) The Almighty is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Psa 46:2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Psa 46:3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

Psa 46:4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of the Almighty, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

Psa 46:5 The Almighty is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: the Almighty shall help her, and that right early.

Psa 46:6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

Psa 46:7 Yehowah of hosts is with us; the Mighty One of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

Psa 46:8 Come, behold the works of Yehowah, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

Psa 46:9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

Psa 46:10 Be still, and know that I am the Almighty: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

Psa 46:11 Yehowah of hosts is with us; the Mighty One of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

Psa 47:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.) O clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto the Almighty with the voice of triumph.

Psa 47:2 For Yehowah most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.

Psa 47:3 He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

Psa 47:4 He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.

Psa 47:5 The Almighty is gone up with a shout, Yehowah with the sound of a trumpet.

Psa 47:6 Sing praises to the Almighty, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

Psa 47:7 For the Almighty is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

Psa 47:8 The Almighty reigneth over the nations: the Almighty sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

Psa 47:9 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the Mighty One of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto the Almighty: he is greatly exalted.

Psa 48:1 (A Song and Psalm for the sons of Korah.) Great is Yehowah, and greatly to be praised in the city of our Divine One, in the mountain of his holiness.

Psa 48:2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

Psa 48:3 The Almighty is known in her palaces for a refuge.

Psa 48:4 For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

Psa 48:5 They saw it, and so they marveled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

Psa 48:6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

Psa 48:7 Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.

Psa 48:8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of Yehowah of hosts, in the city of our Divine One: the Almighty will establish it forever. Selah.

Psa 48:9 We have thought of thy loving-kindness, Yehowah, in the midst of thy temple.

Psa 48:10 According to thy name, Yehowah so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

Psa 48:11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

Psa 48:12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

Psa 48:13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

Psa 48:14 For this Almighty is our Divine One forever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

Psa 49:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.) Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

Psa 49:2 Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

Psa 49:3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

Psa 49:4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

Psa 49:5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

Psa 49:6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

Psa 49:7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to the Almighty a ransom for him:

Psa 49:8 For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth forever:

Psa 49:9 That he should still live forever, and not see corruption.

Psa 49:10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

Psa 49:11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue forever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

Psa 49:12 Nevertheless man being in honor abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

Psa 49:13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

Psa 49:14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

Psa 49:15 But the Almighty will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.

Psa 49:16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

Psa 49:17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

Psa 49:18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

Psa 49:19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

Psa 49:20 Man that is in honor, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

Psa 50:1 (A Psalm of Asaph.) The mighty Almighty, even Yehowah, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Psa 50:2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, the Almighty hath shined.

Psa 50:3 Our Divine One shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

Psa 50:4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

Psa 50:5 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

Psa 50:6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for the Almighty is judge himself. Selah.

Psa 50:7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am the Almighty, even thy Divine One.

Psa 50:8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

Psa 50:9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

Psa 50:10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the livestock upon a thousand hills.

Psa 50:11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

Psa 50:12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fullness thereof.

Psa 50:13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

Psa 50:14 Offer unto the Almighty thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High:

Psa 50:15 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

Psa 50:16 But unto the wicked the Almighty saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

Psa 50:17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

Psa 50:18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

Psa 50:19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

Psa 50:20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

Psa 50:21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such a one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

Psa 50:22 Now consider this, ye that forget the Almighty, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

Psa 50:23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I show the salvation of the Almighty.

Psa 51:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.) Have mercy upon me, Yehowah, according to thy loving-kindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Psa 51:2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

Psa 51:3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

Psa 51:4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

Psa 51:5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Psa 51:6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Psa 51:7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Psa 51:8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Psa 51:9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Psa 51:10 Create in me a clean heart, O Yehowah; and renew a right spirit within me.

Psa 51:11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy Ruach Kodesh from me.

Psa 51:12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free Ruach.

Psa 51:13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Psa 51:14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, Yehowah, thou Mighty One of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

Psa 51:15 Yehowah, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Psa 51:16 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

Psa 51:17 The sacrifices of the Almighty are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O Almighty, thou wilt not despise.

Psa 51:18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Psa 51:19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

Psa 52:1 (To the chief Musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.) Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of the Almighty endureth continually.

Psa 52:2 Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

Psa 52:3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

Psa 52:4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

Psa 52:5 The Almighty shall likewise destroy thee forever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

Psa 52:6 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

Psa 52:7 Lo, this is the man that made not the Almighty his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

Psa 52:8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of the Almighty: I trust in the mercy of the Almighty forever and ever.

Psa 52:9 I will praise thee forever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

Psa 53:1 (To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David.) The fool hath said in his heart, There is no Almighty One. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

Psa 53:2 The Almighty looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek the Almighty.

Psa 53:3 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

Psa 53:4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon the Almighty.

Psa 53:5 There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for the Almighty hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because the Almighty hath despised them.

Psa 53:6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When the Almighty bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Psa 54:1 (To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?) Save me, Yehowah, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

Psa 54:2 Hear my prayer, Yehowah give ear to the words of my mouth.

Psa 54:3 For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set the Almighty before them. Selah.

Psa 54:4 Behold, the Almighty is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

Psa 54:5 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

Psa 54:6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, Yehowah; for it is good.

Psa 54:7 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

Psa 55:1 (To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David.) Give ear to my prayer, Yehowah; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

Psa 55:2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

Psa 55:3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

Psa 55:4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

Psa 55:5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me.

Psa 55:6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

Psa 55:7 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

Psa 55:8 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

Psa 55:9 Destroy, Yehowah, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

Psa 55:10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

Psa 55:11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

Psa 55:12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:

Psa 55:13 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

Psa 55:14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of the Almighty in company.

Psa 55:15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

Psa 55:16 As for me, I will call upon the Almighty; and Yehowah shall save me.

Psa 55:17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

Psa 55:18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

Psa 55:19 The Almighty shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not the Almighty.

Psa 55:20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

Psa 55:21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

Psa 55:22 Cast thy burden upon Yehowah, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

Psa 55:23 But thou, Yehowah, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

Psa 56:1 (To the chief Musician upon Jonathelemrechokim, Michtam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.) Be merciful unto me, Yehowah: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

Psa 56:2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

Psa 56:3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

Psa 56:4 In the Almighty I will praise his word, in the Almighty I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

Psa 56:5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

Psa 56:6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

Psa 56:7 Shall they escape by iniquity? In thine anger cast down the people, Yehowah.

Psa 56:8 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

Psa 56:9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for the Almighty is for me.

Psa 56:10 In the Almighty will I praise his word: in Yehowah will I praise his word.

Psa 56:11 In the Almighty have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

Psa 56:12 Thy vows are upon me, Yehowah: I will render praises unto thee.

Psa 56:13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before the Almighty in the light of the living?

Psa 57:1 (To the chief Musician, Altaschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.) Be merciful unto me, Yehowah be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

Psa 57:2 I will cry unto the Almighty most high; unto the Almighty that performeth all things for me.

Psa 57:3 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. The Almighty shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

Psa 57:4 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

Psa 57:5 Be thou exalted, Yehowah, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.

Psa 57:6 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

Psa 57:7 My heart is fixed, Yehowah my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

Psa 57:8 Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

Psa 57:9 I will praise thee, Yehowah, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

Psa 57:10 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

Psa 57:11 Be thou exalted, Yehowah, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

Psa 58:1 (To the chief Musician, Altaschith, Michtam of David.) Do ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

Psa 58:2 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

Psa 58:3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

Psa 58:4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

Psa 58:5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming ever so wisely.

Psa 58:6 Break their teeth, Yehowah, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yehowah.

Psa 58:7 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

Psa 58:8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

Psa 58:9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.

Psa 58:10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

Psa 58:11 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is an Almighty One that judgeth in the earth.

Psa 59:1 (To the chief Musician, Altaschith, Michtam of David; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.) Deliver me from mine enemies, O my Divine One: defend me from them that rise up against me.

Psa 59:2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

Psa 59:3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, Yehowah.

Psa 59:4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold.

Psa 59:5 Thou therefore, Yehowah Mighty One of hosts, Mighty One of Israel, awake to visit all the nations: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

Psa 59:6 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

Psa 59:7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear?

Psa 59:8 But thou, Yehowah, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the nations in derision.

Psa 59:9 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for the Almighty is my defense.

Psa 59:10 The Mighty One of my mercy shall prevent me: the Almighty shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

Psa 59:11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, Yehowah our shield.

Psa 59:12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.

Psa 59:13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that the Almighty ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

Psa 59:14 And at evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

Psa 59:15 Let them wander up and down for meat, and grudge if they be not satisfied.

Psa 59:16 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defense and refuge in the day of my trouble.

Psa 59:17 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for the Almighty is my defense, and the Mighty One of my mercy.

Psa 60:1 (To the chief Musician upon Shushaneduth, Michtam of David, to teach; when he strove with Aramnaharaim and with Aramzobah, when Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the valley of salt twelve thousand.) Yehowah, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again.

Psa 60:2 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

Psa 60:3 Thou hast showed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

Psa 60:4 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

Psa 60:5 That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.

Psa 60:6 The Almighty hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

Psa 60:7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;

Psa 60:8 Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph thou because of me.

Psa 60:9 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

Psa 60:10 Wilt not thou, Yehowah, which hadst cast us off? and thou, Yehowah, which didst not go out with our armies?

Psa 60:11 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

Psa 60:12 Through the Almighty we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

Psa 61:1 (To the chief Musician upon Neginah, A Psalm of David.) Hear my cry, Yehowah; attend unto my prayer.

Psa 61:2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

Psa 61:3 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

Psa 61:4 I will abide in thy tabernacle forever: I will trust in the cover of thy wings. Selah.

Psa 61:5 For thou, Yehowah, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

Psa 61:6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.

Psa 61:7 He shall abide before the Almighty forever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

Psa 61:8 So will I sing praise unto thy name forever, that I may daily perform my vows.

Psa 62:1 (To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.) Truly my soul waiteth upon the Almighty: from him cometh my salvation.

Psa 62:2 He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defense; I shall not be greatly moved.

Psa 62:3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

Psa 62:4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

Psa 62:5 My soul, wait thou only upon the Almighty; for my expectation is from him.

Psa 62:6 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defense; I shall not be moved.

Psa 62:7 In the Almighty is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in the Almighty.

Psa 62:8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: the Almighty is a refuge for us. Selah.

Psa 62:9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

Psa 62:10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

Psa 62:11 The Almighty hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto the Almighty.

Psa 62:12 Also unto thee, Yehowah, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

Psa 63:1 (A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.) O Yehowah, thou art my Divine One; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

Psa 63:2 To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

Psa 63:3 Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Psa 63:4 Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

Psa 63:5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

Psa 63:6 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

Psa 63:7 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

Psa 63:8 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

Psa 63:9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

Psa 63:10 They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

Psa 63:11 But the king shall rejoice in the Almighty; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Psa 64:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) Hear my voice, Yehowah, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

Psa 64:2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

Psa 64:3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

Psa 64:4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

Psa 64:5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares secretly; they say, Who shall see them?

Psa 64:6 They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

Psa 64:7 But the Almighty shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded.

Psa 64:8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

Psa 64:9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of the Almighty; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

Psa 64:10 The righteous shall be glad in Yehowah, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

Psa 65:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.) Praise waiteth for thee, Yehowah, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

Psa 65:2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

Psa 65:3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

Psa 65:4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

Psa 65:5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, Yehowah of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

Psa 65:6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

Psa 65:7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

Psa 65:8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

Psa 65:9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of the Almighty, which is full of water: thou preparest them grain, when thou hast so provided for it.

Psa 65:10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

Psa 65:11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

Psa 65:12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

Psa 65:13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with grain; they shout for joy, they also sing.

Psa 66:1 (To the chief Musician, A Song or Psalm.) Make a joyful noise unto the Almighty, all ye lands:

Psa 66:2 Sing forth the honor of his name: make his praise glorious.

Psa 66:3 Say unto the Almighty, How terrible art thou in thy works! Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

Psa 66:4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

Psa 66:5 Come and see the works of the Almighty: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

Psa 66:6 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

Psa 66:7 He ruleth by his power forever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

Psa 66:8 O bless our Divine One, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

Psa 66:9 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

Psa 66:10 For thou, Yehowah, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

Psa 66:11 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

Psa 66:12 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

Psa 66:13 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, Psa 66:14 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

Psa 66:15 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

Psa 66:16 Come and hear, all ye that fear the Almighty, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

Psa 66:17 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

Psa 66:18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

Psa 66:19 But verily the Almighty hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

Psa 66:20 Blessed be the Almighty, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

Psa 67:1 (To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song.) The Almighty be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; Selah.

Psa 67:2 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

Psa 67:3 Let the people praise thee, Yehowah; let all the people praise thee.

Psa 67:4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah.

Psa 67:5 Let the people praise thee, Yehowah; let all the people praise thee.

Psa 67:6 Then shall the earth yield her increase; and the Almighty, even our own Divine One, shall bless us.

Psa 67:7 The Almighty shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psa 68:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.) Let the Almighty arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

Psa 68:2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of the Almighty.

Psa 68:3 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before the Almighty: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

Psa 68:4 Sing unto the Almighty, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name Yah, and rejoice before him.

Psa 68:5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is the Almighty in his holy habitation.

Psa 68:6 The Almighty setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

Psa 68:7 Yehowah, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah:

Psa 68:8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of the Almighty: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of the Almighty, Mighty One of Israel.

Psa 68:9 Thou, Yehowah, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

Psa 68:10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, Yehowah, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

Psa 68:11 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

Psa 68:12 Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

Psa 68:13 Though ye have lain among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

Psa 68:14 When the Most Powerful scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon.

Psa 68:15 The hill of the Almighty is as the hill of Bashan; a high hill as the hill of Bashan.

Psa 68:16 Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which the Almighty desireth to dwell in; yea, Yehowah will dwell in it forever.

Psa 68:17 The chariots of the Almighty are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

Psa 68:18 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that Yah Almighty might dwell among them.

Psa 68:19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the Mighty One of our salvation. Selah.

Psa 68:20 He that is our Divine One is the Mighty One of salvation; and unto Yehowah the Lord belong the issues from death.

Psa 68:21 But the Almighty shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

Psa 68:22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:

Psa 68:23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same.

Psa 68:24 They have seen thy goings, Yehowah; even the goings of my Divine One, my King, in the sanctuary.

Psa 68:25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels.

Psa 68:26 Bless ye the Almighty in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel.

Psa 68:27 There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

Psa 68:28 Thy Divine One hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, Yehowah, that which thou hast wrought for us.

Psa 68:29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee.

Psa 68:30 Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war.

Psa 68:31 Princes shall come out of Egypt; Cush shall soon stretch out her hands unto the Almighty.

Psa 68:32 Sing unto the Almighty, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord; Selah:

Psa 68:33 To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

Psa 68:34 Ascribe ye strength unto the Almighty: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.

Psa 68:35 Yehowah, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the Mighty One of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be the Almighty.

Psa 69:1 (To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, A Psalm of David.) Save me, Yehowah; for the waters are come in unto my soul.

Psa 69:2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

Psa 69:3 I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my Divine One.

Psa 69:4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

Psa 69:5 Yehowah, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee.

Psa 69:6 Let not them that wait on thee, Lord Yehowah of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, Yehowah of Israel.

Psa 69:7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

Psa 69:8 I am become a foreigner unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

Psa 69:9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

Psa 69:10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

Psa 69:11 I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them.

Psa 69:12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

Psa 69:13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, Yehowah, in an acceptable time: Yehowah, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

Psa 69:14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

Psa 69:15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

Psa 69:16 Hear me, Yehowah; for thy loving-kindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

Psa 69:17 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

Psa 69:18 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

Psa 69:19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor: mine adversaries are all before thee.

Psa 69:20 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

Psa 69:21 They gave me also gall for my food; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Psa 69:22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

Psa 69:23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

Psa 69:24 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

Psa 69:25 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.

Psa 69:26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.

Psa 69:27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness.

Psa 69:28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

Psa 69:29 But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, Yehowah, set me up on high.

Psa 69:30 I will praise the name of the Almighty with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

Psa 69:31 This also shall please Yehowah better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

Psa 69:32 The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek the Almighty.

Psa 69:33 For Yehowah heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

Psa 69:34 Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and everything that moveth therein.

Psa 69:35 For the Almighty will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

Psa 69:36 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

Psa 70:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.) Make haste, Yehowah, to deliver me; make haste to help me, Yehowah.

Psa 70:2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

Psa 70:3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.

Psa 70:4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let the Almighty be magnified.

Psa 70:5 But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, Yehowah: thou art my help and my deliverer; Yehowah, make no tarrying.

Psa 71:1 In thee, Yehowah, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

Psa 71:2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

Psa 71:3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

Psa 71:4 Deliver me, O my Divine One, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

Psa 71:5 For thou art my hope, Lord Yehowah: thou art my trust from my youth.

Psa 71:6 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

Psa 71:7 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

Psa 71:8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honor all the day.

Psa 71:9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

Psa 71:10 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together,

Psa 71:11 Saying, the Almighty hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

Psa 71:12 Yehowah, be not far from me: O my Divine One, make haste for my help.

Psa 71:13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonor that seek my hurt.

Psa 71:14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

Psa 71:15 My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof.

Psa 71:16 I will go in the strength of Lord Yehowah: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

Psa 71:17 Yehowah, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

Psa 71:18 Now also when I am old and grayheaded, Yehowah, forsake me not; until I have showed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

Psa 71:19 Thy righteousness also, Yehowah, is very high, who hast done great things: Yehowah, who is like unto thee!

Psa 71:20 Thou, which hast showed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

Psa 71:21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

Psa 71:22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my Divine One: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.

Psa 71:23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

Psa 71:24 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

Psa 72:1 (A Psalm for Solomon.) Give the king thy judgments, Yehowah, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

Psa 72:2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

Psa 72:3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

Psa 72:4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

Psa 72:5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

Psa 72:6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

Psa 72:7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

Psa 72:8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

Psa 72:9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

Psa 72:10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Psa 72:11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

Psa 72:12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

Psa 72:13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

Psa 72:14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

Psa 72:15 And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

Psa 72:16 There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

Psa 72:17 His name shall endure forever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

Psa 72:18 Blessed be Yehowah Almighty, Mighty One of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

Psa 72:19 And blessed be his glorious name forever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amein, and Amein.

Psa 72:20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

Psa 73:1 (A Psalm of Asaph.) Truly the Almighty is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

Psa 73:2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

Psa 73:3 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

Psa 73:4 For there are no pains in their death: but their strength is firm.

Psa 73:5 They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

Psa 73:6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

Psa 73:7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than their heart could wish.

Psa 73:8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

Psa 73:9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

Psa 73:10 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

Psa 73:11 And they say, How doth the Almighty know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

Psa 73:12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

Psa 73:13 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

Psa 73:14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

Psa 73:15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

Psa 73:16 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

Psa 73:17 Until I went into the sanctuary of the Almighty; then understood I their end.

Psa 73:18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

Psa 73:19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

Psa 73:20 As a dream when one awaketh; so, Yehowah, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

Psa 73:21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my inner being.

Psa 73:22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

Psa 73:23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

Psa 73:24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

Psa 73:25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

Psa 73:26 My flesh and my heart faileth: but the Almighty is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever.

Psa 73:27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

Psa 73:28 But it is good for me to draw near to the Almighty: I have put my trust in Lord Yehowah, that I may declare all thy works.

Psa 74:1 (Maschil of Asaph.) Yehowah, why hast thou cast us off forever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

Psa 74:2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

Psa 74:3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

Psa 74:4 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs.

Psa 74:5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

Psa 74:6 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

Psa 74:7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

Psa 74:8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of the Almighty in the land.

Psa 74:9 We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

Psa 74:10 Yehowah, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name forever?

Psa 74:11 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

Psa 74:12 For the Almighty is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

Psa 74:13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou breakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

Psa 74:14 Thou breakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

Psa 74:15 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

Psa 74:16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

Psa 74:17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

Psa 74:18 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, Yehowah, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

Psa 74:19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor forever.

Psa 74:20 Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

Psa 74:21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

Psa 74:22 Arise, Yehowah, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

Psa 74:23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee increaseth continually.

Psa 75:1 (To the chief Musician, Altaschith, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.) Unto thee, Yehowah, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare.

Psa 75:2 When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly.

Psa 75:3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah.

Psa 75:4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn:

Psa 75:5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

Psa 75:6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the wilderness.

Psa 75:7 But the Almighty is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

Psa 75:8 For in the hand of Yehowah there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

Psa 75:9 But I will declare forever; I will sing praises to the Mighty One of Jacob.

Psa 75:10 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Psa 76:1 (To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.) In Judah is the Almighty known: his name is great in Israel.

Psa 76:2 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion.

Psa 76:3 There broke he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.

Psa 76:4 Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.

Psa 76:5 The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

Psa 76:6 At thy rebuke, Yehowah of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

Psa 76:7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

Psa 76:8 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still,

Psa 76:9 When the Almighty arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.

Psa 76:10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

Psa 76:11 Vow, and pay unto Yehowah your Divine One: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

Psa 76:12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

Psa 77:1 (To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of Asaph.) I cried unto the Almighty with my voice, even unto the Almighty with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

Psa 77:2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: I stretched out my hands in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

Psa 77:3 I remembered the Almighty, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

Psa 77:4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

Psa 77:5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

Psa 77:6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

Psa 77:7 Will the Lord cast off forever? and will he be favorable no more?

Psa 77:8 Is his mercy clean gone forever? doth his promise fail forevermore?

Psa 77:9 Hath the Mighty One forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

Psa 77:10 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.

Psa 77:11 I will remember the works of Yah: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

Psa 77:12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

Psa 77:13 Thy way, Yehowah, is in the sanctuary: who is so great an Almighty as our Divine One?

Psa 77:14 Thou art the Almighty that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

Psa 77:15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

Psa 77:16 The waters saw thee, Yehowah, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

Psa 77:17 The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.

Psa 77:18 The voice of thy rolling thunder was heard: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

Psa 77:19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

Psa 77:20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psa 78:1 (Maschil of Asaph.) Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

Psa 78:2 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

Psa 78:3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

Psa 78:4 We will not hide them from their children, showing to the generation to come the praises of Yehowah, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

Psa 78:5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

Psa 78:6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

Psa 78:7 That they might set their hope in the Almighty, and not forget the works of the Almighty, but keep his commandments:

Psa 78:8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with the Almighty.

Psa 78:9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

Psa 78:10 They kept not the covenant of the Almighty, and refused to walk in his law;

Psa 78:11 And forgot his works, and his wonders that he had showed them.

Psa 78:12 Marvelous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

Psa 78:13 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as a heap.

Psa 78:14 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

Psa 78:15 He clove the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

Psa 78:16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

Psa 78:17 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness.

Psa 78:18 And they tempted the Almighty in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

Psa 78:19 Yea, they spoke against the Almighty; they said, Can the Almighty furnish a table in the wilderness?

Psa 78:20 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

Psa 78:21 Therefore Yehowah heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

Psa 78:22 Because they believed not in the Almighty, and trusted not in his salvation:

Psa 78:23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven,

Psa 78:24 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the grain of heaven.

Psa 78:25 Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

Psa 78:26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

Psa 78:27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

Psa 78:28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

Psa 78:29 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

Psa 78:30 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths,

Psa 78:31 The wrath of the Almighty came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

Psa 78:32 For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

Psa 78:33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

Psa 78:34 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and inquired early after the Almighty.

Psa 78:35 And they remembered that the Almighty was their rock, and the high Almighty their redeemer.

Psa 78:36 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

Psa 78:37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

Psa 78:38 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

Psa 78:39 For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

Psa 78:40 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

Psa 78:41 Yea, they turned back and tempted the Almighty, and limited the Holy One of Israel.

Psa 78:42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy.

Psa 78:43 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

Psa 78:44 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

Psa 78:45 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

Psa 78:46 He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labor unto the locust.

Psa 78:47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with frost.

Psa 78:48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

Psa 78:49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

Psa 78:50 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence;

Psa 78:51 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:

Psa 78:52 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

Psa 78:53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

Psa 78:54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

Psa 78:55 He cast out the nations also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

Psa 78:56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high Almighty, and kept not his testimonies:

Psa 78:57 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

Psa 78:58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

Psa 78:59 When the Almighty heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

Psa 78:60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

Psa 78:61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

Psa 78:62 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

Psa 78:63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage.

Psa 78:64 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.

Psa 78:65 Then the Lord awoke as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

Psa 78:66 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

Psa 78:67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

Psa 78:68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.

Psa 78:69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established forever.

Psa 78:70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

Psa 78:71 From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

Psa 78:72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psa 79:1 (A Psalm of Asaph.) Yehowah, the nations are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

Psa 79:2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

Psa 79:3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

Psa 79:4 We are become a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

Psa 79:5 How long, Yehowah? wilt thou be angry forever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

Psa 79:6 Pour out thy wrath upon the nations that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

Psa 79:7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

Psa 79:8 O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low.

Psa 79:9 Help us, Yehowah of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.

Psa 79:10 Wherefore should the nations say, Where is their Divine One? let him be known among the nations in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.

Psa 79:11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

Psa 79:12 And render unto our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, Yehowah.

Psa 79:13 So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks forever: we will show forth thy praise to all generations.

Psa 80:1 (To the chief Musician upon Shoshannimeduth, A Psalm of Asaph.) Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubim, shine forth.

Psa 80:2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

Psa 80:3 Turn us again, Yehowah, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

Psa 80:4 Yehowah Mighty One of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

Psa 80:5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

Psa 80:6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbors: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

Psa 80:7 Turn us again, Yehowah of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

Psa 80:8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the nations, and planted it.

Psa 80:9 Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

Psa 80:10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

Psa 80:11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.

Psa 80:12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

Psa 80:13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

Psa 80:14 Return, we beseech thee, Yehowah of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

Psa 80:15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

Psa 80:16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Psa 80:17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

Psa 80:18 So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

Psa 80:19 Turn us again, Yehowah Mighty One of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

Psa 81:1 (To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of Asaph.) Sing aloud unto the Almighty our strength: make a joyful noise unto the Mighty One of Jacob.

Psa 81:2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

Psa 81:3 Blow up the trumpet in the new month, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

Psa 81:4 For this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the Mighty One of Jacob.

Psa 81:5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not.

Psa 81:6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots.

Psa 81:7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah.

Psa 81:8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

Psa 81:9 There shall no strange deity be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange deity.

Psa 81:10 I am Yehowah thy Divine One, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

Psa 81:11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would not obey me.

Psa 81:12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

Psa 81:13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

Psa 81:14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

Psa 81:15 The haters of Yehowah should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured forever.

Psa 81:16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

Psa 82:1 (A Psalm of Asaph.) The Almighty standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the deities.

Psa 82:2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

Psa 82:3 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

Psa 82:4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

Psa 82:5 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

Psa 82:6 I have said, Ye are deities; and all of you are children of the most High.

Psa 82:7 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

Psa 82:8 Arise, O Almighty, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

Psa 83:1 (A Song or Psalm of Asaph.) Keep not thou silence, O Mighty One: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O Almighty.

Psa 83:2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

Psa 83:3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

Psa 83:4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

Psa 83:5 For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:

Psa 83:6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

Psa 83:7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

Psa 83:8 Assur also is joined with them: they have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

Psa 83:9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

Psa 83:10 Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth.

Psa 83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

Psa 83:12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of the Almighty in possession.

Psa 83:13 O my Divine One, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind.

Psa 83:14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire;

Psa 83:15 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

Psa 83:16 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, Yehowah.

Psa 83:17 Let them be confounded and troubled forever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

Psa 83:18 That men may know that thou, whose name alone is Yehowah, art the most high over all the earth.

Psa 84:1 (To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.) How amiable are thy tabernacles, Yehowah of hosts!

Psa 84:2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Yehowah: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living Divine One.

Psa 84:3 Yea, the sparrow hath found a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, Yehowah of hosts, my King, and my Divine One.

Psa 84:4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

Psa 84:5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

Psa 84:6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.

Psa 84:7 They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before the Almighty.

Psa 84:8 Yehowah Mighty One of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, Yehowah of Jacob. Selah.

Psa 84:9 Behold, Yehowah our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

Psa 84:10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my Divine One, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

Psa 84:11 For Yehowah Almighty is a sun and shield: Yehowah will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Psa 84:12 Yehowah of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Psa 85:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah.) Yehowah, thou hast been favorable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

Psa 85:2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

Psa 85:3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

Psa 85:4 Turn us, Yehowah of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

Psa 85:5 Wilt thou be angry with us forever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

Psa 85:6 Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?

Psa 85:7 Show us thy mercy, Yehowah, and grant us thy salvation.

Psa 85:8 I will hear what Almighty Yehowah will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.

Psa 85:9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

Psa 85:10 Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Psa 85:11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

Psa 85:12 Yea, Yehowah shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

Psa 85:13 Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

Psa 86:1 (A Prayer of David.) Bow down thine ear, Yehowah, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

Psa 86:2 Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O thou my Divine One, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

Psa 86:3 Be merciful unto me, Yehowah: for I cry unto thee daily.

Psa 86:4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, Yehowah, do I lift up my soul.

Psa 86:5 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

Psa 86:6 Give ear, Yehowah, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

Psa 86:7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

Psa 86:8 Among the deities there is none like unto thee, Yehowah; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

Psa 86:9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, Yehowah; and shall glorify thy name.

Psa 86:10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art Almighty alone.

Psa 86:11 Teach me thy way, Yehowah; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

Psa 86:12 I will praise thee, Yehowah my Divine One, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name forevermore.

Psa 86:13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

Psa 86:14 Yehowah, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.

Psa 86:15 But thou, Yehowah, art an Almighty full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

Psa 86:16 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

Psa 86:17 Show me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, Yehowah, hast helped me, and comforted me.

Psa 87:1 (A Psalm or Song for the sons of Korah.) His foundation is in the holy mountains.

Psa 87:2 Yehowah loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

Psa 87:3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of the Almighty. Selah.

Psa 87:4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Cush; this man was born there.

Psa 87:5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her.

Psa 87:6 Yehowah shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.

Psa 87:7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

Psa 88:1 (A Song or Psalm for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.) Yehowah Mighty One of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee:

Psa 88:2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

Psa 88:3 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

Psa 88:4 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

Psa 88:5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.

Psa 88:6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

Psa 88:7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.

Psa 88:8 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

Psa 88:9 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: Yehowah, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

Psa 88:10 Wilt thou show wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

Psa 88:11 Shall thy loving-kindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

Psa 88:12 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

Psa 88:13 But unto thee have I cried, Yehowah; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

Psa 88:14 Yehowah, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

Psa 88:15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

Psa 88:16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

Psa 88:17 They came round about me daily like water; they compassed me about together.

Psa 88:18 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

Psa 89:1 (Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.) I will sing of the mercies of Yehowah forever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

Psa 89:2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up forever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

Psa 89:3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,

Psa 89:4 Thy seed will I establish forever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

Psa 89:5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, Yehowah: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

Psa 89:6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto Yehowah? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto Yehowah?

Psa 89:7 The Almighty is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

Psa 89:8 Yehowah Mighty One of hosts, who is strong Yah like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

Psa 89:9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

Psa 89:10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

Psa 89:11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fullness thereof, thou hast founded them.

Psa 89:12 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

Psa 89:13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

Psa 89:14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

Psa 89:15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, Yehowah, in the light of thy countenance.

Psa 89:16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

Psa 89:17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favor our horn shall be exalted.

Psa 89:18 For Yehowah is our defense; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.

Psa 89:19 Then thou spokest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

Psa 89:20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:

Psa 89:21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.

Psa 89:22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

Psa 89:23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

Psa 89:24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

Psa 89:25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

Psa 89:26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my Divine One, and the rock of my salvation.

Psa 89:27 Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth.

Psa 89:28 My mercy will I keep for him forevermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

Psa 89:29 His seed also will I make to endure forever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

Psa 89:30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;

Psa 89:31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;

Psa 89:32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

Psa 89:33 Nevertheless my loving-kindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

Psa 89:34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

Psa 89:35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David.

Psa 89:36 His seed shall endure forever, and his throne as the sun before me.

Psa 89:37 It shall be established forever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

Psa 89:38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.

Psa 89:39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.

Psa 89:40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strongholds to ruin.

Psa 89:41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbors.

Psa 89:42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

Psa 89:43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.

Psa 89:44 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.

Psa 89:45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.

Psa 89:46 How long, Yehowah? wilt thou hide thyself forever? shall thy wrath burn like fire?

Psa 89:47 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?

Psa 89:48 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

Psa 89:49 Lord, where are thy former loving-kindnesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?

Psa 89:50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;

Psa 89:51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, Yehowah; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.

Psa 89:52 Blessed be Yehowah forevermore. Amein, and Amein.

Psa 90:1 (A Prayer of Moses the man of the Almighty.) Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

Psa 90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art the Almighty.

Psa 90:3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

Psa 90:4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

Psa 90:5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

Psa 90:6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

Psa 90:7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

Psa 90:8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

Psa 90:9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

Psa 90:10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Psa 90:11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

Psa 90:12 So teach us to consider our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Psa 90:13 Return, Yehowah, how long? and let it relent thee concerning thy servants.

Psa 90:14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Psa 90:15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

Psa 90:16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

Psa 90:17 And let the beauty of Yehowah our Divine One be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Psa 91:1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Most Powerful.

Psa 91:2 I will say of Yehowah, He is my refuge and my fortress: my Divine One; in him will I trust.

Psa 91:3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

Psa 91:4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and lance.

Psa 91:5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Psa 91:6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

Psa 91:7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Psa 91:8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Psa 91:9 Because thou hast made Yehowah, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

Psa 91:10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

Psa 91:11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

Psa 91:12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Psa 91:13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Psa 91:14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

Psa 91:15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him.

Psa 91:16 With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Psa 92:1 (A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.) It is a good thing to give thanks unto Yehowah, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High:

Psa 92:2 To show forth thy loving-kindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night,

Psa 92:3 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

Psa 92:4 For thou, Yehowah, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

Psa 92:5 Yehowah, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

Psa 92:6 A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

Psa 92:7 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed forever:

Psa 92:8 But thou, Yehowah, art most high forevermore.

Psa 92:9 For, lo, thine enemies, Yehowah, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

Psa 92:10 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of a wild bull: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

Psa 92:11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

Psa 92:12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

Psa 92:13 Those that be planted in the house of Yehowah shall flourish in the courts of our Divine One.

Psa 92:14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

Psa 92:15 To show that Yehowah is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psa 93:1 Yehowah reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; Yehowah is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is established, that it cannot be moved.

Psa 93:2 Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

Psa 93:3 The floods have lifted up, Yehowah, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

Psa 93:4 Yehowah on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

Psa 93:5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, Yehowah, forever.

Psa 94:1 (A psalm of David for the fourth day of the week.) Yehowah Almighty, to whom vengeance belongeth; Yehowah, to whom vengeance belongeth, show thyself.

Psa 94:2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

Psa 94:3 Yehowah, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

Psa 94:4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

Psa 94:5 They break in pieces thy people, Yehowah, and afflict thine heritage.

Psa 94:6 They slay the widow and the foreigner, and murder the fatherless.

Psa 94:7 Yet they say, Yah shall not see, neither shall the Mighty One of Jacob regard it.

Psa 94:8 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

Psa 94:9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

Psa 94:10 He that chastiseth the nations, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

Psa 94:11 Yehowah knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

Psa 94:12 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Yah, and teachest him out of thy law;

Psa 94:13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

Psa 94:14 For Yehowah will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

Psa 94:15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

Psa 94:16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

Psa 94:17 Unless Yehowah had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

Psa 94:18 When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, Yehowah, held me up.

Psa 94:19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

Psa 94:20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

Psa 94:21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

Psa 94:22 But Yehowah is my defense; and my Divine One is the rock of my refuge.

Psa 94:23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, Yehowah our Divine One shall cut them off.

Psa 95:1 O come, let us sing unto Yehowah: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Psa 95:2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

Psa 95:3 For Yehowah is a great Almighty, and a great King above all deities.

Psa 95:4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

Psa 95:5 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

Psa 95:6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before Yehowah our maker.

Psa 95:7 For he is our Divine One; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. today if ye will hear his voice,

Psa 95:8 harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

Psa 95:9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

Psa 95:10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

Psa 95:11 Unto whom I swore in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

Psa 96:1 O sing unto Yehowah a new song: sing unto Yehowah, all the earth.

Psa 96:2 Sing unto Yehowah, bless his name; show forth his salvation from day to day.

Psa 96:3 Declare his glory among the nations, his wonders among all people.

Psa 96:4 For Yehowah is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all deities.

Psa 96:5 For all the deities of the nations are idols: but Yehowah made the heavens.

Psa 96:6 Honor and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Psa 96:7 Give unto Yehowah, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto Yehowah glory and strength.

Psa 96:8 Give unto Yehowah the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

Psa 96:9 O worship Yehowah in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

Psa 96:10 Say among the nations that Yehowah reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

Psa 96:11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof.

Psa 96:12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

Psa 96:13 before Yehowah: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

Psa 97:1 Yehowah reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

Psa 97:2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.

Psa 97:3 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

Psa 97:4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

Psa 97:5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of Yehowah, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

Psa 97:6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

Psa 97:7 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye deities.

Psa 97:8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, Yehowah.

Psa 97:9 For thou, Yehowah, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all deities.

Psa 97:10 Ye that love Yehowah, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Psa 97:11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

Psa 97:12 Rejoice in Yehowah, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

Psa 98:1 (A Psalm.) O sing unto Yehowah a new song; for he hath done marvelous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

Psa 98:2 Yehowah hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.

Psa 98:3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our Divine One.

Psa 98:4 Make a joyful noise unto Yehowah, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

Psa 98:5 Sing unto Yehowah with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

Psa 98:6 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before Yehowah, the King.

Psa 98:7 Let the sea roar, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

Psa 98:8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together

Psa 98:9 Before Yehowah; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

Psa 99:1 Yehowah reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubim; let the earth be moved.

Psa 99:2 Yehowah is great in Zion; and he is high above all the people.

Psa 99:3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

Psa 99:4 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

Psa 99:5 Exalt ye Yehowah our Divine One, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.

Psa 99:6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon Yehowah, and he answered them.

Psa 99:7 He spoke unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

Psa 99:8 Thou answeredst them, Yehowah our Divine One: thou wast an Almighty that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

Psa 99:9 Exalt Yehowah our Divine One, and worship at his holy hill; for Yehowah our Divine One is holy.

Psa 100:1 (A Psalm of praise.) Make a joyful noise unto Yehowah, all ye lands.

Psa 100:2 Serve Yehowah with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

Psa 100:3 Know ye that Yehowah he is the Almighty: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Psa 100:4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

Psa 100:5 For Yehowah is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Psa 101:1 (A Psalm of David.) I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, Yehowah, will I sing.

Psa 101:2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

Psa 101:3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

Psa 101:4 A willful heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

Psa 101:5 Whoso secretly slandereth his neighbor, him will I cut off: him that hath a high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

Psa 101:6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

Psa 101:7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

Psa 101:8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of Yehowah.

Psa 102:1 (A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before Yehowah.) Hear my prayer, Yehowah, and let my cry come unto thee.

Psa 102:2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

Psa 102:3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as a hearth.

Psa 102:4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

Psa 102:5 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin.

Psa 102:6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

Psa 102:7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.

Psa 102:8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

Psa 102:9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, Psa 102:10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

Psa 102:11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.

Psa 102:12 But thou, Yehowah, shalt endure forever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.

Psa 102:13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favor her, yea, the set time, is come.

Psa 102:14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favor the dust thereof.

Psa 102:15 So the nations shall fear the name of Yehowah, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

Psa 102:16 When Yehowah shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

Psa 102:17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

Psa 102:18 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise Yah.

Psa 102:19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did Yehowah behold the earth;

Psa 102:20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death;

Psa 102:21 To declare the name of Yehowah in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

Psa 102:22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve Yehowah.

Psa 102:23 He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

Psa 102:24 I said, O my Divine One, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

Psa 102:25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

Psa 102:26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

Psa 102:27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

Psa 102:28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

Psa 103:1 (A Psalm of David.) Bless Yehowah, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Psa 103:2 Bless Yehowah, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Psa 103:3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Psa 103:4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies;

Psa 103:5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Psa 103:6 Yehowah executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

Psa 103:7 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

Psa 103:8 Yehowah is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

Psa 103:9 He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger forever.

Psa 103:10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

Psa 103:11 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

Psa 103:12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Psa 103:13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so Yehowah pitieth them that fear him.

Psa 103:14 For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

Psa 103:15 As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

Psa 103:16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

Psa 103:17 But the mercy of Yehowah is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

Psa 103:18 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

Psa 103:19 Yehowah hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

Psa 103:20 Bless Yehowah, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Psa 103:21 Bless ye Yehowah, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Psa 103:22 Bless Yehowah, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless Yehowah, O my soul.

Psa 104:1 Bless Yehowah, O my soul. Yehowah my Divine One, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty.

Psa 104:2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

Psa 104:3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

Psa 104:4 Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire:

Psa 104:5 Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed forever.

Psa 104:6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

Psa 104:7 At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

Psa 104:8 They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

Psa 104:9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

Psa 104:10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.

Psa 104:11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

Psa 104:12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

Psa 104:13 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

Psa 104:14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

Psa 104:15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

Psa 104:16 The trees of Yehowah are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;

Psa 104:17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

Psa 104:18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies.

Psa 104:19 He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.

Psa 104:20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

Psa 104:21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from the Almighty.

Psa 104:22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

Psa 104:23 Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labor until the evening.

Psa 104:24 Yehowah, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

Psa 104:25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

Psa 104:26 There go the ships: there is that leviathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.

Psa 104:27 These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

Psa 104:28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

Psa 104:29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

Psa 104:30 Thou sendest forth thy Ruach, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

Psa 104:31 The glory of Yehowah shall endure forever: Yehowah shall rejoice in his works.

Psa 104:32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

Psa 104:33 I will sing unto Yehowah as long as I live: I will sing praise to my Divine One while I have my being.

Psa 104:34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in Yehowah.

Psa 104:35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou Yehowah, O my soul. Praise Yah.

Psa 105:1 O give thanks unto Yehowah; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.

Psa 105:2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

Psa 105:3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek Yehowah.

Psa 105:4 Seek Yehowah, and his strength: seek his face evermore.

Psa 105:5 Remember his marvelous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

Psa 105:6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

Psa 105:7 He is Yehowah our Divine One: his judgments are in all the earth.

Psa 105:8 He hath remembered his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

Psa 105:9 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

Psa 105:10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

Psa 105:11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

Psa 105:12 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.

Psa 105:13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;

Psa 105:14 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;

Psa 105:15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

Psa 105:16 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he broke the whole staff of bread.

Psa 105:17 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant:

Psa 105:18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron:

Psa 105:19 Until the time that his word came: the word of Yehowah tried him.

Psa 105:20 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

Psa 105:21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance:

Psa 105:22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his elderly wisdom.

Psa 105:23 Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

Psa 105:24 And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

Psa 105:25 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtly with his servants.

Psa 105:26 He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen.

Psa 105:27 They showed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

Psa 105:28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.

Psa 105:29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

Psa 105:30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

Psa 105:31 He spoke, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

Psa 105:32 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

Psa 105:33 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and broke the trees of their coasts.

Psa 105:34 He spoke, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number,

Psa 105:35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

Psa 105:36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength.

Psa 105:37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

Psa 105:38 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

Psa 105:39 He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.

Psa 105:40 The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

Psa 105:41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

Psa 105:42 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

Psa 105:43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness:

Psa 105:44 And gave them the lands of the nations: and they inherited the labor of the people;

Psa 105:45 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise Yah.

Psa 106:1 Praise Yah. O give thanks unto Yehowah; for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 106:2 Who can utter the mighty acts of Yehowah? who can show forth all his praise?

Psa 106:3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

Psa 106:4 Remember me, Yehowah, with the favor that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

Psa 106:5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

Psa 106:6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

Psa 106:7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red Sea.

Psa 106:8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

Psa 106:9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

Psa 106:10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

Psa 106:11 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

Psa 106:12 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

Psa 106:13 They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

Psa 106:14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted the Almighty in the desert.

Psa 106:15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul.

Psa 106:16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of Yehowah.

Psa 106:17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

Psa 106:18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

Psa 106:19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped the molten image.

Psa 106:20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

Psa 106:21 They forgot the Almighty their savior, which had done great things in Egypt;

Psa 106:22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red Sea.

Psa 106:23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

Psa 106:24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word:

Psa 106:25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of Yehowah.

Psa 106:26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

Psa 106:27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

Psa 106:28 They joined themselves also unto Baalpeor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

Psa 106:29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague broke in upon them.

Psa 106:30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

Psa 106:31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations forevermore.

Psa 106:32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

Psa 106:33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.

Psa 106:34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom Yehowah commanded them:

Psa 106:35 But were mingled among the nations, and learned their works.

Psa 106:36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

Psa 106:37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils,

Psa 106:38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

Psa 106:39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

Psa 106:40 Therefore was the wrath of Yehowah kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

Psa 106:41 And he gave them into the hand of the nations; and they that hated them ruled over them.

Psa 106:42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

Psa 106:43 Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

Psa 106:44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry:

Psa 106:45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and relented according to the multitude of his mercies.

Psa 106:46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

Psa 106:47 Save us, Yehowah our Divine One, and gather us from among the nations, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

Psa 106:48 Blessed be Yehowah Mighty One of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amein. Praise Yah.

Psa 107:1 O give thanks unto Yehowah, for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 107:2 Let the redeemed of Yehowah say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

Psa 107:3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

Psa 107:4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

Psa 107:5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

Psa 107:6 Then they cried unto Yehowah in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

Psa 107:8 Oh that men would praise Yehowah for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Psa 107:10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

Psa 107:11 Because they rebelled against the words of the Almighty, and despised the counsel of the most High:

Psa 107:12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was none to help.

Psa 107:13 Then they cried unto Yehowah in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their bands in sunder.

Psa 107:15 Oh that men would praise Yehowah for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Psa 107:17 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Psa 107:18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

Psa 107:19 Then they cry unto Yehowah in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:20 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

Psa 107:21 Oh that men would praise Yehowah for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

Psa 107:23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

Psa 107:24 These see the works of Yehowah, and his wonders in the deep.

Psa 107:25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

Psa 107:26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

Psa 107:27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end.

Psa 107:28 Then they cry unto Yehowah in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

Psa 107:29 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

Psa 107:30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

Psa 107:31 Oh that men would praise Yehowah for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

Psa 107:32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

Psa 107:33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

Psa 107:34 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Psa 107:35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

Psa 107:36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

Psa 107:37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

Psa 107:38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their livestock to decrease.

Psa 107:39 Again, they are diminished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

Psa 107:40 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

Psa 107:41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

Psa 107:42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

Psa 107:43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the loving-kindness of Yehowah.

Psa 108:1 (A Song or Psalm of David.) Yehowah, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

Psa 108:2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

Psa 108:3 I will praise thee, Yehowah, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

Psa 108:4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

Psa 108:5 Be thou exalted, Yehowah, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

Psa 108:6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

Psa 108:7 The Almighty hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

Psa 108:8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;

Psa 108:9 Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

Psa 108:10 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

Psa 108:11 Wilt not thou, Yehowah, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, Yehowah, go forth with our hosts?

Psa 108:12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

Psa 108:13 Through the Almighty we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

Psa 109:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) Hold not thy peace, Yehowah of my praise;

Psa 109:2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

Psa 109:3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause.

Psa 109:4 For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

Psa 109:5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

Psa 109:6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

Psa 109:7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

Psa 109:8 Let his days be few; and let another take his office.

Psa 109:9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

Psa 109:10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

Psa 109:11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labor.

Psa 109:12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favor his fatherless children.

Psa 109:13 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

Psa 109:14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with Yehowah; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

Psa 109:15 Let them be before Yehowah continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Psa 109:16 Because that he remembered not to show mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

Psa 109:17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

Psa 109:18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

Psa 109:19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

Psa 109:20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from Yehowah, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

Psa 109:21 But do thou for me, Yehowah the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

Psa 109:22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

Psa 109:23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

Psa 109:24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

Psa 109:25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shaked their heads.

Psa 109:26 Help me, Yehowah my Divine One: O save me according to thy mercy:

Psa 109:27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, Yehowah, hast done it.

Psa 109:28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

Psa 109:29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

Psa 109:30 I will greatly praise Yehowah with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

Psa 109:31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

Psa 110:1 (A Psalm of David.) Yehowah said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

Psa 110:2 Yehowah shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

Psa 110:3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

Psa 110:4 Yehowah hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

Psa 110:5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

Psa 110:6 He shall judge among the nations, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

Psa 110:7 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head.

Psa 111:1 Praise Yah. I will praise Yehowah with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

Psa 111:2 The works of Yehowah are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

Psa 111:3 His work is honorable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth forever.

Psa 111:4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: Yehowah is gracious and full of compassion.

Psa 111:5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

Psa 111:6 He hath showed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the nations.

Psa 111:7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure.

Psa 111:8 They stand fast forever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

Psa 111:9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant forever: holy and revered is his name.

Psa 111:10 The fear of Yehowah is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth forever.

Psa 112:1 Praise Yah. Blessed is the man that feareth Yehowah, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Psa 112:2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

Psa 112:3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth forever.

Psa 112:4 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

Psa 112:5 A good man showeth favor, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

Psa 112:6 Surely he shall not be moved forever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

Psa 112:7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in Yehowah.

Psa 112:8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

Psa 112:9 He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth forever; his horn shall be exalted with honor.

Psa 112:10 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

Psa 113:1 Praise Yah. Praise, O ye servants of Yehowah, praise the name of Yehowah.

Psa 113:2 Blessed be the name of Yehowah from this time forth and forevermore.

Psa 113:3 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, Yehowah's name is to be praised.

Psa 113:4 Yehowah is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

Psa 113:5 Who is like unto Yehowah our Divine One, who dwelleth on high,

Psa 113:6 Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

Psa 113:7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

Psa 113:8 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

Psa 113:9 He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise Yah.

Psa 114:1 When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language;

Psa 114:2 Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

Psa 114:3 The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

Psa 114:4 The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

Psa 114:5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

Psa 114:6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

Psa 114:7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the Mighty One of Jacob;

Psa 114:8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

Psa 115:1 Not unto us, Yehowah, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

Psa 115:2 Wherefore should the nations say, Where is now their Divine One?

Psa 115:3 But our Divine One is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

Psa 115:4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

Psa 115:5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

Psa 115:6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

Psa 115:7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

Psa 115:8 They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

Psa 115:9 O Israel, trust thou in Yehowah: he is their help and their shield.

Psa 115:10 O house of Aaron, trust in Yehowah: he is their help and their shield.

Psa 115:11 Ye that fear Yehowah, trust in Yehowah: he is their help and their shield.

Psa 115:12 Yehowah hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

Psa 115:13 He will bless them that fear Yehowah, both small and great.

Psa 115:14 Yehowah shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

Psa 115:15 Ye are blessed of Yehowah which made heaven and earth.

Psa 115:16 The heaven, even the heavens, are Yehowah's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

Psa 115:17 The dead praise not Yah, neither any that go down into silence.

Psa 115:18 But we will bless Yah from this time forth and forevermore. Praise Yah.

Psa 116:1 I love Yehowah, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

Psa 116:2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

Psa 116:3 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell got hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

Psa 116:4 Then called I upon the name of Yehowah; Yehowah, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

Psa 116:5 Gracious is Yehowah, and righteous; yea, our Divine One is merciful.

Psa 116:6 Yehowah preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

Psa 116:7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for Yehowah hath dealt bountifully with thee.

Psa 116:8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

Psa 116:9 I will walk before Yehowah in the land of the living.

Psa 116:10 I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted:

Psa 116:11 I said in my haste, All men are liars.

Psa 116:12 What shall I render unto Yehowah for all his benefits toward me?

Psa 116:13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of Yehowah.

Psa 116:14 I will pay my vows unto Yehowah now in the presence of all his people.

Psa 116:15 Precious in the sight of Yehowah is the death of his saints.

Psa 116:16 Yehowah, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

Psa 116:17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of Yehowah.

Psa 116:18 I will pay my vows unto Yehowah now in the presence of all his people, Psa 116:19 In the courts of Yehowah's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise Yah.

Psa 117:1 O praise Yehowah, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

Psa 117:2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of Yehowah endureth forever. Praise Yah.

Psa 118:1 O give thanks unto Yehowah; for he is good: because his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 118:2 Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 118:3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 118:4 Let them now that fear Yehowah say, that his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 118:5 I called upon Yah in distress: Yah answered me, and set me in a large place.

Psa 118:6 Yehowah is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

Psa 118:7 Yehowah taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

Psa 118:8 It is better to trust in Yehowah than to put confidence in man.

Psa 118:9 It is better to trust in Yehowah than to put confidence in princes.

Psa 118:10 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of Yehowah will I destroy them.

Psa 118:11 They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of Yehowah I will destroy them.

Psa 118:12 They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of Yehowah I will destroy them.

Psa 118:13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but Yehowah helped me.

Psa 118:14 Yah is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

Psa 118:15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of Yehowah doeth valiantly.

Psa 118:16 The right hand of Yehowah is exalted: the right hand of Yehowah doeth valiantly.

Psa 118:17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of Yah.

Psa 118:18 Yah hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

Psa 118:19 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise Yah:

Psa 118:20 This gate of Yehowah, into which the righteous shall enter.

Psa 118:21 I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

Psa 118:22 The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

Psa 118:23 This is Yehowah's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

Psa 118:24 This is the day which Yehowah hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Psa 118:25 Save now, I beseech thee, Yehowah: Yehowah, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

Psa 118:26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of Yehowah: we have blessed you out of the house of Yehowah.

Psa 118:27 The Almighty is Yehowah, which hath showed us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

Psa 118:28 Thou art my Divine One, and I will praise thee: thou art my Divine One, I will exalt thee.

Psa 118:29 O give thanks unto Yehowah; for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 119:1 ALEPH. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of Yehowah.

Psa 119:2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

Psa 119:3 They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.

Psa 119:4 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

Psa 119:5 O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

Psa 119:6 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

Psa 119:7 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

Psa 119:8 I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

Psa 119:9 BETH. Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

Psa 119:10 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

Psa 119:11 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Psa 119:12 Blessed art thou, Yehowah: teach me thy statutes.

Psa 119:13 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

Psa 119:14 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

Psa 119:15 I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

Psa 119:16 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

Psa 119:17 GIMEL. Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

Psa 119:18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

Psa 119:19 I am a foreigner in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.

Psa 119:20 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

Psa 119:21 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments.

Psa 119:22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.

Psa 119:23 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.

Psa 119:24 Thy testimonies also are my delight and my counselors.

Psa 119:25 DALETH. My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.

Psa 119:26 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes.

Psa 119:27 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

Psa 119:28 My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.

Psa 119:29 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously.

Psa 119:30 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

Psa 119:31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: Yehowah, put me not to shame.

Psa 119:32 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart.

Psa 119:33 HE. Teach me, Yehowah, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.

Psa 119:34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

Psa 119:35 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

Psa 119:36 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

Psa 119:37 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

Psa 119:38 establish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

Psa 119:39 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

Psa 119:40 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.

Psa 119:41 VAU. Let thy mercies come also unto me, Yehowah, even thy salvation, according to thy word.

Psa 119:42 So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

Psa 119:43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

Psa 119:44 So shall I keep thy law continually forever and ever.

Psa 119:45 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

Psa 119:46 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.

Psa 119:47 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.

Psa 119:48 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes.

Psa 119:49 ZAIN. Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope.

Psa 119:50 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.

Psa 119:51 The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law.

Psa 119:52 I remembered thy judgments of old, Yehowah; and have comforted myself.

Psa 119:53 Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

Psa 119:54 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.

Psa 119:55 I have remembered thy name, Yehowah, in the night, and have kept thy law.

Psa 119:56 This I had, because I kept thy precepts.

Psa 119:57 CHETH. Thou art my portion, Yehowah: I have said that I would keep thy words.

Psa 119:58 I entreated thy favor with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to thy word.

Psa 119:59 I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

Psa 119:60 I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments.

Psa 119:61 The bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

Psa 119:62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments.

Psa 119:63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

Psa 119:64 The earth, Yehowah, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes.

Psa 119:65 TETH. Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, Yehowah, according unto thy word.

Psa 119:66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

Psa 119:67 Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

Psa 119:68 Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes.

Psa 119:69 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.

Psa 119:70 Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law.

Psa 119:71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

Psa 119:72 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

Psa 119:73 JOD. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

Psa 119:74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.

Psa 119:75 I know, Yehowah, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

Psa 119:76 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.

Psa 119:77 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.

Psa 119:78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts.

Psa 119:79 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies.

Psa 119:80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed.

Psa 119:81 CAPH. My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word.

Psa 119:82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me?

Psa 119:83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.

Psa 119:84 How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?

Psa 119:85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.

Psa 119:86 All thy commandments are faithful: they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.

Psa 119:87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.

Psa 119:88 Quicken me after thy loving-kindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.

Psa 119:89 LAMED. Forever, Yehowah, thy word is settled in heaven.

Psa 119:90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

Psa 119:91 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants.

Psa 119:92 Unless thy law had been my delight, I should then have perished in mine affliction.

Psa 119:93 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.

Psa 119:94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts.

Psa 119:95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

Psa 119:96 I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

Psa 119:97 MEM. O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

Psa 119:98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

Psa 119:99 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

Psa 119:100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

Psa 119:101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

Psa 119:102 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

Psa 119:103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Psa 119:104 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

Psa 119:105 NUN. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Psa 119:106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.

Psa 119:107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, Yehowah, according unto thy word.

Psa 119:108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, Yehowah, and teach me thy judgments.

Psa 119:109 My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.

Psa 119:110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.

Psa 119:111 Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage forever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

Psa 119:112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes always, even unto the end.

Psa 119:113 SAMECH. I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.

Psa 119:114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word.

Psa 119:115 Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my Divine One.

Psa 119:116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

Psa 119:117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.

Psa 119:118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood.

Psa 119:119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.

Psa 119:120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

Psa 119:121 AIN. I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.

Psa 119:122 Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.

Psa 119:123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.

Psa 119:124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.

Psa 119:125 I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies.

Psa 119:126 It is time for thee, Yehowah, to work: for they have made void thy law.

Psa 119:127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold.

Psa 119:128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.

Psa 119:129 PE. Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them.

Psa 119:130 The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

Psa 119:131 I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for thy commandments.

Psa 119:132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.

Psa 119:133 Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

Psa 119:134 Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy precepts.

Psa 119:135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; and teach me thy statutes.

Psa 119:136 Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.

Psa 119:137 TZADDI. Righteous art thou, Yehowah, and upright are thy judgments.

Psa 119:138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful.

Psa 119:139 My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

Psa 119:140 Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

Psa 119:141 I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.

Psa 119:142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth.

Psa 119:143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet thy commandments are my delights.

Psa 119:144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: give me understanding, and I shall live.

Psa 119:145 KOPH. I cried with my whole heart; hear me, Yehowah: I will keep thy statutes.

Psa 119:146 I cried unto thee; save me, and I shall keep thy testimonies.

Psa 119:147 I preceded the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.

Psa 119:148 Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

Psa 119:149 Hear my voice according unto thy loving-kindness: Yehowah, quicken me according to thy judgment.

Psa 119:150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

Psa 119:151 Thou art near, Yehowah; and all thy commandments are truth.

Psa 119:152 Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them forever.

Psa 119:153 RESH. Consider mine affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.

Psa 119:154 Plead my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.

Psa 119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

Psa 119:156 Great are thy tender mercies, Yehowah: quicken me according to thy judgments.

Psa 119:157 Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.

Psa 119:158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because they kept not thy word.

Psa 119:159 Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, Yehowah, according to thy loving-kindness.

Psa 119:160 Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth forever.

Psa 119:161 SCHIN. Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

Psa 119:162 I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.

Psa 119:163 I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love.

Psa 119:164 Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.

Psa 119:165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

Psa 119:166 Yehowah, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.

Psa 119:167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly.

Psa 119:168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: for all my ways are before thee.

Psa 119:169 TAU. Let my cry come near before thee, Yehowah: give me understanding according to thy word.

Psa 119:170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

Psa 119:171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

Psa 119:172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

Psa 119:173 Let thine hand help me; for I have chosen thy precepts.

Psa 119:174 I have longed for thy salvation, Yehowah; and thy law is my delight.

Psa 119:175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.

Psa 119:176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

Psa 120:1 (A Song of degrees.) In my distress I cried unto Yehowah, and he heard me.

Psa 120:2 Deliver my soul, Yehowah, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

Psa 120:3 What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

Psa 120:4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

Psa 120:5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

Psa 120:6 My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.

Psa 120:7 I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.

Psa 121:1 (A Song of degrees.) I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

Psa 121:2 My help cometh from Yehowah, which made heaven and earth.

Psa 121:3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Psa 121:4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

Psa 121:5 Yehowah is thy keeper: Yehowah is thy shade upon thy right hand.

Psa 121:6 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

Psa 121:7 Yehowah shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

Psa 121:8 Yehowah shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore.

Psa 122:1 (A Song of degrees of David.) I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of Yehowah.

Psa 122:2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

Psa 122:3 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:

Psa 122:4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of Yah, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of Yehowah.

Psa 122:5 For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

Psa 122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Psa 122:7 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

Psa 122:8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

Psa 122:9 Because of the house of Yehowah our Divine One I will seek thy good.

Psa 123:1 (A Song of degrees.) Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

Psa 123:2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon Yehowah our Divine One, until that he have mercy upon us.

Psa 123:3 Have mercy upon us, Yehowah, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

Psa 123:4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

Psa 124:1 (A Song of degrees of David.) If it had not been Yehowah who was on our side, now may Israel say;

Psa 124:2 If it had not been Yehowah who was on our side, when men rose up against us:

Psa 124:3 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

Psa 124:4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

Psa 124:5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

Psa 124:6 Blessed be Yehowah, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

Psa 124:7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Psa 124:8 Our help is in the name of Yehowah, who made heaven and earth.

Psa 125:1 (A Song of degrees.) They that trust in Yehowah shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth forever.

Psa 125:2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so Yehowah is round about his people from henceforth even forever.

Psa 125:3 For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

Psa 125:4 Do good, Yehowah, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

Psa 125:5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, Yehowah shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

Psa 126:1 (A Song of degrees.) When Yehowah turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

Psa 126:2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the nations, Yehowah hath done great things for them.

Psa 126:3 Yehowah hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

Psa 126:4 Turn again our captivity, Yehowah, as the streams in the south.

Psa 126:5 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

Psa 126:6 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Psa 127:1 (A Song of degrees for Solomon.) Except Yehowah build the house, they labor in vain that build it: except Yehowah keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

Psa 127:2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

Psa 127:3 Lo, children are a heritage of Yehowah: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

Psa 127:4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.

Psa 127:5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

Psa 128:1 (A Song of degrees.) Blessed is every one that feareth Yehowah; that walketh in his ways.

Psa 128:2 For thou shalt eat the labor of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

Psa 128:3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.

Psa 128:4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth Yehowah.

Psa 128:5 Yehowah shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

Psa 128:6 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

Psa 129:1 (A Song of degrees.) Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say:

Psa 129:2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

Psa 129:3 The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.

Psa 129:4 Yehowah is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

Psa 129:5 Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.

Psa 129:6 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, which withereth before it groweth up:

Psa 129:7 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

Psa 129:8 Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of Yehowah be upon you: we bless you in the name of Yehowah.

Psa 130:1 (A Song of degrees.) Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, Yehowah.

Psa 130:2 Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

Psa 130:3 If thou, Yah, shouldest mark iniquities, O Yehowah, who shall stand?

Psa 130:4 But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

Psa 130:5 I wait for Yehowah, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

Psa 130:6 My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.

Psa 130:7 Let Israel hope in Yehowah: for with Yehowah there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

Psa 130:8 And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Psa 131:1 (A Song of degrees of David.) Yehowah, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.

Psa 131:2 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.

Psa 131:3 Let Israel hope in Yehowah from henceforth and forever.

Psa 132:1 (A Song of degrees.) Yehowah, remember David, and all his afflictions:

Psa 132:2 How he swore unto Yehowah, and vowed unto the Strong One of Jacob;

Psa 132:3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

Psa 132:4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids, Psa 132:5 Until I find out a place for Yehowah, a habitation for the Strong One of Jacob.

Psa 132:6 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.

Psa 132:7 We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.

Psa 132:8 Arise, Yehowah, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.

Psa 132:9 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

Psa 132:10 For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.

Psa 132:11 Yehowah hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

Psa 132:12 If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne forevermore.

Psa 132:13 For Yehowah hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

Psa 132:14 This is my rest forever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

Psa 132:15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.

Psa 132:16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

Psa 132:17 There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

Psa 132:18 His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

Psa 133:1 (A Song of degrees of David.) Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

Psa 133:2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

Psa 133:3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there Yehowah commanded the blessing, even life forevermore.

Psa 134:1 (A Song of degrees.) Behold, bless ye Yehowah, all ye servants of Yehowah, which by night stand in the house of Yehowah.

Psa 134:2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless Yehowah.

Psa 134:3 Yehowah that made heaven and earth bless thee out of Zion.

Psa 135:1 Praise Yah. Praise ye the name of Yehowah; praise him, O ye servants of Yehowah.

Psa 135:2 Ye that stand in the house of Yehowah, in the courts of the house of our Divine One,

Psa 135:3 Praise Yah; for Yehowah is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

Psa 135:4 For Yah hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

Psa 135:5 For I know that Yehowah is great, and that our Lord is above all deities.

Psa 135:6 Whatsoever Yehowah pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

Psa 135:7 He causeth the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries.

Psa 135:8 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast.

Psa 135:9 Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.

Psa 135:10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings;

Psa 135:11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan:

Psa 135:12 And gave their land for a heritage, a heritage unto Israel his people.

Psa 135:13 Thy name, Yehowah, endureth forever; and thy memorial, Yehowah, throughout all generations.

Psa 135:14 For Yehowah will judge his people, and he will relent himself concerning his servants.

Psa 135:15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

Psa 135:16 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

Psa 135:17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

Psa 135:18 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

Psa 135:19 Bless Yehowah, O house of Israel: bless Yehowah, O house of Aaron:

Psa 135:20 Bless Yehowah, O house of Levi: ye that fear Yehowah, bless Yehowah.

Psa 135:21 Blessed be Yehowah out of Zion, which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise Yah.

Psa 136:1 O give thanks unto Yehowah; for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:2 O give thanks unto the Mighty One of deities: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:3 O give thanks to the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:4 To him who alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:5 To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:6 To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:7 To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:8 The sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:9 The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:10 To him that smote Egypt in their firstborn: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:11 And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:12 With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:13 To him which divided the Red Sea into parts: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:14 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:16 To him which led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:17 To him which smote great kings: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:18 And slew famous kings: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:19 Sihon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:20 And Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:21 And gave their land for a heritage: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:22 Even a heritage unto Israel his servant: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:23 Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth forever:

Psa 136:24 And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:25 Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 136:26 O give thanks unto the Mighty One of heaven: for his mercy endureth forever.

Psa 137:1 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion.

Psa 137:2 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

Psa 137:3 For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

Psa 137:4 How shall we sing Yehowah's song in a strange land?

Psa 137:5 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

Psa 137:6 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

Psa 137:7 Remember, Yehowah, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Raze it, raze it, even to the foundation thereof.

Psa 137:8 O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

Psa 137:9 Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

Psa 138:1 (A Psalm of David.) I will praise thee with my whole heart: before the deities will I sing praise unto thee.

Psa 138:2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving-kindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word and thy name above all else.

Psa 138:3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

Psa 138:4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, Yehowah, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

Psa 138:5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of Yehowah: for great is the glory of Yehowah.

Psa 138:6 Though Yehowah be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

Psa 138:7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

Psa 138:8 Yehowah will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, Yehowah, endureth forever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

Psa 139:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) Yehowah, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Psa 139:2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

Psa 139:3 Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

Psa 139:4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, Yehowah, thou knowest it altogether.

Psa 139:5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Psa 139:6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Psa 139:7 Whither shall I go from thy Ruach? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

Psa 139:8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

Psa 139:9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Psa 139:10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

Psa 139:11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

Psa 139:12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

Psa 139:13 For thou hast possessed my inner being: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

Psa 139:14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

Psa 139:15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

Psa 139:16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

Psa 139:17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, Yehowah! how great is the sum of them!

Psa 139:18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

Psa 139:19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, Yehowah: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

Psa 139:20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

Psa 139:21 Do not I hate them, Yehowah, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

Psa 139:22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

Psa 139:23 Search me, Yehowah, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

Psa 139:24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Psa 140:1 (To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.) Deliver me, Yehowah, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man;

Psa 140:2 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war.

Psa 140:3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; vipers' poison is under their lips. Selah.

Psa 140:4 Keep me, Yehowah, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

Psa 140:5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set snares for me. Selah.

Psa 140:6 I said unto Yehowah, Thou art my Divine One: hear the voice of my supplications, Yehowah.

Psa 140:7 Yehowah the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

Psa 140:8 Grant not, Yehowah, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

Psa 140:9 As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

Psa 140:10 Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

Psa 140:11 Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

Psa 140:12 I know that Yehowah will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

Psa 140:13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

Psa 141:1 (A Psalm of David.) Yehowah, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

Psa 141:2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Psa 141:3 Set a watch, Yehowah, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

Psa 141:4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practice wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

Psa 141:5 Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

Psa 141:6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

Psa 141:7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

Psa 141:8 But mine eyes are unto thee, Yehowah the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

Psa 141:9 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the snares of the workers of iniquity.

Psa 141:10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape.

Psa 142:1 (Maschil of David; A Prayer when he was in the cave.) I cried unto Yehowah with my voice; with my voice unto Yehowah did I make my supplication.

Psa 142:2 I poured out my complaint before him; I showed before him my trouble.

Psa 142:3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they secretly laid a snare for me.

Psa 142:4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

Psa 142:5 I cried unto thee, Yehowah: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

Psa 142:6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

Psa 142:7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

Psa 143:1 (A Psalm of David.) Hear my prayer, Yehowah, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

Psa 143:2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

Psa 143:3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

Psa 143:4 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.

Psa 143:5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

Psa 143:6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

Psa 143:7 Hear me speedily, Yehowah: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

Psa 143:8 Cause me to hear thy loving-kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

Psa 143:9 Deliver me, Yehowah, from mine enemies: I flee unto thee to hide me.

Psa 143:10 Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my Divine One: thy Ruach is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

Psa 143:11 Quicken me, Yehowah, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

Psa 143:12 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

Psa 144:1 (A Psalm of David.) Blessed be Yehowah my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:

Psa 144:2 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

Psa 144:3 Yehowah, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

Psa 144:4 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

Psa 144:5 Bow thy heavens, Yehowah, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

Psa 144:6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

Psa 144:7 Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

Psa 144:8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

Psa 144:9 I will sing a new song unto thee, Yehowah: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

Psa 144:10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

Psa 144:11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:

Psa 144:12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace:

Psa 144:13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets:

Psa 144:14 That our oxen may be strong to labor; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets.

Psa 144:15 Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose Almighty One is Yehowah.

Psa 145:1 (David's Psalm of praise.) I will extol thee, my Divine One, O king; and I will bless thy name forever and ever.

Psa 145:2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name forever and ever.

Psa 145:3 Great is Yehowah, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

Psa 145:4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

Psa 145:5 I will speak of the glorious honor of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

Psa 145:6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

Psa 145:7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

Psa 145:8 Yehowah is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

Psa 145:9 Yehowah is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

Psa 145:10 All thy works shall praise thee, Yehowah; and thy saints shall bless thee.

Psa 145:11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

Psa 145:12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

Psa 145:13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. Yehowah is faithful in his words, and gracious in all his works.

Psa 145:14 Yehowah upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

Psa 145:15 The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Psa 145:16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

Psa 145:17 Yehowah is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

Psa 145:18 Yehowah is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

Psa 145:19 He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

Psa 145:20 Yehowah preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

Psa 145:21 My mouth shall speak the praise of Yehowah: and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psa 146:1 Praise Yah. Praise Yehowah, O my soul.

Psa 146:2 While I live will I praise Yehowah: I will sing praises unto my Divine One while I have any being.

Psa 146:3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

Psa 146:4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Psa 146:5 Happy is he that hath the Mighty One of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yehowah his Divine One:

Psa 146:6 Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth forever:

Psa 146:7 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. Yehowah looseth the prisoners:

Psa 146:8 Yehowah openeth the eyes of the blind: Yehowah raiseth them that are bowed down: Yehowah loveth the righteous:

Psa 146:9 Yehowah preserveth the foreigners; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

Psa 146:10 Yehowah shall reign forever, even thy Divine One, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise Yah.

Psa 147:1 Praise Yah: for it is good to sing praises unto our Divine One; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

Psa 147:2 Yehowah doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

Psa 147:3 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

Psa 147:4 He tallies the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

Psa 147:5 Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

Psa 147:6 Yehowah lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

Psa 147:7 Sing unto Yehowah with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our Divine One:

Psa 147:8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

Psa 147:9 He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

Psa 147:10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

Psa 147:11 Yehowah taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

Psa 147:12 Praise Yehowah, O Jerusalem; praise thy Divine One, O Zion.

Psa 147:13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

Psa 147:14 He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

Psa 147:15 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

Psa 147:16 He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

Psa 147:17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

Psa 147:18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

Psa 147:19 He showeth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

Psa 147:20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise Yah.

Psa 148:1 Praise Yah. Praise ye Yehowah from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

Psa 148:2 Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

Psa 148:3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

Psa 148:4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

Psa 148:5 Let them praise the name of Yehowah: for he commanded, and they were created.

Psa 148:6 He hath also established them forever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

Psa 148:7 Praise Yehowah from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps:

Psa 148:8 Fire, and hail; snow, and vapor; stormy wind fulfilling his word:

Psa 148:9 Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

Psa 148:10 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:

Psa 148:11 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:

Psa 148:12 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

Psa 148:13 Let them praise the name of Yehowah: for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

Psa 148:14 He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise Yah.

Psa 149:1 Praise Yah. Sing unto Yehowah a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

Psa 149:2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Psa 149:3 Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

Psa 149:4 For Yehowah taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

Psa 149:5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

Psa 149:6 Let the high praises of the Almighty be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand;

Psa 149:7 To execute vengeance upon the nations, and punishments upon the people;

Psa 149:8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

Psa 149:9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honor have all his saints. Praise Yah.

Psa 150:1 Praise Yah. Praise the Almighty in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Psa 150:2 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Psa 150:3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Psa 150:4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and pipes.

Psa 150:5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

Psa 150:6 Let everything that hath breath praise Yah. Praise Yah.

Psa 151:1 (A thanksgiving psalm of David, after he had slain Goliath.) I was the youngest among my brethren, and a youth in my father’s house. I used to feed my father’s flock; I found a lion and a wolf, and slew them and tore them apart.

Psa 151:2 My hands made a pipe, and my fingers fashioned a harp.
Psa 151:3 Who will show me my Master? He, my Lord, has become my Divine One.
Psa 151:4 He sent His angel, took me away from my father's flock, and anointed me with the oil of anointing.
Psa 151:5 Yehowah did not take pleasure in my brethren, though they were both fair and tall.
Psa 151:6 I went forth to meet the Philistine, and he cursed me by his idols;
Psa 151:7 but I drew his own sword, and used it to cut off his head, taking away the reproach from the children of Israel.
Psa 152:1 (Spoken by David, when he was contending with the lion and the wolf which took a sheep from his flock.) O Yehowah, O Yehowah, come to my aid; help me, save me, and deliver my soul from the slayer.
Psa 152:2 Will I go down to Sheol by the mouth of the lion? Will the wolf be the end of me?
Psa 152:3 Was it not enough for those who lay in wait for my father's flock, and tore a sheep of my father's flock, must they also wish the destruction of my own soul?
Psa 152:4 Have pity, O Yehowah, and save Your holy one from destruction, so that he may rehearse Your glories for all of his days, and may praise Your great name,
Psa 152:5 when You have delivered him from the hands of the destroying lion and of the ravening wolf, and when You have rescued my captivity from the hands of the wild beasts.
Psa 152:6 Quickly, my Lord, send from Yourself a deliverer, and draw me out of the gaping pit which imprisons me in its depths.
Psa 153:1 (Spoken by David, thanking Yehowah for deliverance from the lion and the wolf, after he had slain them both.) Praise Yehowah, all you nations; glorify Him, and bless His name.
Psa 153:2 He has rescued the soul of His elect from the hands of death, and delivered His holy one from destruction.
Psa 153:3 He has saved me from the nets of sheol, and my soul from the pit that cannot be fathomed.
Psa 153:4 Before my deliverance could go forth from Him, I was very nearly torn in two pieces by two wild beasts;
Psa 153:5 but He sent His angel, and closed up from me the gaping mouths, and rescued my life from destruction.
Psa 153:6 My soul will glorify Him and exalt Him, because of all His kindnesses which He has done to me, and will continue to do to me.
Psa 154:1 (A Prayer of Hezekiah, when he was surrounded by his enemies.) Glorify Yehowah with a loud voice, and proclaim His glory in the assembly of many.

Psa 154:2 Glorify His praise amidst the multitude of the upright, and speak of His glory with the righteous.
Psa 154:3 Join your souls to the good and to the perfect, to glorify Most High Yehowah.
Psa 154:4 Gather yourselves together to make known His strength, and do not be slow in showing forth His deliverance, His strength, and His glory to all who are young.
Psa 154:5 Wisdom has been given that the honor of Yehowah may be known, and it has been made known to men to tell of His works:
Psa 154:6 to make known to children His strength, and to cause those who lack understanding to comprehend His glory,
Psa 154:7 who are far from His entrances and distant from His gates;
Psa 154:8 for the Mighty One of Jacob is exalted, and His glory is upon all His works.
Psa 154:9 He will take pleasure in a man who glorifies the Most High, as in one who offers fine meal,
Psa 154:10 and as in one who offers he-goats and calves, and as in one who makes the altar fat with a multitude of burnt offerings, and as the smell of incense from the hands of the just.
Psa 154:11 His voice will be heard from Your upright gates, and admonition from the voice of the upright.
Psa 154:12 In their eating and their drinking, when they share together, they will be satisfied in truth.
Psa 154:13 Their mind dwells on the Torah of Most High Yehowah, and their speech is to make known His strength.
Psa 154:14 How far from the wicked is speech of Him, and from all transgressors to know Him!
Psa 154:15 Behold; the eye of Yehowah takes pity on the good! He will multiply mercy to those who glorify Him, and from the time of evil will He deliver their soul.
Psa 154:16 Blessed be Yehowah, who has delivered the wretched from the hand of the wicked; who raises up a horn out of Jacob, and a judge of the nations out of Israel,
Psa 154:17 that He may prolong His dwelling in Zion, and may adorn our age in Jerusalem.
Psa 155:1 (A prayer of thanksgiving, when the people obtained permission from Cyrus to return home.) O Yehowah, I have cried to You; hear me.
Psa 155:2 I have lifted up my hands to Your holy dwelling place; incline Your ear to me.
Psa 155:3 Grant me my request; do not withhold my prayer from me.

Psa 155:4 Build up my soul, and do not destroy it, and do not lay it bare before the wicked.
Psa 155:5 Those who reward evil things turn You away from me, O judge of truth.
Psa 155:6 O Yehowah, do not judge me according to my sins, because no flesh is innocent before You.
Psa 155:7 Make Your Torah plain to me, O Yehowah, and teach me Your judgments.
Psa 155:8 Many will hear of Your works, and the nations will praise Your honor.
Psa 155:9 Remember me, and do not forget me; and do not lead me into things that are too difficult for me.
Psa 155:10 Cause the sins of my youth to pass from me, and remember my chastisement against me no longer.
Psa 155:11 Cleanse me, O Yehowah, from the evil leprosy, and do not let it come against me any longer.
Psa 155:12 Dry up its roots from within me, and do not let its leaves sprout within me.
Psa 155:13 You are great, O Yehowah; therefore, my request will be fulfilled in You.
Psa 155:14 To whom will I complain that He may give to me? What help can be found in the strength of men?
Psa 155:15 From You, O Yehowah, is my confidence; I cried to Yehowah, and He heard me, and healed the breaking of my heart.
Psa 155:16 I slumbered and slept; I dreamed and was helped, and Yehowah sustained me.
Psa 155:17 They sorely pained my heart; I will return thanks because Yehowah delivered me.
Psa 155:18 Now will I rejoice in their shame; I have hoped in You, and I will not be ashamed.
Psa 155:19 May You be given honor forever, even forever and ever.
Psa 155:20 Deliver Israel, Your elect, and those of the house of Jacob, Your proved one.
Psa 156:1 (A Plea for Deliverance.) A worm does not thank You, nor does a maggot recount Your lovingkindness.
Psa 156:2 Only the living thank You, all they whose feet stumble do thank You, when You make Your lovingkindness known to them, and cause them to understand Your righteousness;
Psa 156:3 for the soul of all the living is in Your hand, and You have given breath to all flesh.
Psa 156:4 O Yehowah, do to us according to Your goodness, according to the greatness of Your mercies, and according to the greatness of Your righteous deeds.

Psa 156:5 Yehowah listens to the voice of all who love His name, and He does not permit His lovingkindness to depart from them.
Psa 156:6 Blessed be Yehowah, who does righteous deeds, who crowns His set-apart ones with lovingkindness and mercies.
Psa 156:7 My soul shouts to praise Your name, to praise Your mercies with jubilation, to announce Your faithfulness; for there is no limit to Your praises.
Psa 156:8 I belonged to death because of my sins, and my iniquities had sold me to Sheol;
Psa 156:9 but You saved me, O Yehowah, according to the greatness of Your mercies, and according to the greatness of Your righteous deeds.
Psa 156:10 I have, indeed, loved Your name, and have taken refuge in Your shadow.
Psa 156:11 My heart is strengthened when I remember Your power, and I rely on Your mercies.
Psa 156:12 Forgive my sins, O Yehowah, and purify me of my iniquity.
Psa 156:13 Grant me a spirit of faithfulness and knowledge; let me not be dishonored in ruin.
Psa 156:14 Do not allow the wicked one or an unclean spirit to overtake me, and do not allow pain or the evil inclination to possess my bones;
Psa 156:15 for You, O Yehowah, are my praise, and I hope in You every day.
Psa 156:16 My brethren rejoice with me, and the house of my father is astounded by Your graciousness.
Psa 156:17 I will always rejoice in You.
Psa 157:1 (A Hymn to Zion.) I will remember you, O Zion, for a blessing. I love you with all My might; for your memory is to be blessed forever.
Psa 157:2 Your hope is great, O Zion; peace and your awaited salvation will come.
Psa 157:3 Generation after generation shall dwell in you, and generations of the righteous shall be your ornament.
Psa 157:4 They who desire the day of your salvation shall rejoice in the greatness of your glory.
Psa 157:5 They shall be suckled on the fullness of your glory, and in your beautiful streets they shall make tinkling sounds.
Psa 157:6 You shall remember the righteous deeds of your prophets, and shall glorify yourself in the deeds of your righteous ones.
Psa 157:7 Cleanse violence from your midst; may lying and iniquity be cut off from you.
Psa 157:8 Your sons shall rejoice within you, and your cherished ones shall be joined to you. How much have they hoped in your salvation?

Psa 157:9 How much have your perfect ones mourned for you?
Psa 157:10 Your hope, O Zion, shall not perish, and your expectation will not be forgotten.
Psa 157:11 Is there a righteous man who has perished? Is there a man who has escaped his iniquity?
Psa 157:12 Man is tried according to his way, each is repaid according to his deeds.
Psa 157:13 Your oppressors shall be cut off from around you, O Zion, and all who hate you shall be dispersed.
Psa 157:14 Your praise is pleasing, O Zion; it rises up in all the world.
Psa 157:15 I will remember you many times for a blessing, and I will bless you with all My heart.
Psa 157:16 You shall attain to eternal righteousness, and shall receive blessings from the noble.
Psa 157:17 Take the vision which speaks of you, and the dreams of the prophets requested for you.
Psa 157:18 Be exalted and increase, O Zion, and praise the Most High, your Redeemer! May my soul rejoice in your glory!
Psa 158:1 (A Hymn to the Name of Yehowah.) In the midst of the congregation they shall praise the name of Yehowah, Psa 158:2 for He has come to judge every action, to remove the wicked from the earth, so that the children of iniquity shall not be found.
Psa 158:3 The heavens shall give their dew, and there shall be no drought within their boundaries.
Psa 158:4 The earth shall give its fruit in its time, and its product shall not fail.
Psa 158:5 The fruit trees shall give of the fruit of its vineyards, and the ground shall not cheat of its produce.
Psa 158:6 The poor shall eat, and those who fear Yehowah shall be filled.
Psa 159:1 (A Hymn to Judah.) Heaven and earth shall give praise together. Let all the stars of the dusk give praise!
Psa 159:2 Rejoice, Judah; rejoice! Rejoice, rejoice and be glad with gladness!
Psa 159:3 Celebrate your feasts, and pay your vows; for there is no wickedness in your midst.
Psa 159:4 Raise your hand, and fortify your right hand!
Psa 159:5 Behold, the enemy shall perish, and all the workers of iniquity shall be dispersed;
Psa 159:6 but You, O Yehowah, are forever, and Your glory shall be forever and ever. Hallelujah!

Psa 160:1 (A Hymn to the Creator.) Yehowah is great and holy, the holiest for generation after generation.
Psa 160:2 Majesty goes before Him, and abundance of many waters comes after Him.
Psa 160:3 Lovingkindness and truth surround His face; truth, judgment, and righteousness are the pedestal of His throne.
Psa 160:4 He divides light from the unknown, and He establishes the dawn by the knowledge of His heart.
Psa 160:5 All His messengers sang when they saw it; for He showed them that which they had not known.
Psa 160:6 He crowns the mountains with fruit, with good food for all the living.
Psa 160:7 May the Mighty One of the earth be blessed, along with His power; for He establishes the world by His wisdom.
Psa 160:8 He stretched out the heaven by His understanding, and brought forth wind from His stores.
Psa 160:9 He made lightnings for the rain, and raised mist from the end of the earth.

Book of the Prayer of Mannaseh

Man 1:1 O Yehowah, Almighty Mighty One of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed;

Man 1:2 who hast made heaven and earth, with all the ornament thereof;

Man 1:3 who hast bound the sea by the word of thy commandment; who hast shut up the deep, and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious name;

Man 1:4 whom all men fear, and tremble before thy power;

Man 1:5 for the majesty of thy glory cannot be borne, and thine angry threatening toward sinners is importable:

Man 1:6 but thy merciful promise is unmeasurable and unsearchable;

Man 1:7 for thou art the most high Lord, of great compassion, longsuffering, very merciful, and repentest of the evils of men. Thou, O Yehowah, according to thy great goodness hast promised repentance and forgiveness to them that have sinned against thee: and of thine infinite mercies hast appointed repentance unto sinners, that they may be saved.

Man 1:8 Thou therefore, O Yehowah, that art the Mighty One of the just, hast not appointed repentance to the just, as to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, which have not sinned against thee; but thou hast appointed repentance unto me that am a sinner:

Man 1:9 for I have sinned above the number of the sands of the sea. My transgressions, O Yehowah, are multiplied: my transgressions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven for the multitude of mine iniquities.

Man 1:10 I am bowed down with many iron bands, that I cannot life up mine head, neither have any release: for I have provoked thy wrath, and done evil before thee: I did not thy will, neither kept I thy commandments: I have set up abominations, and have multiplied offenses.

Man 1:11 Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching thee of grace.

Man 1:12 I have sinned, O Yehowah, I have sinned, and I acknowledge mine iniquities:

Man 1:13 wherefore, I humbly beseech thee, forgive me, O Yehowah, forgive me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities. Be not angry with me forever, by reserving evil for me; neither condemn me to the lower parts of the earth. For thou art the Yehowah, even the Mighty One of them that repent;

Man 1:14 and in me thou wilt shew all thy goodness: for thou wilt save me, that am unworthy, according to thy great mercy.

Man 1:15 Therefore I will praise thee forever all the days of my life: for all the powers of the heavens do praise thee, and thine is the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Book of Proverbs

Pro 1:1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

Pro 1:2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

Pro 1:3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, judgment, and equity;

Pro 1:4 To give subtlety to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

Pro 1:5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

Pro 1:6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

Pro 1:7 The fear of Yehowah is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Pro 1:8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

Pro 1:9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

Pro 1:10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

Pro 1:11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause:

Pro 1:12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

Pro 1:13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

Pro 1:14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

Pro 1:15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

Pro 1:16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

Pro 1:17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

Pro 1:18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk secretly for their own lives.

Pro 1:19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

Pro 1:20 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

Pro 1:21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

Pro 1:22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

Pro 1:23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my Ruach unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

Pro 1:24 Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

Pro 1:25 But ye have set at naught all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

Pro 1:26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

Pro 1:27 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

Pro 1:28 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

Pro 1:29 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of Yehowah:

Pro 1:30 They would have none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

Pro 1:31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

Pro 1:32 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

Pro 1:33 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

Pro 2:1 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

Pro 2:2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

Pro 2:3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

Pro 2:4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

Pro 2:5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of Yehowah, and find the knowledge of the Almighty.

Pro 2:6 For Yehowah giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

Pro 2:7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a shield to them that walk uprightly.

Pro 2:8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

Pro 2:9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

Pro 2:10 When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

Pro 2:11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

Pro 2:12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh willful things;

Pro 2:13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

Pro 2:14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the willfulness of the wicked;

Pro 2:15 Whose ways are crooked, and they pervert their paths:

Pro 2:16 To deliver thee from the adulterous woman, even from the foreigner which flattereth with her words;

Pro 2:17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her Divine One.

Pro 2:18 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

Pro 2:19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

Pro 2:20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

Pro 2:21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

Pro 2:22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

Pro 3:1 My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:

Pro 3:2 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

Pro 3:3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

Pro 3:4 So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of the Almighty and man.

Pro 3:5 Trust in Yehowah with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

Pro 3:6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Pro 3:7 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear Yehowah, and depart from evil.

Pro 3:8 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

Pro 3:9 Honor Yehowah with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

Pro 3:10 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

Pro 3:11 My son, despise not the chastening of Yehowah; neither be weary of his correction:

Pro 3:12 For whom Yehowah loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

Pro 3:13 Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

Pro 3:14 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

Pro 3:15 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

Pro 3:16 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honor.

Pro 3:17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

Pro 3:18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

Pro 3:19 Yehowah by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

Pro 3:20 By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

Pro 3:21 My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

Pro 3:22 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.

Pro 3:23 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

Pro 3:24 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

Pro 3:25 Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

Pro 3:26 For Yehowah shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

Pro 3:27 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

Pro 3:28 Say not unto thy neighbor, Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

Pro 3:29 Devise not evil against thy neighbor, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

Pro 3:30 Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

Pro 3:31 Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

Pro 3:32 For the willful is an abomination to Yehowah: but his secret is with the righteous.

Pro 3:33 The curse of Yehowah is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.

Pro 3:34 Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

Pro 3:35 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

Pro 4:1 Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

Pro 4:2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

Pro 4:3 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

Pro 4:4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.

Pro 4:5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

Pro 4:6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

Pro 4:7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

Pro 4:8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honor, when thou dost embrace her.

Pro 4:9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

Pro 4:10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many.

Pro 4:11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.

Pro 4:12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

Pro 4:13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

Pro 4:14 Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

Pro 4:15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

Pro 4:16 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

Pro 4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

Pro 4:18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

Pro 4:19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

Pro 4:20 My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

Pro 4:21 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

Pro 4:22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

Pro 4:23 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Pro 4:24 Put away from thee a willful mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

Pro 4:25 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

Pro 4:26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

Pro 4:27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

Pro 5:1 My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

Pro 5:2 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

Pro 5:3 For the lips of an adulterous woman drop as a honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

Pro 5:4 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

Pro 5:5 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

Pro 5:6 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

Pro 5:7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

Pro 5:8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

Pro 5:9 Lest thou give thine honor unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

Pro 5:10 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labors be in the house of a foreigner;

Pro 5:11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

Pro 5:12 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;

Pro 5:13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

Pro 5:14 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

Pro 5:15 Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

Pro 5:16 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

Pro 5:17 Let them be only thine own, and not foreigners' with thee.

Pro 5:18 Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

Pro 5:19 Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant gazelle; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love.

Pro 5:20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with an adulterous woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

Pro 5:21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of Yehowah, and he pondereth all his goings.

Pro 5:22 His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

Pro 5:23 He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

Pro 6:1 My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a foreigner,

Pro 6:2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

Pro 6:3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

Pro 6:4 Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

Pro 6:5 Deliver thyself as a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

Pro 6:6 Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

Pro 6:7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

Pro 6:8 provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

Pro 6:9 How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

Pro 6:10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

Pro 6:11 So shall thy poverty come as one that traveleth, and thy want as an armed man.

Pro 6:12 A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a willful mouth.

Pro 6:13 He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

Pro 6:14 willfulness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.

Pro 6:15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

Pro 6:16 These six things doth Yehowah hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

Pro 6:17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

Pro 6:18 a heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief,

Pro 6:19 a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

Pro 6:20 My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

Pro 6:21 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

Pro 6:22 When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

Pro 6:23 For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

Pro 6:24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of an adulterous woman.

Pro 6:25 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

Pro 6:26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

Pro 6:27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

Pro 6:28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

Pro 6:29 So he that goeth in to his neighbor's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

Pro 6:30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

Pro 6:31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

Pro 6:32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

Pro 6:33 A wound and dishonor shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

Pro 6:34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

Pro 6:35 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

Pro 7:1 My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

Pro 7:2 Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.

Pro 7:3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

Pro 7:4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

Pro 7:5 That they may keep thee from the adulterous woman, from the foreigner which flattereth with her words.

Pro 7:6 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

Pro 7:7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

Pro 7:8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

Pro 7:9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

Pro 7:10 And behold, there met him a woman with the attire of a harlot, and subtle of heart.

Pro 7:11 She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

Pro 7:12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.

Pro 7:13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him,

Pro 7:14 I have peace offerings with me; this day have I paid my vows.

Pro 7:15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

Pro 7:16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

Pro 7:17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

Pro 7:18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

Pro 7:19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

Pro 7:20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

Pro 7:21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

Pro 7:22 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

Pro 7:23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

Pro 7:24 Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

Pro 7:25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

Pro 7:26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

Pro 7:27 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

Pro 8:1 Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

Pro 8:2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

Pro 8:3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

Pro 8:4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

Pro 8:5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

Pro 8:6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

Pro 8:7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

Pro 8:8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing willful or perverse in them.

Pro 8:9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

Pro 8:10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

Pro 8:11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

Pro 8:12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

Pro 8:13 The fear of Yehowah is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the willful mouth, do I hate.

Pro 8:14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

Pro 8:15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

Pro 8:16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

Pro 8:17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

Pro 8:18 Riches and honor are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

Pro 8:19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

Pro 8:20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

Pro 8:21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

Pro 8:22 Yehowah possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

Pro 8:23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

Pro 8:24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

Pro 8:25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

Pro 8:26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

Pro 8:27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the deep water supply:

Pro 8:28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

Pro 8:29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

Pro 8:30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

Pro 8:31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.

Pro 8:32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways.

Pro 8:33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

Pro 8:34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

Pro 8:35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favor of Yehowah.

Pro 8:36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

Pro 9:1 Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

Pro 9:2 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

Pro 9:3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

Pro 9:4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

Pro 9:5 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

Pro 9:6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

Pro 9:7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

Pro 9:8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

Pro 9:9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

Pro 9:10 The fear of Yehowah is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

Pro 9:11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

Pro 9:12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

Pro 9:13 A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

Pro 9:14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

Pro 9:15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

Pro 9:16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

Pro 9:17 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

Pro 9:18 But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

Pro 10:1 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

Pro 10:2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

Pro 10:3 Yehowah will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

Pro 10:4 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

Pro 10:5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

Pro 10:6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

Pro 10:7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

Pro 10:8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a blabbering fool shall fall.

Pro 10:9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

Pro 10:10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a blabbering fool shall fall.

Pro 10:11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

Pro 10:12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.

Pro 10:13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

Pro 10:14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

Pro 10:15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

Pro 10:16 The labor of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

Pro 10:17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

Pro 10:18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

Pro 10:19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

Pro 10:20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

Pro 10:21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

Pro 10:22 The blessing of Yehowah, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

Pro 10:23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

Pro 10:24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

Pro 10:25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

Pro 10:26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

Pro 10:27 The fear of Yehowah prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

Pro 10:28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

Pro 10:29 The way of Yehowah is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

Pro 10:30 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

Pro 10:31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the willful tongue shall be cut out.

Pro 10:32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh willfulness.

Pro 11:1 A false balance is an abomination to Yehowah: but a just weight is his delight.

Pro 11:2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

Pro 11:3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

Pro 11:4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death.

Pro 11:5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

Pro 11:6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

Pro 11:7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

Pro 11:8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

Pro 11:9 A hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbor: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

Pro 11:10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

Pro 11:11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

Pro 11:12 He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbor: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

Pro 11:13 A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

Pro 11:14 Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counselors there is safety.

Pro 11:15 He that is surety for a profane person shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure.

Pro 11:16 A gracious woman retaineth honor: and strong men retain riches.

Pro 11:17 The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

Pro 11:18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

Pro 11:19 As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

Pro 11:20 They that are of a willful heart are an abomination to Yehowah: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

Pro 11:21 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

Pro 11:22 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

Pro 11:23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

Pro 11:24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

Pro 11:25 The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

Pro 11:26 He that withholdeth grain, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

Pro 11:27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favor: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

Pro 11:28 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

Pro 11:29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

Pro 11:30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

Pro 11:31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

Pro 12:1 Whoso loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

Pro 12:2 A good man obtaineth favor of Yehowah: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

Pro 12:3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

Pro 12:4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

Pro 12:5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

Pro 12:6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

Pro 12:7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

Pro 12:8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

Pro 12:9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoreth himself, and lacketh bread.

Pro 12:10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

Pro 12:11 He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

Pro 12:12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

Pro 12:13 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

Pro 12:14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompense of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

Pro 12:15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

Pro 12:16 A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.

Pro 12:17 He that speaketh truth showeth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

Pro 12:18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

Pro 12:19 The lip of truth shall be established forever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

Pro 12:20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counselors of peace is joy.

Pro 12:21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

Pro 12:22 Lying lips are an abomination to Yehowah: but they that deal truly are his delight.

Pro 12:23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

Pro 12:24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.

Pro 12:25 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.

Pro 12:26 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbor: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

Pro 12:27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

Pro 12:28 In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

Pro 13:1 A wise son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

Pro 13:2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

Pro 13:3 He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

Pro 13:4 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

Pro 13:5 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

Pro 13:6 Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

Pro 13:7 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

Pro 13:8 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

Pro 13:9 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

Pro 13:10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

Pro 13:11 Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labor shall increase.

Pro 13:12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

Pro 13:13 Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

Pro 13:14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

Pro 13:15 Good understanding giveth favor: but the way of transgressors is hard.

Pro 13:16 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

Pro 13:17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

Pro 13:18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honored.

Pro 13:19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is an abomination to fools to depart from evil.

Pro 13:20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

Pro 13:21 Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repaid.

Pro 13:22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

Pro 13:23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment.

Pro 13:24 He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

Pro 13:25 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

Pro 14:1 Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

Pro 14:2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth Yehowah: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

Pro 14:3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

Pro 14:4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

Pro 14:5 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

Pro 14:6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

Pro 14:7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

Pro 14:8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

Pro 14:9 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favor.

Pro 14:10 The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a foreigner doth not intermeddle with his joy.

Pro 14:11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

Pro 14:12 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

Pro 14:13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

Pro 14:14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

Pro 14:15 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

Pro 14:16 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.

Pro 14:17 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

Pro 14:18 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

Pro 14:19 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

Pro 14:20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbor: but the rich hath many friends.

Pro 14:21 He that despiseth his neighbor sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

Pro 14:22 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

Pro 14:23 In all labor there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to poverty.

Pro 14:24 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

Pro 14:25 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

Pro 14:26 In the fear of Yehowah is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge.

Pro 14:27 The fear of Yehowah is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

Pro 14:28 In the multitude of people is the king's honor: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

Pro 14:29 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

Pro 14:30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones.

Pro 14:31 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoreth him hath mercy on the poor.

Pro 14:32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death.

Pro 14:33 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

Pro 14:34 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

Pro 14:35 The king's favor is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

Pro 15:1 A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

Pro 15:2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

Pro 15:3 The eyes of Yehowah are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

Pro 15:4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

Pro 15:5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

Pro 15:6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

Pro 15:7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

Pro 15:8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to Yehowah: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

Pro 15:9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto Yehowah: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

Pro 15:10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

Pro 15:11 Hell and destruction are before Yehowah: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

Pro 15:12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

Pro 15:13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

Pro 15:14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

Pro 15:15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

Pro 15:16 Better is little with the fear of Yehowah than great treasure and trouble therewith.

Pro 15:17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

Pro 15:18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

Pro 15:19 The way of the slothful man is as a hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

Pro 15:20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

Pro 15:21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

Pro 15:22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counselors they are established.

Pro 15:23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

Pro 15:24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

Pro 15:25 Yehowah will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

Pro 15:26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to Yehowah: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

Pro 15:27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

Pro 15:28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

Pro 15:29 Yehowah is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

Pro 15:30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

Pro 15:31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

Pro 15:32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

Pro 15:33 The fear of Yehowah is the instruction of wisdom; and before honor is humility.

Pro 16:1 The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from Yehowah.

Pro 16:2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but Yehowah weigheth the spirits.

Pro 16:3 Commit thy works unto Yehowah, and thy thoughts shall be established.

Pro 16:4 Yehowah hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

Pro 16:5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to Yehowah: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

Pro 16:6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of Yehowah men depart from evil.

Pro 16:7 When a man's ways please Yehowah, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

Pro 16:8 Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

Pro 16:9 A man's heart deviseth his way: but Yehowah directeth his steps.

Pro 16:10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

Pro 16:11 A just weight and balance are Yehowah's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

Pro 16:12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

Pro 16:13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

Pro 16:14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

Pro 16:15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favor is as a cloud of the latter rain.

Pro 16:16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

Pro 16:17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

Pro 16:18 Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

Pro 16:19 Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

Pro 16:20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusteth in Yehowah, happy is he.

Pro 16:21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

Pro 16:22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

Pro 16:23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

Pro 16:24 Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

Pro 16:25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

Pro 16:26 He that laboreth laboreth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

Pro 16:27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

Pro 16:28 A willful man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

Pro 16:29 A violent man enticeth his neighbor, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

Pro 16:30 He shutteth his eyes to devise willful things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

Pro 16:31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

Pro 16:32 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

Pro 16:33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of Yehowah.

Pro 17:1 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife.

Pro 17:2 A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

Pro 17:3 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but Yehowah trieth the hearts.

Pro 17:4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

Pro 17:5 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

Pro 17:6 Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

Pro 17:7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

Pro 17:8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

Pro 17:9 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

Pro 17:10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than a hundred stripes into a fool.

Pro 17:11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

Pro 17:12 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

Pro 17:13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

Pro 17:14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

Pro 17:15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are an abomination to Yehowah.

Pro 17:16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

Pro 17:17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

Pro 17:18 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

Pro 17:19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

Pro 17:20 He that hath a willful heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

Pro 17:21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

Pro 17:22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

Pro 17:23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

Pro 17:24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

Pro 17:25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bear him.

Pro 17:26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

Pro 17:27 He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

Pro 17:28 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

Pro 18:1 Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

Pro 18:2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

Pro 18:3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with disgraceful reproach.

Pro 18:4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

Pro 18:5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

Pro 18:6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

Pro 18:7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

Pro 18:8 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

Pro 18:9 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

Pro 18:10 The name of Yehowah is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

Pro 18:11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own conceit.

Pro 18:12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honor is humility.

Pro 18:13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

Pro 18:14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

Pro 18:15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

Pro 18:16 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

Pro 18:17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbor cometh and searcheth him.

Pro 18:18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

Pro 18:19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a fortress.

Pro 18:20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

Pro 18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

Pro 18:22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favor of Yehowah.

Pro 18:23 The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

Pro 18:24 A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

Pro 19:1 Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

Pro 19:2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

Pro 19:3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against Yehowah.

Pro 19:4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor.

Pro 19:5 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

Pro 19:6 Many will entreat the favor of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

Pro 19:7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

Pro 19:8 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

Pro 19:9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

Pro 19:10 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

Pro 19:11 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

Pro 19:12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favor is as dew upon the grass.

Pro 19:13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping.

Pro 19:14 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from Yehowah.

Pro 19:15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

Pro 19:16 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

Pro 19:17 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto Yehowah; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

Pro 19:18 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

Pro 19:19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

Pro 19:20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

Pro 19:21 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of Yehowah, that shall stand.

Pro 19:22 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

Pro 19:23 The fear of Yehowah tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

Pro 19:24 A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

Pro 19:25 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

Pro 19:26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

Pro 19:27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

Pro 19:28 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

Pro 19:29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

Pro 20:1 Wine is a mocker, beer is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

Pro 20:2 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

Pro 20:3 It is an honor for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

Pro 20:4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

Pro 20:5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

Pro 20:6 Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

Pro 20:7 The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

Pro 20:8 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

Pro 20:9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

Pro 20:10 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to Yehowah.

Pro 20:11 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

Pro 20:12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, Yehowah hath made even both of them.

Pro 20:13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

Pro 20:14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

Pro 20:15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

Pro 20:16 Take his garment that is surety for a foreigner: and take a pledge of him for an adulterous woman.

Pro 20:17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

Pro 20:18 Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war.

Pro 20:19 He that goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

Pro 20:20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

Pro 20:21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

Pro 20:22 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on Yehowah, and he shall save thee.

Pro 20:23 Divers weights are an abomination unto Yehowah; and a false balance is not good.

Pro 20:24 Man's goings are of Yehowah; how can a man then understand his own way?

Pro 20:25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make inquiry.

Pro 20:26 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

Pro 20:27 The spirit of man is the candle of Yehowah, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

Pro 20:28 Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.

Pro 20:29 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head.

Pro 20:30 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

Pro 21:1 The king's heart is in the hand of Yehowah, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

Pro 21:2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but Yehowah pondereth the hearts.

Pro 21:3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to Yehowah than sacrifice.

Pro 21:4 A high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

Pro 21:5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

Pro 21:6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

Pro 21:7 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

Pro 21:8 The way of man is willful and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

Pro 21:9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

Pro 21:10 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbor findeth no favor in his eyes.

Pro 21:11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

Pro 21:12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but the Almighty overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

Pro 21:13 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

Pro 21:14 A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

Pro 21:15 It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

Pro 21:16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

Pro 21:17 He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

Pro 21:18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

Pro 21:19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

Pro 21:20 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.

Pro 21:21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honor.

Pro 21:22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

Pro 21:23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

Pro 21:24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

Pro 21:25 The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labor.

Pro 21:26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not.

Pro 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

Pro 21:28 A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

Pro 21:29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

Pro 21:30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against Yehowah.

Pro 21:31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of Yehowah.

Pro 22:1 A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold.

Pro 22:2 The rich and poor meet together: Yehowah is the maker of them all.

Pro 22:3 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

Pro 22:4 By humility and the fear of Yehowah are riches, and honor, and life.

Pro 22:5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the willful: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

Pro 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Pro 22:7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

Pro 22:8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail.

Pro 22:9 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

Pro 22:10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

Pro 22:11 He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

Pro 22:12 The eyes of Yehowah preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor.

Pro 22:13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

Pro 22:14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of Yehowah shall fall therein.

Pro 22:15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

Pro 22:16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

Pro 22:17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

Pro 22:18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

Pro 22:19 That thy trust may be in Yehowah, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

Pro 22:20 Have not I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge,

Pro 22:21 That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

Pro 22:22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

Pro 22:23 For Yehowah will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

Pro 22:24 Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go:

Pro 22:25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

Pro 22:26 Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

Pro 22:27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

Pro 22:28 Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.

Pro 22:29 Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before obscure men.

Pro 23:1 When thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:

Pro 23:2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

Pro 23:3 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.

Pro 23:4 labor not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom.

Pro 23:5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

Pro 23:6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

Pro 23:7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

Pro 23:8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

Pro 23:9 Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

Pro 23:10 Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

Pro 23:11 For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

Pro 23:12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

Pro 23:13 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

Pro 23:14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

Pro 23:15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

Pro 23:16 Yea, my inner being shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

Pro 23:17 Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of Yehowah all the day long.

Pro 23:18 For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

Pro 23:19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

Pro 23:20 Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

Pro 23:21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

Pro 23:22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

Pro 23:23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

Pro 23:24 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

Pro 23:25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bear thee shall rejoice.

Pro 23:26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

Pro 23:27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and an adulterous woman is a narrow pit.

Pro 23:28 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

Pro 23:29 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

Pro 23:30 They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

Pro 23:31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his color in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

Pro 23:32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like a viper.

Pro 23:33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

Pro 23:34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

Pro 23:35 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

Pro 24:1 Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

Pro 24:2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

Pro 24:3 Through wisdom is a house builded; and by understanding it is established:

Pro 24:4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

Pro 24:5 A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

Pro 24:6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counselors there is safety.

Pro 24:7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

Pro 24:8 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

Pro 24:9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

Pro 24:10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.

Pro 24:11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

Pro 24:12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

Pro 24:13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste:

Pro 24:14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

Pro 24:15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

Pro 24:16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

Pro 24:17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

Pro 24:18 Lest Yehowah see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

Pro 24:19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

Pro 24:20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

Pro 24:21 My son, fear thou Yehowah and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change:

Pro 24:22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

Pro 24:23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

Pro 24:24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

Pro 24:25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

Pro 24:26 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

Pro 24:27 Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

Pro 24:28 Be not a witness against thy neighbor without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

Pro 24:29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.

Pro 24:30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

Pro 24:31 and lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

Pro 24:32 Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

Pro 24:33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

Pro 24:34 So shall thy poverty come as one that traveleth; and thy want as an armed man.

Pro 25:1 These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

Pro 25:2 It is the glory of the Almighty to conceal a thing: but the honor of kings is to search out a matter.

Pro 25:3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

Pro 25:4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the refiner.

Pro 25:5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

Pro 25:6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

Pro 25:7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

Pro 25:8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbor hath put thee to shame.

Pro 25:9 Debate thy cause with thy neighbor himself; and discover not a secret to another:

Pro 25:10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

Pro 25:11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

Pro 25:12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

Pro 25:13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

Pro 25:14 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

Pro 25:15 By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

Pro 25:16 Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

Pro 25:17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbor's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

Pro 25:18 A man that beareth false witness against his neighbor is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

Pro 25:19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

Pro 25:20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon soda, so is he that singeth songs to a heavy heart.

Pro 25:21 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

Pro 25:22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and Yehowah shall reward thee.

Pro 25:23 The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

Pro 25:24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

Pro 25:25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

Pro 25:26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

Pro 25:27 It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

Pro 25:28 He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

Pro 26:1 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not seemly for a fool.

Pro 26:2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.

Pro 26:3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the fool's back.

Pro 26:4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

Pro 26:5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

Pro 26:6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

Pro 26:7 The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

Pro 26:8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honor to a fool.

Pro 26:9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

Pro 26:10 The great Almighty that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

Pro 26:11 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

Pro 26:12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

Pro 26:13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

Pro 26:14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

Pro 26:15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

Pro 26:16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

Pro 26:17 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

Pro 26:18 As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death,

Pro 26:19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbor, and saith, Am not I in sport?

Pro 26:20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.

Pro 26:21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

Pro 26:22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

Pro 26:23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

Pro 26:24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

Pro 26:25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

Pro 26:26 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be showed before the whole congregation.

Pro 26:27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

Pro 26:28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

Pro 27:1 Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

Pro 27:2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

Pro 27:3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

Pro 27:4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?

Pro 27:5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.

Pro 27:6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

Pro 27:7 The full soul loatheth a honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

Pro 27:8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

Pro 27:9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

Pro 27:10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbor that is near than a brother far off.

Pro 27:11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

Pro 27:12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

Pro 27:13 Take his garment that is surety for a foreigner, and take a pledge of him for an adulterous woman.

Pro 27:14 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

Pro 27:15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

Pro 27:16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which revealeth itself.

Pro 27:17 Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

Pro 27:18 Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honored.

Pro 27:19 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

Pro 27:20 Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

Pro 27:21 As the refining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.

Pro 27:22 Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

Pro 27:23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.

Pro 27:24 For riches are not forever: and doth the crown endure to every generation?

Pro 27:25 The hay appeareth, and the tender grass showeth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

Pro 27:26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

Pro 27:27 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.

Pro 28:1 The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

Pro 28:2 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

Pro 28:3 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.

Pro 28:4 They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.

Pro 28:5 Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek Yehowah understand all things.

Pro 28:6 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

Pro 28:7 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

Pro 28:8 He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

Pro 28:9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be an abomination.

Pro 28:10 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

Pro 28:11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

Pro 28:12 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

Pro 28:13 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

Pro 28:14 Happy is the man that feareth always: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

Pro 28:15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

Pro 28:16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

Pro 28:17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man sustain him.

Pro 28:18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

Pro 28:19 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

Pro 28:20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

Pro 28:21 To have respect of persons is not good: for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

Pro 28:22 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

Pro 28:23 He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favor than he that flattereth with the tongue.

Pro 28:24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

Pro 28:25 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in Yehowah shall be made fat.

Pro 28:26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

Pro 28:27 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

Pro 28:28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Pro 29:1 He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

Pro 29:2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

Pro 29:3 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

Pro 29:4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

Pro 29:5 A man that flattereth his neighbor spreadeth a net for his feet.

Pro 29:6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

Pro 29:7 The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

Pro 29:8 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

Pro 29:9 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

Pro 29:10 The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

Pro 29:11 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

Pro 29:12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

Pro 29:13 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: Yehowah lighteneth both their eyes.

Pro 29:14 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established forever.

Pro 29:15 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

Pro 29:16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

Pro 29:17 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

Pro 29:18 Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

Pro 29:19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

Pro 29:20 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

Pro 29:21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

Pro 29:22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

Pro 29:23 A man's pride shall bring him low: but honor shall uphold the humble in spirit.

Pro 29:24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and revealeth it not.

Pro 29:25 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in Yehowah shall be safe.

Pro 29:26 Many seek the ruler's favor; but every man's judgment cometh from Yehowah.

Pro 29:27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

Pro 30:1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spoke unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal, Pro 30:2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

Pro 30:3 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

Pro 30:4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

Pro 30:5 Every word of the Almighty is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Pro 30:6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

Pro 30:7 Two things have I required of thee; deny me them not before I die:

Pro 30:8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me:

Pro 30:9 Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is Yehowah? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my Divine One in vain.

Pro 30:10 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

Pro 30:11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

Pro 30:12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

Pro 30:13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

Pro 30:14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

Pro 30:15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

Pro 30:16 The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

Pro 30:17 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

Pro 30:18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

Pro 30:19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

Pro 30:20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

Pro 30:21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

Pro 30:22 For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

Pro 30:23 For an odious woman when she is married; and a handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

Pro 30:24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

Pro 30:25 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

Pro 30:26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

Pro 30:27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;

Pro 30:28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

Pro 30:29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

Pro 30:30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

Pro 30:31 A greyhound; a he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

Pro 30:32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

Pro 30:33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

Pro 31:1 The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

Pro 31:2 What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

Pro 31:3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.

Pro 31:4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes beer:

Pro 31:5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

Pro 31:6 Give beer unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.

Pro 31:7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

Pro 31:8 Open thy mouth for the mute in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

Pro 31:9 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Pro 31:10 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

Pro 31:11 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

Pro 31:12 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

Pro 31:13 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

Pro 31:14 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

Pro 31:15 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

Pro 31:16 She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

Pro 31:17 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

Pro 31:18 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

Pro 31:19 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

Pro 31:20 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

Pro 31:21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

Pro 31:22 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

Pro 31:23 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

Pro 31:24 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

Pro 31:25 Strength and honor are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

Pro 31:26 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

Pro 31:27 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

Pro 31:28 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

Pro 31:29 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

Pro 31:30 Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth Yehowah, she shall be praised.

Pro 31:31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Book of Ecclesiastes

Ecc 1:1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Ecc 1:2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

Ecc 1:3 What profit hath a man of all his labor which he taketh under the sun?

Ecc 1:4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth forever.

Ecc 1:5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose.

Ecc 1:6 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

Ecc 1:7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

Ecc 1:8 All things are full of labor; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

Ecc 1:9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

Ecc 1:10 Is there anything whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

Ecc 1:11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

Ecc 1:12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

Ecc 1:13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath the Almighty given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

Ecc 1:14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Ecc 1:15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

Ecc 1:16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

Ecc 1:17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

Ecc 1:18 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

Ecc 2:1 I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and behold, this also is vanity.

Ecc 2:2 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

Ecc 2:3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

Ecc 2:4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

Ecc 2:5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

Ecc 2:6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

Ecc 2:7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small flocks above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

Ecc 2:8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I got me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, wives and concubines, and that of all sorts.

Ecc 2:9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

Ecc 2:10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labor: and this was my portion of all my labor.

Ecc 2:11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do: and behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

Ecc 2:12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.

Ecc 2:13 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

Ecc 2:14 The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

Ecc 2:15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

Ecc 2:16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool forever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

Ecc 2:17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Ecc 2:18 Yea, I hated all my labor which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

Ecc 2:19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labor wherein I have labored, and wherein I have showed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

Ecc 2:20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labor which I took under the sun.

Ecc 2:21 For there is a man whose labor is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not labored therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

Ecc 2:22 For what hath man of all his labor, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath labored under the sun?

Ecc 2:23 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

Ecc 2:24 There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of the Almighty.

Ecc 2:25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I?

Ecc 2:26 For the Almighty giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before the Almighty. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Ecc 3:1 To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

Ecc 3:2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

Ecc 3:3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

Ecc 3:4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

Ecc 3:5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

Ecc 3:6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

Ecc 3:7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

Ecc 3:8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecc 3:9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboreth?

Ecc 3:10 I have seen the travail, which the Almighty hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

Ecc 3:11 He hath made everything beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that the Almighty maketh from the beginning to the end.

Ecc 3:12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

Ecc 3:13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of the Almighty.

Ecc 3:14 I know that, whatsoever the Almighty doeth, it shall be forever: nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it: and the Almighty doeth it, that men should fear before him.

Ecc 3:15 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and the Almighty requireth that which is past.

Ecc 3:16 And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

Ecc 3:17 I said in mine heart, the Almighty shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.

Ecc 3:18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that the Almighty might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

Ecc 3:19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

Ecc 3:20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

Ecc 3:21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

Ecc 3:22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

Ecc 4:1 So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

Ecc 4:2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

Ecc 4:3 Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

Ecc 4:4 Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbor. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

Ecc 4:5 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

Ecc 4:6 Better is a handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

Ecc 4:7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

Ecc 4:8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labor; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labor, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

Ecc 4:9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor.

Ecc 4:10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

Ecc 4:11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

Ecc 4:12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Ecc 4:13 Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

Ecc 4:14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

Ecc 4:15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

Ecc 4:16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Ecc 5:1 Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of the Almighty, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

Ecc 5:2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter anything before the Almighty: for the Almighty is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

Ecc 5:3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

Ecc 5:4 When thou vowest a vow unto the Almighty, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

Ecc 5:5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

Ecc 5:6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should the Almighty be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

Ecc 5:7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou the Almighty.

Ecc 5:8 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

Ecc 5:9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

Ecc 5:10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

Ecc 5:11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

Ecc 5:12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

Ecc 5:13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

Ecc 5:14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

Ecc 5:15 As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labor, which he may carry away in his hand.

Ecc 5:16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath labored for the wind?

Ecc 5:17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

Ecc 5:18 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which the Almighty giveth him: for it is his portion.

Ecc 5:19 Every man also to whom the Almighty hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor; this is the gift of the Almighty.

Ecc 5:20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because the Almighty answereth him in the joy of his heart.

Ecc 6:1 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

Ecc 6:2 A man to whom the Almighty hath given riches, wealth, and honor, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet the Almighty giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a foreigner eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

Ecc 6:3 If a man beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

Ecc 6:4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

Ecc 6:5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known anything: this hath more rest than the other.

Ecc 6:6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

Ecc 6:7 All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

Ecc 6:8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

Ecc 6:9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

Ecc 6:10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

Ecc 6:11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

Ecc 6:12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

Ecc 7:1 A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

Ecc 7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

Ecc 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

Ecc 7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

Ecc 7:5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

Ecc 7:6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

Ecc 7:7 Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

Ecc 7:8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

Ecc 7:9 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

Ecc 7:10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

Ecc 7:11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

Ecc 7:12 For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

Ecc 7:13 Consider the work of the Almighty: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

Ecc 7:14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: the Almighty also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

Ecc 7:15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

Ecc 7:16 Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

Ecc 7:17 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?

Ecc 7:18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth the Almighty shall come forth of them all.

Ecc 7:19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

Ecc 7:20 For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

Ecc 7:21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

Ecc 7:22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

Ecc 7:23 All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

Ecc 7:24 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

Ecc 7:25 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

Ecc 7:26 And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth the Almighty shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

Ecc 7:27 Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account:

Ecc 7:28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

Ecc 7:29 Lo, this only have I found, that the Almighty hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

Ecc 8:1 Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

Ecc 8:2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of the Almighty.

Ecc 8:3 Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

Ecc 8:4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

Ecc 8:5 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

Ecc 8:6 Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

Ecc 8:7 For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

Ecc 8:8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

Ecc 8:9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

Ecc 8:10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

Ecc 8:11 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

Ecc 8:12 Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear the Almighty, which fear before him:

Ecc 8:13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before the Almighty.

Ecc 8:14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

Ecc 8:15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labor the days of his life, which the Almighty giveth him under the sun.

Ecc 8:16 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:

Ecc 8:17 Then I beheld all the work of the Almighty, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labor to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

Ecc 9:1 For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of the Almighty: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

Ecc 9:2 All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

Ecc 9:3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

Ecc 9:4 For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Ecc 9:5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

Ecc 9:6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

Ecc 9:7 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for the Almighty now accepteth thy works.

Ecc 9:8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

Ecc 9:9 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labor which thou takest under the sun.

Ecc 9:10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

Ecc 9:11 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

Ecc 9:12 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

Ecc 9:13 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

Ecc 9:14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

Ecc 9:15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

Ecc 9:16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

Ecc 9:17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

Ecc 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

Ecc 10:1 Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savor: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honor.

Ecc 10:2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

Ecc 10:3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

Ecc 10:4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offenses.

Ecc 10:5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler:

Ecc 10:6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

Ecc 10:7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

Ecc 10:8 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

Ecc 10:9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

Ecc 10:10 If the iron be blunt, and he does not sharpen the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

Ecc 10:11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

Ecc 10:12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

Ecc 10:13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

Ecc 10:14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

Ecc 10:15 The labor of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

Ecc 10:16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

Ecc 10:17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

Ecc 10:18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

Ecc 10:19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

Ecc 10:20 Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

Ecc 11:1 Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

Ecc 11:2 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

Ecc 11:3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

Ecc 11:4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

Ecc 11:5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the Ruach, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of the Almighty who maketh all.

Ecc 11:6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

Ecc 11:7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

Ecc 11:8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

Ecc 11:9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things the Almighty will bring thee into judgment.

Ecc 11:10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

Ecc 12:1 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

Ecc 12:2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

Ecc 12:3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

Ecc 12:4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

Ecc 12:5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

Ecc 12:6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

Ecc 12:7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto the Almighty who gave it.

Ecc 12:8 Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.

Ecc 12:9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

Ecc 12:10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

Ecc 12:11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

Ecc 12:12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

Ecc 12:13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear the Almighty, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

Ecc 12:14 For the Almighty shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

Book of Song of Solomon

Son 1:1 The song of songs, which is Solomon's.

Son 1:2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

Son 1:3 Because of the savor of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

Son 1:4 Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

Son 1:5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

Son 1:6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

Son 1:7 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

Son 1:8 If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

Son 1:9 I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

Son 1:10 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

Son 1:11 We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.

Son 1:12 While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

Son 1:13 A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

Son 1:14 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi.

Son 1:15 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

Son 1:16 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

Son 1:17 The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

Son 2:1 I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

Son 2:2 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

Son 2:3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

Son 2:4 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

Son 2:5 Stay me with raisin cakes, comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love.

Son 2:6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

Son 2:7 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

Son 2:8 The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

Son 2:9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, showing himself through the lattice.

Son 2:10 My beloved spoke, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Son 2:11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

Son 2:12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land;

Son 2:13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Son 2:14 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

Son 2:15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

Son 2:16 My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

Son 2:17 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a gazelle or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether.

Son 3:1 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

Son 3:2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

Son 3:3 The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

Son 3:4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

Son 3:5 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

Son 3:6 Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

Son 3:7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

Son 3:8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

Son 3:9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

Son 3:10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

Son 3:11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Son 4:1 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead.

Son 4:2 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

Son 4:3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

Son 4:4 Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armory, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

Son 4:5 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

Son 4:6 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

Son 4:7 Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

Son 4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

Son 4:9 Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

Son 4:10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

Son 4:11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

Son 4:12 A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

Son 4:13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard,

Son 4:14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

Son 4:15 A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

Son 4:16 Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

Son 5:1 I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

Son 5:2 I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

Son 5:3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

Son 5:4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my affections were moved for him.

Son 5:5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

Son 5:6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spoke: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

Son 5:7 The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

Son 5:8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

Son 5:9 What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

Son 5:10 My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

Son 5:11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

Son 5:12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

Son 5:13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

Son 5:14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

Son 5:15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

Son 5:16 His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Son 6:1 Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

Son 6:2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

Son 6:3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

Son 6:4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

Son 6:5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

Son 6:6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

Son 6:7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

Son 6:8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

Son 6:9 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bear her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

Son 6:10 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

Son 6:11 I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates budded.

Son 6:12 Or ever I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of Amminadib.

Son 6:13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

Son 7:1 How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

Son 7:2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not mixed wine: thy belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies.

Son 7:3 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

Son 7:4 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

Son 7:5 Thine head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is held in the galleries.

Son 7:6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

Son 7:7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

Son 7:8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

Son 7:9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.

Son 7:10 I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

Son 7:11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

Son 7:12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

Son 7:13 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

Son 8:1 O that thou were as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

Son 8:2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

Son 8:3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

Son 8:4 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

Son 8:5 Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bear thee.

Son 8:6 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

Son 8:7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be despised.

Son 8:8 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

Son 8:9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Son 8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favor.

Son 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

Son 8:12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

Son 8:13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

Son 8:14 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a gazelle or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

Book of Wisdom of Solomon

Wis 1:1 Love righteousness, ye that be judges of the earth: think of Yehowah with a good (heart), and in simplicity of heart seek him.

Wis 1:2 For he will be found of them that tempt him not; and sheweth himself unto such as do not distrust him.

Wis 1:3 For froward thoughts separate from Yehowah: and his power, when it is tried, reproveth the unwise.

Wis 1:4 For into a malicious soul wisdom shall not enter; nor dwell in the body that is subject unto sin.

Wis 1:5 For Ruach Ha'Kodesh of discipline will flee deceit, and remove from thoughts that are without understanding, and will not abide when unrighteousness cometh in.

Wis 1:6 For wisdom is a loving spirit; and will not acquit a blasphemer of his words: for Yehowah is witness of his reins, and a true beholder of his heart, and a hearer of his tongue.

Wis 1:7 For the Ruach of Yehowah filleth the world: and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice.

Wis 1:8 Therefore he that speaketh unrighteous things cannot be hid: neither shall vengeance, when it punisheth, pass by him.

Wis 1:9 For inquisition shall be made into the counsels of the irreverent: and the sound of his words shall come unto Yehowah for the manifestation of his wicked deeds.

Wis 1:10 For the ear of jealousy heareth all things: and the noise of murmurings is not hid.

Wis 1:11 Therefore beware of murmuring, which is unprofitable; and refrain your tongue from backbiting: for there is no word so secret, that shall go for naught: and the mouth that belieth slayeth the soul.

Wis 1:12 Seek not death in the error of your life: and pull not upon yourselves destruction with the works of your hands.

Wis 1:13 For Yehowah made not death: neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the living.

Wis 1:14 For he created all things, that they might have their being: and the generations of the world were healthful; and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor the kingdom of death upon the earth:

Wis 1:15 For righteousness is immortal:

Wis 1:16 But irreverent men with their works and words called it to them: for when they thought to have it their friend, they consumed to naught, and made a covenant with it, because they are worthy to take part with it.

Wis 2:1 For the irreverent said, reasoning with themselves, but not aright, Our life is short and tedious, and in the death of a man there is no remedy: neither was there any man known to have returned from the grave.

Wis 2:2 For we are born at all adventure: and we shall be hereafter as though we had never been: for the breath in our nostrils is as smoke, and a little spark in the moving of our heart:

Wis 2:3 Which being extinguished, our body shall be turned into ashes, and our spirit shall vanish as the soft air,

Wis 2:4 And our name shall be forgotten in time, and no man shall have our works in remembrance, and our life shall pass away as the trace of a cloud, and shall be dispersed as a mist, that is driven away with the beams of the sun, and overcome with the heat thereof.

Wis 2:5 For our time is a very shadow that passeth away; and after our end there is no returning: for it is fast sealed, so that no man cometh again.

Wis 2:6 Come on therefore, let us enjoy the good things that are present: and let us speedily use the creatures like as in youth.

Wis 2:7 Let us fill ourselves with costly wine and ointments: and let no flower of the spring pass by us:

Wis 2:8 Let us crown ourselves with rosebuds, before they be withered:

Wis 2:9 Let none of us go without his part of our voluptuousness: let us leave tokens of our joyfulness in every place: for this is our portion, and our lot is this.

Wis 2:10 Let us oppress the poor righteous man, let us not spare the widow, nor reverence the ancient gray hairs of the aged.

Wis 2:11 Let our strength be the law of justice: for that which is feeble is found to be nothing worth.

Wis 2:12 Therefore let us lie in wait for the righteous; because he is not for our turn, and he is clean contrary to our doings: he upbraideth us with our offending the law, and objecteth to our infamy the transgressings of our education.

Wis 2:13 He professeth to have the knowledge of Yehowah: and he calleth himself the child of Yehowah.

Wis 2:14 He was made to reprove our thoughts.

Wis 2:15 He is grievous unto us even to behold: for his life is not like other men's, his ways are of another fashion.

Wis 2:16 We are esteemed of him as counterfeits: he abstaineth from our ways as from filthiness: he pronounceth the end of the just to be blessed, and maketh his boast that Yehowah is his father.

Wis 2:17 Let us see if his words be true: and let us prove what shall happen in the end of him.

Wis 2:18 For if the just man be the son of Yehowah, he will help him, and deliver him from the hand of his enemies.

Wis 2:19 Let us examine him with despitefulness and torture, that we may know his meekness, and prove his patience.

Wis 2:20 Let us condemn him with a shameful death: for by his own saying he shall be respected.

Wis 2:21 Such things they did imagine, and were deceived: for their own wickedness hath blinded them.

Wis 2:22 As for the mysteries of Yehowah, they kn ew them not: neither hoped they for the wages of righteousness, nor discerned a reward for blameless souls.

Wis 2:23 For Yehowah created man to be immortal, and made him to be an image of his own eternity.

Wis 2:24 Nevertheless through envy of the devil came death into the world: and they that do hold of his side do find it.

Wis 3:1 But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of Yehowah, and there shall no torment touch them.

Wis 3:2 In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: and their departure is taken for misery,

Wis 3:3 And their going from us to be utter destruction: but they are in peace.

Wis 3:4 For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their hope full of immortality.

Wis 3:5 And having been a little chastized, they shall be greatly rewarded: for Yehowah proved them, and found them worthy for himself.

Wis 3:6 As gold in the furnace hath he tried them, and received them as a burnt offering.

Wis 3:7 And in the time of their visitation they shall shine, and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble.

Wis 3:8 They shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people, and their Lord shall reign forever.

Wis 3:9 They that put their trust in him shall understand the truth: and such as be faithful in love shall abide with him: for grace and mercy is to his saints, and he hath care for his elect.

Wis 3:10 But the irreverent shall be punished according to their own imaginations, which have neglected the righteous, and forsaken Yehowah.

Wis 3:11 For whoso despiseth wisdom and nurture, he is miserable, and their hope is vain, their labors unfruitful, and their works unprofitable:

Wis 3:12 Their wives are foolish, and their children wicked:

Wis 3:13 Their offspring is cursed. Wherefore blessed is the barren that is undefiled, which hath not known the sinful bed: she shall have fruit in the visitation of souls.

Wis 3:14 And blessed is the eunuch, which with his hands hath wrought no iniquity, nor imagined wicked things against Yehowah: for unto him shall be given the special gift of faith, and an inheritance in the temple of Yehowah more acceptable to his mind.

Wis 3:15 For glorious is the fruit of good labors: and the root of wisdom shall never fall away.

Wis 3:16 As for the children of adulterers, they shall not come to their perfection, and the seed of an unrighteous bed shall be rooted out.

Wis 3:17 For though they live long, yet shall they be nothing regarded: and their last age shall be without honor.

Wis 3:18 Or, if they die quickly, they have no hope, neither comfort in the day of trial.

Wis 3:19 For horrible is the end of the unrighteous generation.

Wis 4:1 Better it is to have no children, and to have virtue: for the memorial thereof is immortal: because it is known with Yehowah, and with men.

Wis 4:2 When it is present, men take example at it; and when it is gone, they desire it: it weareth a crown, and triumpheth forever, having gotten the victory, striving for undefiled rewards.

Wis 4:3 But the multiplying brood of the irreverent shall not thrive, nor take deep rooting from bastard slips, nor lay any fast foundation.

Wis 4:4 For though they flourish in branches for a time; yet standing not last, they shall be shaken with the wind, and through the force of winds they shall be rooted out.

Wis 4:5 The imperfect branches shall be broken off, their fruit unprofitable, not ripe to eat, yea, meet for nothing.

Wis 4:6 For children begotten of unlawful beds are witnesses of wickedness against their parents in their trial.

Wis 4:7 But though the righteous be prevented with death, yet shall he be in rest.

Wis 4:8 For honorable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of years.

Wis 4:9 But wisdom is the gray hair unto men, and an unspotted life is old age.

Wis 4:10 He pleased Yehowah, and was beloved of him: so that living among sinners he was translated.

Wis 4:11 Yea speedily was he taken away, lest that wickedness should alter his understanding, or deceit beguile his soul.

Wis 4:12 For the bewitching of naughtiness doth obscure things that are honest; and the wandering of concupiscence doth undermine the simple mind.

Wis 4:13 He, being made perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time:

Wis 4:14 For his soul pleased Yehowah: therefore hasted he to take him away from among the wicked.

Wis 4:15 This the people saw, and understood it not, neither laid they up this in their minds, That his grace and mercy is with his saints, and that he hath respect unto his chosen.

Wis 4:16 Thus the righteous that is dead shall condemn the irreverent which are living; and youth that is soon perfected the many years and old age of the unrighteous.

Wis 4:17 For they shall see the end of the wise, and shall not understand what Yehowah in his counsel hath decreed of him, and to what end Yehowah hath set him in safety.

Wis 4:18 They shall see him, and despise him; but Yehowah shall laugh them to scorn: and they shall hereafter be a vile carcase, and a reproach among the dead forevermore.

Wis 4:19 For he shall rend them, and cast them down headlong, that they shall be speechless; and he shall shake them from the foundation; and they shall be utterly laid waste, and be in sorrow; and their memorial shall perish.

Wis 4:20 And when they cast up the accounts of their sins, they shall come with fear: and their own iniquities shall convince them to their face.

Wis 5:1 Then shall the righteous man stand in great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him, and made no account of his labors.

Wis 5:2 When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his salvation, so far beyond all that they looked for.

Wis 5:3 And they repenting and groaning for anguish of spirit shall say within themselves, This was he, whom we had sometimes in derision, and a proverb of reproach:

Wis 5:4 We fools accounted his life madness, and his end to be without honor:

Wis 5:5 How is he numbered among the children of Yehowah, and his lot is among the saints!

Wis 5:6 Therefore have we erred from the way of truth, and the light of righteousness hath not shined unto us, and the sun of righteousness rose not upon us.

Wis 5:7 We wearied ourselves in the way of wickedness and destruction: yea, we have gone through deserts, where there lay no way: but as for the way of Yehowah, we have not known it.

Wis 5:8 What hath pride profited us? or what good hath riches with our vaunting brought us?

Wis 5:9 All those things are passed away like a shadow, and as a post that hasted by;

Wis 5:10 And as a ship that passeth over the waves of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace thereof cannot be found, neither the pathway of the keel in the waves;

Wis 5:11 Or as when a bird hath flown through the air, there is no token of her way to be found, but the light air being beaten with the stroke of her wings and parted with the violent noise and motion of them, is passed through, and therein afterwards no sign where she went is to be found;

Wis 5:12 Or like as when an arrow is shot at a mark, it parteth the air, which immediately cometh together again, so that a man cannot know where it went through:

Wis 5:13 Even so we in like manner, as soon as we were born, began to draw to our end, and had no sign of virtue to shew; but were consumed in our own wickedness.

Wis 5:14 For the hope of the reverent is like dust that is blown away with the wind; like a thin froth that is driven away with the storm; like as the smoke which is dispersed here and there with a tempest, and passeth away as the remembrance of a guest that tarrieth but a day.

Wis 5:15 But the righteous live forevermore; their reward also is with Yehowah, and the care of them is with the Most High.

Wis 5:16 Therefore shall they receive a glorious kingdom, and a beautiful crown from Yehowah's hand: for with his right hand shall he cover them, and with his arm shall he protect them.

Wis 5:17 He shall take to him his jealousy for complete armor, and make the creature his weapon for the revenge of his enemies.

Wis 5:18 He shall put on righteousness as a breastplate, and true judgment instead of an helmet.

Wis 5:19 He shall take holiness for an invincible shield.

Wis 5:20 His severe wrath shall he sharpen for a sword, and the world shall fight with him against the unwise.

Wis 5:21 Then shall the right aiming thunderbolts go abroad; and from the clouds, as from a well drawn bow, shall they fly to the mark.

Wis 5:22 And hailstones full of wrath shall be cast as out of a stone bow, and the water of the sea shall rage against them, and the floods shall cruelly drown them.

Wis 5:23 Yea, a mighty wind shall stand up against them, and like a storm shall blow them away: thus iniquity shall lay waste the whole earth, and ill dealing shall overthrow the thrones of the mighty.

Wis 6:1 Hear therefore, O ye kings, and understand; learn, ye that be judges of the ends of the earth.

Wis 6:2 Give ear, ye that rule the people, and glory in the multitude of nations.

Wis 6:3 For power is given you of Yehowah, and sovereignty from the Highest, who shall try your works, and search out your counsels.

Wis 6:4 Because, being ministers of his kingdom, ye have not judged aright, nor kept the law, nor walked after the counsel of Yehowah;

Wis 6:5 Horribly and speedily shall he come upon you: for a sharp judgment shall be to them that be in high places.

Wis 6:6 For mercy will soon pardon the meanest: but mighty men shall be mightily tormented.

Wis 6:7 For he which is Lord over all shall fear no man's person, neither shall he stand in awe of any man's greatness: for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike.

Wis 6:8 But a sore trial shall come upon the mighty.

Wis 6:9 Unto you therefore, O kings, do I speak, that ye may learn wisdom, and not fall away.

Wis 6:10 For they that keep holiness holily shall be judged holy: and they that have learned such things shall find what to answer.

Wis 6:11 Wherefore set your affection upon my words; desire them, and ye shall be instructed.

Wis 6:12 Wisdom is glorious, and never fadeth away: yea, she is easily seen of them that love her, and found of such as seek her.

Wis 6:13 She preventeth them that desire her, in making herself first known unto them.

Wis 6:14 Whoso seeketh her early shall have no great travail: for he shall find her sitting at his doors.

Wis 6:15 To think therefore upon her is perfection of wisdom: and whoso watcheth for her shall quickly be without care.

Wis 6:16 For she goeth about seeking such as are worthy of her, sheweth herself favorably unto them in the ways, and meeteth them in every thought.

Wis 6:17 For the very true beginning of her is the desire of discipline; and the care of discipline is love;

Wis 6:18 And love is the keeping of her laws; and the giving heed unto her laws is the assurance of incorruption;

Wis 6:19 And incorruption maketh us near unto Yehowah:

Wis 6:20 Therefore the desire of wisdom bringeth to a kingdom.

Wis 6:21 If your delight be then in thrones and sceptres, O ye kings of the people, honor wisdom, that ye may reign forevermore.

Wis 6:22 As for wisdom, what she is, and how she came up, I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you: but will seek her out from the beginning of her nativity, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not pass over the truth.

Wis 6:23 Neither will I go with consuming envy; for such a man shall have no fellowship with wisdom.

Wis 6:24 But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world: and a wise king is the upholding of the people.

Wis 6:25 Receive therefore instruction through my words, and it shall do you good.

Wis 7:1 I myself also am a mortal man, like to all, and the offspring of him that was first made of the earth,

Wis 7:2 And in my mother's womb was fashioned to be flesh in the time of ten months, being compacted in blood, of the seed of man, and the pleasure that came with sleep.

Wis 7:3 And when I was born, I drew in the common air, and fell upon the earth, which is of like nature, and the first voice which I uttered was crying, as all others do.

Wis 7:4 I was nursed in swaddling clothes, and that with cares.

Wis 7:5 For there is no king that had any other beginning of birth.

Wis 7:6 For all men have one entrance into life, and the like going out.

Wis 7:7 Wherefore I prayed, and understanding was given me: I called upon Yehowah, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.

Wis 7:8 I preferred her before sceptres and thrones, and esteemed riches nothing in comparison of her.

Wis 7:9 Neither compared I unto her any precious stone, because all gold in respect of her is as a little sand, and silver shall be counted as clay before her.

Wis 7:10 I loved her above health and beauty, and chose to have her instead of light: for the light that cometh from her never goeth out.

Wis 7:11 All good things together came to me with her, and innumerable riches in her hands.

Wis 7:12 And I rejoiced in them all, because wisdom goeth before them: and I knew not that she was the mother of them.

Wis 7:13 I learned diligently, and do communicate her liberally: I do not hide her riches.

Wis 7:14 For she is a treasure unto men that never faileth: which they that use become the friends of Yehowah, being commended for the gifts that come from learning.

Wis 7:15 Yehowah hath granted me to speak as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things that are given me: because it is he that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise.

Wis 7:16 For in his hand are both we and our words; all wisdom also, and knowledge of workmanship.

Wis 7:17 For he hath given me certain knowledge of the things that are, namely, to know how the world was made, and the operation of the elements:

Wis 7:18 The beginning, ending, and midst of the times: the alterations of the turning of the sun, and the change of seasons:

Wis 7:19 The circuits of years, and the positions of stars:

Wis 7:20 The natures of living creatures, and the furies of wild beasts: the violence of winds, and the reasonings of men: the diversities of plants and the virtues of roots:

Wis 7:21 And all such things as are either secret or manifest, them I know.

Wis 7:22 For wisdom, which is the worker of all things, taught me: for in her is an understanding spirit holy, one only, manifold, subtle, lively, clear, undefiled, plain, not subject to hurt, loving the thing that is good quick, which cannot be letted, ready to do good,

Wis 7:23 Kind to man, steadfast, sure, free from care, having all power, overseeing all things, and going through all understanding, pure, and most subtle, spirits.

Wis 7:24 For wisdom is more moving than any motion: she passeth and goeth through all things by reason of her pureness.

Wis 7:25 For she is the breath of the power of Yehowah, and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the Almighty: therefore can no defiled thing fall into her.

Wis 7:26 For she is the brightness of the everlasting light, the unspotted mirror of the power of Yehowah, and the image of his goodness.

Wis 7:27 And being but one, she can do all things: and remaining in herself, she maketh all things new: and in all ages entering into holy souls, she maketh them friends of Yehowah, and prophets.

Wis 7:28 For Yehowah loveth none but him that dwelleth with wisdom.

Wis 7:29 For she is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the order of stars: being compared with the light, she is found before it.

Wis 7:30 For after this cometh night: but vice shall not prevail against wisdom.

Wis 8:1 Wisdom reacheth from one end to another mightily: and sweetly doth she order all things.

Wis 8:2 I loved her, and sought her out from my youth, I desired to make her my spouse, and I was a lover of her beauty.

Wis 8:3 In that she is conversant with Yehowah, she magnifieth her nobility: yea, Yehowah of all things himself loved her.

Wis 8:4 For she is privy to the mysteries of the knowledge of Yehowah, and a lover of his works.

Wis 8:5 If riches be a possession to be desired in this life; what is richer than wisdom, that worketh all things?

Wis 8:6 And if prudence work; who of all that are is a more cunning workman than she?

Wis 8:7 And if a man love righteousness her labors are virtues: for she teacheth temperance and prudence, justice and fortitude: which are such things, as en can have nothing more profitable in their life.

Wis 8:8 If a man desire much experience, she knoweth things of old, and conjectureth aright what is to come: she knoweth the subtilties of speeches, and can expound dark sentences: she foreseeth signs and wonders, and the events of seasons and times.

Wis 8:9 Therefore I purposed to take her to me to live with me, knowing that she would be a counselor of good things, and a comfort in cares and grief.

Wis 8:10 For her sake I shall have estimation among the multitude, and honor with the elders, though I be young.

Wis 8:11 I shall be found of a quick conceit in judgment, and shall be admired in the sight of great men.

Wis 8:12 When I hold my tongue, they shall bide my leisure, and when I speak, they shall give good ear unto me: if I talk much, they shall lay their hands upon their mouth.

Wis 8:13 Moreover by the means of her I shall obtain immortality, and leave behind me an everlasting memorial to them that come after me.

Wis 8:14 I shall set the people in order, and the nations shall be subject unto me.

Wis 8:15 Horrible tyrants shall be afraid, when they do but hear of me; I shall be found good among the multitude, and valiant in war.

Wis 8:16 After I am come into mine house, I will repose myself with her: for her conversation hath no bitterness; and to live with her hath no sorrow, but mirth and joy.

Wis 8:17 Now when I considered these things in myself, and pondered them in my heart, how that to be allied unto wisdom is immortality;

Wis 8:18 And great pleasure it is to have her friendship; and in the works of her hands are infinite riches; and in the exercise of conference with her, prudence; and in talking with her, a good report; I went about seeking how to take her to me.

Wis 8:19 For I was a witty child, and had a good spirit.

Wis 8:20 Yea rather, being good, I came into a body undefiled.

Wis 8:21 Nevertheless, when I perceived that I could not otherwise obtain her, except Yehowah gave her me; and that was a point of wisdom also to know whose gift she was; I prayed unto Yehowah, and besought him, and with my whole heart I said,

Wis 9:1 O Mighty One of my fathers, and Lord of mercy, who hast made all things with thy word,

Wis 9:2 And ordained man through thy wisdom, that he should have dominion over the creatures which thou hast made,

Wis 9:3 And order the world according to equity and righteousness, and execute judgment with an upright heart:

Wis 9:4 Give me wisdom, that sitteth by thy throne; and reject me not from among thy children:

Wis 9:5 For I thy servant and son of thine handmaid am a feeble person, and of a short time, and too young for the understanding of judgment and laws.

Wis 9:6 For though a man be never so perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing regarded.

Wis 9:7 Thou hast chosen me to be a king of thy people, and a judge of thy sons and daughters:

Wis 9:8 Thou hast commanded me to build a temple upon thy holy mount, and an altar in the city wherein thou dwellest, a resemblance of the holy tabernacle, which thou hast prepared from the beginning.

Wis 9:9 And wisdom was with thee: which knoweth thy works, and was present when thou madest the world, and knew what was acceptable in thy sight, and right in thy commandments.

Wis 9:10 O send her out of thy holy heavens, and from the throne of thy glory, that being present she may labor with me, that I may know what is pleasing unto thee.

Wis 9:11 For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall lead me soberly in my doings, and preserve me in her power.

Wis 9:12 So shall my works be acceptable, and then shall I judge thy people righteously, and be worthy to sit in my father's seat.

Wis 9:13 For what man is he that can know the counsel of Yehowah? or who can think what the will of Yehowah is?

Wis 9:14 For the thoughts of mortal men are miserable, and our devices are but uncertain.

Wis 9:15 For the corruptible body presseth down the soul, and the earthy tabernacle weigheth down the mind that museth upon many things.

Wis 9:16 And hardly do we guess aright at things that are upon earth, and with labor do we find the things that are before us: but the things that are in heaven who hath searched out?

Wis 9:17 And thy counsel who hath known, except thou give wisdom, and send thy Ruach Kodesh from above?

Wis 9:18 For so the ways of them which lived on the earth were reformed, and men were taught the things that are pleasing unto thee, and were saved through wisdom.

Wis 10:1 She preserved the first formed father of the world, that was created alone, and brought him out of his fall,

Wis 10:2 And gave him power to rule all things.

Wis 10:3 But when the unrighteous went away from her in his anger, he perished also in the fury wherewith he murdered his brother.

Wis 10:4 For whose cause the earth being drowned with the flood, wisdom again preserved it, and directed the course of the righteous in a piece of wood of small value.

Wis 10:5 Moreover, the nations in their wicked conspiracy being confounded, she found out the righteous, and preserved him blameless unto Yehowah, and kept him strong against his tender compassion toward his son.

Wis 10:6 When the irreverent perished, she delivered the righteous man, who fled from the fire which fell down upon the five cities.

Wis 10:7 Of whose wickedness even to this day the waste land that smoketh is a testimony, and plants bearing fruit that never come to ripeness: and a standing pillar of salt is a monument of an unbelieving soul.

Wis 10:8 For regarding not wisdom, they got not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good; but also left behind them to the world a memorial of their foolishness: so that in the things wherein they offended they could not so much as be hid.

Wis 10:9 Rut wisdom delivered from pain those that attended upon her.

Wis 10:10 When the righteous fled from his brother's wrath she guided him in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of Yehowah, and gave him knowledge of holy things, made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labors.

Wis 10:11 In the covetousness of such as oppressed him she stood by him, and made him rich.

Wis 10:12 She defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and in a sore conflict she gave him the victory; that he might know that goodness is stronger than all.

Wis 10:13 When the righteous was sold, she forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit,

Wis 10:14 And left him not in bonds, till she brought him the scepter of the kingdom, and power against those that oppressed him: as for them that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory.

Wis 10:15 She delivered the righteous people and blameless seed from the nation that oppressed them.

Wis 10:16 She entered into the soul of the servant of Yehowah, and withstood dreadful kings in wonders and signs;

Wis 10:17 Rendered to the righteous a reward of their labors, guided them in a marvelous way, and was unto them for a cover by day, and a light of stars in the night season;

Wis 10:18 Brought them through the Red Sea, and led them through much water:

Wis 10:19 But she drowned their enemies, and cast them up out of the bottom of the deep.

Wis 10:20 Therefore the righteous spoiled the irreverent, and praised thy holy name, O Yehowah, and magnified with one accord thine hand, that fought for them.

Wis 10:21 For wisdom opened the mouth of the dumb, and made the tongues of them that cannot speak eloquent.

Wis 11:1 She prospered their works in the hand of the holy prophet.

Wis 11:2 They went through the wilderness that was not inhabited, and pitched tents in places where there lay no way.

Wis 11:3 They stood against their enemies, and were avenged of their adversaries.

Wis 11:4 When they were thirsty, they called upon thee, and water was given them out of the flinty rock, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone.

Wis 11:5 For by what things their enemies were punished, by the same they in their need were benefited.

Wis 11:6 For instead of of a perpetual running river troubled with foul blood,

Wis 11:7 For a manifest reproof of that commandment, whereby the infants were slain, thou gavest unto them abundance of water by a means which they hoped not for:

Wis 11:8 Declaring by that thirst then how thou hadst punished their adversaries.

Wis 11:9 For when they were tried albeit but in mercy chastized, they knew how the irreverent were judged in wrath and tormented, thirsting in another manner than the just.

Wis 11:10 For these thou didst admonish and try, as a father: but the other, as a severe king, thou didst condemn and punish.

Wis 11:11 Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike.

Wis 11:12 For a double grief came upon them, and a groaning for the remembrance of things past.

Wis 11:13 For when they heard by their own punishments the other to be benefited, they had some feeling of Yehowah.

Wis 11:14 For whom they respected with scorn, when he was long before thrown out at the casting forth of the infants, him in the end, when they saw what came to pass, they admired.

Wis 11:15 But for the foolish devices of their wickedness, wherewith being deceived they worshiped serpents void of reason, and vile beasts, thou didst send a multitude of unreasonable beasts upon them for vengeance;

Wis 11:16 That they might know, that wherewithal a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished.

Wis 11:17 For thy Almighty hand, that made the world of matter without form, wanted not means to send among them a multitude of bears or fierce lions,

Wis 11:18 Or unknown wild beasts, full of rage, newly created, breathing out either a fiery vapor, or filthy scents of scattered smoke, or shooting horrible sparkles out of their eyes:

Wis 11:19 Whereof not only the harm might dispatch them at once, but also the terrible sight utterly destroy them.

Wis 11:20 Yea, and without these might they have fallen down with one blast, being persecuted of vengeance, and scattered abroad through the breath of thy power: but thou hast ordered all things in measure and number and weight.

Wis 11:21 For thou canst shew thy great strength at all times when thou wilt; and who may withstand the power of thine arm?

Wis 11:22 For the whole world before thee is as a little grain of the balance, yea, as a drop of the morning dew that falleth down upon the earth.

Wis 11:23 But thou hast mercy upon all; for thou canst do all things, and winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend.

Wis 11:24 For thou lovest all the things that are, and abhorrest nothing which thou hast made: for never wouldest thou have made anything, if thou hadst hated it.

Wis 11:25 And how could anything have endured, if it had not been thy will? or been preserved, if not called by thee?

Wis 11:26 But thou sparest all: for they are thine, O Yehowah, thou lover of souls.

Wis 12:1 For thine incorruptible Ruach is in all things.

Wis 12:2 Therefore chastenest thou them by little and little that offend, and warnest them by putting them in remembrance wherein they have offended, that leaving their wickedness they may believe on thee, O Yehowah.

Wis 12:3 For it was thy will to destroy by the hands of our fathers both those old inhabitants of thy holy land,

Wis 12:4 Whom thou hatedst for doing most odious works of witchcrafts, and wicked sacrifices;

Wis 12:5 And also those merciless murderers of children, and devourers of man's flesh, and the feasts of blood,

Wis 12:6 With their priests out of the midst of their idolatrous crew, and the parents, that killed with their own hands souls destitute of help:

Wis 12:7 That the land, which thou esteemedst above all other, might receive a worthy colony of Yehowah's children.

Wis 12:8 Nevertheless even those thou sparedst as men, and didst send wasps, forerunners of thine host, to destroy them by little and little.

Wis 12:9 Not that thou wast unable to bring the irreverent under the hand of the righteous in battle, or to destroy them at once with cruel beasts, or with one rough word:

Wis 12:10 But executing thy judgments upon them by little and little, thou gavest them place of repentance, not being ignorant that they were a naughty generation, and that their malice was bred in them, and that their cogitation would never be changed.

Wis 12:11 For it was a cursed seed from the beginning; neither didst thou for fear of any man give them pardon for those things wherein they sinned.

Wis 12:12 For who shall say, What hast thou done? or who shall withstand thy judgment? or who shall accuse thee for the nations that perish, whom thou made? or who shall come to stand against thee, to be revenged for the unrighteous men?

Wis 12:13 For neither is there any Yehowah but thou that careth for all, to whom thou mightest shew that thy judgment is not unright.

Wis 12:14 Neither shall king or tyrant be able to set his face against thee for any whom thou hast punished.

Wis 12:15 Forsomuch then as thou art righteous thyself, thou orderest all things righteously: thinking it not agreeable with thy power to condemn him that hath not deserved to be punished.

Wis 12:16 For thy power is the beginning of righteousness, and because thou art Yehowah of all, it maketh thee to be gracious unto all.

Wis 12:17 For when men will not believe that thou art of a full power, thou shewest thy strength, and among them that know it thou makest their boldness manifest.

Wis 12:18 But thou, mastering thy power, judgest with equity, and orderest us with great favor: for thou mayest use power when thou wilt.

Wis 12:19 But by such works hast thou taught thy people that the just man should be merciful, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope that thou givest repentance for sins.

Wis 12:20 For if thou didst punish the enemies of thy children, and the condemned to death, with such deliberation, giving them time and place, whereby they might be delivered from their malice:

Wis 12:21 With how great circumspection didst thou judge thine own sons, unto whose fathers thou hast sworn, and made covenants of good promises?

Wis 12:22 Therefore, whereas thou dost chasten us, thou scourgest our enemies a thousand times more, to the intent that, when we judge, we should carefully think of thy goodness, and when we ourselves are judged, we should look for mercy.

Wis 12:23 Wherefore, whereas men have lived dissolutely and unrighteously, thou hast tormented them with their own abominations.

Wis 12:24 For they went astray very far in the ways of error, and held them for deities, which even among the beasts of their enemies were despised, being deceived, as children of no understanding.

Wis 12:25 Therefore unto them, as to children without the use of reason, thou didst send a judgment to mock them.

Wis 12:26 But they that would not be reformed by that correction, wherein he dallied with them, shall feel a judgment worthy of Yehowah.

Wis 12:27 For, look, for what things they grudged, when they were punished, that is, for them whom they thought to be deities; [now] being punished in them, when they saw it, they acknowledged him to be the true Yehowah, whom before they denied to know: and therefore came extreme damnation upon them.

Wis 13:1 Surely vain are all men by nature, who are ignorant of Yehowah, and could not out of the good things that are seen know him that is: neither by considering the works did they acknowledge the workmaster;

Wis 13:2 But deemed either fire, or wind, or the swift air, or the circle of the stars, or the violent water, or the lights of heaven, to be the deities which govern the world.

Wis 13:3 With whose beauty if they being delighted took them to be deities; let them know how much better Yehowah of them is: for the first author of beauty hath created them.

Wis 13:4 But if they were astonished at their power and virtue, let them understand by them, how much mightier he is that made them.

Wis 13:5 For by the greatness and beauty of the creatures proportionably the maker of them is seen.

Wis 13:6 But yet for this they are the less to be blamed: for they peradventure err, seeking Yehowah, and desirous to find him.

Wis 13:7 For being conversant in his works they search him diligently, and believe their sight: because the things are beautiful that are seen.

Wis 13:8 Howbeit neither are they to be pardoned.

Wis 13:9 For if they were able to know so much, that they could aim at the world; how did they not sooner find out Yehowah thereof?

Wis 13:10 But miserable are they, and in dead things is their hope, who call them deities, which are the works of men's hands, gold and silver, to shew art in, and resemblances of beasts, or a stone good for nothing, the work of an ancient hand.

Wis 13:11 Now a carpenter that felleth timber, after he hath sawn down a tree meet for the purpose, and taken off all the bark skilfully round about, and hath wrought it handsomely, and made a vessel thereof fit for the service of man's life;

Wis 13:12 And after spending the refuse of his work to dress his meat, hath filled himself;

Wis 13:13 And taking the very refuse among those which served to no use, being a crooked piece of wood, and full of knots, hath carved it diligently, when he had nothing else to do, and formed it by the skill of his understanding, and fashioned it to the image of a man;

Wis 13:14 Or made it like some vile beast, laying it over with vermilion, and with paint colouring it red, and covering every spot therein;

Wis 13:15 And when he had made a convenient room for it, set it in a wall, and made it fast with iron:

Wis 13:16 For he provided for it that it might not fall, knowing that it was unable to help itself; for it is an image, and hath need of help:

Wis 13:17 Then maketh he prayer for his goods, for his wife and children, and is not ashamed to speak to that which hath no life.

Wis 13:18 For health he calleth upon that which is weak: for life prayeth to that which is dead; for aid humbly beseecheth that which hath least means to help: and for a good journey he asketh of that which cannot set a foot forward:

Wis 13:19 And for gaining and getting, and for good success of his hands, asketh ability to do of him, that is most unable to do anything.

Wis 14:1 Again, one preparing himself to sail, and about to pass through the raging waves, calleth upon a piece of wood more rotten than the vessel that carrieth him.

Wis 14:2 For verily desire of gain devised that, and the workman built it by his skill.

Wis 14:3 But thy providence, O Father, governeth it: for thou hast made a way in the sea, and a safe path in the waves;

Wis 14:4 Shewing that thou canst save from all danger: yea, though a man went to sea without art.

Wis 14:5 Nevertheless thou wouldest not that the works of thy wisdom should be idle, and therefore do men commit their lives to a small piece of wood, and passing the rough sea in a weak vessel are saved.

Wis 14:6 For in the old time also, when the proud giants perished, the hope of the world governed by thy hand escaped in a weak vessel, and left to all ages a seed of generation.

Wis 14:7 For blessed is the wood whereby righteousness cometh.

Wis 14:8 But that which is made with hands is cursed, as well it, as he that made it: he, because he made it; and it, because, being corruptible, it was called deity.

Wis 14:9 For the irreverent and his unreverence are both alike hateful unto Yehowah.

Wis 14:10 For that which is made shall be punished together with him that made it.

Wis 14:11 Therefore even upon the idols of the nations shall there be a visitation: because in the creature of Yehowah they are become an abomination, and stumbling blocks to the souls of men, and a snare to the feet of the unwise.

Wis 14:12 For the devising of idols was the beginning of spiritual fornication, and the invention of them the corruption of life.

Wis 14:13 For neither were they from the beginning, neither shall they be forever.

Wis 14:14 For by the vain glory of men they entered into the world, and therefore shall they come shortly to an end.

Wis 14:15 For a father afflicted with untimely mourning, when he hath made an image of his child soon taken away, now honored him as a deity, which was then a dead man, and delivered to those that were under him ceremonies and sacrifices.

Wis 14:16 Thus in process of time an irreverent custom grown strong was kept as a law, and graven images were worshiped by the commandments of kings.

Wis 14:17 Whom men could not honor in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far, and made an express image of a king whom they honored, to the end that by this their forwardness they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present.

Wis 14:18 Also the singular diligence of the artificer did help to set forward the ignorant to more superstition.

Wis 14:19 For he, peradventure willing to please one in authority, forced all his skill to make the resemblance of the best fashion.

Wis 14:20 And so the multitude, allured by the grace of the work, took him now for a deity, which a little before was but honored.

Wis 14:21 And this was an occasion to deceive the world: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks the incommunicable name.

Wis 14:22 Moreover this was not enough for them, that they erred in the knowledge of Yehowah; but whereas they lived in the great war of ignorance, those so great plagues called they peace.

Wis 14:23 For whilst they slew their children in sacrifices, or used secret ceremonies, or made revelings of strange rites;

Wis 14:24 They kept neither lives nor marriages any longer undefiled: but either one slew another traitorously, or grieved him by adultery.

Wis 14:25 So that there reigned in all men without exception blood, manslaughter, theft, and dissimulation, corruption, unfaithfulness, tumults, perjury,

Wis 14:26 Disquieting of good men, forgetfulness of good turns, defiling of souls, changing of kind, disorder in marriages, adultery, and shameless uncleanness.

Wis 14:27 For the worshiping of idols not to be named is the beginning, the cause, and the end, of all evil.

Wis 14:28 For either they are mad when they be merry, or prophesy lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly forswear themselves.

Wis 14:29 For insomuch as their trust is in idols, which have no life; though they swear falsely, yet they look not to be hurt.

Wis 14:30 Howbeit for both causes shall they be justly punished: both because they thought not well of Yehowah, giving heed unto idols, and also unjustly swore in deceit, despising holiness.

Wis 14:31 For it is not the power of them by whom they swear: but it is the just vengeance of sinners, that punisheth always the offense of the irreverent.

Wis 15:1 But thou, O Yehowah, art gracious and true, longsuffering, and in mercy ordering all things,

Wis 15:2 For if we sin, we are thine, knowing thy power: but we will not sin, knowing that we are counted thine.

Wis 15:3 For to know thee is perfect righteousness: yea, to know thy power is the root of immortality.

Wis 15:4 For neither did the mischievous invention of men deceive us, nor an image spotted with divers colors, the painter's fruitless labor;

Wis 15:5 The sight whereof enticeth fools to lust after it, and so they desire the form of a dead image, that hath no breath.

Wis 15:6 Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worship them, are lovers of evil things, and are worthy to have such things to trust upon.

Wis 15:7 For the potter, tempering soft earth, fashioneth every vessel with much labor for our service: yea, of the same clay he maketh both the vessels that serve for clean uses, and likewise also all such as serve to the contrary: but what is the use of either sort, the potter himself is the judge.

Wis 15:8 And employing his labors lewdly, he maketh a vain deity of the same clay, even he which a little before was made of earth himself, and within a little while after returneth to the same, out when his life which was lent him shall be demanded.

Wis 15:9 Notwithstanding his care is, not that he shall have much labor, nor that his life is short: but striveth to excel goldsmiths and silversmiths, and endeavoureth to do like the workers in brass, and counteth it his glory to make counterfeit things.

Wis 15:10 His heart is ashes, his hope is more vile than earth, and his life of less value than clay:

Wis 15:11 Forasmuch as he knew not his Maker, and him that inspired into him an active soul, and breathed in a living spirit.

Wis 15:12 But they counted our life a pastime, and our time here a market for gain: for, say they, we must be getting every way, though it be by evil means.

Wis 15:13 For this man, that of earthly matter maketh brittle vessels and graven images, knoweth himself to offend above all others.

Wis 15:14 And all the enemies of thy people, that hold them in subjection, are most foolish, and are more miserable than very babes.

Wis 15:15 For they counted all the idols of the heathen to be deities: which neither have the use of eyes to see, nor noses to draw breath, nor ears to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle; and as for their feet, they are slow to go.

Wis 15:16 For man made them, and he that borrowed his own spirit fashioned them: but no man can make a deity like unto himself.

Wis 15:17 For being mortal, he worketh a dead thing with wicked hands: for he himself is better than the things which he worshippeth: whereas he lived once, but they never.

Wis 15:18 Yea, they worshiped those beasts also that are most hateful: for being compared together, some are worse than others.

Wis 15:19 Neither are they beautiful, so much as to be desired in respect of beasts: but they went without the praise of Yehowah and his blessing.

Wis 16:1 Therefore by the like were they punished worthily, and by the multitude of beasts tormented.

Wis 16:2 Instead of which punishment, dealing graciously with thine own people, thou preparedst for them meat of a strange taste, even quails to stir up their appetite:

Wis 16:3 To the end that they, desiring food, might for the ugly sight of the beasts sent among them lothe even that, which they must needs desire; but these, suffering penury for a short space, might be made partakers of a strange taste.

Wis 16:4 For it was requisite, that upon them exercising tyranny should come penury, which they could not avoid: but to these it should only be shewed how their enemies were tormented.

Wis 16:5 For when the horrible fierceness of beasts came upon these, and they perished with the stings of crooked serpents, thy wrath endured not forever:

Wis 16:6 But they were troubled for a small season, that they might be admonished, having a sign of salvation, to put them in remembrance of the commandment of thy law.

Wis 16:7 For he that turned himself toward it was not saved by the thing that he saw, but by thee, that art the Savior of all.

Wis 16:8 And in this thou madest thine enemies confess, that it is thou who deliverest from all evil:

Wis 16:9 For them the bitings of grasshoppers and flies killed, neither was there found any remedy for their life: for they were worthy to be punished by such.

Wis 16:10 But thy sons not the very teeth of venomous dragons overcame: for thy mercy was ever by them, and healed them.

Wis 16:11 For they were pricked, that they should remember thy words; and were quickly saved, that not falling into deep forgetfulness, they might be continually mindful of thy goodness.

Wis 16:12 For it was neither herb, nor mollifying plaister, that restored them to health: but thy word, O Yehowah, which healeth all things.

Wis 16:13 For thou hast power of life and death: thou leadest to the gates of hell, and bringest up again.

Wis 16:14 A man indeed killeth through his malice: and the spirit, when it is gone forth, returneth not; neither the soul received up cometh again.

Wis 16:15 But it is not possible to escape thine hand.

Wis 16:16 For the irreverent, that denied to know thee, were scourged by the strength of thine arm: with strange rains, hails, and showers, were they persecuted, that they could not avoid, and through fire were they consumed.

Wis 16:17 For, which is most to be wondered at, the fire had more force in the water, that quencheth all things: for the world fighteth for the righteous.

Wis 16:18 For sometime the flame was mitigated, that it might not burn up the beasts that were sent against the irreverent; but themselves might see and perceive that they were persecuted with the judgment of Yehowah.

Wis 16:19 And at another time it burneth even in the midst of water above the power of fire, that it might destroy the fruits of an unjust land.

Wis 16:20 Instead whereof thou feddest thine own people with angels' food, and didst send them from heaven bread prepared without their labor, able to content every man's delight, and agreeing to every taste.

Wis 16:21 For thy sustenance declared thy sweetness unto thy children, and serving to the appetite of the eater, tempered itself to every man's liking.

Wis 16:22 But snow and ice endured the fire, and melted not, that they might know that fire burning in the hail, and sparkling in the rain, did destroy the fruits of the enemies.

Wis 16:23 But this again did even forget his own strength, that the righteous might be nourished.

Wis 16:24 For the creature that serveth thee, who art the Maker increaseth his strength against the unrighteous for their punishment, and abateth his strength for the benefit of such as put their trust in thee.

Wis 16:25 Therefore even then was it altered into all fashions, and was obedient to thy grace, that nourisheth all things, according to the desire of them that had need:

Wis 16:26 That thy children, O Yehowah, whom thou lovest, might know, that it is not the growing of fruits that nourisheth man: but that it is thy word, which preserveth them that put their trust in thee.

Wis 16:27 For that which was not destroyed of the fire, being warmed with a little sunbeam, soon melted away:

Wis 16:28 That it might be known, that we must prevent the sun to give thee thanks, and at the dayspring pray unto thee.

Wis 16:29 For the hope of the unthankful shall melt away as the winter's hoar frost, and shall run away as unprofitable water.

Wis 17:1 For great are thy judgments, and cannot be expressed: therefore unnurtured souls have erred.

Wis 17:2 For when unrighteous men thought to oppress the holy nation; they being shut up in their houses, the prisoners of darkness, and fettered with the bonds of a long night, lay [there] exiled from the eternal providence.

Wis 17:3 For while they supposed to lie hid in their secret sins, they were scattered under a dark veil of forgetfulness, being horribly astonished, and troubled with [strange] apparitions.

Wis 17:4 For neither might the corner that held them keep them from fear: but noises [as of waters] falling down sounded about them, and sad visions appeared unto them with heavy countenances.

Wis 17:5 No power of the fire might give them light: neither could the bright flames of the stars endure to lighten that horrible night.

Wis 17:6 Only there appeared unto them a fire kindled of itself, very dreadful: for being much terrified, they thought the things which they saw to be worse than the sight they saw not.

Wis 17:7 As for the illusions of art magick, they were put down, and their vaunting in wisdom was reproved with disgrace.

Wis 17:8 For they, that promised to drive away terrors and troubles from a sick soul, were sick themselves of fear, worthy to be laughed at.

Wis 17:9 For though no terrible thing did fear them; yet being scared with beasts that passed by, and hissing of serpents, Wis 17:10 They died for fear, denying that they saw the air, which could of no side be avoided.

Wis 17:11 For wickedness, condemned by her own witness, is very timorous, and being pressed with conscience, always forecasteth grievous things.

Wis 17:12 For fear is nothing else but a betraying of the succors which reason offereth.

Wis 17:13 And the expectation from within, being less, counteth the ignorance more than the cause which bringeth the torment.

Wis 17:14 But they sleeping the same sleep that night, which was indeed intolerable, and which came upon them out of the bottoms of inevitable hell,

Wis 17:15 Were partly vexed with monstrous apparitions, and partly fainted, their heart failing them: for a sudden fear, and not looked for, came upon them.

Wis 17:16 So then whosoever there fell down was straitly kept, shut up in a prison without iron bars, Wis 17:17 For whether he were husbandman, or shepherd, or a laborer in the field, he was overtaken, and endured that necessity, which could not be avoided: for they were all bound with one chain of darkness.

Wis 17:18 Whether it were a whistling wind, or a melodious noise of birds among the spreading branches, or a pleasing fall of water running violently,

Wis 17:19 Or a terrible sound of stones cast down, or a running that could not be seen of skipping beasts, or a roaring voice of most savage wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the hollow mountains; these things made them to swoon for fear.

Wis 17:20 For the whole world shined with clear light, and none were hindered in their labor:

Wis 17:21 Over them only was spread a heavy night, an image of that darkness which should afterward receive them: but yet were they unto themselves more grievous than the darkness.

Wis 18:1 Nevertheless thy saints had a very great light, whose voice they hearing, and not seeing their shape, because they also had not suffered the same things, they counted them happy.

Wis 18:2 But for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them, and besought them pardon for that they had been enemies.

Wis 18:3 Instead whereof thou gavest them a burning pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the unknown journey, and an harmless sun to entertain them honorably.

Wis 18:4 For they were worthy to be deprived of light and imprisoned in darkness, who had kept thy sons shut up, by whom the uncorrupt light of the law was to be given unto the world.

Wis 18:5 And when they had determined to slay the babes of the saints, one child being cast forth, and saved, to reprove them, thou tookest away the multitude of their children, and destroyedst them altogether in a mighty water.

Wis 18:6 Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that assuredly knowing unto what oaths they had given credence, they might afterwards be of good cheer.

Wis 18:7 So of thy people was accepted both the salvation of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies.

Wis 18:8 For wherewith thou didst punish our adversaries, by the same thou didst glorify us, whom thou hadst called.

Wis 18:9 For the righteous children of good men did sacrifice secretly, and with one consent made a holy law, that the saints should be like partakers of the same good and evil, the fathers now singing out the songs of praise.

Wis 18:10 But on the other side there sounded an ill according cry of the enemies, and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were bewailed.

Wis 18:11 The master and the servant were punished after one manner; and like as the king, so suffered the common person.

Wis 18:12 So they all together had innumerable dead with one kind of death; neither were the living sufficient to bury them: for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

Wis 18:13 For whereas they would not believe anything by reason of the enchantments; upon the destruction of the firstborn, they acknowledged this people to be the sons of Yehowah.

Wis 18:14 For while all things were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course,

Wis 18:15 Thine Almighty word leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne, as a fierce man of war into the midst of a land of destruction,

Wis 18:16 And brought thine unfeigned commandment as a sharp sword, and standing up filled all things with death; and it touched the heaven, but it stood upon the earth.

Wis 18:17 Then suddenly visions of horrible dreams troubled them sore, and terrors came upon them unlooked for.

Wis 18:18 And one thrown here, and another there, half dead, shewed the cause of his death.

Wis 18:19 For the dreams that troubled them did foreshew this, lest they should perish, and not know why they were afflicted.

Wis 18:20 Yea, the tasting of death touched the righteous also, and there was a destruction of the multitude in the wilderness: but the wrath endured not long.

Wis 18:21 For then the blameless man made haste, and stood forth to defend them; and bringing the shield of his proper ministry, even prayer, and the propitiation of incense, set himself against the wrath, and so brought the calamity to an end, declaring that he was thy servant.

Wis 18:22 So he overcame the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of arms, but with a word subdued him that punished, alleging the oaths and covenants made with the fathers.

Wis 18:23 For when the dead were now fallen down by heaps one upon another, standing between, he stayed the wrath, and parted the way to the living.

Wis 18:24 For in the long garment was the whole world, and in the four rows of the stones was the glory of the fathers graven, and thy Majesty upon the daidem of his head.

Wis 18:25 Unto these the destroyer gave place, and was afraid of them: for it was enough that they only tasted of the wrath.

Wis 19:1 As for the irreverent, wrath came upon them without mercy unto the end: for he knew before what they would do;

Wis 19:2 How that having given them leave to depart, and sent them hastily away, they would repent and pursue them.

Wis 19:3 For whilst they were yet mourning and making lamentation at the graves of the dead, they added another foolish device, and pursued them as fugitives, whom they had entreated to be gone.

Wis 19:4 For the destiny, whereof they were worthy, drew them unto this end, and made them forget the things that had already happened, that they might fulfill the punishment which was wanting to their torments:

Wis 19:5 And that thy people might pass a wonderful way: but they might find a strange death.

Wis 19:6 For the whole creature in his proper kind was fashioned again anew, serving the peculiar commandments that were given unto them, that thy children might be kept without hurt:

Wis 19:7 As namely, a cloud shadowing the camp; and where water stood before, dry land appeared; and out of the Red Sea a way without impediment; and out of the violent stream a green field:

Wis 19:8 Wherethrough all the people went that were defended with thy hand, seeing thy marvelous strange wonders.

Wis 19:9 For they went at large like horses, and leaped like lambs, praising thee, O Yehowah, who hadst delivered them.

Wis 19:10 For they were yet mindful of the things that were done while they sojourned in the strange land, how the ground brought forth flies instead of cattle, and how the river cast up a multitude of frogs instead of fishes.

Wis 19:11 But afterwards they saw a new generation of fowls, when, being led with their appetite, they asked delicate meats.

Wis 19:12 For quails came up unto them from the sea for their contentment.

Wis 19:13 And punishments came upon the sinners not without former signs by the force of thunders: for they suffered justly according to their own wickedness, insomuch as they used a more hard and hateful behavior toward strangers.

Wis 19:14 For the Sodomites did not receive those, whom they knew not when they came: but these brought friends into bondage, that had well deserved of them.

Wis 19:15 And not only so, but peradventure some respect shall be had of those, because they used strangers not friendly:

Wis 19:16 But these very grievously afflicted them, whom they had received with feastings, and were already made partakers of the same laws with them.

Wis 19:17 Therefore even with blindness were these stricken, as those were at the doors of the righteous man: when, being compassed about with horrible great darkness, every one sought the passage of his own doors.

Wis 19:18 For the elements were changed in themselves by a kind of harmony, like as in a psaltery notes change the name of the tune, and yet are always sounds; which may well be perceived by the sight of the things that have been done.

Wis 19:19 For earthly things were turned into watery, and the things, that before swam in the water, now went upon the ground.

Wis 19:20 The fire had power in the water, forgetting his own virtue: and the water forgat his own quenching nature.

Wis 19:21 On the other side, the flames wasted not the flesh of the corruptible living things, though they walked therein; neither melted they the icy kind of heavenly meat that was of nature apt to melt.

Wis 19:22 For in all things, O Yehowah, thou didst magnify thy people, and glorify them, neither didst thou lightly regard them: but didst assist them in every time and place.

Book of Sirach

Sir 1:1 (aka Ecclesiasticus) (The Prologue of the Wisdom of Yehoshua, the Son of Sirach. Whereas many and great things have been delivered unto us by the law and the prophets, and by others that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdom; and whereof not only the readers must needs become skillful themselves, but also they that desire to learn be able to profit them which are without, both by speaking and writing: my grandfather Yehoshua, when he had much given himself to the reading of the law, and the prophets, and other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgment, was drawn on also himself to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom; to the intent that those which are desirous to learn, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in living according to the law. Wherefore let me intreat you to read it with favor and attention, and to pardon us, wherein we may seem to come short of some words, which we have labored to interpret. For the same things uttered in Hebrew, and translated into another tongue, have not the same force in them: and not only these things, but the law itself, and the prophets, and the rest of the books, have no small difference, when they are spoken in their own language. For in the eight and thirtieth year coming into Egypt, when Euergetes was king, and continuing there some time, I found a book of no small learning: therefore I thought it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and travail to interpret it; using great watchfulness and skill in that space to bring the book to an end, and set it forth for them also, which in a strange country are willing to learn, being prepared before in manners to live after the law. All wisdom cometh from the Lord, and is with him for ever.) All wisdom cometh from Yehowah, and is with him forever.

Sir 1:2 Who can number the sand of the sea, and the drops of rain, and the days of eternity?

Sir 1:3 Who can find out the height of heaven, and the breadth of the earth, and the deep, and wisdom?

Sir 1:4 Wisdom hath been created before all things, and the understanding of prudence from everlasting.

Sir 1:5 The word of Yehowah most high is the fountain of wisdom; and her ways are everlasting commandments.

Sir 1:6 To whom hath the root of wisdom been revealed? or who hath known her wise counsels?

Sir 1:7 Unto whom hath the knowledge of wisdom been made manifest? and who hath understood her great experience?

Sir 1:8 There is one wise and greatly to be feared, Yehowah sitting upon his throne.

Sir 1:9 He created her, and saw her, and numbered her, and poured her out upon all his works.

Sir 1:10 She is with all flesh according to his gift, and he hath given her to them that love him.

Sir 1:11 The fear of Yehowah is honor, and glory, and gladness, and a crown of rejoicing.

Sir 1:12 The fear of Yehowah maketh a merry heart, and giveth joy, and gladness, and a long life.

Sir 1:13 Whoso feareth Yehowah, it shall go well with him at the last, and he shall find favor in the day of his death.

Sir 1:14 To fear Yehowah is the beginning of wisdom: and it was created with the faithful in the womb.

Sir 1:15 She hath built an everlasting foundation with men, and she shall continue with their seed.

Sir 1:16 To fear Yehowah is fulness of wisdom, and filleth men with her fruits.

Sir 1:17 She filleth all their house with things desirable, and the garners with her increase.

Sir 1:18 The fear of Yehowah is a crown of wisdom, making peace and perfect health to flourish; both which are the gifts of Yehowah: and it enlargeth their rejoicing that love him.

Sir 1:19 Wisdom raineth down skill and knowledge of understanding standing, and exalteth them to honor that hold her fast.

Sir 1:20 The root of wisdom is to fear Yehowah, and the branches thereof are long life.

Sir 1:21 The fear of Yehowah driveth away sins: and where it is present, it turneth away wrath.

Sir 1:22 A furious man cannot be justified; for the sway of his fury shall be his destruction.

Sir 1:23 A patient man will tear for a time, and afterward joy shall spring up unto him.

Sir 1:24 He will hide his words for a time, and the lips of many shall declare his wisdom.

Sir 1:25 The parables of knowledge are in the treasures of wisdom: but reverence is an abomination to a sinner.

Sir 1:26 If thou desire wisdom, keep the commandments, and Yehowah shall give her unto thee.

Sir 1:27 For the fear of Yehowah is wisdom and instruction: and faith and meekness are his delight.

Sir 1:28 Distrust not the fear of Yehowah when thou art poor: and come not unto him with a double heart.

Sir 1:29 Be not an hypocrite in the sight of men, and take good heed what thou speakest.

Sir 1:30 Exalt not thyself, lest thou fall, and bring dishonor upon thy soul, and so Yehowah discover thy secrets, and cast thee down in the midst of the congregation, because thou camest not in truth to the fear of Yehowah, but thy heart is full of deceit.

Sir 2:1 My son, if thou come to serve Yehowah, prepare thy soul for temptation.

Sir 2:2 Set thy heart aright, and constantly endure, and make not haste in time of trouble.

Sir 2:3 Cleave unto him, and depart not away, that thou mayest be increased at thy last end.

Sir 2:4 Whatsoever is brought upon thee take cheerfully, and be patient when thou art changed to a low estate.

Sir 2:5 For gold is tried in the fire, and acceptable men in the furnace of adversity.

Sir 2:6 Believe in him, and he will help thee; order thy way aright, and trust in him.

Sir 2:7 Ye that fear Yehowah, wait for his mercy; and go not aside, lest ye fall.

Sir 2:8 Ye that fear Yehowah, believe him; and your reward shall not fail.

Sir 2:9 Ye that fear Yehowah, hope for good, and for everlasting joy and mercy.

Sir 2:10 Look at the generations of old, and see; did ever any trust in Yehowah, and was confounded? or did any abide in his fear, and was forsaken? or whom did he ever despise, that called upon him?

Sir 2:11 For Yehowah is full of compassion and mercy, longsuffering, and very pitiful, and forgiveth sins, and saveth in time of affliction.

Sir 2:12 Woe be to fearful hearts, and faint hands, and the sinner that goeth two ways!

Sir 2:13 Woe unto him that is fainthearted! for he believeth not; therefore shall he not be defended.

Sir 2:14 Woe unto you that have lost patience! and what will ye do when Yehowah shall visit you?

Sir 2:15 They that fear Yehowah will not disobey his Word; and they that love him will keep his ways.

Sir 2:16 They that fear Yehowah will seek that which is well, pleasing unto him; and they that love him shall be filled with the law.

Sir 2:17 They that fear Yehowah will prepare their hearts, and humble their souls in his sight,

Sir 2:18 Saying, We will fall into the hands of Yehowah, and not into the hands of men: for as his majesty is, so is his mercy.

Sir 3:1 Hear me your father, O children, and do thereafter, that ye may be safe.

Sir 3:2 For Yehowah hath given the father honor over the children, and hath confirmed the authority of the mother over the sons.

Sir 3:3 Whoso honoreth his father maketh an atonement for his sins:

Sir 3:4 And he that honoreth his mother is as one that layeth up treasure.

Sir 3:5 Whoso honoreth his father shall have joy of his own children; and when he maketh his prayer, he shall be heard.

Sir 3:6 He that honoreth his father shall have a long life; and he that is obedient unto Yehowah shall be a comfort to his mother.

Sir 3:7 He that feareth Yehowah will honor his father, and will do service unto his parents, as to his masters.

Sir 3:8 Honor thy father and mother both in word and deed, that a blessing may come upon thee from them.

Sir 3:9 For the blessing of the father establisheth the houses of children; but the curse of the mother rooteth out foundations.

Sir 3:10 Glory not in the dishonor of thy father; for thy father's dishonor is no glory unto thee.

Sir 3:11 For the glory of a man is from the honor of his father; and a mother in dishonor is a reproach to the children.

Sir 3:12 My son, help thy father in his age, and grieve him not as long as he liveth.

Sir 3:13 And if his understanding fail, have patience with him; and despise him not when thou art in thy full strength.

Sir 3:14 For the relieving of thy father shall not be forgotten: and instead of sins it shall be added to build thee up.

Sir 3:15 In the day of thine affliction it shall be remembered; thy sins also shall melt away, as the ice in the fair warm weather.

Sir 3:16 He that forsaketh his father is as a blasphemer; and he that angereth his mother is cursed: of Yehowah.

Sir 3:17 My son, go on with thy business in meekness; so shalt thou be beloved of him that is approved.

Sir 3:18 The greater thou art, the more humble thyself, and thou shalt find favor before Yehowah.

Sir 3:19 Many are in high place, and of renown: but mysteries are revealed unto the meek.

Sir 3:20 For the power of Yehowah is great, and he is honored of the lowly.

Sir 3:21 Seek not out things that are too hard for thee, neither search the things that are above thy strength.

Sir 3:22 But what is commanded thee, think thereupon with reverence, for it is not needful for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are in secret.

Sir 3:23 Be not curious in unnecessary matters: for more things are shewed unto thee than men understand.

Sir 3:24 For many are deceived by their own vain opinion; and an evil suspicion hath overthrown their judgment.

Sir 3:25 Without eyes thou shalt want light: profess not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not.

Sir 3:26 A stubborn heart shall fare evil at the last; and he that loveth danger shall perish therein.

Sir 3:27 An obstinate heart shall be laden with sorrows; and the wicked man shall heap sin upon sin.

Sir 3:28 In the punishment of the proud there is no remedy; for the plant of wickedness hath taken root in him.

Sir 3:29 The heart of the prudent will understand a parable; and an attentive ear is the desire of a wise man.

Sir 3:30 Water will quench a flaming fire; and alms maketh an atonement for sins.

Sir 3:31 And he that requiteth good turns is mindful of that which may come hereafter; and when he falleth, he shall find a stay.

Sir 4:1 My son, defraud not the poor of his living, and make not the needy eyes to wait long.

Sir 4:2 Make not an hungry soul sorrowful; neither provoke a man in his distress.

Sir 4:3 Add not more trouble to a heart that is vexed; and defer not to give to him that is in need.

Sir 4:4 Reject not the supplication of the afflicted; neither turn away thy face from a poor man.

Sir 4:5 Turn not away thine eye from the needy, and give him none occasion to curse thee:

Sir 4:6 For if he curse thee in the bitterness of his soul, his prayer shall be heard of him that made him.

Sir 4:7 Get thyself the love of the congregation, and bow thy head to a great man.

Sir 4:8 Let it not grieve thee to bow down thine ear to the poor, and give him a friendly answer with meekness.

Sir 4:9 Deliver him that suffereth wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not fainthearted when thou sittest in judgment.

Sir 4:10 Be as a father unto the fatherless, and instead of an husband unto their mother: so shalt thou be as the son of the Most High, and he shall love thee more than thy mother doth.

Sir 4:11 Wisdom exalteth her children, and layeth hold of them that seek her.

Sir 4:12 He that loveth her loveth life; and they that seek to her early shall be filled with joy.

Sir 4:13 He that holdeth her fast shall inherit glory; and wheresoever she entereth, Yehowah will bless.

Sir 4:14 They that serve her shall minister to the Holy One: and them that love her Yehowah doth love.

Sir 4:15 Whoso giveth ear unto her shall judge the nations: and he that attendeth unto her shall dwell securely.

Sir 4:16 If a man commit himself unto her, he shall inherit her; and his generation shall hold her in possession.

Sir 4:17 For at the first she will walk with him by crooked ways, and bring fear and dread upon him, and torment him with her discipline, until she may trust his soul, and try him by her laws.

Sir 4:18 Then will she return the straight way unto him, and comfort him, and shew him her secrets.

Sir 4:19 But if he go wrong, she will forsake him, and give him over to his own ruin.

Sir 4:20 Observe the opportunity, and beware of evil; and be not ashamed when it concerneth thy soul.

Sir 4:21 For there is a shame that bringeth sin; and there is a shame which is glory and grace.

Sir 4:22 Accept no person against thy soul, and let not the reverence of any man cause thee to fall.

Sir 4:23 And refrain not to speak, when there is occasion to do good, and hide not thy wisdom in her beauty.

Sir 4:24 For by speech wisdom shall be known: and learning by the word of the tongue.

Sir 4:25 In no wise speak against the truth; but be abashed of the error of thine ignorance.

Sir 4:26 Be not ashamed to confess thy sins; and force not the course of the river.

Sir 4:27 Make not thyself an underling to a foolish man; neither accept the person of the mighty.

Sir 4:28 Strive for the truth unto death, and Yehowah shall fight for thee.

Sir 4:29 Be not hasty in thy tongue, and in thy deeds slack and remiss.

Sir 4:30 Be not as a lion in thy house, nor frantick among thy servants.

Sir 4:31 Let not thine hand be stretched out to receive, and shut when thou shouldest repay.

Sir 5:1 Set thy heart upon thy goods; and say not, I have enough for my life.

Sir 5:2 Follow not thine own mind and thy strength, to walk in the ways of thy heart:

Sir 5:3 And say not, Who shall controul me for my works? for Yehowah will surely revenge thy pride.

Sir 5:4 Say not, I have sinned, and what harm hath happened unto me? for Yehowah is longsuffering, he will in no wise let thee go.

Sir 5:5 Concerning propitiation, be not without fear to add sin unto sin:

Sir 5:6 And say not His mercy is great; he will be pacified for the multitude of my sins: for mercy and wrath come from him, and his indignation resteth upon sinners.

Sir 5:7 Make no tarrying to turn to Yehowah, and put not off from day to day: for suddenly shall the wrath of Yehowah come forth, and in thy security thou shalt be destroyed, and perish in the day of vengeance.

Sir 5:8 Set not thine heart upon goods unjustly gotten, for they shall not profit thee in the day of calamity.

Sir 5:9 Winnow not with every wind, and go not into every way: for so doth the sinner that hath a double tongue.

Sir 5:10 Be steadfast in thy understanding; and let thy word be the same.

Sir 5:11 Be swift to hear; and let thy life be sincere; and with patience give answer.

Sir 5:12 If thou hast understanding, answer thy neighbor; if not, lay thy hand upon thy mouth.

Sir 5:13 Honor and shame is in talk: and the tongue of man is his fall.

Sir 5:14 Be not called a whisperer, and lie not in wait with thy tongue: for a foul shame is upon the thief, and an evil condemnation upon the double tongue.

Sir 5:15 Be not ignorant of anything in a great matter or a small.

Sir 6:1 Instead of a friend become not an enemy; for [thereby] thou shalt inherit an ill name, shame, and reproach: even so shall a sinner that hath a double tongue.

Sir 6:2 Extol not thyself in the counsel of thine own heart; that thy soul be not torn in pieces as a bull [straying alone.]

Sir 6:3 Thou shalt eat up thy leaves, and lose thy fruit, and leave thyself as a dry tree.

Sir 6:4 A wicked soul shall destroy him that hath it, and shall make him to be laughed to scorn of his enemies.

Sir 6:5 Sweet language will multiply friends: and a fairspeaking tongue will increase kind greetings.

Sir 6:6 Be in peace with many: nevertheless have but one counselor of a thousand.

Sir 6:7 If thou wouldest get a friend, prove him first and be not hasty to credit him.

Sir 6:8 For some man is a friend for his own occasion, and will not abide in the day of thy trouble.

Sir 6:9 And there is a friend, who being turned to enmity, and strife will discover thy reproach.

Sir 6:10 Again, some friend is a companion at the table, and will not continue in the day of thy affliction.

Sir 6:11 But in thy prosperity he will be as thyself, and will be bold over thy servants.

Sir 6:12 If thou be brought low, he will be against thee, and will hide himself from thy face.

Sir 6:13 Separate thyself from thine enemies, and take heed of thy friends.

Sir 6:14 A faithfu1l friend is a strong defense: and he that hath found such a one hath found a treasure.

Sir 6:15 Nothing doth countervail a faithful friend, and his excellency is invaluable.

Sir 6:16 A faithful friend is the medicine of life; and they that fear Yehowah shall find him.

Sir 6:17 Whoso feareth Yehowah shall direct his friendship aright: for as he is, so shall his neighbor be also.

Sir 6:18 My son, gather instruction from thy youth up: so shalt thou find wisdom till thine old age.

Sir 6:19 Come unto her as one that ploweth and soweth, and wait for her good fruits: for thou shalt not toil much in laboring about her, but thou shalt eat of her fruits right soon.

Sir 6:20 She is very unpleasant to the unlearned: he that is without understanding will not remain with her.

Sir 6:21 She will lie upon him as a mighty stone of trial; and he will cast her from him ere it be long.

Sir 6:22 For wisdom is according to her name, and she is not manifest unto many.

Sir 6:23 Give ear, my son, receive my advice, and refuse not my counsel,

Sir 6:24 And put thy feet into her fetters, and thy neck into her chain.

Sir 6:25 Bow down thy shoulder, and bear her, and be not grieved with her bonds.

Sir 6:26 Come unto her with thy whole heart, and keep her ways with all thy power.

Sir 6:27 Search, and seek, and she shall be made known unto thee: and when thou hast got hold of her, let her not go.

Sir 6:28 For at the last thou shalt find her rest, and that shall be turned to thy joy.

Sir 6:29 Then shall her fetters be a strong defense for thee, and her chains a robe of glory.

Sir 6:30 For there is a golden ornament upon her, and her bands are purple lace.

Sir 6:31 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honor, and shalt put her about thee as a crown of joy.

Sir 6:32 My son, if thou wilt, thou shalt be taught: and if thou wilt apply thy mind, thou shalt be prudent.

Sir 6:33 If thou love to hear, thou shalt receive understanding: and if thou bow thine ear, thou shalt be wise,

Sir 6:34 Stand in the multitude of the elders; and cleave unto him that is wise.

Sir 6:35 Be willing to hear every reverent discourse; and let not the parables of understanding escape thee.

Sir 6:36 And if thou seest a man of understanding, get thee betimes unto him, and let thy foot wear the steps of his door.

Sir 6:37 Let thy mind be upon the ordinances of Yehowah and meditate continually in his commandments: he shall establish thine heart, and give thee wisdom at thine owns desire.

Sir 7:1 Do no evil, so shall no harm come unto thee.

Sir 7:2 Depart from the unjust, and iniquity shall turn away from thee.

Sir 7:3 My son, sow not upon the furrows of unrighteousness, and thou shalt not reap them sevenfold.

Sir 7:4 Seek not of Yehowah preeminence, neither of the king the seat of honor.

Sir 7:5 justify not thyself before Yehowah; and boast not of thy wisdom before the king.

Sir 7:6 Seek not to be judge, being not able to take away iniquity; lest at any time thou fear the person of the mighty, a stumbling block in the way of thy uprightness.

Sir 7:7 Offend not against the multitude of a city, and then thou shalt not cast thyself down among the people.

Sir 7:8 Bind not one sin upon another; for in one thou shalt not be unpunished.

Sir 7:9 Say not, Yehowah will look upon the multitude of my oblations, and when I offer to the most high Yehowah, he will accept it.

Sir 7:10 Be not fainthearted when thou makest thy prayer, and neglect not to give alms.

Sir 7:11 Laugh no man to scorn in the bitterness of his soul: for there is one which humbleth and exalteth.

Sir 7:12 Devise not a lie against thy brother; neither do the like to thy friend.

Sir 7:13 Use not to make any manner of lie: for the custom thereof is not good.

Sir 7:14 Use not many words in a multitude of elders, and make not much babbling when thou prayest.

Sir 7:15 Hate not laborious work, neither husbandry, which the Most High hath ordained.

Sir 7:16 Number not thyself among the multitude of sinners, but remember that wrath will not tarry long.

Sir 7:17 Humble thyself greatly: for the vengeance of the irreverent is fire and worms.

Sir 7:18 Change not a friend for any good by no means; neither a faithful brother for the gold of Ophir.

Sir 7:19 Forego not a wise and good woman: for her grace is above gold.

Sir 7:20 Whereas thy servant worketh truly, entreat him not evil. nor the hireling that bestoweth himself wholly for thee.

Sir 7:21 Let thy soul love a good servant, and defraud him not of liberty.

Sir 7:22 Hast thou cattle? have an eye to them: and if they be for thy profit, keep them with thee.

Sir 7:23 Hast thou children? instruct them, and bow down their neck from their youth.

Sir 7:24 Hast thou daughters? have a care of their body, and shew not thyself cheerful toward them.

Sir 7:25 Marry thy daughter, and so shalt thou have performed a weighty matter: but give her to a man of understanding.

Sir 7:26 Hast thou a wife after thy mind? forsake her not: but give not thyself over to a light woman.

Sir 7:27 Honor thy father with thy whole heart, and forget not the sorrows of thy mother.

Sir 7:28 Remember that thou wast begotten of them; and how canst thou recompense them the things that they have done for thee?

Sir 7:29 Fear Yehowah with all thy soul, and reverence his priests.

Sir 7:30 Love him that made thee with all thy strength, and forsake not his ministers.

Sir 7:31 Fear Yehowah, and honor the priest; and give him his portion, as it is commanded thee; the firstfruits, and the trespass offering, and the gift of the shoulders, and the sacrifice of sanctification, and the firstfruits of the holy things.

Sir 7:32 And stretch thine hand unto the poor, that thy blessing may be perfected.

Sir 7:33 A gift hath grace in the sight of every man living; and for the dead detain it not.

Sir 7:34 Fail not to be with them that weep, and mourn with them that mourn.

Sir 7:35 Be not slow to visit the sick: fir that shall make thee to be beloved.

Sir 7:36 Whatsoever thou takest in hand, remember the end, and thou shalt never do amiss.

Sir 8:1 Strive not with a mighty man′ lest thou fall into his hands.

Sir 8:2 Be not at variance with a rich man, lest he overweigh thee: for gold hath destroyed many, and perverted the hearts of kings.

Sir 8:3 Strive not with a man that is full of tongue, and heap not wood upon his fire.

Sir 8:4 Jest not with a rude man, lest thy ancestors be disgraced.

Sir 8:5 Reproach not a man that turneth from sin, but remember that we are all worthy of punishment.

Sir 8:6 Dishonour not a man in his old age: for even some of us wax old.

Sir 8:7 Rejoice not over thy greatest enemy being dead, but remember that we die all.

Sir 8:8 Despise not the discourse of the wise, but acquaint thyself with their proverbs: for of them thou shalt learn instruction, and how to serve great men with ease.

Sir 8:9 Miss not the discourse of the elders: for they also learned of their fathers, and of them thou shalt learn understanding, and to give answer as need requireth.

Sir 8:10 Kindle not the coals of a sinner, lest thou be burnt with the flame of his fire.

Sir 8:11 Rise not up [in anger] at the presence of an injurious person, lest he lie in wait to entrap thee in thy words

Sir 8:12 Lend not unto him that is mightier than thyself; for if thou lendest him, count it but lost.

Sir 8:13 Be not surety above thy power: for if thou be surety, take care to pay it.

Sir 8:14 Go not to law with a judge; for they will judge for him according to his honor.

Sir 8:15 Travel not by the way with a bold fellow, lest he become grievous unto thee: for he will do according to his own will, and thou shalt perish with him through his folly.

Sir 8:16 Strive not with an angry man, and go not with him into a solitary place: for blood is as nothing in his sight, and where there is no help, he will overthrow thee.

Sir 8:17 Consult not with a fool; for he cannot keep counsel.

Sir 8:18 Do no secret thing before a stranger; for thou knowest not what he will bring forth.

Sir 8:19 Open not thine heart to every man, lest he requite thee with a shrewd turn.

Sir 9:1 Be not jealous over the wife of thy bosom, and teach her not an evil lesson against thyself.

Sir 9:2 Give not thy soul unto a woman to set her foot upon thy substance.

Sir 9:3 Meet not with an harlot, lest thou fall into her snares.

Sir 9:4 Use not much the company of a woman that is a singer, lest thou be taken with her attempts.

Sir 9:5 Gaze not on a maid, that thou fall not by those things that are precious in her.

Sir 9:6 Give not thy soul unto harlots, that thou lose not thine inheritance.

Sir 9:7 Look not round about thee in the streets of the city, neither wander thou in the solitary place thereof.

Sir 9:8 Turn away thine eye from a beautiful woman, and look not upon another's beauty; for many have been deceived by the beauty of a woman; for herewith love is kindled as a fire.

Sir 9:9 Sit not at all with another man's wife, nor sit down with her in thine arms, and spend not thy money with her at the wine; lest thine heart incline unto her, and so through thy desire thou fall into destruction.

Sir 9:10 Forsake not an old friend; for the new is not comparable to him: a new friend is as new wine; when it is old, thou shalt drink it with pleasure.

Sir 9:11 Envy not the glory of a sinner: for thou knowest not what shall be his end.

Sir 9:12 Delight not in the thing that the irreverent have pleasure in; but remember they shall not go unpunished unto their grave.

Sir 9:13 Keep thee far from the man that hath power to kill; so shalt thou not doubt the fear of death: and if thou come unto him, make no fault, lest he take away thy life presently: remember that thou goest in the midst of snares, and that thou walkest upon the battlements of the city.

Sir 9:14 As near as thou canst, guess at thy neighbor, and consult with the wise.

Sir 9:15 Let thy talk be with the wise, and all thy communication in the law of the Most High.

Sir 9:16 And let just men eat and drink with thee; and let thy glorying be in the fear of Yehowah.

Sir 9:17 For the hand of the artificer the work shall be commended: and the wise ruler of the people for his speech.

Sir 9:18 A man of an ill tongue is dangerous in his city; and he that is rash in his talk shall be hated.

Sir 10:1 A wise judge will instruct his people; and the government of a prudent man is well ordered.

Sir 10:2 As the judge of the people is himself, so are his officers; and what manner of man the ruler of the city is, such are all they that dwell therein.

Sir 10:3 An unwise king destroyeth his people; but through the prudence of them which are in authority the city shall be inhabited.

Sir 10:4 The power of the earth is in the hand of Yehowah, and in due time he will set over it one that is profitable.

Sir 10:5 In the hand of Yehowah is the prosperity of man: and upon the person of the scribe shall he lay his honor.

Sir 10:6 Bear not hatred to thy neighbor for every wrong; and do nothing at all by injurious practices.

Sir 10:7 Pride is hateful before Yehowah and man: and by both doth one commit iniquity.

Sir 10:8 Because of unrighteous dealings, injuries, and riches got by deceit, the kingdom is translated from one people to another.

Sir 10:9 Why is earth and ashes proud? There is not a more wicked thing than a covetous man: for such a one setteth his own soul to sale; because while he liveth he casteth away his bowels.

Sir 10:10 The physician cutteth off a long disease; and he that is to day a king tomorrow shall die.

Sir 10:11 For when a man is dead, he shall inherit creeping things, beasts, and worms.

Sir 10:12 The beginning of pride is when one departeth from Yehowah, and his heart is turned away from his Maker.

Sir 10:13 For pride is the beginning of sin, and he that hath it shall pour out abomination: and therefore Yehowah brought upon them strange calamities, and overthrew them utterly.

Sir 10:14 Yehowah hath cast down the thrones of proud princes, and set up the meek in their stead.

Sir 10:15 Yehowah hath plucked up the roots of the proud nations, and planted the lowly in their place.

Sir 10:16 Yehowah overthrew countries of the heathen, and destroyed them to the foundations of the earth.

Sir 10:17 He took some of them away, and destroyed them, and hath made their memorial to cease from the earth.

Sir 10:18 Pride was not made for men, nor furious anger for them that are born of a woman.

Sir 10:19 They that fear Yehowah are a sure seed, and they that love him an honorable plant: they that regard not the law are a dishonorable seed; they that transgress the commandments are a deceivable seed.

Sir 10:20 Among brethren he that is chief is honorable; so are they that fear Yehowah in his eyes.

Sir 10:21 The fear of Yehowah goeth before the obtaining of authority: but roughness and pride is the losing thereof.

Sir 10:22 Whether he be rich, noble, or poor, their glory is the fear of Yehowah.

Sir 10:23 It is not meet to despise the poor man that hath understanding; neither is it convenient to magnify a sinful man.

Sir 10:24 Great men, and judges, and potentates, shall be honored; yet is there none of them greater than he that feareth Yehowah.

Sir 10:25 Unto the servant that is wise shall they that are free do service: and he that hath knowledge will not grudge when he is reformed.

Sir 10:26 Be not overwise in doing thy business; and boast not thyself in the time of thy distress.

Sir 10:27 Better is he that laboreth, and aboundeth in all things, than he that boasteth himself, and wanteth bread.

Sir 10:28 My son, glorify thy soul in meekness, and give it honor according to the dignity thereof.

Sir 10:29 Who will justify him that sinneth against his own soul? and who will honor him that dishonoreth his own life?

Sir 10:30 The poor man is honored for his skill, and the rich man is honored for his riches.

Sir 10:31 He that is honored in poverty, how much more in riches? and he that is dishonorable in riches, how much more in poverty?

Sir 11:1 Wisdom lifteth up the head of him that is of low degree, and maketh him to sit among great men.

Sir 11:2 Commend not a man for his beauty; neither abhor a man for his outward appearance.

Sir 11:3 The bee is little among such as fly; but her fruit is the chief of sweet things.

Sir 11:4 Boast not of thy clothing and raiment, and exalt not thyself in the day of honor: for the works of Yehowah are wonderful, and his works among men are hidden.

Sir 11:5 Many kings have sat down upon the ground; and one that was never thought of hath worn the crown.

Sir 11:6 Many mighty men have been greatly disgraced; and the honorable delivered into other men's hands.

Sir 11:7 Blame not before thou hast examined the truth: understand first, and then rebuke.

Sir 11:8 Answer not before thou hast heard the cause: neither interrupt men in the midst of their talk.

Sir 11:9 Strive not in a matter that concerneth thee not; and sit not in judgment with sinners.

Sir 11:10 My son, meddle not with many matters: for if thou meddle much, thou shalt not be innocent; and if thou follow after, thou shalt not obtain, neither shalt thou escape by fleeing.

Sir 11:11 There is one that laboreth, and taketh pains, and maketh haste, and is so much the more behind.

Sir 11:12 Again, there is another that is slow, and hath need of help, wanting ability, and full of poverty; yet the eye of Yehowah looked upon him for good, and set him up from his low estate,

Sir 11:13 And lifted up his head from misery; so that many that saw from him is peace over all the Sir 11:14 Prosperity and adversity, life and death, poverty and riches, come of Yehowah.

Sir 11:15 Wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of the law, are of Yehowah: love, and the way of good works, are from him.

Sir 11:16 Error and darkness had their beginning together with sinners: and evil shall wax old with them that glory therein.

Sir 11:17 The gift of Yehowah remaineth with the irreverent, and his favor bringeth prosperity forever.

Sir 11:18 There is that waxeth rich by his wariness and pinching, and this his the portion of his reward:

Sir 11:19 Whereas he saith, I have found rest, and now will eat continually of my goods; and yet he knoweth not what time shall come upon him, and that he must leave those things to others, and die.

Sir 11:20 Be steadfast in thy covenant, and be conversant therein, and wax old in thy work.

Sir 11:21 Marvel not at the works of sinners; but trust in Yehowah, and abide in thy labor: for it is an easy thing in the sight of Yehowah on the sudden to make a poor man rich.

Sir 11:22 The blessing of Yehowah is in the reward of the reverent, and suddenly he maketh his blessing flourish.

Sir 11:23 Say not, What profit is there of my service? and what good things shall I have hereafter?

Sir 11:24 Again, say not, I have enough, and possess many things, and what evil shall I have hereafter?

Sir 11:25 In the day of prosperity there is a forgetfulness of affliction: and in the day of affliction there is no more remembrance of prosperity.

Sir 11:26 For it is an easy thing unto Yehowah in the day of death to reward a man according to his ways.

Sir 11:27 The affliction of an hour maketh a man forget pleasure: and in his end his deeds shall be discovered.

Sir 11:28 Judge none blessed before his death: for a man shall be known in his children.

Sir 11:29 Bring not every man into thine house: for the deceitful man hath many trains.

Sir 11:30 Like as a partridge taken [and kept] in a cage, so is the heart of the proud; and like as a spy, watcheth he for thy fall:

Sir 11:31 For he lieth in wait, and turneth good into evil, and in things worthy praise will lay blame upon thee.

Sir 11:32 Of a spark of fire a heap of coals is kindled: and a sinful man layeth wait for blood.

Sir 11:33 Take heed of a mischievous man, for he worketh wickedness; lest he bring upon thee a perpetual blot.

Sir 11:34 Receive a stranger into thine house, and he will disturb thee, and turn thee out of thine own.

Sir 12:1 When thou wilt do good know to whom thou doest it; so shalt thou be thanked for thy benefits.

Sir 12:2 Do good to the reverent man, and thou shalt find a recompense; and if not from him, yet from the Most High.

Sir 12:3 There can no good come to him that is always occupied in evil, nor to him that giveth no alms.

Sir 12:4 Give to the reverent man, and help not a sinner.

Sir 12:5 Do well unto him that is lowly, but give not to the irreverent: hold back thy bread, and give it not unto him, lest he overmaster thee thereby: for [else] thou shalt receive twice as much evil for all the good thou shalt have done unto him.

Sir 12:6 For the Most High hateth sinners, and will repay vengeance unto the irreverent, and keepeth them against the mighty day of their punishment.

Sir 12:7 Give unto the good, and help not the sinner.

Sir 12:8 A friend cannot be known in prosperity: and an enemy cannot be hidden in adversity.

Sir 12:9 In the prosperity of a man enemies will be grieved: but in his adversity even a friend will depart.

Sir 12:10 Never trust thine enemy: for like as iron rusteth, so is his wickedness.

Sir 12:11 Though he humble himself, and go crouching, yet take good heed and beware of him, and thou shalt be unto him as if thou hadst wiped a lookingglass, and thou shalt know that his rust hath not been altogether wiped away.

Sir 12:12 Set him not by thee, lest, when he hath overthrown thee, he stand up in thy place; neither let him sit at thy right hand, lest he seek to take thy seat, and thou at the last remember my words, and be pricked therewith.

Sir 12:13 Who will pity a charmer that is bitten with a serpent, or any such as come nigh wild beasts?

Sir 12:14 So one that goeth to a sinner, and is defiled with him in his sins, who will pity?

Sir 12:15 For a while he will abide with thee, but if thou begin to fall, he will not tarry.

Sir 12:16 An enemy speaketh sweetly with his lips, but in his heart he imagineth how to throw thee into a pit: he will weep with his eyes, but if he find opportunity, he will not be satisfied with blood.

Sir 12:17 If adversity come upon thee, thou shalt find him there first; and though he pretend to help thee, yet shall he undermine thee.

Sir 12:18 He will shake his head, and clap his hands, and whisper much, and change his countenance.

Sir 13:1 He that toucheth pitch shall be defiled therewith; and he that hath fellowship with a proud man shall be like unto him.

Sir 13:2 Burden not thyself above thy power while thou livest; and have no fellowship with one that is mightier and richer than thyself: for how agree the kettle and the earthen pot together? for if the one be smitten against the other, it shall be broken.

Sir 13:3 The rich man hath done wrong, and yet he threateneth withal: the poor is wronged, and he must intreat also.

Sir 13:4 If thou be for his profit, he will use thee: but if thou have nothing, he will forsake thee.

Sir 13:5 If thou have anything, he will live with thee: yea, he will make thee bare, and will not be sorry for it.

Sir 13:6 If he have need of thee, he will deceive thee, and smile upon thee, and put thee in hope; he will speak thee fair, and say, What wantest thou?

Sir 13:7 And he will shame thee by his meats, until he have drawn thee dry twice or thrice, and at the last he will laugh thee to scorn afterward, when he seeth thee, he will forsake thee, and shake his head at thee.

Sir 13:8 Beware that thou be not deceived and brought down in thy jollity.

Sir 13:9 If thou be invited of a mighty man, withdraw thyself, and so much the more will he invite thee.

Sir 13:10 Press thou not upon him, lest thou be put back; stand not far off, lest thou be forgotten.

Sir 13:11 Affect not to be made equal unto him in talk, and believe not his many words: for with much communication will he tempt thee, and smiling upon thee will get out thy secrets:

Sir 13:12 But cruelly he will lay up thy words, and will not spare to do thee hurt, and to put thee in prison.

Sir 13:13 Observe, and take good heed, for thou walkest in peril of thy overthrowing: when thou hearest these things, awake in thy sleep.

Sir 13:14 Love Yehowah all thy life, and call upon him for thy salvation.

Sir 13:15 Every beast loveth his like, and every man loveth his neighbor.

Sir 13:16 All flesh consorteth according to kind, and a man will cleave to his like.

Sir 13:17 What fellowship hath the wolf with the lamb? so the sinner with the reverent.

Sir 13:18 What agreement is there between the hyena and a dog? and what peace between the rich and the poor?

Sir 13:19 As the wild ass is the lion's prey in the wilderness: so the rich eat up the poor.

Sir 13:20 As the proud hate humility: so doth the rich abhor the poor.

Sir 13:21 A rich man beginning to fall is held up of his friends: but a poor man being down is thrust away by his friends.

Sir 13:22 When a rich man is fallen, he hath many helpers: he speaketh things not to be spoken, and yet men justify him: the poor man slipped, and yet they rebuked him too; he spake wisely, and could have no place.

Sir 13:23 When a rich man speaketh, every man holdeth his tongue, and, look, what he saith, they extol it to the clouds: but if the poor man speak, they say, What fellow is this? and if he stumble, they will help to overthrow him.

Sir 13:24 Riches are good unto him that hath no sin, and poverty is evil in the mouth of the irreverent.

Sir 13:25 The heart of a man changeth his countenance, whether it be for good or evil: and a merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.

Sir 13:26 A cheerful countenance is a token of a heart that is in prosperity; and the finding out of parables is a wearisome labor of the mind.

Sir 14:1 Blessed is the man that hath not slipped with his mouth, and is not pricked with the multitude of sins.

Sir 14:2 Blessed is he whose conscience hath not condemned him, and who is not fallen from his hope in Yehowah.

Sir 14:3 Riches are not comely for a niggard: and what should an envious man do with money?

Sir 14:4 He that gathereth by defrauding his own soul gathereth for others, that shall spend his goods riotously.

Sir 14:5 He that is evil to himself, to whom will he be good? he shall not take pleasure in his goods.

Sir 14:6 There is none worse than he that envieth himself; and this is a recompense of his wickedness.

Sir 14:7 And if he doeth good, he doeth it unwillingly; and at the last he will declare his wickedness.

Sir 14:8 The envious man hath a wicked eye; he turneth away his face, and despiseth men.

Sir 14:9 A covetous man's eye is not satisfied with his portion; and the iniquity of the wicked drieth up his soul.

Sir 14:10 A wicked eye envieth [his] bread, and he is a niggard at his table.

Sir 14:11 My son, according to thy ability do good to thyself, and give Yehowah his due offering.

Sir 14:12 Remember that death will not be long in coming, and that the covenant of the grave is not shewed unto thee.

Sir 14:13 Do good unto thy friend before thou die, and according to thy ability stretch out thy hand and give to him.

Sir 14:14 Defraud not thyself of the good day, and let not the part of a good desire overpass thee.

Sir 14:15 Shalt thou not leave thy travails unto another? and thy labors to be divided by lot?

Sir 14:16 Give, and take, and sanctify thy soul; for there is no seeking of dainties in the grave.

Sir 14:17 All flesh waxeth old as a garment: for the covenant from the beginning is, Thou shalt die the death.

Sir 14:18 As of the green leaves on a thick tree, some fall, and some grow; so is the generation of flesh and blood, one cometh to an end, and another is born.

Sir 14:19 Every work rotteth and consumeth away, and the worker thereof shall go withal.

Sir 14:20 Blessed is the man that doth meditate good things in wisdom, and that reasoneth of holy things by his understanding. ing.

Sir 14:21 He that considereth her ways in his heart shall also have understanding in her secrets.

Sir 14:22 Go after her as one that traceth, and lie in wait in her ways.

Sir 14:23 He that prieth in at her windows shall also hearken at her doors.

Sir 14:24 He that doth lodge near her house shall also fasten a pin in her walls.

Sir 14:25 He shall pitch his tent nigh unto her, and shall lodge in a lodging where good things are.

Sir 14:26 He shall set his children under her shelter, and shall lodge under her branches.

Sir 14:27 By her he shall be covered from heat, and in her glory shall he dwell.

Sir 15:1 He that feareth Yehowah will do good, and he that hath the knowledge of the law shall obtain her.

Sir 15:2 And as a mother shall she meet him, and receive him as a wife married of a virgin.

Sir 15:3 With the bread of understanding shall she feed him, and give him the water of wisdom to drink.

Sir 15:4 He shall be stayed upon her, and shall not be moved; and shall rely upon her, and shall not be confounded.

Sir 15:5 She shall exalt him above his neighbors, and in the midst of the congregation shall she open his mouth.

Sir 15:6 He shall find joy and a crown of gladness, and she shall cause him to inherit an everlasting name.

Sir 15:7 But foolish men shall not attain unto her, and sinners shall not see her.

Sir 15:8 For she is far from pride, and men that are liars cannot remember her.

Sir 15:9 Praise is not seemly in the mouth of a sinner, for it was not sent him of Yehowah.

Sir 15:10 For praise shall be uttered in wisdom, and Yehowah will prosper it.

Sir 15:11 Say not thou, It is through Yehowah that I fell away: for thou oughtest not to do the things that he hateth.

Sir 15:12 Say not thou, He hath caused me to err: for he hath no need of the sinful man.

Sir 15:13 Yehowah hateth all abomination; and they that fear Yehowah love it not.

Sir 15:14 He himself made man from the beginning, and left him in the hand of his counsel;

Sir 15:15 If thou wilt, to keep the commandments, and to perform acceptable faithfulness.

Sir 15:16 He hath set fire and water before thee: stretch forth thy hand unto whether thou wilt.

Sir 15:17 Before man is life and death; and whether him liketh shall be given him.

Sir 15:18 For the wisdom of Yehowah is great, and he is mighty in power, and beholdeth all things:

Sir 15:19 And his eyes are upon them that fear him, and he knoweth every work of man.

Sir 15:20 He hath commanded no man to do wickedly, neither hath he given any man license to sin.

Sir 16:1 Desire not a multitude of unprofitable children, neither delight in irreverent sons.

Sir 16:2 Though they multiply, rejoice not in them, except the fear of Yehowah be with them.

Sir 16:3 Trust not thou in their life, neither respect their multitude: for one that is just is better than a thousand; and better it is to die without children, than to have them that are irreverent.

Sir 16:4 For by one that hath understanding shall the city be replenished: but the kindred of the wicked shall speedily become desolate.

Sir 16:5 Many such things have I seen with mine eyes, and mine ear hath heard greater things than these.

Sir 16:6 In the congregation of the irreverent shall a fire be kindled; and in a rebellious nation wrath is set on fire.

Sir 16:7 He was not pacified toward the old giants, who fell away in the strength of their foolishness.

Sir 16:8 Neither spared he the place where Lot sojourned, but abhorred them for their pride.

Sir 16:9 He pitied not the people of perdition, who were taken away in their sins:

Sir 16:10 Nor the six hundred thousand footmen, who were gathered together in the hardness of their hearts.

Sir 16:11 And if there be one stiffnecked among the people, it is marvel if he escape unpunished: for mercy and wrath are with him; he is mighty to forgive, and to pour out displeasure.

Sir 16:12 As his mercy is great, so is his correction also: he judgeth a man according to his works

Sir 16:13 The sinner shall not escape with his spoils: and the patience of the reverent shall not be frustrate.

Sir 16:14 Make way for every work of mercy: for every man shall find according to his works.

Sir 16:15 Yehowah hardened Pharaoh, that he should not know him, that his powerful works might be known to the world.

Sir 16:16 His mercy is manifest to every creature; and he hath separated his light from the darkness with an adamant.

Sir 16:17 Say not thou, I will hide myself from Yehowah: shall any remember me from above? I shall not be remembered among so many people: for what is my soul among such an infinite number of creatures?

Sir 16:18 Behold, the heaven, and the heaven of heavens, the deep, and the earth, and all that therein is, shall be moved when he shall visit.

Sir 16:19 The mountains also and foundations of the earth be shaken with trembling, when Yehowah looketh upon them.

Sir 16:20 No heart can think upon these things worthily: and who is able to conceive his ways?

Sir 16:21 It is a tempest which no man can see: for the most part of his works are hid.

Sir 16:22 Who can declare the works of his justice? or who can endure them? for his covenant is afar off, and the trial of all things is in the end.

Sir 16:23 He that wanteth understanding will think upon vain things: and a foolish man erring imagineth follies.

Sir 16:24 by son, hearken unto me, and learn knowledge, and mark my words with thy heart.

Sir 16:25 I will shew forth doctrine in weight, and declare his knowledge exactly.

Sir 16:26 The works of Yehowah are done in judgment from the beginning: and from the time he made them he disposed the parts thereof.

Sir 16:27 He garnished his works forever, and in his hand are the chief of them unto all generations: they neither labor, nor are weary, nor cease from their works.

Sir 16:28 None of them hindereth another, and they shall never disobey his word.

Sir 16:29 After this Yehowah looked upon the earth, and filled it with his blessings.

Sir 16:30 With all manner of living things hath he covered the face thereof; and they shall return into it again.

Sir 17:1 Yehowah created man of the earth, and turned him into it again.

Sir 17:2 He gave them few days, and a short time, and power also over the things therein.

Sir 17:3 He endued them with strength by themselves, and made them according to his image,

Sir 17:4 And put the fear of man upon all flesh, and gave him dominion over beasts and fowls.

Sir 17:5 They received the use of the five operations of Yehowah, and in the sixth place he imparted them understanding, and in the seventh speech, an interpreter of the cogitations thereof.]

Sir 17:6 Counsel, and a tongue, and eyes, ears, and a heart, gave he them to understand.

Sir 17:7 Withal he filled them with the knowledge of understanding, and shewed them good and evil.

Sir 17:8 He set his eye upon their hearts, that he might shew them the greatness of his works.

Sir 17:9 He gave them to glory in his marvelous acts forever, that they might declare his works with understanding.

Sir 17:10 And the elect shall praise his holy name.

Sir 17:11 Beside this he gave them knowledge, and the law of life for a heritage.

Sir 17:12 He made an everlasting covenant with them, and shewed them his judgments.

Sir 17:13 Their eyes saw the majesty of his glory, and their ears heard his glorious voice.

Sir 17:14 And he said unto them, Beware of all unrighteousness; and he gave every man commandment concerning his neighbor.

Sir 17:15 Their ways are ever before him, and shall not be hid from his eyes.

Sir 17:16 Every man from his youth is given to evil; neither could they make to themselves fleshy hearts for stony.

Sir 17:17 For in the division of the nations of the whole earth he set a ruler over every people; but Israel is Yehowah's portion:

Sir 17:18 Whom, being his firstborn, he nourisheth with discipline, and giving him the light of his love doth not forsake him.

Sir 17:19 Therefore all their works are as the sun before him, and his eyes are continually upon their ways.

Sir 17:20 None of their unrighteous deeds are hid from him, but all their sins are before Yehowah

Sir 17:21 But Yehowah being gracious and knowing his workmanship, neither left nor forsook them, but spared them.

Sir 17:22 The alms of a man is as a signet with him, and he will keep the good deeds of man as the apple of the eye, and give repentance to his sons and daughters.

Sir 17:23 Afterwards he will rise up and reward them, and render their recompense upon their heads.

Sir 17:24 But unto them that repent, he granted them return, and comforted those that failed in patience.

Sir 17:25 Return unto Yehowah, and forsake thy sins, make thy prayer before his face, and offend less.

Sir 17:26 Turn again to the Most High, and turn away from iniquity: for he will lead thee out of darkness into the light of health, and hate thou abomination vehemently.

Sir 17:27 Who shall praise the Most High in the grave, instead of them which live and give thanks?

Sir 17:28 Thanksgiving perisheth from the dead, as from one that is not: the living and sound in heart shall praise Yehowah.

Sir 17:29 How great is the lovingkindness of Yehowah our Divine One, and his compassion unto such as turn unto him in holiness!

Sir 17:30 For all things cannot be in men, because the son of man is not immortal.

Sir 17:31 What is brighter than the sun? yet the light thereof faileth; and flesh and blood will imagine evil.

Sir 17:32 He vieweth the power of the height of heaven; and all men are but earth and ashes.

Sir 18:1 He that liveth forever Hath created all things in general.

Sir 18:2 Yehowah only is righteous, and there is none other but he,

Sir 18:3 Who governeth the world with the palm of his hand, and all things obey his will: for he is the King of all, by his power dividing holy things among them from profane.

Sir 18:4 To whom hath he given power to declare his works? and who shall find out his noble acts?

Sir 18:5 Who shall number the strength of his majesty? and who shall also tell out his mercies?

Sir 18:6 As for the wondrous works of Yehowah, there may nothing be taken from them, neither may anything be put unto them, neither can the ground of them be found out.

Sir 18:7 When a man hath done, then he beginneth; and when he leaveth off, then he shall be doubtful.

Sir 18:8 What is man, and whereto serveth he? what is his good, and what is his evil?

Sir 18:9 The number of a man's days at the most are a hundred years.

Sir 18:10 As a drop of water unto the sea, and a gravelstone in comparison of the sand; so are a thousand years to the days of eternity.

Sir 18:11 Therefore is Yehowah patient with them, and poureth forth his mercy upon them.

Sir 18:12 He saw and perceived their end to be evil; therefore he multiplied his compassion.

Sir 18:13 The mercy of man is toward his neighbor; but the mercy of Yehowah is upon all flesh: he reproveth, and nurtureth, and teacheth and bringeth again, as a shepherd his flock.

Sir 18:14 He hath mercy on them that receive discipline, and that diligently seek after his judgments.

Sir 18:15 My son, blemish not thy good deeds, neither use uncomfortable words when thou givest anything.

Sir 18:16 Shall not the dew asswage the heat? so is a word better than a gift.

Sir 18:17 Lo, is not a word better than a gift? but both are with a gracious man.

Sir 18:18 A fool will upbraid churlishly, and a gift of the envious consumeth the eyes.

Sir 18:19 Learn before thou speak, and use physick or ever thou be sick.

Sir 18:20 Before judgment examine thyself, and in the day of visitation thou shalt find mercy.

Sir 18:21 Humble thyself before thou be sick, and in the time of sins shew repentance.

Sir 18:22 Let nothing hinder thee to pay thy vow in due time, and defer not until death to be justified.

Sir 18:23 Before thou prayest, prepare thyself; and be not as one that tempteth Yehowah.

Sir 18:24 Think upon the wrath that shall be at the end, and the time of vengeance, when he shall turn away his face.

Sir 18:25 When thou hast enough, remember the time of hunger: and when thou art rich, think upon poverty and need.

Sir 18:26 From the morning until the evening the time is changed, and all things are soon done before Yehowah.

Sir 18:27 A wise man will fear in every thing, and in the day of sinning he will beware of offense: but a fool will not observe time.

Sir 18:28 Every man of understanding knoweth wisdom, and will give praise unto him that found her.

Sir 18:29 They that were of understanding in sayings became also wise themselves, and poured forth exquisite parables.

Sir 18:30 Go not after thy lusts, but refrain thyself from thine appetites.

Sir 18:31 If thou givest thy soul the desires that please her, she will make thee a laughingstock to thine enemies that malign thee.

Sir 18:32 Take not pleasure in much good cheer, neither be tied to the expense thereof.

Sir 18:33 Be not made a beggar by banqueting upon borrowing, when thou hast nothing in thy purse: for thou shalt lie in wait for thine own life, and be talked on.

Sir 19:1 A laboring man that A is given to drunkenness shall not be rich: and he that contemneth small things shall fall by little and little.

Sir 19:2 Wine and women will make men of understanding to fall away: and he that cleaveth to harlots will become impudent.

Sir 19:3 Moths and worms shall have him to heritage, and a bold man shall be taken away.

Sir 19:4 He that is hasty to give credit is lightminded; and he that sinneth shall offend against his own soul.

Sir 19:5 Whoso taketh pleasure in wickedness shall be condemned: but he that resisteth pleasures crowneth his life.

Sir 19:6 He that can rule his tongue shall live without strife; and he that hateth babbling shall have less evil.

Sir 19:7 Rehearse not unto another that which is told unto thee, and thou shalt fare never the worse.

Sir 19:8 Whether it be to friend or foe, talk not of other men's lives; and if thou canst without offense, reveal them not.

Sir 19:9 For he heard and observed thee, and when time cometh he will hate thee.

Sir 19:10 If thou hast heard a word, let it die with thee; and be bold, it will not burst thee.

Sir 19:11 A fool travaileth with a word, as a woman in labor of a child.

Sir 19:12 As an arrow that sticketh in a man's thigh, so is a word within a fool's belly.

Sir 19:13 Admonish a friend, it may be he hath not done it: and if he have done it, that he do it no more.

Sir 19:14 Admonish thy friend, it may be he hath not said it: and if he have, that he speak it not again.

Sir 19:15 Admonish a friend: for many times it is a slander, and believe not every tale.

Sir 19:16 There is one that slippeth in his speech, but not from his heart; and who is he that hath not offended with his tongue?

Sir 19:17 Admonish thy neighbor before thou threaten him; and not being angry, give place to the law of the Most High.

Sir 19:18 The fear of Yehowah is the first step to be accepted [of him,] and wisdom obtaineth his love.

Sir 19:19 The knowledge of the commandments of Yehowah is the doctrine of life: and they that do things that please him shall receive the fruit of the tree of immortality.

Sir 19:20 The fear of Yehowah is all wisdom; and in all wisdom is the performance of the law, and the knowledge of his omnipotency.

Sir 19:21 If a servant say to his master, I will not do as it pleaseth thee; though afterward he do it, he angereth him that nourisheth him.

Sir 19:22 The knowledge of wickedness is not wisdom, neither at any time the counsel of sinners prudence.

Sir 19:23 There is a wickedness, and the same an abomination; and there is a fool wanting in wisdom.

Sir 19:24 He that hath small understanding, and feareth Yehowah, is better than one that hath much wisdom, and transgresseth the law of the Most High.

Sir 19:25 There is an exquisite subtlety, and the same is unjust; and there is one that turneth aside to make judgment appear; and there is a wise man that justifieth in judgment.

Sir 19:26 There is a wicked man that hangeth down his head sadly; but inwardly he is full of deceit,

Sir 19:27 Casting down his countenance, and making as if he heard not: where he is not known, he will do thee a mischief before thou be aware.

Sir 19:28 And if for want of power he be hindered from sinning, yet when he findeth opportunity he will do evil.

Sir 19:29 A man may be known by his look, and one that hath understanding by his countenance, when thou meetest him.

Sir 19:30 A man's attire, and excessive laughter, and gait, shew what he is.

Sir 20:1 There is a reproof that is not comely: again, some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wise.

Sir 20:2 It is much better to reprove, than to be angry secretly: and he that confesseth his fault shall be preserved from hurt.

Sir 20:3 How good is it, when thou art reproved, to shew repentance! for so shalt thou escape wilful sin.

Sir 20:4 As is the lust of an eunuch to deflower a virgin; so is he that executeth judgment with violence.

Sir 20:5 There is one that keepeth silence, and is found wise: and another by much babbling becometh hateful.

Sir 20:6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not to answer: and some keepeth silence, knowing his time.

Sir 20:7 A wise man will hold his tongue till he see opportunity: but a babbler and a fool will regard no time.

Sir 20:8 He that useth many words shall be abhorred; and he that taketh to himself authority therein shall be hated.

Sir 20:9 There is a sinner that hath good success in evil things; and there is a gain that turneth to loss.

Sir 20:10 There is a gift that shall not profit thee; and there is a gift whose recompense is double.

Sir 20:11 There is an abasement because of glory; and there is that lifteth up his head from a low estate.

Sir 20:12 There is that buyeth much for a little, and repayeth it sevenfold.

Sir 20:13 A wise man by his words maketh him beloved: but the graces of fools shall be poured out.

Sir 20:14 The gift of a fool shall do thee no good when thou hast it; neither yet of the envious for his necessity: for he looketh to receive many things for one.

Sir 20:15 He giveth little, and upbraideth much; he openeth his mouth like a crier; to day he lendeth, and tomorrow will he ask it again: such a one is to be hated of Yehowah and man.

Sir 20:16 The fool saith, I have no friends, I have no thank for all my good deeds, and they that eat my bread speak evil of me.

Sir 20:17 How oft, and of how many shall he be laughed to scorn! for he knoweth not aright what it is to have; and it is all one unto him as if he had it not.

Sir 20:18 To slip upon a pavement is better than to slip with the tongue: so the fall of the wicked shall come speedily.

Sir 20:19 An unseasonable tale will always be in the mouth of the unwise.

Sir 20:20 A wise sentence shall be rejected when it cometh out of a fool's mouth; for he will not speak it in due season.

Sir 20:21 There is that is hindered from sinning through want: and when he taketh rest, he shall not be troubled.

Sir 20:22 There is that destroyeth his own soul through bashfulness, and by accepting of persons overthroweth himself.

Sir 20:23 There is that for bashfulness promiseth to his friend, and maketh him his enemy for nothing.

Sir 20:24 A lie is a foul blot in a man, yet it is continually in the mouth of the untaught.

Sir 20:25 A thief is better than a man that is accustomed to lie: but they both shall have destruction to heritage.

Sir 20:26 The disposition of a liar is dishonorable, and his shame is ever with him.

Sir 20:27 A wise man shall promote himself to honor with his words: and he that hath understanding will please great men.

Sir 20:28 He that tilleth his land shall increase his heap: and he that pleaseth great men shall get pardon for iniquity.

Sir 20:29 Presents and gifts blind the eyes of the wise, and stop up his mouth that he cannot reprove.

Sir 20:30 Wisdom that is hid, and treasure that is hoarded up, what profit is in them both?

Sir 20:31 Better is he that hideth his folly than a man that hideth his wisdom.

Sir 20:32 Necessary patience in seeking ing Yehowah is better than he that leadeth his life without a guide.

Sir 21:1 My son, hast thou sinned? do so no more, but ask pardon for thy former sins.

Sir 21:2 Flee from sin as from the face of a serpent: for if thou comest too near it, it will bite thee: the teeth thereof are as the teeth of a lion, slaying the souls of men.

Sir 21:3 All iniquity is as a two edged sword, the wounds whereof cannot be healed.

Sir 21:4 To terrify and do wrong will waste riches: thus the house of proud men shall be made desolate.

Sir 21:5 A prayer out of a poor man's mouth reacheth to the ears of Yehowah, and his judgment cometh speedily.

Sir 21:6 He that hateth to be reproved is in the way of sinners: but he that feareth Yehowah will repent from his heart.

Sir 21:7 An eloquent man is known far and near; but a man of understanding knoweth when he slippeth.

Sir 21:8 He that buildeth his house with other men's money is like one that gathereth himself stones for the tomb of his burial.

Sir 21:9 The congregation of the wicked is like tow wrapped together: and the end of them is a flame of fire to destroy them.

Sir 21:10 The way of sinners is made plain with stones, but at the end thereof is the pit of hell.

Sir 21:11 He that keepeth the law of Yehowah getteth the understanding thereof: and the perfection of the fear of Yehowah is wisdom.

Sir 21:12 He that is not wise will not be taught: but there is a wisdom which multiplieth bitterness.

Sir 21:13 The knowledge of a wise man shall abound like a flood: and his counsel is like a pure fountain of life.

Sir 21:14 The inner parts of a fool are like a broken vessel, and he will hold no knowledge as long as he liveth.

Sir 21:15 If a skillful man hear a wise word, he will commend it, and add unto it: but as soon as one of no understanding heareth it, it displeaseth him, and he casteth it behind his back.

Sir 21:16 The talking of a fool is like a burden in the way: but grace shall be found in the lips of the wise.

Sir 21:17 They enquire at the mouth of the wise man in the congregation, and they shall ponder his words in their heart.

Sir 21:18 As is a house that is destroyed, so is wisdom to a fool: and the knowledge of the unwise is as talk without sense.

Sir 21:19 Doctrine unto fools is as fetters on the feet, and like manacles on the right hand.

Sir 21:20 A fool lifteth up his voice with laughter; but a wise man doth scarce smile a little.

Sir 21:21 Learning is unto a wise man as an ornament of gold, and like a bracelet upon his right arm.

Sir 21:22 A foolish man's foot is soon in his [neighbor's] house: but a man of experience is ashamed of him.

Sir 21:23 A fool will peep in at the door into the house: but he that is well nurtured will stand without.

Sir 21:24 It is the rudeness of a man to hearken at the door: but a wise man will be grieved with the disgrace.

Sir 21:25 The lips of talkers will be telling such things as pertain not unto them: but the words of such as have understanding are weighed in the balance.

Sir 21:26 The heart of fools is in their mouth: but the mouth of the wise is in their heart.

Sir 21:27 When the irreverent curseth Satan, he curseth his own soul.

Sir 21:28 A whisperer defileth his own soul, and is hated wheresoever he dwelleth.

Sir 22:1 A slothful man is compared to a filthy stone, and every one will hiss him out to his disgrace.

Sir 22:2 A slothful man is compared to the filth of a dunghill: every man that takes it up will shake his hand.

Sir 22:3 An evilnurtured man is the dishonor of his father that begat him: and a [foolish] daughter is born to his loss.

Sir 22:4 A wise daughter shall bring an inheritance to her husband: but she that liveth dishonestly is her father's heaviness.

Sir 22:5 She that is bold dishonoreth both her father and her husband, but they both shall despise her.

Sir 22:6 A tale out of season [is as] music in mourning: but stripes and correction of wisdom are never out of time.

Sir 22:7 Whoso teacheth a fool is as one that glueth a potsherd together, and as he that waketh one from a sound sleep.

Sir 22:8 He that telleth a tale to a fool speaketh to one in a slumber: when he hath told his tale, he will say, What is the matter?

Sir 22:9 If children live honestly, and have wherewithal, they shall cover the baseness of their parents.

Sir 22:10 But children, being haughty, through disdain and want of nurture do stain the nobility of their kindred.

Sir 22:11 Weep for the dead, for he hath lost the light: and weep for the fool, for he wanteth understanding: make little weeping for the dead, for he is at rest: but the life of the fool is worse than death.

Sir 22:12 Seven days do men mourn for him that is dead; but for a fool and an irreverent man all the days of his life.

Sir 22:13 Talk not much with a fool, and go not to him that hath no understanding: beware of him, lest thou have trouble, and thou shalt never be defiled with his fooleries: depart from him, and thou shalt find rest, and never be disquieted with madness.

Sir 22:14 What is heavier than lead? and what is the name thereof, but a fool?

Sir 22:15 Sand, and salt, and a mass of iron, is easier to bear, than a man without understanding.

Sir 22:16 As timber girt and bound together in a building cannot be loosed with shaking: so the heart that is stablished by advised counsel shall fear at no time.

Sir 22:17 A heart settled upon a thought of understanding is as a fair plaistering on the wall of a gallery.

Sir 22:18 Pales set on an high place will never stand against the wind: so a fearful heart in the imagination of a fool cannot stand against any fear.

Sir 22:19 He that pricketh the eye will make tears to fall: and he that pricketh the heart maketh it to shew her knowledge.

Sir 22:20 Whoso casteth a stone at the birds frayeth them away: and he that upbraideth his friend breaketh friendship.

Sir 22:21 Though thou drewest a sword at thy friend, yet despair not: for there may be a returning [to favor.]

Sir 22:22 If thou hast opened thy mouth against thy friend, fear not; for there may be a reconciliation: except for upbraiding, or pride, or disclosing of secrets, or a treacherous wound: for for these things every friend will depart.

Sir 22:23 Be faithful to thy neighbor in his poverty, that thou mayest rejoice in his prosperity: abide steadfast unto him in the time of his trouble, that thou mayest be heir with him in his heritage: for a mean estate is not always to be contemned: nor the rich that is foolish to be had in admiration.

Sir 22:24 As the vapor and smoke of a furnace goeth before the fire; so reviling before blood.

Sir 22:25 I will not be ashamed to defend a friend; neither will I hide myself from him.

Sir 22:26 And if any evil happen unto me by him, every one that heareth it will beware of him.

Sir 22:27 Who shall set a watch before my mouth, and a seal of wisdom upon my lips, that I fall not suddenly by them, and that my tongue destroy me not?

Sir 23:1 O Yehowah, Father and Governor of all my whole life, leave me not to their counsels, and let me not fall by them.

Sir 23:2 Who will set scourges over my thoughts, and the discipline of wisdom over mine heart? that they spare me not for mine ignorances, and it pass not by my sins:

Sir 23:3 Lest mine ignorances increase, and my sins abound to my destruction, and I fall before mine adversaries, and mine enemy rejoice over me, whose hope is far from thy mercy.

Sir 23:4 O Yehowah, Father and Mighty One of my life, give me not a proud look, but turn away from thy servants always a haughty mind.

Sir 23:5 Turn away from me vain hopes and concupiscence, and thou shalt hold him up that is desirous always to serve thee.

Sir 23:6 Let not the greediness of the belly nor lust of the flesh take hold of me; and give not over me thy servant into an impudent mind.

Sir 23:7 Hear, O ye children, the discipline of the mouth: he that keepeth it shall never be taken in his lips.

Sir 23:8 The sinner shall be left in his foolishness: both the evil speaker and the proud shall fall thereby.

Sir 23:9 Accustom not thy mouth to swearing; neither use thyself to the naming of the Holy One.

Sir 23:10 For as a servant that is continually beaten shall not be without a blue mark: so he that sweareth and nameth Yehowah continually shall not be faultless.

Sir 23:11 A man that useth much swearing shall be filled with iniquity, and the plague shall never depart from his house: if he shall offend, his sin shall be upon him: and if he acknowledge not his sin, he maketh a double offense: and if he swear in vain, he shall not be innocent, but his house shall be full of calamities.

Sir 23:12 There is a word that is clothed about with death: Yehowah grant that it be not found in the heritage of Jacob; for all such things shall be far from the reverent, and they shall not wallow in their sins.

Sir 23:13 Use not thy mouth to intemperate swearing, for therein is the word of sin.

Sir 23:14 Remember thy father and thy mother, when thou sittest among great men. Be not forgetful before them, and so thou by thy custom become a fool, and wish that thou hadst not been born, and curse they day of thy nativity.

Sir 23:15 The man that is accustomed to opprobrious words will never be reformed all the days of his life.

Sir 23:16 Two sorts of men multiply sin, and the third will bring wrath: a hot mind is as a burning fire, it will never be quenched till it be consumed: a fornicator in the body of his flesh will never cease till he hath kindled a fire.

Sir 23:17 All bread is sweet to a whoremonger, he will not leave off till he die.

Sir 23:18 A man that breaketh wedlock, saying thus in his heart, Who seeth me? I am compassed about with darkness, the walls cover me, and no body seeth me; what need I to fear? the Most High will not remember my sins:

Sir 23:19 Such a man only feareth the eyes of men, and knoweth not that the eyes of Yehowah are ten thousand times brighter than the sun, beholding all the ways of men, and considering the most secret parts.

Sir 23:20 He knew all things ere ever they were created; so also after they were perfected he looked upon them all.

Sir 23:21 This man shall be punished in the streets of the city, and where he suspecteth not he shall be taken.

Sir 23:22 Thus shall it go also with the wife that leaveth her husband, and bringeth in an heir by another.

Sir 23:23 For first, she hath disobeyed the law of the Most High; and secondly, she hath trespassed against her own husband; and thirdly, she hath played the whore in adultery, and brought children by another man.

Sir 23:24 She shall be brought out into the congregation, and inquisition shall be made of her children.

Sir 23:25 Her children shall not take root, and her branches shall bring forth no fruit.

Sir 23:26 She shall leave her memory to be cursed, and her reproach shall not be blotted out.

Sir 23:27 And they that remain shall know that there is nothing better than the fear of Yehowah, and that there is nothing sweeter than to take heed unto the commandments of Yehowah.

Sir 23:28 It is great glory to follow Yehowah, and to be received of him is long life.

Sir 24:1 Wisdom shall praise herself, and shall glory in the midst of her people.

Sir 24:2 In the congregation of the Most High shall she open her mouth, and triumph before his power.

Sir 24:3 I came out of the mouth of the Most High, and covered the earth as a cloud.

Sir 24:4 I dwelt in high places, and my throne is in a cloudy pillar.

Sir 24:5 I alone compassed the circuit of heaven, and walked in the bottom of the deep.

Sir 24:6 In the waves of the sea and in all the earth, and in every people and nation, I got a possession.

Sir 24:7 With all these I sought rest: and in whose inheritance shall I abide?

Sir 24:8 So the Creator of all things gave me a commandment, and he that made me caused my tabernacle to rest, and said, Let thy dwelling be in Jacob, and thine inheritance in Israel.

Sir 24:9 He created me from the beginning before the world, and I shall never fail.

Sir 24:10 In the holy tabernacle I served before him; and so was I established in Zion.

Sir 24:11 Likewise in the beloved city he gave me rest, and in Jerusalem was my power.

Sir 24:12 And I took root in an honorable people, even in the portion of Yehowah's inheritance.

Sir 24:13 I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus, and as a cypress tree upon the mountains of Hermon.

Sir 24:14 I was exalted like a palm tree in En-gaddi, and as a rose plant in Jericho, as a fair olive tree in a pleasant field, and grew up as a plane tree by the water.

Sir 24:15 I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon and aspalathus, and I yielded a pleasant odor like the best myrrh, as galbanum, and onyx, and sweet storax, and as the fume of frankincense in the tabernacle.

Sir 24:16 As the turpentine tree I stretched out my branches, and my branches are the branches of honor and grace.

Sir 24:17 As the vine brought I forth pleasant savor, and my flowers are the fruit of honor and riches.

Sir 24:18 I am the mother of fair love, and fear, and knowledge, and holy hope: I therefore, being eternal, am given to all my children which are named of him.

Sir 24:19 Come unto me, all ye that be desirous of me, and fill yourselves with my fruits.

Sir 24:20 For my memorial is sweeter than honey, and mine inheritance than the honeycomb.

Sir 24:21 They that eat me shall yet be hungry, and they that drink me shall yet be thirsty.

Sir 24:22 He that obeyeth me shall never be confounded, and they that work by me shall not do amiss.

Sir 24:23 All these things are the book of the covenant of the most high Yehowah, even the law which Moses commanded for a heritage unto the congregations of Jacob.

Sir 24:24 Faint not to be strong in Yehowah; that he may confirm you, cleave unto him: for Yehowah Almighty is Yehowah alone, and beside him there is no other Savior.

Sir 24:25 He filleth all things with his wisdom, as Phison and as Tigris in the time of the new fruits.

Sir 24:26 He maketh the understanding to abound like Euphrates, and as Jordan in the time of the harvest.

Sir 24:27 He maketh the doctrine of knowledge appear as the light, and as Geon in the time of vintage.

Sir 24:28 The first man knew her not perfectly: no more shall the last find her out.

Sir 24:29 For her thoughts are more than the sea, and her counsels profounder than the great deep.

Sir 24:30 I also came out as a brook from a river, and as a conduit into a garden.

Sir 24:31 I said, I will water my best garden, and will water abundantly my garden bed: and, lo, my brook became a river, and my river became a sea.

Sir 24:32 I will yet make doctrine to shine as the morning, and will send forth her light afar off.

Sir 24:33 I will yet pour out doctrine as prophecy, and leave it to all ages forever.

Sir 24:34 Behold that I have not labored for myself only, but for all them that seek wisdom.

Sir 25:1 In three things I was beautified, and stood up beautiful both before Yehowah and men: the unity of brethren, the love of neighbors, a man and a wife that agree together.

Sir 25:2 Three sorts of men my soul hateth, and I am greatly offended at their life: a poor man that is proud, a rich man that is a liar, and an old adulterer that doateth.

Sir 25:3 If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth, how canst thou find anything in thine age?

Sir 25:4 O how comely a thing is judgment for gray hairs, and for ancient men to know counsel!

Sir 25:5 O how comely is the wisdom of old men, and understanding and counsel to men of honor.

Sir 25:6 Much experience is the crown of old men, and the fear of Yehowah is their glory.

Sir 25:7 There be nine things which I have judged in mine heart to be happy, and the tenth I will utter with my tongue: A man that hath joy of his children; and he that liveth to see the fall of his enemy:

Sir 25:8 Well is him that dwelleth with a wife of understanding, and that hath not slipped with his tongue, and that hath not served a man more unworthy than himself:

Sir 25:9 Well is him that hath found prudence, and he that speaketh in the ears of them that will hear:

Sir 25:10 O how great is he that findeth wisdom! yet is there none above him that feareth Yehowah.

Sir 25:11 But the love of Yehowah passeth all things for illumination: he that holdeth it, whereto shall he be likened?

Sir 25:12 The fear of Yehowah is the beginning of his love: and faith is the beginning of cleaving unto him.

Sir 25:13 [Give me] any plague, but the plague of the heart: and any wickedness, but the wickedness of a woman:

Sir 25:14 And any affliction, but the affliction from them that hate me: and any revenge, but the revenge of enemies.

Sir 25:15 There is no head above the head of a serpent; and there is no wrath above the wrath of an enemy.

Sir 25:16 I had rather dwell with a lion and a dragon, than to keep house with a wicked woman.

Sir 25:17 The wickedness of a woman changeth her face, and darkeneth her countenance like sackcloth.

Sir 25:18 Her husband shall sit among his neighbors; and when he heareth it shall sigh bitterly.

Sir 25:19 All wickedness is but little to the wickedness of a woman: let the portion of a sinner fall upon her.

Sir 25:20 As the climbing up a sandy way is to the feet of the aged, so is a wife full of words to a quiet man.

Sir 25:21 Stumble not at the beauty of a woman, and desire her not for pleasure.

Sir 25:22 A woman, if she maintain her husband, is full of anger, impudence, and much reproach.

Sir 25:23 A wicked woman abateth the courage, maketh a heavy countenance and a wounded heart: a woman that will not comfort her husband in distress maketh weak hands and feeble knees.

Sir 25:24 Of the woman came the beginning of sin, and through her we all die.

Sir 25:25 Give the water no passage; neither a wicked woman liberty to gad abroad.

Sir 25:26 If she go not as thou wouldest have her, cut her off from thy flesh, and give her a bill of divorce, and let her go.

Sir 26:1 Blessed is the man that hath a virtuous wife, for the number of his days shall be double.

Sir 26:2 A virtuous woman rejoiceth her husband, and he shall fulfill the years of his life in peace.

Sir 26:3 A good wife is a good portion, which shall be given in the portion of them that fear Yehowah.

Sir 26:4 Whether a man be rich or poor, if he have a good heart toward Yehowah, he shall at all times rejoice with a cheerful countenance.

Sir 26:5 There be three things that mine heart feareth; and for the fourth I was sore afraid: the slander of a city, the gathering together of an unruly multitude, and a false accusation: all these are worse than death.

Sir 26:6 But a grief of heart and sorrow is a woman that is jealous over another woman, and a scourge of the tongue which communicateth with all.

Sir 26:7 An evil wife is a yoke shaken to and fro: he that hath hold of her is as though he held a scorpion.

Sir 26:8 A drunken woman and a gadder abroad causeth great anger, and she will not cover her own shame.

Sir 26:9 The whoredom of a woman may be known in her haughty looks and eyelids.

Sir 26:10 If thy daughter be shameless, keep her in straitly, lest she abuse herself through overmuch liberty.

Sir 26:11 Watch over an impudent eye: and marvel not if she trespass against thee.

Sir 26:12 She will open her mouth, as a thirsty traveler when he hath found a fountain, and drink of every water near her: by every hedge will she sit down, and open her quiver against every arrow.

Sir 26:13 The grace of a wife delighteth her husband, and her discretion will fatten his bones.

Sir 26:14 A silent and loving woman is a gift of Yehowah; and there is nothing so much worth as a mind well instructed.

Sir 26:15 A shamefaced and faithful woman is a double grace, and her continent mind cannot be valued.

Sir 26:16 As the sun when it ariseth in the high heaven; so is the beauty of a good wife in the ordering of her house.

Sir 26:17 As the clear light is upon the holy candlestick; so is the beauty of the face in ripe age.

Sir 26:18 As the golden pillars are upon the sockets of silver; so are the fair feet with a constant heart.

Sir 26:19 My son, keep the flower of thine age sound; and give not thy strength to strangers.

Sir 26:20 When thou hast gotten a fruitful possession through all the field, sow it with thine own seed, trusting in the goodness of thy stock.

Sir 26:21 So thy race which thou leavest shall be magnified, having the confidence of their good descent.

Sir 26:22 An harlot shall be accounted as spittle; but a married woman is a tower against death to her husband.

Sir 26:23 A wicked woman is given as a portion to a wicked man: but a reverent woman is given to him that feareth Yehowah.

Sir 26:24 A dishonest woman contemneth shame: but an honest woman will reverence her husband.

Sir 26:25 A shameless woman shall be counted as a dog; but she that is shamefaced will fear Yehowah.

Sir 26:26 A woman that honoreth her husband shall be judged wise of all; but she that dishonoreth him in her pride shall be counted irreverent of all.

Sir 26:27 A loud crying woman and a scold shall be sought out to drive away the enemies.

Sir 26:28 There be two things that grieve my heart; and the third maketh me angry: a man of war that suffereth poverty; and men of understanding that are not set by; and one that returneth from righteousness to sin; Yehowah prepareth such a one for the sword.

Sir 26:29 A merchant shall hardly keep himself from doing wrong; and an huckster shall not be freed from sin.

Sir 27:1 Many have sinned for a small matter; and he that seeketh for abundance will turn his eyes away.

Sir 27:2 As a nail sticketh fast between the joinings of the stones; so doth sin stick close between buying and selling.

Sir 27:3 Unless a man hold himself diligently in the fear of Yehowah, his house shall soon be overthrown.

Sir 27:4 As when one sifteth with a sieve, the refuse remaineth; so the filth of man in his talk.

Sir 27:5 The furnace proveth the potter's vessels; so the trial of man is in his reasoning.

Sir 27:6 The fruit declareth if the tree have been dressed; so is the utterance of a conceit in the heart of man.

Sir 27:7 Praise no man before thou hearest him speak; for this is the trial of men.

Sir 27:8 If thou followest righteousness, thou shalt obtain her, and put her on, as a glorious long robe.

Sir 27:9 The birds will resort unto their like; so will truth return unto them that practice in her.

Sir 27:10 As the lion lieth in wait for the prey; so sin for them that work iniquity.

Sir 27:11 The discourse of a reverent man is always with wisdom; but a fool changeth as the moon.

Sir 27:12 If thou be among the indiscreet, observe the time; but be continually among men of understanding.

Sir 27:13 The discourse of fools is irksome, and their sport is the wantonness of sin.

Sir 27:14 The talk of him that sweareth much maketh the hair stand upright; and their brawls make one stop his ears.

Sir 27:15 The strife of the proud is bloodshedding, and their revilings are grievous to the ear.

Sir 27:16 Whoso discovereth secrets loseth his credit; and shall never find friend to his mind.

Sir 27:17 Love thy friend, and be faithful unto him: but if thou betrayest his secrets, follow no more after him.

Sir 27:18 For as a man hath destroyed his enemy; so hast thou lost the love of thy neighbor.

Sir 27:19 As one that letteth a bird go out of his hand, so hast thou let thy neighbor go, and shalt not get him again

Sir 27:20 Follow after him no more, for he is too far off; he is as a roe escaped out of the snare.

Sir 27:21 As for a wound, it may be bound up; and after reviling there may be reconcilement: but he that betrayeth secrets is without hope.

Sir 27:22 He that winketh with the eyes worketh evil: and he that knoweth him will depart from him.

Sir 27:23 When thou art present, he will speak sweetly, and will admire thy words: but at the last he will writhe his mouth, and slander thy sayings.

Sir 27:24 I have hated many things, but nothing like him; for Yehowah will hate him.

Sir 27:25 Whoso casteth a stone on high casteth it on his own head; and a deceitful stroke shall make wounds.

Sir 27:26 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that setteth a trap shall be taken therein.

Sir 27:27 He that worketh mischief, it shall fall upon him, and he shall not know whence it cometh.

Sir 27:28 Mockery and reproach are from the proud; but vengeance, as a lion, shall lie in wait for them.

Sir 27:29 They that rejoice at the fall of the righteous shall be taken in the snare; and anguish shall consume them before they die.

Sir 27:30 Malice and wrath, even these are abominations; and the sinful man shall have them both.

Sir 28:1 He that revengeth shall find vengeance from Yehowah, and he will surely keep his sins [in remembrance.]

Sir 28:2 Forgive thy neighbor the hurt that he hath done unto thee, so shall thy sins also be forgiven when thou prayest.

Sir 28:3 One man beareth hatred against another, and doth he seek pardon from Yehowah?

Sir 28:4 He sheweth no mercy to a man, which is like himself: and doth he ask forgiveness of his own sins?

Sir 28:5 If he that is but flesh nourish hatred, who will intreat for pardon of his sins?

Sir 28:6 Remember thy end, and let enmity cease; [remember] corruption and death, and abide in the commandments.

Sir 28:7 Remember the commandments, and bear no malice to thy neighbor: [remember] the covenant of the Highest, and wink at ignorance.

Sir 28:8 Abstain from strife, and thou shalt diminish thy sins: for a furious man will kindle strife,

Sir 28:9 A sinful man disquieteth friends, and maketh debate among them that be at peace.

Sir 28:10 As the matter of the fire is, so it burneth: and as a man's strength is, so is his wrath; and according to his riches his anger riseth; and the stronger they are which contend, the more they will be inflamed.

Sir 28:11 An hasty contention kindleth a fire: and an hasty fighting sheddeth blood.

Sir 28:12 If thou blow the spark, it shall burn: if thou spit upon it, it shall be quenched: and both these come out of thy mouth.

Sir 28:13 Curse the whisperer and doubletongued: for such have destroyed many that were at peace.

Sir 28:14 A backbiting tongue hath disquieted many, and driven them from nation to nation: strong cities hath it pulled down, and overthrown the houses of great men.

Sir 28:15 A backbiting tongue hath cast out virtuous women, and deprived them of their labors.

Sir 28:16 Whoso hearkeneth unto it shall never find rest, and never dwell quietly.

Sir 28:17 The stroke of the whip maketh marks in the flesh: but the stroke of the tongue breaketh the bones.

Sir 28:18 Many have fallen by the edge of the sword: but not so many as have fallen by the tongue.

Sir 28:19 Well is he that is defended through the venom thereof; who hath not drawn the yoke thereof, nor hath been bound in her bands.

Sir 28:20 For the yoke thereof is a yoke of iron, and the bands thereof are bands of brass.

Sir 28:21 The death thereof is an evil death, the grave were better than it.

Sir 28:22 It shall not have rule over them that fear Yehowah, neither shall they be burned with the flame thereof.

Sir 28:23 Such as forsake Yehowah shall fall into it; and it shall burn in them, and not be quenched; it shall be sent upon them as a lion, and devour them as a leopard.

Sir 28:24 Look that thou hedge thy possession about with thorns, and bind up thy silver and gold,

Sir 28:25 And weigh thy words in a balance, and make a door and bar for thy mouth.

Sir 28:26 Beware thou slide not by it, lest thou fall before him that lieth in wait.

Sir 29:1 He that is merciful will lend unto his neighbor; and he that strengtheneth his hand keepeth the commandments.

Sir 29:2 Lend to thy neighbor in time of his need, and pay thou thy neighbor again in due season.

Sir 29:3 Keep thy word, and deal faithfully with him, and thou shalt always find the thing that is necessary for thee.

Sir 29:4 Many, when a thing was lent them, reckoned it to be found, and put them to trouble that helped them.

Sir 29:5 Till he hath received, he will kiss a man's hand; and for his neighbor's money he will speak submissly: but when he should repay, he will prolong the time, and return words of grief, and complain of the time.

Sir 29:6 If he prevail, he shall hardly receive the half, and he will count as if he had found it: if not, he hath deprived him of his money, and he hath gotten him an enemy without cause: he payeth him with cursings and railings; and for honor he will pay him disgrace.

Sir 29:7 Many therefore have refused to lend for other men's ill dealing, fearing to be defrauded.

Sir 29:8 Yet have thou patience with a man in poor estate, and delay not to shew him mercy.

Sir 29:9 Help the poor for the commandment's sake, and turn him not away because of his poverty.

Sir 29:10 Lose thy money for thy brother and thy friend, and let it not rust under a stone to be lost.

Sir 29:11 Lay up thy treasure according to the commandments of the Most High, and it shall bring thee more profit than gold.

Sir 29:12 Shut up alms in thy storehouses: and it shall deliver thee from all affliction.

Sir 29:13 It shall fight for thee against thine enemies better than a mighty shield and strong spear.

Sir 29:14 An honest man is surety for his neighbor: but he that is impudent will forsake him.

Sir 29:15 Forget not the friendship of thy surety, for he hath given his life for thee.

Sir 29:16 A sinner will overthrow the good estate of his surety:

Sir 29:17 And he that is of an unthankful mind will leave him [in danger] that delivered him.

Sir 29:18 Suretiship hath undone many of good estate, and shaken them as a wave of the sea: mighty men hath it driven from their houses, so that they wandered among strange nations.

Sir 29:19 A wicked man transgressing the commandments of Yehowah shall fall into suretiship: and he that undertaketh and followeth other men's business for gain shall fall into suits.

Sir 29:20 Help thy neighbor according to thy power, and beware that thou thyself fall not into the same.

Sir 29:21 The chief thing for life is water, and bread, and clothing, and an house to cover shame.

Sir 29:22 Better is the life of a poor man in a mean cottage, than delicate fare in another man's house.

Sir 29:23 Be it little or much, hold thee contented, that thou hear not the reproach of thy house.

Sir 29:24 For it is a miserable life to go from house to house: for where thou art a stranger, thou darest not open thy mouth.

Sir 29:25 Thou shalt entertain, and feast, and have no thanks: moreover thou shalt hear bitter words:

Sir 29:26 Come, thou stranger, and furnish a table, and feed me of that thou hast ready.

Sir 29:27 Give place, thou stranger, to an honorable man; my brother cometh to be lodged, and I have need of mine house.

Sir 29:28 These things are grievous to a man of understanding; the upbraiding of houseroom, and reproaching of the lender.

Sir 30:1 He that loveth his son causeth him oft to feel the rod, that he may have joy of him in the end.

Sir 30:2 He that chastiseth his son shall have joy in him, and shall rejoice of him among his acquaintance.

Sir 30:3 He that teacheth his son grieveth the enemy: and before his friends he shall rejoice of him.

Sir 30:4 Though his father die, yet he is as though he were not dead: for he hath left one behind him that is like himself.

Sir 30:5 While he lived, he saw and rejoiced in him: and when he died, he was not sorrowful.

Sir 30:6 He left behind him an avenger against his enemies, and one that shall requite kindness to his friends.

Sir 30:7 He that maketh too much of his son shall bind up his wounds; and his bowels will be troubled at every cry.

Sir 30:8 An horse not broken becometh headstrong: and a child left to himself will be wilful.

Sir 30:9 Cocker thy child, and he shall make thee afraid: play with him, and he will bring thee to heaviness.

Sir 30:10 Laugh not with him, lest thou have sorrow with him, and lest thou gnash thy teeth in the end.

Sir 30:11 Give him no liberty in his youth, and wink not at his follies.

Sir 30:12 Bow down his neck while he is young, and beat him on the sides while he is a child, lest he wax stubborn, and be disobedient unto thee, and so bring sorrow to thine heart.

Sir 30:13 Chastise thy son, and hold him to labor, lest his lewd behavior be an offense unto thee.

Sir 30:14 Better is the poor, being sound and strong of constitution, than a rich man that is afflicted in his body.

Sir 30:15 Health and good estate of body are above all gold, and a strong body above infinite wealth.

Sir 30:16 There is no riches above a sound body, and no joy above the joy of the heart.

Sir 30:17 Death is better than a bitter life or continual sickness.

Sir 30:18 Delicates poured upon a mouth shut up are as messes of meat set upon a grave.

Sir 30:19 What good doeth the offering unto an idol? for neither can it eat nor smell: so is he that is persecuted of Yehowah.

Sir 30:20 He seeth with his eyes and groaneth, as an eunuch that embraceth a virgin and sigheth.

Sir 30:21 Give not over thy mind to heaviness, and afflict not thyself in thine own counsel.

Sir 30:22 The gladness of the heart is the life of man, and the joyfulness of a man prolongeth his days.

Sir 30:23 Love thine own soul, and comfort thy heart, remove sorrow far from thee: for sorrow hath killed many, and there is no profit therein.

Sir 30:24 Envy and wrath shorten the life, and carefulness bringeth age before the time.

Sir 30:25 A cheerful and good heart will have a care of his meat and diet.

Sir 31:1 Watching for riches consumeth the flesh, and the care thereof driveth away sleep.

Sir 31:2 Watching care will not let a man slumber, as a sore disease breaketh sleep,

Sir 31:3 The rich hath great labor in gathering riches together; and when he resteth, he is filled with his delicates.

Sir 31:4 The poor laboreth in his poor estate; and when he leaveth off, he is still needy.

Sir 31:5 He that loveth gold shall not be justified, and he that followeth corruption shall have enough thereof.

Sir 31:6 Gold hath been the ruin of many, and their destruction was present.

Sir 31:7 It is a stumbling block unto them that sacrifice unto it, and every fool shall be taken therewith.

Sir 31:8 Blessed is the rich that is found without blemish, and hath not gone after gold.

Sir 31:9 Who is he? and we will call him blessed: for wonderful things hath he done among his people.

Sir 31:10 Who hath been tried thereby, and found perfect? then let him glory. Who might offend, and hath not offended? or done evil, and hath not done it?

Sir 31:11 His goods shall be established, and the congregation shall declare his alms.

Sir 31:12 If thou sit at a bountiful table, be not greedy upon it, and say not, There is much meat on it.

Sir 31:13 Remember that a wicked eye is an evil thing: and what is created more wicked than an eye? therefore it weepeth upon every occasion.

Sir 31:14 Stretch not thine hand whithersoever it looketh, and thrust it not with him into the dish.

Sir 31:15 Judge not thy neighbor by thyself: and be discreet in every point.

Sir 31:16 Eat as it becometh a man, those things which are set before thee; and devour note, lest thou be hated.

Sir 31:17 Leave off first for manners' sake; and be not unsatiable, lest thou offend.

Sir 31:18 When thou sittest among many, reach not thine hand out first of all.

Sir 31:19 A very little is sufficient for a man well nurtured, and he fetcheth not his wind short upon his bed.

Sir 31:20 Sound sleep cometh of moderate eating: he riseth early, and his wits are with him: but the pain of watching, and choler, and pangs of the belly, are with an unsatiable man.

Sir 31:21 And if thou hast been forced to eat, arise, go forth, vomit, and thou shalt have rest.

Sir 31:22 My son, hear me, and despise me not, and at the last thou shalt find as I told thee: in all thy works be quick, so shall there no sickness come unto thee.

Sir 31:23 Whoso is liberal of his meat, men shall speak well of him; and the report of his good housekeeping will be believed.

Sir 31:24 But against him that is a niggard of his meat the whole city shall murmur; and the testimonies of his niggardness shall not be doubted of.

Sir 31:25 Shew not thy valiantness in wine; for wine hath destroyed many.

Sir 31:26 The furnace proveth the edge by dipping: so doth wine the hearts of the proud by drunkeness.

Sir 31:27 Wine is as good as life to a man, if it be drunk moderately: what life is then to a man that is without wine? for it was made to make men glad.

Sir 31:28 Wine measurably drunk and in season bringeth gladness of the heart, and cheerfulness of the mind:

Sir 31:29 But wine drunken with excess maketh bitterness of the mind, with brawling and quarrelling.

Sir 31:30 Drunkenness increaseth the rage of a fool till he offend: it diminisheth strength, and maketh wounds.

Sir 31:31 Rebuke not thy neighbor at the wine, and despise him not in his mirth: give him no despiteful words, and press not upon him with urging him [to drink.]

Sir 32:1 If thou be made the master [of a feast,] lift not thyself up, but be among them as one of the rest; take diligent care for them, and so sit down.

Sir 32:2 And when thou hast done all thy office, take thy place, that thou mayest be merry with them, and receive a crown for thy well ordering of the feast.

Sir 32:3 Speak, thou that art the elder, for it becometh thee, but with sound judgment; and hinder not music.

Sir 32:4 Pour not out words where there is a musician, and shew not forth wisdom out of time.

Sir 32:5 A concert of music in a banquet of wine is as a signet of carbuncle set in gold.

Sir 32:6 As a signet of an emerald set in a work of gold, so is the melody of music with pleasant wine.

Sir 32:7 Speak, young man, if there be need of thee: and yet scarcely when thou art twice asked.

Sir 32:8 Let thy speech be short, comprehending much in few words; be as one that knoweth and yet holdeth his tongue.

Sir 32:9 If thou be among great men, make not thyself equal with them; and when ancient men are in place, use not many words.

Sir 32:10 Before the thunder goeth lightning; and before a shamefaced man shall go favor.

Sir 32:11 Rise up betimes, and be not the last; but get thee home without delay.

Sir 32:12 There take thy pastime, and do what thou wilt: but sin not by proud speech.

Sir 32:13 And for these things bless him that made thee, and hath replenished thee with his good things.

Sir 32:14 Whoso feareth Yehowah will receive his discipline; and they that seek him early shall find favor.

Sir 32:15 He that seeketh the law shall be filled therewith: but the hypocrite will be offended thereat.

Sir 32:16 They that fear Yehowah shall find judgment, and shall kindle justice as a light.

Sir 32:17 A sinful man will not be reproved, but findeth an excuse according to his will.

Sir 32:18 A man of counsel will be considerate; but a strange and proud man is not daunted with fear, even when of himself he hath done without counsel.

Sir 32:19 Do nothing without advice; and when thou hast once done, repent not.

Sir 32:20 Go not in a way wherein thou mayest fall, and stumble not among the stones.

Sir 32:21 Be not confident in a plain way.

Sir 32:22 And beware of thine own children.

Sir 32:23 In every good work trust thy own soul; for this is the keeping of the commandments.

Sir 32:24 He that believeth in Yehowah taketh heed to the commandment; and he that trusteth in him shall fare never the worse.

Sir 33:1 There shall no evil happen unto him that feareth Yehowah; but in temptation even again he will deliver him.

Sir 33:2 A wise man hateth not the law; but he that is an hypocrite therein is as a ship in a storm.

Sir 33:3 A man of understanding trusteth in the law; and the law is faithful unto him, as an oracle.

Sir 33:4 Prepare what to say, and so thou shalt be heard: and bind up instruction, and then make answer.

Sir 33:5 The heart of the foolish is like a cartwheel; and his thoughts are like a rolling axletree.

Sir 33:6 A stallion horse is as a mocking friend, he neigheth under every one that sitteth upon him.

Sir 33:7 Why doth one day excel another, when as all the light of every day in the year is of the sun?

Sir 33:8 By the knowledge of Yehowah they were distinguished: and he altered seasons and feasts.

Sir 33:9 Some of them hath he made high days, and hallowed them, and some of them hath he made ordinary days.

Sir 33:10 And all men are from the ground, and Adam was created of earth:

Sir 33:11 In much knowledge Yehowah hath divided them, and made their ways diverse.

Sir 33:12 Some of them hath he blessed and exalted and some of them he sanctified, and set near himself: but some of them hath he cursed and brought low, and turned out of their places.

Sir 33:13 As the clay is in the potter's hand, to fashion it at his pleasure: so man is in the hand of him that made him, to render to them as liketh him best.

Sir 33:14 Good is set against evil, and life against death: so is the reverent against the sinner, and the sinner against the reverent.

Sir 33:15 So look upon all the works of the Most High; and there are two and two, one against another.

Sir 33:16 I awaked up last of all, as one that gathereth after the grapegatherers: by the blessing of Yehowah I profited, and tred my winepress like a gatherer of grapes.

Sir 33:17 Consider that I labored not for myself only, but for all them that seek learning.

Sir 33:18 Hear me, O ye great men of the people, and hearken with your ears, ye rulers of the congregation.

Sir 33:19 Give not thy son and wife, thy brother and friend, power over thee while thou livest, and give not thy goods to another: lest it repent thee, and thou intreat for the same again.

Sir 33:20 As long as thou livest and hast breath in thee, give not thyself over to any.

Sir 33:21 For better it is that thy children should seek to thee, than that thou shouldest stand to their courtesy.

Sir 33:22 In all thy works keep to thyself the preeminence; leave not a stain in thine honor.

Sir 33:23 At the time when thou shalt end thy days, and finish thy life, distribute thine inheritance.

Sir 33:24 Fodder, a wand, and burdens, are for the ass; and bread, correction, and work, for a servant. .

Sir 33:25 If thou set thy servant to labor, thou shalt find rest: but if thou let him go idle, he shall seek liberty.

Sir 33:26 A yoke and a collar do bow the neck: so are tortures and torments for an evil servant.

Sir 33:27 Send him to labor, that he be not idle; for idleness teacheth much evil.

Sir 33:28 Set him to work, as is fit for him: if he be not obedient, put on more heavy fetters.

Sir 33:29 But be not excessive toward any; and without discretion do nothing.

Sir 33:30 If thou have a servant, let him be unto thee as thyself, because thou hast bought him with a price.

Sir 33:31 If thou have a servant, entreat him as a brother: for thou hast need of him, as of thine own soul: if thou entreat him evil, and he run from thee, which way wilt thou go to seek him?

Sir 34:1 The hopes of a man void of understanding are vain and false: and dreams lift up fools.

Sir 34:2 Whoso regardeth dreams is like him that catcheth at a shadow, and followeth after the wind.

Sir 34:3 The vision of dreams is the resemblance of one thing to another, even as the likeness of a face to a face.

Sir 34:4 Of an unclean thing what can be cleansed? and from that thing which is false what truth can come?

Sir 34:5 Divinations, and soothsayings, and dreams, are vain: and the heart fancieth, as a woman's heart in travail.

Sir 34:6 If they be not sent from the Most High in thy visitation, set not thy heart upon them.

Sir 34:7 For dreams have deceived many, and they have failed that put their trust in them.

Sir 34:8 The law shall be found perfect without lies: and wisdom is perfection to a faithful mouth.

Sir 34:9 A man that hath traveled knoweth many things; and he that hath much experience will declare wisdom.

Sir 34:10 He that hath no experience knoweth little: but he that hath traveled is full of prudence.

Sir 34:11 When I traveled, I saw many things; and I understand more than I can express.

Sir 34:12 I was ofttimes in danger of death: yet I was delivered because of these things.

Sir 34:13 The spirit of those that fear Yehowah shall live; for their hope is in him that saveth them.

Sir 34:14 Whoso feareth Yehowah shall not fear nor be afraid; for he is his hope.

Sir 34:15 Blessed is the soul of him that feareth Yehowah: to whom doth he look? and who is his strength?

Sir 34:16 For the eyes of Yehowah are upon them that love him, he is their mighty protection and strong stay, a defense from heat, and a cover from the sun at noon, a preservation from stumbling, and an help from falling.

Sir 34:17 He raiseth up the soul, and lighteneth the eyes: he giveth health, life, and blessing.

Sir 34:18 He that sacrificeth of a thing wrongfully gotten, his offering is ridiculous; and the gifts of unjust men are not accepted.

Sir 34:19 The Most High is not pleased with the offerings of the wicked; neither is he pacified for sin by the multitude of sacrifices.

Sir 34:20 Whoso bringeth an offering of the goods of the poor doeth as one that killeth the son before his father's eyes.

Sir 34:21 The bread of the needy is their life: he that defraudeth him thereof is a man of blood.

Sir 34:22 He that taketh away his neighbor's living slayeth him; and he that defraudeth the laborer of his hire is a bloodshedder.

Sir 34:23 When one buildeth, and another pulleth down, what profit have they then but labor?

Sir 34:24 When one prayeth, and another curseth, whose voice will Yehowah hear?

Sir 34:25 He that washeth himself after the touching of a dead body, if he touch it again, what availeth his washing?

Sir 34:26 So is it with a man that fasteth for his sins, and goeth again, and doeth the same: who will hear his prayer? or what doth his humbling profit him?

Sir 35:1 He that keepeth the law bringeth offerings enough: he that taketh heed to the commandment offereth a peace offering.

Sir 35:2 He that requiteth a goodturn offereth fine flour; and he that giveth alms sacrificeth praise.

Sir 35:3 To depart from wickedness is a thing pleasing to Yehowah; and to forsake unrighteousness is a propitiation.

Sir 35:4 Thou shalt not appear empty before Yehowah.

Sir 35:5 For all these things [are to be done] because of the commandment.

Sir 35:6 The offering of the righteous maketh the altar fat, and the sweet savor thereof is before the Most High.

Sir 35:7 The sacrifice of a just man is acceptable. and the memorial thereof shall never be forgotten.

Sir 35:8 Give Yehowah his honor with a good eye, and diminish not the firstfruits of thine hands.

Sir 35:9 In all thy gifts shew a cheerful countenance, and dedicate thy tithes with gladness.

Sir 35:10 Give unto the Most High according as he hath enriched thee; and as thou hast gotten, give with a cheerful eye.

Sir 35:11 For Yehowah recompenseth, and will give thee seven times as much.

Sir 35:12 Do not think to corrupt with gifts; for such he will not receive: and trust not to unrighteous sacrifices; for Yehowah is judge, and with him is no respect of persons.

Sir 35:13 He will not accept any person against a poor man, but will hear the prayer of the oppressed.

Sir 35:14 He will not despise the supplication of the fatherless; nor the widow, when she poureth out her complaint.

Sir 35:15 Do not the tears run down the widow's cheeks? and is not her cry against him that causeth them to fall?

Sir 35:16 He that serveth Yehowah shall be accepted with favor, and his prayer shall reach unto the clouds.

Sir 35:17 The prayer of the humble pierceth the clouds: and till it come nigh, he will not be comforted; and will not depart, till the Most High shall behold to judge righteously, and execute judgment.

Sir 35:18 For Yehowah will not be slack, neither will the Mighty be patient toward them, till he have smitten in sunder the loins of the unmerciful, and repaid vengeance to the heathen; till he have taken away the multitude of the proud, and broken the scepter of the unrighteous;

Sir 35:19 Till he have rendered to every man according to his deeds, and to the works of men according to their devices; till he have judged the cause of his people, and made them to rejoice in his mercy.

Sir 35:20 Mercy is seasonable in the time of affliction, as clouds of rain in the time of drought.

Sir 36:1 Have mercy upon us, O Yehowah Mighty One of all, and behold us:

Sir 36:2 And send thy fear upon all the nations that seek not after thee.

Sir 36:3 Lift up thy hand against the strange nations, and let them see thy power.

Sir 36:4 As thou wast sanctified in us before them: so be thou magnified among them before us.

Sir 36:5 And let them know thee, as we have known thee, that there is no Yehowah but only thou, O Yehowah.

Sir 36:6 Shew new signs, and make other strange wonders: glorify thy hand and thy right arm, that they may set forth thy wondrous works.

Sir 36:7 Raise up indignation, and pour out wrath: take away the adversary, and destroy the enemy.

Sir 36:8 Sake the time short, remember the covenant, and let them declare thy wonderful works.

Sir 36:9 Let him that escapeth be consumed by the rage of the fire; and let them perish that oppress the people.

Sir 36:10 Smite in sunder the heads of the rulers of the heathen, that say, There is none other but we.

Sir 36:11 Gather all the tribes of Jacob together, and inherit thou them, as from the beginning.

Sir 36:12 O Yehowah, have mercy upon the people that is called by thy name, and upon Israel, whom thou hast named thy firstborn.

Sir 36:13 O be merciful unto Jerusalem, thy holy city, the place of thy rest.

Sir 36:14 Fill Zion with thine unspeakable oracles, and thy people with thy glory:

Sir 36:15 Give testimony unto those that thou hast possessed from the beginning, and raise up prophets that have been in thy name.

Sir 36:16 Reward them that wait for thee, and let thy prophets be found faithful.

Sir 36:17 O Yehowah, hear the prayer of thy servants, according to the blessing of Aaron over thy people, that all they which dwell upon the earth may know that thou art Yehowah, the eternal Yehowah.

Sir 36:18 The belly devoureth all meats, yet is one meat better than another.

Sir 36:19 As the palate tasteth divers kinds of venison: so doth a heart of understanding false speeches.

Sir 36:20 A froward heart causeth heaviness: but a man of experience will recompense him.

Sir 36:21 A woman will receive every man, yet is one daughter better than another.

Sir 36:22 The beauty of a woman cheereth the countenance, and a man loveth nothing better.

Sir 36:23 If there be kindness, meekness, and comfort, in her tongue, then is not her husband like other men.

Sir 36:24 He that getteth a wife beginneth a possession, a help like unto himself, and a pillar of rest.

Sir 36:25 Where no hedge is, there the possession is spoiled: and he that hath no wife will wander up and down mourning.

Sir 36:26 Who will trust a thief well appointed, that skippeth from city to city? so [who will believe] a man that hath no house, and lodgeth wheresoever the night taketh him?

Sir 37:1 Every friend saith, I am his friend also: but there is a friend, which is only a friend in name.

Sir 37:2 Is it not a grief unto death, when a companion and friend is turned to an enemy?

Sir 37:3 O wicked imagination, whence camest thou in to cover the earth with deceit?

Sir 37:4 There is a companion, which rejoiceth in the prosperity of a friend, but in the time of trouble will be against him.

Sir 37:5 There is a companion, which helpeth his friend for the belly, and taketh up the buckler against the enemy.

Sir 37:6 Forget not thy friend in thy mind, and be not unmindful of him in thy riches.

Sir 37:7 Every counselor extolleth counsel; but there is some that counseleth for himself.

Sir 37:8 Beware of a counselor, and know before what need he hath; for he will counsel for himself; lest he cast the lot upon thee,

Sir 37:9 And say unto thee, Thy way is good: and afterward he stand on the other side, to see what shall befall thee.

Sir 37:10 Consult not with one that suspecteth thee: and hide thy counsel from such as envy thee.

Sir 37:11 Neither consult with a woman touching her of whom she is jealous; neither with a coward in matters of war; nor with a merchant concerning exchange; nor with a buyer of selling; nor with an envious man of thankfulness; nor with an unmerciful man touching kindness; nor with the slothful for any work; nor with an hireling for a year of finishing work; nor with an idle servant of much business: hearken not unto these in any matter of counsel.

Sir 37:12 But be continually with a reverent man, whom thou knowest to keep the commandments of Yehowah, whose, mind is according to thy mind, and will sorrow with thee, if thou shalt miscarry.

Sir 37:13 And let the counsel of thine own heart stand: for there is no man more faithful unto thee than it.

Sir 37:14 For a man's mind is sometime wont to tell him more than seven watchmen, that sit above in an high tower.

Sir 37:15 And above all this pray to the Most High, that he will direct thy way in truth.

Sir 37:16 Let reason go before every enterprise, and counsel before every action.

Sir 37:17 The countenance is a sign of changing of the heart.

Sir 37:18 Four manner of things appear: good and evil, life and death: but the tongue ruleth over them continually.

Sir 37:19 There is one that is wise and teacheth many, and yet is unprofitable to himself.

Sir 37:20 There is one that sheweth wisdom in words, and is hated: he shall be destitute of all food.

Sir 37:21 For grace is not given, him from Yehowah, because he is deprived of all wisdom.

Sir 37:22 Another is wise to himself; and the fruits of understanding are commendable in his mouth.

Sir 37:23 A wise man instructeth his people; and the fruits of his understanding fail not.

Sir 37:24 A wise man shall be filled with blessing; and all they that see him shall count him happy.

Sir 37:25 The days of the life of man may be numbered: but the days of Israel are innumerable.

Sir 37:26 A wise man shall inherit glory among his people, and his name shall be perpetual.

Sir 37:27 My son, prove thy soul in thy life, and see what is evil for it, and give not that unto it.

Sir 37:28 For all things are not profitable for all men, neither hath every soul pleasure in every thing.

Sir 37:29 Be not unsatiable in any dainty thing, nor too greedy upon meats:

Sir 37:30 For excess of meats bringeth sickness, and surfeiting will turn into choler.

Sir 37:31 By surfeiting have many perished; but he that taketh heed prolongeth his life.

Sir 38:1 Honor a physician with the honor due unto him for the uses which ye may have of him: for Yehowah hath created him.

Sir 38:2 For of the Most High cometh healing, and he shall receive honor of the king.

Sir 38:3 The skill of the physician shall lift up his head: and in the sight of great men he shall be in admiration.

Sir 38:4 Yehowah hath created medicines out of the earth; and he that is wise will not abhor them.

Sir 38:5 Was not the water made sweet with wood, that the virtue thereof might be known?

Sir 38:6 And he hath given men skill, that he might be honored in his marvelous works.

Sir 38:7 With such doth he heal [men,] and taketh away their pains.

Sir 38:8 Of such doth the apothecary make a confection; and of his works there is no end; and from him is peace over all the earth,

Sir 38:9 My son, in thy sickness be not negligent: but pray unto Yehowah, and he will make thee whole.

Sir 38:10 Leave off from sin, and order thine hands aright, and cleanse thy heart from all wickedness.

Sir 38:11 Give a sweet savor, and a memorial of fine flour; and make a fat offering, as not being.

Sir 38:12 Then give place to the physician, for Yehowah hath created him: let him not go from thee, for thou hast need of him.

Sir 38:13 There is a time when in their hands there is good success.

Sir 38:14 For they shall also pray unto Yehowah, that he would prosper that, which they give for ease and remedy to prolong life.

Sir 38:15 He that sinneth before his Maker, let him fall into the hand of the physician.

Sir 38:16 My son, let tears fall down over the dead, and begin to lament, as if thou hadst suffered great harm thyself; and then cover his body according to the custom, and neglect not his burial.

Sir 38:17 Weep bitterly, and make great moan, and use lamentation, as he is worthy, and that a day or two, lest thou be evil spoken of: and then comfort thyself for thy heaviness.

Sir 38:18 For of heaviness cometh death, and the heaviness of the heart breaketh strength.

Sir 38:19 In affliction also sorrow remaineth: and the life of the poor is the curse of the heart.

Sir 38:20 Take no heaviness to heart: drive it away, and member the last end.

Sir 38:21 Forget it not, for there is no turning again: thou shalt not do him good, but hurt thyself.

Sir 38:22 Remember my judgment: for thine also shall be so; yesterday for me, and to day for thee.

Sir 38:23 When the dead is at rest, let his remembrance rest; and be comforted for him, when his Ruach is departed from him.

Sir 38:24 The wisdom of a learned man cometh by opportunity of leisure: and he that hath little business shall become wise.

Sir 38:25 How can he get wisdom that holdeth the plow, and that glorieth in the goad, that driveth oxen, and is occupied in their labors, and whose talk is of bullocks?

Sir 38:26 He giveth his mind to make furrows; and is diligent to give the kine fodder.

Sir 38:27 So every carpenter and workmaster, that laboreth night and day: and they that cut and grave seals, and are diligent to make great variety, and give themselves to counterfeit imagery, and watch to finish a work:

Sir 38:28 The smith also sitting by the anvil, and considering the iron work, the vapor of the fire wasteth his flesh, and he fighteth with the heat of the furnace: the noise of the hammer and the anvil is ever in his ears, and his eyes look still upon the pattern of the thing that he maketh; he setteth his mind to finish his work, and watcheth to polish it perfectly:

Sir 38:29 So doth the potter sitting at his work, and turning the wheel about with his feet, who is always carefully set at his work, and maketh all his work by number;

Sir 38:30 He fashioneth the clay with his arm, and boweth down his strength before his feet; he applieth himself to lead it over; and he is diligent to make clean the furnace:

Sir 38:31 All these trust to their hands: and every one is wise in his work.

Sir 38:32 Without these cannot a city be inhabited: and they shall not dwell where they will, nor go up and down:

Sir 38:33 They shall not be sought for in public counsel, nor sit high in the congregation: they shall not sit on the judges' seat, nor understand the sentence of judgment: they cannot declare justice and judgment; and they shall not be found where parables are spoken.

Sir 38:34 But they will maintain the state of the world, and [all] their desire is in the work of their craft.

Sir 39:1 But he that giveth his mind to the law of the Most High, and is occupied in the meditation thereof, will seek out the wisdom of all the ancient, and be occupied in prophecies.

Sir 39:2 He will keep the sayings of the renowned men: and where subtle parables are, he will be there also.

Sir 39:3 He will seek out the secrets of grave sentences, and be conversant in dark parables.

Sir 39:4 He shall serve among great men, and appear before princes: he will travel through strange countries; for he hath tried the good and the evil among men.

Sir 39:5 He will give his heart to resort early to Yehowah that made him, and will pray before the Most High, and will open his mouth in prayer, and make supplication for his sins.

Sir 39:6 When the great Lord will, he shall be filled with the spirit of understanding: he shall pour out wise sentences, and give thanks unto Yehowah in his prayer.

Sir 39:7 He shall direct his counsel and knowledge, and in his secrets shall he meditate.

Sir 39:8 He shall shew forth that which he hath learned, and shall glory in the law of the covenant of Yehowah.

Sir 39:9 Many shall commend his understanding; and so long as the world endureth, it shall not be blotted out; his memorial shall not depart away, and his name shall live from generation to generation.

Sir 39:10 Nations shall shew forth his wisdom, and the congregation shall declare his praise.

Sir 39:11 If he die, he shall leave a greater name than a thousand: and if he live, he shall increase it.

Sir 39:12 Yet have I more to say, which I have thought upon; for I am filled as the moon at the full.

Sir 39:13 Hearken unto me, ye holy children, and bud forth as a rose growing by the brook of the field:

Sir 39:14 And give ye a sweet savor as frankincense, and flourish as a lily, send forth a smell, and sing a song of praise, bless Yehowah in all his works.

Sir 39:15 Magnify his name, and shew forth his praise with the songs of your lips, and with harps, and in praising him ye shall say after this manner:

Sir 39:16 All the works of Yehowah are exceeding good, and whatsoever he commandeth shall be accomplished in due season.

Sir 39:17 And none may say, What is this? wherefore is that? for at time convenient they shall all be sought out: at his commandment the waters stood as an heap, and at the words of his mouth the receptacles of waters.

Sir 39:18 At his commandment is done whatsoever pleaseth him; and none can hinder, when he will save.

Sir 39:19 The works of all flesh are before him, and nothing can be hid from his eyes.

Sir 39:20 He seeth from everlasting to everlasting; and there is nothing wonderful before him.

Sir 39:21 A man need not to say, What is this? wherefore is that? for he hath made all things for their uses.

Sir 39:22 His blessing covered the dry land as a river, and watered it as a flood.

Sir 39:23 As he hath turned the waters into saltness: so shall the heathen inherit his wrath.

Sir 39:24 As his ways are plain unto the holy; so are they stumblingblocks unto the wicked.

Sir 39:25 For the good are good things created from the beginning: so evil things for sinners.

Sir 39:26 The principal things for the whole use of man's life are water, fire, iron, and salt, flour of wheat, honey, milk, and the blood of the grape, and oil, and clothing.

Sir 39:27 All these things are for good to the reverent: so to the sinners they are turned into evil.

Sir 39:28 There be spirits that are created for vengeance, which in their fury lay on sore strokes; in the time of destruction they pour out their force, and appease the wrath of him that made them.

Sir 39:29 Fire, and hail, and famine, and death, all these were created for vengeance;

Sir 39:30 Teeth of wild beasts, and scorpions, serpents, and the sword punishing the wicked to destruction.

Sir 39:31 They shall rejoice in his commandment, and they shall be ready upon earth, when need is; and when their time is come, they shall not transgress his word.

Sir 39:32 Therefore from the beginning I was resolved, and thought upon these things, and have left them in writing.

Sir 39:33 All the works of Yehowah are good: and he will give every needful thing in due season.

Sir 39:34 So that a man cannot say, This is worse than that: for in time they shall all be well approved.

Sir 39:35 And therefore praise ye Yehowah with the whole heart and mouth, and bless the name of Yehowah.

Sir 40:1 Great travail is created for every man, and a heavy yoke is upon the sons of Adam, from the day that they go out of their mother's womb, till the day that they return to the mother of all things.

Sir 40:2 Their imagination of things to come, and the day of death, [trouble] their thoughts, and [cause] fear of heart;

Sir 40:3 From him that sitteth on a throne of glory, unto him that is humbled in earth and ashes;

Sir 40:4 From him that weareth purple and a crown, unto him that is clothed with a linen frock.

Sir 40:5 Wrath, and envy, trouble, and unquietness, fear of death, and anger, and strife, and in the time of rest upon his bed his night sleep, do change his knowledge.

Sir 40:6 A little or nothing is his rest, and afterward he is in his sleep, as in a day of keeping watch, troubled in the vision of his heart, as if he were escaped out of a battle.

Sir 40:7 When all is safe, he awaketh, and marveleth that the fear was nothing.

Sir 40:8 [Such things happen] unto all flesh, both man and beast, and that is sevenfold more upon sinners.

Sir 40:9 Death, and bloodshed, strife, and sword, calamities, famine, tribulation, and the scourge;

Sir 40:10 These things are created for the wicked, and for their sakes came the flood.

Sir 40:11 All things that are of the earth shall turn to the earth again: and that which is of the waters doth return into the sea.

Sir 40:12 All bribery and injustice shall be blotted out: but true dealing shall endure forever.

Sir 40:13 The goods of the unjust shall be dried up like a river, and shall vanish with noise, like a great thunder in rain.

Sir 40:14 While he openeth his hand he shall rejoice: so shall transgressors come to naught.

Sir 40:15 The children of the irreverent shall not bring forth many branches: but are as unclean roots upon a hard rock.

Sir 40:16 The weed growing upon every water and bank of a river shall be pulled up before all grass.

Sir 40:17 Bountifulness is as a most fruitful garden, and mercifulness endureth forever.

Sir 40:18 To labor, and to be content with that a man hath, is a sweet life: but he that findeth a treasure is above them both.

Sir 40:19 Children and the building of a city continue a man's name: but a blameless wife is counted above them both.

Sir 40:20 Wine and music rejoice the heart: but the love of wisdom is above them both.

Sir 40:21 The pipe and the psaltery make sweet melody: but a pleasant tongue is above them both.

Sir 40:22 Thine eye desireth favor and beauty: but more than both corn while it is green.

Sir 40:23 A friend and companion never meet amiss: but above both is a wife with her husband.

Sir 40:24 Brethren and help are against time of trouble: but alms shall deliver more than them both.

Sir 40:25 Gold and silver make the foot stand sure: but counsel is esteemed above them both.

Sir 40:26 Riches and strength lift up the heart: but the fear of Yehowah is above them both: there is no want in the fear of Yehowah, and it needeth not to seek help.

Sir 40:27 The fear of Yehowah is a fruitful garden, and covereth him above all glory.

Sir 40:28 My son, lead not a beggar's life; for better it is to die than to beg.

Sir 40:29 The life of him that dependeth on another man's table is not to be counted for a life; for he polluteth himself with other men's meat: but a wise man well nurtured will beware thereof.

Sir 40:30 Begging is sweet in the mouth of the shameless: but in his belly there shall burn a fire.

Sir 41:1 O death, how bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that liveth at rest in his possessions, unto the man that hath nothing to vex him, and that hath prosperity in all things: yea, unto him that is yet able to receive meat!

Sir 41:2 O death, acceptable is thy sentence unto the needy, and unto him whose strength faileth, that is now in the last age, and is vexed with all things, and to him that despaireth, and hath lost patience!

Sir 41:3 Fear not the sentence of death, remember them that have been before thee, and that come after; for this is the sentence of Yehowah over all flesh.

Sir 41:4 And why art thou against the pleasure of the Most High? there is no inquisition in the grave, whether thou have lived ten, or a hundred, or a thousand years.

Sir 41:5 The children of sinners are abominable children, and they that are conversant in the dwelling of the irreverent.

Sir 41:6 The inheritance of sinners' children shall perish, and their posterity shall have a perpetual reproach.

Sir 41:7 The children will complain of an irreverent father, because they shall be reproached for his sake.

Sir 41:8 Woe be unto you, irreverent men, which have forsaken the law of the most high Yehowah! For if ye increase, it shall be to your destruction:

Sir 41:9 And if ye be born, ye shall be born to a curse: and if ye die, a curse shall be your portion.

Sir 41:10 All that are of the earth shall turn to earth again: so the irreverent shall go from a curse to destruction.

Sir 41:11 The mourning of men is about their bodies: but an ill name of sinners shall be blotted out.

Sir 41:12 Have regard to thy name; for that shall continue with thee above a thousand great treasures of gold.

Sir 41:13 A good life hath but few days: but a good name endureth forever.

Sir 41:14 My children, keep discipline in peace: for wisdom that is hid, and a treasure that is not seen, what profit is in them both?

Sir 41:15 A man that hideth his foolishness is better than a man that hideth his wisdom.

Sir 41:16 Therefore be shamefaced according to my word: for it is not good to retain all shamefacedness; neither is it altogether approved in every thing.

Sir 41:17 Be ashamed of whoredom before father and mother: and of a lie before a prince and a mighty man;

Sir 41:18 Of an offense before a judge and ruler; of iniquity before a congregation and people; of unjust dealing before thy partner and friend;

Sir 41:19 And of theft in regard of the place where thou sojournest, and in regard of the truth of Yehowah and his covenant; and to lean with thine elbow upon the meat; and of scorning to give and take;

Sir 41:20 And of silence before them that salute thee; and to look upon an harlot;

Sir 41:21 And to turn away thy face from thy kinsman; or to take away a portion or a gift; or to gaze upon another man's wife.

Sir 41:22 Or to be overbusy with his maid, and come not near her bed; or of upbraiding speeches before friends; and after thou hast given, upbraid not.

Sir 42:1 Of these things be not thou ashamed, and accept no person to sin thereby:

Sir 42:2 Of the law of the Most High, and his covenant; and of judgment to justify the irreverent;

Sir 42:3 Of reckoning with thy partners and travelers; or of the gift of the heritage of friends;

Sir 42:4 Of exactness of balance and weights; or of getting much or little;

Sir 42:5 And of merchants' indifferent selling; of much correction of children; and to make the side of an evil servant to bleed.

Sir 42:6 Sure keeping is good, where an evil wife is; and shut up, where many hands are.

Sir 42:7 Deliver all things in number and weight; and put all in writing that thou givest out, or receivest in.

Sir 42:8 Be not ashamed to inform the unwise and foolish, and the extreme aged that contendeth with those that are young: thus shalt thou be truly learned, and approved of all men living.

Sir 42:9 The father waketh for the daughter, when no man knoweth; and the care for her taketh away sleep: when she is young, lest she pass away the flower of her age; and being married, lest she should be hated:

Sir 42:10 In her virginity, lest she should be defiled and gotten with child in her father's house; and having an husband, lest she should misbehave herself; and when she is married, lest she should be barren.

Sir 42:11 Keep a sure watch over a shameless daughter, lest she make thee a laughingstock to thine enemies, and a byword in the city, and a reproach among the people, and make thee ashamed before the multitude.

Sir 42:12 Behold not every body's beauty, and sit not in the midst of women.

Sir 42:13 For from garments cometh a moth, and from women wickedness.

Sir 42:14 Better is the churlishness of a man than a courteous woman, a woman, I say, which bringeth shame and reproach.

Sir 42:15 I will now remember the works of Yehowah, and declare the things that I have seen: In the words of Yehowah are his works.

Sir 42:16 The sun that giveth light looketh upon all things, and the work thereof is full of the glory of Yehowah.

Sir 42:17 Yehowah hath not given power to the saints to declare all his marvelous works, which Almighty Yehowah firmly settled, that whatsoever is might be established for his glory.

Sir 42:18 He seeketh out the deep, and the heart, and considereth their crafty devices: for Yehowah knoweth all that may be known, and he beholdeth the signs of the world.

Sir 42:19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and revealeth the steps of hidden things.

Sir 42:20 No thought escapeth him, neither any word is hidden from him.

Sir 42:21 He hath garnished the excellent works of his wisdom, and he is from everlasting to everlasting: unto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished, and he hath no need of any counselor.

Sir 42:22 Oh how desirable are all his works! And that a man may see even to a spark.

Sir 42:23 All these things live and remain forever for all uses, and they are all obedient.

Sir 42:24 All things are double one against another: and he hath made nothing imperfect.

Sir 42:25 One thing establisheth the good or another: and who shall be filled with beholding his glory?

Sir 43:1 The pride of the height, the clear firmament, the beauty of heaven, with his glorious shew;

Sir 43:2 The sun when it appeareth, declaring at his rising a marvelous instrument, the work of the Most High:

Sir 43:3 At noon it parcheth the country, and who can abide the burning heat thereof?

Sir 43:4 A man blowing a furnace is in works of heat, but the sun burneth the mountains three times more; breathing out fiery vapors, and sending forth bright beams, it dimmeth the eyes.

Sir 43:5 Great is Yehowah that made it; and at his commandment runneth hastily.

Sir 43:6 He made the moon also to serve in her season for a declaration of times, and a sign of the world.

Sir 43:7 From the moon is the sign of feasts, a light that decreaseth in her perfection.

Sir 43:8 The month is called after her name, increasing wonderfully in her changing, being an instrument of the armies above, shining in the firmament of heaven;

Sir 43:9 The beauty of heaven, the glory of the stars, an ornament giving light in the highest places of Yehowah.

Sir 43:10 At the commandment of the Holy One they will stand in their order, and never faint in their watches.

Sir 43:11 Look upon the rainbow, and praise him that made it; very beautiful it is in the brightness thereof.

Sir 43:12 It compasseth the heaven about with a glorious circle, and the hands of the Most High have bended it.

Sir 43:13 By his commandment he maketh the snow to fall aplace, and sendeth swiftly the lightnings of his judgment.

Sir 43:14 Through this the treasures are opened: and clouds fly forth as fowls.

Sir 43:15 By his great power he maketh the clouds firm, and the hailstones are broken small.

Sir 43:16 At his sight the mountains are shaken, and at his will the south wind bloweth.

Sir 43:17 The noise of the thunder maketh the earth to tremble: so doth the northern storm and the whirlwind: as birds flying he scattereth the snow, and the falling down thereof is as the lighting of grasshoppers:

Sir 43:18 The eye marveleth at the beauty of the whiteness thereof, and the heart is astonished at the raining of it.

Sir 43:19 The hoarfrost also as salt he poureth on the earth, and being congealed, it lieth on the top of sharp stakes.

Sir 43:20 When the cold north wind bloweth, and the water is congealed into ice, it abideth upon every gathering together of water, and clotheth the water as with a breastplate.

Sir 43:21 It devoureth the mountains, and burneth the wilderness, and consumeth the grass as fire.

Sir 43:22 A present remedy of all is a mist coming speedily, a dew coming after heat refresheth.

Sir 43:23 By his counsel he appeaseth the deep, and planteth islands therein.

Sir 43:24 They that sail on the sea tell of the danger thereof; and when we hear it with our ears, we marvel thereat.

Sir 43:25 For therein be strange and wondrous works, variety of all kinds of beasts and whales created.

Sir 43:26 By him the end of them hath prosperous success, and by his word all things consist.

Sir 43:27 We may speak much, and yet come short: wherefore in sum, he is all.

Sir 43:28 How shall we be able to magnify him? for he is great above all his works.

Sir 43:29 Yehowah is terrible and very great, and marvelous is his power.

Sir 43:30 When ye glorify Yehowah, exalt him as much as ye can; for even yet will he far exceed: and when ye exalt him, put forth all your strength, and be not weary; for ye can never go far enough.

Sir 43:31 Who hath seen him, that he might tell us? and who can magnify him as he is?

Sir 43:32 There are yet hid greater things than these be, for we have seen but a few of his works.

Sir 43:33 For Yehowah hath made all things; and to the reverent hath he given wisdom.

Sir 44:1 Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us.

Sir 44:2 Yehowah hath wrought great glory by them through his great power from the beginning.

Sir 44:3 Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding, and declaring prophecies:

Sir 44:4 Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent are their instructions:

Sir 44:5 Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing:

Sir 44:6 Rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations:

Sir 44:7 All these were honored in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

Sir 44:8 There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported.

Sir 44:9 And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them.

Sir 44:10 But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten.

Sir 44:11 With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance, and their children are within the covenant.

Sir 44:12 Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes.

Sir 44:13 Their seed shall remain forever, and their glory shall not be blotted out.

Sir 44:14 Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth forevermore.

Sir 44:15 The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will shew forth their praise.

Sir 44:16 Enoch pleased Yehowah, and was translated, being an example of repentance to all generations.

Sir 44:17 Noah was found perfect and righteous; in the time of wrath he was taken in exchange [for the world;] therefore was he left as a remnant unto the earth, when the flood came.

Sir 44:18 An everlasting covenant was made with him, that all flesh should perish no more by the flood.

Sir 44:19 Abraham was a great father of many people: in glory was there none like unto him;

Sir 44:20 Who kept the law of the Most High, and was in covenant with him: he established the covenant in his flesh; and when he was proved, he was found faithful.

Sir 44:21 Therefore he assured him by an oath, that he would bless the nations in his seed, and that he would multiply him as the dust of the earth, and exalt his seed as the stars, and cause them to inherit from sea to sea, and from the river unto the utmost part of the land.

Sir 44:22 With Isaac did he establish likewise [for Abraham his father's sake] the blessing of all men, and the covenant, And made it rest upon the head of Jacob. He acknowledged him in his blessing, and gave him a heritage, and divided his portions; among the twelve tribes did he part them.

Sir 45:1 And he brought out of him a merciful man, which found favor in the sight of all flesh, even Moses, beloved of Yehowah and men, whose memorial is blessed.

Sir 45:2 He made him like to the glorious saints, and magnified him, so that his enemies stood in fear of him.

Sir 45:3 By his words he caused the wonders to cease, and he made him glorious in the sight of kings, and gave him a commandment for his people, and shewed him part of his glory.

Sir 45:4 He sanctified him in his faithfuless and meekness, and chose him out of all men.

Sir 45:5 He made him to hear his voice, and brought him into the dark cloud, and gave him commandments before his face, even the law of life and knowledge, that he might teach Jacob his covenants, and Israel his judgments.

Sir 45:6 He exalted Aaron, a holy man like unto him, even his brother, of the tribe of Levi.

Sir 45:7 An everlasting covenant he made with him and gave him the priesthood among the people; he beautified him with comely ornaments, and clothed him with a robe of glory.

Sir 45:8 He put upon him perfect glory; and strengthened him with rich garments, with breeches, with a long robe, and the ephod.

Sir 45:9 And he compassed him with pomegranates, and with many golden bells round about, that as he went there might be a sound, and a noise made that might be heard in the temple, for a memorial to the children of his people;

Sir 45:10 With a holy garment, with gold, and blue silk, and purple, the work of the embroiderer, with a breastplate of judgment, and with Urim and Thummim;

Sir 45:11 With twisted scarlet, the work of the cunning workman, with precious stones graven like seals, and set in gold, the work of the jeweller, with a writing engraved for a memorial, after the number of the tribes of Israel.

Sir 45:12 He set a crown of gold upon the miter, wherein was engraved Holiness, an ornament of honor, a costly work, the desires of the eyes, goodly and beautiful.

Sir 45:13 Before him there were none such, neither did ever any stranger put them on, but only his children and his children's children perpetually.

Sir 45:14 Their sacrifices shall be wholly consumed every day twice continually.

Sir 45:15 Moses consecrated him, and anointed him with holy oil: this was appointed unto him by an everlasting covenant, and to his seed, so long as the heavens should remain, that they should minister unto him, and execute the office of the priesthood, and bless the people in his name.

Sir 45:16 He chose him out of all men living to offer sacrifices to Yehowah, incense, and a sweet savor, for a memorial, to make reconciliation for his people.

Sir 45:17 He gave unto him his commandments, and authority in the statutes of judgments, that he should teach Jacob the testimonies, and inform Israel in his laws.

Sir 45:18 Strangers conspired together against him, and maligned him in the wilderness, even the men that were of Dathan's and Abiram's side, and the congregation of Core, with fury and wrath.

Sir 45:19 This Yehowah saw, and it displeased him, and in his wrathful indignation were they consumed: he did wonders upon them, to consume them with the fiery flame.

Sir 45:20 But he made Aaron more honorable, and gave him a heritage, and divided unto him the firstfruits of the increase; especially he prepared bread in abundance:

Sir 45:21 For they eat of the sacrifices of Yehowah, which he gave unto him and his seed.

Sir 45:22 Howbeit in the land of the people he had no inheritance, neither had he any portion among the people: for Yehowah himself is his portion and inheritance.

Sir 45:23 The third in glory is Phinehas the son of Eleazar, because he had zeal in the fear of Yehowah, and stood up with good courage of heart: when the people were turned back, and made reconciliation for Israel.

Sir 45:24 Therefore was there a covenant of peace made with him, that he should be the chief of the sanctuary and of his people, and that he and his posterity should have the dignity of the priesthood forever:

Sir 45:25 According to the covenant made with David son of Jesse, of the tribe of Judah, that the inheritance of the king should be to his posterity alone: so the inheritance of Aaron should also be unto his seed.

Sir 45:26 Yehowah give you wisdom in your heart to judge his people in righteousness, that their good things be not abolished, and that their glory may endure forever.

Sir 46:1 Yehoshua the son a Nave was valiant in the wars, and was the successor of Moses in prophecies, who according to his name was made great for the saving of the elect of Yehowah, and taking vengeance of the enemies that rose up against them, that he might set Israel in their inheritance.

Sir 46:2 How great glory got he, when he did lift up his hands, and stretched out his sword against the cities!

Sir 46:3 Who before him so stood to it? for Yehowah himself brought his enemies unto him.

Sir 46:4 Did not the sun go back by his means? and was not one day as long as two?

Sir 46:5 He called upon the most high Lord, when the enemies pressed upon him on every side; and the great Lord heard him.

Sir 46:6 And with hailstones of mighty power he made the battle to fall violently upon the nations, and in the descent [of Beth-horon] he destroyed them that resisted, that the nations might know all their strength, because he fought in the sight of Yehowah, and he followed the Mighty One.

Sir 46:7 In the time of Moses also he did a work of mercy, he and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, in that they withstood the congregation, and withheld the people from sin, and appeased the wicked murmuring.

Sir 46:8 And of six hundred thousand people on foot, they two were preserved to bring them in to the heritage, even unto the land that floweth with milk and honey.

Sir 46:9 Yehowah gave strength also unto Caleb, which remained with him unto his old age: so that he entered upon the high places of the land, and his seed obtained it for a heritage:

Sir 46:10 That all the children of Israel might see that it is good to follow Yehowah.

Sir 46:11 And concerning the judges, every one by name, whose heart went not a whoring, nor departed from Yehowah, let their memory be blessed.

Sir 46:12 Let their bones flourish out of their place, and let the name of them that were honored be continued upon their children.

Sir 46:13 Samuel, the prophet of Yehowah, beloved of his Lord, established a kingdom, and anointed princes over his people.

Sir 46:14 By the law of Yehowah he judged the congregation, and Yehowah had respect unto Jacob.

Sir 46:15 By his faithfulness he was found a true prophet, and by his word he was known to be faithful in vision.

Sir 46:16 He called upon Mighty Yehowah, when his enemies pressed upon him on every side, when he offered the sucking lamb.

Sir 46:17 And Yehowah thundered from heaven, and with a great noise made his voice to be heard.

Sir 46:18 And he destroyed the rulers of the Tyrians, and all the princes cf the Philistines.

Sir 46:19 And before his long sleep he made protestations in the sight of Yehowah and his anointed, I have not taken any man's goods, so much as a shoe: and no man did accuse him.

Sir 46:20 And after his death he prophesied, and shewed the king his end, and lifted up his voice from the earth in prophecy, to blot out the wickedness of the people.

Sir 47:1 And after him rose up Nathan to prophesy in the time of David.

Sir 47:2 As is the fat taken away from the peace offering, so was David chosen out of the children of Israel.

Sir 47:3 He played with lions as with kids, and with bears as with lambs.

Sir 47:4 Slew he not a giant, when he was yet but young? and did he not take away reproach from the people, when he lifted up his hand with the stone in the sling, and beat down the boasting of Goliath?

Sir 47:5 For he called upon the most high Lord; and he gave him strength in his right hand to slay that mighty warrior, and set up the horn of his people.

Sir 47:6 So the people honored him with ten thousands, and praised him in the blessings of Yehowah, in that he gave him a crown of glory.

Sir 47:7 For he destroyed the enemies on every side, and brought to naught the Philistines his adversaries, and brake their horn in sunder unto this day.

Sir 47:8 In all his works he praised the Holy One most high with words of glory; with his whole heart he sung songs, and loved him that made him.

Sir 47:9 He set singers also before the altar, that by their voices they might make sweet melody, and daily sing praises in their songs.

Sir 47:10 He beautified their feasts, and set in order the solemn times until the end, that they might praise his holy name, and that the temple might sound from morning.

Sir 47:11 Yehowah took away his sins, and exalted his horn forever: he gave him a covenant of kings, and a throne of glory in Israel.

Sir 47:12 After him rose up a wise son, and for his sake he dwelt at large.

Sir 47:13 Solomon reigned in a peaceable time, and was honored; for Yehowah made all quiet round about him, that he might build an house in his name, and prepare his sanctuary forever.

Sir 47:14 How wise wast thou in thy youth and, as a flood, filled with understanding!

Sir 47:15 Thy soul covered the whole earth, and thou filledst it with dark parables.

Sir 47:16 Thy name went far unto the islands; and for thy peace thou wast beloved.

Sir 47:17 The countries marveled at thee for thy songs, and proverbs, and parables, and interpretations.

Sir 47:18 By the name of Almighty Yehowah, which is called Yehowah Mighty One of Israel, thou didst gather gold as tin and didst multiply silver as lead.

Sir 47:19 Thou didst bow thy loins unto women, and by thy body thou wast brought into subjection.

Sir 47:20 Thou didst stain thy honor, and pollute thy seed: so that thou broughtest wrath upon thy children, and wast grieved for thy folly.

Sir 47:21 So the kingdom was divided, and out of Ephraim ruled a rebellious kingdom.

Sir 47:22 But Yehowah will never leave off his mercy, neither shall any of his works perish, neither will he abolish the posterity of his elect, and the seed of him that loveth him he will not take away: wherefore he gave a remnant unto Jacob, and out of him a root unto David.

Sir 47:23 Thus rested Solomon with his fathers, and of his seed he left behind him Rehoboam, even the foolishness of the people, and one that had no understanding, who turned away the people through his counsel. There was also Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, and shewed Ephraim the way of sin:

Sir 47:24 And their sins were multiplied exceedingly, that they were driven out of the land.

Sir 47:25 For they sought out all wickedness, till the vengeance came upon them.

Sir 48:1 Then stood up Elijah the prophet as fire, and his word burned like a lamp.

Sir 48:2 He brought a sore famine upon them, and by his zeal he diminished their number.

Sir 48:3 By the word of Yehowah he shut up the heaven, and also three times brought down fire.

Sir 48:4 O Elijah, how wast thou honored in thy wondrous deeds! and who may glory like unto thee!

Sir 48:5 Who didst raise up a dead man from death, and his soul from the place of the dead, by the word of the Most High:

Sir 48:6 Who broughtest kings to destruction, and honorable men from their bed:

Sir 48:7 Who heardest the rebuke of Yehowah in Sinai, and in Horeb the judgment of vengeance:

Sir 48:8 Who annointedst kings to take revenge, and prophets to succeed after him:

Sir 48:9 Who was taken up in a whirlwind of fire, and in a chariot of fiery horses:

Sir 48:10 Who wast ordained for reproofs in their times, to pacify the wrath of Yehowah's judgment, before it brake forth into fury, and to turn the heart of the father unto the son, and to restore the tribes of Jacob.

Sir 48:11 Blessed are they that saw thee, and slept in love; for we shall surely live.

Sir 48:12 Elijah it was, who was covered with a whirlwind: and Elisha was filled with his spirit: whilst he lived, he was not moved with the presence of any prince, neither could any bring him into subjection.

Sir 48:13 No word could overcome him; and after his death his body prophesied.

Sir 48:14 He did wonders in his life, and at his death were his works marvelous.

Sir 48:15 For all this the people repented not, neither departed they from their sins, till they were spoiled and carried out of their land, and were scattered through all the earth: yet there remained a small people, and a ruler in the house of David:

Sir 48:16 Of whom some did that which was pleasing to Yehowah, and some multiplied sins.

Sir 48:17 Hezekiah fortified his city, and brought in water into the midst thereof: he digged the hard rock with iron, and made wells for waters.

Sir 48:18 In his time Sennacherib came up, and sent Rabshakeh, and lifted up his hand against Zion, and boasted proudly.

Sir 48:19 Then trembled their hearts and hands, and they were in pain, as women in travail.

Sir 48:20 But they called upon Yehowah which is merciful, and stretched out their hands toward him: and immediately the Holy One heard them out of heaven, and delivered them by the ministry of Isaiah.

Sir 48:21 He smote the host of the Assyrians, and his angel destroyed them.

Sir 48:22 For Hezekiah had done the thing that pleased Yehowah, and was strong in the ways of David his father, as Isaiah the prophet, who was great and faithful in his vision, had commanded him.

Sir 48:23 In his time the sun went backward, and he lengthened the king's life.

Sir 48:24 He saw by an excellent spirit what should come to pass at the last, and he comforted them that mourned in Zion.

Sir 48:25 He shewed what should come to pass forever, and secret things or ever they came.

Sir 49:1 The remembrance of Josiah is like the composition of the perfume that is made by the art of the apothecary: it is sweet as honey in all mouths, and as music at a banquet of wine.

Sir 49:2 He behaved himself uprightly in the conversion of the people, and took away the abominations of iniquity.

Sir 49:3 He directed his heart unto Yehowah, and in the time of the irreverent he established the worship of Yehowah.

Sir 49:4 All, except David and Hezekiah and Josiah, were defective: for they forsook the law of the Most High, even the kings of Judah failed.

Sir 49:5 Therefore he gave their power unto others, and their glory to a foreign nation.

Sir 49:6 They burnt the chosen city of the sanctuary, and made the streets desolate, according to the prophecy of Jeremiah.

Sir 49:7 For they treated him evil, who nevertheless was a prophet, sanctified in his mother's womb, that he might root out, and afflict, and destroy; and that he might build up also, and plant.

Sir 49:8 It was Ezekiel who saw the glorious vision, which was shewed him upon the chariot of the cherubims.

Sir 49:9 For he made mention of the enemies under the figure of the rain, and directed them that went right.

Sir 49:10 And of the twelve prophets let the memorial be blessed, and let their bones flourish again out of their place: for they comforted Jacob, and delivered them by assured hope.

Sir 49:11 How shall we magnify Zerubbabel? even he was as a signet on the right hand:

Sir 49:12 So was Yehoshua the son of Josedec: who in their time builded the house, and set up a holy temple to Yehowah, which was prepared for everlasting glory.

Sir 49:13 And among the elect was Nehemiah, whose renown is great, who raised up for us the walls that were fallen, and set up the gates and the bars, and raised up our ruins again.

Sir 49:14 But upon the earth was no man created like Enoch; for he was taken from the earth.

Sir 49:15 Neither was there a young man born like Joseph, a governor of his brethren, a stay of the people, whose bones were regarded of Yehowah.

Sir 49:16 Shem and Seth were in great honor among men, and so was Adam above every living thing in creation.

Sir 50:1 Simon the high priest, the son of Onias, who in his life repaired the house again, and in his days fortified the temple:

Sir 50:2 And by him was built from the foundation the double height, the high fortress of the wall about the temple:

Sir 50:3 In his days the cistern to receive water, being in compass as the sea, was covered with plates of brass:

Sir 50:4 He took care of the temple that it should not fall, and fortified the city against besieging:

Sir 50:5 How was he honored in the midst of the people in his coming out of the sanctuary!

Sir 50:6 He was as the morning star in the midst of a cloud, and as the moon at the full:

Sir 50:7 As the sun shining upon the temple of the Most High, and as the rainbow giving light in the bright clouds:

Sir 50:8 And as the flower of roses in the spring of the year, as lilies by the rivers of waters, and as the branches of the frankincense tree in the time of summer:

Sir 50:9 As fire and incense in the censer, and as a vessel of beaten gold set with all manner of precious stones:

Sir 50:10 And as a fair olive tree budding forth fruit, and as a cypress tree which groweth up to the clouds.

Sir 50:11 When he put on the robe of honor, and was clothed with the perfection of glory, when he went up to the holy altar, he made the garment of holiness honorable.

Sir 50:12 When he took the portions out of the priests' hands, he himself stood by the hearth of the altar, compassed about, as a young cedar in Libanus; and as palm trees compassed they him round about.

Sir 50:13 So were all the sons of Aaron in their glory, and the oblations of Yehowah in their hands, before all the congregation of Israel.

Sir 50:14 And finishing the service at the altar, that he might adorn the offering of the Most High Almighty,

Sir 50:15 He stretched out his hand to the cup, and poured of the blood of the grape, he poured out at the foot of the altar a sweet smelling savor unto the most high King of all.

Sir 50:16 Then shouted the sons of Aaron, and sounded the silver trumpets, and made a great noise to be heard, for a remembrance before the Most High.

Sir 50:17 Then all the people together hasted, and fell down to the earth upon their faces to worship their Lord Yehowah Almighty, the Most High.

Sir 50:18 The singers also sang praises with their voices, with great variety of sounds was there made sweet melody.

Sir 50:19 And the people besought Yehowah, the Most High, by prayer before him that is merciful, till the solemnity of Yehowah was ended, and they had finished his service.

Sir 50:20 Then he went down, and lifted up his hands over the whole congregation of the children of Israel, to give the blessing of Yehowah with his lips, and to rejoice in his name.

Sir 50:21 And they bowed themselves down to worship the second time, that they might receive a blessing from the Most High.

Sir 50:22 Now therefore bless ye the Mighty One of all, which only doeth wondrous things everywhere, which exalteth our days from the womb, and dealeth with us according to his mercy.

Sir 50:23 He grant us joyfulness of heart, and that peace may be in our days in Israel forever:

Sir 50:24 That he would confirm his mercy with us, and deliver us at his time!

Sir 50:25 There be two manner of nations which my heart abhorreth, and the third is no nation:

Sir 50:26 They that sit upon the mountain of Samaria, and they that dwell among the Philistines, and that foolish people that dwell in Sichem.

Sir 50:27 Yehoshua the son of Sirach of Jerusalem hath written in this book the instruction of understanding and knowledge, who out of his heart poured forth wisdom.

Sir 50:28 Blessed is he that shall be exercised in these things; and he that layeth them up in his heart shall become wise.

Sir 50:29 For if he do them, he shall be strong to all things: for the light of Yehowah leadeth him, who giveth wisdom to the reverent. Blessed be the name of Yehowah forever. Amen, Amen.

Sir 51:1 I will thank thee, O Yehowah and King, and praise thee, O Yehowah my Savior: I do give praise unto thy name:

Sir 51:2 For thou art my defender and helper, and has preserved my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and has been mine helper against mine adversaries:

Sir 51:3 And hast delivered me, according to the multitude of they mercies and greatness of thy name, from the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had;

Sir 51:4 From the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not;

Sir 51:5 From the depth of the belly of hell, from an unclean tongue, and from lying words.

Sir 51:6 By an accusation to the king from an unrighteous tongue my soul drew near even unto death, my life was near to the hell beneath.

Sir 51:7 They compassed me on every side, and there was no man to help me: I looked for the succor of men, but there was none.

Sir 51:8 Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Yehowah, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest such as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hands of the enemies.

Sir 51:9 Then lifted I up my supplications from the earth, and prayed for deliverance from death.

Sir 51:10 I called upon Yehowah, the Father of my Lord, that he would not leave me in the days of my trouble, and in the time of the proud, when there was no help.

Sir 51:11 I will praise thy name continually, and will sing praises with thanksgiving; and so my prayer was heard:

Sir 51:12 For thou savedst me from destruction, and deliveredst me from the evil time: therefore will I give thanks, and praise thee, and bless they name, O Yehowah.

Sir 51:13 When I was yet young, or ever I went abroad, I desired wisdom openly in my prayer.

Sir 51:14 I prayed for her before the temple, and will seek her out even to the end.

Sir 51:15 Even from the flower till the grape was ripe hath my heart delighted in her: my foot went the right way, from my youth up sought I after her.

Sir 51:16 I bowed down mine ear a little, and received her, and got much learning.

Sir 51:17 I profited therein, therefore will I ascribe glory unto him that giveth me wisdom.

Sir 51:18 For I purposed to do after her, and earnestly I followed that which is good; so shall I not be confounded.

Sir 51:19 My soul hath wrestled with her, and in my doings I was exact: I stretched forth my hands to the heaven above, and bewailed my ignorances of her.

Sir 51:20 I directed my soul unto her, and I found her in pureness: I have had my heart joined with her from the beginning, therefore shall I not be foresaken.

Sir 51:21 My heart was troubled in seeking her: therefore have I gotten a good possession.

Sir 51:22 Yehowah hath given me a tongue for my reward, and I will praise him therewith.

Sir 51:23 Draw near unto me, ye unlearned, and dwell in the house of learning.

Sir 51:24 Wherefore are ye slow, and what say ye to these things, seeing your souls are very thirsty?

Sir 51:25 I opened my mouth, and said, Buy her for yourselves without money.

Sir 51:26 Put your neck under the yoke, and let your soul receive instruction: she is hard at hand to find.

Sir 51:27 Behold with your eyes, how that I have but little labor, and have gotten unto me much rest.

Sir 51:28 Get learning with a great sum of money, and get much gold by her.

Sir 51:29 Let your soul rejoice in his mercy, and be not ashamed of his praise.

Sir 51:30 Work your work betimes, and in his time he will give you your reward.

Book of Isaiah

Isa 1:1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Isa 1:2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for Yehowah hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

Isa 1:3 The ox knoweth his owner, and the donkey his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

Isa 1:4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken Yehowah, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

Isa 1:5 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

Isa 1:6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither softened with ointment.

Isa 1:7 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

Isa 1:8 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

Isa 1:9 Except Yehowah of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

Isa 1:10 Hear the word of Yehowah, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our Divine One, ye people of Gomorrah.

Isa 1:11 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith Yehowah: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats.

Isa 1:12 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

Isa 1:13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new months and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot endure; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

Isa 1:14 Your new months and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

Isa 1:15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Isa 1:16 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;

Isa 1:17 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

Isa 1:18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith Yehowah: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Isa 1:19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

Isa 1:20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of Yehowah hath spoken it.

Isa 1:21 How is the faithful city become a harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

Isa 1:22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

Isa 1:23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Isa 1:24 Therefore saith the Lord, Yehowah of hosts, Strong One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

Isa 1:25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

Isa 1:26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counselors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

Isa 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

Isa 1:28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake Yehowah shall be consumed.

Isa 1:29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

Isa 1:30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

Isa 1:31 And the strong shall be as chaff, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

Isa 2:1 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Isa 2:2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of Yehowah's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

Isa 2:3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Yehowah, to the house of the Mighty One of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Yehowah from Jerusalem.

Isa 2:4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

Isa 2:5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of Yehowah.

Isa 2:6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

Isa 2:7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

Isa 2:8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

Isa 2:9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

Isa 2:10 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of Yehowah, and for the glory of his majesty.

Isa 2:11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and Yehowah alone shall be exalted in that day.

Isa 2:12 For the day of Yehowah of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

Isa 2:13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

Isa 2:14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

Isa 2:15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

Isa 2:16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

Isa 2:17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and Yehowah alone shall be exalted in that day.

Isa 2:18 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

Isa 2:19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of Yehowah, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

Isa 2:20 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

Isa 2:21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of Yehowah, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

Isa 2:22 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

Isa 3:1 For, behold, the Lord, Yehowah of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

Isa 3:2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,

Isa 3:3 The captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the counselor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.

Isa 3:4 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

Isa 3:5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor. The child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honorable.

Isa 3:6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand.

Isa 3:7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing. Make me not a ruler of the people.

Isa 3:8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen, because their tongue and their doings are against Yehowah, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

Isa 3:9 The show of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! For they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

Isa 3:10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him, for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

Isa 3:11 Woe unto the wicked! It shall be ill with him, for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Isa 3:12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

Isa 3:13 Yehowah standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

Isa 3:14 Yehowah will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

Isa 3:15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith Lord Yehowah of hosts.

Isa 3:16 Moreover Yehowah saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet.

Isa 3:17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and Yehowah will discover their secret parts.

Isa 3:18 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their hair nets, and their crescent pendants,

Isa 3:19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the veils,

Isa 3:20 The head-gear, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings,

Isa 3:21 The rings, and nose jewels,

Isa 3:22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the cloaks, and the hand bags,

Isa 3:23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the veils.

Isa 3:24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a mantle a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

Isa 3:25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

Isa 3:26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground.

Isa 4:1 And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: Only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

Isa 4:2 In that day shall the branch of Yehowah be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

Isa 4:3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem.

Isa 4:4 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the Ruach of judgment, and by the Ruach of burning.

Isa 4:5 And Yehowah will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: For upon all the glory shall be a defense.

Isa 4:6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a cover from storm and from rain.

Isa 5:1 Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill.

Isa 5:2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein. And he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

Isa 5:3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

Isa 5:4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? Wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

Isa 5:5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down.

Isa 5:6 And I will lay it waste. It shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns. I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

Isa 5:7 For the vineyard of Yehowah of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant. And he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

Isa 5:8 Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

Isa 5:9 In mine ears said Yehowah of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

Isa 5:10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of a homer shall yield an ephah.

Isa 5:11 Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow beer; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

Isa 5:12 And the harp, and the viol, the tambourine, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts. But they regard not the work of Yehowah, neither consider the operation of his hands.

Isa 5:13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge. And their honorable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

Isa 5:14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: And their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

Isa 5:15 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.

Isa 5:16 But Yehowah of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and the Almighty that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

Isa 5:17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.

Isa 5:18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope.

Isa 5:19 That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

Isa 5:20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

Isa 5:21 Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

Isa 5:22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle beer.

Isa 5:23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

Isa 5:24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust, because they have cast away the law of Yehowah of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 5:25 Therefore is the anger of Yehowah kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: And the hills did tremble, and their carcasses were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

Isa 5:26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will whistle unto them from the end of the earth, and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

Isa 5:27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken.

Isa 5:28 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

Isa 5:29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions. Yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

Isa 5:30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea. And if one look unto the land behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

Isa 6:1 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

Isa 6:2 Above it stood the seraphims: Each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

Isa 6:3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is Yehowah of hosts: The whole earth is full of his glory.

Isa 6:4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

Isa 6:5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips. For mine eyes have seen the King, Yehowah of hosts.

Isa 6:6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar.

Isa 6:7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

Isa 6:8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

Isa 6:9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

Isa 6:10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

Isa 6:11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

Isa 6:12 And Yehowah have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

Isa 6:13 But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten. As a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves. So the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

Isa 7:1 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.
